LEWIS ROBINSON

Mailman Is Hero Of Fire

By MAURIE WALKER

A Plymouth mailman is credited with leading to safety an 89-year-old Northville Township woman from her burning home.

Lewis Robinson, a 24-year postal service veteran, was making his rounds Wednesday morning when he noticed smoke pouring from a house on Reservoir Road.

"I knew the lady was old and might be alone so I raced up to the house, which by this time had flames pouring out the upstairs windows," Robinson said.

Robinson said he ran into the smoke-filled house calling for the woman.

"It was almost impossible to see," Robinson said. "I did spot a cat who ran out of the house when it heard me yell."

Unable to locate the woman, Robinson went out to the side porch where he spotted her.

"She was just standing there. Being deaf, she hadn't heard me. She seemed to be dazed."

Robinson led her off the porch and to a neighbor's house.

"I heard the fire trucks coming, and since this is a dead-end road, I hurried out of there so I wouldn't block the way."

Mrs. Bernice Marshall lives in the house at 43564 Reservoir and was alone at the time.

Northville Fire Dept. Lt. Louis Westfall said the fire apparently started in the living room and swept upstairs. The cause is undetermined, he said.

The interior of the house was destroyed, Westfall said.

The following day, several postal patrons on Robinson's route put out letters of commendation and thank you in their mail boxes. But they weren't meant to be mailed by Robinson - they were addressed to him.

"Ever since he's been on this route, it's been more than just pushing the mail in the mailbox," said Mrs. William Switzer of 43403 Reservoir Rd.

Historic Garber Farm Sale Near; Rezoning Hearing Set

By DOUG JOHNSON

Agreements have been reached between Ralph Garber and the Thompson-Brown Realty Co. for the sale of his farm on Territorial Road.

The picturesque white farm house and red barn have been Plymouth Township landmarks for decades. Plymouth Township itself was founded in ceremonies conducted in one of the barns on the property 146 years ago.

The township held a special 140th anniversary celebration on the grounds of the farm in 1967.

Garber declined to comment on the sale price of the farm as did a spokesman from Thompson-Brown.

Garber said the small barn and house would be kept by the developers as an out-lot, but that he would be leaving the farm because it was too much to maintain.

Garber, who is 75, lives on the farm with his wife, who is 74. The couple came to the community more than 20 years ago, and Garber gained local prominence by serving on the township board for eight years.

A public hearing on Thompson-Brown's proposal for the farm has been scheduled by the township planning commission for Aug. 15.

Its proposal calls for a special residential unit development (RUD) district. It allows the developer flexibility on lot sizes if he agrees to create open space in the subdivision. The subdivision would be called Walnut Creek.

Current zoning on the farm calls for one-half acre lots and that would be maintained, according to planning commission chairman Russell Ash.

The open space would most likely be the area on the eastern edge of the farm where a tiny creek runs, a so-called flood plain.

Ash said the developers have indicated "no intention" of building apartments on the land, although the RUD zoning designation would allow it.

Two planning commission members indicated an interest in saving some of the woods on the land as well, Ash said.

Ash explained the RUD concept:

"The residential unit development allows certain uses where there are features in the land that make it difficult for homes to be built on the entire property. It gives the developer more flexibility by setting aside open space and allowing him to reduce lot sizes below the present requirements."

Ash said the RUD option allowed about 35 per cent of the land to be used for multiple housing.

Garber told the Plymouth Mail and Observer that he sold to Thompson-Brown partly because of its reputation.

"I could have $500 an acre more if we had agreed to seek 90 foot lots," Garber said.

"But I didn't want to because when I drive by here, I want the farm to be a credit to the community. I have always tried to keep the place up. It takes a lot of work just to keep the yard mowed."

The Garbers will remain in the Plymouth area and are currently seeking a place to live.

The farm covers about 55 acres. Current plans call for keeping the house and one barn as a special lot. About eight acres would be used as open space.

Other buildings, which include a milkhouse and a horse barn, would presumably be torn down.

"We like the area and expect to stay here," Garber said. Garber still owns two other farms, one in Oakland County, one in Washtenaw County. And he owned other farms in the Detroit area before moving to the one on Territorial.

He recently sold 80 acre plots on Beck Road and Ford and Sheldon roads.

"I think what Thompson-Brown will build will be a credit to the township. I don't want my neighbors or the community mad at me after we leave here," Garber said.

Garber said the final deal was not complete but that he had received a down payment on the farm from the developers.

The spokesman from Thompson-Brown said any discussion of their plans for the farm would be "premature." He said the agreement to buy the farm was predicated on reaching accord with the planning commission and the township board on zoning for the farm.

The farm is known to be very valuable because of its prime location on Territorial. The land is adjacent to Beacon Hills, a development of prestigious homes built a few years ago by Loren Gould.

Township Contests Petitions For Annexation

By W. EDWARD WENDOVER

Plymouth Township's attorney, Don Morgan, will be present at Wednesday's State Boundary Commission meeting on annexation of part of the township to Plymouth in order to oppose the move.

Morgan's presentation, sanctioned by the Plymouth Township Board, will maintain that the 1956 petition to annex a corridor along Plymouth Road to the city is insufficient because of discrepancies in the legal description and in the signatures on the annexation petitions.

The State Boundary Commission hearing on the long-standing petition will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the first floor conference room of the State Treasury Building in Lansing.

Morgan told The Plymouth Mail & Observer that the Plymouth Township engineer has been working with him to show that there are errors contained in the physical description and map of the area proposed to be annexed.

Included in the area proposed to be annexed is one portion of land which has since been annexed to the city and also the Burroughs Corp. plant.

The city commission voted some years back to support withdrawing the 1956 petition, but state boundary laws have no provision for withdrawing actions which have been filed.

The city is not expected to make a presentation at Wednesday's hearing.

Next in line on the State Boundary Commission agenda for the Plymouth area behind the annexation petition is a consolidation petition filed by Dr. Gary Hall.

If the Boundary Commission rejects the annexation petition, the consolidation petition would then be assigned a hearing date in the regular schedule of the commission.

Representatives of the State Treasury Department, under which the Boundary Commission functions, have been in Plymouth recently checking signatures and the property description on the 1956 annexation petition.

Their report will be presented at the hearing Wednesday.

Hadassah Campaigns

The Metropolitan Chapter of Hadassah has begun a membership campaign called "Woman Power."

The newly enrolled members and their sponsors will be honored at a special brunch preceding the chapter meeting that opens the fall season at Adas Shalom Synagogue in Southfield, on Tuesday, Sept. 11.

Guest speaker for the day will be Mrs. Max N. Matzkin, national president of Hadassah.

Program Expanded At Continuum Center

The National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH) has awarded a $80,000 grant to Oakland University's Continuum Center. NIMH is funded by the federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW).

The grant will be used to train volunteers in existing community groups to work as paraprofessional counselors. Trainees will help their peers to cope with the inevitable crises of daily living, especially as they relate to the specific problems of that group.

Leadership training has already been given to alcoholics, aging nuns, employment advisors, probation counselors and others.

It is part of a change in focus at the center, where the emphasis on middle-aged women will be shifted to an emphasis on men and women of all ages. The center has been renamed "The Continuum Center for Adult Counseling and Leadership Training" to reflect this change.

"Our society has groomed us for a life where we are supposed to live happily ever after, and hasn't taught us the skills to cope with transition and crisis in our lives," said Eleanor Driver, director of the center.

"This doesn't mean therapy, it means living skills. Human relations can be a learned discipline," she said.

The center was founded with a Kellogg Foundation grant in 1965 to help mature women move back into employment, education or meaningful volunteer work. The staff soon discovered that it takes more than aptitude tests to make that transition. Women need to explore their lives before setting goals.

"There are not enough psychologists and educators to provide this kind of preventive mental health but one woman can help another woman to make this transition, because she's been there," Mrs. Driver said. "We trained mature women to work as paraprofessional group leaders for our clients, and other community groups started asking us to train their volunteers because the process works."

"The advantage is that resource people are drawn from the group which needs help in a crisis situation. It's not outsiders saying 'this is how you do it'. It's insiders saying 'we have learned to cope successfully, so you can learn too,'" she said.

The grant pays staff time for Mrs. Driver, Dr. Sylvia Fink, a psychologist, and Dr. Elinor Waters, a counselor, to design special programs and conduct leadership training for volunteer groups in the community. This, of necessity, will be on a limited basis for the first year of the HEW grant.

In addition to leadership training, the center also offers programs to the public during fall and winter semesters.

Fall programs this year include personal growth and career development for both men and women, group programs for divorced persons, marriage assessment groups for couples, communications workshops, creative problem solving, yoga and drama.

Arthritics' Dinner Set

Arthritics and their families from all over the metropolitan area will gather in the St. Regis Hotel in Detroit Tuesday, Aug. 7, for a dinner honoring Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Shafer.

The Shafers, whose home is in Wilmington, Del., are founders of Arthritics and Friends United, a non-profit organization aimed at helping those who have arthritis and at searching for a cure for the disease.

Mrs. Frances Shafer, who had to forego plans for a career as a professional violinist when she developed symptoms of arthritis in her late teens, has since devoted her time to helping others with the disease.

She completed college and has taught college courses. Her husband, a Protestant clergyman, has worked with her in the foundation.

Arthritics and Friends United has local offices at 124 S. Woodward, Birmingham, and reservations for the dinner may be made there.

Dr. Jeanne Riddle, Wayne State University associate professor who has worked with Dr. Gilbert Blum at Ford Hospital doing research into rheumatoid arthritis, will be speaker for the dinner.

Her topic will be "New Structural Findings in Rheumatoid Arthritis."

Newlyweds Ride In Antique Cars

Antique cars were used to carry the wedding party from the church to the reception following the wedding of Jacquelyn L. Dunlap and Craig C. Foust.

The wedding took place in First United Presbyterian Church, Plymouth, with the Rev. Philip Rogers Magee officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dunlap of Auburn Street, Plymouth, and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. F.B. Foust of Woodland Street, Plymouth.

Zajac of Detroit and Debbie Diekmann of Plymouth were the bridesmaids.

They wore pink, lilac and yellow floral print gowns edged with white lace at the necklines, and carried French bouquets in baskets.

Craig Hondorp of Plymouth was best man. The ushers were Joel Dunlap, the bride's brother, Mark LaPointe of Livonia, Brian Foust, the bridegroom's brother, and David Flammer of Alma.

The reception for 100 guests was held in the home of the bridegroom's parents. The antique cars used belonged to the parents of the bride and bridegroom. They include a 1927 Chevrolet station wagon, a 1925 Packard touring car, a 1931 Lincoln limousine and a 1931 Packard sedan.

The bride is a June 1973 graduate of Eastern Michigan University. The bridegroom graduated from Alma College in June.

Kathryn Gerbec Is Bride

Kathryn Mary Gerbec, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gerbec of Livonia, was married to Donald John McKay recently in St. Collette Catholic Church in Livonia.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Joyce McKay of Bangor, Mich., and the late Donald J. McKay Sr.

The bride, a 1969 graduate of Ladywood High School, received her BA from Michigan State University in 1973 and taught sixth grade last year in Mason, Mich.

The bridegroom graduated from Michigan State University in 1972 and is a law student at the University of Michigan. He is completing his master's degree in journalism and is employed for the summer by the Detroit Free Press.

After a trip through Canada, including Montreal, the Shakespear Festival at Stratford, Ont., and the Mari-posa Folk Festival in Toronto, the newlyweds are living in Ann Arbor.

Kremer-Hird Vows Spoken

Lynn Kremer and David Hird were married recently in a morning ceremony in Martha - Mary Chapel with the Rev. Elmer Beyers officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Kremer of University Park Drive, Livonia, and Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Hird of Gaylord.

The bride, given by her father in marriage, wore an ivory linen, empire waist gown trimmed in lace and a chapel length veil. She carried a bouquet of roses and stephanotis.

Karen Watkowski, maid of honor, wore a gown with a blue plaid circular skirt and a solid blue bodice. She carried a basket of daisies.

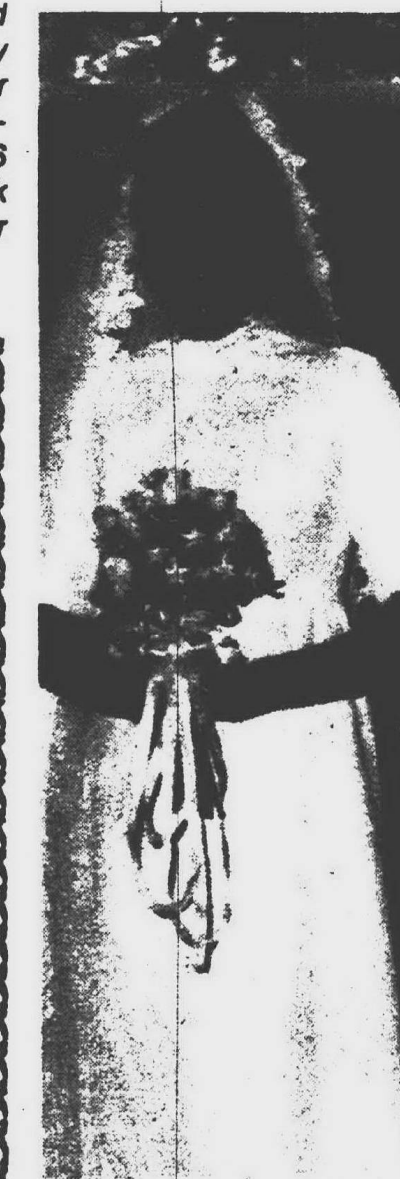

The bridesmaids were Carla Tibble, of Flint, sister of the bridegroom, and Joan Merrill of Detroit.

Dana Hird, of Gaylord, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Robert Tibble of Flint, brother-in-law of the bridegroom and Greg and Brian Kremer, brothers of the bride, both of Livonia.

For the ceremony and reception in Dearborn Inn, Mrs. Kremer wore a black and white print jersey gown and Mrs. Hird, a yellow print gown.

The couple honeymooned on Beaver Island and will live in Flint.

The bride is a 1969 graduate of Franklin High School and a 1973 Michigan State University graduate. Her husband graduated from MSU in 1972 and teaches in Flint.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
BUILDING BOARD OF APPEALS
CITY OF PLYMOUTH, MICHIGAN
At a meeting of the Building Board of Appeals to be held in the Commission Chamber of the City Hall on Thursday, August 9, 1973, at 7:30 P.M., a public hearing will be held to consider the following:
APPEAL CASE NO. 7-1 - ROBERT W. STINE, 2285 Northwestern Southfield, Michigan, requesting permission to move the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Freight House from its present location to Lot 589, Assessor's Plymouth Plat No. 17, located on the east side of Starkweather Avenue at the railroad, in a B-3 zoned district, which is in conflict with Section 8.4 (201b) of Chapter 95 of the City of Plymouth Code, and Section 302.5 of the BOCA Building Code, 1970 Edition.
Section 8.4 (201b) of Chapter 95 designates B-3 zoning as being within Fire District No. 2, and Section 302.5 of the BOCA Building Code, 1970 Edition, prohibits a building of frame construction from being moved from one lot to another within the fire district.
All interested parties will be given an ample opportunity to participate in the hearing and, at the close of said hearing, all comments and suggestions of those citizens participating will be considered by the Building Board of Appeals prior to rendering its decision.

strike. The dispute arose regarding the contract between Anchor and Local 985 of Galan Mfg. All differences have now been resolved, the company reported.

Reader Writes: 'Pass Rezoning'

EDITOR:

There is no end to the assaults on one's intelligence and sense of humanity these days. I can close my eyes and easily put myself into medieval times when I read the comments and the attitudes like those of Mr. and Mrs. Carley, concerning the rezoning of the property for the home for retarded adults.

We are always striving to update our medical methods of helping and caring for mentally retarded people. To return to such narrow thinking is to throw all the effort involved away. I find it sad that the premise that the retarded need to be cared for in a humane and loving way, is still debatable with some people.

I sincerely hope the next vote on this rezoning matter passes because it is very important to a community to address itself to the problems of life. Let's face it, there are retarded people in this world, and in Plymouth, and they should not be shut away from our sight. This would not only short-change them, but ourselves.

Maybe it would be best to turn the lot into another "paved paradise" to make the best use of such a valuable piece of property."

Rezoning On Agenda For City

PLYMOUTH
At its meeting Monday night, the Plymouth City Commission is expected to decide on the rezoning of two lots at Wing and Deer streets for a home for retarded adults.

The matter was considered at the July 23 commission meeting but failed in a 3-3 vote. The seventh commissioner, Robert Sincok, was on vacation then and is expected to cast the deciding vote Monday night.

According to Jan M. Pias, president of the Community Opportunity Center which is requesting the rezoning from commercial to multiple housing designation, the proposed facility would house a maximum of 16 retarded adults and would look like a large house.
The rezoning has been recommended by the Plymouth Planning Commission and the city planner.

In addition to the rezoning matter, which drew several residents to the July 23 meeting, the commission agenda for Monday night includes approval of a two-year pact with the city police.

The commission meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. and is held in the commission chambers at city hall.

TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH
BOARD OF TRUSTEES
REGULAR MEETING
JULY 24, 1973
The meeting was called to order by Supervisor McLaren at 8:00 P.M. All members were present except Mrs. Richardson, on vacation.
READING, CORRECTING AND APPROVAL OF MINUTES
Regular meeting, July 18, 1973. Mrs. Holmes moved that the minutes be read and approved. The Board members agreed. Mr. Ash moved that the minutes be approved as corrected. Supported by Mr. Overholt and carried unanimously. With Mrs.
Burke and Mrs. Holmes abstaining, as they were absent from the meeting.
READING, CORRECTING AND APPROVAL OF BILLS Mr. Overholt moved that the list of bills in the Grand Total Amount of $90,348.13 be approved for payment. Supported by Mr. Ash and carried unanimously.
AWARDING OF BIDS Extension of Water Main on North Territorial and Ridge Roads. Mrs. Holmes moved that the Board accept the recommendation of the Township Engineer for the extension of the Water Main on North Territorial and Ridge Road, and the bid be awarded to the Kerry Company in the amount of $125,012.00. Supported by Mr. Burke and carried unanimously.
(b) Approval to transfer funds from Receiving to Construction as needed to pay engineering fees and contract. Mr. Burke moved that the Board approve the transfer of funds from Receiving to Construction as needed to pay engineering and contract fees. Supported by Mr. Millington and carried unanimously.
Insurance Bills - Re: Letter of recommendation relative to awarding of bids.
Following a lengthy discussion on the bids, Mr. Ash moved that the Supervisor report back at the next regular meeting with recommendations, together with reasons for recommending a specific bid and to allow the Supervisor to call on whichever firm he needs to arrive at this recommendation; also, that the Supervisor request a 30 day extension on the present policy. Supported by Mr. Millington and carried unanimously.
Communications and Reports W. J. Phillips, 4121 Greenbrier, Re: Complaint about penalty on water bill. The above communication was read by Mrs. Kennyon. Mr. Ash stated, in defense of Mr. Phillips' remark regarding the unfair charge for sewage disposal, stating that the Township paid $22,000 for water during June and $17,000 for sewage disposal; this was approximately 50% of the water bill for sewage, and this was the same percentage as charges to customers. Mr. Millington stated that the question here was the penalty. Mrs.
Holmes said that, according to the Ordinance, the time was 10 days, and that perhaps the Township should amend the Ordinance changing the time to 15 days. Mr. Ash suggested 20 days. Mr. Overholt moved that the D.P.W. Superintendent submit a recommendation to the Board to amend the Ordinance to read 20 days for water bills. Supported by Mr. Millington and carried unanimously.
OLD BUSINESS Helen Richardson, Clerk. Re: Salary Continuation or Disability Income Plan. (Tabbed June 28, 1972, for presentation to D.P.W. and Fire Department negotiators.) Mr. Overholt moved that this item be tabled until the next regular meeting. Supported by Mr. Burke and carried unanimously.
Purchase Bonds Re: Report from residents on Ridgeway Drive as to their interest in a sanitary sewer. Mr. McLaren stated the results as follows: 33 residents contacted; 9 responded "yes", 17 responded "no" and 7 did not respond. Mr. Whitaker stated that he had talked with 5 residents that responded "no", and they thought they would have to look up immediately; he felt that perhaps the letter was somewhat confusing. He stated that he did have problems, and that several of his neighbors also had problems. Discussion followed regarding those who were having problems and how many.
Indeed, would look up to the sewer. Mr. Burke asked for an estimated cost.
Mr. Haskell stated, "about $20.00 per foot, or a rough figure of $55,000, including Engineering fees." Mr. Burke asked if bonds were available. Mrs.
Holmes stated that there were funds available. Mr. Millington moved that the Board authorize the Engineer to proceed with plans for a sewer on Ridgeway Drive, either as an individual package, or as an add-on to another sewer project. Supported by Mr. Overholt, and carried unanimously.
Public Hearing Re: Reduction of Public Hearing Subdivision No. 2
Bond 94-71-100. Mr. Ash moved that, in light of Mrs. Richardson's letter of July 3, 1973, regarding this bond reduction, the Board should accept the recommendation of the Township Clerk and approve the reduction for Bond 94-71-100.
Supported by Mr. Burke and carried unanimously.
Loans Clerk: Gould Development Co. Re: Requesting waiver of tap fees when connection is made at the house located at 4200 Ann Arbor Trail. Supported by Mr. Ash and carried unanimously.
NEW BUSINESS - Gerald Burke, Trustee. Re: Plymouth-Canton Recreation Authority - Policies and procedures. Mr. Burke stated that this was not intended to be an agenda item, but that he would like the feelings, comments and/or suggestions from the Board so that he could report back to the Authority.
Mr. Overholt moved this item be removed from the agenda until Mr.
Burke wished it placed back on the agenda. Supported by Mr. Millington and carried unanimously.
Dave and Doreen Burke, 28 Hamilton, City of Plymouth. Re: Requesting permission from the Board of Trustees to open a motor bike rental at the Recreation Site. Mr. Burksbacher stated there would be problems if there was a rental of motor bikes on the property now, as there would be a guard there only two hours each night. Mr. Overholt stated that private enterprises was not in the best interests of the Township residents. Mr. Overholt moved that the request to open a motor bike rental at the Recreation Site be denied. Supported by Mr.
Burke and carried unanimously.
J.D. McLaren, Supervisor. Re: Flood Insurance. Following discussion Mr. Ash moved that the Board would not attempt to become qualified under the Flood Insurance Programs at this time. Supported by Mr. Burke and carried unanimously.

Standard Oil Allocation for gasoline. Re: Township Supply. Mr. McLaren stated this was on the agenda only in the event that Standard Oil could not fulfill their commitment to the Township. He had been advised by Standard Oil that there is no problem for the immediate future, however. Mr. Ash moved that the Supervisor be given the authority to purchase gasoline at outside sources at his discretion. Supported by Mr. Overholt and carried unanimously.
John Gould, Secretary, Township of Plymouth Planning Commission. Re: Action taken at their meeting of June 28, 1973 - Clarence A. DuCharme. Application No. 222, Rezoning of four (4) lots behind Fiesta Rancho from T-0 and C-1 to C-2. (Planning Commission recommended approval.) As a member of Plymouth Community Planning Commission recommended approval at their meeting of July 17, 1973. Mr. Ash stated that he was not present at this Planning Commission meeting, but he would approve the recommendation for the following reasons:
(1) parking area would be gone with the widening of Ann Arbor Road.
(2) Building space was needed.
(3) Fiesta Rancho was using the existing alley for their purposes at the present time. The two lots behind the alley would be used for space to park cars and customer parking. He stated that it was not good to put commercial next to residential, but this could be controlled to an extraordinary degree through the site plan when it is presented. He also stated that this would be one of many requests as a result of the widening of Ann Arbor Road. Mrs. Holmes moved that the Board accept the recommendation of the Planning Commission and grant the change in zoning of four lots behind Fiesta Rancho from T-0 and C-1 to C-2. Supported by Mr. Overholt and carried unanimously.
Dr. E. J. McLendon, 6940 Oakview. Re: Redesignated as a member of Plymouth Community Planning Commission. The letter of resignation was read by Mrs. Kenyon. Mr. Burke moved that the Board accept the resignation with regrets, and the Township extend the courtesy of forwarding a "thank you" to Dr. McLendon. Supported by Mr. Ash and carried unanimously.
Frank Hildebrand, Plymouth Board. Re: Requesting Board's recommendation for "Full Year Class C Liquor License for 'Palm Lane' bowling operation. Mr.
Morant appeared before the Board and stated that the Board had already indicated its approval of the license at the meeting of October 10, 1972, subject to construction of their building and that he was now asking for formal approval.
Mr. Burke moved that the Board recommend a "Full Year Class C Liquor License for 'Palm Lane' bowling operation. Supported by Mrs. Holmes and carried unanimously.
W. A. Leonard, 412 West President, Plymouth Elks Club. Re: Requesting permission for annual picnic sale to be held on Friday and Saturday, August 3 and 4, 1973, by the Plymouth Elks Club.
Supported by Mr. Ash and carried unanimously.
Brendan-Smith Association. Re: Wagonway Estates Condominiums and Plymouth Square Apartments Storm Sewer Maintenance. Following the reading of Mr. Haskell's letter of recommendation, and discussion on the project,
Mr. Ash moved that the Board accept the recommendation of the Township Engineer for the extension of Plymouth Township Drain No. 1 and request the Wayne County Drain Commission to take jurisdiction. Supported by Mr. Millington and carried unanimously.
John Gould, Secretary, Plymouth Township Planning Commission. Re: Action taken at their meeting of July 18, 1973 - Stewart Oldford, Application No. 228.
Approval of the R.U.D. contract for Olney Farms Subdivision No. 2 and approval of the Final Preliminary Plat for same. Mrs. Kenyon stated that there was a minor word change, plus another paragraph on Page 9. She stated that the additions were agreeable to both the Township Attorney and Mr. Oldford's attorney. Mr. Ash moved that the Supervisor and Clerk be authorized to sign the contract, subject to the Developer approving the changes recommended by his attorney and Township Attorney. Mr. Margas. Supported by Mr. Ash and carried unanimously. Mr. Ash moved that the Board approve the Final Preliminary Plat for Olney Farms Subdivision No. 2. Supported by Mr. Over-holt and carried unanimously.
Wayne County Road Commission. Re: Requesting Board's decision on a petition to abandon and discontinue a part of Beacon Hill Drive and Kevin Avenue.
Mr. Ash moved that the Board approve the petition to abandon and discontinue a part of Beacon Hill Drive and Kevin Avenue, as enclosed on the Plat Plan.
Supported by Mr. Burke and carried unanimously.
Mrs. Mary Ellen Kenyon, 28 Hamilton, Michigan. Re: Requesting re-evaluation of the Planning Commission's fee for a Conditional Use Permit. Mr. Ash informed the Board of the background in regard to the Planning Commission in connection to this request. He stated that Mrs. Nell had desired to open a Montsanti Nursery School, and that she intended to use the facilities of an existing Church, and this would require a Conditional Use Permit. Mr. Ash stated that Mrs. Nell's contention was that no building would be done and, therefore, the Commission's fee, the Engineering fee and the Average fee would not apply.
Mrs. Holmes moved that, in the case of Mrs. Nell only the Planning Commission fee of $750.00 be retained by $250.00 to enable Mrs. Nell to come back to the Planning Commission for a Conditional Use Permit. Supported by Mr.
Burke and carried unanimously.
REGISTRATION. Beaumont W. Cook, Acting City Clerk, City of Northville and Clarence A. DuCharme, Clerk of Township of Supervisor. Re: Opposed to proposal to eliminate the State's financial assistance for training police officers. Mr.
Hildebrand moved that the above resolution be received and filed. Supported by
Mr. Ash and carried unanimously.
Mr. Burke moved that the meeting be adjourned. Supported by Mr. Overholt and carried unanimously.
Supervisor McLaren adjourned the meeting at 10:00 P.M.

Approved,
J.D. McLAREN,
Supervisor

Respectfully submitted,
MARY ELLEN KENYON,
Deputy Clerk

Family Helps Celebrate Sister's Golden Year

Fifty years ago this month, Sister Mary Agnes received the first part of her nun's habit from the Franciscan Sisters of Pittsburgh.

This Sunday, Aug. 5, a mass of thanksgiving to honor the sister will be held at 10 a.m. at St. Beatrice Catholic Church of Southfield.

She was one of eight children of the Dainus family of Detroit and left Detroit to attend high school in Pittsburgh. One sister, a nun, died 29 years ago. The rest, four sisters and two brothers, will attend the mass and a brunch at the Knights of Columbus hall on Lesure afterwards.

The family includes brothers, Anthony and John, Mrs.

Elizabeth Johnson of Plymouth, Mrs. Julie Belickas of Redford, and Mrs. Isabel Pavlichek of Livonia.

Counting husbands and what Mrs. Belickas calls "a bushel of nieces and nephews" there are 59 in the immediate family.

Many of the nieces and nephews will participate in the offertory procession. The size of the family is the main reason why the decision was made to have the golden jubilee mass here rather than in Pittsburgh.

Sister Mary Agnes says smiling at Mrs. Belickas, "It's much nicer to come home for the observance."

A good part of Sister's 50 years have been spent in the classroom. She received her bachelor's degree in education at Dequesne University and her master's from St. Louis University.

Until five years ago, she had taught both elementary and secondary students in many of the eastern states, Penn., New York, New Jersey, Cleveland, Ohio, Grand Rapids and most recently at St. Francis Academy in Pittsburgh.

For the past five years, because of difficulty in speaking due to a paralysis, she has been serving as a librarian and working in the office of the treasurer of the convent.

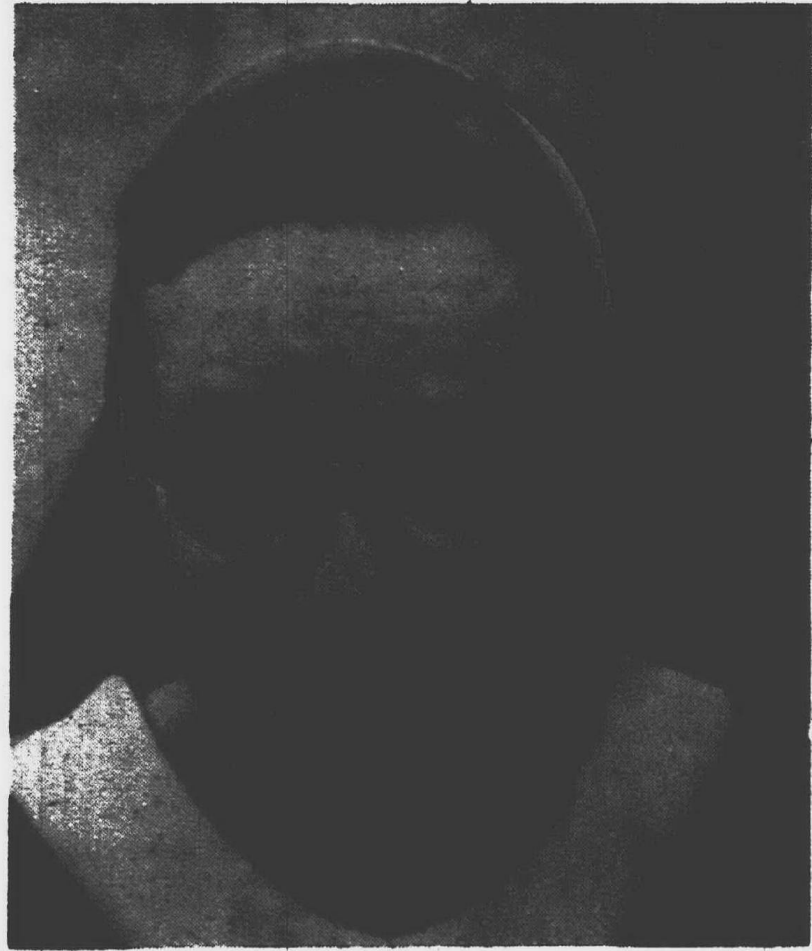

While the affects are now hardly noticeable, she says it's still easier not to have to talk all the time.

There have been many changes during the course of her teaching. Sister mentions the ungraded and mod systems as two and describes the ungraded as, "a lot of work for the teacher, but better for the children."

But, at the moment, Sister Mary Agnes would rather talk about the future, the key to which is tucked in her black purse. It's a Greyhound Ameripass. She and a companion are planning a 30 day trip to see the United States. Along the way they will lodge with relatives, friends and nuns.

Their travels which Sister says will be both educational and enjoyable, will include California by the northern route and back home the southern route by way of Florida.

She holds the ticket book in her hand and says, "As soon as I heard about it, I knew I wanted to go."

SISTER MARY AGNES

Rev. Lester Kinsolving's

Religion Update

Two stellar entertainments highlighted the New Orleans scene in early July.

Pat Hamilton, a Houston Methodist minister's son who belongs to "H.E.W.," a nightclub act, convulsed capacity crowds with his hilarious mimicry of Billy Graham, Oral Roberts, Brother Al and Rev. Ike — simultaneously.

And the President of the nation's ninth largest religious denomination, the three-million-member Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, provided an equally amusing (if unintended) performance, by losing his temper in front of some 75 reporters — and very nearly stomping out of his press conference.

The Rev. Dr. J.A.O. Preus appeared at the press conference at the end of both a long day as well, apparently, as his rope.

His immediate testiness was odd, considering the fact that his arch-conservative supporters had just re-elected him to a second four-year presidency — by operating with such impressive precision and power as to resemble a Panzer division disposing of a troop of Polish horse cavalry.

But Dr. Preus seems to regard most of the press in a manner which by comparison makes President Nixon seem downright affectionate.

Dr. Preus apparently was still furious about what followed his statement to the press that his denomination's official doctrine regards both the famed deep sea digestion of Jonah as well as the story of Adam and Eve as being literal history.

"How was Jonah able to breathe while inside the belly of that great fish for three days?" Dr. Preus was asked.

President Preus disdained this golden opportunity to provide the readers of most of the nation's newspapers with some enlightenment regarding this long standing piscatory problem.

Instead, he immediately shunted to the Garden of Eden where, he explained, Adam and Eve disobeyed God's orders not to eat the fruit of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. (Genesis 2:17).

But if they didn't know the difference between right and wrong — in fact were so dangerously ignorant that they weren't even aware of their nudity (Genesis 3:11) — how could they reasonably be blamed?

"God told them not to eat that fruit!" growled Dr. Preus, by now too visibly infuriated to be very impressed by considerations of reason.

But since Adam and Eve had no knowledge of right or wrong, how could they be expected to obey God rather than the serpent — whose assurances were supported by apparently alluring fruit?

At this point, the usually stony visage of Dr. Preus commenced glowing like a Norwegian aurora borealis as he grabbed for his brief-case and began stalking out.

But the denomination's trusty press agent, Victor Bryant, hastily intervened and apparently soothed the Preus passion by loudly rebuking the inquiring reporter.

Hence both Jonah's fish and the Eden nudity remain Lutheran mysteries. There is, however, no question at all but that Bryant will earn his salary in the job of having to handle public relations for President Preus.

REV. ROBERT B. COOK JR.

Rev. Cook Joins Staff

The Rev. Robert Bruce Cook Jr. is the new assistant rector of St. John Episcopal Church, 574 S. Sheldon, Plymouth.

He arrived to work with the Rev. Robert S. Shank, rector, shortly after being ordained to the deaconate by the Right Rev. H. Coleman McGehee Jr., bishop of Michigan, on June 30.

The ordination took place in the Episcopal Cathedral of St. Paul in Detroit.

Rev. Cook is a native of Rochester, Mich., and graduated from Northern Michigan University and the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Mass.

He and his wife, Kristine, are making their home at 14565 Shadywood, Plymouth.

They have three sons, Robert Bruce III, six, and David Christopher and Jonathan Allen, 18-month-old twins.

Cross Country Bike Riders Return Home

Ward United Presbyterian Church, 17000 Farmington Road, Livonia, will welcome the return of the cross country men from their 1,000 mile, ten day "Seaway Challenge" bicycle trip on Sunday, Aug. 5.

The boys and their sponsors left Detroit July 23 and biked to Portland, Maine.

On their way they stayed in churches and community camp grounds in Canada. They were asked to take part in a seaway festival in Ogdensburg, N.Y. as well as visiting the Expo in Montreal.

For their arrival in Livonia, mothers of the riders are preparing dinner at Ward Church. The boys will then participate in the evening service at 7 p.m.

Bikers from Livonia included Cliff Andrews, Bill Conroy, Ken and Walter Cornwell, George Currier, Rich Garvey, Dave Groening, Dave Hibberd, Drew Koet, Dean McClenaghan, Gregory Oswald, Dave Parkyn, Donald Roberts, Michael Roy, Matt Williams, Jim Woods and Ed Majewski.

From Westland are Larry and Scott Casey, Rick Faris, David Lewis, Don Pederson and Dave Slat.

Other bikers included Dave Knauss of Plymouth, Bill Coniam of Garden City, Brian Majestic and Mark Tompkins of Farmington, Greg Carne of Northville, Kevin Brennfleck of Dearborn and Jason Byers of Dearborn Heights.

Detroiters making the trip were Bob Carlisle, Jim Matheny and Neal Martin-dale.

Sponsors also riding were Don Kamen, director, Jerry Thompson, John Cascaden, Jerry Harrison and Dave Clarke.

Also at the evening service Dr. Bartlett L. Hess will speak on "The Street of Pain." Slides from Spinalonga and Eastern Crete will be shown immediately following the service in Fellowship Hall. Friends of the community are invited.

Gerda Klein Will Speak At Adas Shalom

Mrs. Gerda Klein, author of "All But My Life," will be guest speaker at Adas Shalom Synagogue, following its annual Tisha B'Av service Monday, Aug. 6.

The service begins at 7:30 p.m. in the synagogue, 29901 Middle Belt, Farmington Hills.

Tisha B'Av, the ninth day of the Hebrew month of Av, is a fast day in the Hebrew calendar. It commemorates the destruction of the first and second temples in Jerusalem, which were sacked and pillaged in the years 586 B.C.E. and 70 C.E., respectively.

In modern times, this day has come to be a day of national mourning for Jews martyred at the hands of Nazi Germany.

Mrs. Klein was born in Poland, where she lived with her parents and brother when the German armies invaded in 1939. In the winter of 1945, the 4,000 women inmates of her camp in Silesia were driven 1,000 miles eastward toward Czechoslovakia by the Gestapo. When the march came to a halt, there were less than 200 survivors.

Mrs. Klein's book, an autobiography based on experiences in Nazi-occupied Europe, has been hailed by critics in the United States, England and Holland as "one of the most moving and beautifully written books of Jewish suffering and survival." It has also been placed in the British War Museum as a reference work on European history.

The candlelight service will also contain special hymns and modern readings of the week. Deaf parents may bring their hearing children with them. Small children and babies will be taken care of by workers during classes.

The total cost for seven full days is $25. This covers the camp book, cabin, food, insurance and handicraft supplies for the week. Children under three attend free; children three through eight pay half price.

Camp For Deaf Set In August

A camp for deaf and hard of hearing, sponsored by the Michigan District Council of the Assemblies of God, will be held at Grass Lake near Jackson, Aug. 7-12.

The camp is for all ages, but children under nine must be accompanied by an adult. Deaf people from all churches are welcome and invited to attend.

Campers may attend for the full week or for any part

Two Farmington women who operate a clothes closet for inner city residents at Sacred Heart Academy in Detroit are putting out an appeal for children's garments.

"Our shelves are empty," said Mrs. Donna Batchelor, "and we're turning away families trying to get their children ready for school in the fall.

"We need all sizes of children's clothes. Our supplies of infant clothes also are very low."

Mrs. Batchelor and Mrs. Pat Schwartz, both members of Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic parish, have been helping supply and staff the facility in the last few years.

"More and more agencies and social workers have been learning of our work at Sacred Heart," Mrs. Batchelor said, "so we are getting calls from all over the city."

Observerland residents who have outgrown clothing to offer for the cause may take it to Mrs. Batchelor, 24144 Elizabeth Court, or Mrs. Schwartz, 23025 Maple in Farmington.

A CROSS in the grass (you can see part of it at the left of the picture) was a surprise highlight for the third annual outdoor service on the north lawn of Orchard United Methodist Church in Farmington July 29. Wendell and Steve Marvin, members of the church, used extra fertilizer to get the effect. The service featured a sermon by the Rev. Eric S. Hammar, music directed by Mrs. William Green and instrumental ensemble accompaniment for the hymn-singing. (Evert photo)

Westland Priest Plans Fall Tour Of Europe

A three-week autumn holiday tour of Europe by air has been announced by The Rev. Richard J. Dorr, pastor of St. Damian Parish, Westland.

Father Dorr began to travel during World War II aboard aircraft carriers as a Navy communications specialist.

A lifelong student of history and a skilled photographer, he is also an experienced traveler to and through Europe.

Under his direction, tour members will fly across the Atlantic on Oct. 8 to visit principal scenes of interest in Ireland, France, Italy, Austria, and England.

From Shannon, Ireland, the party will travel through the "ring of Kerry" and Killarney, Adare, Cork, Limerick, and Waterford. They will kiss the Blarney Stone at Blarney Castle and then continue to Dublin.

The next stop will be Lourdes, visited by over three million each year. Father Dorr and his pilgrims

Federal Grant Boost For Elderly Volunteers

WASHINGTON — ACTION, the citizens service corps, has awarded $187,425 to Catholic Social Services of Wayne County, in Detroit to start a Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP).

The grant to the private, non-profit agency at 9651 Hamilton was announced in Washington by ACTION Director Mike Balzano.

RSVP is a national program to develop significant volunteer service in local communities for men and women age 60 and over.

The one-year grant will enable the agency to start a county-wide RSVP, placing 500 senior volunteers in service the first year, and as many as 2,500 in the next five.

Established in 1957, Catholic Social Services of Wayne County is administered by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Detroit.

The agency operates another ACTION program, a foster grandparent program, in which 154 low-income older people are working with mentally - retarded, emotionally - disturbed children and children in day care centers.

Timothy F. Ryan is the agency's executive director.

The RSVP will place volunteers with cooperating public and private social service agencies throughout the county. Senior volunteers may serve in day care centers, foster homes, libraries and museums. Volunteers also may be placed with hospitals, homes for the mentally retarded and the aged and historical societies.

This grant is a result of President Nixon's request to Congress, following the 1971 White House Conference on the Aging, to greatly expand opportunities for meaningful volunteer service for older Americans.

RSVP was started in 1969 by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare and became operational in July 1971 when it became part of ACTION.

RSVP is planned, organized and operated on the local level. It is developed under the auspices of an established community-service organization or agency.

Any retired person age 60 and over can become a RSVP volunteer; there are no education, income or experience requirements.

Volunteers serve in a variety of organizations, agencies and institutions such as courts, schools, libraries, day care centers, hospitals, nursing homes, scout offices, economic development agencies and other community service centers.

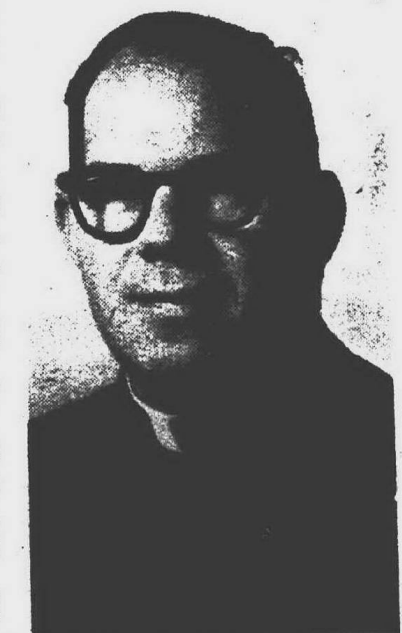

THE REV. ROBERT R. BAYLESS, dean of students at North Central Bible College in Minneapolis, will speak at 11 a.m. Sunday, Aug. 5, in United Assembly of God, 42021 E. Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth. A former foreign missions secretary for the Indiana district of Assemblies of God, he has traveled in 50 countries and around the world three times.

L. Menchaca At Graham Writing School

Lidia Menchaca, a former resident of Plymouth and now a teacher in Rock, Mich., recently attended Decision magazine's school of Christian writing at the Minneapolis headquarters of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association.

Some 200 students came from all over the nation and from several foreign countries. Each student was chosen by the editorial staff of Decision magazine on the basis of a written journalistic assignment.

The school's aim was to challenge writers to express Christian ideals through the finest possible use of the English language.

Do You Remember?

A raincoat that needs some growing into. The lure of a mud puddle mixed with the fear of getting caught. These are some of the seemingly unimportant parts of being young that turn into warm and unforgettable memories.

They're some of the things that eventually form such qualities as sentiment and human feelings... qualities which people carry through life and which we try to reflect in every service we direct.

A Gothic Horror Tale For All: It Makes The Spine Tingle

By STEVE BARNABY

It's a long time between movies for the true horror buff, and "The Legend of Hell House," although not perfect, is satisfactorily bloodthirsty and ghoulish for the horror film genre.

Starring Roddy McDowell and Pamela Franklin, it's the type of movie that makes the post-viewing walk through the parking lot a frightening adventure.

Stuffed with screams, blood and death, the movie presents a library of visual effects that have proved capable in former fright fare. Combined with the effects is a story line intriguing to those interested in psychic phenomena and insanity in the Poe tradition.

The proper atmosphere is created through the use of unusual camera angles, lighting and downright weird sound effects.

Viewers are greeted with a typical Gothic mansion glazed in a bluish haze and coated with fog. The performers are seen at various angles except for the usual straight-on shot. Every bead of sweat and blood drips across the screen to enunciate the atmosphere.

The classic fears are exploited to the utmost. If you disliked cats before, you'll be scared to death now, as you watch a black cat viciously attack and nearly kill a human in one scene. The "Psycho" type shower scene is present, assuring that the traditional fear of bathing is continued for many a year.

The story revolves around a physicist (Clive Revill), a physical medium (McDowell), and a mental medium

THE LEGEND OF HELL HOUSE Now showing at Farmington 4. Rated PG and A3

(Miss Franklin) who are offered 100,000 pounds to prove once and for all whether there is life after death.

Their task takes them to the Emeric Belasco mansion where they have one week to explain the forces that have already killed and maimed many other investigators.

The plot is complicated by Revill's resolve to prove that the answer to the mystery can be explained scientifically and that the forces are "supernormal" rather than spirits.

Miss Franklin and McDowell disagree, believing the psychic phenomena in the haunted residence are evidence of life after death. This leads to the 20th century controversy between man and the machine.

During their stay, the tenants are subjected to various horrors, including a poltergeist attack. They also manage to bring horrors upon themselves by conducting scientific experiments and seances.

Clues to the mystery are presented throughout the movie in bits and pieces, making it wise for the viewer to pay attention to the dialogue. Naturally, the answer is written in blood.

The film's weakness lies in the faulty pace throughout the first hour of the production and corny dialogue. This causes the viewer to lose interest. Fortunately, there are sufficient scenes to give the viewer the shivers, keeping him in the seat until the final scene.

The entire movie is justified by the surprise ending and the outstanding performance rendered by McDowell in the final 40 minutes. He dwarfs those around him by his fine delivery and artistic facial expression.

Miss Franklin does a fine job as McDowell's sidekick and deserves another chance in an even better horror production.

Revill does a rather poor job in his portrayal, acting as though he were bored with the whole affair. Gayle Hunnicut, who plays Revill's wife, is pure window dressing.

League Purpose Is Bowling For Charity

REDFORD For nine years, members of the Stuckey Area Bowling League have been making strikes for their favorite cause, Stuckey Elementary School in the Redford Union School District.

Working in conjunction with the Stuckey's Mothers' Club, the housewives have been congregating at Redford Lanes on Monday mornings, raising more than $17,000 since their inception.

"We don't put any specifications on what should be done with the money given to the school. It's just our way of helping out," according to Darlene Ryan, league president.

The ladies' efforts have provided the school with such items as playground equipment, televisions, scholarships, and bus fees for special student outings.

"You don't have to be good to play in our league, just willing to have fun. We don't play for blood," Mrs. Ryan says, "but for charity and the enjoyment of being together."

With present membership at 36, the league hopes to recruit more members by providing a free babysitting service in the bowling alley.

"Anyone can join, even if they don't have children who go to Stuckey. All they have to do is show up at the bowling alley at 9 a.m. with $2.25. We provide the coffee and the free babysitters," Mrs. Ryan says.

She stresses that babysitters are professionals who give mothers a chance to get away from the usual routine and at the same time work for a good cause.

"We'd like men to join also, but so far none have gotten the nerve to come in and challenge the girls."

With league activities to begin in September the group is having its first organizational meeting on Aug. 27, at 10 a.m. in the Stuckey School. Those interested in joining should contact Mrs. Ryan at 19757 Summer, Redford Township.

In Mrs. Ryan's words, "Come and goof off with us. It's fun."

JOHN ETCHART, internationally famous chef has moved from Florida to Southfield to serve as executive chef in the Bingham Farms office building. The French master has won membership in the Association Culinaire Francaise and is a recipient of the travel guide award.

Oakway Symphony Set; Open Auditions Slated

Oakway Symphony will conduct open auditions on Aug. 8 between 6 and 8 p.m. in building L of the Orchard Ridge Campus of Oakland Community College, Orchard Lake Rd. and the I-496 freeway, Farmington Hills.

Those interested should contact Mrs. Philip Murray, 18038 Fairfield, Livonia. Include name, address, phone number and instrument played. Those making an appointment prior to audition night may make arrangements to appear between 5 and 10 p.m.

Formed in June, the symphony will provide musical entertainment in all forms, especially through the orchestra's performance, according to Francesco Di Blase, conductor and musical director.

"The new orchestra will give local musicians more opportunities to participate in concerts, help develop local talent, and increase the public's musical understanding and awareness," says Di Blase.

A Livonia resident, Di Blase has had extensive conducting experience, performing and teaching experience. For eight years, he was assistant first trumpet with the Detroit Symphony. He has also played with the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, the American Youth Orchestra, Radio City Music Hall, New York City Opera, American Symphony Orchestra and the Metropolitan Opera.

U-M Musical Society Schedules 37 Events

ANN ARBOR The 1973-74 season of the University Musical Society, University of Michigan, will begin in Hill Auditorium on Sept. 30, with a performance by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and its new conductor, Aldo Ceccato.

Before the season ends next spring, the society will have offered 37 attractions in its five different series.

Under the banner of International Presentations, programs will include symphony orchestras and chamber groups, ethnic and modern dance and ballet, opera, chorus and jazz events, vocal and instrumental recitals.

The Chamber Arts Series will include 10 events; the Chamber Arts Series, eight, the Choice Series, 11, the Asian Series four, and the Guitar Series four.

Brochures are available from the University Musical Society, Burton Tower, Ann Arbor, 48104. Season ticket orders are now being accepted, filled in sequence and mailed in September. Orders for single concerts will be accepted in August.

The schedule is as follows: Choral Union Series - Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Sept. 30; Julian Bream, guitar and lute, Oct. 21; London Bach Society, Oct. 26; Lenin-grad Philharmonic, Nov. 3; Budapest Symphony Orchestra, Nov. 10; Martina Arroyo, soprano, Nov. 19; Warsaw Philharmonic, Jan. 27; Luciano Pavarotti, tenor, Feb. 27; Orchestre de Paris, March 1; and Yehudi and Hepzibah Menuhin, March 13.

Chamber Arts Series - Gyorgy Sandor, pianist, Oct. 12; Slovak Chamber Orchestra, Oct. 23; Baroque Ensemble, USSR, Oct. 28; Tel Aviv String Quartet, Nov. 14; LaSalle String Quartet, Jan. 20; Roumanian Trio, Feb. 22; Netherlands Wind Ensemble, Feb. 28; and Early Music Consort of London, April 13.

Choice Series - Ballet Repertory Company of the American Ballet Theater, Oct. 4 and 5; Bayanihan Philippine Dance Company, Oct. 14; Ballet West, Oct. 19 and 20; Claude Kipnis Mime Theater, Oct. 27; Modern Jazz Quartet, Nov. 15; Krasnayarsk Dance Company of Siberia, Dec. 1; Goldovsky Opera Company, Feb. 23 and 24; Vienna Boys Choir, March 11; Norwegian Ballet Company, March 16 and 17; Roumanian Folk Ballet, March 29; and Nikolais Dance Theater, April 18 and 19.

Guitar Series - Abreau Brothers, from Argentina, Nov. 7; Narciso Yepes, from Spain, Nov. 28; Carlos Barbosa-Lima, from Brazil, Feb. 2; and Romero Quartet, March 20.

Asian Series - Music from Iran, Oct. 31; The Little Angels - National Folk Ballet of Korea, Nov. 11; The Awaji Puppet Theater of Japan, Feb. 19; and Kathak (North Indian Dance), April 3.

Turf Tips, Quips

By Doc Minard

Northville Downs didn't produce any attendance or wagering records during the 36-night meeting which ended Tuesday but it did come up with a world's record ... first woman driving champion in harness racing history.

Bea Farber, 32-year-old Brighton resident, accomplished that feat and what is even more amazing, she did it in her fourth year of driving on the parimutuel circuit.

Amazing but true. Bea started her career in 1969 with a few starts on the county fair circuit. She started in the same circles in 1970, then decided to try her hand at the big meetings and has never been sorry.

Believe it or not, Bea had the Northville title all wrapped up prior to the final night ... no one had the slightest chance of catching her. With that knowledge, Mrs. Farber had four horses going on the 36th program and failed to win once.

She did have a second and three thirds over the sloppy going but couldn't quite get home.

She wound up the season with 39 starts, just three over the necessary number to qualify for the championship ratings, and ended with 15 wins, seven seconds and three thirds for a big .535 winning percentage.

Tom Wantz, of Adrian, ranked second with .467. Merritt Dokey, the slender Pontiac ace, was the winningest pilot with 25 wins. He recorded 11 firsts on the final four programs.

As it turned out, the 'Downs ended its summer meeting with attendance and betting showing slight dips. The average nightly handle was $346,118, a drop of 3.3 per cent under 1972 figures.

Attendance sagged 1.2 per cent with a nightly average of 4,432 and a total of 159,568.

THE DETROIT RACE COURSE, which is still in the process of selling patrons to an earlier post, faces its stiffest assignment of opening week today (Saturday) when the 10-race card opens at 1 p.m.

Business during the week hasn't been anything to write home about but the supreme test comes today when veteran track followers will decide whether a 1 p.m. post, earliest in Michigan history, is to their liking or whether they prefer the 2:30 p.m. start.

Although wagering and attendance are down for the first five days, it isn't enough for a conclusive answer. The DRC is committed to the earlier post for the first four weeks and then a decision will be made to continue or drop the idea.

After seeing the success at tracks in the east, south and midwest with an early post, we'd like to see the tests continued through the 90-day meeting but if it's going to cost a lot of money, as it did a year ago, then it's best the policy be dropped.

We can't see any valid reason for the twilight post time and know fans would like the earlier start once they got adjusted. But then it may be one of those things, Detroiters may not cotton to changes and especially one like this.

Saturday's card (today) is headed by a $10,000 handicap for fillies and mares with Pink Platinum, from the east, as the probable favorite.

The eastern flash is considered one of the fastest along the Atlantic seaboard and could handle the 11 challengers with ease if she's able to get adjusted to the big mile track.

The field includes: Babalin, Rustum Lady, Dahela's Queen, Small Love, Oklahoma Lil, Old Goldie, Impulsive Girl, Alhambra Girl, Heavenly Day, Tattle Mar and Atteradora.

The track will add a betting gimmick to the list today with a perfecta to go along with the daily double, trifecta and the superfecta.

Gates to the big plant will open at 11:30 p.m. with the first to go off at 1 p.m.

HAZEL PARK'S opening was a big success with both turnstiles and the mutuel machines singing merry tunes.

A crowd of 7,372 turned out and wagered $534,529. That was 33 more than attended last fall's inaugural and wagering was up $30,000.

"Excellent," said General Manager Harold Duris, "When you consider the heavy rains of the day and the fact it was pouring at just about the time many folks would be leaving for the races. It has to be one of our better nights."

The track lost part of its handle when it had to refund on Darky Marnock in the sixth. The horse was a late scratch when it was discovered it didn't have its lower lip tattooed. That meant no tattoo for identification, no start.

WHO SAYS there's no romance in harness racing? The first to reject that suggestion will be Driver-Trainer Joe Adamsky and Lyndel Lockhart, daughter of the Sid Lockharts of Pontiac.

They met at Wolverine Raceway, became sweethearts and announced their engagement shortly before the end of the Northville Downs meeting.

Wedding plans aren't complete but there is talk the pair will be wed in Pontiac early in September.

A masterpiece in architectural design. Beauty and generosity abound in this 4 bedroom bi-level. A dream kitchen for the modern convenience oriented wife. A manicured rolling acre of lawn, a very desirable area. This home could not be duplicated for $89,900.

A cute little dollhouse with a lovely landscaped oversized lot. There are 3 bedrooms here and a carport too. Handy to expressways and shopping. Won't last long at $21,500.

Here is a commercial possibility. If you are investment minded, you'll love this bargain. Home should appreciate considerably within the next year. Present zoning is multiple but commercial zoning in the near future is certain. $30,000.

Out in the country with plenty of room for the kids to play on over an acre. French colonial with 5 bedrooms. This is a dramatic and elegantly styled home for the discerning buyer. A real jewel on a green carpet. $69,900.

Money talks, and if one of the lucky ones who has enough stashed away for a really hefty down payment of $7500, it will buy you this 3,000 sq. ft. totally unique combination home and art studio. Superlative description would not suffice to describe this intriguing place priced at only $25,500.

Four bedroom ranch, large lake front lot. This is located in lovely neighborhood of executive type homes. Two fireplaces, built-ins in kitchen, enormous family room, carpeting and drapes included. Convenient to expressway. $48,500.

Plymouth Elks Topple Fenton, 9-1

The Plymouth Elks, winners of the Berry American title, fell out of the unbeaten bracket of the Connie Mack baseball district in Flint but remained alive and kicking with a victory in the losers bracket.

The six club double elimination meet showed Plymouth losing to Flint in the opening clash, 3-2, but bouncing back to crush Fenton and knock them from the tourney, 9-1.

Plymouth drew a bye in Friday's action and will be back in action today (Saturday) at Flint.

Mark Weber chalked up the win for Flint against Plymouth. He gave up the two runs on seven hits, walked two and struck out six.

Taking the defeat for Plymouth was Mark Falvo, a right-handed hurler brought up from Thurston. Falvo allowed three runs on six hits, walked four and struck out five.

Flint scored first in the opening inning when Rich Canada was safe on a throwing error by Gary D'Ascenzo, moved to second on a grounder and scampered in on Dennis Jarvi's single.

Plymouth bounced back in the third to take a 2-1 lead. D'Ascenzo led off with a single but Falvo forced D'Ascenzo at second. Robb Willette batted a single to advance Falvo to third and Jeff Waller doubled to score both.

Flint tied it at two-all in the third when Canada tripled past Steve Robb's glove in right and scored on a hit by Ed Rykalski.

The last of the seventh saw Flint tack victory away. Weber singled, was wild pitched by Willette scoring the victory. Fenton collected one hit, a single off Willette in the first by Dan Robbins.

After a strikeout, Larry Davis and Tony Rossi drew base on balls to force in two more runs and John Chistales ended it with a sacrifice to make it 4-0.

A single by D'Ascenzo, walk to Stephens, triple by Willette and sacrifice by Waller pushed it to 7-0 in the second.

Fenton tallied once in the last of the third on two walks, a passed ball and wild pitch.

Plymouth came back with two in the fourth. Stephens drew a walk, Robb delivered a double, stole third with Stephens scoring and Willette sacrificed in Robb.

Don Ireland hurled for Fenton and suffered the loss, walking four and striking out two.

The Elks exploded for four runs in the first. D'Ascenzo scored four times in the first, three in the second and twice in the fourth to whip Fenton, in a five inning contest that was shortened by the mercy rule.

Tom Willette, and Jeff Thompson handled the Elk pitching chores with starter Willette scoring the victory.

Flint tied it at two-all in the third when Canada tripled past Steve Robb's glove in right and scored on a hit by Ed Rykalski.

Mary Mohacsi, Livonia mother of three children, reached the high point of an outstanding bowling career last weekend when she qualified for a berth on the American team that will bid for the world championship next February in Bogota, South America.

To gain this honor she finished third in the U.S. trials in Milwaukee and admitted that it was the greatest thrill of her bowling career.

Over the years she has won many titles and reigned as Detroit's bowling Queen in 1964 and 1965. In the recent WIBC tournament in Las Vegas she finished 12th in the all-events in competition with the best women bowlers in America.

With her performance in the trials, Mary became the fourth woman from the Detroit area to earn a place in the world championships.

Several years ago Mrs. Helen Shablis, longtime star of the Ladies Major League, won the all-events title in Mexico. Later, Helen Weston placed high in the world championships in Denmark. Last year Penny McLain, one of the rising young stars, won a place on the U.S. team that competed in the world event in Milwaukee.

Mary was the lone Michigan entry to survive the final trials this year. None of the nine men from the state made the grade. Among them were such high scoring stars as Jay Dishong and Lou Haydu, of Observerland and Bud Pointer, former ABC singles champion from Pontiac.

Originally, the world event was scheduled for this fall, but due to circumstances beyond control of the bowlers it has been set back to February of 1974.

Midge Poshka, guardian of the counter at Westland Bowl, has good reason to remember this summer. Her team is leading the Gold Diggers league with one of the best records in the area. It has won 34 games while losing only four and Midge is showing the way with an average of 171.

According to all reports prime time is going to be at a premium for the leagues this fall. Not only are many new leagues forming, but many are increasing their rosters. This is true at Wonderland where the Senior House League, in an attempt to match the Classic, is jumping from 16 to 20 teams.

The Greater Detroit Bowling Association has continued a long standing tradition by increasing its membership in the year that closed July 31. The official roster now includes 3,157 leagues with 132,633 members.

The Detroit Woman's Bowling Association also has shown an increase with well over 100,000 members. This means that close to a quarter of a million bowlers take part in league competition at least once a week during the fall and winter season.

It is the largest congregation of sanctioned league bowlers in a section of the country.

The Greater Detroit Bowling Association, of which Observerland's male bowlers are members, has arranged five meetings for league secretaries and other officers to discuss rules and receive supplies for the coming season.

They are scheduled at Thunderbowl in Allen Park on Aug. 13. The following Thursday, Aug. 16, the session will be held at Eastland Bowl. On Monday, Aug. 20 the scene shifts to Airway Lanes in Pontiac, then on Wednesday, Aug. 22 the session is scheduled at Crown Lanes in Troy and will close with a major meeting at Satellite Bowl in Dearborn Heights on Wed. Aug. 29.

Barnard Captures 2nd Stock Victory

Ray Barnard of Ann Arbor drove a Chevelle to his second victory of 1973 at Flat Rock speedway. Barnard survived a late bid by How-ell's Dick Haas to take home the top share of the purse for late model stock cars.

Starting eighth in the 20 car field, Barnard followed Danny Byrd, of Dearborn Heights, through traffic to take second place. He and Byrd sped past early leader Fran Harden, of Westland, on the ninth lap. Byrd was black flagged from the race due to water leaking from a broken radiator hose.

Barnard set the pace for the remaining 20 laps finishing two lengths ahead of the late charging Haas. Harden held on for third, Ron DeWitt, of Toledo, finished fourth and Denny Pace, of Plymouth, driving in both figure eight's and late models was fifth.

In late model preliminaries, Byrd was fast qualifier at 13.13. Barnard won the dash, and Harden a heat race and the pursuit. Jerry Middleton, of Allen Park, nosed out Boyd Delp for second by a foot at the finish.

Pace had fast qualifying time at 14.67. Middleton won the dash.

Myths about newspaper advertising:

Newspaper ads are ugly

If they're ugly. But they don't have to be.

Still, you may look at this page and say, "Sure you can make a newspaper page look beautiful, but I have a product to sell, and my product isn't pretty."

But a lot of businesses advertise in newspapers. Sometimes their products don't look pretty. But they do look good. And so do their sales.

CHILDREN'S Fashions

Designers have checked up on their history and added plenty of sprightly gingham touches to this year's school clothes.

As American as apple pie, gingham was a favorite with the children of this country's pioneers.

LIL' COWPOKES liked it styled into workshirts worn with corduroy or denim jeans; prairie lassies mixed it with other cotton prints to create delightful patchwork dresses.

Today these same looks are sharing the fashion limelight: jeans have become the symbol of our casual life style, and the artful use of pattern with pattern is considered the height of chic.

It's not surprising then that gingham is enjoying a major revival.

For example, Western influenced, sister 'n' brother pants suits have gingham checks on their collars and cuffs. Designed in rugged polyester and cotton brushed denim, they're styled to withstand many hours of play from the roughest, toughest cowhands.

SCHOOL DRESSES of ribless cotton corduroy in easy to wear, Aline silhouettes come with their own little checked blouses.

GINGHAM CHECKS accent these sister 'n' brother cuffed pants suits designed in rugged polyester and cotton brushed denim.

Party looks are patterned...

And, some of the prettiest party clothes around feature Early American crewl print pinafores tied with a bow over --you guessed it --pert little gingham dresses.

Fresh approach to classroom doings...

Fall Belt Fashions

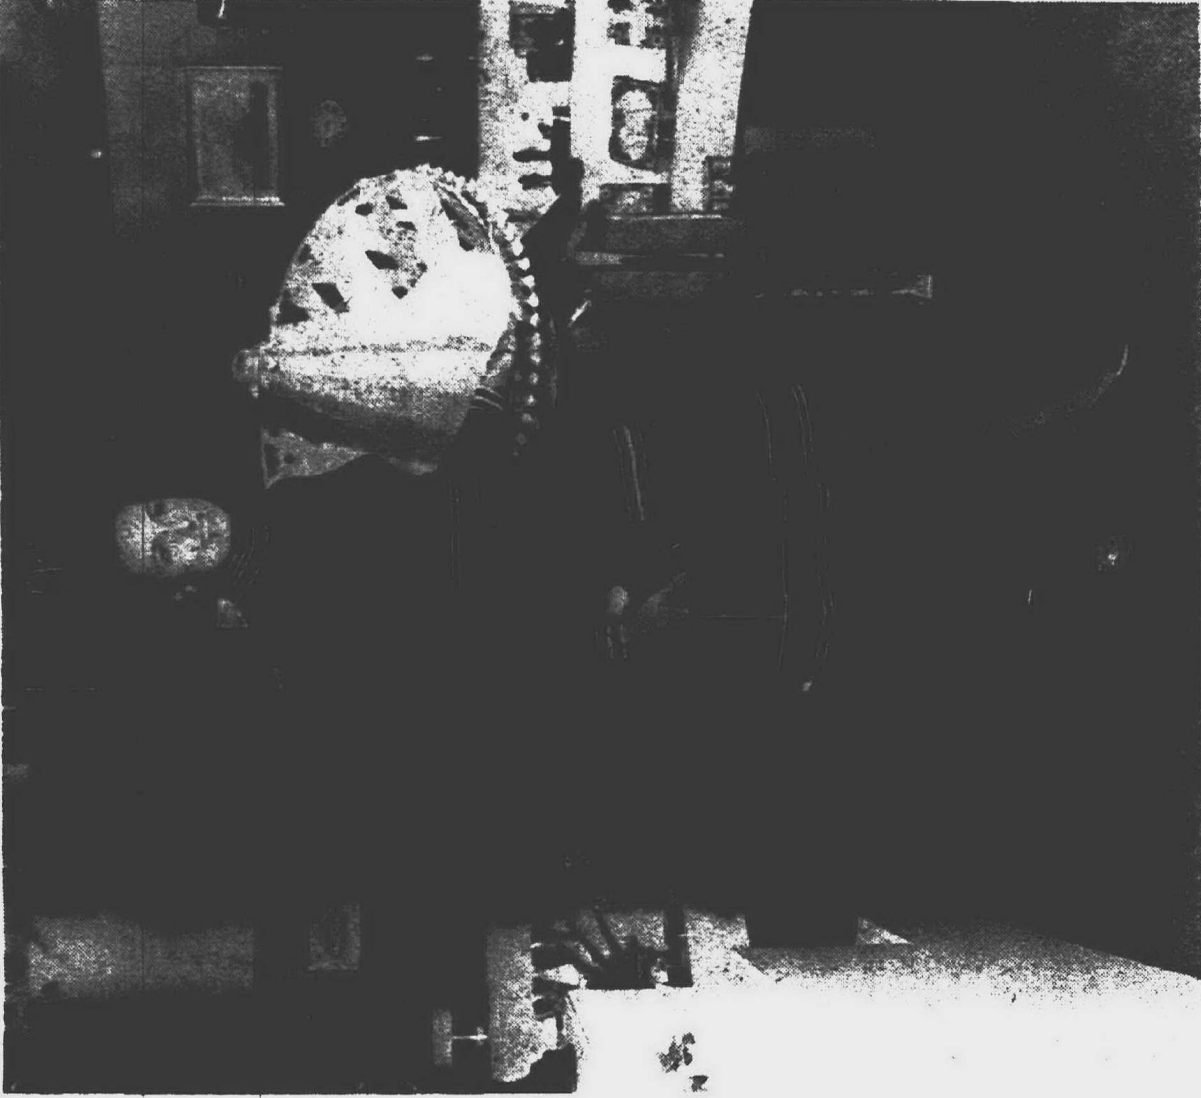

It is reported that, more and more women are buying men's belts not as gifts for men but for their own use.

Evidently, as the design concept of a man's belt has changed from merely something functional to a key fashion accessory, women have recognized men's belts as an important feminine fashion accessory.

One of the more popular trends which has zeroed in on the subject has been the overbelt look. There has been emphasis on hardware, and handworked and braided leather treatments.

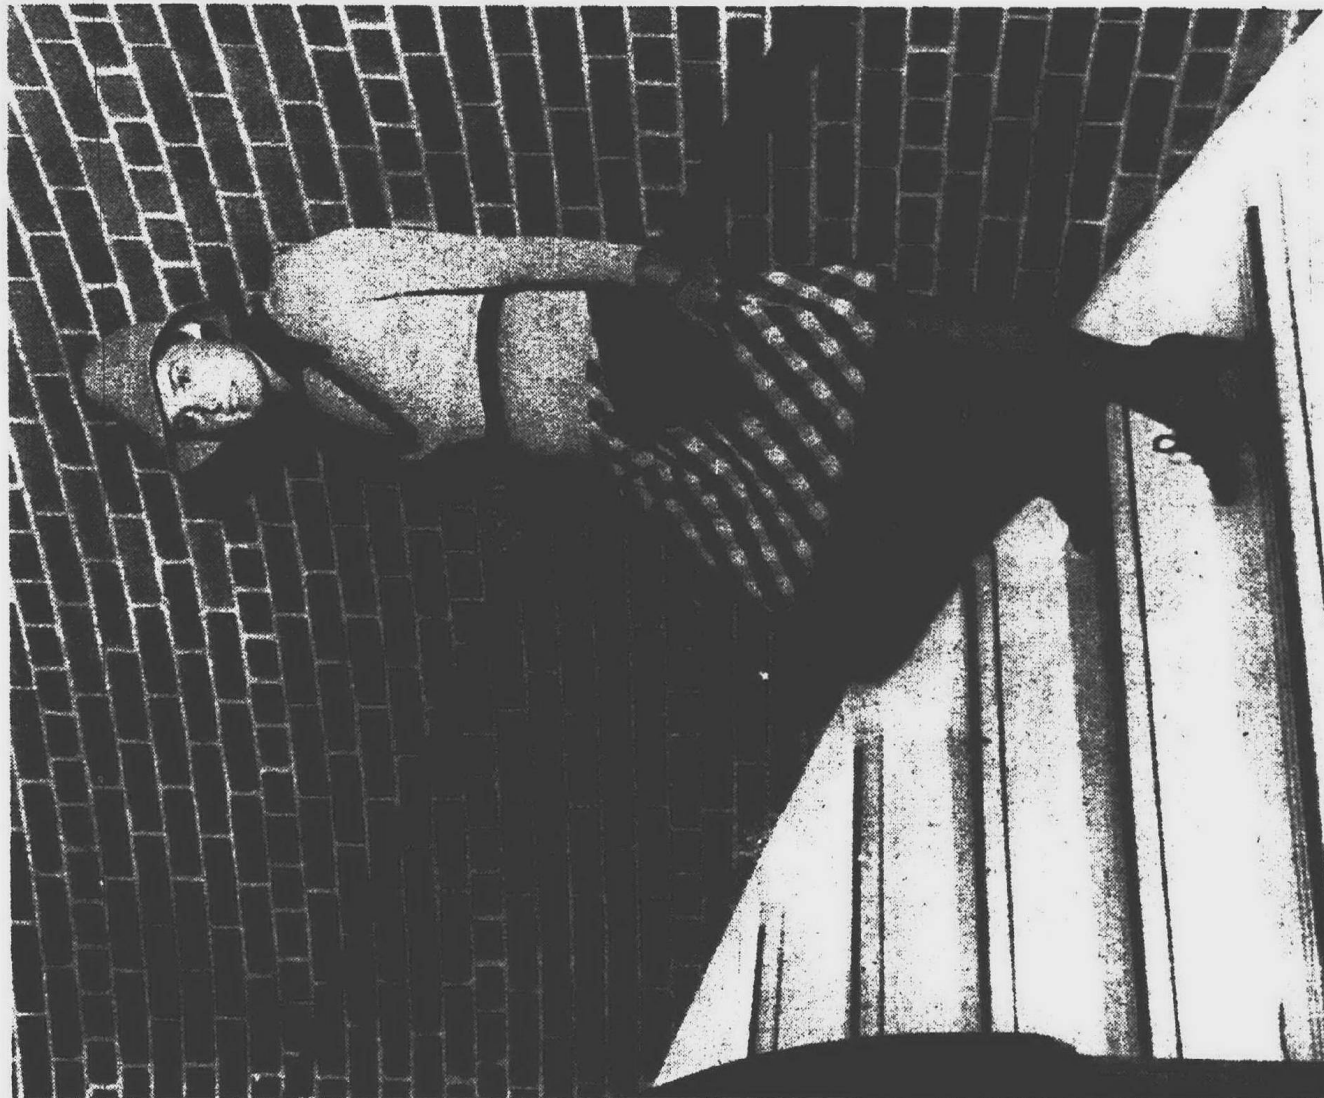

While this look remains a major influence, look for many other interesting motifs.

According to the belt firm's designers, among this fall's new fashions will be wide belts with slim jewelry look buckles in solid, twisted and braided designs. These handsome styles should appeal to the man --or woman.

THE "SWEATER DRESS" is very much in the forefront for the coming season as exemplified by this black and white Crissa wool knit, priced at $95. The windup plaid skirt is joined with a ribbed sweater and is "at home" at lunch, in the office, for cocktails or out for dinner. The "envelope" bag is the latest style in carryalls, many of which have a hidden chain for conversion to a shoulder bag. (Evert photo)

A SLEEVELESS DRESS with contrasting sweater by Howard Wolf gives the look of separates but the comfort of a one-piece outfit. Featured here with a Gatsby-style red felt hat, beads and full earrings--very big this year--this is a very "together" look for fall. The dress is priced at $70 and comes in a combination of red, black, camel and white with a camel sweater. (Evert photo)

THE YOUNGER MAN is dressing up again, but he insists on an easy, comfortable look. This three-piece suit sports a brown and confetti flecked donegal tweed. Cinched with an elasticized waist, the jacket has suede elbow patches and a half belt in the back. The slacks are pleated and cuffed. Against the background of a dacron and-cotton tattersall check shirt is a plaid wool bow tie.

The Male Wardrobe . . . For Each His Own

Now that fashion is an important part of the life of the aware American male, he is looking for his particular fashion expression when he fills out his wardrobe each season.

This expression of personal taste can extend to every area of his wardrobe, for fall-winter 1973. Depending on his particular needs, he will find fashion to suit him; when he shops this fall.

A considerable part of a man's wardrobe concerns the personal man. This includes those items such as underwear, sleepwear, robes, hosiery, handkerchiefs, and in a true sense, extends all the way to sportswear and at-home wear -- actually, those clothes a man wears for his own pleasure.

Underwear is no exception in the fashion scene this fall. Traditional white is still in demand, but colorful, patterned underwear is very much in evidence in briefs and stream-lined boxer models, some with matching or coordinating tops. In cottons, blends and synthetics, underwear joins the fashion spectrum.

Hosiery continues in its place as a fashion accessory this fall. The traditional blacks and browns are relegated to more formal occasions, and the reater, more organized patterns as well as cable knits and argyles will also find their way into the wardrobe of the fashion-aware man.

Traditionally, pajamas and robes have been thought of as utilitarian. Now, they encompass a much wider range, from the most casual to semi-formal at-home wear. Comfort is a must, and now, coupled with fashion, they make up a definite part of a man's personal wardrobe.

The knit sport shirt has taken its place in the casual life of the American man, and this season, combined with knit pullovers, cardigans and particularly sleeveless sweaters, it is a part of the sweater sets so much in fashion. The great variety of looks possible in combining, mixing and matching these different knit tops, give diversity and interest to a wardrobe.

The shawl-collar sweater is the freshest look in knit tops for fall 1973. Usually in a bulky knit, they add still another fashion layer to the already-popular layered look. Worn as outerwear, they give the warmth of a jacket but are more casual and informal. Some are reminiscent of campus sweaters of the 30's, some are cash-tied or belted, and others are pullovers in the style of an English military sweater.

The long coat of past season is definitely out of the picture this fall and winter. The shorter coats and outerwear have an important look about them, and give the man a chance to sport the new, straight legged trousers he will be wearing.

Thigh-length outerjackets in wools, tweeds, suedes, leathers, and even knits, some belted, some with elasticized waists, will be fashion news this fall. Again, they are generally casual wear, used when a man is relaxing away from his day-to-day business life.

Leathers and suedes in coats have taken on a new look with a great variety of colors. Although subdued, the colors range from the familiar tans and browns to pale ochre, bottle green, navy, and burgundy. The length is "around the knee", and many are belted or cash-tied. Leather outerwear is also part of a man's more leisurely wardrobe, although this year, a rather luxurious leisure.

Trenchcoat styling is most evident in rainwear this fall and winter. Either with set-in sleeves or the newly popular raglan sleeve, the raincoat length is also "around the knee." Knits play an important part in this area because of their practicality and durability.

Tailored casual wear has always been a favorite part of most men's wardrobes. In many a closet it isn't difficult to find that favorite sport jacket or suit that a man refuses to part with. The fabrics are usually corduroy, tweed or perhaps flannel, and somehow, one associates the smell of a pipe and cool brisk days with that familiar and very personal article.

This fall the corduroy or tartan jacket or suit, sometimes with leather trim or patches, is part of the updated classics so much in evidence.

And of course --the blazer. It would be difficult to imagine a well-dressed man without a blazer in his wardrobe. It is the most versatile of all jackets. It can be dressed up or down to fit the occasion and the mood of the man. And a blazer no longer means navy. There are tartan blazers, plaid blazers and blazers in a variety of solid colors. The blazer suit is now a most valuable and functional element in any man's wardrobe.

The Male Wardrobe . . . For Each His Own

The new English spread collar, slightly shorter and wider than the long pointed collar of past season, is the fashion news in shirts for fall. This collar along with button-downs and tab collars in more organized patterns and stripes will be in keeping with the slightly relaxed feeling of the English country look.

The bow tie is again the fashion tie this fall in wools, tannels, challis, tartans, reps, and club prints. The four-in-hand in similar fabrics is more classic; and the patterns are neater and more organized.

The narrower belt continues in its popularity. With less hardware, buckles are smaller and more classic in keeping with the general trend in slacks and tailored clothing.

Hats and caps will look right once more this fall in keeping with the classic look of fashion. In flannels, tweeds, suedes and classic patterns the casual cap or hat belongs in the wardrobe of the well-pu-together man.

The shoe for fall 1973 will be more streamlined and classic with less of a bulky look. Tans, browns and blacks in smooth leathers and suedes will be the fashion shoes; and the crepe sole returns in casual shoes. For the mature man the heel will be only slightly higher than in past seasons, avoiding the exaggerated high heel that is in favor with younger boys.

Finally, in order to be well-dressed, a man has to be well-groomed. That makes toiletries an important adjunct to his wardrobe. He will need good quality shaving and after shave lotions, hair grooming aids, deodorants and colognes for that finishing touch.

The sweater set . . . a versatile look for fall.

THE ENGLISH COUNTRY LOOK readily adapts itself to the relaxed American way of life. This hip-length, double-breasted and belted jacket of wool and nylon is patterned in a bold herringbone of confetti tweed, and styled with an oversized collar and lapels and flapped patch pockets. The camel-color, ribbed wool-knit turtleneck and brown wool cap complete the look.
