Commissioners Ordered Into Court on Friday

Demel Sues City to Halt Maple St. Vacation

Plymouth's City Commission, including Mayor James Houk and Commissioners George Hudson, James Jabara, James McKeon, Robert Smith, Arch Vallier and George Lawton, have been named defendants and ordered to appear in Circuit Court Friday afternoon before Judge George Bowles in suits filed by Attorney Earl Demel and his wife, Elizabeth; Mrs.

Etta Magraw and Edward Lees protesting the vacation of Maple Street and the failure of the Commission to sell Lot No. 5 in the George Shafer subdivision after receiving closed bids.

It was known for some time that Demel planned on taking such action since he so informed the Commission when he appeared during a regular meeting to protest the two actions. The plaintiffs are being represented by Attorney Joseph Brennan, legal counsel for Farmington Township.

The suit asks the court to issue an order to show cause requiring the defendants and each of them to show cause if they have any before the court why they should not be restrained and enjoined during the pendency of this cause from disposing of Lot No. 5 to any other than the Demels and from permitting any use of that portion of Maple Ave. which was abandoned in the vacating action by the City Commission.

The suit further asks the court that a temporary restraining order be issued pending the return date on side order to show cause.

It asks the court upon final hearing of this cause, the order of the City Commission vacating Maple Ave. between S. Main and Deer Street be set aside and held for naught.

It also asks the court, upon final hearing, find that a binding contract for the sale of Lot No. 5 in the Shafer subdivision exists between Demel and the City and to order such contract specifically performed.

The petition charges the City Commission on January 17 heard an oral request from Ralph Lorenz to consider the vacating of Maple Street from S. Main to Deer at which time Lorenz stated a written request was forthcoming.

Following the oral request, the petition states, the Commission passed a resolution setting

Feb. 21 as the date for a public hearing on the vacating.

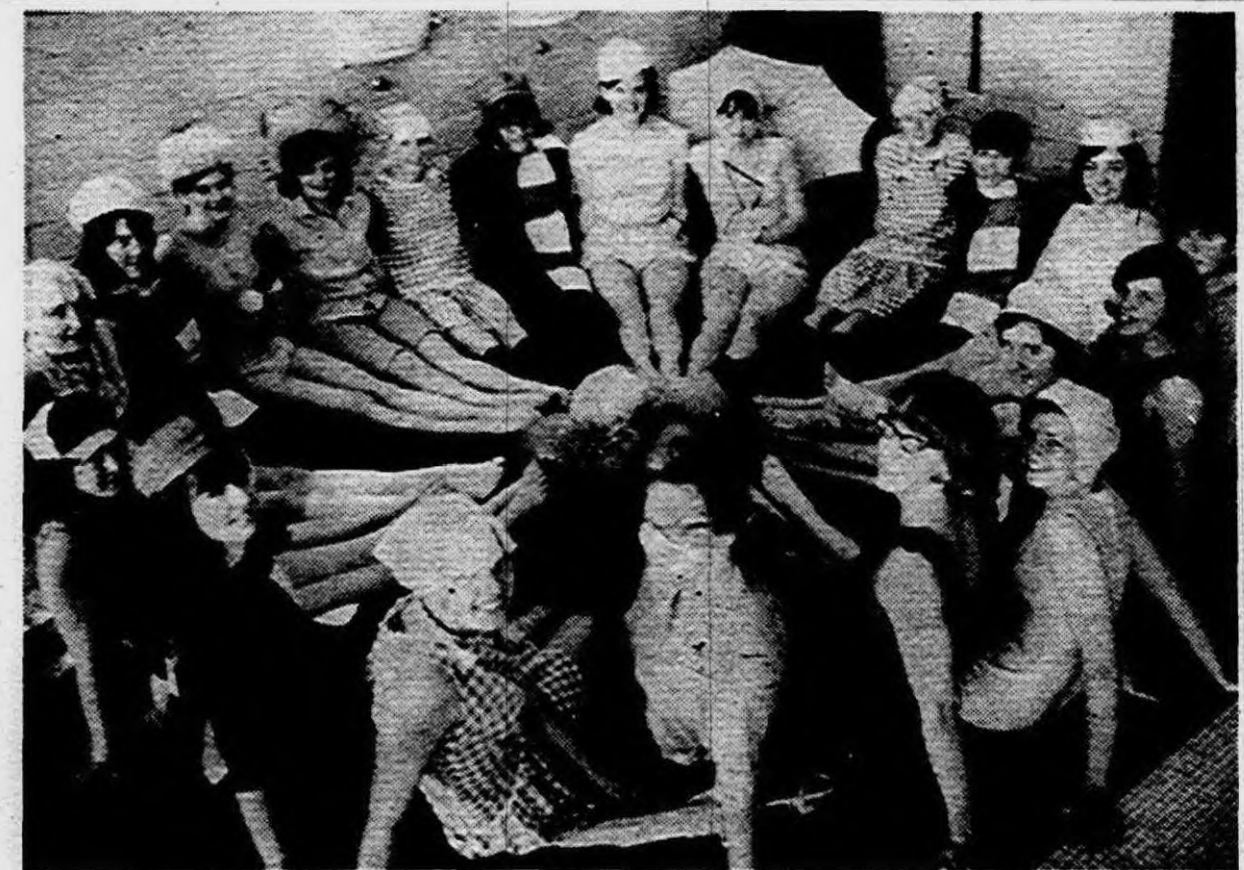

The petition points out that no resolution was passed by the Commission deeming it advisable to vacate, discontinue or abolish the street as required by the City Charter.

On Jan. 20 a written request for the vacation was filed in behalf of Lorenz in which it was represented that Lorenz was the owner of Lots 739, 738, 737, 736, 744 and 745 of the assessors plat No. 20 and that said lots constituted all of the frontage on Maple between Deer and South Main Streets except Lot 746.

The petition then states that as a matter of fact these representations were false and the

CASE HAS UNUSUAL ENDING

Conservation Club Finally Gets OK on Permit Shift

The long battle by officers and members of the Western Wayne County Conservation Association for Township approval of transfer of a club liquor license from Nankin Township to Plymouth Township is over — the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees approved the transfer by a 4-3 vote after one of the strangest incidents in Township history.

Supervisor John McEwen, who has listened to pro and con arguments over the matter, along with other members of the Board for several months, insisted that the Board take some action.

"We have been dallying with this item ever since last December," he reminded the Board, "We have had both sides here several times and I feel they are entitled to some action. I would like a determination from this Board tonight on the request of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission which has asked us to either approve or deny the request."

Trustee Gene Overholt made a motion that the Board pass a resolution approving the transfer of the license. It was supported by Trustee Ralph Garber.

The Supervisor asked for a vote by acclamation. He was greeted by absolute silence in a vote for approval of the motion and a roar of "Nays." He asked a second time for acclamation vote and the same thing occurred.

At this stage, Trustee Dick Lauterbach requested a poll of the Board.

The vote was 3-3 with Trustees Overholt and Garber and Clerk C. V. Sparks casting "Yes" ballots and Trustees Lauterbach and Louis Norman and Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes voting against. Supervisor McEwen quickly ended the deadlock with a "Yes" vote and the meeting went on to other business.

Attorney Lonnie Brashear, serving as counsel for the Association, told the Board that the final decision rested with the MLCC and pointed out that the Township action was only an indication of the feeling of the governmental unit towards the request.

During the course of the hearing, Supervisor McEwen told the Board that the Township had approved the transfer back in 1961 and that a resolution at this time would only be reapproving that action.

Fischer, a senior at Wooster, was a recent nominee for a Rhodes Scholarship and advanced to the western regional finals.

BEGINNING APRIL 30

Township Will Close Offices on Saturdays

Following in the footsteps of practically every other governmental unit in the area, the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees has approved closing of the Township Hall on Saturdays beginning April 30.

Supervisor John McEwen made the request, indicating that a study of other townships as well as all adjacent cities showed that all had the policy of remaining closed on Saturdays.

Under the recommendations of the Supervisor, the Township Hall will have new office hours of 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Captain Barney Maas, of the Fire Department, indicated his men will take charge of issuing dump permits on Saturdays until noon.

Council Sets Budget Hearing May 2; Told Cab Drivers Forged Health Permits

After a four-hour marathon meeting, one of the longest in recent history, the Plymouth City Commission did a lot of talking, equally as much tabling of items but did set a date for a public hearing on the annual budget, ordered a report on the Urban Renewal situation on Mill Street, authorized City Attorney Thomas Healy to defend it in the court suit filed by Earl Demel and turned back to the administration a charge that Mayflower Cab Co. drivers had forged signatures of Plymouth doctors to health certificates.

The problem of the alleged forged certificates came up shortly before adjournment at 11:40 p.m. and brought sharp retorts from Commissioner Arch Vallier.

City Manager Richard Blodgett reported the Police Department had evidence of the alleged forgeries and requested the Commission to hold a hearing on whether the cab licenses for Mayflower should be revoked.

However, Vallier immediately objected to the matter even going before the Commission on the grounds that the cab ordinance doesn't provide for a physical examination but only a health certificate from the city health commissioner.

"If you will check the ordinance you will find that it doesn't provide for an examination from any doctor, only a health certificate from the health commissioner," he said, "I don't believe this Commission has any right to go into this matter at all."

After considerable debate pro and con, the Commission approved a resolution turning the matter back to the administration for whatever steps it considers necessary.

John Florence, owner of the Mayflower Cab Co., was in the audience until shortly before the matter was brought up. He left after the Commission had for the third time voted against reconsideration of a taxi cab rate increase.

Attorney Earl Demel, counsel for Mayflower Cab Co., told the Commission that he didn't think it was a proper place to air such charges. He indicated he was prepared to defend his clients in any actions the administration or the Commission took.

City Manager Blodgett started to explain his message to the Commission in presenting his proposed budget but was halted by Vallier who stated he didn't think the Commission had had enough time to even listen to a discussion.

Again there was a sharp debate but the matter was resolved with the Commission setting a public hearing on the budget for May 2.

It was proposed to set the hearing on May 16 but City Attorney Healy pointed out that the Charter specifically provided that it had to be adopted after a public hearing on the first meeting in May.

The Commissioners tried to convince Healy that they needed more time but he referred to the Charter again and told them they would be in violation if they didn't hold the hearing and adopt the budget at the first May meeting.

With that warning hanging over their heads, the commissioners reluctantly agreed to

Vivian Announces Candidacy For Re-election to Congress

Plymouth was the political launching pad Monday for U.S. Rep. Weston E. Vivian, as he announced here that he would be a candidate for re-election to the U.S. Congress.

The space-minded PHD (the only PHD in Congress) who is on the Science and Astronautics Committee in the U. S. House of Representatives gave his campaign a substantial boost with a five hour tour of the Second Congressional District.

Accompanied by U.S. Senator Philip A. Hart and National Committeeman Neil Staehler, Vivian addressed county Democratic meetings in Lenawee, Livingston, Monroe, Washtenaw and the Second District portion of Wayne County.

Vivian said, "In the past two years, I have learned much about the people of this District — their problems, their hopes, their fears, their needs, their thoughts on many subjects.

"During my campaign, I said that I would support health care for the elderly; increased aid to education; action toward the abatement of pollution; conservation of our natural resources; reform of our immigration laws; and a cold war G.I. bill.

"The 89th Congress has enacted legislation in these fields — legislation designed to enhance and extend prosperity, to more fully realize justice, to assure our security and the security of our children in a tempestuous world."

Speaking of the present session of Congress, Vivian commented that "our greater concern this year is with the consolidation of progress at home, the encouragement of progress abroad, and the pursuit of peace — in Southeast Asia, in Africa, in every troubled area of our globe."

Vivian said, "It has been my privilege not only to debate and vote on vital legislation but also to work with and for many of you on projects of great importance to your communities and to assist many individuals who have come to me for information, advice, and help.

"As you know, I have returned to Michigan on almost every weekend that the Con-

It's Official! Government Units Meet

The Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, through the efforts of President Carl Pursell, Vice President John Kamgo, Secretary William Harding, Treasurer Harvey Ziel and consultants Dr. Ralph Barber and Sam Hudson, has accomplished the near impossible.

It has arranged a meeting between the Canton and Plymouth Township Boards, the City of Plymouth Commission, the School Board and Northville and Northville Township, for a meeting to discuss possible avenues of co-operation.

The groups will meet Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. in the Thunderbird Inn to go over many of the points brought out in the recent Leadership Conference at Hillsdale College.

Dr. Howard McCluskey, of the University of Michigan, who served as moderator at the Conference, will serve as moderator at this meeting.

In meetings Monday, the entire Plymouth Township Board and the complete City Commission agreed to attend.

Twp. Board Approves Rezoning for Offices

Builder and Developer Richard Fritz has approval of the Plymouth Township Board for professional office zoning for his proposed building near the intersection of Schoolcraft and Five Mile Roads.

The approval came on a motion by Trustee Ralph Garber, supported by Trustee Louis Norman, that the Board okay rezoning for a professional office building.

Inasmuch as there is considerable conjecture over the route of the proposed highway, which could follow Schoolcraft Road and thus cut a big chunk from the Fritz property or which could follow Schoolcraft to Wilcox and then swing down Wilcox for a short distance and then go across a section of the Lakepointe subdivision, the Trustees had been reluctant to act on the matter.

Fritz told the Board he didn't think the highway would go through his property and was willing to take the gamble—he also is willing to risk waiting for an indefinite period before sewers are available.

Other actions the Board: Tabled a request from the proposed Wesleyan Methodist Church, to be located at the intersection of Bradner and Five Mile Roads, for a tap into the sewer system, pending a new request from the church officials at a later date.

Approved a request from Fred Greenspan Building Co. for an extension of approval of preliminary plat plans for subdivision No. 9 to six months after date of original approval.

Received and filed a communication from Attorney Earl Demel in regard to the Township of Plymouth versus James Thomson, enclosing a copy of the court record which concludes the appeal taken to the Court of Appeals by the defendant.

Would Eliminate All Lines to Livonia; Cut Off Plymouth

Court Ruling Threatens DSR Service Throughout Area

DSR bus services to Livonia, Plymouth, Farmington, Garden City, Nankin Township, Wayne and to all of the giant shopping centers in the area covered by the Observer Newspaper Group could be cut off if an opinion handed down by the State Court of Appeals is allowed to stand. The 2-1 ruling by the Appeals Court upset an earlier decision by Wayne Circuit Court Judge

Neal Fitzgerald who had ruled that the DSR was entitled to provide service at Seven Mile and Middlebelt Roads to the Livonia Mall. However, the Appeals Court decision ruled that inasmuch as Detroit and Livonia don't touch, then the DSR can't run buses to Livonia and thus to any of the other shopping centers. These include Livonia

Mall, Wonderland Shopping Center and the Westland Center. The question hinges on definitions of the words "adjacent and adjoining" as they are used in the home rule charter act. A provision of the act allows charter cities, owning bus lines, to extend service 10 miles beyond their boundaries into suburbs that are "adjacent and adjoining." Northville Coach Lines, Inc. sued Detroit and the DSR in 1964 when the city extended its bus line to the Livonia Mall, which had just opened then. The line ran through Dearborn, Dearborn Heights and Garden City along Middlebelt Road as well as from downtown Detroit up Grand River and down Seven Mile Road to Middlebelt. Northville Coach Lines, which also has service in the area, charged that it was subject to the Michigan Public Service Commission and any further bus traffic in the area also should be regulated by the PSC. Thus it inferred that the DSR should have a permit from the PSC to operate through the area.

However, the DSR, because it is city owned, escapes PSC supervision. Judge Fitzgerald dismissed the complaint against the DSR and Northville took the case to the Appeals Court. Lawyers for Northville contended that the "adjacent and adjoining" clause as written in the law by the Legislature meant one and the same thing.

In the Appeals Court decision, Judge John Gillis and Chief Judge T. John Lesinski joined in determining that Fitzgerald was wrong. The dissenting opinion was from Judge John Fitzgerald, no relation to the Circuit Judge. Manuel Zeckman, general counsel for the DSR, contends that the Appeals Court erred in its definition of "adjacent and adjoining" and plans to go before the State Supreme Court next Tuesday for a stay preceding hearing on an appeal. "We believe the Appeals Court erred in its decision," he said. "We will take the stay order to the Supreme Court next Tuesday with the hopes that it will be granted so that the areas involved will not be deprived of service."

"However, if we are unable to get our case before the Supreme Court by next Tuesday, which we believe we will, then the Appeals Court decision will mean that the DSR would have to halt all services to the area until the matter is resolved."

Although Livonia is the only community mentioned in the case, this decision has effects on all DSR bus lines from Taylor through Farmington Township.

"It would mean that we would have to halt all service at Inkster Road in Redford Township to Livonia and Farmington and that we would be unable to serve any of the three large shopping centers. It would also mean that we would have to drop the present line that extends along Middlebelt Road from Garden City to the northern boundary of Livonia."

City officials in all communities involved are watching the developments very closely and have indicated they will join in the suit if the DSR has trouble getting a stay from the Supreme Court.

In Plymouth, the DSR has 32 trips daily—the same buses go through Livonia and Redford Township and involve workers at all of the large industrial plants in all three communities. For Livonia, it would mean that service would be halted on Seven Mile, Six Mile, Five Mile, Schoolcraft, Plymouth, and Joy Road. It would have similar effect on Garden City and Nankin and to Farmington and Farmington Township.

The Plymouth Township office is the 69th branch. Groundbreaking is expected to take place in early summer.

Burton Hollow Woods Residents to Tour Stevenson High School

There will be a meeting of the Burton Hollow Woods Civic Association on Thursday, April 21, at 7:30 p.m. at the Adlai Stevenson High School, 33500 Six Mile Road. One of the features of the meeting will be an escorted tour.

Schoolcraft to Hold First Graduation May 1

Dr. Eric J. Bradner, President of Schoolcraft College, has announced that the college will hold its commencement on Sunday, May 1, on the College Mall.

The academic procession will begin promptly at 3 p.m. Dr. William E. Storton, Vice President of the University of Michigan and Director of the Dearborn campus, will be the principal speaker.

According to Dr. Bradner, approximately 60 students will receive either an Associate Degree or a Certificate of Program Completion.

Following the commencement exercises, the Board of Trustees, the Administration and the Faculty will hold a reception for the graduates and their families in the temporary Campus Center.

The musical portion of the program will be under the supervision of Wayne Dunlap, Head of the Music Department of Schoolcraft College.

The public is invited to attend.

Livonia, College Unable to Resolve Snarl

No Decision Over Freeway Route

The Schoolcraft College Board of Trustees and Livonia Mayor Harvey Moelke and members of the Livonia City Council are just as far apart on the proposed route of a segment of I-96 as they were prior to a meeting last week in the Mayor's office.

Moelke and the Council are adamant that the route should go across Haggerty Road, crossing the front side of the college campus; the Trustees are just as firm that they will not give up that portion of their campus for a freeway.

Moelke and his group absolutely refuse to consider a route that would skirt the eastern boundary of the college property on the grounds that it would separate a section of Livonia from the remainder of the city. They point out that the land involved has been earmarked for a development of custom homes in the higher price range.

The college favors the eastern route on the basis that even though it would take a part of their campus, it would not interfere with plans for the development of Haggerty Road side of the property where at least one and possibly two buildings have been planned.

The Trustees also take a dim look at the thought that the Haggerty Road freeway proposal would eliminate the faculty parking lot, take a big slice of the northern student lot and also make a big dent in the proposed southern student parking lot which is on the planning board but hasn't been completed as yet.

Mayor Moelke called last week's meeting with representatives of the College, the Highway Department and the City Council to try and resolve the differences.

The City was represented by the Mayor and most of the Council, the College by Board President Harold Fischer, College President Dr. Eric Bradner and Trustee Sam Hudson and the Highway Department by Henrik Stafseth, deputy state highway director.

Little came out of the session at which both groups stood firm on their original stands.

However, Stafseth indicated he still hoped some agreement could be reached.

"Failure to reach agreement on routing of the stretch between Schoolcraft and Eight Mile Road is the only thing blocking completion of I-275 around Detroit," Stafseth said.

The State Highway Department has proposed that the segment veer east from Haggerty, Livonia's western border at Five Mile and return to Haggerty at Eight Mile Road with an interchange at Seven Mile.

Mayor Moelke presented a plan that would have the freeway go along Haggerty Road with entrances and exits from service roads on each side of the College Campus and exits at Six and Seven Mile Roads.

The College has opposed the Moelke and City of Livonia plan on the basis that it would create an access problem for students and would run between the college and Hawthorne Center at Seven Mile Road.

Both the City and College Board have veto rights in the routing of the proposed highway.

Actually there are three proposed routes. In addition to the two mentioned above, there is a route that would veer from Five Mile Road to Newburg and follow that road north and then swerve back to join Eight Mile Road at Haggerty.

This route has been given slight consideration by the Council and hasn't figured at all in the snarl between the College and the City of Livonia.

Stafseth told the groups that the Livonia proposal along Haggerty Road would cost $12.8 million whereas that along the easterly boundary of the college would cost only $6.3 million.

He indicated on the basis of cost that the Highway Department favored the easterly route. The Livonia City Council officially passed a resolution backing the Haggerty Road route in its meeting on April 13.

The resolution, after officially advising the Highway Department of its decision, states:

"The Council does hereby state that it is its understanding that the proposed construction of the I-96 highway along the Haggerty Road route would be in a manner to provide at least a distance of 143 feet from the edge of the right-of-way to the nearest building presently constructed on the campus of Schoolcraft College, the Administration building and that the Pupils Given Drafting Try

Eleven Franklin High School students were among 25 students honored recently at the 12th annual contest banquet of the American Society of Body Engineers, announced Robert Zang and David Gilles, instructors in drafting at Franklin.

The contest was sponsored by the educational division of the society to cultivate a greater interest in automotive body drafting careers.

This year the problem was to make a drawing that would duplicate a plastic bracket currently used on the tailgate of a Jeep.

At the banquet each student was presented with a certificate of merit, a cash prize and a complete set of drafting instruments.

Winners of the contest were Eddie Tate, Stephen Haddon, Mark Chard, Al Daum, Chris Pekarek, Tony Hatkow, John Petrillo, Chuck Shulteis, James Monkiewicz, Robert Seymour and Gary Rogalski.

Redford Toastmistress Club Celebrates Tenth Anniversary

Redford Toastmistress Club observed 10 years of success at Botsford Inn in Farmington.

Mrs. Elizabeth White, club president, introduced Mrs. Lillian Baxter, who was president of the Redford Women's Club 10 years ago when it sponsored and founded the Toastmistresses.

Mrs. Laura Reid, current president of the Redford Women's Club was another honored guest.

Club members from Dearborn attended, including President Mrs. Neva Cobelli.

The program was dedicated to the founders of the Redford Toastmistresses and "to all fellow toastmistresses who saw in their own needs the lack in the lives of others, and who by sharing their dreams and realizations in training in speech and leadership have increased and enriched women's participation in a democratic civilization, projecting the possibilities of a fuller tomorrow."

The club's motto, "To love our language and use it with grace and facility," was cleverly developed by those providing the program.

Fast relief of Tension and Arthritic and Muscular Pain

Beautifies complexion by completely cleansing pores

The history of heat baths is centuries old. To hardy Scandinavians, Turks and many other nationalities, steam baths, have been an important part of life. They learned their baths were the best way to thoroughly cleanse the body, contribute to improved health, a wonderful complexion, easing of tensions, and a general feeling of vigor and vitality. The popularity of heat baths has increased rapidly in America as evidenced by the number of commercial baths, facilities in private clubs, and health and figurine salon installations. CAPITAL STEAM CABINET has been developed to bring you all the benefits of a heat bath in the privacy of your home at a fraction of the cost of non-portable installations. Your first experience in a STEAM CABINET will tell you the full story far better than mere words.

ATTENDING THE PLYMOUTH branch of Womens National Farm and Garden Association Tri-City Club Luncheon were Mrs. Edwin Schrader, Mrs. A. D. Johanson, and Mrs. Sterling Eaton.

Garden Through The Ages

Plymouth branch of Womens National Farm and Garden Association hosted a Tri City Club Luncheon on Tuesday. Ladies from Plymouth, Northville, and Rosedale Garden branches turned out in fashions of the day; with spring bonnets of every size and shape.

Mrs. J. B. Kinahan from Livonia wore a daisy covered chapeau setting off her smart black dress; Mrs. Lola Alexander from Northville was wearing a white flowered number and Mrs. Harry Geighy, guest of Mrs. Isabell Schroeder from Plymouth was attired in a moss green silk suit. One could not help notice Mrs. James Starr with a large brimmed sheer black number.

Centering each table an attractive milk glass dish containing hand rolled satin rose buds became the gift of a lucky lady at each table.

Mrs. George Rowland handled the introductions of officers and guest speaker, Robert Iglehart from the art department of the University of Michigan.

Professor Eglehart discussed the beginning of gardens from the primitive day, through the Roman era, the Renaissance, the 18th century and up through the well planned gardens of today.

The tie-in of art, music and flowers by close comparison was defined. "The beauty of the nation rests with groups such as this," quoted Iglehart; the sudden burst of population will bring a great change in the next 40 years. Union of home and garden in limited space will be a challenge!

Women attending today will be seen with hoe in hand and garden gloves producing beauty spots for their communities.

Our Queen of Hearts Sees Fabulous Easter Parade in New York City

BY FAITH GILLESPIE

On Easter Day in New York City, an ancient tribal ritual is observed. Since I happened to be there, I observed the observance for the Observer. It is known as the Easter Parade.

What happens is that barricades are set up along Fifth avenue, starting just south of Central Park. Traffic is abolished, policemen are in attendance, and all day long the natives and their visitors, in festive attire, produce a spontaneous demonstration.

There are not just a few people strolling here and there in their Easter finery, window shopping on their way home from church. No indeed. There are crowds, throngs, hordes of people, swarming, packing the sidewalks and street, teeming.

There is no traffic pattern. Everyone ambles aimlessly, it seems, laughing and talking and looking at one another. Up and down the avenue they go, as far as the eye can see.

There were men in flashy sport coats and in morning clothes, dressed to be looked at, with top hats and homburgs and flowers in buttonholes.

There were clusters of young teens in fancy hats and brightly colored hose. There were women in furs and girls in slacks, and there were sweatshirted bunnies, bearded and beardless.

There were go-go boots and cowboy boots and motorcycle boots, with costumes to match. There were dogs with little sweaters in the colors of their owners' coats. There was a couple in greeny-old turn-of-the-century clothing, with a cheetah on a leash.

There were citizens of foreign countries, and whole families in nearly identical outfits, and little children in bunny suits, inviting photographs. Everywhere people were taking pictures of people taking pictures.

A popular subject for picture-taking was an extraordinary hat, a hat among hats, that looked like an Easter egg mobile. An enormous daffodil hat drew notice, and a great poppy . . . the variety of hats seemed limitless.

Sometimes the police brought things to a halt to allow cross town traffic through. In other places, the parade slowed down for minor side demonstrations: an anti-war group kept getting lost in the crush, and a shouting evangelist in clerical collar and top hat attracted a few people by waving a Bible in one hand and a large American flag in the other.

The crowd was so dense in spots that it was difficult to move. I heard a gray-haired man in striped trousers say to two ladies with him (wife and mother-in-law?), "You walk on ahead, and I'll keep in touch."

As long as you stand on the corner and just watch, you can be above it all, but when you submit to the irresistible urge to start walking, your position of superiority is gone and you become part of the Rite.

That is what it is, the Rite of Spring. I don't know why the people do it. It may be because spring is welcomed and the day is fine and it is fun to see your neighbors, whether you know them or not.

It may be because we all have deep in us some primal urges that emerge at this time of year, and that is how the cliff-dwellers of Manhattan express theirs.

The best money can buy is no qualification to look for when selecting public officials.

April Is Cancer Control Month By Presidential Proclamation

The Crusade Chairman in communities of Livonia, Garden City, Wayne, Inkster, Belleville, Romulus and Taylor announced they will launch their attack against cancer Tuesday, April 26.

April is Cancer Control Month by Presidential proclamation. Much effort has been put into planning, organization and training of volunteers for what is expected to be the American Cancer Society's most successful Crusade.

The keynote of the educational part of the Crusade will be early detection and prompt treatment. The fund-raising aspect will emphasize the need for more funds for research, education and service.

Education and service could now save one out of two instead of the present one out of three cancer patients. Only future research can save half of those who now develop cancer. Yet each year the Society has to turn its back on research projects approved by various committees of the Society for lack of funds.

The recent cancer transplant projects at Wayne State that gained national recognition last week is an excellent example of the research programs conducted by the American Cancer Society.

The chairmen are: Mrs. Murray Cohen, 18115 Middlebelt and Mrs. Richard Marshall, 14021 Mayfield, Livonia; Mrs. Edwin Isaacson, 33235 Henne-pin, Garden City; Mrs. Louise Pollack, 33751 Forrest, Wayne; Mrs. Joseph Ryan, 214 Bert Lane, Inkster; Mrs. Charles Bole, 15545 Martinsville, Belleville; Mrs. Junior Block, 15099 Middlebelt, Romulus; and Mrs. John Schaefer, 6005 Banner, Taylor.

YOUNG LADY VIEWING the clown is Cheryl Gasior, of Centerbury Commons, Farmington. These paintings are being taken for viewing on the Carol Duvall "Living" television show to appear on April 27.

Farmington Artists To Exhibit Choice Paintings, Sculpture, April 29, 30

Farmington Artists Club announce a new exhibit and sale on Friday, April 29 from 11 a.m. until 9:30 p.m. and on Saturday, April 30 from 11 a.m. until 9:30 p.m.

Many paintings consisting of oils, watercolors, acrylics, and tempera will be framed and ready for hanging for the happy purchaser. This exhibit will have sculptured pieces done by Karl A. Sjogran.

John P. Glick, a well known potter in this area, and a teacher at the Birmingham Art Association will have a display of his "Functional Stoneware." Glick has a master's degree of fine arts, and has studied at Wayne State University.

The location of the sale is 22725 Orchard Lake Rd., in the First Farmington Savings and Loan Bank in Farmington.

Hill and Dale Brings Spring To SpecialTots

Even though Spring wasn't in town for the average person it was very obvious in the Special Education Department classes in the Farmington area when the 125 children made Mari-Poppins Spring Bonnets, under the help and guidance of the Hill and Dale Garden Therapy Group.

These children transformed such ordinary household items as empty tuna fish cans, shirt cardboards, scraps of wall-paper, ribbon, a little dirt and fresh, blooming Marigold Plants (hence the name, Mari-Poppins) into beautiful bonnets.

The transformation occurred under the help and guidance of the Hill and Dale Garden Therapy Group April 6 with Mrs. Robert Orlans as Project Captain.

Therapy Group will strive to bring Spring into the classrooms no matter what the weather again on April 20 when they will guide the children in making Flower Arrangements using forced Forsythia branches. The Forsythia branches will be forced into bloom by the members of the garden club. Mrs. John King will be the Project Captain.

Our Queen of Hearts Makes Clear Her Own Recipe for Spring Cleaning

By Faith Gillespie

Look around, look around, spring is here.

The evidence is incontestable. Sacks of lawn food are stacked in the garage, with bags of doom to crabgrass. The robins are here again. The crocuses have given way to daffodils and hyacinths, and the forsythia is gloriously golden.

If I needed further assurance, my boys have suddenly, outrageously, thoughtlessly outgrown their school pants. They do it every year, to my amazement and annoyance, and this announces spring to me more surely than the balmy breezes.

There are other proofs, and one of the best is the spring garden variety of cottage cheese. Look for it when you shop this week. It is delicious atop canned pear halves, nestled in crispy lettuce leaves, and sprinkled with paprika or garnished with creamy French dressing.

If you feel adventurous, shake a few celery seeds over the cottage cheese, or even a little dill, seed or weed. Be sure to chill the pears beforehand for the best flavor.

While we are on the subject of the season, let us examine the honorable old American tradition pleasantly called Spring Cleaning.

I shudder at the term, which masks all sorts of non pleasant activities, like digging out closets, and taking down the draperies, and giving fresh water to the guppies. (My goodness, where did all those teeny guppies come from, all of a sudden?)

I think the whole problem began back in the early days of civilization when there were pot-bellied stoves or coal furnaces, and no vacuum cleaners. By the time winter was over, that whole house had to be taken apart systematically from shed to sun porch, and the accumulation of dust and grime had to be gotten rid of somehow.

Fresh air was let in, undoubtedly. But the feather dusters, rag mops, brooms and beaters and all, just rearranged the dust, and how far ahead were they, actually?

Today, with our relatively dust-free central heating and all the mechanical cleaning apparatus, I venture to suggest that our houses are really cleaner year round than Grandma's ever was after she had slaved, scrubbing the walls practically paintless and nearly pounding the color out of the oriental rugs. We have discarded her equipment, but we cling to her habit.

If you haven't already guessed it, I am admitting that I am lazy, so I don't believe in spring cleaning at all. There is one thing I do, however: I always clean out my coffee pot in the spring (and whenever else it needs it).

How is your coffee pot? Has your coffee been a bit muddy? Tastes bitter? Has it gotten just a little murky over the winter?

There are at least two excellent methods for refreshing your coffee pot. 1) Put in a slice of lemon and a quart of water and boil it for a few minutes, or if your pot is electric, let it go through its cycle. Then rinse thoroughly. 2) Use one tablespoon of baking soda with six to eight cups of water and follow the above procedure.

Get that coffee pot spring clean . . . you will notice the difference.

There is an old Chinese proverb that says, "With true friends, even water drunk together is sweet enough," and I quite agree; but I'll take a good cup of coffee any time.

Tickets Are Praised and Condemned

Complaints about the issuance of parking tickets had the attention of the City Commission during Monday's marathon session.

Mayor James Houk told the commission that he had several complaints from citizens that police officers were practically running to issue tickets once the red flag on meters popped up.

The Mayor didn't object to the tickets but said he thought perhaps the policemen were having a contest to see who was issuing the most tickets.

However, he discovered other members of the Commission weren't in sympathy with his stand.

"I feel if it is a violation and if the flag is up then the car should be ticketed," said Commissioner James Jabara. "After all that's why we have meters so that citizens can park for the allowed time and then if they stay longer, then they should be ticketed."

"I think we should complement the police department for a job well done," stated Commissioner George Lawton, pointing out that the department is issuing an average of 33 tickets daily.

Area Pupils Will Hear Detroit Symphony Quartet

(with Our Lady of Good Counsel) and at 2:15 a performance will be given at Farrand School.

On Tuesday, there will be a 10 a.m. performance at Junior High West and a 1:15 performance at Gallimore (with Geer School). The quartet will conclude its Plymouth visit with a 2:15 Tuesday performance at Smith School (with Lutheran Day School).

The Distaff Side...

By Jerry Wendt Women's Editor

She loves lettuce and carrots. She is gold, black and white. Her name is "Queenie." And most important, she is the focal point in capturing the attention of the preschool children at the Webster Preschool Child and Parent Education Center at West Grand Boulevard and Porter.

Mrs. Stanley Dolen, of Redford Township, who heads the center finds "Queenie," a guinea pig; an invaluable aid in teaching children nutrition, cleanliness and many other qualities essential for successful living.

Many people are trained to a job, some fall into it, and some people are born for it. Mrs. Dolen, we feel, is one of these latter people. She loves children and what is more important, genuinely understands them and the problems they encounter.

Her students are among what are commonly called the "underprivileged" and therefore have special problems in adapting to the schoolroom. We have come close to dispelling many wrong facts in this generation, and we feel one of the old ideas that is going by the board is that certain children are unable to learn. Mrs. Dolen feels that children are only unable to "communicate" and she helps them to overcome these difficulties.

"QUEENIE" PREPARES HER nutrition lesson for tomorrow. Mrs. Stanley Dolen, looks on approvingly as "Queenie" selects a carrot, lettuce and some raw cabbage. Mrs. Dolen heads the Webster Pre-school Child and Parent Education Center.

She first interests the child in "Queenie" and then gently points out how careful "Queenie" is of her diet. "See how she likes lettuce and carrots," she urges, and the child, forgetting her shyness watches in fascination. Then she tells them how Queenie likes a clean home. Various teams are appointed to keep her cage clean, and to keep her supplied with fresh water. Then she will ask the child, "What colors are Queenie's coat?" and the child who was formerly locked in a wall of loneliness will begin to count, "black, gold, etc."

Her children, are contrary to the overly aggressive child of today, problems in reticence and lack of initiative. Mrs. Dolen feels it is her duty to bring a certain amount of spontaneity into their life and begin the business of helping them adjust to society. She enlists the help of the parents and group activities are planned for all of them.

"More troublesome behavior springs from hunger" said Mrs. Dolen "then anything else." From this belief she organized the "snack" period in the morning and afternoon. A time when she and her "team" sit down with the children and enjoy crackers and milk, or cereal. Most of the children are insecure, and some of them don't even know their given names. She tries to make them feel proud and confident and give them a sense of importance.

How well she has succeeded was illustrated in some films she had taken of their Easter party. Her husband of whom she says, "I couldn't do a thing without his aid" obligingly showed us the slides (Stanley Dolen is chief training director for the Michigan Employment Security Commission).

We simply couldn't believe the bright-eyed happy children were the same ones who had in the beginning been such behavior problems. The Easter party was a high point in their lives and a community project. Hearing a neighboring kindergarten was having a party they asked Mrs. Dolen if they could have one. She agreed. The mothers saved cottage cheese cartons for the Easter baskets made in class.

On the appointed day, the children resplendent in hats and bow ties they had made themselves took a visit to the kindergarten. This also served the purpose to acquaint the children with the class they would enter in a year or so.

Mrs. Dolen's next project is a trip (with the mothers) to Oakland Hills Farms. Many of the children have never seen a farm and this will be a novelty for them.

We wish there was some way to impart to people how impressed we were with the value of Mrs. Dolen's ideas. Many of these children will be saved from "special education classes" or failure in the school room because of this pre-school attention to their problems. Once they are confronted with the routine of learning, without this preparation, they will be overcome. We feel hopeful that someday, this will be a part of every school program.

Western Wayne Resident Picked As Top Torch Drive Recruiter

For the past two years, Mrs. Gary Novak, 34551 Hively, Nankin, has worked as doorbell-ringer for the United Foundation Torch Drive. Last year she collected $11.72 from her neighbors.

This year Mrs. Novak will be campaigning again in the "Give Once for All" drive which starts Oct. 18 and runs through Nov. 10. Some of her neighbors give a dollar and some as little as 25 cents but, says Mrs. Novak, "They all want to give something, no matter how small."

Last year more than $25,000,000 was raised in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties to support more than 200 Torch Drive services.

Mrs. Novak is the mother of three boys; Glenn, 4; Gordon, 5; and Gary Jr. 6. She finds they keep her busy but do not interfere with her community services. Rather they help her.

Born in New York, she came to Detroit 10 years ago and was educated at Cody High School. Mrs. Novak worked as a secretary until she married and still works two days a week as a demonstrator for the J. L. Hudson Co. Her husband is a salesman for the Lipton Tea Co.

Besides caring for her children, Mrs. Novak is active in the Stottlemeyer School PTA. The Novaks both golf and are avid modern dance enthusiasts.

Because Mrs. Novak feels that her contribution in time and effort is of vital importance to the overall Torch Drive campaign, she has agreed to add her voice to recruit more door-to-door volunteers for the 1966 Torch Drive.

The United Foundation has selected her as one of five volunteers in the Metropolitan area who are representative of the thousands of workers, who call on their neighbors every year, bringing the message of the UF and its service directly into the homes.

Demel Files Suit

records of the Wayne County Register of Deeds shows title to the lots to be in persons other than Lorenz.

(Lorenz disputes this point stating that he has or is purchasing all lots under land contracts and then in truth he does own all but one to which he is making the final payment within another week.)

Brennan charges in the petition that Section 514 of the City Charter provides that notices of hearings shall be given by the City Clerk by first class mail to each owner of property abutting upon such streets proposed to be abandoned and that the plaintiffs say no notice of any kind was given to owners of the lots, specifically no notice was given to Plaintiff Magraw of the proposed action.

The petition states that a hearing was held on Feb. 21 at which only the petitioner and the owner of Lot 746 were heard. No other interested parties were present.

Following the hearing, the commission passed a resolution vacating the street.

The petition alleges that the abandonment deprives Plaintiff Magraw of access to her property, renders her property valueless and constitutes the taking of that property without due process of law in violation of the Constitution of the United States and the State of Michigan.

The petition states that the closing of said portion of Maple Street was predicated upon no public purpose whatsoever and said street was surrendered to private interests solely on the grounds of private benefits without consideration of public interests, present and future.

It alleges that the purpose of Petitioner Lorenz for the use of the land to be derived by the vacation of Maple Street was the construction of a hotel. Such a development would isolate the Demel property and its neighbors fronting on Ann Arbor Trail and leave no possibilities of ever obtaining off street parking facilities for these properties.

Thus, the petition alleges, the action constitutes a taking of the Demel property without due process of law in that it prohibits lawful development of and use of said property.

The petition also goes into the advertising of bids for lot 5 of the George Shafer subdivision which fronts on Ann Arbor Trail near Elizabeth Street.

Closed bids were taken on the property and Edwin Lees, acting for Demel, had the high bid of $5,100 compared to an offer of $4,100 by G. D. Snyder. Both agreed that the land would be used for offstreet parking.

The petition states that a motion was made by Commissioner McKeon and seconded by Commissioner Vallier that the bid of Snyder be accepted. A substitute motion, passed by a 5-3 vote, referred the sale to the parking committee of the city.

The petition charges that the chairman of the parking committee is Lorenz for whom the City Commission abandoned the portion of Maple Street.

Later the city commission withdrew Lot 5 from sale.

The petition says that at various meetings of the City Commission objections have been raised to Demel's use of the building without providing additional offstreet parking. Said Lot 5 would have provided ample parking for the Demel building. Demel was the high bidder and the city refused to sell him the property.

The petition charges that on information and belief that individual defendants members of City Commission, have conspired with Lorenz and others to transfer a portion of Maple Street for private gain to Lorenz without compensation and that such motion constitutes a fraudulent abuse of the discretion of the City Commission to vacate public rights-of-way to the detriment of Demel.

Lions Join White Cane Activities

By official proclamation, Governor George Romney has designated the week of April 24 through April 30, as White Cane Week. The purpose of White Cane Week is primarily an educational one so that all citizens will know and recognize the White Cane as the symbol of blindness.

The Plymouth Lions Club and over 400 other Lions Clubs throughout Michigan will team together during this one week which is set aside to acquaint the public with the state laws which have been adopted for the protection of the blind.

The White Cane calls for thoughtfulness, friendly appreciation and personal responsibility for the safety of the individual carrying it.

The Michigan Lions Clubs have furnished thousands of White Canes free of charge to blind people throughout the state as a measure of protection for them.

Although the primary program of the Lions Clubs is sight and sight conservation, the Plymouth Lions Club also participates actively in community projects.

These include civic affairs and human welfare and benefit programs, especially for physically handicapped and underprivileged persons, and for the youth of the community.

CLEANUP JOB backstage at the P&A Theatre is started by Kirk Lorenz (on ladder) and Daryl Scheans as they have the task of getting things ready for the Plymouth Theatre Guild's musical comedy.

Theatre Guild Plans A Musical Comedy

The Plymouth Theatre Guild has ambitious plans—to present the first musical comedy ever attempted by the group on the stage of the P&A Theatre, on Pennington Ave., on May 12, 13, 14 and 15 with a matinee on May 15.

The Guild has staged numerous dramas and comedies in recent years but this is believed to be the first time a Plymouth group has attempted a musical comedy.

The amateurs are working on "The Farmer's Daughter or No, No a Million Times No," a two act musical under the direction of Kingsley Page assisted by Ellen McNeice with Jerry French as producer.

gress has been in session. I have found that maintaining open lines of communication is not only productive but essential.

"I have asked for and received the views of thousands of individual citizens. I have made myself available to scores of groups and attended hundreds of meetings where public policies could be openly discussed and debated. And I have enjoyed the privilege of explaining the complex actions and purposes of our government to thoughtful audiences."

Vivian compared life as a Congressman to life as a scientist and businessman. Prior to his election to Congress in 1964, Vivian was a founder and Vice President of an electronics firm in Ann Arbor. "My work on the Science and Astronautics Committee has given me an opportunity to put my experience in the research and development field to good use," he said.

Vivian, who received a Ph.D. degree in Electrical Engineering from the University of Michigan, is the only Ph.D. scientist in either house of Congress.

Vivian concluded by saying, "I believe that I understand—and continue to give—the kind of representation which the residents of this District want in Washington."

"If I am fortunate enough to be renominated and elected to this office of highest trust and responsibility, I shall continue to do my utmost to serve all of the people whom I am elected to represent."

"I know the magnitude and the complexity of the tasks ahead. And so I ask that you lend me a measure of your faith and hope and strength—for I know that together we can meet the challenges before us."

The Plymouth gathering was in charge of District Dem. Chairman Robert Dwyer and Vice Chairman Orville Tungate.

C of C Lists Meeting On CBD Plans

A meeting expected to draw 100 interested citizens is scheduled for the Mayflower Meeting House at noon on Thursday, April 28, to discuss development of Plymouth's downtown area.

In issuing an invitation, Chamber of Commerce President Carl Pursell stressed the importance of the meeting and cordially invited businessmen to contact any parties that may hold public, financial or personal interest in the Central Business District.

In his letter urging attendance, Pursell said, "We have reached a point of no return. Today we have an excellent opportunity to cooperate with the City Officials and the Community of Plymouth in the development of the downtown area."

"I am asking you to participate because without you our future is lost."

He added, "We have asked City officials, namely, the Planning Commission and the Planning Consultants, to meet with the downtown businessmen to outline future plans of the Central Business District."

The Planning Consultants and Planning Commission want to meet you and hear your expressions and ideas concerning this proposed plan."

Council

The May 2 hearing—still complaining that it wasn't enough time to adequately study the proposed budget.

The City Manager told the Commission of an offer from the Presbyterian Church of $2,500 for the land vacated by the razing of Church Street water tower.

The matter was referred to the City Attorney for additional study to report back at the May 2 meeting.

The question of whether Oesle's Welding and Dura-Tainer Corp. have met all the requirements of the Urban Renewal Act in landscaping their properties came up when a group of 19 residents in the Mill Street area presented a petition protesting the lack of landscaping.

They charged that the Urban Renewal Rules have not been met in regard to landscaping, refuse and litter, parking facilities and adverse conditions in regard to sand and dust.

The City Manager reported that both firms had met requirements of the Urban Renewal Agency but that the administration was in the process of making a study to see if there were violations of the zoning ordinance.

"We have ordered Mr. Hinote to install a fence and put in a green belt within two weeks," he said, "If he doesn't follow the orders then we will see if there isn't a violation of the zoning ordinance."

Commissioner McKeon suggested that he thought the Commission should ask both Hinote and Dura-Tainer Corp. for the sketches of their landscaping plans and then follow through to see if they live up to the sketches."

In other actions: The Commission agreed to attend the Chamber of Commerce meeting on April 27 at the Thunderbird Inn at which the Boards of Canton, Plymouth and Northville Townships and the City of Northville Commission and the Board of Education will sit down to go over areas of co-operation.

Gave VFW Mayflower Post 6895 permission to hold the annual Memorial Day parade through the downtown business section.

Gave the Kiwanis Club permission to place a banner across Main Street advertising the spring pancake festival on May 7.

Tabled a study of CBD recommendations from the planning commission pending a joint meeting with the planning consultants, the planning board and the commission.

Tabled a resolution from the National Bank of Detroit for increased rates in handling bonds pending a report back at the next meeting.

Tabled a report and action on the Reid-Peterson parking lot pending receipt of additional information.

Tabled reconsideration of a request for taxi cab rate increases.

Tabled a survey and planning application for a proposed urban renewal project that would have involved expenditure of $100,000 in federal funds to consultants Villcan and Leman. The matter was tabled for additional information.

Granted permission to Engineer Hamill to go forward with plans to install five new sanitary sewer taps on Postiff Drive west of Lilley Road.

On recommendation of Engineer Hamill, approved the underground as constructed and inspected in Woodbrook subdivision No. 1 and approved hardback plat.

Granted permission to Fire Fighter James Gignac to attend the advance firemanship training class at the University of Michigan during the week of May 2. The request was made by Fire Capt. Barney Maas.

Approved a joint resolution between the City of Plymouth, the Township and the Plymouth Community School Board, requesting the Wayne County Road Commission to upgrade and widen Sheldon Road to a four-lane, class "A" Road between Ann Arbor Trail and Joy Road.

Approved a recommendation from Engineer Hamill for construction of a 16-inch water main on Five Mile Road from Sheldon Road east approximately 1600 feet to furnish service to St. John's Seminary. The project has an estimated cost of $30,552.

Denied a recommendation from Engineer Hamill for construction of a 12-inch water main on Ann Arbor Road from Rocker Ave. to Lilley Road. Hamill had estimated the cost at $29,750. A motion for approval by Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes failed to receive support.

Delay Decision On Contract for Machine Service

Acting on a recommendation of Supervisor John McEwen, the Plymouth Township Board tabled action on a contract for service on office machines for a period of one year submitted by Western Office Equipment Co., owned by Carl Pursell.

McEwen requested additional time for a study on the contract indicating he desired more information about charges in several areas.

Harrison Price Named Manager of Chevy Bumper Plant

Appointment of Harrison T. Price as manager of Chevrolet Motor Division's Spring & Bumper plant at Livonia was announced Monday by Linus J. Rausch, general manufacturing manager.

Price, who has been manager of the division's Manual Transmission plant at Saginaw, succeeds Thomas J. Carroll, who was named manager of manufacturing research and development for Chevrolet with headquarters at Central Office in Detroit.

Price joined Chevrolet as a student engineer in 1948 at the Detroit Gear & Axle plant. He was made a production foreman there in 1949, general foreman of production later that year, divisional superintendent of production in 1952 and was assigned to special labor relations projects in 1955.

He was promoted to general superintendent of production at the Saginaw Transmission plant in 1956 and was named operations manager at the Chevrolet-Cleveland Automatic Transmission plant in 1960. He was named manager of the Cleveland plant in 1961 before returning to Chevrolet-Saginaw Transmission in the same capacity.

At Saginaw, Price is a past president and currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Greater Saginaw Chamber of Commerce, a past president of the Greater Saginaw Safety Council, a past president of the Saginaw Exchange Club and a past chairman of the General Motors Saginaw Plant City Committee.

He is a member of the Board of Trustees of Saginaw Osteopathic Hospital and the Saginaw Valley College and is a vice president of Saginaw United Fund. He also is a member of the Board of Directors of the Saginaw Y.M.C.A. and the Downtown Improvement Corporation.

Price's memberships include the Saginaw Country Club, Germania Club, Pioneer Club, Saginaw Lodge 77, F.&A.M., Bay City Consistory and Elf Khura-fah Shrine Temple.

A native of Topeka, Kan., Price is a graduate of Harper High School at Chicago and received his bachelor's degree in engineering from Tri-State College at Angola, Ind. He was awarded his master's degree in industrial management from Massachusetts Institute of Technology after completion of studies as a Sloan Fellow.

During World War II Price was an Eighth Air Force fighter pilot in Europe. He left the Air Force with the rank of captain.

Carroll joined Chevrolet in 1949 as a college graduate in training at the division's Six-Cylinder Motor plant at Flint. Successive promotions there made him a junior electrical engineer in 1950, electrical engineer in 1951, maintenance foreman in 1952, superintendent of maintenance in 1954, superintendent of plant engineering in 1955 and production superintendent in 1956.

He moved to Chevrolet's Truck Body and Stamping plant at Indianapolis as production superintendent in 1957 and was promoted to general superintendent of production there the following year. He was elevated to manager of the Chevrolet-

Tonawanda Forge plant in 1962 and took the similar position at Chevrolet-Livonia in 1964. He is first vice president of the Livonia Chamber of Commerce, Chairman of the Livonia

General Motors Plant City Committee and vice president of the Sloan Fellowship Alumni Association.

Observer Readers Speak Up on Large Variety of Current Issues

Bills Dangerous

Editor: You and your readers should be informed of the possible effects of H. B. 2643 and S. B. 868, presently being considered by the Michigan House Committee on Towns and Counties and the Senate Committee on Municipalities.

H. B. 2643 would prohibit any local government from requiring a policeman to perform any functions ordinarily performed by a fireman, or a fireman from performing any functions ordinarily performed by a policeman.

S. B. 868 is the same, but apply only to local governments employing more than 10 men as policemen and firemen.

The policeman who carries an extinguisher in his car, arriving at the scene of a house fire, could peremptorily refuse to use a rescuator. The fireman assigned to a heart attack case could refuse a rescuator. The fireman, on duty about 100 days a year, could also refuse to assist in the maintenance of police records. He could also refuse to direct traffic around a fire scene, to prevent cars from ruining the fire hose which costs $1.50 a foot.

Whom could government require to use hydraulic rescue equipment after a building explodes?

The mayor and other elected officials on a city street, should the policeman on the scene have the authority to refuse to help you?

Policemen and firemen exist only to serve the people who pay their salaries. Should they be able to refuse to serve you in the manner directed by your local officials?

Should our state legislature tell you what you can require your life-and-death employees to do? Is Lansing the source of the money with which you pay your employees, or does the state get its money from you?

If you have any opinion on this matter, a phone call or post or post card to Representative James Tierney who serves on the House Towns and Counties Committee, would be appropriate.

GLENN S. LEONARD, Director Oak Park Department of Public Safety

No Line at Polls

Editor: Concerning John Bennett's recent charges against Redford Township's clerk, Mrs. Dawn Rice, I wish to say that I have worked on several elections and contrary to Mr. Bennett's allegations, at most times there were no line at the polls. In fact there were very few voters.

I believe that this reflects a lack of civic responsibility, NOT of our township officials but more of our citizens. Any person wishing to maintain a democracy should PERSONALLY assume the responsibility of registering and voting and knowing where it is done. Adequate facilities were and are available in Redford Township. I know they are, since I have both registered and filed a change of address easily, in a matter of minutes, with the helpful cooperation of Mrs. Rice's staff.

Waiting in line to register must have been the result of waiting till the last opportunity. Why should "waiting in line" to register or vote be such a hardship anyway? No one complains of "waiting in line" for auto licenses. With every right there is a responsibility . . . Anyone who does not register or vote has only himself to blame. Self-government has its obligations as well as its privileges.

JOYCE ROBERTS, Redford Township

Dissatisfied

Editor: How could you ever have backed Mrs. Joyner and Mr. Taddonio for School Board members. You now see the results of this act. They have watered down and ruined the Livonia schools. My neighbors and I moved to this city because we knew the schools were excellent.

We expected to pay high taxes for this. Now your candidates have wrecked the schools. If this tide does not change this is one family which will be happy to move out of this badly managed town with its petty maneuverings and its short-sighted Mayor and School Board.

Concerned Parent Livonia.

Thanks to Firemen

Editor: Please extend my gratitude to the Livonia Fire Department and Police Department for the prompt and caring service of the emergency squad to my mother, Mrs. Adeline Campbell. She became unconscious at the home where she was cared for. Unable to reach the doctor at once, we called the emergency number. They were there within two or three minutes and worked very hard over her with the resuscitator, got an ambulance and got her to St. Mary's Hospital before I was able to reach there by car.

Unfortunately, she did not survive this last attack, just a few days after her 83rd birthday.

It is comforting to recall that such a service is so kindly rendered. Mr. John Nelson administered this help. I thank him and the force most deeply.

MRS. JOYCE FOSTER Farmington

Appreciation

Editor: We would like to express our sincerest thanks to all of our friends, neighbors the Tyler School PTA, and the Livonia Chapter of B'nai B'rith for their kind assistance after our recent fire.

At a difficult time like this, the whole-hearted thoughtfulness of the community was a great moral support.

We cannot better express ourselves than to simply say "Thank You."

SAM AND LORRY GRUSKOFF Livonia

Against Integration

Editor: To all open minded residents of the City of Livonia and the Editor of this newspaper.

The membership of the Livonia Police Officers Association voted at a recent monthly meeting against becoming involved in the issue of Police and Fire integration or the issue of salaries within the Fire Department, however due to the increasing number of editorials and articles being published in this newspaper we feel we have to speak out on our behalf.

We are 100 per cent against integration of the two departments as we feel that duties and responsibilities are in no way related. As Police Officers we feel we have a full time job with full time responsibilities and it is a service necessary to the public welfare. We do not intend to undermine the Firemen in any way but we do feel each department should be evaluated on its own merits, further it is the responsibility of the city to see that employees are given an adequate salary in order to live with reasonable amount of dignity similar to the average resident he is forced to live with and provides Police service to.

The backers of the proposed integration have left many questions unanswered to both departments and to the residents of the city, ie: which type of runs receive priority, an armed robbery or a house fire with children trapped inside, an elderly resident suffering a heart attack or a serious injury accident, how will the work schedule be worked out to meet the needs of the residents, (last year residents voted and approved a 56 hour work week for the Firemen, the Police Department in a 40 hour work week). State law requires that a Fireman be given 24 hours off after answering and fighting a fire, this is to protect the lungs and health of the firefighter. We would like to conclude this letter by stating we are 100 per cent against integration of the two departments, we have no interest in Fire Department salaries and further investigation of the facts by your paper may be in line before commenting on these issues.

A Few Money Facts

Editor: IMPRESSIONS, by Sue Shaugnessy ran an article about the flag flying in an upside down position on the $10 currency bill. She erroneously called it "the coin of the realm." Currency is not coin.

This upside down flag story is an old, old one to coin and currency collectors.

From personal memory, I can only go back to the year 1938, when the Jefferson nickel was first issued. Then the story was — old Uncle Sammy made a mistake and left the flag OFF of Monticello, the home of Jefferson and therefore was calling them all back in!

Twenty-eight years have gone by and poor Uncle Sammy is still making a mistake! Now look in your pocket and pull out a Roosevelt dime. Under the truncation (neck to you amateurs!) if you look close you can see the initials of John Sinnock, the sculptor.

Here again our ever-present friends who see what they want to see, not what the facts are, said that this proves that Roosevelt is "buddy" of Joe Stalin (J.S.) and therefore the government is going to call them all back in! This began in 1948 and 18 years later we are still waiting for the government to call them in!

The next chapter jumps to 1959 when the Lincoln cent was redesigned on an side in honor of good old Abe's 150th birthday. In writing the monogram "United States of America" the letter "o" in the word "of" is smaller than all the other letters in the monogram.

Here again, despite the explanation of the designer, Frank Gasparro, who said that he purposely made the small "o" in question to "break the continuity of the design" was of no avail to the breed who will see only what they want to see. This must be a mistake, they say, and the government must simply call them in! Even though the same effect was used by designer Sinnock of the Franklin half-dollar in 1948 (and still waiting to be called back)!

Susie dear, the bureau of printing and engraving (the Treasury does not print the bills) did not make a mistake. The design on the back of our present $10 bill was first used in 1928, that's right! 38 years ago and although there have been slight die changes since then the flags in the scene have not been changed. With a good magnifying glass you can make out the dots (stars) in their proper upright position, and the bars (stripes) become very pronounced, also in their proper position.

There is one thing that you can be sure of and that is this: When Uncle Sam makes a mistake in printing or minting (making) of currency, stamps or coins that the hobbyists will pay fantastic prices for these "slips in the night." This rule has had only one exception in the history of our country when an error occurred in the Dag Hammarskjöld stamp. In this particular case the Postmaster General ordered a reprint of 5 million to counteract the "profit" motive and eventually the 5 million figure ended up by being over 50 million deliberately printed errors. Shortly thereafter, the Postmaster resigned amid all sorts of charges from the citizenry.

One more item about our Grand and Glorious Flag — did you know that — at one time in the history of our country, in a span of one year and one day, its citizens lived under three different flags? I wonder how many of my fellow Livonians know when this occurred?

JOHN MATIKA, Livonia.

'Save the Township'

Editor: The township form of government for Farmington Township, Oakland County, is presently under attack by township officials and some of their appointees. They would scuttle it — in favor of forming a home rule city. Last November they secretly prepared, circulated and filed a petition for incorporation of the Township, excluding the city of Farmington, as a home rule city. The filing fee was paid from township funds. The Township Board voted to employ a legal advisor on city incorporation, to be paid out of Township funds. The expenditure of Township funds for these purposes was, by an appropriate action, filed in the Oakland County Circuit Court by Mr. Raymond Felix, first restrained, then temporarily enjoined, and on March 21, 1966, was permanently enjoined.

The Township officials have apparently been planning for incorporation of our area into a home rule city for several months. In March, 1966, a group of Farmington residents, interested in preserving Farmington Township under the Township form of government, organized a Committee for the Preservation of Farmington Township under the Township form of government, organized a Committee for the Preservation of Farmington Township, Inc., as a Michigan non-profit corporation.

We believe it is our responsibility to bring the facts to the attention of our fellow residents of Farmington Township, so that they may see for themselves the pitfalls of incorporation. In the weeks between now and the June 6 election, our committee will strive to meet its responsibility by publicizing the facts so the people of Farmington Township will receive this information. In May, we intend to hold some public meetings.

Its charter was issued on March 8, 1966. The Committee and its members are making a careful study of the relevant facts on the issue of incorporation or non-incorporation of the proposed home rule city.

Letters Come to Us on Many Subjects

Answer to 'Taxpayer'

I would like to defend the teaching profession against the attack by "Heated Taxpayer" which appeared in your paper on Feb. 16. I think the rational citizens should be aware of this erroneous picture of the teaching profession as presented in his letter.

I am a rather typical teacher—neither more or less conscientious than most. I feel we are entitled to fair compensation for our services so that we might enjoy the same economic security as most skilled labor and white collar workers in the metropolitan area. After six years of experience I earn $6,000 a year. This amounts to $500 a month, not $1,000. If I were paid merely to be a baby sitter, as Taxpayer suggests teachers are, I would be earning about $150 per day if I got 50c per hour for each of my 35 students.

Taxpayer says teachers work four hours per day. Let me describe a typical week. I arrive in school at 8 a.m. in order to prepare for my classes. The children arrive at 8:35 and I stay with them until lunch at 11:30 (There are no coffee breaks, Taxpayer. Even if a teacher leaves the room to use the lavatory, according to law she is still liable for any accidents that occur while she is absent. Do you have time to use the bathroom during your working day, Taxpayer? Do you know that there is a high incidence of bladder disorders among members of the teaching profession? Ask most any doctor.)

I have one hour for lunch. One day a week I have a meeting during this free time to discuss improvement of the curriculum with other teachers. I frequently use much of my lunch hour to correct papers, complete written records and prepare for the many lessons that are necessary for good teaching. Do you work on your lunch hour, Taxpayer? My class comes back at 12:30 and we work together until 3:25. (I still haven't gotten to that lovely smoking room you mention. In fact, I haven't even found it. If you are referring to our Teachers' Room, we sit on metal folding chairs if we are lucky enough to get there first at lunch because there aren't enough chairs to accommodate the entire staff.)

After I dismiss my youngsters, I lounge around doing things like arranging free dental care for the boy who has had an abscessed tooth for a week and can't afford a visit to the dentist, or attending a faculty meeting until 4:30 or 5:00, or contacting the visiting teacher about how I can help that mentally disturbed child who is beaten at home. You might also find me leisurely working on the school science fair, setting up displays for an art show, attending a committee meeting on reading. Sometimes I loaf around giving extra tutoring to that little girl that just can't understand the work.

One night a week I do sneak out early—so I can get to a 4:30 semester I studied teaching to 6:30 night school class. Last the mentally handicapped in modern math and this semester I'm trying to find a way to help the regular classroom.

A night seldom goes by, Taxpayer, that I don't spend some time correcting papers. That sort of eliminates the part-time job you suggest to supplement my income. The time I spend in school amounts to six hours a day at the very minimum and I don't count the extra hours at home.

Of course, I do have the summers. Last summer for example, I attended summer school for six weeks learning new methods of teaching reading and art. That left two full weeks of vacation if you don't count the time I spent reorganizing my teaching materials file.

And do you know something? I still can't think of the children I teach as monsters the way you refer to them, Taxpayer. Some of the parents fit this description more accurately with you at the head of the list.

Least you think I am writing this for some kind of public recognition, I ask that my name be withheld from publication.

TYPICAL TEACHER

Ideas For Cost Cuts

To put a stop to the many, unnecessary, expensive, school and city, state and Federal elections each year. All elective positions and proposals should be brought before the public only once a year, at the same time. This alone could save the overburdened taxpayers quite a tidy sum. All official positions should be made effective for the public to do the selecting rather than some politicians handing out rewards to their friends.

We should make all high schools to the same blue prints and specifications, same with other schools. Eliminate conservatories, etc. and concentrate on class rooms. Livonia consists of all level ground so one plan shouldn't be too impossible.

I feel we should cut down on the tremendous amount of vacation time in the year and give the children 11 months of teaching instead of about eight and a half. As it is the students barely get four hours a day of real teaching, even though they are gone from home most of the day.

Our school board is not using the facilities we have now to the fullest extent, yet they have the gall to threaten the taxpayer if they do not get what they want.

Why not send half of the children to school for four hours of honest teaching in the morning and the other half for four hours of the same in the afternoon? This would automatically do away with the need for cafeterias and supplies and personnel. More education for the children and less money from the taxpayers' pocket.

We should stop building more classrooms and then filling them up with outsiders. Change the school boundaries or the city boundaries.

Everyone seems to be so physical education minded why not eliminate the buses, drivers, maintenance costs, and let the kids walk. This plus all the recesses they now get should keep them fit.

Here is a good place to help educate our children. Let the school board divide the administration duties among themselves and get rid of that expensive figurehead of a Superintendent that costs us $25,000 each year. How many teachers could we hire for that kind of money? If he is really important then we could get rid of the school board.

Reduce the number of extraneous activities that now go on in our schools, like gun classes, adult education in upholstery, etc. Concentrate our time and money on the little ones.

With the type of seniority system the teachers have in Michigan they can job jump anytime they feel like it, if the school board doesn't come across with a fat raise every year. When is this going to stop?

If all the church properties in Livonia were taxed equally with the homeowners and industry it sure would lighten everyone's load.

If there are legal reasons why some of these things can't be done, then we should get some officials in office who can change the laws.

A final word to the school board, there is no reason why you should not have to live within the income you now get from the abused taxpayers. Sure your enrollment increases yearly, but do like any family does when they have an addition, economize where possible: not hold their hand and threaten either give or else.

I believe in education, but I also believe in getting value for my money, and we are not at present.

More on Schools

Editor:

I agree with the taxpayers who have had the gumption to up and say what they think about the tax situation in this city of Livonia and I say Bah, Humburg to the school board, the Mayor and everyone else who wants to up the taxes to the point of no return. Don't try and scare us into voting by saying this will be cut out and that will be cut out, so go ahead and cut, cut, cut.

I, for one, am glad the last bond issue was voted down and when the blasted parks issue comes up again, I'm voting against it. If we have to pay such high taxes, then the place to enjoy is your yard and not some park where everyone but Livonians could enjoy it. We need a new high school like a hole in the head, sure, a plain two story building with a basement and no frills like glass and marble. Yes, we do pamper the kids, so let some of them walk and get a little exercise which they don't get very much of anyway. So I will say I will not vote for any more increases and do not intend to vote for same. It would be nice if every time they wanted an increase we would get an increase in the old paycheck, but we are average citizens trying to exist and I'm going to vote against everything that is going to make my living conditions a little bit worse, and put more of a strain on my budget.

Last year I had the good fortune to write a letter to this paper almost about the same things: taxes, etc., and received a few phone calls from the Mayor's Beautifying Committee trying to pacify me with a lot of nonsense, also a call from the tax assessor who didn't and wouldn't answer my questions.

So, I will ask the same question again, how come the assessment was raised on, my house this year and where can I find out why and who to complain to. No improvements have been made since we bought it three years ago, no additions or extras have been added. I was one of the lucky ones who went to City Hall this past New Year's Eve day and paid the taxes so I could take the deduction on our income tax. It seems that if they have all year to complain in Lansing about taxes they could at least get the bills out on time to the citizens who want to have that little bit deducted from their income tax. But no, they give you the old runaround at City Hall and put the blame on everyone else.

Pacify the big businesses and the heck with our regular citizens. Well, I say, people, stick to your guns and vote No. They will soon come down with something and give us people a break. What is so wonderful about being one of the highest taxed cities in the state when we haven't got anything to show for it?

MRS. BETTE ROBINSON
Livonia

P.S.—I'm still waiting for two garbage cans that were supposed to be replaced last year, according to Mrs. McKeown.

I will welcome all phone calls. Probably two of the things that irk me the worst are the 1 1/2 mills levied on us for construction bonds without a vote by the people, for Schoolcraft College. Don't they get enough of our taxes and the extra millage levied on us, also without our vote for advertising purposes. Now really, is that taxation without representation or voting on it. Well, I say I won't vote for any more taxes.

Ed Note: You may check your assessment with the City Treasurer's office, Livonia City Hall.

Candidate's Statement

Editor: Now that the Livonia election is history I would appreciate your accepting a statement from one of the defeated candidates in the Council race.

This was my first attempt to secure an elective office so I want to express my sincere appreciation for the 7,115 votes cast in my behalf.

I also wish to thank the many organizations who expressed confidence in me, including the support of the Livonian Observer.

Most of all, I feel I have gained much as a person by meeting hundreds of new friends at the many Civic Association meetings, coffee meetings in homes, and at programs sponsored by interested groups of Livonia Citizens.

It is a tribute to Livonia that men of the calibre noted would run for all of the elective positions in this city. I am proud to have been among them during both Primary and Final campaigns.

DON POLLOCK

Thanks for Support

Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Observer staff and all the wonderful people of Farmington for the kind expressions of Good Luck during my week in Mobile. This support was greatly appreciated and my only regret is that I couldn't have returned to Farmington with a little more to merit such confidence.

Many thanks to everyone.

Sincerely,

"MICHIGAN'S JUNIOR MISS"

BONNIE BRITTON.

Against Horse Play

Editor:

The taxpayers of Garden City nominate and elect Johnny Come Latels. Who! appoint more John Come Latels. Who! are quite unfamiliar with the local needs and who are told by outside interests they have a job. Do as we say or you do not have a job.

The headlines in the local and metropolitan papers prove that Garden City has sank to a point below the laws of gravity under this kind of management.

Time to stop the horse play.

Livonians Can Afford

Editor:

It seems to me that the citizens of America, and of Livonia in particular, have only two choices concerning the education of our youth. First, we can pay for what we use ourselves; or, second, we can arrange for others to help pay the total cost.

W. W. Edgar "brainstormed" that the first choice might be best. That is, charge for tuition for those who send their children to school. Last year Livonia spent $331 education each child, and that does not include building the school. The average family paid $255 of this in taxes and the balance came from state and federal aid.

Statistics show the average Livonia family has 2.8 children (let's just say 3 for simplicity). Therefore, under Mr. Edgar's plan, an average family would pay $765 to educate their three children. But, since Mr. Edgar would do away with all taxes except those for building, the family would have to take over the taxes which industry now pays, and therefore the education bill per family would be much higher than $765.

Personally, I don't think this is what Livonia citizens want to do since it would more than quadruple what they are paying now. Of course all the businesses and people with no children in school (like Mr. Edgar) would love such a plan.

It would mean they would pay only the present $57 for building schools and nothing for operating them (tuition). This would cut their taxes to about one-fourth of the present.

It has been the philosophy of America that we all share in the cost of education since we all benefit from the results of education. Thomas Jefferson said, "A nation cannot be both ignorant and free." We must all work and pay for the best possible education for all Americans.

So we have found a way, unfair as it may be to some, of raising money by property taxes. This is the only way a local board of education can raise the money it needs. If we don't like this way, then it is not the board of education we must complain to, but the state legislators who have made such a law.

I hope all those who voted against paying for the schools themselves, will now write to Representative Marvin Stemp-ien and Senator Farrell Roberts in Lansing and tell them that our state needs a complete fiscal reform and a more equitable way of financing our most cherished institution, the school.

Since the legislature is not likely to act unless pushed by the individual citizens, we must continue to operate our schools ourselves. The general idea the "We can't afford any more taxes" is ridiculous. The people of the richest county in the world can buy what they want, of greater value than anything else that money can buy.

Livonia's per family income, I understand, is over $10,000 a year. This is one of the highest in the state and is, incidentally, about $4,000 more than the average Livonia teacher's salary. Yes, Livonians are highly taxed, but they can afford it, and must be willing to pay for education until they can get their legislators to act on fiscal reform.

Follow These Tips To Preserve Health

It isn't absolutely necessary for executives to have heart disease, ulcers and strokes, ailments commonly associated with American businessmen who reach the management level.

Further, these ailments are by no means limited to executives. They can affect almost any one.

A few suggestions offered by the American Medical Association to help executives preserve their health also can be readily applied to most Americans, regardless of level of employment.

Watch your weight. Strenuous diets usually aren't necessary. Just eat less.

Exercise. Golf is fine, if you enjoy it. But if you're one of the many who lose their tempers and get upset over every missed stroke, brisk walks will serve just as well as golf, probably better.

Take vacations. Real vacations, not just an occasional day of two. And plan your vacation so that there is time to relax and unwind.

Smoke less. Better still, quit smoking altogether, if you can. There is much debate about the effect of tobacco on health, but there is no argument on the premise that it doesn't do anything good for you.

Cut down on drinking. Two cocktails before dinner may be one too many. One might be too many for some people.

Get plenty of sleep. And try to sleep without the use of drugs, if at all possible.

Put business worries out of your mind when you leave the office. This sometimes is easier said than done. Perhaps you will need to get active in something else, such as the affairs of your church, to get your mind off your job.

Commonwealth Boosts Interest Rate to 5 Pct.

Bank of the Commonwealth Friday became the first Detroit financial institution to increase interest paid on time deposits to 5 per cent. This new higher guaranteed bank rate will be paid on one year savings certificates of deposit.

George W. Miller, president of the Commonwealth, said the new 5 per cent "time" savings deposit rate will become effective immediately. The new rate will be paid on any amount in excess of $100. All certificates are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and will be available at all 37 offices of the Commonwealth or may be ordered by telephone or by mail.

Depositors will receive savings certificates which may be redeemed at any time on 30 day notice. After 30 day notice, certificates redeemed before the end of the one year period will receive the bank's regular 4 per cent rate from the date of deposit to the date of withdrawal.

"Bank of the Commonwealth's decision to increase the return to savers by offering the new 5 per cent rate was based on a belief in a strong business outlook for Detroit and Michigan in 1966," Miller said.

"This move is also a continuation of our policy of giving the public the maximum in banking rewards, whether in terms of lowered costs of services or in the maximum rate of return on deposits."

"Current money market circumstances make it possible at this time to pass on to our customers a greater return on their savings deposits."

In December, 1964, the Commonwealth became the first Detroit bank to raise interest rates to the legal maximum of 4 per cent on book savings accounts, and in December, 1965, led the way among Detroit banks in payment of 4½ per cent on time deposits.

These programs, together with the Commonwealth's new C-194 free checking account service, have significantly increased the bank's service to customers in the Detroit area, Miller said.

Parke-Davis Celebrates 100th Birthday in '66

Parke, Davis & Company, one of the nation's oldest and largest drug companies, observes its 100th birthday during 1966.

"We've won many battles but not the war," said Board Chairman Harry J. Loynd, commenting on his firm's part in the world-wide war against mankind's common enemy, disease.

"Our company in the past 100 years has made significant contributions both in the development of new drugs and through the investment of our scientific know-how in the bank of knowledge about illness and health, all of which will aid in the better understanding of disease and its causes."

Loynd, the seventh chief executive officer to head the world-wide pharmaceutical firm since its founding, acknowledged the importance of Parke-Davis' achieving the centennial milestone.

"Notable achievements have been realized during our corporate life. Man's lifespan has been extended, infant mortality has declined sharply; colic and cholera are no longer serious problems; vaccines and antibiotics are relatively new and effective weapons in the health arsenal, along with central nervous system drugs."

Lengthy reflections on past achievements are wasteful, in Loynd's opinion, however. "To have reached the centennial milestone is laudable and certainly attests, in our free and competitive economy, to the soundness of the principles upon which Parke-Davis was founded."

"But, the combined pressure of competition and the urgency illness demands dictate that our attention be focused on today and on tomorrow."

He declined to comment on Parke-Davis' second century, except to add, "We'll take it a day at a time and do our best."

Realtors Told No Tax Cut In Sight

"No tax cut is likely to be considered during the present session of the Congress," Representative Martha W. Griffiths told members of the United Northwestern Realty Association-Western Wayne-Oakland County Board of Realtors.

Congresswoman Griffiths, who represents the 17th District, was the guest speaker at the Realtors' luncheon meeting April 14.

An income tax cut would be likely, she said, only if a recession were imminent. At the present time, Representative Griffiths continued, inflation presents a greater danger.

Even this danger she discounted because "there is no real shortage of consumer goods and the capacity of America to produce is not overstrained."

Control of these inflationary tendencies, she explained, would lie within a tax increase. But she saw no need for such drastic action because there will be an anticipated influx of employees into the labor market in June, and an expected cyclical drop in food costs this summer.

Congresswoman Griffiths concluded that "for the first time in many years we are struggling with the problems of prosperity, rather than with the problems of depression."

LIT to Host Engineering Educators

More than 250 representatives from colleges, universities and industry, are expected to attend an all-day conference Saturday at the Lawrence Institute of Technology, Northwestern and Ten Mile in Southfield.

"Creativity in Engineering Education" will be the theme of the meeting sponsored by the Michigan section of the American Society for Engineering Education.

The Engineering Society of Detroit will join LIT in hosting the conference.

The theme will be carried out by three panels: design, curricula and laboratories. Presiding will be Prof. Clarence G. Chambers Jr. of LIT's mechanical engineering department, chairman of the ASSEE Michigan section.

Moderator of the creativity in design panel will be John Bryant of General Motors Corporation. Panel members: Prof. Wilbur C. Nelson, University of Michigan; and Professors Frederick D. Cribbins and Roy L. Greenbury of General Motors Institute.

Leading discussion on creativity in curricula will be Dr. James M. Paulson, Wayne State University. Panel members: Dr. J. Gordon Parr, University of Windsor; Dr. Walton M. Hancock, University of Michigan; and Prof. William J. David, Wayne State University.

Moderator of creativity in laboratories will be Prof. Harry G. Hedges, Michigan State University. Panel members: Prof. Heinrich R. Martens, State University of New York at Buffalo; Prof. Donald S. Gage, Michigan State University; and Dr. H. H. Alvord, University of Michigan.

Dr. Wayne H. Buell, LIT president, will welcome participants in the afternoon session which will feature an illustrated talk "Engineering Education in Brazil" by Dr. James C. Muzon, director of the University of Michigan's federally assisted program at Brazil's Aeronautical Institute of Technology.

FHA Expert Gives Talk On Mortgages

"Some people mistakenly believe that the only requirement in buying a home is having enough money to pay the principal and interest on the loan."

This misconception was pointed out by the Federal Housing Administration's mortgage section deputy chief, John Dolan, in speaking to members of the United Northwestern Realty Association-Western Wayne-Oakland County Board of Realtors at their March 24 luncheon meeting.

Explaining how the FHA determines a buyer's ability to pay for a home, Dolan said that the insuring office takes into consideration not only the applicant's income but also his monthly house expenses, as well as all debts, living costs and other financial demands.

Dolan said that the cost of home ownership and occupancy actually includes mortgage principal and interest; mortgage insurance premium; hazard insurance premium; taxes and special assessments; maintenance and repairs; and utilities.

"The FHA has basic techniques for determining the prospective mortgagor's ability to meet the terms of the mortgage, but each applicant differs from the other, and thusly we can make judgments only on a case-by-case basis," he concluded.

Vivian Bill Aims To Reduce Debt

United States Representative Wes Vivian (D-Ann Arbor) has introduced, with others, a bill which, if passed and implemented, could over a period of years repay and erase the U. S. national debt.

The bill requires all revenues received by the Federal government from private corporations for lease rights for exploitation of shale oil reserves on Federal lands, to be utilized only to reduce the national debt.

Some 1.1 trillion barrels of oil, having a wholesale value of over 3 trillion dollars, are estimated to be contained in the shale (soft marlstone rock) embedded close to the surface in extensive areas in Colorado, Wyoming and Utah. Most of this land remains in public ownership.

This reserve is believed to be the largest known deposit of hydrocarbon fuels in the world. (By comparison, only a third of a trillion barrels of oil are believed available from all conventional oil well fields yet discovered in the U.S.)

The total revenues expected from the mining of the shale, over a third of a trillion dollars, at the customary 12 1/2 per cent royalty rate, could repay the one-third trillion dollar national debt.

Up to this time, commercial mining of oil from shale has been prohibited by an executive order, promulgated in 1930. Furthermore, up to this date profitable extraction of the oil has not yet been considered technically feasible. But recent research has made it clear that in all likelihood oil soon will be producible from shale as economically as from conventional wells.

Thus in the near future the shale reserves can be expected to yield undreamed-of wealth. "I would like to see the new wealth derived from publicly owned lands be earmarked to reduce the public debt," Vivian said.

Twp. Board To Pay Off Claim in Cash

Mr. and Mrs. John Gaffield, of Ridgewood Drive, Plymouth Township, will receive $100 for tree damage during the water line construction project along Ridgewood Drive.

That was the decision of the Township Board on recommendation of Engineer Harold Hamill.

The Gaffields claimed and proved that four trees had been destroyed. The normal allowance for such claims is $25 per tree. The Gaffields requested cash so that they could use it to help defray the cost of new landscaping in the affected area.

Franklin Runs Over 2 Rivals

Power was the word last week at Franklin high's track team got off on the right foot by:

- 1—Routing Garden City West, 75-34.
- 2—Winning over Romulus, 69-40.

Versatile Dan Ryan again was the star for the Livonia school. Ryan, who can win in everything from the quarter mile runs, turned in a record performance for a Franklin athlete in copping the 440-yard event against Romulus.

He was timed in 52.2 seconds in winning a thriller from teammate Keith Iler, whose time of 52.3 seconds also was under the former Franklin standard of 52.6 set a year ago by J. D. Saven, who still performs in victorious fashion.

In fact, Saven triumphed in the 440-yard run against Garden City West on an afternoon in which Ryan entered and won the mile.

Against West, Fred Sievert (shot put), Greg Arnold (high jump), Ross Richardson (high hurdles), Bill Manion (880), Larry Naifeh (100-yard dash) and Gary Rogalski, (low hurdles), turned in individual victories along with Ryan and Saven and the Franklin 880-yard relay.

West came through with four winners—Mike Taft (long jump), Mark McGrath (Pole vault), Mike Alexander, (220) and the mile relay.

Naifeh, (shot put), Red Gozdzakeski, (mile), Manion, (880), Rogalski, (low hurdles) and Paul Lucas, (220) hit the line first for Franklin in the Romulus meet. Franklin also scored first in both the hurdles.

Hi Schools Name Delegates to Model UN Assembly

Students from 10 Metropolitan Detroit high schools will participate in a model United Nations Assembly to be held Saturday at Warren Woods High School, under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. of Metropolitan Detroit.

Groups from each school have chosen a member country of the United Nations to represent. During the one-day meeting they will discuss world problems from the viewpoints of the countries they have chosen to represent.

More than just one day goes into the preparation for the program. The students have been studying and preparing over the past two months faithfully to carry out their roles. The idea is to understand, as much as possible, the attitudes and problems of the country one represents.

Twenty-three delegations will represent that number of countries. Each delegation consists of a member of the Political, Social, Legal, and Humanitarian committees with an official observer.

The purpose of the assembly, besides creating interest in the United Nations, is to build appreciation for other peoples, to provide opportunities for free discussion among youth, and to give young people a chance to show their leadership capabilities.

This is the second year in which the Y.M.C.A. has sponsored the program through its Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Clubs.

Proskie Told To Wait For Water Line

Gerald Proskie, 9501 Beck Road, Plymouth Township, will have to wait a while before securing water service from the Township lines.

His communication requesting consideration be given to connect to the water main on the southeast corner of Beck Road and Ann Arbor Road was denied by the Township Trustees pending additional information in the area.

During discussion of the request, it was pointed out that it would be unfeasible for the Trustees to approve water service for one resident with several others in the immediate area. It would have meant extending the main under Beck Road to connect to the Proskie residence.

The Trustees were unanimous in the denial on the grounds that no action should be taken until all homes in the area could be serviced.

Legion Hosts Two Groups in "Way" Program

Passage Gayde Post 391, American Legion, and auxiliary will present another in the series of "Why Are We" programs Saturday at 6:30 p.m. in the Legion Hall on N. Sheldon Road. The affair opens with a buffet dinner at 6:30 followed by the program, which is open to the public at 8 p.m.

Members of the Plymouth Theatre Guild and the Garden Club will be guests.

The 17th district meeting will be held in Redford Township Friday night at 8 p.m. All Legionnaires and members of the auxiliary are urged to attend.

Activities Chairman Betty Richter requests all members to gather items for the annual rummage sale on Saturday, April 30 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Legion Hall.

Makes His Point

ANN ARBOR—Jim Olson, Michigan freshman, competing unattached in the Texas Relays, placed fifth in the mile run, turning in a mark of 4:13.0.

Key Club Joins In Cancer Drive

Members of the Plymouth Key Club, which is sponsored by the Plymouth Kiwanis Club, will make a door to door canvass of the entire community to spread information on "What Do You Know About Cancer?"

The Key Club drive is headed by President John Adams and Vice President Tom Chandler, who also is president of the senior class, and the aim is to have the cancer information in every home in the community.

The drive started Saturday and will continue through the end of the week with 20 members of the Key Club joining in the project.

A portion of funds collected by the Plymouth Community Fund is turned over to the Michigan Cancer Foundation which in turn disseminates the latest information about the dread disease in all participating communities.

The purpose of the drive is to acquaint residents with the latest information and to have each householder fill out a questionnaire. A brochure will be given each homeowner with the cancer information.

The Key Club is under the sponsorship of Kiwanian Joe West.

Senior Citizens Plan Niagara Falls Trip

Members of the Senior Citizens Club of Plymouth are making plans for a chartered bus trip to Niagara Falls on Tuesday, June 7. The bus would leave the City Hall at 8 a.m. and return the following day with an overnight stop at the Fallsview Motor Hotel in Niagara Falls, Ont.

Cost of the trip is $25 and reservations with a $10 deposit must be made by May 1.

The Soroptimist Club will entertain the senior citizens at a Fun Night program on May 11 in the Credit Union club rooms. Reservations are requested.

The club is planning a bus trip to the annual Holland Tulip Festival on May 13. The bus will leave the Masonic Temple at 8 a.m. and the cost is $4. Reservations should be made at once with Dorothy Wilhelm at 453-2164.

Missing Hubcaps

Judith Johnson of 21612 Chestnut Lane, Farmington, is missing four web style hubcaps. She told Farmington City Police that the four, valued at $60, were taken off her car during the evening of April 5 while the vehicle was parked at the Bel Aire Center.

Cool Wheels!

Four hubcaps, valued at $45, were taken from a car belonging to John Glenfield of 23620 Farmington Rd. last week. According to the police report the vehicle was parked in the City's parking lot at Farmington and State at the time of the larceny.

Policyholders Must Pay Uninsured Fees

LANSING — Motorists who permit liability insurance on their vehicles to lapse or who are cancelled by their insurance companies must either obtain new insurance or register as uninsured motorists by paying $35 into the state's Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Fund.

Secretary of State James M. Hare said that drivers in this category were faced with paying the uninsured fee of $35 even though they had already paid $1.00 as insured drivers.

Front-Wheel Drive Olds' Toronado Now One of the Most Popular Luxury Leased Cars

The spectacular success of the 1966 Oldsmobile Toronado, the first American car in 30 years to be equipped with front-wheel drive, is giving unexpected repercussions in the auto marketing field, reports Dick & Harold Jackson, Distributors, International Leasing Corporation of Plymouth.

Introduced only last fall, the high-performance Toronado has rapidly become one of the popular luxury leased cars with business executives and professional men in the Livonia-Plymouth area.

"We've found that leasing enables many people to drive a Toronado that they otherwise might hesitate to buy because of its high initial cost," states the International Leasing System executive.

"For example, we are now able to offer immediate delivery on a fully equipped Toronado for just $129 per month. When used for business purposes, this relatively modest lease cost is fully tax deductible, an important consideration to business men," Mr. Jackson said.

The Toronado being leased by International, featuring space for six passengers and a flat interior floor, comes equipped with four-season air conditioning, power steering, power brakes, power windows, automatic transmission, radio, tinted windshield, and numerous other desirable appointments, reports Mr. Jackson.

Although in short supply in many areas of the nation, Mr. Jackson reports that a small number of Toronados are now available for immediate delivery.

Further information about leasing these cars can be obtained by contacting International Leasing Corporation of Plymouth, 646 Wing Street, Plymouth, MI 48177. (Advertisement)

Xway Problems To End in '72?

By 1972 Detroit's present expressway congestion should be greatly alleviated, Alger F. Malo told members of the United Northwestern Realty Association—Western Wayne-Oakland County Board of Realtors.

Malo, director of the department of Streets and Traffic, explained that six years hence the basic expressway system for the city will have been completed.

"The presently overburdened Edsel Ford and John Lodge expressway should carry far less traffic when the Jeffries, Chrysler and Fisher freeways are completed," Malo told the Realtor group. The Fisher should be completed by 1968, the Chrysler by 1968, with the exception of some turnoffs, and the Jeffries by 1972, he said.

"With the five expressways in operation," Malo continued, "Detroit will have 60 miles of limited-access freeway, as compared with the present 30 miles."

Malo used drawings to illustrate to the Realtors how expressways and thoroughfares will eventually link all of southeastern Michigan for quick uncrowded traveling.

Malo revealed for the first time that Detroit soon will have a completely computerized traffic signal system, operated from a central point. "We should have the planning completed for it within a year," he said.

"We've found that three lanes are not enough for the freeway, that lamp poles should be on slopes so that cars can't hit them, and that exits and entrances should be from the right side only," he said.

Malo also indicated that many things have been learned from the present expressway and thus many mistakes can be eliminated in future roads.

AAUW Panel To Discuss "Old" China

The Plymouth branch of the American Association of University Women will take a "Look at Traditional China" with a 10-member panel discussion at Junior High West on Thursday, April 21 at 7:45 p.m.

Each of the 10 panelists will have five minutes to present some phase of the subject which will deal with philosophy, literature and the performing arts. This study group has taken as a two-year study, the broad topic of "Revolution in Modern China" with the emphasis this year on old or traditional China.

Education - What Happened

Editor's Note: As Livonia faces a critical millage election to gain approval for the basic funds needed to continue the educational program Livonia is providing for its rapidly growing school population we asked Board President Strela Schreiber to give us a historic overview of the way Livonia and its schools have grown throughout the years. Maybe in this review, repeated in so many areas, we may find an answer.

Thousands of new arrivals come to Livonia each year attracted by its good schools and the many amenities of suburban life. Those of us who are "old-timers" with five, 10, or 20 years of residence in this exploding population area often forget that newcomers have never had a chance to view the city or its school district in any historic perspective. In this article we will try to take you back into Livonia's yesteryears for a look at the foundations of our city and our educational system.

The story of Livonia and its schools is not unique in itself, because there are many Livonians in this area and most of them are facing the same kind of problems. But, if we in Livonia do not solve our own problems, leaving them instead to others to solve for us, then we shall be giving up the something that is unique to our way of living, an American institution deeply rooted in our free society, but which finds itself floundering today in a maze of instability and uncertainty.

People first came to Livonia in 1827-28. It was a Township with the same 36 square mile area as we know it. Land then cost $2.00 an acre and the pioneers could have up to four years to pay. Plymouth Road then was a toll road and rates were set by law: 2c per mile for a two-horse vehicle; 1c per mile for a single horse or one-horse vehicle. One of the toll gates was located at Stark Road. When Plymouth Road was converted to gravel, the cost was $1.50 per mile. The village of Newburg became a center of activity. It was a stagecoach stop on the route from Detroit to Chicago and a round trip from Newburg to Detroit took three days.

Children of those days were taught by their mothers within the home and by their fathers on the land. Parents then could supply most of the information and provide the training required to meet the needs of young people at that time.

FIRST SCHOOL IN 1831

In 1827 a law was passed which required every township with a population of 50 or more to have a school, which was to be open for approximately six months out of the year, and parents were to pay for their children's education and supply wood for the school stove.

The first school in Livonia was built in 1831 and was located in Newburg. Fifty children were housed in this one-room log cabin. Their ages ranged from 5 years to 22 years. Everything from the alphabet to algebra was taught by one teacher, whose salary was $25.00 a month, a part of which was paid in the form of room and board.

In 1950, the people voted to become a city and the former township government was changed to conform to a municipality.

These were the beginnings of big changes. Population doubled and new home construction increased in the four years from 1950-1953 at an annual rate of 450, 649, 800, and 1400.

SMALL SCHOOLS

The new homes that were being built in all suburban communities meant families, and families meant children... children who needed to be educated, because this is one of their rights in America.

Each village within Livonia Township had its own small elementary school. None could support a high school and students went to high school in Plymouth or another one of the surrounding communities on a tuition basis.

In 1944, the seven school districts, not including Clarenceville, consolidated to become one with a total of 8 buildings and 44 teachers, of whom only five had college degrees. The next year work was started on Bentley High School which opened in 1947 for its first classes.

Industrial growth also continued as General Motors added and Ford, Fisher Body, Michigan Bell, Kroger, General Foods and two shopping centers developed facilities, while many smaller firms established plants in this very desirable location. This expansion brought additional families, all seeking what Livonia ideally seemed to offer... the same good life of its early years.

QUALITY SCHOOLS

One of the most important aspects of this "good life" was the educational system which had gained a reputation throughout the state and midwest region as being of excellent quality. Realistic planning plus public support made possible additional school facilities and staff and equipment for the exploding school population. In this year of 1966, 29 elementary schools, eight junior high schools and three senior high schools now house the more than 30,000 school children in this district.

Livonia had moved slowly for many years, but more rapidly in the past decade from the horse and buggy era to the realities of the 1960's, from the gravel of Plymouth Road to the new freeway, from the stagecoach to two cars in most garages. Fine modern homes and attractive businesses give evidence to the growth of this suburban area of 95,000 population and its affluence is borne out by income statistics of its residents.

THE READER SPEAKS UP:

All 28 Are Not 'Eager'

Editor:

The undersigned candidates for the charter commission to be elected in Farmington Township on June 6 are writing to correct the false impression that a headline in the April 6 issue of an Oakland County newspaper may have created for some readers. The headline in question was somewhat misleading in stating that "Twenty-eight are eager to aid in setting up new city."

It is true that 28 candidates have filed to run for the nine seats on the Charter Commission to be established. If the voters of Farmington Township elect to incorporate as a city. However, several of the candidates—including all the undersigned—are far from eager to set up the new city. Having carefully weighed the issues, we are opposed to incorporation and the abolition of Farmington Township.

It may be recalled here that the move to abolish the Township was initiated by the very officials elected to serve it and that, contrary to the Supervisor's letter to the voters, the study committee appointed by the Township Board has so far failed to lay the groundwork for a future city charter.

According to Michigan law the election of Charter Commissioners occurs at the same time as the vote on the more fundamental issue of whether or not to incorporate a new city. Furthermore, all voters have nine votes to cast for members of the Charter Commission, regardless of how they vote on incorporation itself.

Under the circumstances, our primary aim in the forthcoming election is to defeat the move to incorporate Farmington Township as a city. Our candidacy for the Charter Commission simply reflects our concern that, if a majority of our fellow residents should nevertheless elect incorporation, they should also have a choice of Charter Commissioners who are independent of the present Township administration.

It is only by electing a truly independent and open-minded Charter Commission that all citizens—whether they favor incorporation or are opposed to it—can assure for themselves the drafting of a charter that is in the best interest of the residents and one that reflects a balanced view, rather than only the views of those who have so vigorously pushed for incorporation without regard for any opposing arguments. Only an independent Charter Commission can be relied upon to retain the many desirable features of the township form of government, which has so well served this large and diverse community.

Our candidacy for the Charter Commission thus reflects our eagerness to set up a new city. Rather, it reflects our hope that many of the best features of township government may be preserved, even if Farmington becomes a city. Even at best, this represents only our second choice. Above all, we hope that most of our fellow residents will recognize that their BEST interests would be served by retaining Farmington as a township.

Clean Up Industry

Editor:

I recently read in The Observer about Livonia winning a national award for being a clean city. To me that's a big laugh!

Apparently Mrs. Anderson and her committee didn't take a ride down Amrhein Road and take pictures. I'm sure if they had taken pictures of one of these companies (name withheld by The Observer) and sent them to Washington, Livonia would probably be getting Federal Aid in the poverty program. One place looks worse than any slum area that I've seen.

I suppose you think I should call City Hall and report this health and fire hazard.

Well I have twice. The first time, early last Fall, I was told by Mr. Fagan of the Building Department that they had 10 days to clean up (this was after my husband and I watched the rats running from wood pile to wood pile). Well, it took three weeks to clean it up with their own employees doing it on week-ends and at night. But I didn't say anything about the time limit because they were cleaning it up.

I've lived in this house four and a half years and we have never had rats. Field mice, yes, but rats, no! That is, until one day my daughter went out to play in her play house after this mess was cleaned up, and one jumped out at her. Luckily, she wasn't bitten. The dogs chased it.

The mess started to accumulate again. In about a month I called Mr. Fagan again. I was told by Mr. Fagan that he had quite a hassle with this company the last time they were told to clean it up. He said the company had agreed not to leave any garbage or food lying around and the scrap wood would be ground into sawdust.

Now after four months, there are two large piles of sawdust, several large piles of what I suppose is scrap wood and paper flying all over when the wind blows.

Who is going to pick this stuff out of my yard when the wind blows it over that fence. And it will, if it's allowed to pile up like that much longer. There is already some paper blowing up and down the road. I didn't know industry and business could dictate to the City what it is and what it is not going to do with their garbage. And what about the health and fire hazards this is causing. If just one tenth of this mess was in my yard or yours and was blowing all over the neighborhood, I'm sure we would be ordered to clean it up and keep it cleaned up, or pay a fine.

Just because this is the very edge of the City and we don't live in $30,000 homes is no reason why we should be forgotten. I'd like to keep my daughter in Livonia schools. She's getting a very good education. And I might add, I've lived in Livonia practically all my life, graduating from Bentley High.

Just to show how forgotten we are, you stated in a recent article that the railroad had to get permission from the City to build a track (or spur) across Amrhein Road for the four new industries going in on the Schmidt farm. That track has been across Amrhein Road for approximately three months.

MRS. RAYMOND CRONK
LIVONIA

Ed. Note: Checked out Mrs. Cronk's complaint and she is right. If this mess isn't cleaned in 10 days The Observer will take pictures of it to prove her point. This company is breaking the law and should be fined in its present state.

Favors New Charter

Editor:

On April 25 the people of Nankin Township will be asked to vote for or against a city charter. If it passes, Nankin will become a city called Westland if it fails, we will remain a township for the time being.

Our group has studied the charter and the question of becoming a city. We would like to express our views.

Nankin does not have enough industry at present to help carry the load of taxes needed to finance a city form of government. This in turn would put a heavy load on the homeowners. The taxpayers are not trying to shirk their duty. We have shown support to worthwhile projects such as voting in millage for schools and fire protection, etc. We shall continue to support with taxes projects deemed worthwhile and necessary.

Efforts should be made to expand and improve departments now existing. This can be done as a township, without all the added expenses involved in a city status. For instance: One mill increase for police protection is easier to get than an eight-mill charter limitation.

To remain a township would encourage business and industry to establish here because taxes would be lower. For this same reason the people bought homes in Nankin Township, and not in surrounding cities.

If we become a city now, the inducement of lower taxes for new industrial growth would disappear.

This is the first time the charter is being presented to the people for a vote. Certain parts are objectionable and should be changed before it is accepted.

1. The charter calls for partisan elections after the first election. We feel non-partisan elections should remain in future elections also.

2. The clerk and treasurer are appointed. We feel they should be elected by the people.

4. "Council may establish any department it deems necessary for the general welfare of the city." This section gives the council an open hand to establish new departments, more political jobs, more costs.

5. The charter has an eight mill limitation to levy taxes, but special assessments are not included under this limitation. To vote YES for this charter would virtually open the door to higher taxes, more than we realize.

We therefore urge a NO vote at this time on the Westland Charter. However, do vote for your choice of candidates.

Editor:

A recent Observer carried an advertisement in favor of the Parks Proposal being decided in the April 4 election. The ad listed a number of civic groups, city board and commissions and individual citizens who are supporting this proposal.

My name could well have been included among the individual boosters since I personally favored the proposal.

The list of the Human Relations Commission as a group supporting this proposal was an error, however.

The Commission did not support, oppose, or discuss the proposal officially or unofficially since it is not within the scope of the ordinance under which the Commission was created.

Division of $650,000

In the Feb. 2 issue of the Livonian, the article entitled "Livonia In Midst of Huge Industrial Revolution," contained a statement which, in my opinion, requires clarification.

Specifically, when speaking about what's ahead for 1966, the statement was made that based on estimated industrial building construction of 2.4 million square feet, assessed valuation will be increased by $10.8 million, and $650,000 will be realized in the Livonia City Treasury.

Actually, the City will realize but $97,500 of this $650,000. The County will receive $137,150 for operating and drain purposes, the Community College $13,000, and Livonia Public Schools, the lion's share, $402,350.

Observing the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER

MEXICO CITY—The old maxim, "The more you give, the more you receive," was demonstrated by the 14 Bentley High School students whom Mrs. Arlo Glenn and I are accompanying to see the sights of Mexico. The rapt attention which they gave our personal tour guide, Rudolfo Comacho, at the National Palace while he was explaining the complete history of Mexico as depicted by Diego Rivera's gloriously colorful frescoes, pleased both Rudolfo and us.

The murals depict the history of Mexico City, from its founding in 1312, through its occupation by the Aztec Indians, the Spanish and the North Americans. Rudolfo is a student of Mexican history and an aristocrat of this country.

The Spanish Class from Bentley asked questions (some in Spanish) that so pleased him that he took the group in its entirety to a private home for lunch.

As is the custom here, the padre came home for the meal, and while our group was practicing Spanish, he was practicing his English. Their two teenagers, Jesus (pronounced Hay' sus) and daughter, Lupita, spoke English, but the mother, Senora Gustavo Horacio de Lic Anda, did not. It was great fun to get her recipe for the beverage she served to us before lunch. But when you start with tequila, the national beverage, it comes easier. You add two parts ice and one part milk and nutmeg and shake. The tasting of same improves communication.

Some things were obvious to our youth and to Mrs. Glenn and myself.

Boys look like boys. They cannot wear their hair long and unruly; even the counterparts of the Beatles, who play nightly in our hotel, to the enjoyment of all of us, have short hair. They serve liquor to youth. But, of course, ground rules from home apply to our group.

The shop people like to haggle over prices, and enjoy it. So our shoppers are catching on and accommodating them.

The people are fun-loving and polite and our kids are responding and making friends.

They find many excuses for a Coke party and plan to have one in Acapulco on the beach.

We are fortunate to be making friends with natives of Mexico, because Mrs. Glenn's granddaughter, Pam, was an exchange student here and her Mexican family has also welcomed us.

Other startling facts that would be great to transplant include the Mexicans' attitude toward education. These people are practical. Education is important. They are six million strong in this city and can't afford the kind of education which we can. School buildings, therefore, are open 24 hours a day. How about that? One of our young friends goes from 6 p.m. to midnight. Odd to think about, but they do use those buildings.

The Roman Catholic clergy are not allowed to wear the dress of their office on the street—neither the priests nor the nuns. The separation of church and state is almost a religion in itself to them.

In the beautiful old Catholic cathedral, dating to the 15th Century, I was shocked to see open confessional, priests and their parishioners facing each other. Women may sit with their back to the priest, but men must face their priest.

A really most gracious people: While the kids were having fun, listening to the music and dancing, Arthurro, assistant to Rudolfo, came over to me and said, "You will be my couple, and I will teach you how to do the 'yerk,' okay?"

And that's the best offer I've had in a long time.

Facts On Tax Deductions

I read your editorial about final judgment Judge Rashid our Mayor who you seem to be defending in last week's Observer. What about two years ago when our ex-mayor, William Brashear was involved in the pension fund scandal. Why didn't you come to his defense? If this is supposed to be a fair paper, the scandal was brought out at the right time it seems, because he didn't have time to clear his name till after the election.

Who was behind this, but Mayor Moelke. Please print this in your "Reader speaks" column.

W. D.
Livonia resident

Ed. Note: W.D. I presume since you asked you were interested in some facts. Actually The Observer reported a series of events two years ago. In the final judgment Judge Rashid judged in his court the investment approved by William Brashear as mayor in the pension fund was illegal. This was a court judgment.

A mysterious Mr. X presented $200,000 cash to the court to bail out the pension fund from the illegal investments. The pension fund is now invested in government approved investments. The law is explicit in this.

At the time Mr. Brashear was mayor his city attorney advised him the investments were illegal, however, he ignored this advice, and was proven to be wrong in his judgment. A copy of the court findings is available.

THE BOYS Gymnastic Club participated in the M.A.G. state meet and here are the final statistics. In the senior division Jim McCammon took a fifth in tumbling and a sixth in All-Around. Charlie Morse had a fourth in parallel bars, high bar, side horse and a fifth in still rings.

In the Junior division, Barry Frechette took a first in parallel bars and side horse, second in all-around, third in still rings, and sixth in free-exercise.

Rick Fredrick had third in trampoline and fifth in side-horse. Bob Schuriz took sixth in parallel bars, Tom Stanton, a fourth in parallel bars and still rings and fifth on trampoline.

THE SENIOR CLASS has picked its personalities of 1966. They are: most likely to succeed, Alice Warren and Daryl Howell; most popular, Chris Wilson and Jerry Litwin; best looking, Bev Boutwell and Randy Smith; best dressed, Sue Fell and Carl Johnson; best athlete, Barb Mette and Chris Hawkins; best dancers, Bill Sandboen and Bev Slyzink; jolliest, Sharon Demmitt and Tim Whyte; and teachers pet, Betty Schmidt and Tom Maki.

The U.S. is considering a plan to land a group of men on the tiny planet Eros on its next close approach to the Earth. The brick-shaped planet, only a few miles long, may offer clues about the origin of the planets.

Name Donna Baker Student Of The Month At St. Agatha

By MARY LOU MANGOLD
Student of the Month for April is Donna Baker, a senior, who presently serves as the prefect of the Sodality of Our Lady, after acting as vice-prefect during her junior year.

Donna has participated in Genesian Club activities and sports, including varsity softball and intra-mural basketball. In addition, she has maintained a "B+" average scholastically, constantly kept her name among those on the honor roll, and was recently elected to the National Honor Society.

Students from Monsignor John Gabriel's High School in Lansing visited St. Agatha's on Thursday accompanied by their director Brother Anore to visit a rehearsal of The King and I. The cast from Monsignor Gabriel's, which will present The King and I next weekend, invited the St. Agatha cast to the dress rehearsal next Thursday evening.

During Easter vacation, as well as evening and weekends, the scenery crew has been working diligently to produce the settings so necessary to create a Siamese palace from an auditorium stage.

Because the mood of this year's musical is so different from those the school has produced in the past, and because much of the action takes place on platforms in front of the curtain and no time will be allowed for change of scenes, the scenery this year will be less elaborate.

One backdrop of pinnacles and ming trees, depicting the palace city, and painted by Edward Kamm and Paul Perko, will suffice for all the scenes played on the stage proper.

Tiered platforms are covered with grass and adorned with carved screens and ming trees. Gilt furniture, intricately painted cupboards, and a few simple props complete the scene. The scenery crew consists of Frank Chuhman, David Dow, James Mackin, Lawrence Lampron, Patrick O'Brien, and Charles Stimac. The group is supervised by Miss Charleen O'Leary, and assisted by student directors Ed Kamm and Paul Perko.

The yearbook's staff worked during vacation to meet the final deadline for the 1961 Saga. The

High School To Be Setting For Cabaret

The Redford Civic Symphony will open the program and play various selections including: "LaGazza Ladra" by G. Rossini, "Norwegian Dance" by Edward Grieg, "Moldau Selection" by B. Smetana, "American Bolero" by N. H. Brown, "Sorrrela" — Spanish March by L. Gallini, "Tango In D" by I. Albeniz, and "Oklahoma" selections by Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II.

Ethnic groups participating are: Armenian Folk Dancers directed by Dorothy Attarian; Bavarian Accordion and Melodica Group directed by Mrs. Eva Hildebrandt; and Mexican Folk Dancers directed by Mrs. Laura Leyva.

yearbook will be available in late May.

The Junior Classical League, consisting of Latin I and II students, has scheduled its second annual Roman Banquet for the end of May. Latin I students will serve as slaves to the older students and will be purchased by them at a slave auction a few days before the banquet.

Students are now preparing authentic costumes for the event. Wealthy guests will be attired in pastel colored togas and tunics of rich fabrics, lavishly embellished and trimmed. Elaborate coiffures, makeup and jewelry are essential to the Roman lady's appearance. Many boys will be found in deep purple, insignia of ranks, or royalty. The slaves will be garbed in short, simple tunics of coarse fabric, belted with rope.

The JCL has received permission to sponsor a dance to raise funds for the banquet. It will be held sometime in early May.

Farmington Students Recruiting Ball Stars

By MADGE HILDEBRANDT
Farmington Senior High's first home baseball game will be preceded by what is laughingly termed the Student-Faculty Baseball Game.

The April 26 event is an FHS first, which is designed to boost enthusiasm for spring sports. The teachers are presently organizing their team, which promises to be entertaining if not coordinated.

Sophomore Student Council members Bill Bliss and Howard Broadman are visiting homeboys and recruiting teenage Mantles and Drysdals to serve on the youthful squad. There will be an even number of males and females, totaling 40 players. A practice will be held for the students, but no date has been set. The baseball game will last an hour, beginning at 2:45 p.m.

"Shangri-La" is coming! The all-school musical will be presented on Friday, April 29 and Saturday, April 30. Tickets will be sold at the door for $1.25.

Saturday, May 7, is the date of Workday, an FHS-North Farmington High project. Any citizens of the city or township may call either school and request the aid of a student (s) for a various jobs. The money which FHS makes from the project will be sent to Vietnamese hospitals.

BENTLEY BULLETINS

Start looking for the ugly man. Its that time of year again when the AFS begins to sponsor its annual Ugly Man Contest.

Beginning April 25 through April 29 students will be able to vote for the ugly man of their choice by putting coins in the jar of the student they like best. There will be two boys from each class.

At the end of the week the boy with the most money in his jar will be the Ugly Man.

Anyone who wants movies can make them with the new KODAK INSTAMATIC M4 Movie Camera. Electric motor drives the film. Electric eye adjusts exposure, signal in viewfinder tells you when there isn't enough light for good movies. All you have to do is aim the camera and squeeze a little with one finger.

Loading the camera is just as simple ... just push back a sliding panel and drop in a KODAPAK Movie Cartridge. There's no threading. The cartridge only goes in one way—so you're on your way.

The nice thing about the KODAK INSTAMATIC M4 Movie Camera is that it takes Super 8 movies that are sharper, brighter, and more colorful on your screen than regular 8mm. As a matter of fact, the new Super 8 film, plus the new INSTAMATIC Movie cameras and projectors, give you a complete new movie-making system that's good enough to arouse the interest of even 16mm fans!

If you've been waiting for home movie-making to get better, easier, and more fun—the time has come. Why not drop in soon and let me demonstrate how much easier it is to make better movies.

The M4 is only one of three new KODAK INSTAMATIC Movie Cameras. And there are five new KODAK INSTAMATIC Movie Projectors to go with them.

Classic Film To Be Shown

"The Little Kidnappers," a feature length film with great appeal for both children and adults, will be shown in the Great Stories in Film series in the Auditorium Saturday, April 30 at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Unknown to two small boys, aged eight and five, half of Nova Scotia is combing the countryside searching for a kidnapped baby. The boys find the abandoned infant and because their stern Scottish Canadian grandfather will not allow them to have a puppy, they innocently decide the baby will make a fine pet. Their endeavors to care for the baby and their speculations on what it will do when it grows up — they figure this will take about a year — make this a rare comedy.

"The Little Kidnappers" received a Parents' Magazine Medal and many other citations; Jon Whitely and Vincent Winter, the two young stars of the film, received Academy Awards for outstanding performances and the film was highly praised by The Saturday Review of Literature and Time Magazine. Others in the film are Theodore Bikel, Duncan Macrae and Adrienne Cori.

Great Stories in Film showings are open to the public without charge, and arranged by the museum's Theatre Arts Department. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

Piggin's Removal Hearings Continue In Oakland

Bradley' Perry Given Permission to Reopen Nankin Courts

At the regular monthly meeting of the Wayne County Circuit Court Monday night (April 18), the full bench of circuit judges gave permission to Nankin Justice of the Peace Michael W. Bradley to reopen his court.

The request was made by Bradley since he was not given a speedy hearing on charges made against him by the Grand Jury investigating alleged ticket-fixing practices in Western Wayne County.

Bradley took a leave of office voluntarily last December after Grand Juror Edward S. Piggins accused him and Nankin JP George Perry of misconduct in office and petitioned Governor George Romney to remove both from office.

Perry was allowed last week to reopen his court and Bradley followed the same course of action as his fellow JP and was given the same permission by the circuit bench.

"We agreed it would be unfair to keep Bradley's court closed," was the only comment made by Circuit Judge

Thomas H. Murphy, presiding judge.

"I am very pleased that the Circuit Court has given me permission to open my court," stated Bradley, "I feel it is an expression of the Court's confidence in me. I look forward to the day when we'll have a full and complete hearing on this matter.

"At that time, I am sure I will be able to clear myself of any charges against me."

"The people of Nankin have trusted me to be their judge for more than ten years. We will show that this trust was not misplaced," Bradley concluded.

Both Bradley and Perry still are awaiting a hearing in Judge Norman Barnard's Oakland County Circuit Court on Piggins' removal request. Romney asked Barnard to conduct a removal hearing after getting Piggins' removal petition.

"Even a judge as knowledgeable and respected as Judge Piggins did not know the laws which applied to lower courts and even relied on inapplicable laws to request removal," says Perry. "This is not unusual as most lawyers don't know these laws unless they actually stop and look them up."

"The simplest way I know of showing the knowledge needed to establish the court is by requesting the public to review with any attorney the petition filed for my removal by Judge Piggins and my original printed answer," Perry concludes.

Bradley and Perry are candidates for municipal judge of the proposed City of Westland and will face the voters of Nankin on an incorporation ballot on Monday (April 25).

Area Schools Join Efforts For Special Ed. Facilities

Initial steps are underway to formulate a "cluster program" to provide more specialized training for school children enrolled in special service classes in school districts of The Observer area.

The crux of the program is to combine efforts of area school districts to provide better educational opportunities to children enrolled in special services. The present set-up is a cooperative effort between the Livonia, Garden City, Redford Union and South Redford school districts with thought being given to having Wayne and Cherry Hill districts added at a later date.

The theory is that instead of each separate district providing facilities for the blind, deaf, retarded (trainable) and orthopedic children, each district will eventually specialize in a specific area and take children from other districts in that category with all districts sharing the costs.

Livonia presently enrolls blind students from the Garden City and two Redford districts. Plans are presently being discussed to have Livonia serve as a center for the mentally trainable children for its own district and the above three.

In return, Garden City will provide facilities for the deaf students in Livonia and the two Redfords. The Garden City School Board has already granted tentative approval to the use of an additional classroom for the deaf (one additional room was previously approved) making a total of five rooms available for deaf children. The five rooms are located at the Douglas Elementary School.

To implement the initial steps towards a "cluster program" the Garden City Board of Education has tentatively approved the transfer of its trainable B Program to the Livonia School District. Action is expected soon by the Livonia Board of Education.

Transfer of the Trainable B Program to Livonia when approved finally will allow Garden City to expand its deaf program to take in more students from the other three districts.

Children enrolled in the Trainable B Program are those who would have little to gain from being in a regular school environment as distinguished from those educable mentally retarded children who can successfully be integrated into some regular school situations.

It is only when you get into the area of the mentally retarded that it becomes beneficial to separate the children from regular classrooms to promote their own adjustment.

This is because the trainable mentally retarded have very definite needs for more general understanding, specially prepared and skilled teachers, and a specially developed curriculum. It is these specific needs which have led school officials to the conclusion that the cooperative approach of a cluster program will best meet the educational needs of children in need of special training.

The Wayne County Intermediate School District is presently working on a master plan to combine school districts throughout the county into clusters with each cluster containing about five to seven districts.

The plan is still on the drawing board and will not be carried out completely for a few years yet but initial steps are being taken in many school districts in Wayne County as well as Livonia, Garden City and Redford.

Garden City has been enrolling orthopedic students from the Livonia and Redford districts but because of overcrowded classes Redford has expanded its orthopedic program to handle children through first grade. The need for a cluster program in this area is not definitely decided yet because of a known decrease in orthopedic students.

The Livonia Trainable Program is tentatively planned to be set up at the Wilcox and Elm schools.

The accounting method of sharing costs gets quite complex but some idea of the procedure can be received by examining the cost of Garden City establishing a cluster program for the deaf.

teacher salaries and equipment for one room is $9,600. Of this total, $3,600 is for equipment which is reimbursed 75 per cent by the state. The approximate $6,000 for salaries will be reimbursed almost 100 per cent by the state with Garden City having to meet only a fraction of salary costs.

On the $3,600 cost for equipment, about $900 would remain following reimbursement. The $900 difference would be met in part by collecting tuition for children from the Livonia and Redford districts.

The highest possible cost to Garden City for its deaf program is estimated at $2,000 and is expected to be less. Expenses to the other districts will be relatively small since it will only involve tuition costs.

THREE OF THE dancers from the "Cops and Robbers" number of the upcoming Redford Suburban League Theater Guild musical comedy "Wise Guise" are, from left, Irma Kegelmann, Doris Kirton and Audrey Maihofer. The production will be presented April 29, 30 and May 1 at the Redford Union High School Auditorium. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

EXPRESSING ITS APPRECIATION to the help offered to it from the Livonia Federation of Civic Associations, officers of the Compton Village Civic Association presented a gavel to the citywide group last week. Franklin Stretches Baseball Win Streak to 19 Straight

When the 1965 baseball season ended for Franklin High, the South Livonians had ruled the roost in the area. They had copped 17 consecutive decisions after losing their first two and also hauled off the Northwest League and Greater Livonia invitational tournament titles.

The new campaign began in the same winning fashion for Franklin last week.

On Monday it was Franklin in a 5-4 verdict over Redford Union, thanks to a four-run rally in the fifth. Three days later, Franklin was forced to go nine innings (two over the high school regulation) to squeeze past Garden City East, 2-1.

"We'll take 'em by one run or ten runs," declared Franklin coach John Hartwig who has had a great deal of rebuilding to replace virtually all of his 1965 stars, including infielder Bernie Carbo who was drafted by the Cincinnati Reds and paid a sizeable bonus of five figures.

Redford Union, which lost two others last week after falling to Franklin, jumped into a 4-1 lead against the Livonians with George Little knocking in two runs, Jim Johnston one and a fourth tally counting on an error.

But in the fifth, Franklin began swinging and put together its payroll rally.

Dave Kosteva started matters with a single and was forced at second. Dave Stott delivered a run-producing single after which Mike Stachurski walked. Steve Atkinson, Fred Davies and Tom Labo all followed with singles and Franklin had its 5-4 advantage which held up the rest of the way.

Davies went the route for the winners and yielded nine hits. Dave Bourassa started for RU while Kevin Fox finished up.

Errors helped Franklin count both its runs against Garden City East.

In the third inning, Davies singled and moved around to third as Mark Dommer went two bases on a wild throw. After Jim Taylor walked, Stott fled to left, permitting Davies to come home.

In the fifth, East got even on hits by Don Smith and Dave Ventura and a neat bunt by Joe Hunter on a squeeze play.

That's the way matters stood until the ninth when Ron Ross stepped two bases on another East miscue. Dommer broke up the game with a single.

Chris Wendrick and Dave Paden shared pitching honors for the winners, but were in trouble all the way as East left 15 men on base. Paul Kightlinger and Greg Pike worked for East. Each was tagged for only two hits.

5 Days... 5 Victories For Glenn on Diamond

Five days... five victories—and one a no-hitter!

How's that for a record for a high school baseball team?

Sounds impossible, but it happened last week to coach Don Domke and his Wayne John Glenn High.

Thus, Glenn topped its start of a year ago when it won three straight in baseball before bowing and finally winding up with a 7-10 record in its first season of varsity baseball competition.

With five triumphs tucked away already and with three games listed this week, Glenn could have a new record for most conquests before the 1966 campaign is a fourth over.

The first week produced a flock of heroes for Glenn, but No. 1 had to be a senior right-hand Ron Kinunen who flipped a no-hit gem in noosing out Stevenson of Livonia, 1-0. It was Stevenson's first varsity appearance in baseball.

Never before had a Glenn hurler stopped a rival hitless. Kinunen fanned 11 and walked three.

In addition, Kinunen delivered the hit that won the game. After Len Anderson walked in the third, coach Domke called a hit-and-run play. With Anderson streaking toward second, Kinunen lashed a double and Anderson roared around for what proved the game's only tally.

NOTHING LIKE a golf cart to make a tour of the Dun Rovin course, in Northville Township, and an enjoyable afternoon. Leo Wargo (left) and James Lutes took full advantage of the weather and a cart to play the 18-hole layout.

BRIGHT SPRING DAYS brought out the golfers at area courses and the Observer Newspapers' Gerry Gazda toured several to see what was doing. (Left) Mike Schmidt tees up at Idyl Wyld in Livonia. (Right) Dan Turney finds the putting excellent at Salem Hills Golf Club in Salem Township.

Bentley Takes Pair From Port Huron Nine

A barrage of hits in the opener and some perfect strategy in the second enabled Bentley High's baseballers to open their 1966 non-league schedule with a twin victory over Port Huron, 11-3 and 1-0.

The first game saw Bentley break loose with a seven run spree in the sixth inning to rout Port Huron. In the nightcap, a single, two perfect bunts and a long flyball netted the lone run in the seventh after a tight pitching duel between Bentley's Bill McAlpine and Port Huron's Dave Thomas.

The visitors pushed across a pair of runs in the third frame of the first contest to take a 3-0 edge. But Bentley came back with a pair in the third, two more in the fourth for a 4-3 edge and then crashed through with the seven tallies in the sixth for the easy victory.

It was a different tale in the 'cap where Port Huron's fancy fielding stifled the Bentley bats. Thomas had a no-bitter going until the sixth when the Livonians bunched two hits and a walk but left the three runners stranded.

Going into the bottom of the seventh with the game scoreless, Paul Sorenson batted for Catcher Don Montroy and singled. Ed Ryan laid down a perfect bunt and beat it out. Greg Colton was sent in to bat for Bob McGregor and bunted down the first base line so perfectly that the Port Huron pitcher and first baseman let the ball roll, hoping it would go foul—it didn't and the bases were full.

Centerfielder Bill Woods, who had three for three in the opener, promptly hit a long fly to deep center and Sorenson darted across after the catch to give Bentley the victory.

It was an excellent start for Coach Marty Klok's proteges who had to open the season on the Haggerty Field diamond off Hines Parkway.

The summaries:

Port Huron	102 000 0 3 5 1

Jay Cees Win Livonia DPR Girls Loop

The Jay Cees captured the championship of the Livonia Girls Basketball League, sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation, with a string of five straight victories.

The circuit was in charge of Supervisors Jackie Couzens and Bev Shafer and played in mid-March with a five game schedule for each of the six clubs.

In the final standings, the Jay Cees had five wins and no losses followed by Bryant Braves and Frost Phantoms with 3 and 2 record. Playgirls with 2-3, Lollipop Kids, 1-4 and the Gidget Surfside Shooters wound up in the cellar with no victories.

Trojans Swamp Track Rivals

A big year for Clarenceville high school in track?

Coach Ralph Temby isn't one who likes to predict, but after what happened last week in two meets, Temby must do a little smiling.

Clarenceville roared to easy victories in two triangular meets.

First it was against Cherry Hill and Crestwood as the Trojans piled up 72 points to 32 for Cherry Hill and the same number for Crestwood.

Two days later, Clarenceville hit a massive 88½ points to only 34½ for Northville and 11 for Holly in a Wayne-Oakland League outdoor attraction.

Jim Prisk, winner of the shot put in both meets, also chalked up a new school record when he unloaded a toss of 49 feet, 2 inches against Northville and Holly.

The old Clarenceville mark had stood at 48 feet, 8¾ inches.

The Clarenceville winners follow:

Against Cherry Hill and Crestwood—Prisk (shot put), Dennis Ashley (long jump), Larry Buchheit (mile), Bryan Kent (880), Jeff Waldman (440), Ron Ray (low hurdles) and the mile relay of Ralph Renci, Fred Welton, Larry Buchheit and Larry Martin.

Against Northville and Holly—Prisk (shot put), Jim Amick (high jump), Amick and Welton (tied for first in pole vaults), Renci (long jump), Larry Buchheit (mile), Jim Harboure (high and low hurdles), Waldman (44), Jim Stearns (100 and 220-yard dashes), the 880-yard relay of Renci, Chris Hawkins, Harboure and Stearns and the mile relay of Renci, Welton, Larry Buchheit and Waldman.

Clarenceville high rebounded from an opening 3-0 defeat to Northville to down Holly, 4-1, and gain a split in its initial week of action in the Wayne-Oakland League's baseball title chase.

Steve Evans, Northville's star hurler, was too much for Clarenceville. He allowed only a six-inning double to Mike Nye and fanned 15.

Mike Nye of Clarenceville pitched well enough to win on most occasions. He gave up six hits and had allowed just one run until the final inning.

Gale Armstrong's strong two-hit hurling carried Clarenceville to victory over Holly. Both safeties came in the second inning after Holly had notched an unearned run in the first inning.

Armstrong finished strong, fanning five of the last six men to give him nine strikeout victims in the game.

Clarenceville counted twice each in the sixth and seventh innings. In the sixth Carl Watkins was safe on a fielder's choice and scored on Herb Vader's double. Tom Schlack singled Vader in.

Then in the seventh, Bob Duman's double, Fred Neal's single and an error finished the scoring for the Trojans.

Neal, Vader, Schlack and Duman each bagged two hits for the winners.

Raiders, Falcons Clip RU

The baseball season began on a happy note for both Farmington and North Farmington high schools.

Each won by the same margin and from the same opponent—Redford Union.

Farmington came out on top, 2-1, and North Farmington, 4-3.

What's more, both Farmington and North Farmington each was presented the winning run as a "gift."

Farmington's decisive tally resulted from a balk.

Dan Wolfman, who hurried for the victors and allowed only three hits while fanning 10, doubled, took third on a wild pitch and came around when RU's Kevin Fox committed the balk.

Mike Perry had tripled over Wayne Johnson with Farmington's first run while Fred Londo singled in Ross Beckerleg with the lone RU rally in the first inning.

Chuck Viane, the giant of North Farmington's pitching staff in 1965, showed he had lost none of his stuff in mastering RU. He scattered seven hits, struck out 12 and walked one.

Viane also figured in the North Farmington scoring.

In the third inning, Viane's double chased in two markers. Bill Bowles gave North Farmington a 4-1 lead.

Five Hoosiers Win Cage Fame at U-M

ANN ARBOR—Dave Strack, basketball coach at the University of Michigan, a native of Indianapolis, Ind., is one of nine Hoosiers who have captained Wolverine basketball teams since 1918. Strack led the 1946 team.

Others include Alan Boyd, Indianapolis, 1918; Bob Chapman, Marion, 1930; Al Plummer, Wabash, 1935; John Townsend, Indianapolis, 1938; Doug Lawrence, Fort Wayne, 1953; Ray Pavichovich, East Chicago, 1954; Terry Miller, Fort Wayne, 1960; and Bobby Cantrell, East Chicago, 1964.

New Astronaut Earned Letter At Michigan

ANN ARBOR—Captain Jack R. Lousma, 30, of Ann Arbor, one of Michigan's two new astronauts, earned his football letter at quarterback on the 1956 University of Michigan football squad. The Marine Corps officer was shifted to halfback by then Coach Bennie Oosterbaan in 1957, but injuries put him out of action much of the time.

Lousma also was captain of the undefeated 1953 Ann Arbor High football team under present Wolverine backfield coach Hank Fonde, and also earned all-state honors as a halfback.

Trackmen Standout in East Loss

Defeat can have its brighter side.

Just ask coach Bill Wilson of Garden City East's track team. Although East bowed to Lowrey, 74-55, Wilson was impressed with the showing of some of his juniors and sophomores. For the most part, the 1966 East track team is comprised of underclassmen.

There was Doug Norris, a junior, won the mile for East in the excellent time of 4:48.2. Tenth graders Bob Calinowski and Bill Crowell came through with victories in the 440-yard run and high jump, respectively.

Calinowski was timed in 54.2 seconds while Crowell cleared 5 feet, 6 inches.

The East mile relay of Dennis Okon, Lynn Thompson, Norris and Fred Kenyon stepped to victory in 3:52.2.

Tigers Set May Date For Benefit Game

The Detroit Tigers' 1966 exhibition game with the St. Louis Cardinals, for the benefit of all amateur baseball in the Michigan area, will be played at Tiger Stadium on Monday, May 16.

A starting time of 7 p.m. has been set for the inter-league contest to accommodate the thousands of youngsters expected to attend.

This will be the Cardinals' second visit to Detroit in the continuing series for the support of sandlot baseball in Detroit and St. Louis. In 1964, the game here had a ticket sale of 48,446 which represented a gift of nearly $85,000 to the amateur sport. Actual attendance at the game was 26,172.

The Tigers and Cardinals also have played twice in St. Louis and the Tigers have won all three times, 8-4 at St. Louis in 1963, 10-3 at Detroit in 1964, and 4-0 at St. Louis in 1965.

Pre-game ceremonies and entertainment are being planned for the renewal of the series here in May.

As in the past, the Recreation Association of Michigan has accepted the handling of ticket sales on a statewide basis and supervision of the distribution of the receipts for any amateur team or league wishing to participate.

John E. Fetzer, owner and president of the Tigers, said that the club will defray expenses of the game giving the gate receipts to amateur baseball.

Officials of the R.A.M. on the central committee for the game are:

Ben F. Yack, recreation superintendent at Wyandotte, who is chairman.

Joseph Seavey, recreation director at East Detroit and president-elect of the R.A.M.

L. Pete Moser, recreation director at Kalamazoo and former president of the R.A.M.

Tom Cole, commissioner of baseball at Flint.

Everett Scherich, superintendent of parks and recreation at Jackson.

Pete Harlow, of the Detroit Parks and Recreation at Livonia.

The committee plans to center the ticket campaign in Detroit and six out-state areas, with additional tickets offered to organizations in Toledo and Windsor, if they wish to participate.

Distribution of tickets will be based on population and the number of amateur teams handled by R.A.M. cities in 1965.

Organizations selling tickets will keep the entire amount collected and urge their wide-spread use by fans and youngsters throughout the area.

Judd Ross, Wayne State University rowing coach, is a former vice-president of the Central States Rowing Association.

Merri-Bowl Kegler Gets 11 in a Row For Season High 290

Merri-Bowl Lanes keglers are still talking about the amazing reversal of form shown by Dick Massingill, 15905 Harrison, Livonia, while rolling with the last place Mid-nights in the Go-Getters League.

Massingill, a 159 average bowler, started the night with a 143 and then dropped to 133 in the second game. He had just about written off the evening as one of those things when he suddenly hit the hottest streak of his entire bowling career.

He left the four pin on a solid hit in the opening frame and then poured in 11 straight strikes for a 290. It was the highest game of his career—and he wasn't entered in the jackpot.

Rocks Fall Twice on Diamond

The Plymouth high baseball team was still looking for its first victory this week.

Making their debut under new coach Frank Fisher last week, the Rocks suffered a 4-0 whitewashing at the hands of Ypsilanti and then lost a 3-2 squeaker to Walled Lake.

Ypsilanti counted all of its runs in the fourth inning on two hits, two errors and two walks. The Rocks were restricted to a pair of hits, both by Pat Williams.

Danny Camp and Dan Nunaz shared the pitching for the Rocks.

Against Walled Lake, Pat Williams and Bob Resh each collected a pair of hits, but the Lakers put together two walks, a wild pitch and a hit to win the game.

Jack Robertson started for the Rocks and was followed to the mound by Pat Williams and Randy Williams, who's Pat's younger brother.

Parks Open New Par 3 Golf Course

George Giblin, park superintendent, announced Monday that the 18-hole "Par 3" golf course at Lower Huron Metropolitan Park near Belleville is now open. Course hours are from 8 a.m. to dusk daily, with extended hours later in the season.

Over 166,000 persons have used the course since it was dedicated in May of 1961, with over 36,300 in 1965, 37,900 in 1964, 40,000 in 1963, 31,600 in 1962 and 20,107 in 1961.

Visitors traveling on I-94 should use the Haggerty Road Interchange to reach the park entrance along Hannan Road, which is 1/2 mile south of the Edsel Ford (I-94) Freeway 25 miles from downtown Detroit between Detroit Metropolitan Airport and Belleville.

N. Farmington Net Team Victors

North Farmington high's tennis team turned in a 5-2 victory over Farmington. The winning team captured two singles and three doubles matches. In the only three-set duel, Farmington's Kurt Dembeck defeated Bill Orr.

Observing Sports

that things may be different. The Tigers are oozing confidence. They're convinced they can win. That's important.

A pennant for Detroit? As we said a few weeks back... we refuse to predict any more on anything.

DOTS AND DASHES: Don't be shocked if the news breaks shortly that the Michigan Mile, premier horse race of the year in Michigan, will carry a $100,000 price tag at the Detroit Race Track this summer.

It's to be hoped that something will be done to avoid future strikes at race tracks in Michigan. The state and the communities involved are big losers. Northville suffered heavily because the trotters never could get started at the Downs. The story easily could be the same for Livonia or Hazel Park.

Steps are under way to revive a Class A sandlot baseball league which would operate in the Greater Livonia area. At the moment it would appear that Livonia could field two adult teams, but where to find three or four teams is the big problem.

The cost of outfitting a Class A team for men runs high... as much as three thousand dollars a season. Sponsors to foot such bills don't grow on apple trees.

Livonia officials are hopeful that through the Detroit Tiger-St. Louis Cardinals exhibition to be staged this summer for sandlot baseballers, the necessary funds may be raised to get an "A" League going for Livonia, Garden City, Plymouth, Farmington and one or two other neighboring towns.

Grid Fans to View 32 Pro Games in '66

"Football every Sunday... and then some" will be the cry this Fall, according to the schedule of National Football League games to be televised in 1966 by Detroit's TV2.

In announcing the slate of contests, Dean McCarthy, WJBK-TV Program and Operations Manager, noted that some 32 games, including at least seven Lion clashes, will be offered Motor City football fans. This season will also mark the first in which NFL football will be telecast in Detroit even when the Lions are at home.

The schedule features four exhibition games on each of the last three Fridays in August and on September 2. Regular season competition gets underway with the Baltimore Colts-Green Bay Packers contest to be played in Milwaukee on Saturday night, September 10.

At least one Sunday game will be seen every weekend thereafter through December 18. Dates, locations, and competitors in the three post-season matches—Championship, Playoff Bowl and Pro-Bowl—will, of course, be announced at a later date.

Other notable features of the schedule are five "doubleheaders"—telecasting of a western fray at the conclusion of an earlier East Coast tilt, coverage of a Monday night game pitting the Chicago Bears against the St. Louis Cardinals on October 31 and a Thanksgiving "even-

Raiders 3rd To Foes in Track Meet

North Farmington high's track team had to settle for third place in a triangular meet against Cranbrook and Walled Lake.

The Cranbrook thinclads triumphed with 54 points with Walled Lake scoring 45 1/2 and North Farmington 39 1/2.

North Farmington produced five winners—sophomore John Mann in the high jump with a leap of 5-7, Mark Palmer in the long jump with a mark of 19-4 1/2, Steve Dube in the 440 in 51.1 seconds and Larry August in the low hurdles in 22.1 seconds.

Bruce Whetter of North Farmington ran second in both dashes while the Raiders' mile relay of Dube, Bruce Vlaming, Jim Rowe and Gary Succop also took second.

The Raiders had three meets listed this week including an appearance Saturday in the Brother Rice Relays.

Now's Time To Register Motorboat

LANSING—Even though it's chilly and blustery here in Michigan, now is the ideal time to think of getting that motor boat shipshape for the warm weather... which includes registering for the new three-year cycle which began January 1.

Secretary of State James M. Hare reminds motorboat owners that all branch offices of the Secretary of State handle new applications and renewals for the registration of motorboats.

"And business has been slow," Hare admits.

"This is the ideal time to register boats," Hare said, "before the warm weather sets in and everybody gets the idea."

Three-year registration fee is only $3. Hare said that only 26,500 motorboats had been registered as of March 18.

He estimated that there are now more than a half-million motorboats in Michigan, but that only 400,000 were registered during the last three-year cycle.

"Many boat owners take a chance and operate illegally. Others are unaware that motorboats have to be registered. Stricter enforcement and tougher actions against offenders seem to be the only alternatives against persons who flaunt the law."

"Every motorboat... no matter whether it's a small, low-horsepower boat or a 75-foot ocean-going pleasure yacht... has to be registered according to law."

Hare said that enforcing boating laws is a big problem because there "simply are not enough police officials to patrol every waterway and lake in Michigan." He said he would ask for more "rigid enforcement" on registrations from sheriffs, who handle the enforcement end.

Among registered boats during the past three-year period, wood and aluminum continued as the most popular hull materials. Largest single category was the under 16-foot outboard aluminum hull boats which totaled more than one quarter of all registrations, 115,500.

Wood hull outboards under 16 feet were the next most popular with Michigan boating enthusiasts with 81,000 registered.

Sixteen to 26-foot inboards of wood hull construction were the most popular in that class, registering more than 20,000.

Tiger Benefit To Aid Junior Baseball Cause

Livonians can enjoy an outing at the Detroit-St. Louis Cardinal benefit game at 7 p.m. Monday, May 16 in Tiger Stadium.

At the same time they will be assisting the cause of the city junior baseball program, which would receive all proceeds from the ticket sale. Necessarily there will be no refunds in the event of rain or inclement weather.

Bus transportation can be arranged by calling the Recreation Department, GA 1-2000. Cost of a 47-passenger bus is $50 with departure time from a central location at 6:00 p.m.

Those desiring to make ticket applications are requested to contact the offices in the Department of Parks and Recreation as soon as possible.

Judge Finally Receives Place With U-M Greats

ANN ARBOR—Judge Robert Jerome (Duke) Dunne of the Cook County Circuit Court in Chicago, is the "newest" member of the select group of University of Michigan athletes to earn nine or more letters as a Wolverine—46 years after he competed in the 1920 Olympic Games to qualify for it.

Judge Dunne earned four football letters from 1918 through 1921, added a pair in basketball in 1920-21, and later made track letters in 1921-22.

However, he fell short of the requisite number of points to qualify for a varsity letter in 1920 during the regular season. But he earned a place on the 1920 U.S. Olympic team later that summer.

In recognition of his achievement the Board in Control of Intercollegiate Athletics awarded him a letter after the season ended although his name did not appear on the official list. In re-checking the list of athletes who earned nine or more letters, the error was discovered.

Addition of his name to the honored group brings the total up to nine. It is headed by Pete Elliott, now football coach at Illinois, who made 12 letters.

Honors Pour Into U-M For Cazzie

ANN ARBOR—Cazzie Russell may have finished his collegiate basketball career at the University of Michigan but the echoes of his brilliant play still roll on.

The Wolverine three-time All-American was named winner of the Big Ten's most valuable player award last weekend for the second straight year. Russell beat out nine other players, one from each conference team, all of whom had been selected by their teammates.

In winning the silver basketball awarded annually by the Chicago Tribune, last year, Russell became the first Michigan player to win the award since it was established in 1946.

Russell also was selected on another all-opponents team by one of Michigan's opponents during the regular season—the University of San Francisco.

The Dons selected Russell and two other players, Houston's Elvin Hayes and Penn State's fine forward, Carver Clinton, as unanimous choices. They also gave Captain Oliver Darden, forward, honorable mention on their all-opponent selection.

four each in football, basketball and golf. He competed during the World War II years when freshmen were eligible for varsity competition, and is the only man to earn that number since awards were first given in 1879, or 87 years ago.

Neil Snow, a member of Fielding H. Yost's first Rose Bowl as well as the famed "point-a-minute" teams at the turn of the century, is second on the list with ten letters, four each in football and basketball and two in track.

Nine-letter-men include Harry Kipke, three each in football, basketball and baseball, 1921-24; Bennie Oosterbaan, football, basketball, baseball, 1929-32; Russ Oliver, football, basketball, baseball, 1932-35; Don Lund, football, basketball, baseball, 1942-45, and Ron Kramer, football, basketball, track, 1954-57.

Plan Auto Races for Fair Track

A new format designed to create a new era for auto racing in Metropolitan Detroit, will unfold on Sunday, May 1, with a program of stock and superstock car racing at State Fair Speedway. Eight Mile and Woodward.

Chuck Sommers, a 29-year-old auto racer with business experience in the fields of credit and finance, is the general manager and promoter of the new venture.

One of the first things he did was to lay out a half mile and a quarter mile track to bring all of the action before the grand stand.

"The layout will enable us to present quarter-mile, half-mile, Figure 8 and Double O races," Sommers said.

Plans call for three Sunday afternoon programs (May 1, 8 and 15) before a switch to three nights-a week programming.

The fellow who hangs on stands the best chance of success.

Now's Time To Work On Weeds

If you haven't noticed, the weeds such as dandelion, chickweed and plantain are green and growing even though the grass may not. Now is the time to use weed killers for year round control.

Broadleaf weeds are succulent and more easily controlled now. Later they harden off as warm weather approaches and are more difficult to kill. They also may spread new seed which germinates to plague you during the summer and fall. Since grass is still slightly dormant, it will not be as readily injured should you by mistake use too much herbicide.

Since shrubs and trees have no foliage they are less liable to be injured by drift. Combinations of 2,4-D and 2,4,5-TP (silvex) are excellent. The 2,4-D kills most broadleaf weeds. The silvex increases the efficiency of the 2,4-D. Silvex is also a specific control for clover and chickweed.

Many manufacturers combine the two in one product for broadleaf weeds. Directions listed on the container for use are important. Tree shrubs and perennials can be severely damaged by weed killers. Weed killers should never be used on newly seeded grass. Apply weed killers to new grass only after it has been cut at least twice.

If you plan to sod or sow seed for a new lawn this spring, look into the possibility of fumigation to eliminate weeds before starting out. Check with your local landscape contractor on this possibility.

Crabgrass, also considered a weed but not broadleaf, must have a special material for control. Now is also the time to apply pre-emergence crabgrass killers. Pre-emergence crabgrass applications at this time of year are the most efficient means of controlling this grassy pest.

Ideal time for application this year will be between April 15 and April 25th. Materials proven effective in this area are Zytren, Dacthal, and Dipan. Tupersan and Azak also show much promise for pre-emergence crabgrass control.

Perennial weed grasses such as Tall Fescue and Quackgrass can only be eliminated with non-selective herbicides. These are materials which kill all vegetation. Dalapon, Amitol T (Cytrol) may be used for this purpose. A three to five week wait before replanting is necessary where these chemicals are used. Avoid these where there are tree and shrub roots.

Roots of these plants may absorb these chemicals causing severe damage or death. Cracks in patio blocks and other paved areas can be kept weed and grass free with these materials. Sodium arsenite is also used for a non-selective herbicide but is rather dangerous to handle. Severe skin burns can be suffered from handling of sodium arsenite.

For control of weeds in shrub beds, several chemicals can be used. Trifluralin, diphenamid, and simazine are three chemi-

On the Lawn

WITH LARRY LAWRENCE

KEEP YOUR CREDIT GREEN. Readers of a trade paper were recently advised by a top official of one of our biggest store chain: "All you have to do to check customers' credit is to cruise the streets. Those who keep up their homes are the best risks." (Excuse me while I mow the front lawn!)

DARN THAT DOG. A man from Scotts, the lawn people, tells me that the vast majority of all so-called "brown spots" are caused by dogs. And apart from training Fido to go behind the bushes, there really isn't any effective preventive or cure. Instead of trying to reseed an unsightly brown spot, replace it with a plug of good sod from the edge of the lawn.

FUEL OIL DAMAGE. The grass around a fuel oil intake pipe is soon killed by spillage. Before replanting, dig out all saturated soil and replace. And if the oil man won't mend his ways, put a 8-12" circle of loose stones or sand around the pipe to catch the drippings.

DEFEATING CRABGRASS. There are two ways. Whichever you use, use it at the right time. You can put down a pre-emergence control anytime until roses bloom. Otherwise wait until the crabgrass plants are developed and then eradicate them with a specific.

als which can be used. These materials must be applied to weed-free cultivated areas as they are pre-emergence controls which kill the weeds and grass as it germinates. Care should be taken to prevent washing of these materials since they may injure established grass.

Those who have problem weeds may bring a sample for identification by the experts to the Second Annual Free Lawn and Garden Fair to be held April 30, at the State Fairgrounds. The Fair will be open at no charge from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Come and see actual outdoor demonstrations on weed control and other lawn problems. Over 100 different gardening demonstrations will be shown on all phases of planting and care of plant material for the homeowner.

The world does owe you a living, but by the time you collect you'll be an old man.

Plan Course to Train Turf Experts in Area

"Recent surveys have shown that the Detroit Metropolitan area has the largest concentration of turf production in the United States," revealed Don Juchartz, of the Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service.

He pointed out that the replacement value of the lawns and turf areas in this area, such as home lawns, sod fields, parks, golf courses, cemeteries, etc., exceeds $250 millions.

The industry that has grown up around the production of turf is expanding yearly because of the unique characteristics found here.

He cites the great number of homes that are owned in the Detroit area, and the pride associated with keeping up the grounds, the climate and availability of a large market, the recreation-minded people of the area who are blessed with large park and golf areas, and the fine system of highways that allows turf to be transported to distant markets.

"More than 15,000 acres are devoted to sod production in the Detroit area alone," said Juchartz, "making it the largest concentration of commercial sod production in the United States. About 60 per cent of the sod is exported from the area annually."

We have conservatively estimated that sod production and sales annually accounts for about $50 million return to Michigan citizens. When to this figure are added sales of fertilizers, herbicides, equipment and landscape services the total dollar return to Michigan is very high."

Juchartz, however, points out a major stumbling block to the continued growth and healthy condition of this industry. There is an acute shortage of trained, qualified personnel to assume management and leadership roles in the turf industry.

There are untold opportunities in the supervision and management of golf courses, parks, athletic fields, estates, cemeteries, highway roadides, sod-farming and many others requiring a technical knowledge of turfgrass production and management.

In an effort to alleviate the shortage of trained personnel in this area, Juchartz points out that Michigan State University has established a "turfgrass management cooperative training program."

The course will begin on Sept. 29, at Michigan State University, with an admission requirement of high school graduation.

The schedule of instruction will include two quarters of on-campus study (Sept. 25, 1966 to March 18, 1967) two quarters on the job training (March 20, 1967 to Sept. 28, 1967), and two quarters of on-campus study

Township Sets Clean-Up Dates

Spring clean-up will start Monday in Redford Township and continue for two weeks. Clerk Dawn Rice has announced that each resident may take advantage of his regular pick-up for the next two weeks to dispose of unwanted materials.

"Building material in excess of four feet in length will not be picked up," she said. There will be no pick-ups on Saturday.

Did you know Macomb County has a total population of almost 500,000 persons and that at least 500 lives throughout the area are lost annually to cancer? Free information on this disease may be obtained from the Michigan Cancer Foundation, 35 Church Street, Mt. Clemens.

Wally Roberts UP' GOING 'CURTAIN

As profusely as spring tulips are popping into view the multiplicity of community and university theater theatrical offerings are blossoming forth during this later part of April.

The Livonia-Redford Players Guild is busy rehearsing an all-star cast in "You Can't Take It With You." Tony Mattar has assembled a cast of your favorites seen on the local boards for the past 10 years. An early May opening has been set for this classic comedy.

"Blithe Spirit," a Noel Coward slice of zany comedy, opens April 29 at the Farmington Player's Guild Playhouse out on 12 Mile Road. Hope Nahstohl will enact the important comedy role of Madame Arcati. Old Wally predicts the three week run will be loaded with hilarious mirth.

A May musical at the former Plymouth Opera House, the P and A theater, is being given the final touches. Jerry French and King Page are working around the clock to open the show during the second week in May.

The Bonstelle Playhouse on Woodward Avenue is giving us all a chance to brush up on our Shakespeare with "The Comedy of Errors." This masterpiece of Shakespearean mistaken identity will run one more weekend with a special Sunday matinee at 2:30 p.m. on April 24.

Meanwhile over at the Classic Theater in the Wayne State area the Hilberry Repertory company is practicing the art of making cucumber sandwiches. This delicacy is found in the opening scene of "The Importance of Being Earnest." A May opening (May 3) has been scheduled for this Oscar Wilde favorite to be added to the already successful repertory of five plays that will run until June 12.

The Dearborn Player's Guild are tying up the corset strings ever so snugly to the zany French comedy "GIGI." Gigi's mother has to be laced into an "old Ironsides" version of the present day omnipresent girder during Act I. Seems that mother has been putting on a little weight and the battle of the bulge makes for an early comic scene in "Gigi."

"GIGI" was a Broadway smash back in the 1950's. Later it was translated into a most melodic musical for the screen. Leslie Caron did the movie version while Audrey Hepburn did the stage play. The Dearborn Player's Guild feels they have an actress equally as attractive and as competent in Diane Michalke, a Livonian who might become a Dearbornite.

Reservations are now being taken for seats to "GIGI." Plays at the Dearborn Playhouse always sellout. Call 561-0200 right now to assure your chance to see this all time favorite at the Playhouse, Outer Drive and Monroe.

Over in Ann Arbor the University of Michigan Professional Theater folks closed the Play-of-the-month series with the fantastically funny "Barefoot In The Park." Hill Auditorium is still shaking from all the left-over laughter from last week's one night stand.

"Barefoot" will be a community theater favorite in the years to come. Let's hope local theater directors did get a chance to see the show in it's Fisher Theater and Ann Arbor appearances. If there ever was a need to build and maintain a furious pace, you must have it in "Barefoot."

The 1966-67 Professional Theater season appears to be headed for new and higher artistic heights with the signing of Helen Hayes and Melvyn Douglas to work in three of the five plays being presented. Drop a card to the Lydia Mendelsohn box office and they'll send you a brochure giving season ticket prices.

You won't want to miss the coming A.P.A. season or next year's Play of the Month series. Old Wally found them to be the equal of what he recently saw in New York city. Incidentally, the report on my peregrinations will be featured in next week's column.

Calling: FHS Class of '46

The Farmington High School graduation class of 1946 is planning a reunion to be held July 16, at Roma Hall in Livonia.

Letters have been sent to those class members that have been located. From the original 78 graduates, the whereabouts of the following four members are unknown:

Harold Burns - Lyke Cook - Lois Carpenter - Robert Pagenkoph.

Anyone with information as to the whereabouts of these people, please call 422-6760 or GR 4-1105.

A reminder to those members that have received letters. Please confirm your reservations by May 1.

Players Slate Ball

The Nankin Mills Players will kickoff their 1966 social season by hosting a Hobo Ball on April 30 at the Rosedale Gardens Civic Hall, 9611 Hubbard, Livonia.

This costume affair will be open to the public. Food, theatrical entertainment, refreshments, and door prizes will be included with the dancing. Prizes will also be awarded to the most original male and female hobos, who will be crowned King & Queen of the Ball.

The festivities start at 8:30 p.m. The deadline for reservations is April 27. For reservations and tickets call 291-6268 or 427-9091.

Those engaged in a heated argument pay very little attention to danger signals.

By JOHN DEW

Batman has now come and gone from the metropolis leaving it much the same as before with the possible exception of the unfortunate parents who were hounded into taking their crew of kids to see the phenomenon — and then were hit with the $3 per person tariff to see the five or ten minute "appearance."

Next excitement is due Aug. 13 as the Beatles invade Detroit for the second time around. WKNR has tied up exclusive rights to presentation of the show—a major coup in the competitive struggle between stations. The Liverpool larynxes are scheduled to perform in two shows at Olympia—an afternoon matinee at 2 p.m. and an evening exciter at 7:30 p.m. At least in this one there will be some evidence of talent displayed for the price of admission.

While we're on the subject of talent, there is quite a bit of it nearby. The Headliners, who have created a strong local following due to their engagements locally over the past few years, are currently in the spotlight at the Town House in Toledo. They close out this Saturday night, having moved to the Toledo show from a previous engagement at the Fountainbleau in Miami. They will be back in the Detroit area in September — once again topping the bill at the Suburban Lounge.

Also appearing in Toledo, April 29 and 30, are the fantastically talented Righteous Brothers. The Platters fill the feature bill at the Gay Haven. And Bobby Rydell an extremely versatile performer, is showing his wares (whatever that old cliché means) at the Top Hat in Windsor. Next week Rydell leaves and Bobby Vinton moves into the spotlight there.

Joey Reynolds, the new voice you are hearing this week from 9 p.m. to midnight this week on WXYZ, has several dubious claims to fame. While on WK-BW in Buffalo he noticed the two-tone stone eagle carved on the facade of the Buffalo Public Library. Being the sensitive, 24-year-old that he is, Reynolds took the eagle under his wing (pardon the pun) and announced on the air that since the poor old bird hadn't been fed in years, they should have a march to the steps of the library and feed it all of the city's problems. About 6,000 of his fans took him up on the proposal.

Then there was the roller coaster marathon in which Joey rode a roller coaster for 1,110 ride in 15 hours.

Performances are scheduled for 10 a.m., 1 p.m., and 3 p.m. The WSU Children's Theatre tours southeastern Michigan each year with stage versions of well-known selections from children's classics. This year's production of "Aladdin" was dramatized by James Norris. All tickets are 50 cents and may be purchased at the elementary schools. Proceeds from the play are used for scholarships to graduating seniors from the Farmington High Schools.

"Ministry Open to Women" Says Rev. Elsie Johns

By JERRY WENDT
Church Editor

Upon entering the ramshackle, paintless building on Grand River in Farmington, Elsie Johns found a note pinned to the pulpit. "This church has no membership and no money. Here's the key."

And like a cruel parody of the song, "The best is yet to come", there were other discoveries in store. There was no water, and worse yet, no toilet facilities.

The former congregation after a bitter Hatfield-McCoy type feud, had departed leaving ugly wounds behind. The entire church, both spiritual and physical, was an utter wreck.

Was Elsie Johns discouraged? No, she regarded it as a challenge and used the winning combination of guts and hope to start the ball rolling in the other direction.

The first six Sundays she preached to a completely empty church. Then on the seventh, a break came in the form of a former friend at Highland Park, who came with her two sons. "I'll be back next week and we'll start a Sunday School," she promised Rev. Johns, and true to her word, she did.

Interviewing Rev. Johns, in the office of the beautiful new Clarenceville Methodist Church on Middlebelt Rd., it seemed a far cry from those days. The building, very modern, was completely streamlined in appearance and so was the Rev. Elsie Johns, a slender, attractive woman, modestly attired in a suit of rose colored wool.

Rev. Johns likes to hark back to those days and does so without bitterness. She had a great belief in her God and knew that if she did her task, he would not fail her. Born in Calumet, she was raised in a devout Methodist family. After graduation she came to live in Highland Park and work as a supervisor of the billing department of the National Twist Drill Co.

A worker in the First Methodist Church, Highland Park, she was asked in 1941 to go to Clarenceville Church and see if she could save a dying church.

When it was in its beginning, Elsie (as she is affectionately called by her entire congregation) served without pay. Gradually due to house to house solicitation of members, the congregation came to grow.

The members pitched in and helped rebuild the old church house. And her employer, instead of chastising her for spending so much outside time on the church gave her a substantial check to help her.

Gradually success came. Today there are Youth Groups, a Sunday School, a Woman's Society of Christian Service, a Men's Club, and four choirs.

We were anxious to talk to Rev. Johns, not only about her success but about whether she thought more women would enter the ministry. When we asked her we uncovered another facet of her surprising personality. Rev. Johns is a newspaperman's delight. She is a forthright speaker and there is no "please don't quote me."

"I think more women will go into the ministry because there is a need for it. More men are leaving because of dissatisfaction" was her surprising statement.

"Should women ministers marry?" we asked her. "No," she said, "this is one of the few fields where women cannot combine a career and marriage. There are too many demands on one's time."

Rev. Johns attributes her accomplishment to her dedication to the Word of God. She reads the Bible constantly and always says her best sermon "is the one she hasn't preached yet."

There have been many honors in her career. Her twenty-five years of ministerial leadership were lifted up in song and praise when hundreds gathered to congratulate her at the St. John's Hotel in Detroit, October, 1965.

An another honor is yet in store. This year she will take a trip to Palestine and the Holy Land.

Along with the church key she received that long ago day, we feel Rev. Johns had another key given to her. Perhaps the key to life itself, and that is Faith in God.

"The Flower Arranger Sets Her Table"

"The Flower Arranger Sets Her Table" was the demonstration and lecture by Julia S. Berrall, a nationally known authority on flower arranging, Wednesday at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. It was a "Thank-You" gesture for those who participated in their flower and table setting exhibition last fall.

In attendance representing the Farmington Garden Club and the Hill and Dale Garden Club were, Mrs. James Henry, Mrs. John McCormick, Mrs.

Arthur Groschap, Mrs. Ralph Frederick, Mrs. Robert Crompton, Mrs. Percy Parker, Mrs. Frank DePodesta, Mrs. Tracy Conroy, Mrs. James Jones, Mrs. Willis Caldwell, Mrs. Dwight Gordon, Mrs. Travis Bowden, Mrs. Charles Norman, Mrs. Richard Leonard, Mrs. Ray Eickler and Mrs. Bruce Duke. Also Mrs. Richard Lancaster, Mrs. Richard Frankel, Mrs. Larry Beaumont, Mrs. Harold Brown, Mrs. Glenn Leland, Mrs. Richard Gaul, Mrs. Donald Jewsbury, Mrs. John Passfield, Mrs. Tom Simmons, Mrs. Kenneth Trombley, Mrs. Fred Bulman, Mrs. William Taylor, Mrs. Robert Whiteford, Mrs. John King, Mrs. William Goheille, Mrs. Richard Steiger, Mrs. William Wichman, and Mrs. Harlan Haskell.

Mrs. Berrall, of New Jersey, stated that she has two rules for assembling table appointments. "First, always keep the same qualities together. A thick pottery vase is not appropriate with fine porcelain. Keep formal, fine quality things together and use informal things together."

"The second rule is to keep the color of your interior decoration together. The flowers in the centerpiece should pick up the colors in the dinnerware and complement the other color in the room."

Handicapped To Be Counted

Handicapped children will be of special interest to school census takers this year.

"We are particularly concerned with identifying deaf and hard-of-hearing pre-school children and mentally retarded children of all ages," said Dr. Paul Thams, director of special education for Oakland Schools. "Some parents may not be aware of special education programs for which their children might qualify and neglect to report handicaps to the census taker."

New programs for trainable mentally handicapped will accommodate approximately 150 children who are not in school this year.

Deaf and hard-of-hearing children are eligible for special training after their first birthday.

The annual child count will begin May 11 and will be handled by local school districts in cooperation with Oakland Schools. Pre-printed census cards will carry the names of all children counted last year. Census takers will verify names and ages of children who have not moved and make new cards for children born since last May and for those who did not live at the present addresses last year.

Cards of children with reported handicaps will be sorted out on Oakland Schools data processing machinery for a cross check against names of children enrolled in special education classes and those known to be on waiting lists for classes for trainable mentally handicapped.
