City Seeks Help in Appeal

Because of the importance of the case and the fact that more than 75 other cities may be affected, the City of Plymouth is asking the Michigan Municipal League to intervene in its appeal of Judge Victor A. Baum's ruling on the validity of the city charter before the Circuit Court of Appeals.

Commissioner Arch Vallier stated in making his motion, "to carry this case as far as we can. I am not too concerned about which side the other folks will take, but we should have the entire matter aired for the good of all concerned."

Sure, the Home Rule Act was written away back in 1909 or thereabouts and maybe some of the items need changing to meet modern times, but I see nothing to be gained in trying to make a big fuss about it. If the charter needs changing, let's change it."

By a narrow vote of 4 to 3, on Monday night, with Commissioners George Lawton, Jim McKeon and Robert Smith casting "nay" votes, the Commission also agreed to communicate with every city in the state that may be affected and provide them with a copy of Judge Baum's opinion.

RECEIVING AIR FORCE commendation medal for meritorious service as a Jet Engine mechanic in Thailand, is Airman 17C Donald Ackman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ackman, 9114 Oakview, Plymouth. A graduate of Plymouth High in 1962, Ackman enlisted for a four year stint. He is a former employe at the Chevrolet Spring and Bumper plant in Livonia.

Jaycees Urge Study Of Area Unification

There isn't any question about it—unification of the City of Plymouth, Plymouth Township, and perhaps some of the adjoining communities, is going to be one of the main topics at the second annual Leadership Conference on Saturday, April 8 at Schoolcraft College.

Centennial Chief Gets Assignment in Dallas

There was a noticeable quiver in Joe Tarantino's voice when he called to say "farewell" before taking off for his assignment in Dallas, Texas.

the General Chairmanship of the entire Centennial and set up a complete organization to handle the celebration.

Melvin Blunk Is Honored By Association

Melvin Blunk, assistant superintendent in charge of business for the Plymouth Community School District, has received the highest recognition of the Association of School Business Officials.

Executive Secretary Charles Foster notified Blunk he has attained the status of Registered School Business Administrator in the professional educational organization. In his letter, Foster wrote: "Your attainment of this professional status is a tribute to you and an honor to your school district."

One Hospitalized In Three Accidents

Three accidents in the Plymouth area during this past week brought minor injuries to three people and facial injuries to another.

the telephone garage on three trailers.

Allan "Lanny" Nairn, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Nairn, 1298 Sheridan, received facial injuries when the car in which he was a passenger collided with another car on Plymouth Road Wednesday at 10 p.m.

About 55 feet of fence on Ralph Garber's property on North Territorial Road was taken out at 3 a.m. March 11 by a car driven by Shirley Pratto, 41, of 49554 North Drive.

According to the Wayne County Sheriff's office, a car driven by John Singer of Westland was stopped on Plymouth Road, where Singer was trying to turn left into the drive to the Plymouth Bowl.

The Pratto car ran off the road and struck the fence. Mrs. Pratto received first aid and X-rays at St. Mary Hospital and was sent home.

A car driven by Gerald Rukenbrod of Clawson, in which Nairn was a passenger, collided with the rear of Singer's car. Estimated speed of the Rukenbrod car, sheriff's officers said, was 55 miles per hour.

Also in the car was Kerry McCann, 17, of 49554 North Drive.

Nairn and Rukenbrod were taken to St. Mary Hospital, Livonia, where Rukenbrod was given first aid and sent home. Nairn was discharged Sunday.

A splicer for Michigan Bell Telephone Co. escaped serious injury Friday morning when his truck was struck by a train of the Chesapeake & Ohio railway.

Rollin Gaab, 28, of 50515 Orangelawn, drove his telephone company truck onto the C & O track at Joy Road in Canton Township. The sun's angle into the windshield prevented him from seeing the warning signal at the track, the sheriff's officer reported.

In his report, the officer recommended that arms or yellow lights be installed at the crossing.

Gaab escaped with minor face lacerations, while his truck was completely destroyed. Wreckage from the truck was brought back to

Council Adopts Tough Liquor Permit Policy

Members of the Plymouth City Commission aren't in a mood to award liquor-by-the-glass permits freely. They indicated this Monday night when they denied a petition from Robert Gaddis for a license at the Hotel Nelson on N. Mill street and officially objected to the renewal of a beer and wine license for the operators of the Toll House.

furthermore, I believe that during the campaign in support of the liquor-by-the-glass issue, the newspapers indicated the Commission could see no need for more than the three licenses (beer and wine) currently in use. I believe we should go along with that feeling since many of the electors voted in favor on the strengths of those statements. "Certainly we have the right to issue six on the basis of population but I personally

The Toll House permit, one of three issued by the city several years ago for the sale of beer and wine, has been inactive for more than three years. On that basis, the Commission voted to object to the Michigan Liquor Control Commission for a renewal.

Robert Lorion, acting as counsel for Harold Kelso and Burton Miner, requested a delay in the city resolution until the last day of April—a date given to the pair by the MLCC to secure a new site and have it approved by the Commission's investigators.

Committee to Explain Planning What Is Story Of High School?

The High Planning Committee of Plymouth has decided, in order to better inform our citizens, to write a series of articles explaining what has been done over the past months in educational planning.

We hope to clear up misunderstandings concerning High School #2 and to answer such questions as: "Just what kind of gym facilities are being planned?" "How will the new library differ from the present one?" "Will we use electronic aids in the language rooms?" "How do we compare to other schools?" and any other questions citizens would care to contribute. If you have questions please send them to the editor of the Observer and they will be answered in our future articles.

In the summer of 1966 a citizens' facility committee did extended research on the present school facilities of Plymouth and completed a projected study of the population of Plymouth for the next five years. The results indicated that by 1969 the Plymouth student population would have increased to such a degree that it would be imperative for our school district to have a new high school.

He received a supporting vote from Commissioner Arch Vallier and 6-1 favorable vote.

Gaddis, who took over the landmark hotel two years ago, reported through his legal counsel that he had made numerous improvements and that he planned on installing a cocktail lounge if granted the license.

An educational planning committee made up of three parts was set up to study our needs and make recommendations. It included a citizens' review and advisory committee, made up of 17 local interested citizens: John Barnes, Don Carlson, John DeMott, Art Garrish, Dr. A. E. Gulik, Don Bidwell, Wesley Kaiser, Wilma Newton, Carl Pursell, Rev. Peter Schweitzer, S. Walter Scott, Esther Sprengel, Clinton Stroebel, Cal Strom, Fricie Watts, Terry West and Chairman Don Tripp.

Commissioner Vallier spoke against the license and made a motion to deny in order to open the door for discussion. He received support from George Lawton.

"I see no benefit in this application," said Vallier.

The other parts of the whole committee included an executive committee made up of the superintendent, assistant superintendent, architect, and four members of the Board of Education. A staff steering committee was made up of outstanding teachers from all the different areas taught in the high school.

Commissioner Vallier spoke against the license and made a motion to deny in order to open the door for discussion. He received support from George Lawton.

"I see no benefit in this application," said Vallier.

Dr. Charles Wells, a nationally known educational consultant from the Wayne County Intermediate School District and Mr. Henry Haberkorn of O'Dell, Hewlett and Luckenbach were named as advisors to the project.

These committees met and worked together for hundreds of hours over the fall and winter on Saturdays and evenings. The citizens gave invaluable advice while acting as

Faithful Observe Tre-Ore Services

Plymouth's traditional Union Tre-Ore services, sponsored by cooperating churches in the community, will be held on Friday (Good Friday) from 12:15 p.m. to 2:45 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church, 701 Church Street.

As is the Tre-Ore custom, the services will be divided into three periods with the first from 12:15 to 1 p.m., the second from 1:05 to 2 p.m. and the third from 2:05 to 2:45 p.m.

The services are open to all who care to attend and represent many faiths and denominations within the community Christian Family.

While there was some criticism at the start Joe fought the idea through until it was officially adopted as the project to be presented to the City Commission.

Meanwhile, with the work of the Steering Committee finished, he was elevated to MINOR FACIAL CUTS were the only injuries to the driver of this Michigan Bell Telephone Co. truck, which was struck by a C & O train Friday morning at Joy Road in Canton Township. Rollin Gaab, the driver, of 40515 Orangelawn, Plymouth Township, was taken to St. Mary Hospital in Livonia and released the same afternoon.

Survey Shows Drinking Drivers Caused Most Fatal Mishaps

Almost half of all drivers involved in Michigan's 2,284 fatal traffic accidents in 1966 had been drinking, and were driving too fast on two lane roads at night within 25 miles of home, in cars whose average age was 3.2 years with no mechanical defects and no seat belts, Automobile Club of Michigan's General Manager Fred N. Rehm revealed.

Driver failure was primary cause of 89 percent of the deaths.

These facts emerge from a 61-page study, titled "How To Bring More Back Alive," which projects a representative 20 per cent sample of Michigan's 1966 deaths.

Triple A safety analysts visited scenes of 435 traffic deaths in July, August and over Memorial Day weekend and analyzed them plus driver's records and what drivers had been doing immediately prior to accidents.

Other facts the study reveals:

- The point system identifies bad drivers but does not protect the rest of society by taking them off the road. The 10 worst drivers involved in the 363 accidents studied had a lifetime average of 44 points each, 11 times more than the average drivers gets in his lifetime. They had an average of eight speeding or reckless driving convictions.
- Four per cent of the drivers involved had a total of 35 suspensions, with one suspended eight times. But nearly 20 per cent of drivers whose licenses are suspended or revoked get suspensions modified by appeal boards or the courts.

"Any driver who has over 12 points in any two-year period is headed for a serious accident," Rehm said. "His chances of being involved in a fatal accident are almost eight times greater than the average driver. Secretary of State figures show the average driver has four points and one accident in his lifetime."

"Our investigators, who are not auto engineers, could find no evidence that vehicle defects played a significant role as accident causes," Rehm said.

Camp Fire Girls Plan Mall Party

Camp Fire Girls from WauNoSu District will hold their 57th Birthday celebration at the Livonia Mall on Saturday, April 8, from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. The theme for this year's celebration is based on the National Camp Fire Girls annual project "Spot-Light the Creative Arts."

Working Group displays depicting Camp Fire Girls four program levels (Blue Birds thru Horizon Club) will turn the Livonia Mall ablaze with activity, ranging from Indian dancing, clay molding to science exhibits and group singing.

Robert Chatham of the Mall and Seymore Goldberg, of Crowley's, are working closely with the groups and leaders to insure a lively display.

A feature of the celebration will be 12" by 18" pictures which the Blue Birds through Horizon Club girls have done using a variety of mediums. Judging of these works of art will be at 3:30 p.m.

Following the Birthday Celebration these pictures will be donated to the following institutions to brighten up their walls: Plymouth State Hospital, Presbyterian Village, Mt. Carmel Hospital, Providence Hospital and Fairlane Convalescent Home.

They could find only one bald tire that may have contributed to severity of an accident, but could not have caused it. Tire defects were found on six cars, along with one light and one brake defect.

"Old cars—the kind that look unsafe standing still—were in a surprisingly small minority," Rehm said. "Average of the cars was three years and three months, with less than seven per cent 10 years or older. Only 13 per cent of the cars checked had seat belts, and in only two cases were they used."

• Fifty-five per cent of the deaths occurred in 12 counties: Wayne, Oakland, Genesee, Macomb, Saginaw, Ingham, Lenoir, Calhoun, Kent, Livingston, Ottawa and Allegan.

"This was in spite of the fact that our analysis occurred in July and August plus Memorial weekend, when counties north of a line from Bay City to Muskegon had their heaviest vacation traffic," Rehm said.

• Even in Michigan's peak tourist months, the area within 25 miles of home is by far the most dangerous. Eighty-two per cent of the drivers involved were within 25 miles of home, not on vacation. Only two per cent were on vacation and more than 25 miles from home.

• Some basic law violation was involved in 89 per cent of fatalities, with speed too fast for conditions most common. Others including driving to left of center, failure to yield right of way, running traffic signals, disregarding stop signs and improper turns.

• Many motorists misunderstand Michigan's basic "what ever is safe and proper" speed law, for many apparently presumed incorrectly that they could safely go the statewide limit of 65 day-time, 55 at night, on any unposted two-lane county road.

Nearly 70 per cent of the fatalities occurred on two-lane roads, 41 per cent of them at speeds too fast for conditions. Only 4,000 of 24,000 miles of two-lane county roads have been studied scientifically to determine their speed capabilities.

The speed problem is indicated by the fact that while total accidents decreased by 2.7 per cent in 1966, deaths increased 7 per cent and injuries increased 3.5 per cent. "We feel this is due to high speeds on two-lane roads," Rehm said.

Largest single accident type was single-car ran off road accidents (34 per cent) followed by two-car collisions (31 per cent).

• An even 20 per cent of drivers at fault were between 16 and 20. Nearly 16 per cent were between 16 and 18—far out of proportion to the 8.9 per cent of drivers it is estimated they represent. In addition, 50 per cent of teenagers involved in fatalities had been drinking.

• Most dangerous hour was 6 p.m. with 10 per cent of the accidents. Next was 1 a.m. with nine per cent, followed by 2 a.m. with 7 per cent. Sunday was most dangerous day, followed by Saturday, Friday and Monday. Presumably these days experienced highest traffic volumes also.

• At least half of the accident reports examined were incomplete to some degree. Many lacked any information on drinking condition of the drivers.

• One out of 17 of the accidents involved motorized bikes or cycles, while they represent only one out of every 65 vehicles on Michigan roads. While the number of motorized cycles and bikes on Michigan roads is increasing at an unprecedented rate, the number of accidents and fatalities involving these vehicles is going up nearly 50 per cent faster.

The vast majority of cycle drivers who died were under age 25. Average age was under 21, ranging from 14 to 31.

Almost all occurred on week-ends. "Driver failure, due to bad habits, and attitudes, alcohol, ignorance, poor judgment, inexperience or a combination of these, underlies most fatal accidents," Rehm said. "The disproportionately large number of high point drivers involved is evidence of the role of habits and attitudes,

"Speed too fast for conditions, combined with the large number of single-car accidents, the extremely high percentage of fatalities on two-lane roads and the large number of teenage drivers, indicate poor judgment, ignorance of the basic speed law, driver fatigue, inattention, bad habits and attitudes and or alcohol," Rehm said.

Schoolcraft Board Ok's Contracts For 32-Room Arts Structure

Trustees of Schoolcraft College have authorized the awarding of contracts totaling $1,009,284 for the construction of a 32-classroom liberal arts building on the campus.

The board's action was made contingent on receipt of a letter of concurrence from the Office of Housing and Urban Development which administers federal funding agreements for college buildings. Schoolcraft received a federal grant of $502,401 for the project.

The low bids on the 39,400 square foot building were below pre-bidding estimates of the project architect, Ralls-Hamill-Becker, of Livonia.

Contracts were authorized to Felker Construction Co., Detroit, with a low bid of $585,850 for general construction; Evans Plumbing & Heating, Inc., Southfield, on a low bid of $259,580 for mechanical work; and to J. Propes Electric Co., Livonia, with a low bid of $163,824 on electrical work.

Construction is expected to begin in mid-April and the contract calls for completion in 450 constructive calendar days. The building is scheduled to be ready for the start of classes in the fall of 1968.

It will include 32 classrooms, a lecture hall-theater to seat 170, and offices for 44 faculty members. It will bring to eight the number on the campus.

In addition to the federal construction grant, funding of the building includes a state contribution of $219,614. The local share of the cost was included in a $3,000,000 bond issue sold by the Board of Trustees last fall.

A total of 29 contractors bid on the project, 10 each in the general construction and mechanical trades and nine on the electrical work.

Other general contract bids were: Schurrer Construction Co., Pontiac, $589,085; J. V. Moriarty Construction Co., Inc., Detroit, $607,700; F.H. Martin Construction Co., Detroit, $608,600; Lerner-Linden Construction Co., Detroit, $629,980; Armstead Construction Co., Dearborn, $643,115; A. J. Anderson Construction Co., Harper Woods, $655,470; J. A. Ferguson Construction Co., Farmington, $665,600; F. W. Markward Co., Inc., Detroit, $665,700; and Pinkert Construction Co., Inc., Birmingham, $722,500.

Other mechanical bids were: J. D. Naylor & Sons, Inc., $261,426; Standard

Plumbing & Heating, Inc., River Rouge, $264,500; Griffin Bros., Inc., Southfield, $269,821; Zeni & Maguire Co., Detroit, $272,730; Wilbur N. Williams, Inc., Detroit, $278,222; Brady Plumbing & Heating Co., Detroit, $279,900; Carl Bartone & Sons, Grosse Pointe Farms, $280,000; J. W. Rewoldt Co., Southfield, $286,798; and Allen Briggs Plumbing & Heating Co., Inc., Oak Park, $292,000.

Other electrical bids were: Cates Electric Co., $183,833; Gilles Electric Co., Livonia, $188,445; County Electric Co., Taylor, $197,315; Hans Hansen, Livonia, $202,732; Shaw Electric Co., Livonia, $205,200; L. L. Johnson Electric, Inc., Farmington, $222,190; Jones-Sherman, Inc., Detroit, $231,541; and Mays Electric Co., Wayne, $272,344.

Livonia Trio Faces Trial In Conspiracy

A Livonia couple and their 25-year old son have been bound over to the Oakland County Circuit Court on the charge of conspiracy to murder. If convicted, maximum sentence for the trio would be life imprisonment.

Ordered to stand trial on the charge are: Mr. and Mrs. John V. Sorna and Jules V. Sorna. All three reside at 20224 Purlingbrook, Livonia.

Farmington Township Justice of the Peace Bryon D. Walter bound the three over following a pre-trial hearing in the Township Justice Court.

The three are charged with contacting a Detroit factory worker, Burt Davis, and arranging for the murder of Mrs. Victoria Gogates. Mrs. Gogates is a key witness against the younger Sorna in a holdup of Paul and Vic's Market, 28734 Grand River, Farmington Township on Nov. 21. A total of $35 was taken in the robbery.

Davis took the stand at the examination and stated that Jules Sorna met him in the Eagle Bar, 17199 Dequindre, Detroit, and told him that "you look right for the job I have in mind."

Davis said that he had never seen Jules before and was introduced by an "acquaintance" in the bar.

"Burt, you've got to help me. I don't want to die," Davis quoted Sorna as saying. "I want to spend what time I have left with my family watching TV." Sorna was reported to have said and added that the Gogates woman was the only person who could identify him.

Davis said that he contacted the Detroit police who referred him to the Farmington Township force.

On Sunday morning, Davis said that he visited the Sorna home and was witness to several conversations between the son and his parents. According to Davis, John Sorna talked with him for a few minutes in the kitchen and then left saying he was going to work on his income tax.

Following a trip to Farmington Township to show Davis the market, and two stops where the younger Sorna said he would try to obtain some money, Davis and Jules returned to the Sorna home.

During this time the mother, Mrs. Francis Sorna, tried to talk Jules out of the idea. "I guess you're right and you know best," she is reported to have replied when Jules told her that is was the "only thing to do."

Mr. and Mrs. Sorna are free on $15,000 personal bond each, while Jules is being held in the Oakland County Jail in lieu of $50,000 bond.

The pre-trial examination on the armed robbery charge of the market is scheduled for March 31 in the Justice Court.

Attorney for the Sornas is Murdock Herzog, who has offices in the Penobscot Building. Justice of the Peace Bryon D. Walter said that Herzog was not a court appointed attorney, but had been hired for the defendants.

SHOWN ACCEPTING a new three-year term as President of the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council is Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing, 12619 Beacon Hill Court. Also honored at the annual election ceremonies, in Ann Arbor, was Mrs. Harry Crooks, of Ann Arbor, for 17 years of volunteer service. The Huron Valley Council includes 9,653 Girl Scouts with 2,500 volunteer workers.

Handicapped League Takes Over Sheltered Workshop

The Community Opportunity Center, which served as a workshop for adult retarded in Livonia, Redford Township, Plymouth, Clarenceville and Northville, has been taken over by the League for the Handicapped.

Announcement of the move was made by President William Green Monday who indicated the League had taken charge a week ago but the formal release was held up pending information from the State Department of Mental Health which is financing a portion of the project.

The COC was started two years ago with the support of groups in each of the five communities. It had boosted its work load from as few as five workers to as many as 25 but the financial burden was becoming greater each year.

Thus, when the League of Handicapped and the Mental Health Department indicated they would take over the operation, the COC Board agreed with the understanding it would function in an advisory capacity for one year before officially dropping out of the workshop operation.

Officials of the Mental Health Department indicated the operation of the adult work activity center is being funded by a grant from the Michigan Department of Mental Health, division of Mental Retardation.

The Department assumes the full cost of operating the program which presently has a maximum number of 20 approved for the COC building—the old Newburg School at the intersection of Ann Arbor and Newburg Roads in Livonia.

The operating costs for the program, reimbursed entirely by the Department of Mental Health, includes the building rental, transportation, meals, supplies and equipment and staff members.

The League and the Mental Health Department furnish all supervisory personnel with the result that Director Ernest Moran, who had served in that capacity since opening day, resigned. Moran is looking at positions in Ann Arbor and Saginaw.

The funds for the project will be provided to the community through a contract between the Michigan Department of Mental Health and the Detroit-Wayne Community Mental Health Services Board. The Detroit-Wayne Board then sub-contracts with the League for the Handicapped to provide the services.

The League is an agency of the United Foundation and receives $200,000 from the UF to carry on its work. It has built up work contracts to $1.5 million and aids more than 2,000 handicapped annually.

It has branches in Wyandotte, Detroit, Northville, Ferndale, Livonia and in Macomb County.

Name Wasung Acting Manager Of State Fair

Cass J. Wasung has been named acting manager of the Michigan State Fair. He will direct the plans for this year's Fair, Aug. 25 through Sept. 4.

Walter A. Goodman, general manager since August, 1961, has agreed to remain as a consultant until he formally resigns.

The announcement was made by B. Dale Ball, director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Wasung, 49, has been assistant manager and controller of the State Fair since June, 1950. During that time he has served as acting manager for four periods during change-over of managers.

Goodman told the Michigan State Fair Authority in January that he would not be available for the 1967 State Fair and that he would resign in the near future.

During Goodman's tenure the State Fair enjoyed its most successful years.

You'll Pay More For Overseas Mail May 1

An increase in international surface and airmail rates averaging 13 per cent will go into effect May 1 to help offset a current operating deficit of about $16 million annually in International Postal Service.

The increase will not apply to mailings for members of the Armed Forces overseas. Domestic postage rates are applicable to mail addressed through APO's and FPO's.

The changes in rates were first proposed in the January 14, Federal Register, giving interested parties thirty days to comment.

The confirmed rates appeared in today's Federal Register and will be put into effect by the Postmaster General under his administrative authority. No legislative action is needed.

Comments dealing with increased rates for magazines clarified mailing problems of publishers. Accordingly, as pointed out below, the originally proposed increase in rates in Canada were modified by delaying the effective dates. Highlights of the final action are:

- 1—Airmail letters to Central America and the Caribbean area will be increased from 13 cents per half ounce to 15 cents.
- 2—Airmail to the rest of the Western Hemisphere will remain at 15 cents per half ounce, except for Canada and Mexico.
- 3—Airmail to Europe and Mediterranean Africa will be increased from 15 cents per half ounce to 20 cents.
- 4—Airmail letter rates to the rest of the world will remain unchanged at 25 cents per half ounce.

5—Aerogrammes and air post cards will be increased 2 cents each from 11 cents to 13 cents.

6—Items sent by air, other than letters and parcels, such as small packages, books, periodicals and other printed matter will be increased 10 cents per piece to all countries, except Canada.

8—Most printed matter, including publications, will be increased one cent per piece. For 2nd class publications to Canada only, the one cent increase will be deferred for six months to become effective November 1, 1967.

7—Most letters going by surface transportation to all nations (excluding Canada and Mexico) will be increased from 11 cents to 13 cents. Post cards will be raised from 7 cents to 8 cents.

Unification

The first organization to actually urge a study on unification of the two governmental bodies in the Plymouth Community.

The senior Chamber plans to make a recommendation for a similar study at the Conference but the Jaycees took the bull by the horns and passed the resolution, a week ago.

The resolution reads: "The Plymouth Jaycees urge the governments of the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township to engage the Citizens Research Council of Michigan or an equally qualified research organization to study the feasibility of unification of the Plymouth Community."

"We would like to see a study made so that the citizens of the community can make a logical decision concerning unification."

The Jaycees said there are several reasons why they passed the resolution. Some of the prominent thoughts were:

1. Studies are now being made in the Community concerning the feasibility of joint police protection, a joint incinerator, etc., and we feel that a complete study of all phases of the Community is needed at this time.

2. Assuming that the Township will continue to grow, major new facilities certainly will be needed, but at the same time consideration of unification should be given because of the possibility of unnecessary duplication of facilities in the Community.

3. The Citizens Research Council of Michigan is a non-profit professional research group which has shown by several similar studies in other areas of Michigan that they are completely impartial. They have also demonstrated that they can do the study for a minimal amount of money.

Gets Promotion
James A. Hatcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hatcher, 399 Auburn, Plymouth, has been promoted to airman 2/C in the U.S. Air Force.

The airman, a graduate of Plymouth High School, attended DeVry Technical Institute, Chicago.

sounding board to reflect the attitudes of the community regarding school programs and facilities.

These groups listened to experts in the field of education including reviewing audio-visual material from the Educational Facilities Laboratories of New York. They visited outstanding high schools in Michigan including Stevenson in Livonia, Parkside in Jackson, Mott in Warren, John Glenn in Wayne, and Lakewood in Lake Odessa, studying the best qualities of each. They read and reported on the newest research in the different fields of education.

The committee as a whole then decided on five basic design concepts which they felt should be included in the new high school.

1. The new school should place emphasis upon the individual student.
2. The new school would be a comprehensive high that would include all phases of modern curriculum.
3. It would be an adaptable and convertible high school that could readily meet changing learning requirements that might come in the future.
4. It would provide an environment for learning that would try to meet all the students' needs including not only his preparation for becoming a useful member of society, but his psychological and physical needs as well.
5. It would be a facility that would be used by the entire community.

In the next few weeks the committee will explain in detail the results of their work over the last six months and their recommendations for the new high school.

ally am opposed to any more than three."

Lawton urged caution in issuing any additional permits. "We have used two in the downtown area," he stated, "We should be cautious in issuing licenses. After all this is a city of two square miles and not a sprawling community in which perhaps as many as six could be issued judiciously. We don't have the sites in our city for many taverns and I don't think we should issue them."

Although the application had received scant notice until the agenda was released, there were delegations on hand from the neighborhood, First Baptist Church and the First Methodist Church opposing the application.

James Tidwell, a resident of the area, presented petitions with the names of 75 citizens opposing as did Mrs. Martha Davis and George Conover.

After listening to the dissidents, the Commissioners wasted little time in denying the request.

Miss Dunning Renamed Head Of Credit Union

Margaret Dunning was re-elected president of the Plymouth Community Federal Credit Union in the annual meeting.

However, Kenneth Way replaced Philip Johnson as vice-president and Dr. Donald Davies was named secretary in two changes. George Lawton was renamed treasurer-manager.

Lawton, Walter Hagen, Kal Jabara, Clarence Moore and David Wood were elected to two year terms on the Board of Directors. Holdover Board members are: Miss Dunning, Johnson, Dr. Davis and Way.

ROUGH SHOVELING—Burying treasure in sub-freezing weather proved to be a formidable task for Livonia Mayor Harvey Moelke (left) and Ernie Epps, Wonderland Center promotional director. Unable to break frozen ground here, the pair found another spot where they buried a check worth $1,000. The money will be awarded to the person who finds it. Full details are to be released next week.

City-Wide Search For $1,000 Is On

A city-wide search for a Wonderland Center check worth $1,000 will be launched March 29, it was announced by Ernie Epps, promotional director for the giant Livonia shopping center.

Epps disclosed that the check has been secretly buried on vacant land near a well-known Livonia landmark. Upon discovery—and presentation to the Wonderland Center administration offices—the check will be properly endorsed and will be negotiable for $1,000.00 in cash.

A map, representing the "Isle of Livonia," has been prepared in jig-saw puzzle form. Cut into 42 pieces, the map should be completely assembled to aid in the hunt, Epps stated.

Pieces to the puzzle will be distributed by 42 of Wonderland stores supporting the contest.

"Before starting the search," Epps added, "treasure-seekers should visit all 42 stores to obtain all of the puzzle pieces. The pieces are free and no purchase is necessary," Epps added.

Those who assemble a complete map can then call a special telephone number for additional clues to the location of the money. Wonderland stores will begin distributing the puzzle-map on March 29. The secret telephone number will also be announced on this date.

"This is a bonafide check needing only the signatures of Wonderland officers to become negotiable," Epps said. "The person who finds it and presents it to our office will be $1,000 richer."

Michigan Bell Telephone has installed three trunk lines with an automatic answering device. The system, which will operate night and day, will answer each call with a recorded message revealing a clue concerning the spot where the $1,000 is buried.

John Ott Trial Set for April 5

John Lee Ott, 22, of 22750 Tulane, Farmington Township, will go on trial Wednesday, April 5 on the charge of second degree murder. The case will be heard in the Oakland County Circuit Court of Judge Arthur E. Moore.

It is alleged that Ott shot his long-time friend, Donald Garren, 32, of 21756 Whittington, Farmington Township, during a party at Garren's home. Police said at the time that the shooting grew out of an argument over a $50 debt which Garren owed Ott.

Ott stood mute at his arraignment on the charge in the Farmington Township Justice Court.

O'Neil Stresses 'Spending Reform'

James F. O'Neill, member of the State Board of Education, called for spending reform as well as tax reform at an area-wide conference on "Fiscal Reform for Quality Education" at the Ferndale High School, Thursday night.

He stated that spending reform should include a greater utilization of educational resources at all levels of education with serious consideration given to the year-around utilization of teachers and schools.

O'Neill stated that the year-around utilization of teachers and schools would not only save the expense but it would also improve the quality of education. He listed the following advantages:

- Reduction of property taxes which are at an all-time high and have reached the oppressive level generally and specifically in regard to our senior citizens with their limited income.

- Provide for the more efficient utilization of our educational resources which is a necessity considering the anticipated reduction in tax revenues as a result of the current 20 per cent reduction in the auto industry.

- Alleviate the critical shortage of teachers by utilizing those in the system on a twelve month basis rather than the present nine-month basis.

- Reduce the number of dropouts by preventing a child from getting hopelessly behind in his or her school work before they have an opportunity to make up their deficiency.

- Reduce juvenile delinquency by substantially reducing the 45 to 50 million children we literally shove out on the streets every summer. In addition, as a result of the reduced number of students out at any one time, those interested would have a greater opportunity to secure jobs.

- Provide for paying teachers more adequately as a result

Chandler Gains Practice Right

Charles W. Chandler of 14010 Cardwell, Livonia, was recently admitted to practice before the United States Patent Office.

Chandler, associated with the law firm of Hauke, Krass and Gifford, located in Lathrup Village, was formerly employed by American Motors Corp., and U.S. Rubber Company and served as an officer in the U.S. Navy.

He is an engineering graduate of the University of Utah and holds a law degree from the Detroit College of Law.

sult of being able to pay them on a twelve-month basis rather than the present nine-month basis.

O'Neill stated that the major objection to utilizing the teachers and schools on a twelve-month basis were the parents and children who prefer the traditional summer vacations.

He said that this tradition, established out of need when we were an agricultural society, is a luxury we can no longer afford.

He called on all those associated with education, and particularly school boards and administrators, to give this proposal objective and serious study.

He pointed out that this proposal would provide the taxpayers an alternative to increased taxes and assure them the most efficient as well as effective utilization of their resources.

City Tax Collections Reach 98.4 Per Cent

The City of Plymouth tax collections reached 98.4 per cent and 98.5 per cent for the school, county and community college by March 1 when tax rolls are turned over to the County Treasurer.

That was the announcement by City Treasurer Kenneth Way who reported city tax collections totaled $492,633.88 against a levy of $500,476.96 and the school, county and community totaled $1,460,736.41 against a levy of $1,513,178.69.

Schoolcraft Has Record Winter Student Total

From future airlines hostesses to future zoologists, a record number of students are enrolled in 45 specific curricula at Schoolcraft for the winter semester now underway.

According to official figures released this week by College Registrar Norman E. Dunn, winter semester enrollment reached 3,078 for the term which began Jan. 3, and which ends April 30.

Of the 3,078 students, most—1,952—are enrolled in the first two years of study programs leading to a bachelor's degree at a senior college. This group is enrolled in 21 specific curricula, including the professions, teaching, and liberal arts.

Another 1,126 students are enrolled in 24 different one- and two-year career oriented programs. The group includes 198 students in the college's new apprenticeship program, which this semester is providing classroom instruction in 13 different occupational areas.

Although the winter term enrollment reflected a normal second-semester drop-off in 1964-65 was slightly more than 13 percent. This year, dropoff had shrunk to less than 3.5 percent.

Dunn's figures also show 1,528 full-time students enrolled this semester, and 1,549 other students taking less than a full-time classroom load. The campus population includes 2,071 residents of the college district, and 11,007 who live outside the district but who take college level courses at Schoolcraft.

Statistically speaking, at least, the college is still a coed's delight: men students outnumber women students 1,937 to 1,141.

Most Schoolcraft students attend day classes. Dunn's figures show a day college enrollment of 1,610; an evening college enrollment of 1,185, and 283 others who attend both day and night classes.

Plymouth Twp. Dems Rap Levy

Acting on the premise that too much has been taken for granted and stressing a decided lack of communication between the various segments of the Plymouth Township government, the Democratic precinct delegates of the Township have gone on record as vigorously opposing the one mill levy for purchase of sites for a Township complex, fire stations and cultural and recreational facilities.

The action was taken recently at a meeting of the Plymouth-Northville Democratic organization which is headed by Robert Dwyer of Plymouth.

The Township delegates indicated they were disturbed by the conflicting comments of the supervisor in a recent metropolitan newspaper. Supervisor John McEwen was quoted by the reporter as saying "the millage will be used for a site for a township complex."

The statement came within a day or so of a story in the Observer in which Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes and Trustees Ralph Garber and Louis Norman had outlined plans for the purchase of numerous sites with a total of 144 acres.

In addition, the delegates pointed out that a Civic Center complex has never been fully discussed to their knowledge.

They stressed that with the controversy over the new route of the proposed expansion of M-14, it would be impossible to pick sites at this time. They stated the plans for the proposed complex had never been taken before the Planning Commission.

The delegates also rapped the Township millage proposal as a direct conflict with a rumored but not yet proposed millage request of the school district.

"More than that," said a spokesman, "Talking of two community centers will definitely damage any moves towards unification of the City and Township. We are definitely opposed to the Township millage request and will fight it vigorously."

Expect 350 to Attend Plymouth CC Banquet

Kenneth Mathewson, president of Metropolitan Fund, Inc. (Committee of One Hundred) will discuss "Metropolitan Citizenship" at the annual banquet of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, March 30 in the Mayflower Meeting House.

More than 400 are expected to attend the affair which has become one of the high spots of the late winter activities in the community.

Mathewson comes as a man of exceptional capabilities, to discuss the function of the Metropolitan Fund and how it directly concerns the Plymouth Community in the development of its future. President Carl Pursell plans a brief outline of the

Lake Pointe Homeowners Support One Mill Levy

The Lake Pointe Homeowners' Association, which has been critical of Plymouth Township Supervisor John McEwen's reassessment program, has gone on record in support of the passage of the proposed one mill levy for the purpose of acquiring and improving sites for a Township complex, fire stations, cultural and recreational facilities.

Originally, the group had indicated it would oppose the proposal on the grounds it was geared and earmarked for one site. When the Township Board amended the proposal to read "sites" instead of "site," the Association decided to support it.

In response to a communication from the Association requesting a statement from the Township Supervisor as to the standard being used to evaluate land, Association leaders report receipt of the following statement from McEwen: "Your questions as to standard of assessment value used as accomplished by the Bureau of Taxation and concurred in by the Supervisor. It was stated by Bureau personnel that there is no standard of assessment values inasmuch as each property is different."

Association officials report the Supervisor reported the following comparison of assessed valuations: Land from $2,263,050 to $9,762,080 for an increase of $7,130,030; buildings from $20,189,260 to $25,193,850 for a difference of $5,004,400.

Plymouth GI Wounded In Vietnam Battle

Lance Corporal Clayton L. "Bud" Kops, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton L. Kops, 366 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth, was wounded March 11 near Da Nang in South Vietnam.

He received a gunshot wound in the left thigh while on patrol. He has been receiving treatment at the naval hospital in Da Nang, where he was given the Purple Heart.

According to a telegram received by his parents from Gen. Wallace M. Greene, "his condition and prognosis were good."

In a letter dictated to a USO worker, Kops told his parents that he had been wounded by a B.A.R. (Browning Automatic Rifle).

"My leg is in bad shape," he said. "My doctor doubts if I'll regain full use of it again. Don't get the idea that I'm totally deformed or anything, but I'll probably be confined to a wheelchair, crutches, etc. for awhile. "I do feel pretty lucky to have gotten away with just this—it could be so much worse. Everyone's treating me real well here so the chances for recovery are great."

Closed Shops Good For Taxpayers, Employees?

EDITOR'S NOTE: Just like any other organization, newspapers are not monolithic. There is just as much disagreement on the staff of a newspaper as there is on the staff of any business or school.

It has been the policy of The Observer Newspapers to promote full and free discussion of the issues of the day in the editorial columns of the paper. This will continue to be our policy.

We further realize that there is often much room for legitimate disagreement, even among people who may write editorials. It is our policy to promote such disagreement and discussion, in the hope that full debate will in some way add to our readers' understanding of the issues.

Pro

Unions are here to stay, whether we like it or not.

In recent months, many public employees—teachers, firemen, policemen, hospital employees, and so forth—have chosen to be represented in negotiations with their employers by a bargaining unit, i.e. a labor union. The legal authority for this development, at least in the State of Michigan, seems quite clear.

What is needed, however, is to do our best to be precise when thinking about the emotionally charged issue of unions and, in particular, of unions representing public employees.

Among others, there are two key issues involved in question of unions for public employees:

1) Shall these unions operate under a union shop agreement or under some other sort of arrangement?

2) Does the existence of public employee unions substantially diminish the degree to which citizens and voters control the actions of our government units?

The pros and cons of whether all public employees in a certain area shall belong to a union are quite different than the effect union bargaining has on the principle of citizen control of local government.

Much sound and fury has come out of the issue of the closed shop. Briefly, the argument against such an arrangement is that no man should be required to join a union merely because he happens to be hired by a particular employer.

Expressed in slogans, this argument asserts that a man has a "right to work" without having to join a union.

The argument for a union shop is two-fold. First, it suggests that if a majority of employees choose to have a union take time and trouble to represent them during bargaining time, all employees should participate in the union and free leaders should be discouraged.

Second, many presidents of large corporations assert that labor relations are much better when there is only one union representing their employees than when there is more than one union or when there is a union together with a group of unorganized workers.

Now these arguments are interesting and important. But they have very little to do with the issue of whether or not having unions representing public employees will affect the degree to which the public controls the activities of local government units.

What, exactly, does a union representing public employees do? It represents, collectively, employees on matters such as wages, working conditions, vacations, time off, etc. These are precisely the same matters that are subject to negotiation between a non-unionized employer and an individual employee.

Unions may also assert that employers are not devoting enough time to full and fair collective bargaining or that a union shop should be the proper basis for employee bargaining.

But it is of extreme importance to realize that the subjects unions negotiate on do not include overall policy that shall be followed by public employees. Such policy is, quite properly, set by the duly elected city council or board of education.

Unions are not claiming, for example, that it should be the policy of the City of Livonia to run itself under a deficit financing system. Nor are they claiming that, for example, the Farmington school system must teach German in the high schools but not French.

—Philip Power

Con

Here are some recent developments in the negotiating tug-of-war, under the recent state law permitting public employees to organize and obtain sole bargaining rights:

Item: Taylor teachers have filed unfair labor practices, charging the Taylor Township Board of Education will only bargain with them 2.5 hours weekly.

Comment: This amount of time seems more than fair. Administrators and school board members have many other matters of business to transact.

Item: Labor leaders in Detroit are demanding a union shop and resort to arbitration to settle labor disputes, both provisions being forbidden by the city charter.

Comment: Government officials are chosen to conduct the business for the people—you and I—and to turn to a third party takes control completely away from our officials and from us. If we don't like what the officials are doing, turn the bums out, but the power is at the ballot box and not in abdicating responsibility. As to the union shop—this type of requirement again puts the power of running the government in the hands of a third party: the union.

Item: Article I of the recent labor agreement signed by the Peoples Community Hospital Authority says: "All employees holding a non-supervisory or non-professional classification... shall as a condition of employment, become and remain members in good standing of Local 79 of the Building Service Employees' International Union, so long as they hold such job classifications, on and after the 90th day following the date of their employment."

Comment: Local 79 President Richard Cordezz said the initiation fee is $15 and monthly dues are $4, amounting to $48 yearly. Between 800 and 900 authority employees are covered by this provision. Whenever this union-shop provision is questioned, the union is: Do you think the non-union employees should be freeloaders? Gail's line is: Nobody is forced to go to church, be a Mason, join a service club and yet many persons do so. Why? Because they feel the organization provides a benefit. A good union does not have to force anyone to join.

Item: Farmington City recently signed a contract with Local 1456 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO. City Manager John Dinan assured this newspaper that no city employee is required to join the union in order to hold his job.

Comment: Let us hope this is correct. It is contrary to the contract provisions AFSCME has been demanding and getting, in this area, and statewide. Municipalities and schools have been agreeing to require union membership or payment of union dues as a condition to holding a job.

As a final word: what is taking place today on the Michigan labor scene, relating to persons employed by the public, has a tremendous bearing on whether we citizens will retain the control of our governments or whether it will pass into the hands of labor leaders, chosen not by the public but by the union membership. If they are going to dictate terms of employment, then let the public have a hand in electing them. —Myra Chandler, Bill Gail

It's A Matter of Vision

Letters To Editor:

Protest Four Story Motel

Editor: Many of us in the Hillcrest-Elmira area in Section 35 are concerned about the proposed Holiday Inn motel development just north and east of us. A request for a change in zoning from C-2 to C-4 (multistory) at the last meeting of the Planning Commission, March 14, brought out the fact that the plans for this development have changed considerably from the original proposal, last year, when there was no objection from the abutting property owners. We are concerned that if the facts of the new proposal are not fully known to all the neighborhood, and fully considered by the Planning Commission or the Council, that the proposal may slide through under the impression that the neighborhood has approved it and that it will have no effect on the area.

We had no real objection to Mr. Hemminger's original proposal, which consisted, in general, of a two story building and a swimming pool at least two hundred feet from the nearest fence on the abutting R-1 property fence. This latest proposal has moved the whole development west about two hundred feet and has changed the building to a four story building. This whole development is to be squeezed into a narrow space so that one side of the building is very close to the east fence in back of the properties on Hillcrest, and the pool is about fifty feet from the north fence in back of the properties on Elmira.

This new plan is quite different than that approved by about nine resident owners last year. It will destroy the privacy of the neighborhood and deteriorate the property values.

We believe that Mr. Hemminger should go back to the neighborhood and interview the residents again and also include others who are now affected, because of the change in location. We hope that the planning commission will visit the site and evaluate the full impact of a high rise building near the property line, and we hope the Council will consider the loss in property values in the residential district.

There must be a better way to use this property and satisfy everyone. Mr. Hemminger showed us himself a much better way to do it. With a two story building at least two hundred feet away from the residential properties, with adequate landscaping, solid eight foot walls, well engineered area lighting, there could be no real objection. The appearance could be advantageous to the area, and with more room, possible expansions could be made, still without intruding on the privacy of the residents or deteriorating the investments of the home owners.

We hope that all interested, will show their interest and advise the Planning Commission and the Council.

Too Close To Homes

Editor: I would like to protest the proposed rezoning of land parcels 35C 1a and 35B from C-2 (General Business) to C-4 (High Rise Commercial Building Over 2 Stories in Height). A petition by H. A. Hemminger to rezone these parcels of land for a proposed Holiday Inn Motel was presented to the City Planning Commission Tuesday, March 14.

The proposed 4-story 120 unit motel as presented is to be located approximately 25 feet from adjoining residential property and would seriously affect the privacy and home property values of nearby home owners.

All the home owners of this area are opposed to high rise commercial buildings so close in to our homes.

A previous proposal for the same Holiday Inn motel was presented to the home owners last year consisting of two story units approximately 200 feet from adjoining residential property and was generally approved of by residents as presented at that time.

I hope the city officials who have the final decision on this petition will seriously consider what effect C-4 zoning and high rise multi-story motel type buildings so close to residential property will have upon nearby residents.

Robert W. Knittle
Livonia

Will Depreciate Value

Editor: This letter is written in protest of the rezoning of land tract 35 C-1-A and 35 B from C 2 to C 4.

This area is located immediately east of Devonshire Park Subdivision, and on it Holiday Inn is planning to build a four-story motel if the zoning change is approved.

I feel that any multiple story dwelling would not only dwarf the single story homes next to and near it but would also have a depreciating effect on their value.

May I quote Mayor Moelke from his article "Apartments or Single Family Dwellings" in the March 8th issue of the Livonia Observer "It is an axiom of real estate valuations that when land is artificially increased in value by means of rezoning, it derives its additional value at the expense of the property surrounding it."

"Land surrounding multiple family usually depreciates in value. The average single family homeowner does not want to live near an apartment project for very valid reasons."

This is the situation for residents of Devonshire Park Subdivision.

T. Tituskin
Livonia

Ed. Note: The proposed Holiday Motel is not an apartment concept such as the Mayor discussed.

Good Neighbors

Editor: Recently we had a bad fire in our home at 18404 Brady in Redford Township. We lost so much clothing and household goods and our neighbors were so very kind and generous in providing food, clothing and money to us at this bad time. I would like to thank them in The Observer.

A special thanks to the Horace Engler family.

Hurray For Mayor

Editor: Thanks to our fearless Mayor. Like Mayor Hubbard of Dearborn, may he go on to win many, many more elections.

You have to admire a man who, regardless of the consequences, will state his views; particularly on the hot issue that is currently being waged between the firemen and policemen's pay.

I only wish our elected Councilmen would exhibit similar courage, or is this asking too much?

OBSERVING the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER

If you ever looked into the piercing blue eyes of Representative Joseph J. Kowalski, particularly if you were arguing a point with him, you knew you were talking to a knowledgeable, knowing man. He will be missed in the House of Representatives—he will certainly be missed as "the whip"—I, for one, regret his leaving the scene.

LIFE GOES ON—and this week we might be one step closer to saving some who might be victims of drunk drivers—we might if the Civil Liberty lawyers that are thick as cream in Lansing, can see it my way.

An old Civil Liberty believer myself, I can't go along with their theory where the Implied Consent Bill is concerned.

The Applied Consent Bill, as you probably have read, automatically gives your consent when you apply for a driver's license, to be stopped if you are involved in any traffic violation or accident, and to have the Police demand, if they deem it necessary, a test to see if you are drunk while driving.

You have your choice of three testing methods: a blood, urine or breath test—or you lose your license. If you are not drunk, one of the above will prove it—and if you are, you deserve to lose your license—in my opinion.

Civil Liberty people are saying "invasion of privacy." There is no civil liberty that gives an individual the right to use a tool of destruction on other individuals as well as themselves. A drunk behind the wheel of a car is as much a tool of destruction as though he were carrying a keg of dynamite with the fuse lit.

The penalty if found guilty would be a suspension of his driver's license for a period of three months to two years.

Representative Donald Holbrook from Clare, (R), believes the Bill must include the provision the person must be arrested before any of the three tests be administered. Rep. Holbrook is chairman of the Judiciary Committee—and I think by requesting this amendment is trying to confuse the issue. All sorts of law suits could come out of false arrests. But an automatic test, if the police believe the driver is drunk, when a traffic violation or accident is involved, could be as automatic as "may I see your driver's license."

John Bennett of Redford Township is the author of the bill. I think it is a darn good one. It also has bi-partisan support. Both Secretary of State James Hare and Governor Romney are in favor of the Bill.

ANOTHER HAPPY THOUGHT—According to Daisy Wagenschutz, in the insurance business in Plymouth, tells me the Implied Consent Bill could pave the way for lowering insurance rates.

One bill, she says, would raise the insurance rates, and that is the Guest Bill—and hopefully it will be defeated. It is written so that any passenger involved in an accident may sue the driver of the car. Presently a passenger may only sue for gross negligence of the driver.

Can't you just imagine us becoming a state of single, car passengers, because the Bill does not even exempt members of a family from suing one another—and who would want to take the chance?

Particularly would this be true in the case of den mothers, brownie and scout leaders—and for that matter neighborhood chauffeurs to school, church and parties.

Supports "Y"

Editor: At its annual meeting Feb. 10 the board of directors of the Livonia non-partisan club unanimously voted to give its full support and endorsement to build a Livonia Family "Y."

The club urges all its members and friends to come forward and offer any assistance or donations of services or funds to this worthwhile cause.

The proposed Family "Y" center will have much to offer the youth of tomorrow which we so desperately need today. Any inquiries can be made through Ben Thomas, president of the club, and also vice president of the "Y." His number is GA 7-6729.

One St. Patrick's Day An Irishman Won't Forget

By W. W. EDGAR

ANOTHER St. Patrick's Day has been written into the pages of history and while no one knows whether the Patron Saint chased all of the snakes out of Ireland, a lot of unusual things have happened on the great Irish Day—March 17.

And no year goes by that I don't take a mental trip back to the Pennsylvania Dutch Country and live again some of the laughs we had with the Irish and some of the one-day sons of the Emerald Isle.

Years before we ever thought of such things as segregation in our schools or our neighborhoods in the rest of the land, we had it in the "Dutch" country. And it was on a voluntary basis—for the Irish always wanted to be by themselves.

So, it was that the Sixth Ward in the old home town was the "Irish Ward," where the sons of Old Erin ruled with an iron hand. And so firm was their hold on the area they were fearful of leaving "the ward" for fear the Dutch would launch counter attacks.

Smack in the center of the Sixth Ward was the Hibernia Fire Hall—the Irish capital of the Dutch Country. It was from the basement of this hall that many good Irish prize fighters graduated.

IN THOSE days, one of the famous saloons in the area was run by an upstanding Irishman, "Condy" McFadden—and his top bartender was a stocky little Irishman with a heavy brogue, named Paddy Sexton.

Paddy was a bit braver than the others in that he not only ventured from "The Ward," but he departed that section of the country to launch a real estate career in Detroit—and a fine career he had. He was the developer of many of the down river areas.

As Paddy became more affluent he got the urge to return "home," and show the folks—by his appearance—that he had made a success of his life and was now far removed from the ranks of the bartenders.

When could be a better time to make the return than on St. Patrick's Day—to join the parade, and he dreamed of having the time of his life. It was really to be the return of the Conquering Hero.

Finally the day came. Paddy timed his trip so that the train from Detroit would get him into the "Dutch" Country in mid-morning. He wanted to reach "The Ward" at just the right time to make a dramatic appearance in all of his finery.

HIS PLANS were successful—for a while. His train arrived on time. He greeted "The Dutchmen" at the railroad station. And then came the trip of a half mile over the "Irish Capital."

But Paddy never got there. Just as he entered the fringe area of the Irish stronghold, he heard the sirens of the fire engines. He stopped at the curb to admire the lads from "Hibernia No. 1," go racing by.

A lot of other folks had gathered at the corner and then, just as the "Hibernia" fire engine went racing by, Paddy shouted, "Oh, Gad, No," and, placing his hand to his forehead, he collapsed.

When he regained his pose he brushed his clothes, shrugged his shoulders, and said, "I've had enough. When I saw Jackie Max, a young Jewish fighter, driving the Hibernia fire apparatus, I knew things had changed. It is no place for me."

And off he went to the railroad station to await the first train to Detroit—never again to return to be "Irish Capital of the Dutch Country."

It was a March 17 he'll never forget.

Spring must be on the way.

The calendar says it. The Farmer's Almanack says it. The Tigers have started their exhibition games. The dirt roads in the area are fast becoming impassable and everyone seems to have a retarded case of spring fever.

Ergo, spring must be on the way.

This Sunday is Easter, which occurs in springtime. Housewives are beginning their spring cleaning.

Spring must be on the way.

Despite all these signs you can't convince me that spring is on the way.

It's not very wise to give way to pessimism, but I don't think that spring will ever come.

Why not?

Last week's thaw has stopped and the ground is again frozen solid. It's snowing. It's cold enough to need a pair of gloves when driving the car.

All in all I don't think spring will ever come.

Retirement Fund Withdrawal

The opinions are those of Laurence A. Wyson, a stockbroker for Paine, Webber, Jackson and Curtis; who is considered highly qualified in his field. Mr. Wyson welcomes any inquiries. Please send them to Investing Inquiries, Observer Newspapers, 33050 Five Mile Rd., Livonia, Mich.

Q. I am an educator nearing the point where I am going to retire from my profession for awhile. I intend to return to teaching sometime in the distant future but in the meantime I want to devote my full time to my young family. I have accumulated sizable amounts of money in the retirement fund. If I leave the money in the central fund it only earns interest of around 2 1/2% a year. Do you think we would be better off putting the money in stocks or some other form of high return investment?

A. One of the problems of taking your money out of a retirement fund is that if

Receives Medal

Airman Donald Clouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Asa B. Clouse of 31426 Hennepin, Garden City, has been decorated with the U.S. Air Force Commendation Medal at K. I. Sawyer AFB.

Airman Clouse was awarded the medal for meritorious achievement as a medical records specialist at a forward U.S. Air Force combat base in Southeast Asia. He was cited for his outstanding managerial ability, job knowledge and dedication to duty which contributed greatly to the Air Force mission in Southeast Asia.

He is now at K. I. Sawyer as a member of the Strategic Air Command, America's long-range nuclear bomber and missile force.

Airman Goes to Ind.

Airman Dennis C. Bartholomew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carson B. Bartholomew of 27126 Meadowbrook, Redford Township, has been selected for technical training at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind. as a U.S. Air Force information specialist.

Airman Bartholomew was graduated from El Campo (Tex.) High School and attended Wayne State University.

Marine Lays Mines

Marine Lance Corporal Patrick M. Creedon, of 12034 Boston Post Road, Livonia, is a member of "D" Company, 11th Engineer Battalion at Dong Ha, Vietnam. The battalion specializes in various types of mine laying and field communication as well as assistance in engineer support of tactical maneuvers.

President. Wallace is the fellow who is the former Governor of Alabama and is at present the husband of the woman who is "Governor" of the same state.

"The Councilor" claims to be responsible for distributing 51,000 "handsome, 3-color tags" for license plates boosting Wallace.

Curiously, nothing linking the segregationist position generally associated with Wallace to the alleged Kennedy assassination, appeared in the paper. Maybe that seemed just a little unlikely to the imaginative writers.

Engineering Guidance

by Fred W. Bradley, P.E.

Engineering curricula occupied our thinking last week—general vs. specialized engineering courses, choice of non-technical courses, etc. At least one new question has come up.

We are asked: "How about the 2-year Engineering Technician course vs. the full 4-year degree course?" The two courses have entirely different purposes. The 4-year course is for the student who wants the "full treatment," to become a fully qualified engineer.

The 2-year Technician course is for those who want a smattering of engineering work, enough to qualify as an assistant to an engineer. There are various ways in which the Technician can help the Engineer: He may build or test new equipment; may run routine tests; may make drawings; may collect data for studies.

The Technician course leads to a Certificate of Proficiency (sometimes called an Associate Degree). After working a while as a Technician, a man may decide to finish a full 4-year degree course. This is fine; but one of our pet peeves is that very little of the 2-year course is transferrable to a 4-year course. Thus, it means practically starting all over again to work toward a degree. Therefore, (and we cannot emphasize this too strongly) a student should be sure of himself before starting any 2-year Technician course. Of course, there is considerable demand for qualified Technicians in these days of shortage qualified engineers.

Another question: "By what standards should a student select his Engineering College?" There are many answers to this one, depending upon the student's definition of Education. It probably must be assumed that he wants good technical training. Perhaps his first move would be to see which colleges are "accredited" in Engineering. Here the Engineers' Council for Professional Development can be helpful. This Council regularly visits and rates all engineering colleges, makes the ratings available to High Schools on request.

Final choice should be made with additional criteria. Does the student insist on a "prestige" school? Does "prestige" include a winning football team, a top-notch band? Does he want a choice of many non-technical elective courses (mentioned last week)?

Then he probably will select one of the large Universities. If none of these is a real factor, he may select a smaller college, with (usually) the advantage of smaller classes, more individual instruction. Finances may also enter in, but here we will go away out on a limb: decide on the kind of education you want, pick out the school which best meets these needs—then apply for admission.

Perhaps the choice initially lies between a Community College and a full 4-or-more-years University. The Community College is usually easier on the pocketbook, since the student may live at home and drive to school. It has another advantage: it gives the student two years in which to decide upon a transfer school. The same criteria should be used in choosing the transfer school.

SENSE and NONSENSE

The "probe" of the assassination of former President Kennedy continues in New Orleans, with various bits and pieces showing up from time to time in our area.

Latest to arrive is the Feb. 20 issue of "The Councilor," a newspaper out of Shreveport, La., billed as "A Little Newspaper For People Who Think."

Evidently, the people who think are doing so about nothing other than the plot to kill JFK, which first broke into the national press as a result of New Orleans DA Jim Garrison's work.

"The Councilor, however, claims to have been first with the story, printing a story on March 15, 1964, headlined "The Madcap Aviator of Orleans," which discussed the activities of David Ferrie, the now dead airman who allegedly is in some way or other implicated in the plot.

Looking over "The Councilor," aside from its claims of being first with the assassination plot story, was an interesting experience.

The paper seems to be devoted to supporting the candidacy of George Wallace for

PTA Plans Big Festival For April 28

All PTA clubs and parents' groups in the Redford Union School District are being invited to participate in a festival to be held April 28 at Redford Union High School. Applications from groups wishing to participate are to be submitted immediately to the Ways and Means Committee.

Members of this committee are: Eleanor Lawrence, Barbara Heseltine, Fran Szymke and Dick Meteyer.

The Parent Teacher Organization of the high school will be hosting this international, inter-school club festival and it will be held in the north portion of the high school building.

The Ways and Means has reserved the right to the game of skill rooms. The main purpose of this festival is to raise money for senior scholarships. Notices have been sent to all clubs of the school district informing them of the program by William Fleming, principal. Each club will be in charge of its booth and will keep the evenings profits for its own club.

There will be dancing, refreshments and fun with some of the booths being Blossom Tree, Coney Islands, Sidewalk Cafe, Ice Cream Parlor, Pizza Parlor, Antique Shoppe, Candle-making Shoppe.

Plymouth Twp. To Vote On Charter Board

For the fifth time in an eight-year period, voters in Plymouth Township will go to the polls Tuesday, April 4 to select nine members of a commission to draw up a charter for the proposed City of Plymouth Heights.

A total of 13 filed petitions as candidates and the nine selected by the electorate will begin a chore that is expected to take more than nine months.

The issue has been rejected in each of the four previous votes.

The candidates, who come from every section of the Township, include: Paul Albright, Mrs. Mary Breen, Gerald Burke, Cameron Dostie, Kenneth Evans, Martin Fleming, Jr., James Irvine, Ralph McDowell, Paul McLean, Ronald Pagenkopf, Frederick Sigmon Jr., Donald Tate and Orville Tungate.

Only residents of the Township east of McClumpha Road will vote. The area west of McClumpha does not have sufficient population density to be included in the proposed city.

If the proposal passes, then residents west of McClumpha Road could petition for annexation to the new City of Plymouth Heights.

The matter of a selection of a charter commission, the drawing up of the charter, presentation to the Governor for his approval and the vote on the charter generally takes two years.

Each of the past four elections have been two-year periods.

Dr. Feldkamp Named Head of State Group

Dr. Lee Feldkamp, Health Officer for the City of Plymouth, has been elected President-elect of the Michigan Academy of General Practice for 1968-9. Dr. Feldkamp was named at the organization's annual meeting in Detroit.

Westland Schools Oppose State Action

Two school districts representing Westland residents have expressed opposition to the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission's recent rulings which could force unexpected tax increase for future school building programs.

The Nankin Mills Board of Education agreed unanimously last week to adopt a lengthy resolution which concerns the state agency's ruling on the State School Bond Loan Act while the Wayne Community Board of Education acted Monday to approve an identical statement.

In addition, the Wayne board authorized its school superintendent, Harry Howard, to take action to file a lawsuit along with three other districts which are immediately effected by the commission's action.

The School Board Loan Act allows public school districts to levy a maximum of seven mills ($7 per $1,000 of equalized valuation) for bond issues to build needed facilities.

When the bonds' principal and interest would cost more than the seven mills, then the school district borrows from the bond fund for the balance of the financial obligation.

That balance is paid back to the state at a later time when the earlier bonds are paid off and the school district can stay within the seven mill limit.

However, the finance commission ruled this month that, in spite of a defeat of a bill in the state legislature, local school districts would be obligated to pay more than the seven mill figure. This would affect many districts where voters approved bond issues for new buildings on the promise from the school board and administration that the bond issue would not mean any tax increase.

School officials have not only criticized the action of the finance commission

Would Aid GI's

State Representative John Bennett, Democrat of Redford Township, has introduced a bill in the House which would permit military personnel on active duty in the armed forces, while in uniform, to cross the Mackinac Bridge as guests of the State of Michigan.

"I regard this step as more than a gesture," said Bennett. "It would be a courtesy to our men and women in military service and one which we can well afford."

Wolverine Opens State Racing Season Saturday

THEY'RE OFF! Finishes like this will be commonplace when Wolverine Harness Raceway opens its 58-night meeting Saturday over the facilities of the Detroit Race Course. Post time for the first race is 8:30 p.m. nightly.

With no competition in sight for a month, Wolverine Harness Raceway opens Michigan's earliest racing campaign Saturday with a crowd of 10,000 expected to welcome the pacers and trotters for the initial 10-race program.

Wolverine operates over the facilities of the Detroit Race Course, located at the intersection of Schoolcraft and Middlebelt Roads in Livonia, and the 58-night meeting runs through May 31.

Because of the early opening and the prospect of inclement weather, Vice President and General Manager Orlow Owen is hesitant about predicting an opening night attendance record.

The all-time opener was on Friday, April 10, 1964 when 13,186 wagored a high of $572,709. The best for a Saturday night opening and the second best in history was set on April 17, 1965 when 10,968 wagored $566,191.

Owen believes the 1967 campaign will be the best ever—and that means the tops in Michigan—bettering the record 1965 season when Wolverine averaged 6,572 in attendance and had a nightly handle of $427,572. No other harness racing plant in Michigan has come close to the figures.

Despite the chilly weather and threat of snow during the early part of the week, hundreds of standardbred weekend with trainers and drivers testing the racing area and bedded down. Matter of fact, the track was a beehive of activity over the weekend with trainers and drivers testing the racing surfaces as soon as they could.

There won't be any shortage of horses for the early spring meeting. Paddock Judge and Stall Superintendent Clayton Smith received applications for more than 1,700 pacers and trotters and had considerable trouble trimming the list down to the 1,200 for the 58 nights.

Racing Secretary Bill Connors flew in from Florida Tuesday and began the task of classifying the horses and setting up a condition book for the first two weeks.

His biggest task was that of arranging the best opening night card in Wolverine history. He will have a full complement of eight starters for the Inaugural Pace and expects to have evenly matched fields for each of the other nine events.

Wolverine will feature the daily double and the perfecta again this year as it has for the past two seasons.

Owen indicated post time for the first race will be 8:30 p.m. with the popular daily double on the first and second races.

Inasmuch as some officials are busy with assignments in Florida at Tropical Park, there'll be several new faces in the judges' stand.

Jack Stewart, an all-time great with the Detroit Red Wings, has been named presiding judge, filling in for John Broderick, who will miss the Wolverine meeting for the first time in more than 15 years because of similar duties at Tropical.

Jack Calvert, the driver-trainer from Inlay City who also ranks as perhaps the best harness racing announcer in the midwest, will handle the "mike" for the entire meeting. Calvert filled in for Jack Riggs for two weeks a year ago but the early Wolverine opening forced Riggs to skip the meeting this year.

In the meantime, stables are moving in from all parts of the state, from California, Windsor, Florida, eastern tracks and from training quarters in the midwest and south.

Heading the list, 36 head, is the powerful Leon and Chris Boring Stable. The Borrings have been training in Adrian and report their stock in excellent condition for this early in the year.

Chris, who drove True Duane to a world-record clocking for a mile and a quarter last fall in California, will have his big star on hand for some of the rich weekend overnight events.

Joe Marsh, Jr., last year's driving champion, shipped his complement of 46 across the Detroit River from Windsor Raceway.

Doug Ackerman, Jack Williams Jr. and Chick Eivens are en route from California with their usual strong outfits. Ted Taylor, who handles the huge C. M. Saunders' stable, will check in within another week or so from Florida.

Schoolcraft Sets Slate For Tennis

Schoolcraft College's tennis team will begin practice April 1, for a nine-match season beginning April 14. Coach Ralph Atchley's squad will meet eight Michigan Junior College Athletic Assn. conference foes and one Ohio school.

Atchley will build his team from among three holdovers from last year when the Blue and Gold compiled a 1-7 record and eight newcomers.

If the team does nothing else this year, it will have the distinction of being one of the few college tennis teams in the country coached by a Ph. D. Atchley, a chemistry instructor, earned his doctorate last fall.

Returning to the courts this year are three sophomores from Livonia: Jack Custer, 20; Paul Harige, 19, and Larrow Sivick, 21, No. 2 on the 1965 squad. Harige, a soccer letterman, played his first tennis last year and scored a pair of singles victories.

Newcomers who answered Atchley's call for tryouts are: David Eberhart, 18, and Mike Gillow, 20, both of Northville; Herman (Joop) Doorn, 20, Schoolcraft's All-American soccer player; Al Helisek, 19, former captain of the Franklin High tennis squad; Jeffrey Lillard, 19, and Kurt Lagerquist, 19, a pair of Bentley graduates; Ronald Rhodes, 19, from Garden City East, and Richard Williams, 19, who earned a tennis letter at George Schaefer High, Southgate. All but Rhodes among the newcomers are freshmen.

The schedule:

April 14—Concordia, April 15—Port Huron, April 21—St. Killeop, April 28—Highland Lakes, April 29—Flint.

May 1—Henry Ford, May 5—of Auburn Hills, May 6—of Lorain, May 8—Delta.

Bob Kryvicky established a Wayne State University swimming mark with his 2:30.9 clocking in the breaststroke vs. Eastern Michigan this year.

STATE'S BEST: Plymouth high's medley relay team which swam to the state Class A championship. From the left: Brian Foust, Pat McCord, Chick Porter and Biff Leonard.

Rocks Win First Swim Relay Title

Pat McCord and Chick Porter of Plymouth High rank as the top swimmers of the year on The Observer Newspapers All-Area team.

The name of Porter appears in three events, that of McCord twice after they and the Rocks pulled off a major surprise in the recent state Class A championships.

McCord and Porter both swam on the Rocks' medley relay team which copied the state crown. Brian Foust and Biff Leonard also made up the speed quartet which came truly from nowhere to take the laurels.

Porter also was acclaimed as the leading 50 and 100-yard freestyler in the area, while McCord was saluted as the top butterfly performer.

Bentley's Dennis Rogissart also gained two spots on the All-Area team. He was picked No. 1 in the 200-yard free style and No. 1 in the 400-yard free style.

David Kee of Bentley in the individual medley, Tom Bates of Franklin in the breast stroke and John Larson of Plymouth in the diving round out the selections.

FARC Total Up 5 Percent

A total of 2,750 youngsters attended the Farmington Area Recreation Commissions six week winter program. This represents a 5 per cent increase when compared to last year's number of 2,617. The North playground sites outshone the South in total count 1,604 to 1,146.

The average daily attendance at each of the eight sites was raised from 55 to 59. All schools showed an increase with the exception of one. Beechview school led all schools with a total of 613 for an average of 102. Kenbrook was second and it averaged 84.

Middle-Aged Unemployed Offer Vast Reservoir Of Good Retail Clerks

EAST LANSING—Retailers would find big profits in filling the growing number of retail clerical jobs with unemployed persons in the 45 to 65 age group, report two business specialists.

Employees in this age group, they point out, have less absenteeism, less job turnover, and do not cost a company more in pensions and insurance than younger people.

Edwin W. Crooks of Indiana University and Raymond M. Haas of West Virginia University, writing in the new issue of Michigan State University's Business Topics, say that the 45 to 65 age group has been ignored by personnel managers.

4 SENIORS, ONE JUNIOR ON OBSERVER TEAM

Meet Area's Cage All Stars

LELAND BJERKE — Redford Union

Presenting the 1966-67 Observer All Star basketball team.

It's truly a "dream" quintet of cagers, picked by the coaches—the men who know best.

Four of the five choices are seniors. The other a junior.

The team is comprised of all-around-type players, those who do more than score. They rebound, they pass, they play defense, they inspire their mates.

Each of the honored is rated as a cinch to make the grade in college.

One name is familiar to the list. It's that of Ken Bollin, the lone junior, who starred at center in leading Bentley to the first perfect season a Suburban Six League champion ever has posted. Bentley posted a 10-0 mark in conference action.

Ken is the second Bollin to be honored on the All Observer team. Brother Bill made the squad three years ago as he, too, gained stardom in the ranks of high school play at Bentley.

Here's a rundown of the 1966-67 Observer selections:

KEN BOLLIN, Bentley

Called by Bentley coach George Fefles "as the most unselfish player I ever coached." Added Fefles: "This boy really was team-minded, which was a major reason why we enjoyed the success we did." In addition, Fefles said of Bollin: "He's easy to teach and the kid is very eager to learn." Statistically, Bollin averaged 14 points and 15 rebounds for the Bulldogs in their march that brought them a district title and a spot in the regional finals in addition to their league flag.

LELAND BJERKE, Redford Union

The No. 1 player in the area this season. Smashed one-season and career scoring records at Redford Union by piling in 507 points for the season and winding up his three years on the varsity with a total of 1,019 points.

Excellent shooter, averaging 44 per cent of his shots. But he did more than pump the ball through the hoop. He was No. 1 on RU in assists with 50, led the team in recovering the ball with 164 and fell two short of Dennis Fifield as the No. 1 rebounder with a total of 180. "We never had an all-around player here to match Bjerke," says coach Dave Nattling. "Leland never was one to hang on the ball. He passed it around and always was looking for an open man."

MIKE AMES, Farmington

Averaged better than 16 rebounds per game as Farmington finished second in the Interlakes League and captured honors in the district tournament. "Nobody ever got the ball away from Mike," says his coach Jack Quiggle. Excellent scorer, too, with a 14-point average. Turned in fine job as a defensive player. Provided the humorous touch on the team with his remarks that frequently would ease the tension in very tight situations.

JOE HUBER, Garden City East

A little guy, but a tower of strength on the East team throughout the 1966-67 season. He averaged 21.2 points while scoring 380 points as a senior. In his two years on the East varsity, he wound up with a 19-point average. Hit well with a 44.2 per cent average from the field and a 78.9 mark from the free throw line. In addition, Joe was the playmaker on the East team and despite his size he averaged seven rebounds per game. "Truly our finest all-around basketball player in my years at the school," said Coach Billy Joe Young.

TIM DOYLE, Our Lady of Sorrows

The best all-around basketball player ever turned out at Sorrows. "He was simply tremendous," said coach Bob Morris. Tim fired in 491 points in 18 games as a senior for 27.3 average. In his two previous years, he scored 205 and 388 points, respectively, as a sophomore and a junior. "But he was more than just a scorer," adds Morris. "Tim was our best rebounder, averaging 21 per game, and he was our best man when he came to setting up plays and he was our best defensive player." From the field, Doyle canned 196 shots in 380 attempts for a fantastic 52 per cent. He had 99 out of 137 from the charity marker for 72.4 per cent.

Archery Tourney On Docket

The ninth annual International Indoor Open Archery championships, will be held in Cobo Hall, April 1 and 2.

The tournament will offer individual competition in six classes: Men's and Women's Open Classes for professionals and Men's and Women's Free Style and Instinctive Classes for amateurs. In addition the Men's and Women's Team competitions, a growingly popular feature, will be held.

Tournament Director Jack Witt expects representatives from at least 40 states, and a marked increase in the number of Canadian entries.

Once again each competitor will shoot two PAA competitive rounds. A round consists of 12 ends, five arrows per end, shot at 16 inch black face targets from a 20 foot distance. Scoring is from 5 points to one on the targets.

Group Plans Teen Dance

Jane Bowser, President of the Citizens Scholarship Foundation of Livonia announced that its annual Teen Dance will be held on April 8 at Stevenson High School, 33500 Six Mile Road in the evening.

Various activities sponsored and directed by this group of public spirited citizens resulted in awarding scholarships to 25 deserving high school graduates in 1966. The total scholarships awarded amounted to $6,400.

Dollars for Scholars this year are hopeful of exceeding last year's record totals in order that a target number of our deserving youngsters may be assisted in obtaining a college education.

She also stated that the dance committee is in need of chaperons. Any parents who are able to assist in this worthwhile project are asked to call her at 421-9026.

Pick 3 Coaches 'Best' in Area

Meet the area's winter coaches-of-the-year.

In basketball, the nod goes to George Fefles of Bentley. In swimming, rookie Dick Gretzinger of Plymouth rates the honor.

In wrestling a salute to Jim Knotts of Thurston.

For Fefles, the 1966-67 season produced a record. His Bentley team became the first in Suburban Six League history to go through the entire conference schedule without a setback. Bentley finished 10-0 and hauled in its third loop title in the five years Fefles has guided the school's cagers.

Bentley then went on to cop its fourth district crown under Fefles and reached the regional finals before falling to Catholic Central, a state semifinalist. Knotts has been one of the driving forces in building schoolboy wrestling in the state of Michigan.

His teams at Thurston have garnered considerable success and this year finished among the leaders in the state Class A championships. Young Gretzinger was a star at Plymouth just a few years ago. He went to college, then came back to teach in his hometown, and to coach.

The regular season—his first—was a "miserable" one for Gretzinger. But in the state meet, Plymouth surprised by producing one state titlist and placing two others.

'Trotters Return to Olympia

The fabulous Harlem Globetrotters, America's best-loved sports aggregation, return to Olympia April 1, with their delightful mixture of first-rate basketball and anticumor—plus a vaudeville show that is worth the price of admission all by itself.

The Globetrotters, now in their 41st season, will meet the touring New York Nationals.

Since their inception in 1927, the club has played more than 9,000 games before over 55,000,000 fans in 87 countries.

The gifted Meadowlark Lemon, the clown prince of the basketball court, will again lead the Globetrotters. Fred (Curly) Neal is the dribbling virtuoso and all the talented, unpredictable Globetrotters will get into the act.

Baseball League Positions Open

Garden City boys interested in playing Little League baseball this summer are advised that there are still openings on teams.

Bill Duncan, Little League committeeman, announced that interested boys between nine and 12 years of age may call Don Ponte, 427-9359, or Gene Downey, 425-4392.

State Champion Licks Paralysis

When there is a will, there's a way. It's an expression heard so frequently, but yet it's so true.

Take the case of Charles Morse, a junior at Clarenceville High School in North Livonia.

Charles at the recent state high school gymnastics meet reigned as the performer-of-the-year. He won four state titles.

As he went through his effort, many who watched had damp eyes.

After all, this was the same boy who has gone through more operations in his young life than 100 people go through, combined.

Morse was born with paralysis in his legs. He couldn't walk when he reached the point that most babies start getting around.

Doctor after doctor was called in. The surgery began. As he grew older, the love for sports intensified within Morse. He wanted to play football, basketball and baseball at Clarenceville in junior high.

He tried the track team. But his legs weren't strong enough.

Then along came Chuck Thompson to coach gymnastics at Clarenceville. A great partnership developed—between Thompson and Morse.

It required work . . . lots of work . . . for a young man who still walked with a noticeable limp.

But Morse was willing and Thompson tells the story: In gymnastics, the legs aren't as important as they are in other sports. The body is far more important.

"So we strove with Charles to develop routines which put less of a burden on his legs. It took time . . . over two hours of practice in school every day and goodness knows how much time Charles has worked at home by himself.

"The boy is dedicated to improving himself . . . and that's something most youngsters won't do. He has in him an extra spark and an extra desire."

Morse won the parallel bars, the side horse, the horizontal bars and the still rings in the state meet.

He still has another year left at Clarenceville. The chances are excellent he'll go on to stardom in gymnastics.

Yes . . . when there's a will, there's a way.

Charley Morse of Clarenceville High has found the way.

ALL-AREA WRESTLERS:

Thurston 'King' No. 1 on Mat

Randy Ault, who checks in on the scales at 138 pounds, has been acclaimed as the area's high school wrestler-of-the-year by The Observer Newspapers.

Ault of Thurston high battled his way to the state Class A title this year, thus climaxing three years of outstanding achievements for his school.

Twice he won the North-League title at his weight. He was a state champ once and placed two other years. He was a regional champ twice.

"A wonderful boy," said Thurston coach Jim Knotts in referring to Ault, who was one of four area preps to gain state crowns this year.

The others were John Cassell of Farmington, 120 pounds; Dave Pike, Redford Union, 133 pounds; Randy Ault, Thurston, 138 pounds; Marvin Martin, Garden City East, 145 pounds; Pete MacGregor, Bentley, 154 pounds; Rod Wilbur, Bentley, 165 pounds; Ron Gainor, Glenn, 180 pounds.

Sunny South Is Excellent But Not Climate Change

With another season of winter ending, millions of Americans had dreamed of going South — "for their health."

This brings up once again a question that has long puzzled physicians—What effect does climate actually have on health? Should the physician advise a patient to try a change of climate for his health?

There is no pat answer.

Sometimes a change of climate helps. Sometimes it doesn't.

Researchers say that the human body functions best at a temperature of about 66 degrees. They also know that babies and older people have more difficulty in adjusting to drastic changes in temperature. Diabetes appears to be more controllable in the tropics. Stress diseases—ulcers, heart disease, hardening of the arteries—are less frequent in the South.

Do sufferers from hay fever and other allergic ailments fare better in an arid, warm climate? Sometimes. Others find the native plants in the southwest just as troublesome as those in the North.

If you are contemplating a change of climate for health reasons, by all means consult your family doctor first. He knows your family's medical history and emotional patterns. He may suggest four or five different spots that might be helpful to you. Or he might tell you that, as far as your health is concerned, you might just as well stay home.

Today's Health, the family magazine of the American Medical Association, lists several do's and don'ts to keep in mind in considering a cross-country move for health reasons—

DON'T make a change of climate hastily, on the basis of rumors from someone who spent two weeks in the new place. Don't just send queries to residents of the new place. People tend to overrate the climate where they live and play down its shortcomings.

DO keep in mind that as important as a change of climate are proper diet, pure water and air, plenty of sleep, adequate exercise and a healthy mental outlook.

DO try to live in the new locale on a tryout basis for a while, a year if possible, before severing with the old home town.

DON'T defy the weather. If it's cool, put on extra clothing. If it's hot, wear light clothing and cut down on activity. Study your reactions and plan accordingly.

Now Is The Time For Lawn Work

If lawn renovation is among your spring plans, now is the time to do it.

Reseeding in March is similar to nature's method of establishing plants. It is much easier and gives better results than following the traditional spring or fall seeding routines, says turf specialist Howard Kaerwer.

Seed applied between snowfalls works into the soil through the alternating freezing and thawing characteristics of early spring. When the temperature is right, seed will germinate and get off to a fast start before competition from older grasses and weeds is keen.

Waiting until the weather warms up means mechanical methods are needed to slightly bury the seed so it can germinate and become established. By the time the soil is dry enough to work and the seeding is completed, it may be necessary to water the seedlings until they become established.

Even with proper seeding and care, the luxurious lawn you visualize won't become reality with just any lawn seed. A high quality seed assures you that no weeds or coarse-textured material will be added to your lawn. Kaerwer recommends Golf Brand lawn seed with Prato.

Prato Kentucky Bluegrass quickly fills in bare spots with vigorous, fine-textured plants. It produces many leaves—some growing straight up, many growing to the side where close mowing doesn't injure them. The dense rug-like turf thus formed helps crowd out weeds.

Don't apply your fertilizer when you seed in March, Kaerwer cautions. Fertilizer on frozen ground can injure both the new seedling and the old turf. Spreading a balanced lawn fertilizer when the frost goes out permits nutrients to work into the soil without damage. This early fertilizer helps develop a thick, hardy lawn with a deep penetrating root system and maximum resistance to summer heat and weeds.

Goodwill Industries Expresses Thanks For Help During Year

Dr. John E. Hoskins, executive director of Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit, says that every year brings its own reasons for the Goodwill family of handicapped men and women to be truly thankful.

In 1966 Goodwill Industries has been able to expand its rehabilitation services as the direct result of a substantial federal grant and the added support it will be receiving from the United Fund. To date this year, 218 persons in the metropolitan area have been served through Goodwill's evaluation and counseling program, and 189 job placements have been made. Five hundred have been employed at Goodwill's workshops, industrial contract departments, retail stores and trucking department, according to Dr. Hoskins.

Dr. Hoskins also commented that, thanks to a generous public, Goodwill's workshop facilities are entirely self-supporting, and donations of clothing and household articles have increased to the point where Goodwill now offers the contributor the convenience of more than 200 collection centers on super-market parking lots in the metropolitan area. These centers have been made possible through the courtesy and cooperation of local civic-minded companies.

In conclusion Dr. Hoskins conveys his thanks and that of the board.

Contemporary Passion Play Set at Presbyterian Church

"Casey," a passion play of everyday lives written by P. W. Turner, will be presented at the Village United Presbyterian Church at 8 p.m. Good Friday.

The Chancel Players, directed by Philip Matura and representing some 20 Pontiac area churches, will put on the drama. The church is located at 25350 W. Six Mile Road, and the public is invited.

The religious drama is described as one that takes place on a "green hill" in the middle of everyday lives, both here and now and in Jerusalem on the first Good Friday.

A description from the Chancel players said: "The play is a meditation on the Passion of Christ, and its basis is to imagine an event and to apply it to oneself.

"This is a play that will shock, some with its violence, its attacks on conventional religion, and its refusal to turn a blind eye to such abuses as the color-bar in this country.

"Casey will give a new vision of what the Crucifixion means in terms of the human situation in the 1960's."

On Maundy Thursday evening, the Rev. James A. Crawford will conduct the Service of Tenebrae, a candlelight Communion Service, at 7:30 and 9:30.

Easter services will be held at 8, 9:30, and 11 a.m.

JANE O. ROBBINS

Stevenson Choir Sings For Tre-Ore

Stevenson High School's choir will sing at the Good Friday service at St. Matthew's Church, 30900 Six Mile Road. The service will begin at 1 p.m. and end by 2:30 p.m.

Mr. Lowell Everson, director of the choir, has selected the following to be sung as part of the service: "Miserere Mei" (Grant Us Thy Mercy), "Easter Eggs," "Surely He Hath Borne Our Griefs," and "Since By Man Came Death."

The public is invited to the service to enjoy the inspiration of hearing sacred music performed by Livonia's newest high school choir.

'Identity Crisis' to be Topic of Talk

A Christian Science lecturer coming to Livonia Friday, March 24, will discuss today's "identity crisis" and how a deepened understanding of man's relationship to God can help.

The speaker will be Jane O. Robbins, C.S., of Boulder, Colo. Her visit here is being sponsored by the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Wayne, with the cooperation of other Christian Scientist churches in Wayne County.

The lecture, at 1 p.m. in the Mai Kai Theater, at Plymouth and Farmington Roads, is titled, "Freedom to Be Yourself."

Admission is free and the lecture is open to the public.

Miss Robbins is a native of Ontario, Canada. During World War II, she was a service pilot with the Army Air Force. After the war, she spent some time in Alaska and flew as a bush-pilot in the Nome-Point Barrow area. Later, she became a representative for an aircraft corporation in Illinois.

In 1955, she moved to Colorado and began devoting her full time to the public practice of Christian Science healing. She is now on tour as a member of the Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

WSU Harpist Will Play at Clarenceville

Susan Mazur, harpist from Wayne State University, will assist the chancel choir in both services Easter Sunday morning at the Clarenceville Methodist Church.

Miss Mazur will play with the choir in the anthem, "Christ, Our Passover," by Will C. MacFarlane, and will join Mrs. Paul Arensman, organist, in the service prelude.

The guest musician has won honors as a student both at Cass Technical High School and in the WSU music department.

Two Churches Cooperate for Services

Nankin Mills Baptist Church will hold combined Maundy Thursday services at 7:30 p.m. at the Nankin Mills sanctuary.

The services will include an organ and piano duet titled "A Lenten meditation."

The Nankin Mills congregation also is preparing to join Alpha Baptist Church in nightly evangelistic services the week of April 2-9.

Participating in the program will be the Rev. Harrington of the First Baptist Church of Coldwater, Mich., and recording artist Gloria Roe.

St. Robert Bellarmine's Teen Club will sponsor an "Easter Hop" from 8 to 11:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 28. It will be held in the parish gym, West Chicago at Inkster. The "Odds and Ends," previously known as the "Loose Ends," will be featured. Tickets will be available at the door.

A Cordial Welcome Awaits You!

Several joint Tre-ore church services for Good Friday are being planned in the area.
The Redford Council of Churches, with eight churches participating, will have services from 12 noon to 3 p.m. at both Redford Baptist, 25295 Grand River, and Calvary Methodist, 22400 Grand River.
Four churches will join in sponsoring Good Friday services from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. at Southfield Community Church, just north of Eight Mile at 21122 Indian.
Three Baptist churches in the area—Westland Baptist, Bethany Baptist and Wayne Baptist Temple — will share Good Friday and Easter Sunrise services this year.

The three congregations will hear a message from the Rev. Roland DeRenzo at the Good Friday service from 1 to 2:30 p.m. at Bethany Baptist.
Westland Baptist will be the host church for the 8 a.m. sunrise service Easter morning. Dr. Bert C. Kreller will speak.
Special music is planned for both services.
In the Redford combination services, ten ministers representing the cooperating churches will bring brief meditations on the theme, "The Last Days of Jesus." Special music will be presented at each of the meditation periods.

The public is cordially invited to worship at either church, and may attend any or all parts of the program. Ample parking is available at both churches.
At Calvary Methodist, the parking lot is behind the church off Northrop Ave. At Redford Baptist, parking is behind the church off Seven Mile Road, or in the Seven-Grand parking lot beside the church.
The cooperating churches are Redford Baptist Church, Coronado Baptist Church, Calvary Methodist Church, St. Matthew Methodist Church, Redford Free Methodist Church, West Outer Drive Methodist Church, Village United Presbyterian Church, and Trinity Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Presbyterian, speaking in that order.
At Calvary Methodist, also listed in the order in which they will speak, will be Dr. John W. Barkley of Calvary Methodist, the Rev. James Crawford, of Village United Presbyterian, the Rev. G. Philip Nofsinger, of Coronado Baptist; the Rev. Theodore Hepper, of Trinity; and the Rev. Gordon Ackerman, of West Outer Drive Methodist.
Churches cooperating in the Southfield Community Church services are the Clarenceville Methodist Church, the Evangelical Covenant Church, the Rice Memorial Methodist Church, and the Southfield Community Church., which have held joint services for the past nineteen years.

Pastors speaking at the services will include the Rev. Paul Frederick of the Rice Memorial Methodist Church, the Rev. Edwin Clemens of the Evangelical Covenant Church, the Rev. Elsie A. Johns, of the Clarenceville Methodist Church, and Rev. Raymond Bayne of Southfield Community Church.
Each of the ministers in this order will be speaking on the cross in its application to our present lives. There will be four half hour services, each including scripture reading, prayer and music. Worshipers will be seated on the hour and half hour, and will be asked to leave at the same intervals.

AN EASTER PLAY titled "He Came Seeing" will be presented by the youth of Clarenceville Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. Easter Sunday at the church. The play was written by Mary Hamlin and involves a baby born blind and the restoration of his sight through Jesus. Costumed here for a dress rehearsal are, from left, Darryl Deocher, David Depoy, Danny Montgomery, Jeanette Roston, Diane Garpen (seated), Howard Depoy (kneeling) and Joan Depoy.

GROUND-BREAKING for a new auditorium for the Gallean Baptist Church of Livonia was held following a recent kickoff dinner. Pastor Herbert Nee dug through snow for the first spadeful of earth. The congregation, which started with 27 members 13 years ago and now numbers 500, plans to sell $125,000 worth of bonds to finance the structure.

Area Obituaries

GEORGE PLANE, Services for Mr. Plane, 76, of 3470 Seventh Avenue N.E., St. Petersburg, Fla., were held at John Rhodes Funeral Home with burial in St. Petersburg.

Mr. Plane died March 17 of cancer in Mount Park Hospital, St. Petersburg, where he had been since December.

He had worked at the Ford Motor Co. plant in Highland Park for 38 years, before being retired as a foreman in 1953. He had been a member of the Royal Oak Northwood Masonic Lodge and the Royal Oak Royal Arch Lodge.

Survivors include his wife, Mildred; a daughter, Mrs. Catherine Stephenson of Plymouth; a son, Calvin of Southfield; two sisters, Pearl Trigonning of Pennsylvania and Mrs. Wilfred Nankarrow of Royal Oak; two brothers, Frank of Clawson and Wharton of Royal Oak; and six grandchildren.

MANUEL M. CANALES, 80, of Monterey, Mexico, died March 18 at Botsford General Hospital in Farmington Township. Burial will be March 24 in Monterey. The Heenev-Sundquist Funeral Home handled the arrangements.

The father of Mrs. Juan Felipe Heeder of Farmington Township, Mr. Canales had been visiting his daughter for two months at the time of his death.

He was sales manager of Pe-Max-Co in Monterey. Also surviving is his wife, Sara.

MARY LOUISE FAMS, Services were held March 18 for Mrs. Fams, 90, of 15826 Woodbine, Redford Township, who died at Redford Community Hospital. Arrangements were completed by the R.G. and G.R. Funeral Home.

New Heads Named for Foster Children Group

Lloyd Northard, of American Motors Corp., and Karl Klassen, of the Children's Aid and Family Service of Macomb County, are co-chairmen of the 1967 Committee for Foster Children.

Northard and Klassen will direct the committee's various activities calling attention to the need for foster parents in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

Serving as vice-chairmen in 1967 will be: Mrs. Fran Harris of the WWJ stations; Samuel Lerner of the Jewish Family and Children's Service; and Timothy Ryan of the Catholic Social Services of Wayne County. Eben W. Martin of United Community Services will serve as secretary of the committee.

The committee also announced the week of May 7-13 as Foster Child Week for 1967.

Established six years ago, the Committee for Foster Children assists in developing programs to inform the public about foster home care to encourage more volunteers as foster parents.

Serving on the committee are members of 15 agencies that conduct foster home programs in the tri-county area and representatives of business government and civic organizations.

During 1966 a daily average of more than 2,500 children were living in foster homes in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties. The committee's experience has shown that a minimum of 300 new foster homes is needed annually.

Participating agencies of the committee are: Baptist Children's Home; Catholic Social Services of Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties; Jewish Family and Children's Service; Lutheran Children's Friend Society; Lutheran Social Services of Michigan; Macomb County Children's Aid and Family Service; Macomb County Probate Court Juvenile Division; Methodist Children's Home Society; Michigan Children's Aid Society of Oakland County; Wayne County Children's Division of the Michigan Department of Social Welfare; Oakland County Probate Court Juvenile Division; and Wayne County Probate Court, Juvenile Division.

Parents who would like to help assure every child a proper home may write the Committee for Foster Children, P.O. Box 200, Detroit, Michigan 48231.

Gas Company Given Award By Magazine

The Michigan Consolidated Gas Company has been awarded second prize in a national program designed to honor creative contributions by industry to home-making education.

Seventeen Magazine's third annual "ROSE" (Recognition of Outstanding Service to Education) award goes to the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company for "Pipeline to Teachers," a complete resource book on gas appliances, the gas industry, and related home economics fields.

As its prize, the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company will receive a Tiffany Vermeil rose mounted on a walnut stand. The award will be presented to a top executive of the company at a special Seventeen "ROSE" ceremony during the American Home Economics Association convention in Dallas late in June.

The prize program, "Pipeline to Teachers," is designed to provide Michigan teens with pertinent and useful information on natural gas.

The teachers' manual is divided into ten categories: gas facts, gas equipment, textile and laundry information, and new developments in the product, appliance and food fields. Filmstrips that complement the notebook are available on a loan basis.

The program, inaugurated in April, 1966, reached 160,000 students in Michigan during the year.

The "ROSE" award program is conducted by Seventeen-at-School, the magazine's auxiliary publication for the nation's home economics teachers.

Sermon Topic: "WAS JESUS A CHRISTIAN?"
Although U.U.'s do not believe Jesus anything more than a great teacher and philosopher they do recognize the basic truths and marvelous insights he propounded.
However the simple, basic beliefs and teachings of Jesus have been taken by man and developed into a set of mystical precepts involved dogma, and confusing creeds that no longer resemble the original concept.

Redford Co-op Elects Officers For 1967-68

Joanne Warren is the new president of the Redford Township Cooperative Nursery.

She was elected at the group's March 14 meeting, along with Pat Higgins, vice-president; Joanne Shaheen, secretary; Janet Dean, treasurer; Pat Hill, programming; Nancy Ewert, projects; Sylvia Kloc, hospitality; Helen Boyd, publicity; Judy Gulian, equipment; Emily Hook and Elizabeth Holben, scheduling.

Sarah Webster and Ronnie Carpenter, members of the Livonia Jaycees, presented a film on "Accidental Poison Prevention" to complete the evening's program.

Applications are now being taken for enrollment next fall. Anyone interested in having a 3-or-4 year old child in nursery school next year may call Shirley Jordan 533-4950 for further information.

ESTHER IRENE GODFREY, Services were held March 14 in Garden City for Mrs. Godfrey, of River Rouge, with John Howell of the Garden City Methodist Church officiating. Burial was in Oak Ridge Cemetery, Bay City.

Mrs. Godfrey, who died March 11 in Detroit after an illness of several months, lived in River Rouge for 35 years. She was born Feb. 18, 1906, in Pelston, Mich. She served as an auditor in cost and accounting for the federal government for 12 years.

Surviving are two sons, Orville J. and Dale L., both of Garden City, and seven grandchildren.

EDNA G. WOLFE, Services were held March 16 at the R.G. and G.R. Harris Funeral Home for Mrs. Wolfe, 70, of 19578 Hardy St., Livonia, who died suddenly in New Orleans, La. She was the wife of the late Emmet.

Born in Michigan, she came to Livonia three years ago after living in Detroit for 32 years where she taught first grade and kindergarten, retiring three years ago.

Survivors include one son, Robert W. Ashcraft; one daughter, Mrs. Arlie R. (Alice) Trahern; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

WIFE OF THE LATE WILLIAM, she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Lenore LaBelle of Hazel Park; one son, Vaughn, of Livonia; one sister and six grandchildren.

She resided in Livonia for 40 years and died for five. She was a member of Farmington Chapter O.E.S. 239.

Born in England, Mrs. Warwick is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Edith Meheen and Mrs. Gladys Hepworth.

Born in Pennsylvania, he worked at the Ford Motor Co. prior to his retirement.

Survivors include his wife, Mary; two sons, Donald and George, Jr.; one daughter, Mrs. Dolores Melancon; and three sisters, Mrs. Winifred Pardee, Mrs. Margaret Fisher and Mrs. Ann Clark.

A 35-VOICE CHOIR from the Grand Rapids Michigan and Ohio, is directed by Desmond Baptist Bible College and Seminary will sing at the Calvary Baptist Church, 43065 Joy Road, Plymouth, at 7:30 p.m. Good Friday. The group, currently on tour in Bell and one of its members is Marcia Knipschild, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Knipschild, of S. Evergreen, Plymouth. The public is invited to the concert.

GOP Women To Hear Talk

Mrs. Jacob Wenzel, of Grosse Pointe, will address the Republican Women's Organization of Farmington Hills on the subject of pulp magazines, Thurs., March 23. The noon meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Kern, and interested women may call GR 4-3178 for more information.

Mrs. Wenzel is co-founder of the Metropolitan Detroit Council on Better Literature for Youth. The council is described as a non-profit, inter-faith, inter-racial civic organization to combat the evils of smut.

A color film, "Printed Poison," will be shown in conjunction with the talk.

REV. DAVID CUMMINS

Baptist Leader Speaks Friday In Farmington

The Rev. David L. Cummins, Pioneer Church Missionary for the Conservative Baptist Association of Michigan, will be guest speaker at a union Good Friday Service presented by Bethel Baptist and First Baptist churches of Farmington.

The service will be held at First Baptist Church located at the junction of Farmington Road and Shiawassee Avenue in the downtown Farmington area.

The speaker was pastor in churches in Michigan and Ohio before assuming his present duties with the C.B.A. of Michigan.

Pastor Frank Smith of Bethel Baptist Church and Pastor Walter Ballagh of First Baptist Church will share in the order of worship, and special music befitting the day will be presented.

Work by Bach Set By WSU

Johann Sebastian Bach's impressive and monumental work, "The Passion of Our Lord According to St. Matthew," will be presented by Wayne State University's music department.

Professor Valter Poole will conduct two performances, April 4 and April 16, at St. Paul's Cathedral, Woodward at Hancock.

Besides the WSU Symphony Orchestra, several professional and student soloists will participate, as well as the Choral Union prepared by Professor Malcolm Johns. The presentation honors Ossip Gabrilowitsch, the late conductor of the Detroit Symphony, who presented the same work in Detroit nearly 40 years ago.

The Tuesday performance, April 4, will be at 8 p.m. and will feature as soloists Rosemarie Murch of Detroit, alto; and several WSU students.

Featured soloists for the 2:30 p.m. Sunday performance will be Mrs. Murch; Richard Paige, tenor from the State University of New York; Craig Timberlake, bass from New York City; and Jeannette Dagger, soprano.

Other soloists listed for the performances are tenors Edward King and Richard Roytek; soprano Patricia Cravens; and basses Garthwood Taylor and Theodore Nast.

Elwyn Davies, the music director at St. Paul's Cathedral, will be the organist for the production.

Admission is free, but tickets, available only at the WSU Ticket Office in Mackenzie Hall, must be presented at the door.

Church Women Plan Square Dancing Class

The Episcopal Church Women's Club of St. David's Church, Garden City, will hold a modern square dancing class at 8 p.m., Friday, April 7, at the church, 27500 Marquette Street.

A club spokesman said that the fee is $1.50 per person and $3 per couple. The class is open to all interested persons. There will be refreshments and a professional caller at the class.

Beth Am and L.J.C. Plan Trial Merger

A trial merger for a year, beginning with a Purim holiday service March 26, is announced by the boards of directors of Livonia Jewish Congregation, of the Conservative movement, and Temple Beth Am, Reformed.

The two boards have held several meetings during recent months, and the general memberships have voted to undertake the trial merger to be in effect for a maximum period of 12 months.

During this time, the directors said, the congregations will have the opportunity to work out mutual arrangements at all levels and agree upon ritual differences.

Cantor Henry J. Blank of L.J.C. and Rabbi David Jessel of Beth Am will conduct the first joint religious service at the Livonia Jewish Congregation building, 29475 West Six Mile, Sunday, March 26.

Easter Plans For Covenant Announced

Easter Sunday at the Evangelical Covenant Church located at 24331 West Eight Mile Road, will begin with a Sunrise Service for the youth of the church at 7 a.m. Lyle Person, youth director, will bring the message.

The morning worship at 10:45 will feature special music by the Chancel Choir under the direction of Leon Anderson. The numbers are "The Legend of the Garden" by Lang and "Salvation Is Created" by Tschesnokoff. The Rev. Edwin T. Clemens will preach on the subject "What Is The Easter Message."

Easter Sunday will be concluded with a Vesper Service at 5 p.m. when the youth groups of the congregation will present the ancient Tenebrae Service featuring the reading of scriptures, special music and the extinguishing of lighted candles and the re-entrance at the close of the service of the large candles symbolizing the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

All are invited to attend these festive services on Easter Sunday.

Cabaret Night Set by Jewish Congregation

Kosher polynesian food will be featured at Livonia's first Cabaret Night to be sponsored by the Livonia Jewish Congregation at 29475 W. Six Mile at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, March 25.

Chairman Ed Schwartz said the evening would feature master of ceremonies Jimmy Radcliff, vocalist Peggy Udman and the Norman Berman trio. During the dinner hour strolling accordionist Dwight Dustin will entertain.

Reservations may be made by calling the Livonia Jewish Congregation office at GA 5-9370 or Schwartz at KE 7-7974 after 6 p.m.

Holy Hour Planned

The Our Lady of Fatima Circle 764 of Daughters of Isabella will sponsor a Holy Hour at St. Donstan Church from 9 to 10 p.m. at Holy Thursday, March 23. The circle's next business meeting will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 4, at the St. Raphael Activities Building.

DR. ALEX BASKIN, of Wayne State University, will be guest speaker at the Livonia Jewish Congregation's Sabbath services Friday, March 24, at 8 p.m., an earlier time than usual. Dr. Baskin's topic will be "The Role of the Secular Jew in The American Scene."

Livonia Town Hall Talks Set

Betty Furness, famed television personality recently appointed by President Johnson as federal consumer affairs advisor, will be one of the speakers in the Livonia Town Hall series for 1967-68.

Miss Furness will speak Feb 21 in a program designed to give Town Hall audiences a fresh look at some of the problems of today's complicated living.

The Town Hall series, expanded to five programs for the coming season, also will include the following programs:

October 18—Marietta Tree, this country's first woman ambassador to the United Nations and a woman widely traveled in this country, Europe, Africa and the Middle East. She is U.S. representative to the United Nations human rights commission, a post previously held by Eleanor Roosevelt.

November 15—Robin Moore, author of the book "The Green Berets," written after he had lived and fought with the U. S. Special Forces in Vietnam.

January 17—Dr. Woodrow Wilson Sayre, philosopher and mountain climber who wrote the book "Four Against Everest," after he and three companions were thwarted in an attempt to scale the great North Face of Mt. Everest. He now is a teacher at Boston University.

March 21—Richard H. Rush, author of "Art as an Investment," and one of the most active antique collectors in the country.

All the lectures will be held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesdays at the Terrace Theater, 30400 Plymouth Road, Livonia, and Celebrity Lunches will follow each talk.

The Livonia Chapters of the American Field Service sponsors the series. Season tickets for the talks are $10, and may be obtained by writing Livonia Town Hall, 27650 Terrence Drive, Livonia.

Further information is available from Mrs. Robert M. Jones, ticket chairman, GA 2-6635.

Self Defense Seminar Set For Women

A Seminar on self defense for women will be held at Northwest Branch YWCA, 25940 Grand River, on Monday night, April 3.

The seminar is for women only and is being offered as a public service. It will be geared for women over 16 and of varying physical ability.

A lecture, film, and demonstration will be included in the program with preventative safety tips as well as what to do in case of purse snatchers, peeping Toms and other molesters.

Advance registration is required and there will be a $3 registration fee which will include materials. Call the YWCA at KE 7-8500 for further information.

Hospital Nurses Need More Time to Care for Patients

ANN ARBOR — Nurses in American hospitals today have so many chores that they are devoting only 25 per cent of their time to caring for the patient, says a nursing professor at the University of Michigan.

Three to four times more nursing power could be employed in patient care without training another nurse if the system of care were rearranged, believes Luther Christman, R.N.

A vice president and director of the American Nurses' Association, Christman is an associate professor in U-M's School of Nursing. He will become dean of nursing at Vanderbilt University next July 1.

Describing the patient in today's hospital as "caught in an almost aimless ebb and flow" of different kinds of workers moving in and out of the room, Christman says: "The fleeting involvement of so many strangers in his life tends to create in the sick individual an apprehension that no one person has a vital concern in the proceedings."

The enactment of the Hill-Burton Bill by Congress in 1946 resulted in construction of new hospital facilities with "little or no thought given to new nursing manpower," he writes, adding:

"Unable to do the work themselves, the nurses attempted to provide the care through others — by supervising large numbers of partially trained and untrained nursing aides."

Pointing out that full utilization of nursing skills can be realized only if professional nurses attend to only clinical activities, Christman suggests a general utility aide be assigned to care for a few patients.

"Lawrence Hill director of the U-M program of hospital administration, has pointed out that these general utility aides would function much as airline stewardesses does in caring for a wide variety of services to airplane passengers," writes Christman. "He suggests that they be called 'patient-care stewardesses.'"

The nursing professor believes that the new aide would do most of the same tasks now done by nurses' aides, dietary aides, and housekeeping aides. The same aide would be assigned to the same few patients each day, and be available for all the intimate comfort services.

In this way, the patient "would soon learn that he had one person to depend on to fill needs of hotel-housekeeping nature," also, "the 'patient-care stewardesses' would experience more work satisfaction than hospital aides now get from the dull routine and competitive tasks that comprise their day."

Christman said this concept of patient care soon will be tried in a Detroit metropolitan hospital.

He believes it may be opportune to assess how nurses with graduate training and physicians could "more adequately supplement and complement one another." Present licensing laws could be examined to determine what changes are necessary "to facilitate the articulation of the expert practice of both groups and at the same time fully protect the public."

"Tooling up to educate a new health profession is an enormous and costly social endeavor. It would seem more socially economical to contrive organizational arrangements that permit full utilization of present manpower than to undertake costly training of additional others."

Society Offers 2 Scholarships To Musicians

The Redford Township Music Society is offering two $100 music scholarships this year.

To qualify, students must be a graduating senior in high school, a resident of Redford Township, and must be planning to attend college this fall as a music major.

To obtain an application for a scholarship, see one of the following people: Sister Gilmory, St. Agatha; Mrs. Carroll, Thurston; William Fleming, Redford Union.

Russian Writer Finds U.S. Haven

A transplanted Russian lady who's now "102 per cent American" was speaker for the Livonia Town Hall's final meeting of the season last week.

Journalist and lecturer, Nila Magidoff gave the talk, and the descriptive term came from Dearborn teacher Richard Dick, who introduced her. He admonished the audience—"Don't offer her vodka; Scotch will be fine. And she prefer's Campbell's soup to borscht."

Pride in her adopted country underlined all that Mrs. Magidoff had to say. She told of marrying newscaster Robert Magidoff in Moscow and coming to the United States a few days before Pearl Harbor while he remained in Russia.

She said she toured the country selling war bonds, but felt she was not really part of the country because she had no home.

"So when the war was over I returned to Russia," she reported, "because Robert had interesting work there and we wanted to be together."

Among the Russian people, Mrs. Magidoff said, there was always "a most beautiful curiosity about America and a warm and sympathetic feeling, but it was different with Soviet officialdom."

She and her husband were accused as spies and she spent a year in Siberian exile before they managed to get to this country to stay, as a teacher in Louisville.

"There we bought a house," Mrs. Magidoff said, "and our neighbors came bringing gifts and we made many friends. NOW I feel I really have discovered America."

Town Hall Speaker Has Visited Vietnam; Supports President's Firm Stand There

Emphatic endorsement of the firm stand taken by President Johnson and the military in Vietnam is voiced by world reporter Pegge Parker "because not one life should be lost needlessly—not my son's; not your son's."

Miss Parker, wife of television producer John Hlavacek and mother of five children spoke last week at the Northville Town Hall on "A Woman Looks at Vietnam."

Recently returned with her husband from the Vietnam combat zone, she used the word "elusive" to describe the war there, and said Americans "fight the war but don't understand it because we cannot comprehend the oriental mentality."

But she added that recent developments indicate "we're heading for the final payoff."

"Things are going from bad to worse in North Vietnam," Miss Parker said. "Observers close to the situation used to believe they were waiting for our next election in the hope that the President might then be a man with whom they could make a good deal. Now it looks as if they may not be

Women on the GO!

By Margaret Miller

The crayoned drawing of pink flowers in a blue vase was typical of a young child's art work. Neater than most, and more artistic.

The outline drawings on manilla paper illustrating a classroom story were the kind every mother of a first-grader can stack up by the dozen. But sprightlier, with more flair.

The block letters carefully fashioned on lined paper were in the best tradition of painstaking first-grade work.

Nothing remarkable — except that all these papers were done by a six-year-old girl who holds pencil or crayon in her teeth, because she can't use her hands.

Bright-eyed, brown-haired Sally Bitel can't use her legs either, so she attends Horace Mann School in South Redford, in her wheel chair. A bus picks her up at her Livonia home each morning and brings her back in the late afternoon.

Sally also attends weekly catechism classes at Our Lady of Good Counsel in Plymouth. And in both types of schooling she's making progress certainly on a par with that of her more advantaged contemporaries.

Sally, who is Easter Seal Society child for Livonia this year, does have some tremendous advantages built into her life.

Her parents, Leonard and Linda Bitel, are determined to help her lead a good life, and sisters Lisa, eight, and Mary, almost five, as well as two-year-old brother Duffy (formally Gregory) make as satisfactory a family as any six-year-old could ask.

Sally was Easter Seal girl in 1965 as well as this year. "We see no reason to hide her handicap," said her sensible mother. "She's going to grow up in a wheel chair, and people might as well get to know her that way."

Sally's defect is arthrogryposis multiplex congenita, which is the hard way of saying she was born without muscles in her outer extremities.

SALLY BITEL has her own method for producing pretty pictures, since she can't use arms or legs.

"Not much is known about this rare defect," explained Mrs. Bitel. "We take her to University Hospital in Ann Arbor occasionally so the doctors there can keep tabs on her."

"There's some talk of surgery when she's 11 or 12, but we'll face that when the time gets closer."

Meanwhile, Sally learns to read and keeps up her pencil-in-mouth art work. Her mother hopes she may have inherited some artistic talent from her painter and sculptor great-uncle.

"She's probably the most contented of our four children," says Mrs. Bitel, "and the one my mother calls our argument settler."

Without use of arms or legs, Sally has a lot going for her.

Two Championship Bridge Tournaments Are Scheduled

The Mayfair Duplicate Club will hold two championship bridge games during the last week of March.

The first will take place Tuesday, March 28, at 7:45 p.m., at 32905 Northwestern. It will be a mixed pairs tournament, with trophies and extra master points awarded. Refreshments will be served and reservations will be appreciated.

The second championship game will take place Thursday, March 30 at 8 p.m. It will be an open pairs tournament, located at 400 E. Lincoln, Birmingham. Trophies, points and refreshments are also available, and reservations are being taken.

The Mayfair Club holds three weekly games, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings. The Tuesday and Friday games are held at the above address on Northwestern, Farmington. The Thursday game is held weekly at the Birmingham "Y".

Club master point games are held on the second Tuesday and Thursday of the month, and the Friday master point game is the first of each month. For further information call MA 6-2109.

Local Group Will Compete In Barbershop Singing Test

The Suburbanettes of South Oakland County will be one of 25 Sweet Adeline groups competing in the approaching regional convention of the women's barbershop singing organization.

The 12th annual convention will be held at Jack Tar Hotel in Lansing, beginning March 31. Mrs. William Greene of Farmington, directs the local group.

Members include: Livonia — Mrs. Dean McAllister and Mrs. Ralph Reid.

Farmington — Mrs. Ken Saundry, Mrs. John Courville, Jill Turley, Mrs. Russell Gilbert, Mrs. Alan Little, Mrs. D. McEachin, Mrs. William Newlin, and Marilyn Oleson.

Redford Township — Mrs.

Ralph Gould, Sandra Linde, Mrs. William Morell, Karen Heino, Mrs. Haig Arabian, Leslie Smith and her mother, Mrs. Bernie Smith.

Plymouth — Mrs. James Weigle.

The chorus rehearses regularly at K. of C. Hall, in Berkley, and is open to all women interested in barbershop harmony.

Mrs. Terry to Enter Speech Competition

The Redford Toastmistress Club will be represented at the Council No. 4 International Toastmistress Club Speech Contest, Saturday, April 15, by Mrs. Clifford Terry.

Alternate Mrs. George Kuehn will stand-in for the winner and will be given identical topics seven days before the event.

The next meeting of the Redford Toastmistress Club will be Tuesday, March 28, at 12:30 p.m. Members will draw for their assignments at the meeting.

Interested women may call Mrs. John Ralston, GR 4-8127. Luncheon reservations may be placed with Mrs. Robert Randall, 532-1625.

Madonna Students Confer with Milliken

Susan Szejda and Carol Budzyn of Madonna College met recently with Michigan Lieutenant Governor William G. Milliken and other student leaders in Lansing to discuss expansion of the volunteer programs existing now on various campuses.

Joining in the session with Milliken who serves as co-chairman of the state's Human Resources Council, were student leaders from 25 Michigan colleges and universities which already have volunteer community service programs ranging all the way from tutoring disadvantaged youngsters to visiting aged shut-ins.

Milliken last year spoke on several campuses, urging both students and college administrators to broaden these volunteer services, the influence of which is felt as far away as Mississippi and even Latin America.

The meeting was preliminary to a statewide conference for student volunteers which will be held April 6-8 at Michigan State University and will involve Governor George Romney, Edward L. Cushman, who is the other co-chairman of the Human Resources Council, and resource people from a five state area.

This conference, being held for the fourth straight year, is expected to attract more than 300 student leaders from nearly all of Michigan's colleges and universities.

In accordance with Governor Romney's suggestion for the establishment of volunteer programs on campuses in Michigan, Madonna has organized the CVSP (Campus Volunteer Service Program).

The program has existed on campus for three semesters as a standing committee, and recently has been recognized as an official club on campus. In order to achieve this status, a standing committee must claim a membership of at least 10 students and submit a written constitution to the Student Council. The CVSP has 140 members.

Officers of the CVSP are junior Susan Szejda and sophomore Carol Budzyn. Volunteer work primarily consists in tutoring, CCD (Confraternity of Christian Doctrine) classes and visiting the mentally retarded at Our Lady of Providence School in Northville.

Florida Scene Of Anniversary Celebration

A silver wedding anniversary celebration in Florida and Nassau was the happy experience of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Karttunen, 14011 Brookfield, Livonia.

Enjoying the vacation with them were Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Oikarinen, of Southfield, who were married with the Karttunens in a double wedding Feb. 21, 1942, in Detroit.

The Karttunens have lived in Livonia seven years and before that made their home in Redford Township. They are the parents of three daughters, Anita, a teacher in the Livonia school system, Diane and Susan, graduates of Bentley High School, and Gary, who attends Kennedy School.

Color Change Cloth New for Home Decor

Chameleon cloth, the color-changing fabric, may be the answer to the home decorator's dream of changing settings without added cost.

University of Illinois textiles professor Lorraine Trebilcock explains that this printed cotton fabric can be given a second set of colors if you get tired of the original.

First used for little girls' dresses, chameleon cloth is now available in quilted bedspreads.

Wear, use, or laundering won't change the first color. It changes only once—when you dip the item in a special chemical (citric acid solution). This solution removes the ultramarine blue dye, causing a permanent color change.

And the second color isn't a matter of chance. For example, blue becomes green, orchid changes to rose, and brown turns to orange—and stays that way.

Farmington AFS Groups To Hold Dinner Dance

A dinner-dance sponsored jointly by the North Farmington and Farmington Chapters of the American Field Service will be held Saturday April 8, at the Armenian Cultural Center, in Southfield.

The event now is in its fifth year, and funds raised are used to support the AFS program that provides scholarships for local students to go abroad and brings foreign students for a year of study in the local community.

In the past, the two chapters have sent two girls to Brazil; Bonnie Britton from North Farmington High School and Jill McElroy from Farmington High.

The program also has brought a number of students from other lands to study in the Farmington area. Those here this year are Ross Smith, of Australia, and Lidia Leon Chang, of Guatemala, both attending North Farmington, and Ta Hue Phan, of Vietnam, and Bjorn Tjernstrom, of Sweden, at Farmington High.

Anyone For Bridge?

If you live in Westland and like to play bridge, there's a newcomer to your city who would like to hear from you.

Mrs. James Goldsworthy used to live in Kansas City, Mo., and is a bridge enthusiast from way back, but since moving to the Cherry Hill-Merriman area about five months ago, hasn't been able to get any foursomes together.

Anyone interested in a women's evening bridge group may call her at 722-6831.

Class Offered For Creating Paper Jewelry

Suburban women interested in adding a more personal touch to their wardrobes will have an opportunity to design their own paper mache jewelry in a new evening course which will meet on Tuesdays from 7 to 9 p.m. in Livonia's Franklin High School, Joy Road West of Middlebelt.

According to instructor Barbara Campbell, little skill is required to make bracelets, pins, pendants, cuff links, earrings and other popular items. Demonstrations of several different paper mache methods will be made. Materials are not expensive.

Registration for this and nearly 200 other evening school courses offered throughout the system are being held this week from 7:30 to 9 p.m. at Bentley High, Five Mile and Hubbard Road.

Over the Back Fence

By BETTY FRANKEL

I'm an old gardener in a new house. This makes the fifth house I've made a garden for—seven if you count my mother's and my mother-in-law's.

Garden number one consisted of hardy annuals growing in poor soil around a Willow Run apartment. The second garden was for a little Cape Cod house in Plymouth. There I learned about flowering shrubs and how to landscape on a small budget.

Next came a garden in the deep South, and then a ranch house in a brand new subdivision in Farmington. I learned the value of trees—because we had none, but I had fun with perennials.

The new house is on a wooded lot, so I'll be doing my gardening in the shade.

I learned something from each garden, but mainly I learned that a good garden with good landscaping doesn't just happen. It has to be planned. It really does. Then you'll be making the best use of your space and getting the most for your money and effort.

The first step in planning is to list all the activities the yard is to be used for, such as children's play, entertaining, relaxing. Decide whether gardening is a hobby or a chore. If a chore, plan landscaping that will involve minimum maintenance.

Make a scale drawing on paper. Perhaps let one inch equal eight feet. Locate your house by measuring from the edges of the property and draw it on the plan, marking doors and windows. Sketch driveway, walks, patio and play area.

Place trees for shade where needed and to frame the view of the house. Finally mark where shrub borders and plant beds are needed—and there's your basic plan ready to be detailed with suitable plants.

Take an old gardener's advice. It's far easier to move plants on paper than in the garden. It really pays to plan before planting.

MARRIED 49 years ago at Owosso, are Mr. and Mrs. Elsmere Pearson, who were honored at a family dinner, held March 5 at the home of daughter, Mrs. Lois Davis and son, Lyle, in Plymouth. Others present were: Mrs. Phyllis Harwood and daughter, Holly, and Miss Shirley Pearson. Absent relatives who sent congratulations were Lynn Harwood in college at Kalamazoo and Spec. 5 Morris Davis serving his third year with the 319th Battalion in Germany.

OPENING OF THE NEW K-MART store at Cherry Hill and Wayne Roads, Westland, had two-year-old Sandra Strehle, granddaughter of store manager Paul Wenzel (left) cut the ribbon for Thursday's official opening. Also on hand for the ceremony were Sandra's mother, Mrs. Charles R. Strehle, and H. B. Cunningham, S. S. Kresge Co. President, and numerous city officials. The store's parking lot was filled by the opening hour and thousands of shoppers streamed through the doors on the store's first day of business.

Dianne Stieber Becomes Bride Of Robert Smith on March 17

Dianne Sharon Stieber became the bride of Robert Sale Smith Jr. at a candle-light ceremony in Ward Memorial Presbyterian Church, March 17.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Stieber, of Bentley Avenue, Livonia, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Smith, of Jacquelyn Drive, Livonia.

Dr. Bartlet H. Hess and the Rev. Charles E. Stenner, of Plain City, Ohio, officiated at the rites.

A white delustered satin sheath was the choice of the bride, who was given in marriage by her father. The gown had alencon lace and seed pearl trim and a detachable cathedral length white carnations and stephanotis.

Celia Laurion was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Karen Disbrow, Betty Smith, sister of the bridegroom, and Beverly Stieber, sister of the bride.

Their mint green nylon chiffon and taffeta sheath dresses were fashioned with white lace over the bodices, and three-quarter length sleeves. They carried baby white carnations edged in green.

Robert S. Smith was best man for his son, and Jerry Wilczynski, Donald Grose, Richard Banks and Phillip Forsyth seated the guests.

Both Mrs. Stieber and Mrs. Smith chose pink costumes for the wedding.

A reception for 220 guests was held in the church's Fellowship Hall, after which the young couple left for a honeymoon in the East. They will live in Livonia.

Couple's Vows Spoken in Greenfield Village Chapel

Vows spoken in the Martha-Mary Chapel at Greenfield Village united Sandra Lee Levergood and Peter F. Lawson in marriage March 17.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Levergood of Haskel Avenue in Taylor and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ralph P. Lawson, of Arnold Avenue Redford Township, and the late Mr. Lawson.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. Leland Kennedy.

Re-embroidered alencon lace fashioned the bridal gown made in sheath style with a chapel length train. A lace-covered pill box held her mantilla veil, and a white orchid centered her butterfly rose bouquet.

Ellen Harris, of Ann Arbor was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Donna Cory, of Taylor, and Shirley Green of Longview, Tex. Their sheath gowns of moss green brocade and ivory crepe were topped by brocade coats, and they wore mantillas and carried mums and carnations in shades of blue and green.

The mother of the bride wore an ensemble of brocade in blue and green, and Mrs. Lawson's coat dress was aqua accented with matching velvet ribbon.

Following the ceremony there was a reception in Clinton Inn at Greenfield Village, and the newlyweds left for a San Juan and St. Thomas honeymoon.

Jaycettes Help First Step Project

The Farmington Jaycee Auxiliary is joining in a county-wide campaign named "Operation First Step." The purpose of the campaign, sponsored by the Oakland County Chapter of the Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children, is to inform the general public of a vital mental health service called the "Intake and Referral Service."

The service is available for emergency situations as well as in assisting long range planning. The "Intake and Referral Service" is available to all children and adults, with either a disturbance or a retardation problem.

If you have a child who seems to be "beyond control" your first step in helping him should be to call 334-3518, Monday through Friday between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. Ask for Mrs. Turpin.

Engagement and Wedding Announcements

The Observer is happy to print all notices of engagements or weddings, and will do so as soon as possible after receipt at our Livonia office, 33050 Five Mile Road. There is a charge of $2.50 for printing a one-column picture (1 3/4 by 2 1/2 inches). Because of a space shortage, all wedding pictures should be one-column in size and of the bride alone.

We cannot accept wedding announcements or pictures more than a month after the marriage.

Checks payable to The Observer Newspaper Group should accompany pictures mailed to the office, and all necessary information should be included.

Cranbrook Students To Sell Art

The auction of art works by students of Cranbrook Academy of Art is a traditional event.

It began nine years ago when the students, sympathetic to the plight of an Hungarian artist, determined to sell their art works to help him.

This year the event will be held at 7:30 p.m. on April 1 in the Galleries of Cranbrook Academy of Art, located in Bloomfield Hills. Objects may be previewed beginning at 6:30 p.m.

All proceeds from the auction go toward the student sponsored and administered scholarship fund.

Plymouth Guild Sets Musical

The Plymouth Theatre Guild's production of "The Desert Song" opens March 31 at the P & A Theatre, 851 Penniman, Plymouth. Additional performances are scheduled for April 1, 2, 6, 7 and 9. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m.

Directed by Kingsley Page, this is the first full-length musical attempted by the Guild in its 23 year history. Musical Director is Martin K. Zurn.

Zurn, who first appeared in a Guild production last May, also appears as Capt. Paul Fontaine in this production.

Singing the romantic female lead, Margot Bonvalet, is Betty Zurn.

Others in the cast are: James McNeice; Jacob Rumpf; Sue Griebel; Nick Zito; Gregg Reed; Thomas Griffin; Sandra Richards; Jan Schwartz; Connie Beaver; Norma Loveless and Mary Stevens.

Paul Miller, a member of the Plymouth Symphony, will conduct the 10 piece orchestra which will provide the musical accompaniment to the show.

Advance tickets for the production may be purchased at Hammell Music in Livonia or from Mrs. Jerry French, 14163 Blue Skies Court, Livonia, 464-1599.

Jazz Show At WSU

The second annual Detroit Jazz Conference will be held on Saturday, April 8, and Sunday, April 9, at Wayne State University's McGregor Memorial Conference Center, the Community Arts Auditorium and the Music Wing.

Sponsored by the Detroit Jazz Society, the WSU Division of Conferences and Institutes and Music Department, and the University Center for Adult Education (UCAE), the Conference will focus on the theme "Jazz in Our Time."

Over 75 musicians and speakers will participate in the week-end program of live performances, discussions and lecture-demonstrations. Headliners include conference-artist-in-residence, pianist Cecil Taylor and His Quartet, guitarist Kenny Burrell, critic-author A. B. Spellman, and critic Frank Kofsky.

Detroit groups that will perform include the Dorothy Ashby Trio, the Hal McKinney Combo, the WSU Improvisation Ensemble, and the Jack Brokensha Concert Jazz Quartet. One of the speakers will be Dr. Ruth S. Wylie, composer and WSU professor of music.

The Conference program, planned by Dr. Betty E. Chmaj, is varied to appeal to those new to jazz as well as jazz buffs and scholars, musicians and teachers, and students of all forms of music.

For complete Conference and registration information, write the University Center for Adult Education, 120 Rackham Building, or telephone 831-4310.

Wally Roberts UP GOING CURTAIN

After two merely acceptable productions, The Meadow Brook Theater has an exhilarating production in their current offering, "You Never Can Tell." From start to finish the presentation of this Shaw comedy of manners shimmers and glows.

Director Robin Ray is to be complimented for his superb staging of this seldom-seen Shaw piece. Everything about the production bespoke professionalism. Meadow Brook has finally produced a "hit" in every sense of the word.

The costumes are delightful. Lighting effects by James Gaine, Jr. add to the evenings enjoyment. Tom Aston's sets contribute to the over-all gaiety. In short, everyone and everything associated with "You Never Can Tell" radiates the sheen of success.

Old Wally does like to write of theatrical success as well as the horrible failures. Lately, we have had a string of disappointing evenings. It was therefore, a real joy and a relief to attend the Meadow Brook Theater and join in with the audience giving

Mercy Slates Musical Hit

Alumni Association of Mercy College of Detroit has underwritten the Friday, April 14, performance of "My Fair Lady" the musical with which the Drama Department will conclude its 1967 Drama Series.

All profits from this performance will go to the Association's scholarship fund.

There will be five performances of the play in McAuley Auditorium, starting Thursday, April 13, and concluding Sunday, April 16.

There is a matinee Saturday, April 15. Evening performances are at 8 p.m., the matinee at 2 p.m. Tickets are now on sale.

Orchestra Gains Superior Rating

The Franklin High School Orchestra under the direction of Roy E. Ernst, was rated superior by a panel of four adjudicators at the southeastern Michigan district orchestra festival on March 11. This qualifies the Franklin orchestra to again participate with Michigan's best orchestras in a state-wide festival to be held in April.

Ernst commented, "The performance level of orchestras throughout the state has improved tremendously in recent years. Participation in the festivals has been an important factor in the development of the Franklin orchestra."

the actors genuine heart-felt applause for a job well-done.

Susan Stranks limbed her role as bratty adolescent so well you felt like tweaking her nose or ear if she looked one more flippant remark. Curt Dawson as her precocious brother added even more visual spice to his role than even G.B. Shaw dreamed of when he wrote this lighthearted comedy back in 1896.

Dawson and Stranks steal scene after scene from the other members of the company. In fact, my prediction for Mr. Dawson is that some eagle-eyed Hollywood scout is going to spot this talented youngster soon and it will be our loss.

Robert Donley as the wise, sympathetic waiter turns in a sterling performance. His role demands all the savvy of a gentlemen's gentleman, the calm consideration of a dear, kindly grandfather, and the witty repartee of a bon vivant. Donley combines all these special skills in his marvelous interpretation. His movement about the stage during the fabulous dinner scene is exquisite.

George Guidall, Terrence Scammell, and Eric Berry attack their roles with tremendous gusto, each creating memorable portraits. Jenny Laird underplays her matriarchal role of this deliciously "kooky" family so that her characterization blends perfectly. Roni Dengel as Gloria completes the list of actors and actresses doing so competent a job in this Shaw comedy of coincidence.

The love scenes between Terrence Scammell and Roni Dengel skip, jump, and take lightly to the air. The Meadow Brook Theater is filled with the charm and wit of G. B. Shaw as these two talented actors so aptly beguile us.

"Yes, sir, you never can tell... There was my son, sir, who ever thought he would rise to wear a silk gown, sir? And yet today, sir, nothing less than 50 guineas. What a lesson, sir." So says the waiter to Mr. Crampton in Act II.

And I suppose it would be well for us to state that you never can tell when a theatrical group is going to suddenly pull together and become "great." The John Fernald Company of the Meadow Brook Theater has achieved this worthwhile level with its third production.

Old Wally is looking forward to the opening of their fourth production April 5, "The Waltz of The Toreadors." This happy Anouilh comedy should be a pleasant adventure for the Meadow Brook group.

Society To Hear History of Church

Mrs. Russell Wright will outline the history of the Farmington Baptist Church at the March 22 Farmington Historical Society meeting.

The program, open free to the public, will be at the Farmington High School Library, 32000 Shiawassee Rd. It will begin at 8 p.m.

The Farmington Baptist Church has a very long history in the community, dating to Civil War times. One persistent legend has it that slaves were hidden away in the basement during the Underground Railroad movement.

Second feature of next week's program will be the third film in the Burton Collection series on old Detroit. This one will concern the early beginnings of the automobile.

Social Meeting Set

The Senior Citizens Social Club of Farmington will meet at 12 noon Thursday, March 28, in the social room of the First Methodist Church. Following lunch a business meeting will be conducted.

Questers Hear About Colonial Williamsburg

The charm of "Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia," was brought in a talk to the Quakerstown Questers by Mrs. Fred Harrison at the home of Mrs. R. J. Truesdell, 29546 Briarton, Farmington, recently.

Mrs. Harrison said that this village dates back to 1726 and that the 18th century buildings, furnishings and gardens take their original form in this significant community. Trim carriages roll along Duke of Gloucester Street, their main public way, and described by the late President Roosevelt as "the most historic avenue in all America."

Colored slides were also shown of the weather boarded houses of colonial days; the wealth of handsome English and American furnishings in the buildings which are open to the public. Efforts in this restoration work are not only to exhibit evidence of the past, but also to recreate a living community.

In 1926 decay threatened to destroy what remained of the colonial capital until John D. Rockefeller,

Jr. gave his support to its restoration. This work has been carried out by Colonial Williamsburg, Inc., dedicated to the purpose "That the Future May Learn

Family Y Offers Planned Programs For Handicapped

The Livonia Family "Y" in conjunction with several interested parents has formed a Family Program for those families with Trainable Handicapped children. The group will be holding its fourth meeting on Tuesday, March 21st, at 7 p.m. in Elm School on Middlebelt Road. Parents interested in investigating this program are encouraged to attend.

This is a social and recreational group whose planned activities at the moment include: Family swimming, bowling, family camping, trips and picnics. Activities will expand as the group decides. The group is governed by its own elected officers. For further information call Don Dinwoodie at the Livonia Family YMCA, 261-0370.

From the Past." This, exactly, is the feeling one gets when walking along the roads and gardens where, too, George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Patrick Henry, George Wythe and other leaders lived and made history.

There are several historical buildings that are considered a "must": the Governor's Palace; the Capitol Building, where the laws of the colony were enacted; the Public Gaol; and the George Wythe House; the Courthouse of 1770.

To appease the appetites, there are various taverns: the Chowning's Tavern, served by waiters in colonial costumes; the King's Arms Tavern, where the waiters are all students of William and Mary College and, who too, are costumed in the manner of their colonial forebears.

One of the most inspiring places Mrs. Harrison visited, was the Bruton Parish Church, where George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and others worshipped for many years. You may kneel down on the individual kneelers and be reminded of the part religion played in the daily life of 18th Century Virginia. Today Williamsburg stands as a symbol of one of the most impressive eras of the American past.

The next meeting will be held March 22 at the home of Mrs. William J. Conroy, who will give a talk on "Early Woodenware."

The Detroit Edison and Consumers Power electrical transmission systems have been interconnected since 1928 and have operated as a fully integrated power pool since 1962.

After Easter, Eggs May Be Pickled

BY FAITH GILLESPIE

Have you been wistfully thinking, "Whatever happened to spring?"

The world seems to be entombed in a New Ice Age. Our eager hopes for spring are buried under the Great Glacier, almost, and the snow is still coming down as though it were eternal. There are a few small signs and symbols, if you look for them. Brave new green spears have thrust themselves up from the snow. They will one day be daffodils, honest. Beginnings of tulips are poking out, and hyacinths.

I admit that some silly shoots of green were up in the January thaw, and they haven't grown an inch since, but as they are still standing there, I have to believe they are promising something.

So is that shivering robin at the bird feeder.

One reason spring seems so late in coming is that Easter is upon us, and this year it is very early.

Easter is a moveable feast. It can come any time between March 22 and April 25, depending upon the moon, but since it is a spring festival, we expect true spring to accompany it, whenever.

We are all ready for the old dead winter to melt away. Our souls are waiting for the newness of life that we feel when the world resurrects itself.

The custom of new clothes at Easter probably reflects this wish, and so does the Easter egg.

Long before Christians adopted the egg as a resurrection symbol, the ancients dyed eggs in spring colors to give to their friends. Few customs have survived intact for such a long time.

Dyeing egg is quite an experience at our house, where six little Christians jockey for the dye pots.

The ones the girls dye turn out to be rather delicate and pretty. Those done by the "big" boys could be described as psychodelic. And Patrick's are mostly just cracked.

The package the dye comes in tells you how to do it. The instruction are precise and complete. What they don't tell you is what to do with all those colored eggs that are left on Easter Monday. In the great egg exchange, we end up with about as many as we started with.

They keep in the refrigerator for a few days, and you can use them in sandwiches and salads, of course, but if you have lots, try pickling some.

Peel the eggs and pickle them plain, or you may dye them in the same pure food coloring you used for the shells—it is absolutely harmless. Or you may use beet juice; eggs dyed red were once the special spring token.

Put the peeled eggs in a jar with a cover, and pour pickled beet juice. Or use sweet pickle juice. Or use this pickling syrup:

SPICED-EGGS

Bring to boil in sauce pan 2 cups vinegar, 3 tablespoons sugar, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt. Drop in 1 teaspoon pickling spice in a cheesecloth bag, and 1 clove of garlic. Simmer 5 minutes. Pour 12 peeled hardcooked eggs in jar. Cover jar and refrigerate for a day or two or three. The pickled eggs will keep for several weeks in the refrigerator.

One teaspoon dill seed may be substituted for the pickling spice. You may add a teaspoon of curry powder, for color and flavor, or 1/2 to 1 teaspoon turmeric.

Maybe next week when you are reading this, the world will have broken the shell of winter, and you will know things are springing. What can I say then except, "I knew it would happen all along?"

Slippery Gelatin

When removing gelatin from a mold, moisten the plate and top of mold with wet fingers. The moist surfaces make it possible to slide the gelatin to the center of the plate after taking it out of the mold.

S. S. KRESGE COMPANY

Officer Recognized Editor:

I noticed an appreciation note from William Baron in the Livonia Observer referring to a service one of our Police Officers was able to do for Mrs. Otto Stark. Mr. Baron indicated he wished to know the Officer's name. He is our Patrolman Norman Meaders.

It was thoughtful of Mr. Baron to publicly recognize Patrolman Meaders' act.

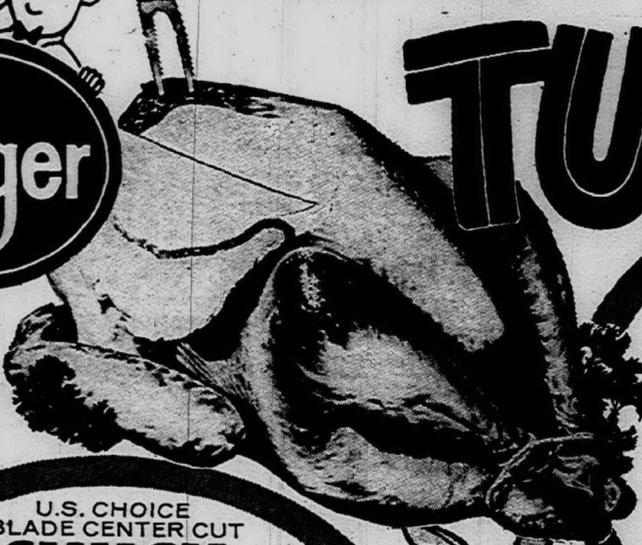

Be assured of our cooperation in all matters of mutual interest.

Looking for a new, used car? Stop at one of these dependable dealers today!

The second-hand VW. It makes a great first car.

It's a car that won't give anything new to worry about. We make sure of that. We give it the VW 16 point safety and performance test. It has to pass. So we can give it our 100% guarantee that we'll repair or replace all major mechanical parts* for 30 days or 1000 miles, whichever comes first. Isn't that what a new car owner needs? A bug that won't drive you nuts.
