Why Canton got Kresge warehouse

CONSTRUCTION of the S. S. Kresge regional warehouse has already been started at the Joy Road site in Canton Township. The $16 million facility is scheduled for completion in August 1975. (Staff photo by Bob Woodring)

By W. EDWARD WENDOVER

CANTON — Canton Township was not Kresge Co.'s first choice as a location for building the largest warehouse in the state.

But because water, sewer and natural gas were available, and more importantly, because the community welcomed the development, Kresge decided to locate its $16 million, one billion square foot regional warehouse on Joy Road at the C&O tracks.

That was what K. L. Dunkel, vice president of merchandise systems and distribution center operations for the S. S. Kresge Co., told the Canton Township Chamber of Commerce at its annual banquet Wednesday night.

Dunkel explained that Kresge had originally planned to build the warehouse at the intersection of I-96 and M-23 in Brighton.

The company had already obtained an option on a piece of property there when it discovered Brighton could not meet its sewer and water needs. Nor was natural gas available for heating.

Kresge's second choice was western Wayne County, Dunkel added, and Canton looked best. "You had what we needed."

The Kresge official also said Canton seemed to welcome the proposed development.

He told of how, when Kresge wanted

ed to build a similar warehousing operation in Carlisle, Pa., the town said: "You're too big — stay out." That same week, in a national business magazine, Carlisle had an advertisement saying it was a community that welcomed industry.

Dunkel said his company is still looking for a warehouse site in Pennsylvania, "but not near Carlisle."

So the warehouse, which will have 23 acres under its roof, came to be located in Canton where services are available and the community welcomed development.

In addition to the tax base it will mean, Dunkel said the Canton facility will hire some 200 employees to start and perhaps an additional 100 or 150 by 1980.

Dunkel showed a film on the Kresge regional warehouse in Lawrence, Kansas, which is similar to what the Canton Township operation will be.

The Lawrence warehouse is a highly automated, high-volume distribution center that serves several states — as will be the Canton warehouse.

The Canton facility, scheduled for completion in August, 1975, will also house the Central Region offices for the large merchandising company. Those offices are presently located on Grand River in Detroit.

Prior to Dunkel's talk, the 90 persons attending the Canton Chamber banquet, heard Dr. P. S. Vachner, president of the chamber, outline some future considerations to "see the township get balanced growth."

Vachner mentioned the possible purchase of Mettetal Airport by Canton Township and the establishment of a farmers' market as two projects that could be a boon to commerce in the community.

He said future planning should also consider mass transportation, recreation development, library services, police protection, road paving and a post office.

Township Supervisor Phil Dingeldey told the chamber, "I appreciate having been a part of the development of Canton Township."

He added that with the growth the township has seen in the past few years, "I see the time coming when we're going to have our own identity."

Hoben lists priorities for school district

PLYMOUTH — School Supt. John M. Hoben has submitted a list of short range and long range goals to the Plymouth School Board.

They are:

SHORT RANGE GOALS

- Implement a program for housing students for the 1974-75 school year.
- Continue to study budget and cost analysis systems and reinstate worthy programs when funds are available.
- Provide more centralized leadership in curriculum, finance, operations, personnel and administration, delineating clear parameters for school staff.
- Bring the central administration staff to 11 with the addition of: assistant superintendent for instruction, administrative assistant for research development and administrative assistant for community services.
- Negotiate contracts with all employee groups for 1974-75.
- Plan for summer school.
- Improve the efficiency of student transportation wherever possible.
- Continue to review, identify and implement safety methods and factors where necessary.
- Review existing policies and procedures and make necessary recommendations for adjustment or change to board.
- Submit new draft of board by-laws and seek adoption.
- Clarify policy on early graduation to be consistent with state attendance count.
- Improve custodial and maintenance services to the schools.
- Provide, within limits of budget, learning disabilities services.
- Implement Phase II of administrative intern program.
- Improve budgetary items of replacement of equipment and capital outlay.
- Within limits of budget attempt to provide locally services of mandatory special education.
- Continue to provide intensified reading services for deficient students.
- Complete review and rewriting of business policies.
- Continue to promote a harmonious relationship between units of government in our area.

- Meet and encourage cooperation of joint solution to problems and concerns of new residents of Plymouth Community School District.

- Continue to strengthen and refine administrative evaluation procedures.
- Continue to promote cooperative decision-making by the management team.

- Support and strengthen administrative inservice.

- Continue to seek contacts and communication with staff and community.

- Take a fixed asset inventory and set up necessary procedures to have such inventory updated each year.

- Continue to improve the school lunch program.

- Continue to provide inservice training for administrators in contract maintenance.

- Solidify procedures for evaluation of substitutes, teachers and non-certificated personnel.

- Firmly establish procedures for screening and recommendation of certificated personnel.

LONG RANGE GOALS

- Expand and improve kindergarten through grade 12 programs and review elementary class size.

- Implement curriculum coordinating committee approved programs in middle school philosophy and K-8 social studies.

- Provide a K-12 program consistent with State Guidelines in Career Education.

- Provide for mandatory education of metric education in the Plymouth Community School District.

- Develop long range building and site program, anticipating needs as shown by Wade, Trim Projection Study.

- Establish 3 - 5 year budget based upon cost analysis system.

- Review and analyze recommendations of North Central Accrediting Assn. and implement within restrictions of budget.

- Make widely known to staff and community the board of education goals.

- Establish performance objectives for all curricular areas in writing.

- Expand the adult education program and make each school a community center.

- Initiate programs to improve student attendance, particularly at secondary level.

- Encourage the practice of appointing citizens advisory committees to study areas of concern to the community.

- Continue the emphasis upon central purchasing, warehousing and bidding with well-defined procedure and inventory control.

- Continue to improve the methods by which the budget is prepared and controlled.

- Continue to improve accounting procedures, establish more effective control and financial reports.

- Obtain the greatest value for every tax dollar expended and seek to standardize materials and equipment as far as is practical.

- Protect and maintain in running order all property and equipment. Insure continued (uninterrupted) use of plant facilities to meet the needs of education and create a pleasant atmosphere whereby students and staff have facilities to be proud of.

- Establish a maintenance and preventive maintenance program for the growing bus fleet.

- Update and develop uniform job descriptions for all employees.

- Review and update personnel policies, forms and procedures in policy books.

MAYBE YOU CAN'T fight City Hall, but you can "streak" it, demonstrated four bare-bottomed lads (one not pictured) last Sunday. The "streakers" shed their trousers, ran past the Dunning-Hough Library and Plymouth City Hall, and then jumped into the back of a waiting van which sped off. They had apparently arranged for the photographer to be waiting across the street for the stunt.

Services held for Mrs. Shier, students' friend

By MARTHA MAHAN

PLYMOUTH — The youth of Plymouth have lost an "irreplaceable" friend with the death of Mrs. Evelyn I. Shier last week.

Mrs. Shier worked as a secretary-clerk in the library of Plymouth-Salem High School, but that was the least of her contributions to the school and its young people.

She organized the Rockettes and pom pom girls and major musicals and talent programs. She sold popcorn and washed cars and put on shows to raise money to equip them.

"She was totally committed to kids and always involved in doing something with them," said Principal Bill Brown. "You don't replace that kind of commitment. She had a real impact on kids, especially girls."

"She leaves a void that you don't go out and buy again. That may sound kind of dramatic, but I really feel that way."

Mrs. Shier, 50, died of cancer March 10 at Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital. It was diagnosed about a year and a half before her death.

"I think that was one of the things the kids felt about her," Brown said.

"She was always cheerful and having fun with them and they knew she was not letting her illness interfere in her involvement with them."

Mrs. Shier and her husband, Robert C., were parents of two children of their own, James L. and Janis L. Both now are college students after going through Plymouth public schools. The family home is at 9457 Ball St., Plymouth Township.

Mrs. Shier began work in the schools as a library assistant in 1963 and was taking classes at Eastern Michigan University leading toward a degree in library science when illness forced her on leave of absence the first of this year.

Besides her husband and children, Mrs. Shier is survived by two brothers, Ralph and Lawrence Bohl of Plymouth, and four sisters, Mrs. Marion (Grace) Frantac of Farmington, Mrs. Ferris (Ruth) Steinhauer of Trenton, Mrs. Dorothy Ulberg of Seattle and Mrs. Jack (Susan) Ingersoll of San Diego.

Funeral services were last Wednesday at Newburg United Methodist Church with the Rev. William Ritter officiating. Burial was in Riverside Cemetery.

Westland crusader wins class action suit against 6 retailers on finance charges

By MARTHA MAHAN

If a postman slips a check ranging up to or beyond $1,000 through your mail slot some day, you can thank a Westland man named Richard Grigg.

Grigg filed the original suit in a case which mushroomed into a class action case against six large Michigan retailers who, a judge now has ruled, illegally computed finance charges on charge accounts between 1967 and 1971.

The ruling may open the way for charge account customers at all those stores to recover all interest paid by them over those years.

Attorney Michael Kratchman, whose firm filed the original suit in August, 1970, said more than a million persons all over Michigan may be made eligible to recover their interest payments to the six companies in a total amounting to "many millions of dollars."

Some individual repayments might reach $1,000 or higher, he estimated. Others, of course, could be quite small.

Retailers involved are Sears, Roebuck & Co., Montgomery Ward, Winkelman's, E. J. Korvette, Robinson Furniture Co., Joshua Doore and Federal's.

Grigg's original suit was filed as an individual against Robinson Furniture Co. Each of the other five suits was undertaken separately by individuals.

Later, the Metropolitan Detroit AFL-CIO joined on behalf of the plaintiffs so that each case became a class action suit.

They charged the six companies with having used a so-called previous-balance method of computing interest whereby customers were not credited for payments made during a billing cycle.

They claimed this method allowed stores to earn interest greater than the state allowed maximum of 1.7 per cent per month.

Wayne County Circuit Judge Roland Olzak ruled with the complainants last week. He set April 10 for a hearing to determine whether the case can continue as a class action and whether recovery for consumers can be managed efficiently.

"The stores are trying to suggest that it would take them a tremendous amount of time to assemble their records and compute interest rebates," Kratchman said. "But I feel they could definitely manage to do it within a reasonable time."

"If they took money illegally by computer, they can refund by computer, by the same method."

Kratchman confessed he was excited and elated by what he called "a tremendous consumer victory."

"It's the first time in the state of Michigan where a class action case on behalf of a few people in one city spread out to cover millions of consumers all over the state," he said.

Kratchman's suit was filed shortly after Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley issued an opinion saying that the previous-balance method of computing interest charges violated Michigan's Retail Installment Sales Act which went into effect in March, 1967.

Most retailers now use what is known as the average daily balance method of computing interest.

Under this system, the finance charge is figured on an amount which is the sum of the actual balance each day during the billing cycle, divided by the number of days in that cycle.

The six defendant companies are among those using the latter system since 1971, Kratchman said.

Bank president will boost Livonia

By BOB ERICKSON

LIVONIA — Andrew R. Brodhun, 34, newly-elected president of Michigan National Bank — West Metro, says that under his direction the guiding philosophy of the 10 banking offices and nearly 200 employees will be "Livonia first."

Brodhun, a Livonia resident since 1968, was unanimously elected to the bank's presidency last week to fill the vacancy left by the sudden resignation of Elvin D. Dougherty. Until that time, Brodhun had been with MNB — Detroit, where he was a commercial loan group vice president and served as a member of the affiliated bank's executive committee.

In putting "Livonia first," Brodhun says, "we are going to prove that we are here to serve the 120,000 residents of Livonia." He noted that despite the name "West Metro," the bank remains a Livonia bank, and that while of course business from communities like Westland and Plymouth will not be turned away, he intends to make it clear to his employees that "our very first duty is to Livonia."

Suburban banking differs little in services supplied and needs filled from city banking, Brodhun believes. "It doesn't matter where you live, people need the same services," he says. The major difference is that in the suburbs it is easier for the banker to define his market.

Detroit banking, he points out, is more sprawling, its market more vague. The needs of the bank's market in Livonia, Brodhun believes, can be more easily communicated to the organization's employees who can consequently do a more effective job.

"It's going to be 'Livonia first,'" Brodhun reiterated. "Michigan National Bank wants to be known as the bank that is building Michigan, and the bank that builds Livonia will be building Michigan and benefiting the whole state."

Brodhun says he believes there is tremendous opportunity for growth with Metro West because of the fine people in the organization. "I intend to make myself available to those people," he said. "I want to learn about them — we are most interested in people."

ANDREW BRODHUN, newly appointed president of Michigan National Bank - West Metro, says his guiding philosophy as leader of the financial institution will be: "Livonia First."

The 'Farmyard Express'

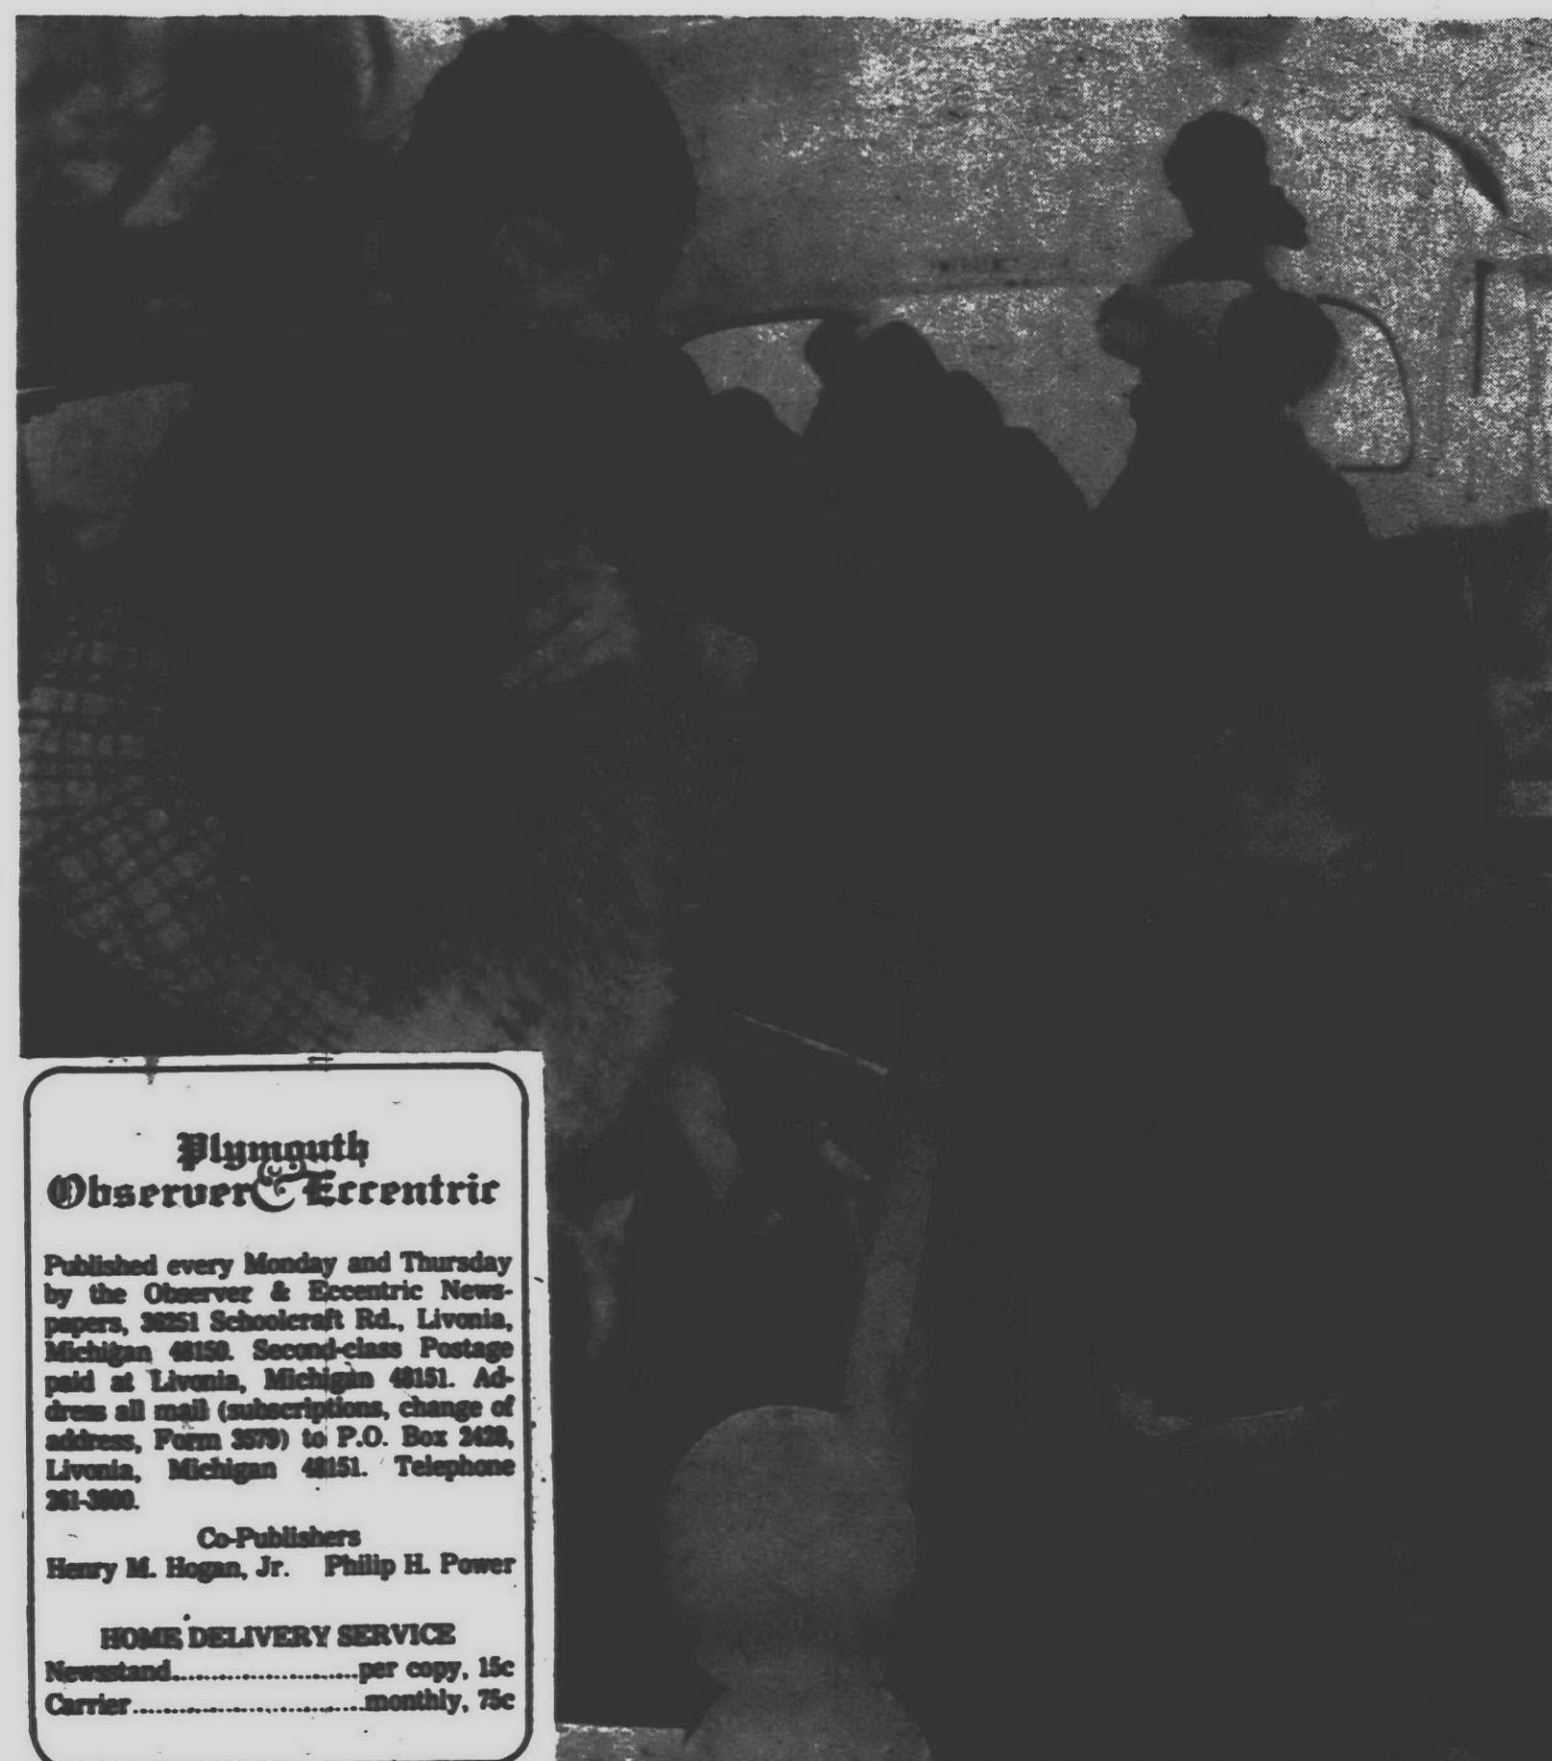

A modern day Noah's Ark

PLYMOUTH — If you can't get the students out to the farm, bring the farm to the students.

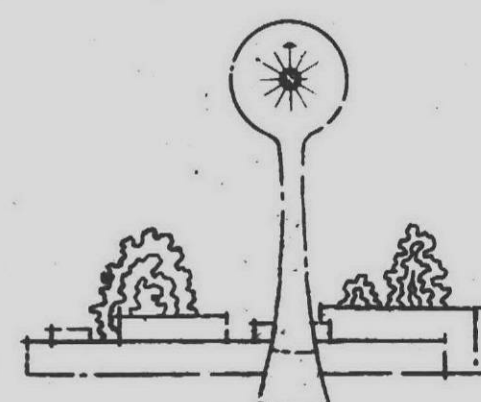

With that philosophy in mind, the "Farmyard Express" from the Plymouth School - Rotary Farm loads up chickens, ducks, pigs, lambs, rabbits, goats and other of its creatures onto its used school bus to take them on tour to Plymouth schools.

Recently this modern version of Noah's Ark visited Isbister Elementary School where the students got a chance to see the farm animals in petting range.

Staff photographer Bob Woodring was on hand to capture the fun and prove the infallible addage that "one animal plus one child makes an excellent picture."

PLYMOUTH COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICT Plymouth, Michigan

BOARD OF EDUCATION MINUTES

The regular meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District, Wayne and Washtenaw Counties, Michigan, was held on Tuesday evening, February 26, 1974, in the Multi-purpose Room of East Middle School, 1942 South Mill Street, Plymouth, Michigan.

The meeting was called to order by President McClendon at 8:10 p.m. Present: Members Benson, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto, Penar and Turner. Member Gray arrived at 8:40 p.m.

Absent: None.

Administrators present: Sup't. Hoben, Deputy Sup't. Hogan, Assistant Sup't. Business Hoedel, Adm. Assistant-Personnel Kee, Supervisor Symonds, Director Masteller and Principals Howe, Nichols and Taylor.

Others present: E. Edgar, Plymouth Mail and Observer; J. Foley, Plymouth Crier; J. Rossman; J. Watts, League of Women Voters; Representatives of PEA, Transportation and Safety Committees; G. Stickney and P. Jowsey, Board Office; M. Borowski and interested parents.

President McClendon welcomed administrators, teachers, citizens, students and parents to the meeting and thanked them for their interest in Board activities.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Turner to correct the minutes of January 14, 1974, Page 8, paragraph 7, changing "January" to "September".

Ayes: Members Benson, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto, Penar and Turner.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Turner and seconded by Member Mirto to correct the minutes of February 11, 1974, as submitted, to add the following paragraph at end of Page 5: "At the request of the Superintendent, the designation of the balance of the administrative positions and organizational changes was removed from the agenda and should be presented at a later date."

Ayes: Members Benson, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto, Penar and Turner.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Turner that the minutes of February 11, 1974, be approved as corrected.

Ayes: Members Benson, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto, Penar and Turner.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Mrs. Jane Watts, representing the League of Women Voters, read a statement from that organization, stating their position on the decision to be made by the Board of Education on the Park Site concept and the use of public meetings for obtaining community feelings. She presented the formal statement to the Board.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Penar to change the meeting of the Board of Education scheduled for April 8, 1974, to April 10, 1974.

Ayes: Members Benson, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto, Penar and Turner.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Turner and seconded by Member Penar to approve the revised General Fund Operating Budget as presented by administration.

Ayes: Members Benson, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto, Penar and Turner.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Assistant Sup't. Hoedel discussed the proposed erection of an appropriate sign for the Plymouth Centennial Educational Park, indicating monies available, bids given and plans proposed. The consensus was that a less dominant sign as opposed to a bulletin-board type sign might be more feasible.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Benson that the bid of the Supersine Company in the amount of $5,240.00 for Plymouth Centennial Park Signs (monies to be taken from the estate of Gerrit Kramer and from Building & Site Fund II) be rejected at this time and that possible designs be brought back to the Board at a later date, possibly those designed by students.

Ayes: Members Benson, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto, Penar and Turner.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Hoedel reviewed the status of the Transportation Study to date and introduced Mr. Dale Benjamin, Director of Pupil Transportation Services at Eastern Michigan University. Mr. Benjamin reported that the chief concern of his group had been maintenance of vehicles and that a Chief Mechanic's position had been created to alleviate some maintenance problems. The goals for the study were listed as a 100% Inspection Certificate from the State Police, a bus garage within 5-10 years, an update of routing and census of the total district, an effective organizational pattern and a transportation workshop to be conducted on March 11, 1974.

In answer to a question by Member Mirto, Mr. Benjamin did not feel that the same type of information obtained in this study could have been gained through contact with other school districts or through the State Department of Education. Mr. Robert Larson from the Minneapolis Suburban School District reviewed the background of the computer services available and the status of computerization within the Plymouth District. Recommendations were distributed from Mr. Benjamin on the Transportation Survey-Progress Report. He explained each of the recommendations. It was felt that the labeling and identification of all students within the district could not be complete by Fall, 1974. Several questions were clarified by Mr. Hoedel and by Mr. Benjamin. The Study Group indicated they had not gone over recommendations with the Supervisor of Transportation. They, however, did feel that their inspection of the fleet had been more thorough than that of the State Police. Member Penar requested a future report by about May 15, 1974, listing jurisdictional areas and a long-range look at Transportation operations.

Member Gray arrived during the discussion of the Transportation Study.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Mirto that approval be given to the Starkweather School Fifth Grade Field Trip to Toronto, Canada, on May 7-8, 1974, with the hope that all students will be able to participate and will qualify to attend.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto, Penar and Turner.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Mirto that the following teachers be given contracts for the balance of the 1973-74 school year, as recommended by the administration, bringing teacher contracted certificated personnel number to 532:

Sharon Belobraidich Elementary Miller
Shirley Klein Elementary Central Elementary
Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto, Penar and Turner.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Gray to approve maternity leaves of absence for the following teachers:

Sigrid Carpenter Remedial Reading Fiegel
Linda Johnson Elementary Fiegel
Eileen Knesper Mathematics Salem
Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto, Penar and Turner.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Member Penar submitted and reviewed a plan to establish School District policies on high school facilities, utilization and management to the Board. The packet included background information and progress to date from planned facilities and the recommendation that the Board address itself now as to how the facilities will be used and how to best serve the students of the School District. He listed several goals he would wish to consider, including guidelines as to how the Park Site would be managed, the study session agenda on March 18, 1974, public hearings, position statements, etc. Member Benson reviewed the motion made at the February 11, 1974 meeting, requesting a study session as soon as possible. Member Penar felt the Board should not get bogged down on details and he referred to the position paper on "Use of Facilities and Citizen Participation" presented by the League of Women Voters. President McClendon felt the first step to be taken would be to consider and review all aspects at the March 18 Workshop.

It was moved by Member Penar and seconded by Member Benson that this Board establish a study session on March 18, 1974, to study problems at the Park Site, to take a view of the areas that need to be looked at at the Park Site and to come up with a program agreeable to the Board which would ultimately result in a set of School District policies on the management of the Park Site.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto, Penar and Turner.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Turner and seconded by Member Mirto to receive the written report submitted by the Safety Committee.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto, Penar and Turner.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Sup't. Hoben reported on the condition of the child who had been injured at the Bird School intersection, stating he was in a light coma but was expected to regain consciousness, shortly.

It was moved by Member Gray and seconded by Member Penar that this meeting be adjourned.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto, Penar and Turner.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:10 p.m.

Mrs. Peggy Fisher, parent from Bird School, rose to ask the Board to take a stand and request action on State House Bill #4080 regarding regulation of speed limits and request action on State House Bill #4080 regarding regulation of speed limits and request action on State House Bill #4080 regarding regulation of speed limits.

The Board was asked whether either the MAISL group, a Lobbyist or the Wayne County Intermediate School District could be of any assistance in getting this bill out of Committee in Lansing. Citizens were requested to write to Representative Michael Novak, Chairman - Roads and Bridges Committee, State House of Representatives, Lansing, Michigan, to request action on this bill.

Sup't. Hoben thanked Principal Taylor for the hospitality of East Middle School in hosting this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
GARY A. MIRTO, Secretary
Board of Education

The Stroller... A friend is gone

There is a strange silence around our house these days.

In the unusual quiet surroundings the squirrels are getting a bit braver and venturing closer to the back door in quest of food.

Even the birds that have been around most of the winter seem to be visiting us oftener - and bringing guests.

And when The Stroller leaves in the morning the sharp little bark that sent him on his way is missing. It is the same at day's end. There is no dainty little bark breaking the silence to welcome him.

You see, little Gi-Gi is gone.

The little bundle of silver gray with the tiny black nose that came into our lives little more than nine years ago is now in that place where little canines go when their days on this dizzy sphere are ended.

Age didn't make an exception of her. As the years piled on one after the other, they took their toll. She survived all the ills of a puppy and even had the experience of under-going treatment from the experts at Michigan State University.

Yes, she had gone to college.

But came the day when the advancing years struck a damaging blow and left her with a bad case of arthritis. Gently, she limped along on three legs - putting up a great fight. But it was in vain.

To add to her woes, the little bundle of silver gray that was a real pal and constant companion to the lady of the house, lost lost her eyesight. As she started running into things and stumbling aimlessly around the living room we knew the end had come. The merciful thing to do was to have her put to sleep.

With lumps in our throats the decision was made. When she was handed, tenderly, over to the veterinarian in a fond farewell came many memories of the great times we had enjoyed and the great solace she was in time of adversity that comes to every household.

From the moment she arrived almost a decade ago she was the mistress of all she surveyed. Her little black eyes kept watch, indoors and out and she had an uncanny ability of recognizing the imaginary lot line.

Let any one, or any thing try to cross it, and her bark soon sent them on their way. Her main "enemies" were the squirrels.

Over the years, too, we had become pals on long, evening walks and she picked up traits that were almost human as she'd look up and she'd cock her head as if to ask, "Are we going any further?" Then she'd lead the way home.

Many were the times, too, when we'd play ball with her in the back yard. She became adept at running and catching the little red ball - even when we moved indoors in the winter months.

She was a real pal and the joy of the entire neighborhood.

Now she is gone. But she'll never be forgotten.

Off in the distance I hear faint traces of her little bark in the morning and there's never a time when The Stroller returns from his daily labors that he doesn't have visions of her sparkling eyes and the tiny black nose.

Yes, little Gi-Gi is gone but the memory of her will live forever.

ALTHOUGH CONDEMNED in September, the old Brinks House on Ann Arbor Road still stands open to vandals and scavengers who are slowly dismantling the outlying barns for weathered wood. The property is owned by Donovan and Associates who were ordered to tear the buildings down last fall by Plymouth Township Building Inspector James Briggs. With the winter weather gone, Briggs said, "I'm getting back on this." (Staff photo)

School growth less than expected, but still critical

Just because the doomsday population projections which the Judd Report projected for Plymouth's schools didn't come true, there's no basis saying there's nothing to worry about.

That, says Mike Manore of Wade, Trim and Associates, is the real message in the latest school population projection report prepared by his firm.

Manore's report shows that the committee headed by Edmond Judd apparently overestimated the amount of growth the Plymouth School District would be getting by nearly 700 students a year.

When James Rossman, after having been fired as school superintendent, was given the task of updating the Judd Report, he warned of the over-estimate but even Rossman's projections proved high.

So Manore was commissioned to restudy the school district's growth and to come up with more accurate projections.

He found the former population projections were based, in part, on erroneous student - household ratios and did not take into account the time lag between dwelling construction and its occupancy.

Based on adjustments to compensate for those factors, Manore's report says, the schools can expect a population of 16,000 by 1976 - about 3,000 less than the Judd Report projected.

Only time will tell how accurate Manore's projections are. This is now the third attempt at "guesstimating" the schools' growth since 1970.

But it's on these figures that we must rely for the moment anyway.

Manore's predictions are going to affect the schools in two ways.

First of all, even though the student population growth is less than expected, it is still "critical," according to Manore.

This means that we're going to have to look at housing the students who will be entering our district between now and the 1975 - 76 year when the number of students is expected to exceed the number of desks here.

Perhaps the answer is crowding in a few more desks, but there are other problems too, like balancing classes exactly so all desks are always utilized. That's pretty much impossible to do.

Then there are those who say students can't learn in large classes. That may or may not be, but even larger class sizes are only a temporary answer.

So we're going to see the already twice - defeated building bond issue on the June 11 school ballot again.

Maybe this time, with the Manore projections to guide them, school officials will see that the issue is pared to include only building which is ABSOLUTELY necessary.

Of course, even if the issue is passed, it takes additional time to build the schools and get them ready for students.

It could be that even if the issue passes in June, the buildings won't be up in time to alleviate the overcrowding.

The revised student population statistics affect the schools in yet another way. The amount of state aid the district receives is based, in part, on the number of students in the schools.

Thus, when budgets are being drawn up, an estimate of the student population is necessary to determine how much state aid our district will be receiving.

Last year, because the growth was less than expected, our state aid situation was worse than anticipated.

With a more accurate account, figuring the schools' budget will be a little easier.

The voters may feel better about discussing a bond issue when the schools can show that their growth predictions aren't more hysteria than fact.

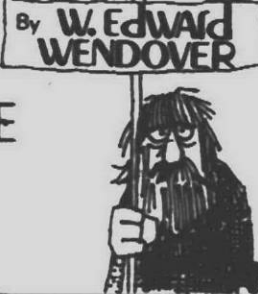

So in a sense, Manore's Report will be evaluated on June 11.

If the bond issue is kept to what's necessary according to his report, the school voters will give their opinions of how accurate the school growth predictions are.

There are other issues involved too, but certainly one of the reasons the voters have twice turned down the building bond issue is because they felt the schools' growth predictions relative to available space were unrealistic.

Now maybe we've got some accurate information.

'We think beautiful -- 365 days a year'

BY MARGARET MILLER

They call him Mr. Clean because his community definitely is.

And Jack Rourke of Allen Park, for five years his city's beautification chairman and since 1973 one of its councilmen, doesn't miss a trick when it comes to making it more attractive and keeping it that way.

His suggestions came thick and fast when he conducted a workshop for the Beautification Council of Southeastern Michigan in Redford Township Wednesday.

"Work on one big project at a time," he told some 60 community representatives.

"Write letters, both commendatory and with suggestions."

"Get the cooperation of your city's department of public service."

"Involve the school children — at all grade levels and in all schools."

"Give awards as if they were going out of style."

"And keep at it all the time. Our formula is 365, because beautification isn't a spring clean-up but a year around effort." "Get your local newspapers to cooperate and keep what you are doing always before the public. It's their community, too."

I think beautiful," Rourke said, "and after five years people just think of cleaning up the city when they think of me. When a church or some other group is having a fair, someone is sure to call about getting extra trash containers."

"I make sure they are there."

Rourke said one big aspect of a clean community is an abundance of trash barrels for people to use.

"In Allen Park you can't move without seeing a barrel for your candy wrappers," he said. "We buy the 50-gallon kind and they are emptied once or twice a week. We keep them painted and looking nice, too."

Can and bottle litter, he said, is kept down by means of a "beer run" the DPS trucks make each Monday morning to pick up the empties.

How did the beautification commission get the workers to do this, a representative of one of the dozen or so communities participating in the workshop wanted to know.

"They cooperate," said Rourke. "They are beautiful people and we let them know we appreciate them."

In the schools, Rourke said, the smallest children are given certificates for cleaning up the areas around their own homes. Those in fourth to sixth grades participate in a poster contest with winners announced in a big community event, and the posters are used all over town.

Junior highs plan special projects, like a blitz program last year when they were given an hour away from the classroom to clean up a messy area.

"You should have seen the pile of junk," he added.

Rourke said he and the other commissioners never have been above playing the kids and the business community against each other in the matter of clean-up.

"We try to get through to the kids about not spreading cans and bottles and paper drink containers, but it also is necessary to work with the merchants who sell the jazz," he said.

"When I see garbage at a business place I send in the building, inspector or the fire marshal."

"Yes, the health inspector too," he said in answer to a questioner.

Letters — several hundred of them over the five years he headed the commission — are a big part of the program. There are welcoming letters to every new business and resident "to let them know we are here too," and the kind that reads "I was driving by your business place and I know that garbage must be a mistake and you will want to cooperate."

Another kind of letter goes out when Rourke hears of someone being especially helpful, like the retiree who made it his business to keep clean a small area of a park near his home.

"He was so pleased that someone had noticed," Rourke said.

Allen Park's main emphasis this year, trees for one of the main business streets, has had plenty of publicity in the local press, and that's a normal state of affairs, Rourke said.

"The newspapers thought I was running for mayor, I brought in so much stuff," he said. "But they have given us plenty of space — they were interested too."

A few other ideas he mentioned included an on-going program of sidewalk repair, an annual art show, prominent display of awards won for beautification "because you never know who might be visiting town" and one school project in which the children took a street near the school and made a cardboard mock-up of how they would like to see it look.

"Then they invited the businessmen there to visit the school and see it," he added. "And would you believe it? Some of those changes suggested have been made."

Projects for the future include more tree-plantings and building face-liftings.

"And a new commission chairman is coming in and will put more emphasis on youth projects," Rourke said. "We're certainly not perfect, but we keep letting everyone know beautiful is here to stay."

"Our community is all we've got." They don't call him Mr. Clean for nothing.

Wedding dress makes christening gown for auction

BY MARGARET MILLER

Because Mrs. Juliet McGlinch's mother is a devotee of the save-everything philosophy, there's a beautiful christening gown ready for the March 20 auction in St. Damian Catholic Church in Westland.

Mrs. McGlinch, a Westland resident, made the gown out of a wedding dress her mother found in a Dearborn Heights home bought by one of the members of her family.

"We don't know who it belonged to," Mrs. McGlinch said, "but it was in beautiful condition. My mother throws nothing away and I love to sew."

Thus came into being one of the 100 or more items the St. Gerard Guild of the St. Damian altar society will offer when auctioning begins at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the parish community room.

Other items of note will be: a big cloth doll that Carol Cartier, auction chairman, is having made; a ceramic football lamp made by Kathy Urban, ticket chairman; a music box from Sharon Dominato; a baby cradle from Norma Gizzi; and, a night lamp being contributed by Jan Zak.

"The whole parish is joining in making contributions for the big event that will raise funds for various altar society projects," Mrs. McGlinch said. "We hope to have 100 items."

The auction is the guild's contribution this year to parish fund-raising.

Mrs. McGlinch, who does a lot of sewing for herself and young daughters Karen and Jennifer, worked on her baptismal gown project for several evenings.

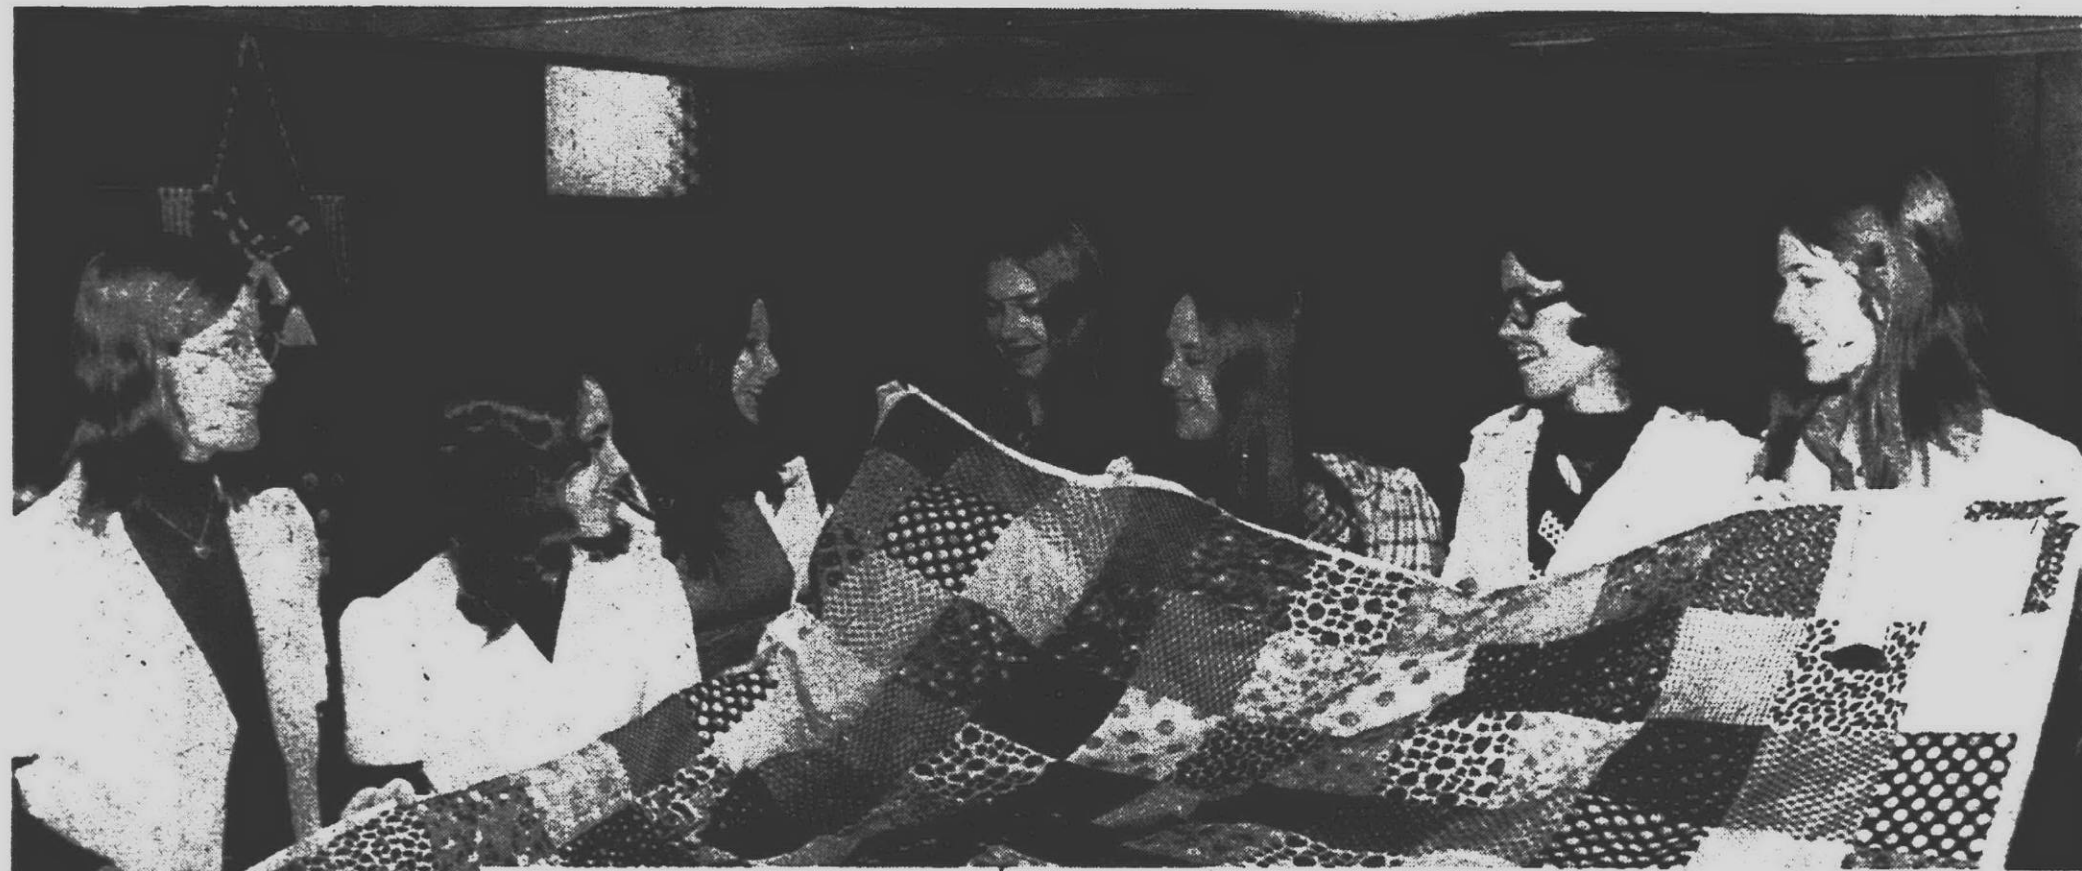

She used a baby dress pattern for the bodice and sleeves, cutting them from the same parts of the wedding gown. The long skirt was practically ready-made from the ruffled skirt of the gown.

"I molded the hat over the head of one of the girls' dolls," she said. The same doll came with the dress for a photograph in this newspaper's office, "and I had to promise I wasn't taking her back to Santa Claus," Mrs. McGlinch added.

Other committee members working on the auction are Marlene Kish, Pat McGarrie, Pat Merlino, Laurie Parker, Jan Quinn, and Eleanore Snider.

Col. Joseph Fortier will be the auctioneer.

Tickets, available at the door, are $1. Prizes and refreshments also will be part of the evening's program.

Camp Fire girls have a birthday

Camp Fire Girls who know how to use their needles have some brand new awards and a lot of needy people have some useful gifts in store.

It's all part of the Finger Fling community service project that culminated in award presentations at a 64th birthday party for the Camp Fire Girls in this area Thursday night.

At the birthday ceremonial in Faith Lutheran Church in Livonia, several dozen Camp Fire Girls at various age levels received award ribbons for Finger Fling projects — toys, layettes, quilts, afghans, knitted and crocheted items and accessories.

All were made by CFG groups and individually, in a year-long competition sponsored by the Detroit area Camp Fire Council and the Needlework Guild.

The articles contributed, some 250 of them from the Wa-No-Su CFG council in this area, are distributed to those in need by the Guild.

Last year most of the clothing items went to flood victims in Mississippi and the toys were given to emotionally disabled and handicapped children in several area hospitals.

To be eligible for awards, girls had to complete their projects without help from parent or leader. A number of items were collected that had been made by mothers or by the girls with help, but these were not included in the judging.

Y to register swimmers

Registration for swimming classes for both adults and juniors will open March 11 at Northwest Branch YWCA, 25940 Grand River. New classes will begin March 18 and run for eight weeks.

Classes will be offered to all kinds of swimmers and to all kinds of age groups.

Swimming for adult women in the aqua-gym will feature specialized exercises in the water.

The Saturday recreation program for boys and girls six through 12 will run from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. It will include not only swimming but tumbling, fencing, games, and arts and crafts.

A pre-school program offered for children from 2½ to five will include

Participating in the birthday ceremonial were some 350 girls in the Wa-No-Su district, including Livonia, Plymouth, Garden City, Westland and Redford Township as well as part of northwest Detroit.

Winners included:

mother-tot swimming, mother-tot gym, and pre-school art.

AAUW speaker will probe legal rights of women

"Focus on Legal Rights of Women" will be the topic for the March 19 meeting of the Livonia branch of the American Association of University Women.

The gathering is scheduled at 8 p.m. in St. Paul Presbyterian Church, Five Mile west of Inkster, Livonia.

Barbara Robb, feminist lawyer recently appointed as a hearing referee on race and sex bias by the Michigan Civil Rights Commission, will be guest speaker.

A speech therapy teacher for several years, she earned a law degree from the Detroit College of Law and now practices law in Detroit. She was active in the peace movement during the 60s and was a delegate to the Geneva Peace Convention in 1962.

Mrs. Ruth Skodack will be chairman for the evening. The program also will include a slide presentation on role reversal produced by the cluster communications committee of the University of Michigan Commission for Women.

The slides show what might happen, for example, in an interview by a woman employer and a male applicant.

DEBORAH DOBBS

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dobbs of Norborne Street, Redford Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Deborah Helen, to Robert R. Eichstadt of Dearborn. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eichstadt. The bride-to-be is a 1974 graduate of Redford Union High School. Her fiancé is employed by the Frank H. Wilson Co. in Detroit. They plan to be married in July.

JEANNE ROGERS

Mr. and Mrs. John V. Rogers of Rochester, Minn., formerly of Plymouth, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jeanne Elizabeth, to James Robert Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy of Plymouth. Both the bride-elect and her fiancé attended Plymouth High School. A May 31 wedding is planned.

CHERYL CARPENTER

Mr. and Mrs. Chellis M. Carpenter Jr. of Roselawn Drive, Westland, announce the engagement of their daughter, Cheryl Lee, to Jeffrey Thomas White of Ross Avenue, Livonia. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sidney White. The bride-elect graduated from Churchill High School in 1974 and her fiancé graduated from the same school in 1972. The wedding is planned for summer.

Workshop for young couples

A workshop for young couples will be offered by a husband-wife team March 23 and 24 in Oakland University's Continuum Center.

Called "Growing Together," the workshop will be led by David and Gail Imig of Michigan State University. Mrs. Imig has an MA in family studies and Dr. Imig earned his doctorate in family and child sciences.

Sessions will run from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Saturday, and from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Sunday. The weekend, which costs $70 per couple, will be limited to a small enrollment. Early registration is suggested. For information contact the Continuum Center at Oakland University.

TERRY SPENCER
Mrs. Lennie Ferguson of Plymouth and Wayne Spencer of Westland announce the engagement of their daughter, Terry Lynn, to Daniel W. Bachman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Bachman of Belleville. The bride-to-be graduated last January from Plymouth-Salem High School and now works for Swiss American Products, Inc. Her fiancé graduated from Bob Jones University in 1971. He is now employed by Tom's Roofing in Wyandotte. The wedding is planned for Aug. 10.

How to organize your own business

By W.W. Edgar

Two young fellows, who share the belief that you can't make a name for yourself working for someone else, have joined forces to establish one of Livonia's latest business enterprises.

Under the firm name of Progressive Planners, Inc., Scott Edwards, 35, a former student at Wayne State, and Thomas Pembroke, 26, a graduate of Lawrence Tech, have set up shop in the new Trade Center on Farmington Road to deal with office furniture, and accessories along with total equipment for office and shop areas.

In addition to the marketing of office and shop equipment they offer a complete space planning and office design services.

Meeting as fellow employees with a like concern on the east side, they often discussed the possibility of breaking out for themselves a year ago.

"At first we worked out of our homes," Edwards explained, and our success was such that we decided on our own plant."

Once the decision was made, a survey of the entire suburban area was made to determine the most suitable location.

"When the survey was completed," Edwards confided, "we selected Livonia because it is in the center of a fast growing industrial and commercial center and our opportunities seem unlimited."

"Our big problem, at the moment," he went on, "is in receiving shipments to fill our orders."

Looking around the office he explained the bareness of the main sector by stating that the office staff is giving up its desks and chairs to provide service for a customer in an emergency.

Reserves pick closer location for training

The U. S. Army's 70th Division, with headquarters in Livonia, has announced plans to send nearly half of its Detroit area men and women reservists to closer summer training sites in order to conserve energy.

"The defense department recently had its fuel allocation reduced by 17 per cent," said Brig. Gen. Naiff Kelel, 70th Division commander. "Traditionally most of our 3,000 people were flown to Fort Polk, La. to replace active troops in conducting basic combat training."

"Due to the fuel shortage, we will send about 1,400 reservists by bus to Fort Knox, Ky., 800 miles closer, during the next two months. We've been told that flying our people to the closer location uses 22 per cent less jet fuel, we're going one step further," he said.

The Army had considered eliminating summer camp altogether, but felt it was necessary to conduct combat training at regular army posts.

"Not all reservists are drill sergeants," one officer said. "We discussed the possibility of keeping nearly 400 non-training personnel in Livonia, but we felt that more gas would be consumed by 400 reservists commuting to Livonia daily — even with car pools — than would be used at Fort Knox where the majority of our transportation needs are handled by buses and troop carriers."

Behavior lectures scheduled at U - M

ANN ARBOR — Three lectures on intergroup behavior, social comparison, and social change will be presented at the University of Michigan March 27 - 29 by noted British social psychologist Prof. Henri Tajfel.

The second annual Katz - Newcomb lectures will be at 4 p.m. each day in the Rackham Amphitheatre. There is no admission. Prof. Tajfel's lectures are titled "Inter - individual and Inter - group Behavior," "When Do We Want To Be Different," and "From Social Change to Social Movements."

He has written extensively on social perceptions and inter - group relations and has chaired several international conferences on the subjects. He teaches at the University of Bristol.

Summer ROTC course planned

Male college sophomores and community college graduates may qualify for the Army ROTC advanced course by attending a special six - week program in Fort Knox, Ky., according to Lt. Col. Felix Seldon, ROTC instructor at the University of Detroit.

Courses begin June 14 and 21 for students planning on two more years of college. Students who complete the summer program and the ROTC advanced course would be commissioned as second lieutenants upon graduation.

The new basic camp will emphasize leadership techniques, military tactics, and a variety of other subjects. Those attending will be paid $490 for the six weeks of training. Room, board, and travel expenses are provided.

Students who complete the summer program and are admitted to the advance course will be paid $100 per month during the following school years.

Although females are not yet eligible for the new basic camp, Seldon hopes it will be open to women beginning next year.

ore details are available from college Army ROTC departments or by writing or calling Lt. Col. Seldon at the University of Detroit.

Stempien backers urge try for 2nd

Former State Rep. Marvin R. Stempien (D - Liv.) says he's heard the rumors, too, that he intends to seek his party's nomination in the 2nd Congressional District.

But he claims it's "too early" to decide whether to make the race.

"It's the time to sit back and watch the situation," Stempien said. "I keep telling people who call urging me to run: 'Who knows what will happen between now and the primary?'"

"Very frankly, a lot of people here and there are thinking that because I was the party's nominee last time and that this will be a better year for Democrats, I should be the candidate."

He's flattered, also, Stempien said, that calls are coming from Washtenaw and Monroe counties and "not just the Livonia area."

The seat now is held by Republican Marvin Esch of Ann Arbor who defeated Stempien by 23,559 votes in the last congressional contest.

Two Democrats already are announced candidates for the nomination: Ronald Egnor, Ypsilanti city attorney, and John S. Reuther, nephew of the late United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther.

Stempien served as state representative from 1965 - 66 and 1969 - 72, during which he served for two years as majority floor leader and another two as assistant majority floor leader. He currently is chairman of the Wayne 2nd District Democratic Organization.

After leaving the legislature he served for a time on a contract basis drafting horse, dog and pari-mutuel betting bills.

He now engages in private law practice and serves as judicial assistant for Detroit Common Pleas Court.

Stempien confessed he got a snicker out of Esch's recent statement that he would vote to impeach President Richard Nixon for contempt of Congress if the president disobeyed a House Judiciary Committee subpoena to supply requested materials.

"I remember being on the same platform with Esch during the last campaign when he said repeatedly: 'I support Richard Nixon and I want my opponent to say who he supports,'" Stempien said.

"It was interesting to see a congressman so totally committed to Richard Nixon since 1972 now trying to disassociate himself. Frankly, I think he was just being opportunistic."

DR. MARVIN SIMS of Livonia (right), president of the Detroit District Dental Society and Delta Dental Plan of Michigan, reviews a Delta agreement with Dr. Thomas O'Donovan, administrator of Mount Carmel Mercy Hospital. The program pays 50 per cent on basic and prosthetic benefits for the hospital's 1,300 employees. Mount Carmel is the first hospital in Michigan to provide dental care for its employees.

Safety forum starts April 1

LIVONIA — Industrial safety personnel and firemen from throughout Michigan are being invited to an "Instructors Institute" the week of April 1 at Madonna College.

The institute is designed to prepare fire service personnel as instructors for technical safety courses, to assist them in development of course outlines, lesson plans, instructional aids, and evaluative techniques. Each person will have a chance to teach under supervision in classroom situations.

Applications will be accepted with representation of one or two persons from each fire department or industry on a first-come, first-accepted basis.

Persons may register before March 21 at Madonna, 36600 Schoolcraft at Levan, Livonia. Late applications will be considered for the roster of alternatives. Registration fee is $10, with the college offering a tuition waiver worth $70.

Esch named to OTA board

Congressman Marvin L. Esch (R - Ann Arbor) has been named by House Speaker Carl Albert to the 13 member Technology Assessment Board, an office set up by Congress to gauge the impact of technological applications.

The bipartisan governing board has responsibility for administering the Congressional Office of Technological Assessment which was established in 1972 under legislation of which Esch was a sponsor.

"A small but highly competent staff experienced in the management of technology research and development, the law and the legislative process is being hired to develop dependable and accurate data for congressional committees," Esch said.

"The OTA will play an increasingly important role in coming years by providing information and technical advice to Congress so the consequences of technological applications can be anticipated, understood and evaluated in determining public policy on national problems," said Esch.

The OTA board is chaired by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, (D - Mass.)

Esch, a member of the education and labor committee and the science and astronautics committee, was named to a vacancy on the board caused by the resignation from Congress of James Harvey a Michigan republican.

Other members of the OTA board are: Senators Hubert H. Humphrey, D - Minn.; Ernest Hollings, D - S.C.; Ted Stevens, R - Alaska; Clifford Case, R - N.J.; Richard Schweiker, R - Pa.; and Congressmen Olin Teague, D - Texas; John Davis, D - Ga.; Morris Udall, D - Ariz.; and Charles Gubser, R - Calif.; Charles A. Mosher, R - Ohio, vice chairman; and former Congressman Emilio Q. Daddario of Conn. serves as executive director.

Excuses for higher rates?

No, just facts.

You've probably noticed that your Consumers Power natural gas bill is higher this year. Right?

Well, one reason for this increase is that Consumers Power Company now has to pay more for the gas it purchases, and for the Canadian gas liquids it uses to make synthetic gas.

Add that to colder weather and the fact that your bill may also cover a longer period than usual, and it means you end up with an increase in your bill. It's no excuse. It's just the way it is.

Franklin in state quarter-finals

Patriot cagers dump Kettering, 68-53

By TOM DONOGHUE
Sports Editor

Eight basketball teams, that's all that remain in Class A state tournament competition.

Livonia Franklin, a school that hadn't even won a district game up to last season, is one of those eight.

"The Year of the Patriot" is no longer a term used just around Franklin High. Now a community - an entire area - is behind Bob Visser's Patriots as they jump into state quarter final play this Thursday against a 23-2 Brother Rice team.

Three more cage victories - that's all that stands between the Patriots and a state championship.

"The kids want to win," commented Visser whose club now has tucked under its belt the Northwest championship, a Livonia Stevenson District and now a regional crown along with a 22-3 overall showing.

"From now on these kids are not playing just for themselves and the school but for everyone concerned and connected with basketball in the area."

Franklin's "Mr. Everything," Kevin Kaseta, came up with a 24 point performance in heading the Patriots past Waterford Kettering with the Patriots' "unsung hero," Keith Blazaitis, popping in 20.

Then came four performers with six points each in Matt DeMars, Ken Fry, Jamie Knapp and Dan Christner.

And to think that between Blazaitis, DeMars and Fry - Visser didn't get 10 points total out of these three the entire 1972-73 season.

The 15 point victory over a 15-4 Kettering club had to be Franklin's easiest win in the state tourney where the Patriots now stand 5-0.

After finishing 17-3 in the regular season, Franklin dumped Garden City East in the district opener, 48-35, just got by Garden City West, 58-55, and nipped rival Churchill in the final seconds, 59-58.

The Patriots then put it all together in the regional opener to surprise Suburban Eight champion Plymouth Salem, 62-52. And the stage was set for Kettering for the regional finale.

"Kettering is a two-man team. They don't work together as a team much," commented Visser.

In fact Franklin's 10 turnovers in the opening half is what really kept it a close ballgame at that stage. The Patriots came up with only six turnovers in the second half and outscored the Captains in the last 16 minutes, 36-26.

Two free throws by Blazaitis with 21 seconds elapsed got Franklin off to a 2-0 start. With 4:50 remaining in the quarter, a bucket by Tim Weiss pushed the Kettering Captains to a 6-4 lead but this was to be the only time in the contest that Visser was to see his Patriots behind.

Three straight buckets by Blazaitis and a two-pointer by Knapp pushed Franklin to 12-6 before Weiss hit again for the Captains.

Buckets by Knapp and Kaseta upped Franklin's first quarter margin to 16-8 and it looked as if the Patriots were on their way as Kettering already showed signs of a beaten foe.

With 2:18 remaining in the half, it was 30-18 Franklin but the Patriots then found themselves not executing and throwing the ball away attempting to break Kettering's press.

The Captains reeled off seven straight points before Ken Fry upped it to 32-25. A bucket by Kettering's Weiss sliced it to 32-27 at the close of the half.

We were getting careless near the end of the half," said Visser. "We let their press bother us and just weren't executing."

"But we adjusted the second half and let our size - our two 'poles' do the job," he added.

His "poles," meaning 6-8 Kaseta and 6-8 Blazaitis who completely dominated the boards. Franklin won the rebound game, 40-34, with Kaseta hauling in 12 and Blazaitis 13. The rebound statistic makes it appear a lot closer than it really was as Kettering wound up taking 29 more shots at the bucket than Franklin.

Franklin took only 51 but converted on 25 for 49 per cent while the Captains shot 80 times and hit on only 22 for 28 per cent.

The Patriots maintained their margin in the third quarter, breaking out to a 14 point lead but settling for a 10 point, 46-36 advantage heading into the final eight minutes.

That's when free throw shooting paid off in a winning dividend as the Patriots converted on 12 of 16, Kaseta hitting four of four from the charity line that period.

The closest Kettering got to was within 12 points with 6:12 remaining - the rest belonged to the spirited charge of Franklin.

Now comes Catholic loop champion Brother Rice sporting a 23-2 record, both losses coming at the hands of Catholic Central in regular season play.

The Brother Rice Warriors played a bit of dangerous strategy in nudging their way into the state quarter finals.

With 3:05 remaining in its regional title game with Pontiac Central and trailing, 54-53, Rice elected to stall and wait for a last shot that would tell it all.

With six seconds showing, 6-9 Will Franklin was fouled while arching a short jumper.

Franklin made good both tosses and Central missed on a last second 20 footer to give Rice a 55-54 win.

Now comes the matchup that will be sure to put a spark in every prep basketball follower. Franklin's Kaseta at 6-8 against Brother Rice's Franklin at 6-9.

Brother Rice will be the tallest opponent yet for the Patriots.

"Rice is a patterned, well-disciplined club," said Visser. "I don't think Bill Franklin matches up to Kaseta's talents and I really feel we will be able to defend them."

Franklin High's "goal list" for the 1973-74 season is now down to the final number.

"Our first goal was to win the league," said Visser. "Then we had a few teams to get back at out of our league and then we set our sights on the district and then the regional."

Now comes goal No. 5 and Visser said after a moment of silence, "That's all I am going to say about our goals."

Three steps away - that has to be goal No. 5. A goal that a certain Franklin could be right in the middle of on the road to stop another Franklin. Box score:

Franklin puckmen rout Alpena twice

The champions of the Suburban prep hockey loop, Livonia Franklin, tuned up for the post-season Observer & Eccentric hockey tourney with a weekend two game sweep of Alpena High.

Paul Ferguson's Franklin Patriots blanked host Alpena club in the opening clash, 8-0, and dumped it the following day, 9-2.

Franklin finished at 9-2-1 in the Suburban and wound up winning the league with a lower goals scored against average as Stevenson also finished at 9-2-1. Franklin gave up just 24 goals in the league while Stevenson allowed 34.

The two victories over Alpena completed Franklin's overall schedule with a 14 win, five loss and one tie mark.

Tim Juntilla and Tim Livesay each came up with three goal hat-tricks in the 8-0 blanking of Alpena and Dave Garbutt who finished with 19 goals and 21 assists in Franklin's 20 game schedule slapped in three scores in the 9-2 victory.

Bentley - Churchill smash foes in tourney openers

Now there are four. The second annual Observer & Eccentric sponsored George Gee hockey tourney field was quickly sliced to four and Livonia is again assured of holding the championship trophy.

The remaining title contenders are Livonia's Bentley, Churchill, Franklin and defending champion Stevenson.

Churchill crushed Southfield, 8-0, and Bentley blitzed Wyandotte, 8-2, in first round competition while the first and second place clubs in the Suburban Prep Hockey loop, Franklin and Stevenson sat on the sidelines with byes.

Now comes the real heart of the tourney as Stevenson will be pitted against Churchill and Franklin against Bentley in this Wednesday's (March 20) tourney action at Ford ice rink in Livonia.

It will be Stevenson and Churchill in the 7 p.m. clash and league champion Franklin against Bentley at 9 p.m.

The two that survive the "Livonia scramble" will meet in the finale on Friday (March 22) at Ford Rink, face off slated for 8 p.m.

Besides the presentation of the George Gee trophy following the championship clash, Sports Editor Tom Donoghue will announce the all-area hockey teams; the tourney's most valuable player and the league's first sportsmanlike player of the year award.

Churchill, which finished fourth in the league with a 5-5-2 showing, edged ahead after one period against a 2-8-2 Southfield crew on a goal by Dave Leist.

The Chargers exploded in the second on tallies by Brian Veasey, Kirk Grant, Jeff Traux, and Leist again to carry a 5-0 margin into the final 15 minutes.

Veasey slapped in two goals in the third for Churchill to come up with his hat trick. Dave Bird finished off the attack and Dave Mushinski was credited with the Churchill win in the nets.

It was the same sort of story in game No. 2 but with a different beginning.

A 5-7 Wyandotte crew jumped off to a 1-0 lead after one period against Bentley at 8-3-1.

But Mike Dudley got his Bulldogs moving in the second stanza with Paul Roshirt, Tom Train and Jeff Munson popping in goals, Munson scoring twice to give Bentley a 4-1 advantage.

Mark Sabuda upped it to 5-1 early in the third and it was then Greg Rakowicz's time to shine as the Bulldog right winger flipped in three scores to all but assure Bentley a shot at loop champion Franklin in Wednesday's semi final action.

Bentley outshot Wyandotte, 37 to 18, Russ Brown getting credit for the Bulldog win in the nets. Box scores:

Turf Tips, Quips

By Doc Minard

Northville Downs rings down the curtain on its winter meeting Wednesday night and the pacers and trotters move crosstown to Hazel Park for the first of 82 nights of action on Thursday.

Track management hopes this will be the best meeting in Hazel Park's 22 years of harness racing. They are hopeful the quality of racing, attendance and mutual handle will soar to all time high peaks.

Requests for stall space were unprecedented this year with some 1,150 horses accepted for stall space and an additional 750 turned down.

Joe Adamsky and Chris Boring will be back, each with 40 head. Greg Wright, Walt McMurray and Gordon Norris will each have 30 horses. Merritt Dokey, former track champion, and Shelly Goudreau have been allotted 20 stalls.

Jim Kennedy, who has been campaigning in Florida, will have 22 and Mike Novick Jr., defending driver champion, asked for and received space for 11 horses. Don Hall, who has spent the winter, in Florida, with a great deal of success plans to ship in within a few days.

Among the new names is Leroy Copeland, shipping in from the east with 15 head; Ray Remmen with 17, Gerald Aiken and Dennis Normandin with 15 each and Andy Hardy with 10. Racing Secretary Bill Connors, who arrived from Pompano Park, over the weekend, also expects additional stables to come in from California within three weeks.

The coast delegation will include many of the top performers from there during the winter. On the list is Sir Dalrae, generally considered North America's top pacer.

Sir Dalrae arrived in the midwest three or four weeks ago and quickly demonstrated that he is back in shape, ready to take on any competition available in the midwest. Then plans are to ship east for some rich events there, back to the midwest and then on to California for the fall campaign there.

From State Racing Commissioner Leo Shirley comes a communication bringing us up to date on the investigations at the Jackson-at-Northville meeting of January 1973 and that at the Detroit Race Course in August 1973.

It was mentioned in this column in February that the commissioner had been remiss in not completing these investigations or in making public announcements of what had transpired. In his letter, the commissioner explains that decisions were made on both investigations but did not receive the same play in newspapers as the original cases.

That may be, all we know is that we did not receive any word on the final disposition until we sat down and talked with Shirley two weeks back.

"Immediate action was taken in connection with these violations of the racing act in accordance with rules and regulations governing racing in Michigan," reports Shirley in his letter.

"The violations at the tracks were handled immediately by the stewards. The stewards are made up of one state steward and two track stewards at each meet. In all instances rulings were made and appropriate notification to publications of the industry and local news media.

"With regard to the bribery cases at Northville Downs during the Jackson meeting in December 1972, the investigation of this office was very extensive and was completed in February 1973. When the state decided to prosecute these cases through the courts instead of through administrative procedures, additional investigation was conducted by the attorney general staff with the assistance of the Racing Commission investigators.

"Information concerning these cases is as follows:

"Raymond Fuller case was heard before District Judge Dunbar Davis on April 10, 1973 in Northville. The complaint involved an offer for a fixed case. Charge was dismissed by Judge Davis for lack of evidence pertaining to identification of the date of the race. Commission investigators are continuing investigation.

"George Bowman, charged with violation of Michigan rule 147 (c) for conduct detrimental to the sport, failure to make known of being approached with an offer or a bribe to restrain his horse. Fined $200 and suspended for 30 days.

"Roger Edwards, on Sept. 10, 1973, the stewards suspended the license indefinitely. He was charged with offering money or benefits to another driver. He immediately appealed the ruling to the Racing Commissioner. The appeal was acknowledged on Sept. 12, 1973 and request for stay granted. Hearing was held Sept. 20, 1973 and adjourned pending further investigation.

"Vernon L. Huntoon, a stewards hearing was held Jan. 8, 1974 and Huntoon was charged with violation of Michigan Rule 315 (c) and (d) in that he did offer or bribe to restrain his horse corruptly, offer money or benefits to another driver. He was suspended by the stewards for an indefinite period and the case referred to the Racing Commission for further investigation. On Jan. 23, 1974, Huntoon through his attorney, requested a hearing. No date has been set and the usual preliminary investigation is being conducted."

The investigation at the Detroit Race Course involving the cancellation of a race on Aug. 20, 1973 in connection with the drugging of horses will be reviewed in next Thursday's column.

We wish to thank the Commissioner for taking the time to get all of the facts to us.

Despite the wave of high scoring in the metropolitan area since the start of the season there has been a slump in the number of perfect games.

Up to the moment, the Greater Detroit Bowling Association, keeper of the sanctioned records, has only 15 registered compared to 22 at this time a year ago.

The figures contain a strange twist in that this year, the number of 299 games has reached 11 compared to seven a year ago. All of which means that with a bit of luck the 300 Club could have enrolled many more members.

The figures also reveal what pressure does to the bowlers. They show that the 12th strike is the most difficult of all to get.

The gasoline shortage that has curtailed the activities of many persons has been a boon to the directors of bowling tournaments throughout the area.

In other years the bowlers were driving all over the midwest in quest of prize money. This year they are staying home and entries in local events show the result.

The Women's city tournament, now under way, had an entry that approached 1,000 teams and the men's event also will have a big field when the entries close Saturday night.

With only two more weeks to go, the Gratiot Lanes team, of Alma, is the one to beat in the State Elks tournament at Plaza Bowl. The Alma group has a 2946 total to lead the pack, while a father and son combination—Ed Kast Sr. and Jr. of Pontiac, is pacing the doubles with 1162 and Wayne Roe, of Dearborn, is the singles leader with a 652.

A couple of stubborn tenpins can do some strange things to a fellow. Take the case of Herb Smith, in the Moose League at Garden Lanes. He was well on his way to a place on the honor roll and membership in the 300 club with 10 strikes in a row in his first game. On the 11th ball he drew a frown from Lady Luck and two pins refused to fall. So he settled for a 285.

But that's not all. When the pins refused to topple the pressure got to him and he finished with a 635 series.

Scoring in classics throughout Observerland took a dip during the week and the top man was Leon Berger who rolled a 679 in the Businessmen's Classic at Bel-Aire. At that he barely hung on to beat out Aron Lipshy who posted a 668. Leon started well with a 247, but dropped to 233 and then 199 for his victory while Lipshy closed with a 257.

Behind them came Larry Ledwedge with a 660, Ron Wolofski with 653 and Mike Amico with 621.

The closest battle came in the Senior House League where George Miles finished with a 279 to beat Tom McCullough by two pins 650 to 648. The other double century scorers were Joe Budcher with 635 and Andy Di Camilo with a 633.

In the women's division Pat Dick paced the Ladies Classic with a 234 in 518. And Milt Schroeder used an opening 275 to take the honors in the Sunday Alternates with a 663.

Several new faces reached the honor roll in the Garden Classic. Heading the parade was Jim Hayes with a 653 while Mazi rolled a 630 to beat Jim Brennan by a single pin for second place.

Midge Poshkot had good reason for her broad smile behind the counter at Westland Bowl.

After being in a slump for several weeks she came through with a 571 to regain her stride in the Ladies Classic despite a middle game of 132. At that she had to yield honors to Georgia Vickshott who rolled a 245 middle game in 595.

The ladies at Mayflower had another big week converting splits. Jane Hessinger topped the 5-6-10. Marky Molina did the same with the 2-7-10 and Dorothy Alsobrooks took the 4-7-10 in stride.

The men also had a great time as Bill Tremblay knocked over the 6-7-10, while Steve Plasko, Rich Pasralian and Mike Duzey each converted the 5-7.

Joe Kilmer rolled a 257 in 641 and Barb Waling a 224 in 592 to pace the Farmington Lanes Mixed Classic. In the junior loops around the area Greg Hiner, a 134 average lad at Country Lanes, posted a 602... Tammy Ekola, with a 143 average, had a 241 in 529, to top the girls at Mayflower as the boys' honors went to Randy Wilson who had a 237 in 523 and Bob Kranek matched the 237 for a 590.

Even though she didn't win a game, Delores Dowhan took top honors in the Livonia Ladies Classic for a series count of 447-132-579.

In the individual games Gerry Wilson won the first with 186-39-225. Lillian Beattie took the second with 159-12-201 and Eleanor Slavin paced the final with 156-46-202.

Mark Mathews, 17-year-old member of the Rochester Adams High School league, rolled his way on to the state junior bowling honor roll with a 300 game in a 749 series at North Hill Lanes in Rochester.

The perfect game was only the fourth ever bowled in the Michigan Youth Bowling Association and earned him a place among the all-time stars of the state.

To roll the big series Mark opened with a 262, followed with the 300 and closed with a 186.

Before Mark posted his big game and series scoring honors among the juniors at North Hill Lanes had been shared by Doug Hoeffler with a 289 and Steve Wolcott with a 278.

SPRING SALES AT LIVONIA MALL

Garden Show Blooms At Livonia Mall

This "Paki Taxi" (Elephant) Has his Trunk Up Front

The magic of animals, especially the jumbo elephant, cannot be denied. So Livonia Mall is bringing the "Packy Taxi," a lumbering pachyderm (elephant) who will give rides to the children in the Mall, March 25-31.

Deodorized (elephants can rate with skunks if they are not specially treated), the docile beast will be available for riding 10:30-12:30, 2-4 p.m., and 6:30-8:30 p.m. Discount tickets will be available at most of the Mall stores.

Come ride him. He gets 10 miles to the bale of hay.

Garden Exhibitions Show Many Styles

Promptly at 5:30 p.m. last Sunday, March 10, the mammoth phantom doors at the rear of the Mall were opened to allow a procession of trucks, bulldozers, off loaders and people to parade in. All were used to create the miracle of actual spring gardens; living, growing, and blooming in Livonia Mall for their annual Spring and Garden Show.

Some 24 to 48 hours later, and after the use of 200 yards of dirt, sand, wood chips, stone, railroad ties, fencing, bushes, trees, shrubs, flowers and 60 exhausted men, the miracle was complete. The material was arranged into artistically designed gardens blooming as if it were June.

Actually it all starts some 12 weeks sooner when the landscapers meet, decide the areas they are going to utilize, and then design their gardens so no two are alike. Then, 6

Bunny Boosts Easter Seals

What good is a 10 foot Easter Bunny? If he's the rabbit that will be at Livonia Mall during the pre-Easter celebration he'll serve a double purpose.

First, he'll thrill and delight the small fry as they give him their 10 cent donations and receive, in return, an egg full of candy. There's also a lucky number in each egg that might win a special gift.

Secondly, the bunny will turn his dimes over to the Easter Seal Society of Western Wayne County to help in the society's battle against all diseases of adults and children.

If you know someone who could use the society's services call the Easter Seal Society at 722-3055.

Garden Exhibitions To Range From Japanese to Provincial

weeks prior to the transformation, trees, bushes and plants, over 120 varieties, are brought into heated areas to be forced into blooming at just the right time by controlling the temperatures.

More than 30 varieties of stone are selected to accent the growing areas and form patios, pathways, and low walls.

WORKING THROUGH THE NIGHT
Then the actual hand work starts.

Sports Goods Store Added To Livonia Mall

Some time around mid-summer Livonia Mall will welcome their newest tenant, United Sporting Goods.

Occupying 9,085 square feet of the former Farmer Jack store they will bring to the area a complete selection of hunting, fishing, tennis, golf, and related sporting goods.

United Sporting Goods, a division of Edison Bros. (Baker Shoes), is based in California and is rapidly expanding throughout the United States into the larger metropolitan areas.

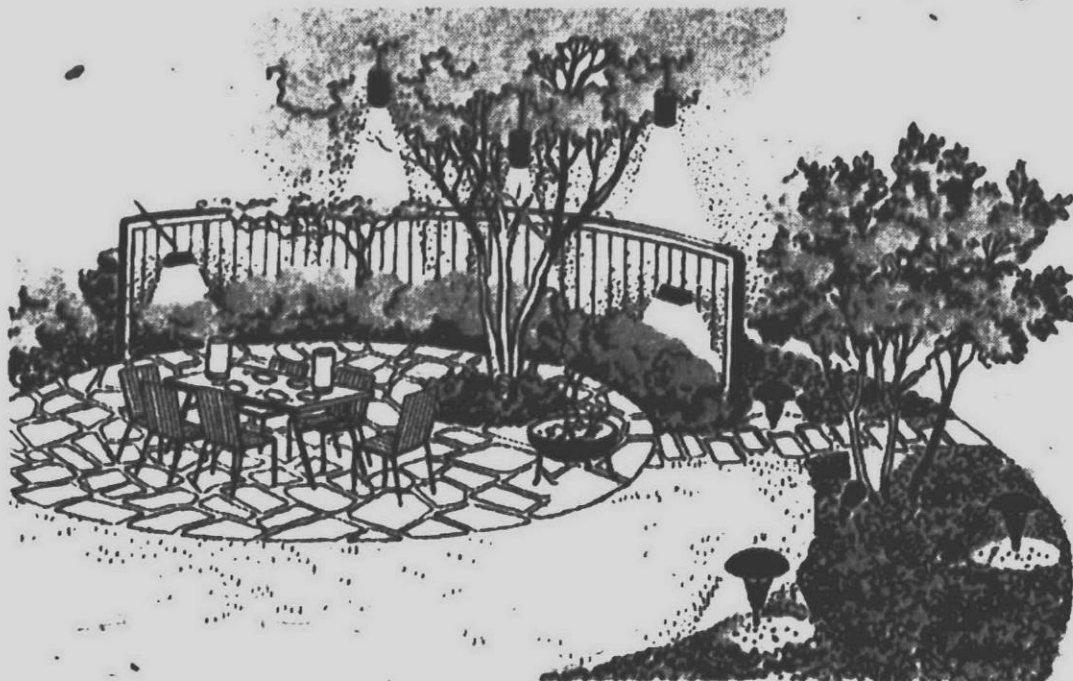

Through the night men labor putting down plastic film to protect the floors, covering it with sand to absorb the moisture, and cementing stone walls and anchoring railroad ties. Then they fill the area with topsoil and wood chips, arranging the locations of the trees and accent plants and the areas begin to take on definite form.

The early morning hours resound to the clank of mixers churning the prairie film, one of the newer products with which to surface patios and terraces, and the thump of hammers as the wood decks and small building are put together. Finally the fountains, flowers, and garden accessories are added and the show is complete.

ANTIQUE CHILDRENS' PLAYHOUSE

Some of the more unusual features of this year's show will be the antique childrens' playhouse. It dates from the turn of the century and has been moved to the mall from its original long-time home on 8 Mile Road. Also on display will be an exhibit from the historical society of Livonia and the wares of an earth worker, Ruth Poris, who will be displaying her pots and vessels which she creates from clay.

GROW STRAWBERRIES BY THE BARRELFUL -We've Got The Barrels!

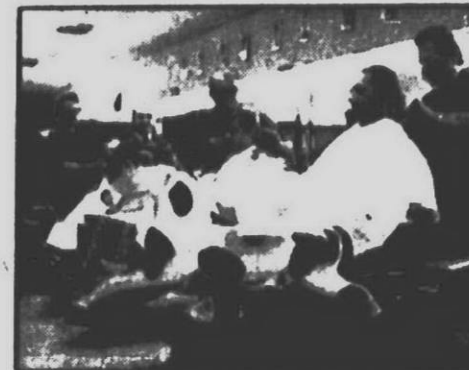

Strawberries are just about everybody's favorite small fruit, yet if you want the real mouth-watering strawberry flavor and true fragrance you must grow your own. Because only fully ripened strawberries are the real thing. This doesn't mean you need a large garden patch or even several 20 foot rows in order to produce a harvest -- you can grow a respectable crop in a very small area. And, as a matter of fact, you can grow them in a barrel or wooden tub.

If music is your pleasure, listen to the harmonious tones of the Tudor Singers of Frost Junior High.

They will be at Livonia Mall on Saturday, March 23 at 4 p.m., and will sing like larks 'til 5 p.m. Enjoy a good, wholesome program from some of the fine young people in our area.

Although there is a live bunny at the Mall for Easter, they have also brought in a huge 10 foot Easter Bunny to delight the children and help a worthwhile cause.

For a 10 cent donation each child will receive an Easter egg filled with candy. The eggs will also contain numbers and those with the Lucky Bunny Numbers will win free gifts.

The proceeds from the donations will go to the Western Wayne County Easter Seal Society.

FREE TAX SERVICES

Not such a pleasant thought perhaps, but a most worthwhile service, the IRS is maintaining a FREE tax aid service in the Livonia Mall, near Crowley's from 11 a.m. 'til 7 p.m. until April 14.

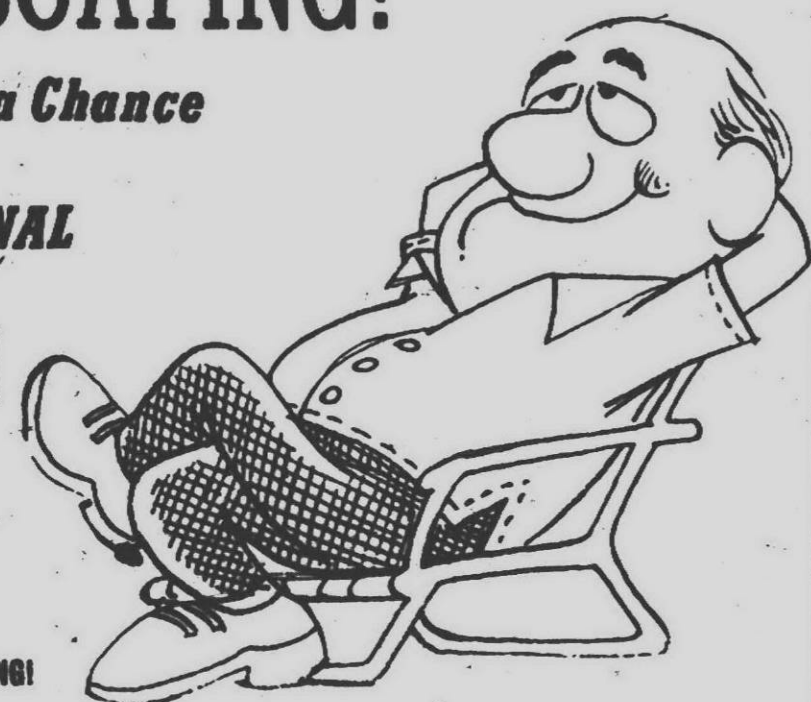

Starting March 17, on Sundays in the Livonia Mall Crowley - Coney Island Court, Bingo games will be held from 6 p.m. 'til 10 p.m. They are sponsored by the Sisterhood of the Livonia Jewish Congregation with all proceeds going to charity.

Do you have an impossible
situation?

- heavy clay soil
- steep hillsides
- erosion problems
- total shade
- standing water
- lack of privacy
- noise areas
- sandy area

...or perhaps something serious?

Bring your problems to the attention of our Landscape Design Department. Through their years of experience in the correction of similar situations, they will show you ways of correcting and controlling any problems you may have.

If you are interested in having a Landscape Plan prepared specifically for you, please supply a copy of your survey sheet and photographs of your home and grounds. If possible see us at Livonia Mall through March 24.

Be sure to see our Historical Garden, "My Old Kentucky Home," at Livonia Mall, opposite Meyer Jewelry.

Our present warehouse and nursery grounds are located on 47833 W. 7 Mile Rd., Northville, Mich.
