Sham Charge Is Decried By Mc Ewen

Vol. 80, No. 16

Outside Plymouth Township. Supervisor John McEwen's office door is a quotation from the German poet Goethe:

"If everyone sweeps before his own front door, then the street is clean.

Last week Thursday following former Municipal Judge Edward Draugelis' speech advocating unification and annexation of Plymouth Township with the City of Plymouth outh, McEwen brushed disdainfully aside the implications by the former court justice of political bad housekeeping by Township officials.

In fact, an interview with the Observer Newspapers could only be said to have been a sweeping rebuttal by McEwen to Draugelis and his address before the Plymouth Women's Club on Nov. 3 when the latter called Plymouth Heights ". . . a sham and, in fact, is merely an effort on the part of Plymouth Township government to prevent the City of Plymouth from any further annexation of its territories."

McEWEN, APPOINTED supervisor to fill the unexpired term of the late Roy Lindsay and then elected in 1966 to his present four-year term, was almost as lyrical, politically at least, as Goethe in his answer to Draugelis' charge of sham.

Said he: "Plymouth Heights was created by a mandate of the people."

And, he asked: "How can this be considered a sham? It is the people who have spoken."

Plymouth Heights, bounded by Five Mile Rd. on the north, and Eckles Rd., Joy Rd., and McClumpha Rd. east, south and west, respectively, was voted a city on Feb. 16, 1959. Since then, voters of the 8.3 square-mile community have turned down a city charter three times; in 1960, 1963, and in 1966.

It is a political fact of life that any city in the throes of birth, and adoption of a city charter is considered legally part of the painful process of becoming a city, it cannot be annexed as a part of another city, in this case, of course, the City of Plymouth.

It was the latter which appeared to arouse ex-Judge Draugelis' outspoken suspicions that Plymouth Heights is in reality a political maneuver by the Township's political power structure to block the takeover of their bailiwick by annexation. Otherwise, as long as Plymouth Heights defeats a charter proposal, which can be placed on the ballot biennially by 300 petitioners, it can hold off annexation by the City of Plymouth indefi-

BUT REGARDLESS of Draugelis' misgivings that the latter is political cunning. Supervisor McEwen is unsullied with his

"mandate". In his speech, Draugelis also attacked alleged disproportionately low taxes in some instances on the Township's tax rolls, and the charge again seems to have been intended to fall in the lap of McEwen who as township supervisor is also the township tax

But one of McEwen's first big projects after becoming supervisor was reassessment of all Township properties. So when former Judge Draugelis hints that Township taxpayers aren't carrying their share of the tax burden as compared with their city cousins in the City of Plymouth, he points out the following:

"There is no question but that the Township taxpayer is not only carrying his full load of the tax burden as compared with the taxpayer of the City of Plymouth but, in fact, the Township taxpayer is contributing considerably more than the citizen of Plymouth toward the School District." With that McEwen brushed his hands of Mr. Draugelis and concluded the interview with a question of his own.

"Is there," he asked pointedly, "anything new?"

Record Turnout Expected For Open Housing Hearing

Community Fund Far From Goal

Unless some charitable minded citizens or corporations willing to contribute $27,699 are found within a few days the annual Plymouth Community Fund Drive will miss its goal for the first time in sev-

Thus far $70,877 of the goal of $98,586 has been reported. But there seemed to be only slight hope that the difference would be made up when the committee held its weekly meeting on Thursday.

The quotas set for each group at the start of the drive amounted to $111,000, but it was understood that some of them were rather high and allowances were made that still would produce the goal.

There was little thought at that time that both the Ford plant and Burroughs employees would be on strike for a month. This work stoppage, plus the extra monthly dues demanded by the Union, cut heavily into the projected totals.

"We still have some hope of hitting the goal," Chairman James Thomas stated Friday, 'but time is running out. I know that each day funds are being received and I also understand that the employees at Evans Products have just started their drive. So, it could be that our hopes will be realized prior to the final report meeting next Wednesday night:"

The campaign workers will be guests of the committee Wednesday night at the annual report dinner and several hundred are expected to be in attendance when the figures are announced.

Judd Arnett, Free Press columnist, will be the main speaker at the dinner. He has an entertaining style, and should provide the topping to what could be a great evening --especially if the final report furnishes good news.

All Groups Due To Air Opinions

The Plymouth City Commission is preparing for a capacity gathering Monday evening when the public hearing on open housing is held in the Commission chambers.

"All signs point to a full house," City Manager Richard Blodgett stated Friday afternoon, "and we will be prepared to handle what could be one of our biggest meetings."

tention of the Commission has created as much interest as the ordinance that is asking equal opportunity for minority groups.

It was brought to the attention of the Commission some months ago in a petition from the Committee for Equal Opportunity. At that time the Commission asked the City Attorney, Charles Lowe, to prepare an ordinance for study.

Later, the Plymouth Ministerial Association issued a statement of conviction and that was spread on the minutes of the Commission meeting.

When the proposed ordinance was presented, the City Attorney recommended that the document be turned over to the Committee of the Whole for further study. This was following regular custom.

· On this occasion, however, Commissioner Robert Smith asked that the ordinance be given its first reading immediately "so that the public will have something to guide them before the public hearing."

This immediately raised the question -- How can we give it a first reading when we just re-

As a result, Commissioner Peter Schweitzer asked that a time table be set with November 20 as the date of the hearing.

The Commission then altered the suggested date and set up the timetable calling for the first reading of the ordinance last Monday and the public hearing this Monday, November 13.

Several changes were made in the proposed ordinance when it was presented for reading last Monday evening. Most of these changes, according to City Attorney Lowe, were made to protect the innocent.

It is understood that the changes were copied from a similar ordinance recently

The Commission accepted the changes and had the ordinance City of Livonia and the first read 'by title only" because City Council, retired from his they had studied it in a special meeting of the Committee of the Whole.

This set the stage for Monday's meeting when the public areas far away from such things will be given the opportunity to state its views on the entire subject.

Penniman "Eyesore" Doomed

The final barrier in the removal of the Penniman Avenue "eyesore" was hurdled by the City Commission last Monday night.

The "eyesore" is the Davis property that has been standing idle, and boarded up, for some time, much to the consternation of the remainder of the business community.

The final barrier was cleared when no one appeared at the public hearing to protest the financial plan that calls for a special assessment of the other business properties on the Avenue.

Without such protest the Commission adopted the plan, but work of razing the building and laying the blacktop for a parking area cannot be completed until spring.

The cost of the project is estimated at $57,642.69, with the city paying $30,387.69 of that amount out of the parking

Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed as prohibiting the owner, lessee or sub-lessee of real property, or any person, firm or corporation concerned in real estate transactions, from exercising absolute discretion in establishing the terms and conditions of the sale, exchange, lease or rental of real property or in any transaction involving real property, provided such terms and conditions do not concern race, color, religion, national origin or ancestry. Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed as requiring an owner, lessee or sub-lessee of real property to offer said property to the public at large before selling or renting same.

Hearing Due To Set Mark

* Continued from page 1 will be discussed. We want everyone heard on this important matter. This is the reason the hearing was set as an independent action. We won't be hustling through to get down to regular business."

While nothing else has been scheduled, officially, after the close of the hearing Commissioner Arch Vallier stated last Monday that he wanted to take action immediately upon the close of the hearing.

"I would just as soon vote while the people are here," he said, "and let them know how we stand,"

Before a vote can be taken, however, the ordinance must be given its second and third reading.

Just what procedure will be taken has not been announced, but in the meantime, the Commission is expecting to play host to a capacity crowd.

The Stroller

They're playing a new game at the street intersections in the downtown business section and the Stroller came across it quite by accident the other

Getting to the corner of Ann Arbor Trail and Main Street, he noticed several businessmen crossing with the "walk" sign, then turning and shaking their heads in what seemed like amaze-

"We're trying to cross before the light changes," one of them explained, "and we just can't do it."

"We have started counting," he went on, "and we can't get above 'five', here or at the corner of Main Street and Penniman."

This interested The Stroller and he asked if this was a new problem, or something that had 'just been noticed.

"You see," the portly man explained, "they have widened Main Street and broadened the intersection. That's fine. It is what we have needed.

"But," he emphasized, "they haven't changed the timing of the lights."

With the widening of the intersection the pedestrian now has further to travel in the same time as before. This makes it a dangerous condition when you can't possibly get across on a given signal.

'That's why we're playing the game of counting while crossing. It's interesting-but dangerous.

The Stroller moved on to City Hall and stopped to chat with Police Chief Corrington about the failure to change the timing.

"We know it is a bad condition," he explained, "but the City doesn't have jurisdiction. Those street signs are under the jurisdiction of the County and it will be up to the officials there to order a change.'

So, the game of ducking traffic and counting still goes on.

THIS HUNTER IS DIFFERENT

"Doc" Herbold long has been recognized as one of the city's most ardent outdoorsmen, but this week reached a new high among the hunters. Usually, the returning nimrods regale you with tales of the number of animals they saw, or the fun they had even though game was scarce. But the good Doctor, who spent last week in quest of turkey in the outstate areas, was dif-

"I was just as glad I didn't get a turkey," he said rather smugly, on his return.

"In the first place, there weren't too many turkeys sighted. I understand there were only 16 shot in the state.

"But I did encounter a fellow who got oneafter chasing it for more than three miles."

"Doc" chuckled. "I wouldn't run three miles for one, so I am just as glad I didn't get any." At least, the attitude was different than you usually find.

INFLUENCE OF ALMANAC

Perhaps it's because the Farmers Almanac calls for some heavy snows during the winter, or just memories of being caught in a blizzard in each of the last two years, there's a run on snow removal equipment around the area.

We have never sold so many snow removal implements in a long time," the Saxton boys stated over at the garden center. "There's been a run on the latest model snow blowers and snow blades. Guess people don't want to get caught again." Well, each year the snow does get a bit heavier on the shovel.

HERE'S GOOD GUESSING GAME

For the past two weeks the DPW workers have been planting tulip bulbs in the various parks and islands around the city.

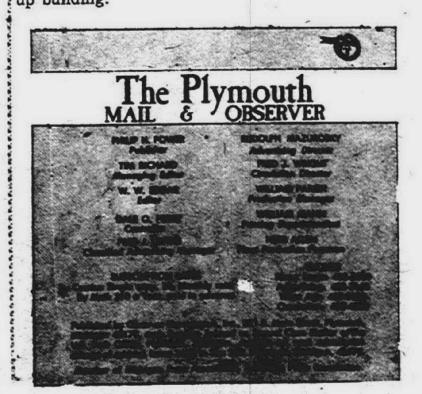

How many bulbs do you think it requires? The Stroller had no idea. So he asked Ken Vogras, DPW Superintendent and here's his answer:

"We are planting 4,000 tulip bulbs and in some areas they are being planted for the first time. This is true in the islands in the central parking lot. Other locations are Kellogg Park, the cemetery and the islands at Mill St. and Wilcox Road and Mill St. at Starkweather.'

THOUGHT WHILE STROLLING

Now that all legal barriers have been hurdled for the removal of the "eyesore" on Penniman Avenue, wouldn't it be nice if the city erected a sign at the Davis property telling the taxpayers that the building will be razed in the spring to make room for 22 parking spaces?

It would be better than looking at the boardedup building.

Open Housing Is Just Matter Of Keeping Two Promises

JAN. 1, 1863

FORGIVE US OUR DEBTS ...

EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION

On Monday evening a new page will be etched into the history of the City of Plymouth.

It will be done in the auditorium at City Hall when the City Commission conducts a public hearing on the proposed open housing ordinance.

The legislation was drafted at the request of the Plymouth Ministerial Association, the Civil Rights Group and the Committee for Equal Opportunity. These groups together with the City Commission deserve real praise for clearing the way for a rational and thoughtful discussion of a subject that has been buried, evaded and misunderstood for far too long.

WHAT IS THE open housing ordinance? What does it mean?

Stripped of its controversial and emotional trappings, it is nothing more than a means of fulfilling two promises which are inextricably locked into the blood of our coun-

The first promise goes back nearly two centuries to the founding fathers of our nation. It has simply to do with a pledge that America shall be the land of the free for everyone - not free for some and partly free for others.

This country has grown great because that promise has substantially been kept. We see no reason why America should now suddenly become known as "The Land Of The Free (In

Everything Except Housing, Of Course.)"

THE SECOND promise led to that Civil War which tested whether the very union that was the United States would endure.

It was made by President Lincoln specifically to the Negro people of America: That slavery should be ended; that all citizens, Negro and white, should be equal in the eyes of the law; and that no one should be deprived of his rightful place in every day living and the chance to enjoy the things that bring happiness to other folks just because of the color of his skin.

That includes living in a decent home of your choice.

THE PROPOSED open housing ordinance is very simple. It asks only that anyone (Negro, Jew, Pole, Italian, Irish-anyone) be given an . equal chance to choose a place in which to live and raise a family.

There is some evidence that Negro citizens are now denied this. right, while other citizens are not.

It is this that makes the issue of open housing an essentially moral matter. It seeks justice for all, not just some, and in so doing it strikes to the heart of the promises made by America to all her citizens.

Look at it this way.

If you were a Negro, would you want these promises that made America to be kept?

We think so.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Zander, of 1923 Marlowe, will celebrate their '40th wedding anniversary Saturday, Nov. 18.

A surprise open house, honoring the couple, was given by the Zander children Saturday, Nov. 11.

The public is invited to a kitchen-ware demonstration sponsored by the Plymouth Seroptimist Club, on Wednesday, Nov. 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the Plymouth Credit Union Hall.

Sally Childs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Childs of Hammill Lane, is the only freshman member of the E.M.U. field hockey team.

Sally was active in sports at Plymouth High School and is a physical education major at Eastern.

Mrs. James Jabara, Mrs. Roderick Cassady, Mrs. George Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Besse and Richard Blodgett were among the early arrivals at the recent Adams' House reception.

The Woman's Club benefit committee met recently in the home of Mrs. Herbert Brubaker to formulate plans for its annual benefit.

The benefit is scheduled for January 22, 1968 and will be held in the Westland auditorium. Mrs. Robert Taylor, chairman; Mrs. Richard Fritz, Mrs. Milton Pugsley, Mrs. Eugene Light, Mrs. Robert Gilmore, Mrs. Arthur Haar, Mrs. Lewis

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Harvey Troutman. Mrs. Charles Miller, general chairman of the Mart, heard reports from various committee members.

Mrs. Richard Newton, treasurer, announced that more than $900 will be turned over to the Fall Festival Board and more than $2700 will go to the Symphony League.

The three-day Mart, held during Plymouth's Fall Festival, had a record attendance of more than 3,400 persons.

Beauty Academy Opens Soon

Plymouth Beauty Academy, a new beauty school, will open shortly at 754-758 South Main.

The school manager, Mrs. Jennie Lee, who has been in the beauty business for 31 years, will have the assistance of two instructors, Dorothy Hondrich and Pauline Lipscom.

Mrs. Lee, a resident of Northville, formerly was partowner of Charmial Beauty School in Redford. Pivot Point International.

Inc., originator of the world wide Pivot Point System of Hairstyling, states that the new school will be exclusive to the Plymouth area.

The Pivot Point System is a new concept of hairdressing which applies the design principles of painters, sculptors, and fashion designers to everyday hairstyling.

This scientific approach, according to the sponsors, results in more creative styling, longer lasting sets and easier haircare for the patron between salon visits.

The school will offer special Mrs. W.R. Augustine, Mrs. classes in advanced hairstyling for professional hairdressers under the guidance of many internationally known ex-

A frame structure-just as vulnerable to flames as was Henry Marshall's Mill in 1868!

Mrs. Louis Norman, newly elected president of the Historical Society, put it this way, "The possibility of a fire in the building is one of our continuing worries and one of the club's goals is to obtain a fireproof structure to house the museum."

THE MUSEUM is the community's tangible evidence of the existence of the Plymouth Historical Society, a club that began in 1948 with 51 charter members and now has a membership approaching 200. "The Historical Society's original plan was to document the history of Plymouth through material gathered by its members," explained Mrs. Norman. Mrs. Norma Cassady gave inspiration and effort to assure Plymouth of a museum and Mr. and Mrs. George Burr, curators, played a large role in the museum's completion--as did many club members.

A STATEMENT OF CONVICTION

The purpose of this statement is to make clear to our neighbors, our convictions on the matter or race relations.

As residents of a community that is part of Metropolitan Detroit, we share the general concern in regard to the riots of this past summer. The increasing clamor of voices of ill will troubles us; and the hatred, fear and division in our society causes us great concern for the days that lie ahead. We believe that the roots of the problem of race relations in Greater Detroit are not only found in the increasingly Negro central city area, but also in almost totally white suburbia, and that this growing division of our people makes good race relations increasingly difficult.

We believe that as clergy, we dare not separate ourselves from the daily life of our community and that if we should permit this to happen, we would betray our religious and democratic heritage. Therefore, we publicly state our support of the following propositions:

1. Our fellow citizens have the moral as well as the legal right to purchase or rent a house anywhere without limitations based on race, color, religion, or na-

2. The churches and their members should lead the way in making sure that this right of every person is not violated in our community either by accepted practices or community prejudices. 3. Freedom of opportunity for all persons in housing, education, employment, use of public facilities, and enjoyment of the advantages our community offers must be supported and encouraged unequivocally now.

4. We urge that such support be given by the governmental agencies of Plymouth City and Township and by the Plymouth School District. And we further urge that our local citizenry support our representatives in taking such steps.

5. We pledge ourselves, and urge our church members and fellow citizens to welcome into their neighborhoods all responsible persons of whatever race, color, religion, or national origin. We stand ready to work with our neighbors along these lines to create a more desirable community for all. We would point out, as we make public our position, that these principles are the clear teaching of the several churches and denominations to which we belong, as well as the position sanctioned by the Constitution of the United States and the State of Michigan, the Supreme Court of the United States, and many laws passed by the Congress of the United States and the State of Michigan.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES - SPECIAL MEETING NOVEMBER 7, 1967

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP

The meeting was called to order at 7:38 p.m. Members present were J. McEwen, H. Richardson, R. Garber, G. Overholt, D. Lauterbach and L. Norman. E. Holmes was absent. Also present were R. Cole. Township Attorney, and Herald Hamill, Township Engineer. bach and L. Norman. E. Holmes was absent. Also present were R. Cole, Township Attorney, and Herald Hamill, Township Engineer.

The Special Meeting was called for the discussion of the Sidewalk Ordinance only. Attorney Cole had presented the Board Members with a copy of the proposed ordinance for their review and perusal and Supervisor McEwen then requested that the Attorney take over the discussion of the Ordinance as submitted. Mr. Cole recommended the adoption of an amendment to the Subdivision Rules and Regulations, Ordinance No. 13, which requires improvements such as Roadway or street grading, drainage including all required drainage structures, paving of all roadways, streets, alleys, street intersections including curbing and sidewalks. It was pointed out that this amendment is in conformity with the State Plat Act which becomes effective January 1, 1965. This ordinance would require that the subdividers make these improvements. Attorney Cole briefed the Members of the Board and the audience on what was to be considered in adopting such an ordinance. The determination for construction of the sidewalks would have to be made by the Township Board with the recommendations being made by the Director of the D.P.W. and the Township Eagineer. It would have to be determined where, who is to pay for the walks, specifications, whether the adjacent owners pay, or whether it will the spread over the entire Township, Owners will be given the opportunity to build their own sidewalks according to specifications, levels, etc. Attorney Cole referred to Public Acts of 19.6, No. 35, which is an act to provide for the construction of sidewalks in townships; to a thorize township boards to construct or order the construction of sidewalks; and to provide for the payment thereof.

At this time, it was the concensus of the Board Members that the processed ordinance be read for the benefit of those people attending

At this time, it was the concensus of the Board Members that the proposed ordinance be read for the benefit of those people attending the special meeting. Attorney Cole proceeded to read Sections I through XXXIII with comments being made by the members of the coard, as well as the audience, on some of the sections. Mr. Hamill advised that each case would have to be treated individually, but normally the sidewalk level would be built above the street level, the home would be above the sidewalk grade and this would allow the drainage to go to the road.

Discussion was then held on the funding or financing of Side-walks, once an Ordinance is adopted. It was pointed out that this could be done by Special Assessments which is to issue bonds in anticipa-tion of collection of Special Assessments or by a Township Improve-ment Revolving Account not exceeding two (2) mills.

Mr. Hamill and Supervisor McEwen both complimented Mr. Cole on the excellent job he had done in preparing the proposed ordinance. The concensus of the Board Members was that we should table the proposed sidewalk ordinance for an executive session at a later date. A motion was made to adjourn by D. Lauterbach and supported by Louis Norman. Supervisor McEwen adjourned the Special Meeting at 10:10 p.m.

What's Up Downtown?

When you think of suburbia, you don't often think of downtowns-or even rejuvenation. But that's exactly what's going on in Plymouth, Farmington and Livonia.

Farmington, the oldest of the lot, is at the beginning of a big commercial expansion. Plymouth's specialized merchants are making a comeback and the city is working on a traffic loop plan.

Livonia's problem is the most typical of a suburb. It has no downtown as such, but its far-sighted leaders are pushing a plan to develop a government-civic complex in the center of the city at Five Mile and Farmington Roads.

Here's a capsule report on what everyone's doing.

A Center For Livonia

It has been called "Livonia's Dream" and "Dream City."

No matter what the label, it will cost Livonia a neat $15 million, which may cause the dream to end.

The "it" is a plan to develop the heart of the city--the Farmington-Five Mile Road area--and to unify structures that will house city government.

Livonia is a city that sort of sprawled westward from Detroit rather than growing around a central cluster. Unlike the commercial downtowns of Farmington and Plymouth, Livonia's central city would be mainly government and civic buildings.

Besides facilitating the operation of government, such a plan would also have the effect of creating a kind of central city that would stir up civic pride.

It started last May when city fathers, planners and architects decided that Livonia's population was fast outgrowing present administrative facilities.

THE FINAL MASTER plan has evolved from three versions of a $9.2 to $15 million city center complex of public and private buildings to serve a population estimated to reach 175,000 by 1932.

Chopped out of original proposals, contained in the three plans, were a $3.5 million city hall, a $2.5 million civic center building and site beautification and site development totaling $1,200,000.

It left $9.8 million for street and highway improvements, $1.7 million for civic center land acquisition, $1.6 million for new fire stations, $750,000 for a new municipal court building, $500,000 for completion of an industrial belt, $250,000 for expansion of DPW facilities, $250,000 for off street parking and $150,000 for a new police garage.

Ultimately the city hopes to have all of the items that were in the "big" plan.

THE FINAL PROGRAM that will cost $15 million has been called "Operation Bootstrap" and will be put to a vote for adoption on the Nov. 21 ballot.

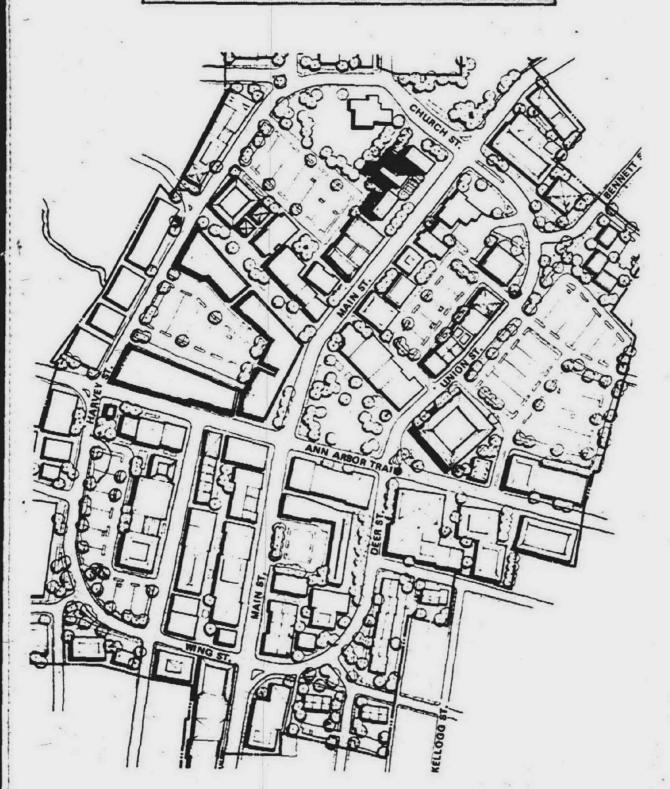

It is a large capital improvement program to get a start on projects the city needed five years ago.

A Loop For Plymouth

The City of Plymouth is looking for new

Recent reports about the city's central business district state that Plymouth has been stagnating the last few years and potential customer money has been lost to neighboring communities.

The most exciting remedy for the city's commercial headache is a proposed traffic loop that will surround the downtown area. Construction of the loop will cost in the neighborhood of $500,000.

ALSO IN THE WORKS for Plymouth is a beautification program which has already taken some shape in the town's Kellogg Park at Ann Arbor Trail and Main St.

Gas lamps have been installed in the park and decorative flower beds will be put in.

Parking lots will be scattered throughout the inside of the loop and streets will be removed and made into malls between stores.

The city also hopes to be able to convince a large department store to locate within the loop which should stimulate lagging competition between businesses.

PLANNERS ARE GOING to unify the section of downtown Plymouth along Ann Arbor Trail.

Programs that will lead to the goal of new business were the widening of two major streets for easier traffic access and the building of the new $600,000 city hall in 1963.

A Boom For Downtown Farmington

Farmington's downtown is due for a doubling in store and parking acreage in the next five years, city planners figure.

The downtown is due for a big shot in the arm when Federal's Department Store opens a new outlet on Grand River Ave. sometime next year. The store is currently under construction.

HEART OF the city is the southeast corner of Grand River and Farmington Rd., where the Downtown Center is located. The center is a cluster of stores ringing a municipal parking lot.

The Federal's store is expected to attract more stores—hopefully another department store nearby.

The center is expected to expand from the present 20 acres to some 35 acres in the coming half-decade.

The City is implementing a 12-phase program to make the central business district more appealing to customers.

Right now, the major portion of the program is establishing parking lots and thus ridding main streets of on street parking.

will soon be moved from the street to another municipal lot.

In general Farmington's future plans include:

 Redevelopment of the south side of Orchard St. into one or two large commercial operations;

 Construction of small office buildings on the west side of Liberty St. to face the new municipal building;
 Restoration of old Township Hall, now

4. First stage parking expansion of the north side of Grand River with the razing of the old Elks Temple;

5. Improvement of street connections which is intended to offer smoother flow of downtown

6. Renovation and remodeling of rear entrances where the stores back onto public parking lots.

When it comes to dishing out advice . . . well, there's "Dear Abby," or maybe Ann Landers, or the "Experience" column.

Leave it to the experts, we say, and an expert she was-the lady in her 50's who occupied the seat next to you on United's flight the other evening through the rain and clouds to Baltimore.

For several moments she just sat there and read . . . and you figured you were in for a dull hour or so. Then the pretty stewardess strolled past to check where each passenger was headed. Most said Baltimore. Our female partner declared "Durham" in the sweetest southern twang you'd ever heard. "Do you live in Durham?" we inquired.

"Yes . . . and the weather is sure much nicer than we had in Detroit this past week," came back the answer.

We admitted the weather had gone sour around Detroit and then we inquired: "What brought you up from the South?"

It turned out to be a convention on education placements.

"You see," she said, "I work for Duke University. Have you ever heard of Duke?"

Certainly. Hadn't Duke come up to Cobo Arena and defeated Cazzie Russell and Michigan in basketball? Hadn't Duke played Michigan in football this fall?

"Frankly, I don't know much about sports. I'm in the division which places graduating students . . . those with bachelor and masters degrees . . . and some have doctorates, too.

"I have been at it a long time, too, and what a difference nowadays compared to, say, 15 or 20 years ago.'

Why the difference?

"Simple, the demand for college graduates never was so great. I'm sure our youngsters in high schools hear about how necessary college is for getting better jobs. It's sure true.

"We can't supply all the needs of industry, of the government, of the schools. And it's the same at all the other colleges around the country." We injected a question:

"Suppose we were now a junior or senior in high school with college visions. What would you recommend our taking?"

"It doesn't make much difference, all subjects are good. But, I'd say that unless a man is going into a profession like medicine or dentistry or engineering, he can't go wrong by taking business administration.

'He always can hook on in a good job that way. The same holds true if he takes mathematics

"These are subjects which could stand him good stead if he wants to get into the vast area

ing thing." ANOTHER QUESTION by the gentleman at her right:

of computers . . . and believe me, that's the grow-

"Now suppose, I'm a teenage young lady, aspiring to go on from high school to college. What's good to take?"

"Well, to start with, if you want to qualify to teach, there are a million jobs for you. Pick any subject, you can't go wrong.

"The standards of teaching are 'way up. So are the salaries. Most teachers now start for around $6,000. They used to begin at half that.

"And, oh, yes, teachers have wonderful opportunities to spring into school administrative work and make good money . . . but it takes a little special effort on their parts.

'But if you don't want to teach, well, again there is math and economics for the gals, too. The computer business doesn't care which sex you are.

"Naturally, nurses are at a premium and we constantly are being 'hit' by the airlines seeking girls to serve in airplanes."

"Yes, it'd be nice to be young again," our friend said. "The opportunities ahead for the youngsters sure far exceed what we had available when we were their age."

Youth . . . it must be wonderful.

It all began on a fall day in November 1961. That was the start of what now has become one of the Saturday the schools met for the seventh time . . . and Ronald G. Holland has been there -- and a vital part -- of all seven encounters. Holland is the football coach at North Farmington. HE WAS IN a reminiscing mood the other afternoon as he walked through the halls at North Farmington and looked at the trophy case and the Old Yule Logs which the Raiders have won in the series.

There were moments, too, of touching memories when he fumbled through pictures of Farmington-North Farmington games of the past.

"Yes, it began there in 1961," Holland said ... over at Farmington High. "We only had tenth graders, and so we met their junior varsity team. We had a kid by the name of Jim Acitelli, who was to become one of our greats.

'That day Jimmy scored three times...or was it four? Anyway we won, 33-6, and the city series between our two schools was off 'n running in football."

BY 1962, NORTH Farmington now had eleventh graders, but the decision was made to face the Farmington varsity.

"We weren't supposed to stand a chance," Holland recalled, "Farmington had a real good team that year under coach Jack Hayes, But our boys came all inspired, I guess, and we won, 7-0,"

Who scored the only touchdown? Who else but Acitelli? In 1963, North had its first senior class and Acitelli was running wild. He streaked for three touchdowns, one from 20 yards out, and North won again, 18-6. As Holland recalls it, Ron Cleveland scored the only Farmington touchdown.

"The '64 game," said Holland "was the first one we played over here at North. 'It was have seen 'em all.

'The game ended in a scoremajor high school rivalries in less tie. But you can't take these parts -- Farmington vs. anything away from the Farm-"One time they stopped us on the foot line."

Keith and Wayne Johnson played for Farmington along with Bruce Charles and that also was the last season that Hayes coaches the Falcons. He resigned at the end of the season to enter the camping business.

THE '65 CAMPAIGN was. perhaps, the greatest so far in North Farmington's grid history. The Raiders went 9-0 and capped it with a 14-0 victory over Farmington. Against Farmington, whose coach in '65 was coach Dick Tyler, Bill Oldershaw scored first to climax a drive of 75 yards. Then Larry August went 35 yards off tackle.

Bingt Hansen, an exchange student from Sweden scored both the extra points with his nifty toe. Farmington made a major drive in the third period, got down to the North 10. "We stopped 'em there, and that was the turning point," Holland said. Jerry Tinkle was a Farmington star in '65. So were John Wilson and Wayne Johnson. In '66, the tide turned, Farmington, under coach Bob Mistele, rolled to a 20-7 victory.

CERTAINLY ONE play had to stand out...one game...in the series.

Holland agreed. It was the 1962 battle when North Farmington became of age.

'I'll never forget the touchdown Acitelli scored, It still stands vividly in my mind," said Holland. "When we won that one, I the individuals as Walter Mc-

'Flying Dutchman' Sparks Kickers

He's known in the official records at Schoolcraft College as Herman Johannes Doorn, Most everybody knows him as just "Joop."

Others refer to him as "The Flying Dutchman."

Doorn doesn't mind the nicknames. He's just happy about two things:

1-- That he can be attending a college in the United States. 2-- That he has been able to play his favorite sport of soccer in the states -- and it should be added playing well enough to attract national recognition. Joop, who is 21, calls Putten, The Netherlands (or Holland) home. He was born there back in April, 1946.

As part of the foreign exchange student program he first came to the United States in 1964-65 to spend a year at Franklin High in Livonia.

STUDENTS ON such programs can't stay more than 12 months.

So after his term at Franklin, Joop went back to Holland with the hope of soon being able to return to the U.S. as a college student.

A year later, he did. He had built up a friendship in high school with Rocky Barra and Rocky's parents in Livonia. Rocky wanted Joop to come back to Michigan and enroll at Schoolcraft College. Joop applied and was accepted, although it took some «digging deep» to come up with the necessary finances to cross the ocean, etc. Besides, it also meant that he would be away from his family for a great stretch of

When he arrived at Schoolcraft, many phases of the school appealed to him...especially the fact that the college was starting a soccer team.

THIS WAS the sport that Joop knew so well. It's the favorite of all Dutch boys, just as soccer ranks No. 1 throughout the European continent, He played a major role in the success story of Schoolcraft's first soccer team. The collegians won all eight of their games to rank among the national junior college leaders. Personal recognition also came to Joop. He was named all-second team. "I guess that's the greatest distinction that ever has come to me," Joop says.

on the National Junior College

His coach, Marv Ganz, feels that Joop is on the way to similar honors this year, Joop has been averaging better than two goals per game.

For a while, incidentally, there was some concern whether Joop would return to Schoolcraft this fall. Ganz had heard that the excessive finances might keep Joop at home.

ONE THING is certain, however, Joop will have to go elsewhere next fall to continue his education. He'd like to stay in the United States and hopefully Ganz may obtain a scholarship for his No. 1 soccer player.

Joop aspires to get a degree in business. He figures with his background in languages, he might turn to working internationally.

In addition to English and Dutch, Joop also speaks German fluently and doesn't do badly at French, either.

extra-curricular activities that appeals to Joop at Schoolcraft. He likes drama and last year played a major role in the school play. He hopes to do likewise during the current year.

player, coach Ganz says: "He's an excellent player.

He's got just fair speed but he's a whiz at ball control," There are three other "imports" on the Schoolcraft soccer team, thus making Joop feel right at home.

If you're a sort of municipal superman and diplomat, there may be a job waiting for you that can pay from $27,500 to $35,000.

It's a brand new job, and the bosses are taking their time doing the hiring.

So far, some 30 men have applied for the post--executive director of the fledgling Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments.

KNOWN TO headline writers as "COG," the organization covers the counties, cities, townships, villages and school districts in the six counties of southeastern Michigan. It currently has 70 members.

(A State Senate-passed bill would deny membership to school districts but as COG is presently organized, schools may still join.)

COG's enemies consider it, among other things, a step toward an undefined bogey called "metro government." COG's supporters argue that it is an association that will seek solutions to regional problems such as air and water pollution, unit purchasing, and planning.

COG is the product of a group called the Committee of 100, who in turn were stimulated by studies sponsored by an urban affairs foundation called Metropolitan Fund, Inc.

If you want to apply for the executive director's job, you would write to MFI at One Woodward Ave., Detroit. An MFI staffer there collects the applications for a five-member selection committee of COG leaders.

Schoolcraft Center

Secondary Vocational Study Is Broad-Based

tation of a so-called "secondary area vocational center."

Purpose of such a center would be to serve the vocational needs of post-high school students.

It could also serve high school students or dropouts, if member districts are interested in having the college perform that function. Member of the college district are the school districts of Livonia, Plymouth, Garden City, Clarenceville and Northville.

The college board recently outlined the study plan and set up two committees--executive Post-graduate work in coland citizens.

> IT PROPOSED a study which would have the following ob-

Go Back To School? Get A Job? Clinic Guides Women

BY MARGARET MILLER Women's Editor

Nearly 80 women who want to know more about both the world of business and their own potential are participating in a clinic at the Northwest

There has already been one drop-out from Project Selfstart,

"She dropped up--to a job," explained Christian Currie, of the "Y" staff. "I think the first day's conference gave her selfconfidence just the push it needed."

THE WOMEN come from all over the area for the full-day Monday clinics that began Nov. 6 and will continue two more weeks. They vary from. high school dropouts to college graduates, but all have in common the wish to learn the best use of their time at this stage of their lives.

In this, they received some valuable advice last week from Helen E. Kean, dean of women at the University of Detroit, and other experts, and more aspects of the question will be considered by future speakers.

To keep a continuity in the sessions, Miss Currie asked that women plan to attend all three sessions and not start

*But if interest warrants, we may be able to have another clinic in the future," she said, "We hope women interested will call Ke. 7-8500 and leave their WOMEN TAKING part in the first Project Self Start had assorted reasons for doing so.

"I've been trying to decide whether I want to go back to work," said Mrs. Paul Christensen, of Farmington, "And in looking through help wanted ads, I saw one for a figure analysist. I didn't even know what that was--times have changed since I held a job."

Mrs. Harry Clark, of Livonia, said she wanted to attend the clinic "to learn what is needed," if she should decide to return to work.

Said Mrs. Glenn Knight, of Westland:

"This came just at the right for 20 years, but my children can be on their own more now."

A widow of about a year, Mrs. Walter Hrycay, of Detroit, said her home was "rather lonely," and she thought she was ready for outside work. Her children are grown.

MISS KEAN made it clear that, while she believed a woman should always keep her mind growing, she certainly didn't believe that all should hold outside jobs.

"Probably for about athird of you it would be the right move to go to work," she asserted, "Unless you have the full support of your husband and your children, my advice to you is to stay home."

But she advised continuing education for three other reasons--to keep up a bit with today's "knowledge explosion," for personal satisfaction in

Stores Hire For Season

The Christmas shopping season will bring about a 24 per cent increase in hiring during the next three months, and 82 per cent of the nation's retail department stores plan to add employees during the fourth quarter of 1967.

-Analysis of the 25 major industries surveyed shows that, besides the large percentage of department stores forecasting increases, there were no sizable numbers predicting added employment in other businesses.

Sixty-five per cent of respondents expect employment to remain at present levels, while six per cent expect a decrease. Five per cent said they could give no valid predictions at this

Membership Tea Set By Garden Chib

Rosedale Gardens Branch of the 'Woman's National Farm and Garden Association will have a membership tea at 1 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 14 at the club house on Hubbard at West Chicago. Mrs. Everett Given is Chairman.

Mrs. Fred Muller will speak on "Happy Holidays." Mrs. Muller is a member of Garden Study Club of Northwest Detroit and Detroit Branch of the National Farm and Garden Association.

Mrs. Given and her hostesses for the day will serve tea and refreshments to the guests following the meeting.

"furnishing the mind," and to prepare for volunteer work, She advised that any women without a high school diploma get one, for her own and her family's satisfaction, even if she didn't intend to continue

In choosing a field for study or work, Miss Kean said, there is a value in apptitude tests. "But checking the great wealth of material in our libraries is even better," she added. "You can learn as much about various careers by reading books about them as you can by saying to a tester, 'Tell me what I should do.' " the business world, she advised: "Find the kind of work into which you fit well BECAUSE you are a woman, rather than in spite of it. Go into the job with the idea of developing the qualities that made you a woman to

CONSULTATION TIME--Mrs. Phyllis Liedkiewicz, of Farmington, and Mrs. George Coombs, of Livonia, attended the YWCA Project Self Start and found a moment for individual consultation with Dean Helen Kean. Other speakers and consultants in later sessions will give specific advice on further schooling and job possibilities.

ADVICE FROM AN EXPERT--- Dean of Women Helen Kean of the University of Detroit has started a clinic that is being sponsored by the Northwest YWCA for women interested in returning to school or the business world. Miss Kean told some 80 women the best way to pick up the threads of their educations is to find their best place in the employment picture. The clinic, titled Project Self Start, will continue for two more Mondays at the "Y" building on Grand River.
