There's a sunny side to those delays with which motorists are familiar at Plymouth's railroad crossings and its found in the jobs provided by industry. Local Rotarians heard the railroad's side of the story from the "Chesie System's" local superintendent.

Plymouth's first unbeaten, untied football team in years has added exciting anticipation to the high school's homecoming activities which will culminate in the PHS Belleville battle here Friday night.

This will be the first homecoming celebration held in the new stadium on Canton Center Rd., and as always the one highlight rivaling the football contest itself will be the halftime announcement of queen.

The five senior class finalists for this coveted honor which couples beauty with student popularity are Holly Doty, Donna Glover, Kim Greenwood, Roxanne McTurner and Carol Neighbors, the latter being a younger sister of a former wearer of the crown.

The queen's court also will include one representative from each of the lower classes who will be Mary Covington, junior; Natalie Carroll, sophomore, and Ann Sulkowski, freshman.

FOLLOWING victories in their first four starts over Bloomfield Hills, Andover, Livonia Bentley, Dearborn and Allen Park, Coach Tom Moshimer's Rocks are tied for first place in the Suburban Eight Conference and the largest crowd yet to attend a game in the new stadium is anticipated Friday. The kickoff will be at 8 p.m. and officials suggest that patrons plan to arrive early to avoid traffic congestion.

The football game and crowning of the queen are not the only items on the homecoming agenda by any means.

Senior boys will get into the gargantuan spirit of things with a whopper eating contest tonight (Wednesday) at the Burger King and the homecoming parade will take place in the downtown area beginning at 7 p.m. Thursday.

Traffic is apt to be bad enough in that area as it is Friday, what with a pep rally for the 3,000-plus student body scheduled to get under way at 7:15 p.m. around a giant bonfire to be ignited half an hour earlier.

ANTICIPATING that before the night ends Plymouth will have notched its fifth successive victory of the season, students have scheduled a homecoming dance to be held from 8 to 11 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 14 in the Plymouth-Canton building.

Halftime activities Friday will include a special performance by the high school band and Rockettes, as well as crowning of the queen, and also will bring to the fore a special alumni band.

At least 50 former PHS bandmen are expected for this feature and Bandmaster James Griffith has scheduled two Friday rehearsals. The first will be at 4 p.m. in the high school parking lot for all who can be there and the second at 6:30 p.m. in the school band room - with all participants expected to attend. Griffith said that dress "will be according to the weather."

ONE OF THESE FIVE Plymouth High School seniors will be crowned 1972 homecoming queen when the undefeated Rocks host Belleville Friday night in the new stadium on

Blood Links Bennett To Slaying

By FRED DeLANO And MAURIE WALKER

Renewal Tuesday of the first degree murder trial of David LeRoy Bennett was highlighted by the introduction into evidence of blood-stained clothing he was wearing on the day he is accused of slaying Mrs. Vivian Berry.

Also, Mrs. Berry's similarly stained garments were presented to the jury and a state police laboratory scientist testified that in both cases the blood was human and of an identical type.

The 17-year-old Bennett is charged with stabbing Mrs. Berry to death in the garage of the family's Plymouth Township home on N. Territorial Rd. the morning of Tuesday, May 9 and of then returning to his classes at Plymouth High School. Mrs. Berry, 43, was the wife of the Wayne County Road Commission chairman, Michael Berry.

ITEMS OF Mrs. Berry's which were introduced by Assistant Prosecutor Robert Healy when the trial resumed before Judge George E. Bowles in Wayne County Circuit Court included her blouse, underclothes and brown slacks. The blouse and bra had been removed from the body by police and both were heavily stained. The slacks and panties had been found on the garage floor next to the body.

James Hauncher, laboratory scientist for the State Police, said the blouse "appeared to have been torn open and the bra had been cut in front and pulled back, exposing the chest."

Hauncher also testified that only the wounds from the waist up bore blood, adding that there were stab holes in the blouse and bra. (Previous medical testimony last week had indicated Mrs. Berry had been stabbed at least 70 times.)

"In my opinion, the wounds from the waist up were made while the bra and blouse were still on the victim," said Hauncher on the witness stand. "The wounds on the lower part of the body were made with no clothes in that area and I believe the victim was dead at the time the lower part of the body was stabbed."

HAUNCHER, testified that laboratory tests showed blood from Mrs. Berry's body to be Type O. Blood found on Bennett's boots, blue denims, T shirt and outer sport shirt, all taken from him at the crime lab after his arrest the night of May 9, was the same. Hauncher testified that semen but no blood was found on Bennett's jockey shorts.

State Police Detective Sgt. Thomas Nasser identified pictures of the Berry home, garage and body, which he had taken the afternoon of the killing, and said that in his opinion "the victim fled from the upper level of the home into the garage and toward the rear door."

Testimony from David Grammel, 18, and Keith McKinney, 16, both Plymouth High School students, placed Bennett as being in a class early the morning of May 9 and at school during the noon hour. They were among a total of eight witnesses appearing Tuesday, a session which also saw the judge deny a motion for mistrial from Bennett's attorney, Daniel Burreas.

Study Says City Needs Police Help

Hiring seven additional police officers, widening Ann Arbor and Sheldon Roads plus more stringent parking restrictions in the central business district are basic steps for reducing Plymouth's traffic accidents, according to an Automobile Club of Michigan survey of this city.

The report, released Tuesday, analyzes Plymouth's 293 auto crashes last year to determine their causes while pinpointing and recommending solutions for the community's high accident locations.

A bound copy of the report was formally presented to Mayor James B. McKeon following a 6 p.m. dinner meeting Tuesday at the Hillside Inn. The presentation was made by Richard A. Roberts, Auto Club's Plymouth manager.

The survey was conducted at no cost to Plymouth after city officials requested Auto Club to help determine present and future traffic safety and highway needs.

"THE KEY to making Plymouth a safer place to drive is enough police officers patrolling your streets and enforcing traffic laws," stated Arthur C. Gibson, Auto Club's safety and traffic engineering manager, who explained the significance of the report.

"Even though Plymouth has increased from 12 police officers in 1965 to 17 today, this total is not adequate to serve a community of 12,000," Gibson pointed out. "Based on current manpower standards of two officers per thousand population, a total force of 24 is needed."

"In addition to the policemen, an adequate force of clerical help and radio dispatchers must be maintained," he added. "While an increase of seven officers may create a budget problem, this burden is more than offset by improved traffic flow and reduced accident occurrence."

The study recommends that the police manpower shortage may be alleviated through a federal grant, which is available under several programs. Suggested is the development of a special traffic enforcement unit within the department.

PEA Pact Gets Final Approval

Ratification of a 1972-73 master agreement between the Plymouth Education Association and the board of education was voted by both bodies Monday, although on the part of the teachers the action was taken with a noticeable lack of enthusiasm.

Balloting by the teachers showed 258 favoring acceptance of the contract and 35 opposed. Two of those in attendance at the session in the high school auditorium abstained and 183 members of the faculty didn't even bother to attend.

It took 240 affirmative PEA votes to ratify, and in exceeding this by only 18 it was obvious that the union is hardly overjoyed at the terms of its new one-year pact with the school board.

Bill Heath, the outgoing president, characterized the tone of the meeting as "solemn," indicating that the teachers were resigned to accepting the agreement as the best they were going to get.

Just two weeks ago, in a militant meeting that featured considerable floor debate, the teachers had voted 218 to 166 to accept the salary scale offered by the board, leaving other terms to be worked out by their negotiating team of Heath, Ray Homer, John Ryder and Dolly Carter.

IN THIS week's session, all four recommended ratification, whereas two weeks ago both Heath and Miss Carter had opposed acceptance of the board's financial offer.

When the ratification issue came before the school board later Monday, the vote to approve the agreement was unanimous.

Candidate Night Set For Oct. 19

A "Meet Your Candidates Night" for congressional and state representative candidates will be held Thursday, Oct. 19, at 7:45 p.m. in West Middle School, 44401 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth.

The public is invited to the meeting at which candidates from the 2nd and 15th Congressional districts will be questioned. State representative candidates from the 35th, 36th, 37th and 52nd districts have also been invited.

The meeting is co-sponsored by the American Assn. of University Women and League of Women Voters. Each candidate will speak five minutes on "What do you consider the most important priorities for your legislative district for the next several years? What legislation would you propose or support to implement them?"

After the candidates speak, there will be an informal coffee where visitors can talk with the candidates.

THE 2nd DISTRICT takes in Livonia City and Plymouth City and Township. U.S. Rep. Marvin Esch (R-Ann Arbor) is the incumbent and is challenged by State Rep. Marvin Stempien (D-Livonia).

The 15th district includes Garden City, Westland and Canton Township and is currently represented by U.S. Rep. William D. Ford (D-Taylor). Ford is challenged by Republican Ernest Fackler.

The 35th State House District includes northern Livonia and Northville. Republican R. Robert Geake is running against Democrat Marie Miller for the seat formerly held by Stempien.

John Markes, Westland Democrat, and Ralph Miller, Westland Republican, are running in the 36th District which includes northern Westland and southwestern Livonia.

Incumbent Rep. Thomas Brown (D-Westland) is running against Republican Jack Underwood in the 37th District which includes Westland and Canton Township.

The 52nd district includes Plymouth City and Township where Democrat Bob Dwyer and Rep. Raymond Smith (R-Ann Arbor) are running against each other.

WCCC Students, Hours Up

Wayne County Community College Board reports an enrollment of 93,700 credits as of the end of the fall registration period, Sept. 22, representing over 13,000 students. It is a 10 per cent gain over the fall, 1971 term.

The figure allows for minor changes brought about by students dropping and adding courses, which is still under way.

In September 1971, 11,800 students were enrolled at WCCC.

"We are greatly pleased and encouraged by the continuing increase of interest by students in programs offered by this college," said WCCC President Reginald Wilson.

"Significantly, student growth occurred throughout the county at each of our 26 instructional centers. The enrollment increase provides a more substantial base from which to build our academic, career and service programs."

The 10 per cent gain in WCCC enrollment was reported while most of the state's institutions of higher education were experiencing drops in student enrollment or were just holding even compared with last year's figures. Schoolcraft and Oakland Community Colleges showed drops this year.

A 16 per cent increase in the number of credit hours enrolled was also reported, indicating that students are taking heavier class loads than last year.

WCCC is now in its fourth year of operation. The college now offers courses in 62 subject areas, including courses leading to certificates in vocational programs as well as associate degrees which provide entry into four-year institutions at the junior year level.

THROUGH BIFOCALS
By FRED DeLANO / Editor Mail & Observer

THERE IS AN INSIDIOUS falsification being spread through the Detroit area about the educational park - or campus - which presently accommodates about 3,500 ninth through 12th grade high school students of the Plymouth Community School District.

Malicious rumor mongers would have us believe that what they would like to interpret as a Plymouth "compound" is Communist-inspired, spending your tax dollars for a "Soviet-style education."

Supt. John M. (Mike) Hoben uses such dinner table terms as "ridiculous" and "ludicrous" to describe these allegations. He is too soft. He should come out and brand these persons for the misguided liars they are, characterizing their treachery for the stupidity it portrays in falling prey to the hate merchants of our society.

The undermining has reached such a point - and, mind you, it has come mainly from the prejudiced uninformed who don't even know where Plymouth is located - that a review of the circumstances was included in Monday night's board of education meeting.

It's a pity that the allegations of our somehow being victimized by a sinister and massive Red plot to take over our children's lives has had to be dignified by official rebuttal. I may disagree with some PHS policies, but I have yet to see Marx, Trotsky, Lenin or Stalin in the halls?

LEONARD POGER, editor of ONI Westland and Garden City editions, wrote an excellent summary of this wild-eyed symptom of our times in August, and if you didn't pay attention then just let me quote part of it:

"Right-wing groups, fearful of massive cross-district busing plans for the Detroit metropolitan areas, have been concentrating their attacks in the past two months on a proposed education park provision in a new federal law.

"Their energies were off target from the start, and now they are beating a dead horse.

"The educational park these groups were criticizing was an alleged attempt by the federal government to integrate Detroit and suburban schools.

"To back up their claim, they pointed to the cluster of buildings at Joy and Canton Center Roads in Canton Township. The rumors had it that 'they' were building a federally funded educational park.

"Actually, the Joy-Canton Center complex is a local project of the Plymouth Board of Education. It had been planned by local officials since the early 1960s."

THE FESTERING RUMORS, without foundation, point to our new Plymouth campus, which now includes two high school structures and ultimately may get two more, as being designed for dormitories where children would be allowed home only on weekends. To put it politely, hogwash.

The concept of an educational park for the Plymouth school district was the idea of two men, Russell Isbister and Carl Schultheiss. Isbister was superintendent and Schultheiss a member of the board - both among the most respected men in a traditionally conservative-minded community.

Stated as simply as I can, these two saw our community as it would be in the future and conceived the idea whereby a large tract of land, centrally located, could accommodate the buildings for all of the district's high school students. The key to their thinking was in the advantage of letting students share certain facilities, rather than having to duplicate them in school after school if they were built miles apart.

It is a concept which is working, albeit there are students, teachers and parents who do not fully understand as yet modular scheduling and how shared facilities can be put to fullest use.

As one official said this week, "I am proud of the educational program. It is a sincere attempt to individualize instruction and provide a relevant education for each child. I hope you share my enthusiasm."

Would that the portion of the earth behind the Iron Curtain were so lucky - or even Detroiters, for that matter.

Club To Meet Teens Plan To Discuss Social Ills

The Plymouth - Northville Mother of Twins Club will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 12, at the home of Mrs. Clark (Judith) Ewing, 41159 Crestwood Dr. in the Lake Pointe subdivision. The club is seeking new members and all area mothers of twins are cordially invited to attend, Mrs. Ewing said.

PLYMOUTH
A week-long series of discussions covering problems of modern society will begin Oct. 23 at the Plymouth Teen Center sponsored by Youth Inc., at 271 South Main.

Topics will concern women's liberation, the war in Indo-China, mental institutions, the lettuce boycott and racism in America.

Other new activities this month include field trips for photography enthusiasts to galleries and studios on Oct. 14 and 28 and Nov. 16. Film making and video taping also will be a part of the continuing photography group meetings throughout the winter.

Two other groups, pottery and weaving, will begin their season's activities Oct. 10 with the first group meeting at 7 p.m. and the weaving group at 7:30 p.m.

Another attraction under way at the center is a tutoring project for those needing help with school work. Tutoring is available in Spanish, Latin, chemistry, physics, algebra, geometry, social studies, history and English.

Additional tutors are sought.

Yoga classes are continuing at 7 p.m. on Tuesdays and chess classes at 7 p.m. Wednesdays.

Also continuing is the popular Poorman's Coffeehouse and Soup Kitchen from 7 to 11 p.m. every Saturday. Live rock and folk music are offered along with food, drink, silent films and other entertainment.

Tolerance Of Crossing Delays Urged By C&O

By W.W. EDGAR

PLYMOUTH
In all the years that the railroads - both the C&O and the B&O - have been made the target of criticism for the long delays at the crossings, it has been a one-sided argument. The railroads took the criticism, paid fines when imposed for delays and said nary a word in rebuttal - until last Friday.

Then, speaking before the Plymouth Rotary Club, Murray Kersten, superintendent of what is now known as the "Chessie System" dramatically related the railroad story and asked for tolerance until some solution is found.

"We know we have a problem," he said in very curt tones, "but how did it come about? It came as a result of the selling job you folks did and the fine work of our sales force, too. Together we built up the business, and in the building we also developed a problem.

"When the railroad came here in 1872," he pointed out, "Plymouth was a small farming town. It was a tiny community that was out of touch with the action. The main touch with the outside world was the railroad. And because of its ideal location - even in that farm country - Plymouth became the crossroads of the northern region."

HE RECALLED that, back in those days, there were few trains. "And as late as 1953," he explained, "we had only one local trip to Grand Rapids, Lansing and Saginaw and another to Toledo. In fact, they made one trip in each direction each day, returning the next.

"Now," he continued, "we have 12 trips out of Detroit each day, six out of Saginaw and Grand Rapids. We used to have one trip between Plymouth and Toledo. Now we have 14. As a matter of fact, we have 125 trains crossing our tracks here today - and it was 22 more when we had passenger trains."

He pointed out that several things have helped to enlarge the problem.

"We now have the diesel engine," he said, "that allows us to haul 150 cars as cheaply as 20. With that has come an influx of industry, such as the Ford air conditioning plant on Sheldon Road.

"They picked the site because it was an ideal community and a nice place in which to live and do business. So the problem enlarged and there's no remedy for it at the moment."

that some steps have been taken to ease the problem.

"We also have put on two extra trains a day between Toledo and Detroit in an effort to reduce the length of the trains.

"I might point out," he said, "that it costs the company $337,000 a year for the two extra trains."

After pointing out all of these things and how the problem has grown, he made one emphatic statement.

"Remember, all of you are affected by the railroad. The industries that located here provide hundreds of jobs and all business gains because of the increase in population. It would be a rather sad day if we ever lost the industries in this area."

With it all, he informed the listeners that there is a new bill in Congress that could provide money for overpasses and that the C&O was keeping a watchful eye on it in the hope that some solution can be found.

"In the meantime," he pleaded, "please be tolerant."

The longer a house has been on the market, the better your chances are of getting it for less than the original asking price. It is always worthwhile to make a bid for property in which you are interested even if the price you offer is much lower than the price asked. Often, you may be able to negotiate with the seller in an advantageous way. Even if the price is non-negotiable, it is still worth trying. Especially with property that has been on the market for some time, prices may become more flexible.

Let the experienced salespeople at HARTFORD REALTY, 975 S. Main St., 453-7800, use our know-how to help you with those negotiations. With specialists for the various areas in and around Plymouth, we will help you select the best possible home for your taste and budget. Auto Club Study Analyzes Traffic Problems

"Plymouth's lack of traffic enforcement is apparent from a study of the low number of traffic violations noted last year," Gibson explained. "It does not seem possible that no traffic violations were issued in 50 per cent of Plymouth's 1971 accidents."

Gibson said the fact that only two per cent of the accidents involved tickets issued for either speeding, driving under the influence of alcohol or failure to have a car under control indicated Plymouth's enforcement is below patterns found in communities similar in size and topography.

"This situation must be corrected by enlarging the traffic division and providing proper equipment and training," he stated.

THE STUDY acknowledges that while enforcement should be improved, the city's accident experience last year was among the best in the state. A State Police breakdown of 85 Michigan communities shows Plymouth had the sixth best casualty accident record per thousand population. The city had the second best casualty accident rate for cities of similar size. To help reduce an unusually high number of accidents at three main intersections, the report suggests widening Ann Arbor and Sheldon Roads, and possibly Main Street. The three areas--Penniman-Territorial Road at Sheldon, Main at Ann Arbor and Main at Linden--had a total of 40 auto accidents last year.

"Sheldon should be widened to provide a center lane for left turns at Penniman-Territorial," the report states. "And if the demand for left turns continues to improve, a separate signal phase may be required to handle the movement."

According to the study, Ann Arbor Road should be widened to provide a center left-turn lane on the north leg of the Main Street intersection. The study acknowledges that it may be impractical to widen Main at Linden and recommends that vehicles leaving an adjacent super market parking lot be required to turn right only when entering Main.

"However, if abutting land along Main Street continues to develop, such an improvement may become necessary," the study reports.

THE SHELDON Road intersection had 28 traffic accidents last year, highest in the city, while the Ann Arbor location had 13 and the Main area six.

The study also recommends that the city continue to develop off-street parking in the downtown business sector and to provide even stricter parking restrictions.

"A review of all accidents in the central business district indicates that parking too close to intersections and careless acts by motorists entering or leaving curb parking spaces contribute to a major portion of the city's accidents. The development of off-street parking facilities has reduced the need for curb parking in some blocks. This practice should be expanded," the study states.

Traffic safety improvements also are suggested for the following six intersections to help reduce auto crashes:

1. Main at Wing: Modernize traffic signal to provide two overhead indicators.

2. Main at Ann Arbor Trail: Eliminate two parking meters on the north side of Ann Arbor to facilitate entrance into nearby parking lot.

3. Main at Penniman: Eliminate curb parking on at least one side of Penniman from Ann Arbor Trail to Harvey Street.

4. Main at Church: Install modern traffic and pedestrian signals to improve driver visibility and control pedestrian traffic.

5. Main at Starkweather: Improve pavement markings and signing.

6. Main-Plymouth at Mill: Flare approaches to intersection to provide center left-turn lanes.

THE REPORT advises holding off physical improvements in the central business area until the feasibility of the proposed traffic loop shopping mall is ascertained.

"In general, Plymouth citizens can be proud of maintaining almost the same level of accident occurrence during a six-year period from 1965 to 1971 when traffic volumes have continued to rise," Gibson said.

Auto Club also performed a detailed traffic survey of Plymouth in 1965.

Jaycettes Present Puppets Saturday

PLYMOUTH Plymouth youngsters are due for a treat Saturday afternoon the likes of which they may never see again.

It's an old time melodrama complete with swooning heroine, gallant hero and slinking villain in a story aimed for the "through-fifth-grade" audience. The characters will be puppets.

A very special feature will be vintage style music, recorded at the mighty console of the recently restored giant Barton Theater pipe organ at the Michigan Theater in Ann Arbor, unused since the days of the silent movies.

The show will be presented under auspices of the Plymouth Jaycettes in two performances in Central School auditorium, the first at 1 p.m. and the second at 3 p.m. Donation will be 50 cents, according to chairman Sue Gansler.

Tickets will be available at the door for those who have not bought them earlier at their schools.

THE SHOW is a brand new play for the current season performed by the famed marionettes of Ed Johnson of Milford.

Stage, scenery, and acting, as well as the story, are in the mode of a 19th century country playhouse. The story, "Emmy's Cow," is intentionally a bit ridiculous. In most melodramas, the villain runs off with the heroine and threatens her with a dangerous situation like tying her to a railroad track. She is rescued by the hero in the nick of time.

In this case, Emmy's cow has to be rescued.

The audience is rehearsed before the performance to clap for the hero, sigh for the heroine and hiss the villain.

Rec Program Adds Courses In Arts, Karate

PLYMOUTH Arts and crafts classes for boys and girls in the second through seventh grades and judo and karate classes for persons from six to 60 will be offered beginning this month by the Plymouth Parks and Recreation department.

Registration for the arts classes should be made by Oct. 11 at the Community Building, 200 Union, behind City Hall. The classes will be from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. on Saturday mornings beginning Oct. 14 and will last for 10 weeks.

Bernadette Tomasik, a Madonna College art major, will teach the course at the Community Building. Cost, to cover materials, will be $10 for the 10 weeks.

Registrations for judo and karate classes, will be taken through Oct. 13, also at the Community Building. Classes will be at the Pioneer Middle School gym beginning Oct. 17. Judo will be offered from 6:30 to 7:45 p.m. and karate from 7:45 to 9 p.m.

Cost will be $20 for those taking both judo and karate and $10 for those taking only one. The courses last 10 weeks each. Chief instructor will be Bob Skinner, second degree judo and karate president.

A NEW ERA dawned in Plymouth Saturday when girls, for the first time, were allowed to sign up to play in the Junior Basketball Association. Proving their point with Dale Bennett of the JBA are these three sharpshooters, Marilyn Brown (left), Beth Richardson and Kari Hutton. Registration will continue the next two Saturday mornings, Oct. 14 and 21, at West School. (Observer photo)

The current study's breakdown of traffic accidents last year shows no fatal accidents, 65 personal injury crashes and 228 property-damage mishaps, for a total of 293.

The winter months constituted the greatest accident period with November the peak month, followed by the three-month period of January-March. Two-thirds of the crashes took place in daylight while Friday was the peak accident day with 18.5 per cent of the total.

The study points out that 41 per cent of all accidents last year involved drivers 24 years of age or younger.

"This was a disproportionate share of the drivers and special attention should be devoted to preparing young drivers for safer performance," Auto Club points out.

Sr. Citizens Club, 'Y' Help Residents Put Time To Use

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of a series of articles which will appear in the Mail & Observer on the agencies which receive financial allocations from the Plymouth Community Fund. The PCF campaign now under way will carry through Nov. 16 and seeks to raise a record $182,000.

use throughout the entire program.

The YMCA central office is now located at 670 Church beside Central Middle School, where Griffin would be happy to hear from volunteers of any age who are interested in working with youth.

MRS. PHYLLIS COOSAIA is director of the Plymouth Senior Citizens Club, but she insists that "activity coordinator" is a more accurate term. "The club really runs itself," she claims.

Spare time is of little value when you have nothing to do and no one to spend it with.

Two community fund agencies, the YMCA and Senior Citizens Club, exist to make sure this is never the case with Plymouth's oldest and youngest citizens.

The YMCA's urban service program combines recreation, cultural enrichment and crafts for seven youth groups at Starkweather Elementary School. Director Thomas Griffin hopes to expand these activities with camping, swimming and other events which include the entire family.

Newcomers to Plymouth might be surprised to learn how many programs and resources are available through the local Y—especially since there is no central activities building and, until about one year ago, there was no full time director.

FOR EXAMPLE, the Y is the organizational base for 21 Indian Guide tribes for fathers with sons aged five to nine. It sponsored three day camps this summer at Starkweather, Gallimore, and (in conjunction with the recreation committee of Canton Township) Walker Schools. Its employment service has found jobs for some 3,500 adults and young people since it was begun nine years ago.

Six canoes and a trailer are available to civic and school-affiliated organizations through the Y, and a new 12-passenger van, acquired through a special Community Fund grant and donations of civic and fraternal groups is in

From noon to 4 p.m. each Thursday, as many as 95 members meet at the Tonquish Creek Manor for a program that is almost invariably followed by pinocle. Hardly any club activity is quite so popular as the card games that come afterward.

In general, first Thursdays are reserved for business meetings, and special events such as a speaker, singing group, book reviews or other programs take place the second week. The club celebrates birthdays every third Thursday, and shares in a potluck dinner at the end of each month.

"OUR CATERED dinner at Thanksgiving and Christmas, for which the club and the members each pay half, always draws a large turnout," Mrs. Coosaia said. "The trips are also popular."

The group recently went to Mackinac Island, has a "mystery trip" scheduled next, and has Jack Minor's Bird Sanctuary slated for November. In December will come the annual "twinkle tour" of Christmas decorations.

Many Plymouth churches sponsor activities for older people, and many Senior Citizens' Club members participate in these as well. But for those with no religious affiliation, the club offers the only local program of its kind.

PLYMOUTH'S TEAM in the "B" division of the Michigan Junior Hockey League will be known as the Plymouth Pilgrims, this suggestion having been submitted by Cindy Price of 12725 Dunn Court in a "name the team" contest. Presenting Miss Price season passes for all Pilgrim home games are Norman More (left) and Joe Gates. The Pilgrims will play all home games at the new cultural center ice rink and will be in the MJHL's national Division with Fraser, Royal Oak and Westland. (Observer photo)

Parks Ordinance To Be Discussed In Public Hearing

PLYMOUTH The first of two scheduled public hearings on a proposed city ordinance which would establish special regulations for the control of Plymouth parks will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in City Hall.

A second hearing is set for the same hour one week later, Thursday, Oct. 19.

Both have been called by the Human Relations Commission to whom the measure has been referred for study and recommendation by the City Commission, the body which ultimately must decide on the wisdom of the ordinance and the wording to be included.

HRC Chairman Norman Thoburn said that additional hearings will be called if all interested groups and individual citizens don't have time to present their views fully during the first two sessions.

THE LEGISLATION which is up for consideration is an outgrowth of two years of frequent acts of vandalism in Kellogg Park, necessitating police action. However, the city's five other neighborhood parks also would fall under its jurisdiction as a general precautionary step.

When the measure was drafted by the city administration, a nightly curfew of 11 p.m. was proposed for Kellogg Park, and this was the issue which lit the fuse of many opponents.

A tempered measure now has resulted from commission editing, and the curfew has been eliminated in favor of giving police the power of closing the park whenever they consider it necessary for the "health, welfare and safety of the community."

This does not meet with favor in all quarters, however, and forces led by DPW Director Kenneth Vogras are expected to press for reinstatement of a specific curfew.

AT AN informal discussion of the issues between the HRC, city commissioners and a variety of interested citizens — both pro and con — early in August, Mayor James B. McKeon expressed the wish, rhetorically, that a decision on the ordinance be delayed until "there is frost on the pumpkin."

Circumstances have worked out exactly in that way, although the mayor's implied reasoning was that park usage and behavior are inevitably more of a problem in summer than winter.

MRS. RUBY MERRION 9841 Arden, Livonia, pauses to talk to U.S. Rep. Marvin Esch (R-Ann Arbor) during his door-to-door campaigning in Livonia recently.

Esch Pleased With Response In Revamped 2nd District

By KATHY MORAN

Literature in hand and walking briskly, Republican Marvin Esch of Ann Arbor began pounding Livonia's pavement recently in his campaign for reelection to the 2nd Congressional District seat.

"Hello, I'm Congressman Esch," he says. "I'm showing my face in the neighborhood and I'd like to give you some of my literature and answer any questions you might have."

Emphasizing that he is the district's incumbent, Esch is fighting Livonia's state representative, Democrat Marvin Stempien, to hold onto his congressional seat.

Livonia was tacked onto the sprawling district after reapportionment this year. It also includes Plymouth City and Township, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and into Monroe County.

prevent Federal Judge Stephen Roth's order for cross-district busing to achieve racial balance from taking effect.

A member of the House education and labor committee, Esch describes how he was instrumental in a bipartisan effort to get an amendment on the higher education bill out of the committee to temporarily delay any court-ordered busing.

"It's absurd that Roth thinks he's going to bus children," Esch sympathizes. Then it's down the walk, careful not to tread on the grass, and on to the next house where a senior citizen asked about social security.

"I KNOW ONE of your problems must be living on a fixed income," Esch said to Henry Bock, who came outside for a brief talk with the congressman.

"That's right. It's hard living on a fixed income. I have to pay $1,400 in the next 10 years for this," Bock said, pointing to a drain project in his neighborhood.

"I've lived here for 40 years," he continued explaining the difficulties of maintaining a home on a fixed income. Bock was a member of the charter commission when the city was first created.

"Anything you can do to get more money for special education will be appreciated," said one mother who has a brain damaged child and teaches special education classes.

"You a Democrat?" another asked.

"No, I'm Republican," Esch answered.

"Well, then you'll get one vote anyway."

THE NEXT HOUSE had a prisoner of war bumper sticker on the door. "That's a good sign you have there," Esch told the woman. "We can't forget our POWs."

Reflecting on his many encounters that afternoon, Esch said another "real issue" is congressional reform.

"We are going to have to make Congress more responsive and responsible for the needs of our country. Congress can be blamed for failure to act on tax reform, manpower reform, welfare reform."

"There has been a continued failure on the part of Congress, and failure on the part of the leadership in Congress, to act."

Esch intends to direct much of his campaigning to the middle income people who he feels has been neglected.

"I think the forgotten man is the man making between $8,000 and $15,000 who is willing to work and pay taxes, but those taxes are growing, whose wife might be working and who is harrassed in the schools and tied up in the traffic."

HIS OWN FATHER worked in the mines and died of black lung disease, he said. Esch was born in Flinton, Pa., and lived in Akron, Ohio and Jackson, Mich. He earned his undergraduate degree in political science and masters and doctorate in speech and education from the University of Michigan.

Esch taught at Wayne State University and was a consultant to labor and management groups before first winning election to Congress in 1966 over incumbent Democrat Weston E. Vivian. He beat Vivian again in 1968 and then defeated R. Michael Stillwagon in 1970 by more than 35,000 votes.

While Esch will be concentrating on making his face a familiar one in Livonia before Nov. 7, both he and Stempien have the difficulty of making their campaign stances compatible with the more liberal Ann Arbor voters.

The student vote in Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti doesn't worry him, Esch said, pointing to the 1970 election when he said he took the lead in every student ward over Stillwagon.

In any case, Livonia and Plymouth residents should be seeing a lot of both candidates in the next few weeks.

The Stroller... Recall First Job?

Do you remember your first job?

Do you remember the surprises you encountered in the transition from high school and college life to the business and industrial world?

Well, things haven't changed with the years. The young folks who walked from the commencement day platforms fondly clutching their diplomas, confident that they were headed for greater things in a hurry, are just as surprised as ever with what they found.

By happenstance, the Stroller was privileged to listen to a few of them the other evening and it was interesting to hear their reaction to employment.

"It didn't take me long to find out that it was every man for himself," one of the young hopefuls in the world of advertising, commented.

"Sure," he said, "I was welcomed-but after the first day I learned that little help or advice was forthcoming. It seemed almost like I was trying to take their jobs."

"Get me up early in the morning," he told his mother that evening. "If a fellow has any chance at a job, it is best to be there ahead of anybody one else."

CAME THE next morning - shortly after daybreak and he was awake and rarin' to go. He was eager to show the business world that a new champion was on the horizon.

Reporting promptly to the grocery store, he heard the manager explain a few things and then was assigned to the first section of the counter.

Fine - for a few moments. Then the unexpected happened.

Who should walk in to be his first customer but his mother.

She just took one look - and said nothing. Neither did The Stroller. He took her order and placed the various items on the counter with nary a word.

"Why didn't you tell me you were going to work in the grocery store?" she asked that evening at the dining table.

Before he could answer, she said, with that firm voice, "I want you to go down there in the morning - and quit."

THIS WAS a strange command inasmuch as he was receiving as much "pay" (not salary) as the older men in the store.

"I have nothing against grocery clerks," mother explained, "but the fact that you had to leave school doesn't mean that you have to stop learning."

"I want you to learn a trade."

Then she added this sage comment, "Remember, what you have in your head no one can steal from you."

And so The Stroller enrolled as an apprentice in a machine shop and completed the four year apprenticeship.

How he got into the world of journalism is another story. But he'll never forget his first customer on his first job.

ESCH SAYS he's pleased that most people he has met so far seem familiar with his name, even though Livonia was assigned to the district only four months ago.

The three-term congressman had to change his campaign strategy in Livonia in midstream after Stempien won a court suit against Esch for representing himself as "Livonia's congressman."

Since U.S. Rep. Jack McDonald (R-Waterford) actually has three months left in his term, Esch was ordered to refrain from claiming he is "Livonia's incumbent."

Since the court ruling, his blue and yellow billboards have changed from "keep Esch Livonia's congressman" to keep Esch in Congress."

Going door-to-door is a fun way of campaigning where "not just one experience but a culmination of experiences" make him aware of what is on people's minds, he says.

The questions he is asked are reflective of issues affecting his primarily middle income, suburban constituency - tax reform, busing, social security ...

"WHAT ARE YOU going to do to stop Roth?" is a popular question. Esch launches into a discussion of his efforts to Well, do you remember your first job?

Do you recall that things were a great deal different than you had expected?

Never can The Stroller forget the first few hours that he was on a company's payroll.

Because of economic conditions during a period folks used to call "hard times," The Stroller had to wave goodbye to school and enter the great struggle of trying to earn a living.

For several days he was on the hunt for jobs - and they were few and far between. Finally, he induced the manager of a grocery store close to home to put him to work. He was to report the next morning.

Social Services Office Set Up By Madonna

A new Social Services Center, designed to help individuals to lead more productive lives, has been established at Madonna College in Livonia. Private counseling will be available for adults, adolescents and children, as well as Madonna College students.

The new center is under the direction of Sister Mary Angelica, a fully certified and licensed social worker in private practice.

SISTER ANGELICA has had more than 20 years of experience in social work. From 1957 to 1963, she was director and administrator of Guardian Angel Home and was later appointed to organize and head the institution when it was relocated and reorganized in 1963 as Angelus Hall for neglected and teen-age girls.

Sister Angelica was administrator of Angelus Hall until 1969. Prior to her work at Guardian Angel Home, she had organized the first parochial school for black children in the Archdiocese of Detroit.

Following graduation from Siena Heights College with a BA degree in philosophy, Sister Angelica obtained an MSW (master of social work) degree at Wayne State University. She was awarded an honorary degree of doctor of humanities while serving as chairman of the board of trustees at Madonna College, and holds a membership in the Academy of Certified Social Workers of America.

Sister Angelica was appointed the provincial superior of Livonia Province by the late Mother Alexander, superior general, and her administration and served in this capacity from 1969 to 1971.

Dedicated to Christian social service and religious leadership, Sister Angelica stresses the essentiality of involvement with other individuals as a basis for the motivation to change behavior. She works to strengthen family life through the use of modern casework methods in counseling, and provides weekly supportive follow-up interviews.

A fee will be charged according to ability to pay. Office hours for the new center are 9-11 a.m., and 1-4 p.m. in Room 299.

CHERYL BRYANT was all smiles last weekend when she was crowned homecoming queen at John Glenn High School. But there was little else to smile about as the Rockets became Garden City East High's latest victim. East stretched it undefeated string to four straight with a 28-6 victory in the Northwest Suburban Conference battle. (Observer photo)

2 Mayors Endorse Kelley

Livonia Mayor Edward H. McNamara and Westland Mayor Eugene McKinney were among five suburban mayors to announce their support of Democrat Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley who is attempting to unseat Republican U.S. Sen. Robert Griffin.

McNamara and McKinney both have long histories as active Democrats.

In a joint statement, the mayors said, "Kelly will represent the interests of the people in our communities better in the U.S. Senate in the next six years than his opponent has during the last six years."

"Federal revenue sharing funds are crucially important to our communities," the statement continues. "We cannot perform the services our people rightly ask of us, or lessen the burden of property taxes without this money. Yet, Sen. Griffin was absent twice recently on important revenue sharing votes which could have cost Michigan more than $30 million."

The statement also criticizes Griffin's negative votes a mass transit amendment and an amendment to increase urban renewal funding by $1 billion.

12 Black Reps Endorse Stempien

Twelve black state representatives have endorsed State Rep. Marvin Stempien (D-Livonia) in his races against incumbent U.S. Rep. Marvin Esch of Ann Arbor.

Esch and Stempien are competing for the 2nd District seat which includes Livonia and Plymouth City and Township residents.

A letter of endorsement was signed by Reps. James Bradley (D-Detroit), George Edwards (D-Detroit), Daisy Elliott (D-Detroit), Rosetta Ferguson (D-Detroit), David

S. Holmes Jr. (D-Detroit), Morris Hood Jr. (D-Detroit), Matthew McNeely (D-Detroit), Nelis J. Saunders (D-Detroit), Alma G. Stallworth (D-Detroit) Jackie Vaughn III (D-Detroit), Earl E. Nelson (D-Lansing) and Raymond Hood (D-Detroit).

Merchants Seek Christmas Queen

The Westland Chamber of Commerce, in co-operation with the Westland Merchants

Association of Westland Shopping Center, will hold its first search for "Miss Christmas Carol."

Hillis Joins Camper Show

SOUTHFIELD Chet Hillis of Redford Trailer Sales, 23080 Telegraph, Southfield, is among the new members of the 1973 Detroit Camper and Travel Trailer Show committee.

The show will be held February 10-18 in the Detroit Artillery Armory on W. 8 Mile Rd.

Other new members include Mrs. Willo Shirey, Shirey's Trailer Sales, 605 Ann Arbor Road, Plymouth; Donald Knechtges, Use-A-Trailer Co., Dearborn; and Malcolm Ellias, M & M Camping Center, Trenton.

George E. Austin, owner of Pine Knob Campgrounds in Grayling, will be chairman of the show for the second consecutive year.

Director of the show again this year will be Dan Dowsett of 19045 Farmington Rd., Livonia.

The contest will be open to girls 16 through 18 years of age who are sophomores, juniors or seniors in high school.

"Miss Christmas Carol" will be judged on the applicant's poise, character, civic achievements as well as beauty.

The coronation will take place Nov. 18, in the east court of shopping center at 7:30 p.m.

Applicants may pick up a registration form at their high school counselor's office or at the Westland Shopping Center office, located in the concourse.

The chosen girl will receive a gift certificate from the merchants, an opportunity to ride with Santa Claus in his parade through the city to his arrival at Westland Center, plus many more gifts.

Two other girls will be chosen runnersup. They, too will receive gift certificates and the opportunity to be a part of Santa's parade.

Brown Spent $7,320

State Rep. Thomas Brown (D-Westland) spent $7,320 in the August primary election when he was challenged by Vincent Petitpren and Manuel L. Lentine Jr.

Brown faces Jack Underwood in the November election.

Statements filed with Wayne County Clerk Joseph B. Sullivan indicate that Brown realized contributions of $7,320, including $2,600 from his family.

Other contributions include $925 from his testimonial dinner, $455 from his birthday dinner, $1,097 in advertising and $2,290 in individual contributions.

Among the contributors were $300 from school administrators in Lansing.

OUT OF 150,000 WORKERS FOR THE UF, ONLY 78 ARE ON THE PAYROLL.

This is one statistic that works heavily in your favor. It means that 95 cents out of every dollar you give to the United Foundation goes directly to where it will do the most good—to the 164 agencies that benefit from the most successful fund-raising drive in the world. Translated even further it means that 1 out of 3 people in the Wayne-Oakland-Macomb community will benefit directly, this year, through the services of those agencies. This makes the UF one of the most effective, most efficiently run fund-raising services in the world. Ever. It wasn't always so.

Before there was a UF, there was chaos. Dozens of different charitable agencies constantly, out of desperate need, asking you for your support. And spending as much as 30 to 60 cents out of every dollar you gave, just getting it.

The UF today spends only 5 cents of every dollar for fund-raising and administration. So why not make your money count for all it's worth. Give generously.

Stempien's Goal: To Reach People'

By WYLIE GERDES

LIVONIA
The second Polish-American congressman from Michigan may be Livonian Marvin R. Stempien.

Stempien, 39, won the right to oppose 2nd District U.S. Rep. Marvin Esch (R-Ann Arbor) with an easy victory in the Aug. 8 primary. Stempien topped a field which featured candidates from all parts of the sprawling district.

LIVONIA became part of the 2nd Congressional district through reapportionment. Nineteenth district Republican Jack McDonald is Livonia's congressman until Dec. 31.

Stempien says he's "very proud" of his Polish background and hopes to join Detroit Lucien Nedzi in Washington.

Stempien's try for Congress came after a total of six years as Livonia's state representative. Stempien has been majority floor leader of the State House of Representatives since 1970. His leadership post in the House, which included a membership on the powerful finance committee, was one factor which led to his decision to run for Congress.

In an interview, Stempien said a possible inter-party battle for the speakership of the state House loomed before him. Suburban, rural and more conservative Democrats have been squirming under the leadership of House Speaker William Ryan of Detroit. The most logical opponent to Ryan would be the House Democrats' second in command - Stempien.

The House Democratic caucus is becoming philosophically divided, with some members "turning to me constantly" when frustrated by the present House leadership. They are "looking for a less liberal and more suburban oriented speaker," Stempien commented.

Stempien declined the fight for one of the most powerful positions in the state government because "I didn't particularly care to be a candidate of a minority" within the Democratic party.

"Even if you win, you lose," Stempien said, noting that the House leadership can be changed anytime by a vote of the majority of his party.

IN ADDITION, Stempien decided the real power is in Washington.

State government comes down to a "family squabble among the governor, Ryan and me" over "not enough dollars to go around," Stempien commented.

The problems of education, mass transit and others aren't being resolved by the state, he said. All the solutions available to state government are "artificial kinds of solutions."

Stempien faces a tough fight against incumbent Esch after his primary win. He beat a young liberal, Walter Shapiro of Ann Arbor, by about 1,500 votes in the primary.

STEMPIEN SAID the primary was "about what I expected." He said he is "very proud" of his showing in Livonia, where he won by about 4,000 votes over his next closest challenger.

Livonia has a "very aware electorate." They have done some investigating of the background of the candidates.

Stempien finished second in the voting in both Washtenaw and Monroe counties, the remainder of the 2nd district.

The candidate wouldn't specify his plans to beat Esch, noting a lot can happen from now until November. However, he said he plans to go out and meet the voters. He will be doing "everything I can to reach people."

The second district presents a challenge for both Stempien and Esch, since it is so heterogeneous. Stempien commented that the district has a "little bit of everything" - suburban voters, urban voters, blacks, whites and Spanish speaking residents.

The district, he said, will be a "true swing district" between Republicans and Democrats. He said about 50.7 per cent of the district's voters are Democrats.

THE WINNER between Stempien and Esch will have to draw substantial amounts of support from Livonia and Ann Arbor, the major population centers in the district. Doing that with the same campaign stances might be difficult, though, since Livonia is conservative and Ann Arbor is liberal.

Comparisons on the major emotional issue of the campaign, cross-district school busing, highlights the differences between the two cities.

Livonia ranks with other Detroit suburbs in its opposition to busing while Ann Arbor went strongly for the only Democratic candidate in the primary who supported busing. Shapiro announced his support for busing and won a large majority in Ann Arbor. Recently Esch commented that he feels more than half of the voters in Ann Arbor favor busing.

Both Stempien and Esch oppose busing, so winning in Ann Arbor may be the key to the election.

The Michigan Daily, the University of Michigan student newspaper, called Stempien and Esch "tweedle-dum and tweedle-dee" and said the contest in November would be between an "old reactionary and a new reactionary."

If Stempien has an edge in Ann Arbor, it might be his support for the Democratic nominee for president, George McGovern. Ann Arbor is one of the few places in the state that went for McGovern over George Wallace in the primary.

STEMPIEN GREW up in a Polish neighborhood near Michigan and Junction in Detroit. He lived in the "shadow of Cadillac Motors" plant, he said.

After his family moved to Dearborn, Stempien went to University of Detroit High School, then into the Air Force. He was a "Flying Boxcar" pilot during his service time, but also doubled as education officer at one air base.

After he left the service, Stempien moved to Livonia, working his way through school. He came to Livonia in 1959, and graduated from the Detroit College of Law in 1961.

By the time he finished law school, Stempien and his wife Corinne, had three children. He "took the plunge immediately" by opening his own law office in Livonia. His practice led to involvement in politics "primarily just as a community activity."

He was also active in the Jaycees, serving as treasurer.

A BREAK WITH fellow Democrat Ron Mardiros led to his first try for office, Stempien said. Mardiros, now the Livonia city assessor, led Democratic forces in the city in the middle 1960s. He and Mardiros have since made up.

Stempien said he ran against a Mardiros-backed candidate and several others in the 1964 legislative primary. He characterized his first campaign for office by saying "I got a lot of help from the St. Michael's ushers club."

Family and friends then helped him defeat Republican Lonnie Brashear for state representative during the Lyndon Johnson - Barry Goldwater slaughter.

After two years, Stempien was out of the Legislature. Louis Schmidt, former Clarenceville schools superintendent, beat Stempien in 1966, the same year George Romney carried Republicans to victory.

The candidate said 1968 marked a turning point in his political career. Stempien planned to work for Bobby Kennedy for president and was named to his state campaign staff.

AFTER KENNEDY was assassinated, Stempien filed for state representative only a few hours before the deadline.

In his 1968 campaign, Stempien said, "a hell of a lot of motivated people came out of the woodwork."

He beat Schmidt, then took an easy win over Bob Swanson in 1970.

Stempien has four daughters, ages 16 to seven. All attend parochial schools in Livonia.

Stempien commented that his family is another reason he is running for Congress. State legislators are required by law to maintain residence in their district. Stempien commuted 70 miles to Lansing. If elected to Congress, Stempien could move his family to Washington as most congressmen do.

"I know they don't like the many, many hours I spend away from home," Stempien commented. "There's no way you can pay adequate attention to your family and be actively involved in public life."

He commuted more and more to Lansing, he said, as his responsibilities grew.

School Offices Hit By Thieves

PLYMOUTH
Office equipment valued at more than $2,800 was stolen from the Plymouth school administration building last weekend.

The building, located at 454 S. Harvey, was entered through a window which the thieves had broken, police said.

Missing from the offices are three dictaphones, an electric typewriter, a dictaphone cassette recorder, two radios, a dictaphone transcriber and an electronic calculator.

Police have found fingerprints in the offices. Blood, believed to have been from one of the thieves who apparently cut himself on the broken window, was being analyzed by police.

The offices are located on the first floor of the building which the school district recently took over.

Police say that because of the apparent freshness of the blood on the floor, the robbery probably took place early Monday morning.

Trenton Nips RU In Close '8' Race

Redford Union slipped out of the ranks of the undefeated in the Suburban Eight football race, and a costly slip it was. Trenton, Edsel Ford and Plymouth all boast perfect 3-0 marks with RU now second best at 2-1.

It wasn't an easy loss for RU Coach Bob Atkins to grasp. His Panthers led 7-0 at the end of three quarters but fell behind, 8-7, with 3½ minutes remaining.

RU starting driving and had a first down on the Trenton 10 yard line with 1:09 remaining. A short pass was intercepted, the game all but lost, and visions of a league title were just a twinkle in the rain.

"WE STILL have a shot at winning it all," said Atkins. "It is going to be one heck of a finish, but I think a team with one defeat can win it all. Plymouth has the schedule going for it, and we have the deciding game for us this Friday."

The Panthers journey to Dearborn Edsel Ford Friday afternoon. This is a "must" game for Atkins and his footballers. A loss knocks RU right out of the race, and Atkins can then start thinking of defending his baseball title.

But on the other hand, a win - an upset win - will put RU right back into contention and Plymouth on tap the following week.

ATKINS KNOWS he has to stop Edsel Ford's quarterback Mike Booth, who has tossed 12 touchdown passes in the four games. In those four games, Edsel Ford rang up a total of 164 points and gave up only 12.

That's an average score of 41-3. "I don't think we were mentally prepared for the Trenton game," said Atkins. "Trenton had given up only two touchdowns in three games, and we knew they were going to be tough."

RU received the opening kickoff, and Lupe Bravo returned it 27 yards to the 40. The Panthers hit for six, three and three and a first down.

"That was all of our offense the first quarter," added Atkins.

Trenton controlled the ball with 14 offensive plays, but the RU defense came to arms.

With 3:37 left in the first half, Trenton punted and Glenn Richmond took a fair catch on the RU nine.

RICHMOND SPURTED for 23 yards on the first play and passed to Bob Eland for 12 and 26 yards. Richmond combined with Scott Bjerke for a 30 yard score. Richmond converted, and the Panthers had struck first, 7-0, with 32 seconds left in the half.

RU stopped Trenton on its 30 with 6:40 remaining in the game. A good drive could have killed the clock.

But on the first play, Bravo fumbled a pitchout and Trenton had control on the RU 28.

TRENTON was pushed back to the 30 and faced with a third and 12 situation. Paul Flescar sprinted 21 yards on a sweep for a first down on the nine.

Quarterback Bill Copado completed the turnover drive on another sweep. Ken Livermore made good a two point run, and all of a sudden RU was behind, 8-7, with 3:30 left on the clock.

Kevin Rodgers returned the following kickoff to the RU 35. Richmond ran for a first down and connected with Eland for another. Richmond spurred to the Trenton 10 on a QB sneak, and with 1:09 remaining it appeared that RU would turn back the tables.

Richmond faded back and fired a pass to Eland.

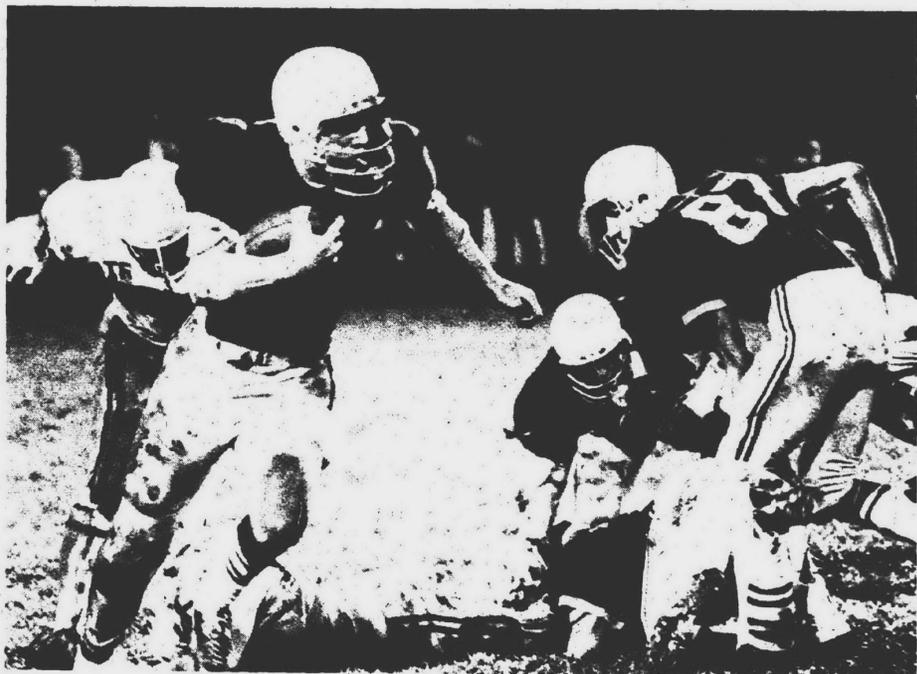

Garry Cline picked off the stray pass less than a foot off the ground, and RU faded into the Suburban Eight loss column.

TRENTON collected 11 first downs to 10 by RU but hit on only one of six passes for 11 yards. Richmond made good six of 18 for 111 yards with one interception.

RU rushed for 66 yards and Trenton totaled 159 on the ground.

"They controlled the football," said Atkins. "We ran on 20 plays to 45 by Trenton."

"It's going to be tough now," concluded Atkins.

NF Raiders Win 4th, Crush Oak Park, 22-0

Chalk up win No. 4 for North Farmington's football squad. Chalk up North Farmington's 10-game winning streak.

Chalk up North's 23 wins in the last 24 games. And if you haven't run out of chalk...Chalk up Coach Ron Holland's No. 1 revenge victory over Oak Park, 22-0.

Oak Park pulled one of the biggest upsets in area football last year in defeating North Farmington, but it was a different story when the Redskins invaded Raider territory.

North scored its second Northwest Suburban win with eyes moving towards the Oct. 28 showdown with Garden City East.

THE OAK PARK triumph was the second straight shutout for North, which sports a defense which has allowed only three touchdowns in four games.

The Raiders didn't leave much room for doubt as to which way the game was going to sway.

North received the opening kickoff: six plays later, one minute and 30 seconds into the game, Brad Pease broke for 23 yards to climax a 65-yard drive. John Dwyer converted and the Raiders led, 7-0.

North collected three first downs in the short drive. Dwyer went off tackle for 23 yards, up the middle for 10, Pease for 13 and then 23 for the score.

THREE PLAYS and a punt later:

Pease went around end for 33 yards and a North first down. Dwyer moved it to the three and Pease scored his second. Dwyer combined with Bill Gilmour for a two pointer and North led, 15-0... with 3:30 left in the first quarter.

North then settled down into its "20 to 20" football pattern but its defense kept Oak Park in check, allowing just one first down the first half and that on a fourth and two situation when North was back for a punt.

JIM LOUGH recovered an Oak Park fumble for North early in the third stanza and the Raiders were on the move again.

Dwyer hit Gilmour on a 24-yard scoring toss for his sixth of the season. Carl Goetzke converted and North was all but ready to sit on its 22-0 margin.

"We couldn't sustain a drive after that," said Coach Holland. "Our 20 to 20 offense clicked."

OAK PARK never penetrated the Raider 25-yard marker. Its longest run was an 18 yarder and longest pass nine yards.

The Raider defense allowed Oak Park 76 yards on the ground and 22 in the air on four of 13 passes, and a total of five first downs.

North pounded out 293 yards rushing, 79 in the air on five of 16 passes and 21 penalties - 15 rushing, four passing and two by penalty.

JUNIOR HALFBACK, 5-10, 160-pound Pease rambled for 212 yards in 24 carries to make his season output 528 in four games.

North goes against Franklin Saturday afternoon, Oct. 14, at the Raider gridiron.

"I am thankful we have them at our place," said Holland. "We are the only two original Northwest Suburban schools, and it's always a tough one."

North holds an 8-3 edge in the Raider-Franklin outings, winning the last two years and Holland would like to chalk up No. 5.

TOPSY-TURVY FOOTBALL -- Churchill's Phil Damaska (21) and Farmington Harrison's Bill Herpich (20) collided on this pass play intended for Damaska. The ball fell to the ground but Churchill shut out Harrison, 23-0. (Observer photo by Tom Donoghue)

Churchill Rolls Over Defending Champs, 23-0

BY TOM DONOGHUE
Sports Editor

The Churchill Chargers boasted their spear in the passing of Bobby Blaies and sported their defensive shield to gallop past defending Western Six champion Farmington Harrison, 23-0.

It marked the third consecutive shutout for the 4-0 Churchill squad which has given up only one touchdown, an aerial toss by Thurston in the opening game.

Harrison's defense had only given up one score prior to the Churchill clash but found the passing of Blaies too much to handle.

The 5-7, 155 pound third baseman-made-quarterback connected on eight of 12 passes for 122 yards and two touchdowns.

That makes seven touchdown aeriels in four games, making good 31 of 52 attempts for 528 yards with only two intercepted.

From the opening kickoff, it could have been detected that it just wasn't Harrison's day.

THE KICKOFF traveled only 13 yards and it was Churchill's ball on its 47, Kevin Arnold pounded for a first down to the Hawk 36, fumbled but recovered himself.

Harrison stopped Churchill on a third and six play, but an off-side penalty made it third and one.

Arnold exploded for another first down to the Harrison 25 and followed with a 10 yard burst. Blaies passed to Jim Foster for a first down on the 10 and Arnold completed the drive he instigated with a 10 yard run off left tackle.

Ernie Comini converted and Churchill led, 7-0, on a 53 yard drive that took nine plays and 3½ minutes.

HARRISON RAN three plays and punted to the Charger 42.

Blaies went to the air on the first play and connected with Phil Damaska on a roll out pattern. Damaska beat Hawk guard Dave Norton and scampered 58 yards down the left sideline.

Comini split the uprights, and with less than seven minutes elapsed, Churchill was up, 14-0, and Harrison Coach John Herrington kissed "game plan" goodbye.

Churchill took over on downs late in the quarter on its own 35. Damaska and Arnold worked for first downs on the Harrison 40.

Harrison's Tom Erkert broke up a key third down pass play and Comini was forced to punt for the Chargers.

JUNIOR BACK Dave Thorne signaled for a fair catch on his own three yard bat, fumbled the ball, and Churchill's Ron Miller pounced on it. An illegal procedure call pushed it back, and Harrison's Mark Benivolio dropped Blaies for a 10 yard loss.

Churchill Coach Ken Kaestner called on his left-footed kicker Comini, and the senior responded with a 25 yard field goal. Churchill was in command at the half, 17-0.

The final tally came in the third quarter after Al Leirstein's second interception. Blaies tossed to Foster for 14 yards, Churchill was on the board again and that's how it finished, 23-0.

THE CHARGER defense held Harrison to only four first downs, 49 yards rushing and 27 in the air on three of nine passes with four intercepted.

Churchill meanwhile collected 13 first downs, 118 yards on the ground and 122 in the air.

The Chargers fumbled on the one foot line late in the fourth quarter in attempt for touchdown No. 4.

"We outthit them good," said Coach Kaestner. "This had to be our top game of the season."

Churchill had never put together three straight wins before this current streak.

DON FOREST and Jim Foster paced the Charger defensive unit which ranks No. 1 in Observerland, allowing 1.5 points per game. North Farmington is second with an average of 4.1 per game.

It's homecoming at Churchill Friday afternoon with Northville the opponent in quest of win No. 5 and shutout No. 4. Harrison hopes to get back on the winning track at Walled Lake Central Friday night in a non-league battle.

GC East Routs Glenn Rockets For 4th Triumph

The No. 1 football team in Observerland didn't take to the hearts of the John Glenn homecoming crowd or, for that matter, the John Glenn football squad.

Garden City East racked up win No. 4, in a 28-6 soggy triumph over a now 1-3 Glenn squad which is having its problems putting anything on the scoreboard.

The Rockets have scored only 27 points in four games, twice being shutout.

East, on the other hand, has piled up 120 points in four games and has given up only 26 with two shutouts to its credit ... not bad for a rookie team in the Northwest Suburban Conference.

A 55 - yard march in six plays was climaxed by a two-yard burst by Burton. Rick Jose converted and East led, 7-0.

The Panthers struck again early in the third stanza. A Steve Orr to Jim Wisniewski 18 - yard pass play struck paydirt to end a 60 - yard march. Jose made good the kick and the Panthers were on the prowl, 14 - 0.

Glenn bounced back, scoring on a quarterback sneak, but the extra point was blocked by Keith Anleitner.

Bullfrogs Swim Past Farmington

Bentley scored its third consecutive girls swim victory over Farmington High, 92-31. With co - captains Becky Brown and Sue Mooradian posting double victories.

EAST IS TIED with North Farmington for the league's top berth with identical 2-0 marks. The conference showdown is Oct. 28 with East at North.

Dennis Burton was again the story in the Glenn victory. The senior running back scored three touchdowns with 179 yards in 28 carries.

This makes eight touchdowns for Burton in four games along with 682 yards which averages out to 170 yards per game.

THE PANTHERS rebounded with two touchdowns in the final 12 minutes.

John Adkins recovered a fumble for East and Burton sprinted 25 yards. Jose split the uprights; East was in charge, 21-6.

East tuned up for its Oct. 13 game with Oak Park with a 62 - yard march late in the fourth. Burton scored on a 40 - yard dash; Jose converted and it ended, 28-6.

Melvindale Edges West Tigers, 15-6

Garden City West dropped its third gridiron clash to highly rated Melvindale, 15-6. Melvindale scored first in the opening quarter on a 61 yard romp by John Germain. A two point run was good and West led, 8-0.

WEST SCORED in the second stanza on a 56 yard drive in 13 plays with running back Steve Jacunski going over from the one.

A fourth quarter 21 yard scoring run by Germain all but tucked away victory for Melvindale. Four West fumbles halted any hopes of a comeback.

West goes up against Schafer in its homecoming clash on Friday, Oct. 13.

Hawks Nip City Rivals

Farmington Harrison slipped past rival Farmington High in a non-league golf match at Glenhurst Golf Course, 198-204.

Kurt Heiss of Harrison and Farmington's Mike Monson tied for medalist honors with two-over pars 38.

Following Heiss' score, Harrison was paced by John VanVleck at 39, Doug Cramer and Mike Majeski with 40s, Jerry Costa with a 41 and Tom Vance in at 42.

Farmington scores were: Scott Meili (40), Bruce Conroy (42), Jeff Herman (42), Don Hunt (42) and Mitch Thomas (45).

Harrison's overall mark now stands at 8-3.

Franklin 26 Yard Field Goal Handles Thurston

Franklin football coach, George Lovich, knew his squad was down after the disheartening loss to Garden City East and hoped that the flavor of homecoming would push the Patriots past Thurston in the second round of the Northwest Suburban Conference.

The flavor was there and with 2:10 remaining in the first quarter, Tony Dattilio booted a 26-yard field goal and Franklin was up, 3-0.

And that's how it ended, Franklin topping Thurston, 3-0.

It was the third win for Franklin in four starts while Thurston remained in the ranks of the winless, scoring 12 points in four games.

THE LONE scoring drive came midway in the opening stanza, the second time Franklin got its hands on the ball. The Patriots took control on their own 41 and 12 plays later, Dattilio split the uprights in his first three point attempt.

Thurston was held to four yards rushing and 22 passing in the first quarter, and had three passes intercepted in the first half.

Franklin's Guy Burke, Larry Casey and Dattilio picked off stray Eagle tosses.

THURSTON MUSTERED only 15 offensive plays the first half to 38 by Franklin.

The Eagles put together an assault in the final seconds of the third quarter but fumbled on a fourth down play at the Franklin 18.

Franklin ran three plays and punted to the Eagle 18.

Thurston started making good its screen pass and John Stein hit Gary Chappell for a first down on the Franklin 31. Stein faded back on the next play and lofted a pass intended for end John Roy.

Dattilio moved in front of the Thurston receiver and picked off the pass and it was Franklin's ball on its nine with 1:43 remaining.

FRANKLIN GROUNDED out the clock and stands 1-1 in league play.

Thurston scored nine first downs to Franklin's 15.

Stein hit on five of 17 passes for Thurston for 94 yards.

Jinnett connected on six of 15 for 49 yards for Franklin. Thurston accounted for 56 yards on the ground and Franklin 158.

Franklin sophomore half-back paced the Patriot running game with 73 yards in 13 carries.

North Farmington hosts Franklin Saturday afternoon (Oct. 14) in the third round of the Northwest Suburban while Thurston entertains John Glenn in its homecoming affair.

Churchill Throttles Harrison

Churchill blitzed Farmington Harrison in a Western Six cross country meet, 20-37.

Harrison's Paul Johnson won individual honors with a time of 16:36. Churchill's Don Shaw placed second at 16:45.

The Chargers captured the next four places for a 17-point victory. Ron Adkins finished third, Glen Parkinsin fourth, Ray Reilly fifth and Craig Gully sixth.

Harrison's Matt Gully scored a seventh and Jim DeLano of Harrison ran eighth. Don Folsom placed ninth for Churchill and Harrison's Kurt Klasen tenth. Churchill stands 3-3 overall.

Although October will bring shorter days, its longer nights will be enlivened by lots of moonlight and two meteor showers, notes University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh.

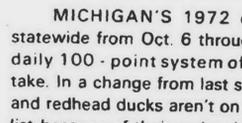

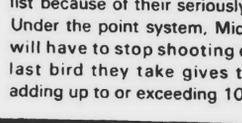

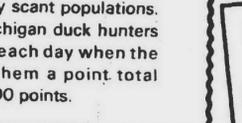

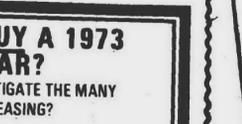

"In October our day will drop from slightly less than 12 hours at the beginning of the month to only 10 hours and 20 minutes by the end," she says. The decrease in the length of day is especially striking this month, she points out, because, after the equinox, the sun sets at a sharp angle to the horizon.

The night sky of mid-October will be well supplied with moonlight from the Hunter's Moon, which begins on the 22nd, the U-M astrologer says. The first full moon following September's Harvest Moon, the full or nearly full Hunter's Moon will rise at practically the same hour for several nights in succession.

Two meteor showers - the Draconids and the Orionids - will appear in October, Prof. Losh says. The Draconids will begin toward the north around the 8th and the Orionids in the east around the 20th.

"There are predictions of a particularly blazing display by the Draconids on the morning of the 8th," she observes.

MICHIGAN'S 1972 duck season runs statewide from Oct. 6 through Nov. 24 under a daily 100-point system of regulating hunter take. In a change from last season, canvasbacks and redhead ducks aren't on this year's shooting list because of their seriously scant populations. Under the point system, Michigan duck hunters will have to stop shooting each day when the last bird they take gives them a point total adding up to or exceeding 100 points.

Falcons Nip Waterford

Bruce Conroy and Don Hunt shared medalist honors for Farmington with 40s and paced the Falcon squad to a 208-223 win over Waterford in Inter-Lakes Conference action.

Mike Monson and Rich Pauline followed with 42s, Jeff Herman with a 44 and Scott Meiler at 45.

Farmington is 2-1 in the league and 6-2 overall.

Snowmobile Race Is Set

A two-day snowmobile show and drag race will be held Oct. 21 and 22 at the Farm Council Grounds, four miles north of Saline, sponsored by Saline Jaycees.

The show will run from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. both days with races starting at 2 p.m. There will be $1 admission for persons over 12.

Proceeds will be returned to the Saline community for such projects as a Halloween party for 2,500 school children, a happiness fair and fund day for 1,000 mentally and physically handicapped children and a Christmas party for 35 needy children.

25-7 Homecoming Win

Falcons Hang Onto Ball To Whip Waterford

Farmington High put a few things together, escaped its disastrous fumble-it's game pattern, and scored a '72 homecoming victory over Waterford, 25-7.

The 2-2 Falcons had fumbled nine times the game before against Pontiac Northern, losing 28-8.

This time they cut it by six, fumbling only three times and now stand 1-1 in the Inter-Lakes Conference with a make or break contest on tap this Saturday (Oct. 14) at Stevenson.

Both teams are 2-2 overall and Stevenson 1-0 in league competition.

THE SPARTANS from Stevenson have plans of upsetting Pontiac Northern's bid for the crown and Farmington is not out of it yet.

"Whoever makes the fewer mistakes will win this one," said Farmington Coach Hal Beardsley. "Stevenson and we are physical teams and receive a lot of penalties. It should be one heck of a hard hitting game."

Farmington scored against Waterford in its second drive.

BRIAN RATLIFF scored his first of two touchdowns on the second play from scrimmage on a 56 yard off tackle spurt. A two pointer failed and the Falcons were up, 6-0, with 7½ minutes left in the first quarter.

Waterford struck back and the Farmington defense faltered.

Gordie Wigner climaxed a three-play drive on an 80-yard draw play run. Bill Maki converted and Waterford was on top at the end of one quarter, 7-6.

Farmington wasn't going to let its homecoming crowd down.

The Falcons scored on the first play in the second quarter.

After a 42-yard pass from Bob Holton to Al Firek, John Krause plunged over from the one. Steve Koinis booted the extra point but Farmington was penalized for not having enough players on the field.

Fumbles came Farmington's way later in the quarter when the Falcons lost possession twice on the nine and 13 yard lines.

THE FALCONS led at the half, 12-7.

Six foot, one-inch, 165 pound Falcon senior Shawn Harte brought the homecoming crowd to its feet early in the second half with a 70 yard touchdown gallop on a punt return. The conversion was good by Koinis and Farmington was on the move, 19-7.

Farmington scored its final touchdown in the opening moments of the fourth. Brian Ratliff finished an eight play, 60 yard drive with a 12 yard dash to paydirt. The conversion failed, Farmington led by 18.

WATERFORD WAS held to seven first downs, 130 yards rushing and 32 yards in the air on four of 17 passes.

Farmington chalked up 10 first downs, 190 yards rushing and 85 in the air on four of eight passes.

Ratliff carried only six times for Farmington but collected 98 yards.

Farmington's hope of finishing at 6-3 looks a little brighter, all it will take is four wins in the final five games.

Mott Shakes The Rope, Nips Stevenson, 29-26

"We played a beautiful 2½ quarters of football and had Waterford Mott on the ropes, leading 26-7 with five minutes left in the third quarter, but we lost."

This was about all Stevenson football Coach Jack Reardon could say after watching his Spartans drop an overtime contest to Waterford Mott, 29-26.

Mott overcame a three touchdown deficit to tie the game at 26 all at the end of regulation play, and won the toss of the coin to decide who gets the ball first in the four play overtime.

Waterford elected to run its offense first and booted a field goal to jump ahead, 29-26. All Stevenson had to do was score a touchdown.

PAUL LULEK plunged for five yards and spurted towards the goal line on the second play. The ball squirted loose, Mott recovered on the one, and Stevenson lost by the three-point field goal.

"I couldn't believe we had lost the game," said Reardon. "We were so high and ready."

The Spartans dropped to an overall mark of 2-2 and resume Inter-Lakes action Saturday against Farmington High.

Stevenson scored the first time it had the ball.

DALE HABERMAN combined with Mike Assemany for a 20 yard scoring toss to highlight a 54 yard drive. A quarterback option play failed on the two-point attempt and the first quarter ended, 6-0.

Haberman hit his mark again early in the second quarter.

Lulek hurled in a 20 yard pass and the two point play failed again. The Spartans were in command, 12-0.

Don Finn scored the third touchdown on a 21 yard pass from Haberman, and the option play failed again to keep the margin at 18-0.

Dale Romeo tallied for Mott's first touchdown late in the second quarter on a one yard burst, and the halftime lead was sliced to 18-7.

HABERMAN threw his fourth touchdown pass in the early stages of the third quarter to Assemany for 11 yards. Stevenson finally decided to kick the extra point, and Mike Orlicki split the uprights to put Stevenson up, 26-7.

Romeo scored Mott's second on a two yard spurt, and the kick was good to make it 26-14.

With 50 seconds left in the third quarter, Tim Simon returned a punt for 65 yards and another touchdown. The boot was blocked, and with 12 minutes to play, Stevenson's lead had dwindled to 26-20.

Mott kept it momentum and with a little over three minutes to play, Simon tossed a 22 yard pass to Mark Lawrence for a touchdown. Stevenson's middle linebacker Brian Partie blocked the extra point, and it ended tied 26-26 at the end of regulation play.

SIMON BOOTED a 17 yard field goal in the overtime to give Mott the margin it needed.

Stevenson fumbled on the one, and that was the ballgame.

The Spartans collected 12 first downs to 10 by Mott.

Haberman hit on nine of 17 passes for 140 yards while Mott connected on only three of 11 for 45 yards. Stevenson rushed for 206 yards, and Mott totaled 153 yards on the ground.

Lulek was the big ground gainer for Stevenson with 112 yards in 25 carries.

Suburban Gardener Bright Autumn Days Time To Plant Bulbs

By BETTY FRANKEL
Special Writer

Now is the time to enjoy the rich color and crisp days that autumn brings, but to think spring and plant some bulbs that will bring beauty to the garden next March and April and May.

Bulbs are among nature's more ingenious inventions. Tucked away in each is a complete plant in embryonic form. The flower that will put on such a fine display is already there in miniature at the heart of the bulb. Wrapped carefully around it in a protective covering are the future leaves and also a large supply of stored food.

After the bulbs are planted in fall, in the moist and still relatively warm earth growth begins and roots push down into the soil. Then, after a period of winter dormancy it only takes a bit of spring sunshine for leaves and stems to push up and for the flower to burst into bloom—a joyous and welcome sight after a bleak winter.

Bulbs are so easy to plant that even small children can do it and thus have special delight in the flowers that they have helped produce. Also, these flowers are so brightly colored and have such bold simple shapes that children really love them.

There is a whole range of bulbs that can be planted. There is a sequence of bloom from the first tiny snowdrops that poke their slender leaves and nodding white flowers through a crust of ice and snow to the last of the tulips which are still blooming when iris and Oriental poppies finally take over the June garden.

THE FIRST BULBS to bloom produce small, dainty flowers on short stems. Nature has designed them so they nestle close to the earth and are not buffeted about by winds and rain the way a long stemmed flower would be.

These early dainties come from little bulbs, some no larger than a green pea. These get planted at a shallow depth. Cover them with no more than an inch or two of soil. Also, they should be planted early in fall.

Among the ones that are the first to greet the spring are snowdrops and snowflakes, both of which have white flowers, and winter aconite (eranthus), which has golden buttercup-like blooms.

Next come chionodoxa, or glory of the snow, which has lavender-blue flowers marked with a silvery star, and scillas and grape hyacinths and English bluebells, all of which have tiny sky-blue flowers.

Since these early flowers are small, about a dozen bulbs should be planted close together in a group. If they are scattered singly they can easily be overlooked, but a clump will make a nice display. Also, since they bloom early in the season before you want to spend much time in the garden plant them where you can enjoy them from inside the house.

Put some at the foot of a tree you can see from your dining room window or tuck them under some shrubs where you can enjoy them as you do the dishes. Also put some near your doorway—the one everyone uses the most—so they can be enjoyed as people come and go.

NEXT COME the small species crocuses, and after these the larger Dutch hybrid crocuses. These seem all flower, with no stems at all.

If the crocuses and other bulbs, too, are planted close to the house in a protected spot that is warmed by the sun you will get the earliest blooms of all. Those planted on the north side of the house, or in a distant flower bed, may come into bloom as much as a month later. So choose your location carefully and use this variance of blooming time to help you get an extended period of bloom for your favorite flowers.

After the crocuses have welcomed the arrival of spring, the species tulips stage their display with bright, exotic blooms on short stems.

Look for water-lily tulips (Kaufmanniana), lady tulips (Clusiana), Peacock tulips (Greigii) and many others that are all sheer delight.

These are soon followed by the Red Emperor tulip which is undoubtedly one of the world's best loved tulips. It has huge blooms on relatively short stems and is bold and flashy and beautiful. There is now a whole family of Emperor tulips—white, yellow, orange, and pink as well as the popular red.

DAFFODILS and narcissus are spring staples. Once the bulbs are planted they go on forever. They multiply and soon form large clumps. There are many kinds from dainty miniature jonquils through small flowered spicy scented narcissi to the large trumpet daffodils. Although there are some pink-toned daffodils most are white or gold or a two-tone brightened with an edge of flaming orange.

Hyacinths put in an appearance in late April. They have short stalks of closely clustered flowers of blue, rose, yellow or white and are known for their sweet fragrance.

Although tulips are practically fool-proof, they, like all the other bulbs, need to be planted in well-drained soil.

PLYWOOD, HARDBOARD, or other weatherproof panelboard is used for this four-foot high greeting card. The colorful madonna cutout can be made by tracing and painting the colors as the full-size pattern designates. 3-Day Honey Festival Planned For October

The Michigan Beekeepers Assn. and the Chesaning Chamber of Commerce promise "three days of sweet fun and education" for visitors to the first annual Michigan Honey Festival.

Festivities begin at 1 p.m. Friday, Oct. 27 in Chesaning, and close at 5 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 29.

There'll be a parachute jump, street dance, a parade, carnival rides, pancake breakfasts and family-style dinners, a campout, a citywide business and industry open house, tours of a nearby apiary, sales and displays of honey products.

Also Dr. E. C. Martin, Michigan State University bee specialist, will give educational demonstrations and show movies on making and processing honey.

New twists to traditional activities will include the crowning of a festival queen and drone. To be eligible, contestants must be in the sixth grade and under. Contestants will be judged on originality of costumes—girls dressed as queen bees and boys as drones—and bee knowledge. Contest details can be obtained by writing to the Chesaning Argus, 118 E. Broad St., Chesaning 49415.

Some 1,500 camp sites at $3 each are available for the three-day event.

Honey produced by the more than 300 members of the Michigan Beekeepers Assn. is considered among the best in the United States. In addition, bees pollinate crops worth millions of dollars.

MSU Scientist Says, 'Spray Lawns Now'

EAST LANSING Give your lawn a head start against next year's weeds by spraying to control weeds now, advises William Meggitt, Michigan State University crop scientist.

"If you spray your lawn between now and Oct. 15, before the ground freezes, any weeds that are killed will be replaced by grass which is growing at its best this time of year," Meggitt explains.

"Delaying your spray program until next summer will mean that the dead weeds will be replaced by crabgrass or other annual weeds."

He also points out that fall spraying is better from the standpoint of shrubs which might be in the way of chemical drift. Their growth is at its slowest now, he says, and they are least susceptible to 2,4-D.

If you can't get the spraying done before the ground freezes, you can tackle the chore in early spring, Meggitt says. Then shrubs will not yet have budded out and most weeds can be stopped before they really get started.

In both fall and spring, use the amine salt form of 2,4D for best results, Meggitt advises. Do not use the ester form of the chemical, he warns.

If chickweed and clover are a problem, he suggests mixing some Silvex or MCPP with the 2,4-D. A pound of each per acre—or about three teaspoons of each per 1,000 square feet—will do the trick.

For spraying, the chemical should be mixed with about a gallon of water for each three teaspoons.

Self-Stick Floor Tile Inexpensive

Most do-it-yourself projects are undertaken to save money. One of the most economical of home improvements is the installation of adhesive-back vinyl asbestos floor tile.

The Better Floors Council estimates that you can tile a 4x8 foot foyer for under $16, an 8x12 foot kitchen for around $48 and a 10x15 foot dining room for $65. And it will take only two hours to tile the dining room, if the floor boards are in good condition. Do not put resilient tile over an uneven floor if you want it to remain good looking throughout its long life. Tile is a thermoplastic material and any imperfections beneath it will eventually show on the surface of the tile. You can prevent this "telescoping" through tile by sanding a rough roof floor or filling in holes in concrete with a patching compound.

Or you can put down a plywood underlayment. Then, all you have to do is mark the exact center of the floor and begin laying tile from that point.

MSU Study Forecasts Floriculture Growth

Michigan consumers are spending more for flowers and landscaping than ever before and will continue to do so.

That's one of the predictions from Project 80 & 5, a study undertaken at Michigan State University to shed some light on what Michigan will be like in 1985 and beyond. The forecast will be used by rural and suburban leaders as a guide in long-range planning.

The value of Michigan's floriculture industry is about $20 million, up more than $2 million from 1964, and is continuing to grow, says William H. Carlson, MSU horticulturist and Project 80 & 5 participant.

Citizens are generally concerned about the environment, and they are buying more foliage plants and flowers for their homes, Carlson explains. Higher incomes make it possible to buy more cut flowers for everyday use.

The study forecasts that funeral flowers will represent a smaller portion of retail sales in 1985. But other areas will be greatly expanded.

ALREADY, many retail stores operate flower stands at shopping malls or in conjunction with chain stores. The present average of one retail florist per 10,000 people should remain about the same.

In the future we may have assembly-line flower arrangements, made up by the producer or wholesaler and sold to chain outlets or retailers.

The study also predicts larger, more mechanized operations. Automatic watering, soil filling and material handling systems will require florists to be skilled in electronics and plumbing.

Sales of Michigan-grown cut roses will remain stable, but the market for cut chrysanthemums will decline. Michigan growers of cut flowers may have to act as wholesalers as well as growers, because of competition from other states and Canada.

The market for potted plants is increasing, with poinsettias, mums and lilies leading the field. Plants will be sold in smaller pots at lower prices.

Sales of plants for flower beds also have increased and will continue to do so. Small growers may have to form cooperatives or retail their own plants to compete with larger firms.

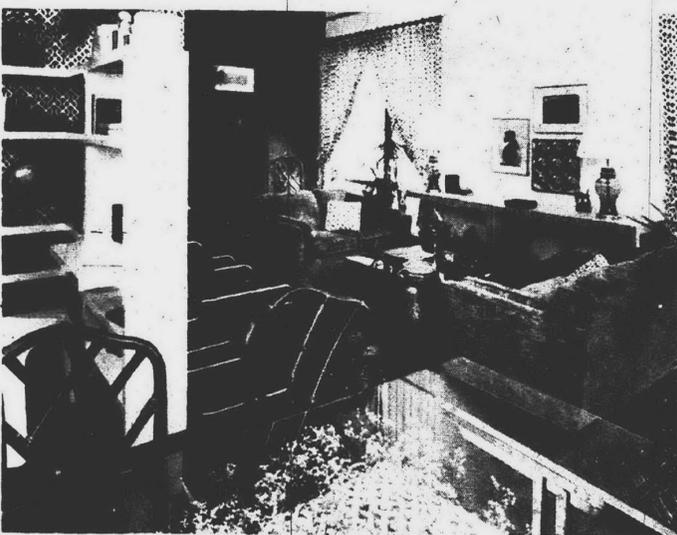

The wholesale florist of the future will sell more flowers shipped from distant markets and will be more involved in flower production than in the past.

Tree, Shrub Planting Is Series Topic

The Michigan Horticultural Society will present another in its fall series of "How Does Your Garden Grow?" lectures at 12 noon to 1 p.m. Monday, Oct. 16, at J.L. Hudson Company's downtown store.

The topic will be "Planting Trees, Shrubs and Evergreens," by Gurdon Dennis, district extension horticultural agent for southeastern Michigan from Michigan State University. The lecture will be held in the third floor sewing room.

Planting procedures will be discussed in detail, with some discussion on proper selection and care, along with the best time to plant different trees, shrubs and evergreens. There is no charge for the lecture.

COTTONS IN UNISON - Coordinated home furnishings take the guesswork out of decorating. Readymade draperies in easy care cotton create an airy look in a softened geometric fretwork design which is repeated in decorative pillows and wallpaper. Colors are keyed for easy coordination with furniture and accessories.

Garden Machinery Needs Winterizing

Take a few steps to winterize your lawn mower, garden tiller and other small engine machines before putting them into storage, advises Michigan State University agricultural engineer Howard Doss.

Drain the fuel tank outdoors in a well-ventilated area. Avoid smoking and other fire hazards. To drain fuel, either disconnect the hose from the fuel tank or open the drain plug in the carburetor, depending on the type of engine. Pour the fuel into a gas can and move the machine into another area.

To clear fuel from the carburetor and fuel line, start the engine. When the machine begins to sputter, operate the choke. This helps drain the carburetor.

If you have adequate tools and are familiar with the engine, remove the carburetor bowl, wipe it thoroughly clean with a clean cloth and replace oil. This prevents gum deposits and residues from evaporating gas that could clog parts.

REMOVE the spark plug and insert one teaspoon of SAE 10W lubricating oil into the cylinder. Hand rotate the engine several times to distribute the oil and prevent rust on the cylinder wall.

Stop the piston at the outermost point of its stroke. This covers the inside volume of the cylinder with the piston, allowing no space for moisture to collect and cause rust.

Before replacing the spark plug, clean and check the spark plug gap. Find information about what the gap should be on the nameplate of the motor. Also check the nameplate for the type of oil required. Drain and replace oil if it is a four-cycle engine.

Fire Hazards Up In Cold Weather

"Fire Prevention Week is a special time for all of us to take extra measures to guard against fires and their hazards," says Don Costa, safety director. "Last year, more than 12,000 people died in fires across the nation. Many victims would be alive today if it weren't for carelessness."

The best way to keep from getting burned is to keep the fire from ever starting. The safety director offers these

Handy Jim's Fix-Ups Tips

Try Textured Wall

YOUR living room can be made distinctive simply by decorating an end wall with a design or texture that's different from the rest of the room.

In this interior, for example, an end wall has been paneled with a rough-textured Royalcote hardboard, available in Shale White, Barn Grey and Fern Green. The 4' x 8' panels have the appearance of rough-sawn lumber.

Choose the color that complements or contrasts with the other walls, suggests John Concord, home improvement consultant at Masonite Corporation.

A new selection of five colors in the Antique motif has been added to the Royalcote line. Colors are Cambridge Red, Yorktown Blue, Suffolk Green, Georgetown White and Jamestown Gold.

For free literature, send postcard to Masonite, Box B, Chicago, Ill. 60690.

few precautions to help a family guard against the hazards of a fire.

1. Have furnace or home heating unit or stove checked periodically by a qualified tradesman. Faulty heating and cooking equipment are responsible for nearly 25 per cent of all fires.

2. For a fireplace, use a protective screen to keep sparks from flying onto rugs and furniture. The chimney should be checked for cracks and loose bricks.

3. Careless smoking accounts for nearly 20 per cent of all fires. Never, under any circumstances, smoke in bed. Be sure there are plenty of ash trays around that are large enough to keep smoking materials from falling out. Never empty an ash tray into a waste basket and never leave a room where smoking materials are still burning.

4. Faulty electrical wiring and the overloading of wall plugs and extension cords are also fire hazards. Wiring in many homes today is inadequate for modern living. New appliances such as air conditioners can overload a circuit. Have an electrician check the electrical system before installing items that use a lot of power. Always replace worn or frayed electrical cords immediately, as well as broken plugs. Never string extension cords over nails or under rugs.

5. Keep basements, attics and closets free of oily rags, rubbish and flammable liquids. Empty trash daily...in metal cans stored away from the house. Get rid of unneeded items that burn easily such as old clothes and newspapers.

6. Keep matches and flammable liquids away from children.

BOLD OUTLOOK IN SHEETS -- A departure from the old world feeling in luxury bed linens is this super-striking geometric pattern. Crescent shapes in bold solids form a graphic cascade on silky percale sheets and pillowcases in a cotton blend. Matching cotton towels and other bed and bath accessories are among the new designs by Vera for the Burlington collection.

New Turfgrass Just For Michigan Lawns

EAST LANSING Wintergreen, a new, long-lived perennial turfgrass developed by the Michigan Experiment Station, is now available to Michigan homeowners. The grass is well adapted to the moderate, cool climates and dry, sandy soils typical of Michigan, says extension turf specialist Robert Shearman. It also adapts well to shady areas and resists drought, he says. Wintergreen is a cross of five, fine-leaved fescue strains introduced from Europe. It has a very fine leaf texture and a dark green color. It has a rapid spring green-up rate and is easy to maintain, Shearman says. Wintergreen is recommended for lawns and general purpose turfs, especially in dry shady areas and well-drained sandy soils. For the widest use, Shearman recommends seeding with a mixture of wintergreen and Kentucky bluegrass. MINIMAL irrigation and an annual nitrogen fertilization level of one half to two pounds per 1,000 square feet will be required. He advises applying fertilizer in spring and again in September. One of these applications should also include phosphorus and potassium, he notes. For sunny areas a cutting height of one to two inches is desired. Seed should be available from lawn and garden stores, seed dealers, farm suppliers and other local distributors. For more information on Wintergreen, ask for a copy of Research Report 173 at your local county extension office, or write to the MSU Bulletin Office, P.O. Box 231, East Lansing, Mich. 48823.

Good News For Fuel Oil Users

There's good news this winter for people who heat their homes with fuel oil: the price of fuel will not go up. Several of the nation's largest oil companies have told the Price Commission in Washington that they do not plan to ask for price increases on No. 2 home heating oil this winter. In the past, the price of the oil often went up seasonally during winter months.

The oil companies decided not to ask for a price increase after informal meetings with Price Commission officials. Stabilization officials made it clear they were concerned about the impact of any oil price increase on the national economy and on individual consumers. Further, they told the oil companies that any request for a price increase would require a formal public hearing, similar to the recent hearings on the auto industry.

Another major factor keeping down oil prices is the government's recent decision to allow up to 621,000 barrels a day of additional foreign oil into the country during October, November and December. This action permits as much as 83,000 barrels daily of No. 2 fuel oil, up from the previously authorized 45,000.

Price Commission officials noted there are two instances which could result in price hikes in localized areas. Small firms with less than 61 employees are exempt from the commission's regulations. And firms which have cut prices below their base prices can raise prices back to base again.

The Green Thumb

By GEORGE ABRAHAM

Why peonies don't bloom: One reason why peonies do not bloom in spring is deep planting. For some reason, peonies just won't flower if planted over three or four inches deep. If you plan on dividing and replanting your peonies, there's still time to do the job. Take a spade and dig up the clumps carefully. Notice that the roots have red crown buds above them, also called "eyes." Chop the roots so there are five or six eyes or buds to each section. Loosen up the soil, and scatter in some peat moss since peonies have long roots which need a deep fertile soil. Set each clump in so that the eyes are only two inches deep, no more. If your soil is heavy clay or contains a lot of rocks, try to replace it with a loose, fertile soil. If you happen to transplant tree peonies, place them in the ground so that the graft union is four inches below the ground surface. Another reason why peonies fail to bloom in spring is botrytis blight, or "fireblight": If your peonies started to bud out in spring, but failed to open ("blasted" or turned brown) then they had botrytis. Cut down the tops now and burn them. Also drench the area with captan. Also, in spring, spray the new growth with captan. FREE: Want to know more about peonies and iris? Send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope for a copy of our bulletin, "How to grow peonies and iris." Peach tree borers: Now's a good time to look for gum boils on the trunks of your peach trees. Usually this is the work of the peach tree borer, a pest that makes galleries in the trunk, eventually choking the tree. Treat your peach tree with paradichlorobenzene crystals (called PDB). Remove weeds around the base of the tree trunk, apply the PDB crystals in a band around the tree, keeping the material 1/2 inches from the trunk. Mound the soil around the base, to a depth of five to six inches. Use 3/4 ounce of the crystals for a three to four year old tree. On older trees use one to 1 1/2 ozs. Level the mound in spring.

It's Time To Force Poinsettias For Holiday Blooms

EAST LANSING Last year's Christmas poinsettia can bloom again this year if you give it some extra attention now, says Michigan State University horticulturist William Carlson. If your poinsettia spent the summer outdoors, it should be brought inside before the first frost -- and placed in a sunny window. To meet the Christmas deadline, the procedure for forcing flowers must begin at the end of September, Carlson advises. Keep the plant in complete darkness between 5 p.m. and 8 a.m. daily from Sept. 30 until mid-December when color begins to show in the petal-like leaves that we think of as the flowers. "By complete darkness we mean no light at all," Carlson explains. "Lamps, street lights and even flashlights should be avoided." For best results the poinsettia should be kept where temperatures range between 60 and 70 degrees. Examine the soil every day, Carlson advises, and when it feels dry to the touch, add enough water to soak the soil to the bottom of the pot. "Follow these procedures, and your poinsettia will add lots of color to your home during the coming holiday season," Carlson says.

County Surplus With U.S. Aid

DETROIT
A proposed budget which projects a $7.9 million surplus for Wayne County this year — thanks to federal revenue sharing — has been submitted to the Board of Commissioners by the County Board of Auditors.

However, the dramatic reversal of the county's bleak fiscal picture was described as "more apparent than real" by Robert E. FitzPatrick, chairman of the Board of Commissioners.

"In fact we will be lucky to have a balanced budget by the time we allocate money to cover a number of expensive items which the auditors did not include in their budget recommendations," FitzPatrick stated.

ONE ITEM likely to be altered by the commissioners, FitzPatrick said, is the auditors' recommendation that 10 per cent of the jobs in most county departments be eliminated.

In their recommended budget, the auditors cut 530 positions, including 361 jobs eliminated at Wayne County General Hospital due to transfer of state mental patients to state institutions.

But in their budget message, the auditors said the cuts were made before revenue sharing became a virtual certainty, as it has in recent weeks, and recommended that "consideration be given to restoring some of the eliminated regular positions."

The auditors recommended that the commissioners "also consider reactivating some of the capital improvement (building) projects which have been denied on the basis of money prospects at the time of earlier hearings."

FitzPatrick said it was likely that some jobs would be restored as suggested by the auditors. He said it was unlikely that any employees would be laid off because most eliminated jobs were already vacant due to economy measures, while others could be eliminated through transfers and attrition.

"STRINGENT ECONOMIES imposed by the Board of Commissioners this year have saved about $8 million," he stated. "But as a result of our freeze on hiring, many department heads say they are hard pressed to maintain decent public services. We will have to review the budget of each department during our budget hearings."

The commissioners imposed tight spending controls early in the year after projections indicated a potential budget deficit of $12-$15 million by the Nov. 30 end of this fiscal year.

In their budget estimates, the auditors anticipated receipt of $15 million in federal revenue sharing this year (retroactive to last Jan. 1) and another $15 million in the fiscal year starting Dec. 1, 1972.

Revenue sharing, coupled with the economies imposed by the commissioners, eliminated the anticipated deficit for this year and wiped out a $1.8 million deficit from last year.

Duo-Piano Concert Set For Southfield

The Southfield Arts Council will open its music program with a duo - piano concert by Eugene Bossart and Charles Fisher in the auditorium of Southfield - Lathrup High School at 8 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 21.

There is no admission charge, although donations will be accepted.

BOSSART AND Fisher are professors of music at the University of Michigan and are presently touring the midwest. They have been hailed as two very musical individuals who together form a team that is sensitive and plays with a nonmechanical freedom that gives lift and vitality to the music they perform.

Their program will include Mozart's Rondo, D major sonata (K.448), Poulenc's Sonata for Four Hands, Lutoslawski's Variations on a Theme of Paganini and Rachaminoff's suite opus 17. Fisher, a native of Oklahoma, studied at the Kansas City Conservatory and the University of Michigan. He has toured the midwest as a soloist and accompanist. While in the U.S. Army, he toured Germany as a soloist and accompanist with the 7th Army Special Service. He has recently been appointed harpsichordist of the University of Michigan Baroque Trio. A NATIVE of Pennsylvania, Bossart studied at the Curtis Institute of Music in South America and the West Philadelphia and was Indies with Mario Lanza, associated with Mme. Charles Kullman, James Elizabeth Schuman, the Melton and Eleanor Steber, famed lieder singer. He has been exclusive accompanist for Metropolitan Opera star Robert Merrill.

Of Programming Liszt Cult Likes Choice

By TIM RICHARD

It is altogether fitting that the principal work in the Plymouth Symphony's first concert of the season should be the first piano concerto of Franz Liszt.

For too long Liszt's concertos have been used to fill "the flip side" of LP records - the record company would feature the Grieg concerto or Rachmaninoff's "Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini" on the cover and toss in a Liszt concerto on the back.

The truth is that Franz Liszt is a musical giant. He was so regarded in his own time (1811-86), and the evidence is that he is enjoying a richly deserved revival.

Soloist with Conductor Wayne Dunlap in Sunday's 4 p.m. concert in Plymouth High School, Joy at Canton Center roads, will be Richard Syracuse, an impressive young pianist. Syracuse appeared last year and performed the above-mentioned "Rhapsody" with high spirit and remarkable clarity.

THE FRANZ Liszt Cult of Observerland, of which I am the unselected chairman, has interrupted its orgies long enough to turn up these researches on the hero:

Remember when musicians used to be called "long-hairs" back in the dim past? Well, it was Liszt who began the long hair fashion in the 19th century.

Have you ever seen a pianist who didn't turn his profile to the audience? Liszt was first to do that. Until Liszt, pianists either faced directly or turned their backs to the audience.

Ever heard of guys named Grieg and Wagner? Liszt popularized them, encouraged and promoted them. If you were a young musician or composer and got the attention of Franz Liszt, you had it made.

Today, Johann Sebastian Bach is considered one of the titans of music, right? It wasn't always so. Until the early 19th century Bach was just another good composer until Liszt and others discovered him and spread the word.

You think Ronald Reagan, Jane Fonda and Sammy Davis brought the entertainment world into politics? Liszt was ahead of them - and a whole lot better acquainted with philosophy and poetry.

Liszt invented a number of piano techniques that gave new dimensions to the instrument; introduced the concerto whose movements were blended rather than distinct; invented the rhapsody... and so on.

Why did Liszt fade? The greatest pianist of his or any other day, he is tough to play. More importantly, perhaps, he had a yen for married women, and his biography isn't the kind you give to little girl piano students. A lot of our music history is pitched to the level of little girl piano students.

LISZT IS making a comeback.

Georgy Cziffra, the Hungarian pianist who had to skedaddle from the homeland for political reasons, specializes in Liszt. The New York Philharmonic made him the featured composer last year. Raymond Lewenthal, in his Romantic Revival series of records, has a Liszt side.

That's why it is altogether fitting that the principal work in the Plymouth Symphony's first concert Sunday is the first piano concerto of Franz Liszt.

amusements

FAMED PIANIST George Shearing and his quintet will give a concert at 8:30 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 22, in Clarenceville's Louis Schmidt Auditorium, 20155 Middle Belt, Livonia. Arts Council Sponsors Talks By 2 Architects

Because of Southfield's interest in urban planning, building and architecture, the Southfield Arts Council is including a two-part program on architecture in its 1972-73 chapter.

Working with the student chapter of the American Institute of Architecture at the Lawrence Institute of Technology, the council will bring Bruce Goff to Southfield on Saturday, Oct. 14; and Paolo Soleri on Nov. 3.

THE LECTURES will be given in the auditorium of Southfield-Lathrup High School at 8 p.m. Both speakers will conduct seminars at the institute from 1 to 3 p.m. the day of the lecture.

Tickets, good for both the seminars and lectures, are $4 for the public and $2.50 for students and arts council members. They may be purchased at the parks and recreation department desk and library at the Civic Center, at Lawrence Tech or from Mrs. Bernard Adinoff, 18817 Goldwin, Southfield.

Tickets for the lecture only will be sold at the door for $3.50.

Architect, painter, writer, lecturer and teacher Goff associates the creativity found in great architecture to that of music, sculpture, painting and literature. He draws parallels in all the related arts.

Apprenticed at the age of 12 to an architectural firm in Alton, Kans., Goff designed his first house when he was in the eighth grade. At 22, he designed the world-famous Houston Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church in Tulsa.

GOFF'S WORK is found in many states and is known throughout the world. He now practices in Tyler, Texas.

An exhibit of his work is being displayed in the Southfield Civic Center and Lawrence Tech until Oct. 14 when it will be taken to the lobby of the lecture hall.

Soleri's architectural experimentation and workshops in Arizona have become a mecca for students from all over the world.

Born and educated in Torino, Italy, he received his degree as doctor of architecture from the Polytechnic of Torino. Following World War II, he came to the U.S. to work at the Frank Lloyd Wright Fellowship.

In the past 15 years, in addition to work with ceramics and metal, he has devoted his efforts to construction, conducting workshops for students, architectural experimentation and research in urban planning.

It's after 2 a.m.

when you see Mr. Ballman. Then you know the night's over. The last drink served, the last dinner plate removed from the table.

He's the Scotch's "two o'clock man" and has been since before we opened. He started back at our Dad's place, Baddy's Bar-B-Q on Twelfth, more than twenty years ago.

And he's never missed a night. And there are a lot of people who don't think about going home until they see him moving among the tables, turning the chairs up.

To us, he's more than an employee. He's one of the reasons the Scotch is so very popular.

He's a restaurant person, a professional. And you know what? Mr. Ballman even brings his family to the Scotch when they go out for dinner!

Thanks Mr. Ballman. We appreciate.

Arts Program To Be Studied

The Michigan Council for the Arts has awarded a grant of $3,000 to assist in a pilot educational project in the Wayne-Westland Schools.

The grant was made to the Michigan Architectural Foundation to provide matching funds to introduce an awareness program to elementary school children on the characteristics and implications of environmental arts.

The Wayne-Westland schools have been designated for the initial effort for an eventual state-wide program.

For a long time there has been interest on the part of professional architects to present information on architecture, planning, landscape architecture and engineering to school children. Lack of an organized educational program has always hampered such efforts.

The grant, through the foundation and in association with the Michigan Society of Architects, will assist in the development of a program of environmental education by taking a step-by-step approach to test out various program procedures.

The grant was one of 20 totaling more than $90,000 from the council to Michigan arts organizations.

By BETTY MASSON

What's a nice guy like Dennis Broadhead, hero of many a community theater production, doing masquerading as a villain?

He's doing very well, thank you; as the despicable Lawyer Gribbs in the Livonia-Redford Theater Guild's production of "The Drunkard."

The "moralistic drama" opened last weekend and continues this weekend in the guild's playhouse on Beechdale, one block south of Five Mile Road. Reservations must be made with Terry Borovik, 34849 Grove, Livonia, or Carol Lasco, 15710 Archdale, Detroit.

THE SLITHERING, sneering Gribbs draws all the boos and hisses from the audience that director Ken Chomont could desire. In an interview last week, Chomont said he hoped the audience would hiss and boo and laugh and maybe brush away a tear or two.

He and his excellent cast succeeded in evoking all three emotions in this time-worn, but still relevant, melodrama. I don't know if there were tears or not, but there were certainly some sober faces at the outstanding performance of Michael Witri as the hero Edward Middleton at the depths of his drunken degradation.

His power, plus an excellent makeup job, made the scene perfectly believable, even for today's sophisticates.

But the play is a lot of fun as well. It's one to which I'd recommend taking the children, although its one fault is that it's a little long. The children in the audience

Friday night were completely enthralled by the performances, maybe because the boing and hissing let them blow off any excesses of steam.

TINY LUANN La Fave is charming and funny, as the Middleton's sweet little daughter, Julia. Shirley Temple fans of the 1930s will especially enjoy her performance. David Tucker shows a real flair for comedy, and John Love is a delight as the rustic, William Dowton.

Watch for the scene at the end where Gribbs steps out of the tableau to explain what has made him so villainous and why he doesn't think there's any possibility of his redemption. The rest of the cast is frozen, leaving the policeman pointing his pistol right at the head of the open-mouthed Dowton. It's the sort of scene which sticks in memory and is good for many a chuckle after the play itself has been forgotten.

Once again, the professionalism and competence of the guild makes its surroundings look worse than they actually are, I guess. Certainly guild members have put many hours of work into their playhouse and have done wonders with it.

But they deserve more, much more, from their respective communities.

Casting Call

Russ Vogel Productions will hold auditions for "Peter Pan," to be staged in mid-December.

Tryouts will be held from 6 to 10 p.m., Friday, Oct. 13, in Room 101, Bentley High School, 15100 Hubbard, Livonia. Vogel will direct the play.

All roles are open. Any girl who wishes to read for the role of Wendy should come prepared to read with a neutral English accent. Especially needed are boys between the ages of seven and 13 to play the lost boys.

6 Groups To Play

DETROIT

Seven evenings of music, featuring six touring groups from Europe, will be performed in the auditorium of the Detroit Institute of Arts beginning Friday, Oct. 27.

The schedule begins with Les Menestriers, French virtuosos who play and sing music of the Middle Ages and Renaissance.

It includes the Yuval Trio, a pianist, cellist and violinist from Jerusalem, Nov. 10; Acis and Galatea, the New York chamber soloists performing music by Handel, Dec. 1; Joseph Kalichstein, Tel Aviv pianist who won the 1969 Leventritt Piano Award, Jan. 26;

Troupe Liubliana, the Belgravian Tone Tomsic Choir and France Marolt Dancers, Feb. 9; Polish Mime Ballet Theater, the Warsaw company which won the Moscow Gold Medal for its revolutionary repertoire, Feb. 23; and the Mozartium Orchestra, a group of 45 musicians from Salzburg under the direction of Leopold Hager, March 16.

Roamin Club Meets Tonight

The Roamin Club, rock and mineral club of Livonia, will meet tonight (Oct. 11) at 7:30 in the Senior Citizens' Building, Room B, Five Mile and Farmington Roads, Livonia.

John Reppert will present a color-sound film "The World of the Rockhound."

On Sunday, Oct. 22, the club will conduct a field trip to Pugh Quarry. Frank Clark is the chairman.

Madonna Grows, Expands Staff

Sister Mary Danatha, president of Madonna College, Livonia, announces the expansion of the offices of college relations and development and student services.

Sister Danatha said increased administrative services are necessary in view of the many new developments which have taken place at the college since it became co-educational June 9.

Registration, which closed for the fall semester on Sept. 12, reflects a 12.8 per cent increase in enrollment over last year. It includes 188 men and 643 women in the mix of full and part-time students, young people and adults.

Innovative programs in previously unopened fields, such as criminal justice and radiological technology, now lead to specialized degrees for both men and women. As an example, 70 students are presently working towards a certificate of achievement, an associate degree or a bachelor's degree with an area of specialization in either law enforcement or corrections.

SISTER DANATHA said the expansion of the office of college relations and development will bring the entire campus community — administration, faculty, students and alumni — closer together.

Sister Mary Janice, formerly director of admissions and foreign student advisor, has been appointed over-all director of the department. Sister Janice is a graduate of Madonna College and holds an MA degree from the University of Detroit. She is a member of the Michigan executive board for the National Assn. for Foreign Student Affairs.

Gloria F. McClure has been appointed to the newly created position of director of public relations and information services. Miss McClure is a graduate of the University of Michigan and has done graduate work at California State College and Wayne State University.

She has held public relations positions in the Jam Handy Organization, Society of Manufacturing Engineers, and the Columbia Broadcasting System, West-Coast Network. She is a member of Theta Sigma Phi, the national professional society for women in journalism and communications.

Mrs. Jesse C. Long, a 1971 graduate of Madonna College, has been named administrator and coordinator of alumni relations.

SR. M. JANICE

mitted to the University of Michigan in a degree program for the educational specialist. Miss Petoskey is a member of the American Personnel and Guidance Association and represents Madonna in the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers.

WORKING WITH Miss Petoskey, will be John Carroll and Randal Hoyer.

Carroll, who has been appointed full-time admissions counselor and off-campus recruiter, comes to Madonna from Eastern Michigan University where he was a teaching fellow. He graduated from Eastern with an MA degree in Speech.

IN THE AREA of student services, several new appointments have been made.

Sister Mary Catherine is beginning her first year as dean of students. Sister Catherine is a graduate of Madonna College. She holds a master's degree in English from the University of Detroit, and is a PhD candidate in the field of educational administration at Michigan State University.

From 1965 to 1971, Sister Catherine held the position of elementary school supervisor for the schools staffed by the Felician Sisters, Archdiocese of Detroit.

Miss Pamela Petoskey, who joined Madonna in 1971 as admissions counselor, has been promoted to director of admissions. She will have over-all responsibility for recruitment and admission of new students.

Miss Petoskey completed her master's degree program in education at the University of Detroit and has been ad-

Hoyer, Madonna College history instructor since 1970, will take on the additional responsibility of part-time admissions counselor with emphasis on working with veterans, radiologic technicians, and police officers in the new criminal justice program. Hoyer graduated from Michigan State University with an MA degree in history and is a PhD candidate in that field.

Sister Mary Angelis, who graduated from Madonna in 1951 has been appointed registrar. Sister Angelis served as provincial secretary for the Felician Sisters, Livonia Province, from 1966 to 1971, at which time she was a member of the Madonna College Board of Trustees. She obtained her MA degree from the University of Detroit and taught at St. Andrew's in Detroit prior to coming to Madonna.

Starter Doughs Revisited

By ELLY

We've sort of been going round and round over starter doughs lately.

Great-Grandmother Keith used to keep her crock of starter for pancakes going all winter. Everyone remembers them as the best pancakes they ever ate but no one has a clue as to the recipe.

One caller said her mother made muffins with a starter and she would love to know how she did it.

Here is the starter recipe we published a couple of weeks ago and the bread recipe that goes with it. If anyone can come to our rescue with a muffin or biscuit starter we would be happy to pass it on.

SOURDOUGH STARTER

In a three - quart crock, dissolve one package active dry yeast in one quart lukewarm water. Add two teaspoons sugar and four cups sifted flour; beat to mix. Cover and let rise until light and slightly aged, up to 48 hours in a warm kitchen near stove. Starter may be kept in refrigerator seven to 10 days without attention. Then it should be stirred and equal amounts of flour and water added.

To use starter, pour off amount needed for recipe, and then add equal amounts of flour and water needed to replace amount poured off. Return to refrigerator.

SOURDOUGH BREAD

- 1 c. starter
- 4 c. flour
- 2 c. warm water
- 2 t. sugar
- 1/2 t. salt
- 1/2 t. baking powder

Mix all the ingredients together and let stand overnight in a large covered bowl. In the morning, add 1/2 cup warm water into which one package active dry yeast has been dissolved. Add two cups flour. Knead for five to 10 minutes. Let rise 1 1/2 to two hours under a towel soaked in warm water and place on a buttered bread pan or a round pizza pan. Bake in a preheated 425-degree oven with a small pan of water in the bottom, after slitting the top of the bread sponge a few times with a very sharp knife or a razor blade. Bake until golden brown, remove from oven and sprinkle crust lightly with flour.

THE FOLLOWING starter and bread came from one of our readers. You'll note the difference in the two recipes.

SOUR DOUGH BREAD

- 4 1/2 c. warm water
- 1 pkg. yeast
- 1 c. starter
- 4 c. unsifted flour
- 2 t. sugar
- 2 t. salt
- 1/2 t. baking soda
- 2 c. unsifted flour

Put water in large mixing bowl. Add yeast, starter, flour, sugar and salt. Stir for three minutes with wooden spoon. Let rise until double in bulk. (1 1/2 to two hours)

Mix soda with one cup remaining flour - stir into dough and knead on a floured board adding the rest of the flour or more. Knead until satiny - at least eight minutes - until dough can absorb no more flour.

Shape into one round or two oblong loaves. Place on a slightly greased baking sheet, cover, leave in warm place and let rise until nearly double in bulk - about 1 1/2 hours. Brush with water and make diagonal slashes in top of loaf with a sharp knife.

Put shallow pan of hot water on lower rack of oven. Bake in preheated 400 - degree oven for 45 minutes (50 minutes for one round loaf) or until medium dark brown.

STARTER

Blend one cup water with 1/4 cup non-fat dry milk. Place in covered jar for 24 hours. Stir in one cup flour and let stand for two to five days. Use when sour and bubbly... use sponge at least once every 12 days.

OBSERVATION POINT

Credo: Newspapers Exist To Serve Public Best

This week is National Newspaper Week. It seems appropriate to talk about newspapers in general and this newspaper in particular in this column.

In my view, a newspaper is something special. We are not in the newspaper business primarily to make money. This may sound corny, but we are in the newspaper business primarily because we look upon the newspaper importantly as a public service.

Sure, a newspaper is a business. And to exist, the newspaper must make a profit. Otherwise it will wither and die.

But I believe that a newspaper is much more than a business.

A NEWSPAPER is a public record of the occurrences of the community it serves. It should provide its readers with the information they need in their everyday life, presented clearly and objectively, free from bias or cant. It should do so in such a way that those who read it can say, "Of course it's true; I read it in the paper."

But a newspaper is also a market place for goods and services. It depends heavily on advertising, which both helps the local business community and provides needed information to our readers.

A newspaper is also an entertainment medium. It should be fun to read. And it should be educational. We hope a reader has more knowledge needed to help live a better life after reading our paper than before.

A newspaper is at least a semi-public utility. Every reader should feel that he or she owns a bit of the newspaper, for the ultimate responsibility of this newspaper is with the public at large.

Sense And Nonsense

A recently-formed "Alliance for Neighborhood Schools" is soliciting $1 contributions for a legal defense fund for those who might be arrested for failing to send their children to school. The group promises that if their cause is won, all the remaining money will be donated to school athletic programs.

Fellow we know is staging his own silent protest against the long hair styles of today's young males - he refuses to pick up any long-haired hitchhikers.

"Bad idea," replies a liberal friend, "because as long as a hitchhiker has long hair, you can be sure he's not a prison escapee."

THIS NEWSPAPER, in particular, is part of the largest group of twice-weekly newspapers serving the suburbs in Michigan.

As such, our responsibility is to the suburbs in general and this particular community in specific.

In fulfilling this responsibility, our topmost internal criterion for decisions is this: Of what use to the everyday life of each reader is the news and advertising contained in this paper?

If it's useful and helps our readers live a better life, we print it. If it's not useful or irrelevant, we don't print it.

AS A COMMUNITY newspaper group, we can get closer to the direct, specific needs of our readers than the metropolitan dailies or radio or TV. We can do things they can't.

We can show the homeowner in Livonia just exactly what a new millage will mean to his tax bill next year.

We can tell a woman in Southfield who's interested in fashion just where the local fashion show will be held next week.

We can offer an inexpensive and effective vehicle for the Redford Township businessman to advertise his sale this weekend.

We can indicate to a Farmington family with kids in school just what's going on at the closed "study" session the school board held last week.

We can provide in our want ad section a cheap and easy way for the Westland family to sell the extra three kittens that appeared over the weekend.

We can tell the kids and parents involved just how and why Garden City East won the big football game last Friday.

We can present in words and pictures the history and significance of a well loved and respected Plymouth community leader who died two days ago.

ALL THESE things we can do as a community newspaper. Do them better, quicker, more reliably and in greater detail than any other news medium.

We do them pretty well, too, at least in the judgment of our peers. As the picture with this column shows, we won a whole flock of awards for excellence in journalism this year, just as we did last year and the years before that.

It is the broad range of services in our newspapers that in our judgment make the newspaper business the most exciting and personally rewarding public service enterprise in the world.

When we do these things - and do them well - we feel that we have contributed in a small way to making the lives of our readers richer and better.

And that's what newspapers are all about.

THESE MICHIGAN PRESS Association awards were won by Observer Newspapers. Gained in competition with all other newspapers in the state, the awards include a second in general excellence for the Farmington Enterprise & Observer, a first for feature reporting for the Westland Observer, a second for the Livonia Observer's editorial page, a third for the Redford Observer's use of pictures, and a third for the Plymouth Mail & Observer's news reporting.

Leonard Peger writes

Bus Foes Show Color

When the busing issue erupted about this time last year, most of the opponents insisted that their feelings towards blacks had nothing to do with their position.

LIBERALS argued at the beginning of the busing controversy that white racism was really the cause for the massive opposition to cross district busing.

But many busing foes insisted that color of Detroit students had nothing to do with the issue.

Those people repeated many times during the past year that what they really objected to was the needless long bus ride for youngsters, the extra time required to get up earlier in the morning to catch the bus, and the general feeling that a bus ride of 10 or 12 miles is silly if there is a school about two blocks away in their own neighborhood.

It was - and is - an argument that makes a lot of sense.

BUT NOW preliminary enrollment figures are in for local public schools, we know now for sure at least several hundreds of persons, it wasn't the bus ride they opposed - it was the color of students their youngsters would be in contact with at the end of the bus ride.

Local school officials are reporting massive movements of students to private or parochial schools, many of which require long bus rides or transportation in neighborhood car pools.

School officials also report many transfers to outstate schools where the parents own a summer cottage and pay school property taxes. In the outstate schools where the suburban children are transferring, there are unexpected increases in enrollments in such educational citadels as Three Oaks, Fife Lake, Yale (the city, not the University), among others.

IN MANY outstate school districts, there is no such thing as a "neighborhood" school. Many of the districts are so large in land area, and so small in pupil enrollments, that it is economical just to build a few schools and buy buses to transport the youngsters from their farms or cottages.

Opposition to bussing takes many forms, many of them sensible and to the point. But when someone says he's against bussing because of the bus ride and then transfers his children to a district which busses anyway, he's not making much sense.

A Drab Road Can Be Beautified At Low Cost In A Short Time

By WYLIE GERDES

"Everybody talks about the weather but nobody does anything about it."

The same might be said about beautification. Everybody, especially politicians, talks about beautification but nobody does anything about it.

Livonia city planners and the city council, however, have proposed a plan which will reduce visual blight along one of the city's major thoroughfares. Hopefully, motorists driving along Plymouth Rd. between Inkster and Middle Belt soon will be seeing grass and trees along the side.

CITY PLANNERS have suggested that parking be removed in the public right-of-way, between sidewalk and curb, along Plymouth Rd. Instead of cars parked in inadequate area and unsightly confusion, carefully chosen trees and grass are to be planted. The space next to the curb will be asphalted, so that no bare spots are left in the grass by road salt splashed on it.

Where asphalt now exists, the plan calls for accents of bricks to be added. A tree might be planted in a hole in the asphalt, for instance, then surrounded by brick.

The city thinks the project will cost owners of property along Plymouth about a total of $40,000 for materials, with the city kicking in all the labor for the project.

THE IMPRESSIVE aspect of the proposal is that it is well within the capabilities of the city, and in all probability, the property owners. It's not a project which might take years and a prohibitive amount of money to accomplish.

In addition, it could be a good example of cities practicing what they preach before they ask others to follow suit. Most of the improvements along Plymouth Rd. would be made in public land under the control of Livonia. If the city takes the effort to improve land under its control, private property owners might follow suit.

If the Livonia plan is approved, a wave of attacks on visual pollution could begin. Commercial streets might look like boulevards, and shopping centers might be screened by "berms," grass covered mounds, and trees.

Similar improvements would make driving pleasant for shoppers in any city, and add to the climate of any business.

Governments Could Follow Hospitals' Lead, Cut Costs

The concept of shared services took a big advance in the medical field recently when four area hospitals merged into a corporation to provide better care more economically.

Known informally as "the Quadrangle," the four hospitals are Providence in Southfield, Mt. Carmel Mercy, Mt. Sinai and Grace Northwest in Detroit.

The corporation is consolidating health services to make better use of hospital beds, equipment and floor space.

Pediatric care is now provided at Mt. Carmel, for instance, and the Mt. Carmel obstetrical department is being moved to Providence.

Both Providence and Mt. Carmel had been experiencing about a 50 per cent vacancy rate in their delivery rooms. By consolidating, a more efficient OB service can be provided at Providence and beds put to better use at Mt. Carmel.

THE SHARED services concept has been used wisely by governmental agencies.

For years now, Garden City, Westland and other Western Wayne County communities have shared a waste removal plant by establishing a sanitation authority.

Oakland County Intermediate School District has a computer center it shares with school districts in the county for payroll preparations and many other uses.

Farmington City, Farmington Township, and Farmington School District have organized a purchasing pool to realize savings by mass purchasing.

THE CONCEPT has been around and been applied wisely. But it could be expanded to other areas.

Tax dollars are badly wasted with each school district and local police department having its own vehicle maintenance facilities, or jobbing the work out to private business.

A building authority could be organized and a bus maintenance garage built in (say) Livonia which could be used by school districts in Plymouth, Redford, Garden City, and by Clarenceville schools.

A police and fire vehicle garage could be located in Farmington Township to provide service to both Farmington area departments, Southfield, West Bloomfield and Novi.

A police - fire communications center could be located in Westland to service that city plus Livonia, Garden City, Plymouth, Canton Township, Northville and Wayne.

It is a costly, unnecessary duplication for each municipality to have its own arrangements for vehicle repair and communications.

OTHER services could be shared with a little imagination.

The need for federal revenue sharing could be diminished. Costs could be reduced without eliminating benefits to the residents.

Sense And Nonsense

A news release arriving at the desk of the church editor last week announces that St. Mary's College of Liberal Arts, one of three Orchard Lake Schools, is offering this fall an "Educational Odyssey."

It's for people in the community who wish to continue their education, the release says, and it will include communication arts, philosophy, English, social studies, theology, education, psychology, history and "other areas." May we suggest the latter include spelling.

In a release announcing the appointment of Leo Snage as Redford Township coordinator of the "Frank Kelley for Senate Campaign," Kelley's name was spelled "Kelly" both times it appeared.

To add insult to injury, the release was mailed out to The Observer in an official envelope of Redford Township Supervisor Bill Robbins and was stamped by the township's postage machine. The mailing at the township's expense was "a mistake," Robbins said.

How about the misspelling?

'Balkanized' Building Codes Hit

EDITOR:
Regarding the article "Building Codes" by Steve Barnaby in the Sept. 27 edition of The Observer:

The "other side of the state building code story" may be of interest to your readers.

The purpose of this state building code is to reduce the cost of housing and other construction to the consumer. These codes have been enacted in a number of states and others are following suit.

The present system works to outlaw innovative techniques, including industrialized or prebuilt housing. Local codes, although usually adopting a code like BOCA or ICBO (International Conference of Building Officials), amend the code in various ways, thus "balkanizing" the requirements.

If a manufacturer of a new building product wants to introduce it into the market, he must first seek approval from BOCA, ICBO and several other national codes. This should be enough. The situation now is such that local codes are than amended or misinterpreted to outlaw the product by local building officials who fear anything new.

THE JOB of introducing a modular factory built home to the market has been well nigh impossible. Under the new state code, the factory built units will be inspected at the factory under a state or national set of standards and a local building official must accept it.

The alternative is to produce housing units differing in many respects for each municipality, wasting savings attained in the industrializing process.

This can be compared to General Motors producing cars to different standards for each locality. Costs would simply put them out of sight. Only the very rich could afford cars. It is thus now with housing when the "economy" house is $25,000.

My qualifications to make these statements include over 25 years in the field, which includes being the first manufacturer of roof trusses in the Detroit area.

YOU CANNOT begin to understand the difficulty of convincing the "autonomous" local building official in 1947 that 2 by 4 roof trusses 24 inches on center are better than 2x6 rafters 16 inches on center. Yet roof trusses are generally accepted today.

Presently I am a manufacturer of wood fasteners for construction, including truss clips sold throughout the U.S. and overseas. With my Structures Publishing Co., I am both an author and a publisher of technical construction books, including the "Industrialized Builder's Handbook." Panel-Clip Co. is a research proponent with International Conference of Building Officials (ICBO), Building Officials and Code Administrators (BOCA), Southern Building Code Congress, FHA and others.

In many areas, the hosts of "balkanized" codes are compounded by building officials who are incompetent, because of lack of experience or knowledge and because the municipality does not have a budget sufficient to employ qualified persons.

Further the decisions of the local official are affected by political influence and fear of criticism. Example: The building officials who used to reject dry wall construction because a plastering contractor was a local councilman.

The manufacturer suffers, but more importantly, the homeowner pays thousands of dollars more for his home which is then multiplied by two or three times when you include interest or carrying charges, etc.

YOUR ARTICLE starts off by saying, "mayors and township supervisors are bracing for the possible downgrading of local building codes and loss of autonomy in amending the code to suit local needs." That is unadulterated nonsense!

What these officials are really concerned about is their loss of authority to enforce their own petty, costly and arbitrary building standards which can only increase costs. Also, they are concerned that someone might rightly challenge their competence to administer the code.

"Downgrade standards," your article says. The downgrading takes place when you have incompetent officials administering even a good code which they cannot understand or haven't read. Let us homeowners and taxpayers be thankful for the new state code; maybe it will free us from the hidden, confiscatory taxes that result from the building code formulated in the back room and administered by petty politicians.

Family Thanks FISH For Aid

EDITOR:
This summer during a time of serious illness in our family, when we really needed help due to our physical inability to walk and prepare a meal, we were introduced to the FISH organization in an astounding manner.

We had never heard of this most remarkable organization prior to that day when a most delicious hot dinner was brought to our home by a gracious, generous and kindly lady, a member of the FISH organization.

On each of the following five days, a hot dinner was brought to us by members of the FISH organization - each one different, and all delicious.

Our recognition, appreciation and thankfulness of and for the FISH organization was most sincerely expressed.

The FISH organization members' service speaks most eloquently of their high regard and concern for their fellow men and a sincere desire to help them.

Again, we thank this remarkable FISH organization wholeheartedly for their rendered assistance to us.

LWV Asks 2 Yes Votes

EDITOR:
The Michigan League of Women Voters urges a "yes" vote on Propositions C and D on Nov. 7.

Proposition C would reduce the property tax from 50 mills to 26 mills as a means of financing education.

Proposition D would remove the present constitutional ban of a graduated income tax, permitting the Legislature to replace the revenue lost in lowering the property tax by the levy of a graduated income tax. This form of taxation is more equitable than a property tax or a flat rate income tax since a larger per cent would be levied on those who are better able to pay and a lower per cent on those in lower income brackets.

The Michigan League of Women Voters believes that school financing should be based on the ability to pay and that the passage of Propositions C and D is essential to the well being of both the taxpayers and the public schools.

Earnings Taxed Twice

EDITOR:
By the statements in the daily paper, the working man gets it again in a tax hike for social security withholding.

The working man is being put in a position where his tax on a tax is not being credited to him.

I am referring to the tax (FICA) which is removed from his paycheck by his employer and then the income tax is taken out on top of that from his net earnings. I think that some lawmakers better get together and allow the wage earner to deduct the amount of FICA from his total yearly earnings and then pay income tax on the remainder. This year it was 5.2 per cent, and for those who do not go over the limit, this is a direct loss which is taxed.

We need tax reform and this is one good place to start. Let's pay taxes on earnings which are free from deducted taxes. FICA is a tax and should be paid only once and not with income tax riding on it.

Why Pick On Parents?

EDITOR:
Why is it necessary to print the full name, address, occupation, etc., in the press of the parent of a teenager who is accused of a crime?

Specifically, I am speaking of your front page article relating to the Bennett case. This boy is being tried as an adult because he is 17. Whether he is guilty or not is a matter for the courts to decide. The name of a juvenile is kept from the press; this also means the name of his parents is not printed to protect his identity. I believe this is fair.

I don't feel the parent should always be condemned for the deeds of his children, and if a juvenile's name can be kept out of the press, then so can the name of the parent of a child, for he is tried only as a child, who is being tried as an adult.

I happen to know the father of this boy and I know that he is a fine person who is deeply interested in the welfare of the children of our community, and for the press to publicly point their finger at him by publishing his name and his place of employment so that the community as a whole can do the same is unjust.

Your article also stated the mother was in court, but the father was not. How can a man be expected to appear in court every day when he has a job to keep and a family to support, let alone attorney's fees to provide a fair trial for his son?

I subscribe to your newspaper, but if I read another article in it such as the one to which I am referring, I will refuse to have this paper delivered to my home. There is enough sensationalism surrounding this case without attempting to ruin the name and reputation of a good man.

MRS. SHIRLEY STEWART
Livonia,

EDITOR'S NOTE: As a matter of policy, Observer writers have mentioned David Bennett's family connections in the context of the story and without sensationalizing the facts. That such a tragedy can occur to a prominent family is one dimension of the sadness of the entire case. The facts will be neither exploited nor ignored.

AAUW Says It Wasn't Late

EDITOR:
We are writing with reference to the "Sense and Nonsense" item which appeared in the Wednesday, Sept. 20 edition of the Plymouth Mail and Observer. The article dealt, rather cuttingly we feel, with the release of a survey of state legislative candidates prepared by the Plymouth branch of the American Association of University Women.

We are frankly mystified as to the source of such glaringly inaccurate information as that which was contained in the article and feel we must call your attention to the following facts:

The release, marked to your attention, was hand-delivered to the Observer office Tuesday, Aug. 1 - one week prior to the primary election. The requested publication date on the release was the weekend of Aug. 5 and the release itself began "Next Tuesday, Aug. 8, is the primary election..."

We are absolutely certain of these facts and believe they are further substantiated by the fact that one area-editor, whose release was mailed the day that the Observer's was delivered, called our publicity chairman for further information early Friday, Aug. 4.

We realize that "Sense and Nonsense" generally concerns itself with mundane trivia and it is not our intent to make mountains out of the proverbial molehill. However, we feel we must defend the integrity and good name of our organization against such false and unflattering publicity.

In view of the fact that our group is now actively recruiting new members in order to organize several community - action projects and that we are planning to co-sponsor a candidates' night next month with the League of Women Voters, such uncomplimentary notice was, indeed, untimely.

Had we in fact been guilty of the oversights attributed to us, we would feel we deserved whatever upbraiding we received from you, whether in public or private. However, in view of the previous explanation, we feel we are entitled to a full and immediate retraction.

Voters Ed To Focus On Millage Issues

New Detroit today allocated $44,000 to finance voter education campaigns on three millage proposals appearing on the Nov. 7 ballot.

New Detroit president Lawrence P. Doss said that the funds will be used to increase voter awareness of county millage proposals requesting a total of one mill for new detention facilities and a Detroit Public School proposal requesting renewal of five mills for operating expenses.

Teacher's Song Will Live On

By MARTHA MAHAN

REDFORD
A young Farmington teacher, whose short life was made joyful by her love of music, will pass on her joy to other young people beyond her own death.

The husband of Mrs. Patricia E. DeKiery, who died of cancer late last month at the age of 23, has established a memorial scholarship fund for music students at Redford Union High School, where she graduated in 1967, and is soliciting contributions for it.

Both Mrs. DeKiery and her husband, James, a music teacher in Plymouth schools, were members of Michigan Youth International (MYI) and twice had toured Europe singing with the group.

"SHE LOVED music and she loved kids," DeKiery said. "I know she would want more than anything else to help young people enjoy music."

The scholarships, each in the amount of $100, are intended to help young vocal artists from Redford Union defray costs of tours with MYI.

"There are times when you are free to go to other cities or take in different sights abroad," DeKiery said, "but you don't have the money. I know it happened to me. And it's a shame you can't take advantage of such opportunities when you are there."

Mrs. DeKiery received her bachelor's degree in music education from Eastern Michigan University in 1971. The couple, married just two years last August, had only recently moved into a new home in Redford Township. Mrs. DeKiery started teaching vocal music at Farmington's East Junior High School last January. Illness forced her to go on leave in May, but she returned in June and finished the school year.

PATRICIA DeKIERE
Song Lives On

However, she was unable to return this fall. During her final hospitalization she received more than 600 cards from friends, and former and current students, the family said.

DeKiery teaches music at Farrand and Tanger elementary schools in Plymouth.

MRS. DeKIERE died Sept. 28 at Grace Main Hospital, Detroit. The Rev. Michael Dunkelberger officiated at funeral services in Charles Step Funeral Home, Redford. Burial was in Roseland Park Cemetery.

Besides her husband, Mrs. DeKiery is survived by her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Schell of Redford; a brother, James G. Browning of Union Lake; her parents - in - law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry DeKiery of Livonia; and a sister - in - law, Mrs. Erbie Carr of South Lyon.

How Busing Threat Hit Schools

AN OBSERVER ROUNDUP
All Observerland schools within busing range of Detroit schools have experienced enrollment declines from two to nine per cent this fall — costing one district as much as $430,000 in state aid.

The drop in student enrollment affects each district financially because state aid is figured on the number of students in each district. But the state aid formula also takes into account each district's ability to finance education with local revenue.

For example, Wayne-Westland schools experienced a 2.12 per cent decline in enrollments, but the cost to the district will be approximately $430,000. On the other hand, Redford Union experienced a 7.35 per cent decline in enrollments but the cost to the district is estimated at $300,000 in state aid.

Northville, Novi and Belleville are also a factor.

Redford Union expects to lose $300,000 after suffering a decline of 696 students over last year's enrollment of 9,473. This year's final count is 8,777 students.

South Redford's loss of 705 students won't hit the district as hard financially as Redford Union despite the fact that it reflects a 9.26 per cent drop. The reason for this is South Redford receives most of its state aid from the "grandfather clause" which assures districts that state aid won't drop drastically because of changes in the state aid formula.

With an enrollment of 6,906 students this year compared to 7,611, South Redford still expects to lose $150,000.

The district worst hit financially is Wayne-Westland where enrollments dropped 518 from last year to a 1972-73 count of 23,882. It will cost the district $430,000.

Garden City's final student count was 12,976 this year, down 385 or 2.88 per cent from last year. State aid will be down $275,063.

Farmington schools could lose as much as $316,848 after enrollment declined 2.9 per cent or 492 students from last year's figure of 16,910. The official count is 16,418.

Livonia's decline of 1,156 students represents a three per cent drop from last year. This district's official count is 37,474.

Livonia expects to lose $120,000 in state aid. But because it will be able to eliminate some teachers' positions, the actual loss is expected to be around $70,000 to $80,000.

THOUGH SOUTHFIELD'S enrollment dropped by 800 students (4.9 per cent), the resulting cost to the district is estimated at $61,600. The official enrollment is 15,456 this year.

Southfield also lost $62,250 in state aid this year when the formula was changed to give the district $77 in basic state aid per pupil compared to $96 per student last year.

School officials had anticipated a decline of only 300 students, but the final count shows that the elementary schools are down 600 students, and secondary schools 200 students.

The decline in Clarenceville meant a 4.6 per cent drop, or 156 students, compared to last year's enrollment of 3,793. The official count is 3,637 this year. However, the revised state aid formula worked toward the district's advantage this year, increasing state aid by $56,060.

IN CONTRAST to many neighboring districts, Plymouth expects to get $1.9 million in basic state aid and $2.3 million in all kinds of state aid (some is restricted for specific programs).

The district opened a new elementary school this year and a portion of a new high school to absorb the 800 pupil increase. Plymouth expects to get $175 per pupil in basic state aid and $211 in all-around state aid. The total enrollment hit 10,933 this year and will continue to grow as Canton Township develops.

Golden Years Are Shared

By MARGARET MILLER

It was sometime in the month of September of 1922 that two young men employed by the old Daisy Manufacturing Co. in Plymouth made a $1 bet.

Walter Dethloff and Russell Cook both were planning to be married, and each wagered he would be first to get to a parson with his intended.

As things worked out, young Mr. Cook took Irene Hartung, another Daisy employe, as his bride in an afternoon ceremony Wednesday, Sept. 27, in the home of the Rev. H.B. Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Detroit.

But less than 24 hours earlier, at 7 p.m. Sept. 26, Walter Dethloff and Hazel Klatt had been married by the Rev. O.J. Peters in the parsonage of the Wayne Lutheran Church.

Cook paid off in the sum of $1.

IT WAS a dead heat, though, when it came to having the nuptials reported in the Plymouth Mail and there was another tie half a century later when the two Plymouth couples celebrated their golden wedding anniversaries, both with parties Sept. 23, 1972.

In between were 50 years of friendship. During quite a bit of that time, the Cooks and the Dethloffs were next-door neighbors.

The two wedding notices appeared in the same column of the same issue of the Mail in early October of 1922. The paper reported that the newly married Cooks "left for a several days wedding trip, destination unknown," and also made it clear that "both young people are well and favorably known here."

REGARDING the Dethloff wedding, the Mail reported "the bride was gowned in white georgette, carrying roses," and that a wedding supper was "served to twenty-five of the nearest relatives."

"The young people have the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends," the paper added.

The two young couples soon built homes on Haggerty Road in Plymouth Township.

"I built ours one year and he built his the next," Cook recalled.

The Cooks had no children but they had plenty of visits from the Dethloffs' two sons as the boys were growing up.

"In fact," remembered Mrs. Cook, "our driveways were side by side, and on both nights when their boys were born the doctor's car sat in our driveway."

THE COOKS have stayed in their Haggerty home. The Dethloffs moved in 1937 to a farm on Five Mile west of Haggerty, where they grew garden crops, and in 1956 to Rush Lake near Pinckney.

Seven years later it was back to Plymouth, and they now make their home on Rocker street.

Their two sons are Liniwood W. Dethloff of Plymouth and Edward Dethloff of Ypsilanti. There are nine grandchildren.

Walter Dethloff left Daisy after about 10 years and worked for the Wayne County Forestry Department until retirement. He and his wife now enjoy a little gardening and being "homebodies."

Russell Cook stayed with Daisy until it transferred its operations to Arkansas several years ago, and Mrs. Cook worked there 20 years.

"After Daisy left, I was looking around for something to do and a friend suggested I come down to the board of education, and I put in two years as a maintenance man at Junior High East and two more at Junior High West," he said.

MRS. COOK has worked on Plymouth Township elections for 20 years and on school elections for 12. Mr. Cook is a lifetime member of the Plymouth Masonic Lodge and his wife belongs to Eastern Star. Both belong to the White Shrine and the Plymouth Grange and the Plymouth Senior Citizens. In that latter organization, "we're the younger set," laughs Russell Cook.

He also was drummer in a six-man band that played for a lot of Plymouth dances over the years.

When the Cooks and Dethloffs reached 50 years of married life, both entertained about 125 guests at golden anniversary parties Sunday, Sept. 23.

"We couldn't go to theirs and they couldn't come to ours," Mrs. Cook said.

On the same day, the Observer received requests for write-ups on the two anniversaries. Mrs. Cook's niece, Doris Richie of Plymouth, had intended to surprise her aunt and uncle with a story about their reception in the Plymouth Masonic Temple, and Mrs. Liniwood Dethloff brought in word about their celebration in Leright's Banquet Hall in Westland.

Among the guests at the Dethloff reception was Mrs. Mabel Reamer, who had been a bridesmaid in their original wedding party.

BECAUSE the galas were on the same day, the longtime friends who almost shared an anniversary couldn't be on hand to congratulate each other.

"But we'll get together sometime soon," said Mr. Cook. "When we all get rested up," added his wife.

DETHLOFF-KLATT

Walter Dethloff and Hazel, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klatt, were united in marriage by Rev. O. J. Peters at Wayne, Tuesday, evening, Sept. 26, at seven o'clock. Miss Habel Becker acted as bridesmaid and Otto Reamer as best man. The bride was gowned in white georgette, carrying roses, and the bridesmaid wore blue silk, carrying carnations. After the ceremony, they returned to the home of the bride's parents, where an eight o'clock supper was served to twenty-five of the nearest relatives. The young couple have the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends. They will be at home at 254 Penniman avenue, after Sept. 29th.

COOK-HARTUNG

Miss Irene J. Hartung, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hartung, and Russell E. Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cook, both of this place, were quietly married at the home of Rev. H. B. Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Grand River avenue, Detroit, Wednesday afternoon, September 27, at two o'clock. They were accompanied by the bride's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cole, and Miss Minnie Groth, also of Plymouth. Later in the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Cook left for a several days' wedding trip, destination unknown, and on their return will for the present reside with the bride's parents on Maple avenue. Both young people are well and favorably known here. The groom is in the employ of the Daisy Manufacturing Co., and the bride holds a position in C. H. Rauch's office of the same company. Plymouth friends extend best wishes for a happy wedded life.

Princess To Open Town Hall

Princess Elizabeth Bagaya, United Nations ambassador from Uganda, will begin the Livonia Town Hall 1972-73 lecture series at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday, Oct. 18, in the Terrace Theater, 30400 Plymouth Road, Livonia.

The African princess, who also has been actress and model, will tell of her early years in the royal house of Toro, of the coup in Uganda in 1967 and of the subsequent experiences that led to her present position.

She also will answer questions during a celebrity luncheon in the Mayflower Meeting House in Plymouth following the lecture.

The princess leads off a series that also will include guest appearances by former teacher and humorist Sam

Levenson, Washington correspondent and Pulitzer Prize winner Charles Bartlett and oceanographer Jon Lindbergh.

Tickets for the series still are available from Mrs. Guido Kurmpoch, 14818 Ingram, Livonia, 48154. The price is $10.

Celebrity luncheon tickets are $4 and must be ordered by Friday, Oct. 13. Send requests to the address printed on the reverse side of the season ticket.

The Livonia Town Hall supports the American Field Service program in the community, in which local students study in foreign countries and visitors come to spend a school year in Livonia high schools.

Hospital Benefit Oct. 18

A day at the races to help fund the newest and best hospital equipment - that's the winning combination that Friends of St. Mary Hospital in Livonia are putting together for Wednesday, Oct. 18.

The 2:30 to 6 p.m. gala at the Detroit Race Course, including cocktails and a steak dinner as well as a chance to see the horses in action, will raise money to help St. Mary equip its newly expanded facilities with the sophisticated equipment it needs to best serve the community.

Such needs as a corometric monitor, to help physicians in pre-natal care, an electroencephalogram to measure the nervous system, kidney dialysis equipment and the delicate camera that is the heart of a nuclear medicine department are given top priority by the Felician sisters who operate the hospital.

"WE NEED the best of equipment to attract the finest physicians to our hospital," said Sister Mary Calasantia, executive director of St. Mary.

"We have a young, very progressive medical staff and our doctors keep up with medical developments. It's worth spending money to get the best equipment for them - they know how to use it."

Tickets for the day at DRC, located on Middle Belt south of Schoolcraft in Livonia, are $25. They give the purchaser clubhouse and dining room admission, a program, cocktails and dinner as well as the chance to be part of St. Mary Hospital's new drive to serve more extensively and efficiently the northwest suburbs of Detroit.

THE HOSPITAL'S new addition, ready ahead of schedule and due for dedication Nov. 21, increases the number of beds from 212 to 365 and provides other space, such as conference rooms and an examining room on each floor, that had to wait when the original five-story unit went up.

"We planned and built for permanence with this addition," said Sister Calasantia. Basic equipment for the new units can be provided in the operations budget, she added, but more help is needed to purchase the special machines.

The hospital was first projected more than two decades ago when the Felician sisters established themselves in Livonia. The first administrator named was Sister Mary Columbine, now Mother Superior of the Order.

The original unit opened Dec. 8, 1959, and ground was broken for the newest addition in October of 1970.

Acquisition of the projected equipment, Sister Calasantia believes, will set St. Mary to do any medical work "other than organ transplants, and we believe these should be left to university hospitals."

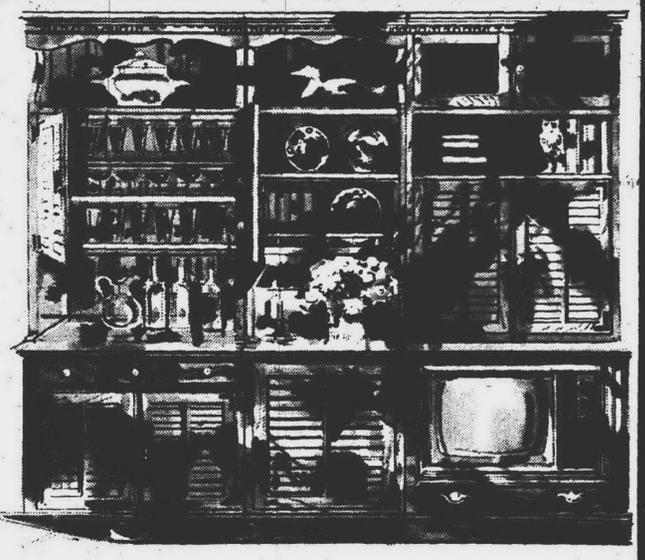

HEADING ARRANGEMENTS for the day at the races are Mrs. Harry Tarpinian of Livonia, chairman, and Mrs. Hassan Ghandchi, of Birmingham, co-chairman.

Requests for tickets and contributions should be sent to Mrs. Betty Maston, administrative secretary, St. Mary Hospital, 26475 Five Mile, Livonia, 48154.

SISTER MARY CALASANTIA, executive director of St. Mary Hospital, and Sister Mary Renetta, financial manager, toss a couple of coins into the Detroit Race Course pool that will serve as a "wishing well" for the Friends of St. Mary Day at the Races Oct. 18.

Bride Designs Wedding Gown

Pamela Sue Hewitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas C. Hewitt, designed the satin gown she wore Sept. 9 when she became the bride of Terry Richard Lenz in Central United Methodist Church in Lansing.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richard Lenz of Eau Claire, Mich.

Dr. Robert E. Betts officiated for the double-ring ceremony, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

cap held the bride's illusion veil, and her mixed bouquet was tied with ribbons in the bright shades of her attendants' gowns.

Janice Faulkner of Livonia, as maid of honor, wore a royal blue satin gown with high waist, long sleeves and white alencon lace trim.

Wearing similar gowns in shades of hot pink, purple and gold were Jean Bausman of Columbus, Ohio, Carol Sue Lenz, the bridegroom's sister, and Patricia Morris of Grand Ledge, the bride's cousin. All carried multicolor flowers.

DELMAR LANGE of Benton Harbor was best man, and the groomsmen were David Butts of Grand Blanc, Thomas Lenz, the bridegroom's brother, and Arthur Ray King of St. Joseph.

The ushers were Mark Penner of Detroit, James Schumacher of Grand Blanc, Richard Griffith of Detroit, and the bride's cousins, Thomas Morris of Grand Ledge and Donald F. Webb of Marysville, Ohio.

For the ceremony and church reception, Mrs. Hewitt wore a gown of turquoise chiffon over crepe and Mrs. Lenz wore a brown print dress.

The couple will live in Benton Harbor. The bridegroom, a graduate of Michigan State University, is employed by WSJM radio station in St. Joseph. The bride, a graduate of Bentley High School, is majoring in human ecology at MSU.

THE WEDDING GOWN, made by the bride's mother, had Irish crocheted lace trimming the neckline, waist and long sleeves. A lace Juliet Following a wedding trip to Northern Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Don Tyrone Miller are living in Canton Ohio.

The bride is the former Susan Kay Fotovich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fotovich of Napier Road, Plymouth, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Miller of Berlin, Ohio.

The Rev. Leonard Ritzler and the Rev. Eugene Collins of Malone College, Canton, officiated at the early evening ceremony Aug. 26 in Cherry Hill United Methodist Church, Ypsilanti. Kaye Voss of Plymouth was the organist.

THE BRIDE wore an A-line gown of organza with imported lace on the hem and train. Her short mantilla was of matching lace. She carried carnations, ivy and stephanotis on a prayerbook which had been carried by her mother when she was married 27 years ago.

Karen Pozniak of Somerset, N. J., was the maid of honor and Kathy Miller of Berlin, the bridegroom's sister, was the bridesmaid. Both wore pastel green dresses of crepe over satin and carried carnations and baby's breath.

TIM FOTOVICH of Plymouth, the bride's brother, was best man. Ken Miller of Berlin and Garland Walls of Chillicothe, Ohio, were the ushers. Walls was also the soloist.

A reception and buffet dinner were held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The bride is a senior majoring in sociology at Malone College.

The bridegroom graduated from Malone in May and is now teaching mathematics at Sandy Valley High School, Sandyville, Ohio.

The bride's mother wore a long pink crepe gown trimmed with jewels, while the bridegroom's mother chose a long yellow knit dress.

MRS. JOSEPH KIELTYKA
(Sharon Tibbits)

Sharon Tibbits Is New Bride

Sharon Tibbits, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Tibbits of Garden City, became the bride of Joseph Kieltykski in a ceremony in the Church of Christ in Garden City, Sept. 22.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kieltyka of Garden City.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Coyne of Brady Avenue, Redford Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Vicki, to Robert L. Markowicz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Markowicz of West Chicago Avenue, Redford Township. The bride-elect is a 1970 graduate of Thurston High School and employed by Manufacturers National Bank in Westland. Her fiancé graduated from Thurston in 1968 and works for Chrysler Corp. They plan to be married May 5 in St. John Bosco Catholic Church.

Teacher Of Lamaze Is Enthusiastic Mother

You won't find a more enthusiastic mother anywhere than Mrs. Patricia Von Bonn, who has six children.

Which makes her an ideal person to teach the Lamaze method of childbirth preparation, which she does regularly and frequently, with complete dedication and a good measure of common sense.

Pat, who has sent more than 500 mothers on their way to a happier birth-giving experience, is beginning a new course in the Lamaze method Tuesday, Oct. 17, in Schoolcraft College.

THE COURSE, like the ones she has taught in Ann Arbor, Northville and Plymouth, considers childbirth preparation from a physical, emotional and intellectual point of view and techniques of breathing and realization for the various stages of labor.

Its cost will be $15 for six sessions. Mothers-to-be are urged to attend during the last two months of pregnancy. Fathers-to-be are urged to attend too, and a doctor's permission is needed. A second series begins Wednesday, Nov. 8.

"I've always been basically a shy person," says this registered nurse turned teacher. "but when I get started on Lamaze I just keep talking."

"Yet, great as this training is, it covers just labor and delivery. That can be such a beautiful experience, but it's such a small part of parenting. "I want people to know that parenting is fun all the way — not something to feel apprehension about. With my children, I've been convinced that every age is the most fascinating, and now, with my oldest son 12, I know that the inquiring mind you find at that age is the best yet."

PAT VON BONN, wife of Ann Arbor salesman George Von Bonn and mother to Bill, Mary, Katy, Joe, Jimmy and Nickie had five of her children before she ever heard of the Lamaze method.

"As a nurse," she related, "I had seen both medicated and unmedicated birth, and my feeling was that the unmedicated was better all around. But I had no big thing about anesthetics."

"So when I went into labor with my first child, I was determined to keep well in control, and I finally took just a little anesthetic right after delivery."

Her second baby, she went on, was born with saddle-block anesthetic, and "though I didn't really object, I felt a great emptiness."

THE THIRD was born at home — not by plan but because she came so quickly. The Von Bonns decided the experience was so great that they'd have other children that way.

But Baby No. 4, Pat reported, showed signs of imminent arrival at dinner time, and Pat felt the timing was inconvenient, so she went to the hospital, and with No. 5 it was just a feeling that maybe she should be heading for a hospital, so she did.

"It was because I was determined to breast feed Jimmy that I first heard about Lamaze," Pat said.

"I went to a meeting of LaLeche League, which is a supportive group for mothers who want to nurse their babies, and learned about this method that was essentially what I was trying to do by myself."

After that, she said, she read all she could about the method, attended classes that were getting started in Ann Arbor, and by 1966 was ready to teach. Later, when a branch started in Plymouth, she again was the teacher. Now the Plymouth Lamaze association has its own teachers, and Pat has a class in Northville as well as Ann Arbor and the new course at Schoolcraft.

THE SCHOOLCRAFT COURSE, she said, will incorporate information on breast-feeding, and scholarships will be available.

"The aim of this course," this teacher said, "is to make the birth experience a good one. It's something the husband and wife should share, which is why husbands and wives should attend together."

"And the biggest satisfaction I get is when the parents come back and bring their babies and tell those parents-to-be how great it all was."

"I know what they are talking about, of course, because I had my last baby by the Lamaze method at home. I felt total control — it was a beautiful day, the children were playing outside, and I was having my baby."

Pat Von Bonn reports, too, that her husband and family share her enthusiasm on the subject.

And to prove it, she tells of her son's reaction to the scripture in a Christmas mass when the Bible reported "Mary brought forth her son in pain."

"He said she should have had Lamaze," his mother said.

Creative Workshop To Begin

A creative activities workshop for mothers and pre-schoolers, sponsored by leaders of the Northville Creative Day Nursery School, will begin Oct. 17 in the First Presbyterian Church of Northville.

Tuesday sessions will continue for eight weeks from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m.

The workshop, aimed at helping busy mothers keep toddlers busy in a creative way, will include work with a wide variety of materials and experiences in sensory discrimination to broaden the young child's background.

Mrs. Ellen Wahi and Mrs. Ann Stasinos, nursery directors, are in charge of the workshop. Reservations should be made by Oct. 13 by calling Mrs. Stasinos, 28055 Hawberry, Farmington.

The cost is $30 for mother and one child, $10 for each additional child and $20 for an adult alone. The fee covers cost of materials.

TOPS Grads To Be Feted

A graduation ceremony and a dinner will be held Saturday, Oct. 14, for area members of TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly). The event will take place in the Detroit Masonic Temple.

Among the 211 graduates will be seven members of Michigan TOPS 238 Plymouth.

Welcome Wagon Fall Fashion Show Will Aid Retarded

The Welcome Wagon Club of Livonia will hold its annual charity dinner and fashion show at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 25, in Roma Hall, 27777 Schoolcraft, Livonia.

A fall festival of fashions will be shown by the Juliet Shop of Farmington.

Tickets are $5.50, and reservations must be made by Oct. 18 by calling Mrs. Erl Johnson, 13950 Beatrice, Livonia.

Proceeds from fashion show, the only fund-raiser of the year for the organization of newcomers to Livonia, go to the League for the Handicapped, which operates a sheltered workshop in the Newburgh School, Newburgh and Ann Arbor roads.

Last year, using proceeds from the show, the Welcome Wagon was able to give $500 to Bobby Lariviere, a 22-year-old with limited mental ability who has been in the workshop several years.

William F. Ebert, Livonia branch manager for the league, said the donation enabled the young man to remain under its constant guidance.

"Bobby is one of the original clients from the old Community Opportunity Center housed in the building before the league took over," he said. "He adjusts well to a sheltered workshop situation and there would never by any thought of placing this client in open competitive employment."

"Bobby is indeed fortunate to be sponsored by the Welcome Wagon Club of Livonia."

Along with the dinner and fashion show, those who attend the Oct. 25 gala will be eligible to win a large assortment of donated prizes.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM McINTOSH of Redford Township celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at an open house hosted by their daughters, Mrs. Norman (Shirley) Hammon of Redford Township and Mrs. James (Betty) Lowing of Plymouth. They have five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. They were married Oct. 4, 1922, in Detroit, and McIntosh retired from the DSR after 41 years.

St. Dunstan Plans Gala

The Rosary-Altar Society of St. Dunstan Catholic Church in Garden City is scheduling its annual fashion show and beef dinner at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 18, in Garrison House, Cherry Hill and Venoy, Garden City.

Tickets are $7 and Mrs. Ronald Reban, 414 Helen, Garden City, is accepting reservations.

Garrison House currently is closed by court order, but operating manager George Noble said a hearing is scheduled next week, and he is confident that changes that will be instituted by then will permit re-opening before Oct. 18.

OCC Plans Rock Concert

The student activities office of Oakland Community College's Orchard Ridge Campus, 27055 Orchard Lake Road, Farmington, is sponsoring a rock "taboo" concert on Friday, Oct. 13.

The concert will be held on the third floor of J Building, from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m. The featured bands will be Tea Garden and Van Winkle, and Rumor. There will be a $2 admission charge payable at the door. Advance tickets are on sale at $1.50 in the student activities office. All interested are invited.

The office is currently making an effort to interest more citizens in using OCC's facilities, and if this concert is a success more will be scheduled, according to Karl Chen, student activities board member.

Cadettes Carve Jack-O-Lanterns

Jack-o-lanterns and children and cadette girl scouts are the ingredients of a fun workshop planned Saturday, Oct. 14, in five Farmington subdivisions.

Cadettes in Troop 38, led by Jack and Nancy Passfield, are inviting youngsters in their neighborhoods to pick out a pumpkin, tell the girl scouts how they want its grin to look and take home a completed jack-o-lantern.

The hours are 10 to 11 a.m., and the price for the pumpkin and decorating is $1.25.

The following homes are subdivision headquarters for "pumpkin shots."

Briar Hill—the George Petronio home, 29768 Briar-ton.

Canterbury Commons—the Nick Hurick home, 29997 Valley Side.

Colony Park—the Charles Gunderson home, 33678 Colony Park.

Independence Commons—the Paul Hartt home, 35557 Johnston.

Westbrook Manor—the Larry Sharp home, 31819 N. Marklawn.

Pumpkin pickers and committee members from Troop 38 are Ann Dougherty, Cindy O'Boyle, Marcia Carruthers, Heather Hart, Sherry and Kathy Passfield, Julie Schoettley and Janet Malloy.

Gilmore Urges Treatment Mandate

Wayne County Circuit Judge Horace W. Gilmore disclosed before a Livonia discussion group that "there are more than 30,000 heroin addicts in the Detroit area" and "this includes the suburbs."

The judge, who has served on the Circuit bench since 1956, said that as a "very conservative figure," the direct cost to taxpayers is "more than a million and a half dollars a day."

JUDGE GILMORE, who spoke at the Senior Citizens Center, said:

"A Michigan Corrections Department survey reports that the average cost per day among addicted offenders is $50. Thirty thousand addicts at $50 a day is one and a half million dollars every day. Where does the money come from - it comes from you."

"The addict usually steals to support his habit. Stolen goods obviously can't be converted at full value. And so the addict steals from three to five times the amount of his habit - say $150 to $250 a day. A million and a half daily is very conservative figure."

Judge Gilmore, a candidate for the Michigan Supreme Court on the non-partisan ballot, was guest of the Livonia Interested Democrats at the discussion meeting, Wednesday, Sept. 6.

Officers of the group include: Sid Diamond, Barbara Johnson, John Bergin and Pat Whitton, all of Livonia.

"How do we help the addict? How do we keep our young people from becoming victims of addiction?"

"A tougher police policy? Jail?"

"Prison sentences do little to curb drug abuse and because there is a lack of adequate treatment facilities, probation often is of little help."

"AS EXAMPLE, the Drug Abuse Center at Detroit's Marine Hospital has a waiting list of hundreds and thousands more addicts prowl the streets with no help available."

"We must establish treatment facilities and the courts must require that adequate treatment be made available to addicts who are, by any definition, sick, troubled and desperately in need of help.

"As a concerned citizen, as a judge and as president of NARCO and the rehabilitation of addicts, I want to make it possible for our courts to mandate treatment for addicts."

"TREATMENT --mandated by the courts."

"In my immediate area of concern, the law, I propose:

- Examination of judicial procedure and practices for arrested offenders.
- Review of police practices and procedures on arrests.
- Review of legal rights of patients and obligations of treatment clinics.
- Review and consideration of appropriate legal regulations on the dispensing of methadone.

"The Michigan Supreme Court, under the State Constitution, has "generally superintending control over all courts" and "shall by general rules establish, modify, amend and simplify the practice and procedure in all courts of this state."

"If I am elected, with your help, to the Michigan Supreme Court, I will work within that Constitutional framework, and beyond, for the objectives I have outlined."

U.S. Rep. Marvin Esch (R-Ann Arbor) urged new efforts to apply scientific information gathered through space research while addressing the eighth international symposium on remote sensing of the environment.

More than 600 scientists from around the world attended the symposium. Esch, a member of the science and astronautics committee, was critical of the lack of funding for data analysis and application to problems on earth.

Esch said that "$20 billion have been expended on the Apollo program to put men on the moon. Due to the relatively small number of people analyzing the moon data returned, however, it may take up to 20 years to complete the job of interpretation."

"Solutions to the most pressing ecological problems can be found through the application of space technology," he said.

Better State Police Service

Better State Police patrol and other service in the north-western Wayne county area will be provided effective Monday, Oct. 9, with the repositioning of part of the Detroit post complement to operate from a newly-leased building in Plymouth Township, Col. John R. Plants, director, reported.

This move, under consideration for some time, was facilitated with the change of quarters for the Plymouth satellite laboratory. The laboratory has been operated in a former Detroit Edison building at Plymouth since 1969.

THE LEASED building is a former administrative office structure for the Plymouth community schools and is located on Lilley Rd. between Ann Arbor Trail and Ann Arbor Road (M-14).

Capt. Alfred LaPointe, Detroit district commander, says the Detroit post extension at Plymouth will have a minimum of one patrol car on duty around the clock. Initially, the patrol command desk there will be manned during daylight hours.

The Plymouth detachment will have eight troopers, a detective sergeant and a uniform sergeant as its complement, some of these serving on a rotating basis. The lab complement is unchanged at 20.

LaPointe says the repositioning of some of the Detroit post's personnel at Plymouth will enable the district to better cover the department's responsibilities in the Plymouth Township and Northville areas.

The new building at Plymouth about triples the available space the laboratory had at the Edison building. The lab and the Detroit patrol detachment will operate from the new base until the department's new district complex is completed at Northville.

Hannifin Area Manager Set

James L. Chambers, currently a Grand Rapids resident, has been named territory manager of the western Michigan area for Parker Hannifin Corp. Chambers will join the staff directed by E. E. Bennett at the company sales office in Plymouth.

Chambers was formerly industrial sales engineer with Mackay Industrial Sales in Grand Rapids. He attended Grand Rapids Junior College and the University of Michigan.

He is public relations director for the western Michigan region of the Sports Car Club of America.

KEEP IT MOVING by DON KEETH
I spent a few minutes in a phone booth the other day. It was torture. Sheer torture. It had nothing to do with the conversation. You see, the little fan in the booth didn't work and the air became so stagnant I could have choked. Worse luck, I had to keep the door closed to see some notes I was using.

It reminded me of homes and hotel rooms I have been in. You know the kind... closed tight and heated for warmth, but no provision for air movement or ventilation. Just goes to prove that heat alone is not enough for comfort. Air circulation is vital for that fresh, free feeling.

Any heating system that does not offer continuous, gentle circulation of air simply is not a comfort system. Many of the good systems even bring in some fresh outdoor air.

Oddly enough, the greatly improved comfort produced by continuous air circulation actually costs less than the discomfort of no air circulation. That's because circulating air makes use of all the heat. Without circulation, much heat rises to the ceiling, and then slowly escapes outdoors. You've paid good money for that heat, but it didn't do you much good. Gentle circulation would have mixed that heat with cooler air, kept temperatures even from floor to ceiling... giving you greater comfort, better health protection and savings on fuel.

We have found that, in many cases, a "poor furnace" or a "problem home" for heating are quickly corrected by proper adjustment of the furnace blower which moves the air. Could be it's what you need, just call us at

Time To Visit The Cider Mill

MICHIGAN'S CIDER MILLS ...

PARSHALLVILLE GRIST MILL IS NOW A CIDER MILL

... BOTH OLDTIMERS AND NEWCOMERS DO A BRISK BUSINESS IN THE FALL. THEY INCLUDE:

TOM WALKER'S GRIST MILL, NEAR BRIGHTON • FRANKLIN CIDER MILL, FRANKLIN • MIDDLETON CIDER MILL (AUBURN ORCHARD), BETWEEN UTICA AND ROCHESTER • PAINT CREEK CIDER MILL, BETWEEN ROCHESTER AND LAKE ORION • SARGENT'S FRUIT FARM, ROCHESTER • SOUTH HURON ORCHARDS AND CIDER MILL, NEW BOSTON • YATES CIDER MILL, NEAR ROCHESTER • DIEHL'S, HOLLY • HISTORY TOWN, BRIGHTON • WIARD'S ORCHARD, YPSILANTI • DEXTER CIDER MILL, DEXTER • CRAFT'S ORCHARD AND CIDER MILL, MT. CLEMENS • HURON FARM CO., ANN ARBOR • BLAKES ORCHARD AND CIDER MILL, ARMADA • WOLCOTT & SONS' ORCHARD, FLINT • PARSONS ORCHARD CIDER MILL, BATTLE CREEK • PARMENTER'S CIDER MILL, NORTHVILLE • WICKS APPLE HOUSE, DOWAGIAC • APPLE VALLEY FARM, FREELAND • BINTZ FRUIT FARM, FREELAND • CENTENNIAL FARMS, DEWITT • MAPLE LAWN, BUCHANAN • HILLTOP ORCHARDS, FENTON • ALMONT MILL, ALMONT.

If anything confirms the arrival of fall, it's cider and doughnuts.

There are dozens of cider mills and presses throughout the state which cater to customers and do a flourishing business from October through December, or even later. Many attract huge weekend crowds.

Cider mills or businesses are found in most counties across southern Michigan.

ONE LOCAL favorite is Parmenter's Cider Mill on the old Base Line Rd. in Northville. Signs in the Northville area point the way.

Founded in 1872, by a Civil War veteran with his military bonus, it has been in the Parmenter family ever since. It boasted the first electric engine ever owned in Northville.

All sorts of fruits were pressed back in the days when farms occupied land that is now subdivided, but today the mill presses apples almost exclusively. Visitors may watch the pressing operation.

ANOTHER POPULAR mill in eastern Michigan is the Franklin Cider Mill on Fourteen Mile and Franklin Roads in Franklin Village. The mill also is among the oldest in Michigan, dating from 1837, the year Michigan became a state. It was a flour and grist mill in its earlier days.

Original lumber in the Franklin mill was white oak, white pine and black walnut, all hewed and finished by hand. Except for the roof and siding, it is still intact and in good condition. The apple press now being used is of European origin, and is believed to date from the early 19th century.

One of the newest is at Parshallville, yet it's in one of Michigan's oldest buildings - a century-old grist mill that stopped grinding flour and corn only a few years ago.

While changed, the old Livingston County mill retains much of its early flavor. The old, ponderous machinery is intact and is used for demonstration purposes.

Parshallville is 10 miles north of Brighton and a mile off US-23, going west from the Clyde Road exit.

The Parshallville mill is now called "Tom Walker's Grist Mill."

Other area cider mills which will operate this fall include: Diehl's - 1478 E. Ranch Road, Holly.

Wiard's Orchard - 5565 Merritt Road, Ypsilanti.

Dexter Cider Mill - 3685 Central and Huron River Drive, Dexter.

Huron Farm Co. (formerly Huron Farm Cider Mill) - 4764 E. Huron River Drive, Ann Arbor.

Hilltop Cider Mill - Hartland Road, a half mile south of State Road School, Fenton.

Stempien Champions Ecology

Marvin Stempien, Democratic candidate for Congress in the 2nd District, says the burden of eliminating pollution "should lie more heavily upon those who are polluting or propose to pollute in a profit-making industry."

Speaking to 275 University of Michigan students in Ann Arbor, Stempien contrasted his record in the State Legislature to that of incumbent Marvin Esch (R-Ann Arbor).

"That appears to be a rule of allowing ruin instead of providing prevention of damage. I believe that the burden should be on those in society who are proposing an activity to show that it will not injure our environment before government allows that activity to proceed."

Stempien said he favored all 13 measures. "I not only would have supported them," he said, "I would have been present to vote for them."

The Livonia legislator said: "IN RECENT campaign appearances my opponent has stated his belief that the burden should be on government to prove that pollution exists in any activity and to stop it by Government action."

Stempien said he was encouraged that young people of today are not taking the matter of environmental quality lightly.

Stempien said that a review of Congressman Esch's voting record on key environmental issues shows Esch either opposed or lax in his attitude toward environmental quality.

Game Record

Michigan State All-American safetyman Brad VanPelt shares the Spartan single game interception record of three with a trio of MSU players. Brad picked off his three in the 1970 Washington State game.

Stempien's Win Cost $7,660

State Rep. Marvin Stempien (D-Livonia) spent $7,660 in his races against five Democrats for the party's nomination for the 2nd Congressional district race during the August primary.

Stempien led the election results over candidates Walter Shapiro of Ann Arbor, Bill Brown of Ann Arbor, Matthew Kehoe of Lambertville, Frederick Schwall of Ypsilanti and Billy Turner of Ypsilanti.

Stempien now faces U.S. Rep. Marvin Esch (R-Ann Arbor) in the November election.

In statements filed with Wayne County Clerk Joseph B. Sullivan, Stempien listed revenue totaling $8,000 including $2,000 from the AFL-CIO political committee in Lansing, $3,000 from UAW-CAP in Detroit, and $3,100 from a fund raising dinner.

His biggest expenditure of $7,000 went to Creative House Advertising.

Largest Dem Dinner In History?

Packed House Welcomes McGovern

By EMORY DANIELS

SOUTHFIELD
A number of cars had left the parking lot of the Raleigh House in Southfield Monday night before Sen. George McGovern finished his speech. They were driven by persons attending the Detroit Oilmen's meeting in the banquet hall next door. It is suspected they left shortly after the senator identified President Nixon as "the primary beneficiary of a $10 million secret slush fund by which the oil interests and ITT and the others protect their stake and influence in this government."

BUT INSIDE there was a packed house as 200 persons more than expected turned out for the dinner.

Some 1,500 were anticipated with 1,100 tickets sold in advance, but a head - count indicated 1,700 persons were there.

It was what Sander Levin, 1970 Michigan gubernatorial candidate, described as "the largest presidential campaign dinner in the history of the Michigan Democratic Party."

3 Attend Tire Show

Several persons from Plymouth Tire & Auto Service center recently attended the 52nd annual convention and trades show of the National Tire Dealers and Retreaders Assn. Inc. in Las Vegas, Nev.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Cation and Mrs. and Mrs. Harold Oliver attended the largest tire industry convention in the company's history which featured nearly 600 booths.

SAMMY LIEBERMAN, owner of the Raleigh House, had everything prepared for this fund - raiser - the second he has hosted for a presidential nominee.

The first was for Richard Nixon in 1960 when the then vice president tackled John F. Kennedy and lost.

The piles of half - chickens had been prepared by noon, and an hour before the dinner started were waiting to be shoved into warming ovens before being served.

While the salads were being prepared, the cooks and chefs were working on a banquet for Tuesday for 1,400 persons and another for today (Wednesday) for 1,200 persons.

They already have the menu of strip sirlon written up for the $100 a plate, closed - circuit television appearance of Nixon in the Raleigh House next week.

SECURITY WAS tight as Secret Service plain clothesmen met in the lobby at 6 p.m. to assign locations and repeat instructions.

By the time guests filed in at 7 p.m., security agents had anchored themselves at corners in the banquet room, lobby, cocktail room, and in the halls.

About 12 security agents were on guard in the kitchen behind the banquet hall, because McGovern entered from the south side of the building through the kitchen.

While most in the audience were unaware McGovern was there, the senator waited in the kitchen for the right time to make the grand entrance to the speaker's rostrum.

THE ARRIVAL was quick, well - planned, and arranged to leave little time for hand - shaking with admirers. Sirens could be heard about a half - mile away as the cavalcade neared the Raleigh House. Almost without warning, 10 Oakland County sheriff's riding motorcycles in formation went whizzing by the kitchen entrance, circled the building, and stopped in front of the main entrance.

About five police cars followed with red lights flashing, and parked at the end of the south drive.

Eleven cars followed with the first couple containing Secret Service guards who rode standing outside of the cars.

McGovern stepped briskly from his car and was quickly guided toward the door. A small crowd of well - wishers, mostly teens, rushed towards him.

Only one had the chance to shake his hero's hand as McGovern spoke a few words of encouragement to them before being forced inside.

RICHARD AUSTIN, secretary of state, came early to greet the diners as they arrived.

Detroit Mayor Roman Gribbs arrived stag and, when asked if his wife would be there, replied she was in Los Angeles.

McGovern made mention of Mrs. Gribbs' endorsement of Nixon by commenting, "He proves that even in these days of women's liberation, a man can disagree with his wife."

U.S. Rep. Martha Griffiths (D-17th District) made an unexpected appearance, having announced earlier she would be in Washington Monday night.

Although Mrs. Gribbs was absent, former Mayor Jerome Cavanagh and his new wife were there along with Sen. Philip Hart and his newsworthy Ms.

NOTABLE by their absence were the suburban mayors. Missed in the crowd of 1,700 were Southfield Mayor Norman Feder, Livonia Mayor Edward McNamara, Westland Mayor Eugene McKinney, and Garden City Mayor James Lowe - all of whom are Democrats.

Farmington Democrats there included Alan Sipher, Jerry Friedman, Joanne Smith, Al Melon and Richard Frankel.

Southfield Democrats included: Ken Brown, honorary member of the planning commission who was a delegate to the last Democratic Convention; and Lawrence Pernick, chairman of the Oakland County Board of Commissioners.

Asked if he were there because he was a Democrat or a McGovern supporter, Pernick quipped: "All good Democrats are McGovern supporters."

THE HONOR roll of those at the head table included such top state officials as:

Austin; Frank Kelley, U.S. Senate nominee; State Sen. Coleman Young, national committeeman; House Speaker William Ryan; State Sen. Daniel Cooper, 18th District congressional nominee; and State Sen. George Fitzgerald.

Besides Mrs. Griffiths, congressmen attending were Lucien Nedzi of the 14th, John Conyers of the 1st, William Ford of the 15th and James O'Hara of the 12th. Ford's presence was significance because he had said publicly in the past he was afraid McGovern's candidacy might hurt him in his western Wayne County district.

Other notables were John Canfield, Dearborn Heights mayor and head of the 15th Congressional District Democratic organization; Tom Turner, president of the Metropolitan Detroit AFL-CIO; James McNeely, state Democratic chairman.

Also: Emil Mazey, secretary - treasurer of the UAW; Circuit Judge Horace Gilmore, a State Supreme Court Nominee; Justice John Swainson; Douglas Frasier, vice president of the UAW; and Neil Staebler, Democratic national committeeman.

McGovern in Southfield in October. Cool outside, but very warm inside.

Dear Mr. Hurd,

I would like to commend you for considering and using wildlife management practices in conjunction with the construction of the gas pipeline from Armada to Marysville. All too often the environment of animals living in this environment are given little or no consideration. In addition, instead of burning the trees and causing air pollution, you have utilized them for small game habitat.

I was happy to be of some assistance in checking the pipeline with you and see first hand the good job your construction crew has done in making brush piles from the trees and stumps. Many species of animals will use the piles including rabbits, woodchucks, grouse, fox and others. In addition, I was interested in discussing the seeding and fertilizing of the cleared pipeline area which should provide some good cover and food for the above-mentioned species.

If I can be of further assistance, please contact me.

Sincerely,
Clayton Dowdell

Consumers Power is proud to receive this letter of commendation from the Department of Natural Resources. We have long been dedicated to the conservation of our natural resources and the achievement of a wholesome environment. Our forest management program is designed for multiple use which includes recreation, forest regeneration and wildlife habitat improvement. For example, the harvesting of timber in or near deer yard areas is planned for midwinter to provide browse during this critical period.

Consumers Power's reforestation and timber management program is scientifically planned to maintain a sustained forest cover for soil stabilization and water conservation.

Used Home Buyer To Get Protection

"Believe it or not! ESP has come to Observerland," states Paul Y. Kadish, of Livonia, President of Midwest Homeowners Association, Inc.

Midwest Homeowners is a Michigan corporation formed early in 1972 to provide "Essential Services Protection" to buyers of used homes.

The ESP program is designed to give the homeowner relief from possible financial disaster in the event of a breakdown in the basic plumbing, heating, and electrical systems in the newly purchased used home.

ESP is being offered free in the Observerland area by Integrity Real Estate Co. of Garden City. The new homeowner is entitled to repair or replacement of the following elements for one full year:

1. Electrical — all wiring systems in the house, switches, doorbell, outlets, circuit breakers and fuse boxes.
2. Plumbing system — lavatory fixtures, sinks, bathtubs, showers, laundry or stationary tubs, all components, fittings, parts and faucets attached. All waste, vent and water piping, including well pump, pressure tank, sump pump and all connections within the confines of the home or basement.
3. Hot water heaters — all types repaired or replaced with equivalent equipment.
4. Duct work, sheet metal, hot and cold air ducts, drafts, etc.
5. Repair and replacement coverage on central air-conditioner and water softener systems are optional.

The major items not covered are structural defects and code violations at the time of sale.

One thing you should know
If you're looking at a career in real estate, you'll find that the percentage of commission you'll earn won't vary much, no matter where you go. What makes your earnings high is the number of people you find homes for. Real Estate One puts more people into more homes in a shorter time. They're happy people too, and happy people spread the word to other people who also want all the services, and professional know-how that only One can offer.
You can find out more about Real Estate One and how you can qualify to join us by contacting one of the offices below or asking about their free career seminars.
