Different Era

Back in The Stroller's youth, when Memorial Day was better known as Decoration Day, the parades were marked by the men in blue from the Grand Army of the Republic. It was part of a spirit that The Stroller finds lacking in the memorial ceremonies of the present era.

Deputy School Supt. Hired From Ohio For $28,000

By KATHY MORAN

Even the school administrators were caught off guard this week when the Plymouth Board of Education announced the appointment of a new deputy superintendent.

The appointment changes the administrative structure of the district and brings the school administration back to full capacity.

First to be announced after an "executive" (secret) session was the appointment of John ("Mike") Hoben as school superintendent.

Since Hoben had been acting superintendent for the past six months, his promotion to the full time $32,000 position was expected.

The surprise came when the board announced that Dr. Earl Hogan, now superintendent of the Mt. Vernon, Ohio, schools, will take a new post, the second highest administrative post at a $28,000 salary beginning July 1. Both were given two-year contracts.

DR. HOGAN, who has an extensive background in elementary education, was one of three candidates under consideration for the superintendency.

Though his appointment stunned administrators and teachers in the audience, it was a welcome surprise for administrators who have been working with one less person since the board fired James Rossman as superintendent in December.

Three administrators have been doing the work for the last six months previously done by four persons.

After Rossman was fired, Hoben agreed to be acting superintendent until the board appointed a successor. Some of Rossman's responsibilities were also divided between Asst. Supt. of Business Melvin Blunk and Asst. Supt. of Community Relations Earl Gibson.

In the past, Hoben, Gibson and Blunk were assistant superintendents answering to former Supt. Rossman. The new appointment changes the hierarchy.

Though responsibilities have not been defined yet, the superintendent will be at the top of the pyramid, the deputy superintendent will be second in line and both Blunk and Gibson will be at the third level.

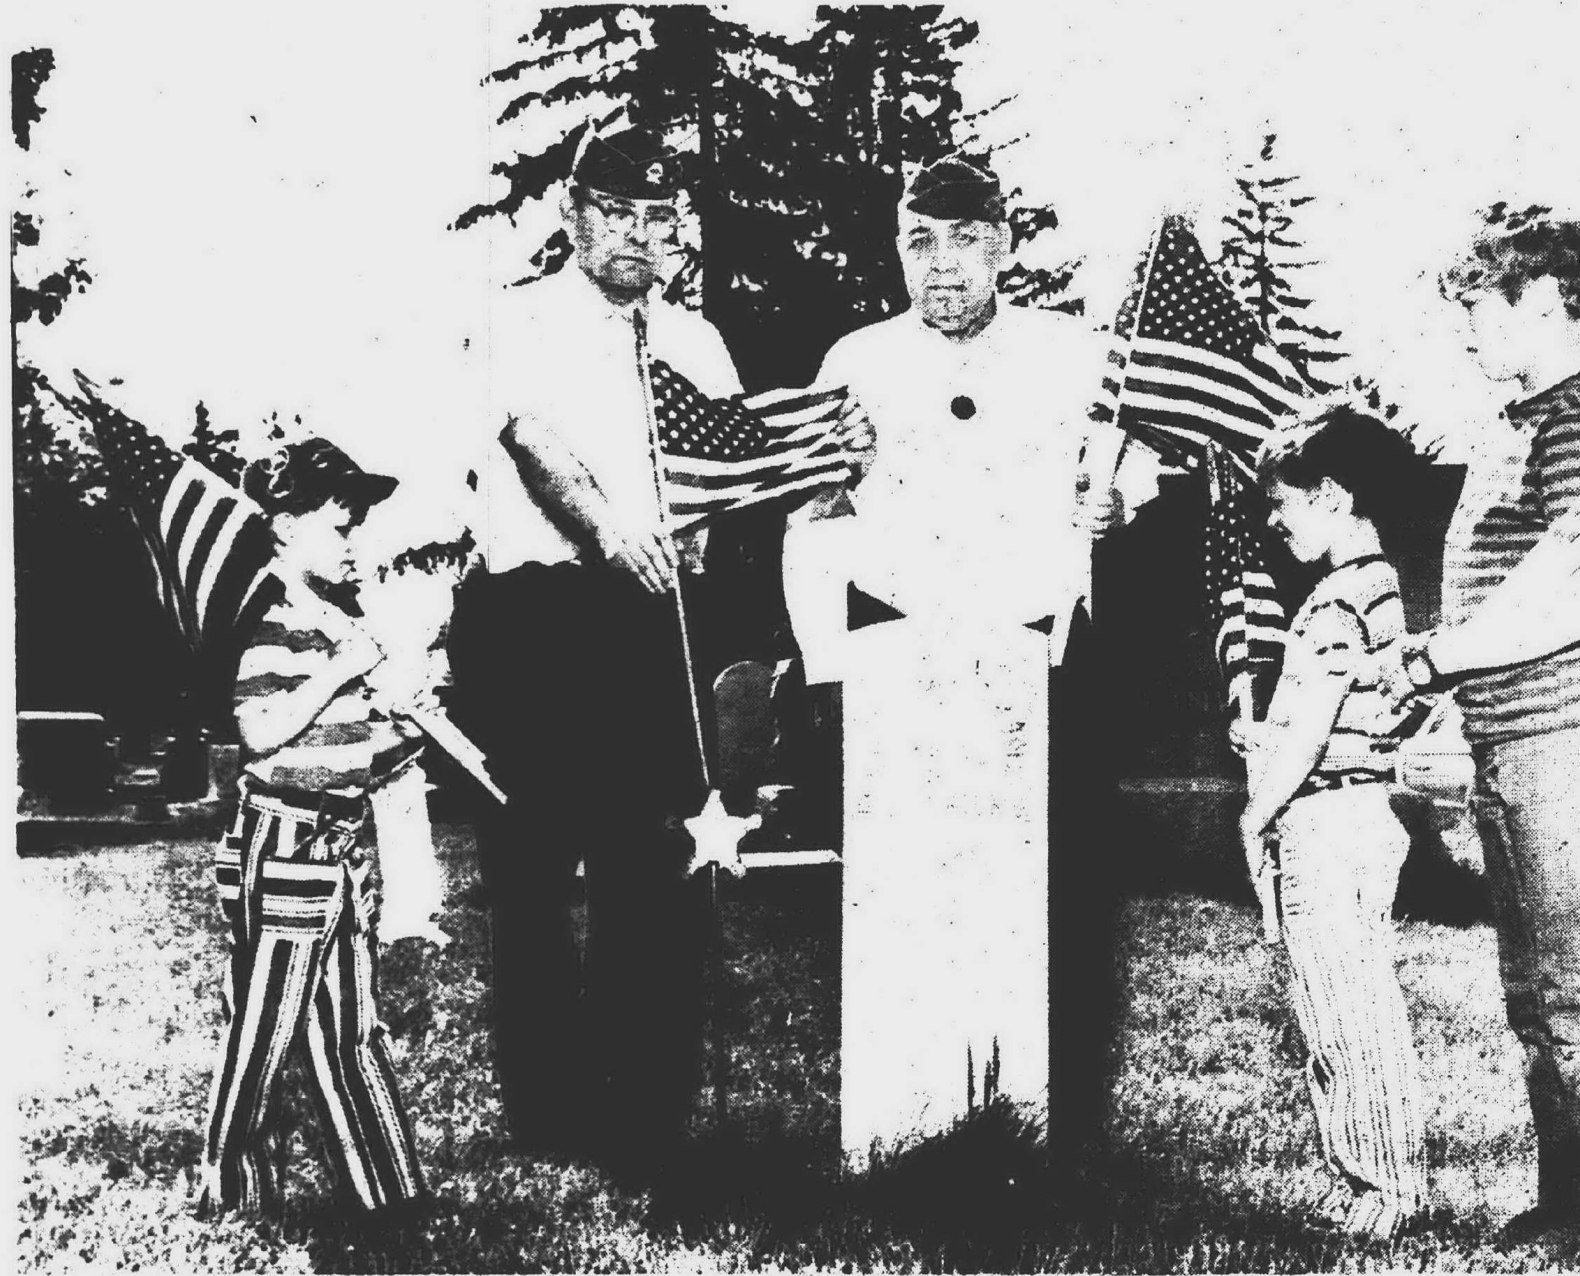

THE SALARIES announced for Hoben and Hogan at first raised a few eyebrows until it was explained that they reflected the average 5.5 per cent increase plus increments.

Had Rossman continued as superintendent, his salary for 1972 - 73 would have reached near $32,000. When he came under board disfavor, his salary was frozen at $28,000, and shortly afterward he was fired. Since a settlement has not been reached in his case, he still collects his salary and will through June 30, 1973.

Dr. Hogan's salary puts him slightly above projected salaries for Gibson and Blunk under the next contract. They are expected to be raised from $25,000 to $26,500 -- making the "big four" aggregate $113,000.

Hogan's appointment was unanimous, but

Deyo To Lead Parade Monday

Memorial Day's traditional salute in memory of the fallen heroes of the nation's wars will be featured in Plymouth by a parade Monday morning, followed by services in Kellogg Park.

Parade units will march from the parking lot behind Central Junior High School at 10 a.m., and the ceremony in the park is scheduled to start at 10:15.

Honorary grand marshal will be one of Plymouth's best known elderly citizens, Atty. Harry Deyo, whose career has included chapters both as city attorney and municipal judge.

He also has the distinction of having served his country both in World War I, when he was on duty in France, and in World War II, when he was a participant in the Leyte campaign and the landing at Okinawa.

"Judge" Deyo, as he is known in the community, rose to the rank of full colonel in the judge advocate's office while in the service and he is a life member of Plymouth Mayflower Post 6695 of the VFW.

THE ACTIVE marshal as director of the parade will be Gene Leader, former commander of the Mayflower Post and now junior vice commander of the 4th District of the VFW.

Ross Snow of Plymouth's Passage - Gayde Post of the American Legion will serve as Leader's aide.

Parade participants will include units of the VFW and Legion, as well as their auxiliaries, plus Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls.

The bands of Plymouth High School and Central Junior

High School also will be in the line of march. As the marchers leave Central School, there will be a pause as tribute is paid at the memorial which stands there to nine Plymouth men who died in World War I.

Central May Be Rented

Central School may not sit vacant next year if Schoolcraft College continues its interest in the building as a temporary off-campus extension center.

Schoolcraft has made inquiries into using the building, and the Plymouth Board of Education discussed terms of such a rental Tuesday.

The college is pinched for space next year and is considering renting facilities until it can add space on its Livonia campus. The problem is that the college would prefer to rent facilities for two years, and Central will be vacant for only one.

Asst. Supt. of Business Melvin Blunk reported to the board that if the college rented a 41,000 square foot section of the building at the regular rental rate of $1.50 per square foot, it would cost the college $62,000.

The college would be responsible for utilities and maintenance in addition to the rent.

Blunk forwarded the information to the college for consideration.

Post, will be master of ceremonies of the program in the Church of the Nazarene Kellogg Park.

PLYMOUTH POST OFFICE employees from the American Postal Workers Union staged a one-day picketing demonstration Thursday. Their signs carried such messages as, "Postal Workers Seek Political Rights" and "Public: We Need Your Help to Improve Postal Service." (Observer photo by Bob Woodring)

Postal Union Pickets

Plymouth members of the American Postal Workers Union (APWU) picketed the local post office Thursday afternoon as part of a nationwide union protest over a bargaining impasse.

Mrs. Jean Greenwood, president of the Plymouth local, said that only off-duty postal employees participated. "Union members are just as fed up as the public is over deteriorating mail service," said Mrs. Greenwood, "but we know where the blame lies and how to correct it."

"Service to the public is only one casualty of postal management's continuing failure to bargain in good faith. Employee morale has been damaged, and the two are interdependent."

Mrs. Greenwood said that the "informational" picketing was designed to focus attention "on the failure of the postal service to bargain in good faith on local issues here and across the nation." Emphasizing that there is no strike among postal employees, Mrs. Greenwood said the one-day demonstration also was aimed "at dramatizing the failure of Congress to give us political rights, the equal of those enjoyed by workers in private industry -- namely the right to strike and the right to participate in political action."

board member Fred Penar voted against Hoben's appointment in the 6-1 vote. Voting for it were Board President Esther Hulsing, John Hanskat, George Lawton, John Graves, Wilson Sick Jr. and Dr. John Ohno.

Hanskat made the motion to promote Hoben. He heads the personnel committee which reviewed applications from about 100 persons for the position.

A screening committee consisting of placement officials from Michigan's universities narrowed the list down to 12 and the board pared it down to three.

Also under consideration was Douglas Lund, former superintendent of the Rochester schools. He withdrew to accept another job offer.

HOBEN WAS a highly successful football coach for 11 years at Plymouth High School. He was counselor and assistant principal in charge of counseling when he first began to assume administrative responsibilities.

Hoben moved fast up the administrative ladder when he was appointed PHS principal. Since the new school did not open as scheduled, and the assistant superintendent of education position opened up, Hoben moved up before actually acting as PHS principal.

He is a graduate of Adrian College and was a coach for Cheboygan schools. Hoben starred in U-M football when stationed there in a Marine unit. He also served in World War II as a captain.

Hoben's experience in secondary education will be complemented by Dr. Hogan's experience in elementary education.

Dr. Hogan was an elementary principal and director of elementary education in the Battle Creek public schools between 1955 and 1960. For three years he served as director of the Battle Creek center at Michigan State University.

Dr. Hogan continued to climb in school administration when he worked for three years as assistant superintendent in Albion public schools. From Albion he moved to Mt. Vernon where he headed the school district from 1966 to the present.

HIS ABILITIES in school administration were hailed by Mt. Vernon trustees. They said that Dr. Hogan assumed the top post under adverse conditions. His leadership reversed the patterns of misunderstanding and lack of confidence that then existed between the public and board and administration.

He also is considered talented in the area of public relations.

A graduate of Otterbein College in Westerville, Ohio, Dr. Hogan continued his studies at Ohio State University where he earned a master's degree in administration, minoring in elementary education.

In 1963 he was awarded a doctorate from Michigan State University in administrative curriculum with minors in sociology and anthropology.

After winding up his responsibilities in Mt. Vernon, Dr. Hogan will move to the Plymouth area with his wife and two children.

The Stroller...

By W. W. EDGAR

Every year, along about this time, The Stroller gets the most peculiar feeling — a feeling of sympathy for the younger generation.

As Memorial Day (or Decoration Day, if you will) approaches, he can't help but feel that the now generation is being denied one of the thrills The Stroller enjoyed as a lad.

It was the thrill of walking with history and having his chest swell with pride at the sight of his grandfather in the uniform of the Grand Army of the Republic.

When the "Old Colonel," as he was affectionately known back home, took you by the hand and walked along the streets there was something in it that is missing today.

And when we weren't walking, he'd regale all the youngsters with tales of the great battles in which he fought — particularly at Gettysburg.

The memories of those sessions with the old gent live forever and they seem to get greener as the "big day" approaches each year.

TODAY, FOR one reason or another, there doesn't seem to be much pride shown in the uniform of the Army or the Navy.

The boys, when called to service, aren't given a send-off. And they are rarely welcomed home on their return. In fact, they are all but ignored — and The Stroller often has wondered why.

Evidence of this apathy is shown in the annual services sponsored and conducted by the various veterans organizations.

The members of the Grand Army of the Republic — the Union forces in the Civil War — have long since gone to their reward. The "men in blue" with the old fashioned fedora hats were a sight to see as they marched to stirring martial music.

THOSE SIGHTS are now gone. The attitude toward war has changed quite a bit. Perhaps, it is because we have been in some phase of war almost continuously since World War II and it is now old stuff.

Perhaps it is because the Civil War was the lone fracas fought on our soil and the "Boys in Blue" saved the Union by turning back their rivals in gray.

Whatever the reason, Memorial Day observances have changed. There will be a touch of the old times in Plymouth, however, when the annual parade is halted at the intersection of Church and Main Streets Monday morning.

Then, taking only a few minutes, the firing squad and the drill team will move to the pyramid-like stone along the sidewalk opposite the front door of Central School and fire a salute to the nine Plymouth soldiers who made the supreme sacrifice in World War I.

There'll be no one there to tell, personally, of the heroics of that conflict. And The Stroller's thoughts will go back to the "Old Colonel," who never missed a chance to tell of his deeds.

ONE YEAR, after The Stroller had been taught a bit of history, he listened to his grandfather tell of the fighting and the hard three day struggle at Gettysburg.

"How was it at Vicksburg?" The Stroller asked.

And without realizing that the battles of Gettysburg and Vicksburg were fought on the same days, the "Old Colonel" answered, "It was tough at Vicksburg, but not as bad as at Gettysburg."

Whereupon The Stroller had the audacity to say:

"Grandpy," I think the only battle you fought was the battle of Who Run — and all these who didn't run are there yet."

With that the "Colonel" raised his foot — and, somehow, I still feel its contact with my rear extremity every Memorial Day.

Let's hope the sun shines for the boys in Plymouth for the big day, for they are following in the footsteps of a great group — The G.A.R.

Davis Ponders Bennett Dismissal

By MAURIE WALKER
District Judge Dunbar Davis, whose law career spans three decades and who has been on the bench since 1968, faces perhaps the weightiest decision of his career in the case of David Leroy Bennett, charged with the murder of Mrs. Vivian Berry in her home on May 9.

Now that the pre-trial examination has been completed in Plymouth District Court, Davis must decide whether to bind Bennett over for trial on the murder charge or dismiss the case.

Mrs. Berry was the wife of Michael Berry, former 16th District Democratic chairman and presently chairman of the Wayne County Road Commission.

Following three days of pre-trial examination, in which Defense Attorney Daniel Burress charged that the youth's arrest was illegal and the lack of search warrants made any alleged evidence inadmissible, Davis set Monday, June 5, as the date for his decision.

THIS DECISION will affect the future of not only the 17-year-old defendant, but that of his parents as well as Berry and his four daughters.

Bennett is a senior at Plymouth high school, and is planning to graduate in June. He is still keeping up on his studies, according to Burress.

His father, Leroy C. Bennett, heads the mathematics and science department at Holmes Junior High School in Livonia and is an elected trustee of Schoolcraft College in the first year of a six-year term.

The entire pre-trial examination, conducted before Judge Davis, was heard under a motion made by defense attorneys at the arraignment May 11. At that time Burress presented a motion that the warrant be dismissed and quashed. Attorneys cited a law which states that after an arrest, a person is to be arraigned as soon as a magistrate is available.

Although District Judge Richard L. Hammer, who handled the arraignment, had been available on Wednesday, the day following Bennett's arrest at Plymouth Central Junior High, the arraignment didn't take place until May 11, two days following the youth's arrest.

This delay occurred because the prosecutor's office withheld signing the warrant.

DAVIS FIRST must decide if Bennett was truly held illegally and also whether the physical evidence presented by Assistant Prosecutor Varskin Baydarian is to be allowed.

Evidence contested by the defense includes a switchblade knife, which crime lab officials say had blood of the same type as Mrs. Berry; a syringe and three needles; plus some blood-stained clothing found in Bennett's school locker.

A key, which sheriff detectives said fitted the Berry home, was found in a car driven by Bennett. There were no fingerprints on the key, however.

Davis allowed the physical evidence to be shown, pending his later ruling on its legality.

BURRESS apparently has based his case on the grounds of "illegal search and seizure." He also has hit heavily on the varied descriptions of Bennett given by prosecution witnesses, the color of the youth's hair in particular. It has been described in several instances as either red, blond, or reddish blond.

Addressing the court near the end of the pre-trial examination, Burress said a court decision "must be based on whether the arrest was lawful in the first place and did police have probable cause for arrest."

These are questions being studied by Judge Davis. The decision, slated for June 5, is possibly the most difficult he has had to make in his long career.

Plymouth Brevities

THERE WILL BE music under the stars Friday night, June 2 in Kellogg Park when the Plymouth Community Band presents a preview of its summer concert series.

This opening 90-minute concert next Friday under the baton of James Griffith will get under way at 8 p.m. and will be a highlight of what Mayor James McKeon has proclaimed as "Community Band Week."

The regular weekly series of summer concerts will open on the night of Thursday, June 29 and will continue into the first week of August.

THE SOROPTIMIST CLUB presented its annual citizenship awards to Plymouth High School seniors at a banquet Wednesday evening in the Thunderbird Inn.

The first place winner was Anne Eisen, who received a $100 U.S. savings bond. Stephanie Flora was presented a $75 bond for second place and Mark McKelvey was given a $50 bond as third place winner. Chairman of the occasion was the Soroptimist president, Lorraine Hendrickson.

GIRLS WHO wish to enter the 1972 Miss Plymouth contest may pick up entry forms at the Chamber of Commerce office in the Mayflower Hotel.

The minimum age requirement is 17, and all who enter either must live in the city or township, attend school here, or be employed in the city or township. There is an entry fee of $25, to be paid by each girl's sponsor, and the deadline for entries is June 12.

THE CHEROKEES won the second annual YMCA Indian Guide track meet held recently at Allen School.

Competition was divided into three age groups and the Cherokees piled up 49 points to 34 for the second place Shoshone tribe. Third place went to the Sauk tribe with 33 points and the Mohawks were fourth with 26.

THE HURON VALLEY Girl Scout Council is inviting all members, their families and the public to an open house to be held from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday, June 4 at Camp Linden, which is located north of Hartland in Livingston County.

One of the new structures that will be on display that day - Cook's Cabin - has been a project of Plymouth Kiwanians. Among other facilities which can be visited is Esther's House, which was named for Mrs. Esther Hulsting of Plymouth, long one of the Huron Valley Council's outstanding volunteer leaders.

RICK STONE, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Stone of 1351 Linden, was the recipient of the American Legion ROTC medal for military excellence, leadership, character and citizenship at recent commencement exercises at Riverside Military Academy, Gainesville, Ga.

Since his enrollment in 1969, his excellent record led to Stone's promotion to the rank of a cadet officer during his senior year. He also was a three-year letterman on the academy's track team and set a school record in the pole vault.

Contract Awarded

A contract for building additions to Farrand and Gallimore Elementary Schools has been awarded to Paul Wallace & Sons Inc. for $125,000 by the Plymouth school board.

The company was the lowest of seven bidders. Some companies had specified an earlier time of completion but the architects from Wakely Kushner Associates Inc. recommended that Wallace's low bid be accepted.

Earliest date of delivery of the mechanical unit ventilators is the first week of September, according to architects, who added the company would attempt to complete the additions before school starts in the fall.

The board also accepted three alternates for carpeting the library areas of both schools and substituting carpeting in the offices, conference rooms and teachers rooms in Gallimore.

Young Hiker Sees Europe Close Up

The View From Marseilles

EDITOR'S NOTE: Jay Kendall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kendall, 765 Parkview Drive, Plymouth, has been hiking around Europe, especially in the southern countries, for the past seven months. His letters were so interesting we thought our readers would like them.

I arrived in Marseille on the Mediterranean coast of France. It is the country's largest port and also where most heroin is supposed to be manufactured. I will go take a look at it - the port, that is.

Marseilles is also part of the Cote d'Azur or French Riviera. I expected warmer weather, but there's a cold wind blowing they call a mistral...it lasts either three, six or nine days.

There is a lot of sunshine, and the sea is very blue and rough and rimmed by rocks.

THE YOUTH HOSTEL here appears to be the best yet, although you can never tell. Up to now, some defect has appeared before the end of my stay. This one is evidently pleasant and sufficiently heated with functional plumbing and staffed by non-tyrants.

It is located in a suburb where the main business is a gas station. The Riviera is said to have extremely varied coast, and I would consider renting a car if it isn't too expensive.

There's even an inland area called the Grand Canyon, carved by a river in limestone like the U.S. version but probably smaller. There also are a number of coastline highways carved out of the cliffs, some by the Romans, others by Napoleon and still others to serve the resort areas between Marseilles and Nice.

I haven't ridden the railroads much yet, but I'll have to if I'm going to see much more of Europe. There's a plan called Eurail Pass that allows a card holder unlimited travel over a specified period. The rate for a student is only $125 for two months.

Unfortunately, I found out too late that the pass card can't be purchased in Europe. It must be purchased in United States before you leave for Europe.

I plan on visiting Greece, Israel, North Africa, Yugoslavia or Czechoslovakia where the pass is not valid anyway.

I climbed a mountain in the city on which is perched a cathedral. I've climbed to several such cathedrals, but the view from this one of the Mediterranean under a brilliant clear sky was the most spectacular.

From a kind of crow's nest on an outcropping of rock, you can see the entire harbor of Marseilles...the old port filled with yachts and motorboats, and the new ports built when commercial ships got too big to go in the old one. Off to the sides and back are the beige stucco buildings of the city. The wind feels like it is going to blow you into the sea, but it doesn't always blow like this.

Some of the shops in Marseilles, Paris, London and Geneva are the equal to the classiest in New York City.

LIVONIA'S MAID OF ERIN, Patti O'Brien (left) and Linda McCarthy, who was selected as Rose of Erin in March, will have honored roles during the Irish Festival in downtown Detroit, June 2,3 and 4. The festival is the opening event in the City of Detroit's annual ethnic celebration in which all foreign groups join in presenting folk dances, songs etc. that are carryovers from earlier days in their homelands. Westland Fair This, Weekend

WESTLAND
Something for everybody - softball games, variety of food and refreshments at bargain prices, beauty pageant with pretty girls, and fireworks - will be offered when the second annual Westland spring festival gets underway for the Memorial Day weekend.

THEME OF the festival is "old fashioned fun with a Gay '90s flavor." Festival officials and hosts and hostesses will be wearing straw hats, red vests and colorful arm bands.

To simplify the festival events for the community, almost all events will be held at Jaycee Park, Wildwood and Hunter.

All events are free, and the only charge will be for refreshments. A flea market will have articles for sale with the proceeds turned over to the festival committee for defraying any festival expenses.

Midway games will be offered; pop, beer, ice cream, chips, and hot dogs will be sold for a dime each; the round-robin softball tournament will start; and children's contests will be held.

At noon, the softball tournament will continue. Continuous stage entertainment will be held until 8 p.m.

An old-fashioned craft demonstration will be held from 1-3:30 p.m., and corn will be sold from 1-4 p.m. for a dime.

THE FIRE department will stage a water hose battle at 2 p.m. with the softball tournament resuming at 4 p.m.

Chicken dinners will go on sale for $1 from 5-8 p.m., and a street dance will start at 8 p.m. and continue through 11 p.m.

The next day, Sunday, the festival will get under way at 8 a.m. with an interdenominational memorial church service at Jaycee Park, followed at 9 a.m. by a pancake breakfast for $1 and continuing to 1 p.m.

A PET show with prizes for the best entries will be held from noon-2 p.m. From noon to 5 p.m., the senior citizens flea market will open its goods for sale.

Continuous stage entertainment will be held from noon to 8 p.m. with midway games going on from noon-11 p.m.

During the noon-11 p.m. period, food concessions will have pop, beer, hot dogs, popcorn and ice cream sold for a dime.

THE SOFTBALL tournament will resume action at 2 p.m. the same time a watermelon eating contest starts. At 3 p.m., the police department will stage a friendly tug-of-war while a pie eating contest gets under way at 4 p.m.

Chuck wagon dinners for $1 will be on sale from 5-8 p.m. followed by an old-fashioned melodrama at 8 p.m. by the Wayne-Westland Civic Theater.

On Monday, Memorial Day, local veterans groups will combine with Wayne to sponsor the annual parade, to start at 10 a.m. The parade will get under way at the Metro Mall shopping center in Wayne, move east on Michigan Ave. to Wayne, north to Glenwood and east on Glenwood to Wayne Memorial High School's football field where a service will be held.

THE SENIOR citizens' display and flea market will be held again from noon-5 p.m., the same period during which an ice cream social will offer dime cones and 20 cent sundaes.

An antique car display will be open from noon-6 p.m. with the midway games and dime beer, pop, hot dogs, ice cream and popcorn offered from noon-11 p.m.

The Little League baseball championship game will start at noon with continuous stage entertainment scheduled from 2-7 p.m. The championship softball game for adult men will start at 2 p.m. with a parachute jump scheduled for 3 p.m.

THE "BROTHERS of the brush" judging will be at 4 p.m. to pick the best beard, sideburns and mustache.

A fish fry dinner for $1 will be sold from 5-8 p.m., followed by square dancing from 8-11 p.m.

The festival will close at 9 p.m. with a fireworks display.

The Sixty-Plus Club, a group of senior citizens, met last Wednesday in the London Townhouses clubhouse to make their pillows, lamps, and ceramics, and other articles for sale during the festival.

Gifts Accepted

Gifts totalling $150 were accepted by the Schoolcraft College Board of Trustees recently.

Four Clarenceville High School seniors were honored for their high scholastic achievement recently at the 24th Phi Beta Kappa honors convocation in Ford Auditorium, Detroit.

David Chinsky, Walter High, Joanne Lapasinkas and Victoria Turner were among more than 1,100 students from 103 Detroit metropolitan schools to earn a 3.7 grade point average in high school to qualify for the Phi Beta Kappa certificate awards.

The convocation address was given by Dr. Donald D. O'Dowd, president of Oakland University. Musical selections were provided by the Wayne State University Symphonic band.

Chaplain Kuehn Receives Award

The Rev. Vernon Kuehn of Livonia, chaplain at Harper Hospital in Detroit, is the American Baptist Convention's "institutional chaplain of the year."

He received the award at the denomination's recent session in Denver.

REV. KUEHN was recognized for outstanding leadership in developing high quality pastoral care, clinical pastoral education and counseling services at Harper as well as for significant ecumenical contributions to community life.

He was also chosen for his award because of his service in professional chaplaincy groups and contributions to his field through his writings and speeches.

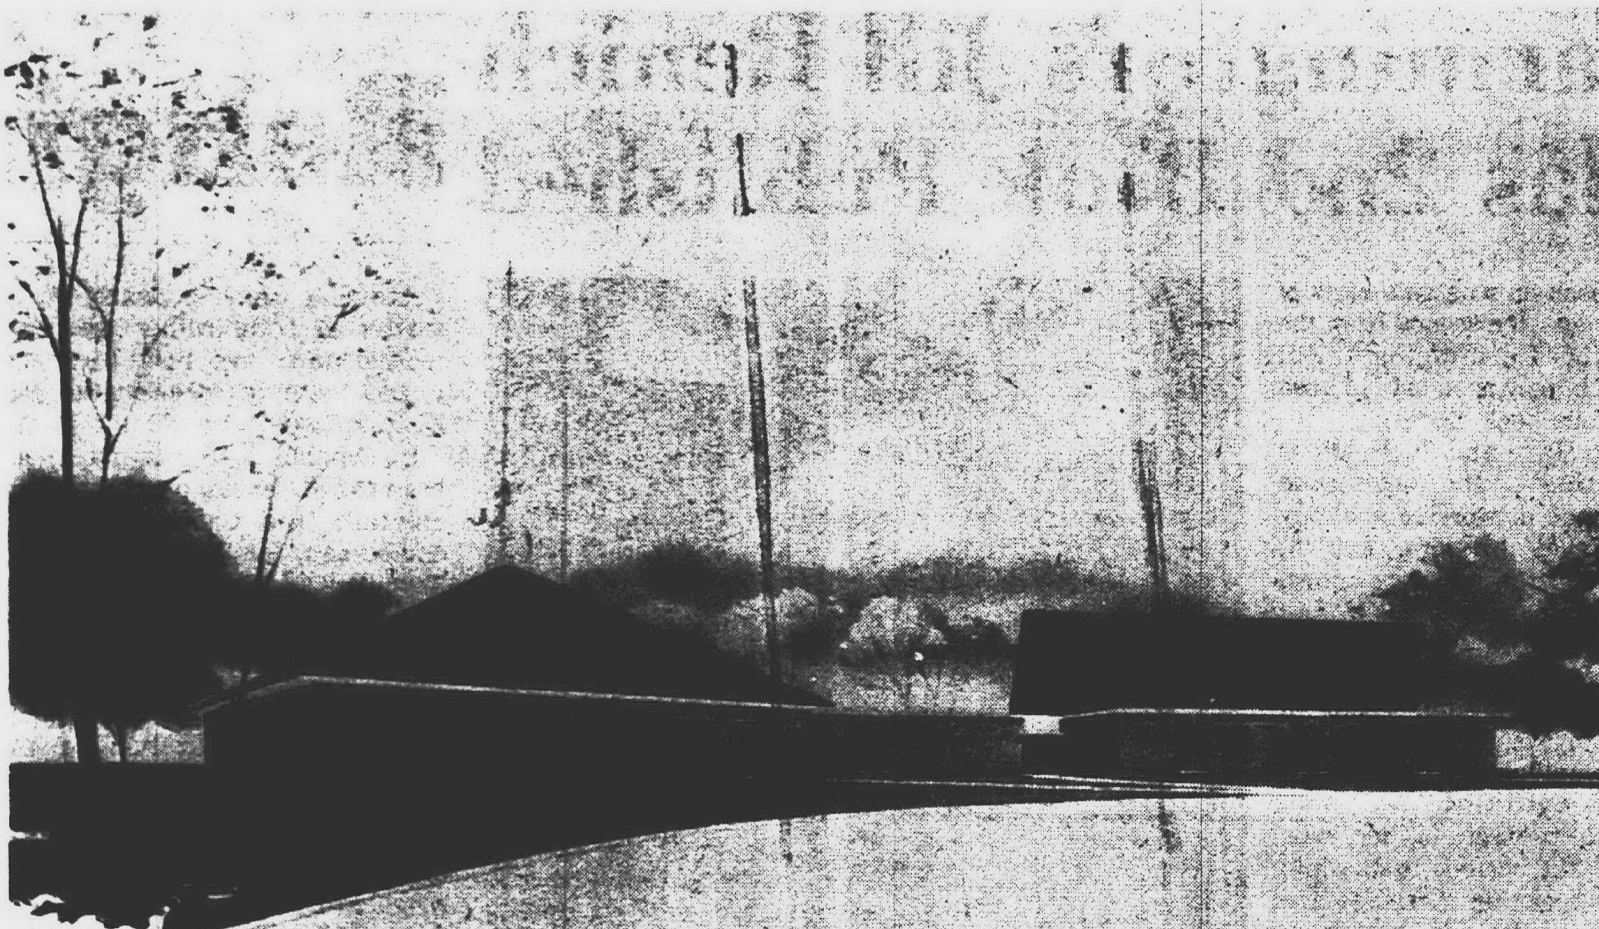

Chaplain Kuehn and his wife, who live on Robert Drive, were present at the general sessions of the convention and were guests at the annual luncheon of American Baptist Chaplains. Some 7,000 delegates were at the convention.

THE CONVENTION makes awards each year to five people from five different types of ministry, inner-city, suburban, rural, military and institutional. The latter has three divisions, correctional institutions, mental hospitals and general hospitals. This award is rotated among them each year.

The chaplaincy department at Harper now has a staff of four full-time clergy, plus extensive and widely-acclaimed educational program for ministers and seminarians.

THE REV. VERNON KUEHN (Chaplain)

AN ARTIST'S drawing of the new Holy Trinity Church of Livonia shows the huge window of faceted chunk glass that will be a focal point of the sanctuary.

Holy Trinity To Break Ground

A 72-foot window of faceted chunk glass will distinguish the new sanctuary of Livonia's Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, 39020 Five Mile.

The church has announced that a $300,000 building program will begin June 2 when ground is broken for the sanctuary. The structure also will include eight new classrooms and a new kitchen.

Plans call for remodeling of the church's present building with the sanctuary becoming a multi-purpose room.

The new facility will seat 425 in the sanctuary, and there also will be room for an overflow of 175 persons.

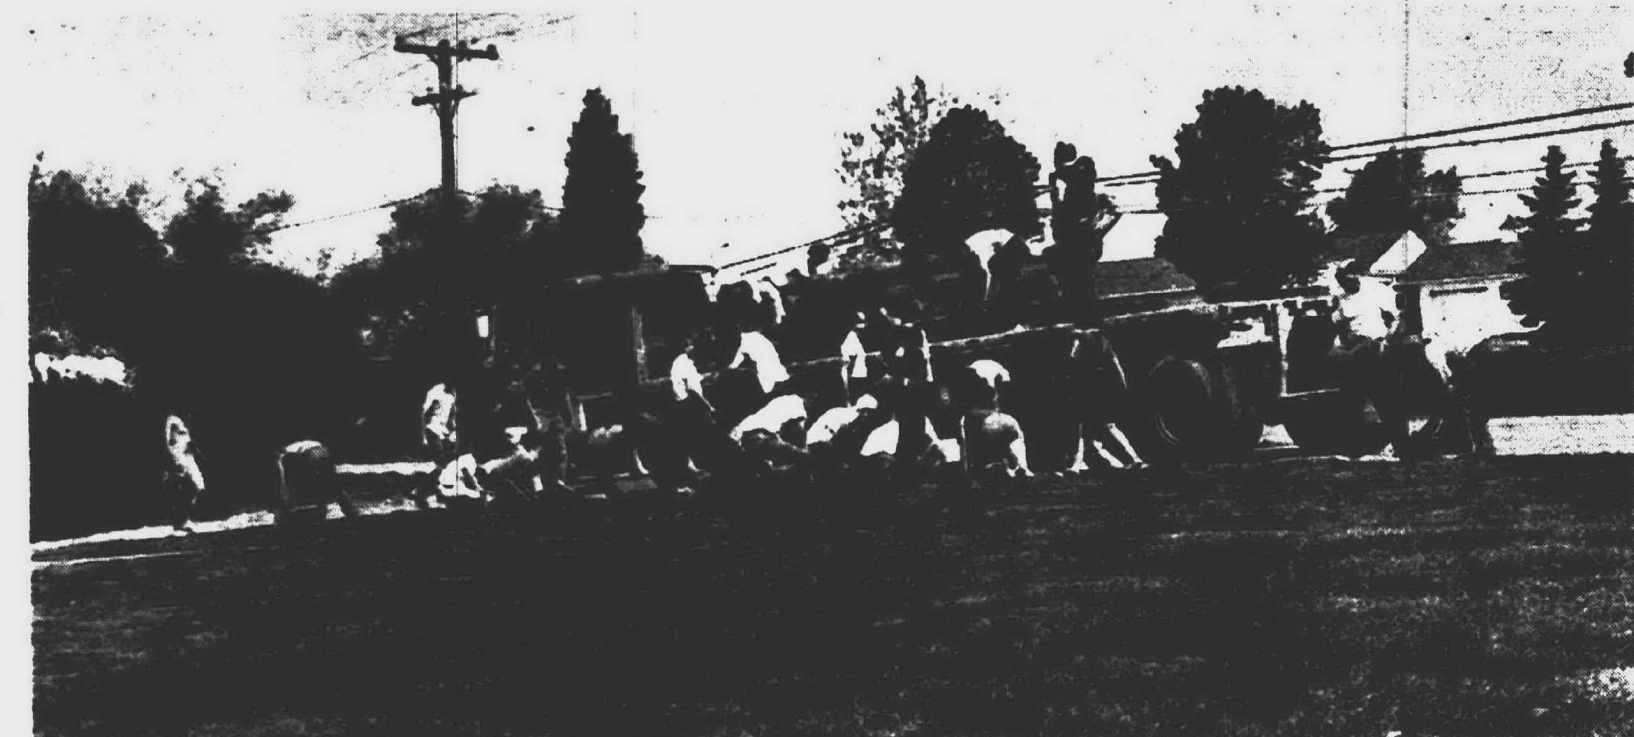

Completion of the building program is expected by late November or early December.

Weather permitting, the June 4 groundbreaking will be held outside in the area of the new sanctuary following a single worship service at 10:30 a.m.

After the ceremony the annual church picnic will be held on the church grounds.

The Rev. Fred Balke is pastor of Holy Trinity, and Deaconess Dianna Werlinger also is on the church staff.

William Ehrlich has headed the building committee, which also includes William Bartling, Richard Holmes, Ronald Neuchterlein, Richard Serra and Richard Swan.

THE CONGREGATION of the First United Methodist Church of Plymouth turned out en masse last Saturday to lay sod on the spacious grounds of the new church on North Territorial.

With many willing hands, a truckload of sod became a lawn in less than a day. (Observer photo)

Judge's Place Is 'Lonely And Risky' -- Feikens

A judge who strives to be a Christian too is in a "lonely and risky" spot.

That's the opinion of U.S. District Judge John Feikens, who said in a May 21 television appearance:

"I am faced with a lonely and risky decision of providing people what they really need for their best and greatest well-being. Frequently, what they need is not what they want."

"That makes the process arduous but crucially important."

Judge Feikens made the comment while being interviewed by Dr. Harold Ellens, pastor of Farmington's University Hills Church, who with the Rev. Edward Baldwin of the Detroit Archdiocese conducts the regular Channel 7 program "Dialogue."

THE JURIST'S statement recalled the position he took in a talk in Observerland in January, when he told a group in St. Agatha Catholic Church that cross-district busing to achieve integration will become a reality in our lifetime and called it "a poor but important remedy" for segregation.

At that time he told his Redford Township audience: "It is hard to be a citizen; it is harder to be a Christian citizen."

The judge was asked in the televised conversation with Dr. Ellens about the relationship of his office and his calling as an active Christian churchman.

"They have a great deal to do with each other," he answered. "I do not mean by that that being a Christian provides me any supernatural insight, wisdom or judgment in decisions of law or justice."

"I mean rather that for me to be on the bench means for me to be busy with precisely that business Jesus Christ gave Himself to 20 centuries ago.

"He commissioned His church to do what He did. He described that as giving good news to the poor, liberty to the captives, sight to the blind, freedom to the oppressed and justice and mercy to a world in need of both."

JUDGE FEIKENS added his belief that "the task of every man with responsible ambitions for the wholesome quality of human life and culture is the same as that of Jesus, to do God's work in man's world as Jesus demonstrated it must be done."

Dr. Ellens announced that the topic for the May 28 "Dialogue" program will be Woman's Lib. The program is telecast regularly at 8 a.m. Sunday.

U-U Votes To Hold Phone Tax

The Universalist-Unitarian Church of Farmington voted at its annual meeting May 21 to refuse payment of the 10 per cent federal tax on telephone service to the church.

The action was described in a statement from the church as "a symbolic way of disassociating itself" from the Vietnam war.

It was pointed out in the statement that the 10 per cent federal phone tax, along with the 10 per cent income tax surcharge and the recently-rescinded luxury tax were passed by Congress specifically to finance the Indochinese war.

During the annual meeting, the motion to discontinue payment was made by the church's minister, the Rev. Richard Neff.

With about a third of the members in attendance, the motion carried on a roll call vote of 40 to 4.

Intent to act on the motion had been announced earlier from the pulpit and in the church's weekly newsletter.

"The church recognizes the probable lack of effect of the action on our involvement in Indochina," the announcement said, "but sees tax refusal as a symbolic way of disassociating itself from the war."

James H. Smith, executive director of the Voice for Christian Youth in Detroit, will speak at morning and evening services in Ward United Presbyterian Church, 17000 Farmington Road, Livonia, on Sunday, May 28.

The Voice of Christian Youth is an inter-denominational organization serving teenagers in metropolitan Detroit. Currently 23 staff members are assigned to different areas of a program in which emphasis is placed on introducing all teenagers, suburban and inner city, to a new life in Jesus Christ.

Smith came to Detroit last January and resides in Plymouth with his wife and two children. He was with Youth for Christ International for 17 years, beginning his involvement while a student at Morris Harvey College.

As vice-president of the mid-western states for YFCI, he was responsible for the establishment of many programs. YFCI is the parent organization of teen programs throughout the world.

Included in Smith's plans for the Voice of Christian Youth are establishment of a counseling services division and a creative communications division. This is in addition to the existing youth guidance and campus life divisions. The group also maintains an 80-acre camping facility near Brighton.

CS Churches Ask Prayers To End War

A call for citizens to use prayer in bringing a "peaceful and prompt solution" to the Vietnam conflict was made at Churches of Christ, Scientist, in Farmington, Garden City and Plymouth and the Fourth and Eighth Churches of Detroit on Sunday, May 21.

The First Reader of each church read a message from the five-member Christian Science board of directors in Boston, which was issued to the 3,200 Christian Science churches throughout the world.

"No one can outline for us our prayers to pray, nor do we in other ways attempt to outline specific solutions for human conditions," the message stated. "But let this not prevent us from joining in the deepest confidence that prayer does avail.

"It is our conviction that prayer is deeply needed and of vital importance at this time. We believe that all of us must now be counted upon to do our full share in bringing to bear the immense power for good that is native to prayer..."

Last week, the denomination's international daily newspaper, The Christian Science Monitor, urged in a front page editorial that prayer be used in approaching the Vietnam problem.

"Peace has always been elusive," the editorial said. "But by men's raising their vision above the evidence of battle to the spiritual norm of harmony and peace, the inspiration and courage to secure peace will be found."

Farmington's Jill Renich Has 2nd Book Published

A book on woman's view of marriage, the second from the pen of Farmington's Jill Renich, now is on sale in area religious book stores.

"To Have and To Hold" is subtitled "the feminine mystique at work in a happy marriage" by Mrs. Renich, leader of the ministry known as "Winning Women."

The wife of the Rev. Fred Renich, until recently director of missionary internship in Farmington, Mrs. Renich also is the author of "So You're a Teen-Aged Girl."

In a preface to her new book, she writes that while many books on marriage are meant to be read by both partners, "This one is more helpful if read only by the wife."

EXPLAINING in the preface her thinking behind the new book, Mrs. Renich stated:

"Many confusing contemporary philosophies are contributing to the disintegration of marriage and family living. The point and purpose for a happy home have been lost."

"Young people are confused, and older people are searching. Many are looking with hope to those who have found the way into a satisfying, solid and harmonious married life."

"God, who designed marriage for companionship and purposeful living, has also given many instructions and illustrations in the Bible for the 'how to'."

SHE RECOMMENDED that the book be used with the Bible as a study guide by women seeking to improve their own marriages as well as by young women contemplating marriage.

"Mothers will find help here to guide their daughters into happy marriage," the preface added. "What a joy it has been to share these principles with our eldest daughter, Jan, who now is a happy wife."

Mrs. Renich was born in China of missionary parents and she and her husband have four children, Jan, Rose, Rick and Lyn.

Her "Winning Women" ministry was started in 1951 when the couple were serving as missionaries in Australia,

Religion Update

Rev. Lester Kinsolving's

Abortion, which is clearly a matter of state rather than federal law, has now been turned into a presidential election issue.

In Omaha, just four days prior to the Nebraska primary election, the Catholic Archdiocesan newspaper, "The True Voice," ran a large ad from "Citizens Concerned for the Preservation of Life" — which charged South Dakota's Sen. George McGovern with advocating liberalization of abortion law.

Like a majority of Americans (including individual Catholics, as revealed by recurrent polls), the senator opposes the denial of abortion to victims of rape, incest and serious hazards of health. He replied that this 11th hour attack was a phony issue to inject into a presidential campaign — but he still lost Omaha to Hubert Humphrey, whose long-standing friendship with McGovern was apparently not quite deep enough to prompt him to repudiate such tactics.

IN NEW YORK, just five days before the State Legislature voted to repeal its recent liberalization of abortion law (which in two years has substantially reduced illegal abortions, maternal deaths, infant mortality and illegitimacy), Archbishop Terrence Cardinal Cooke utilized similar last-minute tactics in releasing a letter from President Nixon.

The president acknowledged that abortion is "a matter of state decision outside federal jurisdiction." But in the very same letter he associated himself with the cardinal's position.

Repudiating the Commission on Population Growth, which he himself had appointed, Nixon railed against "unrestricted abortion practices" and termed abortion "an unacceptable means of population control." Since the population commission had advocated neither position, one D.C. daily newspaper rightfully accused the president of distorting the issue.

THE NATION'S Catholic bishops, by contrast, have grown moderate in their latest addressing of the issue. At their recent meeting in Atlanta, possibly influenced by the advice of Notre Dame's Father John Reedy to avoid calling abortion murder, the assembled prelates termed it merely an "unspeakable crime."

Just what "unspeakable" means was vividly demonstrated during successive press conferences, when Cardinal Cooke and later Philadelphia's Cardinal John Krol were asked if the physicians perpetrating this "unspeakable crime" were guilty of murder, manslaughter or what?

Cooke: "How you want to phrase it is your problem."

Krol: "I don't know any physicians who do such things. My doctor has 16 children."

THE CARDINALS' reluctance to charge most of the medical profession (as well as millions of mothers) with murder is understandable — particularly in their apparent desire not to be associated with some of the fanatical opponents of liberalized abortion.

• The "Leading Families of America" (four or more offspring) lead by retired municipal court Judge John Henry Norton of Connecticut, recently charged that the Catholic bishops have contributed "well over $5 million to support abortion programs." A horrified

Bishop Joseph Bernardin of the U.S. Catholic Conference in Washington replied that Judge Norton provided no documentation for such charges which, he said, proved unfounded after investigation.

• "Americans United for Life?" lead by actress Loretta Young, produced a large ad illustrated with a giant scalpel and headlined, "Merry Christmas, Herod." Without actually mentioning physicians and pregnant women, the ad charged: "the slaughter of the holy innocents is now legal. Every day hundreds of innocent babies are being executed in cold blood." (In Honolulu, State Senator Vincent Yano, a Catholic who supported abortion liberalization, has received phone calls at 3 A.M. in which a weepy voice tells him, "I'm one of the babies you killed!")

• Fordham professor Robert Byrne, understandably restrained by the courts after his bizarre attempt to have himself appointed legal guardian for every embryo in the city of New York, now goes about exhibiting photographs of fetuses in a bag or clutched in a hand. (Not to be outdone in good taste, Minnesota's medieval weekly, "The Wanderer," in best National Enquirer style, front-paged the following headline: "Fetus thrown from crowd at Boston hockey game.")

The majority of major Protestant churches and Jewish bodies, who have resolved in favor of liberalized abortion laws, appear by contrast to have become overconfident in view of the most recent legislative and judicial actions on the subject. But unless they and other abortion law reform advocates begin to focus sharp scrutiny upon President Nixon and all other political candidates, their cause may be lost.

A tent rummage sale will be held at Mt. Hope Congregational Church, 30330 Schoolcraft, Livonia, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, Saturday, June 3.

Widowed Catholics Unit To Meet June 2

The new Westside chapter of Naim Conference for Catholic widows and widowers will meet at 8:30 p.m. Friday, June 2, in the parish hall of St. Maurice Catholic Church, 32765 Lyndon, Livonia.

James McCarthy, attorney and former justice of the peace in Plymouth Township, will speak on "Wills and Implications in Second Marriages."

The new chapter has been organized this spring under the Family Life Bureau of the Archdiocese of Detroit. Its leaders, including William Kobielus of Livonia, have been members of other Naim Conference groups and felt there was a need for the organization in this area.

"It's an almost totally new group," said Mrs. Lorraine Theodore of Redford Township, also an organizer. She has been a member of a group in Wayne.

Besides discussion meetings and social events for members, Naim groups sponsor family parties and once-a-month activities for children. The upper age limit is 59 years. Mrs. Theodore said so far membership is limited to Catholics.

'Role Of Executive Wife' To Be Explored May 31

Are you this woman? You have an unusually effective and dynamic husband who is committed to his job. He works long hours. He brings work home.

He is curious, creative and always learning in his work. He is single-minded, project-oriented, energetic, intelligent, physically strong, direct, well-spoken, even aggressive.

"The executive wife is a member of one of those sub-populations of women whose identity and situation we will be exploring May 31 at Oakland University, now that we have some understanding of the housewife - mother through our seven years of work in the Kellogg - funded Continuum Center for Women," says Priscilla Jackson, designer of "The Role of the Executive Wife" conference.

"WHILE BUSINESS management programs occasionally offer lectures on the executive's wife, this is the first conference where the wives together explore this role."

Speakers include an executive recruiter, marriage counselor, personnel man, management educator, an executive's wife who is also an executive on her own, psychotherapist, and an executive husband and wife.

The question which stimulated the development of the conference was, "Is the executive's wife role real or is it only imagined? The conference was designed around the women who had attended the Continuum Center.

"The reason for the conference became clear early in our planning discussions," says Mrs. Jackson. "No one really knows what today's corporation wants in its executives' wives. Whether a wife may wish to conform or to rebel is not the point. The question is: Is there a role? Can she help? Can she hinder?"

"We believe we can say that this conference will reveal a contemporary and fascinating profile of intelligent wives responding to our expert, fast-moving traveling society and to the men who manage the most complex organizations in history."

Inaugural Gowns Will Be Shown

Inaugural gowns of 27 First Ladies, authentically duplicated by top designers, will be shown in two performances Wednesday, May 31, in the Birmingham Community House, 380 Bates.

The Community House and the Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women are hosting the show. There will be a performance at 9:30 a.m. followed by a continental breakfast and one at 2 p.m. followed by tea. The cost is $2.50.

Designers Davis S. Zeese and Donald R. Nagel of Troy have executed the gowns, using the Smithsonian Institute as research source and copying faithfully the fabric, color and intricate detailing of each one.

Gowns worn by first ladies from Martha Washington to Patricia Nixon are included. The gowns belong to Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Deer of Birmingham and have been shown all over the country, usually for private groups.

Hairdos and wigs to match the style worn by each first lady also will be part of the models' costumes.

Mrs. William Milligan and Mrs. Earl Triplett will moderate, giving descriptions of each gown's history. Mrs. Lynn Townsend has been in charge of assembling the models.

Tickets should be purchased from the Community House.

DICK BENSEK

Children are not much for fancy foods, but they do love something that tastes good! Here is a real children-pleaser called Hot-Dog Eggs.

Melt 4 tbsps. butter in a skillet over medium heat. Add 1 chopped onion and 4 franks. Sliced and saute for five minutes. Then add 2 medium tomatoes, coarsely chopped, salt, pepper and six eggs, lightly beaten. Stir gently.

When the eggs are set, the dish is ready. This children-appetizer is great on hot-dog or hamburger rolls which have been split and toasted.

We try hard to please everyone. See the wide selection of dishes on the menu at DANISH INN., 32305 Grand River Ave., 476-5320. There are 33 entrees on our menu and we also have a child's menu complete with crayon to divert the youngsters while parents relax. Evenings Tues. thru Sat. from 8:30 to closing listed. To the piano music of Pat Flowers.

HELPFUL HINT: Try adding cranberry sauce to your next meal of baked beans. It's an extra spark that's sure to please!

'The Best' Get $750

The Plymouth Symphony Society and League awarded scholarships worth $750 to 11 young musicians at its annual meeting Wednesday night.

A special scholarship of $75 went to William J. Ryan of Livonia as outstanding music student from Schoolcraft College. Ryan is a classical guitarist. He was chosen for the award by the college's music faculty.

THE SEVEN society scholarship winners were chosen through auditions. In a change of policy, this year the society allowed recipients to receive scholarships more than once.

"This way, we truly get the best," said conductor Wayne Dunlap as he made the awards to five previous winners, Janis Shier, Libby Glover, Laura Jender, Gabriele Klassen and Gail Murphy.

Four of these were for $75. Miss Shier received the Russell Isbister Award for $100. A violinist, she has been a member of the orchestra for several years.

Junior division scholarships, for $75 and $50, went to Kathy Stein and Liz Moehle.

The league awarded three scholarships. Winners were chosen for the seriousness with which they took their musical studies. Margaret Lang, Kirk Toth and David Shepard each received $50. These presentations were made by Mrs. Joseph McCann, retiring president of the league, the women's group which supports the symphony.

IN READING the financial report, Robert Utter revealed that the by-laws have been changed so that the financial year now runs from May to April 30 instead of from annual meeting to annual meeting, which often led to confusion.

"As usual we just squeaked by," commented chairman Joseph Neal. "I mean the society, not the orchestra. But then we are a non-profit organization." As of April 30, there was $86 in its checking account.

However, new memberships have been coming in well. The society has more than $1,000 worth in the first two weeks of the 1972-73 campaign.

FAMILY MEMBERSHIPS were a major source of income, $4,721, last year. Ticket sales for individual concerts amounted to $3,120. This is the first year in which the symphony has charged an admission.

Other major sources of income included the league's annual donation of $6,000 and a sale of carrot cakes, some $800.

Industry donations amounted to more than $1,500, about as usual, but business donations were down to $555.

In all, the society took in almost $17,000 last year and spent more than $16,000. More than $13,000 was for concert costs, including salaries for orchestra members and guest artists, lighting technicians and stage hand for the Plymouth High School auditorium.

During the year, the league raised $9,305 and had expenses of about $3,000. Totals include $1,700 in a round-robin bridge tournament; $2,100 in the antique mart; $932 in a bazaar; $2,740 at the Christmas bazaar; $486 in a fashion show; $500 from bowling; and $1,000 from the "pops" concert.

DR. R.H. Kirchgatter, Dr. John H. Pulker, Norman Ruehr and Dr. Charles Wells were unanimously elected to the symphony board for three-year terms.

Mrs. McCann was elected for two years. They join Mrs. Caroline Jacobs, Mrs. Ann Krankel, Joseph McCann, Helen Rosbalt, Mrs. Valerie Saxton, Wilson Sick Jr. and Utter.

The new league president is Betty Laird. Other officers are Mary Smith, vice-president; Pat Beck, secretary; Betty Siefert, treasurer; Sharon Walker, publicity chairman; and Marge Hodge, refreshments chairman. Mrs. McCann is the advisor.

Casting Call

Auditions for the Macomb Theater-at-the-Barn's third summer season will be held Wednesday and Thursday, May 31 and June 1, from 7 to 10 p.m.

The summer plays will be "My Three Angels," "Ready When You Are, C.B.," "Write Me a Murder," and "You Can't Take It With You."

The auditions will be for all four and are open to anyone.

They will be held in C Building, room 101, on the Center Campus, Hall Road (M-59) at Garfield, Mt. Clemens.

Pamela Chapman, Lee Friedrich, Luanne Sausle and Debbie Tomchak were chosen to take part in the All-Michigan Honors Band which is performing Saturday evening.

Though the summer bowling season doesn't start officially until after the Memorial Day weekend, signs already are in evidence that the hot weather program will be largest ever throughout Observerland.

Most every establishment has at least one league each night, along with morning leagues, and some weekend play. Others, such as Bel-Aire in Farmington is catering to a demand that was far above expectations.

These summer leagues differ from winter in that most are mixed where competition takes second place to fun. There are husband-wife combinations and neighborhood circuits along with family match games.

This all goes to bring about activity that was unheard of not too many years ago.

BEFORE THE ADVENT of the automatic pinsetter when bowlers had to depend upon human hands to set pins, there was scarcity of those who wanted to work in the pits. As a result most of the establishments shutdown for the summer.

In many cases it was a 30-32 week season and that was it.

Then came the pinsetter and air conditioning and bowling grew into a year round sport that is reflected by the record breaking activity in Observerland.

And, aside from the regular leagues, there is a wild rush on among the beginners.

"I never saw anything like this," Mac Goldman, proprietor of Merri-Bowl, said in speaking of the "Learn to Bowl" program he sponsors each summer.

He has 110 students in one class on Mondays and another nearly that size later in the week.

"There is more enthusiasm than ever among these newcomers," he continued, "and it sure looks like a good summer."

Another popular feature of the summer schedule is the Ladies All-Star doubles each Tuesday night at Garden Lanes.

Organized by Ann Setlock 10 years ago, this league pairs an all star with a younger partner in the hope of developing new bowlers.

"It has worked just fine," Ann commented as she prepared for the opening of the schedule next week.

TWO COUNTER GIRLS came into the spotlight in a scoring way last week as they opened the summer campaign.

"Midge" Pashkot, at Westland Bowl, who averages 165 in the regular season, came through with a 566 on the opening night of her summer loop. "That's an average of 188—and I only hope I can stay up there."

It was the same with Doris Maltby at Merri-Bowl. In her first start in the hot weather campaign she posted a 615.

MIDGE'S SON, David, also is away to a flying start. Bowling in an adult league for the first time he is averaging 179.

JERRY GOOD and Larry Pratt shared high scoring honors as the Westland Bowl summer doubles got underway. They posted series of 587, while Ken Jedrpsik contributed a 236 for high game.

DAWN INGALLS, a little 10-year-old girl served notice that she bears watching in the school leagues at Farmington Lanes. Bowling with the prep girls she came through with a 171. Dan Hickerson showed the way to the prep boys with a 188 in 505.

HIGH SCORING marked the start of the "Fun" sea on at Bel-Aire Lanes.

In the men's doubles Steve Keilian posted a four game count of 846 to beat out Don Bennett who had an 834.

High game honors went to Al Massecar with 265 and Dave Crippin with 257.

The high team count for four games is the 1645 posted by Steve and Tom Keilian.

THE DETROIT ALL-STAR Classic, long rated one of the strongest men's leagues in the country, is considering a switch from being a traveling league to a permanent home circuit. Rumor has it the bowlers are looking with favor on Thunderbowl Lanes in Allen Park.

Panthers Remain In League Race

Redford Union remained in the thick of the Suburban Eight baseball race with a 4-3 win over Trenton. The Panthers stand tied for second with Belleville at 7-4.

Edsel Ford leads the pack with an 8-3 mark but RU has a game remaining match with the league leaders on May 30. Plymouth came to the Panther aid with an upset win over Belleville to slow down the front running pace.

RU opened the Trenton game with three runs in the first on three hits. Bob Lehr was safe on an error and Mark Durance tripled him home. Mike Johnston sacrificed in Durance and with two outs. Steve Friedman connected on a round tripper to give the Panthers a 3-0 advantage.

Trenton got one back in its half of the second on a homer by Tom Cranford. Trenton picked away at the margin with one in the third and sixth to notch it at three all.

A SINGLE by Mike Whaley, a passed ball and a single by Don Reno accounted for the second Trenton run. Cranford started Trenton off in the sixth with a single and Don Deller drew a base on balls. John Miller singled to score Cranford and Panther Coach Bob Atkins went to the bullpen.

Tom Miller came in and struck out the first batter he faced and with two outs, walked Dan Mehrhoff to fill the sacks. Miller found the range again and struck out Whaley to retire the side.

With the score tied in the top of the seventh and two outs, Rob Campbell singled and stole second. Durance collected his second run batted in with a single to right to score Campbell with the winning run.

MILLER struck out the side in the Trenton half of the inning and RU stuck right in there in its bid for the league crown.

Trenton's Miller took the loss, giving up nine hits, walking none and striking out one.

The combination of Fuls and Miller on the Panther mound allowed five hits, walked two and struck out nine with Miller striking out the last five batters he faced in picking up the win in relief.

Thurston Zips By Southfield

Bob Ghannam tossed a five hitter and Thurston rolled to a 3-1 non-league victory over Southfield.

Rocky Davis went the route for Southfield, giving up nine hits, walking three and striking out five. Ghannam allowed Southfield five hits, walked six and struck out eight.

Southfield rallied in the first on two walks but couldn't score and Thurston pushed across two on three hits.

Gary Chappell opened with a three-bagger and with one out Bill Fraser singled to left to score Chappell. Fraser advanced to second on a ground out and scampered home on a double by Dave Harding.

The Eagles concluded their scoring in the third with one run on two hits. With one out, Fraser drew a base on balls. Ghannam singled and Harding laced his second hit into right for a single and Fraser scored again.

DAVIS settled down the remaining four innings but couldn't get offensive support. The Blue Jays collected two hits in the third but failed to score and the sixth saw Southfield score one with three runners left stranded.

Bruce Mancel singled and John Wenzel connected with a hit to put two runners on and no outs. Robin Richards batted for Mark Smith and topped a bouncer to John Roy at short.

THE EAGLE infielder tossed to Larry Poma at second for the force on Wenzel and threw to first to nail Richards. Southfield scored a run but there were now two outs and nobody on.

Bruce Digue walked, Dave Markson walked and Bob Howard took four balls to fill the bases. Ghannam uncorked a wild one and Digue broke for the plate. Thurston catcher Mike Robinson retrieved the ball, tossed to Ghannam covering home and the Eagle hurler tagged out Digue.

Ghannam retired Southfield in the seventh, 1-2-3, and Thurston pushed its overall mark to 10-10.

4 Teams Alive In Les Anders Tourney

It's semifinal time in the Les Anders baseball tourney with the games set to go off Monday (May 29) at Ford Field in Livonia.

The area powerhouses are no where to be seen with the 16 team battle narrowed to four. Last year's winner Redford Union was ousted by a Bishop Borgess squad that boasts a 15-9 overall record.

The 6 p.m. game Monday pits Wayne Memorial against Borgess with Farmington and Stevenson meeting at 8:30 p.m.

The winners will meet for the championship on Tuesday (June 6) at Ford Field with opening pitch scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

WAYNE has knocked off Farmington Harrison and Thurston to move into the semifinals while Borgess got by Clarenceville and RU.

Borgess Coach Jim Brisky sees his baseballers taking it all.

Borgess could just take it all if it gets by Wayne. The other semifinal matchup features

Inter-Lakes foes in Farmington and Stevenson.

Jim Harte in Monday's contest.

BOTH TEAMS have been playing up and down baseball and are surprises in the tourney in that they have gone this far.

Stevenson zipped past St. Agatha and throttled the favored Garden City West squad, 7-0, behind the four hit pitching of Bob Bialy.

Farmington toppled Bentley and squeaked by John Glenn to move into the semifinals and it appears that Coach Richard Roy will be calling on

THE FALCONS stand at 7-7 and Stevenson at 8-5 with a share of the conference crown with Walled Lake Central.

Borgess has been said to be as good as its pitcher Reese Dobrick. If his performance against Garden City West was any indication... Dobrick could be the key to the tourney in a championship bid against the winner of the Farmington-Stevenson game.

Tips Churchill, 5-3

Franklin Crushes Thurston

Franklin High played the role of the spoiler in the Northwest Suburban baseball conference.

One game remained to round out the league schedule and this a make-up between Thurston and Livonia Franklin.

Thurston needed a win to stand as co-champions with Birmingham Groves at 7-3 but Franklin didn't see eye to eye with the Eagle's thinking and scored its fourth league win to finish with a 4-6 conference mark.

Thus, Groves won the league title as Thurston lost to Franklin, 3-1.

Thurston went with its ace in senior Mark Miller while Franklin relied on Jamie Knapp. The Patriot sophomore handcuffed Thurston with only three hits in scoring his third win against one setback.

Miller didn't do so bad on the mound with a five hitter to his credit along with five strikeouts. He did run into difficulty with seven bases on balls. Jeff Waterstone and Dan Longway collected three apiece.

KNAPP gave up two walks and struck out two and made just one mistake... a gopher ball pitch to Thurston's Bill

Fraser to lead off the seventh.

Franklin loaded the bases in the first on walks to Waterstone and Karney Derderian. Steve Crowe was hit by a pitch but Miller bore down and got Kevin Palmer to strike out and Wayne Darragh to pop out to get out of the jam.

The Patriots finally broke loose in the top of the third with three runs on four of their five hits. Gar Frantz singled and scored on a three-bagger by Crowe. Palmer singled in Crowe for the second run and scored after a walk to Longway and a triple by Dave Hollandsworth.

That was it as far as Franklin's offensive punch was concerned but it was all Knapp needed as he kept the Eagle bats in check to the bottom of the seventh.

Fraser connected on his round tripper. Knapp kept his poise and got Ghanam to fly out, walked McLain but got Dave Harding to fly out and Mark Holben to ground out to end the game.

FRANKLIN continued its winning ways with a non-league win over Churchill, 5-3.

It was the first pitching assignment for Franklin's Dave Watkins, he didn't get the win but kept the Charger bats in check.

Tim Griffin and Dennis Watson followed Watkins on the mound with Griffin getting the win. Churchill collected its three runs on six hits.

Junior Ken Wood and sophomore Dave Panzoff worked for Churchill with Panzoff getting the loss in relief. Franklin bopped out eight hits, had two walks twice and went down to the tune of strikeouts eight times.

CHURCHILL struck first in the third inning off Watkins with Dave Brubaker safe on an error, advancing three on a ground out and scoring on a sacrifice by Brian Kelly.

The Chargers made it 3-0 in the fourth with two runs on two hits. Henriksson tripled and scored on another three-bagger by Rick Dreher. Dreher raced home on a sacrifice by Al Leirstein and it was 3-0 Churchill.

Franklin finally put it together in the fourth with three runs on two hits to notch it at three-all. Frantz was hit by a pitch and Crowe tripled him home. Palmer knocked out another triple to score Crowe.

That made it four triples in the inning, two by each team. Palmer tallied on a passed ball and it was tied going into the fifth.

Churchill failed to score but Franklin came right back with two more runs on three hits.

WITH ONE OUT, Waterstone and Derderian collected back to back singles and Frantz walked to fill the bases. Crowe singled in Waterstone with the tie breaker and Palmer hit into a fielder's choice to score Derderian with the insurance run.

Churchill was far from calling it quits. Ron Hanroney walked, moved to second on a passed ball and with one out, Coach Hellier replaced Griffin with Watson.

Doug Lloyd drew a base on balls in a pinch-hitting role and moved to second on a passed ball to put the tying run at second with only one out.

Watson got Kelly to fly out to right field and struck out Bob Blaies to end the game with Franklin moving its overall record to 11-9.

Plymouth KO's Belleville, 6-3; RU All Smiles

Plymouth knocked off front-running Belleville, 6-3, in Suburban Eight baseball action and Redford Union couldn't be happier.

Belleville and Edsel Ford were in a tie for first with 7-3 records and RU was next in line at 6-4. Edsel Ford continued its winning ways but coupled with an RU win over Trenton, the Panthers have now moved into a second place tie with Belleville at 7-4.

Plymouth stands off the beaten track with a 5-6 record in the conference and 6-10 overall.

Steve Robb and Lary Graves worked on the Plymouth mound with Graves picking up his first win in relief. Robb hurled four innings, allowed five hits and one run, walked one and struck out three.

Graves pitched the final three innings and gave up three hits and two runs. All three runs scored against the Rocks were unearned.

JERRY COLE and Vern Cowen went the distance for Belleville with Cowen taking the loss in relief.

With no score in the top of the fourth, Belleville had runners on first and second with two outs. Tim Vance blasted a double to left to score both runners.

Plymouth's Tom Laffey made known to his teammates that the first runner had missed tagging third base.

THE APPEAL PLAY was made and the runner ruled out and the game moved into the bottom of the fourth with no score.

"We stole two runs from them," said Plymouth Coach Wayne Sparkman. "And our bench assignment came through with a biggie."

Pete Jenner put Plymouth up by two on a four-bagger with Jim Grimmer on first but Belleville came back in the fifth with two of its own to notch it at two all.

Cole singled, Larry Farr walked, and Cowen was hit by a pitch to fill the bases. Then with two outs, Ken Berra grounded one to second. The ball was booted and thrown away and two runners scampered home.

The contest opened with a steal in the fourth inning.

BELLEVILLE moved up by one in the sixth with Vance safe on an error, stealing second and scoring on a one-bagger by Farr.

Plymouth exploded for four in the sixth to put the game away. Grimmer and Ron Egloff singled and Graves was safe on an error with Grimmer scoring. Graves stole second and Dave Hees laid down a perfect suicide squeeze with two strikes.

Belleville made a play on Egloff at the plate with everybody safe. Dan Hees connected on a sacrifice fly and Graves scampered in with Dave Hees scoring the final run on a wild pitch.

It's time to move over folks and make room for Wolverine Raceway officials to celebrate the first million dollar handle for a harness track in Michigan.

Judging from the program Racing Secretary Ron Giehl has put together for Saturday, this has to be the night when the track makes its biggest move ever. It appears from this viewpoint that if Wolverine doesn't make the million (tonight) Saturday, then it won't do it during the current meeting.

All along the talk has been that Albatross combined with "Good Ol' Times" night will turn the trick on June 16. The reason behind the thinking is that Albatross produced the first $900,000 night last fall when racing in the Matron three year old pace.

It could be but it's our thought that Albatross won't have the same appeal this year as in 1971. Then "The Bird" had an appeal to all who wanted to see the wonder horse perform with the hope that it would break all track records.

As it turned out, the track wasn't that fast and Albatross wasn't at his best and didn't shatter any record even though he attracted a crowd large enough to wager an all-time high of $924,444.

ALBATROSS is still the fastest pacer in modern history but he isn't racing as often this year as last season and thus isn't racing as often this year as last season and thus isn't in the spotlight as much. For sure, his appearance will pack the stands and "Good Ol' Times" will draw thousands of others taking advantage of the dime hot dogs and nickel soft drinks... but we'll stand on our thought that a program such as tonight will bring the million as quick if not quicker than Albatross.

Imagine a harness racing program at a Michigan with purses totaling $56,000 for 10 events and all overnight races. That's what is slated for tonight at Wolverine.

There isn't a bad race on the entire program which includes $10,000 invitational, two preferred events with $6,300 for each and a conditioned invitational which has a value of $8,000.

And that's only a part of the story. There are six other mile events with pursing ranging from a floor of $2,300 to a ceiling of $5,400.

The Monroe Pace, which has the $10,000 pot of gold, attracted seven starters including: Bramble Hall, the west coast speedster who won a week ago; Windy Way, another newcomer from California; Korkie Woolen, who checked in from the west with a string of victories; Trench Coat, handled by Tom Wilburn a recent arrival from the Pacific Coast; and three of the best from Wolverine in Shiawash Lad, Game Gene and Tricky Dale.

THE COMPETITION is so keen that such horses as Local Time, Keystone Aaron, Knox Patch, Gaviland, and Blaze Pick dropped back to conditioned invitational and preferred.

For instance the lineup in the $8,000 pace includes: Apropos, only pacer to better 2:00 at Wolverine this year, Aksan Hanover, Scram, Yankee Creed, Keystone Aaron, Local Time, Blaze Pick and Knox Patch.

That in the first of the two $6,300 preferred lists Darn Vita, Johnny G, Peppy Relec, Faaz Abbe, Chief Okemos, Dodge Acres Cleo, Skipper Time and Cavalier?

In the second are: Gaviland, Perley Hanover, Prince Knox, Spring's Pride, Mighty Fire, Bedford Jet and Kimtruder.

Any one of the preferred races could well top a normal Saturday program at any of the area harness tracks. That's what makes this program the best ever presented in Michigan... the one, that weather permitting, could well be the night Wolverine passed a million.

TWO $20,000 RACES are carded over the weekend as Hazel Park moves into the heart of its longest meeting. Saturday's 10 race program will feature the Lansing Stakes for Michigan-bred three year olds at 6 1/2 furlongs. The nominations closed with 22 horses named and about half that number are scheduled to go to the post.

The Cutter, owned by Red Bob Farms, is the favorite. The colt has had five starts this year with two victories and one third to his credit.

Among those expected to be in contention are Picoco, a winner at Churchill Downs and Frank Carroll's Bold Music who had been considered as a Derby entry. Tattle Mar who won a stakes at Hazel Park and Mrs. J.W. Smith's Marg Wood are others in the field with a chance.

Monday's Decoration Day program will be headlined by the $20,000 In Memoriam Handicap for three year olds and up at one mile.

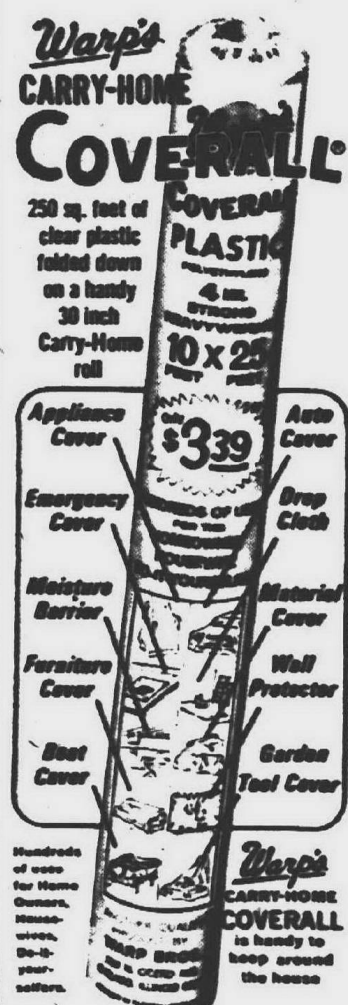

Topping the entries is an eastern favorite, Archie Spears, who has won just under $44,000 at Belmont, Pimlico and Aqueduct. In 10 outings this year he has three wins, one place and two thirds.

Another top contender will be Gage Line, who in the last two years has collected $125,000 in purses. Thus far in 1972 at Oakland and Liberty Bell he was in the money seven out of 10 times with four wins and three seconds.

Red Clark who won two weeks ago is entered as is Royal Pussy Cat. Troubled Area is expected from Chicago where he won his last three at Hawthorne. He won four in 10 races.

HCMA Parks Beaches, Pools Ready For Use

The parks of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority offer a wide variety of recreation for the residents of southeastern Michigan and most facilities will be ready for the three-day Memorial Day holiday starting Saturday, May 27.

These recreational sites are located in the counties of Macomb, Oakland, Livingston, Washtenaw and Wayne.

MARSHBANK Metropolitan Park covers 115 acres six miles west of Pontiac. The park entrance is on Hiller Road, 1/4 mile north of Commerce Road. Stoves, shelters, tables, playground equipment and heavily wooded areas make this park an ideal picnicking site.

There is a wonderful cooling breeze off Cass Lake, but no swimming is permitted at Marshbank Park since there are dangerously deep waters along the park's lake frontage and a fence protects families and children from the shoreline.

The park is open daily Memorial Day through Labor Day; Saturdays and Sundays in the spring and fall.

KENSINGTON Metropolitan Park covers 4,500 acres near Milford and swimming will be available at both Maple and Martindale Beaches for the "holiday" week-end starting on Saturday, May 27.

Maple Beach will be open daily, while Martindale Beach will be open weekends only until completely staffed on June 10 and then both sites will provide swimming along Kent Lake through Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 4.

Both beachhouses have heated showers, dressing rooms, coin-operated lockers for clothes checking, first aid station, food service. Swimming is permitted only at the beaches when lifeguards are on duty. County Health Department officials test the water weekly to insure that it is safe for swimming. Kent Lake is also popular with boaters, sailing craft, canoeists and fishermen.

The Island Queen, popular 60-passenger sternwheeler, makes 45-minute tours around Kent Lake starting on Saturday, May 27 (week-ends only until June 10th), with the summer schedule from Wednesday through Sundays and on holidays. The Island Queen leaves the east boat launching site from noon through 6 p.m. and the charges are 25 cents for children (under 12) and 50 cents for adults. Private charters are available mornings and after 7 p.m. on regular scheduled days.

Large picnic areas are available, all with stoves and tables. Many sites have shelters and playground equipment. Advance registration is requested of picnic groups of 50 or more persons, and no reservations are available.

Other Kensington Park facilities include an 18-hole "Par 71" golf course, nature center with seasonal exhibits, Canada geese on the lakes, and several labeled nature trails for "self-guided" hikes. Bluegills, crappies and bass inhabit Kent Lake, one of the most popular fishing sites in southeastern Michigan.

There are two boat launching ramps. Required permits are issued without charge and good for the 1972 season at the park office or by attendants at the launch ramps in the summer months. Rental craft are available at the boat rental building. Motors are limited to five horsepower on crafts rented from the park, and there is a 10 mile per hour speed limit on Kent Lake. No water skiing is permitted and gasoline and bait are not available at the park.

Refreshments are available when the buildings are open at both Martindale and Maple Beaches, the Golf Course and Boat Rental Building.

THE HURON-CLINTON Metropolitan Authority operates and maintains three parks in Washtenaw County, located from five to 12 miles northwest of Ann Arbor along the scenic Huron River. These parks are Hudson Mills, covering 935 acres; Dexter-Huron, covering 115 acres; and Delhi Park, covering 45 acres.

Hudson Mills Park has heavily wooded areas, a colorful shelter, an attractive lagoon, rustic bridges, a nature trail, picnic tables and stoves, an historic marker, colorful rapids, fishing and canoe campsites which are all primary attractions. The parks do not have bike trails. The acorn nature trail is 1/4 mile in length and leads hikers along bushy areas near the Huron River and finally through densely wooded areas and handsome flowering dogwood trees. The trail is labelled for self-guided hikes.

Dexter-Huron and Delhi Parks are also primarily picnic-playfield parks and are frequently a favorite spot for family and group outings. No picnic reservations are available at any HCMA park. However, groups of 50 or more persons should contact the park office to arrange for the best sites. Tables are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Canoeing and camping by organized youth groups are available with permits issued at the park office. No family camping is permitted at any HCMA park. The several picnic areas all have water and sanitary facilities and the Delhi Rapids is a special attraction.

HHS Having Pops Concert

FARMINGTON The Harrison High School instrumental music department will present its first cabaret "pops" concert on Saturday, June 3, complete with card tables, decorations, refreshments and music.

The concert will begin at 8 p.m. in the Harrison gymnasium. All tickets, which are table seats, are $1 each and may be purchased from orchestra members or at the door.

The concert band, orchestra, stage band, and symphony band will be performing many well-known musicals, marches and popular songs of today.

Among the many numbers to be featured are: "Gypsy," "My Fair Lady," "American Civil War Fantasy," "In the Mood," and "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Drum Major Paul Kubitsky will conduct the symphony band in Richard Rodgers' score of "Victory at Sea" from the famous television documentary.

LOWER HURON Metropolitan Park near Belleville is one of the most popular parks in western Wayne County and will offer many recreational facilities for the Memorial Day week-end and the summer of 1972.

The swimming pool will open on Saturday, and continue daily service through Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 4. Pool hours are 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Mondays through Fridays, with hours from 10:30 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. on Saturday, Sunday and holidays. There is a charge of 25 cents per person for use of the pool, including heated showers and bathhouse because all patrons are required to shower prior to pool use.

Coin-operated lockers are available for clothes-checking at 25 cents per locker, with individuals in the same family or group permitted to share a locker.

THIS GROUP HIKING along one of the park roads helps to enhance the scenic beauty of the roadway through Kensington Metropolitan Park, a 4,300-acre regional recreation site near Milford. Facilities include 1,200-acre Kent Lake for fishermen, boaters and swimmers, several large picnic areas, golf course, playground equipment throughout the park and at two beach sites, boat launching sites, nature trails and nature center.

JULIAN COOK JR., 41, president of the State Civil Rights Commission, is running for one of two new Oakland Circuit Court judgeships. Cook, of Oak Park, earned a BA from Pennsylvania State University in 1952 and JD from Georgetown University in 1957. A trial lawyer, he has been chairman of the State Bar Assn.'s constitutional law committee and vice chairman of its civil liberties committee.

Lem Recalls A Sad Picnic; Gives Ingredients For A Perfect One

BY LEM MESEE

The saddest picnic I ever witnessed took place in a lovely park shelter on Lake Michigan. It involved a group of three families, the matrons apparently being sisters.

Out came multitudes of picnic baskets. Out came tablecloths. Out came dishes and silverware.

Out came three different kinds of potato salads -- each sister was trying to out-do the other -- along with elaborate spreads, gelatin salads, desserts and all the rest. Finally, they said grace.

Saying grace before a meal is OK, but all the rest of it was bad. You couldn't imagine anything more uncomfortable than the poor children involved thinking they were going out to have fun and reality harder to put together than a Sunday dining room repast because there wasn't a kitchen close by. The wind blew napkins and tablecloths around, and no one heard as much as a seagull with all the bejambering going on.

That isn't my idea of how to have a picnic.

THIS MEMORIAL Day weekend, you'll see beaches and picnic sites jam-packed with people swarming like schools of smelt. You get the impression that our parks are crowded, but it simply isn't so.

In any park, on the most crowded day of the year, there are always vast tracts of empty acreage. Why? Simply because the average picnicker won't walk more than 50 feet from his car.

So the first thing is to make up your mind to hoof it -- a quarter of a mile, maybe even a full mile to get some solitude, a place where you can hear a few birds and quietly watch ducks and geese on their nests. You'll never see wildlife by shouting, riding a mini-bike, bouncing around on a snowmobile (in season) or racing around in a motorboat. You've got to walk, then sit quietly for awhile.

It means your picnic preparations will have to be simpler. You don't want to haul a lot of stuff out there and then either leave a lot of junk or have to haul it back. Eliminate the bulky, unnecessary items, and pack your stuff compactly in a haversack or picnic basket -- the fewer packages, the better.

YOU'RE GOING to cook steaks or hamburgers? No need to haul a 20-pound bag of charcoal the way most city slickers do. Just pack the charcoal you need in a small paper sack. Then use the paper sack to store your junk until you find a trash can.

There are other times besides Memorial Day to have a picnic. I like 'em all year around, even in winter. In fact, winter picnics are often the best because you can have a whole park to yourself. If you have a dog, like I do, you don't have to leave him behind or fear that he'll bother folks.

My idea of a picnic meal is the foil dinner so popular with girl and boy scouts. Hamburger, diced beef, pork steaks, even a hunk of coho can make a good meat base. Diced potatoes, carrots, celery, onions round out the stew. Salt and pepper it, then pour on some catsup, barbecue sauce or tomato sauce. The whole thing fries, simmers, steams, roasts, boils and broils together in the aluminum foil in 15-30 minutes. And no dishes to wash and haul home!

A warm weather favorite for on-the-ground picnics is the European menu: Rolls or unsliced French bread, sausage, a hunk of good cheese, a bottle of wine -- and don't forget the sharp knife and the corkscrew.

My favorite picnic spots are on some remote shores of the Huron River, reachable by footpaths. The reason I'm telling you where is that you won't find any trace of where I've been. I leave the site cleaner than the way I found it, and I hope you'll do the same.

Beef Strip Steaks Please

To please a favorite man, husband or sweetheart, serve one food he never tires of -- steak. Lured into a mood of contentment by the hearty beef aroma of tender strip steaks broiling over charcoal, he'll conclude you're a brilliant cook.

Strip steaks are a fine choice for this special outdoor meal because they are cut from the loin, an especially tender section favored by beef-eating men.

BROILED BEEF STRIP STEAKS

Beef top loin steaks, cut 1 to 2 inches thick

Salt and pepper
Let charcoal burn until covered with gray ash before placing steaks on the grill. If a grill thermometer is used, it should register about 350 degrees F for the cooking period. Place steaks on grill and broil eight to 10 minutes. Turn, season with salt and pepper. Brown second side about eight to 10 minutes. Total cooking time for a one-inch thick strip steak will be about 15 to 20 minutes for rare, 20 to 25 minutes for medium. If the strip steak is 1½ inches thick, the total broiling time for rare will be about 25 to 30 minutes, for medium about 30 to 35 minutes. Two-inch steaks will require a few minutes more.

MIDDLE ROUGE Parkway in the early '30s looked much the same as it does today.

47 Years Of Picnics In The Park

When headed for a picnic in the park a majority of residents in this area have one destination in mind.

They are on their way to the Middle Rouge Parkway, that 17 1/2-mile stretch of greenery that follows the river from Seven Mile Rd. in Northville to Ford Rd. in Dearborn.

The parks system started in 1925 with Cass Benton. Work on the parkway was under way in the early '30s. The area now stretches over 2,300 acres. Latest survey, taken in 1968, showed 4.5 million persons had visited the park that year.

Glenn Smith of Plymouth had the food concession in the park during those early years. He recalls the day he heard a loud wailing, "What'll I do? What'll I do?"

A lady had driven a touring car over one of the foot bridges and there she was, stranded, certain the large touring car could never make it back over that narrow bridge.

"You got it over, you'll have to back it over again," Smith told her. And with his help the car returned to safety.

Those were the days when hot dogs and Cracker Jack were the big sellers. On a rainy weekend there would be a forlorn stack of dozens and dozens of leftover hot dogs and buns.

There was the fat lady who got stuck on a high slide and caused a memorable disturbance. It seems they greased the length of the slide and finally down she went.

Over the years innumerable Cub Scout, Brownie, Sunday School, family and company picnics have been held in the park.

From the lone salesman who prefers a lunch of cheese, salami and beer beside the cool waters to another restaurant meal, the "tea-for-twosomes," to hundreds at the large organization picnics, the parkway is a bit of the great outdoors.

Spray Away Those Pesky Patio Pests

Weekend barbecues, lawn badminton or backyard picnics -- they're all part of the season's delights. And they can all be spoiled by unwanted nuisance pests. Those are the four-legged ones, by the way. Not in-laws, but the legions of flying, hopping, crawling pests that seem to like the smell of grilled steak as much as people do.

Ants, ticks, earwigs and mites can hide in cracks along sidewalks and foundations, just waiting for a good picnic.

Flies, of course, can be a major problem around picnic tables and garbage cans. Many other insect pests hide in the lawn or shrubs, where they're easily attracted to the lights or smells of the patio.

While spraying fruits and vegetables, why not spend a few extra minutes spraying around the patio and back door? It does wonders -- especially if you use a broad spectrum chemical like Spectracide. The same mixture used in the garden will do the job around the patio, too.

It's also wise periodically to spray screens, sills and garbage cans -- inside and out. To keep insects from entering the house, lay a protective barrier of spray around the entire foundation and two or three feet up the side of the house.

A fine mist will give you best coverage and will minimize the amount of chemical required to do the job. To reach out-of-the-way places, behind garbage cans and along foundations, use a sprayer extension tube.

While a chemical like Spectracide is non-persistent, it still should not be applied to eating surfaces like picnic tables. Try to spray when the air is calm and always wait a few hours until the spray has dried before using the area.

Bug-less picnics can be a wonderful by-product of regular two-weeks spraying. You'll find that barbecues were never better.

IF YOU LIKE CREATURE COMFORTS, then the best spot for you to hold a picnic is in your own backyard -- or patio. Cozy up to a setting like this featuring comfortable wicker and do your own thing on a hibachi. Colorful plastic paneling overhead and at the sides lets nature in and the neighbors' looks out.

Picnic

In The

Bag

ELIMINATE SPILLS, save space, keep foods fresh and flavorful next time you're totting a meal to the beach or backyard. Simply put the picnic fare into easy-to-seal plastic bags. Thanks to the zipper-like leak-proof seal, chicken stays moist, salads retain crispness, liquids won't leak. You can fill several bags with water and freeze them or fill the bags with ice cubes to be tucked around any perishables.

- 1/4 cup vinegar
- 3 tablespoons salad oil
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon oregano leaves
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 clove garlic, crushed
- 1 can (7 ounces) red pimiento, drained
- 1 can (15 1/2 ounces) cut wax beans, drained
- 1 can (16 ounces) cut green beans, drained
- 1 can (15 1/2 ounces) red kidney beans, rinsed and drained

- 1 large onion, sliced
- 1 can (4 ounces) sliced mushrooms, drained

Blend vinegar, oil, seasonings, sugar and garlic in one gallon-size self-sealing plastic bag. Cut pimiento in strips. Add pimiento and all remaining ingredients to bag; close bag. Shake until ingredients are combined. Chill salad overnight (in bag) to develop flavor. Salad may be stored in plastic bag for several days. (Makes six servings)

'If In Doubt-- Throw It Out' A Good Picnic Slogan

Don't spoil a picnic this summer with spoiled food. Some two million to 20 million Americans are stricken annually with food poisoning. Symptoms include: nausea, vomiting, diarrhea, and abdominal cramps, usually occurring several hours after eating. Picnic foods, plus hot weather, provide the perfect breeding ground for the two main poisoning bacteria -- staphylococcus and salmonella.

Summer is get away time -- you can get away to picnics, barbecues, beaches; but don't try to get away with careless food handling.

"It can lead to a messy case of food poisoning," warns Maryann Meldrum, Michigan State University food marketing agent.

"Bacteria that cause food poisoning enjoy food and summer temperatures as much as you do. They develop and thrive at ordinary summertime temperatures of 50 to 120 degrees," Miss Meldrum says.

The first rule of proper food handling is to keep food clean, she points out. When preparing food, wash your hands thoroughly and often. Keep insects and animals away from food.

SECONDLY, keep hot foods hot, cold foods cold. Several thicknesses of newspaper and insulated containers help hold heat or cold. Use them when transporting food to the picnic or barbecue area.

Heat or chill food containers and insulated carriers as well as food, Miss Meldrum recommends. Then put the hot or cold food into the carriers.

Pack bags of ice cubes or cans of pre-frozen special liquid around the food. You can even freeze milk cartons filled with water and put them in the traveling cooler when you're ready to go, Miss Meldrum says.

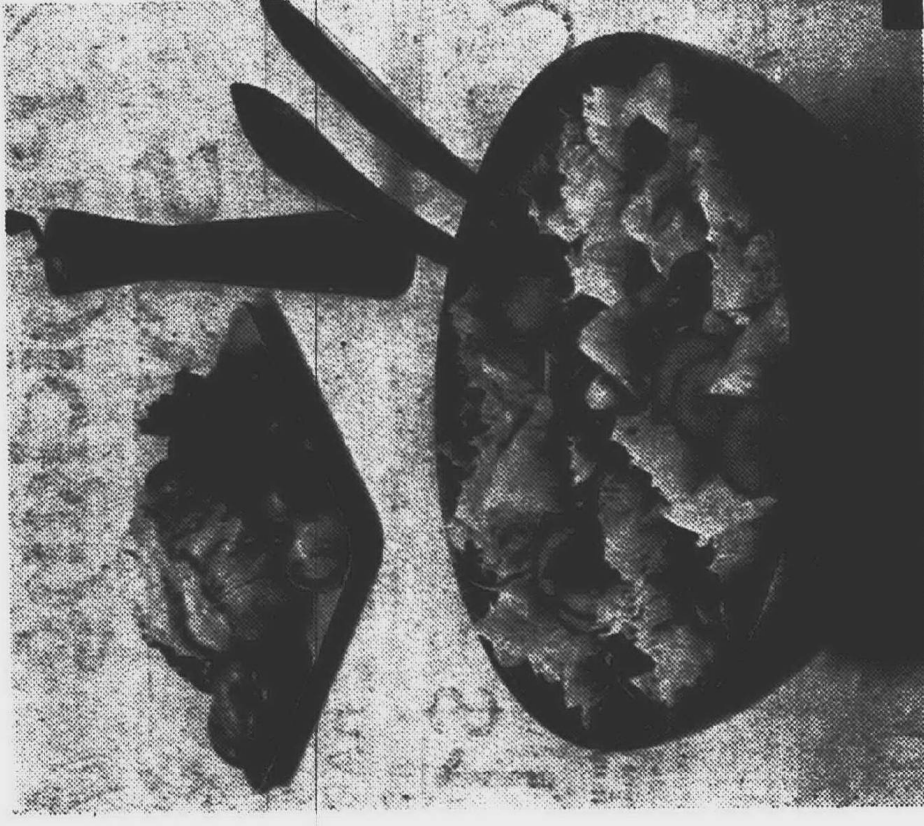

Save most of the food preparation until the very last minute. Carry salad or sandwich ingredients in refrigerated containers to the picnic areas. Combine them after you arrive.

BESPECIALLY careful of all creamed dishes, puddings, pie fillings or casseroles, all types of poultry, ham and fish, potato salad, stuffings, gravies and chopped food sandwiches such as egg, ham or tuna salad, Miss Meldrum warns. Food poisoning bacteria grow more easily in these foods than others.

Refrigerate all leftovers as soon as possible after eating. If this is not possible, throw them away.

A safety slogan for summer is "if in doubt, throw it out," Miss Meldrum suggests.

It's Barbecue Time

When there's a barbecue in the wind, toss a big crisp salad of western iceberg lettuce chunks, sliced cucumbers, tomatoes and radishes. Add a dressing of anchovy paste, Worcestershire, steak sauce and red wine, and you have top-notch eating with charcoal-broiled meats anytime.

- SUPERB BARBECUE SALAD
- 1 head western iceberg lettuce 3 tablespoons tarragon vinegar
 - 1 large cucumber, sliced 1/2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
 - 2 tomatoes, quartered 2 tablespoons bottled steak sauce
 - 1 bunch radishes, sliced 1/2 cup garlic, crushed
 - 1/2 cup olive oil 2 tablespoons dry red wine
 - 1/2 cup Danish Blue cheese 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 - 2 tablespoons anchovy paste Salt to taste

Core, rinse and drain lettuce; chill in disposable plastic bag. Add garlic to oil. Blend cheese with remaining ingredients. Cut lettuce into bite-size pieces. Add dressing and tomatoes and radishes. Toss lightly with half of the dressing just before serving. Store remaining dressing in refrigerator. Makes 6 servings.
