Seniority Gives Esch Key Role

WASHINGTON, D.C. U.S. Rep. Marvin L. Esch (R-Ann Arbor) benefited this week from one of the very congressional customs to which he is opposed.

Although Esch has been one of the leaders in the fight against the seniority system which determines committee assignments, it is that system which has made him the ranking Republican on the House Select Labor Subcommittee dealing with manpower as well as health and safety legislation in under the Education and Labor Committee.

"I would much prefer to be elected to my new position by my colleagues and will continue to press for that," said Esch after the subcommittee's first organizational meeting. "We should have election of ranking members of both subcommittees and committees."

As the leading Republican on the subcommittee, Esch will be at the heart of one of the first rights facing Congress—deciding what form new manpower legislation will take.

The 2nd District, which Esch represents, includes the Plymouth-Northville sector of Wayne County plus all of Washtenaw, Livingston, Lenawee and Monroe Counties.

UNDER CONTROL — A potentially dangerous fire at the Industrial Strainer Co., 695 Amelia, was kept in check by Plymouth firefighters this week. Several 50-gallon drums of paint and a number of five-gallon cans of lacquer were engulfed in flames. Wooden palettes at the rear of the building also caught fire. Probable cause was a cigaret which had been tossed into a nearby field, lighting the tall grass. Firemen said several cans exploded, shooting flames several feet. Firemen kept the flames from spreading to the building, despite the strong wind. (Observer photo by Maurice Walker)

READING, CORRECTING AND APPROVAL OF BILLS. Following the review of the List of Bills, Mr. Burke moved that the Board authorize the payment of the List of Bills in the Grand Total amount of $22,954.77. Seconded by Mr. Ash and carried unanimously.

COMMUNICATIONS — City of Grosse Pointe Woods. Re: Resolution supporting the principal of a Federal revenue sharing program with local units of government, as a "We strings attached bond." Re: Resolution to record its resolution to the Provision contained in Section 24(9) of Act 100 of the Michigan Public Acts of 1970, insofar as it restricts the authority of the voters in any school district to vote to levy additional taxes for education, and urges repeal of that part of said section.

Following the reading of portions of the above-mentioned resolutions by Mrs. Richardson, and there being no action necessary, Mr. Millington moved that the communication be received and filed. Seconded by Mr. Overholt and carried unanimously.

City of Hudson — Re: Resolution supporting the joint effort of communities within Wayne County to seek an elimination of the problems of non-returnable bottles.

Re: Resolution giving support and urging passage for a revenue sharing plan.

James Gignac — Re: Report on attendance of Fire Chief at a Fire fighters tactic seminar at Elk Cove, Illinois held in January, 1971.

Community Improvement Association — Re: Urging the Plymouth Township Board to take whatever steps may be indicated to assure continued Police protection by the Wayne County Sheriff's Department without any new or additional cost to the Township.

Following determination that there was no action to be taken in relation to any of the communications, Mrs. Richardson moved that the said communications be received and filed. Seconded by Mrs. Holmes and carried unanimously.

OLD BUSINESS. Planning Commission action taken at their January 20, 1971 meeting.

(a) Amendment to Ordinance No. 27 (Application No. 147) Rezoning of N. E. corner Joy and Canton Center from R-1-S to T-O. (Planning Commission's own motion).

Mrs. Richardson advised the Board that the Wayne County Planning Commission in its meeting of February 17, 1971, had approved the rezoning covered by Application No. 147, and then, she moved that the Board concur in the Township Planning Commission's recommendation and approve the rezoning of the northeast corner of Joy and Canton Center from R-1-S to T-O, being an amendment to Ordinance No. 27 as contained in Application No. 147. Seconded by Mr. Millington.

In the discussion Mrs. Breen stated that the rezoning was initiated on motion of the Planning Commission, and he questioned the propriety of this action of the Commission in proposing the rezoning, as well as waiving the one-year limitation on the rezoning of the property, although the action was taken following receipt of a legal opinion from the Township Attorney. He stated that this action was an exception to the rules of procedure under which rezoning is accomplished and that it invited criticism. In concluding he stated that he questioned whether the action of waiving the one-year limitation on the basis that it was in the "Public Interest" and legally whether it could be upheld.

Also in the discussion Mrs. Richardson read from the Planning Commission's minutes, as well as a communication from Mr. Donovan, title owner of three acres in this location, in which it was stated that the rezoning was not in accordance with the 701 Comprehensive Development Planning. Mr. Millington referred to other property in this area being considered for rezoning to T-O and stated this would eliminate "spot zoning."

The following roll call vote was taken:
Ayes: Millington, Overholt, Burke, Richardson.
Nays: Breen, Holmes, Ash.

(b) Dr. P. S. Vachter (Application No. 108), Rezoning of 2 acres just off the corner of Joy and Canton Center Road from R-1-S to T-O.

Consideration was then given to Application No. 108, the petitioner being Doctor P. S. Vachter, and pertained to a parcel adjoining that in Application No. 147, and Mr. Millington moved that the Board concur in the recommendation of the Planning Commission to approve Application No. 108 for the Rezoning of two acres just off the corner of Joy and Canton Center Roads, from R-1-S to T-O. Seconded by Mr. Overholt. The question was called, the motion carried.

Mrs. Holmes abstained and Mr. Breen voted no. In explaining his "No" vote, Mr. Breen stated that he believed the application as a procedural matter was mislabeled in terms of the Planning Commission.

NEW BUSINESS — Brender-Hamill and Associates, Inc., Re: Final acceptance of contract with Zeph LeDuc (Northville Road sanitary sewer) and approval of Final payment of $2,288.75. Following the reading of this communication, Mr. Ash moved that the Board approve the recommendation of Brender-Hamill and Associates for the final acceptance of the contract and final payment to Zeph LeDuc in the amount of $2,288.75. Seconded by Mrs. Holmes and carried unanimously.

Resignation of Gene Overholt as alternate delegate to SEMCOG and appointment of Gerald Burke. Mrs. Holmes moved that the Board accept the resignation of Mr. Overholt and appoint in his place Mr. Burke as alternate delegate to SEMCOG. Seconded by Mr. Ash and carried unanimously.

East Michigan Environmental Action Council — Re: Urging the Township to initiate similar action to the Detroit Common Council in regard to outlawing more than 0.7% of Phosphate by weight in detergent by July 1, 1971. Mr. Millington said he thought the action requested was premature, and no good substitute available. Mr. Overholt concurred and stated the Township was not in a position to enforce such an ordinance and that he felt it would just be a public relations act; that more knowledge is needed on our part and more time prior to passing ordinances or regulations concerning environmental control. Following discussion on the request in this communication Mr. Millington moved that it be received and filed.

Seconded by Mr. Overholt and carried unanimously.

James Gignac — Re: Request for the Fire Chief to attend the Arson Detection and Investigation Seminar on March 2 and 3, 1971, at the University of Michigan. Cost $80.00. Mrs. Holmes moved that the Board approve the request by Mr. Gignac as stated above in an amount not to exceed $80.00. Seconded by Mr. Burke and carried unanimously.

Helen Richardson — Re: Amendment pertaining to anniversary date of MTA Pension Program from April 1, to July 1.

In her communication, Mrs. Richardson explained the merits of changing the anniversary date with reference to the Township's Pension Plan with MacKenzie-Harris Life, and requested approval of the amendment as well as authorization for the Clerk to sign same. She then verbally discussed the merits of the amendment in bringing this about, and then moved that the Board approve the signing of the amendment authorizing the changing of the anniversary date in the pension program from April 1st to July 1st. Seconded by Mr. Ash and carried unanimously.

RESOLUTIONS
City of Northville — Re: Requesting the Township Board to adopt a Resolution urging the City of Detroit to discontinue its search and consideration of a buyer for the Maybury Sanatorium for a Housing Development and the City be encouraged to sell the property for use as open space, recreation areas and natural resources.

Following discussion, Mrs. Holmes moved that the Board authorize the Supervisor to notify the City of Northville that the Township Board favors open space, recreational areas, and natural resources for the Maybury Sanatorium property, and no action was taken by the Township as it was the Board's understanding that the situation had changed since the request for the resolution was made. Seconded by Mr. Ash and carried unanimously.

Amendment to Ordinance No. 25 — Fire Prevention Ordinance. At this time Mr. Breen asked that a communication from Mr. Gignac regarding Ordinance No. 25, Fire Prevention Ordinance, be added to the agenda.

Mrs. Richardson moved that the Board add this communication to the agenda, in accordance with the request. Seconded by Mr. Overholt and carried unanimously.

In his communication, Mr. Gignac submitted a proposed amendment which covered "Tampering with Fire Hydrants or Fire Water Meters" and recommended that the Township Attorney be authorized by the Board to draft said amendment in accordance with his proposal.

Following discussion and clarification of the necessity for further action by the Board over and above that taken in the meeting of February 9, 1971, relating to an Amendment to Ordinance No. 25, Mrs. Richardson moved that the Board be encouraged to sign same, and to the Township Attorney to enable him to draft the amendment as requested. Seconded by Mr. Ash and carried unanimously.

Mr. Overholt moved to adjourn the meeting. Supported by Mr. Ash. Supervisor Breen adjourned the meeting at 9:07 P.M.

THROUGH IFOCALS
By FRED DELANO / Editor: Mail & Observer

THERE'S A TREAT in store Monday for Plymouth women of the National Farm and Garden Club, for they are going to be taught the rudiments of making Ukrainian pysanky. For the uninitiated, that means the most colorful Easter eggs the mind can imagine.

If your early years were spent, as mine, in a post-World War I household where not much of anything was acceptable unless it had the blessing of the Eastern Star, W.C.T.U., or D.A.R., you didn't learn about the wonderful customs of what we now call ethnic groups.

Fortunately, there's a broader outlook where I live now, and the kids, who inherited a sense for art from their mother, were given a lesson in this pysanky stuff one evening at the kitchen table by a good friend, Anastasia Volker.

It puts to shame the dull dip and dye products which are part of my heritage, although the latter are no less symbolic of the new life that begins in the springtime.

AMONG THE THINGS the Plymouth ladies will learn from their tutor, Mrs. Martha Wichorek, is the fact that pysanky never are made to be eaten. You start with a raw egg, and it stays raw, a detail not to be forgotten when you dust around it on the mantle in the years that follow.

You see, pysanky are exchanged among friends as gifts and are used in decorative displays in the home, not only during the Easter season but throughout the year. Their intricate beauty warrants it.

The process is one of repeated color dippings and the use of a wax-tipped stylus to draw with painstaking care the elaborate designs which have come down through the centuries, their meanings no different now than a thousand years ago.

AS THE STORY comes to me, each district of the Ukraine had its own designs and favorite color combinations, and even today the Detroit area descendants keep the tradition flourishing.

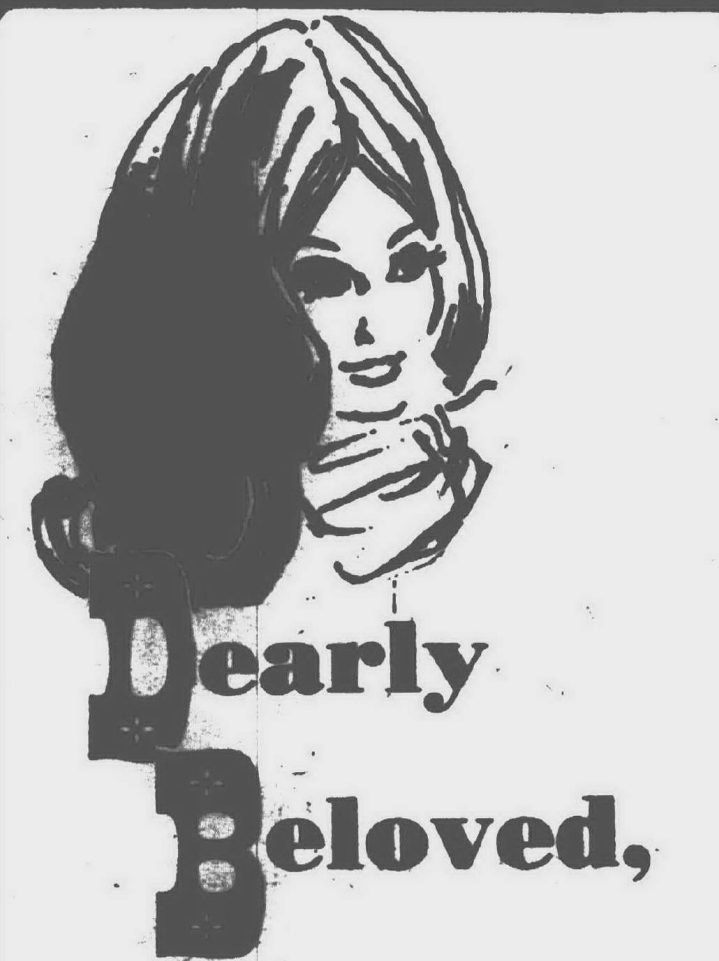

Families in the Carpathian Mountains used geometric patterns. Those in the lowlands favored flowers and animals.

A triangle represents the Holy Trinity; a fish, Christ; a fir tree, health; a horse, wealth, reindeer, prosperity; never-ending curlicues, eternity.

Plymouth's new St. Alexis Orthodox Church also has been conducting pysanky classes with great success, and bit by bit the admission is being made hereabouts that there is an outside world after all.

Communication Hurdle Stalls PEA On Budget

If there is teacher participation in budget reduction considerations by Plymouth's Board of Education Monday night, it apparently will be through individual communication in the wake of a formal statement issued by the PEA executive board.

This statement, although declaring that the PEA "would appreciate the opportunity" to present its budgetary suggestions, added pointedly:

"However, there has been no formal request by the board for teacher recommendations in regard to budget cuts. If the board makes such a request, the executive board of the PEA will survey the staff for specific recommendations to be presented for discussion and evaluation."

Because of the financial crisis in state budgeting, school districts throughout Michigan must make late-semester slashes in spending plans. In Plymouth's case, the belt tightening amounts to $151,000.

GEORGE LAWTON, school board treasurer and chairman of the finance committee, said Thursday "the door is wide open" to teachers and general citizens alike to offer suggestions on where to make cuts.

He said he had taken it upon himself to meet "informally" with some of the PEA executives for an exchange of ideas, apparently hurdling the communication barrier which was created in the lack of an actual invitation to the PEA to join in financial talks.

Lawton said the finance committee will offer definite proposals for consideration of the full board Monday, hoping that it will not be necessary to give up a "cushion" of about $25,000 which exists in unexpended funds.

"GENERALLY, the cuts will be pretty evenly split between secondary, elementary, maintenance and operations budgets," said Lawton. He indicated there will be cutbacks in supplies and that some purchases that had been planned for this semester will be deferred until the next fiscal year.

The statement from the PEA, in addition to referring to the lack of a formal request from the school board for its recommendations, took a poke at the state government with the comment:

"It is unfortunate that our state Legislature has passed along the state's fiscal problems to our children."

"That the Legislature would propose cuts for education while receiving the second highest salaries in the nation is difficult to understand."

"Under the guise of fiscal responsibility, our state government is acting in a very irresponsible manner."

Plate Sales Lag Behind 1970 Pace

An estimated 20,000 Plymouth area motorists still are lacking 1971 automobile license plates and apparently can count on being part of an aggravating 11th-hour crush to obtain them.

Robert E. Dwyer, manager of the secretary of state's branch office at 238 S. Main, said this week that sale of plates is far behind the 1970 pace.

The law demands that new plates be attached to passenger cars by midnight, Wednesday, March 31.

They may be obtained at Dwyer's office between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 9 a.m. until 12 noon on Saturday.

Ever since the war on pollution began, The Stroller has been in a quandary concerning the strategy being used in the battle.

Why, he has asked himself repeatedly, are the powers that be placing so much emphasis on banning the non-returnable bottle when there are so many other things that seem so much more important.

When these non-returnables were introduced a few years ago, The Stroller thought they were just the thing—no more saving the empty pop bottles, lagging to the store and battling over whether the returnees were large or small.

With the non-returnable, it was just a case of tossing it away. That was the end of it. No more saving them. No more lugging them around in the trunk of the car if, somehow, you forgot to turn them in on market day.

Now the time savers and trouble savers are looked upon as an enemy of mankind and must be banned.

WELL, THE STROLLER got his answer to the questions that have been plaguing him the other evening from an unexpected source.

Attending a meeting of the Garden City Council, he had an opportunity to listen to Mayor Pat Norton, of Wayne, making a plea for the banning of the bottle. Mayor Norton is a very articulate man and, unless all signs fail, won't be long in Wayne. He is due for higher things. But at the moment he is championing the battle of the non-returnable bottle ban.

"This is the lowest level at which we can fight the polluters," he said. "It costs the beverage makers less than a penny for these bottles. It costs them four or five times that much for the cans.

"So, I figure," he continued, "if we can ban the bottle we won't be causing any undue hardship. They'll possibly come up with another type of carton—maybe like the milk-dealers did."

Then he added, "If we can't win the fight on the low level of the non-returnable bottle, then we may as well give up. We certainly wouldn't be able to beat the larger polluters such as the automobile manufacturers, the steel mills, and the like. That's why it is so important to ban the bottle."

DURING HIS remarks, Mayor Norton offered some interesting statistics as part of the campaign.

First, he pointed out that it takes years for glass to disintegrate and return to the soil. He revealed that glass has been unearthed that had been buried for a century or more. On the other hand, tin and aluminum will disintegrate at a faster clip—maybe just a few years.

Mayor Norton, who has done considerable research on the subject, explained that latest figures show that 10 billion non-returnable bottles a year are being manufactured.

"Laid side by side," he said, "they would cover an area as large as the City of Livonia and Redford Township. Mind you, that is every year."

Considering they would take years to decompose, no wonder the lowly non-returnable bottle is the target in the war on pollution.

able bottle now is target in the war on pollution.

Roses Go To 2 Sunday

A "man with a fantastic ear" and a man who "has to be told to stay home from rehearsal" will be featured in Sunday's performance of the University of Michigan Symphony in Concert, 8 p.m. at Main St. 2000.

The descriptions come from the symphony's conductor Wayne Dunlap, who will introduce the two to the audience and present each with a red rose. This recognition is part of the symphony's celebration of its 25th year.

The "fantastic ear" for music belongs to Deal Fisher, a string bass player, and "one of the most faithful members we have" is Paul Miller, the symphony's tympanist.

MILLER HAS to be told (by Dunlap) to stay home when the weather is bad. He is the symphony's most-traveled member. His home is in Lansing and he drives about 150 miles a week to take part in the Monday evening rehearsals. In spite of

DEAL FISHER
(string bass)

Dunlap's weather advisories, he misses very few.

He may figure that road conditions aren't bad enough to stop him because he does a lot of driving. He has to travel 100 miles a day just to get to and from work. He is chief research attorney in the office of Robert F. Leonard, prosecuting attorney, in Flint.

Miller has been a fan of Dunlap's ever since he arrived at the University of Michigan as a student and found Dunlap there conducting the University Orchestra.

He received his bachelor and master's degrees in music from the University of Michigan. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and a high honor graduate of his college. He has been in musical careers including Michigan National Guard, University of Michigan's Youth Symphony.

Miller doesn't like to teach and went back to the U-M for his law degree. But he kept up his interest in music through the symphony, and now celebrates his 25th year with it.

He is married and the father of a small son and baby daughter.

FISHER AMAZES members of the symphony by his ability to listen to a photograph record and then write down every note. This makes him invaluable as the symphony's official arranger, especially around "pops" concert time.

In the symphony, he plays string bass and the classics. Out of the symphony, he plays saxophone and clarinet in dance bands. Currently he plays weekends with the Bob Alexander Band in Flint.

He has been with the symphony since 1948, and has been a professional musician for 25 years. He used to play on cruise ships traveling North and South American waters.

During the week, he works out of his Belleville home as a piano tuner, where his "ear" again comes in handy.

He also takes part in more volunteer orchestras than anyone else Dunlap knows of, including the Plymouth Community Band, the Detroit Federation of Musicians' Sax Band and circus bands.

Sunday's program will have as guest soloist, the Canadian pianist Muriel Kilby. She will play Saint-Saens Concerto No. 5 in F major for Piano and Orchestra, and the symphony will play works by Mendelssohn and Bartok.

The concert is free and a nursery service is provided.

Concert Set

DETROIT Henry Mancini along with his 40-piece orchestra will appear Friday, March 19, at 8:30 p.m., at the University of Detroit Memorial Building, 4001 W. McNichols.

Singers Plan Waltz Program

The Michigan Chambers Singers will turn their talents to waltzes in their performance Wednesday, March 10, at Schoolcraft College.

The singers will be heard at 8 p.m., in the Little Theatre of the Liberal Arts Building, Haggerty Rd., Livonia. The concert is free to the public.

The program will open with the Liebeslieder Waltzes (love song waltzes) by Brahms and close with the New Liebeslieder, also by Brahms.

Four pieces from the "Dolly" suite by Faure will be presented by pianists Mrs. Deanna Relyea Boylan and Mrs. Penelope Ball Crawford.

DICK BENSEK

Here are some tips on meat grades: the rib roast is unexcelled for tenderness and flavor, and is easily carved and served. Rib roasts should be at least two ribs thick for best cooking. Steaks cut from the ribs of the higher grades are tender and flavorful. But at least a pound for each two servings. A rump roast rivals the rib in flavor but is not quite as tender. For easier carving, this roast can be boned and rolled. A pound should serve about two people. The blade chuck is generally an economical cut — higher grades can be oven roasted. In any grade, it makes a delicious pot roast.

Take a tip from those in the know — for flavorful food served in a charming atmosphere visit DANISH INN, 32305 Grand River Ave., 478-6326. Open 11 a.m. - 2 a.m. with dinner during the week until 10 p.m., Fri. and Sat. until 1 a.m. Closed Sundays. Reservations are recommended for the weekends.

HELPFUL HINT: A good grade T-bone steak can be more tender than a Choice grade round steak.

Rev. Lindholm Wonders Freedom Of Worship-- Is It Real In The U.S.?

By MARGARET MILLER
Church Editor

A drive spearheaded by a Livonia clergyman in the case of religious liberty for the Amish people may culminate in a U.S. Supreme Court decision.

The local minister is the Rev. William C. Lindholm, pastor of Holy Cross Evangelical Lutheran Church, 30850 Six Mile, Livonia.

He said the committee of nationally-known clergymen, legal scholars and educators he heads probably will ask that the high court rule on the question of whether members of the Old Order Amish, well-known but little-understood minority group, must send their sons and daughters to high school.

THE COMMITTEE acted for several Amish in Wisconsin in a recent case that resulted in a Jan. 8 Wisconsin Supreme Court decision that was the first legal victory for the Amish in this country.

In that decision, the court ruled that three fathers in New Glarus, Wis., should not be required to send their 15-year-old children to New Glarus High School.

Children of the faith "will not be required to attend school beyond eighth grade," wrote Chief Justice Harold Hallows, because, he said, "There is not such a compelling state interest in two years of high school compulsory education as will justify the burden placed on the free exercise of religion."

THE STATE of Wisconsin has asked the U.S. Supreme Court to review the decision, on the grounds that permitting the Amish to challenge successfully the compulsory school attendance laws of the state will permit other minority groups to do the same.

Rev. Lindholm said his committee probably will join in urging the high court action, although this would be an unusual move.

"But I think it is the time we clear up this question of whether we have religious liberty in this country," he said.

REV. WILLIAM C. LINDHOLM (Observer photo by Bob Woodring)

"The Amish are in 19 states and have had tremendous problems and probably will continue to have them until there is a Supreme Court decision."

REV. LINDHOLM explained the sect's plight by going back into their history. "The Amish and the Mennonites all are Anabaptists, which means re-baptizers, and they were the radical reformers of the 16th century," he said.

Their philosophy in 16th century Europe was, as in 20th century United States, one on non-resistance, brotherly love, living close to the soil and separation from the world, Rev. Lindholm added.

"The Old Order Amish have remained like the peasants of that day, to the extent of using buggies instead of cars, no electricity and sending their children to their own schools and only through the eighth grade.

"Their position is that after that grade, book learning is no longer needed; what the young people need is training on the farms and in the homes."

And when you look closely into the question, he added, you can see that it would threaten their culture and the qualities they admire to have their young people go to public high schools or be taught by college-trained educators from outside the sect.

REV. LINDHOLM said studies have shown that children trained in Amish schools have I.Q. tests above normal and basic skills also above normal.

"And there is no unemployment in the sect and very little delinquency," he added. "There is no record of any Amish being convicted for a felony or receiving welfare and very little divorce. "I feel there should be religious liberty in the United States unless the religion constitutes a danger to the rest of society."

REV. LINDHOLM said he first became acquainted with the sect "pretty much by accident."

Before coming to Livonia, he was chairman of the conference and camp committee of the Michigan conference, Lutheran Church in America, and met members of the sect because they were employed in building a church camp near Fairview.

"There was one workman with a beard," he recalled, "and I asked him what ceremonial celebration he was joining," the pastor said. "He told me it was a religious symbol, and I started talking more to him and learned more about his people."

He said he gradually became convinced there was reason for concern over the sect, which, because of religious scruples, would not defend itself.

IT WAS THEN that Rev. Lindholm began organizing a National Committee for Amish Religious Freedom.

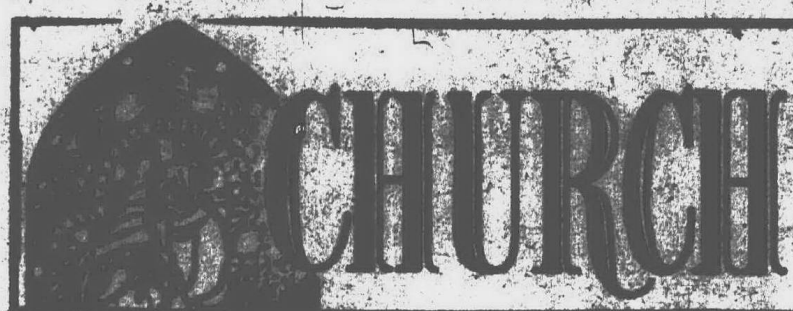

Among the members were the Rev. Dean Kelly, religious liberty committee director for the National Council of Churches, Edwin Lukas, general counsel for the American Jewish Committee and University of Michigan Law School Prof. Paul Kauper.

The committee, through contributions from churches and individuals, funded the defense made for the Amish fathers in Wisconsin. Attorney William B. Ball, of Harrisburg, Pa., took charge of the defense without fee.

The defense brought out, Rev. Lindholm said, that the training afforded without high school is sufficient in the Amish culture and "that further schooling under our system would indeed be a threat to their close-knit society and the values these people admire."

Rev. Lindholm said his membership on the National Committee was "not entirely altruistic."

The Amishman's struggle for religious freedom is a microcosm of a large intolerance that threatens us all," he added.

You Can Compose A Bumper Sticker

Five bumper sticker ideas that point up concern for social justice will win $10 in a contest currently under way in the Detroit area.

Sponsored by the Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice, Inc., the "Bumper Talk" competition will continue through March 31.

Ideas for bumper stickers with a racial justice theme should be mailed to "Bumper Talk," 10944 Puritan, Detroit, 46238.

WINNERS will be announced April 13, and the five top stickers will be produced and made available to the public by May 1.

The idea of the contest, said chairman Frank Hogan, "is to get people thinking together about what racial justice means in our society."

"Our thoughts tend to get straightened out a little when we have to put them into one to 10 words," he added. "Yet, more important, we recognize that in our mobile society we do quite a bit of communicating through bumper stickers."

"WE WOULD like more of that visible communication to demonstrate that racism can and will be defeated; that a racially just society can and will be defeated; that a racially just society can be built here in America."

The council suggested, as an example of the kind of slogan it has in mind, "Make Justice Popular—Not Unique."

Service Will Feature HS Concert Choir

The Bentley High School Concert Choir will take part in an evening service in Nativity United Church of Christ, Livonia, Wednesday, March 10, at 7:30 p.m. The church is at W. Chicago and Henry Ruff.

PHONOGIFT CAMPAIGN — Mrs. Charles Snider of Southfield views the old-style telephone which symbolizes the old-fashioned hard work that will go into contact 10,000 women in Detroit for their gifts to the 1971 Allied Jewish Campaign-Israel Emergency Fund. Mrs. Snider is chairman of the women's division. Volunteers will work from March 7-14 at headquarters in the United Hebrew Schools, Southfield. Funds are used for health, welfare and educational services in Detroit, overseas and in Israel. More volunteers are needed.

Readers Appointed

Two members of St. John Episcopal Church, Westland, have been appointed lay readers by Bishop Richard S. Emrich. They are Milton S. Kolarov of Wayne and Thomas Green of Westland.

The two will assist the Rev. W. T. Smith with services in the church. They completed classes given for the Western Wayne County area by Father Smith.

Kolarov has been a member of St. John since 1923. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Saint Andrew and is on the vestry of the church.

Children Plan Purim Program

A Purim family service for Temple Kol Ami children, parents, grandparents, and guests will be held Friday, March 12, at 7:45 p.m., in Birmingham Unitarian Church, Lone Pine and Woodward.

The program has been planned by the seventh grade class of the religious school with the help of the teacher, David Cirton. Bradley Laven will be the piano accompanist.

"Graggers" (noisemakers) will be handed out so that as Rabbi Ernst Conrad reads the story of Queen Esther, King Ahasuerus, Mordecai and Haman, the children can follow tradition and make noise at each mention of a villain's name.

Purim is the festival commemorating the overthrow of the Persian Prime Minister Haman by Queen Esther and Mordecai.

To commemorate their ancestors' reprieve from extermination, the Jewish people have through the ages celebrated Purim by giving gifts to each other and to the poor, by dressing children in costume for parading and play acting and by eating special foods such as Hamantaschen, three-cornered pastries shaped like Haman's triangular hat.

Bulldogs, Spartans Stage Comebacks To Win

By GEORGE MASKIN
Observer Sports Editor

There was no chance for Livonia to lope in Friday night's Class A district basketball finale at Farmington High.

The battle matched Bentley and Stevenson after each knocked out a Farmington rival in Wednesday's semifinals.

Stevenson came back to down North Farmington, 58-54, with a second half burst, while Bentley followed the same course in downing defending district champ Farmington, 62-57.

So it will be either Bentley or Stevenson in the regionals which begin this week at Franklin.

IT WAS TOO much Ted Exarhos and Pete Gresock as far as North Farmington was concerned. The pair brought Stevenson back after trailing by seven points in the second quarter to within four points at the end of the half.

Then Stevenson cut loose for a 7-0 spree in the third period to take the lead at 39-36, but by the period end North Farmington had cut it to 41-40.

A basket by Tim Driggs gave North Farmington a momentary lead before Exarhos, Gresock and Kelly Smith made it 45-42 for Stevenson.

Craig Dhue then hit for two hoops while Exarhos managed a free throw and the score was tied at 46-46 with 4:50 left.

Gresock, who was striking inside and out, went all the way for a layup and Exarhos slipped in with a steal a few seconds later to put Stevenson on top, 50-46.

But North Farmington wasn't tossing in the towel, not even when Stevenson lifted its lead to 56-50 with a minute left.

DRIGGS SANK A FREE THROW and then with 27 seconds to go, he clicked on a three point play to pull the Raiders to within 56-54 of the tie.

The Raiders had no other recourse but to foul and Exarhos rapped it up for Stevenson with two conversions with three seconds to go.

Exarhos wound up with 24 points and Gresock 16 for the evening's play.

FARMINGTON TURNED LOOSE quickly on Bentley, seizing a 14-9 lead in the first quarter and then maintaining the advantage through the second period to reach the intermission with a 27-22 lead.

Whatever Coach George Fefles of Bentley had to say to his players during the intermission worked.

Bentley came out storming in the third period. The Suburban Six League champs rifled in 24 points to only eight for Farmington as Tim Bollin and Lou Lovett each hit eight points in the period.

"It was one of the greatest periods I've ever seen a Bentley team stage," said Fefles, who came back to coaching this season after retiring and insists he'll not be around for another season as the Bentley coach.

It was a good thing for Bentley that it had the big third period. Farmington again dominated in the final frame, but couldn't come closer than four points, although outscoring Bentley, 22-16, in the quarter.

Bob Chapman ended the season on a high note for Farmington with 18 points while Dan Lakovich had 10.

Bollin and Lovett each had 16 points and Dave Veach 12 for Bentley, which has a long history of winning in district tournaments.

Bitter Garden City Rivals Clash For Cage Meet Crown

By FRED DeLANO

An all-Garden City final Saturday night for the championship of the Class A Franklin district basketball tourney was assured Thursday when East's Panthers held Plymouth to a six-point fourth quarter and coasted to a 62-47 victory.

Only 24 hours earlier, West had skinned through, 42-41, in its semifinal against Livonia Churchill, hitting on only 17 of 55 shots from the floor in one of the coldest shooting performances by the Tigers all season.

G.C. West is the tournament's defending champion and the Tigers have won the Tri-River League title three years in a row. East tied Inkster for the Mid-Wayne crown this winter, and in their one earlier battle West finished on top, 55-54.

EAST LED ALL the way in overpowering Plymouth, using superior height and reach effectively to maintain ball control as Dave Jackson and Greg Puishes led Panther scoring with 17 and 16 points respectively.

Charley Wolfe, of the Rocks, took game honors with 25 points, but the run-and-shoot style which carried the Rocks to a 14-6 season was throttled by East's domination of the boards.

East raced in front, 8-1, and the game was almost four minutes old before Gary Close notched Plymouth's first field goal.

Even at that, Plymouth trailed only 14-11 after the first quarter, but the Panthers found a hot hand in the second period and built their lead to 11 before Wolfe and Casey Jones paced a Plymouth halftime surge that made the count 33-26 at the intermission.

Wolfe hit three more buckets and Jones canned a long jumper early in the third period as the Rocks pulled within three at 37-34. However, Plymouth could never quite get over the hump.

East led, 47-41, after three quarters and went into a long stall after building it to 52-44 with five minutes still to play.

Frequent fouls as the frenzied Rocks fought for ball possession led to a field day at the foul line for the Panthers, while Plymouth went stark cold with only one field goal—that by Jones—in the last stanza.

IN THE WEDNESDAY semi-final, West and Churchill battled to a 25-25 first half. The Tigers went ahead to stay in the fourth period and seemingly had the game under control with a 42-35 lead with less than three minutes left.

Upset-minded Churchill fought back with six quick points and West went to a stall in the final stages to keep its one-point margin safe.

Mike Kilbourn of the Tigers led all scorers with 18 points.

Borgess Fades Out In Hurry

There wasn't much to the 1971 state high school basketball tournament for Bishop Borgess. One game and out.

Borgess fell victim to a second half splurge by Detroit Ford which posted a 78-56 win in a Class A district game at Detroit Cady.

The teams reached the end of the first half tied at 23-23, but then Ford broke loose with a 27-14 third period to turn matters into a runaway.

The game was plagued by personal fouls — 24 against Borgess and 23 against Ford.

Bob Chapman led the winners with 31 points, 22 in the second half. He sank 11 baskets and missed only two of 11 free throws. Bob Davis with 13 headed Borgess.

RU Takes On Fordson After Pounding Eagles

"Call it an excellent team effort."

Dave Mattingly, of Redford Union High, was singing the praises of his basketball team after a 73-59 romp against Thurston put the North Redford Townshipers into Saturday's Class A district final against Dearborn Fordson at Southfield High.

"We got some great efforts out of some boys who haven't been seeing much or any action on the varsity," said Mattingly whose RU team now has downed the Townshipers from the South Side twice in the same season.

He cited John Varvari, a sub who got his first chance to start and came through with an excellent effort.

Then there was soph Gary Fuiks, who was brought up from the JV's. Gary responded with 11 points.

THE PLAY of Gary Robinson as a floorman, the rebounding of Bob Schaner, Mark Kenney and Tom Burke all drew praises.

And so did the defensive job that shut off Thurston star Pat Woelke, holding him to 10 points, only two in the second half, after he had hit for 32 two nights earlier when Thurston topped Crestwood, 81-74, in its first game of the tourney.

Coach Mike Pasternak, of Thurston, felt it was turnovers which ruined his team.

"We made 24," he moaned. "That's much too much."

Redford Union went ahead, 20-15, in the first period when Kenney hit four baskets and Schaner six points while Woelke made seven of his points.

Fuiks flipped in seven points in the second period to extend the RU lead to 36-29 at the half.

Then Kenney, Schaner and Burke tossed in four each in the third period when RU wrapped up the proceedings.

THURSTON NEVER could get closer than five points after the early going.

Kenney and Schaner topped the scoring for RU with 22 and 16 points, respectively, with Fuiks third in line with his 11 points.

Hoeben with 11 and Woelke with 10 only scored in double figures for the losers.

Thurston grabbed a 49-29 edge by the half and coasted past Crestwood in their first tourney game.

Woelke fired in 15 baskets and two free throws for his 32 points. Jeff Gillen had 13 and Chuck Mallon 12.

Rice Shades Groves To Gain Finals Berth Against Seaholm

By GEORGE MASKIN
Observer Sports Editor

Who says they don't play defense in modern basketball?

Brother Rice High's cagers specialize in working when the other fellows have the ball and the dividends were high Thursday.

RICE KNOCKED OUT Birmingham Groves, 50-47, to gain Saturday's Class A district final against Birmingham Seaholm in the Seaholm gym.

A staunch defense was necessary if Rice was to win. Groves had been one of the top scoring teams in the area in sweeping unbeaten to the Northwest Suburban League title.

Groves also had crushed Lake Orion, 66-52, in its first tourney game as all-star Scott Love led the way with 41 points.

But the Rice defense did a brilliant job of putting the clamps on Love, playing his final basketball game for Groves.

He was held to 20 points, only eight in the second half as two men constantly hounded him.

"They really hung on to Scott all the time," said Groves Coach Al Vordermark who felt that perhaps the officials permitted the Rice defenders to get away with a little too much.

"We always play good defense," said Rice Coach Bill Norton who in the final moments shuttled in subs as the situation demanded almost like one sees in crucial situations in football.

"Only one team has scored more baskets than us all season," he said.

NORTON DIDN'T feel that his Rice cagers handled Love "any differently than we normally play good centers."

He noted that in the Catholic League, Rice had run up against several star pivot-men, topped by Catholic Central's Frank Tanne.

A big difference, too, Norton felt was the free throw shooting by Rice. The winners caged also in the final two minutes and seven seconds to put the game away.

Until the final two minutes, it was anybody's game, just as Coach Tom Villeneuve of the Seaholm team, which will play Rice Saturday night, had predicted.

With neither side shooting well from the field, Groves led 11-9 after one period as Love had seven points and Rice's Joe Springer collected five.

BUT PROBLEMS mounted for Rice when top scorer Mark Olesnavage ran into foul troubles. He had three personals in the first period when he went without a point, although he has been averaging 20 points per game.

Despite his foul problem, Olesnavage managed five points in the second period, matching Love's output for the period, as Groves added to its lead, 23-20.

It was still Groves on top, 35-34, going into the final period after Tom Ren slipped in five points and Olesnavage seven for Rice.

In the final frame Dallas Huan hit two free throws and Love a bomb to make it 39-36 for Groves. But Paul McGill's foul shot and Olesnavage's basket tied it for Rice at 39-39, then Dan Damiani and Springer clicked to make it 43-41 for Rice with 4:15 to go.

After Bill Heyne brought Groves back to within two points of a tie with a 20-footer, Olesnavage made two free throws with 2:07 to go to put his team up, 45-41, before he fouled out with 18 points.

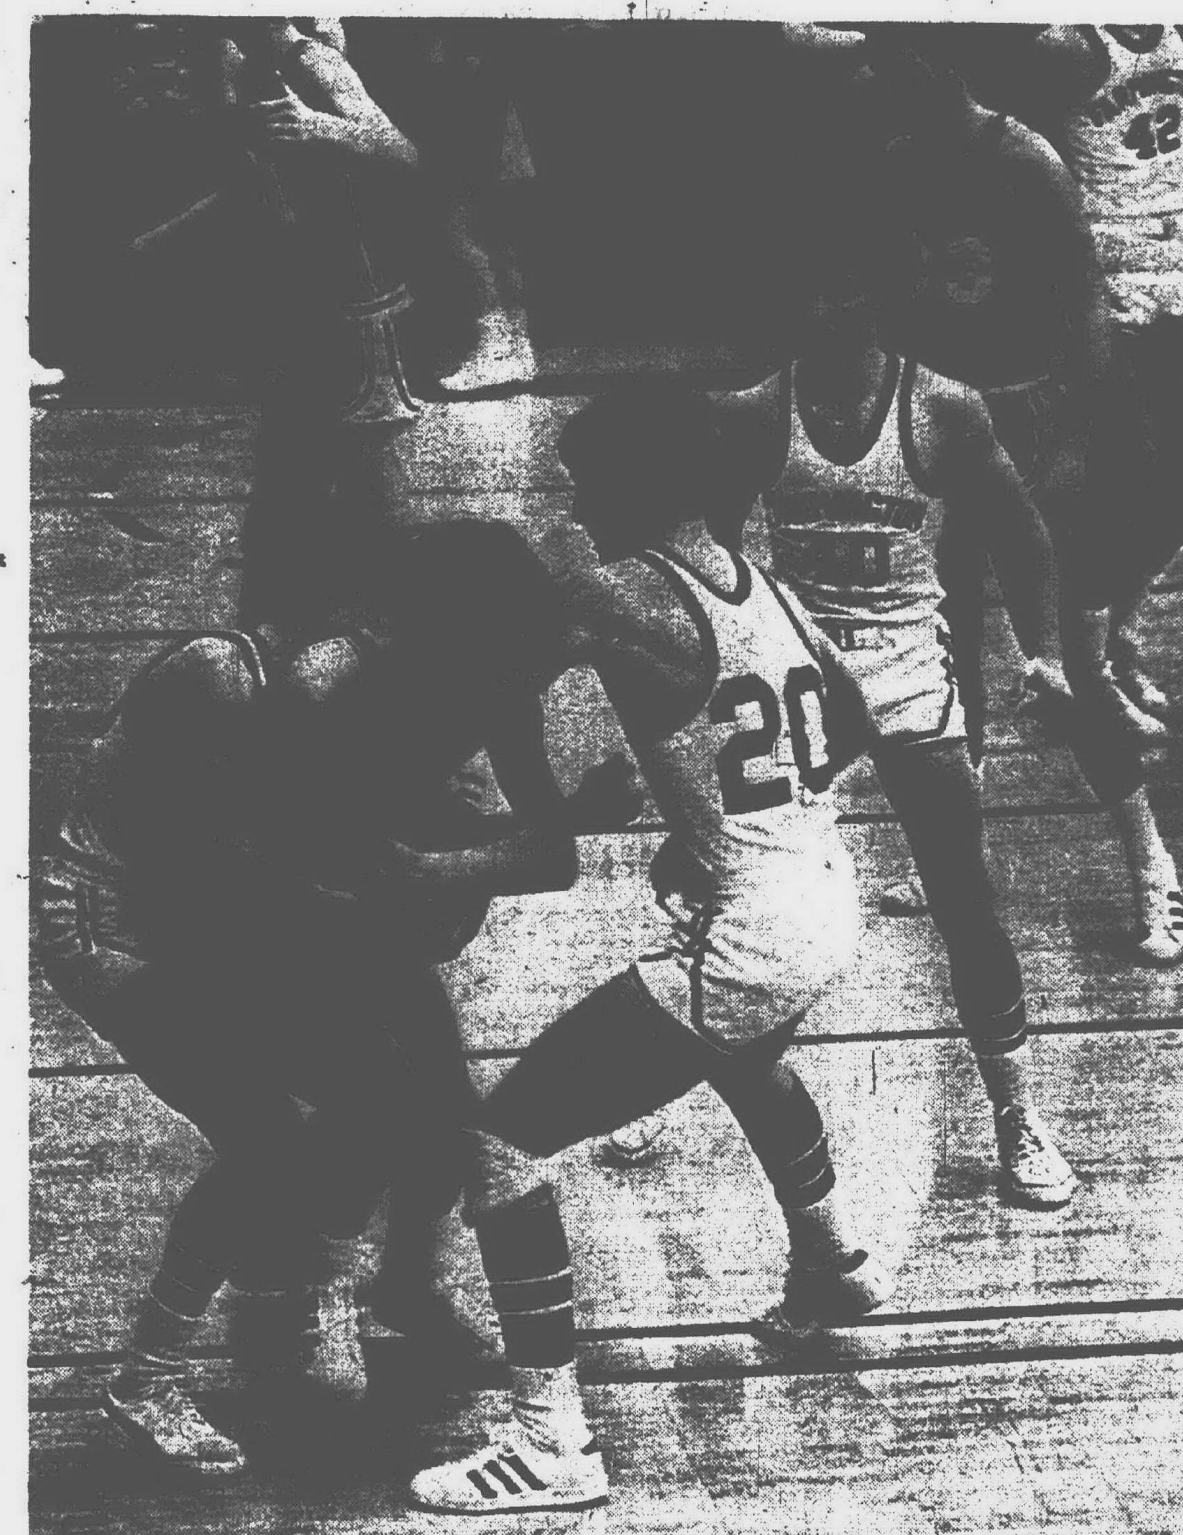

Heyne converted two free throws at this point and with 1:37 remaining, Rice led by only 45-43.

Steve Foster sank a free throw and Mark Haffel four in a row to ice the proceedings despite two late baskets by Love.

Groves shot 17 for 43 from the floor while Rice hit on a poor 18 out of 61.

Springer had 31 rebounds and Love led Groves with 10.

Norton hailed the play two subs Mike Buscher and Dan Damiani as major reasons for the victory. Buscher did an excellent job in guarding Love after Olesnavage ran into his foul difficulties.

Agatha in Title Contest

It'll be St. Agatha vs. St. Francis de Sales Saturday night for the Class C district basketball title at Redford St. Mary in Detroit.

St. Agatha took a squeaker from St. Rita, 57-15, in one of Thursday's semifinals while St. Francis rolled past St. Andrew, 75-51.

Free throws decided the game for Agatha which clicked 15 times from the line while its victims made only five.

It wasn't until Joe Thiesen sank two charities with four seconds left to go, that St. Agatha had the victory sailed away.

George Barthour had 18 points and Tom Churches 14 for the winners. Ray Ellis and Tom Hetherman each clicked for 14 for the losers.

St. Francis grabbed an 18-6 lead in the first period and never was threatened in its game with St. Andrew.

Country Day Risks String In Finals

The stakes will be big for Country Day School's basketball team Saturday night.

It will be playing for the district Class C title at Rockwell High and also its 18th consecutive victory of the season without a defeat.

With Mike Page leading the way this time with 20 points, Country Day rolled past Olesnavage, 75-60, in Wednesday's semi-final.

Page, an all-stater in football and a clinch to make it in basketball, too, clicked on 15 baskets and eight free throws.

Country Day took a 40-30 halftime lead, but had to hold off Brandon which cut the lead to four points in the third period.

Superman Scott Freeman had 12 for the winners while Mike Wilcox led the losing side with 25 points.

2 Victories Over Franklin Win Puck Crown For Bentley

Orchids are in order for Livonia Bentley High's hockey team.

With a pair of back-to-back victories over Franklin, 3-1 and 2-1, Bentley sewed up the Greater Livonia League title at the Ford Arena.

Meantime, Stevenson took second place honors with a 2-1 victory over Churchill.

Now come two games between Bentley and Stevenson. The first on Wednesday merely will be to end the regular season.

THE SECOND on Saturday at Ford Arena is in the nature of a playoff to decide the post-season title.

It actually took almost four days for Bentley to score its 3-1 conquest over Franklin.

Strange, you say? Well, the teams started on Saturday evening, but with five minutes to go and Bentley leading, 2-1, arena officials ruled the teams had to leave the ice. The time allotted had expired.

Despite protests from the teams and the huge crowd, there was little else to do.

SO, THE TEAMS came back at it again Wednesday with the final five minutes played and Bentley making the score, 3-1. Then in the regularly scheduled game, Bentley won 2-1.

Brian Said accounted for the Franklin goal in the extended game while Oke Flintall, the exchange student from Sweden, scored one goal on Saturday and another Wednesday. Tim Duda scored the other Bentley goal.

Dennis McLean and Flintall tallied for Bentley while with Bob Krell accounted for the Franklin goal in the official game on Wednesday.

Stevenson took a 1-0 lead against Churchill on a goal by Paul Holyak and won it on a tally by Dale Marczak in the final period.

Bob Ryan accounted for the lone Churchill goal.

Stevenson then went outside the league to down the powerful Detroit Benedictine team, 3-2, as John Koivuhalm scored two goals and Don Finn the other.

Finn, John Rogan and Frank Guluso all picked up assists for Stevenson against Benedictine.

Eddie Lubanski finally is convinced that he made the right decision years ago when he gave up a promising career in baseball as a pitcher to concentrate on bowling.

At the time he was in the farm program of the St. Louis Browns and appeared headed for the majors. He tired of the bus rides and turned to the lanes with considerable success.

The crowning point came this week when he was named to the ABC Hall of Fame by the bowling writers of the nation. In a competition where you must obtain 75 per cent of the vote Eddie was the only bowler named.

Aside from the fact that he is the top average bowler in the ABC with a 204 mark for the past 20 years, Eddie is famed for other reasons. He is the lone bowler who ever posted perfect games back to back on television and he is a disciple of the two-finger ball.

He will be inducted into the Hall of Fame with appropriate ceremonies during the ABC at Cobo Hall.

FAR AWAY from the highly competitive all star ranks, Marion Ladewig, rated by many as the greatest of all women bowlers, finally is getting some enjoyment out of the game.

She bowled with her league team in the women's state tournament at Ark Lanes West last weekend and was a far different Marion than the one who won eight All-Star championships.

Gone was the serious look of concentration and she was having a ball while bowling games of 191, 175 and 171 for a 537.

She now bowls in two leagues a week and is averaging 187.

THE THUNDERBIRD Inn team bowled its fourth series in the 3,000 circle during the week, pacing the Bowlerettes Monday night with a 3024.

Previously to that the team posted a 3153 to lead the nation and also is credited with counts of 3100 and 3033.

Pat Lisowski, well known in Observerland, was high Monday night with a 671.

AL KOWALSKI missed the charmed 700 barrier by a single pin in the Garden Lanes Classic. He posted a 699 to beat out Tom Ranes by six pins.

Other high scorers included Larry Brandt 688, Jim Pierce 687, Bob Martin 661, Rich Kossell 659, Bob Greiner 658 and Don Radkey 655.

LOIS McALLISTER showed the way in the Livonia Ladies Classic with a 579-69-648. This series included a high single of 217-23-240.

Gerry Wilson took second high single with 204-30-234 and Betty Mueller third with 185-37-222.

Jerry Pollard again paced the Whirlwind league with a 595 while single game honors went to Bob Schultz with 294, Carroll Warkup with 221 and Mike Howe with 207.

Fred Vitali posted the lone 700 series in the Western Classic when he linked games of 244, 241 and 229 for 714. Tony Lolacano landed the runnerup spot with a 689 and Earl Van Ness was third with 674.

BOB SWOISH now realized what it is to be so near and yet so far from fame on the lanes.

Competing at Merri-Bowl he had 11 strikes for his greatest thrill. Then, with visions of a perfect game, his hopes were dashed when a balky No. 10 pin refused to fall and he had to settle for 289.

In the Teen Classic Don Mueller was third with a 225 in 558, while Gary Myles took top honors with a 205 in 584 and Terry Driscoll placed second with a 201 in 580.

THE GIRLS had a great time at Mayflower going away above their averages.

Marilyn Scott, a 146 average bowler in the Tuesday Coffee League, linked games of 172, 164 and 223 for 559. Jackie Sepulveda, in the St. Mal's Inn, went away above her 147 average with games of 201, 190 and 159 for 550.

Tony Blackburn, a 131 average bowler, posted the 200, bettering the double century by two pins.

First Year Harrison Gains Spot In Finals

It was too much to expect that Farmington Harrison might win over Inkster in Friday night's Class B district finals at Northville High.

Inkster happens to boast one of the area's basketball powerhouses, tying Garden City East for the Mid-Wayne League title.

But whether Harrison won or lost against Inkster, the Farmington cagers already had carved quite a niche in the annals of the state prep basketball tournament.

PLAYING ITS first tournament game -- the school opened last fall -- and with no seniors on its varsity, Harrison came through a winner over Clarenceville, 57-55.

Very few new schools, especially when they still lack a senior class, can go against an "old" team and win the first time out.

Ridgers Lose To Delta In Tournament

Orchard Ridge basketballers from Oakland Community College's Farmington campus, faded out of competition in the opening round of the regional tournament at Delta College.

Seeded into the regional on the basis of their 19-6 season record, the Ridgers couldn't cope with a team they had whipped twice during the regular season.

It was a tight battle all the way with Delta taking a 41-40 halftime lead and staying in front.

Terry Wilson, of Allen Park High, topped the Ridgers with 18 points followed by Bobby Brown with 13.

Cal Hubbard was the big gunner for the victors with 19.

Beating Clarenceville was no easy task. Harrison had to rally from a 44-43 deficit entering the final period after leading by eight points in the third stanza. Phil Halstead hit on nine of his 19 points to bring Clarenceville back.

With Rick Hughes and Joe Thomas leading the way, Harrison finally went ahead for keeps on a jumper by Hughes with just over a minute to go. Then Hughes added a free throw with nine seconds left to ice the proceedings.

Harrison enjoyed balanced scoring with Thomas getting 19 points, Hughes 13, Jeff Sieloff and Jim Mason 12 each. Halstead fouled out in the fourth period after firing in eight baskets and three foul shots for Clarenceville. Chip Meyerellis had 13 in a losing cause.

Sieloff pulled in 14 rebounds and Thomas 12 for the winners.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE OBSERVER-NEWSPAPERS

"White lace and promises . . ." is a phrase from a popular song and evokes the feeling of everything wonderful and exciting about a wedding.

Throughout the year your Observer Newspaper publishes many engagement announcements and serves area newlyweds as a showcase for their weddings.

"SPRING BRIDE" is an effort to offer expert advice to Observer area brides. We have interviewed a group of young women from this area, learned the questions they have and sought answers from local bridal consultants and business people.

The results are on the following pages along with attractive advertisements designed to enlighten those who are planning one of the most important steps in their lives . . .

people shampoo once a month, some once in two months — we've had ours now for six months and I see no indication that it needs to be shampooed."

Levy complimented Livonia and the surrounding area as a great one for keeping up to date with carpeting.

"People say they want their carpeting to last — but they really don't mean it. In ten years, which is how long most carpeting is guaranteed for, they're ready for a change and with all the new styles, textures and colors coming out — they should be."

A few random facts regarding carpeting for our brides-to-be include the fact that the most popular color is red, that carpeting is made tough and durable making "throw rugs" unnecessary.

If Kathie and Larry and other young newlyweds want to skip step two — the purchase of inexpensive carpeting — and step up from a rug to good carpeting, they'll make a lot of people happy, including themselves.

"LET YOUR UNITED RENT-ALL DEALER HELP YOU"

Kathie Brown plans a summer wedding. She will marry Larry Coulter in August.

We thought Kathie would appreciate some expert advice about carpeting and so we called on Dave Levy of RITE CARPET, Livonia.

"We don't talk to new-lweds," said Levy and explained that it isn't because he wouldn't like to, but rather because young couples usually rent apartments where carpeting is furnished and if it is not, they usually invest in an inexpensive rug.

"We see these people in four or five years. In fact, most of our customers are in the 30-40-year age bracket. Their first investment was a low-cost rug, their second most likely a cheaper carpeting and when we see them, it's their third time around — after they've been 'burned' — and now they're looking for quality," said Levy.

He spoke of the recent "shag revolution" in carpeting and explained that this type of carpeting was installed six years ago in Rite Carpet showroom. He wasn't boasting — just illustrating how his firm meets the challenge of constant innovations in carpeting.

One kind of carpeting that many brides-to-be may be wondering about is kitchen carpeting.

Levy gives expert advice here:

"It's great! Five years ago I thought it was a crazy idea," he said. As he talked we realized he meant crazy wonderful not crazy impractical.

"It took us nearly six months to make the first sale. I finally persuaded friends of mine to install it in their kitchen. I knew they'd be frank. Pretty soon the reports began to come in and they were favorable. Today, kitchen carpeting represents 25% of our business," he said.

"Of course, it isn't for everyone," he added.

When we asked him what he meant he said candidly, "I've seen the linoleum in some kitchens and know that not all housewives should have carpeting in that area."

Levy has kitchen carpeting in his own house and spoke enthusiastically about it:

"You have to vacuum daily, but as far as shampooing — some

"Why not?" was the reaction of Dorothy Wooley of MONTGOMERY WARD Bridal Salon, but she added that it is sometimes easier to "go by the book" because it can be a port in the storm.

Mrs. Wooley said that a frequent question she is asked is one involving a second wedding.

"Girls who are being married for the second time ask whether they may wear white and of course the answer is "No," she said.

As she talked an entirely different approach to the selection of gowns came to light. The gowns Mrs. Wooley talked about were within the price range of any young bride on a strict budget. They were, if we may coin a phrase, "charge-cardable."

"We carry 12 samples," said Mrs. Wooley. If the bride selects one of the dozen creations available at Montgomery Ward, she can expect to pay from $75 to $125 for it.

"We have a gown, veil and train ensemble for $75," Mrs. Wooley said and explained that veils from $20 to $30 are available.

What about bride's maids and the maid of honor dresses?

"They run from $35 to $40," said Mrs. Wooley.

We did a bit of fast addition and discovered that if a bride is faced with a strict budget, she can arrange a lovely wedding for less than $300.

Of course, this takes care of only your gown and those of your attendants, but if you persuade grandma to bake your cake and cut a few corners elsewhere, you'll have more money to spend on your honeymoon or your honeymoon with the wedding party — it's up to you!

Beverly Wrenn of Garden City will be the bride of Denny Calvin in another year.

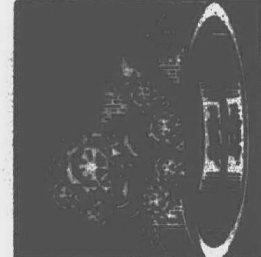

Beverly has already begun to think about her wedding and wondered if it is permissible to change a rule in the books devoted to formal and semi-formal weddings.

We discovered that there are many views on this subject within the bridal consultant field.

"Change it if you want to..." seems to be the rule of thumb. It's your day — make it what you feel as long as it's meaningful. In a time when young couples are writing their own vows, this advice came as no surprise.

Debra Wickwire of Livonia will marry Claude Ricketts of Northville. The couple plan an August wedding.

Debra's mother asked a good question regarding a space-age innovation -- Teflon cookware. She asked us to learn whether they are a good investment for the bride and as wedding gifts.

We talked to Robert Raught of CROWLEY'S and came away not only with the answer, but we are delighted to tell our prospective brides that Raught will have available at all Crowley stores a check list of housewares and some mighty important why's and why nots regarding them.

On the subject of Teflon -- pros and cons -- Raught said,

"Yes, Teflon is a good investment. The only problem is that it will eventually wear off -- even Teflon II. A great deal depends on the care given the cookware. Obviously, the better the care, the longer the wear, but as far as the ease of cooking, I'd say it's far superior."

Raught said "no" to only one appliance as far as Teflon is concerned. "I would not invest in an iron with a Teflon plate. It will wear out and scratch when it comes in contact with a metal zipper or sharp button."

We left pots and pans for a moment and got down to the nitty gritty of caring for floors.

"What a bride selects to clean her home depends on the individual. If she's the type of person who would rather get down on her hands and knees and scrub, I'd suggest a different purchase than I would to one who plans to use an electric floor polisher."

"There are women who prefer a corn broom to a fluff-top broom. It's up to the individual. They can buy anything they want to get the job done," said Forest.

He also mentioned the fact that like the milk picher on the table a lot of the bride's cleaning habits will follow in "ma-me's" footsteps.

During a "second conversation" with Raught, we discovered that he had been working on the planned brochure which will be available next month, and had arrived at six "musts" for a new bride's kitchen.

They are a coffee maker, an iron, a can opener, a mixer, a toaster, and an electric fry-pan. Not satisfied with telling our brides - to - be that these are what she needs, the brochure will tell her the most important features to look for when buying them.

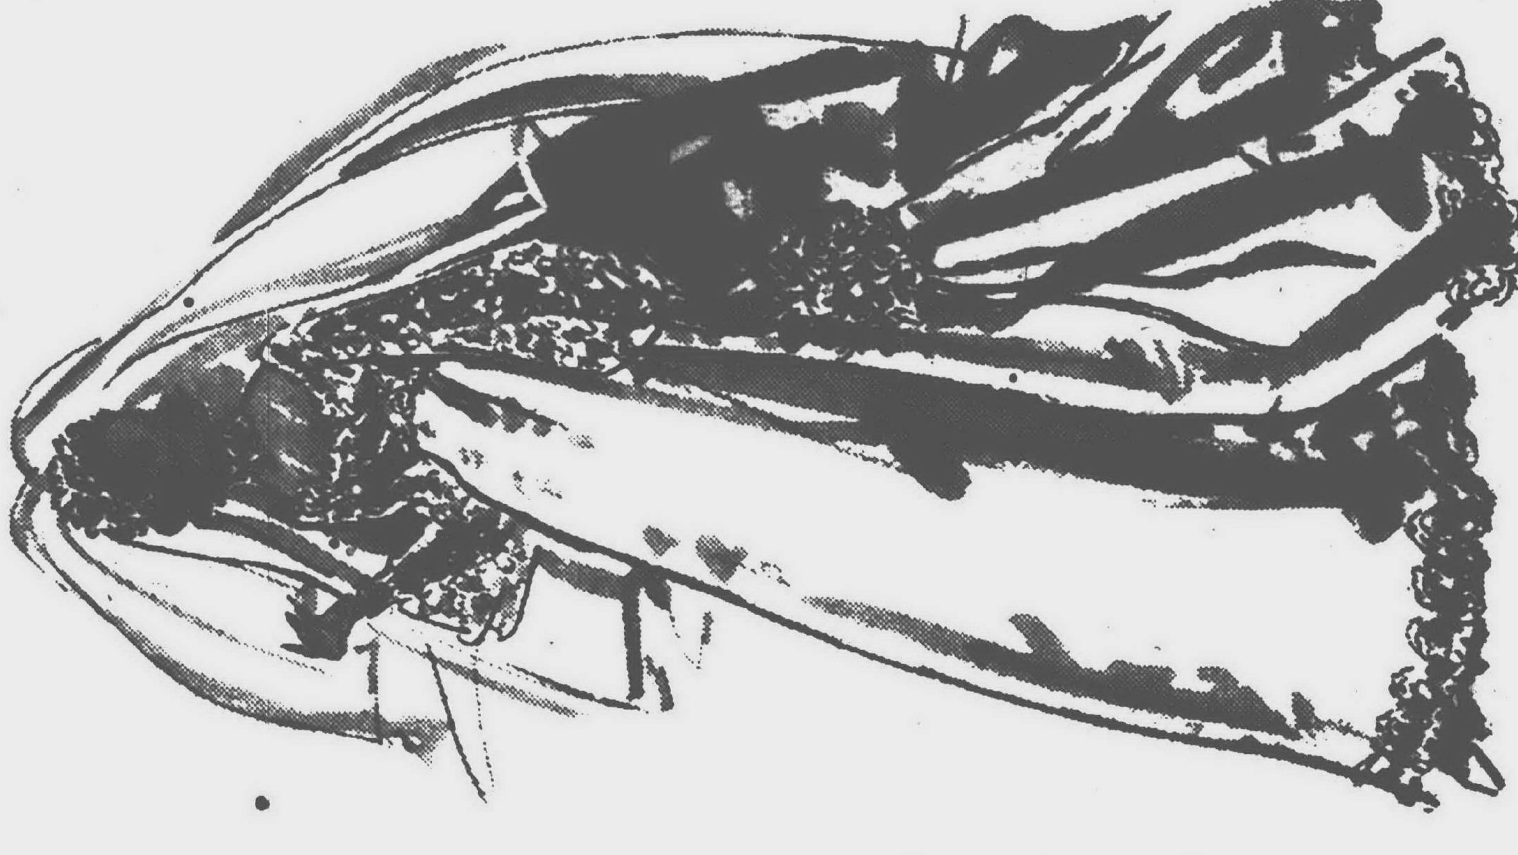

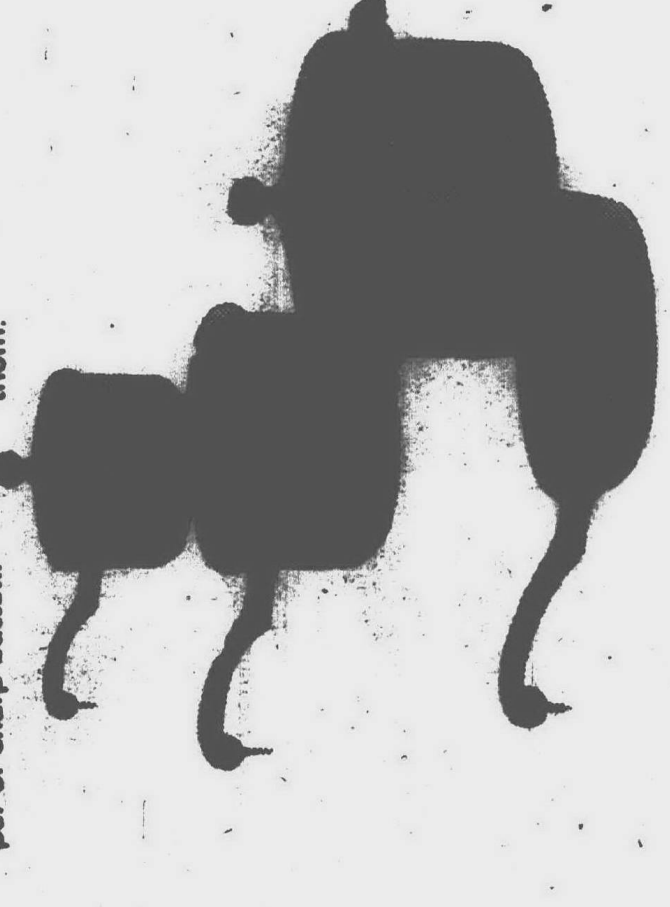

Marcy Nebrezny of Livonia will be the autumn bride of Robert Hardin. Although she has nearly a year to plan her wedding, we thought she would enjoy some advice from Kay McEwan of JACOBSON'S, Dearborn.

We asked Mrs. McEwan whether there were any absolute "no-no's" involved with any phase of a wedding and she said there is one rule that everyone ignores.

"One major 'don't' is that no member of the family should ever give the bride a shower and yet they do it all the time -- a mother-in-law-to-be or a favorite aunt will, most always give the bride a shower."

The subject of showers led us to the subject of Jacobson's bridal registry.

"When the bride visits us for the first time, we suggest that she register with us. We will call our registry if we do not have the time to personally take them down. They will send us one of their representatives who will personally see that they are registered."

When the bride-to-be is registered for all the household necessities she will need, she should let her friends and relatives know where she is registered. It makes their task of selecting just the right gift (that will not be duplicated) much easier.

"We will many times set a table using the bride's selection of silver and her china pattern," said Mrs. McEwan. "We always ask her consent to do this and enjoy doing it because it follows our policy of giving personal service."

Mrs. McEwan had some facts for our prospective brides that are a sign of modern times.

"We've dispensed with gloves altogether -- the girls' hands are busy with bouquets and without gloves they have one less thing to worry about. On the subject of headpieces, she said,

"As a matter of fact, we don't sell a lot of these."

We thought that perhaps the mother of the bride might feel elated without a word of advice to ask Mrs. McEwan if she had a word or two to offer them.

"If the mother of the bride selects a long gown, this doesn't mean that the mother of the bride must wear a long gown. But if the bride's mother chooses a short gown -- the bridegroom's mother cannot wear a long gown."

Mrs. McEwan's conversation was filled with advice and information for brides-to-be.

"I don't know them yet, but they have a lot of ideas and advice. They have let me know that they are working with them for three or four months I have to say that."

Gay Ford and Thomas Webster of Farmington have announced their engagement and although no wedding date has been set we thought this pert and pretty bride-to-be would enjoy a conversation we had with Kathy Moffat of ELLIOTT TRAVEL SERVICE, Wondertid.

The subject, of course, was the honeymoon scene. Mrs. Moffat told us just what to expect when planning your first vacation together.

"If it's a winter wedding, I assume the couple plan to honeymoon in a warm climate. We have packages, on a seven-night basis, but the important thing is to get to us early.

"I have honeymoon arrangements here on my desk — they were married December 1 and they leave February 28," she said.

Mrs. Moffat explained that the only difference in the rate of a honeymoon package is the view from the hotel room.

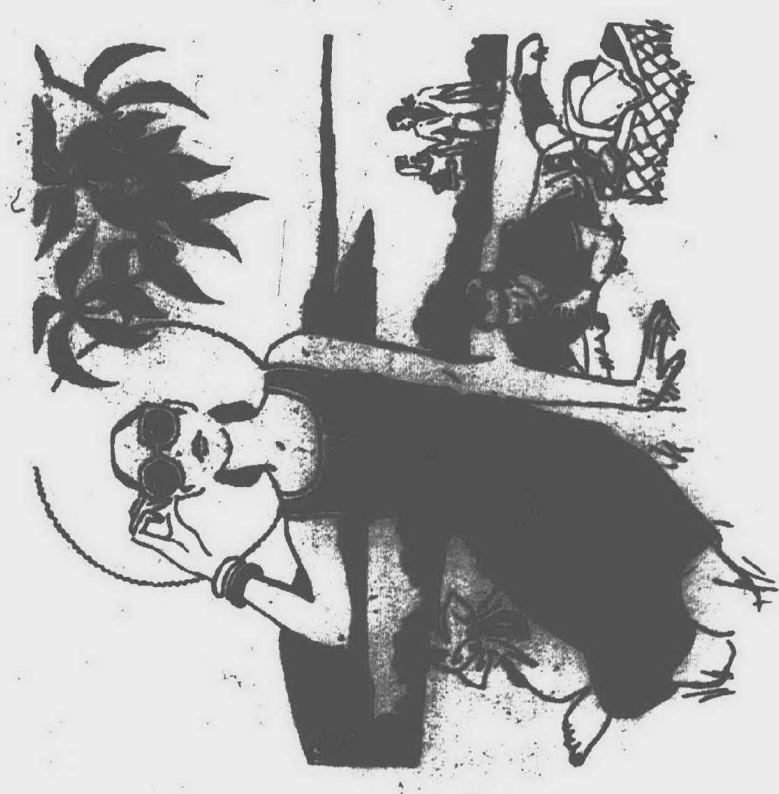

"The swimming pool is a first class rate, the ocean is a deluxe rate — the higher up the room, the more it costs," she said.

Jamaica is a popular honeymoon spot according to Mrs. Moffat, but no matter where you go, it is best to plan to visit your travel bureau at least three months in advance.

"We find out what kind of a budget the couple has and based on this we find out how far they can go," she said.

Mrs. Moffat said that many couples read the attractive advertisements in bridal magazines, but they are given no idea what the advertised package will cost.

In most cases a honeymoon averages between $800 to $1,000 with approximately $300 to be held in reserve for "spending money."

Nancy Montgomery will marry Robert J. Monte May 28.

This pretty Farmington bride - to - be is not sure where or when she'll begin housekeeping because her fiancé is a service man.

But when Nancy and Robert begin to think about a home and all the investments that go with it they'll want some good advice about appliances.

That's why we called Rod Rodriguez of BILL & ROD'S APPLIANCES, Livonia. We knew we'd get straight forward advice for our young couple and we did.

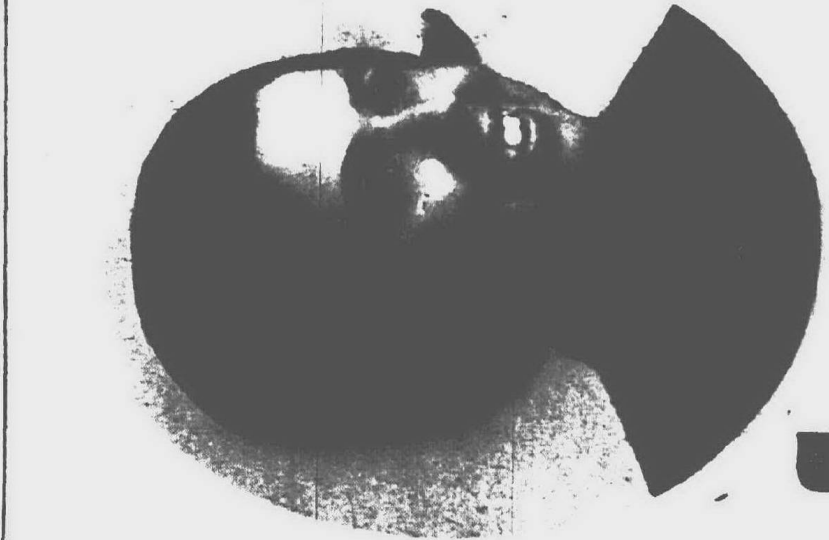

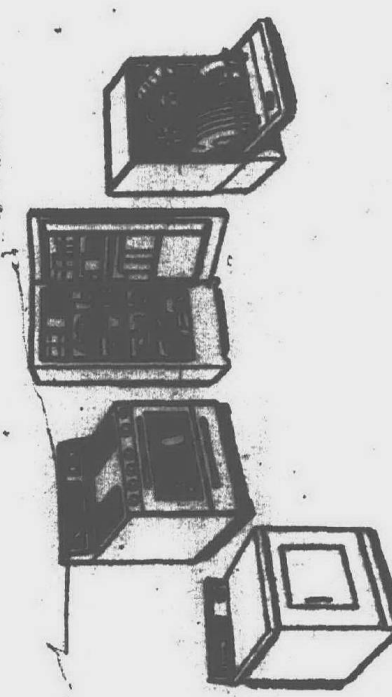

"Stick to a name brand -- one that is nationally known or locally known like Whirlpool, which is made in Benton Harbor," Rodriguez said.

He said that it's "rough" to go into an apartment and invest in appliances that are apartment scale.

"Most apartments furnish stove, refrigerator and they usually have a coin operated laundry," he said.

He did suggest that a good investment for an apartment would be a portable dishwasher.

"Both of the newlyweds will probably work, and with an automatic dishwasher they'll save three Sharan Kasir of Garden City will wed David Langlois of Detroit.

Sharan was one of our brides - to - be who submitted her picture to the Observer along with her engagement announcement. Sharan's picture happened to be the only one available and of course she requested its return.

Sharan's case is not unusual, many brides ask for the return of their pictures and when their announcement does not appear within a few editions following their contact with us, they begin to wonder what could possibly be wrong.

We thought we could save a lot of wondering by a lot of lovely young ladies with a quick one with the Observer. Margaret Miller, 21, of Detroit, hundreds of wedding and engagement announcements during her career as a journalist and women's news editor.

"First, forms are available," said Mrs. Miller, "and it is best to fill these out completely, but if this is impossible I would appreciate the names of both parents -- bride's and bridegroom's -- address, the planned wedding date if there is one and if not, the fact that there is no wedding date set. Also, it is essential to have a telephone number where they can contact the bride-to-be."

A good clear photograph and a glass picture right on up to a studio should accompany the announcement information, she said.

The question of color photographs is one that Mrs. Miller is asked quite often.

"If it's a good clear studio color picture, fine, but we do prefer black and white because there is no doubt that they will reproduce," she said.

In answer to the big question -- "how long will I have to wait before you publish my announcement?" -- Mrs. Miller said, "All announcements are recorded and used on a first come, first served basis unless there are special circumstances such as a wedding coming up in a very short time or a fiancé going overseas.

"Then there is always the problem of the amount of space available to me. Each edition varies and many times I will have a large list of announcements and very little space for them," she said.

Just for fun, find this weekly Observer women's pages and measure the amount of space it takes to print an announcement -- then check the length of your own announcement.

It is the job of our women's editor to select announcements to print and to insure that they are properly formatted and accompanied by a stamped self-addressed envelope or clip in at our office after we have published your announcement.

There is a slight charge -- $2.50 for a single column picture and $5 for a double column -- which covers handling and coloring.

"I can't promise to use every detail of a wedding description, but I always try," said Mrs. Miller.

She added that wedding pictures of both bride and bridegroom will not be used and that occasionally she receives an announcement that has no connection with the Observer's circulation area. She would appreciate knowing whether the bride or bridegroom have relatives in the area or perhaps are employed in one of these communities.

Girls a lot to remember why not file "Spring Brides" in a safe place so that two or three months before your wedding you will know just how to make this important announcement.

Brenda Perry will be a lovely bride.

Although there is no definite date set, Brenda will marry Cary Coleman and when the big day does arrive our wish is that everything will be perfect for this Westland couple.

Marilyn Shapiro of BEL-CREST PHOTO, Farmington, has some excellent advice for prospective brides like Brenda.

Mrs. Shapiro has photographed more brides and weddings than she can remember, so listen carefully to her advice.

"The beautiful bride is twice as beautiful when she is relaxed, and by working with her professional photographer, from the date the wedding is set, she can be assured of not only beautiful wedding and bridal photographs, but of enjoying her wedding because all of her planning has been done."

Mrs. Shapiro, a member of the Professional Photographers of America, Inc., notes that just as styles in fashion have changed, so too, has bridal photography.

"Whether the wedding is traditional or in a more contemporary manner, today's bridal photography has a natural look about it. This can only be achieved when the bride and all concerned are totally relaxed before the camera," she said.

Before the formal wedding portrait, she advises brides to decide on the type of portrait and wedding photographs — will they be formal or informal?

Discuss your ideas with the photographer of your choice at your first meeting.

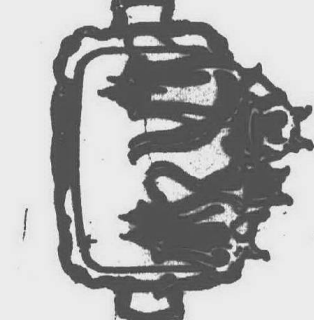

"Let your photographer know the type of gown, flowers and makeup you are considering," said Mrs. Shapiro. This is important because you want to be assured of that fresh, natural look.

Make sure your photographer knows the religious traditions of your church, synagogue or home. As a member of the PP of A, he subscribes to a Code of Wedding Ethics that guarantees the bride dignified and unobtrusive behavior on his part.

Mrs. Shapiro suggests that the bride assign a friend or member of the family to indicate the people to be photographed at the wedding and reception, or both.

"You can only have your bridal and wedding photographs taken once," said Mrs. Shapiro.

"By following just these few simple tips, any bride can be more relaxed and more beautiful for her wedding and her wedding pictures."

Wendy Bray of Livonia will marry John Toland of Birmingham.

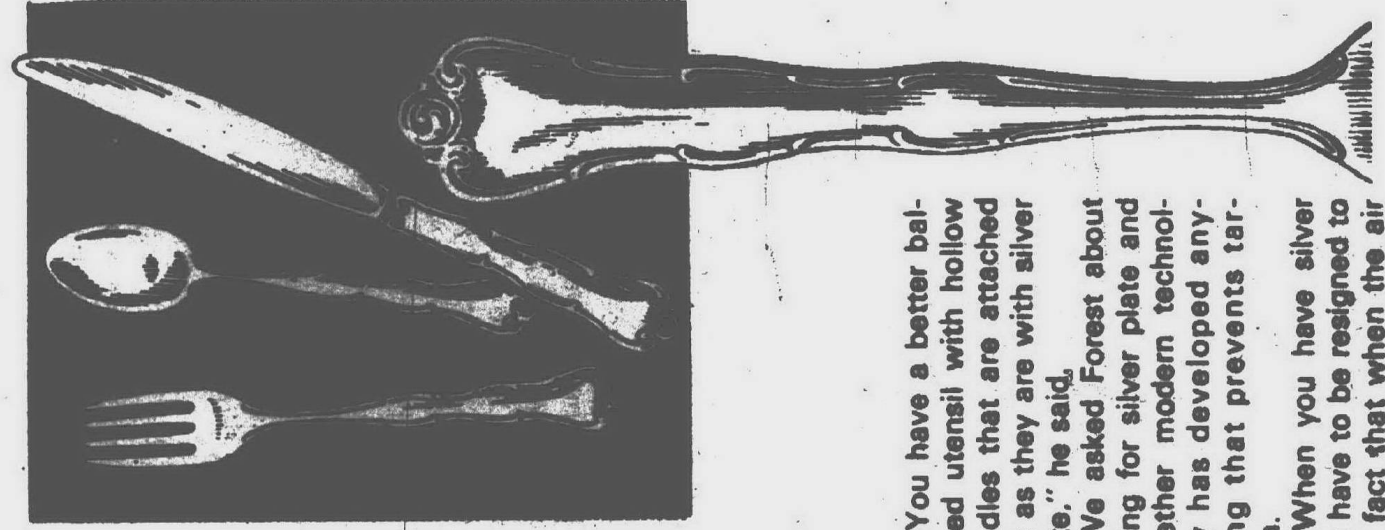

No date has been set, but we didn't let that bother us. We went right ahead and called Jack Forest of ROSE JEWELERS, Wonderland, to talk not about wedding rings, but silverware.

"Every young couple should know what to consider when investing in everyday stainless flatware and 'special occasion' silver."

Jack Forest of ROSE JEWELERS, Wonderland, advises young couples to invest in a better grade of stainless.

"We're talking $50 or $60 for a fairly decent set of stainless steel," he said and explained that this price includes a service for eight.

Forest said that anything less expensive would not be quality but would be "stamped" by a machine and unfinished.

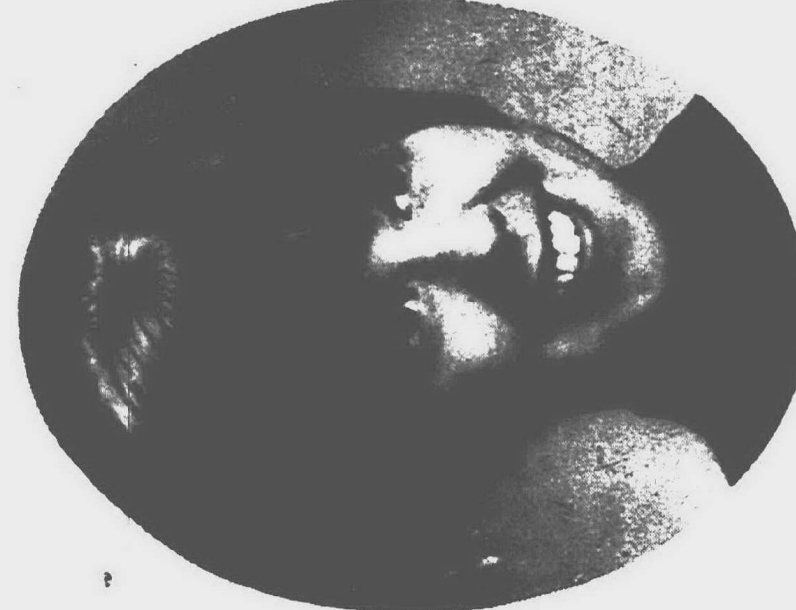

"You have a better balanced utensil with hollow handles that are attached just as they are with silver plate," he said.

We asked Forest about caring for silver plate and whether modern technology has developed anything that prevents tarnish.

"When you have silver you have to be resigned to the fact that when the air reaches it — it will tarnish. There are anti-tarnish cleaners and today's silver chests are lined with anti-tarnish material, which minimizes the need for cleaning," he said.

Actually, silver improves with age because of this chemical reaction to air — the deeply engraved patterns retain this tarnish and "mellow" the silver.

Forest advised against putting sterling silver flatware or hollow ware (grave boats, serving dishes, etc.) in a dishwasher.

We talked to Mary Alcoma of DONNE BELLA Beauty Salon, Garden City.

"I suggest that the bride make an appointment two or three weeks ahead," she said.

"When they go to the salon they should bring their headpiece, and a picture or description of their gown."

"We appreciate a chance to advise and experiment with their hair style and would like a chance to try several hair styles," she said.

Miss Alcoma said that many brides seem to be afraid to ask a hairdresser's advice.

"They shouldn't hesitate to ask. We like to give advice that is compatible with their dress and veil."

If the gown has a high neckline the hair is probably going to be most attractive up and away from the face.

"If the dress is cut low, the hair should be in most cases by styled down," she said and again stressed the importance of bringing the headpiece to the salon.

"When the bride first calls we try to give advance advice over the telephone, so she will be prepared. Younger girls aren't used to beauty parlors—they expect a miracle, and at the eleventh hour this isn't always possible," she said.

So, if you belong to the natural "now" generation and have a center part and long, shining locks, it may be a good idea to search for a hair style you like and a friendly beautician like Miss Alcoma.
