Seven File for Plymouth School Board Posts

Although it is a well-known fact that the problems of the Plymouth Community School Board will multiply rapidly in the next year or so due to the anticipated population explosion, seven candidates filed for the three vacancies on the Board for the June 13 election.

This was quite a contrast to the situation a year ago when it appeared for a time that only the two incumbents would file for the two vacancies.

The total of seven exceeded the hopes of even those close to the Board of Education and definitely showed that there is more and more interest in the activities of the school system even though the problems are destined to become more acute.

Ernest Henry, 383 Pacific, who is ending a four year term, will seek a second term of office.

R. Bruce Scott, 8950 Ann Arbor Road, who was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Robert Jenkins last fall, is back seeking the remaining three years of that term.

Robert Soth, who has served as treasurer for several years, dropped out of contention and did not file for a third term.

Strange enough, it was thought that Scott would have clear sailing for the three-year term but Richard Arlen, 1441 Hartsough, a prominent member of the Plymouth-Northville Republican Club, became a candidate for that post.

Arlen's candidacy reflects the interest of the younger element in the community in the school system and its activities. He had thought of seeking a four-year term but switched at the last minute when it appeared that Scott would have no opposition.

Seeking the two four-year terms, one of which is currently held by Henry, are four comparative newcomers to the political wars. Each is a member of the new younger group and each has children in the school system.

The quartet includes:

Robert Tripp, 42531 Lakeland Court, in Lakepointe subdivision, who was one of the leaders in the movement to get bus transportation for youngsters in his area last fall after the Administration had decided against it. After a review by the Board and the Administration, the bus service was resumed.

Roscoe Walker, 41276 Crabtree Court, also from Lakepointe subdivision, a former teacher and coach in Garden City and currently employed by Ford Motor Co.

John Moehle, 1279 W. Ann Arbor Trail, who is in the Central Finance Staff of Ford Motor Co. His wife, Jane, is vice president of the Board of Trustees of Schoolcraft College.

Dr. Gary Hall, 480 Lindsay Drive, Plymouth Township, an active member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Hall is the first of the Jaycees to move into the political wars under the organization's new policy of becoming more involved in community activities. He is expected to have the full backing of the Jaycees in his campaign for a four-year term.

The Observer plans to run stories with complete information about each of the candidates, starting with the two seeking three-year terms, in next week's edition. The remaining five will be reviewed in two weeks. Each will be asked to present his views on pertinent topics.

Attorney Demel Charges Police Harassment

Council Okays Revised Taxi Code

An amendment to Plymouth's controversial Taxi Cab Ordinance, which would allow issuance of temporary 30 day permits, sped through its second and third reading at the Plymouth Commission meeting Monday.

Enroute to approval, however, the amendment ran into a detour, when a charge of police department discrimination was raised by Attorney Earl Demel, appearing before the commission to represent John Florence, owner of the Mayflower Cab company.

Demel, in objecting to the provision in the ordinance which requires that each applicant identify for which company the applicant was employed, implied that Plymouth police had been less than objective with his clients.

City Attorney Thomas Healy asked of Demel, "Is this a charge of discrimination against the Plymouth police or merely an assertion of possible discrimination?"

Demel retorted that "Whether it was discrimination or merely over-zealousness, I'm in no position to judge." When pressed by City Manager Richard Blodgett for specifics, Demel said that "Police have gone into homes without permission" — apparently in search of taxi cab licenses.

The Commission finally decided to conclude the matter for the evening by voting unanimously to invite both Demel and his client to the next meeting, on June 6, at which time the Commission will investigate the charges thoroughly.

In related action, Commissioner Arch Vallier heatedly asked for police reports on the condition of taxi cabs every 60 days. "The present ordinance requires police to examine all vehicles to make certain the cabs licensed by the city are in good repair, good mechanical condition and safe operating condition," Vallier pointed out.

Nearly all the commission pitched in on the discussion of how much and how often inspections should be conducted and whether or not such inspections were feasible by the Plymouth police.

The Commission asked the City Manager for a report on police inspection of taxi cabs at the next meeting.

The Commission also received a petition from 53 homeowners on the Byron Street water tower property. The petitioners asked that the property be converted into an equipped playground for children.

The commission pointed out to Terry West, a representative of the petitioning group, that the city could not furnish the playground, but might clean it up and fence it, if the petitioners could come up with a plan to equip it.

The matter was referred to the City Manager for a report at the next meeting.

The Commission granted permission for the Little League to hold its opening day parade on June 4. In other action, approval of the purchase of water meters was given by a 5-1 vote with Commissioner James Jabara voting no.

Building Inspector Chuck Thompson reported that mud and debris caused by contractors has been brought under control. "New England Village is doing a remarkable job in keeping the roads clean," now that the matter has been brought to their attention, Thompson pointed out.

City Greets North Branch Chief to Open Mich. Week

Dr. Gilbert O'Dell, a veterinarian from North Branch who also is Village President of the small rural community of 900, learned there is quite a difference in the operation of his village and the thriving city of Plymouth.

Dr. O'Dell, accompanied by his wife, and Village President Pro-Tem Leo Nairacon and wife, took over the helm of the city Monday in the annual Mayor Exchange Day program that traditionally opens the Michigan Week celebration in Plymouth. He was cordially greeted by Mayor Pro-Tem James Jabara and his wife Jean and City Manager Richard Blodgett and his wife Mikie, with a coffee klatch in the City Hall Monday morning to start a full day of activities that ended with a dinner in honor of the visitors at the Mayflower Hotel.

Dr. O'Dell and party made a tour of the City Hall, were guests of Evans Products Co. at a noon luncheon in the Mayflower Hotel, viewed the operations of the Railway Equipment division of Evans in the afternoon during which they were much impressed with the manufacture of the huge railroad freight and boxcars.

Then came the big climax—the dinner tendered by the City Commission in the evening at which the North Branch party were the honored guests.

It was a simple affair with Mayor Pro-Tem Jabara in charge. He made a welcoming address and then Dr. O'Dell answered by giving his impressions of his "City for a Day."

City Manager Blodgett presented the Village President and party with mementos of

College Asks Voters For Additional Millage

Faced with the ruling that it could not legally assess millage without a vote of the people, even though its legal counsel had ruled otherwise earlier, the Schoolcraft College Board of Trustees Friday voted to place a request for an additional .77 mills on the June 13 school ballot.

The action, although by unanimous vote in a special meeting of the Board, was taken with reluctance. The request was necessitated by rising costs of operation and construction.

Originally voters of the five community college district approved one mill for the college, half of which was earmarked for operations and the other half for payment on bonds.

Board President Harold Fischer, of Plymouth, pointed out that the amount requested, when added to the present one mill voted in 1962, will enable the college to pay all of the costs of operating the college, including the equipping and operating of the Vocational-Technical building now nearing completion.

The amount asked, when added to the 1962 millage, will also pay all service and other charges for the bonds issued for the present campus and for $3 million of additional bonds needed to match Federal and State funds now available for new buildings.

In deciding upon the request for less than one mill, the Board chose the unusual figure of .77 mills because it was determined that this millage would bring enough funds to meet the needs of the college.

The Board wisely decided to request no more than is actually needed.

In addition to completing and operating the Vocational complex, the additional millage will of the college.

Susan Tells Why Mom Is Best

The following letter, written by Susan Light, 10, was judged best in the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce Mother's Day contest. It won a weekend for two at the Elmwood Casino in Windsor for Mr. and Mrs. William Light, 303 Park Place.

Susan wrote: "I think my mother is the best mother because she takes time with me. She participates in school projects. When I am naughty Mom does what is best for me. I enjoy being with Mother because she likes the things I like. Mom is also a very good cook."

Susan didn't enlarge on what steps Mom takes to do what is best for her when she's naughty. But she certainly had the healthy look that goes with good cooking. Small wonder that she was delighted when the 'phone call was made to her home and her "Mom" was told she was the winner of the contest.

Asked about the request, Mrs. Holmes indicated there was some question in the minds of some Trustees over the legality of holding dual positions and receiving a salary for each.

"Naturally I would like to have the money," she said, "and I very carefully asked for and received an opinion from the Attorney General affirming the legality of the payment for the work. However, if there is to be niffing and nauffing over this matter, then I believe the Board could better hire a fulltime person to handle the two departments. I have no intentions of becoming involved in a vendetta with other members of the Board over this matter."

It will be recalled that Clerk C. Veach Sparks resigned in mid-April, effective May 1, and no valid reason for the resignation has been given yet by either Sparks or members of the Board.

In other actions, the Board: After a lengthy discussion, denied a request from Robert Wedler for rezoning of property in the intersection of Haggerty and Ann Arbor Roads.

VFW Post Pays Honor To Guideau

Charles Guideau, longtime Scoutmaster of Mayflower Post 6695 VFW, sponsored troop, was presented with the Citizenship award as one of the features of the annual installation of officers Saturday.

The installation was in charge of Bill and Barbara Bishop. Joseph Gembarski and James Baldwin were initiated into the Post recently as new members.

Mayflower Post is busy with plans for installation of air conditioners and a repainting project. A final decision will be made at the May 24 meeting.

Consumers Gives $25,000 To Madonna for Buildings

A $25,000 gift from Consumers Power Company was received by Madonna College, Livonia, to meet some of the costs of recent construction.

James Thomas, Division Manager for Livonia, presented the initial check of $10,000 to Sister Mary Danatha, president of Madonna. The remainder will be given in $7,500 donations for the next two years.

"After our evaluation of your building projects," Thomas said, "Consumers voted the gift to the college as a mark of faith in the growth and progress of a private institution and as an expression of pride in the work of a school serviced by its product."

"I would like to emphasize," continued Thomas, "that the gift is a contribution from each of the users of Consumers Power. We were instrumental only in channeling the funds to projects that indicate a good public investment."

James H. Campbell, president of Consumers, and Anson Hedgecock, vice-president, were instrumental in deciding the amount to be given to Madonna College.

Sister Danatha received the gift with an expression of gratitude.

"We are happy with the gift," she said. "This was a very generous gesture toward private education. Very recently we were discussing the possibility of a community cultural center. With this assistance from Consumers Power to meet our building debt, we can now look forward to the fulfilling of our dream in the near future. We hope this is the beginning of contributions from other sources."

Consumers Power has also appropriated funds for a one-year scholarship to Madonna College since 1964. This year's recipient is Jane Balwinski of Bay City.

Livonia Bank Pays Dividend To Shareholders

Livonia National Bank declared a cash dividend of 25 cents per share on its 50,000 shares of capital stock outstanding. This dividend is payable June 15 to stockholders of record June 1.

This is the second dividend to be paid during 1966 and reflects the continued growth and progress of the local bank, reports Elvin D. Dougherty, president.

He also stated that the complete remodeling of its main office at 33014 Five Mile is nearing completion and that an open house will be held in the near future for all customers who were so co-operative and patient while the remodeling was in progress.

4 Communities Join in Benefit for Opportunity Center

A mammoth benefit, the like of which has never before been presented in Western Wayne County, is expected to attract more than 2,500 to Roma Hall on Wednesday, May 25 and raise as much as $15,000 for the Community Opportunity Workshop, located at the intersection of Newburgh and Ann Arbor Roads in Livonia in the old Newburgh elementary school.

There'll be Lions, politicians, business and industry leaders, government heads from the lowest to the highest level, entertainers and the plain common folks who believe in the Sheltered Workshop for retarded adult and are willing to use a benefit of this type to make contributions. Matter of fact there is a possibility that a few Tigers will be in the audience if the proper arrangements are made with Detroit Baseball Company officials to have some of the players appear.

The benefit, started two months ago by Mrs. Rosalie Bales of Plymouth, has caught fire in the past two weeks and now appears almost certain to become the biggest money raising program for the Sheltered Workshop since it was opened to retarded in the communities of Livonia, Northville, Plymouth and Redford Township last September.

Originally started by the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce, the workshop quickly spread into the four communities and has plenty of applicants for work—but as expected from a still very young group, lacks financing.

It was this financing that Mrs. Bales noted was missing and personally decided that something should be done. She contacted scores of workers in all four communities to volunteer, personally made contacts in high places for speakers and for high ranking personages to appear, arranged for Roma Hall and then finally saw her idea begin to jell in the past two weeks.

The principal speakers—and there is an unusually large list of protocol definitely committed to appear—are Mrs. Lenore Romney, wife of Gov. Romney, and William Patrick, Jr., former Detroit City Councilman, and now legal counsel for Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

Each is a dynamic speaker and each is expected to go into the needs and value of a sheltered workshop. Both are well aware of the problems that face most communities in finding work for retarded adults and each is in full accord that the Community Opportunity Workshop is just that—an opportunity to make better citizens of persons who might become blights on the various communities.

But that's only a sample of the list of personalities.

Senator Robert Griffin, who only this week was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the death of Patrick McNamara, will appear. There is a possibility that he may be influenced to give an insight into his visit to Viet Nam.

Then there is Mrs. Elly Peterson, Republican national committeewoman and head of the Michigan Republican Party in Michigan; Nell Staebler, Democratic National committeewoman who is Mrs. Peterson's counterpart in the state for his party.

Former Governor G. Mennen Williams, who is a candidate for the Senatorial seat, will be represented by his wife and son Gary.

Detroit Mayor Jerry Cavanaugh will be represented by Dr. John Hanlon, Wayne County's Health Commissioner.

Others in the political field include: State Representative Marv Stempien, State Representative James Tierney, State Representative Edward Robinson and Carl Pursell, of Plymouth, who is a candidate for a state senatorial seat.

Congressman Weston Vivian, of Ann Arbor, and Congressman Billie Farnum, who represents the Livonia, Redford

Township and part of Farmington.

Mayors Harvey Moeke of Livonia, Mike Allen of Northville, James Houk of Plymouth and Township Supervisors John McDonald of Plymouth and Jack McDonald of Redford Township will be in the audience.

The various school districts will be represented by Superintendents Benton Yates of Livonia, Russell Isbister of Plymouth, Alex Nelson of Northville and Merlin Roe of South Redford.

Circuit Court Judge Thomas Foley of Plymouth, will be the master of ceremonies.

And to add a bit of frosting to the already sweetened cake, the Detroit Lions will have a six or eight man delegation present to autograph programs and generally add to the spirit of the evening.

The list includes Bruce Maher, Gail Cogdill, Daryl Sanders, Tom Watkins, Pat Studstill, Joe Schmitt, Frank Taylor, Jim Gibbons and Wayne Walker.

Just to give the youngsters something to think about, the Detroit Lions have donated several packets of football pictures and they will be presented to the kids as long as they last.

Additional sports personalities are expected from the Detroit Tigers, Pistons and Red Wings but no complete confirmations have been made—So it's a question of if they show, then they'll be there, if they don't, then they won't be.

The Sweet Adelines, one of the areas most popular singing quartets, will furnish some of the entertainment with more groups expected to join the parade during the next few days.

It will be a night to remember. Nothing too formal, a couple of speeches, a chance to meet and greet outstanding persons from all levels and generally an opportunity to aid a worthy cause, have a good meal and a good time.

Trout for All at Livonia Mall

The Livonia Mall Shopping Center has decided to do as Mohammed had done and brought the trout stream to the city. Thousands who have never had the opportunity to fish for trout can try it between now and Saturday.

The huge portable pool will be installed inside the enclosed shopping center and fishermen of all ages, male or female, will be able to fish under ideal weather conditions.

"Actually this is an angler's dream come true. The would-be fisherman don't have to travel out-of-town to do his fishing and he is guaranteed that there are hundreds of hungry trout right before his eyes to catch," said Jerry Silberman, president of the Livonia Mall Merchants Association.

"We even provide fishing tackle," Silberman added.

In addition to keeping all the trout that a fisherman catches, a special bonus of $100 in cash will be awarded to the one who catches "Zebco" the bandit trout. The huge four-pound trout has been caught before and in all likelihood will be caught during his stay at the Livonia Mall.

The pool will be open Wednesday through Saturday from 10 a.m. until closing every day. The shopping center is open Thursday, Friday and Saturday until 9 p.m.

"There's always excitement around a trout pool. It's fun to come and just watch if you don't care to fish," said Silberman.

"We're making a nominal charge of 10 cents for children under 14 and 25 cents for adults in order that those who really want to fish for trout will be able to do so without being over-crowded."

All net profits will be given to charities, according to a spokesman for the Livonia Mall.

THE FISH'N IS GREAT. A happy boy and his father team up at the Livonia Mall Shopping Center Trout Pond and land one of the big ones. Trout fishing starts at the popular enclosed Mall today and continues through Saturday night. The hungry Black River trout are contained in a huge pool more than 60 feet long and 25 feet wide. Lucky anglers are allowed to keep as many of the trout as they catch. A nominal charge of 10 cents for children and 25 cents for adults allows the fisherman several minutes fishing time.

Consumers Sponsors Car Checkup

Consumers Power Company will hold its annual Vehicle Safety Inspection beginning May 24 through May 25 at the Livonia Service Center, 11801 Farmington Road.

To kick off this program a pancake breakfast will be held Tuesday morning for all employees.

Joel Labo, Director of Public Safety and Chief of Police James Jordan will be the guest speakers on the advantages of vehicle safety. Other guests will include Sgt. Fay Johnson from the Michigan State Police and I. R. Dohr, the General Safety Supervisor for Consumers Power.

J. P. Thomas, division manager, said that during this period 150 company vehicles and all employees personal cars will be inspected. Banners, posters and placards will remind Consumers Power employees of the significance of vehicle safety. Mile-O-Tags and litter bags will be given to each personal vehicle inspected.

A contest at the end of each day will be held for all employees' personal cars inspected and the winner will receive a set of seat belts. All cars will receive a "safety checked" emblem.

Some of the areas to be checked will be brakes, all lights, steering, tires, exhaust, glasses and mirrors, washers and wipers, horn and seat belts.

Thomas would like to invite the public to have their personal cars safety checked at the Service Center between the hours of 1 and 5 p.m. on Friday, May 27.

The Division Manager is urging all employees and the public to participate in this safety inspection, especially with the holiday weekends and vacation season approaching.

Philip Power Acquires Two Strickland Papers

An agreement to sell two well-established metropolitan area weekly newspapers to Philip H. Power, of Ann Arbor, has been announced jointly by Power and Russell S. Strickland, of Bloomfield Hills, the present publisher. Involved are the Farmington Enterprise and the Plymouth Mail.

Strickland, who was sole owner, is transferring his entire interest to Power, who will become publisher of the papers. Power, who is a descendent of the pioneer who founded Farmington in 1824, last December acquired the Observer Newspaper Group, which is based in Livonia and publishes community papers in that city and in Plymouth, Garden City, Redford Township, Westland and Farmington.

Power said for the present both of the Strickland papers would continue to be published under their existing names and that the staffs would be retained. Strickland is retiring from the operation and will devote himself to other interests.

"I am pleased that the tradition of constructive journalism upheld by these papers will be continued by Mr. Power. He is just the man for the publishing responsibility," Strickland stated.

Power said, "The papers are in major growth areas in which I see an excellent opportunity for community service on an expanded scale.

The Distaff Side...

By Jerry Wendt Women's Editor

This was my week for wigs and I am firmly convinced that in a short time when Milady wails, "I can't go out, I have nothing to wear," she may well be standing in front of her wig wardrobe, so important will they become. It is predicted that by 1970 every woman will have from three to five hairpieces in her wardrobe.

There are many reasons for this but time is the main one—that and maintaining a youthful appearance. We must face it, in business life, in social life, everywhere these days, the accent is on youth. Your hair is the first to be a give-away. That receding line, and those fading locks. If you are going out to a formal dinner, it is awkward to do household chores or go to a luncheon in an elaborate hair-do. Wigs will solve this problem. Time was when wigs were always artificial looking. They were in distinctly un-natural colors and featured loads of hair piled on top of the head.

There are still a few problems to be ironed out in the selection of a wig and Continental Designs on Plymouth Rd., Livonia think they have ironed these problems out for you. We paid them a visit and talked to Dolores Wilson, the elegant looking young woman who is in charge of the wigs. They have room after room lined with every kind of wig and hairpiece ever made to be fitted to you.

Continental Designs are importers of fine wigs and that gets right to the root of the problem if you will pardon the pun.

American hair is just not good hair. Our exposure to the sun, teasing, lacquer,

and permanent waving have all taken toll of our hair. "The most beautiful hair comes from Italy," Dolores explained. "Continental maintains a file on these women, in Italy, calls them at regular times for their cut and hair check up." These wigs are hand made and when we felt them they were of a beautiful silky texture. All we could think of was the old Grimm's

Fairy Tale of the beautiful Rapunzel who used to let down her gorgeous locks so her lover could climb to the tower where her cruel stepmother had locked her, (the step-mother probably had hair like mine). These wigs have 150,000 hairs and are individually tied with a crochet needle into a base. The process takes over 40 working hours.

Next are the French machine wigs. These are also very beautiful and lightweight. Although they are machine made—they have a hand tied crown which is important for the sleek styling.

Next came the all-important wiglets. These are for hundreds of occasions. If your hair is thinning on top, if you want a fancy hair-dress, or if you are in between trips to the hair-dresser.

Dolores then showed us some "fun" things in the hair-dos and we were fascinated with a "pettina." This is an angora strand of hair which may be blended into the wiglet to give a frosting effect or for a special occasion dipped into a vegetable coloring to match your gown, only $4.95. Oh, yes, there was the long curl made so popular for dress-up by Christina Ford.

And for swimming or convertibles there is the "Turbinette" a velvet band surrounded by hair which can be clapped on in a jiffy-takes almost no time to apply.

Later over coffee, the stunning Dolores gave us some tips. "Never buy a different color in your first wig," she said. When you have only one wig, make sure it is your own color of hair.

"Another thing, don't ever wash a wig, it must be dry cleaned. Washing will ruin it."

As we left, Dolores confided that her own striking brunette head was a wig.

Only your hairdresser will know for sure, and even she won't know if you buy your wig at Continental.

Farmington Township Committee Luncheon Draws Crowd

By JERRY WENDT

A dreary, rainy day didn't prevent over 300 stylishly clad women from crowding into the dining room of Glen Oaks Golf and Country Club, Farmington, Thursday, May 12. The occasion was a luncheon and wig show sponsored by the Committee for the Preservation of Farmington Township. And they were mighty glad they had decided to forget the unpleasant elements for a spring like scene met their eyes.

Cheery red geranium centerpieces on every table (later given as table prizes) and generous merchants had provided a gala heap of door prizes which carried out the color scheme in gay wrappings of red and white stripes.

The committee had cleverly decided to combine business and pleasure. Following a delectable luncheon of boned turkey, etc. the committee presented some speakers who scored rather telling blows in their behalf.

Principal speaker of the day was Samuel H. Rubiner, past president of the National Institute of Banking and a resident of Farmington Township. He proved himself an able speaker. "We voted in the present group of officials to support Township Rule," he asked. "Why, now, the sudden change?"

"Leave us alone," he continued. "We don't want half-day schools, overcrowding, and heavy taxes. All of which are indicative of city government." Samuel Rubiner debunked the theory by the conversation of the Township Officials that this is a meaty area for industry. "You would think," he said with dry wit, "that there were at least 20 companies ready to break ground the day after the city charter goes into effect." "Friends," he implored, "Remember this is NOT an industrial area. This is rural living. We did not move out here to bring the city with us."

Rubiner also pointed out the many drawbacks of city government. He used the City of Southfield as an example. The Southfield budget shows a deficit of one-half million dollars. The Mayor is threatening an income tax," he stated. Phillip Daniels was the next speaker and following his speech conducted a question and answer period.

So great was the interest of the audience in this issue that it delayed the wig show.

The wig show also provided a preview of summer fashions in clothing, make-up and jewelry. Much "in" is the Las Vegas look which is comprised of luminous make-up (pearly tones) and definitely the natural look. "Foreign hair is the best for wigs particularly Italian hair," explained the commentator. "The reason is their diet which is comprised largely of oil and garlic."

"You too can have beautiful hair," he explained to the audience. "All you have to do is eat loads of garlic and olive oil, wrap your hair in a turban, and don't wash it too frequently."

"Oh yes," he added with a twinkle in his eye, "You will have gorgeous locks, but of course, you'll have no friends."

AT THE SPEAKERS TABLE, during the luncheon the Committee for the Preservation of Farmington Township on Thursday, May 12, at Glen Oaks Country Club were (from left): Mrs. Claire Orians, Rosemary Miller and Catherine Daniels. Standing Dee Jostis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Patchett chose a gown of pink. Mrs. Osborne selected a gown of blue. Both wore an orchid corsage.

The newlyweds left immediately after the reception for a honeymoon at Niagara Falls.

The couple have temporary residence in Southgate.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Detroit Business College and is working as an accountant at Ford Motor Co.

Prenuptial showers were given for them by Mrs. Della Jones of Southgate; Mrs. John Glanville of Redford Township and Mrs. R. Holdworth and daughters, Diane and Debbie, of Oak Park.

The bridegroom chose his twin brother, Douglas W. Osborne, to be best man. Seating the guests were Michael C. Jones and Wally Kozlars.

Teacher Group to Meet

Greater Detroit Chapter of the Retired Teachers Association will meet at the Mariners Church, 179 E. Jefferson, Detroit. All retired public school employees are urged to attend. The general topics for discussion will be "Where Do We Go From Here?" There will be a report on what is happening in R.R.T.A. and N.R.T.A.

Widows and Divorcees Conference

You can't sweep heartaches under the rug. Pulling down the shade doesn't blot out despair.

If your life has been shattered by death or divorce, just how do you pick up the pieces?

Particular needs, this new all-day program has been designed by just such women.

Because a "husbandless home" is an ever increasing problem in America today, Oakland University's Continuing Education Division has designed a special conference May 21 to focus the attention of widows and divorcees upon themselves and each other, their common meeting ground of "aloneness" and their similarities and differences. They know loneliness, frustration and grief, and for them there are no easy answers. Months of candid "give and take" in planning sessions of widows and divorcees preceded the scheduling of this program on the University campus. Growing out of the expressed need of women who had attended previous conferences and were dissatisfied with the lack of emphasis on their par-

The widows and divorcees who invested time, sensitivity and a perceptive awareness of self throughout the planning sessions soon discovered that there were four stages which they had all experienced, or were currently undergoing, as the result of the abrupt loss of a husband.

First was the disaster itself, a state of grief, guilt, anger, insecurity, and the initial shock of being alone.

Next, there was a convalescence; then a transition period where each woman attempted to cope with the situation, to deal with the major problems of the children, where to live, money or the lack of it, and social life.

Professionals, chosen for their insight and experience, will explore the crisis of divorce and widowhood and present some practical solutions at the Saturday, May 21 conference from 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. in the Oakland Center.

Plymouth W.S.C.S. To Meet May 24

Mrs. Dwight Struthers will present her program on President's Wives of the 1850-1900 era at the First Ladies Tea and Musicale to be given by the Woman's Society of Christian Service on May 24 at 1 p. m. in the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church, Plymouth.

Mrs. Robert R. Smith is General Chairman of the event. Mrs. Robert Sparling will present the music and tea table decorations will be done by Mrs. A. D. Johanson and Mrs. Robert Rosbalt.

Mrs. Ken Leader and Mrs. Charles Wells have charge of the tea with Mrs. Sam Dibble, Jr., in charge of general decoration and Mrs. Maurice Fry ticket chairman and Mrs. Charles Childs handling publicity.

Tickets may be obtained by calling 455-0444 or at the Church Office. Nursery care will be available.

PLYMOUTH SOROPTIMIST PRESIDENT, Mrs. Carl Caplin endorses a check for $500 while (left to right) Mrs. Elroy Merchant, Mrs. Edward Arthey, and Mrs. Leo Trower look on. The check will be given to the Sheltered Workshop and is the proceeds from the club's projects including the knit show last fall at the Mayflower Meeting House. The club is anticipating another such event this year on Oct. 13.

Over 125 Plymouth Women Attend Symphony Home Tour

Over 125 women visited the five homes opened for the Plymouth Symphony League's Home Tour last Thursday afternoon.

Braving the cold May drizzle and muddy country roads (a year ago the temperature was in the 80s on tour day) there was much to admire and inspire.

Everyone seemed to have a favorite. For many it was the James Taylor Cape Cod with its lovely family heirlooms and spacious dining room.

The Seymour Luvish home drew raves for the fine views from every window and the truly beautiful interior.

Carrara marble floors and stairway, monkey pod wood furniture in the Hawaiian recreation room and exotic decor made Dr. Ford Sutherland's home outstanding.

Fine pieces of pewter and models and pictures of racing cars add charm to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Newton's home. Their family-room addition has a personality that no 'model home' decorator could achieve. The table set with china decorated with blue eagles on red place mats was just right.

The feeling of being a part of the great outdoors has been created by the William Hardins with lofty ceilings, window walls and an outside balcony overlooking a pond. Their blending of the contemporary with the traditional has particularly pleasing results.

A film was shown on the Installation Luncheon of the previous year and narrated by Mrs. Lee Brooks.

Mrs. Elmer Lell has made reservations for the Installation Luncheon at Pine Knob on June 9.

Eric Norris, a graduate from the Royal Academy of Music in London and representing Grinnells, is invited to entertain at the organ at the program.

"Come For Breakfast"

Our Queen of Hearts Tries 'London Broil'

By FAITH GILLESPIE

"Come early—come for breakfast," reads the invitation to Farmington First Methodist women and their friends. Traditional for several years, the May Breakfast will be served at 9:30 Tuesday morning, May 24 at the church, Grand River at Warner Street.

The Executive Committee serve as hostesses for this General Meeting which replaces the usual luncheon meeting, and advance reservations should be made with the Woman's Society President, Mrs. Thomas McCutcheon at GR 4-8352.

New members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will be honored at this meeting.

Mrs. David McGinnis has charge of devotions.

Mrs. William Harrison, Vice-President and Program Chairman, announces the nursery for pre-schoolers will be open as usual. The program will conclude in ample time for mid-day school dismissal (for the benefit of kindergarten mothers.)

"Never make a recipe for the first time when company is coming," the rule says. "Always try it out on your family beforehand."

Nonsense. It may be heresy, but I can think of all sorts of reasons why the sensible housewife should erase this rule from her mind at once. It is clearly impractical, if not downright silly.

Company foods often cost more in time and money and effort than everyday foods do; that is what makes them company foods. If they were simple and easy enough to be every day, they would be every day foods, and your guests might as well stay home.

Several problems are created, therefore, in practicing special recipes on the family. Who in her right mind, for instance, would rush out and buy a 12-pound standing rib to practice on?

What family of three or five is willing to delve away for several meals on fancy dish planned for a group of, say, sixteen?

Why labor with trembling anxiety over a delicate lemon cream sauce, only to have the children say, "What is that icky stuff on the broccoli?" (Goodness knows you work hard enough just getting them to eat the broccoli.)

In fact, the unsophisticated palates of the children cause the most trouble. If you have curry-loving friends and come upon a recipe for great curry, would you chance giving it to the children? What a waste! If you want to sophisticate their palates, a task which takes years, try them out on the left-overs. (Tell them it's stew.)

Your family knows what it likes; it likes what it has had before, especially if it is peanut butter, or you can put catsup on it.

If eating is an adventure for grownups, why shouldn't cooking be also? Live dangerously. Ordinarily your guests will be your good friends. You can expect them to be charitable, and to understand if your husband suddenly rushes out to get Chinese food.

Indeed, the only possible reason I can think of to try out a new recipe before you serve it to guests is that it could fail. You can fail just as easily with an old recipe, maybe easier, because the first time you will be especially careful. No, if you use reliable recipes and follow them carefully, you have nothing to fear . . . hardly.

Here is a reliable recipe that is wonderful for company. You can't miss; the only trick is in cutting. Be sure to hold your very sharp knife almost flat to the top of the meat when it is done, and cut it diagonally, against the grain, in very thin slices. It serves six amply.

LONDON BROIL BAR-B-Q

Mix together well: 1 cup catsup, 1 1/4 cup water, 1 clove garlic (minced), 2 tablespoons prepared mustard, 2 tablespoons worcestershire sauce, 3 tablespoons salad oil, 1 teaspoon seasoned salt, 1 teaspoon onion powder, 1/2 teaspoon pepper. Pour over 2 flank steaks (about 1 1/4 lb. each) in a large flat pan. Marinate for hours, all day if possible, turning occasionally.

Just before serving time, broil the meat 4 to 5 minutes per side, so the steak is rare inside. (This may be done on an outside grill, if you like.) Cut it and serve with the sauce on split hard rolls or buns.

Even children like this. They think the sauce is catsup.

Tips To Follow For Safe Pool

Low in cost and high in convenience, portable swimming pools are becoming more popular than ever. Yet, because portable pools are still a relatively new idea, many people can make their pools more fun — and safer, too — by heeding a few tips.

1. Be sure that your pool is on level ground, with the sod removed from beneath it. This prevents dry rot, mildew and insect damage to the pool liner. Of course, all rocks should be removed before setting up the pool.

2. Also important when installing the pool is remembering not to locate it under trees. Leaves and insects falling into the water will tend to dirty it up, and make it unpleasant for those leisurely cool afternoons.

3. As with all swimming ventures, safety precautions are vital. Arrange for an adult to be present whenever the children are in for a dip. In the case of neighborhood children a good rule to make is: no small children allowed in without their parents or other adult. And you'll want to keep a life preserver handy; an inner tube is fine. Remember not to allow swimmers into the pool until at least an hour has passed after the last meal.

4. Make certain water is clean and clear. Use available chlorine pool disinfectants to kill bacteria brought into the pool, and test residual chlorine levels with simple test kits available at pool supply stores.

5. Keep water filtered properly. Diatomite filters seem to be most popular for above-ground pools because of their efficiency and portability. According to Johns-Manville, producer of Celite diatomite filter aid, these filters assure sparkling water at minimum cost.

6. Electric lights in the pool area make night swimming safer, help prevent falls into the pool. Remember: you're responsible for the welfare of everyone who swims in your pool.

7. A fence or enclosure around the pool will protect wandering tots — and possibly save you from negligence charges. For small portable pools, a temporary type of snow fencing can be used.

Keep the gate closed whenever the pool is not in use and cover it with a plastic or net strong enough to support a child who might climb or fall into it.

These precautions can assure you maximum fun and freedom from worry while you and the children are beating the heat in your own backyard. So come on in — the water's really fine!

Plate Glass To Open New Paint Center

A three-day grand opening of Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company's new paint center at 38650 Five Mile Road will get underway on Thursday, May 19, E. O. Krasemann, manager, announced Monday.

PPG's local paint center is one of the first to be activated in the company's overall plan of establishing separate glass and paint operations in its marketing program across the country. It is under the supervision of the company's district headquarters in Detroit. The Pittsburgh-based firm is a leading manufacturer and distributor of flat glass, fiber glass, chemical, paint and brush products.

He said that a complete line of easy-to-use interior and exterior paints stocked here for residential, commercial, contractor and industrial uses can save time and help eliminate maintenance problems later. Wallpaper, painters' supplies and do-it-yourself aids to make the home handyman's painting jobs easier and the results more attractive also are available.

The PPG manager also revealed the company's Decorating Guide, which is being made available here, can eliminate any guesswork for homeowners planning to harmonize colors for wall, draperies, and carpeting in a single room or entire home. Custom color mixing enabling homeowners to custom blend accurately any one of over 1,000 modern decorator hues in seconds is provided.

Souvenirs and merchandising specials will be offered to shoppers who also will try to unlock a treasure chest to obtain merchandise awards during the three-day events, according to Krasemann.

Carpets May Be Used As Wall Decorations

In the days of ancient castles and sprawling baronial palaces, carpets and rugs were made to look at, not walk on.

Often they hung on walls, lending a warm touch to blocks of medieval stone.

Today carpets add warmth and beauty to the floor—and serve decoratively as wall hangings, too.

Homemakers are seeking new utility as well as good appearance for their homes. They have come up with some ingenious and imaginative uses.

Carpets, especially, seem to be taking off in new dimensions of use about the home.

A new fiber, Herculon olefin, has excited interest in the carpet world.

Made by Hercules Powder Co., fibers are better able to resist moisture, dirt and stains; soft floor coverings are being used on kitchen floors, nurseries and even bathrooms.

Such fibers as olefin do not absorb moisture, the carpeting can be laid wall-to-wall without worry.

Carpets are also blossoming forth as colorful wall hangings in elegant living rooms and dens.

Urges Public To Beware of Wild 'Claims'

"Take more interest and ask more questions when spending large sums of household money for rugs and carpets," is the advice of Ron Connelly of New Carpet Cleaning in Livonia, a member of the National Institute of Rug Cleaners.

He said "The homemaker should pin down the retail salesman who makes wild claims and boasts about his product. NIRC studies indicate that many rug and carpet purchasers are unhappy when they learn the salesman's selling points were blind boasts and not pure fact."

Connelly claims carpet cleaners all over the country are faced with numerous problems through the slipshod handling of the truth by carpet salesmen "just making a sale."

"The best way to determine if the claims are legitimate and not just a come-on," says Connelly, "is to ask the salesman to put it in writing on the sales slip or on the company's letterhead."

"If the salesman will do this, you will have proof in writing that the store will back the claims that are being made."

Time of Day Can Affect House Color

When decorating your house, remember that colors have a built-in time mechanism. They often look better at one time of day than at another.

For example, the color of a living room wall will look different in the evening, when it is exposed to artificial light, than during the day. Color may also look different in the morning than in the afternoon. The same is true for exterior colors.

Morning light is easy on most colors, including high-intensity hues. Thus, red looks cheerful in the morning. But in the afternoon, when the light is lower, cooler shades are more refreshing. For example a house roofed with pastel green or blue asphalt shingles will be particularly pleasing to the eye at that time of day.

The location of the house in relation to the sun is also important. Colors look different when they face north than when they face south. They also change in appearance with the seasons, as the angle and intensity of the sun's rays change.

Sugar Pines Largest of All American Pines

Largest of all the pines in America is the sugar pine which grows as tall as 250 feet and nearly 12 feet through at the base.

Its creamy white, straight-grained wood is superior for millwork and moldings.

Costs of drilling a gas well may run anywhere from $25,000 to more than $2 million, depending on depth and the difficulties encountered in drilling. The main cost stems from the fact that one exploratory well in nine turns out to be a producer—and only one in 44 eventually becomes a profitable producer.

Faucet Drip Can Be a Nuisance

A dripping faucet can rob you of sleep because it sounds so loud in the quiet hours of the night. But that isn't all you lose. Even a pinhole-sized drip can waste over a gallon of water an hour. Multiply that by 24 hours a day, then 365 days a year, and you'll see how much water goes down the drain.

This means that you're also pouring money down the drain through increased water and fuel bills. If you live in a water-short community, you're also contributing to the water supply problems of your area.

A leaky faucet is usually easy to fix, because nine times out of 10 the trouble is a worn-out washer. How to replace a washer is just one of the dozens of tips contained in a booklet titled "Plumbing Care and Repair." It's available for 25 cents from the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau, 35 East Wacker Drive, Chicago, Ill.

It may be that your faucet is so old it should be replaced. The new models are far superior to the old in appearance, operation and durability. They have few moving parts, which is one of the reasons they last so well and remain so efficient.

The single handed faucets are the latest thing.

You can inspect a large variety of available types in the store of your local plumbing contractor.

Adopt Weekly Watering Plan After Putting in New Roses

State Checks Claims On Nursery Products

Michigan gardeners who plant roses around the home and in the garden for their big beautiful flowers and shiny green leaves should adopt a weekly watering plan, advise Michigan State University horticulture specialists.

If a plant lacks sufficient water for full expansion of the cells making up the tissues, flowers will be small, leaves little, and the entire plant will appear stunted. Weak spindly growth in roses is a good indicator that the plant is ill; and a cheap, refreshing drink of water may be just the cure needed.

A good watering "rule of the thumb" is that roses should be watered thoroughly once a week unless one or more inches of rain have fallen within that period. Place several small fruit cans in the vicinity of your rose beds before turning on the sprinkler. When one inch of water has accumulated in the cans, enough water has been applied.

Rose foliage that is wet at night invites mildew and black-spot. Make sure watering is done early enough in the day so that the leaves have sufficient time to dry by nightfall.

Effective rose care and management is something for which every gardener strives. Hearty yet delicately beautiful red, white and yellow roses add the final touches to any flower garden scene.

However, many Michigan roses suffer from malnutrition—lack of adequate fertility in the soil. Fertilizer, the poor soil's doctor, contains nitrogen, potassium, and phosphorus. It makes plants greener, more vigorous, and highly productive.

Lack of one or more of these ingredients will make a rose bush weak and spindly. Probably the primary cause of small blooms, light colored foliage, and poor vigor in mid-summer garden roses is an insufficient supply of nutrients.

Michigan State University horticulture specialists suggest two methods of fertilizer application in helping to restore fertility. The soil application method for roses should be made at infrequent intervals in June immediately after flowering and in late July.

Each application should consist of one handful of a "complete" fertilizer placed in a ring on the soil around each plant. It should be lightly scratched into the soil to prevent washing and then watered down. A suitable fertilizer would be one having 5-19-19, 6-12-12, or similar analysis. Ideally, it should also contain trace elements.

Fertilizer may also be applied through the foliage by simply dissolving one and one-half teaspoons of potassium nitrate in each gallon of made-up spray solution used for controlling insects and diseases.

This very light fertilizer application, made at weekly intervals to the tops of the plants,

Plant Trees For Future Rewards

Homeowners who plant fruit trees now will feel fortunate in the coming years as inflation increases costs for all fruits, the American Association of Nurserymen asserts.

It normally only takes two or three years for dwarf fruit trees to begin bearing.

Today, costs for both small and large fruits and nuts are high and quality is down, the association states, by comparison with tree-ripened fruits produced on the home property which are juicier and more delicious in flavor.

A home garden of fruits in the temperate zones might include one or two each of apples, peaches, pears, plums and cherries.

For small fruits there are raspberries, blackberries, strawberries.

Asparagus and rhubarb, while not fruits, add variety to home fare at a minimal cost. An asparagus and rhubarb bed lasts for many years.

In the warmer areas the list of fruits is long.

Citrus, avocados, bananas in far south, persimmons, dates, guavas for jelly, papaya and many other fruits add vitamins to living.

The northern fruits also can be grown in the warmer areas where there is a dormant period.

Nuts should not be omitted where they can be grown.

The pecan provides welcome shade in southern climates as well as non-cholesterol and delicious foods for everyone.

Walnuts, filberts, macadamia, certain varieties of chestnuts, and others may be planted.

Wood Sash For View Ventilation

Want picture window visibility in an operating window? Sliding wood windows are the answer.

These units, which operate like sliding doors, offer a clear expanse of glass for an unobstructed view, and can be opened from either right or left for maximum ventilation.

Available in stock units of ponderosa pine, wood sliders lend themselves easily to a variety of interesting window treatments.

They can be installed individually, side by side, or combined with fixed windows.

Entire wall sections can be formed by using a series of longer sliding windows and a sliding glass door.

The units are preservative-treated for weather resistance and come ready for installation.

Scientific weatherstripping, the use of insulating glass and the natural insulation provided by wood sash make sliding windows practical for all climates.

They also accept storm and screen panels easily.

The sliding action of this type of window makes it extremely easy to operate.

Livonian Is Picked for GM Program

Donald Borus, 17448 Rexwood, Livonia, is among a group of college graduates selected nationally by the Chevrolet Motor Division to take part in a special two-year engineering program, the company announced.

Borus, 22, was picked because of "above average qualities of leadership, scholarship and management potential," said Ellis J. Premo, Chevrolet chief engineer.

A native of Detroit, Borus was graduated from University of Detroit High School in 1961 and from the University of Detroit this year with a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering. He is a member of the Engineering Society of Detroit, Society of Automotive Engineers and Tukey Fraternity.

Chrysler Aide Says U.S. Could Make Standards Too 'Rigid'

BUCK HILL FALLS, PA.—Governmental action on automotive research and development can be of value in pointing up possible solutions only if government acts as a coordinator and not as a dictator.

"Such a role would require acceptance of the fact that the basic engineering knowledge needed to improve automobiles lies in the industry, not in the government," said Harry E. Chesebrough, vice president—product planning and development, Chrysler Corporation.

Speaking at a meeting of the Industrial Research Institute here, Chesebrough said "the very real risk" of the proposed Traffic Safety Act of 1966 lies in "making automobile standards so rigid—by mandating present theories and our present state of the art—that future progress will be impaired."

He said the proposed act may be beneficial, rather than restrictive, if contemplated motor vehicle performance standards are flexible enough to take advantage of improvements as they are made possible by advancements in automobile technology.

Chesebrough said the threat to progress is greatest when legislation is considered in an atmosphere in which attention is consciously focused on only one element in an extremely complex system.

The automotive industry expert said "we must be especially careful to build into such legislation ample provision for rapid and flexible change as new knowledge and technological innovations become available, and as our broader vision clears and our wisdom increases in the aftermath of debate."

"Unless we take these precautions in the present case involving automobile safety regulations future progress may be blocked."

Chesebrough said the proper role of government would be to coordinate and support fundamental research in non-vehicle design areas.

This type of research will provide information which automobile manufacturers can use to evaluate various design proposals to arrive at the optimum designs possible when all factors are considered. We are going to have to know a great deal more about people than has ever been known before," he said.

Listing several missing links in knowledge in the fields of anatomy, physiology and psychology, he declared, "We need to know, for instance, what the human body can stand under impact forces."

"This means a research program of such magnitude, of such depth and dimension, that only Federal funds and coordination can make possible."

Chesebrough said the need for governmental guidelines is understood and appreciated because highway safety is becoming more acute with the increase in the population of both people and vehicles.

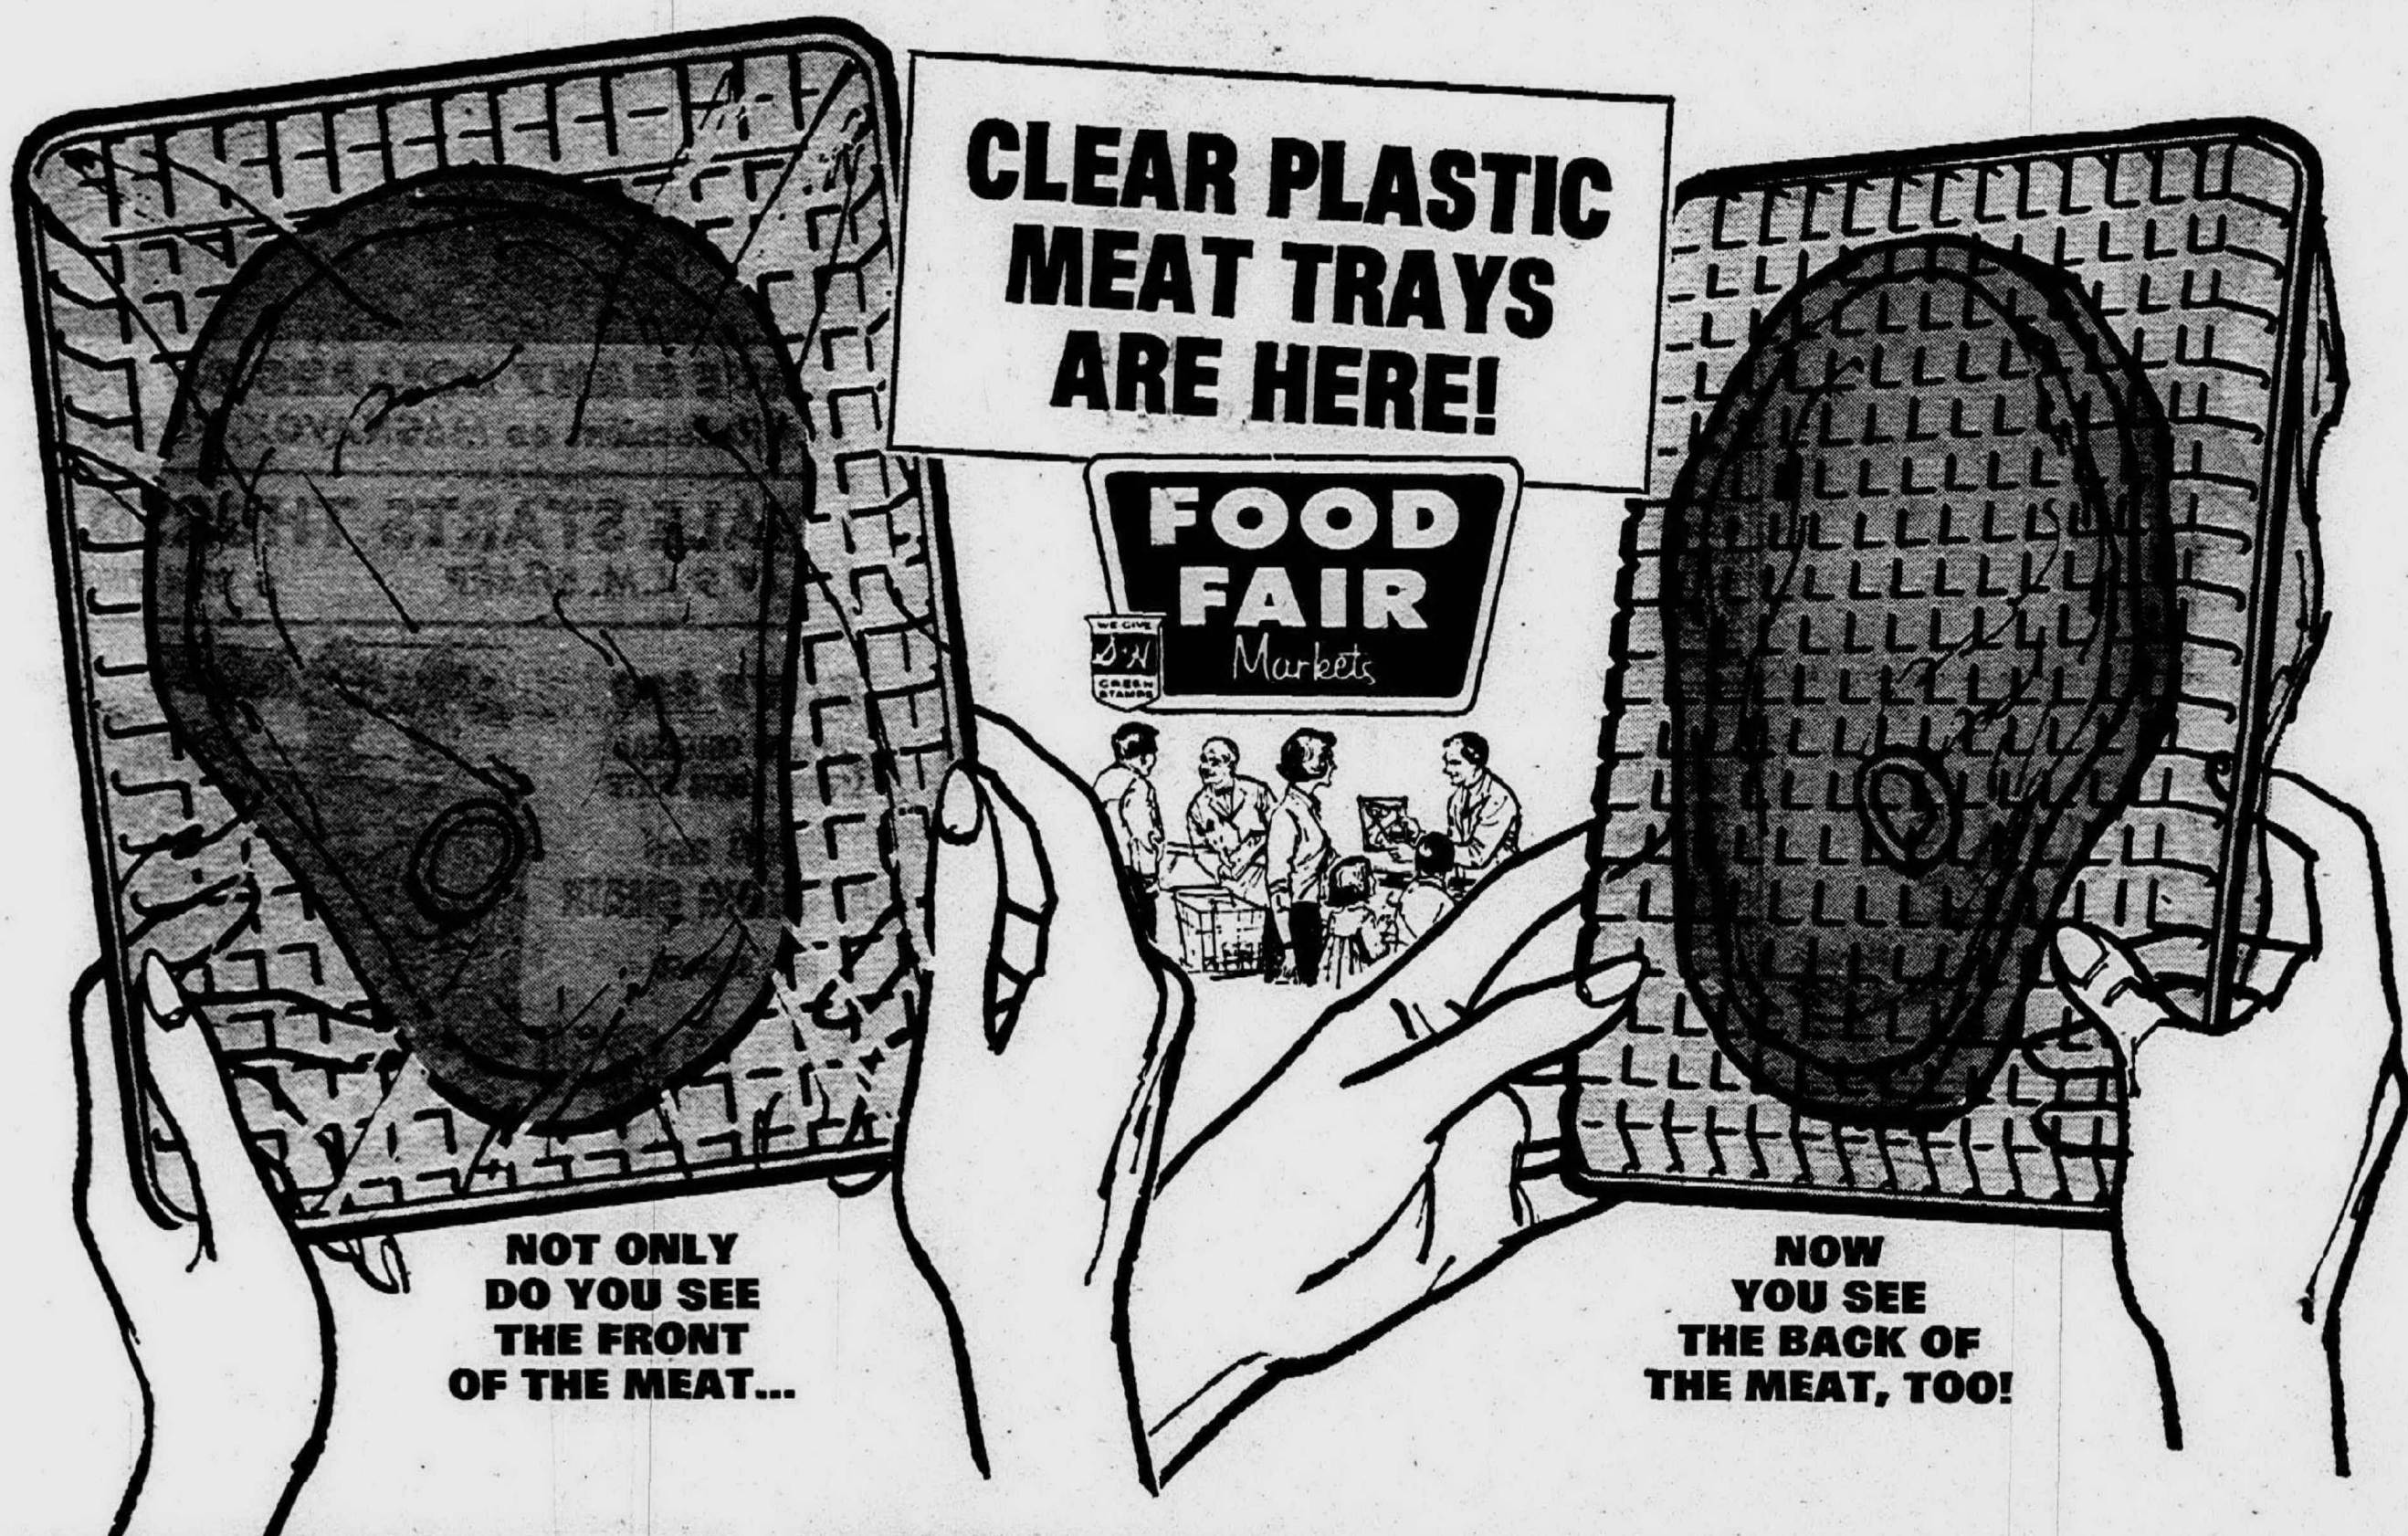

"Let us hope, however," Chesebrough said, "that our government will continue to guide in such a way that the free enterprise system, which has made this nation what it is today, will be protected and will be encouraged to operate as it should in a democracy; also that research scientists and engineers will be equal to the task of achieving the breakthroughs in knowledge that will be required." Chesebrough said Federal leadership is needed to stimulate the development of a broad systems research approach to the over-all problem of traffic safety. "When we have the results of this research," Chesebrough said, "automotive scientists and engineers will have the information needed to design much safer vehicles. In addition, we may find that such research has pointed the way to solutions which will eliminate some of today's highway safety problems not directly related to the crash protective features of an automobile."

The number of U.S. homes heated with gas has almost doubled since 1955, the American Gas Association reports. Today, gas-heated homes total 27,500,000, compared with 14,700,000 in 1955.

One of the most charming appliances—reintroduced in 1957—is the outdoor gaslight. Today, an estimated 1,250,000 gaslights are in service—five times as many as in the first "Gaslight Era's" peak year of 1914.

what is the definition of a private brand?

To some people, it is a retailer's own brand created with selling price first in importance and quality second.

To us at A&P, it's the opposite.

Quality comes first.

Value...the best for the least is the rule for our private brands.

If this wasn't true,

how foolish we'd be to invest, as we have,

literally millions of dollars in processing plants and testing laboratories.

If all we wanted were products we could sell cheaply without quality control, anybody could produce them for us.

The idea of quality private brands isn't new at A&P.

As a matter of fact, it's one of our oldest policies—and by golly, we're proud of it.

Are A&P Private Brands a good reason for shopping A&P?

They're one of many.

All Out Effort

It sounds like a political rally but it isn't. It bears some resemblance to a sports night program, but it isn't that either. It's a night to raise some much needed funds for the Community Opportunity Center—the sheltered workshop for retarded adults in the four communities of Livonia, Plymouth, Redford Township and Northville.

That's why we urge all residents of the communities involved to purchase tickets and take advantage of the program offered at the benefit for the Community Center scheduled for Roma Hall in Livonia on Wednesday, May 25.

This program is designed to raise funds for the Center and for all attending to have a full evening of entertainment. The Center needs the cash and most certainly everyone can use a night for fun in these hectic times.

The principal speakers are Mrs. Lenore Romney, wife of the Governor, and William Patrick, Jr., former Detroit Councilman and now a legal counsel for Michigan Bell. Neither will touch on politics. Both will devote the time to a discussion of the problem at hand—sheltered workshops, their value, how they should be financed and what the communities should do to assure the success of the ventures.

There'll be other political figures present; such as the new Michigan Senator Robert Griffin, Congressman Wes Vivian and Billie Farnum; State Representatives Marv Stempien, Edward Robinson and James Tierney. But they are coming because they believe in sheltered workshops and hope that their appearance will add more interest and sell more tickets. Politicking will be of minor importance for this affair.

The Detroit Lions are doing their bit to aid the cause and no less than nine members of the squad, all of whom reside in the metropolitan area, have indicated they'll be present.

to aid as they can. This probably means they'll be busy signing autographs and generally aiding to the good will of the entire project.

Those that have agreed are: Bruce Mahar, Tom Watkins, Jim Gibbons, Joe Schmidt, Pat Studstill, Daryl Sanders, Gail Cogsdill, Wayne Walker and Frank Taylor.

Bring the youngsters along, they could care less about the politicians but the Detroit Lions—well that's something different.

The entire program is the dream child of Mrs. Rosalie Bales, of Plymouth, who broached the subject to some of her friends and was amazed at the way they accepted it.

Thus, there are scores of volunteer workers in Plymouth as well as the other participating communities and all have one ambition—to make the project a huge success and place the Opportunity Center on a firm financial basis for the first time since it was opened last September.

It isn't that the full operation of the Center is financed by such efforts but it does help to know that there is a bankroll to aid in hurdling some of the obstacles.

The Sheltered Workshop provides work for retarded adults in the four communities on a contract basis. None of the funds raised for the Center are used to pay the workers, other than the director and the fireman in charge.

The workers are paid as they complete jobs. The life blood of the Workshop as far as they are concerned is a constant flow of contracts. You can help keep the project going by attending the benefit, you can help keep the workers busy by checking around wherever possible to see if there is any chance of landing a contract for jobs.

In the meantime, let's give the Workshop a big boost and attend the benefit. It's a comparatively small amount for a big cause.

Pride Beyond the Backyard

Seated with a group of fellow association executives in a round table conference the other evening the question was asked:

"What is the greatest change that has taken place in our every day life during the past half century?"

You'd be surprised at the answer.

It was agreed that great strides had been made in such things as medicine, transportation and automation. It was agreed that the automobile, airplane and space ships have done much to change our way of life. It also was agreed that automation had removed many burdens from labor, that radio and television had been great contributors to a better life and that our new medicines have helped increase our life span.

But, after discussing all these things, it was agreed that the greatest change that has taken place in the last half century has been in the attitude of the people—the taking for granted the things about which we used to boast.

Putting it bluntly we have become self-centered for the most part and take little pride in anything beyond our own narrow confines.

This was a strong indictment of this generation. Yet, as I sat there my mind wandered back to the days of my youth and I realized there was a great contrast.

In those days we took pride in things. Every little town and hamlet had a baseball team and the wildest partisan rooters you ever did see. We would stand by "our" ball club, no matter what.

Even the tiny tots, just starting school, would boast, "my Father can beat your Father." Remember those days?

I also recalled our attitude toward the companies that gave us employment. There were two major employers—the Bryden Horse Shoe Company, the largest manufacturer of horse shoes in the world, and the Atlas Portland Cement Company, the world's largest producer of cement.

When asked where we were employed we would enthusiastically answer, "The Horse Shoe Company, the largest in the world," or "Up at the Atlas, the largest Cement plant in the world."

We had great pride in those days.

Then I recalled a visit to my home town several years ago. The Bryden Horse Shoe Company no longer exists, for obvious reasons, but the Atlas Portland Cement Company still is going full swing.

When I asked one of the young men of the town where he was employed he sort of snarled, "Up at the ----- Cement plant."

Derision had replaced the pride we had known in our youth.

You'll find much the same conditions most anywhere today.

When the City of Livonia was incorporated just 16 years ago it had as a slogan "Second in the state in area—Second to none in spirit."

Do you see much of that spirit today? Do you hear folks boast, "We live in Livonia, second to none in spirit?"

Do you hear anyone boast about the auto plant in which they happen to work? You don't hear them say "at Ford's, the company that put the world on wheels," or "at GM, the largest manufacturer of autos in the world."

No, there is no pride beyond the fact that these companies furnish employment.

You don't hear anyone boast about the Livonia School System. You have to go outside of the city to learn that the Livonia school system ranks with the best in the state.

If we took pride in the knowledge that the Livonia schools were so highly rated, there would be no need for the constant struggles for added millage to continue the high level of education. Folks would rush to the call, with the feeling that their pride would be hurt if Livonia Schools ever lost top rating.

I am not one who longs for the good old days.

But I often wish that, somewhere along the line, we could recapture the pride we once had in things beyond our own backyard.

Delusion

"But, along with Detroit officials they (Macomb County officials) hope to alleviate the tax burden with federal and state grants."

—Detroit News, May 12.

This is the oft repeated theme followed by our oft repeated comments: When the state and federal government provide funds, nobody but nobody pays.

It seems there is a big barrel filled with all sorts of loose change and when anybody wants money he just reaches in and pulls it out.

Would that this were true!

Ideas For Traffic Safety

Editor:

I am always glad to see Myra Chandler and all of the Observer editorial staff trying to make an honest effort to arouse the public to the lack of accident prevention by our public officials on our roads and highways.

Here are some of the things that should be done to help correct this murderous condition.

1. Make the maximum and minimum speeds on any given road or highway not vary by more than five miles per hour.

2. When a car is stopped for a moving violation there should be a check of brakes, lights, steering, and tires. Notations should be made on the ticket of improper equipment.

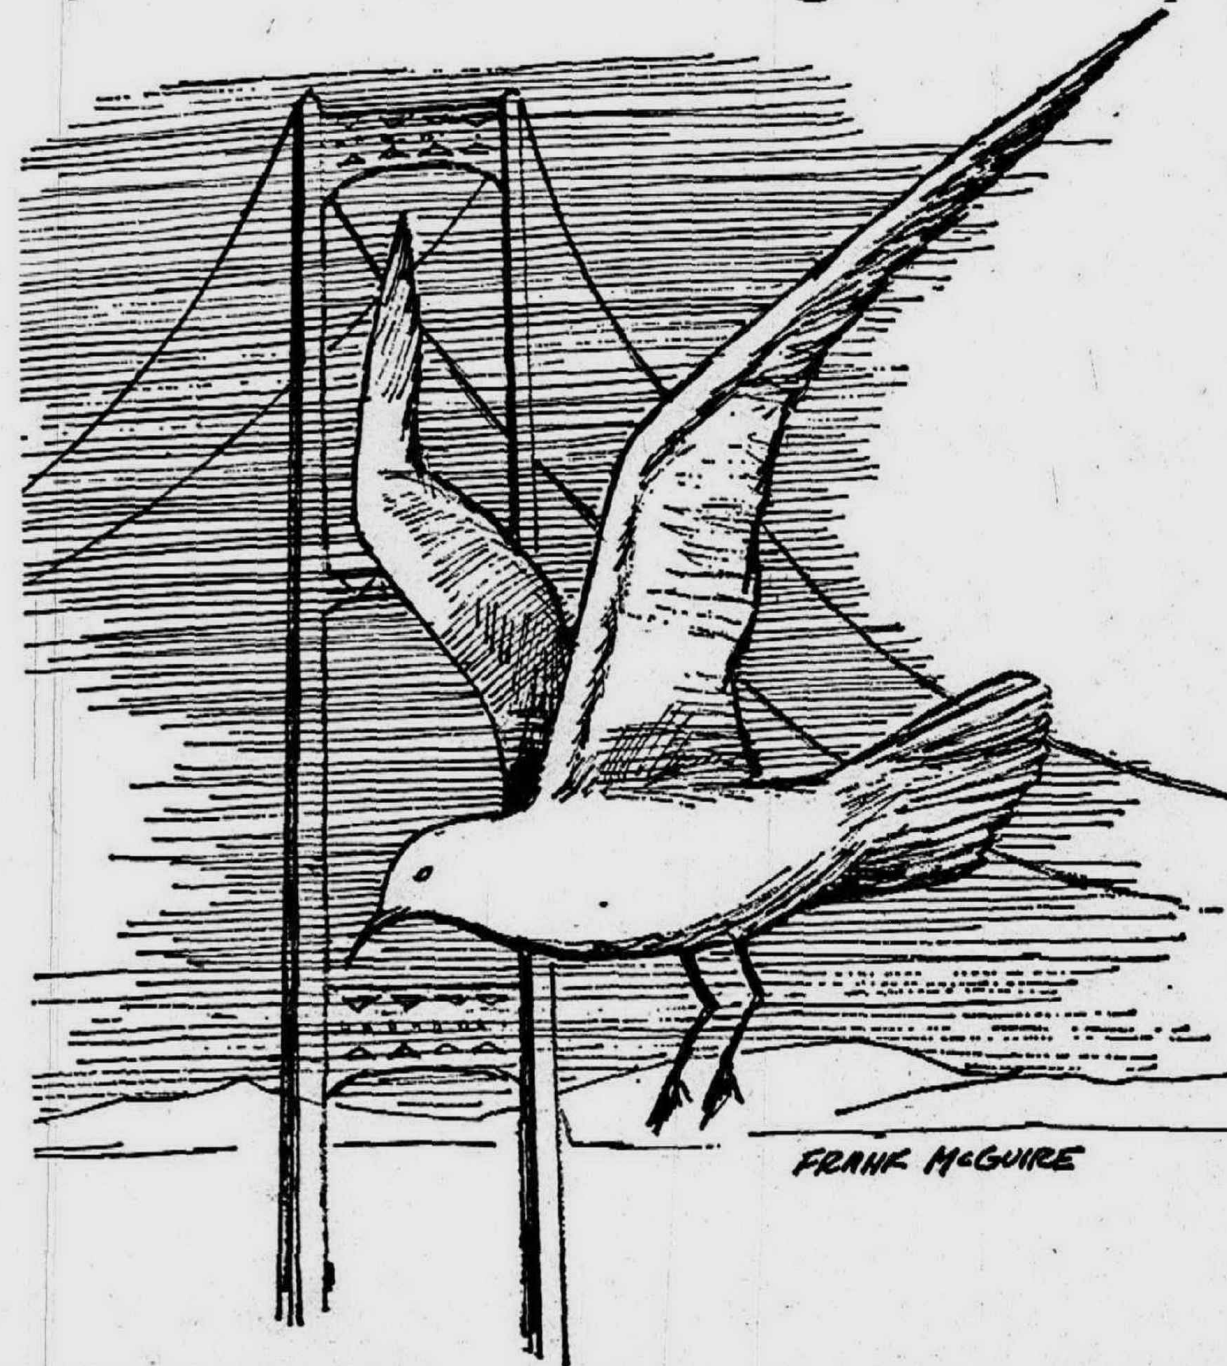

3. One city or town should be used to experiment on the safety of having every road going only "One Way." If this was done in Farmington Township for a period of one year with only Grand River, Northwestern and the Expressway (696) left as two-way roads I believe that the traffic accidents would be cut at least one-third. Traffic would flow much better than it now does, also.

4. The owners of businesses that are putting continuous pressure on civic officials for one street parking should be completely ignored. The car owners pay for the building and maintaining the roads.

Spirit Of '66' Michigan Week

The Reader Speaks Up:

Just For The Voting Record

Editor:

Monday night (6:20 o'clock), we voted at the Rosedale school in the gymnasium. While being processed at the table I thought of an idea to speed-up the procedure. To me it's a good idea.

There were 7 of us, a little crowded perhaps, being processed at the table—(filling out forms, etc.) There were 3 or 4 workers at the table and 2 workers at the machines. But there were no voters in the machines.

Now, my idea would be to set up separate tables about 3 feet to 5 feet apart. The one table would process the voters whose names began in the range of (say) A-L; the other table would process those in the M-Z range. Have signs on standards which say A-L "left table" and M-Z "right table". This I believe would facilitate processing and eliminate confusion and excitement.

While the balloting Monday was relatively easy, I have seen nights when there would be a single line circling the gym and extending out into the hall. And on one occasion the single line extended to the outside door.

Another thing that would help would be to set up (on standards) sample ballots so that the voters would know well in advance how the voting machine panel was laid-out.

There is one part of the Monday school ballot that I would like to question. While being processed at the table, one of the girls asked, "are you a property owner?" Are the cards in the books marked so that the workers know who is a property owner and who is not? If the answer is no, doesn't this fact make the balloting questionable? Perhaps illegal? And could anyone sign my name on a slip and vote without my knowing it? Or without the girls knowing it?

At times, we all get curious—right?

B. THOMPSON Livonia

Ed. Note:

It is not in the book, but have you ever read what you signed when you came in to vote. When it is a matter for property owners only, you sign an affidavit to that effect. If you are not, and are challenged you could be sent up, or out or in.

Doesn't Need 'Sell'

Editor:

So W. Edgar thinks the Board of Education has done a poor job of "selling" its product. I wonder where he got the idea that selling was the Board's business.

In Chapter 9 of the General School Laws of Michigan, which is titled "Boards of Education: General Powers and Duties," there is no mention whatsoever that the Board is supposed to "sell" its product.

When Americans get to the point that a better education must be sold to them, then I would begin to worry.

It is precisely the free public system of education for all citizens that has made America as great as it is. What other country in the first 200 years of its life, or even 2,000 years, has become as great as America?

When the Board of Education begins to "sell" its product instead of trying to improve its product then we are going to take the consequences. Just look at the business world, Mr. Edgar. Some of the worst products are those that are being "sold" the most through clever advertising. Ralph Nader has recently taken the automobile business to task for its lack of improvements. Why should the Board have to "sell" education? Does a hospital "sell" its doctor's skill in treating diseases?

Congratulations to the Board of Education for, as Mr. Edgar states, "losing the art of selling."

GEORGE A. CALDER Livonia

Favors E. Route

Editor:

In response to your invitation, I wish to comment about the expressway as a private, tax-paying individual, and as President of the Meri-Lynn Civic Association. Also, let me add one of my duties at the Detroit Edison Company is to help review plans for public improvements to determine their physical and economic effect on our underground facilities.

At the recent meeting in the Police Building sponsored by the Citizens' Advisory Committee, I felt the City's arguments were weakest. Engineer Strasser said the route along the eastern side of the College would cut off from the rest of Livonia a section of land designated for high class residence. Extending utilities into and servicing this area by police-firemen would be difficult. Also the absence of service drives along this route was mentioned.

The State Highway representative said the expressway here would be basically at grade, thereby making the extension of underground facilities easier than the case of a depressed highway. He also mentioned the area was too sparse at this time for service drives, but these could be integrated with the ultimate development. This previous statement suggests a minimum need for police-fire protection into this area at this time. The Highway people are providing for some bridges in this section.

One could stretch the City's argument and say the Schoolcraft section would cut off from the rest of Livonia 12 square miles, including the valuable 6 square mile industrial belt.

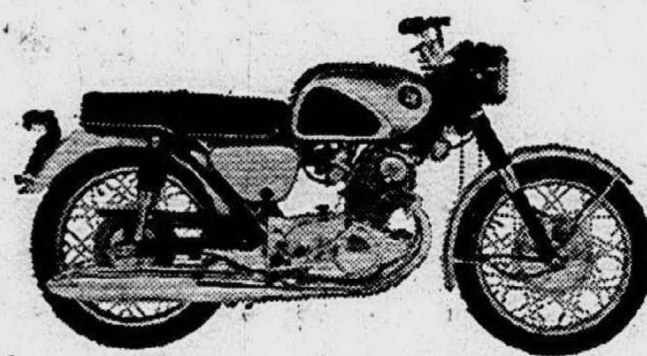

Then there is the little matter of money; 6.5 million vs. 12 million. This is all taxpayers' money, even though Livonia's share is only 2½ per cent. We expect the public officials to be as frugal with our tax money as we have to be with the meager leftovers.

In summary, I favor the easterly route.

Of concern to the residents of Meri-Lynn is the Schoolcraft section between Merriman and Farmington. We never did approve of an expressway along Schoolcraft, or anywhere else in Livonia. But now that it is in the works, we wish to protest the plan to install a crossover at Berwick Street. We have on file with the City and Highway Department several valid reasons why a crossover should not be placed here and they will not be repeated in this letter.

We ask that the crossover at Berwick, and the one proposed at Brookfield be eliminated in favor of one at Hubbard where it belongs. The savings could then be used to install an extra crossover somewhere in the north-south section, now under dispute. This move would reduce the City's argument concerning isolation.

Observing the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER

In praise or criticism, it is the source that has to be considered.

When a visitor does not see the glories of Michigan as I do and chides about our weather as newcomers are prone to do—my stock answer is "you have to live in Michigan four seasons to appreciate it and if you don't like our weather, stick around a few minutes—it will change."

Without exception we have praises heaped upon our heads for our highways, our red tart cherries, field beans, cucumbers for pickles, gladioli bulbs, white wheat and hothouse rhubarb. We lead the nation in each of these.

In fact, transplanted Michiganans to Clearwater, Florida, bought the beautiful Clearwater Beach Buffet and boast the longest lines and the least expensive wholesome meals in the entire state of Florida. Bill and Virginia Roberts brought to Florida many Michigan culinary ideas. Their head chef, Arthur Hartness, used great skill in developing these Michigan dishes in the family-type kitchen they operate in Clearwater.

The Beach Buffet has become famous for Traverse Cherry Pie. Virginia said you can usually tell the Michiganans when they see this on the menu their eyes light up. She said the Floridians are always prone to ask for it as the Tra-verse Cherry Pie. So it has two versions. "But no matter how they order it—the cherries are flown to us frozen from Michigan and this way we feel we keep in touch with home," said Mrs. Roberts.

Usually the best kept secret of Michigan Week is what product will be named to be honored for the year. Every year a friend of mine and I place a bet on the subject. The year he placed his bet on Hush Puppies was a very expensive year for me.

This year I chose cereal. My calculated, educated guess is it just has to be cereal from Battle Creek, of course. But then the by-products come from all over Michigan.

Have you really looked at what they have done to cereal this year? Peaches from the Thumb, strawberries from all over Michigan, apples from the Benton Harbor area. They have put all of this fruit in cereal—and that's not all. They put in marshmallows and have cereal in the form of alphabets, animals, numbers, square, round, hollow, with chocolate or nuts. If you are alone—some you can get the noisy kind that crackle, snap and pop. Why they even have liquid cereal for the busy one on a fast track. They call it "instant breakfast."

Of all the progress made in this world I nominate the cereal manufacturers of Michigan as the most thoughtful and progressive of all—considering every age and taste.

Our arsenal of Democracy, the automobile industry, may be taking their lumps right now with bad publicity, but no one does anything but sing the praises of the cereal manufacturers. Besides if I'm right I can recoup my losses of two years ago.

The praise I think that really was important to me about my native State was from an AFS student who was a guest in my home, Inca Vander Shouff, when I asked her following her trip through the U.S. what she thought of Michigan.

"I think it is fresh and yet dynamic, progressive and yet kindly."

I'm sure whoever designed the insignia for Michigan Week 1966 of the graceful seagull and the mighty Big Mac bridge had this same sentiment in mind.

Yes, no ghost towns in Michigan—because trucks serve all of them. In fact, half of all Michigan communities received freight only by truck transportation, a fast, modern, efficient service. The trucking industry is Michigan's partner in progress.

of this year's Plymouth High band show. The show (a variety show designed to appeal to everyone) will be presented Friday, May 20, at 8 p.m. in the high school gym.

Emceed by Ed Wendover, the show will include: The String-benders, a tap dance troop, The Shin-nan-agins, folksinger, Kaye Swartzendruber, Plymouth High dance band, selections from Hello Dolly and Golden Boy and a 300 voice children's choir.

Admission is only 75 cents for students and $1.25 for adults. Everyone is welcome.

FOR EVERYONE present at the Mayflower Meeting Room Saturday, it was an "Affair to Remember," and also a huge success. It was the first time in PHS history that a senior prom was held outside of the local school system.

Providing the music was the seven-piece orchestra of Don Pablo. Comedian Paul Lennon was also present.

The excitement has died down and it's official—Darre Dusbiber has been elected All-School Mayor for the 1966-67 school year. Completing the offices are: Vice-Mayor Tracy Ketchman; Secretary, Candi Muehlbauer; and Treasurer, Debbie Boderick.

David Sibblod will be next year's senior class president aided by Vice-President Bill Wolfe; Secretary Sue Sloan; Treasurer Barb Jones; and Student Council members Jane Emerson, Vicki Kuhns, Judy Motzkus, Nancy Newton, Bob Sparling and Craig Stadtmiller.

Heading next year's junior class are: President Stephanie Sanocki; Vice-President Ken Olds; Secretary Jennifer Bidwell; Treasurer Sue Camp and Council members Linda Arnold, Peggy Clyde, Janet Coxford, Lane Scott, Mike Stakias and Terry Ward.

The second proposal to amend the constitution which stated that a council vacancy should be filled by the runner-up for council from that particular class was the only proposed amendment to pass.

The highlight of the May Festival of Song, a concert of choral music, conducted with the high school orchestra, to be presented Tuesday, May 24, at 8 p.m., in the high school gym, will be the Schubert Mass. The show will also feature the Mixed Chorus, Triple Trios, Madrigals and Glee Club. Admission will be 25 cents.

Congratulations to valedictorian Mary Ann Fink who, in competition with 795,000 other students across the country, was awarded one of 500 National Merit Scholarships for her performance on a National Merit Scholarship Test.

Mary will enter Michigan State University in the fall, majoring in pre-veterinary medicine.

A well earned bravo, congratulations and hurrah to all the students who participated in the Model United Nations, Wednesday and Thursday, May 11 and 12. This was not only an educational endeavor but a truly worthwhile experience for all those students involved.

Thanks go to all those teachers who let countless numbers of students out of their classes in order that they might participate.

May 15-21 is Michigan Week. Spend a few minutes each day of this week learning what a really wonderful state this is. For you see, Michigan is "Dynamic in World Progress."

Men who are not afraid of failure seldom have to face it.

By SUE DOWELL

The "Enchanted Evening" for Bentley's seniors will be this Friday night. Yes, the Senior Prom is just around the corner.

"Enchauteur" the theme for the Prom truly means Enchanted Evening. Traditionally, this gala affair has been held at Lovett Hall in Greenfield Village.

The prom on May 20, will be no different. From 9 p.m. until 12 Seniors and their dates will be dancing and enjoying themselves at Lovett Hall.

Nothing can be as elegant and exciting as a roomful of girls in flowing gowns gracefully dancing with their escorts, handsomely dressed in tuxedos.

The evening will be a happy and memorable one. The beautifully lighted chandeliers and romantic music will provide for a most sentimental event.

Television was given a rare treat last Sunday morning, for at 8:30 a.m. Bentley's Concert Choir sang on a religious program.

The talented voices sang out in harmony for a Church service. Among the selections they sang was a favorite hymn of "Deep River."

From 9 a.m. until around 5:30 students from Bentley had a great, muddy, wet, and humorous time washing everything from a seven ton truck to a Suzuki motor bike.

Altogether the gang raised over $100. The sponsor who kept the ball rolling all day was Randolph Webster.

Junior class elections are over and next year's juniors have four good students to act as their class officers. Executive committee members for next year's Junior Class are Bill Roberts, president; Dave Bramyck, vice-president; Rich Stakey, secretary; and Peggy Moore, treasurer.

It is with sadness and regret that I add this last paragraph. For no one likes to write about a friend who is no longer with us.

On behalf of all Bentley students I would like to add our deepest sympathy to the family of our classmate, Joyce Hay, killed in an auto accident.

As a well-liked student, member of the selective girls chorus, and a popular junior, she will be remembered by all.

Slave Auction Fees Are Low

By JEAN ANN MANGOLD

Latin I and II classes haven't been the same for weeks, as the Sophomores and Freshmen alike, prepared for the annual "Roman Banquet".

The ritual began on Monday with a slave auction. Latin II students paid a quarter for the first year Latin student of their choice. Tuesday was spent decorating the lunchroom with murals and paper pillars.

Freshman girls made "broomstick fans" to fan their masters, and the boys fashioned tin foil swords and shields in preparation for their "gladiatorial combats".

The Sophomores, each impersonating an ancient Roman figure, began to arrive at six. As a first course slaves served, cheese, pickles and olives, eggs, carrots and celery, followed by rolls, peas, chicken, and for dessert they enjoyed cake, nuts, mints, and apples.

James Sherman portraying Jupiter, broke a "meal cake" to see if the omens were "favorable", and after a solemn procession, blessed wine (grape juice) in the presence of all the gods.

The evening's entertainment, put on by the slaves, included a pantomime of an ancient fable Pyramis and Thisbe, a Roman dance, and fine gladiatorial combats where slave boys given the thumbs down signal, met death.

Also attending the festivities were the nuns, Miss Mary Cusik, Miss Charlene O'Leary, and Mr. Robert Walker. The evening was climaxed by the freeing of the slaves.

Officer Irwin presented a movie to the entire high school on crime and its causes. Afterwards, he answered all questions.

The talk by Lieutenant Stein on Communism, originally scheduled to be given to the members of Miss Cusik's classes, was extended to include most of the Juniors and Seniors.

CLARENCEVILLE

Geometry Students Visit Automobile Plant

By TONY HEAD

Clarenceville High School and the Ford Motor Company are certainly getting to know one another. On Thursday, May 12, the Geometry classes of Donald Eveleth took a trip to the plant in Dearborn.

The students were taken on a guided tour and saw the various auto parts being manufactured and different aspects of the assembly line. The trip was most interesting and was enjoyed by all the students.

Clarenceville was a strange sight on Friday, May 13. Instead of the usual school attire the students were wearing shorts. This was Bermuda Shorts Day as officially declared by our student council. The student council also sponsored a dance the same day during weekly activity period.

All students who wore shorts to school were allowed in free of charge. Those not wearing shorts were charged a slight fee. And to make it a real festive day another dance was held that night in the school balcony.

As you probably know the date of the spring musical "Oklahoma" is drawing near. It will be held on May 25, 26 and 27 at 8 p.m. each evening.

Tickets, if bought ahead of time will be $1 for adults. Children 6-12 may see the musical for 50 cents and if under 6 for free. Tickets are available at the High School office or from any number of students.

It will be money well spent on an enjoyable evening. Students wishing to do something for the play may bring in any of the needed props which are listed on the hall bulletin board.

North Farmington

Work Day Profit: $750

By DEBBIE LUSKY

The annual Student Council Work Day, held on May 7, brought a profit of over $750. The money will be used to provide scholarships for deserving 1966 graduates.

Response to the Student-Teacher Exchange Day was impressive. Seniors will temporarily take over classes tomorrow.

Congratulations to everyone involved in "The King and I." The production, fine entertainment for all, was both a financial and artistic success.

"Focus," NF's literary magazine, was sold during the performances of the musical.

Jan Maisel, Darby McGlinn, and Rick Neilson will participate in the Youth For Understanding's summer exchange program. Jan will visit Holland, Rick will stay in Sweden, and Darby's destination has not been specified.

There will be a Senior Class meeting on May 25 to discuss the Senior Gift, Prom and Trip plans, and preparations for Swingout, Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

Pinafore Runs Gamut

By LYNN BARNETT

French Club bake sale took place May 10.

The most hilarious musical comedy ever presented at Thurston was given May 11 through 14.

Observers laughed at the antics of the crew, sympathized with the eternal love of the ages that rank could never permit, and wondered at the mysterious dark secret that stood in the way of marital bliss. "H.M.S. Pinafore" was a hit with all.

Intramural ping-pong tournaments began during lunch hour, last Wednesday.

Livonia Jaycees Sponsor Teen Driving Road-E-O

The annual teenage Safe Driving Road-E-O, co-sponsored by the Livonia Jaycees and the Lincoln-Mercury division of the Ford Motor Company, will be held Saturday, May 21 with competition beginning at 9 a.m. at the Wonderland Shopping Center parking lot, located at Mid-debet and Plymouth Road.

This is the day that the teen-age drivers can demonstrate their all around driving ability and knowledge in a competition with other students.

Joe Murowski, project chairman is quoted as saying, "with bad publicity that some teen drivers have been getting lately, I think that the safe driving Road-E-O is a worthwhile venture for all eligible teenage drivers to show the public that they are qualified and responsible drivers, and are in the majority."

All entries will be driving a new 1966 Comet in the competition, supplied by the Mercury division, to see how well they can handle a car in traffic, maneuver, and park. They will also be given a simple written quiz to see how sharp they are in driving knowledge.

All licensed girl or boy drivers currently enrolled as a student in either a public or parochial high school and not turned 19 years of age before August 1, 1966 are eligible to enter the Road-E-O competition.

To enter, contact your high school Driver Education instructor for entry forms and he will also see that your application is filled with the Jaycees who actually conduct the Road-E-O activities.

The winners of the Livonia Road-E-O will then be eligible to compete in the state competition to be held at Coloma in June.

Last year Jeff Baker of Bentley High School went on to win the state championship and then on to a four-day all expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. while competing in the national finals. The Jaycees are hopeful of retaining the safe driving title in Livonia.

Local winners will receive plaques. State winners are awarded plaques, personal gifts, and other prizes as selected by each state, plus the trip to Washington, D.C. The national winners have their choice of a 1967 Comet Cyclone convertible or a 1967 Comet Cyclone GT hardtop completely equipped, and a $2,000 scholarship to the college of their choice.

Other Jaycees working on the project are Bill Guy, Wally Wiggins and Gordon Kelly.

PHS Band Lists Spring Variety Show Friday

"Variety Is . . ." the 1966 Plymouth High School Band Show will be presented Friday evening, May 20 at 8 p.m. in the school gym.

Emceed by senior Ed Wendover, the show's theme is Variety and will be depicted by a huge drawing of the cartoon character, Snoopy.

The program will include: the Stringbenders, winners of this year's Battle of the Bands; a dance group, The Shenagagins; folksinger, Miss Kaye Swartzendruber; the Plymouth High Concert Band and Stage Band; selections from Hello Dolly and Golden Boy; 20th century dances; a Stan Freberg skit, "St. George and the Dragonet" staged by the high school's play production class; and the grand finale featuring a 300 voice all city grade school chorus singing the Battle Hymn of the Republic.

Under the direction of band director James Griffith aided by co-chairmen Ed Jones and Margaret Rudloff, the show will provide 90 minutes of entertainment.

Admission is $1.25 for adults and 75c for students. Proceeds from the show will help send the 80 member band to summer band camp, where they will be drilled on playing and marching techniques.

This annual trip provides a full week of study and practice, especially designed to train the new sophomore members in marching techniques.

Much of the talk you hear is not as broad as it is long.

Preps Open Play in Les Anders Baseball Tournament

The lid goes up Saturday on the Les Anders Memorial Invitational baseball tournament.

Twelve of the 14 high schools, served by the Observer Newspaper group, will participate in the meet which is being co-sponsored by the Livonia Recreation Department and this newspaper.

The meet is dedicated to the former Livonia athletic school administrator and coach who died unexpectedly of a heart attack several months ago after founding the tourney last year. Franklin copped the 1965 Invitational with a victory over Redford Union in the championship game.

This year's entries include both the '65 finalists, along with Garden City East and West, Stevenson, Bentley, John Glenn, Clarenceville, Thurston, St. Agatha, Our Lady of Sorrows and Plymouth.

The Franklin team will begin the defense of its crown against St. Agatha Saturday at 7 p.m. at Livonia's Henry Ford Field on Farmington Road where all games will be played.

To Clarenceville and John Glenn will go the honor of clashing in the meet's first game. They face off at 3 p.m. Then it will be Thurston and Bentley at 5 o'clock with Stevenson engaging Garden City

West in the evening finale at 9. Garden City East and Redford Union are paired in an unusual Sunday evening game while Our Lady of Sorrows and Plymouth will wait until Saturday, May 28, before beginning their title bids. Other second-round games also are set for May 28 with the semifinals on tap for May 30 and the championship game Saturday, June 4.

As was the case last year, the tourney will be conducted on a one defeat and out basis. No admission will be charged for the games. There are plenty of seats for the fans and good parking adjacent to the lighted Henry Ford diamond. A beautiful trophy will be awarded to the 1966 champ. After last week's play, John Glenn shaped up as the team to beat. Glenn had won 14 while losing only two.

Thurston figured as a strong threat as did Bentley, North Farmington and Garden City East.

TIPS ON PROPER pole vaulting form are discussed by Farmington High Coach Doug Race and his star, Ron Shortt, who has cleared 14 feet already this year.

THE WHIP IN the pole tells the story and shows how the Farmington High star gets so much height.

READY FOR THE long run down the runway is Shortt who already has bettered all state high school records but still has to clear 14 feet in the state meet for official recognition.

Star Vaulteur Makes Pitch for Record

The big moment comes Saturday at Ann Arbor for Ron Shortt, Farmington High's brilliant pole vaulter.

He'll make his bid for the state Class A record as he leads a strong contingent of area performers who'll be seeking the most distinguished laurels that can come to a prep thinclad in Michigan.

While the Class A schools are vying on the University of Michigan oval, the Class B teams will take over at Michigan State in East Lansing.

Shortt will be out to duplicate his feat of two weeks ago when he cleared 14 feet to become the first Michigan prep ever to go so high.

He'll have to soar 14 feet if he's to erase the state standard of 13 feet, 11 1/2 inches.

Shortt accounted for all six of his school's points in last Saturday's "A" regional at Clarenceville in which Pontiac Central walked off with team honors with 45 points.

Groves was second with 31, followed by Thurston with 22, Kimball 20, Southfield 17 and Seaboard 14. North Farmington lagged with nine points while Redford Union drew a blank.

Meantime in Class B, Cranbrook won the laurels with 43 points followed by Clarenceville with 31 and Lutheran West 24. Livonia Stevenson failed to register a point.

Other area teams vied in the regional at Ann Arbor where Ypsilanti won with 49 points. Ann Arbor was second with 47 1/2. Then came Milford with 23, Franklin with 14 and Bentley with 13 1/2. Glenn and Garden City West each gained four points while Garden City East and Plymouth went scoreless.

In addition to Shortt, the following area thincclads also qualified for the state meet Saturday:

BENTLEY—Ken Jackson in the high and low hurdles, along with Mike Gormsma who tied for second in the high jump.

THURSTON—Bob Grimm (second in 880), Leonard Cyr (second in low hurdles, Al Phillips (second in high jump).

Stevenson Gains Split In Baseball

Stevenson high's baseball team broke even in a pair of battles last week.

After downing the Franklin reserves, 6-2, Stevenson was drubbed by Pontiac Northern, 15-0, in an Interlakes League game.

John Kladzyk struck out five in winning for Stevenson. His mates collected nine and put the game out of reach with four runs in the seventh inning on hits by Randy Johns, Steve Hope and Greg Wilkinson along with four walks.

Pontiac Northern rapped out 15 hits to Stevenson's five. Seven errors didn't help Stevenson's cause.

One-Run Jinx Hits Trojan Nine Again

The one-run plague is running Clarenceville high school in baseball for the second year in a row.

Last season, the Trojans dropped five of their nine decisions by a single tally.

This spring, things have become worse. Clarenceville has been involved in six one-run contests and lost five.

"Little wonder we're only 3-7 in the Wayne-Oakland League," moaned Coach Gordon Larsen after last Friday's 5-4 setback at the hands of Clarkson.

The game went nine innings, two over the regulation prep route, and came after the Trojans had blanked Holly, 9-0.

The shutout job was administered by Mike Nye who scattered five hits and fanned six. Fred Neal led the winners with three hits while Nye himself contributed a triple and a single while Bob Duman had two hits and knocked over three runs.

The game never was in doubt after Clarenceville scored six times in the first inning. A double by Neal, triple by Nye, double by Duman and singles by Gale Armstrong and Tom Schlack paced the uprising.

Clarenceville led Clarkson, 4-2, in the seventh with two outs when Armstrong weakened. He served up two walks and two hits to permit Clarkson to tie the score.

Clarkson cashed its winning run on an error.

Duman doubled over Clarenceville's first two runs in the first inning. A single by Neal, a stolen base, a sacrifice and a perfect squeeze by Nye added to Clarenceville's lead. Armstrong counted the final Trojans' tally on an error.

Wayne State University's swimming teams won President's Athletic Conference championships in 1962, 1963 and 1964.

Rev. Phelps To Speak at Temple Beth Am

Temple Beth Am will present on Friday, May 20, following services, the Rev. Ronald Phelps. Rev. Phelps is the Interfaith Chaplain at the Wayne County Training School in Plymouth, and the Protestant Chaplain at the V. A. Hospital in Dearborn.

Topic of his address will be "Working with the Retarded Child." Chaplain Phelps came to this area two years ago, having formerly served as chaplain at the Federal Reformatory in El Reno, Oklahoma.

There are presently six Jewish children of various ages at the Wayne County Training School, but no part time Jewish chaplain to serve their spiritual or educational needs. Consequently a procedure has been arranged between Chaplain Phelps and Rabbi Jessel for these children to attend the monthly Family Worship Services of the Temple.

All-Cotton Fashion Show Held at Augsburg Church

The annual banquet in honor of the Mothers and Daughters of Augsburg Lutheran Church was held in the Fellowship Hall.

Dinner, prepared under the supervision of Mrs. Ann Nickoloff and Mrs. Yvonne McBee, was served by the men and boys of the Church under the direction of Bert Morris, Sr. The tables were decorated in a theme of spring bonnets and floral bouquets by Mrs. Mary Ann King and Mrs. Mary Dunlop.

The all-occasion cottons used in the show featured 1966 fabrics and patterns generally available at local department stores. Accessories were provided by Montgomery Ward of Wonderland.

A lovely floral arrangement donated by Allen's Nursery graced the platform used by the models.

The show was coordinated by Ann Nickoloff, Mary Bogos, Irene Hawk and Lynda Gregory, who also gave the show commentary. Models included: Helene Albrecht, Myra Albrecht, Gloria Albrecht, Judy Morris, Laura Morris, Yvonne McBee, Karen Bogos, Sandra Maki, Sue Hawking, Alda Lusk, Doris Whitefoot, Ruth Morris, Joan Burke, Irene Ettinger, Harriet Lomas, Ann Nickoloff, Peg Stiner, Lynne Burke, Loretta Wallace, Diane Kolehmainen, Florence Bukovinac and Dorine Bukovinac.

Rabbi Jack Goldman to Teach at U of D Starting June 27

Rabbi Jack Goldman of 18244 Cherrylawn, Detroit, will teach a course, "Introduction to Biblical Hebrew," at the University of Detroit this summer.

The course will meet from 9 to 9:50 a.m. Monday through Friday starting Monday, June 27. Registration is the week of June 24.

Carrying two credit hours, the course is open to both graduate and undergraduate students.

"The purpose of the course," Rabbi Goldman said, "is to provide a familiarity with the language of the Bible... reading, writing and conversational Hebrew."

He said that Hebrew is both the simplest and most difficult of languages. "It is simple," he said, "because the language has meaning and logic down to the smallest particle: even to the extent that each letter is a picture of an object; and the name of the letter is the name of an object."

"It is difficult because the average college student today is more apt to be familiar with romance and tunic languages with their great overlappings of words and meanings, rather than with the semetic languages."

Episcopal Churches to Hold Missionary Rally

A Missionary Rally, sponsored by the Episcopal Churches of the Westside Convocation, including St. Andrew's Livonia; St. David's Garden City; St. Elizabeth's Redford Township; St. John's Plymouth and St. James' Detroit, will be held on May 24 at Christ Episcopal Church, Dearborn, at 8 p.m. Tickets—donation $1 available at any of the above churches.

This is "Zambia Night" on behalf of our Zambia Project, featuring as guests Mrs. Nancy Williams, and The Most Reverend Oliver Green-Wilkinson, Archbishop of Central Africa and Bishop of Zambia. The Bishop who is currently a visitor in the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, says he "hopes to work himself out of a job."

Two outstanding leaders in Zambia are natives—Suffragan Bishop Philip Mataka, who was appointed in 1964, and Archdeacon Mulenga, who serves on Zambia's Copperbelt. Bishop's Lodge, a provincial seminary which opened in the month Archbishop Green-Wilkinson arrived in Lusaka in 1952, now has 23 students and soon will have 30.

The Archbishop sees evangelism as the most important part of his work. "As an evangelist," he says, "there are three things one must do; first one must talk to people, ask people and answer them. Secondly, one must keep periods of private prayer and silence each day; and thirdly one must keep up one's reading. If you do these three things, there is a fair chance that you will be able to preach in a way that is not unrelated to people's thinking and will have renewed the truths that are contained in the faith."

After 15 years of heavy responsibilities and long weeks of seven days each, Archbishop Green-Wilkinson shows little of the strain. He is a man of great energy, and is known for his virtues of leadership, courage and decision, and administrative ability. His charge includes about 250 priests and missionaries and a far greater number of catechists and lay workers.

Oliver Green-Wilkinson was ordained Deacon in 1946, following service in World War II, and was priest in 1947. He was curate of St. Mary in Southampton from 1946 to 1950, then returned to the Diocese of Pretoria, where he had worked as a layman in 1936. After only 18 months in South Africa, he was elected Bishop and returned to Lusaka, Zambia. Ten years later he was elected to the Archbishopric of Central Africa.

Livonia Baptist Church to Hold Evangelistic Crusade May 15-22

Livonia Baptist Church will have as its evangelist during the spring revival, Lloyd Bardowell of Jamaica.

Bardowell is the son of Syrian parents who lived in Kingston, Jamaica, until he was won to Christ at a Bible study class he attended while on vacation at Montego Bay.

Bardowell left home and family to come to America for his education. He is a graduate of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville. Having spent his Christian life in evangelism Mr. Bardowell has held meetings in most of the 50 states.

The evangelistic crusade at Livonia Church will last from May 15 to 22. Services will be at 7:30 p.m. each day. On Saturday evening Mr. Bardowell will tell of his conversion, "Miracle at Montego Bay."

Involve Yourself

Once you and your child have decided on music lessons, reports Marion Egbert, education director for the American Music Conference, be prepared to play a supporting role and become a part of the experience.

Egbert believes nothing can replace a parent's sincere interest in a child's music lessons and practice as a motivating factor.

Wally Roberts GOING UP 'CURTAIN

Before continuing with the discussion of the many fine plays that old Wally saw out East last month, let me cool the engine while I pay tribute to Tony Mattar, director of Livonia-Redford Players Guild's "You Can't Take It With You."

Many folks in the audience last week had little realization why the cast was vigorously applauding Tony who was taking a curtain call with the cast as Tony Kirby. A loose blue slip in the program indicated Mattar as of May 5 acquired the Kirby role. To many audience members the slip could have escaped their notice or they might not have understood what this insert implied.

"As of May 5" meant that Director Mattar had to step into the featured role of Tony Kirby on dress rehearsal evening. Such "zero hour" action can only be done by the most professional of actors. And Director Mattar is truly professional in every bit of his work. His blithe, carefree manner on stage all evening gave no evidence of the torturous inner emotions. Director Mattar's splendid limning of role in an emergency situation was superb and a thing of beauty.

In fact, the entire production of "You Can't Take It With You" with many of the Livonia Guild veterans was a success in every way. Shirley Hulet as Penny exuded charm and grace to give the role delightful depth.

Community theater is fraught with these perplexing problems from time to time, but not any more than you find in the professional theater on Broadway or in the resident repertory theaters at Minneapolis, Seattle, or Ann Arbor. Seems that theatrical folks are more spirited and have more than their fair share of problems.

"Royal Hunt of the Sun" (back to our busy Eastern schedule) at the Anta Theater has had Christopher Plummer playing the lead role of Pizarro, the Spanish conqueror who enslaved the Inca ruler. Last month Plummer dropped out of the role. The public was told he had developed a circulation problem in his leg. Having interviewed Plummer and also heard various stories about his temperamental ways gives me room to wonder. Did Plummer have words with the director? Were some jealousies boiling under the surface between some of the leads? Brilliant actors many times are difficult to manage.

Regardless of the personal problems that might be seething underneath the production of "Royal Hunt of the Sun" is a unique experience. Plummer and Dave Carradine as the Inca ruler have their big scene in the second act where he contends that he has found the secret to immortality. The audience is gripped by this notion. And so is Pizarro. You believe with him that maybe this Inca ruler did discover the secret of everlasting life.

Peter Shaffer, author of "Five Finger Exercise," has once again done a marvelous job of scripting. His play moves and holds your interest. You are horrified at the slaughter of the 3,000 Incas, the greediness of the Spanish invaders, and the excessive cruelty of man to man.

Technically, "Royal Hunt" has about 300 light cues. More than 200 lighting instruments are visible to the naked eye as you walk into the ANTA Theatre. This show should be done in a community theatre for its historical value and the way all our contemporary philosophies are beautifully woven in. "Royal Hunt" is a must show to see if you are in the New York area this summer.

Singers to Install Officers at Republic

Officers of the Metro-D Chapter of the Sweet Adelines, Inc. will be installed May 19 at Boy's Republic in Farmington.

Maureen Anderson will be installed as president of the metropolitan singing group. Other officers are: Gloria Pollard, vice president; Lorry Wasielewski, recording secretary; Karen Williams, corresponding secretary; and Roberta Limburg, treasurer.

The great need today is a lawn grass that will take a vacation the same time you do.

By JOHN DEW

It's no secret that for better than a year now England has been invaded by pirates. Ever since "Radio Caroline" went on the air from a war surplus ship anchored beyond the three mile limits off the coast of Britain, Englanders have had the opportunity to choose their programming.

The BBC which rigidly controls all radio in England, had imposed stringent rules governing program contents and banning commercial programming as we know it in the states. While this may sound like entertainment utopia to those who feel that radio in the U.S. sounds like music and entertainment is broadcast merely as an interruption between commercials, the fact is that commercially oriented programming does offer fare to please the palates of the populace.

British Broadcasting on the other hand, was set up in such a manner as to offer a complete range of program variety from popular to classical music to lengthy discussions and drama. The result was a hodge-podge throughout the day wherein listeners who liked a certain type of music program had only an hour or two available to them in a day.

In came radio from ships anchored off the coast commercially oriented and sounding very much like radio in the states. The result was instant acceptance by the audience and instant problems for the BBC and the parliament. They have neglected to pass effective legislation to eliminate the "pirate" radio stations, due in part to the fact that as politicians they know the problems in attacking an entity held in such favor with the citizenry and also due to the fact that these ships are anchored just outside the limit of jurisdiction by the government.

The recent sessions failed to pass any edict to ban the broadcast by boat and it seems unlikely that any measures will be taken for at least another year.

As a result of Radio Caroline's success, there are now seven stations in operation off the coast. Others are Radio 390, Radio 270, Radio London, Radio City and Radio Scotland. In addition present plans call for two more to be in operation by the summer months.

Sales of records are way up and the stations have had a lot to do with making the big beat of pop music a la the Rolling Stones, Beatles and Motown such a powerful influence.

Disc jockeys from the stations live on the ship two weeks and then have a week off on shore. Salaries for the air-men are not what top announcers pull down in the states but the income is substantial enough to have drawn several from the states to the ships. The week ashore furthermore, allows for D.J.'s to put on dances and shows and increase their pocket money considerably.

The tremendous influence that the pirate stations (they prefer to be called off-shore stations) command is evident in their influence on record sales and in the drawing power when hops or shows are put on. And don't think that advertisers aren't very aware of the sales influence. The stations reach about 22 million listeners a week, enough to bring advertisers flocking and send legislators flying.

And who was it that said commercial radio was all wet?

Casting Call

This season, Livonia's second Musical Production Workshop will produce Rodgers and Hammerstein's "South Pacific." This famous musical about a service man away from home is timely and "Ball Hai," "Younger Than Springtime," "Some Enchanted Evening," and other great tunes from this sprightly show are still as fresh as the day they were introduced.

Roy E. Ernst, who is in charge of this production, said that meetings on casting, staging, publicity and other assignments will be held at:

Franklin High, Monday, May 23, at 3:30 p.m.
Bentley High, Tuesday, May 24, at 8 p.m.

Any teen in the Livonia area can apply. Graduates at home for summer vacations and non-public school students are especially urged to try out for roles in this musical.

Scouts Make Promise Good

"Girl Scouting—a Promise in Action" has been the Girl Scouts' national theme for the current three-year period. Recently you may have read or heard from Girl Scouts or adult volunteers of your acquaintance, how Girl Scout troops across the country have chosen "Promise Projects" which, to them, spell out how they will "put their Promise into ACTION." Now we'd like to let you know how some of these projects are working out.

Easter Sunday dawned just a bit brighter this year for children at the Oakland County Center near Pontiac because of a visit from Girl Scout Troop 761, Juniors who meet at Highmeadow school in Farmington.

The Scouts decorated the dining rooms with crosses, bunnies, chicks and bunny baskets (made from milk cartons) and included a little candy treat for each child. Also, in preparation for the visit, the girls had made toys for the children. Salt boxes were transformed into pretty chairs for little girls' dolls, and juice cans became puddle jumpers for the boys. (Noisy—but lots of fun!) Finally, used toys and clothing collected by the Scouts were given to the Center, and the girls said goodbye with the promise to return again.

This was the troop's third trip to the Children's Center this year, each time being a fulfillment of their "Promise in Action" Service Project. They not only give of their time to visit the children, but spend several meeting hours in planning and preparation for each trip.

Have you ever had an Easter hat made of a bleach bottle? Thirteen four and five-year-old boys and girls at the Sarah Fisher Home are very proud of their bonnets (for the girls) and crowns and military hats (for the boys) fashioned with much enthusiasm and ingenuity from bleach bottles, crepe paper and assorted trimmings by Brownie Troop 115 at Highmeadow school. It took three weeks of planning and preparation, but they were done in time for the children to wear Easter.

Last Performance Set This Week

"Charlie" has been found! This good news after weeks of searching, has been released by the Nankin Mills Players. They will give him their regards when a cast of seven Players portray George Axelrod's "Goodbye Charlie" at Franklin High Auditorium in Livonia, May 20 and 21 at 8:30 p.m.

This will be the Player's last show of the season, and will feature the awarding of their seventh college scholarship. David Amerman, principal of Franklin High School, will make the presentation to William Hanton of Livonia during the May 21 performance.

For the comedy of the year, see this fast moving adult show. Tickets may be obtained at the door, or by calling 427-9091.

Production Slated

The Harlequins of The University of Detroit High School are presenting their annual spring play May 20 to 22. This year's production is "Winter-set," a story of love and murder on a New York riverfront. Written by Maxwell Anderson, the play depicts the tragic story of an Italian immigrant's son and the daughter of a Rabbi caught in the web of gang revenge. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

Special Film on Deaf Available for Groups

"Silent World, Muffled World," a highly dramatic 28-minute, 16 mm. color and sound film documentary on the difficulties encountered by individuals with hearing problems, is available for private showings to adult groups of 50 or more without cost through the Deafness Research Foundation.

Financed by a grant from The John A. Hartford Foundation, and narrated by Gregory Peck, a most extraordinary segment of the documentary is filmed through a microscope and shows a most delicate ear operation — a stapedectomy — which has restored hearing to many thousands. Another segment consists of a series of animated drawings which bring to life the physiology of the ear, the mechanics of the hearing process, and hearing loss caused by certain disorders of the outer, middle, and inner ear.

"Silent World, Muffled World" traces the history and attitudes toward the deaf and the progress made in teaching a deaf child to speak. It shows the educational and rehabilitation methods used in bringing help and hope to those thousands who live in a silent or muffled world. The film depicts an extensive ear research program into the causes of ear disorders and dramatizes the methods by which research is bringing new medical and surgical advances in the treatment of those with impaired hearing.

"Silent World, Muffled World" explains how new hope for the deaf may be realized through the Temporal Bone Banks Program for Ear Research and how bequeathed temporal bones of today's deafened may help spare future generations this affliction.

Organizations should send requests for "Silent World, Muffled World" on their stationery to The Deafness Research Foundation, Dept. HE, 366 Madison Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017.

ANYONE FOR A POPPY? That's the question posed by Matt McLellan, Township DPW and Building director and a past commander of Mayflower Post 6695, VFW, as he makes sales to Township Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes (left) and Clerk Mrs. Helen Richardson. Members of the Legion and VFW Posts will conduct the annual sale Thursday throughout the community.

Twp. Lists Interviews for Jobs

The Plymouth Township Board of Trustees have discovered there are plenty of candidates for the clerk's vacancy in the Treasurer's office and for the newly created position of Director of Public Safety.

So many, in fact, that the Board will interview the 12 candidates for the Clerk's post on May 19 in an executive session and then hold a second such meeting for interviews of the six applicants for the DPS job on Tuesday, May 24.

Supervisor John McEwen indicated the Trustees hope to fill each of the positions at the two meetings.

Urge Area Citizens Get Postal Savings And Purchase Bonds

Postmaster John A. Mulligan Monday urged local citizens who have funds on deposit in the abolished Postal Savings System to convert their holdings into United States Savings Bonds.

"Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien, who is Chairman of the Federal Savings Bonds Campaign, has appealed to the 930,000 Americans who have $285,000,000 on deposit with the Post Office Department to convert their investments into United States Savings Bonds," Mulligan stated.

"I join him in urging local citizens who have Postal Savings Accounts to make that change which will be of great benefit to both themselves and our country. Savings Bonds offer every advantage of convenience and security formerly available through Postal Savings Certificates plus many other advantages unique to Savings Bonds."

Among those special advantages, the Plymouth Postmaster said, are Savings Bonds' new, higher interest rate of 4.15 per cent and "the great intangible benefit of supporting our country in the fight for freedom in the world and for economic progress and security here at home."

Mulligan said details about the procedure for conversion can be obtained from the postmaster of any Postal Savings Depository Post Office which includes Plymouth.

The Postal Savings System, in operation since January 1, 1911, was discontinued April 27, 1966, by act of Congress. The Post Office Department presently is liquidating its accounts and on July 1, 1967, will transfer all unclaimed assets of the System to the Treasury Department.

The decision to abolish the Postal Savings System was made because of declining interest in it by the general public as a savings and investment medium. Higher interest rates paid by financial institutions and other means of investment had attracted the bulk of funds which formerly went into Postal Savings and the convenience factor was negated by expanded hours of service by banks.

The original purposes of the Postal Savings System were to (1) get money out of hiding, (2) attract the savings of immigrants who were accustomed to saving at post offices in their native countries, (3) provide safe depositories for people who had lost confidence in private banks and (4) provide more convenient depositories for savings of working people who were unable to bank during regular banking hours.

Success that isn't planned and worked for is never enjoyed.

Vets Make Memorial Day Plans

Plymouth's annual Memorial Day observance will get underway a bit early this year—starting Saturday, May 21, when members of Mayflower Post 6695 and Passage-Gayde Post, American Legion, will join in placing flags on the graves of all veterans at area cemeteries.

Those participating in the grave decorating are requested to meet at 10 a.m. at the VFW Home in S. Mill Street. If any graves are missed, please call 453-1339 or 453-7406.

Gerald Olson, of Mayflower Post, who is this year's parade marshal, Monday announced that Robert Fitzgerald, regional director of the Veterans' Administration, will be the principal speaker at the annual program in Kellogg Park.

City Commissioner George Lawton will serve as master of ceremonies at the program which is scheduled to follow the annual Memorial Day Parade at 10 a.m. through the downtown business section.

Olson is being assisted by Assistant Parade Marshal Fred Johnson of Legion Post 391.

The annual memorial church services will be held Sunday in the Assembly of God Church in Plymouth, 42021 E. Ann Arbor Trail.

DPW News And Notes

By Supt. Ken Vogras
Plymouth Dept. Public Works

Paint Up, Clean Up, Fix Up Week was successful and a great deal of refuse was picked up and disposed of by city crews. Because of the rainy weather, the pickups were extended for several days.

During the past week, mowing was continued at the cemetery. DPW workers handled two funerals at Riverside Cemetery and the mausoleum was cleaned. Grass was cut at the City Hall and cleaning and mowing continued at the city parks.

Cleaning, grading and patching was done at the city parking lots and streets were patched where necessary.

All 10-inch water gates were checked, a stop box moved into the property line, a broken four-inch main repaired on Northville Road; and streets were patched where water mains had broken during the winter months.

Fire hydrants were checked and flushed from Ann Arbor Trail to M-14 and on Main Street to Sheldon Road.

The sanitary sewer was rodded between Dewey and Roosevelt Streets. The main sanitary sewer was unplugged on Fralick and all flat sewers flushed and catch basins unplugged following last week's heavy rains.
