

Area cage teams eye titles

There will be the scent of potential championships to five of Observerland's prep basketball attractions tonight and Saturday with Plymouth Salem, Livonia Churchill, Livonia Franklin, Westland John Glenn and Garden City West sharing the limelight.

Plymouth has an unusual home date Saturday with Dearborn and can clinch its first Suburban Eight outright championship since 1969 by defeating the second-place Pioneers. Plymouth is 10-1 in the league to Dearborn's 8-3.

Fred Thomann's Rocks also will be gunning for a school record, their present 15-2 mark matching the most victories ever posted in one season by a Plymouth club.

On the same court tonight, Churchill will be a strong favorite to knock off Plymouth Canton and if the Chargers do they will be assured of no worse than a tie for their second straight Western Six crown.

Churchill is 9-0 in league play and is rated No. 1 among all area teams with a 16-1 record.

Franklin will be at North Farmington for a key North-west Suburban battle and Bob Visser's Patriots need a victory in this one to be sure of at least a share of the championship. They now are 7-1 in the league and 14-3 overall.

At the same time John Glenn, second in the North-west Suburban at 6-2, will invade Thurston hoping to keep title hopes alive with another win.

The most frantic race in the area is that in the Tri-River League where Garden City West, Inkster Cherry Hill and Dearborn Heights Riverside share the top rung, all at 10-2. West will host Southgate tonight and knows that a victory will mean staying alive.

Other games tonight feature Bentley at Redford Union, Andover at Clarenceville, Farmington at Stevenson, Harrison at Northville, Garden City East at Oak Park, Royal Oak Kimball at Southfield and Lathrup at Eisenhower.

The regular season will end for all clubs next weekend and state tournament district action will open Monday, March 4.

Both on scoring binge

West, Franklin romp to victories

Garden City West and Livonia Franklin shot the eyes out of the basket, as an old cage saying goes, as they rolled to impressive victories Tuesday.

For West, the 94-52 rout of Southgate Schaefer was a milestone marking the 100th victory for Coach Chris Babler since he took over as coach seven years ago. Rarely, if ever, has one of his teams had a hotter hand from the floor than this one, West hitting 59 per cent of its shots.

Franklin was almost as effective with a 56 per cent field goal average in dumping Farmington, Harrison, 88-56, in another scoring binge.

Other mid-week Observerland results were Thurston 71, Redford Union 68; Southfield 68, Bloomfield Hills Andover 56; Ferndale 70, Southfield Lathrup 48 and Dearborn Edsel Ford 64, Livonia Stevenson 58.

Paul Tatro led Garden City West's attack with 20 points in a game that really was no contest after West piled up a 48-25 halftime lead.

The victory kept West in a three-way tie at the top of the Tri-River League standings with Inkster Cherry Hill and Dearborn Heights Riverside. All are 10-2 in the loop.

Franklin's non-league triumph over Harrison was the team's 14th in 17 starts and saw Kevin Kaseta hit the hoop for 29 points. Kaseta went into the game as Observerland's leading scorer with an average of 22.1 per game.

Keith Blazaitis and Jim Baigrie also were in double figures for Franklin with 17 and 12 while Mark Brozek paced Harrison with 11. Franklin led at the half, 49-24.

One of the most cherished victories of the season was Thurston's backyard triumph over RU which ended a 12 game losing streak and gave Thurston a 2-15 record compared to RU's 6-11.

Thurston broke on top by hitting the first five shots but led at the half only 35-33. Curt Beadle with 23 points, Cory Rodriguez 16, Jeff Madison, Marine City, Mt. Clemens, Chippewa Valley, Clintondale, Anchor Bay, Novi, Port Huron Central, Richmond, St. Clair and Warren Tower.

Les Anders dates set

The 1974 Les Anders Invitational High School Baseball Tourney, co-sponsored by the Livonia Parks and Recreation, the Livonia Optimist Club and the Observer Newspapers will be held on May 11, 18, 27 and 29.

A total of 20 invitations have been sent to the 19 schools in the Observerland area along with Wayne Memorial.

Brother act

Michigan State world-class intermediate hurdler Bob Cassleman has younger brother Chris, also a hurdler, as a teammate on MSU's varsity in 1974. Both prepped at Grand Rapids Catholic Central.

Back home

Former Michigan State fullback great Bob Apisa now is back in his home area of Hawaii, coordinating Samoan affairs for the state. He also helps with Honolulu's Quick Kokua activities program for under-privileged children.

STARTING TO FEEL the pressure of being No. 1 is Churchill basketball Coach Pat Montagano whose now 16-1 Chargers slipped by Ann Arbor Huron, 52-51, to make it 10 straight since losing to Franklin. Montagano's pressure is sure to mount with Plymouth Canton and Waterford Mott next in line before the state tourney kicks off. (Observer photo by Tom Donoghue)

Moceri gets county's OK

By MAURIE WALKER

CANTON — The Wayne County Planning Commission this week gave "qualified approval" for the proposed regional shopping center known as the Moceri Project.

In a unanimous vote, the commission's decision serves only as an "advisory" recommendation for the Canton Township Board. The earliest the township board can consider the project is at the March 12 meeting.

The meeting, held in the City-County Building in Detroit, was attended by a dozen persons, including Township Supervisor Phil Dingeldey, Trustee Don Korte, Clerk John Flodin and Gilbert Franklin, attorney for the developer.

Prior to voting, Francis P. Bennett, director for the commission, explained the project to the commissioners and said he had received "numerous telephone calls" from residents in the area of the proposed center.

"The majority of the calls were from persons opposing the center," Bennett said.

The director also said he had received letters from four different concerned groups and that two letters were from persons opposing the center and two from groups that approved of it.

Although the session was not "an open hearing" on the project, Bennett allowed several persons to express their views.

Among these were Carl Rea, a member of the board of directors of the Windsor Park Civic Assn. Rea urged the commissioners to "please read carefully the negative statements about the project."

Pam Phillips, a resident of the Carriage Hill subdivision, said the shopping center wasn't needed.

"There are five shopping centers being developed within a two mile area. What will this do to the little shops? Persons will just naturally go to the bigger center."

She said increased traffic that will result from the center will be dangerous for children attending the school and nature center nearby.

Korte, who said he was representing the Canton Chamber of Commerce, told the commissioners "We can't have just homes and no further development."

"The land was becoming too high priced for farmers to work the area."

Boys hurt on way to school

PLYMOUTH — A seven-year-old boy was critically injured Thursday morning while crossing the street in front of his school.

Vance Farrell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Farrell, of 185 Blunk, was listed in critical condition at University Hospital Thursday afternoon while still undergoing tests.

According to Plymouth Police Lt. Rod Cannon, the boy was hit by a car which apparently ran a red light as he stepped off the curb to cross Sheldon Road at Ann Arbor Trail.

The driver of the car was identified only as a 31-year-old area woman who was "released pending further investigation and filing of formal charges," police said.

Another boy, William Scott Wickens, 10, of 1168 Beck was also injured although only slightly, Cannon added. He went on to school and was already in class when police arrived to investigate the accident.

The accident occurred at about 8:55 a.m. in full daylight. Crossing Guard Francis Magreta was on duty at the time, crossing the children for Bird Elementary School which the two injured boys attended.

Since the beginning of the year, four Plymouth school children have been injured on their way to school. On Jan. 11 Kelly Goeman, 5, and Nancy Nalepka, 7, were injured in the pre-dawn hours on their way to Tanger Elementary School.

Symphony concert

REHEARSING — Plymouth High School symphony and cadet orchestras will present a mid winter concert Wednesday, Feb. 27, at 8 p.m. in the Salem High auditorium. Admission will be free.

A special feature will be performance of the first movement of the Boccherini "Cello Concerto" by Laura Jender, cello soloist, (shown here) with the symphony orchestra.

The symphony also will play four other selections: "Catskill Legend" by Paul Whear, the fugue from "Concerto Grosso No. 1" for strings and piano obbligato by Ernest Bloch, "A Night on Bald Mountain" and selections from "Oklahoma."

Cadet orchestra selections will include "Minuet in D Minor" by Mozart and the minuet and trio II bource from "Music for the Royal Fireworks" by Handel.

Charles Chen and Barbara Rutter will be violin soloists for the latter number.

Senior citizen project eyed

By CORINNE ABATT

PLYMOUTH — A proposed $4 million high-rise senior citizen housing project will come before the Plymouth Township board of trustees next Tuesday.

"The whole key," says Bud Cline, executive director of Tower Associates, the firm making the proposal, "is whether or not the township will accept tax abatement for the project and premises."

Tax abatement would put the project in the same category as churches in that no property taxes are collected on the usual tax assessment basis.

The tax abatement clause is part of the agreement which the Michigan State Housing Development Authority requires before it becomes the lending institution for such undertakings.

Cline says Tower Associates builds and manages senior high rises and the state holds a 40 year mortgage with the stipulation that they must continue as senior housing projects.

The Southfield based firm presently owns and operates more than 4,000 housing units for the elderly.

However, the township will not take on more residents with nothing in return. A fund amounting to 10 per cent of 95 per cent of the total rental paid each year is given back to the township as a service fee.

Cline estimates this could be at the minimum about $30,000 per year. Taking a ball park figure of $100 rent for each of the 281 units, he comes close to the $30,000.

aware that the average rent will probably exceed $100 per month.

He says he doesn't know what the rents will be. "The FORMER FRANKLIN HIGH TANKER Tom Segasser has made the Michigan State University varsity swim squad in his freshman season. The freestyler has been in action against Eastern Michigan and Illinois.

Our name to change March 4

A name change visibly linking two of the most honored suburban newspaper groups in the nation will occur in your hometown newspaper when the first Monday edition appears March 4.

From then on this, and all 10 of the other publications of our Detroit Newspaper Division, will be known as "The Observer & Eccentric." Distribution dates will be Monday and Thursday each week.

This step results from the recently announced merger of Observer Newspapers, Inc., headquartered in Livonia, with the Birmingham-based Synercom Communications Corp., publishers of the 95-year-old Eccentric chain.

"Observer & Eccentric" newspapers will be published for Livonia, Plymouth, Garden City, Westland and Redford Township in Wayne County and for Farmington, Southfield, Birmingham, Bloomfield, West Bloomfield, Troy and Rochester in Oakland County.

Creation of the new name, "Observer & Eccentric," reflects both prestige and growth.

The Eccentric began publication in 1878 and has captured more professional awards for excellence than any suburban newspaper in the country. Although the Observer is a fairly recent name, it, too, has been honored frequently by America's leading press associations for its outstanding caliber.

In communities such as Plymouth, Farmington and Southfield, the name change means a passing from the scene of active use of the traditional Mail, Enterprise and News titles.

Turf Tips, Quips

By Doc Minard

Contrary to earlier reports that they wouldn't appear at the Detroit Race Course this year for the 121-day meeting opening Friday, March 1, Jockey Larry Snyder and Trainer Jack Van Berg will again be present.

Snyder won the jockey championship last fall with 162 victories, smashing all North American jockey records for number of wins during a single race meet.

Van Berg, who is following in the footsteps of his late father, Marion Van Berg, in establishing records at the DRC, set an all-time high with his 61 firsts during the 90-day meet. That was a Michigan record.

In addition, Van Berg has led the nation in victories during four of the past six years.

There was some question as to whether Van Berg would have a stable here because of the limit of 25 stalls established this year by Director of Racing Tom Dorsey. Van Berg, who normally has as many as 60 horses on the grounds, at first wasn't interested but finally informed Dorsey he will send a portion of his stable to Detroit for the track's silver anniversary meeting.

Snyder, now riding at Oaklawn Park, informed DRC management he will arrive at the track in late March or early April. Because of the longer season this year, he will still have plenty of time to shatter the marks set in 1973.

The DRC will salute its 25th anniversary by bringing back the most popular betting feature in its history, the Big Perfecta.

In its last appearance in the area, the Big P fashioned single ticket payoffs of $72,607, $72,415 and $62,965.

A survey of patrons last fall showed the Big P to be the popular choice above all other forms of multiple number wagering.

The track will present the Big P on the fifth and sixth races on weekdays and in the sixth and seventh on Saturdays and holidays.

Thus, there'll be plenty of action for the faithful again this year at the big mile track... early post of 2:30 p.m. on weekdays and 1:30 p.m. on Saturdays and holidays, the Big P, daily double, tri-fecta, Larry Snyder, Jack Van Berg and just hundreds of new horses.

Kool King, the sensational young trotter who won six straight races at Hazel Park last fall before suffering an injury that laid him up for several months, is coming back to the races Friday at Northville Downs.

Kool King, owned by Stew Oldford of Plymouth, has been resting all this time and trainers report it is back in the top shape that made it such a standout at Hazel Park.

It's going to be a bit rough for the youngster who is booked into the featured $4,000 feature and faces the best on the grounds. The trot attracted six entries including: Ho Bo's Colby, Para B, Eyre Dancer, Arbor Bachelor and Rebellion.

IN THE POCKET

By W.W. EDGAR

The high scoring wave that hit the Observerland bowling front a month ago continued through the past week and when the rumbling of the pins subsided the bowlers had registered three perfect games, a 298 count, a 799 series and team game of 1218 that was good enough for a place on the national honor roll.

Those who reached the magic 300 included:

Tony Loiacano, Westland Bowl.

Frank Padovich, Plaza Bowl.

Of the three, Loiacano's was the most spectacular. It came as the finishing game of the 799 series in the Westland Classic and helped the Midas Muffler team post a 1218 game that landed among the top 10 team scores in the nation.

While Tony was on his scoring rampage Harry Fill, a teammate had the door to the honor roll slammed in his face when he left up the 8-10 after 11 straight strikes and had to settle for a 298 and a 639 series.

Other members of the team who aided in the national honor roll score were Bob Chamberlain with a 644, Jim Shelp with 651 and Leo Scantonburlo with 570.

Tony's perfect was the first rolled in the Westland Bowl Lanes this season and put him in line with Padovich, whose 300 was the first ever rolled in the Plaza Bowl.

Meanwhile, Van Alsten's big game came from an unexpected source — the Sunday mixed league at Wonderland.

Bowling lost one of its greatest boosters last week with the death of Howard McCullough, former Detroit branch manager of Brunswick Co., at his winter home in Scottsdale, Arizona.

A member of the ABC and the Detroit Bowling Hall of Fame, Howard was a five term president of the Greater Detroit Bowling Association and a leader in the bowling boom in the Detroit area in the late 30s.

Fred McClain, one of the younger sharpshooters coming along, had the best week of his career when he not only paced the Garden classic but moved over to Woodland Lanes over the weekend and won the Michigan Majors monthly event.

To gain this victory he conquered Tony Loiacano in the finals and dropped him to third place behind Fred Vitali. This came after he put together games of 237, 255 and 214 for 706 in the Classic. He was far in front of the field as the second place man, Dennis Gatcher, had a 632.

Tom Mc Kay, secretary of the Greater Detroit Bowling Association, sends along a warning that reservations for the annual city tournament close on March 2. The big event opens at Satellite Bowl on April 20.

Dave Trowbridge hit nine points in the second quarter to lead Southfield to a 36-26 halftime lead en route to the win over Andover and wound up with 15. However, Southfield's Robin Roberts had the game high with 21.

housing authority sets all the figures. They tell us what the rents will be."

With tax abatement, rents are slightly below what they would normally be. For instance, a one bedroom unit normally renting for $125 would be $110.

The state sets rentals by income and 20 of the total units are subsidized by the federal government. If someone was living strictly on social security payments of $2,400 per year, the rent for a one bedroom unit would be $50 per month including all utilities.

There won't be any efficiency apartments. All will have either one or two bedrooms, a living room, dining

Twp. extends tax due date

PLYMOUTH — The Plymouth Township Board has extended the tax collection deadline from Feb. 14 to Feb. 28 for both real and personal taxes.

Elizabeth Holmes, township treasurer, added however, that taxpayers should be reminded to pay their taxes as soon as possible to avoid being late and having to pay penalty fees.

Adrian dean's list includes 2

PLYMOUTH — Two Plymouth students at Adrian College, Kurt Darrow and Judy West, were named to the dean's list for the fall term.

Darrow, of 42239 Nottingwood Ct., is a freshman majoring in business administration and political science. Miss West, of 42168 Lakeland, is a freshman Spanish major.

To qualify a student must earn at least a 3.25 grade point average based on a four point scale.

PAM PHILLIPS of Carriage Hill Subdivision, Canton, told the Wayne County Planning Commission, "the Mocer Project wasn't needed."

executive director describes as, "lots of green area and many types of amenity rooms." These are meeting rooms with kitchen facilities, craft and game rooms and a doctor's examining room and waiting area.

The request placed before the township board will be to approve the 4.88 acre parcel on the southwest ramp of the new I-275 and Ann Arbor Rd. for tax abatement so the nine story high rise can be constructed. It will take about 18 months to complete.

Although there are several stores close by, the management plans to provide mini-bus service so residents may obtain other services they need including going to church.

Cline says his company is in a business where, "there is no fantastic profit and you can expect a one per cent return on your investment," because of the depreciation factor. It serves as a tax shelter.

A spokesman for Plymouth Township has asked area senior citizens not to call the township about applications for the project until it is approved.

Mocer PUD hits snag

CANTON — A decision to approve or disapprove the Planned Unit Development (PUD) section of the Mocer Project has been delayed by the Canton Township Planning Commission pending a public hearing.

The planning commission voted unanimously Tuesday to set a date at its next regular meeting on March 5, for a public hearing to be held in April. The hearing will serve to answer a list of objections to the PUD section raised by Canton Township Planning Consultant Michael Manore. The objections were the deletion in the plan as submitted by the developers of the following items:

- Provisions for existing zoning and land uses on all adjacent parcels.
- A vicinity sketch.
- Boundary dimensions to the nearest foot.
- Drain easement location and width.
- Completion of plan for two-family area.

On that date, a rust orange 1974 Cadillac automobile with several occupants proceeding south on Middlebelt Road near the I-96 overpass observed a head-on over the centerline crash which resulted in fatal injuries to the driver of one of the vehicles and serious injuries to others.

The course of three lives were drastically changed by that collision, and some helpless people are now asking for someone with courage, who was an occupant of that 1974 Cadillac, to step forward and help.

Schools return 'gift' money

FARMINGTON — A $6,000 gift from the former Wood Creek Farms Council will be returned to the City of Farmington Hills by the Farmington Board of Education.

The school board voted 4-2 to return the gift, with Trustees Gary Lichtman and William Corliss in opposition.

Board President Dr. Mervyn Ross indicated "discussions" with the Hills council had resulted in a promise to use the money toward the Gill Rd. paving project, a muddy strip which closed two schools last spring.

"I think I have made my position clear in the past on these issues," Lichtman said.

The money was donated to the school board for the improvement of the grounds at Wood Creek Elementary by the former Wood Creek Council.

A subsequent ruling by Hills attorney Joseph T. Brennan indicated the gift, as well as a $1,000 donation to the Sarah Fisher home, was illegal.

Dr. Ross said while school board attorney Robert Kelly said the gift was proper, the attorney also indicated a lawsuit would cost more than the gift.

Theater scores par for course

By JAN WILLIAMS

Considering what they had to work with, the Wayne-Westland Civic Theater did a worthy job of presenting its latest production, "A Night of One Acts."

The annex of St. John Episcopal Church is hardly the ideal setting for a theater. But this was overshadowed by acting equal to any other community theater group in the area.

The four one-acts,

Feb. 22, 23, 9 p.m. — "Generation" a contemporary comedy by William Goodhart, will be presented by St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook in the playhouse on Lone Pine Rd., Bloomfield Hills.

Feb. 22, 23, 8 p.m. — The Plymouth Theater Guild will present the comedy "Mary, Mary" in Plymouth's Central School, Church at Main St.

LEISURE

Feb. 23, 11 a.m., 2 p.m. — The Youth Theater will present "The Mummy's Tomb" and "The Phantom Creeps" in the Detroit Institute of Arts Auditorium.

Feb. 24, 3 p.m. — "Touring Israel," a full-length color movie showing the Jewish state and its people, will be presented for the World Adventure Series in the Detroit Institute of Arts Auditorium.

Feb. 27, 8 p.m. — The first in a series of teen seminars dealing with the special needs of the Jewish handicapped and retarded will be in the Oak Park branch of the Jewish Community Center, 15110 Ten Mile.

March 1, 8 p.m. — A slide lecture program, "Contemporary Enamel Trends" will be presented by William Harper in the Birmingham Bloomfield Art Assn., 1516 S. Cranbrook Rd.

3 groups combine talents for concert

The Scandinavian and Allen Park Symphony Orchestras will combine talents with the Rackham Symphony Chorus Saturday, March 2, at 8:20 p.m. in Southfield-Lathrup High School, 19301 W. 12 Mile, and March 9, at 8:20 p.m. in Allen Park High School, 19001 Champagne.

The orchestras and 150-voice choir will perform Orff's "Carmina Burana," one of the best known modern compositions for soloist, chorus and orchestra.

Soloists will be Judith Premin, soprano, a music teacher in the Wayne-Westland District and Dann Beggs, baritone, from Melvindale. The Dearborn Civic Children's Choir, directed by David Samuels will participate in "Carmina Burana."

Guest conductor will be Charles Heard, Rackham Choir director, choral music director of Wayne-Westland Community Schools and choral director of the National Music Camp at Interlochen. Regular conductor of the Scandinavian Symphony Orchestra is William Savola of Plymouth.

Madonna play is mystery to all

Not even the cast will know "who done it" until the last day of rehearsals of the Madonna College production of "The Mousetrap," Feb. 28, and March 1, at 8 p.m. in the college, Schoolcraft at Levan, Livonia.

To preserve the mystery, Sister Mary Fisher, director, has removed the last two pages from the scripts of this Agatha Christie thriller.

The Rev. Samuel Jadin, instructor of theology and college chaplain, will play the role of Mr. Paravicini. Others in the cast are Gail Olaszewski (Thursday) and Kathleen Rabac (Friday) as Mollie Ralston, Maurus Malory as Giles Ralston, Hitomi Futura (Thursday) and Delphine Ascensio (Friday) as Mrs. Boyle, John W. Longridge as Major Metcalf, Debbie Miller (Thursday) and Marcia Arnold (Friday) as Miss Casewell, and John Wilson as Detective Trotter.

Sister Mary explained that since it is primarily a classroom experience in acting techniques, she has assigned roles to all the students except one. Debbie Harnishfeiger is assuming the tasks of stage manager, wardrobe mistress, property manager, light engineer, and in charge of the sale of tickets and house ushers.

Tickets may be obtained in advance at the college or at the door.

Sisters to close Rosary High

The Adrian Dominican Sisters have decided to terminate operation of Rosary High School located in Detroit's northwest section in August 1974.

Announcement of the closure of the school was made by Sister Rosemary Ferguson, O.P., prioress general of the Adrian Congregation.

"The decision to conclude 18 years of secondary education at Rosary is multifaceted," she said. "A study of Rosary, its area and population, has revealed the lack of student population available in the area for student recruitment. The school is in yearly operational deficit due to its enrollment decline, and the Adrian congregation is unable to provide future subsidy."

Rosary High, opened in 1956, has suffered a severe decrease in enrollment over the past six years. The enrollment has declined an average of 100 students per year to the present 466. The projected 1974-75 enrollment is approximately 330 students.

There are 11 other Catholic schools within close proximity, including Ladywood in Livonia, and Our Lady of Mercy in Farmington.

He's getting people to read the Bible

BY MARGARET MILLER

"I'm just trying to get more people to read the Bible," says the Rev. Charles J. Fisher, who has done exactly that 54 times in his 54 years in the ministry.

Rev. Fisher is pastor of the Bible Baptist Church, located in an old frame churchhouse at 28312 Grand River, Farmington Hills.

For the last three years, he has inserted ads in a Baptist church publication, urging people to pledge that they will read through the Old and New Testaments in the course of a year and offering to provide questions through the months to help them in their study.

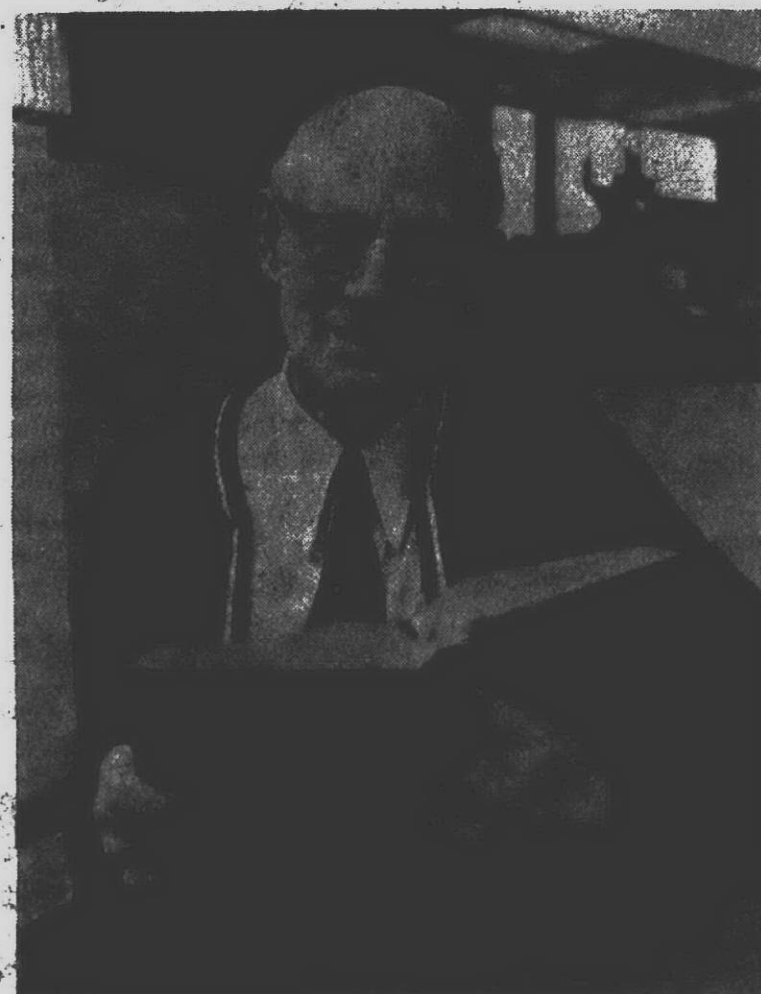

"Last year I had 300 responses from people who wanted the study course mailed," he said. "They came from 24 states and three other countries, Canada, England and Germany."

Recently he published the same ad in this newspaper.

"The course," he explained, "isn't just for Baptists. The Bible isn't a Baptist book. Though I certainly believe that when we read 'God so loved the world' it means He loved Baptists too."

Rev. Fisher makes no charge for his course, but accepts free will offerings.

"It's on a faith basis and I want to keep it that way," he says.

But he has sent out letters to many pastors asking them to add in his mission to "get people to read the word of God."

"The course stimulates a systematic interest," his letter adds. "You cannot answer the questions from the chapter, unless you read the chapter, and this gets them into the book, even with the whole family."

Rev. Fisher came to Farmington 13 years ago, and nine years ago his congregation took over the building that was sold by Clarenceville United Methodist Church.

During his years in the area he has done maintenance work at the Farmington Community Center and for Farmington Township to supplement his income and keep the church building in repair.

"The Lord has blessed me with several trades," says this handyman plumber, electrician, carpenter and furnace expert.

He also worked for a time for the Catholic sisters who operate Merillac Hall, a Farmington Hills area home for unwed mothers.

"I wouldn't discuss theology with them," he recalls, "but we did have some good discussions about the Bible."

This year, with the last of six children recently married, he hopes he and his wife, Beulah, will be "able to get by without outside work." They have 24 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

"I feel my two greatest gifts are my salvation and my wife," the pastor said. "She's a wonderful wife, mother, Bible teacher, secretary...."

Rev. Fisher likes the King James version best for his Bible reading, but has read in the other translations.

And, in his 54 years through the Bible, he affirms:

"I believe every word of it from Genesis to Revelation."

Prayer is theme for lenten series

A six-week adult education series on "Prayer: Language of Life" will begin Wednesday, Feb. 27, in Mercy Center, 28600 11 Mile, Farmington.

Sessions will be held from 8 to 10:30 p.m. Wednesdays during Lent, ending April 3.

The cost is $5 per person. Checks should be sent to Jean Feterl, 18523 Plainview, Detroit, 48219.

Participating in the evenings will be Sister Margaret Basso and Judy Kaitz of the Schoolcraft College Newman Center, Father Dennis Bagley of Lawrence Institute of Technology, Ray and Millie Geisert, Myrna Angelucci, Jackie Yanosy and Jean Feterl.

Each evening's session will include presentation of an aspect of prayer, discussion and liturgy.

Topics for the six evenings are "Prayer, a pilgrimage," "Prayer, peace-filled presence," "Pattern of prayer," "Probabilities of prayer," "Prayer of praise," and "Penitential prayer."

Synagogue offers scholarships

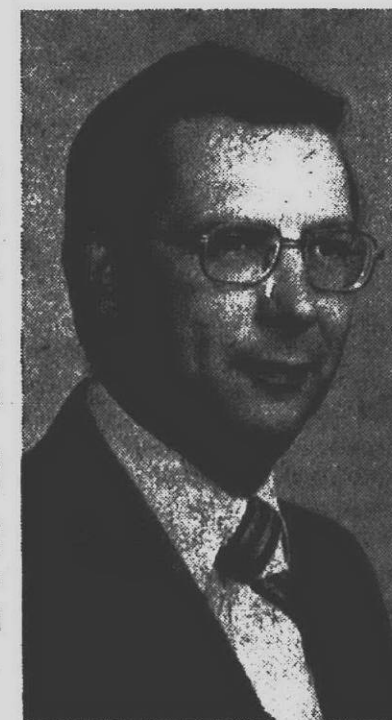

The Meyer and Nathan Fishman Family Foundation will grant an Israel Award in the sum of $1,000 to five outstanding high school students who will visit Israel during the summer of 1974.

Rabbi Irwin Groner, chairman of the Synagogue Schools Assn., stressed that the award was open to all 15-18 year olds who attend

Jewish high schools in the tri-county area. "This award," he said, "encourages young people to continue their religious education and to gain inspiration from the Land of Israel."

Application forms are available from Dr. Sidney Selig, executive secretary of the Synagogue Schools of Metropolitan Detroit, 14601 W. Lincoln, Oak Park.

THE REV. CHARLES E. McCLOSKEY of Livonia has been appointed director of church relations at Alma College. Previously he has been a United Presbyterian Church pastor and worked with the denomination's fund development programs.

Newcomers show fashions

A generous serving of fashion, provided by an active group of new area residents, is in store Thursday, March 7, in the Thunderbird Hilton Inn, 14702 Northville Road, Plymouth.

The Plymouth Newcomers Club will stage its annual fund-raiser, beginning with hospitality at 11:30 a.m. and luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

The fashions from Muirheads in Dearborn will be displayed in a show coordinated by Newcomers members and modeled by other members along with husbands and children.

"We tried a few men's fashions when we put on the show last year," said Mrs. Sue Trainor, co-chairman of the event with Mrs. Betty Kittl, "and they proved so popular that we are bringing in more husbands this year."

"They seem to give the show a more relaxed atmosphere—make it more fun."

Another plan is to have styles shown in informal groupings, Mrs. Kittl said. And the show is planned to include a wide range of fashions, from formal wear to bikerinis.

"We're still talking to the models about that one," she added. "If we could just find someone with a good Florida tan...."

Mrs. Kittl is doing the commentary for the show and Mrs. Trainor, a former model, is coordinating the work of the models, eight club members, three husbands and five children, ranging in age from three to 12.

"Our shows always have turned out quite professionally," Mrs. Trainor said, "though usually most of the models have never done any professional work."

"I try to stress posture and approaching the audience at the right angle and especially smiling and having fun. We do have fun on the show, though it's a lot of work too."

Pat Hahn of the Plymouth House of Glamour is doing the hair styles for the women models, and Mel's Golden Room is taking charge of the men's hair. Shoes are being furnished by Del's of Plymouth.

Last year's Newcomer fashion show was the biggest to date, drawing more than 350 guests. This year the club hopes to top 400.

Tickets are $5, including both luncheon and show, and may be reserved by calling the ticket chairman, Mrs. Jack Stone, 40908 Ivywood, Plymouth.

Why people who have their pick of the condominium crop choose Applegate.

"Our big townhouse has plenty of privacy. With three bedrooms. A finished basement where our daughter can entertain her friends. And a convenient kitchen with lots of cabinets and work-saving appliances." Mr. & Mrs. J. Pletcher

"Applegate is much friendlier than any place we've lived before. And the location is ideal. Open countryside, yet excellent access to expressways." Mr. & Mrs. M. Sievers

The people on this page all found Applegate very much to their taste. Because we have a very special flavor that sets us apart from other condominiums.

Instead of being big and impersonal, we're small and uncrowded. A serene condominium village set in a picturesque apple orchard. With wide expanses of green that make you feel close to nature.

And you'll also feel closer to your neighbors. Because you won't be jostling each other to use the recreational facilities.

We offer country club living the way it was meant to be lived. Without crowds. So all our facilities are more enjoyable and more private. There's a heated swimming pool, two all-weather tennis courts, shuffleboard, and a

"We both like swimming, tennis and skiing. At Applegate we can enjoy them all. The pool, tennis courts and clubhouse with its game room are right here. And skiing is only 15 minutes away." Mr. & Mrs. P. McIntyre

"Last year, I was able to deduct $3,900 in interest and taxes. And the equity in my home is now $6,800." Mr. R. Wheeler clubhouse with a cheerful fireplace, lounge, game room and snack bar.

While we pride ourselves on being small, we also know when to think big. Our condominiums are not apartments, but big 2 and 3 bedroom townhouses with the kind of innovative architecture and details you expect to find in houses costing a lot more.

And living at Applegate may cost you a lot less than you're paying now. Especially when you consider all the advantages of home ownership. Tax savings and equity build-up.

So visit us soon. We think you'll find the flavor of Applegate very much to your taste.
