Seek Safeguard Against Downtown Floods

City To Undertake Major Drainage Study

The City of Plymouth is embarking on a program to solve the serious drainage problem in the heart of the city and before it is concluded there is likelihood of controversy with Plymouth Township and the Wayne County Drain Commission.

During the past year, the drains were flooded in the downtown area and came dangerously close to causing severe damage. And the two and one half inch rainfall during the week before Christmas lifted the water mark close to the top of the bridge over Tonquish Creek on Sheldon Road.

It is to offset the possibility of a repetition and erecting a flood guard for the future that the City Commissioners agreed to embark on the program.

City Manager Richard Blodgett pointed out that much of the area has changed in the past few years with the population explosion. Many of the big apartment complexes are in the Township and the drainage now spills over into the city and the downtown area must bear the brunt of the result. Under these conditions the township could be liable, he said.

"New England Village", Blodgett went on, "is in the city and it, too, has caused an added burden on the drainage system. The new Ford plant hasn't added to the problem in that it has provided some sort of a system of its own."

"While we are at it," Commissioner Arch Vallier stated, "let's take a new look at the entire drainage problem, and discuss it with the Wayne County Drain Commissioner. Sooner or later we will have to make a plea for help—and we might as well get all the facts now."

As a result a meeting with the County Drain Commissioner is being sought during February.

The decision to attack the drainage problem came suddenly, while the Commissioners were in a discussion over a recommended street improvement program.

City Manager Blodgett had just presented a list of five streets on which he suggested that improvements be made. The list included:

Evergreen, from Penniman to West Ann Arbor Trail—pave and curb and gutter.
Amelia, from Farmer to Liberty, pave, curb and gutter.

Linden, from South Main to McKinley, pave, curb and gutter.

Farmer, Starkweather to North Mill, extend, pave, curb and gutter.

Ann Arbor Trail, from Hamilton to east city limits, pave, curb and gutter.

No sooner had the list been presented than Commissioner Vallier asked if any thought had been given to the drainage problem before the Evergreen project was finalized. "We could be in a bad way," he pointed out, "and it would be rather foolish to pave this area without solving the drainage problem first."

He stated that the flood plain was high during the last rain and the entire downtown area could be flooded if the rainfall ever went above the two and one half inches of the holiday period.

He also pointed out that there was a possibility that the proposed Senior Citizens Housing project could be endangered because of the flood conditions.

City Manager Blodgett assured the Commission that the Senior Citizens housing would not be effected because it was on a little higher plain and would escape much of the trouble in a heavy rain. He did admit that the site should be included in the forthcoming study.

Finally, on a vote of 6 to 1, with Commissioner George Hudson casting the lone "nay" vote, the street improvement project was approved with the proviso that the drainage problem would be given top priority before any work was done.

Under the terms of the resolution that was adopted the City Manager was directed to submit a report to the commission on proposed improvements, which shall include necessary plans, profiles, specifications, estimates of cost, and estimated length of improvement and a description of the recommended assessment district or districts and all other pertinent information.

A year ago, when a proposal was made to pave Evergreen, the abutting property owners objected so strenuously at a public hearing that the street was removed from the list.

The property owners informed the Commission at that time that they desired to keep the "rural atmosphere" with a gravel road.

JUST IN TIME — The Trilex Corp. plant on Yost Road in Canton Township was saved from what could have been a very damaging fire last Thursday afternoon because the nitric acid tanks in the foreground had just been emptied before the blaze was detected. For a time the firemen were worried lest the blaze spread. It didn't and no one was hurt.

Plea Repeated For Recreation

For the second time within a year Commissioner James McKeon has asked the City Commission to consider a city-wide recreation program.

Pointing out that his plea a year ago was set aside because no plan was available

Jaycee Project Delayed

Because plans have not been finalized, and the public had not been properly notified, action on the Jaycees proposed youth center at 190 Hardenberg has been delayed for at least two weeks.

Meanwhile, the City Commission has asked that all residents and property owners north of Pearl Street and east of Mill Street be invited to a hearing on January 15.

The Jaycee officials also were asked to have the guide lines of a recreational program available at the hearing and the building inspectors also will make their report on the possibility of converting the building for its intended use.

Planning Post To Mrs. Childs

Mrs. Mary Childs, wife of Eric Childs, 1439 Ross, has been appointed to the City Planning Commission.

In making the appointment Mayor James Jabara explained that she would serve the unexpired term of Sidney Strong.

prior to the adoption of a budget, he has asked that the City Manager set up guide lines not later than mid-March or April 1.

"If we can have an outline of a program and what it would require, in the way of funds," Commissioner McKeon stated, "we would then be in a position to set up a budget accordingly."

"Let's find out what other cities do and how a program is established. Then we can move with intelligence and get started on a recreation program that long has been needed."

The other members of the City Commission agreed and the City Manager was instructed to make the study and set up the guide lines.

One move in the direction of the program will be made within the next several weeks when meetings are held with the Township and the Plymouth Community School officials to seek their help in building the proposed ice arena on the high school grounds.

The meeting with the Township group has been set for January 16 and with the school officials on January 29. Both meetings will be held in the Plymouth City Hall.

Tax Payments Climb In City And Township

Despite the fact that the bills come due during the heavy shopping holiday season and the added fact that the weather has been performing some unusual stunts, the tax payments are pouring into both the city and township.

Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, township treasurer, stated she has received almost 50 per cent of the payments so far for all taxes collected by the township, and she expects to have the whole 2,000 before the deadline at the end of February.

Up to the end of December, $984,000 had been paid. This represents about 30 per cent of the three-and-a-half million dollar tax bill for the township.

MRS. HOLMES added that a lot of the mortgage companies have paid their bills early because they wanted to close their books as soon as possible.

The city is experiencing a much faster return percentage. Nearly 97 per cent of the bill has been paid already. $528,470.83 must be collected for 1967, and so far, the returns show that $515,760.54 has come into the treasurer's office.

The city is running true to form, because at this time last year it had received 97.8 per cent of the total bill for 1966. Of the school, county, and community college collection, the city has collected from its residents only 34.5 per cent of the combined bill which amounts to $1,751,039.99.

It had received only $604,342.47 up to the end of December.

THIS ALSO holds with last year's percentages at this time when only 33.4 per cent of the total bill was paid.

The school and county taxes usually carry a late penalty, if they are not paid by Feb. 15. However, the city council has lifted that restriction for this year and has given late payers until the end of February to pay their bill with no penalty.

In a former ruling, the state attorney general said that cities are allowed to charge a four per cent late fee on delinquent bills.

Water Report Delayed Again-- By Illness

The long-delayed in-depth report of the City of Plymouth Water system has been postponed again--this time because of illness.

The report had been promised by the end of the year when the lengthy study was expected to be completed.

"I can not make a report tonight," Commissioner Arch Vallier explained at the Commission meeting last Tuesday night, "because I haven't heard from the city engineers."

"I have been told that sickness in the engineering department has held up the work. But the report will be given just as soon as I get it from the engineers."

Later, it was learned that Bill Hampton, of the Johnson-Anderson firm, the city's official engineers, had been laid low with a virus for more than two weeks.

City Is Given Garbage Facts

With Commissioner James McKeon playing the role of a professor, the City Commission was given a lesson in garbage disposal at the regular meeting last Tuesday evening.

Tired of waiting for an official report he took it on himself to bring his colleagues up to date with the work being done with the City of Livonia and the comparison of costs between using land fill or an incinerator for the disposal.

Not only did he bring the problem up to date, but he projected the problem into the future with a series of charts and concluded that, in the final analysis, the cost of using an incinerator would be approximately four times that of the land fill process.

"According to the information I had at my disposal," he said, "the garbage and refuse in the City of Plymouth amounts to about three pounds per person each day. That is just about the national average."

"This amounts to about 20 tons per day," he explained, "and this increases to about 37 tons during the leaf pick-up period in October."

Commissioner McKeon then projected the problem into 1980. "As near as I can figure," he explained, "our high day in 1980 should jump from our present 37 tons per day to approximately 45 tons per day."

"In comparison," he continued, "the City of Livonia, which we have asked to join in a study, now averages 400 tons per day and by 1980 expects this figure to reach more than 700 tons."

SWITCHING to the comparative costs, Commissioner McKeon stated the present cost of garbage disposal in the City of Plymouth now averages about $1.25 per day.

"If we entered into an agreement with the City of Livonia for the joint use of an incinerator," he concluded, "our cost would rise to approximately $5 per ton--that is, if we were to pay our fair share of the cost."

No action was taken on the report, except to receive and file it.

According to the latest advice the present land fill project in Salem Township will provide an outlet for about four more years.

"After that I don't know," City Manager Blodgett stated, "but there a number of quarries around here that might be used."

Minor Fire Damages Trilex Co.

A minor fire swept through a small building at the back of the Trilex Corporation's plant at 44052 Yost Rd., just east of Sheldon Rd. in Canton Township Thursday afternoon.

Four fire departments responded to the Canton Township call because it was feared that storage tanks in the building that had just been drained of nitric acid would cause the blaze to become worse and spread through the entire plant.

After firemen arrived at the scene the fire was extinguished within 20 minutes.

There was no estimate of damage. The main plant, which is connected to the small building, had to be evacuated for an hour while employees waited for smoke to clear from the building. Work resumed an hour later.

Readers Like Wide Coverage

Our readers, eager for the details of the news, have been pleased with the expanded coverage we've been providing the last few weeks, and it is being continued into the New Year.

Crime laws are getting greater attention, not only from cities but from legislators and top state officials. Some of their ideas are outlined on Page 1B.

Gasoline dealers say they're going to pass on the one cent boost in the state gasoline tax to consumers — Page 4A.

Clarenceville High broke a rival team's three-year winning streak in the Huron Invitational gymnastic events. This and an overview of the sport scene are on Pages 2-3B.

Ice fishermen may seem crazy, but they're practicing a delicate art in something that resembles a yoga cult — Page 6A.

Who's getting married in the months ahead? The parents of the lovely girls have announced their engagements on Page 8C.

MAKING IT OFFICIAL: — The final official act in acquiring the downtown property to establish two new parking lots was taken last week when the city entered into an agreement for the purchase of the property. On the left Mayor Jabara and City Manager Richard Blodgett are shown with Mrs. Bernice Wiedman as she signed for the sale of the Wiedman property in the rear of the Mayflower Hotel. On the right Richard Blodgett, of Dearborn, is signing the agreement for the sale of the much discussed Davis property on Penniman Avenue. Work on the razing of the buildings will start early in Spring.

ACCEPTING PLAUDITS: — For the past three years Clarence Moore has been the champion of the fruit cake salesmen in the Kiwanis Club. This year, of the 1,804 cakes that were sold in the Plymouth area, 875 were sold by Moore. He is shown here accepting the praises of the club members for his work. The profits of the cake sale are used to support the Forney Clements Foundation in Ann Arbor, the 4-H Boys State program in Lansing and the girl and boy scouts and the YMCA.

Library Improves Service By Adding Modern Facilities

The Dunning-Hough Library added two important facets to its facilities in 1967 and now can provide expanded service. Added during the year were a microfilm reader and the library's use of a book rental agency.

Only a few magazines are available on the film right now, but more will be added as demand warrants.

The library subscribes to more than 150 periodicals but has storage space for only two years on back issues of the more popular magazines. The microfilm will provide all the necessary space that would be needed to fill dozens of shelves with old magazines.

WITH THE increased demand for the borrowing of best-sellers and current light fiction, the library has started using the book rental service which will provide more copies of popular books at any given time. In addition to the savings in book costs, the great advantage of this service comes when the books are no longer in demand. They will be returned to the agency, instead of taking up precious shelf space.

The library's circulation for 1967 was 136,748 books. The most popular book for the year proved to be "Everything But Money" by Sam Levenson.

OTHER BOOKS that were much in demand were: "The Arrangement" by Elia Kazan; "The Death of a President" by William Manchester; "Washington D.C." by Gore Vidal; "The Plot" by Irving Wallace; and "Rosemary's Baby" by Ira

Levin. Story time for pre-school children continued to be the most popular program, though there was good response to the summer reading program and the film series for older children. The record collection also was increased in 1967.

NOTICE

The Michigan Department of State Highways is calling a public hearing at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, January 11, 1968, in the Plymouth High School Auditorium located at 650 Church Street, Plymouth, Michigan.

The purpose of this meeting is to explain the proposed relocation of M-14 in Wayne and Washtenaw Counties between the existing M-14 terminus at Plymouth Road and the I-96/I-275 interchange in Livonia. It is proposed to construct M-14 as a full freeway facility with grade separations and traffic interchanges at designated points and limited access right-of-way.

This meeting is also called in accordance with Section 116c of the Federal Aid Highway Act of 1956, Section 128 of Title 23, U.S. Code. The meeting is also held to hear testimony of interested citizens regarding the economic impact of this proposed project upon the area and communities involved.

The Stroller...

Over in Kellogg Park the other day they were taking the Three Wise Men from their camels, loading them up in city trucks to be put away in storage for another year.

Yet, when the group sat down to lunch there was no mention of the Wise Men moving, such as there had been prior to Christmas when many folks wanted to know why they were moving — if they were moving.

No one seemed to care any more whether the Christmas lights on the poles along Main Street were lighted — or why they were dark in the first place.

Instead, what do you suppose was the main topic of discussion?

It was fashions.

Oh, no, not the kind you may be thinking about.

It was a discussion of fashions and trends.

"You know," my friend, the portly doctor said, "there is a lot to the old saying that if you keep a thing long enough it will come back in style."

Then he added quickly, "I'll bet that if the C&O would put on a commuter train to Detroit at reasonable hours, we'd all be surprised at the business it would do."

It was most surprising to learn how many around the table agreed that they would much prefer to take a leisurely ride on the train and taxi to their destination in Detroit, than drive and buck the heavy traffic on the freeways — or even along Hines Parkway.

"And I think more folks would make the trip to Lansing," another spoke up, "and we'd possibly get to see the legislature in action more often than we do now."

"It used to be fun to drive . . . it isn't any more."

"It used to be fun riding the train, too," one of the old timers cut in, "but we quit to enjoy the fun of riding in an automobile."

"Now, if they'd bring the trains back . . ."

Here's an aside to Buford Nash, General Manager of the C&O —

Are you listening?

BARELY ESCAPING EMBARRASSMENT

You'd never guess who was the most excited and nervous person at the recent social event of the season — the wedding of Cynthia Eaton and Edward Johanson.

No, you're wrong.

It wasn't the bride. Nor the groom.

And it wasn't the parents of either the bride or groom.

It was Carl Pursell, President of the Chamber of Commerce, of all persons. And he had good reason.

Carl was to serve as one of the groomsmen. He was to dress in white tie and tails and was looking ahead to an outstanding evening.

But, lo and behold, when the clothes arrived, only a short time before the ceremony, he noticed there wasn't a collar enclosed.

What to do? And on a Saturday evening!

He phoned several places. There was no collar to be had.

Then, a real friend came to his assistance. Bernie Morrison sent a messenger into Livonia and he returned — with a collar — just in time.

"Just imagine how I would have felt," Carl sighed, "if the collar hadn't arrived."

Talk about Horatio at the bridge!

Memories are made of things like these.

LAST FLING AT THE LIGHTS

Now that the Christmas season is but a memory, the truth about the lights along Main Street has come to light (no pun intended).

Richard Blodgett, the City Manager, who sometimes is at a loss for answers, pointed out that it was the fault of the Edison Co.

"The voltage along Main Street is too strong," he said, "and it blows out the bulbs."

"Remember, these lights are the responsibility of the individual merchant. That's why they are not all turned on at the same time and others are kept lighted — when they are working — longer than others."

"It could be corrected, I suppose," he went on, "if a transformer was installed — but this takes money."

And where city money is concerned, Dick is a Scrooge.

But, at least, you have the answer.

INTERESTING REMARKS HEARD IN PASSING

"When you can think of yesterday without regret, and of tomorrow without fear, you are on the road to success."

"The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing."

"Inflation is when you have money to burn and can't afford to buy matches."

Then there was City Commissioner James McKeon's slip of the tongue when he referred to the "Plymouth Chamber of Promise."

Well Rounded Recreation Program Needed To Help Curb Vandalism

Every time there is a new outbreak of teenage vandalism, a hue and cry goes up for more police protection.

Therefore, it was no surprise when the churches in Plymouth Township were stripped of loudspeakers and microphones during the holidays and the Christ Child was stolen from the Nativity Scene in Kellogg Park, that the cry went up again —

"We need more police protection."

There is no denying that more alertness on the part of the police officers would be of some help, but it isn't the real answer.

The best solution to the problem is to provide an outlet for the stored-up energy of the teen-agers. Give them something to do. Keep them busy. Get them interested in some activity and in many cases the problem will solve itself.

There is an old saying, "An idle mind is the devil's workshop," and the truth of the adage was never plainer than it is in this modern age.

Let's take an honest — and cold — look at the life of the teen-ager today before we go shouting for more police.

He arises in the morning, trots off to school, and save for a lunch period, is in the study periods most of the morning and midway through the afternoon.

Then what?

He leaves the school behind with nothing more facing him but one or two hours of home work. Mind you, this is about 3 or 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

What is there for him to do now? Where can he go?

What is there for him to do in Plymouth or in Plymouth Township?

We can't be naive enough to think that he will go home and study — or that he will retire at 9 o'clock in the evening.

He has five or six hours on his hands with nothing to do.

That's where the trouble starts.

He is a target for any type of invitation for activity. Oh, he might go ice skating if there is ice on the lake. Or he might go swimming, in the summer. But in the main, he is alone with nothing to do.

Any outlet for his energy often is grasped at a time such as this.

So, we have a responsibility to provide an outlet.

How can it be done?

With a well rounded recreational program. It can't be a hit or miss proposition. It's got to be a well rounded program under good and sound supervision.

It is the duty of any municipality today to provide this outlet. That's why you see baseball diamonds in the parks, along with tennis courts. That's why you are seeing more and more indoor ice rinks and roller skating pavilions.

Sure, the public — and private — schools provide a certain amount of this type of recreation. But the schools are kept open only certain hours of the day. The youth has no place to go when the schools close.

Cases have been known where the janitor of the schools, for example, refuses to allow the children into the building before a certain time or after an event — even to make a phone call in inclement weather.

So it is up to the municipality to provide it.

That's why there has been a tremendous amount of interest in the proposed ice rink on the high school grounds.

That's why City Commissioner James McKeon has been sounding an alarm for more than a year for a recreation program in the city.

The City of Plymouth, at the moment, provides none of the outlets for the teen-agers. It doesn't have a Recreation Committee, let alone a Recreation Commission. The Township has a recreation committee, but up to the moment, there is little evidence of its work.

Most of the effort to provide such outlets for energy has been provided by the Plymouth Centennial Committee and the Plymouth Jaycees.

One must remember that the City of Plymouth is confined to two square miles of real estate. There isn't a great deal of room for such things as tennis courts, baseball and football fields. That's all the more reason why a program should be set up — to make the most of what we have.

Give the teen-ager an outlet for his energy and chances are that vandalism and the resultant plea for more police protection will simmer down to a whisper.

At least, it's worth trying.

Oddfellows Get Trophy

John Oldenberg, Noble Grand of Oddfellow Lodge 32, recently accepted a district trophy awarded for the largest percentage attendance at district visitations during 1967.

District 7 visitation is scheduled Tuesday, Jan. 9 at 8 p.m. at Tonquish 32, 344 Elizabeth Street.

Tonquish Lodge 32 and Rebekah Lodge 182 will publicly install 1968 officers on Saturday, Jan. 13 at 8 p.m. at 344 Elizabeth.

Gasoline Dealers Pass New Tax To Consumers

Most retail gasoline dealers have hiked prices one cent a gallon to offset the increased state tax. Any increase in the retail price of gasoline at pumps beyond the new tax would depend upon price moves by wholesale suppliers, a number of retail operators explained. No price increase is contemplated at this time, according to one of the major wholesale suppliers.

RT. REV. ARCHIE Henry Crowley, suffragan bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, has been named the new president of the 800-church Detroit Council of Churches. He was elected at a secret meeting of the board of the council Dec. 14. The 61 year old bishop and former president of the Michigan Council of Churches will be installed Feb. 2 at the annual meeting of the Detroit Council of Churches in St. John's Christian Methodist Episcopal Church in Detroit.

STATE ATTORNEY General Frank J. Kelley said that the tentative passage of a stop-and-frisk ordinance by the Dearborn City Council was "hasty" and a "flaming" of the U.S. Supreme Court. The ordinance was passed unanimously on the first reading by Dearborn Councilmen Tuesday night. Final action is scheduled for Jan. 16. Kelley said that his office will take no legal action against the city.

MICHIGAN ATTORNEY General Frank Kelley said Jan. 2 that he believed the beer and wine license of the Grecian Gardens, 562 Monroe, Detroit, should be suspended permanently. The State Liquor Control Commission temporarily revoked the license Dec. 20 on the basis that owner Costas (Gust) Colacides pleaded guilty to five liquor-law violations.

RICHARD M. COOK, 38, deputy secretary of state, resigned Jan. 3 and will join the staff of the new federal safety agency in Washington. Secretary of State James M. Hare said he would name a successor within a few days.

THE FORD MOTOR Company raised its sticker price of its 1968 passenger cars by $23 to $32.40 to cover the cost of DETROIT'S MAYOR Jerome P. Cavanagh has canceled a study of the city's police department for three main reasons. Cavanagh said several factors contributed to the decision and among them were the imminent appointment of a new police commissioner, a reorganization of the Police Department and the length and cost of the study. The study would have taken three years and would have covered all phases of the police in the city. Arthur F. Brandstatter, director of the Michigan State University school of police, would have led the study but Cavanagh admitted that he and Brandstatter did not see eye-to-eye on many points of the proposed study.

GORDON STAPLES, 38, has been picked to succeed Mischa Mischakoff as concertmaster of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra when Mischakoff retires in August. Mischakoff, 72, announced his retirement last spring, saying he would devote himself to teaching in Detroit. Staples is now an assistant concertmaster with the symphony. He will be the seventh concertmaster in the symphony's 54 year history.

JOHN B. MARTIN, chairman of the Governor's Commission on Crime, said conclusions based on confidential reports by the State Police reveal that "organized elements" helped build a "limited incident of public disorder" in Detroit in the bloodiest and most costly riot in U.S. history. The conclusions also showed that failure of the police to provide enough advance intelligence information was a salient reason for the rioting exploded to tragic proportions. The findings were in a 10,000 word report released by the commission Wednesday.

FRANK J. KELLEY, Michigan's attorney general, has requested the state Legislature to allot state funds to supplement local police salaries by 25 per cent or more. Kelley asked for a law setting police salary minimums for cities on a population basis and paying 80 per cent of city required increases out of state funds.

UNITED STATES gold losses in 1967 more than doubled those of 1966, largely because of the devaluation of the British pound, the treasury said. It said its monetary gold stock declined during 1967 by $1,175 billion, compared with $574 billion in 1966. The treasury said $925 million of the loss came after Britain devalued the pound by 14.3 per cent Nov. 18. The move touched off speculation in London, Paris and Zurich, Switzerland and it continued until mid December.

THE 236 RESIDENTS of Dunreith, Ind., began returning home after they had fled when a train crash set off a wave of fire and poisonous gas. They were evacuated to other communities immediately after two freight trains carrying gasoline, cyanide, nitrate and ammonia collided. Chemical experts are checking waterways downstream from Dunreith for traces of gas which seeped into a creek and killed seven cows.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON chose Merton Peck, 42, head of the Yale University Economics Department, to fill a vacancy on his three-man council of economic advisers.

THE MASSACHUSETTS Senate voted, 20-15, on a roll call to kill legislation calling for a $41,600,000 stadium seating 50,000. "I'm extremely disappointed," said Gov. John Volpe. "We've got to have a stadium. There is no alternative now but to start encouraging private industry to build one."

DR. PHILIP BLAIBERG came through his first day of life with a new heart in "entirely satisfactory" condition, a Groote Schuur Hospital bulletin said Wednesday. The 58 year old retired dentist received a new heart Tuesday in a five-hour transplant operation in Capetown, South Africa. The bulletin said that Blaiberg was resting comfortably in an oxygen tent in a sterilized room. During the day he took glucose and water by mouth.

Hospital Built By Schweitzer May Close Soon

The rising cost of healing in Africa in 1913. Dr. Walter Munz, who took over the hospital when that Dr. Albert Schweitzer built Schweitzer died two years ago, flew to London recently to seek financial aid for the institution. "Unless we can modernize quickly, we shall have to shut," he said.

The running expenses of Lambarene have increased alarmingly. Flying modern drugs and vaccines into Lambarene airport from Europe via Gabon's capital, Libreville, is more costly than the faith healing of 50 years ago. As the country's living standards rise, the price of running the hospital goes up too. Each year Lambarene has been running further into the red.

As a charity, the hospital relies on private support. It receives no government grant. The old-time donors of Schweitzer's era were his personal friends and acquaintances and they are gradually dying off. Special projects have been trimmed for economy one by one. A half-completed plan to purify the water supply to the village hospital has been shelved although public opinion grows increasingly less tolerant of disease spreading through contamination. Vaccine campaigns for mothers and children in the ante-natal clinic and demonstrations about child care and malnutrition have also had to stop.

To cover basic running costs of the village, still more economies are needed. No one at present will give the exact financial figures of income and expenses, but these will come out at the annual general meeting of the World-Wide Friends of Schweitzer Committees in January.

In 1966, the United Kingdom Committee, formed to raise funds for Schweitzer's work, financed the purchase of At-tardi, 75 acres of quiet space next to the overcrowded, bustling old village hospital. To build new medical facilities would cost at least $1.9 million and the total sum raised here this year will be under $14,400.

For a man who opposed money-raising campaigns, Dr. Schweitzer was very good at reluctant publicity. Now that he is dead, giving money to a commonplace, bush hospital lacks the emotive appeal of giving to an eccentric legendary genius.

Dr. Munz has no scruples about fund-raising and has just spent two months in New York trying to do so. But his personality is as quiet as the great man's whisper.

Sherman Tank Retreats From Rosedale Barrage

Kids didn't appreciate it, and after seven years the Sherman tank that had seen service in World War II has been removed from Rosedale Park.

In fact, kids little and big did their damndest to tear apart the metal monster—a giant weapon that weighs 74,000 pounds, or 32 tons if you prefer it broken down.

It took a monster machine to pick up the war weapon and load it for hauling away to an Army storage lot. The equipment, for transport, is new and still in the experimental stage.

IN FACT, it has been in use at Fort Custer with another transport machine also so new that it broke down and its arrival from Battle Creek was delayed—while Army officials, manufacturing company executives and engineers, and Livonia representatives stood in the cold, awaiting the removal demonstration.

Livonia's Parks and Recreation Department got the tank seven years ago from Dearborn, where it had been on display. It was the thought here that the tank would be of interest particularly to small fry and teenagers who might see or use such fighting equipment when they reached military age.

It was also the belief that even adults might like to see the tank that was so effective in the wars beyond the Atlantic and Pacific.

MAIN IDEA, said John Dufour, superintendent of Parks and Recreation, was to provide a war machine around which Livonia kids could play—and which would stand up under the pressure.

But even the giant Sherman couldn't defend itself against the onslaught of obscenities written on the body which rested across the street from the Rosedale Presbyterian Church.

But, said Dufour, explaining the complaints of the Rosedale Civic Association, that wasn't all.

The iron monster became the target for youthful occupants of parked cars who threw empty pop and beer bottles, leaving the park scene littered with broken glass.

There also were those who threw buckets of paint on the tank—after Parks and Recreation crews had done a nice painting job in the spring.

It became necessary, Dufour said, to weld down the hatches, to keep children of varied ages out of the tank.

It became necessary, also, to cement down the massive 32-ton machine—although boy-power never could have pushed it away.

BUT EVEN WHEN the doors were welded shut, and there was no longer a way to get into the innards of the warpiece, kids dug beneath the giant to see what they could see.

It was a disgrace to the neighborhood, reflected the ill-manners of the youths who congregated there.

It was more than the Rosedale Civic Association could stand, and sent its members to the Parks and Recreation Commission with the plea that the tank had outlived its usefulness as a Livonia public attraction.

There was also the word of the church goers that the vulgarity displayed by the unthinking was not pretty to see, or read, that removal of the "blackboard" might remove the obscenity problem.

The commissioners agreed, took the story to the Army Tank arsenal in Detroit, where the process of unwinding red tape was begun, and finally completed.

DUFOUR said that a survey of surrounding communities brought none—in view of Livonia's experience—who wanted the tank for educational or display purposes.

So the Sherman has been taken away, perhaps to final discard. Memories remain, not all something to be proud of.

Ice Fishing: It's An Art And A Cult

By TIM RICHARD
Sunday Editor

With all the padding they wear, and with the number of outfits that are red, they look like plodding Santa Clauses or perhaps firemen on a space capsule.

The give-away is a small, home-made sled or a bucket, out of which protrudes a midget-sized fishing pole. The men gather in small clusters on the frozen lakes, and the wind, scarcely noticeable on land, picks up speed and bite as it slashes after them.

They're dedicated, these ice fishermen, because this is what they call "first ice," and now is when the fishing is best.

KENT LAKE, the meandering artificial impoundment of the Huron River on I-96, is a favorite spot. Access is easy on the clear roads. The variety of species is great. The setting is natural.

One popular spot seems to be off Hickory Ridge on the southwest part of the lake. Bluegills and perch are the chief fare.

The zealots head for the open spaces, however, and fish the deep water for the crappies—that speckled, slightly larger cousin of the gill who likes minnows (pronounced "minnies" by the pros). "You gotta be nuts to go out there in that wind," says one Hickory Ridge gill fisherman of the men seeking crappies on the windswept lake.

Look who's talking! Aren't ALL ice fishermen crazy? Can anyone be considered sane who tramps out onto a lake in zero weather and sits for hours over a tiny hole in the ice, often catching nothing?

Well, look at it this way. The guys who know the ropes usually catch as many as, or more than, they do in summer. The air is wonderfully clean — darn cold, but clean. There are no shop machines or office telephones going off in your ears. No one's yipping, at you.

It's a more solitary kind of fishing than in summer. Even with companions around, one doesn't talk much. It's escapism, of a sort.

The ice fisherman contends that because the water is colder, the fish taste better in winter. That's true — but it's a rationalization. It is not for mere laymen to try to probe the mind of the ice fisherman. Ice fishing has its own internal mystic; it's more of a cult, like yoga, than a mundane sport.

ICE FISHING IS as much like summer fishing as threading a needle with boxing gloves is like swinging an ax.

Ice fishing is a delicate activity. The pole is only a couple of feet long. The line is thin. The hooks are a fraction of the size of the standard hook. In summer you use a gob of worms; in winter, a tiny corn borer or mouse or waxworm, less than a half-inch long.

In summer, a hungry gill takes a voracious cut at the bait. In winter, he taps it, and you have to keep jiggling the bait at all times and watching the tiny bobber constantly to detect a nibble. It takes a fine eye and light touch to catch a fish through the ice.

If the basic equipment is cheap, the other equipment — mainly clothing — isn't. More varieties of equipment are on view on the western side of the state, where the ice fishing season lasts longer and the technique more refined, but there's plenty to spend money on around here.

Developed by the military, Korean boots, which are about the size of a deep-sea diver's shoes, are becoming standard fare. Hand-warming and seat-warming gadgets are gaining popularity.

The real scientists at this ice fishing game start before daylight and have gas lanterns in a box with runners. The lantern provides pre-dawn light and throws heat when you sit on the box.

ONE OF THE NICER things about ice fishing is that you don't have a lot of 12-year-old kids with 35 horsepower outboards slicing up the lake.

That advantage, however, may be disappearing. These little one- and two-man snow tractors, called sno-mobiles, are catching on and becoming more common on lakes. They sound like chain saws or machine guns.

But perhaps that's the way it has to be in the world's auto capital. A lot of guys get nervous when they're not around the roar of an internal combustion engine and the smell of gasoline.

A COLONY OF fishermen was on the ice of Kent Lake off Hickory Ridge despite the 9-degree chill of New Year's morning.

Golden Lesson

Locking your car in suburban shopping centers at this time of the year is a necessary precaution.

Anyone who doesn't think so might remember the story of W.D. Fenner, who learned the lesson under somewhat different circumstances.

Fenner, who is a 75-year-old miner from Grants Pass, Ore., told police in Sacramento, Calif., that he lost $6,000 in gold nuggets. He said the gold was taken from his unlocked car while he was inside a cocktail lounge.

Police asked him why he didn't lock the car.

They said he answered: "We don't have to lock our cars where I come from."

Stabbing Bond Is $100,000

Facing two counts of attempted murder, a 28-year-old Walled Lake man is being held on a combined bond totaling $100,000 as a result of stabbing two Farmington Township brothers at a New Year's Eve party on Drake Rd. in west Bloomfield Township.

The two brothers, Randall Ryan, 19, and Thomas Ryan, 21, of 21355 Farmington Rd., are listed as being in "good" condition in Botsford General Hospital.

Meanwhile, Fred Parkkila, who is accused of the double stabbing, turned himself in to police and stood mute upon his arraignment before West Bloomfield Township Justice of the Peace Robert Scott.

JUDGE SCOTT set bond at $50,000 on each count and ordered a plea of not guilty entered in Parkkila's behalf.

Examination in justice court is scheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 9. Parkkila is being held in Oakland County jail in lieu of meeting the bond.

The New Year's celebration took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Barr, 6551 Drake. Police say more than 50 persons were at the party, and when they arrived at 3:30 a.m., Monday there was evidence a large fight had occurred both inside and outside the home.

The Ryan brothers, home on leave from the Army, told police they were attacked by seven men outside the house, and witnesses say the seven assailants left the scene in one car before police arrived.

MOST OF THE guests were from Farmington and Walled Lake, police said, and the ages ranged from 19 to 29.

Randall Ryan suffered stab wounds in the back as well as a collapsed lung. His older brother received wounds in the back and about the head.

The police investigation also has revealed that a third man, Jack Watson, address unknown, was stabbed in the melee. Still another was reportedly beaten, while a cousin of Parkkila's suffered shotgun pellet wounds in the hand.

Township Building Hits High

Value of residential construction authorized by Farmington Township in one year's time reached a record high in 1967 of $12,299,761 for 484 new structures.

It was only the second time in history that the township had topped the $12 million mark for new homes, and erased the old record of $12,073,285 set in 1965.

Building department figures, compiled by Mrs. Bernice Myers, show that for the seven years of 1961-1967 permits for 2,831 new residential units have been issued in the township. Their combined value exceeds $56.7 million.

In value of all types of construction approved in 1967, there was a drop of about $2.5 million from 1966 when the township reached a record $18,197,165. Last year's total was $15,604,857.

A breakdown of the department's six categories shows these 1967 totals for the number of permits issued and their value, with comparative 1966 figures in parentheses:

New residences—484, $12,299,761. (496, $11,141,905.)
Industrial and commercial—24, $2,061,584. (31, $2,483,658.)
Churches and schools—3, $375,000. (5, $3,619,633.)
Additions—190, $627,524. (171, $664,528.)
Garages—101, $152,988. (122, $176,841.)
Swimming pools—31, $88,000. (30, $110,600.)

The pace of new residential construction has more than doubled since 1961 when valuation in this category reached $5,099,900, which at that time, was the highest in history.

In the same seven-year span, the township's industrial expansion has soared even a far greater degree, going from $194,000 in 1961 to more than $2 million each of the last two years.

Adults, Not Curfew, Answer To Livonia Teen Problems

Voters Get First 1968 Deadline

Great Books Corps Sets Leader Training

Stay Alert, Stay Alive Pedestrians Warned

The curfew is not the overall answer to the youth problem, Captain Robert J. Turner, chief of Livonia detectives, and father of seven, believes.

"SOME CHILDREN could stay out until 1 a.m. without suspicion; others couldn't. Parents could be the best curfew by declaring: 'Be home by 11, and mean it!'" he says.

He believes the best tools in the battle against youthful misconduct leading to bigger trouble are the schools, the parks and recreational department programs, and various leagues for young athletes to spend extra energy.

"THE GENERAL deterioration at home shows up on the streets," Turner declared. "Also at the drive-ins. Youth is rebellious, but what you see in trouble are the punks, with less than five per cent actively engaged in bad behavior."

"They don't like their parents, consider them stupid. They go through a phase. Parents come to the police too late to help their children, usually. They should have taken a firm hand when the child was three."

"Friends think I'm hard on my kids, because they do things my way. They can bring Johnny to dinner, Sally to lunch. That's the way we want it. I'm looked on as a policeman, and the children as a policeman's children. Mine are normal, but I'm not looking forward to the next five years."

"Parents give in too easily. They change their minds two hours after standing firm. I can't see some of the liberal approaches some parents take. Children don't learn all at once. They absorb and learn over a period of time. For instance, you can't give a kid a car suddenly. What the child does today reflects their training. Parents blame their associates. To some extent that's true. But they mostly reflect the home life."

"Being a parent is a 24-hour-a-day job, not two hours. But the percentage of children in trouble is much smaller than people think. Most children deserve a pat on the back like kids got in other years. Most of them are darn good kids."

City Clerk Addison W. Bacon today warned voters that the deadline for registering to cast ballots in the Feb. 19 primary will be 8 p.m. Jan. 19.

The clerk's office will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. on the final day to receive registrations from eligible residents.

Bacon said he will keep the office open extra hours during the period until the deadline to accommodate those who cannot get to city hall during the day.

still limited incomes and assets.

Cook said he expects Donald Garrigan, a field representative for the Chicago regional office, to discuss the garden-type apartments project with the commission at a meeting on Jan. 30. There has been an increased interest in this type of residence, Cook said. The project will be financed by the government unless private interests can be persuaded to make the investment.

All of the projects would be on 8.8 acres bought by the commission with funds advanced by the city and the Department of Parks and Recreation, but which will be returned when the projects are begun. The city advanced $27,516, and Supt. John Dufour $86,099, to pay $113,615 to the Charles C. Laatz estate.

THE ACREAGE is at Purlingbrook and St. Martins. Only 2.12 acres will be used for the first tower, but the rest will retain some of its natural beauty for the benefit of the hundreds who may live on the site. Walks and streets will be laid out, along, around and between the projected housing.

How soon Livonia can push the two remaining projects is a question, since Washington is diverting funds to low cost housing in riot torn cities. But there has been no stop order, just "preference."

Some minor changes were made in the plans for Tower No. 1, Jones said, to combat soaring costs, and any further delays can be even more costly to the government in the face of inflation.

Just when construction will start on the tower, if bids are approved and contracts let, will depend on the weather, Cook said. A likely date is March, for excavation work. The contract will call for a start within "reasonable time."

Cook said interest has increased among prospective tenants, and that enough applications are on file to fill two towers at the low rental figure based on modest income.

RETIREES who are better off financially also are making inquiry about the garden-type units which would have more space and rent for a figure higher than the tower rate.

Cook and his secretary have been checking the assets and income of the early applicants for the first tower to see who qualifies. But when it is up and occupied, there still will be a long waiting list for the twin tower, as well as an attractive list for the garden-type units.

The residences will be close to shopping center, library and churches, Cook said.

ON SATURDAY, Jan. 13, he said the clerk's office will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Voters also may register during regular business hours on Tuesday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and on Mondays from 8:30 a.m. to 8 p.m.

"We want to call the attention of all voters who are eligible but not registered to take advantage of these hours to qualify for voting in the primary," Bacon said.

HE ALSO URGED voters who have received suspension notices for failure to cast a ballot in the past two years to renew their registration by signing the card and returning it to his office.

Bacon said voters who have moved to a different address inside the city should notify his office of the change in address. Otherwise they will be required to vote in their old precinct.

Crime Laws Become Early State, Local Issue

Crime legislation is occupying the attention of Michigan administrators and legislators as the 1968 lawmaking and political year begins.

State Sen. George Kuhn, R-West Bloomfield, issued a public blast at the Romney administration's "obsession" with open housing legislation and "lack of adequate attention" to the crime problem.

Contacted by this newspaper for a reply, the press secretary for Gov. Romney and Lt. Gov. Milliken said no letter had been sent to Kuhn yet, but the spokesman added that the administration's position would be spelled out in the forthcoming "State of the State" message.

Sen. Kuhn, who represents Livonia, Plymouth and Farmington, renewed his bid for a "stop and frisk law," contending that it could cut street crime by half.

Meanwhile, however, State Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said the Dearborn City Council was "hasty" in passing a "stop and frisk" ordinance last week. "The issue will be decided by the Supreme Court in a matter of weeks, and I think it's premature and a little presumptuous for anyone else to pass a stop-and-frisk measure now," said Kelley, adding that he feels policemen, under proper circumstances, already have stop-and-frisk authority.

Kuhn predicted that if the Supreme Court rules favorably on the constitutionality of stop-and-frisk, Michigan's Legislature will pass such a bill in 1968.

Two reports on crime measures were made public last week—one from Atty. Gen. Kelley and one by Gov. Romney's Commission on Crime, Delinquency and Criminal Administration.

Kelley proposed school courses on law and order; state payment of 25 per cent of the cost of local police salaries; full-time prosecuting attorneys in small counties that don't presently have them (to be accomplished by two counties joining forces); subpoena and immunity granting powers for prosecutors (grand jurors have them now); extension of grand jury terms from one year to two; compensation for victims of crime; and a criminal usury law (charging more than 25 per cent annual interest).

The governor's 57-member commission proposed legalized wire-tapping (through court order, good for 30 days), a federal law requiring that gun sellers notify the chief law enforcement officer in the buyers' home state (aimed at Michigan residents' purchases of guns in Ohio); a ban on military-type firearms (bazooka and machine gun); and the appointment rather than the election of judges to fill vacancies.

Snowmobiles Banned In Wayne Co. Parks

The operation of snowmobiles has been banned in all Wayne County Parks.

The Wayne County Road Commission took action after receiving a staff recommendation that stated:

"It is the considered opinion of the staff that snowmobiling, while it could be a highly desirable recreation, would not be an activity compatible with the many other winter recreation uses of the parks."

Carroll L. Porter, Park Superintendent, told the Commission that the sheriff's office agrees with his recommendation and has offered to help enforce the ban.

Porter said his office is making a survey to determine if a regulated area can be set aside in the parks to permit a controlled and orderly use of the winter sports vehicles.

"We have received many requests for permission to operate snowmobiles in the parks," Porter said. "Our survey may show a definite need for an area restricted to this form of recreation."

Titans Face Duquesne In Home 'Final'

University of Detroit's highly-talented basketball team puts its 8-2 record on the line Saturday night against Duquesne, also 8-2, at the U. of D. Memorial Building.

It'll be the Titans' 11th straight home game.

After Saturday's game, the Titans will be gone from home until Jan. 20.

The Titans won the Motor City tournament last weekend and then followed up by pulling off a stunning 99-93 win over highly ranked Indiana.

Michigan and Michigan State open their Big Ten drives Saturday. The Wolverines play at Wisconsin and the Spartans at Illinois.

Next Saturday, it'll be Michigan vs. Michigan State at Ann Arbor.

Soccer Tilt To Benefit Loop Teams

A special soccer exhibition featuring members of the Detroit Cougars will be staged next Sunday (Jan. 14) at the State Fair Coliseum at 2:30 p.m.

Nine Cougars will join with other area players to participate in two 30-minute games against the Detroit Kickers and the Detroit Indoor Soccer League All Stars.

Admission will be $1.25 for adults and 25 cents for youngsters with all proceeds to be turned over to the Detroit Soccer League.

The Cougars will be led by their coach, Len Julians, who scored 150 goals during his big league career in Europe.

observing sports

To be honest, it's difficult to adjust. At noon you're swimming under an 80-degree sun in Hollywood, Fla.

A few hours later, you walk off a plane with your coat bundled up at Newark Airport, outside of New York. The thermometer reads around 20. There's snow and ice.

Still later the same day, more snow and around 15-degree weather awaits you at Detroit's Metro Airport.

You hate like anything to knock the old home front. After all, it's been good to you.

It's here that you were born... attended school... found employment in work that you truly enjoy.

But, oh, that cold. And snow.

It bugs you worse each year. There's no question, you're getting older.

Much older.

As you loll on the beach in Florida; you readily understand why so many of the older folk flock south to enjoy themselves each winter.

In Florida, they aren't chained to their homes because of cold and snow.

They complain down there when it's 50 or 60 in February. We'd relish days like that up here.

THIS ISN'T MEANT as a plug for the Florida Chamber of Commerce... but we wouldn't scream if they'd offer us one round trip ticket from Metro to Miami's International Airport.

Imagine sitting on a porch, watching the Green Bay-Dallas game with only a pair of swim shorts to cover your framework!

The warm weather makes it possible for sports to thrive in Florida... and, for that matter, out in California and Arizona... during the so-called winter months.

Some 50 feet from where we sweated while watching the Packer-Dallas game, kids were plunging in and out of a pool. And beyond that a few yards distant, an uncle of ours was trying his hand on a green putting green.

And not too many more feet away was the 16th green of the Hillcrest Country Club where, unless you sign up days in advance, the chances are you won't be able to get a starting time until late in the afternoon.

Tennis, horse racing, trotting, dog racing, boating, swimming... they all thrive at this time of the year.

And the Miami area seems to have become king for winter football... with such attractions on successive weekends as the North-South game, the Orange Bowl, the NFL runnerup bowl between Cleveland and Los Angeles this Sunday and finally the Super Bowl a week hence between the Packers and Oakland.

As if that's not enough, you whiz past the baseball park in Miami and Fort Lauderdale, and men are busy at work. Within a couple of weeks, spring training will be underway for the major leaguers.

Road Calls Pistons For Four Games

The road calls the Detroit Pistons again this week.

A four-game coast-to-coast and back swing began for the Pistons Saturday night against the New York Knicks in New York Saturday night.

The Pistons were bidding for their sixth straight win on the Madison Square Garden floor where they have lost only once--to Philadelphia--this season.

So far, the Pistons have downed New York twice in the Garden and posted single wins over San Diego, Seattle, Baltimore.

After the game in New York, the Pistons head to San Francisco for a game Tuesday, then play at San Diego Wednesday before re-crossing the country to play at Boston on Friday.

Then it's back home next Saturday against Philadelphia for the first of six home encounters in seven starts.

After Philadelphia, San Francisco (Jan. 17), Seattle (Jan. 19) and New York (Jan. 21) will invade the Cobo Arena floor with only a game on Jan. 20 at Cincinnati taking the Pistons away from home.

After the All Star game on Jan. 23 at New York, the Pistons entertain Philadelphia on Jan. 25 and Los Angeles Jan. 27.

C'ville Gymnasts Victors In Meet

Clarenceville High School's gymnastics team broke N. Farmington's three-year-long winning streak in the Huron Invitational Gymnastics meet setting the stage for the head-on collision of the two squads at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Jan. 10, in Clarenceville.

The invitational, held by host Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti had Clarenceville, led by Charles Morse, a former polio victim who climbed to the rank as best gymnast in the state, defeat N. Farmington 262.6 points to 245.1.

Trailing those two powerhouses were Kennedy of Taylor, Allen Park, Alpena, Taylor Center, Flat Rock, St. Clair, Rochester, and Dearborn.

CLARENCEVILLE COACH Chuck Thompson saw his squad win the team championship although N. Farmington won the state title for the last two years.

Morse, a senior, took first place in five events; all around, SERIES VETS

Johnny Podres, Jerry Lumpe, Dick Tracewski, Norm Cash and Eddie Mathews are the only Tigers to play in a World Series.

TRAVELER

Fred Lasher pitched for three clubs during the 1967 season and had winning records with all of them.

still rings, side horse, horizontal bars, and parallel bars. It was a typical performance for the youth who won five state championships and five league titles last year.

Other strong performances were turned in by teammates James McCammon, Barry Frechette, and Tom Paulson.

N. Farmington boys picking up firsts were Dan Erickson, trampolines; Terry Boys, vaulting; Duane Ortwin, floor exercise; and Dennis Spencer, tied for first in tumbling.

For Three periods, St. Agatha High's basketball team held its own with Wayne St. Mary's Thursday night in a Catholic League game.

Then Wayne lowered the boom.

Specifically, it was Steve Schwartz who did the damage. The score read 48-46 for Wayne going into the closing eight minutes.

But Schwartz hit six quick points while the St. Agatha players couldn't find the range. Before the period was over, Schwartz had made four more points and St. Mary's had salted away a 71-60 victory against the team from Redford Township.

St. Agatha Creamed By Wayne, 71-60

Full Schedule Ahead For Preps

ST. AGATHA led by 17-16 after one period, then fell behind, 34-31, at the half.

Jerry Miron caged 19 points for St. Agatha, while Chuck Costello dumped in 15 and Dan Sweeney 11.

Schwartz scored 22 for the winners and was followed by Mack Tiscopink with 17 and Bill Jazkoloski with 13. This is the week when all the prep teams plunge headlong back into action.

A full schedule of action is booked on the basketball front, along with swimming, wrestling and gymnastics.

Teams in the Suburban Six, Interlakes and Northwest Leagues all resume title action after taking a respite for the holidays from loop play.

BENTLEY, WHICH took charge in the pre-Christmas competition in the Suburban Six League and then reached the finals against Ypsilanti before bowing in the Christmas tournament, 52-50, invades Allen Park Friday.

Meantime, it'll be Plymouth at Belleville while Redford Union hosts Trenton.

The Northwest League features a pair of area showdowns--Thurston at Glenn and North Farmington at Franklin.

Another battle involving Overland teams will pit Stevenson against Farmington at Farmington on Friday evening.

Plymouth Police Set High Goal For Year 1968

By ROBERT CORRINGTON
Plymouth Police Chief

In any attempt to review the work of the Police Department in the City of Plymouth I must, of necessity, limit myself to the period from March 20 when I assumed the duties of the Police Chief, to the end of the year.

Over that time many changes have been made in our continuing efforts to keep the department as up to date as is possible for a city the size of Plymouth.

In enumerating the work of the department I would like to point out these facts:

We now have one officer with a completely trained tracking and attack dog that is usually on patrol with his master. We have had no use for the dog in the city to date, and hope that we never need him. He has been called to assist in other areas, though.

WE HAVE instituted a new system of reporting crimes, which is more in keeping with the FBI Uniform Crime Reports, and along the same lines have started different daily reports which will be a great help in keeping our other reports up to date.

There has been an increase in the traffic enforcement in the city. I insist that the officers enforce the traffic laws as diligently as they do any other law, and in some cases even more so. As I see it, the traffic problem and its attending accidents is the number one problem in this city, and I firmly believe that the only way that accidents can be reduced is for every driver that drives in this city to be firmly convinced in his mind that if he violates any of the traffic laws, he is going to get a ticket.

The knowledge that retribution will be swift and sure is the greatest deterrent to traffic violations that has been found.

The new Implied Consent law will be of great help to us in prosecuting DWI cases, and we have one officer that has been trained in giving the Breathalyzer tests. At present we are using the machine at the Livonia Police Department, and hope that we will be able to have one of our own in the near future. I have talked with the Judge and the City Attorney about the practice of reductions in DWI cases and have told them that I will not go along with any reductions unless there are very extenuating circumstances. I assure you that there are not many of those.

WE HAVE installed left turn lanes at Harvey and Penniman and at Harvey and Ann Arbor Trail to assist traffic in moving more easily and have removed parking in some areas for the same reason. We try to operate under the theory of the greatest benefit for the most people when we remove parking or otherwise disturb the status quo. We have purchased eight new riot guns, three gun racks for the cars, tear gas and tear gas masks, none of which were here in the past. All of the men have been issued riot sticks and most of them have been trained in their use. The others will be in the near future. All of the men are now armed with the Chemical Mace, which is the newest non-lethal weapon available to law enforcement officers. We have obtained two Walkie Talkies, which enables a man on foot patrol to be in touch with the station and with the cars at all times.

THE PLYMOUTH Police Department is now connected with the computer in East Lansing, by means of which we can check on the status of a subject or a car and get an answer in about 30 seconds. This is a great aid to the officers in the field, and about July 1 of this year we will be hooked into the computer in the FBI headquarters in Washington, D.C. which will give us national coverage instead of state wide. We are using a training program put out by the IACP, which is issued each two weeks, as well as our own training bulletins. Examinations will be given to the officers based upon the information contained in these texts.

I have been named chairman of a committee of the Wayne County Chiefs of Police which was formed to finalize a county wide riot squad composed of cities throughout the county to be called upon in times of emergency, either natural or man made. This work is now nearing completion, and we hope to have it wrapped up in the near future.

In the next budget, we hope to replace the old traffic signal at Harvey and Penniman with one that is double faced rather than single faced as at present and with the proposed widening of Farmer St. and its extension we will have to consider traffic signals at Farmer and Starkweather and also Farmer and Mill Street.

As far as projecting our services into the future, I can only say that my only aim is to give the people of Plymouth the best police department of its size in the country. It is a good one now, but we will not stop until it is better. We all want to make Plymouth a safe and pleasant place to live now and in the future.

Declares Dividend

Parke, Davis & Company's Board of Directors has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 25 cents per share. It will be payable on Jan. 31, 1968, to shareholders of record Jan. 8.

The dividend payout will total more than $3,723,000, and will be made to approximately 68,000 stockholders.

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP BOARD OF TRUSTEES — REGULAR MEETING DECEMBER 26, 1967

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m. by the Supervisor, John D. McEwen. Elizabeth Holmes, Helen Richardson, Ralph Garber, Gene Overholt and Louis Norman were present. Dick Lauterbach was absent.

Mrs. Holmes moved that the minutes of Dec. 12, 1967, regular meeting be approved as submitted. Supported by Overholt and carried unanimously.

Mr. Norman moved that the minutes of the Executive Session of Dec. 19, 1967, be approved as submitted. Supported by Garber and carried unanimously.

Mr. Overholt moved that the Board authorize the payment of the List of bills in the Grand Total of $12,952.59. Supported by Norman and carried unanimously.

City of Westland — Re: City of Detroit's increase in water rates and their desire to place the Detroit Water Supply System under the control of the Michigan Public Service Commission.

Following the reading of the resolution by Mrs. Richardson, Mr. McEwen advised that he had been appointed by the Detroit Water Board, with Mr. Remus, to discuss the rate increase with Mayor Richard of the City of Livonia, and he would recommend that this matter be tabled pending the outcome of this meeting. Thereupon Mr. Garber moved that the Board table this resolution. Supported by Mr. Norman. The motion carried unanimously.

New Business — Plymouth Heritage Apartment Company (12-4-67) — Re: Dedication to the Township of the Water and Sewer Lines servicing the Buildings on Heritage Drive, together with a right of access easement.

Following the reading of this communication, Mrs. Holmes advised that Mr. Hamill had recommended that a bond should be posted guaranteeing these lines for a period of two years. Following discussion, and there being no objection, this matter was tabled pending receipt of a recommendation from Mr. Hamill.

Elizabeth Holmes (12-15-67) — Re: Recommendation that Marie French be given a $200.00 Annual increase as provided in the Wage Progression Scale, to become effective the pay period ending January 15, 1968. Mrs. Richardson moved that the Board concur in Mrs. Holmes' recommendation for an increase for Marie French as stated in her communication. Supported by Mr. Norman and carried unanimously.

Paul Thomas (12-15-67) — Re: Revision of Electrical Fees.

Mr. Thomas, electrical inspector, in his communication stated that the Electrical Ordinance fees of the Township had been reviewed and found to be lower than fees charged in surrounding communities. Accordingly, to bring fees in line, he was submitting a list of proposed fees for electrical permits and inspections for the Board's consideration and approval. Following discussion by the Board and Mr. Thomas, Mrs. Holmes moved that the Board approve the amending Ordinance No. 11, Section 11.1 of the Electrical Code of the Township of Plymouth, in accordance with the list presented by Mr. Thomas. Supported by Mr. Richardson. Following further discussion on the publication date and necessity for grades people have submitted time to include the new rates in their bids, Mrs. Holmes amended her motion to include an effective date of March 1, 1968, for the above amended ordinance. Supported by Mrs. Richardson and carried unanimously.

Proposed Communication — City of Plymouth, A communication from Mr. Richard D. Blodgett, City Manager, asking for a joint meeting of the City of Plymouth Commission and the Township Board to discuss the construction of a community facility that will contain an ice arena, a multi-purpose room, and several activity rooms. Mr. Blodgett came before the Board, and in further explanation of his communication, advised that the project of a community center was conceived by the Centennial Committee; that the majority of people to be served by such a facility would be from the Township of Plymouth, but this would be shared by those participating in the project. He then stated that the main reason for their presence at the Board meeting was to arrive at a date for a joint meeting, a time that would be satisfactory to the Board members and the City Commissioners. Following discussion, it was determined that this joint meeting would be held on January 15, 1968, at 8:00 p.m. at the City Hall.

Annual Meeting of the Michigan Township Association in Grand Rapids, Michigan on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, January 10, 11, 12, 1968.

Mrs. Holmes moved that the Board authorize the attendance of any member of the board desiring to attend this 15th annual convention of the Michigan Township Association and approve expenses in accordance with the schedule previously adopted by the Board. Supported by Mr. Norman and carried unanimously.

Elizabeth Holmes (12-28-67) — Re: Approval to add $605.00 to the Weisman Contract to connect Elementary School No. 9 to our Sanitary Sewer on Canton Center Road, between Ann Arbor Road and Jay Road.

Mrs. Holmes explained the desirability of having the work done in this manner, stating that this was Mr. Hamill's recommendation too, and that she would move that the Board approve the addition of this amount of $605.00 to the Weisman Contract. Supported by Mr. Overholt and carried unanimously.

Elizabeth Holmes — Re: Engineer be authorized to prepare the Engineering and add to Weisman Contract, the changeover in Plymouth Colony and Sheldon Road Water.

Following discussion on the necessity for stand-by service while the changeover is being made and the necessity for drawing up of a purchase agreement between the City of Plymouth and the Township, and it being signed, Mr. Garber moved that the Board authorize Mr. Hamill to prepare the engineering for this changeover and the City Commissioners. Following discussion, it was determined that this joint meeting would be held on January 15, 1968, at 8:00 p.m. at the City Hall.

Resolutions honoring Herbert Smith, the former Building Inspector.

We, the members of the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees, do hereby pause to pay tribute to the memory of Herbert W. Smith, former Building Inspector for Plymouth Township.

Mr. Smith was born on March 17, 1906, in Buffalo and was a graduate of the University of Rochester and then received a Master of Science degree from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

His career of Public Service was short but effective. He was in a large measure, responsible for successfully preparing the Township to meet the impact of rapid industrial and residential growth through the Building Department.

Mr. Smith, in his own quiet and effective manner, utilized intelligence, tempered with deliberative prudence, in ably conducting inspections in the Building, Heating and Refrigeration fields.

His interest in local affairs and educational enterprises during his employment with the Township endeared him to all who knew and worked with him.

So it is with deep feelings of sadness that we, the members of the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees, do this day of December 26, respectfully honor the memory of Herbert W. Smith by passing this resolution to be spread at length on the minutes of this day's proceedings; and further

RESOLVED, that as an expression of our sympathy, it is directed that a suitably engraved copy of this resolution be delivered to the family.

Mrs. Richardson then moved that the Board approve the resolution as presented. Supported by Mr. Garber and carried unanimously.

Mr. Garber moved, that the meeting be adjourned. Seconded by Mr. Overholt. Supervisor McEwen adjourned the meeting at 9:30 p.m.

Approved: JOHN D. MCEWEN, Supervisor
Respectfully Submitted, HELEN I. RICHARDSON, Clerk

The Top Side Of Life

By Father Robert Schaden

WHAT I KNOW about Greek mythology could probably be written down and stuffed inside of a fortune cookie, but as we start through the pages of a new calendar one of those mythical gods sticks in my mind.

His name was Janus (I will not vouch for the spelling) and is supposed to be responsible for the name given to the first lap of this new calendar.

Janus was unique in that he had two heads enabling him to look forward and backwards at the same time, something that we might well do about now.

AS WE LOOK off in the one direction across the used up days and months it becomes evident that we have gained much. Perhaps our bank account is not that much greater than it was a year ago, and chances that our freezer is playing host to any more food than it saw last year are pretty slim.

But I do think that we are much richer when it comes to the knowledge that we have gained. Some of it we learned from books, but most has come by way of experience.

IF THE observation that we have more knowledge than at any other moment in history was true last year, it is even more evident as we wrap away the holiday trimmings and plow our way into 1968.

We did not pick up too many things in 1967 without paying for them, and the knowledge that we gained is no exception. Because of it we may be more confused.

But if ignorance is bliss, and I wonder about that, then confusion is the price of knowledge. It does, however, seem to be a price worth paying.

To kick it back a little further, it was only after having taken Reading I that we became aware of the bigger words and the tougher pronunciation of Reading II. Just think of all we would have missed if we had given up on "Oh Dick see..."

NO DOUBT the knowledge that we gained during the past year of musical minutes is worth much more than the plots and phrases of "Reading, Riting and Ritmatic."

Some of it came as a result of our successes, and some of it, no less important came by way of the mistakes we blushed our way through.

But no matter how it came to us, if we learned anything at all then it was as the song put it a few months ago, "It was a very good year!"

As we look off in the other direction, we might present ourselves with a question mark--What are we going to do this year with last year's knowledge?

Tell It To Glenney

My grandfather tells me that 1968 is a leap year with the coming month richer by one day. Many years, leap years included, have passed since I learned with typical feminine fascination that this particular brand of year enables the gal to propose matrimony to the fella.

What more wonderful insurance against old-maidhood, I thought, than the accepted custom of popping the question to any gentleman who happened to be available.

Now 'some' years later, I find through research that this custom is actually a law dating back to Scotland in the year 1288.

"It is stated and ordained that during the reign of her maist blisssit Mageste, for the year known as lepe year, a mayden layde of bothe highe and lowe estate shall hae liberte to bespeke ye man she likes; albeit he refuses to talk her as his lawful wyfe, he shall be mulcted in ye sum ane pundis or less as his estate may be; except and awis gif he can make it appear that he is betrothit ane ither woman he then shall be free."

My grandfather, who has seen a number of leap years as a widower, has escaped being "snatched" (as he puts it.) Should he ever be asked, the penalty for refusal could be a hefty "mulcted!"

MRS. MICHAEL EVANS of Dearborn Heights, the former Janellen Smith of Plymouth, was honored prior to her December 27 wedding with several bridal showers.

The most recent, a linen shower, was given by Mrs. Lois Jensen and Mrs. Robert Maurer in the Maurer home on Holbrook. Two earlier showers were given by Mrs. James Parrish and daughter Nancy in the Parrish home on Stonecrest and a miscellaneous shower in the John D. McLaren home on Roosevelt given by Cynthia McLaren and three other bridesmaids from Mt. Clemens, Roseville, and Ann Arbor.

THE NEW YEAR began happily for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas

Republican Women Hear Elly Peterson

Mrs. Roy Phelan, president of the Plymouth Area Republican Women's Federation, announced plans for an important luncheon meeting to be held Friday, Jan. 26 at 12 noon in the Mayflower Meeting House.

Mrs. Elly Peterson, chairman of the Michigan Republican Party, will be guest speaker. Installation of the new State Republican Women's Federation officers will highlight the program.

The luncheon coincides with a two-day convention of the Republican State Central Committee being held in Plymouth. This is the first political conference of this type to be held in the city.

Members of the club and friends are invited to come and bring guests. Tickets are available from Ginny Feld, GL 3-1448 and Sylvia Mullen, GL 3-3652. Pauline Penland is general chairman of the luncheon committee.

Sharon Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas of 6333 Beck Road, returned from Atlantic City with five awards won in a majorette pageant known as The Year End Nationals.

Sharon's four-day trip was made possible by the Plymouth Lion's Club.

Through its sponsorship, Sharon, who lost the sight of one eye when she was 11 years old, competed against 17 girls and won three first place awards.

MRS. JAMISON HAWLEY

Mrs. Jamison Hawley of 40807 Crabtree Lane, has a recipe for Sweet Potato Souffle that complements those holiday meals but also adds something special to an every day dinner in the middle of the week.

She usually prepares it when her family gathers in the Hawley home for Thanksgiving or it travels with her when a holiday is celebrated away from home.

The Hawleys have been residents of Plymouth for one and a half years and moved here after living seven and a half years in Wayne.

Mrs. Hawley loves Plymouth and the feeling of community spirit she finds here. Her two little girls, Kimberly, eight, and Sandra nine and a half, attend Tanger School. Mr. Hawley is the Assistant Principal at Vogel Junior High School in Garden City.

Golfing and knitting are two of Mrs. Hawley's pastimes. She also plays the piano for her own pleasure and when it was suggested that her family must enjoy her playing she said laughingly, "Whether my fam-

Welcome On Tap For All

Company coming? Unexpected visitors? You pay guests a compliment when you serve them a cake you baked yourself, your own home-baked cookies, home-made preserves with crackers, a favorite desert or punch.

These specialties have been saying "Welcome" for generations. They're all-time favorites.

GRASSHOPPER PIE

2 pkg. (3 oz) lime jello
4 T. sugar
1/8 t. salt
2 c. boiling water
3/4 c. cold water
1/3 c. green creme de menthe
1/3 c. white creme de menthe
1 t. vanilla
1 egg white
1 envelope dream whip or 1 cup whipping cream
9" or 10" chocolate crumb crust

Dissolve gelatin, 2 table-spoons sugar and salt in boiling water. Add cold water, liqueurs and vanilla. Chill until slightly thickened. Beat egg white; gradually add remaining sugar. Beat till meringue stand in peaks. Prepared topping, omit vanilla. Measure 1/2 cup gelatin mixture and set aside on the counter. Blend meringue and whipped cream into remaining mixture. Chill until quite thick. (1 1/2 hours). Spoon into chocolate crumb crust. Drizzle reserved gelatin over top. Pull spoon through to give zig zag effect. Chill until firm. Garnish with chocolate curls.

CRUMB CRUST:

1 1/3 c. fine chocolate wafer crumbs
1/4 c. sugar
1/4 c. softened margarine

Blend ingredients; press into 9 or 10-inch pie pan. Chill one hour before filling.

FROSTY STRAWBERRY SQUARES

1 c. flour
1/4 c. brown sugar
1/2 c. walnuts
1/2 c. butter, melted
2 egg whites
2/3 c. white sugar
1 pkg. frozen strawberries
1 T. lemon juice
1 t. vanilla
1 c. whipping cream, whipped

Stir together first four ingredients; spread evenly and bake in 350-degree oven 20 minutes. Sprinkle two-thirds of the crumbs in 13 X 9 X 2-inch baking pan. Combine egg whites, sugar, berries, lemon juice and vanilla in large bowl, with electric beater beat at high speed to stiff peaks, about 10 minutes. Fold in whipped cream. Spoon over cream; top with remaining crumbs and freeze. Yield: 12 servings.

SNOWFLAKE PUDDING

1 c. sugar
1 T. unflavored gelatin
1 t. vanilla
2 c. whipping cream
1/2 t. salt
1 1/4 c. milk
1 1/3 c. flaked coconut

Mix sugar, gelatin and salt. Add milk, stir over medium heat till sugar and gelatin dissolve. Chill until practically set. Add vanilla. Fold in coconut, then whipped cream. Pile into 1 1/2 qt. mold. Chill at least four hours. Serve with Crimson Raspberry Sauce.

Crimson Raspberry Sauce

Thaw and crush 10 oz. pkg. frozen red raspberries. Add 1 1/2 t. cornstarch, 1/2 c. currant jelly. Bring to boil. Cook and stir till clear and slightly thick. Strain and cool.

FAVORITE PUNCH

2 pkg. cherry kool ade
2 pkg. strawberry kool ade
4 c. sugar
6 qt. water
2 large cans frozen orange juice
2 large cans frozen lemonade
4 large Vernors

Dissolve soft drink powder and sugar in water. Add frozen juice concentrates. Stir until dissolved. Stir in Vernors just before serving. Makes three gallons.

WANT AD POPULARITY IS SKY HIGH!

103,621 INDIVIDUAL ADS

WERE PUBLISHED IN THE OBSERVER WANT AD PAGES IN 1967

We just have to brag about it a little, because if we didn't you might never know how helpful Want Ads can be. They must be helpful, or there wouldn't be so many thousands of them published each year.

It's a fact that Want Ads are the only kind of advertising successfully used by both business people and private individuals. The Want Ad pages are like a big department store, offering a wide variety of goods and services. That is why they have such high readership, and it is because of the readership that people who advertise get such great results.

If you are one of the few people who has never used a Want Ad, you most surely will have occasion to use one soon. You can advertise to convert something you no longer need into cash by selling it quickly, or you may advertise to locate a hard-to-find item you need, or you may even use an ad to hire an employee or rent a vacant property. There are hundreds of ways to profit from Want Ads.

Basketball World Awaits Battle Of College Giants

It's now two weeks away--the college basketball game of the season. Unbeaten UCLA with Lew Alcindor will face Houston with Alvin Hayes in the Astrodome in Houston before a crowd that may top 45,000, plus television fans. UCLA and Houston both are unbeaten this season and stand 1-2, respectively, in all of the major college rating polls. There's still no indication whether the game will be telecast into the Detroit area. Houston ran its winning streak to 15 in a row Tuesday by routing Michigan, 91-65. Rudy Tomjanovich had 20 points for Michigan, which finished its pre-Big Ten slate with a 4-5 record. Hayes had 31 points for Houston. A WARM WEATHER spot for future National Football League championship games?

NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle says he's all for it, and will take steps to avoid another game, such as last Sunday's between Green Bay and Dallas, played in minus-13 degree weather. Rozelle called last Sunday's weather conditions in Green Bay unfair for both teams. A BIG BOXING doubleheader, matching heavyweights Joe Frazier and Buster Mathis and a middleweight title bout involving champion Emile Griffith and Italy's Nino Benvenuti will be staged in New York's new Madison Square Garden in March. THE DETROIT Lions have upped prices for 1968 tickets. Reserved upper and lower decks seats are being hiked at $1 each to a tops of $6. Upper deck boxes, third deck and hanger seats are being hiked

$1.50. Upper-deck "Coaches Corner" seats and unreserved bleachers remain unchanged. QUARTERBACK Don Meredith of the Dallas Cowboys says he'll need two months before he decides to play again or retire. He has just finished the third year of a contract paid him around $40,000 per season for the Cowboys who lost to Green Bay both in the NFL's 1966 and 1967 championship games. A NEW CONTRACT has been signed by the NCAA and the American Broadcasting Co. to telecast college football games for the next two years. The package reportedly carries a $20 million price tag. Eighteen games will be telecast both in 1968 and 1969, an increase of two from last year.

LAWRENCE GARR, a Detroit, has filed a $300,000 damage suit against the American Bowling Congress, claiming he has been blacklisted from participating in bowling loops and meets. The Detroit Bowling Association is among the groups involved in Garr's suit. BILL BRADLEY, the former Princeton All American, will be out of action with the New York Knicks at least until next week. He was hurt when hit by an automobile last week. JOHN NEWCOMBE of Australia, the world's No. 1 amateur tennis player, has signed a reported $200,000 contract and will make his professional debut in a tour that begins in Kansas City, Feb. 1.

Lt. Miller Claims Bride In Georgia

Lt. Ronald Frederick Miller claimed Gayle Rabon as his bride in a Dec. 17 ceremony in the Lee Street Baptist Church, Valdosta, Ga.

A Renaissance cap of lace and pearls held her elbow-length veil, and she carried a cascade of white roses surrounding a white orchid.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Miller, of Westerleigh Road, Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Winston Rabon, of Valdosta.

The Rev. Ian H. Walker, officiated.

THE BRIDE wore a floor-length empire gown of delustered satin, with a wattle-train of chapel length and accented with a butterfly bow. The bodice had an oval neckline and long sleeves.

Mrs. R.S. Dee was matron of honor, and the maid of honor was the bride's sister, Winsty Ann Rabon. Debra Rabon, another sister; Kathleen A. Miller, of Farmington, sister of the bridegroom; Betty Bevis, of Madison, Fla., and Mrs. Ronald Tinsley, of Valdosta, were bridesmaids.

LISA HAGAN was flower girl, and Wade Connell ring bearer.

Larry W. Miller assisted his brother as best man, and the ushers were Frank Sinatra Jr., of Farmington, William Anglebrandt, of Southfield, Mich.; Lt. John D. Navin, of Burlington, Vt.; Lt. James Morgenthauer, of Valdosta, and Warren Johnson, of Valdosta.

Mrs. Rabon wore a turquoise lace sheath and Mrs. Miller a two-piece dress of aqua silk. Both wore orchid corsages.

After a Puerto Rican honeymoon, the couple will be in Valdosta until the end of February and later will live in Farmington.

MRS. RONALD MILLER (Gayle Rabon)

Viking Tour

A vacation with the Vikings will be planned for all interested Detroit area residents by the YWCA.

Prospective tourists will receive full information on this summer's trip to three Scandinavian countries at a meeting at 7:30 p.m., Monday, Jan. 8, in the downtown branch YWCA.

The three-week tour is scheduled to leave Detroit July 15 and return August 5.

Vacation with the Vikings, like all YWCA tours, is open to men, women, teens and families from Metropolitan Detroit. The all-inclusive package rate of $899 includes transportation, hotels, meals, transfers, tips and sightseeing. Requests for further information or reservations should be directed to the YWCA Program Office 961-9220, Ext. 65.
