Elizabeth Holmes to step down

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP — After more than 20 years of keeping the township's books, Elizabeth Holmes is stepping down.

Mrs. Holmes, known to her friends as "Pinky," has announced that she will not seek re-election to her treasurer post, which she has occupied since Dec. 9, 1953.

She will serve out her term, which expires Nov. 20. "I will be surprised what I'm going to do in six months," she laughed.

"I'm not retiring," she stressed. "I'm looking for another job — I've had one offer already."

While she says she doesn't know for sure what she plans to do, she hints it might be related to the fact that she has held a real estate license for the past 10 years.

Whatever new job she takes, it most certainly will be one that deals with the public — an aspect of the township job she has enjoyed greatly.

A real satisfying part of this job has been working with people," Mrs. Holmes said.

Some people say I'm crazy to quit," she chuckled.

"I can't give them a single reason I'm leaving — it's really hard to put a finger on. It's nothing in particular but everything in general."

"I'd just like to try something else for a while."

Not that I haven't enjoyed every day here because I have," she added.

If it were only the paper work — the taxes and the money — that would be all right, but the township board is very important. I don't want to stay on beyond the point where I can do my best on it."

Mrs. Holmes was first elected to the treasurer's post in 1955 and won re-election in 1957, 1959, 1961, 1963, 1966 (the year the township elections were changed from spring to fall), 1968, 1970 and 1972 to her current term.

"So you can see I'm not afraid of elections," she smiled, not mentioning that she has never had any significant contention for her post.

She was first appointed to the job which her husband, Zach, had held for eight months before his death. Her appointment came the day he died.

In those days, the township treasurer was paid on the basis of one per cent of the taxes collected. "I'd sure like to go back to that," she laughed, noting that the Plymouth Township budget, which was $500,000 then, has grown to $7,500,000 now.

Much of that increase has come from sewer and water projects and services, which Mrs. Holmes feels, is the "major thing which has had a difference in the township" during the time she has known it.

When she first took office, the township had no sewer and water services and after a water and sewer department was formed, Mrs. Holmes served as its office manager for 12 years in addition to her treasurer's duties.

Another important issue the township has seen, she said, are the "ations" — annexation, consolidation

Consolidation:

Proponents, opponents argue issues in debate

By BOB ERICKSON

PLYMOUTH — Is government in Plymouth Township more responsive and more democratic than government in the city, or does it simply appear that way because it does so much less?

That was a question central to debate over the issue of consolidation which took place at the 20th annual business meeting of the Community Improvement Association of Plymouth Township Thursday night.

In that debate, attorney John Thomas, a township resident whose law practice is in the city, and former city mayor James McKeon argued for consolidation of the city and the township while Plymouth Township Planning Commission member Richard Gornick, a township resident, and James Kratzner, also a township resident who works for the township engineering firm of Brender & Hamill, argued against consolidation.

In his opening statement, Thomas argued that townships represent a limited form of government created in the 19th century to deal with a rural society and primarily agrarian problems.

"We are no longer a rural society," he said. "When the township was created 75 years ago, a fire department was not even viewed as a governmental function." Thomas added that today residents of the township must recognize that police protection, sanitation, refuse and garbage collection, recreation for the young and facilities for senior citizens are becoming governmental functions that must all be important to residents of the township.

He noted that increasingly, people do not trust government and feel that it is not responsive. "We have to figure out a way to make government less complicated," he said, "and one way to do that is to eliminate some of the government."

Thomas argued that the way to do that was to consolidate an area "which already has some historical identity" into a single unit with governmental identity which would allow it to provide for all its residents equally.

In his argument against the consolidation proposal, Gornick said that township government is already more responsive and less complex than other forms of government. He compared its function to the ultra-democratic New England town meeting system wherein each citizen votes on every issue, no matter how small.

Thomas contradicted himself, Gornick asserted, when he talked about the weakness of township government and then said that it can do anything it wants, but can't finance it.

Gornick said he considers that fact a strength rather than a weakness.

"We're realistic," he said. "We know that we would have to fund any extra services we might require. But the township does not have the extensive bureaucracy that the city has. The city has 86 per cent more revenue than the township, but do they get 86 per cent more services?"

"A real strength of the township in making government responsive and simpler is having to go to the people rather than to a large internal staff for services."

McKeon said, in rebuttal to Gornick's remarks, that he saw nothing "inherent about township government that permits it to do the job for less money."

"The township can get along on less money," he said, "only because it does less."

The former Plymouth mayor noted that other townships in the area have found that their millage rates will rise whether or not they achieve the advantages of consolidation. He pointed to the Redford Township millage rate which has risen to 6.99, more than twice the rate in Plymouth Township, and the Bloomfield Township figure, which at 14.0 is only slightly less than the 14.7 mills which the City of Plymouth is now assessed.

"The townships will have to ask for more money if they want to provide more services," he said. McKeon maintained that township expenses have not risen appreciably in the last several years because "they provide

Canton Trustee Bob Griffin dies

By MARIE MCGEE

CANTON — From the very beginning, Bob Griffin was an unusual trustee.

For one thing, he got his start in politics at the age of 62 — when most folks would begin thinking of retiring. But then age was never a factor with Bob.

He was also the kind of guy who had to speak up when he felt things were not just right.

It was this trait that launched him on his political career in Canton Township two years ago.

It all began in the November, 1970 gubernatorial election. A newcomer to Canton from Detroit, he voted for the first time in Canton at nearby Gallimore Elementary School. The voting situation wasn't exactly ideal.

Canton's population was just beginning its astronomical climb upwards. This fact coupled with an unusually heavy voter turnout played havoc with the Gallimore election facilities. And to complicate things even more, two voting machines broke down, forcing voters to wait several hours in line — long after the 8 p.m. deadline, in fact.

At the tail end of that line was Bob Griffin. He didn't waste any time telling the township board at its next meeting about the intolerable situation and recommended some immediate changes.

That meeting was the beginning of what was to become a regular habit with Bob and his wife, Marie. It was a rare night after that when the pair wasn't in the audience during the township board meeting.

Because of his obvious interest in the township government and his special brand of forthrightness, he was often asked by the board to comment on various issues — from his seat in the audience.

His interest in local government coincided with his involvement in senior citizen activities that were just beginning to take hold and the Griffins both soon assumed leadership roles in the fledgling organization.

He was often the spokesman for the group during those early organizational days when matters affecting them came before the board.

That relationship continued for two years until the resignation of Trustee Vern Rorabacher. It came as no surprise when Supervisor Phil Dingeldey submitted Griffin's name to fill the vacancy. That was in May of 1972. The following November he successfully beat out five other Democratic candidates to win one of two four-year terms on the board.

His interest in the township never diminished. In fact, he and his beloved Marie began attending planning commission meetings twice a month in order to stay abreast of land use developments that board members were constantly being asked to vote on.

"There was nothing cut and dried with Bob," his board colleagues say. "and you could always count on him to have done his homework."

Last August Bob retired as a press room supervisor after 45 years with the Detroit News. It was not long after that the 64-year-old trustee was afflicted with a fatal blood disease.

He died April 25 in Nightingale Nursing Home West. Funeral services were held today (Monday) at 1 p.m. in the Fred Wood Funeral Home, Livonia. Interment was in Acacia Park. The Rev. William Ritter of Newburg Methodist Church officiated.

In addition to his wife, he leaves a son, Robert L. of Florida; daughters, Mrs. James Dillman of Texas and Mrs. Shirley Nelson of California; a sister, Marguerite Saylor of Alabama; and six grandchildren.

Members of the township board acted as pallbearers. It was their way of silently saluting "a darn swell guy."

Service celebrates day of humiliation, fast, prayer

Collections Please, Sir!

This week, your Observer & Eccentric carrier will begin collecting for April issues of our hometown newspaper. Please pass him the "collections" — you'll be assisting yourself of a continuing insight into the happenings within your community — and helping our "junior executives" earn money, prizes, and recognition for their carrier service.

PLYMOUTH — Responding to the U.S. Senate call for a day of humiliation, fasting and prayer, the Plymouth Evangelical Fellowship will conduct a special service Tuesday, April 30, beginning at noon at the Plymouth Cultural Center.

Speaker at the non-denominational service will be the Rev. Dr. Brece Dunn of Grace Presbyterian Church, Peoria Ill.

Other participants will include Charles Lowe, Plymouth city attorney; James Houk, former Plymouth mayor and now director of the Plymouth-Canton Development Commission; and Harold Head, a local civic affairs leader.

Conditions that exist in our nation and the direction that our country seems to be headed cause us real concern for its people and the future," commented Rev. Paul S. Thompson, pastor of First Baptist Church of Plymouth.

Issues like Watergate, vote buying, corruption, inability to cope with crises and many other problems have spurred the Senate to call our nation to this special day.

"Purpose of the service is to draw attention to the Senate resolution and to ask our people to pray for our nation and its leaders, for restoration of our respect and dependency upon God and for regaining the principles and ethics upon which our nation was originally founded," Rev. Thompson said.

While the service is sponsored by the Plymouth Evangelical Fellowship, it is supported by almost all the churches in the city, he said.

Hold hearing

PLYMOUTH — The Plymouth City Commission will hold a public hearing at 8 p.m. tonight (Monday) in City Hall on its proposed 1974-75 budget which calls for a 1.75 mill tax levy increase.

County of most people lacks a single leader

By W.W. EDGAR

Painting a verbal picture showing all the flaws in the archaic form of government in Wayne County, Robert E. FitzPatrick, chairman of the board of commissioners, informed members of the Livonia Chamber of Commerce at its monthly luncheon that a few changes, now in the planning stage, could brighten conditions for all communities. "In many areas," he said, "we have the worst record in the country and yet we have the potential of being the greatest. Few people realize that our county's population is greater than a dozen states in the Union and greater than two thirds of the countries in the United Nations. Yet, we are a government without a fulltime leader."

Minus this fulltime executive he pointed out that in some cases the taxpayers money is being poured down the drain.

As examples he cited the Wayne County General Hospital where the deficit has run to $20 million even though only five per cent of the patients are indigents who should be cared for by the county. He also pointed to the civil service program, which he called the worst in the country as an open drain for losing money. Much of this loss can be attributed to lack of leadership and absence of responsibility, he told the members and it could be corrected with a full-time executive with power to act.

I don't think this executive director should be a monster, but a leader and the taxpayers should be allowed a voice in selecting the best.

In spite of the many flaws he cited, FitzPatrick called attention to the many fine things that have been accomplished.

Among these were the employment of a fiscal advisor to guide the board, shifting of the corporation counsel to the jurisdiction of the board; a new program of hiring employees; signing of a three-year contract with the county employees union; lifting the county medical center from one of the worst to one of the best; renovating the county jail, strengthening law enforcement and the county planning commission along with providing greater leadership in the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments.

"We've come a long way with what we have, but still have a long way to go. And much of the improvement would be attained through the establishment of an executive head of county government."

Looking to the immediate future FitzPatrick stated that plans are being studied for a new county jail and the establishment of out-county courts, and coordination of all health services.

An organized task force to work on crime along with the state and the bordering regions of Wayne County also is in the making plus a program of service for the senior citizens.

He informed the chamber there are more than 60,000 senior citizens above the age of 65 in the county who are in the low income group and need help.

"It seems people are willing to stress old things, but not old people."

As a starter Dan Ryan, of Livonia, has been hired to work on a senior citizens program that will benefit the older adults living in the county.

Among the big things planned for the future is combining of the county drain commission and road commission into a single department of public works. FitzPatrick admitted this may take a lot of doing, but it is in process.

"We've got to modernize," FitzPatrick emphasized. "Our predecessors refused to recognize many of the problems and the need of executive leadership. If we don't move now the disturbing conditions will haunt us for years."

"Furthermore, the people should have the right to choose the leader of their county government and I am willing to take my chances on the democratic process."

Schoolcraft to burn bonds at special ceremony May 1

Like many American homeowners, Schoolcraft College is planning to celebrate paying off its first mortgage with a bond burning ceremony.

Scheduled for Wednesday, May 1 at 8 p.m., the ceremony will feature a special cake created by the culinary arts department. In it will be a receptacle for the burning of the final bond recently paid off by the college.

Dr. Eric Bradner, Schoolcraft's first president, and his wife have been invited to the celebration in the board room.

All those who have served as a member of the board of trustees have also received invitations, as have officials of the National Bank of Detroit which handled the $2,435,000 bond issue approved by the voters in 1962.

It was this bond issue that financed the initial founding of the college, the money being used for land and the first buildings.

At the meeting of the board of trustees, at which plans for the ceremony were made, Dr. C. Nelson Grote, president, requested the trustees to arrive at the bond burning event an hour early. He plans to escort them in a walk around the campus to enable them to see first hand the various maintenance, grounds, and mechanical problems of the college.

Trustee Rosina Raymond of Livonia enlivened the meeting with a spirited appeal that one of the women officials of the college have some part in the commencement ceremonies.

She said she was seconded in this appeal by Mrs. Nancie Blatt of Westland, the other woman member of the board.

Stating that no active role for a woman had been planned for the commencement, Mrs. Raymond pointed out there were several women in administrative positions at the college who could fill this role.

Dr. John LaRue, president of the board, then suggested he discuss the matter privately with Dr. Grote. Subsequently, no change was made in the commencement program.

Trustees also agreed that a one-year certificate in data processing would now be granted by the college. The new program would include some of the courses of its regular two-year program packaged on a one-year basis.

As approved by the curriculum-instruction committee, the one-year course would introduce the student to a minimum of seven programming languages and the mathematics of computers.

In addition, the student would obtain a basic knowledge of accounting and English. Courses taken on the one-year certificate curriculum can be applied to the two-year associate degree curriculum.

The board also decided to establish a clearing account at the Michigan National Bank, Six Mile and Newburg, so students may take advantage of the bank's BankAmericard for financing their education.

This is a method by which a student can defer payment for his college education," explained Grote. "Schoolcraft was one of the first colleges to start this. We are not allowed to defer payment, but use of this plan, which does not cost the college anything, gives the student a chance to defer his tuition payments at no risk to the college."

In an effort to bring the trustees up to date on a 1972 case of sex discrimination among its maintenance workers, Grote said that the case is going to court. He claimed the college was not in violation of federal statutes in its Utility II and III classifications.

Following a perusal of college records in 1972 by Alfred Mitchell of the U.S. Department of Labor, Mitchell told the college there was no appreciable difference in the work of the two classifications.

At that time Utility II was all male and received higher wages than Utility III, which was all female.

The college contended that there was a difference in their work, that the all-male group did heavier work such as moving furniture and using heavy machines such as wax strippers.

The college further contended the employees in both classifications, all members of the International Union of Operating Engineers, Local 547, did not object to the system.

The college also claimed that women in the Physical Education building are in the Utility II classification and that one or two men are in Utility III. There is a 30 cent differential between the classifications.

Grote also announced his intention to attend the meeting of the Michigan Community College Association at Southwestern Michigan College May 3 and 4.

Following the regular meeting the board adjourned to an executive session to discuss future faculty salaries. The next regular meeting of the board will be May 29. A study session will be held May 8.

Plymouth firms make dragon-shaped ride

By MARTHA MAHAN

PLYMOUTH — It's lonelier in Plymouth since those 17 dragons left. But it's nice to know that these dragons, in a switchabout from the days of knight errantry, are off to do a good deed. No fire breathing on maidens for them.

These genial, Plymouth - nurtured dragons are headed for a California amusement park to haul vacationers up a mountain side to the site of a Chinese village and restaurant.

The footpath to the restaurant is known locally as "Cardiac Arrest," so you can see that these dragons are just about knights in armor themselves.

The 16-foot-long, bright yellow and brown dragons, with their claws, green horns and glistening white teeth were produced in the buildings of two Plymouth companies, A&D Temple, Inc., and Glassline, Inc.

The two are part of what is known as the Actran Group, which includes: Actran, Inc., of Troy; A&D Temple; Glassline; Dynamic Design, also of Troy; and Anchor Conveyor of Detroit.

Robert W. Fogarty of Actran is the idea man. He dreams up a project, sells it and acts as prime contractor.

The idea for the chain-driven, dragon-shaped car which moves along a conveyor belt originated with Fogarty.

Each car carries nine passengers and the 17 cars will provide continuous transportation up the mountain-side. Their speed is such that riders may step off or on, as the cars glide along.

Harold Fetty of Dynamic Designs turned out the styling design and Anchor Conveyor the mechanical design.

Then Livonian Al Temple took over the experimental work, producing a clay model and fabricating it from the design. The model went from Temple to Guy Kenny of Glassline for fiberglass pieces and components.

The 17 dragons cost a total $800,000 and were transported to the $50 million, 40-acre park near Valencia, Calif., in huge moving vans.

The Actran Group also has turned out a small, two-rider car for the Six Flags amusement park at Dallas, Texas. It works much like a slot car only is operated from within by a driver.

The car is about 10 feet long with a gas engine and moves on a turnpike type peg with the operator steering.

Temple, who lives in Livonia's Newburgh Heights subdivision, has been a car and airplane model "bug" since childhood.

"I can remember my dad calling me to come to bed at 1 and 2 a.m. when I was still out in the garage working on a model airplane," he laughed.

However, the taste was inherited. Temple insisted. His dad, now 75 years old, used to fashion boats inside bottles and still is a model railroad fan.

Temple entered military service during the Korean conflict and flew as a member of the Air Force model airplane team, competing all over the country.

After leaving the Air Force, he joined Ford Motor Co. as a styling model builder and stayed with Ford 15 years before opening his own business in Plymouth six years ago.

Explaining his decision to give up Ford job security and branch out on his own, Temple said:

"I wanted to do something for myself. I felt I had a creative ability and I wanted to use it."

His wife, Doris, thought so, too, and helped him get the operation started. She's the "D" in "A&D" and still sits on the board of directors.

The plant now employs 14 persons and turns out all types of experimental products. Auto parts make up a large part of the output.

Temple now is working, for example, on ideas for grills, hub caps, medallions and other parts for 1975 and 1976 model Fords. His plant produces the model from Ford designs for the carmakers to determine their feasibility.

"But if any customer has an idea, we'll build the first part," Temple said. His work includes machining, fabricating, molding and constructing forms and models in metal, plastic, clay and wood.

His jobs have included fields such as computers, microfilm readers, hobbies, recreational activities and even the medical industry.

He made a model of plastic cabinets for incubators, a special sun dial for an Ann Arbor professor to use while teaching in England, and a painted wooden model of a tape recorder to be photographed for advertising purposes before the recorder was into production.

He's produced models of $60,000 show cars and complete mannikins for crash testing by a University of Michigan highway safety study.

He's proud that the mannikins, with steel spines and ribs, not only responded to the testing as nearly to the real human body as possible, but were fabricated so strongly that they could be used over and over, unlike most models.

Three years ago, Temple designed a glass dune buggy so constructed that it can meet legal requirements for street operation.

A Nebraska concern began production of the buggies, which Temple named "Concept I."

"Then the dune buggy marked dropped off," Temple said, and production declined. But the gas shortage has revived the buggy's popularity in California, he said, and Temple still holds the royalties.

Besides his business diversity which keeps Temple's interests and enthusiasms alive, he's an ardent hobbyist.

On a wall of his office hang the antlers of a huge elk, a trophy of his first hunting trip in Wyoming.

A few years back, Temple and his wife traveled to Oklahoma to learn authentic Indian dances and songs. Back home, they taught them to a group of high school students and performed with them at functions such as the Plymouth Fall Festival and Farmington Founders Day.

An ardent rock hound, Temple also organized the Livonia Parks and Recreation Department's Roamin Club of rock hunters.

His latest hobby is treasure hunting, both underground and underwater, with electronic metal and mineral detectors.

But with all his love for nature and his outdoor hobbies, Temple admits the only dragon he's seen is the one his company made for the amusement park.

Schools define safety issue

PLYMOUTH — The Plymouth Community School District Board of Education agreed Tuesday to ask voters in the June 10 election to approve a .4 mill levy aimed specifically at increasing the safety of children going to and from school.

School officials estimate that the levy would provide more than $150,000 for planned safety improvements.

About $87,000 would go for traffic signs, lights, and two new overpasses that have not yet been assigned definite locations.

Officials suggested that sites at the corner of Ann Arbor Trail and Sheldon Road and across from Gallimore School are among those being considered.

A $48,000 two-way radio system is planned for new school buses.

More than $7,000 will be used to extend sidewalks at Bird, Gallimore, Allen and perhaps West schools.

In addition, the Plymouth Police Department has agreed to provide an ongoing training program for school crossing guards at a cost of $1,000 to the district for the first four years of training.

Cadet Grady at conference

'Police costs figures low,' Ver Burg

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP — Dr. Kenneth Ver Burg, one of the Michigan State University researchers who wrote the consolidation study, says the Plymouth Township estimated costs of starting its own police department are low.

Ver Burg was commenting on the figures released last Tuesday by the Plymouth Township Citizens' Study Committee on Police headed by Col. Fred Davids, former head of the Michigan State Police.

The Davids' committee report recommended that the township form its own limited police force and that the fringe benefit costs of such a 10-man department would be about $31,700 annually.

In the MSU consolidation report, which was released prior to the Davids' committee report, the MSU researchers had reviewed what were then the committee's tentative proposals and estimated the fringe benefit costs were short by some $90,000.

Ver Burg said Friday, after hearing the Davids' report cost estimates, that the estimates for fringe benefits and salaries of township police are "still low in terms of the impact of collective bargaining and mandatory arbitration will have."

"It's our feeling that shortly after the township organizes a police department, it will be unionized," the researcher said.

Canton issues last 2 liquor licenses

By MARIE McGEE

CANTON—It had to happen sooner or later.

Canton trustees—in one fell swoop—Tuesday night granted the last two remaining Class C liquor licenses the township had to give out presumably until the next federal census is taken.

Now at least one trustee is hoping that Tuesday night's action "doesn't come to haunt us."

But even so, a new Public Act (58) may save the day because it will allow the township to take a special census. Based on the outcome of that census, it's highly possible that the township would be eligible for additional licenses far in advance of the 1980 census.

But in the meantime, the trustees granted the last two licenses to the developer of a restaurant-bar-motel complex slated for the Lotz-Ford Roads area and to a pair of Westland businessmen who plan a bowling center on Ford Road, east of Canton Center Road, directly across the street from the Meijer supermarket development.

Trustees spent considerable time discussing the application from Wilbert Tucker, to whom the board gave a tentative promise in September of 1973 of a license in the event he would build a motel-restaurant complex in the I-275 area.

Tucker reported to the board Tuesday night that he still intends to go through with his plans, but admitted he lost the backing for a Scott's Inn franchise. He said the motel franchise backed off because of the energy crisis.

Tucker assured trustees that he has received the financial backing for the $1.5 million development with the franchise and will begin immediately to build the restaurant and bar. The motel will follow and hopefully will be completed to coincide with the completion of the I-275 expressway.

It was this point that disturbed Trustee Brian Schwall.

Referring to the motel chain's withdrawal from the plan, Schwall said: "This doesn't speak very well for your chances. If they're having difficulties, how do you expect to make it?"

Tucker said he felt that economic conditions could change in the next year or two.

Schwall went on to say that what bothered him most was that the restaurant and bar would probably be built, but Canton might never get the promised motel.

Tucker said that when he applied for the building permit "it would be for the whole shot." He said that's how his financing has been arranged.

Trustees finally passed a resolution sponsored by Clerk John Flodin granting the license subject to site plan approval by the township board and an application for a building permit for the entire complex.

Lone dissenter was Schwall.

Following Tucker's request came one from Dave Hopkins and Charles Stevenson for a license to be used in connection with a 40-lane bowling center on Ford Road, between Sheldon and Canton Center Roads, west of the Kmart development.

The two developers, associated with neighboring Westland Bowl, said that a commitment had been obtained from Brunswick Corp. for $900,000 worth of the latest type of bowling equipment.

The transaction, however, depended completely on the two men getting a liquor license for the recreational center which will probably be called "Canton Lanes."

Schwall sponsored the resolution to grant the last license—and this time it was Poole who balked. He later then joined his colleagues in the unanimous passage of the resolution.

"I sure hope this doesn't come back to haunt us," Poole commented after the meeting.

During the discussion, he said he would feel better about letting the last license go if "we could see some more licenses coming down the pike."

Earlier, Flodin informed the board that he has already written to Secretary of State's office requesting information on how to go about conducting the special census.

"The zeal with which we have sheltered these licenses may not longer be necessary," Flodin commented. "Within a year we may have adequate amount of licenses to serve the community," he added cheerfully.

Ford-Sheldon center wins site plan OK

CANTON—Site plan approval for the Harvard Square Shopping Center at the northeast corner of Ford and Sheldon Roads came this week from the Canton Township Board of Trustees.

The first phase of the 9.5 acre development will be a shopping center with Kroger supermarket as the key tenant, a spokesman for the developer said. Along with the supermarket will be a Super X drug store, a Kroger affiliate. The remainder of the site will be a smaller commercial development with possibly a bank or medical office space. The two units will be linked by mall-type construction with a 12-foot overhang, trustees were told.

A three-foot berm will encircle the front and sides and there will be a "proliferation of landscaping," trustees also learned.

Plans for two additional traffic lanes were also discussed.

RICHARD JOHNSON, a teacher at Starkweather Elementary School, displays the gift he received from his class which gave a surprise baby shower for their teacher and his expectant wife, Linda.

Teacher's class throws shower

PLYMOUTH—Fifth graders in Richard Johnson's class at Starkweather School threw a surprise baby shower recently which caught the teacher and his expectant wife, Linda, completely off guard.

The fifth graders plotted the surprise on their own, made gifts or raised the money to buy them, and planned their own menu for the occasion.

Parents who helped deliver the goods on the day of the party were Mrs. Lawrence Peterson, Mrs. John Pierangelino, Mrs. Theodore Lindrith, Mrs. Gordon Snyder, and Tim and Inez Van Toll.

Staff members at Starkweather later gave a shower of their own for the Johnsons.

MARK A. TURNER (left) of Plymouth received the President's Cup for sharing the highest academic record in the freshman class at Alma College from Dr. Robert D. Swanson, college president. Turner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Turner of 1300 Linden and a graduate of Plymouth-Salem High School.

Operation EDITH helps fire safety

A fire drill alert designed to prompt area residents to test emergency exit routes in their homes will highlight the Plymouth and Canton Jaycettes' Operation EDITH May 18.

EDITH stands for "Exit Drills in the Home."

The Jaycee auxiliary, in cooperation with the American Automobile Association and local fire departments, is sponsoring the program to make parents and children alike more aware of precautions they can take to avoid being trapped in their homes by fire.

This week Plymouth school district students will bring home questionnaires designed to prepare families for the drill.

A poster contest will be held for kindergartners and first graders on how to plan fire exits. Second through eighth graders are invited to write essays on "What I learned about fire safety."

Entries are due back to the schools by May 15.

Prize winners in each grade at the school level will receive bike safety flags. Overall district winners will have their pictures in the Plymouth Observer and Eccentric. Winners will be announced in the week after the drill.

Following the mock fire drill, set for noon, Plymouth and Plymouth and Canton townships fire departments will conduct tours of their facilities and hold an open house from 3 to 5 p.m. where additional fire safety information will be available.

According to the Jaycettes, Americans neglect fire escape procedures in their homes. Of the annual fire death toll of more than 10,000, the majority of the victims are in residential dwellings. An average of 800 fires are reported in American homes daily.

Steps the Jaycettes recommend to reduce fire dangers include:

- Appoint one family member to make sure all doors in the home are closed at night — it takes a fire 10 to 15 minutes to burn through a wooden door.

- Figure out two escape routes from each bedroom — the door and another door or a window.

- Plan how each family member can reach the ground via an emergency route and agree on a meeting place outside the house.

- Make copies of a floor diagram that shows all escape routes.

To practice the home fire drill, put each family member in his own room and close the doors. Have each member check his emergency exit. Signal an alarm and time the evacuation of all inhabitants.

EDITH escape rules include:

- Keep calm. When in doubt, don't panic.

- If you smell smoke, arouse the family with the emergency signal. Repeat the alarm until everyone is up.

- Close doors against smoke and heat.

- If your door is closed, test it before opening by feeling the top. If the door is hot, use the emergency exit.

- If your room is filled with smoke, keep close to the floor where you can breathe more easily.

- Never re-enter a burning building.

- Assemble at a pre-determined meeting place outside and notify firemen.

The Stroller...

Sports build character

By W. W. EDGAR

Years ago the immortal Knute Rockne silenced his critics after the Notre Dame team had lost a football game by saying, "We were building character out there today!"

This soon became a chant throughout the collegiate athletic world and any time team met defeat it was passed off with Rock's words, "We were building character."

But there is more truth than fiction in the remark - and a lot more than a humorous alibi for a defeat.

It was the late Gen. Douglas MacArthur, one of the greatest and most colorful of all American generals who once stated that the American battles were won on "the fields of athletic strife at West Point."

We got to discussing this character building high up in the press box in the Michigan Stadium recently while the annual spring game was being played and all agreed that many of the lessons learned on the gridiron carried into later life.

For instance there are two schools of thought among the top football coaches. You'll find a group, now headed by "Bo" Schembechler, the Michigan coach, that stresses defense on the theory, that if you can stop the other team from scoring you won't suffer a defeat.

One of the greatest of this group was Fielding H. "Hurry-Up" Yost when he laid the foundation for the Michigan system.

He never wanted the Michigan team to have possession of the ball in its own territory and explained his theory one afternoon by saying, "It's silly trying to rush the ball in Ypsilanti when goal posts are in Ann Arbor." For this reason he always tried to develop a good punter - one who could kick the ball out of danger.

Twop. — 'May is clean up time'

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP — The Plymouth Township Board of Trustees has named the month of May as "Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up" month in the township.

The board issued a proclamation to urge all citizens of the township, civic and fraternal groups, educational associations, news media and other community organizations to join in a united action with the other 43 communities in Wayne County.

On the other hand, Rockne, one of football's greatest schemers, stressed offense. "You can't score if you don't have the ball, so we'll take it any place." More than that, he stressed the point that if every man did his job the team could score on every play.

Many of these lessons have been carried into every day life and the latest example is Vice President Gerald Ford, who played center for the Wolverines when Harry Kipke was at the helm.

In these days of turmoil in the nation's capital, Ford is in the thick of another battle and you'll note that most of his time, especially in public, is spent defending the administration. He's simply carrying on the theory that he was taught one the hallowed ground of old Ferry Field.

On the opposite side you can find any number of former Notre Dame stars who went on the offense as soon as they received their diplomas and made names for themselves in the business and political world.

The famous "Four Horsemen" are notable examples. "Sleepy" Jim Crowley coached at Michigan State for a time, but found his niche in Pennsylvania politics. Harry Stuhldreher, the cocky little quarterback, also coached for a time, but went into industry and by sheer force worked his way to the top. Elmer Layden, the slender fullback, became an advertising executive and Don Miller a thriving lawyer in Cleveland.

When "Dad" Butler was a coach and trainer at the University of Detroit, he used a simple example to have his charges give the little extra effort needed to win.

"Remember, boys," he used to say, "you just add another zero to 10 and you have 100. Then add another and you have 1,000."

And with that simple explanation "Dad" became one of the best track coaches in the country.

So, don't fool yourself - the lessons one learns on the athletic field do carry on in later life.

and incorporation. "It's been a constant 20 years of it."

Although she reluctantly admits she'll celebrate her 60th birthday before her term expires, she doesn't look it — there's not a streak of gray hair on her head.

When told that, she laughed and said that with the treasurer's job "there are days I've got plenty of gray hair."

Mrs. Holmes has often been known to "speak her mind" at township board meetings, she defends that as important.

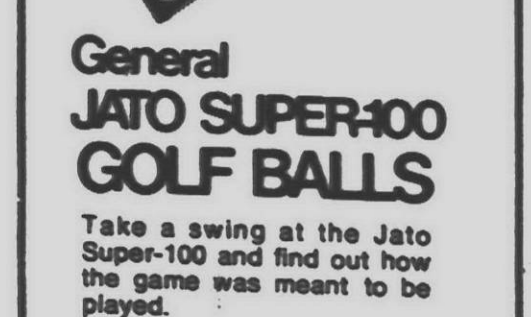

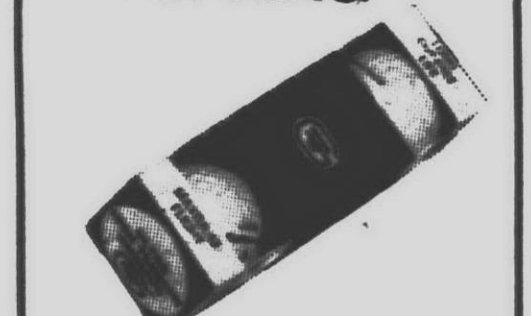

Often described as an "active" board member, she expects to remain active in the community even though stepping down from the board.

Among her interests are: the Business and Professional Women's Club, the Eastern Star, the Chamber of Commerce Forum Committee, the Family Services Board.

During her term as township treasurer she was a charter member and president of the county Township Treasurers' Association and served four years as president of the Southern Michigan Sewer and Water Association.

One of the activities she likes is traveling — something she hopes she'll have some time for.

"Ever since I was a little kid I've wanted to see the Taj Mahal."

How bicycle riders can travel in safety

By SUE ROSIEK

CANTON — Spring is definitely here and the bicycle craze has begun, just look around.

The increased popularity of bikes, not only for fun but for transportation also increases the possibility of accidents.

The youngsters at Miller Elementary School geared up on bike safety and bike protection last Monday with a program presented by Sgt. Carl Berry of the Plymouth Police Department and Trooper R. Garrison of the Michigan State Police.

The officers' presentation complete with a Walt Disney cartoon and "Bernie the Better Biker" stressed the importance of observing traffic rules and proper bike maintenance.

Although the program was aimed at the elementary grades the safety tips presented were something bicyclists of all ages should know and practice, Berry said.

Bikers should always make sure the bike is in good working condition:

• Check to see if foot and hand brakes are working properly.

• Make sure handlebars, seat and pedals are securely fastened.

• Make sure the chain is well - oiled and that tires are properly inflated. Over inflated tires will cause blowouts.

• Make sure accessories such as horns, headlights and reflectors are properly attached.

• Always wear shoes when riding a bike.

When riding, bicyclists should always:

• Ride in a straight line, never weave in and out of traffic.

• Keep to the right of traffic and follow traffic.

• Observe all traffic regulations.

• Yield the right - of - way to pedestrians.

• Let the other drivers and bikers know what you intend to do by using the proper hand signals. When turning right extend the arm out straight then upwards at the elbow. When turning left extend the arm straight, and when stopping extend the arm to the right and down.

• Watch intersections; slow down and look to the right and left before crossing.

• Never ride too fast, keep both hands on the bike and be alert to traffic around you.

• Watch for parked cars and for car doors that may open.

• Be ready to stop in case of an emergency.

• Never ride at night unless you have a headlamp and a rear end reflector. Also, for safety at night wear light colored clothes and if possible follow well - lighted streets.

Sgt. Berry added that it's a good idea to plan your route ahead of time.

"Use well - lighted streets at night and follow the least traveled car route if at all possible."

Learn to protect your bike against possible theft by:

• Putting the bike in a garage or some other enclosed area at night.

• Locking it everytime you leave it unattended. Don't leave it unlocked even for "Just a minute."

• Lock your bike properly. Wrap the chain through the frame and the rear wheel and around a post or some other stationary object.

• Keep a record of the bike serial number.

Sgt. Berry said bike registration and registration plates are available to Plymouth City Plymouth Township and Canton Township residents at the Plymouth City Police Department. A permanent registration is $1 and should be attached to the rear fender of the bike. Renewals or replacements are 50 cents.

If your bike is stolen, report it at once to the police, he added.

Bikes have become the vehicle of the times and with a little common safety and road courtesy they can not only be great fun but one of the safest ways to travel, Berry and Garrison said.

Consolidation is debated no road maintenance, no snow removal, no law enforcement, no recreation, and do not, as does the city, support a community band, school guards, youth facilities, and so on.

"If the township does not provide such services," McKeon continued, "it will have low cost government. The question that has not been answered here tonight is, however, 'what will happen as population density increases?' Costs will rise, and they will rise more than they would if the township were to merge with the city."

Kratzner countered that he believed that the two municipalities were in fact already consolidated. "We all support the schools," he said, "we all buy water from Detroit, and we all dispose of it to the county road commission. We have generally the same type of fire protection. The differences are in police protection, and we have several attractive alternatives in that regard, in refuse services, and we individually contract for those at about the same cost.

"The point is, we can have anything we want in any form of government. All we have to do is vote the millage to pay for it. In the township, we have complete control over what we want and need."

One audience member echoed some of the feelings of the advocates of consolidation when he commented "it seems to me that Dr. Gornick's master plan for the township is to pass on responsibilities to county, city and state government, existing as a parasite. I don't believe that it is fair for the township to plan its future on the strengths of other governmental units."

Rebuttals to the original arguments centered on the differences of opinion on whether it was more reasonable to have a government which was completely controlled by the people it serves, or whether it was desirable to have a government of professionals who exercise their judgement in areas wherein the general populace may be inadequately informed — a more efficient government, the consolidation proponents believe.

"Township government is not inherently more economical," Gornick said, "but because of citizen checks and balances, it is historically more economical."

"People like Dr. Gornick have been obsolete for 50 years in the city of Plymouth," McKeon responded. "Government quite often has to take the leadership in solving community problems."

PLYMOUTH COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICT Plymouth, Michigan BOARD OF EDUCATION MINUTES

The regular meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District, Wayne and Washtenaw Counties, Michigan, was held on Wednesday evening, April 18, 1974, in the Commons of Plymouth-Canton High School, 8415 Canton Center Road, Plymouth, Michigan.

The meeting was called to order by President McClendon at 8 p.m., following an informational agenda meeting.

Present: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto, and Turner.
Absent: Member Penar.

Administrators Present: Sup't Hoben, Assistant Sup't-Business Hoedel, Adm. Assistant-Personnel Kee, Directors Symonds and Masteller, Coordinators Morris and Barker and Principals Nichols and Smith.

Others present: Representatives from PEA, Transportation Committee and Safety Committee; League of Women Voters; AAUW; Custodians Union; WSDP Radio Station, E. Edgar, Plymouth Observer & Eccentric; a representative from Tremco Company, C. Berry, J. Broome, W. Goodman, P. Meloche, H. Messmore and citizens, students and teachers.

Additions to the agenda were called and approved. The audience was welcomed by the President with the hope that the Board could share effectively all items on the agenda.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Turner to approve the minutes of the meeting of March 26, 1974, as printed for the Board of Education, with the following correction: Page 7, paragraph 2: Change "deduct" to "allocate."

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Turner.
Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

A request by administration to amend the minutes of the organizational meeting of July 9, 1973, was laid over to new business items.

Mr. P. Meloche, representing the Canton Township Jaycees, rose to request the use of the Plymouth Centennial Educational Park for the First Annual Canton Township Fair to be held on Labor Day weekend. He reviewed arrangements made to date and asked for a commitment at this time, if possible.

It was moved by Member Mirto and seconded by Member Gray to defer this item to the new business agenda, pending a report by administration.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Turner.
Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Turner and seconded by Member Mirto to approve a trip by Gallimore 4th and 5th grade students in Mrs. Wernette's and Mrs. Schmidt's classes to Toronto Science Center on May 14 and 15, 1974.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Turner.
Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

A resolution relative to the annual election on June 10, 1974 was read by Sup't Hoben as prepared by the bonding attorneys. It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Benson to approve the resolution as submitted with the following change: Resolution Point No. 2, designate newspaper as "semi" weekly, not "bi" weekly. (Entire resolution made a part of the permanent minutes.)

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, Mirto, McClendon and Turner.
Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Voluntary plan of 45-15 enrollment for Miller Elementary School area was discussed. Sup't Hoben reported on a survey of Miller families, which indicated that of those responding 63% would be in favor of the plan. A similar survey at the Gallimore School to indicate interest in the plan showed that 26 families would approve, 132 were opposed and 70 families would be interested if the program were instituted at Gallimore School itself. Sup't Hoben indicated that a meeting had been held with the PEA Executive Board to see whether a workable calendar could be worked out with the PEA. All indications were that this was a favorable discussion. Mr. Hoben commended the Miller School parents for conducting the new survey in such a short length of time and Member Benson extended a thank you to the office staff for their assistance. President McClendon also gave sincere thanks to the parents who participated.

Sup't Hoben felt the Gallimore parents did not have the familiarity with the program as did the Miller School parents and were satisfied with the program as now in operation. He recommended that the approval of the Board be given to institute the 45-15 plan in the Miller School.

It was moved by Member Mirto and seconded by Member Gray to adopt the administration's recommendation on implementation of the 45-15 plan at the Miller School. (Discussion followed on the motion.)

Member Turner favored the pilot program but expressed the hope that such a program would be given a full chance and that no compromise would be made in launching the program. He asked whether there could be a return to the conventional program at a later date if the program cannot be instituted. Member Lawton felt that citizens must be involved in an implementation of the program and that the administration or the principal give the Board a monthly update on progress or questions. A citizens' council has been discussed. Sup't Hoben also indicated that some principal relief would be necessary in the form of an intern program at Miller School. Member Benson regretted that this program cannot absorb those from other parts of the District who wish to take advantage of the program. Member Gray asked whether others from contiguous areas could be brought in to utilize transportation. Member Turner asked the administration when the Board might expect proposals on other actions to be taken for next year with regard to overcrowded areas. PEA representative Mair indicated that the plan was an ideal one and that the PEA wanted to work with the principal and the staff. Member Turner also asked that the proposals for alleviating overcrowding in other areas be in the record before the bond issue election in June.

Member Mirto asked what would be the primary factor to cause administration to recommend aborting the 45-15 plan? Sup't Hoben felt this was very improbable at this time unless all surveys to come in would be negative and felt that budgetary problems could be adjusted. Mr. Kee felt there were no contractual problems which could not be met with the PEA and that custodial and bus drivers' contracts would need to be adjusted.

Member Mirto indicated that although he had made the motion it was Member Benson who had given a great deal of time and effort to the study in working with parent groups, etc. and that he would like to withdraw his motion. He would respectfully request that Mrs. Benson make the motion as she deserves a lion's share of the credit for the involvement in this plan, as well as his personal thanks. Member Benson indicated she was in support of this and that she would be glad to make the motion. The question was called.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Turner.
Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Turner and seconded by Member Lawton that the Board approve in principle the proposal to include safety millage in the election packet on June 10, 1974, with the understanding that the specific amount will be set at a later date when appropriate rationale is submitted to the Board, and that the administration work with the Safety Committee to develop a list of proposals to be included.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Turner.
Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Sup't Hoben indicated that a .4 mill proposal for safety on the ballot would bring about $152,000 revenue and a .3 mill proposal would bring $114,000 and indicated staff approval for proposal. Member Mirto felt approval by this Board for a safety millage proposal would be tantamount to accepting responsibility for safety on the part of the Board and he could not support it willingly without the Board also being given zoning powers which they do not now have. He indicated he voted for the proposal reluctantly.

It was moved by Member Gray and seconded by Member Mirto to approve bills for payment as submitted by administration as follows:

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Turner.
Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Turner and seconded by Member Benson that the Plymouth Community School District refund school tax to the following taxpayers as directed by Mr. Louis H. Funk, Wayne County Treasurer, said refunds resulting from a reduction in the assessment by the Michigan State Tax Commission:

Harry Black	Canton Township	117.50

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Hoedel indicated that with this refund, the amount of $27,619.00 has been refunded to taxpayers during this fiscal year.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Mirto that the Board President be authorized to appoint a delegation from the School District to meet with the Canton Township Board to explore the matter of the deeding of 9.519 acres of land adjacent to the Saltz Road School Site by the Republic Development Corporation to the Plymouth School District and to discuss all ramifications of this proposal, if same is to be still available to this District.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, McClendon, Mirto and Turner.
Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

A resolution of the Canton Township Board and quit claim deed were presented by the Republic Development Company with regard to the above motion. The concern of the Board members was that the Board should not be required to maintain a park for this subdivision or any other subdivision in the School District.

It was moved by Member Turner and seconded by Member Mirto to approve the 1974-75 County Allocation Budget submitted by the Business Division dated April 1, 1974.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, Mirto, McClendon and Turner.
Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Mirto and seconded by Member Gray that this Board adopt the recommendation of the Curriculum Coordinating Council to proceed with Phase VI of the Foreign Language Report as submitted at the March 26, 1974 Board meeting.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, Mirto, McClendon and Turner.
Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Member Turner and seconded by Member Mirto that this Board adopt the recommendation of the Curriculum Coordinating Council to proceed with Phase VI of the Physical Education Department Report as submitted at the March 26, 1974 Board meeting.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, Mirto, McClendon and Turner.
Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

There was an indication that a workshop should be scheduled with regard to the foreign language curriculum, especially as regards budgetary implications.

It was moved by Member Mirto and seconded by Member Gray that Mary Elizabeth Uhl, Kindergarten teacher at Bird School, be granted a leave of absence for the 1974-75 school year.

Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, Mirto, McClendon and Turner.
Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

A question arose as to whether the material following comma in Item No. 3 of the Superintendent's letter regarding contract renewal below was necessary and the Board was assured that legal counsel felt it was necessary.

An executive session was called at 9:50 p.m. to discuss this personnel item and the meeting reconvened at 10 p.m.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Mirto that the Board proceed upon the Superintendent of Schools' written charges against Mr. Francis M. Sullivan, a teacher in the school system, which requests his dismissal at the conclusion of the current school year and that the Secretary of the Board notify the said teacher, Mr. Francis M. Sullivan, in writing, of the charges made and his rights under the Michigan Teachers Tenure Act.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, Mirto, McClendon and Turner.
Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

Adm. Assistant for Personnel Kee gave an update on negotiations to date with the PEA and other units and asked especially that the Board keep in mind his recommendation and request that the Board set aside a fair amount of Executive Session time to explore with the Negotiating Teams and Advisors the philosophy, psychology and limitations of our total collective negotiation process by early May 1974. He also indicated that a tentative agreement with the PEA was hoped for by June 10, 1974.

It was moved by Member Turner and seconded by Member Gray to concur in the recommendation of administration to hire Mrs. Helen Messmore to fill the position of Supervisor of Accounting at the .65 level of Supervisors' Salary Schedule for the balance of this year and the 1974-75 contractual year.

Ayes: Members Benson, Gray, Lawton, Mirto, McClendon and Turner.
Nays: None.

The motion was carried.

The matter of the request of the Canton Township Jaycees for the use of the Educational Park was again a matter for discussion.

Mr. P. Meloche again reviewed the matter of insurance, meetings with Township officials and fire department and rescue squad agreements. Deputy Sup't Hogan felt that the District must determine what the Jaycees want to do in the matter of the Fair concerning safety, cleanup, security, property damage, etc. Member Mirto felt the Board should grant preliminary approval and negotiate terms with the administration, having the option to turn down the request if a conflict occurs with ongoing activities or to consider other sites within Canton Township, especially the 60-acre Truesdell Site. Mr. Meloche asked that he be allowed to obtain from the administration all information necessary for the Board to make a decision and that the Superintendent get all the data in writing. The Superintendent also asked for input from the Board as to other sites, etc.

It was moved by Member Lawton and seconded by Member Mirto that the Canton Jaycees be granted permission to hold the Jaycees' Fair at the Truesdell School Site and if other alternatives can be brought back to the Board at another meeting by administration or Jaycees, they will be considered.

MAX DAVEY

Whorf show coming to this area May 11

By DAN McCOSH

The Mike Whorf show has many faces.

With his fame established by his Kaleidoscope radio program, the deep-voiced radio personality works regularly putting on special shows in the Detroit area.

May 15, he is coming to Farmington.

When the curtain goes up at the Mercy High auditorium, the audience will see a show which interprets the area's past in song and story.

But before that curtain raises, the people behind the scenes will have put in time and effort to make the show "live."

"Max is really in charge," Whorf said at a recent rehearsal.

"Max" is Max Davey, director of the Max Davey singers, which provide the musical background of the show.

"IT'S REALLY about people," Whorf says.

"The show will deal with local history, and the impressions national events had on Farmington."

Mixed with the narration are the songs of America's past. The singers will provide a musical panorama of the songs of each period.

The Whorf show is based on a script which he writes around local background.

He said he has researched the script through Lee Peel's book "The History of Farmington," the Power diary, and the Baldwin Public Library.

Members of the Farmington Historical Society have also been supplying information.

What appears on stage, however, is something else.

"IF YOU close your eyes, what you will year is a live 'Kaleidoscope' show," Whorf said.

"People come to listen."

"It's for information, education, but mainly entertainment," he added.

The script for the show includes facets of Farmington's past, with different segments of the history of the town providing the basis for musical numbers.

Whorf does his own scriptwriting and sound engineering for the show.

"There are a lot of lost American qualities which we try to bring out," Whorf said.

"PEOPLE are really thrilled when the show is over."

Whorf and the Singers have been making tours in the Detroit area, playing in Cobo Hall May 10-11, and the Raleigh House in Southfield May 14.

Tickets for the three-day performance are on sale at the Farmington Chamber of Commerce, the student activities office at the Orchard Ridge campus of OCC; the Mercy High box office, Metro Bank's main office on Grand River, the Godmar-Bradley Rexall Pharmacy, 2336 Farmington Rd., Bosco's Party Store, 12 Mile and Orchard Lake; or at Brown's Pharmacy, Orchard Lake and 13 Mile.

Crime task force funds approved

The Wayne County Organized Crime Task Force recently received approval and an appropriation for another year from a committee of the county board of commissioners.

The public safety and judiciary committee has voted in favor of a $352,000 appropriation to keep the crime unit in operation until the end of the fiscal year.

The committee also authorized a special sub-committee to meet with federal, state, county and local officials for further assessment of the task force. The commission appointed one member to receive secret information from the unit.

Approval for the continuation of the task force and the funding must also be given by the ways and means committee and the full board.

The ways and means committee, which consists of all 27 members of the board, asked for a 30 day review last month before making a decision on whether to spend county funds in place of an expiring federal grant that ended March 31.

The $352,000 was set aside during budget deliberations last fall, but the commissioners voted to evaluate the task force before releasing the funds.

Board chairman Robert E. FitzPatrick has questioned the effectiveness of the task force and implied that county taxpayers are denied, "a fair return for the dollars they are spending for this service."

He suggests that a crime unit could be more effective on a state or regional basis and feels the county, shouldn't solely bear the cost of crime investigations that are national or international in scope.

"Even as a county operation there is a need for more collaboration and cohesion between the task force and similar agencies of the state and neighboring counties," FitzPatrick said.

In February FitzPatrick asked Governor Milliken to convene a review board to measure the effectiveness of the crime task force and to consider alternate methods of funding the agency.

Another commissioner who has challenged the effectiveness of the task force is Michael J. Reilly, chairman of the public safety and judiciary committee.

He said he wanted better reporting from the task force and said the agency's arrests didn't reflect prosecution of the top levels in organized crime.

Reilly was appointed by the committee to hear secret information for the task force which director Roy C. Hayes said might prejudice pending cases if publicly divulged.

Senior citizen benefits expanded by Schoolcraft

New educational advantages to senior adults were approved by the board of trustees of Schoolcraft College at a recent meeting.

In addition to many free privileges already offered to senior citizen students, trustees voted to give them free enrollment in one institutional credit Community Service Course per instructional session. The college reserved the right to exempt certain courses in whole or in part.

Because the college cannot waive tuition, the cost of attendance by the senior citizen will be paid from a Senior Adult Grant Fund set up for this purpose.

The college will also grant to senior adults free admission to regular college credit classes on a space - available basis when credit is not desired.

Also for the convenience of senior students a special registration time will be provided for admission to the regular college classes.

Eligible for the programs are senior adults retired from full - time employment (including unemployed spouse or widow and those adults unemployed due to disability) residing within the Schoolcraft district.

Already senior adults, who obtain a special "Senior Student" identification card at the Community Services Office, are eligible to receive special consideration for a selected number of programs and services at the college.

Using their special ID card they will be entitled to free tickets to all cultural and public affairs programs conducted by the college and to all athletic events.

They will also be granted full library privileges and free enrollment in special credit - free Community Services programs designed for senior adults.

8 C'ville students will be honored

Eight Clarenceville High School students will be recognized for outstanding scholastic achievement at the annual Phi Beta Kappa honors convocation in Ford Auditorium May 13.

The students are: Jannette Squair, Cheryl Lansing, Alan Fornstein, Howard Diamond, Amy Chaiken, Tim Wehner, Hannak Bitterman and Hubert Marks.

Consolidation -- revolution for government efficiency

Editorial

WHEN OUR Resident Oracle opened a recent expression of editorial opinion on a keynote of how nice it would be to have governmental efficiency, I anticipated for the duration of a pulse beat that this was to be an argument for Plymouth folks voting "yes" on the issue of city-township consolidation May 7.

Boy, that initial sentence did set the stage for just such an essay real well:

"If there is to be a revolution in local government (and I think there will be), it will come because a heavily taxed, enraged public will begin to insist and demand proof that its tax dollars are being spent with maximum efficiency."

That Philip Power aimed such a thrust at another and broader social target does not minimize the possibility of using this same wording as a plateau of debate for our Plymouth friends.

Here's a city of about 12,000 and a surrounding township of approximately 17,000 united in every concept except government, where hidebound ruralists are the stumbling block by insisting that two mates apart can live cheaper than one couple together.

There's just no way this can be accomplished.

Plymouthites sit together and support the same churches whether they live one side or the other of the boundary between city and township; the business community is totally intertwined; the school district is one entity, and the United States Post Office even goes so far as to officially designate part of Washtenaw County "Plymouth."

But stagnant minds insist that if the city has its own fire department, then, by golly, the township must support its own as well. Clerk? Treasurer? DPW? Why, of course, let's have duplications -- and those are only the surface evidences of how tax dollars are being spent with maximum inefficiency.

It is patently obvious that the "enraged public" of which Mr. Power conjectured, identifies with Plymouth. Thus, it becomes ludicrous to recognize the aura of local contentment that reigns at undue expense among these very residents. They are the type of folks who can solve everyone else's problems, from the White House on down, except their own.

Arguments for consolidation can be recited ad infinitum, not the least being that such unification would finally give local police coverage to the present crime-ridden Plymouth Township.

However, another argument not to be overlooked is the fact that the relic of governmental antiquity known as the township board has no authority over any matter of roads or sidewalks.

A city government has many powers under the law that its rural cousin -- the township -- does not, and a case in point is the continuing frustration suffered by township families who need (but can't get) sidewalks and hard-surfaced streets. Those families belong on the consolidation band wagon, the demand for 1974 equine hitching posts having become shockingly minimal.

Who needs it?

Another C&O track's like a screen door in a canoe

We need another railroad track running through Plymouth like we need a screen door in a canoe.

But according to C&O rumors, the railroad company which is responsible for all the traffic delays in the city and township is planning to run yet another track along the north-south line which frequently blocks Main Street traffic.

No doubt the C&O would rationalize such a move by saying, "A third track would allow better train flow; thus, trains won't have to wait for other ones and block streets in the meanwhile."

If you buy that line, then surely you can be described as an incurable optimist.

Another track through Plymouth can only mean more delays.

CITY OFFICIALS have made little progress in getting grade separations at the Sheldon Road and Main Street crossings. If the C&O lays down another track before an overpass is built at Main Street it would make the undertaking even more expensive.

Nor has the railroad come forward with any pledge to join in financing grade separations at Main Street or Sheldon Road where a train the C&O alleges broke down recently blocked traffic for 44 minutes.

One bright side to that unfortunate occurrence was the drive by Don Starr of 717 McKinley to get other motorists who were waiting for the train to sign a petition favoring charging the C&O with blocking the crossing for more than the legal five minutes.

For his efforts, Starr has been awarded a Grand Hookah Pookah Tassle of the First Order by the Let's Make C&O Pay More (LMC&OPM) Club.

But Starr's complaint against the C&O appears to be for naught. . . the revised state law regarding railroad traffic blockings of more than five minutes says, "Blockings caused by accident or mechanical failure shall not be offenses under (these) sections."

Thus, mechanical breakdown is an absolute defense for the railroads. Prove an accident or a breakdown and there's no penalty.

Who's to say that the railroad can't plead breakdown at other times a train blocks a crossing? According to District Judge Dunbar Davis' opinion, the burden of proof lies with the railroad.

While no cases have yet been decided in local court under the revised state law, several are nearing trial. The C&O has pleaded innocent at its examination on some of those charges and therefore is expected to use the mechanical breakdown defense.

It remains to be seen how they'll prove their claim.

REACTING TO criticism leveled against the city police department for not accepting complaints against the railroad when it has called in to report a breakdown, Police Chief Tim Ford said his department WILL file a report regardless of the railroad's claim.

Davis said that when police will not accept such a complaint, those wishing to file it should appeal to the city attorney and finally to the district court itself if no satisfaction can be found.

He said the same applies in the township where, if the Wayne County Sheriff or the Michigan State Police won't file a report on an alleged train blocking, an appeal should be made to the county prosecutor and finally to the judge.

But while the matters pertaining to charging and fining the C&O for illegally-blocking crossings must be made easy enough for everyone to follow through, the city must move on getting a grade separation before the C&O puts down another track.

The railroad has had a free ride long enough.

It is time it pay a fair share in alleviating the problems it causes -- and it should try to tackle the problems we've already got before it builds yet another line to block more traffic.

Until the railroad will bear its burden, it should not be allowed to create more of a hardship on the community.

The city should see to it that the railroad doesn't put another screen door in our canoe.

'Arlington drivers - slow down'

EDITOR:

To the residents and visitors of Windsor Park: I would like to call your attention to the fact that the speed limit on Arlington is 25 miles per hour. This speed limit of 25 mph is effective immediately after you turn off Sheldon -- not just when you enter your particular area of the subdivision.

If a child should dart into the street could you stop in time to prevent an injury or death? Or were you going too fast and in too much of a hurry to consider that Arlington is not a through street?

I am sure you expect drivers on your street to proceed with caution, and I have the same right to expect you to proceed within the posted speed limit of 25 mph.

All I ask is that you check your speedometer to see just how fast you are really going. Perhaps you do not realize that your foot gets heavy along the nice straight stretch called Arlington.

We do not want a tragedy involving our children just because someone could not take the extra two minutes to slow down and respect the speed limit.

Thank you very much for printing these comments, which I realize are a little harsh, but our street is like a speedway and perhaps now people will stop and think a little about how fast they go.

Families that live with epilepsy

BY MARGARET MILLER

What is it like when your child — with no warning — has an epileptic seizure?

"Total panic," says one area mother who experienced it for the first time fairly recently.

"We had no idea what was the matter." This from Livonia parents whose son had his first seizure about 18 months ago. "We did all the wrong things."

"We thought there was some trouble with his eyes," said the mother of a young man who has been living with epilepsy for about eight years. "It was a long time before we really had a diagnosis we could be sure of."

And how to you deal with it as time goes on?

"There's fear and resentment. The life style has to be altered."

"You realize the most important word is normalcy. You try to do what is necessary but not make the child feel singled out."

"You meet other parents through the Epilepsy Center of Michigan and you come to realize that you're among the lucky ones."

And, from a young college student who was diagnosed as an epileptic at the age of 12, comes this word:

"I really didn't know what was going on at first. Gradually I've come to accept it. It's there — so what?"

The traumatic and then continuing fact of epilepsy hits at one per cent of the population, estimates Thomas J. Caughlin, a Livonia resident who is director of community services for the Epilepsy Center, 10 Peterboro, Detroit.

That's a conservative figure," he pointed out. "The national organization says two per cent. Put another way, that would be one in 20 families, or between 35,000 and 40,000 people in the metropolitan area."

"But we have contact with about 5,000 a year, either directly or indirectly."

Lack of information is the continuing problem in dealing with epilepsy, for victim, family and the public, Caughlin said.

But some help is at hand.

Dr. Henry W. Baird of Temple University has written a concise book, "The Child with Convulsions," containing what Caughlin calls the first up-to-date, practical information about epilepsy, and Dr. Baird will be in the Detroit area tomorrow evening, April 30, for a meeting with parents and all interested.

His talk is scheduled for 8 p.m. in the McAuley auditorium of Mercy College of Detroit, 8200 W. Outer Drive.

To show the problems that must be faced by those who find epilepsy a family fact, Caughlin quoted a 1972 article by Dr. J. Preston Robb, professor of neurology in the Montreal Neurological Hospital.

"In a disorder as common as epilepsy, described in the earliest medical writing, one would expect to find reliable information on its frequency and distribution," Dr. Robb wrote.

"Such is not the case. Today, epilepsy is a major medical and social problem, but how big a problem either at a national or community level is obscure."

"Several factors contribute to this lack of factual knowledge."

These include the prejudice against epilepsy, the lack of agreement on definition and classification, the multiple causes, the different age groups, and the varying types of seizures, to mention but a few.

Four families in this area who live with epilepsy talked about what it is like.

Of these, only one, Mr. and Mrs. William Stegmeyer of Livonia and their son, Randy, were willing to be named.

The others will be identified here only as Mr. and Mrs. A, Mrs. B and Mrs. C.

All are planning to hear Dr. Baird, and all have found his book the most helpful yet.

Bill Stegmeyer made it plain it was Randy's decision to talk about his disorder, and the father wasn't entirely convinced it was a good decision. Randy has lost one job because he has epilepsy and he just got another one.

Randy's difficulties began when he was in junior high. That's not unusual, Caughlin said. Puberty is a time when epilepsy often becomes evident for the first time.

The young man, now a Schoolcraft College student, has had only nocturnal seizures. On medication, he has had only one seizure of any kind in the last five years, and has a driver's license with the full approval of his family and the State of Michigan.

"The law says the applicant must be free of seizures for a year to get a license," said Stegmeyer. "He meets that requirement."

"We really do not think of him as handicapped," Mrs. Stegmeyer added.

So when Randy was hired for a part time job at a drug store, he wrote "No" in the blank that asked if he was physically handicapped.

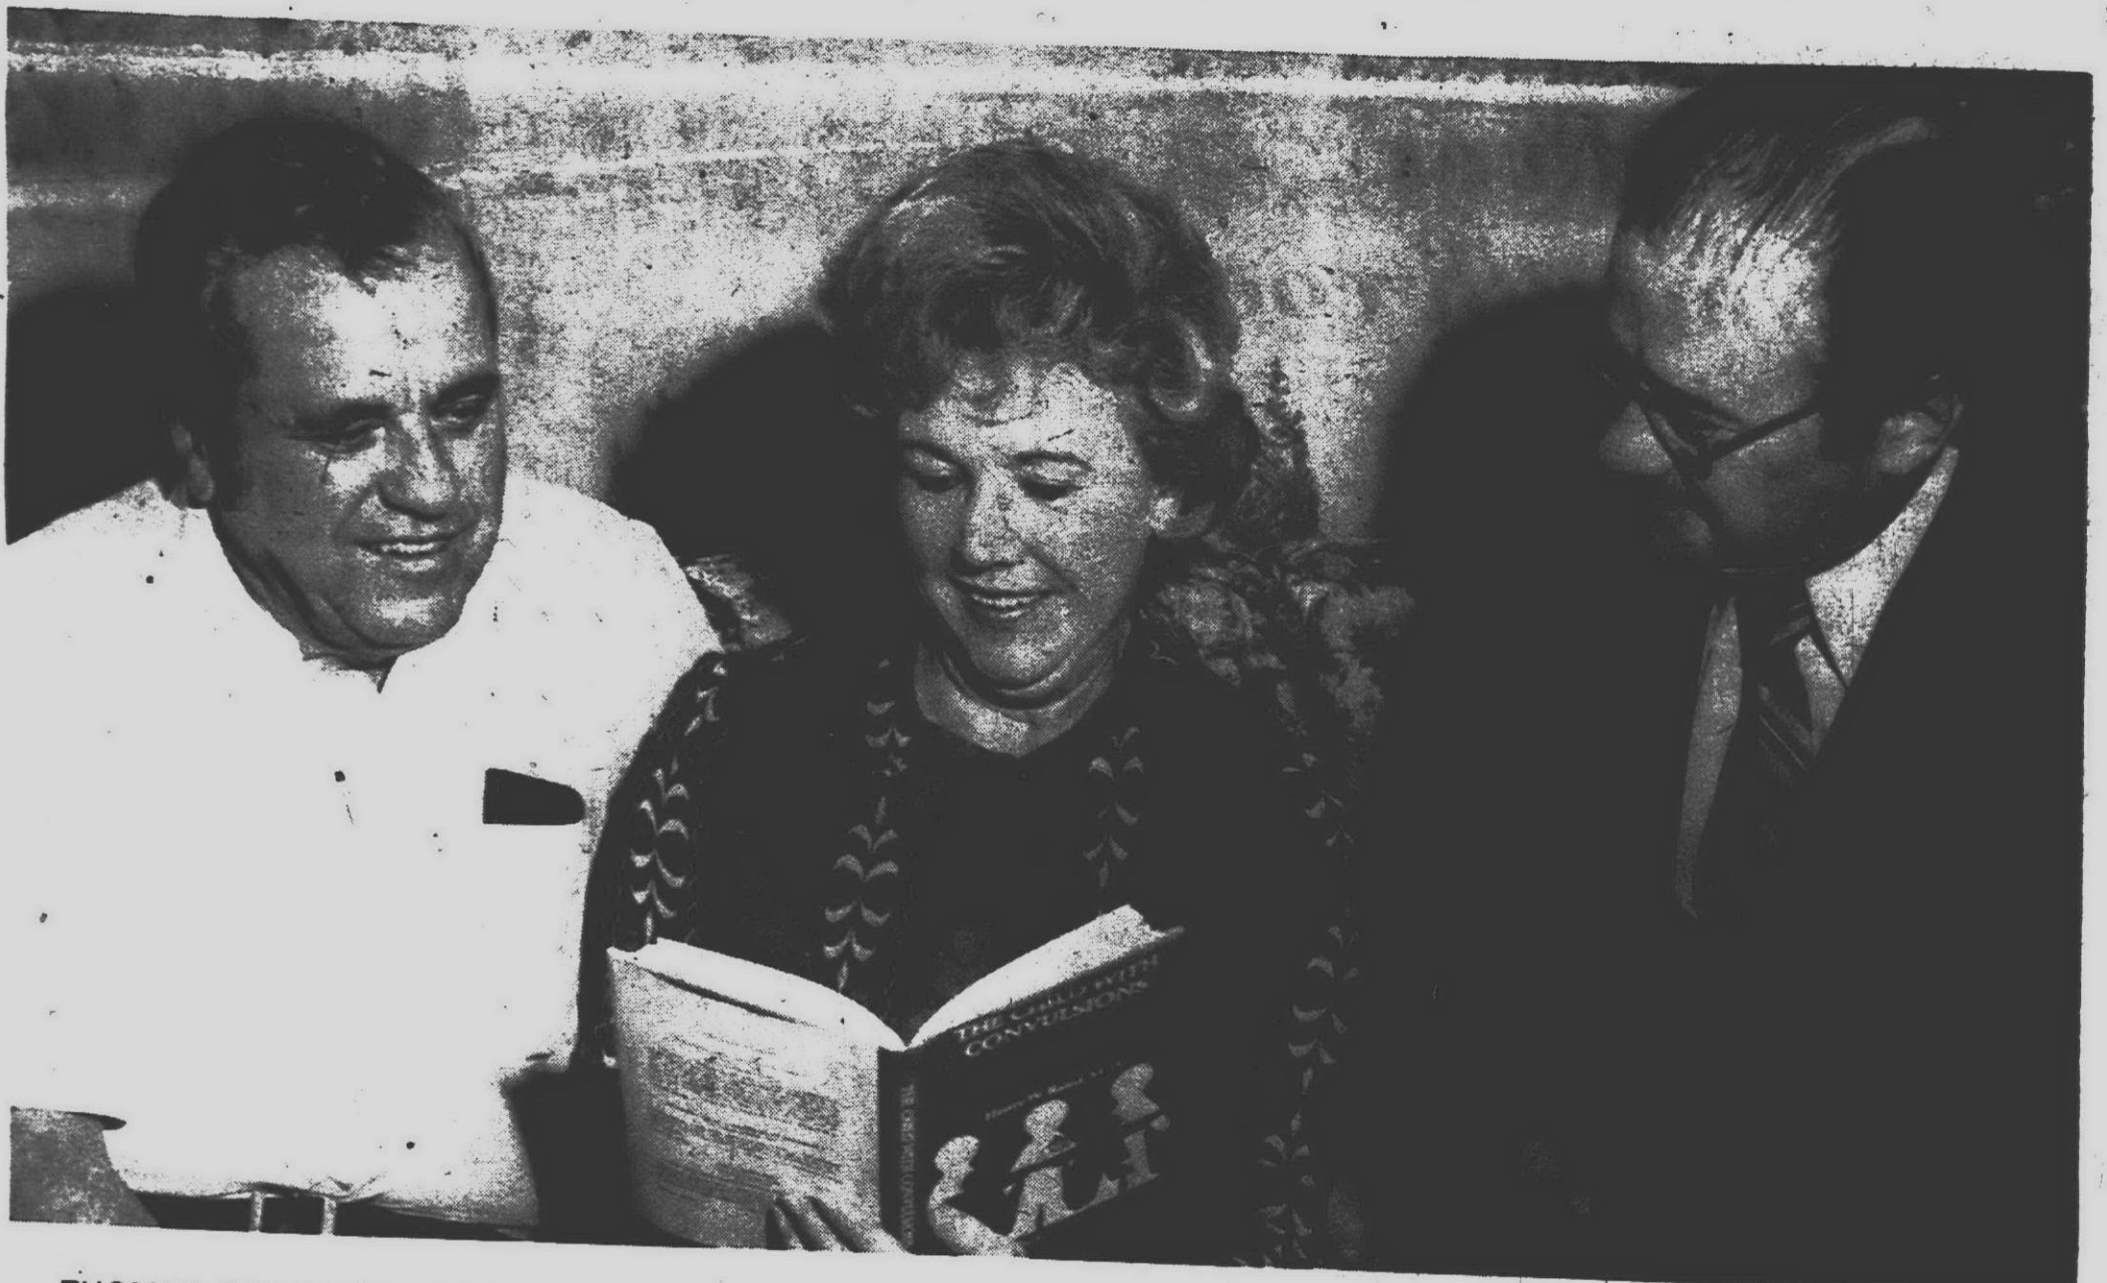

"Two reasons, really," he said. "First, I figured they wouldn't hire me if I said yes. Second, I really do not consider myself handicapped."

Randy had been at work for several weeks when the firm decided that new employees should take a lie detector test as a means of controlling drug sales.

"I felt it was an invasion of privacy, but I agreed to take it," Randy said. This time he mentioned the epilepsy and "a few days later I got canned."

It was a matter of "company policy," he was told, and the Stegmeyers have since written several letters to the firm to get the matter clarified. No answers, they say.

These parents, who feel they have been able to cope with the disorder and help their son to do likewise, feel rather bitter about this development. They hope Randy's decision to talk about the problem won't jeopardize the camp counselor job he just got.

"We've brought up our children to tell the truth and face problems honestly," Bill Stegmeyer said, "but in this I'm almost ready to advise lying."

For Mr. and Mrs. A, the problem is a newer one. Their son had his first seizure about 18 months ago and had to wait a year before he could take a driving test.

A second seizure came on the day he was to take the test, and now he's waiting out another year and undergoing extensive testing at the Epilepsy Center.

"We're glad to have something being written about this," his mother said. "We knew so little. When the first seizure hit, we did everything wrong. Tried to control him and tried to put something between his teeth. We know now you should do neither."

Mrs. A said the police officers who answered the call that first terrible morning made a discreet search for drugs. "We could understand, and they said they didn't think that was the problem," she added.

The tests being given now might indicate increased medication, she said, and she was surprised when her son stated emphatically he would not take anything in school. "I don't want to have anyone think I'm on uppers or downers," he told her.

Mrs. A said meetings of a parents' group had convinced her and her husband there are many more difficult problems than theirs connected with epilepsy.

"We're beginning to consider ourselves fortunate," they said, "and in lots of ways our son has taken it better than we."

For Mrs. B, diagnosis of epilepsy in her teenager has been quite recent, and acceptance has not come yet.

She said that when the first attack came the victim was taken to a hospital in this area, but there was no recognition of the actual disorder.

Plumbing and loneliness covered in seminars

Problems ranging all the way from the loneliness of widowhood to the irritation of a leaky faucet will be covered in a series of seminars planned by the Women's Continuum of Schoolcraft College.

"Survival Skills for the Modern Woman," several workshops on practical skills for women will begin Tuesday, April 30 at the college. These courses aim to help women improve their skills for dealing with the increasingly complex aspect of everyday life.

A second series titled "Alone Again" will consist of four Thursday evening sessions on May 2, 9, 16 and 30 and will be presented in the Liberal Arts building on campus. It is scheduled to run from 8-10 p.m.

Dr. Glen Chaffee will begin the series with a lecture titled "Single Again," planned to help women living alone "get in touch with themselves again." Dr. Chaffee works at the Metropolitan Guidance Center in Farmington.

"The Grieving Process" will be the topic discussed May 9 by Dr. Virginia VanCoeveing, a counselor and specialist in the problems of aging. In the one session of the series to be held in the Forum Building Theater, she will deal with the steps in the grieving process, their length and therapeutic value.

Dr. VanCoeveing will return May 16 to lead a session on "Preparing for Those Years Alone," during which she will focus on steps women can take in their middle years to prepare themselves to cope with some of the problems inherent in living as a woman alone.

The final session on May 30 titled "Raising Children As a Parent Alone," will be led by Mrs. Sally Holmes, Family Counselor for Family Services of Metropolitan Detroit. It will concern the problems involved in bringing up children alone, such as financial security, discipline, family relations and seeking a new partner.

The seven Tuesday morning sessions dealing with survival skills will be held from April 30 through June 4. They will include a lecture on "Stretching Your Food Budget" by Bobbie Kelly of the consumer food affairs department of Chatham supermarkets.

At subsequent sessions Dorothy Gay, a former Detroit policewoman, will offer instruction in "Protection Against Rape." Nancy Gode, community counselor and parent effectiveness training instructor will speak on "Hassle-Free Parenting" and "Revitalizing Family Communication."

"Building Security into Your Financial Future" is the topic assigned to Jean Budd and Irene Ferrio, members of the American Society of Women Accountants.

One thing she said she has learned is that epileptic seizures can be brought on by flashing lights or looking at certain geometric designs. "But so little is known," she added. "We wish others understood it better."

Mrs. C, too, yearns for more under-

It's Founder's Day for Beta Sigma Phi

Beta Sigma Phi, an international social, cultural and service organization with four chapters in this area, marks its 43rd Founder's Day April 30.

The celebration here will be a dinner beginning at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Tack Room on Seven Mile in Northville.

Participating will be the Eta Psi, Xi Delta Eta, Lambda Kappa and Xi Beta Pi chapters, all with members in Livonia and Plymouth and throughout the area.

Mrs. Glenn Barr of Livonia and Mrs. David Cramer of Plymouth will be co-chairmen for the evening, and Mrs. Lewis Hopkin of Farmington will be toastmistress.

Gov. William Milliken has proclaimed April 29 to May 5 Beta Sigma Phi week in honor of the non-academic organization that was founded in Abilene, Kan., by Walter W. Ross.

Beta Sigma Phi now has 250,000 members in 10,500 chapters that are organized in 24 countries in the free world.

The keynote of the organization is friendship, and this year's theme, to be launched with the Founder's Day celebration, is "Stairway to Happiness."

Chapters of five different degrees in the organization meet the growing needs of varying age groups.

Civic, social and service activities are planned by each chapter, and the organization also sponsors state-wide activities.

In this area, the Children's Leukemia Foundation has been a major interest of Beta Sigma Phi members. Other charities have received aid from other chapters around the country.

Internationally, the chapters have created three special funds, an international loan fund through which members help each other, an International Endowment Fund, through which sums of money are donated to cancer research, cystic fibrosis, homes for underprivileged children and other causes, and the Exemplar Fund, which helps support Literacy Village in India.

'Lots of olives' aid Plymouth cook

"My recipe has lots of olives and I guess maybe the judges like martinis," said Marilyn Rieti of Plymouth after her Grand Beef Casserole had taken third prize in the annual Detroit Edison "Queen of the Kitchen" contest.

Mrs. Rieti, an executive secretary with the Huron Cement division of National Gypsum Co. and mother of two, won an electric pot because the judges liked her tasty main dish in the cook-off Wednesday.

Dianne Pettypiece of Bloomfield Hills took top prize, an electric range, and Marjorie Allison won the second prize electric kitchen center.

Mrs. Rieti said she worked out the recipe for her casserole "because I don't have much time to cook and I'm always looking for something new and quick."

"I read about the contest on my lunch hour and thought the prizes looked good and I could cook this dish blindfolded and in less than an hour."

The family has enjoyed the casserole, she added, although Jeff, 16, and Cindy, 12, are inclined to prefer roast beef and potatoes.

Their mother makes her winning dish by browning ground beef and onions, adding cream cheese, mushroom soup, catsup, milk, salt and olives and topping the whole thing with refrigerator biscuits.

"I did it in a hurry," she said, "and I only entered the one recipe. A lot of the women said they sent in several."

Recipes of the 10 finalists, all employed women who entered main dishes that can be prepared in an hour or less, have been published in a new booklet distributed in Detroit Edison offices.

Home eye testing available to children

A pre-school child may consider his teddy bear, his blanket, or his imaginary friend, Rudolf, his most important possession. But the Perry Drug Store chain knows that he is also owner of two eyes, which he will soon find out are far more important.

To help in the early detection of eye difficulties, particularly in pre-schoolers, the company is now offering a free instruction bulletin to test a child's eyesight.

The bulletin contains a standard sized eye chart, the kind generally used by eye specialists to test pre-schoolers.

"It is called the Pointing E game," said James Bock, pharmacist and manager of the Perry Drug store in the Newburg Plaza at Newburg and Six Mile, Livonia. "It is designed to answer the problem posed by children who do not yet know the alphabet."

Traditionally a very busy letter, the letter E does all the work in this test. Following the directions in the bulletin the parent will hang up the chart, place the child the proper distance from it, and tell him to cover one eye.

"As Mom points to the various lines of E's on the chart," explained Bock, "the child will merely have to tell her which way the E's legs are going for her to be able to determine how well he is seeing."

The bulletin also contains a questionnaire provided by the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, which developed this home eye test program. The society wishes to know what help the program has been to its users.

The society claims that one out of every 20 children has a vision defect. Early detection can mean success or failure in treatment of certain conditions, such as amblyopia, better known as the lazy eye.

"What we hope," said Virginia Boyce, executive director of the society, "is to have a chance to locate those children who have never had their vision tested, who show no outward, obvious signs of eye or vision abnormality."

Bock said that "We see a need for offering it as a service to our clientele. We know that teachers often standing, though her situation is quite different.

Her son, now 14, was diagnosed at 18 months and his disorder is uncontrolled, even with regular medication. His seizures now are nearly always nocturnal, but they occur about once in 24 hours.

"Our neighbors always have known about it," she said, "and the kids are great. His brothers and his friends learned to handle the matter when he had daytime seizures when he was younger."

"I've had more trouble with the parents. Some said they thought he should not attend the same school with their children and there's also the matter of adults being too protective."

"My son got up on a roof one day, and two men wanted to get him right down. I wouldn't let them. I was scared to death, but he has to learn to get along without that kind of help."

Mrs. C said she expects her son to drive eventually, because the disorder tends to be more controllable after puberty, and she expects him to "live independently."

"I can't really envisage the kind of work he will do, though," she said. "His muscle control is poor. He tries everything, and often fails, but we've taught him that the important thing is to try."

Oakland conference to deal with death

"Living With Dying," a conference designed for professionals, para-professionals and individuals involved with a dying patient and the patient's family, will be held Friday, May 3 at Oakland University in Rochester.

The meeting place will be the Oakland Center on the campus of the university. The program, which is sponsored by the Division of Continuing Education, will last from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The conference will begin and end with a death attitudes test, designed to test the reactions of the conferees to the information given them the conference.

A panel discussion titled "Personal Experience With Death and Dying" will follow moderated by the Rev. Ralph Stribe. Panel members include Joan Dickerson, RN, of St. Joseph Hospital; Betty Morgan, Licensed Practical Nurse of Sinal Hospital and Eleanor Driver, director of the Continuum Center at the university.

In the afternoon Eric Bermann, associate professor of psychology at the University of Michigan and author of "Scapegoat: Impact of Death Fear in an American Family," will discuss death and the family.

Following this, conferees may choose to attend various concurrent sessions generally titled "How Do I Learn To Cope With the Meaning of Death?"

"When A Child Must Die" will be the topic of a discussion by Monica

Pasek, RN, nurse clinician at William Beaumont Hospital. Herbert Hillenbrand, chaplain at University Hospital in Ann Arbor, will talk on ministering to the family of a dying person.

Rev. Ralph Stribe will address himself to the five stages of death and Joan Dickerson and Betty Morgan will introduce taped case histories with Elizabeth Kubler-Ross.

Catherine Sayers, RN, will introduce a film dramatizing the reaction of a poet to the news he has leukemia. A conversation with Dr. Eric Bermann will follow as will a discussion of the management of the terminally ill patient by Dr. John Burrows, director of extramural activities, Michigan Cancer Foundation.

Registration is $10 and lunch is $3.50.

Trip to Nassau offered by YW

Inducement in the form of a week for two in Nassau has been offered to the individual in Detroit or the suburbs who brings in the most members in the 1974 YWCA membership campaign drive.

The campaign drive committee, chaired by Nancy Orr, has set the dates for the campaign at April 29 to May 10.

Under the present fee schedule, a $7.50 adult or $3.50 junior membership gives the member the privilege of using YW facilities and programs for one year. Any donation over that amount will augment the budget.

A $10 contributing membership or a $25 supporting membership will add needed money to the general fund. The current membership drive will stress finding the $100 contributor in order to produce additional income for YW services.

It has long been the philosophy of the YWCA to keep its basic membership as low as possible, allowing those women who may need the service most to become members.

At a victory luncheon celebration Saturday, May 18, the name of the winner of the Nassau trip will be named.

Reuther raps Esch 'stalling' on joblessness

John Reuther, who is seeking the Democratic nomination in the 2nd District, has criticized Rep. Marvin Esch (R - Ann Arbor) for stalling on extending unemployment compensation and turning unemployment around.

Speaking April 26 at a houseparty in Livonia, Reuther criticized Esch for what he called "the incumbent's duplicity in treating the symptoms of an illness he could have cured more than a year ago."

Esch led a coalition of House Republicans and conservative Democrats, claims Reuther, which defeated the Emergency Employment Act of 1973. That bill would have authorized $4.5 billion for public service employment programs through June of next year.

"Certainly unemployment compensation benefits should be extended to more people for a longer period of time," Reuther told his Livonia audience, "but jobless pay is only a stop gap measure. It is intended to pay for the groceries until another job is found. The problem is that there are no jobs to be found."

"Unemployment compensation is scant solace when the mortgage is overdue and the bills pile up. The real concern should not be with obtaining more crumbs from the Presidential table, but in finding jobs for the thousands who now find themselves out of work — many for the first time in their lives."

Reuther maintains that Esch has a long record of opposition to public service jobs and meaningful manpower training legislation and residents of Livonia, Plymouth and other cities in the district cannot expect much help from Esch on employment.

"It's a bit ridiculous for Republicans to talk about the dignity of work and oppose measures which would give people an opportunity to work ... It is not enough for Esch to say the current jobless rate is 'unacceptable' and then to offer bandage solutions. We must create jobs, not payments."

"I would support a move to enact manpower training programs that could help people out of the dead end of our economy has placed them in. I would like to see people working on flood control projects along Lake Erie and replacing potholes, for instance."

These also are bandage solutions in the larger sense, Reuther admits. Causes of unemployment won't be eliminated, he concludes, until Congress can stem the ever-increasing inflation rate, correct inequities in the tax system, and other action to cure the ills of the nation's faltering economy.

West hurlers up Tiger mark to 9-1

By TOM DONOGHUE
Sports Editor

One good pitcher can usually make or break a winner in high school baseball.

Garden City West Coach Bob Dropp has that "one" three times over and his smile couldn't be bigger these days as his Tigers topped Taylor Kennedy, 2-0, and Crestwood, 3-1, to stand at 3-0 in the Tri-River loop and 9-1 overall.

"Our pitchers are just doing the job," stated Dropp. "And I can't say that I am really surprised. I have three senior pitchers back on this squad that has 12 returning seniors overall."

"Heck, two of my senior hurlers back are two-year all-league performers in Terry Dobbs and Jerry Herbst. My other senior is Paul Tatro."

West's pitching staff of Dobbs, Herbst and Tatro has allotted just 13 runs, 10 of those earn in the 10 games West has played.

Herbst, who was 7-3 on the mound for West last year, took over the controls in the 2-0 blanking of Kennedy. The 5-foot-11, 175 pound right-hander gave up just six hits, walked one and struck out six.

Taking the loss for Taylor was Jim Lincoln with West collecting seven hits. Lincoln recorded 14 strikeouts.

The Tigers scored both of their runs in the sixth. Doug Neracher singled, Dobbs drew a walk and Duane Wozniak doubled them both home.

The 3-1 conquest of Crestwood saw Dropp use both Tatro and Dobbs on the mound.

Tatro got the starting call and went the first four innings, gave up one run on two hits, and walked three. Dobbs picked up the win in relief and allowed two hits and no walks.

The real story had to be in the number of strikeouts the Tiger twosome recorded. Tatro struck out 10 Crestwood batsman and Dobbs another eight.

West meanwhile banged out nine hits off Paul Marzek who struck out six and walked three.

A double by Herbst and single by Tatro got West off to a 1-0 lead in the first but Crestwood tied it up in the fourth. Ron Lis singled and after a base on balls, Don Nichols singled in Lis.

The Tigers broke it open in the fifth and it was Neracher who got it going with his third three-bagger of the season. Dobbs followed with a single to score the West extra-base hitter. Mark Sutherland was walked, Wozniak was hit by a pitch and Jeff Foldring was also hit by a pitch to force in Dobbs.

West is now in a tie for first in the Tri-River with Southgate, which also has a 3-0 mark. These two clubs meet this Friday (May 3) at Southgate at 4 p.m.

Churchill batsmen dump Harrison, 5-1

Livonia Churchill remained unbeaten three steps into the '74 baseball campaign.

Roger Frayer's Chargers knocked down Farmington Harrison, 5-1, to up its overall mark to 3-0 and Western Six loop showing to 2-0.

It was senior Dave Panzoff who got the call against the Harrison Hawks. The 5-foot-9, 160 pound righthander upped his mark to 2-0 with a seven-inning, three-hit performance. Panzoff walked none and struck out 11.

The solo Harrison tally was an unearned run to keep Panzoff's mark unblemished as he has now gone 12 innings without allowing an earned run and has given up just five hits in that span.

Working the Harrison mound was John Collins and Tim Hammer with starter Collins suffering the loss and Churchill banging out eight hits to raise its three game total to 22.

Harrison drew first blood in the third when Paul Rogind singled and with one out, Greg Valasiss singled with Rogind scampering in on an overthrow to third base.

Churchill got that run back plus one for Panzoff in the fourth. Brian Kelly singled, stole second and moved around to third on a hit by Gary Condon.

A single by Rod Hawraney pushed in Kelly and a double by Al Leirstein scored Condon. Hawraney was cut down at third on the play, leftfield to third. A groundout and strikeout cut that rally short.

The Chargers pulled away the following inning with three runs on two hits. Jay Nelson drew a walk and Panzoff was hit by a pitch with Sam Bird replacing him on the base paths.

Mike Gottshall then delivered a two-bagger to score Nelson and Condon singled to score Nelson and Condon

Oak Park surprises Thurston in 8th, 5-4

Extra inning blues are beginning to haunt Thurston baseball Coach Emil Majeski.

In their fourth extra inning contest in nine games, the Eagles fell to Oak Park, 5-4.

It was the Northwest loop opener for Thurston and a crucial blow to the title seat which the Eagles are after. Overall, it was Thurston's fifth setback in nine contests.

Ray Ivey and Ken McLean worked for the Eagle mound with relief McLean suffering the defeat. Ivey went the first four innings and gave up three runs on six hits, walked three and struck out six. McLean went the last four and allowed the fourth and fifth Redskin runs on two hits, walked two, hit two batters and struck out nine.

Going the eight inning route for the winning Redskins was Gary Baker who gave up the four runs on seven hits, walked 10 Thurston batsmen and struck out three.

Thurston jumped off to a 2-0 lead in the first stanza. Gary D'Ascenzo walked, John Roy singled, they moved up on a passed ball and scored on a hit by Ivey.

Ivey was safe on an error in the third and scored on a double by Mike Donoghue to push it to 3-0.

Oak Park got two of the runs back in the fourth. After Jay Levine walked, Mark Chaness and Bob Vartosh singled and Bob Epstein followed with a two run single to slice it to 3-2.

The Redskins tied it up in the top of the fifth. Terry Moss singled, Levine was hit by a pitch and Chaness walked to fill the sacks. Epstein was hit by a McLean pitch and Moss was forced in with run No. 3.

The Eagles spurred again in the fifth when Donoghue walked, was replaced on the base paths by Dennis Kuschell and scored on a hit by Curt Beadle.

But once again the Redskins fought back to send it into extra innings. Moss walked, stole second, went to third on a hit by Levine and promptly stole home. The deciding tally came the following inning. Burton walked, moved to second on a ground out and dashed in on a single by Ed Lebanksi.

Thurston blew a chance to even things in the last of the inning. With one out, McLean drew a walk and Roy singled him to second.

But Baker bore down and got Ivey to ground out and Donoghue to pop to the catcher and the Redskins had scalped an Eagle.

LOOKING MORE LIKE A MOTORCYCLE DRIVER WITHOUT HIS BIKE is Churchill High long jumper Phil LaFave who will be one of the favored in that event this Saturday, May 4, in the

Bentley Bulldogs nip city foes & RU, 3-0

Marty Klozik's Bentley Bulldogs have bounced back from their opening season loss to Edsel Ford to win four straight baseball games and are starting to make it clear that this just might be their year.

After taking a 2-1 nipping from Edsel Ford, the Bulldogs battered city rivals Stevenson, 6-2, and Franklin, 3-0. It was then back into Suburban Eight action and Bentley bounced Belleville, 3-2 and topped Redford Union, 3-0.

Bentley is now sporting an overall 4-1 mark and 2-1 in the loop.

The opening campaign victory over Stevenson saw Dan Vezina and Doug Murphy share the mound chores with starter Vezina chalking up the win. Stevenson collected only three hits and scored both its runs in the sixth on walks to Mark Temby and Steve Braun and singles by Tim Murphy and Bob Hope.

Bentley meanwhile scored twice in the second and four times in the fourth and banged out seven hits total.

A single by Bob Cross, Tom Schultz was safe on an error and another Stevenson error pushed across the two runs in the second.

Four runs on only three hits put Bentley out of reach in the fourth. Al Bolz singled, Vezina walked, Glen Stevens singled, Mark Newell walked and Ernie Storm singled to finish the assault.

It was then on to another Livonia foe in the defending champions of the Northwest league from Franklin.

Doug Murphy got the Bulldog start and went the first five innings with a single by Tim Hollandsworth, the only hit he gave up. Dan Vezina worked the last two and kept the shutout and one-hitter intact for the save.

Don Gray suffered the defeat for Ron Hellier's Franklin crew.

Bentley struck first in the opening inning when Mickey Vaness singled, was wild pitched to second and scored on a hit by Storm.

Back-to-back singles by Schultz and Bolz along with a stolen base upped the Bulldog margin to two in the second stanza and a two-bagger by Storm and single by Bob Cross made it 3-0 in the third.

It was back into the Sub Eight fire against Belleville and Klozik went with Vezina and Murphy on the mound with reliever Murphy picking up the win.

Belleville collected only four hits with Kevin Bann the losing hurler, Bentley getting six hits.

Belleville jumped off to a 2-0 lead in the second. Dave Dapsi was safe on an error by Bolz at third, Robin Hook doubled, Gary Adkins walked and Rich Ivan walked. Hook scored when Bill Dudley was safe on another Bulldog error.

The Bulldogs got those two unearned runs back in the last of the sixth. Schultz doubled and with one out, pinch-hitter Mike Robbin singled him home and scored on a hit by Vaness.

The deciding tally came in the sixth on a hit by Bob Wasilewski, a stolen base and single by Storm.

Murphy took to the mound against Bob Atkins' Redford Union Panthers and responded with a three-hitter in the 3-0 blanking.

Murphy walked three and struck out three while the Bulldog batsmen banged out seven hits off RU junior lefthander Dan Bushart. It was Bushart's first loss against two wins. He walked one and struck out four.

It was RU's fourth straight setback in the league and fourth overall in 11 games.

Bentley struck in the second inning when Storm singled, stole second and scored when Bolz was safe on an error.

The Bulldogs upped it to 2-0 in the fourth. After two were out Cross singled, Schultz walked and Bolz dropped in a pop fly between the RU shortstop and left fielder.

A single by Vaness and two RU errors upped it to a three run margin in the fifth.

Stevenson's trackmen just keep dashing along.

The Spartans made it sixth straight dual wins in a 57-56 Inter-Lakes triumph over Pontiac Northern and capped the week with a triangular victory over Plymouth Salem and Northville.

Paul Holmberg's Spartans have to be considered the favorite to successfully defend the Observer Relay crown which they shared with city rival Churchill last year.

The fourth annual Observer Relays will take place this Saturday, May 4,

Schoolcraft takes 2nd in volleyball

Host Schoolcraft College came away with second place in the first annual National Junior volleyball championships.

The Ocelots finished behind tournament champion Kellogg Community College of Battle Creek.

Five junior college squads took part in the competition. Dr. Marvin Gans, meet director and head of the Schoolcraft athletic department, expressed disappointment in the small turnout, but said he anticipated a larger response next year.

Schoolcraft volleyballer Artur Wyszynski was named to the all-tourney at Hilbert Junior High in Redford Township starting at 4 p.m.

The three-team meet with Salem and Northville saw Stevenson rack up 75 points with Salem taking second and host Northville third.

Stevenson piled up 11 firsts and took second in the other four events. The Spartans won the 880 and 440 relays, took the pole vault and won all of the individual running events except the 220 yard dash.

Ken Brown was the lone Spartan double winner with a 2:08.0 in the 880 yard put and a :53.6 first in the 440 yard dash.

Stevenson ran into a tougher opponent in the Inter-Lakes meet with Pontiac Northern.

Northern won the shot put and the long jump while Stevenson took the high jump and the pole vault. The Huskies then went on to win the 880 and mile relays with the Spartans salvaging the 440.

The individual performances in the eight running events did the trick for Stevenson in five firsts and five seconds. Results:

Thurston bombs

Thurston High exploded for 11 runs on 12 hits to even its Northwest league record at one-all and overall showing at five wins and five losses.

It was Thurston 11-3 over North Farmington with Chris Queen going the route for the Eagles. The senior righthander gave up two of the three runs and three of five hits in the first, walked one and struck out 11.

Queen now stands at 2-2.

Taking the loss for North was starter Jerry Doot who was relieved by John Jayson.

North bounced off to a 3-0 lead in the first. John Patek doubled, Mike Combes singled, Bruce Brewin walked, and Mike Laury and Doot singled off Queen.

Thurston got two back in the second when McLean walked and Curt Beadle. Jeff Krzwade, and Queen all singled.

The Eagles jumped into the lead to stay in the third. Mike Donoghue singled, Dennis Litwinczuk was safe on an error attempting to sacrifice. Beadle singled, Queen was safe on an error and McLean singled to make it 5-3.

North's mishaps which eventually totalled seven errors, upped the Thurston cause to an eight run margin the rest of the way.

Ray Ivey walked to open the Eagle fourth. Donoghue was safe on an error, Litwinczuk was hit by a pitch and Beadle upped it to 6-3 on a groundout.

Pinch-hitter Steve Beane started the thirteenth when safe on an error.

Donoghue was also safe on an error and Litwinczuk tripled and scored on another error.

Thurston's final attack came in the seventh on a walk to Donoghue, an error, single by Bob Bessone and three-bagger by Jeff Trachsel.

Thurston cindermen roar

Thurston High cindermen scored back-to-back track routs, crushing Farmington Harrison, 78 - 45, and dumping the Redskins of Oak Park, 81 - 42.

In the non-leaguer with Harrison, the Eagles took three of four field events and won all but one individual running performance. Harrison made it a clean sweep in the three relays.

The story was pretty much the same in the Northwest league meet with Oak Park.

Thurston managed a mile relay victory and two field triumphs along with six firsts in the dashes along with seven seconds.

Borgess tops Gallagher

Bishop Borgess Coach Jim Brisky stuck a feather in his baseball cap and at the same time put a foot into the door of the Catholic Double A championship bid.

Brisky's Spartans knocked off loop defending champion Bishop Gallagher, 2-1, for its first setback in the Double A. Borgess now finds itself in a tie for first with Gallagher with identical 2-1 marks.

Overall, the win pushed Borgess to a 6-4 mark while Gallagher slipped to 11-7.

Reese Dobrick started on the Borgess mound and went the first three innings, giving up one run on one hit, walked three and struck out five.

Coming on in the fourth and hurling the next five innings in the eight inning affair was junior Mark Gergel. The 5-foot-11, 165 pound righthander chalked up his second triumph against one loss. Gergel allowed no runs, gave up two hits, walked four and struck out three.

"This was a big one for us," commented Brisky. "Mark was just unbelievable on the mound, it was his best performance yet."

Gallagher struck in the first inning off Dobrick. George Brennan singled and moved to second on a throwing error. John George then sacrificed him, to third where he scored on a groundout by Gary D'Aoust.

A leadoff triple by Dobrick and sacrifice by Jim Pearce tied it at one all in the second.

Borgess batted in the deciding tally in the last of the eighth. With one out, Phil Parker singled and Brisky put in a pitch - runner Ken Knasiak. Dan Kelly singled and Kevin Killeen singled to lead the bases. Mike Milosch then delivered the key hit to center and Borgess was in a tie for the Double A top slot.

Stevenson rips WL Central

Livonia Stevenson roared into Inter-Lakes baseball competition with a 10-2 rout of Walled Lake Central.

The Spartans collected nine hits, scored three runs in the third, added two in the fourth and finished it off with five more in the sixth.

Sophomore Greg Sipus handled the mound chores as he came up with a five-hitter, walking four and striking out eight. It was his second win in a now 2-1 season for the Spartans.

Mike Connelly, Scott Ireland and Mike Imhoff hurried for Central with starter Connelly suffering the loss.

Walled Lake opened with two quick runs in the first but that was all as Sipus slammed the door on the Central bats the remaining six innings.

Stevenson jumped into the lead with three runs in the third stanza. John Kolis walked, Rob Ross singled and Mark Temby tripled and scored on a wild pitch.

The Spartans upped it to a three run spread in the fourth.

Sipus got it going with a base on balls, Paul Schmidt sacrificed him to second, and Ross and Temby followed with singles to make it 5-2 Stevenson.

A five run sixth inning broke things wide open for the surging Spartans.

Schmidt singled, stole second and after Kolis popped out, Ross drew a walk. Temby then batted out his third hit of the contest to load the sacks. Tim Murphy, Steve Bross and Jim Snyder all followed with singles and Stevenson had an eight run lead and a league opening victory.

It was Bentley's second loop win against one loss and its third dual triumph against the same number of losses.

Wes Teeple-Trackman of the Week

Glenn vaulter climbs to 14'1"

By HANK MEIJER

Pole vaulter Wes Teeple of John Glenn jumped 14 - feet - 1 recently to break his own school mark of 13 - feet - 6 and record the area's best vault so far this season.

After his record leap he asked attendants to raise the bar to 14 - feet - 6. If he made that he'd have one of the top heights in the state. He sprinted his approach, slammed his pole into the box and pushed off.

He soared up even with the bar, then over it, going feet first, his shoes cleared it. As he released the pole he felt his leg brush the bar. He thought it would fall.

He turned his head to check and saw that it was still in place. Then it smacked him in the mouth and tumbled down.

In few events does a successful performance depend so much on a technique with few flaws and the confidence that comes with jump after jump.

Wes is still working on his technique, but there aren't many high school vaulters with his experience.

WES TEEPLE

He started in his backyard as a sixth grader. His older brother was a long jumper and Wes always wanted to be a trackman.

He used a piece of wood first, then graduated to bamboo. Before long a pole - vaulting friend of his brother brought him a pole that the high schoolers had broken in half.

Wes still didn't need a cushioned pit because he couldn't get up high enough to hurt himself.

Wes jumped 14 feet in his sophomore year. But in the summer before 11th grade he injured his back long jumping in a decathlon. He had to give up vaulting for nearly a year.

"I just wasn't strong enough," he said. With the help of one of his coaches he embarked on a vigorous weightlifting program last fall that has returned much of his strength.

The pole vault is the longest event at most track meets. It starts early with the other field events, but is often the last to end.

Wes has time to kill. He passes his early turns while other vaulters work to clear the lower heights. While they vault he high jumps and hurdles.

His girlfriend is a hurdler too. She comes to every meet, but Wes is uneasy with her around when the time comes for him to jump. He needs to concentrate.

The vaulters try to psyche each other out as they wait. They boast to one another of previous efforts, real or imagined. "It makes you nervous when you know there's somebody who's gone higher," he said. "Of course that makes you vault harder too."

Vaulting harder is his goal in the next few weeks. He wants to clear 15 feet this year. "But I haven't got a forceful enough plant yet," he said.

The plant, when the vaulter shoves his pole in the box and lifts off, is the crucial second of the vault.

"It's the moment when you change your force going forward to force going up," Wes said. The more speed and strength you go into the plant with, the more you bow your pole.

11th inning error costs Trojans, 3 - 2

A two out error in the top of the 11th inning cost Clarenceville a ball game, 3 - 2.

After Clarenceville notched it at two - all in the sixth, Bloomfield Andover pushed across the deciding tally in the 11th to take the Wayne - Oakland loop battle.

It was Clarenceville's second defeat in the league in two outings and its fourth overall against three wins.

"This loss was a hard one to swallow," commented Coach Del Cory. "Be wound up leaving 19 runners on base."

Andover opened the scoring in the top of the first when Mark Rydzon singled, Ross Berlin was hit by a Tim McCammon pitch and with one out, Jeff Pierce singled with both runners scoring on an error.

The Trojans got one of those runs back in the bottom of the inning. With one out, Rick Beyer singled, was forced at second with Brian Luka safe at first. Luka then stole second and scampered in on a hit by McCammon. The last of the sixth saw Clarenceville put it into a two - all deadlock. With one out, Brian Kinninen was hit by a pitch and with two outs, Jim Mullens singled and Terry Laird doubled to score Kinninen.

After four scoreless innings, Andover jumped on a Trojan mishap in the 11th.

After one out, Steve Henderson and John Peter drew walks and Cory replaced his starting hurler McCammon with Luka.

Luka proceeded to uncork a wild pitch to place runners on second and third with one out. Andover then attempted to pull off a suicide squeeze. Clarenceville called for the pitchout and Beyer put the tag on Henderson at the plate for out No. 2.

The third out was then in the making on a routine fly to center but the ball was dropped and in trotted Peter with what proved to be the deciding tally.

Clarenceville will attempt to get back into the league victory column today, (Monday) at West Bloomfield in a 3:30 p.m. clash.

The Court Jester

by BILL CAMERON

It's a beautiful day. The sky is overcast, the wind is blowing and it's raining. Those of us that are in the indoor tennis business live for this kind of weather - we hope for a wet spring.

If you've been playing indoors this winter you've probably had the opportunity to get outdoors this past weekend and found your game completely shot. There are probably several reasons for this. In an indoor situation you have had ideal conditions - no glare from the sun, no wind, very little noise distraction and good courts. Once you move outdoors you have several adjustments to make.

First, is the court surface. Cement plays differently from most indoor surfaces, so this is bound to throw your timing off. Several of the cement courts I've seen in the area have cracks and pit-holes which affect the bounce of the ball.

One local high school has two types of finish - rough and smooth on their courts. This creates a ridiculous situation, on one shot you have a slow bouncing ball, on another a fast skidding ball.

The same holds true for asphalt courts. Most of the asphalt courts in our area make excellent parking lots. After a rain, the puddles remain for several days.

In most areas the wind becomes a difficult factor unless you understand what happens to your ball. If you have a high toss on your serve, the wind plays havoc, so you have to shorten your toss, which, again, means an adjustment in your timing.

If the wind is blowing from side to side, you have to learn to hit your down-the-line shots differently than if you had no wind. The same holds true with the wind blowing directly at you or from behind. If the wind is blowing at you, you can hit harder than usual and temper your strokes if the wind is behind you.

The sun can be both a help and a hindrance. If it shines directly into your eyes, it becomes difficult to serve and to hit overheads. When it's affecting your opponent it's a great time to lob. The sun and the wind dictate your strategy if you think seriously about it.

There is absolutely nothing you can do about the mosquitoes, except to cover yourself with a repellent. I swear I've destroyed at least five mosquitoes in the course of a serve. It might possibly distract your opponent when you go through those weird gyrations - it does slow up one's serve.

If we could just figure out a way to make those motorcycles disappear it would be so much pleasanter. Noise is a disturbing factor when you're trying to concentrate. Playing indoors may be more expensive but it does make for better playing conditions.

By W.W. EDGAR

Ann Setlock, one of the veterans of the women's all-star leagues, has done it again.

With a finish as exciting as any in years she won the high average championship and thus earned the right to enter the throne room after an absence of several years.

Trailing Kathy Springs, her youthful rival, by a single pin on the final night of the season in the Ladies Major League, Ann left no doubt about her right to the title when she rolled games of 178, 246 and 265 for a 689 - second highest of the season - to leave her challenger far behind.

It was a most satisfying triumph for Ann, who has been fighting the ravages of a bad back for more than a year. It wasn't too long ago that she was on the verge of retiring from major competition. Then, she decided to give it one more try and crowned the year with success by posting an average well above 196.

With this average, Ann joins the elite of women's bowling in America.

The women bowlers also set a record as a group when three teams --

Motown, Pinky's Sport Shop and Jac - Ro - tied for the league championship in the Bowlerettes circuit.

It was the first triple tie ever recorded in the league that has been in existence for more than a quarter of a century.

In a roll-off at Motor Lanes Anita, Cantaline's Jac - Ro team showed the way and earned the trophy in a thrilling finish.

The new champions will be crowned at the annual banquet Friday night when the official figures and averages will be announced.

The members of the Goebel team are keeping their fingers crossed - and for a good reason.

Unless some sharpshooter comes through in the next two weeks before the ABC tournament closes at Indianapolis, the Goebel group will claim three titles.

Captain Bob Hart is at the head of the list in the individual all-events with 2087 and shares the doubles with Chuck Sunseri at 1419, while the team tops the team all-events with 9575.

Very few teams in the long history of the ABC have done better than that.

This is a big week for the junior bowlers and they'll be establishing something of a record when more than 1,000 will attend the Livonia Parks and Recreation banquet.

This group has grown so large that the banquet is being conducted over a four night period at Roma Hall.

The high scoring continued in the Wonderland Lanes Classic with another pair of 700's, and a team count of 3338.

Chuck Bonza won the pace setting roll that wasn't decided until the final ball. He linked games of 222, 258 and 226 for a 706 to beat John Mc Keever by a single pin.

The annual tournament sponsored by the Greater Detroit Bowling Association got under way last Saturday night at Satellite Bowl with the largest turnout in years.

With the fuel shortage still having an effect, the attendance this year is expected to shatter all previous marks.

A place to spend the summer.

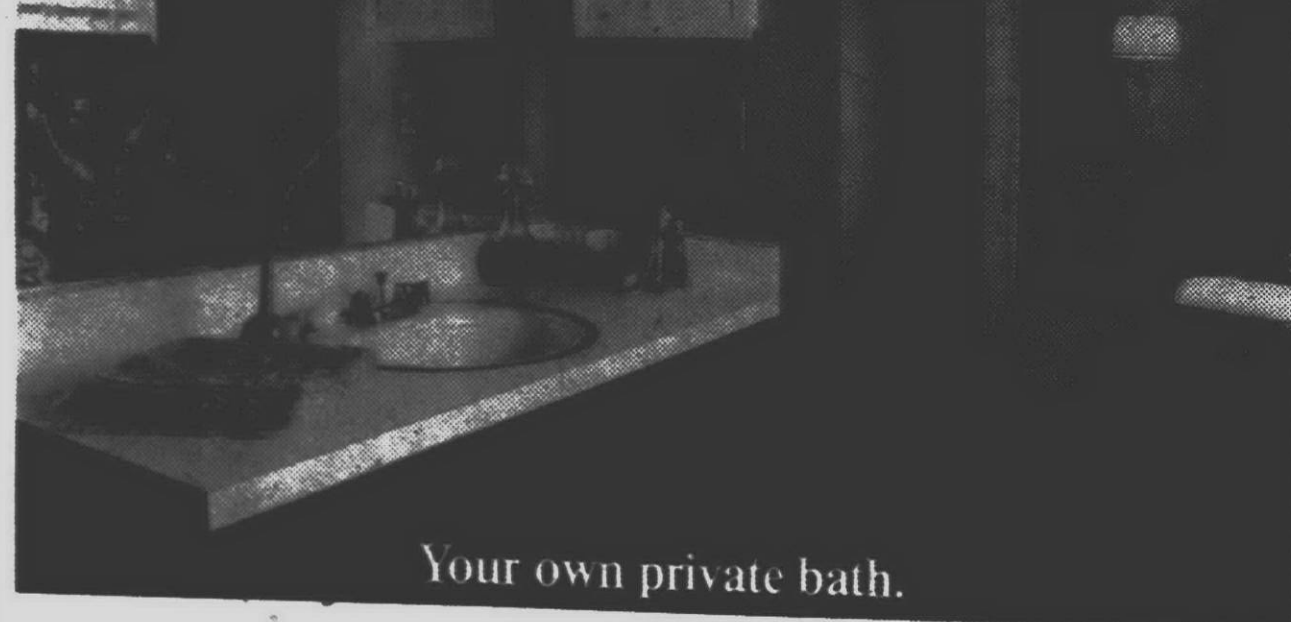

Space for your cars and bicycles.

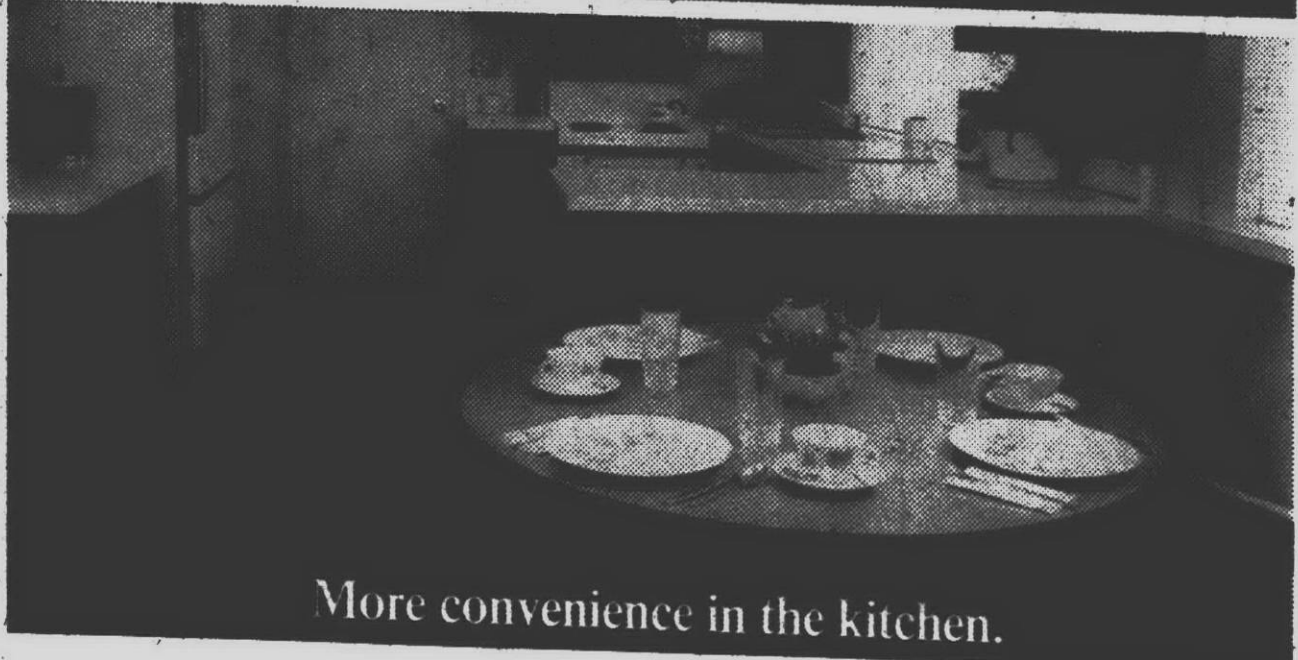

More room for your beds.

A separate room for the family.

Your own private bath.

More convenience in the kitchen.

After all these years, maybe it's time you moved to bigger and better things.

If you've been considering a bigger house, or a newer one, there'll never be a better time than right now to make your move.

And, right now, National Bank of Detroit can help you make that move. We have mortgage money to lend, and we lend more than any other bank in town.

We'll give you prompt word on the approval of your mortgage loan, and set up your closing in as little as two weeks thereafter at an NBD office in your neighborhood.

We might also save you some money. Our closing fee on uninsured conventional mortgages is a simple flat fee that has nothing to do with the size of your mortgage. And that could possibly save you enough money to buy a new chair for your new home, or carpet one of your new bedrooms.

Why not look into a mortgage loan now at any of the more than 100 offices of NBD. The bank that's ready to help you get a new house—now.

Making banking better for you.
