Plymouth to Honor War Dead

Thousands to View Memorial Day Parade

The Plymouth Community hasn't forgotten its war dead of the Civil War, Spanish-American War, World War I and II, Korean conflict and now the Vietnam struggle.

In many communities, Memorial Day has become just another day for picnicking, recreation and generally to take things easy. The fact that it should be considered as a day to pay tribute to the dead war heroes of other days has long been forgotten.

Thanks to the combined efforts of Mayflower Post 6695 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legion Passage-Gayde Post and auxiliaries, Plymouth has continued its community-wide celebration.

Members of the two Posts, all of whom have participated in one of the many conflicts mentioned above, still remember their days in the service and the comrades who have long since left this world.

That's why they will not allow Memorial Day to pass without recognition of the soldier, sailor and air force dead. Many realize that perhaps they too will soon be re-joining departed comrades and they would like to believe that Memorial Day will continue to be a thing to remember by future generations.

Monday's celebration will follow the pattern of the past with the exception that members of both posts are determined to make this year's parade the biggest and best of several years. Each Post is urging all members to join in the line of march and also in the services in Kellogg Park.

Parade Marshal Gerald Olson, of Mayflower

Post, and assistant Fred Johnson, of Passage-Gayde Post, believe there will be delegations in the parade representing five wars on foreign soil — the Spanish-American, World Wars I and II, Korean and Vietnam.

Local auto dealers are donating cars for the transportation of the lone Spanish-American War veteran, Thomas Gray, and for those members of World War I who will join in the parade. A year ago there were three in the Spanish-American group—two have passed away since last year's parade.

Olson and Johnson urge all World War I veterans to participate. They point out that the rolls of members of that era are becoming less each year — the average age of a World War I soldier is 64.

The parade participants will form in the Kroger parking lot for the start at 10 a.m. The line of march will be south on Main Street, past the City Hall, and the National Bank building, to the south side of Kellogg Park.

An Air Reserve color guard unit will have the honor of leading the procession, followed by the Plymouth High marching (Continued on Page 22A)

Rev. Beckwith Will Leave St. John's

For the third time since the first of the year, Plymouth's religious community has lost another of its ministers to a call elsewhere.

The announcement was made Sunday that Rev. Peter Beckwith, assistant minister at St. John's Episcopal Church, 574 S. Sheldon Road, has accepted a call to become assistant minister of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, in Jackson.

A Parish potluck supper will be held on Wednesday, June 1 at 6:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall; then the Rev. and Mrs. Beckwith will be on vacation for the month of June.

Earlier, Rev. Edward Castner left the First Presbyterian Church to accept a call to the east and Rev. Hugh White of the First Methodist Church announced two weeks ago he would leave to become district superintendent in the Saginaw area.

Elect Earl Demel Titan Club Officer

Earl Demel, prominent Plymouth Township lawyer and a graduate of the University of Detroit in the "golden sports era" of Gus Dorais and Lloyd Brazil, has been elected vice president of the Titan Club.

The Titan Club is a group of influential U-D graduates who have had a big hand in the improvement of the athletic program.

Board Candidates Give Reasons For Entering Race

Incumbent R. Bruce Scott, 8950 Ann Arbor Road, Superior Township, and Richard Arlen, 1441 Hartsough, Plymouth, are candidates for the three-year term on the Plymouth School District Board of Education.

Scott was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Robert Jenkins last fall when he transferred to New York City. However, the appointment was only until the next school board election. That comes up on June 13 when the electors will fill the post (Continued on Page 22A)

R. BRUCE SCOTT

R. Bruce Scott, 8950 Ann Arbor Road, Superior Township, was president of the Geer School District Board when it was annexed to the Plymouth system last fall. He was one of the leaders in the move towards annexation and was appointed to the Plymouth Board when Robert Jenkins resigned. Scott and his wife, Patricia, have resided in Superior Township for the past seven years. They are the parents of three children: Lena, who will be a junior at Plymouth High next fall and a member of the Student Council; Jeffrey, who will be a 10th grader at PHS next fall; and Chris, who will enter kindergarten in the fall.

Scott has been employed in the research laboratory of Parke-Davis in Ann Arbor since 1949. He received a bachelor's degree in Chemical Engineering from Detroit Tech and a Master's degree in Chemistry from University of Detroit.

His answers to the questions: 1—We will have to move along with plans for more facilities as proposed by the Citizens' Committee. It can't (Continued on Page 22A)

RICHARD ARLEN

Richard Arlen, 1441 Hartsough, Plymouth, was graduated from Plymouth High in 1948 and received a Bachelor's degree from Eastern Michigan University in 1957. He and his wife, Alice, are the parents of two sons, Scott, 10, and James, 6, both students at Smith School. Mrs. Arlen was a teacher in Livonia for eight years and has a Bachelor's and a Master's degree in elementary education.

Arlen is a cost analyst in charge of value analysis capital, new products and special projects analysis, controls and reporting for Massey-Ferguson, Inc. at the plant on Southfield Road in Redford Township.

Arlen answers all the questions in the following platform, specifying that he is satisfied with the progress under the present administration and stressing that he is not in the Board of Education race with an ax to grind.

His platform follows: "If I am elected, I will support the continuation of the financial planning advisory committee so they may keep all information current in light of (Continued on Page 22A)

Township Planning Board Chief Quits After Adverse Decision

What appeared to be a normal, lengthy agenda with few major obstacles for the Plymouth Township Planning Commission turned into one of the wildest sessions in recent years and brought the resignation of Chairman Tivadar Balogh.

The meeting started off on the wrong foot when Builder and Developer Loren Gould presented a rezoning petition on Ann Arbor Road from single dwelling to light manufacturing for the proposed construction of a facility for Metropolitan Imprinter Co. of Detroit.

Gould had presented the petition earlier and requested the public hearing at the May meeting. It was believed the matter would receive approval without too much discussion since an earlier poll of residents by Township officials showed little if any opposition.

Disturbed by the fact there weren't any dissenters, Chairman Balogh and former chairman Irving Rozian requested Township Clerk Mrs. Helen Richardson to check and see if the property owners and residents in the immediate area and with abutting property had been notified.

While Mrs. Richardson checking through the files of her predecessor, C. Veach Sparks, who resigned on April 30, Secretary Russell Ash read a communication from Planning Consultant W. C. Johnson in which he recommended the re- (Continued on Page 22A)

Vico Plant to Move — City to Township

The City of Plymouth's loss will be Plymouth Township's gain when Vico Products, 325 W. Pearl, shifts its operations from the present facilities in the City to a new 56,000 square foot plant in a site on Ann Arbor Road directly across the road from the Plymouth Elks Club.

It will be a simple action to arrange the move for the six acres site is zoned for light manufacture and that's exactly the type of zoning Vico needs for its operation.

Plans for the new plant were announced Friday by President Leo Schultz, who has headed Vico ever since the company was first formed in the early days of World War II. Schultz said his company has purchased six acres from the Superior Warehouse Co. with an option to buy the remaining 10 acres.

Schultz, a member of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club, started the business 16 years ago in the basement of his then home at 40840 Five Mile Road in Northville Township.

The demand for his products, which originally included aircraft parts and now are automotive parts, forced Leo to expand into other sites and finally center his operations in the Pearl Street plant.

Currently, Vico has a total of 48 employees with Leo as president and his son, Robert, as general manager.

"We have 23,000 square feet at this location," said Leo. "We will build a new plant at the Ann Arbor Road location that will start with 56,000 square feet and be constructed in such a manner that it can be expanded as soon as necessary. We believe because of our present growth that expansion will be needed within a reasonably short time."

The Ann Arbor Road acreage is directly west of Arbor Village subdivision and has a frontage along the C&O railroad. It is in the same immediate area as the proposed Spartan Stores warehouse and not far east of the proposed Metropolitan Imprinter building.

"We expect to have a 50 per cent growth in a year from the time we move into the (Continued on Page 22A)

Four Are Honored For Long Service

With more than 30 representatives of City and Township government, business, industrial, commercial, civic and service groups in attendance, Plymouth's Michigan Week committee honored four longtime leaders for their contributions to the community in a luncheon at the Thunderbird Inn.

Michigan Week Chairman Edward Sawusch presented framed certificates of appreciation to Miss Margaret Dunning, owner of Dunning's Department Store; Dr. A. C. Williams, who has served the community for 27 years; and to Sam Hudson, on behalf of Vice President James Conway of Evans Products Co., for the company's contributions to the community economy and for its tremendous expansion in the past two years.

John Kamego, Michigan Bell manager for Livonia and Plymouth and co-chairman of the Livelihood Day events, served as Master of Ceremonies.

Then on Thursday morning, Sawusch and Kamego went to Ann Arbor where they awarded the fourth certificate to Carl Shear, longtime business and civic leader who retired there three years ago.

Shear was unable to appear for the program because of failing health.

Plymouth Voters To Meet Seven School Candidates

Voters in the Plymouth Community will have an opportunity to meet, talk with and hear the views of the seven candidates for the three Board of Education seats in an open house meeting in the City Commission chambers at the Plymouth City Hall on Wednesday, June 1 at 8 p.m.

That was the announcement Monday by Chamber of Commerce President Carl Pursell, who indicated the Chamber had decided to sponsor the meeting at the request of the editors of the Plymouth Mail and the Plymouth Observer.

In the past meetings have been arranged in homes or sponsored by various PTA groups but haven't always been successful. There have been complaints that such meetings have been "rigged" in favor of certain candidates.

It was with this thought in mind that the Chamber of Commerce decided to sponsor a meeting at which each of the seven candidates will be given a chance to explain his platform and answer questions.

The seven are: four-year term, Incumbent Ernest Henry, 383 Pacific; Robert Tripp, 42531 Lakeland Court; Roscoe Walker, 41276 Crabtree Court; John Moehle, 1279 W. Ann Arbor Trail; and Dr. Gary Hall, 490 Lindsay Drive; three-year term: Incumbent R. Bruce Scott, 8950 Ann Arbor Road, and Richard Arlen, 1441 Hartsough.

Pursell indicated all seven have accepted the invitations. He urges all voters interested in the June 13 election to attend the program.

Evans Sees Earnings at New High

PORTLAND, Ore. — Record sales and earnings for Evans Products Company in 1966 were predicted by Monford A. Orloff, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, at the annual meeting of shareholders here.

He said that demand of railcars and railway equipment had produced highest-ever backlog in the Transportation Equipment Group, that favorable plywood price levels have enhanced the profits of the Building Products Group, and that the Capp-Homes Division's completed homes and orders booked were at the highest level in its history.

The 1966 sales are currently estimated at approximately $300 million, and per share earnings at approximately $3.65, Orloff said. Sales in 1965 were $247 million, and net earnings were $2.96 per common share, both records high. Orloff further noted that both sales and earnings for the first quarter of 1966 were up 26 percent over the same period of 1965.

The shareholders elected two new directors and nine incumbents. The directors are Crocker Nevins, Executive Vice President of Marine Midland Grace Trust Company of New York, and H. H. Rousseau of Wilton, Conn., formerly an officer and director of Moore's Super Stores, Inc., which Evans acquired in 1965.

Retiring from the Board are Irving Goldfeder, Executive Vice President of Hunt Foods and Industries, Inc., and Emory E. Moore, Vice President of Evans.

Shareholders also voted to increase the authorized capital stock from 4,000,000 to 10,000,000 common shares and from 550,000 to 5,000,000 preferred shares, approved a new stock option plan covering 200,000 common shares, and approved a by-law amendment to permit payment of annual fees to outside directors.

She's a TV Star!

Barbara Loren of 20433 Maplewood, Livonia, the coordinator of the Wendy Ward charm schools at Montgomery Wards, is flying to New York next week to tape her appearance on the television show "To Tell the Truth." Her appearance is scheduled for June 9.

Spring Is Quiet, Safe Without Skateboard

ANN ARBOR—What's spring this year without the once popular rattle of skateboards? "It's safer — especially for young boys," says Dr. Stanley H. Schuman, associate professor of epidemiology at The University of Michigan.

At a recent Child Safety Symposium in Virginia, Dr. Schuman presented an epidemiologic round-up of the 1965 skateboard craze, its timing, extent of morbidity and risk to age groups.

Last spring, 80 per cent of Ann Arbor's youngsters rolled down driveways, sidewalks and streets. One of every four skateboard enthusiasts suffered injury and one out of 100 fractured bones. Ann Arbor was but one of many campus communities struck by the mania. Hospitalization for "falls" climbed sharply in 21 large hospitals through Indiana, Michigan and Ohio.

Timing the fad was literally "no accident," he said. (An enterprising agent first sold 500 skateboards to sororities as spring party favors. Susceptible indeed were the exam-stressed students on balmy spring afternoons.

Local sales shot from 50 on March 26 to 450 on April 2. Recorded complaints of noise from skateboards closely followed the sales record.

The fad spread and the younger set suffered. Seven of 19 fractures among Ann Arbor school children occurred in age groups 10 and 11. Of 33 skateboard fractures reported at another campus community, the two most severe fractures involved an 11-year old boy (skull fracture) and a boy, 12, (compound fracture).

These injuries rose from zero on February 1 to 210 the first of May.

It is not surprising, said Dr. Schuman, that boys accounted for 77 per cent of all fractures reported. It is also well known, he said, that a year or two difference in chronological age may make a significant difference in coordination and margins of safety. Risk-taking behavior, cheaper and inferior equipment, and other factors contribute to more severe injuries in 10 to 12-year-old boys.

Dr. Schuman said studies of sport injuries such as this may indicate which age groups could benefit most from preventive sport-safety measures. His study involved a survey of 3,184 school children.

Borman Stores Sales Show 16.9% Hike

Borman Food Stores, Inc., sales increased 16.9 per cent in the 13-week quarter ended April 30, president Paul Borman told the company's annual meeting.

First quarter sales were $61,317,100, compared to $52,433,100 in the comparable period of 1965. First quarter earnings were $805,000 after provision of $582,000 for Federal income taxes, equal to 29.1c per share on the 2,769,628 shares outstanding.

Head-on Crash Kills Four in Westland Family

A Westland couple and two of their five children died of injuries in a head-on collision on 1-75 in Monroe Sunday night which saw two others killed. The Westland victims in the tragedy were John P. Hartley, 30, of 36851 Middlebury, his wife Nancy, 25, and two youngsters, John, Jr., 7, and Chris, 2. Hospitalized with injuries were Patricia, 9, Denise, 5, and Craig, 4. Patricia and Craig were described in critical condition at University Medical Center, Ann Arbor. Denise, in fair condition was taken to St. Vincent Hospital, Toledo. Police officers were told that an auto driven by Wallace Dupree, 25, of 11452 Whitehorn, Romulus, went out of control on a stretch of I-75 described as "death row," jumped the narrow median strip and smashed head-on into the Hartley Volkswagen bus. Dupree and his passenger, Patricia Wood, 20, of Monroe, died of injuries suffered in the crash. Policemen said that Mrs. Hartley and her two sons were dead when they arrived at the scene. Mr. Hartley died a short time after being taken to St. Vincent Hospital. Although it wasn't determined immediately which one of the Hartleys was driving the vehicle, officers found the mother several yards from the wreckage with her arms holding the body of one of her sons. A short time after the six-fatality accident, a second mishap had a deputy, directing traffic at the scene, struck by another auto. Policemen described the fatal accident as the worst in Monroe in the last 25 years. Ironically, safety measures to cost $500,000 are scheduled to start this summer on the stretch of the freeway where the Hartley's lost their lives. Howard E. Hill, state highway department managing director, said that engineers are working on plans to pave the freeway shoulders and install three types of barricades in the median strip. Bids will be let this July and August and work is expected to be completed before the end of the summer, he said. Asphalt shoulders on freeways are not only hard to maintain, Hill pointed out, but if a car moving at a high speed slips off the edge of the road, the driver can lose control of the vehicle. The director also said that his department plans to provide guard rails and to dig a median ditch to prevent cars from crossing into traffic traveling in the opposite direction.

In addition, three-foot high mounds would be built in the median along curves to reduce the glare of oncoming headlights. The safety measures are an outgrowth of an investigation made two months ago by the highway department, prompted by Monroe County law enforcement officers.

Audit Backs Clarenceville School Count

No discrepancies have been found in the school membership count submitted to the State by the Clarenceville School District in northwest Livonia.

School Supt. Louis E. Schmidt has received word from Alexander J. Kloster, who was acting superintendent of the State Board of Education when the letter was written, stating:

"The review of the membership reports from your school district revealed that the membership reports from your school district are consistent with the actual membership as reviewed by Mr. Roger Terrill of Oakland Schools and Paul De Rose of this Department." Schmidt said the audit was instigated by an anonymous telephone call to the Michigan Department of Education.

Schoolcraft Tells Of Benefits for GIs

Students interested in Student Selective Service Classification (2S) or Veterans Benefits may secure detailed information at Schoolcraft College from John Webber, Assistant Dean of Student Affairs. Webber has all current information on both of these military matters.

Men attending Schoolcraft College will receive Student Selective Service Classification if the following procedures are followed: Local draft boards normally expect a student to be pursuing satisfactorily a full-time course of instruction and to progress at a normal rate. For example, a student at Schoolcraft following a two-year transfer or career program should complete successfully the program in two years.

Since two-year curricula consist of approximately 60 semester hours of work, 30 semester hours would be normal yearly progress. The student may acquire these 30 hours in several ways: (1) He may be enrolled in two semesters of 15 hours each or (2) two semesters of 12 semester hours each and a summer session of six semester hours. Those who complete less than 30 semester hours per year are in jeopardy of being reclassified 1-A.

To maintain a student classification, a student should be in the upper half of the male class as a freshman and the upper three-fourths as a sophomore.

Veterans who are interested in securing benefits under the Veterans Readjustment Benefits Act of 1966, more commonly known as the G. I. Bill, should contact Webber as soon as possible. The educational program for the new G. I. Bill begins on June 1, 1966. Eligibility of veterans requires (1) 181 days and more of active duty, any part of which occurred on or after February 1, 1955, and this charge under conditions other than dishonorable. (2) or discharge or release for a service-incurred disability.

Benefits are paid to a veteran in active service if he has served continuously for at least two years on active duty and continuous without a break in service.

Periods of eligibility will be computed on the basis of one month or equivalent in part-time training for each month of active duty on or after February 1, 1955—maximum period is 36 months. There is no time limit as to the start of the educational program.

The limiting date will be eight years after last discharge or release after January 31, 1955. The limiting date for veterans discharged from June 1, 1966 will be May 31, 1974, unless they have qualifying service after that date.

Courses may be pursued at Schoolcraft College. Veterans so enrolled without dependents will receive $100 per month for full-time training, $75 per month for 3/4 time training, $50 per month for half-time courses.

Rates are increased for one dependent and for two or more dependents. For the rate will be computed on the rate of established charge for the course or $100 for full-time courses, whichever is less.

Application forms for Veterans Benefits are available at Schoolcraft College. Since many courses will necessarily be closed as the summer progresses and students are counseled, any veterans planning to attend Schoolcraft College should contact Webber at his office on the Schoolcraft campus.

Ford Graduates

James Shingler and Bill Thomas of Bill Brown, Inc., Ford dealership in Livonia, were graduated from a truck selling course conducted at the Ford Marketing Institute in Detroit recently.

instructor of CCD; Marie Bommarito and Anne Lopata, Madonna students; Rt. Rev. Edward Burkhardt, director of CCD who gave out the certificates; Dr. Kennedy of Livonia, Mrs. Leona Lorentz of Detroit, and Mrs. Marie Turner of Livonia, all students.

GOP Members To Meet New U.S. Senator

Republicans in Plymouth and Northville will have an opportunity to meet with the new Senator Robert Griffin, talk with Marvin Esch, of Ann Arbor, who is opposing Congresswoman Wes Vivian, and learn the name of the man the party will send against State Representative James Tierney.

That's the program announced for Wednesday from 5 to 7 p.m. in The Loft at the Round Table Club by Area GOP Chairman Carl Pursell.

Pursell said the party has selected a candidate to face Tierney and the public announcement will be made for the first time at the get-together.

It will mark the first appearance of Senator Griffin in the Plymouth community since he was sworn in as the interim successor to the late Senator Pat McNamara just 10 days ago.

Special Ed Program Expanded

Expansion plans for the 1966-1967 Special Education program for Farmington as well as at the County level were announced by Douglas Smith, interim director of this district's program, at the Monday evening meeting of the Farmington Board of Education.

Oakland County Board of Education has authorized Farmington to add one additional classroom for the trainable mentally handicapped, an additional physical therapist to work with the orthopedic program and two more visiting teachers.

Smith also gained the Board approval to expand psychiatric consultation to visiting teachers. Presently a psychiatrist is retained two half days a month for consultation at a cost of $900 a year. The new program calls for services of a psychiatrist two full days a month at a total of $1,800 per year.

Oakland County's Special Education expansions plans, announced by Smith, include seven more classrooms and 50 itinerant programs.

Presently there are 187 mentally and physically handicapped, emotionally disturbed, deaf and resource room children who attend classes under the Farmington Special Education Program.

We Ask All to Observe Holiday Deadlines

Because of the holiday on Monday, May 30, the Observer Newspapers will have early deadlines for the next edition. All offices will be closed Monday so that employees may enjoy the long weekend holiday.

The Classified Advertising offices will remain open until 5 p.m. Saturday to accept ads and also will accept calls Tuesday morning to 11 a.m.

The Display Advertising Department has a deadline of 5 p.m. Friday for the acceptance of ads for next week.

No Church or Society items will be accepted after 5 p.m. Friday. The sports section will be closed for items at noon Friday.

Other than breaking news stories over the weekend, the deadline for the news sections of each community newspaper is noon Saturday.

Please help our employees enjoy the holiday and meet the deadline.

There's Still Time To Enter Observer Mixed Doubles

The fourth annual Observer Newspaper-Merri-Bowl Lanes mixed doubles bowling tournament grinds to a close Sunday night, ending three and a half months of hectic competition.

Tournament Director Mac Goldman indicated there are still some times available on the final two nights of firing. The tournament will resume action Saturday at 11 a.m. and continue through 11 p.m. and then follow the same schedule on Sunday after which officials will begin the chore of rechecking all of the scores before the final official prize list is announced.

Goldman stated this year's tournament is running well ahead of the total entries of a year ago and that all indications point to the tourney finally starting its upward climb in the fourth year.

Those desiring times on the final two days and nights of firing should contact the Merri-Bowl Lanes before midnight Friday.

Director Goldman is looking for full squads on the final two days and nights even though there are some openings at early and late times.

Hulce Honored For Work With Arthritis Group

Ray Hulce, 9275 McClumpha Road, Plymouth, a purchasing executive with Ford Motor Co., has been presented with a Distinguished Service Award by Michigan chapter of the Arthritis Foundation.

The presentation was made by Board Chairman H. J. McLaurin, of Dearborn, to Hulce for his assistance in preparing the Chapter's budget request to the Michigan United Fund.

Hulce was elected to the Ray Hulce Chapter's Board of Trustees at the annual election, for a term ending in 1969.

LCBHR Explores Open Occupancy

The public is invited to attend the next meeting of the Livonia Citizens for Better Human Relations at 9 p.m. on Sunday, June 5, in the Plymouth Congregational Church, 38075 West Seven Mile Road.

At that time there will be a presentation and discussion of open occupancy. The speaker will be the Director-Secretary of the Detroit Housing Commission, Robert Knox.

The Livonia Citizens for Better Human Relations (LCBHR) has always supported the right of every American to live in the home and community he is able to afford. The United States and Michigan Constitutions, as well as federal and state laws, explicitly affirm this right and every citizen has a moral obligation to uphold this basic guarantee in our democracy.

In accordance with this policy, the LCBHR Executive Board has expressed its willingness to cooperate with the Greater Detroit Fair Housing Inc., in its program to assist home owners and buyers who wish to sell and buy homes on an open occupancy basis.

The Greater Detroit Fair Housing, Inc. works through established real estate brokers whenever possible. The LCBHR supports the constitutional guarantees of open occupancy. It feels that Livonia is a fine community of intelligent and public-spirited citizens who reject bias and prejudice, and who wish to make the city a decent city based on good human relations, as do other areas in the vicinity.

Everyone is invited to attend the suburban meeting where, after an initial presentation, one will have the opportunity to pose questions on the subject of community concern.

LIVONIA'S most famous fowl, the huge metal rooster that roosts in the Wonderland Center mall, hasn't flown the coop. The hammered-aluminum chicken is in the center's maintenance building where workmen are in the process of restoring its original shape. Earlier, someone attempted to straddle the bird. Since it is a frail sculpture of metal and wire, the rooster buckled under the weight of unwanted "riders."

Queen of Hearts Prepares For Holiday Weekend Fun

By FAITH GILLESPIE

A holiday weekend is zooming into view.

The children are delighted. The husband is grinning with pleasure at the prospect of a long weekend to loaf or putter or putt.

But the wife's feeling about the whole thing may not be quite so euphoric. After all, she faces a disintegration of her regular routine and a family full of people standing around hungry. It comes to mind that a little advance planning might give her some semblance of a holiday too.

There will be a picnic, of course, and now is the proper time to outfit a picnic basket. Pack a basket or box or hamper with basic picnic equipment, so you will be ready to throw lin hot dogs and buns and marshmallows and leave at a moment's notice, from now till the end of summer.

You will need to lay in a good supply of paper plates and cups and napkins, and maybe a few of those disposable tablecloths. Add an old set of spoons and forks, or plastic ones; stock some mosquito lotion, band-aids, and first aid cream; tuck in a bottle opener, tongs, spatula, and an old kitchen knife; put sugar, salt, and pepper in spill-proof containers. Throw in a roll of aluminum foil and paper towels. When the picnic-madness strikes, you will be prepared.

There have been requests for a reprint of the barbecue sauce recipe from last year. It is a good one to try, because it is tasty, versatile, and easy to prepare ahead and keep in refrigerator or freezer. It is less expensive than the bottled varieties. It can be used indoors or out, for hot dogs, hamburgers, pork-chops, spare ribs, chicken, or chuck steak.

BARBECUE BOUQUET: Brown in oil fat: 1/4 cup chopped parsley. Add the following and simmer, covered, for 20 minutes: 1 cup catsup, 1/4 cup water, 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, and 1/4 teaspoon crushed dried basil, if you have some.

You may try the new hickory flavored catsup, if you like, and if your family is fond of garlic, add a clove of minced garlic. The sauce may also be thinned with a little water to use as a marinade.

If you would like to give your family a nourishing meal without messing up any pots and pans and dispositions, try this goodie:

KITTY'S HOBOT DINNER: Tear off a 12-inch square of heavy-duty aluminum foil for each person to be fed. Put a nice hamburger patty in the middle of each. Then put on a thin (1/4 inch) slice of Bermuda onion, then a layer of thinly sliced potatoes, then a layer of thinly sliced carrot, and then a small chunk of butter (or you know what). Wrap each one securely, folding the foil so that no juices will escape. Place the dinners on a grill over a hot charcoal fire, cook about 15 minutes on each side, and your savory repast will be ready.

If your picnic is to be in your own back yard, here is a quick dessert, the base for which can be stirred up and popped into the oven a day in advance, or at the last minute:

PECAN DELIGHT: Stir together: 1/2 cup graham cracker crumbs, 1/4 cup saltine crumbs, 1/4 cup chopped pecans, and 1/4 cup sugar. Beat 4 egg whites till stiff, then blend in gradually 1/4 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon baking powder.

Fold everything together thoroughly. Bake 25 minutes at 325 degrees in a greased 9-inch pie pan. Top wedges with vanilla ice cream and chocolate sauce. It's yummy, even on a paper plate.

The "Centaur Post"

A column that will appear every now and then in this space to let you know what's going on at Centaur Farm Stables.

DISTAFF INSTRUCTION!

"Women are much better riding instructors and groomers than men," says Miss Alison Dowdeswell, new 22-year-old riding instructor at Centaur Farm Stables, at the crossroads of Drake Road and Walnut Lake Road in West Bloomfield Township. Whether or not this is a prejudiced female opinion we won't venture a guess, but one person who agrees with her is Miss Angela Gandy, Centaur's first woman riding instructor who has been here nearly a year. Recently from Bridgeton, New Jersey, Miss Gandy first graduated from Immaculate College and then operated her own riding school (Hobby Horse Hill) in Bridgeton. She was also associated with the newly opened Two Bits Training Stable in Enola, Pennsylvania, primarily teaching and showing. Miss Gandy gives both private and group lessons, and teaches all the Pony Club lessons. The kids all say that next to their horses they like Angela best!

Centaur's other distaff riding instructor (Miss Alison Dowdeswell) supports her statement that women are better riding instructors and groomers than men with this explanation: "I think it's the mother instinct," she says. "Women are more patient and have more compassion. Also, when a horse is sick, a man will do everything he can for it, and then if he happens to have a date he'll leave. But a woman will give up her date and stay with the sick horse."

Miss Dowdeswell is an English girl who has been in the United States for three years. She attended England's Porlock Vale Riding School, has two B.H.S.A. Horsemastership Certificates sanctioned by the British Horse Society, and taught at both Porlock Vale in England and at the Potomac Horse Center in Maryland near Washington, D.C.

ANY SUGGESTIONS?

Birds are driving us bugs! So when we at Centaur heard that the way to get rid of birds in a stable is to scare them away with Horned Owls we got right on the job. Genuine stuffed Horned Owls are unobtainable, unfortunately (they're protected by law and it's illegal to stuff them). So we did the next best thing and had some very real looking artificial Horned Owls made. There are eight of them in each stable. And they don't faze our birds one little bit. In fact our brave birds, who eat our insulation and annoy the horses, were so unimpressed with the artificial Horned Owls that in their spare time they're eating THEM, too! Paper mache Horned Owls really agree with them!

DIANE EHLERS

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley W. Ehlers of Minneapolis, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dianne Bernice, to Mr. Linn Walker Hobbs, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Linn W. Hobbs, 34105 Hunters Row, Farmington. Both are seniors at Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill. Miss Ehlers is a member of Delta Delta Delta and is president of Mortar Board at Northwestern. Hobbs, a 1962 Cranbrook graduate, is a member of Delta, senior men's honorary, and Tau Beta Pi. Miss Ehlers is majoring in Journalism and her fiancé is studying Metallurgical Physics. He has been awarded a Marshall Scholarship for three years doctoral study at Oxford University, England, to begin next fall. They will marry June 11.

MRS. GERALD RAYMOR

Mrs. Dorothy Klump of Garden City, and Roy C. Gendron of Detroit announce the marriage of their daughter Royleen, formerly of Garden City to A3/C Gerald L. Raymor of the U.S.A.F. The ceremony took place at Lowrey Air Force Base, Denver, Colo., where he is stationed. Royleen's brother, George, accompanied her on the trip and was present at the ceremony. The couple will remain in Colorado.

CHRISTINE MARIE FOX (left) receives her trophy from Professor Rosina Raymond, speech instructor at Madonna. She was awarded a trophy for the college and a plaque for herself.

Madonna Student Wins Oratorical Trophy

Christine Marie Fox, freshman at Madonna College, was judged the winner of the 25th Annual Metropolitan Collegiate Oratorical Traffic Safety Contest.

The contest sponsored jointly by the Detroit Police Department, in cooperation with the Traffic Safety Association of Detroit, The Automobile Club of Michigan and the Michigan Trucking Association, was originated to cause constructive thinking on the subject of Traffic Safety by College Students.

Participating colleges besides Madonna were: Marygrove, Mercy, University of Detroit, Wayne and the Detroit Institute of Technology.

PENELOPE PETERSON

Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmer V. Peterson of 84 Linden Drive, Mason City, Iowa, announce the engagement of their daughter, Penelope Ann to Kenneth C. Fischer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald J. Fischer of McKinley in Plymouth. Miss Peterson was a February graduate of University of Iowa with a Bachelor of Music Degree. She is touring Europe as flue soloist with the University of Iowa Symphony Band. Miss Peterson is a member of Gamma Phi Beta social sorority. Fischer will be graduated in June from College of Wooster in Wooster, Ohio, with a major in religion. He will enter Union Theological Seminary in New York City in September. The young people have a July 2 wedding planned.

KAY ANN GLIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Glide of Coronet Drive, Farmington announce the engagement of their daughter Kay Ann to Shawn J. McAlinden, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McAlinden of Detroit. Miss Glide attended Ottawa University, Ottawa, Kansas. Her fiancé is an alumnus of University of Detroit. A July 30 wedding is planned.

PHI BETAS CELEBRATE

Marsha Hilton, of 31687 Myrna, Livonia, was among the 54 Wayne State University students initiated into Phi Beta Kappa at dinner ceremonies on May 23.

Phi Beta Kappa, founded in 1776, is the oldest scholastic honor society in America. Selection for membership is based on the breadth and depth of the liberal arts program as well as on scholastic average.

Miss Hilton is a senior majoring in psychology.

Fashion Show At Wards Wonderland

Livonia B & PW will hold a Fashion Show, put on by Wards Wonderland, featuring club members as models. It will be at Hines Park Motel at 7 p.m. on May 31. Co-chairman Opal Imonen and Sarah Smith say that dessert and coffee will be served prior to the show.

Proceeds will be added to B & PW's scholarship fund. In past years the club has offered two $100 scholarships to Schoolcraft College and one $100 scholarship to St. Mary Hospital. They have also made donations to the ship HOPE and contributed to the Community Center for retarded adults in Livonia.

Art Club Awards

Three Cities Art Club will hold its Juried Show May 23 to May 28 at Westland Center at Wayne and Warren Roads. There will be a $25 award for each classification, $50 for the best in the show and five honorable mentions. The classifications include paintings, graphics, ceramics, textiles, sculpture.

Michigan Federation of B & P W Clubs Holds Convention in Muskegon

The Michigan Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, held its 48th Annual Convention in Muskegon, in the L. C. Walker Arena.

Attending from Plymouth were: Velma Bartel, Grayce Formaz, LaVerne Carpenter, Carolyn Carpenter, Thelma Cushman, Dorothy Sincok, Mary Wagenschutz, Daisy Proctor and President of the Plymouth Branch Connie Aldrich, Norma Cassidy, Connie Heyder and Agnes Pauline.

Highlighting the program was the presentation of the Ruth Huston Whipple Award by the Plymouth Club.

Prerequisites for this award are: a person's life is to be an example of the Federation objectives, the person should have exhibited outstanding service to her community, the person has held or holds an elective or appointive position in Government, the person should have a high regard for, and be an exponent of orderly procedure.

Receiving the award and stating her regrets that Ruth Whipple was not present to be aware of the honor bestowed up on her was Luella M. Smith of Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Smith has spent 27 years in government administration. She has served as county clerk for Washtenaw County and has continuously held office in Michigan State Association of County Clerks and has been the only woman who has held the office of President in its 57 year history.

She has served on government panels for Michigan State University, has performed for the Michigan Institute of local government, respectively doing research on the need of proper textbooks in the schools on the subject of local government.

Among her many memberships are the Zonta International, the American Legion Auxiliary, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, the Women's Association of the Ann Arbor Symphony and the Education Division of the Michigan State Association of Supervisors.

The age of reason depends—some people never reach it.

Mrs. Robert J. Sherwood

Pearson-Sherwood Wed In Candlelight Ceremony

St. Matthew Church in Livonia, was the scene recently of a candlelight ceremony when Pamela J. Pearson wed Robert J. Sherwood.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Pearson, 32453 Berkley, Livonia. The groom is the son of Mr. Jay Sherwood of 32295 Meadowbrook Lane, Livonia, and the late Mrs. Dorothy Sherwood of Livonia.

Rev. Paul Sherwood of Martinsville, Va., uncle of the groom, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of silk organza trimmed with Chantilly lace. Her bouffant veil was of English imported silk and held in place by silk organza roses edged with crystals and seed pearls.

Carol Sautter, of Mt. Morris, (cousin of the bride) was maid of honor. Her empire gown was of Capucine peach with a floating panel from neckline to floor. Her headpiece was a silk Dior bow with a nose veil in a darker shade of Capucine as were the shoes. Her flowers were a cascade arrangement of large daisy mums with ribbon to match the gown. Susan Sherwood of Owosso and Livonia, sister of the groom; Cathy Ritter of East Lansing and Mendham, New Jersey; and Diane Hood of Livonia were bridesmaids.

Their gowns were the same style as the maid-of-honor only a lighter shade of Capucine. They carried the same flower arrangement with the lighter ribbon accents and shoes to match.

James Sherwood, Plymouth, brother of the groom; was best man. Rodney Pearson, brother of the bride; Dave Sweet, Detroit; and Dan Bowman, Taylor, were ushers.

The mother of the bride wore a sheath dress of pink nylon lace with hat, purse and shoes to match. Her flowers were white cymbidium orchids.

Following the ceremony, there was a buffet supper for 400 in the church fellowship hall.

Following a wedding trip to Watkins Glen, N.Y., the newly-wedded couple will live in Livonia.

Hirschlieb-Wilkin Wed in Double Ring Ceremony

The Newburgh Methodist Church was the setting for the candlelight double ring ceremony on March 26, of Judy Kay Hirschlieb and Donald Carl Wilkin. The Rev. Paul Greer performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Kenneth Hirschlieb, 37651 Grantland Avenue, Livonia are the bride's parents. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Wilkin, 7955 Beck Road, Plymouth.

After the strains of "I Love You Truly" and "O Perfect Love," Judy came down the aisle on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. "The Lord's Prayer" was also sang later in the ceremony.

The bride wore a floor length gown of Peau-de-soie with modified skirt and bateau neckline, decorated with Venise lace medallions, enhanced with sequins. The chapel train also featured Venise lace. A crystal and pearl beaded circle headband held her shoulder length veil. She carried a cascade of white gardenias.

The maid of honor was Jane Massarello gowned in aqua nylon dotted organza, long empire line, trimmed with velvet ribbon at the waist and sleeves. The skirt had a ruffle flounce hemline. Her veil was held by a circlet of aqua velvet. She carried a nosegay of aqua carnations centered with white rose buds.

The bridesmaids, cousin Maureen Minehart and friend Mary Bennett were gowned in pink of the same style and carried white carnations centered with pink rose buds while friends Sue Weberlein and Jean Murdock were in yellow and carried nosegays of white carnations centered with yellow rose buds.

The flower girl Doreen Wilkin, sister of the groom, wore a long gown of white dotted nylon organza with aqua sash, the sleeves trimmed with aqua velvet. She wore a white ruffled head band trimmed with aqua velvet. Her nosegay was of miniature aqua carnations, centered with small white rose buds.

Duane Wilkin, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Seating the guests were the bride's brother Gary Hirschlieb and groom's brothers, Dale Wilkin, David Wilkin and Douglass Wilkin. With junior ushers were brothers Dennis Wilkin and Dwight Wilkin.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hirschlieb chose a multi-water-colored silk in shades of green, blue and pink and wore pink accessories, and orchid corsage. Mrs. Wilkin chose a pink dress with matching jacket and pink accessories with a orchid corsage. Mrs. Charles Hirschlieb, grandmother of the bride, wore a turquoise crepe and lace dress with turquoise accessories, and had green cymbidium orchids.

A reception for 300 guests was held at the K. of C. Hall in Plymouth. A five tier wedding cake centered the bridal table in the hall decorated with streamers and bells.

The cake was white with decorations of hearts, cupids and slippers accented with the bridesmaids' colors. The cake was cut by Mrs. Donald Hirschlieb and Mrs. Price Clear. "The Perpetuals" furnished music for the evening and as the buffet was served.

The couple left on a two-week trip to Florida and are now at home at Plimeth Place in Plymouth.

Several pre-nuptial showers had been given by Mrs. Price Clear and Mrs. Ronald Essick, Mrs. Gerald Simmons, Mrs. David Wilkin and Mrs. Dale Wilkin and one by the bridesmaids.

Mrs. David Joseph Conrad

Morris-Conrad Wed in Plymouth Church

Roberta Ann Morris was married to Dr. David Joseph Conrad on May 14, in Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, Plymouth.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Frederick Morris of New Jersey. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark L. Conrad, 1199 Sheldon Road, Plymouth.

Father Byrne performed the ceremony. William Grimmer played the organ while Mrs. Phyllis Mitchell was the soloist.

The bride's gown was of white pole de soie with an empire waist, long sleeves, and a floor-length chapel train. White roses were her flowers.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Michael Conrad, wore an aqua floor-length linen dress. Her flowers were white carnations and yellow sweetheart roses. Mrs. Warren Silver, sister of the bride, wore an identical gown.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The mother of the bride wore a beige crepe with matching antique lace coat. The groom's mother's dress was mint green.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Hillside Inn, Plymouth, for 48 guests, during which time luncheon was served.

Michael Conrad, brother of the groom, was the best man. James Conrad, brother of the groom, and Warren Silver were ushers.

The bride wore a green print suit with gold accessories for her honeymoon trip to northern Michigan.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Michigan School of Music and a member of Delta Gamma sorority. The groom is a graduate of the University of Michigan Dental School.

The newlyweds will make their home in Pittsburgh, Pa., after July 1.

A fall 1967 wedding is planned.

Lutherans To Hear Dr. C. John

"A Visit to Asia" will be the theme of the Pentecost Mission Sunday observance on May 29 at Lutheran Church of the Shepherd King, corner of Middlebelt and Maple Roads. Guest speaker at the 8:00 and 11:00 a.m. services will be Dr. C. Kunjappan John, formerly of South India and now doing advanced work in urology at Beaumont Hospital.

His wife is also a doctor and is completing her internship at Mt. Carmel Hospital. They live in Detroit with their two children and plan to return to India sometime next year.

During the service, the congregation will participate in the world-wide Bible reading of the second chapter of the Books of Acts, sponsored by the American Bible Society. Dr. John will show slides of India and answer questions during the informal Mission Fellowship Hour at 9:15 a.m.

Many interesting items from Asian countries are being displayed along with the colorful posters and decorations made by the young people of the church. The Mission Guild will serve coffee, coffee cake and punch during the fellowship hour. The public is cordially invited to attend.

June Hostess

Lutheran West Ladies Guild monthly meeting will be held June 6 at 8 p. m. at Lutheran West 3181 Greenfield Road in Detroit. Down-River Circle of Lutheran West will serve refreshments. Mrs. Donald Jeffries is the June Hostess.

Six Concerts Scheduled At Meadowbrook

Oakland University's Meadow Brook Festival and School of Music's wealth of offerings for the summer ahead will make possible for this area six special chamber concerts rare even for New York audiences.

Scheduled are three performances each of the 10-member New York Pro Musica (June 26, 28, July 5) and three chamber concerts by the imposing piano trio whose members are Eugene Istomin, pianist; Isaac Stern, violinist, and Leonard Rose, cellist (July 19, 26, Aug. 2).

The New York Pro Musica is on the Oakland campus to present a two-week Institute for Medieval, Renaissance, and Early Baroque Music open to singers, instrumentalists, conductors, and scholars. The concerts are open to the public and will be presented in the university's new 600 seat Wilson Hall.

Each concert under the direction of Danoué Davenport who has been named pro-tem director to replace the group's late founder, Noah Greenberg, will explore a different facet of music written in the centuries before Johann Sebastian Bach.

The first event, June 26, will be devoted to English music of the Courts of Elizabeth and James. The second concert, June 28, will focus on Florentine Medieval and Renaissance music of Spain and colonial Mexico.

Stern, Istomin, and Rose, in addition to their scheduled performances with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at the Festival, will conduct a three-week piano trio institute for performers, teachers, and auditors as part of the Meadow Brook School of Music program.

Their public performances will be presented in the Baldwin Pavilion using the remarkable acoustical shell in its chamber concert setting for the first time.

The piano trios to be presented are the Beethoven Op. 11, Brahms Op. 8, and Schubert Op. 99 on July 19; the Beethoven Op. 1, Brahms Op. 87, and Mendelssohn Op. 49 on July 26; the Beethoven Variations and Rondo on the Kakadu Theme, Op. 121-a, the Brahms Op. 101, and the Beethoven "Archduke" Trio, Op. 97, on Aug. 2.

Tickets for all performances are available at Oakland University's Festival office.

Farmington Minister Authors Article In Pageant

Farmington minister Robert M. Eddy "death of God" religious debate with an article in the June issue of the magazine, Pageant.

Rev. Eddy, minister of the Universalist-Unitarian church here, is author of an article entitled "God 'Up There Is Dead'."

Also featured by the publication in a special 12-page "discussion" on the day's controversial religious question are articles by Dr. Carl F.H. Henry, editor of Christianity Today and evangelist Billy Graham.

Dr. Henry's work is titled "It Is Not God, but Man the Sinner who is Dead!" Graham states in his article "The Risen Christ has shattered all excuse for doubt."

Rev. Eddy quotes in his work several members of "a small but vocal minority of professors of religion who sometimes call themselves 'Christian atheists.'"

These include Dr. Thomas J. Altizer, associate professor of Bible and religion at the Methodist seminary Emory University; the Right Rev. John Robinson, Suffragan Bishop of Woolrich, England; Dr. William Hamilton, Colgate Rochester Divinity School; Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Protestant and theologian and the Rev. Bernard Martin, chaplain from Geneva, Switzerland.

Also quoted is Dr. Richard L. Rubenstein, conservative Jewish rabbi.

Inquisitive people gather a lot of information that is not backed up with facts.

ALC Vice President Menter Named to Seminary Post

MINNEAPOLIS — Dr. N. A. Menter, Detroit, vice president of The American Lutheran Church since 1960, will join the faculty of the ALC's Columbus, O. seminary on Jan. 1, as assistant to the president Dr. E. C. Fendt.

Dr. Menter's term as vice president of the ALC will expire at the end of the year. He is 68 and is not eligible for reelection.

Announcement of the appointment by the seminary board of regents, was made at a convention of the ALC's Michigan District in Port Clinton, Ohio, this week. Dr. Menter had served as Michigan district president for 20 years. He will retire from that position also on Dec. 31.

Dr. Menter will be succeeded as district president by the Rev. Robert L. Wietelmann of Livonia, Michigan, who has been assistant to the district president since 1961.

All meats should be re-the free world's nickel supply. It is best to wrap meat in the exact portions to be used. Lamb cuts will keep well up to six months — but ground meat should be held only two to three months.

Consumers Power Recipe of the Month

POLYNESIAN PORK

A tantalizing combination of flavors. Try this easy-to-do recipe on the "Burner-with-a-Brain" of your Gas Range.

¾ cup water
½ cup soy sauce
2 teaspoons salt
2½ pounds pork, cut into 2-inch strips
2 (1 pound, 4 ounce) cans pineapple chunks
¾ cup firmly packed brown sugar
¼ cup cornstarch
¼ cup vinegar
2 medium onions, thinly sliced
2 large green peppers, cut into strips

Cooked rice (5 cups)

Bring water, soy sauce and salt to boil over medium flame; reduce to simmer flame. For controlled top burner, select desired flame and set dial at 225° to boil; 200° to simmer. Add pork; cover; simmer 1 hour or until tender. Drain pineapple; reserve 2½ cups syrup. Combine syrup, sugar, cornstarch and vinegar; add to pork. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add pineapple and onion; simmer 10 minutes. Add green pepper; simmer 5 minutes. Serve with rice. For a glamorous touch, garnish with pineapple tops. Yield: 8 to 10 servings.

Dr. E. C. Blumberg Addresses Farmington Scale Watchers

Farmington Scale Watchers, affiliated with Tops International, were treated to a very informative and thought-provoking evening on Tuesday, May 17, when Dr. E. C. Blumberg of Farmington, met with the club. He stressed the idea that the will to lose weight is within each person; without that will, voluntary loss is impossible.

The group therapy type of help as found in a club of this type may be the incentive needed to encourage that will power. With understanding comes knowledge and health. His rule for weight loss was a decreased intake (of calories) and an increased output (through activity and exercise.) Dr. Blumberg ended the meeting with a question and answer period which cleared up many confusing and conflicting ideas held by the members.

Farmington Scale Watchers meet every Tuesday at 8 p.m. Anyone who is interested in the group therapy help and encouragement which the club tries to offer in the weight reduction battle may contact Mrs. Joanne Reynolds at 474-0380, or Mrs. Eva Willett at 474-0764. Discussion has also been held on an afternoon meeting group. Anyone interested in such a group may contact Mrs. Kay Wade at 474-6419.

Receives Grant

Oakland Community College has been awarded $2,246 from the Metropolitan-Rural Special Supervisory Fund of the U. S. Office of Education to complete development of seven projects currently assigned to the College under the provision of the Manpower Development and Training Administration (MDTA), James H. Dotseth, OCC Director of Technical and Vocational Education, has announced.

Michigan — one of twelve states in the north central region — provides a giant share of the nation's dinner table products. The region produced over 50 per cent of the nation's dairy products last year.

Sportswear Colors Cover Wide Range

Spring's color wheel is spinning. 'Round and 'round she goes, where she stops, the "fashionables" know! The color scheme for spring is clear, ranging from misty pales to intense brights to deep darks with an array of hues between. If fashionables had to settle for just one color, the choice might be green, in all its variations. Fortunately, no such choice is necessary, for it might present quite a dilemma. What about the many "no colors?"

White is stirring up a snow storm in bright and chalky tones, fragile eggshell and ivory shades.

White's popularity has brought nude colors in hemp and natural yarn looks into the fashion picture. Beige shades in everything from taupe and camel to parchment and champagne spin into spring.

Pink and blue, the baby colors, arrive in a pale color spectrum—warm, fragile and sometimes antiqued. Light, vegetable garden green makes a pale, pretty appearance, too.

Sunny brights reflect springtime in lemon, lime grass and buttercup shades of yellow and green. Glimmering scarlet, emerald and hot pink are colors to catch the sun's radiance.

Black and navy are, as always, present but with a new twist. They create exciting contrasts in combination fabrics. Added to these perennial favorites are green and brown dunks.

Sportswear colors say, "mix and match for color fun!" Take spring's favorite lights, brights and darks, mix them up and make them into granny prints, madras plaids and wild California mixes.

SCOREBOARD

A man's manners are a mirror which enables others to ascertain his true character.

The gift of a perfect memory

We all have a little gift shopping to do. Father's Day, weddings, graduations, birthdays, going-away presents. Will the gift you give really be appreciated? It will if it's a camera. A camera is a gift with a perfect memory. For the graduate, traveler, bride and groom, it comes at a time when they'll be doing and seeing things that they'll want to remember all their lives. A camera is the one gift that can save those precious moments. But which is the right camera?

It will probably be a model from the family of KODAK INSTAMATIC Cameras. Six different still cameras, four different movie cameras—all load instantly with drop-in film cartridges. The six still cameras range from less than $20.00 per model to models with built-in computers that "program" better pictures for you as you shoot. These INSTAMATIC Still Cameras offer the convenience of the flashcube to make indoor picture-taking as easy as outdoor shooting.

All the instant-loading movie cameras are snapshot-simple to operate. There's no winding, no film flipping with any of them. And they all use new super 8 films for brighter, sharper, more lifelike home movies. You show these brighter, sharper movies only on a super 8 projector.

There's a KODAK INSTAMATIC Camera just right for anyone on your gift-shopping list. Why not stop in and see them here?

Daughters Carry Out 'Sermons in Flowers'

Marvel Steiger, of Quail Hollow Court, in Farmington, has been giving of her talents in flower arranging to her church, the Universalist-Unitarian Church of Farmington. Each Sunday she illustrates the sermons in flowers.

On Children's Day, May 8, her three daughters, Maria, Maria, and Linda, tried their hand at interpreting their text. This is a family affair in the Steiger family and their father, Richard Steiger, wrote out the text for them, and they carried on from there.

The texts are as follows: the small white container and arrangements depict the wonder of the elements. The building blocks of the universe spring to life when endowed with personality and meaning, by Maria Steiger.

The large white container and arrangement flanked by two candles depicts freedom of religion. The intertwining of religious expression the world over is testimony to the oneness of man's longing for an ideology of wisdom and truth by Maria Steiger.

The yellow container and arrangement depicts the problems of family life as found in the story of Joseph. Although the least of 12 children he found fame and expression through the application of the vital talents woven into his being by Linda Steiger.

It's Not What You Spend, But How!

Here are 10 shopping cues to creating for yourself the costume effect you want at a price you can afford:

1. Before you go shopping, have in mind exactly the items for which you are looking, says June L. Sears, Michigan State Cooperative Extension Home Economist. Buy only those included in your wardrobe plan, and do not spend more for them than you've estimated. Resist the temptation to make unplanned "impulse" purchases.
2. Examine garments closely for quality. Look for adequate seam and hem allowances, quality of workmanship and cut regularity of yams and evenness of weave, size of stitching on seams, finishing of buttonholes and trims, and zippers in good working order.
3. Always try on garments in the shop before purchasing, and always over the undergarments with which they will be worn. Try also to have with you the accessories and other items which complete the costume. Make sure the garment fits easily at all points of strain.
4. Always check the hang tags on garments before you buy to see what special finishes have been used, what claims the manufacturer makes, what care should be given the garment after purchase.
5. For basic wardrobe items or those which will have the most wear, buy the finest in fabrics and workmanship you can afford. It is usually more economical and more satisfying over the long term to buy one good outfit than two inexpensive ones.
6. Spend most of your clothing budget on staple items rather than novelty styles or items worn infrequently. If you buy the luxury fabrics or finishes accept them as such and do not invest too much in them. They are not intended to give the same performance and serviceability you expect from staple items.
7. Don't overbuy your needs. Be particularly careful if your activities have recently undergone a major change, as from college career or career to homemaker.

8. Don't allow yourself to be distracted by the large array of merchandise nor hurried by the salesperson into an unwise decision you will regret later.
9. Use the same criteria in buying garments on sale that you would use if they were not. A dress on sale may be a bargain in someone else's closet but a skeleton in yours if it doesn't fit your overall wardrobe plan.
10. Finally, ask the advice of experts, but above all have confidence in your own decisions.

Peek in Purse Reveals Heap Of Articles

What's in a purse? A recent survey confirms what women already know: A purse may contain just about anything that's small and portable. In its research, Kimberly-Clark classifies the contents of purses as necessities, emergency items, and "miscellaneous."

After looking inside their purses, almost all women interviewed revealed that they carry keys, identification, driver's license, social security card, credit cards, money, check book, address book, lipstick, powder, mirror, comb, purse pack, tissues, nail file, shopping lists, reminder lists, photographs of the family, and plastic rain scarf.

But, to be really prepared for the activities of the day, many women also carry hair spray, brush eye make-up, nail polish, safety pins, hair pins, first aid kit, and maps, too.

In frozen foods — the thermometer tells the story. It should read zero or below. Frozen foods should always be stored at zero degrees or under — both in the store and in your own home freezer.

Salute Prepared For Top Students

Bentley high's annual Honors Night, which recognizes and salutes outstanding students will be held in the Bentley auditorium on May 25 at 7:30 p.m. Friends and relatives of students are welcome.

Once a year the faculty honors those who have displayed superior ability and effort in art, athletics, business education, English, homemaking, industrial arts, languages, library, mathematics, music, science, and social studies.

The valedictorian and salutatorian of the class of 1966 will be presented by Benton Yates, Superintendent of Schools.

The distinguished Service award, to be given for the first time, will honor students who have demonstrated highly exemplary responsibility, devotion, and service to Bentley. The top ten per cent of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes will be recognized for their diligent work.

All-School Letters will also be awarded to those ambitious students who have earned 35 points for their involvement in extra-curricular activities.

Achievement Awards will be given to those students who have done particularly well in one division of their department. For example, the Social Studies department will honor the outstanding delegate to the "Model United Nations."

Bentley's representatives to Girls' and Boys' State, chosen each year by the faculty will be announced, and the American Field Service will give special recognition to our foreign exchange students for the school year.

Coed Named College Editor

Shirley Anne Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Cox of 26032 Dover in South Redford, has been named editor-in-chief of the 1966-67 Eastern Echo, the University weekly newspaper, by the EMU Board in Control of Publications.

Miss Cox, a twenty-year-old junior majoring in sociology and psychology, has served since her freshman year on the Echo. She was a 1963 graduate of Cody High School in Detroit.

Besides her journalism interests, Miss Cox is an honor student, active in the Stoic Honor Society and Adachi, senior women's women's honorary on campus.

She is presently an officer in Alpha Phi Gamma, national journalism fraternity, and Omega Phi Alpha, national women's service sorority.

"Journalism," according to Miss Cox, "is just an interest. My future is in sociology."

THE MOST REVEREND Oliver Green Wilkinson, Archbishop of Central Africa and Bishop of Zambia, was the guest speaker at a missionary rally, sponsored by the Episcopal churches of the Westside Convocation Tuesday.

A total of 42 from area high schools are among the 962 Michigan High School seniors awarded University of Michigan Regents—Alumni Scholarships. The winners were selected by the Committee on University Scholarships from 2,900 applicants representing more than 550 state high schools. Last year 879 seniors in 547 high schools won the scholarships.

N'west Trackmen To Decide Title

While Birmingham Groves shaped up as the favorite, Thurston, Franklin and North Farmington high schools were conceding good chances of springing some surprises Wednesday evening in the annual Northwest Suburban League track championships at Bentley High's oval.

Groves alone completed the league's dual-meet campaign with a perfect record. The Birmingham forces won five out of five.

Thurston came through with a 4-1 mark, bowing only to Groves while Franklin finished up at 3-2 in the league and stand 8-2 overall. North Farmington had a 2-3 record. John Glenn wasn't given too much of a chance of upsetting the appieart in the bid for league honors.

Thurston completed its dual-meet schedule by conquering Oak Park, 64-45, and North Farmington, 68-41. Two days earlier, North Farmington had given Groves a real run for its money before dropping a 56-52 1/2 decision.

The Redford Townshippers carrying the Thurston colors looked to hurdler Leonard Cyr and to Al Phillips in the high and long jumps to lead them in the league meet.

Sprinters Steve Duhe and Bruce Whetter are among the standouts in the North Farmington lineup.

Cyr fashioned four victories last week as he copped the high and lows in both meets. Duhe sped to wins in the 100 and 220-yard dashes in North Farmington's battle with Thurston.

Stipends vary according to the financial need of the winners, and range from honorary $50 entrance awards to $700 per-year grants. Awards continue for the normal length of the student's degree program if his or her academic record justifies renewal.

Each accredited high school is entitled to at least one of the scholarships if a qualified senior applies. The additional awards are granted at large on a basis of statewide comparison of applicants from the participating schools. There are no restrictions in the number of applications from, or awards to, any one school.

In evaluating the applications emphasis is on character, citizenship, academic record, financial need and competitive test scores.

The Distaff Side...

By Jerry Wendt Women's Editor

Times are changing — and so are women's pages of newspapers across the land — and I say thank goodness! It has always been The Observer concept that the pattern of the suburban housewife had radically changed. Instead of someone whose sole interest lay in home and family and whose reading material was limited to domestic and social trivia, today, for the most part, she is college educated, and has had an interesting position. Instead of retiring for good from the workaday world to raise a family she will instead re-enter it when the children are safely able to function on their own.

This has caused a radical change in their reading habits — and because of this I have been able to interview many people and cover many subjects not ordinarily within the scope of a Women's Editor.

One of the most outstanding interviews I have ever had was with Sister Mary of the Incarnation, who is a cloistered nun in the Monastery of the Blessed Sacrament.

This interview occasioned much comment — many people expressed disbelief that I could find so much to talk about with someone who had been behind the cloister walls for over 20 years. Sister Mary of the Incarnation has not seen television, movies or had any of the "worldly" experiences which we take as part of everyday life.

Yet she is a wonderfully, wise, witty and warm human being. As for our conversation, Sister Mary of the Incarnation is an Editor. She edits and publishes "Echoes" the magazine which has done so much to bring the outside world a picture of life in the cloister.

People in this area will have a privilege afforded to few, in fact I do not know if any "lay" people have ever had this experience before. Due to the fact that they are moving to the new Monastery of the Blessed Sacrament, at Thirteen Mile and Middlebelt Roads, they will hold open house to everyone and people will be able to actually go through and view the cloister world before it is sealed up forever. It is in the middle of a beautiful wooded property and from the moment you step within its walls, a sense of peace and quiet beyond this century envelopes you.

It is enormous and filled with light and air — not at all like the dark dungeon like castles which were usually surrounded by a moat in medieval times.

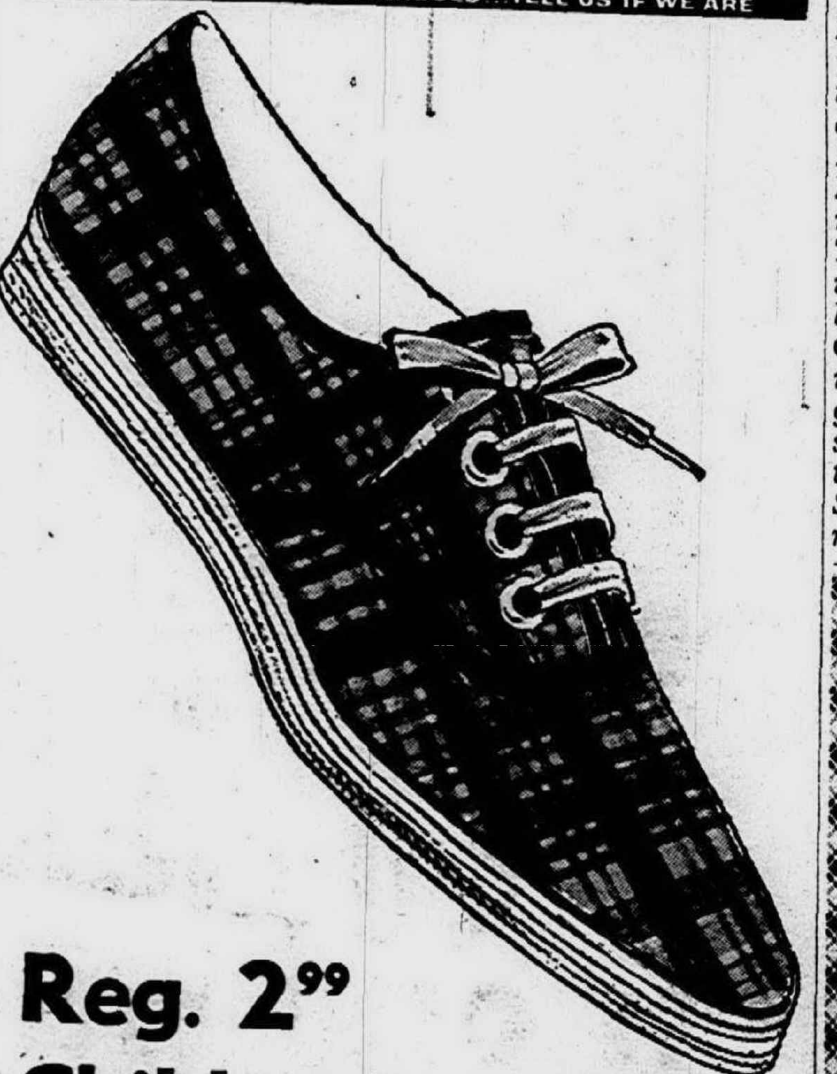

You will see the work areas, living quarters, long corridors and chapel. It will help you to understand their way of life. You can go through everything from the kitchen to the choir, including the inspection of a nun's cell with her board bed.

A devoted family moved from Monroe to guard the building. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Colpaert and son Terry

A CAPABLE GUARDIAN of the new building of the Monastery of the Blessed Sacrament is Terry Colpaert. He poses in his favorite part of the building. The chapel of the cloistered nuns. This part will be open to the public for viewing from May 28 to June 4 during Open House Week. —Photos by Jake Wendt moved here July 26 and have lived on the grounds in a trailer. They all feel the Monastery is a part of them and they go through the building three or four times a day.

It is a credit to them and to the community that there has been no vandalism of any kind. The beautiful walls and windows are not defaced in any way.

Open House will begin Saturday, May 28 to Saturday, June 4 (excepting Monday, May 30) from 12 noon to 5 p.m.

The cloister is vanishing somewhat from our way of life. It reached its height in medieval times because then women were rated no better than property. If they were poor and plain they were made to work in the fields and in lands, without shoes, and not even allowed to eat at the same table with the men.

If they were pretty, they were taken in their teens to the great castles, to become part of the court. When they were replaced by someone younger, death was many times the only answer. A noted historian of that time wrote that it was not an uncommon sight to see many a maiden who had hung herself by a her long tresses hanging over the castle walls. At that time, the cloister offered the only sanctuary known to women. Facing a loveless marriage (they NEVER had anything to say about their mates) or a treadmill existence, the cloister was their answer.

Today, thank heaven, women have a far better lot. Today, it is a sacrifice to enter the cloister, and these gentle women who have consecrated their lives to God should receive the thanks of the entire community.

THE ENCLOSED COURTYARD of the Blessed Sacrament Monastery. The Cloister Nuns will hold Open House in their new dwelling beginning May 28.

Library Site of Workshop

The Garden City Library will be the site of one of five workshops to be held this summer by the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Registrations are now being taken for the summer Art Workshops for Young People, sponsored by the Founders Society of the institute. Classes will be held the week of July 4 and continue through the week of August 8.

All instructors for the classes are artists familiar with the techniques and problems of both teaching and learning the various art media, a spokesman for the program said.

Classes for the lower grades will be 90 minutes long and the older pupils will have two-hour sessions.

Registration for the workshop is June 22 and a nominal fee will be charged for materials used during the six-week period.

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Pays Tribute to Rev. Jay P. Coulton

Some twelve years ago, the people of St. Andrew's were congregating in Bentley High School for the Sunday services. Then a human dynamo in the person of the Reverend Jay P. Coulton began the long battle to convert swampy land into a parking lot.

HOWARD DOW, SENIOR WARDEN of the Vestry of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Livonia, and Rev. Jay Coulton stand before an oil painting of Rev. Coulton which was painted by Donald Blaney of Garden City.

P. Coulton began grinding out working plans with his people to develop St. Andrew's Episcopal Church. "Develop and build" keyed the goals from the time the first shovel of dirt began the long battle to convert swampy land into a parking lot.

Over the years one could almost hear the vibrant hum of effort as Jay strove to build the Parish Hall, a church proper, and finally, a fine Sunday School wing. Then, the time came for Jay to move on to another objective and to leave the church he built.

Appropriately, an oil portrait of Jay has been hung in the Education Unit to hallmark the culmination of a man's guiding spirit and devotion to an ideal.

Observer CHURCH PAGE

Page 6-C (12-A, PRFWGC) May 25, 1966

As Howard Dow, Senior Warden of the Vestry, made the presentation to Jay, he remarked that this portrait was an outward sign of what is truly in the hearts of all Mr. Coulton's friends — a sincere tribute to a man who gave so much of himself.

Donald Blaney, of Garden City was commissioned to do oil, and after three sittings and a preliminary sketch he captured Jay on canvas. The sketch was given to Jay's wife, Isabel, and a caricature to Jay.

Completing the day, Ellen Shaftoe headed the reception as a final gesture in the project she spearheaded along with others to record the smile that won the hearts of everyone and gave impetus to the building of St. Andrew's.

Teacher's Pupil Meet

THE ARCHBISHOP OF YORK, the Most Rev. Donald Coggan, found a former pupil on the University of Detroit campus when he came to lecture last week (May 16): in the Rev. Roy Morrell of St. Elizabeth Episcopal Church, Redford. The association began more than a quarter century ago at the University of Toronto.

Plymouth Church To Celebrate Pentecost Sunday

Lutheran Church of the Risen Christ, Plymouth, announces that Pentecost Sunday, May 29, commemorates the sending of the Holy Spirit to the disciples, 10 days after Jesus ascended into Heaven, 50 days after Easter. On that day, with the baptizing of thousands, the Christian Church was born.

Pentecost is also the birthday of the Risen Christ congregation. Two years ago this Pentecost, in May 1964, the Lutheran Church of the Risen Christ was officially organized.

Methodist Men Father and Son Banquet June 17

Newburg Methodist Church, Livonia, announces that the Father and Son Banquet will be held on Friday, June 17 at 6:30 p.m. Tickets will be available from Ed Reid or Earl Laich next Sunday.

Christian Science Church To Hear Bible Sermon Lesson May 26

Christian Science churches this Sunday will present a Bible Lesson-Sermon of the fallacies of hypnotism and other forms of mental control and servitude. Responsive Reading will include these verses from Ephesians: "Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them... Wherefore by ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is."

The theme is explained in detail in selections to be read from the Christian Science textbook, including these: "In a world of sin and sensuality hastening to a greater development of power, it is wise earnestly to consider whether it is the human mind or the divine Mind which is influencing one... No person is benefited by yielding his mentality to any mental despotism or malpractice... The truths of immortal Mind sustain man, and they annihilate the fables of mortal mind, whose flimsy and gaudy pretensions, like silly moths, singe their own wings and fall into dust" ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker).

Spring Meeting of Catholic Women To be Held at St. Norbert's Parish

The Spring Meeting of the Wayne Western Deanery of the Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women will be held on Thursday May 26, at St. Norbert's Parish. Registrations will begin at 7:45 p.m. St. Norbert's is located on Inkster Road, one block south of Cherry Hill.

An informative program—A Migrant Demonstration—will follow the meeting. Five women, currently working in this area, will be guests and will meet and talk with the women of the Deanery. Chairmen of this year's Migrant Drive are Mrs. Irving Conlin of St. Mary's Parish, Wayne, and Mrs. George Dominick of St. Kevin's Parish, Garden City.

Just as in other years, the needs are light weight clothing, especially for children, food items, cooking utensils, dishes, bedding and any money you wish to donate. Donations will be given to the Blissfield Migrant Center in southern Michigan. If you wish further information, call Mrs. Conlin at PA 2-2149, or Mrs. George Dominick at 728-1588.

STANDING IN HIS BOOK-LINED study, Farmington minister, Robert Eddy plans the outline of his new book.

Farmington Minister Robert Eddy Discusses "Is God Really Dead?"

By Jerry Wendt
Church Editor

Pillorying is considered an ancient torture, or at best one not heard of or known since Puritan days, but last year a young Farmington minister came close to having a taste of it.

Rev. Robert Eddy, minister of the 110-year-old Universalist-Unitarian Church in Farmington is a firm advocate of honesty. And it was this quality which led him into a maelstrom of controversy. He believed in candidly facing the fact that there is a revolution in the sex behavior of our young people and offered his own theories in the matter. The resulting storm broke quite soundly on his head.

Scholar is the word that comes to mind when you meet him.

The Observer interviewed Eddy on his recent article in Pageant expressing his views on the current "Is God Really Dead Issue?"

"We asked him 'How did this current discussion start?'"

"It was the publication of Bishop Robinson's book, 'Honest to God', said Eddy, smoking his ever-present pipe, 'this book brought into the open that religion is not what the people in pews always believe the ministers religion to be.'"

He agrees with the concept that God as a "person in the sky" is dead and that this is the last age of supernaturalism in religion. It is a paradox that although he is considered modern by some people in his views, the Unitarian religion is one of the oldest in America, and started in New England.

Unitarians are not "Christians" in the conventional sense of the word—that is they do not believe in the divinity of Christ or a life hereafter. The belief in heaven is defined as a "three-story" world.

"What is the duty of the clergy then," we asked him, "in this current God is Dead discussion to give people a sense of purpose or faith?"

"There is more misery caused in this world, by people denying their natures, than by ever giving in to them," Eddy replied. "To think oneself be true" is still an excellent axiom. The purpose of life is to discover ourselves and to be of service to others."

"Make up your own mind," he continued, and allow other people to make up theirs. Listen to others. People need to be needed. The best medicine for yourself is the medicine you give to others."

"But isn't that in essence the Christian religion?" we asked. Eddy replied, "I don't say that I believe in the divinity of Christ, but I do try to follow him. I believe that he was a very great man."

His answer to "Why Unitarian-Universalist is called the 'thinking man's religion' and attracting the young college students," was illuminating. "Young people like the Unitarian-Universalist religion but they don't identify with it," he said surprisingly. "They still identify with the religion of their fathers."

Apparently his unpleasant experience has left Eddy with no fear of the printed word, for he is now planning a book. It will deal with the behavior and problems of young people in the age 10 to 15 bracket. He refused to discuss the book further but we are safe in predicting that it will cause comment and it won't be dull.

To be popular cultivate a spirit of fairness to others.

Redford Baptist Church Plans Early Thursday Memorial Service

Rev. Gordon H. Schroeder, minister of the Redford Baptist Church believes in facing a problem squarely rather than evading it. He accepts the fact that many travelers will leave town for the Memorial Day Weekend and therefore miss the Sunday service. He therefore proclaimed the following solution, which appears to be an ideal way for coping with the absence of regular parishioners over the long holiday weekend. To quote Rev. Schroeder:

"The long Memorial Day week-end causes many of our members to get away for a long week-end. The cottage on the lake, tenting in the woods, the invitation of friends to have a week-end together in a distant city takes its toll of church attendance on Memorial Day Sunday. To be sure, some will attend a worship service, but to many this will not be possible. What shall the pastor do? Shall he say nothing, complain about it, or plan a special Memorial Sunday service on Thursday evening for those who will be away from Redford Baptist Church on Sunday. We decided on the latter. The choir will help to make this a meaningful worship service. The time is 7:30-8:15 p. m., on Thursday, May 26.

First Maronite Exarch of the U.S. To Be Installed at Blessed Sacrament

An unprecedented event is scheduled to take place in Detroit on June 11 when the Most Reverend Francis Zayek, S.T.D., J.C.D., named by Pope Paul VI as the first Maronite Exarch of the United States, is installed formally in the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

The selection of Detroit as the headquarters for the newly created Exarchate was made by His Beatitude Paul Cardinal Meouchi, Maronite Patriarch of Antioch and all the Orient. His selection was confirmed by our Holy Father.

Archbishop Egidio Vagnozzi of Washington, D.C., Apostolic Delegate to the United States, will install the former Auxiliary Bishop of Brazil before a large assemblage of church and civic dignitaries, priests and laity from Maronite parishes and communities throughout the United States.

It is estimated that there are approximately twenty thousand Maronites in the Detroit area alone. The enthroning of Bishop Zayek will be the realization of a dream for all those embracing this particular Rite of the Roman Catholic Church.

Bishop Zayek has appointed Chorbishop Mansour Stephan his National General Chairman of Installation Committee. Assisting as Co-Chairmen are Chorbishop Michael Abdoo, Chorbishop Louis Richa, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Anthony Korkemeyer, Very Rev. Msgr. Joseph Feghali, Very Rev. Msgr. John Tradd, and the Very Rev. Msgr. Elias El-Hayek.

Father Semaan Farris of Danbury, Connecticut is the National Co-ordinator for the Installation.

Attorney Richard C. Shadyac of Washington, D.C., President of the National Association of Maronites, has been chosen by the Bishop Zayek Installation Committee to be General Chairman of the lay people who are helping to formulate plans.

At the American Baptist Convention in Kansas City, Dr. Gordon C. Schroeder was elected to the General Council (decision making body of the denomination). There are 36 members of the council elected from the U.S.A.

Dr. Schroeder completed six years on the editorial committee of the National Baptist Church paper "The Crusader."

THIS IS THE NEW First Baptist Church of Garden City. Many long hours of work and loving labor have been wrought to make this beautiful building. It will be dedicated May 22 thru May 25.

Garden City Church Holds "Week of Jubilee"

Friends of the First Baptist Church of Garden City held their week of Jubilee the week of May 22. They held four days of Sacred Services in dedication of the new $140,000 church, located at Marquette and Henry Ruff Streets. The general theme throughout the four days was "The Church Facing Its Mission."

The new church was financed by the selling of church bonds and the sacrificial giving of the church members. The main floor houses a contemporary semi-gothic sanctuary. The left wing of the church is supplied with an office, two nurseries, kindergarten, adult class room and rest rooms. The basement has a large 350 seating capacity Fellowship Hall with adjoining S. S. Class rooms on one side and a modern kitchen on the other side. In the left wing more Sunday School class rooms. Public address system, which is used throughout the church.

The church was organized in 1937, with 64 charter members.

Jehova's Witnesses Plan "Off to Canada" Trip

"Off to Canada" is the summer call for the Farmington Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses who will be leaving shortly for their district convention to be held at Toronto, Canada. It was announced this week by Arthur Zacharak, presiding minister of the congregation that a delegation of 32 from here will attend this international gathering to be held June 22-26 at Exhibition Park in Toronto.

"We are expecting an attendance of over 50,000 from the Great Lake States of United States and Ontario," Zacharak explained. "This convention will be the beginning of a series of eleven North American assemblies scheduled for 1966. There will be six in Canada, four in the United States and one in Alaska. Our ministers from Farmington are excited about going to the first one."

"The convention is called 'God's Sons of Liberty' District Assembly. Explaining this unusual title Zacharak stated:

"True liberty means living inside God's principles of freedom as outlined in the Bible. There has been a lot of talk lately about the so-called 'new Morality'. What is new about self indulgence? Our purpose as Jehovah's Witnesses is to reaffirm, by this public demonstration, our faith in the Bible principles of moral cleanliness, family solidarity, chastity, and parental discipline to control juveniles instead of the permissive practices that have made delinquency a major national problem."

Since April 24, 3,500 Jehovah's Witnesses in the Toronto area have been busy in a massive campaign of visiting homes to arrange accommodations for the coming delegates, to supplement hotel and motel facilities to care for the large gathering.

Secrets, like money, are no good unless placed in circulation.

12 Sites Favored By YMCA Group

At a recent meeting of the Livonia Y.M.C.A. Board of Management, considerable discussion centered on the selection of a site for the proposed Y.M.C.A. building.

The Site Committee under the chairmanship of Cecil Alford made a complete report of progress, indicating 12 different possibilities for site selection.

Among the criteria to be used in the selection of a site are:

PROGRAMABILITY — its use in meeting the present needs of our community,
CENTRALITY — emphasising the need for a community focal point.

EXPANDABILITY — looking to the needs of the future, and

VISIBILITY — the naturalness of its position in making the community aware of its presence.

Serving with Alford are members of the Facility Committee, a sub-group of the Board of Management. These people include Charles Allen, Ben Balan, Bob Bertoli, Jerry Brown, Janet Brown, Janet Campbell, Les Core, Bob Dingman, John Dufour, Ed Hyman, Dick Joyner, Jim Klein, Bill Lindhout, Harvey Moeke, Betsy Tagami, John Ward, Frank Watanabe, Bob and Arlene Williams.

It is important to note that the Detroit Metropolitan Board of Directors has the ultimate authority to purchase or to accept land in Livonia for Y.M.C.A. use. Action taken by this Board will be predicated by a recommendation of the local Livonia Y.M.C.A. Board of Management.

By the first of June it is expected that the Site Committee will have a definite recommendation for the Facility Committee, chaired by Jim Thomas. Thomas and his committee will carry this recommendation to the Livonia Y.M.C.A. Board for its ultimate consideration, before sending it to the Detroit Metropolitan Board of Directors. Questions regarding the site and the process of selection may be directed to Thomas, or to Dr. Donald E. Friedrichs, Chairman of the local Y.M.C.A. Board of Management.

Roller Skating Champ Honored

Plans for a plaque to honor the late Clayton LaMay, professional skating instructor in Livonia, have been announced by the Riverside Figure and Dance Club.

Members have collected funds for the plaque which will be placed on the wall of the Riverside Arena in Livonia, when it has been prepared.

The arena recently received a flag from the Grand River Ladies Auxiliary, VFW Post 1519. Americanism Chairman Mrs. Hugh Dunham made the presentation.

LayMay will long be remembered by many students whom he started from the beginning and who later became champions in state, national and world meets.

He had the distinction of having more gold medal skaters to his credit than any other professional instructor in the U.S. Amateur Roller Skating Association.

From the beginning to the end of his long and colorful career, he brought roller skating to the point, where at the present, it is one of the greatest sports in which the entire family can participate, either for the fun of it or more seriously, to become champions.

The La May brothers, Lionel E. and the late Clayton, were pioneers in the roller skating business.

They started out by skating under a tent which was destroyed by a terrific wind storm, but soon was rebuilt with more substantial materials, with additions being built over the years, till at present, it is one of the largest and most beautiful skating arenas in the country.

Three Swim Stars Appear in Bentley High Water Show

Three members of the Bentley High School Silver Swans, registered Michigan Amateur Athletic Union synchronized swimming club, competed in a state meet held in Lansing, Michigan, at the Dwight Rich Junior High School pool on Saturday, April 30 and Sunday, May 1st.

Peggy Carey, Anne Friedrichs and Karen Medford, all seniors at Bentley, were the three competitors.

Competition included doing three required stunts (skip, dolphin, and somer-sub), and two optional stunts. All three girls did well in stunt competition. Karen Medford placed first in the 18 and over age group.

In routine competition, Peggy Carey swam a solo entitled, "Mary Poppins," which placed seventh in the state in the 15-17 age group.

Karen Medford, in the 18 and over age group, placed second in the state in "Creation in Abstract," her solo entry.

The girls are coached by Mrs. Patsy Kollen, faculty member at Bentley High School.

A Mechanic Now

Pvt. Gary L. Matthews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Matthews, 35515 Oakdale Drive, Livonia, has completed an infantry mechanic course at the Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga.

DPW News And Notes

By Supt. Ken Vogras
Plymouth Dept. Public Works
The heavy rains of Wednesday afternoon and evening kept Department of Public Works crews busy unplugging storm sewers when water poured over downtown streets and sidewalks during the height of the storm.

During the past week, DPW were busy trimming grass and generally getting Riverside Cemetery in top shape for the Memorial Day activities. The job of picking up the remaining refuse from the annual spring cleanup was continued for two additional days due to the rainy weather.

A six-inch sanitary sewer and three-quarter inch water tap were installed at a home on Holbrook. A survey was made of the city for spots where trees will have to be planted between the sidewalk and the curb in the fall.

Work was started at the Byron Street water pit, removing existing 12-inch fittings. Flushing of hydrants is continuing until all hydrants have been flushed.

Dye testing of homes at various locations was made during the week to determine whether these homes are hooked to the sanitary and storm sewers.

Vivian Tells Of Conference With Area Businessmen

By CONGRESSMAN WES VIVIAN

Each of the employees and employers in our District, and this is virtually every family, stands to benefit when the businesses in our District increase sales and gain new clients.

Now the Federal government is one of the major single purchasers of goods in our economy. Thus, it is important that our District businessmen be aware of every opportunity which they may be able to fulfill to contract for sale of goods or services to the Federal government.

Early last month, I sent invitations to most District businesses, inviting them to send a representative to Washington, on May 18, to learn from top government officials, at a day-long Business Opportunities Conference, what types of opportunities their particular company might be missing to sell to the Federal government, and how to seek and to conduct such sales efficiently and effectively.

Some 34 businessmen travelled from all sections of the Second Congressional District to Washington that day. Many remarked that it was the first time that they had ever been invited to participate in such a Conference, and that they were very pleased to have the chance.

Our morning started off with a presentation by representatives of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, describing the types of work and contract procedures the agency followed, and explaining how the Midwest regional offices of the Agency could assist businesses in Michigan.

I am pleased to say that businesses and universities in our District already do many millions of dollars a year worth of work for the space agency. The opportunities outlined by the NASA purchasing and technical people during the Conference, should generate considerable additional work for our District.

Next on the Conference schedule was a presentation by purchasing representatives of the General Services Administration, the agency which does most of the non-specialized purchasing for all departments of government. GSA maintains warehouses throughout the Nation, and is constantly asking bids on thousands of different items, from paper clips to bulldozers, which our government agencies need.

At lunch, we heard an excellent presentation on the long-range trends of the national space exploration effort, by the Administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the Honorable James E. Webb. Webb, an able extemporaneous speaker, answered many a question which his audience raised, on a wide range of subjects.

Livonians to Receive Mackie Scholarship At Michigan Tech

HOUGHTON—Mich.—Richard A. Koch, 15121 Harrison, Livonia, will be among the 330 students honored here May 24 at Michigan Technological University's 14th Annual Honors Convocation.

Students honored will include the two highest ranking individuals in each class, members of the Dean's List for the 1964-65 academic year, those receiving class honors (upper five per cent of their classes with at least a 3.3 grade point average,) new members of honorary and professional fraternities and societies and recipients of scholarships and fellowships.

Koch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Koch, will be awarded the N. S. Mackie Scholarship. He is a freshman civil engineering major at Michigan Tech.

Demel Adds Lorenz, $250,000 to Petition

With a price tag of $250,000 and the name of Mayflower Hotel owner Ralph Lorenz added to the complaint, the suit of Earl Demel and others, against the Plymouth City Commission protesting the vacation of Maple Street and the failure of the City to consummate the sale of land on Ann Arbor Trail to the highest bidder, will be resumed Friday afternoon at 2 before Circuit Court Judge George Bowles.

Demel filed the action following the street vacation, alleging that it worked a hardship against him as the owner of the Colonial Professional Office Building on Ann Arbor Trail and that the failure of the City to sell him land when he was the high bidder had worked hardships.

The name of Lorenz and the sum of $250,000 was added to the complaint a week ago. Demel is seeking a temporary restraining order against the vacation and an order for the sale of the property.

How to add a room...

without cooling off the rest of the house

consider electric heat

Give your new room its own heating system—a modern flameless electric heating system. Electric heat is clean, comfortable, perfectly controllable. Simply dial the warmth you want and you get it exactly—without stealing heat from the rest of the house. How much will electric heat cost to install and operate? That depends on your particular home. One thing sure, it won't cost you a cent to find out. An Edison Heating Specialist will gladly come out to discuss equipment and cost of operation with you. No obligation for this estimate, of course. Just give us a call.

He has been active in the Democratic Club of Garden City for the past ten years, serving as a trustee for 1963 and 1964.

GM Workers Get Living Cost Boost

General Motors has announced an upward revision of four cents an hour in its cost-of-living allowance to approximately 430,000 hourly-rate employees resulting from an increase in the nation's cost-of-living index.

The revision is effective with the pay period beginning June 6. The GM hourly-rate employee, therefore, will receive a total cost-of-living allowance of 16 cents per hour for the months of June, July and August.

More than 10,000 eligible salaried employees will receive an equivalent increase of $20 in their quarterly cost-of-living allowance. Thus their total cost-of-living allowance for the three-month period will be $60.

GM wages are reviewed quarterly and adjusted in line with the Consumer Price Index of the U.S. Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics. The BLS index for April is 112.5, compared with 111.0 on the date of the last review.

2 Area Pupils Named to MSU Honors College

Two students from the circulation area of the Observer Newspaper Group, are among 99 at Michigan State University who have been accepted as new members of the Honors College.

The two are: Roger Mingo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Mingo, 29531 Pipers Lane, Farmington, and Karen Brydon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ryan, 28014 W. Six Mile Road, Livonia.

Honors College provides special academic programs for superior undergraduate students. All students who have a 3.5 all-university grade average in their freshman year are eligible for admission.

Livonia Student Wins $150 Prize for Peace Essay

Paul R. Pillar, a Clarenceville High School graduate attending Dartmouth College, has won a $150 award for his essay "The United Nations' Decision to Intervene in the Congo."

Paul, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Pillar, of 28612 Fargo, Livonia, is a graduate of Cranbrook school in Bloomfield Hills, and is a college freshman.

He is a member of the special Mountain and Winter Warfare unit in the Reserve Officers Training Corps at Dartmouth.

The $150 prize given by the Chase Peace Prize Committee is awarded annually for the best essay on the topic of world peace.

L. FREDERICK BRAYTON, manager of Edison's Farmington office for the past year, will be honored by the company this month upon his 35th Service Anniversary. Brayton, who makes his home at 33953 Schulte, joined Edison's sales department in Detroit in May, 1931. He is active in the Farmington Elks and Exchange clubs.

Scouts To Join In Area Program At State Fairgrounds

Hundreds of Scouts and leaders from this community will take part in the huge "Scout-O-Rama '66" show to be held at Michigan State Fairgrounds on June 3-4-5. Local Scout leaders have been busy for the past several weeks getting together the hundred-and-one things needed to put on an outstanding exhibit of Scouts-in-action at the show.

Nearly 20,000 boys and leaders will take part in staging the big indoor-outdoor exposition. Many of the major buildings at the Fairgrounds will be used, including the Coliseum, the Dairy and Agriculture Buildings, and the new Community Arts Building.

Some of the main features will include Cub-O-Rama, with dozens of packs staging continuous shows; Trail-O-Rama, with all its cooking demonstrations (and plenty of "free" samples for visitors), camping and outdoor Scout skills; Road-O-Rama will feature a drivers course where anyone with a drivers license can take part in a driving event that tests reaction time and the driver's skill; Explor-O-Rama will feature an opportunity for the public to see themselves on TV, and a real live Hootenanny on Sunday afternoon.

Indian-Rama will have authentically clad Indians performing age-old ritual dances to the throbbing beat of tom-toms in a colorful Indian village complete with teepees. Nature-Rama will feature conservation, soil and water management, wildlife and animal displays and, of course, Smokey the Bear will be on hand to get in a word on forest fire prevention. Some other features that will appeal to old and young alike are the mountain-climbing demonstrations on a specially constructed mountain at the Fairgrounds, and free horseback rides on real western horses from the D-A Scout Ranch. And, there are convenient rest area benches for mom and dad at strategic locations throughout the Fairgrounds. Tickets, which are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children ( tots are free), are available from Scouts in nearly all of the packs, troops and posts in this community.

College Gives Scholarships To Two Boys

Two Observer area students have been awarded academic scholarships for the 1966-67 school year by Lawrence Institute of Technology, it was announced by LIT President Wayne H. Buell.

They are:
Allan D. Nash, son of Mr. and Mrs. DeWayne F. Nash, of 30340 Rush, Garden City.

Richard A. Nawrocki, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert Nawrocki, of 17555 Glenmore, Redford Township.

The scholarships cover full tuition and fees totaling $600 for one year and are renewable for the full four-year degree program provided the applicant maintains high standards, making the total grant $2,400. Financial need is not a requirement.

Nash will graduate from Garden City High School East this June ranking 35th of 260 students. He is a member of the National Honor Society and secretary of the Varsity Club. He was the show champion of the Michigan Industrial Arts competition (architectural models and drawings) last year.

At LIT, he will study architecture.

Nawrocki will graduate from Redford Union High School in June. He will study architectural engineering at LIT.

Two Livonians To Receive Alma Degrees

ALMA—Two Livonians are candidates for bachelor of arts degrees at Alma College's 79th year commencement to be held June 11.

They are Barbara Klenk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Klenk of 32900 Vermont, and Mike Dunkelberger, son of Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Dunkelberger of 32501 W. Chicago.

Miss Klenk, a 1962 Bentley High School graduate who majored in sociology at Alma, plans to go into child welfare work in the Detroit area after a three-month tour of Europe.

At Alma College she was a resident advisor, member of the queens' courts for Homecoming and Campus Day, and was affiliated with Gamma Delta Alpha (women's honorary sorority), Michigan Scholars, Alpha Theta Sorority and Sociology Club.

Dunkelberger, also a 1962 Bentley High School graduate and a sociology major, plans to study for the ministry.

He played varsity football and participated in intramural athletics at Alma. He was a resident advisor and was a member of TKE Fraternity, Orientation Committee, Sociology Club and Religious Affairs Committee.

Pack 832 Cubs Receive Awards

Just Chattin'

Memorial Day — It Isn't What It Used to Be Some Years Ago

Each year, as Memorial Day approaches, I suffer pangs of nostalgia and yearn for just one more celebration of the day like we used to have when I was a young lad back in the foothills of the Allegheny Mountains in the Pennsylvania Dutch Country.

Through the mist of years I can still see "The Old Colonel" walking spryly and proudly at the head of the parade, commanding the dwindling ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic. These were the Civil War veterans who lived all year for this one day—and how they enjoyed it.

I still can see the parade turn off the main street of my old home town—Catsaqua, Pa.—and start over the Pine Street bridge to Fairview Cemetery where the tribute would be paid to those who had given their last full measure of devotion.

High on the hill, in front of the old chapel, stood the first monument in the country erected in the memory of those who had laid down their lives at Gettysburg, Vicksburg, and other hallowed battlefields of the great struggle.

It was here that the "Old Colonel" conducted the memorial program, after a brief pause had been made on the bridge to toss flowers into the Lehigh River in tribute to the sailors who served in the Great Conflict.

Standing there in front of this famous monument the "Old Colonel" reached the peak of his day. No Shakespearean actor ever gave a more dramatic performance and we youngsters used to stand in awe of him, for you see, he was my Grandfather.

He was a soldier of the type we don't see any more. He used to live his life as a G.A.R. veteran every day and he had all the youngsters in the neighborhood saturated with the tales of the battles in which he had taken part. As I look back now, so many of these tales were figments of his imagination, but he would regale us with them as a sort of reward for helping him prepare for the big day. Every soldier's grave had to be decorated with a flowering plant and a small American flag. The platform had to be erected and the chairs put in place so that all was set for his program.

What memories! And how unfortunate the young folks are today that they haven't got an "Old Colonel" to take them by the hand for a walk through history most every day.

Just being with him gave us youngsters a feeling of pride and burned indelibly on our souls the lesson of loyalty and patriotism that saved our nation in its darkest hour.

Somewhere along the line, in our hurly-burly race for survival, we have lost the significance of Memorial Day, or Decoration Day, as it once was commonly known.

The ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic have been depleted and the veterans of the wars that followed never speak of their experiences, or wear their military uniforms, except on very rare occasions.

The great orators are gone and the soul stirring marches are only faint echoes of a by-gone day.

The change in attitude regarding Memorial Day is one of the most regrettable changes that have taken place in our present way of life.

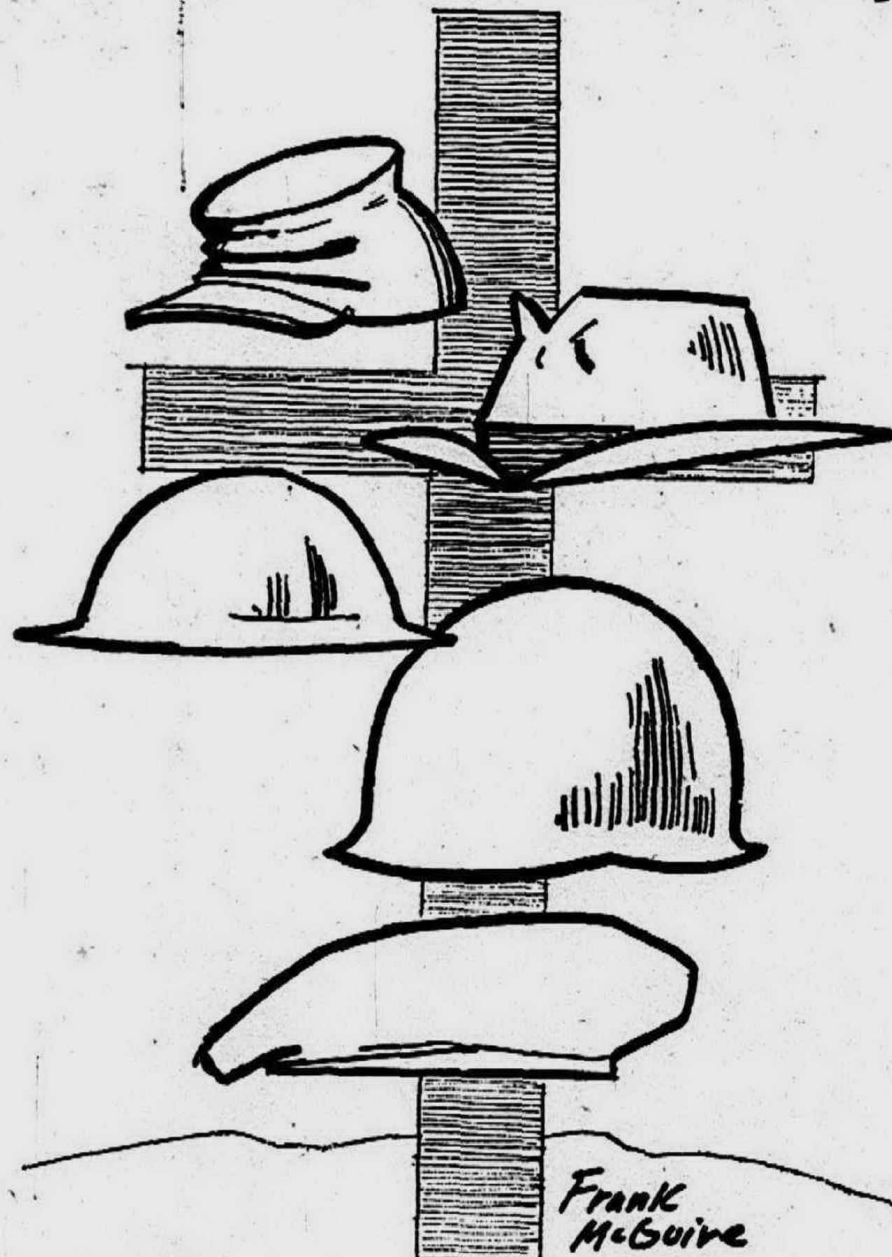

Many of our suburbs furnish a fine example. The celebration of Memorial Day will consist of parades but, there's nowhere along the route to equal the emotional setting of the old cemetery, high on the hill. There's no river to cross or in which to toss a flower in tribute to the sailors who laid down their lives.

It will just be a parade—and sadder than all other changes is the fact that in the City of Livonia, for example, they have underwritten the cost of it to the extent of $2,000. Or, as one city official expressed it, "it's just two cents a person and who'd complain about that?"

Well, if the "Old Colonel" were here he would. The only price he put on his patriotism was his life.

W. W. EDGAR

The Reader Speaks Up

Clean-Up Campaign? What About Kemberton Area?

Editor:

That picture in your paper of two weeks ago amused me. It is not a pleasant sight but believe me the mess isn't any worse than in my neighborhood.

The annual "clean-up weeks" come during the month of May each year, but what does it mean. People are given a warning to clean up but it is never carried through. Nothing is done about it until the following May. All the trash is there, but of course more is added in the course of the next year. It is depressing to the ones who try to keep their property clean. Truly, I am ashamed to have my friends and relatives come into the neighborhood. Not a very good reputation for the township, is it?

Sanitation? Well that is another problem. My daughter, who lives across the road from me, reported to Mr. Hall a year ago last January that her septic tank was running over after just having it cleaned out because of the poor drainage. She was told at that time that we would have sewers within four months. Well nearly a year and a half later the mess is still as bad as ever. She called again a few weeks ago and now she is told the bids have to be let out. And how many more months will that be. There is always some poor excuse or alibi. I have not been able to wash for four weeks because of the drainage. We had our septic tank drained and we could hear the water rushing back into it even while the men were still there. It is a shame that people live under these conditions, especially since we are already paying for sewers that are not in. I have thought very seriously of calling in the newspapers and just enlighten them on the sanitation problems in the Township of Farmington. And when they do decide to put in the sewers it won't be in this "slum" area, it will be in the newer residential areas, although we have been working for the last nine years for sewers. Kemberton Park is the last subdivision to get any attention. We haven't had any gravel on our roads in over five years. When I called a couple years ago and asked for gravel, I was told the allotment was $19,000.00 overdrawn. Which provoked me as we hadn't had any for several years.

We are just completely ignored, but our taxes are paid regularly and for what. We have put in good septic tank systems but the ground is so full of water that the systems can't work properly. Ours has been good until this last couple of months because of the heavy rains. It is surprising to me that my daughter and her children have not contacted hepatitis. We have had people from Lansing here and this area was pronounced an emergency area and that was about three years ago. An emergency three years old, hmmm. How long does an emergency last?

We have water in the subdivision but some of us haven't had it piped in because we do not feel that is the greatest need. WE NEED SEWERS NOW AND THAT ISN'T MONTHS FROM NOW.

Can't we have some action now? I'm sure there isn't another subdivision in the township that has the problems that the Kemberton Park subdivision has. We have lived here for 19 years and the subdivision is the same, only "trashier" but there have been no improvements. Not a very happy future for happy living, is it? We are discouraged, ashamed and disgusted to be residents of Kemberton Park. It was beautiful when we moved here but housing has been allowed to run down, old cars are left to be eye sores and junk thrown everywhere. The new subdivision behind us has labeled Kemberton Park "Dog-Patch". Quite a fitting name as I see it, even though it hurts to be one of the residents.

It's Propaganda

Editor:

In my opinion the so-called Committee for the Preservation of Farmington Township has undertaken a calculated propaganda campaign. This campaign appears to be designed to Brain Wash the Citizens of Farmington Township into believing that incorporation means we must have large increases in taxes.

THIS IS NOT TRUE.

The committee neglects to point out that through good government residents are now provided with the necessary services any city must provide a reasonable tax rates. The only exception to this is Roads. After much study on this subject I am convinced that this service can be provided from the funds the State would provide.

I fail to see the reason for any such huge tax bills I have been reading about. It appears that a few people are ready to sacrifice a well planned and complete community to satisfy their own selfish interests. It is my sincere hope that the voters will look beyond the barrage of scare material pouring through the mails. The true facts of incorporation will be published by the Committee appointed to study the subject.

Pool Needed Now

Editor:

Girl Scouts in Farmington are also interested in swimming pools and auditoriums in our High Schools.

Many, many of our Farmington area Girl Scouts, through the years, have had to go to neighboring pools to complete their achievements for swimming and water safety. Girl Scouting in Farmington has now reached a total of about 81 troops with approximately 1,600 girls.

As our organization grows each year more girls are looking for pools to get their life-saving, swimming, and water safety outside of our community. Our neighboring communities have been kind but their need for pool facilities is growing too! How much longer can they help us out?

In the interest of children and youth in our community, let's all get out and vote on June 13th.

Observing the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER

Now is the time, fellow-grippers, if you have something to say to your Legislators because they are heading toward their June 10 finish line with some important matters still undecided.

The new crop of legislators in the House have been younger, smarter, and by and large, more independent — they have also been more dedicated, really doing their homework, and have been better-heeled than any group of legislators ever before.

Consequently they have set an all-time record both in the House and in the Senate for the number of bills put in the hopper.

June 8 is the final day for passing all bills in both the House and the Senate. June 10 they recess for the summer.

Pay raises for legislators zoomed through the Senate like Batman and are still not settled in the House. Most everyone is aghast at the thought — a raise of $5,000 per year — when they had one just last session. There is another thought, however. The higher the ante — the better legislators we will get and some of these dead-heads such as I consider Walton in the 16th will be eliminated. Really stiff, thoughtful competition he could not take. Imagine the caliber of men you would get if the salary were $17,500.

● There is a possibility driver education funds paid to the schools will be raised from $25 per pupil to $40 per pupil. Money for this comes from driver licenses.

● Help for private colleges is a touchy one. Senate Bill 780, which will cost an estimated $4.37 million, would provide tuition grants up to $250 to full-time resident students enrolled in private, non-profit colleges. This has passed the Senate and is now in the House. Also, under consideration, is a law to reimburse transportation systems carrying students to private elementary and secondary schools. Like I say, now is the time to give your legislator in the House your opinion on this subject.

● In the Senate, having passed the House, is Marvin Stempien's bill which prohibits sale of motor vehicles to minors without written permission of parents or guardian.

● Another House Bill now in the Senate extends the same rights to adopted children as natural children in a Will, unless contrary intention specifically stated.

● HB 3979 now in the Senate prohibits discrimination in the employment of women. (My old question: "What about serving on the Draft Board?" If this passes the Senate I will again make application.)

● A very important one is HB 3335 that prevents the arbitrary cancellation of automobile insurance liability policies by the insurance companies. The Bill also sets up an appeal procedure for persons who feel that they have been unjustly cancelled. Long over-due.

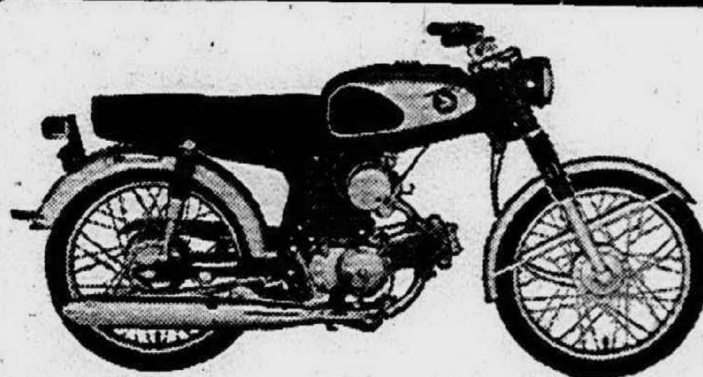

● Another Bill which bears watching is HR 2392, now in the Senate which allows the names and addresses of teenagers to be printed in a newspaper if it is a felony-type crime. This bill, passed in Montana, was said to have reduced juvenile felony-type crimes about 49 per cent.

For all the publicity, traffic safety measures did badly in the legislature this session. Most disappointing was the Bill torpedoed by the legislators to get drinking drivers off the roads; tighten up the point system and provide periodic motor vehicle safety inspection. The Governor was in favor of all three. Drinking drivers cause more accidents than anything else. But it didn't get by either House. Letters might help for next session.

One moral issue the legislators stood pat on, despite pressure to pass, was the permission to sell liquor on Sunday. Who needs it?

It has been written this has been the hardest working body of lawmakers. Also it has been the most liberal in spending the taxpayers' money in history. This is the first group of legislators to have reached the billion dollar mark. The pay raise, if passed, will add another $740,000.

There are still a few weeds in the garden but from my observation they have done more, with dignity and dispatch, than any other year — in spite of their quack-grass.

outdoor chefs are very fussy!

Ever since the outdoor cooking fad began, we've been catering to the special needs of outdoor chefs.

Over the years, we've satisfied scores of thousands.

Many, many find just the steak, chops or chicken they want in our self-service meat departments.

Others have specific needs...

the steak must be 2 1/2" thick, the chops double thick and so forth.

That's no problem.

If you don't see it...just ask. We'll be happy to help you.

One other reason we're so popular with "backyard barbecuers"...

zoning be denied.

Johnson explained that there were other single dwellings facing Ann Arbor Road and that such a rezoning would result in spot zoning. Furthermore, he reminded the Board that the 707 program provides for a buffer of multi-dwellings along Lilley Road and that the rezoning would break up that continuity.

The Board had hardly recovered from that recommendation when Mrs. Richardson informed members that there was no record of letters being sent to property owners and that there was no indication the land in question had been posted with an announcement of the public hearing.

With that information, the Board tabled the request for additional study with a thought that it could be presented in June for a public hearing to which all residents of the area concerned would be invited to make comments.

The remainder of the agenda appeared routine until the Board came to a request from Builder Finch Roberts for consideration of a building permit for a private dwelling on Joy Road between Ridge and Ann Arbor Roads.

It was a metes and bounds area and the Board was asked to grant the permit even though the land was only 136 feet wide and fell some 14 feet short of the required frontage for a home in that area.

The land is located between the homes of Cameron Lodge Jr. and Balogh.

Attorney John Ashton, representing Roberts, told the Board that the Board of Appeals had approved a permit back in 1962 but that his client felt he should present the matter to the Planning Commission for concurrence.

And that's where the fur started to fly.

Balogh immediately disqualified himself from the hearing as Board Chairman and as a member and Maurice Breen took the chair.

Both Balogh and Lodge bitterly attacked the request on the grounds that it did not meet the requirements of the ordinance. Neither felt it proper for Roberts to be allowed to receive a building permit for a dwelling on property that fell 14 feet short of the requirements.

The matter got so hot that Lodge took off his coat and was ready for fistfuffs. Despite his efforts to maintain order, Breen found himself in a hot spot and it appeared as if he too would leave the meeting.

Matters cooled down, the Board listened to the pros and cons and then acted to approve the issuance of a building permit.

Balogh stormed out of the Township Hall and his letter of resignation was in the mail the following day.

band under the direction of James Griffith.

Parade Marshal Gerald Olson and assistant Fred Johnson will be next in line followed by the lone Spanish-American War veteran; Clarence Broseau, adjutant in office of the Veterans Administration, accompanied by City Commissioner George Lawton who will serve as master of ceremonies.

Then in order will come: Plymouth Township Supervisor John McEwen and wife; the American Legion color guard; American Legion and auxiliary; the crack VFW color guard unit, prize-winning VFW men's drill team, the Veterans of Foreign Wars and auxiliary; World War I veterans; the junior high band under the direction of Larry Livingston; Girl Scouts, Brownies, Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts.

The parade will end in Kellogg Park for the traditional Memorial Day services at which Broseau will be the principal speaker. One of the high spots will be the recitation of "Flanders Field" by Steve Ott, Plymouth High senior.

WORK OF COURTS has the attention of City Commissioner James McKeon and Chief Justice Thomas Kavanaugh, of the Michigan Supreme Court, following Kavanaugh's talk before members of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club.

Kiwanians Get Story Of Courts in State

"The Role of People in the Courts of Michigan" was explained to members of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club and wives at the annual Ladies Night dinner by Thomas Kavanaugh, chief justice of the Michigan Supreme Court.

Kavanaugh, who was a classmate of Richard Wernette, former mayor and Commissioner of the City of Plymouth, said that every citizen in the state has contact with the courts at some time during his or her life.

He traced the courts from the Traffic to Recorders to Circuit, Juvenile, Probate, Court of Appeals and then the State's Highest Court of which he is the chief.

"There was a time two and a half years ago when we in the Supreme Court postponed all cases for a month because of the new Constitution which decreed the Supreme Court had jurisdiction over all minor courts," he said.

"We did this because we wanted to decide what steps would have to be taken and because we wanted to clean up our own house before we started taking over supervisory duties.

"For instance we discovered it took five weeks to get a filing system set up in the Supreme Court, the highest legal body in the state. We didn't have an adequate one up to that time. That's what I mean, we had to clean up our own house before we started on other courts."

Kavanaugh then told how the Supreme Court pressed the legislature for the establishment of an intermediate Court of Appeals to take some of the pressure off the Justices who were issuing 335 opinions a year compared to 150 in most states.

"It wasn't that we were complaining about overwork," said Kavanaugh, "but there were a good many cases that could be handled by an intermediate court and give the Justices more time to study intricate cases that had come before them."

He told how the Justices issued opinions that the Legislature could pass on and finally succeeded in setting up a Court of Appeals that could be acceptable.

"Then they collected information from all state Courts of Appeals in the land before setting down and drawing up rules of procedure."

"The Court of Appeals was organized on Jan. 1, 1965," he said, "and now is handling many of the cases that formerly came before the Supreme Court, giving the Justices a chance to study opinions as they should."

Gallimore Cub Scouts Plan Junior Olympics

Cub Scout Pack 766 of Gallimore School will sponsor a Junior Olympics program on Thursday, May 26 at 7 p.m. The boys will compete in the broad jump, high jump, dashes, shot put, javelin and discus events.

New Cub Scouts Ronald Miller, Stephen Lazarus, Greg Vetal, Ronald Oliver and Curtis Wick received Bobcat pins at the April Pack meeting. Lynn Miller earned his Wolf badge. Paul Palmer and Scott Andrews were awarded Lion badges and Paul also earned his Gold Arrow.

the changing demands of the future.

"I recommend the establishment of a Building Design and Construction Advisory committee to support the school board during the forthcoming expansion program."

"I recommend the foundation of a functional or value analysis study group to investigate the operations of the school system, analyze functions, find ways to improve and make recommendations to the board."

"I would encourage able citizens to contribute their time and talent in supporting their school board in the above mentioned areas."

"I support a combination of bonded debt with pay as you go financing to provide adequate classrooms for today and future students and to purchase school sites for the years ahead."

"I recommend increased co-operation between civic and educational interests in planning and providing for the greater utilization of public facilities. This would include such areas as a civic auditorium, recreation and general uses."

"I support close communication ties between the school board and its administration, its teaching staff, the press, and community. The free flow and utilization of ideas is most important. I feel the press must be able to present accurate information and the inquiring citizens deserve forthright answers."

Each candidate was asked:
1.—In lieu of the recent citizen's committee report recommending the construction of three elementary, a junior high and a second senior high, just how do you think the school district can finance such a program?

2.—Can the present pay as you go plan be continued in a period of mushrooming growth such as is predicted for the Plymouth community?

3.—Are you satisfied with the progress of the Plymouth School system under the present administration?

The same questions will be asked of the five candidates for the two four-year terms who will be interviewed in another week.

Scott

be put off because the rapid growth will pose enough problems without having enough classrooms. I feel we will have to go into a long term bonding program to pay for such expansion.

2.—No, I don't believe we can continue on the pay as you go program in a time of rapid, mushrooming population growth. The pay as you go program has been valuable and has meant a saving for the taxpayers.

3.—I am perfectly satisfied with the progress under the present administration. I believe the decisions of the administration should always be subject to review but Plymouth should be proud of its progress under this administration.

If re-elected, I will serve as a representative of the entire school district and not any particular section. Every taxpayer deserves the individual attention of the Trustees at all times. I hope to be that kind of a Trustee.

Vallier to Talk On Tax Situation

The effect of the state equalized assessment on the tax structure in the Plymouth community will be explained by City Commissioner Arch Vallier at the June 2 meeting of the Businessmen's Forum in the Mayflower Meeting House.

Vallier, a resident of Plymouth and also the city's representative on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors as the officially elected supervisor, plans to present charts and figures that will show the impact of the state equalization.

There isn't a question but that the impact will be felt since the new State Constitution authorizes assessors to assess up to 50 per cent of the true value of the property. On the other hand, the state legislature passed an enabling act that provides that all assessors must assess 50 per cent of the true value.

And that means communities that have been assessing as low as 10 per cent and with a ceiling of 38 per cent will have to make upward revisions.

Vallier plans to show just how much that upward trend will be.

Bloodmobile In Plymouth On June 1

The American Red Cross bloodmobile unit will set up quarters in the Plymouth Elks Club, 41700 Ann Arbor Road, in Plymouth on Wednesday June 1 from 2:45 to 9 p.m.

All members of Plymouth Blood accounts have a chance to donate on this date.

Following are the list of blood accounts that will be given credit for donations: Plymouth Association for Retarded Children, Plymouth State Home Training School, Plymouth Township Fire Department, Plymouth Community Blood Bank, H. Powell and Sons, Plymouth Township OGD, American Legion Post 391, K. of C. 3292, Masonic Lodge 47, Plymouth Lions Club, St. John's Seminary, Elks Lodge, Our Lady of Good Counsel, First Methodist Church and the First United Presbyterian Church.

The mobile unit can handle 10 donors every 15 minutes. Workers advise donors to appear as early as possible.

There will be a break in the schedule from 5 to 6 p.m. when no blood will be taken.

Donors unable to appear at the Elks Lodge on June 1 are urged to make reservations at the Northwest service office, 31228 Five Mile Road in Livonia or by calling 422-2787 for donations to the blood accounts.

Automobiles produced in 1966 contain an average of more than 70 pounds of aluminum each. Use of the light, durable metal for transmission housings, carburetor parts, oil pump bodies, wheels, grilles and trim items has doubled in the past ten years.

Plymouth Jaycees Seek Floats for Celebration

July 4 is still some time away but it's rather close for members of the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce who are seeking additional floats and marching units for the traditional Independence Day parade.

The theme of this year's parade and celebration is "Pilgrim and Progress," submitted by Mrs. Jack Heller of Plymouth.

Ex-Jaycee Prexy Heads Program For Club Night

Richard Headlee, former president of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce and a public affairs representative for Burroughs Corporation until he formed his own consulting company, will be the principal speaker at the annual Inter-Service Club dinner Tuesday (May 31) at Arbor Lill.

Members of the Kiwanis, Rotary, Optimists, Lions and other services clubs in addition to the Jaycees and senior Chamber of Commerce are expected to swell the crowd to more than 300.

Headlee joined Burroughs in Salt Lake City shortly after his graduation from Utah State University. During his term of office as national president of the Jaycees, he received a year's leave of absence and traveled more than 150,000 miles in the United States and Canada.

He recently served as chairman of the Michigan Christmas in Vietnam program as an appointee of Gov. Romney.

during a contest to pick the theme. As the winner Mrs. Heller will be guest of the Jaycees for "Dinner for Two" at the Hillside Inn and also will be one of the judges for the parade.

Parade Chairman James Jacka announced Monday that one of the features of this year's march will be the appearance of the Chrysler Highlander band with its bagpipes and precision marching.

Members of the Jaycees are also seeking Gov. George Romney and other political leaders to join in the procession.

As usual, the line of march will be from the Kroger store on N. Main to Kellogg Park before the reviewing stand. Then the festivities will resume at the Mettetal Airport where the program will include an air show, fireworks, displays and other exhibits.

Those desiring to enter a float or a marching unit contact Chairman Jacka at 453-0570.

Crowning Of 'Our Blessed Mother'

By JEAN ANN MANGOLD

In solemn procession the Junior and Sophomore Sodality and the Freshman Probationers took their places in the front of the church. Then, heads turned as the Senior Sodality, wearing formal and flowers in their hair, were escorted to the altar by Young Christian Student members, where they formed a guard of honor for the crowning of our Blessed Mother.

As the student body sang "Hail Mary Now We Crown You", Sodality Prefect, Donna Baker, crowned the statue of Mary with a ring of flowers, carried by her little sister Colleen. Colleen was escorted by Vincent Dow, brother of the Vice-Prefect Davidina Dow who assisted in the crowning.

The ceremony was followed by a "Spiritual Rosary" where at each of the five joyful mysteries, commentator Gregory Brower read an explanatory passage from the Bible. A short sermon by Father James Varty was followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the Junior Classical League sponsored a "May Hop." The 35 cent admission was used to help finance their trip to the University of Michigan, this year's location for the annual "Latin convention," held the following day.

On Wednesday, April 11, the Science and Math classes of Sister Vincella and Miss Mary Cusic exhibited projects as an example of the work they have been doing.

Students were on hand to explain and demonstrate their work, which ranges from determining the blood type to proving the difference between music and noise. Participating were the Geometry, Physics, Chemistry, Biology and Earth Science classes.

The "Student of the Month" bulletin board bears a new name for the month of May as Kenneth Krupansky was awarded the title. A good number of the votes came from his "pet" class, Freshman Earth Science, to whom he has become the regular substitute by popular demand, in the absence of their teacher, Miss Cusic.

On Tuesday, Ken promised the class its own private launching of a two staged rocket, having familiarized himself with the procedure by two similar launchings in his own physics class the day before.

Of those nominated by the Freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors, three candidates were selected to run for the office of Student Council President, they were Edward Gillis, Thomas Flamboe and Thomas Semik.

The first ballot proved to be a tie between Tom Semik and Tom Flamboe, and when once again votes were cast, Semik gained a majority.

Tom was this year's Vice-President of the Student Council, student manager of the Varsity football team, an active member of the Y.C.S. and won a dual role in the school play, "The King and I," being both Captain Orton and Sir Edward Ramsey.

Elections for the Sodality Prefect were also held this week. Sophomore and Junior Sodality elected Kathleen Lilley, who was this year's Prefect of the Junior Sodality. Kathy is also a varsity cheerleader, a member of the varsity and pep clubs and of the intramural basketball team.

Sophomores and Freshmen were returned the scores of the National Education Development Test which they took in March of this year.

A percentile rating was given in each of the following categories: English Usage, Math Usage, Word Usage, Social Studies Reading and Natural Science Reading which were summed up in a composite, or general average score.

The Juniors in connection with their religion classes under Father James O'Leary journeyed downtown to see "The Ten Commandments." And the Senior religion classes under Father James Varty planned their own trip to see "The Gospel According to Saint Matthew."

Operetta Presented

By LOUISE GILLIS

"Don Alonso's Treasure," a two-act operetta was performed at Ladywood by the Choral Club on May 14 and 15.

The members of the cast were: Julius Drotos as Don Diego, the Spanish father; Christine Kachinski and Deborah Eyerman as Suzanne, the Spanish wife. Sue Rahmel and Wyllo Walloch; Joanne Darnell and Cheryl Zane; Chris Smythe and Cathy Chaput played the parts of Don Diego's three daughters. Ellen Wojciechowski and Patti Rieger played the lead role, that of Elaine. Lee Parker, Stan Shalberg, and Jim King did excellent work as other male players.

Three girls in Ladywood's art class have received awards for their ADF posters. The winners were Kathi Presutti and Francine Axtalos, freshmen and Lynn Peterson, sophomore. The posters were painted by the girls to promote the Archdiocesan Development Fund.

On Tuesday morning, May 10, a group of girls travelled from the Ladywood grounds to the Madonna College Campus to view an art exhibit there. The exhibit included paintings, sketches, and sculptures produced by Madonna artists. The works were displayed throughout the art section of the college.

The student body voted Friday for the Student Council officers of their choice.

The girls chosen for the offices were Veronica Moran, President; Pat Hodges, Vice President; Joanne Darnell, Secretary; and Connie Folley, Treasurer.

Students Plan Art Exhibit This Week

By PAT ST. ANTOINE

The 11th Annual Art Exhibit for Garden City East High School will be held on Wednesday, May 25 (day and evening), and Thursday, May 26 (day and evening), from 6:30 to 8:30 evening hours and school hours at East High School gymnasium.

Over 350 items will be displayed including 20 scholastic art award winning entries from the 1966 competition in Detroit.

Some of the various entries are drawings in pencil, ink, crayon, pastel, water color and oil painting. Students have submitted some of their art work on clay, wire, cement, metal, wood, and modeling paste. Craft and jewelry work will also be on display.

Anyone interested in purchases may contact student directly. Ralph Davis, East High art teacher is sponsoring this occasion.

On May 26, the Student Council is sponsoring a "Teacher Appreciation Day." All the women teachers and secretaries will be given corsages and an apple while the men will receive boutonnieres and a apple. These will be presented first hour.

Mrs. Schmid, council advisor, accompanied by Harvey Kightlinger, president of next year's junior class, Ken Sherman, president of next year's senior class and Mary Englund and Lavonne Johnson, new officers of next year's Student Council, attended a Leadership Conference at Oakland University April 25. They were also accompanied by Dan Renburg, recommended by Mr. Reimer as a photographer.

Linda Walker was elected president of next year's Student Council. Other officers for next year include Mary Englund, vice-president; Lavonne Johnson, secretary; Pat Simpson, treasurer; and Charles Lendrum, corresponding secretary. President Linda Walker has appointed Mike Roth as parliamentarian. Eric Plichta will serve as sergeant-at-arms.

Thornton Fractional South High School from Lansing, Ill., visited East High School on May 18 during their spring tour. The program presented consisted of a few selections from "The King and I," "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue," by Rodgers; "The Flea," by Robinson; Tulsa, by Don Gibbs; and many other songs.

That evening the band members from East High and Thornton High School attended a dance for both bands. The Quick and the Dead highlighted the evening with live music. Thornton Fractional South High School will travel to Canada to complete their tour.

Congressman Farnum to Give Principal Address

Madonna College Slates 19th Commencement June 1

Madonna College will graduate its 19th class Wednesday, June 1, at 2 p.m., when bachelors of arts and bachelors of science degrees will be conferred by the Most Rev. John F. Dearden, archbishop of Detroit.

Congressman Billie S. Farnum will deliver the commencement address. Sister Mary Danatha, president of Madonna, will present the candidates to the audience.

The day will open with a Baccalaureate Mass at 10 a.m. in the college chapel celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Wallace Filipowicz, rector of SS. Cyril and Methodius Seminary at Orchard Lake. After Mass, Monsignor Filipowicz will confer academic hoods upon the graduates.

The graduation is an important milestone in the history of this college. It marks the graduation of the pioneer group of students who entered the newly inaugurated nursing program at the college in 1962. These graduates will receive their bachelors of science degrees and are eligible for the licensing examination to become registered nurses.

They are Judith Grahek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Grahek of 1773 W. Elm, Wyandotte; Joan Herr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Herr of 803 Pemberton Road, Grosse Pointe; Barbara Hopkins Ferry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hopkins of 9816 Cranston, Highland Park; Anna Mack, daughter of Mrs. Olivia Mack of 2162 Townsend; Ellen Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller of Manistee; Sally Plamondon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Plamondon of 973 Allen Drive, Northville.

The nursing group now numbers over 80. Commencement exercises will begin with an academic procession from the academic building to the terrace of the student center where the official ceremonies will take place. The college chorus, orchestra, and guest performers will enhance the program with appropriate musical selections. Anticipating the day of graduation will be the Garden Party and the Senior Class Program on Tuesday, May 31.

The Honors Program, recognizing the scholastic and leadership achievements of the graduates, will take place on Tuesday, May 31, at 3 p.m. Josephine DeVerteul, a scholarship student from Trinidad, is class salutatorian; and Barbara Zientek, a scholarship student from New Jersey, is the valedictorian.

Of the graduates, most of whom come from Michigan, and some from New York, New Jersey, Trinidad, four are married women, who after many years of fulfilling their obligations as wives and mothers, decided to complete their college careers in an attempt to identify themselves more readily with the swiftly moving world.

These women who have earned their degrees are: Mrs. Ava Adcock of 36555 Quakertown, Farmington, majoring in sociology; Mrs. Genevieve Herman of 37721 Carson Road, Farmington, majoring in English; and Mrs. Ilse Wissner of 13120 Leverne, Redford, English major.

Student Applications Up At Schoolcraft

Applications for admission to Schoolcraft College are now running 15 per cent above application figures of last year, according to Miss Barbara Geil, Director of Admissions. To date, 1,400 new applications have been received.

Approximately 800 of these students have been individually counseled and have selected their courses for the coming year. The remaining 600 and any others whose applications may be accepted during the summer will be counseled before college opens.

Students who live in the College District and are still interested in attending Schoolcraft College should contact Miss Geil immediately, since many courses necessarily will be filled as the summer progresses.

These students who have not applied and plan to attend may secure applications at the local high schools of the College District or at the Admissions Office on the Schoolcraft College campus.

High school students who must make up deficiencies in English or mathematics before entering a full-collegiate program are urged to attend the eight weeks summer session which opens July 1. Courses in reading and study techniques also will be available.

Special classes have been arranged to make it possible for such students to have added help to prepare in subjects in which they may have academic weaknesses. Other high school graduates may wish to begin their college work at this time.

While the current session at Schoolcraft College does not have the 2,500 enrollment of each of the first two semesters, it is of interest that almost 1,000 students now are attending.

This is a considerably larger number than in the spring session of 1965. Four hundred and seventy students are enrolled in the day, while 487 are attending in the evening.

This session gives the student an opportunity to accelerate his college program if he so desires or to take a part-time college program and to work part time.

Classes are being given in various phases of liberal arts as well as the technical field. Some students are taking part of their work in the day and part in the evening. A large number are taking advantage of the opportunity to work in the summer and take one or two courses.

The summer session will begin on July 1. Those who wish to enroll may do so provided they complete their applications at once or have been enrolled previously in the College.

The last date for taking counseling tests before the summer session is June 18.

Donald Tope Promoted By Ford

Donald R. Tope has been appointed general operations manager — transmissions for Ford Motor Company's Transmission and Chassis Division. Tope formerly was general manufacturing manager of the company's Glass and Chemical Products Division.

He joined the company in 1945 as a student engineer in the Ford College Graduate Training Program. He held several managerial positions before 1958 when he was manufacturing and plant engineering manager of the former Glass Division. He was appointed division engineering and research manager in 1960 and general manufacturing manager in 1961.

Warns Residents Of Fiscal Ruse

Officials of the Methodist Children's Home Society in Redford Township warned today that someone is using the name of their organization without authorization.

T. Richard Flaherty, resident director of Children's Village at 26645 W. Six Mile Road, called attention to what he terms "the bilking of private citizens."

He said his agency has learned that a resident of Redford Township has been solicited at her home for gifts of money and clothing, supposedly to meet the needs of children in the care of the village.

Flaherty said: "Since there had been a recent death in the family of this resident, we surmise the man doing the soliciting had taken the name and address from the newspapers. We had had one earlier report of this type of activity with the use of our agency's name a little over a year ago."

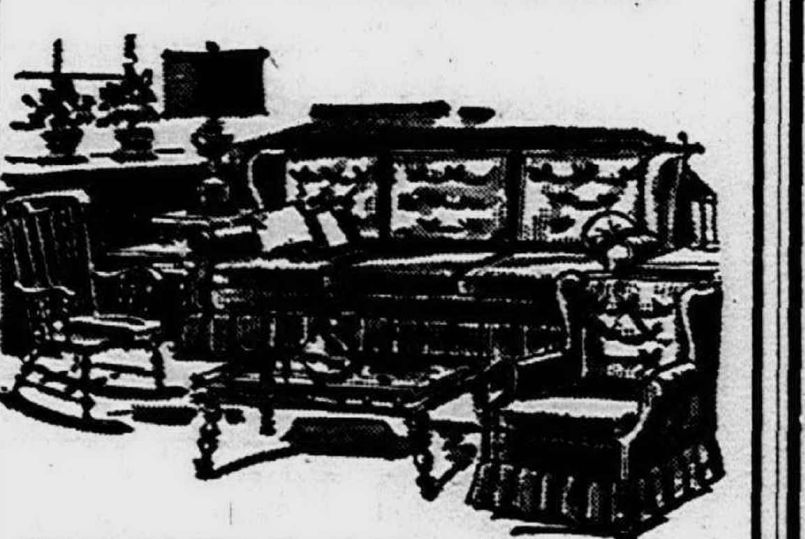

"While we do have folks calling us to offer donations of all kinds, and we are grateful for this considerate, warm support from the community, we never send representatives out to solicit in the manner described above."

Two Farmington drivers have been fined $100 plus costs of $15 for drag racing in separate incidents.

Rex F. Glasston III, 22, of 25056 Lyncaste Street was found guilty by Redford Township Justice James L. Ryan after pleading his innocence. He was ordered not to drive for 60 days and to report for a two-day work detail.

Thomas M. Shearer, 17, of 32126 Red Clover Street, pleaded guilty to the offense which took place April 30 in the township. He was ordered not to drive for 30 days.

Do-It-Yourself - Save in Decorating Home

The easiest and most expensive way to decorate your home with fabric on the wall is to have it done by a professional wallpaper hanger. For the budget-minded and adventurous homemaker however, with a handy husband, there are ways to do-it-yourself with a professional look.

Although primarily used for decorative purposes, fabric on the wall can also conceal cracks or damage, correct awkward architectural areas, or add cozy warmth to a drab room. A few points should be kept in mind when selecting fabrics:

- A tightly constructed fabric will be the easiest to work with when applying the adhesive.
- Choose a fabric with a pattern which lends itself to cutting and matching in the area to be covered.
- Before ordering the fabric, learn the measurements of the wall.
- Select a fabric protected with "Zepel" fabric fluoridizer to guard the wall covering from accidental spills and splashes.

Before tackling the job make sure all the necessary tools are on hand. If, for example, a paste adhesive is being used, a paste brush, sweeping brush, sponge, and plastic pail are needed in addition to razor blades and a smoother or seam roller. These tools are usually available at hardware stores in an inexpensive wallpapering kit.

Examples of techniques for professional looking do-it-yourself work are described and illustrated here:

To add warmth to a dark, cold-looking traditional dining room, a fluoridized cotton sateen by Waverly, featuring fruit and floral bouquets in red and olive tones on a champagne tinted ground, is selected. After careful measurements of the wall the fabric is cut to fit its length.

The repeats are then lined up in the fabric lengths, and the lengths are sewn together to conceal the selvage as well as match the repeats. One cup of molasses is added to each gallon of wheat paste to slow the drying, thus allowing extra moments to line up the pattern and straighten the seams after the fabric is hung.

Once on the wall, the sweeping brush is worked from the center out to smooth all wrinkles, and the seams are flattened with the seam roller or smoother. A chair rail conceals the raw edges of the fabric and adds a finishing touch to the room.

To decorate a romantic bedroom with a perfectly suited panel-printed Everlast chintz in shades of blue, lavender, olive and white calls on a simple technique of applying fabric to wall and strips of plywood. The fabric is cut to fit the window wall, after removing the selvage. Slow-drying cellulose paste is brushed on the wall surface and allowed to dry.

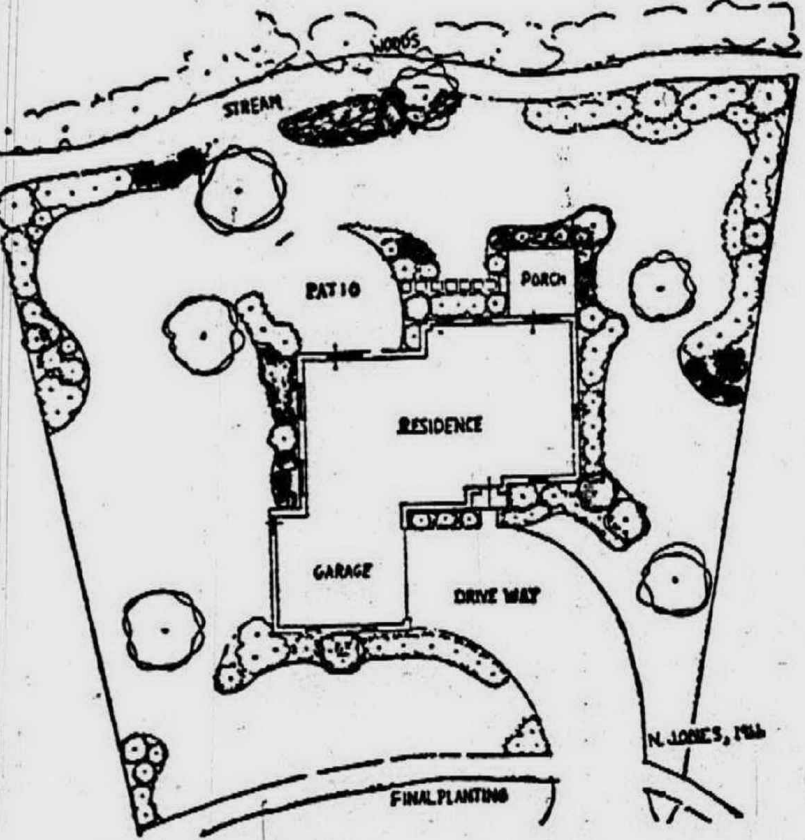

A second coat of paste is applied and while still wet the fabric is hung. If the fabric is uneven it can be removed, paste re-applied to the wall and the fabric re-hung correctly without damage.

For other decorative treatments the fabric can be applied in the same manner to plywood strips cut to the width of the panel designs, and used to frame the window and create a baseboard and a border at the ceiling.

To cover a cracked, poorly plastered, or uneven wall in a

WITH A BASIC PLAN, the homeowner can plant the materials in steps to fit his pocketbook, and time available. The design should take into consideration the homeowners likes of plant materials and his desires for the use of the area surrounding his home. This may include a service, garden or play area, patio, swimming pool, etc. The first two plantings which were illustrated in previous weeks are now completed by the third and final planting. This completes the landscape, tying in the house to the surroundings, offsetting unpleasant heights, relieving bareness, adding a touch of decoration, giving privacy, and increasing value of the home.

Kingsize Furniture Provides Comfort

Room to stretch out and get comfortable is the theme of 1966 furniture designs. New upholstered pieces are kingsize. They are exceptionally comfortable and luxurious. And they all look expensive, even if they are not.

Chests, tables and sideboards have been large-sized for some time, and the upholstered pieces are now catching up. Cushions have been getting softer, plumper and thicker for several years, but now they are positively cloud-like.

One manufacturer has a new cushion design made out of layer after layer of latex foam rubber. The result is a cushion nearly a foot thick. A favored feature is that the cushions never need to be plumped—they recover their shape instantly.

Dominant furniture styles are: Mediterranean and Spanish, plump modern designs with pouffy seating and arms, and Colonial designs. A new note is English furniture, mainly from the 18th century, but reaching back into the 17th century.

No matter the style, cushioning is rounded and sumptuous. Seats are closer to the floor (and so are tables). Sharp angles are out, softened corners are in. And contemporary designs show the influence of many, many other styles.

Furniture designers have come up with some surprises. For 1966, they have introduced the "wrapped" look, where the entire chair is upholstered right down to the floor, even the legs which would normally be wood. Furniture is on the move. Casters permit rolling the pieces around to where they are needed, with greatest ease. Sometimes, the rollers are hidden.

Upholstery fabrics have picked up the use of extra-wide wale corduroy from clothing fashions. Dressy suede cloth is popular, and there is a great deal of cut velvet and crushed velvet being used. Fake fur is used abundantly, not only on furniture but for decorative pillows and throws.

Of particular interest is the steady improvement in the quality and style of lower and moderately priced furniture. Manufacturers are including such construction features as coil springs, latex foam seat cushions and soil-resistant fabrics, at no extra cost. And virtually ever important furniture style is available in a moderately priced version.

Designers emphasize the use of several new woods. Appalachian oak is prominent, and is being used in darker shades than the golden tones most commonly seen in the past. Cherry, maple and walnut continue to be widely used.

Some 90 per cent of the natural gas supplied customers by Consumers Power Company comes from outside of the state, brought to Michigan by transcontinental pipelines. The rest is produced in Michigan gas fields located near Port Huron, Clare and Albion.

kitchen area, wallboard covered with a sunny Riverdale print is brightly effective. Fabric is wrapped around pre-measured wallboard and stapled securely to it.

Care should be taken to place the fabric on the boards so the pattern will match where the boards meet. The covered wallboards are then attached to the wall with brads in the middle and at spaced intervals to avoid buckling. Painted two-inch strips of lumber are nailed to the wall to form the main support of the boards.

To solve the decoration problem of an entrance foyer, framed fabric panels of a Pre-Tiffany floral design by Bloomcraft are adopted. In determining the size of the panels bear in mind that they should be equidistant from each other, the ceiling, and the chair rail. Their locations should then be pencilled off on the wall.

In preparing the fabric for the panels, be careful to cut at the same point in the repeat of the pattern so that all panels will show the pattern at the same level when applied to the wall. The last step is to place double-faced masking tape where the pencil markings outline the panels and to press the fabric to the tape.

Strips of molding, mitered for the corners and painted in the wall coloring, are framed around the panels with fine brads. This method of applying fabric to the wall permits easy removal for washing or dry cleaning.

A handsome display of fabric on the wall can easily be the envied project of the neighborhood do-it-yourselfers — and well reward your patient artistic labors.

GET RID OF THAT ACCUMULATED JUNK

Good Housekeeping Habits Deter Fire

Safety experts agree that good housekeeping is the best deterrent against fire and accidents in the home.

Unfortunately though, with many people, good housekeeping practices stop at the kitchen door. They don't extend to the basement, attic or garage — major breeding grounds for fires and accidents in the home.

In all of these out-of-the-way areas, safety experts point out the most serious threat to home safety is the accumulation of articles of little or no value. More specifically, junk.

Home owners regularly should make a scavenger hunt of their own — discarding all articles that have outlived their usefulness or pose a threat to the safety of the home.

Proper fire-resistant metal trash containers should be placed in the garage and basement to encourage and remind members of the family to get rid of accumulated junk.

Wood scraps and other flammable materials that collect in the workshop area should be placed in a galvanized steel trash container until hauled out for removal by local refuse collectors.

Be sure that the container has a cover made of the same fireproof material. Keep the cover in place on the container to guard against the start of a fire from a lighted match or other heat source.

Covered metal containers also are ideally suited for the safe and dry storage of household articles in the basement and attic.

In the garage or back yard area, metal containers are recommended for the storage of grass clippings, leaves, broken branches, scraps of paper and other backyard debris.

Because these items are subject to spontaneous combustion under some conditions, keep the containers covered when unattended.

Storing flammable materials in bushel baskets, wooden crates, cardboard boxes and other combustible containers presents a very definite fire hazard.

These combustible containers and their contents can easily be ignited by a carelessly discarded cigarette, a lighted match, or even a spark from the exhaust of an automobile. Anything short of a metal receptacle is unable to contain a fire should it happen to start.

Use of bushel baskets and cardboard boxes as storage containers in the garage contributes to a cluttered and untidy garage as well. Articles easily spill out over the top of a cover-less container or even blow into the neighbor's property.

Home safety experts suggest that the same basic rules of housekeeping which apply in the regular living areas of the house should be applied to the garage, basement, attic, utility rooms and other areas not normally regarded as show-places. A fire which starts in one of these areas or an accident that occurs there can be just as serious as if it occurred in the living room.

Outdoors Woman Has Plenty to Do

The start of summer triggers the rush to the outdoors and the recreation it offers. More American women than ever before, tired of being spectators, have become active participants in the outdoor life.

Tennis figures to draw more than 7,000,000 girls to the courts this year. Bicycle riding has gained in popularity over the last decade, particularly among young women who have found it an excellent way to get healthful exercise while enjoying the fun of "getting there under your own steam."

Sailing, golf, water skiing, scuba diving and surfing have also skyrocketed in popularity for the actively inclined. Camping, once a "male only" activity, has become a new way of life for millions of women who have made it a family affair and bring the comforts and conveniences of home along with them.

As the woman goes "active" this spring and summer she'll be spending plenty of time in shorts and bathing suits. And her legs will have to get extra special attention. That's a snap if she packs one of the new Lady Gillette tote bags in her valise.

It provides the first complete, start-to-finish ladies' shaving method, in a reusable tote bag, especially convenient for the woman on the go. It contains the perfect pair for beauty shaving care—a pre-shaving conditioner, which cushions the razor while it lubricates the skin and permits easier razor glide, and an after-shaving moisturizer which helps retain skin moisture between shaves and keeps the legs looking soft and lovely. In addition, there's a Lady Gillette razor with a dispenser of super stainless steel blades.

Many new spring and summer fashions, too, reflect the nationwide interest in sports and outdoor activities. No doubt about it, these days the women in the know are the women on the go.

On the Lawn

With Larry Lawrence

I often wondered whether people really stopped to study those big colored pictures of lawn weeds that are displayed in so many garden departments. I got my answer last Saturday.

Down at my local store there must have been nine or ten people crowded around one of the circular exhibits. They were studying.

This is the season of course. When a man walks behind a spreader or lawn mower in Spring he gets a close-up of weeds that aren't so obvious from the living room window.

They offend his eye and rouse his pugnacious instincts. And, of course, he wants to know the villain's names so that he can eradicate them with certainty. Hence the seasonal interest in weed identification.

If you have strange weeds in your own lawn and your dealer doesn't have a "weed-o-rama," don't despair. Dig up a sample, wrap it in metal foil without added moisture and mail it to Scott's, Marysville, O.

They'll tell you what it is and how to get rid of it. Or if you've got a whole variety of offenders ask for their 1966 Lawn Book (free) which contains life size color photographs of the 20 most common weeds.

How do you cool off 46,000 red-hot sports fans? In Houston's revolutionary new astro-dome ball park, gas air conditioning supplies 4,200 tons of the 6,600-ton cooling system, helping keep the domed sports arena a crisp 72 degrees even when outdoor temperatures hit 100.

Color Adds More Than Beauty; When One Paints Those Garden Tools

When the lilacs start to bloom and the tang of outdoor cooking whets the appetite, the time is ripe for a backyard beauty treatment. Nothing improves a home owner's property and morale more than a new coat of paint. Remember, fresh lively color can help organize and identify as well as beautify.

First on the agenda may be the refurbishing of garden implements. Repainting the handles of hoes, rakes, trowels and hedge trimmers will surely make them more attractive. Select a different color for each wooden handle.

The Mira-Plate line of epoxy finishes by O'Brien Corp., for instance, shows primary colors that give variety and dramatic effect to items that are usually drab looking.

There is a full spectrum of lustre tints in the reds, blues, greens and yellows to pique the imagination and taste of the most discriminating lady of the house. Even she can do the job easily between breakfast and lunch with paint and brush.

Last year's caked mud can be cleaned off easily with a good wire brush. Light sanding is recommended to prepare wood surfaces and to remove rust from metal.

Residue from sanding can be easily and thoroughly removed in just seconds by wiping the surface with a "tack cloth," the most economical cleaning accessory recommended by professionals and available at any paint store. Its sticky coating cleans perfectly and can be used many times.

Experts also advise buying good quality brushes for a quality finish. These will last longer and will perform a myriad of services for outdoor as well as indoor paint jobs. A brush two or three inches wide is ideal for painting garden implements.

The brush should be dipped into the paint to a depth no greater than half the length of the bristle to avoid the need to wipe off excess paint on the edge of the can. The paint should be applied in short strokes, a uniform amount with each stroke.

A smooth coat of uniform thickness will result. The painter can finish her job like a professional by smoothing out the application with long light strokes using the tips of the bristles to avoid brush marks.

A quality epoxy will dry to a ceramic-like finish and far outlast conventional paint since it contains strong rust inhibitors and has exceptional resistance to abrasion, water and harsh cleaners.

Reading the instructions on the paint can label is the best advice for amateurs as well as seasoned painters. The home owner will learn that an epoxy paint can be used for metal as well as wood, for plaster, porcelain or concrete.

You might design a color scheme to match the garden implements with the fencing, garage walls, and back door, and hang the implements on a peg board in the garage for everyone to see. You just may start a neighborhood trend in color appreciation.

Basement Nook Gives Dad His Own Hideaway

Sonny has a tree house, Susan a playhouse and Mom a sewing nook, all hideaways for when they want privacy. But what about Dad?

He's entitled, too!

Every Dad needs a den for private growling, working or relaxation. He'll be satisfied if it's only a corner in the basement.

In fact, he'd probably jump at the chance to build his den according to his own likes and hobby interests, if Mom and the kids would just give him a bit of encouragement and perhaps offer to help set it up.

Take a corner, as Concord proposes. Naturally, Dad'll like an atmosphere of warmth and coziness. There's nothing like hanging favorite pictures, trophies, diplomas and certificates from the Rotary club or American Legion to make Dad feel right at home. He can empty the closet recesses and bureau drawers of these mementos.

To dress up the corner, he can install some Peg-Board panels in the upper wall area. That'll be the place for all these trophies.

For a wainscot, he'll like a masculine woodgrained wall. Both the woodgrains and the perforated panels are available prefabricated for easy maintenance.

Then there should be a desk, chair, adequate lighting and perhaps even a typewriter in case Dad has some homework. A telephone extension would suit him fine, too.

What about the pipes overhead? They're easily boxed in and covered with paneling. A floor covering will go over the cold concrete. With this basement den of his own, Dad will have it made!

Consumers Power Company's gas department is one of America's largest natural gas companies, with service in 37 Michigan counties, involving 1,728 communities with populations of over 500.

Plan Now or You Will Pay Much More Later

Some people think a good way to save some money in building a house is to spend as little as possible on vital piping. This way, they can save a little now and spend a lot later correcting it. Make sense? Of course not.

Many people planning construction of a new house do this very thing, seldom realizing the costly and inconvenient consequences. Take the service line from the city main to the house as an example.

A 3/4" line might meet household needs today, but later, when a washing machine, automatic dishwasher, extra bath room and garage outlet are added, the supply will not be adequate.

A one inch or larger line would provide for such expansion, costing little more in initial construction.

People who truly economize wisely in home building often include "stubbing in." Very simply, this means that piping is installed and capped in locations where future fixture additions are planned.

With this method, the cost of eventual installation is greatly reduced since all that is needed is to "hook in" to piping already there.

Also recommended are sufficient shut-off valves and clean-out plugs.

Often the victim of economy cut-backs, these devices quickly demonstrate their value in homes that don't have them.

For sinks that don't have separate shut-off valves, all water in the house must be off just to replace a faucet washer.

Clean-out plugs enable the plumbing contractor to locate and remove piping obstructions without dismantling parts of the system.

Savings that come from skimping on your home's piping system are no savings at all.

Be sure your plans call for piping that will give full-flow pressure today and tomorrow.

Nothing succeeds half so well as a well-placed rumor.

Safety Tips For Use Of Power Tools

Spring time is cleanup time and the time of the year when do-it-yourselfers get busy making necessary repairs in and around the house.

The Greater Detroit Safety Council, a chapter of the National Safety Council, offers these helpful hints for the use of power tools:

Never use an electric saw without a guard. Most saws come equipped with one, but if yours didn't, install one immediately.

Equip your electric saw with a kick-back device.

Always use push sticks, not fingers, when putting wood through an electric saw.

Wear safety goggles.

Never use dull tools.

Always use the right tool for the job. Never for example, use a screwdriver in place of a pry tool.

Don't buy cheap tools. An extra dollar or two means the difference between a poorly made, easily dulled item and a well-balanced, finely tempered one.

Never point a tool toward your body. Always work away from yourself.

Use clamps instead of your hands to hold material in place whenever possible.

Provide a good indirect lighting and special lighting for machines.

Keep a fire extinguisher nearby when using flammable materials.

Keep your shop neat so you don't have to fumble around to find tools when you want them.

Always replace tools immediately after using them.

Ground all electrical equipment to reduce the shock hazard.

Bowling Tournament Aids Retarded Kids

There are two more weekends left to be the top winners, which means carrying home $1,000.

Second prize is $500 and third prize, $250.

And all you have to do up to this point is beat the top couple's score of 1272.

This is bowling, not golf.

The tournament is sponsored by the Redford Suburban League. This is their first Charity mixed doubles handicap bowling tournament at Wonderland Lanes on Plymouth Road in Livonia.

May 28, 29 and June 4, 5 are open for couples to compete for the top money prizes. The entry fee is $10 per couple, and the prizes and causes are magnanimous.

For more information on the application call Della Pallister, Tournament Secretary, KE 4-7156. Entries close at 11 a.m. on June 5.

Leaders to date are Rosemary and Frank Greenbald, with 1272.

Next are Marjorie Titus of Fenton and Gil Gillard of Redford Township, with 1263, and Mary and Ralph Paulson, third with 1234.

Openings are May 28, 1, 3, 5, 7, 9 p.m.; May 29, 11 a.m., 1, 3, 5, 7, 9 p.m.; June 4, 1, 3, 5, 7, 9 p.m. and June 5, 11 a.m., 1, 3, 5, 7, 9 p.m.

Get in now and beat the top of 1272 for three games. One dollar out of each entry is donated to the retarded children.

Summer School Enrollment Now

Registrations for Livonia summer school classes are now being taken at all elementary, junior high, and senior high schools.

"Students are urged to register at their neighborhood schools," Superintendent Benton Yates said, "Non-public school children can register at the nearest elementary or secondary school, depending on their ages and their interest in grade school or high school classes."

According to John Anderson, director of extended school services, Livonians will be offered a comprehensive program this summer which will include a variety of academic, vocational, hobby, and enrichment courses.

The 1966 summer program will again place a great deal of emphasis on improvement courses planned specifically for pupils who need remedial work in required school courses and enrichment classes to provide summer opportunities for creative work in subjects not offered during the regular school year. A number of classes for credit which will permit students to take courses they could not work into their high school schedules during the regular school year will also be offered.

Anderson urged Livonians to register early. "Those who do," he said, "will have a better chance to get into a class or two where the demand will be heavy. Moreover, if we get some indication of a great interest or need for certain subjects, we can often schedule a second or third unit of the same course."

Outdoor Class Spends 3 Days With Nature

The 38 members of Redford Union's unique Conservation and Outdoor Education classes left Sunday morning for a three-day trip into the Huron National Forest—Au Sable River area of Michigan—the culmination of 3.5 months of daily studying of Michigan's natural resources, glacial origins, industrial and agricultural development, recreational growth, and outdoor life.

During the trip the group visited a Conservation Department fire tower, where a ranger crew met the class with mobile fire fighting demonstrations and top-of-the-tower explanations of fire control methods. They fished Lake Huron from a 65-foot chartered boat, in preparation for a lesson in outdoor cooking (the big Fish Fry!). They participate in a conservation work project on erosion control, tree planting, wildlife shelter construction, and wildlife habitat improvement; inspected forest practices in the National Forest; and witnessed first-hand such Michigan industries as farming, alabaster mining, pulpwood cutting, commercial fishing, and tourism.

More than 800 Redford Union seniors have participated in this science-credit program during the 12 years it has been a part of the curriculum at RU.

Boys Outscore Girl Drivers

Who said women drivers are better than male drivers?

This wasn't the case Saturday when the Westland Jaycees held their annual teen-age Road-E-O for high school students to determine the best driver in the group.

The test, held at the John Glenn High School parking lot, included a written exam and a testing of driving skills.

Although several girls entered the competition, the boys won the top three prizes and trophies.

In first place was Bill Wright, 17, of 1333 Wright, Westland, a student at Wayne Memorial High School. He compiled 257 points out of a possible high of 350.

Close behind with 244 points was Gary Tabone, 17, of 3382 Alta, Garden City. Gary attends West High School.

In third place was Mark Giles, 16, of 37038 Thinbark, a student at John Glenn High School. Gary and Mark held the first two positions for most of the competition. But Bill, who scored an 82 on the written test, arrived in the late morning and scored 175 points on the driving portion of the exams.

The road-eo, sponsored by the Jaycees in cooperation with the Lincoln-Mercury Division of Ford Motor Co., is designed to promote safe driving among high school students.

Judges included: Westland Mayor Thomas H. Brown and Sgt. James Haile of the Sheriff's Road Patrol traffic bureau.

Adding a touch of suburban atmosphere to the driving tests was a Wayne High School senior, Toni Van Duzer, 17, of 2324 Stieber, who appeared for the test in curlers.

The auto division donated trophies to the top three drivers with models of their cars given to each of the contestants.

The winners were also the guests of honor Monday night at a dinner given by the Jaycees at Howard's Town House.

Nominees Listed

Nancy Greenburg, Sharon Richards, Debbie Haaxma, and Judy Kochmanski of Thurston High School, in South Redford, have been nominated for the annual Achievement Awards Program, sponsored by the National Council of Teachers of English.

For the ninth year, NCTE is conducting the national awards competition to grant recognition to outstanding high school seniors for excellence in English.

Winners will be announced in December.

Film Session Slated at UD

An international selection of motion pictures will be studied and analyzed as part of the University of Detroit Summer Film Conference and Workshop from June 27 to August 8.

Meetings will be held in the Varsity Theatre adjacent to the U. of D. campus. The conference, which runs from June 27 to July 8, consists of an intensive eight days of film viewing and discussion. Eight films of outstanding merit will be shown in the morning session and groups will split up for discussion directed by a film specialist. After lunch the film is screened a second time and a longer general discussion follows with a panel of film specialists and critics.

Purpose of the conference is to assist in determining aesthetic and technical norms for judging films and to establish basic patterns for film discussion in schools and colleges.

The Film Workshop begins with the Conference and continues through Aug. 5 with two courses: Film Criticism and Evaluation, taught from 9 to 12 daily and History and Development of the Film, presented from 9 to 12 daily and from 1 to 4 in the afternoon beginning July 11. Both courses will use films from the various "schools" as illustrations.

Among the motion pictures to be seen are: "The Virgin Spring," "Richard III," "8½," "Bridge on the River Kwai," "Hud," "The Hustler," "La Strada," "Ikiru," "Death of a Salesman," "The Guest," "Raisin in the Sun," "The Ox Bow Incident," "The Corn is Green," "Winter Light," "The Seventh Seal," "Through a Glass Darkly," "The Sporting Life," "Desire Under the Elms," "A Place in the Sun," and "La Dolce Vita."

For information on the Conference and Workshop write the U. of D. Summer Sessions Office, 4001 W. McNicols Rd., Detroit 48221.

Special Art Workshops Set for F'ton

Young people of the Farmington area will have an opportunity to participate in a six week series of art workshops sponsored by the Detroit Institute of Arts and the Founders Society of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Classes will be at Larkshire School and will be scheduled according to age group. All classes begin the week of July 4 and conclude by Aug. 12. A materials fee of $8.50 will be charged.

Workshops for grades one and two will be on Tuesdays from 10 a.m. until 11:30 a.m.; grades three and four will meet on Tuesdays from 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Workshops for grades five and six will be on Wednesdays from 10 a.m. until noon. Grades seven through 12 will meet on Wednesdays from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Registration forms are available from the art staff members in the school system.

Attend Convention

Elma Stackler and Joyce Frances represented the Farmington Association of Educational Secretaries at the recent 25th annual convention of the Michigan Association of Educational Secretaries in Grand Rapids.

Workshop sessions were geared to the theme "Keys to Progress in Education." Principal speaker was author and lecturer Salom Rizk whose address was "America Is More Than A Country."

Dewline

By JOHN DEW

Summer is just around the corner, a fact readily recognized by the sudden flood of re-runs pouring out of the TV screen lately. And as the television division takes its annual vacation, we can already look ahead to the fall debuts which have landed in the network prime-time schedules. This week we'll cover the projection for the fall fare on ABC.

Major involvement and expense (not to mention expectation) centers about the "ABC Stage '66" series. This promises to be one of the largest projects yet of this caliber to be undertaken by the major network chains. Basically it is a weekly attempt to fill an hour of prime-time television with well-rounded, intelligent, and very expensive entertainment on a high caliber.

The premiere show which hits the air on Sept. 14 is entitled "The Many Worlds of Mike Nichols" and highlights the multiple talents of Nichols and Elaine May. Other shows planned in the series include spotlights on Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton, Julie Andrews, Sandy Dennis and George Segal, Alan Arkin and others of like caliber.

Among the writers employed to produce scripts for the series are such names as Truman Capote, John LeCarre, Robert Schenkley and Pulitzer Prize penman A. B. Guthrie. The big question of course centers around the yearly problem of having quality material without the opposition posed by such competition as "Beverly Hillsbillies" and comparable boob tube material.

Other new programs planned for introduction with the new schedule includes: "MONDAY—"Iron Horse," a western which promises to have Dale Robertson trading in his horse for a ride on a railroad; "Rat Patrol" portraying a quartet of heroes almost singlehandedly battling Rommel's Afrika Corps; and "Men Against Evil" a show which doesn't promise to be much more imaginative than its title. It deals with the "public and private lives of a Metropolitan police force." Perhaps a poor man's "FBI."

TUESDAY—"The Rounders," based on the movie of the same name, it lists as regular performers Ron Hayes, Patrick Wayne (John's son), and Chill Wills; "The Pruitts of Southampton," the series which stars

Phyllis Diller; and "Love on a Rooftop," described by ABC as, "a warm and funny comedy concerning a very special rooftop and some very special people in San Francisco."

WEDNESDAY—"Them Monroes," about which no information is yet available; "The Man Who Never Was," again based on the movie, sort of a new bulb in the old Blue Light idea; and the aforementioned "ABC Stage '66."

THURSDAY—"The Tammy Grimes Show," a comedy series which features the Broadway favorite; That Girl, stars Mario Thomas but little information is available here as to content; and "Hawk," a dramatic series which stars Burt Reynolds and will be one of the very best stories shot in New York.

FRIDAY—"The Green Hornet," based on the old radio favorite. It is produced by the same outfit responsible for "Batman" but they swear that the approach used in the Hornet will be entirely different. Could be, but they still are hoping for the same rating success; "Time Tunnel," stars James Darren and Robert Colbert and is a science-fiction diction piece; "The Milton Berle Show" with the old-style Berle flanked by regulars Nancy Sinatra, Bobby Rydell, Donna Loren and possibly Trini Lopez.

SATURDAY—Shane, a western attraction, based on the movie classic.

In future weeks we'll enlighten you as to NBC and CBS plans for the fall fare on the TV air.

One of the fun things for me about traveling is collecting new drinks. From Rome I recommend The Roman Punch — we have perfected to serve your summer thirst. Fresh orange juice, fresh lemon juice, a dash of sugar and bitters, white of egg, rum and champagne served in our unique Knights Head with a flaming torch. Baby that's a livin' — Second best to a vacation I promise.

PTA Council Awards Two Scholarships

Valerie Brown of North Farmington High and Kurt Dembeck of Farmington School each received scholarships from the Farmington Area Council of PTA May 18.

John Mueller, Scholarship Chairman, presented the two with $150 checks which will be supplemented with an additional $150 to complete the scholarship.

Valerie intends to enter Oakland University in the fall and to study English and Psychology. Kurt will attend the University of Michigan and study mathematics and science.

In addition to the above Mrs. Leroy LeGros outlined the function of the Council. She reported that a PTA Leadership Training Course was currently underway under the joint sponsorship of the Farmington Area Council, the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers and Wayne State University.

New officers were installed for the coming year by Farmington Superintendent of Schools Gerald V. Harrison. New officers are: Robert Johnson, president; C. W. Stevenson, vice president; Mrs. Edward Comstock, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Loomis, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Paul Rankin, treasurer.

Local Students Take Country Fair Awards

Wet weather didn't stop some of our local area students from taking honors in the "Country Fair of Yesteryear" at Greenfield Village last week.

Judging in the various contests, such as cooking, baking, arts, and crafts, sewing, etc. were broken down into four age groups. Local winners were: FROM LIVONIA: second place in painting in the fourth to sixth grade division Tim Cole of 12232 Canell; third place in the same division for stamps, Sharon Budd of 8948 Hartel; first place for cookies, Paula Gagliano of 28684 Grandon, a fifth grader at Cleveland.

Sharon Budd also won first place in the cakes contest, while her sixth grade classmate at Cleveland School, Donna Starkey of 11911 Camden, took second place.

FROM GARDEN CITY: Becky Jones of 31916 Leona, an eighth grader at Radcliff Junior High, took third place in her division's competition. Two students placed in the dress or suit making contest. They are: Kathy Kitzman of 31714 Marquette who won first place in the seventh to ninth grade division and Kathy Miller of 32165 Dover who placed third in the 10 to 12 grade division.

Mike Gumina of 6311 Hubbard won third place in natural history in the first to third grade division.

William Smith

William T. Smith of Farmington has been named general agent for the Guardian Life Insurance Company of America. Smith is a member of the Detroit Life Underwriters, the Detroit Chapter of Chartered Life Underwriters and the Michigan Association of Life Insurance Counselors. He and his wife, Joan, have five children, Marilee, William G., Nancy, Gregory and Scott. They reside at 21156 Meadowlark.

Livonia Libraries Stock State Books

With more and more persons each year visiting the many historic and recreation spots throughout the country, "See America" is the great travel slogan of today.

According to Skip Rosenthal, city librarian, the Livonia Public Library has a number of books on travel in the United States which describe where to go, and what to do and see when you get there.

To help celebrate Michigan Week this month the Carl Sandburg Library will have on display an exhibit of materials relating to Michigan.

The Library has in its collection many books on Michigan as well as the other 49 states. Some of the books included in this collection are: Frederick Bald's "Michigan in Four Centuries," Willis Dunbar's "Michigan: A History of the Wolverine State," and Gerard Schultz' "A History of Michigan's Thumb."

Books about travel in Michigan include: "Peninsular Country" by Raymond Burroughs, "Michigan" by the Writers' Program, and "Readings in the Geography of Michigan" by Charles M. Davis.

Also available are books about other states. Some of the titles are "California," by Keith Monroe, "The New States: Alaska and Hawaii," by William Lineberry, and "New York on Five Dollars a Day," by Joan Feldman.

For persons who will be visiting the national parks, there are such titles as Irving Melbo's "Our Country's National Parks," and Luis Bolin's "The National Parks of the United States." In addition, the Library has travel magazines such as Holiday, National Geographic, Travel, Sunset, and others.

Summer Classes Begin June 20 at Oakland U.

Oakland University, which operates on the year-round, three-semester plan, this year will offer its first summer session, according to Laszlo J. Hetenyi, dean of the School of Education and director of the summer school.

The eight-week program will run from June 20 to Aug. 12, and will offer courses leading to the Master of Arts degree in English and to the Master of Arts in Teaching in English, mathematics, elementary education and reading instruction.

According to Dean Hetenyi, the session was added to the University's calendar to accommodate area teachers and other persons interested in graduate work whose schedules do not permit them to enroll in the spring semester which begins in early May. It is expected that enrollment will also include advanced undergraduates who are interested in the courses offered.

Persons not registered in a degree program may register as guest students for individual courses, permanent certification or credits for transfer to another institution.

Persons interested in further information on the 1966 summer session should contact the Office of Admissions at Oakland University.

NICKEL SUPPLIES

Since 1905, the world's leading source of nickel has been the Sudbury District of Ontario. Currently, mines in the district yield more than 55 per cent of are open Monday through Thursday from 12 to 9; Friday and Saturday, 9 to 5. The South Branch is at 33720 Plymouth Road, 427-1990, and the Carl Sandburg Branch is located at 30100 W. Seven Mile Road, 476-0700.

Groups Welcome in Lansing

Many large groups of students, scouts and other organizations visit the State Capitol each year. Because of the number of requests for information regarding group-visits, the following information is offered to make visits more enjoyable.

The most popular time for visits is during the Legislative Session, which convenes the second Wednesday in January and usually adjourns the latter part of May in the odd year and the first part of May in the even year. However, a long session is not unusual and a check with your State Representative could determine this in your particular case. The normal schedule for Legislative Sessions is as follows:

95 Youth Voices Sing at Franklin

Musical Youth International, Inc. (M.Y.I.) will present a concert of vocal and instrumental music on Saturday, May 28, in the Franklin gymnasium.

M.Y.I. is a combined vocal-instrumental group of 95 highly talented high school musicians. Among these select students are Franklin music students Pam Halton and Judy Shirley.

The group represents 41 high schools in Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Ontario, Canada. The Saturday concert is a warm-up before beginning an extensive European summer tour.

3 To Spend Summer in Ariz.

A group of boys from the metropolitan area will be spending the summer at the Hidden Valley Ranch for Boys in Prescott, Ariz.

Included in the group are: John Davenport of Farmington; Randall Jasin of Garden City; and Kevin Blake of Farmington.

The group will leave June 25 from Metropolitan Airport and return Aug. 20. While in the west they will attend the annual Rodeo in Prescott; hike to the Havasupai Indian Reservation; Grand Canyon; San Francisco Peaks; and the Montezuma Castle.

For making easier tuna salads, grated or flaked tuna is a shortcut to economical tuna mixtures. The small bits of tuna are ready for easy blending with mayonnaise, sour cream and other ingredients for sandwiches, dips or salads.

Garden City West PTSA Plans Social

Garden City West High School Parent Teacher Student Association will close out the school year with an ice cream social at 7 p.m. tonight (Wednesday).

The public event will include refreshments, installation of officers, and a musical program.

The chorus directed by William Ainslee and the woodwind ensemble conducted by Richard Kitzman will perform during the program, which includes a sock-hop from 9 to 10:30 p.m.

The ice cream social will be held in the school patio from 7:30-9 p.m. and in case of rain, will be moved inside.

Free ice cream and cake will be available to students accompanied by a parent.

Scouts Seek Natives

By AMY CHARRON 474-0713

Is there anyone in Farmington who is a native of Hawaii? Do you know anyone from Hawaii?

Theme of Day Camp Arapaho is Hawaii and the Director Mrs. Roy Lee (476-2207) would like to have the girls learn about the island first hand. Session for the camp is Aug. 1 to 11.

Director Mrs. Robert Schafer (474-8621) of Camp Chippewa II (July 5 to 15) needs supplies. She is seeking onion, potato or grapefruit bags, shirt cardboards, crayons, gallon plastic bleach bottles, solid egg cartons, tuna or pineapple type cans, whole bits or pieces of candles, wallpaper books, paper rolls, coffee for shortening cans with metal lids.

Junior troop 1019 recently spent the day at Proud Lake on a nature hike. The girls are working towards their Gypsy and Rambler Badges. Most of the troop has already earned the Toy Maker, Sewing and Water Fund Badges and they are hard at work to complete the necessary requirement for the Sign of the Arrow. Leaders of this troop which started in October are Mrs. W. E. Daggett and Mrs. James Moreen.

Scribe of Junior Troop 750 Patty Simons has the following report. The troop visited the Immigration Building in Detroit on April 11. In keeping with the Girl Scout code of courtesy the girls gave up their seats on the bus when it was crowded. This troop sold 1,212 boxes of cookies and received a bonus of $60.60. Leaders of the troop, which meet on Monday night at the First Methodist Church, are Mrs. Walter Gagnon and Mrs. Fred Monroy.

UP' GOING

'CURTAIN

The subject for today's theatrical talk may sound horticultural, but believe me, it's quite histrionic. In short, "The Subject Was Roses," the Frank Gilroy play at the Fisher Theater until June 4, forms the basis for our discussion this week.

Frank Albertson and Martin Sheen, two of the original cast when the show opened last May on Broadway, deserve bushels of roses for their stellar performances. Albertson has had 30 or 40 years of experience on the American stage mostly as a straight man for such vaudeville stars as Phil Silvers and Milton Berle. Martin Sheen is a relatively unknown, young actor who won out over hundreds of other actors that auditioned.

Martha Scott is the third and only other actor in this delicate heart-warming tale of a young man's arrival home from World War II. Miss Scott's approach to the role of the mother is tempered with great restraint. Her excellent underplaying in the big emotional scenes gives the entire production great strength.

"Subject was Roses" is a dramatic study of what happens to a family when their son comes home a mature man. He had left for the Army still an adolescent. Now on return he finds the house a strange, hostile territory. Mom and Dad are unhappy and snap at each other. He feels ill at ease. Nothing seems the same.

All three members of the family in "Roses" finally realize that the process of growing up is extremely painful and must be accepted as a part of life. Any other conclusion in this play would have been mawkish, sentimental, and pure Pollyanna. Frank Gilroy has fashioned a perceptive commentary on American family mores "Roses" is tender, terse, and titanic in its impact. Easy to see why this play won the Pulitzer prize in 1955.

You'll have a second chance to see "Roses" later this summer out at the Northland Playhouse. The Playhouse production will have Chester Morris and Maureen O'Sullivan doing the two leads. Of course, no summer trio will ever top Albertson and Sheen, and Scott. The facial gesture utilized by Albertson are marvelous to be-

F'ton Scouts Participate In Big Dinner

Girl Scout Troop 921 in Southeast Farmington participated in a progressive dinner with international overtones May 12. The 10 girls present were working on the international and social situation challenges and they prepared each course served and performed the clean up chores.

Guests at the dinner included the mothers, leaders, neighborhood chairman and the district chairman of the Girl Scouts.

Martha Clifford and Mary Lou LaPrise, leaders, have been working with Troop 212 that meets at Larkshire School. Last weekend the girls camped out overnight at the Bill's Home on Middlebelt Rd. and on June 17 the troop will journey to Camp Tamarack in Brighton for the weekend.

Brownies too, like to be out of doors. On May 14 seven of the Brownies attended a powwow at the Riverside Park near Plymouth.

Troop 88 at the Sarah Fisher Home was at Kensington Park for a long hike and cook-out on May 19.

Troop 224 will be off for Camp Arrowhead to spend the weekend June 16. These girls have also been working on a promise project for the Plymouth State Home and during the past three months have made 55 tray favors each month.

Visiting Europe for Course

Currently on an opera tour in Europe is Mary Ann Budzinski, Instructor in the Music Department of Oakland Community College.

Miss Budzinski will tape record and film operas for use in a music history course which she is developing for the College. In addition, she will interview performers on tape and film to be used in the same course.

Glenn, Thurston Pace Anders Winners

High-powered John Glenn and Thurston led the first-round winners in the Les Anders Memorial Baseball tournament at Livonia's Ford Field.

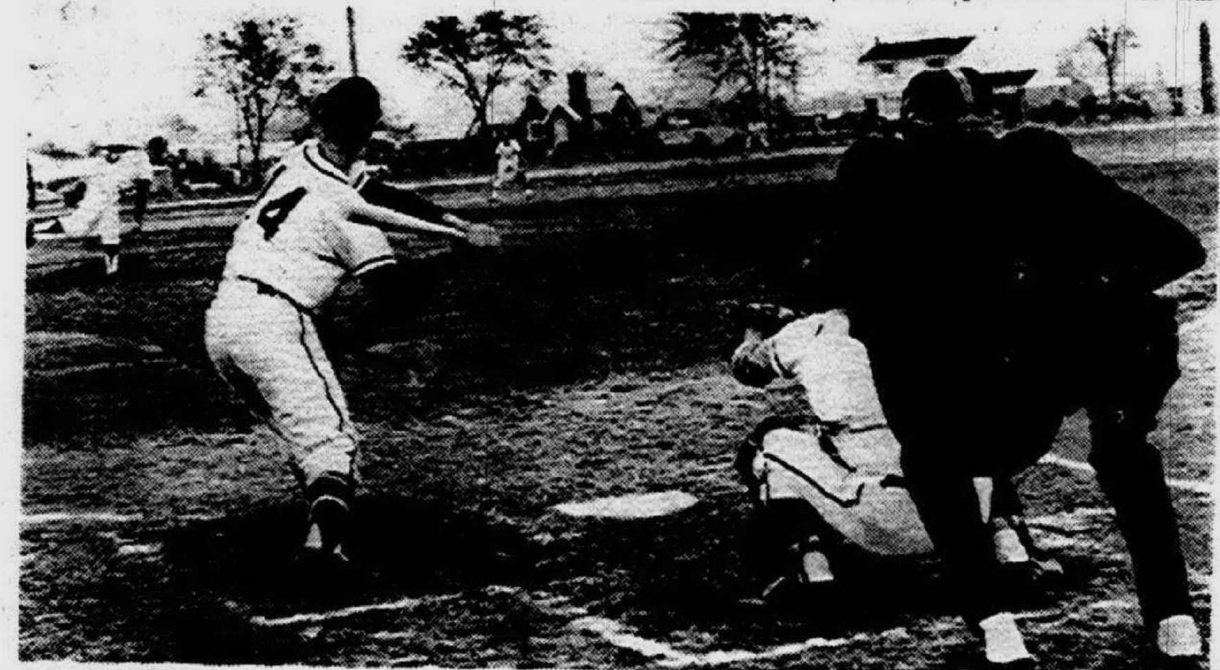

Glenn, the top winner among all Michigan prep baseball teams, upped its record to 18 and three by turning back Clarenceville, 5-2. Then Thurston won a thrilling, 1-0 duel from Bentley in a battle of the respective Northwest and Suburban Six League leaders.

In Sunday's first round game, Redford Union's 1965 runnersup cooled off hot Garden City East, 3-1, by scoring three times in the second inning and holding on the rest of the way.

The tourney resumes this Saturday with three games. Sorrows takes on Plymouth at 5 p.m., West engages Glenn at 7 and Thurston goes against Franklin at 9 for the right to advance into next Monday's semifinals at 7 and 9 at Ford Field.

The championship game will be played on Saturday, June 4, at Ford Field at 9.

FIRST PITCH in the opening game of the tournament heads towards the plate as 12 high Memorial tourney at Henry Ford Field in school teams from the Observer Newspaper Livonia.

BIG WEEK ON DIAMOND: East, West Rampage

What a week for Garden City East and Garden City West in baseball.

East grabbed a pair of victories by 11-7 over Riverview and 1-0 over Robichaud to take over first place in the Mid-Wayne League with a 5-2 record.

West engaged in four contests before entering the weekend Greater Livonia tournament and won 'em all to up its record in the Tri Rivers League to 6-4 and advance into third place.

Joe Huber again was the big hero for Garden City East.

Against Riverview, Huber unloaded a homer, triple and a single. He drove in eight runs and scored two more himself to simplify the pitching load of Paul Kightlinger who scattered 10 hits.

Huber socked his homer with two on in the first inning. In the second he tripled with the bags loaded. In the sixth, he singled two men in with the bags again full.

Bentley Track Choice For Suburban Crown

Bentley high school's track team, coached by Ron Federau, shaped up as the favorite for the 1968 Suburban Six League's championship to be decided Thursday evening at Redford Union.

Bentley completed its dual-meet season in the league with an unblemished 4-0 record, plus an overall 8-1 mark, clipping Belleville, 74-35, and Redford Union, 61½-47½.

The experts are predicting that Belleville will give Bentley its toughest opposition in the battle for league honors.

Mark Formosa cracked a Bentley varsity record with a 51.7-second clocking against Redford Union while Doug Thomas ran the 100-yard dash in 10.2 seconds in both meets to equal the Bentley standard in the sprint.

Meantime, RU's mile relay team of Bill Meiras, Tom Mc-

Lalin, Jim Childress and Brian Webb, continued its winning ways after turning in a new school record performance of 3:28.7 a week ago.

Thomas and Ken Jackson both were double winners against Belleville, copping the hurdles and dashes, respectively. Thomas also came back with two more wins in the dashes against RU while Formosa copped the high jump in addition to its record effort in the 440-yard run.

The Bentley winners vs. Belleville follow:

Long Jump — Mike Dubose. Distance — 20 feet, 6 inches. Shot Put — Frank Miller. Distance — 50 feet, 9 inches. Mile — Fred Edwards. Time — 4:48. High Jump — Ken Bauman. Height — 5 feet, 10 inches. High Hurdles — Ken Jackson. Time — 15 seconds. 440-yard run — Mike Formosa. Time — 52.3 seconds. 100-yard dash — Doug Thomas. Time — 10.2 seconds (ties school record).

Low Hurdles — Jackson. Time — 20.4 seconds. 220-yard dash — Thomas. Time — 2:35 seconds.

BENTLEY-RU WINNERS
Shot Put — Larry Haggert (RU). Distance — 48 feet, 11 inches. High Jump — Formosa (B). Height — 5 feet, 10 inches. Long Jump — Terry Shirley (RU). Distance — 20 feet, 11½ inches. 880-yard relay — Redford Union (Roger Simmons, Shirley, Bill Meiras, Dennis Fife). Time — 1:34. Mile — Jack Shepherd (RU). Time — 4:44.5. High Hurdles — Jim Matevia (B). Time — 16.2 seconds. 880-yard run — Tom McLalla (RU). Time — 2:04.4. 440-yard run — Formosa (B). Time — 51.7 seconds (new Bentley record). Old mark: 51.8 seconds. 100-yard dash — Thomas (B). Time — 10.2 seconds (ties Bentley record).

PLYMOUTH LOSES
Plymouth high's track team dropped a 67-41 decision to Trenton in a Suburban Six League meet.

Bill Clyde (pole vault), Jim Scharmen (high jump), Mike Starkias (high hurdles) and Dave Durlan (440) gained the only victories for the Rocks.

Thurston Nearing Loop Flag

Get the Northwest Suburban League baseball championship flag ready to hang up at Thurston.

The Townshippers with a 6-1 conference record held a two-game bulge over their nearest rival entering this week's final round of action.

Thurston gained its most important verdict last week by blanking surprising John Glenn, 8-0, and thereby all but killing the Glenn team's chances. It was Glenn's third loss in league play.

Bob Durand flipped a two-hitter against Glenn, allowing safeties only to rival hurler Ron Kinnunen and Dick Drury. Meantime, Barry Simescu socked a homer and Bob Holmes and Paul Santangelo each bagged two hits to top the Thurston attack.

Next for Thurston came a 4-2 victory over Groves. Vic Pilar was the pitching ace in this one, allowing three hits and fanning 14.

Simescu socked out two more hits to top the Thurston assault. Thurston also notched a 2-1 verdict over Cranbrook in a non-leaguer with Mike McCrumm pitching a two-hitter and fanning 10. Simescu knocked in one run with a sacrifice, the other scored on an error.

After losing to Thurston, Glenn rebounded to dump Groves, 8-3, and win a double-header from Carlson, 8-3 and 7-3.

Kinnunen tossed a three-hitter and Len Anderson followed with another fine effort on the mound in Glenn's sweep against Carlson.

Elsewhere in the league, North Farmington and defending champion Franklin split in a doubleheader. North Farmington took the opener, 9-4, on Chuck Viane's pitching and thanks to a six-run uprising in the sixth when Bill Oldershaw socked in three runs with a double.

Franklin copped the nightcap, 10-7, with Fred Davies the winning pitcher in relief. A five-run uprising on two hits — by Gary Burkett and Steve Atkinson — capped the verdict for Franklin.

Homers by Dave Stott, Ron Salhaney and Mike Stachurski paved the way for Franklin to rock Oak Park as Davies hurled the distances.

The Parkers then edged North Farmington, 1-0, with Viane suffering the loss when he gave up a run on two singles and a wild pitch in the second inning. Hub Copp collected half of North Farmington's four hits.

Glenn, Thurston

Raszas gave up three hits in the game.

WEST 8, STEVENSON 0
The pitching of Bo Ardell and the hitting of Ford Simpson paced the West team which was winning for the fifth time in six days — (big league style).

Ardell stopped Stevenson on just two hits, while Simpson rapped out three safeties in four trips to the plate.

REDFORD UNION 3, EAST 1
A three-run uprising in the second inning turned the trick in favor of the Townshippers.

Mark Ross started matters when he was safe on an error. David Bourassa, and Bill Fahey singled to knock Ross across.

Then Dick Beckerleg was safe on a fielder's choice when Bourassa was tossed out at the plate. But Rod Ferguson delivered a big single to chase in Fahey and Beckerleg.

Bourassa held off East until the seventh inning when the Garden City team jammed the bases with one out. Bob Coby singled Dave Ventura over, but Paul Kightlinger was tossed out at the plate trying to follow Ventura home.

Bourassa got the next man to preserve the win. In winning Bourassa struck out seven and walked two.

West Bids Loop Crown

Garden City West's high school track team goes after honors Wednesday in the Tri Rivers League meet at Schafer after dropping two dual meets last week.

West fell to Cherry Hill, 56-53, and to Lowrey, 64-45. Mike Alexander took the 100 and 220-yard dashes against Cherry Hill while Mike Raft won the long jump, Bob Elmendorf the shot put, Mike Sinta the 880 and Chris Brown the low hurdles.

Against Lowrey, it was Taft in the long jump, Chuck Sullivan in the pole vault and Bill Merriman in the 100-yard dash to account for the only West victories in individual action.

Record Field of 24 Goes In $24,450 M&M Trot

Harness racing fans of metropolitan Detroit and outstate Michigan will be treated to one of the finest tidbits of the season Thursday night in the 16th renewal of the historic Merchants and Manufacturers trot at Wolverine Raceway.

The newest edition of the M&M attracted the largest field in history with a total of 24 entries. The huge entry boosted the rich pot to an all-time high of $26,450.

It also means that Racing Secretary Bill Connors had to split the field into two elimination heats with the top five finishers in each coming back for the championship finale.

There isn't any question but that this year's field stacks up as one of the best in recent years. It includes many top-notch stars from the Atlantic Seaboard as well as standout performers from tracks in New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Illinois.

The luck of the draw placed most of the eastern invaders in the second division including Del Miller's Lady Jamies, Stan Dancer's Speedy Play, George Sholly's Polaris and Dick Buxton's Victory Message.

The first division found Stemwinder drawing the rail followed by Amish Lad, Cohasset, Earthy Scot, Song Flight, Dreamy Hanover, Ira, Speedy Trust, Miss Liberty, Miss Vicar, Sir Faffee and Chance Worthy.

The eliminations have been scheduled as the fourth and fifth races with the 10 finalists coming back for the eighth race to decide the 1968 champion.

Sudan's Comet, the new darling of Michigan harness racing fans, stole the show Saturday before the season's largest crowd at Wolverine, 10,213 — when he came out of fourth place at the halfway point to win the featured $5,000 Open by a half-length in 2:02.4 over a track that was fast but a bit dead from the heavy downpour of Friday night.

With Ted Taylor in the sulky The Comet, who carries the colors of Daniel Barry and Susan Houstina, of Pontiac, Mich.,

was held off the pace for half of the mile and then came on with a rush to win in 2:02.4. He had plenty of competition in the drive to the wire from Major Breeze and Monticello but had enough to hold off both.

It was the second straight win for The Comet who has replaced Craig Creed, the game nine-year old from the Elmer Conrad stable, as the "King of the Hill."

Craig made a game bid this time and dueling The Comet for the lead down the backstretch but he didn't have anything left in the stretch and wound up fifth in the five horse field.

Saturday's crowd poured $555,985 through the mutuel machines, giving Wolverine its second straight million dollar weekend. Friday's handle was $487,619 and boosted the wagering for the two nights to $1,043,604.

Completing the second full week of the meeting, which lost eight nights at the start because of a strike by the Michigan Harness Horsemen Association, Wolverine is averaging $341,527.

Bentley Shares Lead in Baseball

The final week of the Suburban Six League's baseball chase began Monday with three teams — Bentley, Belleville and Trenton — locked in a three-way tie for first place.

Each team boasted five victories against two setbacks with three conference struggles remaining.

Bentley came up with some great pitching in knocking off Allen Park, 2-0, and Belleville, 3-1.

Bill McAlpine stopped the Parkers on one hit — when Bill Duncan singled in the first inning. He struck out eight men.

Mike Dancha's double knocked in Bentley's first run and Ed Ryan singled in the other.

It was Dave Gorton's sparkling pitching that enabled Bentley to down Belleville. Gorton allowed five hits, losing his shutout in the sixth inning.

Gorton himself singled over Don Montroy in the fourth inning. In the fifth, Bentley added two runs on walks to Greg Coleman and Greg Colton, two stolen bases, an error and Jack Wilson's single.

Plymouth broke even in a pair of league games, losing to Trenton, 6-1, and then rebounding to beat Allen Park, 5-2.

Randy Williams went all the way against the Parkers and gave up six hits. Dave Prochaska, Pat Williams and Ken Olds each had two hits off the Rocks.

Four errors hurt Plymouth in the game with Trenton, enabling Trenton to cash five runs in the second inning.

Dave Prochaska had three hits for the Rocks, including a triple in the third inning when he knocked over Jim Arnold, who had singled, for the lone Plymouth run.

The week turned out to be sad one for Redford Union which suffered a pair of league losses.

Belleville scored eight times in the sixth inning to overtake RU, 9-5, after the Townshippers had led, 5-1. Henry DeLong belted two hits in a losing cause.

Trenton's Ken Milstead then victimized RU with a non-hit gem in scoring an 11-1 decision. Rod Ferguson scored the RU run in the first inning when he walked, stole second and scored on a pair of wild pitches.

New League Formed in Township

Arrangements have been completed to stage an instructional baseball league in Redford Union this summer for boys 15 and 16 years of age and any ninth graders who are 14.

The league will displace the Colt league, which heretofore has operated in the Township.

Bob Atkins, baseball coach at Redford Union, will supervise the league with the assistance of Stu Watson, the township recreation chief.

Boys may enroll at either Redford Union or Thurston high schools, at any of the four junior highs in the township, or by contacting Watson or Atkins at the recreation office. At least four teams will be fielded with games starting on June 20.

Observing Sports

are those dinners toasting men who are stepping out of school-boy sports in Michigan after spending three and four decades producing athletic teams and helping to mold boys and girls into men and women.

There was the fete, for example, that brought out 500 in Hamtramck as the community said its goodbyes to Hal Shields, who back in the early '30's ranked as Michigan's foremost prep football coach. Year after year, the Shields story at Hamtramck finished the same way — with a championship.

And next week there'll be the same kind of a salute to Southeastern High's Perry Deakin, long ranked among the top basketball coaches in our fair state.

When we think about such men, we have to ask: "Where have the years passed?"

It was the likes of Shields and Deakin whom we wrote about in our infant days at pounding a typewriter when Eddie Hayes and the late Vic Packman would say:

"Hey, kid, take care of these games."

Time, of course, stops for no man . . . and how true you had to say as you sat with almost 1,000 others at the dedication ceremonies in connection with the opening of Michigan's New Hall of Fame in Detroit's Cobo Hall.

It's a scene you won't easily forget, especially if your age happens to read two score and ten . . . or maybe three score. You wander down the long corridor. There are the pictures and the plaques.

Many of the men and women you have known . . . and written about.

John James Adams who's Mr. Hockey . . . the late Lloyd Francis Brazil of U. of D. fame . . . Tommy Bridges of the Tigers . . . Earl (Dutch) Clark of the Lions . . . Tyrus Raymond Cobb of the Tigers . . . Gordon Stanley (Mickey) Cochrane of the Tigers . . . Fritz Crisler, Ray Fisher, Bennie Friedman and Bennie Oosterbaan, all of the University of Michigan . . . Charles E. (Gus) Dorais of the Lions and U. of D. . .

Wish Egan of the Tigers, the greatest of all baseball scouts . . . And more Tigers — Charles Leonard Gebringer, Henry Benjamin (Hank) Greenberg, Leon Allen (Goose) Goslin and Henry (Heinie) Manush.

Yes, and who'll forget Harry Edwin Heilmann as a Tiger and broadcaster? . . . or how Tommy Harmon helped the University of Michigan scalp your Michigan Staters? . . . or the job Jean Hoxie and the late Dr. Allen Stowe have contributed to tennis in Michigan?

Who can surpass the Red Wings' Gordie Howe and Ted Lindsay? And what about the bowling feats of Marion Ladewig and the late George Young.

Joe Louis is in the Michigan Hall of Fame . . . So is the late Matt Mann, the swimming coach deluxe, and the late Ralph H. Young, who as athletic director at Michigan State in the mid '30's helped lift the Spartans from the "farm college" category to the big time.

There are others — golf's Al Watrous and the late Horton Smith . . . Hal Newhouse, whom you first saw pitching on an American Legion team and then "covered" him in the big leagues . . . Lynwood Thomas (Schoolboy) Rowe . . . Eddie Tolan, Gar Wood and Fielding Harris (Hurricane) Yost.

Many of the aforementioned attended this year's induction ceremonies which added the names of Lindsay, Bobby Layne and Young.

Others couldn't make it because of illness or other pressing duties . . . Still others no longer live among us.

Strong-hearted as we think we are . . . your eyes quickly turn moist at such a gathering or as you stand gazing around the Hall of Fame.

Don't miss visiting the Hall. Take the kids . . . and be sure and tell them:

"Son, I remember seeing Bennie Riedman pass to Bennie Oosterbaan . . . or Bobby Layne win championships for the Lions . . . or Hank Greenberg slap one out of what then was called Briggs Stadium . . ."

Memories . . . they sure can be wonderful.

Trojans Nipped in Flag Bid

A surprise marked the 1966 Wayne-Oakland League high school track meet.

Bloomfield Hills edged out Clarenceville, the favorite, for the championship. The Hills scored 63 points to Clarenceville's 61½.

The other teams lagged well behind. Milford had 38, Northville 21½, Clarkston 14½, Brighton 6½, West Bloomfield 2 and Holly one.

Clarenceville produced three individual winners — Larry Buchheit in the 880-yard run with a 2:01.2 clocking, Jeff Waldman in the 440 at 51.2 seconds and Jim Harbourn in the low hurdles, 20.7 seconds.

Other Clarenceville performers placed as follows:

880-yard relay — Clarenceville, second, with Jim Stearns, Chris Hawkins, Ralph Reas and Jeff Waldman. Mile — 4 — Gary Buchheit; 5 — Darrell Howell. High Hurdles — 2 — Tom Harbourn. 880-yard run — 4 — Brian Kent; 5 — Dave Wilson. 220-yard dash — 2 — Stearns; 5 — Hawkins. Mile relay — Clarenceville, second, with Reas, Larry Martin, Fred Welton and Larry Buchheit. Shot Put — 4 — Jim Frick. Long Jump — 2 — Reas. High Jump — 4 — Jim Frick. Pole Vault — 2 — Westcott, 3 — Amick, 4 — Dave Brandemihl.

Stevenson Scores 1st League Win

It was a FIRST for Stevenson high's baseball team when Livonia's newest school rallied to nip Walled Lake, 8-7.

The triumph marked Stevenson's first in an Interlakes League contest.

Trailing, 7-5, in the seventh inning, Stevenson got going on a walk to Phil Camp. John Kladzyk and Dave Fisher then were each safe on errors to account for one run.

After the next two men fanned, Chuck Sobczak delivered a big single to chase in two runs and decide the game.

Earlier a two-run single by Chuck Shepherd had helped Stevenson in another uprising.

Kladzyk worked five innings for Stevenson with Paul Tonnemacher finishing and getting credit for the victory.

The story was much different for Stevenson against Waterford. The Livonians suffered a 12-0 drubbing with Tonnemacher and Doug Gregg getting their only two hits.

Falcons Split in Shutouts

It was shutout or not count for Farmington high school's baseball team.

After falling to Waterford, 2-0, Farmington recovered to nip Pontiac Northern, 1-0.

Tim Patrick pitched in both encounters for Farmington. He gave up three hits to Pontiac and four to Waterford.

The lone Farmington run of the week came in the fifth inning when Al Kilka singled, Mike Searney walked and Doug LeFevre singled.

Patrick never was in trouble against Pontiac. The farthest a Northern runner could get was second base.

Jerry Tinkle was the hitting star for Farmington in each game with a double and single.

Glenn Star Sets Record For Vault

Led by Wayne Holman, who won the pole vault and high jump, John Glenn High's track team emerged victorious over Webberville and Country Day in a double-dual track meet.

Holman's effort in the pole vault set a school record when he cleared 12 feet, six inches.

Glenn scored 81 points against Webberville's 28. It was 63-46 for Glenn against Country Day.

Glenn lost to Oak Park in a Northwest League meet, 56-53, as Jerry Young won the shot put with a school record of 49 feet, 10½ inches.

Dan Bell (long jump), Holman (high jump), Martin Stith (440) and Jim Arble (mile) fashioned other firsts for Glenn.

East's Miler Cops Crown

Garden City East enjoyed only one bright spot in the annual Mid-Wayne League track meet.

That came when Doug Norris won the mile in 4:32.2.

Other than Norris' win, all East could accomplish was a third by Tom Berard in the shot put and a four-place finish by the mile relay of Norris, Bill Willie, Dennis Okon and Bob Calizowski.

East fashioned only 14½ points as Robichaud scored 84 to take the title. Inkster had 64 for second place.

Novi: A Community That's on the Go

From a stop on the old toll road to a community just minutes away from the Metropolitan area via expressways. That's the story of the Village of Novi.

As one drives along Grand River or was a Toll Rd., and every town so many miles apart had Toll roads for centuries by Indian trails of this region. Novi was numbered Toll Gate.

Following their "moccasin" footsteps came the French Courtiers, the English fur traders and many settlers from New England and Virginia. They trekked along the original Grand River Trail, but they came up with the name Some 100 years ago Novi had, Unrivaled in experience and specializing in the area in which they operate, members of the United Northwestern Realty Association also have the supreme and exclusive selling tool of the MULTI-LIST service. But they are not satisfied to rely on only one tool.

They require all their salesmen to take an extensive training course at Association headquarters. In addition, University of Michigan courses are given for brokers and real estate salesmen twice every week. An amazing number of them have earned University of Michigan Certificates in Real Estate.

Weekly luncheon meetings at Association headquarters keep members up-to-date on housing trends, mortgage situations and appraisal findings. U.N.R.A. members are the best educated, best informed, most energetic and reliable real estate firms in Metropolitan Detroit.

With their training, the facilities at their disposal and the desirability of the area they serve, is it any wonder that they have the best chance of selling your home quickly and at the best possible price?

Novi Has Services That Go With A City

A village of 32 square miles with a population of 6,390 in the 1960 federal census, Novi is served by a police and fire department, a library and a department of public works.

The Novi School system is currently planning for the construction of a junior and senior high school.

In addition to the Village Council, the area is also governed under some aspects of the Township state law. The government offices of both Township and Village are located on Novi Rd., just south of Grand River.

The community boasts a community hall which opened its doors in 1954. This building was completely financed by special fund raising projects and is now owned by the citizens of the area.

Present planning of the chamber of commerce call for the construction of a community swimming pool in the near future.

It Pays to Deal with a Professional

Keeping the Realtor's six per cent commission and selling the house yourself may sound inviting, but you must carefully consider all the angles, including these:

An exasperating failure to sell for the right price, especially toward the end of a negotiation, might discourage you so badly you settle for less. A Realtor takes it in stride, and goes after another buyer at the right price. Your price once lowered under such circumstances, could not be restored.

The Realtor has a head start, when he gets the go-ahead in his up-to-date card file. He knows who's looking for what you want to sell. He has the information to (Continued on Page 19)

Westland: A New Name for a Growing City

By an act of the state legislature, city in 1960 and Inkster did the same in 1964. To prevent any future cutting away of the township's territory, a move was started in 1933. The village of Wayne, six square miles in size, voted to become a City of Westland.

This is the office of the United Northwestern Realty Association building located at 11677 Beech-Daily Road in Redford Township.

To prevent any future conflict, township leaders chose the name of a Chinese province--Nankin.

The first white settlers arrived in the area about 1824 but the area remained scarcely populated until one hundred years later. After World War I, people came to Nankin to live and not to farm, beginning the first signs of suburb.

The second World War gave the community its next big push with 2,000 persons making Nankin their home at that time.

But growth brought other problems. The township's boundaries were or to get other financing.

He knows the existing and potential community features currently appealing to home shoppers. A Realtor is a professional, he's trained to handle all your real estate needs. Most important, he cares about his reputation and is likely to give you a square deal.

Above all, beware of unlicensed brokers or "real estate men." They are not bound by any code of ethics and do not belong to real estate associations that protect "sellers" and "buyers."

One look at the strict rules under which licensed Realtors operate, and you will appreciate the ethical safeguards already set up in your behalf. It pays to take advantage of them.

Answers to Queries

Sellers may have a number of choices open as substitutes for a particular discount. Sellers should "shop competitively" with different lenders whenever possible, looking for the best price and terms that are available in their locality. Discounts vary from time to time, from one lender to another, and from one locality to another.

Depending on the discount terms offered (with due regard to other aspects of a prospective sales transaction such as price, speed of sale, time of closing, etc.), a seller may choose other courses of action rather than pay the discounts.

Alternatives might be to seek better terms from competing lenders; arrange financing on conventional terms without FHA insurance (perhaps at a higher interest rate); a seller could sell the property with an outstanding first mortgage and perhaps accept a second mortgage for payment of part of the purchase price (without FHA insurance); ask a lender to arrange for sale of the mortgage to the Federal National Mortgage Association, perhaps at more favorable discount terms; or defer sale of the property until money market conditions are more favorable.

Garden City Typifies Suburban Growth

Garden City is an excellent example of the suburban growth which typified America's expansion following World War II. The community's population has increased nearly ten fold. The geographical shape of the land changed from open spaces to subdivisions of single-family homes interrupted by neighborhood shopping centers.

One of the best reasons for settling in Garden City was pointed out in a survey last year by professional planning consultants who were retained to draft a community renewal program which outlines needed developments.

Median Value Of City Home Is $13,400

Garden City's average home had a median value of $13,400 or just $400 above the metropolitan Detroit area's figure.

In a professional planning firm's study of the community, it was pointed out that of more than 9,000 homes in the city, only 113 are vacant, giving Garden City a ratio of only 1.8 per cent, nearly the lowest in Wayne County.

Wayne has a vacancy ratio of 1.7 per cent while the metropolitan Detroit area's figure is 4.5 per cent, which attracted many workers who traveled back and fourth to the auto plants in Detroit.

Important to the city's development in that period were the completion of major roads which connected Garden City and Detroit. In that decade following World War I, several stretches of Middlebelt Road were paved along with portions of Ford Road.

Following these road improvements, a bus line was extended to Garden City and local residents found it relatively easy to commute to downtown Detroit. The provision of a city water system and electrical service also aided the Garden City growth in the '20's.

With this gradual growth, local officials gained public support for incorporation into a village in 1927 and six years later changed its form of government into that of a home-rule city.

Profile of Average City Resident

If you are just over 20 years old, completed 11.4 years of formal schooling, and have a family income of $7,354 a year, you are considered the typical Garden City resident.

Those are the figures included in a Community Renewal Program completed a year ago by professional planning consultants.

The median age of 20.1 years is well below the Detroit area figure of 29.4 while the median family income is above the metropolitan area median of $6,825. Garden City's educational status of 11.4 is slightly above the Detroit area figure of an even 11 years.

During the 1920's and 1930's, the city's population grew to nearly 3,000 residents. Another 1,000 moved in during the next decade.

However, the second World War provided the boom to the city's development, as happened in numerous other suburbs across the country. By 1950, the population doubled to 9,000 residents.

But the biggest population explosion for Garden City during the decade of the '50's, was that period, the population quadrupled from 9,000 to the official 1960 census figure of 38,251.

This growth was caused by the city's participation in the rapidly developing urban fringe surrounding Detroit.

To service the community, a fine system of public schools and municipal services has been developed over the years. In addition, there are numerous churches, hospitals, retail centers to meet the needs of all Garden City residents.

The UNRA-WWCB service is like the New York stock market on a local basis, an exchange that carries thousands and thousands of transactions and doing an intelligent job for the home-seller and some buyer who are the people they serve.

Farmington Community Has Everything One Needs

"Welcome to Farmington the Home of Olympic Champion Rex Cawley".

That's what the roadside sign says when people cross the boundary into the Farmington community.

Farmington is more than that, however.

Including the City of Farmington, Farmington Township, and the Villages of Quakertown and Wood Creek Farms the community has a present population of more than 42,000.

It includes all the necessary things that make up a community. Churches, recreational facilities, shopping centers, schools, a library, and easy access to expressways. Hospitals, universities, museums and live theatres are all within minutes either to located within Farmington or in the surrounding area.

Added to all this the original boundaries of the Farmington School District.

Both systems support elementary, junior high and senior high schools. In addition there are parochial school facilities available in the community. There is a Lutheran elementary school, two Catholic elementary schools and two Catholic high schools—one of which is an all girls school conducted by the Sisters of Mercy.

From April 1, 1960 and July 1, 1965 Farmington Township experienced a population increase of 6,574 and the City's population rose 2,419.

As of July 1 the Township's population reached 32,100 while the city number 9,300 people within its boundaries.

At the same time the Village of Quakertown's population was placed at 820, while 820 resided in the Village of Wood Creek Farms. Total population for the community in 1965 was 42,840.

Questions and Answers on Mortgages

WHAT is meant by mortgage discounts? A mortgage is "discounted" when it sells for less than the principal amount of the mortgage. Example, a $10,000 mortgage which sells for $9,800 was discounted $200, or 2%. This $200 is the "mortgage discount."

Similarly, if a $10,000 mortgage were discounted 5%, the discount would be $500.

WHY is it necessary to discount mortgages? The Federal Government controls the interest rate on FHA and VA mortgages. At present, the authorized interest rate is less than the going or prevailing rate of interest.

Therefore, VA and FHA mortgages at these low fixed interest rates are less desirable than other investments such as bonds or conventional mortgages which yield a higher return. The only way a mortgage may be made equally desirable is to "discount" it.

DO conventional loans have to be discounted? Almost never, because the interest rate is flexible and can be varied to meet the requirements of investors or those having or controlling savings.

WHO PAYS the discount on FHA and VA loans? Where a new FHA or VA loan is placed on a piece of property, so that the seller can get cash for the property, the seller pays the discount.

WHY SHOULD it be the seller who pays the discount on FHA and VA mortgages? Under Federal law, the buyer is prohibited from paying the discount. Since the discount is a means of raising the effective interest rate or yield, if the buyer were allowed to pay the discount, he would be paying higher interest than the law allows.

In other cases he may feel he knows the policy of his investors so well, he may close without a firm "take-out" and depend on his ability to sell the loan later. Sometimes, therefore, he may make a profit or take a loss. He tries at least to break even.

WHAT IS the amount of the discount? The amount of discount is controlled by the difference between the fixed rate chargeable on FHA or VA mortgages, and the "going" rate as established by conventional mortgage rates. Contact lending institutions for current quotations.

WHAT ABOUT discounts on purchase money mortgages? Individual sellers of real estate sometimes sell their property or equity in their property, and take back, controlled by the difference between the fixed rate chargeable on FHA or VA mortgages, and the "going" rate as established by conventional mortgage rates. Contact lending institutions for current quotations.

Livonia Planners Set Sights High On Building Code

So you are thinking of moving to Livonia? A few unique types of living you can find in Livonia. Livonia planners believe natural drainage courses and flood plains should be preserved and where possible incorporated into park and recreation sites. Livonia planners believe natural drainage courses and flood plains should be preserved and where possible incorporated into park and recreation sites.

Livonia is fortunate to have a Mayor who is also in real estate, Harvey Moeckel. He has constantly pushed, regardless of politics, to settling new and higher standards in the building of new homes.

Underground wiring, wider streets, larger lot sizes are a few of the new restrictions imposed in Livonia. Livonia City Planning Commission and Council have provided a plan for a neighborhood park in each square mile of the city, to be located adjacent to a school. The Council has already acquired several of these parks.

In addition to this, Livonians have at their doorstep a portion of the huge Wayne County Park System which runs along Edward Lines Drive for more than three miles in the southwest section of Livonia.

Want to Hike Livonia Offers Home Value? Fix Wisely

When you are looking for a home you can ask your realtor to direct you to a traditional "grid" pattern; the "cluster plan" or the "contour pattern." Livonia has all three and is just now developing its "cluster" plan.

The "grid" pattern is sections divided into rectangular blocks and lots established in the typical city street plan. Though simple to survey it ignores topography and results in somewhat drabness and monotony and in the automobile age provides no protection against the invasion of traffic into residential area.

Originally conceived for small blocks and lots with wider lot zoning and proportionate cost of streets and utility improvements becomes excessive.

The Cluster pattern is a modern adaptation of an old and tested concept. It combines economy and practicality with beauty and variety. Zoned density is maintained but the permitted number of lots are clustered in a more delightful way. Lots are designed to meet home buyer's preference for moderate size, but sharing center ground for its own park. The shared open space offers unique opportunity for community recreation facilities such as swimming pools, children's play area, ball field, small putting greens, etc.

A Realtor knows what buyers are looking for, what the current fads are. He can tell you how, and whether to redecorate.

Here Are Six Ways Realtor Can Aid A Buyer

Steps in purchasing a home-and how your Realtor can help you.

1. Space for living--your Realtor will show you a home big enough to take care of the present and probable future needs of your family, based on your own desires.
2. Economy in construction--size is a relative factor. In some cases, spaciousness is essential. In others, utility and space-saving devices make a compact home seem more livable than a floor plan more significant than the floor plan.
3. Style and construction--please and appropriateness for the site are the things that determine the "right" style of architecture for any home and your Realtor will show you one or more that are suitable. And whatever the style, he will find out the facts about construction, which will enable you to be sure that the home you buy will give long service and maintain its resale value.
4. Good location--by whatever standards you judge "location," whether you mean convenience to schools, church and bus lines, or if you are more concerned about the attractiveness of the neighborhood or a good address--your Realtor can find you a home that

Builder Sees New Home Prices on Increase in '66

"All these factors lead to increased costs for the home builder and also lengthen the period of time needed to build a home," Zisette amplified by saying that whereas in 1963-64 it took from 45 to 60 days to build a new home once the basement was in, today it takes from 120 to 150 days.

He concluded by pointing out that "since Jan. 1, 1965, the prices of homes built by my firm have gone up as much as $3,000."

What Is A Realtor? Here Are Qualifications

A Realtor is a member of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, one of the largest professional and trade associations in the nation, to qualify for membership in NAREB, a real estate broker must demonstrate his professional ability, must be approved by the other members of the local board and, finally, subscribe to the rigid Code of Ethics of the National Association.

The primary goal of the Realtor under this code is to keep the interests of both the buyer and the seller uppermost in mind during a transaction.

The National Association of Real Estate Boards was founded in 1908 in Minneapolis and now maintains offices in Chicago and Washington, D. C.

Realtors are kept up to date on changes in real estate law, mortgage rates, buying trends and other business factors through publications of the Associations professional staff, which maintains close contact with developments throughout the country.

Answers to Mortgage Discount Queries

MORTGAGE DISCOUNTS

In recent years the Federal Housing Administration has received an increasing number of questions concerning mortgage lenders' practices of charging discounts or, as they are sometimes called, "points" of finance "fees."

Because of the widespread interest in this matter, this informational statement has been prepared.

WHAT ARE DISCOUNTS?

Discounts come into existence because of the problems investors face in choosing ways of investing their money. Everyone who has a savings account with a bank, a savings and loan association, a building and loan association, or a life insurance policy or a share in a retirement or pension fund probably is an investor to some degree.

Most investors attempt to place their money in loans or investments which will produce the greatest amount of income, usually called "yield," in addition to a high yield, investors are concerned about the safety and liquidity of investments. Notwithstanding the fact that the yield from mortgages may be lower than the yield from other investments, investors usually want to keep a considerable portion of their money in home mortgages.

At the same time, they attempt to match the yield which may be received from other investments such as high-grade corporate bonds. When the interest rates on home mortgages drop, investors will protect their deposits or policy holders, channel funds into loans which produce higher yields than low interest rate mortgages.

For example, assume that an investor has a choice of investing $10,000 in a high-grade corporate bond which will earn 6-1/2% or of investing $10,000 in a mortgage having an interest rate of 5%. The investor would favor the bond unless it is possible to buy the mortgage at a reduced price so that the 5% interest and the repayment of the $10,000 will give the same yield as the 6-1/2% interest on the bond.

(In computing yield, lenders generally assume that the average home mortgage will be paid in full in 12 years rather than the full term of the mortgage which may be 30 years or more.) Standard investment tables show that 5-1/4%

WHAT DOES FHA DO ABOUT DISCOUNTS

The law requires FHA to set ceilings on interest rates for FHA-insured mortgages. The current rate is 5% plus 1/2% which goes to the Federal Housing Administration.

Interest and the principal repayment will give a 6% return if the $10,000 mortgage can be purchased for $9,400, or 6% less than the amount of the mortgage. This difference is called discount or "points."

CAN DISCOUNTS BE PROHIBITED?

On two occasions Congress has required FHA to prohibit or control discounts on FHA insured mortgages. The primary effect of these controls has appeared to be to reduce the availability of mortgage money for persons who desire to buy homes, rather than to reduce financing expenses for the borrower.

In both cases, Congress repealed the law in order to encourage an increased flow of money to mortgage investments to stimulate construction of homes and to make home buying easier.

TO REDUCE DISCOUNTS?

In order to keep discounts to a practicable minimum, consistent with reasonable interest rates to borrowers and an adequate flow of money to FHA-insured mortgages, the federal government has taken a number of important actions in recent months.

Among these actions have been successive increases by the Federal National Mortgage Association in prices offered in secondary market purchases of home mortgages; reduction in the stock purchase requirements in connection with sales of mortgages to FNMAs; easing of regulations governing loans by Home Loan Banks to member institutions; and Federal Reserve System purchases of longer term Treasury issues in open market operations.

All of these actions serve to increase the supply of money available in the private money market for long-term investments, including home mortgages and thus discourages the charging of discounts or reduces the size of discounts.

Interest and the principal repayment will give a 6% return if the $10,000 mortgage can be purchased for $9,400, or 6% less than the amount of the mortgage. This difference is called discount or "points."

The regulations also permit an initial service charge not to exceed 1% or 2-1/2% if the lender makes advances during construction. These charges are intended to cover the lender's expenses in originating the loan.

Whether discounts are paid and in what amount are matters for negotiation between lenders and such charges would circumvent the purpose of interest rate regulation in a locality.

10 Good Reasons Why You Should Own Home

Following are some advantages of home ownership.

1. Always remember, your realtor is an expert who sees, studies and sells many homes each year. He can save you time and money--and give you satisfaction by judging important values of homes currently available.

2. Ten Reasons why the best social security number is the number of your home--

3. Security--the safe feeling that comes with ownership, and the knowledge that your home is a safeguard against inflation. If prices go up, so does the value of your property.

4. Investment--payments on your mortgage mean you are buying something, not just paying rent. You keep owning more and more.

5. Tax advantage--your real estate taxes and the interest on your mortgage or land contract are deductible when you figure your income tax.

6. Financial independence--more people have started on the road to financial independence through home ownership than in any other way.

7. Standing and credit--you are a

Community Activities Lure in Redford Twp.

A homeowner looks at many things when he goes to buy a home and of major concern is the kind of community in which he lives. What does Redford Township have to offer?

Plenty!

One of the largest townships in the United States from the standpoint of population (73,000 persons), Redford offers excellent schools, churches and enterprising organizations.

There are 34 churches, two public school districts and seven parochial schools.

Funds for improved police and fire protection, were approved recently by residents who are interested in their community.

The township library, located in the center of the 11-square-mile area, is presently undergoing expansion.

Recreation facilities include the Boys' Club, seven playgrounds, two tot lots, 23 softball diamonds, two football fields, and one lighted softball diamond.

Western Golf Club, highly rated by everyone as a private club, provides a golf course for those of the affluent society who like to indulge in this type of sport and meet with their friends for sociability.

Anyone who likes to participate in social activities can find friends in the active Parent-Teacher Organizations, the Jaycees and other service clubs, and the Chamber of Commerce.

Senior Citizens, rapidly coming into their own everywhere as a well-come and friendly organization, have some 200 members and meet regularly.

In the field of fine arts, there is the Redford Symphony and amateur theatrical groups.

These are but a few of the things that make a community a fine place in which to live and Redford has them.

NEW FHA 5% PER CENT SCHEDULE

Here is the new FHA amortization and insurance premium schedule which became effective Apr. 11. FHA points out the figures below do not include local taxes or hazard insurance costs.

Insurance limits of FHA are $50,000 for single-family dwellings, $92,500 for two- and three-family dwellings, and $97,500 for four-family dwellings. Where the mortgage is not the owner-occupant, the maximum mortgage amount is limited to 85 per cent of the owner-occupant amount. The monthly payments include principal, interest at 5% per cent, per annum, and 1/12 the first annual mortgage insurance premium at 1/4 per cent per annum.

UNRA Reports Home Sales Hit High in '65

Home sales throughout north-west Detroit and the western portions of Wayne and Oakland counties zoomed to highs during 1965, far exceeding the totals reached in any previous year, according to statistics compiled by the United Northwestern Realty Association.

The figures, just released by Everett J. Wilson, Milford Realtor and UNRA president, show that sales last year of residential properties multi-listed by the 1,400-member organization amounted to just over $133 million--up 45 per cent from the previous record set in 1964.

The UNRA cooperative listing service is the second-largest in the country--surpassed only by San Fernando Valley, California.

While the largest volume of sales was in the $10,500 to $15,000 price bracket, there has been increased demand for higher-priced homes, Wilson reported. Sales in the $15,000 to $20,000 were up 109 per cent from 1964; while sales in the over $20,000 bracket, percentage-wise, showed the greatest increase.

"Houses 10 to 20 years old were the most readily saleable, according to UNRA statistics," Wilson said. "Three-bedroom houses are more popular than those with fewer bedrooms, while brick construction is preferred to frame. Houses with basements are definitely more popular than those built on slabs or over crawl space."

How Realtor Can Aid You

Selling your house? A Realtor can help you set the right price. Find a buyer. Do a professional selling job. Negotiate effectively. Find financing for your buyer. Keep on top of the pile of details involved. Suggest highlights that make your house more saleable.

Virtually all sections of the city and suburbs served by the members shared in the rise, Wilson reported. Greatest increases in total number of houses changing hands occurred in the Garden City-Wayne-Inkster-Nankin area where 1,017 homes acquired new owners, as against 514 in 1964.

Other suburban areas registering large percentage increases were Livonia and Canton Township. Within the city, the largest increase in home sales occurred in the Puritan-to-Tireman, Livonia-to-Greenfield district.

During the year the UNRA brokers rang up 8,475 house sales, compared to 6,453 residential sales aggregating 91.4 million during 1964. The average selling price also was up 7 per cent--amounting to $15,460 per house in 1965, as compared with the $14,448 average selling price per house in 1964.

Property sales by members of the multiple-listing organization, who are also members of the Western Wayne-Oakland County Board of Realtors, provide the most comprehensive and reliable index to residential real estate activity throughout the metropolitan area, Wilson pointed out.

But Interest Rates May Go Up

Money Is Available for Home Buyers

Borrowers able to meet tighter terms for home purchases will find adequate funds in most sections of the country, although interest rates for conventional loans already about one-half percentage point higher than they were last September—will hold firm or rise during the next three months, according to the spring mortgage market study of the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

The report, prepared by the NAREB Department of Research for the Committee on Real Estate Economics and Research, notes also that the current decline in savings in thrift institutions, coupled with the heavy demand for money from industry for plant expansion, presents a grim tone to the outlook for potential home buyers and small businessmen.

The report is based on data submitted by a panel of 185 Realtors representing market areas throughout the country.

These experts reported that for an existing home in a good neighborhood, a charge of 6 per cent is common in 55 per cent of the nation, while 6 1/2 per cent is usual in 15 per cent of the country, 6 3/4 per cent is the common rate in 12 per cent, and over 6 3/4 per cent prevails in 4 per cent of the nation.

An interest rate of 5 1/2 per cent is average in 10 per cent of the areas and of 5 3/4 per cent or less in 4 per cent. The pattern of rates for conventional financing of new homes is relatively similar, with interest costs slightly lower in a few places, the report notes.

A comparison to six months ago shows the sharp rise, the report says. For a loan on an existing home, a rate of 5 1/4 per cent or less—more frequently 5 1/2 per cent—was common in 51 per cent of the areas, contrasting with 14 per cent today.

The report continues that average rates above 6 per cent were confined to 11 per cent of the areas six months ago. Currently, this share of the national market has nearly trebled and represents 31 per cent.

The relationship between demand for credit for home mortgage financing and the supply available for conventional loans has changed dramatically in recent months, the study of the mortgage market reports.

This stringency does not mean that funds are unavailable, but that applications in many areas exceed resources and that greater selectivity is being exercised.

Although few areas report a tight supply of funds for conventional home financing, the marked difference in accessibility is reflected in the high percentage of areas that have shifted from an ample to a moderate supply.

The supply of funds for conventional loans to purchase existing houses in good neighborhoods is ample in 49 per cent of the country, moderate in 42 per cent, and tight in 9 per cent.

In September, 1965, the supply was ample in 88 per cent of the country, moderate in 9 per cent, and tight in only 2 per cent. Financing for new home purchases has shown a similar pattern.

"Credit requirements have become more restrictive as applications for conventional home loans exceed the volume of capital seeking placement in the market," adds the NAREB report.

"In some areas lenders are described as having a 'wait and see' attitude as they continue loan approval to top credit risks. A more conservative view on maximum loan to value and greater security of applicants is rather general. Expectedly, the supply of credit for acquisition of an existing home in a neglected neighborhood has tightened and interest rates have risen, the survey reports.

Currently, an ample supply is limited to 20 per cent of the nation, compared with 43 per cent six months ago. Availability is moderate in 29 per cent, and tight in 45 per cent. In the remaining 6 per cent of the areas, funds are reported to be unavailable.

Interest rates continue to be predominantly 6 per cent in 39 per cent of the nation, often because of legal limitations. A charge of over 6 3/4 per cent is reported for 29 per cent of the country, a 6 3/4 per cent rate for nearly a quarter of the areas, and a 6 1/2 per cent rate is predominant in 8 per cent of the nation.

The report, which was based on data collected before the most recent increase in the FHA and VA interest rate, declares "the outlook for buyers and sellers whose transactions depend on government underwritten loans is less encouraging."

The February one-quarter per cent increase in the FHA and VA interest rate ceiling was insufficient to permit these mortgages.

Under Terms of New Law

GIs Now Eligible for Home Loans

Many Michigan ex-servicemen recently became eligible for liberal home loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration under a new law whose terms have received relatively little attention, according to Everett J. Wilson, president of the United Northwestern Realty Association-Western Wayne-Oakland County Board of Realtors.

Wilson was referring to the new GI bill signed into law last month, which makes between 3,500,000 and 4,000,000 post-Korean-War veterans eligible for VA home-loan guarantees.

The new law provides that veterans with more than 180 days of active military duty who were discharged from the service after January 31, 1955, have at least until March 3, 1976, to complete a GI home loan, Wilson explained.

Realtors--professionals in real estate who subscribe to a strict code of ethics as members of the local board and of the National Association of Real Estate Boards--

Livonia is a new city, it was created in 1950 in the postwar period of expansion and dispersion of industry from the City of Detroit. The rapid development of industry in 1948 and 1949 awakened the quiet agricultural area, attracted thousands of new residents, and forced improvements in local government.

The UNRA Has Exclusive "Multi-List"

"MULTI-LIST" is a registered name on file in Lansing for the exclusive use of the United Northwestern Realty Association. It is used to describe a unique function of the Association that results in quicker home sales at more favorable prices for clients who list their homes for sale with brokers who are members of the Association.

Here's how it works. Any member of the Association who receives a standard listing from a client wishing to sell his home is obligated to send complete information about this property to Association headquarters within 24 hours.

March Interest Rates Reach 3-Year-High

Average interest rates on conventional home mortgage loans in March hit the highest levels since early 1963, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board announced last week.

Contract interest rates on loans for the purchase of new single-family homes averaged 5.90 per cent in March, 5 basis points higher than in February, and highest since January, 1963, the Board said.

On loans for the purchase of existing homes, the average interest rate rose 4 basis points in March to 6.01 per cent, only 5 basis points below the high for the series established in December, 1962.

Pricing Your Own Home

... is no "do-it-yourself" exercise!

Especially in today's highly competitive market. Pricing your home is a fundamental that ALLEN Real Estate stresses. The value of your house is not what you think it is... or what the buyer thinks. It is determined chiefly by the location, the neighborhood and the current market. SO FIRST, YOU MUST GET IN LINE WITH THE MARKET.

That means realistic appraisal...

Charles Allen Jr., Livonian's ONLY Certified Appraiser will bring in his own "team" of qualified salesmen who will individually price your home and reach a fair consensus. If you were to price your own home and if it is above market value it would almost certainly remain on the market for several months... it will then become almost impossible to sell. Pricing and Selling your home is not an easy task. It should be left to the professional, the Realtor. Charles Allen will qualify your prospects and give your house maximum exposure; he is familiar with market conditions, zoning and financing, and finally he's the ONLY Certified Real Estate Appraiser in Livonia. If You Want expert advice call today.

Housing a little tight?

Your Real Estate Broker or Builder has the key!

When you ask your realtor, builder or home remodeler for Livonia National Bank financing, things happen fast. You get all (or any part) of these services:

Your choice of a conventional mortgage with up to 25 years to repay or an FHA mortgage with up to 30 years to repay. Home owners can have a conventional or FHA home improvement loan for up to $3,500.

Your mortgage payments can include your home insurance (from the agent of your choice), taxes and, of course, the principal and interest.

If you wish, we will make your monthly mortgage or home improvement payments for you from your Livonia National Bank personal checking account.

So if you want to stretch out and stretch those mortgage or remodeling dollars, too, ask your realtor, builder or remodeling dealer for Livonia National Bank financing. We'll get you out of that "sardine situation" fast.

Open Monday through Saturday until 4:30 p.m. ... 'til 6 p.m. Friday
