Oakland Circuit Court Judge Robert L. Templin issued an injunction Friday morning prohibiting the State Election Board from using the incumbent designation for current municipal judges entered in the district court race.

Earl Oppenheimer, Farmington Township trustee and judge candidate, sought the injunction.

Municipal judges in Northville, Plymouth, Redford, and Farmington will lose their designation on the ballot as incumbents under the injunction.

LIVONIA—Supporters of a petition drive to bring open housing in this city to a direct vote of the people failed this week to secure the necessary number of voters' signatures. Led by Neal C. Hall and John Stymelski, the petitioners needed a minimum of 5,454 signatures of registered voters to make open housing an issue in November elections. The number of signatures tallied was only 3,694, according to City Clerk Addison Bacon.

LIVONIA—Construction at Livonia's new $1,200,000 Family Y resumed this week after settlement of the building trade strike. Bill Cameron, Y director, said the strike altered the target date for completion from mid-November of this year to January, 1969.

FARMINGTON—John D. Murphy, Oakland County clerk and election commission chairman, promised availability of absentee ballots by July 17, even though he conceded they will not be printed in strict adherence to a recent Supreme Court decision. Murphy said all candidate lists will be printed in alphabetical order but the names will not be rotated.

FARMINGTON—Establishment of a Historical Museum has been proposed by a City Planning sub-committee after a three-month study dedicated to preservation of the community's historical lore. Marking of old Indian trails and century-old homes also was suggested.

REDFORD—Over $10,000 was refunded to 670 summer school applicants by South Redford Schools this past week, due to program cancellation after teachers withheld their services in a negotiations dispute.

REDFORD—Voter registrations reached a pre-primary election record of 31,945 as of the July 5 cutoff date in this township of an estimated 80,000 persons. Registrations at general election time are expected to exceed the 35,000 counted in November, 1966.

Unification Study Report Due Sept. 1

The long-awaited report on the unification study involving the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township will be made public on September 1.

Announcement of its availability was made by William Pickup, of the Citizens' Research Council—the state agency that was requested to make the study.

"If we rushed," Pickup stated, "we possibly could have the report a bit earlier. But many folks are on their vacations and the September 1 date is more suitable in that they will have returned by that time."

While the report will be filled with information on costs and services of both areas and the cost of a unified city, it will make no recommendations.

"We were instructed to make a study of costs and services," Pickup emphasized,

It Will Contain No Recommendations

"and that is exactly what we have done."

The study was first discussed at the Hillsdale conference two years ago. It was revived again in the spring of 1967 at the Schoolcraft Conference and finally approved in a lop-sided vote.

Since then the Citizens Research officials have made a thorough study of both the city and the township and its everyday work and costs.

When the study was ordered at the Schoolcraft Conference, a move was also instituted to have a state law amended which would permit adjoining communities to enter into contracts for police protection. Through the efforts of State Representatives James Tierney and Louis Schmidt, the law was amended.

Despite the speed with which the law was amended, no attempt has been made to contract for police protection by any of the parties.

Dick Lauterbach, then a Township Trustee, was named chairman of the Police Committee, but never called a meeting pending receipt of the report.

Other activities also have been held in abeyance until the findings of the study are revealed.

Then, it will be up to the two groups to take action.

Lack Of Male Work Force Blocking Industrial Growth

By W. W. EDGAR
Lack of a suitable workforce—especially in the skilled trades—is preventing the expansion of the industrial community in the Plymouth area. This was the complaint of a group of industrial leaders at a breakfast meeting called by the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce and it was the consensus of the group that a shortage of suitable housing is keeping the work force from accepting employment in the area. The group also indicated that what was true of the skilled labor was also true of the unskilled—and that help is more difficult to obtain now than it has been in years.

"I am in need of experienced grinders in three classifications," Calvin Timmons, head of Standards, Inc., told the meeting, "and I can't get them."

"I have attempted everything," he explained, "but the best I could do was get a few men who needed training. I have a sufficient number of trainees, but I just don't seem able to get men with experience."

NORMAN COUGHLIN, of the N.W. Coughlin Co., experts in imprinting, bemoaned the fact that suitable help was most difficult to get.

"How can a firm expand," he asked, "if sufficient help is not available for the present capacity?"

Others in the group included

Frank Moyer, of the Quixonic Corporation; Richard Tache, of Spartan Stores; Howard Prutton, of Niagara Forged Products; Robert Tighe, Welduction Corp. and C.W. Copeland of the Dunn Steel Products Division of the Townsend Co.

The lone company without an acute problem insofar as male help was concerned at the meeting was Spartan Stores where the major portion of the staff is comprised of women.

In a partial survey taken by the Mail & Observer following the meeting it was learned that the lack of a male work force has been a handicap through the industrial and commercial area. Even dishwashers are at a premium.

"We can hire any number of women," Ed Sawusch, General Manager of Anchor Coupling pointed out, "but men are scarce and getting moreso. What men we do have come from surrounding areas and as far away as Hamtramck."

ASKED ABOUT the shortage of suitable housing, Carl Pursell, president of the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce and a dealer in real estate, answered, "There has been a housing shortage in the Plymouth area for quite some time."

He pointed out that it is well nigh impossible to locate a house for rent. When one is found it is taken quickly. He also pointed out that despite the recent building of apartments they are filled as soon as the units are available.

"Another amazing factor," he said, "and one that could be holding back a labor force is the high cost of homes in our area. A study of the sales during the first quarter of the year revealed that the average sale price was $28,000."

"This figure, in many instances," he said, "is above what the average factory worker—or young newlyweds—can afford to pay. As a result they shy away from the Plymouth area."

ANOTHER THING blamed for the shortage is the lack of zoning for low cost housing. The practice in both the city and the township has been to upgrade the zoning and in some instances in the township three acre parcels are required.

All these things have helped to keep down the labor force and have given the industrial leaders the right to publicize the complaint that lack of labor is holding back industrial growth in the area.

The meeting was the first of a series being planned by the Chamber to deal with the problems of business and industry.

Plea For Blood Made In Behalf Of Mrs. Brink

A plea for blood for Mrs. James Brink, of Denver, Colo., formerly of Plymouth, has been issued this week by a friend of the family.

Mrs. Brink has had leukemia for two years. Before moving to Denver she and her husband ran the farm market on South Main Street.

Donors may call the Red Cross, 422-2787; please give the name Sharon Brink, Colorado General Hospital, Denver, when calling.

Clues Fading In Coed Murder

By HENRY J. TEUTSCH

Ann Arbor police officials reported Saturday that all clues in the murder investigation of Eastern Michigan University coed, Joan Schell, of Plymouth, were fading fast and the intensive search for the red and black car in which she rode is still being pursued.

While the hunt for clues continued, Dale R. Schultz, 19-year-old boy friend of the slain girl, was turned over to military authorities as a deserter by Washtenaw County Sheriff's officers, Thursday, after being "tentatively" cleared of suspicion in the crime.

Washtenaw County Chief Prosecutor William Delhey said that a polygraph test administered Wednesday and "other things" has "tentatively cleared" Schultz.

"My intent is to give him over to military authorities," the prosecutor said.

Schultz's charge of carrying brass knuckles—which were found in his possession when he was picked up for questioning July 5—will be dropped after he is turned over to the military, Delhey explained.

Michigan Bell Deliveries Cause Feud

A dispute between an Ann Arbor cartage company and the Teamsters has been brewing for more than a week at the Michigan Bell Telephone offices on Ann Arbor Rd., in Plymouth. It is centered around who should be making deliveries.

John Peard, of Michigan Bell, said there is no real problem and neither the phone company nor any of its affiliates are involved.

The Teamsters threw up picket lines last week claiming that the Godfrey Cartage Co. was non-union and therefore had no right to be making deliveries to the telephone company.

Thief Gets $200 In Cash

The home of Russell Bjornbak, of 46877 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth Township, was broken into Wednesday morning and he reported $200 missing from his son's bedroom.

Wayne County Sheriff's officers reported that someone broke a pane of glass on an inside rear door. The thief then rummaged through several rooms but apparently took nothing but the cash, they said.

SCHULTZ, WHO has been AWOL from the Army since late June, was arrested less than three hours after the girl's body was found. He was discovered hiding in a closet in a U. of M. campus area apartment.

Delhey said that the lesser charge of possession of brass knuckles would be dropped when he is formally charged with desertion by the Army.

Tuesday, he was taken in custody of police to the girl's funeral in Plymouth. He was escorted by a sheriff's detective and an Ann Arbor Police officer.

The statewide hunt for the slayer was given a boost when police learned that as many as three persons may have seen the Plymouth girl enter a WEEDS ON MAIN STREET—Even though the City of Plymouth has an ordinance calling for the cutting of all weeds prior to July 1, a nice crop is flourishing on the city's main traffic artery. The above shows a small girl almost hidden in the crop at the corner of North Holbrook and Main, while the lower view is of Main Street—directly across from the Kroger store.

Township Board Takes Option On Site For Recreation Park

To avoid being relegated to what Township Attorney Ralph Cole called "second class citizenship" and to spur efforts to create a joint recreation facility with the city, Plymouth Township is going to take an option on 63 acres of land. The township and the City of Plymouth have been working on the establishment of a joint recreation authority but have made no final conclusions.

Monday, in a letter, the City asked the Township to authorize it to exercise an option on 63 acres in the township—which would be the future site of an ice arena.

The township felt that if it gave the city the green light it would then be a lessee of the land and not a principal in the arrangement.

Louis Norman, board trustee, was authorized by the township to negotiate with the owners of the property for a six-month option not to exceed $1,500. The option is to be made renewable for another six months for an additional $1,500.

With this action the township took the position of expeditor. However, they said they did

Daughters Save Dad From Drowning

Nagel Post, 525 Byron, Plymouth, is lying in St. Joseph Hospital with pneumonia but he's not complaining too much.

Last Tuesday his three daughters and a neighbor saved him from drowning in the family pool.

Beth Ann Post, 14, said she and her sisters, Sally, 18, and Janeen, 15, and a friend, Doug Slider, were sitting on the patio near the pool.

Her father was swimming under water and he had told them he was going to see how many times he could swim around the pool without taking a breath.

Beth said she sensed something was wrong when her father didn't surface. "He looked limp in the water," she said. "I became excited and started telling everyone that something was wrong."

Her father began to rise to the surface, she reported, but only the top of his head broke the water.

By this time, everyone was aware that he was in trouble and Janeen and Doug dived in and pulled the man to the side of the pool.

Beth said that she and the others helped pull him out and Sally administered mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. Continued on Page 4

Township Gets Own Code On Liquor Sale

Plymouth Township public establishments selling liquor will now have to watch their p's and q's.

Monday night, the township adopted a liquor control ordinance which will become effective Aug. 14.

It was adopted in accordance with the State Liquor Commission's rules and regulations, but the township will name its own inspectors and will collect any fines for violations.

The liquor commission urged the township action and provided it with the ordinance. It made one stipulation.

All the money collected by the township under the ordinance was to be used entirely for enforcement.

The township does not expect to receive any revenues from the ordinance, but it does expect to have tighter control over liquor-selling establishments in it.

Russell Ash Named Trustee In Township

Russell Ash, Republican candidate for the permanent position, was appointed to fill a vacancy on the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees on Monday night.

Ash, who is the outgoing chairman of the Planning Commission, was not present to receive the official news in public. He is one of four Republicans and two Democrats seeking the two Trustee positions in the next election.

The vacancy occurred on the board June 15 when Dick Lauterbach resigned to take a teaching post in northern Michigan.

Lauterbach's post expires in August and therefore his resignation left a vacancy for only two months.

When it was first learned by the board that Lauterbach was leaving members wanted to leave his seat vacant until the election and give every candidate an equal chance.

However, they were forced to make an appointment by a new state law and decided to appoint one of the candidates for the office.

The law says that if a vacancy occurs in an elective position it must be filled within 45 days. The board could have waited until August before taking any action.

On the other hand, the board said it did not have a regularly scheduled meeting until after the August elections which would have left the office unfilled longer than the 45 days.

In a letter to the board,
John D. McEwen, supervisor, wrote, "It is recommended that Russell Ash, 47192 Stonecrest Ave., be appointed to fill this position effective this date."

"Ash's many years of experience on the Planning Commission, of which he is now chairman, proves that he likes hard work and knows how to assume responsibility."

"He applies to both his business dealings and his personal life the highest of ethical standards and moral values."

McEwen concluded, "My recommendation of Ash, therefore, is made without reservation."

The appointment was given unanimous consent.

Don Waters Sets Junior Golf Pace

Don Waters is setting a fast pace in the Plymouth Junior Golf League.

With scores of 41 and 39
he has paced the field during the past two weeks.

On June 30 he posted the 41 to beat Jim Szilagyi by a single stroke and on July 8 his 39 gave him a one-stroke lead over Szilagyi and Dick Neale who tied for second place with 40.

Planning Body Gets Murdock As A Member

William E. Murdock, of 9511
Terry Ave., Plymouth Township, was appointed to the township planning commission Monday night.

Murdock, stores supervisor for Wayne County General Hospital, is replacing Commission Chairman Russell Ash who was appointed to the board of trusttees.

Reappointed to the commission were Charles Childs and W.C. Koch. All three terms expire July 1971.

Supervisor John D. McEwen
recommended the appointments and said, "The two appointments need no introductions to the board inasmuch as they have served the planning commission diligently and faithfully over the past years."

"I have found," McEwen continued, "Mr. Murdock honest, conscientious and energetic."

The Stroller...

With nothing on television but old movies and re-runs of westerns where someone is being shot from a horse every few minutes, the conversation, of all things, turned to the changes in our eating habits... and the great change that has come over the food industry in general.

There was no one in the group who couldn't remember going over to Grandma's house for a Sunday chicken dinner. And there were some, too, who recalled that we once were a nation that subsisted on steak and potatoes—with no emphasis on any special cuts.

The Stroller's mouth is watering for a taste of the old time roast chicken dinners as he writes, and the very thought of the old fashioned "stuffin'" brings only pangs of regret over its departure from the menus.

And then, for a real treat in the Pennsylvania Dutch country, there always was the feast of "chicken and waffles." If you've never eaten chicken and waffles in the Dutch country you've missed one of the great treats of the culinary art.

THE REAL USE OF GRAVY

To get the real atmosphere, we used to travel to the country hotels of a Sunday and gather around the table with the red and white checkered tablecloth. One never had to place an order. It was taken for granted that you came to enjoy chicken and waffles and the hosts lost no time in providing the choice dish.

The first portion set before you was a large platter of stewed chicken. Next came a big pitcher of yellow chicken gravy and there was placed on your plate a large golden-brown waffle with the admonition to "dig in."

One always could recognize the strangers. They always asked for syrup to be poured over the waffles. To the native this was sacrilege. He poured the chicken gravy over the waffles—and if you want a tasty dish, try the combination of waffles and chicken gravy.

These country hotels are long since gone and their passing has helped to change our eating habits.

We have become a nation of people who dote on fried chicken—and much of it is the work of a smiling, white haired Kentucky Colonel.

It was the work of this portly gent with the goatee that became the topic of conversation in front of the darkened TV tube.

At an age when most people sit on the sidelines and watch the world go by, he developed a new method of frying chicken that has swept the country.

Now, instead of waiting until Sunday and going over to Grandma's for a chicken dinner, one can stop along the way and obtain a box of nice, fried chicken with all the trimmings and take it home. There is no fuss or bother and the little woman is spared the drudgery of the kitchen.

Along with this change in our eating habits has come another. There was a time when only the "well-to-do" could afford a catering service for a party. Usually caterers were employed only at large weddings.

Now, the catering service has taken a new twist and, much like the game of golf that once was considered only a rich man's game, it has been made available in all neighborhoods.

CHICKEN GETS COMPANY

This change was pointed out to The Stroller the other evening when he was a guest at a large reception that had all the niceties of such an occasion. When it came time for refreshments there were large dishes of fried chicken—and tasty chicken at that.

Before leaving, The Stroller singled out the hostess to extend thanks and congratulate her for a nice time and to compliment her on her ability to fry chicken.

"Don't tell me you were fooled too," she smiled.

"I didn't fry that chicken. I just sent out and had several buckets of it delivered. Glad you liked it."

Well, this was additional evidence of the changing times.

Now, to join the fried chicken trend has come the pizza. This was once an Italian delicacy and served only in Italian eating establishments.

Almost every evening, one can see the cars go by with the light on the auto top focused on an identifying pizza sign.

Hosts no longer devote much time to preparing the time-honored lunches when entertaining company. They leave the party for a time and scurry to the kitchen phone to order delivery of the pizza. This, too, is becoming a national habit. But the end is not yet.

"A friend of mine," an innkeeper of The Stroller's acquaintance remarked, "has one of these chicken franchises and a week or two ago, he and three young girls grossed $1400 between noon and 10 o'clock on a Sunday."

"Just imagine that," he went on, "no waste, little overhead. How can we fellows with restaurants compete with that? And there are no more chicken franchises available, so you can't join them."

So, The Stroller is convinced that there will be still more changes in eating habits. The day of the restaurant is on the wane.

Proper Use Of Land Study Needed Now To Solve Most Pressing Problem

The complaint of the industrial community of Plymouth that lack of a labor force was delaying much-needed expansion to keep up with competition has focused attention again on the most important problem in the area.

This problem, common in all fast growing sections, concerns the use of the land. How much of it should be zoned for industrial purposes—both light and heavy industry?

How much should be set aside for commercial use of stores, markets and shops?

And how much should be designated for residential purposes—and how should the residential area be established in regard to lot sizes?

No community is complete without proper zoning for all four designations. But the big question always arises as to how much land should be used by any one of the groups.

This is the question that now must be faced in the Plymouth area.

IT IS AN ESTABLISHED fact that more people work in Plymouth than live here. And, briefly, that leads to the present complaint of the industrial firms... they can't get a sufficient amount of help because there are no homes available for labor even if it were available.

There has been a definite shortage of homes in the Plymouth area for some time and apartments are occupied as soon as they are built. So, there is a crying need for housing.

And while this fact is recognized, it leads only to another question. What type of housing should be provided—and where could a low-cost housing area be developed?

A recent survey uncovered the information that the average cost of homes in the area during the first quarter of the year was $28,000. This figure is beyond the reach of many folks who would provide the labor force. So, it is only reasonable to assume that a lower cost home is almost mandatory.

Up to now the trend has been the other way. There has been a concentration on upgrading the use of land to the point where some sections of Plymouth Township are zoned for three-acre estates. And at the very least, home sites are being restricted to half-acre lots.

This is fine. There could be no argument against such things—if there was a sufficient amount of housing at the other end. This is the housing necessary for the factory worker and the young folks just starting the task of homemaking.

--The Education and Labor Committee has reported for floor action my bill on HUNGER. The measure, sponsored by 23 other members of my committee, is designed to expand the school food services programs, including the school lunch program, to reach a great number of youngsters not now being covered. Final passage will go a long way toward eliminating the red tape which has plagued the programs and ending the cruel paradox of our present system that finds us spending billions on farmers for not growing food while many children go without a square meal daily.

--The House recently passed a $9 billion supplemental APPROPRIATIONS bill for fiscal 1968. Of this, $6.1 billion will go for increased costs relating to the war in Vietnam. Most appropriations for fiscal 1969 still await action causing speculation that Congress might have to return to work after the conventions to complete consideration of money matters. Last year the government was half way through the fiscal year before appropriations were completed. This type of inexcusable delay, caused by out-moded methods and tired leadership, results in confusion and inefficiency for vital projects and programs.

--The Washington Tourist Trade appears to be returning to normal levels. Visitors, delaying and canceling trips due to the riots and fear of what the Poor Peoples March might produce, once again can be seen in greater numbers touring our national heritage sites.

If you are planning a trip to our nation's capital be sure to write me well in advance so that I can make arrangements for special tours and send you some material to make your trip more enjoyable. Tours are limited and we operate on a first serve basis. I also hope you will stop by my office so I can meet you personally if possible.

Letters To The Editor

Plymouth Jr. Chamber of Commerce

Dear Sirs:

As a member of an organization which entered a float in your parade on the Fourth of July, I feel I have the right to lodge this complaint.

Not only this year, but in years past, you have had a theme for your parade. This year it was "100 years from now." The float which won first place was a beautiful float with much work put into it, but what in the name of heaven does a sailing vessel have to do with the year 2068?

May I also cite another example. The parade of 1967 had the theme "Centennial Plymouth." Fine, but the float that won was a Grecian stage with Nero fiddling, again I ask, what has this to do with the theme "Centennial Plymouth?"

I am not saying our float should have won, but it would seem to me that you should either drop the idea of a theme or enforce your theme in the judging of the floats.

May I also make one other suggestion. Is it fair to judge the float of an adult group as the B.P.O.E. against the float done by a group of children and teens such as 4-H. I feel with the $5 entry fee you are charging, you could well afford the two classes at least, if not more.

Respectfully yours,
ROBERT A. SIMMONS

car the night of June 30 in Ypsilanti.

After checking all leads received since the finding of the body near the intersection of Glacier Way and Earhart Rd., Ann Arbor Acting Police Chief Harold Olson and Asst. Washenaw County Prosecuting Atty. Thomas Shea said they have determined that Miss Schell's acceptance of a ride was seen by several persons other than her roommate, Susan Kolbe.

SO FAR, the police said, the only tangible lead is the late model red and black auto in which the three young men were riding when they picked up the girl in front of Welch Hall on the Ypsilanti campus.

The two investigators said that one other person has been questioned who saw the car that night.

"We now feel we will be able to compile fairly accurate descriptions of the three white youths in that car," Shea reported.

For two days auxiliary police, sheriff's deputies, members of the sheriff's mounted division and city officers have combed nearly every inch of fields and roads around Glacier Way and Earhart Rd., where the body was found. The intensive search has failed to turn up Miss Schell's red, cloth handbag, the murder weapon or any other clue to the slaying.

WHEN THE murder investigation began it was immediately linked with a similar murder last year of another EMU coed, Mary Slezar, whose body was discovered near the Ypsilanti campus.

Police said that the hunt for the killers of the two girls has branched out to Wisconsin and Illinois where police have compiled files on similar killings.

THE MOST intensive area of investigation in the Schell case remains centered around the red and black automobile.

The car, which has been described as a Pontiac or Ford 1966 or 1967, stopped near McKinney Union in Ypsilanti on Forest Ave. June 30 about 11:30 p.m.

Miss Schell got in. Witnesses reported that it was a two-door model, and one of the three occupants stepped out of the auto to allow the girl to enter. The vehicle then disappeared around a building.

Capt. Olson said, "We're asking again: residents of the Ann Arbor-Ypsilanti area who know of a Pontiac or Ford with a red body, and a black-vinyl top which they know is used at times by young men to contact us at once."

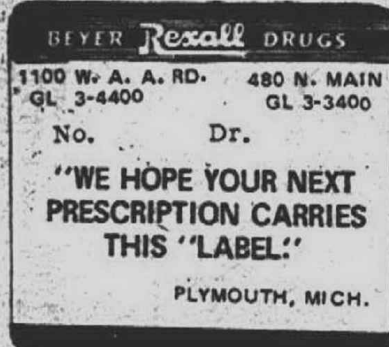

THE ACTING police chief said his department and any other agency would guarantee complete anonymity to any person giving information. He said that the Ann Arbor Police would afford anyone giving key evidence the same police protection that has been afforded Miss Kolbe. She has been kept under 24-hour guard since the crime was discovered.

Investigators reported they believe at this time that if the three young men in the car are involved in Miss Schell's murder, one of the three was an unwilling party to the crime. Capt. Olson said that there is usually a "weak sister" in these groups.

Shea added the final autopsy report on Miss Schell's body shows that one of a dozen knife wounds penetrated the victim's skull. It is still unknown if she was sexually assaulted.

Sidewalk Code Spelled Out In Township

There's some headway being made in Plymouth Township's efforts to adopt a sidewalk ordinance.

The Board of Trustees Monday night amended its subdivision ordinance and spelled out where sidewalks have to be built in subdivisions.

Sidewalks now must be built only on lots abutting main arteries. It will be the option of the developer to put in sidewalks inside the subdivision.

The township can now be assured, the board said, that from now on sidewalks automatically will be constructed on main streets.

A sidewalk ordinance is being studied by the township.

The difficulties, the board stated, are centered on who is going to pay for sidewalks that would be required by the ordinance—the individual home owner or the entire area which would benefit from a sidewalk location.

The board decided to table any decision on the request until it had talked further with the city and could work out a more equitable agreement, it said.

not want to give the city the impression it was being pushed aside.

Norman was named agent for an undisclosed principal, namely the township, which would allow the city to join the township at any time.

The board stated that by at least making certain the property was available was a more solid beginning. They added that any arrangements with the city could be made under their present plans.

The city's letter had also asked the township to agree to terms allowing the city to request financing for the project.

The board decided to table any decision on the request until it had talked further with the city and could work out a more equitable agreement, it said.

Daughters Save Father From Death

"He was blue when we pulled him out and it took about three minutes before he was breathing again."

In the meantime, Beth reported, her mother, Wilma, called police and they responded along with the fire department rescue squad shortly after the man was revived.

The fire department gave the man oxygen until an ambulance arrived.

Beth said she talked to her father Thursday morning and he sounded good. She added he was taken off the critical list and is slowly getting better.

Clarenceville Asks Second Vote On Millage

Clarenceville voters will go back to the polls Monday, July 29 to vote for the second time on four additional mills needed to operate the school system. A scant 11 per cent of the eligible electorate turned out last time, and the voter apathy spelled defeat for the Clarenceville proposal. Only 234 voters said yes to new taxes for the schools; 259 said no, handing the district a surprise loss by 25 votes. Other districts in the area fared much better. The school districts of Garden City, Nankin, Redford Union, Wayne, Plymouth and Farmington all passed new mills for operational funds. The same proposal that voters turned down June 10 will come up on July 29.

"Our needs were realistic before the election, they were the day after, and they are now," Superintendent David McDowell said.

ALL PLANNING, including the new budget and salary increases for the district's 300 employees have been held up by the millage failure.

McDowell explains that anticipated expenditures, including pay hikes, would total $2,575,000 next year. Placed against expected revenue of the current tax levy, which brings in $2,405,000, the Clarenceville Board of Education finds itself short by $170,000. School officials this spring, eyeing the deficit, decided to ask voters for four mills, which would produce $180,000, when levied against the district's $45,500,000 state equalized valuation. "There are many problems developing because we are without the money," McDowell said. "For one, we haven't settled with any of our employee groups. We can't offer our teachers the salaries that will be competitive with other schools in the area. Each of these people have a right to be paid a salary that would be competitive with others in this area. TO PROVE his point, Superintendent McDowell compares Clarenceville teacher salaries with other districts now settled for the year. Madison Heights settled beginning salaries at $6,925, Waterford at $6,700, Ferndale at $7,000, Bloomfield at $6,850 and Troy at $6,875. "The districts who have their millage are hiring our teachers—the ones who know the money to pay them is there, are going to these other districts," McDowell pointed out. While nearby districts like Farmington and Livonia have not settled, they have the millage to work with, McDowell added. THE JULY 29 date will be the last possible election date that would allow placing new millage on the tax books in time. In other words, should the millage fail, the district must operate with the revenue as levied.

A New Weapon

Sheriff Unveils New Organized Crime Unit

Wayne County Sheriff Roman S. Gribbs today announced the formation of an intelligence unit to fight organized crime on a full-time basis.

The unit, currently composed of four sheriff's officers, will develop criminal cases, record information on organized crime and criminals and act as liaison officers with local police departments.

"I believe this type of unit is essential to good law enforcement in Wayne County because organized crime does not recognize city boundaries," Gribbs said.

"The President's Crime Commission last year criticized present law enforcement methods of dealing with organized crime and former Wayne County Grand Juror George Bowles said enforcement methods of a bygone day are not enough.

"This is a start in Wayne County to find new weapons. We need them when you consider the Crime Commission report said Michigan was one of 24 States that has a wealthy and influential organized crime corps."

Gribbs said his long range objective is to have officers in each of the county's municipalities working with the intelligence unit so that organized crime will be kept off balance.

"I will meet soon with the police chiefs of Wayne County to ask them to name men for this work," Gribbs said.

"Vincent W. Piersante, head of the Attorney General's Organized Crime Division and former chief of detectives in Detroit, has agreed to train the officers in techniques, records and organization."

The sheriff said the intelligence unit will work with maximum security and be answerable to himself or under-sheriff William Lucas only.

Gribbs said the intelligence unit actually has been working together since early June.

"They were involved in an investigation which resulted in the arrests of 13 persons.

Gribbs said the information which led to the arrests was first detected and developed by sheriff's detectives Richard M. Novak and Arthur Torikian, both of whom are named to the intelligence unit.

"When the officers realized they were investigating persons named as organized crime members before a U.S. Senate committee in 1963 they took their information to Piersante," Gribbs said.

"Eventually our men completed the investigation in co-operation with the state agency and federal authorities.

"Both Novak and Torikian have received letters of commendation from Attorney General Frank J. Kelley."

Novak was returned to investigative work when Gribbs became sheriff June 1.

Novak, a former deputy inspector had been fired by Gribbs' predecessor Peter L. Buback last fall, but was returned to duty as a deputy at the Wayne County Youth Home by the Civil Service Commission.

A motion which Novak hopes will return him to the post of deputy inspector is pending before the Michigan Court of Appeals.

State Police Swear In 24 New Troopers

Twenty-four Michigan State Police recruits were sworn in as probationary troopers at a program held Wednesday afternoon in the National Guard armory in Lansing. It was the department's seventy-first graduation exercise.

Lieutenant Governor William G. Milliken gave the principal address to the new officers, their relatives and friends.

Lt. Col. Melvin G. Kaufman, State Police deputy director for field services, who also spoke to the group, administered the oath of office to the new troopers and gave them their badges.

Of the graduating troopers, 19 have had some college training, including one with a four-year degree and one with a two-year degree. Three of the group had previous police experience.

TELL IT TO

Glennie

"Some days you just can't win for losing," "You can't win 'em all," "Sorry about that!"—these and other "sayings" could be applied to a recent column of mine.

Aside from the obvious poor timing of the reference to National Hitchhiking month there was also one little letter omitted from the account of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Schryer's 25th wedding anniversary celebration.

Now, you wouldn't think just one letter would make a great big difference in the Schryers anniversary—but it did. There were eighty guests at the gathering—not eight.

The difference between eight and eighty is, according to my calculations, about 72 slices of anniversary cake.

PLYMOUTH can be mighty proud of Glen Heinrich Jr., a 1966 graduate of Plymouth High School. He's home from Vietnam with a grand war record.

He was recently promoted to Sgt. E-5 and is now squad leader in the 81st MM weapons platoon of Company C, 235th Infantry, third battalion, fourth infantry division.

That's not all—he has been awarded three purple hearts, the Vietnam service medal, the Vietnam campaign medal and the combat infantry badge! Congratulations, Sgt. Heinrich!

THEY TELL ME that the Main Street Fourth of July parade was not the only one that took place on that holiday. Over on Brownell Street, 15 children staged a mini-parade complete with beauty queen and football hero.

"Miss Brownell" was Maureen Gallagher and her brother Danny, was the parade's cavorting clown.

Jim Ort added a sports flavor to the gathering as he donned football togs. The whole thing took place at 10 a.m. so none of the kids missed the big celebration downtown.

REMEMBER THE 10-foot pizza that was Jerry Harb's (of Plymouth Colonial Pizza) contribution to the July Fourth parade?

I started wondering the other day just what happened to that mammoth serving of my favorite food and gave him a call. He tells me that it wound up in the garbage can. Just a bit too warm a day to serve, he said.

So the pizza that traveled from one end of our town to the other and was photographed on TV, landed in the garbage—all 30 billion calories of it!

The sun was bright this afternoon, the humidity was not too high and the disc jockey told me that the merces (commonly known as air contaminants) were at a remarkable low.

It seemed a shame to run the typewriter through Vietnam

I hope not, because then I could write about sunshine and smiling faces. I would have a chance to tell people about the things that make me happy rather than harp on the things that should make them sad.

or down the streets of the ghetto with its unpleasantness. It is true that people have problems, but would they mind terribly if I put my head in the sand just for one week and forget about them and their problems?

I saw something else that was more warming than any temperature when two men went by in a car—one black and the other white. They were riding along as if they were no different than any other people riding in an automobile. Just watching the kids having a good time was also pleasant to see, and to know that there were many other people in many other parts of the world also having fun was good to think about.

I LOOKED AT A maple tree and wondered how much good and how many smiles had been seen in its shadow since the day that it poked its first leaf through the ground. A tree that had no doubt been through many storms, but one that had been appreciated by many people. The whole town seemed great. The people smiled, the trees were just trees. The cars did not seem to be in a hurry to finish their ride. The birds chirped the way birds are supposed to chirp, and the dogs wagged their tails or lay in the sun—even Snoopy would have been proud of them.

IT WAS A good day, maybe I shouldn't turn on the 11 p.m. news but then that has become a habit and besides I want tomorrow's weather report.

And I don't think that I have really had my head in the sand today, because these good things have been just as much a part of life as the things I will see video taped in a few moments.

But do you know something? Because I have enjoyed today so much, I have to turn back toward those other people and the problems I have momentarily pushed aside in the hope that I can do even a small bit to help them enjoy some of these today.

I'd like to think that this is the difference between enjoying something and hoarding it.

Plymouth Elks Foursome Attends National Meet

Four members of the Plymouth Elks Club are attending the Centennial convention of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks in New York City, July 14-18.

Arthur W. Berry, Exalted Ruler, is representing Plymouth Lodge 1780 as its official delegate. He is accompanied by his wife, Lula. Other Plymouth Lodge members attending are Past Exalted Ruler, Wayne Cline and his wife, Ann, of Farmington.

Berry and his wife flew to New York City July 13. Their arrival coincided with that of the Clines who are touring the East prior to the convention. Berry will accept a first place award in the nationwide lodge bulletin contest, on behalf of the Plymouth Lodge. The traveling Elks attended Elks Night in Yankee Stadium, where the Yankees played Washington. Special pre-game Elk ceremonies were observed. A convention highlight will be guest speaker, Gen. Lewis W. Walt, former commander of Marine forces in Vietnam, and currently Deputy Commandant to the U.S. Marine Corps.

The B.P.O. Elks, organized in New York City on Feb. 16, 1868, has more than one million members in 2,108 lodges, making it the largest American fraternal order.

Plymouth Girl Scouts Study Indians

Girl Scout resident camp, Camp Linden, is now in its second session of the 1968 season with 14 Plymouth girls attending. The session began July 3rd, and will continue until July 17th.

Cadet Scout, Julie Spring, 575 Simpson, is enrolled in the Indiana Heritage unit at the camp. With other girls from the four-county area served by the Huron Valley Council, she is learning how Indians of Michigan lived. With several teepees as living quarters, they are doing Indian arts and crafts, learning primitive living and cooking skills, and studying Indian lore.

PLYMOUTH SCOUTS enrolled in the general program units are: Laurie Ann Burkhart, Karen Davies, Mary Patricia Doherty, Emily Anne Eichler, Tracy Flora, Maureen Nulty, Vickie Sand, Jeanne Sellman, Cathy and Connie Voytas, and Kim Wilson.

The Fourth of July observances at the camp included an all-camp flag ceremony with the Scouts reaffirming their Girl Scout Promise of doing their duty to their country.

A new feature at Camp Linden this summer is the swimming and boating beach, developed with profits from the annual Girl Scout Cookie sale.

Camp Linden which is in Northern Livingston County, is owned and operated by the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, of which Plymouth is a part.

"Plymouth Township, Wayne County, Michigan.

"To the residents and property owners of Plymouth Township, Wayne County, Michigan, and other interested persons:

"PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the Township Board of said Township, at a legal meeting of said Board, held July 9, 1968, adopted the following ordinance as governing said Township, to become effective August 14, 1968."

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP ORDINANCE NO. 28 PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP LIQUOR CONTROL ORDINANCE

ADOPTED: July 9, 1968
EFFECTIVE: August 14, 1968

AN ORDINANCE to secure the public peace, health and safety of the residents and property owners of the Township of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan, a municipal corporation, for the regulation of alcoholic liquor traffic within said township, through the enforcement of the Michigan Liquor Control Act of the State of Michigan within said Township; to provide penalties for the violation of said ordinance; and to repeal all ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict therewith.

THE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP, WAYNE COUNTY, MICHIGAN, ORDAINS:

Section 1. TITLE.

This Ordinance shall be known and cited as the Plymouth Township Liquor Control Ordinance.

Section 2. LIQUOR CONTROL ACT OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN.

All alcoholic liquor traffic, including among other things, the manufacture, sale, offer for sale, storage for liquor, possession and/or transportation thereof within Plymouth Township, Wayne County, Michigan shall comply with the provisions of the Michigan Liquor Control Act, being Act No. 8 of the Michigan Public Acts of 1933, as amended.

Section 3. ENFORCEMENT.

For the purpose of the enforcement of said Michigan Liquor Control Act within said Township, there is hereby established a Liquor Control Enforcement Department with full power, authority and duty to see that the provisions of said Act and the rules and regulations of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, adopted pursuant to said act, are enforced within said Township. Such Department shall consist of not less than one constable or Deputy Sheriff appointed by the Township Board and such other personnel as the Township Board may, in its discretion, appoint. The personnel in such Department shall be entitled to such compensation as the Township Board may determine. Such Department or a member thereof shall be available at all times to investigate complaints received under this Ordinance, and enforce the provisions hereof.

Section 4. INSPECTION.

The Township Liquor Control Enforcement Department shall inspect not less than monthly, all liquor establishments licensed under the Liquor Control Act of the State of Michigan, and report the results of all inspections promptly to the Township Board. The Township Liquor Control Enforcement Department shall further promptly investigate all complaints received by it concerning violations of the Michigan Liquor Control Act, or improper operations and practices concerning alcoholic liquor traffic within the Township, and report the same to the Township Board and, where appropriate under the Michigan Liquor Control Act, to the Michigan Liquor Control Commission for appropriate proceedings against the violator.

All inspectors shall carry appropriate cards issued by the Township Clerk, clearly identifying them as Township Liquor Control Inspectors and shall present said cards to the owner or manager of every place inspected by them making an inspection, upon demand for identification by such owner or manager.

Inspectors shall have the right to inspect any place in the Township where alcoholic liquor is manufactured, sold, offered for sale, kept for sale, possessed or transported, or where the inspector suspects the same is being thus manufactured, sold, offered for sale, kept for sale, possessed, or transported. Whenever possible, all inspection reports shall be made on Liquor Law Enforcement Inspection forms furnished by the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, or on similar forms otherwise obtained by the Township Liquor Control Enforcement Department.

Section 5. APPROPRIATION.

For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance and establishing the Liquor Control Enforcement Department herein provided for, the Township Board hereby appropriates the sum of $1,500.00 for such use, and is hereby authorized and directed to annually appropriate such amount as will, in its discretion, be sufficient to maintain and operate such Liquor Control Enforcement Department for the ensuing fiscal year of the Township, not exceeding, however, 10 mills of the assessed valuation of the Township in any one year for vehicles, apparatus and equipment and housing for the same, and not exceeding 2 1/2 (two and one-half) mills of the assessed valuation of the Township per year for the maintenance and operation of the Department.

Section 6. PENALTIES.

Any person, other than persons required to be licensed under the Michigan Liquor Control Act, who shall violate any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Any licensee who shall violate any of the provisions of the Michigan Liquor Control Act or any rule or regulation of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission promulgated thereunder, or who shall violate any of the provisions of this Ordinance, and any person who shall prohibit or interfere with the authorized inspection of a member of the Township Liquor Control Enforcement Department shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 90 days or by a fine of not more than $100.00, or both, in the discretion of the court. Each day that a violation continues to exist shall constitute a separate offense.

It is the intent of the Township Board that the court, in imposing punishment under the provisions of this Ordinance, should discriminate between casual or slight violations and habitual sales of alcoholic liquor or attempts to commercialize violations of this Ordinance or any of the rules or regulations of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission promulgated under the Michigan Liquor Control Act.

WASHINGTON -- The State Department has announced that final agreement has been reached between the United States and the Soviet Union concerning jet service between the two countries.

The Soviets first agreed to such an air service in 1961, but then discussions got bogged down in cold war ill feelings and American red tape.

Service will begin July 15. There seems to be little distinction between the Soviet airline Aeroflot and the American half of the service, which Pan American will provide on 200-passenger Boeing 707's.

BOSTON -- Dr. Benjamin Spock and three co-defendants have been sentenced to two years in prison for conspiring to counsel young men to evade the draft.

All but one of the defendants--Michael Ferber, 23, a Harvard graduate student--also were fined $5,000. Ferber was fined $1,000.

All were released on $1,000 bond pending appeal. Spock, the famed baby doctor, said he would appeal the conviction.

Twelve stories below the jammed courtroom, some 300 demonstrators protested the sentencing of Spock, 65; Ferber; the Rev. William Sloane Coffin Jr., 44, Yale University chaplain; and author Michael Goodman, 44, of Temple, Me.

AUBURN, N.Y. -- Eighty-five persons were injured, 24 of them severely enough to require hospitalization, when a circus tent collapsed during a violent thunderstorm. No one was killed.

The heavy canvas fell on an estimated 200 persons at the Clyde Beatty-Cole Brothers Circus.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. -- A Secret Service agent drove off two youths carrying Molotov cocktails, with one gunshot, as they stalked up the driveway of Gov. Ronald Reagan's home.

The young men tossed the fire bombs away as they fled. Neither of the gasoline-filled bottles ignited as they shattered on the ground.

The Secret Service agent who fired the shot was one of those assigned to Reagan by President Johnson after the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy last month in Los Angeles. The agents were ordered to guard all presidential candidates.

LONDON, Ohio -- Ohio National Guardsmen have clamped tight security over London Correctional Institution and have begun weeding out rowdy inmates who had set small nuisance fires in four of the prison's seven dormitories.

Gov. James Rhodes earlier had ordered the company of 250 National Guardsmen into the institution to reinforce regular guards and state highway patrolmen.

CHICAGO -- A federal judge has ordered integration of the South Holland Elementary School District. This was the first desegregation suit filed by the Justice Department in the North.

Judge Julius J. Hoffman of U.S. District Court issued the order and said the district south of Chicago must integrate its six schools in two steps, the first to be completed by September.

A plan outlining how desegregation could be accomplished in the fall term accompanied the order.

Mouth-to-Mouth Resuscitation Keeps Nicki Alive

3 Men Outrace Death, Save Tiny Girl

By ANN SHAW

A jagged bolt of lightning flashed out of the sky, struck down little Nicki Smith, 5, and left her for dead.

She lay motionless, her pulse gone.

But three men—a neighbor, a State Trooper, and a fire chief—raced death and did the impossible.

They saved her life. Nicole Smith, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith, of Canton Township, was knocked down by a bolt of lightning a month ago that stopped her pulse and breathing.

Three men, Stanley Gould, State Trooper, Roger Simmons and Assistant Fire Chief, in Canton Township, Lawrence Longwish saved her by giving her mouth to mouth resuscitation.

Today, four weeks later, she's on her way to a full recovery.

"IT WAS a muggy evening," Mrs. Smith recalls, "and we had been sitting on the porch. Ken was mowing the yard, and when I heard the thunder, I called the kids inside."

"Then we both heard a loud crack. I thought it was Ken. I wasn't concerned about Nicki because I thought she was inside."

"We both ran to the backyard and she was just lying there. Limp and paralyzed with her arms and legs crossed. We thought we had lost her."

Mrs. Smith's screams scared 58-year-old Gould, who was working in his garage across the street. Gould ran into Smith's yard, carried Nicki into the house, laid her on the couch and began to fight to save her.

Gould, employed by the Wayne County Road Commission, had only read a few times about artificial respiration—he had never tried it.

"Well, there were a lot of people standing around. A lot of them thought she was dead. I just couldn't give up that easily."

The awful sight of her stiff and quiet daughter had sent Mrs. Smith into shock.

Some one was calling ambulances. Someone else, the Township Fire Department. Another call was made to the Michigan State Police Department.

Gould kept trying to keep his little neighbor alive.

Longwish and five others came with the manual resuscitator. It was too big for Nicki's little face. Longwish relieved Gould, and started giving the child his own breath.

"You never know how long in a situation like that, but probably in 10 minutes or so, the State Trooper came," Gould said. Simmons and Longwish then alternated in their efforts to put life back into her.

The ambulance came, and Simmons and Longwish continued, as they lifted the child into the carrier, to give her artificial respiration. In the 12 mile race to Wayne County General, Longwish and Simmons continued in their fight.

When they got to the emergency door, three doctors were there to meet her.

No one recalls exactly what happened next.

Mrs. Smith regained consciousness in the ambulance. Longwish and Simmons waited a while outside, then went into the emergency room. Longwish said:

Then her right arm seemed okay. Her left arm would be tied down for intravenous feeding another week, but her leg and arm movements seem remarkable.

She didn't recognize her mommy and daddy at first, but gradually, slowly, after two and a half weeks, she cried when they went home one day.

So, she had remembered them. "I was never so happy to hear her cry," Mrs. Smith said, almost laughing and crying at the same time.

DOCTORS WERE amazed, Gould thanks the Good Lord, and the Smiths think it must be a miracle that a little five year old girl is making great strides toward recovery.

Brighton Tent Show Recalls Era Of Familiar 19th Century Scenes

"Today the show people have forgotten their audience. The old timers put on shows for their audience and never forgot them."

That's one man's opinion and he has taken steps to have the actors remember the audience.

Dramatic Tent Show on Old Grand River just west of Brighton.

Calling the show as "American as apple pie," Harold Rosier who has more than 30 years of acting experience behind him. In fact, his experience dates to the time of the Henderson Stock Co.

His current occupation is the major domo of The Rosier Players Old Time pie. Rosier emphasizes that it is not a circus, carnival, musical tent theatre or Little Theatre, but a dramatic tent show.

ORIGINS OF THESE shows can be traced back to the 19th century America. The movement flourished until the advent of "talking" pictures when the need for entertainment in small towns lagged.

In the old days the tent shows took to the road during the summer months and traveled throughout the country. The stay in each town lasted about a week and the repertory included vaudeville acts and a collection of plays.

The movement had some similarity to the better known Chautauqua Shows of the time, but the tent shows were concerned only with the legitimate stage.

In Chautauqua the idea was a kind of traveling summer school. The emphasis might be on drama one night, but the next night the program was likely to be a lecture on either the arts or a current social problem.

In addition, Chautauqua frequently featured a revival meeting complete with a fire 'n brimstone preacher.

NOT SO in the tent shows. The plays presented by these companies were usually strictly entertaining and not meant to be thought-provoking or deal with controversial issues. One of the exceptions to this rule was "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

The plays were billed as "suitable for the entire family" and this was adhered to by all the traveling shows.

This is one point that Rosier stresses in the current productions. He asserts:

"The plays that we present will probably never win any prizes for their literary content, they will be presented for their entertainment value and with the entire family in mind. This way you can enjoy an evening's entertainment in the same way that Americans have for the last 150 years."

Rosier appears in most of the productions as the Toby character.

About 1910 many of the tent shows began using a red haired comedian in some of the plays and his name "Toby" began to catch on.

The part became so well liked by the American people, especially in the rural areas, that many managers began rewriting their plays to include a Toby character whether the play called for the part or not.

It wasn't long before the public began calling them "Toby" shows. This is probably the closest thing America has to "Folk" theatre.

The Rosier Players present the plays as near as possible to the time in which they were written. They will also feature vaudeville numbers between acts in addition to the regular plays.

Schedule Of Events

Plays scheduled for this summer's season in the Rosier Players Tent Theatre include:

HIGH AND MIGHTY—July 17 through 20. A small town setting of 1898 with characters that are not too much different than you would meet today.

TAMED AND HOW—July 24-27, July 31, Aug. 1-3. First played in the early 1920's, the play has an unusual approach to a family problem.

MR. PEPPER'S PEPPER UPPER—Aug. 7-10, Aug. 14-17. A typical Toby comedy, this is a chance to see those fantastic fabricators of foolishness in action.

THE LITTLE DIPPER—Aug. 21-24, Aug. 29-31. An original musical in folk style, the story is set in a small fishing village in New England.

Curtain time for the shows is 8:30 p.m. with the box office opening at 7:30 p.m. The tent show is located in the History Town area just west of Brighton on old Grand River.

AN OLD TIME TENT SHOW—The only one of its kind in the State, the Rosier Players Tent Show is housed in this tent on Old Grand River just west of Brighton. The scene brings back memories of the turn of the century when such shows were in their heyday.

TOBY—Harold Rosier has perfected the comic role of Toby over the years. He will be seen in most of this season's productions.

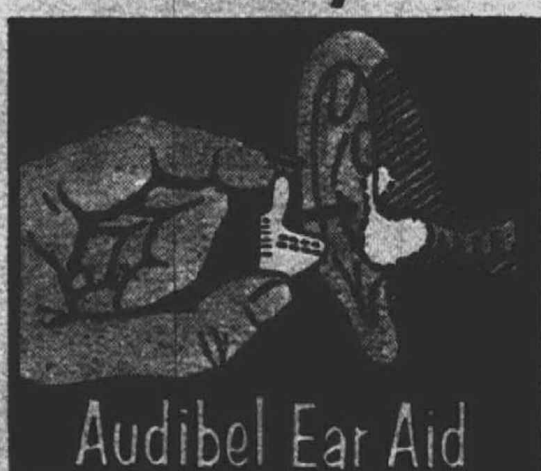

JACK OF ALL TRADES—As major domo the duties are varied. In addition to appearing on stage, Harold Rosier "sees to" many details. Here he puts up the banner in front of the tent.

A MAGICIAN—Waunetta Rosier has been appearing on the stage since she was 14. One of the few professional lady magicians in the country, she appears as leading lady in some of the shows.

Use Table Pad

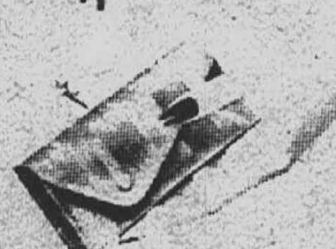

To Prevent Slip

When cutting out either thin or slippery material, keep it from slipping and sliding on the table, by placing a table pad, felt side up on the table before beginning to cut.

This will keep the fabric right where you want it, and it will stay in place, making cutting more accurate. And at the same time it is protecting the surface of the table top from scissors marks and scratches.

Put crisp leaves of western iceberg lettuce, sliced cucumber and onion in one sandwich bag; wrap a simple cold cut sandwich in a separate bag. At lunchtime, the "salad" is slipped into the sandwich for "all-in-one" eating.

Water Bottle Tip

To get longer life from your hot water bottle, store it carefully. Before storing, wash and dry it thoroughly. Hang it upside down to permit moisture to evaporate from inside. Then blow to separate the surfaces and sprinkle the inside with talcum powder or cornstarch.

Blouses Popular

The shirt and blouse are back in the 1968 fashion spotlight, along with waistslines, curves and snowy-fresh femininity. Fortunately, most of these up-to-date blouses and shirts are made of fabrics which have great wash-and-wear ability. Cotton and cotton blends lead in the sportswear field, while dacrons, nylons and linens in varying degrees of sheerness are favorites for afternoon and evening wear.

The newly elected general superintendent, Dr. Edward Lawlor, opened the convention. It was announced that the Plymouth Church of the Nazarene will receive the Outstanding Achievement Award for 1967-68. This award is presented annually to churches with more than 50 members and is based on increase in attendance, finance, Sunday School, and giving.

Offer Cultural Events

Seventeen performing groups and three touring exhibits were added to the Michigan State Council for the Arts Touring Attractions "cultural menu" for 1968-69.

The vivid yellow and red touring attractions packets contain 84 entertainment listings in the categories of dance, theatre, literature, music and multi-arts.

Initiated only a year ago, the state arts council's touring program is designed to aid Michigan communities initiate or expand current cultural programs.

Local sponsors needing financial assistance to support selected cultural programs may apply to the MSCA for partial support. Approval of supporting grants is determined by availability of funds, equitable geographic distribution and evidence that the attraction will introduce a new cultural experience, or will augment an on-going cultural program in a community.

Priority consideration is given to requests for assistance from geographically remote communities and to disadvantaged inner city areas.

MSCA touring exhibitions in the visual arts category have no fee attached. However, the sponsoring organization must assume shipping costs for the exhibit.

Added to the touring attractions' program were: Dance-Orchestra group from Michigan State University, William Hug with Kitsey Playcan from Interlochen Arts Academy.

Judge Richard Maher Seeks Circuit Court Vacancy

Executive Judge Richard M. Maher pushed his campaign out-county for a promotion from the traffic division of Detroit's Recorder's Court to the Circuit bench.

Mahe is running for a vacancy which has existed for two years.

In addition, Maher has won the blessing of the Detroit Fire Fighters Association, the Wayne County AFL-CIO, the Detroit Building Trades Council, and the Detroit Police, Detectives, Lieutenants and Sergeants Association.

Mahe is presently executive judge of traffic court. Elected to the post by his colleagues in 1966, Maher formerly served as Detroit Traffic Court Referee, member of the Detroit Board of Zoning Appeals and member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors.

In his service as chief of traffic court, Maher has won a national reputation as a leading exponent of the theory that traffic judges must make their voices heard by the public in a constant campaign for traffic safety.

An advocate of the fair but firm enforcement of traffic laws, Judge Maher had made literally hundreds of personal appearances before church, civic, business, service and labor organizations in his continuing campaign "to preach the gospel of traffic safety."

Mahe has lectured widely on matters of traffic court administration, including appearances at the University of Michigan Institute for Continuing Legal Education and the American Bar Association Conference on Traffic Safety. Just this month, Maher is the principal lecturer at the American Bar Association Committee on Traffic Court Administration Conference at Denver, Colorado.

The court earlier this month promised tougher treatment for traffic law violators.

Mahe announced that since the new program went into effect the fines and jail terms of persons convicted of driving with a suspended or revoked license or during no-driving probation have been doubled.

The first 20 drivers in cases of this nature that came into court, Maher said, received an average of 10 days in jail and $100 in fines. More flagrant cases received even tougher penalties.

Mahe pointed out that with 31 traffic deaths recorded in June of this year, making it the worst June for the city since 1936, the annual toll could easily reach 300 deaths unless some drastic action is taken or unless more citizens voluntarily obeyed traffic laws.

Mahe also, in the name of the court, appealed to the mayor for more police officers to be assigned to traffic duty. Hopefully this may be realized soon, he said.

Area Scouts Plan Trip To Jamboree

Several Scouts and Explorers from this community are expected to be among the 468 boy members of the Detroit Area Boy Scout Council contingent attending the 7th National Jamboree at Farragut State Park, Idaho, July 16.

Forty thousand Star to Eagle Scouts and Explorers from every state and over a hundred foreign nations will take part in the huge encampment on Lake Pend Orielle in picturesque Farragut State Park. During their 7-day stay at the Jamboree the Scouts will be occupied from early morning to late evening with dozens of new and different Scoutcraft activities, field sports events, conservation projects, outdoor religious services, evening arena shows, skill booths, speakers, entertainers and, of course, the age-old custom of "swapping" with fellow Scouts.

An important part of a boy's Jamboree experience is the opportunity for him to see more of the country in which he lives. For many it will be the first time they've seen mountains.

DeGaulle Replaces Pompidou

PARIS -- President Charles de Gaulle has named his finance minister, Maurice Couve de Murville, to replace Premier Georges Pompidou.

The move leaves France ajar since only six weeks ago de Gaulle praised Pompidou and said there was no thought of replacing him. Pompidou was considered to be the general's successor and there was speculation de Gaulle might retire early.

The sudden change is seen as de Gaulle's notice that he intends to serve out his seven-year term which expires in 1972. Although no reason was given for the changes, it is known that Pompidou was against de Gaulle's plans for worker participation in the management councils of industry.

PARIS -- Premier Georges Pompidou has resigned following a dispute with President de Gaulle over handling of the near-revolution that gripped France for six weeks.

De Gaulle accepted his premier's resignation at the Elysee Palace and then said he hoped Pompidou would one day be President of France. Pompidou has served six years and four months as premier.

The new premier, Couve de Murville, 61, is expected to reshuffle the cabinet, dropping several political figures and inviting technical specialists, Communist ideologist says the country's anti-Zionist campaign is being "artificially maintained" by some Communist elements. "An exceptionally high tariff is applied for petty transgressions of persons of Jewish faith," Zenon Kliszko reported to a meeting of the Communist Central Committee.

BONN -- West Germany is urging a fresh start on the question of admitting Britain to the European Common Market while France remains split with its neighbors on the issue.

The continuing stalemate was confirmed as foreign policy leaders of the six Common Market nations ended a two-day ministerial session of the West European Union.

Willy Brandt, W. German foreign minister, reports that France has not altered its position since last winter's meeting in Brussels. Brandt urges a new start in the fall.

SYDNEY, Australia -- Gunman Wallace "Wally" Mellish freed his bride and her baby whom he held hostage for eight days after police promised him a chance to volunteer to fight in Vietnam.

Beryl M. Mellish, the 19-year-old convicted prostitute forced into marriage in the first day of the siege, wept when she followed her grinning husband out of the cottage.

leftists and centrists to join the government.

LONDON -- The Soviet Union has installed missile bases in Outer Mongolia within striking range of Red Chinese nuclear centers and U.S. bases in Japan, Okinawa, and Korea.

The missile sites, some of them on wheels, have been quietly set up with the consent of the pro-Moscow Outer Mongolian regime. Previous defense reports said the Russians have moved troops and armored units into the vast Mongolian plains.

TORONTO -- A 30-year-old housewife complaining of severe abdominal pains was told after receiving a thorough examination that she was pregnant.

She refused to believe it and blamed the pains on the young doctor. When he approached her to administer a sedative, she pulled out a revolver from beneath the sheet and fired it six times.

Four slugs hit Dr. Anthony Tripodi, wounding him in the abdomen, right arm and in one ear. When other doctors and nurses entered the room, the woman was still holding the revolver and reaching into her purse for more ammunition. Four hours later she gave birth to a seven-pound girl.

TOKYO -- Prime Minister Eisaku Sato says his party's victory in recent parliamentary elections shows the nation supports his pro-American policy.

Sato said he felt the voters who gave his Liberal Democrats a majority in the election for Parliament's upper house wanted closer relations with the U.S., which was part of his platform.

JAKARTA, Indonesia -- Indonesian security troops have captured 23 Communists and a large arms cache during a month of raids on Communist hideouts in Jakarta.

The armed forces news agency also reports the army has foiled a Communist plan to assassinate political leaders.

BERN, Switzerland -- Swiss police report they have arrested an E. German spy who had been assigned to recruit a nuclear physicist living in the West. Dr. Helmut Bruno Anders, 40, a professor at Karl Marx University in Leipzig, was arrested at Zurich Airport as he was preparing to leave the country.

WARSAW -- Poland's top

Police Chief Norman Allan, whose supply of food, arms and ammunition to Mellish under force had roused public criticism during the siege, clasped the gunman in a fatherly embrace while police gripping shotguns and pistols closed in.

Police promised Mellish an Army recruitment medical examination which prompted him to end the siege. "I would like to go to Vietnam. I'll go to Vietnam even if I have to pay my own fare," Mellish told police.

LONDON -- James Earl Ray's appeal against extradition to the U.S. will open in the British High Court July 29, according to Ray's British lawyer.

The British Magistrate's Court ruled in favor of extradition on July 2. Ray's lawyers are appealing that ruling on the basis that Dr. Martin Luther King's assassination was a political crime, an offense that is not extraditable under British law.

SAIGON -- President Johnson has agreed to meet with S. Vietnam's President, Nguyen Van Thieu, for two days beginning July 20 according to a release from Thieu's office in Saigon.

The leaders will discuss the Vietnam war and the Paris talks between the U.S. and N. Vietnam. The two leaders met seven months ago at funeral services of Australian Prime Minister Harold Holt.

SAIGON -- President Nguyen Van Thieu says he believes American troops can begin leaving S. Vietnam in 1969. The next Viet Cong offensive, expected late this month, "may be the last all-out effort from the Communists," said Thieu aboard the U.S.S. Constellation off N. Vietnam.

Thieu made the prediction after handing out awards to 41 officers and men aboard the Constellation for their part in bombing N. Vietnam.

LONDON -- The House of Commons has passed a civil rights bill prohibiting discrimination in housing and hiring against Britain's non-white population.

The bill makes discrimination in employment, housing and other areas against the nation's one million Negroes and immigrants from the Caribbean, Africa and Asia punishable by law.

MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM — Shakespeare need not be dull as this Stratford, Ont. production of the bard's comedy proves. The lovers are ready to go at it with swords to woo the buxom Helena (Jane Casson). Christopher Walken as Lysander (far left) parries the sword of Demetrius (Neil Dainard) while Tedde Moore as Hermia vents her verbal fury on the forward Helena. Director John Hirsch has the usually placid lovers kicking, brawling and tearing at each other in this interpretation.

APA Announces Seventh Fall Festival Productions

Three productions have been announced for the Seventh Fall Festival of the Association of Producing Artists' Repertory Company in Ann Arbor.

The Festival, under the sponsorship of the University of Michigan Professional Theatre Program, will be staged from Sept. 17 through Oct. 27.

ROBERT C. SCHNITZER, executive director of the program, said that the opening play of the APA season will be Moliere's satiric romp "The Misanthrope" in a new version by the celebrated American poet Richard Wilbur. The production will be staged by Stephen Porter.

Appearing in the title role will be Richard Easton, who appeared in "Exit the King" during the 1967 season.

Porter has directed the APA productions of "Right You Are" and "The Show-Off".

APA artistic director Ellis Rabb has come up with a contemporary approach to Shakespeare's "Hamlet" for the second production.

The title role will be played by Marco St. John, who achieved a critical triumph in Peter Ustinov's "The Unknown Soldier and His Wife" at New York's Lincoln Center last year.

Composer Conrad Susa will create an original score for the APA's new production of the Shakespearean masterpiece.

SEAN O'CASEY'S richly comic poetic fantasy "Cock-a-Doodle Dandy" will climax the Fall Festival, with Donald Moffat in a key role. The play will be the first by O'Casey in the APA repertoire.

"Cock-a-Doodle Dandy" will be staged by Jack O'Brien with special music by Bob James—the same pair who created the words and music for the APA production of "Pantagloze." O'Brien was also co-director of Sartre's "The Flies" for the 1966 Ann Arbor APA season. The APA Fall Festival will run for six weeks in the Lydia Mendelssohn Theatre on the University of Michigan campus. Each play will be presented for two weeks.

Most of the productions in the past six seasons by APA for the U-M Professional Theatre Program have proceeded successfully to the Lyceum Theatre on Broadway under the banner of New York's Phoenix Theatre.

APA subscriptions are on sale at the ticket office in the Theatre weekdays from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 to 5 p.m. Substantial discounts for choice of reserved seats are available to APA subscribers.

SCHOOLCRAFT'S open air concerts began Wednesday night with a piano recital. Among the participants was Mrs. Roma Riddell, soloist, who is the wife of Livonia doctor W. A. Riddell. Two pianists, Donald Morelock and Allen Shaffer, also played at the court concert, the first of four.

Ann Arbor Opens Art Fair July 17

Ann Arbor's ninth annual Street Art Fair will be held from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. July 17 through July 19 and 9 a.m. through 6 p.m. July 20.

With 350 artists and craftsmen participating through jury acceptance or by invitation, this annual event offers something for everybody with daily demonstrations in all art and craft media by recognized professionals.

For those who enjoy the light and gay in the performing arts there will be farce skits by the Civic Theatre and selections by the recorder group, modern dance and the barbershop quartet. These are spaced at intervals all days and evenings of the fair.

The artists will be there to talk, and to learn more about art, there will also be portraiture on the spot.

Adding to the art scene will be the University of Michigan's 16th annual Art Conference and Regional Art Exhibition on July 18 in the U-M Rackham Galleries.

'Affair' Satisfies Critic

Faye "Bonnie" Dunnaway who ended up in a cloudburst of lead slugs has joined the "good guys". Wonder what Clyde would say?

Her new partner is Steve McQueen and the latest caper is called "The Thomas Crown Affair" which is currently un-reeling in a number of neighborhood locations (Quo Vadis, Mercury, and Radio City).

PRODUCER—Director Norman Jewison knows how to keep a movie clipping along at break-neck speed. He cuts, edits, shortens the dialogue, and fills the screen with lots of action. His last effort "In The Heat of The Night" touched on civil rights and won an avalanche of awards.

"The Thomas Crown Affair" will win Academy Awards at next year's ceremonies. The film effects and the acting of McQueen and Dunnaway are electric and brighten the technicolored screen in psychedelic fashion.

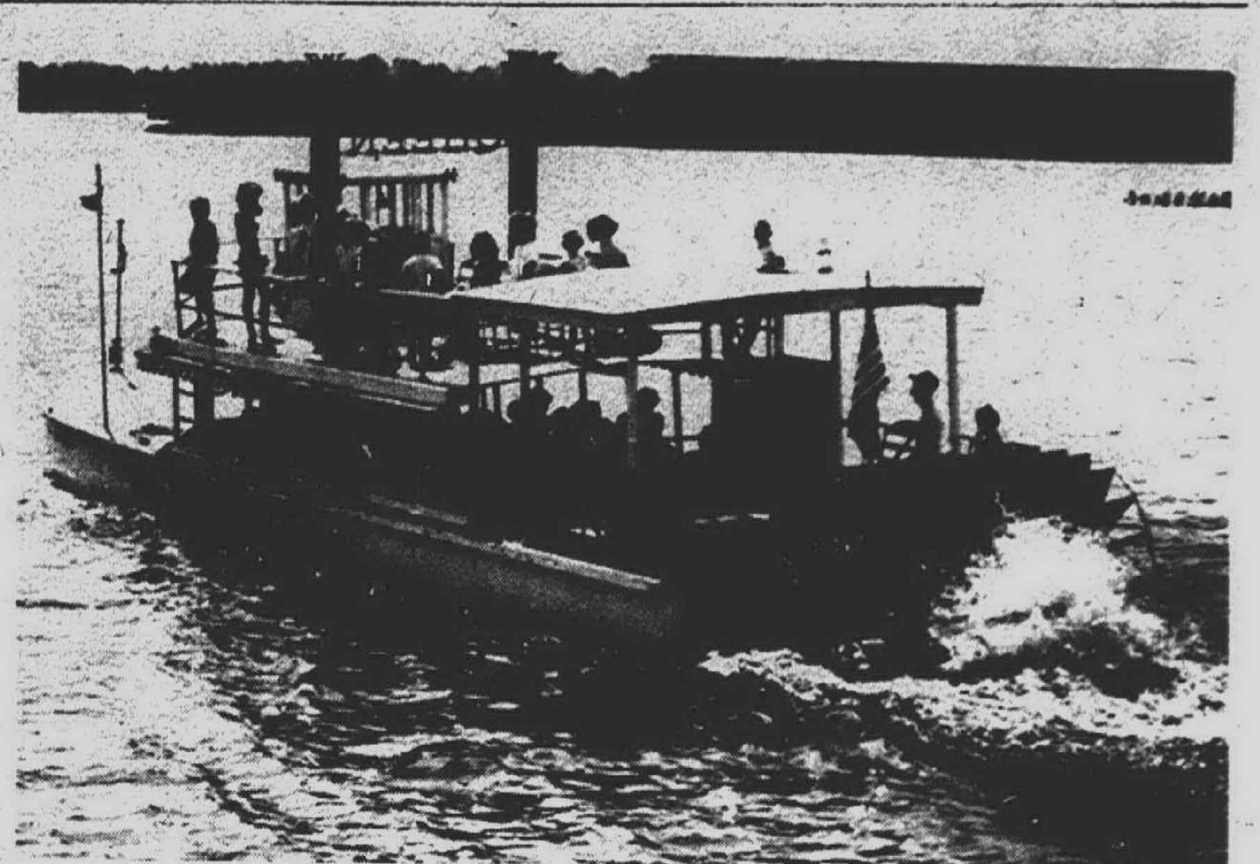

Speaking of fashion, the women will "ooh" and "aah" at that gal Dunnaway and her many lovely outfits. Old Wally is not in the habit of noticing such things, but who could miss when la belle Dunnaway slinks so beautifully on the screen.

FAYE plays a super-insurance sleuth who puts her cards and body on the table indiscriminately to playboy-millionaire anti-hero McQueen. The fun of this exciting movie is who will win the test of nerves between Dunnaway and McQueen. You might dispute the ending, but old Wally chortled in hearty agreement with the way Director Jewison ended this delightful cinematic affair. "The Thomas Crown Affair" has zip and split screen effects to push this movie into the unique column and demand your immediate attention.

Notice Fool's Tax

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. — Kentucky's five per cent sales tax, sought by Gov. Louie B. Nunn, became effective on April Fool's Day.

Original One-Act Premieres

An original one-act will premiere tonight (Sunday, July 14) by the Clarenceville Summer Theatre Players in the Louis E. Schmidt Auditorium, 20155 Middlebelt, Livonia.

The one-act "Waverly" concerns the plight of a philosophical ghost who "lives" with a typical suburban family. The author is student Lenora Finn. Also featured on the bill is the "Pyramus and Thisbe" scene from Shakespeare's fantasy "A Midsummer Night's Dream"; the Gothic-atmosphered "Trinkets" and the satirical "A La Mode."

The production is the final in a series of Sunday evening playlets. Tickets are 50 cents.

Final project of the group is a production of George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion." In cooperation with Project Head-Start, the players will stage a special performance of "Pyramus and Thisbe" for the preschoolers of the area at 10 a.m. Tuesday, July 16.

Any other children wishing to attend may do so at a reduced admission of 10 cents. Tickets are available at the door.

The 'Island Queen' Makes The Scene

Year in and year out one of the key attractions at Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford is the "Island Queen."

A replica of an old Mississippi Riverboat—the Island Queen is an excursion boat that delights persons of all ages with 45-minute tours on Kent Lake which are especially refreshing on warm, sunny days.

The stern-wheeler leaves the dock near Martindale Beach in the park every hour from noon through 6 p.m. daily. Persons get a wonderful view of the park and the many islands dotting Kent Lake as well as more than 22 miles of shoreline.

Concert Dates Corrected

The second Schoolcraft court concert, featuring Mischa Mischakoff, Detroit Symphony concertmaster, will be held next Wednesday, July 17.

It was erroneously reported last week the concert would be held July 10.

Other concerts are planned for July 19 and July 24.

Charges for the scenic trip are minimal.

More than 275,000 persons have enjoyed the water cruises since the Island Queen was introduced in 1965 at Kensington. The trim two-decked ship has space for 60 passengers, with colorful awnings offering shade to those seated on the main level, while those on the upper deck may enjoy the sunshine as the ship cruises in the blue waters of the 1,200-acre Kent Lake.

Before the start of the season, the U.S. Coast Guard inspects the sea-worthiness of the Island Queen and the pilot must pass a rigid examination, plus have one year's experience on a licensed, Coast Guard approved vessel. Each year the Island Queen is renovated and repainted. This spring a new engine was installed.

This year's pilots are Louis Underhill, III, of New Hudson, and James Presley of Milford, who are both employed at the 4,300-acre park.

The craft is also available for private charter before and after the regularly scheduled runs. For additional information persons may phone the park office.

Barbara Bianci's classmates will graduate, get nice jobs, move out to the suburbs and maybe someday join the country club. Barbara would rather do something important.

Barbara will take a degree in special education. And work with the mentally retarded. Unlocking brains.

It'll be no bed of roses. No question about that. Her work will mean long hours, ordinary pay, enough frustration for three people—and an occasional heartbreak.

She'll be teaching kids how to play. How to swim. How to take a bus. She'll be teaching adults the skills they'll need to hold jobs.

What's in it for her?

The satisfaction of doing something important—helping the retarded become productive citizens, rather than drains on the community. And these days, that sort of satisfaction is hard to find.

Redford, Livonia Clash In Showdown

Weather permitting, there'll be a big collision at Livonia's Henry Field Monday night around nine o'clock.

Redford and Livonia, the two top teams in the Greater Livonia Class A league, are due for their fifth head-on duel of the season.

Both are unbeaten in the third round of the season's play. Livonia stands 5-0 and Redford 4-0.

Overall on the season's play,

Redford has won 22, lost two and tied one. Livonia has an 18-5-1 record.

Livonia won the first meeting of the season between the two teams while Redford has won the last three.

REDFORD WON the first round title and needs only to beat Westland in a game that'll probably be made up this week to take the second round as well.

In the long-delayed second round, held up by weather, Livonia leads with a 7-2-1 mark to Redford's 7-1-1.

Thus, it would appear Livonia must beat Redford Monday night if the team hopes to make the post-season playoffs to determine who'll advance into the district competition—the first step on the long trail that can lead ultimately to the national tournament at Battle Creek.

Redford made it to Battle Creek last year, reaching the national finals before finally succumbing.

BOTH LIVONIA and Redford scored shutout victories

Wednesday night. Livonia trimmed Plymouth, 5-0, in a third-round game, while Redford whitewashed Dearborn Heights in a second-round makeup, 3-0.

Bill Ziegler hurled a three-hitter for Livonia and fanned nine. His mates, in turn, socked out 11 safeties, with Roger Frayer and Jim Rose each slapping out four apiece.

Rose knocked in the first two runs in the third inning, chasing in Gary Krupinski and Paul Portney, who had walked, with a double.

In the fifth, an error put Ross aboard. Then Gary Bowen walked and Frayer and Dan Besk followed with RBI singles.

The final Livonia run was scored in the ninth when Rose doubled and Bill Pelham chased him with a single.

PITCHER RICK Krumm was most of the show in Redford's victory.

All he did was to allow two hits—a double in the second and a single in the eighth; strike out 14 and pick up seven assists on fielding play.

In short he personally accounted for 21 of the 27 outs in the game.

The first Redford run was scored in the second on a single by Tim Fisher and a double by Bob Green.

In the third Gary Schaefer doubled and Fisher singled him over. In the eighth, Terry Rothwell and Russ Nelson singled and advanced on a passed ball. Rothwell scored on an infield out.

Fisher had three hits and Schaefer and Nelson two each for the winners.

Sport Briefs

Bobby Unser, the Indianapolis 500-mile winner, has announced he'll drive Sunday in the Six Hour endurance race at the Watkins Glen (N.Y.) track.

Pete Rose, the Cincinnati Reds outfielder who has been hitting .329, will be lost to the team for at least three weeks because of a fractured thumb. He has been placed on the injured reserved list.

Trainer Bud Shockro of the Detroit Pistons keeps busy at his trade the year around. During the summer he works for the Boston Red Sox farm team at Pittsfield.

Booming Bats Keep Tigers In Top Spot

MINNEAPOLIS -- There's something about the Detroit Tigers bats this season.

They swing a lusty tune... this despite the fact there's not a .300 hitter among the Tiger regulars.

Nonetheless the Tigers have emerged as the No. 1 home hitting team in the American League.

They reached the All-Star break with 98 to their credit and then promptly picked up two more Thursday night when they dropped a 5-4 decision to the rallying Minnesota Twins.

The "beauty" of it for the Tigers is that just about everybody has been hitting 'em out of the ball park.

EVEN SUCH light hitters as Dick Trecewski and Ray Oyler have hit for the distance. In fact, as manager Mayo Smith sees it, it was Trecewski's three-run homer off Sam McDowell in Cleveland that was the turning point in the season for the Tigers.

The Tigers had lost three straight to the Tribe and they stood in jeopardy of seeing their lead cut to 3 1/2 games when Trecewski socked one out.

Not only did the Tigers go on to win the game, but in short order they built a 9 1/2-game lead to start just about everybody talking about a world series in Detroit come October.

Willie Horton has led the Tiger home department with 22, while Jim Northrup's production includes four grand-slams, including three in six days, a major-league record.

FOR A PERIOD Thursday, it appeared the long ball would get the Tigers off and rolling in the second half of the pennant chase.

Mickey Stanley slammed his seventh with two on and Dick McAuliffe his 10th to give Detroit a 4-2 lead.

But for one of the few times this season, the Tiger bullpen failed.

The Twins cashed two runs off Pat Dobson, replacing Mickey Lolich, to tie the game in the seventh when Rod Carew singled.

Then in the ninth with John Hiller pitching, Carew again singled to send home the winning marker.

By George Maskin observing sports

One thing disturbs us in the wake of the Detroit Tigers' domination of the American League. Detroit fans haven't taken to Mayo Smith with the enthusiasm, with the support, with the excitement the man rightfully deserves.

It's not that Smith has cried, or even said, the slightest word.

Or is he the type who demands the spotlight or figures that he rates the headlines.

Smith knows what his job is. He knows that the fans come to see the players... and it's the players about whom the fans choose to read and to hear.

So you don't see Smith popping off verbally or going through physical moods which might tend to arouse the fans and, perhaps, endear him more to those in the stands or who watch on television or listen via the radio.

WE PUT THE question to Hal Middlesworth, the Tiger publicist, the other afternoon in the press box at Tiger Stadium:

"Hal, why haven't the fans really gone wild over Smith the way they have over managers like Paul Richards or Casey Stengel or Leo Durocher and a flock of others?"

Middlesworth, who has seen most of the games the Tigers have played since Smith took command, declared:

"Maybe it's because Mayo doesn't come bouncing out of the dugout to shriek at umpires or make wild gestures from the bench.

"Or, maybe it's because he just gets himself all wound up in controversial statements and remarks just so he'll be quoted a lot."

But, Middlesworth knows, as do all close to baseball, that Smith has done one tremendous job since he was named by Jim Campbell to manage the Tigers.

WHO RIGHTFULLY can blame Smith because the Tigers missed the pennant by a single game last season?

Sure, there were those who insisted he mishandled his bullpen... that he used one guy until the guy's arm fell off.

But Smith realized that he had to go with his "hot hands"... that he didn't have too much out in the bullpen and when he found a man who could retire the opposite, he just stuck with him as much as possible.

Certainly it wasn't Smith's fault that he was able to get little service out of Willie Horton in 1967.

Considering what Horton has done this year—and what his bat has meant to the current Tigers, it takes no brain wizard to realize that if he could have played just in 20 more games last year, he might have swung the team to a couple more victories—at least.

Yes, and was it Smith's fault that Denny McLain hurt his toe in a freak accident early in September and was of no value to the Tigers during most of the stretch drive?

SMITH LED the Tigers over and through most of these obstacles last year.

And you can't say that he's enjoyed exactly clear sailing this season.

He had to go for almost two months without Al Kaline.

There was a period when Earl Wilson couldn't pitch... and all-star third baseman Don Wert was sidelined after being hit in the head by a pitch.

Early in the year Norm Cash couldn't hit his weight... and he scales around 200 pounds.

Willie Horton limped a little and Dick McAuliffe was sidelined. Then a back injury forced out Eddie Mathews.

One Boston sports writer told us the other week:

"This Smith really knows how to punch the buttons and come up smiling."

Remember how he moved Mickey Stanley to center and Jim Northrup to right to complete an outfield with Horton that rates second to none?

How he's switched Bill Freehan to first in a jam? How he's gotten a million dollars of mileage out of Dick Trecewski at short and third?

How he's worked rookie Tommy Matchick into a starter?

MORE IMPORTANT, who can overlook the job Smith has done in rounding up the best relieving crew in baseball?

It was Smith who said in spring training he had the bullpen. He said so while the experts insisted the Tigers were destined for problems with their relief men and the club should trade a Cash or even a Kaline for a star for bullpen duty.

From the first day of the season, Smith has unfurled not one, but four or five specialists who have come in regularly to put the fire out.

There's Pat Dobson and Fred Lasher... John Hiller and Daryl Patterson... John Wyatt and Dennis Ribant.

Did you know that of the first 55 games won by the Tigers, the relievers won 19 and ran about something like 20 "saves."

Ace Pitchers Make Livonia FP Contender

Chris Wendrick and Paul Tonnemacher were two giants during the recent high school baseball season.

Wendrick hurried for Franklin and Tonnemacher for Stevenson.

Now they're together on the Cardinal Decorating team which is Livonia's representative in the Greater Livonia - Free Press League.

Monday night they combined to pitch a one-hit shutout as Cardinal got off on the right foot in the second round of FP play by blanking Northville, 2-0.

Wendrick didn't allow a hit until he departed in the top of the fifth after walking the first two men in the inning.

Then Tonnemacher, who was picked on the Observer Newspapers All Area team, came in and retired the next three men in a row, two on strikes to squash the rally.

TONNEMACHER lost the no-hitter with two out in the ninth when Jim Taylor singled to right. Dave Boerger then walked before Tonnemacher got the final batter on strikes to end the game.

Between them Wendrick and Tonnemacher fanned 10.

Both the Livonia Cardinals runs came in the fourth inning. Greg Macy was safe on an error as was Jim Powers. Both moved up on a sacrifice by Bill McAlpine and scored on Ed Ryan's line single to center.

Redford, the first-round champs in FP play, also got off on the right foot in the second round by beating Dearborn Heights, 7-1, as lefty Dan Camp from Plymouth allowed only one hit, fanned six and walked four.

REDFORD SCORED twice in the second inning when Camp walked, Bill Holmes tripled to deep right and Kevin Fox slapped a single to left.

In the fifth, Bob Holmes singled, stole second and raced around on a pair of errors, Bill Howe followed with another single, advanced on an infield out and tallied on Reg Barringer's single.

A walk to Rod Ferguson, a hit by Bob Holmes and two errors made it 5-1 in the sixth. In the seventh, Joe Himmelsbach singled, Bill Holmes doubled and Marty Ingessoulian singled for the final two Red-

Steve Stabbaugh of Union Lake and Paul Stitt of Waterford fired a 79 and 86, respectively, to win in the 13-under category.

Other Farmington entries did well in the one-day 18-hole regional.

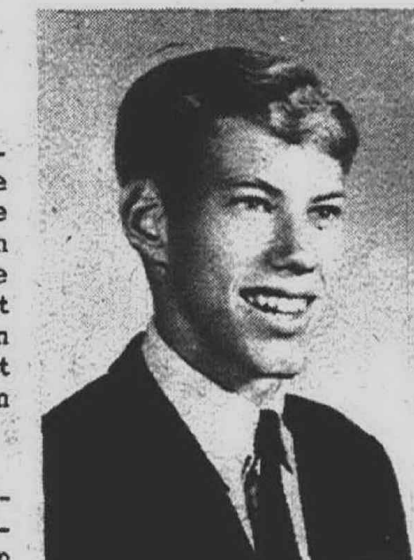

In the older group, Tom Strand shot a 39-43--83. Mike Means scored a 94 and Scott Dolan a 98 in the 14-15 bracket while Tom McCoy was third in the 13-under with a 95.

Pistons Play

At Clarkston

The Detroit Pistons announced they'll play the Baltimore Bullets in a pre-season game at Clarkston High School on Sept. 26. It's the closest the Pistons will appear to Detroit prior to their regular-season opener slated for Oct. 18 against the world champion Boston Celtics.

The Detroit Pistons in setting up their "home" exhibition schedule for next fall, plan to make a Michigan tour with stops at Grand Rapids, Clarkston, Flint, Saginaw, Kalamazoo and possibly Ypsilanti. On their swing through the state, the Pistons are slated to play four of their Eastern Division rivals—the world champion Boston Celtics, the Philadelphia 76ers, New York Knicks and Cincinnati Royals.

JOHN MANN, of North Farmington High, who was one of the state's leading high jumpers during the spring, has signed an athletic tender to the University of Michigan. He will enroll there next fall. John cleared 6'8 1/2" during the high school competition during April and May.

No Vets In Sight As Lions Go Into Drills

The Detroit Lions opened their 1968 drills Thursday with no veterans in sight.

It had been planned to bring in four vets obtained in off-season trades, along with last year's rookies, to work with the 24 new faces on the '68 squad.

But only the current rookies and free agents were present. The others couldn't report because of an edict by National Football League owners barring the veterans until such time as peace was arranged in their negotiations.

The NFL insisted it would field the rookies and free agents in exhibitions and regular-season games...but few took that remark very seriously.

The Lions, for example, barely would be able to field two teams and would be short of men at certain positions.

COACH JOE SCHMIDT was hopeful that Monday, when all the veterans under the Lions' original training program are due, the rift between owners and the players association will be over and the Lions "could proceed on normal course."

What held up serenity on the NFL scene was a dispute over the pension plan, the only point among 22 the players tossed at the owners that hasn't been ironed out.

The players were rejecting a 25 per cent boost in pension money for next year and another 25 per cent for 1969 as the owners insisted that until the two pro leagues merge in 1970 there's nothing else that can be done about the pension situation.

THE OWNERS have been kicking in $900,000 into the pension fund. They agreed to make it $1,125,000 next season and $1,350,000 the following.

The players have sought a yearly contribution of $5,000,000 into the pension grabbag. The owners have said that "we have gone as far as we can."

One person, close to the football scene, visions the NFL owners finally "giving in" and the fans being tagged with increases in ticket prices to make up the difference.

"The owners, tough as they sound, won't lose anything; just wait and see," the source declared.

Senior Circuit Agrees On Division Split

The National League, like the American, will be split into two divisions next season when each adds two more cities.

The senior circuit has agreed to divide into a six-team loop made up as follows: New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Chicago, St. Louis, Montreal in one. The other will have San Francisco, Los Angeles, Houston, Cincinnati, Atlanta and San Diego.

The American will be broken up with Detroit, Boston, Baltimore, Cleveland, Washington and New York in one section, Chicago, Minnesota, California, Oakland, Seattle and Kansas City in the other.

Owner Arthur Allyn of the Chicago White Sox doesn't like the American League breakdown and is protesting to the commissioner's office. He thinks the American League divisions are unbalanced.

Each team will play 162 games with a best-of-five playoff to decide the league champ. The American League earlier had wanted only 154 games. It's likely the players' association will scream over the 162-game schedule.

HANK BAUER of the Baltimore Orioles became the third major league major of the season to get bounced. He followed Gene Mauch of the Phillies and Grady Hatton of Houston to the sidelines.

The Orioles made their move with the Birds 10 1/2 games out of the lead at the All-Star break. Bauer had managed the Birds since 1964 and led them to one pennant.

Earl Weaver, a coach under Bauer, was named to finish out the season at the helm of the Orioles. He's managed in the minors.

Basketball's most dominating player, Wilt Chamberlain, moved from the Philadelphia 76ers to the Los Angeles Lakers for Darrall Imhoff, Archie Clark and Jerry Chambers. The trade surprised nobody.

The 76ers made no bones of why they let loose the man who has scored more than 25,000 points. They couldn't meet his pay demands, reported at around $200,000.

The Stilt signed a five-year contract with the Lakers and reportedly it'll be worth around a million and a half dollars to him...before Uncle Sam takes his cut.

Imhoff, as expected, promptly said he might not go to the 76ers. But few would bet that he won't show up in Philly come September 15.

The Detroit Pistons learned that center Joe Strawder plans to retire before another season rolls around. Strawder said that he had been through nine operations because of basketball and didn't want to experience any more.

He underwent back surgery at the close of the recent season and it's been a question mark as to whether he would be able to play again, although the doctors said he would be okay.

Strawder still had a year to go on a two-season contract. The Pistons have said they'll take a wait-and-see attitude until such time as Strawder doesn't report for practice in mid-September or writes a letter officially announcing he's through with the game.

The Los Angeles Dodgers have become the first, major league team this season to hit the million mark in attendance. The Detroit Tigers will be the second. The Tigers should hit the golden figure next Sunday when they host Baltimore in a doubleheader.

There'll be a 100-lap superstock auto race at the Mt. Clemens race track next Thursday. Ery Baumgarten won the first 100-lapper of the year at the oval.

IT ALSO was pointed out that the NFL has a $20 million television package at stake and if there are no games...or at least none with veterans...the CBS network probably won't fork across any money.

While the NFL haggled, the rival American League players agreed to a new pact with their bosses. It included a pension hike.

The Lions are scheduled to play an intro-squad game at U. of D. on July 26 and their first exhibition game on Aug. 5 at Buffalo.

The Green Bay Packers, who have a date with the College All Stars on Aug. 2, have indicated they might field just rookies.

But the betting was that before this weekend was over, the gridirers and owners will have settled.

Guard Eddie Miles again is working as an internal auditor for one of Michigan's largest food companies this summer. The food company, in turn, finds the Miles family a big customer. Eddie and his wife are expecting their fifth youngster in the late fall.

TOP PACER in Michigan this year is Philip Brian, the speedy star of the Mijal Stable of Westland, who has won more Open Events at Wolverine Raceway and Northville Downs than any other. Philip is shown with Driver Jim Merriman, Jr., of Wayne, and Owner-Trainer Gerry Mijal, of Westland.

Legion '9' Blanked By Southfield Area Golfers Finish High In Women's Meet 214 Boats Sail Off To Mackinac

Inability to hit continues to be the big problem of Farmington's American Legion baseball team.

The front-running Southfield team in the 18th District League pinned a 6-0 shutout on to Farmington as the losers were held to only four hits.

Southfield scored three times in the second and three more in the fourth. Farmington settled for hits by Dennis Perry, John Thompson, Bob Hanke and Ross Patton.

Because of the rain-outs of late, Farmington's schedule has been juggled. A doubleheader was booked with Waterford at Bell Creek Saturday.

On Sunday Farmington goes to Clarkston for two games, starting at 2 p.m., then returns home for a single encounter with Walled Lake at Bell Creek Monday at 6 p.m.

Sports Shorts

Paul Richards, vice president in charge of baseball operations for the Atlanta Braves organization, has nothing to worry about until 1971. He's signed a new contract to carry him for the next four years.

Death claimed Lynton (Dusty) Boggess, for 16 years a National League umpire before he retired in 1962. Boggess was 64.

The All-Star game proved very costly to slugger Harmon Killebrew and his Minnesota Twins. He suffered a ruptured leg muscle and will be out of action from six to eight weeks.

Mrs. George Todd of Plymouth and Mrs. James Courtney of Livonia placed among the leaders in the Women's Metropolitan golf tournament at Arrowhead.

Mrs. Todd shot a 49-51--100 while Mrs. Courtney was a stroke back with nines of 53-38. Mrs. Max Evans of Southfield won the meet with a 90.

Mrs. Will Brown of Livonia shot 57-54-111 to place third in the third flight.

Jawors Tie For 5th Spot

The brother act of Stan and Cass Jawor from the Glen Oaks golf club in Farmington finished in a tie for fifth in the state pro and assistants best-ball tournament at Birmingham.

The Jawors shot 69-67--136 while top honors went to Gene Bone and Don Powell of Bay Pointe with a 129. Glen Stuart and John Celestino of Cascade Hills had 130 while the Franklin pair of Ted Krohl and Tom Micek came in at 134 and Wally Burkemo and Tom Deaton of Detroit Golf Club had 135.

Michigan's premier sailing event—the Port Huron to Mackinac race—started Saturday with a fleet of 214 scheduled to make the run up Lake Huron.

Boats from mid-west ports were contesting in the 235-mile sail.

If the winds are right, the boats could reach Mackinac by Sunday night. But it's usually early Monday before the first boat sails over the finish line.

Triple Tie For Lead

Three teams were tied for first place with 7-2 records in the Greater Livonia women's fast-pitch softball league.

They were Livonia Royals, Allen Park Presbyterian and Mac-Mac Club. Daly Drive in stood at 6-3, followed by Farmington Center Juniors at 4-5.

Michigan Bell stood 1-7 with 7-Up and DeHoCo bringing up the rear with 1-7 marks.

Morrall, West Continue In Deadlock For Lead

Redford's Earl Morrall and Garden City West remain unbeaten in their division of Connie Mack baseball play in the Greater Livonia League.

Both rolled along Thursday by spanking Livonia teams. Morrall whipped the Elks, 9-3, while West blanked the Optimists, 4-0.

Kirk Taylor's one-hit relief pitching highlighted the Morrall victory. He took over in the third with his team trailing, 3-1, after Mike Lindstrom knocked in the first Elks' run and Tom Moersch the next two.

But in the bottom of the third, Morrall scored four times and never trailed the rest of the way. Rick Kenyon walked and Dale Bjerke, Fred Dunham, Kevin Fox and Bill Howe followed with singles.

Report Top Conditions For Bass

Bass fishing was reported good on White, Pontiac and Lakeville Lakes this week, but no trout activity was reported.

The Michigan Department of Conservation weekly report showed most lakes and streams still swollen from unusually heavy rains. Floating debris produced navigational hazards in some areas.

Here's how fishing in the area shaped up:

Panfish: Fishing the shallows early and late in the day using small red or tiger worms gives best results. Move to deeper waters in the middle of the day. Blue Gills are being caught on Stringy Lakes, Lakeville, Lower Trout, Graham, Louise and Stony Creek Lakes.

Perch fishing has slowed on Lake St. Clair, although fishermen were reporting catches in Anchor Bay and the Detroit River.

Bass: Good fishing for small-mouth Bass at the mouth of the Clinton River, offshore at Huron Point near Grass Island, Lake St. Clair.

Pike: These were being caught from Stony Creek Lake, Holly Mill Pond, Walled Lake and Proud Lakes.

Others: A few walleyes were taken from the St. Clair River, mouth of the Salt River and offshore at Gaulette Point. Spinning gear with a collar harness trolled slowly produced best results.

Muskie fishing seems to have scattered throughout Lake St. Clair.

Bjerke and Bill Fahey each had two hits for the winners.

BOB CHIDESTER, the ace of Garden City West High's mound staff, allowed four hits in beating the Optimists. Losing pitcher Ken Grates deserved a better fate. Only one run off him was earned.

West counted three tainted runs in the seventh after the teams had fought on close terms. Bob Cascaden, Tim Malone, Greg Colton and Grates collected the hits for the Optimists.

Philippi Service, of Livonia, used three pitchers effectively to nose out Big Boy of South Redford, 5-4. Greg Minor started for the winners, gave way to Jim Davies who in turn yielded to Dave Paden who got the game's final out with the tying and winning runs on base.

Philippi capitalized on errors to beat Dan Carroll, the Big Boy ace who's headed for Ohio State.

The Livonians scored four times in the second on the benefit of only one hit—a single by Brad Lyons. Two errors and a walk helped in the rally.

THE WINNING run came over in the fifth when Paden walked, Dan McGreevy was safe on an error and Paden scored on Lyons' sacrifice fly.

Marty Ingelsoulian singled over Big Boy's first two runs. Roy and Keenan knocked in the other two.

The Redford Panthers also won three hurriers in downing Livonia's Hubert Realty, 6-4.

Jeff Caminsky tolled four innings, Bill Booker two and Randy Ferguson one. The Panthers broke out with four runs in the first inning when Bill Muncy drove in two and Dave Keoning one. The other came in on an error.

Tim Fox singled over the Panthers' other two runs in the second.

Jerry Fortman started and Clark Colton finished for Hubert. Steve Kuhlman homered in the second and Craig Kling singled over a marker in the fourth. Errors admitted the other two Hubert runs.

LIVONIA'S Allen Fence gained an 8-5 win over McKay's Partyville of Garden City with the victory going to Ken Goukowski. Doubles by Battle and Perino knocked in early runs for the winners while a single by Berg drove in the final two in the seventh inning to cement the victory.

Larry Shanks and loser Jim Whitson each had two hits for McKay.

IN THE NIGHT'S best duel, Northville went nine innings to blank the Livonia Spartans, 3-0.

Fred Holdsworth, whose father once was a pitcher, was the winning pitcher while Phil Camp was the loser after hurling scoreless ball until the ninth.

But after giving up only two hits and fanning nine in eight innings, Camp was tagged for a double and two singles, plus a walk, hit batsman and sacrifice fly as Northville tallied its three runs.

Holdsworth allowed two hits—singles by Jerry Dettler and Chuck Sobczak.

Scoreless Tie Snaps Loss String

Eight games without a victory...but at least No. 8 wasn't a defeat for the Detroit Cougars.

After dropping seven in a row, the Cougars settled for a scoreless tie with Kansas City before a scanty gathering at Tiger Stadium Wednesday night.

Saturday night was to see the Cougars playing Houston in the Astrodome before the Detroiters return home Tuesday to play against Oakland.

The chances for the Cougars quitting the basement in their division now appear slim.

O'Neil's Charges Repetitious Says Education Board Chief

Dr. Edwin L. Novak, president of the State Board of Education, has answered charges made against the board and the Superintendent of Public Instruction by Board Member James O'Neil of Livonia.

The detailed reply was made at Tuesday night's regular board meeting as requested by O'Neil, only O'Neil was not present at the meeting to hear the answers he demanded.

O'Neil had charged poor administration by Dr. Ira Polley, superintendent of public instruction, and asked that an answer be provided at Tuesday's meeting.

While answering the charges, Novak said, "It is absolutely clear to me that every one of Mr. O'Neil's criticisms has been considered before, sometimes repeatedly, and there is little to be gained in further repetition of discussion of them. More could be said in answer to the multitude of points which Mr. O'Neil raises, but nothing could be gained. As one board member said at the June 26 meeting, we cannot keep having these 'constant upheavals'."

NOVAK admitted the state has lost key administrative personnel during the past one and a half years but questioned O'Neil's claim that the losses had a diverse effect on the department's operation.

Resigning for differing reasons, Novak said, were the deputy superintendent, state librarian, and research bureau head. The librarian was replaced with an employee with an even greater variety of library experience, he said.

The new deputy superintendent has a great many years of experience in Michigan's educational systems and has added a useful balance to the job, Novak said.

A research bureau head is expected to be named shortly following a nationwide recruitment effort to find a successor.

O'NEIL'S MAIN criticism centered on the State Plan for Higher Education, which has been the primary subject of many board meetings and has been constantly evolving according to Novak.

"No past version of the plan is the main version," Novak explains. "Most certainly not the September edition which Mr. O'Neil concentrates on so heavily."

"The current version seems to be a distillation of many, many minds and if it can be considered the primary work of one man at all, that one man is not the superintendent but Dr. Harold Smith, who has to this point done an admirable job and deserves the highest commendation of our board," Smith is the coordinator and director of the plan.

Novak answered charges by O'Neil that he did not receive two-weeks notice for the 1968-69 school aid budget as proposed by Dr. Polley. Novak explained that the final proposal, for the most part, consisted of items which had been presented to board members at earlier meetings. Almost all proposed new programs, Novak added, had been approved by the board on Aug. 23, 1967.

"In respect to the alleged lack of inclusion of a request for state financing of summer programs in a state school aid proposal," Novak said, "the board adopted the superintendent's proposed request of $1 million for summer work-study programs and of $1.5 million for additional services in an extended school year.

"Both of these proposals were for summer programs. While these proposals might be viewed as inadequate, the fact remains that even these failed passage by the Legislature."

ALSO DENIED was a claim by O'Neil that the 1966-67 expenditures for vocational rehabilitation had increased 70 per cent over the previous year and "results" only four per cent.

Novak stressed that the facts, as presented by the staff, are that the expenditures increased 29 per cent, not 70 per cent. The results were four per cent, Novak admitted, but several months ago the board was advised there was no direct correlation between expenditure increases and rehabilitation improvement in 1966-67 because the staff personnel expansion could not become fully productive during the first year.

Also, Novak said, costs continually rise and there are many expensive cases to be dealt with that increase the per-case cost.

"However, one important point to be made here is that for the 1967-68 year, it is expected that the percentage of rehabilitation cases will increase about twice the percentage increase in expenditures," said Novak.

NOVAK ADMITTED that $300,000 of library funds were misdirected. Although the monies were recovered, he explained, the misdirection was caused by a subverting of the established accounting system. A full description of the case has been supplied by Dr. Polley to board members, Novak said.

Novak also answered O'Neil's criticism that agendas for the board's meetings were being mailed late. He noted some items do arrive less than 10 days prior to meetings, but the agendas represented a large bulk of staff work requiring many man hours of preparation.

The time limit is very narrow, said Novak, because the board meets every two weeks and many times agendas include items resulting from actions taken at meetings only four days before the agenda must be mailed.

O'NEIL, EXPLAINING his absence from Tuesday's session, says he may be absent from future meetings unless the board rescinds its action reprimanding him for "misusing" official stationery for personal press releases.

Although absent from the meeting, O'Neil sent a letter of apology to fellow board members "for any actions or statements I have made that have contributed to this most unhealthy and undesirable situation," referring to the recent friction among board members.

He added in the letter that John W. Helton has been appointed products manager for Burroughs Corporation business machine's group. A 20-year veteran of Burroughs, Helton lives in Birmingham. He leaves a position as manager of sales development for Burroughs at the firm's world headquarters in Detroit.

"It is a generally known fact that has been admitted by members of this board that an inordinate amount of partisan political pressure was exercised in the appointment of the superintendent of public instruction."

O'Neil says the friction is also caused by a conflict of interest among other board members. He noted two members are full time faculty members of state universities and a third was formerly a state university faculty member. He said the attorney general has promised an opinion on the issue within the next few weeks.

Introduces Six Bills

McDonald Seeks New Crime Laws

Congressman Jack McDonald, whose district includes Redford and Livonia, introduced a six bill anti-crime package in the House last week.

McDonald's bills cover modified search and seizure procedures, syndicate investments and the auto theft racket.

He said, while introducing the bills, that the crime rate has risen 88 percent between 1960 and 1967, while the nation's population growth was only 10 percent.

"The permissiveness in our society has resulted in a general air of defiance of the law on the part of many of our citizens, especially our young people. And the cop on the beat is all too often the target of abuse," the congressman said.

McDonald, praising the Supreme Court's upholding state "stop and frisk" laws, said one of his bills would extend this authority to Federal offenses.

A second bill would allow a Federal agent to enter the premises if he suspects gambling or narcotics.

Two other bills would prohibit certain investments involving syndicates and their infiltration of legitimate business.

One would prohibit investment of income received from criminal activities in any business engaged in interstate or foreign commerce. The other would bar investment in one business of intentionally unreported income from another.

Careful Cultivation Needed

Prize Winning Flowers, Plants Tough To Grow

By BETTY FRANKEL Special Writer

Growing prize petunias or blue-ribbon radishes is the dream of every gardener, but exhibition quality flowers, and fruits and vegetables don't just happen with a little bit of luck. It takes a little extra care and attention—and also a few special tricks to have the specimens at their peak of perfection on the day that they are wanted.

Area gardeners with potential prize winners should be cultivating and coddling so they will have their specimens ready to exhibit in the show to be held at Farmington Junior High School on July 27 under the auspices of the Farmington Garden Club. The show is open to the general public for viewing, and anyone in the area eligible to enter.

To raise prize winners start with good varieties and healthy plants. Cultivate them carefully, weeding and feeding and watering them to keep them thriving, and use pest controls to ward off fungus diseases and insects that might damage the flowers, foliage or fruits.

Flowers should be in full bloom when they are exhibited but not over-blown, and produce should be mature but not over-ripe.

To produce the best flowers, plants must not be allowed to bear too many flowers. Side buds should be removed so that all the energy goes into developing one perfect bloom or cluster. This is especially true for carnations and roses, but many other flowers will be improved by disbudding. The disbudding should be done early, as soon as the side buds can be rubbed or pinched off without damaging the end bud.

SOME FLOWERS need to be staked to keep the stalks straight. These include delphinium, lupine, geums, coreopsis, and gallardia.

To prevent slugs from damaging exhibition flowers as showtime approaches, tie a thick wad of cotton around the stem just below the blooms.

To prevent rain damage make a plastic shade for the plant. Also, a small plastic tent can be used over an individual flower to hasten its maturity. Make a loop with a long stem from a wire coat hanger. Push the end into the ground next to the plant or staple it to a stake for added height. Drape a large "streamer-size" plastic bag loosely over the loop so it surrounds but does not touch the flower.

Leave the bottom hang loose. Warmth will be trapped inside the tent. This trick works well even during cloudy weather. If the weather is sunny, ventilation holes will be needed in the bag so it doesn't become too hot inside. A tent like this might be useful, too, to hasten the development of small fruits and vegetables.

IF FLOWERS and produce develop ahead of time they can be stored in a refrigerator. Thirty-one degrees is the best temperature for storing flowers for a long period of time, but even normal refrigerator temperatures will suffice for a short time. Almost all flowers except gladioli and lilies can be stored. Roses, asters, day-lilies, phlox, petunias and begonias are among those that can be stored for about two weeks at 31 degrees. Some others such as alyssum, delphinium, iris, marigolds and zinnias can be stored for three weeks.

Flowers to be stored should be picked just before they reach their prime. Put each flower

Gardeners Beware Of Sucking, Chewing Bugs

With shade and ornamental trees and shrubs fully leafed out now, the home gardener should be alert to the ravages of sucking and chewing insects that seem to appear coincidentally at this time to feed on the tender foliage.

Since leaves manufacture plant foods essential to the trees and shrubs, unchecked invasions of the leaf-eaters seriously can affect the health and appearance of these valued plantings on the premises. Modern contact insecticides, such as sevin, malathion, and DDT, however, will control most of them if applied in time.

The insects that feed on leaves include a wide variety of winged adult beetles and the larvae (immature form) of moths, butterflies, and sawflies, but it is the larvae—worms or caterpillars—that are more common and most destructive.

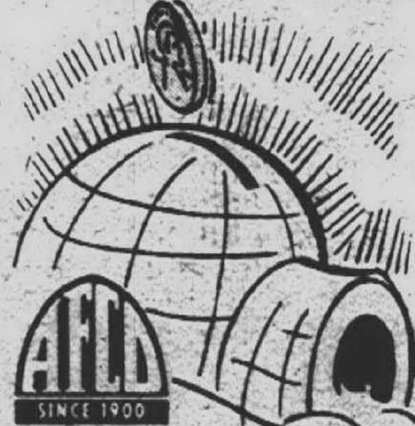

ALREADY there are many reports from homeowners and arborists of an abundance of the familiar inch worms, also known as measuring worms and canker worms, which are representative of the larvae group of leaf eaters.

Inch worm eggs hatch shortly after the leaves unfold, and the young worms begin feeding first on the under sides of the leaves, often going undetected until considerable damage has been done. As they mature, they become more voracious and have been known to completely defoliate large trees.

It is in their early stages that insecticides should be applied, the arborists warn, if damage is to be minimized.

IN GARDENS where there are willows, whether or not they are the weeping variety, the trees literally "weep" with the secretions of aphids when infestations are heavy, causing an intolerable situation for picnic or play areas.

Foliage sprays will rout the aphids, as well as other pests, but too often the trees are too large for the homeowner to reach all portions of them with home-type

Butterfly Begonia

The 2 1/2 inch flowers of the Semperflorens Papillon Butterfly are the largest known to fibrous begonias, resembling huge bright colored butterflies. The center of each flower is a fluffy sparkling ball of canary yellow stamens.

The flowers are borne in clusters or strong stemmed shiny green foliaged plants 10 to 12 inches tall. In semishady beds or in pots, they present a riot of color from early spring until frost.

When plants are through for the season and harvested don't leave the land idle.

Experts advise sowing rye which turned under with your spade next spring quickly decays to furnish an abundance of humus and nutrients.

Rye's Good Humus

The experts have come up with tricks for cutting, handling, and transporting flowers and produce so they retain their perfection. (These methods and procedures will be covered in the next article.)

into a plastic bag without any water and fasten the end shut with a rubber band. It is easier to prevent crushing if a separate bag is used for each flower.

THE NIGHT before the show remove the flowers from storage and snip an inch off the end of the stem and "condition" in a pail of warm water in a cool room overnight. This "conditioning", which is necessary even for freshly cut flowers is especially important for stored flowers. It enables them to take up the maximum amount of water so that the stems are firm and the flowers will not wilt.

Sladek Favors Part-time Role On County Board

Republican candidate for county supervisor, Hank Sladek said today he favored part-time county supervisors.

"Some candidates are considering the idea that the county supervisor's post should be full time, and I strongly oppose this view," Sladek said.

By act of the State Legislature, the cumbersome county boards have been reorganized on the "one-man-one-vote" principle. Wayne County's Board of 135 was reduced to 26 by a committee appointed to propose how the county would reorganize.

Sladek said that supervisors will have the right to establish their salary during their first term of office.

"I'm concerned that a movement might develop to justify making this a full time job, because of the latitude given the new board on salary," he added.

Sladek said sometime in the future circumstances might warrant making it a full time job.

The present board recently approved a $3,500 annual salary, but Sladek points out that their action is not binding.

"A sounder method could have been devised for setting these initial salaries, such as the State Legislature setting salary guidelines."

Candidate Sladek said that there are "far more important" matters than salary.

"The very first order of business for the new county board is the crucial item of organizing ourselves as a unit of government capable of serving the county."

Auction Of f Gas, Oil Rights

A recent wildcat strike in Presque Isle County has set the stage for the largest lease sale of state oil and gas rights ever offered by the Michigan Department of Conservation.

The public auction is scheduled for August 5-9 in Lansing's Civic Center and will involve state oil and gas rights covering about 583,300 acres in 24 counties of the northern Lower Peninsula.

The Department's biggest previous oil and gas lease sale took place in 1962 when some 439,200 acres were put up for bidding. It resulted in 254,815 acres being leased and brought bid receipts to the State totaling a record $310,812.

Biggest lease offerings to be made in August will include nearly 100,000 acres in Cheboygan County, 88,500 acres in Missaukee County, 79,000 acres in Presque Isle County, and 75,515 acres in Otsego County.

Detroit Hikes City Income Tax

DETROIT -- By a 5-1 vote, the Detroit Common Council has approved the doubling of the one per cent income tax for city residents. Nonresidents working in the city will continue to pay one half per cent.

The action follows special action by the Michigan Legislature earlier this year allowing Detroit to become the only city in the state levying a two per cent tax on its residents. Despite the doubled tax, Councilman Ed Carey, president of the legislative body, predicted the city still would have a deficit of about $10 million in the current fiscal year which began July 1.

One councilman, Mel Ravitz, was absent for the vote with the lone dissenter being Councilwoman Mary Beck who continued her opposition to higher taxes, calling instead for cuts in spending by the city.

DETROIT -- Tuition for out-of-state students at Wayne State University has been increased for the academic year beginning this fall.

The increases will not apply to Michigan residents enrolled at the school.

State And Local Roundup

JACKSON -- The Jackson Board of Education has slashed its budget for the upcoming year by more than $1.4 million following defeat of a millage proposal last month.

The board has completely dropped all athletics in junior high schools, has put the fourth through the sixth grades as well as the high schools on split shifts, and has eliminated 73 teaching positions.

YPSILANTI -- The Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors has voted to approve the sale of "spirits by the glass" on Sundays after 2 p.m. in establishments in which the gross receipts derived from the sale of food and other goods and services exceed 50 per cent of the gross receipts.

In adopting the resolution, Washtenaw became the third Michigan county to take advantage of Sunday liquor sales.

DETROIT -- A group of Detroit priests has sent a letter to a Washington, D.C., judge urging him to reconsider a 90-day jail sentence he recently handed down to a Detroit priest stemming from arrests made during the Poor People's Campaign.

The executive board of the Association of Detroit Priests sent the letter to Judge Timothy Murphy of the Court of General Session. In it, the group said it was shocked over what it called "the apparently excessive sentence" of the Rev. Dennis Maloney.

LANSING -- The State Supreme Court has upheld lower courts in insisting that the names of candidates be listed alphabetically on the Aug. 6 primary ballots, with the names rotated from precinct to precinct.

The alphabetical listing had been ordered by the State Court of Appeals after two new state laws provided that the names of incumbents should be listed at the top.

The Appeals Court said such a listing would be against the State Constitution's ban on any special designations except to avoid confusion in similar names.

That decision was carried to the Supreme Court by Wayne County Clerk Edgar M. Branigan and the Board of Election Commissioners on an emergency application.

GRAND RAPIDS -- A three-judge panel will convene Monday in Federal Court here to determine whether Ingham County should proceed with the election of county supervisors from 21 districts.

Until a decision is made, all preparations for the election must stop.

Judge Noel P. Fox of U.S. District Court, has issued an order directing Ingham County to show why supervisors should not be elected at large in 1968, or, as an alternative, why the "Kiersey Apportionment Plan" should not be adopted.

Illegality of the present plan concerns District 1, composed of the five separate parts of Lansing Township. Apportionment commission members voted to consider the township one district even though the 1966 law states all districts must be contiguous.

FLINT -- Striking hospital employees in Flint have defied a circuit judge's order to return to work.

Two union locals with a total of 1,400 members have continued their strike against Hurley Hospital despite an order from Judge Stewart Newblatt.

Union officials said they had not received a copy of Newblatt's order.

DETROIT -- A criminal court judge in Detroit has sharply rapped a recently published book and has agreed to delay the murder trial of a white Detroit policeman accused of slaying a Negro youth during last July's riot.

Judge Robert Colombo said from the bench he thought John Hersey's "The Algiers Motel Incident," published last month, was "designed to deliberately be released at a time that would prevent a fair and impartial trial in this case."

DETROIT -- John R. O'Brien, former Chrysler Corp. executive, has died at the age of 67.

LANSING -- A drive to abolish the state income tax through a constitutional amendment has died because opponents of the tax failed to secure enough signatures to put the question on the November ballot.

They fell 87,000 signatures short of the 247,000 needed to put the proposition on the ballot.

DETROIT -- Seven men, including two alleged Mafia figures, are being held for trial on a "juice racket" charge after a lengthy hearing in Grosse Pointe Municipal Court. The men were accused in an alleged syndicate-financed loan-shark operation, which supposedly preyed on persons in need of money.

House Planners Must Set Long-Range Goals

ANN ARBOR -- With increasing social interdependence and diminishing natural resources, long-range government planning is becoming a necessity for the welfare of the nation, says S.C.A. Paraskevopoulos, University of Michigan professor of architecture.

"As environmental problems increase, we can no longer afford to wait until they reach a critical stage and then be forced to act out of frustration under the social and political pressures of a deteriorating situation," says Paraskevopoulos.

"Housing has reached a critical stage and the pressure on government to do something is mounting," he asserts.

THESE THOUGHTS are expressed in detail in a book,

"Research on Potential of Advanced Technology for Housing," which has just been published by the U-M Architectural Research Laboratory.

The book describes a building system based on filament winding and new developments in water and waste management.

The work was sponsored by the Defense Department.

Yes, Virginia, you are a rumor- monger.

And you're part of quite a grapevine.

There are a lot of well-meaning blabbermouths around these days. And they all have their own juicy stories about how hot things are going to be this summer.

What's the harm in stretching the truth a little among friends? Well, Virginia, it's this way.

A few of your emotional friends went right out after your last party and bought guns. They don't know how to use them. But they're armed.

Canned fruit juice will be a little harder to find at the corner grocery. It's all in Mrs. Miller's basement.

Little Johnny Henry's mother won't let him play outside anymore. And several of your neighbors no longer trust the local authorities to handle crises.

Not a bad record, Virginia. Not bad at all for somebody who doesn't know a thing about the situation.

But how about doing everyone a favor? The next time you feel the urge to "spread the word," why don't you go back to gossiping about Millie Tillson's size 46 girdle?

Mortgage Interest Raised

NEW YORK—The New York State Banking Board has set at 7 1/4 per cent the interest ceiling on home mortgage loans. This new rate, effective July 1, replaces a 6 per cent ceiling that has been in force since 1880.

For home buyers, the chief result of the action was to bring about conditions that will encourage the flow of money into the housing market. This money had threatened to dry up because of the 6 per cent ceiling.

The 7 1/4 per cent rate does not necessarily mean a 1 1/4 point increase. Sometimes banks charge a borrower "points" for making a loan, a maneuver that increases the rate substantially above 6 per cent.

UNDER the new law "points"—a lump sum payment when the loan is made—will be included in calculating the interest cost. There is also the possibility that the maximum would not be charged.

Despite the fact that the new rate is somewhat higher than was anticipated early this month—many had predicted a level of 6 3/4 or 7 per cent—it was described today by one industry source as "not completely competitive" with other interest rates.

The $2.93 billion Bowery Savings Bank, the nation's largest, said, "We will continue our present policy of restricting loans on one-family homes to depositors who have had an account at the bank for a year or more."

THE BANKING board acted under legislation signed by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller that authorizes it to determine a rate anywhere from 5 per cent to 7 1/2 per cent. It may make changes in the rate no more often than every three months, so the 7 1/4 per cent rate specified will be effective until at least Oct. 1.

Ironically, the announcement came just hours after the Senate finished legislative approval in Washington of the Johnson administration's long-delayed Tax Surcharge Bill. Failure to pass it last year was a major factor in soaring interest rates that threatened to cut off entirely the supply of mortgage money.

This threat induced the governor to support strongly the move to create flexible rate-making machinery.
