Retroactive Pay For Teachers Snarled By Pay Board Dispute

By KATHY MORAN

School's out and Plymouth teachers have gone their own ways for the summer still not knowing if they will get their retroactive pay.

The long dispute will again be discussed at Tuesday's board meeting, but a recent series of events indicates that a decision won't be made then.

The question on retroactive pay stems back to December when teachers argued they should receive full pay for the period of the federal wage freeze because their contract had been made prior to the freeze. Two weeks ago, the Plymouth Education Assn. (teachers' bargaining unit) was notified from the Pay Board in Washington that their retro pay request was

Cost to the school district is estimated at a maximum of $139,000.

FOLLOWING the usual procedure, the school board referred the ruling to its legal counsel, Atty. John Thomas, for review before the $200 to $400 per teacher was paid.

The catch came when Thomas discovered that the section of the law cited by the Pay Board as reason for granting the payments didn't apply to the Plymouth case.

"I examined the letter, the law and the materials they (the teacher's union) submitted," Thomas said. "I concluded that the opinion was wrong because the Pay Board

Although possessing a member of the State Senate in Carl D. Pursell, Plymouth this week also gained candidates for the State House of Representatives and Wayne County Board of Commissioners in newly apportioned districts.

Robert E. Dwyer of 1274 Penniman, former Democratic chairman of the 2nd Congressional District, was the only member of his party to file for the House in the newly created 52nd District which links most of Plymouth with eastern Washtenaw County.

Inasmuch as he is unopposed for the Democratic nomination, Dwyer will have as his November rival either of two Republican candidates, Raymond J. Smit or Douglas R. Smith, both of Ann Arbor. Smit is the current representative of the old 53rd District, having been first elected in

IN THE REAPPORTIONED county commission structure, Plymouth now is part of the new 27th District and has one of the four Democratic candidates for the board in Orville L. Tungate of 13887 Ridgewood.

Tungate is the regional manager of Shulman Transport Enterprises, specializing in the handling of air and ocean freight, and has long been active in local Democratic affairs. He was the party's nominee for Plymouth Township supervisor in 1959.

In the Aug. 8 primary he will be facing George L. Craven of Belleville, Louis J. Guilbault of Wayne and Paul Lada, also of Wayne. The unopposed Republican candidate in the 27th is Brian G. Arrowsmith of Wayne. There are no incumbents.

BECAUSE OF A redistricting plan ordered in May by the Supreme Court, the southeastern portion of Plymouth Township has been made a part of the state's 37th House District instead of the 52nd, and precinct boundaries have been changed to conform with this pattern.

This puts township precinct Nos. 3 and 9 in the 37th, which is dominated by Canton Township, Wayne and Westland.

The four Democrats seeking nomination to the House from the 37th are Michael B. Bushta of 44248 Craftsbury Ct., Canton; incumbent Thomas H. Brown of Westland, Manuel L. Lentine Jr. of Wayne and former Rep. Vincent J. Petitprin of Westland. The only Republican candidate is Jack A. Underwood of Westland.

ALTHOUGH PLYMOUTH still remains in the 2nd Congressional District, this district, too, has been reshaped to meet population conformity. The incumbent congressman, Republican Marvin L. Esch of Ann Arbor, is his party's only candidate, but the Democrats will have six names on the Aug. 8 primary ballot.

Included are Marvin Stempien of Livonia, Matthew J. Kehoe of Lambertville, Frederick J. Schwall of Ypsilanti, Walter Shapiro of Ann Arbor, Billy Turner of Ypsilanti and Bill Brown of Ann Arbor.

All of Plymouth Township's candidates for local offices were announced in Wednesday's Mail & Observer, indicating strong primary battles for the Republican nominations for supervisor, treasurer and board of trustees. In Canton Township, the primary battles all will be on the Democratic side, for the only Republican candidate is James E. Poole for trustee. Democrats, however, face these choices: Supervisor: Philip Dingeldey, incumbent;

Roger William Smith and Jack H. Marts. Clerk: John W. Flodin, incumbent, and Ellen M. Rutland.

Treasurer: Grant Campbell, incumbent, and Alberta A. Thomas.

Trustees: William S. Graham Jr., incumbent; Robert H. Griffin, incumbent; Frank A. McMurray Sr.; Louis J. Richardson, Lawrence C. Baron, Walter Baran and Conrad E. Dennis.

THE PEA notified the Michigan Education Assn. attorney who began to prepare an application for appeal of the ruling.

Within four days, before the appeal was made, the teachers were notified from the higher offices in Washington (which they would have appealed to) that the appliction was approved.

Both Thomas and Heath indicated optimism that the payments will be made eventually.

ASA JONASSON of Malmo, Sweden will be a special guest of Plymouth Jaycees during July and August. Her visit and its purpose are discussed in Bifocals.

A PROGRAM which was created to foster mutual respect and understanding among the peoples of the world will bring a special guest to Plymouth next Saturday, and she will be in our midst for two months learning about life in the United States.

THROUGH BIFOCALS

By FRED DeLANO / Editor Mail & Observer

She is Miss Asa Jonasson, a chemistry and biology teacher from Malmo, Sweden, and her official hosts will be the Plymouth Jaycees. Unofficially, all of us who live here will have a role to play in making her welcome.

She writes in a letter, "I hope that the time I spend together with you will be as nice for you as I am sure it will be for me. The U.S.A. is for me a most interesting country. Since I was a little girl, I have been dreaming to come over there. I have always heard that the Americans are very kind and friendly."

Miss Jonasson will be staying with various Jaycee families throughout July and August, and an appointment has been made with Gov. William Milliken for July 11. She will ride in the July 4 parade and a special reception will be held in her honor the afternoon of Sunday, July 9. One would hope that when she leaves late in August she will have made many lasting friends.

MISS JONASSON is coming here under what is called the "Incoming Ambassador" program of the "Experiment in International Living" organization, headquartered at Brattleboro, Vt.

This was founded in 1932 as a carefully planned, international educational exchange program. It emphasizes a personal approach to the problems of international cooperation, and our Jaycees are to be complimented for deciding to participate.

Their chairman of the project is Dennis Richardson, who has mapped a variety of experiences for the Swedish guest.

The family homestay is the essence of this "investment in friendship," and last summer Miss Jonasson spent six weeks in India under the same program. Of this she writes:

"It was a wonderful time. I really enjoyed it. to be an obstetrician, got the The Indian people are so extremely nice." In fact, she enjoyed her stay in India so much that recently she visited there for two weeks "in order to meet some of the friends I made last summer."

A GRADUATE of the University of Lund, Miss Jonasson holds a master's degree in science and now teaches in a secondary school. She will observe her 32nd birthday while in Plymouth (Aug. 6) and her background includes five summers when she worked during her vacations as an airline hostess.

"I am very curious and interested to know more about other people and countries," she writes. "I also would like to inform about Sweden because I think there are a lot of misunderstandings abroad about my country."

Our guest-to-be says she is interested in the theater, ballet, classical and pop music, skiing. swimming, horseback riding and nature. Presumably the Jaycees will be able to meet all these tastes except the bit about skiing.

It sounds as though she will help make it a more interesting summer, and it will be interesting to hear what she thinks of Plymouth a few weeks hence.

"This one was near the Rouge River at Venoy and Michigan Avenue that led to Ypsilanti," Ron explained.

He finds combining his interest in history with cleaning up old cemeteries interesting and exciting.

"Studying old tombstones often turns up a lot of history about the area; it's a great hobby," he said.

South Africa Visit Topic For Pastor

The Rev. Harold A. Kirchenbauer will speak on South Africa and show slides of his recent visit there at the June dinner of University Hills Church of Farmington Tuesday, June 27.

The public is invited to the potluck dinner at 7 p.m. and the talk at 8 p.m. in the church located at Farmington Road and I-696. .

REV. KIRCHENBAUER, pastor of the Williamston United Methodist Church and staff chaplain of the Michigan National Guard, went to the Republic of South Africa last November as a guest of the government there.

He and his wife spent a month meeting with government officials in policymaking roles as well as influencial clergymen, educators and politicians.

The objectives of the study mission, he stated, included a look at "progress made by South Africa in the last 10 vears in those controversial areas of misunderstanding by pressure groups in the United States."

He also was aiming to collect material to create a and the United States.

Frankly, no one cares.

The mere fact that we've been around for many years doesn't impress anyone, nor should it.

What's impressive is what we've done during those years -- always keeping up with (or maybe even a little ahead of!) the needs of saddened families. always serving with the skill of professionals and the sincere concern of friends.

Joe Bide, re: Policy on Fire Hydrant Rental. Mr. Breen stated that the ordinance called for $50.00 per fire hydrant, but the amount charged for many years has been $10.00 The $10.00 charge was dropped completely during budget sessions this past year, but the Auditors advised that there should be a charge made. Mrs. Richardson remarked that at Budget time. there was talk of amending the Ordinance to allow for the change in the nount charged, but to date, this had not been accomplished. The question was asked as to how many hydrants were involved and Mr. Bida advised there were more than 670 hydrants. Mrs. Holmes moved that a charge of $5.00 per fire hydrant per year be reinstated to the Water Department from the General Fund payable on a quarterly basis. Supported by Mr. Ash. The following roll call vote was taken Yes. Holmes, Millington, Overholt, Ash. No Burke, Richardson, Breen. The motion carried four to three. Mr. Overholt moved to amend Ordinance No. 21. Ten Minute Open Discussion: Mrs. Richardson stated that the Michigan Township Association had requested an additional $120.00 for a legal delense fund. Mr. Overholt moved that the above mentioned item be added to the agenda. Supported by Mr Burke and carried unanimously Mrs Richardson stated that the Board had already approved $1200.00, which she considered a sizable amount to this association. Mr. Ash said that the fund was for legal purposes such as defending a Supervisor. Mr Breen stated that the sum now paid was sufficient. Mr Ash moved that the additional 10% not be sent to the Michigan Township Association. Supported by Mr. Millington and carried unanimously.

Supervisor Breen adjourned the meeting at 9:31 P.M. Respectfully submitted.

"Where the CUSTOMER is the BOSS"

Or a fall job or a winter job, either.

The energetic young man with an OBSERVER newspaper route -- a boy in business for himself -- has a steady yearly income.

The few hours he puts in each week not only provide monetary return, but an even more significant dividend of learning how free enterprise operates.

But you can't put a price on the other skills acquired from OBSERVER route experience . . . learning how to deal pleasantly with people, the value of being on time, keeping proper records and collecting.

Your OBSERVER carrier is learning all the time . . . and making money while he's learning.

So, welcome him. The small monthly payment you make to the Carrier Subscription Plan helps him measure his success in his first business venture. The way he is greeted may determine and mold his future development.

Oh yes, and please ask for a receipt when you give him your monthly payment.

HEY, FELLAS!

IF you are interested in becoming an Observer Carrier there's room for you on our team. Just fill in the coupon and mail it in. (And parents, if you've just read this page and have a son who would like to become an Observer Carrier, tear it out and save it for him.)

and when a school is located a catch is guaranteed. The boat fisherman has an advantage, however, since he can locate the schools while shore fishermen have to wait for the fish to appear.

Lake Michigan perch are not "fighting" fish. They are more willing to be caught than resist, but they excel in the frying pan.

Floured, crumbed or battered and pan-fried to a crispy brown, fresh-caught perch are just plain delicious. The flesh is white, moist, flaky and tender, the flavor sweet and delicate, not at all "fishy."

The private campgrounds in Michigan number over 250 and are beginning to "catch on."

They often offer newer facilities and more secluded camp sites than public parks -- and at rates comparable to the state parks.

An added advantage is that they will often accept reservations and post no limit to your stay. If you're planning a week end camping trip, investigate the private campgrounds near the area to which you would like to go.

Michigan's Why Lake

A comeback by the once-almost-extinct Lake Michigan perch -- easily caught and one of the tastiest fresh-water fish -- could rival the mighty salmon for fishing headlines this summer.

While perch fishing was almost non-existent during the past decade, it should draw more participants than the coho this year.

Major reason for the perch's popularity is that the green-sided, yellow-bellied fish can be caught by almost anyone from piers and breakwaters and small boats with no more equipment than a hook, sinker, drop line and a can of gar-numerous communities with breakwaters and piers from which good catches of perch are expected. The accompanying map pinpoints many of these places.

Jumbo perch have made a spectacular comeback, probably because of the salmon. den worms.

Lake Michigan's shore has numerous communities with Perch fishing collapsed during the 1950s due to the sea lamprey invasion, intense commercial fishing and growth in the number of alewives. It was probably the alewife explosion which had most to do with the near end of the perch population.

Alewives compete with perch for food, space and spawning territory, and perch eggs are high on the alewives' list of preferred snacks. Theory is that the perch simply could not withstand the alewife pressure and lost out in the survival fight.

Making Lake Michigan capable of supporting game fish like trout and salmon was not intended to restore the perch population. It was a happy by-product for shoreline and small-boat fishermen. This year, anglers are expected to fish calm, shallow water for perch from small boats and shore as they did 20 years ago.

It was the measures taken to insure success of the coho -- lamprey control and tight restrictions on commercial fishing -- that helped the depleted perch stock bounce back.

While millions of salmon, lake trout and steelhead have been planted since 1965, not a single perch was planted.

Signs of Lake Michigan's perch comeback were evident in 1969 when good catches of small fish were taken. The size improved during 1970. Last summer, buckets and stringers began to bulge with jumbos -- some up to 14 inches long and weighing a pound or more. The voracious predatory salmon and trout began to eat down the alewives to a level more nearly approaching normal numbers. Massive natural die-offs thinned the alewives further.
