County Equalization Adds $41,648,090 to Rolls

Because the property in the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township has not been assessed at 50 per cent of its true cash value, as required by state law, the Wayne County Equalization Committee has added $54,134,170 to the total valuation under the equalization formula.

Of this added amount $41,648,090 was placed on the Township rolls where it had been claimed property was under-assessed for some

Only recently John McEwen, Township Supervisor, had an audit of the tax rolls, and then raised the assessments to 25 per cent of the true cash value. This was done on the theory that a bigger raise at this time would work a hardship on many people and bring about forced sales that would interfere with the planned development of the community,

In the new assessments, announced by the County Bureau of Taxation this week, the real property in the Township is assessed at $34,913,370 and the personal property at $18,718,090, bringing the total to $53,613,460.

Under the equalization plan in which the county now has added $41,649,090 the total equalized assessed valuation of the Township is $95,279,550, compared to $67,695,000 a year ago.

At this figure Plymouth Township is now the third largest township in the county from a valuation standpoint and pays 1.001902 per cent of the county tax. It is surpassed only by Redford Township with an equalized valuation of $268,266,420 and Taylor Twp. with $138,682,040.

In the City of Plymouth, where the assessments have been made on approximately 42 per cent of true cash value, the latest assessment on real property is $27,839,330 and on personal property $8,109,090 for a total of $35,948,420. To this was added $12.486,080 for an equalized total valuation of $48,434,500. At this figure the City of Plymouth pays 0.509308 per cent of the total county tax.

The additions placed on the Plymouth Community property helped lift the total county valuation to a new peak of $9.5 billion. To hit this peak the Equalization Committee let it be known that 35 out-county areas, aside from the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township, had been raised a total of $1.4 billion.

The latest figures also reveal that the City of Detroit will pay only 50.55 per cent of the county's total tax and this is the lowest in the county's history.

Assessments increased in 41 of the county's

43 communities with only Hamtramck and Melvindale showing decreases.

Another interesting feature of the latest figures reveals that only six communities were assessed at 50 per cent of the true cash value. They are: Detroit, Highland Park, Northville, Westland, Wayne and Riverview.

Among the areas experiencing large increases Dearborn topped the list with $249,719,-070. Livonia was boosted $125,325,690.

Next year, it has been hinted, both the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township will meet the requirements of the state law and assess the property at 50 per cent of the true cash value and thus avoid the embarrassment of getting a jolt from the County's Equalization Committee.

Draugelis Action

A "get tough" policy in dealing with speeders and senseless tire squealers has been adopted by Municipal Judge Edward Draugelis in dealing with traffic offenders on city

In reviewing fines and nodriving sentences meted out in most recent cases, Judge Draugelis disclosed he's fed up with drivers who use Plymouth thoroughfares as a race track.

"We have had too many complaints and too many arrests lately for excessive noise due to squealing tires," commented the Judge. "It is our opinion that if the accused are denied the use of automobiles for an extended period they will be more careful in the future.

"Fines and sentences of this nature will serve as a warning to all young drivers in the community. If it works out as expected, we believe we will be able to curb excessive noise

Dangerous Crossings Part of Safety, Too

For the past year highway safety - or some element of it - has been look no further than the crossing at of major concern in all levels of government.

It started when a little-known lawyer - Ralph Nader - wrote a book condemning the automobile manufacturers charging them with all sorts of dire things that he claimed produced the slaughter on our nation's thoroughfares.

Almost overnight he became famous as Congress took up his cry and summoned the auto makers to Washington to answer the charges. Strangely, some of the charges were substantiated, and the manufacturers promised to abide by the congressional designs for safety.

It created quite a hub-bub in the auto industry and the findings have helped to bring about a condition cause of faulty parts.

As a prime example, you need Five Mile Road and Hines Drive.

This is one of the most dangerous intersections to be found anywhere. Even the police officers admit that. So do many government heads. Yet nothing is done about it.

Picture, if you will, the conditions that exist at this intersection. If you are traveling on Five Mile Road and moving past the seminary toward Hines Drive, you will notice "stop" sign at the Drive. There also is a "stop" sign on Hines Drive, to your right, and just ahead, across the Drive, is Northville Road. So it actually is a double crossing.

If these "donated" hours could be totaled it would reach a staggering sum.

Then, another interesting question was raised — "What would this committee work cost - if all members were paid at the rate they are compensated at their regular positions?'

No one at the table would hazard a guess, but all agreed that the Plymouth Community could not afford to foot the bill.

Just then the hostess walked by and, in a half whisper, remarked "I wonder how much all the work is appreciated?"

It was a good question and one to which there are all kinds of answers - both good and bad. 2a.If not, what are your

A TIP OF THE TOPPER

Margaret Wilson, owner of Melody House and the Penn Theater, deserves the thanks of the downtown business community for the improvements she has just had completed at both places.

The theater is now up-to-date. The customers can be serviced with more comfort and efficiency, and the listening pleasure is improved by the huge partition at the rear of the house.

And the new front on Melody House, which matches the theater, is a real improvement. It also enhances the entire downtown business section.

Would there were more like her.

THINGS I NEVER KNEW 'TIL NOW

Michigan leads the nation in the production of cherries and dry beans, and our state ranks among the top five in the production of 20 foods.

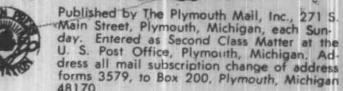

While only one out of 80 Michigan citizens operates a farm, 27 per cent of Michigan citizens derive some part of their income from agriculture.

The cash value of products from Michigan farms amounts to about $800 million a year and the retail value of the same products exceeds $2 billion.

Original House Is Lost In Bungalow When Marietta Hough re-

modeled the large airy house at 173 N. Main, she thought she was creating a smart-looking bungalow. Today, 40 years later, that bungalow is hopelessly out-of-date, and pictures of the original style show that it was much more charming.

Everyone, including the contractor, told Marietta not to redo the house. But she was a determined woman. As a matter of fact, it was one of her iron whims which caused her to buy the place.

Around 1914, she was a widow living a few doors away from the house that is now the Veterans Memorial. In the middle of one night she had a dream that she should own it. So she got out of bed, called up her son and told him to buy it.

It probably was morning, before the son, Ed Hough, coowner of the Daisy Air Rifle Co., was able to start negotiations to buy the place.

But soon his mother was settled in the old wide-verandad house built during the civil war.

A gentleman from the south, named Barker, had built the place for his daughter and her husband in 1863. His southern background showed in the building. The white house had a 10 foot wide front porch. The four front windows were covered with long hand made shutters, painted green. He planted a catalpa tree and climbing roses around the out-

The only mistake he made was putting the kitchen in a separate building, 12 feet behind the house. This probably was a pretty nice way to keep cooking odors out of southern homes. However, it made the northern women, who owned the house, very unhappy on winter days when they had to run out to the cold kitchen to cook their meals.

Finally in 1871, the house was bought by a family named Sherwood, and, Mrs. Sherwood insisted something be done about that kitchen. So, as a temporary measure, the old kitchen was moved up to the measures it became spermanent -- at least for all the years

Goodbye, high auto loan rates. Hello, credit union!

Did you know that you may pay up to several hundred dollars in interest on a typical auto loan? It's a fact—and it's one reason why more and more people are turning to their credit union when they buy a new car.

You see, credit union rates are clear cut. Credit union rates didn't soar out of sight in last year's tight money market like a lot of others. There's a reason.

A credit union is in business to help its members. It is owned by its members. There's no point in charging yourself high interest rates. And that's why a credit union offers advantages you find nowhere else.

Go ahead. Buy that car you've set your heart on. And for low cost financing, see your credit union. You'll probably get the best deal in town.

He advised women to wear their skirts short. "When in doubt, the shorter the better," he said. "Of course, older women shouldn't wear miniskirts. There will be some experimenting with ankle length coats this fall, but most skirts will stay about two inches above the knees."

At the luncheon following the talk, most of the questions were from women, who felt they didn't look their best in short skirts. But Blass defended the fashion, saying that knees could be amusing and fun.

Plymouth Track Team Easily Conquers Allen Park

Dave Derr ShowsWay

Sweeping 13 of the 14 first places, Plymouth High's track team rolled to its second straight dual meet victory when the Rocks routed Allen Park, 93-25 in a Suburban Six League

"Not too much in the way of competition," was the apt description of Coach Keith Baughman who still feels that the Rocks won't receive true tests until they clash with Redford Union and Livonia Bentley.

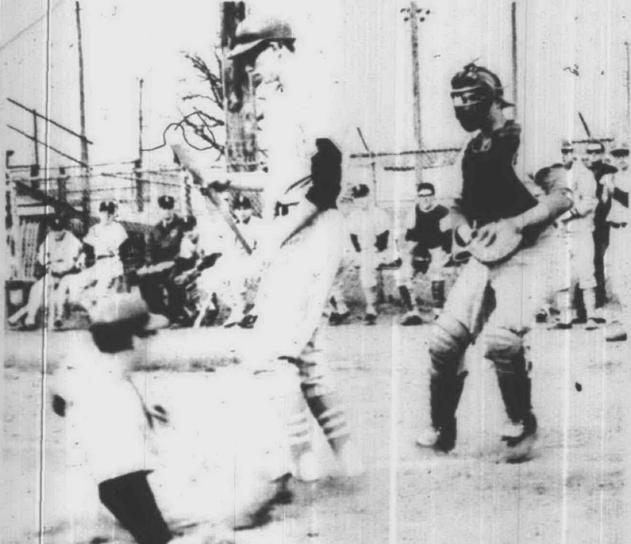

There wasn't much doubt in the minds of spectators that Allen Park didn't have much to offer since Plymouth made a sweep of all three places in the high hurdles and finished one-two in several events.

The Rocks won both relays and took every first with the exception of the long jump where Ron Lowe pulled a muscle and had to be content with a second place finish to George Cobb. Dave Derr led Plymouth with first in the highs and lows and a tie for first in the high jump. Steve Montgomery captured both sprints and led off the winning half-mile relay team.

Perhaps the most satisfying victory for Coach Baughman was that of Bruce Bauman in the pole vault where he cleared 10' 6" for a first. Just a week ago in the opening meet with Trenton, Plymouth failed to have a single man clear the qualifying distance of 9 feet. Other firsts were recorded by Doug Bates in the mile finished second in the Suburban Stevens who now feels his club (4:53.8); Jerry Latham in the Six League a year ago, are off has an excellent chance of quarter (:54.5); Bruce Cavender and flying again with a record grabbing the league honors, in the half-mile (2:06.4); Ken of 4 and 1 after two weeks of In the Trenton victory, Coach Evans in thetwo-mile (10:44.2); competition.
