FARMINGTON — An estimated $3.4 million for road improvements in Oakland County would be raised through a one-mill tax if the voters approve the request Aug. 6. If approved, the millage would be levied for a five-year period. The additional funds would be administered by the County Road Commission.

FARMINGTON — Residents of the school district will hear that a curtailment in the number of teachers, dropping of most athletics, limitations on bus transportation and the elimination of all field trips are just a few of the cutbacks if the four mill school increase fails to pass June 10. The complete program will be outlined to the residents of the district at a public meeting Monday night.

LIVONIA — Mayor Harvey W. Moelke has appointed four new members to the city's traffic commission to fill vacancies that have occurred on the seven-member board this year. All who quit gave personal reasons, and city hall called the resignations voluntary. It was known, however, that the mayor wanted closer cooperation by various departments, including police and planning, in solving the city's traffic problems and planning for the future.

LIVONIA — The Board of Education and a large group of employees — not including teachers and administrative — await a hearing by the State Labor Mediation Board, which impounded the ballots after an election to pick a bargaining agent. Officials said Teamsters Union Local 229, which urged the election, charged unfair practices by the school administration. The hearing will determine whether the charges are true. Local 118 and Metropolitan Council 23, AFSCME, AFL-CIO, have been acting for the custodians, maintenance personnel, and others.

REDFORD — Ellis Ross is back in jail. After arraignment on a township charge of possessing a stolen auto, Justice John Dillon set bond at $10,000 pending examination May 7. Ross, accused of shooting a policeman and robbing two banks, also, had previously posted $20,000 bond in federal and Dearborn Heights courts.

In theory, most Republicans and Democrats, economists and politicians agree that the U.S. needs an income tax increase to correct its drastic balance of payments deficit. But the details—and the political blame—are being debated in Washington, and area Congressmen are in the fight. See the Public Affairs page Wednesday.

CHIEF CORRINGTON

Corrington Resigns Police Post

Police Chief Robert Corrington, who came here from Flint little more than a year ago, has fallen victim to a siege of "homesickness" and has resigned. He is going to the little town of Swartz Creek, 12 miles from Flint, to work again for his old boss, Gerald Lyons, former superintendent of police in Flint. "I'm only going to be second in command up there," the Chief explained after submitting his resignation, "but what can a fellow do when his old boss calls—and I'll be going back home, too." * * * DURING HIS short stay in the City of Plymouth, Chief Corrington has done a lot of work. Through tireless efforts, he has built up the department to a point where it is considered one of the best in the country for a city of this size. More than that, he has been a force in the county law enforcement setup. At present, he is chairman of the out-county Police

Chiefs Committee, known officially as the Tactical Unit. He has introduced many new ideas in police work in Plymouth. And under his guidance, the members of the department have taken extra training in such things as tactical maneuvers and riot control. He also has brought the handling of modern equipment to a high peak within the department. Under him, too, the morale has been extremely high. When Chief Corrington came here in March of 1967, he was retired as the chief of detectives in Flint. At the time, he wanted to keep his hand in on police work and chose Plymouth as the proper site. Meanwhile, Mrs. Corrington, who held a fine industrial position in Flint, was on her way to retirement, too. * * * BECAUSE OF this set up, the chief spent five days each week in Plymouth and weekends with Mrs. Corrington in Flint. He had confided to friends that he was "tired of going home to an empty house every night." That, more than anything else, influenced his decision to leave. "I wasn't looking around," the Chief explained, "but my old boss just happened to call a week ago and asked me to join him again. "I thought it over for a week—and then decided to go back home." His resignation will be effective June 1. Meanwhile, the City has begun a new search for a man to take over the top place.

Commission Reveals Record City Budget

The first official inking of how high the cost of government in the City of Plymouth has gone will be given to the taxpayers on Monday night. They have been invited to a public hearing in the commission chambers at 7:45 p.m. when the figures of the record-making budget will be officially announced for the first time. Richard Blodgett, the city manager, hastened to explain that this will not be the final budget figures—but a submission of the city manager's proposed budget that calls for a two mill tax increase. Under the terms of the City Charter, the city manager must prepare and submit a budget. This is the point of beginning for the city commission to accept it or make any changes that might be deemed necessary.

approximately a half-million dollars. Much of the increase is due to the adjustments in salaries and the street improvement program which calls for expenditures of close to $200,000.

INTERESTINGLY enough, the public hearings on the street program—which involves Evergreen, Linden and Amelia—will be held on Monday evening, too, and the commission will then have some idea of how far it can go in approving expenditures.

The program calls for the paving of these three streets, plus the purchase of right-of-way and extension of Farmer St.

No work of a major nature on the city's streets has been done for several years, and it is the belief of the city manager that the work should be done now, to avoid higher costs later on.

The salary adjustments, too, are not definite as negotiations are still going on with the members of the Police and Fire Departments. The men in these two branches have asked for boosts that will bring them up to an annual stipend of $9,000.

These requests, plus the street program, and the other increases along the way have prompted the record budget that carries with it a possible two mill increase in taxes.

Police Chief Gives Warning

Plymouth City Police Chief Robert Corrington issued a warning to all motorists who have been given traffic violation summons by city police that if they fail to answer the summons as directed, a warrant will automatically be issued for the offenders' arrest. Chief Corrington added that this included anyone who failed to appear for traffic ticket violations as well. He said that the issuance of the warrant meant that the offender could be arrested at any time and any place.

Increased Teen-age Dope Traffic Cited

Marijuana and drug traffic among teen-agers and young adults in the northwest suburbs "is increasing alarmingly and you can get it anywhere if you're in the know." That was the disclosure of Livonia police which showed the problem now also involves Plymouth, Farmington and northwest Detroit.

As this is written, a 16-year-old is in a hospital where he was committed a month and a half ago following "a bad trip" on a hallucinatory drug.

Since Jan. 1, the Livonia Police department's Intelligence Bureau, which handles narcotics investigations, has broken eight dangerous drug rings selling amphetamines, barbiturates and LSD.

Gang members in the eight cases, including both sellers and suppliers, ranged in age from 18 through 26. They came from Livonia, Plymouth, Farmington and Detroit. The arrest of shoplifters in local stores turned up an in-

High School Given Fischer Scholarship

A new scholarship has been established for seniors graduating from Plymouth High School.

It is called the Leadership Scholarship Award and was set up through a grant from Mr. and Mrs. Gerald J. Fischer. On Sept. 12, 1967, Fischer, a member of the Plymouth School Board from 1960 to 1967, presented a gift of 10 shares of Ford Motor Co. stock to Plymouth High School. This was matched by Ford Motor Company Fund for matching funds.

Fischer requested that the award be established for the purpose of recognizing students who exhibit strong leadership qualities and outstanding scholarship while in secondary schools.

The annual award of $100 will be granted from this fund for the first time this year. The winners will be announced at the high school's Honor Assembly, May 23.

The fund will be administered by Melvin Blunk, assistant superintendent for business, and a separate account will be established as the Gerald J. Fischer Account of the school's Activity Fund.

Students are chosen for the award in three steps.

The Senior Class Executive Board, during the month of April, will select five seniors who have exhibited outstanding leadership in at least two areas, including but not limited to, music, class activities, athletics, extra-curricular activities and scholastic rating.

The president of the senior class will present the list to a committee composed of the high school principal, a representative of the high school guidance department, the chairman of the high school staff council and the chairman of the senior class advisors.

As the last step, the committee, on or before May 15, will select one person from the list of five as the recipient of the award.

New Brochure To Tell Story Of Plymouth

The story of the Plymouth Community and its attractiveness as a residential, business or industrial area will be told in a new brochure being developed by the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce.

The brochure will embody the history of the Community and point out the area's potential.

Carl Pursell, president of the Chamber explained, "This brochure will tell the whole story of the community and give us a chance to put our best foot forward in attracting industry, business, teachers, doctors, and other professional persons to the area."

The cost of publishing the new booklet will be underwritten by the advertising space that will be purchased by the business community.

Work already has started and the new volume should be available in several months.

Bank Robber Given Long Jail Term

Louis V. Piscunere, who was tried in Wayne County Circuit Court last month for the armed robbery of the National Bank of Detroit in Plymouth last summer, has been sentenced to 15 to 25 years in the State Prison of Southern Michigan (Jackson Prison).

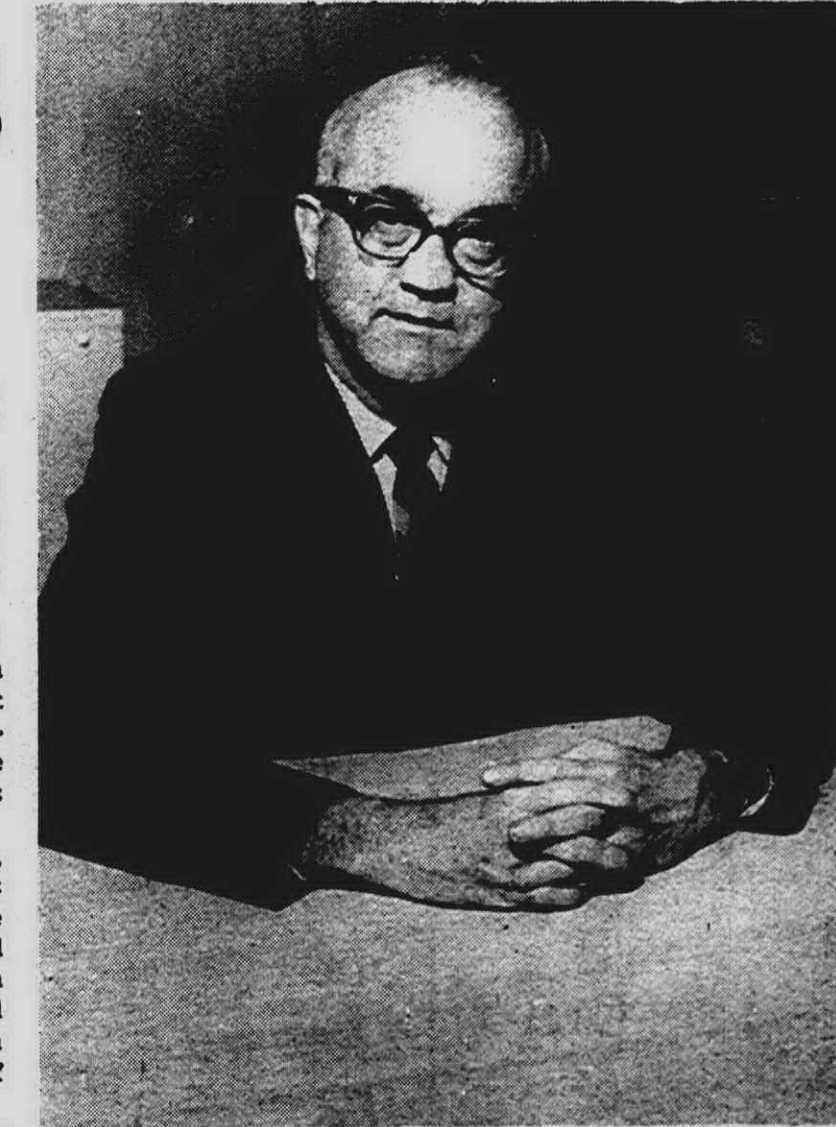

Piscunere was found guilty in a jury trial that lasted a week. The quick arrest of the robber was the first major police action taken by Police Chief Robert Corrington after taking over as head of the department.

What! A Taxicab Emergency

Sickness and lack of help have brought emergency conditions in taxicab service in Plymouth.

The emergency got its start when John Florence, holder of the taxi permit, became ill and unable to perform his regular duties.

Mrs. Florence then took over,

ROBERT K. BARBOUR

Barbour Takes Over Top Bank Position

Robert Barbour, a tall, pleasant slightly gray haired man who has been a familiar figure at the national bank in Plymouth for the past 16 years, will have good cause never to forget May 1, 1968.

To some folks it was May Day. To others it was Loyalty Day. But to Bob it was the day he moved into the front office as vice-president and successor to Floyd Kehrl who moved into retirement only the day before.

As he sat at the desk, the new vice president in charge of the Plymouth group confided that it had been a very peculiar day and one filled with mixed emotions.

"Certainly, I was thrilled to know that I had been chosen as Floyd's successor," he explained, "but I also had a rather sick or empty feeling most of the day—"

"It was the strangest thing when I walked in here this morning and saw the desk that Floyd had used for so many years, cleared and his familiar name plate missing from the door. "Somehow, things just didn't seem right without him around."

Being named vice president marked the peak of a career with the bank that began 16 years ago when he left the employ of the Burroughs Corporation where he had been an accountant for 11 years.

Bob laughingly recalled that he had attended seven colleges before he graduated from the University of Detroit in 1953.

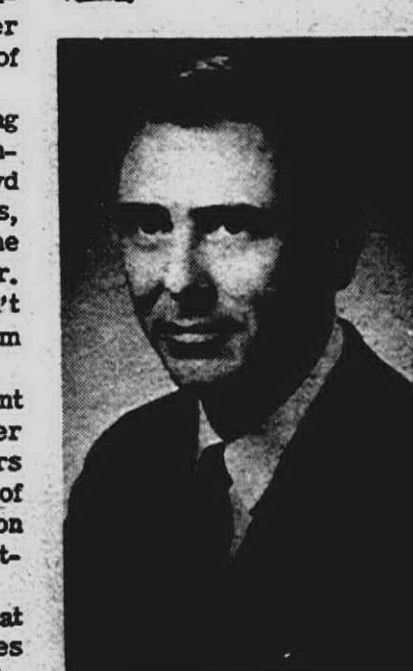

"I don't know of any other bank official who attended so many schools on the way up the ladder. But I had to run up a list like that because I had to attend classes at night and had to go where I could be accommodated. What's more, I attended classes over a period of 14 years—from 1939 to 1953—before I attained the goal I wanted. This was graduation.

Bob began his banking career on Oct. 1, 1951 with the old First National Bank of Plymouth. Four years later, on December 7, 1955, he was named assistant cashier and on December 12, 1958, he moved to assistant vice-president and top aide to Floyd Kehrl, who was "Mr. Banking" in Plymouth.

"Working with Floyd was a real education," Bob remarked as he fondled the papers on his new desk. He was a very shrewd, but very fair man in all his dealings and he certainly prepared me for a job like this."

The new vice-president is married a lives at 478 Arthur. He and Mrs. Barbour have a daughter who is a senior at Allegheny College in Pennsylvania.

STEWART ASHLEE, of Plymouth recently was elected to the position of Assistant Secretary-Treasurer for American Community Mutual Insurance Co. He will be in charge of all facets of individual underwriting, new business department and policyholders' service department.

Commission has authorized Richard Blodgett, the city manager, to arrange for emergency service, but only under the terms of the ordinance.

These terms call for such things as large photographs and medical examinations. Those who are willing to provide emergency service don't want to meet these terms—just for an emergency.

High School Students Await Annual Elections

All last week, the corridors of Plymouth High School were festooned with imaginative and colorful posters urging students to vote for class officers, student council positions and officers.

City Offers Special Plan For Rubbish

The City of Plymouth Department of Public Works is offering a special rubbish pickup service to all city residences during Plymouth's annual Clean-Up Week, announced DPW Director Kenneth Vogras.

Clean-Up Week is designated from May 6 to 10.

Vogras said during this week the DPW will pickup all kinds of rubbish except building materials.

He explained that this was especially designed to help residents get rid of rubbish which is not acceptable for normal weekly refuse pickup.

"The department asks that residents place their rubbish along the curb in front of their house. A neat and stable rubbish pile is important because the rubbish may not be picked up on the same day it is put out," he said.

"It is also recommended that residents put out their rubbish not earlier than Sunday evening, May 5, and not later than Thursday evening, May 9. Rubbish put out in front of houses by Thursday, May 9, in any part of the city will be picked up by the department."

Vogras added, "Rubbish which might be harmful to children or animals should be placed in suitable containers on the curb. Refrigerators and other objects with doors and lids should be securely tied or removed, or latches should be destroyed to make them safe to set out at the curb."

State Police Here On Drive For Safety

The Michigan State Police were in Plymouth last week--but they were not here for the purpose of arresting anyone. Four officers were camped in front of Burroughs Corp. on Plymouth Road conducting auto safety checks on the cars of passing motorists.

Cpl. James E. Echols explained that State Police safety teams were checking vehicles to see if their equipment complies with the state law.

He mentioned that this was being done in the interest of preventing accidents.

Cpl. Echols said that his team was not picking on older model cars as some people might have suspected because even a brand new auto could be faulty.

The safety team checked such items as the glass, lights, horn, steering, brakes, tires, exhaust, driver's license, registration and insurance of the driver.

The teams stop in one place for one day only and then they move on to another location.

Cpl. Echols, asked where his team would be headed next, said that that was a secret.

The elections were kicked off on April 8 when homeroom representatives and their alternates were chosen to represent homerooms in future election meetings.

The candidates were given one week to cajole and implore their fellow classmates to vote for them. The Stroller...

If you ever find that the world about you is becoming too complex and you are in need of a pleasant visit or a good laugh it would be rewarding to drop in the Plymouth Township Hall and visit with Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, the Township Treasurer.

The Stroller happened in there the other morning — not that the world was becoming too complex or that he needed a laugh — just to make a social call, and found her in the act of cleaning out some of the files along the rear wall of her office.

"What are you doing?" The Stroller asked, "getting ready to place some precious material in the archives?"

The Stylish stout keeper of the funds chuckled, as is her wont, and answered—

"Archives — the Township doesn't have any. Many folks who have been around here much longer than me, never heard of any, either."

With that as a starter she came to the counter and went into matters in greater detail.

"I just got back from a short vacation in Washington," she explained. "We had a hectic winter and after you get through the tax rolls and some of the other things around here you need a vacation."

"Now, I'm back—and just cleaning things up for a fresh start."

Then, as though she was attempting to get in the first question and take the initiative in the visit, she asked, "What's new?"

After discussing some of the area events for a short time she cut in—

SCHOOL NAMES ARE PUZZLING

"Archives aren't the only thing I'd like to know about," she remarked with a sly smile.

"I'd like to know how our school officials arrive at some of the names they are placing on buildings and grounds—and I imagine some other folks are wondering, too."

Before she could get an answer, Mrs. Holmes went into deeper detail.

"They're calling the new school grounds Centennial Park. Why? Whose centennial is it? If they mean the City of Plymouth Centennial why are they naming a plot of ground in Canton Township in its honor?"

Without stopping for breath she went on—

"And another thing — the school names. Why call Middle School #3 'Pioneer'? It's a big, modern school with all of the latest designs and equipment — there's nothing pioneer about it."

The Stroller just stood and listened. He wasn't given time to try to answer.

"If we have Junior High East and Junior High West," Mrs. Holmes asked, "then why not Junior High South? It would make a lot more sense — at least to me."

And so she went on, smiling and talking, as carefree as ever.

The one thing about a visit to Township Hall anytime is the fact that the "Twins" — Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Helen Richardson, the Township Clerk — impress you with their lighthearted devotion to duty. They mix competence with a smile and do an outstanding job of it.

If ever such a thing as unification of Plymouth governments is accomplished, a place should be reserved for them.

They'd be an asset anywhere.

THE DANCING COWBOY

While on the visit to the Township Hall, The Stroller dropped in to see "Little Jack" McEwen, the supervisor — and got another laugh.

Asked if he thought pressure would be brought to bear on him for such things as Open Housing, he answered—

"I don't think they'll make it hot for me — and if they do I won't be as hot as I was once before in my life."

Asked to explain, he answered, "Back in my youth, when I was about 16 years old," he said with a grin, "I decided I'd like to be a cowboy. Most every kid does, I guess. But I was serious."

"Then I got a chance to try it. I was invited to a dance downtown, and went dressed as a cowboy. I never was so hot in my life. I nearly died."

Almost doubling over in laughter, he concluded:

"No matter how hot they try to make it for me on this job, I'll never be as hot as I was the night I was a dancing cowboy."

THOUGHTS WHILE STROLLING

Whatever became of the bit of Plymouth Rock that was presented to the city by the Lord Mayor of England last summer? It was supposed to have been put on display — but The Stroller couldn't find it.

Elaborate plans had been made to have it installed in the wall between City Hall and the Library. It isn't there.

And what about the plans for the big fountain in Kellogg Park? The club women in the city, at one time, claimed it was just about a certainty. Wonder what happened.

Taxes! Taxes! Time Has Arrived For Public To Take Voice In Spending

The grand old game of stretching the American dollar is going on apace in the Plymouth area and how long it will continue before something gives is one of the main topics wherever the townsfolk gather.

Just how far it can be stretched is the question on most people's minds — and for some very good reasons.

Within the past few days the Board of Education announced that it would go to the people in June and ask for approval of an $11 million bond issue that would necessitate a raise of 4.20 mills in taxes.

This will be aside from the use of the one mill that had been voted some time ago, but held in abeyance.

This news was bad enough — but it became even more of a blow with the word that the money was needed just to maintain education at the present level.

All this money — just to keep our heads above water!

MEANWHILE, THE CITY Commission is wrestling with the annual budget that is almost certain to call for a raise of two mills in taxes.

And aside from this, the Wayne County Bureau of Taxation has announced the equalizing factor which will give the tax bill in the city another boost.

As a result, the taxpayer is being hit from three sides and has every reason to ask: "Where will it stop?"

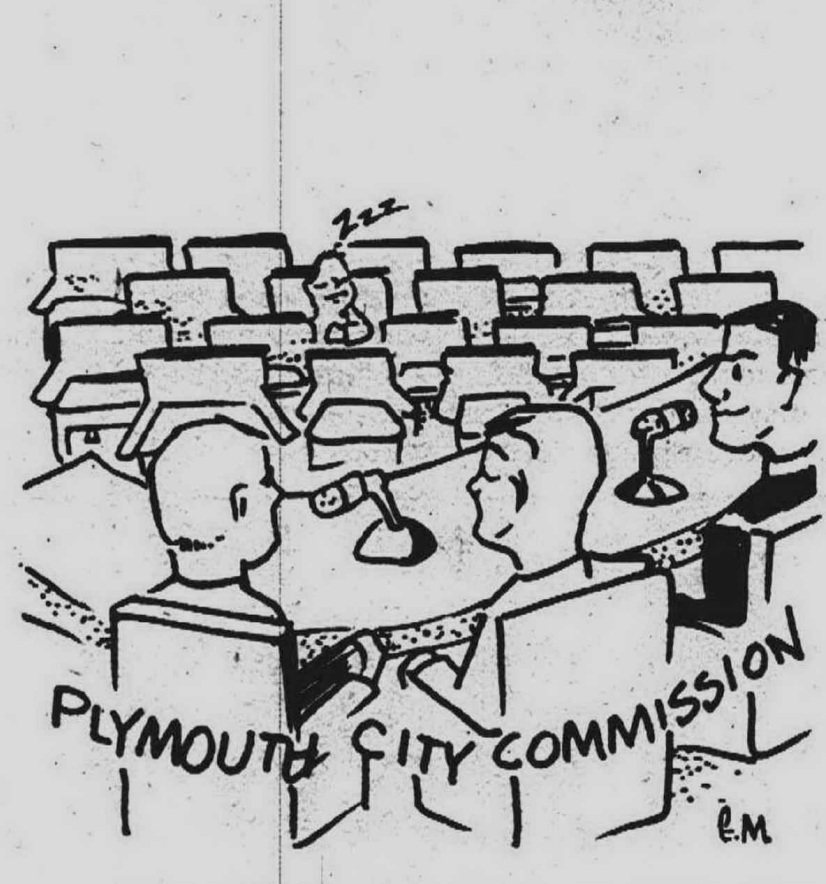

This is a good question. It is difficult to answer.

One thing is certain, however. Part of the blame for the present dilemma rests with the taxpayers themselves who have sat back in quiet apathy while costs spiraled upward and onward.

They did little to make their voices heard and now find themselves in a position where the price of their silence is almost too much to bear.

TAXPAYERS:
PUT YOUR MOUTH
WHERE YOUR MONEY IS...

The people in Plymouth are no different than those in other areas who also have sat in rather quiet contentment enjoying the trend of the American economy of "buy now — pay later."

This is fine. But the irony of it all is the fact that there always must come a day of reckoning... a day when the bill must be paid.

FOR SOME TIME NOW, the American people have been on a spending binge. From the Federal government on down, money has been spent as though it were going out of style.

Where once it was most difficult to get credit — even at a neighborhood store — it was now being foisted on every household. As a result of this twist in economy many folks have overspent — not only for household goods, but for everything else.

The national debt has moved up beyond reason and it will be years if it ever is cleared. Our children's grandchildren — and that's taking in a big field — will have to foot the bill. Even the present one.

Money seemingly has flowed through the marts and folks have enjoyed luxuries never before imagined.

It isn't too many years ago that a president was ridden out of the White House when he spoke of such things as "a chicken in every pot."

Now, there's not only a chicken in the pot, but two cars in every garage.

Suddenly we're finding that things are becoming too costly... such as a high school that will cost more than $10 million—a figure that is almost $2 million above the original estimated cost.

Well, what can be done about it? How can the spending dyke be plugged?

ONE OF THE FIRST things — and an important one, too — is to take more interest in finding out how the money is going to be spent.

Before any budget is passed — either in the Township or the City or in the school district — there is a public hearing. This is demanded by law.

Pathetically, however, few persons take the time to attend these sessions. Many times there is not a single spectator at the deliberations.

Because of this, the spending goes on apace on the theory that where there is no protest all is well.

Now the time has come to shake off the lethargy.

There'll be a public hearing on the city budget this week and this would be as good a place as any to get started on a reversal of the spending trend.

At least we can shake off the lethargy.

Letter To The Editor

Club Women Ready To Quit Kellogg Park Plan

EDITOR: It appears there are going to be drastic changes in proceedings as far as the beautification of Kellogg Park in Plymouth is concerned. It also appears there will be a drastic change in the role played by the Plymouth Garden Club in the future. Because of this, in fairness to the many interested citizens who so enthusiastically supported us in our efforts, we feel we must clarify our past and present actions and position.

To those who have followed the course of events pertaining to Kellogg Park, it will be common knowledge that for the past 10 years, conversation has been afoot as to its beautification and improvement. We in the Garden Club heard this talk and prospective for many years, but observed that nothing definite was undertaken, let alone accomplished.

About two years ago, the Centennial Committee approached the Garden Club with a request for assistance in a Centennial project, which was to have been completed within the year.

WITH THE endorsement of the City Officials, our club undertook the task of placing gas lights in Kellogg Park. We had such enthusiastic approval of our gas light program that we were able to finance the entire project through contributions from interested citizens and organizations at absolutely no cost to the city other than that of maintenance.

At this point we enjoyed the blessings of the city officials. In furthering our project, we acquired a complete drawing of the park, including the plans for installation of a fountain and plantings throughout the park, again at absolutely no cost to the City.

At about this point, when we were literally on the verge of successful completion of our entire project, the Planning Commission, for the first time, began to take an active part. We asked the members for their cooperation, pointing out that a grant which they had asked for from the City Commission was premature, inasmuch as we already had many individual donations.

WE FELT sure we would have their full cooperation, but to our surprise, we learned through a news story published in this newspaper—not from the City Commission—that the Planning Commission had sidestepped our efforts and was proceeding with another completely different plan of their own.

This plan included the employment of an out-of-town architect and a request for an entirely different set of plans at a cost of $500 and the abolishing of available plans which had cost the city and its residents absolutely nothing.

Because of the Commission's apparent desire to take over a project in mid-stream and because the Commission seemingly no longer desires the cooperation and efforts of the Plymouth Garden Club, we find we must now leave the completion of the park beautification in the Commission's lap.

We had felt our park should remain quaint and colonial, and have at all times resisted the inclusion of a band shell, feeling that the space limits prohibit a structure of such large proportions. The Planning Commission appears to be in disagreement with this.

THE PURPOSE of this letter is to deeply thank the individuals and organizations who so willingly contributed toward the gas lights and those who have also offered further assistance in completing the beautification of Kellogg Park.

We also wish to thank Green Ridge Nursery officials who gave so generously of their time and talent.

We feel we should also apologize to those whom we have promised to keep our park quaint and pleasing. There is no way we can return the monies used for the installation of the gas lights, but we will return all other funds in our possession toward the projects listed above.

We are sorry we cannot complete our plans, but must bow to the superior authority of the Planning Commission, even though its interest has come only at this point—at least one year after the work began.

New Books In Library

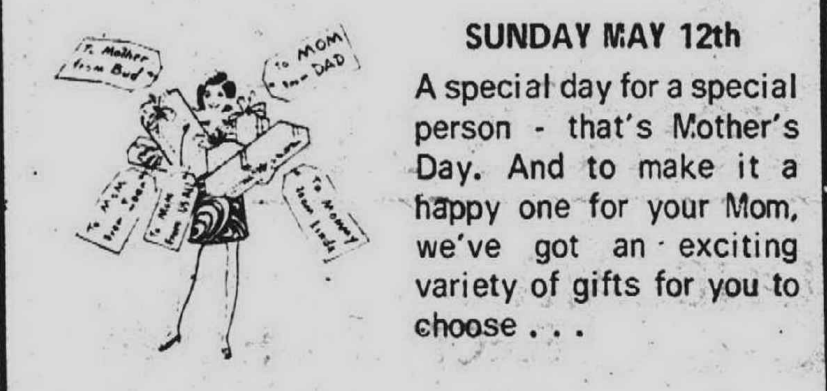

"Gypsy Moth Circles the World" by Sir Francis Chichester is the 65-year-old navigator's own account of his 226-day lone voyage around the globe—including the conquest of Cape Horn. It is illustrated with the author's own photographs.

"Where Eagles Dare" by Alister MacLean, author of "The Guns of Navarone," is a suspenseful story beginning with eight Allied agents parachuting into Nazi Germany. Their mission is to rescue a general on Eisenhower's staff before he can be made to talk about D-Day.

"White House Weddings" by Wilbur Cross and Ann Novotny tells the story of every marriage known to have taken place in the Executive Mansion. Illustrated with more than 40 contemporary prints and photographs, the account is filled with romance and intrigue, as well as humorous episodes and some considered scandalous in their day.

"Couples" by John Updike, author of "The Centaur," is a novel concerning the adulterous couples in an out-of-the-way New England community called Tarbox. The circle of acquaintance is felt as a magic circle with ritual games, religious substitutions, a priest and a scapegoat.

Council Of Churches Formed In Plymouth

The newly organized Plymouth Community Council of Churches formed last week after months of discussion, will hold its first meeting Tuesday, June 4, in the First United Methodist Church.

The council became a reality as five area churches agreed to participate. The first president, Rev. David Strang, pastor of Epiphany Lutheran Church, said the council is open to all congregations in the Plymouth community.

Members are the First Presbyterian Church of Plymouth, the United Methodist Church of Plymouth, St. Kenneth Catholic Church, St. John Episcopal Church and Epiphany Lutheran Church.

The council's officers are David M. Strang, president; Robert Johnstone, vice president; Mrs. Ross Harz, secretary, and Mrs. Sanford Burr, treasurer.

PURPOSE OF THE Council of Churches is to provide a basis of planning, decision, and operation for ecumenical and cooperative Christian activity in the community.

Its goals are twofold, covering major areas of church and community awareness.

The first is ministry to each other. The program will include summer schools and programs for the community youth, lay-theological schools and ecumenical dialogue for adults and special programs in marriage counseling and teenwork.

The ministry of active sharing will cover worship and administration programs as well.

THE SECOND GOAL, ministry to the community, will be one of active witness, including action in areas of need, such as race relations, housing and moral issues.

This ministry hopes to inform the churches of community affairs and in turn, keep the community abreast of the concerns of the church.

The governing and decision-making body is composed of two laymen and one clergyman from each church. This governing body may request additional personnel from the churches for committee work.

Dr. Brubaker Discusses Union Of Two Churches

The First Methodist Church of Plymouth has a new name.

Following ceremonies held in Dallas, Tex., last month uniting the Evangelical United Brethren with the Methodist Churches of the world, the local church will be known as "First United Methodist."

"The ceremony was most impressive," said Dr. Herbert Brubaker, pastor of the local church and one of the 1,155 delegates to the convention. "There were 10,000 persons attending the services."

The Evangelical United Brethren and the Methodist churches each brought a Bible, the Discipline of the church, a hymnal and the statement of union, which states:

"Lord of the Church we are united in Thee, and Thy church and now in the United Methodist Church."

THERE ARE MANY statistics involved in the union of the two churches. Where the Methodist church had 10,250,000 members, the United Methodist now has 11 million, making it the largest Protestant denomination in the world.

Overseas missionaries, seminaries, ministers, school facilities and property are now combined.

"The Methodist church can use the United Brethren's evangelism and strong emphasis on schooling and we (Methodist) can contribute much because of our size," said Dr. Brubaker.

There is no Evangelical United Brethren Church in Plymouth, the closest being St. Matthew EUB on Six Mile, in Livonia.

"There are only 120 in the state," said Dr. Brubaker, "and they are located mostly in rural areas."

Methodist Choir Sings Vivaldi's 'Gloria'

The First Methodist Church Chancel Choir will perform the cantata "Gloria" by the 18th century Italian composer Antonio Vivaldi, at two morning services (9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m.) Sunday, May 5.

"The work will be performed with an instrumental ensemble of area musicians, with two oboes, two trumpets, organ, strings, three soloists and chorus," said Knight Vernon, director of music for the church.

Soloists, Mrs. Constance Heidt and Mrs. Emile Sparling of Plymouth, and Mrs. Joanne McVeigh of Rochester, will be accompanied by Mrs. Inez Lock, organist.

The performance is open to the public.

Episcopal Women Hold Flower Sale

The Episcopal Church Women of St. John's will hold a flower sale Saturday, May 18, at the church, 574 South Sheldon.

More than 15 varieties of annuals will be sold in addition to tomato plants.

Tuesday, May 14, has been set as the deadline for ordering flowers and requests may be placed with the church office, 453-0190 or Mrs. Carolyn Jacobs, 453-1629.

A spokesman for the ECW stated that this is the second year of the sale and that all flowers and plants have been very reasonably priced.

PHS Parent Council Meets

The Plymouth High School Parent Council will hold its last meeting of the 1967-68 school year Monday, May 6 at 9:15 a.m. in the Dunning-Hough Library.

The meeting will concern financing of High School #2 and a school board member will be present to give facts and answer questions.

The meeting is open to parents of grades 9-12 and time will also be allowed for questions of a general nature.

Church Women Attend Rally

The women of St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church recently attended the Lutheran Women's Missionary Society Spring Rally.

Twenty-four congregations from Ohio and Michigan were represented at the rally held in Zion Lutheran Church, Toledo, O.

Mrs. Leona Westendorf, director of the Martin Luther Memorial Home, South Lyon, was featured speaker.

Lake Pointe Garden Club Sets Meeting

The Lake Pointe Village Garden Club will meet in the home of Mrs. Paul Hocking, 14585 Shadywood Dr., Thursday, May 9, at 8 p.m.

"Tables Can be Interesting" will be the topic of a talk by Mrs. H.E. Stovers. Several table settings will be on display.

Mrs. Aldon Holk and Mrs. Gordon Burke are the evening's co-hostesses.

The Top Side Of Life

By REV. DAVID M. STRANG

I went to a terrific party last Monday night. For the 770 who might prefer to forget, that was the day voters in the City of Plymouth passed the open housing referendum.

The party was a victory celebration; a big noisy victory celebration. There was a lot to celebrate.

We celebrated the fact that more people voted for open housing in Plymouth (988) than the total number who voted in the last election for city commissioners (962).

We celebrated because so many people were willing to go on record, publicly, for one of the most controversial issues to hit town in years.

One man told me about the names he was called at work the day after the first full-page ad appeared in the newspaper with his name in it.

WE CELEBRATED in behalf of the people who sweat blood over the election: Don Davies, the chairman of the Human Relations Commission. He got that commission to propose the ordinance to the city almost a year ago.

Prior to that time, the Human Relations Commission had done little more than sit and argue about what it was supposed to do.

Then there was Dick Wernette. He was the mayor of the city when the Human Relations Commission and the Plymouth Assembly for Equal Opportunity were formed.

And Norm Thoburn, a former chairman of the assembly, and the current chairman of the Plymouth Committee for Fair Housing.

OF COURSE, there were a lot of other people without whom the ordinance wouldn't have passed, including ministers and church people and agnostics and newspaper editors (past and present) and politicians and businessmen and high school kids and, certainly, four members of the Plymouth City Commission.

One of the most exciting things to celebrate was that all those people could have united to do the job. Many of them met every Saturday afternoon for two months and worked and worked and worked.

THERE WERE SOME things, though, even in the midst of celebration, which one could still be unhappy about.

The service clubs in the city were most noticeable in their absence of support—which is pretty strange after you hear them sound off about how they exist to serve humanity.

One of the political parties did not see fit to join in the non-partisan effort for the referendum even though their Governor has consistently been for open housing legislation.

Businessmen in town lacked courage. Only a few were willing to risk anything. The rest hid behind a shield of statements like, "Of course, I'm for it; but I can't say so or I might lose customers."

IT IS ALSO possible that we ought not celebrate too long or too loudly. After all, the City of Plymouth is only two and one half square miles and 10,000 people. Any Negro who wants to buy a home in the city has to go through the township to get there, to say nothing of Northville, Northville Township and Canton Township.

Maybe the last shout of celebration ought to be in the words of the telephone company advertisement: "We could have stopped here...but we're getting itchy again."

'ELBOW GREASE,' plumbing elbows and fun are combined as Mrs. Kenneth VanAntwerp, Mrs. E. G. Ott, Mrs. Donald V. Stevens and Mrs. James Person get together to paint pipes for the Plymouth Symphony's "pops" concert.

Symphony's Vivaces Prepare For Annual 'Pops' Concert

The musical term "vivace" means vivacious and lively and if that can be applied to music it also can accurately describe the Plymouth Symphony League's Vivace group who are busily preparing for the upcoming "pops" concert. The concert's theme, this year, is "Pop In" and Bob Taylor, better known as "Fat Bob the Plumber" will do just that on Saturday, May 11 at 8:30 p.m. when he highlights the concert with selections from Verdi, Copland and Youmans.

MEANWHILE COMMITTEES of the vivace group are hard at work coping with the endless details that make up a successful evening of song and symphony. "It's a fun night," said Mrs. Virginia Adams, publicity chairman for the group, "and morale is high because we know it's going to be a success." In past years the decorations have been difficult and Mrs. Adams particularly remembers trying to do justice to a theme dealing with the great southwest. "We painted huge sheets of paper with those rock monuments and rock formations of the painted dessert," she recalled, and what had looked so huge and impressive on the basement floor was sort of small and forlorn in the large high school gymnasium. "But last year's circus theme was easy to do and we came up with some great decorations for that," she added. This year the symphony women in charge of decorations have had to go from circus peanuts to pipes and plumbing and from all reports are having a lot of fun in the process. To get the inside story we took our cameras to Mrs. Marian Ott's basement as her committee met. Sure enough, they were painting silver pipes and flower festooned bathtubs. "We all get ideas, and pretty soon they begin to take shape," said Mrs. Kenneth Van Antwerp, who wields a brush as a member of the decoration committee. OTHER COMMITTEE chairman and co-chairman who deserve an advance round of applause are Mrs. Donald White-sell and Mrs. Frank White who are in charge of the tables that add to the informality of the "pops" concert. Mrs. Robert Webber and Mrs. Jerry Williams are ticket co-chairmen and Mrs. John Jacobs and Mrs. John Mullen are making sure that enough pop corn and lemonade will be on hand for those who pop in. Mrs. E.G. Ott, Mrs. Thomas Adams and Mrs. Kenneth Van Antwerp are heading the decorations committee complete with pipes and plumbing. 60 Plus To Meet The First Methodist Church's Sixty-Plus Club will meet Monday, May 6. A pot-luck dinner will be served at 12 noon. Rev. Ray Norton will show pictures of his Panama trip.

Kiwanis Honors Members
The Kiwanis Club of Colonial Plymouth recently honored four members at its annual Ladies Night Banquet. Mayor James Jabara, Dr. Richard Reinhart, Gene Overholt, township trustee, and Richard Anderson, manager of Plymouth Glass, were recognized for perfect attendance in the club. John Tyler, of the National Bank of Detroit, was honored as the club's newest member. Ping Hay, lieutenant governor of Kiwanis, was on hand for the festivities and Alan Jensen, of the Free Press Action Line, addressed the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith and son, Larry, of Dewey Street, just returned from a trip to Florida and points south. Like most travelers, upon returning home, Mrs. Smith found vivid memories of people, places and events flashing through her mind. She was kind enough to send me a few: Petting a porpoise at Marine Life, Gulfport, Miss...Flowers everywhere...Brick red soil in Alabama and Mississippi... snow white sand of the Gulf beaches...NASA Center in Huntsville, Ala. and the George C. Marshall Testing facility in Mississippi, complete with a two-hour educational bus tour. Middle-aged, skinny lady hurrying home in the New Orleans French quarter followed by a running, fuzzy, golden baby duckling...The cruise boat "Voyager" while on a Bayou tour pushing aside a barge that was wedged crosswise in the Intra-coastal Waterway. Strange bird song at 5 a.m. in Natchez, Miss... Seeing the George Todds, of Plymouth, on the boat docks of Fort Walton Beach with local friends, the Holmes. Standing in line in New Orleans to get square, hole-less doughnuts...The rolling pin on the office desk of Lurleen Wallace, governor of Alabama. Gee, Mrs. Smith, that was almost better than slides!

Panhellenic Invites Senior Girls To Party

Plymouth High School senior girls have been invited to the Panhellenic Spring Cokes Party, Tuesday, May 7, at 2:45 p.m. in the high school cafeteria-annex. Mrs. John Murphy, chairman of the party, and her committee have planned a program which will explain the role of sororities on today's campus. The film, Alpha to Omega, will be shown and questions about sororities will be answered. There will be a display of sorority pins and magazines, prepared by Mrs. Robert Peterson. Mrs. Robert Perry will be in charge of refreshments, Mrs. James Dysinger, entertainment and Mrs. Wilson Sick, publicity.

'World Of Work' Sketched For Livonia Co-Op Students

An industrial education consultant told a group of high school co-op students and their employers that the student in a cooperative education program has "some distinct advantages over other high school students, because he has already begun to make the difficult transition from school to work."

Dr. Leon J. Alger, vice president for program development for Howard and Smith, Inc., a Royal Oak distributor of industrial education equipment, spoke Tuesday evening to the first annual banquet for Livonia co-op students.

A tongue twister for the participants, the occasion was officially tagged: First Annual Employer-Employee Banquet of the Livonia Public Schools Cooperative Occupational Training Program. The co-op program is directed by Arlie Fairman, coordinator of vocational education instruction.

The event had originally been scheduled for April 5, with Dr. Robert C. Lusk, of the Automobile Manufacturer's Association, as guest speaker.

When the banquet was reset after the death of Martin Luther King, Jr., Lusk was unable to speak because of illness.

Alger told the students that three essential facts about today's world of work must be considered as they enter the labor market:

1. The labor market is extremely competitive. In this decade there will be a 50 per cent jump in the number of 18-year-olds entering the job market.
 2. Skills needed are changing rapidly.
 3. General patterns of employment in the society are also changing. Large increases in the number of people employed in professional and technical occupations were cited, along with decreases in semi-skilled and farming occupations.
- Alger also told the students that their relations with other people would be of fundamental importance during their working lives, and that the ability to relate to people is dependent on an individual's value system.
- He noted that many students today seem to have rejected the established social value system, but that the issue of importance was what values young people would adapt for themselves.
- Alger suggested four questions for students and adults to ponder, explaining that the answers were fundamental to the evolution of a personal value system:
1. Do you believe that every human individual has importance, worth and dignity?
 2. Do you believe that the uniqueness of each individual is to be respected?
 3. Do you believe that each person has the right to think as he chooses, although not necessarily the right to act as he chooses?
 4. Do you believe that every person born has a right to equal rights and opportunity?

Explains DIT Co-Op Program Advantages

"College students and even college-bound high school graduates usually take summer jobs of the 'pick-and-shovel' variety which do nothing to advance their education or their career development."

This observation by the director of cooperative education at The Detroit Institute of Technology, John A. Johnides, was made as he viewed the approach of summer and the "wasted opportunities" ahead for Detroit's college students.

Cooperative education is now approaching its second year at DIT. However, the cooperative concept of work and study was first established in 1906 at the University of Cincinnati. It was first established with work and study alternating on a weekly basis, but experience proved that the traditional semester or quarter system common to educational institutions was most effective. In the past 60 years some 100 of the nation's institutions of higher learning have adopted cooperative education programs.

At DIT, cooperative education has several distinctive advantages over other local institutions--students need not wait for junior standing but may enroll as sophomores; the program is offered to full-time students in all three colleges, Arts and Sciences, Business Administration and Engineering.

Scholarships are now available at DIT to enable qualified applicants to obtain $500 for tuition and expenses in the second semester to complete the freshman year. Immediate summer employment is obtained for recipients of the scholarships.

Schedule Work Day

Lazybones are lucky--North Farmington High students have scheduled their annual Work Day for May 25.

There's no better way to get those pesky household chores done that you keep putting off doing yourself.

The kids willingly tackle anything. They'll mow the lawn, clean the oven, wash the windows, paint the woodwork, dig your swimming pool, give Fido a bath--you name it, they'll do it. And do it well.

Hours for Work Day are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Cost of jobs is whatever you'd like to donate. All proceeds go for student scholarships.

Appointments are already being made and it's a good idea to make them early because when word gets around, the schedule gets full. Numbers to call between 2:30 and 4 p.m. weekdays are 626-2511 or 626-2540. Calls will be taken at these numbers from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Work Day.

New Vietnam Offensive; Red Atrocity Charged

SAIGON -- The Communists last week unleashed their heaviest offensive since the February Tet attack. Biggest battles are around Dong Ha and Hue.

U.S. Air Force F-111s resumed raids against the north at mid-week. It was the second time the jets have flown combat missions against the north since the April 23 loss of a third F-111.

The U.S. in its weekly casualty report said 302 Americans were killed (compared to 287 the week before); 2,458 wounded (an increase of 1,000 for the week); 253 South Vietnamese were killed and 785 wounded; and 1,729 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese were killed.

JERUSALEM -- The Arab world was enraged as Israel celebrated its 20th year of independence with a parade of military hardware, including some captured from the Arabs.

Some 10,000 Lebanese demonstrated there against Israel's defiance of a U.N. Security Council resolution asking cancellation of the parade.

VIENTIANE, Laos -- Western diplomats here say the Communists have curbed their drive against the Royal Laotian forces. Casualties from mortar attacks now number in the twos and threes instead of in the hundreds.

Theories for the slowdown differ, but one is that the Soviet Union is applying pressure to block any barriers to peace in Vietnam.

News Round Up

SAIGON -- The U.S. Embassy charged Communist forces with executing 1,000 at Hue during the February offensive. The American charge was based on information from South Vietnamese police and allied sources.

The victims were in 19 different mass graves, and "many had been shot, some beheaded. A number of bodies showed signs of mutilation. Most were found with hands bound behind their backs," the U.S. said.

Almost half the victims had been buried alive, according to a South Vietnamese political warfare officer.

SEOUL -- North Korean infiltrators killed two South Korean soldiers and wounded two others in a new attack in the demilitarized zone.

The South Korean government said a seven-man patrol was ambushed in the eastern sector of the 151-mile zone.

LONDON -- Gold prices hit their highest peak--$39.10 an ounce--since free sales began April 1. The gold price here rose $1.45 in a single week.

In Frankfurt the price hit $39.10, too, and in Zurich it was $39.12.

TEHRAN -- An estimated 34 persons were killed and 250 injured when a severe earthquake rocked a large part of western Iran last week.

A first quake was comparatively minor, but three hours later a second quake wrecked at least 12 villages.

HAMILTON, Bermuda--Bermuda's governor dissolved parliament and scheduled elections for May 22 in this British colony.

Meanwhile, patrols enforced a 7 p.m. to dawn curfew. Store owners on Front St., where American tourists have shopped for years, boarded up their show windows for the first time in history.

The Negro Popular Labor Party, which wants independence, is expected to win power. It wants to stop British immigration.

PARIS -- A retired French truck driver died 51 1/2 hours after receiving a transplanted heart in Europe's first operation of the sort. Clovis Roblain, 66, never regained consciousness after the nine-hour operation.

The only living survivor of a heart transplant operation is Dr. Philip Blalberg, 58, South African dentist who received his new heart Jan. 2.

NEW YORK -- The big chain stores in the United States turned in a remarkable performance in March. Their sales volume in the month topped the 1967 figure by 7.4 per cent despite the delay in apparel sales because of the later date for Easter. Total volume for March 1968 was $1,954,002,000 against $1,819,253,000 for March 1967. This was for 28 major chains.

Twister: CD Chief Tells How To Save Lives

Civil Defense Director Kenneth Kampman today reiterated directions for taking cover during tornado activity during the turbulent weather season.

He said the major points were dramatized last week when a twister touched down on a roof of a new building injuring one worker.

"We can't emphasize too strongly the need for calm, intelligent behavior during these periods," he said.

The details of official instructions came out of a recent meeting of the southwestern Michigan civil defense directors attended by more than 110 officials from Livonia and other cities.

Robert Snyder, weather director for the United States Weather Bureau station at Detroit Metropolitan Airport made the following points:

THERE IS no universal protection against tornadoes except caves or underground excavations. When time permits, go to a tornado cellar, cave, or underground excavation which should have an air outlet to help equalize the air pressure. It should be kept fit for use, free from water, gas, or debris; and preferably equipped with pick and shovel.

If you are in open country: Move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.

If there is not time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.

If in a City or Town: Seek inside shelter, preferably in a strongly reinforced building. STAY AWAY FROM WINDOWS!

In homes: The southwest corner of the basement usually offers greatest safety, particularly in frame houses. People in houses without basements should find other shelter, preferably in a storm cellar, although a depression, such as a ditch or ravine can offer some protection. Doors and windows on the north and east sides of the house may be opened to help reduce damage to the building. Standing against the inside wall on a lower floor of an office building offers some protection.

If in schools: In City areas: If school building is of strongly reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall on the lower floors when possible. AVOID AUDITORIUMS AND GYMNASIUMS with large, poorly-supported roofs!

In rural schools that do not have strongly reinforced construction, remove children and teachers to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.

If in factories and industrial plants:

On receiving a tornado warning, a lookout should be posted to keep safety officials advised of the tornado's approach. Advance preparation should be made for shutting off electrical circuits and fuel lines if the tornado approaches the plant. Workers should be moved to sections of the plant offering the greatest protection.

Keep calm! It will not help to get excited. People have been killed by running out into streets and by turning back into the path of a tornado. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very slight. Tornadoes cover such a small zone, as a rule, that relatively only a few places in a warned area are directly affected. You should know about tornadoes though, "just in case."

Keep tuned to your radio or television station for latest tornado advisory information. The following Greater Detroit Radio Stations will broadcast both Severe Weather Watch and Severe Weather Warning: WJR, WWJ, WCAR, WJBK, WABJ, WXYZ, WKNR, WQTE and WHLS. Do not call the Weather Bureau, except to report a tornado, as your individual request may tie up telephone lines urgently needed to receive special reports or to relay advisories to radio and television stations for dissemination to thousands in the critical area.

WHAT IS A TORNADO WATCH? The United States Weather Bureau issues a tornado watch for areas where tornadoes may occur during the next several hours. The size of an average watch area is approximately 100 miles wide and 300 miles long. The object of a watch is to alert the public in the area covered by the watch to the possibility of tornadoes, and to advise them to be ready to take precautionary action in case tornado warnings are issued. However, people should go about doing their work as usual. Once a tornado has actually formed and its existence becomes known to the Weather Bureau, a public tornado warning will be issued.

HOW DOES A TORNADO WARNING DIFFER FROM A TORNADO WATCH? A tornado watch is used to alert the public to the possibility that tornadoes may develop over a certain area. A tornado warning means that a tornado has actually been sighted in the area or its presence has been detected by radar. The warning will indicate where the tornado was discovered, the area through which it is expected to move, and the time periods during which the tornado will move through the area warned. Following issuance of a tornado warning, persons in the indicated path of the tornado should immediately take safety precautions.

Kampman Takes Over

Reading the background of Kenneth W. Kampman should give Livonians assurance that the city's Civil Defense office and program, will be in good hands.

Kampman, who lives at 15765 Whitby, was appointed director by Mayor Harvey W. Moelke, this week, to replace the resigning W.A. Cooper, who headed the office six years.

Kampman now is obtaining aircraft pilot and maintenance licenses.

He will operate from the offices in Police Headquarters Building on Farmington. The job pays only $2,775 a year for part time duties.

Moelke moved Kampman up from assistant deputy director to the top job.

KAMPMAN traced his Civil Defense history from 1950-51, when he got Auxiliary Police training with the Detroit Police Department. In 1953 he transferred to the Livonia Auxiliary Police.

He completed the special instruction program in defense here in 1955. In 1958 he was instructor for firearm training, and promoted to lieutenant of Auxiliary Police.

He completed basic casualty care instruction course in 1961, the advanced course and medical self-help instructor training courses in 1962.

KENNETH W. KAMPMAN

In 1963 Kampman instituted medical self-help teaching program in Auxiliary Police training. Promoted to captain in 1964, in 1965 he completed radiological monitoring for instructors course at the Department of Defense Staff College, at Battle Creek, and the next year instituted the training course here.

He was advanced to senior captain in 1967 and this year was moved up to deputy director--then director.

His military background was R.O.T.C., the Michigan National Guard from 1937 to 1940 (107th Engineers), and from 1942 to 1946 with the Aviation Engineers 5th and 7th Air Forces, Asiatic-Pacific Theater, New Guinea and Okinawa.

Y To Start Tennis Classes

The Livonia Family YMCA will offer two tennis classes for adults beginning in May.

A coed class will be held each Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m., and a Women's Class on Thursday mornings at 10 a.m. Bill Cameron, executive director of the Livonia "Y" will conduct both classes. He has been active in the Southeast Michigan Tennis Association and is a member of the United States Lawn Tennis Association Umpires and Linesmen Committee.

He has taught tennis in Massachusetts and Detroit, and holds a Master Instructor certificate from the National Tennis Coaches School.

Poppy Day Is Coming On May 23

Poppy Day is Thursday, May 23.

Mayor Harvey W. Moelke, in step with mayors throughout these United States, asks the public to buy poppies, and help a worthy cause.

The money goes toward the support of disabled and needy veterans of wars, and widows and children of deceased veterans.

"The basic purpose of the annual sale by the Allied Veterans Committee of Livonia is eloquently reflected in the desire to honor the dead by helping the living," the mayor said in proclaiming the day.

Buddy Poppies are sold by the Veterans of the Foreign Wars, American Legion Poppies by the American Legion, and Poppies by the Disabled American War Veterans.

The little bow, which now serves to mark the back of men's hats, is a relic of the past when hats were made in only a few sizes. Drawstrings were put in the lining to make the hat fit the head.

Council Kills Veto Of Apartments

Livonia's seven-member City Council, by a 6-1 vote, followed a familiar routine to override the veto of Mayor Harvey W. Moelke of an apartment project on Five Mile Road east of Eckles.

The council, contrary to a Schools Set Roundup Dates

The action was taken on complaint of Teamsters Local 299, which charged unfair practices "by the employer", meaning the school administration.

recommendation by the city planning commission, had previously passed a resolution for the rezoning of the area from residential to multiple dwelling.

In his veto, the mayor cited his unremitting stand against

Boss Fit To Cry In His Cup(s)

CLEVELAND—Sometimes the machine age trips itself. Metal-fax magazine tells of a coffee machine that did just that when a vice president deposited a coin in the proper place and pushed the coffee, double cream and sugar buttons.

Automation took over. Coffee, double cream and sugar came out. But the cup never appeared. "That's real automation," the customer said. "This thing even drinks for you."

WSU Wives Hear Talk

The Livonia and surrounding community group of Wayne State University Faculty Wives will meet Thursday at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Andrews, 437 Blunk, Plymouth. Guest speaker will be Florence Wright, author of "Three Centuries of Furniture" and other books. Reservations may be made by telephoning Mrs. Audrey Hubbard, 422-7144, or Mrs. Andrews, 453-8336, by Wednesday.

for either, or neither.

But when the day was done, the State Labor Board officials who had supervised the election locked the boxes, and the records, impounding them pending a hearing.

the ridicule of several councilmen.

THE LATTER included Robert F. Nash who commented, "I'm sure this isn't the last time we shall hear about that."

The only councilman supporting the mayor's veto was Robert E. McCann and who was referred to in Moelke's veto message to the council as "the newest member of your body (who) was elected in a campaign which included a promise to oppose increased multiple housing development."

McCann, after voting to uphold the veto, termed the mayor's statement inaccurate.

"I'm opposed to indiscriminate zoning of apartments although I think there's a place for them. But not in the Five Mile area," he commented.

Robert Pisarski, chief trial examiner for the Labor Board, said a date agreeable to all parties is being set, and that a hearing will be held in May by Joseph Bixler, a trial examiner sitting as judge.

The hearing will be open, and the Teamster's charges will be aired. Bixler will determine whether the charges, whatever they are, are true or correct. The hearing will be at the board offices at 1400 Cadillac Square Building, in Detroit.

Those who voted in the election included custodians, bus drivers, cafeteria workers, maintenance employees, warehouse employees, deliverymen, and garage employees. Not eligible were office clerical, supervisors and substitutes, teachers and administrative officials.

SCHOOL OFFICIALS said they were at a loss to know the basis for the complaints of the Teamsters, who had been trying for two years to get a bargaining agency election.

The school board set aside space for the booths in the warehouse, and the state supervised the election.

Teachers, secretaries and some other employees have their own organizations, which bargain with the administration for salaries, benefits, and other working conditions.

Building Trades Strike; Bell, CWA Settle

Building and construction throughout the Metropolitan Detroit area is paralyzed as a result of a six-union strike which started at midnight Tuesday.

The strike came as contracts with the Associated General Contractors of the area expired with no agreement on new pacts despite last minute bargaining.

As a result, all building in the Observerland area, in which many public school projects are underway, was at a complete standstill.

THE UNION involved included some 30,000 members, and construction projects amounting to millions of dollars throughout the metropolitan area are at a standstill.

The big barrier to agreement is the span between the union demands of wage-fringe benefits, ranging up to 76 per cent, and the offer by employers of six per cent increases each year for two years.

Most of the negotiations have been with the key Carpenters Union, considered the one that will set the pattern for the others.

MEANWHILE, the strike of Metropolitan Detroit newspapers moved into the 170th day with no apparent moves in any direction.

Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley has asked a federal court to dissolve a temporary injunction barring Gov. George Romney and a special legislative committee from interfering in the strike negotiations.

There was good news in the nationwide strike of telephone employees with an announcement that officials of the Communications Workers of America and the Bell System had reached an agreement.

It will be voted upon by the individual locals over the weekend before a final decision is made. Should the majority of locals approve it, then it will be ratified by the national organization.

However, there were indications that many of the locals would reject the offer which calls for a pay increase ranging from $11 to $24 weekly over a three year period.

The original demands of the union asked for $24 per day starting immediately.

Michigan Bell officials tabbed the offer the largest wage and fringe benefit package ever negotiated by Bell and the CWA, increasing the company's non-management wage bill over three years by 19 per cent and adding $12.3 million annually to costs.

The contract offer covers 18,200 employees in the company's plant and traffic departments and the comptrollers operations.

IN THE BUILDING trades strike, the unions whose contracts expired at midnight Tuesday include: Bricklayers, Carpenters, Cement and Mason workers; Operating Engineers; Laborers and Reinforced Iron Workers.

Also expiring were contracts with the Electricians, Plasterers, Marble Masons, Tile Setters and Tile Helpers.

According to statistics from the contractors, the unions are demanding anywhere from 24 per cent to 77 per cent increases in wages over a two-year period.

In the case of the Carpenters, the union is seeking $2.10 above the current hourly earnings.

ings of $5.96 the first year and $185 the second.

The total package would represent a 65 per cent hike in wages according to the Associated General Contractors.

THE MICHIGAN chapter of Associated General Contractors reported at Lansing that operating engineers, who run cranes, bulldozers and similar equipment, were on strike throughout the state.

The Michigan chapter reported carpenters, cement masons, reinforced iron workers and operating engineers on strike at Flint and operating engineers and bricklayers out in Lansing, but said carpenters were continuing to report in Jackson.

The Northwest Michigan Building Trades Council at Alpena reported 500 carpenters out in Alpena, Cadillac, Traverse City, Cheboygan and Petoskey, with no new negotiating sessions scheduled.

Some 2,500 tradesmen did not report in the Saginaw Valley District, but did not picket those who reported. The district includes Midland, Bay City and Saginaw.

Three hundred carpenters also were reported out in Calhoun County and parts of Barry, Branch and Eaton counties.

THE SOUTHWEST Michigan Carpenters Council called out some 4,000 members in a 14-county area which includes Holland, Benton Harbor, Coldwater, Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, Battle Creek and Muskegon. In Kent (Grand Rapids) and Montcalm Counties and parts of Berrien and Ottawa Counties, however, bricklayers were working without a contract, and in Grand Rapids cement workers also were reporting, a union official said.

Upper Peninsula contractors said they offered striking laborers an increase of 90 cents hourly spread over the next three years, but that Laborers Local 1329 had demanded a boost of 75 cents hourly in each of the next three years, or a raise of $2.25 hourly.

Carpenters were reported to be showing up at Adrian and Lansing, as well as Jackson and Ann Arbor.

LIVONIA'S FOURTH high school stands alone as building trades unions last week struck contractor F. W. Fordon Co. as part of the statewide walkout against Associated General Contractors.

PLYMOUTH'S MIDDLE SCHOOL No. 3, on Ann Arbor Rd., is ready for bricklayers, but they're on strike and may be for a long time. Six unions are on strike against the association of contractors.

THE COLOR CORNER
BY MARTHA BRANDT

It's no coincidence that this leap year, men are leaping into view in color as never before. If there's a man on your shopping list, here are a few tips on color in men's clothes, courtesy of the Textile Dye Institute:

- Shirts: Turtle-neck, button-down or no collar at all, shirts are more colorful than ever. If the man on your list is slim and trim, he can get away with horizontal stripes on turtle-necks (if he's not trim, better rule this style out anyway). Most any man of any size appreciates the change in pace of more colored shirts in his everyday wardrobe. Colors are now more subtle as well as more varied — thanks to the work of the dyestuff industry.
- Tennis blues? That doesn't mean that you've lost a set, but that you can now play on some of the best courts in the world in colored tennis gear. Pastel blues and yellows with striped trim are being seen at some of the best clubs (of course, shorts and shirts must match).
- Color is par: One of the most colorful spots in sports is, of all places, the golf course. Championship golfers have made color gowing clothes famous and now even those who think "for" comes after three can wear any color. Reds, bright yellows and other bright shades are the most popular. They are also the most visible — which has a protection factor as well as an aesthetic one: no excuse for hitting a golfer dressed in bright red.

28 Girls Share Limelight In 'Sea The U.S.A.'

In the last few weeks, the 28 girls staging Plymouth High's annual synchronized swimming show have put a lot of time and effort turning themselves into convincing representations of hoodlums, mice, pink elephants and air pollution, among other things.

Theme of the show this year is "Sea the USA." Each of the routines portrays a different part of the country. The mice, for instance, aren't just ordinary pantry pilfering rodents, they're genuine Wisconsin cheese mice.

The day we stopped in for a preview of the show, the girls were putting finishing touches on the costumes and giving them the water test.

ONE OF THE major problems was designing a set of pink elephant ears that would stay on underwater.

The whole matter of costumes requires a lot of work and ingenuity. It's hard enough to design an air pollution costume for dry land, and costumes for the water show not only have to be seaworthy, but sleek enough for the intricate synchronized routines.

Mrs. Barbara McDonald, who directs the swim club, explained that this year's show suffered some major setbacks at the beginning.

The first problem was that the pool didn't open until late November, because a new filter was being installed. So practice sessions, which usually get underway as soon as school opens in the fall, were delayed until December.

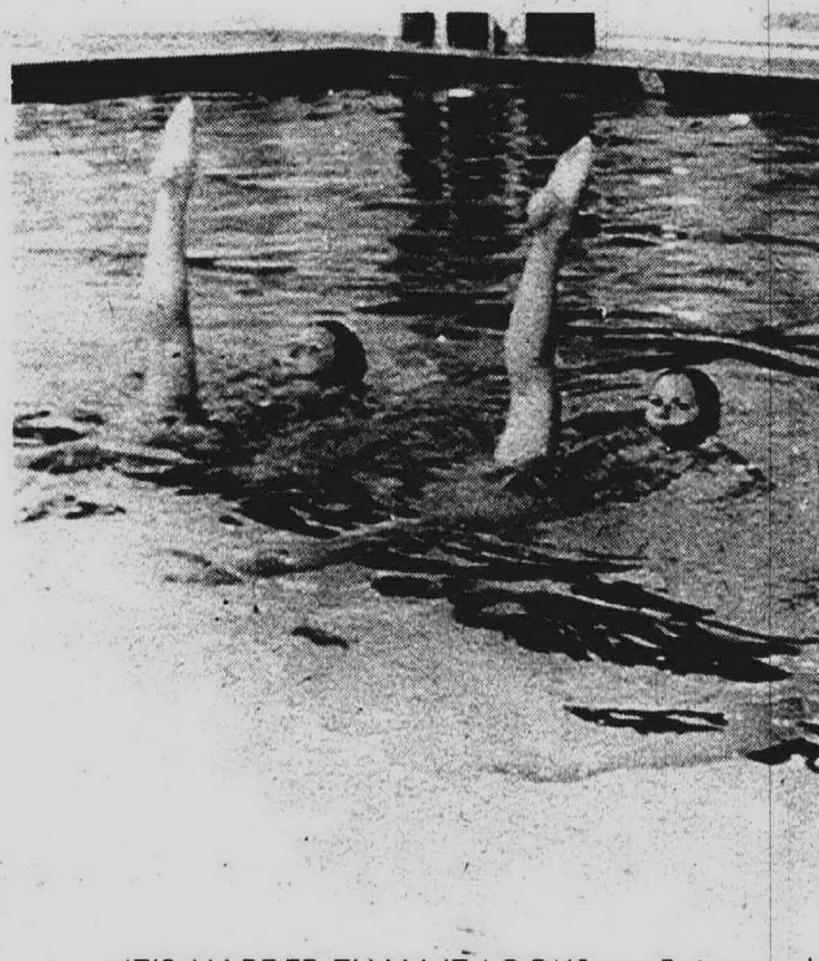

And then one of the lead swimmers, Pam Ciampa, became ill and had to drop out.

IN SPITE OF major problems with the pool and minor problems with elephant ears, the show will come off on schedule: May 9, 10 and 11 at 8 p.m.

A capacity crowd (350) is expected each evening. Most of the profits from the show are put into a fund for next year's production. In addition, a $100 scholarship is offered for one of the swim club members.

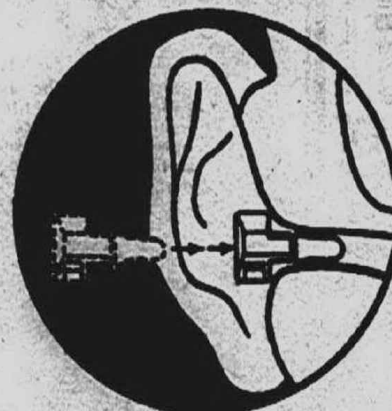

Expenses for the show, Mrs. McDonald said, have soared in recent years. Most of the money goes for purchase of costumes and materials, props and records.

But for the audience, "Sea the USA" is a bargain. Where else can you get a grand tour of America, with 28 beautiful young mermaids as tour guides, for $1?

IT'S HARDER THAN IT LOOKS — Raina and Karen perform one of the classic synchronized maneuvers.

Appetizers Tingle The Taste Buds

By JOYCE TOTTEH

As their name implies, appetizers are appetita-teasers. Their main function is not to satisfy hunger, but to whet the appetite. Good appetizers should strike an expectant note for the meal that is to follow. Appetizers, which are usually finger foods, must be attractive to see as well as tangy and tantalizing to the taste buds.

ALL FOODS taste better if they are attractive to look at, and appetizers are no exception. Hollowed shells of fruits such as melons, pineapple and grapefruit make attractive and unusual serving dishes. Appetizers are appealing when arranged attractively on trays, bread boards, serving platters or in baskets.

Serve appetizers with a flair. Always keep appetizers small enough to handle easily.

Sport Of Kings Fails To Lure Office Interest

By FRED DeLANO

FIVE OF MY SIX CLOSEST CELLMATES in this literary jungle are females, and although that does make the odds about even it restricts discussion of certain topics. Among the topics restricted, but only because these five darlings don't know anything about the subject, is the art of thoroughbred handicapping.

To demonstrate just how disgusting it is, we didn't even have an office pool on the Derby, and despite absence of the Free Press and News for crying out loud don't ask, "What Derby?"

It's the first Derby I didn't attend since War Admiral won in '37, that's what Derby.

It's run among horses of the nursery school age of three and they don't have to go much farther than from the Enterprise & Observer to the Danish Inn. Two minutes and two seconds, give or take a fraction, isn't bad time depending upon your thirst and hunger.

AFTER SIX MONTHS, it took me until this week to cut through the cloak of conservatism which shrouds Farmington and finally find out where the horse players say their prayers.

It's easy enough to buy a Racing Form in Bloomfield Hills or Birmingham, which aren't exactly the most liberal towns extant, but it has run my office mileage report skyward to go all the way to Livonia to get my own daily copy.

In this, the greatest week of racing at a twispired spot they call Churchill Downs, they ran on Tuesday afternoon a thing called the Derby Trial. Proper Proof won it and on his nose in the Kentucky Derby Saturday at Louisville (by messenger, of course) I put $2 for my wife and another token for my boss to cover payroll advances.

What I'll do with next week's pay depends on what post order they draw for the Preakness.

ON THE SAME DAY The Derby Trial was contested, the supporting program included a six-furlong romp for three and four-year-old maidens, among them a Farmington-owned colt who was well backed (again, by special messenger, what with the restrictions against bookmaking) by the local hoi-poi.

As a word of polite explanation, the term "maiden" at a race track refers to a goat which has yet to see the winner's circle. No sex is implied.

There's another saying which pops up often among patrons of the turf, including the kings and queens of high finance who bankroll an improvement in the breed.

The words are only two, but they are descriptive: "Also Ran."

The Farmington horse, which went off at $2.10 to $1, broke well, got to the leaders, then faded and was said in the Racing Form chart to have "tired badly from his early efforts."

He finished sixth, and his owner isn't back yet.

Ever hear of the Saturday night bath? Well, those who took theirs on Tuesday this week got cleaned right down to the fingernails. Like true believers, however, they'll all be back aboard the next time out. After all, how else can one get even?

Romney Proud Of Faith, Prayer

LANSING -- Gov. Romney's voice broke as he described his pride in his faith at the fifth annual prayer breakfast Wednesday.

"It has not hurt me in my public or private life to keep the Sabbath Day holy," he said.

Romney, who rose from a Mormon family forced to flee Mexico to a top automobile executive and governor of Michigan, cited the Old and New Testaments in his statement of moral principles.

"CERTAINLY, no nation on earth needs to hear and heed the words of the Old Testament more than we," he said. "The New Testament (St. Paul) shows that we're in the last days, and his description of men in these days was very accurate."

He said the blessings heaped upon man will not continue unless man heeds the warnings of the Holy Bible in these days of student riots, racial unrest and war abroad.

"I submit there is only one way to achieve peace and brotherhood--and that is by accepting Christ and his teachings and using them as examples," Romney said.

The major thrust is for the nation to "recognize the validity of God-given standards" and erase the vacuums of leadership of the generations.

THE KEYNOTE speaker was Napoleon J. Alcero, vice president of the Republic of the Honduras, who said he was converted to Christianity three years ago.

He described how his faith has helped him personally in his public service.

The general chairman of the annual prayer breakfast was James Roche, president of General Motors Corp.

SH-SH-S-S-S — Pre-schoolers at William Grace School "sh-sh-s-s-s" like snakes as Mrs. Florence Sharp, speech therapist, shows them the gaiety in sound during the first session of the school's "Pre-Kindergarten Story-Time" program. Each Thursday until May 23, youngsters meet in "their" school to become acquainted with "their" staff and the school surroundings.

Trout Opener Good

Trout season in southeastern Michigan got off to a good start last weekend, the State Conservation Department district office at Pontiac reported.

"Excellent" catches of rainbows were reported at Fenton, Davisburg and Pettibone trout ponds and from Union Lake.

Paint Creek and the Clinton River produced some large brown trout, but fishing in general was rated only "fair". Cooley, Orchard and Teeple lakes yielded fair rainbow catches. Maceday Lake was good for splake.

Waters were clear and generally a little below normal for this time of the year.

Perch and bluegills were being taken from the Huron River, notably in the Flatrock and Pointe Mouillee areas.

The Detroit River produced some walleyes.

Rough fish are still being taken from the north branch of the Clinton River, the Huron River at Rockwood, and the Salt River.

Fairview Eyes '68 Curriculum

Curriculum innovations for the coming year will be discussed at the May 8 meeting of the Fairview PTA in Farmington. The session will begin in the school at 8 p.m.

Jean Ralph, Fairview principal, and Mrs. Marjorie Brown, reading specialist, will participate in the program.

Dr. Roderick J. Smith, Farmington superintendent of schools will explain and answer questions about the four mill request which has been placed on the ballot of the June 10 school election.

An exhibit of student art will be on display during the meeting.

Safety Is PTA Topic

"Safety Measures In the Home" will be the topic at the Larkshire School's PTA meeting May 8. The session will begin in the Farmington School at 7:30 p.m.

Starting time has been set a half hour earlier than usual to allow for the installation of officers for the coming year.

Representatives from the Board of Education will be on hand to discuss the school millage issue which has been placed on the June 10 school ballot.

MAWA Receives $54,845 Grant

The Labor Department has approved a $54,845 grant to the Michigan Automotive Wholesalers Association in Lansing. The grant is for on-the-job training of 60 unemployed persons as mechanics or parts counter-men. The association will submit the contract to its members around the state.

William Grace Teaches Tots What Fun School Can Be

Because entering a school for the first time can overwhelm a five-year-old, William Grace School again this year is conducting its "Pre-Kindergarten Story-Time" program.

This is the sixth year Principal Nicholas Abid and his staff have had the program for pre-school tots who will attend William Grace next fall.

The first of the five get-acquainted sessions was held April 25.

Directing the first installment was speech therapist, Mrs. Florence Sharp, with "Talking Time Is Fun." Twenty-four youngsters in separate groups met at 1, 2 and 3 p.m. to learn about the sounds they make and hear and to learn some fingerplays using these sounds.

On May 2, Mrs. Winifred Voorhees, librarian, opened the door to the world of books for the children with "Tell Me A Story." Again, finger-plays were used to involve the children in the learning process. Mrs. Sue McCallum, music consultant, will direct "Let's Sing a Fun Song" and other musical games on May 9.

Art Consultant Grace Campbell has arranged "Paint Me A Picture" day on May 16. Dressed in Dad's old shirt as a smock, each child will be allowed to create his own work of art with some cans of paint and a brush.

Round-up day, May 23, will complete the series. Regular kindergartners will be dismissed from school that day and next year's crop will take over the classroom. They will experience a day of typical school activities.

Following in order will be "Show and Tell," a story, art, songs and snack time. Each child will have the opportunity to acquaint himself with school toys, activities and the staff awaiting him next fall.

Abid in assessing the program has said, "To a five-year old, starting school is a pretty serious business. Our staff also considers it an important business. The first look

Sex Education Schools' Duty

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court told the states they have the right—even the duty—to decide what kind of sex material youngsters may see and read. Garden Club To Show Color Film

Farmington Garden Club members and guests will see the color sound film, "Greek Earth Reborn" at a meeting at 12 noon May 6 in the Salem United Church of Christ.

The film was made by World Gardening and details the teaching of the Greek people better farming methods to help them toward financial independence. The Farmington club has donated $10 to World Gardening to be designated for Greece.

There will also be a panel on "Grow and Groom Your Horticulture," in preparation for the club's efforts for the Founders Festival.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Frederick Cordes, chairman, Mrs. Walter Kremkow, Mrs. Louis Doyle, Mrs. James Moore, and Mrs. Keith Willoughby.

COG Is Called 'Last Hope' Of Urban Sprawl

By TIM RICHARD

The new top man of the Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments (COG) calls himself "a conservative in my approach to metro government."

E. Robert Turner, in his maiden speech last week after one month on the job, talked like a 19th century Jeffersonian Democrat when he said last week that "the government closest to the people is best."

Turner called voluntary regional councils "the last hope for urban democracy. If we at the local level continue to fail to live up to our responsibilities, then another level of government—meaning the federal—will assume those responsibilities."

TURNER WAS hired a month ago to be executive director of COG, a voluntary association of six counties and hundreds of cities, townships, villages and school districts in southeastern Michigan.

A graduate of Dartmouth and the University of Pennsylvania, Turner had been city manager of Boulder, Colo., for six years and had completed three years as city manager of Burbank, Calif., when he was hired for the newly-formed regional agency in Michigan.

He made his first speech last week at a regional planning conference sponsored by COG.

COG's Observerland members include Farmington city, township and school district; Plymouth city, township and school district, Livonia school district, and Wayne school district.

Non-members are the cities of Livonia, Garden City and Westland; Redford Township; and Clarenceville and Garden City school districts.

USUALLY, said Turner, a man taking charge of a new agency like COG has nothing at all to work with.

"But I have no period of grace.

"On my desk are plans for transportation, garbage, shopping centers, land development, training of law enforcement officers, manufacturing industries, non-manufacturing industries..."

"They all say the same thing at one point: 'We recommend that the Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments be charged with the implementation of this plan.'"

COG, though it held its first official meeting in January of this year, is the new parent agency of a 17-year-old organization, the Detroit Metropolitan Regional Planning Commission, which in turn has a three-year-old child, the Transportation and Land Use Study (TALUS).

COG RECENTLY polled member governments about their opinions on what items should get COG's priority.

There were 17 categories of problems. Fifteen of the 17 got at least one first-place vote. No problem got more than four votes, Turner said.

Turner's conclusion: There is no single overriding problem—or lots of major problems, however, you want to look at it.

Until the last few years in American history, local government has performed "spectacularly," Turner said. But urban problems now are broader than any single unit; hence the need for a broader agency, within the framework of the grass-roots tradition, to tackle those problems or at least to coordinate many separate local efforts.

Turner also said he was "impressed with the intensity of interest" that Detroiters and suburbanites have in urban problems—an interest that is far deeper than just the aftermath of last July's riots.

The result, he said, is that "every COG activity will be examined for its black-and-white (racial) implications. This is tragic—but let's face it."

ROYAL MAIDENS — Karen Louise Kutschke (at right), 28146 David, Farmington, was crowned "Miss Americanism" queen during ceremonies held April 28 by the Farmington VFW Post. A junior at North Farmington High School, the Farmington queen will appear at VFW national and state conventions and will ride in the local Memorial Day parade on May 30. Sue Ellen McArthur (at left), of Livonia, was named "Miss Liberty Bell."

Suburban Groups Back 'Poor' March

By ANN SHAW
Staff Writer

Representatives from several suburban human relations assemblies, including Redford Township's, have endorsed the Poor People's Campaign Support Committee of Detroit.

The endorsement was made last week at a meeting of the Western Suburbs Human Relations Coordinating Committee.

Mrs. Coy Sanrock endorsed it for the Redford Citizens Human Relations Council, the only Observerland group represented.

COORDINATING Committee Chairman Harriet Arnowitz of Oak Park asked for support and contributions to help the 200 Detroiters who will join the midwestern leg of the march on Washington May 13. She said the council could help contribute to the needed $100,000.

Mrs. Arnowitz explained the purpose of the poor people's campaign, as originated by Martin Luther King Jr., "to bring about legislation to help solve the overwhelming problems of the nation's poor. This must be done through law."

The purpose of the Committee is to give moral, physical and financial support to the Poor People's Campaign, according to Rev. C.L. Franklin, representative of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Mrs. Arnowitz issued statements which said: "This is the project about which Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. said: 'We have, through massive non-violent action, an opportunity to avoid a national disaster and create a new spirit of class and racial harmony.'

"We can write another luminous moral chapter in American history. All of us are on trial in this troubled hour, but time still permits us to meet the future with a clear conscience."

Fund raising attempts, by the coordinating committee councils are sale of Kerner report summaries, posters, and bumper stickers.

Redford's Citizens Human Relations Council has them for sale.

COG Could Face Black Power Attack

So far, the Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments (COG) has been attacked mostly by right-wing suburbanites—notably State Sen. Robert Huber, R-Troy.

But COG may face a new attacker soon—the black power element of Detroit's inner city.

And Mel Ravitz, the Detroit councilman who is also vice chairman of COG, says the black-power group may have a valid point.

RAVITZ, A POLITICAL liberal and Wayne State University urbanologist, outlined his fears last week at the end of a day-long conference on regional planning sponsored by the three-months-old, six-county council.

It was significant that although Negroes constitute two-fifths of Detroit's 1.7 million persons and smaller amounts of other cities, there were only two or three black faces in the audience of about 200 at the conference in Cobo Hall.

This is because COG represents governments, not people, and Negroes constitute a powerful bloc only in one place—Detroit.

The black powerites, said Ravitz, are concerned that COG "could be warped," through suburban control, into a "device of Negro containment."

Report Hits Space Agency

WASHINGTON -- The space agency, already braced for heavy cuts of its 1969 budget by the House next week, has suffered a new and damaging setback: An official report that it erred in not insisting that a multimillion dollar Lunar module subcontract be awarded through competitive bidding. The subcontract for radar equipment was estimated originally at $23.4 million. It already has cost the government $12 million, says the General Accounting Office.

TO OVERCOME these fears, he said, COG should give "fair and equitable representation" to the central city.

In addition, Ravitz said, COG should "clarify and underscore" the common concerns of Detroit and its suburbs, and suburbs should end their "stiff housing segregation," not only through laws and ordinances but through a change in personal attitudes.

If COG should fail, Ravitz warned, then there will be no comprehensive planning in the region of four million population, and it will suffer the damage of unplanned "whirlwind" growth.

TOLD THE GIST of Ravitz's remarks, Delos Hamlin, chairman of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, disagreed in part.

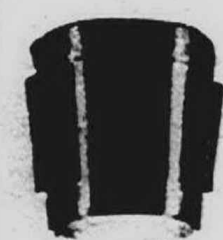

The Farmington politico, a leading organizer of the Council of Governments, said in an interview that the voluntary agency is in business to stay, and that sniping criticism can and should be ignored.

'Mental Health' Topic Of Extension Seminar

Three-hundred and fifty women from Wayne and Oakland counties recently attended a Mental Health Seminar held at Wayne State University and sponsored by Michigan State University's Cooperative Extension Service.

"The Emotionally Disturbed Child", "Tensions and Pressures in Today's Society", and "Menopause" were the topics explored by three eminent speakers, Dr. Ralph Rabinovitch, director of Hawthorn Center for emotionally disturbed children; Dr. Benjamin Jeffries, associate clinical professor of psychiatry at Wayne State University; and Dr. Thomas A. Petty, M.D., Psychiatrist, Grosse Pointe.

DR. RABINOVITCH, who specializes in treatment of children, stressed that treatment is one of the biggest factors in prevention of mental disturbances in youngsters.

"Michigan's facilities for treatment need improvements desperately," he said as he urged a grass roots campaign among his listeners to investigate situations in their communities.

However, Dr. Rabinovitch also stated that continuing research on brain damage in children is permitting afflicted youngsters to lead fuller lives. In addition, research is revealing new methods or preventing brain damage.

RU Trackmen Sweep Past N. Farmington, Belleville

There's no slowing down the Redford Union High track team. The Townshipers swept past North Farmington, 87-51, in a non-league meet and then virtually blanked Belleville, 108-10, in a Suburban Six League encounter.

The two victories upped to eight straight, without a loss, the RU record this season. John Morrison and George Corombos each won two events against North Farmington—

Morrison the high and low hurdles and Corombos two dashes. Morrison then came back against Belleville to set a varsity record of 22.2 seconds in winning the 220-yard dash. The old school mark of 22.6 was set by Eric Vargo three years ago.

Democrat Mardiros Seeks 19th District Seat In Congress

Livonian Ron Mardiros has started his campaign for the Democratic nomination for the 19th district seat in Congress. Mardiros, a bondsman with offices at 31122 Plymouth Road, has been active in party affairs for years.

He is a member of the Michigan Conference of Concerned Democrats, a group formed to protest President Johnson's Vietnam war policies.

Mardiros said: "WE ARE today a nation bitterly divided, torn as perhaps this country has not been in more than 100 years. We have seen these divisions grow and become wider and at times turn to violence.

"Our cities are troubled and our people are concerned about the Vietnam war. Everywhere I go, I discover a deep sense of uneasiness and discontent.

"It flows from a growing conviction that something is wrong with the direction of American Society, that since 1963 we have begun to lose much of the purpose brought to this nation by President John F. Kennedy."

Mardiros said people want to stop "this seemingly endless and futile war," end lawlessness and violence in the cities. They want good schools, lower prices. Now, he said, they are being led by fear.

"It is time now, I believe to substitute a leadership of hope for the leadership of fear," he said.

IN HIS CAMPAIGN, Mardiros said he will "remind you of your responsibilities as well as rights and will substitute the pursuit of peace for the pursuit of war."

"I ask Democrats, independents and responsible Republicans to join me in support of decisions based on reason and conscience, and I promise you we shall again begin to move this country to peace at home and peace abroad," Mardiros said.

A $25,000 appropriation was granted by the Oakland County Board of Supervisors last week to sustain the program of the Commission on Economic Opportunity in this area, and to set the stage for county administration of commission activities.

The board's vote on the issue was 54 to 17 in favor of the appropriation, and came only after a vigorous debate. Both of the Farmington area supervisors, Delos Hamlin and Curtis Hall, voted with the majority.

Hamlin, who is chairman of the board, also received authority from the full board to appoint seven officials to the commission.

The board's support of the appropriation came in face of a recommendation from the ways and means committee that it be denied.

The fight for passage of the anti-poverty program was led by Carl F. Ingraham, Birmingham supervisor who also is chairman of the County Commission of Economic Opportunity. One of its field offices is located in Farmington.

By putting up $25,000, the county anticipates receiving a further $100,000 from the federal government to help defray costs of the commission's program which includes activities in job training and education.

Great Pitching, Good Fielding Keeps Tigers Alive

Great pitching, good fielding... and hitting that leaves something to be desired.

That has to be the story for the Tigers who wrap up a home-stand with Saturday and Sunday games against California before moving to Baltimore for three games, starting Monday evening, against the surging Orioles.

In splitting their last eight games prior to meeting the Angels Friday night, the Tigers only managed once to score more than three runs in a game. Livonia's Joe Sparma twice has been victimized by little support from his mates at the plate. He lost a heartbreaker in New York and it was the same Thursday when Minnesota gained a 3-2 decision in 10 innings, although Sparma was gone by the time the winning run scored.

The same score had worked in the Tigers' favor on Wednesday night against the Twins when Denny McLain went the distance. On Tuesday, against Oakland, the Tigers dropped a 3-1 verdict.

ing. But McLain, who fanned nine, including hard-hitting Tony Oliva three times, got Ted Uehlander on a pop foul for the final out.

Meantime, the Tigers had a few problems with Jim Merritt, a Minnesota left, and except for a break on a looper by Dick McAuliffe in the eighth, there's no telling how long the game might have gone.

Detroit had taken a brief 2-1 lead when Jim Northrup slugged a homer into the right-field upper stands after Don Wert had singled.

But Reece's drive tied the game until McAuliffe lifted a fly to left center with one out in the eighth. The ball skipped to the fence when the center-fielder and leftfielder became confused on who was to make the play.

After Al Kaline walked, Willie Horton hoisted a fly to left after which McAuliffe came home with the winning run.

ed only six hits in absorbing his third loss against two wins.

The Tigers had their chances against Jim Nash, who started and Ed Sprague who relieved Nash in the fifth when Nash pulled a muscle in his leg.

But once Carl Linblad came in with two out in the fifth, the Tigers went dead. He retired 13 straight batters to wind up as the winner.

McAuliffe's double, following a single to Northrup accounted for the only Detroit run in the sixth.

HANDS FLY HIGH as Dave Thomas, of North Farmington, crosses the finish line in winning the high hurdles in a dual meet against Oak Park. He was timed in :16.7.

Franklin Outruns Thurston And Glenn

Franklin High's track team turned in a fine performance Thursday to down Thurston, 67-51, in a Northwest Suburban League meet.

Trojans Generosity Too Costly

Generosity proved too much for Clarenceville High's baseball team in a 9-5 loss to Northville to snap the Trojans' two-game winning streak.

Clarenceville errors paved the way for Northville to knock in six runs in the fifth inning after two were out. None of the tallies was earned.

The Trojans also couldn't do much about batting themselves around. They picked up 11 hits, but left 13 men stranded.

Jim Croskey slugged out three hits in as many trips, while Carl Watkins and Bob Duman each had two safeties for the winners.

Singles by Croskey, Bob Riddling and John Rattburn gave Clarenceville two runs in the second. In the third, Terry Riffin walked, Croskey singled him to third from where he walked in on a passed ball.

The final two Trojan runs came in the sixth when Bob Schurig walked, Jim McCammon singled and Watkins doubled.

Franklin Wins In Play

Franklin High's golf team fashioned a score of 165 to win over North Farmington (174) and Oak Park (170) in a dual meet.

Ron Crisp had a 39 for Franklin, followed by Mitch Montville 40, Tom Cash and Joe Gomes, 43 each.

Bob Gilmore and Lee Cornfield each had 42 for North Farmington, Doug Lamb 44 and Bob Byrne 40.

Franklin Rips 2 Golf Foes

Franklin high's golf team pulled off a pair of victories by beating Wayne, 160-183, and Edsel Ford, 169-194.

Joe Gomez and Mitch Montville each shot 39 while Ron Crisp and 40 and Tom Cash 42 against Wayne. Montville's 38 led the win against Ford. Cash had 42, Chris Roy 44 and John Miltz 45.

Home-Grown Lion Killed

SAN FRANCISCO -- A keeper at the San Francisco Zoo shot a 450 pound lion between the eyes Saturday when Amos Watson, 59, climbed over a fence and into a moat separating the lion from his mate. The lion, born in captivity, sunning himself on a deck, peddled into the moat when Watson shouted, waved a wine bottle and struck a boxers pose. The keeper, Don Farrington, had to get at close range before shooting. "These cats can never be trusted," he said. "They are all killers. Tommy was born here and has never learned to fear a man. He would attack any stranger who entered his cage."

Sprinter Stars For Falcons

It was a slam-bang finish as Farmington High squeezed past Stevenson, 61-57, in an Inter-lakes Conference track meet.

The triumph stretched Farmington's perfect record for the season to 5-0 and upped the Falcons' mark in the league to 3-0.

Chris Brown led the way for the Falcons by winning the 100 and 220-yard dashes. The Williams twins also came home with victories as Gary copped the two mile and Larry showed the way in the mile.

The results:

Long Jump: 1--Mastny (S), 2--Brown (F), 3--Sharpe (S). Distance - 20 feet, 1 1/2 inches.

Plymouth Symphony To Get Concert Exercise

The Plymouth Symphony will do an "on-again, off-again" routine as part of its "Pop-In" concert next Saturday evening in Plymouth High School.

In the second number before intermission, the musicians will leave the stage by ones and twos during the final movement of Haydn's "Farewell Symphony," until only the concertmaster (first chair violinist) and the conductor remain.

Haydn wrote the "Farewell" as a strong suggestion to Prince Esterhazy that he and his orchestra be given a vacation. It worked.

In the last number before intermission, the musicians will return in small groups during the playing of Ravel's "Bolero," which build up to a crashing climax.

REFRESHMENTS will be available during the light-hearted concert, which will begin at 8:30 p.m.

It is sponsored by the Symphony League as a money-raising project. Table and bleacher tickets are available only for cash and by buying in person at the Melody House, Plymouth.

The orchestra, conducted by Wayne Dunlap, will perform Handel's "Water Music," and pianist Benning Dexter, soloist at the April 28 concert, will rejoin the orchestra to perform two movements of Rachmaninoff's second piano concerto.

HEADING THE concert will be baritone Robert Taylor—

"Fat Bob, the Singing Plumber from Ann Arbor."

Fat Bob will sing "Eri Tu" from the opera "The Masked Ball" by Verdi; "Boatman's Song," arranged by composer Aaron Copland from an Ohio River folksong; "If Ever I Would Leave You," from "Fiddler on the Roof"; and "Without a Song," by Vincent Youmans.

The "Pop-In" concert will close Symphony Week in Plymouth.

Funds from the "Pop-In" and from the current membership drive help support the Symphony Society's three main types of programs—six free concerts by the Plymouth Symphony, visits to local schools by Detroit Symphony musicians, and music scholarships for area students.

Summer Musicals Announced

Six weeks of exciting professional theatre will brighten Detroit's summer entertainment schedule from July 10 through Aug. 8.

Announcement of the second season of Detroit Summer Theatre at the Detroit Institute of Arts was made by Dr. Audley M. Grossman, Jr., curator of the museum's Theatre Arts Department.

Celebrating its 25th birthday, Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Oklahoma!" will open the series July 10-14.

Other favorite musicals on the schedule are "Guys and Dolls" — July 17-21; "Finian's Rainbow" — July 24-28; "Carousel" — July 31 - Aug. 4; "Kiss Me, Kate" — Aug. 7-11; "Brigadoon" — Aug. 14-18.

Performances will be at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday; 7:30 p.m. on Sunday. Matinees will be Friday and Saturday at 2 p.m. Mail orders are now being accepted for season tickets and individual performances.

Ticket requests accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope and a check or money order payable to Detroit City Theatre Association should be mailed to Ticket Office, Detroit Institute of Arts, Detroit, 48202.

Season tickets for the series of six musicals are $24 - $12. Individual tickets are $4.50 - $2.50. Reduced admission rates on regular performances for groups of 20 or more can be arranged by calling Miss Klener at 832-2730. A preview matinee each Wednesday is available for special groups at $1 per person.

CHAIM RAPHAEL will lecture in Detroit Monday, May 6, in the Labor Zionist Institute, 19161 Schaefer. The talk will begin at 8:30 p.m. Raphael's subject will be "Jerusalem - History Comes Full Circle." Admission is free.

Meadow Brook Announces Box Office Hours

To better handle increasing demand for tickets, Meadow Brook Theatre has extended its box office hours of operation an extra three hours each day.

The box office is now open for business from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Mondays and Tuesdays, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Wednesdays through Saturdays and from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Sundays.

Managing Director David Bishop said the change was dictated partly by the "tremendous volume" of "Early Bird" Season Ticket orders now being received for the 1968-69 Season and partly because "the previous schedule simply did not give us enough hours in the day to meet the demand for regular tickets."

Dearborn Sets 'West Side Story'

The modern day musical classic "West Side Story" will be presented by the Recreation Department's Dearborn Civic Theatre as its final offering of the 1967-68 season for a six-day run May 3, 4, 5, 10, 11 and 12 in Edsel Ford High School auditorium.

Boasting a cast of more than 65 actors, singers, dancers, musicians and backstage workers, the production is DCT's most ambitious undertaking yet in its history spanning four years and several dozen plays.

Tickets, costing $2 for adults and $1.50 for senior citizens, groups of 20 or more and students, can be purchased at the Dearborn Youth Center; Recreation Department; and Hudson's Downtown and Westland stores.

Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays and 7:30 p.m. on Sunday. All seats are reserved and should be purchased early as DCT officials anticipate a sellout.

The production of "West Side Story" will be the first non-professional attempt of the Stephen Sondheim and Arthur Laurents musical in the area.

City Fine Arts coordinator Kenneth Hagen will serve as musical director to interpret the dynamic Leonard Bernstein score and former professional dance instructor Tom Barrett will be in charge of the demanding and imaginative choreography.

Robert Oris is director of the production.

The modern day Romeo and Juliet tale, set in the slums and backstreets of New York tells of the conflicts of two rival street gangs—the Sharks and the Jets—and the love affair between a member of each resulting in a tragic set of circumstances.

Starring in the lead roles of Tony and Marie are Tom Emmott and Cathy McGuire. Paul Kastl plays Riff; Maureen Cavanaugh portrays Anita and John Vlech takes the role of Bernardo.

FLY TIME IN MICHIGAN - Trout fishermen find a variety of streams in Michigan to test their skills during the state's five-month open season on brook, brown and rainbow trout. Michigan's two peninsulas are criss-crossed by some 36,000 miles of streams—about half classified as trout waters. Whether wading or canoeing, trout anglers can expect plenty of sport—and fish—on rivers and creeks winding through the state's 17 million acres of quiet forestland. -- Michigan Tourist Council Photo.

Cranbrook 40-Acre Gardens Open May 5

The Gardens of Cranbrook House in Bloomfield Hills will open officially on Sunday, May 5.

The gardens occupy 40 acres surrounding the home of Cranbrook's founders, the late Mr. and Mrs. George G. Booth, and the visitor will find there not only formal and casual plantings (in proper season), but outstanding pieces of sculpture, cascades, pinwalks and the Greek Theater.

The gardens are open through October from 1 to 5 p.m. Tuesdays through Fridays and from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on the weekends. They are open on major holidays.

Admission tickets should be purchased on weekdays at the sales desk in Cranbrook Academy of Art Galleries or Cranbrook Institute of Science and on the weekends at the ticket booth on Academy Way or at the drive entrance to Cranbrook House, across from the church parking lot.

Chaplin's 'Gold Rush' At Redford

The original silent movie version of Charlie Chaplin in "The Gold Rush" with Gaylor Carter playing the musical accompaniment on the Barton Pipe Organ will be presented by the Motor City chapter of American Theater Organ Enthusiasts at the Redford Theater (Lahser at Grand River) at 2 p.m. on Sunday, May 5.

A Laurel and Hardy silent movie comedy "Putting Pants on Phillip" will also be on the program.

Gaylor Carter, organist for this special program, started his musical career at the age of 18 as solo organist at Grauman's Million Dollar Theater in Los Angeles. He later performed at a number of other large Los Angeles theaters as soloist and accompanist for silent motion pictures.

Architecture Is Lecture Topic May 10

Former White House curator during the Kennedy administration and now decorative arts curator for the Baltimore Museum of Art, William Voss Elder III, will be the final guest speaker in the sixteenth annual Henry Ford Museum Antiques Lectures Series May 10.

His illustrated talk, scheduled at 8:30 p.m. in the Henry Ford Museum Theater, will deal with "The Maryland Wing" of the Baltimore Museum. Comprising the wing are several rooms of antique furnishings, silver and paintings.

Admission to this Antiques Lecture is $1.50 per person. The public is invited.

Art Institute Features High School Artists

Bentley Halts RU Streak; Plymouth Finally Wins, 5-1

The unexpected happened Thursday in the Suburban Six League's baseball race. It was a double dose, too. For one thing, Bentley halted the winning ways of Redford Union, 10-7.

Then, Plymouth ended its losing ways by whipping Belleville, 5-1. Bentley's conquest snapped Redford Union's nine-game victory streak without a setback in previous action this season.

By winning Bentley also pulled into a tie with Redford Union for the league lead. Each has a 2-1 record. Bentley recovered from a rude jolt at the outset. Fred Dunham, leading off for RU, slapped the game's first pitch for a homer. Bill Fahey singled, Kevin Fox tripled and Bill Howe was safe on an error. Redford Union quickly led, 3-0. But Bentley bounced right back to get even on an error which gave Bob Cascaden life, a double by Tim Malone, a single by Wayne Paulson and a couple more errors. BENTLEY ROLLED up four more runs in the second inning when Ed Rather, Ken Grates, Malone and Paulson all hit safely. Three more RU errors and a sacrifice by Bill Rice also figured in the uprising. Redford Union got two runs back in the third on a single by Fox, an error that put Howe aboard, a balk and Kirk Taylor's single. Bentley retaliated with three more in the fourth by literally bunting Redford Union crazy.

After Rice collected a legitimate-type single, Ken Gowkowski, Jim Powers, John Schroeter and Rather all dropped bunts. Gowkowski and Powers legged 'em out for singles, while Schroeter and Rather were safe on errors.

JOLLY JACK ADAMS was exactly that when this picture was snapped at the recent sportsman's dinner at Meadowbrook Country Club. He was talking to another all-time sports great, Coach Adolph Rupp of the University of Kentucky. Adams was the victim of a heart attack Wednesday afternoon.

Adams Build Red Wings Into NHL Power Hockey Won't Forget Jack

By W. W. EDGAR
 Jack Adams, former general manager of the Detroit Red Wings, reached a goal attained by few men before his sudden death Wednesday. Over a span of 40 years he had risen from a virtual unknown in the metropolitan Detroit area to a living legend. And his passing not only was mourned throughout the United States and Canada, but the game of hockey in America forever will stand as a monument to his untiring efforts.

IRONICALLY, they laughed at Jack when he made his first appearance on the Detroit scene little more than four decades ago. They thought he was tackling an impossible job. With his death the memory of the details of his entry into the Detroit sports whirl came tumbling down through the mist of years. It seemed only a few weeks ago that he was introduced in the sports department of the various papers of the day as "The man who would make Detroit hockey conscious."

A group of financiers and industrialists had just built Olympia Stadium on Grand River and dedicated it to competitions on ice and an all around sports palace. It was their hope

--and ambition--to transplant the Canadian game of hockey on the American side. Adams, who had been a star on the old Ottawa team in the National Hockey League, was brought in to do the job. There were smiles when he was introduced... and for good reason. Detroit in those days was strictly a baseball and fight town.

AT THE TIME Jimmy Conzelman, former All-America quarterback, was fighting a losing battle trying to establish the National Football League in the city with a team called the Panthers. Professional basketball was being played on a hit or miss basis on Sunday afternoons in the Light Guard Armory or a place called "Danceland" on Woodward Avenue with little hope of survival. So, Adams, despite his youthful vigor and enthusiasm was given little chance to make good. But that didn't stop the man who later became known to thousands as "Jolly Jack." He set about the task of building what became a hockey dynasty.

WITH A TEAM called the Cougars he recruited the best men available from Canada and he was on his way. It was a big job, for he not only had to try to develop a winning team, but educate the fans in the intricacies of the game. He even had to take the sports writers (and I was one of them) under his arm and teach them, too. No task seemed too big, or too little as he went about spreading the gospel of hockey. And it wasn't long until he got results. Within a span of eight years his team, now known as the Red Wings, won the Stanley Cup and helped Detroit become known as the City of Champions in 1935. Jack was on his way. In the years that followed he developed seven league champions, won the Stanley Cup, emblematic of the world championship four times, but best of all, he made Detroit and environs hockey conscious. Away from the ice rinks, he was a champion, too. He gave freely of himself in any venture that was for the good of the community.

HE WAS A COMMON sight at the large golf tournaments, not as an official, but as the chief of the parking lots. And, it was typical of Jack, that on the day of his death, he was working on the Spirit of Detroit Committee to raise funds for the staging of the speedboat regatta during the coming summer. He was known wherever hockey is played and attained every honor available to him. But, as he often remarked, he will be remembered as the man who signed Gordie Howe, the greatest player of all time, to a Red Wing contract. Jolly Jack has passed on-- but he never will be forgotten by the legions of friends he made along the way.

SPARKLING PITCHING by Jeff Gillespie highlighted Plymouth's 5-1 decision over Belleville. He allowed only two hits--both by Gary Gentle-- and fanned 13. The Rocks bounced off with two runs in the third inning when Gillespie started matters with a single. Russ Carlson single and Rick Fillmore knocked in both with a double. Carlson's second single, a sacrifice and two infield outs netted the Rocks another tally in the third. Single runs came over in the fifth and sixth innings to lock up the game. Belleville's only run came in a freak manner--on two errors and two wild pitches.

ing of Bob Theisen. However, Theisen walked seven to get himself into some jams. Sorrows mustered only two hits--singles by Greg Main and Tom Webster. The two Sorrows runs came without a hit. A walk to Webster, an error putting Ross Patton on, a walk to Mike Hart and an error, on Main's ground-er netted Sorrows the two runs.

Three games... three victories in Catholic League action in the Northwest division. Sorrows added to its streak Tuesday by downing Our Lady of the Lakes, 4-3, behind the two-hit pitching of Ron Patton, who set down 10 batters on strikes. The Farmington team took advantage of some wild pitches to pull the game out. After Tim LaFond homered for Sorrows in the second inning, Sorrows picked up its final three runs with the benefit of only one hit. In the third inning, walks to Dennis Perry, Patton, Mike Hart and Greg Main netted one run.

IN THE FOURTH, LaFond singled and Dennis Haffey walked. So did Grey Hurst and Tom Webster to produce one run. Haffey came over with what proved the winning run on a wild pitch. Sorrows didn't fare as well Wednesday in a non-league battle at Wayne St. Mary's, losing 3-2, despite the three-hit pitch-

Boston Overpowers Los Angeles To Capture Ninth NBA Crown

LOS ANGELES--For the ninth time in 10 years, the Boston Celtics ruled as basketball's world's champions. The Celtics wrapped up the National Basketball Association's title Thursday night, by breezing past the Los Angeles Lakers, 124-109, to take the series, four games to two. Previously the Celtics had ousted Detroit, 4-2, and Philadelphia, 4-3, on their way to the crown. It was the first title won by the Celtics under the coaching of Bill Russell. The team had won eight straight titles under Red Auerbach until Philadelphia dethroned them last year. Thursday's final was a snap for Boston. Led by John Havlicek and Bailey Howell, Boston rolled a 76-50 lead and coasted the rest of the way. Havlicek, the big star, with Russell throughout the playoffs, flipped in 40 points while Howell added 30. Elgin Baylor had 30 in a losing cause for the Lakers who for the fifth time bowed to Boston in the final series.

With a team called the Cougars he recruited the best men available from Canada and he was on his way. It was a big job, for he not only had to try to develop a winning team, but educate the fans in the intricacies of the game. He even had to take the sports writers (and I was one of them) under his arm and teach them, too. No task seemed too big, or too little as he went about spreading the gospel of hockey. Glenn Tops NSL Baseball Rankings

Onward John Glenn High! Glenn has jumped into command in the Northwest Suburban League's baseball race by winning four in a row.

Latest to fall before Glenn was Thurston by a 6-3 score Wednesday. It was the second loss in three days for Thurston, favored in most pre-season picks to win the loop flag.

Meantime, North Farmington finally engineered its first conquest of the season by blanking Franklin, 8-0.

Kerry Webb notched his third loop conquest in scattering nine Thurston hits.

His mates counted once in the second inning when Bill O'Connor singled over Gary Roland. Then came a five-run, fifth-inning uprising.

Dennis Maloney was safe on an error, Len Anderson walked, Steve McKay singled, Larry Allen was safe on interference and Roland and Webb singled to pick up the five runs.

TIM CARR, who suffered the loss for Thurston, singled in Marty Ingesoulian with the loser's first run. In the fifth, Thurston tallied twice on singles by Chuck Pilar and Tom Roy, a hit batsman (Barringer) to load the bases and Bill Holmes' two-run single.

Roy had three hits and Carr two for the losers.

North Farmington, which had dropped five in a row, received three-hit pitching from Steve Eversman in downing Franklin. Eversman, besides fanning eight, also was the big man with the bat for North Farmington, collecting two hits and drove in a run.

North Farmington staged a pair of four-run innings.

In the second, Norm De-

Courcy singled, Rick Knock walked, John MacLeod singled, Eversman singled and two errors followed to push in four runs.

In the third, North Farmington came back with four tallies on only one hit—a single by McCoy. A walk, hit batsman, error and fielder's choice also figured in the big uprising.

Dave Paden was the losing pitcher. He lasted only three innings.

THURSTON'S ROD SPICER has the shot flying high in the air while competing against Franklin High. The Redford Township field-event star had a winning toss of 48' 7/4".

Lions Deal With Rams To Land Quarterback

The Detroit Lions finally have the man they have been hunting for—quarterback Bill Mumson.

To lure Mumson away from the Los Angeles Rams the Lions had to give up plenty: their No. 1 draft choice for next year, quarterback Milt Plum, who resides in Farmington; flanker Pat Studstill and running back Tommy Watkins.

Along with Mumson, the Lions also get the Rams' third draft choice next season.

The fact that Mumson played out his option last season with the Rams by not signing a contract made it possible for the Lions to deal for him.

He would have become a free agent on May 1 and in position to deal for himself.

LIONS COACH Joe Schmidt admitted the Lions had to give up "a lot" for Mumson, but declared that good quarterbacks carry a high price tag.

"With Mumson, we should win and that will help offset the losses of Studstill and Watkins."

It has been obvious for a long time that the Lions couldn't go into another season with Plum and Karl Sweetan as their quarterbacks.

The two were able to complete only 1,631 yards between them compared to the Lions' passing output of 2,752 the previous year.

Watkins was the Lions' second leading ground gainer last season with 361 yards. Studstill was injured most of the season and caught only 10 passes for 163 yards. However, he was the team's best punter and one of the best in the league.

MUNN had a brilliant career with the Rams until injured two seasons ago.

He came out of Utah State where he had a spectacular college record of having only three passes intercepted.

The 27-year-old Mumson was the Rams' first draft choice in 1964 and as a rookie became the team's starting quarterback.

He really found himself the next season when he clicked on 267 passes in 539 attempts for 1,701 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Then in 1965 he underwent a knee operation and subsequently lost his regular job to Roman Gabriel.

With the Lions' he'll be No. 1. Lions' coach Joe Schmidt declared that there was no dispute in the club's front office over the trade. It had the blessings of Schmidt, GM Russ Thomas and owner William C. Ford.

Stevenson Blanks Falcons In Duel

A year ago Paul Tonnamacher of Stevenson High ranked as one of the area's best pitchers.

Now with the 1968 campaign less than a third completed, it must be said of Tonnamacher he's greater than ever.

HE HAS FORGED four victories without a defeat and it explains why:

1—Stevenson has an overall 7-1 record.

2—Stevenson stands 2-0 in Interlakes League play.

Tonnamacher hurled a three hitter in downing Farmington, 3-0. But he had to be good to beat Farmington's Mark Daly, who allowed only two hits.

Neither of the Stevenson safeties figures in the runmaking.

IN THE FIRST INNING, Chuck Sobczak was safe on an error and Phil Camp walked. Both advanced on wild pitches. A sacrifice fly by Jerry Dettler scored Sobczak and Camp came in after Greg Wilkinson's fly.

In the second inning, Stevenson's Dave Fisher walked. Without a ball being batted, he roared around to score on a stolen base, passed ball and a balk.

Wilkinson and Rich Silber collected the hits for Stevenson. Tony Himmelsbach, Mike Donahue and Don Wolfman picked up the Farmington safeties.

Domes Stock Up Salt Supply

WASHINGTON -- In a world of scarcities, salt is a bright—and savory—exception.

Deposits in 40 great domes along the Gulf Coast of the United States hold ample salt to meet the nation's needs for 26,000 years.

The oceans hold another 50 quadrillion tons—enough to bury all the earth's surface under a layer 500 feet thick.

EACH YEAR rivers of the world carry another four billion tons of salt to the sea, the National Geographic Society says.

About the same amount of dissolved salt is precipitated on the ocean bottom or otherwise extracted from sea water, so the salinity of oceans probably changes little from year to year.

When wave droplets evaporate in the air, winds may sweep up the particles and deposit them far inland, completing the cycle.

Though abundant and cheap today, salt was once scarce and highly prized. Roman Legionnaires guarded Italy's oldest road, the Via Salaria, or salt road.

They received bags of salt as part of their pay. "Salt money," or salarium, led to the modern word "salary."

ALWAYS ON look-out for salt, the Romans found deposits in Romania that are still being mined.

Contrary to popular belief, salt mines are rather pleasant places to visit. The temperature is equable and the crystals sparkle and flash.

Salt mining got a bad name in the Middle Ages when miners, some of whom were convicts, had to lie flat on their backs in narrow tunnels, chipping out the mineral with picks.

Lacrosse Opens Up On Sunday

Detroit's newest professional sports team makes its debut Sunday night when the Olympics engage Toronto in a National Lacrosse Association game at Olympia. Game time will be 7 p.m.

The Olympics along with Toronto, Montreal and Peterborough, will perform in the loop's Eastern Division. In the Western circuit there are Vancouver, Victoria, New Westminster and Portland.

Lacrosse is called a combination of hockey, basketball and football. Six men make up a team in the professional circuit.

The game is played on a cement floor and except for rules barring fouling an opponent and handling the ball with one's hand—each player carries a netted stick—almost anything else goes.

Scores run fairly high with final tallies of 11-9 or 14-13 common.

Teen-Agers Take Over

Bowling's BETTER at your BPA Bowling Center!

observing sports

There you stood, umpiring a high school game at Catholic Central.

Ken Williams, who hasn't had a chance for over four months to write about the preps in The Detroit News, came by to cheer for his son.

As the inning ended, Williams shouted across the diamond:

"Did you hear about Adams?"

"Adams, who?" we countered.

"Jack... Jack Adams," said Ken. "He's dead."

Suddenly your life became empty. One of the nicest men you'd ever known in sports was gone.

Only the day before you had seen Jack at the Spirit of Detroit luncheon. He was there to help kick off the drive to raise funds to put on the Gold Cup boat race on the Detroit River on June 30.

It struck us as Jack greeted the audience that he was a little more subdued than usual. But we didn't think much of his "quietness." After all, there were many others on the program and Jack knew it was going to be a long afternoon for those present.

Some of us wondered the next afternoon when he missed the sports broadcasters luncheon at the Detroit Press Club.

Getting there was always a must for Jack. Nobody knew that the reason he wasn't there was that he had suffered a heart attack at his desk a few moments before. And while his pals at the luncheon laughed and feasted, life expired in this man going on 74 years of age.

Jack bowed out giving his all for the city he loved... the city that meant so much to him...

He was working away on the Gold Cup race when the fatal jolt struck.

He didn't have to handle the Gold Cup. Nor did he have to serve as the president of the Central Hockey League down in the Southwestern part of the country.

"I couldn't be happy just sitting around," he'd always say. "Besides, Detroit and the community made me and I just feel that I should do a little something for the area in return."

HE LOVED YOUNGSTERS — young hockey players in particular, which explains why he accepted the post as president of the Central League.

More than once Jack got up at luncheons and with the pride of a father would say:

"Two or three more of our kids have made it to the National League."

The sports world remembers Jack Adams chiefly because he was "Mr. Hockey" hereabouts. There's no disputing the fact.

He served the Red Wings as player, as coach, as general manager for 35 years. He turned out 12 league champs and had a hand in producing seven Stanley Cup champions.

He guided Gordie Howe into becoming the greatest player the game ever has known. To list the other all-stars who performed under the Adams regime would require more space than we have at our disposal.

Adams was bold and brash. He made trades that stunned the hockey populace... like when he let Ted Lindsay and Red Kelly go in their primes, just to name a couple.

But Adams obviously knew what he was doing. The Wings never seemed to suffer. In fact, they usually got stronger and stronger.

HOCKEY MAY HAVE BEEN Jack's first love. But he was the greatest booster the Lions, the Tigers, the Pistons, the Cougars, Michigan, Michigan State and the University of Detroit ever had.

He was as happy as anybody that the Tigers were off and rolling. When the Pistons finished the way they did, Jack cornered us and said:

"Georgie... it's sure wonderful that after all these years you finally have some moments like this."

And, so went the life of Jack Adams. We know of no man who had an unkind word for Mr. Hockey. Nobody.

His smile electrified the room in which he sat. Honors came to him in bundles... like the national hockey hall of fame, the Michigan hall of fame, hockey all-star honors, coach-of-the-year.

You name it and Jack won it.

They put Jack to rest Saturday... but as long as there are sports around Detroit... as long as Detroit and the area exist... the name of Jack Adams will live.

It's a tragedy men like Jack Adams are so few... and far between.

Cougars Eye Feast At Stadium

Will home (Tiger Stadium) continue to be sweet for the Detroit Cougars soccer team?

The Cougars, who have captured both of their starts on the home grounds this season while losing twice on foreign fronts, have a chance to fatten up during the next two weeks. They'll be playing four straight games at Tiger Stadium, meeting Washington Tuesday, Baltimore Friday, Dallas on May 21 and Toronto on May 24.

Game time will be 8 p.m. for each.

So far the Cougars have bested Vancouver and Toronto in Detroit and lost to Atlanta and Boston on the road.

S. Africa Out, Russia Enters '68 Games

The Russians have made it official. They'll compete in the 1968 Olympics at Mexico City.

As long as there was a chance that South Africa could contest, the Russians hedged on whether they'd be at the Games.

With South Africa now banned, Russia is "in" and virtually all the other countries—some 40 of them—which said they wouldn't go, are expected to follow suit.

A PULLED groin muscle is keeping Jim Bunning, the former Tiger, out of acting with the Pittsburgh Pirates. He already has been inactive for more than a week.

A SORE HIP is keeping Arnold Palmer from vying in this weekend's $100,000 Houston Invitational, the final round of which will be televised Sunday on Channel 7.

JOE LAHOUD, the 20-year-old outfielder who had an impressive start with the Boston Red Sox this season, has been shipped to Louisville. His place on the roster has been taken by Russ Gibson, a catcher who was on the inactive list.

BOBBY ISSAC, top point winner in the NASCAR Grand National championship grid, leads the field Sunday in the Fireball 300 at Weaverville, N.C. He has 834 points to top Clyde Lynn 813, David Pearson 799 and Richard Petty 782.

Petty will be seeking his third straight win in the race.

ON THE SUBJECT of auto racing, the first group of 77 cars entered in this year's Indianapolis 500-Mile race have taken to the famed 2 1/2-mile oval.

It's a diversified field with turbines, turbo-charged Off's and regular Ford racing engines.

A.J. Foyt, the 1967 winner, is back with two new Sheraton Thompson Specials in his bid to become the first four-time winner at Indy. Detroit and Michigan will be represented by 12 cars.

Among the 77 entries, there are nine turbines. First qualifying is slated for the weekend of May 18-19. Experts expect all records to be clipped.

LARRY SALCI, a star for the last three years on the University of Detroit basketball team, now is doing a neat job of pitching for the Titans in baseball. He beat Bowling Green, 5-4, in his last start.

PITY THE PITCHERS on the Wayne State University team. They have a combined earned run average of under one—but they're getting almost no support. In the Tartars' first 11 games, the team committed 41 miscues.

THE LATEST boxing ratings by Ring Magazine list Joe Frazier the No. 1 challenger and Jimmy Ellis No. 2. Frazier is recognized as the new heavyweight champion in New York and three other states, while Ellis rules elsewhere around the world.

As far as the magazine is concerned Cassius Clay still rules as the official world champ.

BOB CONIBEAR, one-time star at Detroit Southeastern High and Wayne State University, has been named head basketball coach at Bowling Green University. He has been assistant at BG for the last four seasons.

THIS IS THE WEEK the National Basketball Association holds two draft sessions. The new Phoenix and Milwaukee team will stock their franchises with professional talent Monday, picking three men from each of the current 12 teams.

Then on Wednesday, NBA teams will wrap up their college draft with picks from the second round on. The first round was held three weeks ago. The Detroit Pistons are expected to go after big men to bolster their front line.

Real Find For Do-It-Yourself

Paint Roller Speeds Decorating

The paint roller has undoubtedly done more for do-it-yourself home decorating than any other recent tool. Coupled with latex paints (though they are used with oil paints as well) they turn out a job that is easy and attractive. The paint roller covers a wider area faster than an amateur could ever handle with the largest brush and there are no brush marks to worry about. The tool consists of a fiber-covered roller and a handle. It's a simple tool and an inexpensive one. But, while a good paint roller is far less expensive than a good paint brush it doesn't mean that you can buy one for pennies. A cheap roller is a waste of the paint you use it with and the time used in putting it on. Forget the disposable models. While it may be cheap enough to use once and throw it away, the results will be so poor you will regret using it. For most people, however, the weight difference will be negligible, so pick the nine-inch model and get 25 per cent more coverage per dip. A new roller may shed lint. Condition it before you start to paint with it. Dip it in the paint tray and cover it all over with paint. Then roll it back and forth on the ribbed portion of the tray to squeeze out the excess paint. Then roll it on large sheets of paper until it rolls dry. Do this a couple of times to get rid of the lint. Then start painting.

make it less porous. A few are even made of plastic. Rollers also are available in seven-inch and nine-inch widths. The nine-inch will obviously hold more paint and cover a wider surface but it will be slightly heavier to handle. If there are heavy lines at the edges or gobs of paint that they are still wet. Let up on the pressure slightly at the end of a stroke. Finish by painting into a wet area and lift the roller from the work at that point. Use a brush for trim and in corners. Avoid the odd-sized rollers and fancy gadgets that supposedly replace the brush. Electricity is expected to play a bigger part in America's lawn mowing this year as electric powered mowers are expected to increase in numbers and as electric key starting gasoline mowers make their bow.

PEACH TREE NOTES: Ever notice those gum boils on the trunk of your peach tree? This is the work of the peach tree borer, the most damaging insect pest which attacks the peach tree. Young trees are often girdled by it and older trees so weakened that other pests soon complete the destruction of the tree. Telltale evidence of borers is gummy boils on the trunk of trees, especially near the base. Spraying is often helpful, using malathion, but this cannot reach the grubs or borers. Inspect your trees now. If you see deposits of jelly on the bark, get out a pocket knife, and "deworm" the tree. In digging out the borers, be careful to remove as little bark as possible. Next, resort to the old-fashioned method of gassing them out with mothballs or paradichlorobenzene crystals (usually shortened to PDB). Remove weeds and trash from about the trunk and apply the flakes in a continuous ring from 1 to 2 inches from base of trunk. Do not allow to touch the trunk. The flakes or crystals give off a poisonous gas which kills the borers nearby. Usually fall, late September to mid-October is best time to treat the trees, although spring treatment is also beneficial. If the gum boils or holes are higher up on the trunk, you can mound some earth up to the infected spot and apply the flakes or crystals. They vaporize to form a gas which penetrates the borer tunnels and kills the borers.

GET A ROLLER with a hollow core that fits onto a roller frame. The part of the frame that holds the roller is best if it is expandable. An expandable sleeve or wire cage will provide solid backing for the roller cover. Pick a handle that will take an extension. This will allow you to paint a ceiling without climbing a ladder. The handle also should be comfortable in your hand. The outer surface may be made of a variety of fibers. The synthetics are generally best; mohair not quite so good. For more home painting you will use a short or medium nap cover. Generally the rougher the surface the longer the nap you should use. Short nap (1/4-inch) is for very smooth surfaces--previously painted surfaces, woodwork, wallboard. Medium nap (3/8-inch) is for anything already mentioned plus textured walls, stucco and concrete block.

LONG NAP for cinder block and extra long for wire fencing. The medium nap is best for all-round use and is preferable to the short nap because it will hold more paint. This means more painting per dip and therefore faster coverage. The nap is glued to a cardboard surface. The better models have a core that is impregnated with materials to CARRY AS MUCH paint on the roller as you can without dripping. Roll from a dry to a Find Demand For Moth Free Closets What used to be considered "extras" in new homes, women are now demanding as "standard". This is documented in a continuing survey of 5,000 home owners and homemakers. High on the wanted list is a cedar closet for the winter storage of summer clothes and in the summer for blankets, furs and fine fabrics. Red cedar's permanent protection against dampness and mildew is also appealing. Being the most moisture resistant of all woods, a cedar closet is often the driest space in the house.

Give Plants A 'Vacation' Outdoors Flowering and foliage plants that can be spared from their job of decorating house interiors should be given a vacation outdoors--when the weather becomes settled and warm--to strengthen them for the winter months indoors, says the Society of American Florists. Now that spring is here, the Society suggests plant owners undertake these preliminary steps: Discard plants that have outlived their usefulness, including those too big for their indoors niche and that cannot be reduced in size by pruning. Prune, to promote symmetry or to reduce a plant's size, several weeks ahead of the time when it is safe to set plants outdoors. Repot in larger pots those plants needing more room in which to grow. If the pots are to be put into the earth, first use an insecticide to combat any insect pests on the plants, the Society advises. It is better to group house plants together in an outdoor bed location providing a variety of conditions--full sun for desert plants (cacti and succulents) amaryllis and geraniums; partial shade for azaleas, Christmas cactus and orchid cactus; and shade for foliage plants in general.

Fumigation Aids In Study Huge nylon tents covering entire islands have been used by two Harvard zoologists to kill all animal life on the islands in a study of recolonization by insects and other small invertebrates. The sites selected have included half a dozen small mangrove islands in the Florida Keys, 30 to 50 feet in diameter and up to 500 yards from the nearest shoreline. Dr. Edward O. Wilson and Daniel Simberloff would cover an island with one of the tents, then fumigate it with methyl bromide in sufficient concentration to kill all land invertebrates but not the mangrove trees themselves. Easy To Determine Material Needed Figuring the amount of aromatic red cedar needed to line a closet is easy. Simply multiply the height by the width. For instance, a section with an 8' ceiling and a 4' wall would require 32 sq. ft. of material. When making the calculations, include the ceiling, floor and inside of door, as well as the walls. Local lumber dealers carry aromatic red cedar closet lining. The tongue and groove pieces come in pre-packaged cartons or bundles.

Electric Power Important For Lawn Mowing Electricity is expected to play a bigger part in America's lawn mowing this year as electric powered mowers are expected to increase in numbers and as electric key starting gasoline mowers make their bow. The electric key start, gas powered models have the advantages of easy starting and complete freedom of maneuverability and travel because they are not hampered by a cord. Batteries are recharged by simply plugging into the household current overnight. A fully charged electric starter is said to be able to start the gasoline powered mower thirty to forty times between charges. BUGLAND A single square yard of earth can support 100,000 or more individual insects while it requires nearly 21 acres to support one human.

Three Youths Held For Trial

Three Garden City youths were arrested by Plymouth Police early Thursday morning and charged with possession of alcohol. The driver was also charged with reckless driving and driving an auto while his license was suspended.

Municipal Judge Dunbar Davis arraigned the three later the same day.

THE DRIVER, Thomas John DeMoss, 19, of 30447 Elmwood, pleaded innocent to the counts of reckless driving and driving while his license was suspended.

Judge Davis posted a $200 bond on each count and set trial in two weeks. DeMoss pleaded guilty to the count of minor in possession. Judge Davis posted a $100 bond on this count and set sentencing for this Monday.

The two passengers, Gerard Stacy Abidin, 19, of 29141 James, and Charles E. Baker, 20, of 29645 Bridge, pleaded guilty to charges of minors in possession.

Judge Davis fined Baker $50 or five days in jail and posted a $50 bond for Abidin and set sentencing also for Monday.

City Chief of Police Robert Corrington explained that Baker was sentenced immediately because he was in the service, and if he could not pay the fine, he would be able to serve the five days in jail and not be absent without leave from the service as well.

POLICE SAID that they spotted the three youths travelling on Main St. in the city about 1:30 a.m. They noticed that the front license plate on the car was hanging loose and attempted to stop the vehicle.

When they approached, the police said, the car sped away. They apprehended the youths after chasing them on Main at a high rate of speed.

The police reported that they found three full beer bottles on the rear floor and one half-empty bottle under the driver's seat.

Micol Draws Pair Of Fines In Township

Stanford Micol, 1666 Sheldon Road, was fined on two charges last week in Township Justice Court.

He was fined $125 for contributing to the delinquency of a minor and an additional $15 for destruction of the turf in Hines Park.

Aside from the fines Micol also paid $50 to the Wayne County Road Commission for damage done to the turf in the park.

Justice McCarthy heard 19 cases during the week and levied $774.50 in fines.

Report on Arbor Village — Spartan Warehouse. Mr. McEwen stated that he had advised this company to discuss this situation with Mr. Rothermel, the President of the Arbor Village Homeowners, to see if a satisfactory agreement could be reached. Mr. McEwen then advised that this matter would be held in abeyance pending the arrival of Mr. Rothermel.

New Business—Wayne County Road Commission—Re: Submitting an agreement for sewer construction on Joy Road from Hagerty westward to the Koss Drain. Mr. McEwen explained that the Road Commission was eager to get an agreement and had acknowledged the $10,000, but that the Drain Commission had not acknowledged that the amount would be in the bond issue. Following discussion regarding the bond issue and the bids that have been received, Mrs. Holmes moved that the Board approve the signing of the agreement with the Road Commission upon receipt of confirmation that the amount would be added to the bond issue. Seconded by Mrs. Richardson and carried unanimously.

At this time, and because of the arrival of Mr. Thomas Rothermel (41215 Bruce) Mr. McEwen asked that the Board refer to Old Business, Report on Arbor Village—Spartan Warehouse. Mr. Rothermel came before the Board, stating that there had been telephone conversations with Mr. Tache, general manager of Spartan Warehouse, and that a meeting was proposed for Thursday evening, April 25, 1968. He then went on to state that as yet nothing constructive had been accomplished in regard to the meetings that had been held by the homeowners. The company had made an offer to erect a six (6) foot high wall which he did not believe would be of the nature of their installation. He also stated that the noise and traffic were increasing each week, that there were more trucks and their hours of operation were starting earlier in the morning and extending later into the night. He called the Board's attention to the fact that if the company were contemplating a greenbelt, the normal planting season is coming to an end. Discussion then followed on this company conforming to the ordinance, and in finalizing the discussion, Mr. McEwen stated that he planned immediately to talk to the manager of Spartan Warehouse.

Marvin R. Korzeiger, 324 Morrison Rd. — Re: Requesting settlement for damage done in 1966 by contractor installing sanitary sewer and realignment of Tonquish Creek through his property. Discussion followed on the obligation of the contractor and the possibility of using the money in escrow to rectify the damage done by said contractor. Also, other instances of contractors not fulfilling the terms of their contracts were discussed. In this connection, Mr. Hamill was asked to prepare an itemized and list, including Mr. Korzeiger's claim, of unfinished work of contractors and submit same to the Township Attorney, who in turn could submit same to the Wayne County Road Commission. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Herald F. Hamill—Re: Recommendation that the retainage on the A-Bird Tramp Hollow Sanitary Sewer contract be reduced from 10% to 5%. Following discussion of Mr. Hamill's communication, Mr. Garber moved that the Board reduce the retainage on the A-Bird Tramp Hollow Sanitary Sewer in accordance with Mr. Hamill's recommendation, and if check is to be made payable to anyone other than the A-Bird Construction Company, such authorization should be received from the A-Bird Construction Company, also a waiver of lien from the Armeo Corporation. Seconded by Mrs. Holmes and carried unanimously.

Request from G. T. Gorguze, Plymouth Community Schools to use two voting machines for a School Election on May 7, 1968. Following the reading of this communication from Mr. Gorguze, in which he stated that the Plymouth Community Schools would assume all responsibility for the pick up and return of the two machines, Mrs. Holmes moved that the Board allow the two voting machines to be used in the School Election on May 7, 1968. Seconded by Mr. Norman and carried unanimously.

Plymouth Lions Club—Re: Requesting permission to sell white canes in Plymouth Township on Friday and Saturday, April 26th and 27th, 1968. Mrs. Richardson moved that the Board authorize the Plymouth Lions Club to sell white canes in Plymouth Township on April 26 and 27, 1968. Seconded by Mrs. Holmes and carried unanimously.

Plymouth Jaycees—Re: Requesting approval of building a City Park on City owned property at the west junction of Ann Arbor Road and Ann Arbor Trail. Following the reading of this communication by Mrs. Richardson, Mr. Hazlett appeared before the Board. He stated that the Plymouth Jaycees could obtain free of charge 2100 yards of clay and loam for fill for this proposed park, and they were eager to take advantage of this, thus they were requesting approval so they could get the free fill, and would then come back with a site plan. Mr. Lauterbach moved that the Board approve the Jaycees request to fill and level only the site of the City's property located in the Township at the junction of Ann Arbor Trail and Ann Arbor Road, west. Supported by Mrs. Holmes and carried unanimously.

John D. McEwen—Re: Recommending Robert Perry be authorized to attend conference at University of Michigan on Acutely ill or injured persons. Mrs. Holmes moved that the Board concur in Mr. McEwen's recommendation and approve the attendance of Mr. Robert Perry at a conference to be held on May 15, 16, 17, 1968 at the University of Michigan. Seconded by Mr. Norman and carried unanimously.

Item No. IV—Proclamations—Re: Women for the United Foundation Health-O-Rama Week May 12 through May 18, 1968. A proclamation was read by Mrs. Richardson declaring the week of May 12 through May 18, 1968, "Women for the United Foundation Health-O-Rama Week." Mrs. Richardson moved that the Board adopt the proclamation as read. Seconded by Mrs. Holmes and carried unanimously.

Mr. Carl Pursell, 670 Sheldon Road, came before the Board, stating that Mayor Jabara of the City of Plymouth had received two communications asking for participation in a radio program and a television program on a State to the Community. These communications had been referred to him, as a representative of the Chamber of Commerce, and he was asking for an expression of the Board's interest in said programs. Following discussion, it was determined that Mr. Pursell would present more explicit plans of this request to the Board at its next meeting, and Mrs. Richardson would be the liaison between the Township and the Coordinator of the program.

A communication from Mr. Paul J. Albright, Director of Public Service, dated April 11, 1968 was received. In his communication, Mr. Albright enclosed a list indicating the date, the location, and cost for attending fires caused by the C and O Railroad within the Township of Plymouth, more specifically, it was nine fires for the period of March 4 through April 2, 1968 at a cost of $514.00. Mr. Albright recommended that the Township buy the C and O Railroad General Motors Bulldoze, Detroit, Michigan for this amount. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Mr. Garber moved that the meeting be adjourned. Supported by Mr. Norman. Supervisor McEwen adjourned the meeting at 10:55 p.m. Approved: JOHN D. McEWEN, Supervisor. Respectfully submitted: HELEN I. RICHARDSON, Clerk. Publish 5-5-68

Jaycees Plan Schoolcraft Student Aid

The Plymouth Jaycees have undertaken a scholarship program which will award a grant-in-aid to two Plymouth area students attending Schoolcraft College.

Each student will receive $100 per semester throughout the two year curriculum. The first grants will be awarded in September to one entering freshman and to one sophomore. Hereafter, one new freshman will be awarded the grant each fall.

An initial selection of four or five candidates will be made by Schoolcraft College from among all Plymouth area applicants. The final selection will be made by the Plymouth Jaycees officers.

Scholastic potential will be the major consideration for selection.

Eastern Michigan University on May 11, will feature student-expert exchanges on three important issues—Vietnam, the Selective Service System and the crisis in the cities.

"It's my hope," Esch said, "to help create better understanding of important issues among young people, and at the same time, and more importantly, to learn the views of our future leaders."

After a brief opening session at 9:30 a.m., students, expected to number about 100, will meet in three workshop groups to hear the views of prominent non-partisan experts on the three forum issues. After this presentation, an hour-long question and answer and general discussion period will be conducted by experienced discussion leaders, followed by a closing session luncheon where workshop reports will be given and discussed.

PRIOR TO THE FORUM, students will be sent issue background papers prepared by the Library of Congress and similar sources. Reports from the forum will be filed with the appropriate committees of Congress and made a part of the Congressional Record.

The tentative schedule includes Philip Rockefeller, counsel to the House Education and Labor Committee and an authority on urban problems, a representative of the State Department's Southeast Asian desk to talk on Vietnam and a Selective Service administrator to act as a source person on the draft.

Workshops will be led by Dr. Alfred W. Storey, Associate Director of the University of Michigan Extension Service; Herbert W. Hildebrandt, Secretary of the University of Michigan; and Earl K. Studt, Director of Eastern Michigan University Field Services. Coordinating the event at E.M.U. is Dean of Admissions and Financial Aids, Ralph F. Gliden.

There's no flame with an electric range. So there's no sooty combustion to dirty up pots and pans or soil kitchen walls and curtains. It's the cleanest way to cook.

With many electric ranges, you can forget messy oven cleaning. They clean themselves, automatically, for about 7½ cents per cleaning.

There's free installation, too. Buy now at any retail dealer and Edison will pay installation cost. (As long as your electric range is installed on Detroit Edison lines in any existing residence up to and including a four-family flat.) And Edison repairs or replaces electric operating parts—no charge for parts or labor.

For a bright difference in your pots and pans—and maybe even in your family's appetite—switch to an electric range.

Publisher Held In Contempt; Ignores Senate Subpoena

LANSING -- A state senate committee Wednesday held the publisher of the Detroit News, Peter B. Clark, in contempt of the senate and bodily ejected a federal court courier from its meeting in Gov. George Romney's office.

The courier, Lawrence Van-till, a Detroit attorney who represented Clark at an earlier committee meeting, was removed as he served restraining orders prohibiting committee members from interfering with collective bargaining procedures in Detroit's now 171-day-old newspaper strike.

Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said he would take appropriate legal action within 24 hours to determine if the governor and the committee are legally subject to jurisdiction of the U.S. District Court in Detroit.

Judge Damon Keith issued the order after Clark had been subpoenaed to appear before the committee. The order declared the subpoena void and also prohibited Gov. Romney from attempting to mediate the strike.

JACKSON -- One fireman was killed and six others injured when fire damaged a tavern and former bowling alley in downtown Jackson last week. Officials identified the dead man as Wilbur Smith, 26, who apparently suffocated when he was trapped in the three-story structure.

LANSING -- The Michigan Court of Appeals has struck down an act requiring motorcyclists to wear crash helmets. The appeals court overturned an Ingham County decision and ruled that a 1966 law requiring the helmets is unconstitutional, since it protects only cyclists and not the general public.

STATE -- A trans-Michigan waterway running from Port Huron to Benton Harbor, aimed at solving the growing problem of an adequate supply of fresh water for many landlocked communities, is proposed by John R. Snell, Lansing consulting engineer. With major branches to Detroit and Flint, the waterway would cost about half a billion dollars and could be completed by 1975, according to Snell, president of his own engineering firm.

LIVINGSTON COUNTY -- An extensive investigation, that stemmed from an original complaint of possible mishandling of a $441,000 estate in Livingston County Probate Court, was ordered by the State Bar of Michigan last week against certain Livingston County attorneys. The Bar, in an almost precedent-setting action, made public a case it would probe and hire a special investigator to conduct it. Normally, the Bar does not openly discuss complaints that it has under investigation and does not reveal recommendations until they have been filed with the State Supreme Court.

LANSING -- An enriched school aid program aimed at core city and financially weak school district problems was signed into law by Gov. Romney last week. The appropriation allows a $615 million expenditure on state school aid during the 1968-69 fiscal year, up almost $60 million from this year's outlay.

WINN -- Richard H. Head-

lee, former political aide of Gov. Romney, has been named president of Morbank, Inc., a manufacturer of pulpwood and debarking equipment at Winn, in Isabella County. Headlee, formerly on the staff of Burroughs Corp. in Detroit, helped Romney organize the Christmas in Vietnam project for sending gifts to Michigan servicemen in 1965 and served on the governor's 1966 state campaign staff.

LANSING -- Top salary levels for judges in the proposed new Michigan District courts were cut back last week in Senate amendments to the lower court reorganization bill. In the action, the Senate adopted amendments which would cut the state share of the salary to $15,000 and the top supplemental amount to $22,500. The House passed version provided for state salaries of $20,000 for the judges which could be supplemented up to $27,500 by the local districts in which the court is located.

LANSING -- A controversial bill which would provide immunity for certain witnesses in criminal cases was back before the House for final approval after it passed the Senate by a vote of 22-15. It met strong opposition from Senate Democrats during the final action of the upper body with arguments that the bill would expand the one-man grand jury system in Michigan. The bill provides that a circuit court judge, upon application of a prosecuting attorney, may grant immunity from prosecution of certain witnesses in criminal cases in order to obtain their testimony.

PONTIAC -- A young Pontiac man was being questioned last week by Oakland County Sheriffs in the kidnapping of a 19-year-old Pontiac housewife, who said she was left tied after her car broke down in a rural area and the abductor fled on foot. The Sheriff's Department said that no charges had been filed against the man, who was picked up by authorities near a woods in Genesee County shortly after the incident was reported.

Frank Kimison, 14, of Pontiac, said the man held him and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Norman Kimison, at gunpoint and forced them to take him toward Commerce Township where the youth was released and had to walk several miles before reaching a telephone.

DETROIT -- A federal judge has denied a motion to postpone the trial of former Detroit Mayor Louis Miriam in charges of evading $152,000 in income taxes. U.S. District Judge C.G. Neese of Greenville, Tenn. set the trial for the last week.

Plymouth High Trackmen Roll Along Undeclared

Plymouth High's track team is working toward a showdown with Redford Union.

The Rocks remained unbeaten during the past week by piling up three victories to boost their season's record 4-0 along with a 3-0 mark in the Suburban Six League, where RU also is unbeaten.

In all three of its latest conquests, the Rocks won in convincing style. First it was 89-29 over Trenton, then 71-47 over Stevenson, then 90-28 over Allen Park.

Steve Derr piled up six individual victories during the week. He took the high hurdles against Trenton, won the high jump and Low hurdles in the Stevenson meet and captured both hurdles and the high jump against Allen Park.

Stevenson fashioned two school records against Plymouth when Dale Danver tossed the shot 51 feet, 9 inches and Dale Wendell took the high hurdles in 14.6 seconds.

The results:

Montreal Favored In Cup Finals

Hockey's final round of the Stanley Cup playoffs opens Sunday at 2 p.m. on Channel 2. It'll be Montreal vs. either Minnesota or St. Louis, who were to meet Friday night in the seventh and deciding game of the Western Division title series.

Minnesota evened the set at 3-3 by winning Wednesday, 5-1, as Bill Goldsworthy scored two goals and picked up one assist to lead the way.

Montreal will be heavily favored in the finals. The Canadiens ripped Boston in four straight and ousted Chicago in five. Both teams are considered much stronger than St. Louis or Minnesota.

Crab Apple Group Rates Best As Flowering Tree

Try Hand At Building 'Mini' Cedar Closet

Washington, D.C., has its cherries, the South its azaleas and the Middle South and much of the East the glorious Flowering Dogwood. But no matter, for perfectly suited to our own Midwest is a group of flowering trees with perhaps no equal the Red, pink or white flowers smother the trees in the first half of May, and in late summer and fall red or yellow or orange berries glisten in the sun. But the crabs' special charm comes from their picturesquely twisting branches.

Their beauty is lost in the shrub border and they look best as single specimens or in groupings of three or more. Their blossoms are especially beautiful with evergreens as a background.

SARGENT 8-10'. Dwarf size and rugged, twisting branches make the Sargent one of the best of all plants for placing next to today's low-slung homes. Red fruit follows the white blossoms.

TEA 20'. Branches spread out like the ribs of a fan, giving the Tea Crab the distinction of being considered the most picturesque of all crab apples. Pink flowers run the length of the long branches in mid-May.

City apartment dwellers are particularly susceptible to the estimated $400 million of damage which moths inflict annually to furs and fabrics. The loss stems directly from lack of adequate safeguards.

While converting an existing apartment closet to a moth-repellent closet is not expensive, many apartment dwellers are loath to make the investment which must remain behind when they move. As an alternative, consider lining deep bureau drawers with aromatic, moth-repelling red cedar as a permanent, effective and inexpensive method of providing a "mini" cedar closet.

Carefree Geraniums Available

F1 Hybrid, the status symbol of flowering plants, brings new distinction to geraniums with the introduction of the Carefree strain for 1968 gardens.

It took a little doing. Hybridizers of the Pan-American Seed Co. of West Chicago worked at it for eight years. They came up with eight colorful varieties that grow true to color from seed and which develop into robust, superior plants as hybrids should.

Three of the varieties are so outstanding that they were chosen for All-America awards for 1968, an unqualified endorsement of their value for planting in home gardens everywhere. They are:

CAREFREE SCARLET-A fiery, orange-red beauty that adds luster to any planting.

CAREFREE DEEP SALMON—A very strong salmon color makes this one a real eye-catcher.

CAREFREE BRIGHT PINK—Intense rose-pink flowers of this variety won the favor of the All-America judges, as they will yours.

There's sparkling appeal in the vibrant hues of the five other varieties, too. They are:

Carefree Red, an intense salmon-red; Carefree Light Salmon, which is almost peach in color; Carefree Light Pink, a delicate pink; Carefree Picotee, a charmer with white petals edged with rose-red, and Carefree White, which is truly white and bright.

All of the virtues of hybrid breeding—vigor, abundant flowering, and disease resistance—put the Carefree in a class by themselves.

Plants of Carefree Geraniums will be available from most garden centers and bedding plant growers.

OF THE HUNDREDS of varieties in cultivation, the following are considered among the very best. All may be purchased from local plantmen or from the big mail-order nurseries.

ARNOLD 15-20'. Red flower buds contrast beautifully with the light pink flowers. The tree is mound-like and densely branched. Large yellowed fruit appears in September.

CARMINE 15-20'. Deep pink flowers and glossy foliage are features of this grand old crab. Like the Arnold, the Carmine is mounded and has dense branching.

DOROTHEA 15-25'. Semi-double rose flowers, bright yellow fruit and twisting branches combine to make Dorothea outstanding even in this list of champions.

JAPANESE FLOWERING (Floribunda) 15-30'. One of the all-time favorites, Floribunda boasts thousands of pale pink flowers, yellow-orange fruit and wide-spreading, twisting branches.

KATHERINE 15-20'. Branches that are spreading, make Katherine one of the most charming of all. The flowers are pale pink.

RADIANT 20-30'. Introduced just 10 years ago, the Radiant is regarded as among the finest of the newer crab apples. It has deep pink flowers, bright red fruit and red-touched new leaves. Growth is compact and upright.

Safe Mowers

The 1968 mower shopper will be aware of the emphasis on safety in the new product lines. Close to 90 per cent of the new mowers will bear the triangular seal symbolizing that they conform to the industry's safety standard. In addition, many producers are coming out with such additional safety features as handle control for positive stop and go operation, instant braking for the cutter blade, through-the-deck cleaning systems, above-the-deck cutting height adjustment, and cutting blades which retract on impact.

Gardeners Devoting Time To Edibles

For the first time in half a century, American gardeners have given the growing edge to vegetables and fruits over flowers—and women are largely responsible.

A garden tool company, Union Fork and Hoe, made a national study among 712 garden clubs and 5,160 heads of families with incomes of $6,000 to $12,000 and reported:

About 81 million home gardeners work in 45 million gardens.

Of the gardening population, 64 per cent are women and 34 per cent men.

Gardening is the most popular adult hobby.

The number of new gardens is up despite a drop in home building.

The rose is the nation's favorite flower.

YOUNG MARRIED FOLK plant earlier and bigger gardens initially, compared with their counterpart of 10 years ago. Of existing home gardens, 74 per cent were expanded substantially.

Fifty-nine per cent cut down on flowers and added vegetables.

Fifty-four per cent reduced flowers and added fruit.

Major reasons for switching to vegetables and fruits are:

Increasing food prices; home-grown fruits and vegetables taste better and are more nourishing; cuts down on shopping time; helps families get products they like; vegetables are as relaxing and more rewarding than flowers.

ABOUT 56 PER CENT of garden land is being used largely for string beans, tomatoes, beets, spinach, cucumbers, carrots, apples, pears and berries.

The survey indicated that women usually choose the crops. They buy the seeds, cuttings and plant food and help buy the tools. Women say garden tools should be more colorful—they would be easier to see when left on the ground.

Men claim that more overtime work, crowded highways and more business traveling leave less time for gardening.

Rocky Runs; Wants Closer Red Contacts

WASHINGTON--The nine month logjam blocking a tax increase began to break up last week. The House Appropriations Committee approved a package of appropriations and expenditures reductions that was approved by the Johnson Administration. Details of the package were kept secret. Republicans on the committee wanted larger reductions and abstained from the vote. But some indicated they would now support a tax increase.

WASHINGTON--The Treasury offered to pay 6 per cent interest--the highest since 1920--to sell two securities later this month. One of the securities will run for seven years and will replace two issues totaling $8 billion that mature May 15. The general public holds $900 million of the $8 billion total. The other security, a 15-month issue, will raise $3 billion in cash to help cover the continuing large deficit in the budget.

PHILADELPHIA--In his second day of official campaigning for the Republican presidential nomination, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller called Wednesday for closer contacts with Communist China and the "de-Americanization" of the war in Vietnam.

Gov. Rockefeller made the statement in a full-dress review of American foreign policy and problems in a speech before the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia.

STANFORD -- Topless dancer Vicky Drake's right to run for president of the Stanford University student body was accepted last week by the administration and students. However, the nude campaign posters she posted on campus have vanished. "I have one on my desk," said the associate dean of students, Willard Wyman.

The candidacy of the 38-22-36 beauty was challenged at first on the grounds she is not now a student. That since has been overruled.

LOS ANGELES--An ex-Los Angeles policeman and his girlfriend were jailed last week in an investigation of the slaying of his bride and the girlfriend's husband. Accused of murdering for insurance money are Paul Samuel Perveler, 31, and his girlfriend, Kristina Cromwell, 27.

NEW YORK--The leadership of the AFL-CIO National Maritime Union lost another round last week in a running battle to block a challenge to its control of the 35,000-member organization.

Federal Judge Constance B. Motley, who recently ordered a new election of NMU's national officers directed that the union produce books and records that might show whether the Landrum-Griffin Act has been violated.

MARCH AIR FORCE BASE--Former President Eisenhower spent a comfortable day at the Air Force base Wednesday, and his doctors said his latest heart attack does not seem as severe as the two previous ones. "The general's progress to this point has been very encouraging," medical authorities noted in a statement.

BOSTON--Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, who wasn't even an official candidate when the voting began, was declared the starting winner on the Republican side of the Massachusetts presidential primary.

Rockefeller pulled the dramatic and stunning upset over favorite son Gov. John A. Volpe and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon by grabbing 31 per cent of the vote in Tuesday's election. As expected, Sen. Eugene McCarthy ran away from Sen. Robert F. Kennedy on the Democratic side.

ALBANY--Talk of a Rockefeller-Reagan ticket was rife here last week after Gov. Rockefeller finally plunged into the presidential race. Both Rockefeller, at a news conference following his announcement, and Gov. Reagan, at his weekly press conference in Sacramento, played down the ideological differences between them.

Reagan also said that Rockefeller's entrance into the race made it certain that no one could lock up the nomination before the Republican National Convention opens in Miami Beach Aug. 5.

NEW YORK--Columbia University's classrooms were locked for a "day-of-reflection" last Wednesday under pressure from a student-faculty strike and charges of "cop-terror" over a police raid which routed rebel students from a week-long campus sit-in protest.

The university has been unofficially shut down since last Friday because of the sit-in. What started a week ago as a peaceful protest over construction of a gymnasium and the Vietnam war ended in violence, the arrest of 720 persons and damage to five student-seized buildings which a school official said would "cost a fortune" to repair.

PITTSBURGH--A federal judge fined nine plumbing firms a total of $242,500 on price fixing charges. The government accused the firms of meeting in various cities between November 1960 and June 1962 to raise and fix prices on staple vitreous china plumbing fixtures. These are the lowest priced line of toilets and sinks installed in many homes. The companies pleaded no defense.

SMALL WONDER

These tiny doughnut-like cores, the electro-magnetic building blocks for many modern computer memories, are made by IBM in almost microscopic sizes. A typical computer memory might contain more than a million such cores. Each is separately tested during production.

End Basement Flooding!
Install an Automatic Backwater Valve Prevents Water in Floor Drains From Backing Up!
This is how "DRAIN GUARD" works:
In normal position, drain water is always free to flow through "Drain Guard" into the sewer.
BUT
the instant any sewer water starts to back up, the rubber float rises and acts as a check valve to prevent any water from flooding basement.
Insure against flood damage with Drain-Guard

Keeping up with the Joneses this summer could cost you your life.

You know the Joneses.

The family next door. Who always buy the things you plan on getting—just before you do.

This year it's guns.

A shotgun and a .45.

Plus a .22, a .38 Colt and a Four-Ten, just in case.

You know why.

The local authorities just won't be able to handle things this summer. That's what Jones says, anyway.

So you're going to get a few guns.

What are you going to do with them after you buy them?

If your son can find the toys 2 weeks before Christmas, he can find anything you hide. He might even show his little sister.

Look. No one knows what'll happen in the city this summer. Hopefully nothing.

But we all know what might happen in a suburban home filled with lethal weapons.

All it takes is a sleepy wife.

A nervous neighbor.

A curious child.

And a loaded gun.
