That's Advisory Committee Recommendation to Board

Seven New Schools For Plymouth In Next Six Years

The Citizens Advisory Committee on Buildings and Finance of the Plymouth School system tossed a bombshell in the direction of the Board of Education Monday when it made a preliminary report on phase 1 of its study.

Phase 1 is devoted to buildings, present and future needs and what the Board should expect in the next six or seven years in lieu of the expected tremendous population growth in the community.

It based its study on reports from the Detroit Metropolitan Planning Board, Michigan Bell, Detroit Edison, Consumers Power, the planning consultants of the City of Plymouth, Plymouth and Canton Townships, and nine other planning groups. Real Estate boards and individual realtors and developers.

In addition, the committee contacted 10 area school systems for data and figures.

And it came up with a recommendation that the Board of Education plan on the construction of seven new buildings during the next six years at an estimated total cost of $15 million.

The committee recommended to the Board that the following buildings be planned on the following time schedule: elementary

No. 8 as planned for opening next fall; No. 9 in 1967-8, No. 10 in 1970-71, No. 11 in 1971-72; junior high No. 3, 1968-9, junior high No. 4, 1971-72 and senior high No. 2, 1969-70.

The estimated cost came out of a discussion and was not from the committee which will go into finances in phase II of its report.

The committee did not specify any sites for schools but recommended the following as preferred locations:

No. 9 in Canton Township, No. 10 in the western section of Plymouth Township, No. 11 in Canton Township.

Junior High No. 3 in the Holiday Park section of Canton Township and No. 4 in the same general location as elementary schools No. 10 and 11.

Senior High No. 3 in a location that would have the full representation of the community. The recommendation also asked that Senior High No. 3 be a complete complex with an auditorium, gym, swimming pool and athletic field.

The committee suggested that the Senior High No. 3 be ready for use by the fall of 1969 and that it include the ninth graders and become a four-year school instead of three at the present.

The committee recommended that the School Board study the possibility of changing the present system from 6-3-3 to 5-3-4 with five grades in the elementary schools, sixth, seventh and eighth in junior high and ninth through 12 in the senior high.

The committee had three recommendations for a senior high site including: (1) at the end of Main Street in the Lilley, Warren, Joy and Sheldon district; (2) in the Sheldon, Joy, McClumpha and Ann Arbor Trail sector; and (3) in the Sheldon, Ann Arbor Trail, Beck Road and C&O Railroad area.

Chairman William Fronk told the Board members that "we feel the matter of a community auditorium should be investigated in making plans for senior high."

Plymouth Twp. Board Drops Earl Demel After 26 Years

After more than 25 years continuous service as legal advisor for the Board of Trustees of Plymouth Township, Attorney Earl Demel, who resides in the Township, has been dropped—without the usual farewell courtesies that mark the departure of a worker with such a lengthy service.

Demel's departure from the Plymouth Township Hall isn't completely settled as yet but there isn't any question in the minds of the Board members of the Board of Trustees that he is being dropped.

His appointment was recommended by Supervisor John McEwen along with those of W. C. Johnson as planning consultant, Herald Hamill as Township engineer and Walter Markim as Township Auditor.

The Trustees approved the appointments of Hamill, Johnson and Markim—but delayed official approval of Cole until the regular meeting in April. During the interim, the Board expects to meet and draw up a policy for the post, outlining what it expects from Cole for the $4,500 annual retainer fee and the additional $2,500 for services over and beyond the normal assignments of a legal counsel.

The policy will be discussed with Cole to determine whether he will or will not accept it. Then the matter of his appointment will come up for approval at the April 12 regular meeting.

The appointments, which are normally a matter of routine business, were anything but that this time. Supervisor McEwen made known his recommendations for appointments but learned quickly that it wasn't going to be a rubber stamp matter.

Trustee Gene Overholt started the ball rolling with a request for a written policy in regard to the duties of a legal counsel. His request received support from Trustee Dick Lauterbach who indicated he thought the Board had agreed a year ago that it would have a formal policy in regard to fees and payments to the township attorney.

Overholt pointed out that he didn't have any disagreement over the proposed appointment but felt approval should be delayed until a formal written policy was established and agreed with by Attorney Cole.

Lauterbach made a motion that the appointment be tabled until a firm policy is established. He received support from Trustee Louis Norman but the motion failed.

Lauterbach, Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes and Trustee Ralph Garber became involved in a lengthy discussion over merits and pay for the various jobs with the final result that Mrs. Holmes made a motion that the Board consider each appointment individually.

Approves $236,440 Budget

Township Hikes Firemen's Pay; Supervisor Up $500

With a slim audience of three Township residents, three members of the fire department and one employee of the water department in attendance, the Plymouth Township Board Saturday approved a budget of $236,440 for 1966-67.

This represented an increase of $37,005 from the 1965-66 budget of $199,435.

Supervisor John McEwen explained $25,300 of the increase represented additional employees at new positions created by the Board; $1,600 in salary increases for the general offices and the remaining $6,500 in pay hikes for the firefighters.

Under the terms of a pact signed with Local 1496, International Association of Fire Fighters, which was recognized as the bargaining agent for the fire department, the pay raises range from $950 for a regular to $1,350 for Captain Barney Maas.

Added to the Township payroll, under the budget were: an additional clerk with an annual starting salary of $4,500; a temporary clerk, at $1,400; provision for Public Safety Director for $8,500; a building inspector for $6,500; and an additional firefighter for $4,400.

Building Inspector Matt McLellan was given the new assignment of Director of the Building and Public Works department at an annual salary of $9,000 of which $4,500 comes from the general administrative funds and $4,500 from the water and sewer department.

In the administrative level, Supervisor McEwen was given a $500 salary boost to a total of $9,800 annually and Mrs. Janice Birckelbaw received a $700 boost to an annual salary of $5,700. She has served as chief clerk under Township Clerk C. V. Sparks.

The salaries of other elected officers as set up in the budget are: Clerk Sparks, $8,800; and Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, $8,300.

The breakdown of the general fund summary shows:

Legislative and Executive boosted from $63,250 to $69,900, a hike of $6,650.

Elections, to which four additional precincts have been added, up $4,700 from $2,200 to $6,900.

Planning Commission up $200 from $5,820 to $6,020.

Board of Appeals and Reviews, up $120 from $440 to $560.

Professional services up $1,000 from $9,500 to $10,500.

Commission Votes To Keep Disputed Parking Lot Site

At Monday's meeting of the City Commission, the parking dispute over the property next to Snyder's furniture store on Ann Arbor Trail was resolved 6-1 when the commission accepted the recommendation of the Parking Committee to retain the property. Commissioner James McKeon voted against.

The city presently owns the property, which had been the dispute of bidding by several interested parties.

Parking Committee chairman Ralph Lorenz pointed out that it would be unwise for the city to sell that land now, when it very well may have to buy it back soon at a higher price.

The commission also decided to rent property located next to Sharrard's store on Ann Arbor Trail and adjacent to the main downtown parking lot. It is leased by the city from Mr. Peterson and the Reid Corporation for payment of all city taxes.

The parking committee recommended also that any lots in any commercial area qualifying for parking be referred to the parking committee for study.

It proposed that the city commission consider trading city land of no value for land that could be used for parking or sell available land and save the funds for purchase of land to be used for parking. These final two recommendations were taken under consideration by the city commission.

A proposal by the National Bank of Detroit, which acts as Sole or Principal Paying Agent for the city to increase its basic fee schedule on bond issues of the city was referred to city management to study.

The commissioners were advised that the rates will increase May 31, 1966 and they want to check the matter as well as current contractual provisions.

Michigan Bell Payroll Hits High in Plymouth

Michigan Bell Telephone Company Monday reported it paid an all-time high of $2,925,316 in wages to its 514 employees who worked in Plymouth during 1965, according to John Kamego, manager for the firm.

He said the company's entire wage bill of $167,600,000, which went to 23,486 employees throughout the state, set a company record.

In addition to Michigan Bell's payroll, the Western Electric Company, manufacturing and supply arm of the Bell System, paid $13.5 million to its 1,659 employees who worked in Michigan, and AT&T's Long Lines department paid $3.9 million to its 545 employees in the state.

Total wages of these three Bell System units in Michigan reached $125 million last year.

Areas in which Michigan Bell's 1965 payroll topped the five-million-dollar mark include Detroit, Flint, Grand Rapids, Lansing, Saginaw and Southfield.

Council Rejects Second Cab Vote

Plymouth's controversial taxicab increase was given the last official rites at Monday's City Commission meeting, when the commission voted 4-3 against reconsideration of the increase.

Suburban Checker Cab Company had written a letter March 22, 1966 to ask that the matter be removed from the table and reconsidered. Commissioners James Jabara, Robert Smith and George Hudson voted for reconsideration, while George Lawton, James McKeon and Arch Vallier were against.

Mayor James Houk cast the deciding vote against.

This seems to effectively kill the matter, but just prior to adjournment for the night new life was breathed into the matter when Suburban Checker President James D. Berry asked to say a few final words.

As the Commission sat in stony silence, Berry acknowledged his defeat but recited some of the reasons for the needed increase. He cited increased competition for drivers, increased costs of repair, a "46% increase in insurance costs since January 1st" and the increased cost of doing business.

He warned that cab companies that didn't ask for an increase now are only acting temporarily. He implied that Plymouth's other company, Mayflower would come back for an increase.

Plymouth Twp. Issues 70 Permits in March

Plymouth Township issued a total of 70 building permits during the month of March with a total value of $806,480 for which Building Inspector Matt McLellan collected $3,130 in fees.

That was his report to Supervisor John McEwen in which he pointed out that the Township issued 13 permits in the same month a year ago for a having a value of $569,000.

Single family dwellings topped the March list with a total of 51 having a value of $569,000.

AK Teaching Career?

By FRANK J. ...
Director, Department of ...
Religion ...

Why should a son or daughter become a member of the teaching profession? Answers to this kind of question can be found in a large number of newspaper articles, magazines, and pamphlets.

The National Education Association strongly urges prospective candidates to consider many merits and assets of being an educator, especially during its annual Teaching Career Month in April.

Obviously, teaching candidates have a keen interest and desire in providing some kind of worthwhile service to humanity. The inspiration of a learning environment opportunity to help others, or just in love of youth can cause the career selection.

Perhaps it takes higher education or the attainment of a certain level of maturity to achieve this goal. But acquiring and keeping it can be quite a challenge. Throughout the whole training process, many possible teaching candidates are lost to other occupations.

Great professions, including education, want and need public understanding and co-operation. Without it their best service is impossible and their professional status may, indeed, be jeopardized.

For example, in times of population boom, financial support is heavily needed and all of it must be raised through taxes.

To Join In Safety Drive

Michigan State Police officers will participate in the voluntary motor vehicle safety inspection program to be conducted again this spring in many communities. Col. Fredrick E. Davids, director, announced.

The program is being held for the 12th year in a row. In 1965 there were over 4,200 such clinics in the 30 states not having compulsory inspection, with 189 of them in Michigan.

Program coordinator for Michigan is J. Carl Powell Jr., on loan from the Buick Division of General Motors, who will have offices with the State Safety Commission, a State Police division, in the Stevens T. Mason building, Lansing.

Hare Backs Voluntary Inspection Programs

LANSING—Michigan's No. 1 proponent of mandatory motor vehicle inspections had endorsed a state-wide voluntary program "as helpful in getting many cars road-worthy" for warm weather driving.

Chairman of the Michigan State Safety Commission James M. Hare said he favored volunteer programs in Michigan communities this year.

"Even if the Legislature passes a mandatory vehicle inspection law during its current session, the program couldn't be started this year anyway," said Hare. "And although this is a limited substitute, it will certainly be helpful in getting a small percentage of vehicles which need repair in for service."

Last year in Michigan, more than 90,000 autos and trucks were checked in community volunteer programs, Hare dis-

Suits Seek $2.5 Million in TB Case

The outbreak of a tuberculosis epidemic at the Hansel & Gretel Nursery Home in Garden City has resulted in two separate lawsuits being filed seeking a total of $2.5 million in damages on behalf of the 13 children hospitalized for treatment of TB.

A $340,000 suit filed by the parents of two children hospitalized at Maybury Sanatorium in Northville was followed by a $2.2 million suit filed by parents of the remaining 11 hospitalized children.

The $2.2 million suit seeks to collect $150,000 for each child and $50,000 for each child's parents. Both cases have been filed in Oakland County Circuit Court which has an eight month backlog of cases compared to a three year backlog in Wayne County.

Named as defendants for both lawsuits are: Mrs. Marie Gaylord, operator of the Garden City nursery; Dr. Leo Sheiner, D.O.; Dr. John E. Paver, D.O.; and Zeiger Osteopathic Hospital, owner and operator of Botsford General Hospital in Farmington.

The $2.2 million suit filed by attorney Gilbert E. Metry on behalf of the 11 children makes the following charges:

- The middle aged woman who allegedly infected the children is believed to have had active tuberculosis while working at the nursery from September to January.

- The woman was allowed to leave Botsford after an X-ray showed she had active TB.

- The woman's physician, Dr. Paver, certified the woman was able to work at the nursery before making sure the woman completed a sputum test in August.

- Dr. Sheiner, a radiologist at Botsford, failed to report a chest X-ray of the woman showing possible TB to either the hospital or the County Health Department.

- Knowing the woman had a former history of TB, Mrs. Gaylord is charged with negligence for allowing the middle-aged nurse to cook, feed and come into close contact with the children.

Metry claims Botsford and the two doctors did not discover an active case of TB the woman supposedly had in August and released her from the hospital on Sept. 3 to resume work twelve days later. The suit alleges the woman infected the children between Sept. 15 and Jan. 1.

The alleged carrier is still hospitalized at Herman Keiffer Hospital and ten of the children remain under treatment at Maybury.

When the first two cases of TB were discovered at the nursery last December, the County Health Department took sputum tests of nursery employees. The sputum tests of the alleged carrier came back from Lansing on Jan. 13 and the nurse resigned her job immediately when the test showed active TB.

Contest Saturday At Wonderland Center

Judging of the Livonia Recreation Department's annual Easter Egg coloring contest will be held at 4:30 p.m. on Saturday (April 9) in the Civic Room of the Wonderland Shopping Center.

Entries may be registered between 6:30 p.m. and 9 p.m. Friday (April 8) or up to 4:15 p.m. on Saturday.

Age groups are: adults, 13-17 years, 9-12 years, 6-8 years, and 3-5 years, with categories including most creative and unusual, prettiest, and non-shell retaining an oval shape.

Prizes will be awarded by the Wonderland Shopping Center.

Judges will be Lee M. O'Connor Jr., chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission; Walter Maurus, Livonia Board of Education teacher, and Katherine Warren, Clarenceville Board of Education art consultant.

Meet Your Carrier Boy

Michael DeBoe, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Linda DeBoe, 8350 Henry Ruff, Nankin Township, has been an Observer carrier since 1961. He is a ninth grader at Whittier Junior High.

High where his favorite subject is typing. His route covers Donna, from Joy to Ann Arbor Trail, Henry Ruff from Ann Arbor Tr. to Gladys, Hillcrest from Lonnie to Henry Ruff; Gladys from Flamingo to Randy; south side of Joy from Donna to Flamingo.

Mike's hobbies include model building, football and baseball. He has won trophies for football, baseball and for his model cars.

Mike is active in Boy Scouts and plans to go to college after being graduated from high school.

The second child inflicted with TB at the nursery was discovered to be infected on Dec. 31, the first inkling the County Health Department had of a common source and possible epidemic. It was not discovered by the County the nurse had active TB until Jan. 13 and the suit contends the children would not have been infected if report of the woman having active TB was made in September.

An investigation into the X-rays taken at Botsford of the woman was started by Dr. John Hanlon, head of the County Health Department. Undertaking the review were: Dr. John Isbister, chief of the TB section of the Michigan Department of Health and Dr. Paul Chapman, TB consultant of the Health Department. Attorney General Frank J. Kelley has been requested by Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state director of public health, to consider if any further legal action should be taken pertaining to Hanlon's report on the Botsford X-rays.

In total, 17 children enrolled at the nursery contracted the tuberculosis germ with 13 requiring hospitalization. A number of children and parents have taken TB tests and the state legislation is being discussed to require tighter controls over nursery homes and public schools to prevent if possible another similar TB epidemic.

REFINISHING DESKS for the Livonia School system are two workers at the Community Opportunity Center. It is contracts of this type that keep the Center going — but Director Ernie Moran needs additional work if he hopes to keep his crew of 15 employed.

Sheltered Workshop Builds New Spirit Among Retarded

Started last September as a project to help many of the area's mentally retarded and handicapped adults to become self-sufficient and better members of the district, the four-community Community Opportunity Center at 9901 Newburgh Road, Livonia, finds itself in need of contracts to keep the workers busy.

The Sheltered Workshop, located in the old Newburgh elementary school through the efforts of the Livonia School Board, has built up a staff of 15 workers with an additional 25 on the waiting list—but Director Ernie Moran is having difficulty getting contracts for his crew.

"We bid on jobs just as any other company," said Moran. "But we are in a slightly different position than others since we can bid on only certain types of work that our personnel can handle."

"Mostly these jobs are for the unskilled, the kind that most large plants consider as necessary nuisances and we would certainly like to take these nuisances off their hands and keep our folks working."

As he said this, Moran pointed to the group of four working on a project for refinishing desks for the Livonia School system. It is the only contract in hand at the moment.

He pointed to John, 19, of Northville, who spent most of his life at the Wayne County Training School. John was adequate there but he didn't have enough to do to build up his self-respect and devoted all of his spare time to sitting around his home and watching television.

"We realized that John could be helped considerably by the Community Opportunity Center," said Moran. "We knew that the fact he was taking home a weekly check would go far in building his confidence."

"Certainly, he isn't the most efficient worker but he has come a long ways since he started working for us. He is a far cry from the fumbling, shiftless, always weary person that first reported."

Then there's 25-year-old Joe, a likeable chap from the Plymouth area, who was doing nothing but sitting around the house. He attended Plymouth High in the days when special classes were not available at that level.

He was unsure of himself and ready to run for cover when visitors came around. Now he's able to ride to work by bus, carry a dinner pail and do a full day's work as well as he is capable.

He has learned how to become a good employee, to get along with his fellow workers and to stick on the job assigned to him. In other words, he has become of value to the community where he was just another listless person watching television most of the time with nothing else to do.

"These are just two examples of the workers on our payroll," said Moran. "We are doing everything possible to keep all busy. We would like to be able to put the 25 on the waiting list to work but we just haven't been able to build up a backlog of contracts.

"We appeal to every employer in the four-community area, which includes Livonia, Northville, Plymouth and Redford Township, to check over their list of jobs and see if there isn't something the Community Opportunity Center can bid for."

Those desiring additional information may contact Moran at 425-9560 daily.

Jaycees to Aid Mentally Ailing

Area Jaycees will begin an educational campaign this month to help the public better understand the critical need for treatment and prevention of mental illness and mental retardation.

Over 250 chapters in Michigan consisting of more than 8,500 men are combining to help assist, stimulate and channel public energies in attacking mental health problems at local levels.

This goal to promote public understanding and concern for mental health has already resulted in a concrete project, the Community Opportunity Center at 9901 Newburgh Rd., Livonia. The Center is a sheltered workshop for the employment and training of mentally retarded and handicapped adults of Livonia, Northville, Plymouth and Redford.

Today, the Community Opportunity Center stands out as a glaring example of what can be done at the local level if communities are determined to combat mental health problems.

During April and May, the Nankin Jaycees will conduct an educational campaign by setting up a speakers bureau to speak on mental health and retardation. Any group wishing to arrange for a presentation may contact: Project Chairman Darrell Losey, 427-6026; Lawrence Wright, 722-8320 or James DeMoss, 422-9068.

In conjunction with speaking engagements, the Nankin Jaycees will be presenting to the public a record that was recorded ed to raise funds to implement their mental health programs.

The "Jaycee 3," a folk trio from Livonia, have recorded a disc entitled "Stepping In" which is on sale at the Plymouth Observer and area businesses.

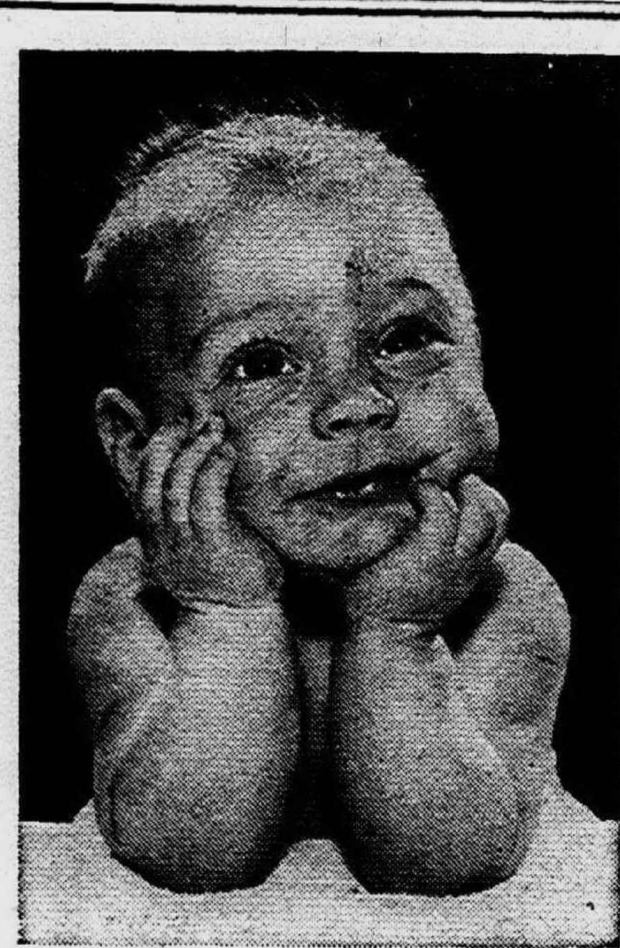

A record selling campaign will be initiated at a hootenanny at the Westland Shopping Center on April 16 from 1 to 4 p.m.

Ralph Mossman, Eric Cormack and Don Harris, members of the "Jaycee 3," have performed extensively throughout Michigan, Canada and Kentucky. Their program ranges through Folk Singing, Up-Tempo, Old Mountain Ballads, Sing Alongs, Contemporary Folk Ballads and some Island Humor.

Also appearing at the Westland hootenanny will be "Jack Ray" who for the past three years has been performing at the Colonial Lounge. His style of music ranges through Flamenco, Driving Flat Picking, Southern Blues and parodies of popular music.

Marty Cayley, a Blues Guitar man from Northville, is another scheduled performer for the hootenanny. Cayley has performed at the Ivanhoe Raven Gallery and other folk spots.

Communications on the hootenanny has been sent out by the Nankin Jaycees to other Jaycee members in District 6 which includes Livonia, Plymouth, Nankin, Garden City and Redford.

MRS. WILLIAM BROWN

Kelm-Brown United in Marriage

At a candlelight ceremony at Forest Hills Church, Farmington, Carol Anne Kelm and William Paul Brown were united in marriage recently. Lee Baltzer, minister of the Kenwood Church of Christ officiated.

The bride wore a gown of chantilly lace over taffeta, with a chapel train for her wedding. Maid of Honor, Linda Thornton; and Matron of Honor, Penny Fondren carried yellow rosebuds. Gwen Williams, Judy Francisco, Kathy Schweizer and Diane Hoppe, bridesmaids; carried yellow carnations. The attendants were similarly gowned in full skirted kelly-green brocaded taffeta gowns with matching headpieces and shoes.

Daryl Howell was best man. Dave Fondren, Dan Ray, Mike Krupin, Dan Kelbert, and Phil Brown were ushers.

Debbie Campbell, sister of the groom, was flower girl. Her attire matched that of the bridesmaids.

Robert Ryan, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

Following a buffet dinner for 300 guests, the bride and groom left for a wedding trip to Tennessee.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kelm of Farmington. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell of Garden City.

Our Queen of Hearts Suggests "What to Do With Easter Eggs"

By FAITH GILLESPIE

The average American housewife is a remarkable creature. She can handle almost any challenge posed in her society: zippers and other intricate machines, magazine salesmen, unmatched socks, sibling rivalry, guppies, Little League Basketball, viral laryngitis, hungry husbands, and the tough logistical problem of outfitting for Easter a large and growing family with the small and shrinking dollar.

She can even cook four dozen eggs at the simmer for twenty minutes without getting multiple cracks or green yolks.

She can cheerfully turn her kitchen into a dye works, a magical Eastern Egg Factory, where the children juggle dye pots and eggs till they're blue in the face . . . and green and yellow and purple.

And then the real problem appears, the one which annually proves taxing even in light of her remarkable ability to cope. It is the problem of what to do with all those dyed eggs.

Oh yes, the children give some away to their friends, but the friends give the children some back, and there they all are.

Some can be eaten for Easter breakfast, of course, and the few that escape uncracked from being carried about in little baskets can be put in a big basket to make a centerpiece for Easter dinner. Easter supper can be egg salad sandwiches, and potato salad. And then what does the housewife do?

Contributing them to the Poverty Program is out. The wheels of the bureaucracy grind slowly; the eggs would never last out the paper work.

The Peace Corps is not the answer, nor will gamey eggs, gay as they may be, help the boys in Vietnam.

They won't keep till next Easter. They must be used, because, as her mother always said, "Wanton waste makes woeful want," or something to that effect.

You will never guess who has come to the rescue in this dilemma: the U.S. Department of Agriculture, that's who. For one dime the concerned American housewife can obtain the Home and Garden Bulletin No. 103, "Eggs in Family Meals," from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., 20402.

While she waits for this valuable document to arrive, she can use up some of the eggs by making

EGGS STUFFED WITH CRABMEAT

Cut 6 hard-cooked eggs in half lengthwise. Scoop out yolks and mash them. Add a can of crab meat (drained), 1/2 cup chopped celery, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/2 teaspoon salt, a dash of paprika, and 1/2 cup mayonnaise. Mix well. Fill egg whites with crabmeat mixture. Sprinkle with paprika.

One cup finely chopped cooked or canned chicken may be substituted for the crabmeat, in which case reduce mustard to 1/4 teaspoon and mayonnaise to 1/4 cup.

And so another national crisis has been solved by Government intervention.

Before I close I must offer my apologies to Marianna Fortuna and to any readers who tried her Confetti Corn Casserole last week. Somehow I inadvertently left out a very important ingredient. The recipe calls for six weiners sliced in half-inch rounds. It does make a difference. Forgive me.

Mrs. Marjorie Hogg, children's librarian of the Redford Township Public Library, will talk and present a film entitled "The Lovely Art of Picture Books" at the next monthly meeting of the South Redford Township Cooperative Nursery School.

It will be held Tuesday, April 12 at 8 p.m. in the Parkway Heights Free Methodist Church, 2520 Plymouth Rd., just east of Telegraph Rd. Applications are now being accepted for the next school year. Any parent interested in having a child enter the school should contact Mrs. Hogg at 3-4-40.

Plymouth Symphony Orchestra Ends Season With Capacity Audience

Climaxing the 20th season of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra, members gave an excellent performance before a capacity crowd in the high school auditorium.

Guest Soloist Barbara Holmquest, concert pianist making her first appearance with the Plymouth Symphony brought applause from the audience for her performance of "Scarlatiana" by Alfredo Castella, with orchestra accompaniment.

Certificates were presented to Evelyn and Carl Groschke, Leo Kowalcik, Ardith Curtis Long, David Mather, Kenneth Greer, Dr. William Bateman, Jens Pederson, Daisy Barnes and Fred Beitner who were original members joining almost at the same time, were Bill Beitner and Harold Von Bergen. Mrs. Edith Durancieu, Mrs. Marcia Woolweaver and Mrs. Lavoco Neall came during 1948-49.

Following the concert — the crowd moved to the Mayflower Meeting House to complete the evening with an "After Glow."

Host Wayne Dunlap introduced President James Thomas, who in turn recognized members of his Board.

Performing informally was Mrs. Holmquest, wife of Dr. Alexander Gotz of Ann Arbor. Nat Sibold, well known to Plymouth for his past performances through the years at community functions, sang familiar favorites, with Fred Nelson accompanying him on the piano.

A presentation was made by Art Haske, orchestra member and past president of the Symphony Board to Wayne Dunlap and his wife Lenore.

Dunlap recognized longtime supporters, and projected the future of the Plymouth Symphony.

Easter Bunny Faces

With Easter only a few days away, thoughts are turning to gifts for all members of the family. Try these Easter Bunny Faces which children of all ages will love. It's Good Housekeeping's Recipe of the Week.

EASTER-BUNNY FACES
1 13 3/4 ounce package hot roll mix

2 cups confectioner's sugar
2 tablespoons milk raisins
cinnamon candies

Prepare dough as hot-roll mix package directs. Cover. Let rise in warm place—80 to 85 degrees—until double in bulk—30 to 60 minutes. Divide dough into 10 parts; shape each into strip 13 inches long.

Tie each strip into knot; then place on greased cookie sheet, pulling ends of knot up, to make bunny's ears. Let rise in warm place until light—30-60 minutes. Meanwhile, start heating oven to 375 degrees. Bake bunny faces about 20 minutes or until done, then remove to rack.

Meanwhile, in small bowl, mix sugar and milk until smooth. Spread over faces while they are still warm; then make eyes, nose and mouth with raisins and cinnamon candies. Makes 10.

'Wings To Bermuda'

The Northwest Branch announces a free film showing of "Wings To Bermuda" to be shown Wednesday, April 13, at 7:30 p.m., at the Downtown Branch of the Y.W.C.A.

This film, sponsored by the Y.W. Trip Committee, will feature the English island of Bermuda, located off the coast of Virginia, in conjunction with tips on what to wear while visiting the island with the 1966 Bermuda Trippers. The tour is scheduled to leave Detroit on June 26th and return on July 2.

Reservations are still being accepted and interested people are invited to come to the film meeting for a delightful preview of the summer trip. Y trips are for men and women, couples and single adults.

Other Y.W. trips scheduled for 1966 will include four weekend excursions to Stratford, Ontario, for the Shakespearean Festival and a 17 day tour to Alaska. For additional information call the Northwest Branch or telephone the Metropolitan Offices at WO 1-9220.

Pictures Are For Sharing

Some of the world's greatest treasures are paintings that have been hung in galleries and museums for people to enjoy. Other picture treasures are the kind that rest in people's wallets. Yours, for example.

Why do you carry snapshots around? So you can share intimate glimpses of your family with others. So you can tell amusing stories with the pictures you take (like mama falling in the swimming pool or the baby helping himself to the frosting on a cake).

One way of spreading these photographic pleasures is to have extra prints made—so you can send prints to friends and relatives to keep.

It's amazing how much people appreciate opening a letter and finding a few photos of your children along with your letter. Or how about sending duplicate prints of shared vacation activities to people you met and liked while on a trip?

The cost of enlargements and extra prints or duplicate slides is surprisingly low. For very little money you can bring a great deal of pleasure into the lives of people you're fond of. Why not scout through your most recent pictures and pick out some you'd like to have duplicated as gifts? We'll be happy to print them for you.

Our Queen of Hearts Suggests "What to Do With Easter Eggs"

By FAITH GILLESPIE

The average American housewife is a remarkable creature. She can handle almost any challenge posed in her society: zippers and other intricate machines, magazine salesmen, unmatched socks, sibling rivalry, guppies, Little League Basketball, viral laryngitis, hungry husbands, and the tough logistical problem of outfitting for Easter a large and growing family with the small and shrinking dollar.

She can even cook four dozen eggs at the simmer for twenty minutes without getting multiple cracks or green yolks.

She can cheerfully turn her kitchen into a dye works, a magical Eastern Egg Factory, where the children juggle dye pots and eggs till they're blue in the face . . . and green and yellow and purple.

And then the real problem appears, the one which annually proves taxing even in light of her remarkable ability to cope. It is the problem of what to do with all those dyed eggs.

Oh yes, the children give some away to their friends, but the friends give the children some back, and there they all are.

Some can be eaten for Easter breakfast, of course, and the few that escape uncracked from being carried about in little baskets can be put in a big basket to make a centerpiece for Easter dinner. Easter supper can be egg salad sandwiches, and potato salad. And then what does the housewife do?

Contributing them to the Poverty Program is out. The wheels of the bureaucracy grind slowly; the eggs would never last out the paper work. The Peace Corps is not the answer, nor will gamey eggs, gay as they may be, help the boys in Vietnam.

They won't keep till next Easter. They must be used, because, as her mother always said, "Wanton waste makes woe." or something to that effect.

You will never guess who has come to the rescue in this dilemma: the U.S. Department of Agriculture, that's who. For one dime the concerned American housewife can obtain the Home and Garden Bulletin No. 103, "Eggs in Family Meals," from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., 20402.

While she waits for this valuable document to arrive, she can use up some of the eggs by making

EGGS STUFFED WITH CRABMEAT
Cut 6 hard-cooked eggs in half lengthwise. Scoop out yolks and mash them. Add a can of crab meat (drained), 1/2 cup chopped celery, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/4 teaspoon salt, a dash of paprika, and 1/2 cup mayonnaise. Mix well. Fill egg whites with crabmeat mixture. Sprinkle with paprika.

One cup finely chopped cooked or canned chicken may be substituted for the crabmeat, in which case reduce mustard to 1/2 teaspoon and mayonnaise to 1/4 cup.

And so another national crisis has been solved by Government intervention.

Before I close I must offer my apologies to Marianna Fortuna and to any readers who tried her Confetti Corn Casserole last week. Somehow I inadvertently left out a very important ingredient. The recipe calls for six weiners sliced in half-inch rounds. It does make a difference. Forgive me.

DIANNE VAN LOO

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Van Loo announce the engagement of their daughter Dianne to Edward Knox Mellon of Clarksville, Texas, son of Mrs. Edward Mellon and the late Mr. Mellon. Dianne is a graduate of Plymouth High School and the University of Michigan. She is employed at Oakland Community College. Edward Mellon is a graduate of the University of Texas and is a professor at the University of Michigan. A May wedding is planned.

DARLENE GRUDZIECKI

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore J. Grudziecki, 5848 N. Linville, Nankin, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter Darlene Ann to Randall D. Kaiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marie Gust, of 3164 Treadwell, Wayne, who is serving with the U.S. Army at Fort Ord, Calif. The bride-elect is employed at the Willenbecks Nursing Home.

Redford DAR To Meet April 9

Members of the John Sackett Chapter of Redford, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be guests at the home of Mrs. Robert Davis, 1878 Vinsetta Blvd., Royal Oak, with co-hostess, Mrs. Harry Paulger, at a luncheon preceding the regular meeting, April 9, at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles R. Fraser, State American Indian Chairman, will tell the chapter more about the National Project for St. Mary's College for Indians at Omaha, Neb.

The National Society DAR hopes to raise $30,000 for a dual need at St. Mary's, namely, a Home Economics Center and furnishings for ten new dormitory rooms, a house mother's quarters, and a faculty room.

Reports of delegates to the State Conference held in March at the Bancroft Hotel in Saginaw, will be presented, followed by the annual election of officers.

4,500 Added To Chrysler Pension List

Over 4,500 Chrysler Corporation employees and surviving spouses retired or became eligible for a pension under the company-paid pension plans last year. More than $25.1 million was paid out during 1965 to all salaried and hourly retirees and eligible surviving spouses under the plans.

Beginning with retirements on or after Sept. 1, 1965, eligible employees who retire early or on a permanent total disability receive a supplemental allowance, which when added to their basic pension and temporary pension, if applicable, provides a total monthly pension benefit of up to $400 per month. In 1965, retired employees received more than $1.2 million in supplemental allowance.

Since the inception of the plans in 1950, Chrysler retirees have received approximately $106.8 million in benefits.

The 1965 retirements bring the grand total of Chrysler employees and surviving spouses who have retired or become eligible for a pension under the plans to over 27,100. Of these, more than 20,000 are still living and receiving benefits.

Normal retirements, which generally begin at age 65, have accounted for approximately 15,900 of all retirements. Early retirements and deferred pensions have totaled over 7,900 and disability retirements over 3,100 since the plans began operating.

The pension plans are financed entirely by the company through pension funds which are held and invested by a number of banks acting as trustees. These funds cannot revert to Chrysler Corporation.

Pension benefits are paid in addition to federal social security payments received by eligible pensioners.

Other benefits available to retired employees include fully-paid hospital-surgical-medical coverage and life insurance which is continued at no cost to the retiree after age 65.

A reception followed at Rose-dale Gardens Civic Association Clubhouse.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Chester McGraw of Gallopis, O. and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Reuben (Bud) Tilley of Farmington. Rose Sobania was maid of honor. The bridesmaid was Debra Kinjorski.

Michael Tilley was his brother's best man. Lynn Simarak was an usher. Michael DesJardins was ring bearer.

Gallipolis was the site of the honeymoon. Seaman Tilley is due to report back for Machinist Training School, at Great Lakes, Ill.

A friendly neighbor and his garden tools are soon parted.

WAITING TO WELCOME the Dominican Sisters when they move into their new home on Middlebelt and Thirteen Mile Rd. and Dominic and Joseph Joseph (big brother) has these words inscribed: "Seven times a day I will praise Thee" (words referring to the seven times the bell calls the nuns to the Divine Office). Little Brother Dominic has "Thanks Be to God." These bells are on the top of the building.

The Distaff Point of View

Jerry Wendt
Woman's Editor

It was the heart of the city. A grey stone building sat behind great iron gates. I entered the courtyard and felt myself going back nearly 700 years in time. The door of the building swung open to admit me and after identifying myself, I was led into a long, narrow room and the door closed silently behind me.

There were no carpets on the floors, no curtains at the windows. The silence was broken only by the muffled sound of bells, but everywhere there was the feeling of a pulsing, secret life.

My chair was seated facing the wall. A wrought iron grille centered the wall. Beyond that there was space, then another wrought iron grille, behind that a curtain. In a few moments it would part, and I would find myself facing a woman who had entered these walls when she was 22. Now in her late thirties, she had never left these walls.

What would she be like? How had she found life? For this was the heart of the cloister world. I was in the Monastery of the Blessed Sacrament, the Cloister of the Dominican Nuns. Founded by St. Dominic in 1206, they came to America in 1906. Now they are building a new home at Thirteen Mile Rd. and Middlebelt in Farmington. I had read a copy of their magazine "Echoes" and found such warmth and humor that I was determined to meet the person who could write like that from a cloister.

The curtains parted, interrupting my thoughts and I found myself facing one of the most fascinating women I have ever met in my life. Sister Mary of the Incarnation was a student at Marygrove when she read the life of St. Theresa and decided to lead the life of a cloistered nun. How had a lifetime affected her after daily practicing the three vows of prayer, penitence, and example? I had the idea, that most people had of a remote, withdrawn person, living in an ivory tower, far away from life and its problems. Part of this is true, for part of a cloister will forever remain a mystery as it still is a contemplative life. Nonetheless, there is a busy, active life within the cloister and the minds of nuns are kept active as they daily become closer to God.

Sister was a history major, and writing for forte. She tried to avoid the kitchen and of course found herself saddled with its chores. However, she cheerfully dubbed herself "Editor-in-Chief" and christened her huge stove "Black Maria." Her account of her first struggles with recipes are gems and in one of our next issues we are going to bring you her own story of her kitchen adventures.

Right now, of course, they are getting ready for moving, even as you and I do. The beds have been dismantled and the mattresses are on the floor, likewise the bureau drawers.

However, there will be two old friends waiting to welcome them when they move to Middlebelt and 13 Mile. Joseph and Dominic are already installed in regal splendor after being modernized by electricity. Joseph weighs 500 pounds and is 108 inches in circumference. Little brother Dominic is only 100 pounds and 48 inches in circumference. For years these bells have daily summoned the nuns to their chores and prayers. They were moved August 27. Since then, the Sisters have used hand bells and the results have been more or less gratifying since even with the best intentions, the nuns will get absorbed in something.

We had talked for nearly three hours and I was loath to take my leave. I am completely humbled by a life that is such a sacrifice to God and made with such good humor. It is a comforting thought to think that these gentle women will be in our midst. Surely the force of good that will be released by their prayers will count for much. It is to be hoped that the women will rally to form a Guild for them, because unable to leave their walls, they will be dependent upon others to help them.

As we said Goodbye, the sisters called their loving greeting to all who leave their walls, "God Bless You." In our hearts we echoed the wish to them and their blessed work.

Passover Celebrated by Religious School Students of Livonia Jewish Congregation

The Livonia Jewish Congregation, a Religious School held its first model Seder.

In the past years due to lack of facilities the classes held individual services and discussions. Now in their own building with the large social hall the students were able to enjoy, learn and understand more fully what they have just partly seen in past years.

Marcus Bass, a member of the Synagogue's religious committee conducted the services with many students taking solo parts.

Mrs. Blank played the piano for several of the songs and the singing was led by Thea Schwartz.

Scout Troops Join Hands Over Border

Boy Scout Troop 126, sponsored by The Aldersgate Methodist Church of Redford Township, combined with the 13th Scout Troop of Windsor, Ontario, to participate in an Investiture Ceremony in the outdoor Chapel of Camp Erwig at Wheatley, Ontario, on March 19.

In the memory of the leaders of both Troops, there has never been held, in the Detroit-Windsor area, such a combined investiture ceremony.
The invocation was given by David Harris, committee chairman of Troop 126, in the light of red flares used to illuminate the Chapel. Dennis Wachna, Scoutmaster of the 13th Scout Troop of Windsor, explained the 13th Troop inductees, their responsibilities to their brother Scouts, to God, to their Country and to their Queen.

Charles Lindh, Scoutmaster of Aldersgate Boy Scout Troop 126, promised that this incident would become an enduring memory to all of the participating boys.

Ervin Cummins, Community Commissioner of the Redford District, administered the Scout Oath to the inductees of Troop 126.

John Sheffield, Neighborhood Commissioner of the Redford District, then explained to the boys the meaning of the twelve points of the Scout Law. Assisted by Acting Senior Patrol Leader Rusty Kreis, Lindh presented each boy with his insignia of rank.

Sunday morning Church services were held jointly in the outdoor Chapel with Charles Lindh officiating, assisted by his God and Country candidates Terry Lindh, Rick Sheffield, Greg Krupic, Brad Kapture, Roger Moore and John Rowan.

Boys who were inducted into Aldersgate Troop 126 were: Keith Armour, Michael Balutis, Brad Kapture and Michael Cummins, all of Redford Township.

Tool Engineers Choose Officers

Rouge Valley Chapter No. 190 of the American Society of Tool and Manufacturing Engineers has elected seven officers for 1966-67.

Successful candidates were: H. R. Roberts, Garden City, of the Ford Division of the Ford Motor Company, chairman; Don Brendahl, Livonia, of the Auto Assembly Division of Ford, first vice chairman; Henry Lehtoca, Garden City, of Hole Engineering, second vice chairman; and Jay W. Bender, Southfield, of General Electric, third vice chairman.

Completing the slate were Bill Nyman, Garden City, of Ed-Le Welding, Secretary, and Don Speck, Southfield, of Speck Design and Engineering, treasurer.

Paul Charette, of Ford Motor Company's metal stamping division, was the guest speaker. Elwood Meschter of ASTME headquarters spoke also.

Chartered in December, the local chapter has 95 members who live in the general area served by The Observer newspapers.

Hoover PTA Sponsoring Mother-Daughter Party

The newly elected officers of the Herbert C. Hoover P.T.A. were installed at the March meeting. President — Mrs. Diane Carlson; vice-pres. — Mr. F. Cliff Gettys; rec. sec. — Mrs. Beverly Albrite; sec. — Mrs. Marilyn Hirvela; and treas. — Mrs. Alice Barnes. The new committee chairmen are Mrs. Betty Smith for health, safety, and education; Mrs. Beverly Sauer for hospitality; and Mrs. Nancy Kelly for publicity. Mrs. Mary Lambert will continue to head the membership committee and Mrs. Shelby Holcomb the program committee.

Shelby Holcomb and her program committee are planning a Mother-Daughter Dinner on Monday, May 2. There will be entertainment, prizes, and favors for Hoover P.T.A. mothers and daughters. The Hoover Ice Cream Social, which was a successful event last June, will culminate the school year.

Delegates from Hoover P.T.A. will be attending the P.T.A. State Convention at Cobo Hall on Monday, April 25. They will hear guest speaker Bob Condit, noted columnist and outstanding international correspondent, speaking on "Waging Peace in the 60's." Delegates will also plan to attend workshops on April 26 and 27.

Talent Makes Up 1966 Meadow Brook Calendar

Meadowbrook continues into its third year, bigger and better than ever. The roster of guest performers who will appear give evidence of the growth of this musical event. The 1966 season will open June 30 and continue through Aug. 20.

It will consist of six weeks of subscription concerts. Single tickets will be available for a seventh week of choral programs conducted by Robert Shaw and for the eighth week of contemporary music. Concerts will be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:30 with a new Sunday 6:30 p.m. twilight series being added this year.

Dominating the list of soloists is the trio of violinist Isaac Stern, pianist Eugene Istomin and cellist Leonard Rose. The three will alternate as soloists during the fourth, fifth and sixth weeks of the festival and will be heard in a total of 12 concerts from July 21 to Aug. 7.

Starting off the season June 30-July 3 will be violinist Henryk Szeryng, Contralto Maureen Forrester will be heard July 7-10, pianist Van Cliburn will appear July 14-17 with Robert Shaw conducting. Sixten Ehrling will conduct the Detroit Symphony for the balance of the concerts.

Mrs. Edgar Mosshamer and Mrs. Robert E. Taylor are Co-Chairmen for the Farmington area. For ticket applications or additional information call Mrs. Willis Caldwell 474-0055 or Mrs. Charles Dorando 474-5254.

Ford Music Caravan Makes Hit

The spring tour of the Ford Caravan of Music has been packing in the customers at college campuses across the mid-west.

The tour opened at Drake University in Des Moines, Ia., and has visited the campuses of the University of Missouri, Central Missouri State, Eastern Illinois, Butler, Notre Dame and Western Michigan.

Featured on this spring's tour are composer - recording star Roger Miller and the Good Time Singers. Miller has skyrocketed to the top in the popular music field on the basis of such hits as "King of the Road." The Good Time Singers make frequent guest appearances on network television.

Ford Division started the Caravan of Music program as an experiment in the fall of 1963. It gained immediate acceptance with college students across the country by providing them an opportunity to see big-name performers for a nominal ticket fee. More than 450,000 students have attended past shows.

Still to be visited by the tour are the campuses of the University of Louisville, Old Dominion (Va.) College, Richmond (Va.) Professional Institute, the University of South Carolina, the University of Jacksonville, Florida State University, the University of Miami, Tampa University, Clemson (S. C.) College, the University of North Carolina, Columbia University, the University of Maryland, the Naval Academy and Penn State University.

Dancers Slate Performance in U of D Series

The University of Detroit Town and Gown Celebrity Series presents a "Caribbean Festival" with Jean-Leon Destine and his Haitian dance company, Saturday, April 16, at 8:30 p.m. in the Memorial Building Auditorium.

Consisting of dancers, singers, drummers, and musicians, currently on a nationwide tour, Jean-Leon Destine and his Haitian dance company perform in the tradition of the Voodoo Dance, a blending of the rhythmic power and beauty of African folk art with that of European culture.

The traditional island drum and flute will accompany such varied dance offerings as "Village Festival," "Baptism of the Drum," "Slave Dance," "Fantaisie Musicale," "Witch Doctor," "Spider Dance," and "Afro Chant."

Information on the "Caribbean Festival" program and ticket prices may be obtained by calling the University of Detroit Ticket Office at 342-1000, ext. 257.

Men Wanted

The male section of the Livonia Civic Chorus has openings in the group for the next two weeks, after which membership will be closed in preparation for their Spring Concert. For further information contact Al Hudak, 427-5006, Bob Sinsarski, 427-2374, or the Recreation Department, GA 1-2000.

Farmington Players Rehearse for Noel Coward Comedy

The Farmington Players have tended to live with him. The completed casting and are currently in rehearsal for their final show of the season, Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit." The improbable farce will be staged at the Players Barn, April 29, 30, May 1, 6 and 7.

Coward's sophisticated comedy provided the basis on the Broadway musical "High Spirits" starring Tammy Grimes and Bea Lillie a few years ago.

The plot revolves around a sophisticated, urbane English writer who is about to write a novel delving into the supernatural. As background for his book, he invites a Medium to his house to stage a seance for himself, his second wife and two friends.

Results of the seance prove unsettling to say the least, when it is discovered that the writers' first wife has materialized from the "other world" and fully in-ends to live with him. The problem is further complicated by the fact that she can be seen only by the writer.

Directed by Kaye and George Britton the production features several players who have been audience favorites. Charles Condolime, the writer, is portrayed by Ted Bedgen. His wife, Ruth, will be played by Marcia Martin. Hope Nahstoll will appear as Madame Arcati, the Medium. Diane Brown appears as Charles' first wife.

Others in the cast include: Jim Allison as Dr. Bradman; Lois Hill as Mrs. Bradman; and Kay Kornmesser as Edith, the maid.

Cliff Dickson has designed an English manor house drawing room, complete with a ceiling-high fireplace for the production. Opening night will offer its regular After-Glo at the Danish Inn, where the audience is welcome to meet the cast.

Reservations may be made by calling Fran and Harry Keszeta at GR 4-7367 or at the Welsby House of Music in Downtown Farmington.

Special Films Slated

A family film program of animated cartoons is scheduled at Greenfield Village during the week of April 8 through April 17.

"Panda and the Magic Serpent, Hot Rod Huckster, Room and Wrath, and Hansel and Gretel" will be presented twice daily during the Easter vacation period. Weekday showings will be at 1 and 3 p.m., and at 2 and 4 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Greenfield Village movie program is held in the Henry Ford Museum theater and is scheduled in the regular admission charge to the Museum.

Harry Returns to Court Stage

"Harry the Rat With Women" returns to the Kresge Court of the Detroit Institute of Arts April 13, 14, 15 at 8:30 p.m. "Harry" was the initial presentation of the museum's Court Players last October. At this time, it received generous critical attention was widely praised by critics and audience and tickets promptly sold out.

To satisfy many requests for a repeat engagement, "Harry" is scheduled as the April performance for the Court Players and cast members will appear in the roles they created: Martha Molson as the narrator, Will Young as Harry, narcissistic, pampered and smug; Gail Bille, Patricia Marlene King, Roseanne Septak and Annette Winkler as the women who punctuate Harry's life. Others in the cast will be William Patent, Arthur S. Inman and Dennis Patella.

"Harry the Rat With Women" was adapted and staged for the Court Theatre by Tom Darnall, who keeps the presentation in its original narrative form. It is produced by the Theatre Arts Dept. of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The play was adapted from Jules Feiffer's first novel, published in 1963. Feiffer's syndicated cartoons appear in 50 newspapers in the United States and some dozen newspapers and magazines abroad.

Tickets are available by mail or in person from the Institute of Arts Ticket Office (832-2730); also from all J. L. Hudson Ticket Services.

JAMES STEWART and a huge international cast star in the Robert Aldrich production "The Flight of the Phoenix" now showing at the Mai Kai Theatre in Livonia.

Seeks 4-Year Trustee Terms

Senator Terry L. Troutt (D-Romulus) today praised the fast action of the Senate Elections Committee in reporting out a bill that will give all township officials four-year terms.

"This is the recognition that townships deserve," Troutt said. "The township is the cornerstone of our democratic government. But townships were apparently left out in the cold by the new Michigan Constitution.

"My amendment to Senate Bill 732 will correct this omission. It will begin to have an effect immediately with the extension of terms of office of township trustees elected in 1964 until Jan. 1, 1969."

Council Studies Land Offer from Bud Gould

Termed "apparently a fine offer" by City Commissioner George Hudson, a proposal by Loren W. Gould, to dedicate an eight foot depth of frontage on his property at 637 S. Main St., Plymouth to the city in trade for any assessments due to widening or surfacing of Main St. in the next five years, was taken under consideration by the Commission at its meeting Monday.

Gould, who is planning a remodeling project for the building at that address will move the present structure back, thus creating the front eight feet that he wants to trade to the city for the tax promise.

In a letter to the Commission, Gould said "It is our understanding that Main Street widening is planned in the near future." His proposal would save the city possible expenses in condemnation, acquisition and removal.

The Commissioners voted 7-0 to acknowledge the letter and take the matter under consideration.

DPW News And Notes

By SUPT. KEN VOGRAS
Plymouth Dept. Public Works

The department cold patched streets from Ann Arbor Trail South to M-14; Sheldon to the East City Limits; North end of the city and William Street from Evergreen to N. Harvey. The sanitary sewer main on N. Harvey Street was repaired and patched.

The Symphony Banner was put up in Kellogg Park for the Plymouth Symphony Group. During the snowstorm Friday night and Saturday morning 23 tons of salt was spread on the major streets, also snow was backfilled and the street was cleaned off the sidewalks at the city hall.

A two-inch water line was repaired at Edward Hines Drive and Woods Drive. The repairing and painting of park benches and tables was completed. At the Riverside Cemetery spring clean-up was started and there was one funeral.

The storm sewer grate at the creek on N. Harvey at the parking lot entrance was cleaned. Forty-four catch basins were cleaned in the Northwest section of the city.

Gravel was hauled to various places where fill needed to be done. A fire hydrant was repaired at the Packaging Corporation on Goldsmith Street.

Completes Training

Army Pvt. James H. Owens, son of Mrs. Bessie Owens, 259 E. Pearl st., Plymouth, has completed a combat engineer course at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. The 19-year-old soldier attended Plymouth High School.

Dave Campbell, listed on the Detroit Tigers' spring roster as a first baseman, also played the three other infield positions and the outfield in the minors.

Vivian Asks Report on UFO Probe

U. S. Representative Weston E. Vivian proposed Saturday that a panel of U. S. scientists be appointed by the Congress to re-examine all recent unidentified flying object data currently held by the U. S. Air Force, to review the Air Force's procedures for interpreting these data, and to make a public report of their findings.

Vivian proposed this course as an alternate to investigation by a Congressional committee. He said that he had indicated this preference to Chairman George P. Miller of the House Science and Astronautics Committee, on which Vivian also serves.

"There are several reasons why the panel of scientists could carry out this investigation better than a Congressional committee," Vivian, the only Ph. D. scientist in the U. S. Congress, stated.

"The phenomena being reported are best interpreted and evaluated by trained, professional scientists, having adequate time for detailed examination of the reports and situation. And such a review, by an appointed panel would be far less likely to degenerate into a 'circus,' than would a committee investigation besieged by reports and fans.

"Personally, I am unconvinced, thus far, that there are any exotic explanations to be reached.

"But quite a number of capable, intelligent and reliable individuals, in my own District and elsewhere, have now observed what they consider most unusual events; and they remain unconvinced by the explanations thus far offered, including those for the most recent sightings in my state.

"I believe that they, and the public at large, are anxious to receive a more complete report on the status of UFO investigations," Vivian concluded.

PLANNING A RUMMAGE Sale are ladies from Our Lady of Good Counsel on Wednesday, April 13 from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Proceeds from the sale will help with financing a Pilgrimage to the Canadian Shrines August 24 to 31.

Soroptimists are having a spring rummage sale at the Plymouth Community Federal Credit Union Hall, April 9 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Mrs. Clifford Smith, chairman of the distribution of the American Association Michigan News Bulletin, has just completed overseeing the mailing of the March issue.

KNIGHTS OF THE Round Table was the theme of Cub Scout Pack 1533 at the Starkweather gym. Larry Grimes, Cubmaster, was in charge and the youngsters participated with festive hats and cloaks they had designed.

Flemish flower arranging was taught at the home of Mrs. Marion Sullivan at 1470 Woodland Place on Monday. Mrs. Ralph Carter, arranged to have Mrs. Russell Tabor from the Dearborn Garden Club present to demonstrate to Garden Club members.

Co-chairing the "Pop Concert", sponsored by the Women's Symphony League April 30, will be Mrs. Robert Vorech and Mrs. George Spaniel. Tickets and table reservations are already on sale, and may be had by calling Mrs. Leslie Gallagher at 453-7229.

Seeing is Believing—Mrs. Sally Pearson, academic teacher at Our Lady of Providence and also singing instructor, conducts a chorus of young people at the school that must be heard to be appreciated. Music reaches everyone and Mrs. Harbert Rosin, who conducts the orchestra with 16 members, band stands, uniforms and the works at Our Lady of Providence, is assisted by her husband at most practice sessions and performances. One can usually see him sitting among the children helping them carry the beat. Leader of a professional band, he lends encouragement to these students who can swing out with most any tune.

Wayne State University's oldest football rival is nearby Eastern Michigan University, the two teams having met 28 times prior to this year's battle.

Rites Held Saturday for Mrs. Richwine

Services were conducted Saturday in the Schrader Funeral Home for Mrs. Mary Richwine, 41701 Wilcox Road, Plymouth, prominent in community, Masonic, business and club circles, with burial in Riverside Cemetery. The services were in charge of Rev. Hugh White and assistant, Rev. Peter Schweitzer, of the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Richwine, wife of Perry Richwine, district governor of Rotary, and long one of the area's most prominent bankers, businessmen and lawyers, died at her home on March 30 following an illness of several months.

The illness kept her from attending last week's district conference of area Rotary Clubs where her husband was honored as district governor and for his years of outstanding service as a Rotarian.

Mrs. Richwine spent the greater part of her life in the community and served as her husband's secretary for years in his bank and law offices. She was stricken with her fatal ailment several months ago but her condition didn't become critical until shortly after the start of the new year. Since her condition gradually worsened until her death early on the morning of March 30.

She was a member of the Order of Eastern Star, Plymouth Chapter 115.

Surviving are: her husband, Perry; three daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Jean Smith of Plymouth, Mrs. Betty Jane Gondek of Northville and Miss Mary Louise Richwine of Petoskey; and six grandchildren.

Bonnie Britton Tells of Thrills in Junior Miss Contest

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Bonnie Britton of Farmington Township recently participated in the national pageant to choose America's Junior Miss in Mobile, Ala. The following is her personal account of her experiences of representing Michigan in the national contest.)

BY BONNIE BRITTON
It was a beautiful, sunny St. Patrick's Thursday when my plane left Willow Run Airport for Chicago—the first leg of my Junior Miss adventure. A host of friends, neighbors and classmates were on hand to see me off, and the day before, the Farmington Board of Commerce had sponsored a "Bon Voyage" luncheon. Everyone wished me luck, and I had a little extra support since four of my girl friends and one set of their parents would be coming Tuesday.

Once in Chicago, I met the Junior Misses from Illinois and Minnesota and we waited for the arrival of 18 other girls, who were to gather in Chicago. Among these girls was a roommate, Alaska's Junior Miss. When all the girls had arrived we toured the Stewardess Training Center of United Airlines and then it was off to the hotel to get some sleep. We were glad for the early "lights out" when the switchboard rang us at 6:30 a.m. and after breakfast we toured Chicago's newspaper plants. By 1 p.m. all 21 of us were on a charter jet to Atlanta, where pictures were taken and dinner was eaten. By this time the Junior Miss head count was 44.
The Mobile airstrip was a fantastic, colorful fairytale when the plane touched down at 7 p.m. Friday. The azure trail girls, in their pastel "Southern Belle" gowns formed two lines through which the Junior Misses would pass as they left the plane. The last six Junior Misses to arrive had boarded the plane inconspicuously from the rear after landing so that they also walked beneath the crossed swords held by the military cadets. We smiled as our week in Mobile began to the enthusiastic tunes of the Academy band.

After meeting my very gracious host family, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Walsh, my roommate and I claimed our luggage and were off for "home." By this time all of us had been swamped by photographers and we knew that by the end of the week we would have had more pictures taken of us than we had ever dreamed possible.

Bright and early Saturday morning a red 1966 convertible pulled up to take us to Mobile's Municipal Auditorium for breakfast, orientation, and our first strenuous day of rehearsals. The schedule was detailed and efficiently organized so we 50 hardly had a moment's rest to ourselves.

Highlight of Saturday's daytime activities was the Scott Paper Party planning event where each girl had to plan a party and decorate the table accordingly for a separate judging from the pageant. I planned a Brazilian welcome party for newly arrived exchange students and had a wonderful time creating a Brazilian doll.

Saturday night all of us looked forward to appearing in a grand parade and being presented at the following mayor's reception. Each Junior Miss glowed with a special sparkle in her colored formal gown that night as she rode in a shiny new convertible under her state's name and signed autographs on hundreds of outstretched papers.

A taste of New Orleans' Mardi Gras followed, as the girls gathered and were barged by candy at the parade's end, and then were individually proceeded down the Battle House's red carpeted, winding staircase to become honorary citizens of Mobile.

The tone was grateful and reverent as we gathered in church Sunday morning, and then toured the beautiful Bellingrath Gardens and lunched at the Isle Dauphin Club on the Gulf of Mexico. Then, back to rehearsals—yes, even on Sunday! By the time we arrived "home" it was after 8 p.m. and all we could do was wash our hair and tumble into bed.

Monday morning horror struck! In all of Mobile's humidity my hair had not dried and it hung in delightful little permanent waves during all of the grueling rehearsal schedule. This was also the day I began making radio and TV tapes which were to be continued all week.

After a half an hour to change clothes I saw my parents Monday night for the first time since leaving Michigan Thursday. They had arrived in Mobile Saturday afternoon, but there are very strict rules about where and when a Junior Miss may see her parents during the week.

All 50 girls were divided into three groups for expediency in rehearsals, interviews, etc. and my group was interviewed by the judges Tuesday. The interview which we had hoped to be my strongest point, didn't come off nearly as well as it should have and I still wonder whether or not that would have made any difference in the final results.

Then it was "home," change clothes and back to the auditorium for the first night of preliminary competition. My group performed the poise and appearance routine while the other groups did their creative and performing arts and youth fitness routines. The judges were always on us girls.

Wednesday's schedule ran the same with more rehearsals. That night we performed the youth fitness routine. Thursday was strictly a work day for all the groups, but I did manage a little time to sneak down the hall to have my hair done while waiting my turn to rehearse talent.

The auditorium was a mass of excitement and confusion as Hugh O'Brian arrived Thursday afternoon. Funny thing that Anita Bryant didn't cause that much commotion when she arrived the day before!

That night I sang "Girl from Ipanema" in both Portuguese and English as my talent presentation in the past phase of preliminary competition. We were all relieved and exhausted by the conclusion of this performance, but could not return to our host families without being "cleared" through security and having escorts steer us in the direction of the car.

I was lucky, though, as my parents were right outside the door with a few Michigan Jaycees, so without breaking any rules, I was able to speak to them for a whole five minutes. Once at our host family's home, we rolled into bed at 9 p.m. for the third night in a row.

Friday was no exception as we rehearsed all day under the bright lights for the TV show on Saturday night. I was able to escape for a few minutes, however, when I went to the Press Room for my last radio tape, this one with Hugh O'Brian.

When he finished his part of the interview, he quickly rose, handed me the phone and kissed me on the right temple. Talk about surprises! Both he and Anita Bryant are wonderful people and they were so warm and friendly toward all the girls.

After returning from a Sponsor's Dinner that was supposed to be over at 9 p.m., but lasted until 11:30, we made our way "home" to sleep and prepare for our really big day, Saturday.

Everyone gathered in the auditorium to begin rehearsing by 8 a.m. Saturday and we worked straight through, with just a lunch break, until 15 minutes before the 6 p.m. pre-TV show was to begin. Since we were not involved for about another hour when the show went on the air we had time to change clothes, take our hair down and maybe grab something to eat.

At last—we were on TV, had finished two fast costume changes and Diane Wilkins of Wisconsin was announced as the 1966 America's Junior Miss. We all wished her the best at the reception afterward.

Sunday a.m. we said our goodbyes and we, the nation's most exhausted girls, winged our way home to rest, our families and a lifetime full of wonderful memories.

All except Diane — she flew directly to New York City and is only now beginning her task and responsibility of America's Junior Miss—and the thoughts and prayers of 49 other girls will follow her in all her travels.

Just Chattin'

Confusion reigns from White House to Livonia — Did you ever look for Clarenceville City Hall?

W. W. EDGAR

Sitting with friends while awaiting the election returns in Livonia the other evening the conversation got around to present economic conditions, so-called inflation and the latest suggestions and edicts from the White House.

"Have you been shopping in the markets lately?", asked one.

"Prices of meat and many other things are going sky high," he continued, "and I can't understand why LBJ doesn't do something about it. After all didn't he force the steel companies and the aluminum firms to hold the line when they wanted to raise prices. Why doesn't he do the same thing with food?"

"He is doing something," another interrupted. "Just this week LBJ urged the housewives of America to curtail their spending a bit by bypassing the choice cuts of meat and the other high priced articles on the shelves."

"At the same time," he said, "the man in the White House called on business and industry to delay their expansion programs — hold off putting up new buildings for a while. How do you like that?—when communities like Livonia are in dire need of this business and industrial expansion to provide a broader tax base and ease the burden on the property owner."

He just sat there and shook his head, sort of nonplussed by it all.

"Yes," chimed in another, "and now they want to raise taxes to halt the inflation. And, according to the story I read, the idea is to take this money out of the economy now and give it to the government. What for? So they can send it over to some country that is supposed to be our friend?"

"What about the War on Poverty?", asked another. "We are spending millions of dollars on people who don't want to work and sending food all over the world from our yearly surplus and yet have folks starving right here in America."

"Yes, what about that War on Poverty. Did you see in the paper where the government gave a woman $10,000 to open a store in Lafayette Park in Detroit — and she and her husband have an income of more than $11,000 a year?"

"Now the store is failing and the government has a committee studying a plan to help build up the business. Is this War on Poverty? Why don't they make her give the money back? This is all too confusing for me," he sighed.

Reminded me of the early days of my newspaper career when our editor sent one of the young reporters on an assignment out-of-town. There had been rumors of a strike and possible violence in the hard coal regions . . . and it had all the earmarks of a good story.

The next evening the old editor received the following telegram from the young reporter:

"All is confusion. Can send nothing."

And I guess that's the kind of a world we live in.

You don't have to go to Washington or the White House to become entangled in confusion. We have it right around us — and take it for granted.

I was in the vicinity of the Whitaker School and got around to discussing recreational activities for the young folks and the fine program being offered by the Parks and Recreation Department in Livonia.

"But that doesn't do us any good here," my listener countered.

When I asked why, he explained.

"This is not the City of Livonia. It is Nankin Township. We are in the Livonia School District, but not in the city, so we can't use the recreation program."

Later, I was in the vicinity of Eight-Mile Road and Middlebelt and spoke about the Livonia school system, only to learn that Clarenceville High School is not in the Livonia system — even though it is within the city limits.

A bit further down the road I came across a nice, new church — the Clarenceville Methodist Church — inside the Livonia city limits.

Clarenceville High School — Clarenceville Junior High School — Clarenceville Methodist Church.

But I couldn't find the Clarenceville City Hall.

Talk about confusion — and right here at home.

Board Ousts Demel

Johnson and Markim were accepted and then the Board turned back to the matter of a Township Attorney.

During the discussion of the reappointment of the planning consultant, it was brought out that the firm of Waring and Johnson is allowed $50 per meeting of the planning commission but has made additional charges for opinions on request of the planning board and the township board. This has brought the total up to as much as $300 per month at times, the Board was told.

It was agreed that the Planning Commission should be informed of the policy in regard to use of the planners. However, it was emphasized that the Trustees did not think the charges were excessive in lieu of the problems the Plan Board has faced in recent months.

It was determined that the Trustees, during the hours spent in drawing up a new budget, had decided to pay the township attorney $4,500 retainer to cover regular monthly meetings, legal opinions, easements and phone calls, etc. and made an additional $2,500 available in case the legal counsel became involved in lengthy suits for the Township.

Garber made a motion for the appointment of Cole to open the matter for discussion and Mrs. Holmes supported it for the same reason. After a lengthy discussion, it failed to receive a majority vote.

During the discussion, it was decided that the township attorney would be receiving payment for 12 months services and he should see that service is provided at all times—if sick and unable to attend then the Township would deduct the cost of a replacement from his retainer fee.

The matter was finally resolved when Lauterbach made a motion that the Board establish a policy governing budget items of legal fees, namely, how the monies would be dispersed and what services the Township could expect for the amount budgeted. His motion asked that the Board meet and determine the policy prior to the April 12 meeting at which time the appointment of Cole would come up again for approval.

His motion received 7-0 approval and the hearing was adjourned within minutes.

LONGTIME PLYMOUTH residents, Mr. and Mrs. William Michaels, 696 Ann Street, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday in an open house reception in the Masonic Temple. They have resided in Plymouth since 1916 and Michaels was the former owner of the B&F Auto Supply Co. before his retirement. They were married March 30, 1916 in Deckerville, Mich.

How A-Accelerator Will Benefit Area

"Southeastern Michigan stands at the threshold of becoming one of the three or four leading scientific research centers in the entire nation," U.S. Representative Weston E. Vivian said in an address in Chelsea.

"The research potential of the area already has been recognized by a number of United States firms who have located new laboratories here in recent years. But, now, with the selection of a site in Northfield Township, north of Ann Arbor, as one of six sites which were selected for final review as possible locations for a proposed $375 million atomic particle accelerator laboratory, the promise of this area will become very widely known.

"Having survived the rigorous screening procedures of the National Academy of Science Site Evaluation Committee, I believe that the Northfield site now stands an excellent chance of becoming the final choice, by the Atomic Energy Commission. We probably will not receive a final decision, however, until late in 1966 or early 1967."

Vivian, the only Ph.D. scientist ever to serve in the United States Congress, explained the operation of a proton accelerator, and its importance in gaining insights into the nature of matter.

"Basically, the accelerator is simply a three-mile long vacuum tube, bent around into a circle a mile in diameter. We can think of it as a perfectly circular 'atomic race track' with the ability to speed up atomic particles injected into it.

"The particles, guided by huge magnets located around the circle, are gradually accelerated by powerful radio waves to speed very nearly the speed of light. Then, they are directed against small samples of target materials, and the 'nuclear debris' from the impact of these high-speed particles with the target is then observed and recorded by complex instruments," Vivian explained.

"There is virtually no distant external radiation associated with the accelerator, and what little there is screened from the working staff by a 25-foot layer of earth above the entire accelerator ring."

"The economic gain to the area fortunate enough to be selected as the final location of the accelerator lab will be tremendous," Vivian said.

"The annual payroll for the laboratory is estimated at $60 million. Such a payroll operates additional local economic activity, which is estimated to reach almost half a billion dollars annually.

"In addition, such facilities tend to generate greatly expanded research activity in their vicinity, as personnel from the lab 'spin-off' to set up their own enterprises, and new firms and personnel are attracted into the area.

"As one who helped found one of the successful scientific research and development companies in this area, I can tell you that Southeastern Michigan has already reached the threshold of a science and research 'take-off'."

and Civil Service, up $300 from $1,000 to $1,300.

Buildings and grounds down $530 from $10,400 to $9,870.

Judicial up $50 from $350 to $400.

Public Safety up $9,250 from $6,950 to $16,200.

Fire Department up $15,040 from $60,530 to $75,570.

Highways up $300 from $7,000 to $7,300.

Welfare up $300 from $200 to $500.

Library up $2,000 from $13,000 to $15,000.

Parks and Recreation no change with $600.

Civil Defense down $135 from $935 to $800.

Department of Public Works up $4,380 from $9,140 to $13,520.

Debt service down $6,620 from $8,120 to $1,500.

The Board approved a total of $7,000 for legal fees with a $45,500 retainer and $2,500 for additional expenses.

Fire Captain Barney Maas, who had made a recommendation to the Board for two additional firemen, was an objector when the Board passed a budget allowing only one additional plus the new position of Public Safety Director.

It was explained that the new director will have an opportunity to make a request for an additional man if he deems it necessary after a check of the department. However, the Township hasn't hired a Director yet but Maas believes the post will be filled within a short time.

The Board approved the hiring of an architect to draw up plans for the proposed second floor on the Township Hall and ordered Trustee Louis Norman to have Morrison Webster draw up plans for the expansion suitable to advertise for bids.

The addition has an estimate cost of $80,000 which will be partially paid by a rental charge of $4,000 annually for five years from each of the sewer and water departments.

VFW Post Plans 20th Anniversary

Matt McLellan and Bob Burley, the first two commanders of Mayflower Post 6695 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, are co-chairmen of the Post's 20th anniversary dinner at the Post Home, 1426 S. Mill Street, on Saturday, April 16.

The anniversary celebration is being handled by Past Commanders of the Post. The program will include presentation of five, 10, 15 and 20 year pins and will highlight the burning of the mortgage in which all past commanders will participate.

The evening's activities will open at 6 p.m. with a cocktail hour followed by a family style dinner at 7, the program at 8:15 p.m. and dancing at 9:30 to the music of Aldom's orchestra.

All Post and Auxiliary members and guests are invited to attend. Tickets are $2.50 per person with an April 9 deadline for reservations. Call Ed Olson at 453-2434 or Bud Luttmoser at 453-2417 for tickets and reservations.

Ask Seven New Schools

for High No. 3. Our committee is working closely with the Citizens' Auditorium group in regard to financing of such a project."

Frank indicated his committee could see a facility problem for 200 students next fall despite the availability of elementary school No. 8. Most of the bind will be in the elementary and junior highs and the committee asked the Board to study the possibility of using portable facilities where possible.

"We can see 1,500 extra pupils in the school system by the start of the 1968-69 school year because of the anticipated industrial growth," he said.

"We would suggest that the Board begin thinking right now of planning a new junior high and take the sixth graders there from the start."

Frank said his committee felt the enrollment in the Plymouth system would more than double by 1972.

He showed figures of the assumed additional enrollment projects for the six years as follows: 1966-7, 1,000; 1967-8, 1,015; 1968-9, 1,195; 1969-70, 1,285; 1970-71, 1,430 and 1971-2, 1,390.

"That should give the Board some idea of what the future holds," he said. "We are sure they are aware of this but we also feel they should know how we feel about future expansion—seven schools in the next six years. We'll get around to the matter of financing when we report on phase II of our study."

Commission Votes

est were received and filed, as is ordinarily done, but not before one such set off some lively discussion.

A resolution from Harper Woods, Michigan seeking help for opposition to bills in the state legislature that would require any meeting of a governing body to be public and another that would delete the requirement for local approval for alcoholic liquor license reclassification.

City Manager Richard D. Blodgett offered that perhaps Plymouth should support Harper Woods fight against these two bills.

Commissioner Arch Vallier insisted, "Let's get a look at the whole bill first." (The Harper Woods communication was merely a digest.) Commissioner James McKeon thought that we ought to "have procedure set up to analyze state bills of interest to the city."

The matter lived up considerably and ended with Commissioners Lawton and McKeon being appointed to study the matter of bills of interest in the state legislature and what Plymouth might do about them.

In other action, the Commission decided to accept the recommendation of City Manager Richard D. Blodgett that a maximum charge of $3 per front foot be limited to 100 foot total for water tap-ins. This limitation would apply only to single users and where a main already exists.

The action was brought about by a request of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Holman of 17130 Beck Road. They have a frontage of 198 feet. The Commission adopted the 100 foot limitation as policy in such cases.

A request for a six month extension of a sign permit for New England Village was granted unanimously.

The commission also voted 7-0 to allow the Michigan Cancer Foundation to install a banner in the Park prior to the Cancer Crusade April 13, 14 and 15.

The motion permitted the Foundation to put up the banner at no cost to the city, but under its direction.

Township Thanks City for Aid In Plant Fire

When all else fails, a raging fire can at least bring out a community feeling between the city and township.

The City Commission received the following letter from Township Supervisor John D. McEwen:

"Plymouth Township would like to acknowledge with sincere appreciation, the assist given to our Fire Department at the Livonia Sash and Door Company's fire Thursday, March 17, 1966.

"Your Fire Department's generous spirit of co-operation was outstanding and was of immeasurable assistance to us.

"We look forward to a continuation of the same close relationship that we have had with you for many years and, hereby, assure you of the same co-operation."

Mayor James D. Houk commented, "We're happy to help them . . . in return for their help on many occasions."

That old Barn Is Boarded Up

The old barn to the rear of the Food Fair property has been boarded up and the horsing around has apparently ceased.

City Manager Richard Blodgett reported to the City Commission Monday that the barn, owned by Walter Beglinger, was investigated and it was found that the windows and door on the first floor level were boarded up as ordered.

The unused structure had been reported as of unusual interest to young people.

Industry Urged to Fit Vocational Needs Into School Programs

EAST LANSING—An industrial educator said industry must make its vocational needs known so that junior and senior high school curriculums can be brought up to date.

Wayne E. Grimm, director of Chrysler Institute, told a group of vocational and technical education directors attending a spring workshop at Michigan State University that industry must step up its programs for inviting counselors and supervisors from local schools to visit its plants, talk with personnel and technical training people, and explore the educational requirements for the kinds of jobs available to high school graduates.

"Casual plant tours are not enough," Grimm emphasized. "We need in-depth discussions to make school-industry contacts productive."

In return, Grimm called on schools for more realistic counseling and a greater respect on the part of counselors "for dignified and well-paid blue collar jobs in industry."

"Counselors will be able to do this job right only if we in industry sit down with them across a table and explore each other's needs and problems," he said.

Grimm said there is a great emphasis in our society for a four-year college education and for a white collar professional job.

"Obviously, all students who want a full four-year college education and are qualified for it should be encouraged to go on to college—and Chrysler, like many other corporations, maintains an active program in support of higher education through direct grants and scholarships."

However, pointing out that over 40 per cent of the boys in America who begin a four-year college program today do not finish it, Grimm asked, "Wouldn't it be better for all involved—for the students, for the colleges and for industry—if more of these students were encouraged to take vocational programs and perhaps enter a two-year technical institute rather than a four-year college?"

Grimm said it is time to "attack, shatter and hopefully bury the attitude that technical employees are second class citizens—academic castoffs."

He said "there is no room in the world of reality for this untrue, unrealistic attitude. There is no room in the market place for second class citizens. Students directed to such pursuits should not be made to feel that this is happening only because they are academic failures."

Although many students coming out of high schools today lack some of the elementary skills necessary for qualification in an industrial apprenticeship program, it is not necessarily the schools' fault, Grimm said.

"Until very recently," he said, "industry had done much less than it should to maintain contact with local schools and to keep counselors and curriculum heads informed of the educational needs of industry."

"As a result, many vocational curriculums are badly out of date. If we have a problem in this area today, it is because industry has not communicated its needs to public education," Grimm said. "If high school and junior high school counselors are to advise their students properly, they should know the needs of local industry and know the career opportunities in different lines of technical work."

Before that is possible, however, Grimm said, industry must sit down with counselors and supervisors from local schools and discuss the needs of both sides in solving the twin problem of national unemployment and the unfilled industrial demand for skilled workers.

Health Dept. Plans Course For Diabetics

The Wayne County Department of Health announced another series of classes for diabetics and their families will be starting on April 18.

The series include presentations by a physician, a public health nurse, and a nutritionist. They will discuss the importance of the patient's cooperation with his physician and help the patient understand how he can lead a normal and healthy existence.

The classes are open to all diabetics regardless of age with written approval from their physicians. Children under 14 years of age should be accompanied by their parents.

Class sessions are held at the Wayne County Health Center, Merriman Road in Elsie, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. on five consecutive Monday evenings.

Persons wishing to attend the series should register by calling the Wayne County Department of Health, Parkway 1-0200 or Chestwood 4-2800, Extension 6901.

Learn Bridge In A Hurry

ST. AGATHA ACCENTS

Forensic Contest Held

By MARY LOU MANGOLD

St. Agatha High School was host to the annual Michigan Forensic Spring Festival district eliminations on March 27.

Participants from St. Agatha included: Susan Behrend and Jessie Garden, serious prose; Thomas Flamboe and Denise Wittstock, humorous prose; Paula Dow and Colleen Connolly, declamation; Edward Gillis, extemporaneous speaking; Donna Baker and Nancy Berger, original oration; Ruth Brown, radio commentary; Christine Kessler, Edward Tawye, Robert Wilkerson, John Bolton, David Brown and James Sherman, multiple reading.

In competition with St. Agatha were Immaculata, St. Gabriel and St. Cyril.

Ruth Brown, Susan Behrend and Donna Baker placed first in their categories; Paula Dow, Ed Gillis, Tom Flamboe, Nancy Berger, Jessie Garden and the multiple "Abie's Irish Rose," were second place winners. They will compete in the regional eliminations at Wayne State University in April.

A number of seniors attended a lecture by John Howard Griffin, author of Black Like Me, at the University of Windsor in conjunction with the Christian Culture Series.

Griffin was awarded this year's medal for his outstanding work in the field of human relations.

Attending from St. Agatha were: Patricia Clinton, John Marshall, John Harvey, Kenneth Krupansky, Edward

Kamm, Daniel Gillis, Daniel Pavlat, Robert Gartner, Mary Cooney, Davidina Dow, Lynda Wilkerson, Donna Baker, Rev. James Varty, Rev. James O'Leary, Barbara Menard, Linda Ogle, James Schimmel and Joseph Wleziak.

The juniors, in order to finance the Junior-Senior Dinner Dance, sponsored fund-raising projects last week.

Thursday, they sold sloppy joes, chocolate milk and orange drink for lunch. On Friday morning after Mass, they offered glazed donuts and orange drink for breakfast.

Each project brings them closer to their goal—a spectacular dinner-dance at nearby Bonnybrook Country Club.

Friday was First Friday of the month—another opportunity for seniors to attend Mass in cap and gown. According to the sign in the senior homerooms, only 67 more days 'til graduation.

Students took their third quarter exams on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. Fourth quarter—the home stretch of the school year—begins after Easter holidays. Report cards for the past quarter will be distributed on Wednesday, April 6.

If one hears strange chirping noises emanating from the biology laboratory, there's no cause for alarm. The sophomores are in the midst of a biology experiment involving dozens of baby roosters.

Students are using the roosters to test the effects of testosterone, a male hormone, when applied by various methods. The class also hopes to measure the extent to which the serum will speed up the growth of the fowl. Students of the Month elections will take place on Friday. Results will be announced next week.

AT THURSTON:

King Neptune Rules Over Sponge Dance

By LYNN BARNETT

King Neptune and his court were presented at the "Deep Sea Splash" Sponge Dance Friday, March 25. Tom Addams was elected King Neptune by the senior class, crowned king and received a fork. Bob Crawford was chosen Prince of the junior class and Jan Russell was elected prince of the sophomore class.

Awards were given to the girls making the best corsages for their dates at the dance. Becky Vereson, senior, received first prize of $10 for her underwater flower garden.

Linda Pilon, junior, was presented second prize of $5 for her live gold fish in a miniature tank. The third prize of $3 was received by Gail Engle. Gail's corsage was a sponge octopus.

"Wild One," starring Marlin Brando, was shown to Thurston students last week. The movie was about a motorcycle gang that tried to terrorize a small town.

Theodore J. Wilner, from the J. Walter Thompson Company, gave a talk on advertising to Mrs. Barbara Matthews' Journalism classes on March 28. Wilner also showed slides on different techniques of advertising by using examples.

Thurston students have received a list of classes that they may choose from to make out schedules for next year. All will be talking to their counselors before the final decisions are made.

AT EAST:

Soap Senders Collecting For Vietnam

By PAT ST. ANTOINE

Operation S.O.S. (send over soap) is under way. Soap was collected April 4, 5, and 6, in the main office and room 213½. The Marine Corps Civil Action Program will distribute the soap to South Vietnamese people.

The school collecting the most soap will receive a free dance, sponsored by all the Keener Keyman, and featuring live talent, many recording artists, and a show at the school.

Garden City High School East scored 14 out of 17 students at the District Forensics Contest with Taylor Center, Riverview, Robichaud, Ypsilanti, at Ypsilanti High School.

First place winners were: Claudette Barney, Declamation; Mary England, Extemporaneous; and Paul Snider, Radio Commentary.

Third place winners were: Floyd Whitcher, Extemporaneous; Terry Moore, Humorous; Jim Abramski, Radio Commentary; Mary Alice Mehter, Declamation; Matt Black, Original Oration; and Al Shabon, Tom Rankin, Paul Lampinen, and Dave Jose, Multiple Reading.

Larry Michelson took fourth place in Extemporaneous, and Bridget Wing won fifth place in Humorous.

First and second place winners will go to the Regional Forensic Contest April 20.

Junior Class Prom will be Saturday April 30, from 8 to 12 p.m. Tickets will be sold starting April 18, and this includes sophomores.

A band will provide the music and dress will be semiformal. Just 25 days away till the prom, so boys ask your gal now!

The Teachers Speak

Why Don't The People Know?

By Lynn G. Gilmore, Executive Secretary Livonia Education Association

How has the Livonia Public School System fared the people?

Over the years, it is the new, the novel that makes reading pleasure. The public image of the Livonia schools has been based upon the many things that happen which are good. Instructional materials centers; reading services; special education; modern cafeteria service; television education—these are the things that people like to read about and which the schools publicize.

Perhaps our schools should devote more time to advertising what's wrong with our schools, rather than what's good. After many months of reading of the successes in schools, people fail to realize that the schools also have problems, and when those problems touch the individual's pocketbook, they become personal.

Yet, every citizen in the community has the right—indeed, the obligation—to attend the many open Board meetings that are held four times a month. At these regular meetings and study sessions, the Board of Education discusses the various financial problems of the district.

How many citizens really understand where the money goes in our public schools? In Livonia, it costs $331 per pupil per year to educate our boys and girls. Of this amount, 76 per cent ($404) goes for the instructional program alone.

This instructional program includes such items as teachers' salaries, textbooks, teaching supplies, library books, and audio-visual materials. A little over $15 of this amount is spent for administration. Few districts in Wayne County can boast of such a small percentage (2.3 per cent) of their budget for administrative costs.

In addition, 14 per cent ($74) of the annual per pupil cost is spent on plant operation and maintenance, while $16.67 of the per pupils cost goes for transportation. This amounts to about $1.67 per month per pupil. Fixed charges, such as insurance, cost $15.59.

These figures alone may mean little; but, when they are compared to other school districts, Livonia's figures show that it spends more of its budget on instruction than most other school districts. Livonia does not have a program with a great deal of luxuries in it—Livonia just cannot afford it.

The fine things that the citizens read about as happening in the schools are the result of school employees working to discover new techniques and better ways to providing a better educational program. To do things in a better way does not imply a greater cost of money, but to maintain a program for boys and girls which will provide the education that is needed today does cost money.

In short, Livonia's critical school problems are brought about as the result of a vastly increasing school population, while the present pupil tax base is rapidly shrinking. Our schools should spend more time informing the public of this critical situation. It may not be as good reading as the new techniques in education, but it certainly may help us keep a system which can try new approaches to old problems.

Thurston Grad Earns Honor

Dennis W. Mollard has become a winner of the William J. Branstrom prize (at the University of Michigan) for scholastic achievement. He is in the upper seven per cent of the freshman class, said Frank Block, principal of Thurston High where Dennis graduated last spring.

The award is a book bearing the University of Michigan seal in gold and having a special book plate.

Recipients, who number a total of 390 this year, can pick from several volumes in fields of literature, art, and physics.

Coffman a Radar Man

Airman Second Class Theodore E. Coffman II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore E. Coffman, 30580 Warren, Garden City, has been graduated at Keesler AFB, Miss., from the training course for U.S. Air Force radar repairmen.

CLARENCEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

Juniors Whip Faculty

By TONY HEAD

A special assembly was held on March 31 when the Junior class met the Faculty in the final game of the inter-class basketball series. The Juniors showed their superiority over the faculty and went on to win 65-57. After the game, awards for the various categories were given to the classes. The Junior class was the tournament champions, the freshmen were named the best cheering section; and the sophomores received the best sportsmanship award.

Individual trophies were given to Dave Wilson—longest shot; Chris Hawkins—best physique; John Thompson—most valuable player; Chuck Watkins—most points; and Marge Brogren—best cheerleader.

In another field of sports, we have the final outcome of the gymnastic regionals on March 26 at Clarenceville. In Division 2, Clarenceville finished first with 224 points. In Division 3, Clarenceville finished second with 86 points. The girls gymnastic team finished 4th in Division 2 and second in Division 3.

Tuesday, March 28 was a day of silence in Clarenceville High School. The F.H.A. club sponsored a "Ribbon Day". Clarenceville girls purchased F.H.A. ribbons for a nickel each. If a girl spoke to a boy while in possession of a ribbon the boy received the ribbon. The boy with the most ribbons won two free tickets to the Livonia Mall Cinema.

Clarenceville is involved in another contest. This time for soap. If Clarenceville can gather more bars of soap than schools of the surrounding area it will win a free dance with the WKNR disc jockeys. The soap will be sent to the needy people of Vietnam.

15 Girls Head Down Mexico Way

By Sue Dowell
Easter vacation will be a remembered one for some of Bentley's Spanish students. Tuesday, April 5, 15 girls left for Mexico City.

"The whole idea started as a club project," remarked Chris Densmore. She is one of the lucky girls who is now in the Spanish paradise. The students traveled to their destination by way of jet.

Pam Brockman, president of the Spanish Club, organized the trip. Besides the Spanish students, parents of a few of the girls went along.

During their stay the students plan to visit Mexico City, and University of Mexico. They are also looking forward to spending some time in Acapulco. Taxco will also be visited. The students plan to attend the Ballet Folhoreico.

Concert Choir also has plans for Spring Vacation. Some 46 members of the choir will be touring western Kentucky. The journey will begin April 11 and last until April 14. During this time they will perform concerts for many colleges and high schools.

These students will be busy, but will be able to spend a night out on-the-town in Ohio. The tour planned for Mammoth Cave and Lexington should prove to be exciting and educational.

Exactly 103 Juniors and Seniors make up the Concert Choir. Congratulations to the 46 chosen to go on tour! They were selected on the three following categories: activities, musical progress, and contribution to choir.

Every year Bentley and the other schools in the Suburban Six have a conference. It is a gathering of Allen Park, Belleville, Bentley, Plymouth, Redford Union, and Trenton high schools to discuss school affairs.

It is also important for another reason. Each school is represented by a speaker. The speaker talks to the students at the conference. After that the audience votes on the top speaker.

The winner will represent the Suburban Six at the United States Conference for Student Council in Washington State this summer. This year Phil Davis from Belleville will represent the Suburban Six. The alternate is Bill Roberts from Bentley.

The Junior Play, "Lute Song" really went well. All the hard work and memorizing of lines paid off. No one will ever forget the beautiful costumes. It took a lot of sewing and the sponsorship and supervision of Mr. John Glanz.

The make-up committee also did a job by helping the characters to look truly authentic. The biggest "thanks" from the Junior Class is extended to Robert Lucchetti, director, who devoted his time and great efforts to make the Junior Play worth its while.

Bentley's drama class went to the Fisher theatre to see "Funny Girl." The overall impression was the play was simply great.

Seniors Plan Hootenanny

By KAREN SLEBODNIK
Congratulations to the FHA girls who have been awarded the privilege of going to the State Convention in Grand Rapids. Attending will be Carolyn Pietrzyk and Cindy Stewart. Cindy Kottan will also be as she has applied for a scholarship. The club sponsor, Mrs. Copeland will accompany the girls.

Through a typographical error I stated in last week's article that the Senior Prom will be held on June 16. This was not the correct date. The Senior Prom will be held on June 6, in Lovett Hall.

On Thursday (April 7) the Senior Class will sponsor a Hootenanny in the auditorium from 2:00 to 2:45. Students purchasing tickets will be allowed to leave their classes to attend.

Thanks to Mrs. Dionne Turshnik and all teachers involved for all the hard work they put forth to have West accredited with the North Central Accreditation Association. The accreditation survey showed that our school is equipped for the highest standard of learning.

Easter vacation will begin on the end of the school day tomorrow (Thursday). There will be no school on Good Friday or the following week. School will resume on April 10.

The Junior Prom will be held on April 30 in the West gymnasium. Progress on decorations so far has been favorable. Anyone wishing to help may talk to any of their class officers.

The Foreign Language Club will sponsor a Bake Sale today (Wednesday) during the lunch hours.

The Senior Class is sponsoring a Paper Drive April 11-18. It will be during Easter vacation and all Seniors are asked to come and work. Persons wanting papers picked up may call GA 2-6410. Your name and address will be taken down and your papers will be picked up. West Side Story will be sold during school next week. The paper will be 8 pages.

Heritage, West Senior High's first yearbook, is now in the hands of the printers. The expected delivery date is May 16. Any student wishing to purchase a yearbook may do so until April 15. After that no books will be sold until they are delivered.

Woodcreek Farms Organize New Civic Groups

"The residents of Woodcreek Farms in Livonia have organized a civic association and held their first general meeting at Lincoln School on March 22. The Board of Directors are: William G. Quigley, president; Dale Mar-kin, vice president; Karl R. Guenther, treasurer; Beverly Chiasson, secretary.

Gerald W. Neale, chairman; John Blodgett, trustee; Edward S. Cisco, trustee; Arthur Core, trustee; Nason Cottingham, trustee.

Talkers Take 9 Out of 13 In Contest

by Linda Oehler
In the district division of the Michigan Forensics contest March 26, Mercians won 9 of the 13 awards.

"The Caucasian Chalk Circle" took first place in the multiple reading category, performed by seniors Mary Margaret Morin and Sue Wojciechowski, and juniors Helen Rahaley, Roberta Lindbert, Marilyn Steen, Cynthia Misa, and Lynette Dagutis. Senior Barbara Rozak and junior Diane Filipovitch won first and second places respectively, in extemporaneous speaking.

Junior Kathleen Kelly won first place in interpretive reading, while senior Ruth Butler took second place in the same category.

For her radio commentary, junior Mary Margaret Wheeler took second place, and in the humorous reading category, Kay Marie Kavanaugh also won second place.

First and second place winners in the district division will compete in the regionals against finalists from other districts.

At the University of Detroit, delegates to a Model United Nations met March 25-27. Fifteen Mercians attended, representing Greece, Gaban, and Mali.

Achieving the highest award given to a female delegate, Michele Jurack, president of Mercy's Model United Nations, was head of the Gaban delegation. Also representing Gaban were seniors Lydia Jaworski and Stephanie Smith, and juniors Marianna Gladney and Catherine Yee.

Vice-president of the MUN Ruth Zaleski headed Greece's delegation. Senior Sharon Hecklin and juniors Kathleen McMullen, Marie Duffy, and Kathleen Kavanaugh were also delegates from Greece.

Representing Mali were Mary Margaret Morin, chairman, and seniors Linda Smith and Judy Roosma, and juniors Maria Frances Ward and Laurie Konczewicz.

Press representatives Mary Gerhard and Carol Wilkie aided in the publication of three MUN newsletters. Carol Wilkie and Susan Ricke aided the MUN staff as pages, relaying messages between delegates on the assembly floor.

Glenn Malinowski and Eileen Wagner, Social Studies instructors, were sponsors from Mercy.

Al Cunningham and Richard Dixon, last year's Wayne State University swimming team captains, both return for the 1965-66 season.

Cheerleading Squad Chosen for Next Season

By Margaret Rudloff
After hours of practice, 16 girls were chosen for next year's Plymouth High cheerleaders squad. Varsity cheerleaders will be: Peggy Clyde, Judi Utter, Nancy Shutes, Eva Walasky, Carol Engstrom and Sue Camp.

Junior Varsity will be Judy Allen, Liana Wingerson, Patty Parmenter, Kathy Butler, Leslie Decker and Candy Nay. Janan Conn, Linda Arnold, Janet Sheedy and Diana Carey will be the Swimming-Cross country cheerleaders.

The candidates were judged by the five senior cheerleaders: JoAnn Skeba, Donna Cook, Ruthie Fetter, Sherry Tietz and Pam McAllister. Two faculty members, Janet Pierce, cheerleading advisor, John Hopkins, French teacher, Joel Carr, American History and Geography teacher, William Ralsch, American History and Sociology teacher, Mayor Mary Theeke, Pep Club President Laurabell Houghland and Coach John McFall.

Contestants were judged on, among other things, co-ordination, appearance, agility poise, and personality.

"Delightful," "enjoyable," "exhilarating," were just a few of the adjectives used to describe Plymouth High's annual talent assembly, on March 31.

Under the direction of a committee consisting of Mrs. Evelyn Shier, library; Fred Nelson, Music; and William Ralsch, American History and sociology, the assembly was a huge success.

The first presentation, introduced by emcee Tom Adams, featured Mary Ann Sincok in a piano solo. Cornelia Delaney performed a flute solo.

Following were the Madrigals consisting of Karen Upton, Judy Bennett, Sue Lindquist, Mary Vallier, Ann Mills, Allison Burden, Ed McKelvey, Jim Nelson, Jeff Gustafson, Dick Wolfram, Mark Henry, and Jack Dean. They were followed by a poetry reading from Dylan Thomas by Mary Arnold.

The Triple Trios made up of Mary Arnold, Sue Baskins, Ruthie Fetter, Joanna Firestone, Sue Hulce, Linda Kissner, Babe McClung, Melinda Stevens, and Ann Van Ornum with Mary Ann Sincok as accompanist, performed Try to Remember. Karen Upton sang an Italian folk song.

Cheryl Spence played her piano arrangement of Have Thine Own Way. Jack Dean played guitar and sang, Dennis McVittie did a tap dance routine.

Oliver Cool and the Go Go Girls, actually Steve Dayton, Diane Young, Pat Janicki, Phyllis Ackman, and Debbie Coolie, presented a humorous pantomime sketch. William Ralsch, Chris Campbell, and post graduate Daryl Stevens played as a piano, drum and organ combo. Two rock 'n' roll bands, the Illusions and the Metros followed. All three bands took part in a finale.

To all those worry-warts, let your fears be arrested, the copy for the magazine, Pegasus has gone to the printers and the finished copy will be available to all those who ordered in mid-May.

Grades from the Supplemental Language Test are now available at the guidance office.

Several Student Council members attended a conference at Redford Union High School on March 29. The theme was Promotion of Closer Ties Among Suburban Six Schools.

Those who attended were: Sue Beyer, Regan Fluckey, Judi Utter and Linda Arnold. Old attending were Steve Hulce, Jane Emerson, Tom Bender, and Darryl Dusbiber, who was the Plymouth candidate to the National Student Council Convention. Mary Theeke and exchange student Marianne Tomisek. The day started with registration and then a general assembly with speeches by candidates for the National Student Council Convention.

Organized by Mrs. Anna Mc-

Kimmy, club adviser, the Future Teachers Club attended a field day sponsored by the Student Education Association at the University of Michigan on March 21.

Schoolcraft Takes Giant Step In Move Towards Accreditation

Schoolcraft College, which is nearing the close of its second full year of operation, took a giant step towards accreditation when the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools admitted the college to candidacy for membership.

The approval came last week following a hearing in Chicago when Schoolcraft President Dr. Eric Bradner and Vice President John Brinn presented the case before the Commission on Colleges and Universities. Pleased with the Commission action, Dr. Bradner said Schoolcraft now needs only a self-study appraisal and additional campus visits by NCA groups to become eligible for accreditation in the spring of 1968. "We feel proud that Schoolcraft could make such tremendous strides to wards accreditation in the short period of three years," he said. "That is the minimum time allowed by the NCA and the Commission approval attests to the progress of the college."

The college is required to make a self-study of future and present analysis for presentation to the NCA Board by June 1, 1967 at which time final action will be taken on Schoolcraft's request for accreditation.

With the self-study a must, Dr. Bradner and Vice President Brinn already have set up committees to work on the various facets of the report.

The group will be headed by Brinn, Consultants Miss Lois Waterman, retired dean, and Dr. Robert W. Ray from Iowa State University, who represents the NCA.

The co-ordinating committee includes: Messrs. Stenger, Kleckner, Gaitskill, Ryan, Lockwood and Castilla and Mrs. Ochs with an editing Board of Mr. Perkins, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Mapes, all members of the faculty.

There will be six sub-committees working on the project in the fields of Library, Faculty, Finance, Physical Faculty, Curriculum and Institutional and Student Personnel Service.

Dr. Bradner and Brinn had answers for all questions tossed at them by the NCA commission at the hearing.

They told how the salary scale to the professional staff had been improved; agreed that the availability of a secretarial pool was limited but steps have been taken to improve; agreed that more clerical and secretarial help should be provided for the business office; told how the food service would be improved in the fall by the opening of facilities under the supervision of the college; and agreed that facilities should be provided in physical education.

In the final analysis, the report of the NCA group that visited the campus and set the stage for the Chicago hearing, said:

Although the College has been in operation only a short period of time, it displays characteristics of realistic planning and orderly growth. Fundamentally, this institution is based on a sound educational philosophy oriented to the unique functions of a community college.

In light of this, the College Board of Administrative Offices have attempted to build facilities and identify faculty members that would facilitate the implementation of programs which are peculiar to this type of institution.

The examiners were of the opinion that the College has already acquired the needed momentum to develop excellent programs in many curricular areas.

If funds are provided for facilities in physical education, there is reason to believe that, in a short period of time (because of its present orientation and leadership), this College should become the kind of institution which can serve its area very adequately.

In the final analysis, it must be stated that the strong aspects of this College are found in the crucial areas of any given educational enterprise. It has a board of control made up of knowledge individuals.

Its administrative staff is well qualified to give it proper guidance and direction. Financially, the College is in an excellent position; and its effort in obtaining faculty has been effective.

Building Trades Executive Raps Labor Shortage

"Contrary to what many people believe, there is not an acute labor shortage in this area." This somewhat startling statement was made by Jack Wood, executive secretary of the Detroit Building and Construction Trades Council.

Wood was the guest speaker of the United Northwestern Realty Association — Western Wayne-Oakland County Board of Realtors, at their weekly luncheon meeting.

Wood explained that during the recession period following 1956, much of the skilled labor was forced to move to other parts of the country to get employment. Also the automotive industry, offering higher wages and the promise of steady work, drew some of the labor away from the field.

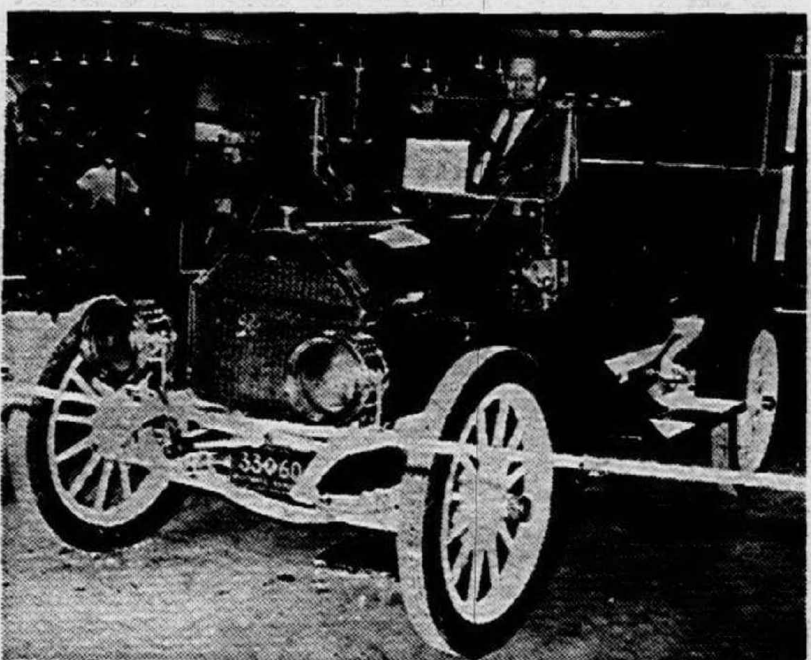

Despite this loss of skilled labor to other areas, there is enough manpower to fill the need. The problem lies with some subcontractors and builders wanting the labor at their price and conditions," Wood told the Realtors.

"In times of high unemployment and low prosperity they could do this, but today's prosperity has created great competition for the skilled labor, to the point that many firms pay above the wage scale for their men."

"Thus, those that are unwilling to let their men work a full 40-hour week, pay the present wage scale, allow overtime . . . even though the work is there to be done, are blaming the labor shortage for the building slowdown."

Stempien Bill Would House Governor

State Representative Marvin R. Stempien (D., Livonia) has introduced a bill in the House which could cause the dreams and planning of many years to materialize in the form of a modern residence for Michigan Governors, with all citizens of Michigan participating in the project.

"Fulfillment of this long-recognized need would implement Michigan's new state constitution which stipulates that 'an executive residence, suitably furnished, shall be provided at the seat of government for the use of the Governor,'" Stempien said.

"After nearly 130 years of Michigan statehood, it was not until last year that a governor received even an allowance for living expenses. The sum of $5,000 was then included in the budget for this purpose and this same sum is in the current budget."

"My bill No. 3972 would establish a State Executive Residence Planning Commission which would review all former building proposals, the various sites which have been suggested, formulate new plans and authorize the Department of Administration to build an executive residence."

Inmates Worry About Safety

LANSING—Even the men behind bars are worried about Michigan's traffic safety problems.

There isn't a day goes by that Secretary of State James M. Hare doesn't get letters from persons proposing solutions to Michigan's accident problems. And he gets some unusual ones.

Recently, he received a tip from an inmate in Jackson prison who had some strong ideas about solving the accident problem. This letter becomes even more unusual when it was revealed that the writer is a long-term, serving up to 15 years for armed robbery and is not likely to be driving much in the near future.

The suggestion is a simple but drastic one, Hare said. The prisoner would have Michigan adopt a law that in cases of serious traffic violations the police would have the power to immediately impound the violator's car.

Prep Trackmen Swing From Indoors To Outdoors

The indoor phase of track operations has ended for the area's high school teams.

Now it's into an intensified seven-week period of outdoor competition in which the thinclads will vie in dual, triangular, invitational, relay carnivals, league, regional and state meets.

For most teams this will mean at least twice-a-week action. Sometimes even more.

"It's rush, rush, rush," said one coach. "But, what choice do we have in the matter?"

"Time is very short during the spring."

The trackmen, unlike the basketball, swim and wrestling teams, don't climax their campaigns with the state championships.

In fact, most of the area teams won't decide their league titles until well after the state finals, which are listed for May 21.

"As long as the State Association insists on holding regionals the second week in May and the finals the following Saturday, it would be silly to end the season then," another prominent coach declared.

"It would force us to stage our league meets in early May and we'd be throwing away, perhaps, the two best weeks of the spring for action."

Four area schools — Farmington, North Farmington, Bentley and Franklin — came off a small piece of the honors each last Saturday in the Michigan State Indoor Class A carnival at East Lansing.

Farmington's Ron

Shortt for the second straight week showed he is one of the state's best pole vaulters by placing second to account for his team's four points.

Star miler Dan Ryan of Franklin stepped to a third-place finish, while North Farmington's sprint medley relay team took a fifth for a single point.

Although failing to place among the top five or score a point, Bentley's Frank Miller turned in a notable school achievement in the shot put.

He unloaded a toss of 50' 4 1/2 inches to crack the school varsity record of 50 feet, two inches set by Dave Jacobson in 1963.

Bentley Miller Fred Edwards ran sixth in the good time of 4:43.3.

The Class A title went to Flint Southwestern High with 39 points. Lansing Sexton was second with 18 points. The Class B crown went to Suburban Ecorse.

Roseville Duo Falls Short In Bid for Bowling Lead

After the record making scoring spree of a week ago that shook the standings of the fourth annual Observer Newspapers-Merri-Bowl Lanes mixed doubles tournament so much that the previous leaders were dropped to fourth place, the bowling over the past weekend settled down to normal again.

There were three changes in the top 15 in the standings although the leading duo of Irene Eichman, Oak Park, and Arnold Johnson, of Garden City, must have had a few anxious moments when their 1309 score was threatened several times.

However, they managed to hold off the rush and had the No. 1 spot for at least another week as the tournament turned into the second full month.

The meet continues through the final week in May before the winners of the guaranteed first three prizes of $2,500, $1,250 and $750 are certified after a careful recheck of all scores.

Tournament Director Mac Goldman emphasizes that there are still many choice dates and times available during the remaining weeks — but stressed that those planning on entering should do so at once.

"We are now in the period when entries are coming in from all sections of the state," he said. "We expect this trend to continue throughout the remaining weeks of the tournament. Bowlers are looking for something to do now since many of the leagues are nearing the end of the season."

"We stress that those desiring to enter should make it known now since the choice dates and times are going rapidly. The fact that the three top prizes are guaranteed and have been boosted to the highest awards ever for the tourney has drawn bowlers from cities in northwestern Ohio and northeastern Indiana as well as throughout Michigan.

"We believe our mixed doubles tournament is well over the hump this year and we anticipate an entry list of well over 1,500 before the final ball is rolled on Sunday, May 29."

Meanwhile, a Roseville duo of Dorothy DeCarlo and Robert Bradley made a strong bid for the top spot but faltered in the final game to finally wind up in fifth place with 1281.

Miss DeCarlo, who has a 150 average, fired games of 167, 147 and 173 for an actual 487. Her partner, who packs a 176 average, opened with a big 246 on eight strikes and three spares. He came back with 198 and the team had 738 actual pins going into the third and final game.

Miss DeCarlo wound up with her 173 and Bradley kept pace with 197 but it wasn't enough to overtake the leaders.

Miss DeCarlo had 487 and Bradley 641 to go along with their 153 pin handicap for the total of 1281.

The Flint team of Corine Peaks and Aaron Wilson appeared to have a chance but had to settle for 1278 and sixth place. Miss Peaks, with a 140 average, had games of 167, 193 and 160 for 520.

Wilson, who had a 160 average, opened with 160, hit 204 in the second and then fired 174 in the third for 548. They picked up 210 pins handicap to go with their actual count of 1068 for the 1278 score.

The only other team to make the leaders was Edna and Art Arditta, 24053 Coventry Drive, Livonia, who took over 11th with 1263. Mrs. Arditta, with a 108 average, had games of 106, 130 and 144 for 380. Her husband, who boasts of an 176 average, had a big 640 count on games of 238, 202 and 200. They added 243 pins handicap to their actual total of 1020 for the aggregate 1263.

OBSERVING SPORTS

By George Maskin

Baseball . . . the hockey and basketball playoffs . . . the Masters golf tournament!

What a crushing way to mark the Easter weekend. It's all bound to keep—at least they hope—a lot of gents glued to their television sets on Sunday while mama and kids want to parade the streets showing their new attire.

But how does one tear himself away from the TV —

1 — When there's Arnold Palmer or Doug Sanders or maybe the ageless Sammy Snead going for a birdie on the last hole at Augusta?

2 — When you can see Bobby Hull squaring off in direct combat with Gordie Howe?

3 — Or when there's a chance to see the greatest of 'em all — Wilt Chamberlain and Bill Russell — locking arms?

And, when in the background on the radio, there are the voices of Ernie Harwell and Gene Osborn getting in a few words about the Tigers in their final tuneup for the regular season which begins next Tuesday in New York?

TIME WAS WHEN there was on such crush in sports. The seasons were shorter for all activities.

Basketball and hockey would get through by the time baseball started. Football would begin much later, so as not to conflict to any major degree with baseball. Nowadays, nobody seems to care.

Not the owners of the teams . . . not the league executives . . . CERTAINLY NOT THE FANS!

The Red Wings aren't worried because they may be playing in the Stanley Cup series at Olympia until the first week in May.

Needless to say they'd love it. So would their rooters. The Wings have such a demand for tickets that, despite the fact they have increased the size of Olympia, the club has made arrangements for closed-circuit TV at the State Fair Grounds Coliseum for all home games.

The Lions have encountered no problems playing football in Detroit in August. A year ago, an exhibition lured upwards of 48,000.

It may be April, but the pro basketball playoffs are attracting crowds in record numbers. In Boston the other day, they sold over 12,000 tickets in a few hours for the deciding game between the Celtics and the Cincinnati Royals.

Special Registration For Livonia Boys

A special registration will be held on Saturday, April 9, at the Parks and Recreation office on Farmington Rd. for boys who wish to participate in the Livonia Junior Football Leagues' baseball program.

Registration for boys wishing to try out for the Dept. of Parks and Recreation F Major program will also be taken from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Ace on Mound Cheers Raiders

They say in high school baseball, a team is "set" as long as it boasts one standout pitcher.

If this is true, North Farmington should go places this spring.

Back on the Raider's roster is a right-handed hurler by the name of Charles (Chuck) Viane.

A year ago, North Farmington managed only seven victories. Chuck won 'em all.

He was the same young man who was the star of Farmington's strong American Legion team which just missed out on championship honors.

Chuck more than pitches. He's a pretty strong hitter, too.

A year ago, as a prep, he belted the ball at a .300 clip.

However, with two league games scheduled each week, Coach Tom Wallis of North Farmington knows he'll need more than one hurler. Viane won't be able to do it alone.

West Sets 70 Events This Spring

Over 70 events make up the sports schedule for spring athletic teams at Garden City West high school.

West will field varsity team in baseball, track, golf and tennis along with a reserve team in baseball.

The outdoor track season was to begin on Tuesday against Garden City East. The thinclads will be back in action Thursday at John Glenn and next Tuesday at Franklin.

The tennis team opens on Wednesday against Franklin, while the baseball varsity starts next Tuesday hosting John Glenn. The golfers start last, facing Riverside on April 18.

The varsity schedules for Garden City West teams:

APRIL: 12-Glenn, 14-At Garden City East, 18-Garden City East, 20-At Kennedy, 22-Southgate, 27-At Lowrey, 29-At Crestwood.

MAY: 4-Riverside, 6-At Schaffer, 11-Cherry Hill, 13-Kennedy, 16-At Southgate, 18-Lowrey, 20-Crestwood, 23-At Riverside, 25-Schaffer, 27-Cherry Hill.

TRACK

APRIL: 7-Glenn, 12-At Franklin, 21-At Schaffer, 24-At Crestwood, 28-Lowrey.

MAY: 3-Southgate, 5-Riverside, 7-Schaffer Invitational, 10-Bellefonte, 13-Regionals, 17-At Kennedy, 14-Regionals at Bentley, 17-At Cherry Hill, 21-state meet, 24-25-League meet at Schaffer.

TENNIS

APRIL: 6-Franklin, 19-Glenn, 22-Southgate, 27-At Lowrey, 29-At Crestwood.

MAY: 4-Riverside, 6-At Schaffer, 11-Cherry Hill, 13-Kennedy, 16-Southgate, 18-Lowrey, 20-21-Regionals, 23-At Riverside, 25-Schaffer, 27-Cherry Hill, 31-Garden City East.

GOLF

APRIL: 12-Riverside, 20-At Southgate, 21-At Franklin, 25-Cherry Hill, 27-At Crestwood, 28-Franklin.

MAY: 2-Kennedy, 4-Lowrey, 6-Glenn, 9-Schaffer, 11-At Riverside, 13-Regionals, 16-Southgate, 18-At Cherry Hill, 20-At Taylor, 23-Crestwood, 25-At Kennedy, 27-At Lowrey.

JUNE: 1-Schaffer, 3-Garden City East.

Wallis figures he has two excellent prospects to work with Viane on the hill. Don Litchman is up from the junior varsity, while Ray Roberts is returning to the varsity as a senior after sitting out his junior year. He hurried for the school when a sophomore.

At other positions, North Farmington isn't in bad shape—experience speaking.

Bill Bowles, a heavy sticker who finished the '65 schedule with a .340 mark, should be the regular first baseman.

Bill Oldershaw is due to patrol centerfield with Rick Norton at short stop and Kim DeCourcy either catching or playing the outfield.

Hub Copp and Bruce Ranck also are letter winners who are returning. They'll fit in someplace in the North Farmington plans, says Wallis.

The Raiders are slated to begin their season on April 25 against Redford Union. Then will follow games with Walled Lake and Farmington before North Farmington opens the Northwest League season against Oak Park on April 25.

East Slate To Include Anders Meet

Participation in the Les Anders Memorial Invitational baseball tournament at Livonia highlights the Garden City East high schedule which is slated to be in tomorrow at Franklin.

Coach George Kulazenska's nine also will have two cracks early at rival Garden City West. The Garden City foes meet on April 14 at West and four days later at East.

The full slate:

APRIL: 7-At Franklin, 14-Garden City West, 18-At West, 21-Redford Union, 27-Inkster.

MAY: 4-At Lutheran West, 9-At Taylor Center, 11-Riverview, 14-At Ypsilanti (doubleheader), 16-At Inkster, 18-At Robichaud, 20-22-Anders Memorial tourney, 23-At Lutheran West, 25-Taylor Center.

JUNE: 1-At Riverview.

Michigan State linebacker Bob Brawley practiced the full length of MSU's first Rose Bowl game drill, and then completed a busy day by skating a regular turn on defense in State's hockey game with Denver.

U-M Concentrates Grid Workouts on Two Key Spots

ANN ARBOR—Michigan moved through its second week of spring football practice, concentrating upon the quarterback and tackle spots in particular, and an evaluation of new personnel in general.

Although it's too early for a specific progress report, Coach Bump Elliott feels general squad development is well ahead of what it was at a comparable time last year. Weather conditions that allowed five full days of work climaxed by a rugged scrimmage have helped the Wolverines immeasurably.

Last year during the entire spring session only three practices were held outside Yost Field House before the annual spring intrasquad game.

"We're at least finding out what some of the new players look like in action, and that's a real starting point," said Elliott. "A year ago at this time we'd had no chance to pass, or have any real normal progress work at all. We hope the Weather Man will continue to be nice."

Dick Vidmer, only regular letterman quarterback returning, leads the signal callers at this point. Rick Volk, top defensive back for the past two seasons, also is being worked at this spot but because of a knee operation he cannot engage in contact work.

Among newcomers, Elliott and his staff are looking over are Bob Kieta, a 6-0, 170-pound Chicagoan; John Thomas, 6-1, 190, a passer from Walled Lake who missed last season because of illness; Dennis Brown, 5-10, 170, from Lincoln Park; Dennis Beemer, 5-10, 160, Ann Arbor, and Jerry Hartman, 6-1, 175, also an Ann Arborite.

Only three lettermen tackles are available, including Bill Hardy, Detroit; Paul Johnson, Bay City and Ray Phillips, Evanston, Ill. Reserves who have been seeing action include Jim Hribal 6-0, 225, Dearborn; Ray O'Donnell, 6-0, 210, Milan, Henry Cartwright, 6-3, 235, Detroit; Stan Broadnax, 6-0, 217, Cincinnati, O.; Pete Mair, 6-3, 225 Allentown, Pa., and Dave Byers, 6-3, 235, Warren.

Newcomers who have seen action include Bob Penska, 6-2, 225, Niles, O.; Dave Denzen, another 225-pounder from Xenia, O.; Dick Warren, 6-2, 210, Bay City; Jim Banar, 6-0, 225, Detroit and Gerald Miklas, 6-3, 210 Chicago.

Tigers Pick Sites For 6 Tryout Camps

Six sites have been selected for the Tigers' annual baseball tryout camps and clinics, it was announced by Edward G. Katalinas, chief scout.

Louis D'Annunzio, Detroit zone supervisor of the Tiger scouting staff, will be in charge of the camps in Detroit, Windsor, Bay City, Royal Oak, Sault Ste. Marie, and Toledo. His assistants will include Paul C. Andary, Reno Bertola, Gary Christman, Ray Coles, Herman Kander, Gene Konik, Fred Marinucci, Art Niedzielski, Mike Rafferty, Ted Simmons, John Skurski, Alan Turner, Jack Webber and Jeff Weed.

In Detroit, sessions will be held every Saturday morning between April 4 and Sept. 3 at Butzel Field, Meyers Road and Lyndon. John Skurski and Jack Webber will be in charge of the 9:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. operations.

Dates and directors for the other locations:

Windsor—June 13-14-15 at Stoddell Park, Kildare and Seneca; Reno Bertola director.

Bay City—June 16-17-18 at St. Hyacinth's Field, Veterans Memorial Park; Reno Bertola director.

Royal Oak—June 20-21-22 at Royal Oak Memorial Field, 13 Mile and Woodward; Jack Webber director.

Sault Ste. Marie—July 21-22-23 at Veterans Memorial Field; Paul C. Andary director.

Toledo—July 28-29-30 at Scott's Park, Nebraska and Parkside; Herman Kander director.

Sessions outside Detroit will run from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., except at Sault Ste. Marie, where the hours will be 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

The tryouts are open to all interested players, who are required to furnish only their uniforms, gloves and other personal equipment. Bats and balls will be supplied by the Tigers.

SUZANNE QUARLES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Quarles, 34990 Wadsworth Drive, has completed training and has been accepted as a stewardess for Northwest Orient Airlines. She was presented her wings and assigned to the home base in Minneapolis-St. Paul. Miss Quarles was graduated from Bentley High and was employed by Consumers Power prior to joining Northwest.

Junior Baseball Registration Starts April 16

Details of registration and tryouts for the 1966 Plymouth Community Baseball League were announced Monday.

Eligibility is limited to all boys who will be eight prior to August 1, 1966 or not have reached 13 before September 1, 1966.

In addition all boys (regardless of past participation) must be present at registration with a parent or guardian and a $3 registration fee. Boys who have not previously registered or played in the Major leagues must also bring a birth certificate and tee shirt.

Registration will be held in the Elk's Club on Ann Arbor Road from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on April 16 and 23. Players will be advised of time and place of tryouts when they sign up. A new rule was adopted limiting eight and nine year olds to Minor League competition.

The League is comprised of 12 Major and 12 Minor League teams. Last year approximately 400 boys participated in the program which is supervised by adult members of the community on a voluntary non-paying basis.

U-M Won't Soon Forget Its Cazzie

ANN ARBOR—Although Cazzie Russell, All-American and Player-of-the-Year and certainly Michigan's all-time basketball great, has ended his college career, he's left behind him a string of records for future Wolverines to shoot at.

As he ended his career against Kentucky in the NCAA regional at Iowa City, he scored his 800th point of the season to run his three-year career to 2,164 points in 80 games for an average of 27 points.

In three years he's set the Michigan single season scoring mark each year. As a sophomore he scored 670 points, and broke that mark last year with 694.

Russell also averaged 13 field goals per game in Big Ten competition to lead the league with a 33.2 point average. His 13 goals were a record as it surpassed the 12.4 mark set by Gary Bradds of Ohio State in 1964.

He set a Michigan single-game scoring mark as he counted 48 points against Northwestern, and against San Francisco early in the season he set a Chicago Stadium mark of 45 points.

He also became the sixth player in history to score more than 1,000 points in Big Ten games as he passed this mark against Iowa in Yost Field House, February 19. And for historic Yost Field House, Russell broke the all-time individual scoring mark set by John Tidwell (43) in 1961 as he counted his 48 against Northwestern.

During his three years at Michigan the Wolverines won 65 games and lost 17, and through that time with both Russell and Captain Oliver Darden playing, they won 31 games and lost just two in Yost Field House.

NHL Cup Playoffs To Start

The National Hockey League's Stanley Cup playoffs swing into action starting Wednesday night with the league-champion Montreal Canadiens hosting the Toronto Maple Leafs.

The Detroit Red Wings, which slipped from a first-place finish a year ago to end up fourth this season, will open their bid for Cup honors Thursday evening at Chicago against the Black Hawks.

As in the past, the best-of-seven will determine the two winners who'll advance into the Cup finals, another best-of-seven competition.

The Wings have announced that all their road playoff games will be televised LIVE on Channel 50. In addition, next Sunday afternoon, when the Wings play at Chicago at 2:30, the game will be carried nationally by NBC-TV.

Most of the Montreal-Toronto games also will be seen on TV in the Detroit area on Channel 9. The second game in this series is slated for Saturday night.

The Wings will offer closed-circuit TV of their home playoff games at the State Fair Grounds Coliseum to accommodate fans who can't purchase tickets for the contests a Olympia.

The Wings will make their first playoff appearance at Olympia next Tuesday and Thursday.

After the first three games of the 1965-66 basketball seasons, Wayne State University boasted three double figure scorers—Paul Widdoes (19.0), Marty Letzmann (16.3) and Tom Carlson (15.0).

State Champs Offer Help For Redford Union 9

The Redford Union high baseball picture this spring presents a paradoxical situation.

Many of the players will be "new," yet "old."

How does that happen? Everybody on whom coach Bob Atkins is counting to bring Redford Union a third straight Suburban Six League championship performed for Atkins last summer on North Redford's state Connie Mack champs.

Yet, some of them didn't play for Redford Union's varsity last spring—at least not on a regular basis.

Atkins, like coach John Hartwig of Franklin, utilizes the summer baseball program to accomplish two goals:

The net result has been a series of successful baseball seasons for the north Township school.

SENIOR Jim Scharmen, of Plymouth, displays the hurling form that he hopes will win some points for the Rocks during the gruelling Suburban Six League schedule.

Four All-League choices of '65 have left Redford Union.

They are catcher Harry Kendrick, now at Michigan State; Rick Barryman, a pitcher who's at Eastern Michigan; Rick Fisher, another hurler, who's attending Port Huron Community College, and shortstop Jim Birberick, who is attending Western Michigan University.

The returnees include Capt. Randy Maltby and Len Buckingham who are lodged in a personal fight to see which one will play second and which will go at shortstop.

"We'll have to wait before we reach a final decision," says Atkins, "but these kids will form the middle of our infield."

George Little, a returnee, is slated to work at third base while veteran Jim Johnston operates in centerfield.

Leland Bjerke, who pitched behind Barryman and Fisher a year ago, is destined to become the No. 1 hillman on the RU staff this season along with Dave Bourassa, a senior, who enjoyed a very successful summer on the Connie Mack kingpins.

Others who figure in the RU rebuilding program are Kevin Fox, Tom Booker and Chuck Rothwell, all pitchers; Fred London, a catcher, and Dave Becker, Mark Ross, Henry DeLong and Tim Brown, all outfielders.

Redford Union begins a 19-game schedule on April 12 playing at Franklin.

It was against Franklin that RU closed last season when the teams met in the finals of the Livonia all-prep tournament. Franklin won the game and the crown.

Athletes Dine At Annual Fete

On the 25th anniversary of the forming of the Redford Union Varsity Club, 225 Panther athletes, their dads, and RU coaches and school personnel participated in the Annual Varsity Club Banquet on Thursday evening.

As usual, the meal (which was financed by such Varsity Club activities as popcorn sales, dances, the Powder Puff football game and the Senior-Faculty basketball game) was prepared by members of the RU cafeteria staff and served by the cheerleaders.

Speaker for the evening was Dr. Waldo Sauder, head baseball coach at Central Michigan University. His subject, "Not Between the Book Covers," emphasized the many values of athletic competition for high school boys.

Master of ceremonies for the gala affair was RU Athletic Director Howard Kraft.

Kansas City, Tigers Head Capuchin Dinner

Headliners of the Kansas City Athletics have accepted invitations to join the Tigers at the 25th annual Capuchin Charity Guild Baseball Dinner at Cobo Hall April 28.

Manager Alvin Dark, in his first year at the helm in Kansas City after a distinguished career in the National League, will bring Bert Campaneris, the American League's leading base stealer in 1965, and Ken Harrelson, colorful first baseman of the Athletics, to the dinner.

The Tigers will be playing the Athletics at Tiger Stadium during the afternoon preceding the dinner, at which Don Wert and Willie Horton, of the Tigers, also will be honored.

Observing Sports

lapping of sports." Mr. and Mrs. Fan actually dictate what the promoters will do.

We have heard it repeated for years that the setups in pro hockey and basketball were ridiculous.

In hockey teams play 70 games over five months to eliminate two teams. Basketball goes 80 games and cuts three teams. Next year in the NBA there'll be an 81-game schedule to slice one team in each division.

Granted this wouldn't appear to make sense. But, look what happens when the playoffs begin? As we already have noted you can't buy a ticket to see the Wings.

It's no different in Toronto, in Montreal or Chicago. It's the same way in pro basketball. The fans are coughing up a million, perhaps more, dollars to watch these attractions.

On top of it, there is lucrative cash coming in from television.

So sports does what its public wants. It's as simple as all that.

BY THE TIME this column next appears, the Tigers will have moved away from the starting gate. They get going in New York on Tuesday afternoon.

All we know about the 1966 Tigers is what we have heard from men like Joe Falls, Dave Diles, Al Ackerman, Ray Lane and the others who have had a chance to slip down to Lakeland and enjoy a little sunshine; or what we have read from the typewriters of Watson Spoelstra, George Cantor, etc.

We also had occasion back in January to sit in the company of Tiger General Manager Jim Campbell for several hours and hear his impressions of the team he has put together.

All of the aforementioned, including Campbell, are not popoff characters. They don't use superlatives just to be heard, or because they think they're cute.

Yet, the feeling one gathers—when assembling all their remarks—is that the Tigers should do well in 1966.

The club would appear to have the pitching in the Sparmas, Monbouquettes, McLains, Lolichs and Aguirres. The bullpen? Possibly a problem, possibly not.

The catching has improved. The infield is stronger. The outfield has to be the best in the league.

A pennant winner?

Well, if we were to say so, the Tigers would be doomed. So we'll keep quiet.

THE AMERICAN LEAGUE race should be a honey. Minnesota, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and the Yankees all look like they have a great chance to go someplace. And, not in the ground.

The California (formerly Los Angeles) Angels could be the biggest surprise in the league and it's fortunate for the rest of the A. L. that Sandy Koufax signed with the Dodgers and didn't carry out a threat to get with the Angels.

The pros and cons of Koufax and Drysdale vs. the Dodgers will be heard around baseball and sports for a long time. Do athletes have a right to bargain together?

Obviously, Koufax and Drysdale showed the theory has merit. They received what they wanted.

We had no worries that the pair would hold out for the season. They couldn't afford to, their movie offers notwithstanding.

More important, the Dodgers and the National League were in for a financial beating. In fact, the absences of Drysdale and Koufax were cutting down on crowds at exhibition games.

BATTER UP!

Community Directory Out in New 2 Weeks

Copies of the 1966 Farmington Jaycee Community Directory will be distributed to every home in the City of Farmington and Farmington Township during the next two weeks.

Chairman of the project, Chuck Williams, reports that this year's directory will consist of 40 pages including a map of the community, church and local government listings and information and listings of virtually all business firms in the community.

SAFETY COUNCIL WARNS HOUSEWIVES

Tabs Kitchen as Potential Killer

Your kitchen is a potential killer. This word of warning to housewives comes from the Greater Detroit Safety Council, a chapter of the National Safety Council.

Gerald E. Montgomery, Executive Director of the local safety organization, says the kitchen is a potential killer because it's the work center of your home.

"It's the place where fire and hot liquids are handled most often and where sharp cutting instruments, many gas and electrical appliances, potentially poisonous and flammable cleaning agents are kept," Montgomery points out.

But, says Montgomery, probably most important of all, the kitchen is a room that is so much a center of family life that familiarity has bred contempt of its dangers.

Safe equipment.
Safe habits.

In the area of planning, Montgomery makes the following suggestions:

Plan your home with adequate wiring and place electric outlets near the points of appliance use, to eliminate the danger of tripping over cords.

Arrange doors to swing so as not to obstruct traffic.

Keep window curtains and towel racks away from sources of heat to prevent fires.

Provide a special high or locked closet for lye, bleaches, metal cleaners and polishers and other cleaning compounds that may be hazardous to children.

Montgomery makes the following suggestions about equipment in your kitchen.

Round off sharp corners on counters or tables, a cause of painful bruises and even serious accidents.

Select only appliances that carry U.L. or A.G.A. labels. Look for safety features, such as signal lights, safety releases and solid construction.

Good light, especially on stairs and in closets, as important to safety.

Keep the sharpest knives in a rack above the reach of children.

Use a step stool to climb, rather than chairs or pulled-out drawers.

Select pots and pans that are well-balanced, have heat-resistant handles with a comfortable grip, tight fitting lids and no drip spouts for pouring hot liquids.

Safe habits, Montgomery says, include.

Wiping up spills on the floor.

Wearing sensible shoes and appropriate clothing that has no long, loose sleeves.

Read the manufacturer's instructions before using appliances. This includes the reuse of equipment, particularly equipment that is used infrequently.

Read the labels on cleaning compounds and heed cautions regarding the use and storage of these products.

Handle electrical appliances with dry hands, replace worn electrical cords and use equipment and appliances only as directed by the manufacturer's literature.

Keep food and non-edible products on separate shelves.

Replace caps securely on cleaning compounds and return them to a safe storage area immediately after using.

Take Care When Preparing Your Soil to Avoid Lumps

Wise gardeners know it pays to prepare their soil properly. Do it just as early as you can without compacting it or leaving it lumpy, because it is too wet and sticky.

Also, make a practice of double-digging (preparing two spades deep) at least a small portion of your garden every year, recommend the garden experts.

You will be surprised at the great difference it will make in your plants.

The simplest way to do this is to remove the top — and already improved layer — one spade deep, spade up and improve the layer below a full spade deep just as you would do if it were on top.

Then return the top layer mixing it in, so far as possible, with that below it, incorporating fertilizer and humus as you would anyway.

Even where you do not double-dig, prepare your soil as carefully as you can.

If it is sandy and you can get some heavy, clayey soil, spread a 2 to 3 inch layer over the top.

If it is too heavy and you can get some coarse sand or fine gravel, add to 2 to 3 inch layer of that.

Then, add another 2 inches of peat-moss, leafmold, compost, shredded bark, sugar cane or any other desirable source of humus.

In the south the soil is frequently clayey, acid and poorly supplied with humus.

Along the coasts and various other places, on the other hand, the soils are likely to be very sandy and equally devoid of humus. In either clayey or sandy soils incorporating an added 50 per cent more humus is highly desirable.

After this is done take your shovel, spade or spading fork and turn the soil over, loosening it thoroughly and mixing materials completely.

Then, if there is time enough before planting, let the soil settle for a couple of weeks, especially if it has been double-dug.

In any case, before planting spread about 5 pounds of a high-nitrogen fertilizer for lawns, or a vegetable-type fertilizer for bulbs, flowers or vegetables per 10 square feet, hoeing it in 2 to 4 inches deep before you smooth and level with a steel-toothed garden rake.

Card File Helps Plan A Garden

One of the most unusual garden books we have seen is the "Sort Guide" to the Perennial Garden Flowers, by George W. Kelly.

It consists of a plastic box of cards slightly larger than playing cards and a long pin.

One side of each card describes a plant, size, color and habits.

The other is the same on all cards, with sections for color, height, form, soil type, whether early or late blooming.

The cards bearing information about the kind of plant you want will drop out of the pack. There is no need to reassemble the cards in any particular position.

The holes will give you the desired cards at any time.

In short, the Sort Guide will help you pick the right flower for the right place, plan your flower beds, learn more about perennials, identify perennial flowers and grow a better, more colorful garden.

Book Provides Decorating Ideas

One of the main portents of Spring each year is the arrival of a uniquely beautiful and practical decorating publication called 1001 Decorating Ideas.

It has grown over the years (this is edition 23 now) from a small ten cent magazine to the handsome 100 page, beautifully colorful publication it is today . . . and the price is only 50 cents per copy.

There are more attractive decorating magazines available, but none with so thorough a presentation of the various aspects of decorating, from the elegant to the simple. And so many of the interesting ideas shown also have clear, practical instructions that even a relative novice can duplicate.

If you admire the swag window treatment on page 23, you'll find swag instructions on page 85. Interested in the wall stencil on page 24 to copy for your own foyer? You'll find the instructions on page 73. Fascinated with the roller shades on page 33? Just turn to page 76 and make your own.

Or perhaps you're more interested in just what's going on in the decorating world. What is the Mediterranean Look and is it here to stay? What new furniture and fabric trends are going to be popular this year?

And, of course, 1001's specialty is the page upon page of window treatments — dreamy, exciting, unusual, sometimes elegant, sometimes simple.

Katsura Is Fast Growing Shade Tree

"If you're looking for a rapid growing tree with good foliage that gives filtered shade, consider the Katsura Tree," says Walter Haldeman of the Pennsylvania State University.

The foliage has a purplish color as the heart-shaped leaves unfold in early spring. In summer it is bright green and turns pinkish yellow in autumn. Mature trees stand 50 to 60 feet tall.

According to a Penn State correspondence course on the selection and care of trees for home landscaping, Katsura grows best in rich moist soil fully exposed to sun. Grass grows well beneath it because the roots go deep.

The plants take cold weather and live outdoors over winter as far north as southern Canada. Diseases and insects attack them little.

Many trees, in addition to Katsura, are described in the Penn State course. Anyone can enroll simply by sending his name and address with $1.50 to Trees, Box 5000, University Park, Pennsylvania 16802. A course copy will come to you by mail.

Yew Specially Suited For Michigan Climate

By WAYNE JONES

Yew is the common name for Taxus. Yews are slow growing, very hardy, will tolerate sun or shade and have the darkest green of all the evergreen foliage. There are male and female plants accounting for the fact that all varieties do not have the attractive red berry in the fall.

There are approximately 40 species of yews and the Canada yew can be found growing wild in northern Michigan. The Canada yew is not grown commercially because it is less attractive than other types.

The English yew while probably the most attractive, is not hardy enough for the Michigan climate. The Repandens, an exception to this rule, is not commonly grown.

The Japanese yew and hybrids of the Japanese and English yews called media are the types found in Michigan. All varieties of Japanese yew are cuspidata. There is much variation in seedlings so most nurseries grow from cuttings to secure uniform plants.

An exception is the capitata or common pyramidal yew which is grown from selected seed which tends to produce a superior form than could be grown from a cutting.

Taxus media varieties probably comprise more than half of all yews sold in Michigan. They combine the hardness of the Japanese yew and the ornamental qualities of the English.

Media varieties commonly used in Michigan are: Brown's yew, compact growing, used to

Use Good Common Sense; Avoid Mower Accidents

Price: 2,600 toes, 1,000 fingers and a host of other injuries — some fatal.

This is the approximate annual price of careless rotary lawn mower operation in Michigan.

"Most of these accidents occur when people come in direct contact with rotary mower blades, but about one-third occur from thrown objects," reports Richard G. Pfister, Michigan State University Extension Safety Engineer.

"The blade can pick up a rock, nail, bits of glass, steel or wood and eject them at the operator or bystander at speeds over 200 miles per hour."

"Mowing a lawn with a rotary mower is by no means a family activity. In fact, family members who are not doing the mowing should stay out of the yard when the mower is in operation."

Pfister warns parents not to permit young boys or girls with immature judgment to operate a rotary mower. He also advises parents to watch out for children who are too young to realize that they should stay away from rotary mowers when they are running.

"The reel type mower is a more appropriate piece of equipment if you expect youngsters to take care of this chore," he contends.

Pfister offers these additional suggestions to insure the safety and smooth operation of a rotary lawn mower:

- Check the blade, making sure it is both sharp and sound.
- Keep gasoline in a metal container and refuel before mowing.
- Wear shoes, preferably those with hard safety toe.
- Wait until the grass is dry, especially when using an electric mower.
- Shin guards are not practical, but neither are shorts.
- Walk over the lawn before mowing. Pick up toys, stones, etc.
- Keep children inside the house or 100-150 ft. away from the area to be mowed.

- Mow across slopes whenever possible.
- Shut off the mower to adjust, unclog, or when leaving the job.

SPRING IS THE TIME TO . . . Plant a Full Grown Tree

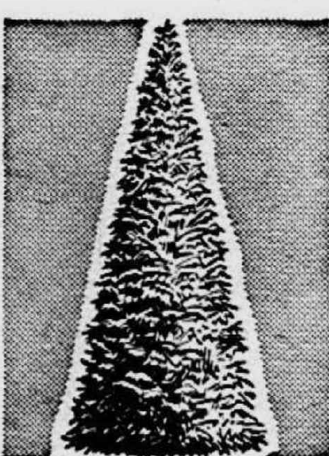

Folks, I have specialized in Shade Trees and have supplied thousands of street plantings, Industrial, Schools, Churches and Residential. I feel that the right selection of a shade tree is perhaps the most important decision that a home owner is faced with, in landscape planning.

Now Ready for Immediate Planting

Students Take Fair Wood Work Honors

Seven woodworking students at the O. E. Dunckel Junior High School in Farmington Township were award winners in the Regional Industrial Fair. Under the direction of Robert Schultz, Dunckel Wood Shop Teacher, the projects were completed and exhibited, including scaled drawings.

Those participating were: Robert Starr, book ends, third award; James M. Schott, natural maple candleholders, honor award; and Robert Owen, oiled walnut end table. They are all eighth graders.

Ninth graders honored were: Robert Scheffler, natural mahogany bookcase, second award; Mark McLean, cherry mahogany and walnut turned lamp, second award; Mark Ziska, natural maple cabinet, sliding doors, third award; Mike Cannon, round lamp, perforated sheet metal with wood legs, honor award.

First and second award winners will be in competition as regional winners in the Michigan Industrial Education Society finals.

Trout Writes Article

George E. Trout of Westmont Court, Farmington, Science Teacher, Warren E. Bow School, is among the contributors in the April issue of "The Instructor Magazine," nationally circulated publication used by 700,000 elementary school teachers and educators.

Trout is co-author of an article concerning the study of atmosphere. He suggests and gives directions for demonstrations and experiments which can be done to discover information about, and uses of, the air in our atmosphere. The writers point out that, studying the atmosphere will reveal many ways in which it affects our lives.

Farmington Baptist Churches

A union Good Friday service open to the general public will be presented by the Bethel Baptist and First Baptist churches of Farmington from 1:00 to 2:15 p.m. The service will be held at First Baptist Church, located at the junction of Farmington Road and Shawnee Avenue.

Pastor Frank Smith of Bethel Baptist Church and Pastor Walter Ballagh of First Baptist Church will share in the order of worship, and special music befitting the day will be presented by soloists from the participating churches. The guest speaker for this service will be a local resident, Dr. Harry Love, who is General Director of the Conservative Baptist Association of Michigan. Love is widely acclaimed as a dynamic and forceful preacher.

A warm invitation is extended to residents and those working in the area to join in this union Good Friday worship service at First Baptist Church of Farmington.

Our Savior Lutheran Church To Hold Tre Ore Devotions

Tre Ore devotions will bring to a close the observance of the sacred season of Lent at Our Savior Lutheran Church, Warren at Farmington Rd., in Wayne.

These devotions will be held on Good Friday from 12 noon till 3 p.m.

These devotions are centered about the Passion Story, interspersed with sacred Lenten hymns and ancient prayers.

This Service corresponds with the watch of Christ's loved ones at the foot of the cross, while the 'sun was darkened.' It is divided into six sections of one-half hour each, and an opportunity for entrance and departure is offered during 'The Meditation.' at the close of each devotion.

Holy Trinity Church Becomes Self-Supporting

Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, 39020 Five Mile, Livonia, became a self-supporting congregation on Sunday, April 3. As a part of the morning worship service, a proclamation was read which stated that Holy Trinity would no longer seek financial support from the mission board of the Michigan district of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.

The effect of this resolution is that the members of Holy Trinity will support the entire program of their church by their offerings which are a usual part of the worship services.

Holy Trinity has been supported by the Mission board since it came into existence, in November of 1961. At that time they met for worship services in Lincoln public school. In May of 1963, the congregation dedicated the present building at 39020 Five Mile Road in Livonia.

Several factors have contributed toward this historic decision to become a self-supporting congregation. One, is the continued growth of the congregation. The total number of adult, confirmed members is now 280, and the total number of baptized men, women and children is near 500. In addition to the growth in numbers, the members of the church have continued to grow in their awareness of their responsibility to use this world's goods to support the mission of the Christian church.

The pastor of the church is the Rev. Wayne Koenig, who has been with the congregation since its origin in 1961. His comment regarding this event at Holy Trinity was, "this is a decision that was made joyfully and with thanksgiving. I'm sure we'll have growing pains like any young child, but that is the way we grow in responsibility, by meeting the particular challenge that faces us."

Al Bellaires Renew 'Old Acquaintance'

Recently Mr. and Mrs. Al Bellaire of Redford Township had a chance to renew a very pleasant friendship.

The Bellaires and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Rantanen attended the concert tour of Suomi College Choir which was held at Southfield High School, Tuesday, March 29.

Arthur Hill, conductor of the tour, is director of music at Suomi College at Hancock.

He was born in Baraga, as was Bellaire. Besides enjoying the concert they had the opportunity to catch up on the latest developments in Arthur Hill's career. He was the first American-born musician to head the music department at the college.

He began the annual tours of the choir which year after year brings the choir to localities throughout the United States and Canada. These tours were climaxed with a tour to Europe and Finland just a few years ago.

'No Greater Love'

Easter Sunday evening at 7 p.m. the Galilean Baptist Church of Livonia will present John W. Peterson's Easter Cantata "No Greater Love."

The Cantata is an hour program of music and narration depicting the Life and Purpose of Jesus Christ coming to earth.

The words of Christ, Satan, and Pilate at Christ's temptation and trial are solos sung by three of the male members of the choir. Other solos and beautiful arrangements of music are featured that move the program to the inspiring "Hallelujah He Is Risen" to climax and close the program.

Mae Irene Noe directs the choir and Roberts Latham will narrate the words of Scripture.

A cordial invitation is extended to all by the pastor and people of the church.

Galilean Baptist Church is at 28875 West Seven Mile, just ¼ mile east of the Livonia Mall.

Women's Night To Be April 17

Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church, in Plymouth, has charge of the evening service, Sunday, April 17. It is called "Women's Night," but the entire church family is urged to come.

Mrs. G. M. Lenox, former president of Michigan Baptist Women will be the guest. The purpose of setting aside a service each year for Women's Night is to express appreciation for the very vital role our Woman's Society plays in the life of the church.

It is also to provide opportunity for the Woman's Society to inform the church family of its activities and projects. There will be a Fellowship Hour following this service.

Methodist Church Wins Crusade!

Sixty member families of St. Luke's Methodist Church, Five Mile Road at Haggerty Road, pledged an average of $6 per week per family for the current budget of the church and for the church building fund in a crusade completed this week.

"St. Luke's Church is currently holding services in a new structure which will eventually become the parsonage for the church pastoral family," according to the Rev. Sherman T. Richards, pastor. A mission project of the Ahn Arbor District of the Methodist Church, St. Luke's opened in February of 1964. As of March 1, the total membership was 160.

Dr. Jesse R. DeWitt, of the Detroit Conference of Churches, directed the crusade. Dr. Dell Reed served as chairman of the crusade committee.

"Passover" Began Monday, April 4

Members of Temple Beth Am, along with Jews the world over began the celebration of Passover, the greatest and most ancient of all Jewish Festivals, at sundown, Monday, April 4.

Passover is celebrated with a ceremonial meal called the "Seder." During the Seder the story of the Exodus is recited, songs and ceremonial prayers are performed, and symbolical foods of Passover are eaten.

Special Memorial Services will be held on the last day of Passover at 8:30 p.m. on April 10 at the Cohn Bldg., West Seven Mile Road and Osmus, Livonia.

Sign Up for Ballet!

If it's ballet you want, ballet you've got at the Northwest YWCA, 25940 Grand River.

They're all set to do the spring with emphasis on feet, feet and dance, dance, dance. The door is open wide for the "dance set."

At the head of the line the YWCA is thrilled to introduce Mrs. Agnes S. Prentice who is a member of the Cecchetti Council of America; the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing, London, England and the Scottish Official Board of Highland Dancers. Mrs. Prentice also has her own private dance studio.

The classes are arranged according to age and ability and any child can find a place in the dance classes. Ballet 1 (6-8 years) Tuesday 4:00-4:45 p.m. Ballet 1 (9 years up) Tuesday 5:00-5:45 p.m. Ballet toddlers (4-5 years) Tuesday 3:15-3:45 p.m. Ballet advanced (all ages) Wednesday 4:00-4:45 p.m. Call Northwest Branch YWCA at KE 7-8500 for further information.

LCW News

Women of Holy Cross Lutheran Church are invited to attend the LCW Southeastern District Assembly which will meet on April 26 at St. John's Lutheran Church, 13542 Mercedes (southeast of the Inkster-Five Mile intersection).

The meeting will be from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. There will be a nursery available, and a lunch will be served. Those women planning to attend should call Betty Doughty before April 20, so lunch reservations can be made.

Holy Week Program

Unity of West Suburbia, Livonia announces that a special Holy Week Program pictures (scidles and movies) of Gethsemane, Golgotha, the tomb of Jesus, garden on the road to Emmaus, etc. will be shown on April 6. This will be followed by a Spiritual Communion prayer service.

'Last Supper in The Upper Room'

Members of St. John Lutheran Church, 23225 Gill Road, will sit down to a Passover meal Thursday night resembling the "Last Supper in the Upper Room."

Rev. Charles Fox called the meal "something different and inspirational."

He explained: "Members will bind themselves together in fellowship by sharing together the common meal similar to the Last Supper which Jesus ate with his friends. It was the occasion when Jesus laid upon their hearts his parting messages."

Rev. Fox said Jesus' last words to his Disciples will be repeated during the meal. However, silence will prevail except for scripture readings and singing.

"The lighting of the Passover candles and the reading of the Passover Thanksgiving are features of this meal in a Jewish home," Mr. Fox said.

THERE IS NO DEATH!

With His resurrection Christ has broken the power of death over those who come to God through faith in Christ.

"O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? Thanks be to God which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

Because of His resurrection Christ can say to His believers, "I am the Resurrection and the Life... Whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die."

By His death in the place of men, Christ has paid the penalty for the sins of all men. By raising His Son on Easter morning the Father showed that He had accepted the payment.

And now because Christ died and rose again, the believer, too, shall rise to live with Him forever. That is why the Christian poet could write, "It is not death to die."

Our Church will be happy to tell you more about Christ and His great blessings for you.

Ward Memorial To Hold Sunrise Service Easter Morning

The Easter Services of the Ward Memorial Presbyterian Church, Livonia Chapel, will begin Thursday with a Lenten Breakfast at 9 a.m. at the Chapel. The special speaker will be Dr. William Seath, former director of a program for rehabilitation of alcoholics in Chicago.

On Maundy Thursday evening a service of Holy Communion will be held. 41 new members will be received into the membership of the church at this service. Rev. Gorman will bring the Communion Meditation.

The Good Friday Evening Service at 7:30 p.m. with Dr. William Seath speaking. His subject will be "Crucifixion, Crucifixion." Easter Sunday morning the young people of the church will be in charge of a Sunrise Service at 7 a.m. Roger Storm, Youth Director, will be the speaker. Three regular worship services will be conducted at 9, 10:15, and 11:30 a.m. The Senior Minister, Dr. Hess, will speak at the 9:00 a.m. service on the subject "Who Shall Roll Us Away the Stone?" Rev. Gorman will conduct the other two services, and speak on the subject "The God Who is Not Dead."

A Bible School for children through 6th grade is conducted at 9 a.m., and Sunday School for all ages at 10:15 a.m.

During this crusade, the volunteer workers will ask nothing but a few minutes of the householder's time. Each one will offer an educational pamphlet interestingly phrased to allow the reader to check her own accuracy in her knowledge about cancer; a five-year calendar to remind her to have periodic health checkups and a recruitment card, should she feel the urge to be a Michigan Cancer Foundation volunteer.

The house-to-house campaign will be conducted on a neighborhood basis, allowing most volunteers to contact their own friends and neighbors. Adequately financed through United Fund contributions, the Foundation solicits no funds during the door-to-door crusade which extends through Friday, April 15.

The entire month of April will be devoted to bringing before the public through every possible means the Foundation's year-round program of cancer research, education and service.

Holy Week Liturgy Reflects Core Of Christian Belief

Holy Week occurs mid-way in the liturgical year for the Catholic Church, and this week's liturgy (official worship) reflects the core of Christian belief: that Jesus Christ as God-man died for all sinners and conquered Death by His Resurrection.

Holy Week began on Palm Sunday, commemorating Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem. The blessing of branches (usually palm or olive) was followed by a procession through the church by the faithful carrying the branches and singing various Psalms proclaiming Christ as the Messiah, "Hosanna to the Son of David!"

The Old and New Testament texts of the Masses said on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week were those relating to the last days of Christ's ministry, His suffering and death.

On Holy Thursday the liturgy presents three themes: first, the institution of the Eucharist (consecration of the bread and wine) as the sacrifice and sacrament of Christian unity; second, the sharing of Christ's priesthood with men by His ordaining the apostles with the command, "Do this in remembrance of me; third, the example of mutual charity shown in washing the apostles' feet, accompanied with the command to love one another.

The unity of the priesthood is displayed in concelebration of the Mass, and was usually done during the ordination of priests.

However, there are now more occasions for concelebration, one of which is Holy Thursday, according to the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy of Vatican Council II.

Worship during the afternoon of Good Friday consists of four parts: Scripture readings on the need for sincerity in acts of self-denial and good works, on the Passover prefiguring this celebration, on Christ's of twelve men of the parish, passing through death to resurrection prayer service, to ask God's blessing on the world redeemed by Christ; veneration of the Cross, to acknowledge personal guilt in the crucifixion and to rededicate oneself to Christ represented by the cross; communion service, for a share in the benefits of Redemption.

Holy Saturday begins as a day of intense sorrow, and that evening the most solemn memorial service of the whole year takes place. The celebrant strikes new fire from a flint, blesses it, and with it lights the Easter candle marked with symbols to represent Christ as the light of the world. This fire endures in the Sanctuary lamp for the next year to indicate Christ's presence.

Water to be used for all baptisms during the course of the year is now blessed, and everyone present renews their baptismal promises. Adult baptisms can take place at this time.

Fr. Jasper Sirianni, pastor of St. Theodore in Plymouth, will be baptizing three adults.

Joining Msgr. Thomas P. Beahan, pastor of Our Lady of Sorrows, Farmington, in celebrating the anniversary of the Last Supper at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow, will be Fr. Thomas W. Bissonnette and Fr. Robert Luchi.

One of the many parishes representing fraternal love in operation will be St. Maurice, Livonia. There Fr. Thomas Cain, pastor, will wash the feet.

They are Enzo Paparelli, Phillip Tanguay, John DeMatia, Leonard Castelli, Raymond Duffin, Robert Boehmer, William Crawford, Warren King, Terry Michaels, Michael Allan and Robert Bagdady.

As a further reminder of the institution of the Eucharist on this day, the tabernacle remains open and empty. After the conclusion of the Mass any hosts consecrated for distribution at the services on Good Friday are placed in a special container (pyx), and the altar is stripped of all linens as a reminder of how Christ was stripped of his garments.

All members are urged to "watch one hour with Me" sometime throughout the evening, night and earlier hours of Good Friday.

Altar Mass is otherwise celebrated each day throughout the year, the Church has always forgone the Mass on Good Friday as a token of mourning for the death of the Lord. However, in 1955, Pope Pius XII permitted the faithful to receive Holy Communion on this day to unite all sacramentally as well as prayerfully with Christ on the day of His death.

Candlelight Service on Maundy Thursday

A candlelight Communion Service will be held at Emmanuel Baptist Church, Livonia with Nankin Mills and Alpha Baptist invited to share in the service. This has become an annual service and from the comments received, a meaningful one. Church—Lutheran comm—142-2

The Lutheran Communion Service was taken to the patients of Northville State Hospital on Tuesday, March 29. Rev. David F. Romberg, Pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Risen Christ, and members of the congregation, including organist, Mrs. Aileen Stroebel assembled with the Lutheran patients in an activities room in D Building for the complete service.

With an improvised altar and chapel-like seating arrangement plus piano accompaniment, hymns, sermon and communion provided these patients with the first Lutheran service after a year of private devotions with Pastor Romberg who serves as Lutheran Chaplain for the Hospital.

Episcopalians and Presbyterians Unite For Maundy Thursday Ceremonies

The observance of Maundy Thursday will take on special significance for Episcopalians and Presbyterians in Farmington this year as they unite for an Ecumenical Commemoration of the Institution of the Lord's Supper. Trinity Episcopal Church and the First Presbyterian Church will sponsor this observance on Maundy Thursday evening April 7 at 8 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church, 26165 Farmington Road.

The service will be a celebration of the Holy Communion according to the Liturgy of the Church of South India. The Church of South India was inaugurated in 1947 as a result of the union of the former South India United Church (Presbyterian-Congregationalist), the Methodist Church of South India and the southern dioceses of the Anglican (Episcopal) Church of India, Pakistan, Burma and Ceylon. It represents one of the major Church unions successfully completed since the time of the Protestant Reformation. The Liturgy of the Church of South India combines elements of the forms of worship used in each of the uniting Churches, including an interesting ceremony in which a "Greeting of Peace" is exchanged in the midst of the service between all members of the congregation, beginning with the clergy and spreading to the choir and congregation.

Maundy Thursday has been observed in the Christian Church since earliest times in commemoration of the Last Supper of Jesus with His disciples "on the night before He was betrayed," from which has grown the Sacrament of the Holy Communion observed in all branches of the Church.

The service will be conducted by the Rev. George Ramsey, Pastor and the Rev. Robert Sawyer, Assistant Minister at the First Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Joseph Pelham, Rector of Trinity Episcopal Church. The Chancel Choir of the Presbyterian Church will sing the offertory anthems under the direction of Mr. Melvin Rookus, Organist and Mr. John Cross, Director of Music. The Choir of Trinity Church will sing the service music under the direction of Mrs. John Dulmage, Choir Director and Mrs. James Warner, Organist.

The Session of the Presbyterian Church and the Vestry of Trinity Church, lay governing bodies of the congregations, will walk together in the procession of clergy and choirs preceding the service.

Youth Choir Presents Concert

The multiple group graded youth choirs of the Southfield Community Church, 21122 Indian (between Beech and Inkster, north of Eight Mile) will present a concert on Easter Sunday evening at 7:00, according to Pastor Raymond Bayne.

Directed by Larry Eichler, the choirs will present a Cantata entitled, "No Greater Love" by the famous composer John Peterson. The choir will be accompanied on the organ by Miss Rosalind Giebel and on the piano by Mrs. Eric Buchanan. Through the generosity of friends, the choir will all be robed in beautiful new sandstone gold robes and red penant collars. Easter Sunday will be the first occasion for wearing them.

The youth program of the church is built around its youth choirs, who meet each week for rehearsal, devotional, and recreational activities and combine to sing together in the church service on Sunday. Over 100 youth are ordinarily present and singing in the service.

Tension of Holy Week

"The Christian Century" recently quoted an address by G. A. Taylor before the Young Republican Club of Asheville, N.C., in which Taylor said that the co-existence of Christianity and communism is impossible without tension. The article went on to point out that the Christian faith cannot exist without tension with any cultural, political or social expressions.

There is, by the very nature of the Faith, a tension to destroy, correct, purify that which exists in our world. Holy Week shows this tension anew as the Prophet from Nazareth enters the Holy City amid the cries of welcome from the populace but under the envious, scheming eyes of the religious and political rulers of his day.

The tension that he brought about resulted in his crucifixion after a ministry of only three years and only five days after his triumphal entry into Jerusalem. He was the "One Solitary Life" of history that attempted to accept men as they were; without reference to the ethnic, religious, political or economic status. His human relations — i.e. his relationship with human beings — was above the kind of pride-filled egotism that is part and parcel of our day.

The interesting thing is that, whenever people want to justify their own lack of good human relations they never say "Look at Jesus of Nazareth." Many times they will quote the book of his Scriptures, the Old Testament, or even the book about him, the New Testament.

But they always quote it out of context, hacking a phrase here, a quote there, to justify their own egotistical, sin-filled actions. They never look to the Word made flesh, Jesus of Nazareth, and say what he would do or say or think. This kind of text out of context has used Christianity to justify war, slavery, capitalism and communism.

Kenwood Church of Christ Plans To Show Color Film on Missions

"As I Go," a new color movie stressing the impact of Christian missions, will be premiered at the Kenwood Church of Christ on Sunday evening, April 10, at 6:30 p.m.

Morning services for the day will include a sunrise service at 6:30, with Daryl Howell and Tom Branscom speaking on "What The Resurrection of Christ Means to Me"; Bible school at 9:45, with classes for all ages; and morning worship at 11:00, when Lee Baltzer will preach on the theme, "Now Is The Son of Man Glorified!"

The church is located on Middlebelt at St. Martin's in Livonia, next to Livonia Mall.

The movie, subtitled "From Moscow To Mashoko," is an exciting first-person report of a tour by Bob J. Vernon, showing the contrast between the fiery, revolutionary spirit of Communism as viewed in Moscow, and the compassionate missionary heart of Christianity as evidenced at Mashoko Christian Mission in Rhodesia.

This movie holds special interest for the Kenwood congregation—because they help to support a missionary family at Mashoko, Rhodesia—the mission station pictured in "As I Go," and also because Bob Vernon will conduct a revival meeting at the Kenwood Church of Christ this fall, October 2-8.

Rabbi Ernest Conrad To Speak April 12

The Adult Education Committee of Temple Beth Am will present Rabbi Ernest J. Conrad of Temple Beth Jacob, on Tuesday, April 12. He will discuss the new translation of the Bible made by the Jewish Publication Society, the first one that has been made since 1917.

There is considerable interest in this translation, especially among reform Jews, since a more complete and meaningful understanding of the original Biblical material may result. Rabbi Conrad is a recognized scholar in this field, and recently taught a course on the Bible at Oakland University.

The talk will begin at 9 p.m. at the Cohn Building, West Seven Mile Road and Osmus, and it is hoped that all members and interested friends will attend.

Church Moves Into New Quarters For Easter Sunday

The Garden City Presbyterian Church will move into its new educational building on Easter Sunday for both the 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Sunday Schools. There will be three services each with choir in the newly refurnished sanctuary—at 8 a.m., 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Nursery and Toddler care at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Plenty of parking in three parking lots.

MARCUS BASS of the Livonia Jewish Congregation is conducting Model Seder Services for the students of their religious school.

A MORE MODERN VERSION of the crucifixion graces the new church building being built at Thirteen Mile and Middlebelt Rds. in Farmington Township.

Church Music Workshop

Dr. Roberta Bitgood, nationally known for the outstanding leadership she is manifesting in the field of church music, will be in Detroit on Monday, April 11 to conduct a Church Music Workshop for all interested church musicians in Detroit and the metropolitan area.

The Guild of Church Musicians, a department of the Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches, is sponsoring the workshop which will be at Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church, 15050 Hubbell, with Wayne Madzik, the Director of Music in that church, as host.

The schedule will be: 7 p.m. Registration and Orientation ($1.00 per person), 7:30—First Session, 8:30 coffee break, 8:45—Second Session with closing at 9:30. All persons interested in a better church music program are cordially urged to attend.

Dr. Bitgood is known from coast to coast as an inspiring composer, a brilliant organist of great talent and as a capable and effective leader of Workshops, materials and repertoire conferences. The general theme will be — "PLANNING A YEAR IN CHURCH MUSIC." Advance registrations are not necessary.

Solemn Novena Begins Duns Scotus College

Special novena services in honor of St. Anthony will be conducted weekly on Tuesday evenings, starting April 12, by the Franciscan Friars of Duns Scotus College, Southfield, Michigan. Services begin at 8 p.m.

Novena prayers, sermon, and evening Mass will highlight the devotions. Communion will be distributed each Tuesday evening at the Mass. Blessing of the people with the relic of St. Anthony will conclude the services each week.

The Novena, being conducted at St. Anthony's Shrine, Duns Scotus College chapel, is open to the public. Catholics and their friends of all faiths are welcome.

The college campus is located at Nine Mile and Evergreen roads in Southfield.

St. John's To Hold Two Easter Services

Two services will be held Good Friday at St. John American Lutheran Church, 23225 Gill Road, Farmington Township.

At 1 p.m. an hour long service will conclude the special Lenten meditations on "The Suffering Savior Speaks."

Pastor Charles Fox will deliver a sermon, "Thoughts on the Lamb of God," at the 7:30 evening service. A cantata will be sung by the senior choir.

On Easter Sunday, the sermon theme will be "Why Did He Live Again?" at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. worship hours. Special music will be provided by the senior, junior and children's choirs.

Between the Easter services, a special program will be held for the Sunday School at 9:40 a.m.

Community Good Friday Services To Be Held at Redford Baptist

Ministers of Northwest Detroit in cooperation with the Redford Council of Churches are presenting two Good Friday services from the hours of 12 noon until 3 p.m. The services will be held in the Redford Baptist Church, Grand River and Seven Mile and the Calvary Methodist Church, 22400 Grand River.

Ten ministers representing the cooperating churches will bring brief meditations on "The Words of the Cross." There will be soloists from the respective churches singing at each of the meditation periods.

The public is cordially invited to attend either of the Community Good Friday Services.

Redford Baptist will follow the schedule as listed: 12:00—Dr. Gordon H. Schroeder, Redford Baptist Church. 12:35—Rev. Vincent Myers, Free Methodist Church.

To Hold Banquet Thursday, April 21

Holy Cross Evangelical Lutheran Church, Livonia will hold their Father and Daughter Banquet on Thursday, April 21 at 6:30 p.m. Mr. Sinclair and his "Chalk Talks" will be featured. Reservations may be made after 9:30 Services with Harriet Swanson; 11. Carol Gallatin.

Is Beglinger Olds SELLING THEIR CARS WHOLESALE?

No . . . but the price is so low — the boss swears he can't tell the difference!

Talk to any Beglinger Olds-Cadillac customer (there's probably one near you right now). Let him tell you how little it takes to own a new '66 Oldsmobile 98 or Oldsmobile F-85. When you hear HOW little you'll think he bought it wholesale. It's not true. Our trading policy is the secret. It guarantees you the best your money can buy.
