PLYMOUTH POLICE are at a loss to identify the person -- or persons -- who exploded a small pipe bomb under this window of the Colony Office Plaza at the southeast corner of Wing and Forest this week. The explosion occurred at 12:15 a.m. Wednesday but did no more than scorch the exterior of an office which is the headquarters of Selective Service Board 102. Mrs. Dorothy Lynn, the board's executive secretary, said there was no damage to draft board files or furnishings. One piece of metal was hurled through an automobile windshield across the street by the explosion and remnants of the bomb have been turned over to the Michigan State Police crime lab for study. ## Student Bussing Policy Protested

By KATHY MORAN

"Moral responsibility" was kicked around at last week's Plymouth Board of Education meeting--with the onus landing primarily in the laps of persons not at the meeting.

The question was who is responsible for seeing that children get to school safely--the school district's, the parent's, or the city or townships?

A group of distraught parents tried to put the responsibility on the school district Tuesday, but the board members remained firm in their resolution to use public education funds for education and not for transporting students. By holding firm, the district hopes the parents can put enough pressure on the township and city to live up to their responsibility to provide safe conditions for the children to walk to school.

SINCE THE school district is not reimbursed by the state for transporting students who live within 1½ miles of school, the board decided in February to enforce the policy of not bussing these children.

"Not only do we not get paid for (transporting) them, we get subtracted for them," Ned Stirton said.

The responsibility of providing safe conditions for the children to walk to school depends on the city and township, he said.

Tuesday's protesting parents were from Plymouth township areas on both sides of Ann Arbor Trail and south of Ann Arbor Road near Haggerty in the Allen Elementary School area.

"Out main concern is the safety problem," said Frank Phillips, spokesman for the group. "There are no sidewalks, although eventually there may be some. There is an open field with the construction of a highway coming up. Our children can't walk along here."

"You have the wrong unit of government," the board members told Phillips and the approximately 20 parents.

THE RESPONSIBILITY lies with the township to put in safe walkways and with the highway commission to install traffic lights, the board said, reaffirming its policy.

"We are in the horns of a dilemma," board president Esther Hulsing told the group. "We face less revenue from the state next year. We have decided that rather than using educational money for hauling, we should use it for education."

Day Care Center Plan Is Launched

A free, cooperative day care center can be operated two or three days a week in Plymouth if enough mothers are interested.

Mrs. Cathie Walker, spearheading the project, said Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church has offered space for such a center, and Mrs. Ruth Abel of Plymouth Family service will help the mothers who organize it.

Mrs. Walker is inviting mothers interested to attend a meeting at her home, 565 W. Ann Arbor Trail, at 1 p.m. on Monday, June 7.

Answering a query on whether the school district felt any "moral responsibility" of getting the children to school safely, John Hanskat said the district has the responsibility to use public funds for education.

He added that the parents have a responsibility to get children to school safely and the township has a responsibility to provide safe walkways.

"We are disturbed that you have not brought enough pressure to bear on the other units of government responsible for this," Mrs. Hulsing said.

They assured the parents that some exceptions will be made to the rule but urged them to levy more pressure on the other units of government.

Gilmore Resigns Bd. of Ed. Post In 4th Vacancy

By FRED DELANO

The Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District learned Friday that it faces a situation virtually without parallel when Robert C. Gilmore announced his resignation and thus created a fourth vacancy.

Previously, the two incumbents whose terms expire June 30 -- Ned Stirton and Donald Tripp -- had decided not to seek reelection. This was followed by the resignation of R. Bruce Scott, whose term still had two years to go.

Those three seats will be filled in the June 14 election, but Gilmore's position will require a special appointment for the one year that remains in his term. This stems from the fact that his resignation came after the legal deadline for making his post a ballot issue.

Gilmore, 45, will serve until June 30, after which he and his family will be moving to Connecticut. He has been on the board since 1967.

HE HAS BEEN employed for 15 years by the Associated Spring Corp. which has its home offices in Bristol, Conn. For the past 12 years Gilmore has served in the company's Plymouth branch and now has been promoted to the post of controller of all of Associated Spring's 15 metal parts plants.

Mrs. Esther Hulsing, who is president of the school board, commented on Gilmore's professional advancement. "It's great for him but it's too bad for the Plymouth community."

The political impact of the situation lies in the fact that the board now will have only three carry-overs when the new fiscal year begins July 1. The trio includes Mrs. Hulsing, who has been on the board for 17 years, plus George Lawton and John Hanskat, both of whom were elected just a year ago.

Seven persons are seeking election and voters will have a choice among these candidates June 14:

For the two-year seat (one to be elected) -- Mrs. Karl (Kathleen) Williams, John M. Ohno and Thomas J. Fidge Jr.

For the four-year terms (two to be elected) -- John C. Graves Jr., Paul W. Huyck, Winton E. Kloosterman and Fredrick M. Penar.

All seven have been invited to a public forum scheduled for 8 p.m. Wednesday, June 9 in City Hall. The program is being sponsored jointly by the Jaycees and the League of Women Voters.

Each candidate will be allowed five minutes to respond to these questions:

"What do you feel are the strongest points of the Plymouth school system? Which are its weakest areas? What do you feel are the necessary steps that should be taken to rectify these weak areas?"

After each of the seven speaks, the meeting then will be open to questions from the floor. Mrs. John Federspill will be the moderator.

MRS. HULSING said that Gilmore's unexpected move from the area came about so suddenly that there has been no time as yet for remaining members to ponder a successor. In fact, it may be that the choice will be left to the new board membership as it will be constituted after July 1.

The following is the letter which Gilmore submitted to Mrs. Hulsing and her colleagues on the board:

"Shortly after July 1, I will be leaving Michigan to assume new responsibilities at the corporate office of my employer in Connecticut. For this reason, I respectfully request the Board of Education to accept my resignation from the office of trustee, Plymouth Community School District, effective June 30.

"I regret that it was not possible to make this request in time to permit the vacancy to be filled by the elective process, but my reassignment developed subsequent to the deadline for filing of petitions by school board candidates.

"Although circumstances leave me no alternative, my resignation is submitted most reluctantly. Service on the board has been one of my most satisfying and rewarding experiences.

"Especially gratifying has been the opportunity it provided to associate with the dedicated men and women who have served on the board during my tour of duty, and I shall miss you collectively and individually.

"Although the Gilmores are leaving Plymouth, Plymouth will never completely leave us, and we will follow your activities with continued interest.

"We wish you continued success in the years ahead; may all your new schools open on time, your contracts be signed before the end of the school year, and your meetings adjourned by 11 p.m."

Youth Symphony Plans Season's Last Concert

The Plymouth Youth Symphony will present its final concert of the season at 8 p.m. Wednesday, June 2 under the direction of H. Michael Endres.

During the intermission, 10 scholarships of $50 each will be presented by the Youth Symphony Association. All recipients are members of the orchestra and include Kathy Body, Sue Desch, Donna Folks, Lynn Gardner, Sue Kincaide, Kathy Knopf, Charlotte McGuire, Jean Moorehead, Matt Pittaway and Linda Surratt.

Selections to be performed in Wednesday's concert include: "Marche Militaire Francaise" by Camille Saint-Saens, "Symphony No. 2" by Vittorio Giannini, the Berceuse and finale from "Firebird Suite" by Stravinsky, the finale of the "First Symphony" by Brahms, and the love duet from the opera "Merry Mount" by Howard Hanson.

In addition, Margaret Lang will be featured as soloist in Telemann's "Viola Concerto in G Major," while Brad Weage will be featured at the piano in an orchestral tone picture by Ernest Gold and R.R. Bennett.

Dr. Joseph Jender spoke for the association membership in saying, "We are fortunate that we have such a fine group of musicians who are capable of also producing excellent music. Come and treat yourself to a delightful musical evening."

"This concert will close a successful season which has featured two trips for the students to Ann Arbor for a violin concert by Isaac Stern and a performance by the Philadelphia Symphony under Eugene Ormandy.

"Music appreciation is the major goal of our organization."

Memories of 'Decoration Day'

Perhaps it was the setting, with the old cemetery high on a hill overlooking the Lehigh River back home...

Perhaps it was the fact that the first monument to honor the Grand Army of the Republic at the close of the Civil War was erected in that hallowed plot...

Perhaps it was because the old soldiers, in their blue uniforms, were held in such high esteem and walked so proudly on "their" day...

Or perhaps it was because The Stroller's grandfather was the commander of the veterans post and strutted so jauntily at the head of the procession...

But, somehow, Memorial Day seemed so much more dramatic and emotional in the days when the Civil War veterans still were with us.

That's why, as May 30 rolls around each year, The Stroller gets a longing for one more "Decoration Day" he knew as a youth in the hills of Pennsylvania.

was on decorating the graves of the soldier dead—and the services held in the chapel alongside the veterans burial ground left a lasting memory.

We got to talking about Memorial Day activities of the "old days" at lunch the other day and Harold Guenther, one of the most active of our business and political leaders, confided that he travels back to a little town in Kansas to observe the day.

"My brother and I wouldn't miss that trip to our old home town," he said. "We spend two days decorating the graves, visiting with the groups of women who greet you with flowers at the cemetery gates, and then the exercises."

"Somehow," he said, "there seems to be something different about the observance. But it sure is a refresher course in patriotism and respect for your country."

It was the same back in the Dutch country, but the setting was a bit different. One of the big emotional moments came when the procession stopped in the middle of the bridge enroute to the cemetery and flowers were dropped into the Lehigh River out of respect to the sailors who had given their lives for their country.

Then, on up the hill, to sit between the famed monument and the old chapel to listen to a stirring address by a noted speaker. It was considered an honor to be invited to speak at the monument and our little town attracted the great orators of our time.

recite Lincoln's Gettysburg address, and no Memorial or Decoration Day service would have been complete without it.

For emotion, there was nothing to equal the placing of special flowers on each departed veteran's grave as their names were called. Relatives and friends often wept openly in paying their tributes.

As a climax, the bugler stood in the middle of the burial plot and sounded "taps" from high up on the hill.

It was drama and emotion at its best as the solemn notes reverberated through the hills and valley.

Memories are made of things like this.

And each year, as many of the folks gather at our parks and picnic grounds, the echo of those "taps" of yore comes rolling back to create a strong desire, for just one more "Decoration Day" The Stroller knew as a youth.

Sports Facility Bid OK'd

PLYMOUTH
Fordon Construction Co. has been awarded a contract to construct two concession buildings on the athletic site of Centennial Educational Park by the Plymouth Board of Education.

The company was the low bidder on the plan for the site that was accepted by the board. Clarence Gleeson Inc.

also had submitted bids and was the low bidder on an alternate plan.

The plan adopted by the board calls for two concession buildings that will include rest rooms and ticket booths as well as two team rooms in one of the buildings. The second plan was identical except that the team rooms were not included.

The architects, Wakely Kushner Associates, and the facilities committee recommended adopting the plan for the team rooms since the rooms could be obtained for a "relatively low additional cost."

The total cost was set at $102,300 including two masonry walls and 14 precast concrete benches for the site. Of that sum approximately $13,500 was for the team rooms, at $12.22 per square foot.

The board did not accept the bids on the alternates for concrete paving of the concession area and for a metal fence and ticket booths.

Instead, the administration was directed to contract for black topping of the area and getting the fencing and booths

Car prices aren't what they used to be. They're better.

Oh sure, you used to be able to buy a car for $500 without extras like bumpers and headlights, but when you earned 25 cents an hour and had a family to support those first autos were only for people who could afford new-fangled novelties.

It wasn't until something called an "assembly line" came into being that motor cars caught on and running boards and rumble seats found their way into the barns and sheds of America.

Today it's hard to find a family with only one car parked in the drive. It's hard to find an uncrowded highway.

But it's easy — very easy — to find a second car. One for junior, the wife, or yourself. Each edition of your hometown newspaper is filled with Observer Want Ads that describe good cars — both new and used. These ads are placed by people like you and by men whose business it is to sell cars.

Look at today's Observer Want Ads. Look at all the great car buys. And if you should find a good job advertised, or a good household item for sale, that's all right too.

RU, Glenn Advance To Anders Semifinals

It'll be a battle of champions Monday evening when Redford Union faces John Glenn in the first half of the semifinals in the annual Les Anders baseball tournament at Ford Field.

Glenn, which shared the Northwest Suburban League title with North Farmington, gained the semis by downing Garden City East, 5-2, in the first game of the quarterfinals Thursday.

Then Redford Union, the co-champ with Allen Park in the Suburban Six League, held off Garden City East for a 4-2 decision.

The other half of Monday's semifinals was to be decided Friday when Bentley tackled Stevenson and Churchill went against Thurston.

MONDAY'S WINNERS will square off Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. for the Anders crown and there'll be a new champion this year since Northville's 1970 kingpins were knocked out by Churchill.

The tournament again is being sponsored by the Livonia Optimists, the Livonia Recreation Department and the Observer Newspapers.

Glen Osborn went all the way for Glenn to edge East. It marked the second time in three days that Glenn had bounced East in a tournament game. Earlier in the week it was in the pre-district round of the state Class A meet.

Daryl Demaray, Roger Sanders and Mark Szumanski each had two hits for Glenn.

Glenn scored twice in the second inning and then wrapped up the game with two more in the sixth when Demaray doubled and Sanders singled after a walk and a fielder's choice.

REDFORD UNION built up a 4-0 lead against Garden City East, but East rallied for two runs in the seventh inning and ace RU pitcher Randy Ferguson had to come in relief of Bill Booker to get the final out.

There were two on when Ferguson, who has won 10 games this season, rushed to the mound.

Redford Union scored twice in the third inning when R.J. LeRoux singled, Mark Durance doubled and Bill Herbert singled around an error.

In the fifth after Booker walked, John Varvari connected for a hit that sent the pitcher home.

A walk to Mickey Robinson followed by a single by Booker produced the fourth and final Redford Union run.

East still had some life coming to bat in the final inning. Jerry Volas opened with a walk and scored on Sam Tjahma's triple. Tjahma, the losing pitcher who went the distance, scored when Jim Sims was safe on an error. Then with two outs Darin McHugh singled.

That resulted in the call to the bullpen for Ferguson, who came on to set down the final batter.

The tourney began this year with 17 entries and although the teams have been engaging in the state tournament at the same time, there appears to have been no problems caused by any jam-up in games.

"It's run very smoothly," one veteran coach said, "and there is no reason why we can't continue to hold the Anders tournament in the future."

'Baby' Churchill Grows Up

For a relative "baby" as schools go, it was quite a three days in baseball for Livonia's Churchill High.

Three games -- one of which stretched over two days -- three victories and all of the wins which fell in the categories of "biggies."

ON TOP OF that there was a family touch to one of the games in which Churchill player Bruce Van Wagoner went head-on against his dad, George, who coaches rival Livonia Stevenson... and guess who won?

It wasn't pop. The week began with Churchill matched against Northville in the Les Anders Invitational tournament at Ford Field in Livonia.

This was the first appearance of Northville's defending champs in the 1970 meet, but the kingpins didn't last long... just the one game which began on Monday and finished on Tuesday.

Under the suspended game rule which prevails in the new state tournament, if it rains and forces the teams to halt operations, they must commence from the spot play was halted.

When the rains fell Monday, Churchill was ahead, 2-0, against Northville.

THOSE TWO RUNS held up and Churchill came out the winner the next day by a 2-1 score to advance into the quarterfinals.

Mike Keller, who fanned seven, was the winning pitcher as he held off Northville after Churchill counted twice in the first inning.

Ray Henricksson walked and came home on Steve Chilenko's single. Then Mark Deroches singled and Brian Scherman followed with what proved the winning run.

In between the start and finish of the game with Northville, the Livonians slipped in a pre-district state tournament game with Stevenson and gained the decision, 4-0, as Bob Phillips allowed four hits and struck out five.

Coach Van Wagoner, of Stevenson, naturally was disappointed that his own team lost, but when he returned home he could smile because son Bruce had connected for a big single that drove in two of the Churchill runs.

"Bruce's play helped ease the pain of the loss," said the Stevenson coach who during the past two seasons had been "embarrassed" a couple of times by the batting of his son.

Stevenson pitcher Mike Gee pitched well enough to win most the time. He, too, allowed only four hits and struck out five.

GEE HAD a shutout going until the fourth when Chilenko walked. After Deroches was safe on an error, Pat Welch singled in two runs, George Panzoff doubled and then Bruce Van Wagoner followed with his two run hit.

With almost no chance to rest, Churchill was back on the diamond Wednesday to make up a previously-rained out Western Six League game with Farmington Harrison.

This was a close one all the way before Churchill pulled out a 7-6 victory.

Ray Miller, who hurled the final 2 2/3 innings in relief of Ken Woods, was the winning pitcher.

Henricksson's triple and an error led to Churchill's first run in the first inning. One more run scored in the fourth when Woods' single followed two walks.

In the fifth Churchill erupted for five runs with Bruce Van Wagoner's two-run double and a single by Deroches, the only hits of the inning. Two walks and a fielder's choice helped.

Deroches singled in the sixth and scored the winning run on an error in the sixth.

HARRISON SCORED twice in the third on an error, a walk and a single by Dennis Economeau. In the sixth, Jim Goodwin singled and came around on an error and Bob Bartlett's sacrifice.

Then Harrison made things hot with three runs in the seventh when Economeau, Gary Morrison and Bartlett singled along with a fielder's choice and a walk to produce three runs.

Tom Young suffered the pitching loss for Harrison after taking over from Economeau.

Farmington Trackmen Unbeaten To The End

The battle of Farmington's three senior high track teams ended, as predicted, in a runaway with Farmington romping to victory.

The Falcons piled up 93 points to North Farmington's 39 and Harrison's 16.

Thus Farmington added another chapter to one of the most brilliant records an area track team ever has compiled. It was the 11th straight win without a reversal in dual or triangular meets for the Farmington team.

IN ADDITION the Falcons won the Inter-Lakes and regional titles, captured the Observer Relays and placed sixth in the state meet.

They went after the Oakland County title Friday night in their final action of the season.

Honors were well split for the Falcons with no double winners on the rainy, chilly afternoon which held down times and eliminated chances for school records.

Mike Gow, North Farmington's all-around athlete who is winding up a brilliant three-sport career, won the low hurdles, placed second in the 220 and second in the long jump.

The meet was marked with a three-way tie between Farmington entries in the two miles when they joined hands in coming down to the finish line together for a unique windup to the longest race on the agenda.

The complete results:

880-yard relay: 1--Farmington (Parsons, Timmons, Goldbaum, Carvell) 2--North Farmington, 3--Harrison. Time: 1:34.9.

880-yard: 1--McGlothlin (F), 2--Winterbottom (NF), 3--Arcangeli (H), 4--Hartwig (F). Time: 1:59.9.

High Hurdles: 1--Steinke (F), 2--Pender (F), 3--Gow (NF), 4--Stirling (F). Time: 1:10.0.

100-yard: 1--Timmons (F), 2--Wilson (F), 3--Parsons (F), 4--Brozek (H). Time: 1:08.0.

Thurston Net Team Reaches New Peak

With its top doubles pair slated to play in the State Class A tournament in Kalamazoo, the Thurston High School tennis team established its best record in history in NWSAA competition.

Randy Barr, senior, and Pat

Trapnell, sophomore, took first place in regional doubles in Dearborn to move up to the state tournament. They placed fifth in a field of 10 teams.

In league competition, Thurston went in tied for third with Groves and Franklin and emerged second to Oak Park, gained on a first in singles by Barr and a second in doubles by Trapnell and Jim Kobberstad.

The team gained strong support from a promising sophomore, Steve Becker, and two seniors, Craig Miller and Mike Kroll.

Thurston finished the season with 15 wins, 6 losses, overall, and 6 wins to 4 losses in league play.

Other members of the team were Rick Sheffield, Mark Nowartarski, Jim Shippee, Doug McGlothlin, Frank Horkey, Bob Brazeau, and Jerry Rutkowski. They were coached by John White.

Lakers Easy Victims For Sorrows 9

Chris Strand had an 82 and Bill Robertson an 83 for Sorrows while Jeff Seregny and Bill Vleson each shot a 77 to lead U-D.

'Reckord' Set

When Wayne State University senior left-hander Gordon Reck fanned 11 Chicago State batters while notching a two-hit, 3-0 victory during the 1971 season, he became the eighth pitcher in Michigan state college baseball history to pass the 100-strikeout mark in a season.

Our Lady of Sorrows' baseball team tuned up for its state pre-district game against Novi Saturday by downing Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes, 8-1.

Steve Theisen hurled the route for the winners, allowing three hits and fanning six.

Tom Centers delivered the game's big hit—a grand slam homer.

John Esper had three hits and Newt Hurst two for Sorrows, which has an 11-5 record.

Sorrows Winds Up In Second

Our Lady of Sorrows' golf team wound up second to U-D High in the Catholic League playoffs at Rackham in Detroit.

U-D won with a four-man team score of 322 while Sorrows had 341. Divine Child tallied 342 with Bishop Gallagher coming in next with 353.

'Red Sky' Should Appeal To Teens And Parents

By BETTY MASSON
Amid the rash of generation gap and young love movies, "Red Sky in the Morning," just released by Universal, is among the better ones.
The film is as honest as its young actor, Richard Thomas. Young Thomas is certainly not handsome, but he turns in an outstanding performance as a 17-year-old, who is transplanted from Alabama and is forced into maturity through a

RED SKY IN THE MORNING
now showing at Terrace
Rating: GP

series of events in a small New Mexico town in 1944.
It seems far from 1971 and yet not so far.

THE TRANSPLANT takes place when Thomas's father, played by Richard Crenna, decides to leave his shipyard and join the Navy. He takes his wife and son to their New Mexico summer home to stay while he's away. From Baltimore himself, he's not too fond of his wife's southern relatives and their influence on her when he's not around.
Thus young Thomas is faced with several problems all at once—his increasing awareness and interest in sex; integrating into a new school which includes Mexicans, Indians and Negroes as well as whites; learning to be the man in the family since his mother (played by Jean Simmons) is a delicate southern belle; and how to handle a Mexican boy who is out to beat him up because he looked at his sister too long.
Young Thomas is ably supported by Catherine Burns, a chubby teenager with a delightfully expressive face, and by Desi Arnaz Jr.

THE MOVIE, in spite of some trick photography which doesn't quite come off, superbly recreates the feel of America in World War II and the concerns of teenagers at that time. Thomas, in fact, is a bit like a mature Henry Aldrich. His interest in sex is pictured more graphically and some of the language wouldn't have passed the censors in 1944.

It's a movie which today's teenagers and their parents can enjoy together, because it tells it like it was.

Club To Hold Horse Show

DEARBORN
The Dearborn Exchange Club will hold its annual Horse Show Sunday, June 13, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. It will take place at the Dearborn High School baseball field, Outer Drive, north of Michigan Ave.
Admission is $1. Children 12 and under will be admitted free.

The Exchangeettes will have refreshments booths featuring hot roast beef dinner.

DRIZELDA DRAGON is shown with the princess's true love Henry Hedgecrow in a scene from the Farmington Players' production of the original play, "The Polka-Dotted Dragon's Tale." Susan Frontczak plays Drizelda and Hugh Schulkins is Henry. The play will be staged in the Farmington Players Barn Saturday, June 5, at 1 p.m., and Saturday, June 12, at 1 and 3 p.m. (Evert photo)

Players To Tell 'Dragon's Tale'

The Farmington Players will give three performances of their newest play, "The Polka-Dotted Dragon's Tale" over the next two weekends.
It will be seen Saturday, June 5, at 1 p.m., and Saturday, June 12, at 1 and 3 p.m., in the Players Barn, 12 Mile Rd., Farmington. Tickets will be on sale at the door, at 50 cents each.

THE PLAY, written by a former guild member, Caroline Stutson, had its premiere engagement May 26, before an audience of young authors in Harrison High School, Mrs. Stutson is now living in Colorado.
The play involves just five characters. Stu Orman plays King Z who is a bumbling, forgetful comic character. Princess Penny, who is distraught with her forgetful father and at the possibility of having a marry Wizard William rather than her true love Henry Hedgecrow...if no one brings proof of having slain the polka-dotted dragon, is played by Jari Brenner.

DAVID GELIBTER plays Wizard William, who has been spreading a lot of false accusations about the dragon, and Hugh Schulkins plays Henry Hedgecrow.

Sue Frontczak has the role of Drizelda Dragon, a girl dragon who hasn't been able to shed her baby spots because, being a girl, she's never been given a chance to prove her bravery.

The Gourmet Adventures of

DICK BENSEK

Which came first, the rabbit or the rarebit? ... Actually, the "rarebit" never came at all. Legend has it that a Welsh chieftan, running out of game at a feast, desperately asked his cook to concoct something — anything — with which he could feed his ever-hungry guests. Hurriedly, the cook melted together some eggs, cheese, and stale meat and poured this over chunks of bread — to substitute for the long-ago exhausted supply of game or "rabbit." The dish was a success and varying themes of it have come down to us with the equally exotic animal names of Golden Buck, English Monkey, etc. Today, the basic Welsh Rabbit is made of melted Cheddar Cheese, butter, beer and hearty seasonings. Generously poured over toast points, it makes a robust supper or evening snack.

We don't hurry you — meals are at a leisurely pace when you dine at DANISH INN, 32305 Grand River Ave., 476-6320. Our lunch menu features three specials daily and there is a special children's menu complete with crayon... The Farmington Committee of Youth for Understanding teenage exchange program is looking for families willing to host a student.

Host families receive international students as members of their family with the same responsibilities, privileges and limitations that their own child receives. The students obtain an appreciation and understanding of the American way of life through being part of the family, school and community.

THE STUDENTS on the 11-month program come from Europe, Japan and the Philippines. There is also a South American program which brings students from January through July.

YFU is also seeking American students for its 1971 summer program.

Application forms and information on being host families can be obtained from Farmington high schools or by calling Mrs. Wesley Orr, 26508 Farmington Rd., Farmington, or Mrs. Glen Mingo, 29531

Pipers Lane, Farmington.

There are several students from Farmington High School who will be YFU students. They are Karen Weller, who is going to Germany, Cindy Borgman, Finland, and Douglas Coutts, Switzerland. Farmington students, Lisa Vanderberg will go to Germany and Nancy Ayres to Japan for the summer program.

NORTH FARMINGTON'S Denise McPherson will go to the Netherlands. Our Lady of Mercy High School will send Michelle Bratton to Chile and Robin Bratton to Denmark. Susan Wilson of Clarenceville will go to the Netherlands and Lyle Skral, also of Clarenceville, will visit Brazil.

The teenagers will live in a family situation for two months. There are an additional 1,800 families in Europe, South America and the Philippines who are willing to be host families to American high school students. Total cost of the summer program is $800.

Diabetes Camp Sets Sessions

Michigan's summer camp for youngsters with diabetes, Camp Midicha, will be open for two 10-day sessions in 1971. Boys and girls from ages eight through 16 may attend either or both periods from July 11 through 21 and July 21 through 31.

Camp Midicha is sponsored by the Michigan Diabetes Association, a United Fund agency, and is located near Oxford, about 40 miles north of Detroit. The association provides camperships when the family cannot afford the fee of $65 per session. No youngster is ever turned away for lack of finances.

Dr. John P. Harm, medical director, said the camping experience is most valuable for youngsters who have never been to camp and who need the reassurance provided by the camp medical staff. Physicians, nurses and dietitians, maintain a daily check on the medical and dietary requirements of each camper.

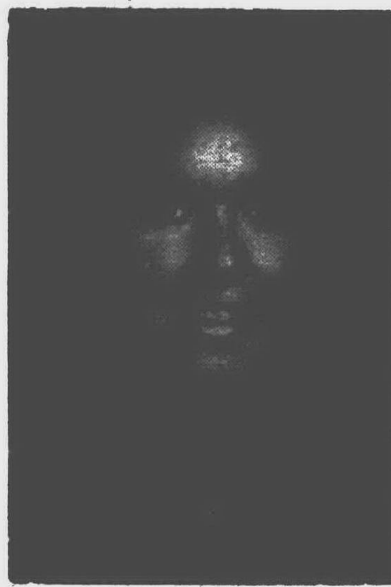

"CAMP MIDICHA has one major objective and that is to demonstrate to both the child and his parents that young diabetics can enjoy the same activities as other youngsters," Dr. Harm added.

Dr. Harm said further that "sound nutrition, consistent exercise, daily insulin, and routine urine testing are the 'bosses' of diabetic care. Camp Midicha features all four."

The regular camping activities resemble those in any other summer camp and include such favorites as swimming, boating, hiking, overnight trips, nature lore, arts and crafts, and special events.

Camp applications and brochures may be obtained by writing to the Michigan Diabetes Association, 6131 West Outer Drive, Detroit, 48235. Early registration is advised to assure the youngster of a place at camp this summer.

Youth Clubs Keep Kids In Church

Drop by the Village United Presbyterian Church in Redford Township any Wednesday afternoon after school and you'll find a bunch of seven and eight-year-olds singing, playing or hearing Bible stories.

If you get there after 6 p.m. Wednesday, you see high school students in a fellowship of dinner, Bible study and youth choir.

Similar busy doings for fourth to sixth graders are in evidence Thursday afternoon, and junior highs also have a program Thursday.

IN ALL, about 180 young people in the church take part in the program that is known as Youth Club. And that necessarily involves regular teachers and aides and, mothers to help prepare the snacks served to the younger members and dinners served to the junior and senior highs. It also involves both ministers of the church, the Rev. James Crawford, senior pastor, and the Rev. David Antonson, assistant.

"We teach four classes," Rev. Antonson said, "And we always instruct the communicants class for seventh and eighth graders. It gives us a chance to become better acquainted with the young people."

YOUTH CLUB is a weekday Christian education program that now operates in about 800 churches around the country. They have organized into Youth Club Program, Inc., to formulate a program that has four key elements — service, study, activity and fellowship. "The program is not meant to take the place of Sunday School or Sunday evening youth groups," Rev. Antonson said.

"It's just that there is a serious limit on time in a Sunday program. And Sunday Schools all over the country find that the kids start dropping out about ninth grade. On the other hand, Youth Clubs have experienced membership increases, and attendance is about 90 per cent at all grade levels."

AT VILLAGE United Presbyterian, the Youth Club season is divided into three sessions. A small fee is charged for each student, with no family paying more than $9. This fee covers instructional and activity materials. A separate charge covers the dinners served to junior and senior high groups. The main activity for all ages — beyond the Bible study and fellowship — is participation in one of the youth choirs. "And all the choirs participate regularly in Sunday morning worship," Rev. Antonson said.

Study is geared to the various age levels, and homework is assigned. The senior high group this year has skipped formal instructional books and instead had regular rap sessions with Gordon Sokoll, a clerical psychology student.

DINNER OFFERS the youth yet another chance to widen horizons.

"We have table leaders for these meals," Rev. Antonson said, "and we try to get the young marrieds, the single business people, the senior citizens — in other words, not mothers and fathers of teens."

Mrs. Fran McCausland, the Youth Club's volunteer administrator, pointed out the elders of the church work with the junior highs in the communicants' program.

"The elders must test communicants before they join the church," Mrs. McCausland said, "and this way they get to be friends as well."

"The function the Youth Clubs seem to fill well is guiding young people to a personal relationship with God. And the key word is loving relationship with other people."

Rev. Antonson, who came to Village Church from the South a year ago and hadn't heard of the Youth Club program before arriving, and Rev. Crawford, who was involved in the program in Des Moines before coming here in 1959, both found great advantages for young people, parents and church.

"There's a real need for a program to bring young people into the church," Rev. Crawford put it.

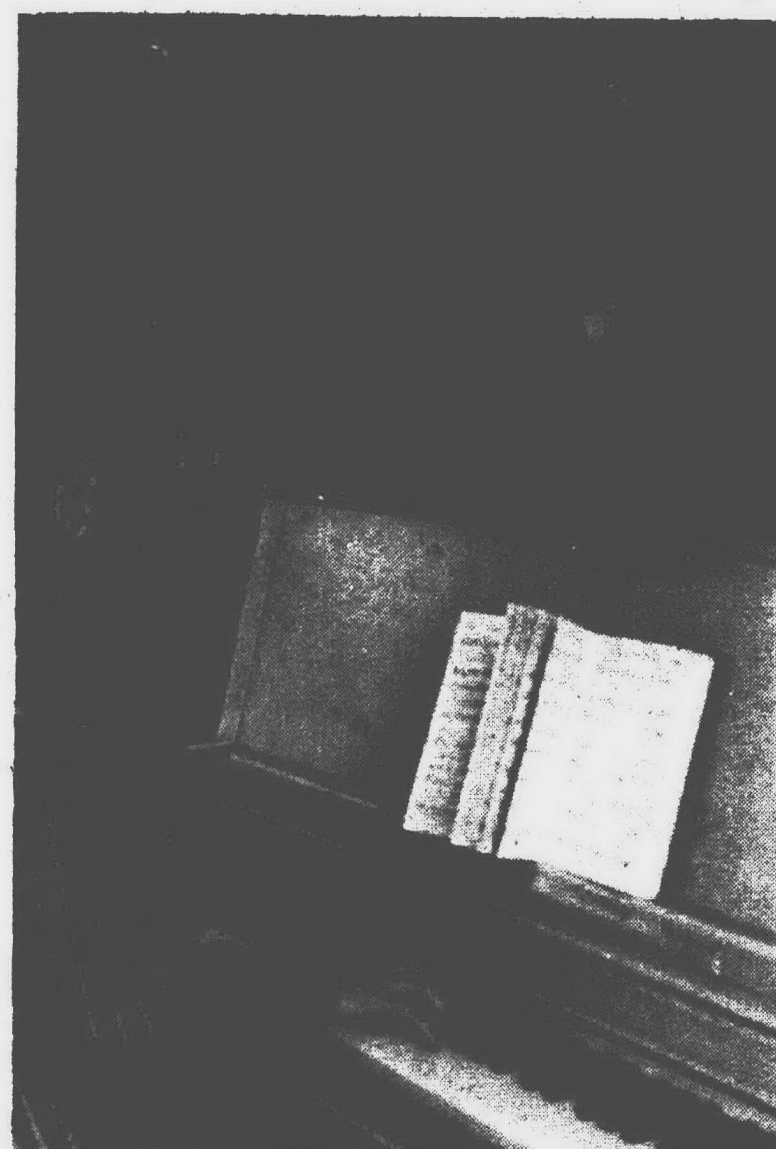

THE MINISTERS pointed to the Youth Club Handbook for Parents, which states in part that the program "enables parents to fulfill a portion of the basic vows required of them when they presented their children for Christian baptism."

"The Youth Club," said Rev. Antonson, "has had a renewing effect on the entire congregation. It also has been instrumental in attracting new members, and many adults have found a place to serve."

"But probably most of all, it has gone a long way toward building discipleship and discipline into the lives of the youth, and it provides a Christian education in depth to our youth who are facing severe trials of their moral and spiritual fiber."

MRS. CORNELIUS BRENKERT, left, and Mrs. Donald Wilde prepare dinner for the Hi-Clubbers.

DAVID WAGNER, church organist, practices with the Youth Club's youngest choir, the Carolers.

Missionaries, Friends Honor Pastor Clifford

Missionaries from all around the world joined friends in Plymouth in honoring the retiring pastor of Calvary Baptist Church Tuesday evening.

The Rev. Patrick J. Clifford, who has served the church since 1949, received a book with letters from 21 missionary families the church supports.

The letters came from Africa, South America, Japan, the Philippines, France, Germany, Spain, India and several parts of the United States.

PASTOR and Mrs. Clifford, who will continue to live in Plymouth, were guests of honor at a dinner served in the church's Fellowship Hall by members of the Fellowship Committee.

Also present were their son and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. J.D.

Clifford of Jackson, the pastor's sister, Mrs. Sadie, Sargent of Oakville, Ont., and his brothers and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. John Clifford of Grimsby, Ont., and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Clifford of Tonawanda, N.Y.

An extra surprise during the evening was a telephone call from the Cliffords' daughter and her husband, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Wills, of Bellevue, Wash.

THE 320 well-wishers included many civic and business leaders in Plymouth as well as church members and out-of-town guests and pastors from Texas, Indiana, Ontario and several Michigan cities.

An estimated 5,000 Protestant and Catholic clergy are leaving the parochial ministry every year in favor of secular employment.

And studies in both the United Church of Christ and the Episcopal Church indicate that among 361,500 clergy in the U.S., this exodus is only the beginning.

A high percentage of these clergy have little if any training for any other vocation and no experience whatsoever in the increasingly difficult and intricate process of finding suitable secular positions.

In its special section for clergy, therefore, The Episcopal magazine recently featured an article which served to commend a ministerial placement organization called "Mainstream International."

NOTING that Mainstream "is a division of Marcy and Associates, the nationwide job-counseling firm which usually assists executives who want a change in jobs," The Episcopal, which is published in Philadelphia, reports that the Philadelphia branch office of Mainstream "is doing a brisk business in getting clergymen into other fields of work."

This article does not mention, however, just how many clergy Mainstream has ever successfully placed. For Mainstream is as modest about providing any details in this regard as are most professional fund raisers when anyone asks whether they have ever failed to attain the goal of a campaign they were paid to direct.

One area, however, where Mainstream has been extraordinarily successful in placing its clergy clients has been within the organization itself -- by selling them Mainstream franchises (area "managing directorships"). to head its increasing number of branch offices.

One such contract has come into the hands of this writer. It costs the clergyman $3,500 plus the rental on a residence, office, phone bills and advertising costs. In return for this, he was entitled to take a modest percentage of the fees he drummed up from his fellow clergy.

These fees are another salient aspect of Mainstream, which, for some reason, were overlooked by the Episcopal magazine article.

IT COSTS $40 just for the initial testing -- plus an additional $670 for the whole program. And while clergy are rarely well paid (and monastics are penniless) they often have enough friends, including sympathetic parishioners, who can be tapped -- by Mainstream.

For example, last November, 10 Presbyterian clergymen received identical letters from the San Francisco office of Mainstream, which mentioned "a friend of yours" by name. The letter continued: "We have administered a series of tests and find that there are a number of areas in which he might move, provided he is willing to work under our guidance. We are unable to continue our program with him, however, due to a lack of funds."

Commented this clergyman, who is still looking for a suitable position: "They sent that letter out without my ever having seen its contents. I was desperate, but I never thought they would do this!"

This clergyman had been mightily impressed with the program of Mainstream, as pitched to him with such consummate selling skill as to suggest that after he completed the program he would be sieged with offers to start at $25,000 or up. This is also the suggestion often pitched to the media.

BUT COPIES of this organization's company newsletter have also come into the hands of this writer. And in startling candor, Mainstream's senior consulting psychologist, Lester Cohen, Ph.D., writes: "In selling the program we frequently promise or imply more assistance than we actually give."

This company newsletter reveals that there is one type of "assistance" given, however. A female client of Mainstream, apparently an ex-nun, was "sent out by the marketing manager to get a bra to improve her executive image." This was printed under a column entitled: "HEY! HEY! HEY!" which goes on to inform Mainstream branch offices: "We haven't heard from you... No interesting tidbits about extraordinary clients? Like one in the home office (Los Angeles) who practices glossolalia (we've got an hour's worth on tape)."

Clergy who cannot afford Mainstream's cost, its unauthorized milking of their friends, or its in-house amusement derived from their personal needs or habits, are advised to contact either Next Step, 823 Euclid, San Francisco; or Bearings For Re-establishment, 235 E. 49th St., N.Y., N.Y.

And Episcopal clergymen should learn to take their denomination's heavily subsidized house organ, The Episcopalian, with a considerable grain of salt, considering its "report" about Mainstream. This despite Milwaukee's Bishop Donald Haddock who helped push through this subsidy by calling the magazine "the best of our church journals."

years after its organization. Included in the tour program are works by Bach, Handel and Mozart, as well as church anthems by contemporary composers Eugene Butler, Gordon Young and Nancy Roberts and folk song arrangements by Noble Cain, Hawley Aides and Roy Ringwald.

$140,000 Campaign Of Convention To Begin

Wayne County Sheriff William Lucas will be the featured speaker at a $25 per plate luncheon conducted by the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Tuesday, June 1, at Cobo Hall, Detroit.

Former Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh will be the master of ceremonies and Detroit Edison chairman, Walker Ciesler, will also speak.

The luncheon will kick off a $140,000 fund-raising campaign to operate the society's summer camping program for deserving or underprivileged children this summer. Reservations may be made by calling the society at 2629 Lenox Ave., Detroit.

The society operates Camp Ozanam for boys and Camp Stapleton for girls near Lexington. Each year deserving youngsters from the archdiocese spend two weeks at camp. Last year more than 2,100 children were accommodated.

Contributions are invited from the public. Checks may be made payable to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Camp Fund and sent to 2629 Lenox Ave., Detroit. Local conferences of the society will begin fund-raising campaigns in their parishes June 1.

Women's participation in church ceremonies, healing of a 100-year-old rift and rejection of new forms of marriage highlighted the recent American Baptist Convention in Minneapolis.

Its events were reported by the Rev. Errol Bosley of the Grand River Baptist Church in Livonia, a delegate to the convention. Represented there were 6,000 American Baptist churches with 1.5 million members.

Also attending were the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Thompson. Rev. Thompson is pastor of the First Baptist Church of Plymouth.

REV. BOSLEY called the communion service that opened the convention important because "women assisted in serving the communion elements to the gathered assembly, which included guests from Methodist, Presbyterian and Roman Catholic churches." "This is believed to be the first time that women have publicly participated in serving communion among Baptists," he added.

THE LOCAL clergyman said the convention took "a significant stand on the issue of family life" in rejecting a report that "would have given approval to such new forms as homosexual marriage."

Rev. Bosley said convention adopted an amendment that stated:

"As Christians, we strongly reject contemporary life styles such as homosexual marriage, short term trial marriage as proposed by Margaret Mead, and premarital and extra-marital intercourse. Our stance toward the persons who adopt a non-Christian life style is that we love the sinner but condemn the sin."

THE CONVENTION, he reported, welcomed into official fellowship a Southern region composed of 131 Baptist churches, some of them all-black churches. They were meeting with northern churches for the first time since the 1890s when Southern Baptists left in a dispute over slavery.

The convention also reported total receipts for a special World Mission Campaign now have exceeded $15-million, with pledges for another $7-million.

The money is used for capital projects of Baptists both at home and abroad. Included are schools, hospitals, agricultural stations and inner-city projects.

Dr. Novak Addresses Graduates

Dr. Edwin L. Novak, Flint optometrist and president of the Michigan State Board of Education, will be commencement speaker when 39 high school seniors receive diplomas from St. Mary's Preparatory School at Orchard Lake Saturday, May 29.

The graduating class includes two Livonians. They are Gene B. Victor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Victor, 9591 Deering, a member of the St. Robert Bellarmine parish, and Thomas Francis Wicher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wicher, 14435 Newburgh, of the St. Edith parish.

Commencement exercises in the Orchard Lake Schools auditorium building will begin with an academic procession at 2:30 p.m.

The Rev. Stanley Piorkowski, St. Mary's Preparatory principal, will present the class of 1971, and diplomas will be awarded by the Very Rev. Walter J. Ziembra, superintendent.

Shavuot Rites Set Outside

The Walnut Lake Road site of the future Temple Kol Ami will be the setting for the temple's Shavuot service at 11 a.m. Sunday, May 30.

Shavuot, or the Feast of Weeks, commemorates the revelation of the Ten Commandments at Mt. Sinai and the conclusion of the covenant that God made with the children of Israel on their sojourn from Egypt to the Promised Land.

Kol Ami members, who meet regularly in the Birmingham Unitarian Church while preparing to build on the Walpole Lake site, invite the public to share in the open air service.

Turf Tips, Quips

By Doc Minard

By DOC MINARD
Racing fans in the State of Michigan will be treated to an unusual Memorial Day weekend when the Detroit Race Course presents two outstanding stakes programs on Saturday, and Monday, May 29 and 31.

On Saturday, the track will present the $15,000-added Lads 'N Lassies Stakes, a six furlong dash and the first major stakes for two-year-olds that will be stepping stones for the Graduation Stakes later in the season.

Post parade for Saturday and Monday's 10 race cards is 2:10 P.M.

L.V. Amico's Dozen Dancer, winner of the Inferno Stakes at Fort Erie recently and Crimson King Farm's Whitesburg, victor of the Success Stakes and an allowance race in very good time head a list of 50 juveniles named to the Lads 'N Lassies.

Dozen Dancer, a Canadian import, broke his maiden at DRC, then returned home to win the Inferno. He equaled the track record for 4 1/4 furlongs in that race.

Whitesburg is one of several to have flurried with track records during his brief career. Peter Salmen's 2-year-old colt was a fifth of a second away from the record winning the Success and four ticks away from the 4 1/4 furlongs mark while winning here a couple of weeks ago.

The Monday feature is the Memorial Day Handicap for 3-year-olds. It's a $25,000-added event and the distance is a mile and one-sixteenth.

When the nominations closed there were 37 candidates - and as this rich event approaches it promises to be a stirring duel involving the finest distance runners at the DRC.

This is the third in a series of five money events for three-year-olds and upcoming are the Rose Leaves to be raced on June 12, and the Damsels Stakes, to be contested among fillies on June 26.

A WELL BALANCED field of nine hard-hitting contestants will go to the starter's gate in the featured $6,200 Oak Park Pace Saturday night at the Hazel Park Harness Raceway.

Any one of them could be tough to beat if he races back to his best form. They have had their moments. They all can go.

Star East, with Joe Lighthill at the reins, appears to have regained the sharp edge that made him a sensation at Pompano Park last winter. He won as he pleased the last time out, turning in a 2:02.2 mile and scoring by two and a quarter lengths over Cashing Beauty. That was his ninth victory of the year, boosting his earnings to more than $20,000.

Winter Dean, driven by Larry Samples, was impressive in his May 15 outing when he came up from third at the top of the stretch to win by a length and a quarter over Johnny G. He turned the mile in the excellent time of 2:02. That was his fourth victory of the year and his second at Hazel Park.

Shiway Lad, trained and driven by Chris Boring, is another major threat. The Adios Cleo bay has been in the money eight times, winning four and taking four seconds this year. Among other feats, he dealt Windy Way, winner of the rich Realization Stakes, one of his infrequent setbacks.

Blaze Pick flashed real speed when he chased mighty Michigan Mack to the wire last Saturday, losing by only half a length after a strong stretch drive. This was his second straight second-place finish in fast company and suggests that he is back in the form that enabled him to win over $53,000 last year. Greg Wright is his trainer-driver.

The others in the field are Gaviland, The Big Bear, Prince Knox, Torjon and Jay Thorpe. Winter Dean has the advantage of the No. 1 post position.

A BRILLIANT DUEL between a pair of recent 2:06 4/5 winners is shaping up Saturday night at Jackson Harness Raceway. This pair, and a horse that has been knocking at the door all season, head the classy Invitational Pace, feature of the 10-race program Saturday night.

Elizabeth Gallon and Edgewood Rex, both with recent Jackson wins in 2:06 4/5 to their credit drew the three and four posts in the six-horse field. Born Yesterday, who has been close, in the Invitational field, but still looking for his first win, drew just inside of them.

Completing the field are Billy Bob Adios, with four wins for owner Tom Adams, Hillsdale; Worthy Reward, with two straight victories and Chief Okemos, another that has just missed in the fastest times over the track.

All in all, it looks as if Race Secretary, Tom Smith has put together a particularly closely matched field for the feature. Steffenette, the Jean Dilworth-driven trotter who met defeat last week after five straight drew the two post position in the co-featured eighth race. It will be the first time in several starts that Jackson Harness Raceway's most successful lady driver has had the benefit of a good post position.

Competition in the race is tough as Gerry Banfield has Devedas Girl from the four post and the Ed Beeler-driven Wendy W scores from the trailing seven post.

Three of the four lady drivers competing at the raceway are slated for action. In addition to her drive in the eighth, Mrs. Dilworth has Hi Kim Sue in the third, the other trotting event on the card. Bea Farber, who won her first pari-mutuel race earlier in the week, in just her second start, has Comets Clipper in the fourth race and Pat Kelly, tries again with Easy Boy Pick in the fifth, the exacta race.

Glenn Gets Spot In Semis

John Glenn has won its way into next Saturday's district semifinals of the state high school Class A baseball tournament at Southfield High.

A near no-hit pitching gem by Mark Cahill enabled Glenn to knock out Garden City East, 2-0.

Cahill had a no-hitter going until two were out in the seventh inning when Dennis Ray singled to break up the masterpiece.

But Cahill retired the next man to gain the victory and the shutout. He walked two, but didn't strike out a batter.

Glenn, which shared the Northwest Suburban League title with North Farmington, scored in the first inning on a double by Mike Borders and a single by Daryl Demaray.

The final run was added in the fifth when Gary Pack tripled and Cahill delivered a sacrifice fly.

Loser Greg Puishes allowed five hits, fanned two and walked two.

Falcons Blank Raiders In Tournament Battle

It was head-on - Farmington vs. North Farmington - in baseball, and it wasn't just an ordinary meeting between the two rivals.

This time they were facing in the pre-district round of the state Class A tournament.

They were colliding as champion vs. champion. Farmington was fresh from winning the Inter-Lakes Conference title, while North Farmington shared the Northwest Suburban loop flag with Glenn.

AS MIGHT BE expected under such circumstances, the teams put on quite a battle before Farmington won, 2-0, on a spectacular one-hit shutout by John Fleming.

Fleming, who has been the ace of the Falcons' staff this spring, yielded a first inning hit to Arnie Kohkonen and then stopped the Raiders the rest of the way.

He struck out seven, walked five and only once was North Farmington able to put two men aboard in the same inning. And that came with two out.

Losing pitcher Jim White turned in an excellent effort. He allowed seven hits, fanned six and walked one.

Farmington nailed him for a run in the fifth inning when Fleming singled, Randy Eckerman doubled and Tom Rowley was tossed out on an infield roller.

In the sixth, Mike Flynn singled and scored on Paul Kupferschmidt's double.

THE VICTORY was Farmington's 13th against five losses while North Farmington finished up with a 10-8 mark.

Farmington was to meet Franklin in the pre-district quarterfinals Saturday as Plymouth took on Bentley and Garden City West faced Churchill. John Glenn already has won its way to the semis by downing Garden City East, 2-1.

Glenn and Saturday's three winners advance to next Saturday's district finals at Southfield.

The district winner then moves into the regionals at Southfield, June 12, with the regional winner advancing to the state semifinals at Wyandotte on June 19.

Borgess Hires Two Coaches

The hiring of two new coaches has been announced by Bishop Borgess high school.

Steve Strauch has been appointed track coach succeeding Brian Schwall who has accepted a post at Catholic Central. Strauch has served as Schwall's assistant.

Strauch has been teaching math at Borgess for the last three years. He is a former Catholic League sprint champion and later ran for Western Michigan.

Tom Kennedy, who has been coaching wrestling at Borgess, will take over as the cross country coach. He came to Borgess in 1969.

Broncs Land Farmington Swimmer

Freestyle swimmers Mike Stewart of Dearborn and Farmington's Dan McLean have signed and returned Letters of Intent to attend Western Michigan University next fall.

Stewart co-captained a 1971

Edsel Ford High squad that finished sixth in Michigan Class A standing and swam on a 400-yard freestyle relay unit that placed third. He owns 100 and 200-yard clockings of :50.1 and 1:54.3 and also swam the 100 butterfly in 1:01.5. McLean has covered the century in :52.3 and the 200 in 1:56.2, which are good efforts considering he has only been swimming for two years. He co-captained his 1971 Farmington High team.

IN THE POCKET

By W.W. EDGAR

Mrs. Lillian C. Jacob, president of the Detroit Woman's Bowling Association for several decades, dropped a bomb at the annual meeting.

Without a word of warning she announced her resignation, effective July 31, 1971, because of poor health. She still had a year of her term to serve and the office now will be vacant until the next annual meeting.

In the meantime Mrs. Agnes Ekstrom, who was re-elected

MIKE TOTSKY will be honored as the new bowling "king" at the annual meeting of the Greater Detroit Association.

Mike finished the regular season with a 213 average. Mary Mohaci, winner of the two titles in the recent women's city tournament, is continuing her sharp shooting in the summer leagues.

Competing in the Ladies Classic at Garden Lanes she posted a 670 and leads her closest rival, Ann Setlock, by 22 pins.

CHARLIE STAGGS now knows what it is like to have the door to the bowlers elite circle closed in his face.

Bowling in the Friday Mixed League at Westland he ran up 11 strikes in a row and was only one away from the charmed group.

Then, on the 12th ball, he crossed over to the Brooklyn side and left up the No. 7 pin and settled for a 299.

CAROLE DURCAR had her best night of the year at Mayflower Lanes when she rolled a 269 in 648 in the Nite Owls League. Both are high marks for the season.

Grace Vogel, who carries a 153 average, contributed an oddity in the Ladies Junior House League with an all spare game of 185.

In the men's section of the Junior house circuit Claude Dillard was high with a 290 and Sam Pova came through with a 707 in the Ford Auto Lite league.

DAVE SOUTAR, the former Detroit All-Star Classic star now bowling out of Gilroy, Cal. finished fourth in the list of money winners in the pro bowlers with $27,105.

Johnny Petraglia, of Brooklyn, N.Y. established a money winning record for a season with $67,478.

THE LITTLE heard of People's Beauty Salon bowling team, may become Detroit's only champion in the WIBC tournament now drawing to a close in Atlanta.

Captained by Viola Bolden, the team posted a 2659 count to top Division I (726 through 850) on May 7. This count needs to hold up only several more weeks to make champions of the Detroiters.

Harrison Registers Shutout

Gary Morrison made baseball history Saturday for Farmington Harrison.

He pitched the school's first shutout in blanking Howell, 5-0, after Harrison had won the opener of the doubleheader, 7-6.

Morrison allowed two infield hits, fanned nine and walked two. In addition he and Tom Goodwin each collected two hits.

In the opener, Jeff Kallgren lashed out four hits and drove in three runs to pace Harrison.

Wayne State University's 1971 baseball team will face a 40-game schedule, its largest ever.

LILLIAN JACOB

first vice president, will serve as acting president.

During her tenure of office Mrs. Jacob saw the association grow in membership until it is the largest in the nation. The Association tournament which ended several weeks ago, was the largest women's city meet in the nation.

She also saw the association, which took an upward turn with the naming of the late Ann Ziesse some years ago, grow from a home kitchen office until it now shares a building with the Greater Detroit Bowling Association in St. Clair Shores.

Along with her duties as president she served for years as the office manager and guided the work of the association. Nationally, she also was recognized for several terms as a member of the Board of Directors.

Mrs. Jacob has been a power in Detroit bowling for years and was a charter member of the Detroit Bowling Council.

Her meritorious service was recognized in 1962 when she was inducted into the Detroit Bowling Hall of Fame, along with the other two "musketeers" - the late Frank Mittel, secretary of the Detroit Bowling Association, and W. W. Edgar, then the executive secretary of the Bowling Proprietors Association.

THE DETROIT All-Star Classic that traveled two nights each week in the closing months of the 1970-71 season, is returning to its old format of having "home" lanes one night each week.

Starting in August it will bowl as two separate leagues - the Classic on Tuesdays and the Michigan Open on Thursdays. The Open has chosen Hazel Park as its "home" lanes.
