48 Complaints Are Filed Against New High School

By KATHY MORAN

The beautiful, modern building on the Centennial Educational Park site doesn't look like a lemon—but it is.

The new Plymouth High School has about every facility imaginable for a high school—but it also has been more headaches than was bargained for by anyone in the school district.

"We have a genuine lemon," board member John Hanskat said of the building. "You know how you have those days when you shouldn't have gotten out of bed? Well, the whole school is like the day you shouldn't have gotten up."

Countless delays have been encountered because of conflicts between the trades contracted for the job and strikes involving the trades. The building was already a year late when the students moved in September and was not completed until the end of the school year.

A LIST of 48 items needing correction has piled up on the architects since November and is still awaiting satisfactory action.

As a final recourse, the school officials decided last Monday to submit the list to the school attorney, William Sempliner, to seek advice on action to take.

Legal action ultimately could have the effect of having it corrected at the expense of the architectural firm of O'Dell, Hewlitt, and Luckenbach or of getting strictly a monetary settlement.

Every new building must go through a stage where a number of small items have to be corrected before the owner finally accepts it and completes the final payment.

But some of the complaints about PHS are not so minor and school officials intend to withhold the final payment of $50,000 until they are corrected.

For example, it was recently pointed out that persons sitting in the first three rows of the balcony in the auditorium can not see the stage. It involves 120 seats.

And the bleachers in the gymnasium are not stable and reportedly were swaying when in use during graduation ceremonies.

The auditorium in the balcony also poses a safety problem for small children because breaks in the railing are large enough for a child to fall through.

VARIOUS acoustical problems have been reported throughout the building but the biggest stems from the music room which had to be drastically "tuned up." When first occupied, the sounds bounced off the walls and ceiling until the reverberation became totally unbearable.

Already, precautions have been taken to avoid any repeat performances in the construction of Canton High School with a supervisor of construction appointed to keep constant tabs on the operation.

The problems with Plymouth High School were partially due to conditions within the architectural firm.

O'Dell, Hewlitt and Luckenbach were caught in a period of change, when they were contracted for PHS, Hanskat said.

On top of that, the sub-trades submitted bids separately from the contractor. The school district accepted the lowest bid and assigned the trades to the contractor.

"The flaw is so obvious that I don't see how we could have missed it," Hanskat said. As a stroke of bad luck, the companies selected for the mechanical and electrical trades did not work well together and consequently ran into numerous conflicts.

The same contracting procedure was followed for Canton High School but the sub-trades work together well and are currently ahead of schedule on construction.

The latest building in the school system under construction is Miller Elementary School where the architect and contractor chose the sub-trades insuring that they will work together well.

Meanwhile, the construction headaches in Plymouth, center around Plymouth High School.

New Police Chief On Job Monday

They'll start writing a new chapter in the history of the City of Plymouth police department Monday morning when Timothy Ford, the new chief, reports for duty.

Recently named to the post left vacant several months ago by the resignation of Herbert Straley, he brings a fine record with him from Tecumseh, Michigan, where he has served for the past several years.

"He should fit into the Plymouth plan very well," City Manager Norman Gaffney remarked. "He is well schooled in youth and juvenile problems and that's what we need."

Gaffney explained that the new chief is taking over in a city where there are few, if any, great crimes, and that a chief can concentrate better on the job.

"We have some breaking and entering going on," Gaffney continued, "and the youth problems that are becoming common in today's cities."

While working in the southern section of Michigan the new chief was chief of both the police and fire departments at Gibraltar.

Election Code Disputed Again

The City of Plymouth again is being called upon to defend that section of the city charter dealing with eligibility of candidates for public office.

After being denied a petition to seek a seat on the city commission in the November election, Mahlon Green, a taxi-cab driver, had the necessary legal papers served on the city Wednesday afternoon to show cause why he should be denied.

This is the second time in four years the city's charter dealing with elections has been questioned.

Back in 1967 Peter Schweitzer, then assistant pastor of the First Methodist Church, challenged the city's right to deny him a petition on the grounds that he did not own property in the city.

He eventually won his case when Circuit Court Judge Victor A. Baum ruled the city charter demanding a two-year residence and ownership of tax producing property was unconstitutional.

Schweitzer went on to top the ticket at the fall election. Later, in a review before a higher court, Judge Baum's ruling was reversed and the controversial sections kept in the charter.

It was on this eligibility rule that City Clerk Gene Slider denied Green the petition for the coming election.

Upon investigation it was learned that Green is ineligible on both counts—he hasn't resided in Plymouth for the past two years and he doesn't own tax-producing property.

It also was learned that he registered as a voter in Livonia in September 1970 and voted in the general election in November 1970. His Livonia registration was canceled on May 19, 1971.

Prior to this cancellation he registered in Plymouth in March of this year. The papers served on the city gave Mayor James McKeon, City Clerk Slider and City Attorney Charles Lowe 20 days in which to show cause.

Green is being represented by the legal firm of Barton, Wahall and Perry. Robert Wahall, speaking for the firm, stated that he was building the case on the fact that a lot of things have happened since the higher courts overruled Judge Baum.

"Only recently in Warren, Michigan," he said, "they had a similar case and won. We are going to stand by that."

He stated there were other cases but didn't mention them, other than to say that, in his opinion, the charter was unconstitutional.

City officials remained silent following the serving of the papers.

The Complaints

Following are some items that must be corrected before final acceptance:

1. Rip Rap has not been constructed in accordance with specifications as shown on sheet number A-2 of the drawings.

2. Debris has been buried on the site. Specifications on special conditions 2A/3, 1A/4-9 state "No rubbish or debris shall be buried or burned on premises." Direct contractor to remove such debris from the area west of the bus drive and compact and grade the fill.

3. Blacktop specifications have not been met by the architect as stated on pages 2 B/2 (6b) and 2 B/3. Where wash has exposed blacktop and base construction specifications have not been met. Determine an alternate method for checking thickness of stone base and asphalt and submit to owner for approval.

4. Inspect the horrible unsafe architectural and construction detail at northwest corner of D Unit where there is a very deep outside concrete air shaft with a very light metal grating that is easily removed. Correct this safety hazard immediately.

5. Specifications call for contractor to rough grade site. Owner shall charge back to contractor costs for such grading on the site where not completed by the contractor west of the line even with the west edge of the D Unit, including shaping the bank west of the bus drive entrance, the area between boiler room shop service area and the bus drive, the area in island within front drive, the bus loop and adult parking area and the area between the bus parking loop and Willow Creek.

6. ARCHITECT shall observe areas where water stands along blacktop and correct such conditions now before damage is done to blacktop.

7. You wrote a letter to the general contractor directing the concrete ceiling in the entrance to the B Unit to be prepared to meet specifications. Nothing was done regarding that letter. Owner requests a specific letter from architect stating whether or not concrete ceiling meets specifications.

8. West windows on the third floor are constructed at different elevations in relationship to the floor and ceiling. What does architect and contractor intend to do about this lack of reasonable workmanship?

9. Northwest stairwell ceiling still leaks and crack in ceiling is unsightly and unsatisfactory.

10. Ventilators and ductwork in some shop areas are so close to windows that it is impossible to wash windows or replace glass if it should be broken. Does architect intend to accept any responsibility for such evident errors?

11. Carpeting at library has pulled apart where water

The Stroller... Choice Tidbit For Debaters

It's been quite a while since the Round Table Debating Society had so choice a morsel on which to vent its spleen as the proposed plan of the Fall Festival Board to purchase the vacant lot on Penniman Ave. between the Penn Theater and the Masonic Temple.

This is the area that is the focal point of the mammoth chicken barbecue each fall and it is the one activity that has brought national acclaim to an event that started on a playground to raise funds for equipment.

Fearing that the day may come when the lot may pass into the hands of a developer for an apartment building the plan was offered to purchase the area and thus save for all time the one event that has done a great job of replacing Daisy Air Rifle as the city's chief public relations asset.

Under the plan the residents would be asked to purchase a fraction of a square foot for a dollar and thus make the area a real community venture.

THE STROLLER was unaware of the depth of the feelings and the torridness of the debate until he walked into the cross fire — very innocently — and was asked—

"What do you think of the plan to purchase a choice piece of property in the downtown area to preserve the chicken barbecue and take it off the tax rolls?"

Before he could muster an answer—and that's unusual — he was swamped with all sorts of questions from the opposition.

"What would happen if the ground was sold and we had to lose the hub of the Fall Festival?"

"Why should the city lose what could be an important part of its tax base for an event that lasts only one day?"

In the crossfire came a quiet voice, saying "The Fall Festival is one big event each year that puts Plymouth on the map. Just imagine disposing of 13,000 chicken dinners on a Sunday afternoon. The national acclaim is worth anything we have to pay for it."

That didn't stop the flow of questions.

"WHY CAN'T we have an apartment building and the Fall Festival?" another asked. "We could close off a larger section of Penniman Avenue and barbecue the chicken on the street. It wouldn't do any harm if a sand base was used for the fire."

That was a new twist and brought forth another new facet for argument's sake.

"The city is planning to cut through Kellogg Park," another pointed out, "for the extension of Union Street. Why not lay down a street of fire brick through the park and do the barbecuing right there?"

"If that was done, the City still could have the apartment site and one of the major blocks in the downtown area would be saved."

"What we need is more footsteps downtown every day instead of just a few days a year at the time of the Festival," one of the businessmen said in adding fuel to the debate.

"We have Kellogg Park now," he went on, "do we want more park — and more reductions in our tax base? Or do we want to build up the base and give all the taxpayers some relief?"

ALL THE WHILE The Stroller didn't have a chance to answer. But he couldn't help thinking of the time back home in the Dutch Country when there came a rumor that the Baldwin Locomotive Works, of Philadelphia, was planning to purchase a large piece of vacant land on the edge of town.

At the time the old hometown was a cluster of silk mills and there was scarcity of help. So, the silk mill owners got together and sold the townspeople on the idea of paying one dollar each to purchase the site for a playground.

That's just what we did — and lost a large industrial plant. But the old hometown still has one of the nicest playgrounds and public relations vehicles in the area.

The Stroller could have told them, too, that an apartment building would look good at the foot of Woodward Avenue in Detroit instead of the reflector pool that is being installed on what could be a good tax base.

And what about the State Fairgrounds that lays idle most of the year? Apartment houses there would broaden a tax base, too.

But The Stroller didn't get a chance to state his case as the debate rages on.

City Manager, Commission Still Far Apart On Paving

A two-hour confrontation between city Manager Norman Gaffney and the members of the City Commission Monday night failed to reduce the gap in their respective approaches to the city's street paving program.

As he has from the start Gaffney is recommending a citywide policy be adopted for the entire program in which the abutting property owners pay 75 per cent of the cost and the city 25 per cent, along with taking care of the intersections.

On the other hand the City Commission is desirous of a slower approach in which one street at a time would be taken and the various percentages worked out with each section.

AFTER THE two hour debate the Commission asked the administration to prepare, just for comparison sake, the cost on Junction Street to be assessed on the following basis:

- 1-Cost of curb and gutter (property owner)
- 2-Cost of drainage and grading (property owner).
- 3-Cost of new sidewalk (property owner).
- 4-Cost of new sewers and catch basins (property owner).
- 5-Cost of driveway aprons.
- 6-Cost of 50 per cent of the new pavement.

Prior to adopting this comparison plan, Gaffney pointed out to the Commission that he, along with Tom Waffan, the City Engineer, had made a survey of the surrounding communities and that most of them were on the 75-25 formula.

THIS SURVEY included the cities of Flint, Lansing, Ann Arbor, Farmington, Garden City, Royal Oak, Hillsdale, Ypsilanti, Battle Creek, Ferndale and Royal Oak.

It was pointed out again during the session that the city's 25 per cent share would rise with the inclusion of the intersections and some other factors -- a move that could make the cost a barrier to selling the necessary bonds.

The discussion of the bonding requirements brought out this major point--

"General obligation bonds may be issued by the City in order to pay the City's share of the cost of the improvements which are being put in by special assessment. The issuance of this type of bond is not subject to referendum if no referendum petition is filed within 30 days after the publication of a notice of intent to issue bonds.

"The amount of such bonds, which may be issued at any one time can not exceed the City's share of the estimated cost of local improvements for which the City has confirmed on the special assessment rolls.

IN ADDITION, we observe a rule that the city share of general obligation bonds can not constitute more than 50 per cent of the total cost of the project being undertaken at any one time, and not more than two-thirds of the total cost of any one project."

The next session of the rival debaters will come Monday night when the City Manager and City Engineer Tom Waffan make their report on the cost study on Junction Street.

Water Line And Sewers Extended

PLYMOUTH The Township Board of Trustees approved the extension of water and sewer lines at its meeting on Tuesday night.

The first approval came when the request from Joe Gates for an extension of the water for use thereof at 9375 McClumpha, was honored.

The next was the honoring of a request from Loren (Bud) Gould to extend the sewer lines west on North Territorial Road to the Methodist Church property.

The water main extension will be approximately one half mile and the sewer extension will be 1,000 feet.

Canton To Oppose 'Gasoline Alleys'

With the building boom continuing and choice corner locations fast disappearing, Canton's planning commission will make a bid to see that main intersections don't become "gasoline alleys."

Referring to a zoning amendment he drafted,

Commissioner Wes Kaiser commented: "I think this goes as far as we can. The rest has to be a function of the township board."

Kaiser said he drafted the amendment after researching ordinances used by neighboring communities to limit gas stations. He said he made it as verbally strong as he felt could be legally defended.

The proposed amendment states: "Filling stations and public garages, where permitted, shall be located at least 1,500 feet from any other filling station, public garage and shall be located at least 800 feet from an entrance or exit to the property on which is located a public or private school, playground, playfield or park."

"Filling stations shall only be located at the intersection of quarter-mile section line roads, major highways or adjacent to entrance or exit ramps of limited access highways."

"Filling stations may be located in a CS (planning shopping center) zoning district with site plan approval by the planning commission."

"Minimum frontage on any one public street shall be 150 feet and the minimum lot area shall be 15,000 square feet as measured from the proposed rights-of-way as depicted on the township thoroughfare plan."

KAISER added that he felt the township board could reinforce the strong stand by adopting a separate ordinance limiting gas stations in other ways, such as hours of operation, work performed and parking space requirements.

Commissioner Bart Berg, who has on several occasions voiced concern about gas stations taking over choice corner locations, would like to see a time limit set on proposed gas station developments to avoid tying up sites for a long period of time.

His suggestion and the Kaiser amendment were referred to Township Attorney William Sempliner.

48 Complaints Filed Against New High School

from sprinkler system damaged it. How many more weeks must the school wait for reasonable architectural direction for contractor to correct this situation? Apparently the type carpeting specified by the architect will not prove satisfactory in a sprinkler system building. 12. Has credit been granted to the school for the padding eliminated from the specifications? 13. Tools are now in place in the soft materials shop so that dust collection system can be installed. Mr. Becker stated this was necessary before installation to avoid unnecessary changes. 14. Steel hand rails are not consistent. Some start at the bottom step. Some start at landing. 15. SOME columns at west end of the building are still unsatisfactory as they were when they were constructed more than two years ago.

16. Catch basins at front court and west end outside shops trap water which freezes in sub-zero weather making storm drainage system nonfunctional. What does Architect intend to about this design?

17. Leak at northwest corner of welding shop has never been corrected. Water leaks into typing room from outside areaway.

18. Grill covers on outside areaways have not been fastened down as specified.

19. Exterior doors and frames are installed with too much space between door and frame on side where lock hardware is installed. Mullion between double exterior doors springs permitting locked doors to be pulled open.

20. Concrete block in the auxiliary gym is not constructed plumb creating an extremely unsatisfactory appearance and shows very poor workmanship. We suggest contractor cover the section with a continuous tackboard around the gym.

21. Tartan floor shows areas of bubbling where it does not adhere to the concrete. Concrete floor was very unsatisfactory and some broken up with air hammer and patched. Leaks are probable that may create serious floor problems in the future. We believe a ten-year written guarantee against such defects must be provided because concrete floor was improperly installed.

22. Incinerator has never operated satisfactorily. 23. Band room is still so bad acoustically that it cannot be used for its designed purpose.

24. BLEACHERS IN THE gymnasium are very unstable; therefore, not acceptable. 25. Large stairwells at west end of building in the B Unit have a terrible acoustical problem that is extremely detrimental to school operation.

26. The cafeteria acoustics make it impossible for meetings to be held satisfactorily in this area. 27. The acoustical condition of the gymnasium is excellent for every kind of activity.

28. We question the sound seal of the folding doors in the auditorium balcony. This area will not serve satisfactorily for team teaching unless very quiet activity is taking place on stage and in main floor of auditorium.

29. Fans in science rooms are still so noisy they cannot be used while class discussion is being held. 30. Screws continue to come out of the expansion joints.

31. Painting throughout the building (ceilings and walls) does not meet specifications. 32. Pre-cast steps on stairwells were chipped before installation and have not been replaced.

33. Fans are so noisy in the shop conference rooms it is impossible to use these rooms for their designed purpose.

34. ELECTRICAL transformers in the machine shop are extremely noisy making it difficult for the instructor to give group instruction in this shop.

35. Electric fixtures are not properly anchored in much of the building. Corridor ceilings do not seem to be level; therefore, fixtures do not become flush with the ceiling.

36. Treads on steps into shop area are loose; thereby, create a hazard.

37. Panel cover on electrical box near graphic arts room still has not been installed.

38. Ventilating fans still do not operate in the following rooms: 2303, 2311, 2411, 2306, 2206-A, 2202-A, 2229, 3225, 3203, 3132, 3209 and 3211.

39. Large aluminum window frames can be opened from the outside.

40. Damage to ceiling and paint caused by various leaks has not been corrected by replacing ceiling tile and repainting where needed.

41. Metal cover plates have not been installed where carpeting has been cut out for floor conduit access.

42. WHAT SAFETY precaution has been installed to prevent electrocution of a custodian if the electricity should be off for a few hours and the sump pump ceases to run? Is the pump and its electrical connections above a high water line where water will flow from the tunnel by gravity?

43. Catch basin sumps and tile should be cleaned to be free from sand, clay and silt collected during construction.

44. Service and instrumental manuals should be provided for every piece of mechanical equipment.

45. Plastic paint is not up to specifications. It has many defects. We have a five-year guarantee.

46. It is impossible to see adequately a performance at the front section of the stage when seated in the first few rows of the balcony. It is apparent that your planner failed to consider the wide apron in front of the balcony when establishing sight lines.

THE TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH ORDAINS:

PART I That Section 4.12 of Ordinance No. XXVII, known as the Zoning Ordinance, of the Township of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan, be and the same hereby is amended to read as follows:

This situation is extremely disturbing to all who have observed the condition because it simply makes for an extremely unsatisfactory and useless balcony section for dramatics and performances that take place on the stage. 47. There is great concern for the safety of young children that may use the balcony because there is very inadequate protection in the railing constructed along the balcony. The railing will have wide open spaces that young children may walk through easily.

48. The orchestra pit seems extremely deep and there is no kind of protection to stop a person from stepping from the stage into the orchestra pit which would likely result in serious injury.

Ayes: Members Gilmore, Hanskat, Hulsing, Lawton, Stirtion and Tripp. Nays: None.

The motion was carried. The Investment Report and Listing of Paid Revolving Fund Bills were presented and placed on file.

Mr. Blank reported that action had been started to negotiate a $2,000,000 loan for operating expenses until tax collection time. A further report will be given at the June 22, 1971, meeting.

Mr. Blank also reported that the final tax allocation rate had been set by Wayne County at 8.90 mills for the Plymouth Community School District. Superintendent Rossman reported on the status of state aid, including the Equal Quality Plan (House Bill 3325), Act 100, and other interim bills which are proposed for financing education. He stated that Act 100 had been amended to leave the tax rate up to local boards of education and to change the "grandfather clause." He also expressed the opinion that the situation looked rather bleak for relief at the present time but felt some action would be taken before July 1, 1971.

Mr. James Parry spoke to the Board as the Representative of the Tanager School parents who wish to appeal the decision by the Board to discontinue bus transportation for certain Tanager School students in September. A comprehensive report dated June 11, 1971, was received from the Tanager Parent-Teacher Association. President Hulsing assured the parents that some action will be considered by August 1, 1971, on this situation and asked that a representative be selected from Tanager to serve on Mr. Lawton Smith's Safety Committee for this purpose. Representatives have been appointed from Allen and Bird Schools. A similar petition from Beacon Hill residents was received and placed on file with the assurance that their representative from Bird School would cover the Beacon Hill situation. Mr. Lawton Smith reported on his meeting with the State Highway Department. It was felt that future plans for sidewalks in that area are not feasible for present needs.

Member Hanskat inquired as to the monies available for transportation. Mr. Blank stated that $225,000 is budgeted with $110,000 of that amount paid by the State. The School District pays about $30.02 per year per student but if the State Bus Policy is violated, the District would be required to pay the entire sum of $40.00 per student. Member Stirtion explained the State Bus Policy for the benefit of parents in attendance. President Hulsing inquired as to the Board's Policy of directing a request to the Plymouth Township Board regarding sidewalks.

As a result of the discussion, it was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Hanskat that a report be received by the second meeting of the Board in July showing: (1) total number of students in each area; (2) total number of students affected by new bus policy; (3) safety hazards in walking to school; and (4) an analysis for each area of what has been done to have sidewalks installed through local government officials.

Ayes: Members Gilmore, Hanskat, Hulsing, Lawton, Stirtion and Tripp. Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

He will discuss art standards and the work of Michelangelo, Rodin and Moore at the 10 a.m. opening session in the Rackham Building.

150 Attend Workshop

Linda Bamford, of Redford Township, and Bradley Weage and Margaret Lang, of Plymouth, are attending a two week music workshop at Western Michigan University. Miss Bamford is in the woodwind seminar; Miss Lang, the string seminar; and Weage, the brass seminar.

Some 150 high school music students are enrolled in the course which includes ensemble participation and classroom instruction. The school is staffed by more than 30 teachers.

Two concerts will close the session Saturday, July 24, in James W. Miller Auditorium. The first, at 10:30 a.m., will feature chamber music ensembles and pianists, while the second, at 2:30 p.m., will feature larger ensembles. Both will be open to the public, free of charge.

Concert Series Features Old And Very New

The second week of concerts of the Schoolcraft College Summer Music Festival promises to be one of the most interesting. Audiences will hear three outstanding musical groups perform music as familiar as Stephen Foster's "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming" and "There Is Balm in Gilead" to those as unfamiliar as a 1969 composition by Sidney Hodkinson, entitled "The Dissolution of the Serial," and "Fantasy for Clarinet and Piano," written this year.

The week will open Monday evening July 19, with the first chamber music concert in the series. Guest performers will be clarinetist F. Gerard Errante and pianist Althea Waites.

They will present a program of recent music in the Little Theatre of the Liberal Arts Building, beginning at 8:30 p.m.

The second chamber recital of the series will be presented Friday evening, July 23, by the nationally famous Tipton Trio, again at 8:30.

The Kenneth Jewell Chorale will perform in the festival's Court Series, Tuesday, July 20, in the Waterman Campus Center, at 8:30 p.m.

ADMISSION TO all three concerts is $2 for adults and $1 for students. The college is located on Haggerty Rd., between Six and Seven Mile. Because of road construction, motorists are advised to approach the college from Seven Mile.

Dr. Errante is principal clarinetist of the Norfolk Symphony and professor of music at Norfolk State College. He received his doctorate from the University of Michigan last year, and while there was a member of the Contemporary Directions Ensemble, which specializes in music by modern composers.

Originally from New York City, he has appeared in many concert halls there, including Lincoln Center, and has also been on educational television.

and radio. Before going to Norfolk, he taught at the University of Wisconsin and at Eastern Michigan University.

Both he and Mrs. Waites are members of the Norfolk Chamber Consort which specializes in avant-garde music. Mrs. Waites is originally from New Orleans, and received her master of music degree from Yale University. She has worked at the Berkshire Music Center, Lenox, Mass., and has taken part in concert tours in the U.S. and Canada.

She is now professor of piano and theory at Norfolk State.

Their program Monday evening will include Four Pieces for Clarinet and Piano by Berg; Sensations for Clarinet and Tape by Berman, another U-M graduate; Variants for Solo Clarinet by Smith; Sonata for Clarinet and Piano by Bernstein; Fantasy for Clarinet and Piano, Opus 32, by Rice; Piece for Clarinet and Tape by Miller; and Hodkinson's "Dissolution."

The latter is an interesting theatre piece, with a surprise ending. Rice's Fantasy was given its world premiere by Errante in April and will be recorded by him on the CRI label.

TUESDAY EVENING will see the Kenneth Jewell Chorale, a familiar audience-pleaser in this area, perform "Three Fuguing Tunes" by Billings, two Moravian Anthems, "All the World Shall Sing His Praise" and "Thy Guiding Hand," a Spring Cantata for women's voices, by Persichetti; "Coolin" by Barber; "Jesus Christ Is Risen Today," by Hovhannes; a selection of American folk songs; "Soon Ah Will be Done," arranged by Burleigh; "Set Down Servant," arranged by Shaw; and the Foster ballad and "There Is Balm."

The program will close with "Christmas Cantata" for chorus and double brass choir, written in 1953 by Pinkham.

Chinese dinners, it is said, are quite unlike those of the western world. For one thing men and women do not dine together, but the men eat first followed by the women, who must be content with the leftovers. Chinese women may have their own code of equality, however, for who knows how many choice morsels cooked by the women never reach the men at the table? Also different are the serving customs: instead of serving separate courses, all food is placed on the table at the same time. This is why Chinese serving dishes containing hot foods are always covered. Perhaps we Americans could take a lesson here. Serving dish covers is certainly an easy way to avoid cold second helpings.

We have a custom too--that of giving excellent service to all our patrons. Make plans soon to dine at DANISH INN, 32305 Grand River Ave., 476-5320. Good wine selection and a beautiful supper club atmosphere. Enjoy the piano music of Pat Flowers, memorable jazz, boogie and classical music from 8:30 p.m.-Closing Tues. thru Sat. HELPFUL HINT: When boiling potatoes, put a little bacon fat or oil in the water. It eliminates the sticky ring without affecting the taste of the potatoes.

Art Fair Features Recycling

Children's activities at the 1971 Ann Arbor Street Art Fair from July 21 to 24 will feature demonstrations of recycling discarded materials into new and creative uses.

Their booth will be open from 9 a.m. until 10 p.m. daily and between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Saturday and the children will demonstrate uses of metal stampings, used cardboard and paper products, wire, and materials to create works of art.

Joel Durand of Livonia will have a booth on metalsmithing at the fair. Other booths will be on glass blowing, ceramics, printmaking, painting, spinning, clay sculpture, welding, and enameling.

The fair is sponsored by the Ann Arbor Art Association, the South University Businessmen's Association, the Ann Arbor Chamber of Commerce and the university.

2 Girls Take Ballet Course

Gerard Errante, clarinetist, and Althea Waites, pianist, will present a chamber music concert of modern and theatre music Monday evening July 19, at 8:30 p.m. They'll be followed Tuesday evening by a Court performance of the Kenneth Jewell Chorale, in the Waterman Campus Center. ECUMENICAL REFLECTIONS

By THE REV. PAUL T. HART
(Pastor, St. Matthew's United Methodist Church, Livonia)

The disciples had come to Jesus with the request that He teach them to pray as John had taught his disciples. There was no reticence upon the part of Christ to share with them the concept that God was not only His Father, but "Our Father."

There is no conception of God that needs to be more constantly in our minds or in the minds of people of all nations, than that of His fatherhood.

If we did not have the faith that back of all the terrible nightmare of hatred and suffering, brought by man upon man, there is a divine power endeavoring to impart to the mind of man another way to life; if we did not believe as did Jesus that a loving Heavenly Father is watching over us seeking our welfare with the same loving concern for people of all races and nationalities, then we should indeed be filled with hopelessness and despair.

THE GREATEST TASK today which faces the Church and all who profess faith in Christ is to work out the practical results that should follow saying and believing in "Our Father." That little word "our" makes all mankind akin to one another, children of the same Heavenly Father.

An experience on the battlefield of World War II is illustrative. A chaplain tells of a desperately wounded German soldier and an equally desperately wounded Englishman lying side by side on a field. They heard each other murmur "Mother" and "Mother" and, though ignorant of each other's language, they found in "Mother" a word that made them brothers. Soon they began to pray and lo - it was the same prayer, one saying "Unser Vater in Himmel," and the other, "Our Father who are in Heaven."

No words are as meaningful in the affairs of everyday life, in business, in the relationship of management and labor. The only Christian philosophy I know is the "Our Father" philosophy, not the kind that belligerently demands rights from others, but that in which we cheerfully and voluntarily share our privileges with our brothers.

THERE IS NO more convincing argument for sending missionaries to people all over our earth, where there is cruelty, superstition and fear. Missionaries in the field, and pastors struggling in the face of temptations many times throw up their hands and quit.

I am called upon so often to endeavor to comfort people who have lost loved ones. The shadow of a great sorrow has fallen over their pathway. They long for dear ones to be with them again. Most of us know from personal experience what that separation and sorrow means. How blessed is the thought that we can repeat to ourselves and to others that Our Heavenly Father knows and cares, that he loves us far more tenderly than we ever loved those who have gone from us!

I counsel with so many who are fighting temptations which cause them to lose respect for themselves whenever they yield to them. We know that sin and evil are playing havoc in the lives of people every day. Dishonesty, impurity, selfishness, intemperance, hasty temper, bad language - the little devils are legion that try to trip us and other people and make us un-Christian. What a message we have to tell, "Our Father" will bring the desired help: God is always with his earthly children. With His help, with Christ as our unseen but living companion and friend, every one of us can triumph over temptation.

There is a thought I often bring in praying or talking with persons in hospitals or with others who are facing difficult problems: We are never alone as Christians, for God is a friend, unfailing, and God is everywhere. He is with us when care is light and gladness is ours, but He is also with us as "A very present help in time of trouble." Clouds of sorrow cannot hide Him, for "Our Father" stands above the clouds keeping watch of His own.

Missouri Synod Debates Doctrinal Controversies

MILWAUKEE "It is no secret that in our time we have certain doctrinal problems within our church," Dr. J.O.A. Preus, told some 2,000 persons attending the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod's 49th meeting.

"On the one hand it can be pointed out that doctrinal controversy is the sign of a living and concerned church. It can also be said that no church is every totally free of doctrinal controversy," he said.

The question of authority for its doctrinal and confessional stance underlies many of the controversial issues which have been debated widely in the Missouri Synod, and which are reflected in more than 500 pages of memorials, overtures and reports which comprise the workbook used by the 1,000 voting delegates and 1,000 officials, and consultants during the week-long convention July 9 to 16.

CITING A STATEMENT of Martin Luther, 16th century reformer, Dr. Preus said, "The Word of God alone should establish articles of faith and no one else, not even an angel."

"We must address ourselves to the relationship of Article II of the Constitution (of the synod) and the status of doctrinal statements and resolutions adopted by the synod."

"The Constitution states in simple language that 'The Scriptures of the Old and New Testament as the written Word of God and the only rule and norm of faith and of practice' and 'all the Symbolical Books of the Evangelical Lutheran Church as a true and unadulterated statement and exposition of the Word of God' are to be accepted 'without reservations' by members of the synod."

"But some seem inclined to believe that the synod must hold the Lutheran Confessions to be in effect an exhaustive, and in fact, comprehensive, list of the Articles of Faith."

"Some specifically suggest that the Augsburg Confession prescribes a quantitative total of articles of faith which Lutherans must accept. According to this view, Lutherans are not bound by anything that the Scripture teaches unless it is at least implicitly taught in the Augsburg Confession or the Book of Concord."

DR. PREUS quoted extensively from Dr. C.F.W. Walther, one of the founders of the Missouri Synod, who he said interpreted Article II of the synodical constitution as requiring acceptance only of what the Scripture teaches, but everything and anything that the Scripture teaches.

"It is ironic," Dr. Preus said, "that some of those who accuse the synod of 'traditionalism' are in a sense promoting it by elevating the Confessions above the Scriptures. Such a practice is contrary to our confessional position itself that only the Word of God can establish articles of faith."

"We have a right to expect our professors, pastors, teachers and congregations to teach according to our understanding of the Word of God," Dr. Preus declared.

"Any other kind of 'confession' by a church which subscribes to the Lutheran Confessions could only be arbitrary, subjective, and ultimately self-defeating as well as untrue to the Lutheran Confessions themselves."

Dr. Preus' report also dealt in detail with the fellowship relationship with the American Lutheran Church, voted two years ago at the synod's Denver convention. A movement to suspend or rescind this action has been underway.

ALTHOUGH fellowship (permitting free interchange of pastors and acceptance of communicants at each others' altars) has been "well received in some areas of the church, there are many other areas where it has been almost totally unaccepted," Dr. Preus said.

Dr. Preus joined with his church's inter-church committee dealing with the fellowship implementation with the ALC in recommending that the synod ask the ALC to reconsider its action in approving the ordination of women.

"Our fellowship with the ALC would no doubt have made better progress had that church in 1970 not adopted the policy of the ordination of women," Dr. Preus said.

Another issue, relationship to the Lutheran Council in the U.S., Dr. Preus said should be the subject of an intensive study of needs and potentials in cooperative work.

The convention also voted to continue operation of Saint John's College, Winfield, Kan.

GETTING AWAY FROM THE CITY and making new friends as well as these members of the Pot Luckers Camping Club. An inter-racial, inter-denominational club, it has held one campout and is planning more for the summer and fall. Prospective new members should call Aileen Grey at the YWCA of Western Wayne County in Dearborn. Present members come from Livonia, Westland, Garden City, Romulus and Inkster.

New Interracial Club Is Organized For Campers

Want to do something different? Want to test your beliefs? Do you mean what you say about liking people? Do you want to add your voice to the growing thousands on control of the environment? Do you want to have fun and share travel plans and outings?

The Pot Luckers Camping

Club of the YWCA of Western Wayne County is looking for members who can answer yes to these questions.

The group is interracial, interdenominational and includes persons of all ages. Members are from Livonia, Westland, Garden City and Inkster.

THE CLUB IS open to all who would like to join. Those interested may call Aileen Grey, program director at the YWCA of Western Wayne, 1034 Monroe, Dearborn.

The idea for the club came from Mrs. Charles Anderson, a YWCA member who enrolled in the camping class last spring.

Wanting to continue the interest shown, she suggested to Miss Grey that maybe a club could be formed. In the fall of 1970 invitations were sent to former class members, other persons with trailers and YWCA members interested in camping. The club was organized in October.

The name was chosen in March after three successful pot-luck affairs, and the first campout was held in May.

THE EMBLEM, designed by Robert and Janet Galea of Livonia, features a large cooking pot swinging from crossed poles against a green background.

Aims of the club are now being written into a constitution. They include acceptance and understanding of all peoples, practice of good human relations, conservation, fun and relaxation in the out-of-doors and relating the children to these goals.

Campouts are scheduled through the summer and fall.

Plans Fall Witnesses Receive New Calendar Book For Bible Study

The Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob, oldest reform congregation in Oakland County, will hold its opening general meeting Sept. 14, in the temple, located in Pontiac.

The date was set at a meeting of the executive committee and board members held in the home of Mrs. Henry Winkelman.

Among other events planned for the fall will be a Succot outing Oct. 3 at Echo Park, Birmingham, for the entire temple membership.

Chairman for the day will be Mrs. Cyril Kusel of Oak Park.

An audience of more than 11,000 persons was on hand to hear a Bible discourse recently given by A.D. Schroeder at Jackson Harness Raceway.

Schroeder, a special representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, was guest speaker at a five-day assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Jackson, titled the "Divine Name" district assembly.

Schroeder, who titled his address "When All Nations Collide Head-On With God," asked "What would world domination by God be like?" He continued, "We could never know unless we examined the Book that this God caused to be written and in which he tells us of his purpose toward man and why he has permitted such international conflict, violence and anarchy until now."

LOCAL DELEGATES returned to their home congregations with six new books designed to aid Bible students in examining the Bible as Schroeder recommended.

Included is the publication "Aid to Bible Understanding," a 1,696 page volume containing some 4,000 subjects on historical, geographical, religious and social facts concerning Bible persons, peoples, places, plant and animal life and activities.

According to Donald Borgula of Redford Township, overseer of the Detroit congregation, "This book will be an invaluable aid in increasing our knowledge and understanding of the Bible. It will be incorporated into the regular study program of all the congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses." Other releases include a large-type edition of the Bible and a book for children.

the convention, 149 persons symbolized their dedication by water immersion.

Another feature of the assembly, which was one of four being held in Michigan, was the enactment of Bible dramas, in costume, by Witnesses from various congregations in the Ohio, Indiana and Michigan area. The entire book of Ruth was presented in this way.

More than 1,400 delegates volunteered their time in running 20 departments of the assembly.

A FARMINGTON WOMAN, Mrs. Joseph H. Jackier (left) has been elected representative to the Jewish Welfare Federation Board of Governors. She is shown at the 25th anniversary celebration and annual meeting of the Women's Division of the Federation, with Mrs. Max Stollman, division president.

Hurler Helps Own Cause As Plymouth Nips Westland

The fortunes of a baseball game can change quickly. Rob Phillips had a no-hitter going for the better part of four innings as he hurled for Westland Cleaners against Plymouth Bidwell in the Greater Livonia Adray Baseball League.

But then he yielded a hit in the fifth and he eventually wound up a loser, 4-2.

Rival pitcher Randy Van Gasse, meantime, turned in a fine mound performance and aided his own cause with Plymouth's first hit, which also led to Plymouth's first run.

Howie Schryer had walked in the Plymouth fifth and moved to second on a wild pitch when Van Gasse unloaded a run producing hit.

Then in the sixth an error put Steve Chilenko aboard and Plymouth quickly capitalized for two more runs. Dennis Becker doubled Chilenko to third and Gary Crosby followed with a sacrifice fly for one run.

A single by Bob Walden brought in Becker with the second run of the inning.

IN THE SEVENTH with Mark Cahill pitching for Westland, Dale Rumberger and Chilenko walked and Becker delivered another big hit — a single to send in Rumberger.

Westland scored twice when Ken Gawkowski singled and Chuck Slammer followed with another hit. When the ball rolled past the outfielder, Gawkowski came in and Slammer went to third from where he checked in on Mike Border's sacrifice.

Redford turned back North Farmington, 8-2, as Jim Horton, pitching for the first time since early in the month, allowed only three hits.

Horton missed a shutout when Marty Raymond tripled. John Combes doubled and Harvey Sell singled in the sixth.

Redford took advantage of Mike Hart's wildness to score in the first on Jim Burke's single and three walks.

In the second, singles by Denny Blazok and R.J. LeRoux and two errors helped Redford score three more times.

Two runs came home in the fourth with Gordie Eszes accounting for the inning's only hit—a double. In the sixth, Burke knocked in two runs with a double.

Livonia Hubert was declared the winner over Garden City when Garden City wasn't able to field nine players.

The third and final round in Adray play begins Sunday.

So far, Redford and Northville have emerged as champs of the first and second rounds, respectively.

Turf Tips, Quips

By Doc Minard

During the past several years, those from Metropolitan Detroit and surrounding areas outstate have been introduced to a great many betting gimmicks. All have been very interesting and all have met with the approval of those who like to wager a bob or two. But in many instances they have not been accepted by those who direct the activities at the running and harness racing plants.

Years ago, when the Detroit Racing Association had the only game in the state, the program included eight races and a daily double. Of course there were such things as a $3 combination instead of the usual $6 and other gimmicks. One of any major proportion. Then came harness racing and the program was increased to 10 races nightly with the daily double.

The first of the new gimmicks came with the introduction of the twin double in which the better had to pick winners of two races and then exchange the ticket and attempt to pick the winners of two more.

The trouble was that those holding tickets on the first two often sold them at a high price to persons who sought as many tickets as possible for exchanges.

This brought the incident of the now famed "Fat Man" who was noted for buying up tickets and also noted for being the lone holder of exchanges that were more than $100,000.

The "Fat Man" more than any other individual was responsible for the Twin Double fading out in Michigan and eventually at tracks in the east and south.

ALL-STAR GAME POST MORTEM:

Little wonder they say Tiger Stadium is a hitter's paradise and a pitcher's nightmare...six of the longest clouts you'll ever see.

And that Reggie Jackson sock. Without the light-tower to impede its progress, the ball probably would have landed on the Fisher Freeway a couple of blocks away.

SO, WHAT TIGER FAN can knock Earl Weaver of Baltimore, who managed the winning American League team.

There were four Tigers on his squad and all received more than a fair chance to play.

Bill Freehan caught seven innings...Norm Cash played first base for five...Al Kaline operated in right for four innings and Mickey Lolich cleaned up the pitching for the winners.

Poetic justice, I thought, that Kaline should score what proved the deciding run for Americans.

CAN'T SEE HOW Frank Robinson should have been voted the most valuable player. Granted he delivered the homer that put the American League ahead to stay.

In my book, here was a case that a game actually didn't produce one standout over another. After all, didn't homers by Jackson and Harmon Killebrew each bring in two runs, too?

And, what about the excellent pitching by Jim Palmer, Mike Cuellar and Lolich which kept the National bats subdued from the third inning on?

I, for one, can't see why every all-star affair always must have its MVP.

VIDA BLUE FOUND the National League swatters a lot tougher than those he's faced in the American.

Somehow, he didn't look quite as fast at Tiger Stadium Tuesday as he does when he's pitching in regular games.

Which reminds one, Vida and the Oakland A's will invade Tiger Stadium next weekend. And, it's a cinch Vida will pitch somewhere along the line in the series.

TO LOOK AT Henry (Hank) Aaron of the Atlanta Braves, one of the all-time belters in baseball history, you wonder how he can sock the ball so far. He gives you the impression he's a "little guy..." something which he isn't.

And, they tell you, those around the National League, that there's no nicer ball player any where, any place.

"He's the best," one National League umpire told me at the commissioner's all-star luncheon.

Lost in the pre-game excitement...the Marines Corps color guard who collapsed and had to be carried from the field a second before the National Anthem.

KIND OF THOUGHT the ovations Tiger fans gave to the visiting All-Stars was slight in comparison to the greetings accorded such players in other cities. Of course, the salutes to Cash and Kaline were something to remember.

Too bad, "Stormin'" Norman couldn't contact on anything in his two trips to the plate.

WHO SAYS THEY can't play baseball at a fast clip...two hours and five minutes. There wasn't much business on the bases...not with the balls rattling off the roof and into the stands the way they did.

Maybe the Tiger management should consider moving up starting time to 7:30 p.m. for evening games, the way everybody got there for a 7:15 -- or was it a 7:20 start?

IT DOES BRING goose bumps...just looking there at Willie Mays, Willie Stargell, Johnny Bench, Dick Ellis and all the rest of the National League greats you seldom, if ever, see live in Detroit, except on TV.

Maybe, this is another good reason why baseball should go for inter-league competition. Wouldn't that be something?

WONDER IF DETROIT will have a new stadium when next an all-star game is played here?

That should be around 1991, give or take a few years.

It was quite a show...and, as always, our town did it up royally.

Mid-Week Fishing Best, DNR Says

Hot weather has kept fishing light in the lakes of the area, according to Pontiac district headquarters of the Michigan Natural Resources Commission.

Best fishing is still mid-week, the DNR reports; live bait is getting good results.

Smallmouth bass caught on Union Lake ranged in size from 14-16 inches. Bass were hitting fair to good on Lake Orion, Square, Pontiac, Rattalee, Bush, Valley, and Holly area lakes.

Pike were being taken on Lower Pettibone Lake.

Bluegills were running small on Lake Orion, but good catches were taken on Union, Pontiac, Rattalee, Bush, Crotched, and Holly area lakes. A few smallmouth bass caught on the Bald Mt. Pond ranged 11-12 inches.

Experimental walleye rearing at Drayton Plains Nature Center ponds is showing success.

This spring fisheries personnel, in cooperation with the nature center and Oakland County Sportsmen's Club, planted 175,000 walleye fry into three of the old hatchery ponds.

Last week one pond was lowered and 7,500 two-inch fingerlings swam into the Clinton River, destined for Cass Lake.

This is good production from waters that received practically no management, DNR officials say. Further releases will take place in late July; many of these fish may show up in Cass Lake fishermen's creels in 1973.

Honor Goes To Bob Levy

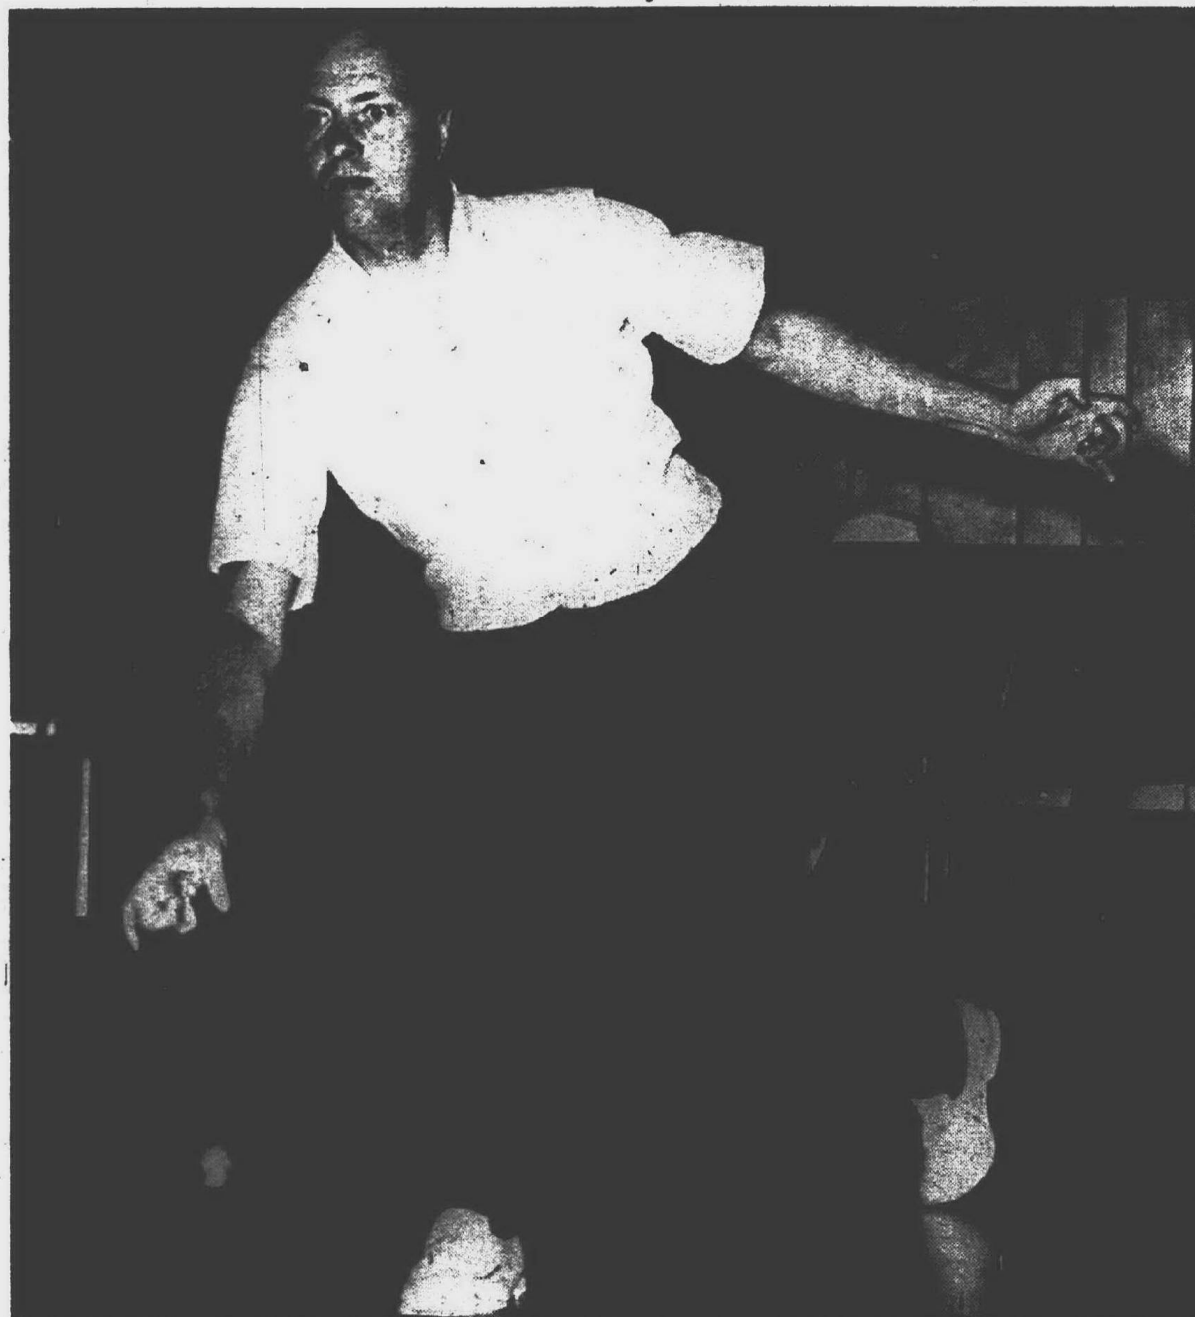

Bob Levy, of Southfield High, has been named on the Southeastern Michigan Association's All-League tennis team. Teammate Del Fishman was awarded honorable mention acclaim in the belated selections.

Dan Richards, of Royal Oak Kimball, a state Class A finalist, headed the first team selections.

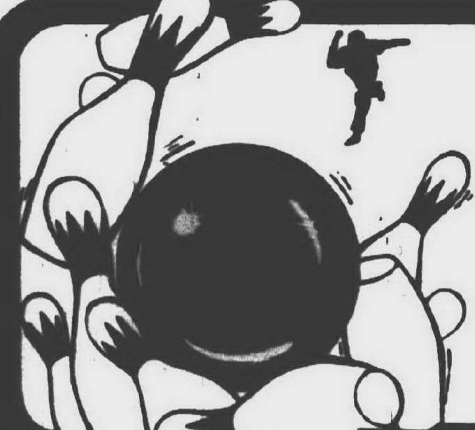

Brooklane Records 9th Hole In One

Brooklane Golf Course in Northville Township recorded its ninth hole in one of the year.

The honor went to Mrs. Jean Korkala, of 14694 Winthrop, Detroit, who sank her shot with a driver on the par three, 111-yard 16th hole. She has been playing golf for three years.

BOWLING KING of Metropolitan Detroit is Livonian James Sullivan, an office worker who won the honor in a rolloff with James Lillie, of Merri-Bowl Lanes in Livonia. In the meeting of all candidates, Sullivan fired a 635 on games of 175, 155 and 241. (Photo by Tom Donoghue)

IN THE POCKET

By W.W. EDGAR

In appropriate ceremonies James R. Sullivan, an office worker who lives at 20026 St. Francis in Livonia, was crowned King of the Metropolitan Bowlers at Ark West in Southfield.

In a roll off of all candidates for the high honor the new "King" put together games of 176, 155 and 241 for a 635. At that figure he beat out Jim Lillie, of Merri-Bowl.

The crowning of a "king" in a roll-off is the new method chosen to determine the crown-wearer.

For years the King and Queen were those persons who attained the highest mean averages in the city. Under this plan Mrs. Elvira Teofer became the Queen five years in a row to better the record once set by Marge Merrick, now of Columbus, O., who won four in a row.

The change in the method started a year ago when the crown-wearers were chosen by lot at the Champions dinner. Unfortunately, the "queen" who was drawn was a non-resident who was a guest at the dinner.

With that experience the powers that be decided on the house eliminations and a grand roll-off.

TO PROVE that his new role as the Bowling King hasn't affected his style, Sullivan, who carries a 159 average in the Bel-Aire Monday Mixed League, fired a 256 in 665 to pace the entire circuit.

Good scores are on the rise in the summer leagues at Bel-Aire.

For example, Rolfe Krause, bowling in the Bermuda Shorts circuit, had games of 235, 229 and 262 for a 657. Behind him came Tom McCullough with a 219 in 573 and Ray Palmer with a 232 in 562.

Agnes Blanchard was high for the ladies with 184 in 474. Even in the Thursday low average league Joe Guthrie came through with a 600.

The most unusual performance of the week was turned in by Don Levoska who opened with identical games of 235 and then dropped to a closing 134. Dave Fondran landed in the runnerup spot with a 591 that included a 232 game.

Two of the youth bowlers came through, too. Mike Rashid posted a 549 and Paul Koenig had a 260 in 567.

The biggest count of the week came in the four game men's doubles where Tom Massecar linked counts of 234, 220, 223 and 203 for 880 and Phil Horowitz tied him by stringing counts of 224, 247, 211 and 178.

ANN SETLOCK, instructor at Garden Lanes, who registered the highest mean average in the city last season, will be one of eight star bowlers chosen from across the nation to compete in a taped video show next week in New York.

In a new competition named the Women's National Classic, the hand-picked stars will bowl against eight girls from Buffalo.

One of Ann's teammates will be another high average bowler well known in the Detroit area—LaVerne Carter.

JIM SORBY found the range at Merri-Bowl in the Thursday doubles and easily paced the field with a 686 series that included a 267 game.

In the four man event Jim Lillie, Don Gless, James Finner and James Sewell proved consistent. Together they posted a 1031 series.

THE CHAMPIONS Dinner, sponsored by the Bowling Proprietors Association of Greater Detroit, will be held at the Latin Quarter on Friday, Aug. 13.

This is the affair at which all of the champions in the Champion of Champions Tournament are awarded trophies.

It follows by five days the statewide event for the Youth Bowling Association champions who will be honored in a mammoth feat at the Civic Center in Lansing.

THUS OVER the years the daily double, the Twin Double, the Chicken Twin, the Big P, the Big Q, the exacta, the quinella and others...

But now comes the most unusual of all...the "Tri-Fecta"...which will be introduced in the near future at the Detroit Race Course and then will be part of the Wolverine Raceway program and probably at Hazel Park for the thoroughbred meeting.

The Tri-Fecta, known in Europe as the "terce" and in New York as the triple, is a new form of wagering in which bettors will try to select the one-two-three finishers in a designated race.

It will be offered on the 10th and last race when Wolverine Raceway takes over from the runners starting Wednesday, Aug. 4.

Hazel Park has yet to announce the introduction of the Tri-Fecta but officials of the American Tote Co. confirmed that equipment for the new style of wagering will be ready for the opening of the 120-meeting on Monday, Aug. 2. At Wolverine, Tri-Fecta tickets will sell for $2 and $10 with a "box" costing $12. By "boxing" three horses a bettor gets six possible combinations.

AT HAZEL PARK a ticket will cost $6 and a box $18 according to those who apparently know what's coming up.

Redford Clinches Flag; Routs Farmington 11-1

Hat's off to Warholak Tire... the Greater Livonia Connie Mack League-National League baseball champs.

Warholak, comprised of varsity players from Redford Union and managed by Bob Atkins, the RU football and baseball coach, made it 11-0 for the season and clinched the divisional flag by routing North Farmington, 11-1.

With the curtain dropping this week, there's no longer a chance anybody else in the seven-team circuit can catch Warholak.

This means that Warholak has earned a spot in the Connie Mack playoffs scheduled later this month.

He never was in much trouble as the big bat of Dave Martin struck again.

Martin clouted his seventh homer of the season as he took a cue from what was going on at the same hour down at Tiger Stadium during the major league All-Star Game.

R.J. LeRoux scored quickly for Warholak when he walked, stole second and came around on an error. LeRoux's triple chased in Steve Friedman and Rob Campbell with two more runs in the second inning.

After North Farmington scored in its half of the second on a double by Raymond and an error, Warholak added a marker in the fifth when Bill

Herbert singled in LeRoux, then tallied four in the sixth when Martin homered and three more in the seventh.

LIVONIA HUBERT turned back Plymouth, 4-2, tallying all its runs in the third on one hit—but what a hit—a three run homer by Randy Hickerson. Hickerson's belt came after two errors, a walk and a passed ball had admitted one run. The drive—a la Reggie Jackson's—sailed more than 425 feet to deep center and landed on Farmington Road.

Terry Laird pitched the route for the winners beating Steve Robb, who also went the distance.

Plymouth scored once in the second inning when Jim Grimmer singled, went to second on an error, to third on an infield roller and then stole home.

In the seventh Rob Willette was safe on a fielder's choice and moved around on singles by Ron Egloff and Brad Truax.

THURSTON ALSO came up with one big sock—a three-run homer by Larry Poma—to down Redford Tooling, 3-1, and close in on the International league title.

It was Thurston's ninth win along with a tie and one loss in 11 games.

Mark Miller, of Thurston, duelled with Redford's Repair in a scoreless battle until the sixth inning when Don Mardock doubled and Don Ghannum walked for Thurston. That brought up Poma—and bang!

Miller, who allowed seven hits and fanned seven, lost his shutout in the bottom of the seventh when Bob Armstrong singled after Watson walked and Tingstead was hit by a pitch.

DARKNESS HALTED the Gates Realty-Tom's Service game after nine innings with the teams deadlocked at 3-3.

Gates scored all its runs in the first on four walks and two hit batsmen and then was stopped the rest of the way by Kurt Price.

A single by Tom McElroy, a walk, ground out and error gave Tom's two runs in the first inning.

Then in the second after John Clako was safe on an error, Mike Godbey singled him across to tie the game and that's how the score remained for seven more innings.

Area Adray Stars Featured In Game At Tiger Stadium

All the stars at Tiger Stadium didn't perform Tuesday night.

True that was the night the cream of the major leagues did their stuff before more than 53,000 fans in the stadium and 50-60 million more watching on television.

But the next morning, the stadium saw a different brand of stars— youngsters from the statewide Adray League baseball program.

THE CROWD was considerably smaller—around 500, but many in attendance were baseball big wheels coming to look at some of the players of tomorrow... players they plan to draft next year or the year after...and some they already have drafted.

Game one matched the best of the Livonia and Detroit Leagues with Detroit winning, 6-0. Game two ended by the same score with Mt. Pleasant downing Lansing.

The Greater Livonia Adray stars weren't able to do much with the bat against five Detroit pitchers, managing only three hits.

It wasn't until the sixth inning, the Livonia representatives mustered a hit or a threat.

After Jim Crom walked, Gordon Eszes and Kirk Taylor followed with singles. Crom was cut down trying to score and then when Taylor attempted to reach second on the throw, he also was nailed to complete a double play and end the threat.

Keith Sylvester accounted for the other Livonia hit when he singled in the eighth inning.

JIM MURRAY started for Livonia. He's from the Redford team and allowed two runs in the second inning.

John Morrison, Dave Rice, Taylor and Tim Carr each allowed one run while Bob Briggs worked one inning for the losers and turned in a scoreless performance.

Bill Srock, the recent Southfield High School graduate, pitched for the Detroiters in the final two innings and escaped with no damage except the Sylvester single. each had two hits for the Frank Pantoni, Bob Wamaker and Bob Semanco

Legion Title Still At Stake In Southfield

Baseball games aren't supposed to end in ties. They sometimes do, because of the elements. That was the case Wednesday when Southfield and Waterford collided head-on for first place in the 18th District of the American Legion.

Because darkness settled over the Southfield diamond quicker than the team wanted, they had to settle for a 2-2 deadlock, which did nothing to break their virtual deadlock for the leadership.

AS A RESULT, Southfield now is 15-2-2 for the season with Waterford 12-2-2 and three games to make up, including a pair on Sunday when Southfield is idle from league action.

All indications point to all the chips riding on the outcome of another face-to-face encounter between Southfield and Waterford a week from Sunday.

They'll meet twice then and the title and the right to advance into the regional tournament unquestionably will ride on the outcome.

Southfield will play at Berkley Wednesday and at Troy Friday before going against Waterford, defending division champ.

Bob Brown went the route for Southfield against Waterford while Troy used a trio of pitchers—Lang, Zimmerman and Poe—in keeping the big Southfield bats in check.

BOTH SOUTHFIELD runs were scored in the third inning when Rick Stabile singled, Kevin Milliken was safe on a fielder's choice, Dan Damiani on an error and Dennis O'Rourke singled.

Waterford put together a pair of doubles for one run in the fourth and tied it on a single, stolen base and error in the sixth.

Steve Gombard batted for Brown and singled in the seventh for Southfield, but was left stranded.

When the inning was over, the umpires called the proceedings because it was too dark to continue.

Stabile with three hits in four trips at bat led Southfield.

WALLED LAKE downed Farmington, 7-4, in another 18th District game as three homers did the damage. Tom Cattaneo hit one with two on and Bob Hays and Bill Peeling had solo blasts for Wall Lake. Peeling also made some dazzling plays in short-top to spoil and ruin several Farmington threats.

Winning pitcher Marvin Geary allowed six hits and fanned five while Rich Stringer was tagged with his second loss as he allowed only six hits—but three went for the distance.

Farmington scored twice in the fourth inning on a walk to Ray Ponke and hits by Dan McGrath and Paul Kupferschmidt—the latter's blow chasing in both the markers.

In the fifth, Bruce Economeau walked and Rich Stringer, John Holappa, McGrath and Tony Wenson followed with singles for the final two Farmington runs.

Farmington loaded the bases with no luck in the seventh and final inning.

Hoover Named To FCA Staff

David Hoover, assistant football coach at Southfield High School, has been named to the 19-member staff for the third annual Fellowship of Christian Athletes Summer Conference to be held at Central Michigan in Mt. Pleasant, Aug. 1-4.

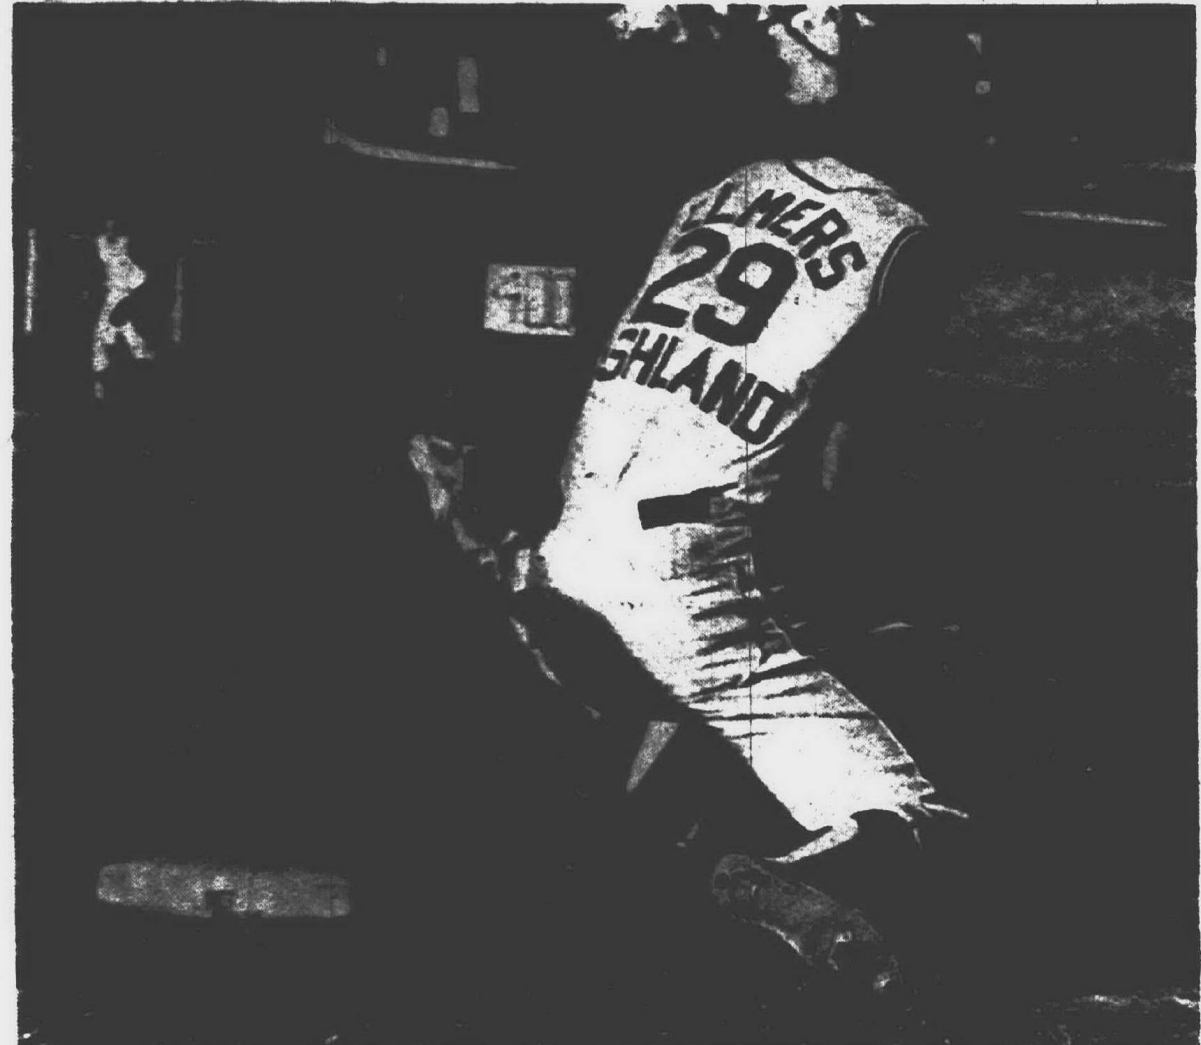

His selection was announced by FCA executive director Robert Miste, veteran Farmington high coach in different sports.

Hoover has served on the grid staff at Southfield for five years.

and college athletes are expected to attend the meetings at Central Michigan. It will be one of 19 regional and national conferences held throughout the country.

Each has for its theme: "Inspirations and Perseverance."

Others on the staff will include: Lofton Greene, who has coached River Rouge to 10 state Class B high school basketball titles; baseball coach Moby Benedict of the University of Michigan, and Watson Spoelstra, Detroit News sports writer.

SOUTHFIELD'S Kevin Milliken starts long slide into third base while Waterford's Bob Marvosh gets ready to take relay.

HE SLIDES by but reaches back for the bag as Marvosh makes the tag a bit late for the putout.

AS DUST CLEARS this shows how close the play was. The umpire who was on top of the action all the way waved safe. (Observer photos by Harry Mauthe)

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR:

To the parents, Harry and Bernice, comes greetings of news that their son, Harry S. Fountain, on May 23 was graduated from the Dental School at Marquette University in Milwaukee. To these parents, as to all parents, the deepest and most gratifying joy that comes to human hearts is that which comes to the parents when they succeed with their children.

The fact that he succeeded in receiving his degree in dentistry came as a surprise to these parents for his record in grade school and high school was just mediocre.

Upon graduating from Plymouth High School he entered Schoolcraft College to begin his life work in dentistry. It was here that he was exposed to a new regime. It was here that he decided to settle down and go to work to make his record a little better.

While at Schoolcraft, which had a small enrollment, a little less confusion, coupled with his renewed desire he took his place as an outstanding student. Maybe, he was what you call a late bloomer.

At Schoolcraft Harry was on the dean's list for three straight years. He was awarded the Science Award and was inducted into the honorary students of Phi Theta Cappa. Because of his high scholastic record he was accepted at the dental schools of both the University of Michigan and Marquette University.

He chose Marquette solely on the theory that he wanted to shift for himself away from home. He spent two years in the research team and during the last two summers in the Dental Clinic.

His acceptance at Marquette was accompanied by a $2,400 scholarship.

However, for anyone entering the dental field today it will mean eight years of concentrated study.

Our son, Dr. Fountain as he is now known, is licensed as a Michigan dentist and is working on a full time scale in a dental office in Rockwood.

And we, his parents, are proud of him and thankful for the boost he got at Schoolcraft College to send him on his way.

Assistant Superintendent Hoben distributed minutes of the Curriculum Coordinating Council meeting held on June 9, 1971, and a cost analysis of Curriculum Coordinating Council of the same date, pointing out that the Council had been able to return to the General Fund $8,655.12 from their budgeted allotment. He reported there were twelve administrators and twelve teachers on the Council who had given a great deal of time this past year analyzing needs and preparing recommendations for implementation of new curriculum. Final reports were given for each area as follows:

1. Home Economics Uniques and Follow-Up Study for High School: Harold Gaertner Development of learning packets for home economics, no additional cost. A follow-up study to develop a survey tool for graduates of Plymouth High School to determine their thinking in regard to their education. One study will be of seniors as they graduate and another of alumni two years after graduation. Cost to date, $500.

2. Industrial Arts: Brian Gorman Development of a total curriculum for industrial arts, presentation of a series of recommendations for middle school industrial arts as well as Phase II of Canton High School and evaluation of the present program. Total cost estimate to date, $3,000.

3. Spiral Language, Pioneer School: Gerald Elston An plan where each child will be developed to his greatest potential at the 6, 7, 8 grade level by: evaluating what has been done in past years, studying learning disabilities setting up new programs on a more heterogeneous level, enhancing the middle school philosophy and holding summer workshops. Total cost to date, $4,965 plus new programs budgeted.

4. Ninth Grade English: Shirley Spanier English students will be grouped more heterogeneously; mini-courses set up where students will elect their own 10-week courses; a choice given of 12 courses, which would be a natural step into 9th grade English. A four-week course in basic composition and one in study skills will precede these electives. Approximate cost to date, $720.

5. Report Card Committee Report: Mary Fritz The committee stated that the conference system will continue to be the backbone of reporting and the report card will convey the information to parents. This on-going committee recommends: increased conference time from two to four days, implementation of a smoother finished product for the card (printer contact, etc.), and more study of the middle school needs. No cost involved to date. Public relations program needed.

6. Flexible Scheduling - Class Size: Dolly Carter A need expressed for an on-going resources media center and the expansion of team teaching. No cost involved to date.

7. Humanities - Pioneer School: Gerald Elston A series of courses estimated to take only a few weeks which will cover twelve areas. The Committee will recommend such courses as "Who I Am," "My Relationships with Others," and in the 8th grade, "Careers." Cost to date, $400.

8. Language Arts Learning Centers - Isbister School: Kathleen Otto A program for 1st through 3rd grades which will enable the school facility to be used more effectively. Need for more in-service time noted; cost to be reported in new program proposals.

9. Middle School Philosophy and Goals: Robert Smith A desire was expressed to have this title amended to read "and study hall elimination." This twenty-two member committee reported on "What a Middle School Should Be - Its Operation by Team-Teaching." The Committee would request Board of Education to see what kind of program will take place in 6, 7, 8 grades and indicated a need for more professional and para-professional personnel. Cost would involve the additional staff.

10. Middle School Music: Carl Taylor and Carl Hume A move from general music curriculum as it is now known to a program where each student would be composing his own music with more creative projects was suggested. A need was expressed for more rooms (i.e., placing two portable rooms together) and for more instruments. No costs involved for study.

11. Project D.R.U.G.S.: James Doyle A very comprehensive report was presented on a K-12 proposed curriculum entitled, "Substance Use and Abuse." Each school building would have a representative well versed in the use of this course. Dr. Doyle made the following recommendations: that curriculum guide be adopted by the Board of Education, one day of in-service training be devoted to the course, a unit be developed for middle school concept, an adult education course be offered, there be increased drug education material placed in libraries, cooperation with PTA programs be increased, a graduate course be coordinated by a university, there be a poster contest, education be provided for high school students who will talk to middle school students and there be adopted guidance associates materials as displayed. Cost to date, $4,523.50. It was noted that monies may come from community service organizations.

Mr. Hoben expressed his appreciation to the Board for their allotments and his hope that sometime in the near future many of these programs could be adopted. President Hulsing expressed the hope that money would be in the budget and thanked Mr. Hoben and the Committee for their fine reports.

On the matter of new program decisions, Mr. Hoben recommended that Item Nos. 1, 9, 12, 13, 15 and 16 be adopted from his memorandum dated June 14, 1971, concerning program, scheduling and personnel commitment and that Item No. 17 be deferred to the area of the Curriculum Coordinating Council implementation. Mr. Hoben presented a letter expressing concern by secondary principals regarding the amount of time assigned to each for policy and procedure revision during the summer. Robert Smith stated their concern regarding the establishment of such high priority for writing policy and suggested a reduction in the number of participants, a longer period allowed for the assignment, or the hiring of extra personnel to write the policy. It was explained by Member Hanksat that the policies and procedures writing does have the highest priority but that it has been a detriment in many cases to the administrative staff not to have new policies established. A hope was expressed that as many of the administrators as possible would be involved in the writing of policy.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Hanksat that the organization structure as proposed for the Policy and Procedures Manual be approved as presented to the Board of Education on June 14, 1971.
