Story's Not Over

The story of Pete Muntean is a harrowing one of having escaped from behind the Iron Curtain after years of trying. However, there was sorrow even in that victory, for left behind were his wife and two young daughters. Maurie Walker's interview with this Plymouth man tells how it came about.

Eagle Flies High

There was a new arrival in Plymouth a few days ago, coming all the way from Ecuador to provide a happy ending to a dream long held by Ralph Lorenz. The Mayflower proprietor now has his American eagle for all to see, and The Stroller reveals how an Ecuadorian wood carver became involved.

Kellogg Park 11 P.M. Curfew Under Consideration By City

By FRED DeLANO

One of the most sociologically explosive issues considered by the Plymouth City Commission in several years was given board general endorsement this week, with final action scheduled for the meeting of Monday, Aug. 7.

It is an ordinance which would limit unauthorized public meetings on city-owned park property to a maximum of 20 persons and would establish an 11 p.m. curfew on Kellogg Park occupancy.

If interpreted in its strictest form under the proposed measure's language, even Hough Park youngsters would be barred from the tossing of Frisbees unless approved by the city manager.

PLYMOUTH HAD a fight over an open housing ordinance in 1968, and then quarreled about an obscenity ordinance in 1970. Now comes proposed legislation to govern behavior in parks and public grounds which is fraught with equal dynamite.

On the surface it is a simple matter. When the commission gave its first reading approval last Monday by a 4-1 vote it was by title only: "General regulations for parks, public grounds and recreational areas."

Commissioner Beverly McAninch voted against it, in the face of affirmative votes from James McKeon, William Silvis, Norbert Batterman and Ernie Henry. Two members -- Robert Sincok and Harold Guenther -- were absent.

IT IS THE habit of the current commission to give first reading to proposed ordinances without change, and then edit the language in subsequent weeks before final consideration. Thus, the parks measure may be in for considerable debate.

Nonetheless, as approved in its preliminary form, the ordinance proposes such restrictive public limitations as these:

"No person shall camp, or pitch a tent of any description in Kellogg Park or Hough Park.

"No person shall play any game of baseball, football or ball or missile throwing or other violent, hazardous or rough exercises in any public park (except) upon such portion as may be designated by the city manager.

"No person shall wade, swim or bathe in the fountain in Kellogg Park.

"No parade, procession, exercises or other activities which result in a congregating together of a large number of people shall be permitted within the parks without a permit having been obtained from the city. A large number of persons is herein defined as more than 20. This rule does not extend to athletic events or group picnics in approved areas.

"No person shall loiter or remain within public parks between the hours of 11 p.m. and 6 a.m. unless permitted by the city manager.

"Under circumstances considered by the police to be hazardous to the health, welfare and safety of the community, they are authorized to close the parks at an hour earlier than specified above. Each such closing will be documented in reports to be filed with the city manager.

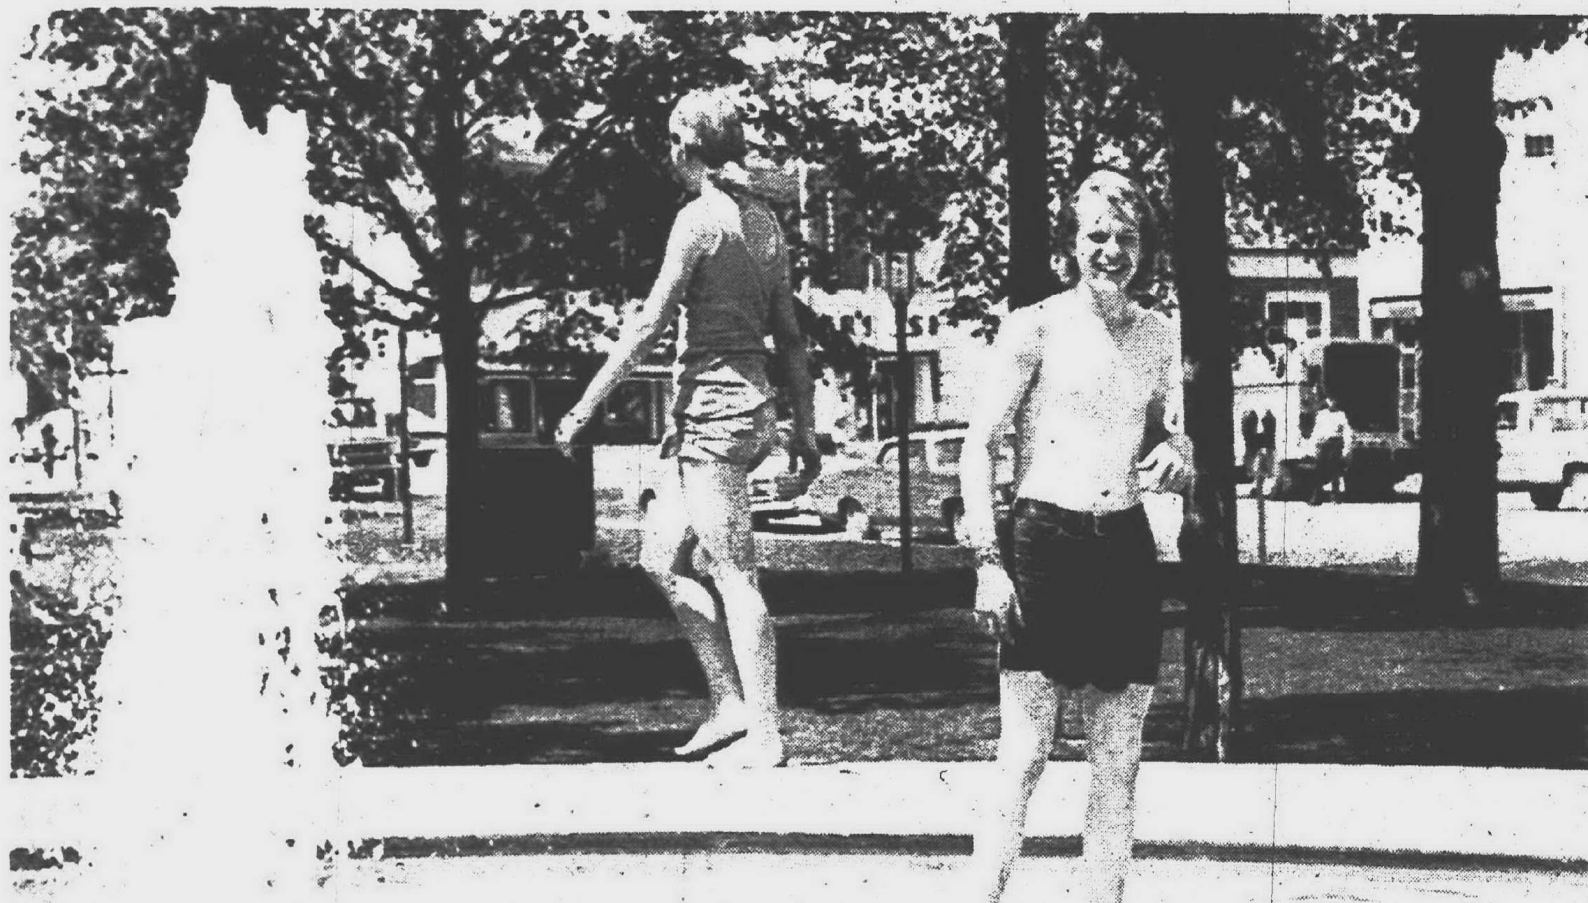

"NO PERSON shall have in his possession or consume any alcoholic beverages of any type in any park, or public ground as herein defined, except as authorized by the city manager, subject to approval of the city commission."

Conviction of any violations of whatever regulations are eventually adopted could carry a maximum fine of $500 and 90 days imprisonment.

There are numerous other restrictive regulations in the proposed legislation, and commissioners are openly wary of its implications. They recall, for instance, that two years ago Kellogg Park reportedly had been selected for spring vacation demonstration by Michigan SDS members, a camp-in which went awry without explanation by the sponsoring collegians.

Complaints about late night activities in Kellogg Park have been increasing this year, and at least twice police have cleared it of all patrons in fear of a physical outbreak of violence. The pool, too, has had to be drained several times because of vandalism, and it has been necessary to replace shrubbery because of the same reason.

Whether the commission is willing to issue the challenge of a curfew, supported by restrictive rules, is something only a roll call vote in August will determine.

YOUTHFUL HI-JINKS such as wading in the Kellogg Park fountain would be banned under the language of a proposed city ordinance establishing regulations for parks and public grounds. (Observer photo by Bob Woodring)

Lawton Likely Bd. Of Ed. President

Plymouth's new school board will assemble for the first time officially Monday night in a meeting to be highlighted by the election of board president and other officers.

George F. Lawton, senior member of the seven-member directorate because of his election in 1970, is expected to succeed to the presidency vacated by Mrs. Esther Hulsing, who retired after 18 years on the board.

The board also includes these residents of the school district:

John Graves, Fred Penar and Dr. John Ohno, all three of whom were elected in 1971; Mrs. Marda Benson and Gary Mirto, both elected last month, and Carl Berry, appointed after the election last month to replace Wilson Sick Jr., who had resigned too late for his seat to be on the ballot.

The board will choose a vice president, secretary, and treasurer, as well as president, during its 8 p.m. organizational session which will be followed by the first regular meeting of July on general school affairs.

AT THIS time, it is expected that initial results will be made known of the poll among parents of Plymouth High School band members concerning the invitation to participate in the Tournament of Roses parade at Pasadena, Calif. next New Year's Day.

In inviting the 150-piece Plymouth band, the Tournament of Roses Association made it plain that all expenses would have to be borne locally.

First step to determine whether the invitation will be accepted requires, under board policy, that the parents be polled. It will be a dead issue unless at least 90 per cent of them approve.

If they do give the go-ahead, then the band organization and community leaders will tackle the financial issue. It is estimated the trip would cost about $45,000, to be financed totally outside tax funds.

IF THE 46-year-old Lawton is indeed elevated to the board presidency, it will continue an enviable record of public service involvement since he and his family moved here in 1958.

He has been the chief administrative officer of the Plymouth Community Federal Credit Union throughout that time, a period during which that organization's assets have multiplied many times as the membership rolls have grown to more than 10,000 accounts.

A former member of the city commission, he currently serves also on the Canton Township Planning Commission after moving from his home on Sheridan to the Canton area where he raises quarter horses on his Joy Road farm.

A decade ago he was chosen as Plymouth's "man of the year" and has served as president of the Chamber of Commerce as well as holding offices in the YMCA, Symphony Society, Kiwanis Club and several other service organizations.

Crenshaw's Exam Set

By MAURIE WALKER

Donald A. Crenshaw, 29, accused of the May 31 shooting of Charles P. Finlan, stood mute at his arraignment Thursday before Wayne County Circuit Judge Benjamin Burdick and was ordered to appear for pre-trial examination on July 20. The $35,000 cash bond was continued.

At the July 20 hearing, the judge will set a date for Crenshaw's trial.

The defendant had previously waived pre-trial examination when he appeared in District Court before Judge Dunbar Davis in Plymouth.

FINLAN, who had been shot several times while in the parking lot outside his office at 500 S. Main, is now recovering from the wounds at the rehabilitation center in Ann Arbor.

He has been there since June 19, having been transferred from Wayne County General Hospital where he was taken after being shot.

On the same day, July 20, that Crenshaw will appear in Wayne County Circuit Court, David L. Bennett, 17, accused of killing Mrs. Vivian Berry, will appear for his pre-trial examination.

Bennett, who is confined to Wayne County Jail, is charged with the May 9 knife slaying of Mrs. Berry, whose body was discovered in the garage of her home on North Territorial Rd.

SIGNS OF ARSON—The torn shingles and gasoline can on the roof of a garage at 49900 Ann Arbor Rd., Plymouth Township, were found by firemen who answered a fire call there recently. The garage was built by George Holt of Plymouth, who is also building a new house at the site. Firemen said vandals broke open the garage, took out the gasoline can and used a nearby ladder to get up on the roof. Michigan State Police and the Fire Marshal Bureau of the Wayne County Sheriff Department are investigating. (Photo by Ken Garner)

Plymouth Man Tells Of Iron Curtain Escape

BY MAURIE WALKER
Successfully escaping from behind the Iron Curtain is a dangerous task, even with help. Accomplishing the feat alone is another story.

This, however, is exactly what Pete Muntean, 34, of 14632 Garland, Plymouth, did back in 1967.

Reliving his escape, Muntean, whom works at General Motors Diesel plant in Redford, said he is still trying to find a way to get his wife and two young daughters out of Rumania and to the United States.

PLYMOUTH COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICT Plymouth, Michigan BOARD OF EDUCATION MINUTES

A special meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District, Wayne and Washtenaw Counties, Michigan, was held on Wednesday evening, June 7, 1972, in the Board Room of the Administration Building, 1024 South Mill Street, Plymouth, Michigan.

The meeting was called to order by President Hulsing at 8:05 p.m. Present: Members Graves, Hulsing, Ohno and Sick. Absent: Members Lawton and Penar.

Administrators present: Assistant Superintendent Gibson and Director Kee. Others present: Dr. R. Evans, Roberta Gladden, James Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hill, Shirley Mack, James Rossman and Florence Tonda, Bill Heath, P.E.A. and Fred DeLano, Plymouth Mail & Observer.

Secretary Sick read a letter of resignation which had been received from Member John E. Hanks, effective immediately. President Hulsing expressed regrets of the Board for the resignation.

It was moved by Member Sick and seconded by Member Ohno that the resignation of John Hanks be accepted with regret, with the Board expressing its appreciation for his past services and extending best wishes for his future assignment.

Ayes: Members Graves, Hulsing, Ohno and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

A letter from William Heath, P.E.A. President, regarding retroactive pay for teachers and comparable retroactive pay for administrators was read by President Hulsing. A suggested response was read by President Hulsing and concurred in by the Board.

Assistant Superintendent Gibson explained changes proposed by the Administration for furnishing of musical instruments for middle school students as follows:

1) Summer school students would either rent an instrument for a period of three months or would own their own instrument.

2) Starting school year 1972-73, 8th grade students would be loaned a musical instrument and 7th and 8th grades would be required to purchase their own. Member Lawton arrived at 8:20 p.m. during the discussion and Assistant Superintendent Blunk arrived at 8:22 p.m.

It was moved by Member Graves and seconded by Member Lawton that the Board accept the recommendation of Administration to encourage students to rent or use their own instruments in Summer School, 1972.

Ayes: Members Graves, Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

The Administration was directed to investigate and prepare a policy for the 1972-73 School Year for submission to the Board as soon as possible.

Assistant Superintendent Gibson announced a tenure hearing for Thursday, June 15, 1972, at 8:00 p.m.

A memorandum from Assistant Superintendent Blunk was received stating the approximate total State Equalized Valuation for the District is $315,000,000, slightly over the estimate of $315 million dollars made earlier.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Graves that, consistent with the philosophy of the Board to depend on the community to support millage and to elect Board members, and consistent with the philosophy that the Board should consider direction given by the electorate in making its appointments, a resolution be adopted that the Board consider the third ranked candidate in the School Board election on June 12, 1972, for appointment to fill the Board vacancy caused by the resignation of Member John Hanks, providing the third ranked candidate is clearly the choice of the people and has a clear mandate from the people.

Ayes: Members Graves, Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Sick and seconded by Member Ohno that the meeting be adjourned at 8:40 p.m.

Ayes: Members Graves, Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Respectfully submitted,

WILSON W. SICK, JR., Secretary
Board of Education

"For nearly seven years I had been trying to find a way to escape from Rumania," Muntean said.

"Finally, in September of 1967, I was allowed to take a bus trip into Yugoslavia, a move by the Communists to help better relations between the two countries."

It was in Yugoslavia that Muntean made his move.

"WAITING FOR NIGHT time, I headed for Italy. 'I walked all night, managed to reach the outskirts of Trieste."

"Italian police sent me to Genoa, advised me to go to the German embassy for help."

"They were very helpful, giving me food and some money. From there I went to Rome. Here I became desperate. I was again without money or a place to stay."

Muntean said he stopped a man in the street, asked for help.

"I just took a chance. I knew that if I was arrested and returned to Rumania, I get at least 10 years in jail. But I needed help and figured if I'm to be arrested I'll have to be arrested."

The stranger, however, advised him to tell his story to the police. He did.

"They sent me back to Trieste to a refugee camp. Here I explained to the police that I wanted to go to the United States. Fortunately they took me to the United States Consular office."

This is where his dream started to come true.

"THEY ALLOWED me to stay with them, gave me a place to sleep, food and clothing. I was in Italy about five months. Then one day people at the U.S. Consul purchased an air fare ticket for me to go to New York."

With the help of that office, he arrived in New York on a cold February day in 1968.

"Not knowing anyone in New York, I went to a Rumanian church where they paid for a motel for a week and gave me $10."

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING SPECIAL ASSESSMENT IMPROVEMENTS CITY OF PLYMOUTH, MICHIGAN

TO ALL INTERESTED PERSONS:

Notice is hereby given that on Monday, July 24, 1972, at 8:00 P.M. Eastern Standard Time, a public hearing will be held by the City Commission of the City of Plymouth, Michigan, in the Commission Chambers of the City Hall, said City, upon the question of necessity in regard to the proposed especially assessed local or public improvements described as follows:

LOCATION:

Roosevelt Street, Hartsgrove to Ross and 166 feet directly south of Burroughs

IMPROVEMENT

Bituminous concrete and/or slagcrete (aggregate - lime - pozzolan base) to be placed between existing concrete curb and gutter 31 feet back to back, and sewer and gate well adjustments where needed.
Project No. 806-451-000-707.

DISTRICT

All those lots whose frontage or sideline abuts the improvement.

At said hearing, objections to said improvement will be heard. The report of the City Manager and the resolutions of the City Commission are on file in the office of the City Clerk at the City Hall for public examination.

While job hunting, he met a fellow countryman.

"I heard him talking in my native tongue so I went right up to him and told him I needed a job badly."

The new-found friend got Muntean a job as a bus boy at a restaurant on Broadway.

"While working there, I heard people talking of all the job opportunities in Detroit at the automobile plants. After six months in New York, I headed for Detroit."

He applied for a job at the General Motors Hydra-Matic plant at Willow Run. The next day he was hired.

In 1970 he took his present job with Detroit Diesel where he is a machine operator.

"THIS IS A wonderful country," Muntean stated. "I guess a lot of people don't appreciate it, but believe me, having lived most of my life under Communist rule, I really appreciate the United States."

"In Rumania I would never have the nice car I own nor a good home like mine. I make more money in one day here than I would in a month in Rumania."

Muntean said he had studied restaurant management at a commercial school in Rumania and worked in a restaurant there before his escape.

His efforts so far to get his family to the United States have been futile.

"There was a man in the Rumanian embassy who said he had connections but wanted $12,000 cash to get my family over here."

"I just don't have that much money. And if I did, there is no guarantee that my family would be allowed to come over here."

MUNTEAN SENDS money to his family every month and hears from them regularly.

"But I want them here. There must be some means of doing this," he said.

Muntean is happy in the United States, as happy as is possible without his family.

"I am going to apply for citizenship next year," he beamed.

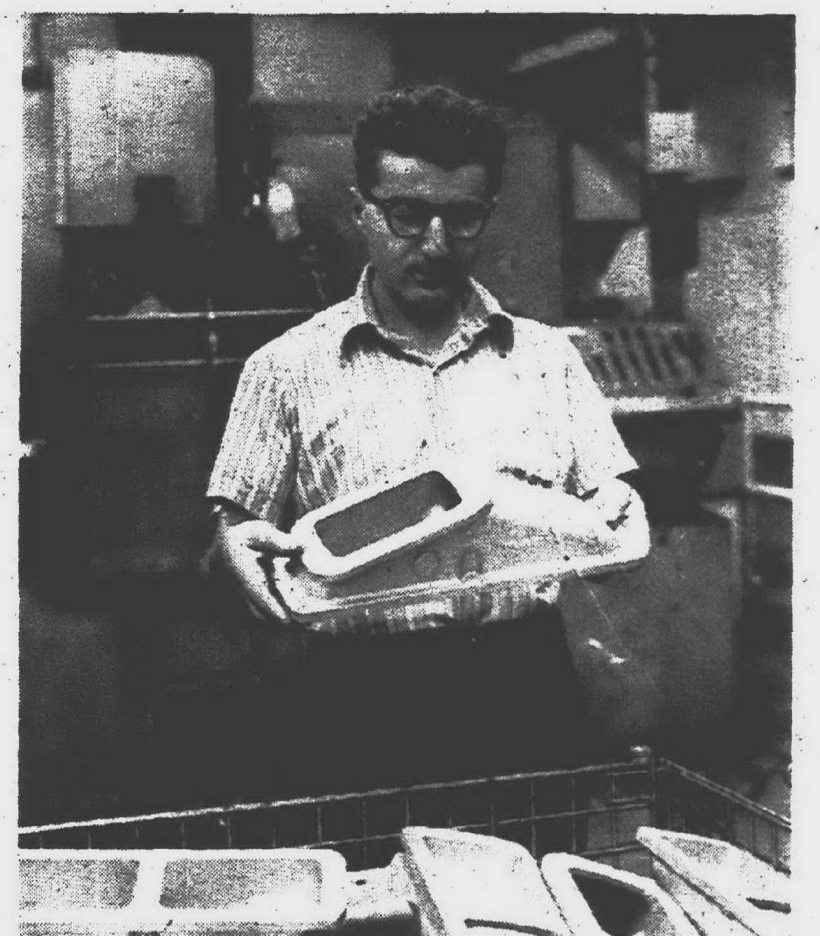

In addition to his wife and two daughters, nine and 11 years of age, his mother and father live in Rumania. He said there have been no reprisals because of his escape.

"They all say they are well. But I'm going to continue to do everything possible to get my family to the United States."

If determination is the key, someday he will succeed.

What Muntean needs is help and advice on how to go about reuniting him with his family.

He is confident that day will come, a day that will climax the years one man has spent to gain freedom for himself and his family.

WILLING WORKER -- Pete Muntean of Plymouth enjoys his job at the Detroit Diesel plant of General Motors where he has been working for the past two years.

THROUGH BIFOCALS
By FRED DeLANO / Editor Mail & Observer

WHEN THE NEWS broke this week that Michigan and Notre Dame will begin a 10-year home - and - home football series in 1978, it sent a bit of a tingle through these old bones. It also unloosed a flood of memories, and I'll take the chance that there are enough fans of the Wolverines and Irish in our midst to justify making them public.

It may surprise even the devout followers of these two great universities to know that despite the fact both schools have been engaged in football since the 19th century, they have clashed on the gridiron only 10 times.

Those were in the seasons of 1887, 1888, 1898, 1899, 1900, 1902, 1908, 1909, 1942 and 1943. Michigan won in all years except 1909 and 1943.

Back in '36, a certain Michigan undergraduate, who many years later was to write a thing called Bifocals, recalled in his Michigan Daily column that he had grown up not too far from Notre Dame's Golden Dome, and he started to campaign for a resumption of a rivalry that already had gone through a lapse of 27 years.

He had the audacity to infer that Athletic Director Fielding H. Yost might have been ducking the Irish all those years, and wasn't it a silly thing that these two great powers, neighbors that they are, weren't scheduling each other annually?

ELMER LAYDEN, then athletic director at Notre Dame, was kind enough to put it in writing that he would be happy enough to schedule Michigan, and considering the times we had a pretty good campus uproar over the whole thing.

The Detroit papers picked it up, and so did the mighty Chicago Tribune, whose sports editor, Arch Ward, was an ex - Notre Dame and Rockne publicist. None of us knew it at the time, but the seed had been planted - successfully.

It was a couple of years later while working as a $25 a week reporter in Flint that this writer practically fell out of his chair the night a radio sportscast revealed that Michigan and Notre Dame had agreed to the 1942 and '43 games.

It was strange how paths crossed as the years rolled by, ultimately working both for Yost and Ward, but anyway I resolved that very night I would be in the stands for those two games. Of course, I didn't know it would be as Michigan's press agent, and I didn't know that the schools would go from '43 to '78 before meeting again.

THERE WAS a reason for this, probably two in fact. The first was to be found in the philosophy of Fritz Crisler, who succeeded Yost as Michigan athletic director, and the second was the emergence of Michigan State as a football power.

Fritz considered the big 10 championship his main goal, and didn't want that quest dwarfed to any degree by the emotionalism that inevitably surrounds a Michigan - Notre Dame battle. Furthermore, he sensed that football loyalties throughout the state would be divided instead of leaning primarily toward Ann Arbor.

In the same mood, he never was the biggest booster for Michigan State coming into the Big 10, either. Nonetheless, the Spartans finally accomplished just that and then copped a box office plum by going into a long rivalry with Notre Dame themselves.

Three years ago, the pendulum began to swing again when Don Canham became athletic director at Michigan upon Crisler's retirement. A promotional genius, he has made many changes in the holier than thou Michigan scene - and one of them has been to lock up the Irish not just for two years, but for 10. God willing, ol' Fred will be there if it has to be in a wheel chair.

Letter To The EditorParade Litter Disgusts Her*EDITOR:

As much as can be expounded on pollution these days is seemingly futile and a waste of breath.

While observing the throngs who lined Plymouth's Main Street for the July 4 parade it was most disgusting to observe children and teen agers throw paper airplanes, popcorn boxes, candy wrappers and what not onto the ground after devouring their treats.

However, even more disheartening, or should I say, nauseating, was to watch the parents' reactions to their children's actions. Nay did I see a parent reprimand or even remind his child where the litter can was, or even his pocket - a place to store the trash until finding the proper place for disposal. Rather, I observed adults themselves who didn't want to remember where the disposals were placed.

I am sure that anyone concerned who drove through town after the parade couldn't help but feel a little remorse about the condition which man has left for himself.

For those unconcerned or not caring individuals, I would like to urge that they wallow in their own litter at home and not make it such an unpleasant eyesore for the rest.

Serving As We Would Wish to be Served

Plymouth FISH Smiles At End of 'Warm' Line

A smiling FISH with an easy-to-remember telephone number comes to Plymouth today.

The new Plymouth FISH line, with the backing of 10 churches and assistance from several community organizations, is ready as of Saturday to offer service when needed for residents of Plymouth, Plymouth Township and Canton Township who dial 453-1110.

It's the most recent in a string of Observerland FISH organizations, which in turn are part of a nationwide movement that brings volunteers in contact with persons who need emergency help.

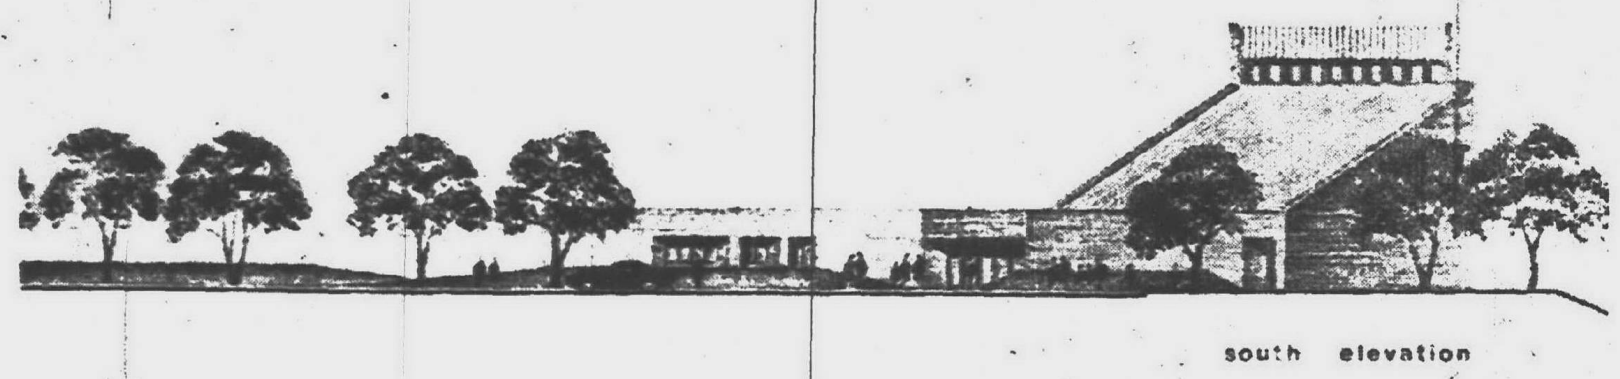

"WE THINK of FISH as a warm line," said Peter Humphrey, joining with his wife, Sara, in the chairmanship of the new service. "Its purpose is to provide the opportunity for neighbors to help each other in a friendly way. That is one of the reasons why the Plymouth FISH will have a smile on it. We won't compete with hot line services, but rather we will help people use emergency services where they are available."

A steering committee, with one member from each of the 10 organizing churches, has held one training session for volunteers and is distributing packets of helpful material to all who have offered themselves as assistants.

In addition, the committee has distributed flyers depicting a smiling FISH and the telephone number and stating help is at the end of a call when the service needed is child care, shopping assistance, providing a meal, housework or yardwork for the ill, transportation, companionship for the elderly or reading to the blind or shut-ins.

"Our services are normally limited to emergency situations, but if your problem isn't temporary or if you can't find it in our examples, give the FISH a call anyway. We will try to help or find someone who can."

FISH TAKES its name from the sign used by early Christians, but the Plymouth flyer emphasized that "you do not need to be a Christian or a member of a church to ask for help, and you will never be

THE NORTHWESTERN CHURCH OF GOD. Moving to Farmington from Detroit, will break ground Sunday for this sanctuary.

Church Moves To Farmington

The Northwestern Church of God will break ground at 3 p.m. Sunday, July 9, for a new church to be located on seven recently-purchased acres of ground on Powers between 10 and 11 Mile Roads, Farmington.

A contemporary sanctuary and parsonage will be erected at the site at a total cost of about $300,000. S.&K. Associates of Troy are architects for the church, and the builder will be Oscar Chapman.

Officiating for the ground-breaking will be the Rev. Wilbur M. Kirby, pastor of the church which represents a merger of two Detroit Church of God congregations.

The merged church is meeting temporarily in the Church of God in Royal Oak until the Farmington facilities are ready.

A contemporary sanctuary and parsonage will be erected at the site at a total cost of about $300,000.

Construction is to begin immediately on the new church plant, which will include sanctuary, social room and office. Church school facilities will be built later.

The congregation has about 125 members.

'Rally For Unborn' Set

A "Rally for the Unborn" is scheduled at 7 p.m. Sunday, July 16, in the Monsignor Lenc Hall of St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic parish, 5890 Evergreen, Detroit.

Sponsors are People Concerned For Life, an organization opposing abortion reform in the November vote in Michigan. Circuit Judge James Ryan; his wife, Mary; State Rep. Leonard Walton (D-Detroit) and Mrs. Helen Drews and Mrs. Bridget Faff representing Birthright, a pregnancy aid service, will be speakers.

There also will be a slide presentation and a question and answer period. Adults and teens are invited to participate.

HBP Can Be Controlled

Few diseases are easier to control than high blood pressure, because there are so many drugs that are effective. If one doesn't work your doctor can try another; until he finds one which is effective and has few side effects, says the Michigan Heart Association, a Michigan United Fund agency.

Pastor, Choir To Visit Ward

A retired pastor from Birmingham and a local choir about to tour Europe will be guests in the Ward United Presbyterian Church on Sunday, July 9.

Dr. Glenn Harris, recently retired pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham, will preach at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services in the church located at Farmington Road and Six Mile.

A 7 p.m. concert will feature the 60-voice Alumni Choir from Stevenson High School, which will leave soon for the France Music Festival at Vichy and then will tour six European countries.

settings of religious texts by Schubert and Brahms and American folk songs, spirituals and contemporary music.

DR. HARRIS served 34 years as pastor of the Birmingham church, largest in the Detroit Presbytery.

He also was on the board of directors at McCormick Seminary and a member of many committees of the National Board of Presbyterian Churches.

Living Rosary

A living rosary is planned by the Father Peyton Family Prayer Guild of Detroit at Our Lady of the Rosary Church, 5930 Woodward, Detroit, at 3 p.m. Sunday, July 23.

Children and parents from all over the area are invited to join in the Youth Sunday service, and priests and sisters also are invited to take part.

THE NEW CREATION, a vocal ensemble from Warner Pacific College in Portland, Ore., will present an evangelical concert at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, July 13, in the Riverside Park Church of God, Newburgh and Plymouth Roads. The collegians, with piano and trumpet accompaniment, are making a 55-concert tour that has taken them to six states and last month to the Church of God International convention in Anderson, Ind. The public is invited to hear them.

Madonna To Train Catechists

Madonna College will offer Phases I and II of the Detroit Archdiocesan Catechist Training program in the fall of 1972.

Phase I, Introductory Catechetics, will be offered for two credits or on a non-credit basis on Monday evenings, 7 to 9 p.m.

Phase III, Man in His World, will be held on Tuesday evenings, 7 to 10 p.m. The course will carry three credits, but may also be taken for non-credit.

Information on registration dates, fees and materials will be available in August. Those who are interested may contact Sister Irene Louise Doman, director, religious education, after Aug. 10.

Phase II, Word of God, will be offered in the second term, beginning in January.

This past year, 108 parish catechists received certificates upon completion of Phase I at Madonna College, and 35 were awarded certificates for Phase II.

HEARING AID BOXES are an innovation in Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church, Hubbard and West Chicago. Livonia. Senior citizens and others hard of hearing now may pick up one of the devices upon entering and can plug

VBS Is July 10-21

Vacation Bible school will be held July 10-21 in Antioch Lutheran Church, 33360 W. 13 Mile, Farmington. The theme will be "Together in God's World."

Designed for all children from four years old through the fifth grade, the school sessions will be held Monday through Friday mornings.

There will be music, crafts and field trips.

Pre-registration is encouraged. Registration blanks may be obtained at the church office or following the regular church services.

Mrs. Sally Vickery, superintendent of the school, still needs staff help. Interested persons should contact her through the church office.

Dearborn SA Hosts College Singing Group

The Extensions III, a singing group from Vennard College, will present a concert in the Salvation Army Building, 26700 W. Warren, Dearborn Heights, on Friday, July 14. The concert will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Vennard College is located in University Park, Iowa. The group is composed of nine students. They have been featured in a number of weekend youth events in Iowa.

Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan and Indiana this spring, and are now on a 10-week tour of the U.S.

Coming from eight states and seven denominations, they comprise a cross section of Young Americans working together to express the Christian life.

Much of their music is representative of the new sounds of the young generation, but they also sing traditional gospel songs and hymns.

Vennard College is an interdenominational, four-year professional college specializing in Christian vocational preparation.

Re-Elected

At the annual congregational meeting of Temple Beth Jacob, 79 Elizabeth Lake Road, Pontiac, Arthur Kollin was re-elected temple president.

At the meeting, Rabbi H. Philip Berkowitz, the spiritual leader, noted that the temple will celebrate its golden anniversary in 1973.

For religion writers who yearn sincerely to report good news of religion (in spite of something of a dearth of such), the opening day of this year's Southern Baptist Convention in Philadelphia was glorious.

For one thing, the nation's second largest denomination (11.8 million members -- and still growing) elected as its new president a Mississippian who is a religious statesman of high caliber. Industrialist Owen Cooper, during his initial press conference as president-elect, revealed unusual intelligence in not attempting to answer questions in which he is not well versed -- and at the same time admitting it, rather than attempting to cover by evasion.

But there were few issues on which he is not well informed, his long record of admirable social consciousness being well implemented with thorough congeniality and balanced by tolerant and sensible religious devotion.

Several Baptist state newspapers rightfully excoriated this proposal as an attempt to "stampede the convention into a witchhunt" and a "bookburning in the home of the Liberty Bell."

But Rev. Turner's motion was given the coup de grace by one of the denomination's elder statesmen, former SBC President Herschel Hobbs of Oklahoma City.

Noting that he had never read a Bible commentary with which he could fully agree, the venerable pastor threw his full pulpit voice into overdrive with a thunderously logical observation that it is utterly impossible for anyone to write a Bible commentary with which all Baptists can agree -- short of the denomination's adopting a creed (an historical anathema to Southern Baptists).

RETIRING PRESIDENT Carl Bates of North Carolina was scrupulously fair in making every effort to allow further debate on the issue. But as nobody else seemed at all anxious to engage in any forensic fencing with Dr. Hobbs, Turner's motion was decisively buried after support by only some 250 fundamentalist pallbearers.

Rev. Turner then held a press conference to announce that the decision, in his judgment, hardly represented the denomination as a whole, and was due in part to the fact that the Philadelphia Convention site was so far from the heart of Dixie.

He then proceeded to offer comments on a wide variety of subjects, including pastoral ethics. In answer to one question, he expressed strong disapproval of any pastor who leaves a community with unpaid bills.

He was then asked if there was any truth in reports that he himself had left Vicksburg, Miss., two years ago owing a personal debt of $9,000 to the Americana Recording Studios of Ruston, La.

Rev. Turner's cool edifice of self assurance appeared to wobble slightly at this query. He replied that the debt was not $9,000 -- but he declined to mention how much he felt that he still owed to Southern Baptist Roger Lawson, proprietor of the recording studios, for providing albums.

At the same time he conceded that Lawson had not violated contract and he did not dispute Lawson's comment to this writer that Pastor Turner's last payment on the debt was for $100, in November of 1970. (Lawson also told this writer that he had had debts in excess of $100,000 from Southern Baptist pastors and musical directors, including $8,300, plus interest, from Turner.)

THE CONVENTION was preceded by the annual Baptist Pastors Conference, an all-day preaching derby which invariably produces one or more homiletical horrors. Retired SBC President R.G. Lee of Memphis, for example, described beverage alcohol as "sewerage in the drinking fountain... a rattlesnake in the nursery... a rapist in the girls dormitory..." etc., etc., etc.

But two days later, Billy Graham told a convention press conference: "I know this may shock a number of Southern Baptists, but I do believe Jesus drank wine and that the Bible hardly advocates teetotaling."

The Stroller

By W.W. EDGAR

Amid the blaring of the bands, the skirling of the bagpipes and the cadence of the marchers in the record breaking July Fourth parade, the new American eagle that spread its wings in downtown Plymouth went almost unnoticed.

In case you missed seeing it, the great American symbol graces the entrance of the Mayflower Hotel. And it was most fitting that it should make its official appearance on the day when the 196th birthday of the country was being celebrated.

But where it came from, and how it got there, make one of the most unusual stories of the year—a story that is well worth being preserved in the archives when the new community historical museum is opened.

The bird, a beautiful specimen of mahogany, is the product of Jose Andrade, a master woodcarver who lives in Quito, Ecuador, in South America. How he became involved through the band of missionaries and the efforts of a few "ham" radio enthusiasts in Plymouth only tends to make the story more interesting.

IT ALL came about some time ago when Ralph Lorenz, portly keeper of the Mayflower, bemoaned the fact that his dream of having an American eagle grace the marquee of the hostelry was shattered.

"I've answered ads and made phone calls to all sections of the country," he said, "and I finally thought I landed one. But a fellow up in New England was making one for Ari Onassis and he wanted to make me wait for a year—and his price was exorbitant."

Then I contacted an old sailor and was supposed to obtain a fine specimen taken from an old ship. But that hope faded, too.

"I wouldn't give up yet," Bud Ottenhoff, the Culligan water man, said in a sort of consoling voice. "Maybe I can get one for you from Ecuador."

"Ecuador," the listeners chorused, and then remembered that Bud, a devout member of the World Radio Missionary Fellowship, had just returned from that South American country where he has presented a much needed kidney machine to the natives.

"That's fine," Lorenz countered, "but this must be one carved in the proper manner. It must have the olive branches—the symbol of peace—in the claws of its right leg, and it must be smiling."

RALPH HAD learned about eagles a few months before when he contacted the molder in New England and was asked if he wanted a peaceful eagle or a fighting eagle. The New Englander explained that the fighting eagle carries spears in the claws of his right leg and its head is set at what he termed a "snarling" angle.

"You'll get it what ever way you want it," Ottenhoff promised, "and we'll contact the wood carver by radio."

Here the quest for the symbolic bird took an unusual twist.

That night Bud and Rex Schroeder, a young student from Ecuador who is spending the summer in Plymouth before entering Bible college in Kansas City in the fall, contacted the wood carver high in the Ecuador hills on their "ham" radio set.

The order was placed in its minute detail with the promise that a sketch would be sent later. Emphasis was placed on the peace symbols, and the head had to be upright and carry a pleasant sort of smile.

THAT WAS little more than a month ago and the few who were in on the plans and hopes started a patient wait.

But the woodcarver kept his word. Several days before July 4 the beautiful mahogany replica of the American eagle arrived.

It is a masterful bit of workmanship, with a wingspread of two meters (approximately six feet) and it greets all of the passersby at the main downtown intersection—Ann Arbor Trail at Main St.

And that's the story of the American eagle, carved in Ecuador, South America, which made a fitting entry into the Plymouth scene just in time to help celebrate the Fourth of July.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE ZONING ORDINANCE OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH, WAYNE COUNTY, MICHIGAN

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a public hearing, pursuant to the Rural Township Zoning Act, being Act 184, P.A. 1943, as amended, will be held by the Plymouth Township Planning Commission on July 19, 1972 at 8:00 P.M. Eastern Standard Time, at the Plymouth Township Hall, located at 42350 Ann Arbor Road for the purpose of considering and action upon the following:

The Planning Commission has received a petition to rezone the following described property from R-1, One family residential, to an R-2 A, Garden Apartment District:

That part of the NE 1/4 of Section 23 designated as beginning at a point on the center line of Schoolcraft Road distant N 87 degrees 02' W 47' 08" feet and N 58 degrees 05' 30" W 560' 02" feet from the E 1/4 corner of Section 23 and proceeding thence N 58 degrees 05' 30" W along said center line 206.43 feet, thence due North 443' 53" feet, thence S 62 degrees 07' 07" E 200' 21" feet, thence due South 470' 07" feet to the point of beginning, excepting the South part thereof measuring 68.32 feet along the W line and 63' 72" feet along the East line the 1.50 acre.

Said property is located on the north side of Schoolcraft between Huntington and Robinwood No. 195.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that the proposed Amendment to the map and text may be examined at the Township Hall at 42350 Ann Arbor Road from 9:30 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. each day Monday through Friday until the date of the public hearing.

PLYMOUTH COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICT Plymouth, Michigan

BOARD OF EDUCATION MINUTES

A regular meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District, Wayne and Washtenaw Counties, Michigan, was held on Tuesday evening, May 23, 1972, in the Board Room of the Administration Building, 1024 South Mill Street, Plymouth, Michigan.

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m. by Secretary Sick. Present: Members Lawton, Ohno, Penar and Sick. Absent: Members Graves, Hanskat and Hulsing.

Administrators present: Acting Sup't Hoben, Directors Gaertner, Kee and Page, Principals Lutz, Brown, Bukema, Marshall, Smith and Workman, Adm. Asst. Stribaugh and Sup't Goble. Others present: Shirley Mack, Roberta Gladden, Joanne McGarry, James Rossman, John Pruster, Robert Evans, Irvin Bink, Cathryn and Chester Hill, Joseph Gray, Kathryn Otto, Gary Mirto, Marda Benson, Dick Palmer, John Thomas, Messrs. Groth and Wakely, Wakely-Kushner Associates, John Ryder, Bill Heath, P.E.A., Jim Symonds, and Kathy Moran, Plymouth Mail & Observer.

Additional to the agenda were called.

President Hulsing arrived and assumed chairmanship of the meeting. It was moved by Member Ohno and seconded by Member Lawton that the minutes of the regular meetings of April 25 and May 8, 1972, and the special meeting of May 16, 1972, be approved with the following corrections:

May 16, 1972: Remove name of Acting Sup't Hoben from list of Administrators present.

April 25, 1972: Paragraph 3. Change motion to read and the Architect authorized to receive bids until 8:00 p.m. on May 16, 1972.

Ayes: Members Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno, Penar and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried. Acting Sup't Hoben reported on the meeting of the Wayne County Association of School Boards in Lansing with members of the State Legislature and also his meeting with area superintendents and legislators in Lansing to discuss major concerns of the school community.

Progress of meetings and publicity on the millage campaign was discussed. Member Sick congratulated the Administration on the twenty-minute speech that had been prepared for use by School Board Members and others.

It was moved by Member Sick and seconded by Member Penar that the Board concur in the recommendation of Acting Sup't Hoben to give Eastern Michigan University a letter of intent regarding a potential change in the FM station from the current 89.3 Hz to 88.1 Hz at their request but that no application to the FCC be filed out at this time.

Ayes: Members Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno, Penar and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried. Acting Sup't Hoben extended an invitation to Board members to attend the Parker High School graduation exercises, located at Dehoco, on June 2, 1972. Several members indicated they would attend.

It was reported that the Plymouth Community School District, as well as other local school districts within the Schoolcraft College district, would not be assessed the 25 mills as previously reported for support of the Wayne County Community College.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Sick that the Board endorse and participate in the Neighborhood Youth Corps Program sponsored by the Federal Department of Labor, OEO, to include about 40 needy students with 100% of wages and expenses covered by the program.

Ayes: Members Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno, Penar and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried. Acting Sup't Hoben connected earlier statements made to the effect that the Grassie Pontic School system included fifth grade in its middle school system. However, he reported that 52 school districts in Michigan do include fifth grade in middle or junior high schools.

Mr. Hoben explained a proposed policy to provide free musical instruments to 6th grade students, would require 7th and 8th grade students to provide their own with the exceptions of those color instruments which cannot be provided such as French Horn, Xylophone, etc. Member Sick requested that the proposed policy be submitted in writing, including cost factors, in time for consideration at the June 12 meeting.

A Nine-Year Statistical and Personnel Comparison Study was distributed for information.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Penar to concur in the recommendation of the architects to accept the bid of the Paul Wallace & Sons, Inc., in the amount of $125,000 for Farrand and Gallimore School additions, and to accept alternatives A-1, A-2, and A-3 in the amount of $3,800 as additions to the contract.

Ayes: Members Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno, Penar and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried. Member Lawton pointed out that monies for this project would come out of Building and Site Funds and would not affect Operating Fund Budget.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Ohno to accept resignations from Rose Bloom, 2nd grade, Fiegel School, and from Mary A. Martin, Music, Gallimore/Smith Schools, effective June 16, 1972.

Ayes: Members Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno, Penar and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried. Dr. Beverly Marshall and Mrs. Kathryn Otto reported to the Board on the Fabster School Open-School Concept Program Evaluation which has been completed recently. The Board asked that the report be distributed to other schools, and believed there would be some merit in the same questionnaire evaluation being undertaken at other elementary schools for comparison purposes. The Board thanked Dr. Marshall for the presentation.

Assistant Sup't for Business, Blunk, arrived at 8:45 and Member Hanskat arrived during this presentation at 8:55.

A request in writing from Mrs. Routin, representing the Tri-County Citizens Committee, was considered asking Board approval of a resolution regarding the Michigan Assessment Program questionnaire. The Board requested Mr. Hoben to inform Mrs. Routin that no action would be taken on this resolution, feeling that socio-economic boundaries are not established by these tests and findings have not been abused. There was also question regarding the legality and the need for such a resolution.

It was moved by Member Sick and seconded by Member Hanskat to approve as submitted the policy on Living Creatures in the Instructional Program.

Nays: None. The motion was carried.

Member Graves arrived at 9:15 and Assistant Sup't for Personnel Gibson arrived at 9:30 p.m.

It was moved by Member Ohno and seconded by Member Lawton that the Board approve the stipulations set forth in the letter to Dr. Grote, President of Schoolcraft College, as proposed by the Administration for rental of parts of the floors at Central School at a rental rate of $62,000 for the 1972-73 school year, not including utilities and maintenance and supplies, and committed for a one-year period.

Ayes: Members Graves, Hanskat, Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno, Penar and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried. It was moved by Member Ohno and seconded by Member Lawton to approve the recommendation of administration for starting and closing times of school for 1972-73 as follows: 1971-72 times will be followed except these specific changes at East Middle School where Grade 5 will meet from 8:45 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and Grades 6-7-8 will meet from 8:00 to 2:50 p.m., and at Plymouth High School where schedule will be altered to 7:30 a.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Ayes: Members Graves, Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno and Penar. Nays: Member Hanskat. Abstain: Member Sick.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Sick to approve the following bills for payment as presented by the Administration:

Operating Fund: Unpd. Vouchers #17871 to 17882, incl. $40,203.64

Building & Site #1: Unpd. Voucher #612 to 615, incl. 3,499.96

Building & Site #3: Unpd. Vouchers #612 to 615, incl. 148.00

Ayes: Members Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno, Penar and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried. It was moved by Member Sick and seconded by Member Hanskat that the Assistant Sup't for Business make application of the Municipal Finance Commission to transfer the balance in the 1965 Debt Retirement Fund in the amount of $42,571 to the 1967 Debt Retirement Fund inasmuch as all bonds of the 1965 Bond issue have been retired and canceled, with the exception of (5) five $1,000.00 bonds transferred to the Escheators Division, Michigan Department of Treasury on October 13, 1970.

Nays: None. The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Sick and seconded by Member Hanskat that the Assistant Sup't for Business make application of the Municipal Finance Commission to transfer the balance in the 1966 Debt Retirement Fund in the amount of $18,000.00, to the 1967 Debt Retirement Fund inasmuch as all bonds of the 1966 Bond issue have been retired and canceled.

Ayes: Members Graves, Hanskat, Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno, Penar and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried. It was moved by Member Sick and seconded by Member Ohno that the Assistant Sup't for Business make application of the Municipal Finance Commission to transfer the balance in the 1966 Debt Retirement Fund in the amount of $18,000.00, to the 1967 Debt Retirement Fund inasmuch as all bonds of the 1966 Bond issue have been retired and canceled.

Ayes: Members Graves, Hanskat, Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno, Penar and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried. Acting Sup't Hoben discussed the Data Processing of Payroll and Personnel Reports which he and Mr. Blunk had investigated. It was the consensus that the administration should develop specific proposals, including cost estimates for transferring to Data Processing next year.

It was moved by Member Hanskat and seconded by Member Penar to enter into executive session at 10:05 p.m.

Ayes: Members Graves, Hanskat, Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno, Penar and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried. The motion was carried. It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Ohno that the administration be granted authorization to submit an offer to purchase 13 acres of property for a proposed school site.

Ayes: Members Graves, Hanskat, Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno, Penar and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried. It was moved by Member Hanskat and seconded by Member Ohno that this Board appoint John Michael Hoben as Superintendent of Schools beginning July 1, 1972, for a two-year period with a starting salary of $28,000.

Ayes: Members Graves, Hanskat, Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno and Sick. Nays: Member Penar.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Hanskat and seconded by Member Sick that Dr. Earl Hogan be appointed Deputy Superintendent of Schools beginning July 1, 1972, for a two-year period with a starting salary of $28,000.

Ayes: Members Graves, Hanskat, Hulsing, Lawton, Ohno, Penar and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Hanskat and seconded by Member Sick that the meeting be adjourned at 11:30 p.m.

Ayes: Members Graves, Hanskat, Lawton, Ohno, Penar and Sick. Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Respectfully submitted,

New Books

"FOR MY OWN Amusement," by R.F. Delderfield. The author of "God Is An Englishman" and "Theirs Was The Kingdom" now writes about himself and the England he knows and loves, remembering his school days, his experiences in the Royal Air Force during World War II, and the foibles of his fellow countrymen.

"THE BOYS OF SUMMER," by Roger Kahn. Growing up in the 1930s and '40s within shouting distance of Ebbets Field gave the author more than a casual interest in the Brooklyn Dodgers. Becoming a sportswriter for the Tribune gave him the opportunity to cover the team of the 1950s—the team which broke the color barrier (with Jackie Robinson) and set many other records, too. Kahn includes, too, the facts about what's happened since to the 1950 heroes of "his" team.

"THE HIGH Adventure," by Eric Ryback. In 1969 the author hiked the Appalachian Trail. June 1970 saw this 18-year old Belleville adventurer setting out again, this time along the nation's longest hiking trail—the Pacific Crest. Alone, he hiked from the frozen peaks of the Cascade range in Canada to the burning deserts of the Mexican border. This is the personal account of that 2,500 mile trek.

"YOUNG AMERICANS Abroad," by Robert A. Liston. Going to a foreign country can be one of the most exciting and valuable experiences in a young person's life, or it can be an almost total disaster. The practical details and inside tips that can make the all-important difference are clearly spelled out by a writer who has expert knowledge and very real enthusiasm for travel.

"The Blue Whale," by George Small. "The killing continued" is the motif of this description of man's relentless slaughter of the blue whale, which has brought the world's largest animal of all time to probable biological extinction. "The Blue Whale" is fully illustrated with fascinating photographs, tables and charts.

"Nature's Miracle Medicine Chest," by C. Edward Burtis. Nutritionist author Burtis says, "There is no reason to accept disease as an inevitable condition of human existence." He makes his case to show us how we can achieve abundant good health through everyday wonder foods—those pure, unspoiled foods that are nature's gifts from the land and the sea.

"Step-by-Step To Organic Vegetable Growing," by Samuel Ogden. Beginners will find this book covers all the basics. Experts will discover many challenging, stimulating ideas from a highly successful organic gardener.

Gardeners Plan Picnic

The Farmington Garden Club will hold a picnic luncheon at 12 noon, Monday, July 10, at the home of Mrs. Bernard Masson.

There will be an auction of plant and flower containers, accessories and potted plants. Mrs. Dorothy Cassell is chairman of the program and Mrs. Ted Daly will be the auctioneer. Mrs. Ray Eichler will be hostess chairman.

Club members will also plan workshops in making artistic ornaments out of garden materials. These will be sold at their boutique Nov. 6 in Nardin Park Church.

Mrs. Eichler and Mrs. Walter Gaertner recently were awarded life memberships in the club for their many years of faithful service.

Robert Johnson Weds

The Frank W. Howes Memorial Chapel, Northwestern University, was the scene of the June 16 wedding of Glenna Case and Robert Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester E. Johnson of Ellen Drive, Livonia. On June 17, they both graduated from Northwestern.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn I. Case of Keweenaw, Ill.

The Rev. Jerry Parker of Evanston, Ill., officiated at the ceremony which was written by the couple. They exchanged the traditional marriage vows from memory.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a white floor-length gown of dotted swiss with an empire waistline and with organza tiered sleeves trimmed with blue satin and white flowered lace. She also wore an heirloom locket which has been worn by three generations of brides in her family. Her bouquet was of white miniature roses encircled with bachelor buttons.

Her only attendant, Deena Goldsmith of Merrick, New York, as maid of honor, wore a light blue floor-length gown of dotted swiss with puffed sleeves trimmed in white lace. Kerry Kline of Livonia was best man. The bride's brother, Clark Case, and William

MRS. ROBERT JOHNSON
(Glenna Case)

Hohle of Chicago, Ill., were the ushers.

The bride's mother wore a pale blue floor-length gown with pearl trim. The bridegroom's mother chose a turquoise floor-length skirt with a long-sleeved top of white chiffon.

A RECEPTION for 50 guests was held in Skokie, Ill. The bride received her BS degree in education and will take postgraduate work in African studies. The bridegroom received his BS degree in journalism and will continue work on an MS. They are living in Chicago.

Pioneer Women To Meet

Emma Shiefman of Detroit will address the Greater Detroit Council of Pioneer Women at its seventh annual Beit Nehama luncheon at 12 noon, Wednesday, July 12. The luncheon will be held in the Town and Country Club, Southfield.

Mrs. Shiefman, who recently toured Israel, will give her impressions of nursery schools there.

Mrs. Shiefman received her BA and MA degrees from Wayne State University and teaches child care at Wayne's department of family and consumer resources. She is also a consultant with the Model Cities Project. She has been a Pioneer Woman for 15 years.

Mrs. Norman Leemon and Mrs. Milton Weiss, both of Farmington, are coordinating the luncheon program. Mrs. Gerald E. Goldberg of Southfield, president of the council, and Mrs. Sam Wasserman of Farmington will extend the invocation and greetings.

Beit Nehama is a community center in a suburb of Rishon Le Zion. It was named in honor of Emma (Nehama) Lazaroff Schaver of Southfield, and funds for it were raised exclusively by the Detroit division of Pioneer Women International. It houses three different types of child care programs, as well as serving as a vocational and community center.

Ford Hurls 2nd No-Hitter; Redford Wins, 5-0

Redford captured the first half Adray baseball championship with a 5-0 win over Dearborn on position night with Tom Ford hurling his second no-hitter and his fifth consecutive victory.

Redford remained undefeated with a tie and a 9-0 record.

Dearborn finished second with an 8-2 mark.

Ford walked four and hit one Dearborn batsman in the first half finale with 12 strikeouts. The first no-hitter was also against Dearborn with Redford winning that one by a 2-0 score.

"Ford just overpowers the batters," said Redford Coach Coach Pat Sheridan. "He has excellent control and just plain outsmarts the opponents."

THE REDFORD HURLER has pitched two years on Eastern Michigan's varsity and this summer in Adray ball has allowed only five hits in five games.

Ford opened with a two-hitter against Northville. Terry Mills and Dave Coe collected the hits and Ford came back with his first no-hitter against Dearborn.

Then came a one-hit performance against Livonia Griffin with Howard Schryer getting the lone hit.

FORD threw his second two-hitter against Westland Burger King. Bob McSpadden and Art Mach banged out the fourth and fifth hits off Ford with the Dearborn second no-hitter climaxing the first half finale.

The Eastern Michigan hurler has struck out 52 in 32 innings worked and has given up only two earned runs.

Gordie Eszes opened the Dearborn contest with his third home run over the left center fence some 350 feet away and Redford led, 1-0.

Ford was safe on an error in the third and scampers in on a double by Eszes to push the margin to two. Bob Ghamam was safe on an error in the fourth and scored on another double by Doug Burke to make it 3-0.

four-hitter, struck out 10 and walked none.

Mike Volas chucked for Garden City and suffered the ninth loss for the last place squad.

KOEEL OPENED with one in the first on a single by John Combes. The North speedster then stole second and third and scampers in on a hit by Mark DeSilvo.

Two walks and three hits made it 5-0 in the third. Charlie Wolfe and Marty Raymond drew walks and Dan Dreyer singled to load the bases. Combes delivered a triple and scored on another hit by DeSilvo.

Koeel scored one in the fifth on the Combes-DeSilvo combination again and concluded with one in the sixth on a single by Bill Mattison and two-bagger by Wolfe.

GARDEN CITY tallied one in the seventh on an error and single by Terry Dobbs.

Livonia's Griffin Sport concluded first half action with a 6-1 victory over Burger King with the two teams holding a share of third place. Randy Ferguson started for Livonia but developed arm trouble in the second inning and Coach Ron Hellier put in Steve Chilenko.

It was the first appearance for Chilenko on the Griffin mound and he allowed only five hits and scored the win. Dave Conlin worked for Burger King, and suffered the loss.

A single by Bill Turkington, two wild pitches and a single by Roy Henriksson gave Livonia a 1-0 first inning margin.

LIVONIA TALLIED its second run in the second stanza when John Sichta singled, Ferguson and Turkington walked and Jeff Waterstone singled in Sichta.

Sichta walked to open the third, Ferguson walked and Turkington singled in Sichta to make it 3-0.

Westland got on the board in the bottom of the inning when Karney Derderian singled and moved around to third on two wild pitches. J.P. McBride and Bob McSpadden also drew walks to fill the sacks. Bob Diem connected with a two-bagger with Derderian scoring but McBride was cut down at the plate to halt the only threat Burger King could get together.

Back-to-back home runs in the fifth gave Livonia a 5-1 margin. Gar Frantz connected for his second four-bagger on a 380 foot shot over the right field fence and Steve Crowe cleared the left field fence for his first round-tripper.

GRIFIN SPORT added a run in the sixth when Waterstone walked, Howard Schryer singled and Coach Hellier called for a double steal with Waterstone scoring the sixth run.

Farmington Nips Walled Lake, 3-1

Farmington's answer to a winning American Legion baseball team is on the verge of erasing some question marks.

The Legionnaires toppled Walled Lake, 3-1, for their fourth victory and stand one game below the .500 mark with an overall record of 7-8.

Rich Stringer and Dennis Hagen shared the mound chores for Farmington against Walled Lake with starter Stringer being replaced in the top of the sixth with arm trouble.

Stringer allowed two hits, struck out five and walked two in the five innings worked and left the game with the score 0-0.

HAGEN PICKED up the win relief striking out three, walking two and allowing one hit in two innings.

Greg Holek and Mike Simes worked for Walled Lake with starter Holek getting pinned with loss.

Walled Lake slipped to a 5-7 mark.

An error, walk and single put Walled Lake on the board in the top of the sixth. Gary Peeling reached first on an error and Bob Watson drew a walk off Hagen. Bill Cattaneo delivered a single and Peeling scampers in with the opening tally.

Farmington came back in the bottom of the inning to score three times for the victory.

ROB HOLTON SINGLED and was sacrificed to second by Mike Flynn. Hagen followed with a run scoring single and moved to second on the late throw to the plate.

Jim Harte then blasted his second four-bagger in as many games with Hagen scoring in front of him and Farmington had come up with the punch that had been lacking the first half of the season.

Top Awards

Three-time NCAA wrestling champion Greg Johnson of Lansing and two-time NCAA sprint champ Herb Washington of Flint have won Michigan State's two top athletic-academic awards for 1972. Johnson was given the Chester Brewer Award and Washington the Big Ten Medal of Honor.

Pool Marks

Senior co-captain Dale Baggett set Wayne State University and Matthei Pool marks with clockings of :56.5 and 2:07.11 in the 100 and 200-yard backstroke events vs. Buffalo State during the 1972 season, breaking his own records.

REDFORD tucked away the victory and first half crown in the fifth stanza. Eszes singled and Jeff Washington cleared the trees in center field for his second round tripper and a five run advantage.

North Farmington's Koebel Diamond battled Garden City in the fight to stay out of first half cellar with Koebel team crushing Garden City, 7-1.

Tom Erhart hurled his first game in a North Farmington uniform and came up with a Hardly a harness racing season passes but a pacer or trotter comes out of nowhere to attract the attention of fans who carefully watch the performances for the remainder of the year.

We remember a few years back, quite a few, when the late C.W. Clark, of Dearborn, had a three year old trotter he kept under cover most of the year until the time of the Hambletonian classic.

Then to the amazement of most everyone except Clark, a few associates and the trainer, Sharp Note was put into the entry box as one of the starters.

Equally to the surprise of all, Sharp Note went on to win the Hambletonian championship. He didn't win many more races during his career but did have his big day in just about the biggest event of the year for three old trotters.

Then there was Vicki's Jet, a pacing colt owned by a Flint car salesman, who first showed signs of greatness on the county fair circuit as a two and developed into one of the best in the land as a three year old.

Vicki's Jet went on to win more than $300,000 and long was one of the fastest and best racing at the Metropolitan New York City tracks.

WHO CAN FORGET Rusty Range, one of the greatest Michiganbred pacers of all time who carried the colors of Red Eggers of Livonia. Those close to the racing scene heard about Rusty Range long before he made his debut in the Detroit area. He was making shambles of all competition at the fairs and gaining a reputation as the "Silky Sullivan" of the standardbreds at the same time.

It was nothing for Rusty to be as many as 30 lengths back in a race and then come on with a brilliant burst of speed in the last half-mile to win.

Rusty is now standing at stud and has produced a number of better than average performers. He is best remembered in the record books for the fastest dead heat for pacers with a time of 1:58.2.

Why are we bringing back these memories? For the simple reason there is a five year old mare at Northville Downs who is making folks sit up and take notice.

She is Sit Down, a daughter of the famed Michigan sire Adios Cleo out of an Express Colby mare, who showed four victories in a row after finishing up the track in her first two starts of the season.

Owned by Nicholas Rothe, of Howell, long a leader in the Michigan Harness Horsemen's Association, Sit Down was allowed to rest from mid-December until late May before returning to the races.

Then she was given to Driver Tom Wilburn with ancient Dave Thompson doing the training.

IT WASN'T until June 12 in her third trip to the starter that Sit Down made the winner's circle and she has been there four times in a row.

But now things may change. The mare has progressed to the point where Racing Secretary Harry Peterson moved her up to the preferred class where she tangles with seven challengers Saturday.

This will be her biggest test of the season and will go far in determining where she'll be for the remainder of the season.

Pitted against her are: Culver Cadet, Peppy Relco, Esmond Hanover, Gaviland, Shiawasee Squire and Bedford.

Heading Saturday's all-pacing program is a $6,500 invitational that has a slim field of five. Early favorite is Norm Mealey's Spring Pride, a four year old who sped to the fastest mile of the meeting a week ago in winning a similar event in 2:02.4.

THE COMPETITION may be short in numbers but it is long in quality. Local Time, the star of the powerful Ray Forsythe stable of Birmingham, could press Spring Pride just as he did last Saturday.

Then there's Michigan Mack, returning to the Michigan scene after battling the bearcats in Chicagoland, who could make things rough.

The remaining starters are: Johnny G and Perley Hanover.

Just to give one an idea of the card, Tee Cee, one of the speedsters from the Wilburn barn, was an entrant in the invitational two weeks ago... this time the aged star is in a six horse conditioned pace. He'll be going against Mike A Breeze, Spanker, Winter Dean, Spook Time and Rusty McKlyo.

NEWEST members of the U.S. Harness Writers' Living Hall of Fame are Ralph Baldwin and Johnny Simpson Sr. They were installed last Sunday and raised to 17 the outstanding harness racing figures honored by the writers' association.

The delicate green foliage of this graceful tree, its fast growth and resistance to disease and insects have made the Moraine Locust America's favorite tree. It attains a twenty-five ft. height in just seven years. Fine lawn grasses grow luxuriantly right up to the base of the tree yet its filtered light does not permit crab grass to germinate. Safe in high winds because its fine leaves offer less resistance.

Private Campsites Outnumber State's

The camping family unable to find a vacant site in Michigan this summer does not know where to look, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

While state park campgrounds are expected to have more pressure than ever this summer, the spectacular growth in the number of private campgrounds is the major reason why most campers should have little difficulty finding space.

Auto Club is optimistic about campers finding space despite the fact that state park campsites have grown only two per cent for 1972 as compared with 1971, while recreation vehicle sales have increased 11 per cent.

The 25 per cent increase in private parks listed in Auto Club's guide this year should guarantee adequate camping space in Michigan.

Also for the first time this year, private parks in Michigan will offer more sites than state parks. Currently there are 255 private parks listed by Auto Club with 20,000 sites as compared with 70 state parks offering 14,814 sites.

All totaled, there are 47,000 campsites in Michigan to serve approximately 55,000 camping units — excluding an undetermined number of ground tents. In addition to 34,814 private and state park campsites, there are 1,440 sites at national forests, 2,576 at state forests and 8,291 at city, township and county parks, often overlooked by the camping public.

Auto Club explains that although there are more recreation vehicles than sites, not all camping units are in use at one time, and Michigan should have plenty of camping space almost every weekend with a few exceptions.

However, campers may have to drive farther from home than planned and stay at second or third choice campgrounds over summer holiday weekends to get a site. Auto Club adds that the 84,258 camping families turned away last year from state parks is a decrease of 2.1 per cent from the previous year. Without the growth in private parks, it is speculated that state parks could have had five times the number of turnaways.

PRIVATE PARKS are taking the pressure off state parks and have prevented state facilities from being completely overrun, Auto Club feels. It points out that while private parks have grown 25 per cent in the past year, the number of sites they offer has jumped 45 per cent.

Michigan's increasing number of camping families also is causing new businesses to appear. Many cities have made it illegal to store camping trailers in residential areas, unless they are kept in a garage. To accommodate the family which owns a trailer but has nowhere to keep it, storage yards are opening across the state.

These yards are usually fenced areas near a major road with a fee ranging from $5 to $15 monthly, depending on the services available and the location.

Stanford Camping Center, operated by Les Stanford Chevrolet, has a trailer storage yard in Taylor, at Telegraph and Van Born. It holds 100 units and the minimum charge is $30 for a six-month period. It is fenced on three sides, with the front open.

Another more expensive but more deluxe storage yard is named Terrina, located at 12011 Market, Livonia. The yard is completely fenced and customers are given a key to the gate which permits 24-hour access. The yard is protected by night lights, a guard and attack dog.

Storage at Terrina is $15 monthly. The yard has LP gas sales, a septic dump station plus complete trailer and motor home repair and maintenance service. It has room for 100 trailers.

Auto Club expects more storage depots to begin opening across the state, especially in the north near popular camping areas or where major roads going to and from resort areas meet.

Hauling a travel trailer with a car doubles gas consumption. By storing a trailer 200 miles from home, a person could save up to $20 gasoline money round trip each weekend, which would more than offset the cost of a month's storage.

Also, the trip between the storage area and home could be made faster without a trailer in tow.

The major concern of campers in Michigan is not if a campsite is available but where one can be found. Although popular state parks almost always fill on summer weekends there is usually space at private parks. Campers can almost always find a vacant campsite if they follow these rules:

• If looking for a site at one of the preferred state parks over a warm weekend, arrive Friday before 3 p.m.

• Use the State Park Hot Line to locate parks with space.

• Have alternate campsites located on a map should first preference be filled upon arrival.

• If staying at a private park, phone ahead for advance reservations. Remember, state parks do not accept reservations and operate on a first-come, first-served basis.

• Carry guides listing state, private and other parks which will help locate them and give other pertinent information, such as facilities available.

NOTE: PHONE BEFORE GOING. Information for this listing was obtained last fall. Rates and accommodations may have changed. Many of the campgrounds have a limited number of sites and do not have electricity at every site or do not allow ground tents. Prices quoted are daily minimums and do not always include electricity or other charges. To be sure the campground is open and offers what you want at the price you are willing to pay, check by phone. This map and listing is intended only as a guide and does not rate campgrounds. Campgrounds spotted on the map are shown in general and not exact locations. The letter "s" after number in the listing indicates the number of sites.

KEGHAM TAZIAN will demonstrate how to create a collage such as this one during the art conference at the University of Michigan on July 20. Tazian, an assistant professor at the Oakland Community College's Orchard Ridge campus in Farmington, will also demonstrate painting at the conference. (Evert photo)

Farmington Prof Will Demonstrate Art Work

Kegham Tazian, assistant professor at Oakland Community College's Orchard Ridge campus in Farmington, will give a demonstration in painting and collage at the University of Michigan's 20th annual art conference July 20.

A native of Beirut, Lebanon, Tazian has taught at Orchard Ridge since 1967 and exhibited his works at several shows.

He attended the Ft. Wayne Institute of Arts and completed his undergraduate work at St. Francis College in Ft. Wayne, Ind. In 1967, he received a master's in fine arts from Wayne State University.

His works were exhibited in a one-man show in Birmingham Gallery in 1968 and 1970, a two-man show in Detroit, 1967, a group show in New York in 1972 and the rental collection in the Detroit Institute of Arts. He has chaired the arts division of the Michigan State Fair in 1970, 1971 and again this year.

Tazian's works were also among those in the Arttrain, sponsored by the Michigan Council of the Arts. The traveling art show visited Plymouth in the spring.

Tazian took awards at the Indiana Artists Show in 1967, and 28th and 29th annual exhibition of the Michigan Academy of Arts and Letters.

He will give his demonstration at 2 p.m. in Auditorium E, during the conference. The conference is in the Rackham Building, E. Washington Street, Ann Arbor.

Registrations for the day-

'All That Fall' Comes To U-D

DETROIT Samuel Beckett's "All That Fall" makes its Detroit premiere at the performing arts center of the University of Detroit and Marygrove College on Sunday, July 9, with performances at 7 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.

It will be performed at Stage II, Livernois at Grove across from the U-D campus. Performances will continue on July 16 and July 23 at the same times.

Beverly Markowitz of Southfield will be Mrs. Rooney in the play revolving around her trip to the railroad station to meet her husband, her experiences along the way and the Rooney's return home.

Singles Plan Picnic, Dance

The Ann Arbor Singles Club will have a picnic in Island Drive Park in Ann Arbor on Sunday, July 9. A potluck dinner with meat and coffee provided will be at 3 p.m. followed by dancing at 4 p.m.

The club has dances every Saturday evening from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight in the YM-YWCA, 350 S. Fifth Ave., Ann Arbor. Single people are invited to the dances which feature live music.

long conference are now being taken at the University of Michigan Extension Service, Conferences and Institutes, 412 Maynard, Ann Arbor, 48104. The cost is $3 per person, $1.50 for retirees, 65 and over who preregister.

The conference will get under way with registrations at 8:30 a.m. The opening session will begin at 10 a.m. with addresses by Michael P. Church, director for cultural activities, extension services, U-M, and Herbert Johe, assistant dean and professor of architecture, College of Architecture and Design.

Richard Muhlbarger will give a talk entitled "Art Stars and Super Stars, or Values in Art." Muhlbarger has been recently appointed chairman of education at the Detroit Institute of Art. He comes to Detroit from the Worcester (Mass.) Art Museum. He is a graduate of Wayne State and Johns Hopkins Universities.

Also during the morning, the film "Hartigan" by Hart Perry will be shown and the U-M's 20th annual invitational art exhibition will be opened in the Rackham Galleries, third floor.

During the afternoon, Fred Leach, nationally-known water-colorist, and Mustafa Naguib, sculptor, will give demonstrations. Naguib is a former professor and director of the Free Arts School, Kuwait.

The conference is being supported by a special grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts.

The invitational art exhibit will be open through Aug. 4.

Music Festival Activities Set

ROCHESTER Contemporary dance to family-oriented Sunday pops are on the agenda for the third week of the Meadow Brook Music Festival beginning Monday.

The Pennsylvania Ballet will give its final performance on Sunday, July 9, at the Baldwin Pavilion at Oakland University, in Rochester, performing "Raymonda Variations," "Mignon Pas De Deux," "Icarus," and "Scotch Symphony."

The Erick Hawkins Company will dance three times during the week on Monday, Tuesday and Saturday evenings at 8:30. Their performance Monday will include the world premiere of "Running On A Hanging Bridge" with music by David Diamond.

A SECOND world premiere will be on Saturday when the company, accompanied by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, will dance to the music of Toru Takemitsu in "Dawn Dazzled Door."

BAA's New Term Set

BIRMINGHAM Registration is underway for the Bloomfield Art Association's summer term which begins July 10.

The adult curriculum for the five-week summer term includes painting in all media, basic drawing, figure drawing, drawing for painters and figure sculpture in the fine arts. The schedule for craft classes offers ceramics at all levels, weaving, jewelry and metal sculpture.

Fine arts classes meet once a week for three hours. Crafts classes meet twice a week for three-hour sessions.

Children's and young people's classes are also available at the BAA, 1516 S. Cranbrook.

Buffy Sainte-Marie, tiny troubadour who writes most of her own songs, will open the folk series at the festival with a concert at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Pianist Eugene Istomin will take the stage on Thursday at 8:30 p.m. with Sixten Ehrling conducting the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. He will return Saturday night as guest artist performing the Beethoven Concerto for Piano and Orchestra No. 4 in G major, Opus 58.

Ray Charles headlines the Friday night jazz series with a concert in the raspy-voiced style that has made him a favorite for more than 20 years.

Mitch Miller will close the week of Music at Meadow Brook with a concert including such favorites as "The Nutcracker Suite" and the overture to "William Tell" as well as his familiar sing-along.

Tickets are available at Hudson's Grinnell's, Wayne State University, Macomb County Community College and the festival box office.

Museum Plans 3 Workshops

DETROIT Boys and girls, five to nine years old, will have an opportunity to learn all about pioneers in a "Spits and Spider" workshop to be held in the Detroit Historical Museum, 5401 Woodward.

The accent will be on how the pioneers prepared their food. It will be held July 11-14 and 18-21. For reservations, send 50 cents to the museum.

For older children and moms and dads, there will be workshops in candle-making. These will be held July 11-14 and July 18-21 between the hours of 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Registration for this is $2.

Those interested in quill penmanship may practice at the museum each Saturday from 1 to 5 p.m.

Are you a "bonsai" enthusiast?

This is the art of growing tiny, miniaturized trees in a shallow pot. They are shaped and trained to resemble gnarled old trees growing in the wilderness. The art began in China and then spread to Japan where it had been practiced for hundreds of years. It is now gaining popularity in the United States.

One of the most popular plant societies in this area is the Shibusai Bonsai Society. The society was organized a little over a year ago with 18 members and now numbers 130 ardent Bonsai growers.

The society will present a show on Sunday, July 9, from 12 noon to 6 p.m. in the Carl Sandburg Library, 30100 West Seven Mile Rd. in Livonia.

President of the Shibusai Bonsai Society is Dean Atkinson, who first became intrigued by these artistic little plants when he served in Japan during World War II. His interest lay dormant until 13 years ago when he read a magazine article about bonsai.

A tiny mail-order bonsai juniper plant and a Brooklyn Botanical Gardens booklet got his hobby off to a real start. Now Mr. Atkinson has 30 bonsai that he regards as completed plants and another three dozen which are being trained.

Almost any woody plant can be trained as a bonsai. Some of Atkinson's plants were found growing in his yard, others he collected from wild areas. Most, though, were purchased from nurseries. He has both evergreens and deciduous bonsai plants, including pines, junipers, yew, maple, birch, hornbeam, dogwood, and many others.

THEY ARE trained into a variety of styles - slanting, cascading, formal upright, informal upright, twisted, etc. There are also groves of miniature trees a few inches high growing in containers a few inches in diameter.

Atkinson's oldest specimen is a yew that is well over 20 years of age. It is now 18 inches tall including the pot and has a spread of 24 inches.

His smallest is a five-year-old Chama Cyparis evergreen that pot and all stands less than five inches high.

Atkinson's favorite though, is a 20-year-old Hinoki Cypress that is like a gnarled old giant but is only 18 inches tall.

In Japan bonsais are often several hundred years old and are regarded as valuable treasures.

These little treasures are produced by pruning, wiring, and repotting. First of all, a plant is selected that is already bent or twisted or otherwise offers opportunities for being trained into a picturesque shape.

Excursion Boats Abound In State

Tourists who want to travel the state's virtually unlimited waterways have a choice of more than 35 excursion boats and ferries, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

They range in size from large ships which cross Lake Michigan in four to six hours to small ferries and boats which ply small lakes and narrow bodies of water with rides lasting only minutes.

Some operate the year around. Others halt service after Labor Day or in the fall.

THE CHESAPEAKE & Ohio Railway operates a fleet of three auto-passenger ferries between Ludington and the Wisconsin ports of Milwaukee, Manitowoc and Kewaunee. There are four passenger sailings daily, two to Milwaukee and two to Manitowoc. The sailing to Kewaunee operates on an irregular schedule.

The ships run between Ludington, Milwaukee and Manitowoc on a regular basis through Sept. 5, then offer daily service on an unscheduled basis through the winter. For exact schedules, passengers should check their nearest C&O agent.

The use of this cross-lake route eliminates driving through Chicago with a saving of several hours time.

Passenger business on the boats has grown steadily, and yielded $2 million in 1971.

RANGER III, a 165-foot, 125-passenger boat operated by the National Park Service, makes weekly round-trips between Houghton and Isle Royale through mid-October. The runs leave Houghton on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, returning the following day. Advance reservations are required.

The Isle Royale Queen II, a 65-foot, 60-passenger boat running from Copper Harbor to Isle Royale, begins a round-trip daily except Sunday schedule on June 26. Its season ends Labor Day. Advance reservations also are required for this boat.

Four ferries offer service between Mackinac City and St. Ignace to Mackinac Island. Ferries which continue year-around service are DeTour Village to Drummond Island, and Mission Point, south of Sault Ste. Marie, to Sugar Island, both in the St. Marys River.

Another ferry from Barbeau, south of Sault Ste. Marie, to Neebish Island, runs daily until January unless stopped by the weather.

FOUR FERRIES in the St. Clair River between Port Huron and Algonac also operate the year around, weather permitting.

In West Michigan, the Beaver Islander, between Charlevoix and Beaver Island in Lake Michigan, will make daily trips except Tuesdays, through October, Monday through Saturday in November, then a dozen trips in December before closing for three months starting in January. All trips are on a favorable weather basis.

Boat cruises on the Manitowish or Island Clipper from Leland to North and South Manitowish Islands operate on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays to both islands, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays to South Manitowish. All are round-trips and operate through October. Tuesday and Friday trips only are scheduled from November through April.

At Saugatuck, the Island Queen offers cruises on the Kalamazoo River from mid-June until after Labor Day.

The Ironton ferry on Lake Charlevoix operates from mid-

June through the end of August, then on a curtailed basis until the end of December or until the water is frozen.

THE AUSABLE River Queens Nos. 1 and 2 at Oscoda run two daily trips during the heavy tourist season. They stop regular service on Sept. 29 but resume for the color season through Oct. 15.

The City of Grand Rapids, a paddlewheel riverboat operating cruises out of north Grand Rapids on the Grand River, runs on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays during the tourist season with its closing date indefinite. In the past it has operated charters on a demand basis as long as conditions permit.

The Upper Peninsula also operates several excursions during the tourist season.

Two excursions operate to Tahquamenon Falls. One, the Tom Sawyer Riverboat and the Paul Bunyan Timber Train, runs from Slater's Landing north of Hulbert and offers a daily round-trip through June 30, two through Labor Day and one through Oct. 10.

The other is the Toonerville Trolley and Boat Trip to Tahquamenon Falls, starting from Soo Junction on M-28. It offers one round-trip daily through June 30, two trips Monday through Friday and one on Saturdays and Sundays in July and August and one trip daily Sept. 1-30.

THE POPULAR Soo Locks Boat Tours at Sault Ste. Marie, which offer two-hour trips through the famous locks, will run eight trips daily from one dock through June 30, a dozen trips daily from each of two docks from July 1 through Labor Day, eight trips daily from one dock, Labor Day - Sept. 30 and four trips from one dock, Oct. 1-15.

The Pictured Rocks cruises out of Munising offer three-hour trips along the famed Pictured Rocks of Lake Superior. Through June 30 there are two cruises daily, July and August five cruises nipped off to control the size and shape of the plant.

Plants are also wired to bend the trunk and branches to a desired form. Copper insulated household wire is used and wrapped around the branch, which is then carefully bent.

Plants are sometimes "de-leaved" (to help miniaturize the leaves. This can be done with any deciduous plant. Atkinson has de-leaved up to three times in a single season. One by one the leaves are carefully pulled off. All can be removed at once, or a few of the smallest can be left on the tree. New leaves, which sprout in a few weeks, are smaller.

Atkinson feeds his established plants about once a year. He waters them every day, though. The pots have drainage holes so there is no danger of over-watering.

BONSAI ARE NOT house plants. Even though they are miniaturized, they are outdoor plants. In summer Atkinson displays his bonsai on shelves built against a redwood fence and on a low bench and on stones in a rock garden. They get morning sun but are shaded from hot mid-day sun.

In the winter they are kept in a cold frame. However, most area bonsai growers do not have cold frames and bury the pots in the garden and put straw around the plants.

Dozens of plants will be displayed during the show in Livonia this weekend. There will also be a display of materials needed for beginners of this art. Members of the Shibusai Bonsai Society will explain the techniques. The show is open free of charge to the public.

DICK BENSEK

Meat is sometimes dried to develop peculiarly tender meat, and favor the most frequently aged and high quality beef and lamb of high quality is sometimes aged, but aging does not improve veal and pork. To be suitable for aging, the meat must have a fairly thick covering of fat to prevent discoloration of the lean and to keep evaporation at a minimum. Only the higher grades of beef, mutton and lamb have a sufficiently thick fat covering to stand aging for the necessary period - 3 to 6 weeks, at temperatures ranging from 34 to 38 degrees Fahrenheit.

The most frequently chosen foods on our menu are: Roast Prime Rib of Beef, Dover Sole, Viking Sword and our special, Frikadeller. DANISH INN, 32305 Grand River Ave., 476-5320, "Farmington's Finest" is open from 11 a.m.-2 a.m. with dinners during the week until 10 p.m. Fri. and Sat. until 1 a.m.

WEEKEND FEATURE SUPPLEMENT/OBSERVER NEWSPAPERS

Photography has been called an art form, a skilled trade, a hobby, and an activity geared to gadgets.

There is much more in photography than that for the amateur and hobbyist who wants to take better pictures of his family, travels and things around him.

In the spirit of fun and an effort to depict "how NOT to get the picture" our Observer photographer enlisted the aid of a young lady with about four cameras more than anyone—even a professional—would ever need.

Too much equipment—this is a large "don't" on the list of "do's and don'ts" for more information about this modern hobby... follow us...

Photography Offers Fun For Shutterbugs

Photography, like a car, can be many things to many people.

Some people spend upwards of $1,000 for a camera, lenses, light meters, tripods, gadget bags, and related equipment to take a picture of a building which they can get on any picture postcard.

OTHERS MERELY want to buy a camera for less than $20 and take pictures for two purposes -- to have color slides of their vacations and to have a record of their youngsters' growth and development over the years.

Chances are the person with the $500 Rolleiflex and the $20 instamatic may come up with prints of the same quality.

The difference is not the equipment but the person behind the camera and what purpose he has in mind when he clicks the shutter.

THE PERSON with the few thousand dollars in equipment may argue the point but there are too many examples of the fine work that can be done with a simple fixed-focus camera -- available at any drug store for $15 - $20 -- or with a slightly more sophisticated camera for under $100.

But the purpose is the same -- to record on film a scene, person, an event which is important to the person taking the picture.

Many amateur camera bugs are reluctant to use their camera more than they do because they feel that only expensive cameras with a variety of wide-angle, telephoto, and zoom lenses are required to take any kind of pictures. Nothing could be further from the truth.

A classic example of what can be done with a simple Brownie Hawkeye camera was shown about 15 years ago when the camera field was dominated by a school of thought that felt that only the equipment was important, and not the finished product, that is the color or black and white print displayed.

One of the country's top photographers, Mark Kaufmann, set out to show that it is the man behind the camera and not the camera that makes the pictures what they are.

He left his expensive equipment behind one day as he picked up a Brownie Hawkeye to shoot a Chicago White Sox baseball game at Comiskey Park in the Windy City.

THE GAME was played in daylight and the lighting was the same for any 12-year-old youngster handling the same camera.

But Kaufmann shot roll after roll of film at the game and Life magazine thought enough of his results to run a few pages of pictures.

The Life picture editors didn't care what camera Kaufmann used or didn't use. They just wanted good pictures and Kaufmann delivered them.

Recent improvements in box cameras have made it easier for amateur photographers around the house to take pictures of a higher quality.

THIS IS because of improvements in the quality of the lens -- the key to any sharp picture -- and built-in strobe units.

A good example of the quality was shown in an Observerland community when a newspaper photographer bought his wife a box camera with a built-in strobe light for a present.

The strobe operates on a battery source and eliminates the need for flashbulbs or flashcubes, although the inexpensive penlight batteries within the camera have to be replaced once in a while.

THE WIFE, unconcerned with the numbers game of shutter speeds and f/stops and light meter readings which dominate the conversation of more serious photographers, then went around the house taking pictures of her two children.

The finished results in print and slide form were comparable to her husband's pictures of the children

How To Improve Your Baby Pix

A baby is an endlessly fascinating and appealing subject for picture-taking.

The pictures you take of him can be equally appealing and fascinating, if you follow a few simple suggestions from Kodak experts.

THE FIRST, and most important, is to hold your camera steady. The cutest baby in the world is lost in a blurry picture.

The second, when you are dealing with as changeable a model as a baby, is to keep your camera loaded and handy at all times, so that you don't miss a single memorable moment.

Since the baby spends most of his time indoors, a supply of flashcubes is a must too. Automatic film advance has the great advantage of allowing you to shoot a series of pictures in rapid succession.

OPPORTUNITIES for pictures will occur throughout the baby's day, but there are, inevitably, some periods which are better than others.

Just after naptime, when the baby is happy and alert, is ideal for picture-taking.

Bathing and feeding are also excellent occasions for a series of shots, particularly when the baby has first begun to feed himself.

There's nothing wrong with a little deliberate posing either, as long as the baby is happy.

Infants, as every mother and photographer knows, cooperate with adults only as long as they feel like it. Follow the baby's mood. Keep a toy handy to distract him when he shows signs of becoming cranky.

WHETHER you pose your pictures or shoot them as they happen, remember to shoot at the baby's level, even though this may mean getting down on the floor yourself.

STAY AS close as your camera allows. This not only cuts down on possibly distracting background, but will also prevent the baby from becoming just a blob in the distance. When you stay close, you can catch every change of expression.

Key To Good Pictures-- Get Closer

Have you ever noticed, while watching people take pictures, how frequently the photographer is standing as much as 10 or 15 feet from his subject? Sometimes even farther.

This is fine, of course, if he is taking a picture of a large object or a group of people. But if what he wants is a close-up of his wife and baby, he's going to lose them in the distance.

ONE REASON people do this perhaps is because they are aware of a distance limit if they want the subject to be in focus. Their instruction manual said something about not getting close than ... so they're being careful to stay well beyond that point.

If they are using simple, fixed-focus cameras, the limit they remember so vaguely is probably four feet. A camera with adjustable focus would allow them to get within two to three feet.

Some box cameras have fixed-focus lenses but a special close-up setting permits pictures as close as two feet.

EXPERIMENT with your own camera. Check the instruction manual to find the minimum distance, and then measure a piece of string, or a stick or whatever is handy to that length.

Then, measuring your distance, take a series of pictures. When you have gotten used to estimating, measurement should no longer be necessary.

As an aid to judging, you can always measure your arm and approximate from there. For example, one step back from being able to touch your subject should put you four feet away.

THE DISTANCE itself is as important as getting used to what you will see in the viewfinder.

Once you have in mind how much of a person's head and shoulders you can get from three or feet, you should be able to judge when you are close enough.

Having discovered the fun of snapshots that reveal details, you will probably never go back to those distant views with the indistinguishable faces.

SEEN FROM this new proximity, the faces in your pictures will reveal a wide range of emotions, from happy excitement to quiet abstraction.

When you find a shot you particularly like it is a simple matter to crop in even closer for an enlargement of just the part you want. The end result will be a close-up you made without any special attachments for your camera.

All it takes, really, is a few steps forward every time you look in the viewfinder.

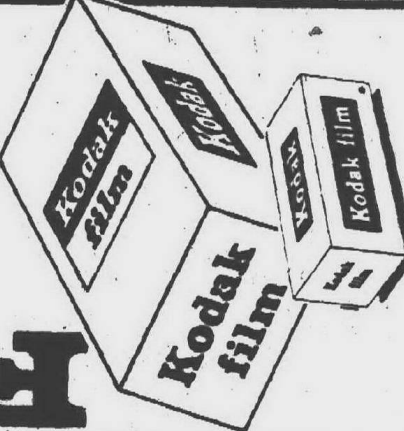

FOR A SHOT such as this, move in as close as your camera will allow. Then crop and enlarge the portion of the picture you want.

Travel Pictures Can Be Improved

One of the joys of travel is seeing everything for the first time. Every scene is new. Every detail is exciting. The traveling picture-taker, his awareness sharpened, records it all happily and effectively.

Once home among familiar surroundings, however, he lapses back into the state of non-seeing. His camera goes back on the shelf.

AND YET it is entirely possible that the opportunities for beautiful scenes, interesting mood shots, amusing people pictures, and abstract pattern studies are plentiful right where he lives. All he has to do is follow the late James Thurber's advice and "look around with awareness."

Try it yourself. For the next few days look at your home, your neighborhood, your route to work or feet, you should be able to judge when you are close enough.

Notice how the trees on your street are backlit by the early morning sun. And then, at the end of the day, notice how the rich light of the setting sun sharply defines each color and outline.

ALL DAY long, as you have the time, observe the shadows. A city fire escape, a wrought iron fence, a strand of ivy, can all become interesting abstractions when accented by a shadow.

Days without bright sun have picture potential too. An otherwise ordinary tree or building becomes an object of beauty and mystery when partially shrouded in mist. Outlines are softened and colors are muted. The resulting low-key almost no-color color pictures can be works of art.

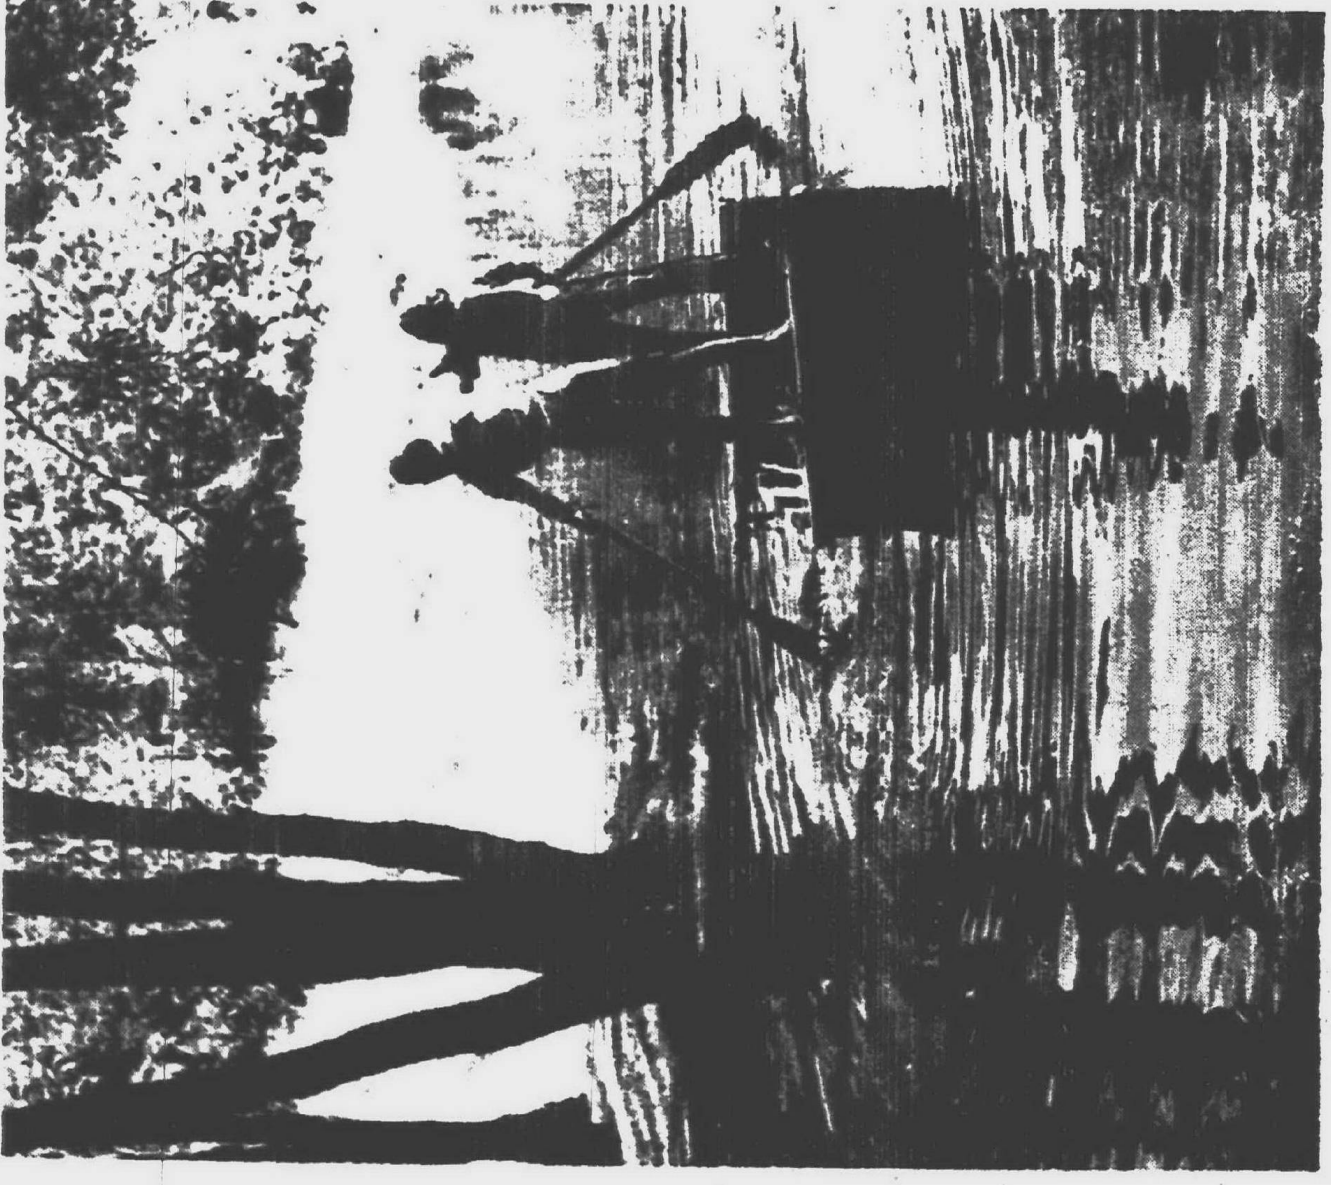

There's no need to stay outdoors, either. Put a bouquet of orange nasturtiums in a sunny window and record their brilliance. Put the bouquet on a glass-topped table, shoot the flowers from below for a really crazy angle.

ANY OF the foregoing can be photographed with any simple, nonadjustable camera.

As your awareness sharpens, however, you will begin to notice potential pictures indoors too.

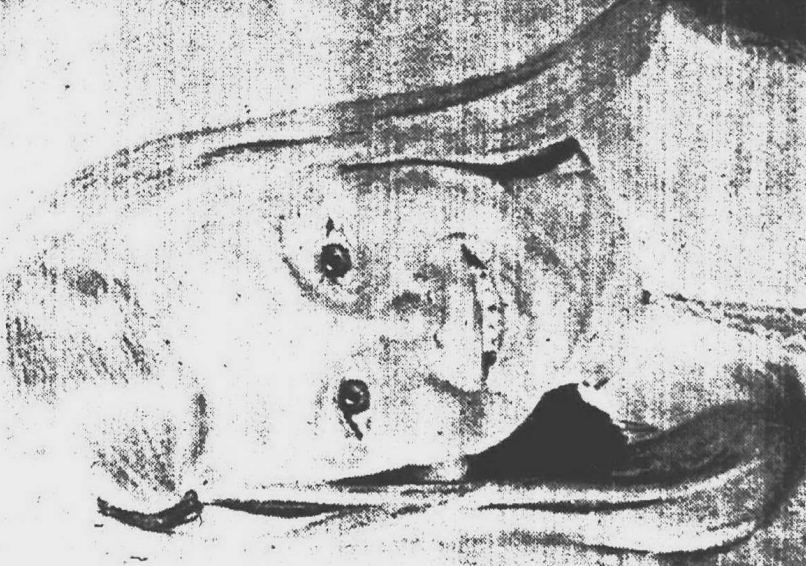

A sleeping cat, for example, draped over a chair in the total relaxation only a cat can achieve, or the roses in a gleaming silver bowl brightening a rainy afternoon, or the multiple shadows cast by a candle-lit figurine.

THESE, TOO, are now perfectly possible pictures, thanks to cameras with electronic shutter which measures the time exposure for you automatically. All you have to do is to remember to mount the camera on a firm support in low-light situations, when a time-exposure will be necessary. The camera does the rest.

THIS SCENE in a foreign country, would be a picture of charm and atmosphere to delight the traveling photographer. Would you be aware of its potential if you saw it in a local park?
