It's Too Binding

Plymouth Township's Board of Trustees doesn't like the Michigan law which requires binding arbitration in labor contract disputes with firemen organizations, and has said so in a resolution which tells the board's objections.

The Place To Ask

Modular scheduling is due to be introduced at Plymouth High School next fall and the student day then will be divided into 20 segments instead of six. To answer questions which are puzzling parents, an open hearing on the program has been planned for Tuesday night.

Also Too Binding

Changes in the physical education program of Plymouth schools were indicated in a report to the Board of Education, and even under study is concern for such a matter as the attire students wear for gym classes. In some cases, the tights are too tight.

THESE EIGHT MEN met Thursday in an air of amiability to begin negotiations on a new contract between the Plymouth Education Association, which represents the teachers, and the Board of Education. More than $6 million will be at stake in their talks. Clockwise, the first four

Bitterness Of '69 Missing In New School Negotiations

By FRED DELANO

A striking contrast to the attitudes of 1969 was evident Thursday when bargaining teams for Plymouth's teachers and the school board began work on a new contract to succeed the one which was accepted under court duress two years ago.

Gone, or at least hidden far under the surface, was the bitterness that marked negotiations and the resulting strike which closed schools for three weeks the last time a wage and working conditions pact was on the table awaiting mutual acceptance.

Missing from direct face-to-face negotiations, too, were the chief protagonists of '69, Supt. James Rossman for the administrative and Kenneth Gabel for the Plymouth Education Association, whose personal antagonism underscored most of the prior bargaining meetings.

There was an attitude of professional cordiality in the air Thursday as the two four-man teams gathered, and while the bargaining which follows may be tough and hard-nosed, both sides insist they hope an agreement can be reached by the end of the current school year. Representing the administration were Norman Kee, Melvin Blunk, John Hoben and Earl Gibson. Teacher representatives were Dallas Goss, Ray Homer, John Ryder and Bill Heath.

NO ECONOMIC DEMANDS were presented by the PEA in the first session, which lasted one hour and was devoted mainly to setting ground rules. However, there's no question but what this will be the most difficult area of agreement when that stage is reached.

Last Tuesday, the Board of Education approved a concept of a basic six per cent salary increase for administrative personnel. This involves boosting the base from $11,600 to $12,300, with individual salaries to be set by applying factors determined through an evaluation study by the board's personnel committee.

The proposed 1971-72 school budget prepared by Blunk, who is assistant superintendent for business, pegs anticipated expenditures $1.1 higher than than for the current year. In round figures, he foresees a total budget for the coming year of $9.9 million compared to the present $8.8 million. But makes it clear that this calculation is without consideration of across-the-board wage increases for teachers.

The PEA salary package in the present agreement represents more than $6 million. If the six per cent for administrative personnel becomes "par for the course," the budget could go up at least another half-million.

PERSONNEL DIRECTOR KEE, who is chief bargainer for the school board team, said as negotiations opened that he and his colleagues are "most aware of the responsibilities we have as representatives of the board which, in turn, is the voice of the taxpayers in education."

He added that "being aware of the current economic press, we still are hopeful of an early settlement."

Homer, who is a social studies teacher at the high school, has the role of chief bargainer for the PEA.

It was agreed between them Thursday to meet weekly for the time being and the next session will be April 8. It has been agreed that 12 of the non-economic sections of the present master contract will be reviewed at that time.

Although the PEA has not announced whether its intention is to gain a contract for more than one year, the administration has included in its written proposals a suggestion that a three-year pact be considered.

AT THE OPENING of Thursday's session, Goss, who is the PEA president, read into the record a statement setting forth the position of the teachers in entering into the bargaining procedure. This is that statement:

"The Plymouth Education Association enters into negotiations this year with great interest. A number of the concerns placed on the table in previous years of bargaining are still with us; some concerns have had processes for their resolution developed; and time has brought some new areas of concern.

"The members of the school board have come to the teachers this year to hear them speak out about their youngsters, school buildings, and the teaching profession. The scope of this endeavor on the part of the board and the teachers has been all-encompassing. A better understanding of district problems has been initiated through these efforts. The board is to be complimented.

"It is hoped that negotiations for a new contract this year will proceed in a manner similar to that used by the board in meeting with teachers; that is, as much in a problem-solving way as is possible.

"The prognosis for consummation of a new contract by the end of the present school year is good. Both the association and the board have pledged every effort to that effect.

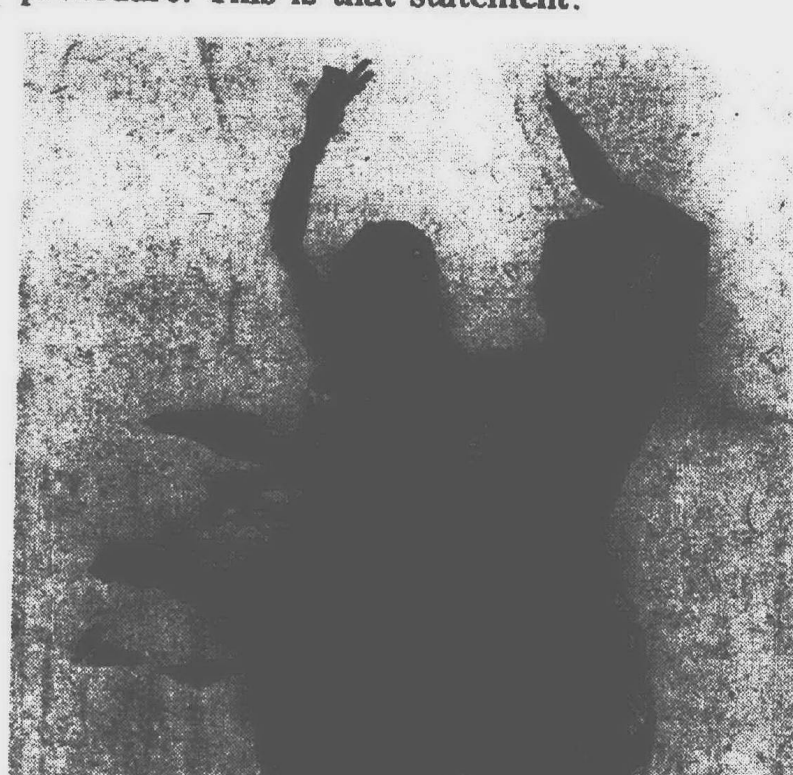

"THE MAJOR GOAL of teachers is to furnish the best education for youngsters that it is within their ability and power to accomplish. One of the means to that end is the responsibility of the board in attracting and keeping not only qualified teachers but also teachers of recognized ability and professionalism.

"This means willingness to make every effort to provide by contract those compensations and services that districts of equal image and capability provide.

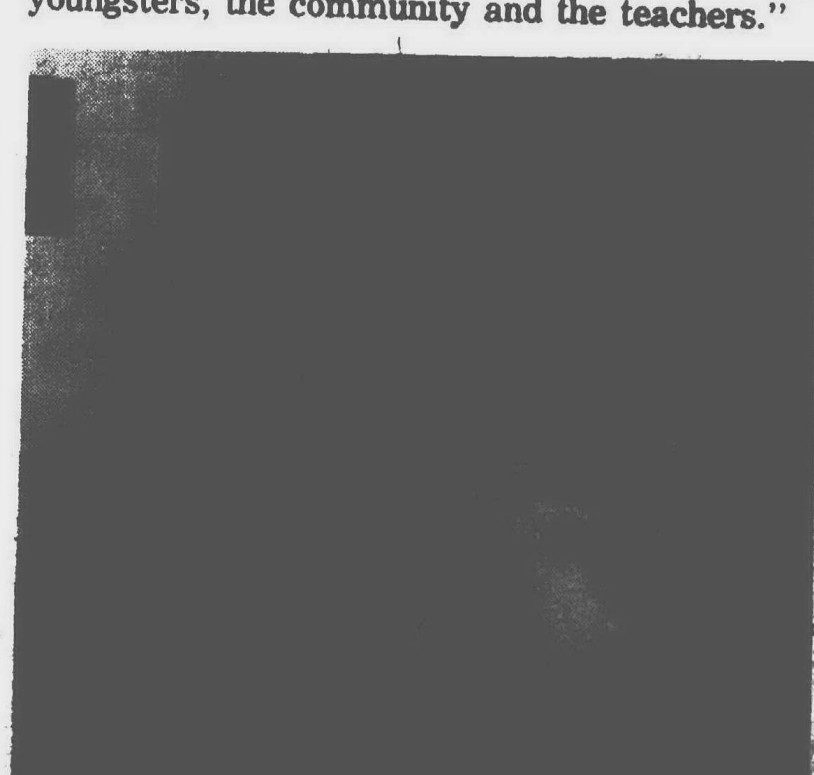

"The teachers of Plymouth enter into these negotiations with great hope for the settlement of an equitable contract at the earliest possible date. Implicit in this hope is the interest of the youngsters, the community and the teachers."

Twp. Asks Arbitration Act Repeal

Repeal of the Michigan law requiring binding arbitration in disputes between a municipality and its fire and police departments has been urged by the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees.

Unanimous approval was given by the board to a resolution which asserted that implementation of the 1969 act passed by the Legislature "has brought financial chaos upon local government."

"Decisions of arbitration panels have been made without regard to any municipal budgetary condition, financial distress or revenue raising ability," it was charged.

The resolution claimed that arbitration decisions have been "irresponsible and contrary to sound government and fiscal responsibility."

Copies have been sent to Sen. Carl Pursell and Rep. James Tierney, who represent the Plymouth area in the Legislature.

Room Honoring Pastor's Memory To Be Dedicated

The Richard T. Markham Room, honoring the memory of a former pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Farmington, will be dedicated by the church on Palm Sunday.

Dedication rites are scheduled for both the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services, and a fellowship coffee hour will be held in the newly-completed room after each service.

The Rev. Richard T. Markham was pastor of the church from 1955 to 1966 and died in 1968.

THE ROOM that has been remodeled through cooperative church effort is the west portion of the rear transept of the 50-year-old church.

It was that portion of the church that some years ago was used to screen the first 35 mm motion pictures shown in Farmington.

During Rev. Markham's pastorate, the auditorium and stage area were remodeled into a sanctuary extension and a choir room.

He also had wished to remodel the west room into an all-purpose church parlor.

THE REMODELING now is completed and the room is furnished in a flexible manner so it can be used for fellowship meetings for all ages as well as small weddings and services.

Special Palm Sunday music by the church choir is planned for both services. The public is invited to attend either service and see the remodeled room.

The church is located at Grand River and Warner in downtown Farmington.

Bob Vernon Heads Kenwood Revivals

Bob J. Vernon, one of the brothers who pioneered "Homestead, U.S.A." will conduct services April 4 to 6 in the Kenwood Church of Christ, 2020 Merriman, Livonia.

His revival services, including Bible-based preaching and musical presentations, will be held at 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. Sunday, April 4, and at 10 a.m. Monday, April 5, and 7 p.m. Friday, April 6.

Vernon also will meet with the Sunday morning school, which offers classes for all ages from infants through adult. A money-raising planned program for young children is scheduled during all the revival services.

BOB J. VERNON

"HOMESTEAD, U.S.A." is produced by the Christian Revival Mission, operated by four of the Vernon brothers and based in Springfield, Mo. It is carried by 150 television stations.

In addition to producing the program, the Vernon brothers have several record albums on the market, some including their songs in the musical selections.

BOB VERNON also has made five vocal albums on his own and has written several songs and produced three records. They are "Back to Jerusalem," "Moscow to Moscow," and "Eyewitness Behind the Iron Curtain," a film based on the brothers' trip to Russia.

In 1967 he and his daughter, Becky, were sent by the U.S. Defense Department to put on morale for the troops in

The record's title itself seems something of a grotesque grabber: "Jesus Christ, Superstar."

And if this sobriquet does not appear sufficiently blasphemous, consider the format: The Passion of Jesus Christ—in rock and roll.

This initial reaction, plus the timid piety of some commercial electronic media, apparently motivated the Italian broadcasting company, RIA, to judge this recording as "too irreverent in tone."

But it was subsequently played on Vatican Radio—just as it is being played in churches throughout the U.S.

IT IS NOT irreverent. It is immensely moving; an eloquently serious rock opera by two young Brits, Andrew Webber and Tim Rice, which achieved a gold record (one million sold) within two months of its being issued in the States.

And in what appears to this writer to be a thoroughly sincere and respectful effort to express The Passion narrative in very modern idiom, "Jesus Christ, Superstar" seems no more irreverent than translating the Gospels into English (for which men were once burned at the stake).

This opera will hardly displace Bach's "St. Matthew Passion"—despite Transcontinental Music Co.'s Eastern Division buyer Woody Howard. Woody waxed aye in writing: "The secular works of Bach, Beethoven, Handel and other composers suddenly become relegated to the class of mundane composition."

NOR WILL the classic beauty of the King James Version of the Bible ever be superceded by any of the current rash of new translations—however valuably they modernize the Holy Scriptures. "Superstar" not being bound to the manuscripts, is able to modernize even further—in what can be recognized as a legitimate effort at a 20th Century version. For example:

Caiphas to Judas: "This isn't blood money—it's a fee, nothing more." (Crowd: "Good old Judas.")

Pilate to Jesus: "You're in deep trouble friend; how can someone in your state be so cool about his fate?"

Jesus (in some intriguing and valuable exegesis by the lyricist): "Save tomorrow for tomorrow, think about today instead... Surely you're not saying we have the resources to save the poor from their lot?... For all you care this wine could be my blood—this bread could be my body."

Pilate to Jesus: "You're in deep trouble friend; how can someone in your state be so cool about his fate?"

Jesus (in some intriguing and valuable exegesis by the lyricist): "Save tomorrow for tomorrow, think about today instead... Surely you're not saying we have the resources to save the poor from their lot?... For all you care this wine could be my blood—this bread could be my body."

ONE HIGH POINT of the opera is the characterization of Herod, whose jaded and biting mockery comes alive in an inimitable rag: "So you are the Christ, you're the great Jesus Christ!"

Prove to me that you're no fool: walk across my swimming pool!...

Prove to me that you're divine: change my water into wine!...

Feed my household with this bread—you can do it on your head!...

Come on, King of the Jews!

The other pinnacle is the hauntingly beautiful love song of Mary Magdalene—utterly devoid of the cheap sensuousness often accompanying the titillating theme of divine seduction. Rather it is akin to generations of women who suffered the emotional agony of falling in love with a priest who is loyally devoted to celibacy:

"I don't know how to love him... Should I bring him down? Should I scream and shout?... Should I speak of love—let my feelings out?... He scares me so... I want him so... I love him so..."

WHAT IS PARTICULARLY remarkable is this Passion Play ending with the death of Jesus—there is not even a hint of the Resurrection. This serves to change the Gospel ("the good news") into a one act tragedy: a Superstar that went out; the light that failed.

And while tragedy is a basic theatrical art form, there should be some reason for such significant remembrance—particularly in consideration of Anatole France's poignant story of Pontius Pilate in retirement. When asked if he remembers Jesus whom he crucified, Pilate replies:

"There were so many crucifixions."

SINGING IN WESTLAND BAPTIST—The Washington Bible College choir, under the direction of Prof. James Bos, will present a sacred concert at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, April 8, in Westland Baptist Church, 35375 Ann Arbor Trail, Livonia. The choir is one of several musical groups that tour from the college located in the nation's capital. Its four-year course is designed to train men and women for missionary, pastoral, Bible teaching and other Christian service.

Easter Message Says:

'You Cannot Destroy Love'

By THE REV. JAMES W. SCHAEFER
Pastor, United Church of Christ, Livonia

Our Christian faith is unique in some respects from all other religions of the world. Some seek to remove people from this life in a kind of temporary escape or in dreams of some future existence. Some try to soothe the life of the individual, reconciling him not to God but to the suffering that he knows in his life — accept your lot and destiny. Some are fatalistic; some are animalistic.

Out of our Judeo-Christian heritage comes the belief that God is the source and cause of life. He created it all — and with a purpose. We are co-creators with God in the ongoing process of building the Kingdom of God.

THE WORLD may ignore God and even go against His purposes, but it is He and He loves the world and all within it. Evil may be rampant in the world, but it does not need to be that way.

Potentiality and creativity are part of our freedom. The possibilities are here.

Some of the uniqueness of our Christian faith can be seen in our dependence on "Jesus of Nazareth, our crucified and risen Lord." Our statement of faith says that He, God, "has come to us and shared our common lot." John Robinson of England writes that "Jesus represents God to us... to identify with men to the uttermost in suffering, serving, loving."

WE ARE CLOSE to ending the Lenten season with Holy Week, remembering the final and conclusive events in the life of Jesus. His life ended with death on the cross on the day we title Good Friday.

The drama is completed with the Easter experience when the followers of Jesus were able to say with certainty "He lives."

This is "the" miracle of the biblical witness. Those who had no more hope, whose dreams of a new life were shattered with the trial and death, came to a new life and new hope which we call the resurrection. And rightly so.

How well we know that words can be used to deceive, to confuse, to advocate and to make good impressions. With Jesus, we are not limited to words alone. In His life, we find an integrity of words, actions and the final self-giving love of life given—death on the cross.

To describe Holy Week as an observance of tragedy is to say that Jesus lost—that He was defeated. Not so.

In purely human terms of war, and God acted to show power and victory. But His approval inhering the lives in His terms, in the ways of Jesus' followers with the God, He won. You can destroy truth, the life, but you cannot destroy the love. And so it Risen, He lives."

A PRAYER

by Peter Marshall

As we are willing to kneel again as children, then shall we discover for ourselves the glory Thou hast revealed, and find the wonder of it gripping our hearts and preparing them for Thy peace. So shall we... enter into the Kingdom of God and know it, and rejoice in it.

In Thy name, who didst dare come to earth as a little child, we pray.

Amen.

The two soloists will join the Village Chamber Players. Works to be performed include "Three Sonatas" by Scarlatti, featuring Doppman; Mozart's Sonata No. 15 in B flat major with Doppman and Staples; "Dance de la Chevre" by Honegger with flutist Shaul Ben-Meir.

A special children's movie will be shown during the second half of the concert.

Skaters Set 5th Show

Four performances sold out, so the first Livonia ice show is giving a fifth this weekend in the Ford Ice Arena, Farmington Road at Lyndon.

Some 900 tickets went on sale Wednesday for an extra performance at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, April 4. They may be purchased at the arena and cost $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

All tickets were sold earlier for shows Friday evening, Saturday afternoon and evening and Sunday afternoon.

THE SHOW, sponsored by the Livonia Parks and Recreation Department, is titled "Four Seasons in Ice." Participants are more than 600 amateur skaters from all over the area who have been learning skating in the department's classes.

NINETEEN numbers are included in the two-hour presentation, and soloists are

Marie Mazur, Brett Nagy, Cherry Johnson, Debbie Ellis, Fred Hartt, Hyman Shenkman, Barbara Thacker and Deedee Daniels. Directors are the department's skating instructors, Bev. Griffin, Sondra Morrill, Audrey Battenfield, Beverly Swan, Dawn Lyle and Nancy Goldston.

Number Of Entries Should Set Record

DETROIT
A record 1,000 entries are expected for the Michigan Horse Show Association's spring show which will run from May 20 through May 23 at the Michigan State Fairgrounds.

Co-sponsoring the event for the second year is the Moslem Arabian Horse Troop of Detroit.

Show chairman James B. Jones of Grand Blanc said this year's entries should easily surpass the 1970 total of 928 horses that competed for $9,100 in prize money.

MHSA REVIVED all-breed showing in the state in 1969 when the show attracted 626 entries and paid $7,200 in prizes.

"We fully expect this trend to continue this year and we are especially pleased that general spectator interest in horse showing is also increasing," Jones said.

As in last year's show, there will be 12 different divisions. These are American Saddlebred, Tennessee Walking Horse, Shetland Pony, Harness Pony, Morgan, Arabian, Palomino, Appaloosa, Quarter Horses and Hunter. Equitation classes are offered in the Saddle Seat, Stock Seat and Hunter divisions. Also Medal classes are offered in these three divisions.

THE SHOW is sanctioned by the American Horse Show, Tri-State Association, Michigan Arabian, Michigan Appaloosa and Michigan Quarter Horse Associations, the Michigan Pony and Justin Morgan Horse Clubs and the Palomino Horse Exhibitors of Michigan.

Sessions each day will start at 8 a.m., 1 p.m. and 7 p.m. Judges will be Tony Amaral, Frank D. Chapot, Thomas S. McCray and Mrs. Charles Crabtree.

C.A. Leech, of Fenton, is president of the Michigan Horse Show Association.

ELTON JOHN, the English rock star, will give a concert at the University of Detroit Memorial Building, 4001 W. McNichols, Friday, April 16, at 8:30 p.m. Appearing with him will be bass player Dee Murray and drummer Nigel Olsson. Tickets are available at the Memorial Building.

Miss Boyles Wins BAA Art Prize

Alison Boyles, a student at Farmington High School, is the winner of the Bloomfield Art Association's Ruby Williams scholarship for the spring term.

The scholarship was awarded Miss Boyles, of Robinwood Street, for her entry in a competition among high school students from the tri-community area. "Collage," a pen and ink drawing, was her winning work.

The BAA awards one scholarship each 10-week term on the basis of a competition judged by professional artists. The winning student is allowed to enroll in a class of his choice, and receives a one-year BAA student membership. Entries are displayed in the BAA rental gallery for one week.

RECEIVE SCHOLARSHIPS — These five musicians will receive $50 scholarships from the Livonia Youth Symphony Society, Inc., at a concert Sunday afternoon at 4, in Farmington High School. All are members of the Livonia Youth Symphony, which is presenting the concert. From left: Jill Trudgeon and Sarah Roth of Livonia, Vicki Nemeth of Westland, Eugene Milhizer of Livonia and Debbie Tomchak of Farmington.

A luncheon in the Thunderbird Inn, Plymouth, followed the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S MOTHER wore a pale green brocade coat and dress. Her corsage was of yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua silk shantung dress with an orchid corsage.

Both the bride and bridegroom are employed by the Ford Motor Co. They plan to make their home in Northville.

MRS. RUTH KLUTH Creative Cook To Keep Trying

"I'll try again," said the Livonia businesswoman who for two years running has taken second place in the Detroit Edison Queen of the Kitchen contest.

"But if I ever win I won't be able to go back," said Mrs. Roland Kluth, 34102 Coventry Drive, "and I do enjoy experimenting with recipes."

Ruth Kluth, personnel administrator for Brooks and Perkins, Inc., and mother of four daughters, said the two girls who still are at home feel as though they're guinea pigs for her recipe ideas.

"MOSTLY they don't mind," she said, but she didn't find many willing tasters for the "Tropical Sausage Stacks" concoction that took second place in the Edison cookoff for employed women last week.

That was because the recipes called for canned yams—not a popular food in the Kluth household.

But the judges in the 10th annual contest rated the dish one of the best in the competition for one-dish meals that can be put together in an hour.

FOR HER PRIZE, Mrs. Kluth won an electric hostess set including a fondue pot, hot platter and table broiler.

He recipe was published in a booklet with those of nine other finalists including winners Mrs. Marjorie Easto of Belleville.

Other area finalists were Patricia Bishop of Farmington, Ida Grenier of Livonia and Linda Hiltz of Plymouth.

The runner-up recipe: TROPICAL SAUSAGE STACKS
6 large pork sausage patties (1 lb.)
6 slices pineapple

1 can yams (1 lb. 7-oz.)
2/3 cup hot water
1 pkg. orange-flavored gelatin (3 oz.)
2 T brown sugar
1 T chopped onion
2 t dry mustard
grated rind of 1 lemon
3 T lemon juice
1/2 t salt
In an electric skillet, brown sausage patties on both sides. Pour off grease. In a small bowl, combine gelatin and hot water. Stir to dissolve. Add the brown sugar, onion, mustard, lemon rind, lemon juice and salt. Place a slice of pineapple on top of each sausage patty and spoon half the sauce over them. Cover and simmer while preparing the yams. Drain the yams and beat with electric mixer. Add 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1 tablespoon milk. Place a scoop of whipped yams on each pineapple slice. Spoon the remaining sauce over all. Cover and simmer about 10 minutes, basting once or twice. Remove stacks to warm platter and pour the sauce over them.

RU Seeks Replacement For Basketball Coach

Redford Union High will have a new basketball coach next season.

Dave Mattingly has resigned after handling the RU cagers for the past four seasons. He came to Redford Union from Dexter High near Ann Arbor.

RU came on strong in the closing weeks of the season, although failing to catch Bentley and Plymouth in the drive for one-two honors in the Suburban Six League.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
Howard Kraft has announced he has started a search to replace Mattingly. No announcement will be made until a successor is found. Mattingly thus becomes the second area cage coach to leave a Suburban Six League school.

George Fefles, who guided Bentley to the title in what he called just "a one-year return" to the job, repeatedly has said that he'll not handle the team again next season.

Fefles stepped in to plug a vacancy caused by illness after he had given up the post two years before to devote full-time to the post of Bentley's athletic director.

The possible curtailing of the faculty at Bentley could cause some problems in finding a successor.

Bentley had no spot on the faculty during the current school year to hire a teacher who also could coach the cagers.

"Now with major cuts in the faculty possible, we may have a more difficult time than ever trying to replace me as coach," Fefles said.

He can't see how the school could possibly drop several teachers and yet add somebody else for coaching duties.

"We're hopeful that everything will straighten itself out not only in the Livonia schools, but elsewhere," said Fefles.

Richard French, who averages 151 in the Krazy Kats League at Bowcraft Lanes, has good reason never to forget his trip to Alpena last weekend.

Bowling in the finals of the state-wide charities tournament he enjoyed two of the greatest thrills of his career.

After games of 163 and 183 he suddenly found the range and posted a 278 for a 624. It was the highest single and series he ever bowled. But that was not all.

With a "spot" of 102 pins he had a handicap count of 102 pins that gave him a final 726 and the $2,000 check that goes to the winner.

The annual tournament of the Greater Detroit Bowling Association that attracts many Observerland bowlers, opened Saturday at Parkside Lanes with an entry below expectations. Only 500 teams beat the deadline and this is 46 teams less than a year ago.

JERRI DURHAM added her name to the list of bowlers who have done the unexpected this year.

She became the star of the Ladies Junior House League at Bel-Aire when she converted the big four—the 4-6-7-10.

Dianne Alexander, of the Novi Pin Pointers, gave her a race for top honors when she put together games of 173, 211 and 234 for 618. Not bad for a 145 average bowler.

Mary Colomina was headed for a big series, too, but couldn't stand the pressure. After opening with games of 200 and 202 she dropped to a 129 for 531.

In the men's classic Ken Haviland showed the way with a 715 on games of 235, 227 and 253. He beat out Jim Andries who linked games of 267, 229 and 209 for 705. And George Miles had the high game of 289.

CAROLL WARKUP fired a 234 in 621 to take top honors in the Whirlwind League at Livonia Lanes. He lost high game to Jerry Pollard by a margin of one pin, while Dick Aquinis placed third with a 231.

Though she didn't fire any of the high single games Monia Dugas won high series in the Livonia Ladies Classic with a 573-69-642.

Single game honors went to Rose Ligner with 209-28-237; Betty Moeller with 189-36-225; and Dorothy Thomas with 190-39-229.

WITH A 610 series gained on games of 215, 200 and 195, Marge Eckerman really was the queen in the Queen Bees League at Country Lanes.

While she was beating everything in sight among the women, Ed La Croix showed the way to the men with a 620 in the junior house league.

AL GIROLOANO couldn't stand prosperity this week in the Wonderland Classic.

After starting with a perfect game—the second of the year in the league—he dropped to counts of 186 and 165 for a 651 series.

While Al attracted all of the excitement Ron Sharples linked games of 247, 242 and 237 for a 726 to take over the pacemaking role.

Bowlers in the Evans League have a new candidate for high scoring honors. Putting together games of 246, 247 and 223, Jack Etherington registered a 716 series. It was the second highest series ever bowled at Plymouth Bowl.

ARTHUR SCHNEID went on a scoring spree in the Pisgah league at Oak Park. When he finished he had a 267 in 702. His closest rival was Sam Goldstein who had a closing game of 275 for 677.

In the Senior House League Mike Jablonowski was high with a 683 and Mark Goodman landed in the runnerup spot with a 621.

AT FARMINGTON Lanes, Rick Sandy moved to center stage in the Elks League. Though he carries only a 157 average he registered a 290 to set the pace. Vic West topped the Teen Classic with a 239 in 600.

Bettering her count in each game Ann Berry, a 147 average bowler, paced the Amer. League at Mayflower Lanes with a 594 series on counts of 183, 196 and 213.

One of the tightest battles of the year marked competition in the Westland Classic where Jay Dishong nosed out Rich Quinn by a single pin. Jay linked games of 221, 225 and 225 for 671, while Guinn opened with a 230, followed with a 237 and closed with 203 for 670.

Third place was shared by Harry Fill and Bill Walker with 611.

THANKS TO A 248 opener Jo Ann Salvadore paced the Thursday Ladies League at Merri-Bowl with a 664. After her big game she added 221 and 195.

Meanwhile Sue Zess took high game in the Ladies doubles with a 253.

In the Teen Classic Don Mueller had a 217 in 594 to lead the way. Marty Bacon landed second with a 203 in 574 and Gary Allen was third with 566.

BILL WILSON couldn't break the 700 barrier in the Garden Classic but he did top the circuit with a 697. Behind him came Harry Wilson 675, Tom Ranes 672, Allen Brass 672, Bob Martin 668, Bill Bramble 658, Bob Greiner 658, Bob Cassare 657, Joe Auburn 656, Don Denham 652, Jim Shirloach 652 and John Thostenson 650.

In the Saturday Misfits, Vince Devlin was top man with 265 in 673 and Marie Schenden showed the way to the women with 218-257-196-668.

observing sports

Putting one word after another... And, it's amazing how the spring athletes out for high school teams whip themselves into shape.

They have to throw the ball around in the gym...run the hurdles in the school corridors or labor for a mile or two through and over the snow.

Yet, when the weather breaks and the season begins, regardless of the sport...they're ready.

All of which has to prove that our young men are a hearty lot...they have the desire to get into shape, regardless of the obstacles confronting them.

THE SPRING PREP season has to be the roughest for the schoolboys.

In the fall, the football and cross country athletes may run into a bad day or two. But, generally, they practice and compete on decent days or evenings.

In the winter, everybody's inside, so the weather doesn't have any effects on games or meets.

But, in the spring...who knows?

There are some teams which are supposed to engage in their first games and meets outdoors this week. The chances that the weatherman will co-operate are slim.

But it may be 40 and windy...the show still will go on. So don't go knocking our schoolboy athletes.

MARK DONOHUE one of the top auto racing drivers in the country, was discussing safety behind the wheel the other afternoon.

His advice to each of us who steers a car made good sense:

"You keep hearing how the auto manufacturing companies should make cars that are crash-proof. But, maybe the real solution to less accidents is the driver himself. He's the guy who has to be educated to the point he'll make fewer mistakes on the road and thus cause fewer accidents.

"If you check on accidents, you'll find that only a small number result from car or mechanical failures. Usually, it's something the driver does...like running a light, pulling out improperly, or maybe not being in top physical condition or mental condition in the first place."

Donohue noted that the race drivers go overboard to avoid accidents and "as a result we don't have too many."

Good thought for every driver, eh what?

AROUND THE BIG TEN, they're talking about Charley Morse, the former Clarenceville High gymnastic starter, and how he just missed qualifying for this week's NCAA championships at the University of Michigan.

The Morse story in sports has to be one which excites everybody. Readers of these pages recall how he fought over physical handicaps from his infant years to become the best gymnast in state high school ranks...how at Clarenceville they voted him the senior athlete of the year...how he won his way onto the varsity gymnastic team at Michigan State.

He's just completed his junior season at MSU. He was fourth in the conference meet this season and they picked only the first three for the NCAA.

In another year, the name of Morse could be among the big ones nationally...and, perhaps, he could win himself a spot on the U.S. Olympic team.

Bentley Rebuilds; Franklin Sights Big Year

If the weatherman doesn't make it too cold Tuesday and keeps snow and rain away, the high school baseball season will open with Bentley opposing Franklin.

They'll naturally have to share the spotlight with the Tigers, who also have their opener scheduled Tuesday.

But for coaches Marty Klokik, of Bentley, and Ron Helmer, of Franklin, there has been no such thing as spring training — at least, not in Florida.

The two prep teams have been working out mostly in their respective gyms, although each has managed a couple days outdoors.

FOR BENTLEY, this shapes up as a year of rebuilding after winning the Suburban Six League title in 1970.

For Franklin, this could be the year of emerging as a powerhouse with 10 returnees available from the '70 team which placed fourth in the Northwest Suburban League.

Klokik has lost all of the pitching along with star catcher Jim Erwin who helped Bentley roll to the league crown a year ago.

But he's hopeful that three graduates of the Livonia summer baseball program will give him the mound replacements he so desperately needs.

One is Bill Duncan, the other Brian Dinmore and third Joe Kearney. Of the trio, only Duncan pitched on the varsity a year ago and efforts were limited to two games.

"But they look impressive," says Klokik.

The Bentley roster includes three top hitters from last year — Ken Grant at first, Al Hernandez, the all-area shortstop, and Dick Boehm at second.

Hernandez batted .480 last season, Boehm .320 and Grant .300.

Ed Levell, who transferred into Bentley last fall, shapes up as the best bet to play third base.

At Franklin, Coach Helmer has both his star pitchers of last season back in 6-6 Tony Kaseta, a righthander, and Rob Hollandsworth, a 6-3 left-hander, who also plays first base.

Kaseta had a 7-2 mark last season and Hollandsworth was 3-2.

Others back are: Tom Battistone, a junior second baseman; senior Don Opland at short, senior John Grills at third, outfielders Rick Smith and Paul Sopsich, pitchers Ron Nisum and Mike Redouty and pitcher-outfielder Tom Waring.

Gar Franz, an outfielder-first baseman, is being counted on although only a sophomore while Dennis Watson, a pitcher, and Jerry Majewski, an outfielder, are two juniors who are likely to crack the regular lineup.

Bentley, Plymouth Swimmers Top All-Star

Bentley High's swimming team, which swept to the Suburban League title during the recent season, dominated the loop's all-star squad picked by the coaches.

Bentley placed 11 men to seven for runnerup Plymouth. Redford Union came up with three on the honored list.

Harrison Coach, Swimmer Honored

Orchids to Mark Holdridge and Mark Rado of Farmington Harrison High School.

They've been singled out — Holdridge as Oakland County's swimming coach of the year and Rado as the county's individual swimmer of the year.

Holdridge, in Harrison's first winter of competition, came up with a strong team which placed among the leaders in the state Class B meet.

Rado, a freshman, was the individual star of Harrison's team. He won the state Class B titles in both the individual medley and the backstroke.

He thus became one of the few freshmen in the history of state competition to swim to two titles.

HERE ARE the swimmers from the Observerland schools who were honored:

MEDLEY RELAY: Plymouth (Larry LeBlanc, Mark Kindree, Matt Kraay and Ed Norman.)

200 FREESTYLE: Mike Stokley (Redford Union).

200 INDIVIDUAL MEDLEY: Roger Simpson and Steve Grant (Bentley).

50 FREESTYLE: Steve Finley (Plymouth) and Kyle Connolly (Bentley).

DIVING: Randy Schulz (Redford Union).

100 BUTTERFLY: Grant (Bentley).

400 FREESTYLE: Steve LeClair (Plymouth) and Mike Stokley (Redford Union).

100 BACKSTROKE: Steve Powless and Blake Lawless (Bentley).

100 BREASTSTROKE: Kindree (Plymouth) and Simpson (Bentley).

FREESTYLE RELAY: Bentley (Connolly, Lawless, Lou Molnar and Powless).

Hockey Helps Howe Celebrate Birthday

The sports world — hockey, in general — this past week saluted Lathrup's Gordie Howe.

He celebrated his 43rd birthday before the Red Wings skated out to meet the Toronto Maple Leafs in Toronto.

Appropriate ceremonies marked the occasion and his "home" fans were to get another chance to honor Howe when the Wings met the Chicago Black Hawks at Olympia Saturday night.

Howe will finish his 25th season with the Wings Sunday night when the team plays the final game of its 1970-71 schedule at New York.

He has cracked every scoring record for longevity in the National Hockey League.

Howe, his wife and four children make their home in Lathrup. Sons Mark and Marty, who have starred during the winter for the Junior Red Wings, attend Lathrup High.

Best In Hula

Michigan State football line great Don Coleman has been cited as the outstanding lineman in the 25-year history of Honolulu's post-season Hula Bowl game.

Dave Garland, who transferred from the United State Trotting Association headquarters in Columbus, O., two years ago to become associated with the Michigan Harness Horsemen's Association, is the new publicity director of Jackson Raceway.

He replaces Jack Welsh, longtime publicist and one-time announcer at the raceway.

Garland will assume his new duties immediately and start beating the drums for the 50-night meeting which starts April 23 and continues through June 19.

Associated with the sport for the past 15 years, Garland has edited and published the MHHA monthly magazine since mid-1969.

Prior to joining the MHHA, he was employed for more than 10 years in the public relations department of the USTA where he was a staff writer for Hoof Beats magazine, the monthly publication of the Association.

A former sports editor for the Hampton (N.H.) Union, he began his harness racing writing career in the publicity department of Rockingham Park race track near Salem, N. H. He later headed the publicity department for the Lewiston-Gorham Raceway in Maine and still holds the post of promotion director for the Rochester, N.H. state fair.

MICHIGAN OWNERS and trainers have nominated 38 pacers and trotters for the traditional Merchants and Manufacturers trot and the Motor City pace at Wolverine Raceway.

They are warned that sustaining fees are due on or before April 15 to keep their horses eligible.

The M&M is slated for Thursday, Sept. 9 and the Motor City on the following evening, Sept. 10. It marks the first time Wolverine has scheduled the two rich early closing events back-to-back.

Each is listed as a $15,000 added event and each is expected to have a value of more than $25,000 by post time.

The list of Michigan nominees for the M&M, for which the sustaining fee is due by April 15, includes: Gunsmith, owned by Ada Jean Ackerman of Galien; El Speedo, Baker-Smith Stables Southfield; El Tera, Peter Bertera, Southgate; Pioneer Chip, Chipsaway Farm, Frontier; Pickle Liquor, Sherald Haynes, Blissfield; Loving Chuckles, Wesley Nading, Dearborn; Rough N Tumble, Richard Niccum, Fowlerville.

Sirloin, George Oldfield, Tecumseh; Reverie Star, Eugene Oldford, Lexington; Mike's DeSota, Michael Shuchaskie, Gregory; Sparky Reid, Norman Jean Shekell, Highland; Randy D. Georgia and William Rothe, Dexter; Frivolous Boy, Robert Van

Norman, Royal Oak; and Amy Dean, Ervin Waldo, Milan.

The Michigan nominees for the Motor City are: Broad Shadow, Ada Jean Ackerman, Galien; Major Bruce, James Brown, Brown City; Erlana's Valley, Brown Valley Farms, Oxford; Be Alert, Ray Forsyth, Bloomfield Hills; Spring's Pride, Hillbrook Farm, Birmingham; and Rusty McKillo, Arnold Hurley, Sandusky.

OTHERS ARE: Baron K, Dan Koepfgen, Cass City; Montana, Howard Lintz, Lapeer; Culver Cadet, James McGarty, Fowlerville; Strong Byrd, James McCann and Jim Dolbee, Milan; Breezy Cleo, Jack McCracken, Marquette; Dick Duane, Jazzy Admiral, Richard Oldfield, Adrian; Techman, S. INITIAL REPORTS from Hazel Park point to the harness racing operation moving along at a near record pace as far as business is concerned.

Betting was just short of $1.3 million for the first weekend and has been averaging more than 450,000 nightly since. That's a far cry from the $233,000 average at Northville's midwinter meeting but one has to consider that Hazel Park hasn't had the weather conditions that existed at the Downs for the entire campaign.

Most of those close to the racing picture are watching the progress of the DRC and Hazel Park meetings with a great deal of interest.

Primarily they'd like to ascertain whether a drop in business is due to the

Abortion Foes Set Rally For Unborn

"People Taking Action Against Abortion," a non-sectarian group, will present a "Congress for the Unborn" at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, April 4, in the Veterans Memorial Building, Detroit.

The group, which claims a 2,000 membership, is meeting to "rally support for the right to life." They oppose change in the Michigan abortion statute and view the issue as one with moral implications for all society.

Robert Johnson, president of the Detroit Education Association, will moderate the meeting. Among the speakers will be Russell Kirk, a syndicated columnist and educator; State Rep. Rosetta Ferguson (D-Detroit); and Dr. Richard Jaynes, an obstetrician.

The group asserts that "all that is necessary for the forces of evil to win in the world is for enough good men to do nothing."

New Legal View Sought

College Picks Its Spokesman

In a special meeting Wednesday, the Schoolcraft College Board unanimously decided to have only one spokesman regarding the college's reapportionment question.

The board appointed Mrs. Jane Moehle, board chairman, as its official spokesman, cutting off all other news sources from the college—including the college attorney, Edward Drangelis.

The board's action is highly unusual. In most court cases when an official spokesman is appointed for a group involved in a controversial subject, the attorney does the talking.

THE BOARD also decided to obtain a second legal opinion on the reapportionment question. They want the opinion on the applicability of a U.S. Supreme Court decision on reapportionment to Schoolcraft's situation from the firm of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone.

"I would like to see another legal opinion on this thing," B. William Secord, board member, said. "I would like to have his (Drangelis') statements verified by another legal counsel."

The board is concerned over the applicability of a decision by the U.S. Supreme Court in Missouri stating that community college districts should be apportioned according to the "one-man, one-vote" rule. If it is applicable, Schoolcraft's college district will eventually have to be reapportioned to have trustees represent equal populations.

THE NEW Democratic Coalition of Livonia has filed suit in Wayne County Circuit Court to have the June trustee election delayed until reapportionment of the district.

Mrs. Moehle informed the board that the court hearing was postponed until April 9 rather than April 2 as it was originally. However, since April 9 is Good Friday, the court date may be changed again.

The board tentatively planned to meet Wednesday, April 7, with Drangelis to discuss the case.

TV's State Of Brain

Champagne 'N Hot Dogs For 56

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dan McCosh, editor of the Southfield News & Observer, provides this candid view of a fund-raising party to aid the region's public television station.

We drove down to the Fisher theatre Monday night to do our bit for the big bird, Oscar, and the exposes of fraudulent olive packing that are Channel 56, Detroit's EDUCATIONAL television.

To really get into something like the kickoff for the Channel 56 auction party, you have to have small kids addicted to Sesame Street re-runs on Saturday morning. It is a state of mind, really, the kind of mentality that gets you reading the full text of the state of the union address and checking out the reading level of the kids' nursery school class.

ONE OF MY earliest memories of Channel 56 is turning on Julia Childs late in the evening and watching her sew up a turkey. The station is a study in irony, with some of the most popular programming on television, no sponsors, and consequently no money.

Who dreamed up this auction? Probably the same guy who thought a lady with fat arms and an uncanny skill with a carving knife would draw viewers.

It's the only explanation for why they served champagne and Gus Kuras' Coney Island hot dogs at the party.

NOT BEING able to speak for others, our state of mind was set mainly by coming into this scene straight from the office, with typewriters still warm from the community news.

The balloons on the statues, floating around the theater and tangling with the guests, set the tone. One strong image was a dignified matron sitting on the balcony steps, munching hot dogs with a balloon tied to her purse.

But this is how to get something like this moving, keep it light. The show, with Jack Brokensha playing vibes behind the shaky voice of Don Haney, kept it going.

THE GO-GETTERS (that's what they call them) are out soliciting donations to the auction right now. The donation has to be worth at least $25, which seemed a bit steep as I was considering presenting my body.

What I'm wondering now is how they are going to get the mustard and chili sauce out of the carpet.

By the end of the evening, I was convinced this whole thing was so crazy it had to go over. Do it to it, Big Bird.

Group Will Address Legislators

The Michigan Association for Children with Learning Disabilities will testify before a House study group in Lansing at 10 a.m. Wednesday, April 7.

The group will testify on the Mandatory Education Bill which would require that every handicapped child would have special education according to his need.

Parents who are not able to attend the hearing are urged by MACLD to send a public opinion telegram to Rep. Lucille McCullough in the House Education Committee.

2 Livonians Get Blue Shield Posts

Two Livonia residents have been named to the new position of director at Michigan Blue Shield. They are Arnold Drouillard, 17230 Mayfield, in charge of advance systems, and Charles Smith, 14805 Berwick, heading service review.

NICHOLAS DENYER, of 18568 Sunset Blvd., Livonia, will retire March 31 from Western Electric's Michigan Service Center in Plymouth. He has been a warehouseman and dispatcher for more than 25 years with the firm. He and his wife, Anna, who is retired from the Michigan Service Center, will move to Florida.
