Joe Krochmalny, Where Are You?

Joseph Krochmalny, the Democratic candidate for Plymouth Township supervisor defeated in November, failed to attend any hearings of the township's review board to which he was appointed following his defeat.

According to J. D. McLaren, township supervisor, Krochmalny attended none of the four sessions of the review board held March 6, 7, 12 and 13 and has said he intends to resign the post.

Krochmalny was appointed to the post following the election at the recommendation of McLaren, who defeated him.

On taking office, McLaren praised Krochmalny's campaign efforts and showing and said he thought the election marked the start of an "era of good feeling" between the two parties in the township.

Prior to his nomination of Krochmalny to the review board, McLaren said, "He told me he was willing to offer his services in his desire to enter into politics and become more involved."

In a letter to Krochmalny following the election, McLaren said, "It is my feeling and hope that in the near future we will, together, find it possible to work for the continuing improvement of Plymouth Township."

McLaren told The Mail & Observer Thursday that Krochmalny had "at no time ever contacted me" about being unable to serve on the board, which annually reviews property assessments.

The supervisor said

Krochmalny notified the township offices on the first day of the review board meeting that he would not be able to attend that day's session or that, if he did make it, he'd be late.

McLaren said Krochmalny then called on Tuesday, the last day the board met, to say he probably couldn't serve and would resign.

Krochmalny could not be reached for comment.

'Neighborhoodly' Drive Pushes School Millage, Bond Issues

By KATHY MORAN

The bond issue and millage campaign of the Plymouth School District is spreading roots all over the district.

School officials are hoping their new strategies will win community support of the $14.2 million bond issue and a millage request through a "neighborly approach."

There's no question in their minds that the money is sorely needed in the rapidly growing district, so they hope to convince voters of the need by informing neighbors.

Deputy Supt. Earl Hogan, who is coordinating the campaign, said that block chairmen will be used to contact local residents.

"The people contacts are the most effective," Dr. Hogan said. "It's well known that neighbors talk to neighbors and the communication is much better."

"We're trying to establish a medium where this can take place."

In December's unsuccessful bond issue election, the campaign committee tried to get community support through coffee hours in neighborhoods and apartment buildings. But the workers didn't reach enough voters, Hogan said.

The elementary principals will coordinate local campaigns. Any citizens interested in working on the election or getting information can contact their principal.

The support of apartment residents is needed as much as that of homeowners, school officials say.

The bond issue proposal includes funding for two elementary schools at $1.7 million each, Phase I of the third high school at $6.5 million, Phase III of Plymouth - Canton High School at $3.5 million, funds to purchase future school sites at $500,000 and $250,000 for satellite schools.

Also on the ballot will be a 1.5 operating millage renewal. The board hasn't decided if additional operating millage will be on the ballot or if there will be a safety millage on the ballot.

A report from Flossie Tonda, co-chairwoman of the district-wide safety committee, indicated that $167,000 is needed to solve major safety problems in the district.

This includes $57,000 for a pedestrian overpass at Fiegel Elementary School, $50,000 for an overpass at Bird Elementary School, and $60,000 for walking paths, walkways and sidewalks as well as safety speed control devices.

At the top of a pyramid campaign structure are several special committees.

The elementary principals will head the grass roots organization with elementary area chairmen reporting to them and block captains reporting to the chairmen.

Block captains are considered the most essential part of the campaign. They will begin contacting their neighbors six weeks before the election and distributing information.

Kinnick Named Canton Planner

By MARIE MCGEE

A strong recommendation from Livonia's mayor was a deciding factor in Canton trustees' choice for filling one of two vacancies on the township's planning commission.

Appointed to the commission Tuesday night was Joseph R. Kinnick, 39, of 47606 Saltz Rd., a township resident for the past two years.

Kinnick was one of the top contenders for the trustee post the board had to fill recently when Ray Deeds resigned. That appointment went to Brian Schwall, president of the Holiday Park Homeowners Association.

He was proposed for the planning post by Trustee Robert Griffin, a close friend, who said that Kinnick's civic involvement in Livonia before moving to Canton made him an ideal candidate for the Canton commission.

A letter from Livonia Mayor Edward McNamara supported the Kinnick appointment to the board.

Kinnick is the owner of a tool repair shop in Farmington and was an unsuccessful candidate for Wayne County Charter Commission last November.

During his Livonia residency, he served as deputy director of Civil Defense and in that capacity aided in the organization of the auxiliary police. He also served as a constable and is a reserve member of the Michigan State Police.

Kinnick and his wife, Dona, have four children, two of whom are still at home. He is active in Little League Hockey.

Kinnick will fill the vacancy caused by the sudden resignation last week of Lynn Wilson, a veteran of 12 years on the planning commission.

Wilson resigned along with the commission Chairman George Lawton. The pair reportedly resigned in protest of the board's decision to put a six-month multiple housing moratorium and the denial of a rezoning of 110 acres in the northwest sector which the planning commission had recommended be approved.

Except for Schwall who abstained from voting, the appointment was unanimous.

Board members admitted that the Kinnick appointment was relatively easy to make because "he was right there at the top" in the deliberations for the trustee post.

Lawton's replacement, however, will be tougher and take longer, indicated Supervisor Philip Dingeldey, who said he had yet to talk with Lawton since his resignation after last week's planning commission meeting.

Dingeldey explained that he has been tied up daily with board of review sessions, but hoped to talk to Lawton soon. Nowhere in his letter does Lawton use the word "resign," said Dingeldey.

Wilson used the same letter Lawton did to submit his resignation, but later confirmed the resignation in a talk with the supervisor.

The supervisor said that all suggestions for the Lawton vacancy "will be considered."

The statement was in answer to a question from Robert Greenstein, president of the Northwest Homeowners Assn., who wondered if the homeowners could submit recommendations.

Rod Cannon Will Attend FBI Academy

Police Lt. Rodney Cannon has been accepted by the FBI National Academy to attend a 12-week course at Quantico, Va. The 93rd session of the academy runs from April 2 through June 22.

While all phases of police work are taught, the sessions at the academy stress police investigation.

Cannon's acceptance at the academy came through the recommendation of Plymouth Police Chief Timothy Ford.

News of the acceptance was received in a letter to Ford from L. Patrick Gray, acting director of the academy.

Cannon, a member of the Plymouth police force since 1957, was promoted to lieutenant in 1971.

Recreation Authority Awaits Canton Meeting, Support

Public input on the question of Canton's participation in the proposed area recreational authority is being sought via a public meeting being called for Monday, at 7:30 p.m. It will be held in the Cherry Hill - Canton Center roads fire station meeting room.

Canton is the only governmental unit which thus far has not adopted the area-wide recreation authority agreement.

Present at the meeting will be members of the organizing group trying to put together an authority to end the duplication of funds and to coordinate a recreational program in the townships of Plymouth, Canton and the City of Plymouth.

Besides wanting firmer cost figures, township officials felt some feedback from the community was needed before even a tentative commitment could be given.

Canton recently appointed its first recreation director and has launched a small scale program on its own. At an earlier meeting, Supervisor Philip Dingeldey said the township should be careful not to jeopardize these efforts.

Trustee James Poole, a member of Canton's recreation advisory committee, commented that he couldn't make a decision "until I talk to more people."

"Some people I've talked to think we're not ready for it," he added, referring to Canton's joining the authority.

The Monday meeting was proposed to provide residents with the opportunity to ask questions and give an opinion on the authority approach to solve the growing need for a wider based recreation program.

At its meeting Tuesday night, the Plymouth Township Board ratified the recreation pact with two amendments.

One of the amendments, which was also adopted by the city of Plymouth when it ratified the agreement, calls for a staggering of terms on the authority board.

The second amendment was the addition of "dissolution clause" to allow the communities to back out of the authority if they cannot reach agreement after the recreation board presents a final proposal.

The Plymouth School Board passed the authority agreement in its original form without any amendments.

Before the authority is officially launched, the four governmental units which would be participating -- the school district, the city of Plymouth, and Plymouth and Canton townships -- must adopt the exact same agreement.

Schedule Counseling Methods Questioned

PLYMOUTH
The method of counseling eighth graders on their high school schedules was questioned by a citizen and school board members during a meeting of the Plymouth Board of Education.

Joe Gray, a Plymouth resident, asked the board why counselors weren't making recommendations on whether the eighth graders should be on traditional or modular scheduling during their first year in high school.

The Stroller: On Education

By W. W. EDGAR

Nothing brightens The Stroller's day more than a chat with his old friend, Ray Grimm, the rural philosopher.

Over the years, first as fellow members of the first City Council in Livonia, a strong bond of friendship has been forged in visits with this sun-tanned man of the soil—many of them in the wee hours of the morning while he was loading melons prior to going to market.

Many times he'd drop little jewels of wisdom at the council table until one night, after a rather heated discussion, he arose and said:

"I was raised along muddy roads and I'm going back to them."

And he did just that. He gave up his farm land at the corner of Wayne Road and Ann Arbor Trail and moved to the westerly edge of the Plymouth community.

So, it was a pleasant sight to see him head toward the luncheon table the other day and, with a gleam in his eye, say, "You're just the fellow I want to see."

In the next few minutes, he unfolded one of the most revolutionary ideas for the betterment of education The Stroller ever has heard.

"Ever since I paid my tax bill," the old philosopher began, "I've been wondering what we are getting for the large sums we are paying in school tax."

"Are we getting our money's worth?" he asked, and then added, "how do we fare with schools in other areas?"

Told that there are state and national exams in which the students are rated at least semi-annually, he shook his head as though these exams were not enough, and said:

"We know from week to week in the basketball season how our teams are doing. It is the same in football and other games. Why can't we have the same thing in education?"

What did he mean?

"Why can't we match our classes with the various schools in the area? Then we'd find out if our students are up to par with the others in such things as mathematics, history and the other things being taught today?"

"Just imagine," he went on, "how interesting it could be if we had these meetings—even on a monthly basis—and watch the rivalries build up with the other schools."

"When I was a young lad in school, we used to have spelling bees. After our own school champion was decided, we'd meet the champions from other schools. And we used to have debating contests along the same lines. They were a lot of fun. Now, you don't hear of those things any more."

He dropped the real bomb when he pointed out that we have no way of rating teachers today.

"They should be no different than football or basketball coaches," he said, "if they don't produce a winner."

they don't stay around too long. They've got to produce or else.

"It's different with the teachers. They have what they call tenure. That protects them, and they stay on the job. It would be different if they had to prepare classes for inter-school contests."

He recalled, too, that The Stroller some time ago had asked in print why schools couldn't be run on a program such as General Motors uses with its plants.

In that plan, each plant manager is held responsible for the product and the budget for his plant. It was then asked, "Why can't each school principal be responsible for the budget in his building and the type of product produced?"

"I like that, the old philosopher said. Now, if we could add the inter-school competition in studies, we'd soon find out what we are getting for our taxes."

As a parting shot he added, "I built my own home out here. Why should I have to pay taxes that amount to as much as rent I would have to pay elsewhere."

"And don't talk to me about this revenue sharing business they've started."

"If they want to send the

Optimists Add Girls' Contest For Oratory

PLYMOUTH
The Plymouth Optimist Club has added a girls' oratorical contest to the boys' competition it has sponsored for several years.

The change is in keeping with the recent revision of the Optimist slogan from "Friend of the Boy" to "Friend of Youth."

The boys contest will be held at a dinner at Hillside Inn at 7 p.m. Monday. The girls competition will be April 2 at a 7 p.m. buffet dinner at Schoolcraft College's Waterman Campus Center.

Contestants must prepare and deliver a four to five-minute speech on the topic, "Listen World." Trophies will be awarded the three best speakers.

Top winner of each sex will compete in a regional contest which will be followed by a district contest at Saginaw in May. Scholarships will be awarded the boy and girl district winners.

The contest is limited to young people who were under 16 years of age last Dec. 31.

money back to us, why do they take it from us in the first place?"

No wonder a visit with the sun-tanned old rural philosopher brightens a fellow's day.

City Hires Plan Firm

PLYMOUTH The City of Plymouth has hired Vilcan, Leman & Associates, a Southfield planning firm, to study and implement planning in the city. The estimated cost of the agreement, which the city commission approved by a 6-1 vote at its last meeting, will be between $30,000 and $35,000.

The city has been using Vilcan, Leman for specific jobs on a non-retainer basis for several years. According to the commissioners, the money will come from Plymouth's portion of the federal shared revenue. Commissioners said one major point of the agreement is that the planners will help with the implementation of development. Among items which the planners will consider, under terms of the agreement, are:

- Loop road improvement plan.
- Off-street and on-street parking plan.
- Updating of the current use status and proposed development in the city's business districts.
- New development or reuse of available buildings and sites in the city.

•Updating of the improvement plan for Plymouth.

•Preparation of an "action" program for business development and a budget for the program.

•Coordinating projects of a business nature for the city.

In the original agreement draft, which was recommended by the city planning commission, most attention was directed toward the city's central business district. During discussion, commissioners indicated the planning should encompass the entire city.

Commissioner William Silvius, who cast the lone vote against the planning agreement, said, "I'm opposed to this agreement; I haven't heard anyone say what it's going to do for the city except cost $35,000." Mayor James McKeon said, "The previous plans were plans period. This includes implementation."

What the plan is really considering, said Commissioner Harold Guenther, "is immediate and long term welfare of the city."

Silvis said planning would be useless if the Mocerri Project -- a regional shopping center proposed for Joy and Sheldon roads at the foot of Main Street -- goes in.

"If it goes in, you can spend $50,000 and you'll end up with nothing," he said.

"But," Commissioner Norbert Battermann replied, "if we sit back and do nothing, we won't get the prospective customer in here either."

City Water Meter Special To End

Schools Quit Busing Fight

PLYMOUTH The Plymouth Board of Education has voted to withdraw from the Milliken vs. Bradley busing case.

The district was a member of the Region 9 of Michigan Assn. of School Administrators and sharing legal fees for an attorney regarding the busing controversy with several districts.

Plymouth has paid $400 into the organization, but withdrew in light of a requested assessment of 75 cents per student. With a student enrollment of nearly 11,000, the fee would have been approximately $825.

Bates, Webber Ace in Bridge

PLYMOUTH John S. Bates, 1199 S. Sheldon, Plymouth, and Bob Webber, 32060 Grand River, Farmington, topped their section in open pairs play at the American Contract Bridge League's 16th spring national tournament in St. Louis, Mo.

Six major titles will be decided in 10 days of play.

PLYMOUTH The City of Plymouth is offering its residents the convenience of outdoor water meters to eliminate the need for meter readers entering the home.

But the offer expires April 1.

Installation of the outdoor meters will be carried out at a total cost to the homeowner of $15, according to the water department. The charge may be paid in a single installment at the time of installation or added to the water bill at a rate of $5 per quarterly billing.

The $15 fee represents a $10 reduction in the regular $25 charge, the department said.

Residents who are employed and away from home during day time hours may arrange to leave a key with a neighbor so that workmen may carry out the switch from indoor to outdoor meters.

The outdoor meter provides householders with privacy and eliminates the interruption of admitting meter readers to the home, the department pointed out, as well as eliminating estimated bills.

It also saves housewives the annoyance of having mud and snow tracked into their homes and takes away the risk of accidents to the meter readers while in the home.

"There are no interruptions of household schedules or risks of children being awakened from their naps," a department leaflet said.

Where did the bloomer get its name? It was a costume developed by Amelia Jenks Bloomer in 1849. It consisted of a close-sleeved jacket, a skirt extending slightly below the knee and a pair of loose trousers gathered by elastic bands a little above the ankle. Miss Bloomer was a leader of the Women's Rights Movement of 1849. Bloomers, she said, would emancipate women from the conventions of the day and would add to their health and comfort. Unfortunately for Miss Bloomer, the costume garnered only ridicule. However, many hail bloomers as the predecessor of the pantsuit!

Area Synagogues Plan Purim Celebrations

The entire community has been invited to join in a gala Purim carnival by the United Synagogue Youth of Farmington's Adas Shalom Synagogue.

It will be held in the synagogue's new social hall, 29901 Middle Belt, and will be open from 1 to 5 p.m., Sunday, March 18.

Games and prizes, hot dogs and hamantaschens will be featured. The latter are baked delicacies shaped like the hat of Haman, whose downfall is celebrated in these festivities.

Purim celebrations also are planned this weekend in Bais Chadab, the contemporary synagogue and student center, and the Labor Zionist Institute, both in Farmington; and in Beth Abraham - Hillel in West Bloomfield.

Festivities in Adas Shalom will begin at 8 a.m., Sunday, with the reading of the "Megillah" (Book of Esther) by teenagers Steven Berkall, Joel Kahn, Hillel Maisel, David Schostak, Robert Schostak, Jeremy Segal, Steven Sklar and Mark Vieder.

Members of the Bar and Bat Mitzvah Club and the Minimester will join the adults for services, and following this, the young people will meet for breakfast and discussion on subjects related to the Purim holiday.

Bais Chadab, 28555 Middle Belt, will hold its gala celebration at 8 p.m., Saturday, March 17. Highlight of the event will be the chanting of the "Megillah" from a scroll written by hand with a feather quill on parchment. Free "graggers" (Purim noisemakers) will be distributed to all the participants to enable them to fulfill the custom of making a loud noise whenever the name of the wicked Haman is read.

Youngsters are asked to come in costume to take part in a masquerade party.

College age members are reminded that one precept of the festival is "to drink a great deal of wine," and all will enjoy the free Hamantaschens, plus singing and dancing.

The Labor Zionist Alliance of Metropolitan Detroit is hosting an old-fashioned Purim Adloyada celebration at 6:30 p.m. in the Laiken Auditorium of the institute, 28555 Middle Belt.

There will be a festive buffet dinner, the reading of the "Megillah," dancing and Israeli folk dancing with Yaacov Davidovitch.

Everyone interested is invited. Donation is $5 per person and reservations should be made by calling the institute.

Beth Abraham - Hillel, 5075 W. Maple, began its celebrations with a Saturday morning Erev-Purim service.

Tonight (March 17) at 7:30 members of the Youth Group will read the "Megillah." Following this, they will stage a talent show. Members of the sisterhood will serve refreshments.

Sunday morning, March 18, the congregation's religious school will have classroom Purim parties.

From 12 noon on, the annual family Purim carnival will be sponsored by the school's Parents and Teachers Organization.

Purim celebrates the downfall of Haman, who issued a decree of annihilation against the Jewish nation in the Persian Empire 23 centuries ago.

Heroes of the ancient saga were Mordechai, leader and sage of the Jewish community, and his niece Esther, who became queen of the Persian monarch Achashveirosh.

Grand River Group To Hear Speaker

The Rev. Albert Brickner will be guest speaker at the next meeting of Grand River Baptist Senior Citizens.

The members will meet for lunch at 12 noon, Friday, March 23, in Fellowship Hall, 34500 W. Six Mile, Livonia. They should make reservations by calling the church. Visitors are invited.

Rev. Brickner is director of Israel's Remnant, Inc., a society designed to present the Gospel of Christ to the Jewish people and to create love and understanding for the Jews among Christians.

He was born into a Jewish family in Mobile, Ala. His family moved to Detroit and while a student at Wayne State University, he became a Christian.

Besides WSU, he attended Gordon College and Gordon Divinity School and Boston University Graduate School. He served with Israel's

REV. ALBERT BRICKNER

Remnant in Boston for 13 years.

He now lives with his wife and three children in Farmington.

Nativity Moves Up Confirmation, Cantata

Confirmation of a young peoples' class and presentation of a choir cantata, two events traditional to Palm Sunday in Nativity United Church of Christ in Livonia, are being moved up to the March 18 services because of the imminent departure of the pastor and his wife.

The Rev. Edward Reinhardt, Nativity pastor for six years, has accepted a call from Zion United Church of Christ in Hubbard, Iowa.

He and his wife, Kathryn, the choir director here, will begin their new assignment April 1, so both the reception of the confirmation class and the cantata have been scheduled early.

The 18 young people who have been meeting once a week with Rev. Reinhardt since last fall will be received into the church during the 11 a.m. service. All are ninth graders.

Included are Kevin Belcher, Michelle Boutin, Margaret Chamberlain, Carolyn Culbertson, Janet Dahl, Linda Doelp, Guy Flummerfelt, Julie Gallop, Michael Graunstadt and Sharon Klein.

Rick Lupp, Paul McTaggart, Michael Murray, Carl Nelson, Robert Shaw, Sally Small, Kim Swanson and Debbie Whyman complete the group.

The cantata scheduled by the Chancel Choir for the 9:30 a.m. service is "Olivet to Calvary" by J.H. Maunier. It depicts in music scenes from Jesus' last week on earth.

Mrs. Margaret Wiedmayer will play organ accompaniment, and Marilyn Richards will be the pianist. A quartet composed of Sue Gallop, Kathy Schulz, Steve Small and Don Horne will participate.

Solos include all four quartet members, and also Don Gallop, Jim Swanson, Walter Doelp, Jim Schulz, Robin Shaw, Karen Franklin, Linda Eblen, Nancy Faith, Elaine Zisek and Ardis Scott.

Church Shows Free Movie

Plymouth Church of the Nazarene will sponsor a free showing of the film "For Pete's Sake" at 7 p.m., Sunday, March 18. The church is located at 41550 E. Ann Arbor Trail.

"For Pete's Sake" is a full-length comedy-drama, filmed in brilliant Eastman color by World Wide Pictures. It is the story of Pete Harper, a family man and service station owner, who finds strength to face life anew. It was filmed in Denver and the Colorado Rockies.

Youth Group To Plan Float

The third meeting of Key 73 Youth Group will be held at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, March 22, in Nardin Park Methodist Church, 11 Mile west of Middle Belt, Farmington.

All young people and adults interested in working with the group on planning a float for the Founders' Day Festival and a youth rally are invited.

This is a place of remembrance. A place where we honor our family and friends and rediscover the values they loved and lived for.

Here, amidst this quiet beauty, the past, present and future are one. Because the good that is in each of us lives on as long as those who love us remember.

For over half a century, Harris has provided a setting for remembrance, a place where love looks back in order to go forward with renewed strength.

Alma Choir To Give 2 Concerts

The Alma College A Cappella Choir will present concerts at 9 and 11 a.m., Sunday, March 18, in Rosedale Gardens United Presbyterian Church, 9601 Hubbard at W. Chicago, Livonia.

Performing with the choir will be the Alma Singers, 12 vocalists who present madrigals, show tunes and novelty tunes.

The Livonia concerts are part of the choir's spring tour. Choir members will be overnight guests of families of church members Saturday.

Dr. Ernest G. Sullivan directs the choir. He is chairman of the department of music at Alma, director of the Alma Singers and also director of the Bay View Music Festival and the summer Conservatory of Music. He was a member of the voice faculty at the Chicago Conservatory of Music, and has sung professionally in Chicago and the midwest.

Methodists In Lent Series

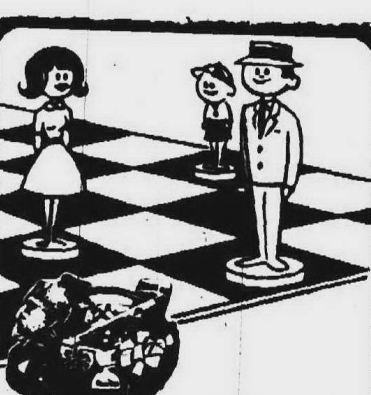

Three Methodist ministers from southeastern Michigan will be speakers in a Sunday evening Lenten series in the First United Methodist Church of Farmington, Grand River at Warner.

Each gathering will begin with pot-luck supper at 5 p.m.

The Rev. Herbert Glenn of the Brighton United Methodist Church will be the speaker on Sunday, March 18, and the Rev. Reuben Russell of the Vernon Chapel A.M.E. Church in Flint will visit March.

Missionaries Talk At Ward

Roger and Naomi Walkwitz, missionaries to the Philippines, will tell of their experiences in Ward United Presbyterian Church of Livonia at 7 p.m., Sunday, March 18.

St. John Topic 'New Directions'

"New Directions in Clergy and Laity Responsibility" will be the topic for the next Lenten dinner program in St. John Episcopal Church, 574 S. Sheldon, Plymouth, on Wednesday, March 21.

The Rev. Arthur B. Williams, associate director of program for the Diocese of Michigan, will be the speaker.

An all-parish Lenten dinner is being served at 6:30 in the church hall each Wednesday, preceding the talks. The cost is $1.50 for adults; 75 cents for children; and $6 for a family. Reservations should be made at the church office by noon each Tuesday.

Sister Hilda Manson, Church Army, Church of the Messiah, Detroit, will speak on "New Directions in Urban Ministry" on March 28.

"CHRIST IN The Concrete City," a play by P.W. Turner, will be presented in St. Paul United Presbyterian Church, Five Mile west of Inkster, Livonia, during the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services Sunday, March 18. The actors are members of the Presbyterian Players, a repertory company from the First Presbyterian Church of Battle Creek. Organized in 1968, they have played all over Michigan in offerings including "Amahl and the Night Visitors" and "Jesus Christ Superstar."

Religion Update

Rev. Lester Kinsolving's

The wages earned by mechanics in small Southern cities like Martinsville, Va., are hardly designed to meet the prodigious cost of getting a son through medical school — as mechanic Bob Steagall knows full well.

But Robert Jr., the Steagall's only child, began saving for his education when he was a newspaper boy delivering the Martinsville Bulletin. And despite the fact that $3,000 is still owed, last June all their mutual sacrifice and effort seemed more than worth it.

For on June 4, this quiet and exceptionally well-liked young man of 27 graduated from the University of Virginia medical school. Two weeks later his parents' joy reached another pinnacle as Bob married Elizabeth Newton Day, a lovely young blonde from nearby Roxboro, N.C.

In another week Bob began his work as an intern at Roanoke Memorial Hospital, with the goal of becoming a surgeon. By working over Christmas and New Years, he was able to obtain two weeks leave in early January, when he and Elizabeth took a delayed honeymoon — in New Orleans.

Dr. and Mrs. Steagall were registered guests at the Downtown Howard Johnson's Motor Lodge on Jan. 7.

That Sunday afternoon, a terrified black maid in the motel was told by a black gunman:

"Don't worry; we're not killing blacks today, just whites. The revolution's here!"

There are still some whites who automatically dismiss such statements as "rhetoric."

Not the dedicated young physician and his wife. For Bob was shot through the heart, after grappling with the gunman who was setting their apartment afire. Elizabeth was shot through the head as her screams could be heard throughout the motel.

They are buried, together in one casket, in Martinsville's Oakwood Cemetery.

The Rev. Jim Grubbs of the Broadway Christian Church was the officiant at Bob's funeral. He recalls that Bob, as a member of the church's youth group, had taken a strong stand against the church being segregated, during the critical 1960s. But on the walls of the Steagalls' mass murderer's last known address was scrawled such statements as:

"HATE WHITE PEOPLE. MY DESTINY IS THE DEATH OF RACIST PIGS."

The grief-stricken parents of this beautiful young couple have seen a photograph of this lethal graffiti.

"It looks like someone out of his mind," observed Mrs. Steagall during an interview. Added her husband Bob:

"He's probably been brainwashed."

In view of this ghastly tragedy the Steagalls might have followed the written suggestion they received in the mail from the American Nazi Party: to hate all black people, just as the Black Muslims preach the hate of all white people.

But the Steagalls have lost their son and daughter — in law — not their senses. And they recall with gratitude that the first of hundreds of expressions of compassion from all over the nation came from a local black minister.

This writer is personally acquainted with only a small percentage of the nine million subscribers to the newspapers who publish this column. I am unable, for example, to respond personally to all the mail — even though I do read it and I appreciate receiving any and all comments, or information.

I can respond personally to the appalling tragedy of the senseless and brutal murder of two of my readers in Roanoke and Martinsville — by continuing to expose and oppose the race-hatred which was responsible for their untimely deaths, and church funding of race-hating groups.

The life of Elizabeth and Robert Steagall together was short. But everyone who knew them will affirm that they left the world inestimably richer for their presence. May they rest in peace.

Mt. Hope Sets Lent Dramas

Short dramas staged by different groups in Mt. Hope Congregational Church of Livonia will be featured in a Lenten sharing series beginning Wednesday, March 21.

Potluck suppers will begin the program at 6:30 p.m. each Wednesday. There will be hymn singing before the drama and discussion and prayer time afterwards.

The church choir will present the first drama in the opening service March 21.

Dramas the next three Wednesdays will be offered by the board of trustees, the women's fellowship and the board of Christian education.

A Maundy Thursday Tenebrae service is planned for April 19, at 7:30 p.m.

Those participating in the Lenten sharing services are asked to bring table service and a main dish or salad or dessert.

Grand Rapids Choir To Visit

The Beckwith Hills choir from Grand Rapids, directed by Jack DeVos, will present a vespers concert at 6 p.m. Sunday, March 18, in University Hills Church, Farmington Road and I-696, Farmington.

Both choral and instrumental music will be included in the program. A coffee hour will follow the service.

AREA DEATHS

ORVILLE G. VADER — Services for Mr. Vader, 62, of 20045 St. Francis, Livonia, were held March 12 at Thayer Funeral Home, Farmington, with burial in Parkview Cemetery. Officiating at the rites were the Rev. Beryl Sprout of Quincy, Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment IOOF of Michigan and the Rev. Russell McKenzie of Royal Oak. Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge IOOF of Michigan.

Mr. Vader died March 7 in Sinai Hospital, Detroit, after a three-year illness. He had resided in Livonia 40 years and was a self-employed rigger.

Mr. Vader was a Past Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment IOOF of Michigan. Past Grand Patriarch of Clarenceville Lodge No. 427 IOOF, a member of the Cantons, past Captain of Hazel Park Lodge No. 47, and past Chief Patriarch of Northwestern Encampment No. 30.

Survivors are his wife, Nina, two sons, Ralph of Livonia and Gerald of Dearborn Heights; two daughters, Donna Jean Hunkle of Farmington and Jo-Ann Welch of Livonia; five brothers, Lester, Harold, Kenneth, Vernice and Bill; his mother, Mrs. Mabel Vader of California; and 15 grandchildren.

JAMES JOY — Services for Mr. Joy, 96, of 15411 Marilyn, Northville Township, will be held March 19 at 1 p.m. in Schrader Funeral Home, Plymouth, with burial in Newburgh Cemetery, Livonia. Mr. Joy died March 15 at White Hall Convalescent Home. A retired farmer, he was a lifetime area resident.

Survivors are a son, Warren of Plymouth; two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Liscum of Boyne City and Mrs. Ruth Douglas of Brighton; five grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren and seven great great grandchildren.

BEATRICE A. KIMBALL — Services for Mrs. Kimball, 80, of 17514 Rexwood, Livonia, were held in R.G. and G.R. Harris Funeral Home with the Rev. J. Albert Kee officiating. Burial was in White Chapel Cemetery. Mrs. Kimball died March 12 at Rivergate Medical Facility. Mrs. Kimball was a descendant of a pioneer family which came to Michigan from Virginia in covered wagons in the early 1800s. A native of Dowagiac, she moved to Livonia 60 years ago. She was a member of Highland Park Baptist Church.

Survivors are a son, William, a brother, Paul Phillips of Clinton, Ill.; two sisters, Mrs. Mabel Lamphere of El Centro, Calif. and Mrs. Ruth Duncan of Wausau, Wis.; and two grandchildren.

BERNICE L. MORRISON — Services for Mrs. Morrison, 63, of 29120 Dardanelle, Livonia, were held in the R.G. and G.R. Harris Funeral Home with the Rev. Donald Ely officiating. Burial was in Parkview Cemetery. Mrs. Morrison died March 9 in Medico Nursing Home. A housewife, she was a member of Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church.

Survivors are her husband, Robert, a son, Patrick, a daughter, Mrs. Terry (Sandra) Wall, a brother, Norman, a sister, Vernetta Watson, and three grandchildren. Mrs. Morrison also was the mother of the late Jeffrey Morrison.

MARIE MCCORMACK — Services for Mrs. McCormack, 85, of 17751 Mayfield, Livonia, were held in McFarland-Ross Funeral Home, Dearborn, with the Rev. Edward C. Coley of Mt. Olivet United Methodist Church, Dearborn, officiating. Burial was in Acacia Park Cemetery. Mrs. McCormack died March 14 in St. Mary Hospital. She was the widow of the late Patrick McCormack and lived in Dearborn 44 years before moving to Livonia two years ago. She was employed by Montgomery Ward for 15 years before retiring 20 years ago.

She had been a member of Mt. Olivet Church since 1953 and was a member of the Livonia Pioneer Unit of Senior Citizens and the Pleasant Hours Colonial Unit of Senior Citizens, Dearborn.

Survivors are several nieces and nephews.

What we didn't learn.

Maybe we're successful as funeral directors because of the things we didn't learn from books. Such as thoughtfulness. And understanding. And compassion. And respect.

These are the qualities you can't get out of a book or a classroom — but they mean more to us (and to the families we serve) than anything we've ever been taught.

Oceanographer Talks For Livonia Town Hall

Oceanographer Jon Lindbergh will speak for the Livonia Town Hall at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, March 21, in the Terrace Theater, 30400 Plymouth Road, Livonia.

His lecture and the Mayflower Meeting House celebrity luncheon that follows will wind up the group's 1972-73 series.

Mrs. Norbert Dittmar, Livonia Town Hall president, will announce speakers for the 1973-74 series during the program.

Lindbergh, former naval reserve officer and a graduate of Stanford University and the Scripps Institute of Oceanography, is president of Ocean Systems, Inc.

Before assuming his present position, he headed his own marine contracting firm, specializing in underwater construction, diving and explosive technology.

JON LINDBERGH

AAUW Hears Of Indians

A social worker currently using an American Association of University Women fellowship to work with Indians in Detroit will tell the Farmington branch of the AAUW about her work Wednesday, March 21.

The 8 p.m. meeting in the Farmington Community Center, Farmington Road north of 10 Mile, also will feature announcement of the branch members who will be honored in this year's fellowship grants.

Beatrice Bogony will be the speaker. Recipient of a $3,500 grant from the national AAUW organization last year, she has been living in Detroit and interviewing American Indians in this area to get information on their social and economic conditions.

Miss Bogony has degrees from Lawrence University in Wisconsin and the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Thomas Czubiak, chairman of the fellowship committee, will announce the names of Farmington branch members to be honored in the name gifts.

Each year the branch, using funds earned in its annual used book sale, donates money to the AAUW Fellowship Fund which provides grants to American and foreign women seeking higher education.

The hospital committee for the March 21 meeting will be headed by Mrs. Walter Frontczak and Mrs. Harold Gibson.

Assisting them will be Mary Hurd, Mrs. David Jones, Mrs. Friedrich Kaechele, Mrs. Milo Lamos, Mrs. Theodore Lapinski and Mrs. Thomas Taylor.

Fair Credit Is Topic

Fair credit reporting will be the topic for the Livonia branch of the American Association of University Women at its meeting Tuesday, March 20, at 8 p.m.

A film and a discussion of the Fair Credit Reporting Act are scheduled for the meeting in the social hall of St. Paul Presbyterian Church, 27475 Five Mile, Livonia.

Mrs. Margaret Vili of TRW Credit Data Corp. will show a film titled "Decision" and will explain how consumers can protect themselves from being denied credit and insurance by adverse comments and materials in any consumer report made about them.

Mrs. Vili is employed by a firm which compiles files on persons who have charge accounts, home mortgages, life insurance or request personal loans.

Mrs. Darlene Ursel, branch chairman for the study topic "A Dollar's Worth," is in charge of program arrangements.

Hostesses for the evening include Mrs. Sandra Auge, Mrs. Martha Jurma and Mrs. Peg Valleskey.

Club Hears Psychologist

Dr. Sonya Friedman, Birmingham psychologist, will be guest speaker for the Livonia Towne Club at its monthly meeting Thursday, March 22, in Topinka's Country House, Telegraph and Seven Mile, Redford Township.

A social hour will begin at 11:30 a.m. and dinner will be served at 12:30 p.m.

Dr. Friedman, associated with Psychological Resources, Inc., will receive the Towne Club's annual charitable contribution to be used to aid emotionally troubled children in need of financial assistance.

She also will donate her fee for the day's talk to the fund earmarked for the children.

Her topic will be "Women Today -- Marriage and Career."

The meeting will be open to all women in the area. Further information on reservations is available from Mrs. Patrick Concannon, 14265 Blackburn, Livonia.

JOYCE KAINZ

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kainz of Oak Pointe Drive, Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Joyce Marie, to Mark F. Dimaria, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Dimaria of Trenton. The bride-elect is a junior at Eastern Michigan University and her fiance graduated from EMU in 1972. A Dec. 22 wedding is planned in the Martha-Mary chapel in Greenfield Village.

Farmington LWV Hosts Jane Hart

Jane Hart, wife of U.S. Sen. Philip A. Hart, will address the Farmington - West Bloomfield League of Women Voters at 10 a.m. Wednesday, March 21, in West Bloomfield High School, 4925 Orchard Lake Road.

"Is the Congressional Beast Hibernating or Is It Alive and Well in Washington?" is the topic of her talk.

She will discuss President Richard M. Nixon's cutback of federal funds for anti-poverty, welfare and vocational education programs.

Foster Care Group Meets

Foster Parents for Progress will meet at 15316 Piedmont, Detroit, at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 20.

This is a group of foster parents from all agencies and of persons interested in working for the betterment of foster care.

A foster children's group (seven years and older) will meet at the same time.

In addition, Mrs. Hart, an outspoken critic of the war in Vietnam, will get into ramifications of the War Powers Bill, which, if approved, would keep the President from certain military moves without congressional sanction.

Her talk also will cover senior rule in the U.S. House of Representatives and the Senate, secret congressional subcommittees and the cloture bill to limit filibustering.

Mrs. Hart's talk is part of a study on Congress by the Farmington - West Bloomfield League.

Mrs. Diane Solomon is chairman of the LWV U.S. Congress committee.

PLYMOUTH COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICT Plymouth, Michigan

BOARD OF EDUCATION MINUTES

A regular meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District, Wayne County, Michigan, was held on Monday evening, February 12, 1973, in the Auditorium of Plymouth-Canton High School, 8415 Canton Center Road, Plymouth, Michigan, beginning at 8:00 p.m.

The meeting was called to order by President Lawton.

Present: Members Benson, Berry, Graves, Lawton, Mirto, Ohno and Penar.

Absent: None.

Administrators present: Sup't. Hoben, Deputy Sup't. Hogan, Assistant Sup't. Blunk and Gibson, Supervisors Sirbaugh and Symonds, Assistant Director, Masterly, Adm. Assistant-Personnel Kee and Principals Brown, South and Taylor.

Others present: John Ryder, P.E.A.; Mrs. H. Clark, Wm. Gratch, J. Gray, Robert Hord, W.S.D.P. News; Dr. Mrs. Kirchgatter, Cameron Lodge, Dr. McClelland, Shirley Mack, Loretta Olson, Chairman of the Bus Drivers' Committee; Mr. Padilla, Ellen Ruland, Brian Schwal, Flossie Tonds and a large group of parents representing Fiegl School.

Additions to the agenda were called.

It was moved by Member Berry and seconded by Member Graves to approve the minutes of the regular meeting of January 23, 1973, with the following changes:

Page 1. Delete Band Director Griffith from list of administrators present and insert name under "Others Present."

Delete name of Jeff Drifmeyer under "Others present" and insert "music teachers" at end of that paragraph.

Pages 2 and 3. Change "music program" to "Marching Band" wherever that phrase appears in discussion on the splitting of the band program at the Plymouth Educational Park.

Ayes: Members Benson, Berry, Graves, Lawton, Mirto, Ohno and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Berry to approve the minutes of the special meeting of February 3, 1973, with the following addition:

Paragraph 1. After "consideration by the Board of Education," add the following:

"Mr. Penar asked how we know that paragraph No. 3 is true. Mr. Ashton asked the Board to recess for him to check his facts with Mr. Draugelis. Moments later the Board reconvened. Mr. Rosman was asked if he had accepted the job of Assistant Superintendent in Charge of Business at West Bloomfield. Mr. Rosman replied, 'As the newspaper reported, I have accepted it subject to the action taken by the Board of Education here today.' Mr. Rosman was asked if he had started working for West Bloomfield and he replied, 'I have worked Thursday and Friday at West Bloomfield.'"

Ayes: Members Benson, Berry, Graves, Lawton, Mirto, Ohno and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Suggestions from citizens were called. A large number of parents from Fiegl School were represented by Mr. Padilla who read a paper on the Safety Situation at Fiegl Elementary School to the Board and presented them with copies. Their request was that a skywalk be constructed across Joy Road and that the School District initiate action on this and try to acquire funds from other units of government to support the effort. Mr. Schwal, representing Holiday Park Homeowners Association, distributed a letter addressed to Member Berry urging support of the above proposal.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Berry to move item 6c, "A Safety Item" under New Business, on the agenda up for discussion at the present time.

Ayes: Members Benson, Berry, Graves, Lawton, Mirto, Ohno and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Member Penar expressed the concern of the Board for safety issues throughout the entire District and asked Member Berry to present his estimates as to where other safety concerns should be met with action as well as at Fiegl School. Member Berry felt that a skywalk was not an immediate answer to the problems of any of the schools, but there is a need for more crossing guards; for example, three at Fiegl School instead of one. In addition, crossing guards should be better trained, color crosswalks should be painted on the pavement, signs erected and better traffic control be instituted. The Board must look to District-wide safety matters, not just to a particular area but were willing to share cost.

Member Mirto commended Member Berry for putting in more time than any other member of the Board on this matter of Safety. He stated that the School District and Safety Committee have been in process of trying to put safety issues in practice for two years. It did not seem fair to put money into safety issues as opposed to other educational matters in the budget. Other governmental units must take the initiative to start action as well. He stated that an opinion from legal counsel had been obtained stating that Building and Site Fund monies could not be used for Safety issues, initially.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Mirto to adopt the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of the Plymouth Community School District recognizes the safety problems that exist throughout the District; and

WHEREAS, the safety of school children is a proper concern of local and State governments; and

WHEREAS, it is apparent that in the interest of safety, the construction of pedestrian overpasses is required at several locations throughout the District;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT the Board commits to proceed immediately with efforts to arrange the sharing of cost of these projects with other units of government;

AND FURTHER, that the Board invites and requests the assistance of each of the units of government involved;

AND FINALLY, that the Board authorizes and directs the Superintendent to proceed to obtain the engineering services, plans, bids and approvals required in order to allow construction to begin within four months of this date.

Discussion on the resolution as presented followed. Assistant Sup't. Blunk asked whether it was drawings, engineering services, etc. would come from Operating Fund. It was hoped that total costs of any project could be shared with local units of government. Mr. Blunk also stated that an estimate by the Wayne County Road Commission two years ago was $55,000 to erect a skywalk across Joy Road, dependent on many factors. Sup't. Hoben expressed an interest in placing the issue on the June ballot. He stated that there was a way to use Building and Site Funds through approval of the State, or by a vote of the people and petition to the Municipal Finance Commission.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Berry to call the question.

Ayes: Members Benson, Berry, Graves, Lawton, Mirto, Ohno and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was defeated.

Member Benson took the chair so that the President could also speak to the issue. He felt the resolution as presented needs to be more specific; that the District should try to get the other units of government to come up with the money since the Operating Budget is desperate and austere. He asked that the Board consider going on record as being willing to provide use of its operating fund up to 1/3 of the cost for the skywalk each year in an amount not to exceed $20,000. Discussion on this proposal followed with response from citizens Cameron Lodge and Ellen Ruland as to the safety issue, and by other Board members on the resolution and on the President's proposal.

Member Ohno stated the importance of revenue sharing with other governmental units on safety issues for the entire District. He called attention to the fact that the Superintendent had already moved toward this goal, citing the March 1, 1973, meeting as an example. Also, consideration is being given to placing mileage for safety purposes on the ballot at the June election. Mr. Blunk was asked about cost of feasibility study; an amount of $2,000 was estimated, or possibly obtained through Wayne County Road Commission. Member Graves asked Member Penar to state intention as to whether at the end of four months the other monies were not made available to the District, would the District be committed to a total expenditure under his resolution? Member Penar answered "no."

The President returned the chair and the question was called.

Ayes: Members Benson, Berry, Graves, Lawton, Mirto, Ohno and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried and resolution adopted.

A short recess was called at 9:50 p.m. the meeting reconvened at 10:05 p.m.

Sup't. Hoben presented a report on Current Status of Plymouth Centennial Educational Park as requested by the Board on February 3. It was decided to take up the entire matter at another meeting. President Lawton reminded the Superintendent that it had been decided to bring parents of grades 8, 9, 10 and 11 students up to date with a synopsis of this report.

The Superintendent reported that a meeting has been set for March 1 with the other units of local government in the area concerning shared facilities.

Mr. Hoben reported on the status of the proposed recreation authority, with cooperation between Plymouth Township and City, Canton Township and the school district. He stated that legal counsel is now drafting papers of incorporation for approval at a meeting on February 19 on a shared recreation commitment. He was asked about effect of this authority on the recreation budget of the school district. He replied that the Board would be committed to $20,000 in the 1973-74 school year, $10,000 the following year and only to facilities and their upkeep following that. He was also asked whether the Board should go on record at this time as supporting the plan proposed by Mr. Okford. He felt it was not necessary until it is amended.

It was moved by Member Benson and seconded by Member Mirto to deny a request from Dr. Beverly Marshall to attend an A.S.C.D. Conference until it is determined whether another principal such as Tom Workman or Anne Welch would desire to attend this year.

Ayes: Members Benson, Berry, Lawton, Mirto and Ohno.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Ohno to approve a request from James Munero at Canton High School to attend the clinic in Chicago.

Ayes: Members Benson, Berry, Graves, Lawton, Mirto, Ohno and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Dr. Hogan reported on progress of election campaign and committees which have been set up. He stated that principals are desirous of getting more direction from the Board and administration. A Calendar of Events is to be set up.

It was moved by Member Graves and seconded by Member Ohno to adopt the following resolution which will be presented at the National Association of School Boards' Convention along with adoptions of many other Boards throughout the State:

LOCAL CONTROL OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS-RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, United States District Judge Stephen J. Roth has decreed that fifty-two independent school districts in the Detroit, Michigan metropolitan area shall be used for the purpose of altering a racial imbalance in the Detroit public school system, despite the fact that no school system, other than Detroit, has been found to have committed any discriminatory act in violation of the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the order of the District Court portends the reassignment and cross-district transportation of approximately 400,000 school children and the expenditure of millions of dollars per year for the purpose of racial balancing; and

WHEREAS, a three judge panel of the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit has upheld the decision of the District Court on the premise that local school districts are instrumentalities of the State and exist merely for administrative convenience and has further declared that local school district boundaries and autonomy may be ignored by the Courts whenever the State has countenanced or abetted segregatory acts limited to a single school district; and

WHEREAS, the Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit has held that suburban school districts in the Detroit metropolitan area may be included in a judicial plan for reducing a racial imbalance in the Detroit public schools even in the absence of discriminatory conduct, either de facto or de jure, on the part of any of such suburban school districts; and

WHEREAS, the aforementioned rulings threaten the continued existence of local school districts, as has always been the practice in the American educational system, and the tradition of locally elected school officials determining educational policy and programs consistent with the educational needs and financial resources of the communities which they serve; and

WHEREAS, we do not believe that Boards of Education should be faulted for residential patterns or the mobility of the races, nor should the public schools be used as a vehicle for racial balancing which will inevitably result in disruptive consequences for the educational system and will not serve the best interests of parents and children, black and white.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS RESOLVED, that the National School Board Association urge that each and every local Board of Education in the fifty states of the United States insist that their elected representatives and senators in the Congress of the United States exert their efforts to secure appropriate legislation, or constitutional amendment, if need be, to preserve the traditional concept of local school districts and their autonomy, and to prohibit the courts from using school districts as a vehicle for racial balancing irrespective of the absence of segregatory practices and existing residential patterns.

Ayes: Members Benson, Berry, Graves, Lawton, Mirto, Ohno and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Member Mirto pointed out that there may be some misimpressions with regard to the role of the Court in the above resolution.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Berry to approve a Junior Class Fund Raising proposal as presented by Mr. Jerry Barker.

Ayes: Members Benson, Berry, Graves, Lawton, Mirto, Ohno and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was suggested that the matter of the official designation for the Safety Committee be tabled to old business and returned to the table at a later date.

It was moved by Member Mirto and seconded by Member Benson that with regard to the newspaper articles indicating Board approval of the Mocer project in Canton Township, that staff be directed to prepare a letter clearly pointing out that the School District never taken a position for or against the proposed Mocer Development and that copies of this letter be directed to the newspaper, and to Plymouth Township, Canton Township, Plymouth City, Wayne County Road Commission, Plymouth Economic Development Commission and to its director and to the Plymouth Planning Commission Director.

Ayes: Members Benson, Berry, Graves, Lawton, Mirto, Ohno and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was requested by the Board that the Principal's Conference Room be open at Canton High School one-half hour early on the first meeting of the month, so Board members can discuss points of view before meeting time. It was indicated that the press would be welcome.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Ohno that the Plymouth Community School District refund 1971 school tax to the following taxpayers as directed by Mr. Louis H. Funk, Wayne County Treasurer, said refunds resulting from a reduction in the assessment by the Michigan State Tax Commission:

James P. Wiley Canton Township $ 23.10

Charlie Kotarski, long rated one of the smoothest bowlers ever developed in Detroit, will be enshrined in the Detroit Hall of Fame on Saturday, April 21.

Along with him will be Ruth Johnson, member of the women's championship teams in the 30s, and the late Phil Bauman, of the Stroh team that won the ABC and International championships in 1934.

Detroit bowlers are continuing to juggle standings on the national honor roll.

While Anita Cantaline's Jac-Ro team moved to the head of the list in the women's division with its 3107 series, Tom McKay's Coca Cola team landed high on the American Bowling Congress roll with a 3421 series in the highest scoring match of the season.

The "Cokes" rolled games of 1132, 1170 and 1119 in the All-Star Classic at Belmar Lanes to conquer Stroh which fashioned a 3322 with a finishing game of 1181.

The 3421 series is the highest bowled in the metropolitan area in several years and may stand up as the best series rolled hereabouts this season.

Pat Iannucci was high with a 779 and was followed by Tom McKay with 673. Rocky Graziani 663, Bob Garrett 660 and Tony Loiacano 646.

The Motown Record team faltered in defense of its women's state title last weekend in the state tournament. The title slipped away when the team could do no better than 2736, while another Detroit all-star team - Pro Car Wash - took the actual score lead with a 2790 series.

Jim Mullen, a 167 average bowler at Westland Bowl, provided the oddity of the week when he posted a 298 game and failed to hit 600.

He opened with 140, followed with the 298 and closed with 150. In his big game he left up the unusual 3-9 after registering 11 strikes in a row.

Mort Friedman and Stuart Pearlman who bowl at Wonderland Garden Lanes, had the thrill that comes to few bowlers. When they finished their stint in the ABC at Syracuse, N.Y., last week they were leading the doubles on the big board with 1284. Pearlman contributed a 687 and Friedman a 597.

Oak Park Lanes will host part of the National B'nai B'rith tournament that opens this weekend in four establishments. Aside from Oak Park other hosts include North Lanes, State Fair Recreation, and Strikes and Spares in Birmingham.

Scoring dropped again this week in the Westland Classic where Jim Warner showed the way with 666. Others among the top finishers included Fred Pringle 660, Bob Garrett 651 and Rick Capaldi 650.

Meanwhile, over at Garden Lanes Jerry Fisher landed on top with a 721. His closest rivals were Bob Denham with 692 and Dick Preston with 685.

Bowling in the Jaycee Mixed League, Tom McFarland turned in the best score of the week at Farmington Lanes. He fashioned a 276 game in a 631 series.

Other leaders were paced by Connie Woods with a 607 in the St. Paul's League, and Dottie Romecki with a 229 in a 540 series. Kim Herrington topped the Junior High Girls with a 199 in 334.

Harry Topalian and Larry Boncher gave their sponsors - Country Lanes - something to think about in the Suburban Proprietors Traveling League. Larry posted a 723 and Harry a 704 to top the squad at Wonderland Lanes.

Thanks to a 241 finish, Ron Rieman, of the Ford League, was high for the week at Plymouth Bowl with a 676 series. His closest rival was Don Schoenley, of the Suburban Men's League, who faltered in his final game with a 193 and settled for 635.

Jack Brown added a 710 to his long list of 700 series for the season in Our Lady of Sorrows League at Bel-Aire and with the same total he topped the Charities tournament competition.

His closest rival for the week's top honor was Jack Eldred who topped the Classic with 690. Trailing Aldred were Bill Lanes 666, Con Hamilton 655, Jack Grimes and George Plagany tied at 648 and Bob Boss with 647 that included a 279 game.

Others who took league honors were John Slidko with a 669 in the Senior House League, John Lennox with 674 in the Businessmen's League and John Benti in the Farmington High circuit with a 602.

Without winning a single game Tresa Skomski took top honors in the Women's Classic at Livonia Lanes with a 505-105-610.

Single game winners were Ellie Wilkins with 207-20-227, Beck Parks with 187-40-227 and Lois Merriman with 204-30-234.

Dan Feloni and Pat Cashatt waged a torrid battle for scoring honors in the Wonderland Classic and both went over the 700 mark before Dan won with a 735. Pat had a 276 finish to land four pins back. Rick Capaldi also broke the 700 barrier with a 713.

Aided by a 252 middle game Joe Bogden set the pace in the Oak Park Senior House League with a 691. Next in order came John Wise with 627 and George Lerner with 615.

Death Of Frisch Recalls Wild 1934 World Series

W.W. EDGAR

The death of Frankie Frisch, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals and the famous "Gas House Gang," during the past week brought many memories to the oldtime baseball fans of the wildest and most hilarious world series ever played.

It was back in 1934 when the Tigers had won their first pennant in 25 years and the entire state was in a frenzy after the long, dreary years of the depression.

The celebration of the pennant victory was as nothing compared to the wild scenes that followed before Mickey Cochrane and the Tigers lost the fall classic against the "Gas House Gang" that included those two colorful characters, Dizzy and Daffy Dean.

Along with them were Pepper Martin and Joe Medwick who was ordered out of the sixth game by Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, then the Commissioner of Baseball, when he became the target for the famous fruit barrage that has a prominent place in world series history.

The fun and excitement started five minutes after the Cardinals reached Tiger Stadium (then Navin Field) on the day before the series opened.

Arriving at the ball park just as the Tigers finishing their practice, Dizzy Dean, attired in cowboy boots and a white cowboy hat, leaped over the wall and headed for home plate. Picking up a bat, he yelled "throw me one," and then proceeded to hit the ball out of the park.

Rubbing his hands and chuckling, he yelled, "This series will be easy" as the Tigers stood by in silent dismay. But the best was yet to come.

The Tigers were in the thick of the fight all the way and the tenseness grew with every pitch in the sixth game. Then toward late innings, Medwick raced into third base, spikes riding high, and crashed into Marv Owen, the Tiger third baseman. To the fans it looked like a deliberate attempt at bodily injury and they vent their feelings in a volume of boos that could be heard for miles.

When the side was retired and Medwick walked to his place in left field the Fans really let him have it -- not only with yells and boos. They made him the target of a fruit barrage that didn't let up until the Baseball Commissioner ordered him from the game. There never has been a case like it in all baseball history.

Then came the final game and one of Dizzy Dean's greatest days. He had spent several hours in Ford Hospital the day before after being hit on the head by a pitch. After a hurried examination he was discharged and the Detroit Free Press came on the street with a big headline -- "Dean's Head Shows Nothing."

Ever since that day Dizzy claims it was one of the worst insults he ever received.

The other came when Manager Frankie Frisch sent the entire pitching staff to the bull pen to "warm up" in the late innings with Dean on the winning end of an 11-0 score.

"Imagine him doing that," Dean regales his listeners even to this day, "when we don't have another game until the next spring."

Now Frisch is gone -- but the memories of his battles with Mickey Cochrane and the Tigers in the 1934 world series will forever remain green.

69-56 Regional Victory Churchill Downs Central

A balanced attack which saw all five starters score in double figures put Livonia Churchill in the finals of the Franklin regional basketball tourney with a 69-56 victory over over Walled Lake Central.

It was the 10th win in the last 11 starts for the Chargers who took a 19-5 record into Friday night's Class A championship game against Detroit Murray Wright.

A 22-point scoring burst in the second period wiped out Walled Lake's 17-14 first quarter margin and put Churchill in front for keeps. The Chargers led at the half, 36-25, and after three periods were on top, 49-41.

Quick buckets in the first 30 seconds of the fourth quarter by Central's Craig Long and Mike Imhoff cut the margin to four at 49-45.

However, the Chargers then ran off nine straight points of their own to boost their lead to 58-45 by the four-minute mark. After that Central never threatened again.

Phil Damaska's 17 points were high for Churchill but he had plenty of help with Don Braun adding 16, Phil Skender 12 and Mark Reed and Jim Foster 11 each.

Braun was a standout on the boards and led an alert Churchill defense that stopped Walled Lake's all-state prospect, 6-8½ Randy McLean, with 15 points. McLean's average for the season was 30 points per game as the Vikings closed their campaign at 18-5.

The Inter-Lakes loop champions from Central lost McLean, Imhoff and Long on personal fouls in the last two minutes. But at that point the Vikings already were trailing by 13 and it was not a factor in the outcome.

Although Damaska tallied less than 20 points for the first time in four district and regional tournament games.

he passed up several possibilities to set up shots by teammates.

Coach Pat Montagano attributed the five-man scoring attack as due largely to Damaska's assists and had a special pat on the back for Braun's effective rebounding.

"In the last five ball games Don has found out what it's all about," said the victorious coach of the Western Six titlists.

Lanier May Up Rebound Mark

It's the second 1,000 rebounding season in a row for Pistons' center Bob Lanier.

Lanier, who set the Pistons' single-season high with 1,132 grabs off the boards in 1971-72, still has an excellent chance of shattering that mark before the current campaign ends in late March.

At his present 15-rebound per game average, Lanier could finish the season with around 1,200 rebounds.

Sets Pace

Wayne State University senior forward Bob Solomon led the Tartars in scoring, rebounding and field goal percentage in each of his three varsity seasons. He also topped the same three categories on the freshman team in 1969-70.

Dives For Mark

Steve Reeves, Wayne State University senior co-captain diver, raised his own school record for the championship schedule of dives at three meters to 422.16 vs. Northern Michigan in 1973.

RU Hurdler Earns Spurs As Spartan

EAST LANSING John Morrison, a 1969 graduate of Redford Union High, is a fine hurdler on Michigan State's track team.

Rowe Over 1,000 Mark

Forward Curtis Rowe has given the Detroit Pistons three scorers in the four-figure category this season. He recently went over a 1,000 points for the season, joining teammates Bob Lanier and Dave Bing.

Rowe also is on his way to finishing among the top six in field goal percentages in the National Basketball Association. He's been clicking at better than a .513 clip from the field this season.

The 6-1, 176 pound senior, has earned three letters in track and is trying for his fourth this season.

His biggest triumph as a Spartan was last season in the Big Ten indoor meet when he won the 70-yard low hurdles in :07.8. He also placed second in the 70-yard highs in :08.3.

Outdoors in 1972, John placed fourth in the Big Ten 120-yard highs in :14.5, but his best effort of the season was a :13.8.

As a sophomore, John was a member of the shuttle hurdle relay team that set a collegiate mark in winning the Florida Relays in :56.7.

John is counting on ending his career on a strong kick, hopefully by helping the Spartans win the Big Ten outdoor championship.

Churchill Blasted From State Tourney, 83-47

By FRED DeLANO

Livonia Churchill's basketball bubble was ripped asunder by Detroit Murray-Wright's race horses Friday night, 83-47, to end Observerland's last prep hope of sending a team into the quarter-finals of the state Class A tournament.

Murray-Wright's convincing victory not only carried the Pilots to the title in the regional eliminations played at Franklin High School, but also set up a quarter-final match for Wright next Thursday against Pontiac Central.

The best of all Churchill seasons ended with a 19-6 record as the Chargers were overwhelmed right from the opening tip-off.

Appearing not the least impressed by the Chargers' Western Six conference title or the fact that Churchill had dominated its district tourney, the Pilots struck for a 12-2 lead in Friday's opening minutes and were never headed.

In fact, Churchill never came closer than a 2-2 tie when the game was only 2:16 old.

The Murray-Wright troops from the Detroit city league led after the first period, 14-10, and they were on top at the half, 33-20. However, that was only the beginning of the onslaught.

The Pilots turned on their free-wheeling brand of offense to net 25 points more in each of the last two quarters even though Coach George Duncan cleared his bench.

By then it was a pure lark for the Detroiters who outscored Churchill from the floor, 37 field goals to 17.

Mark Reed with 16 points and Phil Damaska with 11 were the only Chargers in double figures, while sharp-shooting Johnny Davis paced the Pilots with 25. Nate King added 19 points to the Wright cause and Walter Howard also was in double figures with 10.

Right from the start, Murray-Wright's zone press forced frequent Charger turnovers and time and again the Pilots raced for goals off their fast break following turnovers and steals.

Murray-Wright's quickness both afoot and in the use of hands upset the Chargers who never before had progressed as far as a regional final.

After trailing by 13 at halftime, Churchill made one last stab by cutting it to nine (33-24) on a pair of baskets by Damaska early in the third period. That only spurred the Pilots on all the more and by the end of the period they led by 27, 58-31.

Churchill Coach Pat Montagano told his squad when the game was over, "You've gone farther than any other team we've ever had at Churchill and I'm proud of you. You can go out of here with your heads high."

Turf Tips, Quips

By Doc Minard

It will be a night for the wearers of the green tonight at Wolverine Raceway and begorra all wearing green will be admitted free to the grandstand.

To make the sons of Erin even happier, Racing Secretary Bill Connors has arranged a $4,000 St. Patrick Handicap pace as the feature of the all-pacing program.

The handicap attracted a field of seven including a two horse entry from the Joe Adaminsky stable. It is one of the few times the track had an entry so early in a meeting.

Tricky Dale, winner of the preferred event a week ago at Northville Downs, heads the field as he seeks his second straight victory for owner Bob Kalish of Southfield.

It will be the third 1973 start for the veteran who was freshened up with more than a month on the farm before getting back to the races.

Erlanas Valley, surprise winner of the $10,000 finale of the Jackson-at-Northville pacing series, drew the outside post this time. Erlanas Valley ran into trouble in its last three outings at the 'Downs, faltering in the stretch to lose to such fast ones as Johnny G., Tricky Dale and H. T. Pilot.

Others going postward are: the Adamsky entry of P. B. Abbe and Key Creed, Knox Counsel, Timely Joy and Knox Abbe.

The secondary feature, a $2,500 pace, lists eight starters with such fast ones as Grace Time, Black Gate McKillo, Pedro Wilson, Moon Bonnie, Just Getting By, Fire Dance, Mischief Des and A Susan Knox.

Singing Knight, a six-year-old mare, may not win another race all year but she was the first under the finish line in the opening event at Wolverine Thursday night.

With Don Niccum in the sulky, Singing Knight was content to pace in the second spot for three quarters of the mile before taking the lead at the head of the stretch and storming home by four lengths.

One would have to give Track Supt. Jimmy McPhee and his crew a big pat on the back for the way they turned a muddy, sloppy racing strip into a suitable surface for racing. The Tuesday and Wednesday rains challenged the skills of McPhee and his gang . . . they more than answered it with a clocking of 2:16.3 in the opening race and continuing to get faster as the evening progressed.

The first longshot of the season was Royal Champion, a four-year-old, who managed to overtake the leading Bold Bidder in the final 100 yards after a stirring drive by Canadian Pat Crowe.

Royal Champion went off at 12-1 odds and looked like a longshot should for three fourths of the mile. Then Crowe found an opening along the inside and quickly charged up and past the faltering Bold Bidder.

Royal Canadian had a half-length edge at the wire in 2:14.2 and paid $28.40, $9.40 and $5.80 across the board.

The return of trifecta wagering to the harness racing scene met with public approval in the sixth race . . . especially when long shots finished first and second to bring a payoff of $4,982.20.

That made the evening a complete success for the 10 holders of lucky tickets. What's doing with big Pat Paterson? Those who remember the genial paddock boss at Northville Downs and assistant at Wolverine and Hazel Park recall he retired a couple of years back and moved to Florida.

Sure enough, Pat and wife, Betty, purchased a home in the vicinity of Pompano Park . . . just so he could wander over in the mornings and watch the horses work out.

By doing this he managed to keep in touch with his long-time friends in the barn area . . . drivers, trainers and owners.

Recently Pat was back in his familiar role of paddock judge at Pompano Park. The regular judge was taken ill and Pat took over for a couple of weeks. But our information is that he was just filling in and has no intentions of ending his retirement.

Opening night at Wolverine is one that will long be remembered. With free admission to the grandstand as an added attraction, the crowd of 9,628 was the largest ever for a Thursday and thus the most for a Thursday opener.

Just to add a bit more spice on the facts that brought smiles to Vice President and General Manager Richard Wilson, the mutual play totaled $569,929 for the second highest opening and the all-time high for a Thursday.

Which proves a point . . . offer folks something unusual and it will more than pay off. It appears Wilson has the answers of how to get people inside the track.

Northville Downs ended its 39-night meeting Wednesday with wagering up more than two per cent over 1972 with a nightly average of $273,345.

Mal Phillips, 1972 champ, was second this time with a .376 average.

Gerry Banfield, of Farmington, was the winningest driver with 31 firsts for his 199 starts.

Bentley High, Bob Wasilewski and Co., gave Stevenson a real run in the semi-final clash for the George Gee memorial high school hockey tourney.

But the Bulldogs ran out of talent in the third period and Stevenson fought back from a 3-1 deficit to topple Bentley, 5-3, and move into the finale with Churchill.

Wasilewski, who had popped in three goals two nights prior against Franklin, slapped in two in the first stanza to Stevenson's one to give the Bulldogs a 2-1 advantage.

Each squad added another in the second. Then Stevenson power prevailed in the third with Paul Vermeesch, Kurt Geiger and Don Finn scoring for the now 15-3-3 Spartans.

Wasilewski netted his first at 6:12 of the first period, with Stevenson's Wally McIlmurray knotting it at one-all at the 13:27 mark.

Wasilewski slapped his second by Spartan netminder Van Vermeesch 44 seconds later. He was immediately given a two minute penalty when detected using an illegal stick, as was Stevenson's Don Finn.

The illegal stick call came up again in the third period, Wasilewski getting the gate again along with Stevenson's Tom Shipp.

Greg McKernan made it 3-1 Bentley at the 10:53 mark in the second stanza but Stevenson's Dale Marczak sliced it to 3-2 at 12:56, each team playing a man short.

The Spartans outshot Bentley in the third period,

10-5, with Vermeesch, Geiger and Finn getting the best of Bulldog goalie Mark Reid.

Southfield Falls

Churchill Wins, 6-4

When the Charger spark is ignited, the flame is sure to soar.

The Southfield High hockey squad jumped to a 2-0 first period lead over Churchill in George Gee tourney semi-final action and Charger hopes of getting into the finale with Stevenson looked dim.

But it was announced that the Charger basketball crew had just toppled Walled Lake Central in a regional pairing and the Churchill spark spread to Adam Mitchell's hockey crew.

Churchill bounced back to tie it, with the Blue Jays of Southfield slipping ahead after two periods, 3-2.

The Chargers exploded in the third stanza with four goals to burst into the finale with Stevenson, their 6-4 triumph pushing the season mark to 12-6-3.

For Southfield and Coach Art Carinci, it was the finish of a 7-8-2 campaign.

It was Churchill's Mike Merrill who got the Blue Jays off on the right foot in the semi-final game.

Merrill picked up a roughing call at 3:32 of the first period and 24 seconds later, Southfield was on the board. Kevin Nucelli beat Churchill goalie Mike Parks, Mark Farber assisting.

Southfield made it 2-0 three minutes later, Farber beating Parks. John Fallows assisting.

Blue Jay netminder Joe Carroll kept Churchill scoreless up to the 3:16 mark in the second stanza when Steve Ursitti slapped one home, Kris Kostolansky assisting.

With Southfield's Ron Kucinsky off for tripping,

Churchill's Doug Lloyd notched it at two-all on a delayed penalty call, with Blue Jays goalie Carroll picking up a misconduct on the disputed call.

With Churchill a man short late in the second, Southfield slipped ahead again on a score by Roger Mead, Jack Booth picking up the assist.

The Blue Jays appeared en route to a Suburban upset early in the third when Bob Mead picked the corner of the Churchill net to push Southfield's lead to 4-2.

But the Chargers found their spark again and proceeded to reel off four straight goals, two by Kostolansky, one by Jerry Thauvette and the clincher by Jim Gagnon.

Meanwhile, Southfield went the penalty route with Farber, Bob Garvin and Roger Mead all picking up misconducts.

Livonia Family Anticipates Myriad Of Water Activities

By JUDITH BERNE

With their four snowmobiles slated for hibernation, the Cuppetillis of Livonia are looking forward to spring, summer and fall on the water.

At their summer home on Horseshoe Lake about halfway between Brighton and Ann Arbor, the five Cuppetillis make full use of four boats which serve their diverse water pleasures.

Sixteen-year-old Rick and 12-year-old Mark use their 15-foot speed boat primarily for water skiing. Rick, who has been skiing since he was eight, feels "it's a sin to use two skis." Both he and Mark do trick and slalom skiing on weekends during spring and fall, and "all day every day" when the family moves out to the lake for the summer.

"They do a heck of a lot of skiing," their father reports. "I know, I pay for the gas."

Rick, a junior at Bentley High School, has both his safe boating and scuba diving certificates. When he is not skiing, he is scuba diving.

"We do have sort of an unwritten rule on the lake that there is no water skiing before 10 in the morning," Cuppetilli notes. That gives the sailors and fishermen a little time to pursue their pleasures unhampered by the roar of speedboats. "Sailing's not the greatest thing in the world with water skiers around."

Alice Cuppetilli is looking forward to many hours in a new paddle boat which the family purchased over the winter. Paddle boats are usually eight to 10 feet long, about six feet wide and have two seats, her husband explains. They are propelled by bicycle-type pedals which make an underwater paddle wheel turn and the boat go.

comes complete with an orange survey convertible top -- the epitome of style and comfort. She enjoys both the exercise of paddling it and just being on the water.

Cuppetilli and his second-mate, Lauri, a fifth grader at Roosevelt Elementary, most often head for their sailboat. "I used to really enjoy the speedboat for the very power of it," Cuppetilli relates. "If anyone had ever told me I'd love a dinky sailboat, I would have told him he was crazy."

"But I went to sailing for the relaxation. I only have a small 14-foot boat, but I love every foot of it. The feeling that you get from sailing is so different from the sensation of a speedboat. It is more sophisticated somehow."

"I had a chance to sail on the ocean in Florida this past winter. It was a real thrill."

The Cuppetillis' "fleet" is completed by a 14-foot aluminum boat with an electric motor used to fish for bass at night. Mark, also a student at Roosevelt, is their most enthusiastic fisherman. Although Cuppetilli says that Horseshoe Lake is not the greatest fishing lake, "there is an abundance of small panfish."

"WE HAVE A LARGE DOCK, and when the four boats are tied up, our lake neighbors jokingly refer to it as 'Cuppetilli's Marina,' he continued. "I do believe that if they came out with something new for the water, we'd buy it."

"But we wouldn't have anything to do with a swimming pool," he cautions. "There was one when we bought our Livonia home and we had it taken out."

"The kids were scared of the water when we first came to the lake. Now it's hard to imagine a life without it. I do believe it has kept our family together and will continue to, even as the children grow up."

Curly Heads For Different Waters

For 33 years, Arthur ("Curly") Croch has been manufacturing "Curlycrafts" at his Northwestern Boat Shop at 10 Mile and Evergreen in Southfield.

Now, the last "Curlycraft" is up for sale, as Curly changes the orientation of his business from building boats to producing boat kits for "do it yourself" assembling and finishing.

"It takes too many man-hours for us to continue to build the whole boat," Curly reported. "It will be more economical to manufacture the kits, and let the buyers do the building. They don't count the man hours in their costs."

Now, people have the leisure time to spend building boats, he feels. Also, they can get just the particular design and type of boat they want from a kit. According to Curly, there was a kit building boom back in the early '50s. "It died out because there weren't enough models to choose from, and then along came the fiber glass boat."

CURLY REMEMBERS with nostalgia a period during the mid-'50s when Northwestern Boat was producing finished boats at the rate of 30 a month. "But nowadays we can sell more of the unfinished product than we can of the finished, so that's where the economics are."

The kits which Curly manufactures contain the plans, patterns and pre-cut wood for a variety of small boats and hydroplanes. Eight-foot prams and 10-foot sailing dinghies can be built for under $100, and then sailing kits added to them later if desired.

Larger sailing boats are proportionately more expensive, and come complete with dacron sails and hardware.

To go out and buy a 20 or 30 foot factory-built sailboat costs a large amount of money, Curly offered. A person can save one-half to two-thirds of that by building it himself. "And, if he has any degree of skill and has the time and patience, he can end up with a better product than a factory built job."

THE LAST CURLYCRAFT, such as the one depicted here, is currently for sale at Northwestern Boat. The company will now only manufacture kits for the boater who wants to "make it himself."

Born and raised in Detroit, Curly began building boats from his garage. "Then I bought 800 square feet right where the shop is today," he recalled. "There were woods and fields all around us then." Now, a large office building and modern motel surround the boat shop.

Presently, Curly has 6,000 feet of space divided between his manufacturing and sales areas. He has two full-time employees and one part-time, "though in summer we may have to hire more."

Curly's younger son works with his dad in charge of the service department and helps out with the sales.

NORTHWESTERN BOAT supplies several local school boards with boat kits for their junior high and high school woodworking classes. When the boats are completed, they are sold to the students or put out for bids. The school board uses the funds to buy more kits for the next semester.

Curly acknowledged that in the last few years, several small boat dealers have gone out of business but feels that his business should do well. "With the increased interest in boating and Detroit moving out so that Southfield is really the center of Detroit, I am optimistic."

"My own boat didn't go in the water last year at all," Curly said. "My boating was done on a vessel going from Italy to Greece."

"I do really love sailboats. I just don't have enough opportunity. I'm looking forward to having more time."

Twentieth Century Man To Rediscover Mississippi

Louis Jolliet, Canadian born explorer - fur trader, and Father Jacques Marquette, Jesuit missionary, set out from St. Ignace, Michigan in 1673 to explore the great river to the west called Mississippi.

With them went five French voyageurs, the seven traveling in two birch bark canoes. Their expedition was the first to penetrate the heartland of the new country that was to become the United States 100 years later, according to the Michigan Tourist Council.

On the 300th anniversary of this historic voyage, May 17, 1973, seven 20th century voyageurs will embark on St. Ignace to retrace the route of Jolliet and Father Marquette. The course of their four-month journey will be historically accurate and authenticity will govern other aspects of the trip.

The men will wear hand made costumes fashioned after those worn by their 17th century counterparts. A Jesuit priest will make the journey as Father Marquette. All seven men are learning French and the rhythmic songs of the early voyageurs.

The 20-foot canoes, however, will be constructed of a toned fiberglass with white cedar ribs, that photographs like birchbark.

The route of the 1973 voyage of discovery will cover 2,500 miles, as mapped by Jolliet. From St. Ignace, the canoeists will follow the north shore of Lake Michigan to Point Detour, from there, they will island hop to Green Bay, Wisconsin, make their way up the Fox River, portage to the Wisconsin River then south to the Mississippi continuing south on the Mississippi to the mouth of the Arkansas.

On the return trip, they will take a short cut to Lake Michigan (as did Jolliet and Marquette), following the Illinois River, from a point near Alton, to Chicago then northward to Green Bay.

Cities and towns along the route are planning events and celebrations around the explorers' schedule. The Michigan Tourist Council, the Chamber of Commerce and City of St. Ignace, the Father Marquette Historical Productions Association and the Upper Peninsula Travel and Recreation Association are formulating plans for a gala bon voyage for the voyageurs.

SHERIFF'S DEPT. Marine Safety Division Patrols County Waters

If you are a boater in distress in the waters of Wayne County, you may well be aided by a member of the marine safety division of the county sheriff's department.

Under the direction of Sgt. Fred Reiman, 10 men are assigned seven days a week from May 1 to Nov. 1 from 12 noon to 8 p.m. to patrol the county waters, although there is someone "on call" 24 hours a day year-round.

The division's main responsibility is the recovery of persons who drown, but the patrols are there to enforce marine laws and assist boaters in need of help.

Each officer is a trained diver and has gone through a 16-week course in search and rescue operation, boat handling and underwater body recovery.

They patrol in six boats from the Macomb County line in Lake St. Clair to the Monroe County line in Lake Erie and out as far as the international boundary line.

The longest run the marine safety division would be required to make would be from its land office in Westland to the farthest point of Grosse Ile, according to Sgt. Reiman. "We could be there within 40 minutes," the sergeant reported.

Asked if he had enough men to patrol such a large area, Sgt. Reiman said, "I could use 14 men year-round." His staff is reduced to two persons during the winter months whose main duties are to teach boating safety classes to youngsters aged 12-15 throughout the county.

By state law persons from 12-16 years of age must possess a "safe boating certificate" in order to operate a motorboat of more than six horsepower. The certificate can be earned only by successfully completing this free six-hour state-prescribed course.

Topics include motorboat registration, safety equipment, life preservers, lights, capacity, traffic rules of the water, what to do in case of fire and accident, weather warnings, man-overboard procedures and water skiing rules.

Sgt. Reiman reported that the

New Directory Aids Fisherman

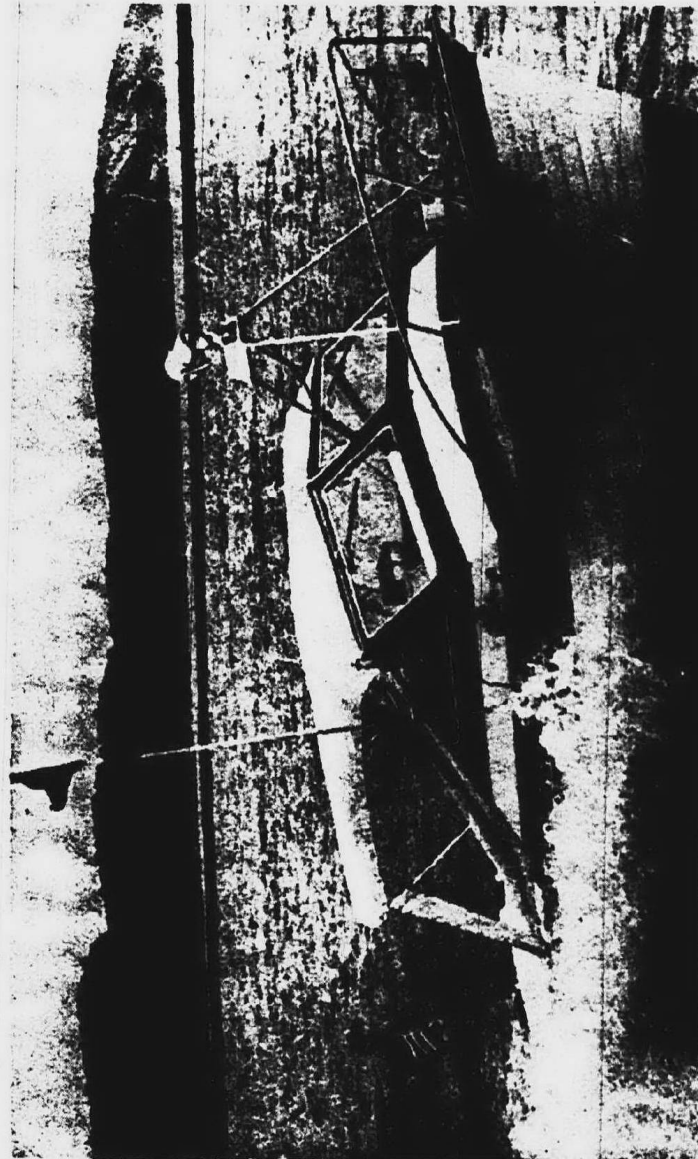

A big new 80-page directory of over 2500 Michigan Mapped Lakes will help many anglers enter the charmed circle of experts.

A mapped lake is actually a hydrographic map. So what's a hydrographic map? "Hydrographic Maps" is simply a high-faluting term for maps showing the various depths of a lake along with other information that is so desirable to have for fishing... such as kind of lake bottom (sand, mud, gravel, etc.).

Suppose you want to fish for bass. You know his feeding habits and at what depths and over what kind of bottom he would be. With a Michigan Hydrographic Map you can see at a glance the general contour of the lake bottom and the exact depth of any given place along with the kind and condition of the bottom.

The book also includes a wealth of other information such as "fish vision," e.g. how far can a fish see when he's at a depth of "X" feet? It's in the book. Also there is a complete listing of Michigan campgrounds -- public and private, fish identification guide, boat launching sites, 44 canoe trips and all lakes and ponds that have been planted with trout -- the quantity and kind.

The Michigan Department of Natural Resources has made all this information available for publication. For a copy send $1 to: Michigan Mapped Lakes, P.O. Box 2235, Lansing, Mich. 48911. The price covers the cost of publishing, handling and mailing.

MARINE SAFETY DIVISION OFFICERS patrol Wayne County waters offering assistance to boaters in distress and enforcing marine laws.

Waters, Both Rapid And Smooth Mark State's Canoeing Avenues

BY LEM MESSEE
Outdoors Writer

The healing solace of a canoe slipping silently along a wilderness stream is less than an hour's drive from any home in Michigan, be the home in Detroit's inner city or at the tip of the Keweenaw Peninsula.

Canoeing in Michigan can be as wild, woolly and remote as the Ontonagon River in the far western Upper Peninsula or as placid as the Huron and Clinton Rivers which ring Detroit, according to an article published last month in The Automobile Club of Michigan's Motor News magazine.

"No matter where you canoe," the article states, "it offers a chance to shed the tensions of modern life at little expense. You don't even have to buy a canoe to get started. Many streams can be negotiated by the rank amateur in a canoe rented at livery right on the streams."

Among the most popular streams with liveries easily accessible to anyone in the Detroit area or anywhere in southeast Michigan are the Huron and Clinton rivers. The 120-mile Huron-Clinton system has many miles of stream running wild and free through uninhabited country.

Liveries on the Huron River are located (1) just west of Wixom Rd in the Proud Lake State Recreation Area; (2) at the dam on the south end of Kent Lake; and (3) above the Argo Pond Dam between Pontiac Trail and N. Main Street in Ann Arbor.

An unexpected surprise is a chance to see wildlife—deer, muskrats, beaver and even mink—as well as a dazzling variety of birds—ducks, geese, herons and dozens of species of lesser birds.

In the northern part of the Lower Peninsula, popular streams with liveries are the Au Sable and its south branch and the Pere Marquette, Pine and Manistee Rivers.

Rentals range from $1 to $2 an hour for short trips and $6 and $8 for the whole day. In addition, arrangements can be made for an extra charge at most liveries for a pickup, should you end your trip away from the livery.

It is emphasized that children can paddle canoes in perfect safety the first time out on rivers such as the Huron and Clinton, whose currents are so gentle they can easily be canoed both upstream and downstream in most places.

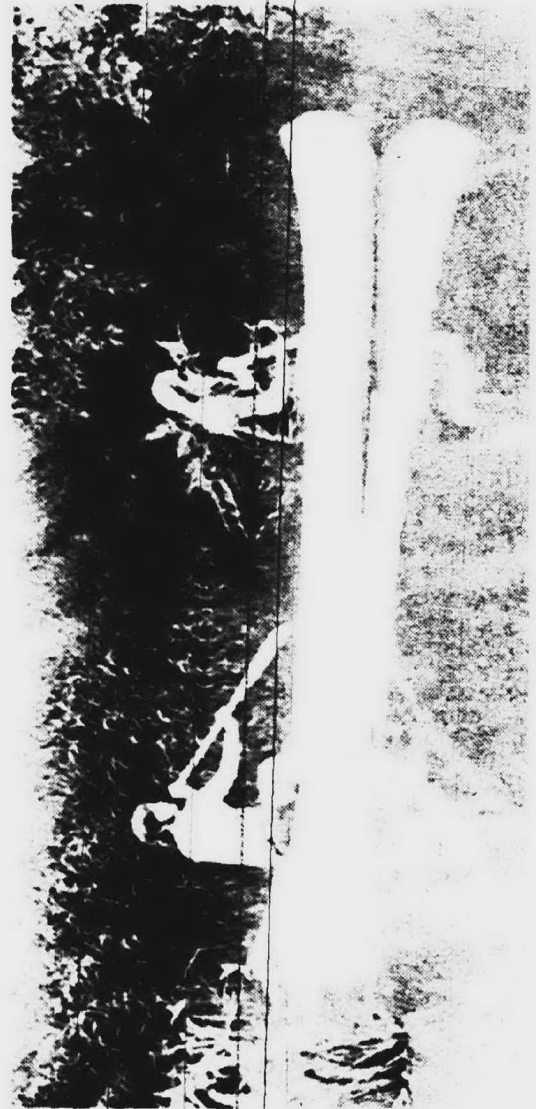

Standard-sized canoes can carry one non-paddling adult passenger or up to four very small children in the middle section. All canoe passengers are required by law to have life preservers—the seat-cushion type for adults and the jacket type for children. Anything taken aboard that might be ruined by water should be kept in closed plastic bags except when in actual use and all cargo should be tied down so items won't float away should you tip. There is no real danger that adults or life-jacket-equipped children will drown if you do tip over, none of Michigan's streams is that deep.

Clothing should be lightweight and sturdy, and tennis shoes or moccasins should be worn. Hobnailed boots or even hard-soled shoes which could damage the canoe and make it difficult to get in and out of the canoe should be avoided.

For a set of detailed charts, available free, of both the Huron and Clinton rivers showing portages, dams, canoe liveries, campgrounds and even stores and restaurants near the streams, write the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, 600 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, 48226, or call 961-5865, and a set of the Huron-Clinton canoe maps will be sent to you postpaid.

TRANQUIL WATERS are the pleasure of this young couple who paddle a canoe on a peaceful day.

WILD, RAPID WATERS challenge the more expert canoeist, equipped with safety vests and ready for anything.

Argo Park Canoe Livery To Re-Open This Spring

The Argo Park Canoe Livery on the Huron River in Ann Arbor will re-open this spring under the direction of the parks and recreation department of the City of Ann Arbor.

Closed since 1971 when the river was drained to work on the Argo Pond Dam, the parks and recreation department anticipates an early May opening.

THE LIVERY was operated on a private basis until the spring of 1971 when the City of Ann Arbor purchased it to add to its recreational program. "A two month stint at managing—before the river was closed—has not given us a great deal to go on," Doug Fasing of the department acknowledged. Fasing recently added the canoe livery to his duties as supervisor of pools, rinks and canoe livery.

"The operation is going to be very modest this first full year," Fasing said. "We have about 45 canoes, some of which are not in great shape. The aluminum ones, which only number about 10, are the only ones we will allow to be portaged. The canvas and wood canoes just will not take it." If sought-after state monies come in, overhauling and expansion is planned.

Fasing and the parks and recreation department envision the canoe livery as just one part of an overall recreational plan which they have for the river frontage which runs the length of Ann Arbor.

"THE RIVER ITSELF is a major attraction," Fasing declared. "It's the most unique and brilliant thing I've ever seen in recreation." Walking trails, nature study, small boat launching and fishing are part of a future plan.

Last fall there was a poisoning of the river to remove "trash" fish. Fasing reported that the quality of the water is good now, and that the carp and suckers have been removed. Several species of game fish have been introduced.

After April 1, you can call the Argo Park Canoe Livery for opening date information at 1-NO 8-7411.

Canoeing Rules

Although canoeing is a relatively safe sport that men, women and children of all ages can participate in and enjoy, there are a few safety rules to remember.

- TAKE TIME TO RELAX -- When you are tired, stop to rest or camp. Accidents are more apt to happen to the fatigued canoeist.

- ALWAYS TAKE ALONG A REFEREE'S WHISTLE -- If you or part of your group is in absolute danger, use the signal of distress known to all outdoorsmen -- three blasts. Three shots, three flares or any other signaling trio means someone needs help.

- NEVER STAND UP IN A CANOE -- Maintain a crouched position as you enter, leave and move about a canoe. The idea is to maintain a low center of gravity.

- HAVE NON-SWIMMERS IN LIFE JACKETS -- Whatever the age if they don't swim, a life jacket is the best kind of insurance. A Coast Guard-approved life preserver is required for each occupant.

- KEEP CANOE, PADDLES AND OTHER EQUIPMENT IN GOOD REPAIR -- Faulty equipment could mean serious trouble on your next trip.

- TAKE ALONG AN EXTRA PADDLE -- Paddles sometimes break unexpectedly. Avoid the problem.

- FORESTALL HAND BLISTERS -- Sanitizing contact points on paddles periodically.

- KNOW WHAT TO DO IN A STORM -- If you are caught in a sudden squall, lie down on the bottom of your canoe. This lowers the center of gravity and makes an upset highly improbable.

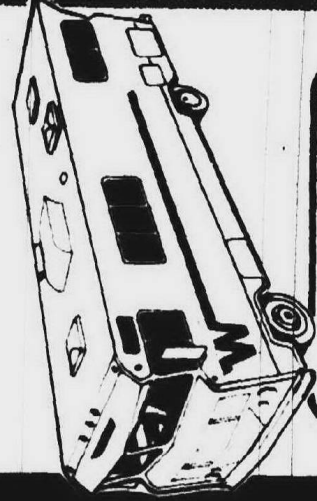

- TAKE ALONG SOME ROPE -- A couple of extra pieces of rope -- 20 feet or so -- will come in handy for something, sometime.

A novice canoeist should avoid trips through rough and unfamiliar waters. He should choose routes of well-defined portage trails, small lakes, rivers with light or no rapids and routes of moderate distance.

When in search of good canoeing waters, start with camping directories. They often carry maps and information on the better canoeing waters.

Canoeing instruction classes are provided by most universities, community colleges, YMCAs and scouting programs.

MARCH 17, 1973
Observer Newspapers & Observer-Enterprise & Observer-City Observer
Observer-News & Observer-Enterprise & Observer-City Observer

LONG TABLES across the entire length of the room make club parties of 1,200 or more possible. It doesn't make any difference whether there are 1,200 or 120, all enjoy good eating and all have fun.

THE GIRLS can pick and choose from all types of dishes at the huge smorgasbord dinners offered at the parties. This shows a happy, smiling group making the rounds and they have good seats for the races too.

...And Still Enjoy Top Racing? Parties, Polkas, Surprises

things go as Wilson hopes, then Wolverine's mutual handle should better the records set a year ago. The stakes program is one of the most impressive in the midwest with 10 early closing events slated during Grand Circuit week - June 8 through June 16 - and the historic Motor City pace on Friday, May 25.

Grand Circuit week traditionally is one of the best of the entire summer, bringing the nation's best two, three and four-year-old trotters and pacers to the area.

For instance, Super Bowl, winner of the Hambletonian for three-year-old trotters, and Strike Out, champion of the three-year-old pacers completed last spring and strange enough both lost.

Then there was Albatross in the four-year-old pace and Savoir in the four-year-old trot. The first mentioned was voted "horse of the year," and the second ranked high with aged trotters.

Four of Wolverine's stakes have values of $40,000 or more. The two Matron four-year-old events figure to go for $50,000 plus and the two three-year-old stakes are expected to have purses of more than $40,000.

The complete list of Grand Circuit events:

FRIDAY, JUNE 8 - $40,000 Matron three-year-old trot $8,000 Matron three-year-old filly trot.

MONDAY, JUNE 11 - $15,000 Matron two-year-old pace.

TUESDAY, JUNE 12 - $8,500

Matron two-year-old filly trot $8,500 Matron two-year-old filly pace.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13 - $15,000 Matron two-year-old trot. $8,500 Matron three-year-old filly pace.

THURSDAY, JUNE 14 - $50,000 Matron four-year-old pace.

FRIDAY, JUNE 15 - $50,000 Matron four-year-old trot. $40,000 Matron three-year-old pace.

Imagine a harness racing track in Michigan offering $90,000 in purses for two stakes on the same evening. Sounds unbelievable but that's the story on the final night of the Roaring Grand.

In addition, Wolverine will present a series of Michigan colt stakes during the closing night. It will be the initial appearance of the state's better two and three-year-old trotters and pacers. Entrants become eligible with their performances in the weekly non-betting colt events, sponsored by the track.

All in all it looks like another big year... the only thing that may hurt in the early weeks is the weather. After last year's miserable conditions most of the season, track officials at all plants are looking forward to a better break from the weatherman.

If he smiles, then 1973 could be the best year in a long time. If he frowns as in 1972, then it will take some excellent promotions to keep the fans coming.

That's exactly what the personable Wolverine boss has in mind.

What's Ahead In Racing

The opening of Wolverine Raceway's 82-night meeting marked the first of the major harness racing programs in Michigan.

Northville Downs ended its 39 night winter meeting last week and Jackson-at Northville had a 24-night stand in January.

The racing schedule for the remainder of the year for trotters and pacers includes:

WOLVERINE RACEWAY - Thursday, March 15 - Tuesday, June 19 (82 nights with no racing on Good Friday, April 20)

NORTHVILLE DOWNS - Wednesday, June 20 - Tuesday, July 31 (36 nights)

HAZEL PARK - Wednesday, Aug. 1 - Saturday, Nov. 3 (82 nights)

JACKSON RACEWAY - Thursday, Aug. 23 - Saturday, Oct. 27 (57 nights).

JACKSON-AT-NORTHVILLE - Monday, Nov. 5 - Monday, Dec. 31. (47 nights, no racing on Christmas, Dec. 25).

Track Shatters Numerous Records During '72 Meet

It will be a long time before Detroit area and outstate Michigan followers of the pacers and trotters as well as members of Wolverine Raceway's official family forget the 1972 season.

That is, it will be remembered until the 1973 campaign when the big mile plant at the Detroit Race Course hopes to shatter all of the records set a year ago.

The 1972 season will be recalled as the one in which the great Albatross won the Matron four-year-old pace in 1:58.2, fastest mile of the season, and attracted a crowd of 18,273 which wagered $1,024,101. That was the first million-dollar handle for Wolverine and the first ever for a harness racing track in Michigan.

The crowd was the state's second largest and definitely proved Michiganders wanted to see the pacer hailed as the greatest ever to race in North America.

A year earlier, The Bird had won the Matron three-year-old pace and packed the stands. His appearance sent the mutual handle past the $900,000 mark for the first time in Michigan with a total of $924,444.

The season also brought the usual upsets during Wolverine's Grand Circuit week. Known as the track where the falls star, fans saw Super Bowl, winner of the Hambletonian and hailed as trotter of the year, and Strikeout, the Little Brown Jug king, go down to amazing defeats.

All told Wolverine equaled or bettered 49 wagering and attendance marks during its 82-night season. A few records because it was the longest meeting for the track but the majority were honest to goodness records that would have been set had the plant operated for 60 or 70 nights.

The big one, of course, was the million dollar night. It was a matter of pride for Vice President and General Manager Richard S. Wilson who saw Wolverine become the first track in the area to pass the $300,000, $400,000, $500,000, $600,000, $700,000, $800,000 and $900,000 hurdles during his 22-year association with the plant.

The truth of the matter is that Wolverine is the only Michigan harness racing track to go over $900,000. It accomplished the feat six times during 1972. With the exception of Albatross nights, all came on Saturdays with the following figures: $997,697, $910,633, $902,270 and $900,325.

The season average handle was $607,127, bettering the previous high of $572,793 of 1971. It should be stressed that the 1972 mark was set over a period of 82 nights which included several weeks in late winter and early spring.

The average nightly attendance was 7,214 with an all-time high total turnstile count of 591,534. Total wagering was $49,784,390 contrasted to $43,438,890 for 72 nights in 1971.

Wolverine President Frederick VanLennep and Wilson have never regretted the decision to change the racing strip from a half-mile to the big mile track that produced more records in two years than anyone thought possible.

The big mile surface produced 14 two-minute miles, most in the nation when the meeting ended in mid-June. Five trotting and six pacing records were set.

The fastest trotting mile was the 1:59.2 by Michigan owned Dearborn Star who suffered an accident a week later while enroute to another track that ended his racing for the year.

Albatross clocked the fastest pacing mile with his 1:58.2. Tarzan Hanover was the winningest horse with six victories followed by King's Butler and Steady Sports with five each.

Track marks for trotters included: two-year-old filly, Colonial Charm, 2:05; three-year-old filly, Delmonica Hanover, 2:01; three-year-old gelding, Savor, 1:59.4; aged horse, Dearborn Star, 1:59.2; and aged gelding, Top Freight, 2:00.

New standards for pacers: two-year-old filly, Real Hilarious, 2:01; two-year-old gelding, Count Kef, 2:05; three-year-old gelding, J.R. Rocky, 2:00; four-year-old gelding, Big Kahuna, 1:59.2; and aged gelding, Yankee Creed, 1:59.2.

Perhaps the biggest upset of the year was in the $25,000 Matron three-year-old trot. It all came about when Super Bowl, with Stan Dancer at the reins, appeared to hang in the final furlong after holding a length lead. Mr. Colwell, a little known Michigan trotter, sped by on the inside to flit past the super star to win by a half-length. Driver Charley Norris had the Michigan colt flying the long stretch and just did have enough to win in 2:02.3.

Owned by Duane and Minnie Greenlee, of Milford, Mr. Colwell paid a whopping $45-20 for the win.

Fans had hardly recovered from that amazing setback when they saw the Wolverine jinx strike again in the three-year-old pace. Strike Out, everybody's choice of sophomore pacer of the year, was whipped by a fast-closing Breed winner (Bret Hanover), who came from seventh at the head of the stretch to win by a length in 1:59.2.

Russ Butler (Adios Butler), a four-year-old who barely qualified for the championship finale in the $24,950 Motor City with a fifth in the second elimination heat, had the most when needed and captured the title for Driver Eddie Cobb in 2:00.3.

Big Kahuna (Quick Pick), piloted by Gene Riegler, closed fast to take second but was still a length and a half back at the wire. Big Kahuna had a 1:59 fastest time in the eliminations. Sailing Heat (Race Time) won the first qualifier in 1:59.4.

With Speedy Crown, 1971 Hambletonian champ, scratched at the last minute with a virus, Savor (Star's Pride) encountered little opposition in the four-horse $57,345 Matron four-year-old trot. Driver Jimmy Arthur sent Savor to the top from the start and was under the wire with four lengths to spare over second place Gunsmith in 1:59.4.

Tom Wilburn won the driving championship with a winning percentage of 34.1 with 23 wins in 95 starts. Chris Boring, of Adrian, was the winningest reinsman with 46 firsts, one more than Canadian star Greg Wright.

WOLVERINE

- We supervise the Michigan colt stakes program including the Wolverine and Michigan futurities and the Charley Coon Memorial pace with a value of more than $1,000,000 this year.
- We supervise all events at the county fairs that lead the crowning of the two and three year old trotting and pacing champions for the Northern and Southern divisions.
- We represent all standardbred owners, drivers, trainers and grooms at all tracks in Michigan.
- We handle all nominations for all Michigan colt stakes and futurities from the foal through the three year old stage.
- We work towards a goal of better purses, better conditions and better racing in the state of Michigan.
