Slate First Meeting Of Relations Board

The Plymouth Community's new Human Relations Commission, appointed a week ago by the City Commission, Mayor Richard Wernette and the Plymouth Township and Canton Township Boards, will hold its first meeting on Thursday, Dec. 12 in the Commission Chambers at the Plymouth City Hall.

That was the announcement of Chairman Carroll Munshaw of Plymouth, in issuing the first call to the Commissioners.

"This will be an exploratory meeting," said Munshaw in telling of the plans. "I have sent a letter to each member of the Commission asking him to think about the purposes of this board and to come to the session prepared to make recommendations for our future course."

The 12 members of the Commission, approved a week ago by the various governmental units, include: Munshaw, Rev. John Miller and Rev. Fr. Alfred Renaud, from the Ministerial Association; John Campbell, Plymouth High Student Council; John Herb, Chamber of Commerce; Dr. William Covington and Dr. Gerald Fitch, from the community service clubs; Patrick Butler and Paul Kauffman, representing the City; Raymond Arnold and Maurice Breen, representing Plymouth Township and Westwood, representing Canton Township.

Canton Township's Board is expected to make its second representative and the last and 13th member of the Commission within a few days.

IN OBSERVER TURKEY CONTEST

18 Pluck Birds Early

Eighteen residents of the Plymouth Community won't have to worry about turkeys for Thanksgiving Day — they were winners of 14-pound birds in the Turkey Contest conducted by the Plymouth Observer.

The lucky winners were announced Saturday evening shortly after 6 p.m. at each of the participating stores.

Among the list was Mrs. Richard Wernette, 377 Adams, wife of Plymouth's Mayor who entered at the Sherwin-Williams store and was declared the winner there.

The contest was one of the most successful ever staged in the community and found more than 2,000 filing entry blanks with a total of 643 at the Kroger's store.

The winners, each of whom has been notified by the participating store manager to drop in and pick up, the certificate for the bird, include:

Marge Winkler, 15570 Bradner, Kroger's; Barbara Pyle, 8543 Canton Center, Minerva's; Hazel Berry, 1287 S. Main, D&C Store; Bruce Mackie, 350 McKinley, Schrader's Home Furnishings; E. Robertson, 230 Parkview, Fisher's Shoe Store; Mrs. Wernette, 377 Adams, Sherwin-Williams.

Mrs. A. J. Pint, 42445 Schoolcraft, Willoughby's Shoes; M. Aluia, 288 Ann, Davis & Lent; M. A. Arnold, 1311 Williams, Kresge's; Mabel Bacon, 190 N. Main, Blufford's; Nancy Woodard, 687 Herald; Kade's; David Mohrhardt, 42314 Hamill Lane, Photographic Center.

3 Issues Pass; Only 1,945 At Polls

Plymouth Voters Approve Renewal Of School Levies

Although the events surrounding the assassination and rites for President John F. Kennedy held voter interest to the lowest level in several years, Plymouth community electors overwhelmingly approved the three proposals in the special school election Monday.

The two millage proposals

—3.5 for operation and 4.5 for building and site fund—received almost a 5-1 favorable vote of the 1,945 casting ballots.

That total is slightly more than 17 per cent of the more than 11,000 registered voters in the community and far below the 33 per cent anticipated by School Supt. Russell

Isbister.

"We were fearful of the effect of the Kennedy funeral on the turnout," he said. "The School Board had thoughts of delaying the election for a day or so but received a legal opinion that a postponement would be for 45 days and that we didn't want at all.

"There was very little action at the four precincts during the rites, so little that we allowed one or two of the workers at each place to take time off to view the television. But the tempo picked up considerably in the late afternoon and early evening and kept the machines busy.

"We are very happy with the outcome and feel that it reflects a great deal of work on the part of the various Parent-Teacher Organizations and by the individual members of the Board who devoted all of their spare time in the past month to explaining the need for the renewal of the two millage proposals."

No. 1 proposal—a 3.5 mill renewal for operating—passed 1,546 to 382. The levy, which was boosted by .5 this time, is a renewal of a 3 mill issue that passed in 1959 for a five-year period. It expires with the tax collections in December, 1963.

No. 2 proposal—a 4.5 mill renewal for building and site funds—received a favorable vote of 1,488 yes and 424 no. It represents a reduction of .5 mills from the 5 mill levy

32 Breaks In Water Line Strengthen Reservoir Case

Although a test Saturday was for the purpose of determining whether a 125-HP pump, rated at 2500-gallons per minute could keep up the city's demand for water, members of the Plymouth Commission believe the results indicate that there is a need for the new proposed reservoir at the Beck Road well field.

They reached this conclusion after the tests resulted in the breakdown of 29 service lines at residences and three water mains during the period from 10:45 a.m. to 2:40 p.m.

Supt. Joseph Bida, of the Department of Public Works, pointed out that practically all of the broken service lines were of the old galvanized pipe installed in the early '20s.

"None of the broken lines was new," he said. "All damage was apparently due to the sudden shift in pressure, which the pipes couldn't take. This is something that we feel could be avoided by construction of the reservoir since we believe we could maintain a steady pressure at all times with that facility."

As it was, workers for the DPW were busy all afternoon and early evening on Saturday and throughout the day and night Sunday making repairs.

"We shut off the water tower and all pumps at Beck Road during the test," Bida said. "And turned on the Six-Mile Road well field to check the various wells there and also to see what the draw down would be.

"We also wanted to note what change had taken place in the water table from the time the wells were put in to the present time. We were making pressure tests at various locations during the three-hour period."

Bida indicated that the recording equipment showed the system pumped 1,278,000 gallons and that the pressures varied from 78 pounds at the City Hall to 47 pounds at Beck Road with a maximum of 70 pounds at S. Harvey and Ann Arbor Roads, 68 at Mill Street, 68 at Starkweather, 59 upstream and 48 downstream at Goldsmith station, 52 at the Mayflower Hotel, 52 at Western Electric according to their gauge, and 55 at Six Mile Road.

All of which is interesting news for the Commissioners who are in the process of deciding to approve construction of the reservoir, regardless of whether the matter of buying Detroit water is approved or rejected in the future.

FACTS and OPINIONS

by Paul Chandler

"Silence that dreadful bell!" shouts one of Shakespeare's characters in a tragic play.

And that is the mood of this somber observer today . . . silence it if we can, for the bell tolls, we fear, for thee and me.

America has been going to Hell for a long time; slowly by some standards, but surely.

Hate is in the engine room, stoking our fires, churning and energizing the scarlet ship of national scandal.

The plastic shapes of our people, capable of so much else noble and better, for years have been changing into craven forms, barren of humane thoughts, void of love, numbed by hate and sensuality and self-indulgence.

America has been losing its soul, the only thing that elevates men toward Heaven and away from Hell.

In offering these thoughts today, I am thinking of our own particular suburban audience — of Livonia, Plymouth, Nankin, Northville, Canton, Redford. It isn't some distant "them" who are guilty, it is us; the problem isn't abstract, it is personal to thee and me.

There is Hate in the suburbs, more intense in some ways that it can be found anywhere else in America.

There is debauchery in our suburban towns, more pronounced in some ways than anywhere else in Michigan.

There are strange and broken, snarling and snapping, horror-filled homes in our suburban areas, in greater numbers possibly than any comparable geographic place in our State.

Our suburban homes are jammed with children—half the population in school, or younger—growing up with no better goal or objective than the futile attempt to accumulate the maximum amount of material goods, and then to spend these "riches" in sensual permissiveness.

To an uncommon degree, suburbanites particularly live among hate peddlers, get-rich-quick guys, hedonists, fascists, and intellectual cheats.

There was a paragraph in Justice Warren's remarks over President Kennedy's bier which brought into mind so many local politicians and an infamous local tabloid newspaper:

"Is it too much to hope," asked Warren, "that the martyrdom of our beloved President might even soften the hearts of those who would themselves recoil from assassination but who do not shrink from spreading the venom which kindles thought of it in others?"

PHS Band Surprises Director

"Twas a happy birthday for Plymouth High Band Director James Griffith last week—members of the band saw to that.

Griffith was getting ready to supervise the bandmen through a difficult number when they suddenly broke out singing "Happy Birthday."

That ended the work for a short time during which officers of the group presented Director Griffith with a wrist watch.

Then back to work perfecting numbers for future performances and for the annual state competition after the first of the year.

The bandmen are busy with plans for the annual candy sale on Saturday, Dec. 7 when will make house-to-house calls and sell on downtown business section street corners.

All proceeds of the sale are used to help defray the expenses of the annual 10-day session at the Interlochen Music Camp where the musicians sharpen up for their marching appearances at the football games.

Council Sets Policy On URA Sales

Acting in accordance with the provisions of the grant from the Federal Government for the Urban Renewal project on Mill Street, the Plymouth City Commission set ground rule for sale of the acreage in its special meeting Monday.

The Commissioners were told by City Manager Albert Glassford, who also is director of the project, and his consultant, "Pop" Stamm, that the land can't be sold to a buyer as an investment.

The purchaser must state the reason for the purchase at the time of the same and must sign a contract providing for expansion of a business or for construction of a new building.

The contract also provides that the buyer has a limit of six months to erect a small building and no more than a year for a larger structure. In case, he defaults on the contract, then he forfeits all monies paid and any right to the land.

The Commission decided that the land must have something on it equal to the value of the building's base, roughly $70,000 in tax base. Something that will return to the city in taxes the full amount of its investment ($63,000) over a 10-year period.

Glassford told the Commission that Bathey Manufacturing, Stahl Manufacturing and Ossie's Welding had manifested interest in purchase.

Plymouth-Livonia Area Sitting Atop Rich Oil Field?

Is the eastern section of the Plymouth Community, including land within the city and in the township, and the western end of Livonia sitting on a rich oil field?

That's the question to which engineers of the Peake Petroleum Co., a wholly owned subsidiary of the C&O Railroad, are seeking the answer.

That's why oil drilling rigs have suddenly appeared in the parts of Plymouth and Livonia with the result that at the moment there are six wells producing oil and gas at the moment.

Matter of fact, John Rudnicki, Peake's chief engineer in charge of the well drilling operations who headquarters out of Cleveland, O., has a definite feeling that there is hope for developing an oil field in the area.

He's backing that hope with plans for drilling six more wells in the area within the next six months to a year.

"We have more hopes for this area now than we did six months ago," he reported in an interview a few days ago. "Our luck is better now than it was then.

Matter of fact, we have had only two dry wells in nine tries and six are producing oil and gas.

"However, at this time, I would have to say that we are a bit confused as to the productivity of the Plymouth-Livonia field. We have made rather important strikes on a couple of occasions and then follow with a well that is anything but promising. That's why we have to admit that we are confused."

But, Rudnicki quickly pointed out, the company has plans on the boards for six more wells and probably will have the rigs set up for at least two within another two or three weeks.

The newest well was drilled behind the Dunn Steel Co. It is tabbed as No. 6 and Rudnicki believes it will develop into a good producer.

Peake has two other operations in Michigan, the Sanford field near Midland and that at West Beaverton in Gladwin County.

"We can't honestly say that anyone is getting rich from the wells in the Plymouth-Livonia section," he smiled. "But there are several hundred property owners receiving small royalty checks during the course of a year.

Before Peake even considers drilling, it sends Ralph Dodds, the company's chief lease agent, to the section to first lease 20 acres surrounding the location of the proposed well.

After that chore is finished, Dodds starts all over again and attempts to secure leases for all land in a 160-acre square around the site.

Each of the property owners is entitled to appropriate share of the royalties, should the well become a producer. The leases provide that a royalty amounting to one-eighth of the production, whether oil or gas, will be paid—divided among all signing leases.

"At the moment, our wells in this section are producing 40 million cubic feet of gas monthly and between 2,300 and 3,000 barrels of oil," Rudnicki stated.

Consumers Power has been designated as the agency handling the gas production and the oil is sold to the Osceola Pipe Line Company, of Mt. Pleasant.

Oil drilling doesn't come cheap. Rudnicki estimates the cost of each well at between $60,000 and $75,000—and that means a total loss for a dry run.

The oilmen generally go down 4,400 feet before determining whether a well is dry or productive.

Peake's operations are not limited to Michigan. The company, which is manned by a comparatively young staff of 35 with an average age of 35-years, has some 275 wells in production or being drilled in Michigan, West Virginia, Illinois, Ohio, Oklahoma and Wyoming. At the moment, the greatest production is from West Virginia where the company has the most wells. Rudnicki hopes that Michigan, Illinois, and Wyoming will be developed into excellent fields within a short time.

DPW News And Notes In Plymouth

By SUPT. JOSEPH BIDA
Dept. Public Works
Christmas decorating has been going on at Kellogg Park this week. The decorations are being set up but will not be lighted until later.

The parking lot and the residential sections have been swept. It was necessary to replace a fire hydrant across the road from the Burroughs plant. This was damaged as the result of an accident.

Sanitary sewers were checked on Roe Street, Mill Street and Garling Subdivision No. 1. Junction and Farmer Streets were graded and graveled where necessary.

A 6" Sanitary Sewer and an 8" Storm Sewer Tap was installed at 800 Junction Sewer. So far results from treatment of adding phosphate to our water called Multi Prep No. 1004 shows we are having very good results. Many water customers have said "The water is much better."

I must say at this time that I am very pleased with the results. However, I also realize that time will tell.

I must also state that we have not flushed hydrants and are still not having any problems. I would also like to say at this time that we would like to know if anyone DOES get any rust, please feel free to call us. This is our job to check it out.

New Kiwanis Club Forming

Livonia's second Kiwanis Club—this one to meet at noon—is forming and will hold a Charter-delivery meeting in the near future. Gordon Priest said today.

The club will be known as Kiwanis Club of Livonia Central. It will meet weekly at Pandora's at 12 noon. The first Livonia Kiwanis meets on Wednesday evenings at Encore Restaurant, Wonderland Center.

A men's service club with branches all over the world, Kiwanis operates under the motto, "We Build." Its service to the community places heavy stress on youth activities and vocational guidance.

Livonian Is Honored For Insurance Sales

Theodore Benson, 38260 Morningstar Drive, Livonia, placed among the top 10 leading field underwriters in the nationwide organization of the Home Life Insurance Co. for his life insurance sales in October.

Benson, who joined Home Life in 1949, is associated with the company's Detroit agency, manager by Arthur Sutherland. He is a member of the 1961 Million Dollar Round Table.

Benson is a graduate of Wayne State University and has served as a director of the Detroit Life Underwriters Association and the Detroit Chapter of Chartered Life Underwriters.

In and Around Plymouth Town

By DOROTHY FINNEY

When I was reading last week's column after it was in print I noticed that in listing the type of news covered by the column I had left out our youngest citizens. So please write me at 325 Arthur or phone GL 3-6160 for publication of births. Please give the baby's name, weight, place of birth, names of parents and grandparents, number of brothers and sisters and any other information you think might be of interest to our readers.

DID YOU KNOW THAT . . . There are over 300,000 emotionally disturbed children in Michigan alone? And that you can give them a small measure of help by buying your Christmas cards from the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children?

I'm particularly interested in these cards because I saw the original drawing made by an 11-year old emotionally disturbed child which was later used on their first card. In early 1960 one of the doctors from Hawthorn Center had stopped in Mr. Chandler's office for a quotation on printing these cards, with the drawing reproduced in six colors. We lacked the equipment for this kind of color work; however the card did appear that Christmas—a somewhat crudely drawn nativity scene made with crayons.

These cards are available in Plymouth only at Minerva's (across from the post office) who for the past four years has tried to beat her previous sales record. Last year she sold over 100 boxes for the MAEDC. Minerva has the cards displayed in her store window; they are 10 for $1.

My thanks to the very busy switchboard operator at Hawthorn Center, also to Miss Eddy, secretary to Dr. Rabinovitch and Mrs. Peg VanHook who furnished me with much of this information. And it was nice to visit again with Mrs. Gladys Sutfin, of Maple St. who is a bookkeeper at the Centex.

JAMES VANGIESON, of Bruce St. with his father and uncle of Jackson left Nov. 7 for a hunting trip to Wakefield, in the Upper Peninsula. His uncle shot a young buck his first day out, while Jim bagged a 9-point, 185-lb. buck the fourth day. He arrived back in Plymouth Nov. 13 and caused quite a stir among the younger set when he drove his son Kirk to nursery school with the deer still on his car. Do you know any Plymouth area hunters who may have bagged their deer before Jim? I understand the hunting season opens one week earlier in the Upper Peninsula.

Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Fitch of Lakeside Drive returned recently from a trip to Benton, Ill. where Dr. Fitch lectured before the Southeast Illinois Earth Science Club.

more familiarly known as the "Shawnee Rockhounds." Dr. Fitch also showed movies and slides of Mexico and an exhibit of Mexican pottery, leather goods, jewelry and rugs. The Fitches, who usually travel in their Piper Tri-Pacer, made this trip by car.

They have made eight trips to Mexico and visited 17 archaeological sites throughout the Mexican States, many of them being in Yucatan. The meeting was attended by nearly 100 members and both Dr. and Mrs. Fitch were given memberships in the club. Mike Fowler, nationally known archaeologist now conducting a series of excavations in Mexico for the University of Illinois, was also in attendance.

The Study Club held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Cecilia Roehle of Berwick St., Livonia last Wednesday. The group voted to make a contribution to a local organization to be used toward the purchase of gifts for needy children, with Mrs. Elinor Graham and Mrs. Betty Mende making the selections. Plans were made for the annual Christmas party and names were drawn for the gift exchange.

Mrs. Effie Kuisel, who is in charge of the program, gave an interesting account of her recent California vacation.

The Rotary Anns of Plymouth were the guests last Tuesday of the Wayne Rotary Anns at a luncheon meeting held at the center of the Easter Seal Society of W. W. County in Inkster. Eighteen members from Plymouth and 20 from Wayne attended the meeting to hear Mrs. Jane Devereaux, executive secretary of the center, tell of some of their work with crippled children and to see some of the children engaged in handicraft work.

The Rotary Anns of Plymouth also sponsor the sale of articles made by the handicapped, which will be coming up soon. Two local members won prizes: Mrs. Norma Van Gieson the centerpiece and Mrs. Wanda Finney the door prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wuelner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Malley and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Walters, all of Columbus, O., flew into Willow Run Airport last Thursday with Mr. Wuelner piloting his twin-engine plane. The group stayed at the Howard Johnson Motor Lodge near the airport where they were joined Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mills of Plymouth.

On Saturday the four couples had planned to attend the Ohio-Michigan game at Ann Arbor, but after the cancellation of the game late Friday they spent the day with the Mills at their home on Arthur St. Attendance at this game has become a yearly event for these couples, with Mary and Bob traveling to Columbus when the game is played there.

Other guests in the Mills home Saturday evening were 12 couples, friends of daughter Kathy, who gathered there for a buffet supper after the J-Hop.

The Garden Club of Plymouth, a branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, along with neighboring branches, will present a Christmas Market on Saturday, Dec. 7 at the Northville Community Building on W. Main St. in Northville.

The market will feature gifts, ideas and demonstrations and will be open from 10:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Luncheon will be available too if anyone wants to browse all day. The Garden Club members have been busy for weeks working on the gifts that will be offered for sale.

The workshop on egg decoration has been meeting every Tuesday and Wednesday for two months. Another group has been meeting with Mrs. Russell Isbister to learn the Swedish craft of working with straw and have produced some very unusual straw novelties.

DISPLAYING some of the items that will be sold at the Holiday Mart, sponsored by the Women's Association of St. John's Episcopal Church, are: (from left) Mrs. Raymond Cusato, Mrs. John Kwetcher and Mrs. Warren Dusbiber. The Mart, featuring gifts of all types, will be held in the Parish Hall on Wednesday, Dec. 4 from noon to 8 p.m.

IN ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Plan Yule Mart On Dec. 4

A holiday mart, featuring gifts of all types, will be sponsored by the Women's Association of St. John's Episcopal Church in the parish hall on Wednesday, Dec. 4 from noon to 8 p.m.

If you're interested in hand-knit mittens, aprons, casserole covers, fresh green center pieces, homemade candy, home made baked goods, then drop off at the hall some time during the afternoon or evening. The mart will include special Christmas articles such as personalized Yule tree ornaments, a children's booth stocked with inexpensive gifts for youngsters to buy presents and a children's "white elephant" booth with used toys, books and other items.

Tea and cookies will be served throughout the day. The mart is in charge of co-chairmen Mrs. Raymond Cusato and Mrs. John Kwetcher.

Other chairmen include: tea room, Mrs. Chester Teasel and Mrs. Gilbert McLachlin; children's booth, Mrs. Dorothy Fricke; bakery, Mrs. Bernard Sellman; gift shop, Mrs. James Randall; greens booth, Mrs. Henry Lentz and Mrs. Sidney Strong; aprons, Mrs. Ralph Taylor; precious junque, Mrs. Jack Penland and Mrs. Warren Dusbiber; invitations, Mrs. Lewis Goddard; Mrs. Ruth Roundsville, cashier; religious table, Mrs. Stanley Kane; and candy booth, Mrs. Robert Willoughby.

Mrs. Roy Shrumm and her son, Roy, will display and demonstrate a knitting machine during the mart.

approved in 1960 which expires with the tax collection in December, 1964.

The total of 8 mills is exactly the same as the levies previously approved with the exception that the distribution was changed by .5 mills in each.

No. 3 proposal, which sought approval of property owners for authority to make short term loans against building and site monies thus enabling facilities to be constructed as needed, received a yes vote 1,339 against 476 nos.

Precinct 1, at the senior high school, attracted the largest number of voters with 696 casting ballots. The totals for the other precincts were: No. 2, Gallimore School, 424; No. 3, Plymouth Township Hall, 290; and No. 4, Starkweather School, 535.

The voting followed much the same pattern with the millage proposals receiving the most favorable action at the high school where 569 approved the operating levy and 552 the building and site fund.

Starkweather voters cast 434 yes ballots for the operating and 421 for the building and site proposals.

Of the total of 1,945 votes, 1,928 were cast on Proposal 1; 1,912 on Proposal 2; and 1,815 on Proposal 3.

The appraised disposal price of the land, as set by the federal government experts, is $7,276 per acre which Glassford and Stamm will ask from each prospective buyer.

In other actions, the Commission studied and approved a new, modern system of accounting for the City, and passed a resolution requesting the State Highway Department and the Wayne County Road Commission to make a study of conditions existing at the intersection of Sheldon Road and M-14, and at Lilley Road and M-14, with a view toward alleviating dangerous conditions and traffic congestion through the use of signs, stop lights, highway improvements or other means within the powers of the jurisdictions.

The action came as the result of several serious accidents at the intersections, at least two of which have resulted in fatalities.

Rev. Kehrl Appointed To Board of Appeals

Rev. Harold Kehrl, retired Baptist minister, has been appointed to the Plymouth City Board of Appeals. His appointment was approved by the City Commission Monday.

Rev. Kehrl fills the vacancy created by the recent resignation of Mrs. Neil Curry.

'Facts and Opinions'

From our experience here, we sadly would have to give Justice Warren an opinion, "alas, it is too much to hope . . . these are hard people."

We have among us some who use Hate, dividing neighbor against neighbor, for no greater reason than cheap, short-term political advantage, or even less important commercial purposes.

Hate killed President Kennedy, and Hate compounded the murder two more times within 48 hours.

Death and murder are the inevitable, ultimate destiny of Hate, for the total objective is to remove one's subject of hatred.

If there is resistance, murder is valid by the credo of Hate. And Hate, sufficiently refined, removes all formal fear, even as does love.

Hence, murder, assassination, violence.

In the lifetime of most of us, the gunning-down of John F. Kennedy created a sense of loss, of void, of confusion unequalled heretofore.

It is our theory that this was felt so keenly because so many feel so weak, so confused, so guilty and so misdirected . . . with a sense of despair and fear within, we have placed uncommon trust in the President, the "father" of our country.

We do not regard it as coincidental that the man who was our President and the man who is our Governor each have a strong measure of philosophy in their make-up. They appear motivated by ideals, by theology, by a sense that man's destiny can be mapped in intangible thought and that the road to peace and happiness is of spirit, rather than material.

A majority of the voters thought they detected these qualities in Kennedy and Romney and sent them to high office. America is starved for idealists; politics produces precious few; but the people do sense the need and elevate them when they can be found.

For this reason, Facts and Opinions regards the President's death with exceeding alarm. At this dangerous hour, with our national morals so cancerous and our purpose so confused, we needed Kennedy like never before. As a nation, we are operating in extremely close quarters.

To have his life taken by a sneering young man, still in his 20's and without a career; and to have in turn a sadistic Chicago hoodlum, good buddy and confidante of the police and the journalists, get his gun into the act thereafter; is all too typical of American society as it exists today. And to have the murder televised "live" into most living rooms is incredulity.

If God is seeking to warn Americans as to where they are headed, and doing it in a way that mortals here could understand, he could have chosen no more effective communication means. It is almost as if His hands were upon the millions of television dials.

What now? There is one course, to scramble back to the original national purposes; to serve humanity everywhere; to correct injustice where we find it; to direct our gaze outward rather than inward.

In the emergency of the hour, the words of President Lincoln serve well, when he urges to proceed . . .

"With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan—to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations."

Set Ground Breaking For Plymouth Apts.

Ground breaking ceremonies for the new 44-unit Garden Apartments to be constructed on Wilcox Road, opposite Shadywood Drive in the Lakepointe subdivision, are scheduled for 11 a.m. on Thursday, Dec. 5.

The building, first of a group of apartment buildings planned for the area, will be constructed by the Fred Greenspan Co.

PRESIDENT OF the Livonia Branch of the National Farm and Garden Association, Mrs. Robert J. Smith was guest of the Livonia City Womens' Club last Thursday. She demonstrated very cleverly for the City Womens' Club members and guests how to make candlelight Christmas arrangements. Members saw the finished product, which Mrs. Smith had made at home, and brought it to the meeting to demonstrate how it was put together by taking it apart.

'Dreamy' Items At Keeler School Party

An evening of Christmas fun is planned for the annual Christmas party and bazaar of Keeler Mother's Club starting 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 4, at the school. All mothers and friends of Keeler School are invited.

Some of the dreamy Christmas items to be sold at the bazaar have been in the making since September. Among them will be handmade gifts and decorations and home cooked goodies.

The program for the Christmas party will be given by a speaker from the International Institute. He will describe the Christmas customs of his native land, Poland. He will be introduced by Marilou Harrison, who is vice president and program chairman.

Past presidents of Keeler Mothers' Club have been invited and will be introduced by Betty Richards, who is now the president. Former presidents to be honored are Mabel Burling, Jane Perkins, Gerry Monette, Elsie Cilley, Muriel Phillips and Diane Mienk.

Carol singing will start the party, and a visit from Santa Claus will be the climax of the evening. Mothers are asked to bring dollar exchange gifts.

Jean Heneger, bazaar chairman, has asked that items to be sold be sent to the school by Dec. 2 with a suggested price attached.

Treasures to be given away at the bazaar will include a hand painted china fruit bowl created by Bea Austin, co-chairman of the bazaar. Another exciting gift will be a mystery package from the Far East, which was brought back from the Orient by Mrs. J. Wortley Montgomery, principal. Other prizes will be two holiday centerpieces, an apron and a luncheon set.

Most bazaar items will be priced in the 25 cent to $3 range, but one luxury item, a handmade rug, will sell for $30.

Refreshments for the party will be served by mothers of Mrs. Ricketts a.m. kindergarten, Mrs. Sturgeon's first grade, and Mrs. Litheredge's second grade.

Welcome Mat Out Christmas Bazaar

Now is the time for all good men . . . and women, too . . . to begin thinking about the Christmas season.

And what better way to begin feeling the Yuletide spirit than at an old-fashioned church bazaar?

You can do it at St. Bernardine's Church, Ann Arbor Trail and Merriman Road, where the Confraternity of Christian Mothers will hold their fourth annual holiday bazaar Saturday, Nov. 30 and Sunday, Dec. 1.

It's a bazaar for all ages . . . a clown-magician for the kids, Santa Claus for Dad (it's time to get Mr. Whiskers straightened out) and a turkey dinner for Mom.

Santa Claus will be there from noon until 5 p.m. at the Saturday session (Nov. 30), with the rest of the bazaar remaining open until 10 p.m. A Saturday feature—besides the clown-magician—will be a model car and airplane contest for the children.

Feature of the Sunday session (Dec. 1) will be a turkey dinner. Reservations may be obtained by calling Tess Girages at GARfield 1-4643. Prices: Adults $1.50, children 50 cents.

On Sunday, the festivities begin at 2:30 p.m. and conclude at 10 p.m.

Highlights on both days include refreshments, games, doll booths, a cake walk, Christmas cards . . . and just about everything to put the holiday spirit in the air.

Clarenceville School Roundup

Halls of Clarenceville became drenched with quiet sorrow after the announcing of the death of our beloved President John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

The flag was lowered to half-mast, which added to the atmosphere of pathos for the Kennedy family, and a loss to the complete nation.

Many things were postponed that day, among them were: The hayride that the Pep Club had planned to give in the honor of the football players and the cheerleaders.

On Nov. 26, the first annual Thanksgiving Program was given to a Clarenceville Audience by the High school choir.

The Choir would like to thank the Allen Organ Company for providing the organ for the program, and would also like to thank the friends and parents of the Choir sharing the spirit and blessing of Thanksgiving.

Five Bentley U-M Scholars Are Selected

Bentley High School has placed five students from last year's senior class in the University of Michigan Honors Council Program for freshman.

A recent report by the University shows that of the school districts in Wayne County (not including Detroit, but including private and parochial schools) only 22 high schools placed students in the Honors Program.

The top five schools were ranked as follows: Grosse Pointe—six students; Bentley—five students; Dearborn—five students; Oak Park—four students; and Trenton—three students.

Only 17 per cent of the incoming freshman class in the colleges of Literature, Science, and Arts at the University of Michigan were invited to join the Honors Council Program on the basis of high school records, scholastic aptitude, and academic promise.

Plymouth VFW Auxiliary Plans Annual Bazaar

The Women's Auxiliary of Plymouth VFW Mayflower Post will sponsor its annual bazaar in the clubrooms on Lilley Road on Dec. 4 from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

General Chairman Claudette Krumm announced that no admission charge will be made and the general public is urged and invited to drop in and browse around at the many booths.

One of the most interesting will be the Parcel Post. This will include packages mailed to the Auxiliary by members and friends to be offered for sale. It will be sight unseen and is expected to attract considerable attention.

The Country Store will contain the Flashy Trash, the Nearly New, unusual plants and other items of a similar nature. Then there will be a Country Kitchen with cakes, cookies, candy and other goodies.

The Home Made shop will display aprons, pillow cases, handmade pillows and numerous other articles.

Plymouth Kiwanians Welcome 3 New Club Members

Wendell Miller will discuss "Under The Coffee Cup" in a talk before members of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club Tuesday at Lofty's Arbor-Lil.

William Bannan, the Detroit House of Correction, will be the principal speaker at the Dec. 10 meeting.

Willis Hall, longtime leader of the Detroit Board of Commerce, spoke on "The Free Enterprise System" at last week's session.

The Kiwanians welcomed three new members including: Township Clerk John McEwen, Don Graham and Harold Shirey.

Guests last week were: Milt Carmen, R. Kilchman, Arnold Johansson and Hazel Wilson.

'Curtain Going Up' By Wally Roberts

"Hello, Dolly" had its world premiere at the Fisher last week and if Gower Champion (the director), Mr. Dave Merrick (the producer), and Jerry Herman (music and lyric creator) don't get busy fixing this mediocre musical, the Broadway sharpies are going to say "Goodbye, Dolly" all too quickly. Thornton Wilder's basic play "The Matchmaker" from which "Hello, Dolly" was created still shines through. Some of the evening's best moments are possible when the music dies away and Wilder's dialogue is allowed to continue untainted by musical mish-mash. Whole chunks of the actual Wilder script are contained in "Hello, Dolly." "My Fair Lady" did the same with the Shaw source. The difference in the two shows is that the Lerner-Lowe team did a superb job of blending a strong book with melodic songs. Mr. Herman has a pleasant waltz, "Dancing" in Act I. A rousing up-tempo song, "Hello, Dolly" in Act II. His lovely ballad, "It Only Takes a Moment," sung in the courtroom scene is perfect. Too bad he couldn't have pulled a few more songs of this top quality out of his tune-book. While the Fisher Theater may be having its problems worrying about a new musical, the management over at the Vanguard is basking in the sunny atmosphere of a comedy-drama hit. "Too Many Thumbs," a seldom-produced comedy by Robert Hivnor, opened last week for a test run prior to its opening after the holidays off-Broadway. Mr. Hivnor wrote this play some fifteen years ago. The University of Minnesota Theater players gave "Thumbs" its world premiere. In fact, Mrs. Margaret Spears, currently directing "The Queen and The Rebels" (opens November 29 for a five performance run), was associated with the initial production. "Too Many Thumbs" raises some disturbing questions about life and what our purposes should be. Mr. Hivnor's satiric comments cut deeply at times. The wrestling scene where mankind is lowered to the Neanderthal stage hits the target. Some of his later philosophy could well be saved for another play. Old Wally had the feeling that "Too Many Thumbs" might be ended after Act III, Scene One. The later stages that mankind might "evolve to" proved only confusing and seemed to add too much philosophy to a thoroughly discussed subject. Before "Thumbs" hits off-Broadway, such revisions in the script should be made. Mr. Hivnor should take the fine, well-balanced cast with him to insure success. But it would be foolish to suggest such a move, we need the Vanguard resident professional company to continue to provide the best.

Area Prep Cagers Set to Start

It's basketball time again for the area high schools. From now until the annual state tournaments in March, the preps will be at it in gyms—luring the millions of fans to watch them in action in the state of Michigan alone.

For what's in store for the schools in this area, a survey has been conducted among the coaches. Here's the school-by-school report:

BENTLEY

The rebuilding program is on at Bentley High School, as far as basketball is concerned.

Last winter Coach George Fefles guided Bentley to the Suburban Six-League title, then the district crown and finally into the regional finals before Bentley was turned back by Pontiac Northern.

However, such players as Roland Kent, Wayne Stevens, Rick Davis and Larry Dickey Verna Bergman, Ron Grant, have departed from the Bentley scene the end of the last season. Bergman and Stevens were strong rebounders and good scorers. Kent and Grant helped considerably in the point department.

Fefles is building around six-foot, six-inch Bill Bollin and 5-11 Jim Storm. Mike O'Hara, 6-4 letterwinner also is back.

Others who will be wearing the Bentley colors include Terry Livermore, a 5-7 graduate of the reserves; Scott McIntyre, a 6-1 forward, and Harry Jacks, Roger Grover, Perry Foor and Bob Morgan. The latter was on the squad a year ago, but played little because of an injury. "We'll be weaker than last season," says Fefles, "but we could pull a few surprises before we're through in the league."

Bentley still has over a week to get ready for its season's opener at Farmington on the night of Dec. 6.

FRANKLIN

Under ordinary circumstances, a coach would jump with joy if he looked at his squad and had everybody returning.

This happens to be the case at Franklin High School as Coach Bob Bentley readies his basketball team for the season's opener next Tuesday with Wayne.

But Bentley isn't jumping with joy.

The reason is simple: The Franklin team is on the small side.

"We have nobody over 6-2," declares Bentley. "That means we'll probably have to yield in the height department in just about every game we play."

Leading the returnees is Sam Antonazzo, a 5-10 forward. Larry Duffield (5-11), Bob Wiggins (6-1), Bob Varty (5-11), Ken Bratherton (5-10) and Steve Kornish (5-8) also are back from last year's first varsity quintet in Franklin's history.

Roger Frayer (5-8) and Bernie Carbo (5-10) are reserve-team graduates who should help Bentley.

After next week's opener with Wayne, Franklin will hit the road the following Saturday night to play at Pontiac Northern, the team which knocked out Bentley in last March's regional Class A finals.

Franklin will be competing for its first league title this season, going against Oak Park, Groves, Thurston and North Farmington in the new Northwestern Suburban circuit.

PLYMOUTH

There's a good deal of optimism in the Plymouth High School basketball camp.

Coach Charles Ketterer isn't talking about any championship in the Suburban Six League.

"But we should be improved over a year ago," says the popular Ketterer.

In 1962-63, Plymouth won five and lost ten and finished fourth in the league.

Ketterer has seven veterans around whom to build his 1963-64 contender. Dick Egloff (6-1) and Gary Grady (5-10), two stars from Plymouth's unbeaten football team, are among the cage veterans.

Gary is a junior and Egloff a senior. The latter is slated to play at forward and Grady at guard.

Jim Lake, a 6-2 junior; Harold Kuisel, a 5-11 senior; Doug Sutherland, a 6-0 senior; Jerry Kisabeth, a 6-0 senior, and Cal Lubbrand, a 6-1 senior, are also back.

Johnny Daniels, the quarterback on the Rocks football team, is expected to help the cagers. So is Jim Lambert, a 5-7 senior.

Up from the reserves are Dave Tidwell (6-2), Dave Nelson (6-5), Steve Ward (6-3) and Roy Chappell (5-10).

"We'll have better size and defense this season," adds Ketterer. "If we can improve our offense, we'll be okay."

The Rocks start their campaign a week from Friday (Dec. 6) at Walled Lake.

REDFORD UNION

"We're back with the normal teams."

Talking was Milo Karhu, the basketball coach at Redford Union High School.

His reference was to R. U.'s loss of six-foot, seven-inch Len LaPla and 6-4 John Crosse from last year's team.

"We'll miss their size, in particular, we're in for some troubles when it comes to rebounding," added Karhu.

Karhu also has lost two other starters in addition to LaPla and Crosse. Gone, too, are Bill Driscoll and Mike Loukinen.

This would mean that Karhu should have only one starter back. In actuality, he has two—6-3 Tom DeWitt and 6-1 Ben Maibach.

DeWitt and Maibach spelled off as regulars a year ago and now they're back to form the nucleus of the 1963-64 R. U.

Doug Atkins, six feet; Gary DeRoche, 5-10; Bob Bates, 5-8, and Clyde Ziegler, six feet, are other players with varsity experience again on deck.

Ben Maibach's brother, Al, and Harry Kendrick, who stand 6-2 and 5-10, respectively, also figure prominently in Karhu's plans.

"We'll have to work to get rebounds and also work on defense," says Karhu. "In Dewitt and Ben Maibach we have a couple of fine shooters.

"If we just hold down the opposition from scoring too much, we'll be okay."

THURSTON

Coach Mike Pasternak is confident that his Thurston high school cagers will show improvement over their record of only two wins in 16 games last season.

Pasternak went with a young squad a year ago and he has three starters back in Richard Stefani, a 6 foot center; Jerry Samuelian, a 5-6 guard, and John Page, a 5-10 forward. Of this trio, Samuelian is the only senior. Stefani and Page are juniors.

In addition, Bob Venegoni, a six-foot guard, and Paul Lawson, a 6-1 forward, boast previous varsity experience.

"They'll be our starters the way things now look," says Pasternak whose squad starts action on Dec. 6 against Cherry Hill at Thurston, then plays at Clarenceville the following evening.

Al Bush, who was out last season with a broken leg, has also returned. He's a 5-7 guard.

Mike Shaner, 6-3, and Lou Banwert, 6 feet, from the football team are two others who figure to help, along with Dan Bennett.

"Our major problem," says Pasternak "is the team's size. We have no real big man. We hope that we can out-run our opponents and also out-defend them."

"Unless we do these things, it could be another very cold winter."

ST. AGATHA

The return of two starters plus graduates from a championship reserve team bolster the basketball prospects for 1963-64 at St. Agatha high school.

Back as front liners on Coach Dave Brazil's team are Mike Steen a 5-10 forward and Matt Wroblewski, who stands 6-1.

Up from the reserves are Mike Romer (5-10), Phil Davidson (6-1), Ron Zimmerman (6-1), Tom Anthony (5-7), Claude Inch (5-7) and Pat Murphy (5-9). The latter is only a tenth grader.

Dan Lilley, a 5-11 forward, has returned to St. Agatha after attending school out-west.

Rick Collins, a 5-8 all-around athlete at St. Agatha, also is being counted upon by Coach Brazil whose team starts its bid for honors in the Catholic League this Friday night playing at Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes.

"I think we have a little more size than in past years," says Brazil in discussing the 1963-64 cage outlook.

"But we remain in a tough division . . . a division in which we are the smallest school from an enrollment standpoint."

Notwithstanding the smallest of the St. Agatha student body, Brazil has "showed up" the bigger schools in football, basketball and baseball. The chances are good, St. Agatha will cause a lot of trouble around the league this winter, even though no title comes to the Townshippers.

Paul Albright Ends 12 Years' Service As Twp. Firefighter

Paul Albright, member of the Plymouth Township Fire Department for 12 years and captain for the past three, ended his service Monday to accept a position with Michigan Millers Mutual Insurance Co. in Lansing.

Supervisor Roy Lindsay indicated he will probably recommend a temporary appointment to fill the captaincy at the next meeting of the Township Board on Dec. 10.

Albright, a graduate of Plymouth High in 1950, plans to remain in the community during a two-year training period. After that he expects to be transferred to another area.

Albright and his wife, Gwendolin, reside at 9039 Ball St. with their three children, Chris, 5; Duane, 4; and Karen, 2.

Joel Mason, Wayne State University's head basketball coach, was a professional football player from 1939 to 1945 with the Chicago Cardinals and Green Bay Packers.

Plymouth J-Hop Goes On As Scheduled

The Junior Prom was held as scheduled Saturday evening in the high school gymnasium. There had been some talk of postponing the event, but after the Prom committees had conferred with the school administration it was decided to go ahead.

Special props had been made, some of the decorations were in place early Friday afternoon, and many of the borrowed props had to be returned.

This year's J-Hop, with Betty Anne Erdelyi and John Hannula as general co-chairmen, had as its theme "Bon Voyage." Decorations centered around a pleasure ship with a huge anchor, which was about six feet high and four feet wide from point to point, was covered with aluminum foil and served as a backdrop for many couples who posed in front of it for photos.

The side walls of the gymnasium were covered with white bed sheets, with portholes cut from corrugated cardboard placed at intervals along the walls. Janis Firestone, co-chairman of decorations with Kathy Hodge, reported that 65 sheets were needed to cover the walls.

Immediately following the grand march, Jim Lake, chairman of the music committee, asked that everyone bow his head in a moment of silent prayer for President Kennedy.

Don Stammer, chairman of the often unused cleanup committee, said that a group of 25 juniors returned Sunday morning where they worked from 9 until 11:30 to dismantle the decorations.

Other committee chairmen were: publicity, Carol Otwell; tickets and invitations, Kathy McIntyre; lighting and sound, Dave Tidwell; chaperones, Sue Ward; and check room, Janet Blunk and Janet Lyke.

SPORTS OBSERVER

By George Maskin

PUTTING ONE WORD AFTER ANOTHER—

The phone rang and the gentleman at the other end of the line identified himself as a resident of Garden City.

"I read what you had to say about an artificial skating rink for Livonia, Redford Township and Plymouth. Do you suppose the folks in those communities really are interested?"

We suggested that the folks were interested and he continued:

"Why not tell them to drop around to Garden City and take a look at our place. It didn't cost us too much money, but the fees charged for skating and playing hockey just about cover the expenses."

"Another thing. During the summer the rink is converted into tennis courts. So we actually are getting year-around use of the area."

For whatever it's worth, the recreation officials in Livonia, Redford Township and Plymouth might drive over to Garden City and see for themselves.

Judging by the weather we have had so far this year, none of us are going to get much chance to ice skate outdoors, unless we take advantage of an artificial rink.

Needless to repeat, we have no such facility in Livonia, Plymouth or Redford Township.

REMEMBER LEN LaPLA, the six-foot, seven-inch all-suburban basketballer at Redford Union the past few years? Len is down at the University of Toledo and from all reports doing very well on the school's freshman basketball squad. The chances appear bright that comes the 1964-65 season, LaPla will win himself a job on the Toledo varsity.

CHERYL MADARAS, the young beauty from Bentley High who reigns as Miss Detroit Pistons for 1963-64, is getting around a lot these days. A few Saturdays ago, Cheryl was introduced before the start of the Pistons' game with the world champion Celtics in Boston.

Last Saturday night, Cheryl took a bow in the greatest indoor sports palace of all, New York's Madison Square Garden. She was there to cheer the Pistons against the New York Knicks.

WE HAVE HAD some inquiries on the rating system employed by the Associated Press to determine the standings of Michigan's top high school football teams.

According to the A.P. poll, unbeaten, but once tied, Plymouth didn't make the first ten. Yet Hal Schram in the Free Press saw fit to put the Rocks among his top ten.

"How come the A.P. left Plymouth out of the first ten?" several have asked us.

We probably aren't giving away any secrets when we report herewith that each member paper, affiliated with the A.P., receives an equal vote. Thus, the writer representing the Detroit News which boasts a million circulation on Sundays, sets the same say as the gent up in Alpena, where the circulation is around 10,000.

Then, too, whereas the Detroit News reporter is assigned the responsibility of covering over 150 teams—about a third of all the prep elevens in the state—the gent at Alpena writes about three or four, fewer than we do on the Observer.

There's also another major item. The upstate sports writers never have had any fond love for the Detroit area teams. Hence, they stay away from voting for Metropolitan Detroit teams.

All of which should help to explain why the A.P. selectors crowned Lansing Sexton as the 1963 State Class A Champions and didn't put Plymouth in the first ten, notwithstanding the fact Sexton and Plymouth each wound up with identical records—seven wins and one tie.

HIGH SCHOOL basketball comes back into the picture this week.

It's to be noted that the rulesmakers have made no changes in the playing code. This comes as a source of gratification since frequently in the past, there always have been new rules for the players, coaches, referees and fans to learn.

JAMES CARMICHAEL, 29128 Manchester, Livonia, who was graduated from Bentley High in 1960, has received the Alonzo Stagg award as "lineman of the week" at Wayne State University for his excellent play in the 21-10 victory over Case Tech. ## Livonia Hockey News

By DAN McDONALD

Dave Beaton's Midgets from Livonia played their first exhibition game on Nov. 17 at Tilbury, Ontario and lost 5 to 3, but really gave the fast-skating Canadians a battle, right down to the last minute of play.

Livonia goals were scored by Dick Bayer, Pat McDonald and Steve Allen.

In Dec. 14, the Livonia League is planning a Livonia Hockey Night at the Tilbury ice skating rink. Len Smith and Art Perkins have said they should have their juvenile team well organized for that date.

More than 250 boys and girls are expected for a dance that night under direction and guidance of the Senior members of the Tilbury High School. The "Bravados," a hot combo will play for this dance and will swing it out with live music from 8:30 p.m. to 11:30 p.m.

This writer is asking parents to plan a trip to Canada this night and see what a beautiful rink has been erected by a town of less than 3,000 people. Call GR 6-2139 for further details about our "Livonia Hockey Night."

Hockey registrations are in full swing and this week, Nov. 26, will be last chance to register, between the hours of 7 and 9 p.m., at Emerson Jr. High, Whitman Jr. High, Clarenceville Jr. High and Pierson in the lobby; also, at Bentley High School, in the teachers dining room.

Registrations may also be accepted at the Livonia Parks and Recreation on Farmington Road.

At the Detroit Skating Club, Sunday night, Len Smith and Art Perkins put about 32 hockey players through a practice for the Livonia Hockey League entry into the new five-team Juvenile Suburban League. Dave Beaton and Len Smith have both asked for sponsors to uniform 32 boys for the Midget and Juvenile teams.

Editor:
Thanks to "Marian the Librarian" for the letter in the Nov. 13 Observer. At least some people are not blind as to what is going on in the Livonia schools.

Perhaps Myra Cox should check further before she lauds some of the Livonia school men for "carefully planning and executing" phases of the school program. Publicity about some of these people did much to create "anti-school" feeling prior to the last millage vote. At least Mr. Landes seems aware that school board members need to take a careful look at both expenditures and personnel before expecting us taxpayers to support either. We cannot be expected to keep supporting these influences over our children for which we do not ourselves have any respect or confidence.

Plymouth Jaycees Plan Day for Underprivileged

Financed by funds raised through the summer dances sponsored at Plymouth High School, the Plymouth Community Junior Chamber of Commerce has made extensive plans for its 1963-4 youth program.

The Jaycees will spend more than $1,600 on the program which was arranged by President Wendell Smith and Roger Stanley, director of Youth activities, with the co-operation of Recreation Director Herb Woolweaver.

The first activity will be the "Youth Christmas" for underprivileged children at the Penn Theater on Saturday, Dec. 14. Many youngsters will be transported from the Wayne County Training School for the affair.

Chairman Jerry Stace is planning a big program, including a visit from Santa Claus, cartoons, clowns and goodies. Smith had appointed chairmen for all of the activities for the coming year including: junior bowling, Harry Reitman; junior golf, Joe Tarantine; junior tennis, Jim Stevens; junior hockey, Al Kolak; junior champ, still unfilled; teenage rodeo, Garry Hall; Easter egg hunt, Dale Leveille; shooting education, Dick Bowden and Cal Thomas; Little League, Norm Fitzpatrick; Youth Christmas, Jerry Stace; and junior college scholarship, Bill Terry.

Theater Guild To Meet With WSU Actors

Actors from the Wayne Classic Theater will attend the Dec. 17 meeting of the Plymouth Theater Guild to discuss "King Lear — Shakespeare's Best." Dave Meneghels, Martin Shaker and Dr. Leone will be present to lead the Shakespearean discussion at 8 p.m. in the Dunning-Hough Library.

Normally the Plymouth Theater Guild meets on the third Monday of the month. The December meeting has been moved to Tuesday, Dec. 17 to meet the busy schedule of the Wayne State Classic Theater company. All members are getting ready for the Jan. 15 opening of the new theater.

The Wayne State Classic Theater is a new concept in theatrical entertainment. The audience is completely surrounded by stage. Action from the classical drama of Shakespeare will be on display during the Dec. 17 meeting.

Salvation Army Has Class For Retarded

Two weeks ago marked the beginning of a new pilot program for The Salvation Army in Plymouth. Brigadier Ernest Hammer, local Corps Commander, announced the formulation of a Sunday School class for trainable mentally handicapped children. The new venture is under the direct supervision of Miss Mary Lou Durbin, and she will be assisted by Mrs. Oscar W. Agre. Miss Durbin is employed in the Garden City Schools where she serves as Visiting Teacher. Both have studied beyond the master degree and are well qualified to direct such a program, according to Brigadier Hammer.

Classes will be conducted at The Salvation Army, located at 290 Fairground, in Plymouth. The eleven o'clock meeting is planned to coincide with most worship periods at the other churches, thus allowing parents to leave their child for a pleasant and helpful experience while they attend the church of their choice. Children from outside Plymouth will be accepted so long as the parents bring them and call for them.

The training program will be geared to meet the needs of handicapped children and will consist of simple Bible stories and songs, along with visual aids and art materials suitable for this type of child. Miss Durbin is especially anxious to draw the child whose parents are unable to take them out very much due to the short attention span or hyperactive behavior. Parents interested in enrolling children should call Miss Durbin at PA 2-6817 or Mrs. Agre at GA 7-8725 in evening. There is no charge as the cost will be borne by The Salvation Army.

The dedication of the new tower will be Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 28, following the 10 a.m. service. The bell which is housed in the new tower was formerly in the congregation's white frame church, a landmark in this area even before the turn of the century. The white frame church was razed in 1960. Mr. Lute is a lifelong member of St. Paul's having attended there when Livonia was a rural area with dirt roads. Pastor Rev. Winfred Koelpin will officiate at the ceremonies. Miniature souvenir bells will be given to children. William Lindhout is architect for the bell tower, Albert Nelson is contractor. ## Gifts Welcome At Northville Hospital For "Forgotten"

Each year at this season requests from individuals and groups interested in remembering patients at Northville State Hospital — patients who otherwise are "forgotten" by relatives and friends.

Through a call to the hospital's Community Relations Department, a donor can obtain general directions and a specific patient's requests for Christmas — usually three choices by the patient in the $1.50-$2.00 range, of which one can be chosen.

Some individuals ask to contribute to the hospital's Christmas Fund with which general gifts can be purchased in advance by volunteers. "Such general gifts as cigarettes, stretch socks, handkerchiefs, and candy, are utilized on Christmas Day, when, in spite of every best effort, we learn of patients who have received no gifts. For some of these patients, the anticipation by patient and staff members for a Christmas leave with his family may have ended in disappointment. The availability then of general gifts can be most important.

We know from previous years that our patients certainly appreciate these remembrances during the Christmas season," was the comment of Louis J. Schuldt, director of community relations department for Northville State Hospital.

Series Begins At Unitarian

A series of four sermons on the theme "Who is this Man Jesus?" will be started Sunday, Dec. 1, at the Universalist-Unitarian Church of Farmington.

Minister Robert Miles Eddy has titled the first "The Hidden Years." Ensuing sermons include "The Kingdom of God," Dec. 8; "The Man for Others," Dec. 15, and "The Man who Became God," Dec. 22.

Dec. 1 also marks the opening of the church's new plan for extended sessions twice a month. Following the 10 a.m. service, there will be discussion groups on ethical and current event themes, with regular church school sessions from 10 a.m. to noon.

Sandwich lunches then will be served for children and adults, and between noon and 2 p.m. there will be a junior choir rehearsal, movies and games for the youngsters.

Protection From Evil, Subject For Science Church Sunday

Man's protection from evil influences through an understanding of God will be the theme at all Christian Science churches this Sunday. The title of the Bible Lesson is "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, De-nounced."

The Scriptural verse "For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world." (1 John 5:4) will be presented in the responsible reading.

The following passage from the denominational textbook will also be read: "The Christian Scientist has enlisted to lessen evil, disease, and death; and he will overcome them by understanding their nothingness and the almsness of God, or good" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 450).

Kids Urged To Shun All Reducing Pills

ANN ARBOR—A pediatrician at the University of Michigan Medical Center discourages reducing pills for children.

"With the present-day emphasis on the dangers of obesity and the publicity on special diets, dietary foods and medicines, a very high percentage of the children who come to the U-M Hospital Clinic for Overweight Children have taken some sort of reducing pill at one time or another," Dr. Alex Robertson says.

Most children examined at the Clinic have an overweight problem that is merely the result of overeating. We recommend a "well-balanced diet that is limited in the number of calories," he noted.

To the parent who desires medicine for the overweight child to curb his appetite, the U-M doctor says that children shouldn't depend on medicine to keep their weight down.

"I think children should be taught to realize that it's purely a matter of diet and it's something they can do completely with their own will-power," Dr. Robertson says.

"The medicines generally prescribed for obesity are ones to take away the appetite," he explains. "Most of these are excitatory drugs such as the dextroamphetamine. It has been shown that in the first few weeks these medicines slightly accelerate the loss of weight, but after the first couple of weeks they have no continued value."

Reader 'Speaks Up' Jordan Affair

Editor:

How phony can you get!

For the past several weeks I have been reading editorials and numerous letters to the Editor in this newspaper regarding Police Chief Jordan. Last week, the Council President used his official position to make a cheap political smear on the same subject.

Why has no one attempted to find out what was involved in the discharge of the Chief of Police, Mr. Editor, as a newspaper man, don't you have an obligation to learn the facts and not merely impose your personal prejudices on your readers?

Well, the entire matter involving the Chief of Police has been troubling me for some time. It began on October 8th when I attended a fashion show-luncheon at a well known bar on Plymouth Road in this city. The Chief of Police was pointed out to me; he was dressed in civilian clothes and hopped from table to table like a debaucher for over an hour and a half. However, I gave no further thought to this incident until learning of the Chief's discharge for placing the signature of the Director of Public Safety on a liquor investigation report and also for being out of uniform on the very same day I saw him in a liquor establishment.

When it became apparent that you did not intend to report what had actually happened and that many of the politicians in our city were determined to ignore the facts of the matter and make political hay by trying to smear Myor Harvey W. Moelke, I started my own investigation both inside and out of City Hall. I first learned that as long ago as 1958 Chief Jordan was reprimanded in writing by the then Mayor based upon repeated complaints by certain Councilmen including the President of the Council! Furthermore, the records indicate that the Chief has been warned in writing time and time again of the same subject of wearing his uniform in public.

My next discovery was highly significant. It revealed that the liquor investigation report on which the Chief had placed the signature of the Director of Public Safety was dated October 9th and involved the very establishment in which I had seen the Chief on October 8th. Also, that the Chief was on duty and in an official capacity when he was present in the bar on October 8th. (Imagine my amazement when I learned that the Chief had written requesting that he be allowed to wear civilian clothing in bars so that he could make secret investigations of liquor establishments. Secret investigations, my foot!)

So we start to put two and two together. Let's continue though, this gets even better. In July of this year, Mr. Addison W. Bacon, the Director of Public Safety, established a hard and fast procedure governing police investigations of liquor establishments—an obviously sensitive and highly important area. Under this procedure the police officer making the actual on-the-spot investigation of the bar in question then reports directly to the Director of Public Safety, and the Director then either recommends approval or disapproval of the application to the Council of the City of Livonia by personally signing a letter to this effect. The Council then takes formal action in these matters by passing a resolution based upon the Director's report. How anyone, including a Council President or a newspaper editor, can attempt to dismiss so important a governmental function by calling it "routine" makes me question their judgment values and wonder if they are fit to hold office on either a local or State level.

Now we come to the real puzzle in the whole case: WHY DIDN'T THE CHIEF OF POLICE SIGN HIS OWN NAME TO THE INVESTIGATION REPORT IF HIS ACTIONS WERE ABOVE BOARD? Well, isn't the answer obvious by now. Had he signed his own name, the investigation report would not have been proper, nor could it have been accepted by the Council. In order to get acceptance, the Chief knowingly had to place his superior's signature on the report—and he knowingly did so!

But don't go away. This gets better yet. On Wednesday, October 9th, the day the Chief of Police knowingly and intentionally placed his superior's signature on a liquor investigation report (if this isn't forgery, what is?), Mr. Bacon was absent from the City. Well, assuming that this report could not wait for Mr. Bacon's return on the following Monday (why couldn't it? Who was applying the pressure?), what should the Chief have done? Here again, the procedure is clearly established. And in this instance by our City Charter. For whenever the Director of Public Safety is not available, the Charter states that the Mayor will exercise all powers of the Director. Not only does my investigation reveal that the Mayor was available but also that the Chief made absolutely no effort to bring the report to his attention. And let me assure you that the Chief of Police is well aware of this Charter provision!

One further question keeps popping up. Why was a document clearly bearing a stamped imprint of a signature accepted by our virtuous and law abiding City Clerk and placed by her on the Council agenda? This question becomes more significant in light of the Clerk's constant and repeated refusal to accept any document bearing a stamped imprint of a signature. (On many occasions, letters and other documents have been transported to the Mayor and other department heads for signing when these officials have been in attendance at meetings or conferences outside the City.) Could it be that Old Fang was also in on this play?

Well, I don't know if the editor wants you to know these facts. If not, this letter will never see Wednesday's light. But if it does appear, think of this: Mayor Harvey W. Moelke was elected by people in this City who were sick and tired of "Buddy-Buddy", special interest government. Since his election those interests have been working overtime to regain a foothold in our community. We see it in the inconsistent actions of those Councilmen who regularly vote for special favors and exceptions for a certain few. What chance does the average citizen have if the deck is stacked against him at the start?

FROM ONE WHO BELIEVES IN HONEST GOVERNMENT FOR LIVONIA
(Editor's Note: Even a stranger passing through town would realize this letter was written by someone extremely close to the Mayor's office. Which is why we are running it, though the writer remains anonymous. The letter is an accurate indicator of Mayor Moelke's real attitude in the Jordan case and toward other individuals.)

Editor:

On page six of The Plymouth Observer dated Wednesday, November 13, 1963 there was a letter to the editor criticizing the choice of material to be used for the Plymouth High School play. The letter was signed:

Mrs. R. H. Dennison
4820 Gyde Road
Plymouth
My wife's name and address is:

Mrs. H. E. Denison
4824 Gyde Road
Plymouth

We are the only Denisons living on Gyde Road, my brother R. W. Denison and family having moved away two months ago.

To avoid any misunderstanding I would like to point out to do with the letter that appeared in your paper. In fact, neither my wife nor I have seen the play nor read the script (how come scripts are so easy to come by?) so we cannot comment on its contents. The letter appeared quite well written. It seems a shame that someone so deep in their convictions would not proudly put their own signature on it.

H. E. Denison
(Editor's Note: Our humble apologies go to Mr. and Mrs. Denison, and to our readers. Somebody simply faked their name and address on a letter about "The Male Animal." It's always a danger, though we strive to avoid it. We serve warning here — there is one group in the community which as a matter of policy attempts to embarrass schools by "discovering" obscenity within them. Usually the "discovery" and "warning" involve books in the school library. Plymouth has a few such citizens who regard this approach as "Americanism." They know The Observer, and The Observer knows them. We are on the alert anew.)

Shortly thereafter, we began to receive The Observer which I avidly read from page one to the last page.

I spend a good deal of time reading the minutes of the Council meetings and in a recent issue I studied the changes in the City Building Code.

I am amazed, shocked, disappointed and chagrined at the instability of the code and the people who are supposed to enforce the code.

As I understand the situation, certain recommendations are made by the City Engineers and the Dept. of Public Safety and the Council "buys" almost anything and everything.

When we contracted for the purchase and building of our new home, we were told that certain building restrictions forced us to stay ten (10) feet from the side property lines and that we had to have five (5) foot sidewalks.

Apparently the builders have "put on the pressure" and the Building Code has broken down and gone to pot.

The homes going up on both sides of my house are five (5) feet from the property lines!! Sidewalks now can be four (4) feet!! And the builders can now eliminate the tar paper from the roof!!

When I built a 60 foot house on an 80 foot lot, I was happy to think there would be 20 nice big feet between houses. VUNDER BAR! Then, CRASH; there goes the code.

It is the opinion of this disillusioned person that, having established a Building Code, the City fathers should be adamant in enforcing the rules. If revisions are necessary they should be upward, not downward, keeping in mind the fact that the people who forsake other areas and move to Livonia want and expect more quality, not less.

Submitting to the whims of the builders is not in the best interest of the citizens who are making the biggest investment of their lives; HOMES! to be proud of and in which they may live for 20, 30 or 40 years.

Editor:

I also felt as "Concerned" writing in last week's Observer that Livonia children missed a golden opportunity on Halloween by neglecting to share their abundance with needy children the world over by collecting coins for UNICEF.

Contrary to the belief of "Concerned," the Livonia schools did actively urge children to participate in the program and filled cans were collected by the schools.

Perhaps the negative response can be traced to lack of information and interest among adults and the fact that the canisters had to be made at home. Concerning the former, our children, the only ones in our locality to carry UNICEF cans, were often greeted with: "I never heard of it." Somebody was already here, (her sister), "I'm not giving this year," etc.

Other communities where we have resided have enthusiastic response to this project by publicizing it widely before Halloween and by having some local organization supply the canisters for the children to carry. Perhaps this could be a future project for PTA, JacCees, etc. Also Concerned

EDITOR:

My wife and I are newcomers to Livonia, having moved here from Detroit in Oct. '62

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. Olson Hensley
Concert Chairman

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who worked so hard to make the Pop Concert Oct 26th at Franklin High School a tremendous success.

I would especially like to thank my ticket chairman Mrs. Aline Naimola, and publicity chairman Mrs. Howard Bond, also President of the Franklin Music Boosters Mr. Robert Secord, and the Board Members, and Mr. Ammerman, Principal of Franklin High School for their wonderful support.

The money from the concert ticket sale was $720 of which 75% was raised by the Franklin Music Students. "Many thanks for your cooperation."

Directing the concert were Mr. Roy Ernest "Band Director," Mr. William Savola, "Orchestra," Mr. William Hall "Chorus," and Mrs. Kathleen Kirby, "Choral Bells." The performance was outstanding.

The Franklin High School Music Boosters wish to acknowledge the support of the Livonia community and merchants, in helping us to come close to reaching our financial goal.

Choral robes have already been purchased.

Proceeds from this concert and coming events will enable us to place the order for Band and Orchestra uniforms.

We are optimistic that the fund drive will reach a successful conclusion by the end of this year.
