FARMINGTON The proposed four mill tax increase for school operating purposes was removed as an issue in the upcoming Board of Education election when the only non-member in the race, Gary L. Lichtman, announced his support of the measure. His two opponents, incumbent Richard H. Peters and George A. Nardella, also favor passage of the special levy. Two of the three will be elected June 10.

FARMINGTON A record an eminent project was described by Township Supervisor Curtis H. Hall as the most recent chance for providing a new shopping center to the town. The project, a 10-acre site on the corner of Ann Arbor Rd. and Hargerty Rd., was described by Hall as a "shopping center" and a "shopping center."

Township Approves New Shopping Area

The Plymouth Township Board reversed the recommendation of the Planning Commission in a 4-3 split vote last Tuesday, granting rezoning for a shopping center on the corner of Ann Arbor Rd. and Hargerty Rd.

Township Supervisor Jack McEwen cast the tie-breaking vote in favor of the rezoning. The Township planners had voted 5-2, with two others abstaining, to deny the request. The reversal left homeowners in the area shocked—they apparently had felt the battle had been won earlier. Township Treasurer Elizabeth Holmes moved to accept the planner's denial, and Dirk Lauterbach seconded the motion. But McEwen, Ralph Garber, clerk Helen Richardson and Louis Norman voted the motion down.

McEwen asked Township Attorney Ralph Cole what should be done next, and Cole suggested they vote on approving the rezoning, "just to make it clear."

Ralph Garber, who also sits on the planning commission, then countered Mrs. Holmes' motion with one approving the rezoning. It passed, with Eugene Overholt, Lauterbach and Mrs. Holmes voting no.

Overholt explained his vote: "The consultant says we have enough commercial zoning there now for a neighborhood development. The question is do we want a large enough shopping center there for the whole town."

Susan Sawusch Hurt In Crash

Susan Sawusch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sawusch of 47145 Beechercrest Dr., has been hospitalized with a compressed vertebrae as the result of an automobile accident which occurred last Monday afternoon.

She was a passenger in an automobile that skidded on the rain-wet pavement, left the road and hit a tree.

It was at first thought that Sue had suffered a "whiplash" but later X-rays revealed the vertebrae condition.

Sue is in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Plymouth Story Goes On Air Monday Night

The story of the Plymouth Community -- past, present and future -- will be featured on WWJ radio Monday evening at 7 p.m.

It is another in the series of a "Salute to the Suburbs," and will feature the voices of Sam Hudson, Harold Guenther, Carl Pursell, Mayor James Jabara, Township Supervisor John E. McEwen, and W.W. Edgar, editor of The Mail and Observer. Neal "Doc" Fenkell will moderate the program.

center there for the whole town."

Fred I. Keywell, member of the development group planning the Park Plaza Shopping Center, said they had several tenants already committed.

The 10-acre site already had four and three-fourths acres zoned commercial. The adjacent five were requested to expand the center.

"I can tell you we are going to proceed. We have letters of intent from a major supermarket for 30,000 square feet of space, from a hardware store wanting 16,000, from a drug store needing 8,000, from a laundromat needing 4,500, from an ice cream shop and even a family-type restaurant.

SPOKESMAN for the Arbor Village Subdivision Home-owners Association said they opposed the additional rezoning because of the increasing traffic problem, decline in property values, and other shopping center rezonings which have not materialized.

One resident, A.F. Driscoll, said that the township "was stifling us with commercial development."

Garber said he voted for the plan because "five acres will bring as much traffic-turning problems as the 10-acre site."

Three other shopping center projects -- two on the corner of Sheldon Rd. and Ann Arbor Rd., and a third in Lake Pointe Village -- have never been built. Rezoning was granted after long debates in each case.

Professional planner W.C. Johnson had recommended against the change.

The rezoning now goes before the Wayne County Co-ordinating Committee, a routine action, and then back to the Township. Construction can start after that.

Here's view of car after fatal crash.

Richard Smith Loses Life In Auto Crash

In one of the worst auto crashes of the year in the Plymouth community, Richard Ardley Smith, 20-year-old son of Mrs. Fred Smith, 304 West Liberty Street, lost his life early on Memorial Day morning.

Traveling west on Plymouth road, shortly after midnight, his car veered off the road at a point opposite the Calhoun Auto Agency, crashed into a parked truck, and was completely wrecked. Young Smith, the lone occupant, was dead upon arrival at St. Mary Hospital.

According to the Wayne County Sheriff's Patrol witnesses reported that the car had run a red light at Plymouth and Fekkes Road, Lee Bailou, a member of the Wayne Police Department, who was parked in an adjoining lot and witnessed the entire affair, reported to the Sheriff's Patrol that the car was traveling at a speed somewhere between 85 and 100 miles an hour when it left the road.

Smith's death was the 10th traffic fatality reported in the state over the Memorial Day period.

Ironically, the crash was almost a duplicate of the one in which Smith's father, Walter Smith, met tragic death in 1959.

He was traveling at a high rate of speed in the early morning hours, lost control, and hit a tree.

Born on January 29, 1948, the younger Smith, was graduated from Plymouth High School in 1966 and, at the time of his death, was a student at Schoolcraft College.

He is survived by his mother; a half brother, Walter David Smith, and a grandmother, Mrs.

RICHARD ARDLEY SMITH
Mary Smith, all of Plymouth. Funeral services will be held on Monday from the Schrader Funeral Home, with Rev. Henry Walch, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery.

Rubbish Pickup Back At Curb

Because of the heavy rains of the past week a change is being made in the city's garbage and rubbish pickup program.

Starting next Monday, June 3, the pickup will be made at the curb. The alleys are well high impassable.

Rep. Ford To Address GOP $100 Fund Raising Breakfast

Congressman Gerald Ford, of Grand Rapids, minority leader in the U.S. House of Representatives, will be the main speaker at a $100 plate breakfast being sponsored by the area Republican Party leaders Tuesday morning, June 4, at the Meeting House.

The GOP decided on this move to help balance affairs with the Democrats who have hosted both Vice President Hubert Humphrey and U.S. Senator Robert F. Kennedy at recent meetings.

Rep. Ford, who once played center on the University of Michigan football team, has been a factor in Republican ranks for some time and is in line to be named Speaker, should the GOP gain control of the House at the November election.

Accompanying Rep. Ford will be Congressman Marvin Esch, (R-Ann Arbor) and a "surprise" guest who is expected to be another high ranking member of the GOP.

Carl Pursell, president of the Chamber of Commerce, is general chairman, and he has announced that the price of $100 per plate--or $125 per couple--was set to help swell the campaign coffers.

Tickets can be had by contacting any member of the following committee:

Pursell, chairman; Jim Taylor, Tom Notebaert, Ralph Lorenz, Harold Guenther, Mayor James Jabara, Loren (Bud) Gould, Don Sutherland, Dr. Van Ornum, Ed Sawusch, City Commissioner James Houk, Kal Jabara or Frank Millington.

The breakfast will be served promptly at 8 o'clock.

Huge Gathering Pays Tribute To War Dead

Plymouth honored its war dead Thursday as large crowds jammed downtown to watch the annual parade and the ceremonies in Kelllogg Park.

Keynote Speaker former mayor and city commissioner Harold Guenther called upon the residents to "honestly and solemnly pledge to preserve and make better this hometown the soldier remembers."

"I suggest we add another dimension to Memorial Day by nurturing, by continually enhancing and preserving that which is almost as valuable as life itself to those who are away today," Guenther said.

"We need to be quietly proud of what we are in this community. We need to keep inventory of all that is good and to jealously guard and defend it against any influence that would destroy it, or try to change it for something less," he added.

THE CEREMONIES began with the parade assembling behind the high school.

Grand Marshal James McKindles, Mayflower Post 6095 VFW, led the parade down Main Street. Members of the VFW drill team, the American Legion honor guard, and ladies auxiliaries from both groups joined the Junior High band, the Plymouth High band and various youth groups in the parade under array, overcast skies.

asked to advertise that the position is open.

For the second time in less than two years Loren Johnson has been named Acting Chief of the City of Plymouth Police Department.

$4.50 per hundred on a loan is 4 1/2% interest, right? WRONG!

Only the Johnsons knew the truth.

Would you believe that only 1 out of 105 families knows how much interest they pay for auto financing? Here's a shocker:

One hundred and five families were asked that question in a university survey. Only one family (let's call them the Johnsons) knew the true annual interest they were paying.

Of thirty families who thought they knew, estimates ranged from 5 to 12 per cent interest, when actually they were paying 12 to 40 per cent. There's a reason for this confusion. Many car loans are advertised at $4.50 per hundred. People think this means 4 1/2 per cent true annual interest. IT DOESN'T. You're actually paying nearly 9 per cent—when you can get it. (Not everyone qualifies: It applies only to new cars, depends on the down payment, etc.)

Before you buy a car, check with your credit union first. They'll not only give you the true cost on car financing, but rock-bottom rates on a loan as well. It pays to be a credit union family.

The Stroller...

One of the most fascinating chores for a fellow who writes a column for the newspapers is the opening of his morning mail.

Not a day goes by that there isn't a huge stack of envelopes placed on his desk... envelopes of all shapes and sizes... and there is no telling just what you will find when you open them.

Of course, you get the usual amount of caustic criticism from professional letter-writers who delight in calling your attention to some slight slip... or from a proud mother who doesn't think her children's feats have been properly recognized... or from those strange persons who delight in taking "the other side" of things just to start an argument.

Once in a while there is a nice note of praise for some little mention that had been made or of some story that was told and delighted the reader. This type doesn't arrive too often.

The real fascinating ones come from the gems of wisdom that are found in the "bulk" mail — the propaganda put out by many of the larger firms to call attention to their products or their activities. And one never ceases to be amazed at the lengths to which they will go to try and gain space in the news column.

CIRCULAR FILE GETS 'EM

More often than not these morsels find their way into the waste basket and it would be a frightening figure if one were to try to estimate the cost of the material — often multi-colored brochures — that goes into the "circular file" — even before it is read.

Then, once in a while, you get a delightful message from an old friend who "tips" you off to an unusual yarn that would make interesting reading.

The other morning, for example, The Stroller had a letter from Edgar Hayes, former sports editor of the now defunct Detroit Times who was a companion in the major press boxes of the country for quite a while.

Edgar is now handling public relations for the railroad associations. This is not an easy task, but he has a flair for humor and when you spot an envelope from him you can rest assured that the contents will be unusual or provide a laugh.

When The Stroller opened this particular envelope, out came a copy of a magazine called "Tracking the Facts" and, sure enough, staring at him in bold type was this headline —

1903 — By Train: Overnight

1968 — By Plane: 96 Hours

The story went on to tell that 65 years ago an editor in a Chicago office could place an envelope on "The 20th Century Limited" late in the afternoon and be reasonably sure that it would arrive at his New York office the next morning.

20th CENTURY PASSES

Then the airplane came along and the Post Office Department gradually began to shift the bulk of its traffic from rail to air and only last year there was a wholesale abandonment of the Railway Post Office. Among the casualties was "The 20th Century Limited." Up in the air went all the mail.

Then, on Thursday, Feb. 1, of this year, so the story goes, a Chicago editor stuffed an envelope with manuscripts due in New York the next day, stamped it "Air Mail" and entrusted it to the Post Office.

At about the same time another Chicago editor filled a second envelope with news stories and stamped it "Air Mail - Special Delivery."

In New York Friday came and went — but no manuscripts.

Hope springs eternal and on Monday morning the copy readers in the New York office were primed for the arrival of the manuscripts.

Two morning mail deliveries passed — and no manuscripts.

Early in the afternoon the much wanted envelopes appeared at the same time — 96 hours after being posted.

The blame could be placed in many areas, but the fact remains that a task that required only 24 hours 65 years ago required 96 in this modern day and age.

Such tidbits as this are a delight to a columnist. They arrive all too seldom.

HERE'S ANOTHER GEM

On opening another envelope — this one from the Michigan Crop Reporting Service — informed The Stroller that the number of livestock slaughtered in Michigan plants was more in March, 1968, than in the same month a year earlier for all species except calves.

What a gem of information!

In the same envelope came the information that April milk production totaled 379 million pounds, but was six per cent below the figure of a year ago. At the same time it pointed out that across the nation the drop was only three per cent.

My day seemed a lot brighter after getting this inside information.

And here was some good news for after dinner speakers — chicken production dropped seven per cent. There may come a day when the time honored fried "rubber" chicken and green peas will be gone from the banquet table.

No wonder opening the morning mail is so delightful.

Graduates Would Do Well To Keep Eyes Peeled On Little Things In Life

Within the next few weeks high schools across the land will be sending an army of graduates out into the world to begin the battle for existence.

Some will enter the fray immediately. Others will go on to the institutions of higher learning hoping to fit themselves better for the challenge of the complex world in which we live.

But all of them, with diploma in hand, will be walking with head held high, exuding confidence that the challenges will be nothing more than incidents along the way — and that nothing will stop them from reaching their goals.

It might be well, if, in their pursuit, they pledged to pay attention to the little things along the way for many a life has been changed and apparent failure turned to success by some little quirk that could have gone by unnoticed.

Success is not always measured by a man's ability or the amount of education he may possess. Oftentimes it comes through the simple expedient of being in the right place at the right time... to receive a smile from Lady Luck.

Years ago one of the leading educators in the ivy halls of the East used to take a high school graduate by the hand on Commencement Day and say, very solemnly, "You have been equipped with the proper tools... now I hope you are lucky enough to achieve success."

IF ONE WERE to judge the relative merits of men by the marks he achieved in the class room, much of the excitement would be taken out of life. For the race is not always to the swift.

The late Charles Kettering, the great General Motors Research Engineer who was rated as the top man in his profession, often told the story of how he took his high school diploma home, placed it tenderly in a chest of drawers, and then told his parents, "I am now going out to acquire some knowledge."

YOU HAVE TO BE THERE WHEN THEY'RE BITING

In acquiring this knowledge "Boss Ket," as he was familiarly known, developed a rare philosophy along the way.

He once said, rather dolefully, that he never had experienced a failure in his life.

His astonished listeners asked, "Do you mean that the automobile self-starter you developed, worked the first time you tried it?"

Boss laughed and said, "No. But just because it didn't work didn't mean that I had failed. It simply meant that I had learned a way it could not be built."

So, Boss stuck at it, changing one little thing after another, and finally as he put it, "I found a way it could be built."

ONE OF THE sports editors of a major metropolitan daily who laughingly admitted that he didn't finish his freshman year in high school, got his big chance over such a simple thing as the changing of the time of a football banquet.

With the time change he had the opportunity to attend the banquet and then later sit spellbound in the huge school auditorium listening to the late Edgar A. Guest recite his bits of verse. After the performance he met the poet and was invited to come to Detroit. That was years ago. He is here yet. But he never would have had the opportunity of meeting the beloved poet if the time of the football banquet had not been changed.

There are many other examples. Gen. Eisenhower was not the top man in class when he attended military school and he was rather far down the officers' list when he was chosen to lead the American Expeditionary Forces in World War II.

He just happened to be at the right place at the right time. But once given the opportunity he made the most of it — leading the American forces to victory and vaulting into the presidency of the United States.

So, you see, the world is filled with examples that some little quirk along life's highway brought success. And what was true in those days still is true today.

Remember the old story of the horse being lost for the want of a nail in its shoe? It was just a little thing — but it resulted in a tragedy.

Then there is the ancient bit of verse that runs — Little drops of water and little grains of sand Made the mighty ocean and this mighty land.

So, as the graduates move out into the world it would be well if they paid close attention to the little things.

For, as the old sage once remarked, "If you take care of the pennies, the dollars will take care of themselves."

Congressman Esch Reports

Congress Opens Fight To Eliminate Hunger

Hunger hurts!

The Congress and the nation have been shocked in recent weeks to learn that hunger and starvation are not a thing of the past in the United States. It is incredible that in our affluent society, millions of children exist on grossly deficient diets. Many of these children will never recover from the mental retardation caused by malnutrition and hunger in their young years. Through no fault of their own, they are consigned to a life of poverty and ignorance because their bodies and brains are stunted by a lack of food. Deaths are frequent among infants too weak from hunger to resist germs. Thousands of babies are born deformed each year because their mothers had neither enough or the right things to eat.

Such conditions simply should not exist in our land of plenty. The Congress and the people must take prompt action to assure that they will exist no longer. At a time when this country is spending over $1 billion a year to farmers for not producing food and almost $2 billion on anti-poverty programs, it is a cruel paradox that legislative inattention and administration bungling have created a situation in which hunger and starvation still remain.

THE EDUCATION and Labor Committee, of which I am a member, has begun hearings this week into this disgraceful situation. We have asked with deep concern how such conditions could be allowed to continue without government action. There are numerous government programs—but they don't work. They don't reach the people who need help.

Most programs are now administered under the Department of Agriculture, Secretary Freeman, in his testimony, admitted the failure of these programs to meet the problem. Under present law, the Secretary of Agriculture has the authority to distribute surplus commodities such as flour, rice, non-fat dry milk, cornmeal and lard. Yet the department is returning to the Treasury more than $227 million this year which could have been spent to provide adequate food supplies to the needy. More than $645 million has been turned back since 1958—funds that were desperately needed. The authority and funds exist—the Administration has simply been unwilling to take the initiative in fighting hunger in a meaningful manner.

THE DEPARTMENT of Agriculture also distributes Food Stamps—but less than 1/5 of the poor are able to take advantage of the program. A family uses its usual food budget to buy stamps which are worth far more in actual value for use in buying food in local stores. It sounds like an ideal program—but it doesn't work. A family must buy at least two weeks worth of stamps at one time and when you're poor it is often impossible to get enough money together at any time to purchase the stamps. School lunch programs are also designed to provide food for the poor but the shocking fact is that less than 1/3 of all poor children are able to benefit from the program. The major portion of funds utilized for school lunch programs come from the children themselves—thus those who are unable to pay do not receive the benefit of this program. In many families even 25 cents a day is impossible to come by. School systems throughout the nation report that children suffer from extreme hunger and are thus thwarted in their efforts to learn—condemning them to live perpetually the marginal existence of the uneducated, untrained and poverty-stricken.

I HAVE joined in a bipartisan Coalition to Help Malnourished Americans. Our Congressional hearings have pointed out the failings of federal programs and have raised numerous questions: (1) Why has the Department of Agriculture failed to utilize existing funds and programs to provide adequately for those in need? (2) Why has the department failed to utilize and coordinate the activities of other government agencies and private organizations in meeting this urgent situation? (3) Why has the department failed to exert pressure on local units who have refused to participate or let their citizens participate in these programs? (4) Might it not be preferable to have either an independent agency or the Department of Health, Education and Welfare administering these programs since their interest would be totally concentrated on the needs of the people, not the interests of farmers or any other economic group?

Surely, we must give every American an opportunity to become employed, to contribute something to society and to be compensated in return, to support and take care of his family; and surely we must develop programs to encourage every American to own his own home. But first on our list of priorities must be our basic moral commitment to feed the hungry of our land.

Hunger hurts. We can never break the cycle of poverty until we take the indispensable first step of eliminating malnutrition. The problem is immediate. We must all join together to do all in our power to eliminate this disgrace from our nation.

rowed it down to four pieces of land, but that they could not proceed without money to make a firm offer.

All in all, lack of communication kept the two parties apart.

Hayman was directed to work with Cole and Lowe in drawing up more detailed legal opinions.

Top suggestion for financing is an authority like that which built the Plymouth City Hall. Rents pay back the debt incurred in constructing the facility.

City and township officials agreed to meet again within 30 days.

he felt Cole was being "negative."

Cole said he did not mean to sound negative, but that his study was not complete, "just preliminary."

There also appeared to be a disagreement over what bonding agent Stratton Brown had said about financing the project.

City Commissioner James Houk reported that Brown had said there would be no trouble with financing.

"But when the city attorney came to my office he had talked to Brown and was convinced it couldn't be done. I tried to tell him it could," Cole countered.

Mayor James Jabara suggested they set a timetable.

Cole said only ground work had been done.

Jabara said Lowe outlined four ways to fund the project. Then Cole said that the law for building authorities doesn't cover ice rinks, a prime reason for the recreational facility. And, he added, revenue bonds would not sell at this time.

Louis Norman and Gene Overholt also indicated that their site committee had nar-

As I write this on the eve of Memorial Day, I find myself in a reflective mood. This may attribute to the last four days of grim, cloudy weather or it could be attributed to the last 11 years of grim, cloudy war in a little country called Vietnam.

War is a man's "game". There is a sad little song that my grandmother sang to my mother when she was just a child and one that my mother sang to her children. The words, probably are changed a bit, but the basic thought lends truth to the fact that war seems to be man's destiny.

Here, from some other war, is a mother's song to her little boy:

A wee little lad came home so sad,
Tears filled his eyes of blue.
"They won't let me play--I'm in the way--I'm 'mamma's boy', they say.
I don't know just what to do--I want to play soldier-boy too.

With a smile on her face, she tenderly said,
"Don't you mind what they call you dear, and don't let your heart be sad, when you grow to be a man,
I'll give you up to Uncle Sam like your Dad.
And perhaps in some famous battle we'll read of your name with joy.
And those who jeered,
Will be the first to cheer,
And be proud of MaMa's boy...

Tanger School PTA has an ice cream social planned for Friday, June 7, 6:30 - 8 p.m. There'll be plenty of ice cream and cake and games on "Family Fun Night" so why not plan dessert "out" and help Tanger's PTA raise some money.

IN THIS POLITICAL year we hear a lot about "equal time" and now we have a case of it right here in Plymouth. Beverly Johnstone, president of Newcomers, called me the other day to say that there is a very hard-working gal named Peg Troutman who supplies the club with a great many names of new Plymouth residents.

Let's hear it for Peg and the Plymouth Newcomers Service!

Class Of '61 Seeks Missing Members

"There is only one Interlochen, and I was very proud to be a part of it."
This statement was made by Karen A. McAllister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McAllister, 15674 Lakeside, who will be the third Plymouth student to graduate from the Interlochen Arts Academy Friday, June 7.

Karen began studies at Interlochen in her Junior year, Sept. 1966. In those two years she has been organist for campus chapel services and a member of the Interlochen Choir. She was among 16 students chosen to be a member of the academy's special singing group, the Madrigals.

AS A MEMBER of both the Choir and the Madrigals, Karen has entertained in many parts of the state in the past year.

Her campus activities have also included work as dorm assistant and membership on the campus's special activities committee.

During the two-day graduation ceremonies Karen will wear a gold card on her gown signifying membership in the Senior Honor Society. She is one of 22 students to receive this award and has qualified for it with a 3.5 average.

The bond proceeds will be used to pay part of the cost of additions to, remodeling, expanding, erecting, furnishing, and equipping Community College Buildings and acquiring and developing land. For the purpose of awarding the bonds the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from July 1, 1968 to the date of maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the Community College District. Each bidder shall state in his bid the interest cost to the Community College District, computed in the manner above specified. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds or at a price less than 100% of their par value will be considered. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such bonds must be paid by the purchaser at time of delivery. Payment shall be made in Federal Reserve Funds.

The said bonds are payable from ad valorem taxes to be levied without limitation as to rate or amount. No interest will be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, attorneys, of Detroit, Michigan, which opinion will be furnished without expense to the purchaser of the bonds prior to the delivery thereof, approving the legality of the bonds, a copy of which will be printed on the reverse side of each bond. The Community College District shall furnish bonds ready for execution at its expense. Bonds will be delivered without expense to the purchaser of the bonds at Detroit, Michigan, Chicago, Illinois, or New York, New York. Township Studies New Sewer Plan

Two water and sewer problems—one in the Plymouth Hills Mobile Home, the other along Northville Road—came before the Township Board Tuesday night.

Township Engineer Herald Hamill said it would take $50,000 to solve surface water problems in the trailer park, and he recommended that the work be done in two stages.

The second area under consideration is near the Thimblebird Inn—Bradner, Hamill and Garland Streets. Here the township plans new sanitary sewer lines, to replace what Township Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes called "inadequate and obsolete" facilities.

Here a hodge-podge of makeshift lines serve the homes. They will have to be replaced, the board decided and will be combined with other projects.

Once completed, residents in the area will be given a year to hook up, with the regulation being enforced by the County Board of Health.

While the sewer is being laid, they will remain on the old system. Residents will be asked to pay front footage charges of $7 billed bi-monthly for the new lines.

Tribute Paid To War Dead

in the center of Kellogg Park. M.E. Muehlbauer, personnel manager of Western Electric, acted as master of ceremonies.

Nat Sibbold led the assembly in the National Anthem, followed by a reading of "In Flanders Field" by Plymouth High student Jim Kalliel.

Rev. Henry Walch of the Presbyterian Church gave the invocation and benediction. Guests included Shirley Kubik, president of the VFW auxiliary, Emma Johnson of the Legion auxiliary, Lt. Colonel Richard Marks, of Flight 'A', 9632 Air Reserve Squadron, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Barracks, WWI.

GUENTHER, LONG active in Plymouth, said "Memorial Day is our most sacred holiday. It is not only an anchor day for a four day weekend. It should be more than that—Memorial Day should carry all the significance of a holy day."

"Home is still home," Guenther added, reflecting his well known affection for Plymouth. "That a young man might very well have to go to war and pay a terrible price to learn it, but he does learn, perhaps the very hard way, that home, that loved ones, friends and the home town is all that really has lasting value. He has the complete right to expect us to daily apply ourselves to the task of preserving this wonderful town of ours with its beauty, its character and its personality."

Guenther said there was more to Memorial Day than speeches and flowers.

"We honor all who have gone not to return; all who are gone and will return by preserving that which is right, that which is our heritage, by always building good government, good churches, good schools, community pride, friendships that are true, and understanding of our fellow man regardless of his race, his creed, or his color."

Mrs. Pat Norris was awarded a special achievement award.

Public Forum Set On School Bond Vote

A public forum to discuss school election issues and the proposed $11 million bond issue will be sponsored jointly by the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce and the Plymouth Jaycees on Wednesday night, June 5 in the commission chambers in City Hall.

Even though there isn't a contest for the three expiring terms on the Board of Education the candidates will be there to discuss all current problems and to peer into the future of school expansion.

The major topic, of course, will be the bond issue, which, if passed, will force the taxpayers to pay an additional 4.2 mills on their equalized assessed valuation.

This 4.2 mills is broken up in three ways. First, there is a one mill which was approved and held in escrow for some time. It will now be used. Next there is an additional 1.7 mills that came to implement the bond issue and, third, a 1.5 increase now being asked.

The three categories amount to an additional 4.2 mills that will be added to your tax bill. This is the only public meeting that will be held on the subject prior to the election on Monday, June 10 and the general public throughout the 54 square miles of the school district has been invited to attend.

The meeting will be called to order promptly at 7:30.

HOWDY — Democrat Gary R. Frink pushes his campaign for the party's nomination to Congress from the 19th district in Livonia. Here he presents campaign literature to Mrs. Jack Frakes, 11300 Cranston, Livonia. Looking on is Frink's wife, Sherry.

Mardiros Hits Insurance Laws

Federal control over automobile insurance companies has been proposed by Democrat Ron Mardiros in his campaign for the party's congressional nomination in the 19th district.

Mardiros said state regulatory agencies have become "pawns of the industry."

He said the 1945 McCarran-Ferguson Act, which gave control of the insurance industry to the states, has not worked for the benefit of the customer.

He said states have allowed companies to "increase rates without justification, cancel policies without cause, refuse policies in low-income areas, operate when they are financially unsound and discriminate between groups when writing insurance."

He charged that the states "have defaulted in their obligation to the general public," and federal controls are needed.

Mardiros said insurance rates have increased in Livonia from $190 a decade ago to $450 for the same coverage. Increases were ordered last year in 32 states, he said.

"To keep their profits soaring, many companies have adopted a practice of cancelling or refusing to renew... after one accident and tack on high risk penalties for teen-agers and older citizens," he said.

Retirees, he said, often are unable to buy insurance "at any price" and the record of failure of high risk underwriters shows the need for federal regulation.

'Hard-Rock' Concert At Meadow Brook

Four of Michigan's top rock groups--The Rationals, The Fabulous Pack, the Thyme, and The Plain Brown Wrapper--will appear in a teen Hard-Rock Concert at Oakland University's Meadow Brook Fair on Friday, June 14.

The three-hour clash will begin at 3 p.m. in the University's Baldwin Memorial Pavilion and is open to the public without charge.

RFK State Chairman Named

William H. Merrill, former chief assistant United States attorney in Detroit, has been named state chairman of the Kennedy for President Citizens Committee of Michigan.

Merrill, 45, a resident of Bloomfield Hills, is a partner in the law firm of Parsons, Tennant, Hammond, Hardig & Ziegelman, and specializes in corporate law.

In 1961, he was appointed chief assistant United States attorney in Detroit by Robert Kennedy, who then was attorney general.

In the federal post, Merrill was responsible for directing the investigation and trial of major criminal cases involving organized crime, labor racketeering, tax evasion and mail fraud.

Merrill served until 1966, when he was a candidate for Congress in the 18th District in Oakland County.

Merrill is a director of the Industrial State Bank of Kalamazoo and president of the Yale Law School Association of Michigan.

A Wild Day For Wardrobes

It was a wild day for the Frink wardrobes last Saturday.

Gary R. Frink, former Congressional aide, cranked up his campaign for the Democratic nomination for the 19th District seat with a whirlwind tour around the area.

Frink campaigned with his wife, Sherry, in both Oakland and Wayne counties, starting with a neighborhood tour in Livonia and ending at a card party in Redford Township.

They started in Livonia distributing campaign literature door to door, then left in the afternoon for a law school alumni reunion, Class of 1963.

Hours later and another change of clothing, Frink and his wife went to a dress-up dinner dance at Plum Hollow Golf Club sponsored by the Michigan State University Club of Oakland County.

After the dance--and another change--they topped off the day of campaigning at a card party sponsored by the 19th Wayne Democratic Women's Committee in the Lola Valley Masonic Temple in Redford Township.

Frink, a native of what is now the 19th district, left his Washington post to come back home and run for Congress. He is opposed for the nomination by Ron Mardiros, a Livonia businessman. The seat is held by Republican Jack McDonald.

Oakland's Open Land Going—Fast!

By JIM RICHARD
Real estate taxes and the sheer pressure of population are forcing the development of Oakland County's naturally beautiful lands faster than they can be preserved for a future generation's enjoyment.

This was the lament of Kenneth Van Atta, director of the one-year-old county parks and recreation commission. High property taxes, he said, are making it economically unrealistic to hold land open any more.

"When a farmer wants to retire, he doesn't sell his land to another farmer any more. He sells it to a developer," Van Atta said.

"I HAVE FIVE years to pick up after 150 years of no one's caring," he said. The 150 years is the length of time the organized county has lacked a park land buying agency. The five years refers to the length of time a quarter-mill voted property tax will be levied for park buying, development and operation.

The idea that Oakland still has a lot of open space is something of an illusion, he said. Much land is privately owned, "and land costs have become astronomical. Land is being swallowed up by a demand that is unquenchable."

Lake front property, for example, sells at $100 to $150 a foot, he said.

THE COUNTY parks agency, Van Atta said, got its first year's tax collections—$752,000—in March of this year.

It has picked up a total of 650 acres for $1 million and is working on getting another parcel as a gift.

Nevertheless, he was pessimistic about the prospect of saving much open space before it could be swallowed up by developers.

Townships lack the resources to do it; the state set up an open space program a couple of years ago but has been unable to fund it; the federal government is providing some real help, but its hands are partially tied by the Vietnam war, Van Atta said.

A SPOKESMAN for the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, a six-county parks agency in southeastern Michigan added another complaint during audience discussion.

Although people want parks, he said, township supervisors don't.

"When we come in to talk to the township supervisor, he says: 'You're going to take property off the tax rolls.'"

Sunday Liquor Passed

All three state senators representing Overland voted against the Sunday liquor-sales bill last week.

On the short side of the 21-15 vote were Sens. George Kuhn, R-West Bloomfield; N. Lorraine Beebe, R-Dearborn Heights; and William Faust, D-Westland.

The bill goes back to the House for concurrence in an amendment.

The bill provides that the voters themselves or county boards of supervisors may authorize sale of liquor by the glass in establishments which derive more than half of their revenue from the sale of food. In essence, it would apply to restaurants but not to the traditional tavern.

The bill was supported by five Republicans and 16 Democrats and opposed by 14 Republicans and one Democrat (Faust).

Sen. Kuhn Asks For Tax Limit

State Sen. George Kuhn, R-West Bloomfield, has appealed to Gov. Romney to support a rate limitation on the state income tax.

There is little prospect, however, that Romney will agree.

Kuhn, who opposed initial passage of the income tax and has fought enabling legislation for city income taxes, has asked for a state constitutional amendment limiting the income tax rate, but says he would be happy with even a statutory limitation.

In a letter to Gov. Romney, Kuhn said that a rate limitation will serve notice to the citizens that state government is not going to be another federal government following the policy of tax, tax, tax and spend, spend, spend.

"Needless to say, it has been extremely painful for most taxpayers of Michigan for several reasons:

"(1) The state income tax of 2.6 per cent on individuals, 5.6 per cent on corporations and 7 per cent on financial institutions.

"(2) A strong prospect of early enactment of a 10 per cent federal surtax.

"(3) Possible city income tax increase for Detroit July 1.

"(4) Recent adoption of local income taxes in Pontiac and Lansing, as well as many school and property tax increases.

"The total overall tax increase by the various levels of government indicated above has been staggering," Kuhn said.

Planes Cause Havoc

Dairy farmer John DeGaff has obtained a temporary restraining order to halt construction on an airport near his farm. He charged in District Court that airplanes disturb his milk cows. A hearing was set for April 11.

Children Killed

A train struck and killed three children this week as they dashed across tracks near San Cipriano, Italy on their way home from school. Police said the children, aged 8, 11 and 12, waited until one train passed but failed to hear the approach of another one coming from the opposite direction.

Delay Clark's Trial

The manslaughter trial of Dr. Ronald E. Clark has been postponed for a second time by Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer and now is scheduled to open Monday, June 17.

Originally the 56-year-old Farmington Township physician was due to stand trial in April, but then the court date was put back to June 4. A conflict in the judge's calendar next week led to the latest postponement.

The trial will take place in Ingham County, Dr. Clark having been granted a change of venue by Judge Beer, who nonetheless will hear the case himself.

Assistant Prosecutor Bruce Lettman said first sessions of the trial, during selection of the jury, will be held in a Lansing courtroom, and that the case then will be moved to the courthouse in Mason for completion. Mason is the Ingham County seat.

Dr. Clark is accused of causing the death in his office last Nov. 3 of Mrs. Grace Neil, 43, of Livonia, through an overdose of sodium pentothal.

DeGaulle Refuses To Quit

PARIS—President de Gaulle blamed "totalitarian communism" for trying to take over strike-paralyzed France.

The 77-year-old president refused to resign, instead dissolved parliament, and indicated he would use the army to break the strangle-hold of the general strike.

DeGaulle also slapped controls on the movement of French money, checks or gold abroad.

BONN—Parliament has approved a set of controversial emergency laws for the West German republic.

In the most bitter debate of the post-war era, parliament approved a law giving the government powers to limit certain civil rights in time of national danger.

WORLD ROUNDUP

Students and some workers continued to strike in protest of the legislation.

The upper house of parliament is scheduled to vote on the bills June 14. It is expected to approve them.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.—Secretary General U Thant and other U.N. officials are concerned about the increasing tendency of the U.S. to cut foreign aid.

A report by the U.N. Economic and Social Council backs up Thant's contention that since the end of World War II, the "poverty gap" between industrialized and emerging nations has widened rather than narrowed.

The U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee early last week refused to authorize $200 million for the Asian Development Bank and $140 million for the International Development Association.

PRAGUE—Antonin Novotny, Czechoslovakia's former Stalinist leader, was bounced from his last stronghold of power—a seat on the Communist Party Central Committee—by the nation's new reform government.

But 40 of his allies, regarded as a fifth column by the new regime, were left untouched.

There were hints that Novotny and other former associates might be tried. They were all involved in Stalinist purge trials in the 1950s.

LONDON—Cecil King was fired as head of International Publishing Corp., biggest publishing empire in the world, after an editorial in the normally pro-Labor Daily Mirror calling for the resignation of Prime Minister Wilson.

No Hook Fisher Freed By Judge

CAMBRIDGE — If there's no hook on the line, you're not fishing; a judge ruled in Superior Court.

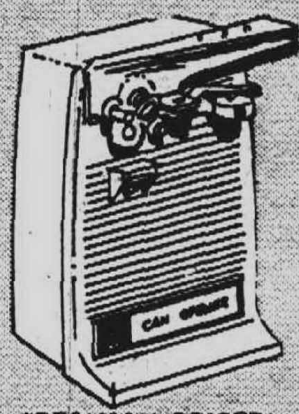

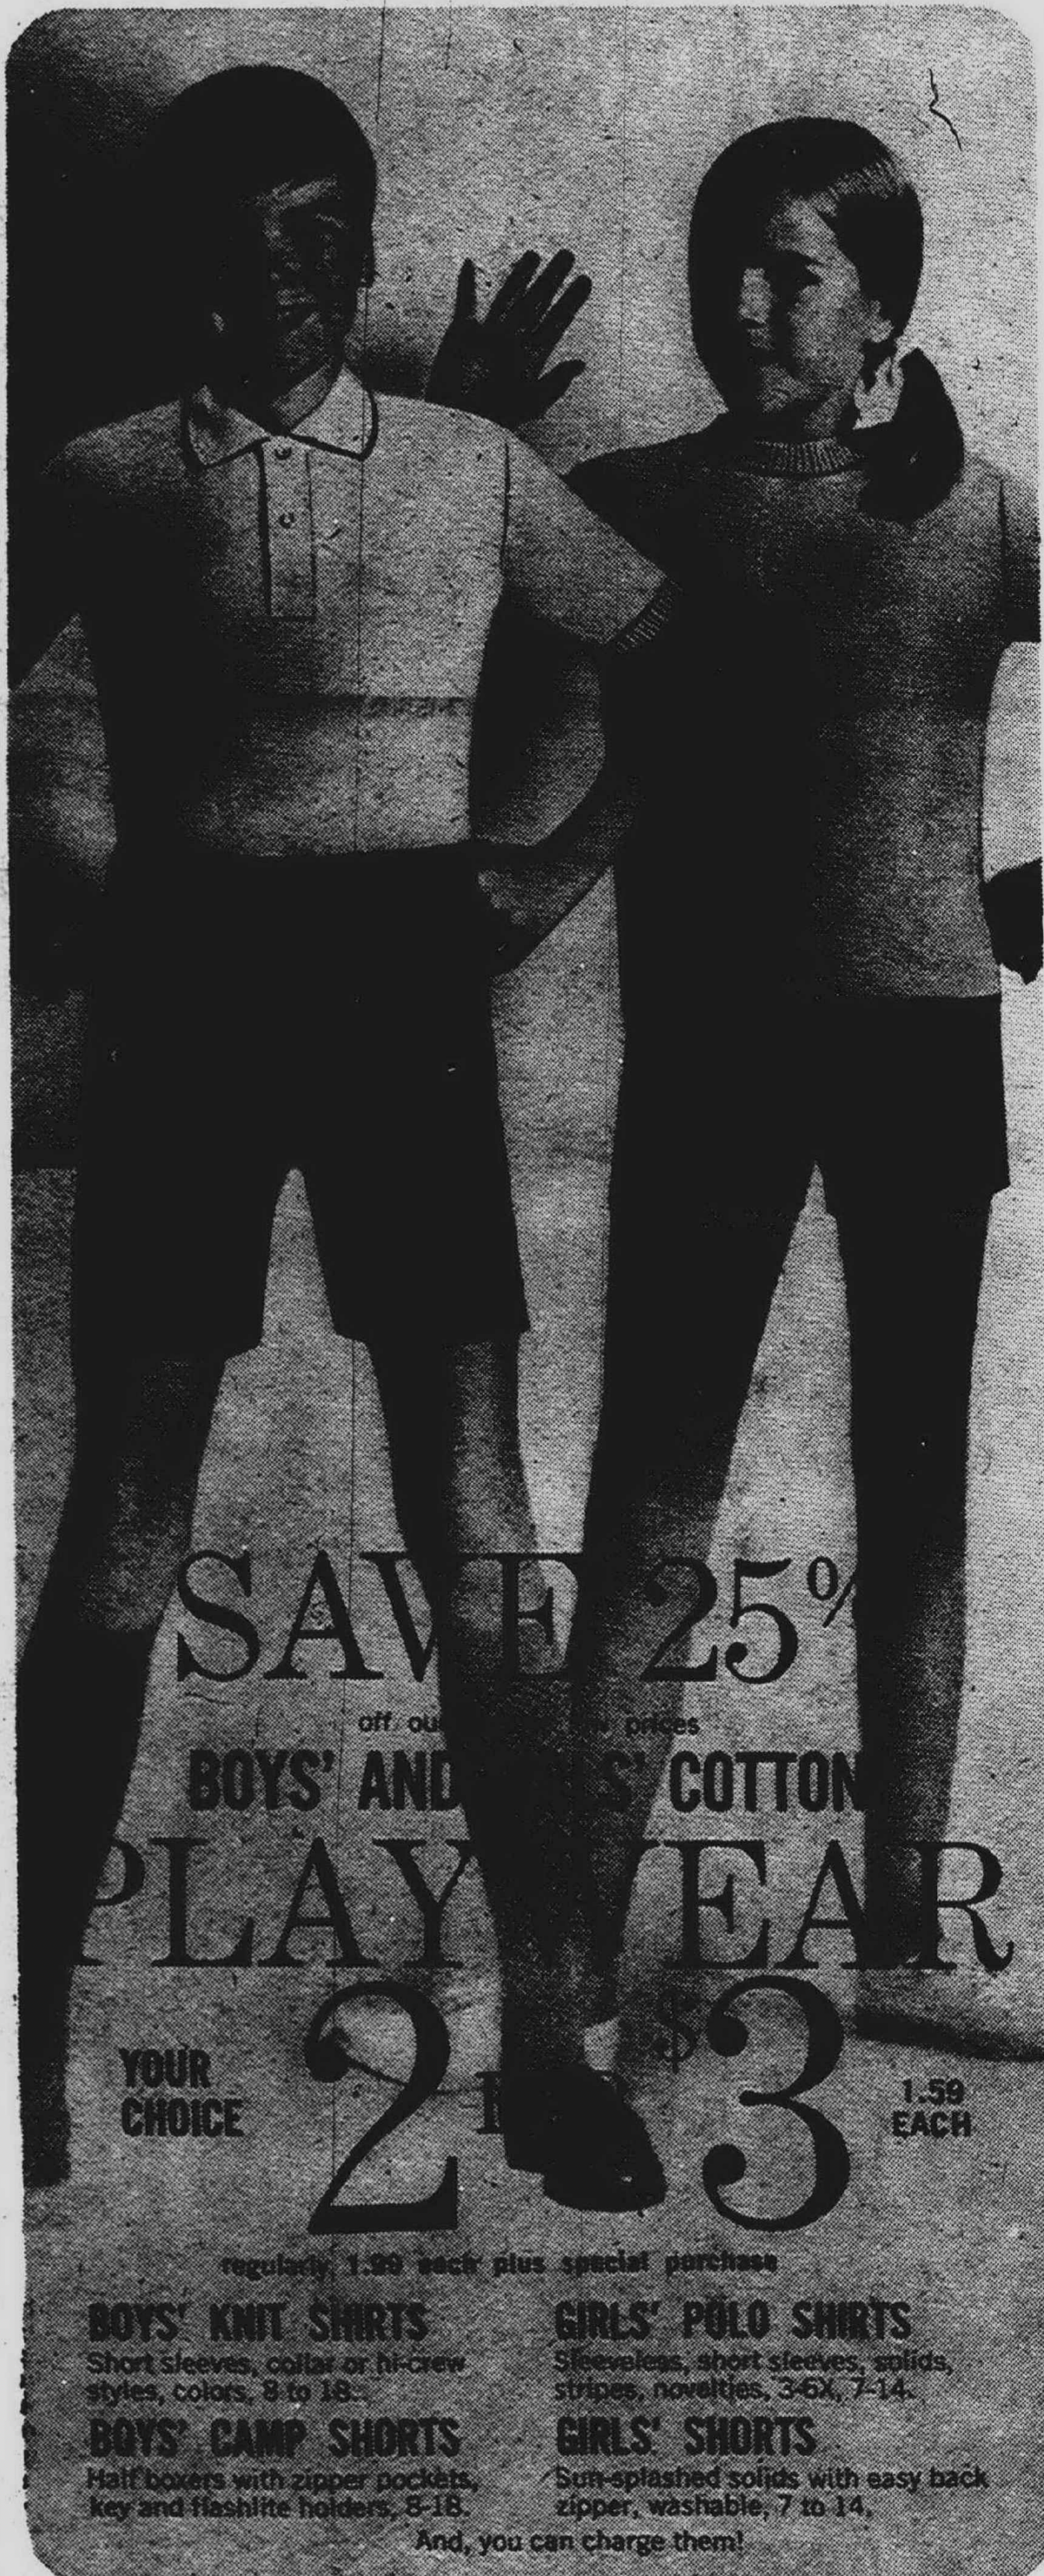

The case was the appeal of Army Capt. Michael Harbin, of Ft. Devens, from a $20 fine in lower court on a charge of fishing out of season. Harbin said he wasn't fishing—just trying out a new spinning reel without a hook.

N-Sub Voice Is Hoax

NORFOLK, VA. -- The Navy has abandoned a special Atlantic search for the source of a mysterious voice broadcast that purported to be from the missing nuclear submarine Scorpion.

There was a widespread feeling that the radio transmission may have been a cruel hoax. The message was a rather routine statement except it used the name for the Scorpion in code. The sub has been missing since Monday with its crew of 99.

Meanwhile, the huge sea hunt for the Scorpion continued with the Navy shifting focus from the relatively shallow continental shelf--where the sub might have survived--to the depths eastward where it is doubtful its hull could withstand the enormous pressure.

The dropping of the special probe seeking the source of the message punctured hopes that this might lead to a dramatic breakthrough in the search.

WASHINGTON -- President Johnson said he hoped to ask Congress next week to amend the constitution to grant 18-year-olds the right to vote.

ATLANTA, GA. -- Nine bodies including those of seven children, have been identified as victims of a flaming gas explosion which wrecked a suburban day nursery.

National Roundup

The dead children were between the ages of 16 months and four years.

PHILADELPHIA -- A University of Pennsylvania Medical School psychiatrist says he does not believe prescribing contraceptives for single women encourages sex activity.

Dr. Harold Lief, professor of psychiatry at Penn's division of Family Study, said "There is not data yet which specifically report this, but I think the majority of girls who ask for contraceptives are not virgins. Most will engage in sexual relations with or without birth control pills."

NEW YORK -- Rudolf Bing, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera since 1950, has rejected a recent offer to become general manager of the Vienna Opera.

CHICAGO -- Dick Gregory, comedian and civil rights activist, will go to Olympia, Wash., on June 6 to begin a 90-day prison term for illegal fishing.

Gregory was convicted Jan. 12, 1967 on three counts of net fishing for steelheads on the Nisqually River near Olympia in March and April, 1966. He took part in a fish-in to support Washington Indians in their protest against a state law banning net fishing.

COLUMBUS, O. -- An Ohio State University co-ed, accused of setting a dormitory fire which caused the death of two coeds on May 22 has been transferred to Cleveland to undergo psychiatric care.

Harriet Frances Leeb, 18, a freshman from South Euclid, charged with arson in the Lincoln Tower fire, was taken by University police to Cleveland.

Injured fatally in the fire were Pamela Sue Patterson, 18, of Ludlow Falls, O. and Reta Foster, 22, of Colorado Springs, Colo.

PORTLAND, ORE. -- Sen. Eugene McCarthy scored an Oregon upset to reful his campaign for the White House and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy lost a Democratic presidential primary he once said he could not afford to lose.

McCarthy took 44 per cent of the vote and Kennedy followed with 39 per cent, followed by Johnson 13 per cent and Humphrey four per cent.

WASHINGTON -- A plan to avoid bitter floor debate over the Johnson Administration's $2.9 billion request for the foreign aid program in the next fiscal year is being considered by the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

The scheme is to have the program authorized by a continuing resolution of the House and Senate at a fixed percentage of this year's appropriation.

30,000 Area Boy Scouts To Display Skills In 11th Biennial Exposition

One of the major attractions for Scout-O-Rama '68, the huge Detroit Area Council Boy Scout show at Michigan State Fairgrounds on June 7, 8 and 9, will be the colorful World Friendship Pavilion built around the large reflecting pool at the Fairgrounds.

Hundreds of Cubs, Scouts, Explorers and leaders will depict Scouting skills, customs and traditions of 23 nations in the World Friendship show area. Included will be Mexico, Chile, Japan, Greece, Italy, Thailand, Austria, Norway, Ghana, England, the Congo and the Netherlands.

Small children who visit the show will be offered a ride in an authentic Chinese rickshaw pulled by members of Scout Troop 254, Redford District, who will also offer mothers genuine Chinese rice and other oriental dish recipes.

Scouts from Troop 280, Sunset District, which includes Livonia, Plymouth, Redford and Garden City, will decorate themselves with body paint and colorful costumes as they present Congolese dances.

Cubs from Pack 272, Cadillac Square District, will present an exciting Mexican bullfight skit complete with gaily costumed toreadors and a fierce boy-sized bull.

OF SPECIAL INTEREST to all present and past Scouts and Scout leaders will be the historic Brownsea Island Camp re-enacted by the Scouts of Troop 204, Greenfield District.

Brownsea Island was the site of the very first Boy Scout campout ever held by the founder of the Scouting program, Lord Baden-Powell, back in 1907. The members of Troop 204 will be clad in the knickers and clothes of that era.

The feats of Robin Hood and his merry band will be portrayed by Troop 99 of Cadillac Square District, and they'll even be fashioning their own bows and arrows at the show.

They couldn't borrow the Leaning Tower of Pisa, so the Scouts of Troop 1426 did the next best thing, they've constructed a gondola which will ply the waters of the reflecting pond as they give small fry an Italian boat ride. Sailing the same waters will be a dug-out canoe fashioned by members of Troop 1630, Michigan District, as they bring the Philippines to the Fairgrounds.

Other nations and nationalities that will be represented include Guatemala, Denmark, Haiti, Germany, India and Israel. Much of the material and clothing that will be worn and displayed by the Scouts is the real thing, borrowed from sources near and far, including paintings, native artifacts and souvenir items.

THE WORLD FRIENDSHIP area is but one of dozens of show features that will provide thousands of visitors with a panoramic vista of Scouting in action.

All of the major facilities of the Fairgrounds will be packed with booths and action displays featuring Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorer activities. Nearly all of the available outdoor space will be devoted to pioneering, camping, cooking and conservation areas.

Show visitors will be offered taste-tempting samples of meals prepared by Scout cooks, including pancakes mixed in a cement mixer, a new one incidentally, which meets with health department regulations!

A string of horses from the Scouts' D-Bar-A Scout Ranch will provide thousands of little tots an opportunity to take their first horseback ride. A giant, 100-foot long Pinewood Derby track will be erected on which hundreds of tiny, boy-made constructed Pinewood Derby racers will compete.

Scout officials indicate that nearly 30,000 Scouts and leaders will participate in the show, not (as they point out) all at one time, but during the course of the show on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, June 7, 8, and 9.

The general public is invited to attend the show and tickets may be purchased from Cubs, Scouts and Explorers in this and other communities throughout the metropolitan Detroit area. Tickets are $1 for adults, children under 12 are admitted free when accompanied by adults, one per adult.

THERE'S ALWAYS something interesting to hold the attention of youngsters at the biennial Boy Scout Exposition. This one is wondering just where that long piece of wire is going—we also are wondering.

ROPE BRIDGE, constructed by Boy Scouts, is a super attraction at the annual Exposition. This picture shows how the youngsters take to trips across the bridge. It doesn't look safe but nary a boy has been lost yet.

AN ADDITIONAL TREAT for youthful visitors is an opportunity to ride a horse or pony around the rodeo course. This shot shows how the kiddies line up to get a chance for a free ride.

MOM CAN'T COOK any better than these Scouts. At least that's the impression they try to give as they broil shish-kabob. And believe or not, most Moms enjoy the chance to have their sons cook a meal.

ANYONE for fly-tying? This Scout isn't disturbed a bit by visitors watching him making some fishing equipment—he's so intent on his work, he hasn't time for anything else. The fly-tying exhibit is always one of the most popular at the biennial Boy Scout show—the biggest in the Midwest.

OBSTACLE COURSE has the attention of this Scout. Just like their older brothers, have to take training in such obstacles in the Armed Services, the senior Scouts get a taste of it early.

18 Hours Of Talk, Newspaper Strike Still On

DETROIT -- Despite a marathon 18-hour negotiating session in which Detroit News Publisher Peter Clark and General Manager Edwin Wheeler and Detroit Free Press President Lee Hills participated, little was accomplished in the strike of metropolitan Detroit newspapers.

Dr. Nathan Feinsinger, of the University of Wisconsin, a nationally-known labor mediator, led the unique Memorial Day effort to end the strike, now in its 198th day.

Dr. Feinsinger admitted after the marathon which broke up at 3 a.m. Friday that little had been accomplished.

However, he called for a session with representatives of the Paper Handlers Union and the Pressmen's Union for Friday afternoon.

LANSING -- The House approved a measure authorizing the City of Detroit to double its resident income tax but added a provision that the higher tax would lapse at the end of 1970.

Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh and other city officials have termed the taxboost, from the current one per cent to a maximum of two per cent, vital to the city's fiscal health.

A vote of the Detroit Common Council still would be required to authorize the tax boost.

The bill returns to the Senate for action on the House cut-off date amendment. The bill applies only to Detroit and does not allow the city to increase its present 0.5 per cent tax on non-residents employed in the city.

PONTIAC -- Oakland County Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson will seek a seat on the Michigan Court of Appeals rather than run for re-election for the county post.

Bronson presently is serving his first four-year term as prosecutor. His term expires on Dec. 31.

DETROIT -- Mayor Jerome Cavanagh announced that revised hiring standards would pave the way, under certain circumstances, for convicted felons to become City of Detroit police officers.

The revised standards, including liberalized physical requirements, and a revamped written examination, take immediate effect.

ADRIAN -- Reapportionment of Lenawee County's supervisory districts has been approved by a county committee. The districts will be reduced to 21 from the present 35. The action was taken in conference with state law applying the one man, one vote principle, recently upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court.

MONROE -- A body washed ashore at Sterling State Park near here has been identified as that of James Latamore, 19, of Detroit. He had been missing since May 11 when four persons in a fishing party jumped from their boat as it started to sink in Lake Erie off Colchester, Ont.

Young Latamore was with his father, Sam, 50; brother, Jerome, 19; and Willie Madison, 26, when the tragedy occurred.

LANSING -- Gov. Romney has vetoed a bill that would lift the ban on instruction in birth control in Michigan's public schools, objecting that the measure provides no standards and requires no guidelines.

Romney previously had allowed a bill authorizing the teaching of sex education in the schools to become law without his signature.

PONTIAC -- A $316,000 revenue bond issue to provide 51 new hangars for Oakland-Pontiac Airport was approved by the Oakland County Board of Supervisors. The bond issue would be retired in 25 years, paid for out of hangar rentals.

The new hangars will be built in the northwestern part of the field in Waterford Township.

LANSING -- The House has cleared a bill making it a misdemeanor to steal trade secrets. Originally the Senate passed the bill more than a year ago believing it necessary to discourage the theft of product information, design, process, procedure, formula or improvement which is secret and of value.

The bill calls for felony penalties of up to $1,000 fine and a year in prison.

LANSING -- The recurrent squabble over how much Michigan lawmakers should pay themselves may soon be out of their hands.

The Senate passed a proposed constitutional amendment that would give the job of setting salaries--one they now do themselves--to a commission. The commission, which would be appointed by the governor, would also set his salary and those of the lieutenant governor and justices of the Supreme Court.

LANSING -- Atty. General Frank Kelley announced an opinion setting the periods for basic payments under the Workmen's Compensation Act for injuries suffered while at work. Kelley held that if an injured worker is incapacitated for part of a day from earning full wages, he is incapacitated from earning full wages for that week.

A week of incapacity, Kelley said, is a period of seven consecutive days not including the day of injury in which the worker is incapacitated from earning a full week's wages.

When an injured worker's incapacity for work resulting from injury is partial, he is entitled to workmen's compensation benefits based on a percentage of the difference between his average weekly wages before the injury and the average weekly wage he is able to earn thereafter, the ruling said.

LANSING -- Jeffrey Justin, of Watervliet, and James Spaniolio, of Cassopolis, have been named the 'outstanding seniors of the year' by the Senior Club of Michigan State University at the annual class night banquet.

Justin, an English major, and Spaniolio, a political science major, were chosen on the basis of leadership, service and all-around academic performance.

LANSING -- More than 3,000 high school pupils, most from Michigan, will be "going to college" in advanced programs at Michigan State University this summer.

They will sharpen their talents in journalism, debating, radio, television, yearbook editing, theater, government, engineering, music and marching band.

LANSING -- Michigan motorists will have to grumble at least another year longer about paying cash when they buy their auto license plates.

The House killed a Senate-passed bill that would have allowed licensing stations to accept checks.

Backers claimed using checks would cut down on hold-ups at branch offices and would put license-buying on a par with income and other taxes for which checks are accepted.

Opponents stated it would result in a lot of bad checks floating around the security of State's Office and give the state a chance to slap a lien on a car if a check bounced.

C'ville, GC West, Bentley, Northville Gain Semifinals

Surprises, Upsets Mark Tournament Contests

A surprise or two...some record performances!

They helped to make for some excitement in the first two rounds of the fifth annual Les Anders Memorial Invitational

Baseball tournament at Ford Field, Livonia.

The meet, which started with 14 entries, was to wind up Saturday night under the sponsorship of the Livonia Optimist Club, the Livonia Recreation Department and the Observer newspapers.

Northville, Bentley, Garden City West and Clarenceville won their way into the semifinals, leaving behind among others such touted teams as Stevenson and Franklin, the respective Interlakes and North-west League champs, and Redford Union, which appeared set to wrap up the Suburban Six League crown.

It took 14 innings for Northville to oust Franklin, 2-1. Never before had a tourney game gone so long.

Bentley put out Glenn, 4-1; Garden City West surprised Stevenson, 3-1, and Clarenceville upset Wayne, 3-2, as Bob Duman fashioned 16 strikeouts, another tourney record.

Here's a blow-by-blow on how the games went:

WAYNE 6; ST. AGATHA 4

Wayne started and finished strong to eliminate St. Agatha, 6-4.

After taking a 3-0 lead in the first inning, Wayne saw its advantage to 3-2 in the second when hits by Ron Blackmore and Jerry Muron sparked a St. Agatha two-run surge.

Wayne made it 4-2 in the fourth, but St. Agatha bounced back to get even in the bottom of the sixth on an error, double infield out and a steal of home. However, Wayne wasted no time counting twice in the seventh inning, putting together a walk, stolen base, error and a single for two more runs.

The losing pitcher was Costello, who went the route for St. Agatha. He gave up six hits, St. Agatha managed three hits off a pair of Wayne hurlers.

G.C. WEST 1, SORROWS 0

A thrilling mound duel saw Bob Chidester of Garden City West edge Greg Main and Our Lady of Sorrows, 1-0.

The game's only run came in the second inning when singles by Jerry LaCross, Williams and Sylvester did the damage against Main who allowed five hits.

Chidester permitted three hits, but had to work out of two bad jams.

In the first inning, Sorrows loaded the bases with one out, but couldn't score. In the seventh Mike Hart doubled to open the inning, but stayed there as three batters went down on strikes.

NORTHVILLE 2, FRANKLIN 1

It was a battle befitting a pair of champions as Northville and Franklin fought for 14 innings before Northville left the field a 2-1 winner.

Bill Skelly, pitching masterfully in relief for Northville, emerged as the game's hero. He doubled to deep left center with two out in the bottom of the 14th to send across Ray Cayley, who had been hit by a pitch moments before.

Northville, champs of the Wayne Oakland League, had scored its other run in the third inning against Franklin, champs of the Northwest Suburban League.

Franklin actually had taken a 1-0 lead in the top of the third when Jim Davies doubled and scored on Mike LeBlanc's double.

Northville got even on a single by Fred Holdsworth and a double by Dennis Primeky.

Davies started for Franklin and received able relief help from Dave Paden, Gary Minor and Denny Fisher. Holdsworth worked until the eighth, when Skelly took over for Northville.

Each team had great opportunities. In the seventh, Charles Wiggins made a sensational

OUT AT THE PLATE after a perfect relay to Wayne High Catcher Gary Weaver is Ron Blackmore of St. Agatha. As the picture shows, Ron made a long slide but Gary had the plate blocked so effectively that he never reached it. Wayne won, 6-4, in the opening round of the Observerland tournament at Ford Field in Livonia.

Observerland Trackmen Shine In 'Champions'

Observerland track entries starred in the first annual "Battle of Champs" in which the Northwest Suburban League piled up 52 points to 48 points each for the Suburban Six and Interlakes loops.

The meet was transferred from North Farmington to Waterford because of the rains. Performers from North Farmington, Thurston and Franklin joined with color bearers from Birmingham Groves to vie on the victorious NW squad.

Redford Union, Plymouth and Bentley delegates accounted for the bulk of the Suburban Six League points while Farmington and Stevenson standard bearers starred for the Interlakes League.

Meet director Jack Cotton of the Farmington schools said "you couldn't have asked for a closer or more thrilling meet."

GOING INTO the final relay, the Interlakes League had 48 points to 47 for the Northwest and 45 for the Suburban Six.

In the relay, Groves won with Redford Union and Plymouth second and third, respectively, and Waterford fourth. Groves won with Redford Union and Plymouth second and third, respectively, and Waterford fourth.

Dave Anderson, of Groves, was the only double winner. He broke the tape first in the 100 and 220-yard dashes.

North Farmington's John Mann continued his brilliant high jumping as he soared 6 feet, 4 7/8 inches to a field record at Waterford despite the heavy footing and the rain.

Other area winners were: Long Jump--Chris Brown of Farmington.

Shot Put--Tom Elias of Plymouth.

Two Mile--Gary Williams of Farmington.

High Hurdles--John Morrison of Redford Union. (He also was second in the low hurdles.)

880-yard: Jim Lagana of Redford Union.

440-yard: Joe Chemello of Bentley.

The meet ended the season for most of the area's trackmen. Farmington and North Farmington will send delegations to the Oakland County meet next Monday.

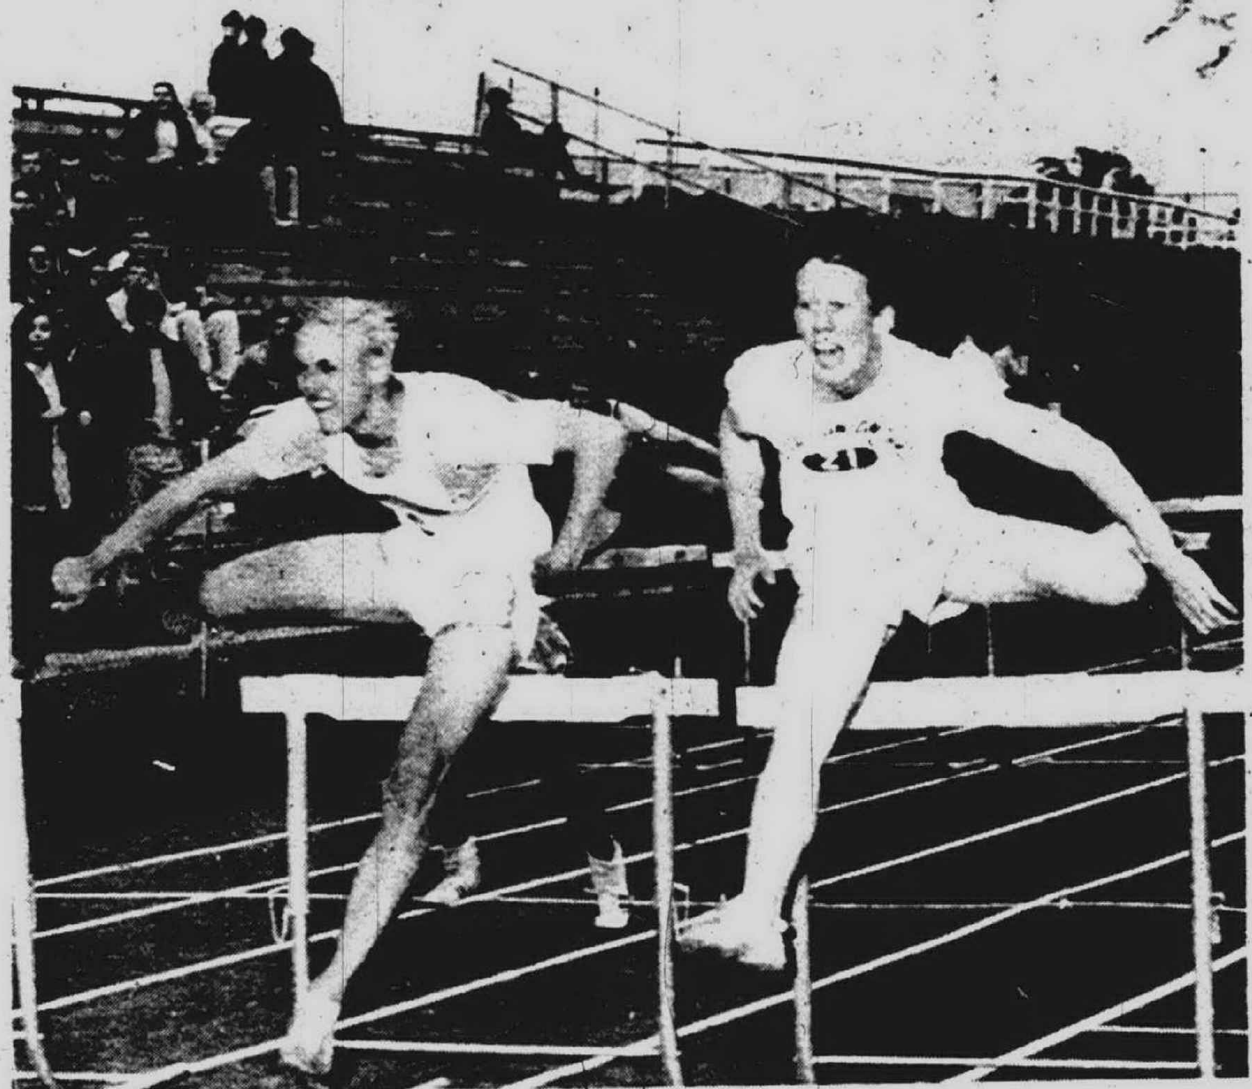

The complete summary of the "Battle of Champs:

High Jump: 1--Mann (NF), 2--Magee (Ply.), 3--Biskner (Water.), 4--McLalen (RU).

Height--6 feet, 4 7/8 inches.

Long Jump: 1--Brown (Farm), 2--Biskner (Water.), 3--Mastny (Steven.), 4--Kousky (NF).

Distance--20 feet, 10 1/2 inches.

HEAD AND HEAD are John Morrison (left), of Redford Union, and Stevenson High's Dale Wendell in the 20-yard high hurdles at the 'Champion of Champions' meet at Waterford High. John was declared the winner although both were clocked in :14.5.

Northville Sets Record For Opening

Northville Downs, Michigan's pioneer night harness racing plant, started its silver anniversary celebration on a record note Thursday when a crowd of 4,995 celebrated Memorial Day with an all-time high opening night mutual handle of $324,347.

The previous high for an opener was the $306,239 set on March 26, 1965 when the Downs opened on a Friday night.

The 1968 figures compared with an attendance of 2,920 and a handle of $211,701 a year ago.

Tigers Keep Winning Despite Big Problems

Money eases a lot of pains--like Norm Cash playing for the Detroit Tigers when he knows that they'd prefer he'd be performing elsewhere.

The Tigers have sought for some time to work a deal for the first baseman.

But nobody wants him at the price the Tigers want in return. "Norm's market value keeps dropping," one source close to the Tigers declared.

"Another factor against trading him away is his salary. He gets around $40,000 per season."

That's a pretty high figure for a player who, at last count, was hitting under .200.

CASH HAS been in and out of the Tiger lineup this season almost as frequently as most women pop in and out of stores.

He's shared the job at first with Mickey Stanley, Eddie Matthews and even Bill Freehan.

During the past week, Matthews got the call over Cash as a starter, although in one game at California, Cash came in as a pinch hitter and socked a two-run homer after Matthews had socked a pair of circuits on his own to up his career total to 512, sixth highest on the all-time circuit list in the majors.

Manager Mayo Smith would like to settle on one first baseman, but he's been platooning because he doesn't feel that Matthews and Cash can hit the left-handed pitchers. Both hit from the portside.

Cash feels differently. He insists that given the chance to play regularly, he would hit righties and southpaws like he did the year he won the American League batting title with a .340 average.

Against California Cash didn't show any preference. He homered off a rightie and doubled off a lefty.

led off a lefty.

THE PROBLEM at first was just one of several suddenly plaguing the Tigers and, in particular, manager Smith.

The injuries to Earl Wilson (bruised heel) and Al Kaline (hairline fracture of the right arm) have forced Smith to do some juggling.

Wilson missed one turn this past week and may have to sit out the series with the New York Yankees at Tiger Stadium which opens with one game Friday night and follows with a single tilt Saturday afternoon and a doubleheader Sunday.

Kaline's loss will be of longer duration. He has been placed on the 21-day disabled list, which means he'll be out at least until June 18.

Livonian Finally Fires Hole-In-One

Every golfer, expert or novice, dreams of the time when he makes a shot on a short hole and the ball bounces into the cup for an ace.

That dream was realized for Bob Baidel, of 34452 Burton Lane, Livonia, last week at the Bob O' Links course--after 20 years.

Playing in a foursome that included Chet Ray and Bob Willis of Detroit and Gib Willis of Wixom, Bob fired a perfect No. 4 iron shot on the 190-yard, 12th hole.

"I didn't see the ball but my partners said it hit on the green, bounced twice and then disappeared from sight into the hole," said Bob. "Even then I didn't know I had an ace until we walked to the green."

Bob, a low 80 golfer, didn't allow it to bother him a bit--he had 45 on the front and 38 on the back for an 83.

observing sports

Another schoolboy sports year has ended. And this means the end of the line not only for so many great young boys who have participated on the various teams in Observerland, but also curtains for some of the men who have distinguished themselves as coaches.

Two examples of retiring coaches are Keith Baughman of Plymouth High and Jim Knotts of Thurston.

Baughman is stepping out after 16 seasons — 15 as head man — in track at Plymouth. He'll stay on the school's faculty, but the pressing load of other duties makes it impossible for him to coach any more.

Knotts likewise won't leave Thurston. But he's going back to school himself to study for a doctorate. Thus, he, too, is knocked out of the coaching box.

When men like Baughman and Knotts quit coaching, it's a loss to the school, to the community and especially the boys who certainly would have benefited from their knowledge, their instruction, their help.

Track has undergone major changes since Keith bowed at Plymouth.

"The improvement in times and performances is unbelievable," he said. "Virtually all of our records have fallen since I've been here. Many have gone by the boards several times."

Baughman declared that changes in training methods and facilities have had a lot to do with the greater performances.

"When I started, we wouldn't have dreamed that we could put the boys through the workouts we do now. We have discovered that there really is no limit to what the body can take physically."

The fiberglass poles and the grass-text tracks — these, too, have contributed to the record-breaking performances.

A natural question of Baughman was for him to pick an All-Plymouth track team from the boys he's coached.

Bob Steele was his premier hurdler and probably his best product. Steele went on to star at State and in the NCAA. In the dashes, the votes went to Ed LaRoche and Jerry Kelly.

Don Williams and Jerry Latham head the 440, Tony Hunt and Bruce Cavender the 880, Bruce Ladden, Ed McLendon and John Norman the mile, Bob Goepf the two mile, Bruce Bauman the pole vault, Hugh Sarah and Tom Elias in the shot put, Paul Cummings and Russ Mecklenberg the high and long jumps, respectively.

It's to be noted that Latham, McLendon, Norman, Goepf and Bauman all competed on his last team this year and each set a school record.

The fact that his '68 team won the Suburban Six League title brought Baughman his greatest thrill. He cited Dave Derr and Steve Montgomery, the co-captains, for providing the leadership the team needed to win.

OVER AT THURSTON, Knotts did his part in lifting wrestling into a major sport on the high school sports scene . . . also in proving that there is no comparison to the wrestling one sees in schoolboy meets to what he views on television.

Knotts repeatedly has said that wrestling is one of the few sports that finds a place for every boy.

Knotts made many realize that wrestling requires concentration, strong bodies, determination and dedication. When he started at Thurston 11 years ago, a scant few would show up for the meets. Some laughed at the thought there could be wrestling on a school-boy level.

Under Knotts, Thurston built individual and team champs. He promoted the sport so that he rivaled basketball and swimming on the winter program and attracted big crowds.

The team has reigned in the Northwest Suburban League as mat champs since the circuit was formed some seven years ago.

Thurston has won two regional titles and finished second five times. The Townshippers regularly have placed among the leaders in the state meet.

He's had three state champs — Dave Post at 154 pounds in 1961; Bob Phifer at 111 in 1962 and Randy Ault at 138 last year.

SO IT'S Auld Lang Syne to Jim Knotts and Keith Baughman. What they've done won't be forgotten.

Raiders' Jumper Named All State

More honors have come to high jumper John Mann of North Farmington High School. He has been named on The Detroit News All-State team, selected by Ken Williams.

Mann turned in the best leap of the season in the state when he soared six feet, eight and one half inches in the Northwest Suburban League championships.

He also won the Class A regional crown and finished second in the state meet.

Four other area thinclads landed honorable mention in the News selections.

The Williams twins, Gary and Larry, of Farmington ranked third and fifth, respectively, in the mile and two-mile, while Dale Wendell of Stevenson stood fourth best among the state's high hurdlers.

Piston Briefs...

WEDDING BELLS will ring on June 29 for star forward Dave DeBusschere of the Pistons and Miss Gerry Wernok.

FORWARD LEN CHAPPELL was happy about the results of the expansion draft that sent him from the Pistons to the new Milwaukee team. He had planned to retire after the 1967-68 season, but since his wife hails from the Milwaukee area, where the Chappells plan to live, he has decided against bowing out of the cage wars.

Farmington Pair Drive To Honors

Garrett Van Camp of Farmington was among the big winners last weekend in the opening competition of the season at the Waterford Hills Road Racing Club's Spring Sprints.

Van Camp in an E-Production Porsche triumphed in two events.

Tom Abbott, also of Farmington, scored two victories, driving a Formula Vee.

Bob Action of Livonia turned in a victory in a B-Production Mustang while Toni Franciosi of Garden City drove an NSU to victory.

Waterford Hills will be the site of the Midwest Regional races for Sports Car Club of America on June 29-30.

Wolverine Ends Season With Wagering Record

Despite the roughest campaign in Michigan annals—one that saw the first two nights marred by an eight-inch snowstorm, followed later by a four-night blackout because of a curfew and then rain on the final three programs, Wolverine Harness Raceway shattered the state's all-time records for wagering during the 56-night season which ended Wednesday.

The Grand Circuit roared into the Motor City for the final three nights and saw Batman, from the Quaker City Stable of Salem, O., win the Matron Pace for three-year-olds; Master Yankee, of the Guirrida Stables of Philadelphia, take the Matron three-year-old trot; Sandy Lobell, of the R.D. and H.A. Ricketts stable of Houston, Texas; the two-year-old trot; and Penn Hanover, owned by the B.J. Stables of Oshawa, Ontario, the two-year-old pace.

With an all-time high Wednesday crowd of 8,779 on hand for the closing night's program, the handle soared to another all-time Wednesday high of $621,587.

Attendance and wagering showed increases over 1967 figures with the turnstile count up one per cent with a nightly average of 5,875 on a total of $329,036 and the betting showing a 2.5 per cent hike with an all-time high average of $435,343, and a total of $24,379,196.

The previous Michigan all-time record of $427,572 was set by Wolverine in 1965.

TOM Merriman, of Wayne, captured his first driving championship with a winning percentage of .480. He had 22 winners, 19 seconds and nine thirds in 74 starts.

Don Hall, of Northville, was second with a .493 average on 23 firsts, 24 seconds and 15 thirds in 105 starts. Wally McMurray, lanky Livonia, Mich., reinsman, had the most winners during the meeting with a total of 31 and was third in the standings with a .380 average. Others in the top five were Don McMurray, of Plymouth, with 348 and Chris Borling, of Adrian, with 343.

Lions Have Happy Look: New Quarterback Signs

The Detroit Lions are happy. So is quarterback Greg Landry from Massachusetts University, their No. 1 draft choice. Landry signed his contract this past week and will join Bill Munson, the QB recently obtained from Los Angeles, in a rookie indoctrination camp in Detroit which starts Monday. Coach Joe Schmidt says that Landry has "a real pro future and fits into the Lions' youth movement."

With Landry and Munson, the Lions now have five quarterbacks. The others are veteran Karl Sweetan, Tim Jones, a member of last year's "taxi" squad and Greg Barton, a rookie from Tulsa. MONDAY'S THE DAY The Detroit Red Wings announce their new coach. For several weeks it has been widely reported that ex-Wing Bill Gadsby will take over the job behind the bench, thus easing the work load of Sid Abel, who will devote fulltime to general manager.

Gadsby's official appointment is to be disclosed by owner Bruce Norris at a press gathering Monday at 11 a.m.

GENERAL MANAGER Ed Coll of the Pistons, who shortly moves into Farmington Township, heads for San Diego and the National Basketball Association's annual meeting Monday. Scheduling, expansion and other major issues will keep the NBA brass hopping during their sessions on the coast.

'500' To Unser--- Turbines Fail Again

Special to the Observer INDIANAPOLIS -- Ban the turbine cars in the Indianapolis 500 Mile race?

There has been talk that the cars with turbo engines shouldn't be allowed in the Memorial Day Classic, but so far they haven't won in two years.

But they've come close. Very close.

A year ago Parnelli Jones appeared to have matters locked up, only to have his turbine falter in the late stretches and A.J. Foyt carried off the loot.

On Thursday, it was almost the same story. Only this time it was Joe Leonard in a turbine who had the lead with 22 miles to go.

Suddenly, his car faltered and he never finished. Bobby Unser rode past him, as did others, and Unser won in the new record time of 152.882 miles per hour to break the record of 151.2 set last year by Foyt.

NEITHER OF the other two turbines in Thursday's race finished. Graham Hill spun and hit a barrier while Art Pollard's car simply didn't have what it takes to survive.

Dan Gurney placed second some 54 seconds behind Unser. Mel Kenyon was third, followed by Dennis Hulme, Lloyd Ruby, Ron Duman, Bill Vukovich, Mike Mosley, Sam Sessions and Bob Grim.

Sessions is a rookie pilot from Nashville, Mich.

Foyt wound up in 22nd place, but no driver had more ill fortune than Mario Andretti, one of the favorites.

He made it only one lap and was the first car to leave the race.

Then he jumped into the car of his "stablemate," lasted for a few more miles before being forced to call it a day.

Despite the failure of the turbines at Indianapolis, they are by no means to be ignored. Andy Granatelli, who had three turbines at Indy, says he'll race 'em all in the other events during the current season on the USSAC tour.

Tigers

THE INJURY to Kaline came just at a time when he was starting to find his eye at the plate.

The ineffectiveness this past week of Joe Sparna and Mickey Lolich also disturbed their manager. Sparna was knocked out early by Oakland and Lolich was hit freely by California.

"It looks like Dennis McLain is our only stopper," Smith moaned.

McLain took a 6-1 record into the series at California. The Tigers won't be spending much time at home on this trip.

They take off Monday for five games in Boston, including a doubleheader on Tuesday. Then it'll be back to Tiger Stadium for back-to-back series with Cleveland and Minnesota.

A feature of the Cleveland series will be the team's annual bat day on Sunday, June 9

ALMA COLLEGE has been crowned the MISA's All-Sports champ for the first time since 1949. The Scots piled up 62 points, 47 for Calvin, 46 for Hope, 45 for Albion, 42 for Kalamazoo, 34 for Adrian and 18 for Olivet.

Alma won loop titles in football and golf. Adrian reigned in cross country, Hope in basketball, Albion in baseball and Calvin and Hope in track.

INTERESTED IN purchasing football tickets for 1968 Michigan State games? The sale starts Monday. The Spartans will play six home games—Syracuse, Baylor, Minnesota, Notre Dame, Indiana and Purdue. Tickets are priced at $6 per game.

SAN DIEGO and Montreal have become the newest additions to the National (Baseball) League. They'll enter next season. Each city must pay out $10,000,000 for a franchise, which will include the right to draft 30 players, three of each of the existing teams.

Meantime, the American League has announced it will operate in two six-team divisions next season with a five-game playoff to decide who gets in the world series. The National League will stick to one league of 12 with no divisions.

In the American circuit, Detroit, Boston, New York, Baltimore, Washington and Cleveland will form the Eastern Loop. Chicago, Minnesota, Oakland, California, Kansas City and Seattle will play in the west.

NORTHVILLE, one of the favorites in the annual LesAnders baseball tournament held in Livonia, has been ranked the No. 1 team in Oakland County by the Pontiac Press.

SUCH OLD STANDBYS as Arnie Palmer, Gary Player, Jack Nicklaus and Bill Casper will be the top entries in the annual U.S. Open golf tournament on June 13-16 in Rochester, N. Y.

Raiders Top Falcons In Net Match

North Farmington high's tennis team had little trouble beating city rival Farmington, 6-1, in the final dual meet of the season for both schools. The results:

Singles--Jeff Cohen (NF) def. Brian Wanless, 6-1, 3-6, 6-3; Paul Kamp (NF) def. Bill Bliss, 6-4, 4-6, 6-2; Bob Brown (F) def. Bob Waters, 6-4, 6-2; Mike Lessen (NF) def. Dave McDonald, 6-3, 6-3.

Doubles--Mike Pastor-Dave Bjurstrom (NF) def. Dave Dietrich-Jim Atkinson, 7-5, 6-1; Dave Kubitsky-Bill Marberg (NF) def. Don Currier-Ray Lundston, 6-2, 5-7, 8-6; John Bouza-John Watson (NF) def. Arnie Carlson-Dave Heist, 6-4, 6-3.

In the Northwest Suburban League meet Oak Park won the team title with 15 points, followed by Groves with 13 and North Farmington 11. Thurston, Glenn and Franklin brought up the rears.

Overall in NW tennis, including dual meets, Oak Park was crowned king for 1968 with North Farmington and Groves tied for second. Then came Thurston, Glenn and Franklin.

A Lake Celebrates A Birthday

Kensington Park Keeps Its Natural Touch

By TIM RICHARD

Today you shoot out I-96 a few miles west of town, come over a hill, and suddenly it's spread out before you — Kensington Park surrounding big Kent Lake.

Sailboats, canoes, motorboats and even an old-fashioned stern-wheeler dot the waters. Two beaches sprawl along the shores. Canada geese and their newly-hatched fluffy yellow goslings find the lake a sanctuary. A dozen picnic areas are nestled in the trees. Hikers on nature trails spot birds and trees they didn't know existed.

Kensington Park is rustic, and yet in a single season it accommodates two million visitors — more than the entire population of Detroit. On a single day, it has held some 50,000 persons — equal to half the population of Livonia, more than the combined population of Farmington city and township, or two-thirds of Redford.

That the park can serve so many and retain so much natural flavor is a tribute to careful planning and sensitive management. It's a model of its kind, and its beauty is taken pretty much for granted.

It wasn't always so.

TWENTY-TWO YEARS ago, you would hardly have noticed the place. Kent Lake then was not 1,200 acres but 60 acres, and swampy.

Driving out the old Grand River road, you would have seen the Huron River flowing southward and a lot of nothing else.

But a few ardent men had a dream, a plan to which they stuck, and the ability to sell it to the voters. The story goes this way:

In 1939 the Michigan Legislature passed an enabling act for the creation of a park authority. In 1940, the voters of five counties — Wayne, Oakland, Washtenaw, Macomb and Livingston — approved the creation of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority (HCMA) and financed it with a quarter-mill of the property tax.

HCMA set out to build a greenbelt of parks around metropolitan Detroit along the Huron and Clinton Rivers, which flow southeast and northeast, respectively, starting from northern Oakland County.

Altogether there are seven other parks in the HCMA chain: Metropolitan Beach on Lake St. Clair, Stony Creek near Rochester, Hudson Mills near Ann Arbor, Lower Huron near Belleville, Marshbank near Pontiac, and Delhi and Dexter-Huron, both also near Ann Arbor. A ninth park, Willow, near Flat Rock, will be opened to the public by 1970.

But HCMA's proudest and most heavily used achievement is Kensington.

IT WAS CALLED the "Kent Park Project" when construction began in August of 1946.

The first step was to build a 290-foot-wide dam just south of Grand River on land leased from the State Conservation Department. Thousands of trees were removed from the chew, enlarged lake bottom, and it was flooded in spring of 1948.

The late George W. McCordic, then engineer-director of HCMA, predicted the park would be able to accommodate 50,000 persons a day. The record, established in 1953, was 51,000. McCordic died in 1950 and was succeeded by Kenneth L. Hallenbeck.

The park was renamed Kensington in 1947 after a ghost town with a notorious wild-cat bank that was started in 1832, reached a population of 300, and ceased to exist by 1890.

The quarter-mill, five-county property tax brings HCMA $3½ million annually. Of that amount, $685,000 is used to operate and maintain Kensington Metropolitan Park.

Park Supt. David O. Laidlaw heads a staff of 50 year-around and 150 seasonal employees who maintain and develop the grounds.

Although it's hard to pull figures together, a HCMA spokesman estimated that Kensington has cost $7 million to develop.

AERIAL VIEW looking northeast shows about a third of Kent Lake. In the foreground is Martindale Beach, and in the background is Maple Beach.

The camera, however, can't pick up the nature trails or the winter sports area not far to the rear.

HCMA itself is governed by a seven-man board — two appointed by the governor and one selected by each of the five county boards of supervisors. Thus, HCMA is the first example of extensive regional government in southeastern Michigan. For planning purposes, it cooperates with, but is independent of, the Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments.

TWENTY YEARS AGO this weekend, Kensington Park was opened to the public.

It had just one bathing site, and its bathhouse and toilets were constructed from rough-hewn oaks removed during the lake-bottom clearing. The roads were dirt, and half the park was under preliminary construction, but that didn't keep people away.

Today the roads are blacktopped and open pretty much the year around. There is an 18-hole, par 71 golf course at the park's north end.

There is a second beach, and both have modern bathhouse facilities with free showers and dressing rooms (25 cents for a coin locker). The beaches were due to be open for this weekend.

Also scheduled to start operating again this weekend is the Island Queen, a replica of a Mississippi stern-wheeler which takes visitors on 45-minute tours from noon through 6 p.m. at charges of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for kids.

The lake is rich in a variety of fish. There are a number of rough fish, to be sure, but Kent Lake is an excellent producer of bluegills, crappies and black bass. For a number of years, it had an any-fish, any-season rule, but this year it began observing the regular state rules on fishing seasons.

The park has a boat rental station and boat launchings. But park officials have kept boat traffic and safety under control by limiting motors to 7½ horsepower and 10 miles an hour. No water skiing is permitted.

Changes are made "so gradually that few persons notice them from year to year unless a major new facility — such as a nature center, golf course or new boat rental harbor — is developed," says superintendent Laidlaw.

The next major addition will be the Mitten Bay marina, which will provide additional spaces for slip rentals, primarily used by sailboaters.

Yet while changes at Kensington Metropolitan Park are gradual, the entire project represents a profound change from the swampy, undeveloped pond of less than a quarter-century ago.

FISHING WATERS are accessible from shore, from personal or rented boats, or by wading. Despite rough fish and heavy fishing pressure, Kent Lake is a good producer of bluegills, crappies and bass.

NATURE CENTER is a beehive of activity, literally, and naturalist Lee Curtis shows visiting youngsters how bees run a colony.

"TELL IT LIKE IT IS, MAN" was the theme of an evening panel on the problems of inter-racial communication.

Weekend Lesson: Communication Isn't Impossible

EDITOR'S NOTE: Last weekend the Livonia YMCA teen clubs sponsored an inter-racial conference at the Y's camp near Holly. The theme was communication; the conference title was "Tell It Like It Is." We asked two of the conference participants, one a white girl from Livonia and the other a Negro boy from Detroit, to explain what the weekend meant to them. Here are their reactions.

By MICHAEL BATCHELOR

My name is Mike Batchelor. I'm black and I'm from Detroit.

Detroit's a big city, but the only part I know of it is black. And because of this it is on rare occasions that I get to communicate with white.

It is one of these rare occasions that I write about. Our black group from Detroit was invited to spend a weekend with a white group from Livonia.

Now, when I say communicate this does not mean the "Hello" I might give to the man on the bus or someone I might see at school; this means to sit down face to face and "tell it like it is."

Friday, the first night, started out slow. The fear that we expected to see in the whites was very clear. I'm not saying that we broke the ice with booming conversation, but neither did they. We all just stood there waiting for each other to make the first move.

Later on there was a tower building project that was intended to bring each party a little closer together. It did, but only for the time that it lasted. For as soon as the project was over, we all went back to our groups.

The dance that was afterwards didn't prove to be a shocking success either. As a matter of fact, the only real conversation was that night in the cabin.

The next day our work project proved to be a little better. While working on odd jobs throughout the camp, it could be seen that the tightly-held groups were starting to break up.

This gave new hope to the conference. There was just one thing missing and that was the conversation of my race and yours.

So it was decided that night we would have a discussion to "tell it like it is." We learned that the big issues of concern in blacks and whites were of both major and minor nature.

But the most important thing is that it was seen that whites and blacks could communicate and did communicate, which made it the weekend that it was—one we won't forget for a long time.

By DEBBIE FRECKA

Amid laughter, fun, games and sports, a valuable lesson was learned at a conference held at YMCA Camp Ohyesa last Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The lesson? That two races CAN communicate with each other, CAN understand one another and CAN work together and enjoy one another's company.

The conference, sponsored by Livonia's YMCA Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs, was aimed at promoting better relations between blacks and whites. Participating Y branches were: Downtown, Fisher, Macomb, Warren, Hannan and Western.

Along with canoeing, dancing, swimming, horseback riding, tennis and football, there was also a serious side to the weekend.

A panel, consisting of three blacks and three whites held a discussion in front of the group on what was bugging them about race relations.

The effect of the panel was great! The audience joined in with comments, and many things that were on our minds came out in the open. No longer was everyone overly polite. Views were being expressed; points were argued.

Many of the Negroes attending the conference had never met or had a relationship with a white person before. Likewise, many white kids had never met a colored person.

Because of the conference, many new ideas were exchanged. Among these: A trip to the slum areas downtown; working with small children from Headstart; going to school in the inner city for a day, and making the conference an annual affair.

Last weekend kids were INVOLVED in race relations.

A WORK PROJECT to renovate several of the camp cabins kept everyone busy on Saturday. The cabin was painted, but so were several sweatshirts, blue jeans, and even a few bare toes.

MISS DEB

... answers questions about Junior Miss etiquette, grooming and interests.

Q. When you become 13, people begin saying, "Now you're old enough to..." Mom's latest dictum is that now I'm old enough to take over spring cleaning my room — including window washing and bedspread cleaning. Sounds like a real drag — have any shortcuts?

A. Springtime and growing up have advantages — but spring cleaning isn't one of them! Here are some time-savers. Window-washing is shortened and simplified with the use of new Kleen-Ups window washers.

These specially treated papers have their own great window cleaner that comes to life when the paper is wetted. Then just wipe the paper over the window, dry with paper towels. Incidentally, Kleen-Ups are great for mirrors too! If your bedspread must be hand-laundered, simply soak it overnight in the bathtub. In the morning, rinse and hang it out to dry. You have time to spare to whip up a new spring frock — now that you're old enough!

Q. Mini, midi, maxi — I'm mystified! What's the real spring forecast? I don't want high hemlines if we're about to be stormed by the maxi!

A. The spring forecast seems to be gangly gams and the long-skirted, high-necked ladylike look — in other words a mix of mod and Bonnie-and-Clyde and whatever else strikes your fancy! Hemline length is ladies' choice — and what a relief! If your last year's dresses are a mile less than mini — and you like them that way, you don't have to spend the summer shortening skirts.

Q. Dad says no more Father's Day gifts, I think because I've given him a tie every Father's Day (and Christmas and birthday) for the past four years. Now I'm fit to be tied! Any original ideas?

A. What about a Father's Day Feast? A yummy brunch with eggs and rolls, and fruits and sausages, cold cuts and champagne. A plan-it and fix-it-yourself brunch will delight the whole family. Use a summer-bright color scheme and compliment it by using Kleenex paper napkins in the new deep colors — avocado green, antique gold, or Persian blue. Any father would love a tailor-made Father's Day Feast!

VISITORS to the German House for women on Albion College's campus receive fair warning before they enter that "Deutsch" is the only language spoken within. The "German only" rule is a special treat for Heidi Christiansen (right), a native German from Hamburg, who serves the house as both a housemother and as a teacher. Talking with Miss Christiansen is Jo Hildebrant, an Albion College senior majoring in German.

Miss Hildebrant, who lives in the German House, is the daughter of Ardyce E. Hildebrant, 17071 Franklin, Northville. The college has three other language houses; a German House for men, a Spanish House for women, and a French House for women. Students living in the houses must either be majors in the language or must be enrolled in a language course.

Study Feeding When Spraying

An army of chomping and sucking insect enemies is about to launch its annual invasion. From now to midsummer, caterpillars, aphids, lace bugs, webworms, leaf miners, and mites or red spiders will begin attacking the leaves of valuable shade and ornamental trees across the country.

Is the invasion serious? Consider the spring or fall cankerworms, sometimes called inch worms or measuring worms. In abundance, they are a serious threat to oak, elm, hickory, maple, cherry, apple, linden, or birch trees. They can defoliate trees over a wide area and then drop to the ground on tiny threads.

Trees suffering severe and repeated attacks by leaf-eating insects may die since leaves manufacture essential plant foods, utilizing raw materials from the soil and air. This food then moves back through the inner bark to feed all the living plant cells. Thus, damage to leaves impairs the life processes of a tree by cutting off or limiting the food supply.

PRACTICALLY any beetle, grub, or caterpillar which eats the surface of a leaf can be controlled by spray applications of malathion or other insecticides. Feeding habits, however, differ so greatly that knowledge of the life history of the specific insect is essential if control is to be successful.

Elm leaf beetle larvae, for example, feed on the underside of leaves, and spray applications should be made with this in mind. The tent caterpillar begins to feed almost before there is any leaf surface, while other insects don't appear until leaf growth is established. Some insecticides may prove to be more effective than others in controlling leaf eaters, especially where the young hatch over a prolonged period. Treatments, therefore, frequently vary for the many different insect pests.

Spraying for spruce gall aphids and gall mites is usually done before the buds open. Spraying for cankerworms and tent caterpillars, conversely, is most effective later in the spring when small worms start feeding on new leaves. Seasonal variation and geographical location prohibit prediction of exact spray dates, and spray programs must be adjusted to wind and weather conditions.

SINCE SOME infestations occur in cycles, tree men can predict the magnitude of the threat in advance of leaf growth by observing such signs as the abundance of egg clusters on limbs. Cankerworm infestations may be damagingly severe for several years, and then virtually disappear for two or three years before the onslaught begins anew.

Now, more than ever, shade trees are recognized as a vital natural resource, and spray programs to protect them are growing increasingly important. Accelerated travel and commerce have introduced new leaf enemies in the past several decades. Mimosa webworm, now causing heavy damage to mimosa and honeylocust trees, was unknown in the US prior to 1942.

Watch for signs of the arrival of these insect enemies and don't delay initiation of effective and safe control.

Apply Nitrogen For Healthy Turfs

EAST LANSING -- To grow a good lawn in Michigan, it's a pretty safe bet you'll have to apply nitrogen.

The rate of nitrogen application will vary with the turfgrass variety and the type of soil on which it is being grown. But Dr. Paul E. Rieke, Michigan State University soil scientist, has established some general guidelines for making these applications:

On Merion bluegrass and bentgrass, apply six to eight pounds of actual nitrogen per year per 1,000 square feet for the highest quality turf. This should probably be applied in at least three or four applications, says Rieke, since it is never a good practice to apply more than two pounds of actual nitrogen per application.

The six to eight pound rate is recommended only for these grasses when they are getting plenty of water.

ON HEAVILY watered sandy soils, this rate of application should go up to about eight pounds per year, because some of the nitrogen can be lost due to leaching. The rate can be reduced on loams or heavier soil where there isn't as much leaching.

On low management turf--such as sandy soil without irrigation--the rate of actual nitrogen applied per year should only be four to six pounds. "That's because of the droughty nature of the sandy soil," explains Rieke.

On other Kentucky bluegrass, three to four pounds of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet should be applied on turf getting a lot of irrigation. The rate should be reduced to two to three pounds on non-irrigated turf.

For red fescues, only one to three pounds of actual nitrogen should be applied per 1,000 square feet per year. "The high range would be used on heavy soil and/or that which is heavily irrigated," says Rieke.

MSU RESEARCH shows that for a good lawn, you should start fertilizing early in the spring and make several more applications throughout the growing season.

This means applying about 40 per cent of your total fertilizer requirement now, about 20 per cent in June and July and the other 40 per cent in August and September.

A more practical approach to lawn fertilization would mean just two applications a year--one in the spring and one in the fall.

If your lawn has come through the winter with a good stand and color, fertilize a little later in the spring. This will mean less mowing, less nitrogen, and fewer clippings to remove.

"You should still remove those clippings, however, if your aim is a very fine lawn," contends Rieke.

"When clippings are not removed, some nitrogen is returned to the soil. In this case, nitrogen rates may be reduced 20 to 40 per cent."

Gazebo Solves Pool Problems

A little gazebo, matching the house in architectural detail, can be the means of solving several poolside problems for families that have, or plan to build, a swimming pool.

The gazebo can be used to house pool machinery and still provide near-pool dressing room, and a shaded little escape.

Construction can be of wood with flooring and pathway to the pool of the same kind of ceramic tile used in the pool itself.

C&O Plans Centralized Control

The Chesapeake and Ohio/Baltimore and Ohio railroads will spend more than $1.6 million to modernize the 130-mile line between Ashford, N.Y., and Punxsutawney, Pa., with the installation of a traffic control system.

Utilizing power switches and automatic signal devices, a traffic control system makes it possible for the right-of-way to be single-tracked instead of double-tracked on certain sections of the railroad.

An operator at a control board in Punxsutawney, headquarters for C&O/B&O's Buffalo Division, will regulate the movement of all trains over the entire Ashford-Punxsutawney line.

Work on the project is expected to begin soon and will take two years to complete. When finished, 64 miles of the 130-mile line will be single-tracked. At present, the entire section is double-track railroad.

Rearrangement of signals and installation of necessary power switches and signal lines will be performed by construction gangs now being assembled, and will result in additional employment in the area.

Other work to be accomplished includes the installation of modern, mercury-vapor lighting at the Salamanca, N.Y., yard; the demolition of obsolete buildings at East Salamanca; and track work along the 130-mile line.

State Has Hardwood Potential

Many of Michigan's young and vigorous trees have potential for yielding valuable hardwood lumber at a time when demand for this wood has never been greater, says Lester E. Bell of the Michigan State University forestry department.

But, to be valuable, they need special attention and the application of new technology today.

"Timber growing is no longer a 'once-in-a-lifetime' crop," Bell reports. "Fertilizers, chemical weed control, and good timber stand improvement practices offer the potential for doubling or even tripling previous growth rates of trees."

Veneer-quality black walnut logs can now be produced in 40 to 60 years and other species in even less time. Further advances in tree genetics should shorten this period more, says Bell.

FERTILIZATION, elimination of grass and low value competition, and artificial pruning of selected individual "crop trees" would greatly increase the value of these existing woodlots.

Planting or favoring existing young seedlings for future stands would also help shorten production time, adds Bell.

Michigan hardwood trees, worthy of more intensive forest management include the sugar maple, tulip poplar, yellow birch, American basswood, black cherry, black walnut, red oak and white oak. According to Bell, these species supply most of our high quality veneer and sawlog material today.

"THE CLIMATE, SOIL, and location of the state of Michigan permit many of the nation's most valuable tree species to grow in one part or another of the state, with a few species common throughout," Bell states.

The price is right, too. According to the forestry specialist, current prices for high quality veneer logs range from $100 per thousand board feet for red oak to over $500 per thousand board feet for black walnut.

MISTER HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATE

(soon to be)

The Detroit Branch of NCR will hire several high school graduates next month. They will be sharp and neat appearing young men who have a high aptitude in the Electronics and/or mechanical field.

These selected high school graduates will enter an extensive training program to prepare them for the professional career of an NCR Technical Service Representative. Their training (with pay) will include approximately one year of class-room instruction at modern NCR educational facilities completely equipped with modern business systems. State labor permits will be obtained for 17 year olds.

Their training and subsequent professional duties in Metropolitan Detroit will engage them in the fascinating and interesting area of servicing NCR business systems—THIS INCLUDES A COMPLETE LINE OF ELECTRONIC DATA PROCESSING EQUIPMENT complete with our recently announced generation of computers, THE CENTURY SERIES.

They will immediately participate in NCR's complete fringe benefit program which includes a college tuition refund plan—all fringe benefits are 100% company paid.

If drafted into the military service either during or after their training, they will be guaranteed rehire after discharge. Time in service will count toward their NCR career.

Their weekly pay after training will be $145.20 and continue into a five figure income. This compensation will increase commensurately with the cost of living index.

These selected young men will be embarking on a technical professional career of a permanent nature with a company that was founded in 1884 and is constantly growing—especially in the field of electronic data processing.

They will represent the cream of the crop of applicants for this training position. Their hire will be based upon aptitude as opposed to practical experience.

Interested young men will be interviewed and tested between 8 A.M. and 1 P.M. Monday through Friday. Also, between 8 A.M. and 10 A.M. on Saturdays. THESE INTERVIEWS MAY TAKE PLACE PRIOR TO OR SUBSEQUENT TO GRADUATION. Apply in person wearing coat and tie. You need not phone for an appointment.
