Oldsters Help Young With 'Bucket Brigade'

By MAURIE WALKER

There is a busy Bucket Brigade working at Fiegel Elementary School in Plymouth Township, but it has nothing to do with fire-fighting. Like its namesake, the brigade is made up of volunteers, but in this case they are devoting their spare time to helping teach children, kindergarten through third grade.

Fiegel school has 10 volunteers, five of them members of the Plymouth - Northville chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP). The other five volunteers are mothers of children in the school. Their purpose is to assist children who need extra help in their reading and/or arithmetic. Children needing help are referred to the Bucket Brigade teacher by the individual teachers. At Fiegel school, the brigade teacher is Sigrid Carpenter who organizes the volunteers and conducts three training sessions for them before they go about working with children. The name of the program is derived from the colorful bucket filled with inexpensive teaching aids which the volunteers carry to help their students.

At Fiegel, the volunteers make the items that go into the bucket. These include "flash cards" with simple words, alphabet cards, showing letters in capitals and small letters, along with various arithmetic aids, such as coins of various denominations and amounts. "We had no trouble getting volunteers," Mrs. Carpenter said. "I contacted the parents and the AARP. They came through."

She said this is the first year the program has been used in the Plymouth area. "We are one of several schools in the area to start the program," Mrs. Carpenter said. Fred Bradley, the only man among the volunteers, said the AARP members took to the idea of volunteering.

"We got 11 volunteers from our organization so if the program is expanded, there won't be any shortage of teachers." Bradley, like a couple other volunteers, has had past experience in teaching. "I taught a radio technician night school course for 13 years at Detroit's Cass Tech High School." Now retired, he was an engineer with Bell Telephone Co.

Kaiser Resigning?

Wes Kaiser, chairman of the Canton Township Planning Commission, may be that body's next member to resign. He admitted to The Plymouth Mail & Observer that he "is thinking about it." Named chairman upon George Lawton's resignation from the planning commission earlier this year, Kaiser has served as a planner for 12 years. If he resigns, Kaiser will be the fifth planning commissioner to leave this year. In addition to Lawton, Lynn Wilson resigned earlier this year, and Louis Stein and Ellen Ruland quit last week.

Canton To Halt I-275 Ramp

By MARIE MCGEE

Ring denunciations by the township fire chief and engineers have prompted Canton Township trustees to seek an injunction against the State Highway Dept. to halt work on the Joy Road overpass of I-275. The action Tuesday night followed on the heels of a "show of force" meeting Monday night called by residents of Holiday Park Subdivision and neighboring Deer Creek apartment complex. Both groups are vehemently fighting the completion of the overpass on the grounds that the steep elevations present a serious traffic hazard and a pose a constant threat to drivers as well as the school children who cross Joy Road to get to and from school.

Deer Creek Apartments and Holiday Park are on the southeast corner of the intersection of Joy Road and I-275. Fiegel Elementary School is directly across Joy from them.

Monday's 2½-hour, emotion-packed meeting resulted in the reaffirming by the residents to "physically and bodily" prevent the pouring of the final portion of cement on the eastern ramp of the overpass until some traffic problems are resolved.

Several hundred residents packed Fiegel Elementary School gym to listen to and ask questions of State High Dept. and Wayne County Road officials who agreed to come to the meeting after learning of the residents' plight.

Spokesmen for the citizens group were Brian Schwall, township trustee; Tom Stevenson; Flossie Tonda, newly appointed Canton planning commissioner and chairman of the schools' safety committee; and Frank McMurray, former chairman of the township's recreation advisory committee. All are Holiday Park residents. While generally defending the design of the overpass, many highway officials noted that they were not aware of the problems voiced by the residents "until last Thursday" when they were invited to the meeting.

Intense questioning finally brought two commitments from the state officials, who have jurisdiction over the construction of the overpass.

After first refusing outright to halt construction, state officials finally agreed not to pour any cement until meeting once again with residents. That meeting will come after a parley with high level highway department officials in Lansing this week.

The other commitment was the installation of metal guard rails and a chain link fence to further protect children walking to the pedestrian skywalk that will soon be erected for their use (in reaching Fiegel School).

When the state officials appeared adamant in carrying on the final phase of construction despite protests, Stevenson outlined the steps the residents would take to block the work.

He said that the 550 Holiday Park homeowners plus the 754 Deer Creek occupants will band together on the unpaved portion of the ramp and "bodily block any attempt to pour the final portion of concrete."

The signal, he said, would be the continuous blowing of a horn. Residents will then descend on the ramp and remain there in two-hour shifts. Children will not participate, he emphasized.

At one point, state traffic official Paul Riley was asked point-blank if he would issue orders to halt the construction until the problems could be aired.

Riley replied with a terse, "No!" Later, he acknowledged being "sympathetic with you" and said that the problems would be taken directly to deputy director of the highway department in Lansing on Tuesday.

Presenting the residents' case will be Cass Zajac, from Gov. Milliken's office, who was present at the meeting. Zajac said any decision to alter construction plans Continued on Page 3A

Bida, Muller, Moehle, Schmitz Top Candidates

Editorial

MOEHLE'S background in finance can be a real help to the city commission which is going to have some important fiscal-related decisions to make in the months ahead. As a former member of the municipal building authority, Moehle may be able to help the city put the Cultural Center on at least a break even basis.

SCHMITZ, a member of the city's planning commission, could offer the commission leadership in downtown development and city-wide capital improvement implementation.

Donald Watkins seems well versed on the issues but is untested. He could well make a good commissioner.

The other three candidates running, Norbert Battermann, John Charles Cummings and Mahlon Green, are less qualified to serve as city commissioners.

Battermann, the lone incumbent running in his first election bid (he was twice appointed to the commission), has served with far less distinction than any commissioner of recent history. He has often failed to grasp even the simplest issues before the commission.

His argument against permitting a home for retarded adults in the city was 17th century in nature and his stand against the recreation authority is isolationist at a time when the city must look towards community-wide efforts at problem solving.

The city needs commissioners who can understand the complex problems of municipal government and who can put forth a strong effort to solve them.

Cummings has not shown any qualifications for public office and Green, while perhaps to be commended for advancing new ideas no matter how unpopular, has no practical understanding of how government operates.

Certainly Bida, Muller, Moehle and Schmitz are the four best candidates most deserving of election to the city commission.

'Rousing' Start Given Indian Food Campaign

The annual drive to provide Michigan Indians with canned food and household items got off to a rousing start when Clarenceville music students put on a program that yielded 728 cans of food.

Carol Hornung's junior and senior high vocal students also heard coordinator Doug Pierson and president Charles Price of Indian Enterprises speak on the problems of Indians.

It was the first major contribution to the goal of 6,000 cans of food set by the Indian affairs committee of the Western Wayne County Conservation Assn. Committee chairman Hank Chrusciel, 19345 Brentwood, Livonia, is in charge of the collection.

Deadline is Dec. 8. Aided by apprentices from Ironworkers Local 25, the group will make pre-Christmas deliveries to Indians from the Sault area down to Detroit. A mission school and a Muskegon County settlement are generally among the chief recipients.

Indian children are treated to a banquet with a visit from Santa Claus. Besides the food, bedding is also given.

Observerland churches, clubs, scout groups, Y groups and individuals join the conservation group twice a year in the effort to help Michigan Indians in pockets of poverty and unemployment. Last year, said Chrusciel, more than 6,000 items were given.

Advertising Top Prize To Observer

The advertising department of Observer Newspapers Inc. received a first place award in the recent 32nd annual Michigan Press Association advertising managers workshop in Traverse City.

ONI Advertising Director, Keith Elisee was elected to the board of directors of the association.

The Observer was among several Michigan newspapers honored for outstanding advertising service during the workshop. First place was awarded to the Observer in the best special section division.

The award was made on the basis of makeup, promotion techniques, photography and imagination. Special sections submitted for the judging included the Plymouth Fall Festival, the Farmington Founders Festival, the Livonia Mall, Westland and Wonderland Shopping Centers tabloids.

Judging chairman for the competition was Jack Harris of the Greenville News.

Canton Pledges To Halt I-275 Ramp

would have to come from the Deputy Director, Jerry McCarty. He expected an answer for the residents "in two or three days."

In documenting their protest that street grade elevations coupled with the overpass elevation constitute a serious traffic hazard, homeowners called on Canton Fire Chief Mel Paulun for his opinion.

Paulun's comments included the thought "even a skier would have trouble" coming down the ramp, much less a fire engine. Later, Bob Wade, of Wade, Trim and Associates, township engineers and planners, said that safety engineers with his firm believed the steep elevation on the eastern side of the overpass "presented a hazard."

A dramatic point in the discussion came when a state traffic engineer conceded that bad road conditions could result in hazardous conditions.

"If you don't make the turn within 10 seconds, you could be in trouble," the engineer admitted.

His remarks were in reference to the chief concern of many of the homeowners over the grade variance of Holly Drive and Joy Road. The incline of more than a foot makes it impossible for drivers to successfully negotiate turns.

This is particularly true, residents claim, during wet, icy road conditions. Making left hand turns is now virtually impossible, they say, when the weather is bad.

Drivers who don't complete the turn within 10 seconds run the risk of being struck by east-bound drivers who will be coming down the ramp at approximately 45 miles per hour.

The same conditions will exist at the Deer Creek entrance when it is reopened. The close proximity of the two driveways poses an additional hazard, the residents say. Highway officials agreed with this also.

A particular worry to the parents involves the school buses that make at least 12 trips a day into the two developments, carrying students to the middle schools and the high school complex to the west.

Even when the overpass is opened, residents can envision no relief to the traffic congestion that is bottling up Holly daily. Right now, the situation is aggravated by the fact that Deer Creek residents are forced to use the Holly exit-entrance until their driveway is reopened.

However, some relief may come if the township can arrange for the opening of Hannan (Eckles) Road on the eastern edge of the subdivision. This would allow residents to enter and exit onto Bart Avenue, bypassing Holly.

But what that entrance means to some residents is that Bart will become a "drag strip" for impatient Deer Creek drivers. Thus, another dangerous condition will develop, some residents fear.

At one point in his defense of the overpass design, Riley said some problems stem from failure of the township and the county road commission to develop adequate side roads.

One chief criticism aired by the citizens' group was the state's failure to recognize and make adjustments for the vast growth in Canton in the past five years.

Commenting on this, James Clark, state highway project engineer, said, "Historically, highway development lags behind residential and commercial development."

"We're always behind the eight-ball," he said. "And that's the historic spot we're in right now."

CBD Plan Discussed

PLYMOUTH About 100 Plymouth merchants and residents attended a special meeting of the Plymouth Planning Commission to discuss plans for the central business district Monday night.

The meeting dealt with a report, released earlier this year, on the traffic loop and redevelopment potential of the CBD area.

Vilcan-Leman and Associates, the city's planning consultants, prepared the report, and Jay W. Eldridge and Charles DiMaggio of the firm presented a slide presentation based on the report Monday.

Eldridge stressed that "cooperation" from the CBD businesses would be essential to implementing a downtown revitalization.

OBSERVATION POINT

Nixon Has Lost Confidence Of The People

By Philip H. Power
Publisher

I heard three remarks last week that indicate just how much trouble our nation is in these days:

• "Trust what the President says? Haw, haw! That's a good one!" Source: A distinguished member of a local Rotary Club, with a group of his fellow Rotarians grumbling assent.

• "The government of the United States has suffered a nervous breakdown." Source: Max Frankel, about the most thoughtful and balanced member of the national staff of the New York Times, at a speech before a bunch of New York fat cats. Frankel got a hand.

• "It is a symptom of what is happening to our country that it could even be suggested the United States would alert its forces for domestic reasons." Source: Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, as he responded last week to suggestions that the President over-reacted for political reasons in calling a world wide U.S. forces alert over the mid-east situation.

What is troubling about these three quotes is they come from responsible people who up to now could be expected to defend President Nixon.

WHAT SEEMS to have been the straw that broke the camel's back was President Nixon's actions of 11 days ago, when he fired Special Prosecutor Archibald Cox. He thereby violated his own pledge that Cox would have a free hand in his investigations and raised to a sharp new pitch the suspicion that he was trying to cover up wrong doing by his administration and, perhaps, by himself.

The net effect was to give the public the impression the president's claims that he was just as interested as anyone else in rooting out fairly and thoroughly the Watergate horrors were nothing more than politically motivated lies.

What's dangerous about that is once people get the idea the President might be lying in this particular case, they then lose regarding other cases the fair-minded trust and respect for the office they ought to have.

Did the big grain sale to the Russians benefit a few insiders while raising the cost of bread and beef to the American housewife? The administration denied it.

Did the settlement of anti-trust charges against ITT result from a campaign contribution? The administration denied it.

Did the dairy industry get a big price increase in milk through another big campaign donation? The administration denied it.

Was the financing of the President's two houses entirely appropriate? The administration says so.

And so forth.

THE WHOLE POINT is that since Mr. Nixon fired Cox, the entire question of trust and confidence in the President has become the key issue in an unexpectedly direct way.

All of the public opinion polls now show that a majority of the American people no longer trust what President Nixon says. That isn't just polls; when the mid-east crisis erupted, most people thought the President was over-emphasizing the national security problem to cloak his own political difficulties.

That, I believe, will turn out to be an incorrect conclusion, when all the evidence is in.

BUT IT DOES go to show that when the people lose trust in a leader, he quite simply cannot govern.

It all goes back to that old proposition that a government, to survive and succeed, must have the confidence and trust of the governed that it is a government of decency and integrity.

I think the President has lost the confidence and trust of the people.

I think that, having lost it, he cannot get it back.

I think that, in the present situation, Mr. Nixon simply cannot govern effectively.

While I have the most serious reservations about whether impeachment proceedings against the President are appropriate or possible, I believe the President would do himself and his country the greatest possible service by resigning after a new vice president is confirmed.

And I believe that if the President does not resign, he should be impeached, because he has lost that without which no government can exist: The confidence of the people.

Tim Richard writes

Sample Was Excellent;
Seek More Bike Days

Two strong impressions emerge from the mail our Readers' Forum has been receiving on the subject of bike days on the Hines Parkway Drive:

• More bike days in '74 would help not only cyclists but also hikers and horse-back riders.

• Cyclists themselves have some excellent suggestions for making what was a successful day Oct. 21 even better next year.

The mail began to pour in when my esteemed mythical colleague, Lem Mesee, suggested in Friday's edition that persons who want more no-car days in the 20-mile county park write to the Readers' Forum and the Wayne County Road Commission.

A Franklin High School student wrote that "horse-back riders also enjoyed the opportunity" to enjoy the park without danger, adding:

"I think we should plan a bike trail through Hines Drive...A large number of accidents between cars and bikes occur each year. Chances are these occurrences will be less in number."

"Livonia, along with many other cities, is in need of some means of bike transportation trails. This would be an ideal place."

Jane Kubarth, of Livonia, wrote to the Road Commission and called bike day "the best thing that's ever happened in the suburbs. Why should all of us have to drive all the way to Mackinac Island for some good, safe bike riding?"

Mrs. Kubarth makes a convincing case for more than one bike day in '74: "If there were 10,000 people this year, there will be 25,000 next year...I personally felt the drive was just about filled to capacity. If there are four days set aside next year, the parkway should not become overcrowded as all people will probably not go every time."

But the lady doesn't stop there:

"If it were open more often, no one would have to rely so heavily on the weather. As it was this year, the weather was perfect. But what if it had rained?..."

"I would like to see one safety rule pointed out: 'No stopping on the pavement.' On my 18-mile ride, I found this happening only a few times, but it did block traffic and it did cause a problem."

There's support for opening the parkway all the way to Northville. "The prettiest part of the park begins at Ann Arbor Trail and leads out to Northville," said one rider.

The idea is good, but there may be a problem because of M-275 freeway construction in the Haggerty Road corridor. Nevertheless, it never hurts to keep prodding the Road Commission.

Mrs. Vera Selke of Westland appreciated the day and added: "I love to ride my bike and I ride nearly every day through the subs, but what a headache having to dodge all the cars."

Mike Saum of Garden City says of the suggestion for four bike days: "Why settle for four? Let's have more, more, more."

We agree with him and State Rep. John Markes, who made the proposal, that one bike day a month would be even more desirable. But bike days cost money and upset parks department and police routines, so it's wise to ask for four for '74. Maybe in '75 there could be more.

A no-cars day every Sunday? That may be asking too much. Many family reunions and company picnics are scheduled on Sundays, and those folks need cars.

The letters you send to Observer Newspapers will be forwarded to the Wayne County Road Commission.

Rep. Markes will personally make the request for four bike days in '74, but his job will be a lot easier if you cyclists, hikers and horse-back riders write letters. The pen is mightier than the jaw-bone.

Campaign Finance Bill
Has Many Good Points

Gov. William Milliken's proposed finance reform program is a welcome relief in the post-Watergate atmosphere in which all, or most, elected officials are suspected of skullduggery unless proven otherwise.

With the almost daily exposure of illegal campaign donations and spending, the public is ready to push for a real limit on how campaigns are financed and candidates elected.

If Milliken's program is adopted, which we doubt, it would bring a substantial improvement to the method of financing local elections.

The Legislature will have to approve any proposals and incumbents are traditionally reluctant to give up any advantages they have to potential challengers in future elections.

But the governor has several sound ideas that deserve public support.

Some important points that stand out for sheer logic are the listing of donations and the donors BEFORE the elections.

At present, only a post-election report is required by candidates and the voters are deprived of important information before they make decisions at the ballot box.

Finding out about campaign donations after the election is obviously too late to do any good.

When the candidate, who has had the benefit of financial help from real estate and development people who have proposals before the city council or township board, comes up for re-election in two or four years, the previous campaign expense report is usually long forgotten.

Milliken's proposal to have buyers of tickets at candidates' fund-raising parties is a good idea in a time when only the parties' total income is legally required.

Realtors and developers usually buy a pocketful of tickets to their favorite candidates' fund-raiser, knowing their names won't appear on any legally required campaign expense report.

There are other practical suggestions Milliken has proposed to open up campaign funding disclosures and close the loopholes which are now large enough to dump a number of political futures.

Candidates shouldn't cry about potential sources of campaign funds drying up.

Candidates will be forced to get their money from a lot of little people instead of the past practice of getting a lot from a few large people.

This doesn't mean political candidates will have to be a combination Eagle Scout-Mr. Clean-and-the-neighborhood pastor.

It will mean the community will have more honest elections and probably elected officials who will have no financial ties to persons doing business with the municipal government.

Hockey Crowd Gets Bum Deal At Arena

EDITOR:

As an interested spectator in hockey, I am appalled at the manner in which the Plymouth arena is run, particularly on Junior B hockey nights when an admission is charged.

The past two Saturday nights the concessions closed well before the end of the game. On Oct. 13, Plymouth played Fraser, easily an hour's drive for the fans who attended. I find it unreasonable that the concessions would close at 9:45, making it impossible for the paying spectators as well as the boys coming off the ice at 10:30 or later to buy food or drink.

The only way they could purchase anything would be to take their chance on the machines that sometimes work and sometimes don't. They are certainly cutting out a fair amount of revenue by closing up the snack bar, turning off lights, and cleaning even before the games end.

The above was irritating to many of us, but the fact that the doors to the lobby were bolted, thereby cutting off the restroom facilities to the public, I find almost unbelievable.

Apparently no one at the rink had the authority to open the doors and allow the Fraser fans to use the restrooms before their long trip home.

Junior B night is a fairly inexpensive evening's entertainment, but instead of promoting it with the lovely arena and all of its facilities, management is treating fans as unwanted guests who have stayed too long.

EDITOR:

To the residents of South Redford:

In a special millage election held on Sept. 8, the citizens of South Redford approved a three mill increase for school operating expenses. Had the voters not turned out in record numbers to approve this increase, the school district would have experienced major cutbacks in its overall educational program.

Over 300 Redford residents, including parents, students, senior citizens, business men, and members of the clergy, worked actively to make the needs of the schools known to the public in order to secure passage of the millage proposition.

This group of your fellow citizens, which comprised the millage campaign committee identified as Citizens for Students and Schools, extends its thanks to all who gave their support at the polls.

The 4,094 citizens who recognized that a tax increase was necessary in order to maintain the quality of our schools merit the gratitude of

Class Saving

EDITOR:

My school is collecting Campbell's soup labels and we need your help. We are saving them for a Kodak slide projector and a large screen filmstrip viewer. We need 10,750 labels and we need them by Dec. 8. We only have about 500 children so you can see our problem.

Please save your labels and send them to Gallimore School, 8375 Sheldon Road, Plymouth 48170. Thank you for your help.

Disregarded?

EDITOR:

An open letter to Mr. Ray Hoedel, assistant superintendent of business for Plymouth Community Schools:

Although some school bus drivers have jokingly said they can drive their routes blindfolded, I, for one, would like to know why we are asked to do so.

There is no clause in our contract that states we must risk our lives and the lives of our student passengers.

As we drove to work Tuesday, Oct. 9, we were all hoping for at least a delay until the fog lifted, only to be asked to drive. Our supervisor of transportation, Mr. Robert Houghton, requested a delay which was denied. Where were you, Mr. Hoedel, when you asked us to drive? I suggest that the next time visibility is near zero you get up out of bed and come along for the ride.

Gravel trucks and semis are equipped with fog lights. Is their cargo more precious than ours? If we must drive in fog, we should have fog lights, too.

EDITOR:

I am very concerned about the advertising in our school. We recently had a survey in school about whether you participated in any school activities. Some mentioned were swimming, tennis and several youth clubs.

I knew about the swimming because I've taken it many times before. As for the tennis, etc., I didn't even know about them.

The courses are pretty much over now, but I feel a lot more people would have been interested had they known about them, including me. I feel I probably missed a lot of good stuff.

Serving the communities of:

Livonia, Plymouth, Plymouth Township, Canton Township, Farmington, Farmington Hills, Redford Township, Garden City, Westland, Southfield, Lathrup Village, Bingham Farms

There are some questions about names of churches and their addresses which may never be answered.

For example, the Westland Baptist Church is in Livonia.

The Newburg United Methodist Church is on Ann Arbor Trail.

Newburg Baptist Church is on Joy Rd.

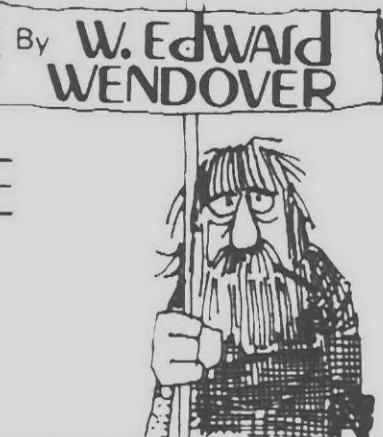

In addition, the Westland Security Company on Ford Rd. is in Garden City and carries a unique spelling of the neighboring community.

Granting a dance permit to a new hotel, the Farmington Hills city council covered one of its concerns by adding "no topless dancing" to the permit.

"I think this only solves half the problem," Councilman Earl Oppert hauser said.

The council agreed and added a second line prohibiting bottomless dancing too.

WITH ALICE TOWARD NONE

Blah?
Well it really wasn't THAT bad. In fact, it tasted like most cafeteria food.
I'm talking about the lunch I had recently at Plymouth's Central Middle School.
It's not that one usually goes out of the way to eat in school cafeterias; it was just that my friend Tracey, a seventh-grader at Central, called to say the food at school was terrible.

She said the warm food was cold, the milk was warm, the portions were small, and they didn't always get everything promised on the menu.
So I asked Asst. Supt. Earl Hogan to lunch with me but when I told him we were going to Central, his noon-time calendar seemed to be permanently full.
Supt. Mike Hoben suggested I take Asst. Supt. for Business Ray Hoedel along.

Ray, being the newest member of the schools' central administration staff (and thereby low on the totem pole), couldn't refuse.
After a small dither arose when we arrived for lunch unannounced, we got in line behind a young fellow who volunteered that the lunches at Central were good.
We got what is known as a teacher's lunch - which is the same food except there's more of it and it costs 20 cents more.

Besides macaroni and cheese, we got "battered" green beans, corn bread, milk and applesauce. (Why do the schools only serve "BUTTERED" corn, "BUTTERED" green beans, "BUTTERED" this and "BUTTERED" that?)
Not being one who enjoys eating with 200 screaming kids, I suggested we retire to the teachers' lounge to test the food.

Ray cleaned his plate as though he were trying to show how good the food was. I left some green beans - too much "BUTTER!"

Certainly the meal was nothing to crow about - but on the other hand, it was warm, it was filling, it was slightly tasty and it was only 70 cents. (Students pay 50 cents.)

To get the complete picture of the lunch situation at Central, we then talked to the chief cook and bottle washer, a delightful gal named - of all things - Mrs. Ruth Krump.

She was counting the day's nickels and dimes when we bothered her.

"How was lunch?" she asked.
"Good," we said - after all, it didn't seem as bad as I'd expected it would be.

We told Mrs. Krump about the complaint and asked her what she had to say for her lunches.

"Like everyone else, she explained, they are hit by rising food costs and shortages. The problem at Central was compounded, she said, by the fact that since the school had just only reopened, there was no inventory to fall back on."

Mrs. Krump admitted that sometimes they run out of food and attributed that to the kids' change of heart between when the lunch count is taken in morning home room and when the kids actually go to lunch.

"What about the food?" we asked.

"Some things go great, Mrs. Krump smiled.

"I'd just as soon give them what they'll really like everyday, but we're trying to teach kids to eat different things - not just what they like."

"You could give them BUTTERED corn every day of the year, and they'd never complain," she said. (She actually said "battered.")

Pizza, hamburgers and hot dogs are real favorites at Central.

The problem is, as the cook explained, pizza requires much time and labor to make and hamburger is expensive.

To meet federal government standards for Type A lunch subsidy (eight cents a lunch), the menu must contain certain things from different food groups - a requirement which also limits what Mrs. Krump can whip up for lunch.

"Is the Central lunch program making money?" we asked.

Mrs. Krump finished stuffing a stack of nickels into a roll, smiled and said, "I'd venture to say it'd be a miracle if we end up in the black by June."

She is starting a new program at Central - breakfast.
Every morning she opens the cafeteria a little early and sells juice, milk and maybe sweet rolls or toast. It just about pays for itself.

So for a cafeteria that's under pressure from the budget standpoint, government requirements and kids' fickle appetites, the Central food program seems no worse than any other school cafeteria's.

Schools Start Updating Study Of Population

PLYMOUTH A new population study of the Plymouth School District, approved by the board during a recent meeting, is expected to be completed by Feb. 1, 1974.

The study will project population, building and student growth, the state equalized valuation for the district over five years, and it will update charts and graphs compiled in the Judd Report, a citizens study completed in October 1972.

Wade Trim Assoc. and Mike Manore, planner for Canton Township, will conduct the study of the city of Plymouth and the townships of Canton, Plymouth, Northville, Superior and Salem.

Cost of the study is $1,500 for a single, complete report. Printing costs of additional reports will be left to the district.

PLYMOUTH COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICT PLYMOUTH, MICHIGAN

ANNUAL REPORT

JULY 1, 1972 - JUNE 30, 1973

To the Citizens of the Plymouth Community School District:

The statistical report concerning the financial condition of the Plymouth Community School District is submitted in accordance with Section 216, Act 269, Public Acts 1965, as amended and is compiled from the data submitted to the Michigan Department of Education and from the annual audit conducted by the firm of Sutherland and Yoe, Certified Public Accountants.

The report substantiates that the Plymouth Community School District is continuing to operate on a sound, financial basis.

In an inflationary economy we were able to work within a balanced budget. This was accomplished through cutbacks in administrative personnel and curtailing operational cost, delayed maintenance, capital outlay and building use. In addition, we were able to accomplish contract settlements within accepted standards with five of our six bargaining units.

The immediate future reflects a growth spiral which should produce an additional 1000 students in 1974-75. This added to our present increase of 815 students in the school year 1973-74 will exceed the functional capacities of our buildings. These factors compound the need for additional elementary schools and high school facilities and, due to the time log for building, point up the need for alternative plans for housing the school population over the years of 1974-75 and 1975-76.

It is our desire to continue to bring the youth of the Plymouth Community the finest education possible within the framework of existing revenues.

The Plymouth Board of Education meetings are on the second Monday and the fourth Tuesday of every month. Your participation and presence are most welcome.

Schoolcraft Sets Winter Registration

Advance registration for the winter semester at Schoolcraft College will be held at various times beginning Nov. 19.

According to Registrar Russell S. Bogarin, registration will be held Nov. 19-21 and 26-30 on campus, and at the instructional center in Garden City on Dec. 6.

On campus registration is for students taking day or a combination of day and evening classes. Morning and afternoon hours are available by appointment which is arranged through a counselor, who will also assist students in the completion of their course enrollment form.

Students taking evening classes only may register by mail until Dec. 14. They may obtain the necessary materials from a counselor.

No appointment will be necessary for registering at Garden City which will be held from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m. Dec. 6.

Regardless of the date and place students choose for advance registration, all must first consult a counselor. They are available from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and until 4:30 Friday afternoons. Counselors are also available on Tuesday evenings until 8 and on Wednesday mornings at the instructional center.

Students planning to enroll at Schoolcraft for the first time should complete an admissions application available from the admissions office on campus and also from the instructional center. Former students returning for the winter semester should consult a counselor.

We've just told this man about our beautiful facilities, big cars, and low prices.

If he doesn't seem too excited, it's because he isn't. He's tired of seeing and hearing so many boasts by so many firms — and who can blame him? We think we'll be forgiven, therefore, if we break custom and state one simple fact:

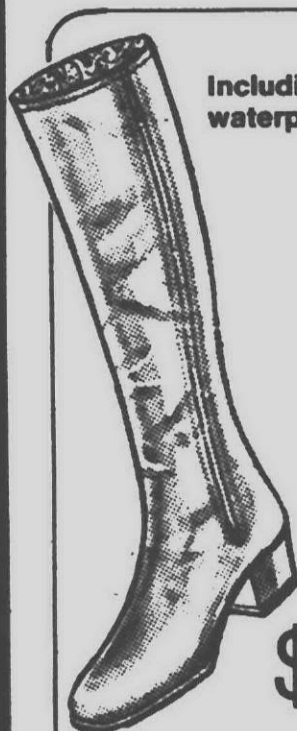

We sincerely try to help you because we sincerely care about you.

Oil Crisis--Fact Or Hoax?

By LORRAINE McCLISH

Michigan Attorney General Frank Kelley led off a panel discussion on "The Oil Crisis" with a condemnation of the world's 22 major oil companies.

He was countered by Fred Lichtman, who came to the defense of both the large companies and the independent dealers in the face of spiraling prices and threatened shortages. He is the president of Tulsa Oil Corp. and president of the Society of Independent Gasoline Marketeers of America, a Farmington Hills councilman and a member of Congregation Shaarey Zedek.

Raymond Tanter, a professor of political science at the University of Michigan, came armed with figures and statistics for his initial talk and was used as resource man.

The three-man panel was moderated by Dennis Wholey of WXYZ-TV and sponsored by the League of Jewish Women in Temple Israel.

Kelley quoted oil companies increased profits that ran from 70 to 80 per cent in the year's first quarter. He wanted to know why they hadn't started building their own refineries here 10 years ago.

He said they all had a "peculiar limitation" to facts when asked for any definite dimensions as to the crisis. He called them all "spoiled babies" who are believed in some quarters to "actually own Congress." And several times he called them "the most powerful lobby in the world."

"They beat their breasts (in Congress) telling how bad off they are and tell us to be good citizens and turn off our lights."

"Instead of building more refineries, they'd rather pay Johnny Cash to tell us to slow down," he said.

Kelley is not convinced there is an oil shortage at all, "but I am sure there is no shortage of profit," he said.

As for Arabia's oil supply to the U.S. and the threatened cut-off, he said they simply do not need the money. "How many billion dollars do you need in a Swiss bank account to keep eight million people in Saudi? Or two million in Libya? Their oil is worth more to them in the ground than it is in the barrel. Besides, we don't use that much from them."

(Tanter's figures: Ten per cent of the oil consumed in America derives from Arab sources, six per cent directly and four per cent via European refineries. Arab countries export about one million crude oil barrels per day directly to American refineries and some 500,000 barrels to Europe. But since the U.S. consumes 18 million barrels per day, the Arab oil constitutes only between 8-10 per cent of total American consumption. So the five per cent cutback amounts to only about 50,000 barrels per day.)

Lichtman agreed with Kelley on but one count - the silence coming from the major oil companies "on just about any question you ask them. They don't know the answer to anything, even though they all have computer rooms the size of Temple Israel."

In his defense, Lichtman said he is sure "there have been no less than 12 refineries planned in the last 10 years, but environmental protection groups stopped them. Besides, no one wants them in their back yards."

(On the other side of the coin, Kelley claims he has sued more people on ecology counts than any other state attorney general in the U.S.)

Lichtman claims it would be to the major oil companies' advantage to build

'Fat Bob' To Guest Town Hall

Bob Taylor, known as "Fat Bob, the Singing Plumber," will be guest for the second Northville Town Hall Thursday, Nov. 8.

His appearance will be at 11 a.m. in the Essex room of the Thunderbird Hilton, Northville Road near Five Mile, Plymouth.

A celebrity luncheon, also at the Thunderbird Hilton, will follow.

Some luncheon tickets still are available at $4 for the Nov. 8 luncheon or $12 for the remainder of the luncheon series, including J.A. Browne March 14 and Norman Brooks April 25.

Make luncheon reservations by Nov. 2 by sending checks to the Northville Town Hall, Box 93, Northville.

'1776' Continental Breakfast Comes To Plymouth

The Woman's Club of Plymouth will present the film musical "1776" in a first-run-in-Plymouth performance for its fourth annual theater party and continental breakfast Friday, Nov. 9.

The event, a benefit for several charitable enterprises put on each year by the club, will include breakfast served from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. in the Plymouth Masonic Temple and the film at 10 a.m. in the Penn Theater.

Tickets for $2.50 will include eligibility for prizes as well as the breakfast and film. They may be purchased by calling Mrs. Arthur Giebel, general chairman, 9345 Ivanhoe, or Mrs. Conrad Krankel, ticket chairman, 499 Leicester.

Other Woman's Club members serving as committee chairmen for the event are Mrs. Fred Sigmon, prizes; Mrs. A.G. RinderKnecht, decorations; Mrs. Bernard Curtis and Mrs. George Griggs, breakfast; and Mrs. Bruce Richard, publicity and posters.

Ticket committee members are Mrs. Clayton Koch,

Mrs. Jerry Williams and Mrs. John Barns. Mrs. James Kleiber, Mrs. Charles Newland and Mrs. Robert Willerte are working on prizes.

Mrs. Marshall North, Mrs. John Young and Mrs. Joseph Witwer are helping with decorations, and the breakfast workers are Mrs. Russell Ash, Mrs. John Lange, Mrs. Henry Holmes, Mrs. Edward Miller, Mrs. John Heath, Mrs. Ronald Mack and Mrs. David Davies.

Mrs. Robert Kenyon and Mrs. Joseph Washburn are working on the publicity and poster committee.

m. m. memos

A funny thing happened to our family on the way through the current school year.

Suddenly, in one way or another, we find we're all involved in an assortment of newspapers.

It's all a bit amazing to me and to the man of our house, who helps put out a Detroit daily paper.

Of course, the girls have for years been involved in spending the proceeds of newspaper work. But in the current term:

- Our oldest, who started her university career studying music, has told us she's finding journalism one of her most interesting classes and she's more and more considering continuing in that vein.

- Our second, who headed for a technical institute to study mathematics, has found the school newspaper a fasci-inating extra-curricular activity. (I could have told her that, because the newspaper office of the city university I attended was easily my favorite spot there. But how can I warn her about the consequences?)

- Our third daughter is the only editor-in-chief in the family, and she finds that her junior high paper keeps her busy.

- And even our youngest is getting into the act, as seventh grade reporter and gossip columnist for the publication her big sister edits.

So as parents at this juncture we can only wonder "Where did we go wrong?"

Wed 60 Busy Years

MR. AND MRS. ALBERT BORDEN posed for Observer photographer Bob Woodring for a 60th wedding anniversary portrait.

By MARGARET MILLER

Ask Mr. and Mrs. Albert Borden of Westland the secret of a long life and happy marriage and they have ready answers.

"Mental stimulation," says Lenna Borden.

"Keeping active," adds her husband.

They qualify as experts on the subject. Both turn 60 next year, and on Sunday, Oct. 28, they celebrated 60 years of married life.

For Mr. Borden, keeping active has meant a number of part-time, seasonal jobs since he retired 15 years ago from Ford Motor Co. sales and service in Detroit.

Notable among these has been being Santa Claus at the Wonderland and Westland shopping centers.

"I've played Santa for the last 10 years and I plan to be doing it again this year," he said. "Keeps you out of the rocking chair."

For Mrs. Borden, a lot of reading and gardening in the yard of the couple's retirement home has kept life interesting.

And both have been active most of their lives in church work - at Trinity Church of the Brethren in Redford Township since they moved to this area in 1908 and earlier in churches of the same denomination in Detroit and Woodstock, Va.

"I've been ushering in church for more than 50 years," Mr. Borden said. His wife added, "I guess we were deacons in the church back when we weren't much more than kids."

The Borden met on a blind date in the Shenandoah Valley community of Woodstock where both grew up.

They were married Oct. 28, 1913, in the parsonage of the Rev. A.K. Skyllies.

"He was an elderly minister and he did a good job," Mr. Borden chuckled.

The couple moved to Detroit 10 years after marrying and to Westland after retiring.

They have three children, Garland B. Borden, principal of Cleveland School in Livonia; Mrs. Suzanne Larson of St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Jane DeVries, who lived in Livonia until her death.

There are 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

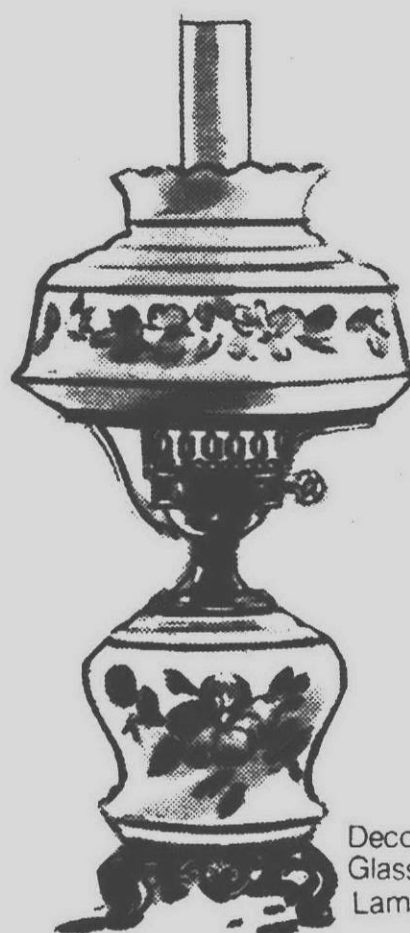

The Borden celebrated with a family dinner at Joe Muer's restaurant a month early when Mrs. Larson visited. Last week they received a congratulatory card from President and Mrs. Richard Nixon.

GOP Women Auction Art

The Oakland County council of Republican Women's Clubs will hold an art auction Friday, Nov. 2, in Park West Galleries on Telegraph Road in Southfield.

There will be a donation at the door.

The evening will begin with an hour for champagne and hors d'oeuvres at 7:30 p.m.

Auctioning of oil paintings, lithographs, water colors, etchings and serigraphs by Albers, Braque, Calder, Chagall, Dali, Lautrec, Matisse, Picasso, Renoir and Vasarely will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Barry M. Grant of Southfield is general chairman. Her committee includes Mrs. Max Jurosek and Mrs. Richard Scott of Farmington and Mrs. Zar Reader, council president and a resident of Farmington Hills.

The council meets monthly to coordinate activities of the eight local member clubs in Oakland County. It is an informative body disseminating information on party activities and an educational group, recommending current issues to be studied.

The council also serves as an arm of the county Republican Committee and is affiliated with state and national Federations of Republican Women.

It raises funds for campaign purposes, gives teas, luncheons, receptions, rallies and workshops for political education to introduce candidates to the public, and to explain issues and programs that confront various units of government.

The council lists about 600 active members who raised more than $6,000 to help county Republican candidates in the 1972 election.

A specific objective for 1973 is to encourage qualified Republican women to seek public office. Three women, who were aided by council campaigns last fall, were elected to the Oakland County Board of Commissioners in November.

MR. AND MRS. HAROLD F. SMITH

Smiths Of Redford Mark 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Smith, Redford Township residents for 10 years, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house Sunday, Oct. 28.

The party will be held in the home of their son, Donald G. Smith, of Farmington Hills.

Harold and Beatrice Smith both were born and reared in Detroit and lived there until moving to Redford. Their wedding date was Oct. 24, 1923.

Mr. Smith worked for the mortgage department of the Detroit Bank and Trust Co. until retiring in 1966.

The Smiths, members of Memorial Church of Christ in Livonia, have four grandchildren.

Art For Vatican Is Topic For Program

A Jewish art collector will be speaker in a synagogue-hosted gathering of art lovers of all faiths Saturday, Nov. 3. The theme of the program is American art for the Vatican collection.

Lawrence A. Fleischman, former Detroit, founder of the Archives of American Art, owner of the Kennedy Galleries in New York and U.S. representative for the selection of American Art for the Vatican, will speak in the 8 p.m. meeting.

It will be held in Congregation Shaarey Zedek of Southfield. Fleischman is a former member of the congregation. The synagogue has invited a host of friends Protestant, Catholic and Jewish, plus the general public to share in the evening which will include Fleischman's talk, plus slides of his selections.

In his role as Vatican representative, Fleischman's responsibility is to bring contemporary American art to Rome for approval by Pope Paul VI. When the American art is accumulated, the total worth will be about $1 million.

The Vatican has come to depend upon Fleischman to build-with Vatican and private funds-a collection which already contains some 20 works including Shahn, Sloan, Levine, Baskin and Evergood and will soon include Lipschitz and some of the abstract expressionists.

Fleischman first was approached by Vatican representatives when they discovered that he represented the estate of Ben Shahn, whose work is most admired by the Pope.

It was in June of this year that Pope Paul officially opened the 65 galleries of contemporary art adjoining the Sistine Chapel. Eventually about 12 of these will house the American collection which Fleischman is in the process of collecting.

There are no more religious boundaries in the art selection than there is in the appreciation of art in general.

While living in Detroit, Fleischman and then director of the Detroit Institute of Art, founded the Archives of American Art. They developed it to the stage that it was eventually taken over by the Smithsonian Institution. The Archives has offices in Detroit, New York, Boston and Washington. The purpose is to provide source material for writers and historians of American Art.

Fleischman was president of the Archives for 14 years. He was also president of the Detroit Arts Commission and treasurer of the Art School Society of Arts and Crafts.

A longtime collector of American art, he sold his collection before joining the Kennedy Galleries as a partner believing that a dealer should not compete with his customers.

The program, "The Vatican and American Art," begins at 8 p.m. There is no admission charge. A reception will follow the lecture.

The event is sponsored by the Fine Arts Division of the synagogue's Cultural Commission.

Christmas Workshops Scheduled

A series of Christmas workshops is scheduled at the Northwest branch YWCA, 25940 Grand River, Redford Township.

Mrs. Jean Goldner, designer and originator of American Beaded Heirloom ornaments, will teach the craft Thursday, Nov. 1, from 12:30 to 3 p.m.

Registration for the session is $1.50, and a supply kit will be available for $2.

A four-session class on new ways to make candles will be offered Mondays from 1 to 3 p.m. beginning Nov. 5. The teacher will be Mrs. Catherine Lemon. The class fee is $6 and supplies will be about $3.

Another one-session workshop, this one on Swiss and German ornaments, will be offered Monday, Nov. 12, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Mrs. Marilies Sonquist, instructor, said supplies for the workshop will be flown directly from Switzerland. Registration is $1.50.

Gift-wrapping and Christmas greens will be the subject of a December workshop. Dates will be announced later. All workshops require YWCA membership and advance registration.

Hadassah Plans Day At Book Fair

Tuesday, Nov. 13, is "Hadassah Day" at the Jewish Community Center's 22nd annual Book Fair when the theme will be "Challenge to Freedom."

Beginning at 10 a.m. in the Aaron DeRoy Theatre, Robert Kimmel Smith leads off the day's activities with a discussion of his new book, "Sadie Shapiro's Knitting Book."

At 1 p.m., Ken Hurwitz will comment on his current novel, "The Line of David," which describes a love affair that begins in America and ends in Israel.

Lunch will be served at noon, and reservations, at $3.50 per person, must be made before Friday, Nov. 9, through Hadassah House, 16240 W. Seven Mile, Detroit.

Mrs. Ben Etkin, of Southfield, is vice president of education, and has arranged the day's program. Mrs. Isadore Silverman and Mrs. Charles Lampert, both of Southfield, are co-chairmen for the day. Social chairmen are Mrs. Henry Schleider and Mrs. Franklin Gettleman, both of Southfield.

The book fair runs from Nov. 10 - 18.

MR. AND MRS. GREGORY WAYNE HASS
(Kathleen Sue Ransom)

Bad Axe Farm Couple's Home

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Wayne Hass have a farm home near Bad Axe, Mich., following their recent marriage in Our Savior Lutheran Church of Bad Axe.

Mrs. Hass is the former Kathleen Sue Ransom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Ransom of Loveland Avenue, Livonia. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hass of Bad Axe are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. Dennis E. Glander officiated, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

Polyester organza and alencon lace fashioned the bridal gown. The bride's veil was chapel-length nylon illusion and her flowers were yellow sweetheart roses and white mums and carnations.

Marilyn Charles of Wayne was honor attendant and the bridesmaids were Helen Ransom, the bride's sister, and Carolyn Weller of South Bend, her cousin.

They wore white dresses and pink picture hats and carried baskets of multi-colored flowers.

Brian Hass, the bridegroom's brother, was best man and guests were seated by Albert and Karl Hass, his cousins, all from Bad Axe.

The couple greeted 230 guests at a reception in the First United Methodist Church of Bad Axe before leaving for a Mackinac Island honeymoon.

The new Mrs. Hass graduated from Franklin High School in 1968 and Michigan State University in 1972 and teaches vocal music in the Uby community school district. Her husband graduated from Bad Axe High School and is self-employed.

Pair Wed In Holy Trinity

In a late afternoon ceremony in Holy Trinity Lutheran Church of Livonia, Michelle Ann Moellering and Eugene Harold Walker were united in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Moellering of Milford. Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Moellering of Milford. Mr. and Mrs. James T. Waler of Somerset Avenue, Westland, are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. Fred Balke heard the couple's vows, and the bride's father escorted her to the altar.

She wore an empire gown of delustered satin with pearls and re-embroidered alencon lace on the bodice. A pearl-trimmed lace crown held her shoulder-length veil, and she carried a French bouquet of white sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

Honor attendants were Mrs. Dianne Moellering, the bride's sister-in-law, and Pam Walker, sister of the bridegroom. They wore light blue dresses.

Royal blue dresses were worn by the bridesmaids, Mrs. Julie Getz of Fort Wayne, Ind., the bride's cousin, Mrs. Jeanne Fryer of Plymouth, Diane Bowie of Livonia and Karen Schulz of Northville.

All carried blue carnations and starflowers tied with ribbons in the two shades of blue.

Oil Crisis

more refineries, and Kelley said they aren't doing it because it will cost them money.

Lichtman also defended the major oil companies and their ways by saying: "They are the recipients of a lot of advantages, and anybody who didn't take advantage of that would be out of their mind."

He was the first panel member to mention "inept, old, out-of-date laws that brought them to this point, and the only way we're going to change that is to get to the (U.S. House) Ways and Means Committee who write the tax law."

On the gasoline that is sold on the market today, Lichtman said, "We all line up at the same place; we all get the same product; it all comes from the same cow."

"But the product all comes from the major oil companies, and when things get tight, we (the independent branders) are the first ones to get cut off."

And he told his audience, "Don't blame the guy at the pump when the prices go up. He isn't gouging you. Thirty-five per cent of all the dealers that get started go broke, and he's paying 15.5 cents now (per gallon) in tax."

All three were convinced that prices would continue to go up, and the situation would become compounded with the projected fact that the U.S. will be demanding something like 25 million barrels of oil per day by 1980.

Tanter believes that the Arab oil strategy "seems to be to squeeze the West in general, so that the Europeans and Japanese will pressure America for a change in its policy toward Israel."

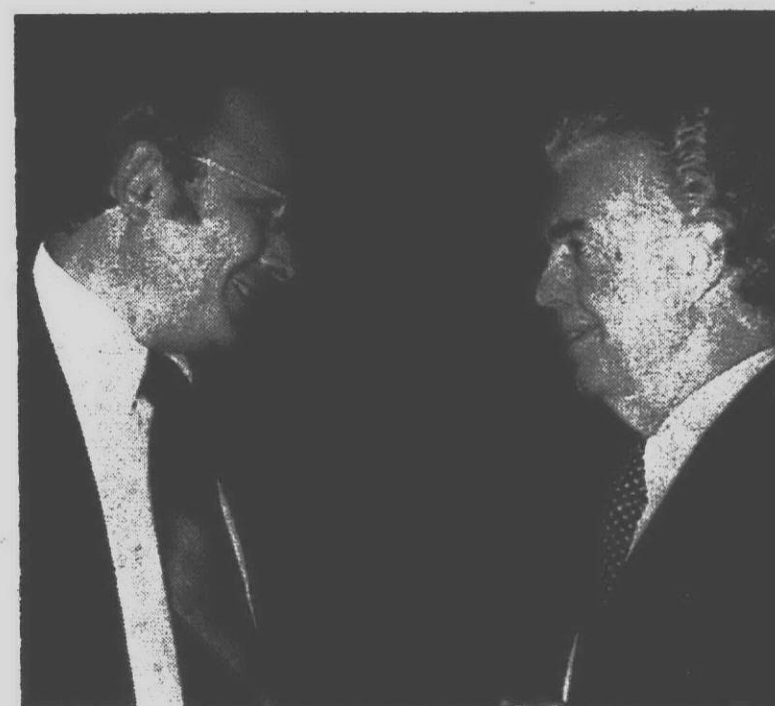

Western Europe obtains 30 per cent of its oil from the Middle East and North Africa, and Japan depends on the Middle East for 90 per cent of its oil needs.

"The Arabs simply want America to pressure Israel to withdraw from the occupied territories to its pre-1967 borders," he said.

He believes, however that "the leverage America has on its allies is very small. The lack of leverage is true especially when that ally is on the front line of battle."

Dinner Dance Aids Birthright

Birthright of Western Wayne County will raise funds for its counseling for problem pregnancies with a dinner dance Saturday, Nov. 10, in the Mayflower Meeting House in Plymouth.

The dance will begin at 8 p.m. and tickets are $20 a couple. They may be ordered by calling the local Birthright office, 2240 Middle Belt, Garden City.

Florence McDermott of Northville and Maureen McClorey of Livonia are co-chairmen for the dance. Working with them are Catherine Towler of Romulus and Judy Bloomquist of Northville.

Birthright of Western Wayne County is a non-profit organization that serves residents of nine communities, including Plymouth, Livonia, Garden City, Westland and Redford Township.

Opened early last summer, it is staffed by volunteers and offers help to women who want to know alternatives available to a client with a problem pregnancy.

Besides counseling, the volunteers help out with maternity and baby clothing and equipment when needed.

Its funds come from voluntary contributions from individuals and organizations and projects such as the upcoming dinner dance.

Disabilities Panel Set

Livonia-Redford Chapter of the Michigan Association for Children with Learning Disabilities will hold a panel discussion of family services relating to the educationally handicapped child.

The discussion is set for Wednesday, Nov. 7, at 7:30 p.m. in Franklin High School, Joy Road, Livonia.

Charles Landrum, revenue agent from IRS; a representative from the Metropolitan Health Plan of Blue Cross; Mrs. Velma Glass, RN; Charles Zech from Michigan Blue Cross; and a representative from Michigan Blue Shield will be on the panel.

The group will inform parents on specific problems of children with educational handicaps.

Officers are Mrs. Stanley Strzalka of Redford Township, president; Mrs. Gordon Owens of Livonia, membership chairman and Mrs. Gerald Trimark of Redford Township, program chairman.

OU Schedules New Workshop

A personal development workshop for women in business will be held at Oakland University, Rochester, on Saturday, Nov. 3.

Joseph Lugherno, director of the National Alliance of Businessmen, Detroit, will conduct a two-hour session on psychological communication. It is designed for those interested in practicing effective methods of human interaction as applied to a work setting.

Dr. David G. Smith, Oakland University, will conduct a session of coping behaviors dealing with stress reduction, alternative actions in seemingly unchangeable situations and how-to of coping.

Sister Jacqueline Cullen, archdiocese of Detroit, will present an analysis of leadership components for personal development and for managerial ambitions.

Women To Hear Of Girlstown

Mary McGregor, director of Girlstown in Belleville, will be speaker for the Women's Club of Plymouth Friday, Nov. 2, at 12:30 p.m. in St. John Episcopal Church, 574 S. Sheldon, Plymouth.

She will talk about the future of homes such as Girlstown. Members are invited to bring guests.

Mrs. William Baumgartner is chairman for the day and Mrs. Jerry Williams is tea chairman. The tea committee includes Mrs. Frank Allison, Mrs. William Bake, Mrs. Ray Covell, Mrs. Richard Fritz, Mrs. Gerald Hon-dorp, Mrs. Roland Kenny, Mrs. William Loesch, Mrs. Wendell Miller and Mrs. Robert Stewart.

Industrial RNs Set Cancer Conference

A cured cancer patient who was diagnosed as having brain cancer 22 years ago will be featured speaker at the industrial nurses conference on cancer.

The conference will be held at the Mercy College Conference Center, 8200 W. Outer Drive at the Southfield Expressway on Saturday, Nov. 3 from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Reservations are being accepted by the American Cancer Society, 15251 W. McNichols, Detroit.

Area Nursery Plans Auction

The Plymouth Children's Nursery will hold its second annual masterpiece auction Monday, Nov. 5, at 7 p.m. in East Middle School, 1042 S. Mill Street.

Bids will be taken on handicrafts and items made by the nursery members.

Soroptimists Offer LPN. Scholarship

Women in the Westland and Wayne areas who are interested in becoming licensed practical nurses but need financial assistance may apply for scholarships offered by the Soroptimist Club of Wayne-Westland.

Application blanks are available at the Wayne Chamber of Commerce, 35816 Michigan. They must be returned by Nov. 15.

The club began its program in 1971. Theresa Pate, first recipient of the grant, graduated from Licensed Practical Nursing school in Ann Arbor last year, and the second, Janice McLaughlan, will begin her studies at Mt. Sinai Hospital in Detroit on March 1.

St. Genevieve Bazaar Scheduled Nov. 2-4

Handcrafted and home-cooked sale items will be featured in the annual Christmas bazaar to be sponsored by the rosary altar society of St. Genevieve Catholic Church Nov. 2 to 4.

The sale, in the activities center of the church at 29015 Jamison, Livonia, will run from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Nov. 2 and 3, and from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 4.

Ten booths for shopping and a snack bar for resting will be offered earlier holiday shoppers.

Knit and crocheted goods, homemade jams and jellies, baked goods, used books, Christmas cards and wrappings and white elephants are among the items on sale.

A "kidway" area will include games for children, a special booth for young shoppers and a "jolly jungle" booth of stuffed animals.

MRS. CLYDE FITCH (left) of Wayne and Mrs. Louis Dely of Plymouth, display a poster announcing the free pap test clinic to be held Nov. 6-8 in The First United Methodist Church, 6443 Merriman, Garden City.

Free Pap Tests Available

A free pap test clinic will be held Nov. 6 to 8 in the First United Methodist Church of Garden City, 6443 Merriman.

Women in Livonia and Plymouth as well as Garden City and Westland are invited to take advantage of the service offered jointly by the Michigan Cancer Foundation and the Garden City Jaycee Auxiliary.

Clinic hours will be 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Free baby sitting will be available at the church for women taking the test.

Appointments must be made in advance. Contact the Michigan Cancer Foundation office, 1112 N. Telegraph, Dearborn, weekdays between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Tests will be administered by registered nurses. Results will be sent to each woman.

Co-op Now In School

A cooperative nursery is the first independent group to use empty classrooms in Livonia schools.

Under a pilot program recently instituted by the Livonia Board of Education, the North Livonia Nursery, Inc. is leasing two rooms in the Jackson elementary school for $120 per month.

The classes for pre-schoolers will continue through May. In its parent-cooperative structure, the nursery has trained teachers with parents assisting and monthly parent meetings to conduct the nursery business.

The eight-year-old nursery first met in St. Andrew Episcopal Church and later moved to Holy Cross Lutheran Church. The move to Jackson, 32025 Lyndon, came this fall.

Made up of families from Livonia, Redford, Farmington and Northville, the co-operative offers two-hour sessions for three- and four-year-olds twice a week.

A class for three-year-olds is offered Monday, Wednesday or Friday, or Tuesday and Thursday mornings, with Joanne Abernathy of Farmington and Jennifer Foley of Livonia as teachers for the younger children.

Similar afternoon classes for four-year-olds are taught by Janet Dean of Northville. A few openings for four-year-old girls are available, and parents interested may call Mrs. William Vanzant, 37534 Lancaster Court, Livonia.

Several field trips are planned for the children during the year.

For parents, monthly meetings will feature talks on women's identity by marriage counselor Ernestine Lerner, on sex education for pre-schoolers by Mary Pao-messa and on enjoying music with young children by teacher Joanne Warrick.

Hammins Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Flander Hammin of Northville recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a dinner party and an open house in the Plymouth First Church of the Nazarene.

The Hammins were married Oct. 6, 1923, in Sullivan, Ind. They lived in Plymouth eight years before moving to Northville.

Minnesota

Party Planned

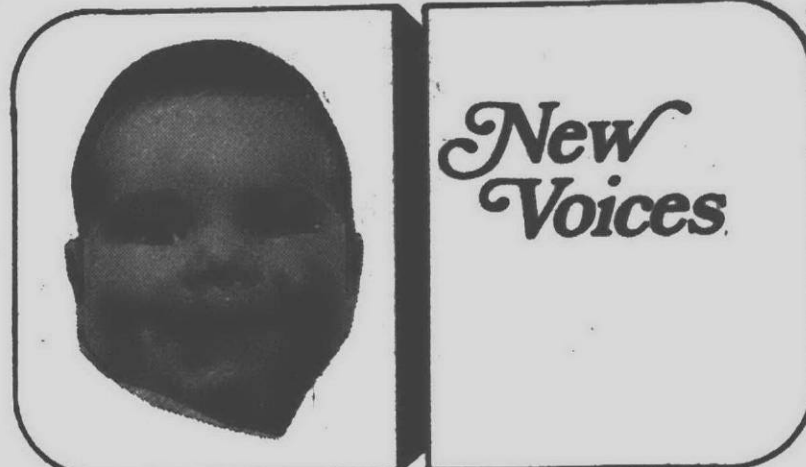

The University of Minnesota Women's Club will hold a smorgasbord dinner Friday, Nov. 2, at 7 p.m. in the Danish Club of Detroit, 22711 Grand River.

Cocktails will precede the dinner at 7 p.m. Reservations for guests may be made through Mrs. Clifford Merriott, 32533 Robinwood Drive, Birmingham.

Mr. Hammin was a Ford Motor Co. employee before retirement. They are members of the Plymouth First Church of the Nazarene. That congregation voted Mrs. Hammin "Mother of the Year," on Mothers Day, 1973.

They have four children: Merle and Dean of Plymouth, Paul of Birmingham and Mrs. George Cronk of Livonia. There are 12 grandchildren.

Pursell Maps Solid Waste Attack

LANSING A major step forward in Michigan toward recovering resources and cleaning up the state's land, air and water is proposed in a comprehensive senate bill introduced by Sen. Carl D. Pursell (R-Plymouth) and three fellow senators.

The bill (No. SB 946) will be known as the Resources Recovery Authority Act and for the first time, will enlist the combined forces of state and local governmental units and private industry in a massive attack on collecting, shredding, compacting, recycling and disposing of solid wastes, said Pursell, a member of the influential Senate Appropriations Committee.

"The measure, which I introduced with Sen. Gordon Rockwell, (R-Mt. Morris), and Sens. Stanley Rozycki (D-Detroit) and Patrick H.

McCollough (D-Dearborn) proposes setting up a Michigan Solid Waste Authority within the environment protection branch of the Department of Natural Resources," said Pursell.

"This Authority, comprising four members appointed by the governor and the directors of the departments of Natural Resources, Public Health and Commerce, and the state treasurer, would be empowered to plan, construct, finance and operate solid waste collection, disposal, volume reduction and resources recovery facilities considered necessary to carry out local and regional solid waste management plans.

"It would provide solid waste management resources to municipalities, and regions through contractual arrangements.

"The bill also provides that the authority would use private enterprises to implement the solid waste management plan and would help in development of related industries.

"The Authority would assist in efforts toward source separation for recycling and would be empowered to acquire any property necessary to carry out its responsibilities. Such property would be exempt from local controls."

Pursell said he had talked with top executives of Ford,

General Motors, Chrysler, Consumers Power, Detroit Edison and other industrial giants and they expressed much enthusiasm for the proposed authority.

The senator said he had worked closely with officials of the Michigan Chamber of Commerce in formulating the proposed legislation.

"We have been working on this for six months with local, municipal, county and state officials and we feel it will provide overall coordination between governmental and private sectors in a concerted drive to clean up our environment," said Pursell.

"Connecticut already is working on a somewhat similar authority plan and hopes by 1984 to convert 85 per cent of the state's residential, agricultural and industrial solid wastes into fuel, electricity, and reusable materials.

"Connecticut expects to operate 10 regional collection and recovery centers, the first of which at Bridgeport is scheduled to be started next year. The Bridgeport plant is expected to recover 72,000 tons of iron and steel, 47,000 tons of glass, 4,000 tons of aluminum, and the energy equivalent of 650,000 barrels of oil."

OF MICHIGAN'S 98 permanent deer management areas, the 41 shaded on this map will be open to antlerless deer hunting during the regular Nov. 15-30 season.

Rabies Outbreak Warning

Three cases of rabid bats have been discovered in Wayne County during the last two months, bringing a warning to area citizens from the county health department.

The rabies cases are the first in Wayne County since 1965, according to Dr. Val Vangieson, veterinarian for the county health department.

He warned that rabies is 100-per cent fatal in all animals, including humans, and cautioned local residents to avoid any tame or wild animals that act peculiar.

"These recent findings of rabid bats should be viewed with concern by residents of Wayne County, particularly in the out-county area where the potential exposure to wild animal life increases."

Wild animals with a history of carrying the deadly disease virus are bats, skunks and foxes.

"Children should be advised by their parents not to pick up, touch or go near any animal, tame or wild, that acts peculiarly, particularly a wild animal who by nature will avoid people," Dr. Vangieson warned.

A person receiving an animal bite which punctures the skin should get the animal, whether dead or alive, for observation and testing to determine if it has the disease, he said.

"A physician should be immediately contacted after the bite," he said. "In the event that the suspected animal is difficult to contain, the local animal control officer should be contacted."

He recommended that all dogs and cats be vaccinated against rabies, particularly those which might come in contact with a wild animal.

City To Sell Ideal Mushrooming Site

By MAURIE WALKER

PLYMOUTH
Anyone interested in growing mushrooms, or those interested in collecting used beer cans for recycling, might keep an eye on a "choice" piece of land out in Northville Township.

There are 2.81 acres out there, once the site of Plymouth's water reservoir, which the city commission has voted to put up for sale.

Of course, there is a two-million-gallon concrete structure under the property where water was once stored, and fun-loving persons have obviously been holding beer parties there. Nevertheless, the surrounding scenery is colorful.

Plymouth has a warranty deed for the land dated 1895. The reservoir was built in 1921 and supplied water for the city and surrounding area up to approximately 12 years ago.

Ice Skating Classes Set

PLYMOUTH

Registration for ice skating classes will be held Saturday Nov. 17 from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. in the Plymouth Cultural Center arena, 525 Farmer.

Lessons are $12 for residents and $17 for non-residents. Classes, which begin Nov. 26, are offered by the SDept. of Parks and Recreation.

Lessons are $12 for residents and $17 for non-residents. Classes, which begin Nov. 26, are offered by the Dept. of Parks and Recreation in adult, tots 'n' moms, kindergarten, school age and special teen categories.

Special lessons include dance and pairs, patch and free-style arrangements. Private lessons are available. Lessons are based on the United States Figure Skating Assn. test program. Babysitting is available for day classes.

"The underground structure is well-built, supported by pillars of solid concrete," said Ken Vogras, city DPW director.

The shaft leading to the reservoir has been sealed from climbing down inside.

"There was a ladder leading into the area but it was taken out. We found later that someone had put a rope down into the shaft so they could get into the reservoir," Vogras said.

The city had it sealed up, fearing someone might get down and then not be able to get back up again. And from the number of empty beer cans around the site, this could be a keen possibility.

Getting into the property off Reservoir Road is like storming a bunker in Viet Nam. A winding road leads to the spot where the reservoir is, and then it's almost a straight-up climb to reach the top.

It's a great place for motorcycling hill climbers or for persons who want to be alone with little chance for interruption.

There is a little shed-like structure that covers the former access to the reservoir. This has been made into a spot for dropping beer cans by partiers.

It's unlikely Northville or the township would be interested in this plot located within the boundaries, but rumor has it a couple inquiries have been made on who owns the property and "how much do they want?"

Well, Plymouth owns it. The price the city will sell it for is anyone's guess. It certainly wouldn't make a subdivision site. Maybe the brush could be cleared to make way for toboggan slides.

The bushels of used beer cans must be worth something, and then there is the prospect of a thriving mushroom field.

Until someone eventually does buy the land, it won't go unused. There are all sorts of signs that it is a popular gathering spot for some persons.

At least, the deserted reservoir is not going to waste.

City Expands Family Skating

PLYMOUTH

The Plymouth Department of Parks and Recreation has added two more hours of open family skating, on Sundays from 6-8 p.m., at the Cultural Center Ice Arena. The rest of the skating schedule remains the same.

Schools Adopt Budget--Quietly

By W. W. EDGAR

PLYMOUTH

In almost tomb-like silence, the Plymouth Community Board of Education adopted a record $13 million budget Monday night.

And while the figures hit a new high ($1.5 million above a year ago), public apathy struck a new low when only nine spectators -- including the representative of the press -- attended the public hearing that is demanded by the constitution.

Along with the absence of that segment of the taxpayers who howl and yell during the year, two members of the board -- Gary Mirto and Fred Penar -- were also absent.

Most who did attend were members of the Plymouth Education Assn., along with Marcia Borowski, unsuccessful candidate for a seat on the board, and it was she who asked the few questions during the long, drawn out hour.

"I had a difficult time keeping up a conversation," Board Member George Lawton stated, "to use the entire hour set aside for the meeting."

The new budget, which reflects growth in school enrollment and spiraling inflation, embodies a novel plan, referred to as a "responsibility code." Under this plan, each building is given the responsibility of its own budget.

This plan is much along the line that General Motors uses to gain success by making each of its plants responsible for its share of the burden.

"This is something new," Supt. John M. Hoben stated, "and I think it will give us better control of the budget and all of our finances."

In explaining the new budget, it was stated that $46,000 was taken from fund equity and cash reserve to bring it into balance.

In his budget message to the board, Hoben revealed that the cost of educating each student had increased $70 over a year ago and jumped from $1,026 to $1,096, or seven per cent.

The other major increase came in the cost of instruction and maintenance which together account for 87.3 per cent of the entire budget.

The higher cost of instruction is attributed to the rise in the cost of fringe benefits plus additional teachers hired to accommodate an increase of 814 students.

Other reasons for increased costs included an item of $24,000 for athletics.

Heretofore, the athletic expenditures were taken from a separate revolving fund.

Following the explanation of the figures to the few who braved colds and sore throats to attend, Trustee Tom Turner, with the support of Joseph Gray, moved that the budget be adopted. There wasn't a dissenting vote.

LORRAINE ROMAN, president of the Plymouth-Canton High School class of 1977, gave the invocation at Sunday's dedication of Plymouth-Canton High School. The ceremonies were highlighted by the comments of several students and by music from the Centennial Education Park Symphony. (Observer photo by Craig Gaffield)

KENT BUIKEMA, principal of Plymouth-Canton High School, spoke at Sunday's dedication saying, "All in our community need to dedicate themselves to the task at hand" -- the education process.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION AND OF REGISTRATION OF VOTERS CITY OF PLYMOUTH, MICHIGAN

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF PLYMOUTH:

NOTICE is hereby given that a special City election will be held at:
Precinct No. 1: Plymouth Cultural Center, 325 Farmer Street
Precinct No. 2: Starkweather School, 580 N. Holbrook Street
Precinct No. 3: Central Middle School, 680 Church Street
Precinct No. 4: Plymouth Cultural Center, 325 Farmer Street
Precinct No. 5: Plymouth Cultural Center, 325 Farmer Street

In the said City, upon Tuesday, the 11th day of December, 1973, at which there will be submitted to the vote of the electors of the City, the question of ratifying a certain public utility franchise contained in an ordinance adopted by the City Commission at its meeting held upon the 18th day of October, 1973, which said ordinance is entitled as follows:

AN ORDINANCE, granting to CONSUMERS POWER COMPANY, its successors and assigns, the right, power and authority to lay, maintain and operate gas mains, pipes and services on, along, across and under the highways, streets, alleys, bridges and other public places, and to do a local gas business in the CITY OF PLYMOUTH, WAYNE COUNTY, MICHIGAN, for a period of thirty years.

On the date of said election, the polls will be open at 7 o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as may be, and will be kept open until 6 o'clock in the afternoon, Eastern Standard Time, when they will be finally closed.

The City Clerk will be in his office on the 8th day of November, 1973, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, said date being the fifth Friday, as determined by statute, preceding the date of said election, for the purpose of reviewing and registration, and registering each of the qualified electors of the City as shall appear and apply therefor. In the event such fifth Friday shall fall on a legal holiday, registration shall be accepted during the same hours on the following day.

SCHOOL SUPT. John M. Hoben explained the background and goals of Plymouth-Canton High School at its dedication Sunday.

'Hey, Ma, I'm Going To Be A Brain Surgeon... Maybe'

PLYMOUTH
If your freshman student comes home from school and announces that he learned he is destined to be a brain surgeon, what he probably means is that he was told that by OVIS - the Ohio Vocational Interest Survey.

OVIS is one of a series of tests and surveys used by the guidance and counseling departments in the Plymouth high schools.

Others used to help students in thinking about and choosing their careers are the Differential Aptitude Test, the Otis Test of Mental Maturity, the Metropolitan Achievement Test, the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test and the Advanced Placement Program.

Parents who want to know more about these tests can attend the parent conference nights at the high schools on Nov. 19 and 20 from 7-10 p.m.

In many cases, OVIS is the student's first exposure to the exhilarating but sometimes frightening experience of thinking about goals and careers.

The would-be brain surgeon's enthusiasms and fears will need guidance as he takes a good look at the possibilities. OVIS is only one instrument in the process of choosing a career and there are many evaluations, obstacles and unforeseen factors.

Aptitude and achievement tests and interest surveys are combined with periodic individual interviews with the counseling and guidance department.

They discuss such things as academic record, his perception of himself in relation to school and society, his goals and any pertinent opportunities (such as scholarships, summer institutes, apprenticeships, etc.) which might be of value to him.

By the time a student becomes a junior or senior, they have covered a wide range of activities and sources of information. In this way, they develop rapport for discussion of goals and careers.

Twp. Nixes Dealership Rezoning

PLYMOUTH
The Plymouth Township Board has rejected a planning commission recommendation to rezone a five-acre site on Ann Arbor Road from a high-rise motel designation to commercial zoning for a car dealership.

Chrysler Realty Corp. had requested the rezoning which was approved by the Plymouth Township Planning Commission on Oct. 17. They said they would put a Dodge dealership on the site.

The board voted 4-2 to deny the rezoning with Supervisor J. D. McLaren, and Trustees Gene Overholt, Frank Millington and Gerald Burke voting to deny. Clerk Helen Richardson, and Treasurer Elizabeth Holmes voted for rezoning.

Trustee Russell Ash, a Chrysler employee, abstained.

Youth Inc. Sets Workshop On Minorities

PLYMOUTH
Contemporary women, North American Indians and migrant workers will be discussed during the second fall workshop series held at 7:30 p.m. on Nov. 5-7 at Youth Inc.

On Nov. 5 the role of women in contemporary society, including female sexuality, will be discussed. A CBS documentary film, "The Forgotten American," will be the focal point for a discussion of the Indian on the reservation and in society.

Representatives of the United Farm Workers will be present Nov. 7 to discuss lettuce and grape boycotts.

BARBER SHOP Quartet members (left to right) Bob Miquelon, baritone; Ted Daly, lead; Lew Koppitch, bass; and Dan McDaniel, tenor, will be on hand for some barber shop singing Friday, Nov. 2, at 7:30 p.m. in Westland Center, Wayne at Warren.

Quartet Audition Set

The Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Singing in America, the Wayne Wonderland Chorus will hold its yearly auditions and admissions program in the Westland Shopping Center Friday, Nov. 2, at 7:30 p.m.

The chorus will sing for approximately 45 minutes after which they will move from the east court to the auditorium, located in the concourse, to conduct auditions.

The purpose for this program is the recruitment of prospective members. Anyone interested in joining the Wayne Wonderland Chorus may attend the sing-out and auditions.

The purpose of the association is to perpetuate the old American institution - the barber shop quartet. It promotes and encourages vocal harmony and good fellowship among its members throughout the world.

The SPEBSQSA also encourages and promotes the education of its members and the public in music appreciation. This organization of barber shoppers has established and maintained music scholarships and adopted as its unified service project, the Institute of Logopedics in Wichita, Kan.

The institute is dedicated to the problems of speech handicaps. It offers a total rehabilitation program which includes clinical work, teacher training and research.

DuRant Kicks Off Cultural Series

The Bob DuRant Band will kick off the Cherry Hill Community Program Series with a concert Nov. 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the Harry S. Truman Performing Arts Center of Cherry Hill High School, 28500 Avondale Rd.

Bob DuRant is widely recognized as the foremost dance band in mid-America. His special talents as an arranger and composer have enabled him to write a library for his band that appeals to all age groups.

He has incorporated the sounds of Glenn Miller, Tijuana Brass and Tommy Dorsey, among others.

This is the first of several cultural programs which will be presented by the Cherry Hill Community Program Series Committee. Other programs will include guest personalities, theatrical productions and travelogs. All events will be run on a non-profit basis.

Hobby Show Is Coming

Traditional, time honored handicrafts, original art, finished products, raw materials, kits, and how-to seminars will be featured at the Detroit Hobby Show Nov. 1-4, in the Light Guard Armory, 4400 E. Eight Mile.

Leather flowers, wool yarn belts, applehead dolls, stuffed cloth dolls, hand-crafted jewelry, decorator accent pieces, custom made clocks, model railroads and military miniatures are a few of the many exhibits.

Seminars and demonstrations will be conducted giving show visitors an opportunity to learn the secrets of successful wine making, apple carving, egg decorating, weaving, rock hounding, lapidary work, rug hooking, candle crafting and decoupage.

Hours are from 1 to 11 p.m. the first three days and from 1 to 9 p.m. the final day, Sunday, Nov. 4.

NOEL HARRISON, son of Rex Harrison, will star in "No Sex Please, We're British," presented by the Plymouth Community Arts Council Nov. 11, in the Plymouth Salem High School theater. Tickets are available at the Detroit Edison office in Plymouth.

Seniors Get Resort Trip

Retirees and senior citizens have an opportunity to take the Chicago and Pheasant Run bus trip scheduled for Nov. 23-26.

Reservations must be in by Nov. 1, to the Plymouth Recreation Department, 525 Farmer Street.

Pheasant Run is a year-round resort in St. Charles, Ill., near Chicago. Travelers will enjoy a Dixieland Band, Bourbon Street, along with other attractions including a theater performance starring Michael Cole.

One night in Chicago at the Conrad Hilton Hotel which allows for shopping and sightseeing and two nights at Pheasant Run are all included in the package.

Son Is Running

Michigan State freshman cross country runner Paul Sewell of Rockford, Ill. is the son of Robert Sewell, member of Spartan NCAA championship harrier teams of the late 1940s.

Plymouth Uncovers Mermaid

A touch of nautical glamor will be added to downtown Plymouth Thursday evening with the unveiling of a buxom mermaid atop the Mayflower Hotel to mark dedication of the new Crow's Nest Lounge and Steak House dining room.

Owner Ralph Lorenz has scheduled the ceremony for 10 p.m. to the accompaniment of a cannon's roar as spotlights focus upon the rooftop's new ship's mast and the figure which will be a permanent fixture of its platform.

Service in the Steak House will begin at 6 p.m. Friday. For the time being it will be open only for evening dinner.

Players Schedule Special Benefit

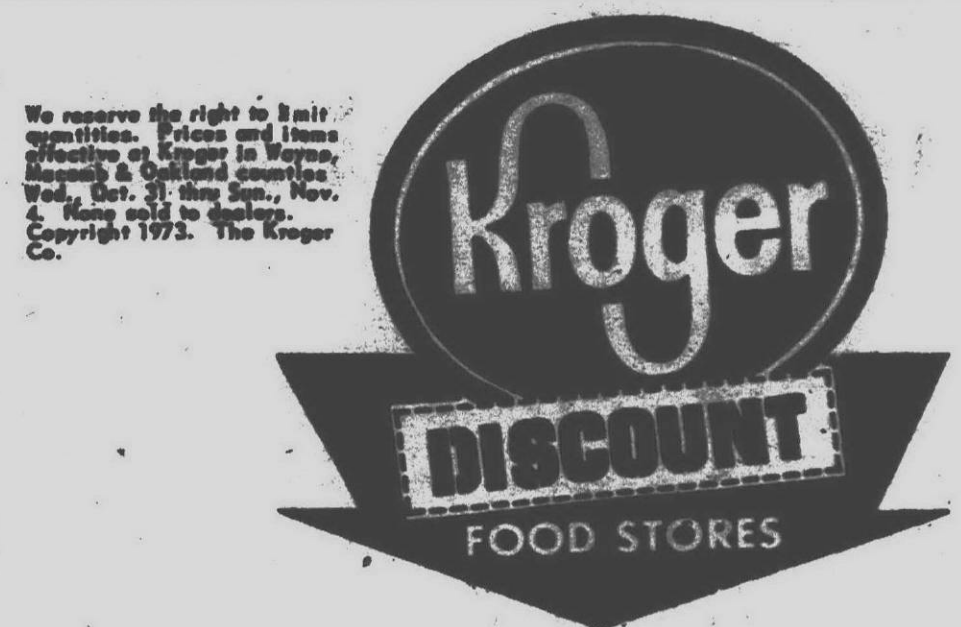

A special performance of "Don't Drink the Water" will be presented by the Farmington Players Thursday, Nov. 15, at 8 p.m. in the Players' Barn, 32332 W. 12 Mile, Farmington.

The performance will be for the benefit of the Farmington Community Center. Tickets may be obtained at the center, 24705 Farmington Rd., Farmington. Tickets for all other performances are sold out.

The play, written by Woody Allen, is set in the American embassy of a small iron curtain country and involves the wild antics of the ambassador's son.

Cast members are John Power, Hope Nahstoll, Jim Brownold, Ellen Rosen, Dennis Broadhead, Dave McCabe, Greg Messer, Rusty Griffin, Fran Zacour, and Fred Bush. Bush is also directing the play.

A champagne afterglow with the cast will follow the special performance.

This offer expires May 31, 1974. Good only in U.S.A. Void if taxed, restricted or forbidden by law.

You know what meat prices are today and so do we. It's clearly time for some good old American ingenuity. Above is the Eckrich Blank Check. It's an invitation to try our products and at the same time save as much as you'd like - from a quarter up to a dollar - on your meat purchases this week. The offer is good on our Smokes, Smok-Y-Links, Fresh Pork Sausage, 12 oz. and 16 oz. Bologna, and our many varieties of Hot Dogs.

How much you save is up to you. But whether you save a quarter on a package of hot dogs, or take full advantage of our offer by trying four different Eckrich products and saving a dollar, you'll be saving a lot more than we could give you with just a coupon. This isn't a giant giveaway, obviously. It's nothing more than a good business move, designed to help you cut your expenses during these times of rising food prices. In doing so, you'll help us by increasing our volume. By responding to your needs, we solve our needs. You don't have to be president of the company to realize that's the best way to do business and make new friends.

IN TIMES LIKE THESE, YOU NEED A FRIEND IN THE MEAT BUSINESS.

State Garden Clubs Convene

By BETTY FRANKEL
Special Writer

The Lake Pointe Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association played hostess to 400 fellow members from all parts of the state; it was the first time they'd ever done anything like that.

Mrs. Aldon Holk, chairman of the day for the state meeting, had organized a series of workshops and panel discussions. Sitting in on some of these sessions I learned of the very active program in horticultural therapy being carried out by the organization.

A program has been under way for several years at Pontiac State Hospital. Patients, assisted by club members, have their own small garden plots which they work in all summer. In winter they do indoor gardening.

There are similar programs at Lapeer, Ypsilanti, and at the Oakland County Medical facility. It is felt by doctors and other authorities that these gardening programs are of great benefit to the patients.

The branches also conduct horticulture classes for special education students in many public schools. One of the newer aspects of their program is providing gardening opportunities for patients in nursing homes.

This past year they provided scholarships so five university students were trained in horticultural therapy at Pontiac State Hospital.

The large room in which Mrs. Richard Werner and Mrs. Jane Walt were demonstrating arts and crafts was filled to capacity with standees lining the walls. Among the items exhibited were some very unusual and attractive wreaths.

I was especially intrigued by several pale, blond wreaths made of corn husks and decorated with flowers fashioned of corn husks. There were also wreaths made of herbs and one made of popcorn.

Decorations for the luncheon tables, baskets of pine cones and dried flowers, were made by a committee working under the guidance of Mrs. Roy Pederson.

Mrs. Wayne Miller, president of the Lake Pointe Branch, says her club tries to include in each year's programs all the phases of Farm and Garden activity. This includes everything from flower arranging and craft activities to community beautification.

The Lake Pointe Club's chief interest is conservation, and many of their activities are related to this interest. One of their members, Mrs. Jack McCrumb, has become the conservation chairman for the entire Michigan division, and they have received state and national awards for their contributions in this area.

Each year the Lake Pointe branch has provided a scholarship to send a Plymouth teacher to the conservation school at Higgins Lake. They have helped develop a conservation area and outdoor classroom at Gallimore Elementary School, and have assisted with the landscaping and plantings at several other Plymouth schools.

On the community level they have assisted the Plymouth branch in landscaping Kellogg Park in downtown Plymouth. Through the efforts of these organizations, a master plan was designed by a landscape architect, and a fountain, walkways, benches and gas lights have been installed. To augment the large old trees in the park, young maples and crabapples and some shrubs have been planted.

Lake Pointe branch is also proud of the fact that one of their very first activities was establishing a revolving loan fund for University of Michigan students who are studying horticulture or some related field.

BEDROOM IS A FINE example of the revitalization of Oriental design and influence in the current American home furnishings scene. The room features cork wallcovering, pieces from Thomasville Furniture and Persian Medallion carpeting from Armstrong.

Eastern Mood Prevails

Oriental home furnishings are a vital part of American heritage.

Brought back on Colonial whaling and clipper ships ... silk screens, Persian rugs, and cloisonne became prized possessions of early American homes. Intricate detail, superb craftsmanship, and an exquisite sense of color were admired and copied long before the latest revival.

A far Eastern mood for here and now is created by designer Louisa Cowan in an exotic bedroom. Styling from the past, with storage for today, is provided in the "Passport" chests from Thomasville. Versatile, functional, switchable, stackable ... chests have the gleaming brass trim that once secured seacaptains' chests. The bits o' brass are repeated in accessories throughout the room.

Walls, walls, and yet again more walls form the framework of every Chinese city. They surround it, they divide it into compounds, they mark more than any other structures the basic features of Chinese design. You can see the influence in the beamed ceiling treatment over the Chandelier ceiling.

Orientalists always preferred the principle of balance, and the repeated symmetry of stylized medallions in "Persian Medallion" from Armstrong's Grand Noble carpet collection brings solid harmony to the room.

Natural bamboo chairs from the Four Corners Collection, and handsome appointments enhance the time-honored finishing techniques of the furniture.

In Oriental philosophy, man does not play the center and heroic part that he plays in the art of Europe ... and landscape is the most important of subjects because it not only includes man ... but all living things. Animals, birds, plants are portrayed beautifully in paintings.

Rudyard Kipling said, "East is East ... and West is West ... and never the twain shall meet" - but they did meet and the romance in home furnishings is only beginning!

Diesel Boosts Job Outlook

Creation of at least 1,300 new jobs in this area — and quite possibly more once full production is attained — will be a direct economic benefit from expansion plans announced by the Detroit Diesel Allison Division of General Motors.

Division executives met a few nights ago with more than 50 area governmental and business leaders in the city hall of Romulus, where the new 780,000-square-foot, multi-million-dollar facility will be built, and said the plant should be in operation within two to 2½ years.

To be located between Van Born and Ecorse Roads along a C&O rail line, the plant will be 18 miles from the present fully-developed Detroit Diesel facility off Outer Drive in Redford. It will offer employee convenience to such communities as Livonia, Westland, Garden City, Wayne, Plymouth, Canton and, of course, the Romulus and Van Buren sectors.

"Redford expansion started about 1958 and we still can't keep up with the demand for our product," listeners were told. Currently the Redford plant has nearly 8,000 employees and their general manager of operations, Edward B. Colby, also will be in charge of Romulus production.

"The Romulus plant is expected to give us about a 25 per cent increase over current diesel engine volume, and we expect to meet the market demand with a significant reduction in over-time," said James E. Knott,

GM vice president and Diesel Division general manager.

Construction is expected to begin as soon as possible, which Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael of Romulus told the informational get-together hopefully means within the month.

The development area is convenient to major thoroughfares such as I-94 and the scheduled route for I-275.

A GOOD IDEA was worth $1,000 to Earl Nash (left) of Garden City. Nash, a 23-year employee of Cadillac Motor car division, was awarded $1,000 for his suggestion to improve a cylinder honing tool. His suggestion was termed "efficient and useful for our operation" by Paul Pollack, supervisor on the cylinder block line in Cadillac's Livonia plant, who presented the check. The company has awarded $130,000 to employees participating in the GM suggestion program since January.

Changes Made In Bus Schedule

Several changes in the Middle Belt-Inkster bus route have been announced by the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEMTA).

Most notable is the shift of the route from W. Chicago, a residential street, to Joy Road, a "mile" road and more commercial thoroughfare.

SEMTA General Manager Thomas H. Lipscomb noted the shift to Joy helps serve two hospitals — Metropolitan Hospital West and Garden City Osteopathic.

Area residents had protested bus traffic on W. Chicago.

The route, handled under contract by Metropolitan Transit, connects with Detroit DSR buses at Six Mile, Five Mile, Schoolcraft, Plymouth, Joy and Warren.

It also connects with Metropolitan lines at Ford Road, Cherry Hill and Michigan Ave., and with the Short Way route to Northville at Seven Mile. Passengers riding two or more buses may obtain a SEMTA suburban transfer and save up to 50 cents on the round trip.

Service begins at Livonia Mall, Seven Mile at Middle Belt, where the stop is the southwest entrance of the Sears store.

At Wonderland, Plymouth at Middle Belt, the stop is at the north entrance of the Montgomery Ward store. The route then follows Middle Belt to Joy, Inkster and Michigan Ave.

Varied Beauty Of Hardwoods

"Why doesn't this oak chest match that oak hutch?"
"How come this walnut table looks so different from those walnut chairs?"

How often have these and similar questions come up when you've been shopping for fine furniture in genuine hardwoods such as ash, oak, pecan, cherry, maple, walnut and mahogany?

Here are some factors that explain the great range of pattern design and varied beauty in the appearance of genuine hardwoods.

The portion of the tree that is used will greatly influence the wood's figure pattern. When the crotch wood is used, taken from that portion of the tree where a branch splits off from the main trunk, a plume-like design will result.

You can see where the graceful design splits down the middle, opening out like a book.

A burl is a growth that forms on a tree, and looks like a lumpy scar on the trunk. When the tree is cut for furniture, this ugly duckling provides one of the most beautiful designs used in furniture.

The "barl" is a pattern of swirls and bubbles that looks like liquid motion, and is one of the most valuable parts of the tree.

The stump, that portion of the tree which stretches along the ground like gnarled feet, yields yet another pattern, this time a rippling, lustrous pattern with rich contrasts.

The longwood or main portion of the tree trunk, varies in appearance according to how it is cut.

If it is sliced lengthwise along the log, a variegated pattern will appear. If it is quarter sliced, or cut at an angle, the result will be a striped pattern.

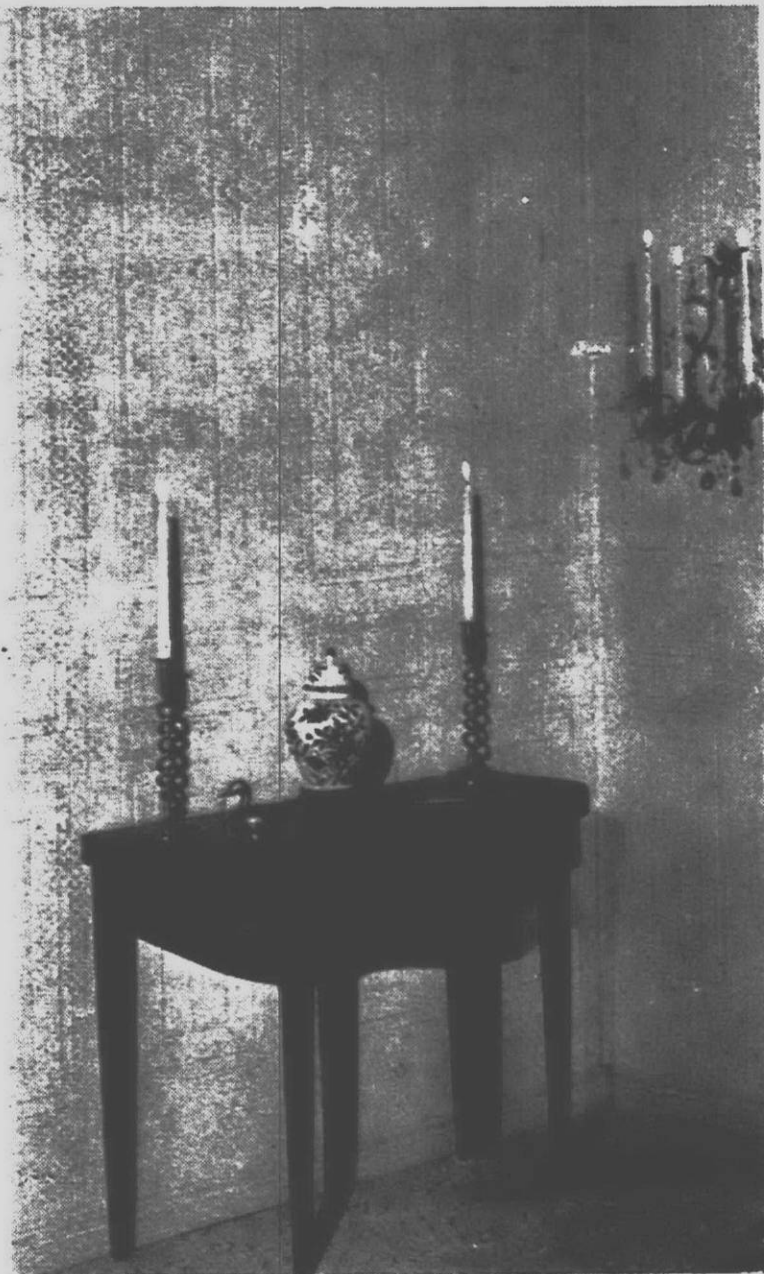

If it is cut in rotary fashion, where the log is rolled lengthwise against a blade to peel off a continuous thin sheet of wood, a watery or ripple pattern will emerge.

Then matching comes into play, where the cabinet maker carefully selects fine pieces of wood chosen for their similarity of pattern, and matches them for an artful symmetry of design.

But even matching cannot rob genuine hardwood of its unique quality of distinction - with Mother Nature, no two pieces of hardwood are exactly alike, but under careful scrutiny will reveal the faint individual variations in their "fingerprints."

When the coloring varies, it may be due to the natural variations of Mother Nature's paintbrush, or it may be due to the fact that the wood has been stained.

Hardwood may be stained lighter or darker than its original tone, may be stained to resemble another hardwood, or may be stained with any color of the rainbow.

NEW HARDBOARD PANELS are a reproduction of those found in 18th century French provincial homes. The faithful reproduction, even to the brush strokes of the skilled artisan, is created by Masonite.

This has been a good year for pumpkins and one way to use your surplus is to freeze or can it.

To freeze: cook pumpkin and put just enough of the vegetable into each freezer carton for one meal. A pint usually makes three to four servings. Larger sizes than one quart are not recommended since the pumpkin will freeze too slowly.

If you want to can pumpkin, pack hot, cooked strained pumpkin to 1/2 inch of top of glass jar. Add no liquid or salt. Adjust jar lids. Process at 10 pounds pressure (240 degrees) 65 minutes for pint jars and 80 minutes for quart jars.

Incidentally, we'd like to hear from our readers who raised giant pumpkins. Please write and tell us how big a pumpkin you raised. Maybe you produced a giant!

With geraniums selling for a dollar or more each spring, many home gardeners are determined to keep their geraniums over for the winter. Which is the best method?

Some hobby gardeners still like the old fashioned method of pulling up the plants and placing them inside plastic bags where they are hung in the cellar. Make sure there are a few holes in the bag for air circulation.

Another good idea is to wet a rag or piece of cotton and slip it inside the bag. Do this once a month or so to provide just enough moisture to keep the plants alive. Sometimes geraniums will actually blossom inside the plastic bag during winter storage.

To us the best method for overwintering geraniums is to bring the pots indoors and place them in a tub of moist peat moss. In a basement these plants will keep fairly well all winter, if given a small amount of light from the basement window.

In spring, cut the plants back to within four inches of the pot, and repot. Give full light and ample moisture. By Memorial Day you should have some husky geraniums in bud or bloom.

GREEN THUMB CLINIC: "We raised a lot of onions and wonder if they are really healthy. Do you think they are?"

Indeed, we do! In the flu epidemic of 1918, those who ate lots of onions showed great resistance to the disease. A recent British Medical report states: "Onions may soon become a primary weapon against heart attacks." Physicians discovered that boiled or fried onions increased a blood's capacity to dissolve clots. Eat all the onions you can. They're good for you!

Store your onions in a dry place where it doesn't freeze. They'll keep until spring or longer.

Realty Exam Cram Courses Set By OU

ROCHESTER Graduate Realtors Institute (GRI) I and II are offered in accelerated daytime sessions by Oakland University's Division of Continuing Education just prior to the December state realty examinations.

GRI I, (course number 5315), an aid to prepare for the salesman's license examination, is Nov. 12-15.

The all-day sessions meet in the Oakland Center Building on the university campus in Rochester.

Designed for those preparing for the examinations, a one-day math refresher (course number 5335), Nov. 16, covers prorating taxes and insurance, figuring mortgage discounts and closing costs.

Tuition is $75 for each GRI course and $15 for the Math Refresher. Advance registration and payment is required.

Legislature Says: No Studded Tires

LANSING Most local legislators supported a bill which virtually eliminates the use of studded snow tires in Michigan after April 1, 1975.

The bill, sponsored by Sen. William Faust (D-Westland), gives the Department of Highways and Transportation the authority to determine when the tires can be used after the 1975 date. It is now awaiting the governor's signature.

Voting for the measure in the Senate were Faust and Sens. Carl Pursell (R-Plymouth) and David Plawecki (D-Dearborn Heights). Sen. Daniel Cooper (D-Oak Park) didn't vote on the final bill although he had voted against it earlier.

State Reps. Raymond Baker (R-Farmington), John Bennett (D-Redford Township), Thomas Brown (D-Westland), R. Robert Geake (R-Northville), William Keith (D-Garden City), John Markes (D-Westland), and Raymond Smit (R-Ann Arbor) voted for it.

Opposing the ban was Rep. Joseph Forbes (D-Oak Park).

The bill would allow use of the studded tires this winter and between Dec. 1, 1974 and April 1, 1975 before the ban takes effect.

The tires have been permitted between Nov. 1 and April 30 for nearly six years but have been blamed for causing gouges on the highways. The ruts fill with water and can throw cars out of control, according to highway department officials.

Faust said the tires have caused millions of dollars in road repairs.

"Michigan taxpayers cannot afford to keep pace with road repairs needed because of deterioration caused by studded tires," Faust said. "Snow tires are rarely needed in November or May, yet some people still have studded tires on their cars."

The bill was amended in the House to have the highway department consider severe weather conditions in the upper peninsula and northern lower peninsula in establishing rules regulating the studded tires. It also exempts mail carriers and law enforcement officials.

Faust opposed separate provisions for the upper peninsula but had urged support of the final bill because the bill's major purpose was to ban the tires.

Elsewhere, the number of states restricting the time period studded tires will be permitted this winter has increased from 26 to 29. However, the number of states banning studs outright has dipped from five in 1972 to four this coming winter.

Joseph Ratke, touring manager of the Automobile Club of Michigan, advises motorists whose vehicles are equipped with studded tires to plan their winter trips with the various state restrictions in mind.

Right now, Florida, Hawaii, Minnesota, Mississippi and the Canadian province of Ontario prohibit the use of studs any time of the year. Minnesota's regulations affect only vehicles registered in that state, while other states' restrictions apply to all vehicles.

Meanwhile, Auto Club reports that Florida is interpreting its statutes so strictly as to have the effect of prohibiting the use of metal studs. Rubber studs are permitted.

Some motorists using metal studded tires were stopped by the Florida Highway Patrol during the past year, Ratke states, and were forced to buy regular tires to replace their studded tires before they were permitted to continue their trips.

Newsprint Hit By New Price Hike

The American newspaper industry, already suffering under the tightest newsprint shortage crisis since World War II, has been hit with another round of newsprint price increases.

Observer Newspapers Publisher Philip H. Power said Wednesday that he had been informed of a $27 per ton increase in newsprint, effective Nov. 1.

"This represents nearly a 15 per cent increase in one of our most sizable cost centers," Power said, "and it comes at a time when every newspaperman in Michigan is desperately trying to get enough paper to finish out the year."

"At Observer Newspapers, we are doing everything we can to economize in our use of newsprint."

"Our Yellow Pages ad outproduces all of our other advertising 3 to 1," says Mrs. Rene Clark, Country Estate Mobile Homes, Inc., 58220 W. Eight Mile Rd., Northville. "It's our best advertising investment. Since we've had our ad, our business has increased by 50%! I think some business people overlook the fact that the Yellow Pages maintains a hard-hitting and effective ad campaign of its own. But we only have to look at our results to know that the campaign is really paying off in the form of more business for us."

Mr. Hershel Stuart, Federal Hardware and Supply, 29080 Southfield Rd., Southfield recommends Yellow Pages advertising highly. "My program includes display ads in the North Woodward and East Area Directories. These ads pull in literally hundreds of calls for fireplace fixtures, resulting in sales ranging from $20 to $200. I also receive a great deal of response from our ad at the 'Hardware' heading. This ad produces both calls and walk-in business."

A lot of sales help, that's what the Yellow Pages gives Mr. Chester Podgorny, Venoy Realty Co., 32508 Michigan Ave., Wayne.

"During the past 16 years we have found Yellow Pages advertising a very efficient way to attract potential real estate customers.

The calls we get from the Yellow Pages are regarded as very important because these buyers are in the market now. We began with a half-page display ad. After we became established we switched to a smaller ad. However, we noticed a definite decrease in leads from the Yellow Pages and decided to return to the half-page ad we carry today."

Mott Terminates Churchill Streak, 40-7

By TOM DONOGHUE
Sports Editor

An instant replay of the "Year of the Charger" died a little. The longest current winning streak in Michigan Class A football came to an abrupt halt at 15.

Waterford Mott took care of the streak and the Western Six League championship at the same time in a lopsided 40-7 thumping of defending champ Churchill.

Churchill had powered its way to 15 consecutive victories, starting on Sept. 15, 1972 in a 7-6 squeaker over Thurston. What followed was 263 Charger points with its defense allowing just 53 along with chalking up eight shutouts.

"We simply got killed," stated Churchill Coach Ken Kaestner. "Mott was here to grind meat and embarrass us right off the field."

Mott rushed for 227 yards, the most Churchill has ever given up on the ground, and passed for 184 yards on 13 completions in 19 attempts, another all-time high against the Charger defense.

That's 411 yards total offense for Mott with co-captain Greg Aldrich pounding out 202 on his own and the Charger defensive backfield giving up four touchdown passes.

Meanwhile Churchill's sputtering offense came up with only 61 yards on the ground and 40 yards in the air on five of 12 passes. The Chargers averted further embarrassment on a touchdown with six minutes remaining. It came on a one-yard plunge by Bill Reardon, Al Leirstein converting.

"Losing the league title hurt more than breaking the streak," added Kaestner. "It was our worst defeat ever and you can't take anything away from Mott. They came to play and our kids just gave up."

Mott received the opening kickoff but fumbled, Matt Foster recovering for Churchill. The Chargers were forced to punt and Mott started driving with Dave Bauer pounding out a first down on the Churchill 14.

But the Charger defense again sparked with Marty Bay pouncing on a fumbled pitchout and it was Churchill's ball on its 15, 4:27 left in the opening quarter.

The two exchanged punts to open the second and Kaestner then called for his "captain jack" play with Phil LaFave exploding to the Mott 25. It was Churchill's play of lining up everyone except the center away from the ball in an attempt to catch Mott off guard. The play worked but Mott was to have the last laugh.

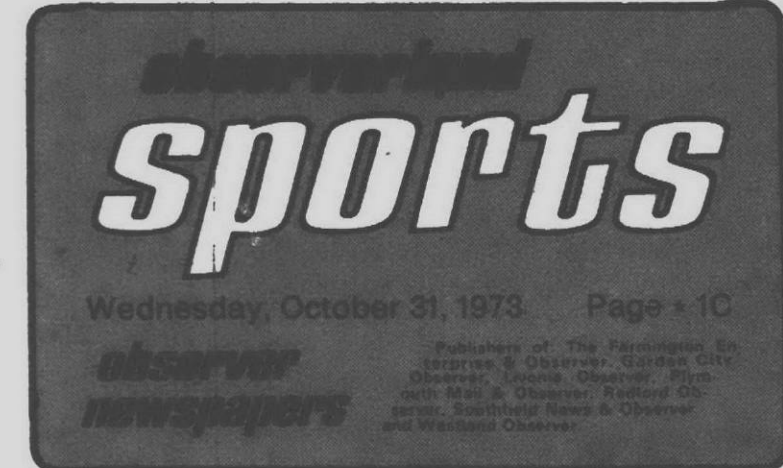

A Tom Roncoli pass to LaFave at the Mott four yard line was called back on a holding call. The play that could have changed the game's complexion did not count. Instead, Churchill had the ball on the 28 and wound up losing it on downs.

After another exchange of punts, Mott took over on its 44. Aldrich went to work with gains of 12 and four yards and QB Mike Grace hit Blaise Saffron to move Mott to the Charger 37.

With 53 seconds remaining, Grace combined with Saffron again, this time for 23 yards and six points. A two-point play failed but Mott had a 6-0 lead at the half.

"Heck, it was anyone's game at this point," stated Kaestner.

Churchill took the second half kickoff but ran out of gas on a nine-play drive on the Mott 40.

Mott's first play from scrimmage was a 60-yard burst by Aldrich. He made good the boot after and it was 13-0. With a little over three minutes gone in the second half, Al Leirstein fumbled the kickoff. Mott recovered and Grace hit Bob Swindell on a 19-yard scoring toss. Aldrich converted and it was 20-0.

Then came another Churchill "first."

After stopping the Chargers again, Mott blocked a Dave Panzoff punt, the first time Churchill has ever had a punt blocked.

After a roughing call, Mott took over on its 48 and four plays later Aldrich went in from the one. He also converted and the Chargers trailed 27-0, after three quarters.

A two-yard TD pass from Grace to Dave Bauer and a point after by Tim McKay upped it to 34-0 early in the fourth.

Churchill then erased its goose egg on the scoreboard. Mott wasn't through as Swindell hauled in a 42-yard scoring toss and the massacre was over at 40-7.

"I was stunned at the final gun," added the Churchill coach. "I looked up in the stands at my wife, shook my head and she shook her head. The title and streak were gone."

"I sat down later that night and felt like someone had shot my dog," he added.

A NOT-SO-CHEERY cheerleader's expression tells the story of a 15-game winning streak being broken. Churchill cheerleader Julie Lobb felt the anguish of a 40-7 defeat in losing the Western Six crown to Waterford Mott. (Observer photo by Tom Donoghue)

Farmington All-Stater Hoping For '73 Repeat

It's state final cross country time and with the representation from the 19 area schools, it could also be tabbed the All-Observer three-mile run.

There will be three schools running as a team in the Class A finals Saturday at Grand Blanc (10:30 a.m.) with Clarenceville a Class B competitor in the Linden finals.

Westland John Glenn, Livonia Stevenson and Bentley are the schools that qualified for the state along with eight other individual runners.

Churchill's Don Shaw, George Wright, Craig Gully; Franklin's Doug Shaffer, Craig Reynolds of Thurston, Mike Jones of Plymouth Salem, Southfield Lathrup's Mark Feldstein and returning All-Stater Mike McGuire of Farmington will be among the Observerland cast in the individual running for state honors.

McGuire set a Cass Benton course record in the regional hosted by Redford Union and won by Stevenson. The Falcon senior was clocked in 15:35 followed by Stevenson's Steve White in 15:39.

But McGuire had to take notice of his toughest competitor, in Brother Rice's Pat Davey who also set a course record in his regional with a 14:52.5 on the Royal Oak Kimball course.

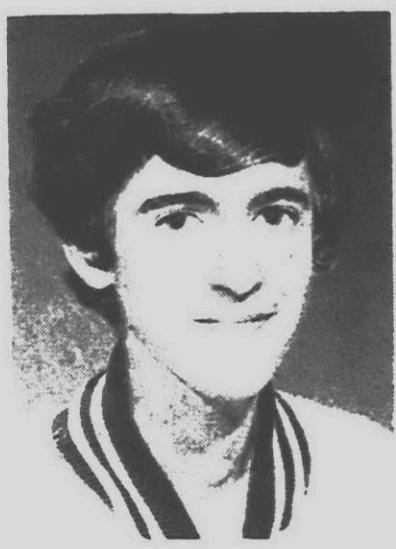

Following McGuire in individual qualifying times was Lathrup's Feldstein with an eighth place finish. Thurston's Reynolds placed 10th and was followed by a Churchill threesome, headed by Don Shaw in 11th (16:26), George Wright in 12th (16:30) and Craig Gully in 13th place (16:31).

Plymouth Salem's Mike Jones ran 16th and the 10th and final qualifier was Shaffer of Franklin in 16:41.

Team honors in the regional went to Stevenson, the state's No. 2 team in '72, with 48 points followed by Bentley with 70 points. Detroit Catholic Central placed third at 80 with Churchill fourth at 88.

Stevenson's state qualifying list was headed by White's second place finish followed by Rick Galindo in fifth, Ken Brown sixth, Keith Stanger 15th, Chuck Minear 20th and Jim Reid 37th.

Bentley, which finished second in the Suburban Eight and 10-2 in dual meets, was next best with places of 7-9-14-18-22. Tom Hoesy ran seventh for the Bulldogs, Jay Kirksey ninth, Chuck Kovach

MIKE MCGUIRE
Hoping For Repeat

14th, Alex Charns 18th, Tim Sobolak 22nd, Paul Bien 25th and Kevin Farr 32nd. All will be in action at Grand Blanc.

John Glenn, winner of the Northwest Suburban Conference, qualified in its regional with a second place finish of 63 points behind Wayne Memorial with 56.

Glenn was 5-1-2 in dual meets and was paced by Dave Kirst's second place finish in 15:26. Toby Theodore ran eighth in 15:58, and was followed in by Jeff Andrew in 13th place, Mike Lang 16th, Tom Harris 24th, Ted Miller 44th, and Scott Berry 54th.

Clarenceville was runnerup in the Grosse Ile regional. The Trojans ran second with 107 points with host Grosse Ile first with 88.

The Trojans were headed for the regional crown when it appeared they would have runners in the first 34 places. But Doug Juntunen, who was running 18th with 40 yards remaining, passed out, got to his feet, passed out again and eventually crawled across the finish line in 52nd place.

Rick Beyer was tops on the Trojan list with a 15:49 fifth place, followed by Tim Wehner in 15th, Tim Jeffery in 17th, Russ LaRowe in 34th, Andre Letourneau 36th, Juntunen 52nd, and Terry Albrecht 60th.

38 yarder to the seven. Chuck Yarbber finished the drive with a seven-yard plunge. Rogind made good the kick after and Harrison fell back on its defensive backfield which picked off three more passes.

Interceptions by Rogind, Bob Miller and Thorne ruined Northville's offensive push in the second half.

Harrison now has highly favored North Farmington on tap Saturday (Nov. 3) on the Raider gridiron. The Hawks have been held scoreless in two efforts against North.

from three yards out. Paul Rogind converted and it was 7-0.

An interception by Siekas halted a Northville drive early in the second.

But Northville bounced back to tie it up with 1:12 remaining in the half. An eight-yard pass from Bill McDonald to Jim O'Brien and a Keith Trumbull conversion made it seven-all.

After an exchange of punts in the third, Harrison took over on Northville's 45. On the first play, Crudele connected with Bob Miller on a

Harrison Outlasts Northville

Farmington Harrison lost to Northville High in every statistic but one...scoring.

Northville outlasted, outpassed and collected four more first downs than Harrison but the Hawks won, 14-7.

"They (Northville) beat us up pretty bad," commented Harrison Coach John Herington whose club upped its record to 4-2 and finished at 3-2 in the Western Six. "I guess we were lucky to win with Northville beating us in every statistic but scoring."

Northville mustered 10 first downs to Harrison's six and outlasted the Hawks, 129 yards to 85. Northville hit on six of 17 passes for 95 yards and Harrison connected on two of five for 12 yards. Four pass interceptions by Harrison dimmed the Northville aerial attack.

A Dave Wallington fumble recovery for Harrison set up the first Hawk score in the opening quarter. A 32-yard pass from Mike Crudele to Don Siekas took it to the five. After two unsuccessful attempts up the middle, Dave Thorne pushed it in from three yards out. Paul Rogind converted and it was 7-0.

An interception by Siekas halted a Northville drive early in the second.

But Northville bounced back to tie it up with 1:12 remaining in the half. An eight-yard pass from Bill McDonald to Jim O'Brien and a Keith Trumbull conversion made it seven-all.

After an exchange of punts in the third, Harrison took over on Northville's 45. On the first play, Crudele connected with Bob Miller on a

Prep Cage Rule Meetings Set

A total of 20 basketball rules meetings will be held in Michigan between Oct. 22 and Nov. 7 under the auspices of the Michigan High School Athletic Association.

Meetings in the area are slated for Ann Arbor Pioneer High School on Monday, Nov. 5; Melvindale High on Tuesday, Nov. 6 and at Ferndale High School on Wednesday, Nov. 7.

WONDERIN' what happened is Churchill High head Coach Ken Kaestner as Waterford Mott snapped his Chargers 15-game winning streak in 40-6 fashion. (Observer photo)

At each site a preliminary session will be held starting at 7 p.m. for a showing of the new rules film Basketball Today. The regular rules meeting for all officials and coaches will begin at 7:30 p.m. with the movie shown for the second time.

North's Pease Dazzles Glenn, 48-0

The North Farmington Raiders are at it again.

An offense which is averaging 34 points per game but was stymied a week prior against Franklin, rattled off three touchdowns in its first seven offensive plays and crushed Westland John Glenn, 48-0.

Brad Pease, who was held to just 66 yards rushing against Franklin, exploded with 210 yards in 15 carries and accounted for five North six-pointers.

The 5-11, 185-pound Raider tailback upped his season output to 701 yards in six games, along with 15 touchdowns. This is four shy of North's record of 19 set by Mike Gow in the 1970 state championship season.

North's defense was not to be outdone by the offense as it held a sputtering Glenn club to no first downs, eight yards rushing and 11 yards in the air.

Meanwhile, North racked up 15 first downs, totaled 310 yards on the ground and 88 in the air. Junior Tom Moore hit on three of seven passes in his quarterback debut.

The 6-2, 190-pound QB got North on the board in its first 60-yard march with a one-yard burst. A conversion by Jeff Lindberg made it 7-0.

Pease then scored from 13 yards and four yards out with two Lindberg conversions pushing it to 21-0 after one quarter.

North's Mike Solden set up the next score with a pass interception followed by a 58-yard spurt by Pease. Another burst by Pease from two yards away and the two good conversions pushed it to 35-0 at the half.

Glenn's deepest penetration came late in the second quarter when they got to the North 40 before being forced to punt.

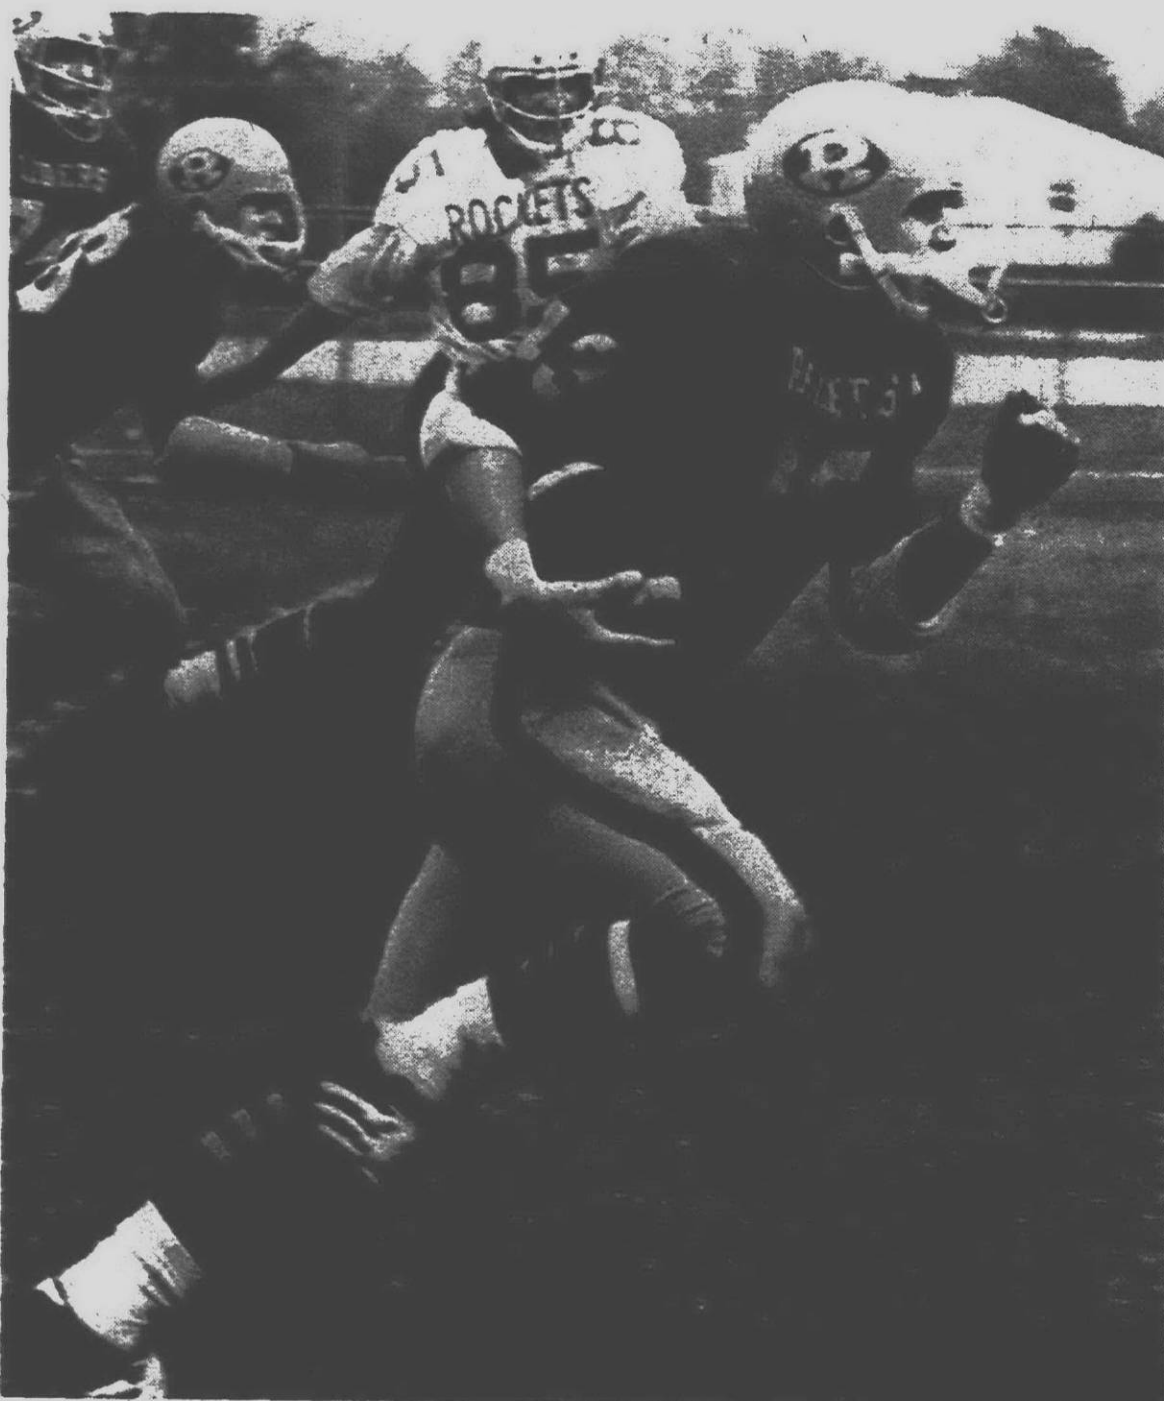

North's first offensive showing of the second half was highlighted by Pease's fifth score on a 31-yard burst. A Lindberg kick made it 42-0.

The final tally came in the fourth when Moore picked off a stray Glenn pass and dashed 41 yards. A Mike Combest conversion attempt was blocked but the damage was done at 48-0.

Ron Holland's North crew now has two backyard clashes coming up with Harrison this Saturday (Nov. 3) and Farmington the final week.

In the two meetings between North and Harrison, the Raiders have not been scored upon. North won the first meeting, 21-0, and it was 14-0 last season.

St. Alphonsus Roars By St. Agatha, 57-0

"We were just completely blitzed," stated St. Agatha Coach Mike Bemann after witnessing his Aggies fall to state-ranked St. Alphonsus, 57-0.

It was St. Agatha's third loss in its last four games and gives the Aggies a 4-3 overall showing.

The Second Division West clash with St. Alphonsus was settled after one minute of action. Mark Bokoniweck returned the opening kickoff 80 yards for a score. St. Alphonsus then made good an onside kick and scored again. Before Coach Bemann had time to get his squad settled, he was down, 16-0.

Then came the crushing blow.

"We had worked on a new style of offense for two weeks to use against Alphonsus," stated Bemann. "We practiced away from everyone but somehow they found out what we were going to throw at them."

St. Agatha moved into a setup where the quarterback lines up 10 yards behind the line of scrimmage. Seven players are on one side of the ball with the center serving as an end. The half-backs are on the opposite side of the quarterback.

"When we set up our lone-some offense, they knew right how to act against it and we were caught dead," Bemann added. "Even though it was our home game, we were caught in the lion's den."

"They were ready for us," he added.

Northwest Champ Franklin Set For Churchill

By TOM DONOGHUE
Sports Editor

Livonia Franklin put the finishing touches on the Northwest Suburban victory cake to stand as the only league champion in Observ-erland.

The 7-0 Patriots exploded past Oak Park, 42-6.

It was Coach George Lovich's first Northwest title outright in six years at the helm. Lovich's Patriots tied North Farmington for the crown in his "rookie season" of '68.

The Patriots now are shooting for their first undefeated season since '64 when Franklin went 9-0 under Bob Bentley, who is now assistant principal at Livonia Churchill High.

No. 8 on the Franklin victory march will be none other than city rival Churchill. They will meet Friday (Nov. 2) on the Charger gridiron. Churchill's starch has to be mellowed as it had its 15 game unbeaten streak halted in losing the Western Six crown to Waterford Mott, 40-6.

"This will again be the type of game where records don't mean anything," said Lovich.

"They'll be out after us. Since they lost the league title and their streak is over, this is all they have left to shoot for."

take them and Bentley to finish 9-0."

Franklin holds a 2-1 edge over Churchill, winning the first two by scores of 7-0 and 7-6 but dropping a 20-8 decision last year.

"This Oak Park game was a big one for us," the Franklin coach explained. "We didn't want to get caught napping and looking past them to the Churchill game."

The No. 1 club in Observ-erland struck paydirt in its opening drive.

A 76-yard march in eight plays was capped by a three yard spurt by Dan Quinn who also added a conversion to make it 7-0. The 5-8, 160-pound junior wound up with 22 points on three touchdowns and four conversions.

Quinn upped his extra point mark to 15 of 19 and was the game's leading ground gainer with 9 yards in seven carries.

Oak Park bounced back to make it 7-6 on a passing play where QB Tony Craighead tossed to John Mally who in turn lateraled back to Craighead who ran for the score. The play covered 57 yards but was the Redskins' only offensive sparkle.

A faked punt set up the next Franklin score with Greg Battistone scoring from 18 yards out and Quinn converting to make it 14-6.

To start the second quarter, Ken Dry returned a punt for Franklin from his 44 to the Oak Park 39. Five plays later, Larry Casey tossed a

An Oak Park snap from center that sailed out of the end zone for a safety pushed Franklin's lead to 22-6.

Oak Park free-punted from its 20 and on the first play from scrimmage, Quinn broke loose for 38 yards up the middle and another six points to make it 28-6 at the half.

A Randy Epley fumbled recovery set up the first score of the second half with Franklin taking over on its 19. Two plays later, Casey hit Dean Morrison on a 15 yarder and Quinn converted to up it to 35-6.

Quinn completed his assault in the fourth quarter on a dash of 20 yards capping a seven-play 50-yard march.

Franklin finished with 11 first downs to Oak Park's five and outrushed the Redskins, 194 yards to 10. Casey hit on six of nine passes for 101 yards while Oak Park's passing game netted 85 yards on four of 13 attempts.

Now comes Churchill and Bentley, the two schools that stand between Lovich, Franklin and a 9-0 season.

Plymouth Rocks Handle RU, 26-0

Salem Ripe For Sub 8 Title Conquest

By FRED DeLANO

Plymouth Salem's football troops have reached the crossroads of a decade.

A 26-0 triumph over Redford Union has put Coach Tom Moshimer's Rocks in position to tie for their first league title since the championship season of 1963. However, standing in the way is unbeaten Trenton - ranked No. 3 among Class A teams in the state.

Virtually ignored in pre-season Suburban Eight predictions, Plymouth has been underestimated all fall but now stands 6-1 overall and 5-1 in the league compared to Trenton's 7-0 and 6-0 marks.

Trenton has won 15 of its last 16 games over two seasons and will rule as an obvious favorite Friday in the 8 p.m. game on its home field. A Plymouth upset would leave the two teams as co-champions.

Sub 8 standings now read: Trenton, 6-0; Plymouth, 5-1; Edsel Ford, 4-2; Allen Park, 4-2; Bentley, 2-4; Belleville, 2-4; Dearborn, 1-5; and Redford Union, 0-6.

The Rocks didn't get on the board against RU until the third quarter and then couldn't count the verdict as safe until a three-touchdown outburst in the final period.

Although it was the Panthers' seventh straight loss, it was only their second shut-out. Trenton administered the other, 24-0.

Redford dominated first-quarter play at Plymouth Saturday, running 23 plays to the Rocks' eight, as Plymouth fumbled three times with the Panthers recovering.

However, two interceptions by Plymouth - one coming when the Panthers were at the Rock 20 - kept RU from cashing in.

Plymouth's offense stalled three times in RU territory during the second period, but the Rocks opened the third quarter with a 66-yard scoring drive capped by Doug Ward's touchdown sprint from the seven. It took nine plays, all on the ground, to go the distance, and Jeff Horton's conversion made it 7-0.

RU began a telling drive of its own late in the third stanza, but on the first play of the fourth quarter Dave Smith fumbled, Tim Dillon of Plymouth recovering on his own 10.

Three plays later Rick Neu broke loose for 55 yards to the RU 27 and on first down Dillon passed to Jim Mason on the goal line for the second score. Horton again converted and at 14-0 Plymouth was in full command.

Before the last period ended, Horton and Mike

McIntosh also posted Rock touchdowns, both on short plunges.

Excellent execution of the quarterback option by Neu, and the running of Mark Kraay on pitchouts, was the key to the Rocks rolling up 353 yards on the ground to RU's 159.

Kraay broke the 100-yard mark for the fifth straight week, netting 104 on 12 carries, while Neu ran the keeper nine times for 88 yards. Tom Bogdonas paced the Panthers with 73 yards from scrimmage.

Plymouth also completed three of 10 passes for 52 yards, while RU clicked on only two of 16 for 29.

Redford will host Dearborn Friday in another Sub 8 finale and then will be at Thurston to wind up the season with Redford's annual backyard scrap Nov. 9.

Stevenson Rips Waterford

Maybe all the Livonia Stevenson Spartans needed was a switch in personnel.

After suffering five straight defeats, Stevenson Coach Jack Reardon went to the drawing board and up came the converting of a defensive halfback to an offensive wingback.

The conversion proved successful as the 'new' wingback 5-5, 145-pound senior Tom Mays went wild in helping trounce Waterford, 39-0.

Thus ended a five-game drought of only 25 offensive points.

Mays not only carried 14 times and scored three touchdowns, but he also established a Stevenson record with his 226 yards gained. A 1968 record of 185 yards shared by Russ Greg and Bob Johnson was erased.

"Tom just put on one heck of a show," commented Reardon who is not preparing his Spartans for their homecoming clash Saturday (Nov. 3) with Thurston High.

The third play of the Inter-Lakes clash saw Stevenson get on the board with Paul Lulek breaking loose for 33 yards and six points. Bob Hope's conversion was good and the first quarter ended with Stevenson up, 7-0.

Mays' first of three came in the second quarter on a 22-yard spurt with the extra point failing to up it to 13-0. With 4:20 remaining in the opening half, fullback Tom Cox sprinted 23 yards for another score. The conversion was blocked but the Spartans led at the half, 19-0.

The Spartans took the second half kickoff and were off. Lulek ground out six, Mays exploded for 40 yards, three and off to paydirt on a 22 yard burst. Another conversion missed but the Spartans were ahead, 25-0.

With three minutes left in the stanza, Mark Temby recovered a Waterford fumble and took it in for a 10-yard score. Fred O'Keefe found the range on the conversion to up it to 32-0.

Mays put the finishing touches on the games with a 54-yard TD with eight minutes remaining. Hope converted and the assault had come to a halt at 39-0.

To complement Mays' 226 yards, Lulek carried the ball 13 times for 133 yards and the Spartans racked up 422 yards on the ground.

A 27-yard pass completion boosted the total yardage mark to 449 yards.

Waterford was held to 111 yards on the ground and hit on seven of 21 passes for 89 yards.

The Spartan defense was headed by O'Keefe with seven solo tackles and four assists to make his season output in seven games, 46 solos and 47 assists.

Borgess Rally Tips St. Marys

Second best was all Bishop Borgess could finish in the Catholic Double A Conference. But it took one of its best efforts of the campaign to take the league finale over an on coming Redford St. Mary club, 28-13.

It was Borgess' fourth win in the Double A against one loss. That was to Divine Child, and it all but decided the league title. Borgess Coach Fred Mushinski is sure to be rehashing that 12-7 setback the entire year.

Borgess sports an overall 5-2 mark and closes out its campaign against Center Line St. Clement Sunday (Nov. 4) at Thurston High. Kickoff will be at 2:30 p.m.

Redford St. Mary jumped ahead of Borgess in the first quarter on a five yard burst up the middle by Jeff Harper.

ments of the second quarter with Harper pushing in his second six-pointer, this time on a three-yard spurt.

Dan Kelly broke the tie for Borgess. The Spartan back intercepted a pass and returned it 20 yards to St. Mary's 35. Seven plays later, Kelly went in from the four. Birney converted and Borgess was on top to stay, 20-13.

Kelly iced victory for Borgess in the fourth with his second score. His nine-yard burst into the end zone, along with another interception, halted St. Mary's hopes.

Kelly paced Borgess with 115 yards on 24 carries.

Where no one ever has to haul firewood and fireplaces stay clean all by themselves.

Kings Row gas logs give all the glow and cozy warmth of real logs burning in your fireplace with none of the disadvantages of wood. Choose from a complete selection of ceramic and gas logs with realistic driftwood, birch and oak finishes at Kings Row Fireplace Shops.

Sets range in size from 14" to 48" with three to five logs plus volcanic cinders that give the radiant warm glow and the snap and crackle of a wood fire. You can even have push button control to regulate the flames and heat. And all for less than the cost of burning natural wood.

Our Timber King set features four full round ceramic logs and volcanic cinders that you can arrange any way you like. The 18" set complete with burner and automatic pilot is only $89.90.

The Forest King set uses a sand pan instead of a grate to emphasize the volcanic cinders in a more contemporary setting. 18" set with four movable round ceramic logs, cinders, sand pan and burner is $64.95.

Other masonry sets start as low as $29.95 including burner.

Visit the Kings Row forest of gas logs nearest you early in the season when you can get the very best choice of styles and sizes and make your selection. It'll be the last load of firewood you ever haul home.

GC East Rolls By Thurston, 18-6

The Thurston Eagles never got off the ground in their hopes to swoop past Garden City East.

In fact, the Eagles fell flat on the gridiron before a packed homecoming crowd which saw East reel off an 18-6 victory.

"It was just a terrible performance," commented Thurston Coach Don Riehl whose Eagles slipped to 3-4 overall and 2-3 in the Northwest Suburban. "We had two touchdowns called back because of penalties, our fumbles led to their scores and we dropped about eight passes."

For East, it was victory No. 3 against four losses, and the second straight in the Northwest in which it finished 2-3.

Thurston's opening drive stopped on the East 20 on a Tom Dowdy fumble. East started moving but Jerry Gibson hauled in a Panther pass and scampered 55 yards for what the crowd thought was a score.

Thurston was called for roughing the passer and East had possession at midfield. The Panthers marched in for their first score, quarterback Briet Ponte pushing it in from one yard out. The conversion missed and it stood 6-0 at the half.

It appeared that things might change Thurston's way in the second half when John Roy pounced on an East fumble on the kickoff.

But a pass was dropped and Thurston momentum was halted on the 10. After East failed, a punt to Thur-ton saw John Roy attempt a reverse with a handoff to Gibson.

East's Jim Corey ran in between the two, caught the handoff in mid-air and sped 40 yards to paydirt. A conversion missed but the margin was up to 12-0.

If that play wasn't enough to break Thurston's back, a 50-yard scoring toss from Gary D'Ascenzo to Roy was nullified on an illegal procedure call.

East's final score came on a 20-yard dash by Dave Loney to push it to 18-0.

Thurston finally got on the board in the fourth with Dowdy scoring from the four after D'Ascenzo had connected with Roy on three straight passes.

"We have to win our two remaining games to make this season a success," said Riehl who has Livonia Stevenson on tap this Saturday and Redford Union in the finale.

Ocelot 4-Milers Win Triangular

Bob Stewart finished first and Pat Opsommer fourth to lead the Schoolcraft College cross-country team to victory over Washtenaw Community College and Concordia College in a triangular meet.

Schoolcraft finished with 25 points to edge Concordia which was second with 28 points. Washtenaw was third with 33.

Stewart finished far ahead of the field as he crossed the finish line in 20:16. Second place went to Concordia's Marv Metzger in 20:58.

Tom Hallett was the third Schoolcraft harrier across the line, placing sixth. Paul Allegrina, 12th and Tom Lantto, 14th rounded out the Schoolcraft scoring.

Top Back

Wayne State University senior co-captain and two-way back Dick Byas accounted for 769 yards of all-purpose running in 1972 via rushing, receiving and returns.

SPURTING AROUND END is Plymouth Canton's Jeff Young (24) with Jim Moore (73) about to throw a block on Walled Lake Western's Kevin Nissen (11). Western wound up throwing a block on Canton in a 42-33 victory. (Observer photo by Bob Woodring)

Ski Heil

By BILL CAMERON

There is a great ski season coming!

What are you doing to prepare for it? Do you have a personal fitness program that you are working on? Skiing demands not only balance and agility, but strength and endurance as well. How do you "shape-up"?

Let me recommend a few simple tests that you can administer in the privacy of your bedroom, when no one is around to watch you. First, try a few simple push-ups, men on their toes and women on their knees. If you have difficulty doing 10, you're in trouble. The arm and chest muscles are used in riding tow ropes and pushing yourself up after a fall.

Next, the wall sit. Put your back against the wall and sit so that your legs form a 90 degree angle. Time yourself in that position. Anything under one minute means you're better off sitting in the lodge this winter! Those upper leg muscles are extremely important in skiing.

How's your cardio-vascular endurance?

Take your resting pulse rate for one minute while in a sitting position. Anywhere from 60 to 80 beats a minute is fairly normal. Next, run in place at a jogging pace for three minutes. Take your pulse within 10 seconds after stopping (sitting down) for one minute again. This is your working pulse rate.

Now here is the important part. Check your pulse again after a five minute rest period. Has it returned to normal? If it has not, I suggest you give up smoking, over-eating, and start doing some endurance work such as jogging or swimming or skipping rope.

Your heart is a muscle and needs work like any other muscle if it is going to remain strong. If you don't have cardio-vascular endurance you will tire easily and that leads to injuries particularly late in afternoons. When you're tired your muscles won't respond primarily because they lack endurance as well as strength.

The smart skier knows whether or not he or she is "in shape." They've had a recent physical and their physicians has given them a clean bill of health. When you're paying the high price for a lift ticket, you want to ski all day, but not at the risk of incurring an injury.

How many have taken that "last run" and wiped out halfway down? I believe most ski injuries occur because of lack of ability, improper equipment and poor physical conditioning.

Don't forget the big ski show this weekend at Cobo Hall. You'll find representatives of all of the Michigan ski areas plus the Rocky Mountain group and the Canadian government. You can also get a free fitness test at the YMCA booth.

Andover Topples Clarenceville

Clarenceville High turned homecoming smiles into frowns when it let a 12-6 third quarter lead slip away into a 21-12 defeat at the hands of Bloomfield Hills Andover.

It was the Trojans fifth loss in seven games.

Andover struck first on its second series with Ross Berlin dashing 60 yards around end to give Bloomfield a 6-0 margin.

Clarenceville notched it at six-all in the second quarter. Kim Shollock capped a 65 yard drive with a seven yard burst into the end zone. The attempt for a two-point conversion missed.

The Trojans just missed on an opportunity to carry a lead into the locker room at the half. Tony Phillips spurted loose for seven yards, before being stopped on the Andover one with the gun sounding.

A Brian Luka one yard plunge climaxed a 94 yard march for Clarenceville in the third. This after the Trojan defense had halted Andover on the six.

Another two-point run attempt failed but Clarenceville had the lead.

It was short-lived as Andover rebounded with two fourth quarter scores. Bob Holloway scored from one yard out to highlight a 60 yard march with a Hal Henderson conversion giving Andover a 13-12 edge.

With six minutes remaining, Holloway intercepted a Luka pass at midfield and Andover took over. Holloway carried it in from a yard out and Henderson passed to Berlin for two points.

Andover nipped Clarenceville in first downs 13 to 12 and outrushed the Trojans, 179 yards to 148. Luka held the upper hand in aerials, hitting on eight of 14 passes for 191 yards.

Turf Tips, Quips

By Doc Minard

With one week remaining in the Hazel Park harness meeting and two in the DRC campaign, it's about time to start thinking of 1974 and how Racing Commissioner Leo Shirley is going to resolve all of the problems he faces.

He doesn't have too much time for thought before he must, by law, announce the thoroughbred dates for next year. It will be an interesting announcement inasmuch as it will disclose to a point what the harness racing tracks will be allotted.

The Detroit Racing Association has asked for 121 days next year and it is surmised Hazel Park Racing Association has done likewise.

This year the DRA refused to accept the additional 31 days and will close its 90-day season on Nov. 10. Hazel Park accepted the dates and will open an early winter campaign on Nov. 14.

Perhaps the most startling thing about the late meeting is that Hazel Park will have a 3:30 p.m. post on weekdays and 2:30 p.m. on Saturdays.

All of which means the final three or four races will be under the lights, something that was absolutely verboten a few years back. Perhaps it was one of those old tales... thoroughbreds can't race under lights. The answer to that is they have at Hazel Park and the DRC in the past three or four years.

We can't understand why the east side track isn't following the pattern of the DRC and starting with a 2:30 p.m. post on weekdays and 1:30 on Saturdays.

From Cleveland comes a story that the races there will start at 1:30 p.m. in early November, 1 p.m. in late November and 12:30 p.m. on Saturdays. The Ohio track doesn't have lights, which accounts for some of the thinking since it has to have the races over before nightfall, but the fact is that more and more tracks are scheduling early starts and find the customers love it.

Regardless of the rumors, the Detroit Racing Association will continue with its early post times next year.

"We have made a check of tracks across the nation," said Vice President and General Manager Dick Wilson. "Most tracks are starting earlier with the exception of the Detroit area where we made the change, but Hazel Park refused."

The rumor mills are grinding out all sorts of things these days, all of which have been denied by the managements. Some of the rumors are:

No. 1 - Hazel Park will operate its early winter meeting over the facilities of the Detroit Race Course, starting Nov. 14 because of the huge costs involved in changing the racing strip from the clay base of the trotters and pacers to the soft surface for the runners and then shifting back to the clay base at the end of the thoroughbred meeting.

True enough the costs are high but the DRA has no such thoughts of leasing the big mile track for the meeting. There isn't that much love between the two managements.

No. 2 - There is a suggestion that all harness racing be at the DRC and all thoroughbred racing at Hazel Park. This is just a revival of a proposal made by former Racing Commissioner James Inglis years ago. The difference is that Inglis suggested all trotting meets at Hazel Park and vice versa. It never got off the ground.

No. 3 - Both running tracks will have later post times next year with DRC going back to the 3:30 afternoon and 2:30 Saturday starts.

As indicated above DRC Vice President Dick Wilson denies any such thoughts for his racing plant... that means early racing on the west side and late on the east.

No. 4 - Michigan's thoroughbred tracks are hoping Sunday racing will be approved by the legislature for 1974. Ohio has such a law effective next year and there are indications Pennsylvania and New York will follow. Seems reasonable that the legislature will pass the measure especially since Windsor Raceway can race on Sundays.

Remember a few years back when the blue laws prevailed in Canada? One couldn't buy anything, get a newspaper or go to any kind of a sporting event on the Sabbath. Times sure have changed.

Allen Park Nips Bentley, 14-13

Extra point conversions are part of every coach's victory plan. Livonia Bentley Coach Glen Goode has had the plan but not the conversions.

Bentley fell to its second extra point defeat in as many weeks in a Suburban Eight clash with Allen Park, 14-13.

Two conversion attempts that missed led to a 14-12 defeat a week prior to Trenton, with a blocked kick this time putting Goode into an extra point dilemma.

"It is really discouraging to score six points and miss on the conversion," stated Goode whose club has slipped below .500 at 3-4. "This was our poorest showing of '73," added

Goode, who was without the services of five of his starters due to injuries received in the Trenton contest. "Our timing was way off. This was the fourth straight time we have lost to Allen Park."

The Bulldogs fell to a 2-4 league record with Edsel Ford on tap this Friday in the league finale and Livonia Franklin the following week.

"We are not a 3-4 ball club," explained Goode. In the four league losses, his Bulldogs have fallen by a total of 13 points. Belleville blanked them, 7-0; Plymouth Salem won an 18-15 squeaker; and Trenton slipped by 14-12 and now Allen Park, 14-13.

The Bulldogs tallied the third time they got the ball early in the second quarter. Following an Allen Park punt, Bentley marched 61 yards in 12 plays with quarterback Bob Wasilewski taking it in from one yard out. A 19-yard pass from Wasilewski to Bill Brown set up the score. Wasilewski made good the point after and it was Bentley, 7-0.

Allen Park bounced back late in the first half on a 19-yard burst by QB Bert Beaney with two seconds remaining. A kick after by Larry Schonfeld tied it at seven-all at the half.

The Bulldogs exploded again in the third stanza when Wasilewski intercepted an Allen Park pass on the 45 and returned it to 25. The following play saw Wasilewski hit Brown for the score. But the conversion attempt was blocked and Goode had to have visions of what lay ahead.

Two series later, Allen Park started a drive on its 32. A third down 31-yard reverse play set up a 17-yard Beaney to Bob Vacca score that again tied things up. Schonfeld split the uprights on the point after and Allen Park had the lead and the game.

Bentley got as far as the Allen Park 20 after that with a Wasilewski pass being intercepted.

Chiefs Scalped, 42-33

Western Tops Canton

There was only one deficiency in new-born Plymouth Canton's highest scoring performance of its initial varsity football campaign. A defensive classic it was not and despite Canton's five touchdowns, the Chiefs wound up on the short end to Walled Lake Western, 42-33.

Western led all the way after Jeff Parrish rammed 43 yards for the first of his four six-pointers five minutes into the opening period. But again and again Canton came scrambling back to the delight of its largest home crowd yet.

The game was one of the highlights of Canton's dedication weekend. The Chiefs even had the inspiration of hearing their school fight song for the first time, done to the tune of Ohio State's "Across the Field."

But any resemblance to the Buckeyes ended right there as Western escaped the Western Six cellar, leaving it exclusively to Canton which finished 0-5 in the league and is 1-6 overall with two non-league games remaining.

Parrish had a sensational night afoot as he personally accounted for 220 yards from scrimmage. He scored on runs of 43, 21, 27 and 21 yards, Mark Shurmur getting Western's two other tallies on short plunges.

Quarterback Tom Close scored three times for Canton from inside the five and passed 30 yards to Don Lloyd for another. Canton's other tally was on a 54-yard sprint by Mike Ogden.

It was strictly an offensive show as Walled Lake amassed 411 yards by ground and air to Canton's 359, 146 of which came on 11 pass completions in 14 attempts.

Western led at these plateaus: 6-0 and 12-0 in the first quarter; 12-7, 20-7, 20-14 and 28-14 in the second; 28-21, 36-21 and 36-27 before the third quarter was over, and then 42-27 and 42-33 in the final stanza.

After their final touchdown, the brash Chiefs went the inside kick route successfully and were in Western territory with visions of putting eight more points on the board, which would have left it an incredible 42-41. However, they ran out of gas at the Walled Lake 35.

As it was, scoreboard operator Herb Spring already was at the point of exhaustion.

Canton will finish out its home campaign by hosting Woodhaven Friday night and will be on the road against Dearborn in the finale Nov. 9.

Stunned Falcons Grounded, 34-23

Walled Lake Central ran three offensive plays and all but ran Farmington right into the loss column.

Central's first three plays from scrimmage netted touchdowns of 58, 62 and 80 yards and the Falcons found themselves down, 20-0.

It was Farmington's third setback in six outings and gave the Falcons a 2-2 mark in the Inter-Lakes Conference.

Walled Lake upped its lead to 34-9 after three quarters with Farmington tallying twice in the final 12 minutes.

"We were half in shock," stated Farmington Assistant Coach Dave Catherman. "But the kids didn't quit after those three quick scores. They really came back."

Central opened the contest with a 58-yard screen pass touchdown from Craig Imhoff to Mark Pietras. Farmington was stymied on its next two drives and Walled Lake exploded with two more scores.

Kevin Long broke loose for a 62-yard romp and Bruce Hummell sped around end for an 80-yard six-point play. Central QB Craig Imhoff ran a two-point conversion and the Falcons found themselves down, 20-0.

Farmington attempted to pick up the pieces in the second stanza. Bob Holton climaxed a 73-yard march with an eight-yard spurt and Bob Drake booted a 26-yard field goal to slice it to 20-9 at the half.

But Central's explosive attack came to life again in the third. Long broke away on a 52-yard scoring romp and Pietras on a 67-yard burst to make it 34-9 going into the last 12 minutes.

The Falcons bounced back with two scores. Ken Di-Rocco tallied on a one-yard run to cap a 63-yard drive and John Hans scored from two yards out to complete a 71-yard drive. Steve Koinis made good a two-point play.

The contest ended with Farmington on the Central 11.

Farmington finished with 14 first downs to Central's seven. Central totaled 319 yards on the ground, 261 of those coming on four touchdown runs. The Falcons rushed for 191 yards and Holton hit on eight of 15 passes for 131 yards.

Lapham's Law Casts Cloud On SC Moonlight

By W. W. EDGAR

Can the board of trustees of a community college legally delegate any of its responsibilities to the president of the institution?

Members of the Schoolcraft College board became involved in this question when it arose during a discussion of the "moonlighting" of several employees. State Attorney General Frank Kelley has been asked for a clarification of the law.

A year ago, on a close vote, the board delegated authority to approve all applications for extra activity to President Nelson Grote.

But when he reported four applications had been approved this year, Trustee Rosina Raymond called attention to the state law and claimed only the board could grant approval.

With the support of Trustee Arch Vallier, she cited this law:

"A community or junior college may not pay any employee, faculty member, or administrator for time spent in the employ of, or in a contractual agreement with any college, community college, governmental agency (except elected officials) non-profit organizations, foundation or private firm or corporation without the specific written permission of the board of trustees of the community or junior college where the employee, faculty member or administrator is employed."

She focused her protest on the words "written permission of the board of trustees" and said, "The language is plain. If the law-makers didn't want it that way, they wouldn't have used those words."

Vallier added that it was the responsibility of the trustees to see that no employee is paid twice for the same working hours and that he was opposed to any Schoolcraft employees taking on extra activities at another institution.

To solve the immediate problem, Trustee Paul Kadish moved that the four applications presented by President Grote be approved, but that all future applications be brought to the board's attention. This won approval.

Dr. Grote offered no objection, stating that it meant that much less work for his office.

Finally, Vallier moved that all further action be tabled until the attorney general's opinion was received. This was approved unanimously.

The four requests for extra activities that were approved gave William R. Heise permission to serve as a seminar leader at the University of Michigan center for adult education; John S. Lesko Jr., to work as a part-time instructor of anthropology at Wayne County Community College; Larry Meter, to officiate at two wrestling matches in Crisler arena; and E.F. Peterson, to work as a police officer in Northville.

C'ville Settles

Teachers in the Clarenceville School District ratified a new contract by a 2-1 margin on Monday, and the Board of Education is expected to approve the agreement during its regularly scheduled meeting Nov. 8.

Both the Clarenceville Education Association (CEA) and the administration are extending the master contract until Nov. 9.

The new contract was approved by a vote of 98-54 during secret balloting held in individual buildings in the district. Teachers had previously met on Thursday to review provisions of the contract.

An earlier tentative agreement reached between the CEA and the administration in September was rejected by the CEA with a 2-1 margin.

The total package has increased from 7.3 - 8 per cent over the last agreement.

Salary schedule increases will range from 2.3 - 5.7 per cent on the bachelor's level, and from 2.2 - 5.5 per cent on the master's level. This represents an increase of $100-200 over the last tentative agreement.

Light Vote Expected After Dull Campaign

By W. EDWARD WENDOVER

PLYMOUTH

A dull campaign is expected to dampen the turnout at next Tuesday's city commission election.

"It doesn't look too good," said City Clerk Paul Brumfield when asked prediction of the voter turnout.

"There hasn't been too much interest," he explained.

Campaigning by the eight candidates has been minimal even though four of the seven commission seats are up for election.

The top three vote-getters will win four-year terms while the fourth-runner will be elected for two years.

But despite the fact that a major turn-over will result from the election, the campaign has been lifeless.

Only two of the candidates - Joe Bida and Mahlon Green - have made any significant efforts at leafletting and bumper sticker plastering.

The campaign has produced no battles of ideologies or personalities.

The candidates' unenthusiasm is expected to produce a small turnout at the polls.

A city charter amendment, which was originally to have been on the ballot, was vetoed by Gov. William Milliken.

It will not be on the ballot, and although it wasn't a controversial issue (it would allow the city clerk or treasurer to take over the city administration in the manager's absence), it might have drawn out a few more voters.

The candidates are:

- Norbert Battermann of 1449 Palmer.
- Joseph J. Bida of 585 Hamilton.
- John Charles Cummings of 766 S. Mill, Apt. E-5.
- Mahlon D. Green of 236 E. Ann Arbor Trail, Box 211.
- John W. Moehle of 1279 W. Ann Arbor Trail.
- Paul W. Muller of 1480 Hartsough.
- Bernard D. Schmitz of 1306 Beech.
- Donald B. Watkins of 660 Burroughs.

Battermann, the lone incumbent running, was appointed to two different unexpired terms on the commission and has never run for election.

Bida is former DPW head of both Plymouth Township and the city; Moehle is a former member of the Plymouth school board; and Schmitz is a member of the city's planning commission.

Muller and Green have run unsuccessfully for the commission in the past.

THIS DISPUTED FILL PILE behind the L&D Service Station at Ann Arbor and Ridge roads was the subject of lengthy debate at last Tuesday's Plymouth Township Board meeting. Most of the station's neighbors spoke against the fill and the station's alleged nuisance.

Some said a large firewood pile at the station (arrow) is a fire hazard, although the township fire chief told the board it was not. The board voted unanimously to ask L&D's attorney when the fill would be graded. (Observer photo by Maurie Walker).

The Stroller Elections' Contrast

By W. W. EDGAR

In a few more days when the voters of Observerland step behind the curtains in the polling booths to choose their city officials, they will be bringing to a climax a great study in contrasts.

Possibly nowhere else in America could you find such opposite extremes in the approach to these periodical battles of the ballot.

For instance, no one visiting Plymouth would know that there is a contest on for four seats on the City Commission and control of the city government is at stake.

There are no political signs along the main thoroughfares or placards in the shop windows appealing for votes. The posting of political signs in this "City of Homes" is thought to be almost sacrilegious.

Yet, just a few miles away, the main intersections in Livonia are cluttered with billboards and signs containing pictures and pleas to vote for one candidate or another.

In neither city have there been any lively confrontations among the office seekers.

UAW-CAP Backs Green

PLYMOUTH

Mahlon D. Green, a candidate for Plymouth City Commission, has been endorsed by the Wayne County UAW-CAP 15th district organization.

Green is a member of UAW Local 735.

From this rare rare approach, one has to go no further than Garden City and Westland for a touch of the old fashioned campaigns of mud slinging and name calling. In Southfield, there is just a normal rivalry in the race for the mayor's chair.

To add to the contrast, Mayor McNamara is running unopposed for a second term while an ambitious woman, Mary Markowicz, is battling tooth and nail to unseat Mayor James Lowe in Garden City.

At the same time, Mayor Eugene McKinney of Westland who also is seeking another term, is kept busy ducking the verbal darts being thrown by James McCartney, a former Wayne County commissioner who once was on the City of Westland official list as an industrial recruiter.

These two campaigns are throwbacks to the old days when the candidates worked on the theory that the road to success was to berate their rivals and that "the wheel that squeaked the loudest got the most grease."

Campaigns in those days were real fun, and anyone who ever participated in one of the old fashioned torch light parades in behalf of a favorite candidate never could forget the experience.

Remember the fun - some of you middle-agers - when President Harry Truman conducted a "give 'em hell" campaign to beat Tom Dewey in 1948, even though the Owosso Republican was the favorite when the polls opened?

It was in this campaign that Truman uttered the immortal words, "If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen."

Along the way he didn't berate his rival, Dewey, but focused his criticism on what he called a "do-nothing Congress" and it carried the day for him.

Most of the time, however, in the local elections, the candidates revert to mud-slinging, with no thought of offering a program of their own.

Sitting in on one of these mud slinging affairs the other day, The Stroller couldn't help recalling his experience with a friend who had chosen a career as an auto salesman.

Came an evening when he called on The Stroller with the hope of getting him to trade in his Ford car on a new Chevrolet.

The Stroller listened as his friend began a long tirade against the Ford product - claiming there was no comparison with a Chevy. Not once did he tell of the finer points, if any, of his product.

Disappointed at not being able to make a sale he wasn't seen again for months.

Then one evening he stopped by and with a broad smile said, "I've got the car for you now - it's the latest model of your favorite Ford."

The Stroller chuckled and countered - "Sorry, you told me the Ford car wasn't any good - that is wasn't in a class with the Chevy."

Recalling that, one wonders in this campaign of contrasts whether the candidates will learn the hard way that you can't sell one product by knocking another.

City, Firemen Ratify Contract

The city commission and the Plymouth Firefighters' Assn. have agreed on a new two-year contract calling for a 6.5 per cent salary hike in the first year.

Under the new pact, a beginning fireman will earn $9,805 and a four-year veteran $13,935. Previously beginning firemen made $9,205 and four-year veterans (the maximum step) made $13,187.

Other features:

- A three per cent increase plus a cost-of-living adjustment (eight per cent maximum) in the second year.
- Increased clothing and food allowances.
- One additional holiday (Washington's birthday) each year beginning in 1974.
- Life insurance increased to 1½ times salary.

LEONARD EVANS, general chairman of the 1974 Plymouth Community Fund drive, moves the star to $81,581 after Monday's reporting of the fund's segments. With two weeks left in the campaign, the fund is only at about 40 per cent of its $196,000 goal. Evans said Monday that two segments of the drive, the professional and the business areas, are lagging far behind at about 21 and 18 per cent of their goals respectively. Residential drive co-chairman, Gloria Hopfner, said Monday the "bellringers" door-to-door canvass of homes in the community has not yet been completed. The Community Fund is planning a "victory" dinner on Nov. 16 and, Evans says, it is hoped the dinner will live up to that name. (Observer photo by Maurie Walker)

Chevy Plant Starts Its 10th Expansion

It's Multi-Million $$ Office Addition

By R.T. THOMPSON
Executive Editor

From 862,000 square feet of plant floor space and 48,000 square feet of office area in 1954 to more than 2,100,000 square feet on 141 acres in 1974.

That's the story of the amazing growth of the Chevrolet Spring and Bumper plant on Eckles Road in Livonia.

Announcement of the 10th expansion of the facilities was made Monday by Plant Manager Richard Dauch as ground was broken for a 23,800 square foot addition to the office area.

Two longtime employees of Spring and Bumper, Wilbur Smith of South Lyon and Helen Snell of Livonia, joined Dauch in the traditional ceremonies, handling a pick and shovel in turning over the first ground for the expansion program.

Miss Snell, executive secretary for nine plant managers dating back more than 20 years, is nearing retirement.

Smith, who moved to the then new plant in 1954 when the Chevrolet forging operations were moved to Livonia, has been an employee for more than 44 years and will retire at the end of 1973.

Livonia officials attending the ceremonies included: Councilman Robert Bennett, Chamber of Commerce President Duane Dahl and Chamber Manager Stan Telman.

Termining the office expansion "a multi-million dollar" project, Dauch said it was one of three programs under way. Each will be in the same cost range.

After opening for operations in 1954 with a total of 920,000 square feet of space for plant and office, the facility didn't make any major expansions until 1965 when steps I and II were taken to increase capacity for a total of 517,200 square feet.

There had been minor additions made in 1962 with 32,000 square feet added for steel and packaging material expansion and in 1963 with a 19,200 square feet for expansion of marshalling and shipping.

Starting with 1965, there have been seven improvements including major additions in 1966, 1969 and 1973.

These were: 1966 - 207,360 parts marshalling program; 1969 - 212,000 for coil spring modernization and bumper storage expansion; 1972 - 14,400 for model bumper polishing buildings; 1972 - 6,400 for truck loading building expansion; 1973 - 68,500 for truck and commercial capacity expansion; and 1973 - 23,800 for office expansion.

TWO LONGTIME employees participated in the groundbreaking ceremonies for the 23,800-square-foot addition to the office facilities of the Chevrolet Spring and Bumper plant on Eckles Road in Livonia. Helen Snell, executive secretary to nine plant managers with more than 20 years service, and Wilbur Smith, (right) with 44 years service, dug out the first shovelful of earth. That's plant manager Richard Dauch (center) smiling at their efforts. (Observer photo by Bob Woodring)

"We have felt the need for additional office facilities for several years," said Dauch. "There had not been any additions to that area in 20 years, and we finally made up our minds to improve the facilities to answer the needs."

Plans call for the addition to be joined with the current facilities in the front or west end of the plant and extending some 60 feet towards Eckles Road. The new two-story structure will extend north a bit beyond the present building.

In order to get the necessary space, the curving drives and trees in front will be removed and then replaced closer to Eckles.

Plans also call for a greenbelt in front of the adjoining plant building immediately to the south.

"We have been carrying on a plant beautification program for some time," elaborated Dauch. "This includes cleaning the exterior on all sides and removing the dirt and grime that collected for 20 years."

"When this program is completed, we believe we will have one of the cleanest and most beautiful plants in Livonia, one that every one of our employees and Livonia residents will be proud of."

Dauch indicated Spring and Bumper had a payroll of 1,754 when it first opened and now has more than 4,400 workers, making it one of the largest payrolls in the area.

"We will be adding more to our list of workers when we complete the present additions," he smiled. "But completion of the office isn't expected until late next year, and other improvements will take just about as long."

The plant manager was referring to some multi million changes currently under way in production where numerous open gas furnaces are being replaced by enclosed induction or electric fired.

"It was necessary to make these changes," Dauch said, "because of the long time needed to make repairs on a gas furnace contrasted to the relatively short time for the electric."

"It takes almost 24 hours to cool off the gas and only five to 10 minutes for electric. Then, too, an electric furnace can heat a bar of steel in 25 seconds where it takes 35 minutes or more to heat with gas. We just had to make the changes, even though it is costly."

The third program currently under way is meeting the various safety requirements of the Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA).

Dauch mentioned that OSHA requires employers to meet standards for which checks may be and generally are made on a surprise basis.

The OSHA standards are very high and very strict. Plants guilty of substandard performances can be dealt with in a rather harsh manner.

Dauch stated all managers of General Motor plants had orders to meet every OSHA regulation as quickly as possible.

The goals of all managers are: (1) - Get and keep plants as clean as possible; (2) - make plants cooler; (3) - make equipment safer; (4) - require less maintenance; (5) - make operations quieter.

As part of these goals, Spring and Bumper recently opened a new parking facility which takes care of more than 1,300 cars in a 16 acres lot across Amrhein Road from the plant.

The lot was resurfaced, new lights installed and TV scanners erected so that plant protection officers could watch the area at all times during the night hours.

The rapid growth since 1968 is attributed to the demand for leaf spring created by the tremendous increase in the recreational vehicle and truck business.

The truck and commercial vehicle business climbed in an astronomical style due to the demands for trailers, campers and mobile homes.

Both trucks and commercial vehicles require leaf springs, and those with four wheel drives require four leaf springs, all of which increased the Spring and Bumper output to more than a million annually compared to 600,000 a year or so back.

"This growth also started when General Motors began to make trucks more attractive," smiled Dauch, who came to Livonia from the Flint Truck plant. "The installation of sun visors, automatic transmission, full foam seats - all made them attractive to women drivers, and the demand mounted."

He showed figures to show that the Livonia plant produces 50,000 coil springs daily and 47,000 leaf springs weekly with the prediction that the latter will climb 25 per cent to around 60,000 weekly and coil springs to 280,000 weekly in another year.

All of which makes the future for Spring and Bumper brighter than ever and leads Dauch to predict an increase in the payroll when changes lead to greater production.

"Our payroll increased by eight per cent in 1972, and we believe we'll have an additional 10 per cent more workers in the next five years," he predicted.

"We had 3,200 employees in 1971 and now the total is more than 4,400. We use 40,000 tons of steel a month and expect that to go much higher in another three years."

In addition to the items mentioned earlier, Spring and Bumper produces 580,000 bumpers and 366,000 bumper reinforcements monthly; 425,000 stabilizer bars monthly; and 1,951,000 miscellaneous stampings monthly for various General Motors cars.

The plant uses 15,000 freight cars annually or more than 196 miles of cars, showing the volume of shipments.

Products are sent to General Motors of Mexico, 19 GMAD plants, six major GMPD locations, Pontiac General Motors Truck and Commercial, four plants in Canada along with Pontiac, Buick and Oldsmobile divisions.

That's why Spring and Bumper has come to the front so rapidly that it has had so many major expansions in the past eight years with more expected in the future.

What Pilot Thinks About: Get The Front End Down

By W. W. EDGAR

It's the wee hours of the morning, and you are a passenger on a flight over the ocean, flying at about 35,000 feet. The sky is inky blackness. Not a star is in sight. You look for the moon and can't find it.

Suddenly, there is a rumble of thunder, and lightning flashes across the sky. For a moment you shudder - then wonder.

What is the pilot, in whose hands your life might be, thinking about? Is he experiencing the same anxious moments as you are? Is he thinking about the many lives in the cabin right behind him?

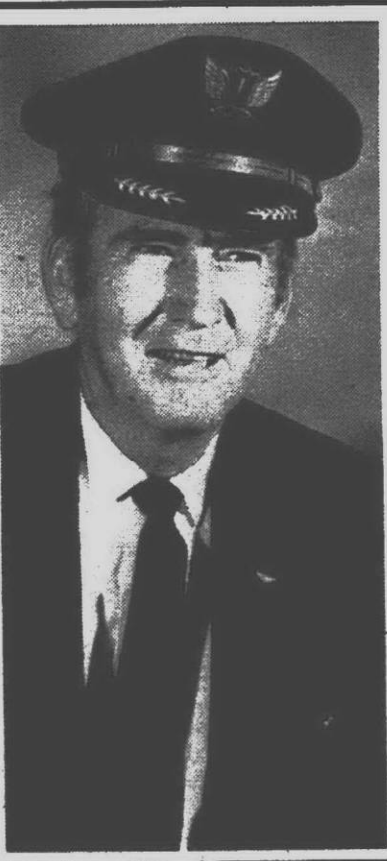

"Through the years, we have learned not to let the thought of the passengers bother you," said John McDonald, the veteran Plymouth pilot who has been flying the friendly skies since 1929.

"Flying has become so mechanized these days," he says, "that we just play close attention to the instrument panel."

"Our chief concern is seeing that the front end of the plane reaches its destination."

"No," the veteran smiled, "it's not that we are thinking only of our own safety, but if the front end makes it, the rear end of the plane will be right along."

In the more than three decades he has been flying, Pilot McDonald has seen all the advances in modern aviation - and the safety that has been built into the business of flying humans from one locality to another.

"We get keyed up during a storm. It's a sort of professional emotion ... strict attention to business."

--John McDonald

"The only anxious moments we experience now is after we land. Then a fellow gets the shakes just a bit after realizing what he has been through."

"It's true, we get keyed up during a storm. It is a sort of professional emotion in that we keep our eyes glued to the instruments and pay strict attention to business."

The use of instruments has reached the point, according to the Plymouth pilot, that you could fly the plane and land it even if the window in front of you were painted black.

He recalled that several months ago a plane was flown by instruments from Seattle, Wash., to Paris, France and was only 400 yards off the landing strip. From a point such as this, it was an easy matter for a pilot to maneuver it into landing position.

In his long years in the air, McDonald experienced what he called a "serious moment" only once.

"That came on one flight when I was told that we had lost our landing gear," he smiled. "But the tension eased when we later learned that our plane had been mistaken for another."

McDonald likes to talk about the accuracy of present day flying.

"It's almost a miracle that we take off from a strip that is only 150 feet wide and 1,200 feet long and then go through the skies to another, looking for another ribbon of concrete with the same dimensions."

Does he ever have any trouble landing?

"No," he answered, "but we may not land at the destination we started out to reach."

"You've often heard the expression 'you learn to fly on the seat of your breeches.' Well, that's what happens."

"When something goes wrong, you sort of feel it, especially in cross winds."

"When that happens, the smartest thing to do is leave the route and head for another destination - or swing around and try it again."

With the planes we have today, this veteran of the airways explained, a pilot starts his landing and drops the landing gear when he's about six miles from his destination.

"When you starting coming down," he said, "your plane sinks about 220 feet a minute, and then you can judge the speed of descent and the distance. For instance, the lights on the runway are 200 feet apart and you usually see about six lights ahead when you touch down."

"And we fly in the same mood with a cabin filled with passengers as we do with a load of cargo."

"In fact, things have been tuned so fine that we no longer need a navigator. We have three computers up front, and they check on each other, so we never should go wrong."

So, if you've ever wondered what the pilot is thinking about when you get a jolt on a plane ride, he's concentrating on getting the front end in - knowing that the rear end of the plane will be right behind.

For Fiendish But Friendly Festivities...

For a happier and safer Oct. 31, the trend has been shifting toward family, neighborhood and community celebrations.

The best of these fiendish but friendly festivities are kept small enough so that even the smallest ghost doesn't disappear in the shuffle and large enough so that said ghost feels fully appreciated.

Tricks are still part of the scene as one darkened room or corner is turned into a fun house of horrors wherein appropriately frightened adults can be tricked by hidden mini-masquers and demi-devils.

Candy treats can be scattered, treasure hunt style, throughout the house or recreation room, then sacked and saved to be divvied up at a sensible rate.

Decorations are traditional. The best is a pumpkin centerpiece, a trick and treat in itself.

The centerpiece is a cake in disguise, sculptured and shaped to pumpkin proportions.

The cakes easy-does-it, pumpkin-colored frosting masks the treats inside: a spicy flavor enlivened with crunchy nuts walnuts and chocolate bits.

There's no need to dunk for apples for their tanginess permeates this Autumn Apple-Choco Cake.

 - 1 c. chopped nuts
 - 2 c. grated or finely chopped apples (about 20)
 - 1/2 c. chocolate chips
 - 1 t. vanilla

Preheat oven to 325 degrees. Grease 12-cup molded tube style pan generously with two tablespoons solid shortening. Dust pan with flour and shake out excess. In medium-sized mixing bowl sift together flour, baking soda, cocoa, cloves, cinnamon and nutmeg. In a large mixing bowl cream butter and sugar. Add eggs one at a time, and beat one minute for each. Add water and beat until well blended. Gradually add flour mixture to creamed mixture and beat until fluffy. Fold in nuts, apples, chocolate chips and vanilla until evenly distributed. Spoon into shape-cake pan. Bake for one hour or until cake tester inserted in center of cake comes out clean. Turn out onto rack to cool completely. Sprinkle with powdered sugar, if desired, or decorate as for pumpkin centerpiece.

CENTERPIECE IS A CAKE in disguise, sculptured and shaped to pumpkin proportions. Spicy flavor is enlivened with apple, crunchy walnuts and chocolate bits.

PUMPKIN-COLORED FROSTING

1 can prepared butter cream frosting

4 T. softened butter

6 T. water or milk

2 parts yellow food coloring

In bowl, whip first three ingredients. Add food coloring until desired pumpkin shade is achieved.

FOR CENTERPIECE:

Bake two cakes in 12-cup
