

RU sinks WL Central; dunked by Allen Park

Redford Union's swim squad captured the 400 freestyle relay and all but one individual event to top Walled Lake Central in a non-league dual meet, 105-66, but then fell victim to Allen Park on the final event, 42-41.

Allen Park won the 200 medley relay in a Suburban Eight loop meet but RU splashed back with six of nine individual firsts. It was down to the 400 freestyle relay and the Parkers clocked in at 3:35.5 for the victory.

RU is now 4-6 overall and winless in three Sub Eight outings.

Randy Hurn who was a double winner for RU in both meets, set an Allen Park pool record with a 5:26.8 clocking in the 500 freestyle.

Cagers plunge 108-157

By TOM DONOGHUE
Sports editor

The 30-inch, 22-ounce basketball took a deflated dip this week in Observerland.

The 19 school contingency sputtered to an eight win-22 loss showing, thus dipping Observerland's cage winning percentage to .401, a major slip from last week's .426.

Tuesday's eight game slate showed Garden City West and three Livonia schools in Churchill, Franklin and Stevenson emerge victors while St. Agatha, Bentley, Garden City East, Farmington Harrison and North Farmington slipped a notch.

A 16-game card this week-end shows early signs of better pickings for area preps with an eight win-11 loss prediction sure to boost that sliding overall percentage.

Garden City West received the biggest boost Tuesday night in the mad scramble to the Tri-River crown. West bombarded Taylor Kennedy, 70-47, while previous front-runner Riverside tumbled. Now there exists a three-way tie between West, Riverside and Cherry Hill. All three sport 7-2 marks with Melvindale a step behind with a 6-3 showing.

The West Tigers got off to a slow start against Kennedy which it tied at 12-all after one period and the Tigers holding a slim, 29-27 lead at the half.

Third quarter action broke things open as West hit eight of 21 from the floor and popped in 21 points while Kennedy connected on only three of 10 from the floor. West sprinted to a 50-33 advantage heading into the last eight minutes.

West continued its drive in the fourth, 20-14, to finish 25 of 54 from the floor for 46 per cent and Kennedy, 18 of 50 for 36 per cent. It was West's 10th victory overall against five losses.

Livonia Stevenson won its third game in its last four in a 65-55 fashion over West Bloomfield. Overall it was Stevenson's sixth victory against eight defeats.

The Spartans jumped to a 15-1 first quarter lead, let it fall to 32-31 at the half, but broke it open with a 20 point third quarter while holding Bloomfield to just seven.

Stevenson hit 21 of 55 from the field for 38 per cent and Bloomfield, 20 of 62 for 32 per cent. Dale Haberman's 13 rebounds and Ray Davis' 10 assists paced the Spartans.

North Farmington almost pulled off a major non-league upset.

Ken Dean's Raiders trailed heavily favored Ferndale, 47-45, with 4:18 remaining. That's when the North roof fell in and Ferndale reeled off 16 straight points to top the Raider crew, 63 to 45.

"We just started gambling and everything worked against us," commented Dean whose North crew stands at 8-6 overall.

Ferndale finished 31 of 56 from the floor for 55 per cent and North, 17 of 37 for 46 per cent.

Flint Central handed Bentley its fifth straight setback, 51-49. A one-time 7-2 Bulldog mark has now slipped to a seven-all showing.

Bentley sputtered off to a 13-8 first quarter lead and held on at the half, 25-24. It was nip-and-tuck the rest of the way with Flint copping a 14-10 third quarter advantage.

With 40 seconds remaining, Don Kegley sprinted to the Bentley basket and popped in a bucket that would have given Bentley a 51-50 lead.

Instead Kegley was called for charging, the basket nullified and Flint made good one of two free-throws and the Bulldogs, who shot only 33 per cent from the field, missed on a last second 15 footer to fall to defeat.

The area's No. 1 club again received a gift.

Livonia Churchill, now 13-1 overall and 6-0 in the Western six, came up with one of its poorest showings ever last Friday but luckily for the Chargers it came against a now 2-12 Farmington Harrison crew.

Such was not the case against Garden City East on Tuesday. Not that it was against a falling squad because East had won its last three games, but the Chargers faced the poorest performance a Billy Joe Young club has ever come up with in his 16 years of coaching.

Churchill ripped East, 58-36.

The Chargers, who face Walled Lake Western tonight, sputtered to a 12-2 first quarter margin, East hitting on only one of 16 tosses from the field. The rest was all a formality as Churchill won the second, 12-10, the third period, 16-15, and the last eight minutes, 18-9.

East wound up 15 of 72 for 21 per cent. That's 57 missed

Disagreements may kill study on consolidation

By EDWARD WENDOVER

PLYMOUTH -- Disagreement between city and township officials appears to be lessening the chance of getting a consolidation study made for the two local governments.

Although both the Plymouth Township Board and the Plymouth City Commission have formally voted to co-sponsor a consolidation study by Michigan State University, disagreement has arisen over the proposed content of that study.

The disagreement has delayed the study's start at least one week and has led MSU to have second thoughts about the project.

"I'm disenchanted with the whole situation," said Kenneth Verburg, an associate professor with MSU's Institute for Community Development and Services.

The hearing will begin at 10 a.m. in the township fire station at Canton Center and Cherry Hill roads.

Representatives from the Michigan Dept. of Natural Resources, the Michigan State Police, the Wayne County Sheriff's Dept. and the township will be at the hearing.

The Plymouth Mail & Observer has received numerous complaints from Canton residents about hunting in populated areas of the community.

Comments in writing also will be accepted at the hearing and should be addressed to Canton Township Hall, 44506 Geddes Rd., Belleville, and should be marked as comment for the hearing on the outside of the envelope.

That memorandum said research would start by updating the Citizens' Research Council (CRC) report on consolidation made in 1968.

Township officials reacted by saying they preferred an entirely new study be made, something that the MSU researchers would also really prefer, Verburg said.

"We'd rather not do that (use parts of the CRC report). We'd rather do our own thing," he told The Plymouth Mail & Observer.

"But we considered what we could do within the time frame, and we indicated we would have to use that CRC report."

The MSU researcher added he was not overly pleased with the CRC report but that the limited time available to make a new study meant some information in the previous study would have to be used.

The MSU memorandum did not specify that the new report would include a study of economics related to consolidation - another sore point with the township board, which had stipulated in its resolution approving the MSU study that it include a study of economics (taxes, cost of services, etc.)

Disenchantment with the MSU proposal led township officials to again propose getting University of Michigan to conduct a separate study that would also be funded equally by the city and township.

Although city officials have so far scoffed at that idea, township officials met with U-M researchers Thursday to discuss a consolidation study.

It was not clear whether the township would fund a U-M study by itself if the city did not agree to co-sponsor it.

One fish dies

The following "obituary" written by Jeanne De Venny appeared in Gallimore Elementary School's "The Daily Planet."

"Mrs. (Kathleen) Schmidt's fish died Dec. 26. She had two fish in the tank in her room and they got a tropical disease called 'ich' (ik). She called up the fish store and they said to use 'ich-out.' But one died."

SNOW!

SHOVELING all the snow we got Wednesday seemed like an endless task to Carol Brenner of 6948 Willow Drive, Canton, when she tried to clear the driveway so her husband could drive in when he returned from work. The blizzard that kept many outlying township roads only partially passable on Thursday forced Plymouth school officials to close school an hour early Wednesday afternoon. ## C&O Railroad says: 'We have problems too'

By W.W. EDGAR

PLYMOUTH -- If you are part of the vast army of motorists who become disturbed and complain bitterly about the long delays at the railroad crossings in the Plymouth community, it will come as a surprise to learn that the C&O officials are just as disturbed and anxious to eliminate them.

"These protesters seem to forget that we have schedules to meet and any delay can upset our whole program," Robert Stachwiski, terminal train master in the Plymouth yards, commented while discussing the problem that has been prevalent in the area for years.

"That means," he said, "that there is an average of 3,000 cars traveling over the tracks each 24 hours. And don't forget, most of our equipment is at least 10 years old. That means we are prone to breakdowns."

"When these things happen," he added, "we try to cooperate with the public as much as possible. We immediately notify the officials in City Hall of the trouble so they can re-route ambuequipment, are of vital concern to us, too."

As an afterthought he added, "I wonder what these protesters would think if they were fined every time their automobiles broke down in the middle of the road. Yet, that's what happens to the railroad."

The terminal master admitted that the railroad is battling the law of averages every hour of the day. He explained that there are about 40 trains a day going through the area averaging 75 cars each.

"That means," he said, "that there is an average of 3,000 cars traveling over the tracks each 24 hours. And don't forget, most of our equipment is at least 10 years old. That means we are prone to breakdowns."

"When these things happen," he added, "we try to cooperate with the public as much as possible. We immediately notify the officials in City Hall of the trouble so they can re-route ambulances and the like during the emergency."

Another thing that has added to the long delays is the change in construction of the freight cars. Until about 10 years ago, it was explained, the cars had an average length of 40 to 50 feet. Now, they have an over-all length of 60 to 90 feet. This makes the trains much longer and increases the length of the delay when a breakdown occurs.

These breakdowns, according to Harry Rodman, the yardmaster, may be caused by any of the following reasons:

- The train has parted.
- The train has become uncoupled due to a mechanical failure.
- Has a ruptured air hose.
- Train is derailed.

When any of these things happen, according to Rodman, the automatic air brakes are applied on the entire train. No portion of the train can be moved until the shots, while Churchill shot 46 per cent, 27 of 59, Don Braun popping in 22 points.

Farmington Harrison suffered its 12th defeat at the hands of Birmingham Seaholm, 72-47.

The 2-12 Harrison crew led at the half, 27-24 but fell apart at the seams in the second half with Seaholm winning the third quarter, 26-12 and the fourth, 22-8.

Harrison got off only 15 shots in the second half, finishing 15 of 39 overall for 38 per cent. Seaholm shot 29 of 52 for 55 per cent.

Franklin High won its 10th contest in 13 outings on a last second shot from Jamie Knapp to top Dearborn, 55-54.

It was 12-9 Dearborn after one quarter, and 24-23 in favor of Franklin at the half. Franklin spurred to a 41-38 advantage after three quarters but with one minute remaining, a bucket by Jim Tracz gave Dearborn a 54-53 lead.

Franklin mentor Bob Visser elected to let the clock run down and with six seconds left, Knapp popped in a short jumper and the Patriots took it all.

Knapp finished with 15 points and Kevin Kaseta with 14 as Franklin hit 19 of 50 from the field for 38 per cent and Dearborn, 21 of 56 for 37 per cent. Franklin won the boards, 40-24.

Now comes the home stretch towards "March Madness" with hopes of improving the 108 win - 157 loss mark in the area.

Harrison swims by Northville, 106-66

Farmington Harrison won nine of 11 events and dunked Northville 106 - 66. It was the worst defeat ever for Northville at the hands of Harrison.

Harrison is now 5-0 in the Western Six swim race.

Double victors for Harrison were Jeff Hornacek and Mike Rado. Hornacek won the 200 individual medley and the 100 butterfly and Rado the 200 and 100 freestyle. Results:

Nature walks, ice fishing are big

school is topic

For the hardy, there's no need to slow down in southeastern Michigan's outdoors during February. Two nature walks and plenty of ice fishing are on tap.

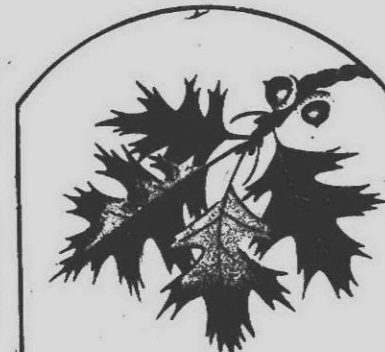

On Saturday the 16th, Cranbrook naturalist Wayne Koser will lead a walk from 2 to 4 p.m. along the Institute of Science nature center trails.

The winter ecosystem, hibernation and animal tracks will be on view. Park at the nature center behind the Institute of Science building at 500 Lone Pine Road. The charge is museum admission — $1.50 for adults, 75 cents for full time students and senior citizens, free for museum members.

KENSINGTON Metro-park's nature center will offer a nature walk on Sunday the 17th at 9 a.m. Naturalist Patricia Eising says features will be evidences of Canada geese, birds, raccoon, deer and fox.

Ol' Lem can testify to that. Last week he saw five deer cross the road on the way into the park and a flock of 130 geese (no kiddin' — we counted 'em) in that park.

Both naturalists advise you to dress warmly and wear outdoor boots.

AS THE ICE gets "old," fish are moving around in our lakes. The spots that were productive early in the season may not be so hot now, so fishermen should expect to have to move around to find the schools.

DNR officers report good size bluegills coming from Heron Lake, large crappies from Stony Creek Lake, but just "some" bluegills from Oxbow, Pontiac and White lakes with quite a few perch. The perch that our group got last week were heavy with eggs and spawn.

Speaking of fish and the DNR, the department's recent Pontiac headquarters bulletin says more than 3.2 million fish were planted in southeastern Michigan last year.

Efforts are being made to re-establish the walleye population. Some two million of that sport big brother of the perch were planted in the Huron River in Livingston County and the St. Clair River. Kent and Cass lakes received thousands of northern pike and walleye fingerlings. Belleville Lake in western Wayne County received trout, bass and bluegills after it was cleaned out last fall.

Says Ron Spittler, fisheries biologist: "Recent severe budget cuts may reduce our efforts over the next few years, but we'll do our darnest to keep the metro fishing program going."

Fred Andress, science teacher at Salem High School, will be speaker for the Monday, Feb. 11, meeting of the Plymouth Women's National Farm and Garden Association. It will be in the home of Mrs. Ethel North, 44436 Charnwood, Plymouth, at 1 p.m.

Andress will tell about his experiences when he attended the state natural resources department's environmental school at Higgins Lake under sponsorship of the Plymouth garden club last summer.

*SYNOPSIS OF MINUTES
Board of Education
Livonia Public Schools
Regular Meeting
January 21, 1974

The following is a summary, in synopsis form, of the Board of Education's regular meeting of January 21, 1974. The full text of the minutes is on file in the office of the Superintendent, 15125 Farmington Road, and in the principal's office of each school, and is available to the public on request.

President Brown convened the meeting at 8:15 p.m. Members present: Charles Ahey, William Brown, Constance Hertz, Geraldine Joyner, Marvin Prigdon, Mark Seary, Martin Seltz. Members absent: None.

WCSD Budget Hearing: Resolution by Joyner and Seltz that William C. Brown be appointed as voting delegate for the Wayne County Intermediate School District's 1974-75 budget hearing, February 15, 1974, and that Charles D. Rosch be appointed as alternate. Ayes: Ahey, Brown, Hertz, Joyner, Prigdon, Seary, Seltz. Nays: None.

Communications were received as follows: Communications from parents regarding school starting times; reminder of MABE Midwinter Conference, February 4; communication from Flint Board of Education regarding labor negotiations; Transportation Bill is expected to be approved by the State Senate this week.

Legislation: It was reported that provisions in pending legislation which had been of concern to Schoolcraft College have now been modified and the concerns have been removed; therefore, Board action is not necessary. A letter from the Webster Community Council referring to their communication and petition, dated January 2, requesting a walkway along the north side of the school with a connecting "T" leading to the rear entrance. The Webster Council feels the sidewalk in front of the building which was previously approved by the Board would be of no use and, in fact, could provide an unsafe place where children are discharged from cars and have to walk across the parking lot and driveway. Mr. Ray explained the front sidewalk had been approved as a part of the City's recommended sidewalk program. He said the Webster Council's request is valid and the staff will report back to the Board recommending a sidewalk in back of the school instead of front. Mr. Seltz noted that the City had recommended the sidewalk to provide a continuous walkway and this should be considered in terms of City/school cooperation. Mr. Bessell said the City will be contacted with regard to the matter.

School Schedules: Douglas Ray, chairman of the Churchill Student/Teacher Forum, presented majority and minority reports concerning the change in school schedules. The majority report was accompanied by petitions containing about 1000 signatures. The majority report stated the Forum is opposed to the change in schedules, feeling it has caused great inconvenience to the student body, particularly to those who must report to work immediately following the school day. Three alternatives were suggested to be considered for next year. The minority report, signed by four members of the Forum, indicated opposition to the petition circulated at Churchill. It was stated that the Forum decided to back the petition by a simple majority vote. The minority report also indicated an opinion that the excuse that the later dismissal time affects a number of students is being overworked; less than 20 students have reported this to be a problem.

Glenda Cox, president of the Bentley Student Council, thanked the Board for taking into consideration all of the problems involved in the DST situation. She also thanked Mrs. Joyner, Mr. Froch, Mr. Ray and Mr. Thayer for meeting with students and noted that, as first, Bentley students were broadly opposed to the change but the meeting had clarified the situation and changed their reactions.

Approval of Minutes: Minutes and synopsis of December 10, 1973, were approved as revised. Minutes and synopsis of the meetings of December 17, December 24, January 7, and January 10 were approved as written.

Energy Crisis: Fuel oil and gasoline supplies continue to be adequate. Price increases are also continuing. The Board questioned the impact of price increases on the 1974-75 budget, and it was agreed that a report will be given to the Board on January 28. Mr. Seltz reiterated his opinion that reduced bus stops would result in 10-15% in gas savings. Mr. Seary again asked that it be stressed to teachers that there are no plans to close school due to the energy crisis.

Bills for Payment: Resolution by Prigdon and Seltz to approve for payment General Fund checks, Nos. 4281 through 4285, in the amount of $6,561,200.23, including an investment in savings receipts in the amount of $1,100,000. Ayes: Ahey, Brown, Hertz, Joyner, Prigdon, Seary, Seltz. Nays: None.

Midyear Staffing: Dr. Whisler reported that, due to the flexibility which was built into this area of the 1973-74 budget, there will be no problems relative to midyear staffing.

Approval of Teachers: Resolution by Hertz and Seltz to offer 1973-74 contracts, according to salary schedule, to Janet Allen, Joanne Blum, Denise Elliott, Patricia Komda, Joseph Lamm, Richard Lytwynski, and Elaine Novak. Ayes: Ahey, Brown, Hertz, Joyner, Prigdon, Seary, Seltz. Nays: None.

Strong Procedures: Board members posed questions regarding procedures relative to recruiting and hiring teachers, including numbers of candidates, procedures for screening, documentation of screening under fair employment laws, review of substitute teachers as candidates, numbers of minority candidates, and lack of out-of-state recruitment. President Brown asked for a report detailing recruitment and hiring procedures.

Salaries: Resolution by Joyner and Hertz that the salaries of the twelve employees of the operational departments named in Attachment A of the Superintendent's communication dated January 17, 1974, be approved as listed. Ayes: Ahey, Brown, Hertz, Joyner, Prigdon, Seary, Seltz. Nays: None.

First Girl Scout cookie sales on

The Huron Valley Girl Scouts are out to burn a mortgage when they begin taking orders in the 1974 Girl Scout cookie sale. Goal for the drive is the highest in history, $260,000 in gross sales, and if successful, a part of the profits will make the last payment on Camp Linden, the council's 400-acre residential and troop camp in Livingston County.

Scouts from Huron Valley Council will take orders between Feb. 8 - 17 for a March delivery. They offer flavors of lemon creme, peanut butter savannahs, chocolate and vanilla cremes, scot teas and thin mints (the last two flavors are Kosher).

The Southern Oakland girl scouts will be taking orders March 2 - 8 for a May delivery and they will offer assorted cremes, shorties, chocolate chip and nut, mint, and peanut butter sandies. Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit will sell a variety of boxes at supermarkets, malls and local stores from March 8 - 17.

If the scouts reach their goal, profits from the sale, in addition to paying off the camp mortgage, will also pay one-third of the costs of troop camping and one-half of all resident camping. Cookie money also funds camp scholarships for over 100 girls from each of the three councils each year.

Area chairmen from the Huron Valley Council, who are leading off the sale, in Observeland, are Carol Green and Mrs. Dale Waybrant of Westland, and Doris Rorabacher of Plymouth.

Rebecca Harnden bride

Rebecca Harnden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harnden of Brentwood Avenue, Livonia, became the bride of Ronald Dozier in a recent early evening ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church of Northville.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Dozier of Panama City, Fla.

Officiating for the rites was the Rev. Lloyd G. Brasure and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a full-skirted Bianchi gown trimmed with hand embroidery and roses fashioned of pale pink sequins. A matching headpiece held her madonna veil and her bouquet was of silk roses, orchids, baby's breath, lilies and ivy.

Her attendants wore peasant-style dresses of ivory lutesong with emerald green velvet vests and Juliet caps. They carried baskets of dried and silk flowers in shades of emerald green and raspberry pink.

Elizabeth Reddekopp of Detroit was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Joanne Fell of Farmington Hills, Janet Peterson of Dearborn Heights and Alice Hoch of Kalamazoo.

The bridegroom's attendants included Gregory Harnden of Livonia, brother of the bride, as best man, and John Pavel of Livonia, Jason Hammond of Detroit and Richard Smith of Detroit as groomsmen.

Michelle and Michael Perry of Sterling Heights, cousins of the bride, were junior bridesmaid and junior groomsmen, and the flower girl and ring bearer were Susan and Todd DeYoung of Kokomo, Ind.

The reception for 200 was held in Glen Oaks Country Club, Farmington Hills.

The couple will live in Southfield. The new Mrs. Dozier studied at Madonna College, Mercy College of Detroit and Schoolcraft College and is employed by Cunningham Drugs in Westland. Her husband works for Cadillac Motors in Livonia.

'Wilderness' is just a lot of pretty scenes

By JAN WILLIAMS

Too many films focus more on photography than on content. This is true of "The Vanishing Wilderness," a nature film released by Pacific International.

I can't say the film isn't enjoyable, however. It covers some of the most beautiful

leisure parts of North American wilderness, from the Arctic to the Everglades.

But it seems to be missing its own point. Where and why is the wilderness vanishing, and what is being done or should be done about it? Narrator Rex Allen fails to answer or even ask these questions.

The same goes for the animals featured in the film—the ones who inhabit the vanishing wilderness. Some of them, too, are in danger of becoming extinct; this is pointed out in the movie. But showing a hungry wolf catching a fish for dinner isn't dealing with the problem.

A herd of buffalo is shown roaming the range. "Their sad eyes tell their story," But Rex Allen doesn't.

A small group of mustangs was a beautiful sight galloping across the plains. It was probably one of the few left, but why? what does the future hold for them? Unanswered.

A beaver whose dam broke probably would have died if the dam hadn't been repaired because his stored food would have frozen. But he repaired it. How many other super beavers are there?

Other species were dealt with in the same manner—all looking beautiful and "safe" on film.

It's a shame Arthur Dubs and Heinz Seilman, producers, directors and photographers for the film, couldn't have used the material more constructively.

If you're amused by the antics of the otter and amazed by the duels of big horn Rocky Mountain sheep, you'll enjoy this film.

However, if you're a true nature - lover you'll want to look deeper than the mere surface.

Two sub - titles the film carries are "see it before civilization sweeps it away," and "man can live in harmony with nature." Ironic, isn't it?

Yes, you do need to think about rape

By MARGARET MILLER

If they can face squarely one of the most unpleasant subjects you could name, women in Observerland have an opportunity to gain invaluable knowledge.

It's being offered in a Schoolcraft College community services course titled Protection Against Rape, and the knowledgeable instructor will be a retired Detroit policeman.

She is Mrs. Dorothy Gay, who retired last January after more than 25 years on the Detroit force. She and her husband, Alva, a Wayne State University faculty member, now make their home in Northville.

"Rape is something women who live in the suburbs don't like to think about," Mrs. Gay said. "But statistics show that rape in Michigan has increased by 70 per cent in the last five years."

"And there's still the probability that three to 10 times as many rapes are committed as are reported."

That, she added, is because women do not understand their rights when they have been victimized by a rapist, as well as the shame that keeps them from going to the police.

MRS. DOROTHY GAY, retired Detroit policeman's wife, will teach a course on protection against rape, scheduled by the Schoolcraft College community services program. (Observer photo by Bob Woodring)

"What I want to do is have the class discuss the possibility of rape so that its members can prepare their thoughts and feelings a bit. Unless you think about what might happen and what action could be taken, you cannot be prepared."

Mrs. Gay said the three-week course, to be offered Thursday evenings beginning Feb. 21, will not lay much stress on physical self-defense.

"I do want to stress an awareness of various facets of the matter and the legal rights of rape victims. As a retired police officer, I definitely think all rapes should be reported, and I'll try to explain why."

She said she also would recommend the use of the voice, the fingernails, the knee and anything to be found in a purse like a pen or key as defense against attack.

"But I firmly believe that unless a woman has taken specific training, any other weapon can be dangerous," she added. "It can be taken away and used against her."

Mrs. Gay said she thinks today's environment is a main reason for the increase in rape.

"There is so much sex and violence in movies, television, reading, current songs," she said. "It encourages any deviations that might be there."

Before retiring, Dorothy Gay ran into the residence problem that has made headlines in recent weeks.

She said she and her husband purchased their Northville property during the period when it seemed that police officers were going to be permitted to live in suburban homes.

"Then we came home from a vacation and found that the ruling had gone in favor of the city of Detroit," she said.

"So, since I was planning to retire soon, we went ahead with the house and my husband moved in, in February, 1972. I lived with my mother in Detroit and came out weekends."

"I was an inspector by that time and felt it important for me to live by the ruling -- I had no quarrel with it. But it was hard to convince people I was living in Detroit."

Women interested in registering for her course may call the Schoolcraft registration office.

Suburban Women plan art auction

The Western Suburban Junior Women's Club will hold an art auction and exhibit Sunday, Feb. 10 in the Rosedale Gardens Civic Assn. clubhouse, at 9611 Hubbard Rd., Livonia. The champagne preview is set to start at 7 p.m. and the bidding at 8 p.m.

Donations of $1 will be asked at the door, and all proceeds from sales are earmarked for Interlochen scholarships.

The works offered for sale are from a private collection of original oils, graphics, etchings and watercolors. The collection carries some of the works of Hilbel, Mercier, Rockwell, Dali, Newman, and Lionel Barrymore.

The show will be coordinated by Fred Grossman of Gallery Art Center in Berkeley.

On Monday, Feb. 11, the club will meet at 8 p.m. in the Sword of the Spirit Lutheran Church, 34563 W. Seven Mile, Livonia. The Spirit Lutheran Church, 34563 Seven Mile Rd., Livonia.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Cheryl Termaat, a member of the club, whose topic will be "How Well Do You Know Greenfield Village?" She will tell what Greenfield Village has to offer besides an afternoon of sightseeing and museum touring.

Mrs. Termaat is a guide at the village, and has a movie to accompany her talk.

Women, interested in attending the meeting, or becoming a member of the group, may contact Mrs. Richard Kirchhoff, 1517 Lexington St., Plymouth.

Christian men meet Feb. 16

The Christian Businessmen's Committee of West Wayne County will hold a breakfast meeting at 7:30 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 16, in Holiday Inn, 30375 Plymouth Rd., Livonia.

Napolitano, 34127 Wood Drive, Livonia. Women are invited.

Bar mitzvah

The bar mitzvah of Martin Zoldan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Zoldan of St. Francis Avenue, Livonia, will be observed during services of the Livonia Jewish Congregation, 31840 W. Seven Mile, at 9 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 16.

Civitan to honor Rev. McDonald

The Rev. B. Edwin McDonald, pastor of the Plymouth Church of the Nazarene, will be honored by the Plymouth Community Civitan Club when it holds a Feb. 14 dinner as part of Plymouth community clergy-men week.

Mike Caffery, chairman of the program, said all clergymen in the Plymouth area are invited to the dinner with Civitan members, scheduled at 7 p.m. in the Miles Standish room of the Mayflower Hotel.

Pastor McDonald is being singled out for special honors, he added, because of several community service projects in which his congregation has been engaged.

These include sending Sunday services into the West Trail Nursing Home by direct telephone line so that patients there can "attend" church and sending buses to the Camelot Nursing Home to take some of its residents to church.

The honoring of the clergy, a tradition at this time of year for Civitan clubs all over the country, commemorates the sacrifice of four chaplains who on Feb. 3, 1943, went down with the troop transport Dorchester in the north Atlantic because they had given their life jackets to soldiers who lost theirs.

"Civitan is interested in citizenship," Caffery said, "and that is why we are particularly interested in Rev. McDonald's community service as we honor the ministers and priests of this area during International Clergy Week."

The week in Plymouth was proclaimed by Mayor Beverly McAninch.

Bar mitzvah

The bar mitzvah of James Lewis Varon, son of Mr. and Mrs. S.J. Varon of Southfield, will take place the evening of Feb. 8 during the services of Temple Kol Ami, held in the Birmingham Unitarian Church, Lone Pine and Woodward.
