

Raise in Rates Suggested To Ease Garbage Problem

Complaints of inefficiencies and inequities in Plymouth's refuse collection system were met this week by a proposal from City Manager Richard Blodgett to increase house-to-house pickup rates 11 per cent.

The city manager also would have new specifications written for control of refuse collection from business places, requiring businessmen to provide containers commensurate with rubbish volume.

He said this would eliminate the problem of overweight containers, as well as downtown littering.

The rate increase to each householder under the Blodgett formula would jump the monthly collection charge from 90 cents to $1.00, or from $10.80 to $12.00 per year.

The City Commission had asked at its May 1 meeting that the city manager prepare a documentation of the refuse collection situation, and Blodgett came back Monday night with a 10-page report which cited problems echoed by householders, businessmen and industry.

It was made plain that dissatisfaction abounds in all areas with present operations of the J&H Trucking Co., of Garden City, which has two years to go on its refuse pickup contract with the city.

However, Blodgett contends that neither the customers nor the contractor is spotless, and says some complaints are justified and some are not.

The full report, including recommendations, will be studied by the Commission which ultimately will put the suggestions into being or offer alternatives of its own creation.

"Rising costs have forced the contractor to be alarmed and he has reduced his service or has charged more to the customer where he can pass on the charges," Blodgett told the Commission.

"The contractor is still making a profit, he tells us, but not as great a profit because overtime is eating it up. Most of the overtime is the result of poor business preparation of refuse.

"If we can cut time by requiring dumpsters (of business firms), and increase revenues on the residential front, this should result in an equitable solution.

"If this fails, the city should consider entering the collection business with its own labor and equipment, at least on the commercial and industrial fronts. Business and industry would have to pay, but for a reliable service I think they would be willing to pay."

Blodgett offered no estimate of what it would cost the city to provide sufficient extra labor and equipment to do the job on its own.

YOU'RE ONLY AS OLD AS YOU FEEL: That's the sentiment of these 12 members of Plymouth's Senior Citizens organization who call themselves the "Harmonica Kittens" and whose feelings about age belie the fact that they range from 63 to 80-plus. The "Kittens" have made several public appearances, and more are upcoming. They specialize in old favorites, playing entirely by ear, and rehearsals are as much fun as public bookings. ## Tribute To Area Leaders Highlights Michigan Week

From Paradise to Hell, they're shouting the praise of Michigan this week.

In historic Plymouth, the organized exultation of the community's lush benefits will be joined with a statewide chorus to be heralded throughout the nation as Michigan Week's sales pitch reaches afar to let the land know of the peninsula which split America's inner seas.

The observance had its start Saturday with a downtown parade, and will be echoed Sunday from pulpit after pulpit.

While each of the seven designated Michigan Week days has its local highlights, Wednesday's salute to five persons selected as the community's outstanding 1967 leaders carries particular significance.

Livelihood Day Chairman Harold Fischer has announced that the following quintet will be honored at a noon luncheon at the Thunderbird Inn:

Leo Schultz, of Vico Products Co., representing industry.

Margaret Wilson, owner of the Penn Theatre and Melody House, business.

Dr. Charles Westover, professional.

Gerald Greer, representative of the Communication Workers Local at Michigan Bell, labor.

Russell Isbister, retiring superintendent of schools, institutional.

A certificate of appreciation for their years of service to the welfare of the community will be presented to each of the five.

Michigan Week Chairman John Kamego and his aides have mapped the following day-to-day observances in the Plymouth area:

- Monday, May 22: Mayor's Exchange Day with the mayor of Beverly Hills, Dr. Douglas Wood, being feted here while Mayor James Jabara of Plymouth receives like plaudits in Beverly Hills. Highlights will include a City Hall reception at 10 a.m., luncheon at the Mayflower Hotel, a tour of the community, and a 6:00 p.m. dinner with city officials, also at the Mayflower.
- Tuesday, May 23: Our Heritage Day will feature a day-long open house from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Historical Museum.
- Wednesday, May 24: Livelihood Day, civic luncheon at the Thunderbird Inn.
- Thursday, May 25: Education Day, featuring special observances in Plymouth community schools.
- Friday, May 26: Hospitality Day, topped by a tea at the Dun-

Michigan Week Prayer

(Written by Msgr. Francis X. Canfield, rector of Sacred Heart Seminary and the Detroit chairman of Spiritual Foundations Day)

Eternal Father, we thank You for the beauty and bounty of the State of Michigan — its lakes and streams, its fields and forests, its flocks and fruits. We thank You for the talents of men who have harnessed its resources and created a climate of prosperity and opportunity. In Your Providence, men of every race and creed have gathered here to enrich their lives, to enjoy their rights as free men, to pursue the happiness that You offer men of good will.

Bless our political leaders, our civil servants, all who labor for the common good, the health and welfare of others, that they may serve in wisdom and integrity.

Protect our homes and families. Deepen the love of man and wife. Let that love nourish their children and be to all the world a sign of Your unending covenant with man.

Humbly we acknowledge our faults. We ask Your help to level the walls of racial bias that divide us, to open our hearts and hands to the disadvantaged, to understand our youth in their hopes and fears, to provide them with an education of soul as well as of mind that they might fulfill themselves and enrich society, to conserve and multiply the resources and beauty of Your creation.

Heavenly Father, we are pilgrims on journey to a New Jerusalem. May Your law be a lamp for our feet that we may walk in justice and charity. May Your Fatherly love enfold us that we greet each other as brothers and live in mutual trust and honor.

While we enjoy the fruits of inventions and industry, let us not perish in a famine of the spirit. Your psalmist has warned us that they who worship idols of silver and gold will be put to shame.

To You we lift up our eyes, as the eyes of servants on the hands of their Master. As we look about us and see a beautiful peninsula and a prosperous people, we know, O Lord, that only they who fear and love You are truly great.

Amen

Township Challenges State Planners Ignore Route of M-14

Development of a controversial 53-acre Plymouth Township site as an industrial subdivision today had the unanimous endorsement of the Township Planning Commission despite an official appeal from the Michigan State Highway Department that a decision be delayed.

At the root of the controversy is the Commission's contention that an alternate route for the M-14 freeway could just as well be chosen by the State, by passing the property in question.

Stephen Kessler, Highway Department route location engineer, submitted a prepared statement asking approval of the subdivision plat "be held in abeyance until a final determination can be made on the

Fire Victims' Trust Created

A memorial trust fund was established this week to the benefit of the James Grady family which lost all furnishings and possessions in the devastating fire May 9 that claimed the lives of two of their six children.

last week claimed the lives of seven-year-old Dannie and his four-year-old brother, Timothy. This brought the Plymouth community's death-by-fire toll to five for the first few months of 1967.

Brigadier Ernest Hammer, commander of the Plymouth Corps of the Salvation Army, heads a committee of four in charge of administering the fund.

Brigadier Hammer announced that the trust fund was being established in memory of the two children. Donations may be turned over directly to the Salvation Army, or deposited to the trust's account at the Plymouth branch of the National Bank of Detroit.

Mail & Observer Sponsors Workshop On Rail Crossing

The first official workshop to study ways and means of eliminating the C&O railroad crossing on Main Street, will be held under the sponsorship of the Mail & Observer on Thursday, June 8, at the Mayflower Hotel.

As part of its public service, the Mail & Observer has extended an invitation to the railroad officials to sit down with the business folks of the community in an effort to find a cure for the "strangulation" of the city.

It is known that the C&O, under certain conditions, is liable for 20 per cent of the cost. How the remainder can be financed, will be one of the plateaus of discussion.

Realizing that the problem is acute in the Plymouth area, Buford Nash, general manager of the C&O eagerly accepted and expressed an eagerness to study the problem.

Civic and business leaders also are being invited in order that the best minds in the area can be put to work with the hope that the much discussed and much maligned crossing can soon be cast into the limbo of forgotten things.

The crossing often has been discussed in the past years, but nothing definite ever has been done in the way of determining costs and ways and means of financing the project.

Competing teams and their managers:

Arbor View Standard, Bob Schutz; R.C.A., Jack Hill; Cehoco, John Sullivan; Eckles, James Wyman; Heide's Flowers, Myron Hopper; St. Peter's Lutheran, Roger Bogenschutz; Vico, William Fox; Bathey, Rich Marisnick; Sterling, Jack Carter, and Paragon, Jonas Bishop.

Daisy And D&H Plan To Merge

Approval for the merger of the Daisy Manufacturing Co., which for years was based in Plymouth, with D&H Corp., of Dallas, Tex., to form the Victor Comptometer Corp. has received shareholders' approval from all three companies, it was announced this week. The Daisy company now operates from Rogers, Ark.

Playing Waiting Game

Plymouth's Neighbors Table Plan For Unification Study

Proponents of the governmental unification study agreed to by the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township discovered this week that for one reason or another all the neighbors are playing a waiting game, each deferring action until a later date.

Monday by representatives of the Plymouth Community Leadership Conference, which had recommended the undertaking in the first place, but then put off until May 23 its decision on whether to participate. Northville Township's Board of Trustees, already having tabled the subject while waiting to see what the city would do, is no farther ahead at all and doesn't have another meeting planned until June 6. In Canton Township, where the Board of Trustees was scheduled to put the study to vote last Tuesday, that session was cancelled at the last minute and there, too, the decision was delayed to May 23. Canton Supervisor Philip Dingeldey said a resolution ratifying participation in the study to be made by the Michigan Citizens Research Council is expected to pass at that time. This means that when the experts from the Research Council do launch their probe they probably will have before them the problems of the three entities which constitute the prime territory of what is known as "the Plymouth community."

However, the support to submit Northville and Northville Township to the same magnifying glass is not as solid. They appear more apt to arrange a joint study on their own concerning amalgamation than to go along with a five-pronged review. Northville Mayor Malcolm Allen commented at Monday's Council session, "If Northville Township isn't willing to go along with this, you're wasting your time," although he himself doesn't see how anything could be lost by the study. The Township's negative attitude was reaffirmed the next day by Supervisor Robyn D. Merriam who said sentiment of the trustees "was pretty much against" participation. Merriam's analysis of the whole study proposition is that it is an effort "by the City of Plymouth to acquire Plymouth Township's tax base," but he did say he and Mayor Allen would get their heads together, apparently to decide on a common policy. As a matter of fact, the original plan was simply for a study of the advantages or disadvantages inherent to unification of the two Plymouth gov-vernments. Broadening the scope to include Canton Township was a natural afterthought because the northern portion of the township lies within the Plymouth School District. The two Northville governments were invited to examine their possible inclusion because of proximity to Plymouth, and there the matter rests...adopted by two, tabled by three.

It pays to be a Credit Union Family

We'll take the credit for your vacation plans...at your

You can pay for a vacation in many ways. With credit cards. With savings. With a travel loan. But eventually you pay for it in just one way. With cash. Lots of folks borrow cash. Some pay a higher price than others, and that runs up the cost of their vacation. The smart ones see their credit union.

A loan from your credit union usually costs less because credit unions are in business to help their members. They are owned by their members. And there's no point in charging yourself high interest rates.

So whether you're flying first class or roughing it in a state park, let your credit union take the credit for your vacation plans. It will probably cost you less money.

Committee Approves Amendment

Provisions by which the Plymouth Community can obtain stronger police protection are expected to be set up by the State Legislature within the next week.

According to Representative James Tierney, of the thirty-sixth district, his amendment to Senate Bill No. 150 permitting cities, villages or townships adjacent to each other to combine forces under contract, was approved unanimously in committee and now goes to the floor of the House for action. This, Rep. Tierney explained, could come most any time, but a vote on the measure is almost certain within the next fortnight. The amendment, as passed by the Committee, reads:

"Any two or more cities, villages or townships, adjacent to each other, shall have power to join together, by contract or by the establishment of an intermunicipal police authority, for the purpose of providing police services to the respective cities, villages and townships.

"Such contracts or intermunicipal police authorities shall be approved by the governing bodies of the cities, villages and townships and shall be administered by a commission established in accordance with the agreements and shall contain provisions relative to apportionment of the costs of such services among the cities, villages and townships entering such agreements."

This amendment is the outgrowth of action taken at the recent Leadership Conference, sponsored by the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce.

Rep. Tierney and Rep. Louis Schmidt, of the thirty-fifth district who were in attendance, agreed to work jointly on a plan to bring the idea before the state legislature.

Adoption of the amendment in committee is the outcome.

Township Snubs M-14 Route Plan

location of this highway.

The statement implied that alternate routes still are being considered, but in answer to questions Kessler all but said in so many words that his department has made its decision and does not intend to deviate.

The M-14 freeway would run from Ann Arbor to Detroit and Kessler commented, "There's more involved than just one township."

He said the route has been in the planning stage since 1955, but that while the State already has the money for right-of-way acquisitions there are no foreseeable funds for construction at least until after 1972. An official routing announcement can be expected in July, he declared.

Commissioner Irving Rozian, head of the Industrial Sciences Group of the University of Michigan's College of Engineering, opined that "the property owners should not have their hands tied for an indefinite period of time, and indicated he'll still fight for an alternate route."

Scholnick and his associates, who have owned the property eight years, still face considerable governmental red tape before approaching the ground breaking stage.

That such a development would increase the township's tax base is obvious. It's equally obvious that if the State sticks to its guns, the price of acquisition of the developed land would go up from its present par.

Judge's Seat Vacated

Tom Healy Favored For Position

Thomas H. Healy, popular city attorney, is off and running as the favorite in the race to succeed Ed Draugelis as Municipal Judge.

In a move that wasn't too surprising Draugelis resigned early in the week.

In submitting the resignation to the City Commissioners he stated that he was leaving the post for reasons of health and he further stated that the position would be a good training ground for becoming a district judge.

His reference was to the fact that under the state constitution all municipal courts will change and become district courts. The holder of the position at the time of the change can run as an incumbent.

Draugelis' present term doesn't expire until December 21, 1968, giving his successor a year and one half in which to serve.

Along with other requirements of a candidate for the vacancy, he must be a resident of the City of Plymouth. This curtails the field and among the possibilities, along with Healy, are such attorneys as Dunbar Davis, J. Rusling Cutler, Pat Foley, who is a candidate for the Board of Education, and Harry Deyo, a former judge.

Healy, who is considered an outstanding attorney, has held his present city post for almost two years and in that capacity has guided the city through many legal shoals. He attracted considerable attention recently when he asked to be excused from representing the city in the suit filed by Rev. Peter Schweitzer.

He asked to be excused on the basis that he was a defendant as a member of the Election Commission and further that he thought Rev. Schweitzer had a good case.

Later, Judge Victor Baum ruled in an opinion that the City Charter was unconstitutional and Rev. Schweitzer topped the ticket in the race for a seat on the City Commission.

Conceived In Unique Manner, Michigan Week Plays Unusual Role For State

The observation of Michigan Week which opens today is an event unique in America.

No other state takes the time or spends the effort to tell the world of its blessings or to instill greater pride among its residents.

Why, then, does Michigan take a full week to shout its own praises? The answers to this are many — and varied.

It must be remembered that there was a time, not long ago, when Michigan was suffering from a poor image around the land.

Taxes were high and industry was threatening to leave. State employees had such things as "payless pay days."

And, in general, Michigan was considered in the eyes of the nation, to be in poor shape.

It was in this situation that the idea of Michigan Week was born.

Michigan had to be sold, not alone to outsiders but to its own citizens.

The people had to be "sold" and Michigan Week was conceived as the tool by which this could be done.

Suddenly, it was realized that Michigan had a great deal to sell.

Until then few people realized that our state ran the gamut from a metropolitan area to nature in the raw at such places as Isle Royale . . . that Michigan boasted more shoreline than the entire Atlantic Coast . . . had more lakes than any other state . . . and topped the nation in highway building.

With the uncovering of such things the people started to take pride in their surroundings again — and started "selling" to others.

It wasn't long until the nation — and the world — became aware that Michigan was not just an ordinary state . . . but that it was a jewel in the crown of the Union.

The image was changing. More and more the features of the state were being emphasized.

After all it was in Michigan that the idea of such a simple thing as painting a white stripe in the center of a road was conceived as a measure to avoid highway accidents and save lives.

It was in Michigan that the automobile industry was born . . . and it is a well known fact that the economy of the nation depends on the number of cars built and sold each year.

It is in Michigan where the world's most peaceful border is located — and you can go from Detroit to Canada in five minutes. There never has been a moment of unpleasantness along the miles of the international border.

The world again was told that Michigan played a part in the establishment of the airplane industry — first by the fact that Charles A. Lindberg, first to fly solo across the Atlantic, was born in Detroit, and later by the famed Ford Tri-Motor planes, which became popularly known as "The Tin Goose." And many of them are still flying. Ever so many things came to light in the process of "selling" the state.

Among them is the fact that it boasts a seaport in Detroit . . . it is the celery center of the nation . . . and that western Michigan is the center of one of the most flourishing fruit belts in the land.

And, not to be forgotten, it ranks high in education with the first land grant college — now known as Michigan State University — and The University of Michigan.

All of these things came to light because of Michigan Week. The novel program of specially designated days for the entire week has played a great part in providing knowledge to the youngsters in our schools, as well as to their parents.

Everyone has profited by the establishment of the week — and no longer do you hear of industries leaving the state or "payless pay-days."

Michigan Week has enabled Michigan to regain its pride and now the residents can expand their chests and shout with feeling — Michigan, My Michigan.

Letters To The Editor

Action on Alley Brings Protest

Dear Editor:

This letter is written in protest to the action of the Plymouth City Commission at the meeting on May 15, 1967 in regard to the vacating of the alley located between Irvin and Arthur Streets, and Farmer Street and Junction Avenue.

The majority of home owners present at the meeting were in favor of retaining the alley. Not only were the majority present at the meeting but they had previously submitted a written petition to keep the alley open.

Also a letter was submitted by one of the property owners, who is a widow, and she spoke for the five widows whose property abuts the alley in question. She stated the hardship of moving the containers to the curb each week, the unsightliness at the curb, the negligence of the rubbish pick-up crew, the expense of moving the fence line, as well as the added tax burden.

In spite of all these appeals to retain the alley, the pleas went unheeded even though two loyal members of the City Commission tried their best to serve the needs of the citizens who had voted them in office.

We feel that there was more than ample evidence presented in favor of retaining the alley. Why then did the City Commission vote against these law abiding citizens who came to protest in a body? What is the object of printing notices of public hearings if the Commission turns a deaf ear to the needs of our citizens, and Senior Citizens at that?

This is depriving the home owner of his Constitutional Rights as a citizen of the United States of America. Has the Commission forgotten its obligation to our citizens under the Charter of the City of Plymouth as stated in Section 6, Paragraph 1, "This charter shall constitute the basic law of the City of Plymouth, subject only to the Constitution and the general laws of the State of Michigan and of the United States of America".

By closing this particular alley over the objection of the property owners, our citizens were deprived of their unalienable rights of Life, Liberty, and Pursuit of Happiness.

We feel that the City Commission should study the Constitution of the United States of America, and then reconsider the pleas brought forth before closing this particular alley or any alley in the City of Plymouth.

We also feel that a certain Commissioner should be excused from voting on this issue because his brother resides in the area abutting this particular alley.

Before closing, we would like to bring up another very important point. Our homes were constructed with provisions for an alley and we feel that we should be allowed to retain that alley and the services that go with it. An easement for the operation of public utilities already exists in the alleys, and we desire to retain this easement and be spared of any unnecessary and foolish expense.

UPSET HOME OWNERS

Parents Ask For More Help

Dear Editor:

As parents and tax payers of the city of Plymouth, we feel compelled to write to you and your paper and ask you what could be done, to help the parents of Plymouth.

Last week we attended three different functions, and regardless of the subject during the evening, one subject kept cropping up; the young people of our city.

We all seemed to agree on one thing—the new proposed youth center. Now our question is—Why not save us tax payers a great deal of money and use the vacant church discussed earlier in the year for our center?

Many of us are not members of the church, but have been through it, and have seen its facilities, and it would make a fine youth center by just opening the doors. Nothing would have to be done to it right away and it would still be wonderful surroundings for our young people.

Our City Board members are also talking about a skating rink and the dollars it will cost our city—what's wrong with removing the pews and building the rink right inside the building. You must admit it would be far more practical.

The parking facilities are also very suitable. No property or store owner would balk at the use of their lots by young people in the evenings, but they might if it were for another business.

The location of this church could not be more desirable. It is on a main street of town and in a very well kept neighborhood.

Parents of Plymouth, wake up. Why not have our children in a fine sturdy, clean environment, instead of on the streets looking for a place to go.

We wonder what is becoming of our teenagers today, and yet all we have to do to get proper facilities for them immediately is buy a building already built, laid out and equipped for young people.

Why sit around and talk for the next six months when a safe, adequate building is in our town and available.

Let's save ourselves a great deal of money, time and heart-ache, and get our children off the streets now.

Plymouth Parents.....

P.S. Why not find out how other parents in the city feel about this; it was suggested we write you and see if you could get other parents to give their comments.

Ed. Note: Just to keep the records straight the proposed plan to transform the abandoned church into a youth center was rejected by the Centennial Committee last February as being impractical and the proposed community building to house ice skating facilities to be financed with revenue bonds at no cost to the taxpayer.

The Stroller...

You'd never think that the piles of trash and rubbish that dotted the streets in Plymouth during the past two weeks would be fascinating to anyone.

Yet, that's exactly what happened. And what's more, these piles served as an inspiration for another city to adopt the same clean-up plan.

The Stroller came upon the story unexpectedly, too. Just before leaving the office for the daily stroll the phone rang.

"This is Mrs. Ralph Atchley, of 408 Auburn, calling," a pleasant voice remarked, "and I thought you might be interested in a little story."

Assured that The Stroller always was interested, she continued.

"My father was here to visit us," she explained, "and came home quite perturbed after taking a short walk. He complained bitterly about the trash and rubbish piles and left the feeling that he was disappointed in Plymouth's image. He had liked the place so much on a former visit."

Here, Mrs. Atchley, wife of Dr. Atchley, hesitated just a minute.

"I told him about the trash program and explained that this was an annual opportunity to get rid of a lot of stuff that, somehow, gets cluttered up around the house. Then a broad grin spread across his face and he said he'd never heard tell of anything like that."

Chuckling as she spoke, the good doctor's wife went on —

"I have just received a letter from him and what do you think has happened —

"When he returned to Cincinnati, he informed the officials down there about the clean-up program and now they are planning to do the same thing."

"And my father seems so pleased about it." Perhaps you'll have a different feeling the next time you see trash and rubbish piled along the sidewalks.

ONCE A SAILOR, ALWAYS —

John Kamego, popular manager of the local branch of Michigan Bell, has just returned from Cuba where he completed his annual two weeks of service with the U.S. Navy at Quantanimo Bay — and he's loud in his praise of the work that is being done.

"You'd really get a thrill out of the contributions being made by volunteers," he told The Stroller.

"Almost every day, after their regular stint" he said, "they'd clean up a bit and then return to some kind of a task."

"And mind you, many of these fellows were professional men."

This did sound a bit strange but Kamego went a bit further to voice his pleasure.

"I had intended to retire from the service at the end of this year," he said, "but not after seeing this kind of enthusiasm."

Anchors Aweigh!

CARRYING THINGS A LONG WAY:

Former Mayor Jim Houk pulled his chair up to the luncheon table the other day and remarked:

"I'll be in Plymouth, England, on Mayor Exchange Day that is part of Michigan Week, and I'll be calling on the Lord Mayor of Plymouth, England."

"I'll bet no other city official in Michigan ever has traveled so far to carry Michigan's greetings during Michigan Week."

Guess, you're right, Jim.

THINGS I NEVER KNEW 'TIL NOW

The cables supporting the Mackinac Bridge contain 42,000 miles of wire — enough to reach one and two-thirds times around the world — at the equator.

That close to 90 per cent of the drugs now being manufactured at Parke Davis Company were unheard of 10 years ago.

That there now is a men's shoe on the market that never needs to be polished. It is made of a synthetic leather and all it requires — for the entire life of the shoe — is to be wiped off with a damp cloth.

Even the shoe-shine boys are being made vic-tims of America's ingenuity.

A FEW THOUGHTS WHILE STROLLING:

First, a man learns to walk. After many years, he learns to keep still.

Experience is a great asset, but somehow you never have it until just after you need it.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Life is like baseball — you can't take any short cuts going around the bases.

City Fathers Gamble With People's Wishes

For several months our city administration has been involved in a problem of trying to vacate or close alleys in some sections of the community and finally has succeeded in getting involved in what could be an interesting entanglement.

Last Monday evening, for instance, the Commission voted to close the alley between Arthur and Irvin from Farmer to Junction despite the fact that two thirds of the property owners along the strip had asked that it be left open.

It was the first time within memory of veteran followers of Commission meetings that the wishes of the people had been rejected and led many to ask, "What is a home rule city?"

True, some of the property owners had signed two sets of petitions — one to close the alley and the other to keep it open. But, as some of them explained, they were signed months apart and the last signing signified their real intention.

Among the interesting questions raised was, "If the alley is closed, will the easement be evenly divided on both sides and will we have to pay taxes on the additional property — especially since we don't want the property?"

Assured that eventually the additional property would appear on the tax rolls the majority wanted it left open, despite the charge that the alley was ill-kept and a menace to health in many instances.

Despite this, and advice from the City Attorney that five of the seven votes would be needed to close the alley, since there was a petition filed to keep it open, the Commissioners voted, 5 to 2, to close it.

The lone dissenters were Commissioners Vallier and Schweitzer, each of whom remarked, that they had followed the wishes of the people.

One of the reasons given for the closing of the alley—which may be the forerunner of closing others in the northwest section—was the fact that it had become a catch-all.

Maybe so. But that is no reason for closing it when there are rules and regulations in the city's ordinances to keep them clean. These rules provide for the punishment of those who do not live up to the laws. So, why not use the implements of the law?

This is especially true in a home rule city, where the democratic process calls for the will of the majority.

If the Commission followed the same pattern on the streets they would close them instead of punishing violators of the traffic laws.

Best Wishes To Township As It Celebrates Birthday

Even though there still is some doubt as to the official birthday, Plymouth Township will celebrate the one hundred and fortieth anniversary of its inception in a most novel way next Thursday evening.

So, regardless of the lack of official confirmation, we'd like to extend birthday greetings—when-ever it is.

As part of the celebration the Township Board of Trustees will conduct a social meeting in the same barn in which the first township meeting was held—and that is something that few areas in America can do.

The Township has a rich heritage and while many townships, as such, are fading from the American scene, the Plymouth Community is on the threshold of its greatest boom.

Within the past year the area has felt the crash of a population boom and now an industrial explosion is taking place. Combined they give the Township one of the rosier pictures it has enjoyed in all the years since its inception.

Although plans are in progress for an official study on the feasibility of unifying the entire area, Plymouth Township still is intact on its birthday—and for that reason it deserves the best wishes of all concerned.

Too bad the Trustees can't appear, wearing white wigs, such as their predecessors of years ago. It had been hoped that some of the officials and guests could be transported to the old Barn in horse and buggy, but even that is doubtful.

This just as well.

Both wigs and horses tend to be old-fashioned — and there's nothing old fashioned about Plymouth Township.

It is one of the up-and-coming areas in the state.

Plymouthite Joins Store Advisory Committee

What woman wouldn't love to have a say in running a department store?

Mrs. Thomas Lewis of Byron St. is having a chance to do just that. She is a member of a 10-woman advisory committee, which aids Hudson's in its decision making.

The Westland store set up the committee of women from this area recently, after a similar one had been successful at Eastland.

"We have received a lot of ideas from the women, which have resulted in changes in the store," said Tom Geller, merchandising manager of the Westland unit.

"I don't see how we've helped them very much, but its been lots of fun," Mrs. Lewis confided.

These statements seem to conflict. However, what is more fun for women than to talk about shopping? And what is more helpful for a store official than to learn what women think about their merchandise?

"We go to lunches every month and exchange ideas, and we have filled out a questionnaire," Mrs. Lewis explained.

At the luncheons there is always a speaker who explains one facet of the store. Madeline Coe, the fashion coordinator, gave a talk on what to expect in the fashion world.

"I was surprised at what a natural-looking and charming woman she was. She sat right down with us and started talk-

MRS. LEWIS CHECKS her latest assignment from Hudson's and finds it's more fun than work. She is supposed to go through the women's department and offer constructive criticism to the store management.

As befitting a fashion coordinator, Miss Coe was dressed in the latest styles. Mrs. Lewis describes her as wearing a Panama hat, and the "in" color for spring -- brown.

Besides learning about behind-the-scenes workings of a large department store the women are making what the store executives feel is a valuable contribution.

"We've added salespeople and changed departments around because of their suggestions," said Geller. "We hope this group will spot little problems we don't see because we're too close to them."

The china department has new salespeople, and the yardgoods department is getting new display tables because of suggestions from the women.

Many of the group's suggestions are paying off in more money for the store. Several of the women said they would like to see more clothes similar to those in boutique shops. Hudson's is increasing its stock in this type of clothing. They are also displaying their clothes in a "softer" way.

"We're draping merchandise over chairs, and adding props," said Geller.

The result? Well, sales in the Villager line, which is now displayed near the escalator, surrounded by wagon wheels, are now up 120 per cent.

While the store men are finding that women's advice is profitable they aren't forgetting to keep an eye on the over-all picture of the community.

Guest Sermon The Arrogant Claim of Jesus

by the Rev. Norman Berg

When it comes to the question of truth we have a very peculiar situation in today's world.

In certain areas we know that there is such a thing as absolute truth and in others that truth is very relative, depending solely on a person's viewpoint.

What makes today's situation unusual is that in the area where the determining factor is the changeable and fallible reason of human beings, today's man claims to have found absolute truth. In the area, however, where the ultimate Source of Life has deliberately and most carefully revealed truth, today's man insists we have only relatively truthful knowledge, almost solely dependent on subjective religious opinion.

To illustrate - in the area of scientific knowledge we are told that the findings regarding the evolutionary origin of man and the world are to be accepted as absolute truth. The Biblical account of a divine creation by God's Word, therefore, is declared to be a myth. On the other hand, in the area of revealed truth of God in Holy Scripture, we are told we cannot find, nor is there, absolute truth!

All of this points to the obvious fact that the majority in today's world, even as at the time of Adam and Eve, feel that their mind and will is a more reliable source of truth and a more profitable guide for life than the revelation of God's Word. Scripture statements become subject in all points to human reason.

In sharp contrast stand the words of a man of the religious world, admired most highly by all, and yet so often flatly denied even within ecclesiastical world. Jesus says, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6) Here is an arrogant-sounding claim, most exclusive and absolute. Jesus does not claim merely to teach a way, a truth, a manner of life. He claims to be the way, the truth, the life - and more than that - the only way and truth and life by which man can know God and come into harmony with Him!

This would be an arrogant claim, if, first of all, it were not made by God Himself - Jesus, God's own Son. It would also be arrogant, if it were not backed up his His successful, divine work of bearing our sin, suffering our punishment, and then rising again from the dead to proclaim redemption for the world.

Jesus states so simply that there is one Way to heaven - through His work. There is absolute Truth - in God's revealed Word. There is eternal Life - in faith of Jesus. To deny this is to deny the most clear words of Jesus, the living Word, and of Scripture, the written Word of our God.

Human scientific knowledge changes no matter how absolutely each generation claims truth for its findings. Divine revealed knowledge in the Bible never changes despite the pseudo-scholarly attempts of some theologians to harmonize it fully with human reason.

The sacrificial death and victorious resurrection of Jesus, the God-man Savior, has prepared the one Way to harmony with God and eternal life in heaven. The Bible, God's inspired, inerrant Word, revealing Jesus as the Savior, remains the absolute Truth through which the Holy Spirit reaches the souls of sin-cursed mankind. Faith in God's Son and the resulting commitment of our whole being to Him remains the one Life which will survive even death and is worth living now.

Let us choose wisely as to the basis of our hope - absolute divine truth, not relative human knowledge. Then we will have a secure basis from which to begin a life of confident and successful service not only to God with Whom we will live eternally, but also service to the frustrated, insecure world with which we live now. God grant you a saving knowledge of Jesus, the Way, the Truth, and the Life!

Presbyterians Mix Jazz and Prayers

"Praise God in His sanctuary, praise Him with a bugle blast, praise Him with strings and flute, praise Him with resounding cymbals."

That's the way it was 2,000 years ago, when David wrote psalm 150, and that's what's happening today.

Worshippers are swinging with the times. Plymouth is having a jazz worship service tonight, May 21 at the Presbyterian church.

The Rev. Derin Geard, pastor of the Forst Street Presbyterian Church, will conduct the service. When Mr. Geard came here from Toronto, he started conducting jazz services on Sunday evenings at the Fort St. church.

It took only four months for the congregation to grow from a handful to over 1,000. And this happened in a small struggling inner-city congregation.

The Rev. Lewis Brown and members of the youth group from the Plymouth Presbyterian church have been in to the worship service twice.

"There were a lot of kids there, who obviously weren't church goers, but they all got the message of the worship service," said Mr. Brown. "The service is in the classic tradition of public worship. It's not a show or concert. Most great church music began as music of the times."

The teenagers were so excited about the service they organized a committee to bring the Rev. Geard and the Teen Tempos, the jazz group to Plymouth. Terry Ward, Karen Shultz, Debbie Leavenworth, Jill Price, Tim Brown, John Ackerman, Ruth Pulker, Brian Foust, and SUE Radcliffe are worked on the committee.

adults and teens in the community. Besides the music it will consist of scriptural readings. Afterwards there will be a coffee house in the room beneath the sanctuary.

HOW SUBURBANITES FIGHT INCREASE IN BURGLARIES

The robbery problem is different in the suburbs than in Detroit's inner city, where store owners are buying pistols.

In the suburbs, businessmen and even many homeowners are going to big dogs — and they're glad they did.

A look at some of the crime statistics explains their concern. Burglary is one of the fastest growing crimes in the suburbs — and population increase isn't the only reason.

The City of Farmington, which hasn't had quite the population explosion of other areas, nevertheless shows an increase in the breaking-and-entering category from 39 in 1962 to 65 in 1965 and a whopping 92 last year.

In Livonia, there were just under 400 burglaries in 1962 and the same in 1963, but by 1965 this had soared to 569, and last year it leaped to 754.

NOR IS THE increase a statistical one due to better crime reporting. Livonia's Det. Lt. George Gilbert says the department has had the same supervisors for eight years and that reporting has been pretty uniform.

Businessmen are not the only persons who have begun using big dogs for protection.

A Plymouth woman, who asked that her name not be used, bought a dog for companionship and protection. On her way to South Lyon a few weeks ago, four youths attempted to run her car off the road. The dog reared its head from the back seat — and the youths raced away.

In Farmington a few weeks ago, a hamburger stand at Nine Mile and Farmington Road was burglarized, and a nearby service station was held up the same evening. But burglars were thwarted at a second service station at the corner.

Don Gutekunst and Chuck Juleff, owners of the Standard station that escaped, give credit to Rex, a year-old German shepherd they brought to the station last October.

Juleff doesn't know how many burglars Rex may have scared off, but he does say having the dog saves on his night light bill. In Livonia, William Wright, manager of Wright & Sons West Point (Standard-Service at 33463 Seven Mile, says that station was broken into twice before he took over four years ago. But he has several dogs, and he hasn't had any trouble since.

"My dogs are trained to let anyone come and go during the day. But at night, that's another story," Wright says.

Marvin Kemp, manager of American Hardware & Supply Co. at Eight Mile and Merriman says, "I was hit here about five times within a year. The insurance company recommended I get a watchman or some dogs."

So he got three dogs two years ago. They are fenced in during the day and have the run of the lumber yard at night. They will challenge anyone who approaches. Kemp's business has had no burglary problems since they arrived.

HIS DOGS were trained, incidentally, by a Plymouth man — Chuck Art of 9721 Brookville. Art was the subject of a recent metropolitan newspaper feature a few months ago.

Steve Agdornay, who has a Standard station on Ford Road just west of Canton Center, has a good deal of merchandise and has been worried about the crime wave, so he got his big dog a couple of months ago. So far, so good.

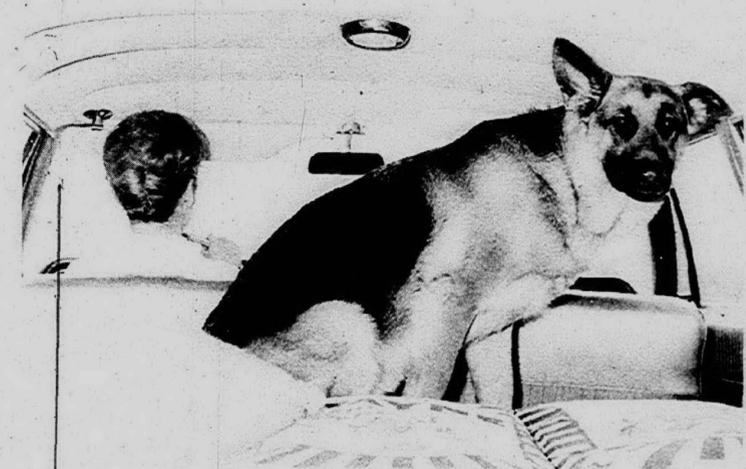

Dogs have many virtues as guardians.

They're cheaper than hiring a watchman. They're as good protection as a pistol—better, perhaps, because they don't have malfunctions. Their value is difficult to measure because burglars simply don't try anything with a dog around.

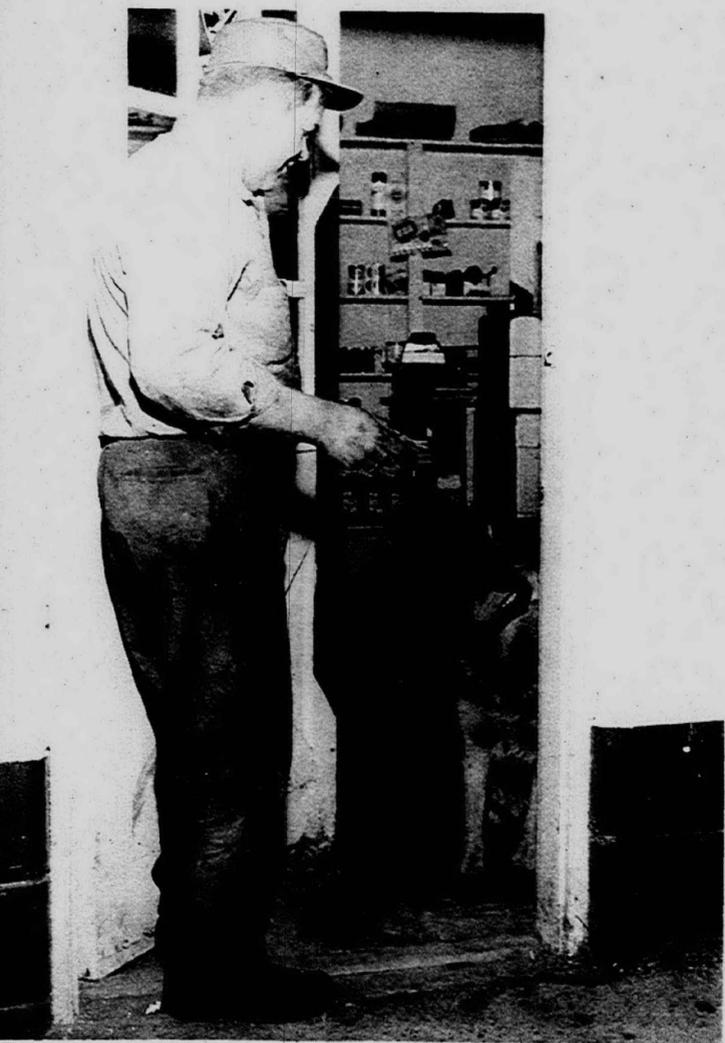

And if you're a customer, why, their tails will usually wag a happy and curious greeting.

NO TROUBLE WITH BURGLARS at American Hardware & Supply, Eight Mile and Merriman, since this fellow and two of his breed joined the staff as watchmen two years ago.

PERSONAL guardian scared off four men who tried to force this Plymouth woman's car off the road.

WILLIAM WRIGHT says "good night" to his handsome watch dog who has a perfect record at the Standard Station on Seven Mile Rd. in Livonia.

RAY SWIKOSKI holds this bright-eyed fellow who guards Steve Agdornay's Standard Station on Ford Road.

A Garden Walk In Park Place

By BETTY FRANKEL
Park place in Plymouth is aptly named. It is a short street that faces a wide park-like mall and is lined with majestic old trees. Contributing to the park atmosphere are the well groomed lawns of the homes on the street. Emerald turf runs smoothly from one yard to the next, accented here and there by an ornamental tree or shrub.

THE GARDEN WALK gave Mrs. Rasbolt a chance to show off some of the shells she and her husband have accumulated in their scuba-diving excursions. Here young Emmy Bournias, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bournias of Plymouth, examines one of the specimens.

Three adjacent gardens on Park Place made one of the top-stops on the Garden Walk sponsored by the Plymouth branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association Thursday.

In all, there were nine gardens on display in the area, and visitors had their choice of viewing them by day or under the lights during evening hours.

For a dollar ticket you could see not only the Park Place gardens that flowed into one another, but a lovely wild flower setting, a Japanese garden and a carefully planned formal garden.

But Park Place offered the most viewing for the least walking.

Near the center of the block is the long, low buff brick house of the Edwin Schraders. An unbroken sweep of Merion bluegrass lawn surrounds their home which is set off by a simple, dignified foundation planting of Japanese yews, and cranberry cotoneasters, with a clipped hedge of euonymus erecta surrounding the front entrance.

THE PLANTINGS in the backyard are dominated by beautiful crabapple trees, now in full bloom. There are several large Elyi crab trees with vibrant deep pink flowers and a Hopa crab with delicate pink blooms.

The crab trees are planted in long beds that are separated from the back border of shrubs by a grass path. Beneath the trees and shrubs along this path Mrs. Schrader has planted a mixture of flowers and vegetables in what she terms "true English garden style."

It's an unusual but delightful sight to find stout stalks of asparagus poking up through a ground cover of strawberry leaves.

PATIOS PLAY an important role in other gardens on Park Place. Both the James O'Day garden and the Elvin Taylor garden have patios that are an integral part of their garden design.

Mrs. O'Day's cement patio and raised redwood deck are brand new as are the plantings around them, but the rest of the garden is graced by mature trees and shrubs. This unusual juxtaposition of old and new is the result of a fire that gutted the O'Day home three years ago. The home was leveled and rebuilt on the same foundation.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Day also had replanting to do. Much of the disturbed area behind the house is covered by a deck and patio that jut out from the house at an interesting oblique angle that gives a definite contemporary slant to the area.

The paved patio is punctuated by several planting beds. One contains a young Crimson King maple tree just coming into leaf, and pink and white tulips.

Another has been made into a rock garden.

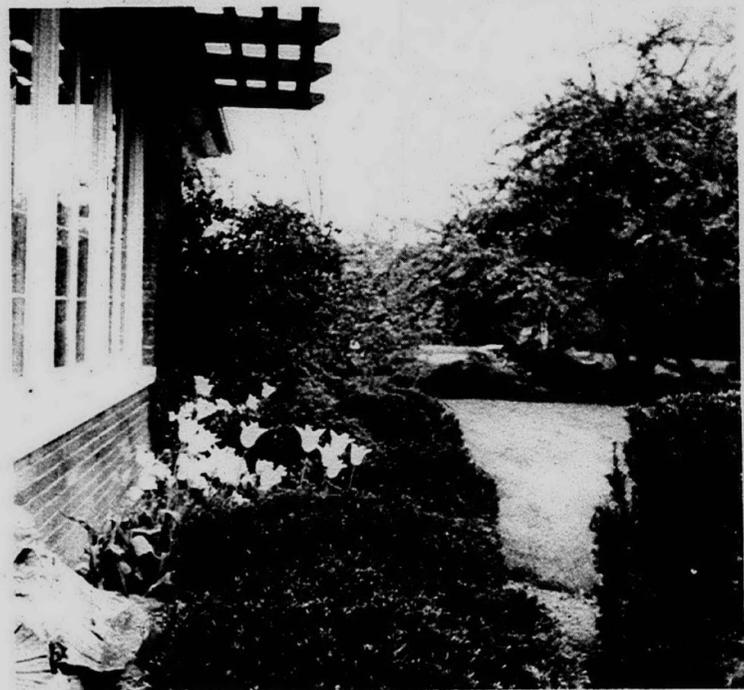

The Elvin Taylors' poured concrete patio with its gently curving contours is a key part of their total garden design.

In this garden, the form of the beds, walks and patio are as important as the plants. The sweeping curve of a bed of banked junipers along one side of the garden plays against the angle of a gravel path that swings around the opposite side of the yard and against the opposing curves of a large planting bed extending into the center of the yard. The garden has the optical tension and flow of a contemporary work of art.

The keynote of all these Park Place gardens is functional design planned for pleasant outdoor living. Each has a good basic plan enhanced by attractive plants and meticulous grooming. The gardens combine simplicity and elegance.

TALL TREES frame many lovely views in the terraced garden of the Robert Rasbolts. Here Mrs. Rasbolt, right, shows some of the plantings to Mrs. John Birkelbaw and Mrs. James French, both of Plymouth.

EVERGREENS, TULIPS and flowering crab trees bring color to the curved beds in the Taylor yard.

DWARF IRIS, daphne cneorum and grape hyacinths highlight the patio rock garden of the O'Day home.

Dr. Levy To Catholics: 'Be Rotten To Bigots'

"I call it my 'rotten-enough philosophy,'" said Dr. Burton Levy of the state Civil Rights Commission.

"You hear so many rotten, bigoted jokes and comments in our nice, white middle-class communities that go unchallenged. The nice people have been much too quiet much too long."

So Levy's philosophy is: "If someone is rotten enough to make a bigoted statement in a group of people, I'm going to be rotten enough to cause him some embarrassment."

The "rotten-enough philosophy" was one of several ways to bring about a change in racial attitudes and behavior which Levy outlined Tuesday in Livonia before a group of Catholic religious and lay persons.

Levy is director of the community services division of the Michigan Civil Rights Commission. His division's 12 offices assist local public officials and private groups in dealing with civil rights problem; it also directs police-community relations and "tension control" programs.

In his audience were several hundred persons selected from 36 parishes in Western Wayne County to take part in an eight-week "Project Commitment" sponsored by the Archdiocese of Detroit. The suburbanite group meets in Madonna College in Livonia.

Underlying Levy's "rotten-enough philosophy" towards bigots, was the idea that most people will do what is expected of them and will conform to accepted behavioral patterns, even though they may grumble while doing it.

By attacking bigoted comments, he reasoned, people can change community standards for the better.

Other methods: LAWS--He attacked the notion that "you can't change people's attitudes and behavior by law." While a few Lester Maddoxes close their restaurants rather than integrate, most persons will do what the law and social custom expect of them. Racism in real estate transactions was once enforceable under Michigan law, today it isn't.

JOBS--Many restaurants still have only Negro bus girls and only white waitresses simply because no one has ever bothered to change the old pattern. The same racial patterns are found in trade unions, notably construction, Levy said.

HOUSING--"There's no question that our suburbs are going to have to give equal opportunity to Negroes with enough dough to buy a $10,000 house, a $14,000 house, a $25,000 house or whatever they want."

Breakfast To Honor McDonald

A fund-raising breakfast for Republican Congressman Jack McDonald has been arranged for May 26 at 8:30 a.m. at Kingsley Inn, Birmingham.

Purpose is to raise funds to equip McDonald's 19th District office in Farmington. The committee is headed by Robert G. Smith, an account executive with D. P. Brother & Co., an advertising agency.

Hosts are 19th District GOP leaders, Smith said.

While the government provides a congressman funds to rent space and buy stationery, Smith said, the congressman needs private resources to equip the office and provide congressional newsletters.

U.S. Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., will appear at the breakfast with McDonald.

Tickets at $50 each are available from Smith's office.

Realtors Featured In Special Section

The Observer Newspapers next Wednesday will publish a 24-page special tabloid section on real estate in suburbia.

The section will include articles on housing and other land developments in western Wayne and southwestern Oakland counties.

Advertisements have been purchased by members of the United Northwest Realty Association, a 1,700-member group which handles about three-fourths of the market sales of real estate in this area.

Now headed by Richard Elsea of Elsea Realty, the present UNRA is the product of three earlier associations--the original UNRA, founded in 1919 when northwest Detroit was experiencing a post-war boom; the Western Wayne Board of Realtors, chartered in 1952 to cover the area outside Detroit; and the Western Oakland County Board of Realtors.

The UNRA and Western Wayne groups merged in 1959; the Western Oakland group joined in 1961.

Key features of the UNRA service, according to Elsea, are these:

A multi-list service. A member agent has exclusive rights to a listing he has obtained for 24 hours; then it goes to all members of the UNRA, thus widening the seller's contacts and the buyer's opportunities.

A code of ethics: To join, a person in the real estate business must agree to the terms of the code, have a good reputation and pass a UNRA examination.

Skilled salesmen: All new salesmen must attend a UNRA school and take two college-level courses in real estate.

Headquarters of the group's activities are at 11677 Beech-Daly Road in Redford Township.

Rocks Tie for Lead

The baseball tables have turned for Plymouth High! Last season coach Frank Fisher and his Rocks played like "rocks." They were last in the Suburban Six League. With three games left on the 1967 schedule—one against Allen Park and two against Redford Union—the Rocks this season find themselves in a hot chase with Redford Union and Belleville for the conference flag.

Two more victories during the past week upped the Plymouth league record to 5-2. Redford Union also is 5-2, with Belleville a half game back at 5-3. Again it was lefty Dan Camp who hurled the conference conquests for Plymouth. The young man, who is responsible for winning all five loop games, turned in a brilliant 1-0 shut-out over Belleville and then coasted to a 13-4 romp against Trenton.

The output against Trenton marked the first time Plymouth had counted more than five runs in a game this season and the first time the team had triumphed by more than two runs. Plymouth garnered only one hit—a single by John Gilles—in the fourth inning in the Belleville game as Camp bested Bill Ray.

The lone Rocks' run resulted from a fluke. Mike Cederberg struck out, but the ball bounced away from the Belleville catcher whose throw to first was wild. So Cederberg would up on second.

Then a sacrifice and a wild pitch sent Cederberg home with the only run.

Camp fanned 11 batters and drew assists on six other outs. This meant he figured in 18 of the 21 putouts inflicted on Belleville.

While Camp coasted on a two-hitter against Trenton, his mates wasted no time exploding. Leadoff man John Bida put the Rocks ahead in a hurry with a homer.

In the second inning Jim Beachum singled in Dave Prochazka. Then four walks and a single by Beachum netted Plymouth three runs in the third.

A walk to Bida preceded a homer by Gilles in the fourth. Prochazka slapped a round-tripper in the fifth and the Rocks counted five more times in the sixth on three errors, hits by Bida and Gilles and two walks.

TRAPPED ROCK — Plymouth's John Bida finds himself in a rundown between third and the plate in game with Trenton. He was finally tagged out. But it was Bida's lead-off homer that started Rocks on their way to a 13-4 victory and share of league lead.

Plymouth also squeezed past Northville, 5-4, in a non-leaguer highlighted by a homer by Prochazka in the last inning to break up the fuel.

The Rocks had counted their other runs in the fourth inning when Dave Hale tripled in a run, Beachum singled and Regan Fluckey followed with a homer.

Jeff Gillespie hurled four innings and Ron Boyne finished up, retiring nine of the ten men he faced to pick up the victory.

Bentley Hitting Fizzles

It takes more than just pitching to win in baseball. Bentley High came up with some fine mound work this past week, but was able to manage only one run in two games in bowing to Redford Union, 3-1, and Allen Park, 1-0, in Suburban Six League action.

Dale Bjerke flipped a five-hitter for RU against Bentley while Dave Gorton was touched for seven safeties in a losing cause.

The lone Bentley run came in the sixth when Bill McAlpine doubled and Greg Macy delivered a single.

All of the RU runs came in the sixth with Bill Fahey drilling in two runs and Lee Bjerke the other.

Lefty Wayne Paulson pitched well enough for Bentley against Allen Park to win most games. But his mates wasted opportunity after opportunity as they gathered six hits, two of them by Don Montroy, who had a single and a double.

Walks got Paulson in trouble in the fourth and again in the fifth when the Parkers scored their runs.

2nd Baseball Crown Near for Franklin

Beat the record Franklin high has notched in Northwest Suburban League baseball play the last three seasons!

In 1965, the South Livonians ran up 19 straight victories in capturing the circuit's title along with the Les Anders Invitational tourney.

Last season, Franklin finished second to Thurston in the conference chase.

Now it's Franklin the champ again as the curtain prepares to drop on the 1967 campaign. With back-to-back wins this week over Thurston, 4-2, and North Farmington, 8-7, Franklin has wrapped up no worse than a share of the league's 1967 pennant.

A win either against Oak Park Monday or John Glenn Wednesday is all that stands between Franklin and another outright crown.

In a showdown with Thurston, which had a chance to pull into a tie for the lead, Franklin capitalized on the four-hit pitching and a bases-loaded triple by Bill Hellstein to emerge with a 4-2 conquest.

Thurston had counted once in the first inning and was threatening to break matters open with men on second and third and none out before Wendrick put out the fire.

Franklin evened the score in the third on singles by Mike LeBanc and Hellstein and a delayed steal. Two errors and a walk loaded the sacks for Franklin in the fifth before Hellstein cleaned 'em up with a big hit of the game off loser Bob Durand.

Thurston's final run also came in the fifth on a walk to Durand and Reg Barringer's triple.

Fine relief pitching by Rick Mack helped preserve Franklin's win over North Farmington, which came on strong after falling behind, 7-0.

Franklin had pushed over three runs in the first inning on singles by Hellstein, Larry Prentiss, Dave Stott and Dave Fisher. Three more runs came over in the second following three walks, a two-run single by Dave Stott and a single by Mike Cox.

In the third inning, Franklin made it 7-0 when Dave Paden walked, stole second, took third on LeBanc's hit and scored on a passed ball.

North Farmington erupted for three runs in the fourth on a triple by Jeff Werner, a hit batsman, singles by Norm DeCourcy and Mike McCoy and an error.

What proved the game winner for Franklin was registered in the bottom of the fourth when Cox singled, stole second and rushed around on Paden's single.

North Farmington broke loose for four more runs in the fifth. Singles by Rick Scott, Werner and Rick Knock jammed the bases. Everybody scored on DeCourcy's grand slam homer. Mack at this point replaced Fred Davies and held North Farmington hitless the rest of the way.

The defeat was one of three suffered by North Farmington on successive days.

The chain of reversals began Monday when North Farmington lost to Oak Park, 6-0, as Dave Ekelman of the Parkers fired a perfect game.

He retired 21 batters in a row and struck out 10. Nobody from North Farmington reached base.

The Raiders then succumbed to Groves, 8-5, when three errors netted the winners three runs in the ninth inning after North Farmington had rallied to pull even in the seventh stanza.

Werner tripled in Scott Jentz and Scott in the first inning and then singles by McCoy, Jentz and Knock added another North Farmington run in the fifth. In the seventh, a single by Scott, triple by Werner and Knock's sacrifice fly evened the score at 5-5.

DOUBLE DUTY — Fred Davis crossed the plate for Franklin in victory over North Farmington. Davis also has shared in pitching honors for title-bound Livonia team.

Tie in Golf

Al Cieslak shot a 38 to pace Bentley High's golf team in a 160-160 tie with Walled Lake. Steve Kazmer shot a 40 and Mike Hudak and Bob Huddleston each 41 to round out the Bentley scoring.

Rocks Beaten In Net Meets

Plymouth high's tennis team went down to two defeats this week in bowing to Trenton, 4-3, in a Suburban Six League tussle and to Cranbrook, 5-2, in a non-leaguer.

Steve Mogle and Robby Clum triumphed in singles and Bill Wolfe - Larry Walaski in doubles for Plymouth against Trenton. In the Cranbrook meet, it was Clum again in singles with Wolfe teaming with Steve Hulce to win in doubles.

Same Ol' Story: C'Ville Nipped

History repeated itself when Bloomfield Hills High's baseball team downed Clarenceville, 8-7, in eight innings before Clarenceville rebounded to kayo West Bloomfield, 6-1.

It marked the second time this season that the Hills had rallied to tie Clarenceville in the seventh inning and then win out in extra frames. This time, the Hills counted the winning run in the eighth. In the earlier game, the teams battled nine stanzas.

The Trojans scored three times in the fifth inning with Mike Gordon's two-run blast the big blow. Then in the sixth, a double by Carl Watkins, singles by Tom Schlack and Chuck Watkins and Bob Duman's three-run homer finished the Clarenceville scoring.

Gale Armstrong, the loser in relief against Bloomfield, fanned ten and allowed only two hits in besting West Bloomfield.

A five-run fifth inning settled the issue. John McClory, Armstrong and Carl Watkins singled in succession. An error put Schlack aboard. Then Gordon singled and Kerry Rifkin was safe on a miscue to account for the final marker.

First Round Ends Sunday

Two games Sunday evening will wind up the first round of play in the Les Anders Memorial Baseball tournament at Ford Field in Livonia.

It'll be Garden City West vs. Our Lady of Sorrows at 6 p.m. with Clarenceville taking on John Glenn at 8:30. The tourney resumes next Saturday with the quarterfinals. Semifinal play is set for Monday, May 29, and the finals for Tuesday, May 30.

Stevenson Charges As Pitcher Stars

How's this for an identical set of figures?
 When Stevenson High's baseball team downed Farmington, 4-2, Tuesday, it marked the fourth time in six games that Stevenson has emerged on the victorious side in Interlakes League action.
 The triumph also gave ace Stevenson pitcher Paul Tonnemacher a 4-2 record for the season.
 Tonnemacher, who has posted four of his conquests against loop foes, scattered seven hits and missed out on a shutout in the sixth inning when Farmington connected for both of its runs.

 In winning, Stevenson kept alive its hopes for sharing or copping outright the league crown. A sweep of its final two encounters would put Stevenson on the top in the standings.
 The regular loop season is slated to end Tuesday when Stevenson faces current leader Waterford at Cass Benton Park. Stevenson put together a pair of two-run innings off Farmington's Dan Wolfman to pull out the conquest over the Falcons.

 In the third inning Tonnemacher, himself, got matters started with a walk. A single by Tim DeWitt and an error putting Dave Fisher aboard loaded the bases.
 Then Johnny Kladzyk delivered a single to send in Tonnemacher and DeWitt and make the score 2-0.
 Tonnemacher's presence again was felt in the fourth inning. After Rick Horstman walked, Tonnemacher tripled him across. DeWitt followed with another single and that ended the Stevenson scoring for the game.
 But it was all Tonnemacher needed, despite the fact Farmington touched him up for a pair of runs in the sixth.
 Singles by Rick Norton and Joe Himmelspach began the Farmington thrust. Al Kilkka then forced Himmelspach. Jerry Tinkle followed with a single to score Norton.
 A walk to Flynn and a single by Price brought in another Farmington run and left two men on bases before Tonnemacher retired the final man.
 DeWitt and Norton each collected two hits in the game.

STRONG-ARMED Paul Tonnemacher, whose great pitching has kept Stevenson in the race for Interlakes Conference honors during the 1967 season now nearing its finish.

Falcons Rated Despite Defeat

It'll be Farmington vs. Pontiac Northern for the Interlakes League track title next Wednesday evening at Walled Lake.
 The way Coach Jerry Young of Farmington sees the meet: "It could be tighter than a drum."
 The two leading contenders met head-on in a dual meet Tuesday with Pontiac Northern squeezing to a 62-54 victory. But Young felt that with a break or two, Farmington easily could have won from Northern.
 "We're just as good as they are, maybe even better," declared Young.
 The loss to Pontiac Northern preceded an 84-34 romp over Walled Lake in which Farmington showed power in virtually every event.
 Sprinter Chris Brown led the assault against Walled Lake with victories in the long jump and 100-yard dash and a second in the 220-yard dash. He also anchored the winning sprint relay.

Generous Sorrows) Nipped, 2-1

How not to hit, but still score runs.
 This was the story of Our Lady of Sorrows' 2-1 loss at the hands of St. Andrews Tuesday in a Catholic League game.
 The first St. Andrews' run came on two walks, a hit and an error. The next tally--and the winner--was fashioned on three walks and a hit batsman.
 Sorrows averted a shutout without the benefit of a hit, too. Greg Main was safe on an error in the fifth. When the catcher tried to pick him off first, the ball shot into right field and Main went to third. The relay throw to third was wild, so Main dashed home.
 Main suffered the loss, although he gave up only five hits and fanned eight. Sorrows was held to four hits, two by Dennis Perry, as St. Andrews clinched a share of the divisional title with St. Gregory.

Franklin High's golf team split even in a pair of matches this week. After downing Glenn, 168-193, in a Northwest Suburban League meet, Franklin bowed to Dearborn, 160-179.
 Brian Alatalo fired a 39, Jim DeRubeis 41, Ron Higgins 44 and Chris Roy 46 against Glenn. Higgins and Roy with 43's led Franklin in the loss to Dearborn.

NF Finds Loop Net Foes Easy

There are those who say it's impossible to hold a state high school baseball tournament in Michigan.
 The weather... no time... graduation... no interest... these are just some of the reasons offered.
 But, wait!
 Granted there can be problems produced by the weather and the graduation rush. But, no interest? Come again, gentlemen.
 Just take a peep at the swelling entry each year in the Les Anders Memorial Invitational which is now underway at Henry Ford's lighted field in Livonia.
 When the meet was conceived two years ago, there were only eight teams. Last year it went to 11. This time there are 14.
 The only two missing schools from the area served by the Observer newspapers are Farmington and North Farmington. And we have an idea that if the players on the two teams were polled, they'd all have said, "yes, we want to play." The administration, however, ruled otherwise.

THE ANDERS Invitational is just one of several such baseball events now being conducted annually in Michigan.

Those who run these attractions are endeavoring, among other things, to show state prep director Charles Forsythe and others that it's possible to conduct a state-wide competition.
 It's long been our contention that the state preps could take a cue from the NCAA (the National Collegiate Athletic Association) and run off a baseball tournament in fairly speedy time.
 Just make all league champs automatic qualifiers. Then add as "at large entries" any independent teams from schools without league affiliations.
 Following this procedure, you'd find yourself with maybe 50-60 teams. Divided over four classes, there'd probably be 20 in "A," 15 in "B" with the rest scattered over the lower divisions.
 Three or four days of play would be adequate to run off the entire tournament, which would follow the one-game-and-out elimination procedure long used in basketball.

Franklin Splits

Since we have no state tourney, we must settle for the next best thing--an event of the scope of the Anders Invitational in which the Observer papers proudly join with the Livonia Optimist Club and the Livonia Recreation Department to serve as sponsors.
 The experts, men like veteran Tiger scout Louis D'Annunzio, tell us that prep baseball as played in the Greater Livonia-Plymouth-Farmington areas ranks with the best in Michigan. And this state happens to be a hotbed for turning out standouts for the colleges and the pros.

Shy on Strokes

Groves High topped North Farmington High, 166-175, in a golf match. Tim Byrne's 42 was low for the losers.
 Gary Robinson took medalist honors in each meet, firing a 40 and 37 in that order. Neal Goodman scored 42 and 41, Dave Dunlap 43 and 39 and Don Woody 46 and 41.

Sorrows Track Outlook On Gloomy Side

Hats off to Our Lady of Sorrows' golf team.
 Coached by Dr. Joseph Gadow, Sorrows reigns as co-champs with Benedictine in the Western Division of the Catholic League.
 Each team boasts a record of 7-1 and will face in a showdown next week to decide which enters the Catholic League final playoffs against the champs of East and Central Divisions next Friday.
 Dr. Gadow, who takes time out from his practice, to work with the Sorrows' golfers has moulded together a strong quartet led by Harry Lapham.
 Lapham, 18, a senior, has been the low scorer throughout the campaign for Sorrows. Twice this week he paced the way as Sorrows downed Sacred Heart, 166-181, and Orchard Lake St. Mary's 163-181, to wind up its dual meet schedule on a happy note.
 Lapham shot a 37 in the Sacred Heart Meet while Tim Doyle, Frank Carrico and Tom Strand each came in with a 43.
 In the St. Mary's meet, it was Lapham with a 40 while the other three men each scored a 41.

Twice this past week, Stevenson came up on the short end of scores.
 In a triangular meet, Stevenson notched 38-1/2 points as Wayne won with 55-1/2 and John Glenn followed with 54. Then Stevenson succumbed to Kettering, 67-51.
 John Gores in the half-mile accounted for the only Stevenson victory in the meet with Wayne and John Glenn.
 Against Kettering, Stevenson came up with three individual firsts and also a triumph in the mile relay.
 How Stevenson scored in the two meets:
 Wayne 55-1/2, Glenn 54, Stevenson 38-1/2.
 880-yard relay: 3--Stevenson.
 Mile: 3--Ochala. High Hurdles: 3--Wendall, 4--Sacharski. 880-yard: 1--Gores. Time: 2:03.1. 440-yard: 2--Denney. Time: 51.8.
 100-yard: 3--Dickey, 4--Freeman. Low Hurdles: 2--Wendall, 3--Sacharski. 220: 3--Dickey. Long Jump: 2--Mastny. Shot put: 2--Detter. 50 feet 1-3/4 inches school record. High Jump: tied for second* Detter. Pole Vault: 4--Campbell. Mile Relay: 2--Stevenson.

Kettering 67, Stevenson 51.
 Mile: 2--Gores. High Hurdles: 2--Sacharski, 3--Wendall. 880-yard: 1--Ochala. Time: 2:07. 440-yard: 1--Denny, 2--Chope. Time: 52.8 seconds. Low Hurdles: 2--Wendall, 3--Sacharski. 220-yard: 3--Freeman. Mile relay: 1--Stevenson (Gores, Ochala, Chope, Denny). Time: 3:40.1. Two-Mile: 2--Reynolds, 3--Lockhead. Long jump: 2--Detter. High jump: 1--Detter. Height 5 feet, 10 inches. Pole Vault: 2--Avis, 3--Campbell. Long jump: 1--Mastny. Distance: 20 feet, 3 inches.

NF Falls To Groves On Track

North Farmington High's track team managed only three first places in losing to Groves, 88-30, in a dual meet.
 Bill Johnesee (shot put), Brian MacDonell (880) and Rick Randall (Mile) led the losers as each won. How North Farmington placed:
 High Jump: 2 - John Mann. Long Jump: 3 - Ross Smith. Shot Put: 1 - Bill Johnesee. 2 - Doug Bouza. Distance: 48 feet, 9 inches.
 Two Mile: 3 - Marty Makinen. Mile: 1 - Rick Randall. Time: 4:36.4.
 High Hurdles: 2 - Floyd Webb. 880-yard: 1 - Brian MacDonell. Time: 2:07.4.
 440-yard: 3 - Jim Jentz. 220-yard: 3 - Smith.

Falcons Near Tennis Laurels

Farmington High's tennis team moved nearer the Interlakes League title by downing Stevenson, 5-2. It was the Falcons' fourth win in five conference starts.
 Craig Anderson, Bryan Wanless and Bob Brown triumphed for the Falcons in singles' matches while in doubles the duos of Bill Bliss-Rick Seeburger and Jim Atkinson-Howard Broadman came through on top.

- 4) Collections in the Carrier Subscription Plan are shared between the carrier and the Livonia Observer. Good service for you means higher earnings for him.
- 5) Our Carrier Subscription Plan is designed to improve carrier service to you, and we do not expect the carriers to be demanding when they call to collect. If you enjoy the Livonia Observer and do not wish to pay, you may receive it just the same.

We are proud of our newsboys...

They are, in most cases, holding down their first job, benefiting from the experience and training that only a job can give.

Your newsboy is receiving training and supervision on his first job from adult members of our circulation staff. The boys have their delivery routes in their own neighborhoods; you probably know them by name. Your participation in the Carrier Subscription Plan helps your carrier boy, encouraging his efforts to give good service and insuring success in his first business venture.

Sincerely yours,

1-4 In Memorium

IN LOVING memory of our son and brother Johnny Harlan Bridgman, who was killed on May 21, 1965. So sad and sudden came God's call, your sudden death surprised us all. God's change in our lives was sadly felt, our faith in God we have always kept. We often sit and think of you, and then of how you died. To think we could not say goodbye before you closed your eyes. No one knows our longing nor sees us weep. Harlie, you are gone, but your sweet memories we will keep.

SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE: PLANNING SUPERIOR 2-YEAR SCHOOL

By TIM RICHARD
Managing Editor

Schoolcraft College will remain a two-year community college rather than become a four-year institution. Its proportion of vocational-technical students will increase from one-third of the student body to about half. Precisely how big it will become isn't known, but one idea being studied is a second campus in the district. One major goal is a Cultural Center capable of attracting top-flight theater and symphonies--if there is public support. These points emerged from a conversation with Dr. Eric Bradner, president of the nearly three-year-old community college at 18600 Haggerty on Livonia's western city limit. Here is what he had to say:

Two Years Of Quality

Q. Considering Schoolcraft College's present size and anticipated growth, is there any possibility of your becoming a four-year, bachelor's degree-granting institution? What do you think of the possibility?
A. Dr. Bradner: "Most people are concerned about this one question than anything else. We get it from almost every source. Even at the last commencement exercise, the speaker mentioned he expected us to become a four-year institution."
"As a matter of fact, we are NOT interested in becoming a four-year institution, either now or later."
"It is our feeling that we're doing an excellent job as a two-year community college. As such, we are able to give quality education to all our students and to the community. Our library is sized for this; our facilities were built with the idea of our being a two-year community college."
"If we go to a four-year college, we're going to have to change our perspective. We're going to enlarge our library; we're going to have to get a different kind of faculty; and many of our very important curricula are going to have to be changed--for example, the technical curricula which direct people into job opportunities such as highway technology, culinary arts, automotive shop."
(Dr. Bradner added that the basis of financial support would have to change, and that Schoolcraft would likely be fourth-rate as a four-year school but can be a first-rate two-year school.)
Q. This is an official position?
A. Dr. Bradner: "We are in line with the best thinking in the state."
"The State Board for Public Junior and Community Colleges (a subordinate of the State Board of Education), in a recent position paper, indicated they are in absolute opposition to any community college becoming a four-year college."

PRESIDENT ERIC BRADNER SURVEYS CAMPUS

"Our own board of trustees has taken the position that they are elected as two-year college board members, and are going to remain that. They're not interested in going into a four-year institution."

How Many Attending?

Q. Since you opened Schoolcraft College in August of 1964, have your enrollments been up to your anticipations, equal to them or beyond them?
A. Dr. Bradner: "In 1964 we actually enrolled some 1,350 full-time equated students--that is, some 2,000 head count. We had thought we would enroll around 1,100."
"So at the very beginning, we were ahead of ourselves, and this has continued to the present day."
"This year we thought we'd get around 2,300 or 2,400 full-time equated students. Instead we got over 2,600."
"Next year we expect and hope to get not more than 3,000 FTE students, which will mean around 4,000 people. But we're crossing our fingers; it may very well be we'll be forced to take more."
"When we opened, there were a total of five high schools in the district--one in Plymouth, two in Livonia, one in Clarenceville, and one in Garden City."
"Since that time, Northville has been added to the district. Furthermore, there has been growth, not only within each high school, but additional schools--one in Livonia and one in Garden City--for eight public high schools and one parochial, and the possibility in the very near future of several additional ones."

Q. & A.

"This will almost double our high school student possibilities."

Q. What percentage of the high school graduating classes of the five member school districts are actually enrolling in Schoolcraft College?
A. Dr. Bradner: "We had about 20 per cent of the 1964 high school graduates coming to Schoolcraft College that fall."
"It has mounted. Last year it was over 25 per cent."
"We think this percentage is going to increase--how much, we don't know. Statewide, we know it's creeping up toward the 30 per cent mark."

A Second Campus?

Q. What appears to be the ultimate enrollment that Schoolcraft College will be asked by the public to handle?
A. Dr. Bradner: "I wish I could answer the question at this present time, but I can't."
"Schoolcraft College is actually run by the board of trustees of Northwest Wayne County Community College District. And while Schoolcraft College might remain one size, the district might find itself in a position where it's going to have to establish another campus somewhere."
"We're trying to find out the answers."
"The board of trustees has recently engaged Dr. J.F. Thaden, professor emeritus and consultant in demography at Michigan State University, to run a population study of the college district--the five member districts of Northville, Plymouth, Clarenceville, Livonia and Garden City.

Academic vs. Technical

Q. In the past, you've had a breakdown of the student body of two-thirds in academic programs and one-third toward vocational or career programs. Will this continue?
A. Dr. Bradner: "We expect a change toward the career or vocationally-oriented, because of the fact that we have just opened our new technical center."
"This coming year, we expect it will begin to fill up, and it looks to us as though we will gradually approach a 50-50 ratio between academic and the technical. This we hope to maintain in the future."
"We can guess. But Dr. Thaden is a world-known consultant on this, and he's going into it on a scientific basis. Hopefully, by next October, we'll know not only how many people will be living in the district, but where they will be living, and what their ages will be."
"With this information, the board of trustees will then be in a position to take the next step--which will be to determine whether to enlarge our present campus, or whether we will have to go to a second campus, a different type of program or perhaps another program identical to what we have."

Expansion Plans

Q. What construction programs are going on or being planned to prepare for the influx of students?
A. Dr. Bradner: "We found out that this year we are just about at the limit within the hours 8 to 5. So last year our board decided they'd have to take immediate steps to build additional classrooms."
"As a result, we have under construction now a classroom building that will give us some 32 additional classrooms, little theater and faculty offices. This will not be finished until a year from next September."
"We have also completed the plans for a physical education facility, which is something we have needed ever since we opened. Presently, our physical education work is being done at Northville State Hospital, and it just isn't satisfactory. It's for men only, and we need it for men and women, and it can only accommodate a small percentage of our student body."
"This will be completed as soon as the classroom building, if we can get started right away."
"I'm particularly interested in having you know of the plans in the not-too-distant future for a Cultural Center, where the people of the community might come for their own artistic enhancement--where they might learn the dance, where they might listen to Broadway plays, where they might hear the full New York Philharmonic."

"We are concerned with getting this program under way as quickly as possible. The newly-formed Schoolcraft College Foundation has been working on ways and means to gather funds to provide a base whereby we might build this facility."
"We have the ground. It's right next to our north parking lot."

Financial Sources...

Q. Where do funds come from to run Schoolcraft College and to put up the new buildings?
A. Dr. Bradner: "I, as a resident of Livonia, am very aware of where some of the funds come from. I get a tax bill, and on this tax bill I am informed that 1.77 mills goes to the support of Schoolcraft College. This amount is collected equally across the whole college district."
"Now 0.77 mill is for capital expenditures, and the one mill is used for operating funds--to pay the faculty, to buy the supplies."
"But this doesn't build us all the buildings."
"We fortunately have two additional sources of funds--the federal and state governments. They have supplied us 50 per cent of our building costs."
"We get money to operate from two additional sources. The students pay tuition--$8 a semester for students who are residents of the district and $12 for those who are not--or a total for residents of approximately $225 a year. "The state has been paying $325 per student for academic students and $350 if he is a technical student."

...And The Foundation

Q. How does the foundation enter the picture?
A. Dr. Bradner: "The Schoolcraft College Foundation has recently been organized by a group of citizens who are interested in the college."
"It's designed to gather funds, to interest people in the college in planning for the future. It's organized under a number of committees... capital additions... scholarships... publicity... membership... and steering."
"This foundation has the goal of the accumulation of approximately a million dollars for capital expenditures and also the gathering of around $25,000 for student aids."
"The foundation has a membership campaign starting now..."
"So when any of your readers are approached to join the Schoolcraft College Foundation, we hope that they will lend a willing and gracious ear."

If your want ad is in this paper, people are reading it today!

In one car in the long line parked with engines running in front of the school, a certain car pool driving mother is reading the Observer Want Ads. In the few peaceful moments before her noisy, active load jams into the car, she studies the little ads carefully and with an absorbed interest.

Later in the day, perhaps after dinner, she will make a phone call in response to one of the ads. She will be just one of hundreds of people who respond to Observer Want Ads every day. These are people who read Want Ads in search of some particular need or want, and who respond immediately when they see the ad they have been watching for.

If your ad is there to fulfill their need or solve their problem, your phone will be ringing. Placing your ad is a simple, convenient procedure. You can do it by phone, and just say "charge it" if the phone is in your name. The investment is low too, as little as $4.05 for our special low Sunday-Wednesday combination rate.
