A New Look

With little progressbeing made in negotiations for a new contract with Plymouth teachers, the board of education has agreed with the P.E.A. on a new approach. Henceforth, board members will join contract talks as observers.

Double Help

When Van Cliburn gave his recent benefit performance at Interlochen, two Plymouth girls were in the orchestra which provided accompaniment for the famed pianist. They were Margaret Lang and Beverly Taylor.

Lines Switched

Many Plymouth Township residents have received notice that they now live in a different precinct than formerly. It's all because of the restructuring of legislative districts, which also prompted changes in precinct boundaries. They are detailed on a new township map.

What is the difference between an atom and a molecule? A molecule is made up of atoms. Two or more atoms may form a molecule. An atom is the tiniest particle of an element. No one has ever seen an atom, since they are incredibly small. An atom is made up of a nucleus and the electrons that surround it. The number of electrons have direct bearing on the type of atom. Now, all matter is made up of these atoms. Life is mysterious, isn't it?

GOOD BYE, WORLD and now it's off to the woods and lakes of the north for two weeks to rest up for the two showdowns which are shaping up here for August.

One is that regulatory measure concerning parks and public grounds which the City Com- Vico's mission has under consideration, and the other is the primary election in Plymouth Township.

Some very fine people of our community are so uptight about a series of destructive acts which have taken place in Kellogg Park that they want an ordinance with such tight controls that freedom itself would be infringed.

There are other residents, equally fine and upstanding, who think there are plenty of controls under existing legislation, if only they were enforced. They also feel the park is there to be used, not just looked at and admired from afar.

NO ONE in his right mind sanctions wanton destruction of property, whether it be plugging up a park fountain, tearing up bricks, breaking gas lights or tramping on shubbery. But theoretically building a fence around the park and telling people that after a certain hour each night it can't be used isn't necessarily the way to end the vandalism.

The blame, of course, is being put on the kids. City Hall's ire is aimed particularly at the element which sports long hair and beards, which are interpreted as evidence of hoolliganism whether it be justified or not.

Commissioners are scheduled to consider the curfew and other restrictions in their meeting of Aug. 7, but there have been indications from some of them that it may be put off longer than that. They have found they have a monster by the tail and some of the wiser heads are convinced the matter should be approached with caution.

The silliest part of the argument which the proposed ordinance has set off has been City Hall's inference to those who are clean shaven and neatly attired, "Oh, it wouldn't apply to you." Nuts to that kind of discrimination; if it's for one, it's for all.

PRIMARY ELECTION DAY will be Tuesday Aug. 8, and in traditionally Republican Plymouth Township it may be a more fateful occasion than the general election in November. That old cliche about GOP nomination being "tantamount to election" gives the primary special importance.

There are three contests in particular within the Next season the association The possibility of initiating Republican ranks that already are heating up, will move to new diamonds in an annual city championship those being for the positions of supervisor, treasurer and board of trustees.

Incumbent Maurice Breen is facing the challenge of J.D. McLaren and Bill Augustine for nomination for supervisor, while Treasurer Elizabeth Holmes has a strong rival in Anna Russell Ash, Richard Gornick, William who perform many extra Evans, Gerald Burke, Soren Pedersen and Gordon Campbell have a real scrap going for the two GOP nominations for trustee, and two weeks hence we'll take a thorough look at the positions of all candidates from both parties. Right now, included at least 25 patients however, there's some fishin' to be done and politics can wait.

In 1954, the chairman of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors (now Board of Commissioners) convened a series of meetings with the chairmen of boards of supervisors of the counties in the region. Out of these discussions developed the Supervisors Inter-County Committee (SICC) representing the boards of supervisors of Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Washtenaw and Monroe counties and, a year later, St. Clair county.

The new body had no formal legal status and no direct of basic planning information, power of its own-its purpose was to discuss common prehensive land use plan, a problems, develop solutions regional highway plan, a and implement those solutions comprehensive recreation by action of the boards of plan, a major study of refuse supervisors of each of the six counties. In 1957, the SICC was given official status by the adoption of state legislation.

The SICC played a major role in initiating area-wide studies of water, sewerage, drainage and solid waste disposal and participated actively in highway and airport planning. SICC compiled an inventory of public works needs for the region, initiated an executive development program and was involved in the organization of a new agency to deal with metropolitan problems that is now called the Metropolitan Fund.

IN 1964 the Metropolitan Fund initiated a series of basic research studies by the Citizens Research Council of Michigan on governmental organization in Southeast Michigan. A policy committee was appointed by the Metropolitan Fund which made a series of recommendations including the establishment of a voluntary metropolitan council of governments representing all the governments in the area. In 1965 the chairman of Metropolitan Fund appointed a committee of 100 public officials from throughout the region to develop a specific proposal for organing a voluntary council of governments representing all 400 local units of government in the area.

The Committee of 100 issued its report in 1966. In 1967, delegates from local units throughout the region met and formally organized the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCQG) as of January 1, 1968.

SEMCOG was unable to obtain satisfactory state enabling legislation for regional councils of government, so it organized under the regional planning act. With the organization of SEMCOG, the Supervisors Inter-County Committee was disbanded and the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission became the planning division of

A Message to our 90,000 Policyholders

"Here" is the home office of Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Company of America, the corporate center for an evergrowing family of policyholders, stockholders and employees.

"Someone in Here Cares" that the confidence you placed with us when you first became a policyholder continues to grow. Since the heart of our product is your financial security, one of the ways we can demonstrate that care is to keep you informed of the growth and financial strength of your insurance company.

One sign of financial strength is ASSETS. We bunched our company with $8.6 million in 1964, and in eight brief years of operation, assets have grown to more than $100 million, $102,889,900 to be exact.

Redford Could Be Stopper In Livonia Assault

By TOM DONOGHUE Sports Editor

Livonia's Griffin Sport continued its winning ways in the second half of Adray baseball action with a 10-3 triumph over South Farmington's Mario Sinacola.

It was the third win for Livonia which finished third in the opening round with a 7-3 record. The powerful Redford team that finished the first half undefeated appears to have picked itself up after a loss to Sinacola and caught Griffin Coach Ron smothered Dearborn, 4-1, to stand at 2-1.

It's not just luck that one of the largest grass catchers you can buy has our mower attached to it. When we designed the Snapper, we weren't trying to build a better mower, we were trying to build the best mower, and we did, right down to the grass catcher. The Snapper Comet has a big 6 bushel grass catcher attachment that unloads in seconds. The V-18 and V-21 have a large 3 bushel bag. Whichever one you choose they all pick up grass, leaves and twigs. Banquet foods from ancient France? How about peacock pie? Both the head, gilded and glazed, and the peacock tail in all its splendor arose above the crust which might be two feet in diameter. At one royal banquet 104 such pies were served. Swans. too, were served roasted whole in gilded plumage. Snails were popular as a banquet food so were frogs. In one of the earliest of the French cookbooks, published in 1394, a recipe for preparing snails concluded: "They are eaten with spice and are for rich people.

THE FESTIVAL Woodwind Quintet will make its premier performance in a work by Reicha, the famous "Quintet The college has been holding feature works by Anton in E-flat, Opus 88." Violist David Ireland and percussionist Norman Fickett will perform Colgrass' "Variations for Viola and Four Drums." Colgrass is a young American composer who has become well known for works such as "As Quiet As" and "All the World's a Baked Apple."

> The Variations is generally considered to be one of his finest, and most difficult, works. Ireland has appeared as soloist with the court orchestra and with the Plymouth Symphony. Both he and Fickett are members of the Detroit Symphony, as are four of the five members of the festival woodwind quintet.

The major work on the second half of the program is "On Wenlock Edge" by Ralph of the 100th anniversary of the birth of Vaughan Williams, England's greatest 20th century composer.

Redford Actress To Star

Channel 4 TV

"A Thin Line," the awardwinning play in which Redford Township actress Louise Martin stars, will be shown at 4 p.m. Sunday, July 16, on

The play was originally scheduled for 3 p.m., but has been moved back an hour because the play "Sermon of Man" scheduled for viewing July 9 was postponed by the live NBC telecast of the Wimbleton tennis finals.

"Sermon of Man" was named winner of the best original play prize in the Metropolitan Detroit Community Theater Festival, with "A Thin Line" as runner-up. "Sermon" is a sight and sound interpretation of the Old and New Testaments in the form of a black, Southern Baptist Church meeting. The preacher (God) attempts to explain to the congregation His attempts through the ages to reconcile himself with wayward man. The script was written by James Peddy and the play itself is performed by Peddy's Players.

We don't want you to go through what your father went through.

Remember when Dad made that great buy on a home? Boy, was he proud. Then it became a question of whether he owned a home or the home owned him. He spent all his evenings or weekends with his head under the sink repairing the plumbing or unclogging the drains. And rewiring the doorbell, and replacing the light switches, and forking out our/his hard -earned dough to replace the water heater that always worked perfectly when the other guy lived there.

Well, this is 1972, and we think you have better things to do with your time and money. So for one full year after you buy a Real Estate One home with a Palace Guard contract, the Palace Guard people are going to fix that leaky foucet, unclog that drain, repair that furnace motor, fix or replace that doorbell or lightswitch, and replace that water heater.

And it's not going to cost you an Indian head nickel or a minute of your time. A Palace Guard Home service contract agrees to repair or replace in the event of an operation failure under normal use or service, absolutely free of charge any parts within your home. That includes central heating system, plumbing fixtures, plumbing system, electrical system, water heater, even your hot and cold air. So when you buy your home through us, you can save yourself a lot of time, money and grief.

We're the only real estate firm in America that offers Palace Guard free. But someone should have, a long time ago. Right, Dad? Real Estate One.

These simple cupboards were used in place of refrigerators. Some had pierced tin panels in the doors, sides, or both. Some had wire screening.
The screening and pierced tin allowed ventilation but kept out the files. Fresh from the oven baked goods were placed in the pie safes to cool and keep fresh until used.

Shelves in the pie safes are closer together, four or five inches apart, while the milk safes' are about seven inches apart," she explained. "Usually the milk safe was more crudely made than the pie safe."

The pie safe usually had a drawer, a long one above the doors, or one below the doors, or, rarely, two side-by-side above, and two, side-by-side, below. Most milk safes had no drawer.

How did they cool the milk in the safes?

"They poured the milk into pottery bowls, three or four inches deep and up to 14 inches in diameter," Miss Lowell said. She didn't have one on hand to show us but told us they were made of Rockingham or Yellow ware. They too are collectors' items.

ALL KINDS of woods were used in the safes. Poplar, pine, walnut, cherry and chestnut seem to have been the most popular although some were made of a combination of woods.

Most pie safe owners agree that the pie and milk safes were used only in the Midwest, Pennsylvania and Canada.

Collection Her Antique

By MARIE MCGEE

Few antique buffs can claim a house as part of their collection.

But Mrs. Ruth Clemens of Livon.

history is deposited in the charming two-story "salt-box" house that is just a stone's throw from one of the city's busiest thoroughfares. And a sizable chunk of Livonia's

Mrs. Clemens' girlhood home. Her family bought the property somewhere around 1915 from the pioneer Gates family, described in a feature story in the July 5 edition by. Observer Women's Editor (In fact, it's just down the road from the new home of the Observby Observer V Margaret Miller.)

It's a pleasant place to visit.

pickle jar and a "Buster Brown" sugar and creamer set.

The visitor's eye is drawn to the extremely rare pressed glass fruit compote in the "log cabin" or Canadian design and the "Garfield drape" pitcher, a commemorative piece marking President Garfield's death presented to Mrs. Clemens at her retirement after 10 years as a first grade teacher at Livonia's Garfield Elementary School.
