The emphasis was on youth and how to get the individual more involved in the church at the second annual Inter-Faith dinner held Friday night at Lofy's.

An outgrowth of the Plymouth Ministerial Association alliance, the dinner drew nearly 400, as it did last year.

A panel moderated by Russell Isbister, school superintendent, and composed of Thomas Foley, judge, Sanford Burr, school administrator, Rev. Ron Phelps, chaplain at the Wayne County training school, Rev. Father Alfred Renaud of Our Lady of Good Counsel church, and John Herb, an insurance executive, discussed the role of the Church in the community. Here are some of their comments.

Isbister opened the discussion with comments on the role of the individual.

"ALL OF us form judgments about what we hear, see, feel — no two of us see things exactly the same. In a world torn with conflict and literally awash with human blood, the challenge for man is to realize the power of his mind."

Rev. Phelps, a Baptist, commented on the role of the church.

"We are considering here the church in its broadest ecumenical sense — the church universal — the church of all believers."

"The church must be involved because it is the redemptive body of love, and because we of the church do have some of the answers. It has been the feeling that we had all the answers that at times has made us ineffective."

Rev. R. Phelps "life saving"

Speaking jokingly of what he called "planned parent hoods," Rev. Phelps urged that the church must work around the structure of the family, and that the church had too long been protective, not creative.

Rev. Phelps capped his talk with a modern parable of a life-saving station that began well enough, but as it got wealthy it became a club that didn't reach those who needed it the most.

Sanford Burr, who is an administrator at the Southfield High School, and a member of the Methodist Church spoke on the highly structured nature of our society.

"We live in a highly structured society. Everyone wants to belong, but to belong you must belong to the structured society."

"There is a sense of rebellion," said Burr. "The church often tends to be structured, and hope that people fall into several molds."

CIRCUIT Judge Foley noted that the church might look at its own institutions.

"Instead of trying to fit a congregation to an organization that is centuries old, why not look at some changes."

Later Foley said:

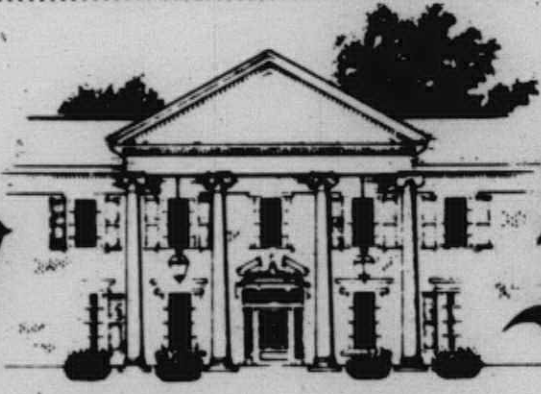

"Great emphasis has been placed on the man to God relationship, and very little on the man to man, and man to man duties, and rights emanating therefrom." On a question from the floor on demonstrations, Foley said:

"Until the church recognizes that they have to get into all phases of our life, we are going to have demonstrations. People sit back; there is no interest and complete apathy exists. It may be through the churches that an answer will come."

Plymouth Mail

Vol. 78, No. 21 Wednesday, January 26, 1966 "Where The Plymouth Community Comes First" 2 Sections, 14 Pages 10 Cents

EVANS PRODUCTS new administration center, which will face Plymouth Rd., was unveiled Monday. A mid-summer completion is slated.

Improvise at schools in face of packed rooms

Parents of students in Farrand Elementary School are once again faced with crowded conditions, and this time it may mean the busing of a class of first graders to Allen School.

According to Superintendent of Schools Russell Isbister, another teacher will definitely be added to help with the bulging first grade.

But just what else will be done was yet to be decided as the Mail's deadline was reached. A meeting with the parents involved had been set up for Tuesday (Jan. 25) evening at the school.

Principal Gerald Elston was expected to outline possible alternatives to the problem:

1. Busing the students and teacher to Allen School, where there is an empty classroom.
2. Using a smaller room, possibly a room now used as a materials center.
3. Use the teacher as a helper working in the overcrowded classroom — a sort of team-teaching setup.

And Farrand wasn't the only Plymouth school faced with burgeoning enrollment this week.

Bird Elementary School will move 16 third graders into a teacher's lounge, according to principal Earl Gibson.

FACED with nearly forty in fifth grade classes, Gibson elected to shuffle students and rooms. With the small third grade leaving a full-sized classroom for the lounge, some will be moved from both fourth and fifth grade rooms, and a combined fourth-fifth class made for the emptied room.

The staff lounge will be moved into a part of the clinic.

"The staff decided they would be willing to live with this for one-half semester," Gibson said Monday.

"We can't function well with 40 in a class; it's just that simple. It was a matter of which is better — a teacher's lounge, or another classroom."

On the Farrand situation, the crowded conditions echo back to other more severe crowding a year ago when the Farrand addition was incomplete, and the multi-purpose room was used for three classes. Isbister spoke Friday on the matter:

"If there is strong resistance to the busing, there are other alternatives." He notes, however, that a similar move was made last year from Bird to Smith School.

The conditions at Farrand will be relieved next fall when the new elementary school is expected to be completed at the Five Mile Haggerty Rd. site.

And, at Bird, four additional rooms are being added on, as well as at Gallimore School.

All projects will be completed this fall. They are on schedule, reports Isbister.

Farrand has a capacity for 720 students, and now has 729, as a result of the rapidly expanding Lake Pointe area.

The nine students do not pose a real problem — it's just that the student overflow is not in the right spots, distributed evenly.

Allen, which will hold 660, has only 592.

ALL THIS comes in the face of an apparent slight mid-winter drop in total school system enrollment, as noted by Melvin Blunk, assistant superintendent of schools.

A total net loss of 33 students has been recorded — but a gain of 13 occurred in the elementary schools, while the secondary schools lost 46. Thus, a net loss of 33 for the entire system has been recorded, as of Dec. 22.

BILLED AS BEST:

Chamber to hear nationwide speaker

Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce members and their families and friends will gather at the Mayflower Meeting House for the annual C of C recognition dinner this Thursday.

Beginning at 6:45, the dinner will feature the best prime rib dinner the Mayflower Hotel has to offer, organ music from Dan Greer, and a speech by Dr. Kenneth McFarland.

McFarland wowed a crowd of 2000 at a recent meeting sponsored by the Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Company of America.

Billed as "America's Number One spokesman," and America's Number One platform speaker, McFarland's topic will be "Wake the Town and Tell the people."

THE DINNER will honor the new officers, board of directors, and the over fifty new members of the Chamber of Commerce.

Tidings of growth will be heralded by the Chamber at the banquet, as the C of C's new look and 'Blueprint for Progress' gets an official launching.

Members tickets are $7.50, and partner (wives and husbands) are $5.50.

About 400 are expected at the dinner, which will recognize the new president Carl Purcell, the new vice-president, John Kamego, and Harvey Zeil, re-elected treasurer.

Evans to build new $400,000 building

Evans Products will spend roughly $400,000 for a new administration building to face Plymouth Rd., expecting to break ground early in February.

Completion for the new 22,000 sq. ft. office building, announced Monday by James J. Conway, executive vice-president in charge of Evans Products Company's Transportation Equipment Group, is slated for mid-summer.

The announcement comes on the heels of several other vast expansion plans revealed throughout 1965.

Acquisition by Spartan Stores Inc. of a 35-acre tract of land in Plymouth Township was announced late Tuesday afternoon by Joseph G. Foy, executive vice-president of the giant Michigan food distributor.

The work on the sale of the land was done by Harold Fischer, director of the Plymouth Area Planning Commission. The sale marks the first concrete results of the Commission, formed several months ago to attract industrial and commercial development.

Canton and Plymouth Townships, and the City of Plymouth took part in the formation, and Fischer was hired as director in late Sept., 1965.

Plans call for a warehouse costing nearly two and one-half million dollars, according to Raymond Dutners, Spartan operations executive who was on hand at the closing of the sale Tuesday.

Record budget OK'd by Chamber at Thursday meet

A record budget of $15,808.93 was approved by the Chamber of Commerce for 1966 at its January Board of Directors' meeting Thursday.

The budget represents an increase of about $3400 over last year. Small increases in each area account for the boost.

The budget is part of the C of C's new look — as outlined in the "Blueprint for Progress" which was formally presented at the meeting.

Among other matters were:

- The Plymouth Community Development Weekend, set for March 5 and 6 at Hillsdale College. That meeting is expected to draw (Continued on Page 3)

Set Mothers' March for February 1

The climax of the March of Dimes fund raising campaign will be on Tuesday, Feb. 1. The Mothers' March chairman, Mrs. Roger Corey, announced that more than 200 marchers will call on every home in the Plymouth area so that all will have an opportunity to contribute.

Many of the volunteers will march during the day, but most will march in the evening. (Continued on Page 3)

Covington named to head PCF

New officers for the Plymouth Community Fund board of directors were elected at a special meeting of the Fund's officials Jan. 18 at the Plymouth Township Hall.

Dr. William Covington was elected president. Dr. Covington is a dentist.

John Herb, Rotarian and executive at the American Plan Insurance Company, was named vice president of the PCF.

Mrs. Betty Korte, an employee of the National Bank of Detroit, will act as treasurer, as she did last year. (Continued on Page 2)

Band to present first of winter concerts Sunday

The Plymouth Community Band, featuring two brass choirs from the University of Michigan, will present the first of three winter concerts this Sunday at PHS at 4 p.m.

The band is wholly supported by the Plymouth Community Federal Credit Union.

The program also includes the Ford Chorus, sponsored by Ford Motor Co. and directed by Ray C. Kool.

The program will feature: Excerpts from "Francesca da Rimini," Tchaikovsky.

Highlights from Jerome Kern's "Showboat."

Finale from "Symphony No. 1 in G Minor" by Kahlinnikov.

"The Northern Pines March" by John Phillip Sousa.

"The Voice of the Guns" of Kenneth Alford.

"Dundedin" by K. Alford.

The Ford Chorus is expected to sing "Rejoice Ye Christians Loudly" by Bach, "I Can Tell the World" by Hairton, and "Praise the Lord."

Popular tunes also scheduled are "Chim-Chim Cheree," "Zip-A-Dee," "Rueben and Rachel," and "Finian's Rainbow."

Close warehouse deal

Wilford and Margaret Bunyea.

The warehouse will have about 1100 feet of Haggerty Rd. frontage.

"The site gives easy access to the network of expressways that connect with the city of Detroit, the eastern Michigan marketing area and the northern Ohio market.

"With sales in the Detroit area now 7 times what they were in 1962 when Spartan entered the Detroit market, it is imperative that Spartan construct a new, modern warehouse to serve present accounts properly and handle the many requests for service which we are receiving Michigan and northern Ohio," constantly from retailers throughout southeastern Foy said.

Dutmers, and A. Joseph Mummery, resident manager of the Detroit facility, are completing plans for a 300,000 - 350,000 square foot warehouse and expect construction to begin this spring in order that operations may begin from the new location early in 1967.

The Spartan warehouse in Grand Rapids, recognized as one of the most efficient in the nation, covers 12 acres.

Current Spartan sales are in excess of $140,000,000 per year.

Evans

Conway said the new building is needed because of continuing growth in the transportation equipment part of the company's operations. Evans has long been the nation's leading designer and manufacturer of equipment designed to prevent damage to railroad freight cars and lading.

IN ADDITION to an increase in volume of sales for this equipment, the company's freight car construction facility originally built in September, 1964 has undergone two major expansions in order to meet railroad and shipper needs.

The company also recently broadened its activity in the railroad industry by acquiring a freight car leasing firm (United States Railway Equipment Company, Chicago), and a freight car brake beam and freight car door manufacturer (Chicago Railway Equipment Company and Superior Car Door Company, Chicago).

Planners

review new apartments

The Plymouth Township planning commission held a marathon session last Wednesday, and heard proposals for 88 apartment units on Northville Road, and a similar 160-unit development along Ann Arbor Trail just east of Salem Square.

The action came at the regular meeting of the planners last Wednesday - a meeting which lasted four and one-half hours.

The first request, along Northville Road, came from Saul Ross, and was tabled for further study.

The second item, from Holtzman and Silverman and Gould, developers, was listed for a public hearing on Feb. 16. Local developer Bud Gould outlined the plans, noting the apartments would fall just west of the route of the proposed I-275 freeway.

Rev. A. Renaud "love is hard"

But the only answer is love in dealing with individuals. Take the YMCA. Here is a case of individuals going out and spending time, working with, being with, playing with."

And on divorce, Rev. Father Renaud said: "Marriage is something that must stand. It cannot be sacrificed because our society depends on it."

"Love is personal, love is hard... demanding," he concluded.

John Herb, a member of OLCG, and treasurer of the American Insurance Co., noted that he felt sometimes, with the extra activities, that he was neglecting his own family.

On the question of getting the laity more involved, Herb had this to say:

John Herb "time"

"It's not a question of not knowing them. Call them up. You might be surprised. The church can't stay in its own baliswick... that goes for the members as well as the clergy," he said.

The entire panel also discussed the role of the laity, and noted that they may not have been given a true chance.

Hidden costs in freeways

Real estate construction in the path of new Michigan Interstate freeways is costing taxpayers millions of dollars.

And State road officials say there is nothing that can be done to stop builders from building—under present State law and the Michigan constitution.

Recently, a story from a Lansing newspaper noted that a $500,000 Michigan State employee's credit union faced condemnation in the path of a new freeway.

That $500,000 will have to be paid for by the Michigan taxpayer.

Even after state officials announce the general corridor or route of the freeway, land developers are free to build. Often a ten-year time lag has taken place between the announcement, and the actual purchase of land.

Highway officials also note that the developer rarely profits from the sale of fully developed land, but that the taxpayer gets a sound rap in the pocketbook.

The state pays fair market price, and the law allows the developer to go ahead. In fact, Highway Department spokesmen reluctantly admit they can't really blame the developers. They cannot pay taxes, cover the mortgage interest or land contract and then take a loss.

Nor can a local municipality really set restrictive rezoning, because such a zoning is subject to a reversal in court.

In Plymouth Township, the whole problem may come to a boil in the next few months as the Highway Department begins purchase for the proposed I-275 freeway. Township officials fear that a portion of Lake Pointe may be turned under, just a few years after it was completed. It is definitely expected to cut into a portion of shopping center land near Wilcox Rd. and Schoolcraft Rd.

That poses two questions: How can the law be changed to prevent such a waste of taxpayer's money? and, Is there really a cheaper way to go?

When millions are involved it is important for the Michigan legislature to step in, and act.

One possible solution would be to speed up condemnation proceedings which are often merely an attempt to get more money for the property involved.

Another would allow quicker purchase from those willing to sell, perhaps tying up land and state money for a long period of time, but possibly saving money in the long run.

In any event, it is important that we realize that the sound and the fury emanating from nearby suburbs over the proposed I-696 freeway may soon be echoed right here in Plymouth.

And there are questions to be raised—particularly about the hidden costs of highway building.

Officials agree the state must own land to freeze development. With that in mind, it is hoped the state legislature can look at the problem of buildings in the path of new highways boosting road costs to Michigan taxpayers.

Mother's March

It is suggested that porch lights be turned on to light the way for marchers in those areas where no day call was made. Every effort will be made to complete the march on February 1.

A call for more volunteers to march has been issued, and those interested may call 453-8806 for more information.

The area captains are Mrs. L. E. Curok, Mrs. Arden Sackett, Mrs. Anthony Anason, Mrs. Robert Bartley, Mrs. Ford Sutherland, and Mrs. Malcolm Pierce.

Plans call for collecting $3,000 locally to aid scientists and doctors to cut down the terrible frequency of Birth Defects. The March of Dimes is the only voluntary health agency in the nation that achieved an earlier goal of conquering polio by investing more than $85,100,000 in producing both the Salk and Sabin vaccines.

IT IS determined to reverse the terrible toll of Birth Defects.

The March of Dimes headquarters on East Forest in Detroit welcome contacts with local families who need help with a birth defect problem.

The Plymouth Pilgrim

How much longer can we afford to fail dismally, at the home, school and local level, in teaching today's youngsters what has made this country tick?

This was the question I found myself asking after a talk given last Friday by Daniel J. White of Junior Achievement of Southeastern Michigan, Inc.

White, speaking to a local service club, came up with a few statistics that I found a bit disturbing. In the course of his remarks on Junior Achievement's effort to instill in youngsters an appreciation of free enterprise and the American economic system, he cited two surveys among high school students:

- (1) 84% considered patriotism unnecessary.
- (2) 60% think the government should take over much of the nation's industry as an improvement over the profit motive.

A Gallup Poll, taken among members of the same age group, brought these opinions out:

- (1) 9% said that "capitalism had no advantage over communism."
- (2) More than 40% could name no advantages.
- (3) 53% felt that government ownership of business was desirable.

O.K. What does all this mean? Well, first of all, we must question whether the surveys and polls are representative. I'd very much like to doubt them; but let's assume they're accurate.

Given that assumption I would move toward these conclusions:

(1) Today's parents have little or no understanding of the economic system which has provided the vast majority of them with a comfortable, fat, sloppy, apathetic way of life.

(2) Our school systems are dreadfully remiss in failing to achieve a cogent and clear and attractive means of explaining the benefits of American economics.

(3) Local citizens and local governments, on the whole, have turned their flabby backs on the responsibilities which are theirs. They are too busy feathering their own nests—too self concerned, somnolent and satisfied.

Myself included, most young parents have had it too easy and too soft. The older ones struggled through the Great Depression and vowed that junior would never have to go without. Consequently, junior has had his fill of just about everything except challenge.

Wet-nursed from bassinette to bachelor's degree, my generation has been given all things except the opportunity for self reliance. Small wonder that we see rebellion against a system that has been so busy making new cars and appliances and deodorants that it hasn't had time to sell itself.

Small wonder that kids burn draft cards in demonstrative reaction against the inherent hypocrisy of a government that can't adequately explain the difference between Communist expansionism and the unwanted presence of American troops in the Dominican Republic.

Small wonder they get a trifle nauseated when homespun, folksy, self-characterized evangelists of super conservatism are unable to empathize and draw useful comparisons between people in other lands and 18th Century American Revolutionaries.

Well, I have strayed, gotten carried away, haven't I?

Part of the answer, I think, lies in groups like Junior Achievement. Daniel White said it very well last week:

"We must decide that our young people shall be taught that the greatest freedom is not freedom from want, but the freedom to choose, the freedom to try, to compete and, yes, the freedom even to fail."

"But, most of all, the freedom to succeed as far as our talents will take us. This is why Junior Achievement is so important. Through Junior Achievement, American business can take an effective step toward informing young people how to safeguard and maintain — how to enhance — our free enterprise system."

The political scene. Rumor has been the big thing in the Republican Second Congressional District situation until last week.

• Rumor that moderate former State Senate Majority Leader Stanley G. Thayer of Ann Arbor would take to the primary trail again.

• Rumor that ex-Congressman and political caveman George Meader would have another go at it.

• Rumor that State Senator Gilbert E. Bursley of Ann Arbor, who took Thayer's place, would ride forth dressed for primary battle.

Now comes an open letter from Bursley to newspapers and GOP luminaries—a letter that kind of shoots everything.

After noting that Republicans can win, but that they can't afford the "luxury of a bitter and divisive primary campaign such as we experienced two years ago," Bursley points out that, "the Democratic incumbent (Congressman Weston E. Vivian) will be hard to beat." And then he drops his bomb.

"In my judgment," Bursley writes, "the Republican with the greatest potential to be an outstanding Congressman—and who has the best chance to win—is State Rep. Marvin Esch."

So let's hear it for Marv Esch, huh? Well, that's interesting. Thayer and Meader both were on Bursley's list (for the letter, that is) and it will be fun to see which way they go.

I nailed local GOP boss man, Carl Pursell, and he called back to tell me that he'd contacted Esch and Esch was "only considering" running. Yeah, like Jerry Cavanaugh is considering running for the Senate.

LOCAL EFFORT towards industrial development continues to widen. Loren Bud Gould points to the sign that rests on the front of his 50-acre industrial park site on Ann Arbor Rd.

Gould to develop industry site

Local land developer and home builder Loren "Bud" Gould has announced plans for a fifty-acre industrial park on a site on Ann Arbor Rd. along the C & O tracks.

Already zoned for heavy industry, the land is almost directly across from the Plymouth Township Hall just south of Lilley Road.

Gould said last week he plans to fully develop the land, putting in concrete streets and all utilities.

The land is near a railroad, Mettetal Airport, and on a Class "A" road — features sought the most by prospective industrial builders.

"There will be about 10 or 12 sites of five acres apiece," Gould said. "I've already had several inquiries, and a couple of prospects look real promising."

Gould is calling his park "The Plymouth Community Industrial Park."

Gould is prominent in local building circles having built well over 400 homes in Plymouth, and several professional offices. He is currently also developing 24 lots for luxury homes along N. Terri- torial Rd. in a subdivision known as Beacon Hills.

Lon's African Christmas

Africa & Me

Christmas was a rather quiet holiday in Sierra Leone this year. It is usually a time of merriment for everyone. This year, however, the Muslim observance of 30 days of fasting for Ramadan started on December 22. It was thus difficult for them to celebrate Christmas while hungry and unable to have any food or drinks.

Although quiet, it was nevertheless an enjoyable holiday.

From the 1st of December onwards Christmas carolers were at our door every night. There weren't any stores crowded with Christmas shoppers. But the lines at the custom's office were long as people waited for their gifts from home.

A special gift which didn't come from America was a litter of seven puppies my dog presented to me a couple of weeks before Christmas.

There were the usual parties and open houses throughout the holidays. Freetown was crowded with Peace Corps volunteers from upcountry. So everyone had an opportunity to get together with old friends at the beach or over Christmas dinner.

On Christmas Eve the churches were filled long before the services actually began as is the custom in Plymouth. Cards and letters from friends also fit in with traditional practices at home.

ON CHRISTMAS DAY some of the kids in Freetown dressed up as "caca devils" in old, funny clothes. Each devil wore a hood over his head or a mask over his face. They were accompanied by a score of other boys who sang and beat tin cans and wooden boxes while the devils danced.

A program of traditional dancing was held on Boxing Day, the Monday following Christmas. There was also a track meet that day in which Freetown's top athletes competed.

The ocean liner "France" arrived during the holidays. It is the longest ship in the world, 1035 feet in length. The 2,000 tourists it carried spent a day in Freetown looking at the sights while everyone in Freetown marveled at the size of the ship and stared at the tourists.

"From Russia With Love" was shown for two nights to capacity audiences at the local cinema. But additional showings were prohibited because the Russian government protested.

Fireworks and sparklers were in abundance throughout the holidays. At midnight on New Year's Eve the sky over Freetown was filled with sky rockets. Volunteers spent New Year's Day and the following Sunday near short wave radios listening to the bowl and professional football games. Poor Michigan State!

The new year brought a fresh batch of 70 Peace Corps Volunteers to Sierra Leone to work in community development. The Peace Corps now has 265 volunteers in the country.

Yes, all things considered, Christmas was an enjoyable occasion.

Plymouth Scouts set plans for annual Boy Scout Week

Celebration of Boy Scout Week from Feb. 7 to 13 will see members of some 2000 Cub Scout packs, Boy Scout troops, and Explorer posts in the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, gathering with their parents and special guests for Cub Scout blue-and-gold banquets, open-house meetings, or parents' nights.

A special feature for the 56th anniversary observance will be an invitation to former Scouts and leaders to attend the special affairs as "honored alumni," according to Lee R. J. Scott, Council Commissioner.

The slogan, "Once a Scout Always a Scout," is expected to bring back to their former Scout units many men who are not now active in Scouting—many with families including Scout sons of their own, Scott said.

Tuesday, Feb. 8, will be Uniform Day for more than 60,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Explorers who will be observing Boy Scout Week in the Detroit Area Council.

Many Scouts will also gather with their packs, troops, or posts, or in smaller groups at 8:15 p.m. on Tuesday to rededicate themselves to the Cub Scout Promise, the Boy Scout Oath, or the Explorer Code.

SPECIAL BOY Scout Week services will be held in many churches and synagogues as a part of Boy Scout Week. Scouts of Jewish faith will attend Scout Sabbath services on Friday evening and Saturday, Feb. 11 and 12, and other Scouts will attend their own churches with their parents on Scout Sunday, Feb. 13.

Many churches and synagogues that have their own Cub Scout packs, Boy Scout troops, and Explorer posts will have their Scout units take part in the service.

"Scouting is nonsectarian, but the Boy Scouts of America believes that no boy can grow to a successful manhood without a firm belief in God," Commissioner Scott said.

Junior High East PTSA

The Junior High East PTSA will meet Feb. 1 at 7:30 p.m. at the school and discuss "Discipline: home, school and community."

A panel discussion will be held with students, parents, school administrators and a City official taking part.

The moderator will be Mrs. Jean Bachelder, and the panel will open the floor to questions.

Trends in vocational guidance and the selection of students for vocational education classes are the twin themes for this first annual conference.

Dr. Ralph Wenrich, Professor of Vocational Education, University of Michigan, will address the conference on the topic, "The Role of High School in Educating Youth for Employment."

Participants at the conference will be given a chance to exchange ideas at the many group sessions scheduled during the day. Four group meetings have been scheduled and they will discuss the following:

- Trends in national manpower needs
- Opportunities for youth and apprenticeship

Canton airs road improvements

Canton Township board members heard Plymouth Area Planning Director Harold Fischer explain the importance of Class A roads for industrial development in Canton last Tuesday.

Fischer, whose job it is to seek industrial and commercial developments for the Plymouth Community, reviewed Canton's industrial position, according to supervisor Philip Dingeldey.

As a result of the meeting, the Canton Board of Trustees agreed to petition the Wayne County Road Commission to consider making Haggerty Rd. from Ann Arbor Rd. to Warren Road, and Joy Road from Lilley to Haggerty, Class A roads.

The improvements would service valuable Canton industrial lands along Joy Rd. On other matters the Canton Board:

- Set Feb. 28 as the deadline for tax payments.
- Discussed the new 701 zoning ordinance, now before the Wayne County Coordinating Committee.
- Discussed a new housing ordinance.

Explain new aid plans for children

The 1965 social security amendments made many changes in the social security program. "One major change is to pay benefits to a child of a retired, deceased or disabled worker, up to age 22 if he is a full time student," reported Sam F. Test, manager of the Detroit-Northwest Social Security Office.

Test explained, "If benefits were stopped because the child became 18, he may have them started again by filing a new application and if he is a full-time student and has not been married." "If the child is over 18 when one of his parents became entitled to benefits or dies, but not yet 22, he may now be eligible for social security benefits beginning as early as January 1965.

"Anyone who has benefits due since January 1965 must file before January 31, 1966. Benefits may be paid back to January 1965 to those who have already been dropped from the rolls, but only upon application at the social security office.

"A child who is receiving social security benefits and is not yet 18 should get in touch with the social security office a few months before his 18th birthday if he is a full-time student, to see about having his benefits continued. Benefits can be paid for a vacation period of up to four months if the child intends to continue in school after the vacation," Test added.

FOR FURTHER information contact your Social Security office. The Detroit-Northwest office is located at 18500 Grand River. The telephone number is 272-0080. The office is now open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 8:30 to 4:30 p.m. The hours on Wednesday are extended to 8:30 p.m. and on Saturday from 8:30 a.m. to noon.

Rocks goof 10 point lead to lose to Farmington

Bad luck continued to plague the Rock hardcourt squad this week as they blew a 10 point lead over the Farmington Falcons Saturday, and lost 64-56.

The night before, the Rocks lost 74-65 to Allen Park as one Plymouth regular, Chuck Catlett, fouled out, and two others, Mike Stakias and Jim Scharmen, had to play it close to the chest with four fouls.

Against Farmington, Plymouth led 31-27 at the half, and 42-40 at the end of the third quarter.

Then the Falcons exploded with two three-point plays. Farmington ended up with six field goals and 12 free throws in the wild and woolly final frame, for a total of 24 points.

The Rocks, in the meantime, hit for 14 in the final frame.

STAR forward and pivot man, Mike Stakias played only a portion of the second half before he got in deep foul trouble.

Then, with only thirty seconds gone in the fourth quarter he drew his fifth foul and had to step out, with only 12 points, somewhat below his average.

Veteran guard Rick Jones also fouled out as charity tosses were the margin of victory. The Rocks hit eight out of 17, while the Falcons hit 26 out of 35, 12 of them in the final quarter.

Foul trouble actually was the margin in both games.

In the Farmington game, Chuck Catlett led the Rocks with 22 points, his best output this season. That, coupled with 14 he netted at Allen Park, makes these two of the best games of his career.

Mike Wilson led the Falcons with 27 points.

Center Jim Scharmen led the Rocks against Allen Park with 20 points, his best production of the year, with nine of them coming in the fourth quarter.

Guard Rick Jones hit for 17 points to back up big Jim, as the Park's Jim Fanto netted 20 and Terry Nickels 19.

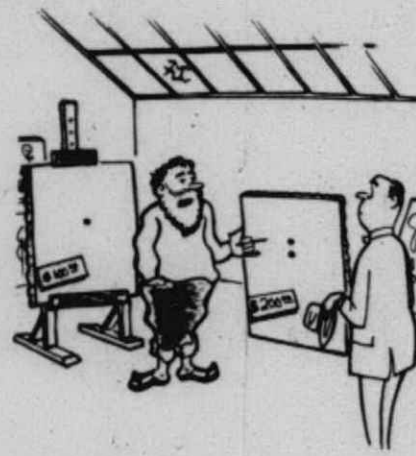

The Park hit a whopping 28 points via the free throw line.

Plymouth hit only 19 of 28, an average percentage at the free throw line.

The Rocks led 14-11 at the close of the first quarter, but Allen Park went on to score 22, 20 and 21 in the next three quarters to cinch the game despite a 23 point fourth quarter from the Rocks.

Stakias netted only 8.

A HAT TRICK AND A SHUTOUT were scored by these members of the Plymouth Hockey Association. Chuck Wibby, left, got 20 saves and a shutout recently in University Litho's 1-0 victory over Allen Park. John Gilles scored four goals in a 7-2 victory for Wilson's Engineering. Another hat trick was scored the same week by Ken Wilkins.

Gilles nets 3rd hat trick

John Gilles of the Wilson Engineering hockey team drew his third hat trick last Thursday as the Midgets beat Nankin 5-3, in Plymouth Hockey Association play.

Joe Herter and Dave Prochazka netted one each in that game.

In other games Chuck Wibby of the University Litho Bantams continued his seasonal play at the net, making 30 saves in an 8-1 loss to Nankin. Only Bill Hudson was able to score a goal in the game, despite the 30 saves by Wibby.

In other games, Russ' Boys, the Squirts, lost 3-1 in an exhibition tilt with Garden City. Ed Dobbs scored the one goal.

PAT HERTER netted a shutout in a VFW PeeWee game, but got no scoring help from his teammates and the game ended in a 0-0 deadlock.

In the other game, the Trading Post was whipped 4-1 by Nankin as Dennis Shelley continued his scoring spree, getting the lone Plymouth goal.

WOW!

The highest game ever bowled at Plymouth bowl by a member of the fairer sex was bowled Friday night.

JoAnn McLellan of the Alkies (of the Elks) bowled a 278 game and a 596 series.

Varsity swimmers lose 61-44...

A poor showing in the distance events continued to leave Plymouth's swimmers on the short end of scores as they lost 61-44, to Allen Park Friday afternoon in the PHS pool.

A quartet of Ron Witthoff, Biff Leonard, Al Saxton and Bill Wolfe posted their season's best in the opening medley relay, swimming at a 1:51.8 pace.

Pat McCord took a second in the 200 yd. freestyle event, while Pat Brady won a third in the 50 yd. freestyle.

Bob Reinas and Mark Newman swam two, three in the 200 yd. individual, and John Larson took a third and Rick Lorenze a second in the diving event.

McCord went second in the 100 yd. butterfly, Saxton won the 100 yd. freestyle event, and Witthoff took a first in the backstroke feature.

John Skinner swam third in the long-distance 400 freestyle event, and Leonard won the breaststroke with Reinas taking a third.

Next week, the Rocks meet a strong Belleville squad for the second time this season. The Rocks lost the first encounter, 62-43.

Mike Bentley

Mike Bentley, recent PHS grad, won a letter in cross country at the College of Wooster, in Wooster, Ohio.

The team was 3-4 in dual meet competition; Bentley is a freshman.

PAT BRADY, veteran Rock swimmer, poises in that split second before taking off for a 50 yd. lap in the 200 yd. freestyle relay at the Allen Park meet Friday.

A CHANGE
The Bentley swimming meet will be held Feb. 3 at 7 p.m. rather than on Feb. 4 at 4 p.m., as previously announced.

Coach John McFall's swimmers lost the freestyle relay, could only place third in the 400 yard freestyle event, and second in the 200 yd. freestyle.

9th graders nipped 43-41, 8th loses

The ninth graders lost a close one to Farmington Duncel Thursday, being edged 43-41 after a fourth quarter rally fell just short.

Behind 24-16 at the half, the Plymouth cagers came back to within one point with only 30 seconds to go. Plymouth scored 11 in the final frame in the abortive rally.

Bob Kellman led scorers with 16 points, but it was Bruce Edwards who stole the show with 21 rebounds and seven points of his own. Craig Foust netted seven and Bruce Bauman five in the losing effort.

The eighth graders fielded a much improved team but still came out on the bottom of a lopsided 38-26 score against Duncel. Mike Cowan paced Plymouth with 16 points, and John Cederburg hit for six.

hands of Allen Park, and a 57-45 loss to Farmington.

Friday night, Allen Park scored 26 points in the first quarter, while the JV's netted only 7. That was enough to break the back of the Rock offense, despite an 18 point second quarter, and respectable third and fourth quarters.

Dan Mazglad of the Park, who led all scorers with 16 points, hit 11 in the sizzling first frame.

Jeff Adams led scoring from Plymouth with 15, and got a little help from Mike Kubik, who hit for 9.

The Park led 39-25 at the half, and coasted through the rest of the game.

AGAINST FARMINGTON. The JV quint, behind by only five at the half, fell apart in the third and fourth quarter, and gave up 14 points while only scoring eight in the final quarter.

Adams led all scorers once again with 17 points, and Kubik netted 10.

Both Kubik and Adams played a portion of the last quarter with four fouls.

Coach Pat Montagan's charges face Belleville this Friday, here. They handled the Tigers easily the first time they played them this season, winning 44-33.

Junior League Basketball

It was THE day for the Celtics.

The Celtics in both leagues won the first half championships. Both qualify to play the winners of the second half in the grand championship game Saturday, March 26.

The Celtics 'A', squeezed out a thrilling 26-25 victory over the Pistons for the second time this season. Celtics 'B' won easily, 30-11, over the previously unbeaten Lakers.

All games were position day games.

The second half starts Feb. 5, with all star games set for the Saturday, which will be played at Plymouth High School, with age levels.

Associated Spring announces new posts

A realignment of management responsibilities in Associated Spring Corporation's Midwest Region was announced today by Carlyle F. Barnes, chairman and Wallace Barnes, president.

The move will affect plants in Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin and will take place on March 1. The aim is to achieve the effective use of ASC's sales and production capabilities while maintaining the corporation's ability to provide fast customer service on a localized basis.

To implement the realignment two new posts have been created in the region, which is headed by Lester F. Johns, Midwest Region general manager.

One new job, regional sales manager, will be filled by Troy L. Sorensen who has been general manager of the Gibson and Milwaukee divisions. He will be responsible for all sales activities within the region, and will be based in Plymouth.

The other new post is that of manager of the manufacturing or plant facility. This entails responsibility for all the functions other than sales (such as manufacturing, engineering, accounting, purchasing and personnel) at each plant location.

James A. Guyot, who has been assigned to the corporation headquarters in Bristol, Conn., as corporate executive assistant, will become manager at the Gibson Division, Mattoon, Illinois. Other managers will be:

Oscar L. Joseph — B-G-R Division, Ann Arbor Plant, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Edmund Orlov—Milwaukee Division, Milwaukee, Wis.

Fred M. Wagner — B-G-R Division, Plymouth Plant.

On Jan. 13 Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Richards entertained Mr. and Mrs. Michael Del-Busso, Mr. and Mrs. William Bevier, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ferrari, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McCulloch, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wise, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Routson, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Stevens and Mr. Merlin Heft at a champagne cocktail party after which the guests were taken to the opening night performance of "Monique." Many of the guests arrived on the scene wearing lovely long dresses for the occasion.

Last week-end found Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ferrari driving their daughter Pat to resume her studies at Clarion State College in Clarion, Penn. Pat is in her junior year and intends to start teaching school upon her graduation. Mr. and Mrs. Ferrari also visited many friends and relatives in New Kensington, Penn. before they returned to Plymouth Sunday night.

Under the chairmanship of Beverly Brooks the Antique Interest Group, one of the newly formed groups of the Newcomers Club, will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 at the Plymouth Historical Society for a tour and then the group will return to Mrs. Brooks' home to discuss plans for future meetings.

The truth about drop-outs in film at Calvary Baptist

A motion picture that exposes with devastating reality the truth about drop-outs — home, school and church — will be shown Sunday, February 6 at 7 p.m. at Calvary Baptist Church, 496 W. Ann Arbor Trail.

"Misfit," an action-packed feature length color film, takes you into the teenage world of drag racing, teen hang-outs, hootenannies, water skiing and fun at the Enquire Hotel on the beach at Fort Lauderdale.

According to the Rev. Patrick J. Clifford, pastor of Calvary Baptist, the picture clearly presents the high school drop-out's problems, portrays his real need and provides the answer to it.

The picture, made on location in Fort Lauderdale, was produced by Gospel Films, located in Muskegon, Mich. In releasing this production, Billy Zeoli, president of Gospel films commented:

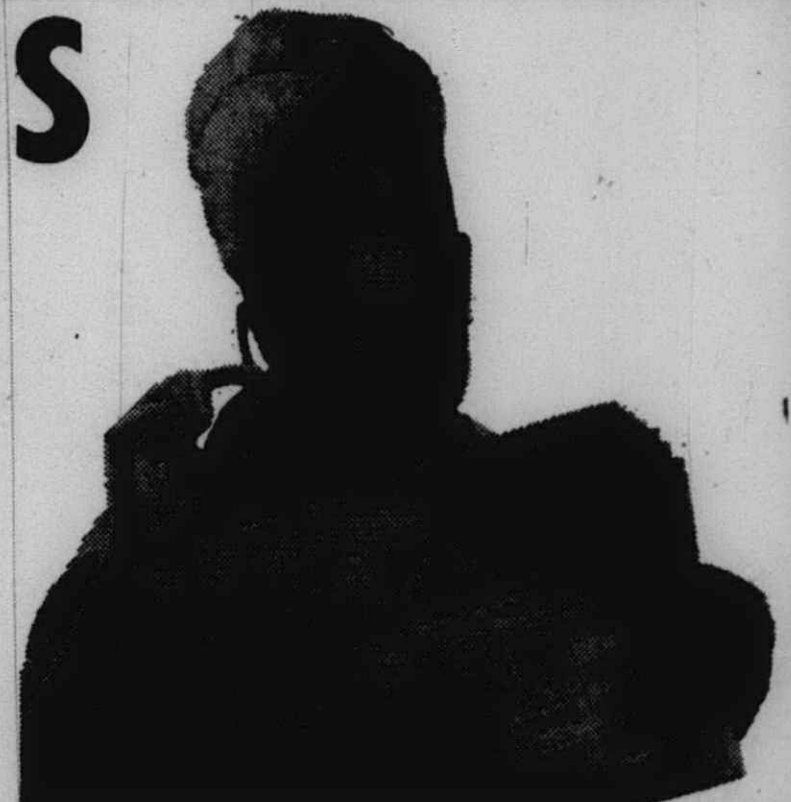

"The variety, emotion and depth of "Misfit" marks a new step in our teenage productions. This could well be one of our most penetrating and meaningful motion pictures for teens."
