A professional wrestling show at Plymouth High School? Such an attraction may come as a surprise to some, but the senior class thinks it could be a money maker. It's just one of the items of interest among Plymouth Brevities.

PHS Band Flies South Thursday For Concert

By FRED DeLANO

Eighty-nine Plymouth High School musicians, comprising the symphony band, will fly from Metropolitan Airport Thursday morning for three days in Mississippi, demonstrating for the second time in three years that the Plymouth band is regarded as one of the best in America.

Their showcase will be the 16th annual Conductors Conference to be held on the campus of the University of Southern Mississippi at Hattiesburg, an event that will draw more than 1,000 band, orchestra and choral directors from throughout the south.

Plymouth is one of five high school bands in the United States invited to present an hour-long concert for the enjoyment of these professional instructors during the conference. It is a parallel, and a direct off-shoot, to Plymouth's appearance at the Midwest Music Clinic at Chicago two winters ago.

Of the other bands being similarly honored with invitations to play in concert, two are from the home State of Mississippi, one will be from Alabama and the other from Louisiana. Plymouth will represent the other 47 states.

AS A farewell dress rehearsal, the Rocks will present the identical program at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 8 in the high school auditorium and there will be no admission charge.

Bandmaster James Griffith, whose baton has directed Plymouth to national acclaim since he took charge of the instrumental program in the school system, has perfected his band in these nine numbers for performance in Mississippi, and for benefit Tuesday of the families and friends who stay behind:

"American Salute" by Gould and Lang; "Reflexions" by Nixon; "Blue Lake Overture" by Chance; "Song for the Young" by Mitchell; "George Washington Bi-Centennial March" by Sousa; "Rocky Point Holiday" by Nelson; "Shenandoah" by Bilik; "Grandioso March" by Seitz and Reed; and "Broadway Curtain Time" by Krance.

It is a program demanding a wide range of talents from melodic old folk tune treatment to rock to the exciting climactic dramatics in the finale of such Broadway show tunes as "Hello, Dolly," "Put On A Happy Face," "If He Walked Into My Life," "Mame" and "Hey, Look Me Over."

As befits such an experience, the trip will conclude with a day of sight-seeing in New Orleans, the birthplace of American jazz.

Also, Jim Schwartz, Richard Newton, Bruce Rudloff, Sharon Foster, Art Davis, Carol Farmer, Phil Schmunk, Carol Furioso, Chris Ackerman, Pam Powell, Debbie Keeth, Julie Stephens, Mark Kieme, Mark Olson, Marty Jabara, Dan Kabel and Denise Fox.

Also, Anne Eisen, Jean Rosbalt, Barb Gandee, Linda Hagopian, Nancy Pocklington, Michelle Rick, Dan Holt, Jerry Moyer, Doug McCubbrey, Frank Krohn, Joy McClendon, Mark Bradford, Brad Weage, Kevin Jones, Mark Stephens, Jack Williams, Jim Leitch and Dale Schrader.

Also, Kathy Rice, Karen Palmer, Barb Wells, Deb Lance, Terry Sorenson, Gayle White, Laura Johnstone, Deb Lewis, Sue Sockow, Karen Brett, John Chiatallas, Mike Savage, Deb Sanocki, Sherril Scruggs, Barb Kippola, Janet Scott, Amy Schwartz and Michelle Bassett.

Also, Richard Bassett, Linda Berger, Louise Cassidy, Carol Greenshields, Greg Hoffman, Ken Koza, Ken Meeks, Deb Messacar, Jean Moorehead, Dave Neu, Sue Quello, Mike Rice, Carol Ross, Valerie Scheppele, Nick Smith, Fritz Stafford, Phil Starr, Julie VanDerburgh and Dave Vincent.

THE ENTIRE traveling party will leave the high school at 9:30 a.m. Thursday, being scheduled to fly from Metropolitan by chartered B-737 jet at 11 a.m. Because of the time change, they will land in New Orleans at 12:30 p.m.

Busses will transport the band to the University of Southern Mississippi campus and they will be the personal guests in the homes of Hattiesburg.

Rotary Donation Boosts Artrain Financial Drive

The Plymouth Rotary Foundation this week provided a resounding beginning to "Kaleidoscope Plymouth's" drive for funds in connection with the spring appearance of Artrain by turning over the entire Russell Isbister Memorial Fund of $2,095.22 to help this cause.

Artrain is the special exhibit of four railroad cars created by the Michigan Council for the Arts and will be here from April 19 through May 6 at a beautified site near the C&O depot at the Starkweather crossing.

"Kaleidoscope Plymouth, Inc." has been formed as the sponsoring agency and this week began its effort to raise a projected budget of $11,000. The first gift was that from Rotary and it was presented by John Gaffield, president of the foundation, to Mrs. Jo Hulce, Artrain project coordinator.

Isbister was school superintendent from 1951 until his retirement in 1967. Following his death in 1968, a special memorial fund was established in his name, and Gaffield said that for some time officers of the foundation had been looking "for a meaningful and appropriate" activity to help support with the money before settling on "Kaleidoscope Plymouth."

"We are very pleased to receive the Rotary Foundation Isbister Memorial Fund gift and we shall perpetuate it each year as a part of Kaleidoscope Plymouth."

Her statement helped emphasize that "Kaleidoscope Plymouth" is not a one-shot undertaking, created solely for the 1972 scheduling of Artrain for its 18-day visit.

Rather, it is intended to use Artrain as the catalyst to kick off an annual celebration of the awareness of creativity in the Plymouth area.

BY ONE means or another, it is hoped that each spring an opportunity can be created that will give residents a chance to demonstrate their abilities through all of the great art forms.

All students will be able to tour Artrain while it is here this spring, and it also will be open to the general public at least five hours daily. At no time will there be a charge for admission.

Plans are under way for a general renovation and cleanup of the area where Artrain will be located. Meanwhile, the volunteers who are staffing "Kaleidoscope Plymouth" have opened a headquarters for all activities in a portable classroom which had been going unused behind Central Junior High School.

Mayflower Employees Beat Union

In a secret election conducted Wednesday afternoon by the National Labor Relations Board, employees of the Mayflower Hotel voted against unionization, 51 to 36.

Employees were given ballots asking whether they wished to be represented for purposes of collective bargaining by the Hotel and Restaurant Employees and Bartenders International Union of the AFL-CIO.

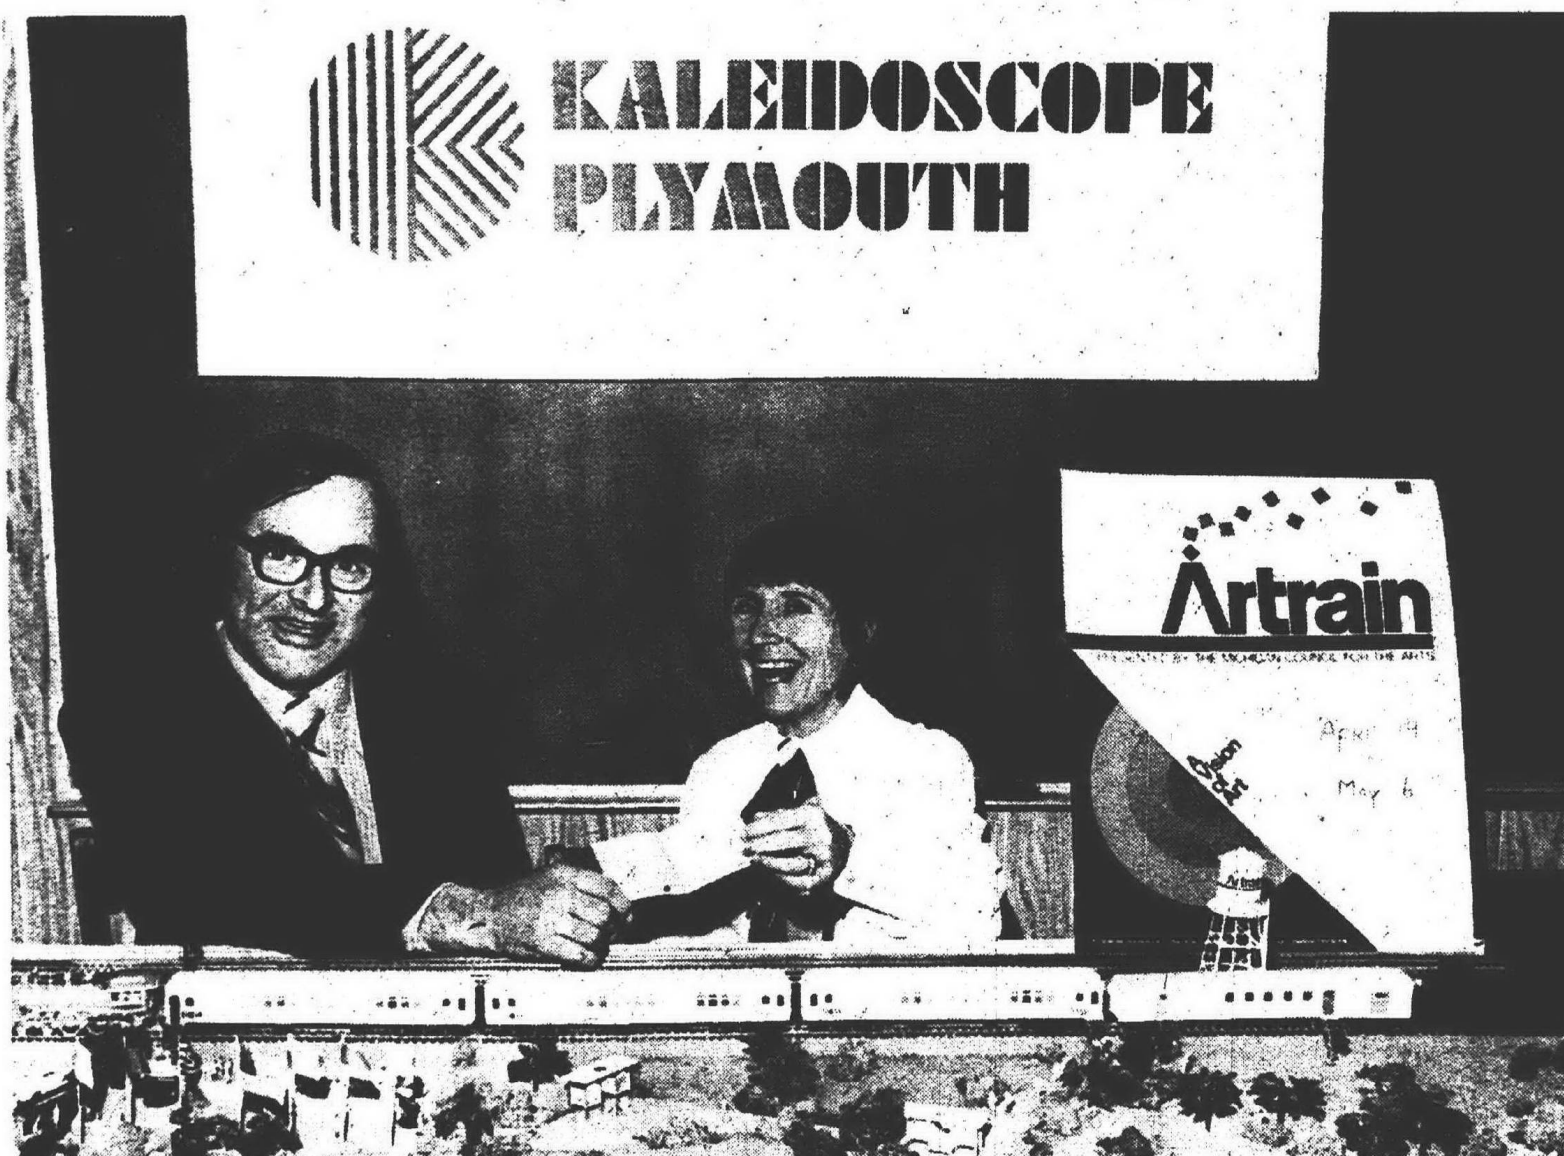

David M. Sarkozy, attorney for region seven of the NLRB, was in charge of the election and counted the ballots in the presence of representatives of both sides. Sarkozy said that 103 had been eligible to participate and that 51 voted "no" while 36 voted "yes."

School Board Picks 2 For PAPC Duty

Melvin Blunk and Dr. John Ohno have been appointed representatives of the Plymouth School District to the Plymouth Area Planning Commission.

Blunk is the assistant superintendent of business and Dr. Ohno is a trustee. The appointments were made by the Plymouth Board of Education.

THE DRIVE FOR FUNDS by "Kaleidoscope Plymouth" got off to a king-sized start this week when John Gaffield, president of the Rotary Foundation, presented a check representing more than $2,000 from the

Russell Isbister Memorial Fund to Mrs. Jo Hulce, Artrain coordinator. This model of Artrain will be circulated in public buildings from now until the train's arrival April 19. (Observer photo by Bob Woodring)

Canton Hearing To Air New Concept Of Center

By MARIE MCGEE

Details of a shopping center which the developer promises will be a new concept will be aired March 7 at a public hearing involving a small portion of the land involved in the Canton Township development.

The center is proposed for the corner of Ford and Canton Center Rds. on a 16-acre site. However, the March hearing will deal with only six acres of the total site. Approximately 10 acres have already been rezoned CS (shopping center). This was done several months ago.

THE COMMISSION almost got hung up on the horns of a dilemma of its own making in trying to decide what zoning the remaining six acres should have.

Commissioners finally agreed to abide by a recommendation from its planners, Parkins and Rogers, by setting a C-2 designation for the six acres. This also allows shopping centers to be built within its confines.

The confusion stems from the commission's earlier refusal to allow the developers, Olympian Associates of Detroit, to seek the CS zoning for the entire 20-acre site at the time the project was introduced several months ago.

Instead, the commission said the developer could seek CS zoning for half the acreage, stipulating that no further rezoning would be considered until more details of the project were learned.

In the meantime, Canton adopted a new zoning ordinance that stipulates 25 acres as the minimum for a CS zone.

THE DILEMMA came when commissioners tried to decide which designation the remaining six acres should get in light of the new ordinance. Some felt it should be treated as part of the original request.

Other commissioners envisioned future assessment problems if the split zoning was allowed.

"It could split a building in two," commented Commissioner Bart Berg. "It could affect the assessment figures."

In the end, the commission voted to accept the planning consultant's recommendation for the C-2 zoning for the remaining six acres.

(Approximately four acres of the site are already in drains and roads, therefore, are not included in the second rezoning request, it was explained.)

Canton planner Michael Manore was also critical of the development as it was originally presented. In a letter to the commission, he said that a "plaza of that size ought to have more than a food market as a drawing card."

Responding to this on behalf of the developer was Paul Fried. He told Canton planners at the Feb. 8 meeting that the proposed shopping center "will by no means be small."

He said that continual updating of the plans since their original introduction calls for "an entirely new concept -- practically unheard of -- in shopping centers," he said.

"We're thinking in terms of a store 35,000 square feet in area as opposed to the 18,000-square-foot store," he added.

He said also that a 23,000-square-foot variety store is also contemplated. Earlier plans also called for a bank to be located nearby. A recently built service station is already located on the corner.

An architect's rendering of the proposed facility will be on display at the March 8 public hearing and the developer indicated that more details will be revealed at that time.

The shopping center is the second proposed for the immediate area. Recently, the commission approved the rezoning of a nine-acre site at the northwest corner of Warren and Canton Center Rds.

for a neighborhood shopping center. Still in limbo are plans for a 40-acre shopping center directly across the road, on the south-west corner, by Republic Home Development, formerly known as Rose-Hill Builders.

The 40-acre center would be in the final phase of Republic's total 450-acre development of single family homes, multiples and townhouses. According to Republic's timetable, the last phase is scheduled for 1973-75.

New Library Books

Hobbyists and sportsmen will be particularly interested in several of the new books received recently at Dunning-Hough Library.

"Ceramics Handbook," by Norman Hyman is an Arco How-to book showing step by step how to make all types of potteryware, ceramic sculpture and jewelry.

Jean Wilson's "Weaving is fun" is a guide for teachers, children and beginning weavers, about yarns, baskets, cloth and tapestry.

Of further interest to weavers is "The Joy Of Spinning," by Marilyn Kluger. Mrs. Kluger includes in her step-by-step instructions: Where to see spinning demonstrations; how to choose a spinning wheel; where to buy raw wool; how to card; how to spin wool, flax, camel's hair, etc.; how to gather and use native plant dyes; and where to order spinning accessories by mail.

"The Hiker's and Backpacker's Handbook," by W.K. Merrill, presents advice for every kind and length of trip -- planning, equipment, major trail maps, menus, safety and first aid.

In Sports Illustrated "Book of Diving," stress is placed on board action and on how to develop control and proper position at each step of a dive. Complete action sequences drawings are printed in two colors.

Milton Kaufman's "Radio Operator's License Q and A Manual," covers all the information necessary for the successful completion of the FCC examination for radiotelephone operators.

New in fiction is a first novel by Peter D. Arnott. Freely based on the life of Moliere, "Ballet of Comedians" follows the years, from poverty and hardship to fame and fortune, of France's most illustrious writer of comedies.

CANDLELIGHT AND music enhanced the Italian atmosphere when more than 600 guests were served at a spaghetti dinner in Smith School recently. Working on food preparations throughout the day was the chef, Frank Mango, with Mrs. Roger Peterson, who was responsible for all the food.

Plymouth Brevities

PROFESSIONAL WRESTLING will come to Plymouth High School the night of Tuesday, Feb. 15 when the senior class tries to enhance its treasury with a program of four bouts, topped by a main event between Mighty Igor and Killer Brooks.

Two tag team matches, one of them involving Jerry Vettese of Plymouth, and a bout between two female wrestlers also are on the card. Bleacher prices are $2 for students and $3 for adults, with ringside seats on the gym floor going for $3.50.

POLICE PROTECTION and law enforcement in Plymouth and Canton Townships will be the subject of discussion when the Western Homeowners Improvement Association meets at 8 p.m. Monday, Feb. 7 in the cafeteria of the high school.

The agenda also will include the annual election of officers to lead the association, which has members in both townships.

"HOW BIRD Elementary School Tries to Make Reading Fun for Your Child," will be the topic of a PTO meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 8 in the school gym.

Teachers will show, in simultaneous grade level presentations, how they teach reading. They also will suggest ways in which parents can encourage enthusiasm for reading.

A panel, including the school's reading specialist, librarian and principal, then will answer parents' questions. A stuffed Snoopy will be awarded to the room that has the most families represented.

WHEN THE hospital ship S.S. HOPE sailed Friday from Baltimore harbor bound for Natal, Brazil, on a 10-month medical teaching and treatment mission, Edith Ann McKenna of Plymouth was one of three Michigan residents aboard.

Miss McKenna, who also was with HOPE in Jamaica in the first step of its three-year hemispheric program, will serve as medical secretary. Before joining HOPE she worked at the University of Michigan School of Dentistry.

ENTHUSIASM FOR the twice-a-week story hours for pre-school children being conducted at Dunning-Hough Library was so great when registration opened Monday that both sessions were filled by noon.

Librarian Elizabeth Barnwell has asked that mothers be encouraged "not to leave their little ones in the library while the mothers shop or run errands." She adds that past incidents have proved this to be "a real disaster at times" with youngsters who can't be comforted. Miss Barnwell suggests the mother browse and sign out books for themselves and for the children during these periods.

BASKETBALL ACTION for PHS will include two games during the coming week, at Edsel Ford Tuesday and against Bentley here in Plymouth Friday.

Swimming and wrestling teams both will be at Allen Park for meets Thursday, with the wrestlers also participating Saturday in the Suburban Eight meet at Redford Union. Swimming fans should be reminded that the league meet will be held in the new PHS pool March 2 and 3.

STAFF SGT. Robert McAndrew, who is in charge of the new Army recruiting station at 819 Pennington, urges residents to stop in and get acquainted.

He says, "Although the primary mission is to enlist qualified men and women into the Army to fill specific jobs, I feel I have a very important secondary mission as a public servant. This is to provide information and answer any question the public may have regarding the military. I will make every effort to be of service and am proud to be a member of the Plymouth community."

THROUGH BIFOCALS

By FRED DeLANO / Editor Mail & Observer

PUBLICATION OF TWO maps within the last eight days relating to area school integration plans submitted to U.S. Judge Stephen J. Roth have broadened the smiles of those who are in the real estate and construction industries in Greater Plymouth.

Neither the Citizens Committee for Better Education nor the state Board of Education has proposed that the Plymouth School District (or Northville either) be included in the cross - district bussing scheme to achieve racial balance within the Detroit schools. It's obvious that they consider the distance from Detroit to Plymouth too great.

This is interesting because it was the CCBE, made up predominately of white Detroit homeowners, which initially suggested to Roth that any integration plan for the Detroit schools should also involve the suburbs. Further, the plan presented by the CCBE actually does cover about 90 per cent of the students in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties, but not us way out here in the boondocks.

This doesn't end the issue, of course. The judge may junk all of the 10 plans given to him, or amend them, or one way or another put this district into the fold by broadening the horizon. I expressed the view when this case first exploded that Plymouth's affinity lies more in the direction of Ann Arbor than Detroit (which could include Ypsilanti and Belleville) and I still think so.

HOWEVER, IF THE building boom out here needed just one extra fillet to spur it to whirlwind proportions, it got one from the implications that this corner of Wayne County will not be part of any Detroit bussing formula. The flow of new residents could become a stampede.

Let's look at what's going on just as things stand at the moment in the landlocked City of Plymouth and the two townships that comprise most of the balance of the school district.

The quickest summation comes from a school board member who says that within five years our enrollment will DOUBLE, meaning a need for eight new elementary schools, two more middle schools and a third high school.

The city will be the smallest part of this, but it is growing nonetheless. Permits for 11 new single family homes were issued in 1971, compared to 10 for '69 and '70 combined. Eight multiple dwellings at a value of $965,000 were approved in '71, against only four the two previous years, and it's obvious that what growth there is in the city will be up rather than sideways.

BUT LOOK at the townships, where space does exist to expand. Builders and developers are going hog wild to get their plans OK'd by the governments so they can have their model homes open as the traffic increases.

Supervisor Philip Dingeldey reports that in 1971 Canton Township approved 662 multiple dwelling living units and 291 single homes, which was double the 1970 action. What's more, he's predicting 860 multiple units and 565 one-family homes for 1972, and that's just the beginning!

The trend in Plymouth Township is similar. From Supervisor Maurice Breen come figures showing 138 one-family homes were authorized last year compared to 106 in 1970. Total construction approved in '71 carries a value of $8.7 million against $4.7 million in 1970.

Washburns Set Recital Of Students

Fifteen musical students of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Washburn of Plymouth will present a public woodwind and brass recital at 2 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 6 in the First United Methodist Church.

Ages of the students range from 10 to 16 and they include Julie Butler, John Birge, Gwen Campbell, Anita Huijbregtse, Jeffrey Person, Nancy Birge, Karen Nance, Jennifer Leland, Mark Heskett, Kitty Tillotson, Linda Lowing, Jane Vissor, Karen Routson, Karen Brett and Donna Phelps.

Mr. and Mrs. Washburn will play Schumann's "Voice of Love" as a duet for flute and French horn.

They both are graduates of Northern Michigan University and Washburn served formerly as band director at Clarkston High School. He now is associated with the J. L. Hudson Co. WITH PRIDE IN EVERY STEP, Scoutmaster Charles Guideau has been a fixture in many Plymouth parades for years. His retirement as scoutmaster of Troop 862, sponsored by the VFW, will bring public tribute in the form of a Feb. 18 testimonial banquet in his honor. (Observer photo).

Scouting Loses Chuck Guideau

A man who has been among the most important to Boy Scouting in Plymouth for 30 years has decided to retire from service as an active scoutmaster, and it has prompted his many friends and the boys he helped raise to plan a testimonial banquet in his honor for Friday, Feb. 18.

When Charles "Uncle Chuck" Guideau steps down that night after 12 years as the head of Troop 862 and 18 prior years as scoutmaster of other troops, he will leave behind an enviable record as leader, counselor and friend to hundreds of boys.

Troop 862 is sponsored by Mayflower Post 6695 of the VFW and the banquet in Guideau's honor will be held at 7 p.m., Feb. 18 in the VFW Hall, 1426 S. Mill. Reservations are requested by Feb. 8 and may be made by calling Gordon Vetal, 42255 Warren Rd.

Guideau is holder of the coveted Silver Beaver award for his longtime devotion to scouting, but his own pride stems more from what he has done for others than in his personal trophies.

Regiment, better known as "Merrill's Marauders."

Following his basic combat training and advanced individual training in infantry, the applicant will go to Fort Benning, Ga., for three weeks of airborne training which qualifies him as a parachutist.

For more information, McAndrew may be contacted at the army recruiting office, 819 Penniman.

Layman To Report Meet On Aging

Edward E. Terry will report on the recent White House Conference on Aging when he speaks in the First United Methodist of Plymouth during the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services Sunday, Feb. 6.

Terry is a member of the Plymouth church and executive director of the retirement homes of the Detroit Conference of the United Methodist Church.

He served as one of Michigan's official delegates to the 1971 conference on aging.

A SPECIAL EXHIBIT at the church is planned in conjunction with the talk by Terry, who is president-elect of the Michigan Society of Gerontology and a director of the Michigan Non-Profit Homes Association.

Mrs. George Andrews, a student at the Institute of Gerontology in Ann Arbor and a member of the church, is in charge of the display of materials relative to older citizens. It will be on view in the church's fellowship hall.

THE REV. Paul M. Cargo, senior minister of the thousand-member congregation that soon will move to a new building on North Territorial Road, said of the Sunday service:

"I believe it is a fine thing for a congregation to hear from its laymen. People are in mission and do wonderful things as ambassadors for Christ in various fields of labor."

Those with donations may call Mrs. Miller, 39658 Suzan Court, Plymouth.

A budding service project that will benefit young people at the Wayne County Child Development Center needs a helping hand from the community.

Women from Epiphany Lutheran Church in Plymouth and a group of Camp Fire Girls from both Plymouth and Livonia would like to teach the young residents of the home to knit.

The kids want to learn. And Mrs. Janice Stutzman, a member of Epiphany's community involvement task force, thought there might be people in the area who could donate knitting needles and yarn for the project.

"We'd like to work with the kids on a one-to-one basis," Mrs. Stutzman said, "but we need more equipment and we think it's likely people have yarn and needles they aren't using."

Mrs. Stutzman and Mrs. Lance Miller of Plymouth, leader of the Camp Fire group, said they would be glad to pick up the donations so they can get the project moving.

Those with donations may call Mrs. Miller, 39658 Suzan Court, Plymouth.

KNIT TWO. PURL TWO is the word for the day as volunteers prepare to teach knitting to residents of the Wayne County Child Development Center. Church's Quest Is Topic For Catholic Lent Series

A Lenten study of "Church: The Continuing Quest" is planned Wednesday evenings beginning Feb. 16 for the Farmington Southfield Catholic vicariate.

The Most Rev. Thomas J. Gumbleton, vicar for parishes in the Detroit archdiocese, will be speaker for the first session, at 8 p.m. in the Mercy Center, 28600 Eleven Mile, Farmington.

His keynote topic will be "The Church, the World and the Kingdom," the theme of the archdiocese Christian growth program planned for spring and fall.

THE LENTEN SERIES is designed to prepare parish leaders to head the larger program. The sessions will continue to 10:30 p.m. and the cost is $8 per couple or $5 for each individual. The fee covers registration and the study book by the Rev. Richard McBrien, "Church: The Continuing Quest."

Setting the theme for the study, the book states:

"It has become clear to many Christians today that the church exists for more than preaching, worship and the communication of saving grace to each of its members."

"Christians have embarked, in the last several years, on a new quest of the church, and this quest is likely to have as many far-reaching effects as the earlier quest of the historical Jesus."

AN ASH Wednesday liturgy also will be part of the Feb. 16 program.

Other dates and topics are: Feb. 23 - "How Do We View the Church?"

Volunteers' FISHing Is Fine

A very young FISH, just over four months old, is spelling a big difference in the lives of many Farmington and Southfield residents.

For some 200 volunteers, it means the chance to offer personalized help to those who need it.

For hundreds who have received assistance, it means that a friend - in - need is always at the other end of a telephone line.

The FISH program for Farmington and Southfield began officially Oct. 1 of last year, after a summer of preparatory work by two members of North Congregational Church in Southfield, Mrs. Maribel Chalmers of Farmington and Mrs. Barbara Knapp of Birmingham.

To become a Farmington-Southfield FISH volunteer, attend a meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 10, in Orchard United Methodist Church, 30450 Farmington Road, Farmington.

To get emergency assistance from FISH, call 352-5470.

It's part of a nationwide movement designed to help those in need on an immediate, one-to-one basis.

WITH VOLUNTEERS enlisting quickly, the Farmington-Southfield program now is geared to provide needed transportation, emergency food, clothing and furniture, and sometimes baby-sitting, shopping and housework.

Mrs. Chalmers listed just a few of the services that the volunteers have been able to provide:

• A young student unable to drive because of a health condition has been transported to classes twice a week, with different volunteers helping.

• Semi-invalids are driven to doctor appointments.

• When the mother of several children was hospitalized unexpectedly, one volunteer took the family into her home for several weeks, caring for them as well as feeding and clothing them.

• A young family aided an elderly woman by driving her across the metropolitan area to visit her invalid sister for Christmas day. They brought her home too.

THE FISH VOLUNTEERS are taking care of between 100 and 175 calls per month, Mrs. Chalmers said.

They extend their service in the area bounded by Eight Mile, 14 Mile, Greenfield and Haggerty, she said, but added:

"However, we are flexible and try to help all calls."

As the program is set up, an answering service (the only expense other than mailing) receives requests for assistance. These are relayed during daytime hours to the "Fish For The Day," who stays near the telephone for that purpose, or during night hours to one of the volunteers who has offered to be on 24-hour call.

Volunteers, including retired couples, housewives, students and others, then are assigned the particular job. "We emphasize that this is to be an emergency type of request," Mrs. Chalmers said. "The volunteers have families and want to be of help, but they have limited time to offer."

WORKING ARRANGEMENTS with several churches in Farmington and Southfield have increased the program's effectiveness.

The First Presbyterian Church of Farmington, Southfield United Presbyterian and North Congregational all keep collections of clothing for emergency needs.

The two Southfield congregations also keep a supply of food staples.

More churches collecting food and clothing would be helpful, Mrs. Chalmers said, suggesting that young peoples' groups might be of assistance in this area. She said the FISH program also needs a place to store furniture.

"Up to now we have rounded up furniture when the calls came in," she explained, "and haven't been able to accept any that could not be put to immediate use."

MRS. KNAPP now serves as general chairman for the program and Mrs. Chalmers is Farmington area coordinator.

FISH groups, taking their name from a sign used by early Christians, have been organized by concerned individuals and churches in Livonia, Redford Township, northwest Detroit, Brighton, Clawson-Royal Oak, Holly, Howell, Lansing, Pontiac, South Lyon, Taylor and Trenton.

Mrs. Chalmers said she also had corresponded with friends who have helped organize groups in Alpena and Marquette.

"We try to keep the program as unstructured as possible," she said, "believing that spontaneity and neighborliness are the key ingredients."

Graham Film To Be Shown

The Billy Graham film, "The Lost Generation," will be shown at 5:30 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 6, in Evangelical Covenant Church, 24331 W. Eight Mile, Detroit.

The showing is the final event of a Youth Week observance that began Jan. 30 in the church. Young people of the church also will participate in the Feb. 6 morning communion service in Evangelical Covenant.

ECUMENICAL REFLECTIONS

By WILLIAM A. RITTER
Newburg United Methodist Church

My morning paper tells me this is my lucky year! It finally appears to be a safe time to expose myself to the draft. My lottery number is 356! Of course I am also 31 years old and possessed of a deferment that comes naturally to one in my field.

But my morning paper also brings to light the stories of three men who do not share my immunity, or have chosen not to share it if they could. Perhaps there is no connection whatsoever to their stories - perhaps they are best told apart from each other. I group them here simply because of the effect they have on me.

Each becomes a human face within an issue. Each becomes a personality often hidden by abstract concepts of war and peace, of conscription and objection.

THE FIRST STORY is that of Shokichi Yokoi, the Japanese soldier who hid in the caves of Guam for 27 years after World War II unaware that the war was ended. Wednesday he returned to his homeland to collect the cheers of his countrymen and $162 in Army back pay, neither of which is going to make him feel much better or last very long.

What is more interesting is the intensity of his guilt and the fanatic character of his devotion. His dominant emotion is shame for failing to die on behalf of his Emperor. On returning his rifle, he expressed sorrow that he could not serve to his satisfaction. Upon his return to Tokyo he was confronted with the incredible new world of transistors and technology. A jet plane bridged 2,000 miles and 27 years of separation in a little less than three hours.

But the impact of technology was not the greatest shock to his awareness. Far more astounding was the mindset of a new Japan. There was no devotion to a deified Emperor - indeed to the pictures of his ruler adorned such common things as billboards and magazines. There was not the militaristic unity of the days before Hiroshima. Nationalism today meant pluralism - many thoughts, many goals, many ways. All around were the young, with places to go, and things to do, and worlds to see. For a man who lived in caves with but one purpose and one regret, it must have seemed that nobody cared.

I suspect he will soon realize that while everyone loves him for his devotion - it is not their devotion. Now to the shame of his own conscience, and the adulation of his new countrymen, he must add the burden of feeling quite the fool. It is no wonder that word has it he wishes to return to solitude, this time perhaps a retreat in the mountains. He has been beneath it all, now maybe he can get above it all and learn whether either makes any sense.

THE SECOND FACE belongs to one more widely known for some time, Father Daniel Berrigan. The 51-year old priest now in the Federal Correctional Institute in Danbury, Connecticut, is to be paroled on Feb. 24, 19 months short of serving a three-year term for the destruction of draft records in Catonsville, Maryland.

There is not time to comment on the nature of his actions, nor upon the justness of his imprisonment. Neither is it the moment to discuss the fate of his brother, the Harrisburg 7, and the alleged plot to destroy Washington heating ducts and kidnap Henry Kissinger.

What is interesting today is the speculation concerning Father Berrigan's release. Widely circulated rumor has it that the Brothers Berrigan have been strongly suggested for nomination in Stockholm for the Nobel prize for peace.

Parole may have come to Daniel Berrigan as a matter of course. It may have come because the 51-year old priest is known to be in poor health. It may have come simply to allow the attendant publicity to focus on Brother Phillip without making it seem that the brothers were victims of political repression. The parole may also have come to Daniel Berrigan so that should the two Americans receive the Nobel prize, at least one of them will not be sitting behind prison walls.

THE THIRD FACE is more anonymous. It belongs to a young Michigan sailor, Rick Larson, who recently ended four nights of sanctuary in two San Francisco churches. He is now serving time for unauthorized absence at Treasure Island, has paid the appropriate fines and accepted his reduction in rank.

He never raised the question of conscience before, entering the Navy and serving fittingly for a year on an aircraft carrier.

While at home over Christmas vacation, Rick decided that he was a conscientious objector.

His Navy chaplain doubts that he is sincere, in that he did not process a CO application before entering the service.

I suspect the same kind of logic makes heroes out of people who spent 27 years fighting left-over wars in long forgotten caves. The faces of such men, however, blur the distinction between a nation's heroes and a nation's embarrassments. Their stories ask more questions than they answer.

Church Still Must Work To Eliminate Poverty

By CHARLOTTE MAJNER
Special Writer

The elimination of poverty in the United States was urged by Bishop Michael R. Dempsey, auxiliary bishop of Chicago who spoke at the St. Agatha Catholic Parish education council lecture series Thursday.

"The church always was the friend of the poor, but poverty is a sensitive and complex problem, and the church must help to remove it," said the bishop.

"I want to say so much about poverty, but I refuse to speak in the voice of the poor because they have a strong voice of their own," added Bishop Dempsey.

HE RAN A 30-minute movie, "To Be a People Again," which explained the function of the Campaign for Human Development. It showed the campaign's attempts to get to the basic cause of poverty by helping the poor with job placements, loans and better housing.

"We show compassion toward the poor by helping them," he said, "but 20 years later we are still helping them because we have not taught them to help themselves."

He considers the problem of the poor to be everybody's concern since so many areas of this country are being affected by poverty. He questioned welfare as a solution to increasing unemployment of the poor in a country like ours.

STRESSING THE role of the church in the solution of poverty, he said that the church has been concerned with the poor ever since the Acts of the Apostles. However, today the poor are just as poor and hungry as they were then.

"Too long have we dealt with the effects of poverty and not the causes of it," said Bishop Dempsey.

The important thing, according to the bishop, is not that we raise money for the poor but change attitudes so that the poor are respected.

"I suggest that we give Christ a job so that He will not be hungry tomorrow and give Him a home so He will not be cold," he said.

BISHOP DEMPSEY feels that it is the role of Christian people to motivate America so that poverty will be destroyed. He feels that the church of the 1970s should become involved in three campaigns pushing for:

1. Guaranteed adequate income for each family.
2. Meaningful job opportunities for the poor.
3. Improvement of the environment of the poor.

According to Bishop Dempsey, welfare allotments are only half of what people really need. The myth that welfare people are too lazy to work must be destroyed. The poor must be given more meaningful jobs instead of letting them scramble for jobs that nobody else wants.

He sees the Campaign for Human Development as a new era for the poor.

"We don't need a lot of money, but a lot of concern," concluded Bishop Dempsey.

ADELE WEAVER, left, and Nancy Gilles talk over the coming investigation into identity program they will help lead beginning Feb. 15. (Observer photo by Maurie Walker)

2 Livonians To Help Women Investigate Their Identity

Two Livonia women who have found their own self-knowledge an exciting quest will help others make similar discoveries in a new course beginning Feb. 15 on the University of Michigan Dearborn campus.

Adele Weaver, 18310 Laurel, and Nancy Gilles, 15744

Stamford, will work with an "Investigation into Identity" program offered by the Oakland University Continuum Center at Fairlane Conference Center.

Mrs. Weaver, who took the same course herself in 1968, will be a coordinator for the new series, and Mrs. Gilles will be one of the small group leaders. She is one of two women accepted this year by the Continuum Center as group leaders.

THE COURSE aims at helping women learn more about themselves to decide how to make more satisfying use of their lives.

The first session, from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. Feb. 15, will be an orientation-type meeting and there is no charge.

It gives a capsule idea of the program contents—behavioral, vocational and educational testing and encounter discussions within a small group setting.

Women interested then may enroll for the rest of the sessions, to be held Tuesday and Thursday afternoons until March 14.

MRS. WEAVER has four children, one still at home, and said she originally enrolled in the investigation course because, although she had many interests, "I was looking for a new direction."

Now, besides working with others in the Continuum programs, she is studying at Schoolcraft College.

Her involvement with the identity course, she added, "has opened up all sorts of things—it's really exciting to me to see women get turned on."

MRS. GILLES, whose children, Mark, David and Linda, are school-aged, said she had come to the conclusion that "I'm not a club person," and found that the identity program offered "a new way of looking at myself."

"It showed me how to look outward and find out what's in the world for me," she said. "And I found a place where my feelings were accepted readily and learned that other women have the same feelings."

Other than working with other women in the continuum series, she hasn't made any definite commitment on activity outside the family, but has some plans in the formulating stage.

"I'm still finding out who I am," she said, "and I don't want to channel myself too soon."

Aggies In Playoffs

OL St. Mary Tips St. Agatha

By TOM DONOGHUE
Observer Sports Editor

St. Agatha concluded its regular season basketball action with a 59-44 loss to state ranked Orchard Lake St. Mary. The Aggies ended up in third place in the Catholic League Second Division West behind St. Alphonsus and OL St. Mary with an 8-6 mark. St. Hedwig captured the fourth and final playoff berth with a win over Ann Arbor St. Thomas. The playoffs start Sunday, (Feb. 6) at U-D Memorial Building and St. Agatha is pitted against St. Florian in the 8 p.m. clash. If the Aggies win Sunday, they will continue their championship quest next Saturday with the championship battle being played on Feb. 20.

ST. FLORIAN finished second in the east side second division with a 12-2 record. Aggie Coach Tom Sankovic was not impressed by Orchard Lake St. Mary but the Eaglets concluded their season with a 13-1 mark. "A sort of interesting occurrence took place in our gym before the game," said Sankovic. "Brand new rims were installed. "The ball just wasn't dropping in for us," added Sankovic. "It was really bouncing off the rims." St. Agatha won the opening tip but St. Mary popped in the first basket with the two squads battling to a 11-11 first quarter score. ST. MARY led most of the second quarter, but the Aggies did tie the score with three minutes remaining in the half on a two pointer by Pat

Brown, but this was the closest St. Agatha got to St. Mary. The Eaglets jumped to a seven point halftime advantage, 28-21, and it was easy sailing the second half for the No. 3 team in class C basketball. St. Agatha shot 33 per cent from the floor on 22 of 66 shots and hit on only four of 14 from the line. "We stayed with them on the defensive boards," said Sankovic. "But they were getting two to three shots on their basket." St. Agatha dropped a 70-54 cage decision to Ann Arbor St. Thomas in a game that Coach Tom Sankovic found very difficult to get his players "up." "We clinched third place in the Second Division West and are guaranteed a spot in the Catholic League playoffs," added Sankovic. "St. Thomas is fighting for the No. 4 position which is the last playoff spot and we just couldn't get up for the battle." THE AGGIES stand 8-5, losing to St. Alphonsus twice, Orchard Lake St. Mary, St. Hedwig and St. Thomas. Mark Miron popped in eight points and led St. Agatha to a 16-14 first quarter edge but St. Thomas came back in the second quarter to tie it at the half, 34-34. St. Thomas exploded for 20 points in the third while St. Agatha mustered only 10 and the Aggies trailed going into the fourth quarter, 53-44. "St. Thomas just came out and blitzed us in the third quarter," added Sankovic. Each squad substituted freely in the final quarter and the Aggies dropped a 16 point clash. THE AGGIES scored 46 per cent from the field on 24 of 52 with Miron collecting 20 points and Tom Nembs adding 11. Len Lillard paced St. Thomas with 28 points, followed by Ken Richard and Gene Hadley with 10 apiece.

Southfield Upsets Bentley
In 'First' 5-3 Hockey Clash

By TOM DONOGHUE
Observer Sports Editor

It was a first in Observerland hockey ... The Southfield High pucksters finally defeated a Livonia school and the "goat" turned out to be the Bentley Bulldogs who fell, 5-3. "It's really tough being the first to fall to Southfield," said Bentley Coach Mike Dudley. "They have been improving and they are really starting to skate, but why did it have to be us?" Bentley had toppled Southfield twice before, 6-2 and 8-1, and the closest the Jays came to beating a Livonia team was in a 4-3 loss to Franklin. Bentley outshot Southfield in the first period, 15-6, but the Blue Jays outscored the Bulldogs, 3-1. Half of the Southfield shots slipped by goalie, Mark Reid.

JOESZYDLOWSKI opened the Southfield scoring with only 20 seconds elapsed and Steve Feldman and Bruce Manchek followed suit to give the Blue Jays a 3-0 lead. Don Coombe got Bentley on the scoreboard with a goal at the 13:55 mark but the Jays led 3-1. Greg McKernan put Bentley one down in the second on a powerplay goal at 1:54 and the Bulldogs trailed 3-2 going into the final 15 minutes. Bentley again outshot Southfield, 17-7 but once again Craig Soubiliere shut the door with the help of the goal posts on more than one occasion. BRUCE DIGUE and Bob Mead put "the icing on the cake" for the first Southfield win with power play goals in the third giving the Blue Jays a 5-2 advantage. Mark Evasic scored for Bentley in the closing minutes but the damage was done. Southfield travels to Ford Ice Rink Wednesday for a 3:30 p.m. clash with Stevenson and hosts Franklin on Thursday. Bentley and Stevenson go at it Friday in a 7 p.m. contest at Ford.

Trojans Bounce From Behind
To Edge Northville, 66-64

Clarenceville trailed for three quarters, tied it up at the end of regulation play, and went on to topple Northville in overtime, 66-64. The Trojans stand 8-2 overall and host Waterford Kettering Friday in a Wayne-Oakland battle. Clarenceville is in second place with a 4-2 mark behind Clarkston at 5-1. Kettering is tied for fourth with a 2-4 record.

CHIP MEYRELLES hit four times in the opening minutes and Clarenceville jumped to a 10-2 lead, however Northville bounced back to take an 18-14 first quarter edge. Northville went up by as much as 11 in the second quarter but Clarenceville fought back to trail by one at the half, 29-28. The score seesawed in the third with Northville again holding a one point margin, 45-44, going into the final eight minutes. With 36 seconds remaining, Northville was up by five but Trojan Jim Hover made good on a three-point play. Meyrelles stole a pass and passed to Phil Halstead who was fouled. Halstead made good twice from the line and the score was tied 58-58, at the end of regulation time.

CLARENCEVILLE took the lead in overtime and maintained it through the three minute span, outscoring Northville eight to six. Halstead was the sparkplug in overtime, scoring seven of the eight Trojan points. His 12 footer with 16 seconds remaining was the margin of victory. Northville missed on its opportunity to knot the score when it failed to make good a one-and-one situation with three seconds left on the clock. Clarenceville scored 50 per cent from the floor, hitting on 26 of 62, while Northville connected on 25 of 49 for 51 per cent. Northville hit on 14 of 26 from the line and Clarenceville made good 14 of 25. Halstead led in scoring with 34 points and hauled in 16 rebounds along with six assists. Meyrelles added 17 to the Trojan scoring attack.

IN THE POCKET

By W.W. EDGAR

The highest honor for a woman bowler in America has been bestowed upon Stella Hartrick, lead-off on the legendary Olympic team that dominated women's bowling three decades ago.

She has been named to the Hall of Fame sponsored by the Woman's International Bowling Congress and will be inducted with appropriate ceremonies during the WIBC tournament in Kansas City on May 1.

Now 76 and still bowling twice a week she couldn't make herself believe it when told that she was named for the high honor.

"Imagine this", she said, "a

woman near 80 years old, having something like this happen. I've been so shaken up that my average has dropped in both my Tuesday and Wednesday leagues."

WHEN SHE ENTERS the Hall of Fame she will share honors with an old teammate—the late Louise Stockdale who was the first Detroit woman so honored back in 1953.

During the heyday of the Olympic team, captained by Clara Allen, it won the city championship six successive years starting in 1935 and then won for the seventh time in 1945. It also won the state title seven times between 1931 and 1948 and the Central States crown five times starting in 1925.

Stella also won the city singles in 1941 and the state singles in 1929 and 1936, shared the national doubles with Clara Allen in 1942. She also won the city doubles with Ann Stowe in 1931 and repeated the following year with Ruth Rieck as a partner.

Among her other titles she won the state all-events in 1933, the Central States all-events in 1938 and the President's Trophy in 1941.

Mrs. Hartrick, who still carries a 152 average in her two leagues, was inducted into the Detroit Hall of Fame in 1960.

JACK TREOLAR, a member of the "Coke" team in the All-Star Classic won the Masters Tournament sponsored last week by the Greater Detroit Bowling Association, and helped continue the tradition that no champion ever has repeated in the highly competitive event.

To gain the title Jack went through the head-to-head matches without a defeat and beat Tony Liacano, 849 to 805, in the four game championship match.

Fred McLean finished third while Mike Samardija, the defending champion, trailed in sixth place.

BILL WALKER who posted an 815 series a few weeks ago still is on a scoring rampage in the Wonderland Classic.

This week he strung games of 249, 258 and 202 for 709, but had to yield to Jerry Heilstedt with a 713 for top honors.

Jimmy Shelp and Bill Lane tied at 702 to help the Farris Bros. team link games of 1139, 1011 and 1152 for 3302.

Phyllis Himelston rolled the highest series of the year for women at Oak Park when she inserted a 232 for a 632 count. To gain the honor she beat out Shirley Olli who had games of 204, 208 and 197 for 609.

SEASON HIGH series marks were established in two houses during the past week.

Dale Oversby, bowling in the Go-Getter League at Merri-Bowl, boosted the mark to 713 on games of 234, 278 and 201. Over at Mayflower Lanes Robert Wilson, of the Auto-Lite league put together games of 253, 209 and 245 for 705 and a high mark.

Other high scores at Mayflower included Jo Anne McIntyre's 226 in 546 and Stan Wozniak's 639 in the Jr. House League.

GAIL PARSONS learned about pressure bowling at Country Lanes Tuesday morning when she opened with a 266 then slumped and had to be content with a 569 series.

ANOTHER WHO "choked" was Bill Montgomery in the Moose League at Garden Lanes. Starting with a 224, he added a 248, then it happened. Under pressure he fell to 188 and settled for 660.

With a steady 685 on games of 219, 254 and 212, Mike Milen paced the Garden Classic. He gained a 39 pin lead over Bill Collett while Ron Thorpe had a 642 and Paul Ishken a 637.

Lois Merriman showed the way in the Livonia Lanes Women's Classic with a 539-90-629 that included a single game of 197-30-227. Other single game winners were Lois McAllister with 191-18-209 and Teresa Drus with 200-35-235.

WESTLAND BOWL still is a favorite spot for Hal Jolley. He topped the Classic again with a 727 that included games of 260, 190 and 277. His closest rivals were Greg Nicora with a 235 in 662 and Rick Capaldi with a 661.

David Pashkoff, a 16-year-old, paced the Junior League again with games of 268, 143 and 231 for 642.

LITTLE JIM HAMLIN had another good day in the prep division at Farmington Lanes with a 186 game in a 524 series. And he's just 11 years old.

Sharon Douglas showed the way to the Jr. High Girls with a 216 in 484.

In the Teen Classic it was Kevin Hibbs who stole the show among the girls with a 214 in 588. Other high scorers included Jackie Bird 499. Among the boys it was John Hunt with 237 in 620 and Gary Grimes with 589.

LANES NO. 7 and 8 at Bel-Aire produced moments of both joy and depression during the week.

After piling up 11 strikes in a row in the Classic on this pair John Kotecki left the 5-10 standing on a solid hit and was forced to accept a 298.

Meanwhile, Mary Ann Orchaindeau, bowling on the same pair in another league, converted the "impossible" double pinochle.

Erv Watson Jr., also was hit by pressure in the Businessmen's League. He opened with games of 275 and 230 and fell to 189 for a 694. John Lennon trailed with 675 and Jim McMillan had a 655 and Mike Miller a 654.

Stevenson Captures Honors In Livonia Wrestling Quad

Stevenson captured honors in the 2nd annual Livonia Wrestling Quadrangular meet with a 121 point total.

Bentley finished second with 85 points, Churchill placed third with 61 and last year's winner, Franklin, came in fourth with 37.

The Spartan wrestlers captured nine individual firsts, two seconds and one third.

Bentley's Pete Beck won honors in the 98 pound class with a 1:31 pin over Churchill's Pat Mullin. Spartan Tom Norman placed third by way of a bye.

STEVE BECK of Bentley outscored Spartan Steve Parent, 11-2, in the final 105 pound match and Churchill's John Hesse topped Franklin's Paul Muscat, 4-0, for third.

Stevenson's Greg Antonishek won the 112 pound category by default over Bulldog Paul Murphy and Bill Mills of Churchill pinned Franklin's Ed Kamm for a third.

Chuck Orlando outscored Bentley's Jeff Oliver for a Spartan win in the 119 pound class and Bob Rose took third for Churchill with a 4:52 pin over Franklin's Dan Oda.

JEFF ANGELOSANTE of Stevenson shutout Churchill's Rick Boehms in the 126 pound match, 7-0, and Franklin's Randy Eply lost to Bulldog John Lawson in the consolation round.

Stevenson's Steve Miller defeated Bob Ross of Franklin in the final 132 pound match, 4-2, and Bentley's Bill Robinson took third with a 14-1 win over Churchill's Dave Store.

In the 138 pound class, Kevin Beavers of Stevenson pinned Bentley's Doug Whistler in 5:04 and Churchill's Kris Schultz defeated Franklin's Colton Thompson, 8-4, for a third.

SPARTAN Don Norman outscored Greg Burke of Bentley, 7-1, for the 145 pound crown and Bob Stowers of Churchill captured third against Steve Gordon of Franklin, with a 3:58 pin.

David Stein won the 155 pound title with a 3-2 edging over Franklin's John Piippo and Churchill's Mike Martz pinned Bob Baker of Bentley in 1:28.

Brian Partie won the 167 pound crown for Stevenson with a 3:55 pin of Churchill's Terry Driscoll. Bentley's Bob Horback won third with a 11-7 score over Franklin's Steve Corte.

IN THE 185 POUND CLASS, Bentley's Bob Abar won in overtime against Stevenson's Glen Shaw and Patriot

Charles Clark took third with a 4:46 pin over Charger Mike Zakerski.

Stevenson's Rich Setzer won the heavyweight title with a 5:34 pin over Bentley's Ron Reardon.

Turf Tips, Quips

By Doc Minard

With opening day on Saturday, Feb. 26 only three weeks away, the sale of Hazel Park hasn't been completed and now it appears the east side plant will start operations under the same owners it had when the 1971 racing season ended there last Dec. 18.

Little has come out of Hazel Park about the sale since mid-December with the exception of announcements of a new director of racing and a new firm to handle publicity and public relations. The last named post reportedly has been turned over to the Ery Steiner organization.

Erv isn't as well known for activities in horse racing as he is in promoting the Gold Cup boat races, a massive antique show and other events of a similar nature.

It is known that the track has been opened for workouts and that many of the stalls have been filled. But the mass entrance isn't expected for another week and then horses will be shipped in from Toledo, Liberty Bell, Maryland and the southland for the 32 day meeting for thoroughbreds of a cheaper class.

At the end of the 32 days, Hazel Park expects an influx from Kentucky, Oaklawn Park and some of the Florida ovals.

There isn't any question in the minds of those close to the picture but that Michigan will have its finest racing in several years once the major 90 day session opens.

Gov. Milliken was slated to sign the new racing bill Friday ... that will give the tracks an additional one per cent of the mutual handle to work with and half of it already has been allocated to purses by the contract between the tracks and horsemen guaranteeing 50 per cent of the management's share for purses.

Track operators believe this will add some $5,000 to the purses daily and will place Detroit in a competitive position to bid for the top stables with Chicago.

It is a well-known fact that many of the better horses were shipped to Chicago last year where the money was better.

Signing of the racing bill is expected to speed up negotiations between the tracks and the mutual clerks union on a new contract. Talks had lagged in recent meetings pending action on the bill ... now both sides know what to expect and hard negotiations are slated to begin at once.

THE FIRST PHASE of Michigan's winter racing program ended a week ago when Jackson-Northville closed its 25 night season and Northville Downs opened the second phases last Monday.

The Jackson-Northville campaign wasn't the howling success that most everyone predicted but it was successful enough for President and General Manager Leon Slavin to smile over the final figures.

"Naturally, we would have been happier with better crowd and 'wagering figures,'" Slavin said, "But when you consider that we were dark for two weeks and then had to go against competition that never closed during the holidays ... well, we did amazingly well."

The final night presented proof positive that winter racing had caught on with Michigan fans. Both the turnout of 5,171 and the handle of $397,535 were highs for a Michigan winter meet.

On the strength of the final night showing, the meet averaged $247,471 in handle, and 2,962 in nightly attendance. Total amount wagered for the meet was $6,186,773 and attendance reached 74,043.

Merrit Dokey, the Kalamazoo native, successfully defended his twin championships, percentage, and wins from the fall meet. The jockey-sized driver, who specializes in contract and catch driving rather than in training a large stable, won 15 races to edge Duane Dilworth, Clayton, by one.

Mal Phillips, Pontiac, closed strongly to finish third on the win list with 12, while grouped a length back, at 11 were Don McMurray, Gordon Norris, and Tom Harmer. Dokey's percentage was 391.

An outstanding win streak was still alive by virtue of a closing night win. Orbery Johns, Pinckney, guided his Warpath gelding, Warhops to a sixth consecutive victory, in a string that started late in the fall meet.

Seldom, if ever, is a meet completed without an outstanding mutuels payoff somewhere along the line. Twice during the meet a trifecta return soared over the $5,000 level, first at $5,334, and seven nights later at $5,428.60, a record that made at least six persons extremely happy that winter racing had come to Michigan to stay.

IT TOOK a bit of doing but the racing strip at Northville Downs is now an all-weather track conditioned to handle any kind of weather.

After the way the inside of the track broke up in mid-January following an unseasonable thaw and heavy rains, Executive Manager John Carlo took the matter in hand personally.

He supervised the addition of limestone to seal the racing surface and then had the track crew spend hours filling the holes along the rail.

The result is reflected in racing this week where several races have went in better than 2:10 ... amazing for horses during this time of the year.

"And the times will be better," promised Carlo, "The drivers know they can depend on the track and they are using their horses more instead of handling them cautiously."

Series Edge

Wayne State University's 27-8 victory at South Dakota State in 1971 gave the Tartars a 2-1 series edge. The schools are not scheduled in football in the immediate future.

ABC To Probe High Scoring

By W.W. EDGAR

Deeply concerned in the wave of high scores flooding the nation, the American Bowling Congress has launched an investigation to determine whether there has been any "doctoring" of the lanes.

More than 25 high scores that ordinarily would qualify for awards have been referred with recommendations for rejection when the awards committee meets at the ABC tournament in March.

Fortunately, none of the scores is from the Detroit area, though the investigators have been working in the metropolitan area for the past few weeks.

"They were out here", George Bashara, owner of the high scoring Wonderland Lanes, in Livonia, commented, "but found nothing wrong and we have had five perfect games and a big 3400 series."

What really touched off the investigation was the performance of a 10 team league, which the ABC has refused to name at this time. On this particular night the league had a 3651 team count, three high 3500s, a 300, a 299, and three 800 series.

FRANK K. BAKER, secretary of the ABC, who guards the integrity of the game, explained that, unfortunately, many of the problems seem to have evolved from the efforts of maintenance men to meet the requirements of the fire underwriters.

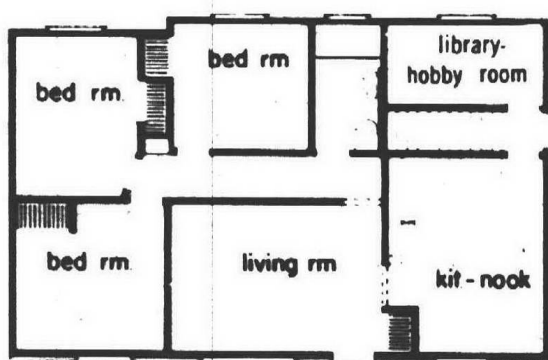

He also called attention to the fact that with increased lineage the ball track has a tendency to dry up and the adjustments on the automatic lane dressing machines have caused oil to pile up in the center of the lane and thus affect scoring.

Tom McKay, secretary of the Greater Detroit Bowling Association, confided that the ABC field men have been working throughout the area, but that no reports have been filed to date.

Despite the high scoring in the Detroit area it has been years since any major charge has been leveled at any of the bowling establishments. The last charge was made about 10 years ago and that followed what appeared to be "unrealistic" scores at Oxford Lanes.

Chargers Fall To Wayne In Non-Leaguer, 75-62

Churchill stands tall in the Western Six basketball race with a 5-0 mark but the Chargers are having trouble getting it all together in non-league clashes.

The Chargers dropped their fourth straight non-league battle to Wayne Memorial, 75-62, and stand 4-4 in non-league competition and 9-4 overall.

"They just zipped us," said

Churchill Coach Pat Montagano. "We led the entire first quarter, but we couldn't do a thing afterwards."

THE CHARGERS spurred to an 18-16 first quarter edge but quickly fell behind in the second frame with Wayne grabbing a 34-28 halftime advantage.

Wayne maintained its lead in the third quarter and led going into the final quarter, 50-46. Churchill jumped to within two early in the fourth but Wayne got hot and steadily pulled away.

"At the start of the second quarter, they came out like gangbusters and chewed us up," added Montagano.

CHURCHILL hit 18 of 49 from the floor for 31 per cent and Wayne scored 45 per cent on 26 of 57.

Wayne made good 23 of 35 from the line and Churchill popped in 26 of 36.

Brian Sherman paced Churchill with 16 points, followed by Mike Keller with 12. Chuck Slamer led Wayne with 25 and Randy Lucas added 16.

Churchill hosts Waterford Mott Friday.

Borgess Tips Cabrini In Cliffhanger, 58-57

Bishop Borgess pushed its league mark to 3-5 with a 58-57 cage win over Cabrini and now stands 5-7 overall.

The Spartans have been eliminated from the Catholic League playoffs but host Pontiac Catholic Tuesday in an attempt to better their league record.

Cabrini sprinted to a 7-0 lead and held an 11-6 first quarter edge but Borgess fought back with 21 points in the second stanza to hold a slim 27-26 halftime edge. The Spartans hit on six of 12 from the field and nine from the line to capture the lead.

the margin to one point with 48 seconds showing on a bucket by Shawn McCarthy.

Cabrini was guilty of a violation in taking the ball out of bounds and Borgess regained possession. McCarthy missed on a scoring opportunity but Mark Sopko tipped in the rebound to put Borgess in front with 15 seconds remaining.

Cabrini never got off a shot and Borgess had scored a come from behind win, with Cabrini not putting the ball in the hoop in the final 2 1/2 minutes.

with 20 points followed by Greg Battle with 15. Sopko also led in rebounding with 16.

Cabrini was led by Ron Montroy with 20 points and Greg McKeenan with 14.

Panfish are really hitting for ice fishermen these days, and here are some of the southeastern Michigan hot spots:

Perch -- Union, Teeple, Oxbow, Cass and Elizabeth lakes in Oakland County. Generally, large deep lakes produce the best perch fishing, but you have to move around and try various depths to find the schools. They like minnows but will also hit teardrops and grubs.

Bluegills -- Cass, Graham, Valley, Kent, Big Seven, Little Seven and Spring are producing.

Splake -- Fair catches on Deer and Maceday lakes.

In western Wayne County, the Huron River in Huron Township is producing small to medium panfish.

A FEW MONTHS ago, we reported on how the property owners and state teamed up to launch a fish kill and restocking project on the Proud Lake chain.

Well, now the folks on the three Straits lakes just east of there say they've got problems, too -- slow-growing sport fish, an abundance of rough fish. Lower and Middle Straits had the worst problems.

They will hold three public meetings to discuss possible solutions. Feb. 8's topic will be Middle Straits, Feb. 9 for Lower, Feb. 16 for Upper Straits. All meetings will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Clifford Smart High School, Commerce Road.

That goes to show you: You can be heard by the DNR if you have a group and some money behind you.

Trojan Gymnasts Win

Clarenceville put together its highest point production in a gymnastic victory over Alpena, 103.85 to 81.30.

The Trojans won seven events with Jack Waterstone taking first in the horizontal and parallel bars. Clarenceville dominated the parallel bar event, capturing the first four places.

CLARENCEVILLE travels to Ann Arbor Pioneer Wednesday.

Harrison also fell to the Trojan gymnasts, 96.55 to 62.40.

Clarenceville swept each of the events with Jack Waterstone taking first in the horizontal bar and Dan Waterstone first in still rings.

THE TROJANS dominated the parallel bars again, capturing the first four places and winning the first three places in the horizontal bar and still ring events.

Harrison hosts Trenton Wednesday.

Vera Zorina Will Narrate 'Joan Of Arc'

Stage, screen and concert star Vera Zorina heads a list of guests who will appear with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in Arthur Honegger's large-scale dramatic oratorio "Joan of Arc at the Stake."

The work will comprise the entire Detroit Symphony program to be conducted by Sixten Ehrling, this Thursday and Saturday evenings (Feb. 10 and 12) at 8:30 in Ford Auditorium.

"Joan of Arc at the Stake" calls for a large assemblage of performers—narrators, vocal soloists, mixed chorus, children's choir and full orchestra. The Detroit Symphony has never before scheduled the work, which was written in 1935.

Vera Zorina will narrate the role of Joan of Arc. It is the same role that led to a career as a concert stage narrator for Miss Zorina. She was invited by the late conductor Artur Rodzinski to create the role for the American premiere of the work in 1948 and since then has been praised as the leading interpreter of the oratorio.

The Detroit performances will be in English.

Other participants will include the Rev. James Dockery, S.J. in a narrator's role; vocal soloists Roberta Alexander, soprano, Trudie Stevenson, soprano, Rosemary Russell, contralto, Waldie Anderson, tenor, John Martins, tenor, and Daniel Berry, bass baritone; the University of Michigan Choir; and the Boys' Choir of Christ Church, Episcopal, Grosse Pointe.

Tickets are available at auditorium box office, Hudson's and Grinnell's.

South Seas Drama To Open At Schoolcraft

There may be snow outside, but the accent will be on the steaming heat of the tropics and the torrential downpours inside the Liberal Arts Theatre of Schoolcraft College this week.

The Drama Club of the College (Masque Players) has chosen "Rain" as its third production of the year, to be staged Feb. 9 through 12, at 8 p.m., and Feb. 13, at 7 p.m. Tickets may be obtained at the Campus Bookstore or the Student Affairs Office, at the college, 18600 Haggerty, Livonia, or from any member of the club. Tickets will also be on sale at the door.

For reservations, call the speech and drama department.

SETTING OF the play, based on W. Somerset Maugham's short story, "Miss Thompson," is in a South Seas hotel where British sailors and American Marines hang around and where Sadie Thompson helps entertain them.

Sadie is fleeing from the law of California and has found a safe refuge on the island of Pago Pago. In the motley company staying at the hotel are a traveling physician and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. McPhail, and a missionary couple, the Rev. and Mrs. Davidson. Rev. Davidson is bent on saving Sadie's soul, but she has other ideas.

Nancy Sheehan of Livonia has been cast as Sadie and Glenn Solowick of Plymouth is playing Rev. Davidson. Others in the cast are Judy Utley of Northville, Mrs. Horn; Dennis Saltarelli of Livonia, Joe Horn; Charles Dumas of Livonia, Dr. McPhail; Sharon Milligan of Plymouth, Mrs. Davidson; Cheryl Smith, Mrs. Davidson; Tom McLellan, Sergeant O'Hara; Jim Watt, Quartermaster Bates; Mark Hlohinec, Hodgson; and James McNeice, Griggs.

Miss Utley and Glenn Coleman are the student directors, and John Murphy is the stage manager. "Rain" had its first American production in 1922. Jeanne Eagels starred in the Broadway version, and nearly 30 years later Rita Hayworth played Sadie in a musical version. It was also made into a motion picture several years ago.

Livonian Gets Lead Role In 'King Lear'

KALAMAZOO Shakespeare's "King Lear" will be performed on the stage of Western Michigan University's Shaw Theatre Feb. 9 to 12 at 8 p.m. Tickets are now on sale at the office. Playing the role of King Lear is William V. Roberts of Livonia. A graduate of Bentley High School, he is a senior at WMU. Robert Cooper Brown of Farmington is playing the part of the King of France. Also in the cast are Joan Kavakian and Jeffrey Osterhage, both of Farmington.

DICK BENSEK

Coffee came to Paris in 1669 when a Turkish ambassador, Soliman Aga, set up residence in a palace near Paris. Soon Paris was bombarded with everything Turkish — including coffee. In no other capital did the coffee house play as important a role as in Vienna, however, where grew up a special cafe for every group and class, for young men, artists, journalists, workingmen etc. Whenever a Viennese wished to see a friend, he went first to the cafe which the friend was known to frequent. To go with the coffee, elaborate pastries were offered; in fact, no other city in the world has ever matched Vienna for pastry!

People like to frequent the friendly place, DANISH INN, 32305 Grand River Ave., 476-5320. Beautiful supper club atmosphere with Pat Flowers playing the piano Tues. thru Sat. 8:30 p.m. to closing. We have decorated cakes available for those celebrating birthdays or anniversaries.
