Boost In City Tax Rate Given Commission's Approval, 5-2

By FRED DELANO

A 12 per cent increase in Plymouth's municipal property tax rate was given the 5-2 blessing of the City Commission Monday night, putting the figure at $13.86 per $1,000 of equalized valuation compared to last year's $12.36. It will be reflected in the July statements.

An even greater increase — probably two full mills instead of the 1.5 that resulted — had originally been predicted, the boost relating directly to the decision to build a $1.5 million cultural and recreation center that will house an indoor ice rink.

Of the total levy, 12.11

mills ($12.11 per $1,000) will go to defray the general budget while 1.75 mills ($1.75 per $1,000) has been earmarked specifically as an appropriation for the cultural center.

These figures make it appear on the surface that the city will have less money for general operations in fiscal 1971-72 than in the current year. This is not true because the increase from the state equalization factor will produce more than $70,000 in new revenue by itself — which is worth a fraction more than a full mill.

In fact, the general fund expenditures reflect a general upward spiral starting with the 1969-70 total of $1.184 million. The amount budgeted for 1970-71 was $1.389 million and for 1971-72 it will be $1.657 million.

CITY MANAGER Norman M. Gaffney and the commission had held a series of budget discussions over the past month, going through departmental needs, Gaffney made last minute reductions of $17,000 in the general fund and $21,000 in the equipment fund to satisfy commission demands for a tight financial rein.

The vote on the tax rate preceded that on the actual budget, the latter passing unanimously after the 5-2 split on putting the rate at $13.86. The negative votes were cast by Commissioners Arch Vallier and William Silvis.

Vallier protested including the millage appropriation for the cultural center, declaring, "I won't saddle this town with an increase for a skating rink that was sold to us as self-liquidating."

Silvis based his vote on the contention that there still were areas in the over-all general budget that could be reduced.

MAYOR JAMES B. McKeon had this answer:

"The city manager's original budget called for an additional two mills to finance the cultural center. During our budget study sessions we asked the manager to cut some of his requests and to present us with a recommendation tonight.

"This he has done, and although I personally would like to see a reduction of another ¼ or ½ mill, I am ready to accept the manager's recommendation."

"I honestly believe the manager can reduce spending through the year by the tight controls he has promised. He has accepted our challenge, and I commend him for it."

McKeon pointed out that the charter approved in 1951 sets a 15-mill maximum and stated, "I am operating on the premise that the voters elected us knowing we could spend 15 mills. I actually think we will wind up with a surplus for the coming fiscal year, and I don't think it's necessary to go to the voters every time we need a sewer cleaner, or an ambulance."

He supported the concept of earmarking a specific amount of the levy to go toward the cost of the cultural center.

The motion for establishing the new tax rate at $13.86 was made by Commissioner James Jabara and was seconded by Commissioner Robert Sincok. They and McKeon were joined in affirmative votes by Commissioners Harold Guenther and Donald Bidwell.

SOME FAMILIAR FACES were in town over the weekend to help the Plymouth Symphony celebrate its 25th birthday. Shown with the symphony's conductor Wayne Dunlap is Norman Fischer, who attends Oberlin College in Ohio, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald

Full Michigan Week Calendar To Open On Note Of Progress

Never has Michigan Week brought as many activities into focus in the Plymouth area as those scheduled for the 1971 eight-day observance which will open Saturday.

The statewide theme is "Michigan — Land of Hospitality," and a stranger looking at Plymouth's calendar from May 15 through May 22, accepting this as the year-around pace, might actually be frightened into seeking quieter pastures.

Best it be approached chronologically: COMMUNITY PRIDE DAY Saturday, May 15 A business leaders' conference, called "Commitment to Progress," will open at 8 a.m. in the Mayflower Hotel. Speakers will discuss planning, financing and development of business area improvements.

Boy Scouts and Jaycees will participate in a clean-up of Tonquish Creek, beginning at 9 a.m. Debris will be hauled away by the city DPW.

The Plymouth Junior Baseball Association will open its season at the Plymouth Road diamonds with eight games scheduled.

At 10 a.m. it will be Orioles vs. Indians, Twins vs. Angels and White Sox vs. Red Sox. These will be followed at 12:30 p.m. by the Tigers vs. Yankees and Giants vs. Cubs. At 3 p.m. it will be Cardinals vs. Dodgers, Mets vs. Pirates and Braves vs. Red Legs.

Allen School will host its second annual grounds development program from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., during which upwards of 500 parents, teachers, students and family friends are expected to be present to plant flowers, trees, shrubs and work on playground improvements.

The Kiwanis Club of Colonial Plymouth will be serving a public spaghetti dinner from 5 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the Masonic Temple, the price being $1.50. Salad, roll, ice cream and either coffee, tea or milk will be included.

SPiritual FOUNDATION DAY

Sunday, May 16 All churches have been asked to ring their bells at 12 noon to signal a moment of silent prayer.

Also, a brochure entitled "Good News for Michigan" will be available at all churches, and special prayers in thanksgiving for religious freedom and heritage will be offered.

GOVERNMENT DAY

Monday, May 17 Plymouth's special guests for the day will be Mayor and Mrs. Jule Famularo of Troy, plus Troy's Commissioner and Mrs. Sherwood Shaver, while Plymouth Mayor and Mrs. James McKeon and Commissioner and Mrs. William Silvis enjoy the hospitality of the Oakland County city.

The League of Women Voters will serve coffee and cookies at a 9:15 a.m. reception in City Hall and the day will include a tour and shopping trip plus a helicopter flight over the Plymouth area.

At 12:45 p.m. there will be the unveiling of a plaque and formal dedication of the Wiedman parking lot next to the Mayflower.

At 4 p.m. there will be a special session of Plymouth High School student body officials in City Hall, serving as honorary mayor and commissioners.

The round of day's events will be concluded with a 7 p.m. dinner in the Round Table Club. Plymouth's host to the Troy delegation throughout the day will be Mayor Pro Tem Donald Bidwell.

HERITAGE DAY Tuesday, May 18

Activities of the Plymouth Historical Society will be featured with special emphasis being pointed toward the museum at Church and Main. Ground-breaking is expected this summer on this site for construction of a new museum.

LIVELIHOOD DAY Wednesday, May 19

The highlight will be a civic luncheon at 12 noon in the new Plymouth High School.

The program will feature recognition of all local industries, followed by a student-conducted tour of the school's vocational training facilities.

EDUCATION DAY Thursday, May 20

Schools throughout the district are planning special Michigan Week emphasis throughout the week, but a special May 20 feature will be an exchange of principals among all of the elementary schools.

This day also will be highlighted by the annual honors assembly for members of the high school senior class.

West Middle School will have an Education Day fair that day and special programs will be the order of the day throughout the system.

HOSPITALITY DAY Friday, May 21

Packets of information on the Plymouth community will be distributed to families new to the area. Also, there will be free coffee and doughnuts in the business districts, and the city will cancel all parking lot and parking meter charges for the day.

At 8 p.m. at Plymouth High School the annual spring music festival will be presented by the band, orchestra and chorus.

YOUTH DAY Saturday, May 22

Plans are being made to open the Mail & Observer building, 271 S. Main, to visitors to show the advantages it offers for conversion into a youth activities center for the entire community.

Such a plan has been encouraged by civic groups and has been given the green light by the city commission. A committee of seven persons from the city and township is now working out details.

The day also will include an Olympic-style field day program for youngsters, to be conducted in the athletic area behind Central Junior High. In the evening, Passage-Gayde Post 391 of the American Legion will hold its annual "recognition night" banquet at which time five special awards will be presented.

These will go to those chosen by the Legion as the city's policeman of the year, the city's fireman of the year, the township's fireman of the year, and both the businessman and industrialist of the year for all of the Plymouth community.

GENERAL CHAIRMAN of the planning for Michigan Week is Paul W. Huyck.

Working with him in charge of programs for the different days have been Jerry Hazlett and John Harper, Community Pride; Rev. David Britz, Spiritual Foundation; City Manager Norman Gaffney, Government; Clarence Moore, Heritage; Fred Hill and Tom Notebaert, Livelihood; Carroll Nichols, Education; Fred Penar, Hospitality; and David Aldredge, Youth Day.

Chief's Job Narrowed To 4 Men

Appointment by City Manager Norman M. Gaffney of a new Plymouth police chief is expected by the end of May, but not without a battle within the City Commission which must approve Gaffney's choice before the selection becomes official.

Four men still are in the running from more than 70 original applicants, and these four now will be screened through oral examinations to be conducted by a three-man board of law enforcement experts chosen by the Michigan Municipal League.

Gaffney has declined to identify the four so as not to jeopardize their present employment with police agencies, but it is believed that all four are professional career policemen from other cities, not necessarily in Michigan.

They are the four who posted the highest grades on a written examination prepared by the Municipal League and administered by a monitor from the Detroit Civil Service Commission.

GAFFNEY ALSO is in the process of interviewing all of these men personally and will offer one name to the commission on the basis of his own impressions coupled with examination results.

The city charter empowers Gaffney to make this and similar department head appointments, but also carries the qualifying statement, "by and with the advice and approval of the commission."

Earlier in the year, following the resignation of former chief Herbert W. Straley, strong sentiment was expressed by several commissioners favoring promotion from within the department to fill the post.

Most local officers were precluded from candidacy by the job specifications which stipulated several years of command experience as a prerequisite.

Capt. Loren Johnson, who has been acting chief since Straley's departure for Pennsylvania Jan. 31, did not seek the promotion, but still any request for the commission to accept an outsider as chief may bring that body and Gaffney to a verbal showdown.

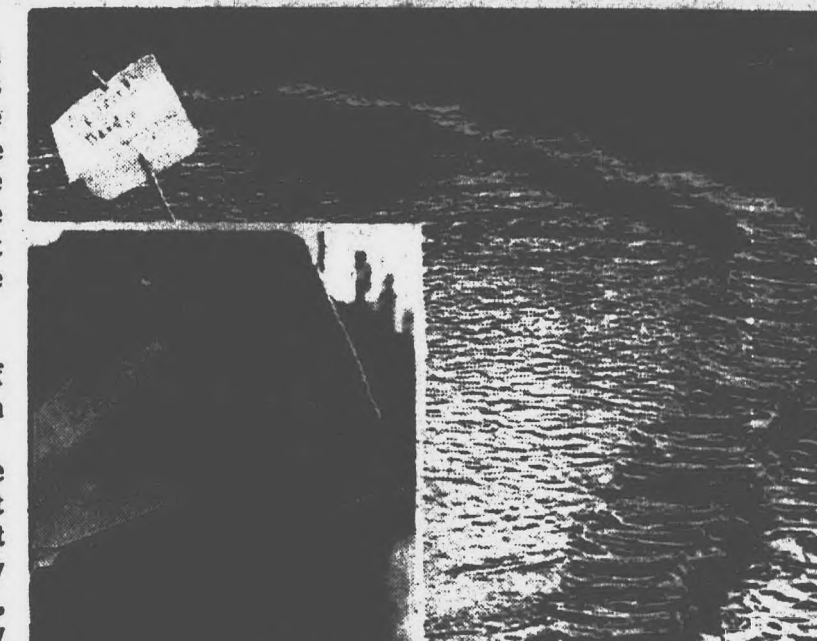

New Taxi Service

Emergency taxicab service is being provided Plymouth by two out-of-town companies after the Mayflower Cab Co. ceased operation suddenly last week because of financial difficulties.

The City Commission has granted 30-day permits both to the Star Cab Co. of Northville and to Northwest Transport of Livonia which operates Suburban Checker Cab, Yellow & Red Cabs and Garden City-Westland Cabs.

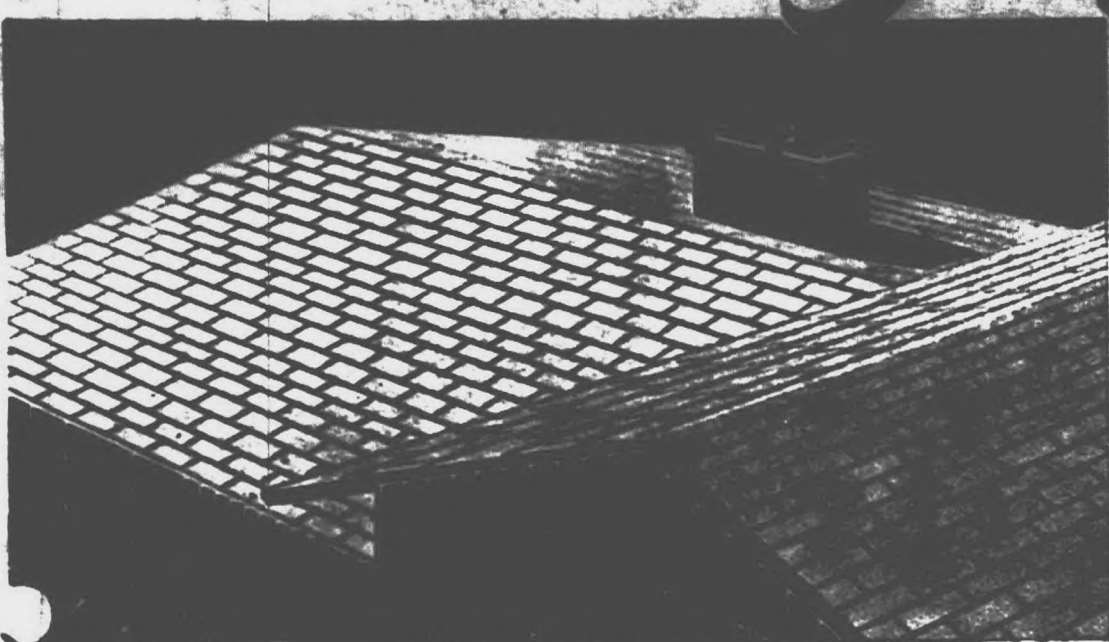

The city permit which had been held by Mayflower was ordered canceled Monday night by a unanimous vote of the commission, which now will attempt to work out terms of a new permanent franchise during the coming month.

Persons needing taxi service may obtain cabs either by calling 421-1100, which is listed by Northwest Transport, or the old Mayflower number, 453-8300, which Star is using.

THROUGH BIFOCALS

By FRED DELANO / Editor: Mail & Observer

FOR SOMETHING like 18 years, Michigan Week has taken the form of a giant meeting of a mutual admiration society. There has been nothing wrong with all this selling of ourselves and our state's advantages to ourselves, albeit a lot of it has sounded like Rotarians selling each other on Rotarianism. Nonetheless, it always has seemed to me that something new and more penetrating was needed.

Plymouth and most other Michigan cities have been repeating just about the same format year after year, the ups and downs depending mostly upon the vigor and imagination, or lack thereof, of the guy placed in charge.

What I think I'm trying to say is that Michigan Week never has been the big "box office" sensation the glories of this state deserve. The day-to-day planning here next week is the best yet devised, but the script provided by the state is the same old one used for years.

But wait. Yes, there is to be one major local innovation and it is just the sort of the seed of an idea which might bloom into state-level adoption. It has been given the name "Commitment to Progress."

CITY AFTER CITY is disturbed about the need to revitalize its business district, the need to find a new weapon for progress. This is as true in Plymouth as bigger centers, and that's what "Commitment to Progress" is all about.

It was the brainchild of Mayor James McKeon and at first blush sounds like just another ho-hum exchange of conversation between the same wise men who talked about the same problem yesterday without getting an answer, and who will repeat the performance tomorrow.

That is exactly what the mayor has sought to avoid.

All of the business community is invited to participate Saturday morning in this conference which will open at 8 a.m. at the Mayflower. Interested citizens, men and women, need not wait for an engraved invitation to join in.

By noon, when adjournment is scheduled, the mayor honestly anticipates that the information presented, and the way it is analyzed by those who take part, will lead to a definite COMMITMENT as to the course desired for Plymouth's business and commercial future.

SPEAKERS PROMINENT in business, planning, financing and development have been arranged. After giving their own remarks, they then will participate in an open discussion with the audience on the main issue at hand: Plymouth.

The guests will include Creighton Holden, past president of the American Hotel Association and a vital cog in the revitalization of St. Clair; George Vilcan, president of the professional community planning firm of Vilcan-Leman & Associates; Irving Adler, regional vice president of Levitt & Sons which is one of the major development companies in the nation, and Curtis Yates, president of the Surety Federal Savings & Loan Co.

It is a panel which is expected to give straight talk on what can be done, what should be done and how it can be done.

Significantly, Saturday's date of May 15 carries the Michigan Week label of Community Pride Day. More appropriate timing would be impossible to find for really coming up with a commitment to Plymouth progress.

Stabile Given Military Honor

Chief Master Sgt. Anthony S. Stabile of 14972 Farmbrook Drive, Plymouth, received the seventh annual Military Achievement Award at a presentation luncheon at the Detroit Hilton Hotel. The award is sponsored this year by Parke, Davis & Co.

Stabile, a member of the Michigan Air National Guard, is among 100 military reservists and national guardsmen who received the award at the Military Achievement Awards luncheon.

The awards go to the top enlisted men serving in Michigan units, based on their performance during the past year. The award presentation was part of Armed Forces Week.

False Drug Request Is Admitted

A Wixom man, arrested by Plymouth police last week and charged with using a forged prescription in an attempt to obtain dangerous drugs, is free on $1,000 bond and awaiting sentence after pleading guilty to the charge in a pre-trial examination before Judge Dunbar Davis on Monday.

Police say David D. Laszlo, 20, entered the Beyer Rexall Drug store, 580 N. Main, last Wednesday morning and asked druggist Robert Beyer to fill a prescription. Laszlo is reported to have said the medicine was for his sister.

According to police, Beyer became suspicious when the prescription called for an unusually large amount of amphetamines. The druggist checked with the doctor whose name appeared on the prescription and learned the doctor had not issued it.

As Beyer was talking on the telephone, Laszlo left the drug store, got in a truck and drove off.

Laszlo was arrested by Plymouth Sgt. Rod Cannon and Patrolman Carl Berry in five minutes.

Orchestra At Central Rated Tops

PLYMOUTH The Central Junior High School Orchestra, under the direction of H. Michael Endres, has become the first Plymouth schools orchestra to receive a first division, or "superior," rating at the Michigan State Orchestra Festival.

Although other orchestras from Plymouth have attended the state festival, none ever has received a first division rating.

The 30-member Central orchestra received straight I ratings from all four judges at the district festival and at that time qualified for the state level contest.

At the state festival, the orchestra received three I ratings and one II, or B clarinet. Nancy Pocklington, rating, for an overall I rating. Joy McClelland, Ann Birge; The compositions performed bass clarinet - Tom Owens; included "The Good Daughter" by Piccini; horn; Mark Stephens, John "Prelude for Strings," by Chaitalis; trumpet - Ken Koza, Wheat, and "Ballet," by Laura Johnstone; trombone-Debussy, plus one sight-reading selection which the Jim Person, Julie Gladstone orchestra was required to play and Tracey Flora.

Members of the group include: First violins - Paul Albert, Gabriele Klassen, Kathy Boyd, Bev Allen; Second violins - Carol Whitman, Tim Taylor, Dan Heard; violas - Margaret Lang, Barb Smith, Diane McKinley; cello - Laura Jender; bass - Mark Norfleet, Libby Glover; flute - Michelle Rick, Janice Masora; oboe - Valerie Schepple, Becky Layman; ratings and one II, or B clarinet. Nancy Pocklington, rating, for an overall I rating. Joy McClelland, Ann Birge; The compositions performed bass clarinet - Tom Owens; included "The Good Daughter" by Piccini; horn; Mark Stephens, John "Prelude for Strings," by Chaitalis; trumpet - Ken Koza, Wheat, and "Ballet," by Laura Johnstone; trombone-Debussy, plus one sight-reading selection which the Jim Person, Julie Gladstone orchestra was required to play and Tracey Flora.

Expansion Of PHS Faculty OK'd

By KATHY MORAN

PLYMOUTH
Plymouth High School took top priority at Monday's Plymouth Board of Education meeting when expenditures of $89,631 plus the hiring of seven new teachers were authorized.

The board took quick action on the expenditures needed to equip the new facility for the expanding programs and the new scheduling system that will be implemented in the fall.

"We're instituting new programs at the high school, and I want to go ahead with the expenditures needed to get them underway," board President Esther Hulsing said in urging action on the budget items.

"I think it is high time we add the teachers at the high school," she said.

ASST. SUPT. John M. Hoben had asked the board for permission to hire 10 new teachers. Though the board authorized only seven hirings, Hoben hopes the final three will be authorized at a later date.

The seven positions will bring the number of Plymouth teachers to 447.

Hoben said the needed positions were: two English teachers, one foreign language, one social studies, two mathematics, one science, one business, one art, a part time vocational nurse, and a part time girls physical education teacher.

Enrollment at the school is expected to increase by 270 students for a total of 2,300 10th through 12th grade students.

The expanding programs are in part due to the implementation of modular scheduling in September.

Instead of the traditional six or seven class times, the school day will be divided into 20 instructional modules of 20 minutes under the new system.

Consequently, classes will be offered for varying lengths (depending on the subject matter) and one to five times a week.

Normal classes will run two 20-minute modules, but labs and shops could run for three or four modules.

THE GREATER flexibility that the new system grants has already shown up in the more than 400 students who have signed up for reading classes. The classes include contemporary speed reading, basic, remedial and clinical reading.

To meet the growing demand, the board allocated $8,000 from the building and site fund for the reading lab.

The largest budget item authorized was $70,000 for library media. The library is currently understocked and below the national standards, Hoben told the board.

Another $8,966.45 was authorized to buy items needed for the music program including three upright pianos, a choral grand piano, and business supplies.

Other budget items included $775 for the home economics demonstration area, $250 for an electric stove in the science area, $400 for glass directories, $1,000 for teachers' lounge furniture, $4,500 for curbs around the front of the school, and $1,740 for 12 desks and chairs and a refrigerator.

An estimated $4,000 was earmarked from the operating budget for the rental of equipment needed in computer mathematics classes.

THE BOARD also gave Hoben leeway to go over estimated costs up to 10 per cent without having to come to the board for approval. Any increased costs 10 per cent or more will require board approval.

At the same time, the board voted to defer the hiring of a fourth social worker for the high school. The position is partially reimbursed by the state, but the board preferred to hold off on hiring of special teachers.

School Board Coverage Is Termed Misleading

EDITOR:
I think your reporter has been attending Livonia school board meetings in a space warp. Or else he is totally impervious to reality.

Anyone who is acquainted with school board personalities and philosophies would find absurd your reporter's April 24 description of trustee John Stymelski as a defender of extra-curricular activities and of trustee Donald Murch as "against all such activities regardless of whether funds are available or not."

The truth of the matter is that Stymelski would not recognize quality education if you hit him with it. He has suggested that the board cut $6 million from the classroom without touching transportation, clerical services, maintenance etc.—in other words, teachers, programs, and class size.

Murch is as committed to maintaining all programs—and increasing them, if possible—as anybody on the board of education. In fact, he is so dedicated to his personal view of what a school system should be that he is sometimes ineffective because he is so uncompromising.

His preference for cutting non-instructional programs instead of classroom programs certainly can't and shouldn't be equated with lack of support for extra-curricular activities.

I do not envy the Livonia Board of Education in trying to cut out 1/6 of the school budget. But please spare me from such misleading reporting as this. Things are bad enough already.

Mini-Bikes Defended

EDITOR:
You're riding your mini-bike, causing no trouble. The next thing you know is that you're at a police station.

There you get a ticket, which sometimes amounts to more than $25. Then you must pay a tow fee to get your bike back. To top it off, you must appear in court. All this trouble over a little mini-bike!

The police ought to be out hunting down criminals and preventing crimes, not making enemies of kids with their mini-bikes. Mini-bikes don't cause trouble. They keep kids out of trouble, and turn them into pretty good mechanics.

The police use the alibi that mini-bikes are unsafe. You can always wear a helmet. But what is really safe in the world today?

Another complaint is that mini-bikes are too noisy. They're not! Trucks, trains, planes, and some cars are a lot louder. Mini-bikes are just as loud as lawn mowers. You never hear complaints about someone cutting his grass! Some people get their kicks out of getting kids in trouble while they are riding a mini-bike.

The policeman's biggest alibi is that you can license a mini-bike, but you must be 16. When you're 16, why would you want to license a mini-bike when you could ride a car

Renewal Issue 'Sneak Deal'?

EDITOR:
In reference to the Livonia School District tax issue: On the ballot in large print was "renewal of 3.5 mills," but in reading further, in small print was "increase of 3.5 mills." My thought when I cast my vote was "we will accurately be paying seven mills." Dr. Edward Katz confirmed this in the Observer on April 21, with his statement, "The average ADDITIONAL cost would be something like $60 per year."

Webster states renewal means "resume or extend." Increase means "to become greater." With this in mind, how can these two words be on the same ballot and still mean the same?

At a school meeting I attended most people were not aware of the word "increase" being on the ballot.

Even one woman that worked so hard to push the "yes" vote was not aware of this. Also, the teachers were assured there was to be no increase, and they in turn gave this information to their pupils, who in turn informed the parents.

The question at hand is "What will happen to the 3.5 mills that will be paid by us even though the 'no' vote went through." I cannot believe our taxes will be lowered.

I am NOT against the renewal, but I am against the sneak way it was put to us. I am not against good education but I am against the frills like the approval of a $43,390 air conditioner for Franklin High. (This was passed after the vote.)

Who is REALLY to blame for the no vote?

MRS. J. McELROY
Livonia

EDITOR'S NOTE: The official wording placed on the ballot indeed contained the conflict in terms mentioned by Mrs. Elroy. However, the wording is required by state law since the 3.5 mill levy official expires with this year's levy.

Included in parentheses on the ballot was the following statement—"This being a renewal of 3.5 mills for operational purposes which expires with the 1970 tax levy." Property owners would pay $3.50 for each $1,000 of state equalized valuation for a 3.5 mill levy.

Increased taxes stem from the state equalization factor, which is set by county and state officials, rather than the millage rate.

Defeat Will Bring Action

On June 14, Livonia School District property owners will have to speak again on the same subject they spoke on less than 10 weeks before. The 3.5 Livonia school millage renewal, of course, I think a voted decision should stand longer than that.

OK, the vote was close. But let me remind you that in order to get a tax break or reform, we will have to defeat it again. It seems to me that state aid, and therefore state control of schools, is the lesser of evils to choose from. Schools supported through a state personal income tax would:

- Substantially lower property tax. (Raised income tax would not balance it out.)
- Control salaries and benefits and halt "ping-pong" games with neighboring schools systems to get the "best available for our kids."

(Thanks to the proposal C defeat, the parochial teachers won't be playing anyway.)

- Eliminate unknown sums of money turning up that enable full day sessions instead of threatened half days.
- Curtail the continual reassessment gimmick. (The five per cent increase will reap half the 3.5 mills by itself, and next year's increase will.)

- Get revenue from renters. (Many times there are two incomes under one taxpaying rent.)
- Give retired people a break.

The schools will have their usual remarks about caring for your kids and giving this and that up. It's one thing to put your kids first, but don't put yourselves so far behind in second doing it. Do you think your kids look forward to our way of living?

Don't give the "Lansing Lads" any ammunition. A "yes" vote will get apathy. A "no" vote will get action.

And so, school board, let's curb these delusions of grandeur such as last fall's four proposals and get on somebody else's back—not ours!

Common Sense Road Improving

EDITOR:
At a time when the nation's economic status is inflationary, cities are going bankrupt, and the property owners are already over-taxed, I am sure they want their tax money spent wisely, with due consideration to what the taxpayer considers priority items.

With regard to widening of Newburgh Road between Five and Six Mile Roads (which the homeowners in the area do not want), which is unsafe due to poor planning by city engineers; why not add some safety features (which the homeowners do want) like improved markings and signs to indicate narrowing, a traffic signal at the school, and improved snow removal? This can be done very easily and more cheaply than by widening the area.

The $9.8 million fund for roads and improvements that the taxpayers approved some years back is almost depleted. At the present time, there is approximately $1.1 million, less than the cost of widening Newburgh, which I understand to be approximately $140,000 (between Five and Six Mile Roads).

If poor judgment is exercised in spending our funds, where do the city fathers expect to obtain additional funds for the higher priority items such as Five Mile, Middle Belt, Ann Arbor Road, Newburgh between Plymouth and Schoolcraft, road maintenance, etc.? Do they have so much bonding authority that they aren't concerned about how our money is spent? If the taxpayers' wishes continue to be ignored, than most certainly the vote for additional funds must be NO.

The state has cut back on some of the funds allocated to counties, etc., in Michigan. Isn't this a good indication that our city government should hold back on improper spending at the present time also?

It might be of interest how the proposal for widening passed at the council meeting in January 1971: Yes-Bennett, McCann, Milligan, Raymond, No-Brown, Ventura, Nash. If you are interested, I suggest you contact one or all of the council members, by telephone or letter, and express your wishes.

Strike Threat At Power Co.

Nearly 200 local Consumers Power Co. employees, about 50 per cent of the work force, will be off the job if a threatened strike by the Michigan State Utility Workers becomes a reality.

The union announced this week that contract negotiations with Consumers Power have broken down after a month of bargaining between union and company officials in Jackson.

The effect on local power company operations would be about the same as the state-wide situation, according to local Consumers Power Livonia manager James Thomas. The company has a state-wide employment of approximately 10,000, Thomas estimated. Half of those are members of the utility workers union.

The Consumers Power plant in Livonia serves the communities of Livonia, Farmington, Plymouth, Northville, Wayne, South Lyon, Salem, and New Hudson with gas service. The company provides both gas and electricity in some parts of the state.

THOMAS SAID major areas of conflict stem from salary issues and conflict over the combination of some jobs on a state-wide basis.

No local issues are involved in the negotiations.

Company officials and the union have been negotiating since April 1 when the contract expired, Thomas said, and "I was under the impression that negotiations would continue."

He noted that a wildcat strike by workers in the Consumers Power Bay City steam plant may have been the cause of the breakdown.

THOMAS SAID a strike would have little effect on the company's local operations, at least as little as possible with the shortened staff.

"Some new business will be curtailed", he said, "but we will attempt to continue to service our customers with the help of management and supervisory personnel."

Thomas pointed out that a similar strike two years ago by the utility workers lasted 89 days with little interruption of service in this area. I hope they settle things", he said. "I don't want a strike. But if we have one, we will keep the gas turned on."

Union officials couldn't be reached for comment.

Businessmen Will Discuss Education

In an attempt to get business involved in education reforms a program will be sponsored by the Livonia Chamber of Commerce from 9 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. on Tuesday, May 18 in the Sherwood Inn, 36071 Plymouth, Livonia.

The Livonia chamber will host the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce for the program entitled "More Education Per Dollar."

In a notice of the program, V.G. Converse III, president of Scans Associates Inc. of Livonia, said business is the biggest support of education, yet businessmen are not involved in the field. "Business is the biggest support of education and the largest consumer of the product it turns out," he said. "Yet businessmen, for the most part, refuse to get involved in the reforms of education."

"If you are not part of the solution, you are part of the problem," he said urging businessmen to attend.

ADDING HUMOR TO POLITICS — Pat Paulson, the TV stand-up comedian who 'ran' for president in 1968, explained his strategy and gave his version of things now going on in Washington during his appearance at Schoolcraft College last Saturday night. Because of the poor acoustical system few heard him plainly, but they did get a good look at him, (left) as he gave "the eye" to several hecklers, and as the candidate on the right. (Photos by Dennis Dismachek)

400 Came, But Few Could Hear

"We saw him, but didn't hear him."

This was the common reaction to more than 400 persons who gathered in the Schoolcraft College gymnasium Saturday evening to see and hear Pat Paulsen, nationally known TV comedian.

Because of the poor acoustics in the gymnasium, much of the gathering heard nothing but a mumble and jumble of words when Paulsen allegedly carried on his mock campaign for the presidency of the United States.

All that came over the loudspeaker were garbled expressions few could understand.

Many of those who paid the $4 admission charge left before the program concluded.

There was only one exception to the garbled message that came over the loudspeaker—and this one came loud and clear when Paulsen, in his unusual style, remarked:

"Now that we have sex education in our schools, I wonder what happens to those who flunk."

Free Movies Attract 300

More than 300 children attended the children's free movie series last week sponsored by the Faculty Wives of Schoolcraft College.

How Abortion Affects People's Minds

By KATHY MORAN
(Second of 2 Articles)

Legalizing abortion in Michigan seems at first glance the most efficient way of protecting the health of women who are determined to have abortions and of keeping them out of the clutches of profiteering referral agencies.

As the situation is now, women are virtually powerless when seeking to terminate their pregnancies. Those who can afford it have to be treated by strange doctors in strange hospitals in New York. And those who can't afford it still have to resort to the back-alley practitioners.

But alongside the medical complications are the psychological and sociological problems that a number of doctors are pointing out.

BECAUSE OF the delicacy of the operation, complications can result in hemorrhaging or infections unless the woman is given proper medical care.

And even in New York where the operation is legal, the demand is such that women are admitted, operated on, and released almost immediately.

Backers of abortion reform in Michigan contend that women would have better care, and attention if the reforms are made here.

But a number of gynecologists say that medical complications are only a part of the total question.

DR. ALFRED SHERMAN, head of gynecology and obstetrics at Sinai Hospital in Detroit, said he backs reform of Michigan abortion laws "with a good deal of hesitancy."

"Abortion on demand will cheapen the whole aspect in regards to human life," he said. "It will cheapen life in general and make us less respectful of life."

"It probably has a dehumanizing effect all the way down," he said.

"But I have to weigh it against the disregard and cheapening of a woman's life when she is forced to have a back alley abortion or when she can't afford it and the product is a battered, bruised, unwanted child."

"I think it is a bad idea (abortion reform) to some extent, but I think it is the lesser of two evils," he said. "You have to weigh the alternative against the fate of the embryonic child and what his life will be like in the future with its ultimate effect on the family and siblings."

"I DON'T think there is any physician who doesn't have this conflict in his own mind."

Dr. Sherman said the decision should rest with the mother and her physician — and not the state — and it should be arrived at by "responsible and adequate counseling." Should abortion reform be passed in Michigan, one of the aspects that will have to be emphasized is instructing physicians to give responsible counseling, he said.

"If we have a state system that can dictate who can or who can not have an abortion, then I don't think we are far away from a system that dictates who can marry who and who can have children," he said.

Among the arguments of opponents to abortion reform are that the fetus is living and that abortion takes responsibility away from the parents.

"WHAT DOES it do to society to be able to do away with life so readily?" asked Dr. John Malone, chief of obstetrics and gynecology at Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital in Detroit. "What does it do to the woman?"

"The fetus is living, according to all scientific definitions of life. It can multiply cells, and it will develop into a human being and not an animal or a plant."

Dr. Malone said that it depends largely on a woman's upbringing whether she considers the fetus as human or not.

"Some women think this is a part of ME," he said. "This isn't so — not in the true sense. It is not genetically the same."

The fetus is not biologically part of the woman because it is not a normal functioning part of her body, he said. It develops independently from the mother when its heart begins to pump its own blood through the fetus.

THE ULTIMATE psychological effect on the woman depends on how the woman perceives the embryo and its "right to life."

"Any woman has the right to decide whether or not to get pregnant," said Dr. Richard Jaynes, an obstetrician from Annapolis Hospital in Wayne. "But should any person have an equal right to decide who can live or die?"

"The solution is not killing babies," he said. "I'm for responsible conception — which means adequate contraception."

"I am against taking a life whether it be through abortion, capital punishment or war."

"Life begins with conception," Dr. Jaynes said. "Whether I want to believe it (the embryo) is not a person or a personality or if a theologian says it has no soul, it is a scientific fact that life begins with conception."

"If abortion reform is passed, abortion will become the major form of birth control," he said. "And I am absolutely certain that some type of euthanasia (mercy killing) will soon follow."

HE SAID that even with liberalized abortion laws, women will still try to self-abort and resort to illegal abortions, and clinics will spring up to handle abortions on an assembly line basis.

Dr. Jaynes contends that Michigan's current abortion law accommodates "all abortions that are necessary." He said that abortions are performed at University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor when the mother's life is endangered and where the possibility of severe birth defects is confirmed.

But Dr. Sherman said that the ambiguous wording of Michigan's law makes it nearly impossible to determine when a legal abortion can be performed.

"The law says that abortions are permitted when the life of the mother is endangered and where continuation of the pregnancy will kill the mother."

"One has to sort of guess if it will kill the mother if that pregnancy is allowed to go on," he said.

"If it is performed, nothing happens and one can't really say whether the woman would have died or not."

"WHAT IF the chances are 50-50, should the abortion be performed? What if they are 80-20 or 95-5? Or what if there is only a one per cent chance that the woman will die? Should we risk that one per cent?"

"The law is asking doctors to guess what the chances will be," he said.

Currently, he said that all abortion cases handled at Sinai are discussed by a panel of doctors before a decision is made.

But he emphasized that the mother's physical and mental health should also be factors in the decision — and that this is not provided for under the current law.

PATRICK DOHANY

OCC Student Wins Marketing Prize

A Southfield student at Oakland Community College placed first in the national competition held by the collegiate division of the Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA) at a conference in San Antonio, Texas.

Patrick Dohany, 20827 Midway, was awarded a trophy in the individual marketing improvement area for his project dealing with computerizing newspaper subscription collections.

More than 2,000 students from the country participated in the April conference, according to OCC marketing instructor John Fattel.

Sen. Brock To Help McDonald

U.S. Sen. William E. Brock (R-Tenn.) will be the guest speaker at 8:30 a.m. Friday at the Pontiac Sheraton Motor Inn for the fifth annual congressional report breakfast in honor of U.S. Rep. Jack McDonald (R-Farmington).

Tickets are $50 and can be purchased from the breakfast chairman Robert G. Smith, 31643 Delaware, Livonia, or at the Sheraton inn, 1001 Woodward, on Friday.

TWENTY STUDENTS from the Orchard Ridge campus in Farmington had competed in a state contest at Western Michigan University in March.

The nine winners included: Greg M. Smith of Troy, Caprice Coleman of Bloomfield Hills, Carl Perko of Detroit and William Stibick, 30010 Lochmoor, Farmington who took first place awards in the marketing quiz bowl.

Joyce Carmen of Oak Park took first prize in the Executive Interview Competition.

Second prizes went to Kathy Huculak, Detroit; Rand Bishop, 14155 Berwick, Livonia; Greg R. Smith of Detroit, and Patty Connors of Franklin Village.

We need to raise our rates...

From 1950 to 1970, everything went up—except electricity. It went down.

... From here to here.

We've just asked the Michigan Public Service Commission to allow us to raise our electric rates for industries, businesses, and homes.

If approved, the new rates would provide about 11% more revenue to enable us to keep up with population growth. This works out to about a nickel a day extra for our average domestic customer.

We don't minimize the importance of a nickel a day. That's $18.00 a year, which can buy quite a few good things. But we do want to put it in perspective. And we want you to know why we need it, and what we're going to do with it.

First, to put it in perspective, we didn't want to ask for this increase. We were forced to. We need additional revenue to build the facilities to provide, in the future as in the past, fully reliable electric service for every purpose.

If the new rates are approved—and the Public Service Commission will spend months evaluating our need—the average cost of a kilowatt-hour for domestic customers will still be less (as the graph above shows) than it was in 1950. In that year, it was just over 3 cents. With the new rates, it will be about 2.6 cents.

Now why do we need it? In a word, inflation. Our costs have gone up tremendously. In the past five years, fuel has gone up 38%, labor 32%, local taxes 23%, and interest on bond issues 88%.

The cost of running our company this year will increase far more than the amount of our last rate increase.

What are we going to do with the proceeds of this rate increase? The most discouraging experience in these days of inflation is to pay more, and get less. Not so with this increase. It will enable us to construct the facilities to keep pace with the ever-increasing demand for electricity for home and factory.

Building new power plants is a job that never ends because the demand for electricity doubles every ten years. But, in the last 3 years, the cost of installing each new kilowatt of capacity rose 40%.

We will also be able to continue, and indeed to enhance, our vital programs for the improvement of air, land, and water resources of the area.

We do not expect anyone to be pleased with a rate increase. But we do ask them to try to understand why we need it.

By receiving a little more in rates today, we will be better able to meet our many responsibilities tomorrow.

RU's Blanchard Ties State Vault Mark

The name of Roger Blanchard of Redford Union has to be big - VERY BIG - for Saturday's state Class A regional track championships at Belleville.

Blanchard proved himself Michigan's schoolboy premier pole vaulter when he soared 14 feet, 6 1/2 inches to win his favorite event in the record-breaking Schafer relays in Southgate.

Not only was it a meet record but it also tied the all-time state mark shared by Dave Leitner of Grand Haven and Larry Biskner of Waterford.

However, Blanchard's feat won't enter the state record books. He'll have to do as well, or better in the state finals a week from Saturday to get into the official Michigan record book.

Blanchard, who started vaulting when he was seven years old, never had gone so high before.

He shared honors with Marshall Dill, of Detroit Northern who won the 100 yard dash in 9.4 seconds, tying the fastest time ever by a Michigan prep in the event, and the Northern 880 yard relay time of 1:27.1, an all-time best in the Wolverine state by a prep unit. Dill anchored the quartet and also won the 230.

Redford Union also picked up a third place in the two mile relay with a team of Bob Barker, Mark Kenney, Keith Richmond and Mike Lagana.

NORTHERN WON the meet with 49 points with Grosse Pointe North second with 31. Livonia Franklin had 10 points and Redford Union eight to finish well back.

Mike Jinett, of Franklin, turned in a sparkling effort to finish second in the 440 yard run won by Bill Nance, of Northern, in the record time of :48.3. Franklin's John Dawe was third in the mile.

Mike Powierski, of Thurston, with a toss of 53 feet, 9 inches placed second in the shotput while Thurston's two mile relay of Mike Jones, Dale Caudill, Roland Pouget and Dave Drake was fourth.

Garden City West came up with a third in the shuttle hurdle relays as Kirk Lewis, Ken Smith, Dale Halliwell and Russ Graham carried the baton in :58.8.

North Farmington, competing in the Howell Invitational, scored 58 points to place fourth.

The Raiders won the shuttle hurdle relay with a foursome of Craig Dhue, Drew Mahlic, Rick Fuelling and Mike Gow. The same quartet was second in the 440 yard relay and fourth in the 880 yard relay.

North Farmington's Fuelling and Ron Crowe combined to place second in the shot put relay; Bill Doerr and John Dwyer followed suit in the pole vault; and Gow and Dhue in the long jump.

Mahalic and Bill Douglass were third in the high jump. In the distance medley relay, Jerry Makinen, John Dwyer, Tom Messing and Dale Carruthers raced to a fifth place finish.

FARMINGTON HIGH was second in the Ashley Relays at Waterford Mott with 49 points as Ann Arbor Huron squeezed in with 50 to take the team title.

Livonia's Churchill and Stevenson tied with 12 points each for ninth place while Southfield Lathrup had 11 and Farmington Harrison one point.

Farmington captured four events. Tom Massey took the shot put while the Falcons won the mile, four mile and shuttle hurdle relays.

Here's the way Observer-area track meets placed in the Ashley relays:

High Jump: 4-- Jim Honke (Churchill).
Long Jump: 5-- Charles Babcock (Stevenson).
Pole Vault: 2-- Mike Skaglin (Lathrup), 5-- Lee Blodgett (Farm).
Shot Put: 1-- Tom Massey (Farm), 5-- Charles Shipley, Distance: 54 feet, 3 1/2 inches.
Four-mile relay: 1-- Farmington (Kim Jaska, Kim Hildebrandt, Nick Burton, Mike McGlothlin), 2-- Stevenson, Time: 18:53.1.
Distance medley relay: 5-- Churchill, 440 yard relay: 3-- Southfield Lathrup.
Two Mile run: 2-- Dennis Kurtis (Churchill), Time: 9:34.6.
Sprint medley relay: 2-- Farmington, High Hurdles: 3-- Randy Pender (Farm).
100 yard: 2-- Mark Timmons (Farm), 5-- Mark Maloney (Churchill).
Middle Distance relay: 2-- Stevenson, 3-- Churchill, 5-- Harrison.
Low Hurdles: 2-- Pender.
Shuttle hurdle relay: 1-- Farmington (Dan Steinko, Bruce Stirling, Steve Kemp, Pender), Time: 1:58.5.
Mile relay: 1-- Farmington (Hildebrandt, Doug Carroll, McGlothlin, Timmons), Time: 3:24.9.

IT DOESN'T COUNT as a state record but Redford Union's Roger Blanchard equalled the existing Michigan High School Association mark of 14' 6 1/2" in the pole vault Saturday at the Schafer Relays. Roger will try to make it official over the weekend when he competes in the regionals. Then on to the state meet later in the month. (Observer photo)

Bentley Gets Solace By Beating Plymouth

Overall, it has not been a happy year for Bentley High in baseball.

As defending champs in the Suburban Six League, the Livonians have had their problems and are out of the running to repeat as kingpins.

But it helps to make things easier for Bentley anytime it can win over Plymouth. That was the case Monday when Bentley pulled out an 8-6 win.

Relief work by Bill Duncan, after taking over for Brian Dinsmore in the sixth inning with one out, helped save the day for Bentley.

Bentley had built up an 8-0 lead before Plymouth put on a comeback that almost caught the Livonians.

A homer by Al Hernandez with Tom Waronek aboard shot Bentley off to a 2-0 lead. Then in the fifth Bentley scored five times when Hernandez walked, Bob Sitaukas doubled, Jim Gentz singled, Steve Houghton singled, John Spritzer was hit by a pitch and Dinsmore doubled.

A walk to Hernandez and an error made it 8-0 in the top of the sixth.

Plymouth then struck back. Howie Schryer, Jack Mathias and Jim Grimmer walked to load the bases. Dan Hees doubled, Steve Straley was safe when the leftfielder missed his fly and John Owens and Pete Genner followed with singles.

Schryer and Grimmer walked and Hees singled for the final run of the game.

Meantime, Redford Union, which had won its first five games to take a two-game lead in the league, bowed for the second time in a row - this time to Belleville, 2-1, to see his hold on the top slot shrink a little more.

Randy Ferguson, who had hurled victories in his first eight games for RU, suffered his second consecutive defeat when Larry Fix homered in the third inning and drove in the winning run after a walk in the fourth.

Ferguson gave up six hits, fanned seven and walked three.

Vern Gowen, the winning pitcher, allowed four hits. The only RU run came across in the first inning when R.J. LeRoux walked, stole second and scored on Bill Herbert's single.

GC East Bats Sound Off; Rip Robichaud

The bats of Garden City East rang a merry, merry tune against Robichaud.

Combined with some super pitching by Chris Waronek it all added up to a 16-2 win for East and kept the team in contention for the Mid-Wayne League title.

It was East's fourth victory in six conference starts.

East went to town with 16 hits and scored 10 times in the fourth inning in enjoying one of its most lopsided wins.

While all this was going on Waronek gave up only two hits to the Robichaud batters, fanned 14 and walked three.

FOUR OF WARONEK'S teammates totaled as many hits by themselves as the entire Robichaud team. Steve Orr, Ken Shaw, Bob Kleinbrook and Steve Bard each had a pair of safeties.

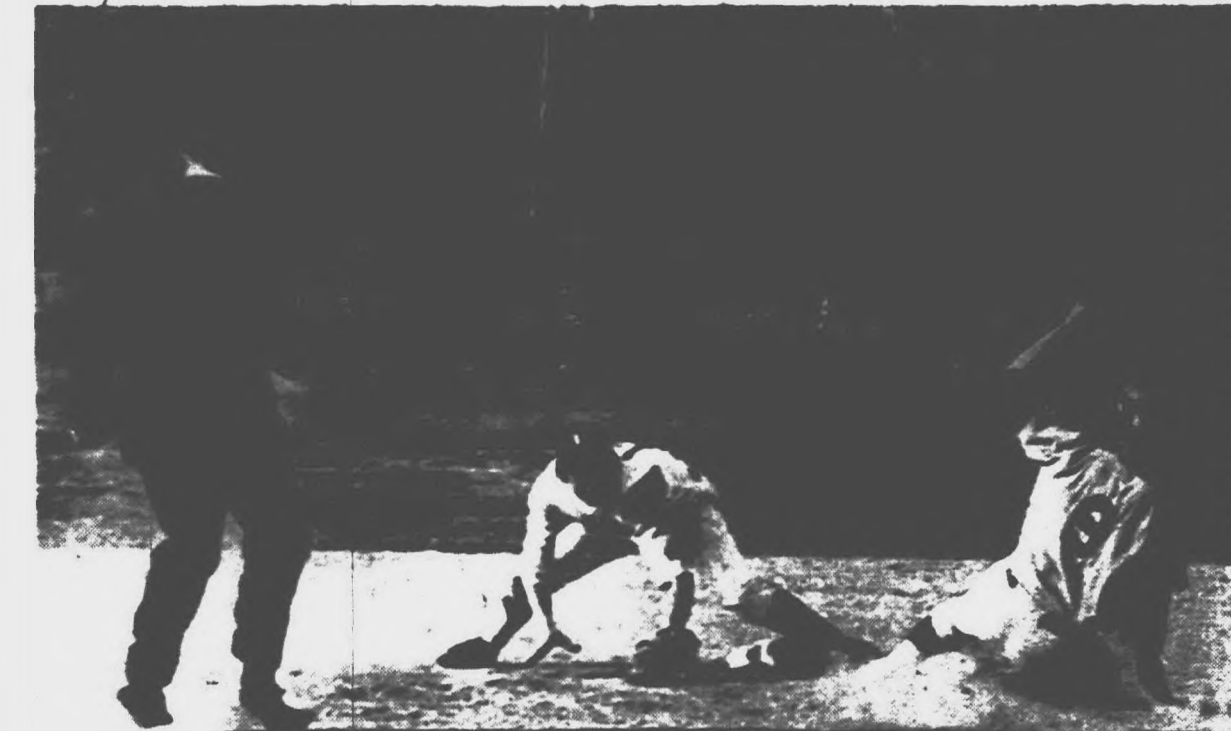

In the 10-run uprising, Waronek started things with a single. An error and then a walk to Orr loaded the bases. Ken Shaw singled in two runs.

After Kleinbrook walked and Dennis Kesik was safe on an error, Brian Smith drove in two runs with a single, Bard two with a double, Waronek up for the second time singled and Jim Wisniewski, up for the second time, too, also singled.

The victory followed on the heels of a 4-3 decision for East over Inkster. Dennis Ray, the winning pitcher, allowed five hits, fanned nine and walked three.

Shaw went three-for-three with one blow a solo homer. Orr chipped in with a two run homer.

Lathrup Netters Whip Stevenson

Southfield Lathrup netters became overwhelming favorites to capture the Inter-Lakes Conference championship for the second straight year when they crushed previously undefeated Livonia Stevenson, 6-1.

Both teams entered the showdown with identical 4-0 records during which Stevenson had lost only one set and Lathrup none.

RON HOEKSTRA, of Stevenson, broke the Charger streak when he defeated Keith West, 2-6, 6-4, 6-3. It enabled the Spartan star to maintain his unbeaten string but didn't stop Stevenson from going down to its first setback.

Jerry Kennedy and Mike Mikula, of Stevenson, forced Howard Wright and Steve Schneider to three sets before losing, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2.

It was one of the finest high school tennis matches of the spring even though it was apparent early that Lathrup had a bit too much power for the losers.

Larry Nemer started the Chargers on the route to victory when he took the No. 1 singles from Jim Shea 6-2, 6-1. Bob Hollander followed with a 6-2, 6-0 triumph over Paul Altess and Jack Zaret beat Tony Leonard, 6-2, 6-0. That's when Hoekstra broke the string with his triumph in three sets.

Lathrup swept the three doubles matches with Mike Pomish and Cliff Migdal going all out to check Doug Hansford and Bruce Lupp, 6-3, 9-7 and then Steve Katz and Howard Dawes swept the final double match, 6-0, 6-2.

Schoolcraft Wins 12th Match In Row

The unbeaten Schoolcraft College golfers stretched their string to 12 when they beat Henry Ford CC and Auburn Hills of Oakland CC in a triangular meet.

Schoolcraft had a total of 304 strokes followed by Henry Ford 313 and Auburn Hills 335. Tom Cash, of Livonia Franklin, was medalist with 73. Other Schoolcraft scorers were: Tom Proben, of Thurston, 74; Jack Bendig, of Stevenson, 76; and Jeff Taylor, of Northville, 79.

Other members of the Ocelot team are Dick Lind and Pat Flaherty of Stevenson and Andy Lawrence of Livonia Bentley.

Schoolcraft will compete in the state junior college tourney at Southwestern Michigan College next week. The winner advances to the regional meet at Black River Country Club in Port Huron against teams from Ohio and Indiana.

The Ocelots, coached by Tom Roncoli, were third in the state meet a year ago.

Prep Track Ratings

Livonia Franklin's mile relay team turned in one of the most outstanding performances of the season in Michigan schoolboy track with a clocking of 3:23.3

Mike Jinnett, of Franklin who is bound for the United States Naval Academy, won the quartermile in a quick 49.3.

Mike McGlothlin, one of the big reasons for the success of Farmington High, had a 4:23.7

mile to rank with the best in the state.

George Maskin observing sports

If you're a male student somewhere in the age bracket of 10-17, you must be wondering what you'll do this summer.

Your parents have to be wondering, too. So, here's a thought -- especially, if you're a sports enthusiast and have a particular leaning toward basketball.

Why not attend the new weekly basketball camps at either Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti or the one the Pistons' Dave Bing puts on in the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania.

One couldn't recommend a better vacation for a youngster, plus a spot where he might pick up some valuable knowledge in how the game of basketball should be played.

Coach Jim Dutcher, of Eastern Michigan, and ex-Piston coach Donnis Butcher will run the sessions at Eastern.

Dutcher and Butcher will stage four sessions as follows: July 4-10, July 11-17, July 18-24 and July 25-31.

They have arranged for high school coaches and players to serve as counselors and their faculty will include coaches Bill van Breda Kolff of the Pistons, John Orr of Michigan, Gus Ganakas of Michigan State and Harold (Bunny) Levitt, the man who made 499 free throws in a row.

Boys, who'll be enrolled in grades seven through 12 in the fall, are invited to enroll.

The fee for one week, which will cover housing, meals and the instructional phases of the camp, will be $95. The medical facilities of the college will be available.

To enroll, just write Jim Dutcher at Eastern Michigan, Ypsilanti 48197. Or if you wish any information call Dutcher at 487-0214 or Butcher at 291-7498.

Bing will run five weekly sessions of his camp at the beautiful Trailside Cottages at Pocono Pines, Pa. The first begins July 18 with the others on July 25, Aug. 1, Aug. 8 and Aug. 15.

"Boys can come for a week or five weeks," says Bing.

The enrollment at Bing's camp is restricted to boys 9-19 and Bing's faculty lists such super cage standouts as van Breda Kolff, Sam Jones, former star of the Boston Celtics; Jim Maloney of the University of Maryland; Archie Clark, of the Philadelphia 76ers; and Wes Unseld of the Baltimore Bullets.

The tuition at the Bing camp is $100, exclusive, of course, of transportation costs to get there.

But the camp does offer a special price if five campers go together. Each then is charged $90. If 10 or more sign up from the same school or area, the charge is $85 each.

To enroll at the Bing camp one should write to 512 Bruce Road, Treviso, Pa., before June 15 or the camp proper at Pocono Pines, Pa., after June 15.

Information for Detroit area youngsters may be obtained by writing to the Detroit Pistons, 202 Michigan, Detroit 48226.

It should be noted that the basketball camp has become a big thing, especially in the eastern part of the country.

For a relatively small enrollment fee, a boy can turn camper, enjoy swimming, boating and everything else and still get a chance to work with some of the best named coaches and players in the world.

To our way of thinking, sports-minded youngsters would do well to consider attending either the camp at Eastern Michigan or the Bing camp in Pennsylvania. You'll have yourselves a great time!

Prep Golfers, Trackmen Start State Meets

The preliminaries are over for the area's high school track team and golfers.

Come Friday, the golfers plunge into their regional competition, the first phase of the battle that could lead to a state championship.

On Saturday, it'll be regional day in track as the trackmen strive for spots in the forthcoming state meets.

The trackmen, as in basketball, are grouped into four classes — A, B, C and D. In golf, there'll be action for Classes A and B with Class C and D schools grouped together in one category.

FOR THE MOST part the Observerland Class A prep trackmen will seek regional glory at two centers — Farmington and Belleville.

At each, preliminaries begin at 10 a.m. and will be followed by the finals at 1 p.m.

The slate at Farmington High will be topped by host Farmington, which is unbeaten in dual-meet competition, along with Birmingham Groves, which hasn't lost in the Northwest Suburban League; Brother Rice, again the No. 1 team in the Catholic League, and Detroit Mumford.

Meet director Jack Cotton has announced the following schools will make up the Farmington regional track field:

Birmingham Groves, Brother Rice, Birmingham Seaholm, Bloomfield Andover and Lahser, Detroit's Catholic Central, Cooley, Henry Ford Mumford, and U-D; Farmington, North Farmington, Southfield and Southfield-Lathrup, Milford, Oak Park, West Bloomfield and Walled Lake's Central and Western.

Going to Belleville, where Belleville's one-man gang, Gerardo Pettis, who could win four state titles this year will be the standout individual, will be Redford Union's unbeaten Suburban Six League powerhouse: Plymouth, Thurston; and the four Livonia schools — Bentley, Churchill, Franklin and Stevenson — and Garden City East and West.

Bishop Borgess, the Catholic League's A-West champs the last three years and unbeaten so far this season, will complete in the tough Class A regional at Southgate Schafer. So will Westland's John Glenn.

Among the Class B schools, Clarenceville and Farmington Harrison will be at Clarenceville.

Heading the Class C area brigade is Country Day School, which shapes up as one of the state favorites with invitational titles to its credit this season, including the big one at Central Michigan.

Country Day will go to Southgate, along with Our Lady of Sorrows and St. Agatha.

IN GOLF REGIONALS Friday, the area entries for the most part will be concentrated at the Glen Oaks Course in Farmington where Farmington athletic director Cotton again will be in charge.

The Glen Oaks regional will be for Class A schools only and the field includes North Farmington, Farmington, Garden City East and West, Southfield, Southfield-Lathrup, Livonia's Bentley, Churchill, Franklin and Stevenson, Plymouth and John Glenn.

In addition, Berkley, Clarkston, Waterford, Kettering, Ferndale, Cherry Hill, Oak Park, West Bloomfield, Pontiac Central and North, Waterford Mott, Waterford and Walled Lake's Central and Western will be at Glen Oaks.

Birmingham Groves, runnerup to Saginaw MacArthur for the state title last year, and beaten only once in 50 dual meets in the last three seasons, will be among the teams to beat for the state title.

Groves, led by Scott Love and Tom Rex, has been assigned to the regional at Romeo. Also Romeo-bound are Brother Rice, which is another major threat, and Birmingham Seaholm.

Redford Union, Thurston and Bishop Borgess will invade Detroit Redford for regional honors.

Our Lady of Sorrows, a former state Class C-D champ, and Country Day will bid for Class C-D regional honors at Romeo while Clarenceville goes to Burroughs in Brighton for Class B competition.

Basically, in track, the first three to finish in each event in the regional qualify for the state meet.

In golf, the teams placing one-two-three in the regionals qualify for the state meet, plus the tournament medalist, if he represents a school other than one of the first three.

The Class A lower peninsula state track meet will be held at Michigan State, the Class B at Michigan Center, the Class C at Mt. Pleasant and the Class D at Big Rapids on May 22.

The Class A and C-D state golf finals will be held at the Port Huron Golf Club and the Class B at the nearby Black River Golf Club in Port Huron on May 24.

Regionals in tennis will be held on May 21-22 with the state finals at Kalamazoo on June 4-5.

1,500 Golfers Pay Tribute To PGA Heads

By W.W. EDGAR
As a prelude to National Golf Day, the one big charity event of the year, the Michigan Section of the Professional Golfers Association paid tribute to its first 10 presidents Monday at the Raleigh House.

More than 1,500 golf followers turned out to hear Wilfrid Reid, 86-year-old former pro at the Country Club of Detroit and later at Indianwood, tell of his experiences of playing with the late Winston Churchill and President Warren G. Harding.

Wilfrid was president of the Michigan Section from 1928 to 1930 and made the trip from his home in West Palm Beach, Fla., to be with some of his former Michigan cronies.

Others among the real oldtimers were Jimmy Anderson, now 75, who was pro at Pine Lake for many years; Frank Sprogel, one time pro at Meadowbrook who achieved his greatest success at Blytheheld in Grand Rapids.

The other presidents in attendance were Al Watrous, formerly of Oakland Hills;

Tommy Shannon, of Orchard Lake; Warren Orlick, current president of the National PGA and pro at Tam O'Shanter; Don Soper, of Royal Oak; Cliff Good, of Midland; Lou Powers, of Sunny Acres and Jack Clark, of Gowanite.

FOUR OTHERS were honored for their services during the years. They were Al Cotton, sports editor of the Jackson Citizen-Patriot; Bob Howell, organizer of the District Golf League in 1930; Frank Kenny, past president of the Golf Association of Michigan and Edwin M. Titus, a key man in the promotion of golf in the Flint area.

Frank Metzger, pro at Red Run, was paid the high honor of being chosen Michigan's "Pro of the Year." He has been at Red Run for more than two decades.

Joe Dey, head of the pro golfers playing unit, was the main speaker and drew many interesting contrasts of the game as played today and that of the days when the pros first organized in the late 20s.

Bob Bialy Blanks Foes On One-Hit

The most important thing any pitcher will tell you is for your team to win the game.

Bob Bialy of Stevenson High, a junior lefthander, agrees, which is why he was all smiles after the Livonians blanked Walled Lake Central, 6-0, in an Inter-Lakes League game.

UNTIL ONE MAN was out for Walled Lake in the seventh inning, Bialy had a no-hitter going.

There he was on the brink of the greatest feat any pitcher can achieve. The batter facing him was Pat Cattaneo and Pat drilled one up the middle for a single.

"No question about it," said Stevenson coach George Van Wagoner, "it was a clean hit. But it was a shame that it had to come so late in the game. Bob certainly pitched on of the greatest games a Stevenson boy has turned in for us in a long time."

Cattaneo's single was the only safety Bialy gave up. He struck out 14 and walked four. Bialy has been somewhat late in coming around for Stevenson this spring. During vacation he went on a trip to Europe with his parents.

"The way he's pitching he should help us a lot in the state tournament and the Les Anders Invitational," said Van Wagoner. Stevenson's chances to repeat as league champs have all but evaporated.

Stevenson gave Bialy a 3-0 lead in the first inning on hits by Frank Geluso, Tom See and Mike Gee, two errors and a walk.

In the fourth, hits by See and Mark Kiefer, along with a walk to Geluso and a double steal led to two more runs. Then Gee and Bialy singled for the final run of the game.

THINGS REVERSED themselves Monday for Stevenson.

This time the Livonians were the victims of a 2-0 shutout as Southfield Lathrup's Bruce Jacobs held Stevenson to three hits. He fanned one and walked one. Neither Lathrup run was earned.

In the first inning Bruce Ruhl was safe on an error, stole second and scored on a single by Harper. In the second Brodsky tripled and came home on a balk.

Gee was the losing pitcher.

BRADNER HONORED — A special resolution from the State Senate and House of Representatives is presented to Dr. Eric Bradner by State Sen. Carl Pursell (R-Plymouth) at the retirement dinner honoring the college's first president on Saturday. Behind Dr. Bradner is the portrait of him done in a special photographic process which will hang in the college library recently named the Eric J. Bradner Library. In the foregoing (from left) are Miss Lois Waterman, dean emerita; Dr. James Woodburne, Dr. Bradner's son-in-law, Susan Woodburne, Dr. Bradner's daughter; and Mrs. Florence Bradner, the former president's wife.

400 Honor Dr. Bradner; Nixon Writes In Praise

By R.T. THOMPSON

"Never has anyone had such a fine testimonial given him as the one I have received from this large gathering," said an emotional Dr. Eric Bradner at the dinner honoring his retirement as president of Schoolcraft College.

Every one of the more than 400 stood and applauded as the founding president of the Northwestern Wayne County Community College District said his farewells to friends, associates, members of the faculty an administration who helped him establish the college during the past seven years.

The affair, held in Waterman Student Center, was attended by all those who started with Dr. Bradner in forming the college back in 1960, present and past members of the board of trustees, and educators from all sections of the state.

AND THERE was one surprise that even Dr. Bradner wasn't prepared for... a personal letter of congratulations from President Richard Nixon.

Mrs. Jane Moehle, chairman of the Schoolcraft College board, read a resolution in which he was named president emeritus and then told that the college library would be known as Eric J. Bradner Library from that moment.

Mrs. Moehle then unveiled a painted portrait of Dr. Bradner which will be placed in the library.

Charles Castillo, speech instructor at Schoolcraft and a longtime friend of the Bradners, served as master of ceremonies and mentioned the high spots of the honored guest's 38 years service in education.

A second surprise came for the Bradners when Castillo introduced Dr. Richard Young, one of the original members of the study committee studying the need for a community college in the area.

Dr. Young had just arrived from Algeria when he learned of the testimonial and immediately made plans to attend.

He related many of the incidents involving the early planning and told how Dr.

Bradner was lured down from Delta College to take over the new institution.

STATE SEN. Carl Pursell presented a resolution to Dr. Bradner from both houses of the State Legislature.

Resolutions also were presented by William Craft, president of the Livonia Board of Education; Dr. Rob Robinson, representing the Northville Board of Education; Supt. David McDowell for the Clarenceville Board; and resolutions were read from the Garden City and Plymouth school boards.

Mrs. Nancy Ordowski, retiring president of the Schoolcraft College Faculty Wives Club, presented Mrs. Florence Bradner, wife of the retiring college president, a bouquet of 12 roses.

Letters were read from U.S. Sens. Philip Hart and Robert Griffin; Gov. William Milliken; Dr. John Porter, head of the State Department of Education, as well as from the presidents of Oakland CC, Monroe CC, Macomb CC, Jackson CC, and most of the community colleges in Michigan.

Ron Monfette, who assisted in arrangements for the affair, presented Dr. Bradner an original sculpture made by James Black of the college's art department.

All members of the present college board were present with the exception of Trustee James Boswell of Livonia. Past members attending included: Lee Bennett and Ervin Brown of Livonia, Dr. Forrer of Northville and Sam Hudson of Plymouth.

S'craft Budget At $6.1 Million

A tentative operating budget of $6.1 million was quietly adopted by the Schoolcraft College Board of Trustees last week — a contrast to last year's adoption.

Last year's tentative budget was adopted amid controversy over the faculty contracts and the addition of six administrative posts to the college.

Missing from this year's meeting to adopt the budget were irate faculty and students who had objected to parts of the budget last year.

THOUGH THE budget is still subject to change, the final version is expected to be adopted on June 23 after a public hearing.

The college began working on the budget on Dec. 8. Since that time an administrative committee on the budget, the vice presidents, the budget review committee, the college president and the board of trustees have examined it.

The new budget is more than a half million dollars (or nearly 10 per cent) over the 1970-71 budget of $5.6 million. It is based on an expected enrollment of 5,950 students — a 12.5 per cent increase over this year's enrollment of 5,296.

Currently, 1.22 mill is levied for operating expenses and .55 mill for debt retirement.

Voters will be asked to approve another .5 mill for general purposes and .5 mill for capital improvement at a special millage election on Sept. 13. If it passes, the mill will be levied for 20 years.

State Ed Board Salutes Bradner

The State Board of Education has adopted the following resolution honoring Dr. Eric J. Bradner, who will retire this June as president of Schoolcraft Community College in Livonia:

"WHEREAS, Dr. Eric J. Bradner has served the youth of our nation for over 38 years; and

"WHEREAS, he was most instrumental in the establishment of the Schoolcraft Community College District and served as president of Schoolcraft College since its inception in 1961, and

"WHEREAS, he will retire from this position on June 30, 1971, concluding twenty-two years of service as an outstanding administrator in Michigan community colleges, and

"WHEREAS, he has been instrumental in fostering the growth of the Michigan community college system beginning with his 12-year (1949-1961) tenure as dean of the Bay City Junior College, and

"WHEREAS, he has guided Schoolcraft College, as its president, during its establishment and development as one of the really fine community colleges; therefore, be it

"RESOLVED, That the

Doll And Pet Parade Set For Saturday

The annual doll and pet parade begins at 12 noon Saturday at the Wonderland Center, Plymouth at Middle Belt in Livonia.

Trophies will be awarded in a total of seven categories for dolls (two), dogs (two), cats (one), most unusual pet and best unusual pet.

Entries are still being accepted from area children.

It's Showdown Time For North, Glenn Nines

It'll be showdown time at John Glenn Wednesday when North Farmington visits the Glenn baseball diamond.

As the saying goes, it'll be "a biggie" for both sides. Glenn leads the Northwest Suburban League with a 6-1 record. North Farmington, which has won five straight since an earlier 3-0 loss at Glenn, stands second in the conference with a 5-2 mark.

Both teams won in brilliant pitchers duels on Monday. Glenn blanked Thurston, 2-0, while North Farmington whitewashed Franklin 3-0.

GLENN'S DARYL Demaray posted his sixth victory overall and made it 4-0 in the league as he gave up two hits and fanned 13 in beating Thurston's Steve Kreager in a game which shaped up as a double no-hitter until the fifth inning.

Kreager also struck out 13 and allowed three hits. The first hit he yielded was in the sixth when Glenn put together all its three singles — by Randy Horshak, Mike Borders and Dave Barrows — for its two runs.

Demaray lost his no-hitter in the fifth inning when Don Murdock singled.

It marked the fourth straight game in which Thurston had been shutout.

JIM WHITE posted his fifth win against one loss as North Farmington won from Franklin. He allowed three hits, fanned seven and walked one.

Loser Tony Kaseta yielded four hits, struck out four and walked one.

North Farmington scored once in the first inning when Dan Delling doubled in Doug Mohr, who was safe on an error.

In the fourth, Delling singled and Mike Collar doubled for another run. A single by John Combes, a walk to White and an error on Arnie Kahkonen's hot shot led to North Farmington's final run.

Jack Lamb singled to start the Groves' uprising. Russ Oliveto also singled and Harold Kuhn was safe on an error to load the bases.

John Dickson singled in two runs and Scott Freisner doubled in two more.

Dickson, the winning pitcher, allowed four hits. Rick Seid had two of the four Oak Park safeties.

Falcons Win And Keep Lead

There's no keeping a good hitting team down. In one game, Farmington

High finds itself the victim of a no-run, no-hit defeat pinned on it by Rick Eedman and Pontiac Northern, 3-0.

But then the Falcons bounced right back to beat Waterford, 6-2, and post its eighth win in 10 starts in Inter-Lakes Conference play and remain in first place.

John Fleming tossed a two-hitter while fanning 11 and walking five to keep Waterford well in check.

Meantime, Ray Ponke and Bruce Economeau each had two hits for the winners.

Farmington scored in the first inning when Economeau singled in Mike Flynn, who had walked.

That's the way things stood for the Falcons until they scored five times in the sixth inning.

Tom Wenzon singled and Economeau doubled before Paul Kufereschmidt delivered a sacrifice fly. Fleming doubled, Randy Eckerman was safe on an error and John Holappa singled to wrap up the festivities.

Redman, of Pontiac Northern, a lefthander, struck out six and walked one in pitching his gem against Farmington.

Ace Helps Groves Win Golf Match

Tom Rex recorded a rare hole-in-one in a high school golf match Monday as Birmingham Groves won a triangular meet at Fellows Creek.

Rex' shot came on the 195-yard first hole. He wound up with a 38 to share medalist honors with Dan Jensen as Groves won with 156 to Oak Park's 172 and John Glenn's 174.

Bill Wilson had a 39 and Doug Atelean a 41 for Groves. Jim May with a 39 topped Glenn.

Sorrows Wins

It was a clutch game for both sides—a battle of co-leaders.

And Our Lady of Sorrows met the challenge with flying colors against St. James in baseball.

A 9-5 win shot Sorrows into sole possession of the Catholic League's Northwest Division with a 5-1 record.

Bishop Borgess Wins On Three Base Steal

It was a week ago the Tigers won a game on a four-base bunt.

Maybe it wasn't quite as dramatic, but Bishop Borgess captured a 1-0 decision from Gabriel Richard thanks to a three base steal.

This is how it happened. The teams were engaged in a scoreless tie when Mark Szpond of Borgess singled in the fourth — one of his three hits.

He was forced at second by Reese Dobreck. Then Dobreck stole second and when the catcher's throw sailed into the outfield, Dobreck roared around to third.

Dobreck didn't stop there, not when the centerfielder messed up the already wild throw by the catcher. The Borgess runner kept on going to score the game's only run.

Jerry Sharon went the distance to post his second

Lost Weekend Dims All Hope At Harrison

Farmington Harrison High's baseball team is having problems. The team dropped three straight over the weekend.

There were back-to-back losses to Northville, 5-1 and 9-4, in a Saturday doubleheader, then a 13-3 whipping at the hands of Walled Lake Western in a Western Six League game.

Western punched out 20 hits while Harrison was held to just two — Dave Manos and John Barlett singles.

Trojan Bats Held In Check By Keith Dyer

Waterford Kettering High pitcher Keith Dyer appeared to be in quick trouble against Clarenceville.

In bang-bang fashion, Terry Laird doubled and Gary Peeling singled for a Clarenceville run.

But Dyer then closed the gates the rest of the way as Kettering went on to score a 6-1 Wayne-Oakland League victory.

Groves, Franklin Track Duel Set

Everything is set for the battle of the unbeaten in track, matching Franklin and Groves High Schools Thursday at Franklin.

Groves made it 4-0 to match Franklin's record in the Northwest Suburban League by downing John Glenn, 84-34, on Monday as Franklin was idle.

Thus, Thursday's meet will decide the dual meet title for 1971.

Bruce Rentz and Jim Cosmi each won two events against Glenn. Cosmi took the two dashes and ran on the victorious 880 yard relay. Rentz won the two hurdles.

The Stroller...

Old Time Rituals

By W. W. EDGAR

One of the rewards for growing old—gracefully—is the many opportunities it gives a fellow to sit back and make comparisons of the various generations and their habits.

The Stroller, who has lived through the days of the flag pole sitters, goldfish swallowers, marathon dancers, six-day bike racers, and hula hoops, got to thinking about of these changes the other night.

The public prints of the day carried the story that there were no tears shed or any other show of emotion as the last passenger train passed through the area.

Each word carried pangs of nostalgia, for the nightly walks over the old bridge back home to watch the Lehigh Valley's crack train, "The Black Diamond," became a ritual not only for him, but for countless others. The walk usually brought the day's activities to a close.

First, with his father, then with his school teacher, and later with his shop foremen, The Stroller was exposed to many pearls of wisdom on these nightly walks. And he can't help but feel sorry for the later generations that now show no emotion for the passing of the trains.

This is only one of the many changes he has lived through, and some of them are most amazing.

AS HE SAT THERE, silently reviewing the changes, The Stroller couldn't help recalling the ridicule heaped upon an elderly gent named Townsend some years ago when he crossed the country advocating the Townsend Plan by which the elderly citizens would draw government funds and there would be a guarantee for all families.

They laughed at him. But today, there are countless thousands on welfare throughout the country, and even President Nixon is advocating a plan whereby there will be a guaranteed income for each family.

Back in those days, too, folks looked with disdain and embarrassment when economic conditions forced them to go to "the poor house."

Every county had a "home" for the older folks, but it was a place of last resort.

Today, there are no qualms about accepting welfare and there are no feelings of embarrassment.

Changing times! This is where they are most noticed.

IT IS DIFFICULT to believe, too, that there was a time, not too long ago, when the main social events in the small towns were the "box socials" sponsored by the churches and young people's organization.

To the younger uninitiated a box social was an affair where the young girls packed a box of lunch and wrapped it in gayly colored papers.

Then, as a highlight of the evening, the boys were asked to bid on the boxes, each fellow hoping he would purchase his sweetheart's package.

It didn't always work out that way.

But it was a lot of fun.

Wonder if those days ever will come back.

The Court Jester

by BILL CAMERON

It was encouraging to see the turnout of interested tennis players at the Stevenson High courts Thursday and at the Livonia Tennis Club meeting afterward. The club has the courts reserved each Thursday night from 6 to 10 p.m.

They have established a rule of doubles only and a 10 game set and out if anyone is waiting.

The members hail from Plymouth, Westland, Farmington and Southfield as well as Livonia and Garden City. Enrollment figures have reached 80, but they could use some more gals.

SPEAKING OF gals, this is the week that I start my indoor tennis school for adult beginners. I have four classes with 60 registrants (55 gals, five men) and a waiting list.

My philosophy is that you can teach beginners the basic fundamentals of tennis (footwork, forehand, backhand and serve) in a comfortable, indoor setting. It gets frustrating outdoors fighting the wind and occasional rain, plus mosquitoes, and chasing balls from one court to another.

Not many good tennis players enjoy playing in a court alongside of beginners. The noise, and distraction of balls always interrupting your game, become quite bothersome.

Getting back to lessons, they are only good if you practice what you learn. Repeating a move over and over will eventually become habit and therefore automatic. Tennis requires concentration. If you take your eye off the ball you'll end up flubbing the shot. Practice makes perfect.

PASSING SHOTS - When purchasing a racket, check for weight (light, medium, heavy) and grip size. Your hand should feel comfortable on the grip. If you have a small hand a 4 1/2" grip would probably be adequate. A muscular guy could handle a heavy racket but a petite gal should stay with a light weight until she gets strong enough to clobber the ball.

The Livonia Tennis Club will sponsor a series of four instructional classes for beginning and intermediate players under the leadership of Don Brown, tennis pro at the Cranbrook Tennis Club. Brown was formerly the club pro at Pine Lake and the Birmingham Athletic Club and has been responsible for developing several of the areas top junior tennis players.

The lessons will be held at the Stevenson courts, Six Mile Road, west of Farmington beginning Friday, May 14 and continuing on Tuesday, May 18, Friday, May 21 and Tuesday, May 25. Beginner lessons will start at 6 p.m. and intermediate at 7 p.m.

Cost is $12 and registrations will be accepted at courtside beginning at 5:30 p.m. opening night.

For further information, call club president Ray Decker of Farmington at 477-8551 or John Hookey of Livonia at 421-7856.

GC West Loses Relay; Meet To Cherry Hill

As they say in sports, one point or one run is like a million.

Garden City West's track team learned that when nipped by Cherry Hill, 59-58 1/2.

It was West's first loss of the season after seven victories and dropped the team out of a tie for the lead in the Tri-Rivers League.

West had a chance to pull into a three way deadlock in the final standings Tuesday when it met Taylor Kennedy. A week ago, Kennedy beat Cherry Hill by two points.

THE WEST - Cherry Hill meet went down to the final event of the day - the mile relay - which Cherry Hill won.

Russ Graham and Dale Halliwell were the stars for West. Each won two events - Graham the high and low hurdles, Halliwell the two dashes.

Don Anderson continued his fine distance running by winning the two mile for West in the excellent time of 9:52.4.

The Garden City West results:

POLE VAULT: 1-- Bill Botherston, 2-- Steve Lant, 3-- Jim Uheleld. Height: 12 feet.

SHOT PUT: 2-- Jerry Holmes, 3-- Gary Snyder.

LONG JUMP: 1-- Charles Bell. Distance: 19 feet, 2 1/2 inches.

HIGH JUMP: 2-- Steve Middleton, 3-- Kim Lewis.

220 YARD: 1-- Halliwell, 3-- Wolfson. Time: 23.

Set Baseball Pairings For District Tourney

Pairings for the state-district baseball tournament at Southfield High have been announced.

Athletic Director Ed Bryant of Southfield said Livonia Bentley, Livonia Franklin and Garden City's East and West all had drawn byes.

Southfield will play Plymouth, Farmington will meet North Farmington, Wayne will face John Glenn and Stevenson will take on Churchill.

The Southfield-Plymouth winner then opposes Bentley, the Farmington-North Farmington winner takes on Franklin, Garden City East will go against the Wayne-Glen winner and West will meet the survivor between Stevenson and Churchill.

The district tournament must be completed by June 5 with the winner advancing to the regional, also to be held at Southfield, on June 12.

The four regional champs then move on to the state meet June 19 at Wyandotte.

CC Signs Borgess Coach

Bishop Borgess High must find a new track and cross country coach for next fall.

Brian Schwall, who has built champs in both sports at Borgess, resigned to become cross country and track coach at Catholic Central High.

Schwall has turned out Catholic League A-West track champs the last three years at Borgess. His cross country team won the division title and the regional crown last fall.

Most Improved

Michigan basketball captain Dan Fife of Clarkston was voted the George Canamare Award as the athlete to improve the most during his college career. The award honors Michigan's former record pole vaulter who was the first Wolverine athlete to be killed in Vietnam.

Sorrows Turns Back Borgess

The game didn't count in the standings, but it carried significance since it matched two overland schools as Our Lady of Sorrows downed Bishop Borgess, 7-5, in baseball.

Jim Harte was the winning pitcher while Ned Hurst led the way with a hit that drove in two runs and Bob Holton pulled off a big steal of home.

A five run, second inning wrapped up things for Sorrows. Five walks and singles by Dave T. in and Holton produced the wild inning.

Mark Szpond had two for three and drove in one run for Borgess.

Now... 3 Wilt Stoppers Better Boy

For years, breeders have looked for a tomato variety that was not only an F₁ Hybrid, but also resistant to the three main causes of blight (wilt) in tomato plants: verticillium, fusarium, and nematodes (VFN).

Verticillium Wilt (V)

Verticillium wilt is caused by the verticillium fungus which attacks the plant's roots and stops the nutritional flow. No nutrients to the blossoms, no blossom set, no tomatoes.

Fusarium Wilt (F)

Fusarium wilt is caused by the fusarium fungus which produces a poisonous substance in the plant's roots and thereby kills the plant. No plant, no tomatoes.

Nematodes (N)

Nematodes are little worms which attach themselves to the plant's roots and actually strangle the plant from food. No food, no plant, no tomatoes.

Better Boy Resists VFN

Better Boy resists that evil fungus and those pesky little worms. Better Boy will give you more fruit, tastier fruit, over a longer period of time, because it's triple disease-resistant.

Finish Preserves Beauty Of Hardwood Floors

Hardwood floors are inherently beautiful. It is the function of the finish to accentuate and preserve the beauty of the wood and makes the floor easier to maintain. (The most commonly used hardwood flooring is maple and oak).

Before any floor finish is applied to a hardwood floor, the floor must be properly sanded to produce a uniform, even and smooth surface. A point to remember is that the finest floor finish cannot make a poorly sanded floor look well.

The Maple Flooring Manufacturers Assn. standards require that:

- 1) The finish must penetrate the top surface of the wood, the finish must have penetrating qualities that become an integral part of the wood so that after application it would only wear away as the wood itself wears away.

- 2) The finish must seal the pores to keep out dirt and resist soil stains.
- 3) The finish with its penetrating qualities must not darken the wood but must give the floor an attractive satin like sheen showing the varying natural color of the wood (as desired, floors may be stained prior to application of finish, or sealer finishes may also be used).

- 4) The finish must reflect light so as to improve illumination.

- 5) The finish should be non-slippery.
- 6) The finish must be of such quality that should it become necessary to touch up worn spots in heavy traffic lanes it can be accomplished without complete refinishing and with the resulting treatment, show a uniform appearance.

- 7) The finish should be resistant to water.
- 8) The finish, after application, must not present a maintenance problem. It must insure economy in maintenance so as to eliminate constant resanding and complete refinishing. The floor finish manufacturers recommendations should be rigidly adhered to when applying their floor finish products.

MORE HARDWOOD floors are ruined by poor maintenance resulting in frequent sandings than actual wearing. There are many types of finishes available for home, commercial, school or industrial installations and nearly all produce a fine appearance when the floor is new.

The best finish usually is the one requiring the least amount of maintenance at the lowest cost which will protect the wood, and still retain appearance factors. However, appearance does not always serve as a suitable basis for estimating the real value of the finish. Time and wear provide the best basis to judge the true value of different floor finishing materials.

There are a number of types of floor finish products on the market but for floors that are subject to heavy foot traffic, multi-purpose activities, etc., we strongly recommend the use of penetrating sealers rather than a high build or high gloss finish.

A penetrating sealer finish penetrates the wood itself sealing the pores of the wood and hardens the surface of the wood. This protects the wood from dirt and soil.

Floors finished with a penetrating seal are easily maintained by dry mopping, buffing, etc. It is also advisable to obtain complete maintenance information from the floor finish manufacturer. Penetrating sealer finishes are easily renovated without the necessity of complete sanding and refinishing.

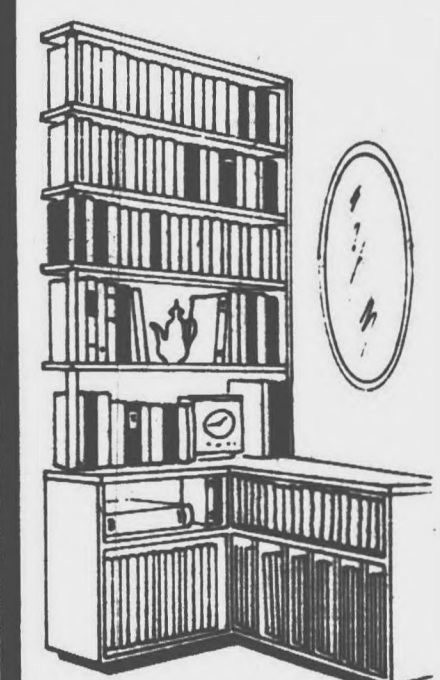

There are products on the market today available that will give you a complete finish-renovator floor finish and maintenance system. These products are highly recommended for heavy traffic areas.

IN NORMAL surface cleaning, do not treat hardwood floors with water but just clean with a soft brush, dry mop or cloth. If badly soiled wipe with a wrung out mop or cloth, first using warm, slightly soapy water, then clear water. Wipe dry at once and polish or buff and, if desired, the floor can be waxed.

However, caution should be used in waxing hardwood flooring, or for that matter any floor surface, especially in public buildings.

Properly installed, finished and maintained hardwood floors are lifetime floors if properly maintained. Consult your floor finish manufacturer for their recommendations as to maintenance procedures that are compatible with their particular products.

Hardwood floors can be maintained for seven cents or less per square foot per year. For expert advice, we suggest you contact your local reputable flooring contractor or the Maple Flooring Manufacturers Association, 424 Washington Avenue, Oshkosh, Wisc.

The Green Thumb

By GEORGE ABRAHAM

Plants for wet spots: So you've got a wet spot where it's difficult to grow trees and shrubs? The list of moisture-tolerant plants with ornamental value for home grounds is not long, but it includes some good plants.

First, there's willow. If you've got the room, nothing's better. Their rapid growth makes them weak and wood breaks up easily. Roots may get into underground pipes and drainage.

Red Maple tolerates wet soils and is the most suitable maple for such locations. It has excellent fall coloration. Black gum is a slower growing tree than maple, and likes low land areas. The bald cypress will grow in swampy spots or in upland conditions.

A more recent introduction is the dawn redwood or metasequoia, faring well in wet soils. It and the bald cypress have needed foliage which sheds in fall.

FREE: Send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope for my bulletin, "How to Landscape Your Home." My guide is full of good hints on home landscaping. Study it before you plant, as it can save you time, money and headaches.

GREEN THUMB CLINIC: "Last year a friend grew an herb that smelled like basil, but had purplish leaves. Please tell me what it is."

Answer: It was probably the new ornamental basil, having purplish leaves and a pleasant sweet flavor, useful for pepping up many foods, especially tomato dishes. Both leaves and flowers are used fresh or dried.

3 Newcomers Make Debut

Three new flowers that you'll enjoy growing in your garden this year are Ladybird poppy, Aquarius marigold and Pastel Mixed impatiens (or sultana or busy lizzie, as you wish).

The poppy is an annual, best planted where you intend it to flower. Like all poppies, it is very easy to grow — just scatter the seeds. You don't even have to cover them.

The name of this new variety comes from the coloring, which reminds one of the ladybird or ladybug — scarlet with a black spot at the base of each petal. The flowers are single to 3½ inches wide, borne on plants 1½ feet tall.

Aquarius is a new dwarf marigold of the French type, ideal for low borders. While plants grow only 10 to 12 inches high, they'll spread 15 inches wide and grow such a solid cover of brilliant bloom that no ground shows.

Colors are bright — mahogany red, gold, orange and yellow, alone or in combinations of two colors in a single flower. The blooms are double, with crests of tiny petals in the centers, and grow to 2½ to three inches in diameter.

Plants will thrive in any good garden soil in a sunny place.

FOR YEARS impatiens, so useful for semi-shaded areas, had one flower color — a many names, all of which scarlet — orange. Plant attest to its wide use over a breeders have widened the long period of time.

Now there's a mixture of pastel shades only, to satisfy the taste of those who think paler colors show up best when the sun is not on them.

It's known simply as Pastel Mixed and, if you don't recognize the name impatiens, perhaps you know this flower as impatience, patience plant, sultana or busy lizzie. It has had one flower color — a many names, all of which scarlet — orange. Plant attest to its wide use over a breeders have widened the long period of time.

DOUBLE DAISY -- This interesting flower is the new double Gloriosa daisy, easily grown from seeds. It will bloom this summer if you sow them as soon as the soil dries.

Gloriosa Daisy Is Cinderella Flower

Every youngster knows black-eyed-susan, summer wild flower of open fields. But even some dyed-in-the-wool gardeners don't realize what plant breeders have produced from this humble wildling.

These high-toned relatives are called Gloriosa daisies and their five-inch-wide blooms dwarf those of black-eyed-susan. Some have golden yellow flowers with a dark brown center "eye." A new variety, Irish Eyes, has a green "eye." Other varieties are "zoned" with mahogany red toward the center of each flower, golden yellow towards the outer edge of each petal.

This variety is named Pin-wheel.

The newest Gloriosa daisy is even further removed from its origins for it has either semi-double or fully double flowers, also golden yellow. When they are entirely open a dark brown, velvety center may show.

All Gloriosa daisy flowers, single or double, are borne on the same sturdy plants and stiff stems that mark the wild black-eyed-susan. Flowers open all summer long and continue even into fall. If you sow seeds as soon as soil dries you can have blooms in your garden this year.

There has been much debate about whether Gloriosa daisies are annual, biennial or perennial. Plants winter over from fall-sown seeds to bloom the following year. In some climates they then die. In other areas they come up from the roots year after year. You'll have to find, by trial and error, how they perform where you live.

But don't miss growing them. They're really spectacular.

Accent Flakes

Both red and white oak used in residential flooring have wood rays which, when the wood is quarter-sawn, appear as large, delicate flakes on the wood's surface. Modern colored floor finishes accentuate these flakes and grain patterns without hiding the wood's natural markings.

OBSERVATION POINT

At-Large Board Would Serve College Kids Best

By Philip H. Power
Publisher

During the past 10 years, community colleges have become a vital part of Michigan's educational scene. This has been particularly true here in the suburbs, where Schoolcraft College and Oakland Community College had experienced enormous growth and development.

Only recently, the State Legislature made it quite clear that an enrollment freeze was to be placed on the state's big three universities (Michigan, Michigan State and Wayne), with the bulk of the growth to come from smaller institutions (Eastern Michigan, in this area, for example) and community colleges.

What this means is that the past growth of local community colleges may be only a small sample of what's to come.

That, in turn, makes a decision being thrashed out right now in Lansing vitally important for everyone living in this area. It has to do with how boards of trustees for community colleges shall be elected.

BASICALLY, there are two ways of picking boards for community colleges which serve a specific geographical area:

(1) At large, in which all voters in the district vote for trustee candidates, who then represent the entire district, much in the way a congressman represents his entire congressional district; (2) single-member districts, in which trustees are elected by voters living in individual communities within the overall community college district, much in the way voters in a city elect a city councilman who then represents his ward on the council.

At present, trustees for Oakland Community College, which has its Orchard Ridge Campus in Farmington Township, are elected at-large throughout Oakland County. Schoolcraft College trustees, on the other hand, are elected partly at-large and partly from individual communities (Plymouth, Livonia, Garden City, Northville and Clarenceville) within the Schoolcraft College District.

The reasons Schoolcraft is set up the way it is are historical: The college district resulted from the confederation of five local school districts. Also, it was felt that having single community representation on the board would prevent having one big city (Livonia) dominate the others when the site for the campus was being selected.

All this has been upset by the U.S. Supreme Court, which ruled that elected officials must serve districts of equal population, "one man, one vote." Obviously, the Schoolcraft board - with single member districts representing single school districts in the Schoolcraft College District - was in violation of that rule.

NOW THE STATE Legislature is considering how to resolve the problem. Two bills have been reported out of committee, one setting up the Schoolcraft board as single-member district representation, the other organizing at-large elections.

Basically, the argument for single-member board representatives is that they represent their own community or school district, and so are concerned with protecting the interests of their own voters - i.e., people in Livonia, Plymouth, Garden City, etc. In particular, a single-district representation bill would prevent a situation in which all trustee candidates might run at-large and the election might be dominated by Livonia votes, since Livonia has the largest population of any school district in the area.

The at-large approach has the major advantage that it would tend to help people living in the district to think in terms of the entire district, rather than of their own parochial interests.

Schoolcraft College is a great source of education and culture to this entire area, and clearly it is not designed to serve the parochial interests of Livonia or Plymouth Township at the expense of other units within the district.

TWO OTHER points favor the at-large approach:

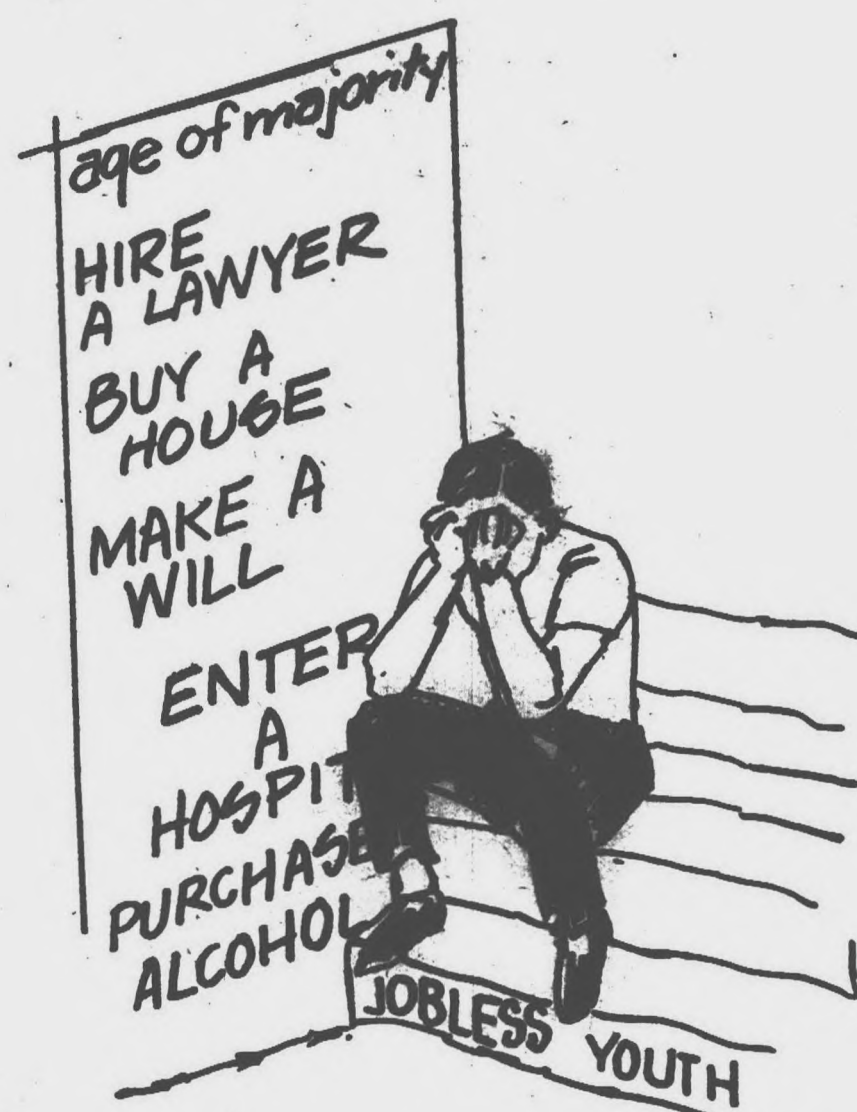

(1) If the single-member route is chosen, a special census would be required to apportion by single-member districts in a way cleaving to the "one-man, one-vote" rule which led to the problem in the first place. This would be expensive.

(2) Single-member trustee districts, even after special apportionment, would not always follow the boundaries of the school district in the Schoolcraft District. This means that trustees would not be able to represent one community on the board. In addition, candidates from Plymouth and Northville have already demonstrated an ability to win in past elections, in such a way as to argue against one city's ever being able to dominate the board.

So, on balance, the at-large board makes the most sense for Oakland Community College, which would have to change entirely its present election procedures if the single-member district were to be adopted.

After all, community colleges serve kids. And in doing this, it doesn't make much difference from what city or school district the kids come.

NO PAY, NO PLAY...

Tim Richard writes

A Glass Of Beer For Responsibility

This observer has talked to dozens of persons of all ages, of all degrees of liberality and conservatism, of all levels of schooling, and has yet to find anyone opposed to giving the 18-20 age group (a) more rights and (b) more responsibilities.

Without a peep of dissent, the Republican State Convention in February approved dropping the age of majority to 18, and Democratic conventions have given overwhelming approval to proposals aimed at giving more political rights to the younger folks.

So it was something of a surprise to see Observerland representatives give only lukewarm 4-3 approval last week to the age of majority bill as it sailed through the State House of Representatives 73-30.

THE BIG objection appeared to be beverage alcohol.

Reps. Ray Baker (R-Farmington), whose district includes Lathrup Village and western Southfield, and James Tierney (D-Garden City), whose district includes northwestern Westland and the Plymouth community, were opposed to the bill. That wasn't surprising.

What was a surprise was the negative vote of Richard Young (D-Dearborn Heights), whose district covers northeastern Westland and a bit of southern Livonia. He said school officials were opposed to allowing the 18-20 year olds to quaff.

Rep. John R. Bennett (D-Redford) had a foot in both camps. On the one hand, he can tell the old blue-nosers he voted against allowing the 18-20 group to purchase alcohol. But then he will be able to go to those young people and tell them he voted for the total bill on final passage.

One hates to accuse a veteran public official of insincerity, duplicity or political expediency. Yet Bennett's votes indicate he favors allowing a young person to buy a $25,000 house but is against letting him buy a 25 cent glass of beer. So let us say his reasoning powers are soft.

Heroes of the day are Reps. Joseph Forbes (D-Oak Park), whose district includes part of Southfield; Marvin Stempien (D-Livonia), and Thomas Brown (D-Westland). They voted for placing the age of majority at 18 and were consistent.

But may a triple bolt of lightning strike the demented headline writer on the Detroit News who - on a story concerned with making contracts, owning real estate, making wills, starting court proceedings, committing oneself to a hospital, purchasing alcohol and so on and so forth - wrote: "House OK's bill to allow drinking by 18-year-olds."

THE BILL goes next to the State Senate, and let us hope that the upper house will read the words of Gov. Milliken's Special Commission on the Age of Majority:

"The fact is that the 18, 19 and 20-year-old has already entered an adult social and employment world, and he will drink if he wants to whether it is legal or not..."

"At least 12 of our sister states and the District of Columbia allow those under 21 to drink some form of alcoholic beverage. Experience in those states indicates 18 through 20-year-olds CAN handle alcohol."

"No state that has lowered the drinking age has raised it again to 21."

The Judge Did Use Restraint

We are pleased to learn that Circuit Judge Roland Olzak, who handled the Schoolcraft College reapportionment case, has exercised proper judicial restraint and is trying hard to avoid getting into the lawmaking business.

In an April 21 editorial headlined "Judge Turns Legislator," we were critical of the judge for issuing a writ of mandamus ordering the Schoolcraft trustees to draft a constitutional reapportionment plan for his approval.

THE EDITORIAL was written some days before Judge Olzak actually issued his order, so we had no way of knowing that he would phrase it this way:

"The orders of this court shall determine the method of election of trustees of the board of the Northwest Wayne County Community College District, pending appropriate remedial legislation amending Sec. 34 of Act 331...by the Legislature for the State of Michigan."

Clearly, Judge Olzak prefers that the Legislature handle community college reapportionment problems. But if it fails to do so, then he will step in.

We are indebted to three attorneys in the case - Edward Drangelis for Schoolcraft College, William Sempliner, for the Plymouth school board and Roger Craig for the New Democratic Coalition of Livonia - for making a copy of the court order available and pointing out Judge Olzak's restraint.

We are delighted to agree with the attorneys that the judge has acted responsibly. Our concerns have been satisfied, our criticism is happily withdrawn, and we are only sorry we couldn't have seen a copy of the court order sooner.

Gambling's No Answer

Is Michigan destined to become the Nevada of the midwest? Will Detroit or one of the large adjoining suburbs turn into a Las Vegas or a Reno?

These questions should be on the minds of all residents of the state judging from the number of gambling bills that have cropped up in the State Legislature during the past few weeks.

Dog racing, lottery, off-track betting, additional harness racing and thoroughbred racing plants, additional dates for the runners and trotters and the possibility that bingo games will be legalized...these are just a few of the suggestions lawmakers have dumped into the hopper.

That brings up a logical question: Is legalized gambling the only way legislators have for boosting the state treasury?

THE OFF-TRACK betting bill, proposed a year ago by Rep. George Montgomery but which died in committee, is very much alive this year. It has come out of committee, and those close to the picture in Lansing believe it has better than an even chance of passing.

Back of the move is the history of off-track betting in New York State which started on Jan. 1 and has been very successful thus far.

Of course, there is quite a difference in the betting habits of New Yorkers and those in Michigan. New York tracks think nothing of $3 and $4 million daily handles. The per capita wagering there is something like $100 while in metropolitan Detroit it is less than $75.

Be that as it may, we expressed our opposition to off-track betting a year ago, and our opinion hasn't changed.

It could evolve into nothing more than legalized bookie joints, which it has in such spots as Toronto and New York City for that matter.

DOG RACING has been before the Legislature since the time of the slaying of Sen. Warren Hooper as a direct result of dog racing interests.

There may be some grounds for establishing dog tracks in the summer resort areas, but the thought of adding dog racing to the winter sports scene in the metropolitan Detroit area isn't that appetizing.

Just imagine, horse racing in the afternoon, dog and harness racing at night and then the opportunity to drop into an off-track establishment any time during the afternoon or evening to make a wager on races anywhere in the United States.

CERTAINLY, lobbyists for the various types of gambling can produce figures to show how much the state would realize in taxes from gambling, but it is our feeling that many of the figures are figments of imagination and never would be reached.

The failure of lotteries in New York and in the New England states should give legislators something to think about. Backers of the lotteries sold lawmakers in the two areas on the huge amounts that would be raised. It hasn't come true in either area.

There is talk that bingo will be legalized again. But once more, it appears as if the legislators have lost sight of the church groups throughout the state which were instrumental in banning such games several years ago in a statewide election. We don't think they are going to change their minds now.

Supporters of the dog tracks, off-track betting etc. point to the boost to employment, pointing out that each program would make jobs for thousands.

And that appears to be a strange angle inasmuch as there are factions in the City of Livonia that would like to have the race track eliminated and replaced by an industrial park. Closing the track would put about 1,000 persons out of jobs.

Legalized gambling isn't the answer to the state problems. There must be other ways of balancing the budget, and it's high time the legislators started looking for them. We don't need a midwest Nevada in Michigan.

Volk's Woods Dies, But Leaves Example

EDITOR:
It seems to us most fitting that the Volk's Woods matter end where it began - in the letters to the editor columns of Observer Newspapers.

Volk's Woods, 20 acres of beech-maple forest deemed by experts to be irreplaceable because of its undisturbed, delicate ecological balance, has been sold to a new developer. The new owner will continue the apartment project as originally proposed. He is not interested in selling the property.

We wish to thank all of those who worked so hard to save this as a natural area. The efforts of Roger Sutherland and Grover Niergarth of Schoolcraft College must be singled out for special mention. The response and support which our group received from the community at large was most remarkable and gratifying.

Although we failed in our efforts to save this particular wooded area, it is our belief that future decisions which involve Livonia's natural wooded areas will be influenced by our actions here. Sites designated as parks by the city should be purchased - not left dangling for the commercial developer.

Speak Out On Motorede

EDITOR:
I urge Farmington citizens to investigate and then evaluate the activities of the John Birch Society and its Motorede committee recalling school board members.

I'm usually tolerant of opposing points of view, but I grow increasingly aware of employment of scare tactics and half-truths by this organization, and it seems important for all citizens to make their thoughts known.

The Mayor's Q & A Game

EDITOR:
Recently, some 20,000 citizens of Westland have received questionnaires from Mayor McKinney's office polling the opinion of these citizens for the welfare and betterment of our city. Doesn't it seem a bit contrary to the previous pattern of practice of Mr. Mayor to start a question and answer program at this point of the game?

Taking note from the mayor's statement printed in the Wall Street Journal a few weeks ago, quoting him saying that Westland is a city of bedroom dwellers and that the people don't care what goes on otherwise! We have to make it known that some of the citizens here do care.

When a sizable group of us appeared in person to a so-called public hearing by our city government, it was bewildering and indeed frustrating that we could not make ourselves heard by the mayor or the city council when we wished to voice opposition to the mayor's proposed street paving program.

We were to learn that it was a public hearing in name only and that we would have to join together as a citizens homeowner alliance and it would require legal counsel and representation before we could be heard.

Yes, after having our city paved with a jungle of cement bearing acres of apartment dwellings with parking space for each bedroom occupant, some homeowners of Westland are rightfully beginning to ask why they have begun to be sought out for questions as to their likes and dislikes.

'Frills' Raise Utility Rates

EDITOR:
I see where Detroit Edison Co. is asking for a huge rate increase from their users which, I believe, will be the third one, if granted, in about one year's time. I am convinced if Edison and some of the other utilities would quit building some of the fancy buildings with all the frills and cut out some of the other unnecessary expenses, they all wouldn't have to be in the already over-charge public pocketbook so often. It's my understanding that there are three members on the Public Service Commission in Lansing who pass on rate adjustments to consumers. I also believe that all three members are political appointees.

I am convinced that everyone concerned should write your state legislators asking them to pass legislation taking politics out of the Public Service Commission by making it a law where these three members are elected by the people so that if they are to be free in handing out our money to these big utility companies, we can at least vote them out come election time.

Parochial Facts Cloudy

EDITOR:
It has been almost a month since the editorial, "Parochial Foes Were Right" (Leonard Poger) appeared in Observer Newspapers. This is the first opportunity I have had to answer what I consider a bad case of fuzzy thinking brought in perhaps by an emotionally clouded intellect.

How can he say that the "Supreme Court ruling gave the Council Against Parochialism the enviable position of being able to tell its opponents I told you so?"

The opponents of Proposal C, including State Sen. Levin and his Harvard law consultants, argued that existing auxiliary services and shared time programs between public and parochial schools would be endangered. Advocates of Proposal C said the proposal would not endanger shared time programs or auxiliary services.

YET TO REACH its conclusion that these services were not nullified by the amendment, the Supreme Court had to sever a very important clause, the portion that banned the use of public funds to support the attendance of any student or the employment of anyone at a non-public school "or at any location or institution where instruction is offered in whole or in part to such non-public students." This portion of the amendment was declared "unconstitutional void, and unenforceable."

Yet the people voted on the entire amendment, and it did contain this clause. Levin's opinion and that of his Harvard consultants was based on the entire amendment. A legal opinion has to be based on each and every word in a document, and Sen. Levin's opinion was made on this basis. You do him and his colleagues a disservice with your reasoning.

Your editorial was out of order and dead wrong.

Intersection Is Dangerous

EDITOR:
What makes Seven Mile and Merriman a posted high accident corner? Is it the particular design of the intersection, or is it a human problem involving driving attitudes?

I use that intersection twice each day, and indeed it "lives" up to its reputation. Since there is little we can do to modify driving attitudes and neurotic acting out on the road, we should, in the interest of safety and to protect the driver against himself, prevail upon our local government to redesign that intersection. Accidents are obscene.

2 Choirs Plan Concert May 14

The Schoolcraft College Symphonic Choir (community singers) and the Schoolcraft Chorus (college students) will present their annual Spring Concert on Friday, May 14.

Under the direction of Bradley Bloom, the concert will be given at 8 p.m. in the auxiliary gymnasium of the Physical Education Building. Admission is free.

THE MAJOR WORK by the chorus will be Schubert's "Mass in G," with chorus, soloists and string orchestra. Solos will be sung by soprano Judy Slade, a member of the Symphonic Choir, tenor Stephen Skelley, an announcer with Station WUOM, and bass Keith Whitmer, a Schoolcraft counselor.

Three Negro spirituals and selections from "Man of LaMancha" will conclude the chorale's performance. Haydn's "The Creation" will be presented by the Symphonic Choir. It is based on the book of Genesis and Milton's "Paradise Lost."

DIRECTOR BLOOM describes the work as "a charming musical depiction of nature and of man's innocent joy in the simple natural life."

Soprano soloists for "Creation" are three members of the choir, Rosemary DiDomizio, Connie Heidt and Jo Kitzman. Tenor solos will be sung by Don Bohnwagner, a member of the choir, and Skelley. Bass soloists, both from the choir, are Russell Beck and James Graham.

The orchestra for the concert consists of Schoolcraft's Wind Ensemble and guest musicians.

ONLY THREE CONDUCTORS have led the Plymouth Symphony in its 25-year history. All were on hand for its birthday pops concert Saturday evening. From left: Wayne Dunlap, the present conductor; Emil Raab of Bowling Green, Ohio, and Paul Wagner, of Basking Ridge, N.J. It was Wagner who founded the orchestra and conducted it for its first five years. Raab was the conductor in the 1954-55 season when Dunlap was in Europe. (Observer photo by Doug Johnson)

Concert Set For May 16

YPSILANTI The final concert of the season will be given by the Eastern Michigan University-Civic Symphony Orchestra at 4 p.m. May 16 in Pease Auditorium. Musical director of the 80-member orchestra is Edward Dzabo, associate professor of music.

Featured piano soloist will be Daniel Eller, associate professor, who will perform two concertos, Ravel's Concerto for Left Hand and Mozart's D minor piano concerto.

Other selections to be performed include "Intermezzo" from Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana," "Valse Triste" by Sibelius and the "Radetzky March" by Johann Strauss.

The concert is open to the public without charge.

Mazurka Dancers Plan Show May 16

DETROIT The Mazurka Dancing Society will hold its fifth anniversary show, "Village Wedding" (Wiejskie Wesele) Sunday, May 16, at 7 p.m., in Rosary High School Auditorium, 8551 Greenfield. Tickets are on sale by members of the society.

Included in the cast are Carol Kowalczyk of Garden City; Theresa Kasprowicz, Mary Osmialowski, and Marianne Sakowski of Redford Township; Diane, Carol and Tom Obuchowski of Westland; and Robin Grodek, Judy, Mike and Steve Ryznar, Marilyn Kilinski, Shiela and Yvonne Olson, Kathleen Panganis and David, Diane and Don Swider, all of Livonia.

Robin Grodek will play the bride. Plot of the dance revolves around the engaged couple's search for a place to spend their honeymoon. The dancers set out to reenact the dances of Poland and other countries hoping to help them make a final decision.

The Mazurka dancers range in age from five to 20.

MORRIS O'SHAUGHNESSY of Westland is the drummer for the rock band, the Salem Witchcraft. The four-member group has been working together since January. (Observer photo)

Rock Band Has PA, Will Travel

By BETTY MASSON

Like wow, man! I could really dig it, if it wasn't quite so loud!

In case you haven't guessed, the subject is rock music and the subjects are four Observerland musicians, who of their breed have got to be among the best.

They want to be "better than the Grand Funk Railroad, the Doors and the James Gang all together." They may very well make it, because, besides $1,500 worth of PA system, they all have talent and work hard at their music.

If you stand back, a long way back for these over-30 ears, the sounds they make are very good, sweet and rhythmic.

OBSERVERLAND'S OWN rock band calls itself the Salem Witchcraft and its four members are Dave Hall of Garden City, Arlen Vieceili of Livonia, Jim Duffey of Plymouth and Morris O'Shaughnessy of Westland. Dave is the organist and Morris really pounds the drums. Arlen and Jim play guitars — Arlen, lead, and Jim, bass.

All four are also vocalists, and Arlen and Dave are composers and arrangers. So far Arlen has composed six numbers for the band. One of their favorites is "My Life Is You," and it's really very good.

The four have been playing together since January. They practice up to five hours a day in the Duffey's basement.

Jim and Morris were two years with another band. They asked Arlen to join them in December, after hearing him play, and "found" Dave through the musician's union to which they belong.

Their manager is Robert Drake of Westland, and it was he who recently arranged their biggest break, an appearance on TV. Since then, they've been in greater demand.

THE BOYS, who are mostly self-taught, have had every encouragement from their parents, who "flipped out when we were on TV."

Possibly Dave's mother could be most sympathetic. She used to sing with Jimmy's Jives in Dearborn. Morris and Jim revealed with pride that both have fathers who sing. Not rock, but they're still proud. According to Jim when he heard his father sing at a party, "I really flipped out."

Jim is attending Schoolcraft College and is studying once "flipped" over Woody Herman, as loud as possible.

In Comedy Role Turgeon Takes Honors

By LORRAINE McCLISH

"Cactus Flower" is a very funny show, and the Farmington Players keep their reputation as the elite among community theaters with their 47th production that continues through the next two weekends at the Players Barn.

It was good to see Pierre Turgeon back again. He grabbed himself another choice comedy part — this time the role of Igor Sullivan — and ran away with honors for the most relaxed, completely-at-ease actor on the stage.

Both Norm Hosking, as Dr. Julian Winston, and Merriellen Haugen, as Toni Simmons, took turns suffering in this respect in scenes with Turgeon, then jumped back into turning out some genuinely good comedy.

Kathryn Totz was the exception. In the role of snappy, sassy Stephanie Dickinson, she held her ground every minute of the way. And as Stephanie's defenses fell in the play, Miss Totz seemed to lead the entire cast into a freer swinging atmosphere. By the time Stephanie was about to get her man, she had the whole audience in love with her.

Sal Sisto and David Geleibter stood alone with refreshing, light, and very well-done character parts.

The play was directed by Noral McNeely. Others in the cast are Bob Gregory, Joanne Kaman and Isabel Howard.

IRONICALLY, this is a flaw many local theater groups find themselves with — one actor who is so very poised he makes his on-stage fellows appear stiff by comparison.

Symphony Celebration Features 3 Conductors

By BETTY MASSON
Balloons popped out of a three-foot high birthday cake (non-edible), two trumpeters were kicked out of the orchestra and conductor Wayne Dunlap smashed the violin of a dissonant female Saturday evening in Plymouth's Central High School.

All this took place as the Plymouth Symphony celebrated its 25th birthday with its once-a-year pops concert.

There were more serious moments in the concert, too, and the general mood of the audience seated around the cabaret tables was one of complete absorption in the music, especially in performances by the two soloists, cellist Norman Fischer and baritone Nat Sibold.

THE AUDIENCE also enjoyed the spirited conducting of Paul Wagner, who founded the orchestra, and returned from Basking Ridge, N.J., especially for the occasion.

Wagner showed that though he is now an administrator, principal of a junior high school, he has lost none of his skill as a conductor, when he led the symphony in the Overture to Glinka's "Russian and Ludmilla" and Rodgers' "Guadalcanal March."

"I am indeed proud of Plymouth and what you folks have done with this orchestra," he said. "This has taken a lot of heart, intestinal fortitude and hard work." Wagner started two orchestras in his early days as a music teacher, he revealed, but only Plymouth's survived. The other, in Medina, Ohio, was disbanded when he left. Still another guest conductor, Emil Raab, took time to praise the symphony too.

"I'm sure you realize what an unusual orchestra you have here," he said. "It's a mixture of teachers, housewives, students, businessmen, making wonderful music together and enjoying each other as they do."

Raab, who is now teaching at Bowling Green (Ohio) State College, led the orchestra in "Espagna Rhapsody" by Chabrier. He replaced Dunlap during the 1954-55 season, while the latter was in Europe.

FISCHER CHOSE for his return to Plymouth, Tchaikovsky's "Variations on a Rocco Theme," and gave a very sensitive performance. Now a student at Oberlin College (Ohio), he was first introduced to the cello by Dunlap as a student at Bird Elementary School in Plymouth.

According to Dunlap, "I gave him lessons and then I was studying from him." Dunlap's faith in him has been justified.

Sibold made his first appearance with the symphony in the same year Dunlap took over the reins from Wagner, 1950.

From Saturday night's reception it's evident he is as much a favorite with the symphony audience as ever. Or as Dunlap said, "We can't be nostalgic without Nat."

Sibold proved it in a series of songs he titled "Reminiscences," including "Old Man River," "Toreador Song," and "Climb Every Mountain." He closed with several of his favorites, "Some Enchanted Evening," "If Ever I Should Leave You" and "Those Were the Days."

DUNLAP LED the orchestra in other favorites from former years, "Anniversary Waltz" and "Blue Hawaii," as arranged by Deal Fischer; "Hungarian Dances No. 5 and 6," by Brahms; "Pavane for a Dead Princess," by Ravel; and "Tales from the Vienna Woods" by Strauss.

The donnybrook with the violinist and trumpeters took place during a so-called tribute to Beethoven (with a few other composers thrown in). This arrangement was put together by orchestra member Max Stroup.

The program ended with the traditional sing-along (and singing along with the symphony is a lot better than singing along with Mitch.) Songs such as "Down by the Old Mill Stream" and "Let the Rest of the World Go By" sent the audience home in an even more reminiscent mood, especially the many out-of-towners and out-of-staters who came "home" for the celebration.

Perhaps, there was a mood of thankfulness too, since most concert-goers learned only Saturday, in an exclusive Observer Newspapers story, that although Dunlap is leaving his post as director of fine arts at Schoolcraft College, he will commute so he can stay with the symphony.

He will leave Schoolcraft in September to take over the post of music director of Grand Valley State College near Grand Rapids.

8 Clarenceville Seniors Get PBK Honors

Eight Clarenceville seniors are among Detroit area students to be honored by the Detroit Association of Phi Beta Kappa at a convocation in Ford Auditorium on May 13.

The students must maintain a 3.6 or better grade point average from a possible 4.0 to be honored by Phi Beta Kappa. They are Carol J. Bornstein, Phyllis Feder, Dorothy J. Killian, Lawrence Kopelman, Janice M. Mills, Christine A. Nicholson, Thomas Taffee and Deborah E. Zukin.

Students will receive certificate of recognition at Clarenceville's own honors convocation later this spring.

NAT SIBOLD of Plymouth was just as popular a singer with the Plymouth Symphony Saturday night as he was at his first appearance 20 years ago. He's shown singing "Those Were the Days." (Observer photo)

NORMAN FISCHER, now of Oberlin, Ohio, formerly of Plymouth, was upholding a family tradition when he appeared as guest star with the Plymouth Symphony at its pops concert Saturday evening. Fischer played Tchaikovsky's "Variations on a Rocco Theme." His two sisters-in-law also were soloists with the symphony during its 25th anniversary celebrations just ended. (Observer photo)

Carnival Set At Clarenceville

Clarenceville's Chapter of the National Honor Society will sponsor a spring carnival and fair on Saturday, May 22. Featured will be game booths and a car wash. Those wishing to reserve booth space are asked to immediately contact Mrs. Dorothy Bennett at Clarenceville High School.

Low-Cal Foods High In Flavor

By ELLY

Every chef has his favorite recipes.

Franco Palumbo, executive chef of Weight Watchers International, has several which are dear to him.

With the true craftsman's talent for bringing out the natural flavor of food, he turns simple everyday ingredients into delectable everyday dishes.

SOMBRERO RICE

- 2 pkg. (10 oz. each) frozen cauliflower
- 1 can (46 oz.) tomato juice
- Artificial sweetener to equal to 4 t. sugar
- 4 t. chili powder
- 1 T. dehydrated onion flakes
- 3 T. dehydrated diced green pepper flakes
- 1/4 t. garlic powder
- 1 pkg. instant chicken broth mix or 1 chicken bouillon cube

Cook cauliflower according to package directions. Drain and set aside. Combine remaining ingredients and simmer until reduced to half in volume. Mash cauliflower and add to tomato mixture. Pour into a shallow baking dish and bake at 350 degrees for half an hour. Makes four servings.

RED WHITE AND BLUE PARFAIT

- 1/3 non-fat dry milk
- 1/3 c. citrus flavored low calorie soda
- 1/4 t. orange extract
- 1/4 c. sliced strawberries (sweeten if desired)
- 1/4 c. blueberries.

Place dry milk in bowl. Stir in soda and orange extract. Beat at high speed with electric mixer, or by hand until topping stands in peaks. In parfait glasses, spoon the strawberries, topping and blueberries in alternate layers. Makes one serving.

Note: For easy handling, store topping in freezer while preparing parfait. If time permits place parfait in freezer for about 20 minutes after each layer is added.

CRAB EGG FOO YOUNG

- 2 ounces crab meat
- 1 egg well beaten
- 1 t. dehydrated onion flakes
- 1/4 c. bean sprouts, drained
- 1 T. minced green pepper
- 1 t. soy sauce
- 1/4 t. garlic salt

Combine all ingredients and mix well. Pour into non-stick pan and heat until well browned on one side. Turn on other side. Makes one serving.

VEAL CHOPS ORIENTAL

- 1/2 medium pineapple, peeled
- 1/4 c. Worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 c. vinegar
- 3 T. "legal" steak sauce
- Artificial sweetener to equal 3 T. sugar
- 1 c. tomato juice
- 1/4 t. cayenne pepper
- 2 t. monosodium glutamate
- 4 10-ounce veal chops

Cut pineapple into wedges. Combine Worcestershire sauce, vinegar, steak sauce, sweetener, tomato juice, pepper and monosodium glutamate. Pour over veal chops in bowl; add pineapple. Refrigerate at least three hours, turning occasionally so that all the meat and fruit is covered with the marinade. Remove chops and pineapple to the broiling rack. Broil about three inches from source of heat for 12 minutes or until cooked throughout. Turn once during broiling; baste with marinade several times. Makes four servings.

Why Mario Switched To Being A Fine Chef

After spending four years apprenticeship learning the fine points of the carpenter trade, Mario Gogeon, a graduate of Redford Union High, has taken to working behind a hot stove as chef at Vargo's, 30325 W. Six Mile Road in Livonia.

It wasn't by his own choice that Mario, who worked as a short order cook during his days at RU, changed from a carpenter to a chef.

"I love the outdoors," smiled Mario. "But I was working with a carpenter crew on a new bridge when the scaffold snapped and I fell underneath."

"WHEN I awakened some time later in a hospital, I was told I had suffered serious back injuries... so serious that I spent seven months in a hospital bed and am still under doctor's care. Perhaps the time will come when I'll be able to go back to carpentry work again, but right now I'm doing everything I can to make Vargo's the best eating place in the Metropolitan Detroit area."

And owner Don Vargo, who started as a bartender, moved up to manager and then owner of a night club in Dearborn before taking over the former Rampart Street in October, agrees that Mario is turning out better meals than any chef he ever hired.

The meeting of the two came as a coincidence. Mario just happened to drop into Don's Dearborn spot shortly before he completed the Rampart Street purchase and just happened to mention that he wouldn't be able to do any carpentry work for a long time and was looking around for a chef's job.

In less time than it takes to tell, Mario had a job as chef and Vargo had filled one of the most important posts in a night club operation.

MARIO'S PAST experience includes service at the King's Arm, Bear's Head, Boardwalk and the Huron River Hunt Club. He served as a chef's helper, broiler and all the other chores that go with a kitchen in a major restaurant.

For Vargo, the ownership of Vargo's is another step upward in a career that began as a bartender at Moby Dick's. Within the short time of a year and a half, he had advanced to manager and then owner, selling out to take over his new night spot.

He is a native of Dearborn, attended Clara Bryant Junior High and graduated from old Dearborn High. Then he attended Miami U in Florida before deciding to go into the bar and restaurant business.

HIS FIRST STEP was to completely redecorate, expand the menu and present music nightly for dancing and dining.

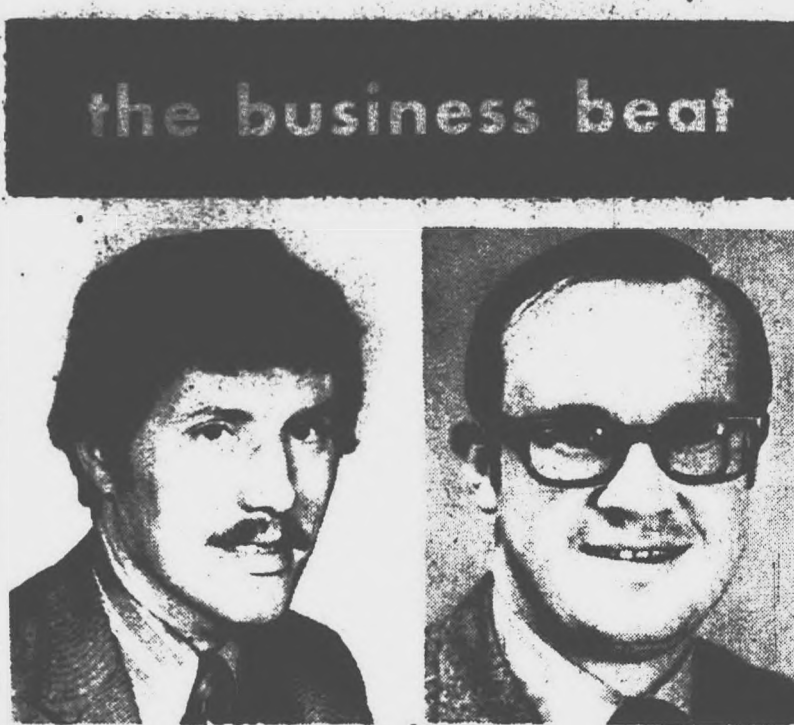

Vargo's has a capacity of 175 with two large rooms for private parties.

The house specializes in seafood and meat dishes with special menus for lunch including specially prepared barbeque ribs.

"We are making Vargo's an eating place for families and hope to attract most of our customers from the nearby subdivisions in Livonia. It is my ambition to make Vargo's just as popular as a few years back when it was famous as Danny's Suburban Chophouse," he says. Judging from the manner in which he and Mario are working, they'll have the job done sooner than they expect.

FREDERICK Z. HERR of Plymouth has been appointed to the newly-created post of director of reliability for Ford Motor Co.'s North American automotive operations. Herr will coordinate vehicle reliability efforts and will recommend reliability objectives and testing procedures for activities ranging from product design to customer service. A graduate of the University of Wisconsin with a master's degree from the University of Detroit, Herr joined Ford in 1956 following a career with Detroit Edison.

JOHN V. LIGGETT, 500 Ford Rd., Plymouth, has been appointed chief production engineer of Kelsey Hayes' wheel, drum and brake division. The promotion was announced by William T. Birge, engineering vice president, who held the same chief engineering post before his recent promotion. Liggett is a night-school graduate of the University of Detroit, a registered professional engineer, and has written several articles for technical journals. He joined Kelsey Hayes in 1967.

STEPHEN BLEAK, 8511 Deer Creek Lane, Plymouth, has been promoted to director of financial services of Hamilton International Corp., a Farmington-based holding company. Bleak, a graduate of Brigham Young University and the University of Utah in Salt Lake City, joined Hamilton International a year ago as an administrative assistant. In his new post, he will be responsible for subsidiary accounting for other companies in the Hamilton complex, as well as budget administration and internal audit.

Livonia Has New Real Estate Firm

The opening of Hickory Hill Realty, Inc., Livonia's newest real estate brokerage, was recently announced by Raymond Pope, president of the new firm.

Hickory Hill is a member of the multi-list system of United Northwestern Realty Association and a member of the Western Wayne County Board of Realtors. Its offices are at 29200 Five Mile, Livonia.

Pope is a former partner with Mayfair Realty, and has 20 years experience in real estate marketing. He said his company will offer purchasers the chance to buy "with knowledge and certainty that one is getting his money's worth."

Pope says the new firm, not yet fully staffed, will offer "young men", who have "not yet lost their eager desires for success an opportunity to serve the public."

Mich. Bell Asks Hike

Public hearings on Michigan Bell Telephone Co.'s request for a $59.7 million rate increase will start May 26.

The Public Service Commission of the Michigan Department of Commerce said the hearings will open in Detroit and then will shift to PSC offices in Lansing on June 14. The May 26 hearing will be held starting at 9:30 a.m. in the auditorium on the 13th floor of the City-County Building.

Michigan Bell filed an application for an unspecified rate increase last Dec. 10. The company filed its testimony and exhibits with the Commission on March 16 indicating it wants authority to increase its rates by $59.7 million annually.

At the same time, the utility asked the PSC to allow it to increase its rates by $19.9 million immediately pending a final decision on its rate case. Michigan Bell said its rate of return has dropped below the level authorized by the commission last year. The PSC said it will set a date later for a hearing on the motion for a partial rate increase.

Job Prospect Looking Bad

Employment prospects for students graduating from college this year are bleaker than ever, according to Jack Shingleton, director of the Michigan State University placement bureau.

He said, "Unfavorable business conditions plus a shift in governmental spending priorities are the main reason for hiring fewer college graduates in 1971."

'Accept Yourself,' Advises Dr. Ellis

By RON PLATNER

In the Bible of Dr. Albert Ellis, common sense living is made up of one part humanism, one part sophisticated hedonism and one part plain humor.

The controversial psychologist and author made sure everyone understood his own particular vision of the good life in a spicy account Saturday for the Eastern Michigan Regional Council of Parents without Partners in Garden City.

Director of the New York Institute for Rational Living and the author of several books on the subject, including "A Guide to Rational Living" and "How to Live with a Neurotic," Dr. Ellis lectured an intrigued audience on the finer points of common sense behavior.

He titled his speech "25 Ways to Stop Putting Yourself Down."

THE FUNDAMENTAL question of human life is not, as most old-style philosophers see it, a question of "who am I?"

You can, just to live with yourself, say that you're good and be done with it, but that's not the satisfactory personal philosophy so many think it is, Dr. Ellis maintained.

"A person might as well assume he was bad, as good. There just isn't any way to prove either," he said.

Ellis argued the only way to escape going "around and around" to prove oneself good or bad is to just ignore the question as silly, and get on with the main task of life — living.

"The best thing a person can do is accept oneself and stop rating his person against all the others in the universe," he said. "Go ahead and accept yourself as an individual, assume you're good because you chose to stay alive, and then get on with the main purpose of life — having a damn good time."

HAVING FUN wasn't the old notion of eat, drink and be merry, he cautioned his listeners.

"You have to remember the morning after and the possibility of a hangover," he reminded. "And there's nothing wrong either with judging your skills or traits against others."

"It's these universal judgements of 'I'm bad' or 'I'm good' that get people in trouble," he warned.

SPEEDING through 25 reasons why rating oneself was stupid and useless, Ellis made these points:

"Rating yourself sabotages problem solving in life. People caught up in judging themselves against others in some total fashion avoid real problems, like coping with marriage."

"If you're honest, one of the things you do when you rate yourself against others is end up feeling superior and putting others down. That's bad too."

"CONSTANT RATING makes people self-conscious and leads to all kinds of hangups. It wastes a lot of energy and leads to the major sin of over-generalization."

"People are complex, full of myriads of traits and characteristics. When people generalize from a few traits to say they're good or bad, they're fooling themselves. It can't be done."

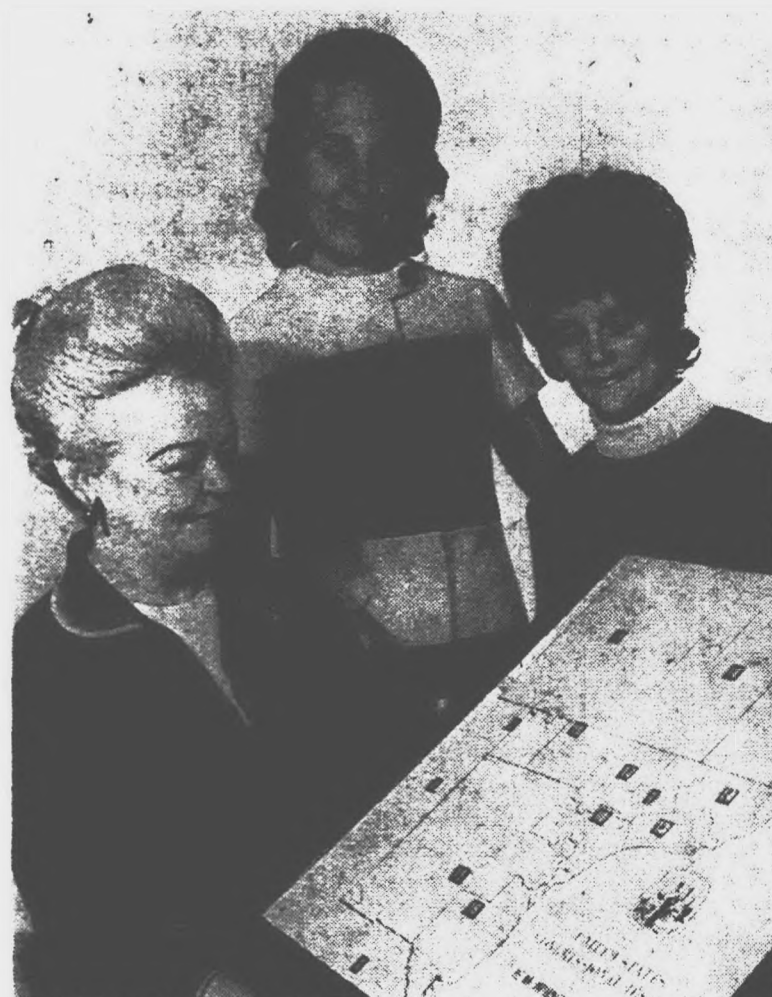

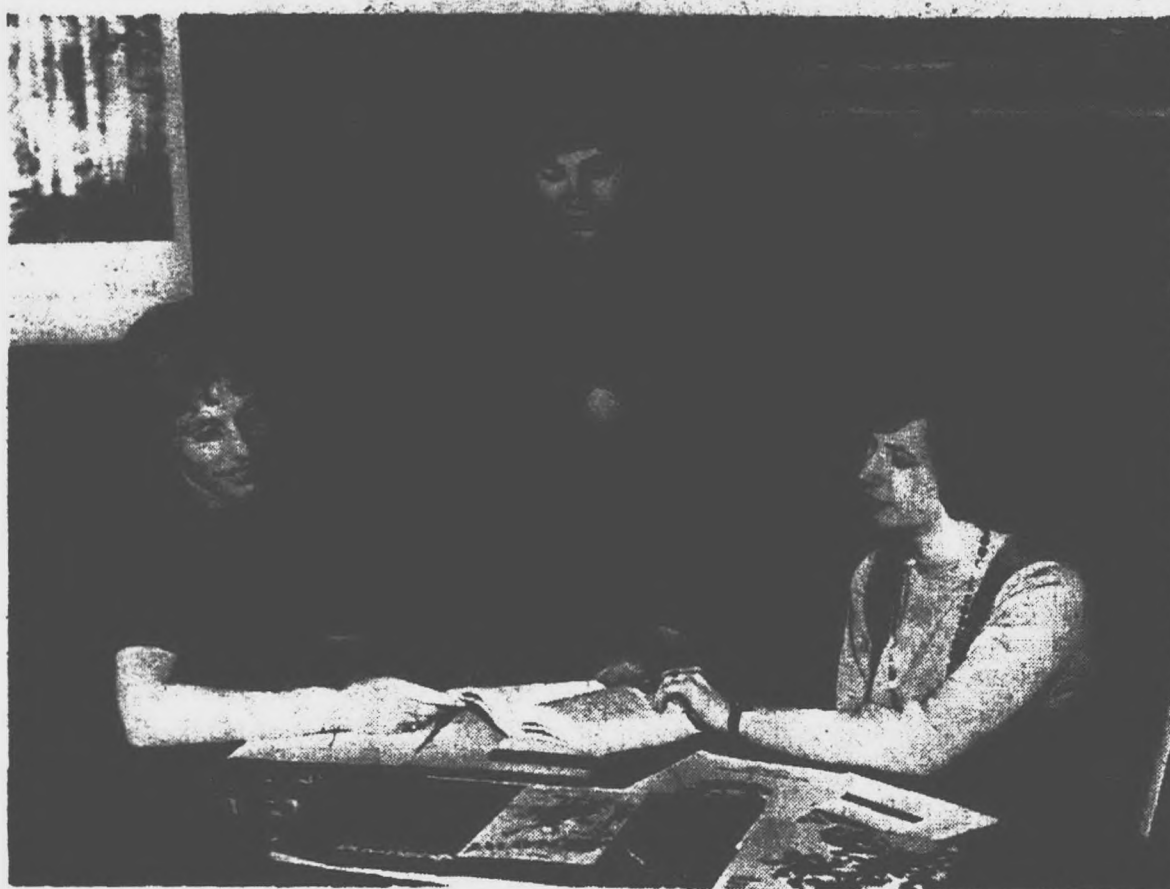

"You end up putting labels on yourself and others. The 'bad guys' you decide run the show, and you populate the world with villains — which can be very misleading."

"Rating bolsters conformism and leads to gullibility. If you want to rate yourself as 'good,' you end up trying to be like everyone who thinks the same of himself."

"And to let yourself be judged as 'good' or 'bad' makes you an easy target and lets people control what you are and can be."

"The best a person can do is accept oneself as an individual, and then go on to judge certain traits and faults in behavior."

"If you end up trying to add up all those aspects of the individual to get some kind of sum total of human existence, you're guilty of adding peaches and pears. It can't be done."

Leagues Elect Officers

Mrs. Richard Gould of Farmington and Mrs. Steven Orban of Northville are new presidents of two Observer area Leagues of Women Voters.

Mrs. Gould was elected recently to the top post in the West Bloomfield-Farmington League. Serving with her will be Mrs. William Haase of Farmington, first vice president; Mrs. Alfred Tobocman of Farmington, secretary; Mrs. Merrill Hamburg of West Bloomfield, secretary; and Mrs. Joel Warren of West Bloomfield, treasurer.

Directors for the coming year include Mrs. Orville Weir of Farmington.

Directors elected include Mrs. Price Watts, Mrs. Paul Cargo, Mrs. Oded Borowski and Mrs. Donald Stacy, all of Plymouth, Mrs. Harold Wright, and Mrs. Charles Ayers of Northville and Mrs. Ross Seymour of Milford.

Mrs. Robert White of Plymouth was appointed a director.

m. m. memos

The King's English as it's used in family communication is a continuing source of amusement for me.

A by-word in our clan, for instance, began one day when we were out driving. One of the girls noted a city limits sign and announced: "We're either in or out of Southfield."

More recently, this same language innovator told me she wanted to trim a skirt with "riff-raff." "Well, that's how I say it," she insisted when I suggested that the word was "rick-rack."

And we also were startled with the warning, after the man of our house had painted the porch exterior, to be careful about touching "the outside lining of the porch."

Language can backfire on me when I get careless in its use.

Like the time I left eggs hard-boiling on the stove and told the girls "in 15 minutes take them off the heat and run some cold water in the sink." You guessed it — I came home to find the eggs still on the stove and the cold-water tap going full blast.

One of my favorites was voiced by a young relative who told her mother she wanted "pink tails" on her head. Mother didn't understand immediately, so the young one explained impatiently: "YOU know — brains."

Town Hall Ready For Fund Requests

The Northville Town Hall awards committee is accepting requests for contributions from its 1970-71 series profits to go to worthy organizations and individuals in this area.

The Town Hall each year divides its earnings among a number of groups, earmarking funds for special service projects.

The list of awards will be announced after the choices are made.

Four women will represent the awards committee to receive requests for funds by May 29.

THOSE WITH requests may write to the awards committee, Northville Town Hall, Box 93, Northville, Mich., 48167, or to the four area chairmen. They are:

Farmington — Mrs. E. Q. Proctor, 26526 Badalament Court.

Northville — Mrs. H. F. Wagenschutz, 675 Randolph.

LOOKING OVER a pot of geraniums are Mrs. Janice Marshall (left) and Mrs. Mary Pulick. Geraniums such as this will be sold by the Livonia Federated Garden Club Saturday, May 15, for 65 cents a pot or $8.50 for a flat of 14 pots. Petunias will also be sold, in five colors, at $3.50 a flat. The sale will take place at Mrs. Pulick's home, 17594 Fairway, Livonia.

1,000 Pipes And A Girl

Susan Tatteshall, one of the prettiest visitors to Plymouth in a lot of months, is helping install the new pipe organ in St. John Episcopal Church.

It's a rather unusual occupation for a young woman, particularly one who's also getting a college diploma next month in the field of Asian studies.

But Susie doesn't think of herself as a pioneer. "It's just that what I really want to do is build organs," she explains.

SHE IS WORKING as an apprentice to Gabriel Kney, a native of Germany who now works in London, Ont., and came to install the 1,000-pipe organ that fits beautifully into the light-filled church on Sheldon south of Ann Arbor Trail.

And Kney, while agreeing that Susie is the first feminine apprentice organ builder he's known and admitting that it took a bit of persuasion before he took her on, doesn't think of her as an innovator either.

"She's doing extremely well, I have to admit," he said. "And that doesn't mean I'm all for women's liberation. But what's fair is fair."

SUSAN, whose home is in Elmhurst, Ill., explained that her interest in organ-building is one of long-standing.

"I'd played the piano since I was about six," she said, "but I quit when I was in high school because it seemed the thing to do."

"Then, about the time I was thinking about getting back to music, my father happened to be named chairman of the new organ committee at our church."

That year she began organ lessons and also met Gabriel Kney, who had been engaged by her father's committee.

"And I decided that the only thing I liked better than playing the organ was watching the work of installation," she said.

Off to Wittenburg College in Ohio as a music major, she found some of the theory classes rather dull and ran into difficulties when she explained that what she really wanted was to study organ-building.

"So I decided to major in Asian studies so I could spend my junior year abroad," Susie said.

IN SIX MONTHS of traveling, she and a friend visited India, Israel, Japan and Taiwan, and then went to Sweden for a short stay before returning to this country.

"I lived with a Swedish family," she recalled, "and one day the mother of the family asked me what I really wanted to do with my life. That was when I realized that the only thing I really wanted was to build organs."

Back home, Susie sent letters to several organ builders, including Kney. He agreed to take her on as an apprentice, giving in, Susie

O U Plans Workshop

"Fooling Around with Fabrics and Fibers" is the title of a fun workshop being offered by the Continuum Center of Oakland University, Rochester, Thursday, May 20 from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The session will be in the clubhouse on the Meadow Brook estate.

Instructors will demonstrate and teach three different methods of working with fibers. Creative stitchery will be taught by Mrs. Robert Fogarty of Birmingham and Mrs. Grant Murphy, of Flint; weaving, by Mrs. Ralph Donaldson of Rochester; and macrame, by Mrs. Donald Webb of Southfield.

A slide program will show the innovative works of other artists. The talks will include where and how to start, what kinds of materials to look for, ideas for the home, gift suggestions and projects to teach children.

Sesame Street Admirers Women Support Channel 56

Why does Mary Smith of Livonia have five bathroom sinks, in assorted colors, in her spare bedroom?

And how is Joyce Weber of Livonia going to pick up a ton of marble chips?

Tune in next week to Channel 56.

YOU'LL BE able to see the answers to all these questions on television May 16 to 22, when Channel 56's $300,000 auction takes to the air, live and in color, beginning with a great art gala at 2 p.m. Sunday.

Mrs. Smith, Miss Weber, Mrs. Sue Rasmussen, also of Livonia, and Mrs. Pat Achinson of Plymouth are among the many Observerland women who are assisting in the round-up of contributions from merchants for the sale. They are part of a project which covers the whole metropolitan area.

Mrs. Rasmussen is the west go-getter chairman; Mrs. Smith is the Livonia captain; Mrs. Achinson is the Plymouth captain; and Miss Weber, is a go-getter, the person who actually calls on most of the merchants.

The first three became interested in the effort through the popular educational children's show "Sesame Street," and an-sweared yes when they were "drafted" for their jobs. All participated last year, when $275,000 was raised.

Proceeds from the auction go to help the non-profit public television station provide better programming. By law it is not allowed to sell advertising or have commercials, so it depends on the community for support.

Miss Weber volunteered her services as a go-getter, because she works nights and had some extra time on her hands. She also volunteered two sisters, and her father, who helps when the contributions get heavy and hard to load into a station wagon.

SO FAR THE local volunteers have collected promises for a lobster-a-month for a year, 52 dozen bagels, at the rate of a dozen a week, a five-tier wedding cake, a Shetland pony, a year of nursery school, an outboard motor boat, and the marble chips and the parachute jump.

They've also collected lots of "normal things," chairs, chandeliers, aquariums, wigs, Tiffany lamp kits and so on.

Part of their job is transporting the goods to the warehouse in Southfield. Thus the sinks found a temporary home at the Smiths.

The actual auction will take place in the Tel-Twelve Mall, 2800 Telegraph Rd., Southfield.

Besides insuring the safety of Sesame Street, there are other rewards. "There are lots of fun jobs," says Mrs. Rasmussen.

One of them will be appearing on TV and helping with the auction. The volunteers will be on camera with such Detroit celebrities as Bozo T. Clown, Henry Ford, Sonny Elliot, Dick Purtan, Mayor Roman Gribbs, Pete Waldemeir, Jack LeGoff, Lou Gordon, J.P. McCarthy and more than 200 others.

Among the items collected from the metropolitan area are a rhinestone bra, fur hotpants, water skis, a golf week, a fishing vacation, a Plexiglass dinette set, bicycles, appliances, at least six automobiles and lots of other goodies.

WILL YOU BE able to get a bargain? According to the local group, the best time for bargain bidding is early afternoon and late evening.

Television coverage of the auction will continue from 2:30 p.m. until midnight every day throughout the week as viewers bid by phone on items they'd like to own.

Other Observerland

residents involved are, from Farmington, Mrs. Lloyd Adelson, north go-getter chairman; from Livonia, Mrs. Gordon Buyck, Mrs. Robert Rashid, Mrs. John Fogliatti, Mrs. Peter Gregory, Mrs. Pat Thomas, and Mrs. Linda Doering; from Plymouth, Mrs. David Champe, Mrs. William Campbell, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Roger Wright, Mrs. Thomas Ritchey and Mrs. Carl O'Dell; and from Garden City, Mrs. Sterling Long. Mrs. Morton Herman of Southfield is go-getter coordinator and Mrs. Michael Steinberg, also of Southfield, is office co-chairman.

Extension Schedules Day

"71 Spring Thing" will be the theme of the annual College Day program for the Oakland County Extension Homemakers' Council of the Cooperative Extension Service.

Those attending the program from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the Central United Methodist Church, 3381

Highland, Pontiac, may choose workshops in bathroom decoration, sewing a bathing suit or fondue cookery.

There also will be a music appreciation program with Dr. Eddie Meadows, Michigan State University Extension music specialist, and the Pontiac Central High School choir. Dr. Meadows will discuss "The spiritual as a Music Form."

All women interested are invited to attend. The price, including luncheon, is $2.25, and reservations must be made by May 15 with Mrs. Janice Kukar, Cooperative Extension Service, 1025 N. Telegraph, Pontiac.

The bride-elect is a 1969 graduate of Stevenson High School and her fiancé is a University of Michigan graduate. They plan to be married in September.

MARY SCHRAMM
Mr. and Mrs. John E. Schramm of Mason Avenue, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Catherine, to Roger A. Duff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duff of Rush Street, Garden City. The bride-elect, a graduate of Ladywood High School attended Schoolcraft Community College and is employed by Sinai Hospital in Detroit. Her fiancé graduated from Garden City West High School and is studying at Schoolcraft and working for the National Bank of Detroit in its downtown branch. The wedding date is June 5.

MRS. RICHARD HUGH ELLIOTT
(Charlene Jean Kinggo)

Elliotts Are Wed In St. Andrew

St. Andrew Episcopal Church in Livonia was the setting for the May 8 wedding of Charlene Jean Kinggo and Richard Hugh Elliott.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kinggo of Meadowlark Court, Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Muncaster of Pittsburgh are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Kenneth Davis officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Claudia Quinlan of Ann Arbor was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Linda Gladish of Toronto, cousin of the bride, Bonnie Adams of Muskegon and Sue Leidholdt of Westland. David William Elliott of Pittsburgh assisted his brother as best man. The ushers were Willis A. Siegfried of Pittsburgh, C. Reed Agnew of Pittsburgh and Paul W. Butz of Southfield.

A reception in Vladimir's restaurant in Farmington followed the ceremony, and the couple went to Elbow Beach, Bermuda, for their honeymoon.

The new Mrs. Elliott is a registered nurse in the coronary care unit at William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak. Her husband, a graduate of Parsons College in Iowa, is a sales engineer with the Kendall Co., Royal Oak.

3 'Losers' Honored By Plymouth Club

Three "losers" were honored at an awards and installation banquet at the Hillside Inn, Plymouth.

The awards were made by members of Plymouth chapter TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) and KOPS (Keep Off Pounds Sensibly).

Ellen Sevigny, with a 47-pound loss, was chosen "Queen for 1970." To qualify for the title, the contender must have the greatest weight loss for the year and must have kept it off for three months minimum to earn the KOP rating.

Connie Orr was honored as the "biggest loser for 1970." She has lost 53 pounds and is not yet at her goal. Her combined weight loss for 1970-71 is 88 pounds and she still has a few pounds to go.

Lee Doyle was chosen KOP of the year. She was honored for not gaining any weight for three years and for helping with the TOPS chapter.

In a candlelight ceremony, the following officers were installed: leader, Ellen Sevigny; co-leader, Betty Siefert; secretary, Martha Samples; treasurer, Helen Witkowski; and weight recorder, Betty Craig. All are residents of Plymouth.

The combined weight loss of all members of the chapter for 1970 placed it in fifth place in the Detroit Metropolitan area.

China Painters To Hold Sale In Royal Oak

The Michigan Federation of China Painters will hold a show and sale of hand-painted china in St. John's Episcopal Church, Woodward at 11 Mile, Royal Oak May 14 and 15.

Hours of the show will be from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. the first day and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. May 15.

There will be demonstrations by Michigan teachers.

It's A Boy

Mr. and Mrs. Michel Letwinski of Ashley Drive, Farmington, announce the birth of a son, Ronald Howard, April 18, in Sinai Hospital, Detroit. The baby's grandparents are Mrs. Freda Metz and Mrs. Mary Letwinski.

Couple Living In Illinois

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce W. Riekels are making their home in Blue Island, Ill., following their recent marriage in the Church of the Master in Warren.

Mrs. Riekels is the former Lynda Marie Piethe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Piethe of Brady Avenue, Redford Township.

Her husband is the son of Mrs. Ebel Riekels of Muskegon and the late Mr. Riekels.

ESCORTED to the altar by her father, the bride wore her mother's wedding gown of heavy ivory satin with a sweetheart neckline and pearl brocade on the bodice.

Her attendants wore empire gowns of orchid chiffon over taffeta with deep orchid ribbon trim. They carried purple violets.

CHRISTINE K. PIETHE, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and another sister, Annette D. Piethe, was bridesmaid.

William Bowman of Newark, Ohio, and Ron Hughes of Chicago served as best men for the bridegroom. The ushers were the bridegroom's nephew, Kurt Borgman of Bay City, and the bride's brother, Ronald Piethe.

The bride's mother chose a two-piece apricot silk shantung dress, and the bridegroom's mother wore a bone white shift.

AFTER A RECEPTION for 130 guests in the church fellowship hall, the couple left for a motor trip in the Smoky Mountains and along the Blue Ridge Parkway.

Nursery Sets Open House

The Wayne Nursery Inc. is taking applications for its fall semester, and will hold an open house Saturday, May 15, from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., in Warrenwoods Wesleyan Church, 6615 Venoy, Westland, three blocks south of Warren.

Parents are invited to bring their nursery age (three and four years) children to the open house. Refreshments will be served.

Both are graduates of Michigan State University and the bridegroom is employed by Interlake, Inc., of Chicago.

4 Girl Scouts Are Honored

Four girls, who have not only been in scouting 11 years, but presently spend an afternoon a week helping with younger scouts, were honored at a father and daughter ice cream social given by Girl Scout Neighborhood 53. The party was in Frost Junior High School.

All senior scouts, they have also participated in community and school projects. The girls are Marlene Steiner, Marilyn Mauch, Roberta Thompson and Linda Stewart. Marlene attends Bentley High School and plays the violin with the Livonia Youth Symphony. She is a member of the concert choir at Bentley and academic editor of the school year book. She plans to attend Albion College in the fall and major in home economics.

Marilyn, also a student at Bentley, is activities editor of the year book staff. She is a member of the Senior Cabinet and student council. She has been a cheerleader, a member of the Bentley Concert Band and of the girls' varsity tennis, basketball and track teams. She is going to Western Michigan University and will major in elementary education.

The third member of the group, Roberta Thompson, has been active in the Churchill High School drama club for three years and has acted in several school plays. This year she was student director of the play "Auntie Mame." She is also on the staff of the school paper, a member of the school choir and the ski club. She will attend Michigan State College where she will major in radio and communications.

Linda has been active with the Stevenson Symphonic Choir and serves as their accompanist. She is also a member of the Modern Dance Club and participates in her church youth group. Linda plans to attend Oberlin College, Ohio, and major in psychology.

FOUR SENIOR Girl Scouts were honored at a father and daughter party given by Girl Scout Neighborhood 53. Livonia. They are (left to right) Marlene Steiner, Linda Stewart, Roberta Thompson and Marilyn Mauch. All have been in scouting 11 years and are also active in their schools and community. Day Care Centers May Hurt Child, Educator Warns

EAST LANSING
A note of warning that extensive day-care centers may penalize young children was sounded by a Michigan State University educator who addressed the Michigan Council of Cooperative Nurseries 20th annual convention.

"I am not unsympathetic to the working mother," Dr. Vera Borosage told mothers gathered from all over the state, "but it's the baby's growth and care, psychological as well as physical, that must be paramount in any planning." Dr. Borosage is a teacher of family relationships and parent education in the department of family and child sciences in MSU's College of Human Ecology.

SHE SAID child development authorities "believe we isolate children too much with their own age groups, and day care would just push this effect further."

Some experts, she added, are proposing "day care programs to involve whole neighborhoods and places of work so that children will interact with all ages."

"Interesting, isn't it," she said, "how much this sounds like the one-room country school house where there was 'vertical grouping' with older children helping younger children?"

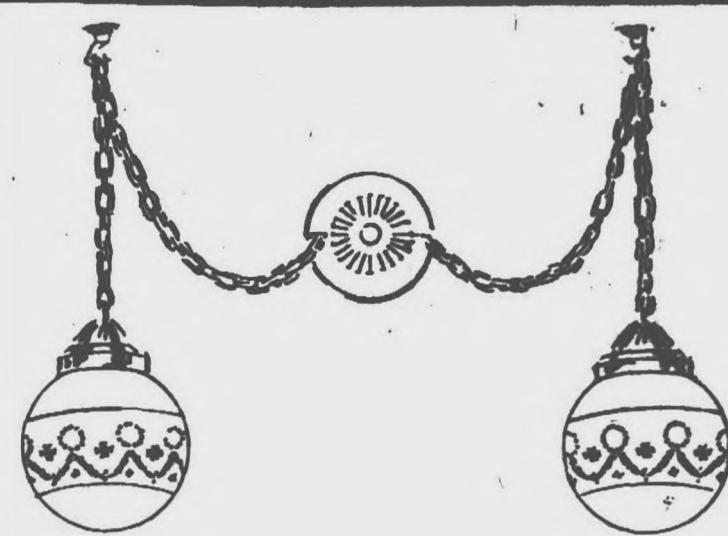

DR. BOROSAGE said many in her field feel that small child care centers, perhaps with a mother caring for several children, would be better than "large impersonal institutions."

"Isn't it strange," she added, "that we spend years getting children out of institutional settings like orphanages and into foster homes with few children and family atmosphere, and now we are on the verge of proposing mass day care centers, some even going into franchised operations for profit?"

"I feel it is part of your commitment and mine to ask questions of the authorities, to consider the child in this flurry of excitement."

The two-day meeting drew mothers from a number of Observer area cooperative nurseries, including Bulman, Farmington, Redford, Plymouth, Novi, Northville, Livonia and North Livonia.

In today's decorating scheme, bathrooms are as exciting as any room in the house. This elegant fixture features imported satin-white spheres with 22K gold decoration. Visit our spacious showroom, the largest in metropolitan Detroit, with over 1,000 fixtures on display.

learned later, to considerable persuasion on the part of his wife and her friends.

She remembers being "a little apprehensive," as she began her apprenticeship a few months ago.

"I'd never even pounded a nail," she said. "But I fell in love with the work."

THE APPRENTICESHIP continues for four years, during which time Susie hopes to take more organ lessons as well as learning the fine points of building a fine instrument. She'd also like to learn some German "so I'll know what's going on in the shop when something goes wrong and the air starts turning blue."

The big parts of the installation work at St. John is voicing each pipe - "giving the pipe its color," Susie explains - and then tuning each one.

"You have to be musically inclined or it would be hopeless," Kney said.

When the installation here is complete, Kney and his apprentice will head back to the shop in London to begin work on an organ for a church in Ames, Iowa, the 55th one for Kney.

Susie will take time out to get a diploma - in Asian studies - from Wittenburg June 13. Then it will be back to the organs, including building a small one from scratch.

"I have a lot to learn," she said, "but I can't think of any work I'd rather do."

Nursery Plans Open House

The North Livonia Cooperative Nursery, Inc., will hold an open house Sunday, May 16, from 2 to 4 p.m., in St. Andrew Episcopal Church, 16360 Hubbard.

Interested parents and their children are invited. Janet Gates will have information about the nursery's program and applications for next year.

Hot Story In Shorts

Minerva's - Dunnings presents home sewers in Observerland a "hot" short story from the McCall Pattern Co.

McCall's sizzling new pattern, No. 2800, gets it all together and offers the three most wanted versions of the new, hot shorts.

These are the three looks that are moving fastest in London, Paris and from coast to coast. The McCall "Hot Ones" include a fly-front, mock cuffed version with a waistband; a fly-front plain legged short with no waistband and an elasticized waistband style with a cuff.

With McCall's "hot" three-in-one pattern, home sewers can sew up a "short" storm. Pattern No. 2800 will produce a complete hot pants wardrobe.

Anticipating requests for fabric suggestions, the store also has stocked bolts of exciting new fabrics.

Alloway Heads Beekeepers

By MAURIE WALKER
PLYMOUTH

When Ralph E. Alloway, Plymouth Township building inspector, isn't busy with his governmental job, you'll find him at his two-acre homestead in Canton Township deeply engrossed in his favorite hobby, beekeeping.

Alloway has 22 bee hives, each containing an average of 80,000 honey bees, which in a good season, nets him 120 pounds of honey.

A nature lover since he was a boy on his dad's farm in Ohio, Alloway first became interested in bees when he was 10 years old. Although he got away from his hobby for a while, during the past six years he has seriously indulged in beekeeping.

TODAY HE IS president of the Southeastern Michigan Beekeepers' Association which is made up of approximately 100 beekeepers from Wayne, Monroe and Macomb counties.

The association holds four meetings a year, the key one being held in April which is the annual beekeeper seminar.

This annual seminar, sponsored by the Cooperative Extension Service, Michigan State University, in cooperation with the association, brings together a full-day program of educational events, including movies, speeches, demonstrations and other timely topics, using resource people from many areas of Michigan and Ohio.

The association even selects a Michigan Honey Queen. This year she is Barbara Kemner of Manchester.

Alloway, who has been in the association five years, was treasurer prior to being elected president this year.

HE IS AN avid student of bees and their habits, and anyone wishing information on them won't get stung should they question him.

The honey bee, which is the type Alloway raises, is an intelligent creature.

"Each hive only allows one queen bee, and each hive has its own queen," Alloway explained.

"The queen can lay up to 1,500 eggs a day, this being her prime purpose in the hive."

He said bees operate like an army, each having its sentries, each having its swarm of workers, plus the lazy drones whose only job is to serve the queen.

"BEES air-condition their own hives," Alloway said. "In the hot weather, they will stand just outside the hive and flap their wings pushing fresh air into the hive. In the wintertime, the bees cluster together inside and by some unexplained method, keep the interior at approximately 90 degrees, even in below-zero weather."

For persons afraid of bees, Alloway advises that the surest way to get stung is to swat at a bee.

"The safest thing to do when a bee buzzes around you is to stand perfectly still and don't make any sudden moves," he advises.

Another comforting thought, according to Alloway, is that bees won't sting when they are swarming.

"Actually the honey bee gives up its life when it stings. They have only one stinger which, when injected into a person, causes the bee to die."

THE DRONE can't sting, he pointed out. It's just the workers who do the dirty work. The queen bee is the key to each hive.

"If the hive is out of a queen, it's out of bees. She is the only one allowed to reproduce."

He explained that it's the worker bees who really control a hive. They are the ones who produce a queen by feeding an egg special food.

"The lazy drones, all males, are run out of the hive each fall. The workers either kill them or chase them out."

Bees have a short life in the summer. They actually work themselves to death. In the winter months they live longer due to the inactivity.

BECAUSE OF his knowledge in handling bees, Alloway often gets calls from people who want to get a nest out of a barn or garage. Some of these jobs aren't easy. In one instance recently, it took him nearly two days to rid a barn of bees.

Although man is the bee's worst enemy, they play a vital role in man's existence.

"Bees are needed to pollinate fruit crops, melons, clover and alfalfa," he pointed out. "Without the bee, man would be in serious trouble with his crops."

So important are bees to crops, that the Department of Information Services at Michigan State University recently announced that rent-a-bee is booming in Michigan.

The Michigan Beekeepers Association has recommended a rental fee of $10 a hive and has suggested growers contact beekeepers now to make arrangements for pollination periods.

OUT ON HAGGERTY Rd., Alloway and his wife, Frances, raise bees "just as a hobby." He appreciates their value to man and enjoys telling others of the bee's role in life.

"If I can occasionally interest as boy or girl in raising bees, give them something to occupy their spare time, I feel as though I have contributed something."

"As for me, I can spend hours just watching them." But like most hobbies, it takes spare time, something Building Inspector Alloway has a hard time finding.

Eastern Star Donates Organ

PLYMOUTH

Installation of a newly-purchased organ for the Plymouth Masonic Temple recently was marked by a special dedication ceremony and concert.

The new electric organ was sponsored by the Plymouth chapter of the Eastern Star of which Louise and Fred Bradley are worthy matron and patron. The organ has been turned over to the temple for use by all organizations using the lodge hall.

Williams Ends Special Duty

PLYMOUTH

Army Pvt. Randall L. Williams, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Williams, 1393 Beech, Plymouth, recently completed nine weeks of advanced individual infantry training at Ft. Polk, La.

During the course, he received guerrilla training and lived under simulated Vietnam conditions for five days, fighting off night attacks and conducting raids on enemy villages. He was taught methods of removing booby traps, setting ambushes and avoiding enemy ambushes.

Other specialized training included small unit tactics, map reading, land mine warfare, communications, and firing the M-16 rifle, M-60 machine gun and the 3.5-inch rocket launcher.

Williams entered the Army in December 1970 and completed basic training at Ft. Dix, N.J.

He is a 1966 graduate of Plymouth High School and received his B.S. degree in 1970 from Central Michigan University.

BPW Installs New Officers

PLYMOUTH

The Plymouth Business and Professional Women's Club will conduct the installation of its new officers at a 6:30 p.m. dinner meeting Wednesday, May 19 at the Hillside Inn.

At that time, Millie Blackford will succeed Connie Abbott as president.

Other new officers include Grace Rix, first vice president; Sandy Davis, second vice president; Dorothy Crimmins, treasurer; Marjane Guthrie, recording secretary, and Dorothy Sincock, corresponding secretary.

Jack Selle Puts Name Into Big Game Records With African Trophies

By W. W. EDGAR

Jack Selle, Plymouth's big game hunter, finally has realized one of his ambitions. His name has been placed in the world record books not once, but twice.

"And there's a possibility that two more of these specimens will make it," he said last Thursday afternoon when he uncared the latest shipment of trophies from the African taxidermists.

"According to the word I received," he said, "the greater kudu and the oribi now have been entered in the world record book."

"The powers that be in such things are still studying the facts and figures on the giant water buck and the heartbeest. So, it could be that I will wind up with four entries in the 'big book'."

The latest shipment are the trophies from the safari he made a little more than a year ago into the dark regions of the continent. He now has more than two dozen specimens in the special hunt room of his palatial home on Beacon Hill.

WHILE JACK is proud of each animal head and more than pleased that he gained a place in the record books, he commented that the elephant was the most difficult to bring down.

"While the elephant is the biggest target I had, it took days and days of crawling and scrounging around with my guides in the hot sun before we could bring him down."

With all of his trophies, Selle still is not satisfied. He now wants to go after the "cats" — the leopards, lions and jaguars.

He plans to switch from Africa to central America for his next adventure.

"That's where I understand the jaguars are, and I sure would like to land one of them," he said, with that far off look in his eye as though he heard the call of the jungle.

WHILE HE WAS uncaring his latest species, Jack turned serious for a moment and said "There'll be some people criticizing me for killing off these animals, but there are a few things these critics don't realize."

"First, we don't kill off any female animals or the young. We just go after the old males. So, there is no harm done there."

"Second, the natives hunt these animals for food. In many cases it is the only meat they get. So, when we hunters go to places like Africa we are not only getting the trophies of the hunt we want — but we are helping to supply the natives with food."

"Third, in many cases the thinning of the herds is a good thing."

With that, he went about unpacking the next crate and reliving the anxious moments he spent in getting his prizes.

Gignac To Aid State In Fire Training Plan

PLYMOUTH

Plymouth Township Fire Chief James Gignac has been selected one of 21 licensed firefighter instructors in the state to work with the Governor's Committee of the Firefighters' Training Council to help establish standards in the training of firefighters throughout Michigan.

Gignac and the other instructors were asked to set up a uniform system which in-

Change Swim Series Plans

PLYMOUTH

Two revisions in plans for a series of Thursday night swimming programs for husbands and wives have been announced by Herbert Woolweaver.

Although the series still is planned to open May 13 in the Central Junior High School pool, it will continue for six weeks instead of eight. The fee will be $10 per couple instead of $10 per person.

Advance registrations are being accepted at Woolweaver's office at Central.

2 Win Honors At Kalamazoo

PLYMOUTH

Two Plymouth students were among the 169 students to be named to the dean's list at Kalamazoo College for the winter quarter.

Marshal Lytle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Lytle, 44443 Eric Pass, and Paul Pugalet, son of Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Pugalet, 47226 Beechcrest Court, both maintained grade point averages of over 3.5 on a scale with 4.0 as the maximum.

cludes establishing minimum standards in training of firefighters, education standards, standards of employment, establishment of schools and a means to educate and certify qualified instructors.

The state government recently approved funds to hire a secretary and form the training council. Suggestions for training submitted by the 21 instructors will go to the State House for its approval and then will be reviewed by the attorney general, Gignac said.

ONE OF THE new requirements for a certified firefighter will be a 240-hour course which will include fire hose practice, salvage and overhaul, fire service rescue and protective breathing practices, fire inspection practices, fire alarm and communications, community relations, arson detection and fire service first aid.

Gignac said police departments have had similar requirements for their men for a number of years.

"The main idea of the council's action is to set a minimum standard for every firefighter in the state, making the training uniform throughout Michigan," Gignac pointed out.

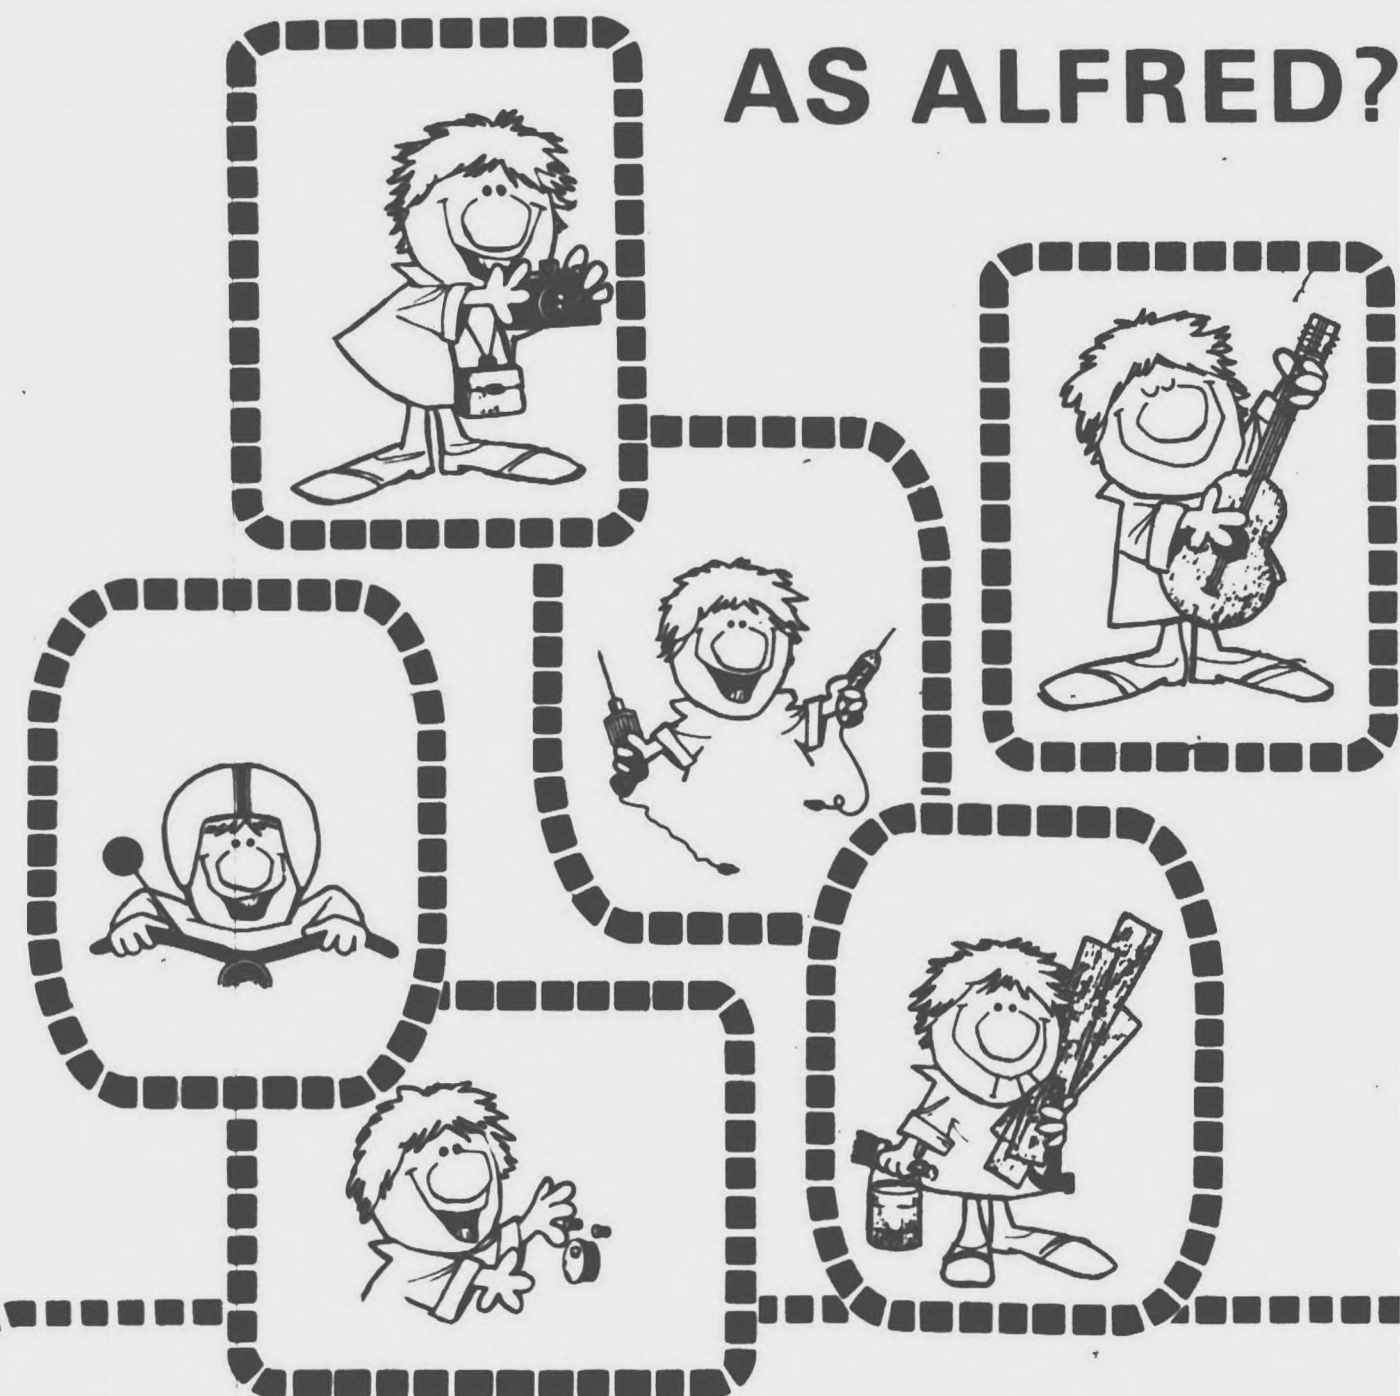

The plans, if approved, will take effect this fall. Michigan is one of four states which will have the uniform training practices for firemen.

"If approved, this should upgrade considerably the fire service throughout the state," Gignac added.

300 Guests Attend Party For Carl Rorabachers

Grass Roots Politics Is LWV Topic

More than 300 guests from Michigan and Ohio attended an open house celebrating the April 21 golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Rorabacher of Wayne. The party was held April 25 in the American Legion Hall in Wayne.

THE BRIDE OF 50 years wore a corn-yellow dress as she did for her wedding. It was styled in an A-line, with wide cut-out sleeves. Her twin sister, Mrs. Jay Tompkins of Detroit, who was her maid of honor, wore a dress of the same design in light blue. Both wore white orchid corsages.

Among the guests were several relatives who had also celebrated their 50th wedding anniversaries, including a brother, Herbert Rorabacher of Plymouth, and Mrs. Rorabacher, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Burden of Fremont and Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Spalding of Livonia.

Mrs. Rorabacher's other sister, Mrs. Wilbur Hill, and brother, Bernard Curtis, were also at the party. Both are from Plymouth.

Also among the guests were the Rorabacher's sons, Vern, of Belleville, Carl F., of Saline, and Eugene, of Belleville, their daughters, Mrs. Wanda Kwiecinski of Manitou Beach and Mrs. Patty Johnston of Wayne, their 18 grandchildren and their one great-grandchild.

MRS. RORABACHER was born in Putnam County, Ohio, and moved to Plymouth in 1914. Rorabacher was born in South Lyon and, after serving with the U.S. Army during World War I, moved to Plymouth in 1920. The couple met while both were employed at Markham Air Rifle Factory in Plymouth and were married in 1921.

MR. AND MRS. CARL A. RORABACHER

They lived on a farm most of their married life. Later Rorabacher worked for the U.S. Post Office and the Wayne Community School district. He is now retired.

A "do-you-remember?" bulletin board featured their wedding picture, wedding book and several old pictures furnished by the guests. Music from the 1920s through the 1970s set the mood.

A buffet lunch was served by their young neighbors, Nancy Goodney, Karen Brown, Kathy Miotto, Yvonne, Suzy, Terry and Beth Laraway, Stephanie and Joelyn Yurich and Nan Liberati, under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Miller and Mrs. Guy Laraway. All wore white lace-trimmed hostess aprons.

Congratulatory messages were received from Dr. Frank Field, who performed their marriage in First Methodist Church of Plymouth and now lives in St. Petersburg, Fla.; and from President Richard M. Nixon and Gov. William G. Milliken.

Reading Council To Meet

Dr. William Kottmeyer will be guest speaker at the annual spring dinner conference of the Metropolitan Detroit Reading Council. The conference will be held at Mercy College, 8200 W. Outer Dr., Detroit, Wednesday, May 12, from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Registrations should be mailed to Bob Nagle, P.O. Box 03581, Highland Park Branch, Detroit. The registration fee is $1 for non-members, plus $3.95 for the dinner.

All educators are invited to hear Dr. Kottmeyer, who co-authored the book "Basic Goals in Spelling." He has written more than 200 books and articles in all. The former superintendent of the St. Louis Public Schools, he originated reading clinics which have been very successful.

Any inquiries about the meeting should be made to the council president, Mrs. Harriet Houseman of Southfield, at 8401 Woodward Ave., North Carolina Building, Detroit 48203.

BPW To Choose 'Career Woman'

The "New Image" convention of the Michigan Federation of Business and Professional Women will be held in Kalamazoo May 21-23.

Leaders of the federation are taking the convention back to the campus for a look at "Women's Role in Today's World."

Young career women, representing the clubs of 15 districts of the Michigan federation, will be presented at a luncheon May 22. A winner will be selected from among five finalists and then will meet with other state and international representatives at the national convention of the BPW to be held in Cleveland, July 25 to 29.

DELEGATES AT the state convention will include members of the Plymouth BPW, Connie Abbott, Milly Blackford, Grace Rix, Velma Bartel, Margaret Stremich, Grayce Formaz, Dorothy Sincok, Gertrude Drouyor, and Mary Jane Wagenshutz. Alternates are Bette Mende, Elizabeth Holmes, Ellice Kulick, Dolores White and Dolores Anderson.

Keynote speaker for the Saturday evening banquet will be Virginia Allan, past state and national BPW president. Miss Allan is currently a regent of Eastern Michigan University and was appointed by President Richard M. Nixon as the U.S. representative to the first world-wide United Nations seminar on "Participation of Women in the Economic Life of Their Country."

SHE ALSO headed the president's task force on "Women's Rights and Responsibilities."

Boy Admits Burglary

A teenage boy has admitted breaking into a Westland home and stealing a rifle and ammunition, a police radio, a $35 in cash, the Westland police department reported last week.

The boy, however, denied taking a $1,500 mink coat from the home of Howard Greene, of 351 S. Merriman. All of the stolen articles, with the exception of the mink coat, has been recovered by police.

Greene told officers that the rear door window of his home was broken. Missing were a $160 police radio, $150 Army M-1 carbine, $58 in ammunition, and the mink coat.

Jury Trial Sought

The trial of two men charged with contributing to the delinquency of minors has been postponed until Monday, May 24.

At that time, District Judge Thomas Smith of Westland will hear pre-trial motions from attorneys.

Charged by Westland police in the April 26 incident are Jimmie Gazolla, 41, of Ecorse, and Peter Poma, 21, of Bloomfield Hills.

Judge Smith Monday denied defense counsel's motions for a change of venue and for dismissal of the case.

Girl Scouts Issue Awards

Neighborhood 47 of the Girl Scouts issued Green Angel awards to committee mothers and scout leaders at the annual banquet held last week for the Westland girls and their mothers.

The awards were given to those who served at least two years and performed special work on behalf of a troop.

SCOUT LEADERS getting the awards were Mrs. Ruth Livernois, Mrs. Doris Estes, Mrs. Chris Huzar, Mrs. Aileen Theakston, Mrs. Eileen Mallen, Mrs. Ruth Kinjorski, Mrs. Gloria Henrick, and Mrs. Linda Iganigi, Mrs. Lillian Cohl and Mrs. Theda Martinez.

Committee mothers receiving the awards are Mrs. Janice Merry and Mrs. Katy Houck.

In addition, the Girl Scouts presented a special Green Angel award to Fire Dept. Lieut. Richard Norman for his time in teaching scouts in first aid techniques.

The banquet also had Mrs. Kenneth Motach retire as neighborhood chairman, a post she held for three years. She will continue as cadette troop No. 562 leader.

ENTERTAINMENT for the banquet was provided by scouts Lynn Erickson, Linda Waters, Denise Truan, Debbie Douglass, Jill Comstock, and Sue Zakerski, members of senior troop 1502, led by Mrs. Robert Body.

Leading the flag ceremony at the start of the banquet was cadette troop 2543, led by Mrs. Richard Norman.

John Glenn Plans Fine Arts Festival

John Glenn High School will hold a fine arts festival May 14-15, including a cafe with strolling musicians, arts, and musical entertainment.

The program, presented by the fine arts department, will be held from 7-10 p.m. each night in the high school.

The festival, open to the public without charge, will include one act plays, Japanese Kabuki theater, dramatic readings, original plays, songs, and poetry.

There will also be outdoor concerts in the courtyard given by the symphony orchestra, women's chorus, concert choir, and the Glenn Men. There will be 16 performances each night at 15-minute intervals, the school said.

In addition, there will be painters, sculptors, weavers, jewelers, potters, and other art students demonstrating their talents at the two-day event.

Wayne Seniors Win 29 Scholarships

Twenty-nine seniors at Wayne Memorial High School have won state scholarships to 10 Michigan universities or colleges.

The announcement from the high school pointed out that the high test scores on the scholarship exams will in most cases, enable the seniors to have their tuition paid for one year with the scholarship renewal each year of college.

The 29 scholarship winners are as follows:

Richard Brownfield,

Marianne Green, and Sandy McCausland, Eastern Michigan University; Frank Galbraith, Adrian College; Jacalyn Gills, and Forrest Morgan, Ferris State College; Molly Eklund, Grand Valley State College.

Hugh Baker, James Bon-sall, Kathy Cole, Dan Hoover, Fayette Jones, Roxanne Martin, Joe McCormick, Phil Plevak, Mike Tsurui, and Gary Wiles, Michigan State University.

Susan Bachus, Bill Cline, Craig Johnson, Tom Nelson, Dave Schwalben, Debra Wilson, and Jeff Zurinden, University of Michigan; Cathy Winterson, Western Michigan University; John Baker, Spring Arbor College; Louis Klein, Michigan Technological University.

A state tuition grant was also awarded to Judith Palka, who will attend Madonna College.

Bradley Condition Improves

WESTLAND The condition of a Westland judge struck by a car early Friday morning is described as "improving" this week.

Judge Michael Bradley, 42, suffered a fractured pelvis and a broken leg when he was hit by a car while walking across a road in Meridian Township near Lansing.

He was taken off the critical list at Sparrow Hospital, Lansing, as his condition improved, court personnel reported Tuesday morning.

Presiding Judge Thomas Smith said he will handle some of Bradley's criminal caseload and will ask for neighboring judges to sit on the Westland bench in Bradley's absence.

College Districting In Political Juggle

By KATHY MORAN

New dimensions in the state community college apportionment debate have resulted in a tangle of actions from a State Senate committee, a House committee, and Wayne County Circuit Court.

The method of electing Schoolcraft College trustees has been ruled unconstitutional because it fails to conform to the "one-man, one-vote" concept. The current board of trustees is operating with extended terms until a constitutional election method is decided on.

THE LATEST developments:

- Sen. Carl Pursell's (R-Plymouth) bill calling for an at-large election of Schoolcraft trustees was narrowly reported out of the Senate Education Committee last week with the bill's co-sponsor opposed to letting it out of committee.
- Rep. James Tierney (D-Garden City) said he would sponsor a companion bill calling for at-large elections as Pursell proposed.
- Rep. Marvin Stempien's (D-Livonia) bill was unanimously reported out of the Colleges and Universities Committee Friday in compromised form. It would make it optional for community college districts to have at-large or single-member district elections.
- Stempien was allowed to intervene as a plaintiff in the lawsuit filed by the New Democratic Coalition of Livonia to force reapportionment of the district.
- A plan calling for at-large trustee elections was submitted to Circuit Court Judge Roland Olzark and will be discussed at a hearing tentatively set for Friday, May 21.

PURSELL'S BILL squeezed out of committee by a 3-2 vote Thursday morning after backers and opponents testified in a committee hearing.

Speaking in favor of the bill were Mrs. Jane Moehle, Schoolcraft board chairman; Ron Mardiros, former Democratic leader and Livonia city assessor; and Rep. Tierney.

Paul Kadish, former Democratic State Senate candidate, and Neil deStigter, plaintiff in the NDC-L suit against Schoolcraft College, spoke in opposition to the bill.

Though co-sponsor Sen. William Faust (D-Westland) did not have major objections to the bill, he said he cast a negative vote because it needed further study.

"I thought some points brought out by Sen. (James) Gray (D-Warren) were valid and warranted further investigation," Faust said afterwards.

GRAY HAD suggested that the election provision in the bill should be amended to have trustee elections held in November of odd years concurrently with municipal political elections.

The rationale is that the shared elections would save college districts money. Indications are that this amendment could be added to the bill on the floor of the Senate.

Pursell indicated that the odd year elections would result in partisan politics being thrust into the college elections.

"It appears now that there is an attempt to make this a partisan issue," Pursell said after the committee meeting. "I'm disappointed at that."

THOUGH STEMPIEN'S bill was discussed in committee on Thursday, it was not reported out until Friday morning after a compromise had been worked out.

In the Thursday meeting, Stempien attempted to add an amendment to his bill which calls for the division of each of the state's 29 community college districts into equal population districts from which trustees would be elected.

The amendment would have exempted all college districts with populations under 50,000 from having to be redistricted. The 12 districts affected would have had the option of holding at-large or district elections.

But some committee members argued against the bill, saying "talent isn't spread geographically" and that many of the community colleges are operating without problems with at-large trustee elections.

With an apparent growing opposition, Stempien said he would be willing to soften the proposed amendment to allow all the college districts the option of having either type of trustee election.

Stempien talked individually with committee members throughout Thursday afternoon until the compromise was agreed upon on Friday.

UNDER THE compromise form, Stempien's bill gives each district the election option and sets uniform procedures if district elections are decided upon. The college trustees and the community commissions would have to vote on which type of election they preferred.

The apportionment commissions would be made up of the county clerk, the county treasurer, prosecuting attorney, and the statutory county chairman of each of the top two vote-getting political parties.

STEMPIEN ALSO won the right to intervene in the court suit involving Schoolcraft.

Judge Olzark said he granted permission in order to get as wide a perspective as possible before making a decision on the case.

After arriving nearly two hours late for the hearing, Stempien met with Roger Craig, NDC lawyer; Edward Draugelis, representing Schoolcraft; and Judge Olzark, in the judge's chambers and agreed not to ask for removal of the current Schoolcraft trustees.

Originally Stempien had asked that the trustees be removed and a receiver be appointed until a new board was selected.

Schoolcraft Trustees Paul Mutnick and Dr. R. Robert Geake had taken half-days off work to attend the hearing. President Eric Bradner also attended.

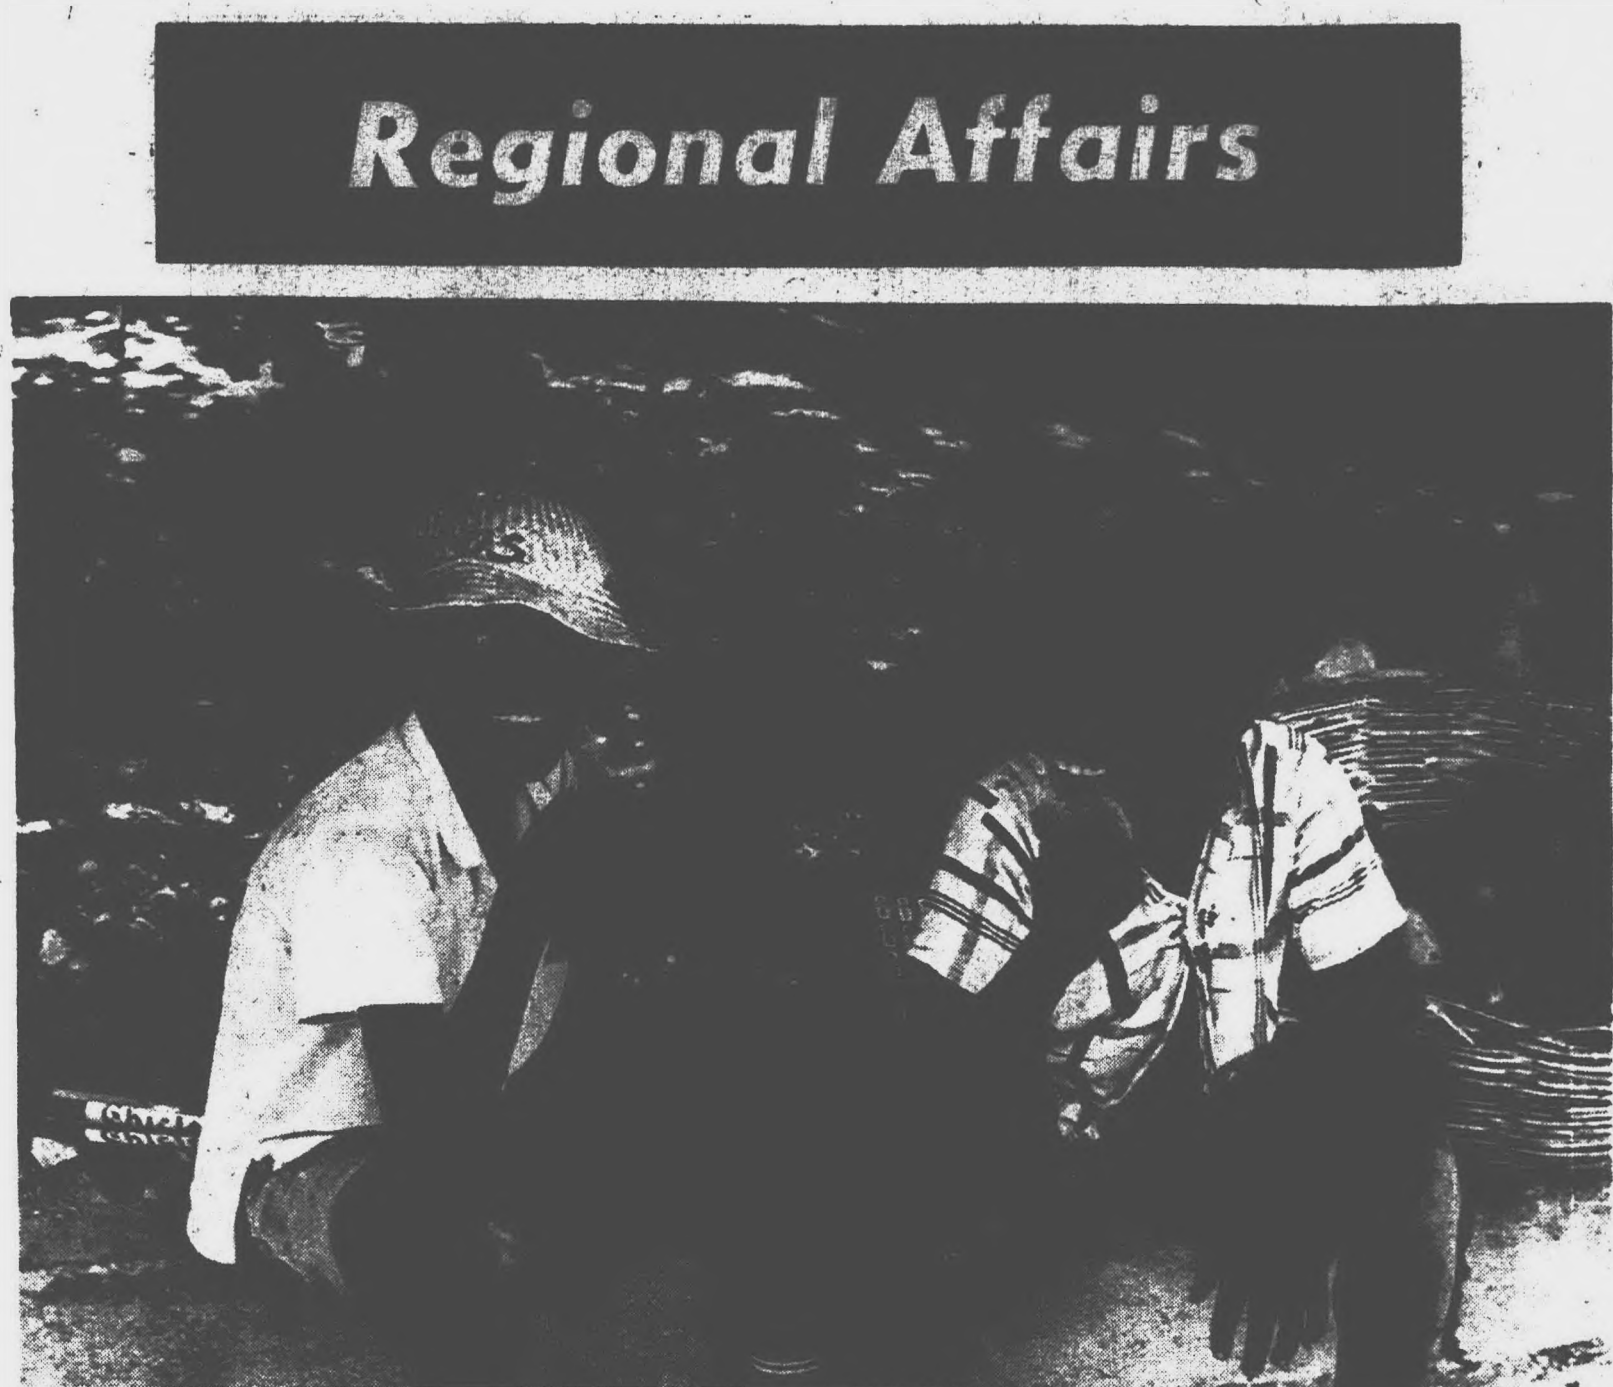

CRAIG DID NOT object to Stempien's entering the suit, saying: "Our concern is that the community college board be elected in accordance with the constitution."

Draugelis objected to allowing the intervention, alleging Stempien's "interests are political as well as legal."

"He is asking for remedies that have in fact already been met," Draugelis said. "It (the intervention) is not ending the action but prolonging it indefinitely."

Draugelis submitted the plan approved by the Schoolcraft trustees to the court. The plan calls for an at-large election on Sept. 13 with the three current at-large trustees serving out their terms. These trustees are Dr. Geake, Dr. George Martin and John LaRue.

The board's recommendation to the Circuit Court will tentatively be discussed on May 21.

AS A MARINE, Tom Donoghue shot this vivid color picture of two boys eating oranges in Port-Au-Prince, Haiti. It received an honorable mention in color in the daily newspapers category of the Michigan Press Photographers Assn. annual contest.

Donoghue Wins 2 State Prizes In Contest

Thomas Donoghue, a freelance photographer often employed by Observer Newspapers Inc., picked up double honors in the recent 1971 Michigan Press Photographers Assn. contest.

Donoghue was first place winner in the black-and-white feature category for weekly newspapers and won an honorable mention for his entry in the color category for daily newspapers.

Donoghue graduated from Farmington High School in 1965, where he did sports photography for ONI, as well as working as track photographer for the Detroit Race Course and doing freelance work for the Detroit Pistons.

He attended the University of Missouri, where he was campus photographer and a member of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity.

IN 1967, Donoghue enlisted in the Marine Corps and served, camera in hand, in Cuba, Haiti, Puerto Rico, California, Japan and Vietnam.

Since his return from Vietnam he has been doing sports photography for ONI and working with the Detroit Pistons, in addition to his freelance work. He was recently assigned team photographer for the Detroit Tigers.

The Michigan Press Photographer Competition, held last weekend at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel in Detroit, was the first such contest for Donoghue. His entries included pictures taken overseas and in California, as well as those taken on assignment for Observer Newspapers Inc.

FIRST PRIZE WINNER in the weekly newspaper feature category of MPPA was taken by freelancer Tom Donoghue on assignment for Observer Newspapers Inc. He used a Nikon F camera with a 300 mm f/4.5 lens and Tri-X film to record this young sledder in Farmington's City Park during the Christmas holidays.

4 Senators Night Gym Back Vote Too Costly On Lottery For S'craft No-Fault Divorce Draws 5-2 Vote

Observerland's four senators voted in favor of putting the state lottery issue to the voters in November of 1972.

Sens. David Plawecki (D-Dearborn Heights), William Faust (D-Westland), Carl Pursell (R-Plymouth), and Daniel Cooper (D-Oak Park) cast affirmative votes.

The measure passed by 27-4 in the Senate and is expected to get the 74 votes needed in the House for passage.

The lottery is considered a way of raising revenue for the state without further adding to taxes.

If the voters approved the state lottery, the State Legislature will decide the procedure which will be used.

A proposal to have the physical education building open Friday evenings and Saturdays at Schoolcraft College was tabled by the board of trustees due to costs.

In order to keep the facilities open for a maximum of 28 weeks, the board was faced with three alternatives. It could underwrite the $15,120 total cost, partially underwrite $11,350 and charge a fee, or shift the total costs to the public by charging $3.75 per person per night.

With an estimated $34,000 left in the contingency fund, the board concluded it could not afford to underwrite the costs and that the public would not be willing to assume the high fees.

LANSING the partners has to prove his mate guilty of adultery, desertion, cruelty, or other offenses.

Most of the representatives backing the bill said that usually the total blame for failure of the marriage does not rest with just one partner.

As a result, the bill would make it possible for a couple to get a divorce by proving the marriage was a failure and is irreconcilable.

The bill's opponents argued that it would make the grounds for divorce too lax and easy for one partner to impose on the other.

IN OBTAINING a divorce under the current law, one of

A bill which would drastically revise the grounds for obtaining a divorce passed the House Friday with all but two of Observerland's representatives voting for passage.

It passed by a 72-22 margin and Reps. Marvin Stempien (D-Livonia) and Thomas Brown (D-Westland) voted in opposition.
