Year-Round School Favored In Survey

By MARIE McGEE

Plymouth school board members have their work cut out for them as they begin a penetrating study of an extended school year plan. The idea is an alternative to a costly construction program to meet the immediate needs of a booming student population.

That was the upshot of the meeting Monday night when the board officially received the report of the committee studying maximum utilization of buildings in school district.

The lengthy report revealed that the community clearly prefers the extended school year (ESY) plan over nine other proposals that included split sessions and "satellite" schools.

Board president E. J. McClendon told the Plymouth Mail and Observer after the meeting that trustees will immediately begin study sessions to sift through the facts – particulary cost factors. Several public sessions will be held, he added, as the board attempts to gain some ground in the battle to provide educational facilities.

A decision must be made soon, he emphasized, if the district is to keep pace with rising enrollments – up some 900 students this year alone.

"We are already in a period of stress," Dr. McClendon commented.

The ESY plan emerged as the first choice of the community in two surveys recently conducted by the committee.

In one survey, postcards listing 10 alternatives to a building program were sent to 15,000 residents. An "amazing" 86 per cent return of these showed residents favored extending the school year as a means of alleviating the building crisis.

After analyzing all the data, the committee also concluded the community is willing to support construction of additional buildings to some degree, but only if other alternatives are developed and implemented.

"Some combination of extended school year and/or extended school day (at the high school) and construction of new buildings, with the view of ultimately reducing the total construction in such a way as to obviate the possibility of empty classrooms in the future, would be acceptable to the community," the committee said.

Another conclusion was that "there is considerable urgency in the development of alternative plans to assure the community that its 'mandate' is being followed."

That "mandate" came in December and June when voters turned down two bonding requests to be specifically used for new school construction.

Before the postcard questionnaire, a random sampling of 801 residents was also taken. Results of theat poll also showed that the ESY plan was the preferred alternative in meeting the educational needs.

Both surveys were designed and supervised by Dr. Donald Marcotte of Wayne State University.

"It is the judgment of the committee that renting buildings inside the district, elementary split sessions, satellite schools, renting outside the district and paying tuition outside the district are not preferred choices of the community," the reports said, referring to some of the alternatives from which the community could pick.

A cost analysis of the various alternatives was prepared for the committee by Dr. Alexander Kloster,. professor of education at Michigan State University.

It revealed – as best as could be determined -- that the ESY plan would neither increase nor decrease the district's per pupil costs.

The third preferred alternative of an extended school day could result in a decrease in costs of $203 per pupil. The fourth ranked alternative of constructing buildings would result in an increase to the district of $105 per pupil.

The cost figures were the best that they could obtain at the present time, the committee said, but they cautioned the board to make a further analysis.

The committee was particularly cautious about ESY costs, adding that most data relative to this plan are based on estimates because there is still too little data from which to draw conclusive evidence.

The most extensive cost study made to date is related to the Northville School District, which presently had a 45-15 day extended school year program in operation, the committee noted.

But even this is inconclusive because Northville's costs in operating the program have been offset by two federal grants.

A critical cost factor in the ESY plan is transportation, Kloster's figures show.

Another expense is the need to air condition schools for summer use. Additional costs also would be incurred, the report said, in providing vacations for employes who will be required to work 12 months as well as additional maintenance costs to the buildings themselves.

"We need to know more about all these items," McClendon said. For this reason, he said the board will ask Kloster to attend the study sessions in an effort to better determine if the ESY plan is the best answer to Plymouth's problem.

The complete committee report is available for perusal by the public at the board's offices. Included are postcard survey comments which committee members said served as a valuable source of community input in preparing the 134 - page document.

Dispute Between Township, Firemen Leads To Picketing

Do Plymouth Township's firefighters have a contract?

There are two answers to that question – one from the township and one from the firefighters.

Off - duty firemen have been picketing Plymouth Township Hall on Ann Arbor Road this week as an "informational" step to seek payment of an increase under their 1971 contract that was only granted weeks ago by the federal pay board.

The firemen say they will not sign a contract until the township pays the back wages.

The township board, in a statement Tuesday, maintains "that a valid contract exists" because the firefighters voted to ratify an agreement although the union's president, Larry Groth, refused to sign the contract drawn up based on the agreement.

J.D. McLaren, Plymouth Township supervisor, said the union's secretary signed the pact.

Therefore, McLaren says, the township board has informally agreed to instruct its attorney to file unfair labor practice charges against the firefighters' union.

The township board gave this version:

"Collective bargaining between the Township of Plymouth and Local 1496 of the International Association of firefighters AFL-CIO for the 1973-73 contract commenced in the spring of 1972. By the fall of 1973, the board was advised by its attorneys that agreement on all outstanding issues was near. At this time, the firefighters replaced their attorney with Maurice Breen, and negotiations once again commenced.

(Breen is the former Plymouth Township supervisor.)

"On May 22, with the assistance of a state mediator, the parties resolved all outstanding issues and a settlement agreement was signed by the members of the township and the firefighters negotiating teams, which included the attorneys for the township and the firefighters. Subsequently, the firefighters notified the township that they would not accept the signed settlement agreement.

"On July 20, the Cost of Living Council issued a determination allowing the township to pay salary rates set forth in the 1971 contract, retroactively for 1971. Pursuant to the 1971 contract, the township had assisted in procuring this determination. The township notified the firefighters at that time that it intended to make this retroactive payment.

"In addition to this retroactive pay, however, the firefighters demanded further economic improvements for the 1973 contract year in addition to those already agreed upon in the May 22 settlement agreement.

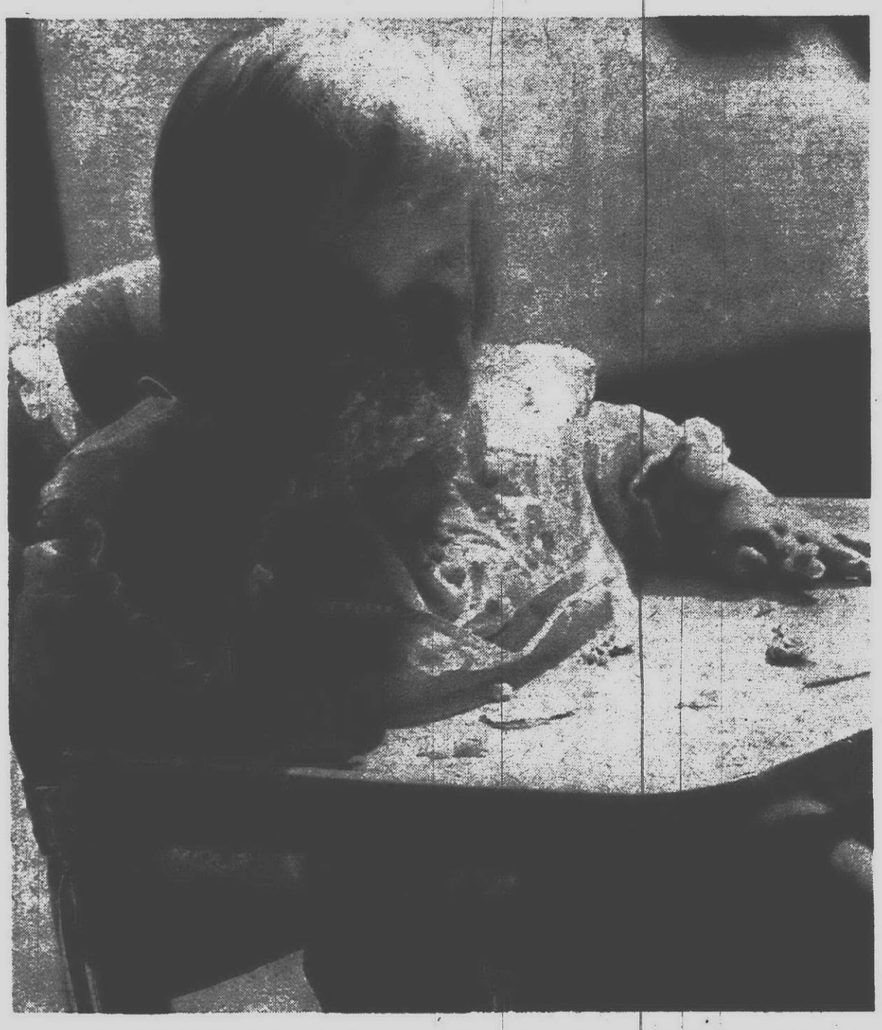

"In addition to the retroactive payment for 1971, the township also proposed in subsequent negotiations additional retroactive pay for 1972 and 1973. The township also proposed an additional wage increase for 1973 beyond that which had already been agreed to on May 22.

"On Sept. 5, the firefighters' attorney, Maurice Breen, advised the township, in writing, that the firefighters had ratified the contract and presented a settlement agreement signed by

Festival Hailed As Successful

By EDWARD WENDOVER

There was more chicken, more fish and more beef sold to more people than ever last weekend at the annual Plymouth Fall Festival.

According to Fall Festival Manager Tony Flum, the Rotary Club sold out with a record 15,000 chicken dinners Sunday, the Jaycees sold 1,000 more sets of beef ribs Saturday night than they had even expected to get, and the Lions sold a record number of fish dinners on Friday.

"Everything went well," Flum beamed.

The festival manager praised the Jaycees in particular for handling what could have been a wasteful situation.

Apparently there was some confusion between the Jaycees and their beef supplier; the Jaycees were expecting 2,700 ribs for the dinners but got instead, 2,700 pounds of ribs -- each rib weighing about 12 ounces.

Thus, the Jaycees were faced with 1,000 extra ribs which they managed to dispose of by selling leftovers to the crowd.

The Thursday Business and Professional Women's club's German dinner also did well after getting off to a slow start early in the day, Flum said.

"This was extremely heavy for the start of the festival," the festival manager observed.

And once off to a good start, the festival kept rolling.

Crowds swelled beyond the Kellogg Park area up Main Street toward several attractions, including the Community Arts Council's arts and crafts show at Central Middle School and the Plymouth Symphony League's antique mart in the Plymouth Community Cultural Center.

Many downtown merchants who stayed open extra hours to cater to the festival crowds reported great success.

Plymouth Police Chief Timothy Ford reported that while his officers worked overtime to handle the hundreds of problems always encountered during the festival, there were no major incidents.

Some problems were encountered by festival goers because of the many road blocks and detours in the city caused by the festival and street repaving.

Several merchants downtown were upset by the city's blockading the Ann Arbor Trail entrance to the central parking lot which was done to divert traffic congestion from downtown area.

Many groups sponsoring booths in the Kellogg Park-Main Street area reported excellent sales which set money - raising records for them.

Observer photographers Doug Johnson and Bob Woodring took more than 100 photos at this year's event. Many of them appear on other pages in today's paper.

Haggerty Rezoning Tabled

A request for rezoning of the northwest corner of Haggerty and Plymouth Roads to permit a shopping complex and high - rise apartment complex has been tabled until Oct. 17.

The Plymouth Township Planning Commission tabled action on the rezoning five weeks in order to allow the petitioner, Hillside Building Co. and Realtex Industries, an opportunity to present a commercial study and a chance for the city's planning commission to react to the proposal.

The city's opinion was asked because of the project's proximity to the city boundary.

According to the developer asking for the rezoning, the project would include nine - story apartment buildings and a "local" shopping and entertainment center.

The proposed site is the former parking lot of Burroughs Corp.

PR Seminar Tonight

The big day is here and the first session of the Observer Newspapers publicity and press relations seminar will take place tonight (Wednesday) in the new Observer plant, 36251 Schoolcraft Road in Livonia.

For those who aren't familiar with the location, the Observer building is located on Schoolcraft Road at the intersection with Levan. It's easy to find and there is plenty of parking for all registrants in the large lot.

The first annual seminar is limited to 150 registrants, a fact well publicized during the past month in promotion stories telling of the event. There are three large conference rooms available at the Observer plant but total capacity is 150.

All of which means many more registration blanks were received than could be handled. Notes of regret have been sent to all sending in blanks after the quota was reached. All were told the Observer editorial staff is studying the possibility of a third session of the 1973 seminar in late October or early November.

The first of this year's scheduled two sessions is slated tonight and the second will be held a week from tonight on Wednesday, Sept. 19. Each gathering will open at 8 p.m. with a meeting of all registrants in the cafeteria.

After a welcome address, the group will be divided into three segments. One will meet in the cafeteria, a second will gather in the Observer's small conference room and the third will adjourn to the large conference room.

Inasmuch as the evening has been divided into three 30-minute panels, the registrants will move from room to room to attend the various meetings.

One will be devoted to a discussion of photographs which are acceptable for use and which ones aren't. Chief Photographer Bob Woodring and News Editor Tim Richard will explain the Observer policies in regard to photo assignments and also show examples of pictures, good, bad, and indifferent.

A second panel will be conducted by Women's and

SC Has Room For More

Students have signed up for nearly 2,000 credit hours in community services classes at Schoolcraft College this fall. Although this more than doubles the 900 credit hours recorded last fall, Director Ron Griffith reports there are still openings in many interesting classes.

Griffith named these classes in which openings still exist: Secretarial refresher CPS II; office time management; Lamaze childbirth education; writing and analysis of poetry; basic chess; advanced Biblical archaelogy; security officers institute; drug abuse here and now.

"Registrations now will have to be in person," the director said, "because we have gone beyond the time we can accept them by mail." This can be completed on campus from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. weekdays, and on Wednesday evening from 6-9 at the switchboard in the administration building.

Older Persons Offered Courses

Fitness after 50 and pre-retirement planning are two classes of special interest to older men and women being offered at Schoolcraft College late in September.

"Fitness" is a class for older adults interested in an individually designed fitness program. The class will meet three times a week for eight weeks, beginning Sept. 24.

After registration by mail, students will receive a form to be signed by a physician indicating any special problems to be taken into consideration. The pool and exercise equipment will be available with qualified instructors to lead the program.

Tuition for each class is $11 for residents of the College District. For registration or further information contact Betty Andrews, who directs senior adult affairs at the college.

'Mets,' If Abused, Can Kill

Question: What are Az's?

Answer: Az's, Azz, etc., equals A/S for Arnar Stone, one of the manufacturers of methaqualone. Methaqualone (quads) is used mainly as a sedative or hypnotic (sleeping pill) agent. Contrary to popular opinion and claims by some drug companies, prolonged use of quads may cause physical dependence (addiction) and psychological dependency similar to that of barbiturate addiction.

Withdrawal from the drug can result in death if detoxification is not properly supervised. Quads mixed with alcohol have an additive effect and can cause death.

Question: Don't people die from mets (methadone)?

Answer: Yes they can, if this drug is abused. It is a central nervous system depressant just as heroin, and like heroin, street methadone is generally used in conjunction with other "downers" (barbiturates). Also like heroin, it has an addictive effect.

Persons who inject methadone in a non - hospital setting run the risk of several illnesses, including hepatitis, skin ulcers and infections.

the majority of the firefighters. Based upon these facts, the township board also ratified the contract by majority vote on Sept. 5.

(The board has never voted formally on the firemen's contract at a public meeting.)

"The contract was signed by the township supervisor and clerk and by the secretary of the firefighters. The president of the firefighters, Larry Groth, was unavailable on Sept. 5. On Sept. 6, firefighter attorney, Breen, informed the township that the firefighters' president would not sign the contract unless further concessions were made.

"The township board has been informed by its attorneys that a valid contract exists and that the firefighters' refusal to sign the contract constitutes an unfair labor practice. The township board has also been informed by its attorneys that the object of the picketing by non-township employees also constitutes an unfair labor practice.

"The township board has authorized has authorized its attorneys to file unfair labor practice charges against the firefighters. The contract mutually agreed to and ratified by the parties covers all out - standing issues including retroactive pay. The township intends to make the retroactive payments in accordance with the contract."

Groth told The Plymouth Mail & Observer that the township's intention to "mix" the retroactive pay issue with the contract negotiations and that this could mean a loss of 1972 overtime wages for firefighters.

The union president stressed that the firemen's picketing was "informational" and did not affect services provided by the township fire department.

Fred DeLano writes

After Teachers Go Back—What?

For those school districts which now are entering the second week of teacher strikes, the lark is over. Youthful glee at having an unscheduled extension of summer vacation must now give way to mounting irritation and citizen unrest, leading to pressure on both sides to get on with the job.

Even so, as new contracts emerge one by one, there still lives in this corner the same sense of bewilderment which I first expressed editorially in the Plymouth Mail & Observer at the end of that district's regrettable 25-day strike in 1969:

"If it was possible to reach an agreement by 3 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 27 which was acceptable to both sides – each of whom gave a bit from previously adamant positions – then why in tarnation weren't these adversaries able to reach a similar settlement on the morning of Tuesday, Sept. 2 when the strike action was voted?"

This has been Michigan's worst year ever for teacher strife in the public schools, yet eventually settlement is inevitable in every district. Unfortunately, that may be all it is – settlement, not a cure.

Strike coverage is not new to this reporter and, in fact, dates back to tumultous Flint of the late '30s when the three Reuther brothers and unionists such as Homer Martin, Dick Travis and Betty Simpson were names on every tongue of the community.

Mayhap the mood of that area hasn't changed much in three and a half decades for one notes that of the 29 strikes continuing in Michigan Monday morning, six were in Flint and its suburbs.

I must admit that rarely have I understood the necessity of a strike in any field of endeavor, but this applies particularly to school teachers. To occur, there must be a complete breakdown in communication and trust.

Plymouth paid a very dear price for its 1969 strike in the sense of community moral scars which only now are beginning to fade.

A lesser price was the immediate adjustment which was necessary in the 1969-70 school calendar to make up for 17 classless days: spring vacation was cut to two days (Good Friday and Easter Monday) and the spring semester was extended to June 26. Oh, yes, teachers also were required to devote four Saturdays as their in-service workshops.

Parallel steps can be expected wherever strikes now continue so that the eventual school year may be brought to the state - mandated minimum of 180 days of student educational instruction.

Now is the time, too, when teachers begin coming up empty on what were supposed to be pay days. In Plymouth they missed two of them, and for some it was necessary to hurry to their friendly banks and credit unions to hustle up some grocery cash.

In the end, of course, they all got the full salaries as provided in the new contract (including raises), and herein lies one of sources of irritation to a large segment of the lay public. They cannot understand why teachers aren't penalized for the days they refuse to work.

In fact, the bloke of average mentality finds it hard to understand, too, how those in a profession which the law bars from striking in the first place can get away with taking such defiant power in their own hands.

The easiest answer to that is the fact that their mass numbers make the law inoperable, and there aren't enough teeth in it to make it work any way.

Even after all the smoke clears this fall, there will be a lingering sense of foreboding as to what future years will bring. The militancy of the Michigan Education Association is all too well spelled out in its task force recommendations of statewide bargaining strategy to think we are embarking on an era of peace and serenity in confrontations between teachers and school boards.

The professionalism in the approach to negotiations we have seen in some districts and the lack of animosity with which their bargaining was conducted is offset by the enthusiasm for creating a statewide crisis atmosphere on the part of the MEA's "professional strikers."

It is a time for rationality and truth on both sides of the bargaining table.

Board's Reasons For Secret Meetings Out Of This World

On the extremely rare occasions when school board members bother to defend their practice of secret meetings, they usually give the same reasons, apparently memorized from an association meeting, for keeping the public in the dark.

One is that delicate personnel matters are being discussed; another, that real estate is to be purchased and they don't want to drive the land price up; still another, that a student discipline case is under appeal.

That, of course, is a rationalization. Most boards discuss many other things behind closed doors. Let's consider Clarenceville, South Redford and Southfield.

A couple of weeks ago, the Clarenceville Board of Education, Norman L. Hunt presiding, was about to set the tax rate for the year. No personnel matters. No real estate transactions. No student discipline cases.

The board then went into what is euphemistically called an "executive" session for 20 minutes, leaving the public to cool its heels. Afterwards, it came out and voted on the matter.

Why the secrecy? In the most basic single action a board can take -- putting a monetary value on the program priorities for school children – why should a supposedly honest group of mature, adult males have to go into hiding before making a decision?

Despite an angry warning from this corner, the South Redford Board of Education, Richard Guregian presiding, held a secret meeting to discuss which elementary schools it would close if a millage proposal were defeated by the voters.

The lame excuse was that real estate values would be affected. Well, real estate values would be affected anyway when the decision was made public; anyone knows you can't shut down 37 per cent of your elementary schools without folks finding out about it.

Later on, the real reason came out: Board members simply didn't want voters, taxpayers and parents breathing down their necks. The attitude seems to be: We, The Elders, will decide what's good for you, and we'll let you know later what we have decided.

Fortunately, the millage passed last Saturday.

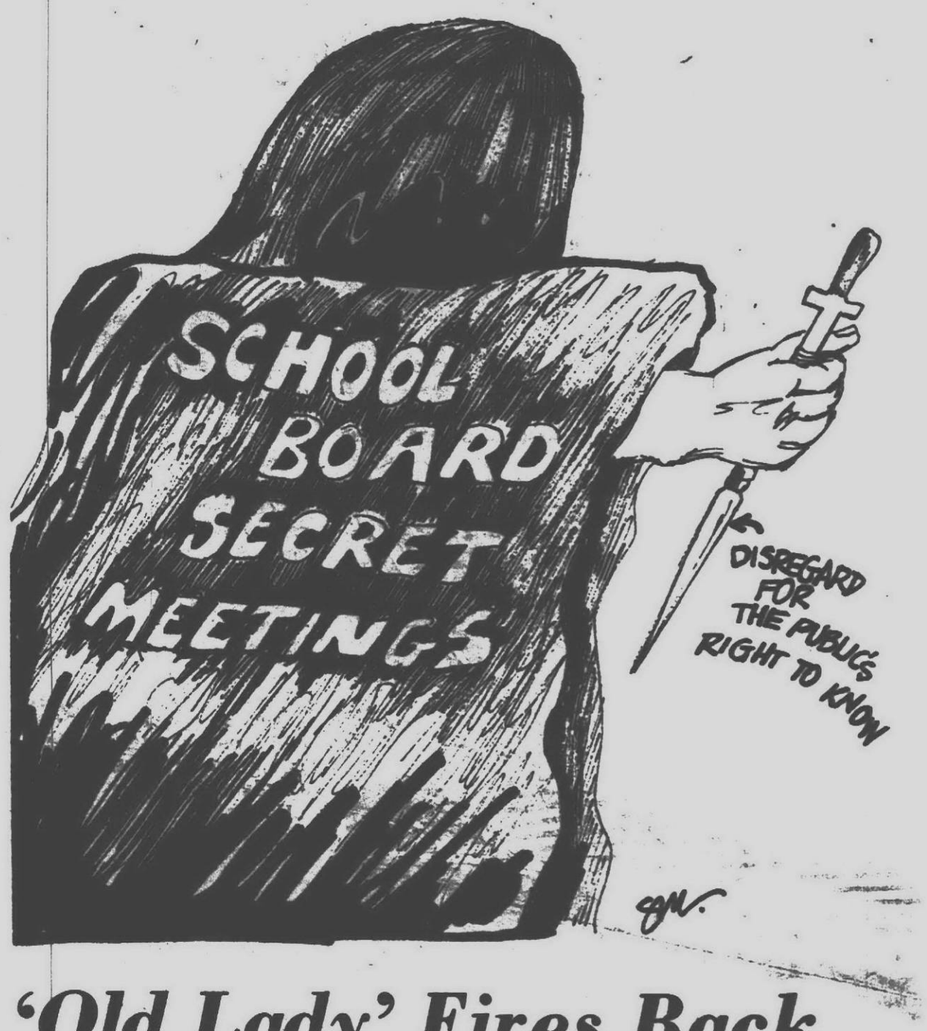

In Southfield, they are a little more honest about secrecy than in Clarenceville or South Redford. The Southfield board voted 5-2 to continue holding study sessions in secret.

Dr. Harold Bussey, a board member, made the incredible statement that the board isn't trying to hide anything, and the public is always made aware of how each board member votes on the final decision.

For the benefit of the many Dr. Busseys on our school boards, there are many reasons why a school board should do more than take its formal votes in public:

- The public has a right to know what options the board considered before making a decision.
- The public has a right to know which proposals were rejected before the final choice was made.
- The public has a right to know board members' reasons for doing what they did. As anyone who has ever seen the inside of a secret meeting knows, the sugar-coated reasons a board member gives in public and his true reasons are often two different things.
- The public has a right to know who influenced a board's decision. Typically, the seven - member board has other persons into its meetings -- administrators, real estate men, pressure group representatives. The public should be able to see that influence.
- The public has a right to have some input -- to make suggestions, to squawk, to build up a case for either re-electing or defeating board members.

That is why secret meetings are so deplorable.

'Old Lady' Fires Back At Sex, Marital Bias

EDITOR:

I am in the age and sex categories of those "old ladies in their 40s, 50s, and 60s" referred to and complained about by Ronald Jones (Leon Doolin concurring) in the Readers' Forum on Aug. 20.

Mr. Jones wrote that those "old ladies would be better off at home" so that more substitute teaching jobs would be available for young husbands like himself. He also stated that he felt the practice of hiring teachers from outside the community was unfair.

I would like to address myself to Mr. Jones and Mr. Doolin.

Gentlemen, what makes you believe you are better or as well qualified for the job as other applicants? Hiring and keeping teachers or anyone else, for that matter, should be done on the bases of skill, potential and dedication to the job. Age, race, color, creed, sex, marital status and even residence or tenure in some cases should not influence the decision to employ anyone.

There may be a message in the fact that you were only asked to work on a very limited basis. Could it be that you have mediocre or, worse yet, inferior teaching abilities, even though you say your credentials are adequate? Your superior male and youth worshipping attitudes are quite apparent and this bias may reflect in your other attitudes.

By the way, Mr. Jones and Mr. Doolin, why haven't you been looking for teaching assignments in other communities? There's a whole great big world out there and perhaps you need to explore it before resigning yourselves to failure.

If you're wondering: No, I am not a teacher. I wanted to be president of General Motors, but found the job filled by an old man. Not willing to settle for anything less, I'm unemployed.

A very young "old lady" who doesn't "belong at home."

Don't Hire The Prejudiced

EDITOR:

In a recent edition of this newspaper, a letter appeared which was written by two young men unable to secure teaching jobs in Plymouth.

They did not discuss their qualifications, but rather they belabored the fact that because they are young, male and supporting families, they deserve jobs. Strong prejudices against both women and older people were evident in their letter.

I wish to express my admiration and appreciation to the administration of the Plymouth Community Schools for having the wisdom not to hire these two men.

Firemen Told Job Well Done

EDITOR:

On Thursday, Aug. 9, a fire occurred in my house, causing extensive damage to approximately 50 per cent of the building. As a result, my family and I will have to reside elsewhere until the repairs are completed.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my and my family's appreciation to the Livonia Fire Department for a job that was well done.

The firemen from Engine Company 2 (at Farmington and Plymouth Roads) responded within minutes, going about their work very calmly, quickly, and efficiently. One of the firemen retrieved a sum of money which one of my sons had left in the area of the fire, returning it to me.

I am sure that due to their very efficient action, potential damage was held to a minimum. They were extremely courteous and willing to help in any way possible. It is very heartwarming to know that we have men of this caliber in the service of our community.

Milk Program Badly Needed

EDITOR:

Please print this address for people to write to complain about the rise in milk at schools, not only in Plymouth but all over.

There is a "Special Milk Program" that has been discontinued and thus the rise in prices, as the state was reimbursing the schools four cents per half-pint of milk.

Last year it cost me $21.60 approximately to buy four kids milk. This year it'll cost me $72. I certainly would urge everyone to write to urge the "Special Milk Program" be reinstated so all kids can afford milk.

Is FEA Wrong In Grid Practice Ban?

There always are some individuals and groups that lose in all strikes, just as there are many who benefit from labor strife.

But out Farmington way the striking teachers will have a hard time proving to members of the football squads at the three high schools that anyone is going to benefit this time around.

For more than a month the youngsters have been working out, getting in top shape for the season that is supposed to open Friday but won't for North Farmington, Farmington Harrison and Farmington High.

The reason, the coaches have been forbidden by the teachers' union to work with their squads and state rules provide that a team must have 14 practice sessions before a game ... under the supervision of the coach.

Only Farmington schools are hit by this rule since the Farmington Education Association barred teachers from entering the schools.

The big knot for the coaches came where each has only a teaching contract which includes but doesn't specify additional pay or a separate contract for coaching.

Thus all coaches are teachers only and must abide by the FEA rules ... get on the picket lines and do not enter the school buildings for anything.

Only Farmington and Birmingham schools were hit by the Michigan High School Athletic Association code. Birmingham reached a tentative agreement with the school board and grid practices were resumed Saturday, qualifying the teams there to play the opening game this weekend as scheduled.

Farmington is still far from an agreement, the teams did not work out Saturday and thus each must cancel its season opener. Should the strike continue through next Saturday, then the second game will be canceled or perhaps postponed until later in the year.

We feel it's about time the teachers' unions clarified their rules. This time it isn't the teachers who are paying a penalty for the strike ... it's the members of the football teams who have worked so hard to get ready for the season and then had the rug pulled out from under them.

Every other squad in the area continued practices, many in areas where strikes still continue. The difference is the coaches there have contracts for coaching and thus were allowed to continue their training.

'Tis sad indeed that such things had to happen to Coach Ron Holland and his North Farmington squad this year.

Just three years back, Ron had the finest team in Michigan and walked off with state championship honors.

He has spent the last two years rebuilding and reports are that North has prospects for its best team ever.

What a sad time for the gridders? Members of a squad that could take it all but already has lost its opening test by cancellation and may not be allowed to play its second game.

The same story can well be said of Harrison and Farmington. Each school thought this would be a better than average year ... but who knows when the players will be able to show their skills.

More than that there are a good many disturbed parents who have watched their youngsters go through long drills for what could well be naught if the strike isn't resolved.

These are members of the bands, the cheerleaders, the drum majors and majorettes. These are the members of the golf and cross country teams and all other varsity units that compete in the fall.

None is allowed to practice, coaches and directors can't work with their proteges until contracts are approved.

There isn't any question that the strike will be settled but it is leaving a bad taste in the mouths of parents who have been staunch boosters of the teachers in the past.

It's an even bet they won't be in the future and a good deal of the fault lies with the teachers themselves.

How would you like to be one of the Farmington youngsters sitting in the stands at some contest in another community while thinking of the season opener for his school that won't take place?

Legislators' Mail Tab: $43,403

An Observer Roundup

Observerland's four state senators and eight state representatives dumped thousands of pieces of mail into postal bags during the first six months of 1973 at a cost of $43,403 to taxpayers.

The four senators had bills totalling $25,275, outspending the eight representatives who totalled $18,128 in the same period.

The large Senate bill was due primarily to Sen. Daniel Cooper (D-Oak Park), whose mailing costs ran $13,211.52. Cooper, who tops all 38 Michigan senators in mailing costs, attributes his large bill to mailing three or four legislative reports to each of his 250,000 constituents this year.

Cooper uses the mailings to keep his constituents informed of his work, as does Sen. Carl Pursell (R-Plymouth) who says his mailings often elicit responses from his constituency.

Pursell, whose bill for the six-month period totalled $4,392, said his mailings are usually in the form of questionnaires which he uses to determine opinions in his district.

"It really changed my vote on the lottery," he said, explaining that he was prepared to vote against the lottery until he checked his voter survey and found that 80 per cent of his constituents supported it.

He always gets a stream of mail from constituents after his mailings go out, Pursell added.

Sen. David Plawecki (D-Dearborn Heights) spent $4,950 during the six months and Sen. William Faust (D-Westland) spent $2,721.

Total spending in the 38 member Senate reached $123,000, while spending for the 110 state representatives reached $287,000.

State Rep. John Markes (D-Westland) was among the 10 highest spenders among Michigan legislators with a mailing bill of $5,165.

Other state representatives spent: Thomas Brown (D-Westland), $3,502; Raymond Smit (R-Ann Arbor), $2,338; Joseph Forbes (D-Oak Park), $1,922; John Bennett (D-Redford Township), $1,803; William Keith (D-Garden City), $1,692; R. Robert Geake (R-Northville), $1,690; and Raymond Baker (R-Farmington), $95.

Planner's Report Distributed, Taken Back

Hot Words Fly At Downtown Redevelopment Meeting

By EDWARD WENDOVER

PLYMOUTH

Some hot words were exchanged between Plymouth's mayor, James McKeon, and members of the audience of a joint city commission - planning commission meeting Monday night.

The arguments came after copies of a preliminary report from the city planner were distributed in the audience of about 30 and then collected again after the city commissioners and planning commissioners decided release of the report would be premature.

Included in the preliminary report on downtown development from Vilican - Leman Associates were an analysis of the parking situation, breakdown of property usage in the central business area and an estimate of the costs involved in redeveloping property on the area bordering the proposed traffic loop.

It was the last section that prompted city officials to ask that the material discussed at the public workshop not be circulated.

Mary Childs, chairman of the planning commission, collected copies of the planner's report which had previously been distributed to some members of the audience – including representatives of the Chamber of Commerce.

In discussion of whether information in the report should be released, McKeon said, "I'm adamantly against letting out information while a study is in progress."

He said the report discussed in public Monday was "an informational status report" to inform the city commission and planning commission of the work conducted thus far by Vilican-Leman.

McKeon added that he was concerned the public would misconstrue the report and interpret it as redevelopment or rezoning action being contemplated by the city.

"What value will this information be in the next four to five weeks that it takes us to put this study together?" the mayor said after members of the audience complained about having the reports recollected from them and the commissions asking that the information discussed in the meeting not be "spread around town."

After representiatves of the chamber objected to having the reports taken away from them, the mayor said he hoped "later in the fall that we can have a meeting with the chamber of commerce to discuss this plan."

Fred Thoman, co-owner of Wayside Gifts, replied, "People in business are generally left out of it until the decision is made."

McKeon said he hoped the business community could have some input into the study before it is adopted.

Julie Thoman of the gift shop said, "The feeling that you know what's going on helps" allay fears that a decision will be made that would hurt businessmen.

The meeting ended amicably between the city officials and business representatives however when it was decided that the entire issue would be discussed later when the planner's report was more complete.

The section of the planner's report on "land assembly and clearance costs" of the "sites possessing greatest potential for redevelopment" in the downtown area estimated the cost of assembling and clearing 23 major parcels.

Charles M. DiMaggio of Vilican - Leman said the costs were based on the property's assessed value (which is public information), estimated costs of clearing existing buildings and trees, plus a 10 per cent contingency for inflation and other costs.

The preliminary study is being assembled by the planner as part of a major program to implement an updated plan in the city.

No recommendation on redevelopment or rezoning are proposed in the report which was discussed for 1½ hours Monday.

One portion of the planner's report which also sparked much discussion was a parking analysis of the downtown area. It showed parking facilities are rarely utilized to their maximum.

The study showed that in the nine - block central business district core, there is a surplus of 94 parking spaces, based on current usage of the available floor space by stores and offices.

In the 17 - block business district fringe area, the study shows, there is a surplus of 24 parking spaces, making a total parking space surplus of 118 in the downtown area.

The analysis takes into account all on - street and off - street parking and compares it to the city ordinance ratio which requires one parking space per 150 square feet of usable commercial space and one parking spot per 300 square feet of usable office floor area.

Vilican - Leman also surveyed use of off - street parking lots in the downtown area by aerial photography and visual checks three times on Wednesday, July 11, and Saturday, July 14. It found they never filled more than 37.1 per cent on the whole.

Overall utilization of the 41 parking lots (which range in size from five to 226 spaces) was:

•On July 11 at 9 a.m. – 21.3 per cent; at noon – 37.1 per cent; at 3 p.m. – 34.9 per cent.

•On July 14 at 9 a.m. – 18.2 per cent; at noon – 28.8 per cent; and at 3 p.m. – 24.7 per cent.

Peak usage of the lots at those times varied individually between zero and 100 per cent.

Merchants present at Monday's meeting claimed the times surveyed were not representative because July is the slowest month of the year for retail trade, and Wednesday is a slow day.

DiMaggio said his firm would conduct further surveys of the parking utilization on other days of the week.

Vilican - Leman's report also analyzed use of structures – in the central business district and found the following uses:

•FRINGE AREA: Comparison commercial, 12.8 per cent; convenience commercial, 0.5 per cent; general commercial, one per cent; office, 15.6 per cent; public, 4.1 per cent; quasi - public, 8.8 per cent; automotive, 0.9 per cent; residential, 49.9 per cent; multiple dwelling, 2.2 per cent; vacant, 4.2 per cent.

The percentages were based on floor space.

Some questions you've asked us about your future at The Lutheran Retirement Center

During the last two years, a lot of people from all over Michigan have asked us a lot of good questions about the Lutheran Retirement Center in Ann Arbor. Here are the ten most frequently asked, along with the answers:

1. What will be some of the important features at The Lutheran Retirement Center?
Among the most important features of life at The Center will be freedom from homeowner responsibilities, well balanced meals, special dietary services, constant attention to health needs, a balance between privacy and companionship, and an independent form of living with assured security. Residents will be free to come and go as they choose, to entertain guests and relatives, to participate in the varied activities available and to help plan those activities. In fact, residents will be expected to live there as they would in the homes from which they come with complete freedom and privacy.

2. Who will be eligible?
Persons who are 65 years of age or older are eligible. They must be in reasonably good health for their age, with the qualities of personality conducive to congenial group living, and with the income and resources to meet the financial requirements. Persons who are motivated by ethical principles, without regard to religious denominations will be sought. An Admissions Committee, with the Executive Director, will decide all matters of eligibility.

3. What happens if a person is accepted as a resident but is not ambulatory when The Center is ready for occupancy?
He or she will be admitted without qualification and will receive all benefits to which residents are entitled.

4. May residents bring their own furniture?
Yes, residents will be welcome to bring their own valued familiar possessions and furnishings. Wall to wall carpeting and drapery linings will be provided. Each unit will have a private bath, and adequate closet space. There will be storage lockers elsewhere in the building.

5. Will residents be able to control heating and air conditioning in their apartments?
Yes, for complete comfort, apartment heating and air conditioning will be individually controlled.

6. What will be the extent of nursing care?
Residents who become ill will be cared for in The Center's own nursing care facility where members of the nursing staff will be on duty at all times. In the event a resident is provided with nursing care in the nursing care facility beyond 10 days per year or an accumulated 30 days in three years, an additional modest per deim charge will be made. This nursing care facility will be accredited by all state and local agencies, and qualified by the Medicare program.

7. What about facilities for regular exercise, especially during colder months?
The Center's sponsors believe that residents can benefit greatly from regular exercise, and have planned to provide indoor exercise equipment. Apparatus such as stationary bicycles and other equipment will be available at no charge. And because exercise is a vital part of many therapeutic programs, it will be encouraged. In addition, outdoor exercise facilities - a perimeter walk and bike path - are planned.

8. Will special diets be served in the regular dining room?
Yes, special diets will be served if prescribed and required by your physician, and supervised by The Center's dietician.

9. Would a resident ever be evicted because of health problems?
No. The Life Lease Contract provides continued and uninterrupted care as long as it is medically feasible in The Center.

10. What happens to a resident if he becomes unable to meet financial obligations after living at The Center for some years?
Residents are assured they will not be requested to leave The Center because of financial reverses after having established residency. While assuming the responsibility of self support as a resident of The Center there is equal responsibility upon each resident to properly care for the financial resources upon which he depends.

Historical Society Plans 1st Meeting In New Museum

PLYMOUTH

Members of the Plymouth Historical Society are looking forward to Thursday for two very good reasons.

First, it will mark the silver anniversary of the society and, secondly, it will be the first meeting in the new Dunning Memorial Building, now the home of the society.

Under the leadership of Clarence Moore, the new president, a membership drive will be given a send off at the meeting and the general public is invited to attend.

With Nancy Tanger as chairman of the entertainment committee an outstanding program has been arranged and she also plans a special program each month.

Work of the displays and special rooms for the artifacts is continuing with Mrs. Norma Cassady as the curator--but no date has been set as the target for a grand opening.

PLYMOUTH COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICT
Plymouth, Michigan

BOARD OF EDUCATION MINUTES

The regular meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District, Wayne and Washtenaw Counties, Michigan, was held on Monday evening, August 13, 1973, in the Little Theater of the Plymouth-Canton High School, 8415 Canton Center Road, Plymouth, Michigan.

President McClendon called the meeting to order at 8:05 p.m.

Present: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Absent: None. *(Six member board; one board member seat vacant)

Administrators present: Deputy Sup't. Hogan, Assistant Sup't. Business Hoedel, Consultant Blunk, Adm. Assistant-Personnel Kee, Area Coordinators Morris and Barker, Supervisor Houghton and Principals Brown and Buikema.

Others present: E. Wendover, Plymouth Mail and Observer; representatives of Transportation and Safety Committees, M. Borowski, J. Finch, S. Flora, H. Oldford, J. Rossman and about 50 interested parents, students and teachers.

Additions to the agenda were called and approved.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Lawton to approve the minutes of the regular meeting of July 24, 1973, as distributed.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Suggestions from citizens were requested. J. Rossman rose to request more information regarding the replacement and financing of the tartan floor at the Plymouth-Salem High School as proposed at the meeting on July 24. He also spoke to the issue of the election forthcoming on August 20, requesting information on the 1973-73 budget and what the new budget would be if extra millage were to be passed. Consultant Blunk reviewed negotiations with architect, contractor, bonding company, etc. relative to the tartan gymnasium floor and stated that it is his judgment that a recommendation will be made to replace the floor with wood and financing covered under the bond as guaranteed by the contractor.

President McClendon spoke to the issue of a reduction of the budget and those items cut, pointing out the hours spent on decisions which were made and how important each member felt all items were that were necessarily cut out. He felt no pressure had been placed on the voters by the method and subject of cuts. Deputy Sup't. Hogan and Member Gray both expressed appreciation to the many citizens who participated in the petition drive prior to the election.

It was moved by Member Gray and seconded by Member Mirto that the last ten items of priority cuts made in the 1973-74 budget should be reinstated upon passage of the millage; items as follows: High School and Middle School Athletics, Performing Music and Extra-Curricular programs, Custodial Services, Commitment to the Recreation Authority, High School Co-op Education, Instructional Supplies and Textbooks, Scheduled Maintenance Jobs and the P.A.P.C.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Member Penar expressed the hope that the funds would be available to restore the items cut from the budget. Citizen Divas asked for clarification on property tax relief act as recently passed by the State legislature which will aid senior citizens especially. Mr. George Hunter rose to ask what citizens will be getting for increased millage and what changes would be made in programs as now provided. Member Mirto felt that music and sports programs are not definitive as yet but several changes are in mind, especially after suggestions are given by staff during this school year so that betterment and improvements can be made during the next year.

Dr. Hogan explained that Superintendent Hoben was not in attendance at this meeting due to illness, having had an operation this date at St. Joseph's Hospital in Ann Arbor. He also announced that as a result of the petition drive for the Special Election on August 20, 2,187 signatures had been validated, with 941 additional having been received.

President McClendon announced a Special Board meeting for August 20, 1973, at 8 p.m. in the School Board Office, 454 S. Harvey, Plymouth, for the purpose of appointment of a new Board member to replace John Graves who resigned, and to receive open bids and award purchase of Tax Anticipation Notes.

The M.A.I.S.L. Directory and minutes were received for information. Dr. Hogan reviewed the school districts included in the Association and its officers.

Dr. Hogan introduced Mr. Ray Hoedel, newly appointed Assistant Superintendent for Business, who formerly was employed by the Clintondale Public Schools and the Department of Education in Lansing.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Mirto that the Plymouth Community School District refund school tax to the following taxpayer as directed by Mr. Louis H. Funk, Wayne County Treasurer, said refund resulting from a reduction in the assessment by the Michigan State Tax Commission:

Mrs. Marguerite E. Sullivan-Appeal No. 712282-A	$ 48.17
Mrs. Marguerite E. Sullivan-Appeal No. 712283-B	48.17
Mrs. Marguerite E. Sullivan-Appeal No. 712282C	65.10

A summary of investments and a summary of school sites were presented by the Business Division for information. Mr. J. Rossman rose to speak to the issue of use of Building and Site funds for moving facilities (portable classrooms) outside the District to DeHoCo.

A review of tax anticipation note information was presented stating the background for issuance of said note for the School District in the amount of $2,700,000, bids to be received, opened and awarded at the special meeting on August 20, 1973.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Penar that a policy statement be developed on the matter of religion in schools, to incorporate legal opinion defined by Sempliner, Thomas and Guth; and amended motion by Member Mirto, supported by Member Penar that policy include Michigan Attorney General opinion of 1964, and copy be directed to the Youth for Christ Campus Ministry sponsored by the Plymouth Ministerial Association, and that that organization be requested to state to the Board how their program could fit within the confines of such opinion and policy statement.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Principal Kent Buikema, Plymouth-Canton High School, presented the 1972-73 Survey and Evaluation of Variable Time Scheduling for information of the Board. Points stressed included: (1) Comparison of student attitudes is more positive this year than last; (2) Faculty attitude survey shows a letter less positive attitude than in the previous year, for various reasons; (3) parent attitudes were down as compared to last year, although most replies came from freshman parents; and (4) the grades for the 1972-73 year were up as compared to the previous year. Member Benson expressed the opinion that more concentration seemed necessary for individualized instruction at all levels to decrease failures and that the Board should meet again with the high school staffs to discuss further the problems and results of the survey.

Member Mirto was concerned over the fact that 71% of the faculty responded to the survey and he hoped to pursue the question of modular scheduling as a tool to meet the needs of all students. He felt that some changes in counseling could be made to see that people have a choice of modular or traditional scheduling. He felt a need to explore all phases.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Lawton to move on to the next order of business.

Ayes: Members Penar and Lawton.

Nays: Members Benson, Gray and Mirto.

The motion was defeated.

Member Gray felt he could support Member Mirto's suggestion that the Board should concentrate on total school district, not just high school level. Member Penar raised several questions to be discussed at the high school level based on this report.

It was moved by Member Gray and seconded by Member Benson to move on to the next order of business.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

   that such monies be identified and reported on to the Board.
2. That the identification and reporting of these monies shall precede any administrative determination as to the commitment of said monies to the general operating budget.
3. An administrative determination as to the utilization of additional monies to the general operating budget will in no case be implemented without the approval of the Board of Education.
4. This procedure is intended as an interim measure subject to modification, extension or termination at the pleasure of the Board of Education.
5. The Board takes this action in recognition of its responsibility in the School District's present fiscal difficulties.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Nays: Member Lawton.

Member Lawton pointed out that his "nay" vote was not because he did not support the resolution as such, but that it would not change procedures as presently followed by administration. He asked where this policy would be recorded and whether a time limit be set on its adoption.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Lawton to adopt the following resolution regarding the interpretation of school district boundaries:

WHEREAS, it appears that some uncertainty has arisen as to the interpretation of school district boundaries between the Plymouth Community School District of Wayne and Washtenaw Counties and the Northville Public Schools for some residents in the Five Mile Road - Napier Road area; and

BOARD OF EDUCATION MINUTES

A special meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District, Wayne and Washtenaw Counties, Michigan, was held on Monday evening, August 20, 1973, in the Conference Room of the Board of Education Building, 454 S. Harvey Street, Plymouth, Michigan.

President McClendon called the meeting to order at 8:05 p.m.

Present: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Absent: None. *(Six member board, one board member seat vacant)

Administrators present: Deputy Sup't. Hogan, Assistant Sup't.-Business Hoedel, Adm. Assistant-Personnel Kee, Bookkeeper DiMeglio, Principals Dodson and Lutz, Coordinator Meier and Consultant Blunk.

Others present: Safety and Transportation Committee representatives, Bus representatives, J. Ryder, PEA; E. Wendover, Plymouth Mail and Observer and about interested citizens, teachers and students.

President McClendon read the agenda. He reviewed the process by which the choice of a new Board Member had been selected, indicating that 12 very fine and upstanding citizens with excellent qualifications did the honor to the Board to offer their services to the Board. He expressed the gratitude of the entire Board for all those who offered their services and explained that the Board had spent many hours of review and interviewing, etc., before arriving at a decision.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Mirto to appoint Mr. Thomas Turner of Linden Avenue in Plymouth to fill the vacancy on the Board, such vacancy to extend to the end of the current year when a new School election will be held.

Ayes: Members Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Nays: Member Benson.

The motion was carried.

Member Benson indicated her "nay" vote was not one against qualifications of Mr. Turner, but because Marcia Borowski was the logical choice since she had run for the Board in the election. Member Benson hoped that all who had applied to the Board would again run in the next election in June.

Mr. Thomas Turner was welcomed to the table by President McClendon.

Secretary Mirto opened and read bids for $2,700,000 tax anticipation note as follows:

Detroit Bank and Trust	August 1, 1973-April 1, 1974	5.34%	$54,000 check enclosed
Bank of the Commonwealth	August 1, 1973-April 1, 1974	6.00%	$54,000 check enclosed
Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit	August 1, 1973-April 1, 1974	5.40%	$54,000 check enclosed
National Bank of Detroit	August 1, 1973-April 1, 1974	4.97%	$54,000 check enclosed

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Mirto to accept the favorable bid of the National Bank of Detroit at the rate of 4.97% for the tax anticipation note for $2,700,000.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Assistant Sup't. Hoedel reviewed the information pertinent to the use of the Building and Site Fund No. 2 for erection of Fiegel School pedestrian overpass and the steps that must be taken for approval of use of such fund by the Department of Education.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Gray that the contract for the construction of the Fiegel Elementary School pedestrian overpass be awarded to Spartan Sign, Inc., for a total cost of $29,785 pending approval of design data and working drawings by Orchard, Papke, Hiltz and McCliment, Consulting Engineers, and the Wayne County Road Commission and that Orchard, Papke, Hiltz and McCliment be directed to issue a letter of intent to the contractor immediately and to prepare a legal contract for proper signatures of contractor and owner. Further, the funds to pay Plymouth Community School District's portion of this construction be paid out of the Building and Site No. 2 Fund pending approval in writing from the Michigan Department of Education. If such approval is not granted by the completion date, that the funds be paid out of the General Operating Fund.

Ayes: Members Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Nays: Member Benson.

The motion was carried.

Member Benson explained her "nay" vote by saying that she must be consistent with her belief that the public voted "no" on the safety millage at the June election and that was the wish of the public. Member Penar offered assistance of the Board in any way to administration in negotiations with the Department of Education, especially imparting information or attitudes in regard to use of Building and Site Fund No. 2.

A member of the Transportation Committee rose to present a letter of recommendation with several signatures for a candidate for the position of Coordinator of Transportation. Member Penar thanked the bus drivers' group for taking the trouble to make such a recommendation and expressed appreciation of the Board.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Benson to adjourn the special meeting.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:30 p.m.

*Amended, minutes of August 28, 1973.

Respectfully submitted,

Hail To The Chiefs -- Strike Up The Band

[redacted] turn on the lights and set up the scoreboard at [redacted] Park football field Friday night in preparation for the football opener, it will be the dawn of a new age.

It won't be the Rocks we're sending forth to defend Plymouth's honor on the gridiron – it will be the Chiefs of Plymouth-Canton High School who will run onto the field for the first time as full-fledged varsity competitors.

Hail to the Chiefs!

We're no small one-high-school town anymore. The future calls for possibly two more high schools in the district.

There are those who feel splitting the football team between the two schools was premature. There are no seniors at Canton and they face a seasoned league in which they are the last to join play.

That thinking has been echoed in other extracurricular activities – band in particular, where parents of the students didn't want their famous 76 trombones split into two bands of 38 each.

And the "one-school" theorists are responsible for not having a Plymouth-Salem, Plymouth-Canton game scheduled this year – an event which would no doubt be a great contest like the Northville game used to be. (Only Canton plays Northville this year).

Their rationale behind not scheduling such a hometown game this year is that it would create "rivalry."

That rationale and the selfish interests shown by those involved in programs that might be lessened in stature temporarily if they were split, could lead to a single Plymouth high school housing 10,000 students.

I say we should use the necessary number of high schools to properly educate our students and not raise or lower populations based on where it would place them when competing by playing (or marching) on the football field.

And we shouldn't underestimate the Chiefs in their debut.

But win, lose or draw, remember it's playing that counts and all this football season let's remember that there are two teams playing, two cheerleading squads encouraging them on.

That means twice as many students are involved – and therein lies the proof of the argument which thus far the marching band sympathizers have refused to acknowledge.

The band will be running from game to game of both teams this year – will they still be doing it when there are four high schools in the district?

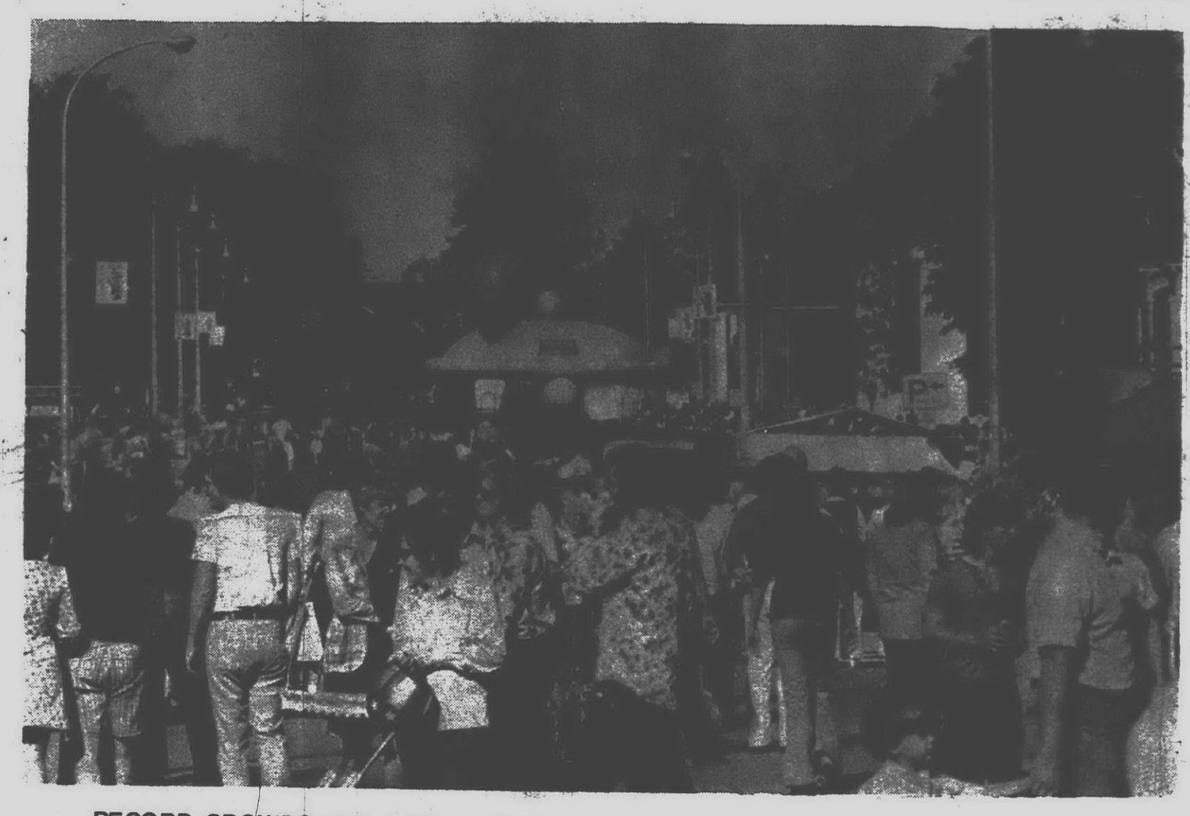

Let's give a welcome and our encouragement to the Chiefs.

And let's also remember that they represent a step which our school district is going to have to take again and again.

Those 11 young men taking the field as the Chiefs (while they may have made the team as Rocks) represent 11 more opportunities than a single team at a combined high school.

Bonsai Club Meets Tonight

PLYMOUTH

Bonsai enthusiasts will once again receive instruction in shaping bonsai this year when the first fall meeting of the Tokiwa Bonsai Club is held from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., tonight (Wednesday) in Room 302 of Central Middle School, located at N. Main and Church streets.

Dean Atkinson, past president of the Shibui Bonsai Society will instruct members on the wiring and shaping of bonsai. Members are asked to bring their own junipers to the meeting, especially those potted and trimmed earlier this year.

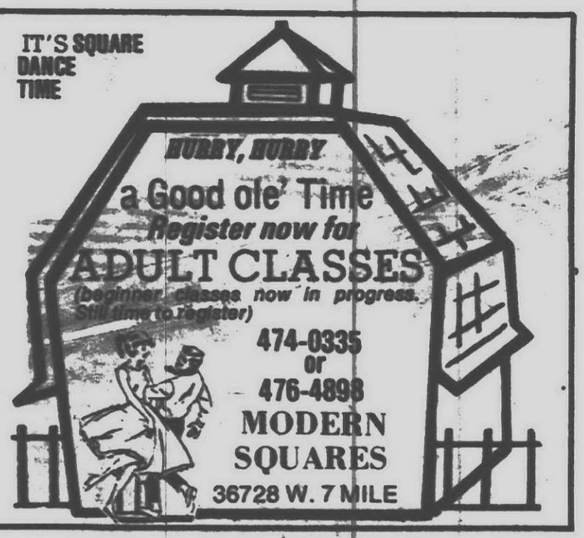

Anyone interested in the group may contact Dr. Nick Sellas of 1697 Old Salem in Plymouth, or Carl Smith, 35512 West Chicago in Livonia.

Not Nervous

Michigan State football coach Denny Stolz was asked by newsmen if Holland-born place kicker Dirt Kryt ever got nervois in a game.

"Naw," said Denny. "He doesn't take it seriously. He thinks it's ridiculous for 80,000 people to be there in the first place. Remember, he's a soccer player."

First Woman Is Named Chief Probation Officer

PLYMOUTH

A Northville social worker and mother of three is the first woman to ever be named to a chief probation officer position in the Probation Department of the 35th District Court.

Nina Goodwin, 36, was selected for the post from a field of 12 applicants, according to a recent announcement by probation director, Dennis Dildy. "The selection of a woman to the post will certainly be valuable and give a broader span of thinking within the department," Dildy said.

Mrs. Goodwin will fill the vacancy of Peter Jones, who has been with the probation department for the past three years. Jones, director of educational rehabilitation of Milan Federal Prison, is anticipating to move out of the state in the near future.

Mrs. Goodwin, who is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University and is currently pursuing a master's degree in social work at the University of Michigan, will join a senior staff of nine part-time employes. In addition to paid staff, the department also has more than 100 volunteer officers.

The department serves all areas under the jurisdiction of the 35th District Court--namely the cities of Plymouth and Northville, as well as the townships of Plymouth, Canton, and Northville.

Mrs. Goodwin's case load responsibility will be in Plymouth and Canton townships where there are now nearly 200 cases and a large increase is expected next year.

"In view of this fact, one of my most immediate concerns," said Mrs. Goodwin, "is to recruit more good, dedicated volunteer officers." The department's voluntary probation officer (VPO) program, patterned after the Royal Oak Volunteers in Probation established by former Judge Keith Leenhouts, is based on the need to assign first and second-time offenders to an interested citizen-volunteer. Working with each probationer on a one-to-one basis, the volunteer officer becomes the cornerstone of such a program, said Mrs. Goodwin.

Area women will have an opportunity to hear Mrs. Goodwin explain the voluntary probation officer program in detail on Friday and Saturday at the Women's Opportunity Fair, sponsored by Schoolcraft College's Continuum Program for Women. Mrs. Goodwin and other department spokesmen will be at the Fair from noon to 5 p.m., Friday and from 9 a.m. to noon, on Saturday.

Other individuals, men or women, interested in learning more about the VPO program may contact Mrs. Goodwin of 45360 Byrne, Northville or assistant chief, Alan Wakenhut of 229 Ann St., Plymouth.

Let Voters Set Pay Of Board

Wayne County Commissioner John C. Hertel (D-Detroit) has urged that a panel of voters chosen at random be established to recommend the pay of county commissioners in the future.

Hertel noted that the State Legislature gave county boards the power to set their own salaries and declared, "It is a power that some of us would rather not have."

He proposed that the board of commissioners establish a "Citizens Assembly" to meet before the final election for each new two-year term of office and decide whether or not the commissioners should have a raise.

One member of the assembly would be chosen from the voter lists of each of the 27 commissioners' districts in the same manner that trial jury panels are assembled.

Hertel said his proposal would "eliminate political interests and influence" from the process of determining the pay of commissioners.

He made his proposal in a resolution prepared for introduction at the next meeting of the Board of Commissioners, scheduled for Sept. 17.

ARTIST'S SKETCH show the bathhouse and food bar buildings scheduled for construction soon at the new swimming pool site at Willow Metropark near New Boston. It will cost more than $227,000. Pools funds are part of a $1.8 million grant of state recreation bond money.

Willow Metropark To Have Swim Pool

An Olympic-sized swimming pool will soon be under construction in Willow Metropark, a 1,500 acre park under development near New Boston in southwestern Wayne County.

The pool is scheduled for completion in 1975 at a cost of more than $227,000. Currently open for use are a main park road and picnic-playground areas bordering the Huron River.

Swimming, picnicing and activity facilities are being designed as a major attraction for the southwestern portion of the Detroit Metropolitan region.

"It has taken us about 10 years to develop the present facilities at Willow Metropark which will become increasingly important to the residential, industrial and population expansion of the area," said William E. Kreger, Wayne County's representative on the seven member Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority board.

An estimated $250,000 to $300,000 was spent during the past several years developing such facilities as landscaping, comfort stations, water and sanitary areas, roads, picnic areas and parking lots.

The pool will have three sections: one each for children and beginners, a diving area and a general swimming area.

Construction has also begun on food bar and bathhouse buildings.

Boys Can Be Mascots For Lions

Boys from ages 6 to 13 have a chance to become a Detroit Lions mascot by registering in a Lions shop of any Crowley department store.

Nine days prior to each Lions football game, a winner will be selected and he will be mascot for that game. The boy will receive a Lions wristwatch, and he and his father will have special seats for the game.

At season's end, mascots will compete for the grand prize – a round trip to the Super Bowl.

SUMMER STUDENT ASSISTANT Chris Flynn gets her young charge accustomed to the water. The swimming pool is among the facilities in the recreation building at the Plymouth Center for Human development. Constructed in 1966, it is the newest building on the grounds.

Lunch Price Cut For Handicapped

Wayne County Intermediate School District has established a free and reduced price lunch policy for mentally-handicapped school children unable to pay the full prices.

A family size and income eligibility scale has been set up by the State Board of Education and will be used by intermediate school officials in determining eligibility. The scale ranges from a family with one child with family income of $2,740 to a family of 12 with income of $10,880.

Families falling within these scales, or those suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships, should apply for free or reduced price lunches for their children.

In certain cases, foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has such children living with it and wishes to apply for such meals, a parent should contact the school.

Applications are available at the principal's office in each school and may be submitted any time during the school year.

Hospital Unit Named 'Reuther'

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners has named the new long-term care facility at Wayne County General Hospital in Westland in honor of the late Walter P. Reuther and set in motion plans to make major improvements at the hospital.

The county legislative body on Aug. 28 voted unanimously to dedicate the new 350-bed nursing care facility to the late president of the United Auto Workers Union.

In addition, the board authorized expenditure of up to $25,000 to retain architects to prepare plans for a major three-phase improvement program. The program calls for:

1. Modernization of Building D to serve as an intensive care facility for 160 acute psychiatric patients.
2. Conversion of the present long-term care facility (Building N) to house the Wayne County health department.
3. Conversion of the present health department headquarters to house the hospital's outpatient department.

The shift to the present health department building which adjoins the hospital, will permit expansion of the outpatient department as recommended by a county board-sponsored hospital task force.

The State Department of Mental Health had ordered the county to submit plans by Sept. 1 for acting to correct deficiencies in the psychiatric building.

The plan to renovate the building for acute cases also is in line with a recommendation by the hospital task force that the county concentrate on intensive treatment of acute cases. Care of chronic mental patients is a state responsibility by law.

The new long-term (nursing) care facility is expected to open in January.

Construction of the $10 million, 350-bed facility was ordered by the Board of Commissioners after the present building failed to meet the federal and state standards for Medicare and Medicaid payments.

The building is being financed without a tax levy from revenue bonds which will be paid off from Medicare and Medicaid payments for patient care.

He is now a vice president in charge of the bank properties department.

Diesel Plant Has Tours

REDFORD

The Detroit Diesel Allison plant in Redford Township, a division of GM, is offering six plant tours each week, officials announced.

The plant is located at 13400 W. Outer Drive.

Tours originate at the visitors and vendors lobby and take guests through manufacturing, storage, assembly, testing and shipping areas in the plant.

Fifteen professional men representing different jobs in several areas are assigned by their departments to handle the tours.

They come from engineering, sales, personnel and purchasing.

Frank Baker of engineering's technical data section, like other guides, never knows whom to expect for a visit.

During a recent tour, for example, Baker entertained the S.B. Bahirsheth family from Bombay, India. Bahirsheth, (who is a civil engineer) his wife and parents were on a two-month vacation in Europe and the U.S. They had picked Detroit Diesel as a must-see spot during their stay here.

What they saw was the complete production process for diesel engines, from basic machining to the shipping dock.

What they heard with Baker as guide, was a little bit of everything, including.

•History: "This plant was built in 1938, and since then we've built over 1.6 million engines."

•Logic: "We've seen how the parts are made and where they're stored. Now let's see how they're put together."

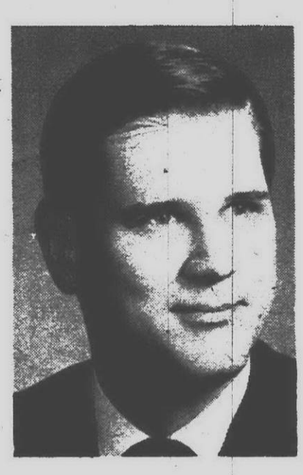

•Manufacturing expertise: "You might wonder how the right part reaches the right engine at the right time. Well, each hook for parts on the overhead conveyer has a number."

The whole event lasted about 1½ hours with time for questions and answers throughout. Bahirsheth was particularly interested in engineering aspects of the engines, working conditions and – coffee breaks.

Persons interested in the plant tours may apply at the lobby at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

They are open to persons age 14 and older. Groups larger than six are asked to make advance reservations with the public relations department.

Workshop On U.S. Aid At Eastern

YPSILANTI

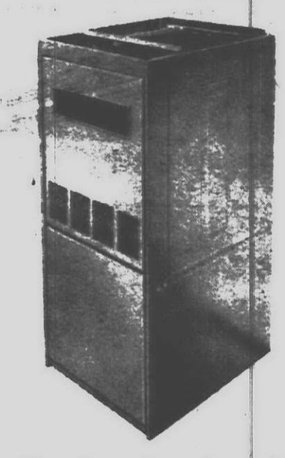

Federal legislation in many areas has become so complex that lower governmental units, school districts and business are now employing specialists to guide them around pitfalls and to whatever aid may lie in specific programs.

To assist such program specialists and other concerned school administrators, Eastern Michigan University is offering, for the fourth time, a workshop in federal legislation affecting education. It will consist of six day - long sessions – two each in September, October and November.

Sessions run from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and lunch is served to the members as a group so they may continue their discussion during that time. The first session is scheduled for Sept. 21.

Participation is limited to 15 persons who must register in advance by calling Stefek.

Town Hall Begins 10th Year In Livonia

The Livonia Town Hall starts its 10th year of bringing outstanding speakers to Livonia with a week proclaimed Livonia Town Hall Week from Sept. 16 to 22.

The town hall program began in 1963 as a means of raising funds to support the American Field Service, an organization which sponsors exchange students.

Since its inception, the town hall has brought outstanding authors, educators, professional and public figures to Livonia through its lecture series.

The 1973-74 series begins Oct. 17 with film personality David Niven.

It continues with columnist and author Majorie Holms on Nov. 14, explorer and naturalist Jean-Pierre Hallet on Jan. 16 and television personality Virginia Graham on March 20.

The lectures are at 10:30 a.m. in the Terrace Theater, 30400 Plymouth. Tickets are $10 for four lectures and are available from Mrs. Quido Krumpoch, 14818 Ingram.

Funds from the program enable Livonia high school students to participate in the AFS foreign exchange program and are used to bring foreign students to Livonia.

This year the town hall sent three Livonia students overseas through the AFS Americans Abroad Program.

Bentley High School students Mary Sue Ziegler went to Iran and Janet Gruschol went to Istanbul. Steven Brown from Stevenson High School went to Dudley, England.

Four foreign students are living with Livonia families for the coming school year. Kalil Tanous Jdaydany from Zahle, Lebanon, is living with the Bruce Bark family and will attend Churchill High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Birdsall are hosting Nobuko Okamoto from Utfunomiya-shi-Tochigi-ken, Japan. She is attending Stevenson High School.

Two students will attend Bentley High School including Vittorio Tadei from Ancona, Italy, who is living with the Fred L. Davis family and Susan Irene Kemp from South Africa who is staying with Mr. and Mrs. James W. Schulz.

In announcing the Livonia Town Hall Week, Livonia Mayor Edward McNamara said the program "enables worthy young men and women of this community to broaden their educational horizons by granting them the opportunity to study abroad and absorb foreign culture."

He added that the lectures "make it possible for all our citizens to enhance their cultural and educational outlook."

FOREIGN STUDENTS brought to Livonia this year through the Livonia Town Hall and American Field Service include (from left) Vittorio Tadei from Italy, Susan Irene Kemp from South Africa, Kalil Tanous Jdaydany from Lebanon, and Nobuko Okamoto from Japan. The town hall celebrates its 10th anniversary this season. The week of Sept. 16 to 22 has been proclaimed Livonia Town Hall Week. (Observer photo by Bob Woodring)

The first teachers' strike to hit our family smack in the school schedules has brought some interesting repercussions.

Vacation that had seemed so fleeting now is a drag, we suddenly find, and the activities that were going to be missed a lot now are less enticing.

Piano lessons were welcomed eagerly -- at least that teacher wasn't on strike.

Last June's high school graduate had planned to have a few days to gloat this September when her younger sisters returned to class and she was still at liberty.

As it worked out, she went to her first college classes this week while they stayed home. And, strange or not so strange, a little bit of gloating still seemed appropriate.

Our newly-skilled seamstress bemoaned the fact that the hot weather disappeared while the teachers and board argued, so she may not get a chance to wear the shapely new summer dress she made.

She even finds it difficult to get excited about fall sewing when she'd rather be in class.

And our youngest family member, sky-high over the prospect of starting junior high, has found it almost impossible to wait another day -- and then another -- and another.

The girls listen to the newscasts the way their parents have one during newspaper strikes. They check with me at work to see if maybe I've heard something encouraging. aging.

They've started wondering if they'll get any Christmas vacation, and if the necessity to get in the required number of school days will cut into next summer's camp plans.

And they try to understand, like the rest of us, why there wasn't a better time and means to end this dispute.

--Margaret Miller

Schoolcraft Fair Displays 'Opportunities'

Opportunities for Observerland women -- in education, employment and community service -- will be the subject of a Schoolcraft College event Friday, Spet. 14.

Titled the Women's Opportunity Fair, it will be offered by the college's Continuum Program from 12 noon to 5 p.m. in the Schoolcraft gymnasium. The college is located on Haggerty between Six and Seven Mile.

Nancy Dufour, continuum coordinator, said more than 50 institutions have accepted her invitation to be represented in the big display.

All will have representatives on hand to give visitors special information and guidance.

The fair, free and open to the public, is for women of all ages.

Four special workshops have been scheduled at various times during the afternoon, enabling participants to attend any they choose or all four.

The workshops will cover health career opportunities, human potential, laws forbidding discrimination and job hunting techniques.

Several films also are scheduled, including "Anything You Want to Be," "What I Want," "The New American Woman" and "Growing Up Female."

Mrs. Dufour said the event is aimed at providing women with information on a wide variety of new and old opportunities, and bringing it together into one time and place.

"With the beginning of fall, most of us settle down and start searching for new activities and directions," she said.

"Yet, due to time limitations, we sometimes make a commitment to a class, job, organization or volunteer service without adequate knowledge of all opportunities available.

"This fair is an attempt to make more of this information available to the community."

The continuum director also suggested the fair would be valuable even for women whose schedules for fall are jam-packed.

"Come out and see what your neighbors and your community are doing," she said. "We all can learn from each other at this fair."

Represented at the fair will be most area colleges and universities and especially their extension divisions.

Several area businesses, including Burroughs Corp., J.L. Hudson, Eaton, Michigan Consolidated, Thompson-Brown, and two hospitals, Wayne County General and Oakwood planned to send representatives.

Government agencies, including U.S. Civil Service Commission, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Wayne County Civil Service Commission and U.S. Armed Forces recruiting, will be on hand, and so will several employment agencies and offices.

50 Years Wed

Mr. and Mrs. William Burger of Livonia recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

They were married Aug. 21, 1923 in Detroit and have three children, Robert, Phyllis and Doris.

Mr. and Mrs. Burger have lived in Livonia since 1939. Mr. Burger is a former employe of the Ford Motor Co. and his wife is a member of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Book Is Co-Op Venture

Jean Terry Tobias Kaitner, for nine years a resident of Redford Township, has published a book of poetry--with a little help from her friends.

One of them is Mary Morris Mikkola, her neighbor and a Redford Township resident nearly three decades. The others are Janice E. Fallow and Kellie Grey of Detroit.

The slim volume is titled "Love, Life and Laughter" and is published by Windy Row Press of Peterborough, N.H.

Its cover lists the author as Jean Terry Tobias. Divorced about the time she submitted the manuscript, she recently remarried and she and her husband, Bruce Kaitner, will move soon to northwest Detroit.

The community effort in putting together came about, Mrs. Kaitner said, because the publisher suggested that several more poems were needed to fill the allotted pages.

"I was busy at that point, and anyway, you don't just sit down and write a poem to order," she said.

"So Mrs. Mikkola took up the account, "she asked me and the others if we would like to contribute some of our work and we were happy to oblige."

JEAN KAITNER (right) and Mary Mikkola show the book that contains poetry both have written. (Observer photo by Bob Woodring)

Five poems by Mrs. Mikkola, two each by the other poets and a final one by Mrs. Kaitner are included in the section "My Friends and Me," ending the volume.

Mrs. Kaitner, mother of four and grandmother of one, has been writing poetry "seriously" for about six years, she said. Her work has been published in a couple of literary magazines, "J.&C. Transcripts," and "Scimitar and Song."

In addition, four of her poems appeared in a book, "Extension--An Anthology of Modern Poetry."

Her poetry, she said, is largely introspective--"I deal with emotions more than objects."

"Love, Life and Laughter" includes a poem called "What Then?" and inspired by her son, and such titles as "Transition of Love," "Do I Really Want to Know?" and "Sanity."

Mrs. Mikkola, who said she writes of "people, places and things," has included among her contributions a poem titled "Mackinac Bridge".

"I've wondered if the Indian ever thought about building such a span," she said, "and that's the theme of the poem."

Both women were members of a club that incorporated several years ago, "Detroit Fledgling Authors."

The group has largely disbanded because, as Mrs. Mikkola put it, "you get so steeped in trivia of a club that it stifles the imagination."

However, there are plans to reorganize on a more informal basis in order to share ideas and writing.

"Love, Life and Laughter" retails at $4 and is on sale in area bookstores.

An Open Letter To the Graduating Classes
Dear Seniors & Parents:
Sometime between now and graduation, you will want a good portrait made as a record of personal achievement. This will be the first really important photograph you will have taken ON YOUR OWN. It is taken because of the termination of countless hours in the classroom and 12 years of homework! As a result of your effort you will be allowed all of 5 minutes (if that much time) for this graduation picture.
You will have the privilege of lining up in the school room—rushed to the camera—have a seat—turn your head this way and that way and then rushed out (there are others waiting) and this sitting will yield 4 to 5 proofs that usually will have dealt a blow to your ego for all the work you will have done.
INSTEAD
We think this occasion demands much more attention. But why come to us? We are offering multiple exposures, casual poses that reflect today's clothes styles, three quarter and full length photography, intriguing color monochromes as well as conventional and mood-type head and shoulder photographs.
We plan to spend at least a half hour for the sitting done in our studio (not a portable set up). We have a dressing room for hair, adjustments, etc. You may bring a change of clothes for a variation. You will receive about 10 color previews from which to select and the finished work is prepared for you with much care and concern for the final product—a portrait you will be pleased to display and give as a gift.
WE RECOMMEND
If you have been already photographed by another studio and were not satisfied, we want to point out "YOU DO NOT HAVE TO PURCHASE ANY PICTURES FROM ANYONE WITH WHOM YOU ARE NOT SATISFIED." All you might be required to purchase is the glossy for the yearbook. As a special rate to the high school seniors, we are offering a 20% reduction from our regular prices.
Thank you

Homemakers' Holiday Sets Registration

Homemakers' Holiday, a program sponsored by the YWCA of Western Wayne County in Livonia's Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church, has set Sept. 19 as registration day for its fall classes.

Women interested should sign up for the courses they wish between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 12 noon and between 1 and 3 p.m. The church is located at Hubbard and West Chicago.

Classes will begin Sept. 26.

Several new subjects are offered this fall. For those interested in learning the basics of bridge, Margarite Whelpley will give instruction on the mysteries of bidding and responding.

Ella Takacs, Dearborn craft instructor, will have several new Christmas craft ideas to share, and Virginia Pleak will teach near Eastern dance.

A potpourri class will include informative talks on being a wise consumer, health foods, home safety, new fabrics and other topics. The class also features a trip to the Somerset Mall.

Familiar favorite classes will include yoga, taught by Eve Cizik, painting for beginners with Marie Kudrieko as instructor, rhythmic exercise for new fashions, with Gail Wood as instructor, and needlecraft, including knitting and crocheting, with Lillian Hickey.

A nursery will be available for children 2½ to six each day the courses are in session.

Pre-registration is necessary for all classes, since those that are not filled will have to be canceled.

Need A Quilt?

Patchwork quilts, handcrafted wood items and home-baked goods will be among the sale items at the Beverly Manor Convalescent Center, 24500 Meadowbrook, Novi, on Sept. 14 and 15.

All things being sold at the home from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. both days have been made by the residents. Proceeds will be used to supplement the activity program at the center.

MRS. PATRICK LOGUE
(Susan Rossiter)

Rossiter, Logue Vows Spoken

Susan Elaine Rossiter became the bride of Patrick W. Logue in a recent ceremony in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Dearborn. Father Gary Bueche officiated at the double-ring service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rossiter of Redford Township. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Logue of Dearborn are the bridegroom's parents.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white silk faille Victorian style gown with lace trim. She wore a chantilly lace and satin trimmed picture hat and carried a cascade of white daisies, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Regina Sly of Dearborn was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Julie Ann Rossiter, sister of the bride and Carolyn Logue, sister of the bridegroom. They wore Victorian gowns of flocked peach nylon and wide-brimmed peach straw hats. They carried white baskets filled with daisies, peach carnations and baby's breath.

James Williams of Dearborn was best man and ushers were Thomas Creely of Dearborn and Richard Logue, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Rossiter wore a deep pink gown of nylon boucle and Mrs. Logue chose a long orchid sheer nylon dress. Both wore white cymbidium orchids.

A champagne-dinner reception was in the Dearborn Inn. The newlyweds honeymooned in the Hawaiian Islands.

Action Techniques Topic For LWV

Action techniques in influencing legislation will be discussed by a former League of Women Voters state president for members of the Plymouth - Northville League Thursday, Sept. 13.

Yvonne Atkinson will be the speaker for the 8 p.m. meeting in the King's Mill Clubhouse on Northville Road.

She will talk of litigation, lobbying, monitoring and letter-writing.

All women of voting age are eligible for membership in the LWV, and Jane Watts, president of the Plymouth - Northville unit, said all in the area are invited to join in this glimpse of league activities.

League members, she explained, study proposed laws carefully and then, after member agreement known as consensus, the group acts in various ways to push laws it favors.

Later in the month, Mrs. Watts said, the league plans two other "action" meetings.

A workshop on writing to state representatives will be held Monday, Sept. 17. Participants will discuss methods and mechanics of effective letters to lawmakers.

Then, on Sept. 26, LWV members will meet with local state representatives for a report on state legislation of interest to the organization.

Gardeners Hear Of Bird Population

Grover Niergarth, biology teacher at Schoolcraft College, will address the Livonia branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association Tuesday, Sept. 18, at 1 p.m.

The meeting will be held in St. Andrew Episcopal Church, 16361 Hubbard, Livonia.

A member of the Audubon Society, Niergarth will speak on the declining bird population. Guests are welcome.

Mrs. Alfred Trahan is president of the branch for the 1973-74 year. Serving with her are Mrs. Adolph Sarno, first vice president; Mrs. Clement Kules, second vice president; Mrs. Robert Feltman, treasurer; Mrs. Rolland Pardonnet, recording secretary, and Mrs. Herbert Winegarden, corresponding secretary.

During the most recent state convention of the WNFGA, the branch received an award of merit for outstanding achievement in the field of conservation. Mrs. Thomas Converse is conservation chairman.

Mrs. Oliene Kirk, taking over as horticulture therapy chairman, will continue the club's work at the Northville State Hospital.

Auxiliary Plans Meeting

The Women's Auxiliary of the United Hebrew Schools will hold its opening meeting Wednesday, Sept. 19, at 12:45 p.m. in Congregation Beth Achim, 21100 W. 12 Mile, Southfield.

Bernard Isaacs, former superintendent, will be honored and a shelf of books will be dedicated in his name. A program of Hebrew and Yiddish folksongs will also be presented by Ralph Goren, a graduate of the United Hebrew High School and a music therapy major at Wayne State University.

The auxiliary assists in providing scholarships to students of the United Hebrew Schools to attend Hebrew speaking camps and to study in Israel.

Their children, Mrs. Mildred Lofgren of Farmington Hills, Lawrence E. Rank of Dearborn, Paul W. Rank of Plymouth and Mrs. Doris Kreutsfeld of Livonia, witnessed the ceremony. A dinner reception followed.

AAUW Plans Tea

The Farmington branch of the American Association of University Women will hold a tea for prospective new members at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 19, in the Farmington Community Center, Farmington Road north of 10 Mile.

Schoolcraft Presents A Variety

A sitarist, singer, author, director, psychologist, quintet and quartet will all be a part of the 1973-74 cultural and public affairs series presented by Schoolcraft College.

Sitarist Ravi Shankar, the man considered responsible for bringing Indian classical music to the U.S., will launch the season Sunday, Sept. 23 at 8 p.m. in Clarenceville's L.E. Schmidt Auditorium, 20155 Middle Belt, Livonia.

While noted for playing the sitar, he is respected by the Bach buffs, adored by rock fans, and courted by Yehudi Menuhin, George Harrison and many of their followers.

The college will present Jeannie C. Riley Oct. 25 in O'Leary Performing Arts Center, 6500 Middle Belt, Garden City. Miss Riley will be appearing at 8 p.m. with "The Monesteaders" a new group from Nashville.

On Nov. 14, the author of "Chariots of the Gods" and its sequel, "Gods From Outer Space," Erich Von Daniken, will come to the Schoolcraft campus main gymnasium at 18600 Haggerty, Livonia, to discuss his books and theories concerning visitation of beings from other worlds.

The Schoolcraft Woodwind Quintet is scheduled to perform Dec. 3 in the Waterman Center on campus. Each is a teacher, performer and member of a major symphony orchestra.

Formed in 1972, the Schoolcraft String Quartet has been enthusiastically received and performed extensively in the local area. They will present a concert Friday, Jan. 11 in the Schoolcraft Waterman Center.

William Friedkin, Academy award winning director of such films as "The French Connection," "The Boys In The Band," and soon to be released "The Exorcist," will appear in Schoolcraft's main gymnasium Feb. 12.

A trumpeter who is no stranger to local audiences, Maynard Ferguson, will provide his big band brassy sound March 14 in Clarenceville High School.

A member of the talented Schoolcraft faculty, Donald Morelock, will again appear on April 5 in the Schoolcraft Waterman Center.

Dr. Rollo May, author of such titles as "Power and Innocence" and "Man's Search For Himself," will give a presentation April 17 in the Schoolcraft main gymnasium.

Tickets for the series may be ordered by mail from the community services office or purchased at the campus bookstore. When available, tickets will be sold at the door.

Cranbrook To Offer Color Film Series

BLOOMFIELD HILLS

A trilogy of color films will be offered at this fall's lecture and film program series on Sept. 28 in the Cranbrook Institute Auditorium, 500 Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills.

Entitled "The North American Indian," the films take a look from the Indian point of view at events leading to the defeat of the Indian nations, their removal to reservations, and the plight of the Indian in contemporary America.

Narrated by Marlon Brando, the film won a blue ribbon as best social documentary film at the American Film Festival.

Admission is free to members of the lecture and film series, $1.50 for non-members, and 75 cents for non-member students and senior citizens.

Upcoming Season Offers Musicals

BIRMINGHAM

The Birmingham Village Players will present two musicals as part of their repertoire of plays for the 1973-74 season.

"Applause," the Broadway musical comedy will be presented on Nov. 23, 24, 29, 30 and Dec. 1. "Irma La Douce" is planned for performances on May 3, 4, 10 and 11.

Opening the Players' 51st season will be "Promenade All," a comedy drama proving that nothing ever changes as it chronicles the evolution of a family from 1895 to the present. Performances will be Oct. 5, 6, 12, and 13.

Tennessee Williams' "Sweet Bird of Youth," will be given Feb. 1, 2, 8 and 9 followed by "Laura," on March 22, 23, 29, and 30.

Music Director Quits Orchestra

Charles Heard, Westland's "music man" for nearly two years, is resigning as director of the civic symphony orchestra.

Heard, director of the orchestra since it was formed in the fall of 1971, is quitting the position because of the press of other musical responsibilities.

The director is head of the Rackham Choir, which accompanies the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in concerts, and is vocal music director at Wayne Memorial High School in the Wayne - Westland school district.

The resignation, disclosed by Mayor Eugene McKinney, will delay the start of tryouts for the 1973-74 orchestra season which was originally set for this month.

The orchestra's first concert will be in early December as part of the Christmas lighting ceremony at Westland city hall.

McKinney said that interested and qualified persons may apply for the director's job by contacting his office or the recreation department.

McKinney said he was sorry to see Heard leave, commenting that he "did a fantastic job from scratch" in organizing the orchestra two years ago.

The mayor said that orchestra tryouts will be held after a new director is picked.

No-Phosphate Ban Spreads

During the past 12 months, the list of communities banning the use and sale of phosphate laundry detergents has grown substantially. What began as a local action in Dade County, Fla., has grown to a nationwide movement.

Earlier this year, a number of cities and counties banned phosphate detergents from their communities. The entire states of Indiana and New York just went no-phosphate.

What does this phosphate ban mean to consumers? What are phosphates? Why are they being banned? Are phosphates really necessary to achieve a cleaner, brighter wash?

These and many other questions like them are being asked of laundry detergent manufacturers as the ban on phosphates continues to spread.

In October 1971, Consumer Reports Magazine tested non-phosphate detergents against phosphate detergents for clearing ability. Their finding was "that non-phosphate detergents can be used in the typical laundry without any noticeable change in the consumer's satisfaction with the wash. The non-phosphate detergents (we) tested did the wash every bit as well as the best selling high phosphate detergent."

Phosphates are basically nothing more than a water softener.

They act as "super fertilizer" for algae in water. They feed the algae and greatly speed its growth. This growth of algae uses up valuable oxygen in the water and eventually kills off all marine life.

The United States Dept. of Agriculture in a recent bulletin lists phosphorus as the most serious contributor to the growth of algae in the water. They state that only 0.1 point per million phosphorus is needed to speed the algae's growth.

The sewage effluent from a city of one million people carries about 1,000 tons of phosphorus per year that is available for algae growth. This is enough to grow algae in 3.5 million acre - feet of water.

Thanks to the work of concerned citizens and environmental groups, there is legislation pending on the ban of phosphate laundry detergents in many states and cities. The list continues to grow.

Though there are laundry detergent manufacturers fighting it, the majority admit that the change is eminent. Almost all have switched over to some non-phosphate manufacturing facilities.

Plant Peonies In September

By BETTY FRANKEL
Special Writer

Peonies are among the real glories of the garden in early June when their huge blossoms create a spectacular display.

Those beautiful, fragrant flowers are but a memory. However, now it is time to think about them again because September is the best time to plant peonies.

These plants can add great beauty to the garden. There are both herbaceous kinds that die to the ground every winter and shrubby kinds that are known as tree peonies.

The herbaceous peonies are the kind most frequently grown. Their ancestors came from Europe and Asia Minor and they have been grown for centuries. They were planted in gardens in ancient Greece and Rome.

The most common wild type of peony has deep crimson flowers about five inches in diameter, with a single row of petals. Breeding and crossing has resulted in the huge double blooms that grace modern gardens.

There are also large blooms with a single row of petals surrounding a central mass of fluffy golden stamens and kinds with a double row of petals and feathery centers. Colors include white, pale yellow, and many shades of pink and red.

The leaves are rich dark green, and the rounded mound of foliage makes a handsome addition to the garden even when the plants are no longer in bloom.

Of even older lineage are the tree peonies, which are natives of the Orient. These are leaf-losing woody shrubs which grow three to five feet in height. The leaves are similar to those of the herbaceous peonies, but are thinner and less leathery and are more deeply cut.

The tree peonies come into bloom a few weeks earlier than the herbaceous peonies, and bear many immense single or double flowers of an exquisite beauty. Colors include many shades of yellow as well as lavender, pinks, reds and white.

The tree peonies thrive in ordinary loamy garden soil, but good drainage is essential. Light sandy soil or heavy clay soil should have compost, humus, or even old turf mixed with it to make it suitable. Do not use peat moss or manure.

The herbaceous peonies need a deep rich soil that doesn't get too dry in summer. To prepare the soil it should be dug deeply to a depth of 12 to 20 inches and a generous amount of compost or well-rotted manure should be worked into the lower depths of the bed.

Both the tree peonies and the herbaceous peonies will grow well in full sun or in light shade as long as there is no competition from tree roots.

It is a mistake, though, to plant them with an eastern exposure. Sun shining on the buds on a frosty morning will damage them and spoil the blooms. With a south, west, or southwest exposure there is no danger.

When planting herbaceous peonies make the planting hole about two feet across and 1½ feet deep. Set the plant so the tops of the buds or crown will be no more than two inches below the surface of the soil when the hole is filled.

If the soil tends to be heavy set them only an inch below the surface. Shallow planting will not hurt the plants, but if the buds are too deep the plants will not bloom. Fill the hole with soil mixed with a generous amount of peat moss or humus and with a big handful of bone meal.

If there are any stems left on the plant, cut them off close to the ground.

The first winter after they are planted, put a mulch of straw, hay or evergreens over the plants after the ground is frozen. This will not be needed in subsequent winters.

If you have established peonies that are blooming well, it is better not to transplant them unless it is absolutely essential. They resent being moved. However, with care they can be dug and divided to increase your supply of plants. Each division should have three to five eyes.

Tree peonies need deep planting because the woody tops have been grafted onto a herbaceous rootstock. To plant tree peonies make the hole three feet in diameter and two feet deep. Dispose of any subsoil, replacing it with compost or humus. Mix in a pound of bonemeal to enrich the soil and help make it neutral or slightly alkaline. Don't use peat moss or manure.

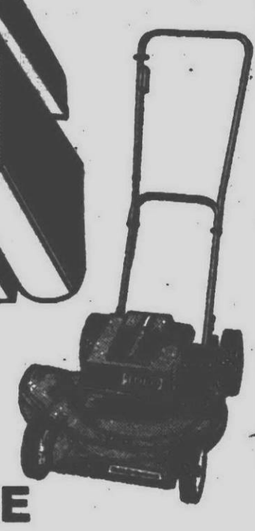

Place the plant so the graft is six or seven inches below the surface of the soil. Spread the roots slightly but use care since they are brittle and could snap off. Fill in the hole with the enriched soil and water thoroughly. Keep it well watered until cold weather.

It is a good idea to cover the tree peony shrub with an inverted basket the first winter. Weigh the basket down with a rock or brick.

Garden Entries Called For Show

All gardeners are invited to submit entries in the horticulture division of the Riverwoods Garden Club flower and garden show, set for Thursday and Friday, Sept. 13-14 in the parks and recreation building at the Civic Center.

The horticulture division of the show will be judged in five sections: annuals; perennials; bulbs and tubers; potted plants; and fruits and vegetables.

The entries will be received at the show Thursday beginning at 8 a.m. Registration closes at 10 a.m. Late entries will be accepted for display only and will not be judged.

All specimens must have been grown by the exhibitor. Potted plants must have been in possession of the exhibitor at least three months prior to the show. The show committee will furnish specimen containers.

Exhibitors may enter as many classes as desired, but only one entry to a class, and all specimens must be labeled.

Floor Covering Trends Revealed

Manufacturers of floor coverings show their new styles to distributors and retail dealers at special markets twice a year. At this summer's exhibitions, which are held in major cities across the nation, some interesting trends were noticed by Better Floors Council designers.

The most significant is the growing use of bright colors and in shades never before attempted in floor coverings. This is especially true of vinyl asbestos tile, whose manufacturers used to proclaim the availability of a "host of neutrals."

Manufacturers are now producing vinyl asbestos tile with intricate printed designs, sometimes using several colors of ink. Some of the new tile patterns have white or ivory backgrounds; others are strong and vivid with designs in various colors.

These work well in a large combination living-and-dining room, as well as in a kitchen. They are also being recommended as easy-to-clean wall coverings, a new use for vinyl asbestos tile.

The big news from carpet manufacturers is "prints, prints, prints" and cut piles that are meant to satisfy the growing demand for the "sculptured look."

Embossed vinyl asbestos tile – which gives the sculptured look -- has been remarkably successful since first introduced a few seasons back.

SEMCOG Seeks To Avoid Cable TV Hodge-Podge

By TIM RICHARD

Without coordination, southeastern Michigan could have a proliferation of cable television systems that can't interconnect, according to men who have studied it.

So the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments has set up a Council on Regional Communications with the "benign" function of helping local governments set up their systems and integrating them.

The "benign" term was used by Conrad Mallett, a Wayne County Commissioner from Detroit, a vice chairman of SEMCOG and the chairman of an existing regional communications committee.

"We're not out to usurp local powers," Mallett told SEMCOG executive committee members worried about the spectre of regional government.

"There is no suggestion of management or control of resources. We need to coordinate -- a benign function," he said.

In community antenna television (CATV, or simply cable TV), one company under a local government franchise sets up a single, high antenna that can reach a full range of channels rather than only three or four. Home subscribers get TV service by cable, much like telephone service.

The City of Plymouth and Canton Township have already taken steps to grant such franchises.

So why the need for coordination?

Will Hardy, SEMCOG's public relations man and a committee member, cites the possibility that the Ypsilanti area could set up a cable TV system that couldn't interconnect with the Detroit area. Thus, Washtenaw Community College might be unable to pick up a program from Detroit designed for all community colleges.

"New York City has two CATV systems, each getting half the programs. They can't interconnect," Hardy says.

"The first system in an area has five legs up on sewing up the neighboring communities," he adds.

"Communities also need a resource to represent them in dealing with the state and federal governments."

Oak Park Mayor David Shepherd also complained that local governments have no place to go to get information on the problems of cable TV. He supported the idea of a SEMCOG committee providing a coordination function.

Many SEMCOG executive committee members also denounced the lack of coordination in setting up a 911 uniform police telephone number in southeastern Michigan.

"We can't have 911 phone service across the region," said Hardy, "because there's no correlation between telephone exchanges and political boundaries."

The problem is particularly acute in Observerland suburbs. The 47 exchange, for example, serves the City of Farmington but also parts of Livonia and Farmington Hills. A part of Farmington Hills is also in the 62 exchange, with the Bloomfield area. Livonia, Garden City and Westland all share the 42 exchange. Redford Township shares the 53 exchange with Detroit.

SEMCOG'S new Council on Regional Communications is directed to:

- Make an inventory of CATV development in the region.
- Identify technical and political decisions needed to "maximize intercommunity communications through cable television."
- Develop a capability for helping SEMCOG members with background and advice on cable TV problems. This will be done through Jack Kemp, SEMCOG deputy director who is experienced in CATV.

RN Refresher Course Offered

A refresher course for inactive registered nurses interested in returning to work will be offered this fall by St. Mary Hospital in Livonia.

Offered as a community service, the course will be held from Oct. 2 - Nov. 29. Interviews will be held until Sept. 28 for nurses interested in the course.

Strike 'Strangles' Farmington Football

A one game penalty and still holding!

That's the cry and situation for three high school football teams in Farmington who have been hit the hardest by the current teachers' strike.

With strike in the air, every school district in the state has arranged some sort of agreement to allow its prep football squads to practice and get in the necessary 14 days before opening game – that is except the Farmington School District.

"We are at seven days and holding," commented Farmington Athletic Director Jack Cotton who realizes the three schools – Farmington, North Farmington and Farmington Harrison must get in seven more days of practice before they can even think of competition.

Opening games for the three schools are now cancelled. Farmington and Harrison were to open in a rival clash and North Farmington was to have hosted Pontiac Northern Saturday afternoon.

If the schools are not allowed to begin practice by this Friday, Sept. 14, the following week games will also have to be ruled out.

"We lost our scrimmage, now our first game – we are already two games behind everyone," exclaimed North Farmington football Coach Ron Holland.

Other Observerland areas affected by the strike are Livonia and Garden City. Garden City has settled and is back to normal operations and the Livonia Education Association has allowed the four Livonia high schools to continue practice to get in the 14 days.

"The LEA has given us permission to follow through with our practices and first games this weekend with a reevaluation coming Monday, Sept. 17," said Franklin High Coach George Lovich. "The board could still lock us out but the LEA has given us sanction as long as bargaining is in good faith."

Lovich added, "the LEA should be commended that they are far - sighted enough to look out for the kids."

The feeling is just the opposite in Farmington where the coaches have been unable to work with their kids since Sept. 3.

"The day after the strike, the Farmington Education Association (FEA) said no to any demands the coaches had to continue practice," said Holland. "They instructed the coaches that they wanted a 100 per cent effort in the strike and we would just have to go along with that plan. We (the coaches) feel they are in great error.

"While other communities have worked together, our FEA and board have locked us out," said the North Farmington coach who was chairman of the coaches during the Farmington crisis in 1970. "The FEA is attempting to tell us that everyone will benefit but unlike classes, we cannot make up lost time. Once it is gone, it's gone."

"The FEA has been telling us that they work for us so in turn we should work for them," added Holland. "There is no way the kids will be prepared for a season which is already distorted.

"The kids know that football was denied them and can't really understand why it was taken away from them."

Harrison Coach John Herrington is one of the first to admit that football is now "being used as a pawn to settle the teachers' strike."

Football season must end by Dec. 1, thus the schools have two weeks to reschedule games but then comes interference with the winter sports and bad weather.

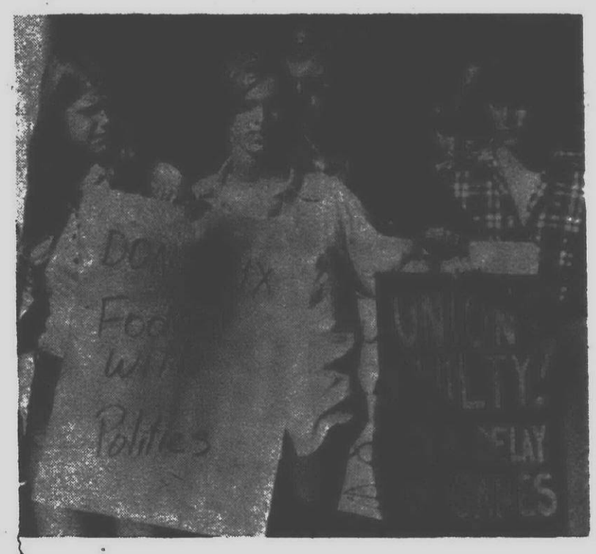

"Coaches are teachers first," said Executive Secretary of the FEA Roger Allen. "We want all the teachers to stand together in this thing. A survey of the association decided not to allow any practice and the board also said they would not allow any practice of any sort.

"The coaches are not happy but they have agreed to abide by our ruling. Sure there is a lot of pressure and the parents I hear have filed some sort of suit against us and about all I can say to that is that we will see them in court.

"We will not be intimidated like other school systems have been. This has to be a unity explanation and not to be taken lightly.

"All teachers are taking a risk and the coaches will go along with us.

"Farmington is far from being a typical community. Our past athletic problems reveal this in the split in the community and teachers themselves," Allen concluded.

'73 RU Football Card Thin Without 'Horses'

Redford Union baseball and football coach Bob Atkins has been known to pull off many a trick and get the most out of talent at hand - be it either the gridiron or the baseball diamond.

"In baseball you can bunt and squeeze and attempt to pull off anything you can get away with," commented Atkins who will be starting his sixth season as football coach. "This is not the case in this sport, you have to have the 'horses' in football and we are coming up way short."

RU lost 17 lettermen and has 13 returning, one offensive and three defensive starters.

The one coming back on offense is 6-3, 215-pound senior tight end Glenn Sander.

On defense there is senior linebacker Tom Bogdonas at 5-9 and 180-pounds; senior defensive back Scott O'Grady, 5-8, and 160-pounds; and at defensive end 5-10, 175-pound senior Bob Drohan.

"From these four we will build," commented Atkins whose Panthers finished 6-3 last year and outscored their opponents, 187-67.

"We are so thin that we can't afford any type of injury," added Atkins.

Handling the quarterbacking duties for the Panthers will be 5-9, 160-pound senior Dave Smith who is tabbed with good running and passing ability.

"The success of our offense will depend entirely on Smith's ability to run the squad," Atkins said.

Joining Sander at the other end slot is 6-2, 195-pound Bill Campbell who was backup quarterback last year and will play that same role again in addition to his new assignment.

Bogdonas is also fullback besides his linebacker assignment with 5-10, 180-pound senior Kevin Rodgers and 5-6, 175-pound junior Mark Cigna fighting it out for tailback.

O'Grady is the halfback to round out Atkins' multiple offense which will be stressing speed.

"Inexperience on the front line will cut down on the speed of our backfield which is almost a continuation of our track squad," explained Atkins.

Mike Esslinger and Brad Ross will be at the tackles with Dale Long, Bob Drohan, Dave Jann and Richard Brown contesting for guards. Dave DiCicco at 6-0 and 190-pounds has made the switch from end to center.

RU could have six players going both ways and Atkins is the first to admit this has not been a usual sight around Panther territory.

"We don't play the numbers game around here," added the RU coach. "Key kids who were out last year with size just decided not to come out and play. The pre-season heat really took its toll.

"Three letter - winners just didn't bother to come out.

"Our younger kids will be getting it all the first three or four games in experience. Defense has always been the backbone of RU football and our key this year will be not to put our offense in the hole."

Defensive tackles are 6-2, 265-pound Steve Leshuk and Esslinger with Sander and DiCicco at the ends. Bogdonas and Long will be the linebackers.

The secondary has 5-9, 160-pound Rick White, Campbell, 5-8, 140-pound Tim Clemens and Cigna.

"Our guys have to dispell the statement that little guys can't play football," commented Atkins.

Brown, George Willard and Smith will be handling the kicking chores.

"Trenton has to be the champion of the Suburban Eight," added Atkins. "We can stay in the middle of the pack if we stay in good health."

The highest RU has finished in Atkins' five year span was a tie for the crown in '69 and has compiled an overall record of 24-19.

Atkins' staff includes Ken Dersey and Doug Halliday on the varsity and Bob Green and Leland Bjerke on the junior varsity.

RU opens the '63 campaign home against Livonia Stevenson next Friday, Sept. 14 at 8 p.m.

U-M Ready For Iowa

By W.W. EDGAR

This is the week of anxiety on the University of Michigan campus as the Wolverines await the opening of the football season and defense of a share of the Big —Ten title against Iowa in Iowa City on Saturday.

The anxiety runs through many channels, foremost of which turns to whether the new offensive line will be able to do the job.

Next, is the anxiety concerned with the injury jinx--camp followers are wondering whether the injuries to several linemen during the practice sessions will be remedied in time for the first test.

On top of these, Coach "Bo" Schembechler doesn't hesitate to tell any one that he is always a bit fearful of opening the season on the road.

"Naturally," he says "we'd prefer starting at home. This is always considered a plus and this year it would be doubly so because of an offensive line that faces the biggest problem of all."

There is another avenue of anxiety. It concerns the pre-season rating of the team and whether it will live up to advance billing.

The veteran football writers who just completed their tour of the Big Ten campuses have rated the Wolverines as favorites to win the title outright and thus break the present bond with Ohio State.

"And don't forget," Schembechler cautioned, "everybody will be shooting at us. I know if I were a coach of those other teams I would be trying my darndest to break up the Michigan-Ohio State monopoly."

Barring injuries, however, Michigan will present a starting front that Schembechler admitted "could go all the way."

The Wolverines are doubly fortunate in that they have their complete double backfield of last year returning. This means that Dennis Franklin, who did a great job at quarterback as a sophomore, will be back in the spot. Schembechler claims Dennis is good enough to be rated the best in the Big Ten, if not All-America.

With him will be big Ed Shuttlesworth, as the plunging fullback. Right behind him will be Bob Thornbladh, the former Plymouth star, who could be a starter on any other team.

As the team awaits the opener, it looks fit. But there's many a slip from kickoff time to the final whistle. And with Iowa on the way back to the heights, an upset could happen.

No wonder it is "the week of anxiety" on the Wolverine campus.

Turf Tips, Quips

By Doc Minard

John Carlo, executive director of Northville Downs, is a bitter individual these days after discovering the Michigan Legislature had passed a bill taking the choice summer dates away from the 'Downs and it had the signature of the governor.

That portion of the bill providing tracks with an average nightly handle of $400,000 or more must be allotted back-to-back summer dates by the racing commissioner was in the form of a rider to an appropriation bill.

How and when the rider was attached to the bill remains a mystery to area legislators. None recalls seeing it when the bill was brought to the attention of the House and Senate.

Rep. Robert Geake (Livonia - Northville) says he never saw the rider and Sen. Carl Pursell made the same statement.

Top management from Wolverine and Hazel Park Raceways deny any knowledge of the addenda although each indicated he was happy with the wording that appears to automatically assure the two tracks of all the summer dates in the future.

It is well known that Hazel Park and Wolverine long have felt that back - to - back summer meetings would keep top stables here for most of the year and result in larger crowds, bigger handles and more interest ... all of which in turn assures the horsemen of richer purses and the state of additional funds from its share of the mutuel handle.

Carlo takes the stand that Racing Commissioner Leo Shirley didn't need specific instructions to allot back - to - back summer dates. He points out the commissioner has absolute authority and can allot dates in any manner he desires.

"Shirley didn't need any help in dates," said Carlo. "He has had the authority all along but perhaps he thought he must have a bit of assistance in making a decision that would rob the state's pioneer track of its traditional summer racing. He has been paring down our summer nights for the past several years, dropping from a high of 60 a few years back to a mere 36 this year."

Carlo offers several reasons why Northville should have summer programs and is considering legal action on the constitutionality of the new bill. He alleges the rider had nothing to do with original intention of the bill and thus is illegal.

The genial Northville boss charges:

1-Northville Downs, because of its location, suffers losses in winter racing. The location factor may be resolved in another year or two when the new freeway is finished.

2-The 'Downs added one per cent to the horsemen's purse contract to 46 per cent of the track's share of the handle, something like $37,000 more at each meeting.

3-The reduction of summer dates this year caused a hardship in regard to the Michigan colt stakes. Northville with 36 nights paid $40,000 for the eight stakes, Wolvering paid the same but has an allotment of 82 nights.

4-Northville competes with Windsor Raceway which has a much lower salary structure for employes. Thus it is able to complement its gate and purse program.

5-There is no advantage in Section 17 of the recently passed bill. If Northville loses its summer dates for March and April, it would have an average nightly handle of $275,000 and not the $350,000 and $375,000 it now has in the summer. Moreover, he contends the back-to-back meetings would not increase wagering $75,000 to $100,000 as predicted and uses figures from Chicago meetings to prove his point.

During the past year: Fox Valley, in a winter program, averaged $1,366,580; Suburban Downs followed in the winter with an average of $1,255,061; Chicago Downs had late winter dates and averaged $1,233,936; Maywood races in late spring and early summer and averaged $948,049; Washington Park had late summer and early fall programs and averaged $775,439; and Aurora had the winter and wound up with a $273,000 average.

And that to Carlo points out that the most lucrative dates are during the winter when the trotters and pacers have the scene all to themselves and average well over a million.

"The story could be the same in Michigan," he charges. "All the commissioner has to do to prove it is give Wolverine and Hazel Park back - to - back winter and see what happens."

'Quick' GC West Ready For Tri-River Race

Physical size is out for 1973 at Garden City West with speed and quickness in.

"This year's crew is the smallest I have ever had at West," exclaimed heard mentor Bob Draheim who is starting his fifth season with a 15-16-1 overall showing behind him. "The offensive line will average 175 pounds and the defensive about 170 pounds.

"A nice quick team" is how Draheim talked of his team in preparation for its opener home with Livonia Franklin this Friday, Sept. 14 with kickoff at 8 p.m.

Draheim has 19 lettermen returning, including seven offensive and seven defensive starters.

"We were a junior ball club in '72 and lost only 12 because of graduation and only seven starters," added Draheim.

West finished 5-4 last season, being outscored by its opponents, 157-136. A 48-0 trouncing by Garden City East tipped that category.

The heart of the '73 club will be co-captain and second year quarterback senior Terry Dobbs. The 6-0, 175 pound signal caller connected on 102 of 180 passes last year and has been tabled by Draheim as "one of the best quarterbacks around."

The halfback slots will be handled by 5-9, 172 pound Mike Calamita and 6-1, 175 pound Keith Banks who broke his shoulder in the Franklin opener last year.

It is a two-way battle for the starting fullback position between 5-9, 175 pound Mike Zenko and 6-3, 175 pound Jay Kooch.

Tight end is co-captain Mike Carr at 6-3 and 185 pounds and at split end is Scott Fowler at 6-1 and 170 pounds.

Center Bob Badali (6-3 and 190 pounds) heads up the offensive line. At right guard will be 5-10, 170 pound Greg Schmidt. The other guard slot is up for grabs between Steve Kirby, Brian Nowka and Jerry Templeton.

Tackles are 6-2 Neil Winger and 6-3, 185 pound John McDonell.

Middle guard on defense is Kirby with the tackle berth a complete question mark.

"We lost both tackles and there is quite a battle going on for the positions," added Draheim. "In addition we are still in search of more on-way ballplayers."

At one defensive end berth is 5-10, 170 pound Garth McGrath. Carr has been moved from the end to the linebacker slot and along with his offensive end duties, may be the solo Tiger two-way performer.

Ron Austin at 6-0 and 170 pounds and Roger Myers at 6-0 and 175 pounds are in contest for the end slot vacated by Carr.

To compliment Carr in the linebacker category will be Koch at 6-3 and 195 pounds or Ken Stoney at 6-1 and 175 pounds.

The secondary of Scott Fowler, George Culp, Garry Carneghi and Paul Tatro rounds out the West defense.

The positive points for West are its passing game and good depth in the offensive backfield and defensive backfield.

"Defense is my real concern," commented Draheim. "We have a lot of holes to fill and have been caught thin or attempting to do just that."

Draheim sees the Tri-River race a four-way battle between Melvindale, Riverside, Southgate and his West Tigers.

"We have a good nucleus and should be right in the thick of it all," concluded Draheim.

Franklin Power Could Sweep Northwest

George Lovich is in the Franklin High wings awaiting the opening kickoff of the '73 football season hoping No. 6 is just what the Patriots ordered.

This will be the sixth season for Lovich at Franklin. He is sporting an overall 32-8-1 mark but has managed only a tie for the Northwest crown, and that way back in '68.

No. 6 may be just what Lovich ordered.

Franklin finished 6-3 last year and outscored its opponents, 181 to 116, with a 35-20 loss to Garden City East, a 20-18 [illegible] in the hands of North Farmington and a 20-8 thumping by Churchill.

No one knows better than Lovich that this could and should be the year to take it all.

Lovich has eight starters back of 11 lettermen and three more starters after three games. His middle linebacker, defensive end and defensive corner back will be sitting out the first three games due to a discipline policy.

"We have the makings of an outstanding team," stated Lovich who also realizes that you cannot lose three returning starters without feeling it. "Sure we will miss the three but they will be back by game No. 4."

The key to unlock a championship season in the Northwest is in the quarterbacking of 5-11, 165-pound senior Larry Casey, a defensive back last season.

"Larry is a good leader, experience will be the question," added Lovich. "If the quarterback comes through for us, we will be tough."

Backup quarterback will be 5-10, 170-pound Paul Downs.

Franklin's backfield is headed by 5-7, 160-pound junior Dan Quinn at fullback. Quinn was at tailback as a sophomore.

At tailback will be 5-10, 170-pound senior Greg Battistone who broke his leg against Garden City East last year.

That almost broke Franklin's back as he had ground out over 300 yards and scored four touchdowns in two outings.

At the split end berths will be senior Dean Morrison 6-1 and 175-pounds, sophomore Darrell Gunter at 5-7 and 140-pounds and Gary Wortz, a 5-9, 170-pound transfer senior from Grass Lake.

The tight end battle features 6-0, 175-pound Ray Cekauskas, 6-1, 185-pound senior Matt DeMars and Rick Varterasian at 6-1 and 180-pounds.

Starting at center will be 5-11, 209-pound senior Bill Conway, who like Battistone sat out the season after the third game, with a cracked collar bone. His backup is George DeLoye, a 6-1, 175-pound senior.

There are two starters back at the guard slots in 5-10, 170-pound Lenny Schemanske and 6-0, 170-pound Bruce Urbanski.

At tackle will be two seniors in 6-1, 200-pound Bob Every and 5-11, 180-pound Randy Epley and junior Ernie Turel at 5-10 and 180-pounds.

The defensive line will be a strong point with the secondary a question mark with two juniors and one sophomore still having to prove themselves.

Ron Geer (6-2 and 190-pounds) and Dan Wells (6-5 and 200-pounds) will be at the end slot with 5-11, 215-pound Mark Levin and Turel at tackles.

Linebacker chores have Epley, 6-1, 190-pound Bruce Gress, 6-0, 185-pound, Tim Ninnis, 5-6, 160-pound Jay Chavey, and 6-1, 170-pound Greg Chipman in contention.

The lone senior in the backfield is DeMars. Sophomore Jim Casey at 5-9 and 175 pounds will be working with two juniors in 5-8, 160-pound Joe Pollard and 5-8, 160-pound Todd Mapes.

Battistone will handle the punting and fullback Quinn the place-kicking.

"I see North Farmington as the team to beat," commented Lovich with full realization that North Farmington Coach Ron Holland picked Franklin to take it all. "North has everyone back and our game with them could beat the big one."

Lovich's staff is rounded out by Jerry Cullin, Armand Vigna and Dale Rothenberg.

Franklin opens this Friday at 8 p.m. against Garden City West. The Patriots tipped West, 14-6, last season in the '72 opener.

Inexperienced Spartans Open With RU Friday

Inexperience has hit Stevenson High and Coach Jack Reardon in preparation for Friday night's opening football clash at Redford Union.

Stevenson, which wound up '72 with a 5-4 mark, lost 20 players to graduation, seven were All-Inter Lakes.

"We have been hit pretty hard and have only 10 lettermen returning," stated Reardon who will be starting his 17th season in high school coaching, nine at Stevenson.

Of the 10 returning lettermen, only three were starters on the Inter Lake champion squad. Fred O'Keefe at linebacker, Paul Lulek at tailback and center John Karwoski will be the nucleus of the '73 Spartan squad.

"This is going to be a junior squad for us," added Reardon. "Experience is going to have to be picked up on a week to week basis."

"Our seniors are just going to have to extend themselves," explained the Stevenson coach.

Quickness will be taking the place of physical football where the offensive line will average 180 pounds with the defensive line checking in at 185 pounds.

Stevenson's offensive backfield will be headed by All-League tailback Lulek with junior Paul Hokar the backup performer.

Senior Mark Temby and junior Bruce Nichols will be handling the Spartan signal calling. Wingbacks will be seniors Chuck Bien and Tom Mays. Bien will captain the '73 unit.

At ends will be O'Keefe, senior Ray Davis, juniors Dave Galindo, John Bowlby, Joe Centers, Bob Burrows, Jeff McClain, Craig Geppert and Kevin Cox.

The '72 starting center Karwoski is making the shift to tackle to compete with seniors Bob Hope and junior John Quadlin, and junior Mark Lapham.

At guard will be senior John Hulet and juniors Ken Buccili, Ray Warring, Mike Cardasis, Wally Happe and Jeff Dyer.

Senior center is Bob Dolmetsch with juniors Kevin Gehl and John Anderson making the bid.

"The key to our season will be quickness," Reardon added. "There is no question that our kids will hit.

"The Inter-Lakes should be balanced," he added. "Walled Lake Central, Pontiac Northern and Farmington are all going to have good clubs.

"We have a lot of question marks but attitude which means so much this time of year is sky high," Reardon finished.

'Team Michigan' On Northville Card

Clifford (Corky) Keener of Goodrich, called "Michigan's most talented racer" by the greatest professional motorcycle rider in the state's history, will be a marked man at Northville Downs next Saturday, Sept. 15.

Fresh from winning the state championship half-mile dirt track championship at Midland, Keener will serve as captain of "Team Michigan" against six invading professional cyclists in two 10-lap match races that will highlight Northville's final motorcycle card of the summer.

It was Bart Markel of Flint, now retired from racing after winning 28 national championships, who lauded the 27-year-old Keener as the best of the state's current pro riders.

The team event, with each dash scored on a point basis through 12th and last place, will be for a special purse of $2,400.

At least 150 riders are expected for the time trials which will start at 5:45 p.m. with the first of the elimination events on the 15-race card starting at 7 p.m.

Set Prep Marks

Tommy Vaughn, newly-named Wayne State University assistant football coach, set Ohio high school football records in touchdowns and total points with totals of 35 and 235 as a senior at Troy High School.

MICHIGAN MILE ATTRACTION -- One of the prime side-attractions at the Detroit Race Course on Michigan Mile Day, Saturday, Sept. 15, will be European kite soaring champion, Rudy Kishazy. Famous for taking off of 10,000 feet mountain peaks in Europe, the daredevil Hungarian will cut loose his automobile tow rope at 500 feet above the DRC track and demonstrate his flying and landing techniques.

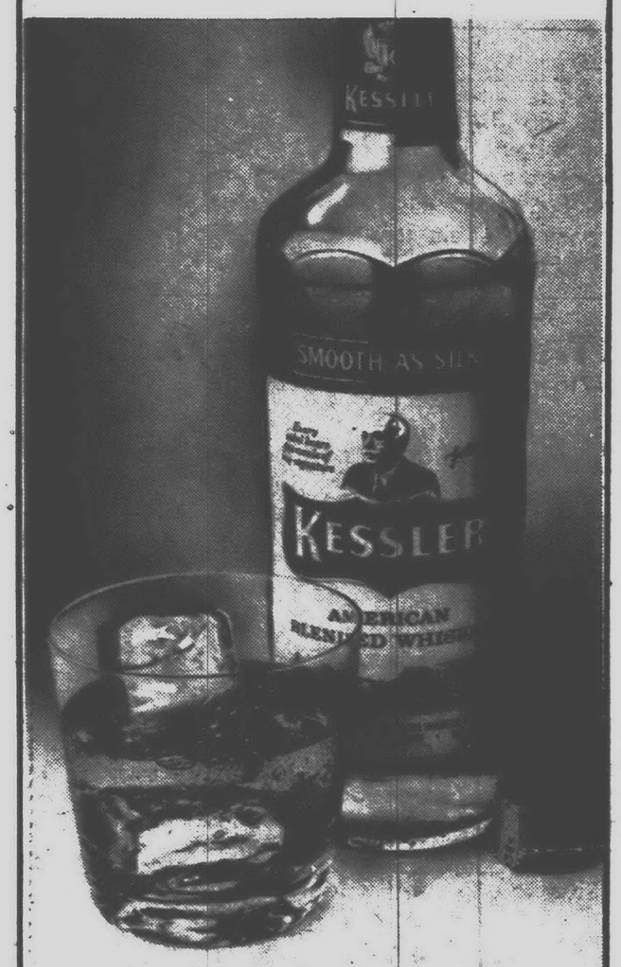

Michigan Mile To Be Aired World-Wide

In the most extensive coverage ever given the $100,000 Michigan Mile and One Eighth, the silver anniversary running of the thoroughbred classic at Detroit Race Course will be heard nationally and around the world.

Three major radio networks, ABC, CBS, and Mutual, will carry the Saturday, Sept. 15 event which is Michigan's richest horse race. Jack Riggs, "the voice of Michigan racing" and one of the country's best known racecasters, will describe the "Mile action.

The race will be aired on ABC's "World of Sports" show and also on Winn Elliott's CBS "Sports Central USA" program.

'Futurology' Is Studied At SC

A three-day program on futurology will be held at Schoolcraft College next week with a series of films and discussions.

The program will run Tuesday through Thursday, Sept. 18-20, at the college, 18600 Haggerty, Livonia.

Futurology is the study of the direction in which civilization is moving by examining current trends. It has become an increasingly popular subject with the publication of the book "Future Shock" by Alvin Toffler.

A film on the book will be shown almost continuously at the college during the three days in the lower level of Waterman Campus Center. The 42-minute color film is scheduled for showing at 9 and 11 a.m., 1, 3 and 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday and 10 a.m., 12 noon and 2 p.m. on Thursday.

Viewers will participate in discussions after each showing directed by Judy Kaltz of the college's Newman center.

Four other films will be shown during the program, but exact times haven't been scheduled yet.

The films include "The World of Future Shock: Crisis in the 800th Lifetime," which is an interview with Toffler; "Family Life Style of the Future," featuring Margaret Mead; and "Geopolitics: Shape of the Things to Come" featuring Robert Heilbroner and Arnold Toynbee; and "Business: Brother Can You Spare $100,000,000," featuring Kenneth Galbraith.

The films are from the series "Toward the Year 2000."

The program is the first of a series of programs on futurology organized by Miss Kaltz and Sister Margaret Basso IHM, also of the Newman center staff. In November, the series will deal with biomedics related subjects such as euthanasia.

Did you ever believe that the day would come when your Thanksgiving turkey would cost one dollar a pound – and that you'd be lucky to get it at that figure.

Well, turkey lovers, that day has arrived, and the price may soar higher before the day arrives when we bow and give thanks for our blessings.

A survey during the past week reveals that the turkey farmers in the area have only half the number of birds they had a year ago, and some wish the flocks were even smaller.

"When I learned what the price of feed was this spring," said Loyd Sharland, manager of the Gottschalk farm in Plymouth, "I decided to take only half the number I had a year ago.

"Would you believe it? I am now paying $260 a ton for the same feed that cost only $130 a year ago. And don't forget, I raise some of the food myself.

"I'll have to get at least $1 per pound for the same bird that brought 69 cents a pound last Thanksgiving time. And if I took the 10 per cent margin that the auto companies take, the price would jump even higher – maybe up to $1.25 per pound."

The turkey market has undergone so great a change that Sharland has even taken down the roadside sign on Territorial Road.

"I have about 800 birds," he said "and that's about what I need for regular customers. If the price goes much higher, I may even sell them undressed to a Detroit market."

The story was the same at Roperti's Turkey Farm in Livonia. The owner just raised her arms and almost shouted, "Cost too much to raise."

In sober reflection, she and her daughter pointed to the fact that they must buy all of their feed and the price has jumped from $130 per ton to $380.

Then they added, "And we must pay our help $5 an hour. Can't make money that way."

The younger of the owners did a bit of mental arithmetic and solemnly explained:

"To make the same amount of money on a bird that we made a year ago, we'll have to charge about $1.60 a pound. It all depends on what the big stores do – we'll watch them and then do the best we can."

During the survey, it was learned that for a time last spring, Roperti was even considering dropping the turkey business.

On second thought, the family decided to try it once more and had to be content with eight week-old chicks.

"We only bought half as many," the younger member of the family explained. "Last year we had about 4,500 but this year, we have only about 2,000 and even that number is too much to feed."

Explaining the current trend of the turkey market, Sharling was quick to stress that nature should be given some of the blame.

"Don't forget we had a very wet spring, and many farmers were late with their planting. That brought about a shortage and the higher cost of feed. So the government must not be given all the blame."

Then, turning to look at his "half a flock," he said, "If you think this is bad, it may be worse next year.

"The Ohio firm with whom I do business wants a blank contract for next year's order. He claims he can't put the price in at this time, so we'll just have to gamble."

So if you want a turkey for Thanksgiving, you had better get your order in now. That big, luscious drumstick may not taste so good at more than $1 a pound.

Cadillac '74
More than ever...
America's Number One Luxury Car.

It is a matter of record that in the model year just ending more people chose to own Cadillacs than ever before in history—more than double those of the nearest competitor. And it is true that Cadillac traditionally leads all U.S. car makes in both resale value and owner loyalty. It's a record without equal. Yet in many ways the Cadillacs of 1974 are superior to the cars that established this record.

It's what you expect of Cadillac ...and something more.

More choice. And what a choice it is—the greatest in the luxury field. There are the three you see here. The classic Fleetwood Brougham. The magnificent new version of America's only luxury convertible—Eldorado. The newly styled Coupe deVille. Plus six other basic models. Plus...

New Special Edition Cars. Luxury versions of DeVille. A new Brougham d'Elegance. And the new ultra-elegant Fleetwood Talisman.

More elegance. Inside every 1974 Cadillac is a new instrument panel. Interiors are more luxurious than ever.

More flair. The smart new styling of the Coupe deVille is a case in point. Its new lines, highlighted by the private quarter window, accent its youthful flavor.

More driving pleasure. Finer engine performance... from start to stop. Due in part to a new combustion chamber, a new camshaft, a choke reindexer to provide quick starting, a snorkel to supply the engine with cooler air.

And something less. Even less engine noise with high-damping engine mounts, a fan clutch and a muffler for air intake. Inside the car, a virtual network of acoustical materials—including double seals on doors—silently does its job. After all, it's a Cadillac.

PLYMOUTH COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICT
Plymouth, Michigan

BOARD OF EDUCATION MINUTES

The regular meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District, Wayne and Washtenaw Counties, Michigan, was held on Tuesday evening, July 24, 1973, in the Multi-Purpose Room of Miller Elementary School, 650 Hanford Road, Plymouth, Michigan.

President McClendon called the meeting to order at 8:10 p.m.

Present: Members Benson, Graves, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Absent: None.

Administrators present: Sup't. Hoben, Deputy Sup't. Hogan, Assistant Sup't. Blunk, Adm. Assistant-Personnel Kee, Director Masteller, Supervisor Symonds and Principal Bulkema.

Others present: F. DeLano and E. Wendover, Plymouth Mail and Observer; PEA representatives, Transportation Committee and Safety Committee representatives and about 250 interested parents, students, teachers and citizens of the community.

Additions to the agenda were called and approved.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Benson to approve the minutes of the organizational meeting of July 9, 1973, as distributed.

Ayes: Members Benson, Graves, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Graves to approve the minutes of the regular meeting of July 9, 1973, as distributed.

Ayes: Members Benson, Graves, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Suggestions from citizens were called. Mrs. R. Gladden rose to speak to restoration of the sixth-grade camp to the 1973-74 budget and advantages therefor. W. McAninch spoke to support the interim appointment of M. Borowski as a member of the School Board to fill the unexpired term of John Graves whose resignation will be effective July 31, 1973.

The following citizens offered comments, questions or support of program changes proposed by administration in order to present a balanced 1973-74 budget, or to support or oppose a third millage election on August 20.

F. DeLano	R. Olson	M/M.G. Hunter	Rick Neu
E. Judd	H. Hall	M. Borowski	Gary Gray
J. McGarry	J. Rossman	G. Balconi	T. Liesta
C. Lodge	Mrs. Clark	F. Tonda	8 other citizens
T. Griffin	R. Gregg	N. Johnson	and students

In answer to questions raised by those above listed, the following points of clarification were made by Board members or Administrators:

1. 1973-74 State Equalized Valuation: $346,806,927. Per pupil, with 12,232 projected enrollment: $28,000.00. One mill added would raise $346,806 additional revenue; 1½ mills would raise $519,000 with 100% collection. (Assistant Sup't. Blunk)
2. Class size as now established is favorable in comparison to neighboring communities; better than Ann Arbor, lower than Livonia. (Director Kee)
3. Board committed to maintaining instructional budget first and then restoring noninstructional categories. (Member Mirto)
4. Reduction in class size is opposed by all building principals. (Member Mirto)
5. Cost of school farm operation, about $12,000 year; but will be self-sustaining and is a K-12 educational program. (Sup't. Hoben)
6. Administration against use of fund equities to improve financial situation, since only a small amount can be converted to cash, unless planned 1-2 years in advance. Fund not normally a cash balance. (Assistant Sup't. Blunk)
7. Superintendent's car is not leased to him by the School District. (Member McClendon)
8. Board cannot guarantee putting back these items inversely as to how costs were cut, if millage is passed. (Member Penar)
9. It is not possible to go back for another bond election until December, 1973. (Feels there will be 100% density at high school and elementary levels this year.) Cost of 1.5 mills would be $1.50 per thousand dollar assessed valuation. Results of a millage election must be on tax rolls by September 1 in order to be reflected on December tax bills. All legal aspects of election procedure have been met, including notices of last day for registration, absentee ballots, etc. Any increased millage would not increase or decrease State Aid. No School District funds would be involved in cost of another election in August. (Sup't. Hoben)
10. Responses to a request to poll Board members on pledge to guarantee restoration of athletic, music and extra-curricular activity funds were as follows:

Member Mirto:
No guarantee.

Member Penar:
Not precisely as taken out but consider varsity athletics.

Member Gray:
Guarantee, but consider Middle School athletics under Recreation Authority.

Member Benson:
Guarantee, but reassess situation as to allotments to athletic programs, especially as concerns girls' sports.

Member Lawton:
Guarantee; funds should not have been removed from existing budget.

Member Graves:
As a citizen, will support restoration. Would not vote for cuts if it were possible to increase class size without jeopardizing quality education.

During the discussion, Superintendent Hoben reviewed the budget and proposed cuts to date. He stated the anticipated revenue for 1973-74 is expected to be $12,268,956, with the budget as approved by Wayne County Allocation Budget Committee being $13,000,553. Total cuts have been proposed in the amount of $979,722. He reviewed the agreed-upon reductions as to this date.

President McClendon announced that the sixth-grade school camp funds would be restored, since the cuts made were $11,000 over amount necessary. This would still present a balanced budget.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Mirto that this Board direct administration to implement budget cuts as follows, in addition to those indicated in meeting of July 5, 1973.

Appraisal of equipment for insurance purposes	$ 11,000
Transportation to limits of State Law only	50,000
Reduction of custodial services	83,200
Commitment to Recreation Authority	21,000
High School Co-op Education	10,000
Instructional Supplies	6,000
Textbooks	12,000
P.A.P.C.	5,000
Reduction of scheduled maintenance jobs	30,000
High School and Middle School Athletics	100,000
High School and Middle School Performing Music	11,200
High School and Middle School Extra-Curricular	19,000

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Gray as an alternative to the above motion, that an election date be established, providing people an opportunity to present petitions, then proceed with election; and based upon this alternative, to table the motion to implement budget cuts and then establish election date.

Ayes: Members Gray and Lawton.

Nays: Members Benson, Graves, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

The motion was defeated.

The question was called on the motion to implement budget cuts.

Ayes: Members Benson, Graves, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Graves, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Ayes: Members Benson, Graves, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Nays: Member Gray.

The motion was carried.

It was announced that petitions would be made available for any citizen or student who wished to circulate same in the Board Administrative offices, 454 S. Harvey Street but they would not be printed at District expense.

A recess was called at 10:35 p.m.

It is noted in these minutes that a complete tape recording is available in the Administrative Offices of all discussions pursuant to the decisions on the budget cuts and election for 1.5 mills as proposed.

The meeting reconvened at 11:00 p.m.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Graves to defer to the Transportation Study a request from Smith School for fifteen-minute earlier arrival and dismissal times for school, to direct letter back to two groups requesting same and to direct the Transportation Study to consider starting times at all schools.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Graves, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Graves, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Graves to accept recommendation of administration to participate in an attitude measurement program of the Department of Education as part of the 1973-74 Michigan Education Assessment Program at the 4th and 7th grade levels and to prepare duplicate copies of the survey for use by parents who desire to see them before participation.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Graves, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Penar.

'No Fault' Penalties Start Oct. 1;
We Can Help You Avoid Them

- How must my car be insured to comply with the No-Fault law?
- How much will No-Fault insurance pay?
- Can I still be sued?

If there's even one of these questions you can't answer, then you had better call one of our professional staff members for some no-obligation advice. You see, effective October 1, 1973, everyone in Michigan who owns an automobile must have insurance that meets the minimum requirements of Public Act 294. Failure to comply could bring severe penalties. Let one of our experienced account executives clear up any confusion you may have concerning this new State law. Our booklet, "No Fault and You", answers over 28 questions about the new statute's complicated provisions. We'll be glad to let you have a copy. No charge, of course. As Oct. 1 draws closer, that call could save you a lot of grief.

The Stroller:

He Who Laughs Last...

By W. W. EDGAR

There's a lot of truth to the old adage that you shouldn't laugh too soon at a fellow with an imaginative mind.

This thought came to The Stroller in recent days when the public prints carried bold headlines telling the world that two of the major segments of the auto industry were turning their attention to the manufacture of small cars.

It isn't many years ago that we all had a good laugh when George Romney took over the presidency of American Motors and immediately announced that he was going to make the world "compact car conscious."

His words were taken as a challenge to "Big Three" – GM, Ford and Chrysler – and no one could imagine that fiery George winning his struggle against such powerful opposition.

At the time, he was using the American Motors' Rambler as the vehicle with which he would make his onslaught against the giants of the auto industry.

"Poor George," the critics chuckled.

But it isn't a laughing matter now. And in far off Utah where he is still licking his political wounds, Romney must be enjoying a chuckle or two.

You see, with their latest move, the giants aren't fighting the opposition. They are following the old cry – "If you can't beat 'em, join 'em."

This latest proof that you shouldn't laugh at a fellow too soon is just another in a series that has dotted our history.

The Stroller remembers, as a youth, when he was first told, "they laughed at the fellow who made the first umbrella."

And do you recall in your early history that the first steamboat was hailed as "Fulton's Folly"? Yet it proved so successful that the name of its inventor – Robert Fulton – will live forever.

If you can remember back to the mid-1920s, they laughed at a quiet young man who was confident that he could fly solo across the Atlantic. Few persons – even our top engineers – gave him a chance.

But today that old crate he flew is now hanging over the main entrance of the Smithsonian Institute in our nation's capital, and the name of Charles A. Lindbergh will live forever in history. You see, the critics laughed too soon.

The Stroller recalls, too, the laughs many people enjoyed when they were told the air was filled with music and it could be picked out and played in your own living room.

It seemed impossible. Yet today radio is taken for granted. The big thing is television, which was another laughing matter when it was first mentioned.

Now they're talking about such things as trains and trucks travelling on air cushions instead of tracks. Another is a lawnmower that you can direct and control from your kitchen window or while sitting on your back porch.

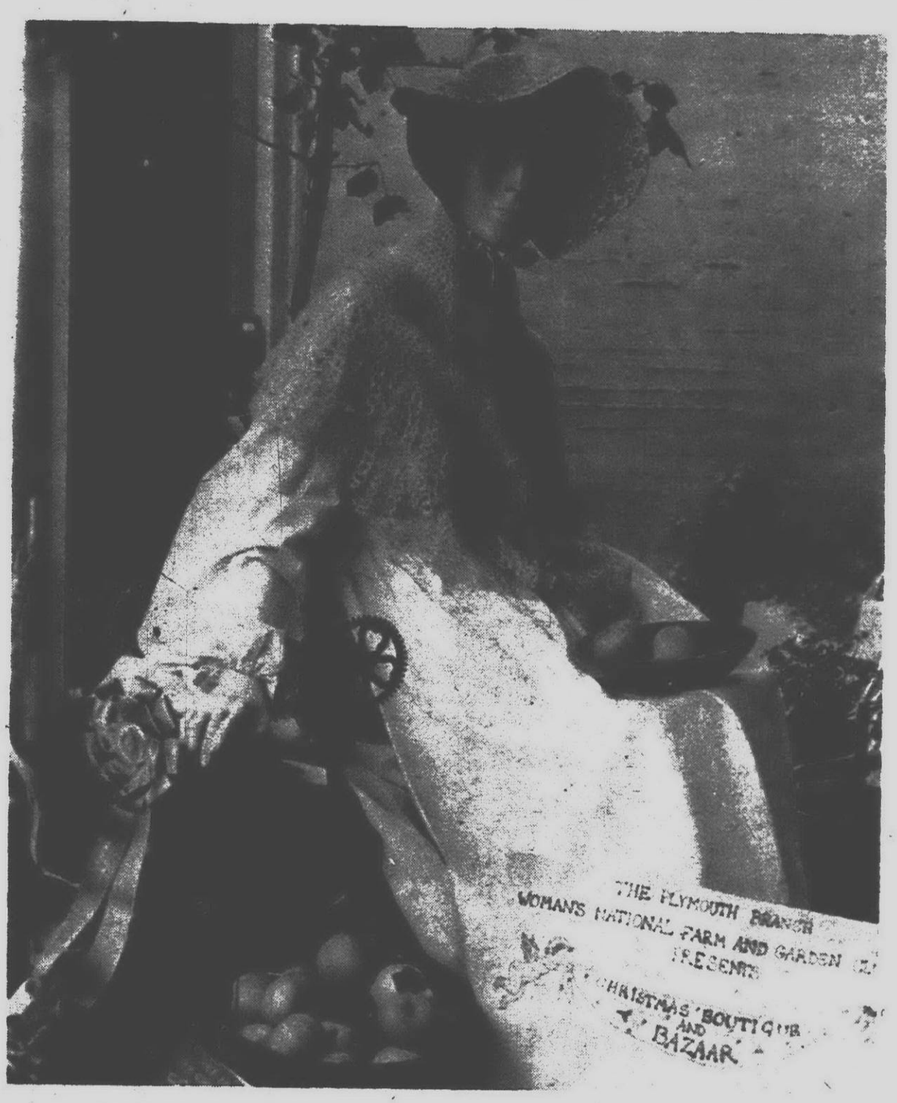

Just the other day, The Stroller had a chance to see another "laughing matter" come to a reality.

During a tour of the Michigan Bell building on Ann Arbor Road in Plymouth, he was shown the latest telephone wizardry that allows you to see the person to whom you are talking.

As with television, a way must be found to "bend" the picture beyond the horizon. That will come soon.

So, be careful. Don't laugh too soon at a fellow with an imaginative mind.

The automotive giants learned the folly of it.

Comfort

A key to comfort is insulation. If your home has insulation, you can forget about cold floors, cold walls and chilly corners. Insulation slows down heat loss through walls and ceilings. At the same time, it helps keep cold air from seeping in. And, for summertime comfort, the same insulation that keeps the heated air in for winter warmth, keeps the hot air out. Insulation provides additional bonuses — a more uniform temperature and a quieter home — helps keep outside noises out. Weather stripping, storm windows and doors, or insulating glass all help reduce heat loss, too. So, when you insulate, you're providing a more comfortable home for you and your family.

Savings

What about savings? Since insulation helps keep heat from escaping and the cold from seeping in, it follows that it takes less fuel to keep an insulated home warm. (In fact, proper insulation could reduce your heating bill as much as one-third.) Insulation pays year-around dividends because the same insulation that saves you money on fuel costs for winter warmth, saves you money on cooling costs. Insulation keeps your heating and cooling equipment from working overtime. It reduces maintenance and assures a more efficient operation and longer life. Proper insulation pays for itself through lower fuel bills and, at the same time, helps you conserve precious energy.

Proper Insulation pays for itself in comfort and through savings
