the city while Kellogg Park and Riverside Cemetery were cluttered with large limbs. (Staff photo by Maurie Walker)

Storm damages property but leaves residents safe

Mother Nature kept fire, police and public works departments busy around Plymouth, as well as Canton and Plymouth townships over the weekend.

Trees toppled in several areas around Plymouth, wires were down and flooding hit many basements and streets.

Ken Vogras, head of the city's DPW said trees fell on two houses, one at 452 Maple where the 36-inch diameter tree demolished the front of the house, and one where an 18-inch diameter tree hit a house at Liberty and Mill. Two others blocked streets, one on Beech between Harvey and McKinley and one at Church and Adams.

"Large limbs fell in Kellogg Park and others cluttered Riverside Cemetery," Vogras said.

The DPW was also kept busy putting up barricades in areas where Edison lines were knocked down.

FIRE CHIEF George Schoenneman said his department was busy during Sunday evening's storm, answering calls where wires had been knocked down.

Canton Township's fire chief, Mel Paulun, said his department responded to 14 alarms Sunday.

"A normal Sunday is five or six alarms," he said.

The chief said wires were down in several areas but the storm caused false alarms, as well as shorting out numerous alarms. There were no reported injuries, the chief added.

Fire Chief James Gignac of Plymouth Township said his department had 11 runs over the week, slightly more than the six to eight for a normal weekend.

"We received two false alarms, responded to some cases of flooding and had several cases of fallen wires," Gignac said.

No serious injuries were reported in any of the areas as a result of the weekend storms.

Schools will lower debt retirement levy

PLYMOUTH—"A yes vote on both millage proposals on the June 9 ballot will still bring a reduction of .41 mills for property owners in the Plymouth schools."

That was the word Supt. John M. Hoben learned this week as the State Tax Commission has moved to reduce the debt levy in the district by .47 mills because of increases in the total property value in the district.

"In effect, what will happen is that voters will be able to approve the 5.15 mill renewal and the .46 mill in additional funding for the operating budget and still receive a tax rate reduction. This will come through a .40 mill safety millage and the .47 mills in debt retirement which will not be levied in the coming school year," Hoben said.

When school officials in Plymouth began painting the financial picture for the district earlier this year, they felt voters could accept the notion of replacing the retiring safety millage and a smaller chunk of the debt retirement millage with funds for the day-to-day operation of the district.

In effect the Citizens Election Committee had been telling residents that a yes vote for both millage proposals would leave the total tax rate unchanged.

With the recent action of the tax commission, however, voting yes will leave residents with a lower tax rate.

According to Hoben, the increase in total property value, or State Equalized Valuation (SEV) for the district has increased by $84 million in the past year, putting the total SEV at nearly $479 million.

While the superintendent was happy with the news of the reduction in the debt retirement millage because of the increased valuation, he said the increases will have just the opposite effect on the amount of state aid the district will receive.

During the current school year, Plymouth received approximately $197 per student from the state. With the increased SEV, projected figures are $144 per student during the 1975-76 school year.

According to Hoben this will mean a loss of approximately $500,000 in operating funds for the district, based on current enrollment figures.

"With this loss in state funds and other increases from inflation and contractual obligations, it's important that we have both the 5.15 mill renewal and the added .46 mills approved by the voters," Hoben said.

Residents seek noise barriers along I-275

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP—All is not lost in the request for traffic noise barriers for the Cambridge Green, Cambridge Village and Bradbury Park subdivisions.

Residents in those areas had requested noise barriers on the east and west sides of I-275.

The Department of State Highways and Transportation had informed the township board of trustees by letter that it had done all possible for the situation. The board, however, has asked Clerk Helen Richardson to contact government officials to see if something more can be done to eliminate or reduce the traffic noise.

"I have written to our representatives to see if federal funds are available for installing barriers in these areas," the clerk said. "To date there has been no reply."

Last month, John P. Woodford, director of the department, told the board in a letter that, "A complete review and evaluation of the subject area has been completed."

"We find that the subdivisions concerned were well planned, platted and constructed long after the highway location was approved and publicized."

"Because of their pre-knowledge, the developer, the township and even the prospective buyers should have anticipated the current situation and acted accordingly. We believe it to be unjustified at this late date for the residents to expect full remedy from the funds of all taxpayers."

Woodford said that construction of the freeway and the low earth mound on the east side is completed and "in compliance with our agreement a landscape contract is planned for the 1976 planting season."

"In response to property owner requests," the letter added, "we are herein further agreeing to amend this contract to include such plantings between the freeway and both Cambridge Village and Bradbury Park."

"Although construction adjacent to these subdivisions is completed, it may be deemed feasible to also add a small earth mound along some portions of the roadway."

The township board, realizing this action by the state will not completely solve the problem, is asking state or federal assistance to meet the wishes of residents of the three subdivisions.

Board refuses to reconsider 45-15

PLYMOUTH—Miller Elementary School will have a year-round school program beginning in July.

Voting 5-1 against a motion to reconsider the previously approved 45-15 program, the Plymouth school board has insured that the program will begin on July 14, as scheduled.

Discussion by board members followed more than an hour of arguments in opposition to the program by parents in the Miller School area in Canton Township.

Their arguments remained basically the same as had been presented to the board over the past two months.

Opponents argued the problems of lack of support for the program by parents. Some residents felt not enough planning has gone into providing recreation during the four breaks for students during the year, while others complained of what they call the arbitrary nature of the decision.

The board reviewed the results of a survey of the Miller area, prepared by Mrs. Judy Utermark, which found 32 per cent of the parents opposed to 45-15, some 29 per cent in favor of the program, and 39 per cent who did not respond.

The only parent to speak in favor of 45-15 was James Slusser, who spent more than 30 minutes outlining some of the successes and failures of the 45-15 program throughout the country.

Slusser said there are currently two million students in 38 states who are involved in a year-round school program and cited two examples of what he felt are successful systems, and added explanations for two 45-15 programs that have been considered by some to be failures.

"The success of 45-15 will require cooperation on everyone's part. If we eliminate the program now, we will have arbitrarily eliminated a possible solution for school growth problems," Slusser said.

"I don't want to see residents of this district dig deep for money to build schools that will have empty classrooms in 10 years."

Trustee Gary Mirto was the only board member seeking a reconsideration of the program. "I would simply say that it's wise to reconsider 45-15, because of the way we have gone about it. Its procedural implementation has been lacking."

Some parents opposing 45-15 said they would work for the defeat of millage proposals in the district unless the board stalled the implementation of the program.

Responding to the threat, board secretary Marcia Borowski said, "You'll be cutting off your nose to spite your face. There's no way you can hurt us (board members) as individuals by voting no on a millage."

"A no vote will not help you or your children."

Canton plans first graduation

Anyone who cares to listen might hear the gentle strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" being lightly hummed or whistled in the corridors of Plymouth Canton and Plymouth Salem high schools.

The first of a flurry of three weeks worth of graduation activities begins this Saturday, May 31 with the senior prom at the Hilton Inn near Metropolitan Airport and concludes with the senior party following graduation ceremonies on June 28.

This year will mark the first graduating class from Canton High and in a true spirit of cooperation both Canton and Salem seniors will be sharing in almost all of the ceremonies.

Activities for seniors include: Senior prom will be held at the Hilton Inn, 31500 Wick Rd., Romulus, on May 31 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Tickets are priced at $9 per couple.

Senior honors assemblies Canton leads off with its honors convocation on June 11, followed by Salem on June 12. The program is arranged by the senior class honors committee, guidance department and the faculty and will be open to seniors and invited guests only. Parents of invited seniors will be notified by June 5. Baccalaureate will be handled in the same manner as in previous years. Individual chapters located within the school district will be asked to hold a recognition service on June 15 in honor of graduating seniors.

Senior banquet is set for the Mayflower Meeting House on June 13 at 6:30 p.m. Tickets will be available after June 2 at $7 per person.

Graduation ceremonies will be held at 8 p.m. on Friday, June 20 at the Centennial Park football field. In the event of rain, the graduation exercises will be moved to the Salem gymnasium.

Each senior will be given six tickets and caps and gowns will be issued on June 13. Colors for Canton will be red and white, while Salem seniors will don blue and white gowns. Rental fees for gowns are $6.50 for white gowns and $5 for red and blue.

A rehearsal will be held on June 20 at 2:30 p.m.

Senior party prepared by senior parents will begin after commencement exercises on June 20 at Salem High recreation facilities. The evening will end at approximately 2:30 a.m. Tickets are priced at $5 in advance and $6 at the door.

The party is for Canton and Salem seniors only and anyone leaving the party will not be readmitted.

A TUG OF WAR between Michigan history classes of Plymouth Salem and Plymouth Canton high schools climaxed Michigan Week celebrations at the schools. At this point the Canton team is getting dunked in the creek which separates the two schools. (Staff photo by Maurie Walker)

Honoring those who died to preserve America's freedom

PLYMOUTH—It didn't rain on our parade. It rained in the early morning, it rained in the later afternoon, but Plymouth's annual Memorial Day parade came off without a sprinkle.

Through lined Main Street from Church to Kellogg Park, the line of march, to witness a colorful event featuring The Plymouth Centennial Educational Park marching band along with bands from Central and West middle schools.

There was a color guard followed by the Grand Marshal, Gerald Olson, of Passage. Gayde Post 391 of the American Legion.

Vito Simonetti, a member of the American Legion for more than 50 years, served as honorary parade marshal.

Following the parade, ceremonies were held in Kellogg park where a Michigan State Supreme Court Justice G. Mennen Williams addressed the crowd.

Williams praised Plymouth for its "sense of community spirit which is missing in many places these days."

The former governor of Michigan added a bit of humor to his talk when he praised "some of my fellow judges for attending the ceremony."

"I don't know how they find time to be here with the heavy work load there is in the court rooms today," he said.

Master of ceremonies for the observance was Fred DeLano, an editor of the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers.

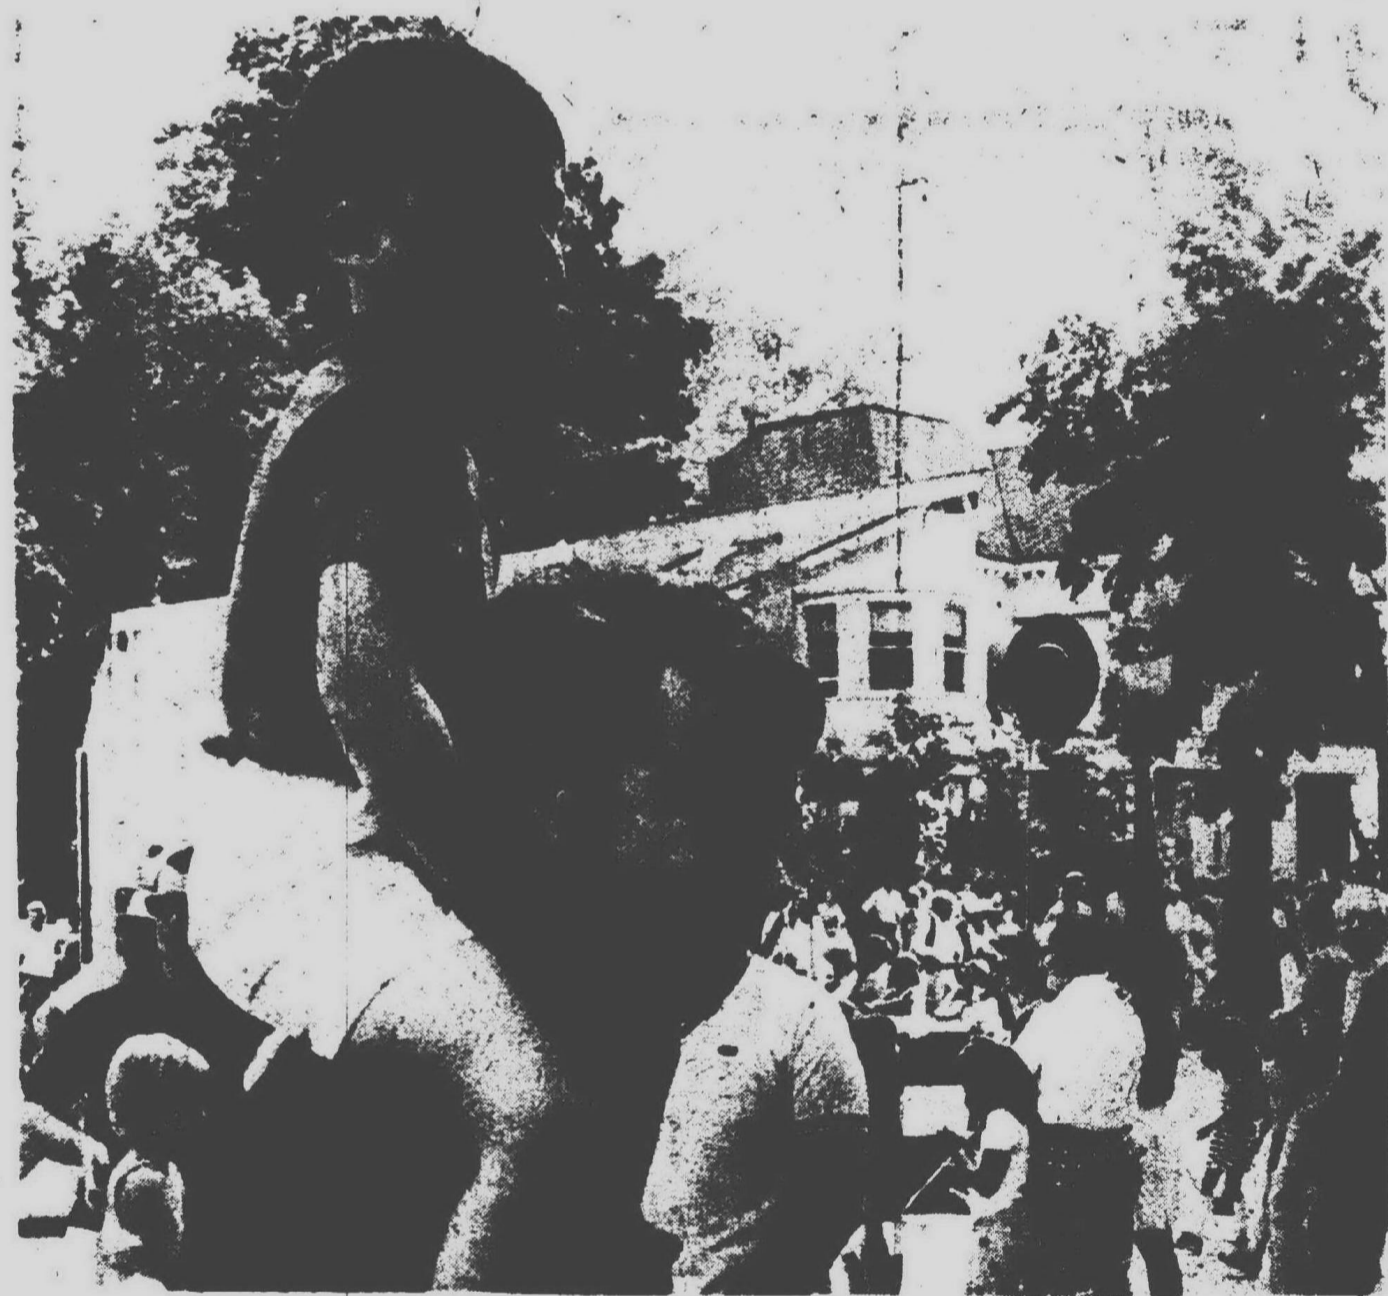

Invocation was presented by Lt. Dallas Baby of the Salvation Army while the Pledge of Allegiance was led by Plymouth Mayor Beverly McAninch. The traditional reading of "Flanders Field" was given by CEP marching band member Ken Martinek.

"America" was sung by the Middle School choir under the direction of Laura Wallace.

A wreath, honoring veterans who died in service of their country, was placed at the Plymouth Rock by Cmdr. Gary Kubik, of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 6695 and Cmdr. Bob Finley of American Legion Post 391.

The traditional Taps was played by Harry Krumm, bugler of VFW Post 6695.

A volley salute, consisting of three rounds fired into the air over the Plymouth Rock, was offered by the VFW drill team.

PAYING TRIBUTE to those who fought for our freedom brought crowds to downtown Plymouth for the annual Memorial Day Parade. Ceremonies included the mournful cry of taps by bugler Harry Krumm, a walking Supreme Court Justice G. Mennen Williams, and marchers of all shapes and sizes, from Brownies to bandsmen. And, of course, little boys like Craig Barnhart needed a little help from dad to get a peek at just what was happening.

Endres retires from Youth Symphony

A new director will conduct members of the Plymouth Youth Symphony through bars and sheets of music next fall.

H. Michael Endres, who has served as full-time director since 1968, has submitted his letter of resignation because of other musical responsibilities.

Endres said he has recommended another music teacher in the Plymouth Community School District to serve as his replacement. The Youth Symphony's board of directors has not yet approved his recommendation.

Endres is leaving the Plymouth Youth Symphony because of commitments to other orchestras. As director of the Plymouth Centennial Educational Park Symphony Orchestra and conductor of the Westland Civic Orchestra, Endres says he cannot devote as much time as he would like to each of the three groups.

"It was a decision I had a difficult time making," Endres said. "It's an important link with the school orchestra program."

The Youth Symphony was founded with a grant from the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra to give junior and senior high school students an opportunity to play with a larger orchestra than each individual school could support. The orchestra incorporated as the Plymouth Youth Symphony Association in 1970, and by-laws and a board of directors were formed.

The 60 to 70 members of the orchestra, composed mainly of seventh through 10th graders from the Plymouth Community School District, perform three main concerts each year and stage one or two supplementary performances.

Each student pays annual membership dues of $10 to support the director's salary, a Youth Symphony scholarship program, and field trips orchestra members take.

"It does perform an important role in the school district," Endres said. "As the system keeps growing, the Youth Symphony provides an opportunity to get all the kids together."

"It's been a pleasant association I've had with the Youth Symphony over the years," Endres added. "It's been very rewarding, and I feel that the orchestra has done a great deal to maintain and improve the student orchestra program in the Plymouth community."

Endres, 34, has taught music at the middle and high school level in the Plymouth Community School District since 1965. He currently teaches orchestra and music theory at the Centennial Educational Park and directs small ensemble groups.

Endres holds bachelor of arts and master's degrees in music education from the University of Michigan. He has taken other music classes from the University of Kansas, the University of Minnesota and California State College. He plays bass, violin, cello and tuba.

Township balks on airport petitions

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP—How the Plymouth Township board will go in the much discussed Mettetal Airport hasse will have to wait for another 30 days while the trustees review the feasibility study presented by Dr. Ralph Atchley.

Atchley Tuesday night presented a petition with 129 names of Plymouth Township residents who opposed the purchase of the airport and its expansion by neighboring Canton Township.

The board was given a suggested position statement by Atchley. However, the board wanted more time before issuing an opinion.

Trustee Gerald Burke, who said he is a pilot and is in favor of the airport, said he had heard that in some cases, those opposed to the airport "were using scare tactics."

"I have heard some of those distributing petitions are warning residents of the danger of the airport, the threat of crashes," the trustee said.

Atchley showed the board a copy of the petitions and said that it might be possible some persons in Canton Township are using the potential threat of plane crashes and additional noise as a deterrent to the airport.

Burke said he was not accusing anyone, but that he had just heard some persons were using the crash warning to get persons to sign the petition. Clerk Helen Richardson said she opposed expansion of the airport but, "we have to live with it."

"The previous board, several years ago opposed expansion of the airport and said they would fight it," the clerk said.

"However, this is a new board and so it's a whole new ball game."

Gathering roadside litter is daily job for county

By W. W. EDGAR

Stroking his chin and shaking his head at the sight, Carl Piscopink, district supervisor for the Wayne County Road Commission, said, "Unless you see this, you'd never believe it."

He was standing at the Lilley roadside watching his crew of six husky men gathering litter running the gamut from empty beer cans to broken beds, worn out stoves and refrigerators.

"There was a time, not too long ago," he said, "when we used one group of men for two weeks after the last snow to clean up the litter. Now, would you believe it, we have a road group every day of the year when there is no snow on the ground."

TO MAKE matters worse because of the tight budget given his department under contract to the state many of these "foot soldiers," as the litter collectors are called, must be taken off road repair work to do a job that really shouldn't be necessary, he said.

"Few people realize the cost of this litter problem, but it runs close to $100,000 in our district which includes Canton Township, Westland and Garden City. Of this amount, $60,000 is charged for labor and the remainder for the rental of equipment."

Piscopink contends the public's laxity about litter is more responsible for the increased load than the greater number of cars.

"I never have seen conditions as bad as they are today. When you see beds, stoves and refrigerators tossed into ditches along the road, you know it is the people's fault. And this is something beyond our control.

"Of course, if we catch the litterers, they are reported to the police. But most of the time we are stuck with the job of cleaning up."

PISCOPINK'S CREW of six covers about 1.5 miles of roadside daily, collecting about 10 cubic yards of trash.

This is only the start. The litter—beer cans, papers, bottles and broken bits of furniture—is put into large plastic bags and left on the roadside for truck pick-up.

What aggravates Piscopink is that the trash is thrown into the high grass and scarcely can be seen by the public. But it's got to be picked up because at grass-cutting time it could ruin the leased machinery.

"People have just become very lax and with that 'don't care' attitude, there is no telling just how bad it will get before the summer ends."

The State Highways and Transportation Department expects to spend a record $1.75 million on litter collection this year and less than 40 per cent of the sum will be spent on picking up loose stones, tree limbs, dead animals and other debris that might be hazardous to traffic.

"The cost of cleaning up after litterbugs is difficult to reduce," said Joseph F. Gravac, the highway department's maintenance chief. "Every single piece of trash is picked up by hand. All the mechanical devices we've tested so far have proven unsatisfactory."

Volunteer help needed at SC

Volunteer help in the reading laboratory and writing concepts center at Schoolcraft College is needed during this spring and coming summer sessions.

Retired volunteers have been assisting the college through the Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) during the fall and winter semesters.

Additional community volunteers, however, are needed now to help test students during orientation sessions through the summer.

Volunteers are needed in the reading center on Tuesdays from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. and from 7-10 p.m. Following the testing of students, volunteers help with clerical procedures such as scoring, recording and filing test results.

The writing concepts center, part of the English composition program, also needs volunteers on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to noon through June.

Hours and number of days may be arranged by calling Betty Andrews in the community services office on campus at 18600 Haggerty, Livonia.

255 jobs available at county

WAYNE COUNTY—Residents of Westland, Garden City, Plymouth, and Redford and Canton townships are eligible for the 255 summer jobs sponsored through a federally funded program by the Wayne County Office of Manpower.

Livonia residents are ineligible for the county program because a similar program is sponsored by that city.

Participants must meet the criteria of the U.S. Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) and will be paid $2.50 per hour for a 40-hour week.

CETA criteria stipulate that applicants must be between the ages of 18-29, but high school graduates may qualify at age 17; and must be a recently discharged veteran or high school graduate, or currently be enrolled in a college, university, business or trade school.

Economically disadvantaged applicants must be given preference under the CETA regulations.

Interested persons should contact R. Repko at the Wayne County Office of Manpower, 1150 Griswold, 2400 David Stott Building, Detroit 48226.

The 255 jobs will be divided among three program components:

- A total of 65 persons will perform general park maintenance work for the County Road Commission from June 9 through Aug. 29.

- There will be 150 jobs as office workers, library and recreation aides in various county agencies during July and August.

- A special drain project in Van Buren and Sumpter townships will require the work of 40 student assistants during July and August.

Treasure hunters to journey to 'centennial dump' for fun

Rose City isn't a spot that springs to mind when you think of buried treasure. It's not likely Capt. Cooke hid any chests of gold there. Nor would you expect to find sunken Spanish galleons. Even so, Rose City will be the destination this weekend of a group calling itself Michigan Treasure Hunters and whose membership comes largely from this area. Their hunting tools are electronic metal detectors and they'll explore an abandoned loggers' camp, a site where folks homesteaded back in the 1800s and a onetime dump dating back 100 years. Rose City is ready to welcome the hunters, too. Merchants have donated more than 200 gifts to be given away as prizes. A sheriff's posse will lead the group to the old logging camp. A police escort will be provided to other treasure sites.

ities and as far north as Pontiac in Oakland County.

"We've had enquiries from as far away as Muskegon and Grand Rapids," Temple said.

Regular meetings now are held the fourth Tuesday of each month at the Livonia Senior Citizens Building, Five Mile and Farmington Roads. Meetings start at 7:30 p.m. The next meeting is May 27.

Membership is $5 per year for either a single membership or a family.

"IT'S A family hobby," Temple said, "and for campers and non-campers. We try just to have fun and make new friends."

The metal detectors cost from about $50 for a good beginner's set to about $300 for top-of-the-line, according to Temple. They explore for metal buried two to four feet.

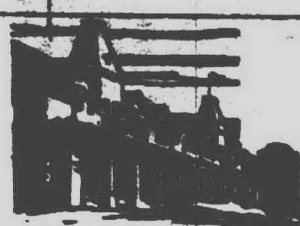

No one really expects to make any "millionaire" finds, although there have been some both interesting and valuable.

Dick Foster found a 1965 Plymouth High School class ring while treasure hunting and is trying to locate its owner.

Vern Rowe of Plymouth came upon a 530 pound chunk of pure copper in northern Michigan with an estimated value of about $400.

But most of the hunters seek a return more valuable than money. Writing about the coming Rose City outing in the club's last newsletter, Rowe said:

"All treasure is not found with a detector some of us may find during this outing that meeting new friends and just taking in the scenery that the Creator and Mother Nature have bestowed upon us is a greater treasure than you will ever find with an electronic device."

County OKs summer jobs for youths

WAYNE COUNTY—A $1.4 million summer employment program for out-county youths which could provide nearly 2,000 jobs, has been authorized unanimously by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

Teens in Redford Township, Garden City, Westland, Plymouth, Canton and Canton townships are eligible for the program. Those from Livonia are ineligible for the county program because the city receives direct federal grants.

AT THEIR MAY 15 meeting, the commissioners approved using $1,421,826 of federal Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) funds for summer work projects that include:

- Continuation of the annual Rouge River cleanup campaign which will provide 100 jobs for eight weeks at $2.50 per hour and 30 jobs for 17 weeks at $3.85 per hour for youths over 18.
- Continuation of the County Drain Commissioner's yearly drain cleanup which will employ 50 workers for eight weeks at $2.50 and $3.85 per hour for youths over 18.
- Repetition of last summer's Intermediate School District program for disadvantaged youngsters expected to employ 1,400 between ages 14-18 at $2.10 per hour for various cleanups this year.
- Initiation of a project of the County Office of Manpower to hire 150 student assistants between 18-29 at $3.85 per hour for general clerical duties.
- Initiation of a program still in preliminary stages for the parks division of the Wayne County Road Commission to pay 152 workers $2.50 and $3.85 per hour for general maintenance and groundskeeping in the county park system.

The Intermediate School District program is especially for the severely disadvantaged. Youngsters in this program must meet federal Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) poverty guidelines allowing a maximum of $5,050 for a non-farm family of four, with adjustments for larger and smaller families scaled accordingly.

PARTICIPANTS in other programs must be CETA eligible, but not necessarily disadvantaged by OEO standards. Those who are, however, will be given preferential treatment.

Besides regular CETA qualifications, applicants for the Office of Manpower Student Assistant program must also be recently discharged military veterans and high school graduates or be enrolled in a college or university.

Those in these jobs will be placed in various county departments, and are acceptable up to age 29.

Applicants for the intermediate school district program should telephone 278-3222 in the City of Wayne, and those interested in positions with the other projects should call 224-7160 in Detroit for screening information.

Over the past two years, CETA has provided Wayne County nearly $6 million for the jobless and tentatively has allocated another $5.5 million for 1975, from which this summer program is financed.

The program is likely to be expanded if Congress allocates Wayne County an additional $1 million as is expected before summer's end.

Where to give blood donations

Residents may make appointments to donate blood at a number of area locations during June.

The American Red Cross will be accepting blood Monday, June 2, from 3-9 p.m. in St. Maurice Catholic Church, 32765 Lyndon, Livonia.

From 3-9 p.m. Wednesday, June 11, Red Cross will be in Rice Memorial United Methodist Church at 20601 Beech Daly, Redford Township.

From 3-9 p.m. on Wednesday, June 18, persons may give blood in Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church at 1060 Penniman, Plymouth.

Then from 2-8 p.m. Thursday, June 26, the Red Cross will be in First United Methodist Church, 6443 Merri-man, Garden City.

Donors also may visit the Northwest Red Cross office, 32316 Five Mile, Livonia, from 2-8 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Thursday; from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday and Friday; and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday.

PART OF THE PICTURE

Complete facilities are important in funeral service, of course... and our new facilities on Six Mile Road were built with this in mind.

But they're just part of the picture.

To our way of thinking, the people who serve here are the most important part. They provide the understanding and concern that funeral service is all about.

At all our locations, you'll find that the completeness of our service equals the completeness of our facilities.

Health problem increasing among homosexuals; declines for 'straights'

By DENNY COFFMAN

A dramatic increase of venereal disease among male homosexuals has surprised officials of the Wayne County Health Department and sent them searching for reasons for the phenomenon.

According to John Dun, public health representative at the County Health Center, Westland, 63 per cent of all cases treated at the facility between January and mid-May of this year have involved "gay" males. For the same period last year, gays accounted for only about 30 per cent of the case load.

At the same time, there has been a reduction in the number of instances of venereal disease among heterosexuals, or "straights," during the period. This year, 352 cases of gonorrhea were treated; last year, 452. The center treated 45 cases of syphilis so far this year, but treated 68 last year.

"Maybe it's just that the heterosexual cases have dropped in number," says Dun, "and therefore gays account for a higher percentage. At any rate, there seems to be an increase in gay venereal disease in recent months."

BUT DUN points out that the "mechanics" required for gay sexual relations may be a reason for the proliferation. Anal sex, which he terms fairly common among gay males, is especially conducive to the transference of disease. By contrast, no case of venereal disease has ever been reported involving female gays.

Inasmuch as there are three cases of VD among all males, both gay and straight, for every two cases of VD among females, the risk of contracting VD when both partners are males is extremely high, according to Dun.

"It affects a cross-section of the community," says Dun, "from the unemployed right up to executives."

ANOTHER reason he cites for the rise in gay male VD is the apparently casual sexual activity among gay males. Exposure to many contacts frequently, but fleetingly, increases the dangers.

"Gays tend to have more variety and more anonymous partners," says Dun. "What contributes to the incidence of VD is not the amount of sexual activity, but rather the amount of activity with different partners."

The center provides free examination and treatment for gonorrhea ("clap") and syphilis.

Gonorrhea is considered easier to contract, because it has a very short incubation period, often less than 24 hours. Its germs are parasites, living off the warm moist membrane of rectum, mouth, eyes or sexual organs.

Syphilis has an incubation period ranging from 10-90 days and its effects are more devastating: insanity, paralysis, bone destruction, heart failure, blindness, nerve deafness and skin ulcers.

"Both require physical contact for transmission from one person to another," says Dun. "Sharing a swimming pool or drinking fountain or toilet seat won't do it."

More homes, smaller families

By TIM RICHARD

Families are getting smaller in western Wayne County.

More single persons are moving out of their parents' homes and into their own pads.

And some communities which are losing population are actually gaining in the number of occupied housing units.

THESE PATTERNS emerge from the new report of occupied dwelling units, available this week from the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG). The figures trace the growth of people and housing units from the official census date of April 1, 1970 to July 1, 1974.

Here is a town-by-town rundown of growth:

•Canton Township exploded in terms of people, but family size changed little in four years. Canton grew from 11,026 persons to 29,600, or 169 per cent, and from 3,261 occupied dwelling units to 8,800, also about 169 per cent. The number of persons per dwelling dropped only slightly, from 3.38 to 3.36.

•Garden City lost population—from 41,864 to 40,200. But the number of dwelling units increased from 10,482 to 11,000, an increase of five per cent. Family size dropped from 3.99 to 3.65.

•Livonia showed a leveling of population from 110,109 in the base year to 109,500 last year, an insignificant 0.6 per cent loss. But dwelling units rose from 27,686 to 29,900, or an even eight per cent. Family size dropped from 3.97 to 3.66.

•The City of Plymouth lost nearly five per cent of its population, from 11,758 to 11,200, while housing units rose in almost the same proportion, from 3,762 to 3,930. Thus, family size dropped from 3.12 to 2.96—an overall average of less than one child per household.

•Plymouth Township showed a population rise from 17,497 to 19,400, or 10.9 per cent. Dwellings increased from 4,909 to 6,000, or 22.2 per cent. Family size declined from 3.56 to 3.23.

•Redford Township had the biggest percentage population drop as numbers fell from 71,901 to 67,400, or 6.3 per cent. Yet dwelling units increased from 19,759 to 20,000, about 1.2 per cent. Family size slipped from 3.63 to 3.37.

•Westland continued to grow in population—from 86,749 in the census year to 93,600 last year, or 7.9 per cent. Housing units leaped from 23,046 to 28,000 in the same period, for a 21.5 per cent jump. Average family declined from 3.76 to 3.34 members.

College people have key roles in seminar

College trustees and staff members will play key roles in the day-long Local Issues Seminar to be held Saturday on the Schoolcraft campus.

Trustees Rosina Raymond and Paul Kadish will serve as panel moderators for the seminar which is being sponsored by the Wayne 2nd Democratic Committee. Trustee Nancie Blatt is handling all reservations.

Dr. Larry D. VanderMolen, a Schoolcraft political science instructor, is program coordinator. Ms. Betty Andrews, assistant to the director of community services for senior adult programs, will be a panel member.

Marvin Stempien is the seminar's chairman and Secretary of State Richard Austin will present a luncheon address on recent political reforms introduced by the Michigan Department of State.

Luncheon, at $4.25 per person, will be served by the college's culinary arts department. There are no other charges for those attending the seminar.

Registration will be in the liberal arts building between 9 and 9:30 a.m. Morning panelists will be devoted to women in today's society and to senior citizens' activities.

Afternoon panels will cover solutions for personal economic problems, alternative methods of financing education, and city, township and county services.

Tilles to speak

A panel discussion on "Alternative Methods for Financing Education" will feature State Rep. John Markes (D-Westland) and Roger Tilles, a member of the State Board of Education at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, May 31, at Schoolcraft College, 18600 Haggerty, Livonia.

Other panel participants include State Sen. Jack Faxon (D-Detroit), Keith Geiger, president of the Michigan Education Association, and Gerald Dunne, executive secretary of the Michigan Association for Improved School Legislation.

Paul Kadish, Schoolcraft trustee, will serve as panel moderator at the free discussion open to the public.

The college is at 18600 Haggerty between Six and Seven Mile roads in Livonia.

Exhaust emissions tests offered free

A free exhaust emissions test, designed to promote greater fuel economy and cleaner air, will be offered to motorists traveling on I-96 near Novi Sunday, June 1.

The free tests will be conducted by volunteers from the telephone industry and from the Michigan Wolverine chapter of the Telephone Pioneers of America, an employee community service group.

THE VOLUNTEERS will man a free test site from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the eastbound I-96 reststop west of Novi.

"We'll be performing 'quickie' emissions tests to let motorists know if their cars are wasting valuable fuel and polluting the air," explains Les Fineout, ecology chairman of the Michigan Pioneers.

The test process is relatively simple and takes only about three minutes.

An electronic analyzer is inserted into the exhaust pipe to measure the amount of hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide being emitted.

The test equipment is on loan from Michigan Bell and is regularly used to test telephone company vehicles. If a car is emitting an excessive level of pollutants, the tester will provide a list of adjustments to correct the problem.

"Properly adjusted engines mean not only cleaner exhaust emissions but better performance and gas mileage," says Fineout. "A simple tune-up can boost gas mileage more than eight per cent."

BASED ON a recent study by the vehicle emissions check committee, about four billion gallons of gasoline could be saved each year if the more than 100 million cars in the nation were kept properly tuned.

An explosion of litter

It's time to pronounce the obituary of the environmental movement.

There are a few scientific types still worried about overpopulation and food resources. We still have city and county road crews cleaning things up. But the deep concern among young people seems to have burned itself out.

There are two kinds of evidence.

One is our own observations in the neighborhoods of these suburbs. Every morning there seems to be a fresh trail of beer and pop cans along subdivision streets. Maybe we're getting old, but the litter problem seems to have exploded just this year.

The other evidence is the observation of other people. We heard and received a lot of comments—mostly negative—about the littering by young people in the recent Walks for Mankind.

It seems ironic that what was designed to be a project for young people to help others less fortunate than themselves should have backfired so badly in environmental terms.

A fellow we know would like to assassinate the manufacturers of Brach's candies, that brand being the most frequently discarded wrapper in his neck of the subdivision.

Back in the early '70s, when the ecology movement had burst into flower, the Jaycees sponsored cleanup drives on the Middle Rouge River. One remark made by a youngster at that time struck home. As he unloaded a sack of tin cans he had collected, the young man swore: "I'll never throw away another can or wrapper again."

The Rouge cleanup drives are no more. The Jaycees decided they had made a sufficient dent in the problem; the river was flowing more smoothly with long-standing obstructions having been cleared. So the Jaycees went on to other projects, and no one can blame them.

But with the end of that effort went an end to the sensitivity training about litter the kids had received. It's true: Once you clean up someone else's junk, you are forever after cautious about your own mess. Now that military draft calls are down, the young men will less often hear the sergeant's cry: "Police the area!" That source of sensitivity training will be lost.

Pass more laws? They won't work. There are already laws on the books. Besides, it's impossible to put a policeman on every front yard and on every acre of parkland to hound the kids.

Despite what the lawyers say, we are not a government of laws; we are a government of people. Unless people decide they want clean cities and parks and subdivisions to live in, then we are doomed to piles of litter.

For the general mass of people, then, the time has come to say "rest in peace" to the environmental movement of the early '70s.

With an animal problem, you called Mae Kocher

Another area institution passed from the scene with the death of Mae Kocher last weekend.

For over 25 years she was the Birmingham Humane Society.

When she started her work there was a county animal welfare society, but it split up and she took over the Birmingham-Bloomfield area.

The purpose of her local organization was to discourage cruelty to animals, but with her love for dogs and cats she found herself in the lost and found business.

YEARS AGO when one of our pups would be missing we'd call the various police departments and veterinarians and they'd always say, "Have you checked with Mrs. Kocher?"

After a while we'd by-pass officialdom and call her direct when we had a problem and she was always ready to help.

Her operation was non-governmental. It had no shelter nor pound.

She operated out of her Karmel Korn shop on East Maple in Birmingham and the only funds she received were the few donations grateful animals owners sent in when she helped them locate their missing pet.

CONSIDERING THE time, money and energy she put into her work, her only real compensation

Eccentricities

by HANK HOGAN

was the knowledge that animals were somehow better off.

She was completely devoted to her work. I've seen her out in neighborhoods on rainy nights helping people to find their stray pets.

She encouraged people to call her because if the county pound found the dog first, the animal had to be destroyed if the owner did not show up within 72 hours.

SHE HAD a knack for finding animals because she seemed to know which females were in heat in various neighborhoods, or that old dogs returned to their childhood home when they got lost.

Her passing will be a real loss because in the last few years she was a one-woman operation. There is no way a government-run organization will be able to replace her devotion to the cause of helping animals.

Think of that candidate as a hard civic worker

Tim Richard writes

They won't get certificates of merit from civic clubs. They won't get much courtesy from the taxpayers once it's over. They will be forgotten rather quickly by historians.

And so it falls to this space to pay homage to those who gave of their time to run for local boards of education.

It's unfashionable, of course, to say anything nice about politicians, and school board candidates are certainly politicians, whether or not they admit it.

But if you think about it, politics is like any other form of civic endeavor—a service club, beautification groups, scouting or whatever. Someone has to believe in the cause; someone has to do a lot of work to make it go.

ONLY TWO candidates in a typical school board race will win, if getting elected to a school board can be called "winning."

The "winners" will get about the same pay as the losers—usually nothing. They'll be hit by voters with a lot of personal problems they can do nothing about. They'll have to wrestle with public problems that are rigidly controlled by state laws, city assessment practices and massive social movements that no one seems able to control.

People who show up at school board meetings customarily have an axe to grind and have no qualms about waving that verbal axe at the board members. And that is just the fate of the winners.

THE CANDIDATE in general can expect to give up most of his free evenings from May 14 (filing deadline) to June 9, when it's over.

He can expect to hear his name mispronounced a dozen times as he's introduced.

He may have been involved in school activities for years, but he will be asked to sum up all of it in a three-minute answer to the question: "What will you do for the more effective operation of our school district?"

In a tough year—that is, when there is a controversial issue—the candidate can expect to be asked, and be judged on, his answer to a special interest group's single question.

The special interest groups may be teachers unions, a particular school with growth pains, or a militant anti-tax group—it doesn't matter. When the candidate meets them, he is not free to talk sense; he is only free to tell them what they want to hear or suffer the consequences.

If he appears at several candidates' nights, he must endure the pain of listening to competing candidates make the same speeches over and over, taking consolation only in the fact that they must listen to him, too.

NOT ALL candidates merit general admiration.

Some file their nominating petitions and disappear into the woodwork. They don't do their homework. They appear to audiences only long enough to be introduced, then skedaddle for a funeral or an obscure relative's wedding, thus denying the public a chance to ask questions and find out how mentally drab they are.

And be sure to vote for your candidate on June 9. One of the most disheartening things to a serious candidate is not so much getting beaten but in knowing that so few voters even bother to go to the polls.

Save time, vote 'yes' first

Editor:

I read with interest last week two letters to the editor in favor of passing the upcoming Livonia School District millage, question.

However, the passage that caught my eye said: "Teachers will be eliminated, class size increased, student activities such as sports, drama, art and music will be reduced or eliminated." These are the same words we hear each and every time a millage renewal or increase comes along.

Then if the citizens have the audacity to reject it, we hear the same words louder and more often until another "election" can be held. The truth is: The millage will pass; it's only a question of when: First time? Second time? Third time, maybe?

The school board has all sorts of money for holding special "elections," and they will eventually scare enough voters into their fold.

And so, I submit we all vote "yes" and save everyone the time, money and frustration of seeing the democratic process made into a sham.

W-W millage 'a small price'

Editor:

I encourage all voters in the Wayne-Westland School District to vote "yes" on the school millage issue June 9. I think all the additions and improvements proposed are necessary at this time.

I'm especially in favor of renovating Jefferson School since I have two children in attendance there. It's actually quite a small price to pay for the numerous rewards that will result.

Broadcasts needed

Editor:

A mimeographed form was in our mailbox recently, and it sends us into a panic. (The form supports religious program broadcasting for the benefit of the sick and elderly and praises the astronauts for reading the Bible from their spacecraft.) We are retirees, and Sunday morning on TV is our "church" as it is with many of our elderly friends.

There is nothing on the form to tell us what church distributed this, so I cannot contact them to ask what else they are doing to spread the word to people like ourselves. Therefore, I am doing what little I can, asking for help in the event they have not already contacted you.

Because of arthritis, a lot of elderly people have difficulty writing a letter, but they would somehow get the form filled out and mailed to get their support into the hands of those trying to ban religious broadcasts.

We just can't let this happen! We need the Sunday service, just as mil-

Don't toss out God

Editor:

Who besides me is sick of Madeline Murray O'Hair? Her recent demands for public censure of the astronauts' Bible quoting and a further demand to prohibit further demonstration of religion by public leaders are being touted by press and TV nationwide. "Toss it out," she says.

God has a different view for cleaning up nations. He speaks in II Chron. 7:14, "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Shades of eternal conflict! Way back in Genesis 3:1; the serpent, in casting doubt on God, entices Eve, "Yea, hath God said...?"

Madeline, your priorities are showing. But where are ours?

ERA 'drastic, unnecessary'

Editor:

Re your article on Audrey Perry's talk on the Equal Rights Amendment at Schoolcraft College: Ms. Perry says "it doesn't take ERA to have a draft, nor does the amendment state it wants women drafted."

Does she really think that intelligent women can be fooled by such illogical talk? A special amendment to the ERA (the Wiggins clause), which would have preserved women's exemption from the draft, was deliberately stricken from ERA because of the agitation of militant women's leaders. ERA doesn't say women must be drafted—it just says Congress may not exempt girls if they are forced to draft boys. Congress will have no choice in the matter.

ERA will permanently outlaw any law which benefits women as a class. When women become equally liable for family support or alimony and child support in the case of divorce, the result will not be a bonanza for men but crushing disappointments for young mothers, middle-aged and especially senior women, who will be forced to accept equal financial obligations.

Ms. Perry is also engaging in illogical double-think on the subject of homosexual "marriages." She says that the states will be able to decide whether homosexual couples should be able to "marry" and adopt children in spite of the fact that section 2 of ERA gives enforcement power to the federal Congress and courts, not to the states. Colorado has an ERA in its state constitution, and homosexual couples are coming from miles around to be "married" there. Under equal rights, "persons" marry "persons," without regard to sex.

Without any positive arguments in favor of this drastic, unnecessary amendment, it is not surprising that ERA proponents have been reduced to wishing out loud that the women who are working against the ERA would just stay home and let our husbands dominate us. As long as ERA remains a threat to our important women's rights—not a chance.

A beautiful business

Editor:

This is a letter of praise. As a resident of Livonia, I have been most pleased and surprised to see the development of the mall on the northwest corner of Seven Mile and Merriman roads.

Pleased because such a handsome and thoughtfully designed commercial center will grace our city; surprised because the mall reflects some concern with aesthetics too often missing in business areas. Although it is small and still incomplete, it already reflects some concern with taste.

The owners of the mall and members of the city planning commission deserve congratulations for helping to prove that a little care can create a pleasant environment to shop in and an oasis of attractiveness. Here is proof that our city needn't be victimized by poor planning and the plastic commercial architecture that dominates so many commercial centers.

I hope this newest mall will set the trend for future commercial and public buildings.

Perhaps there will be an opportunity for the Livonia Arts Commission to work with both the planning commission and zoning board to encourage greater attention by builders to aesthetic considerations that will enhance the quality of our life and that of the Livonia school children. I am sure that the Livonia school children will be proud of the beautiful mall.

Tips on how to interpret dreams

We all try to live our lives in an orderly, rational, logical way. Often we hide our deepest fears, prejudices, desires and frustrations from even ourselves.

Emotions which conflict with our logical thoughts are often suppressed and relegated to our subconscious minds and not allowed to surface in our conscious thinking.

But when we sleep, the deeply emotional, primitive subconscious part of our being takes over and manufactures the dreams which express what we cannot or won't face during our waking hours.

LIKE THE primitive people, our primitive minds use symbols to express what we really feel and believe.

Each individual has experienced different things in his life and, therefore, each subconscious mind makes its own set of symbols. That is why each dream must be interpreted in accordance with the happenings in the life of the dreamer.

Record the same things about the dreams in the right column as you did about the previous day in the left column:

1. Environment — Where did this dream take place?
2. Characters — Who was in this dream with you?
3. Props — Here, list all the "things" that appeared in the dream, no matter how unimportant they seem to be.
4. Emotions — Record the emotions and happenings in the dream.

Don't try to interpret or study this as you go along, until you have kept it faithfully for some time. Then go back and read the day before, the dreams, the day after, the dreams, the next day, the dreams, and so on. You will begin to see patterns forming almost at once.

CERTAIN DREAMS follow or pre-empt certain happenings in our daily lives. We will begin to see what certain symbols in our dreams represent in our waking world.

Slowly you will come to know more about yourself and your inner conflicts. Only through better understanding of ourselves can we ever begin to understand the others with whom we live.

Every dream we have, no matter how small or how insignificant it may seem, has a hidden meaning. It isn't always necessary to learn these meanings, for by the very act of dreaming it, we have released much tension.

If we can see and understand what our inner conflicts are, however, we can make a waking effort to reduce or eliminate them from our lives in the future.

(For help in interpreting your dreams, write Gundella at Box 434, Garden City, Michigan 48135. Please include a self-addressed stamped envelope.)

Legislature is 'pressure job'

Forty per cent of state legislators have high blood pressure according to recent findings by University of Michigan health researchers.

The U-M program for community blood pressure recently checked the blood pressures of three-fourths of the state lawmakers and found four out of 10 had elevated blood pressure.

"The fact the legislators took part in a screening program, however, is good news," says Ernest Harburg, PhD, program director. "It puts them an important step ahead. Most persons with hypertension don't know they have a disease and therefore cannot seek treatment."

OF THE 40 per cent with elevated readings, about 25 per cent has true hypertension and the rest have borderline-high readings. All have been referred to their physicians for periodic checks and possibly medication.

Thirty-five of 38 senators and 79 of 110 representatives volunteered to have their pressures checked during the screening program staffed by the U-M School of Nursing at the Capitol to call attention to National Blood Pressure Month in May.

The project also spotlights a new, permanent statewide program centered at the U-M campus to bring blood pressure under control in Michigan.

HARBURG, a research scientist with the U-M School of Public Health, describes high blood pressure as probably the most neglected major health problem in the nation.

About one in 10 Michigan residents — or one million persons — have borderline or higher blood pressure. Statistically, he adds, the State Legislature is somewhat worse healthwise than the state population as a whole.

In the Senate, 46 per cent of those screened had elevated readings (borderline or true hypertensive). In the House, the figure was 35 per cent. Harburg defines hypertension as readings of 160/95 or higher and borderline-but-elevated as 140/90 but less than 160/95.

In the total Legislature, only 30 per cent are smokers, an encouraging statistic, says Harburg. In the Senate, 50 per cent smoke and in the House 25 per cent smoke.

MICHIGAN'S LAWMAKERS also reflect a chronic problem of hypertensive persons. Many aren't getting effective medication or quit taking it under the false assumption their problem has been "cured."

Six of eight in the Legislature, who at one time had been treated for hypertension but had quit taking medication, still had elevated blood pressure at the screening.

"Hypertension treatment, to be effective, must be a life-long commitment," stresses Harburg. "You must keep on taking medication if you want protection from heart and kidney disease and stroke."

Data on those legislators with hypertension has been referred to the registered nurse who heads the Capitol health office for follow-up checks.

The researchers are now correlating further data on the legislators which relates overweight and blood pressure. Funding for the program is through the Michigan Association of Regional Medical Programs.

STATE REP. JOHN MARKES (D-Westland), whose district includes part of Livonia, gets his blood pressure taken.

S'craft hopefuls back blend of career, arts

What kind of education should Schoolcraft College provide? Should the emphasis be on academics or vocational training?

Five of the six candidates for the two SC board of trustees posts up for election June 9 agree there should be a blend of liberal arts and career education.

The sixth candidate, Jerome Harris of 10044 Shrewsbury Court, Livonia, failed to keep his appointment for an Observer & Eccentric interview. Harris also was not present for Livonia Republicans and Livonia Interested Democrats meet-the-candidates sessions.

Although all of the candidates are from Livonia, voters in the Plymouth, Livonia, Garden City, Clarenceville and Northville school districts are eligible to cast ballots.

WHILE ALL agree Schoolcraft should provide two-year academic preparation appropriate for university transfer, most also feel that enough emphasis cannot be put on training students for available careers.

Most also urge a closer complementary alliance between high schools and the college, and view remedial courses at SC as necessary for unmotivated high schoolers.

In fact, although the differences between the candidates on SC's educational focus are slight, they do exist.

RONALD COWDEN of 15577 Westbrook says both career and academic preparation should be offered at SC. While the trend toward more career training is evident, he feels liberal arts courses should be required of students in vocational programs. English and literature courses are necessary, he feels, to enlarge a student's horizons.

Public schools should play a larger part in career education, Cowden believes.

Schoolcraft is ideally suited to offering courses on a flexible basis, he adds. "It can offer career programs immediately, by dropping and adding courses, based on what business and the community needs."

He also says SC should provide remedial courses for its students. "A lot of students, until they have to pay for a course, don't get serious. They don't realize where their inadequacies are. It's a matter of their level of maturity."

HARRY GREENLEAF of 35936 Pinetree says that while the emphasis in occupational programs is to train an individual to do a job, "I don't think we should forsake or overlook liberal arts."

Schoolcraft should serve vocational as well as academic interests where it should "provide a curriculum that stands up to transfer" to a four-year institution.

"Liberal arts is not quantitative but qualitative. There should be programs to expose vocational students to 'big ideas.'"

Greenleaf is emphatic about remedial courses. "A good many students not prepared in language and arithmetic capabilities should not be denied the opportunity to go on. They are good potential students."

RICHARD HAYWARD of 17159 Loveland agrees both academic and occupational needs both must be served. There must be preparation for a two-year transfer to four-year colleges, he stresses.

Those in vocational technology should have enough background in the arts to have a salable skill and also have the background to pursue education on their own.

"There's a difference between schooling and education. Education is a lifetime process."

Vocational education should be fully integrated with constituent districts' high schools, Hayward says. By a student's junior year, he and his counselor should have worked out a program of high school courses that, with two more years at SC, will insure the student of a job. The college should also keep tabs on the job market and, if the market is saturated, drop a course and start something else, he says.

"It would be a disservice if Schoolcraft didn't maintain remedial programs. This is a community college. Kids can make mistakes and be misguided," Hayward says.

A third part of Schoolcraft's educational program, Hayward stresses, is community service, providing academic credential courses to upgrade businessmen's skills. He says the program should be similar to Wayne State University's College of Lifelong Learning.

MARK McQUESTEN of 20940 Lancaster says, "The community demands a career curriculum and that's where the conflict occurs. Schoolcraft has to meet those needs but I don't want Schoolcraft called Voc Tech. There is too much lost in a society where we don't have arts and politics. The absence of knowledge will be our downfall."

McQuesten feels Schoolcraft excels in many areas such as culinary arts, nursing, and occupational therapy and should maintain its leadership position.

Should Schoolcraft College focus on academic or occupational training?

High schools and Schoolcraft should get together and provide a smooth transition for students. For some students, although not the majority, Schoolcraft provides grades 13 and 14 and too many go to Schoolcraft for refresher courses, he says. "Maybe the quality of high school education is not high enough."

"The role of Schoolcraft is to stimulate the community to think about itself."

ROBERT CADOTTE of 30125 Grandon gives a balanced view of Schoolcraft's educational role.

"The value of a liberal education, if nothing else, is to permit an individual to live a fuller life. On the other hand, an important problem of living is that one must put bread on the table. Neither facet should be overlooked."

Some liberal arts courses should be required of vocational students, he feels, such as English, literature, math, religion and political science.

Schoolcraft should provide remedial courses to students "who for one reason or another, probably related to maturation, do not adequately challenge themselves in high school and do not take courses for college entry, but who at age 19 or 20 or later, realize they should complete their education more fully."

At the same time, it is "appropriate for a community college to be a bridge" to a four-year college, Cadotte says.

Top teams are true to form in Southfield baseball district

By TOM SCHRAM
Sports Editor

The 1975 high school baseball tournament has run "true to form" thus far for Observer & Eccentric teams and it will be Plymouth versus Livonia Saturday in Southfield district action which will pit three of the top four O&E teams in a battle to move on to regional action.

Saturday's pre-district action in the Southfield district saw Plymouth Canton, rated first in the area and in the state, down Southfield 4-0; Plymouth Salem, rated third in the area, edge Northville 4-1; Livonia Stevenson, rated fourth in the area, down Livonia Bentley 4-2, and Livonia Franklin whip North Farmington 12-3.

Franklin is now 12-14 and is a definite underdog in the district which should be among the most competitive in the state. Any further advancement by the Patriots would have to be termed definite upset material and would qualify the squad as a true "Cinderella team."

Canton, Salem and Stevenson, however, have been consistent winners this year and if any of the three survives the afternoon doubleheader, it will have to be counted as a factor in the state tournament race.

SALEM — NORTHVILLE

Salem went to its ace hurler, Tom Willette, against the Mustangs and the Rock "money man" came through with a three-hitter, striking out 15 and walking four.

Salem scored individual runs in the first, second, fifth and sixth innings and stranded seven for the day.

Tim Dillon went two-for-three and drove in a pair and Vern Nagel also had two hits and two RBI's.

Batteries: Northville — BOLLAND and White. Salem — WILLETTE and Nagel.

NORTHVILLE 000 100 0 — 1-3-1
SALEM 110 011 x — 4-5-1

CANTON — SOUTHFIELD

Bill Parson struck out 10, walked only one and shut out Southfield on two hits to advance Canton.

Brian Stemberger scored on Tom Close's double in the first to give the Chiefs all the runs they would need and Stemberger doubled in the third to drive in two more.

The other Canton run scored on an error in the fifth.

Batteries: Canton — PARSON and Close. Southfield — Wieland and Antonucci.

CANTON 102 010 0 — 4-8-3
SOUTHFIELD 000 000 0 — 0-2-2

BENTLEY — STEVENSON

Livonia Bentley battled from behind twice to tie the game but Livonia Stevenson rallied for two runs in the decisive sixth inning to take a 4-2 state baseball victory Saturday and advance to next Saturday's regional semifinals.

Stevenson scored first in the bottom of the opening inning when winning pitcher John Kolis, Rob Rose and Tim Murphy all singled.

Bentley tied things for the first time in the third when Dan Dinsmore, who had walked and moved to third on Glen Stevens' single, scored on a wild pitch.

Stevenson pulled ahead in the fourth on Jim Snyder's triple to right-center-field and a wild pitch.

But Murphy doubled in the bottom of the sixth and Dave Pelly and Snyder followed with long triples to wrap things up for the Spartans.

Kolis struck out four and walked two en route to his eighth victory in 10 decisions for the Spartans who will now play top ranked Plymouth Canton Saturday at 12:30 p.m.

Batteries: Bentley — NALEPKA, Murphy and Hodges. Stevenson — KOLIS and Pacien.

BENTLEY 001 001 0 — 2-6-1
STEVENSON 100 102 x — 4-8-1

N. FARMINGTON — FRANKLIN

Livonia Franklin scored seven times in the first inning and went on to take a 12-3 baseball victory over North Farmington and advance in the state baseball tournament.

Tim Hollandsworth, Mark Saia, Joe Pollard and Mark Waterstradt all hit RBI singles in the first inning and Steve Tresik and Sam Williams each unloaded doubles, with Williams driving in two.

Waterstradt, Hollandsworth, Tresik and Darrell Gunter each came up with two hits for the Patriots who now stand at 12-14 on the year.

"We have five starters batting over .300 and only one is a senior," said Franklin coach Ron Hellier who expects to be a factor in the Northwest Suburban race next year.

Batteries: N. Farmington — WASHINGTON and Biaridi. Franklin — WATERSTRADT and Pollard.

N. FARMINGTON 003 000 0 — 3-9-4
FRANKLIN 702 300 x — 12-12-3

ST. AGATHA — ST. LADISLAUS

Redford St. Agatha tallied four times in the first inning and went on to take a 7-2 state baseball tournament pre-district victory over Hamtramck St. Ladislaus Saturday in a game played at Redford Union.

The Aggies will advance to a Saturday morning encounter against Hamtramck St. Florian at Detroit's Manns Field.

Ron Jess went the distance for the Aggies, recording seven strikeouts and four walks.

Jess had the big hit of the game in the first inning rally when he drove in two with a triple to center. Dave Mully had an RBI double that inning and drove in another in the fifth with a sacrifice fly.

Jim Merritt drove in two with a fourth inning single.

Batteries: St. Ladislaus — KOTULSKI, Kreshner and Knoback. St. Agatha — JESS and Beyrand.

ST. LADISLAUS 100 001 0 — 2-5-2
ST. AGATHA 400 210 x — 7-8-2

BISHOP BORGESS — COOLEY

Bishop Borgess jumped to a 3-0 lead and held on to defeat Detroit Cooley 3-2 Saturday and advance in Class A baseball tournament action.

Borgess will now play Detroit Catholic Central Saturday morning at Butzel Field in Detroit.

The Spartans tallied once in the first on Gary Mulka's single and Ken Knasiak's triple.

Dale Paige's bases loaded line drive to rightfield drove in two more in the third. Knasiak, who was on first on the play, hesitated on the drive and was forced at second, robbing Paige of a hit, but the play gave Borgess all the runs it would need to advance.

Cooley tallied two unearned runs in the fifth.

Mark Gergel took the win for the Spartans to up his record to 7-3.

Southfield's Bruce Sher (10) has a run in with Canton's Brian Stemberger in Saturday's pre-district game

East, RU advance, West out in Dearborn district

By JIM BRADLEY

Garden City East and Redford Union are still alive in the Dearborn district of the state baseball tournament after winning Saturday while Garden City West was ousted, 3-1, by the host team.

East got by Dearborn Heights Annapolis and its ace pitcher, Gene Mastroeni, 4-2. The Panthers of Redford Union rode the stingy three-hit pitching of Dan Bushart to stifle Dearborn Edsel Ford, 5-1.

So, there's a definite chance it'll be the Panthers vs. the Panthers in the championship game. The Redford Union Panthers meet Cody Saturday at Dearborn High immediately after the Garden City East Panthers battle host Dearborn High at 10 a.m. The winners then meet in the district finals at 3 p.m. with the winner advancing to the Southfield Regional.

Annapolis, expected to go pretty far because of its pitching strength, sent ace Mastroeni against East Saturday but Tod Kleinbrook out-duelled his opponent for the win. Mastroeni, who fanned 19 River Rouge batters on Monday, including the first eight, brought a 9-1 record into the game. Annapolis jumped into the lead in the first inning when Ray Fortier singled and took second on a misplay of a pick-off attempt. He romped home on Jeff Switzer's single.

East tied it in the second. Joe Becszko, Bob Hudson and Greg Emery singled to knot the count. A two-strike bunt on a suicide squeeze by Britt Ponte in the third sent the Panthers in front, 2-1. Kleinbrook led off with a single and Brad Lackey ran for him. Two mishandled bunts loaded the bases with one out. After Ponte had swung and missed two times, Coach Billy Joe Young flashed the bunt sign and the senior dropped down a perfect tap to score the racing Lackey.

"Britt is probably the best bunter on our team and when he couldn't bring in the lead run by swinging, I felt he could still bunt with two strikes on him. He did a beautiful job," Young praised.

Annapolis tied it 2-2 in the fifth when catcher Pias Fernandez singled, took second on a sacrifice and rode home on Alex Robertson's single.

East, now 18-4 on the season, settled the issue in the two-run fifth when Kleinbrook walked to open the inning and Krol bunted him along. Jeff Edgar, who's hit close to .400 all year, came through in the clutch with a rip up the middle to score Kleinbrook and Edgar took second on the throw home. When Joe Becszko's grounder went through the Cougar second baseman, Edgar came on to score.

Bob Hudson pitched the final two innings for Garden City East and slammed the door on any Cougar aspirations. East catcher, Britt Ponte, is a firm believer in "thou shalt not steal" as the veteran backstop cut down five of six Cougars trying to pilfer second base.

Batteries: Annapolis — Mastroeni, Taylor (5), and Fernandez; East — KLEINBROOK, Hudson (6) and Ponte. ANNAPOLIS 100 010 0 — 2-3-2
G.C. EAST 011 000 0 — 4-4-2

Redford Union — Edsel Ford

Coach Bob Atkins' surprising Panthers of Redford Union continued to play well Saturday as they advanced to the semifinals of the Dearborn district of the state tournament with their 5-1 win over Dearborn Edsel Ford.

Dan Bushart fired a tough three-hitter, two hits coming in Edsel's run-scoring fourth, in running his season record to 5-0.

Meanwhile, his mates were pounding out 13 hits and making fielding gems to claim the win.

"Nobody expected us to do much this year," Atkins explained after the win, "but the boys are playing their hearts out and we now have a 14-8 record, much better than most people thought. And we're just a game behind Plymouth Salem in the Suburban Eight League race."

Ted Ackerman ignited the Panthers' offensive arsenal with four hits and three RBI's. George Willard, Dough Lowney and Bushart each rapped out two safeties.

Ackerman scored the game's first run when he singled and scored on Willard's two-bagger in the third.

Edsel's last gasp came in the bottom of the fourth when the Thunderbirds knotted the score on Tim Wancha's single, Allen Johnson's bunt and Jack Rankin's RBI single.

Consecutive doubles by Gary Stafford and Ackerman gave Union the go-ahead run in the top of the fifth, 2-1. Three Union runs in the sixth sealed Edsel's fate.

Bushart and Lowney singled to open the frame and Steve Schultz beat out a well placed bunt to load the sacks with none out. After Edsel's pitcher, Mark Stachurski, fanned the next batter, Ackerman rapped out his fourth hit to send home Bushart and Lowney with insurance runs and a 4-1 lead. Gregg Wood's shot at the third baseman with the bases loaded handcuffed the hot corner guardian long enough for Schultze to tally the final Panther run.

Two outstanding fielding gems highlighted Redford Union's defense. First-sacker George Willard made a diving one-handed catch in the Edsel fourth with none out and runners on first and second. He whirled immediately and his throw to Lowney doubled off the runner on second. The brilliant catch of the bunt saved a possible sible big Edsel inning as an error on a ground ball followed and the hosts scored their only run.

Then in the seventh, left fielder Gregg Wood sprinted full speed toward the left field line and speared a ball that was labeled extra bases.

Batteries: Redford Union — BUSHART and Campbell; Edsel Ford — STACHURSKI, Loss (7) and Johnson.

REDFORD UNION 001 013 0 — 5-12-3
EDEL FORD 000 100 0 — 1-3-1

Garden City West—Dearborn

Some attacks are ruthless and some are toothless.

Unfortunately for the Tigers of Garden City West, theirs was toothless.

Of course, Jim Vanderhull had a lot to do with extracting the fangs, stopping the Tigers, 3-1 on only two hits. Dearborn's big right hander was in control all the way and virtually untouchable as he fanned at least one batter every inning in setting down 10 on strikes.

Mark Sutherland toiled for the Tigers and allowed only four hits, but three came in the disastrous second inning when Dearborn combined three hits and a walk for two runs. The Pioneers added an unearned run in the third when a hit-batsman and two errors gave Dearborn its final run.

West's only run was a gift in the top of the sixth. Sutherland and Zoccoli both hit easy grounders which were bobbled by infielders. Dave Noonan, who looped a double in the first for one of his team's two hits, rammed a line drive into right field but it was grabbed above the head by the right fielder and Sutherland tallied after the catch.

Sutherland wound up with nine strikeouts, four in a row at one stage of the game, and held Dearborn hitless the last four innings.

Dearborn's catcher, burly Dale Mason, was "stood up" on his date with Lady Luck. Mason slammed two drives into deep left field over Matt Shinsky's head, but Shinsky made sensational stumbling catches on both drives to frustrate Mason, who thought he might have a pair of home runs.

Batteries: West — SUTHERLAND and Zoccoli; Dearborn — VANDERHULL and Mason. G.C. WEST

Spartans grab 9-7 win

Livonia Stevenson grabbed an early 9-3 lead and managed to hold on while Spartan coach George VanWagoner substituted freely to take a non-league 9-7 baseball victory over Northville Monday.

Ray Waring went the first four innings to record the victory for the Spartans.

Stevenson started off with four runs in the top of the first as Rob Rose was hit by a pitch, Tom Pacien and Tim Murphy both doubled and Jim Snyder singled.

Northville came back with two runs of its own in the bottom of the inning, scoring on a single and two doubles.

Snyder's triple down the right field line in the third scored Dave Pelly who had walked and Snyder came home on a passed ball as Stevenson raised its margin to 6-3.

The Spartans tallied three more in the fifth. Pelly singled and came home on Snyder's RBI double. Jeff Bond and Jim Treherne both walked to load the bases.

Tom Berger smashed home runs in the fourth and sixth to lead the Northville attack.

Stevenson is now 11-6 on the year.

Batteries: Stevenson — WARING, Palmisano and Pacien. Northville — BERGER and White.

MILFORD — STEVENSON

Livonia Stevenson scored four runs in the first inning and went on to take an 8-3 Inter-Lakes League win over Milford last week.

Jim Snyder's bases-loaded double and Jim Treharne's home run were the big blows in the first inning rally. Snyder picked up two more RBI's with a fifth inning double.

John Kolis got the win to up his record to 8-2.

Batteries: Stevenson — KOLIS and Proctor. Milford — HUBBARD and Stelmok. MILFORD 010 010 0 - 3-1-3 STEVENSON 000 020 0 - 8-3-5 REDFORD UNION — DEARBORN

Redford Union suffered what coach Bob Atkins called its "toughest loss of the year" last Friday when it dropped an extra inning 6-5 Suburban Eight contest to Dearborn.

A victory would have given the Panthers a tie for the league lead with Sub 8 champs Plymouth Salem at that point.

Howard Copeland, Gary Stafford, Ted Ackerman and Rich Campbell all strung out hits with two outs in the fourth for four runs, giving RU a four run lead at that point, but Dearborn rallied for four runs of its own in the seventh and went on to win in nine innings.

Batteries: Redford Union — COPELAND, Ackerman and Campbell. Dearborn — ZAPARANUK, Zimmerman and Mason. REDFORD UNION 100 000 000 - 5-9-2 DEARBORN 010 000 004 - 6-5-3 CANTON — JOHN GLENN

Sophomore pitcher John Young took his third win in as many decisions Tuesday as Plymouth Canton demolished Westland John Glenn 12-4.

Steve Morman, Keith Randazzo and Bob Ayotte all had perfect days at the plate as everyone played for Coach Fred Crissey's top state ranked Class A squad.

Glenn actually led 1-0 after two innings, but the Chiefs scored three times in the third and nine times in the last two innings to win going away.

Batteries: Canton — YOUNG and Close. Glenn — ROBERTS, Daniels, Butler and Hicks. CANTON 003 005 4 - 12-1-1 GLENN 010 000 3 - 4-4-4

THURSTON — CATHOLIC CENTRAL

Redford Thurston ripped Detroit Catholic Central 5-3 Friday to raise the Eagles' record to 14-3 on the season.

Dave Ribick took the win for Thurston with relief help in the fifth from Dave Hofelich.

Ribick is now 4-1 on the season. Thurston scored three in the first on a hit batsman, a walk and singles by Dennis Kuschel, Mitch Drozdowski, Brian D'Ascenzo and Dan Hunter.

Hunter and Kuschel each also singled in the Eagles' two-run third.

Batteries: CC — KLEIN and Scammon. Thurston — RIBICK, Hofelich and Beebe. 000 021 0 - 3-5-1 THURSTON 302 000 0 - 5-3-3 DEARBORN — BENTLEY

Livonia Bentley wound up its baseball season Tuesday with a 4-2 victory over Dearborn in Suburban Eight League action.

Doug Murphy took the win in relief of Kevin Keeney to even his record at 3-3.

Dan Dinsmore scored in the first for the Bulldogs on a walk and two Dearborn errors. Bentley tallied again in the second on Bill Moser's sacrifice fly which brought in Al Bolz.

The Bulldogs concluded the scoring in the sixth on Tom Schultz's RBI single and a double steal.

Bentley finished the year with an 8-10 record.

Batteries: Dearborn — ZAPARANUR and Mason. Bentley — Keeney, MURPHY and Hodges. DEARBORN 002 000 0 - 2-5-2

BENTLEY 110 002 x - 4-4-1

EDSEL FORD — SALEM

Dearborn Edsel Ford handed Plymouth Salem its fourth Suburban Eight loss Friday, edging the Rocks 2-1.

Tim Dillon, the Rocks' center-fielder, was converted to shortstop for the game so Brian Wolcott could handle the mound chores and committed a crucial throwing error which gave Edsel Ford its go-ahead run in the fifth inning.

Salem had tied the game in the fourth on John DenHouter's triple to left-centerfield and Charlie Johnson's RBI single.

Batteries: Edsel Ford — SCHMIDT and Johnson. Salem — WOLCOTT, Thomas and Nagel. EDSEL FORD 100 010 0 - 2-6-0 SALEM 000 100 0 - 1-7-1

COMPLETE PLANNING & DESIGN SERVICE

New DRC area makes racing a family affair

June will bust out all over for Michigan thoroughbred racing fans this weekend as Detroit Race Course salutes its most exciting month by welcoming children under 12 and their families to its new picnic grounds.

The grassy area just north of the DRC grandstand will be equipped with all the fundamentals for an outdoor outing and will be called the "Family Paddock." The races, which also be in full view. It will be open only on Saturdays and Sundays until school is out.

June is also the month of the $100,000 Michigan Mile and One Eighth, plus the $50,000 Frontier Handicap, the $50,000 Dowling Memorial and the $35,000 Michigan Oaks. A special "Quarter Horse Day" is carded for Sunday, June 15, with the 350 yard finals of the Great Lake Quarter Horse Futurity a feature of the afternoon.

DRC racing secretary Tom Dorsey got the pot boiling this week for Michigan Mile Day, Saturday, June 21. Dorsey reports that one of the first nominations for the classic came from the Indiana owners of Navajo, a big 5-year-old gray who raced in the 1973 Kentucky Derby against Secretariat and boasts 1975 earnings of $115,000 with seven victories in eight starts.

CRIMSON KING FARM'S Crimson Falcon, strong fourth place finisher in the 1974 "Mile" and recent winner of DRC's $15,000 Armed Forces Day Handicap is also an early nominee. The fleet son of 1963 Michigan Mile winner Crimson Satan has campaigned this spring at Oaklawn Park and Kenneland.

Entries on the first of DRC's big June stake races will close Monday. The Frontier Handicap, for Michigan-bred 3-year-olds and upwards, will be raced the following Saturday, June 7, at a distance of a mile and one sixteenth. Ace Commander's thrilling upset of the favored Kilfoil in the 1974 Frontier was typical of the stiff competition which comes annually in this state homebred event.

The Michigan Oaks, strictly for 3-year-olds, has been carded for Sunday, June 22, thus presenting a double-barreled attraction for "Michigan Mile Weekend." The Oaks will go at a distance of one mile.

The Dowling, another rich 3-year-old race for Michigan-breds, is scheduled for Saturday, June 28, at a mile and one sixteenth. This, too, was the scene of a giant upset in 1974. A 33-1 shot, Billy Onward, beat both favorites, Right Course and Frank's Fuzzy, for owner Robert R. Flynn of Northville.

The novel Quarter Horse Day at DRC will include a 10 race thoroughbred card, of course, but will also feature a quarter mile match race between a Michigan owned quarter horse and a Michigan owned thoroughbred, plus a colorful "Dinner Bell Derby." In the Dinner Bell young foals of 1975 will be released and the race is to their individual mothers stationed up the track.

DRC's new Family Paddock will help handle the expected heavy attendance of children on Quarter Horse Day. Admission prices to that area will be $1 for children under 12, $2 for all other family members, through the Family Paddock gate at the north end of the grandstand.

"Will the grown-ups still be able to wager on the horse races if they wish? Of course! The picnic area will have supervised, easy-access "channels" to the nearby pari-mutuel windows.

The Green Thumb

By GEORGE ABRAHAM

Rhubarb patch lasts a lifetime

Rhubarb is one of the best herbs you can grow. Once you get a patch started, it will last a lifetime. The average family will get enough rhubarb from four to six plants spaced three feet apart.

Good varieties include McDonald, Canada Red, Victoria and Valentine. About the only requirement is that the soil be well-drained. Crown rot may develop if water stands around the roots.

Give your rhubarb patch a feeding in late June or early July, for good-sized stalks.

You've probably wondered what those rough marks are on the stalks. This is the work of the rhubarb curculio, a pest that bores into the stalks and lays eggs. Control consists of dusting the stems with rotenone or Sevin in May before the pest comes along. If the stalks are spindly or dwarfed, they may need feeding.

DRENCH the plant with a liquid plant food such as 23-19-17, or some 5-10-5, around the base (dry fertilizer should never be applied to the leaves—only liquid plant foods).

Cut off those seed pods just as quickly as you see them. Seed pods weaken plants. Roots or divisions are the best ways to start a patch, never from seed.

If pink stems turn green, blame it on too much shade. Plants like full sun for pink color. Green stems seldom turn pink, so if you want nice pink rhubarb, plant varieties with pink stalks.

When plants turn yellow and rot, it's called "foot rot" and not much can be done except dig up the plants and destroy.

PRETTY SOON you'll be wondering what causes the blossoms to drop off your squash vines. Don't worry about this. Squash and pumpkins produce five to 10 male blossoms to one female, and only a small per cent of the female blossoms naturally develop into normal fruits.

The males and excess or unused female blossoms dry up and fall off, their romance gone forever.

Ever try making squash fritters? They're great eating. First pick the false blossoms (some vines have up to 20 males to one female). These "false" or male blossoms can be distinguished from the female blossoms, since the "she" blossoms have a small nub at the base, and the male flowers don't.

Pick plenty of male blossoms since nature was generous enough to produce an ample supply for pollination. Soak the blossoms in salt water to remove any insects; drain and dip in batter made from one egg, two tablespoons flour, salt, pepper and finely chopped parsley. Fry in cooking oil until brown. Let dry on absorbent paper and serve with meat. Makes a fine breakfast dish served with butter and syrup.

GREEN THUMB CLINIC: "Is it true that if you drill a hole in a tree and insert aspirin tablets, it will help prevent disease?"

Answer: No, it won't help a bit.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CITY OF PLYMOUTH,
MICHIGAN

At a meeting of the Zoning Board of Appeals to be held in the Commission Chamber of the City Hall on Thursday, June 5, 1975, at 7:30 P.M., a public hearing will be held to consider the following:

APPEAL NO. 75-10 — TIMOTHY YOE, 448 Pacific Street, Plymouth, requesting permission to construct an addition at rear of house connecting house and garage at above address, in an R-1 (Single-Family Residential District), which is in conflict with Article XV, Section 5.194 (1) and Article XIV, Section 5.185 of Chapter 52, Zoning, of the Plymouth City Code. Section 5.194(1) provides that where the accessory building is structurally attached to a main building, it shall be subject to, and must conform to, all yard regulations applicable to main buildings. Section 5.185 provides that the minimum sideyard in an R-1 District shall be six (6') feet. The present garage is three (3') feet.

All interested parties will be given an ample opportunity to participate in the hearing and, at the close of said hearing, all comments and suggestions of those citizens participating will be considered by the Zoning Board of Appeals, prior to rendering its decision.

The Stroller The lure of a parade

—By W. W. EDGAR—

What is there so magnetic about a parade that folks, young and old, will sit by the hour along a thoroughfare waiting for the marchers, keeping step to the band music, to pass?

What is there about a parade that even the mere mention of the word brings a gleam to the eye of many folks and they're ready to fall in line for a trek to the reviewing stand?

We got to talking about this on the reviewing stand of the Memorial Day parade in Livonia and while no one claimed to know the answer all agreed parades had fascinated them since childhood.

If you look about you'll note that few persons miss an opportunity to participate in or watch, a line of march regardless of the auspices of the procession.

It used to be that the Mummers Parade to usher in the New Year in Philadelphia was the major parade of the year. No more. No major event gets under way these days without the time honored mixture of marchers and musicians coming down the main street.

For instance, there's the Rose Bowl parade in Pasadena on New Year's Day, that not only attracts thousands of persons who sit up most of the night to protect a choice seat, but draws millions more on TV. Especially because it can be picked out of the air in living color. It is a spectacle few persons want to miss. To many, the football game that follows it, seems secondary.

IT IS THE SAME with the Orange Bowl game in Miami, the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, and the Cotton Bowl in Dallas during the New Year holiday season.

The suburban communities and the small towns throughout the country look forward to the annual Memorial Day or July Fourth parades. The processions in Plymouth have become traditions and Livonia is fast building up major interest now that the Veterans Memorial stone is at the center of the city. This year's event surpassed any of its predecessors.

When speaking of parades The Stroller can't help recalling his baptism to these extravaganzas. As a boy he lay awake most of the night just thinking about the circus that was coming to our town. He wanted to be on time to watch the unloading of the cars and the erection of the tents. At the time he knew that part of the pay for helping would be free admission to the circus. But it came as a joyful surprise that he also was to be allowed to join in the parade. And what a thrill it was to ride atop one of the circus wagons and be part of "The Greatest Show on Earth."

Years later, when a new young men's lodge—The Improved Order of Red Men—was organized—he was quick to join for the simple reason that the "Tribe" staged a parade each year on Halloween.

To make it more attractive, the leader of the lodge, officially known as the "Sachem," was delegated to ride the white horse at the head of the procession. This was the main goal of The Stroller and the memory of the night he rode up the main street in the old hometown on the white horse is one that will live with him forever.

Then there were the torch light parades on election nights. These were hastily gotten together affairs, but never lacked enthusiasm—especially for the winning party.

IT WASN'T surprising when the Wayne County Bicentennial Committee announced recently that one of the features of the year long celebration would be the longest parade in history. Just how long it will be wasn't mentioned. But it will have to go some to beat the famed 1931 American Legion convention parade down Woodward Avenue that lasted more than 12 hours.

It was so big it attracted writers and photographers from the major newspapers and magazines in the country.

Bike trails planned under power lines

CANTON—Miles of potential bike, jogging, and motorcycle trails lie hidden beneath the corridor of steel Detroit Edison towers that span the township's middle.

Township officials are hoping to gain miles of additional recreational land from the corridor that runs north of Cherry Hill between Haggerty and Sheldon and turns south to Michigan Avenue.

Negotiations to lease the land are now under way with Detroit Edison, according to Supervisor Robert Greenstein, and a lease is expected "any day."

Under provisions of the lease, expected to cost the township $1 a year, the township will have to maintain liability insurance and mow the grass beneath the towers.

"It would open up miles of recreational land in the township," said Greenstein. "We'd probably use the land for a combination of uses, and it'll be a community project to make the trails. We hope to get it started as soon as possible."

Supervisors form group

Township supervisors in Wayne County are putting their heads together to form the Wayne County Supervisors Association.

Plymouth Township Supervisor J.D. McLaren says the officials have been meeting on an informal basis for years and now are formulating official by-laws and rules.

The Canton and Plymouth Township boards of trustees recently approved the annual dues payment of $100 to the new organization.

Canton Township Supervisor Robert Greenstein says informal meetings with other supervisors have proved beneficial to him.

"I've found it a great help. When I have a problem here, I take it to the association to see how other people have handled it. If the problem never came up before, we put our heads together on it."

Some wanted to keep water system

AT A TEST WELL in 1954, city manager Al Glassford takes a sip of the "glacial stream" water. The added well increased the city's water capacity to seven million gallons per day. (Photo courtesy City of Plymouth)

(Part II)
Many improvements and additions to the city's water system were made during the 78 years in which Plymouth provided its own water. The first had to be made only a year after the mains were installed, when it was found that the line was unsatisfactory.
"Plymouth has had the same expensive experience as Northville, which competent advice would have prevented," declared a report written in 1906, when the village had a population of 1,663. "The sewer pipe is now being replaced with iron casing, which will swell the expense to near $50,000. The annual income is $2,200 to $2,300, and the expense of operating about $150, aside from the fire department."
"There are 10 miles of mains, 60 hydrants, and 300 service taps. The average pressure is 42 to 45 pounds. It is estimated that 75 per cent of the population use this water."

A BOOSTER pumping station, containing two centrifugal pumping units, was added in 1916 at a cost of $1,825. In the same year, a steel tank, holding 154,000 gallons of water, was erected in back of the Presbyterian Church at a cost of $7,880. A second elevated steel water tank was erected in 1947 off South Main Street, near Ann Arbor Road. The water level in this 250,000 gallon tank was coordinated with that of the first tank by means of mechanical controls.
In February, 1921, a concrete reservoir, with a capacity of almost 2 million gallons was built underground east of Sheldon and south of Six Mile Road, adjacent to what is now the Brooklane Par-3 golf course.
A bond issue of $75,000 was passed to pay for the improvement. The reservoir was built on a 2.81 acre site which the village had acquired in 1895 from Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Johnson.

IN THE SAME YEAR, an open well with a motor-driven centrifugal pumping unit was built.
By 1925, the flow from the well at the Northrup Spring was insufficient to meet the community's needs, so leads were placed into a wider area possible. Two other wells were also driven at the same property. A $40,000 bond issue was needed for the improvements made at this time.
After 1929, by resolution of the village commission, the cost of service of mains had to be paid for by owners of abutting property.

IN THE 1930's, wells were drilled in the Mill Street area, but the water was found to be unpalatable.
Chlorination came to Plymouth in the 1940's, when a unit for that purpose was installed at the booster station.
By 1954, the city's maximum production was about three million gallons per day. The city was then pumping water east as far as Newburgh Road, north to Cass Benton Park, west to Sheldon Road (with a few customers on Beck and Phoenix Roads), and south as far as Joy Road and down Canton Center Road about 1000 feet to a new school.

In the summer of 1954, when Russell M. Daane was mayor, consumption on several occasions reached the 3 million gallon capacity. Al Glassford, then City Manager, started looking for new sources of water and the city acquired a 10-acre tract in Northville Township, west of Beck Road and abutting Six Mile Road.

A NEW WELL was dug and was in daily use by 1956. Engineers said the well had a theoretical output of over four million gallons per day, bringing the total capacity of the system up to 7 million gallons per day.
Borchardt's 1964 report on Plymouth's water system indicated that it had grown in a random fashion. "Usually as emergencies arose a solution to the problem was found. There have been changes to the source, about six in number, over a period of 33 years or about one every five or six years on the average."
Professor Borchardt went on to say that the actual extent of the available ground water at the Six Mile or the Beck Road sites had never been adequately ascertained.
Borchardt's report appeared in February. One month later, on March 18, 1964, the "Plymouth Observer" reported that a well test at the Six Mile well field had been conducted the previous week by the city's consulting engineers, Johnson and Anderson, Inc.

THESE ENGINEERS informed the City Commission that the glacial drainage channel from which Plymouth got its water "could supply water to the city of Plymouth beyond the year 2000 without depleting the supply."
In spite of this favorable report, however, the increase in population, the water demands of industry, and the hardness of the local water eventually led to the decision to abandon Plymouth's own system in favor of water purchased from Detroit.

Oakway celebrates second anniversary June 4

The Oakway Symphony Orchestra will celebrate its second anniversary at the annual symphony society meeting, Wednesday, June 4 at 7:30 p.m. in University Hills Christian Center, Farmington Road near I-696.

New officers will be elected to the symphony's board of directors. Refreshments will be served, and a musical program is planned. Only symphony society members are eligible to vote but all interested persons are invited to attend the anniversary gala. The 85-member orchestra, under the direction of Francesco Di Blasi, has expanded its season schedule from four subscription concerts in 1973 to six for the 1975-76 season plus 12 non-subscription offerings. The orchestra serves Livonia, Southfield, Farmington and Birmingham. Members range in age from 16-year-old Alyze Dreiling, a 10th grader, who plays second-chair violin, to Jacob Becker, 78, Oakway's principal cellist. Di Blasi, who lives in Livonia, is a former trumpeter with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, conductor of the Michigan Grand Opera and Metropolitan Beach concerts, and assistant conductor of the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra. He selected the orchestra members from more than 300 musicians who auditioned in 1973.

Concert band plays music to picnic by

The Garden City Adult Concert Band will present its annual "Music in the Park" Sunday, June 1 at 3 p.m. in the Garden City Park, Cherry Hill and Merriman roads.

The concert is free and presented in cooperation with the Garden City Parks and Recreation Department. The concert will feature trumpeter Bill Abbott, who will play the Arban arrangement of "Carnival of Venice" with band accompaniment. The tune includes five variations of the basic theme stressing virtually all trumpet techniques.

Sunday's concert marks the park's third program and concludes the band's fifth season. The band is comprised of 10 metro west communities, under the direction of Dale Werner, music director in the Garden City School District. The program will get under way with the rousing "March of the Steelmen" which features the trombone and trumpet sections. Other numbers include highlights from "Show Boat," "The Sound of Music," "Sweet Charity," "Sabre Dance," and "Rolling Thunder."

Suburban Chorale offers show

The Suburban Chorale, a group of 40 women from the metropolitan area, will present its annual spring show "Time in a Bottle" June 6 and 7.

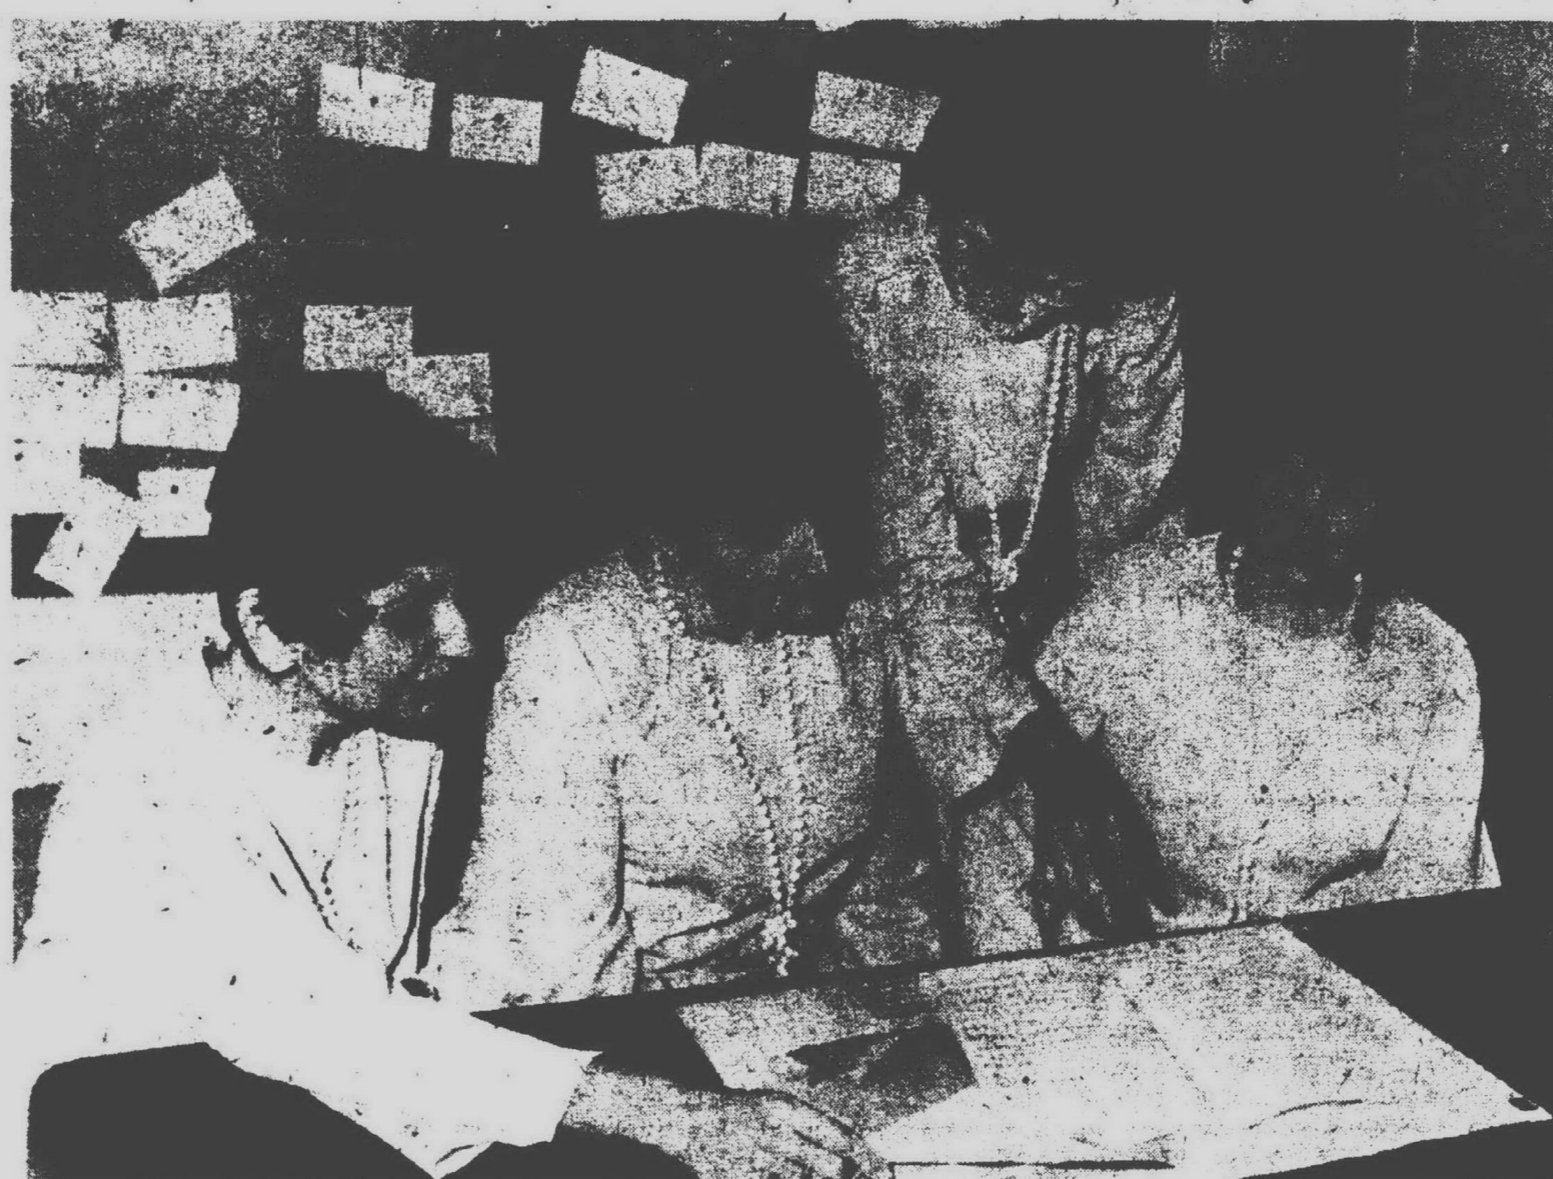

The 8 p.m. show will be in Plymouth Salem High School Auditorium, Joy west of Canton Center road.

Selections for the 2½-hour musical will include "Morning is Broken," "It's a Good Day," "Blue Skies," "What a Day for a Daydream" and "It's a Lazy Afternoon." Solos will be performed by Maryanne Robertson of Livonia and Barbara Weathers of Southfield.

Tickets at $2 general admission, $1 for senior citizens and 50 cents for students will be available at the door or can be purchased from any chorale member.

The chorale is sponsored by the City of Livonia Department of Parks and Recreation and is a non-profit organization. The group helps support the Foster Grandparent program of Plymouth.

The chorale's musical director is Bruce Graden, who is also vocal music instructor at John Glenn High School in Westland. Pianist is Patricia Claypoole, a nursing instructor at Sinai Hospital in Detroit. Program director is Dorothy Smith, supervisor of the Foster Grandparent program at Plymouth State Home.

Irish set gala festival

The Irish will take over the Detroit riverfront west of Cobo Hall May 30, 31 and June 1 for the second ethnic festival of 1975.

Immediately following the opening ceremony at 6 p.m., Friday, entertainers including groups from Ireland will perform. Entertainment will resume Saturday and Sunday at noon and will feature 300 dancers and bands.

Dances will include the Irish reel, jig, hornpipe, step dance and the figure dance.

They represent 85 years of religious life

By MARGARET MILLER

Eighty-five years in the religious life—all of it the result of early commitment—is evidenced in the careers of two Livonians marking milestones this spring.

Sister Mary Gertrude, a Felician nun who is business studies teacher at Ladywood High School, celebrated her 50th jubilee, and it was a 35th anniversary for the Rev. Ferdinand A. Wolber, pastor of St. Genevieve Church.

Both these stalwarts of the Catholic faith were sure as children they wanted the religious life, and to both its opportunities for service have brought deep satisfaction.

"I KNEW WHEN I was in grade school I wanted to be a priest," said Father Wolber, who attended classes at St. Elizabeth school in Detroit, Sacred Heart Academy for eight years, then Mount St. Mary Seminary in Norwood, Ohio.

He came to Livonia to found St. Genevieve in 1950 after serving in four other parishes and as a U.S. Army chaplain.

"I committed my life then to serving people," he continued, "and I would not trade one hour for any other kind of life. I enjoy being a priest."

SISTER GERTRUDE, for her part, entered the Felician Academy in Detroit on her way to the life of a nun because "I always wanted to dedicate my life to serving others, and I wanted to teach."

The teacher in the nun's habit, she feels, "can help young people come closer to God and educate them both spiritually and academically."

Born in Toledo, where she was taught in elementary school by Felician sisters, she began her religious life in 1925 and has been in a parochial classroom most of the years in between, teaching elementary classes at first and later business subjects in high schools. She came to Ladywood 10 years ago.

BOTH FATHER WOLBER and Sister Gertrude have noted great changes in the view of parochial and parish life in their years in Livonia.

The priest can remember visiting parts of his present parish when he was an assistant pastor of St. Monica in Detroit. When he came here, it was to begin the second Catholic church in Livonia. St. Genevieve parish once was part of St. Michael territory, and it since has seen itself divided with the formation of St. Priscilla.

Starting with 11 acres, Father Wolber led his parish to build first an activities center, then a convent, rectory, school and permanent church, "and all this was accomplished in eight or nine years."

AT ST. GENEVIEVE, Father Wolber said, "we've tried to move with Vatican II," and the 1,300-seat sanctuary was "built in that spirit, with the altar facing the people."

He notices changes in the parish's day school more than in worship. "At one time our school had 500 students," he said. "Now we're down to 250—there just are less school-age children in the parish boundaries."

"I'm in the position of letting other parishes, those without schools, know we can accept their children," he added.

SISTER GERTRUDE has been pleased with one of the big educational changes she has seen at Ladywood, the switch to modular scheduling. "It gives the students proper perparation for college work," she said. "Teaches them to budget their time and become more self-reliant."

She helps teach organization, too, by having her students keep binders with pockets. "That way they have a plan for the day and know how to go ahead with their work," she said.

Sister Gertrude, who has degrees from Siena Heights College at Adrian and Wayne State University, may have behind her 50 years as a religious but she isn't retiring yet.

"I'm ready to go for another year," she said. "I'm really dedicated to teaching."

RIVERSIDE PARK CHURCH OF GOD, 11771 Newburgh, Livonia, will welcome Dr. Lester A. Crose, who has been involved in Missions since 1919 when he went to Japan at the age of seven with his missionary parents, on Sunday, June 1.

Dr. Crose will speak at 9:30 a.m., 10:45 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.

After living with his parents in Japan, he accompanied them to Syria. In 1933 at the age of 21, he was appointed missionary to Lebanon.

He later served as a missionary in Barbados, Trinidad, Lebanon and Egypt.

In 1954 Dr. Crose was appointed executive secretary-treasurer of the Missionary Board of the Church of God and has served in that capacity for 21 years.

WARD UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, 17000 Farmington, Livonia, will host Caesar Molebatsi of Johannesburg, South Africa at its 7 p.m. vespers hour Sunday, June 1.

Molebatsi is a young African representing Youth Alive! a mission effort of Africa Evangelical Fellowship. The group tries to help African teens through its camps, clubs and its center.

These young people are establishing biblical patterns for marriage and have developed a Christian rationale to counter ancestor worship, materialism and racism.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, 100 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth, has new first and second readers.

Richard A. Moore and Mrs. Pamela Krause Stopper will begin three-year terms as first and second readers Sunday, June 1.

Since Christian Science has no ordained clergy, local members are elected democratically to fill administrative posts and conduct services. The readers carry the main responsibility for the Sunday and Wednesday evening services, their primary duty being to read the Christian Science lesson-sermon on Sunday.

Moore is production coordinator of Plymouth Stamping Co., while Mrs. Stopper is a teacher of dance and recreational swimming in Northville.

GARDEN CITY CHURCH OF CHRIST, 1657 Middlebelt, will sponsor talks by six speakers from six different congregations of the Church of Christ from June 1-4.

Stanley Day of Angola, a graduate of Michigan Christian College, will speak Sunday, June 1 at 10 a.m.

He will be followed at 11 a.m. by Norman Herron of La Grange, Ind., who graduated from Bentley High School in Livonia and, after entering the mission field, spent six years in Norway.

John Hooper of Holland, Mich. will present his talk at 6 p.m.

Monday services will be conducted at 7:30 p.m. by James Garrison of Mt. Pleasant, who is studying for his masters degree at Central Michigan University while also working for the congregation in Mt. Pleasant.

David Platt will speak at the same hour on Tuesday and will be followed on Wednesday by Don Wright, who was raised in Farmington and Plymouth and attended Lawrence Institute of Technology. He now preaches in Lapeer.

These men serve as home missionaries for the Garden City Church of Christ.

EPIPHANY LUTHERAN CHURCH, 41390 Five Mile, Plymouth, will present a program of choir music during its services Sunday, June 1 at 10:30 a.m.

The Hope Church Community Choir of Detroit will present selections from a musical program it has performed on tour in Michigan and throughout the country.

Class reunions

The January and June classes of 1950 of Hazel Park High School will hold their 25th reunion Saturday, June 21 in Stevenson Club, Hazel Park. For further information contact Delores Wagner Landmesser, 5455 Wright, Troy.

The class of 1950 of Chadsey High in Detroit will hold its 25th reunion Oct. 4.

Those interested in attending may contact Mrs. Michael Chiro, 14450 St. Marys, Detroit.

As you enter Wrigley's new Wine Cellar the nostalgia of the vast variety of imported wines will take your mind on a trip around the world. Through Germany with some wonderful Liebfraumilch, Mosel and May Wines. You then may move on to Denmark for a look at some rich sweet cherry wines, from France come the Burgundies, Bordeaux and Medoc. Move further down the line and from Italy we feature a vast variety of Lambrusco, Chianti, Vermouths and the women's favorite Asti Spumanti. There are also delicious and pleasing wines from Japan and other parts of the Orient. Or if you prefer, make your selection from Michigan, California, New York for Chablis, Burgundies or very inexpensive Champagnes. A meal just can't be a meal without that taste of wine. A high-contrast, black and white photograph of a person. The person is wearing a wide-brimmed hat, possibly a fedora, which is tilted slightly. Their face is mostly obscured by deep shadows. They are wearing a garment with a distinct, repeating pattern, possibly a tweed jacket or a vest. Their right hand is raised towards their face, with fingers slightly curled. The background is a solid, dark color, creating a stark contrast with the highlights on the person's clothing and hand. The overall mood is mysterious and dramatic.

A high-contrast, black and white photograph of a textured, triangular object, possibly a piece of fabric or a small structure, set against a dark background. The object has a rough, woven appearance and is illuminated from the side, creating a bright, jagged edge and deep shadows. The overall composition is minimalist and abstract.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Sacher of Maple Avenue, Plymouth, announce the birth of a daughter, Kristen Lynn, on March 31 in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor.

The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Sacher of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. James Lambert of Redford Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Drazen of Dearborn Heights announce the birth of their second daughter, Amanda Jean, on Feb. 11.

The Drazens also have a three-year-old daughter, Deanna Lynn. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Varley of Westland and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Drazen of Garden City.

Mr. and Mrs. David Balog of Westland announce the birth of a daughter, Amy Elizabeth, on March 24 in Sinai Hospital, Detroit. Amy's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Balog of Lincoln Park and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Stockton of Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parks of Carriage Hills Drive, Canton Township, announce the birth of twin sons, Timothy Bryan and Todd Allen, on May 11. The boys are the first children for Mr. and Mrs. Parks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald D. Quick of Plymouth announce the birth of a daughter, Holly Meredith, on April 13, 1975. Holly's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Graham of Livonia.

Plymouth class seeks grads

Members of the class of 1950 of Plymouth High School are searching for class members to inform them of the 25th reunion party planned for July 26 in Sherwood Inn, Livonia.

Already those planning the event have secured 60 reservations, but 34 class members have not been located. They are asked to contact Saxie Holstein Heft, 36507 Dover, Livonia.

These individuals are Edgar Bing-eron, Kenneth Bondie, William Bohl, Keith Campbell, Howard Carson, Jewel Crouch, Bruno De Benedet, Fred Dethloff, Gloria Dickson, Carl Elliott and Richard Fenton.

Others are Glen Ford, Sheldon Fulton, Molly Groth, Veral Johnston, Delores Kaluzny, Nancy Lary, Lawrence Mack, Ruby Makepeace, Robert Norgren, Robert Penhale and Wesley Potts.

Also still not located are Eldeen Preble, James Renshaw, Elizabeth Rowe, Melvin Schultz, Janet Swain, Charles Tallman, Philip Truesdell, Louis Vargha, Margaret Willsie, Eugene Vowels, Ronald Witt and Joan Myer.

Buy carnations to fight cancer

To aid the continuing fight against cancer, carnations will be sold Friday and Saturday, May 30 and 31 between 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. in the Livonia Mall.

The carnation day booth will be at the Sears Court.

Television personalities will put in an appearance as salesmen for the event.

Carnation Day will be sponsored by the American Cancer Society in cooperation with Detroit area Jaycees. Proceeds will support the society's education, service and research programs.

Democrats to hear talk on women

Libby Maynard, vice-chairperson of the Michigan Democratic Party, will join four area women in a panel discussion of "Women in Today's Society" Saturday, May 31 at 1:30 p.m. at Schoolcraft College, Livonia.

Among the other participants on the panel sponsored by the Wayne Second Democratic Party will be Minerva Hill, president of the Livonia Business and Professional Women's Organization, and Laura Callow, former president of the Livonia League of Women Voters.

Jane Watts, former president of the Plymouth-Northville League of Women Voters, will also take part in the discussion as will attorney Jean King.

Rosina Raymond, Schoolcraft College trustee will be panel moderator.

Interpreters to train at Madonna

Interpreters for the deaf will attend a training workshop at Madonna College, Livonia, May 30 and 31.

Sponsored by Region 1 Michigan Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf, the workshop is for both registered interpreters and those who wish to become registered.

Consultants for the program will be Eric Malzkunh of the Model Secondary School for the Deaf, Gallaudet College, Washington, D.C., and Sue Ann Royster of the Gallaudet faculty.

Malzkunh is a teacher of interpreters and was formerly with the National Theater of the Deaf. Ms. Royster is author of several books, including "Games and Activities in Sign Language."

Registration is scheduled for 7 p.m. on May 30 to be followed by a two-hour workshop session. There will also be registration again on Saturday at 8:30 a.m. with sessions scheduled from 9 a.m. until noon and from 1-5:30 p.m.

Registration is $1. However, for those who wish to receive one semester hour of credit through Madonna College, tuition is $40.

For further information contact Sr. Mary Francilene at the college.

Camp to start at Northwest Y

"Stay at Home Camp" for boys and girls six through 12 will be among the many programs offered to those of all ages this summer by the Northwest Branch YWCA, 25940 Grand River Redford Township.

Registration begins June 2.

The camp will be held at the YWCA building Monday through Thursday from 9:30-2 p.m. Other programs for youth include tap dance, sewing, crafts, puppetry, gymnastics, swimming, pre-school art and Mom and Tot swim.

Teens may chose such activities as driver training, guitar, back packing and bike hiking, sewing, gymnastics, swimming and a special Tuesday afternoon program that includes a variety of choices.

Adult men and women may select transactional analysis, adventures in attitudes, swimming, painting, crafts, airport ground school, golf, bridge, tennis, volleyball, driver training, ballroom dance and yoga.

Available to women only are physical fitness, belly dance, ballet, sewing and a special package called "Wednesday Women." This class meets mornings for five sessions from 9:30 a.m.-1 p.m. with a choice of activities including physical fitness, aqua-gym, volleyball, bridge and discussion groups.

Schantz-Hotckin

Mr. and Mrs. Myrl Schantz of New Port Richey, Fla., announce the engagement of their daughter, Nita A., of Plymouth, to Stephen B. Hotckin of Plymouth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hotckin of Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico, formerly of Jackson. The bride-elect is a 1973 graduate of Plymouth Salem High School. Her fiancé graduated from Parkside High School in Jackson in 1968 and is manager of Holly's Steak & 4 in Plymouth. They will marry Oct. 4.

Smith-Allegra

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Smith of Five Mile Road, Plymouth, announce the engagement of their daughter, Raina, to John Allegra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allegra of Taylor. The bride-elect graduated from Plymouth High School in 1968 and from Eastern Michigan University in 1972. She teaches physical education in the Kingston school district. Her fiancé, a 1969 graduate of Kennedy High School in Taylor, is employed by McLouth Steel Corp. They will be married July 19.

Biddle-Koltila

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mosser of Five Mile Road, Plymouth, announce the engagement of their daughter, Cynthia Lynn Biddle, to Michael P. Koltila, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Koltila of Dearborn. Both are students at Eastern Michigan University, where the bride-elect is a senior in elementary education and her fiancé is working toward a master's in biology. They plan to be married Aug. 2.

MRS. DANIEL DALE WELTON
(Renee Carol Gotro)

Grandfather officiates for nuptials

The bridegroom's grandfather was the officiating clergyman as Renee Carol Gotro and Daniel Dale Welton were united in marriage in the Plymouth Church of the Nazarene recently.

The Rev. W. O. Welton heard the vows spoken in an early evening ceremony. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John F. Gotro Jr. of Northville and Mr. and Mrs. Dale E. Welton of Plymouth.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory silk organza gown with a lace yoke and a band of lace at the hemline. She carried roses and white mums.

Teri Lynn Downing, as maid of honor, wore a jacket dress of hot pink polyester jersey. The bridesmaids, Tonni Burns, Terry Burns, Dona England, Deborah Wasalaski, Diane Welton, Lori Dingeldey and Gail Powell, wore lighter pink dresses similarly styled.

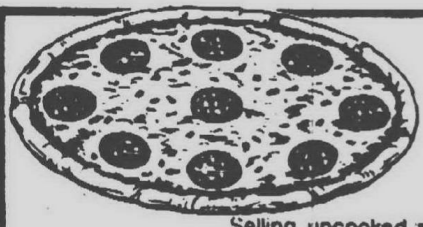

All wore matching hats and carried pink candles.

The flower girls were Jennifer Sue Burns and Holly Lynn Yeager.

Darry Hamlin was best man and the ushers, were Mark Bradford, David Welton, David England, Terry Wasalaski, Duan Hamlin, Douglas Welton, Joe McMullen, Greg Hester, Ed Wall, Jesse Stevenson and Paul Witt.

A reception for 300 guests in Botsford Inn, Farmington Hills, followed the ceremony and the couple went to Gatlinburg, Tenn., for their honeymoon. They will live in Plymouth.

The bride graduated from South Lyon High School and is employed by Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Co. in Farmington Hills. The bridegroom, a Plymouth Salem High School graduate, works for R & B Manufacturing in Pinckney, Mich.

Woman on the GO!

Cookies, HRC top priority list

How is a batch of chocolate chip cookies like the chairmanship of Livonia's Human Relations Commission?

The answer to that one is easy for Nancy Liddle, mother of three and current holder of that chairmanship.

Both, she says, are things she considers important enough to be worth her best effort.

That's why, besides being ready to turn out a mighty tasty pan of cookies, Nancy made herself available for appointment to the commission and last September accepted its chairmanship "because there are things that have to be done during the day and I felt I probably was the one who had that kind of time."

TOP PRIORITY RATING goes to a number of other elements in Nancy's life—like serving as a room mother for at least one child per school year, teaching a short-term sewing class, going camping with the family, performing as a clown.

But all took a back seat recently when Nancy, in her capacity as representative of the Livonia Human Relations Commission, testified at a civil rights hearing at Schoolcraft.

In that hearing, the Michigan Civil Rights Commission was considering Livonia's application for community block grant money and it was Nancy's job to outline her commission's thinking on how such federal funds could best be used.

"WE HAD DECIDED our top priority had to be more low and moderate cost housing," she said, "for senior citizens, of course, but for others, at well."

"We also thought it extremely important to get aid in upgrading existing low-cost housing in the city. People worry when you talk about low-cost developments, yet there is a great deal that could be done to better housing out of what is here now."

Another point important to the commission is assurance that any contractors working with grant money

By
MARGARET MILLER

should be equal opportunity employers.

"And after all those," Nancy said, "we think consideration should be given people who work in this city and might want to live here."

THIS CHAIRMAN sees the 15-member commission she heads as a "capable, responsible group" that can play a big part in making Livonia a better place to live.

"The fact that we exist says something about the attitudes of officials here."

"We've been called window dressing, and to a certain extent we are. But our being here probably keeps things from happening the way that a marked police car may keep drivers from speeding."

A few complaints, not the formal hearing type, have been handled by the commission.

"Mostly we've been able to talk to people and get things cleared up," Nancy said. In this category she mentioned the fellow who was mad at his neighbors and put up a for sale sign that read "Blacks Only," and the restaurant owner who refused to serve young men with long hair.

THE COMMISSION, she said, also functions as an education group.

"We've had a couple of essay contests and are putting together a film library where groups can get material on all kinds of human relations problems."

Discrimination that might exist against the young, the old, the handicapped also gets the attention of the commission. Under consideration is an amendment to the Livonia Human Relations ordinance that would specifically prohibit discrimination because of sex or age.

FOR NANCY LIDDLE, the decision to give a share of energy to the cause of better human relations in her community was one specifically thought-out.

Several years ago she learned she had multiple sclerosis, and so, "after crying and feeling sorry for myself for a while, I decided that I had to organize my life around the priorities of what is important to me."

For Nancy, this meant plenty of time for family doings with husband George, a math teacher at Redford Union High, sons Joe, 12, and John, 9, and daughter Beth, 7.

"We're great do-it-yourselfers. We built an addition for the house, and we do our upholstery and like camping trips—we're going out west this summer."

Her priority list then brought in things personally important—time to sew her own clothes and those for her children and to take some college courses and learn to crochet.

"But it also was important to contribute to the community in some way, to be where the action is," she went on. "And in that regard I decided I would have to pick just one major thing and do it as well as I could."

THAT DECISION has led her at this stage of her life to the Human Relations Commission.

In the past it's been activities like involvement in a cooperative nursery, classes at Eastern Michigan University— "where I discovered I wasn't as rusty as I had thought"—and teach-

MACLD plans gym program

Registration for a perceptual motor development gym program will take place Tuesday, June 3 from 6-8 p.m. in Frost Junior High School, 14041 Stark, Livonia.

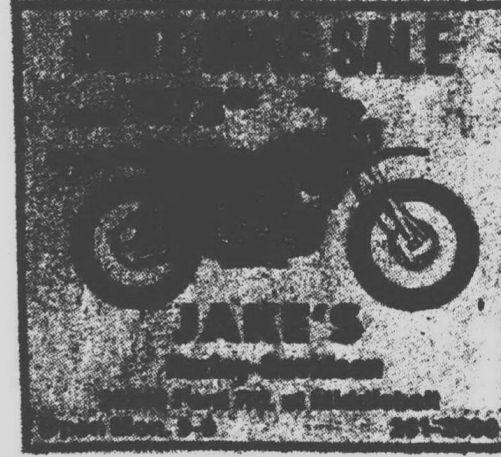

This summer session, sponsored by the Livonia-Redford chapter of the Michigan Association for Children with Learning Disabilities, will accommodate 100 children from five through 16.

It will be under the direction of James Glasgow, director of physical education at Glengarda School, Windsor and author of the book "Perceptual Motor Activities and Games for Children with Learning Disabilities."

The program will run from June 25 through July 31. Registration fee for MACLD members will be $32, for non-members $42.

win 2 free tiger baseball tickets

"JONESY PLANTS THE BEAN
ON MURPHY'S PORT LIGHT BEFORE
HE CAN GET HIS FEELERS ON THE BAG."

STARTING JUNE 2

You can win 2 FREE RESERVED SEAT TICKETS to an upcoming DETROIT TIGER BASEBALL GAME through the Observer & Eccentric Classified Section. 10 pairs of tickets will be offered each week... 5 on Monday and 5 on Thursday. Here's all you have to do: send us a post card with your name and address, including your zip code, to "Tiger Baseball", The Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia, Michigan 48150. (Or you may hand deliver your post card to any of the Observer & Eccentric offices.)

Then, when your name appears in our Classified Section as a ticket winner, call the Promotion Dept. at 261-8600, ext. 209. Your free tickets will be sent through the mail well in advance of the game. (No substitutions of game dates unless rained out.) But you must call by 5 p.m. Tuesday if your name appears in Monday's newspaper, or by 5 p.m. Friday if your name appears in Thursday's newspaper, to claim your tickets.

Everyone is eligible. Just send in your name and address and start looking for them in the Classified Section of your Observer & Eccentric. (Copies will be available at our offices for the public to look through.) Enter as many times as you wish.

The Alfa Romeo doesn't cost $12,000. It's just built that way.

The Alfa Romeo Spider Veloc convertible. You might have admired it. For its Pininfarina styling. Its race-refined engineering. Its eager double overhead cam aluminum engine. And you might have thought that a machine built like this one must cost around $12,000. Now, take another look. Because the price is not $12,000. It's a sensible $6,820. Even more sensible when you consider the latest Motor Trend magazine test that reports an Alfa Spider got 29.2 mpg (a tribute to the efficiency of our fuel injection system). How much you get depends on how you drive.

The Spider also gives you four-wheel disc brakes. A five-speed gearbox. Cast magnesium wheels. Limited-slip differential. A sense of handling you've never experienced before. And these luxury extras as standard: fully instrumented console. Radial tires. Polished wood steering wheel.

The Alfa Romeo is a direct descendant of the legendary Alfa racers. Today, it's never made so much sense for the road. Test drive one this week. At your dealer.

DON KAMEN

Dear Don Kamen,

I am writing this letter to express our thanks for all the work you put in on the ads. and the time you spent showing our home.

We feel you really did a wonderful job pointing out all the selling features in a very special manner.

We were most pleased at the price you sold our home for and the way you handled the deal.

The staff at One Way has been a terrific group of people, very professional but always time for their clients and to return calls.

Sincerely,
Ellen

WOODVIEW

A PERFECT APARTMENT
SETTING...

Surrounded almost entirely by natural forest area, WOODVIEW is just 100 yards from the entrance to famous Holiday Park. Secluded and quiet are the two best words to describe WOODVIEW. When you desire the services of one of Michigan's prestige shopping areas, it's just a 10 minute walk to Hudson's Westland or the new Kroger Center. You'll choose to live in Westland, because of Edward Hines Park, many nearby golf courses, the schools, public and private, places of worship and the expressways. Like living in-town, but bathed in the beauty of natural woods and scenery. WOODVIEW apartments are new, stunning in appearance inside and out. The rooms are extra large. Here are some of the many wonderful features in wonderful WOODVIEW.

■ Fully Carpeted ■ Air Conditioned ■ Refrigerator/Freezer ■ Self-Cleaning Range & Oven ■ Automatic Dishwasher ■ Carports ■ Private Balconies and patios with landscaped terraces ■ Double sliding glass doors ■ Magnificent WOODVIEW CLUB, one of the largest and most complete with private swimming pool, locker rooms, saunas and meeting rooms ■ Nature trails and Hiking Paths ■ No doubt about it, wonderful WOODVIEW in Westland is a natural place for you... and your family!

ONE BEDROOM FROM $230
TWO BEDROOM FROM $250

Daily or Sunday from 10 to 7 or call: 525-1230

On Cowan Road between Wayne Road and Newburg Road across from Westland Shopping Center.

You can live in some places for years, and never feel at home. Not at Deerfield Woods! You'll get the real contented feeling of being "settled" here, from the very first day you move in. Settled... and secure.

Every one and two bedroom apartment has been built and equipped with top-quality materials for your convenience and comfort. A beautiful, private swimming pool with spacious sun patio offers the last word in leisure living. And you get all this in the tranquil setting of suburban Livonia.

Come out and see us this weekend. Deerfield Woods is a great place to visit... and even greater place to live!

Directions: Farmington Road just north of 7 Mile Road.
