Salem Rocks Nip Franklin

By FRED DeLANO

If Livonia Franklin and Plymouth Salem needed an all-out warmup for tonight's league openers (John Glenn at Franklin in the Northwest Suburban and Livonia Bentley at Plymouth in the Suburban Eight), the Patriots and Rocks sure got it Tuesday.

In the type of head-to-head battle that personifies the excitement of schoolboy basketball when fans of both sides are on their feet screaming throughout the final minute or two, Plymouth outlasted Franklin, 68-67.

The verdict turned on a corner shot by the Rocks'

Bruce Johnson with five seconds left on the clock, climaxing a wild finish which saw the Rocks overcome a 59-53 deficit in the last four minutes. The outcome left the Rocks 2-0 and the Patriots 0-2 for the first five days of the new season.

Coaches Bob Visser of Franklin and Fred Thomann of Salem sounded like echoes in voicing pride in their charges, and both said their troops will be "ready" for tonight's foes.

"I was stunned," said Visser. "These kids played their hearts out and really deserved to win, but it was just denied them. They showed great poise, executed well and played great defense. I'm proud of them."

"Great," said Thomann of his club's comeback. "The fact that we've come from behind to win both games we've played tells something about this team and their self-control. We concentrated on bringing the ball up - court and getting the shot, and it paid off."

Thomann was referring to the fact that Salem put 74 shots in the air, hitting 32 field goals for 43 per cent, while Franklin took only 58.

The Patriots hit on 27 for 46 per cent, but the scoring difference was too much for their superiority at the foul line to overcome.

Eric Agardy, 6-9, paced Plymouth with 23 points and 11 with 24 points, followed by Don Braun with 17.

Westland John Glenn slipped a notch in building momentum for tonight's clash with rival Franklin. The Glenn Rockets let a 54-43 third quarter advantage slip away into a 68-67 setback at the hands of Cherry Hill.

Brian Kaluzny's 27 points took game honors for Glenn. Southfield Lathrup again found a nemesis in Berkley.

The Lathrup cagers lost two games last 20-2 season, both to Berkley, the last in a district championship. Berkley handed Lathrup its first defeat after one victory in

Wayne Grapplers Pin Franklin, 47-12

Livonia Franklin took on one of the best wrestling squads in the state in Wayne Memorial and took a 47-12 beating.

It was loss No. 2 for Tom Tucker's Patriots and win No. 2 for Wayne. Jim O'Shea at 98 pounds got the Patriots off to an outstanding start with a pin over Ray Davis in 4:11. However, in the 10 matches that followed Tim Ninnis was the only other Patriot to score points in a 4:21 pin.

Franklin is at home Tuesday against Southfield.

Meet results:

98 lbs. - Jim O'Shea (P) pinned Dave Quinn (F), 4:11

State Sets Hearing On Consolidation

By EDWARD WENDOVER

Next Wednesday has been set as the showdown between the consolidation and the anti-consolidation forces in the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township.

The State Boundary Commission has set that date to hold a legal sufficiency hearing on election petitions filed three years ago asking for consolidation of the city and township.

The township government is expected to oppose an election. At the same time, a city official is hoping the election won't occur until May.

Set for Lansing, the hearing is only to determine whether the petitions meet the legal requirements necessary to call an election on the issue.

If the boundary commission finds the petitions in legal order, it can then set an election in the two communities.

The election can be called in two ways - with or without the election of new charter commissioners.

Were consolidation to pass, a new charter would be required to be written, but charter commissioners could be elected in a subsequent election.

Although the Plymouth Township Board has not yet officially determined what stance its attorney will take at Wednesday's hearing, it will vote on the matter Tuesday night.

Both Township Supervisor J. D. McLaren and Clerk Helen Richardson predicted the board would instruct Township Attorney Donald Morgan to contest the petitions.

City Manager Fred Yockey said he hoped that if the boundary commission approves the petitions, an election won't be set before May.

"I'd like to see us take that time to gather all the facts for the citizens of the city and township to consider the issue," Yockey said.

The city manager said he did not expect the city to argue for or against the petition's sufficiency at the hearing although representatives would be there.

Mrs. Richardson agreed with Yockey that if an election is to be called on consolidation, an impartial study should be conducted first.

"I definitely think a current study would be great," she said, adding that it "would have to have the cooperation" of the city and the township.

But the clerk cautioned that the study should present the information in black and white and should not be prejudiced toward either the city or the township from the outset.

McLaren had said in August that he also favored a study being made on consolidation of the two communities if a binding election were to be ordered.

The supervisor made that comment prior to the Sept. 4 special township election in which voters turned down a consolidation advisory question by a 61-39 margin.

McLaren had said that passage of that advisory ques-

Moceri Project Public Hearing Postponed

By MARIE McGEE

Bowing to a request from several homeowners' groups, Canton planning commissioners have agreed to postpone the public hearing involving a proposed regional shopping center at Joy and Sheldon roads until after the holidays.

The hearing was originally scheduled for Dec. 18, but now will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Jan. 15 at UAW Local 735 Hall, 48055 Michigan Ave.

Decision to change the date came at the urging of Robert Greenstein, president of the Canton Federation of Homeowners.

The sheer "volatility" of the issue suggests that the interests of the residents would best be served after the holidays, Greenstein argued.

Only Commissioner Bart Berg balked at switching the date. "Let's get it over with," he was heard to say to his colleagues.

The hearing will deal with a rezoning request from a Mocer Building Co. to build a regional shopping center the size of nearby Westland on 194 acres at the Joy-Sheldon roads intersection. Included in the proposal would be a planned unit development with a mixture of single family homes and multiple housing.

At one point in the commission meeting Tuesday night, several residents charged the commission with underhanded tactics in resurrecting the proposed shopping center plan which they charged has had very little community support.

Federal Grants May Help Ease Unemployment

AN OBSERVER ROUNDUP

Some relief for increasing unemployment in Observerland communities may be in effect by early 1974 if the U.S. House and Senate can reach agreement on a bill which has passed both houses.

The House version of the bill, which was passed last week by a vote of 369-31 under the co-sponsorship of Rep. Marvin L. Esch (R-Ann Arbor), would reform the existing manpower training act.

The House bill received support from all Michigan representatives, including Martha Griffiths (D-Detroit) and William Ford (D-Taylor).

A system of block grants would be given to cities or counties with a population of 100,000 or more. This means that such cities as Livonia and Ann Arbor, and counties like Washtenaw would be allowed to design their own training programs with the grants.

In addition the Title II Emergency Employment Act would be continued for the four year duration of the new bill. Municipalities or their combinations with a population of 50,000 or more would qualify for this aid.

Thus in areas where there is seven per cent unemployment or pockets of unemployment above that figure, local governments could provide public service jobs.

Funding for the bill is "open ended" which would allow the appropriations committee to fund the bill extensively as unemployment rises.

Further provisions of the bill would give monetary incentives for vocational education programs geared to manpower needs in each locality. Needs would be decided on a local level.

The House bill received unanimous support from all Michigan representatives in the House including U.S. Reps. Martha Griffiths (D-Detroit) and William Ford (D-Taylor).

According to Esch's legislative assistant, Nathaniel Semple, the bill has the general support of the administration, the AFL-CIO, governors and city and county leaders.

Pine Cone

Birds Adorn

Yule Tree

Here's a "crafty" Christmas decoration, a golden bird made from pine cones.

Use a medium-sized pine cone for the body. Notice the cone's scales are arranged in rings.

For the neck, wrap half a cottonball around a toothpick and wedge it firmly into the scales between the third and fourth bottom set of rings. Take any spiny ball, like that from a sweetgum tree, and push it onto the toothpick for the head.

For the eyes, push two small berries into the head with pins. Then center two small scales below the eyes, (top one slanting up and lower one slanting down) for the beak.

Break three scales from a large pine cone. Wedge two tightly on either side for wings and one in back for the tail.

Bird can be spray painted with gold or silver paint with glitter sprinkled on the wet paint. Or, it can be painted with a wood finish for a natural look.

For hanging the decoration, attach a string to the neck or to the top of the scales on the body.

Planning Cuts Holiday Hazards

Is it your turn to have the whole family in for Christmas dinner? It should be a great party but will require careful planning and preparation.

The Consumers Insurance Information Bureau suggests that even before you pick out the Christmas goose or turkey, make some plans so that everyone has a safe time.

After the gifts are open, assign the head of the house to make sure all wrappings are cleared away. They can be a hazard for fires and falls.

Traffic

It may not work but try to get the children to keep the toys and games out of the line of traffic. This may break down once company arrives but it's worth the effort.

If the lord of the manor is to be bartender for the day, assign him a location and make sure he gets all his needs out of your way before the cooking is begun. Once you are started on dinner, you don't need extra traffic through the kitchen.

The bureau says it might be a good idea to assign the children a place to play. The basement or a spare bedroom would be good. At any rate ban them from your work area. Hot stoves and bubbling pots do not mix with children.

to distribute the load. Do not plug them all in to one line or try to use them at one time.

Candles

In wanting to set a pretty table, keep safety in mind again. If candles are part of the setting keep them away from any evergreen centerpiece. Make sure the candles are firmly set in holders and are lighted only while you and your guests are at the table.

Alcohol

If drinks are served before, during and after dinner make an allowance of at least an hour between the last drink and the time your company leaves. Alcohol has a cumulative effect on people.

Knives

Take an extra moment along the way to make sure that all pot handles are turned in so no one can bump them. Keep sharp knives away from counter edges and appliances away from the sink.

If you are using a number of electric appliances, such as blenders, toaster-ovens, mixers or coffee makers, try

If you feel a guest has had too much, suggest someone else drive home or suggest they stay a while longer.

CIIB, sponsored by the National Association of Insurance Agents, recommends safety consciousness throughout the year but especially during the holiday season.

FINAL TOUCH for a holiday wreath made of pine cones and nuts is a wood finish, applied liberally. It will keep the satiny finish fresh for years to come.

Wood Finish Used For Final Touch

This year solve the problem of dressing the house for the holidays with colorful wood finishes.

Lasting Christmas wreaths and centerpieces of pine cones, acorns and other dried materials can be made easily and economically. Simply wire materials into a styrofoam frame. Then stain and finish in red, green or nut brown.

Wood finishes penetrate and seal to keep even fragile twigs and cones looking satiny fresh for years to come.

Apply wood finish liberally. After five to 15 minutes, wipe off excess and allow to dry overnight. To add a really professional touch -- coat with a clear polyurethane finish.

Then you're ready to celebrate the season. For handy year-round advice on easy wood finishing -- a 16-page booklet "Tips on Wood Finishing" is available. For a free copy, write Minwax Company, Inc., Dept. AG, 72 Oak Street, Clinton, N.J. 07014.

Explosion Injures Workman

PLYMOUTH An explosion in a furnace at Howmet Corp., 41605 Ann Arbor Rd., early Wednesday morning, left a Westland man hospitalized with back and leg injuries.

Terry Cowger, 27, of 526 N. Wayne was taken to St. Mary Hospital in Livonia when water in a barrel of scrap iron being dumped into a furnace caused an explosion. Cowger was knocked off his feet from the blast. There was no fire damage, firemen report.

Library Hosts Film Classic

The feature film "Of Human Bondage" will be shown without charge at Dunning-Hough Library in Plymouth Dec. 11 at 7 p.m. The 1946 Warner Bros.

Charged with the Nov. 29 robbery and held in lieu of $10,000 bond is Joseph Cude, 22, of 9044 Northern, Plymouth.

Patrolmen Ronald Wooster and Thomas Yates received a report of the robbery and description of the bandit while on patrol. The officers combed the neighborhood in the car and on foot.

A woman on Liverpool told the officers she had seen a man answering the robber's description jump the fence behind her house and drive off. She gave police the license number.

The officers traced the owner to Plymouth where they found the car parked in front of the Northern address.

Yates and Wooster found Cude in the house, wearing clothing answering the description of that worn by the bandit. Police said they also found money hidden on the suspect.

Consolidation Hearing

tion would have provided impetus for such a study.

On Aug. 8 the State Boundary Commission rejected a 1966 petition from the city to annex a portion of Plymouth Township's chief industrial tax base along Plymouth Road.

By clearing that annexation petition from its docket, the boundary commission gave life to the consolidation petitions it will examine Wednesday.

Those petitions were filed on March 24, 1970 by Dr. Gary Hall but sat dormant until last February when a court ruling gave jurisdiction on the matter to the boundary commission.

Prior to that court decision, the consolidation petitions were blocked by the Plymouth Heights incorporation attempt which was filed in 1959 as a tactic to stall annexation of the township.

The court decision in effect has set up a race between the consolidation petition and the Plymouth Heights proposal.

John McEwen, mayor de facto of Plymouth Heights, has asked the Wayne County Board of Commissioners to call another election for the Plymouth Heights charter, but thus far the county has turned a deaf ear.

With the threat of the gasoline shortage becoming more acute, bowlers throughout Observerland already are arranging for car pools to keep up their league schedules.

This is especially true of the all-star bowlers who compete in all sections of the metropolitan area.

Their biggest fear is that bowling might be placed on the non-essential recreation list if Congress enacts legislation to meet the shortage problem.

During the war years, the government asked that the bowling establishments remain open to provide needed recreation for defense workers. With this precedent, bowlers are hopeful that their league schedules will not be curtailed.

Marilyn Welsh, who bowls in the Thursday morning league at Mayflower Lanes, proved again that women bowlers never back away from any difficult shot.

Faced with the 4-6-7-10 split this week, she calmly took aim and fired . . . and down went the pins. She converted the "impossible" and admitted that she was not surprised in that she had tried for it.

Another of the ladies who was well pleased was Marlene Hardy. She came through with a 215 in a 622 series - the high mark of the week.

Stand To Be Corrected

In Observing Sports column in the Wednesday, Dec. 5, 1973 issue of the Observer sports section, there was an error in the eighth paragraph. Harrison Coach Bob Sutter said that "All along Dave told me that he was not recruited," not that he was.

Ann Setlock, day manager at Garden Lanes, helped establish two high marks for the season in the All-Star Bowlerettes League Monday night.

She contributed a 246 game in a 582 series that enabled her team to register a high single of 1084 and high series of 2923.

Aron Lipshey accomplished the unusual at Bel-Aire Lanes when he paced two leagues within a period of a few days.

He started by posting a 701 to top the Classic and came back with a 644 to show the way in the business men's loop.

His closest rivals in the Classic were Jack Treloar with 669, Jim Brown with 662, Mike Murphy with 662 and Jack Eldred with 651.

Bill Etherington battled Aron to the final pin in the Businessmen's League to land second with a 639.

It was close all the way as Dick Rosenbaum landed third with 629 and John Lennon placed fourth with a 627.

A familiar name popped up again in the Senior House

League when Andy Di Camillo survived a great battle to land on top with a 654. He beat out Steve Kiellian and Howie Smith by two pins, while Sam Sehornhorst landed third with 650 and Jerry Conflitti landed another pin back at 649.

The women also had keen competition as Norma Benham took over the pacemaker role with 618 in the Kimberly North League and Jackie Dix showed the way in the Bel-Aire women's circuit with a 539.

Scoring took a dip in the Garden Lanes Classic where Fred McClain was the lone bowler to top double century figures. He posted a 616.

2 Hunted Men Found In Florida

Two men held on armed robbery charges in Fort Pierce, Fla. are wanted on several fugitive warrants charging them with armed robbery in Livonia and Garden City, according to St. Lucie County sheriff's deputies.

They were identified as Theodore Gibson, 23, who at one point gave a Farmington address, and Richard Athan, 22, no known address.

They allegedly robbed a hardware store in the south Florida city last month, reportedly forcing the owner to hand over several hundred dollars from the store's safe at gunpoint.

Deputies arrested them in a motel room Nov. 19 and learned this week of the Michigan warrants, which allege they robbed men's and women's clothing stores at gunpoint.

The pair are held in the St. Lucie County jail without bond awaiting court action on the Florida charges, for which they could receive a maximum of life imprisonment.

Deputies added that Gibson last week was involved in a thwarted attempt to break out of jail. Fort Pierce is on the Intra-Coastal waterway, about 55 miles north of West Palm Beach.

Oakway Features Famous Cellist

The Oakway Symphony will present its second concert of the season Sunday, Dec. 9, at 4 p.m. in Seaholm High School, Birmingham.

The concert will feature Paul Olefsky, cellist. His performances will include "Tocatta" by Frescobaldi, symphony No. 8 by Schubert and concerto in C major for cello by Haydn.

Olefsky has appeared in most of the major music centers of the western hemisphere, Europe, India, Ceylon, and the Far East.

He has soloed many times at Carnegie Hall and was the youngest ever, to solo with the Philadelphia Orchestra under Ormandy. For many years he was principal cellist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

PAUL OLEFSKY

Cellist Makes Debut

A brilliant young American cellist, Stephen Kates, will make his debut appearance with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in Ford Auditorium Thursday, Dec. 13.

Piano Concert Is Scheduled

Ed Scofield, a pianist and organist who has made numerous appearances on radio and television, will present a concert Sunday, Dec. 9, at 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. in Hammett Music, Inc., 15630 Middle Belt, Livonia.

Kates replaces violinist David Oistrakh who, for reasons of ill health, was forced to cancel this single concert date with the orchestra.

Kates, whose musical credentials include a silver medal won in the Third International Tchaikovsky Competition held in Moscow in 1966, will be heard in Dvorak's Cello Concerto.

Pierre Hetu, former associate conductor of the orchestra and currently music director and conductor of the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra, returns to Detroit to conduct the Dec. 13 subscription series concert.

the current season, 58-50. Lathrup hit only 20 of 54 from the floor for 37 per cent while Berkley, paced by Bruce Flowers' 20 points, hit on 21 of 43 for 49 per cent.

A total of 10 points in the first 12 minutes told the story for Jim Kourtakis' cagers.

Farmington Harrison took a 92-48 beating at the hands of Northwest Suburban's Oak Park. The Redskins dashed to a 26-10 first quarter lead, added 16 in the second, and 50 more points in the second half.

Willie Rankins popped in 29 points for the Redskins while Bob French was high for Harrison with 13.

Billy Joe Young's Garden City East cagers broke into the victory column at the expense of Bishop Borgess' fourth defeat.

Borgess led at the half, 30-25, but East outscored the Spartans, 39-29, in the final 16 minutes. Jim Peter was the Panther sparkplug with an eight of 17 performance from the field and 21 points. Sophomore forward Greg Emery came up with 18 points along with 12 rebounds.

Livonia Stevenson outscored Redford Union, 19-8, in the final stanza to waltz past the now 0-2 Panthers, 52-47. Stevenson hit 19 of 54 from the floor for 35 per cent while RU scored 39 per cent on 22 of 56.

The difference was at the line where Stevenson made good 14 of 27 and RU only three of nine.

Garden City West got back on the winning track after a crushing blow against John Glenn. The Tigers exploded for 31 points in the last eight minutes to overcome a third quarter, 43-35 deficit, and dance to a 66-49 victory over Ann Arbor Pioneer.

Ken Kinsvater was high man for West with 17 points.

Turf Tips, Quips

By Doc Minard

With three legs remaining before the $10,000 finale of the late closing pace series at the Jackson - at - Northville meeting, it appears fans will be treated to some excellent Saturday programs during the remainder of the 1973 season.

Originally Racing Secretary Tom Smith had 22 entries in the initial leg. It forced him to split the stake into two divisions, each going $3,750, and close followers of the sport acclaimed the races among the best staged in the meet.

Now the can't - make - its have dropped by the wayside, some of the better nominees have called it quits for the year and the result is a group of hard hitting speedsters who go at each other each weekend.

Smith is working with 14 to 16 of the original nominees and has been fortunate enough to have at least 14 names in the entry box each week. That gives him an opportunity to split the field into two heats of seven each and a resultant evenly matched races.

Such is the story this Saturday when four recent winners drew into the second division, the eighth race, making it one of the most interesting to date in the series.

The field of seven includes: Zepher Q, winner of two legs and an early favorite for the championship; Easy

Tim, victor a week ago in a sensational 2:03; Jed McClure, a front runner who managed to stay in front all the way three weeks back; and Daddy O Ranger, a winner two weeks ago who could well be the darkhorse.

Zepher Q, according to reports from the barn area, could well be the best in the series. Glenn Quick, driver and trainer, isn't saying anything but there are those who believe the pacer hasn't reached its peak yet.

If what we hear is true, then those who follow the trotters and pacers are in for some real thrills in the weekend programs for the remainder of the 47-night program.

Other starters in the eighth race are: John Taylor, who has shown speed on occasions; Culver Cadet, a fast one who just can't get there first; and Tricky Dale, one of the best in the Bob Kalish string but unable to keep up in the stretch.

The first division of the stake also have seven starters and could be just as interesting as the second heat.

Heading the list are: Tiger Jet, the Livonia owned four year old who just now is starting to show the late speed that made him one of the better sophomores of 1972; Steve N.Z., from the Kalish stable; Blazer Chip, Tim Valley Dujill, Knight Desire and Shiaway Doctor.

Polonaise Lodge Plans Yule Parties

The Polonaise Society Lodge 3160 will sponsor two Christmas parties for its members and young dancers next week.

The traditional buffet dinner for members and their families is scheduled Wednesday, Dec. 12, at 8 p.m. in the Amvets Hall, 8473 Southfield, Dearborn.

Mrs. Stella Graczyk and George Syrett are hostess and host for the evening. Election of officers for the coming year is planned.

Exchange Students Needing Homes In 2 Areas

A call for homes in Plymouth and Farmington for visiting students from foreign countries comes from two student exchange organizations.

The ones who need homes in the Farmington area are here now and attending Oakland Community College as Youth for Understanding visitors.

A young woman from Finland and young men from Sweden, Denmark and France all would like homes with families within easy transportation distance of the Orchard Ridge campus of OCC.

Anyone interested may call Mrs. Wesley Orr, 26508

Farmington Road, Farmington.

The call for homes in Plymouth involves three high school age students from South America who will be arriving for stays ranging from 2½ to six months under auspices of the International Cultural Exchange (ICX).

Mrs. Marie Hopkins, field associate for ICX, is looking for Plymouth families who would play host to two girls from Brazil and Argentina, arriving in January for six-month visits, and a boy from Brazil, expected Dec. 20 for a 10-week stay.

Mrs. Hopkins said arrangements have been made for the visitors to attend Plymouth and Salem High Schools, and homes in the area now are needed.

Both ICX and YFU are non-profit organizations making attempts at furthering world understanding through exchange visits of young people.

Mrs. Hopkins said some 600 students from Latin America are coming in January to all parts of this country.

"The philosophy of the organization," she said, "is to immerse students totally in the culture of a foreign country through a family living experience."

"The family will gain new insights by seeing itself through the eyes of an exchange student, and in turn the students learn to love another culture through the eyes of their adopted families."

She added that careful matching of families and students is important, and finding common interests such as hobbies, sports, music and travel is the responsibility that falls to her and other field associates.

Mrs. Hopkins would be interested too in hearing from families in any part of the Observer area who would like to host an ICX student in the future. Her address is 219 N. Harvey, Plymouth.

Mrs. Orr, YFU area representative in Farmington, Plymouth, Livonia, Northville and Novi also is looking for families to host high school students in the coming year.

Madonna To Host College Evaluation

Madonna College will co-sponsor with the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education a training session for evaluators at its Livonia campus, Dec. 13 through 15.

"It is the first such training program for evaluators," said Sister Mary Karen, chairman of Madonna's department of education, "and should be valuable in assuring consistency between the several teams."

New team members, representing education groups throughout the United States, whose responsibility it will be to examine schools of teacher education, will be studying the NCATE standards of evaluation.

Mock seminars and interviews will be set up between evaluators and Madonna students, alumni, faculty, and administrators, to provide discussions of the processes of analysis, interview, and consensus-making.

Standards by which colleges of education are judged are: goals of the program, design of curricula, resources and facilities, evaluation, program review and planning, according to Sr. Karen.

Commitment of the college to teacher training as reflected in their budget, administrative interest in the program, and the faculty's responsiveness to needs of students is also important, she said.

Madonna College was selected as the site of the training session.

ing because it typifies the smaller teacher education institution. During the orientation, new evaluators will also visit Eastern Michigan University, typical of larger and graduate schools of education.

Evaluation, which usually takes place at a college of education every 10 years, was completed at Madonna College in 1972, with the college receiving full accreditation.

Participating in the training session, in addition to Sr. Karen, will be Dr. Elmer Jacobs, former professor of education, Elmhurst College, Elmhurst, Ill.; Louis S. Cohen, coordinator of mathematics, Thomas Jefferson High School, Bloomington, Minn.; David Briggs, teacher, Clarendon Hills High School, Clarendon Hills, Ill.; Mrs. Andrena G. Dancer, teacher, Mason, Mich.; Dr. Richard Dietrich, dean, School of Arts and Sciences, Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant, Mich.

Also, Sr. Geraldine Haas, academic dean, Nazareth College, Nazareth, Mich.; Sara Livingston, principal, Giddings School, Cleveland, O.; Dawson Orman, principal, Atherton High School, Louisville, Ky.; Denis Skogland, teacher, Kingsford, Mich.; Barbara Stevens, teacher, Rochester, N. Y.; Dr. Douglas Ward, NEA director for Michigan; and D. Sara Boling, Michigan Department of Education.

ST. MATTHEW LUTHERAN CHURCH, located at 5885 Vencoy in Westland, is easy for passers-by to identify now. Recently a member of the Missouri Synod congregation donated a $2,500 illuminated sign to tell the world the church's name, service time, hours for Sunday school and Bible classes and the name of the Rev. Ralph Fischer, pastor. Viewing the new sign are, from left, Harold Klein, principal of St. Matthew day school, Pastor Fischer and Ray Heinert, a member of the congregation. Rev. Lester Kinsolving's Religion Update

When CBS decided last summer to rebroadcast two segments of the nationally televised "Maude" show, both of which dealt favorably with abortion and vasectomy, the national headquarters of the Catholic Church here swung into action. The result, as reported proudly by top public relations men Robert Beusse and Russel Shaw of the United States Catholic Conference, was that: "38 CBS stations around the country declined to carry the two programs, five more moved them out of early evening viewing hours, one provided prime time for presentation of an opposing viewpoint — and all but one of the scheduled national advertisers withdrew from participation in the programs."

No such protest was organized, however, when CBS produced an anti-abortion program entitled "A Brand New Life," or when Marcus Welby, MD (ABC) took a similar anti-abortion stance. Apparently flushed with a sense of victory in their successful censorship and economic boycotting of any television view on abortion other than the one held by their own denomination, Beusse and Shaw have now "exposed" the Maude program as something of a Methodist plot. According to them, Maude programs "may in large part have owed their origin to the efforts of a hard-driving pressure group called the Population Institute."

Incidentally Beusse and Shaw are the top PR men for what columnist Jack Anderson has described as "far and away the most powerful religious lobby in Capitol Hill. Clergy (from the Catholic Conference) have called on Supreme Court Justice William Brennan to tell him how he should cast his vote."

The Population Institute, note Beusse and Shaw, is located "in the Methodist Building, only a stone's throw from the Capitol and the Supreme Court," and is headed by a Methodist minister. How did the Population Institute exert the "hard driving pressure" which resulted in Maude? Why, reported Beusse and Shaw, the Institute actually went so far as to invite TV writers and producers to luncheons, and to offer them awards for excellence in script writing. When asked about this invitation to the minuscule Methodist-Catholic holy war, the Population Institute's president, the Rev. Rodney Shaw, replied: "To label the tactic of economic boycott and discourse with the same word 'pressure' is, I believe, to do violence to the facts and to the English language."

Rev. Shaw the Methodist also produced an interesting exhibit arranged by Dr. Roberts Rugh, a radiologist from Rockville, Md. The exhibit consisted of photographs of five different embryos in a collage, with the question, "Which is human?"

When shown this exhibit and asked this question The Catholic Conference's Shaw congenially but firmly refused even to guess. Because, with a crafty glint in his eyes replied, "They're all human!" And so did Bishop John May of the Diocese of Mobile.

Msgr. James McHugh, also of national Catholic headquarters, selected photograph number 4 which happened to be of a four-day-old chicken.

The five photographs did contain one human embryo, more than one month old, which none of the four was able to distinguish from the embryos of a mouse, a turtle, a chicken and a pig (an interesting result, considering what the Catholic-edited Commonweal magazine lamented as "full page dead fetus pictures in the diocesan press").

But writer William ("Wild Bill") Marshner of Minnesota's ultra conservative weekly The Wanderer, who also declined to guess which of the five embryos was human, retorted, "It doesn't make any difference which ones are human."

Then, after a split second, he reconsidered, adding hastily: "Uh—I mean you can't SEE the difference."

Woman On The Go!

English Teacher Is Skater

By MARGARET MILLER

Would you expect an English teacher at Farmington Junior High School to start giving advice for dancing on ice?

Or the figure - skating instructor at the Plymouth Cultural Center suddenly dispensing information on grammar and the five Ws?

It's possible, though not likely, because the two teachers are one and the same person, an energetic young woman named Jeanne Young.

This Farmington resident is working two jobs, reversing the order of most moonlighters.

Twice a week, from 6 to 7 a.m., she teaches figure skating at the Plymouth Cultural Center and then heads for Farmington Junior High for a full schedule of English classes, to say nothing of acting as advisor for the school newspaper, the Red and White.

"I'm really excited about the skating classes," said Mrs. Young, who got back on the ice a year ago after a nine-year time away.

She had taken skating lessons throughout her childhood, but gave them up after she married Gerald Young, now Farmington High track coach. She also became mother to Jeff, now 10, and Nancy, seven, and began teaching five years ago at FJH.

"I went back to skating seriously last year," she said, "and I'm starting work as a teacher because the Plymouth Skating Club really needed a dance teacher."

"Plymouth is one of the few rinks in this area where figure skating is encouraged along with free skating and hockey. I have six students right now and two more are ready as soon as I can add them to my schedule. There will probably be more later when more ice time opens up."

Skating used to be one of Jeanne Young's favorite occupations, but she never really considered skating professionally. "because I was too tall for a line!"

She said she went back to skating, planning to complete training for silver and gold medals in U.S. and Canadian skating associations and to train to be a judge. Then came the opportunity to teach and she decided to try it.

It meant a few changes in her way of life.

"I get up at five every morning, both the days I go to Plymouth and the ones I don't," she said. "I was amazed at how many papers I got corrected one early morning without television and family distractions."

She also is putting in more time on her own on the ice, polishing up on beginning steps for her students and continuing work toward the medal examinations. She was working on her last pre-silver performance level before she quit, and by summer expects to complete her silver and then go on to the gold level.

And there is work on routines with partner Tom Caribardi of Dearborn, a figure-skating teacher at both Plymouth and Wyandotte.

The schedule at the junior high is about the same. Mrs. Young has classes in drama, journalism and creative writing and science fiction as her part in a pilot program of English instruction in the school.

There are a couple of changes, though, in some extra activities.

"I've announced all the track meets at Farmington High since my husband has been coach," she said, "and I guess that probably will have to end when I get more students."

And after next summer she intends to give up work on the Farmington Founders Festival. She is first vice chairman for the 1974 festival, which means she's in charge of all special events, including parade, the queens' competition and the fireworks.

"Working on the festival has been fun and a real challenge all the way," she said, "but I think six years is long enough."

"I may be pretty busy."

recently director of the Michigan Consumer Council.

Women interested in volunteering should call Miss Gray at the YWCA office, 1034 Monroe, Dearborn.

FOCUS

WELL-CHOSEN GIFTS

1973 may be the year we all learn how to make a little glitter go a long way.

Ever-rising prices are an excellent reason why we should stop trying to outspend our budgets at this time of year.

Why feel that we must give the most lavish present ever, to prove our love and devotion? A well-chosen small gift conveys the same message — especially when the giver puts her own time and talents into the creation.

CAPPING THE LIST of fashion accessories wanted by every female this season is: a knitted cap. Pattern books will give you dozens of ideas for jiffy caps to knit or crochet. To give the cap a Christmasy look, choose a yarn that's spangled with silver or gold.

A GRANDMOTHER OR A TEEN-AGER would love a handmade shawl. Use huge needles, and you'll whiz along. White is the best color because it goes over anything, all year long. For a tweedy effect, knit with two threads at once — one in white, and one in the recipient's favorite basic shade such as navy or camel.

GLAMOUR GIRLS on your gift list will adore a box of eye-shadow powder in one of the new silvery or goldspun colors. Choose a fairly neutral shade of silver or gold, and it can be worn over any other eye-shadow color. Thus, the glamour girl gets the most mileage from your money.

Is there an old fur piece around that's worn out its welcome? Salvage enough for collar and cuffs to sew on a bulky cardigan. If you don't know how to sew skins, get a book on the subject, or ask your furrier for a lesson.

THE FUR-TRIMMED CARDIGAN, all the rage in Paris, may be too divine to give away. In that case, make it your own personal Christmas wrap!

Keep holiday entertaining in proportion too. Instead of buying an expensive hostess gown, treat yourself to a new hairstyle. One of the fluffy new cap cuts will make last year's dress look entirely different. Add a little glitter for evenings with long rhinestone earrings, lots of dazzle for the dollars.

The more you try to keep Christmas in proportion, the merrier it can be. Just remember that red belongs on hollyberries, not in your checkbook.

Christmas Potpourri

FUN, FUNCTIONAL GIFTS at $1 or less from the stationery department can make Christmas stocking stuffing an inexpensive, one-stop shopping affair.

YULE STOCKING STUFFERS

A grab bag of fun-filled Christmas spirit — that's a stuffed Christmas stocking.

No other Yuletide custom offers so many opportunities for imaginative gift-giving, whether you're aiming your gifts for fun, usefulness, or both. Why not hang a stocking for every member of the family, then set a $1 limit on the price of any gift dropped in. That way, you can afford to let even the youngsters get in on the shopping, and watch their Christmas spirits soar.

An often overlooked, bountiful source of $1-or-less stocking stuffers for the entire family is your local stationery store or the stationery department of the five-and-dime or department store. With the wide variety of "fun and functional" items available there, stocking stuffer shopping can be an inexpensive one-stop affair.

FOR THE YOUNGSTERS, there are pencil sharpeners in all shapes and colors. Novelty pencil sharpeners shaped like spiders, TV sets or airplanes are sure to please any school youngster. You might even find one of the small plastic pencil sharpeners that sells for only a nickel — the same price it sold for when it first was offered in 1946!

A combination sharpener/ruler/pencil box with a multiplication table printed on top and a couple of pencils inside sells for only 39 cents. For the little girl in the family, you might put a smile on her face as she corrects her mistakes by giving her erasers made in the shape of tiny Oriental dolls.

Stuff Dad's stocking with a $1-or-less pen-and-pencil caddy with a built-in sharpener or a stapler set, T-square, slide rule and staple remover to make his home office work easier.

FOR MOM, there are novelty note pads and magnetic memo holders for use in the kitchen, or a small photo album to keep all those memory-filled Christmas photographs in order.

And you're bound to please the teenage girl in your family with a telephone and address book or a one-year diary, complete with lock and key.

Among the many other stationery store stocking stuffers meeting the $1 limit are handy hand-size adding machines for Mother's grocery shopping, pocket dictionaries, and an almost limitless variety of other budget-priced gifts that you'll probably find your family still using when Christmas rolls around again next year.

BRIDGE

We live in a world of bridges, not all of which are constructed of steel and cement. One of the most important bridges in today's world is still under construction, the bridge of understanding...between peoples and nations...spanning racial, economic, political and language barriers. Another important bridge is the bridge of print...bringing people together in a buying and selling situation. The bridge is a newspaper ad.

An advertisement in your newspaper is unparalleled in bringing people together quickly, economically and effectively. When you need to communicate with a customer or if you have something to sell through a want ad...use the most convenient bridge available...the pages of your hometown newspaper.

Gasoline Crisis Hits Florida Vacation Plans

Reduced gasoline supplies, the Sunday gas sales ban and a 50-mile-per-hour maximum speed limit could force more than 110,000 Michiganders to cancel planned winter vacation trips to Florida, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

"We had expected an estimated 740,000 state residents to travel to the 'Sunshine State' this winter, a 10 per cent increase over last winter," Auto Club Touring Manager Joseph Ratke points out. "Due to the severity of the present energy crisis, we feel at least 15 per cent of those persons will change their minds."

"Persons driving to Florida will be forced to alter their plans so as not to travel Saturday night or Sunday when gas stations are closed," explains Ratke.

"The trip down also will take motorists an average of nine hours added driving time (from Detroit to Miami) at the reduced speed of 50 mph," he says. "While it took an average 24 hours total driving time from Detroit to Miami at 70 mph, it will take 33 hours at 50 mph."

Ratke says that a normal three-day driving trip from Detroit to Miami, including two overnight stays, now will take four days.

Air travelers also will feel the pinch because of increased demand for seating and the possibility of further flight cutbacks.

"So far, major airlines have canceled only a handful of flights to Florida and other warm-weather destinations, but the expected cuts in fuel for planes may cause airlines to drastically alter present flight schedules," Ratke adds.

"Travelers presently without airline reservations to Florida for the Christmas-New Year's holiday probably will have to find alternate ways to get there."

Last spring, Auto Club experienced its heaviest demand ever for Florida travel routings with requests up 45 per cent in April and May.

"Since June - when fuel shortage scares developed - requests have increased less than two per cent," he states.

Michiganians visiting Florida this winter will find Walt Disney World, near Orlando, Florida's biggest entertainment draw. However, new and expanded attractions have sprouted in all sections of the state.

Heralded as the largest marine park in the world, the $30 million Sea World of Florida is scheduled to open in December on 125 acres near Orlando.

Also near Orlando is a concrete and steel structure - resembling a large circus tent - opening this month as a preview center for the mammoth $50 million Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus World.

In the Space Coast area, water craft with space craft when visitors board the exact replica of Christopher Columbus' 1492 flagship, the Santa Maria, which has dropped anchor on the Indian River, near Titusville.

The Space Coast visitor can hop aboard another vessel, a converted World War II PT boat that offers two-hour cruises of the Indian River and Cape Kennedy areas.

At Kissimmee, a new stadium-size exhibition hall houses the SST, America's supersonic aircraft. The SST, never completed for lack of funds, will be the focal point of a display on aviation, 40 miles from the Kennedy Space Center.

Among other new attractions are scenic boat cruises in the Tampa-St. Petersburg area, a zoological park in Sanford (near Orlando), a museum of old dolls and toys in Winter Haven plus major refurbishing projects at Tampa's Busch Gardens and Cypress Gardens.

"The seemingly endless line-up of similar attractions across Florida is a major reason why motorists should select the best routes to and from destination to conserve travel time and fuel," Ratke suggests.

Auto Club's accompanying map shows the four easiest and safest routes to Florida, one including a partial alternate. The routes are labeled A, B, C and D.

In terms of miles traveled, Route A, along I-75 through Cincinnati, Knoxville and around Atlanta is the shortest year-round route for East and Southeast Michigan motorists. It is 1,406 miles long with 1,363 miles of four-lane-highway, 23 miles more than last year. Tolls are $4.90 to Miami.

The route has only about 50 miles of semi-mountainous country in Kentucky and Tennessee. A bypass of Atlanta (I-26) offers relief for traffic in that area.

Since last year, 19 miles of I-75 have opened in Tennessee with 26 more scheduled for completion by January. This leaves a gap of about 30 miles in Tennessee.

West Michigan motorists will find Route B the most direct to Miami by taking US-31 from Michigan, connecting with I-65 in Indianapolis, then I-24 to Chattanooga from Nashville and following I-75 south from there.

Although this 1,461-mile route is 55 miles and 90 minutes longer than Route A, it offers the most miles of four-lane highway from Detroit to Miami. Tolls are $5.40.

In winter, the northern portion of Route B, which has practically no mountain driving, usually is in better condition than the other routes. When weather is bad in the Chattanooga-Atlanta area, driving south from Nashville to Montgomery along I-65, then east along US-92 to Tifton, Ga., and connecting with I-75 (Route B-1 on the map) provides a good alternative.

Longest of the routes is C at 1,600 miles, 13 miles less than last year due to an altering of the route. Divided highway is 1,227 miles, two miles less than last year. Tolls are $8.30. Motorists should check winter road conditions in Ohio and Pennsylvania before using this route.

Route D is recommended for spring, summer and fall travel. In winter, snow and ice conditions in West Virginia and North Carolina may make roads hazardous. This is the most scenic route. The mileage is 1,490 with 1,127 of it freeway, 36 miles more than last year. Tolls are $6.85.

Replace Pairs

Shock absorbers on a car should always be replaced in pairs, that is, both front or both rear, according to auto experts. Replacing only one shock will throw the suspension out of balance.

Ford The Grid Star Filled A Gap At 'M'

By W.W. EDGAR

Memories of a young fellow trying to fill a gap in the middle of the line on the University of Michigan football team 40 years ago came rolling back for Wally Weber when he learned that Gerald Ford had been confirmed as vice president of the United States to succeed Spiro Agnew.

Wally, a star in his own right under the coaching of Fielding H. (Hurry Up) Yost, was the backfield coach when the young fellow from Grand Rapids, who now is the vice president, made his bid for a place on the varsity team.

"I remember him well," Wally remarked. "You won't have to worry about him. He'll do a good job. He may not be as colorful as some of those Washington politicians but he is an honest worker and battling in a tough situation is nothing new for him."

Wally recalled that Ford came along at a time when there was a big gap in the young fellow trying to win a place on the varsity - following two All-Americans. But that was the job young Ford tackled."

At that time, in the early '30s, the late Harry Kipke, one of Michigan's football immortals, was head coach. He was installing what was known as the short punt formation type of play. This was in the days before the single wing and the other tricky offenses of today's style of play.

"The short punt system," Wally explained, "demanded a special type of center and Kipke placed his trust in this young Grand Rapids boy. It wasn't misplaced."

"Jerry not only filled the gap in the middle of our line, but he became one of the outstanding short punt formation centers in the country."

"That's the kind of a fellow he is, so we won't have to worry about him as a vice president."

"He'll do a good job."

Township of Plymouth Planning Commission recommended denial. Supervisor McLaren informed the Board that the Wayne County Planning Commission will not take action until the following day; they will not meet until that time. Mrs. Richardson advised that she had asked the applicant if they would prefer to wait, but they requested that it be on this agenda and that action be taken. Mr. John Weeks, representing Realtor Industries, said the proposed project would be a 20 million dollar project and would have a beneficial effect on the Community. They have purchased the property and plan on building - they are not speculators. They built the Telephone Company building at Marquette and Plymouth Roads, built approximately 1200 dwelling units each year and own approximately 4000 units. The area is now a parking lot, which pays $12,000 in taxes now, and will produce approximately $50,000 to the School District when completed. According to reports, apartments of the planned type would produce less than 100 students, which would probably add no more than 20 to the High School, 20 to a Middle School and 40 to the Elementary Schools. Their company has current projects at Westland, Wayne and Dearborn and stated that they do have the ability to perform. Mrs. Richardson read a letter from the Community Improvement Association, in which they objected to the proposed rezoning. Mr. Ash explained that the split decision of the Planning Commission resulted from the concern of some of the members that the rezoning would take land from the land not set aside for industrial zoning; on the other hand, a recent study of Wayne County showed there is land used industrial in excess of the Comprehensive Development Plan. Another thought from some Planning Commission was that the High Rise District does not conform to the strict interpretation of the Zoning Ordinance's definition. This would probably create a bench mark of how the High Rise zoning would be applied in the future. The other High Rise zoning in the Township fits a logical pattern. According to the Ordinance, the purpose of a High Rise zoning is to provide locations for structures three stories or more in height adjacent to freeways and for major thoroughfares as a transitional zone between such rights-of-way and other districts. Mr. Don Horace, representing Realtor Industries, pointed out that the requested rezoning, he felt, would fit in with the existing use of the area. Across the street is a commercial use. Along Plymouth Road on the south side, there is mixed commercial and industrial. To the west is Range Park, and the logical use along any park is for residential; therefore, the High-Rise use of the land would be an integral part of the Parkway. The apartments on Plymouth Road adjacent to the park have been there for many years and have never been idle. Across the Railroad right-of-way is R-2-A zoning. He felt they did fit the intent of the High-Rise zoning. The units, according to Mr. Horace, would be self contained. The complex owners would provide their own recreation and community center. There would be trash pickup within the complex, using compactors to dispose of most waste. There would be no incinerators and they would conform with the Wayne County air pollution control in every way. They would provide guard service for a controlled entrance, also closed circuit TV, therefore there would be no added police problems to the area. It was his contention that the Commercial area would augment the Residential, and the Residential area would augment the Commercial area. He suggested also that the Board might consider Plymouth Road and Haggerty Road as major thoroughfares, knowing they will both be widened and improved in the near future. Another thought he offered was that the Complex could be considered as transitional between Burroughs and the Parkway. It was also his contention that it had been proven that apartments produce the greatest return as far as taxes are concerned for the least amount of service required. Mrs. Holmes asked if both zonings must go together? Could the commercial development be considered without the High-Rise development? Mr. Horace replied that this was very expensive property and would need to be developed in a logical nature. It would be a terrific gamble to develop only the commercial area. Also, he felt the park has much to offer for apartments. Helen Richardson moved to deny the Planning Commission's recommendation and approve the rezoning of 9.7 acres on the north-west corner of Plymouth and Haggerty Roads from M-2 to C-2 for a commercial center. Supported by Mr. Overholt and carried unanimously.

Donald Levy, Southeast Michigan Council of Governments. Re: Flood Plain studies to be conducted along Troupish and Willow Creek. Mr. Millington moved to pass the resolution on the Flood Plain studies in regard to Troupish and Willow Creeks. Supported by Russell Ash and carried unanimously.

The Board members had all received a copy of a letter to be sent to Michigan Department of State Highways and Transportation over the signature of the Township Supervisor, wherein they requested that the Highway Department work with them in planning the Ann Arbor Road Corridor by cooperating with them on the planning needed at the I-275 interchange, keeping in mind that this is a "gateway" into Plymouth. Mr. Ash moved that letter previously adopted by the Planning Commission be adopted as well by the Township Board and sent to Mr. Woodford over the signature of the Township Supervisor. Supported by Mrs. Richardson and carried unanimously.

Gene Overholt moved to adjourn the meeting. Supported by Frank Millington. Supervisor McLaren adjourned the meeting at 11:59 P.M.
