

Isbister Bids Farewell to His Final PHS Graduates

Russell Isbister, who will retire in 10 days after 16 years as Plymouth's school superintendent, bid farewell to his administration's final graduating class with an admonition to "keep an open mind and an open heart and the world which you leave to posterity will be better because you have lived in it." Isbister delivered Thursday night, special commencement address at the specific request of the 420 members of the senior class.

Nearly 3,000 parents and friends of the graduates attended the outdoor ceremony.

In a warm and personal message, Isbister reminded the seniors that their class is Plymouth's first to graduate in the last third of the 20th Century.

In the year 2,000 these students will be in the most productive period of their lives, he declared, and their decisions will help chart the course of generations to come.

"New industries, new products and new services yet unheard of will bring many of you into employment in occupations which do not exist today," Isbister predicted. "Retraining to perform in new jobs will be standard practice in the years ahead."

"You should recognize then that change is inevitable and should prepare yourself accordingly." He cautioned the seniors that their attitudes and habits of work will be contributing factors in their ability to hold jobs, and advised:

"Analyze your abilities, aptitudes, attitudes and interests and discover for yourself that position in life to which you aspire and in which you can make your greatest contribution in the productive world, either in goods or services."

Isbister exhorted the graduates to "keep an open mind and seek the truth."

"Examine the facts before making judgments on important issues which affect your well-being and that of others," he declared. "The truth will make you free."

"Making judgments on the basis of one's biases and prejudices can only lead to faulty conclusions. Examine the stereotype impressions voiced by uninformed and illogical minds, and above all avoid being a party to perpetuating (Continued on Page 4A)

City Attorney Resigns; Cites Press of Law Work

Owners Give P & A Theater To Plymouth

The City of Plymouth was presented a gift on Monday night and now doesn't know what to do with it.

The gift is the P & A Theater on Penniman Ave. It was offered to the city by Katherine B. Stockwell, of Grosse Pointe Farms, for the use of all of its citizens.

In making the offer she wrote:

"The gift is made in the memory of several of my relatives who have been closely associated with the City of Plymouth, its growth and development since 1838. There are my great grandfather, Ebenezer Jenkes Penniman, his daughter, Mrs. Kate E. Allen and her husband, William O. Allen, and my mother, Mrs. Sarah Penniman Burdick."

It pointed out that in a special survey some thought was given to retaining the building at least until the new high school auditorium was built. Others suggested that may be used for summer stock and others felt that some of the organizations in the city might find good use for the building.

Though badly in need of repairs to be made into a modern theater, it was pointed out that some good could be made of it. Later, Commissioner Arch Vallier asked that the gift be accepted with the proviso that the building may be razed.

He then asked that the City Manager make a thorough study of the costs of razing the building, remodeling it, and determining what uses could be made of it.

And so another landmark passes.

A Barefoot Boy of 16 Gets Lesson

Dick Stewart, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stewart, 1368 Elm Street, Plymouth, has decided it doesn't pay to go around barefoot.

Dick learned the hard way. During last Friday's heavy rainstorm, he had just finished a lawn job and was rushing home to put his equipment away when he stepped on a piece of glass.

Upon arriving home, he discovered his mother wasn't there. So, he called upon Mrs. Jean Jabara, wife of the Mayor, for aid and she rushed him to the doctor's office for repairs.

And that means Dick won't be able to do any swimming for several weeks until the stitches are removed.

He has taken a solemn vow not to go barefoot again.

Action Brings Rumors

Thomas Healy, popular Plymouth City Attorney, has resigned his post — much to the surprise of no one.

He submitted his resignation less than two hours before Monday night's regular commission session and it was accepted with the usual regrets.

The only surprise concerning his act was the timing. In giving up the position he has held for a year and a half, Healy explained that the press of city work was interfering with his regular legal practice and that he no longer had time for both.

However, those familiar with the condition at City Hall had other ideas.

It is a well known fact that he started to lose favor with some members of the Commission several months ago when he asked to be excused from representing the City of Plymouth in the suit brought by Rev. Peter Schweitzer.

At that time he asked to withdraw on the grounds that, as a member of the Election Commission, he was a defendant in the case. He also let it be known that he thought Rev. Schweitzer had a good case in claiming the charter of the City of Plymouth was unconstitutional.

Long before Circuit Judge Victor Baum ruled that the charter was unconstitutional, members of the Commission voiced their disapproval of Healy's actions.

Mayor James Houk, then serving as Mayor, publicly voiced his objections to any one who would listen and stated then that Healy should have resigned.

No further objection was made at the time and things went along smoothly — at least on the surface — until a week ago when the Commission met to select a successor.

AN ERA ENDS in the Plymouth Community. A military guard stands at attention as the body of Thomas Gray, last of the Spanish-American War Veterans, is carried to a grave in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Gray was stricken shortly before Memorial Day and died last week. He received a 21-gun salute from the Honor Guard as a final tribute to a war hero.

Form New Catholic Parish In Lake Pointe District

Plymouth's Catholic community has been ordered split by the Archdiocese of Detroit with the announcement of the establishment of a new church on the edge of the Lake Pointe subdivision in Plymouth Township.

Lost to Our Lady of Good Counsel parish because of the boundaries set for the new congregation is all of Lake Pointe and that portion of Northville Township in the Plymouth school district.

The new congregation, to be named in honor of St. Kenneth, an Irish-Scott Abbot who lived in the Sixth Century, will be located on Haggerty Road, south of Five Mile Road. It has long been known that the Archdiocese has owned a piece of land in that area but it was thought it was for the construction of a high school in some future time.

The boundaries include: Plymouth Road on the South, Eckles Road on the East, Six Mile Road on the North and Edward Hines Drive on the West.

Rev. Fr. James Machak has been appointed the first pastor and has arranged for the first Sunday mass to be celebrated at 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. in the Tanager Elementary School on Five Mile Road near Haggerty.

Fr. Machak plans to start masses this Sunday and urges all in the St. Kenneth parish to attend.

For additional information, Fr. Machak and his aide, Edward Nowakowski, may be reached at Our Lady of Good Counsel rectory in Plymouth, 453-0326.

Announcement of the new parish was made over the weekend along with those of two other new congregations.

It had been rumored for some time that a new congregation would be formed in the Plymouth area as soon as St. Edith's was firmly established in western Livonia. It had also been rumored that the new parish would include all of Lake Pointe as it does.

City To Receive A Plymouth Rock

The City of Plymouth is going to be linked to Plymouth, England, for the rest of time.

Several weeks ago it was announced that the British Overseas Air Company was planning to send over a piece of rock from the docks and have the Lord Mayor of Plymouth present it to Mayor James Jabara as the highlight of the big Civic Dinner on Thursday, July 6, at the Meeting House.

It now has been learned that the piece of rock is not just an ordinary stone — but a highly-prized bit of granite.

The officials have arranged to have a piece 12 inches square cut from the steps leading down to the dock from which the original Mayflower sailed. This will be suitably prepared, bronze plaque and all, for presentation at the dinner.

In return, the Centennial officials have been asked to have pictures taken of the presentation and other tokens prepared to send to the powers that be in England for display.

Thus, there will be a closer tie with the homeland of the original Pilgrims than ever before.

Interest in the Centennial is growing now that it is getting close at hand and a motorcade is being planned to Windsor airport to meet the honored guests from across the sea.

They are to arrive at the airport at 12:25 p.m. on the morning of Monday, July 3, and after being greeted by the British Consul and the Mayor of Windsor, they will be taken to the penthouse atop the Veterans Memorial Building in the Detroit Civic Center for lunch and a view of the City-County Building and Cobo Hall.

After this short trip, the motorcade will tour the downtown Detroit and Wayne University areas and then head for Plymouth for the civic welcome planned on the lawn at City Hall at 4 p.m.

Council Okays Charter Study

After being declared unconstitutional by Circuit Judge Victor Baum and buffeted about by several members of the City Commission, the charter for the City of Plymouth may undergo a thorough revision.

The decision to make a study of the document came suddenly at the regular meeting of the Commissioners Monday evening when Commissioner George Hudson asked for the job of making a complete study of the "by-laws" during the summer.

Hudson's action came just as Mayor James Jabara was about to announce several committee appointments.

Commenting that before he could honestly vote on some of the choices he would have to make a study of the charter, Hudson asked for the job.

This sudden request was picked up by other members and Mayor Jabara pointed out that the study of the charter and the making of recommendations for revisions was much more than a one man job.

He was then given the right to name a Charter Study Committee with the provision that the study could be completed in time to place it on the ballot in the regular election of 1968. To this Commissioner Hudson agreed.

Mayor Jabara asked for time to select the study committee which will do the work of an ordinary Charter Commission. It was pointed out that the Commission, on its own initiative, had the right to recommend revisions and put them before the public for adoption.

Senior Citizens Plan Annual Picnic June 29

Members of the Plymouth Senior Citizens organizations will stage their annual picnic at 1 p.m. on Thursday, June 29, according to an announcement from Mrs. Anna Haag.

It also has been announced that members who are planning to participate in the club's July 21 trip to Bob-Lo Island must make their reservations no later than picnic day.

Kroger to Open Store in Livonia Next Tuesday

There will be a "Wonderland of Food" awaiting shoppers at the new Kroger store which opens on Tuesday, June 27, at 9 a.m., according to H. A. Gifford, Vice President of the retail food firm's Detroit Division. The store is located at 37300 Five Mile Road and Newburgh in Livonia.

When the "Ribbon is Cut" shoppers will enjoy the latest in modern shopping convenience. Among the many innovations are multi-deck, upright frozen food cases to accommodate a full variety of items within easy access of the customer, reflecting the growing popularity of frozen foods.

Six of the newest conveyor type checkout stands with the electronic eye control will do their bit to speed up the task of checking out. One of these will be an express lane. "Magic Carpets" will open and close the wide entrance and exit doors.

The store covers 14,935 square feet and includes a Sander's Bakery for the convenience and enjoyment of customers.

Store manager will be Ronald T. Cologie, who has been with Kroger since 1962 when he started as a grocery clerk. He became a management trainee in 1964, advancing to co-manager of one of the larger stores in Ann Arbor.

Move For Area Special Police Force

Plymouth Is First To Approve

A special countywide inter-departmental police force of 100 men and a top level committee to co-ordinate crime prevention and law enforcement are being developed in Wayne County.

The special police force, set up on a similar basis to Detroit's Tactical Mobile Unit, was proposed by Sheriff Peter L. Buback and endorsed in a meeting of Police chiefs and others representing 40 departments.

Buback asked each police department to make available one to ten men for the special force, depending on the department's size. He said Detroit's TMU and the Michigan State Police would be asked to give the force special training in controlling disturbances.

The sheriff proposed that an additional 100 men be made available for mobilization in the event of "dire emergencies" such as major natural disasters.

One of the first governmental units to take official action in backing the project was the City Commission of Plymouth which voted Monday to support the plan.

Plymouth which voted 6-5 was represented at the meeting by Lt. Roger favorable report to Chief Robert Corrington. In Monday's meeting, City Manager Richard Blodgett told of the meeting and recommended that Plymouth become a part of the plan. The Commission approved.

MEANWHILE, representatives of a dozen agencies met at the invitation of Mel Ravitz, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, and agreed to form a Coordinating Committee on Crime in Wayne County.

They agreed to meet monthly to exchange information and ideas on how to eliminate causes of crime in the metropolitan area and how to make law enforcement more effective.

Those who met with Ravitz included:

Hubert Locke, administrative assistant to the Detroit Police Commissioner; Prosecuting Attorney William L. Cahalan; Sheriff Peter L. Buback; Dr. William Wattenberg, an assistant superintendent of the Detroit public schools; and William A. Shunck, superintendent of the Wayne County Intermediate School District.

Other agencies represented included the Detroit and Wayne County anti-poverty programs, Wayne County legal services for the poor, and several committees of the County Board of Supervisors.

Those present voted unanimously to continue the meetings. The next meeting was scheduled for 2 p.m. July 13, in the supervisor's office at the City-County Building.

In his meeting with the police chiefs, the sheriff said the special police task force would serve as a deterrent against rowdism.

He said his proposal was inspired when several suburban police departments and the sheriff's department pooled a total of 200 men to head off weekend rowdism by motorcycle gangs along the Edward Hines Parkway.

Buback said it had been reported that as many as 800 motorcyclists planned to descend on the County Parkway, but only 35 or so showed up—apparently because word of the police preparations had spread. There were no incidents, he said.

The police department representatives agreed to present Buback's plan to their local mayors and city councils. Buback also asked the police chiefs to consider contributing men to form a county-wide interdepartmental rackets squad.

Graduates Plan Reunion July 8

The 1962 class of Garden City East High School will hold its five-year reunion at Kensington Park's Maple Beach at 8 a.m. Sunday July 8, announced its chairman, Al Rollings, of 29554 Barton Street, Garden City.

Rollings said that food and refreshments will be left to individual arrangements.

Schoolcraft Advances Closer To Full NCA Accreditation

Schoolcraft College recently moved a step closer to full accreditation by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools when the college submitted a 193-page self-study—the result of a year-long project required as part of the accreditation process.

The self-study critically examines every major phase of the college from its basic philosophy to its financial resources, cites strengths and outlines efforts being made by the college to correct unresolved problems.

Largely a project undertaken by the college faculty, the self-study involved every segment of the college staff. The study was developed by seven major committees, directly involving some 50 faculty members. Completion of the self-study places Schoolcraft on the threshold of the final phase of the NCACSS accreditation process.

If all remaining hurdles are cleared, the college, now completing its third year of operations, could achieve full accreditation next March, according to John H. Brinn, vice-president for instruction and director of the self-study.

Schoolcraft has been accredited by the Michigan Commission on College Accreditation since 1964, and last year was admitted as a candidate for accreditation by the NCACSS. In addition, the college meets all accreditation requirements imposed by the U.S. Office of Education for eligibility for various federal grants.

"In a very real sense," Brinn explained, "Schoolcraft was accredited the moment it opened its doors to accept students for the first time in August, 1964.

"Our credits have always been accepted for transfer by every four-year institution in Michigan and we do not have a single instance in which a Schoolcraft graduate was denied admission to a four-year institution when his scholastic record here met the entrance requirements of the senior college.

"We are, however, extremely desirous of full accreditation by the NCACSS at the earliest possible time. The North Central Assn. is the sole regional accrediting organization, and its recognition will place Schoolcraft on a parity with every other accredited institution in the nation.

"While there are a number of steps that must still be taken, we are confident of attaining accreditation from the NCACSS next spring.

"If this is the case, Schoolcraft will have achieved accreditation in the shortest time possible under the requirements of the North Central Assn."

Brinn outlined these steps which remain in the accreditation process:

The self-study will be examined by the NCACSS official board for a decision by early August. If the self-study is accepted by the board without reservation, an examining team will be appointed to visit the college for a first-hand look.

If, however, the board raises questions on the self-study, the college will have the option of pursuing the accreditation effort or of deferring it for the time being.

An inspection team, named by the association, would visit the campus sometime during December or January and would submit a report and a recommendation as to accreditation to the NCACSS in February.

The college would receive a copy of the team's report, but the recommendation would be confidential to the North Central board.

A final decision as to accreditation would be made by the NCACSS during its annual meeting in March.

CHARLES WEBER

Crowley's Names Manager

Charles Weber, a Crowley's employee for 16 years and a native-born Detroit, is the new manager of Crowley's Livonia Mall store. He assumed his new duties a week ago after his transfer from the Grand River store.

Weber, who started 16 years ago as a packer and then moved into the candy kitchen, assistant buyer in millinery, assistant buyer in women's coats, area supervisor of ladies wear at the Westborn store, assistant manager at Grand River, buyer of women's coats, merchandising manager of women's sportswear and then manager of Grand River for two and half years, has done nothing but advance since he joined Crowley's.

Born in Detroit's far east side, Weber received his high school diploma from St. Mary's of Redford High and then attended Wayne State University. It was while attending Wayne that he became associated with Crowley's and has been with the chain ever since.

He and his wife, Janet, are the parents of five sons.

Observer Names Advertising Chief

R. A. (Rudy) Mazurosky, 33, has joined the six Observer Newspapers as advertising director.

The appointment was announced by Publisher Philip H. Power, who said Mazurosky will be in charge of all advertising for the six newspaper groups.

Mazurosky replaces Frank McGuire, who has formed his own advertising agency in Farmington.

Mazurosky previously was assistant classified advertising manager of the New York World Journal Tribune, the merged afternoon newspaper which discontinued publication last month.

A native of Portland, Ore., Mazurosky attended San Francisco State College and served in the U.S. Army in Europe from 1953-55.

He then joined the San Francisco News-Call-Bulletin and had risen to manager of the classified advertising department by the time he left in 1964.

Mazurosky then went to the New York World Telegram & Sun as classified manager, he was the youngest advertising executive retained when that paper merged with the Herald-Tribune and Journal-American last year.

He is a member of the American Newspaper Classified Advertising Managers Association and the Newspaper Executive Association. With his wife, Gertrude, and three children, ages 11, 8 and 4 he will move from their present home in Teaneck, N.J., to this area.

Calling the appointment "a decisive step in our development plans," Power said that Mazurosky "brings to our organization an extraordinary amount of experience, a vital imagination and an ability to bring creative growth to our advertising program."

Three Redford Men Promoted

Promotion of three Redford area residents has been announced by William A. Mayberry, chairman of the board, Manufacturers Bank, and Roland A. Mewhort, president and chief executive officer.

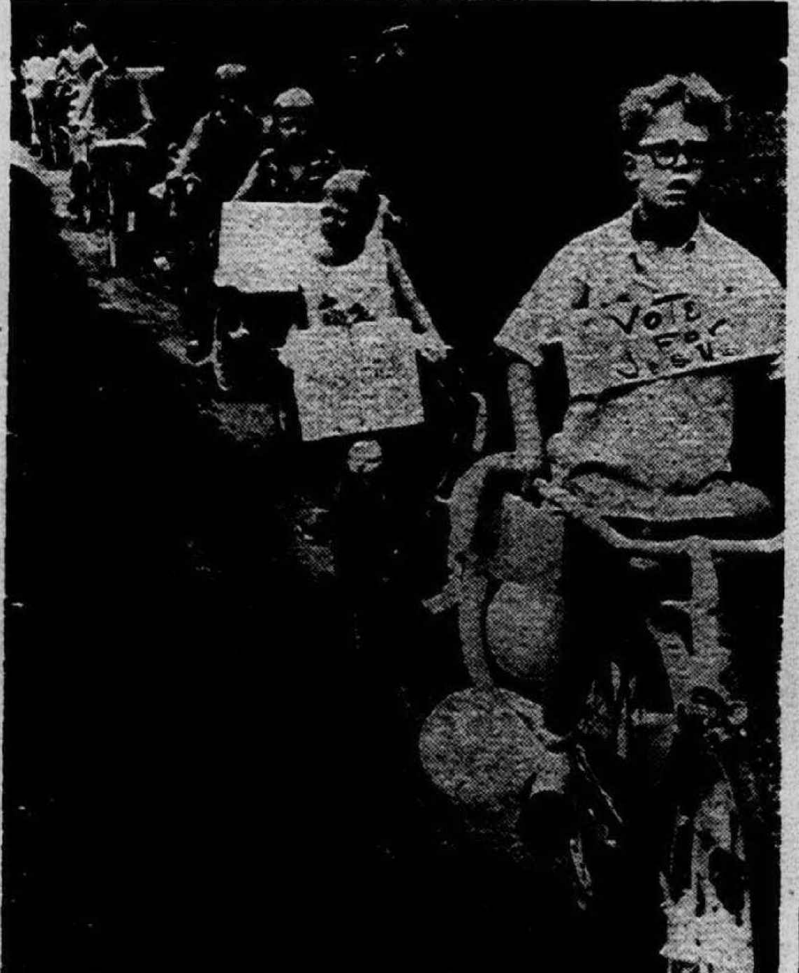

Those promoted were Neil A. Cords, who was advanced to trust officer; Walter H. Beck, Jr., and John G. Fuller.

Cords Beck

ler, who were appointed assistant trust officers.

Cords, who joined the Manufacturers Bank in 1965 as an assistant auditor, formerly worked for Central Savings & Loan Association and the Central Credit Union of Michigan. He was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1955. He wife Joan and daughter Laura Jean make their home at 18942 W. Chicago.

YOUNGSTERS ON BICYCLES did their bit to make the parade colorful, decorating the bikes and carrying signs telling of the Bible School.

Charter Study

charter, which was written in 1951 and approved by the Attorney General and the Governor, was not up to modern times came when Rev. Peter Schweitzer brought suit against the city for being denied the right to run for the City Commission on the grounds that he didn't qualify under the terms of the charter which limited candidates for public office to tax paying property owners.

Healy

cessor to Ed Draugelis who had resigned as Municipal Judge. Healy had voiced interest in this position. But after spending some time in "executive" sessions, Mayor James Jabara announced that the Commission was split in its choice and no successor would be named until former mayor James Houk returned from his vacation in Europe.

With this announcement, the hand writing was on the wall.

It became plainer when Healy submitted his resignation and brought about vacancies in both legal positions in the city—the City Attorney and the Municipal Judge. No hint was given as to when a new city attorney is to be appointed.

who had been residents of the city for at least two years.

It is history now that Rev. Schweitzer won his case and subsequently won a place on the Commission. But his victory left much dissatisfaction with the charter.

When the City Commission decided to fight Judge Baum's opinion—and the case is now in the Supreme Court—there were several members who suggested that the charter be amended instead of fighting what may be a losing case in court.

Along with this alleged shortcoming in the charter, several other appointments have been questioned on much the same grounds, and the zoning ordinance now under study also could be in variance with the charter.

It was because of this that Commissioner Hudson instigated the move and was quickly joined by his fellow Commissioners in approving the request. Two members were absent—James McKeon and James Houk—both of whom are on vacation.

Isbister

Isbister had particular advice concerning the associations with other persons which the graduates will develop through the years.

"Getting along with others means that one must understand others," he stressed. "Know what causes people to behave as they do. Major confrontations and open conflicts between individuals and between groups don't just happen. They are caused."

"Extend yourself to be patient, to be sympathetic and to understand. Prepare yourself to open your heart. Give of yourself, your time, your talent and at times your money to help others."

"Join the ranks of those who promote changes which are constructive, and go sparingly with time and talent to the groups who are protesting against something or somebody."

"It is easier to be critical than to be correct."

Isbister also urged the seniors to become active in dealing with issues openly, developing an understanding of both sides of an issue.

"Unless each of us during our lifetime spend more of our time, thought and effort trying to resolve conflict than we do in creating conflict the world may be worse off because we have lived in it," he stated.

"This is not to say that we should go through life avoiding conflict. I am saying that we must develop more 'know-how' and skills in reducing and resolving conflict. This means some different approaches in public relations."

Isbister's final measure to the class of '67 was:

"As you leave now for a new adventure in life, keep a soft spot in your heart for the Plymouth Community Schools—and for your hometown."

"Your stations in life will be spread to the four corners of the world. But wherever you go, or whatever you do, keep an open mind and an open heart, and the world which you leave to posterity will be better because you have lived in it."

During his remarks, Isbister also paid personal tribute to Carvel Bentley, high school principal.

"His leadership of the students and faculty has given Plymouth High School a continuing position of unqualified accreditation," said Isbister.

"His standards of fairness and firmness in handling the day-to-day personal problems of the school command respect from students, teachers and parents. Few know of the many heartaches he has to bear and too few who do know take the time to express their appreciation for his work."

Plymouth Air Line Pilot Attending Safety Forum

Air line pilot safety experts from the Detroit area will participate in two air safety forums being sponsored by the Air Line Pilots Association (ALPA) this month.

Air line pilot safety chairman from the area who are scheduled to attend the 14th annual ALPA Air Safety Forum in the Washington Hilton Hotel, Washington, D.C., June 20-22, are: John R. McDonald, 371 Irvin Street, Plymouth, Paul Lomarevich, 19935 Woodmont, Harper Woods.

The Forums are sponsored yearly by the Air Line Pilots Association to promote the cause of safety and in the past have produced many recommendations which have helped to improve the safety of air transportation.

The meetings will focus on the safety problems which the pilots and flight attendants feel to be currently the most critical.

Playgrounds Open For Summer

Thousands of Westland youngsters, looking forward to the closing of school last week, are being offered a full range of activities in the Parks and Recreation program which got underway yesterday, Tuesday, at 17 playgrounds.

Parks and Recreation Director John H. Voss announced the summer program which will include junior baseball, playground activities, special events, arts and crafts, and a day camp.

The playground schedule will cover games, contests, tournaments, storytelling, physical fitness, softball, carroms, roll ball, box hockey, checkers, 20-2 and other activities for boys and girls.

The special events this summer will have playgrounds open one night a week, usually Wednesday or Thursday, with parents invited to attend. These projects will include pet shows, doll shows, physical fitness championships, carnivals, bike parades, weenie roasts, talents show, and other events.

A planned and varied program of numerous handicraft projects for all age groups will be offered at each playground, Voss said. There will be creative and raffia, plaster of paris, tile, gravel, wood, clay, crayons, paper mache, and other media during various weeks this summer.

The day camp will have bus pick-ups at each playground for participating youngsters between eight and 13 on a one-day outdoor living experience which will feature nature hikes, cooking, games, nature crafts, and water safety. Children may apply for the day camp at their neighborhood playground.

The junior baseball program will be offered for boys up to 11 years old who are not playing in other teams this summer.

The school playgrounds to be the center of summer activities are Wayne School District: Stottmeyer, Edison, Elliott, Hamilton, Jefferson, Kettering, Lincoln, Madison, Patchen, and Willson, and Titus; Nankin Mills; Henry and Livonia; Cooper, Hayes, and Monroe elementaries.

528 Girl Scouts Take Swim Class

Girl Scouts of Redford Township recently completed their first classes in swimming and water safety.

Directed by Mrs. Earl Davis and Mrs. Ed Woods, Red Cross water-safety instructors, classes were held every Monday night at the Thurston High School pool throughout the winter.

Placed in classes according to swimming ability were 528 girls.

Of this number, 433 received Red Cross swimming certificates, and 95 received instruction on the art of self rescue in a canoe.

As a result of the enthusiastic response, it was necessary to set up three classes for beginning swimmers, two for advanced beginners, in addition to classes for junior and senior life saving.

Older girls who completed the life-saving courses were

Church Gets New Pastor

St. Theodore Catholic Church in Westland will be getting a new pastor today, Wednesday, in a change of assignments announced by Archbishop John F. Dearden of Detroit.

Assuming his new responsibilities at the four-year-old parish at 8200 Wayne Road near Ann Arbor Trail is Father Leonard Zak, who is replacing Father Jasper Sirianni.

Father Sirianni, first pastor of St. Theodore Church, is being transferred to St. Philip Neri Parish on the east side of Detroit.

The new pastor in Westland is a native of Detroit and attended Assumption and St. Andrew schools there. He graduated Holy Redeemer High School and attended Sacred Heart Minor Seminary.

He then completed his theological studies at St. Cyril and Methodius Seminary at Orchard Lake. Ordination to the priesthood was made by Edward Cardinal Mooney on June 7, 1941.

In the past 26 years, Father Zak has served as chaplain at Camp Ozanam and Juvenile Court, St. Andrew Parish, Detroit; Dearborn Veterans' Hospital; St. Frances Cabrini Parish in Allen Park; and until his new assignment, the Wayne County General Hospital at Eloise, where he has served for the last 14 years.

Privately, Father Zak is an active pilot, having earned his wings 19 years ago.

Father Sirianni, who will be 47 next Aug. 14, was raised in Detroit where he attended public schools and Holy Rosary school. He entered Sacred Heart Seminary in 1935 and studied at Mount St. Mary of the West Seminary in Norwood, Ohio in 1943. He was ordained into the

Degrees From Illinois

Two Livonia students were among the 3,567 who received degrees from the University of Illinois Saturday.

Carroll Keith Roose, 39240 Ann Arbor, was awarded a master of arts degree, while William W. Youhass, 29424 Minton, gained a degree as master of music. This was the university's centennial class, and degrees were conferred by President David D. Henry, former president of Wayne State University.

priesthood Oct. 28, 1948 and then served parishes in Detroit and Dearborn before being named the founding pastor at St. Theodore in 1963.

At that time, the parish had 750 families. During the past four years, the parish grew to 900 families. Before the new church was completed, masses were held in the Nankin Mills Junior High School.

Father Sirianni was the center of a farewell mass Monday night.

Father Zak will be formally installed in ceremonies to start at 4 p.m. Sunday in the church.

Back to common sense.

Back to a Volkswagen... the common sense car that's simply comfortable and economical.

When you consider the high cost of horsepower, power brakes, power steering, power windows, premium gasoline, anti-freeze and all the related maintenance and repair that you can expect from most of today's cars, you'll conclude that driving a Volkswagen is just plain common sense.

The price of a new Volkswagen is low, yet, it is well built and reliable. It's small and easy to park. It gets about 27 miles to the gallon of regular gas and averages 40,000 miles on original tires. You never pay for anti-freeze, radiator repairs or water hoses because a VW is air-cooled. Parts are readily available and inexpensive because Volkswagens don't change much from year to year and many are interchangeable.

Look around. You'll see that Volkswagens are really quite common... because they make a lot of sense. So, with new car price increases just around the corner, it makes even more sense to get your VW right now. Come in and see us, we've got a lot in common. We'll save one for you.

Bob Peppel, Artist: His Life Was a Stage

He was 23 years old at the time of his death.

The spirit and talent of Bob Peppel that had budded during his years at Port Hope high school and blossomed in his later years at Michigan State University was suddenly stilled, or so it seemed.

Scores who attend his fu-

neral seemed numbed by the fact that so promising a talent would be called away before he had attained the full limit of his potential.

Not long after Bob's death, a memorial fund was established at Michigan State in his name. The fund was set up primarily to aid students in music and allied departments who might need money to remain in school.

The tribute seemed fitting in that Bob, himself, had worked his way through college.

Although he was working on his masters degree and teaching voice at MSU at the time of his death, Bob had agreed to return to Caseville during the summer months to direct musical productions connected with the Caseville Summer Enrichment Program.

He had been associated with the Caseville program for the previous four years.

Bob wrote and directed two musicals. The Bashful Prince, which he wrote while in high school, was performed at Bangor Township Summer Enrichment Program and at the Port Hope school. His second show, The Village of Ecaep, was presented at the Caseville Summer Enrichment Program. Bob also composed many other songs, one of which, Carnival in Town, has been adopted as the theme song for the Water Carnival at Michigan State University.

Bob was active in 4-H work and his first performances were in 4-H Share-the-Fun Festivals. He directed a 4-H Huron County Chorus for two years and judged 4-H talent shows throughout the state. Last summer, at the Michigan 4-H Club Week, Bob directed a choir which performed on television.

Bob taught at Ubyly High School for a short period and did his student teaching in Livonia in the fall of 1965.

While pursuing an academic major in music education, which requires a full academic and performance schedule, he also sang in the University Chorus and roles in the MSU Workshop productions of "Gallantry," "The Proposal," and "Trial by Jury."

He also performed in the MSU Performing Arts Company production of "Marriage of Figaro." He played the lead, "Tony," in West Side Story at MSU last spring.

His performance in this role was critically acclaimed, his voice being termed "strong and vibrant" and his vocal expression "the high point of the performance."

Bob spent two years writing The Village Ecaep which a group of youngsters under his direction staged last summer. The play depicts a mythical village where inhabitants live free to pursue their individual successes provided they do not conflict with the freedom of their neighbors. The striking contrast to modern history was beautifully conveyed by the young players under Bob's direction.

The Village of Ecaep will again be performed at Caseville, June 30 to July 1, as a tribute to its creator. Most of the original cast will participate in the performance.

U-M Study Accuses Textbooks of Presenting Unreal America

ANN ARBOR — Elementary and high school textbooks present an unrealistic picture of American society and government and do not even discuss many social problems that exist today.

This is one of the findings reported in a new book, "Social Studies in the United States: A Critical Appraisal," co-edited by Byron G. Massialas, professor of education at The University of Michigan.

The book is the result of a two-year study directed by Prof. Massialas and Prof. C. Benjamin Cox of the University of Illinois.

In the study, they sought "to assess critically the quality and content of elementary, junior high, and senior high school social studies instruction in the United States today."

Much of the study was devoted to a critical review of available textbooks and materials. Four of the 14 professors on the investigation team, who contributed chapters to the appraisal, are U-M faculty members: Prof. Mark Chesser of the department of sociology, Prof. Kent Jennings of the department of political science, Prof. Emily Girault of the school of education, and Prof. Massialas.

The authors recommend a major reorganization of the social studies curriculum of public schools to include the study of current social issues and to encourage students to order their own learning and apply the methods of disciplined inquiry to the resolution of human problems and concerns.

A radical departure from a single textbook to a multimedia approach is also recommended. Books and materials in the future should be based on contemporary research, should give a real picture of American society and the world, and should involve the student in the discovery of ideas and relationships in his environment, according to the authors. They add that schools of education should bolster their teacher education programs to prepare instructors for their new role of participation in the critical analysis of social problems of our time.

AT FRANKLIN HIGH School, 551 young men and women completed 12 years of public school attendance and were given diplomas. On hand to pass out the credentials were board members Erwin Brown, Lennie Brashear, William Craft, and Mrs.

Geraldine Joyner, whose son, Richard William Joyner, was among the graduates. The ceremony was held in the gymnasium. Overflow crowds watched the affair in the cafeterias and adjacent rooms through closed circuit television.

Westland and Garden City

By Harriet Gagnon
261-0338

Through the combined efforts of the Westland and Livonia Departments of Parks and Recreation, "Spectrum 67" was presented at the Ford Auditorium Sunday. This was one of the finest productions of the "Wizard of Oz" ever attempted.

Production, choreography and direction was under Judy Spiewak. Instructors were Jinnie Nicotera, Phyllis Haskell, Carol Cygan, Mary Frizzell, Theresa Misner, and Miss Spiewak.

Assistant Instructors were Michelle Adams and Debbie Urban.

Costumes were by Ruth Harris and Judy Spiewak. Recreation Superintendent John DuFour of Livonia and Jack Voss of Westland were congratulated on securing the talents of Judy Spiewak for this child development program through the departments of Parks and Recreation.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Meixner of Westland recently returning from a winter in Boynton Beach and Key West, Fla. took off for

Dr. O'Leary Is Honored

The Garden City Chamber of Commerce presented retiring school Superintendent Dr. Edwin J. O'Leary with a watch at its recent membership meeting.

Ted Hooten, Chairman president, made the presentation to O'Leary, who has headed the Garden City school system for 15 years. He will teach school administration and school finance at St. Louis University in Missouri.

Dr. O'Leary told the members present that "wherever there is good will and good intent, people will get along. There is great reward in services and I'll miss all my friends in Garden City."

Two Teachers Go To Wayne

Two teachers from Livonia have been chosen to participate in an NDEA Summer Institute in Civics being held at Wayne State University.

They are David M. Nolte, of 39325 Donald, and George G. Harrison, of 14531 Yale. The Institute program will include discussion of de facto school segregation, youth, and investigation of Detroit's decision-making process, as well as a study of curriculum materials and teaching methods.

Nolte and Harrison are among 27 teachers from eight school districts in the Detroit Metropolitan area to attend the Institute directed by Dr. Theodore B. Fleming, Jr., associate professor of political science.

Plans Big Party

Westland City Council President Vigil Gagnon will officially open his campaign for the nomination of mayor in the Sept. 12 primary election with a kick-off party Saturday night in the Army-Navy Union Hall, Steve Orris III Garrison, at 2345 Venoy Road.

Tickets and information about the event, to start at 8 p.m. can be obtained by calling 729-131, PA 2-9661, or 261-0338.

THE SCARECROW AND THE LION from "Spectrum 67" presented by the parks and recreation departments of Westland and Livonia Sunday were played by Nancy Follebout and Keith Harrison, respectively, in the musical version of "The Wizard of Oz."

Council Slows Summer Pace

Livonia's City Council will trim back its summer schedule to two meetings in July after cancelling this week's session Monday night.

Council President Peter A. Ventura said the council seldom meets weekly during the summer. "We're pretty well caught up with our work," he said. "There's nothing of an emergency nature pending." Councilmen will hold formal meetings on July 10 and July 17.

Use Fort Wayne For Youth, Port Purposes

A Westland man's two-pronged proposal for a port and juvenile facility at the site of the former Fort Wayne army barracks will be given support by two important Wayne County and state officials on a radio program to be broadcast at 11 a.m. Sunday.

The man, Gerald Harris of 33540 W. Warren, recommended that the Fort Wayne facility be used both as a rehabilitation-training-and-living area for Wayne County youths brought before the juvenile court and as a "free trade" zone which would allow free warehousing for foreign shippers who would not have to pay American customs fees until their goods on ship are actually sold.

His comments were given support in the broadcast taped Monday afternoon by Melvin Ravitz, Detroit Common Councilman and Chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, and Robert Scott, deputy director of the Michigan Department of Corrections.

The program will be heard Sunday morning on radio station WJBK.

Harris, who stressed that he was speaking as a private citizen, is public affairs chairman for the Detroit Trade Center and President of the Westland Industrial and Commercial Development Corp.

Harris also pointed out that in an article published earlier this year, he publicly proposed the use of the former Army barracks in the Jefferson-Livernois area to be used as a youth training center and free trade zone.

The trade zone, Harris said during the broadcast, would be important in the economic conditions of the county and western part of Michigan and will help relieve the juvenile home problem in the county.

The Fort Wayne site, which also contains a 750,000 square foot military museum, has property facing the Detroit River and 48 residential buildings, in addition to a hospital recreation building, cafeteria, theater, baseball field, guard house, sentry post, excellent parking, room for expansion and already-existing fences around the 55-acre site.

Harris urged that the affected city, county, and state agencies have representatives study the feasibility of using the Fort Wayne property for a youth facility and trade zone.

All the agencies involved should be doing something to implement the idea and not just talk about it, Harris said.

On the port use of the facility, Harris pointed out that there is now on the site a warehouse 224,000 square feet; and several other buildings totalling 194,000 square feet.

The city of Detroit has expressed the hope of using the buildings at Fort Wayne for public housing purposes to relocate families displaced by new freeways in that city.

Safety Tip

LANSING—Pedestrians are reminded to cross the street only at crosswalks and with only the walk light on busy streets.

The State Highway Commission warns that attempting to save a few minutes by crossing in the middle of a congested street may cost you your life.

This Driver Really Drags; Fined $25

You've heard of drivers being fined for "dragging."

Here's one who did it literally. Charles E. Sanney, of 20925 Randall, Farmington, was fined $25 for dragging metal on the highway surface.

Livonia Municipal Judge James R. McCann found Sanney guilty after police reported that he towed a wrecked auto west on Schoolcraft from Stark to Newburgh, having no rear tire on one wheel and dragging the rear axle brake shoes along blacktop, gouging same.

Prep Stars Shine in Connie Mack Play

The change in uniforms was swift. But the rivalries carried on.

It was only a week or so before that area high school baseball players battled against each other for "the glory of their schools."

Now with classes dismissed for the summer, the same players turned to contesting in the Greater Livonia Connie Mack League and for the most part it was just a continuation of high school play although the teams had new sponsors, different uniforms and different managers and coaches.

The first week of action produced some interesting developments. Among them:

1—A head-on pitching duel between Dan Camp and Joe Huber, both named on the annual All-Observer baseball team. Camp, hurling for the Plymouth Optimists after starring for Plymouth High in its drive to a co-title in the Suburban Six League, wound up in a 1-1 stand-off with Huber and his Garden City East mates, who has reigned as Mid-Wayne League prep champs.

2—Earl Morrall, comprised of the Redford Union high team which tied Plymouth for the Suburban Six League flag and placed second to Bentley in the Les Anders Memorial tournament, got off to a flying start with three straight victories.

3—The Spartans, a team loaded with players from Stevenson high, started in high gear in Connie Mack play by drilling the Giants (from Franklin High), 8-1.

4—Rick Mack of the Livonia Elks turned in the week's pitching gem by blanking Bentley, 1-0, on one hit in a game which went one extra inning before being decided.

The duel between Camp and Huber was a thriller all the way before darkness forced an end to the proceedings without a winner. The teams will make up the game next Saturday.

Camp gave up three hits, while Huber, a pitcher-outfielder, was tagged for five safeties. Mike Lockwood singled in John Gillis with the lone Plymouth run while a two-out hit by Shanks in the seventh, following an error, brought Garden City even.

The Optimists then received five-hit pitching from Jack Robertson to decision Northville, 3-1.

Dave Prochazka, named as the centerfielder on the All-Observer team, sparked offensively for the victors. He walked in the second inning to score the Optimists' first run.

In the third Prochazka singled across Mike Watson. Then in the fifth, Prochazka doubled and rolled around on a triple by John Bida.

Paul Tonnemacher, whose sparkling pitching was a high note throughout the high school season at Stevenson, whiffed 14 batters and allowed four hits in hurling the Livonia Spartans to an 8-1 victory over the Giants.

Tonnemacher also helped to break the game open with a two-run single in the fifth when the Spartans counted five times. Chuck Sobczak, Jerry Dettler, Phil Kamp and Rick Horstman each belted a pair of hits for the winners.

The victory for the Spartans followed on the heels of the team's 3-0 loss at the hands of the Earl Morrall forces who in succession blanked Northville, 5-0, and then the Spartans, 3-0, before beating Garden City East, 8-1.

Dale Bjerke pitched two of the Morrall victories. He allowed two hits against Northville and only one in the Garden City encounter. He picked up five and 10 strikeouts in the two outings.

Bill Fahey and Kevin Fox each collected a pair of hits for the Morrall team against Northville. Each also scored two runs.

Dave Bourassa flipped a one-hitter for Morrall in downing the Spartans. A single by Jerry Dettler spoiled Bourassa's bid for a no-hitter. But he struck out 10 and walked two.

Redford Nine Roaring In Class 'A' League

It's Redford Township last week and upped their way out ahead of the pack in the Western Wayne County Class A sandlot baseball league.

The Townshipers swept to three straight victories last week and upped their season's record to 6-1. Livonia stands in second spot in the circuit at 3-2.

Two teams from Dearborn and one each from Inkster and Wayne round out the circuit.

The pitching of Rick Fisher has been the dominant factor in the Township success story this season.

He has a 5-0 record, winning twice in a four-day period over the past weekend when he clipped King Boring, 9-5, and then decimated Livonia, 4-2.

The Townshipers rallied from a 3-2 deficit with two runs in the sixth inning to best Livonia. After a triple by Fraimer and three singles had put Livonia on top, 2-1, Keith Spicer singled and Bob Green walked for Redford.

They advanced a base on an infield out and scored when Ernie Bourassa singled. Then in the seventh, three walks and a fly tightened the Redford margin of victory.

Fisher, a former Redford Union star and more recently a standout at Port Huron Community College, allowed five hits and fanned eight in beating the Livonians.

Keith Spicer, an ex-Thurston star who has powdered the ball for the University of Michigan the last two seasons and was graduated last month, socked a three-run homer to pave the way for Redford's romp against King Boring.

Robby Masson, a .400 hitter during the college season at Alma, slapped out two hits along with Bill Burgan to simplify the job for Fisher.

Why Would Volkswagen want to shatter a wine glass in Westland?

Well, Curuso used to do it with his voice. So why not us? Actually, our ultra-sonic wine glass breaker is just part of a science demonstration we're conducting to explain why a VW is made as it is and runs as it does. (For instance, the principle of twisting a torsion bar—and storing energy—is used in Volkswagen's suspension system.) We'll also show how heat travels at different speeds through different metals by holding a thermo-conductivity race between an iron bar and one made of a magnesium-aluminum alloy. (If you decide to bet a friend on the outcome, remember that the alloy is used in making VW's lightweight engine.) You'll find these demonstrations, and others, in a special show-wagon, mounted on a Volkswagen pick-up. Afterward, you can see how these scientific principles apply by taking a test ride of any VW model you'd like to try. Our bus-shaped station wagon, Italian sport-styled Karmann Ghia. The new fastback or squareback model. Or even our homely beetle-shaped sedan. Who knows? An after-the-show test ride might change your whole attitude toward driving. Duration of each demonstration is about 15 to 20 minutes, a bit shorter than the typical classroom lab session. Some of our equipment, however, may seem a bit more unorthodox than that used in most labs. And there's one more thing that might make this the best science class you ever attended. No final exam.

Dearborn Heights Duo Tops Mixed Doubles

Fires 1419 to Lead Pin Tourney

Bowlers in the fifth annual Merri-Bowl Lanes-Observer Newspapers mixed doubles tournament have something to shoot at in the remaining two nights of firing—the tourney ends Sunday night.

And there's a fat 1,419 count for duos to shoot at during the final rounds on Saturday and Sunday.

It came a week ago when the team of Alda Quiton and Richard Quiton, of 5968 Waverly, Dearborn Heights fired the biggest count in the tourney history. They not only have the lead but they are way in front of their nearest competitors.

Despite the huge score, Tournament Director Mac Goldman is looking forward to the biggest turnout of the 1967 event as bowlers from all sections of the state and northern Ohio try to better the top score.

Mrs. Quiton, who packs a 155 average, did her bit in the fat count with 206 in the opener, 152 in the second and 183 in the finale for a 541 total.

RU Star Hurt; Lost For Season

The sandlot baseball season is over sooner than expected for Leland Bjerke of Redford Township's Connie Mack and Free Press League teams.

The first baseman on the Observer newspapers' All-star prep team suffered a fractured collarbone during a collision in a game last Friday.

"There's no chance he can return to action this summer," said coach Bob Atkins, who handled Bjerke at Redford Union.

Bjerke was a three-sport star at RU, shining in football, basketball and baseball. He has received a basketball scholarship from Eastern Michigan University where he will enroll in the fall.

Bjerke was voted the outstanding prep basketball player in the area last season.

3 Sports Star Ron Lowe Is Best of Rocks

Ron Lowe, a co-captain in football, basketball and track, has been named the outstanding senior athlete at Plymouth High School.

Lowe received his award at a school assembly and was honored with other senior athletes at a banquet staged by the Kiwanis Club in Plymouth.

Michigan State's Al Dorow was the featured speaker.

But her partner hit the hottest streak of the year as he compiled scores of 232, 267 and 244 for a 743 series, highest ever in the tournament.

His middle game was marked with nine strikes. More than that he ended the opener with five in a row and started the second with four more for nine straight.

All told he had a total of 26 strikes in the three games, and only two misses. He had an error in his opening frame and again in the fourth frame of the third game—other than it was either a strike or a spare.

His big count gave the team an actual total of 1284 and a 135 pin handicap boosted the score to the 1,419.

For a long time the tournament was marked by a lack of 1,300 scores and then the bottom fell out with five over the weekend.

These included: Louise

Hoenecke and James Zito, of Detroit, with 1,319; Laura and Demetro Koss, of Detroit, 1,315; D. Jean Wilder, and Marion Wilder, of 36644

Grandon, Livonia, 1,314; Crystal and Elmer Brozowski, of Dryden, 1,314; and Lois and Anthony Ebach, and Warren, 1,306.

19 Whiffed On Sandlots

Talk about your pitching masterpieces!

Bill Ray, a product of Belleville high who may be signed any hour by the Baltimore Orioles, turned in one for the books in pitching Dependable Hardchrome of Redford to a 6-2 win over Garden City Sporting Goods in the Greater Livonia-Detroit Free Press League.

Ray fanned 19 batters in the game. He also threw out one man, thus personally figuring in 20 of the 21 putouts Dependable fashioned in the game.

He lost his chance for a shutout when Carl Stevens slapped a triple with two on—both on walks.

Observing SPORTS

By George Maskin

Few among us—especially older folks—don't get the urge of working at something other than what we do.

The grass always tends to look greener across the street.

In our case, we always have had the travel bug. In our younger days we'd envy the train engineer or conductor. It was exciting to see the train which was heading out of the Michigan Central depot for New York or Chicago.

It really was a thrill to see a train headed for California or Florida whiz past.

Nowadays, we look with starry eyes at airplane pilots and stewardesses, particularly those who are flying the long hauls to the west coast, Florida, England or maybe someplace else across an ocean.

Travel agents and tour directors also cause a certain flurry within us.

Until a few days ago, locales like the Top of the Mart, the Golden Gate Bridge, Alcatraz, the cable cars and even windy Candlestick Park were just spots around San Francisco, Calif., which we either had heard about or read about.

Then within a span of 4 1/2 hours, we discovered that all truly exist.

There we were, hanging on a Cable car with the motor-man clanging away with a sound never before heard by our ears.

You found yourself standing at Fisherman's Wharf and looking across the bay at the most famed prison the U. S. ever operated. There was the rock—Alcatraz.

But it's no longer a penal institution. They say the cells are cracking up . . . that the cost of repairing the Rock would be too much.

So you look and say to yourself: "Gee, it's not that far out in the water that a guy couldn't swim ashore."

No one ever did, however.

Taking nothing away from the Greater Detroit area, you have to admit that San Francisco ranks as one of the beauty cities of our country.

There are very few level streets. You're either going up or down.

It's breath-taking to look down at the city from one of the Twin Peaks, or from the top of the Fairmount Hotel, or the tower a mile or so away.

A trip across the Golden Gate Bridge and a glance back at San Francisco cause more fancy adjectives. Our good friend, George E. Van of sailing fame, would have flipped had he been able to see the panorama of white-sheeted craft as they floated around out on the Bay. You never before have seen anything like the Muirwoods and you must admit you never have been a nature lover.

The Japanese Gardens, located within the shadow of Kezar Stadium where the Detroit Lions have staged many a stirring struggle over the years, produces more "ohs and ahs."

All of this and more are just part of what one can crowd into a few-day trip, thanks to the modern jet airplanes.

You can look from your plane window and spot the Yellowstone National Park, the Great Salt Lake and the Bonneville salt flats — the latter the area which most of the automobile speed records have been set.

There are the still snow-capped Rocky Mountains, the Grand Canyon, Lake Mead and Boulder Dam. And then there's the greatest gay white way of all — Las Vegas.

Where else but in 'Vegas can you be enjoying a cup of coffee and sitting within ten feet are such celebrities as George Burns, Jack E. Leonard and Shecky Green?

Where else all in a succession of evenings can you be entertained by Danny Kaye, Red Skelton, Dinah Shore and Louis Prima?

Where else does money have so little value?

Where else do you enter a room confident that you suddenly will strike riches, but within minutes you have taken a beating where it hurts the most — in your pocket-book?

stars, collected two hits in the game, scored one run and stole three bases.

The bats of Dale Bjerke, Ferguson, Fox, Glen Buckingham, and Leland Bjerke rang a merry tune for Morral in the romp over Garden City East. Dale Bjerke eased his own cause with three hits and two runs. Ferguson slapped out two doubles and scored twice.

Fox, Lee Bjerke and Buckingham each added a pair of safeties.

A single by Larry Draughn in the eighth inning after Mike Lahto had walked netted the Elks the run required to best the Bentley team, 1-0, as Mack turned in his one-hitter.

Bob Cascaden's single was the lone hit for Bentley.

McFarlane King, comprised of Garden City West high players, jumped off to a fast start by clubbing the Plymouth Elks, 13-1.

Bob Chidester fired a four-hitter for the victors and in addition led the team at bat with two hits in three attempts.

Larry Pierce knocked in three runs and Denny Peters two more for McFarlane King.

South Redford Big Boy bounced off to a good start by shutting out Hawthorne, 4-0. Bob Durand coasted to the verdict and received strong hitting support from Bob Holmes and Reg Baringer.

All three played during the spring at Thurston High.

with a 4-1 triumph over the Wayne Red Sox and a 4-2 decision over the Livonia Cardinal Decorating to up its record to 4-0.

Deno Syrios went the route against the Red Sox and was staked to two runs in the fourth when Bill Holmes singled, Bob Holmes walked and Ray and Mike Tyrner singled. Hits by Rod Ferguson and Bill Holmes added another run in the fifth.

Chuck Viane, former North Farmington high star and a Michigan State student, out-dueling Bill McAlpine and Larry Ruszaz, who shared the pitching for Cardinal Decorating.

Viane and Carl Misch delivered hits to get Dependable an early lead in the second. Then in the sixth, Misch was hit by a pitch. Bill Fahey singled, Glen Buckingham delivered a perfect squeeze bunt and Reg Baringer slugged a two-run single.

Gary Birkett's triple knocked in the first run for Cardinal while Inland drove over Ed Ryan with the second marker.

Garden City Sporting Goods also came up with a twin victory on Sunday, nipping Cardinal, 7-6, and then gaining a 4-3 decision over Dearborn Heights.

Paul Kightlinger started for Garden City against Cardinal, but Carl Stevens was the winner when Al Kamienicke drilled over the winning run in the eighth inning after loser Chris Wendrick had loaded the bases on walks.

Garden City had rallied to tie the game in the sixth when Joe Huber drove in two runs with a single.

Mike Donnelly hurled the route against Dearborn Heights with Garden City scoring all its runs in the fourth inning.

Bob Gamache singled. So did Kamienicke and Greg Pike. Donnelly then unloaded a double. A sacrifice by Rick Reed and a passed ball finished the scoring.

Dad's Club and the Red Sox play Friday at Franklin while Garden City goes against Dependable at Garden City Park starting at 6 p.m.

Set Code of Ethics For Wedding Pictures

The Professional Photographers of America has developed a Code of Ethics for Wedding Photography to assure brides, their families and the clergy of the highest professional standards in photography to help preserve the dignity of the wedding ceremony.

John Gaffield Studio in Plymouth has subscribed to the Code of Ethics which has been endorsed by the National Council of the Churches of Christ, the Family Life Bureau of the National Catholic Welfare Conference and the Association of Boards of Rabbis.

Subscribing photographers, members of the Professional Photographers of America, certify they will contact clergymen to determine accepted procedures for taking photographs before, during and after the wedding ceremony and will work in a dignified, professional and unobtrusive manner.

Gaffield said the Code of Ethics was written by the Professional Photographers to reassure clergymen and members of the wedding party.

"When it reached the point brides had no way of knowing whether they were engaging a professional wedding photographer or an amateur until it was too late, the members of the PP of A decided to do something constructive about it," he said.

Because many brides-to-be and their families don't know what to expect from a wedding photographer, Gaffield passed along these suggestions:

Don't rely on an amateur to photograph your wedding, even if he's your best friend or your uncle. It's unfair to ask him to be skilled enough to do a good job in what is one of the most demanding photographic specialties.

Consider hiring a professional photographer who is a member of the PP of A and a subscriber to the Code of Ethics for Wedding Photography.

Ask prices before you hire a photographer, but don't select one on price alone. Wedding photographs are one of the smallest wedding costs, yet they last for the rest of your life.

Brides-to-be should have the bridal portrait made as soon as the wedding gown is ready. Get a good night's sleep before the portrait is made. The camera doesn't hide signs of fatigue.

Discuss the wedding candid in detail with your photographer before the day of the ceremony so he knows exactly what you want. Be sure to ask your photographer to talk with your clergyman before the ceremony so he will know the accepted procedures.

Request your friends and relatives not to take photographs during the ceremony itself.

Annual Poinsettia Grown From Seed

Unlike the Christmas poinsettia that is grown as a house plant, the annual poinsettia may be grown outdoors.

Also called Mexican fire plant, this annual grows readily from seeds. It forms 2-foot-high plants, the upper leaves of which are blotched with bright red.

Annual poinsettia is a member of the euphorbia group so, while the foliage may be cut for use indoors, the stem ends must be burned or dipped in boiling water immediately after cutting to stop the flow of milky juice characteristic of this group.

This juice may cause injury to eyes or mouth so be careful to avoid trouble.

Future Kitchen Marvel Laden

Appliance manufacturers predict some startling features for kitchens of the future.

Among them are: ovens that disappear into the countertop when not in use; a dishwasher that polishes silver; an automatic fruit and vegetable peeler attached to the waste disposal; concealed sink faucets, and a refrigerator compartmentalized into drawers for handier storage.

Moelke To Head Realty Group

Mayor Harvey W. Moelke has been elected President of the Real Estate Alumni of Michigan for a term of one year ending June 30, 1968.

He has been a member of RAM for seven years and last year served as Vice President. The installation will take place during the annual meeting on Thursday, June 22 at the University of Michigan.

Offer Tips On Care of Oak Floors

How do you get rid of alcohol spots on an oak floor? Rub the spots with a cloth barely dampened in ammonia, or with a cloth treated with liquid or paste wax, silver polish or boiled linseed oil.

How about heel and caster marks? Rub vigorously with fine steel wool dipped in floor cleaner, then wipe dry. And grease or oil stains? The simplest treatment is to rub on kitchen soap.

These and other tips on removing stains and spots from oak floors are offered in a free booklet, "How to Keep Oak Floors Beautiful," published by the National Oak Flooring Manufacturers' Association.

A booklet of broader scope, "Oak Floors for Your Home," also is available without charge. It tells of the various styles, grades and sizes of oak flooring and offers recommendations for installation, finishing and care.

For a free copy of either booklet write the Oak Flooring Information Service, 75 E. Wacker Dr., Chicago, Ill.

'Blah' Flush Fronts Turn Elegant

If your kitchen cabinets have flush fronts and you'd like something with a bit more detail, don't despair. You can add the detail yourself for very little cost.

To get the look of traditional raised panel cabinet fronts, just add a bit of picture frame molding to outline a rectangle in the center of each door and drawer face.

The moldings cost just pennies. Buy them at a lumber yard in long lengths, then cut them to the lengths needed. Corners should be mitered for the best effect.

The moldings are attached to the cabinet fronts with white woodworking glue and tiny finishing nails. It's best to stain or paint them before gluing.

Builders' Association Tours Apartments

The new Valley View House apartments in the city of Farmington was the scene of an inspection and tour, Tuesday morning, by more than 100 members of the Builders' Association of Metropolitan Detroit.

The apartment complex is considered by the association as being most unique in setting and construction. Set in the river-like setting of the Rouge River valley on Grand River Ave., the apartments are built on 20 foot stilts of concrete.

The ground floor area is used for free tenant parking. The parking area is kept lit all night by automatic timing devices.

Built by Max Dobrowsky and Albert Rosenblum, the first sections are completed and ready for immediate occupancy.

One and 2-bedroom units are available. The rents range from $175 to $220 monthly.

All units include private balconies, refrigerator-freezers, automatic oven ranges, disposals, Formica countertops and are fully carpeted. For summer convenience all the apartments are air conditioned and there is a swimming pool.

Plants Benefit If Bed Is Raised

A raised bed is the perfect way to show off low-growing plant materials, especially if it can be located adjoining a patio where it becomes a natural showcase for the outdoor living area.

Pressure-treated timbers or masonry can be used to contain the raised bed. In either case, the retaining wall will look best if a bench is built along the wall's length to break its height.

The bench is easily built using Douglas fir 2x4s for the seat. They can be mounted on angle irons bolted into the retaining wall.

Get Degrees

Three students from the area covered by the Observer Newspapers were among 446 candidates for degrees at Michigan Technological University's 80th June commencement in Houghton.

Carl G. Hagberg of Caracas, Venezuela, delivered the commencement address and received an honorary Doctor of Engineering degree. He is a graduate of Michigan Tech now serving the U.S. Steel Corp. as president of its Orinoco Mining Co. in Caracas.

Area students who received degrees are:

John E. Hukoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hukoff, 18646 Indian, Redford Township, B.S. in forestry; Dave V. Buszka, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Buszka, 36029 Sherwood, Livonia, B.S. in business administration; and Ronald Franz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl-O. Franz, 4514 Chamberlain, Wayne, B.S. in business administration.

Blanket of Green Beautifies a Home

Only when a lawn of fine-textured grasses blends plantings with surroundings, does a home become truly beautified.

Fortunately, an esthetic landscape is neither expensive nor difficult to gain, what with excellent seed and convenient lawn products.

Lawn fescues are attractive but rugged even on under-fertilized, dry soils and in shady spots.

Top bends usually combine fescues with bluegrass to provide an all-purpose turf that is best mowed fairly tall.

Kentucky bluegrasses form an especially sturdy sod that is rich green when fertilized, and wear-resistant. Bent grasses are luxurious, need monthly feeding, regular mowing and watering.

Both colonial forms such as Highland and creepers such as Pennecross are available from seed.

Try Shades For Windows

Here's an eye-filling treatment for a double-hung window attractively framed with traditional beaded window casing.

Have window shades made of a brightly colored, patterned fabric. Specify reverse-roll shades to fit inside the window casing.

Then paint the casing, window sash and grill white, but repeat the shade's main color for the beaded section of the casing.

Backing these star performers are many beautification aids. Paramount is lawn fertilizer, in many lightweight formulations which cover 5,000 square feet from a single sack that even a child can lift.

High nitrogen analyses such as 30-5-8 and 24-9-5—the percentages of nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium are commonplace.

These powerful plant foods are frequently bolstered with secondary elements and micronutrients such as sulfur, calcium, magnesium and iron.

They apply effortlessly with a good lawn spreader just set for the rate recommended on the bag and pour into the hopper.

Weed control is made equally easy. Most fertilizer lines include a weed-and-feed product that sets back the weed competition as it stimulates the grass.

Dandelions, plantains, chick-weeds and so on succumb readily to 2, 4-D, silvex and dicamba. A half dozen effective chemicals prevent crabgrass, sometimes also combined with fertilizer.

Modern lawn mowers adjust cutting height easily, have the capacity to mow quickly. Riding mowers are the rage, luxurious models exhibiting several speeds forward (and reverse) and a control "stick" that lets you slow for thick grass without shifting.

Even watering is becoming automated; an inexpensive plastic system can be laid underground which operates automatically from a time clock.

Watering should be frequent for bentgrass, but Kentucky bluegrasses and fine fescues can await signs of stringency.

There are other aids, too—insecticides harmless to pets and people, fungicides to check disease summer and winter, edging chemicals, soil fumigants, thatch removers, and so on.

But if you do nothing more than select top quality grass, fertilize and mow it considerably, a presentable lawn will be yours to enhance flowers, shrubs and shade trees as nothing else can.

WHEN A BRIDE is toted across the threshold, she considers it romantic. But according to tradition, her husband is simply carting her home as property. Once there, he can keep her from straying by burying a lock of her hair under the doorstep. And the happy couple can ward off evil with a cross outlined on a six-panel wood door.

Romantic Beliefs Revolved Around Wood Panel Doors

The ordinary front door—through which we so heedlessly pass—was, in olden cultures, the basis of countless superstitions about life, death, love and religion.

The six-panel door, for example, goes back to early Christian times when the cross was considered the most effective protection against evil. By positioning two small panels over two larger ones, the center stile and rails of the door formed a vertical cross which was supposed to keep bad spirits from entering the house. As a further safeguard, the doors were often hung with hinges shaped like "H" and "L" for Holy Lord, or were painted red to scare away witches.

Although their religious significance has faded, wood panel doors are still popular, especially in Colonial decor. But unlike the hand-crafted doors of olden times, modern panel doors of ponderosa pine are precision-made in factories, come in stock sizes, and are readily available at local lumber dealers.

Other areas around which door superstitions revolved were love and marriage. It was believed that you could win a lady's love by burying a lock of her hair under your doorstep. What the lady's reaction might be to your snipping a hole in her coiffeur was apparently overlooked.

After capturing your prize, you could keep her from straying by slipping another lock of hair beneath the doorstep. This worked equally well with dogs and cats who would stay close to home if hairs plucked from their tails were buried near the door.

Since doors were so thoroughly imbued with supernatural meaning, they were designed, made, hung and treated with care. They were made individually by skilled carpenters and decorated with religious symbols to invoke the blessing of household gods. Today many of these decorative designs are reproduced in stock panel doors of ponderosa pine.

Many door superstitions led to traditions that are still honored today.

For example, a tradition-minded (and muscular) husband will probably carry his new bride across the threshold of their first home. She may think it's romantic, but it really symbolizes her entrance into a new life in which she will be dependent upon her husband. The custom stems from Asia where a man kidnapped the lady of his choice and literally carried her into his house as property.

Rituals regarding doors also led to taboos against their careless use. Under no circumstances were trades to be made through a doorway, nor was anyone allowed to sit or linger there.

It's Beautiful Home, But That Garage

Beautiful Home, But Did You See Garage?

"What a beautiful house and yard. They must be discriminating people."

"Well, maybe so, but did you see the inside of their garage? It's a mess of junk, toys and tools scattered all over."

This typical comment shows that American people do take notice of appearance and also that many home owners are careless about the inside look of their garages, comments John Concord, a home improvement consultant.

"With the garage door standing open all day, the interior appearance can add to the general attractiveness of a home or it can be like a sore thumb and be the one thing that's remembered," he comments.

This common problem can be overcome with small cost and effort. Here's the formula suggested by the home improvement consultant:

1—Clean out the garage, disposing of the junk and deciding what should remain.

2—Line the exposed studs (themselves an eyesore) with patterned peg-board, which is prefabricated in an attractive monk's cloth pattern that can be wiped clean with a damp cloth. This quarter-inch-thick hardboard has the strength to hold anything two men can lift into place, including power mower, lawn roller and heavy cans of paint.

3—Organize the walls by installing peg board hanging fixtures on which to store garden tools and equipment, out-of-season outdoor toys, sports equipment and a variety of other objects that used to hang on nails or lie on the floor as a safety hazard.

"The combination of a good looking, prefabricated perforated paneling with a large variety of hanging fixtures provides organized storage within easy reach, but best of all, it spruces up the inside of a garage and gives home owners another reason to be proud of their home," Concord declares.

The wood-frame house is highly tornado-resistant and safer for occupants than non-wood types, reports the U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development.

State Fair Premium Book Ready

The Michigan State Fair is offering a record $142,000 in agriculture and livestock premiums for the 1967 event August 25 through September 4 (Labor Day).

This was announced by Cass J. Wasung, acting general manager, who said more than 20,000 entries are expected. Deadline is Friday, August 4, and early submission of entries is urged.

The premium book—the handbook of information for all exhibitors—again will be issued in three sections: agriculture and livestock, horse shows, and community arts.

Several new classes have been added to the agriculture division including premiums for the largest pig; the sow having the first pig following the opening of the fair; display of haylage depicting its use in Michigan agriculture; display depicting the contribution of sugar beets to Michigan's agricultural industry; wheelbarrow load of farm produce which could include such items as honey and flowers as well as fruits and vegetables; and a commercial muskmelon display.

Robert McLachlan, agriculture exhibits director, said new exhibitors should indicate which section of the premium book is desired.

Requests for books and entry forms should be sent to the Michigan State Fair, Detroit, 48203. Premium books are automatically sent to former exhibitors.

Spice Your Apartment With Potted Plants

Add decorative beauty to your home or apartment and increase your family's enjoyment of everyday living by making generous use of potted plants.

A built-in planter, for instance, will supply a border of beauty at a large picture window, divide a living and dining area, or partition an area for an entrance hall.

By filling such planters with plants left in their clay pots, you can use plants with different watering needs, change or replace plants as you wish, and add a seasonal flowering plant for a colorful accent.

Essentially the same effect may be created without a built-in planter by using a low table or cart that will accommodate an array of green plants.

Open-shelved room dividers may easily be converted into indoor gardens by adding a collection of interesting plants that can be changed at will.

Portable plants also are very popular. They range from large exotic plants placed on the floor as dramatic room accessories, to the little enchanting dish gardens planted in soil or water and used to decorate the top of a piece of furniture.

Large potted plants may be placed effectively, for instance, by the side of stairways. The small dish gardens, for example, may be hung from the ceilings of studies or bedrooms.

Local florist shops have a wide variety of potted house plants.

They will blend naturally into any home or apartment decorative scheme and add beauty to every room in which they are used.

Additions to the advisory council are: H. B. Cunningham, president, S. S. Kresge Co.; Roy D. Chapin, board chairman, American Motors Corp., and Raymond W. MacDonald, president, Burroughs Corp.

A total of 57 board members, assisted by the 31-man advisory council, will direct the 1967-68 operations of Junior Achievement at 26 centers in a six-county area. More than 8,000 teenagers from 200 high schools now participate in the southeastern Michigan program.

DPW News And Notes

By Supt. Ken Vogras
Plymouth DPW

Crews continued mowing at the City Hall, playgrounds, parks and at all city owned lots.

Streets were swept and intersections cleared of sand and debris that washed down with the heavy rainstorms of last week. The task of keeping Riverside Cemetery in top condition was continued with mowing and picking up wood from trees trimmed and cut down by Greenridge Nursery. Three funerals were handled.

The new Centennial Drive signs were made and placed along Main Street where they will remain until the end of the year.

Two dwellings were dye tested after complaints of water backing up in basements. Both were found to be connected to the storm sewer instead of the sanitary. The sanitary sewer between Main and Blanche was unplugged and flushed.

Work was continued on the installation of the storm sewer to the new city garage on Arthur Street. All creek tubes were cleaned.

Fire hydrants were flushed along Sheldon Road. A broken water line was repaired at Bathey's and a second one on Ross between Main and S. Harvey.

On Thursday afternoon, the LaDuke Construction Co., working on the Sheldon Road improvement program, hit the 16-inch water line coming into the city. It was repaired as quickly as possible and had no serious effect on the water pressure. It was fortunate that it was a small break and could be taken care of rapidly.

After a time, fat used for frying does not seem to brown food well, even though it has been properly strained and kept under refrigeration. What has happened to it?

Fat can be used for frying for just so long. It will not last forever. It loses its ability to brown properly after a time and is considered to be "fried out." It should be discarded.

New Building to House Church School, Nursery

A modern new structure, designed to house a church school, a state-licensed day care nursery center during the week, and a center for teen activities is being built by the Livonia Assembly of God Church at 33015 W. Seven Mile.

Ground was broken for the new building on Mother's Day, May 14. It is expected to be completed in September.

Currently both the Livonia Assembly of God church school and the Loveland Children's Nursery are housed in an old building next door to the church sanctuary. The sanctuary was built 18 months ago.

When the new structure is completed, on the other side of the sanctuary building, the old one will be torn down.

The Loveland Nursery, sponsored by the church but not oriented to any religious teaching, operates all year.

During the summer, it is licensed to accept children through six years of age for full-day group care, and applications are now being accepted for this program.

Fall applications also are being accepted, and it is expected that the session opening in September will be housed in the new facilities. During the school year, Loveland Nursery accepts children two and a half to five years of age, on a full or part time basis.

Mrs. Margaret Rogez is director of the nursery, and she may be reached at 474-0001.

The minister at Livonia Assembly of God, the Rev. James Shaffer, helped organize the church with 12 persons present, three and a half years ago.

When Livonia Assembly began a daily radio program called Prayer Time, which is broadcast live from the church's prayer room, at 3:30 p.m. on WMUZ FM 103.5. The church has grown, until today it has a Sunday School enrollment of 125.

Recently, Livonia Assembly began a daily radio program called Prayer Time, which is broadcast live from the church's prayer room, at 3:30 p.m. on WMUZ FM 103.5. The church has grown, until today it has a Sunday School enrollment of 125.

With the Sunday School attendance in the nursery school enrollment both operating at full capacity, it was inevitable that another building program be launched.

The new one-story building will be modern and first class in every aspect. Air conditioning will be installed, and carpeting shall be in every class room. Modern equipment will be employed in the class rooms, kitchen and recreational facilities. The school will be licensed to handle capacity of 90 children, compared to the previous 30.

New Pastor Joins Church In Westland

The Elmwood Church of the Nazarene 6149 Wayne Road, Westland, has a new pastor in T. C. Riddle, of 7416 Bison Road.

He will start preaching Sunday at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. A daily Vacation Bible School will start next Monday at 9 a.m. Pastor Riddle also announced, with all children invited, School Supervisor is Thelma Van Dine.

Mr. and Mrs. Riddle have five children, all college graduates with four in the ministry with the fifth, Jerry and his wife, public school teachers in Hazel Park.

In addition, two granddaughters, Sue Ann and Cherri Lynn Pinner, will spend this summer at the Westland church to earn money for college next fall.

Bellaire Celebrate Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Aldrick Bellaire, of Arnold Avenue, Redford Township, recently marked their 25th wedding anniversary with a trip to New York in the company of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Rantanen, of McArthur Avenue, Redford Township.

49th Christian Endeavor Bible School Scheduled June 26-30

Convention Set in Detroit

Final preparations are being made for the 49th International Christian Endeavor Convention to be held in Detroit July 3 to 7.

Some 2,500 young people from all over North America are expected to attend sessions in Cobo Hall.

The Rev. F. Rupert Gibson, Belfast, Northern Ireland, superintendent of the Irish Mission of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland and a vice-president of the World's Christian Endeavor Union, will give the keynote address at the opening session Monday evening, July 3.

The speaker Tuesday evening will be Bishop Clyde W. Meadows, D.D., president of the World's Christian Endeavor Union. An emphasis on the Lordship of Christ in a complex society will be made on Wednesday night, July 5, when Dr. Daniel A. Poling, honorary president of the World's Christian Endeavor Union will address the delegates.

The Albert H. Diebold Awards in Christian Endeavor's 1967 Christian Action Awards Program will be presented to winning youths and representatives of the winning societies and local unions at this session.

The Thursday night session will take place on the Detroit River aboard the Bob-Lo steamer. Arch J. McQuilkin, president of the International Society of Christian Endeavor, will address delegates at this unique session.

Jerome Hines, bass-baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will challenge delegates at the closing Friday night session by presenting a message in song and personal testimony. A special feature of this session will be the presentation of International Youth's Distinguished Service Citation to Mr. Hines, who is the twelfth recipient of this honor.

Previous citation recipients include Admiral Richard E. Byrd, Herbert C. Hoover, Harold E. Stassen, Dr. Daniel A. Poling, Mrs. Helen Lyons Jones, Theodore R. McKelvin, Walter H. Judd, Richard M. Nixon, Dr. Billy Graham, Dr. George K. Schweitzer, and Roy Rogers and Dale Evans.

Each day the convention begins with a Quiet Hour period led by Dr. Abraham K. Akaka of Honolulu, Hawaii, pastor of the famed Kawaiahao Church.

A "school" will be held each morning with 43 conferences on evangelism, devotional life, methods of youth work, etc. Other convention features include a hymn sing at Civic Center Park, denominational, state, and provincial meetings, a special Junior Convention on Friday under the leadership of Mrs. Warren G. Lund of Riverdale, Illinois, and a Recognition Banquet honoring Mr. and Mrs. Arch J. McQuilkin. Afternoons will be used for sight-seeing, recreation, and personal counseling.

Program Committee chairman is Dr. Daniel K. Poling, pastor of the Fort Washington Collegiate Church, New York City. Harold N. Bogart of Detroit, is general chairman of the Detroit Convention Committee which is making local convention plans. Mr. Bogart is director of manufacturing development for the Ford Motor Company and was recently presented the 1967 Award of Scientific Merit by the American Foundrymen's Society. Nicholas Van Wingerden, also of Detroit, serves as associate chairman of the local committee.

Bus loads of youth are traveling to Detroit from Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, and New York. All methods of transportation will be used by delegates.

Information concerning the registration and hotel and meal arrangements may be secured from the Detroit Convention Committee, 16524 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48203.

The new church home of Church of The Savior, a congregation of the Reformed Church in America at 38100 Five Mile Road, will be the site of a vacation Bible school from Monday, June 26 until Friday, June 30.

The morning sessions will begin at 9 a.m. and will close at 11:45 a.m.

An excellent program of Biblical instruction will be offered which will include Bible lessons applied to the child's everyday life, group singing and worship, handicrafts, and recreation. The study theme for the week is, "The God I Love."

All children in the community who are now four years old through those who will be entering seventh grade are most welcome to attend.

The church would appreciate knowing in advance if you plan to enroll your children. This may be done at the church office, or you may register by phone by calling Mrs. Roger Cook at 422-7826 or Mrs. Lawrence Martin at GA 2-0473.

The pastor of Church of The Savior is the Rev. Luther Ratmeyer. He may be reached by calling 464-1062 or 427-0122.

Presbyterians Vote Action to Combat Crime

More than 400 delegates attending the 133rd annual meeting of the Synod of Michigan of the United Presbyterian Church urged vigorous action in combating causes of crime.

Convening at Alma College last week the clergy and laymen voted that a study be made of all aspects of the question of therapeutic abortion and that the Michigan Legislature hold public hearings on a proposed abortion bill.

It was decided that Michigan Presbyterians follow the recommendation of the General Assembly and observe Sunday, June 25, as a Day of Prayer for Peace in Vietnam when the Declaration of Conscience of the Assembly be read in the churches, that Christians fast and give an offering for the victims of the war.

A record budget for 1968 was set at $799,900, which is a record high. A total of $414,400 is for administration costs and $385,000 for synod causes. The per capita was increased from $35 to $44.

"Planning for the future in this Synod must be designed so that laymen both can be and want to be involved," Dr. Robert H. Yoltan, executive, declared as he stressed the need for more participation by the laity. "Our mission must never be left solely to ministers or professional staff," he stated.

Rev. Ralph C. Stribe, Jr., pastor of the Church of Our Saviour, Birmingham, was elected moderator succeeding Rev. J. Robert Ranck, Menominee. Rev. Eugene G. Slep, pastor of Immanuel Church, Grand Rapids, was made vice moderator.

Dr. E. Hoyt Kerr, who has been pastor of First Church, Newark, O. 13 years, was installed as associate executive in a ceremony conducted by Dr. Winburn T. Thomas, secretary of Interpretation and Stewardship of the Church.

Success of the Fifty Million Fund Campaign was reported by Charles H. Patterson, general chairman. Delegates were advised that at the present there is a total of $4,272,957 in confirmed pledges which puts the Synod over its goal of $4,000,000.

Mrs. Howland Retires As Palette Guild Head

Mrs. Kempton Howland, of Farmington, retired this month as president of the Palette Guild, turning over her office to Mrs. John Kirshenheiter, of Detroit.

All-Night Peace Vigil Slated at St. John Bosco

An all-night vigil for peace is planned at St. John Bosco Church, on Beech Daly in Redford Township, beginning with an 8 p.m. mass June 30. The final mass of the vigil will be sung at 8 a.m. the following morning.

A highlight of the night of prayer will be a candlelight procession at midnight to the church's outdoor shrine, and a living rosary will be said there.

Church leaders invited all in the area to participate for part or all of the vigil. It will honor the Blessed Sacrament, to be exposed all night.

A different priest will lead the rosary and give the sermon each hour. Those planning to participate include Father Raymond S. Schlinkert, known in this area for his television appearances, Father Campion, Passionist; Father Christopher Schneider, Franciscan; Father Thomas, LaSalette Fathers and Father Carmel, Capuchin.

The vigil is planned in response to Pope Paul's request for prayers for peace, and the urging of Archbishop John Dearden, Catholics join in a crusade of prayer for peace. Beech-Daly Road, between Coffee will be served throughout the night.

ADMIRING THE NEW CORNERSTONE of St. Timothy United Presbyterian Church, Newburgh Road near Six Mile, the Rev. Carl Gunderson, pastor, elders Stanley King and Harry Smit, and the Rev. Richard Bauer, director of national missions for the Synod of Michigan. The cornerstone, containing several documents from St. Timothy's short history, was laid with special ceremonies June 11. The church was organized in 1964 and has been holding Sunday services in the Hoover School. The new building is due for completion late this year.

Bellarmino Scouts Join In Retreat

Boy Scout Troop 499 of St. Robert Bellarmine Church recently attended a Catholic retreat campout at D-Bar-A ranch, Metamora.

The scouts gathered materials and built a rustic shrine. Much of their time was spent at retreat conferences, discussion periods, attending daily Mass, and prayer.

The assistant pastor of Visitation Church, Father Robert Humitz conducted the retreat. The scouts did their own outdoor cooking by patrols.

Leadership was provided by Scoutmaster Jerry Redouty, and two committee-men.

Capsule Sermon

A Priceless Inheritance

By Mrs. Agnes Stephens

(Mrs. Stephens is a resident of Westland and attends the Church of Christ in Christian Union, located at Marquette and Wayne Road. The Observer will welcome other contributions from ministers and lay leaders for its "Capsule Sermon" corner.)

I have an inheritance that can far exceed the wealth of the very richest man here on earth. I am an heir to the kingdom of God. The same can be yours. I can prove it. For it is written in God's will and testament, "The Bible," in the Book of First Corinthians, "He that is joined unto the Lord is one Spirit."

Now we become joined unto the Lord by first, repenting of our sin, second, confessing our sin to God, and third and most important of all, turning from our old wicked way, into the way and will of the Lord.

The Book of Romans says, "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our Spirit that we are the children of God," which makes us joint heirs with the son of God Jesus Christ.

Think of the one who is dearest to you. Have you ever been parted for any length of time and had to go to a station to meet each other? At the very sight of her did not your countenance brighten, your heart beat faster, or tears of joy run down your cheeks. You had an emotional and physical reaction.

So also does the child of God when he blesses a service with his presence. The only difference is that the Joy can be multiplied a thousand times and still not express what the presence of the Lord is like. God has promised us all the riches of his kingdom and, more than that, he has promised to send His son Jesus to escort us to the Kingdom. For Jesus said "I go to prepare a place for you."

Southfield Church Will Hear Missionaries from Spain, China

Missionary speakers will be featured at the Southfield Community Church, 21122 Indian during the absence of Raymond Bayne, pastor.

Harold Kregel, missionary to Spain, was scheduled to speak and show pictures to-night at 7:45. He and his family will be returning to Spain this summer to continue operation of an evangelical book store and preaching throughout the country.

On Sunday, June 25, at 11 a.m., the speaker will be Franklin Lee, a Chinese and former pastor of the Chinese Bible Church of Detroit, who is leaving this summer for Hong Kong to minister to the Chinese there.

George Hunter, from the Christian Servicemen's Center of Vieques, Puerto Rico, will speak at 7 p.m. Sunday.

Beginning July 9, the Rev. Richard Canfield, speaker on "Keys to Better Living" heard on a local radio station, will begin a four-day series of meetings geared to family and home problems. An experienced psychologist and counselor, he is well qualified to help families find a way to happiness.

Reunion at Roma Hall
Detroit Western High School, January and June 1942 Classes, are holding their 25th Class Reunion Dinner-Dance at Roma Hall, Inkster and Schoolcraft, Livonia, Mich., Saturday, July 8, at 7 p.m.

Members of the 1942 class who have not yet been contacted by the planning committee are urged to contact Pat Jackson, 274-6113, or Simon Hachigian, Reunion Chairman at 565-4997.

At Last — A Mythical Hero For Suburbia!!

Copyright 1967 Observer Newspapers, Inc.

Suburbia has been short-changed by the movies and television. It has no folk-hero.

The big central cities have been generously favored by Superman, Captain Marvel and Batman. The rural, agricultural sector has the Lone Ranger and Fess Parker. But suburbia has been ignored.

Until now. We herewith solemnly propose the creation of a uniquely suburban hero—a man of heroic strength and intellectual dynamism. His name is coined from the current academic excitement over the pursuit of excellence.

Introducing: Excelman. By day, Excelman is indistinguishable from any other suburban executive. He is a coordinator for a thriving new tech-tonics firm. His family, home and crabgrass lot are located in the sparkling suburb of Communityville Township, located outside Gotham City and only a few hours from Metropolis.

His appearance is superficially bland, attracting no attention. Excelman, you see, is a modest hero who prefers to perform his meaningful civic functions (good deeds are old-fashioned). Most of the time, no one realizes he has been at work.

No one but us. Look a little closer: The dusty, rusty station wagon Excelman drives converts at the flick of the mock air conditioner dial into an electric helicopter.

What appears to be a bag of fertilizer in the rear is, in truth, sensitive electronic data collecting paraphernalia. Our hero could abuse his power, but virtuously he uses it only for such tasks as eavesdropping on the secret, sneak "executive" sessions of the Communityville Board of Education.

All heroes must have a traveling companion—a Robin, a Ton-to to a saucy secretary. Excelman is no exception. His aide-de-camp is a typical, suburban cover, a miniature poodle named Beau. By day, Beau innocently chases chipmunks and annoys the neighbors' bushes, but when night falls he says the magic word, "Mazahs" (that's "Shazam" backwards), and with an explosion that sounds like a backfiring power mower, Beau turns into a German shepherd.

Really ferocious. (At this point, the incredulous and unromantic will ask how a dog can say "Mazahs." All poodle owners, however, know a poodle can say that word forward, backward, or start in the middle and go both ways, whenever he isn't nervous... But I digress.)

By night, Excelman and his faithful companion cruise about in their station wagon through Communityville Township performing meaningful civic functions.

For example, with his electronic equipment that looks like a bag of fertilizer, he discovers that a group of suburban right-wingers are plotting to forge 300,000 signatures on petitions requesting the legalization of restrictive covenants.

He breaks up the meeting — tock! tock!! Take that, you cal-

Excelman's arch-enemy is the Mad Martini. The Mad Martini is an apartment-dwelling villain who doesn't have Communityville's best interests at heart. He lives in an establishment decorated entirely in olive green and vermilion yellow, and plots viciously when he ought to be out planting shrubs or guiding a Scout troop.

The Mad Martini has concocted a plot to break the hearts of the new residents flocking into Communityville. Prostituting the advancements of science, he has devised a bacteria that he plans to spray over a sod farm; the bacteria won't act for a year, but then it will kill all the grass and leave only noxious weeds with roots an inch and a quarter thick in its wake.

What will Excelman do? Can he detect and head off this anti-social and sub-human scheme??

Anyway, that's the kind of folk-hero suburbia needs. A man with appearance and apparatus and ethics of the suburbanite, performing suburban deeds against suburban foes.

A man like Excelman.

Motorists!! Only Gripes Will Ease Traffic Jams

It's about time motorists in the Livonia and Plymouth area started complaining about the traffic congestion and the daily tie-ups on the streets of both cities.

Otherwise, the conditions are going to remain as is until the Wayne County Road Commission reopens Farmington Road in Livonia between Five and Eight Mile Roads to traffic and Sheldon Road in Plymouth Township.

It is these two projects that are the big bottlenecks. Each has forced traffic to move into areas that already had a high traffic flow—now with the additional cars, the flow has just about stopped at peak times during the morning and early evening.

A week ago, we suggested that officials of the two cities should do something to ease the situation.

A few days later, we contacted both governmental units to see if there were any plans or any suggestions to ease the traffic flow.

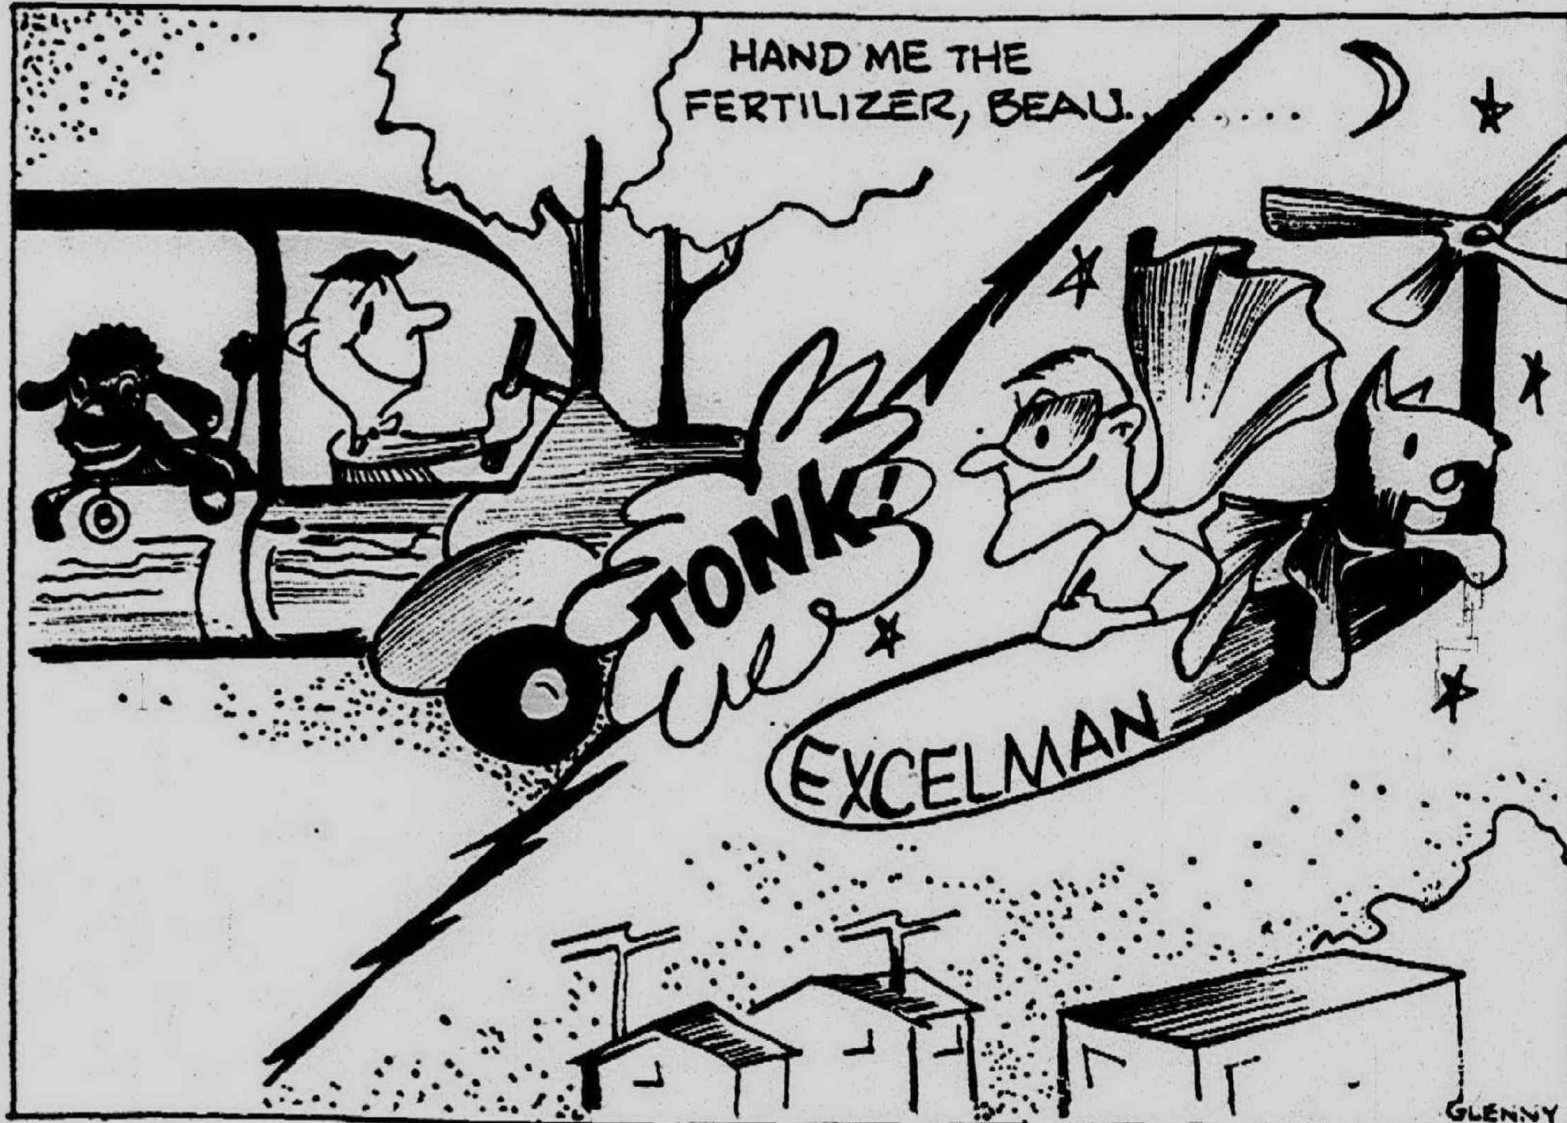

From Plymouth's City Manager Richard Blodgett came a blunt "we don't have anything in the budget to spend for additional traffic lights. We are still negotiating with some of our employees over new contracts and can't even make any adjustments at this time until we see what happens in the negotiations. People will just have to get used to the situation, we can't do anything now."

Blodgett did suggest that the City may eliminate left turns at the intersection of N. Main and Starkweather — and all that would do would be to jam traffic at the intersection of Mill Street and N. Main where there is a traffic light. It would be some-

"POLITICAL man speaks with forked tongue." You bet.

One of the things that sets a newspaperman's hair on end is the common practice of saying one thing while meaning something entirely different. You know the bit.

This Is The Week That

... By Don Hoenschell

Nobody tinkers anymore trying to improve the Commencement Address or the corkscrew.

Straighten out a corkscrew and what have you got?

And try to make sense out of a Commencement address and you destroy a fine old American institution—the speech that says nothing to kids who won't be listening. It works out.

Commencement, a time of beginning and a time for realism. Of taking stock and measuring shortages and of figuring how to get where one is going.

The kids get that old sauce about the bright new world and the pot of uranium that awaits the true of spirit and the All-American cloud kisser. Then he grandly invites the kids to take the world.

So, O.K., kids, it's all yours and lots of luck.

Your elders, including the guy telling you how to make it run, have messed it up pretty good. Now we have wars everywhere, one for each edition, crime, traffic accidents, skulduggery in public office and you name it.

Welcome to it all.

First of all, an 18-year-old getting out of high school is unprepared for much of anything at this point in history. That kind of talk was all right when all you needed was the skill to handle a hoe or a dump rake on a farm or do 10 hours a day in a simple factory job.

It's a terrible crime if all the hoopla of graduation from high school allows these youngsters to think in terms of final, great accomplishment and ultimate victory over ignorance.

High school graduates now need two more things, at least. More education is one.

Experience is another. General Motors, some newspapers and every other outfit hoping to be a profit-making operation have on-the-job training courses. This economy has no time for long haircuts with nothing much underneath.

This world has become so specialized that the schools can teach—if a student will learn—the rudiments of the mechanics of life and that's about it. And even that costs a heck of a lot of money.

So, come on in, kids, and learn. But, first take off the mortar board and get ready to work and fight for everything that means anything to you.

The schools haven't prepared you for tomorrow because you don't know, and neither does the smartest guy in your block, what tomorrow is going to toss at you.

You have to fend and you have to cope and miracles don't happen. Maybe, if you marry the boss' daughter...

Take all this advice and you'll be a booming success, climbing the highest mountains, hitting tape measure home runs and collecting after every race at DRC. Go ahead, take the advice.

It's from a guy who thought World War II was the last one and that sliced bread was the greatest human achievement since the wheel.

Sense 'n Nonsense

The battle over "fast" and "slow" time in the state has hit a lull. One can be certain, however, that the Michigan Farm Bureau will have more to say on the subject.

For years the Michigan Democratic Party has been pointing to the Farm Bureau as the greatest bunch of Neanderthals in modern times. The Dems never lost the opportunity to hang the "Farm Bureau dominated" tag on the Michigan Republicans.

Who is the attorney for the Farm Bureau on the daylight saving question? He is one Tom Downs, long active Democrat, and the Democratic vice-chairman of the State Constitutional Convention.

During the 1964 presidential campaign, Senator Goldwater discussed at length the serious problem of "crime in the streets." What he really meant was "Negroes in the streets," which went with the implication that LBJ and the Democrats were soft on Negroes and other similar dead-beats.

Equally, President Johnson would discuss "the dangers of extremism in our country," by which he meant the John Birch Society. This suggested of course that Goldwater, if not a full-blown, Bircher, was at a minimum getting a lot of money from quasi-fascists.

The thing that really irritates newsmen about such speaking is that it's their job to quote people accurately and directly.

So when people say one thing while meaning something quite different, you then have to write a sentence something along the lines of, "Senator Goldwater, while calling for more safety in the streets, was regarded by most as attacking Negro anti-segregation demonstrations."

Then some public spirited soul accuses you of editorializing a news story.

There's a good example of speaking with forked tongue going on right now.

State Representatives Jim Tierney, Louis Schmidt and John Bennett, who hail from this area, and others have been pushing three bills in Lansing. Passed by the House and now in a Senate committee, they would establish a method of voluntary cooperation between local government units.

Areas of concern would be air pollution, child and youth guidance, education, environmental health and social services, housing and urban development, parks and recreation, refuse and sewage disposal, transportation and water pollution.

Which covers just about every ill that our badly planned, uncoordinated local government units in Observerland now face.

Trouble is that the conservatives are pretty sore at the plan, and they're speaking with forked tongue to try to defeat them.

The Oakland County Conservative Club recently sent a letter to all members of the Legislature attacking the proposals.

Among other things, the letter charged that "The financial backing for this movement has come through the tax-exempt foundations including Rockefeller, Carnegie, Ford, Julius Rosenwald and many others."

Translation: "The nasty Jews with all their money are trying to take away our traditional liberties."

Alternate translation: "Those Eastern Establishment pink liberals and their allies, the monied Jews, are trying to take away our traditional American liberties."

Another charge says, "We recall that Hitler had youth guidance programs—so does the Soviet Union."

We can assume this does not mean the Oakland County Conservative Club, in its collective wisdom, is opposed to any sort of counseling for our children.

Rather, the charge implies: "These proposals are just like what Hitler or Stalin would do."

And so on and so forth.

By saying one thing and implying another, the Oakland County Conservative Club is not only confusing the basic issue—whether local governments ought to cooperate to solve problems—but also bringing in red herrings of Stalin, Hitler, socialism, etc.

If people are opposed to the bills, they ought to say so.

But the least they can do is keep the arguments to the point and avoid speaking with forked tongue.

Reader Tags $750,000 Saving As Another Gag

Editor:
In regards to a question asked by a Paul Y. Kadish of today's issue (June 14) about the mayor and city engineer's office saving $750,000.
To me, Mr. Kadish, that is an old gag that is used to fool some of the people on their projects being done cheap.

I wonder if the mayor is trying to follow the footsteps of the mayor east of us. By big talk but no do, just trying to fool the people.
We all know here in Livonia there is a great deal of friction between council and mayor's office and it takes a lot of looking at things that do not smell good.

And it takes a lot of action on some men to bring it out. Such a man we have in the council is Pete Ventura, who takes the mayor over the coals once in a while.
As soon as there is no friction between the parties we then can get things done; but as long as we have the attitude of Big Me and little you, like in Detroit, we are going to have it.
Ventura is doing a good job. Let us start watching him, and keep him, and next year a new mayor, Ventura.

have been OK'd by Superintendent Benton Yates. Now we the students of Livonia's secondary schools know that our adults really listen and do something about our ideas.
It is encouraging to see that we can work together with adults and get positive results. Actions like this tend to disprove many of the claims that there is a lack of communication between our generations.

Now we can see that the adults of our community are not as old-fashioned as we thought, and are willing to modernize and keep in tune with the changing times.
In conclusion I would like to say I think the student advisory body on dress policies is a great idea. It will give the principals a better chance to hear both sides of the story before the sound off on dress rules in the future!
A "STUDENT"

our administrative department heads because these men were entitled to the raises due to the increased cost of living. I also support parity pay (or equal pay) for the police and fire departments. I do not believe in using one group of men as a wedge against another group (the department heads against the firemen). I have publicly stated my position to both the firemen and Chief Roberts and I would like to reiterate... I support equal pay for policemen and firemen, and have urged our Civil Service Commission, our Mayor and our Bargaining Team to do likewise.
I cannot justify in my own mind how one group of civil workers is worth less to the community than another group. I wish the City could afford more money for both groups, but that cannot be at this point.
I would also like to thank this opportunity to thank both the police department and the fire department for doing such a fine job for our city.

Just Chattin' Mohammed Ali, nee Cassius Clay, Is Far City From Louis

By W. W. EDGAR

THE BIG LIGHTS over the ring in Cobo Arena were turned off. Mohammed Ali (nee Cassius Clay) was wending his way back to the dressing room after going through six rounds of what was billed as an exhibition, but would have been better listed as a farcical interlude in a burlesque show.

As the dyed-in-the-wool boxing fans—and you would have to be a real fan to be in attendance—slowly left the big palace on the banks of the Detroit River, one of them remarked, with a sigh:

"He's a far cry from Joe Louis."

No one took the trouble to ask the old gent just what he meant. Did he mean Mohammed Cassius or Clay Ali, or whatever name he has chosen this week, was far inferior to Louis as a boxer—or as a representative of the manly art of self defense?

The remark did set others among the old timers to thinking and making mental comparisons.

I HAS BEEN more than 30 years since Joe Louis started up the pugilistic ladder as a member of the 1932 Golden Gloves team. No one started from a lower position. True, Jack Dempsey, one of the most popular of all heavyweight champions, was a hobo who "rode the rails." He lived a carefree life and had no one to care about except himself.
The home from which Louis came was different. He was one of a huge family and was not fitted, mentally, to go far in the business world. He was "hustling axles" at Fords and wasn't destined to go much higher—until the boxing urge gripped him.

One of the most famous stories told of Louis concerns the report of his school teacher. She had Joe transferred—and sent the new instructor this note, "Please teach this boy to do something with his hands. He'll never do anything with his brain."

It is ironical that he did something "with his hands."

He punched his way to the heavyweight championship of the world at a time when they claimed that no member of his race would ever be given the chance again, after the heavy scars left on boxing's prestige by Jack Johnson.

This took a bit of doing.

How did it come about?

Well, I observed the making of this champion from a ringside seat and the training he received, both in and out of the ring, was something to behold.

"Always remember," his manager John Roxborough, used to caution him, "you're a colored boy and you'll have to earn your way. You will be handed nothing. And being a gentleman will be the best weapon you have."

Joe Louis listened. He became a good pupil. And he never forgot his humble beginnings—even in the days of large purses and being held as an idol by the fans.

When World War II came along there was no flinching on his part. He entered the service and was sent to the wild west at Fort Riley, Kansas—far from the roar of the fight mob. He never rebelled or even whispered a word of protest.

After he was indoctrinated into the ways of the army he was brought back to New York to do special duty and, in such a setting, uttered words one evening that helped make him famous.

The late Mayor Jimmy Walker, of New York, noticed Joe, in uniform, sitting in the gathering at a bond rally in Madison Square Garden. He called on him for a few words. Never a speaker, Joe, nonetheless, walked to the stage, stepped to the microphone and said, simply:

"We will win because we are on God's side."

His words brought down the house and caused Mayor Walker to remark:

"Joe, you have just placed a verbal wreath on the grave of Abraham Lincoln."

Aside from that, Joe defended his title three times in charity events for the service... once for the Army, once for the Navy and once for the Air Force.

Yes, the old gent walking out of Cobo Arena the other evening was right—Mohammed Ali, nee Cassius Clay, is a far cry from Joe Louis.

by sue shaughnessy

Fast time has come to the State of Michigan and the doom forecast by the opponents of the plan hasn't descended upon the land.

Actually, it's been quite enjoyable. That is, it's enjoyable if you don't have small children who have been conditioned to bedtime when it's dark.

I wouldn't even want to discuss the time change with mothers of small children.

However, at least one of the benefits of the time change for the adult, urban dweller wasn't even discussed before the event.

Nobody bothered to mention that the automobile would be considerably cooler when it was opened at 8:30 a.m.

Of course, many people talked about how plants and shops wouldn't be quite so beastly, quite, so fast from the heat.

There was also a great deal of discussion about all the additional hours that one could play golf.

Not being addicted to the sport of chasing a little white ball around an 18 hole course, I really can't comment on that.

The time change does help, however, if you are addicted to the game of tennis. You simply wait until 7:30 or 8 p.m. when it begins to cool off and head for the courts with time to play a set.

Fast time helps to allow for a quick swim after work. The only problem is when the nation reverts to "slow" time, the shock of coming out of the office and finding it dark is rather severe. It takes a few weeks to adjust.

At any rate, it's nice that Michigan has caught up with the rest of the nation. It might not be so pleasant for the farmers or for those with small children, but for the urban dweller it's great.

Aim to Help

Editor:

Purpose of the Police Recruitment Project of Michigan is to help Michigan law enforcement agencies recruit more people.

Your local Police Department, Sheriff's Department and State Police Post are the best sources for information on needs for recruits in law enforcement work in your area. However, there are some aspects of the needs for more people in law enforcement agencies which are common to all localities.

These include the opportunities for cadet training, either in existing programs or in programs which can be started, and the opportunities for returning servicemen.

Attached are three stories and some suggested story possibilities that can be adapted for your local needs and use.

Recruiting more people into our Michigan law enforcement agencies is a high priority project. I will be glad to assist you in spotlighting the needs and the opportunities as they apply to your local law enforcement agencies. If I can help, please let me know. You can contact me at 883-4500, Ext. 2335, by telephone or write me at Chrysler Corporation, News Relations Office, P.O. Box 1919, Detroit, Mich. 48231.

Thanks for Good Job

Editor:

Last July, several residents of Kirsch subdivision started attending public hearings and circulating petition concerning a waiver request on the use of a small parcel of land located on Ann Arbor west of Wayne Road.

We did this because we felt it was our civic responsibility to keep abreast on any proposed zoning sites around our homes. In doing so, concern grew about some of the evident inadequacies of the plans presented.

On Tuesday, May 16, this request was finally granted but not until certain alterations and concessions had been made.

We would like to thank the land developer, the City Planning Commission, the City Council, The Wayne County Board of Health, McDonald Hui and his staff, as well as many individual Livonians for their cooperation and efforts which have resulted in a finished project everyone can be proud of.

The building and grounds for a nursing home erected on said property will be an asset to its inhabitants and city.

Thank you again for your loyal consideration and time, which you, the above, have devoted to the betterment of Livonia.

Editor:

To clear the air I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Livonia Observer for their compliment to the Livonia City Council. As one Councilman, I would like to compliment my colleagues as being extremely able, articulate and free-minded. It is a pleasure to work with such able-minded men. I would like to correct one concept that some people might arrive at from your article last week.

Judy Shirley Wins Ford Scholarship

Judith Ann Shirley, a 1967 graduate of Livonia's Franklin High School, was one of only two students at the school to receive a Ford Motor Company Fund scholarship. The other was Thomas Bates, whose honors were reported previously.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Shirley, of 31242 West Chicago, Judy will major in music at the University of Michigan.

Judy has participated in many musical activities during her school years. She has been president of Franklin's Symphonic Band and solo clarinetist with the Livonia Youth Symphony.

Last summer she was solo clarinetist on a European tour with the Musical Youth International. In previous summers she has participated in Livonia's Musical Production Workshop, the State Fair Honors Band, and two all-state sessions at Interlochen.

Judy's academic rank earned her other scholastic honors. Among them were: a Regents Scholarship from the University of Michigan; a Trustees Scholarship from Michigan State University; a scholarship from the Michigan Higher Education Authority Assistance; and a National Defense Student Loan from MSU. Judy was also a National Merit Finalist.

Interested Kids at Whitman Junior High Make Life Easier for Korean Boy and Family

A young Korean boy and his family have led happier lives for the last four years because the students at Whitman Junior High School, Livonia, are kids who care. The boy is Bae Yong Hak, who will be 17 in October. Four years ago he was "adopted" by the Whitman

Student Council through the Foster Parents' Plan, Inc. And though the junior high now has an entirely new student body, the kids have kept up the $180 a year payment for Bae Yong Hak. They also have written him monthly letters, sent all kinds of sports equipment for birthday and Christmas presents, and even furnished his mother with a sewing machine so she could clothe her family better.

All this, said Phil Klein, student council and student activities sponsor, is financed by the students — through bake sales, white elephant auctions and sock hops.

These activities, in fact, have also provided a contribution of more than $1,000 to CARE from the junior high for the last eight or nine years, and have financed generous donations to such other drives as the March of Dimes and the Livonia Family "Y."

But Bae Yong Hak and his younger brother and two sisters continue to hold a special place in the Whitman kids' thoughts.

Jennifer Jackman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Jackman of Arden Avenue, is head of the student Council committee that writes the monthly letters to the Korean youth.

"We get together and think of all sorts of things to tell him," she said. "Our letters then are translated by the Foster Parents, and his answers come back written in Korean and translated. He's learning English, but it's pretty hard to write a whole letter in a foreign language."

The project, Klein pointed out, is a great boon to the entire family that lives in a small room in a Seoul slum.

"Besides helping Bae Yong Hak, the money we send helps three younger children remain in school and helps the mother keep her family together. That's the aim of the Foster Parent program."

There was an older brother with the family when the Whitman kids first got acquainted with Bae Yong Hak, but he's now earning his living as a barber. Still at home are sisters Myung Ja, now 13, and Yung Ja, 11, and a small brother, eight-year-old Yong Hyun.

The father, Bae Kwok Ok, died in April of 1963 after years of struggle to support his family during repatriation, war and the rebuilding of Korea.

Klein's pride in the students he counsels is evident. "They devised the project," said, "and they are the ones that have carried it on. It has been a fine thing for the school as well as for the Korean family."

For other schools interest in such a venture, the Foster parents can be reached by writing 352 Park Avenue South, New York, N.Y. 10010.

JENNIFER JACKMAN is in charge of project Korea and Bae Yong Hak letters.

BAE YONG HAK of Korea has been adopted by Livonia's Whitman Junior High Student Council.

Local Women Get Tips On Purchasing of Meat

Seven area women and their guests are participating today in a meat-buying tour sponsored by the cooperative extension service of Michigan State University.

They are among 50 leaders in the extension marketing program.

The tour, planned by Mrs. Marjorie Gibbs, Detroit consumer marketing information agent, is designed to give women first-hand information on developments in the meat industry and tips on purchasing of meat products.

The women are visiting the Wolverine Packing Co. to learn of modern practices in slaughtering and preparing lamb and veal for market. Included is a visit to a new plant developed to package meat cuts for both restaurant and retail sale and for both fresh and frozen markets.

Also part of the tour is a stop at the Wayne Packing Co., one of four federally-inspected packing houses in the area. The firm handles only the top grade of beef, and the women can learn their methods of inspecting and grading beef.

The final stop is at the Peschke Sausage Co., largest independent sausage firm in the state. A demonstration of sausage production in accordance with Michigan's strict laws is scheduled.

The Livonia contingent includes Dolores Fulton of Orangelawn and Mrs. Darrel Berry, of Robert Drive, and her guest, Mrs. Paul Cuolahan.

Mrs. Radnothy Is Elected

Mrs. Louis Radnothy, of Livonia, is the new president of the Garden City-Ridge-wood Osteopathic Hospitals Auxiliary.

Installed with her recently were Mrs. William Taylor, of Livonia, as treasurer, and Mrs. Adam Frent, of Garden City.

The installation took place at the Dearborn Heights home of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Chirillo, with Mrs. Augustus Stewart, president of the Women's Osteopathic Auxiliary, Inc., as installing officer.

Installation For Junior Women Set

The Western Suburban Junior Woman's Club will hold its installation dinner June 28 in Hillside Inn.

At this event officers will be installed by Mrs. H. E. Norris, second vice-president of the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs. In the fall this club plans to join the General Federation of Women's Clubs as a federated member.

Other events under discussion for the new group are a splash party in August, which will be the club's first fund-raising endeavor, for the philanthropic project, and a membership tea to be held in mid-September.

Women interested in becoming members of this organization may call Mrs. Thomas McGinnis, 422-3422, or Mrs. Gerald Carpenter, 425-1132. At present, communities of Westland, Livonia, Garden City, and Wayne are represented in its membership.

Kenwood Marks 30th Anniversary

Mrs. William Hermann was installed as president of the Kenwood Women's Club as the organization celebrated its 30th birthday with a recent luncheon.

Others who took office with her are: first vice president, Mrs. Wallace Sloan; second vice president, Mrs. Jack Liley; financial secretary, Mrs. Elmer Fiedler; treasurer, Mrs. Arthur Butler; recording secretary, Mrs. Axel Gaberson, and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Walter O'Neill. Directors are Mrs. Arthur Wulff, Mrs. A. J. Santer and Mrs. Henry Dust.

Main event of the anniversary luncheon program was the showing of slides by Mrs. Thomas Redman, who recently traveled around the world. Mrs. Richard Turk served as toastmistress. Mrs. Henry Dust gave the invocation. Mrs. Arthur Wulff a welcome and Mrs. Hugh Wren presented a brief history of the group.

Mrs. Hermann announced appointments of the following chairmen:

Budget, Mrs. D. Wolfe; courtesy, Mrs. Frank Justice and Mrs. John Renshaw; custodian, Mrs. Nathaniel Banks; flower arrangement, Mrs. Joseph Mourray; house and social, Mrs. David Gibson; membership, Mrs. Fred Bokelmann; press representative, Mrs. Herbert Anderson; program, Mrs. Wallace Sloan; parliamentary, Mrs. Hugh Wren; philanthropic, Mrs. Arthur Wulff; religious education, Mrs. Henry Dust; scholarship and youth, Mrs. Elsmere Pearson; special activities, Mrs. L. E. Selke; scrapbook, Mrs. Henry Poff; ways and means, Mrs. Jack Liley; year book, Mrs. Robert Dreaver; public relations, Mrs. Richard Turk; music, Mrs. Wallace Sloan, and Federation delegates, Mrs. William Hermann, Mrs. Wallace Sloan and Mrs. Arthur Wulff.

Continuum Offers Talks

The Continuum Center for Women at Oakland University is offering women's clubs several presentations on various aspects of its program.

Included is a 20-minute film titled "Eight Stages of a Woman's Life," a taped interview made by television newsman Joe Weaver during a conference for widows and divorcees at the center. Talks, ready for presentation by qualified speakers, also are among the Continuum offerings. The titles are "The Continuum Center Story," "So You Want a Job," "After the Children, What?", "The Changing Role of Women," and "Breakthrough for Volunteers."

The presentation of "The Continuum Center Story" is made without charge, and there is a nominal fee for the other programs. Specific information may be obtained by calling the center at Oakland University, 338-7211, extension 2146.

All the presentations have grown out of the center's work in the first two years of its existence. During that time, more than 700 women have enrolled in the center's testing and evaluation program.

The center's psychologist and three advisers have helped these women gain a better understanding of themselves and their lives, and guided many in the areas of employment, volunteer service and education.

The center also has offered many varieties of courses, as well as creative conferences, and has provided year-round child care for mothers attending university classes, working part time, or performing community activities.

The presentations on the program, a Continuum spokesman said, are designed both to give women's groups information, and to keep in close touch with their ideas for future activities at the center.

Soroptimists Of Plymouth Pick Officers

Using flowers instead of candles in last week's summer heat, the Soroptimist Club of Plymouth installed new officers at a dinner meeting June 14 at the Round Table Club.

Edith Merchant was installed as the new president by Mrs. Elsie Melczek, of Dearborn Heights, a charter member of the club.

Taking office with her were Evelyn Arthey, first vice president; Lorraine Ziegler, second vice president; Helen Van Dyke, treasurer; Lorraine Jarvis, recording secretary; Sue Austin, corresponding secretary and Helenn Caplin and Lorina Hubbs, directors.

Each officer was presented a corsage, and a red rose was given to each of six new members.

Merri-Bowl Belles Honor 2

The Merri-Bowl Trimmers Chapter of the Buxom Belles had their fourth anniversary dinner and awards presentation recently, honoring Irene Lubig and Gerry Munday for their respective achievements in loss of weight.

President Carolyn Erickson, who will soon be moving to another city, was given a surprise going-away gift. Rose Lubig will soon take over her post.

The Merri-Bowl Trimmers are sponsored by Livonia Parks and Recreation and meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesdays evening at the Carl Sandburg Library. For information call Rose Lubig at 421-5717.

Women on the GO!

By Margaret Miller

And with those enthusiastic words, one of the area's youngest and liveliest Bible school directors is plunging this week into the hubbub created by nearly 300 children.

She is hazel-eyed Aletha Straight, religious education director at Clarenceville Methodist Church for just over a year and coordinator of a well-diversified program that provides morning instruction and activity for youngsters in the Middlebelt-Eight Mile area this week and next.

Her church's Bible school, which for several years has been the largest one in the Michigan Methodist Conference, started off with a bang last Saturday with a parade through the neighborhood.

In planning the parade, Aletha said, the church leaders renewed an old custom of Clarenceville Methodist.

"We have some pictures of parades several years ago when the church was in its old building on Grand River," she said.

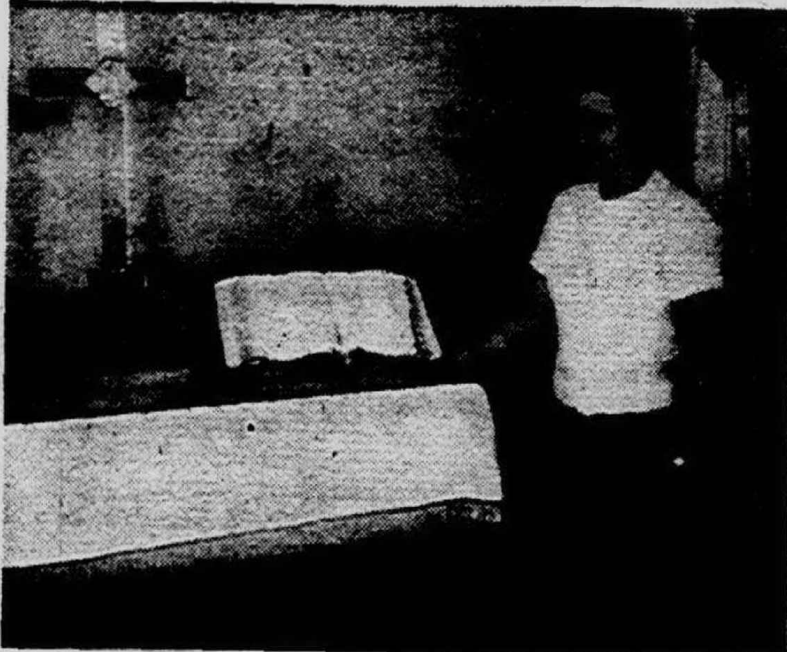

Things are a bit different this week when the youngsters gather in the church's fine new educational unit on Middlebelt—a new sanctuary is to be built soon.

The Sunday School bus brings many of them to Bible School. "This helps us reach a lot more children," says the director.

"We start off with the pledge of allegiance to the American flag, and to the Bible," she relates. "Then there are a few songs before they go to classes—from kindergarten to youth group age."

"Our big junior high and high school class usually has just a short instruction time, and then some special project. Last year that class was taught by our minister, Mrs. Elsie Johns, and she had the kids weeding the church garden a few times. She explained Jesus was a worker."

Aletha is delighted with the Bible school staff, and points out that one father of seven in the church, Clyde Hobbins Jr., is taking his two-week vacation to head a department. Another male member, Allan Schweizer, is going to be on vacation and teaching for one week.

It all adds up to a two weeks that's busy and satisfying and noisy. "The whole building just rings with children's voices," says Aletha. "and then for a long time afterward it's much too quiet."

"But of course, the important thing is that we see them every day, and can try to help them, in many situations, to accept Jesus as their Lord."

"That's what Bible school is really all about."

The young director is convinced there was a hand of Providence in her own life that brought her from her Fort Wayne, Ind., home to this church.

It was the spring of 1966, she remembers, and she had finished four years at Fort Wayne Bible School but still had no work.

"There was a youth convention at the school," Aletha related, "and I just happened to get into a conversation with a man waiting for his wife and daughter. He said he was from Michigan, and something inside me told me to let him know I was graduating and interested in a job."

Clarenceville Methodist was looking for a religious education director, so it didn't take long for the church and Aletha to get together.

There's no doubt that she loves her work.

"Lots of jobs are the nine-to-five type," she says, "but this one is part of you all the time. You live it."

Lorimer-Nordman Vows Taken

Donna Janet Lorimer was married to Roy Theodore Nordman in rites solemnized recently in the Aldersgate Methodist Church, Redford Township.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lorimer, of Cardwell Avenue, Livonia, and Mr. and Mrs. Reuben T. Nordman, of Hillcrest Boulevard, Livonia, are the couple's parents.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie with alencon lace and seed pearl trim. Her illusion veil

Blue linen with white lace appliques fashioned the attendants' dresses.

Ruth Ventura was maid of honor. Mrs. Howard Peterson, the bridegroom's sister, was bridesmaid, and Debra Ann Peterson was flower girl.

James Larson was best

S. Barnes, G. Leeper Speak Vows

Sharon Lee Barnes became the bride of Gordon James Leeper in a double-ring ceremony Saturday, June 10, in Grace Presbyterian Church, Detroit.

The Rev. Roy L. Schneider heard their marriage vows. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Barnes, of Springvale Avenue, Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Leeper, of Laverne Avenue, Redford Township.

Snaps for Towels

To solve the problem of keeping hand towels off the floor when there are several small children in the family, sew snappers on the opposite ends of each towel, and when you put up a fresh towel, just snap it over the towel bar. This save endless picking up of the towel after the children have dried their hands.

MRS. GORDON LEEPER (Sharon Lee Barnes)

Patti Groom Married M. Paul Christensen

Patti Elaine Groom became the bride of Michael Paul Christensen in a candlelight service May 19 in Covenant Community Church.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Brent Groom, of Central Avenue, Redford Township, and Mr. and Mrs. James Bell, of Livonia.

Performing the double ring ceremony was the Rev. J. L. Drummond.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of silk organza over satin and trimmed with lace appliques of roses embroidered with seed pearls and crystals. A petal crown secured her floor length veil of silk illusion and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Linda Gilman, sister of the bride, wore green peau de soie under a floating top of silk organza for her role as matron of honor.

The bridesmaids, similarly gowned in green and carrying yellow daisies and orange roses were Nola Parmenter, Carol Gaynor, Brenda O'Boyle, Barbara McDonald, cousin of the bride, and Cheryl Groom, sister of the bride.

Richard Wright was the best man. Ushers were Dennis and Larry Christensen, brothers of the bridegroom, Glen Her, Dennis Groom, brother of the bride, and Richard McDonald, cousin of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a yellow chiffon gown and the bridegroom's mother wore blue.

The couple received 200 guests at a reception in the

D.A.V. Hall.

The newlyweds honeymooned in Daytona Beach, Fla., and are at home on Grayfield Avenue, Detroit.

The new Mrs. Christensen is employed by the Employer's Group Insurance Co. and her husband works for Hygrade Food Products.

MRS. PAUL CHRISTENSEN (Patti Groom)

Pair United Saturday In Southfield Ceremony

Linda Ann Mortenson became the bride of Wayne Ladd in an afternoon ceremony on Saturday, June 17, at the Highland Park Baptist Church, in Southfield.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mortenson, of Braebury Ridge, Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. James Ladd, of Grover Hill, O., are parents of the bridegroom.

Carol Oldfelt was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids included Trudy Prendergast, JoEllen Rice, Donna Van Buskirk, and Sharon Wolgemuth.

Serving as best man was Stan Guillaume. James, Paul, and Dennis Ladd and Ron Mortenson seated the guests. John and Jim King were ring-bearers.

The new Mrs. Ladd graduated this spring from Taylor University. Her husband also is a Taylor University

MRS. WAYNE LADD (Linda Mortenson)

Cheryl Parmenter Wed To Ronald Bartholomew

Cheryl Ann Parmenter and Ronald Norman Bartholomew were united in marriage Saturday, May 27, in the First United Presbyterian Church of Plymouth.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Parmenter, of Ridge Road, Plymouth, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bartholomew, of Coventry Drive, Livonia, are the bridegroom's parents. The Rev. Henry J. Walsh officiated.

Silk illusion organza with a bodice of alencon lace fashioned the bridal gown. The bride wore a shoulder-length veil and carried lilies of the valley with an orchid center.

Her attendants were dressed in pink organza and carried Shasta daisies with pink velvet streamers. Patty Parmenter was maid of honor for her sister, and the bridesmaids were Alice Keeney, Garlyn Parmenter and Kim Bartholomew.

Jim Whyte was best man. The ushers were Ron Myers, Gary McClain and Gary Parmenter, and six-year-old William Heiney was ring-bearer.

Both mothers wore silk suits with matching accessories. Mrs. Parmenter's ensemble in ice blue and Mrs. Bartholomew's beige.

The couple received guests in a reception in the church parlors and later in the bride's home before leaving on an Eastern trip. They will make their home in the Lake Pointe Apartments in Plymouth.

Livonian Is General Chairman Organ Buffs to Hold Convention in Detroit

Announcement of the national convention of the American Theater Organ Enthusiasts to be held in Detroit over the 4th of July weekend raises the question, "What is a theater organ enthusiast?"

Organ buffs come from all walks of life and their main interest is in restoring, playing or sometimes just listening to the now almost extinct theater organs which graced the movie palaces of the 20's and early 30's. Organ buffs are made up of doctors, lawyers, businessmen, housewives, or in the case of Al Mason, 15743 Edgewood, Livonia, an insurance salesman.

Al and his wife Betty have long been theater organ enthusiasts. A couple of years ago they bought a three-manual 10-rank Wurliitzer which had been installed many years ago in Indiana. When they built their present home a year and a half ago, they made provision for installation of their organ.

The Masons and their friends are just now completing their installation, and it will be available for tours by delegates to the ATOE convention. Al is also active in the convention planning as chairman of the Motor City Chapter of ATOE, which is the host chapter. Al is also serving as general chairman of the entire convention.

The ATOE has chapters in nearly every part of the country. Local chapter members keep busy restoring theater installations or moving former theater organs into homes and small auditoriums for the entertainment of chapter members.

This year's convention is expected to attract at least 1,000 and will feature concerts by many local and out-of-town theater organists on the instrument at the Detroit Theater Organ Club, the Fox Theater, the Redford Theater and the Arcadia Skating Rink.

Several of the concerts will be open to the general public, including the ones in the Fox Theater at 8 a.m. on Sunday, July 2, and Tuesday, July 4; in the Redford Theater at 9 a.m. on Monday, July 3 and at 1:30 p.m. in the Arcadia Skating Rink on the same day. There will also be a public concert on the organ in the Fort Street Presbyterian Church at 10:30 p.m. on Sunday, July 2.

FISHING PENNIES from a fountain in a Westland Shopping Center store is employee, Nancy Rowan, 19, who donated the coins to Westland Muscular Dystrophy chairman Mrs. Juliette Swartout, also representing the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary Post 134. The pennies were thrown into the fountain over a period of time by shoppers and children walking in and out of a clothing store. Mrs. Swartout reported that the month-long drive, which ended last Thursday, has collected $1,000 to date. But she added that this total may reach $5,000 as several area leaders have not yet reported in with collections.

At Greenfield Village History Comes to Life

Civil War days will live again at Greenfield Village as costumed sharpshooters gather for the Muzzle Loaders Festival, June 24-25. Commemorative Civil War regiments and members of muzzle loading gun clubs will vie for prizes in team and individual competition during the two-day festival.

These events, plus colorful bands and parades, rifle and bullet-making demonstrations, costume judging and special events, provide camera fans with a wealth of subjects.

The two-day Greenfield Village Muzzle Loaders Festival, largest of its kind in the Midwest, is included in the regular admission charge to the Village.

The Village and adjoining Henry Ford Museum are located in Dearborn just off Interstate Highway I-94 and the Southfield Freeway.

Sets Recital

Rosedale School of Dance will hold its annual recital Saturday, June 24, in Stevenson High School auditorium.

The Rosedale School is at 32124 Plymouth Rd., Livonia.

Musical Youth Prepare for European Tour

Musical Youth International's 1967 Tour Group is now in residence at Saline for three days of intensive rehearsals in preparation for their summer concert season. After five pre-tour local concerts, where the group received standing ovations from each audience, they will leave from Metropolitan Airport in Detroit on June 23 for five weeks in England, Wales, Austria, Hungary and West Germany.

Musical Youth International is one of the largest teen-club affiliates of People-to-People, and the only club which tours actively as good-will ambassadors each summer. MYI shares a chartered jet plane with 75 People-to-People members on the 1967 tour.

Wally Roberts UP GOING 'CURTAIN'

Summer Theater items continues to drift our way as inevitably as the hot, humid days of July loom on the horizon. Latest reminder comes from Gary Schaub and the Cherry County Playhouse in Traverse City, Michigan.

Gary would like to invite us all to the Cherry County Playhouse opening July 4 for their 13th season premiere with Vivian Vance, the caustic Ethel from the "Lucy Show." Miss Vance will be appearing in a pre-Broadway comedy, "Everybody's Girl."

The Cherry County Playhouse is located next to the Park Place Motor Inn and has been the Playhouse of the Stars in Michigan. If you are going up to the top of our lower peninsula, a visit to this intimate playhouse cooled by nature's air-conditioned breezes is a real treat.

A quick glance at their schedule: Andy Devine (July 11-16) in "My Three Angels;" Eileen Fulton (Lisa) in "As the World Turns" TV serial in "Any Wednesday" (July 18-23); Durward Kirby arrives July 25 to play in "Generation" and other film stars are scheduled for the balance of the season.

If you'd like a complete schedule or tickets ahead of time, write to the Cherry County Playhouse, P.O. Box 661, Say that Wally sent you. I'm sure they will give you choice seats.

You know it's too bad that Meadow Brook after its fine first season's start didn't continue on with a short summer season. Director Robin Ray could have recruited a few actors and used the Meadow Brook Theater as a base of operations. Maybe next summer they will have some plays in addition to the fine concerts already establishing Meadow Brook as the "in" place to go during the summer months.

Oakland University still needs to erect a few hundred signs to better direct the crowds to the Rochester campus. Too many folks still lose their way trying to find this burgeoning cultural center.

If you're staying in town for the next few weeks, you might want to visit Livonia Cinema II and see "Alfie." Or drop over to the Campus Theater in Ann Arbor. They are playing "Cul-De-Sac," the latest Roman Polanski film.

Polanski is best remembered for his horror movie, "Repulsion." Earlier he did the drama, "Knife in the Water." "Cul-De-Sac" is a wacky, wild comedy. Some critics have indicated that his sense of comedy is not as fully developed as his feeling for the dramatic. "Repulsion" was one of the best suspense films old Wally has seen in a decade.

"Alfie" at the Cinema II and La Parisien is fast-paced British drama about a modern day Tom Jones who loves his women quickly, drops them, and looks about eagerly for his next conquest. The young man calls his gals birds and they flit about his nest with all the agility of our feathered friends.

"Loving Couples," a Swedish film in the tradition of Ingemar Bergman, played the Campus theater last week. It was an advanced adult movie. Not too many forms of sexual perversion were left out by the producers. Yet the movie left you with a somber message of morality. The film was tastefully done which tended to intensify the decadent picture of society being symbolized.

Concept-East Theater in downtown Detroit is doing "Choreologia," a college of dance, music and drama featuring Aaron Lawson, Fred Butler, Lafayette King, and David Ben Israel. Shows are at 8:30 and 10:30 p.m. "Choreologia" promises to be new, unique, and a different experience in theater. You might want to try a trip to the Concept-East for an adventuresome summer evening out on the town.

Greenwich Honors Livonian

Joel Durand, a member of the Livonia Artists' Club, received two honors at Washington Square Exhibition in Greenwich Village, New York City.

Durand was nominated by the Judging Committee of the exhibit for a European Art Scholarship. He was also awarded a commission by Bucher-Meyers and Associates, architects in Washington, D. C., for six paintings for new buildings being planned there.

Durand's artistic talent has been demonstrated in another way. Friends report that his home at 9123 Idaho, Livonia, designed by Durand and his wife, has a magnificent interior—complete with an enclosed garden, patio, and waterfall.

Marine Is Promoted

James E. Wright, of 5642 Cardell Street, Garden City, has been promoted to corporal in the Marine Corps. Wright, the son of Mrs. James R. Wright, is a 1965 graduate of East High School, and a veteran of the Vietnam War. He is now a supply clerk with the Marine Air Reserve Training Detachment at Naval Air Station, Grosse Ile.

St. Raphael's Group Plans Weekend Paper Drive

A paper drive is being held this weekend by the St. Raphael Dad's Club of Garden City to buy new recreation equipment for youngsters.

A Dad's Club spokesman said that the drive, to be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, will have residents give their old piles of newspapers and magazines to the club, which will have a trailer parked on the church property, Merriman, north of Ford Road.

Bill Raye, project chairman, said that the trailer will be attended for the three-day period to aid contributors. The paper drive also gives residents a chance to eliminate potential fire hazards by getting rid of piles of old papers in their homes or garages.

New Hours Are Announced By Cranbrook Institute

For the first time in its history, Cranbrook Institute of Science, now completely air conditioned, will be open from 7 to 10 p.m. on Wednesdays during July and August.

Because of the outstanding exhibits that trace the history of the earth from its beginnings to the cultural development of man, one of the world's finest mineral collections, a Hall of Numbers and a physics section, Institute officials feel this is an excellent opportunity to learn much while keeping cool.

Planetary demonstration

tions are scheduled for 8 p.m. on these evenings with the July topic "Summer Firmament" and "Our Galaxy and Beyond" for August.

At 10 p.m. during July the Hulbert Observatory will be open, but to insure space, interested persons must call 644-1600, Ext. 285, weekdays for an appointment. Observatory hour will be 9:30 p.m. during August with reservations necessary.

Children under five will not be admitted to either the observatory or planetarium.

Meadow Brook Opens Season Ticket Sale

Season ticket orders for 1967-68 reached 500 at Meadow Brook Theatre of Oakland University last week, just 15 days after the close of the new theatre's premiere season, announced Treasurer Donald R. Britton.

The 1967-68 Season opens Oct. 6. Britton termed the advance sale "phenomenal this early, in view of the fact that promotional efforts for the coming season are not yet under way."

The John Fernald Company of the Meadow Brook Theatre, professional repertory company in residence at Oakland University, presented five plays for 21 weeks, from Jan. 4 to May 28, and received wide critical acclaim for its first season as Michigan's newest professional repertory organization.

The enthusiastic response to the initial season has encouraged the Company to schedule seven productions for 35 weeks, from October 6, 1967 to June 2, 1968.

The new season includes "The Importance of Being Earnest" by Oscar Wilde; "John Gabriel Borkman" by Henrik Ibsen; "Charley's Aunt" by Brandon Thomas; "And People All Around," a new American play by George Sklar; Shakespeare's "King Lear"; "No Exit" by Jean-Paul Sartre and "The Firebugs" by Max Frisch, presented as a double bill; and Anton Chekhov's "The Seagull."

Britton said reservations for season tickets are now being accepted. Actual tickets will be mailed after September 15. For information, write Meadow Brook Theatre, Oakland University, Rochester, Michigan 48063.

Bloomfield Art Show Opens Sunday

The annual exhibition of selected works from adult art classes will be presented by the Bloomfield Art Association, June 25 through August 6.

The show consists of 80 works including paintings, drawings, lithography, sculpture, weaving and pottery, drawn from the Art Association's 1966 and 1967 classes. Members of the Bloomfield Art Association faculty, selected the outstanding work from each of their classes to be included in the exhibition, and the remaining entries were juried by the nationally known artist, Glen Michaels. Mr. Michaels also selected the award-winning pieces.

The Bloomfield Art Association is the only art school in the area which offers university-calibre courses to serious artists who are not working toward a degree. As a result, the students—who come from all over Oakland County—are often working professionals as well as outstanding amateur artists. The quality of the show indicates, in fact, that the difference between the serious amateur and the working professional is often a matter of time, not talent.

WILLIAM DOPPPMAN, featured pianist for the opening concert of the Schoolcraft College Summer Court Concert series, was a co-founder of the Concert Arts Chamber Players at Maine's Bowdoin College, and has performed with more than 30 civic, festival and radio orchestras in the United States. He also appeared on the European concert stage circuit last winter.

Pianist To Head Off Court Concerts

Pianist William Dopppman, who will open the Schoolcraft College Summer Court Concert series on Wednesday evening, July 5, is no stranger to musical audiences in Michigan, especially those in the southeast corner of the state.

The 33-year-old pianist has performed on several occasions with the Detroit Symphony, and, prior to his "arriving" as a concert artist, was soloist with the Plymouth Symphony.

In his Schoolcraft appearance, Dopppman will renew his acquaintance with Wayne Dunlap, conductor of the Plymouth orchestra and director of the Schoolcraft Summer Music School and Festival.

Dopppman had already won four summer scholarships to the National Music Camp at Interlochen when he entered the University of Michigan School of Music to study piano with Benning Dexter and composition with Ross Lee Finney.

During his sophomore year at U. of M., he won two national competitions for soloists: the 1954 Naumberg Foundation and the 1954 Michaels Memorial Awards.

In his July 5 appearance at the open-air concert at Schoolcraft, Dopppman will play the Mozart A Major Concerto. Orchestral works on the program are Handel's Music for the Royal Fireworks; Kleiner Kammermusik for five wind instruments by Paul Hindemith; and Haydn's Symphony No. 88 in G Major.

In all four Court Concerts, the Festival will feature works by Haydn and Hindemith.

Concert time is 8:30 p.m. Tickets at $1.50 for adults and $1 for children and students will be sold at the door. In the event of rain, the performance will be moved into the Lois L. Waterman Campus Center.

Indian Art Slated At Institute

One of the most important private collections of Indian art in existence will come to the Detroit Institute of Arts on June 28.

Nearly 300 works from the collection of Nasli and Alice Heeramanek of New York City will be exhibited through August 16.

"The Arts of India and Nepal" spans 2,000 B.C. to the mid-20th century and presents some of the finest examples of sculpture, tankas (Buddhist banner paintings on cloth), palm leaf manuscripts, paintings, textiles and other decorative arts to be seen outside India. Few of these treasures have been exhibited before, and Detroit is one of only four cities to have this show, which was organized by the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston.

Southfield Opens Civic Theatre

The presentation of the comedy, "Doctor in the House," will keynote the opening of Southfield's new Civic Theater, located in the Southfield Civic Center at Evergreen and 10½ Mile

Rds. To be presented June 30 and July 1 at 8:30 p.m., the play will be shown for an admission price of $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for students.

Washington Report

Esch Sees Signs Of $$ Slowdown

There are some welcome signs of late that Washington may slowly be headed toward fiscal responsibility. The voice of the people, way last November, calling for sound spending policies is finally beginning to be heard and reflected in our nation's capitol.

Most significant of recent steps in this direction was the refusal of the House to raise the national debt ceiling, as requested by the President, for the second time this year. This time he asked for an increase of $29 billion bringing our total national debt to an all time high of $365 billion. The House defeated this request by a vote of 197-211—a vote which reflected the concern of both parties and all philosophies over the continual lack of fiscal integrity in national spending practices. My own vote was with this new majority against the increase.

This action did not come as a complete surprise. Actually it was preceded by several cuts in the President's budget—the total reductions now amount to nearly $2 billion. There has been a real failure on the part of the White House to recognize these growing economy trends and to realize the fiscal mood of Congress and the people.

The reasons given for raising the national debt ceiling basically revolved around the costly war in Vietnam. To the contrary, however, two-thirds of the increase in federal expenditures in the last three years are accounted for by non-defense spending. And of the projected increase from 1966 to 1968 over half is to be in non-defense programs. In the light of these facts, it is just not honest to blame the need for increased indebtedness entirely on the war.

What we need is an intelligent recognition that you cannot have both guns and butter at the same time. And as long as we are involved to such a great extent in Vietnam, we must be more frugal here at home.

However, we must also recognize that some non-defense spending is necessary and that a structure should be developed so that after the war we can begin to rechannel expenditures for needed domestic improvement.

While the defeat of the debt increase is indeed significant and may indicate a welcome trend, it does not represent the type of over-all fiscal reform needed in Washington. Hard facts and realistic projections of future spending must be made. If we are to avoid a runaway economy with higher prices and increased taxes, we must use restraint in federal spending and immediately develop expenditure priorities.

Livonian Held In Pipe Theft

Eugene C. Respondek, 40 of 20461 Milburn, Livonia, has been bound over to Circuit Court for trial on two counts. They are breaking and entering a building, and larceny from a building.

Municipal Judges James R. McMann continued the $2,500 bond.

Respondek has been charged with taking approximately $1,500 worth of copper pipe from a storage shed at the construction site of Grandview Elementary School, 19814 Louise, Livonia.

Finishes Training

Pvt. Gene D. Burger, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Burger, 11518 Burger Drive, Plymouth, has completed eight weeks of military police training at the Army Training Center, Ft. Gordon, Ga.

NEITHER ABSENT nor tardy during their first five semesters at Franklin High School were Seniors Deborah DeBardo, Joanne Koski, Deborah Salmer, Bonnie Totten, John F. Wilson, Marilyn Wojtowicz, and Kathie Zang. In recognition of their records, Assistant Principal Roy Montambeau presented each with a special pin at the Honors Convocation.

Trucks Are Banned From Hubbard to Ease Jam

The "no trucks" sign has gone up on Hubbard road, between Schoolcraft road and the dead end at Six Mile.

The order came from Robert A. Shaw, director of Public Works, in an effort to ease the traffic congestion in Livonia while Farmington road is closed for widening from Five to Eight Mile Roads.

The Wayne County Road Commission, which is doing the Farmington five-lane job for the three-mile stretch, has control over most of the main highways in Livonia, and has designated most of the detours.

No plans have been announced for installation of a traffic light at Hubbard and Six Mile, where drivers complain of difficulty of making right or left turns from Hubbard because of the flow of cars and trucks on Six Mile.

Shaw said that Levan road, north of Five Mile, should be open to Six Mile Road within a week, the half-mile of paving having been completed. However, the road will not be designated as a Farmington detour because it goes through residential sections and is not intended for through traffic.

The city faces traffic problems for the next 90 days because of the Farmington work, widening the road from 33 to 60 feet, but must learn to live with it, Shaw said.

Lieut. Robert Thorne, of the Police Department, is keeping close watch on the situation and is working with the county commission officials to control the flow of cars.

Stamps Gone, 2 Men Held

Two men are being held by Livonia police in the theft of about $850 in trading stamps from the Kroger warehouse, 12701 Middle Belt Road. No warrant has yet been issued.

Charles A. Schmauch, a security officer for the company reported to Livonia police that William S. Vourax, foreman of the packaging room found a case of stamps torn open, with 11 rolls missing, each roll valued at $85.

When Schmauch questioned employees of the midnight shift, two of them named two other employees who, they said, told them they'd stolen some trading stamps.

According to Livonia police, the two named employees made written statements of admission to the offense.

One suspect returned one roll, but the other 10 rolls are still missing.

Jr. All-Stars To Meet In Plymouth

All-Star teams from the American and National divisions of the Plymouth Junior Baseball Leagues will clash Saturday (June 24) in the traditional mid-season game. The 18-member squads will meet at 1 p.m. in a nine-inning contest at Little League Park.

The T-Ball Leagues, for eight-year-olds, and the Minor Leagues, for those between ages 9 and 12, will start play next Monday. That day also is the final for registration of new players.

All should report to Max Sommerville, League Director, The T-Ball teams will play at 9 a.m. and the Minor Leagues at 1 p.m. each weekday.

Michigan State Laws Order Junkyards Be Screened

By ATTY. GEN. FRANK J. KELLEY
(This is a public service article explaining in general terms a provision of Michigan law, individuals who wish to determine the effect of any law upon their private legal affairs should consult a private attorney.)

In 1966 the Michigan legislature provided for the control of junkyards and automobile "graveyards" located next to state highways. The legislature felt that it was in the public interest to beautify highways and thereby promote safety, enjoyment and the convenience of travel.

The new law specifies that any junkyard in a non-industrial area, and within 1,000 feet of the nearest edge of the highway right-of-way, must be screened so not visible from the main highway. Natural objects, plantings, fences, or other appropriate means are to be used for screening.

Junkyards located within areas zoned for industrial areas as determined by actual land use and state highway department regulations are permitted without screening.

Junkyards lawfully in existence on the effective date of the state law (July 11, 1966), and which are located within the prohibited areas, will be screened or removed by the Michigan Department of State Highways as a cost of highway construction by July 1, 1970.

If new junkyards are established or existing ones expanded into prohibited areas after July 11, 1966, the Department of State Highways may apply to the court for injunctive relief to compel conformity with the act.

The new law, known as Michigan Public Act 219, is consistent with public policy declared by the United States Congress in Title 23 of the United States Code.

The federal government's share of the cost of landscaping or screening those junkyards lawfully in existence on October 22, 1965 (the effective date of the federal law), is 75 per cent.

FORMER Livonia resident Leonard K. Kane, now of Hartland, has been appointed superintendent of estimating, planning and scheduling for Detroit Edison's construction and maintenance department. Kane holds a mechanical engineering degree from Detroit Institute of Technology and is a registered professional engineer. He joined Detroit Edison in 1937. Before moving to Hartland early this month, Kane, his wife, Helen, and their four children had lived at 30410 Puritan.

Three Bills For Suburbs

Legislators have pumped new life into three once-dead bills designed to promote co-operation among suburban cities.

Lt. Gov. William G. Milliken cast the tie-breaking vote to bring the bills back from a committee pigeon-hole.

Rep. Louis Schmidt (R-Livonia) said the bills were steered from the Municipalities Committee and certain death to the Senate Taxation committee where deadlines for passage do not apply.

The bills would approve the creation of voluntary regional associations of local governments, provide inter-governmental transfers of functions and responsibilities and allow cities to jointly exercise powers with other agencies of the United States and Canada.

Passed by the House and now before the Senate is a bill providing a limit of three attempts to pass a millage proposal for establishing a community college district in Wayne County.

The wrangle between Detroit and suburban legislators will go to a House-Senate conference committee in the dying days of the session. Detroiters want a single district covering the county and suburban legislators are fighting for a greater number to allow hometown people a bigger voice in the institutions.

Kubiks Given Surprise Party

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kubik, of Ann Arbor Road, Plymouth, were guests of honor at a surprise celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, June 18.

Friends and relatives staged the party at the Kubik cottage at Ore Lake. Mrs. Kubik recently was installed as president of the Plymouth Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary.

Women Have Their Way; Set Gaslight Installation

The members of the Plymouth Garden Club have proved again that you should never underestimate the power of a woman.

For several years they have been working and planning for the beautification of Kellogg Park. They not only have talked and planned. They have acted.

And now their efforts are going to bring results.

On Tuesday morning, utility company workers began staking out locations for the gas lights the Garden Club has worked so hard and long to get.

Once the sites are staked, work will begin immediately with the hope that the gas lights, another "colonial" touch will be added for the Centennial Week.

Until a few days ago the Garden Club members felt their efforts had been in vain.

At no cost to the city they went quietly about "selling" the idea and finally interested a sufficient number of people to "donate" a light to complete the project.

With high hopes they went to the meeting in City Hall, only to be rebuffed with the word that the plan was not quite what was wanted and that further study would have to be made.

Almost on the verge of returning the money and forgetting the idea, the Garden Club officials made one more desperate try. This time it brought results. They spread the word in the right places and the work is now being done. And the lights will forever stand as a tribute to the determination of a woman.

Attends ROTC Camp

Cadet Carl R. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Miller, 1361 Beech St., Plymouth, will attend Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps summer camp at Ft. Riley, Kan., with his unit from Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti. He was graduated from Plymouth High School in 1962.

Police-Fire Bill Gets Approval Of Legislators

A seed that was sown during the leadership conference at Schoolcraft College in April reached the blooming stage last week in the State Legislature with the passage of a bill giving adjacent communities the right to contract for such things as police and fire protection.

The bill had been under consideration for some time, but never got beyond the talking stage until the Leadership Conference when plans were discussed for improved police protection for Plymouth Township.

In attendance at the meeting were State Representatives James Tierney of the 36th District, and Louis Schmidt, of the 35th District, each promised to place the issue before the legislature.

As a result they succeeded in attaching an amendment to Senate Bill No. 150 and it passed last week with what Representative Tierney described as "flying colors."

After the rousing victory in the House, the bill was returned to the Senate last Friday where it was approved, 26 to 0.

The amendment, offered by Representative Tierney reads:

Sec. 4.—Any two or more cities, villages or townships adjacent to each other, shall have power to join together, by contract or by the establishment of an intermunicipal police authority, for the purposes of providing police services to the respective cities, villages or townships.

Such contracts or intermunicipal police authorities shall be approved by the governing bodies of the cities, villages and townships and shall be administered by a commission established in accordance with the agreements and shall contain provisions relative to apportionment of the costs of such services among the cities, villages and townships entering such agreements.

The bill, as passed now is on the Governor's desk, awaiting his signature. It is expected to be signed within the next 10 days and will be given immediate effect.

The action of the Legislature comes at a good time for the people in suburban areas such as Plymouth Township, where police-protection is limited to the Sheriff's Patrol.

For the past several months there has been an urgent need for additional protection in Plymouth Township. Several robberies were reported and some of the residents went so far as to have their homes wired for Pinkerton Service. Others acquired "Police Dogs" as guardians against robbers.

At the time of the robberies there was little the Township could do, inasmuch as it has no police department of its own.

This void became part of the special study at the Leadership Conference and was brought to a head when Representatives Tierney and Schmidt, who attended the sessions agreed to a non-partisan approach by joining forces for action.

Teen Jobs Scarce As Economy Shifts

Jobs for teen-agers are harder to find this year. Betsy Tagami, director of Livonia's Youth Employment Service, explained a fact that many suburban youths have already discovered for themselves.

"We've had a big jump in the number of applicants this spring, but the number of requests from employers has not increased.

"One reason for the gap is that the large factories, such as the auto companies, are not hiring so heavily this year. Before, these jobs took care of many college-age youth. This year the college kids have dipped into the job market for high-schoolers," Mrs. Tagami explained.

There are still jobs available, she said, both full-time and part-time, but applicants who are flexible about what they are willing to do will have a much better chance of finding something.

Already the service, supported by the city of Livonia and operated under the direction of the Livonia Commission on Children and Youth, has referred about 500 Livonia youngsters to employers for summer jobs.

"Of course," Mrs. Tagami said, "that doesn't mean that all 500 got jobs; some employers like to interview two or three applicants before they hire."

Mrs. Tagami's office has handled nearly 100 new applicants this month. During May, 108 applications were filed.

Mrs. Tagami admitted that she is somewhat surprised by the large number of suburban youngsters from relatively affluent homes who want jobs.

"I guess they know the summer is long. When they get jobs, sometimes they will even give up going on a vacation to keep them. Even 15-year-olds are eager to be occupied for the summer—we have had a lot of applications this year from 15 and 16-year-olds," she said.

"A lot of the applicants are beginning to save money for college. This is one of the major reasons they want jobs."

What are some of the problems in helping teen-agers find jobs?

"In Livonia, transportation is a big problem for the kids," Mrs. Tagami said. "We try to find jobs close to their homes, but a lot of jobs are ruled out because of distance and transportation problems."

"Sometimes youngsters looking for jobs don't realize how important a first impression is. Often, though, if I suggest a white shirt or polished shoes, they agree that maybe that would be a good idea."

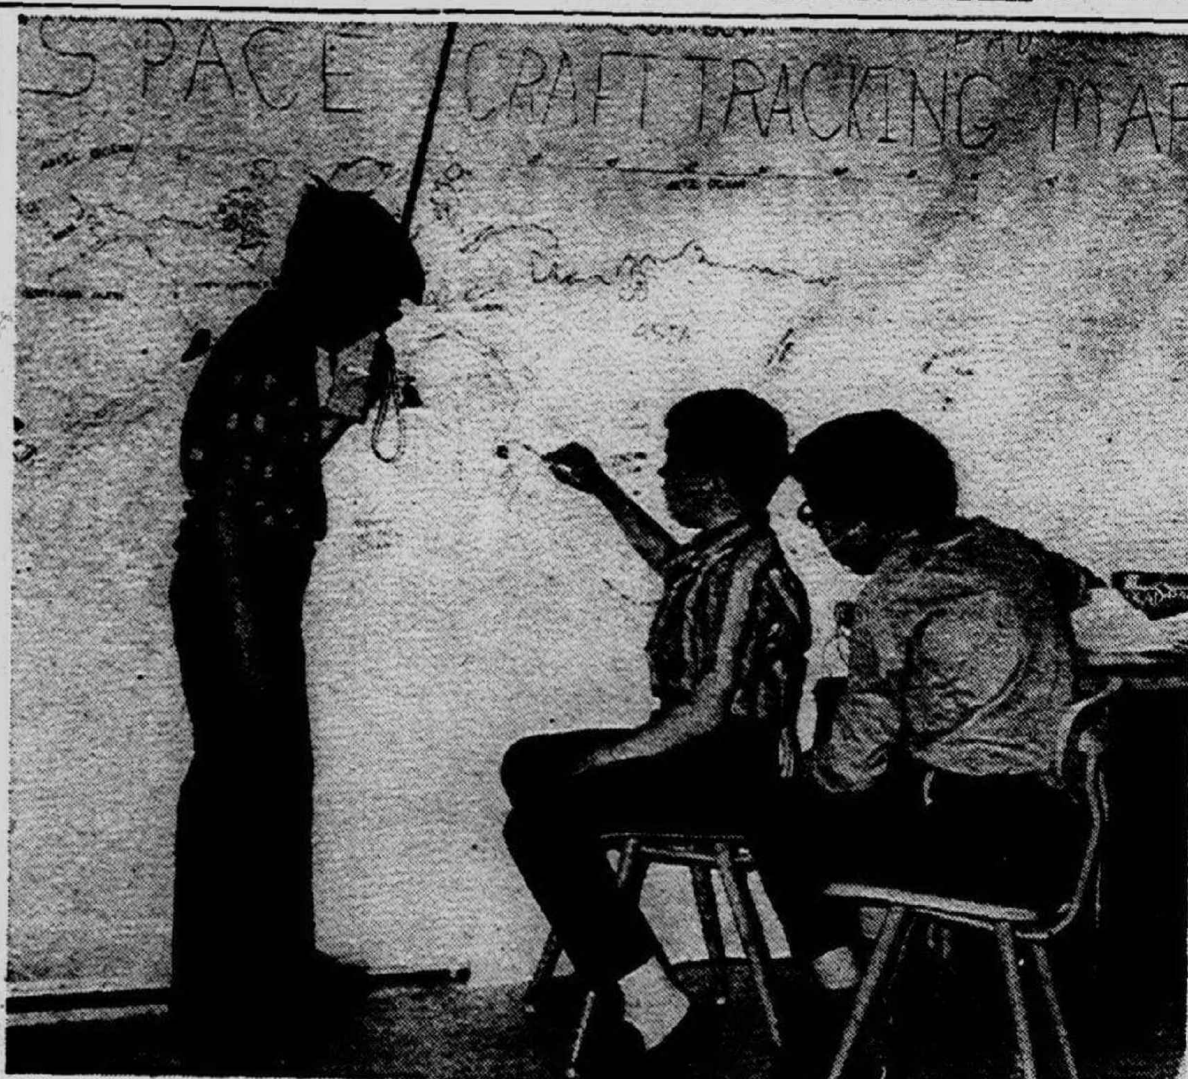

Mrs. Tagami is now developing a training program for lawn care. The program would probably begin next spring.

"This is one specific area where we think we could help boys find jobs. Most boys know how to run a lawnmower, but sometimes they don't realize that clipping, cleaning up and even care of the mower should be part of the job."

Training may in time become an important part of the Youth Employment Service, Mrs. Tagami suggested.

Training should concentrate on specific areas to be of real value to teen-agers in finding jobs, she said.

"Any skill or talent that a teen-ager has is going to be a help in the job market."

Plymouth Okays County Assessor

Local assessors will be relegated to the limbo of forgotten things if the members of the Plymouth City Commission have their way.

Without a single word of debate last Monday evening they approved a resolution in support of House Bill No. 2651, now being considered by the State Legislature, which would provide for the office of County Assessor and eliminate local assessors and assessors' offices.

Adopting the resolution the Commission went on record that it feels such a County Assessors office would be superior to the existing system of many uncoordinated local assessors' offices, because it would result in more uniform assessment standards, would eliminate one step in the equalization process and would establish minimum qualifications for assessors.

Senator George W. Kuhn and State Representative James Tierney are to be sent copies of the resolution along with all other cities and villages within Wayne County.

Plymouth Does Bit of Trading

The City of Plymouth did a bit of "hoss trading" Monday night in the hope of adding some new industry and broadening the tax base.

At the suggestion of the Thermax Corporation, the city swapped one and one half acres of land in the industrial park on Plymouth Road for a bit of like size in order that the Thermax Company could enlarge its plant.

Thermax owned a piece of one and one half acres, but it was not across the street from its present plant and was not suitable for the type of addition being planned.

Therefore, a request was made to the city for the swapping and the Commission approved with the provision that the new addition must be started within the calendar year.

In announcing the plan City Manager Richard Blodgett also let it be known that the City had a prospective buyer for the second lot which also contains one and one half acres.

Drivers Pay For Dragging

Three drivers, arrested in Redford Township, paid fines last week for reckless driving and drag racing while a fourth man was ordered to stand trial in circuit court for failure to have a valid operator's license.

James H. Robinson, Jr., 21, of 20260 Lahser, Detroit, paid $115, after pleading guilty to drag racing over 1 1/2 years ago on Nov. 5, 1965.

Justice of the Peace John M. Dillon cut charges of drunk driving to reckless driving, upon motion by assistant prosecutor John County, for:

Irving G. Godfrey, 31, of 21908 Albion Dr., Farmington; and John J. Shea, 53, of 37350 N. Sherwood Ct., Livonia.

Godfrey paid a fine of $100 and Shea, $90.

Harry D. Potter, Jr., 22740 Albion Dr., Farmington, was bound over to circuit court for violating restrictions imposed by the State Financial Responsibility Act.

Livonian Completes Special OCD Course

Lawrence O. Ransom, 9941 Adams Avenue, Livonia, who is a Lieutenant Colonel in the Air Forces Reserve, in the Plans section of the Fifth Air Force Reserve Region at Selfridge Air Force Base, has completed a special civil defense course at the national Office of Civil Defense, Staff College in Battle Creek.

This five-day course on Civil Defense Management is one of several special courses offered by the OCD Staff College.

Roosevelt PTA Installs

Roosevelt Elementary School shared its 10th birthday celebration recently with parents by holding a Spring Musicales.

Fifth and sixth grade musical instrument groups and the fifth and sixth grade combined chorus participated in the program.

Next year's PTA Officers were installed, with Mrs. Kitty Bertoli, President; Mrs. Julie Nakkula, Vice-president; Mrs. Wanda Weipert, Treasurer; Mrs. Marilyn Stromberg, Recording Secretary and Mrs. Veronica Creighton, Corresponding Secretary.

The PTA Distinguished Service Award and the Past President's pin was presented to Mrs. Hilda Varbedian.

To help celebrate the evening, guests included Mr. Craft and Mr. Brown from the School Board, Ron Up-ton, Asst. Superintendent of the Board of Education, James Otto and and Dr. Virginia Roberts, former principals of Roosevelt, and the past PTA Presidents of the school.

Police Nab Driver, 17, After Chase

Paul M. Dismachek, 17 of 19291 Merriman Court, Livonia, was arrested for reckless driving after a police chase in the Six Mile and Middlebelt Roads area, with five passengers in the car.

Livonia police officers responded to a complaint of a loud party in the vicinity of 18280 Floral. Dismachek was told to come to the police car after he was observed throwing a bottle into the street.

He reportedly entered his own car and drove off at a high rate of speed. The officers gave chase west on Curtis, south of Lathers, south of Deering, and west on Six Mile until they forced the car onto the shoulder east of Middlebelt.

During the chase police reported, Dismachek attained speeds up to 65 miles per hour, had the headlights off most of the time, caused one vehicle to yield to avoid a collision, and disregarded a stop sign at Deering and Six Mile.

Darlene Gaymer's 48 Leads Women Golfers

Former Rock NCAA King In Hurdles

Ex-Plymouth high's Bob Steele ended his college career at Michigan State in blazing fashion Saturday.

He won the 400-meter hurdles in the NCAA championships at the University of Utah.

Steele has been the MSU captain this spring and has sparked for the Spartans during the past three seasons.

He now plans to compete in the various summer competitions as he seeks to ready himself for the U.S. Olympic team that will compete in Mexico City next summer.

Try Easy Recipes in Summer

By JOYCE TOTTEN

Reports from all over reflect a new trend.

Women are taking a more relaxed attitude toward summer cooking, and embracing new products that help them do it.

Eager to encourage this idea I have some extra easy recipes to help the home-makers relax.

One fine aid to easy cooking is the strawberry. It's one of the younger fruits, cultivated only six centuries or so, but certainly a popular one.

Good size is not necessarily an indication of good flavor in strawberries. Many varieties have been developed and are suitable for desserts and for freezing many months of the year.

Take advantage of the supply of Michigan strawberries now at their peak. Save some for future enjoyment by turning them into jams and butters.

Alone or in combinations with other fruits, strawberry jam seems to be the number one favorite.

Today's recipes require only one-minute boil. This means more flavor and more glasses per quart of fruit than the procedure of former years, when jam-making was an all day process.

FRESH GLAZED STRAWBERRY PIE

- 3½ c. fresh strawberries, washed and hulled
- ¾ c. sugar
- 1 T. cornstarch
- ¼ t. salt
- 1 c. water
- 1 baked pie shell

Combine sugar, salt, cornstarch, and water in a saucepan and cook over low heat until thick. Cool and pour over strawberries in pie shell. Top with whip cream when served. You can use a graham cracker crust or the standard type pastry.

STRAWBERRY CREAM SQUARES

- 2 pkgs. strawberry gelatin
- 2 c. boiling water
- 2 10-oz. pkgs. frozen strawberries
- 1 c. sour cream or ½ c. sour cream and ½ c. cream cheese

- 1½ c. crushed pineapple
- 2-3 lge. firm ripe bananas, finely diced (opt.)
- 1 c. nuts, coarsely chopped

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add berries, stirring occasionally until thawed. Add pineapple, bananas, and nuts if desired. Pour half of mixture into 8x8x2 pan; chill until firm. Spoon an even layer of sour cream over firm gelatin. Stir and gently pour remaining gelatin over sour cream; chill until firm. If desired, nuts may be combined with sour cream instead of with the fruit and gelatin.

STRAWBERRY BANANA JAM

- 2 small bananas
- 1½ qts. fully ripe strawberries
- ¼ c. lemon juice
- 6 c. sugar
- ½ bottle liquid pectin

Crush bananas with fork (½ c. pulp). Wash and stem berries, and put through food chopper, using coarse blade. Mix fruits, lemon juice and sugar in a kettle. Bring to full rolling boil over high heat, stirring constantly. Boil hard one minute. Remove from heat; stir in fruit pectin. Skim; pour into scalded jelly glasses to within ½" of top. Cover at once with ½" hot paraffin. Makes about ten 6-oz. glasses.

Livonia Cadet Set For Course

Cadet Timothy E. Underwood, 20, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Eugene L. Underwood, 15619 Liverpool, Livonia, will attend Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps summer camp at Indianatown Gap Military Reservation, Pa., with his unit from the Virginia Military Institute, Lexington.

Cadet Underwood is a 1964 graduate of Bloom High School, Chicago Heights, Ill. He is a member of Sigma Pi Sigma fraternity.
