

"No Child Without A Christmas" Again Goal of Goodfellows

Plymouth's Goodfellows will be marking their 25th year when they set out Dec. 14 to sell 5,500 copies of a special 1963 Goodfellow newspaper with the proceeds to ensure that no local needy child misses out at Christmas-time.

Led by 1963 President Loren Goodale, some 65 Goodfellow members will take up strategic positions throughout the Plymouth community Saturday to sell their traditional Goodfellow edition of The Plymouth Mail.

Since 1938, when the late Harry Robinson was president, Plymouth's Goodfellows have annually had as their goal the familiar slogan "No Child without a Christmas."

JayCees Protest Early Placement Of Scene in Park

In a resolution passed at their last meeting, members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce protested the erection of the Christmas Manger Scene in Kellogg Park previous to Thanksgiving.

The resolution was presented to the City and the Chamber of Commerce by Jaycee secretary Barry E. Couts. Investigation revealed the fact that there seemed no apparent disagreement with the primary necessity of erecting basic holiday street decorations but that the organization hoped the Manger Scene and the accompanying decorations in the Park be withheld from public view until after the Thanksgiving holiday.

As pointed out in The Plymouth Mail several weeks ago weather and personnel shortages necessitated some of the basic work being done previous to the Thanksgiving holiday by Joe Bida and his public works department.

According to Chamber of Commerce president Wendell Lent and Mr. Bida, every effort will be made in the future to withhold erection of this part of the holiday decorations until after the Thanksgiving holiday.

The resolution read as follows:

"Whereas: The Plymouth Jaycees have, for a number of years, supported a policy of keeping Christ in Christmas.

Whereas: The City of Plymouth decorations, including the Manger Scene, were erected starting November 1, 1963.

Whereas: We, the Plymouth Jaycees, strongly suggest to the City of Plymouth, that the display of Christmas decorations at such an early date is in bad taste and not in the spirit of Christmas.

Be it resolved, that we, the Plymouth Jaycees, suggest that these decorations not be placed in the park prior to Thanksgiving Day."

Winter Adult Program Offers 82 Activities

Another 82 activities will be offered by the Plymouth adult education and recreation department during the winter semester which begins the week of Jan. 27.

Already, descriptive brochures describing the winter semester of classes and related events are being prepared and will be sent to each resident in the School District soon after the first of the year, according to Director Herb Woolweaver.

Registration for the winter program will begin Jan. 13, he said. He expects approximately 1,000 persons to enroll in the winter phase, matching the response showed in the fall program this year.

Among the classes offered will be 15 for high school credit. These include such classes as American government, history and English. Woolweaver explained that many of the high school credit classes are "full courses" and not combinations of several classes as was the arrangement this fall.

There will be four classes offered for college credit, Woolweaver said. A number of entirely new programs will lend further interest to the winter semester, he added.

SANTA CLAUS can attract a crowd of youthful admirers faster than he can say "Ho-Ho-Ho and a Merry Christmas," and he learned all of this anew last Thursday evening when he stepped down from his parade car in front of Kellogg Park and attempted to make his way toward his little Red Shoe House headquarters. Above, he is swiftly encircled by dozens of his tiny fans while parade organizer Ron Coosala (to right of Santa) strives to blaze a trail for his special guest. Below, two youngsters get the full treatment from the bearded gentleman, as one receives a handshake from Santa and the other pats him fondly.

4,500 Brave Cold To Welcome Santa

Santa Claus came to Plymouth last Thursday evening amidst the triumphal fanfare of drums, marching feet and the cheers of joy of endless numbers of youngsters who idolize him.

Plymouth's first full-fledged Christmas parade, an undertaking of the Jaycees, was described later as "a huge success" by everyone involved.

Somewhere between 4,000 and 5,000 persons

Plymouth's Goodfellows passed out more than 3,500 candy canes to youngsters during the Christmas parade last Thursday evening, according to Goodfellow President Loren Goodale.

turned out to witness the parade, according to Assistant Police Chief Loren Johnson, who was compelled to halt automobile traffic at several points in the downtown district when crowds became so numerous as to block the streets.

More than 20 floats and holiday displays comprised the units of the parade in addition to a number of antique autos and a huge trailer from Crown-Zellerbach Corp.

The state champion VFW color guard led the parade and the man who prompted all of the fun and pageantry, Santa himself, brought up the rear aboard another antique auto, which had been outfitted with imitation sleigh

Fluoride Program For Local School Children Resumes

The annual fluoride program for school children in Plymouth has been resumed by the local dentists' association.

A series of four treatments is being offered in all schools here, both public and parochial, a spokesman for the Plymouth dentists said.

The treatments are available to kindergarten, 2nd, 5th and 8th grade pupils. Cost of the series of four treatments is $3.25.

Participating children "will probably have 40 per cent fewer cavities," the dentists' spokesman explained. He said that parents will receive more complete information from a brochure to be sent home with the youngsters soon.

Additional information is being provided by a dentists' representative at GL 3-2335, after 5 p.m. The Plymouth dentists donate their time to the project in an effort to promote dental health here.

West Indies Film Opens Lions Club Travel Series

The West Indies, the second film in the Plymouth Lions Club Annual Travel Series, will be offered to the community on Saturday, December 14th at 8 p.m. in the Junior High-East gymnasium.

Featuring brilliant color film and on-the-spot recorded musical backgrounds, the film will take viewers to what is perhaps the most interesting and colorful area of the Western Hemisphere.

Tickets for the remaining five films are available from any Plymouth Lion at a reduced season ticket rate of $4.25 for adults and $2.50 for students. In addition, individual performance tickets may be purchased at the door for $1.25 (adults) and 50c (students).

The West Indies film, which was produced and will be narrated by James Metcalf, includes picturesque visits to Antigua, Martinique, Guadeloupe, St. Lucia, Grand Cayman, Barbados, Grenada, Tobago and Trinidad.

Strung out like pearls on a string of beads, the West Indian Islands stretch across the Caribbean in a huge semicircle. Starting with Jamaica, the necklace runs for four thousand miles and ends up in the curious "A.B.C." Islands of the Netherlands Antilles, Aruba, Bonaire and Curacao.

Metcalf has also filmed many out-of-the-way islands that the average traveler never sees.

As a result the audience will be privileged to visit such unusual places as St. Lucia with its steaming, drive-in volcano, Grenada, one of the world's foremost spice islands, and Tobago, the lovely island of Daniel Defoe's "Robinson Crusoe."

The film shows pearls being sold by the half-bushel, the delicate beauty of the rare pink flamingo and the romance of old pirate strongholds. This is a true color masterpiece of the exotic Caribbean and a perfect anti-

"Student Shuffle" OK'd as Answer To Overcrowding

School Board members acted Monday night to alleviate overcrowded classrooms in two elementary schools here in the latest steps to cope with a problem that stretches out ahead of the School District like a long, red ribbon.

Overcrowding looms as an endless predicament in Plymouth's classrooms in a situation that undoubtedly will be fraught with frustrations and fiscal fears, at least in the foreseeable years ahead.

At any rate, Board members temporarily averted any serious difficulties Monday evening at their regular meeting by adopting a relief-giving recommendation proposed by Supt. of Schools Russell Isbister.

Allen and Gallimore Elementary Schools are presently the most congested of the seven elementary facilities in the District. Allen presently has 467 pupils and Gallimore 444.

Isbister's proposal, a two-part affair, was approved by the Board following considerable discussion.

The steps essentially are the steps Isbister recommended:

1. The transfer of 66 sixth-grade pupils from Allen School into two classrooms in the new portion of Junior High West.
2. The transfer of a combined fifth-sixth grade group, comprised of 30 pupils, from Gallimore into still a third new classroom at Junior High West.

Both moves, following approval of the Board, will be undertaken immediately at the start of the second semester. No burden will be placed on the transportation department, Isbister said.

Since the Board for several years has attempted to keep the number of pupils in each classroom no more than 30, the two steps taken Monday night will bring the total figures at Allen and Gallimore more in keeping with this policy.

Board members declared that a 30-pupils-per-classroom is "an optimum" figure for teaching purposes.

In any event, Allen School will have about 400 pupils at the start of the second semester. By locating them in the school's 13 classrooms, the classroom average is reduced to about 31.

Gallimore will have about 415 pupils at the start of the second semester for a classroom average of about 32 students. It, too, has 13 classrooms.

The overcrowded situation at Allen has forced a number of youngsters to be housed in a multi-purpose room, and at Gallimore in a similar situation.

Remus Cancels Water Meeting

Plymouth's City Commission was to have met jointly Monday night with officials from Northville and Novi together with Gerald Remus, general manager of Detroit's Water Board.

But the meeting was cancelled late last week when Remus explained to Northville City Mayor A. Malcolm Allen that he would be unable to attend the special session. The meeting was to have been held in Northville's Community Building with the City of Northville as host.

City Commissioners from here had been invited to attend the get-together in hopes that a joint meeting with Remus would help resolve some questions that confront not only the City of Plymouth but Northville and Novi as well.

While the City of Plymouth's so-called water problem seems to have taken a back seat in recent weeks, Northville's is just beginning, according to Northville City Manager Bruce Pothoff.

He explained that Detroit is extending a large trunk line westward along Eight Mile to Meadowbrook Rd., which is only one mile away from the Northville City limits.

(Of course, City Commissioners must first determine whether a tap-in to Detroit water would be the wisest move for Plymouth.)

And just to keep the pot bubbling locally, City Commissioners here are still mulling over the wisdom of building a two or three-million-gallon water reservoir out on Beck Rd.

City Manager Albert Glassford had made a list of about 10 questions he had hoped to have answered by Remus during the Monday night meeting. Now he'll have to wait some more, as will the Plymouth Commission and officials from Northville and Novi.

From that point, Detroit proposes to extend the trunk line further west to Center St. in Northville and then south along Center St. (Sheldon Rd.) towards Plymouth.

It is the Detroit proposal to run the trunk line along Center St. in Northville that has Pothoff and Mayor Allen concerned.

The street is Northville's primary north-south artery through town and construction work on a major water line there would indeed disrupt traffic through Northville to no little degree.

Meanwhile, City of Plymouth is keeping an eagle eye on the situation as it unfolds for the simple reason that if Detroit does eventually run the water line south down Sheldon Rd., it will enable the City to tap in conveniently at some future date.

IT WAS A YANKEE DOODLE DANDY DAY last Thursday for Ilse Reichle, who makes her home with the David Woods on Warren Rd., when twelve friends gathered for a surprise coffee at the home of Mrs. Carl Schultheiss on Amherst Ct. to offer their congratulations upon her becoming a naturalized citizen of the U.S. Showing the mood of the day are, left to right, Miss Reichle (holding the American flag), Mrs. Carl Schultheiss and Mrs. David Wood.

Becomes U.S. Citizen

Fraulein Realizes 8-Year Dream

Tuesday, Dec. 3, 1963, was a big day, if not the biggest, in the life of 25-year-old Ilse Reichle.

It was on that day the German-born girl swore allegiance to the United States of America and became a citizen, climaxing eight years of hard work and self determination.

Miss Reichle, who has been living with the David Woods, on Warren Rd., for the past five years, made up her mind at the age of 17 that she would like to immigrate to America.

It took a little better than two years to fulfill her dream, what with making arrangements for a U.S. sponsor, completing the many examinations and qualifying in the quota.

Sponsored by distant relatives in Detroit, the future American citizen came to live with the David Wood family five years ago. Arrangements were made through mutual friends of the Woods' and Miss Reichle's sponsors.

When the young German-born girl arrived in Plymouth, from Tuttinger, Germany, located near Whittenberg, she could speak absolutely no English, a fact hard to believe when you hear her speak today.

Indicative of her determination, she learned to speak almost-flawless English with no formal training, but by listening and trying.

A member of the First Presbyterian Church, here, she has taught Sunday School for the past three years. In her spare time she likes to indulge in most outdoor sports, including ice skating and swimming, and likes to knit.

Actual preparation for her big day, last Tuesday, began about a year ago, with concentrated study on American government and history. Upon completion of her five years residence in the U.S., she petitioned for naturalization at the Naturalization Bureau in Detroit.

She was called for her naturalization examination on Friday, Nov. 1. The oral examination took about two hours. While she was being interviewed, her two witnesses, Mr. and Mrs. David Wood, were also interviewed separately. Mrs. Wood described the interview as being cold and clinical, completely unaffected by their warm feelings toward the future U. S. citizen.

And then the big day arrived. Early Tuesday morning, Miss Reichle, accompanied by her American parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Wood, and a 14-year-old daughter, Anne, left for Detroit, stopping first for a celebration breakfast.

Shortly before noon, along with 61 other about-to-be naturalized citizens, Ilse Reichle took the Oath of Allegiance at the Federal Court in Detroit, in what was described as a most impressive ceremony.

At the Court to witness the oath taking were Mrs. Gerald Fischer, of McKinley St., Mrs. I. W. Ruge, of Arthur St., and Mrs. Carl Schultheiss, of Amherst Ct., who later joined the new American and the Wood family for prizes will be given away.

Nation Lacks Discipline, Bannon Says

A lack of moral discipline throughout the country is one of the underlying reasons that prisons are bulging almost beyond capacity, Supt. William Bannon, of the Detroit House of Correction, told Plymouth's Rotarians Friday noon.

Bannon, former warden at Jackson prison and superintendent at DeHoCo since last spring, explained that the "lack of discipline is the fault of parents and that discipline in accordance with society should be instilled in the nation's young people from the earliest months of family life.

He said "the foundation of America is with our children of today and it is the family's responsibility to make that foundation a sound one."

Mayflower Hotel Manager Ralph Lorenz introduced Supt. Bannon as "the world's largest inkeeper."

Bannon was superintendent at Ionia prison prior to becoming warden of Jackson prison in 1952. He was warden at Jackson 11 years.

In his remarks Friday Bannon also said that a "lack of conscience among criminals" is a major problem, too.

SANTA CLAUS said "hello" to countless hundreds of youngsters last Thursday evening after taking up quarters in his Little Red Shoe House in Kellogg Park at the conclusion of the Christmas parade. The very first youngsters to visit Santa after he had moved into his Red Shoe House were Cindy Miller, 7, and her 10-year-old sister, Jackie.

NEW CHEVELLE!
BY CHEVROLET

The kind of go-6 or V8—you'd expect from one of Chevy's great highway performers. Come on down and drive it.

The kind of comfort you'd expect in a large interior. Come on down and sit in it.

The kind of fresh styling—inside and out—that makes it the year's smartest surprise. Come down and stare at it.

Now—Chevy spirit in a new kind of car!

We built this one to do more than just stand around looking beautiful. Held its weight down in the 3,000-pound range. Then built four lusty engines—two sixes and two V8's—with output all the way up to 220 horses*!

And if that makes you think this is one frisky car, you've got the right idea.

You've also got a roomy car here. Yet its 115-inch wheelbase keeps it highly maneuverable in traffic and very easy to park.

With its Full Coil suspension, it's got a ride that reminds you of the Jet-smooth kind the way it muffles noise and cushions bumps.

And the fine hand of Body by Fisher craftsmen shows up beneath this one's suave good looks, too.

Sound good? There's more. Like the fact that Chevelle comes in three series with eleven models—convertibles, sport coupes, sedans, wagons, even Super Sport models with front bucket seats. Like the fact that (and see if this isn't one of the nicest surprises of all) the new Chevelle comes at an easy-to-take price!

Like to hear more? The listening's wonderful at your Chevrolet dealer's—and so's the driving.

IN AND AROUND PLYMOUTH

6 THE PLYMOUTH MAIL Tuesday, December 10, 1963

PLYMOUTH'S basketball coach Charlie Ketterer is carrying a 16-man player roster with him these days as the Rocks embark on the 1963-64 cage season. The players, together with Ketterer and the team managers, are shown here. Kneeling from left: Manager Tom Wiles, Hal Kuisel, John Hannula, John Daniel, Gary

Win Opener, 77-69 Cagers Lash Walled Lake

The Plymouth Cagers overcame a late surge by a hustling Walled Lake club to defeat the Vikings, 77-69, in the opener for both teams Friday night.

Coach Charlie Ketterer aptly described the game as a "barn burner."

The score would seem to indicate that the Rocks had little trouble posting a victory in their first test of the season. To the contrary, Plymouth held only a slim two-point edge with three minutes to play in the hard-fought clash at Walled Lake.

Although Plymouth's free shooting left something to be desired, it was the foul shots that pushed the cagers into a victory in those last three minutes.

The air was filled with that delicate sound of whistles as the two teams piled up a total of 68 fouls, 35 for Plymouth and 33 for Walled Lake.

Fouls played an important part in victory but they just may have spelled defeat because Plymouth lost starters Jerry Kisabeth and Cal Luibrand in the third quarter of play. Jim Lake, who replaced Luibrand also fouled out with a quarter remaining.

If this weren't enough to vex Ketterer there were 3 other Rock players with 4 fouls who played during the last quarter.

Coach Ketterer stated that Walled Lake had an aggressive outfit but Plymouth showed good enthusiasm and hustle which proved to be the winning ingredient for victory.

Other than the last few minutes, the Rocks were in control throughout the game, leading by 6 points at the end of the first quarter, 12 points at the half and 15 by the end of the third quarter.

After the game Ketterer was concerned with the foul shooting average and the failure of his squad to capitalize on the 1 and 1 free throw situation.

Cal Luibrand shared scoring honors with Walled Lakes' Jim Broome as each scored 19 points. Incidentally 17 of Luibrand's points were scored in the first half.

Contributing 14 points to Plymouth's score, were Doug Sutherland and Gary Grady with Dick Egloff right behind scoring 13.

The Rocks showed good balance as 4 of the starters hit double figures for the evening.

Box Score	F.G.	F.T.	Total
Luibrand	7	5	19
Sutherland	1	12	14
Grady	4	6	14
Egloff	4	5	13
Chappell	2	1	5

Recreation Basketball Open to All Interested

The Recreation department would like to encourage basketball players of all ages to take a careful look at the excellent program that is being presented this year.

Everyone eligible is invited and encouraged to take part in this winter program. Monday nights at the high school, Jerry Vettese, Tony Monte and Paul Cummings would like to see all interested teenage ball players turn out for an evening of basketball. If enough participate a league will be formed, if not there will still be open basketball. Thursday nights will be open to teenagers also as soon as a gym is secured for that purpose.

The mens league which is now being formed consists of four teams with room for more. The deadline for team entries is Jan. 3, with the first games scheduled to begin Jan. 8. The games are played on Wednesday evenings starting at 7:30. Anyone in this age group who is interested in entering a team or playing on a team, contact Paul Cummings who is in charge of the program.

Basketball is also available to 5th and 6th graders on Saturday mornings at the high school gym from 9:00 to 12:00. This program consists of an hour of fundamental drills and the 2 hours of basketball games, if enough boys are interested. If you're interested just meet at the gym on Saturday mornings.

There is also a gym program available to all elementary students, girls and boys, which is held at each school after school from 3:30 to 5:00, two nights a week.

There are adult supervisors in attendance who plan seasonal group games as well as basketball and volleyball.

Any parent that may be interested may contact the following people for further information: Barry Campbell, Farrand and Starkweather; Jack Burke, Allen; Paul Cummings, Bird and Gallimore; Max Summerville, Smith.

Oldtimer Softball League Starting To Be Renewed

Earl Gray has announced that he intends to help start an old timers softball league if there are enough participants available.

The league would consist of men over the age of 30 or 35, depending on the rules which would be drawn up later, and would probably be a slow ball or flooper ball league.

If there are any persons interested, you are urged to contact Gray, phone 453-0477, or the Recreation Department at the High School.

Peter Gustafson, a Plymouth high graduate and now a freshman at Allegheny College, was a member of the 400-yard freestyle relay quartet that contributed to Allegheny's 63-31 victory over Thiel College last week. With three other freshmen, Gustafson's unit turned in a time of 3:54.4. In addition to his relay leg, Gustafson placed second in the 100-yard freestyle.

JayVees Slip By Vikings Win in Overtime 48-45

Fouls helped the Plymouth JayVee basketball squad slip past Walled Lake 48-45.

In order to pull out the victory the Junior Rocks had to come from behind in the third quarter, then hustle in a three minute overtime.

Jim Bruff, who was high point man with 16 points, scored a field goal and John Hannula added a free throw to break the 45-45 tie at the end of regulation play and pace the Rocks to their first win of the season.

"Walled Lake was aggressive and we were lucky to win," commented Coach Dick Bearup after the game.

Plymouth played better than Walled Lake but the fouls spelled defeat for the Vikings.

Walled Lake had 19 fouls called on them and the Rocks hit on 10 of 27 free throws.

Plymouth had 9 fouls called but the Vikings only converted 3 free throws.

This means that Walled Lake scored two more field goals than the Rocks, so the free throws turned out to be very important.

Rounding out Plymouth's scoring was John Hannula, 14; Jim Scharmen, 8; Don Stamper, 4; Chuck Masten, 4; and Curt Irish, 2.

Next week the JayVees will travel to Trenton to meet a team that averages about 6' 2" which is good size for a Junior Varsity team. This will prove to be an early test.

Swimmers Reach 100 Victory Mark

The Plymouth swimmers made a really big splash last week as they defeated Livonia-Franklin for the first win of the season and win number 100 for Plymouth since they started swimming 11 years ago under present Coach John McFall.

The win marks a milestone in swimming competition for the Rocks as they literally have risen from the bottom to become one of the Class A swimming powers in the past 6 years.

Although Franklin didn't present much of a challenge it's interesting to note that last year the Franklin JayVees defeated the Plymouth JayVees teams.

Plymouth captured all but first place to pile up a score of 81 against 24 for Franklin. No records were broken this meet but you can be sure that some records are going to fall this year.

The scoring is as follows: 200 yard Medley Relay - (P) Olson, Agnew, Malboeuf, Mattison, 1:51.

50 yard Freestyle - (P) Berry, 24.1, (P) Burke. 200 yard Freestyle - (P) Norman, 2:05.8, (P) Jaski.

200 yard Individual Medley

Hoffman, 2:22.6, (P) Diving - (P) Herter, 50.9 pts., (P) Cook.

100 yard Butterfly - Collins (P), 1:02.9, Wernette (P).

100 yard Freestyle - Blunk (P), 56:1, Saxton (P).

Coach McFall said that the real test is this Thursday when Trenton travels to Plymouth for a 4:00 p.m. meet. Trenton is supposedly the big gun in the league and if Plymouth has intentions of capturing the league title it will have to be able to defeat the Trojans to take it.

Plymouth seems to have good depth but without much opposition it's hard to tell for sure, but this Thursday a showdown will give some indication one way or another.

The awards were presented Dec. 6.

Hockey Teams Seek Players

Both the Plymouth Royals Midget hockey teams and the Plymouth T-Birds Bantams are looking for more hockey players.

There are several openings on both teams, according to Vern Schilawski, manager of the Bantams. Al Kolak manages the Midgets.

Interested youngsters are invited to report for practice sessions either Saturday or Sunday.

Both teams practice at 7 a.m. both days at the University of Michigan ice rink in Ann Arbor. Age range for the Midgets is 14 to 16 and for the Bantams it is 12 to 14. Further information may be obtained from Schilawski at GL 3-9297.

SCHOOL BOARD member Carl Schultheiss is an engineer at Burroughs Corp. by profession, but when his six-year-old daughter Gail expressed an interest in Indians and Indian-lore, Schultheiss built a huge teepee in the back yard of his home at 11705 Amherst Court. The word somehow got back to Gail's first grade class at Bird School where 28 pupils under Mrs. Donald Easley were studying about Indians. The end result was that the 28 youngsters last week showed up at Schultheiss' home to see his real-life teepee. The children, shown above seated in front of the teepee, made Indian-type head-bands and wore them on the "field trip." Schultheiss is shown below inside the teepee and surrounded by his little visitors. He explained that the teepee stands some 14-feet high and is 20-feet wide. It's made of canvass.

Homer New Head Of PHS Social Studies Department

Ray Homer, a social studies teacher at Plymouth High since 1956 and a graduate of Eastern Michigan University, Monday night was named head of the High School's Social Studies department.

The duties accompanying the appointment carry with them a $500 annual stipend. The social studies department is the second largest in Plymouth High, exceeded only by the English department.

Homer has both a bachelor's and master's degree from Eastern Michigan.

Previously Warren Pelton was head of the same department but he resigned from the faculty prior to actually holding the position.

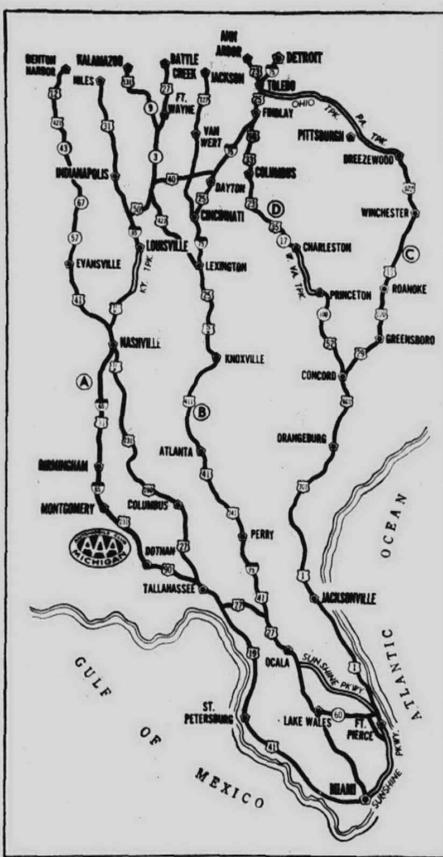

In other action during Monday evening's regular School Board meeting, two resignations were accepted and a new teacher was hired.

Phyllis Kelley, a business education teacher at Plymouth High, tendered her resignation and Marjorie Alford Easley, a first grade teacher at Bird School, asked that she be permitted to break her contract in order to accompany her husband to Chicago where he has taken new employment.

The Board accepted both resignations with regret. Sherrill Wilcox was given a contract for the balance of the academic year to teach at Starkweather School. She is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University.

Board President Gerald Fischer gave a brief report from the finance committee, of which he is chairman.

He said that soon a "borrowing sequence" against the newly-created building and site sinking fund will be available and at that time the Board will have to determine what new construction to undertake with the added funds.

THOSE DRIVING to Florida this winter are expected to utilize the four main routes shown on this map, with the bulk of them favoring routes A and B because they offer most miles of four-lane highways and turnpikes and are relatively free of mountainous driving. The other routes are recommended for spring and fall. A 10 per cent increase is expected this winter over the estimated 400,000 Michigan residents who made the trip last year, Automobile Club of Michigan estimates.

Super-X Drug Store to Open In Near Future

Kroger Co.'s Super-X drug store here presumably will open in the near future as the result of a ruling last week by the Michigan Supreme Court.

A Kroger Co. spokesman said he had "not the slightest idea" precisely when the Super-X outlet in Plymouth would open, but he said it would probably be before next summer.

He said it "could be a good deal sooner."

The Michigan Supreme Court — by a 5-3 decision — declared the State Board of Pharmacy must issue a license to Super-X for a store in Battle Creek which will serve as the foundation for the eventual chain.

Super-X will have stores in Ypsilanti and Mt. Clemens as well as here and in Battle Creek.

The court ruling settled a drawn-out battle whereby independent druggists, argued that the Battle Creek drug company, which has been purchased by Kroger, should not receive a pharmacy license.

The battle was led by Plymouth druggist Robert Beyer who called upon the legal assistance of Plymouth attorney Edward Draugelis to fight the matter through the courts.

Financial and moral support swiftly gathered behind Beyer from among the hundreds of independent druggists in the state.

Perfection consists not in doing extraordinary things, but in doing ordinary things extraordinarily well.

"I NEVER saw so many fish", says banker John Pint who displays part of a day's catch of bass. Visiting relatives and friends in Rogers, Arkansas last week with Mrs. Pint the fisherman was high in praise of that area for real sport fishing. When asked by The Mail's reporter what he used for bait his answer was, "Don't be ridiculous, in Arkansas no one can use anything but a Heddon artificial bait because you should remember Daisy Manufacturing Company any now owns the Heddon Fishing Tackle Company."

McEwen Attends Communications Event in Ohio

As a past president of the American Records Management Association, Township Clerk John D. McEwen this week took part in a visual communications congress in Cleveland.

McEwen served as chairman of a panel that discussed micro-reproduction and its affect and uses in records management and records keeping.

McEwen attended the congress Saturday and Sunday, and again Tuesday. His panel discussion group met Tuesday.

Michigan's highest and lowest points of elevation are only a few miles apart. The highest peak, rising 1,900 feet, is in Baraga County, 14 miles west of L'Anse au Loup, at the bottom of Lake Superior is 1,020 feet down, 418 feet lower than sea level.

Guild's Request To Lease School Being Studied

Plymouth's Theatre Guild hopeful of acquiring a more permanent home for its activities, asked the School Board Monday night for permission to lease for a 10-year period the old Bartlett school on Canton Center Rd. north of Warren Rd.

Board members hesitated to agree to the request since the old schoolhouse was deeded to the District under terms that state if the school ceases to be used for "educational purposes" it will revert to its original private owner or their heirs.

The Board is not anxious to sacrifice the school and is exploring the legal aspects of the matter.

Interestingly, the Guild is now using the Bartlett school but about one-third of the building is still devoted to storage purposes for the School District. Thus, the legal clause governing the ownership of the school is probably met, Board members declare.

At any rate, the Board appears interested in continuing the "status quo" and does not care to risk any new moves which might abruptly cause the District to lose a storage facility and about one acre of what might someday become particularly valuable property in Canton Township.

FOUR PLYMOUTHITES recently completed a special Scout Leader's training program with the Sunset Scout District, of which Plymouth is a part. Completing the course, a six-week affair, were (from left): Cub Pack Den Mothers Frances Grimes, Betty Bramlett and Kathleen White, Troop No. 863 scoutmaster Don Bosker, and John Rudlaff, director of district cub training and cubmaster of troop No. 863, which is sponsored by Farrand School's PTA. The training course involved learning more about the importance of proper management of scout groups and renewing the goals and objectives of all scout leaders.

PHS Key Club Plans Christmas Drive Dec. 16

Plymouth High's recently-chartered Key Club, sponsored by Kiwanis Club, has announced plans to conduct a Christmas drive, Dec. 16, in an effort to collect household discards for use at the Plymouth State Home on Sheldon Rd.

The drive will be from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Some 25 members of the Key Club will canvass the residential area of Plymouth, collecting usable toys, books and clothing that otherwise might be discarded.

The items then will be distributed to children at the Plymouth State Home, a club spokesman said.

Residents wishing to contribute are asked to call GL 3-6248.

Vocational Study Group to Meet

The 14-member vocational training program study group will meet at the Senior High this Wednesday evening to determine the priority of work that awaits consideration.

Ernest Henry, a School Board member, is also chairman of the study committee which has been formed to determine how, when and where the school system's vocational training curriculum could and should be expanded.

The committee hopes to complete its work by Feb. 15 and report its findings in detail to the School Board itself.

Both the short-term and long-term needs of the vocational program will be reviewed and discussed in detail. Proposals covering both phases are expected to be made.

Livonia Man Dies In Car-Truck Crash

A Livonia man, Joseph Baumkratz, 56, died Tuesday morning as a result of injuries suffered in a car-truck crash in Canton Township.

State Police said Baumkratz was driving south on Cherry Hill and failed to heed a stop sign at the intersection at Canton Center Rd.

A truck, driven by Robert Wood, 32, of Dearborn, struck Baumkratz' car broadside, slamming it 100 feet down the road. Baumkratz was pronounced dead at Beyer Hospital in Ypsilanti. Wood sustained minor injuries.

Cautions Residents about Safety Facts in Use of Christmas Trees

Christmas is a time of profound rejoicing, but firemen everywhere caution residents in the proper and safe use of Christmas trees, the traditional symbol of the holiday season.

Here in Plymouth, Deputy Fire Chief Charles Groth warned that the greatest risk surrounding a Christmas tree is taken when a lighted tree is left unattended.

"A Christmas tree should never be left lighted when people leave their home or go to bed," Groth warned.

He listed other aspects of fire safety that pertain to the proper use of a Christmas tree.

1. Trees should be kept away from exits and aislesways.
2. Before setting up a tree, the trunk ought to be cut at least one inch above the original cut so that the tree can easily absorb water.
3. In this connection, the best sort of tree stand is one into which water may be poured periodically so as to keep the tree moist. Dry trees are an especial fire hazard.
4. The tree should be properly supported to avoid the risk of knocking it over. This frequently leads to a fire, when a tree is tipped over and electrical wires short circuit through the dry branches.
5. Trees should be decorated with non-combustible ornaments. (Fortunately, most all decorations today are non-combustible and non-flammable.)
6. Trees that show unusual dryness should be taken down promptly.
7. Tree lights should be thoroughly checked to see that the bulbs make good connections and that the wiring is in proper useable condition.

Start 3 New Night Classes For Drop-outs

Three classes that will count toward credit on a high school diploma are beginning shortly through the Plymouth adult education and recreation program.

Director Herb Woolweaver said that a class in sketching and blue-print reading, along with one in office procedures, will get underway this week.

The classes will meet each Tuesday and Thursday night for three hours from now until Jan. 16.

He said, too, that a course in oral expression and spelling will begin next Monday and will meet each Monday and Wednesday night for three hours until the middle of January.

Persons interested in enrolling in the classes may still do so, Woolweaver said. He asked that interested persons contact him at the adult education office at Plymouth High School, GL 3-3100.

The three classes are specifically designed for young adults who have not completed their high school studies and wish to earn a high school graduation diploma. Woolweaver explained, however, that anyone may enroll in the three new classes.

Felled by Smoke, Boy, 5, Remains on Critical List

A five-year-old Plymouth Township boy was in critical condition Tuesday at St. Mary Hospital after being felled by smoke when a fire broke out in his grandparents' home in Lake Pointe Village late Monday afternoon.

Robert Schafer was hospitalized after inhaling large quantities of smoke resulting from a fire that did considerable damage to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Szaley, 40951 Greenbriar.

They are the boy's grandparents.

Plymouth Township firemen discovered the boy unconscious in a rear bedroom. He had been at home alone. Firemen rushed him immediately to St.

Mary Hospital for examination and emergency treatment.

Acting Township Fire Chief Louis Norman said the boy was discovered in a bedroom with the door closed.

"If he hadn't been in there with the door closed," Norman said, "why there's no telling what..." He left the sentence unfinished.

The blaze broke out in the walls surrounding the front entrance to the house, Norman said. He said, however, that the fire was of "undetermined origin." It was hinted that an investigation is underway by Township fire officials and State Police.

A neighbor boy, 12-year-old Jack Rudlaff, reported the fire. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rudlaff, 41008 Greenbriar and had been playing nearby when he spotted flames issuing from the Szaley house.

He rushed inside his parents' home and told his mother about the fire as he was dialing the Township firemen to report the flames. Firemen received the call about 5:30 p.m., arrived on the scene within moments and instantly searched the house, discovering the boy in a back bedroom. The flames were extinguished swiftly.

The Szaleys have an 11-year-old son, Donald, who was also playing at the time. The five-year-old boy is the son of an older daughter, Mrs. Linda Luton, and was being cared for by the grandparents. The Schafer child attends Farrand School, a neighbor reported.

The Szaley home was not livable following the fire and the couple was believed to have moved in either with friends or relatives in the area.

Woman Gets 90 Days for Larceny

A Plymouth woman, Shirley Henley, 22, was sentenced Monday to 90 days in Detroit House of Correction after she pleaded guilty to a charge of simple larceny in Municipal Court here.

Sentence was handed down by Judge Harry Deyo. Miss Henley admitted a theft from a home on Hartsough St. about two weeks ago.

Livonia police have a warrant out for her on charges of shop-lifting from a store in Wonderland Shopping Center and Ypsilanti police want to question her on another possible offense.

Plymouth police said that Miss Henley's last known address was on Heard St. here.

Boar's Head Dinner Dec. 11

The ninth annual Boar's Head Dinner sponsored by the Men's Council of the First Presbyterian Church will be held in the Church Dining Room at 6:45 p.m. on Wednesday, December 11.

Under the chairmanship of Blaise Delaney this has become one of the colorful events of the season which is looked forward to by all men of the church, as well as their sons, friends and neighbors.

As in the past, the dinner will begin with a procession of men in medieval garb bearing the decorated boar's head to its place of honor to the tune of trumpets played by a group of appropriately costumed musicians.

This year's speaker will be Rev. Edward Castner whose topic will be "The Great Banquet." Choral music and group singing of Christmas carols under the direction of Fred Nelson and Wayne Dunlap will round out the all-male evening.

Behind the Fine Print
Earl Merriman

Many people have asked "why there has not been public interest for compulsory auto insurance." The answer seems quite simple. Articles in newspapers from time to time indicate three states have a compulsory law but problems arising from it have been greater than one such law was to cure.

Compulsory insurance has generated considerable heat but little positive legislation. New York, Massachusetts and North Carolina are the only states which have enacted such legislation, and frequently reported experience of these states should give the most zealous supporters something to think about. The New York Daily News recently reported that more than 373,000 New York motorists are uninsured and former North Carolina insurance commissioner estimated that 100,000 drivers in that state carry no insurance.

In Massachusetts, the State Motor Vehicle registrar, public safety commissioner, former insurance commissioner, and chairman of the state's ways & means committee, have called for repeal of the law. WHY? They hold the law does not promote highway safety, that "too many people become negligent and take chances, and some become too-claims conscious after the accident." Apparently the big failure of compulsory insurance is that it doesn't compel; offers no protection against insurance dodgers, hit-and-run drivers, the uninsured out-of-state driver, driver of a stolen car, the uninsured license-suspended driver, etc.

This law is expensive to administer. But look at the premiums! Five to seven times your present cost! We would immediately need to buy a Brinks wagon to take the money to the bank. And, what tax problems!

What is the solution? Protect yourself from the other fellow. Uninsured Motorist coverage is equally as important as liability insurance. For a $4.00 premium the family may receive up to $20,000 from your insurance company, for injuries caused by the uninsured uncollectible irresponsible driver. The same premium invested in road service would return how much? Citizens Mutual will also insure your deductible or entire auto under UM property damage for an additional $3.00.

Call us so that we may explain in detail how protecting yourself from the other fellow is the answer.

TO THE 1,185,000 FAMILIES SERVED BY DETROIT EDISON

What can you buy for pennies today?

Electric energy is one thing—the cleanest, most versatile form of useful energy. One great advantage is its adaptability. Electric energy is used for lighting, cooking and communication; for heating, cooling and to run computers. It powers motors small enough to run wristwatches, and motors large enough to operate the presses that form auto bodies.

Detroit Edison provides electric energy for pennies per kilowatt-hour. And the more you use, the lower the unit cost becomes. Below, expressed in pennies, are estimated costs of operation of the more commonly used electric appliances.

Constant research, alert management and the dedication of our employees have enabled us to reduce the unit cost of electric energy. For example, when I first became a part of the electric industry in 1922, it took nearly two pounds of coal to generate one kilowatt-hour of energy. Over the intervening years I've seen technological developments reduce this figure to 1.7 pounds—1.5 pounds—1.25 pounds and then a pound. Today, the most efficient of our turbine generators produce a kilowatt-hour of electric energy from three-fourths pound of coal.

Detroit Edison has pioneered in many of the engineering improvements which have led to these and other economies. As a result, the company has not increased its rates for electric service since 1949. Equally important, most of our customers use more electric energy now than they did then, so the average cost per kilowatt-hour is 14 per cent less than it was in 1949.

This is one reason why it's good economy to live electrically. Detroit Edison services, including free or minimum cost electric appliance repairs, are additional reasons. Backing up these services are all the efficient facilities and friendly people that are the company.

Sincerely, Walker L. Cisler

4,500 Welcome Santa Claus

(Cont'd from Pg. 1, Sec. 1) Runners in keeping with the holiday season. Temperatures in the low thirties had no effect on the turn-out. Crowds of youngsters and parents lined both sides of the street all the way from Wing and Forest Ave. to Union and Penniman Ave. where the parade dispersed. Santa Claus disembarked from his special holiday car at Kellogg Park in front of the Penn Theater and was promptly greeted by the first of the hundreds of youngsters who had showed up to visit him in his little Red Shoe House.

Santa was accompanied by his personal chauffeur, Ronald Coosaia, who — as a JayCee — organized and arranged Plymouth's first and highly successful Christmas parade. These will be Santa's hours in his little Red Shoe House in the park from now until his busy night of the year on Dec. 24.

Thursday, Dec. 12, and Friday, Dec. 13 — 5:30 to 8:30 p.m.; Saturday, Dec. 14 — 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 4:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Thursday, Dec. 19, and Friday, Dec. 20 — 5:30 to 8:30 p.m.; Saturday, Dec. 21 — 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 4:30 to 8:30 p.m.; Monday, Dec. 23 — 5:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Main St. and Starkweather corner: Gerry Prince and Fred Hadley. Main St. and Ann Arbor Tr.: Ken Bisbee, Robert Fitzer, Lester Coutts and Elroy Merchant. Main St. and Ann Arbor Rd.: George Merchant, Robert Tripp, Clarence Holman, George Mecklenburg and Barney Maas. Garages and service stations: William Michaels. Free lance: Milan Frank, Martin Schomberger, Jim Henry, Gwynne Fulton, Bob Houghton and Loren Goodale. Meanwhile, another name has been added to the list of "Goodfellows of Yesteryear," those members of the local organization who have died. George Howell has passed away since last year's newspaper sale. He was the second president of the Plymouth group, serving in 1940 after Harry Robinson held the office during 1938 and 1939. Howell's passing leaves Harry Brown as the oldest living past president of the Plymouth Goodfellows. Brown was president in 1941 immediately after Howell. This year's officers include Goodale as president; Calvin Brown as first vice-president; Harold Stevens as treasurer; and Lester Coutts as secretary. Both Stevens and Coutts are former presidents of the Goodfellows here. Stevens was president in 1944 and Coutts in 1959. Last year's president was Paul Sanders. Eleven special work committees are already busy programming the club's 1963 plan of assistance. The committees deal with such matters as purchase of clothing, food and toys, packaging the much-needed donations, distribution of the gift packages and investigation of potential recipients. Before we passionately desire anything which another enjoys, we should examine as to the happiness of its possessor. —Rocheffcauld

ANNUAL commemoration of Pearl Harbor Day took place in quiet ceremonies last Saturday morning when two members of the VFW women's auxiliary placed a commemorative wreath beside Plymouth Rock in Kellogg Park. Mrs. William Fletcher and Mrs. Duane Johnson placed the wreath down.

$20 Million in Refinancing Bolsters Evans Products Co.

Evans Products Co. from its corporate headquarters in Portland, Oregon, has announced the completion of a $20 million refinancing program. Evans Products has a plant on Eckles Rd. here. The president of the company, Monford Orloff, said the refinancing "is a significant step forward in placing the company on a completely sound financial footing that will enable us to program future growth on a long-range basis." Involved are a $17 million unsecured note due in 1980 and a $3,000,000 unsecured bank loan due in 1969. The note was placed with Prudential Ins. Corp. of America and the bank loan with United States National Bank of Portland, Marine Midland Trust Co. of New York, Security First National Bank of Los Angeles, and National Bank of Commerce, Seattle. The proceeds will be used to replace existing short-term indebtedness to banks and certain long-term obligations to institutional lenders and others, as well as for general corporate purposes. "The new arrangement eliminates a number of restrictions in prior loan agreements. With these restrictions gone, we can now consolidate our domestic subsidiaries into the parent company, a step long overdue. This consolidation will simplify our corporate structure and lead to greater administrative efficiency," Orloff stated. Noting that terms of the loans require no repayment of principal until the end of 1966 and a "modest" amortization schedule in the early years thereafter, Orloff said that substantial capital improvements in Evans Products facilities and other steps to enhance profits are planned during the initial period. Blyth & Co., Inc., investment bankers, represented Evans in arranging the refinancing. Evans Products is a major producer and distributor of Plywood, Plywall paneling, hardboard and related building materials, and the leading manufacturer of damage prevention equipment for railroad freight cars. Workers should check their social security accounts at least once every three years, especially those who have worked for more than one employer. Postal card request form 7004 is available at all social security district offices.

(Cont'd from Pg. 1, Sec. 1) more many are at desks set up in a special service room. School authorities state that this is not "a good situation." Farrand School is another instance of overcrowding, the Board agreed, but no immediate action was taken Monday night on this aspect.

The precise cost of implementing Isbister's proposal drew considerable comment among Board members before approval was issued. Board President Gerald Fischer estimated it would cost the District approximately $6,000 for the February-to-June period that the three new classrooms in Junior High West are in use in this fashion. The Board had not budgeted for the utilization of phase two of Junior High West this academic year. Original anticipated opening date of the new portion of the building — which cost about $650,000 — was next fall. One additional teacher and quite likely a new custodial employee will be required to meet the demands of the three new teaching stations that will be set up in Junior High West. While they agreed to Isbister's proposal, Board members also directed the administration to prepare a complete cost study of the transfer of the elementary school pupils to Junior High West. The Board also touched briefly upon a plan of action regarding the newly-created building and site sinking fund which will provide money for new schools. Robert Soth, head of the Board's facilities committee, urged his fellow Board members to begin considering a priority list of new construction projects in order that the District may strive to keep pace with its burgeoning school population. "I think this is something we should get into immediately after the first of the year," Soth declared. Board members appear to be in agreement that they must act now in order to have construction begin next summer on new facilities. They are not totally certain at this time, however, whether the first step in new construction should be another elementary school or an expansion of the high school shop facilities. A study of the situation will begin shortly.

KIWANIS NOTES

By Ken Way

Wendell Miller and the Kiwanis Education and Fellowship Committee presented a Fun Night Program, "Under the Coffee Cup", featuring the Six Corn Cobs last week.

The program was enjoyed by club members and guests Ed Holst and Garv Campeau. Gus Worth reported that the club was able to secure an old automobile and a refrigerator for the 4-H Club that meets in the old Cherry Hill School in Canton Twp.

Worth and his Agriculture Committee sponsor this group of young people.

Carl Lewis and his Church Committee urged the club to support the Religion in American Life theme by attending the church of your choice next Sunday.

Gerry Fitch presented a quarterly report of the activities and accomplishments of the 26 various club committees. Fitch also reported that the Detroit League for the Handicapped has space available at the Maybury Sanitarium to train handicapped persons for employment.

There is a small business in operation there and one of their jobs is making a small license plate bracket for American Motors Corp.

The last two meetings of this year will be held Monday, Dec. 23, and Monday, Dec. 30, rather than on Tuesday nights. Joe West reported that the Plymouth High Key Club will meet Dec. 16 and 23 and will collect items for donation to the Plymouth State Hospital.

Guest speaker Dec. 17 will be Ray Clark, who will present an aviation program. The Christmas program will be Dec. 23 and attendance pins will be presented Dec. 30 by President Walt Gemperline.

Swim or sink, live or die, survive or perish with my country was my unalterable determination.

Bartel's Target Of Burglars; 1st Time in 30 Years

Burglars broke into Bartel's Greenhouse, 39089 Plymouth Rd., early last week and took an estimated $150 worth of holiday roping and Christmas wreaths that had been ordered by Hillside Inn and the Plymouth Garden Club.

It was the first burglary of its kind at Bartel's in more than 30 years, according to owner William Bartel.

He said the thieves would have had to use either a truck or a station wagon to carry off the bulky loot. Livonia police were notified and conducted an investigation but were without clues as to who had done it.

Bartel was able to replace the entire order to both Hillside Inn and the garden club. The loss was not covered by insurance, he said.

better highways create jobs
Michigan's growing system of safe, new freeways is contributing importantly to the dynamic drive to attract new industry into the state.

Businessmen searching for new plant locations or opportunity for commercial development know that modern transportation facilities are an essential requirement. Now, more than ever before, Michigan's economic growth is dependent upon improved highways.

Any curtailment of the highway improvement program risks a slowdown in economic expansion. Your support of a good roads program will help Michigan grow and provide needed new jobs!

Industry wants dependable, all-weather highways to move materials and products. Concrete pavements are first choice to provide the load-carrying capacity required. Durable and smooth-riding, concrete roads give longer service with minimum maintenance. And this means tax economy to both industry and pleasure drivers.

When you see a new concrete highway, you know Michigan is moving forward—and new industry and more jobs are soon to follow!

Each year, he gives the toys to a different charity for ultimate distribution to needy children. Everyone is speculating on what the political future will hold for Governor George Romney. I don't propose to get into the act and I certainly am in no position from this corner to say whether or not he will run again for the Governorship.

However, there are certain things that cannot be denied as far as his term in office, so far, are concerned. If he is disillusioned and disappointed, as the daily press so frequently reports, he most certainly has every reason to be.

It's no surprise to me that his own Republican party brought about the defeat of his fiscal reform program, and for the first time in many years the Grand Old Party had its first opportunity to actually provide this State with some badly needed tax reform. But, typical of Michigan Republican Legislative thinking and acting, the Republican Legislators, for the most part, were more interested in keeping their jobs, particularly in the rural districts, rather than go to the aid of their party and provide the residents of this State with some constructive tax reform.

This was a hard blow for a dedicated public servant who entered into the Governor's job with the belief that he could meld his own party into one group which could bring some actual reform.

It is my opinion that the tip-off came when Speaker Allison Green, early in the session, wasn't sure that he could buy the program. I can assure you, from past experience, that when Speaker Green makes such an observation there is an immediate "built-in" block of outstate Legislators already of the same opinion and no matter what compromises might be offered there will be no final action which will bring about any constructive action.

Piece by piece these Republican die-hards, in both the House and the Senate, slowly hacked to death the entire program which finally just died of its own accord. Governor Romney's statement after the fiasco, that he would not attempt to again place the issue before the Legislature this year or next because it would be to no avail with the present composition of those august bodies, made good sense.

This, then, indicates that if Governor Romney were to attempt to gain a second term he might find himself in the position of trying to clean out the obstructionist Republicans from the present membership of both the House and the Senate. I question if he desires such an embroilment.

However, I am not sure but what such a possibility might not be a good thing for Michigan. In the Senate, as an example, some of the newer Republican replacements who took the seats of some of the old block worked fervently to help the Governor put his program on the books but their efforts were not enough to overcome the objections of such Senators as Clyde Geerling of Holland and Joe Smeekens of Coldwater. There were others, too, many, in fact.

This group represents the old guard Republicanism which apparently will remain obstructionist to any and all new tax reform ideas even though it is evident we need it badly.

My guess is that Governor Romney, a hard headed businessman, has become thoroughly disgusted with Lansing politics. I admit I did, and if his feelings, which he hasn't publically displayed, are in this vein, I, for one, won't be surprised if he just flatly states he has had it and lets the Republican party flounder in his retirement . . . and I might just add . . . flounder it will and deservedly so.

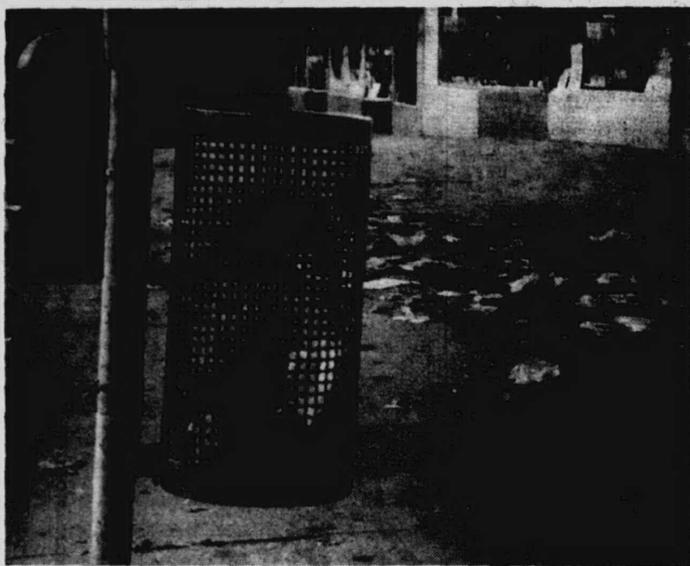

Last Thursday's parade and Christmas tree lighting ceremony is one more proof that with a little community cooperation and planning, almost any undertaking can be a success.

Seven weeks ago Saturday, Hugh Jarvis and Cecil Sharrard were in my office passing the time of day when this idea erupted. A phone call to JayCee president Wendell Smith set the stage for a hurried Sunday morning conference which was attended by the afore mentioned and Chamber president Wendell Lent, Joe Fletcher and Randy Eaton.

It didn't take long for the group to agree to try and stage such an undertaking. There were reservations, of course. Would a night-time parade be possible and would it draw people? Could the group in so short a time get local participation? Would the High School band participate? These and many more problems posed some of the unknowns that the group had to face.

In typical Plymouth fashion it was agreed that there could never be an answer until it was tried . . . so, try they did, and you know the results. It was a tremendous success for a first attempt.

Certainly there were disappointments along the way and some of the plans didn't jell this year, primarily, in my opinion, because there just wasn't enough time to do a total job . . . but . . . in spite of this handicap, the parade was a dandy for a starter and some 5,000 people did turn out to witness Santa's arrival. To top it all off, of course, was the fact that the Goodfellows did actually pass out 3,500 candy canes to kiddies along the parade route and this alone made the undertaking a significant success as far as I am concerned.

When one looks back to see the insignificant starts that the Rotary barbecue and Fall Festival programs had, it shows the possible potential of this as a regular Christmas feature for the community.

There is little doubt but what the two Chambers will start their joint planning earlier next year and some of the attractions desired this year will be available to enhance the program next holiday season.

The weatherman smiled on Plymouth, too, to help make the event the success it was and most local stores were surprised by the brisk traffic they enjoyed the first official night of their store openings.

The originating group, parade chairman Ronald Cossaia and the people that helped him, Joe Bida, who cooperated in so many ways, even to helping old St. Nick himself be the natural that he was, the two Chambers, both senior and junior, deserve the plaudits of the business community and our residents for the excellent job they did.

It is this kind of unselfish dedicated community service that brings these undertakings into the realm of reality and it is this kind of effort, put forth by these kind of people, that make this the distinctive community it is. No wonder Plymouth is able to retain its own individuality and with this as another example of what community cooperation can do there seems little doubt as to the continuity of this image.

If there were 5,000 people on hand this year I predict there will be 10,000 next year. It's a program that could have far reaching implications. If the effort is planned early enough so that the participation can be expanded there is little doubt as to its potential as an attraction for the people of this whole area.

'Beanstalk' Plays To Bumper Crop Of 1,000 Tots

Saturday's four performances of "Jack and The Beanstalk", the Plymouth Theater Guild's 48th production, played to a capacity crowd of appreciative youngsters.

Once again the storybook figures lived for the small fry through the efforts of Merlin Heft (the Giant), Bret Sutton (Jack), Roberta Seelhoff (Jack's mother), Johanna Mueller (Giant's wife), John Augustine (the Cow), Jean Kuisel (Golden Hen), Kathy Moore (the Good Fairy), Kathleen Bosquette (the Harp), and Jim Blackman (the Bean-man).

Over 1,000 youngsters thrilled to the scary antics of the Giant, roared with innocent laughter when the Giant got the worst of a fight scene, and cheered when Jack managed to run away with the Golden Hen.

Producer Jake Rumpf had words of praise for his backstage crew. Lighting was done by Bob Wall with an assist by Darrel Scheans and Stan Phillips.

Richard Brown handled musical effects. Ray Maidment provided imaginative settings. Norma Lovless, Paul Wheeler and Phil Ashton painted the sets. Kathy Moore filled in as make-up chairman.

Director James Blackman took over the role of the beanman when Jerry French had to leave the cast due to his wife's illness.

Grange Cleanings

Jesse Tritton
GL 3-6387

The first December meeting of Plymouth Grange was held at our hall on Union Street Thursday evening, December 5, starting with a pot-luck supper. November and December birthdays were observed at this time by a special birthday table decorated for the occasion by Mary Fillmore who also provided the birthday cake. The business meeting followed, during which our flag was draped in memory of our late President. At the close of the meeting Jesse Tritton showed slides of his trip to Europe this Fall. At a later date more pictures will be shown.

There will be no December meeting of Wayne-Washtenaw Pomona Grange.

The Dec. 19 meeting of Plymouth Grange will be our Christmas meeting. The program will be in charge of our Juvenile and Youth Committee Chairmen, Eve and Jim Farquhar. As usual, we will have a Christmas Tree and the usual candy and popcorn. Word has also been received that Santa Claus will make his annual visit during our meeting. All members, who wish to do so, will take part in the usual 50 cent gift exchange. Gifts are to be clearly marked for man or lady, each man to bring a gift for a man and each lady to bring one for a lady. Those bringing children be sure to bring the child's gift clearly marked with the child's name.

Classroom TV - - 'Seeing is Believing'

By Ed Brown

"Seeing is believing," according to many Plymouth elementary school teachers who are using selected television programs as supplementary teaching aids to their regular classroom instruction.

Local educational spokesmen say that the TV screen is rapidly becoming a vital instrument of visual education to hundreds of local public school youngsters.

Here in Plymouth, each elementary school has a TV set of its own and some have two. They are being used rather extensively in the fifth grades at most of the schools, and at the third and fourth grade levels when appropriate programs are available.

Starkweather School, Plymouth's oldest elementary school now that the former Central Grade School is a part of the Senior High facilities, is the proud possessor of a TV set being used for educational purposes.

A typical third-grade week at Starkweather might go much like this:

Monday, at 9:10 for 20 minutes, the students see "Understanding Numbers." This is closely correlated with the mathematics programs.

The teachers say this is a unique program and one designed to help develop better concepts in mathematics. Tuesday, at the same hour, the youngsters watch "Come, Let's Read," a program from a book entitled "Finding New Neighbors."

This is followed by a phonic analysis relating to third grade work. Third grade teacher Mrs. Elizabeth Donnelly says that the narrator often makes phonic errors (intentional) which the students notice right away.

Friday, at 1:10 p.m., the youngsters see "The Children's Hour" — an enriching program of fun and entertainment. The fifth graders get first-hand information about collecting rocks and insects as well as related experiences concerning varied subjects.

Teachers Miss Ann Welch and Mrs. Jean Wernette say these are excellent programs that hold the interest of some 60 children from the beginning to the end.

Other grade schools have like programs for science, Spanish and arithmetic. Jim Grinenka, fifth grade teacher at Farrand, uses the program three days a week for his basic science class.

Says Jim, "I like the program because many things can be seen by the children that would take me a tremendous amount of time to prepare. It gives me more time to work with the children on follow-up activities in science. I'm all for it." All teachers said the subject matter is well-organized and appropriate for the various age groups. Some of these programs have been pilot experiences in our school system, and as a result of the success so far it is anticipated that TV will be a regular feature of most classrooms in the future.

No More Silver in the Bank...

A new $1 bill is making its appearance in Plymouth and the metropolitan Detroit area these days, but it "spends" just as easily as the older and more familiar ones.

According to Robert Barbour, of National Bank of Detroit's Plymouth branch, the only particularly significant change in the new bill is the fact it no longer is backed by a dollar in silver coin.

Barbour explained that the previous dollar bills are "silver certificates" and could be redeemed for a silver dollar coin at any time.

The new bills are described as "Federal Reserve Notes" and do not carry a designation of "silver certificate."

The change was made, Barbour said, so as to relieve the U.S. Government of the necessity of having to store an amount of silver comparable to the amount of bills in existence.

"These new bills are backed by the 'guarantee of the government' rather than by silver," Barbour said, by way of further explanation. "It doesn't change their value in any manner and they still have as much purchasing power."

Printed as 1963 series bills, the money is slightly different in appearance from the older bills, Barbour said.

He explained that the numeral "1" is more ornately encircled than on previous bills, and that there are green numbers and a green seal on the new bills rather than the blue numbers and seals on the older versions.

The U.S. has backed its currency with silver exclusively since it went into effect only a collector's item.
