City eyes layoffs, wage freeze, tax hike

Plymouth's city administration is looking at a budget shortfall for the coming year which could result in layoffs or increased taxes.

City Manager Henry Graper said an increase in millage will be the last alternative the administration will consider, but he included the possibility amongst a list of possible solutions to wipe out a pending deficit for fiscal

The first attempt at coming up with a budget draft for next year resulted in a revenue shortfall of about $500,000, Graper told the Plymouth City Commission Monday night. That deficit since has been trimmed to about $200,000.

POSSIBLE STEPS to come up with $200,000 to balance the budget, Graper said, include:

Layoffs of city employees; a wage freeze for all employees; cutting other expenses; the use of federal revenue sharing dollars to help balance the budget; and a tax increase.

The manager said an increase from the present 16.45 mills to 18 would generate an additional $170,000 in income.

The owner of a house valued at $75,000 would pay an additional $116.25 in city property taxes if the levy reached 18 mills, Graper said.

The manager estimates that a home whose assessment dropped from $78,000 to $75,000 because of the reappraisal will pay about $112.50 less in school taxes so that an increase to 18 mills would cost that homeowner a net increase of some $4 a year.

Graper listed the following reasons for the city's financial difficulty.

A loss of state income of about $154,000; a loss from lowering property values through reappraisal of some $68,000; an increase in fringe benefit costs of $37,000; a drop in district court revenues; an increase in refuse collection costs; a drop in parking fines; a loss in interest income; and higher labor costs.

If the city gave all its employees a 5percent increase, Graper said, it would cost the city an additional $85,000. But a 5-percent hike is very unlikely, the manager added.

Graper said all department heads took a wage freeze last year and will again this year. He said he will approach the unions, talk with non-union employees and ask all employees to agree to a wage freeze this year.

WITHIN THE PAST three years the city has effectively laid off or eliminated people in seven positions, Graper

"No personnel have been added in any department over the personnel who were available to departments in Thirty-fifth District Court revenues to the city have dropped by some $50,000 to $80,000 over the past two years, he said, while state-shared revenues have dropped by about $144,00 with the executive cuts issued by governors Milliken and Blanchard.

The costs of providing fringe benefits to city employees have "now reached the staggering sum of $1 million per year or about 58 percent of the base

"No new fringe benefits have been added to the city of Plymouth's benefit package since 1974. However, just keeping up with the rising costs of these benefits, which were added in the '70s, have placed us in this position."

THE BUDGET PROCESS started with the city manager accepting budget requests from department heads. That initial department-head budget resulted in a revenue shortfall of

By eliminating up to six full-time positions (now filled by co-op students) and cutting down on the costs of supporting special events, the deficit in the general-fund balance was lowered to $200,000.

Graper promised that the 1983-84 budget would be balanced by the time it takes effect July 1, 1983.

The city manager hopes to come up with his budget proposal by March 21. The city commission will then begin holding study sessions on the budget, the first being on April 11, before holding a public hearing April 25.

THE CITY'S loss of some $80,000 in court revenues compares to about $200,000 lost by Canton, Graper said, and some $100,000 lost by Plymouth

Besides asking the unions to agree to used the contingency fund to balance a wage freeze, Graper said he also will its operating budget but that fund will ask employees to give up some fringe be used up this year.

benefits or rearrange benefits to lower

The major increase in recent years, he said, has been health-insurance premiums. Graper said the city pays an average in premiums of $2,400 per employee for full family health coverage. He added that the city pays $69,000 in health-insurance premiums a year for the police department alone.

Graper said that since 1979 the city has absorbed all increased costs without increasing millage, including the expansion to city hall which costs the equivalent of 0.45 mills. The city has gotten by in the past, he said, by taking advantage of increased revenue from increases in the taxbase which now is not occurring.

In recent years, he said, the city has

Task force to explore substance abuse here

By Jeanne Hoisington special writer

"Alcohol is the biggest substance abuse here," Nic Cooper says about the Plymouth-Canton school district.

Cooper, who is coordinator of the district's alternative-education program, said a committee has been formed to help students deal with substance abuse problems. Members include: Cooper, the chairman; Sally Wisotzkey and Steve Foley of the Alternative Education Project; Bob Weiner, school social worker, Audrey Bricker, school psychologist; administrators Patrick Fitzpatrick, Ken Jacobs, Pat Patton, Bill Brown and Kent Buikema; and Dr. E.J. McClendon who is a professor of health behavior in the School of Public Health at the University of Michigan. McClendon also is a member of the Plymouth Canton Board of Education.

The rationale for the new substance abuse program is outlined in a draft report written by Cooper and Wisotzkey. 'Drug usage in the United States has been on the increase since the early 1960s. Nowhere can the effects of l dependency be felt more explicitly than in the case of child and adolescent involvement."

COOPER'S REPORT went on to explore findings of the National Research Studies (a survey taken by University of Michigan's Institute for Social Resources) revealing extensive use and abuse of substances among middle and high school students, as follows:

 Of every ten seniors, 65 percent ting," Wisotzkey said. report illicit drug use at some time in their lives. Forty percent get drunk once a month or more

 Over 70 percent of high school seniors reported using alcohol within the previous month. • Over 10 percent of high school students reported using marijuana on a daily basis.

• Use of stimulants and cocaine among youngsters is on the increase. According to Cooper and Wisotzkey, substance abuse is a problem of societies and individual communities. 'Substance abuse is a community problem not a school problem. Schools have a role in taking an active stand to attack the problem," Wisotzkey said. Students are affected by society's problems, such as unemployment and high levels of stress and turn to an easy escape, Cooper said. In addition, "Alcohol is easy to obtain. It is an acceptable drug in American society and goes across cultures and age lines.

Substance dependency frequently results in attendance problems, legal difficulties, academic decline and alienation from adult-oriented activities, Cooper said. He said that parents may be aware of these problems before the

THE MAIN GOAL of the Plymouth-Canton substance-abuse committe is to, "coordinate an effective approach to substance abuse in the high school set-

Cooper said: "The treatment for an alcoholic is hospitalization. Out-patient therapy is not effective for the teenage alcoholic. Recovery from alcohol abuse is an ongoing relearning process that may last a lifetime."

"If you want to know what kills kids, it is alcohol and alcohol-related deaths on the highway," McClendon said.

We take the brightest kids in our schools and teach them math, science, social studies and English. They abuse alcohol and go on the highway and get killed. What a waste."

According to McClendon some people will see this committee as a negative aspect in the high schools. However, he maintains that the real purpose is to help kids make more of their lives and their potential.

In the future, Wisotzkey would like to see more effective educational programs for middle and high schools. Skills taught would be ones for everyday living, such as communication and mechanics to cope with stress.

The substance-abuse intervention committee sent a letter to all staff members explaining their goals.

It says, "It has been stated that prevention or at least reduction of indiscriminate drug use can be assisted through imaginative school programming by local school districts. The problem is a complex one and will require the commitment and involvement of many inviduals."

Ambulance firm switched

Before the end of the month the city of Plymouth will begin receiving advanced life support (ALS) services from Community Emergency Medical Services instead of Huron Valley Am-

The change is being made primarily because Community EMS has been able to sign up a larger number of nearby communities, and because it is more able to operate at a loss if a deficit should be experienced in the first

Originally the city entered into an agreement with Huron Valley, which is affiliated with St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor, for advanced life support and paramedic service to supplement its firefighters rescue work.

That agreement is being discontinued because Huron Valley has been told by St. Joseph Hospital that it must at least break even, said City Manager Henry Graper.

Community EMS, owned by Botsford Hospital in Farmington Hills, has been told it can operate at a deficit the first year if needed.

COMMUNITY EMS has signed agreements with, or is about to enter into agreements with, Farmington, Farmington Hills, Novi, Northville and Northville Township.

The changeover from Huron Valley to Community EMS will be in effect Tuesday, Graper said.

The manager added that once Huron Valley began operating in the city it found there were not a sufficient number of transport calls for which they could bill residents to cover its costs. If it continued operating here, said Graper, Huron Valley would have made arrangements whereby Community EMS would have provided backup 30 to 40 percent of the time.

Botsford Hospital is about 18 minutes away, said Graper, although residents can choose which hospital they wish to be taken to Graper said that Henry Ford Hospi tal is ready to acquire a 4,000-squarefoot building on Main Street to operate an emergency clinic, 24 hours, seven days a week. When that opens, he said, most of the emergency cases would go there. They now are going to the Oakwood emergency clinic in Canton.

Township to lower its tax base

Tax assessments in Plymouth are expected to decrease by about 7 percent. That projection was part of the report given Tuesday night to the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees on the reappraisal project completed by Wayne County Appraisal Co. of Livo-

The reappraisal will result in the typical residential property valuation in the township decreasing by about 7 percent from 1982 values, said Glenn Shaw of Wayne County Appraisal Co. "All assessment values did not go down, but most did," said Shaw. "The direct results of the reappraisal are more realistic values and an equitable distribution of the tax burden.'

The township has not reappraised property for taxable value in 12 years. During that time, a number of changes have occurred resulting in "small inconsistencies and inequities being multiplied into larger ones," Shaw-said.

SHAW'S COMPANY emphasized 1982 house sales to determine value, he said. So the reappraised value of the township is based on a 12-month study, rather than a 24- or 30-month study.

Plymouth Township's 1982 equalized residential roll after the Board of Review and assessor's changes was $252.6 million, compared to the 1983 tax assessment roll presented to the Board of Review this month of $241.8 million.

This represents a reduction of $10.7 million

If a 24-month study was used by Wayne County to determine 1983 value. Shaw said, the total state equalized valuation (SEV) would have been $259.8 million.

By using the 12-month sample, he said, the township's total SEV will be $241.8 million or a difference of $17.9 million by using the shorter sales peri-

Americans are brainwashed

With the increased quantity of Japanese products in the United States, Americans are being brainwashed with Japanese propaganda — "Quality at its best "

It is time we Americans woke up to the alarming facts, which were reinforced recently when I purchased a Japanese battery for my son's Yamaha motorcycle.

Upon paying for the battery, I inquired about its warranty. Much to my dismay, I was informed there was no warranty; therefore, if a defect occurred it was my problem. I then checked with Harley-Davidson who gave a one-year warranty.

My question is this: If Japan has "Quality at its best," why can't they back it up in writing as America backs its products?

As I have felt in the past, and will continue to feel in the future, American-built products are the best. They are guaranteed!

Police service can improve

On Friday, March 4, at 9:30 p.m. a large window was broken in our city of Plymouth home. Also a substantial dent was put in the upstairs siding. This was done with a small, steel ball bearing, probably shot from

Recently our next door neighbors were burglarized in the afternoon. Our garage, along with many neighbors, was robbed within the last few

It used to be a common sight for us to see a police car on our street. Now we see it, all too often, only when there is trouble.

The Plymouth Police are very hard working — doing the very best they can. I feel the police have been spread too thin by furnishing service

WE, IN Plymouth, pay much higher taxes than the township. I do not believe the much larger area of the township is paying anywhere near its Frankly, I blame the administration of our city for over-committing our police force -- also, for once again allowing the township to get the best deal at our expense.

I would be most pleased to see Plymouth Police protecting the citizens and property of Plymouth alone. If I'm correct, we would see a drop in crime and vandalism.

Geake blasts income tax package

State Sen. Robert Geake has called the House Democratic alternative to Gov. Blanchard's 38 percent permanent tax increase "a sham and a deliberate attempt to mislead the public."

The House-passed version, which received no Republican votes, is tied to an unemployment rate trigger by which the income tax increase would roll back to the current 4.6 percent when the unemployment rate drops below 9 percent.

"To call this tax package temporary because it is tied to a 9 percent unemployment trigger is a sham and a deliberate attempt to mislead the public," said Geake, R-Northville, whose 6th District includes Livonia, Canton, Plymouth, Redford and Northville.

"Any tax increase that tends to restrict incentives for business to either locate or remain in Michigan, thus providing a disincentive for job creation should not be tied to unemployment levels as a condition of rolling back the tax increase."

Geake said the House Democratic alternative is only a variation of Blanchard's proposal and would set off a period of excessive growth in state gov-

"This so-called temporary income tax increase would raise about $1.1 to $1.2 billion in new tax revenues in fiscal 1984," continued Geake. "This would represent a 25 percent increase in the growth rate of state expenditures. Under this proposal, the general fund/general purpose expenditures would rise from the current level of $4.7 billion to almost $7.5 billion in fis-

Geake joined Republican colleagues in asking Gov. Blanchard to release his 1984 budget priorities prior to the passage of any tax package.

"We must first deal with the cost and size of state government before we can deal with the issue of increasing state revenues through increased taxes. More taxes and increased state spending as proposed by the Blanchard-House Democrat tax plans are not the answer to Michigan's economic ills and high unemployment problems."

A permanent tax increase, or a temporary increase tied to unemployment figures, Geake said, will only lead to permanent high unemployment in the

SC negotiations may be tough

staff writer

Schoolcraft College employee unions may face tough negotiations this year when contract talks open in April.

That's mainly because of the uncertainty surrounding state aid payments to the college.

"It's obvious that what happens in Lansing will have a definite impact on what we can offer," said Michael Petrack, who will act as the college's chief negotiator in talks with three of the four unions whose contracts expire

THE COMMUNITY college could lose nearly $75,000 in state money as a result of Gov. James Blanchard's proposed budget cuts. In addition, the governor has delayed two monthly payments totaling $834,000 to the college.

State aid accounts for roughly a third of the college's revenues. The other "Improving Your Self-Concept" is the topic of a workshop offered from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, March 12, at Schoolcraft College, 18600 Haggerty, two-thirds comes from property taxes and tuition fees.

Lawrence Ordowski, president of the 22-member union representing assistant deans and directors, dagrees with Petrack. But he's still optimistic.

"A lot depends on what Gov. Blanchard is able to pull off in Lansing with regard to the income tax hike," he said. "If we don't panic early, we may wind up getting more than we anticipated."

BUT ANOTHER union spokesman, Bonnie Bryant, doesn't buy the argument that the college may be financially strapped this year because of the state's budget crisis.

"I know there are problems with cut-backs in state aid," said Bryant, presi-dent of the 51-member union representing secretaries.

But, Bryant said, the college gave pay hikes to faculty, non-union person-nel and some executive administrators this year. The other four unions should get their fair share, she said.

"Job security will also be a big issue for us," Bryant added.

THE COLLEGE laid off eight secretaries and four custodians and maintenance workers last year.

The secretaries union, the School-craft College Association of Office Personnel, is awaiting the outcome of an unfair labor practices suit it filed last vear after the lavoffs.

The suit was filed because the college failed to meet contractual obliga-tions, Bryant said

"They were supposed to give us raises in the second year of our contract. But they gave us an ultimatum last year — either take a pay freeze or face layoffs. They didn't budget for the pay

They may not carry notebooks or be invited to campus parties, but Heros and Rhinos will be just as much a part of the Schoolcraft College scene this fall as the students.

Part-time instructors from area industries will teach the classes, Feenstra said. "We'll be asking for a fulltime instructor for the 1983-84 school year, beginning in July."

STUDENTS MAY opt for an associate degree program either in robotics application or service.

In robotics application, students will learn how the robot fits into the manufacturing process, Feenstra said.

Stormy weather

With spring just around the corner, Plymouth-Canton residents perhaps should be preparing for some stormy weather — thunderstorms, strong winds, possible flooding, and tornadoes. The National Weather Service has reported that the mild winter experienced this year likely will result in an extra stormy spring. Storm sirens were set off Monday afternoon in Canton and Plymouth townships as weather conditions indicated a tornado was possible. These black crowds were photographed from the corner of Warren and Lilley about 4:45 p.m. Monday. At about that time a tornado had been spotted in Saline in Washtenaw County, prompting the issuance of a tornado watch in this area as well as thunderstorm warnings.

A closer look at water barons & suburb's role

ETROIT'S WATER AND Sewerage Department is more than Detroit's business. The rest of us are helping to pay the bill and ought to be looking into what used to be thought of as Detroit's "internal" affair.

That thought struck me as I pored through

George Kuhn's latest speech to the Detroit City Council protesting a rate increase. Kuhn, as Oakland County drain commissioner, acts as a wholesaler of Detroit's water and sewerage services to suburban communities.

"That water board," growled Kuhn, "makes the OPEC oil barons look like amateurs." Lest we suspect this suburban politician of engaging in rhetorical hyperbole, Kuhn proceeded to back up his asser-

OPEC'S PRICE increases raised our pump prices of gasoline from the neighborhood of 30 cents a gallon in the early '70s to the $1.30 range at their peak the price increased better than four times.

Auto companies, famed for giving us "sticker shock," have lifted prices in the same general.

Since 1970, wholesale sewer rates in our fair region have been increased from 32.5 cents per million cubic feet to $4.58. This means the price increased to 14 times its 1970-level.

We know, of course, that much has had to be spent on the Detroit sewage treatment plant since it was discovered in federal court to be the worst polluter of Lake Erie. But a price increase of 1,400

A PROBLEM less visible to us in suburbia has to do with delinquent water bills.

To grasp it, you have to understand that the city of Detroit sells water and sewer services retail to its residents and wholesale to suburban blocs of Kuhn's data shows Detroit retail customers are delinquent in their water bills to the tune of $25 million as of last Nov. 30. Detroit councilmen confess the delinquency figure now is up to $31 million. What happens? "Under the present system, as we understand it, the amount of unpaid Detroit retail customer balances are a charge against working capital, which is supported by the rates of all customers, city and suburb alike," said Kuhn.

"In our district," he went on, "we pay the entire bill. If there are individual retail customers' delintail customers. Detroit does not make up the dollar amount of retail delinquencies."

UNFAIR? Assuredly.

The argument used to be that Detroit could do what it wished because it "owned" the watersewerage system. That argument was knocked in the head when the pollution case brought out that the system is financed by federal aid, state aid and charges to customers, with no Detroit "investment." It became abundantly clear that suburban customers had a stake in the system at least equal

The horror story of how suburbia is covering Detroit's delinquent bills, however, demonstrates that, financially, the suburbs have perhaps a superior right to a voice in how the system is run.

The suburbs deserve the right to pick their own members of the water board in proportion to their population (about two-thirds) and a chance to compete for jobs. Reform will require state legislation. Detroit will

Catholic history full of debates

AS THIS is written, Sister Agnes Mary Mansour has yet to begin confirmation hearings as the state's new director of social services

On Saturday her religious order, the Farmington Hills-based Sisters of Mercy, supported her candi-Most Rev. Edmund Szoka, Catholic archbishop of Detroit. Szoka demanded Feb. 23 that Sister Mansour leave the job because she had not publicly opposed Medicaid-financed abortions

Sister Mansour's state Senate hearing started Tuesday. Tuesday was also the day the Archdiocese of Detroit officially began celebrating its 150th anniversary with a Mass in St. Anne Church in Detroit.

It is fitting that the hearing and the 150th anniversary are linked, for Sister Mansour's saga tells us much about the Catholic Church.

Approximately 35 percent of the people living in the six-county Detroit archdiocese are Catholics. About 25 years ago, 50 percent were Catholics.

MANY NON-CATHOLICS believe the Catholic Church is a monolithic, authoritarian organization in which every person thinks the same. That's not true. Roman Catholic church history is full of debates since the days of Peter and Paul.

Sharkey The Catholic Church holds that the conscience of the individual is supreme. It requires that conscience be "informed," meaning that it must be based on research and study. This philosophy was endorsed during the most important meeting of church leaders in recent years, the Second Vatican Recent surveys have indicated that the majority of Catholic married couples practice a form of birth control not approved by their church. Yet these couples are members of good standing in their faith and regularly receive the sacraments.

How? These couples in good conscience believe they are acting properly by practicing birth control.

Few Catholic tenets are a matter of dogma Catholics must believe. Most rules can be changed. For example, many persons remember when Catholics were prohibited from eating meat on Fridays.

It is in that environment that Sister Mansour's superiors defy the wishes of the local bishop. They argue that the work of the Department of Social Services furthers the efforts of their religious order.

They also note that Sister Mansour has stated her opposition to abortion, and "Medicaid funding of abortions would continue . . . even if Sister Mansour were to resign.'

HOW WILL THE matter be resolved? I hope the bishop withdraws his opposition and lets Sister Mansour serve. In her new duties, she will help the sick and the poor - consistent with her religious mission. She has also clearly stated her objections

It would be disappointing to see this matter decided by the Catholic Church's governmental structure in Rome

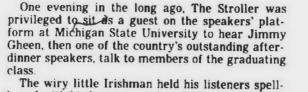

Whatever happens, persons outside the church know that debate over important issues is alive in

As the Rev. F. Gerald Martin writes in the current issue of the Michigan Catholic, the archdiocesan newspaper, "It is in faith and love that we are united, not in our opinions about everything, not even in our opinions about how best . . . to witness to that faith and to exercise that love."

Remember that as you contemplate the 150th anniversary of this Catholic archdiocese.

along in the battle of life, it wasn't everything. "You must have enthusiasm," he said, "and you must have a desire to excel, and you must be dedicated." Then he would add with a smile, "You must have all these things and a helluva lot of luck."

THE MEMORY of these remarks came bounding back for The Stroller the other evening when he saw former President Gerald Ford sitting with former President Jimmy Carter discussing foreign relations and later as co-author of a lead article in Reader's Digest.

Never was there a better example of Jimmy Gheen's warning to the MSU students.

low than Jerry Ford since his college days at the University of Michigan. Jerry played football on the 1932-34 teams and had the dubious honor of being voted most valuable player on the '34 team which won only one game and lost seven.

After graduation, he tried coaching — without great success. Then he entered politics. Even then his name wasn't anything close to being a household word. He repeatedly was elected to Congress from the Grand Rapids district. But for years he was just another member.

Then in a leadership change, he was named House Republican leader. That's when Lady Luck started

VICE PRESIDENT Spiro Agnew was forced to resign. To fill the vacancy, President Richard Nixon named Ford vice president.

Soon Nixon was under fire as the Watergate scandal was uncovered. It was said that Nixon appointed Ford in self-defense. He was quoted as saying, "Can you imagine Ford sitting in the president's chair?" Nixon was accused of using Ford as a buffer to save himself.

It didn't work. Nixon, too, was forced to resign, and Ford moved into the Oval Office - the first man to sit in the president's chair who hadn't been in a national election. It was the highest honor he could get.

Ford had the added distinction of being president during the Bicentennial Celebration of 1976. He became one of the world leaders and will have a place in history.

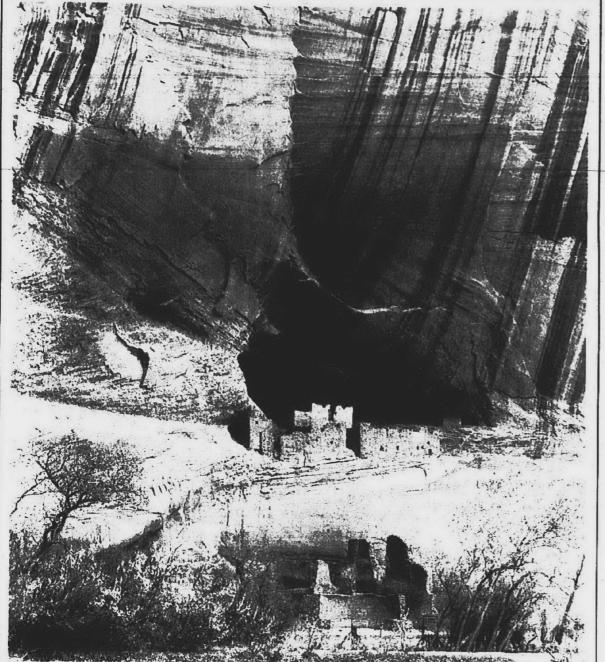

HE DID WHAT was generally considered a good job as president, though he provided laughs by stumbling while getting out of an airplane.

On the golf course he hit spectators with his tee shots. Tommy Watson, the outstanding pro who tried to teach Ford, said he had two problems: "How to hit the ball and then how to find it."

But as folks smiled, Ford started collecting pensions that have amounted to more than $100,000 a year since he left office. And he is paid in the thousands these days to address groups around the Country.

He proved Jimmy Gheen right when he said, but to succeed you must "Education is fine . . . but to succeed you must have a helluva lot of luck."

'Off the tourist path'

"To get the good shots, you have to get off the tourist path of life" - that's Monte Nagler's philosophy. Braving fierce winds and a sleet storm, he hiked down Canyon de Chelley, Arizona, for

Picture detective solves print and slide problems

I often receive calls and visits from photographic friends and students complaining about picture problems.

From the description of the fault and at times the pictures themselves, I find most shooters don't know which to blame - the camera, the film, the processing lab or even themselves. But by putting on a Sherlock Holmes hat and using methods of deduction, you can determine where the guilt lies.

PRINT TOO DARK? Not enough light reached the film. First thing to check is the ASA setting. If you set it at a higher number than required by your film, you'll know right away what went wrong.

If you've set the ASA correctly and still have prints that are too dark, then look at your negatives. If there is detail overall, including shadow areas, then your exposure was correct, but the processing lab goofed. Ask for a remake of

But if the negative lacks detail, then

'Coping skills' starts tonight

"Coping Skills for the '80s," a sixweek workshop, will start 7-9:30 p.m. Thursday at Schoolcraft College, 18600 Haggerty, Livonia.

Topics will include stress management, communication skills, assertiveness techniques and decision making.

Fee is $50. Registration information is available from the college, 591-6400, your camera's exposure meter may be at fault. The best way to check this is to stand side by side with a fellow photographer and compare light readings of the same subject. If your readings are inconsistent, take your camera in for

PRINT TOO LIGHT? Too much light may have reached the film. Again, check the ASA setting first to make sure you didn't have it at too low

Then check the negative. If it looks good, request a remake from the lab. If it appears dense all over, check out your meter, as I've described, and take your camera in for repair if necessary.

Prints partially light and dark? A light leak. If the negatives match the prints, the problem lies in the camera and you should have it checked out. If the negative looks good, ask the lab to redo your pictures.

Scratches on your prints? Look closely at the negatives. If the scratches are intermittent, there was probably a burr on the lip of the film cartridge or a nick on the pressure plate (part of the film transport mechanism) in the back of your camera.

If the scratches are consistent through the entire roll, the problem could be twofold: A bad burr or nick just described, or a processing lab goofup when your film was developed.

AN OVERALL yellowish tint on your prints? The cause is most likely

Always check the date stamped on the carton when you purchase film, and never leave your camera and film where a hot sun may bake it.

For color slides, many of the same faults can happen to you, too, and the methods of deduction I've been describing will also work for you.

Just remember, the effects of over or under-exposure are exactly the opposite from negatives because slides in themselves are positive. Thus, if a slide appears too dark, it was underexposed, and if too light, it got overexposed.

So clue yourself in to playing photographic detective. You'll eliminate a lot of the common faults in photography which in turn will improve your

Dog shows improve breed, good place to shop

By Lem Mesee outdoors writer

If marriages are made in heaven, then Cobo Hall in Detroit is heaven for dogs. It's also good for prospective dog

Next Sunday is the annual Detroit Kennel Club dog show, billed as the largest one-day, all-breed benched dog show in North America.

No one gets rich from dog shows. Any proceeds from the DKC show go to charity. You have to like dogs to get caught up in the madness.

"A dog show," writes Roger Caras in "A Celebration of Dogs" (1982) "is a cross between an office picnic, a bloodless bullfight, root-canal work, a Miss America pageant, and a tax audit by an IRS person who is jealous of you, as they all are.

Dogs win points in "conformation" matches - judgings in which experts matches breed standards for height, shape and general appearance.

After breed winners are selected, they are judged in groups - 24 breeds in the sporting group, 20 in hounds, 18 working class, 23 terriers, 15 toys, 11 nonsporting and 14 herding.

Win enough points and your dog earns the title of champion.

CHAMPIONS are used for breeding. That's why a show is a place where doggy marriages are made

Two years ago, we were puppy shopping to replace the valiant poodle who had been our "alpha wolf" for 161/2 years. A show like the DKC's, with several thousand dogs and most of the nation's 125 recognized breeds, is an ideal place to shop.

Moreover, Cobo Hall on the Detroit River is a whole lot closer than New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Harris-decide how closely an individual burg, Kansas City or 'Frisco, where the other benched shows are held.

In a "benched" show, dogs are stationed on benches the entire day except during judging. There is a display of dog photographs and directions on where breeds are stationed.

Admission is $4.50 for adults and $2.50 for kids, plus a couple of bucks for parking. It's a tiny cash investment when you're picking a companion who will live with you for 10, 15 or more

We were able not only to check out breeds but meet breeders and get to know dogs as personalities - and after all, you're really buying personality. We picked up cards and leaflets from several breeders and even had a chance to play with some prospective mothers. We fell in love with a rollicking member of one of the northern

The next couple of weeks we culled

the library shelves for background books, confirmed our hunches about the northern breed, and in one telephone call placed our order for a puppy - the daughter of an American champion sire and an American and Canadian champion dam.

Result: The champion dogs produced a textbook-perfect litter, and we got exactly the kind of pup we wanted. Purebred sure beats random-bred.

ICE FISHING has been out of the question for two weeks, but the sucker run has started on the Clinton River in Macomb County. The ol' "whistlemouth bass" starts spawning runs in the closing days of winter and can give you quite a scrap on light tackle at this time of year.

Perch fishermen are having some luck in Lake Erie off the wall at the Hoffman Access Site at Bolles Harbor. Salmon and trout are being caught in the St. Clair River by anglers trolling with downriggers.

A husband and wife who are both working may EACH contribute up to a maximum amount of $2,000.00 (total $4,000.00). Concert features Haydn's 'missing' concerto

The Plymouth Symphony Orchestra will highlight the recently discovered Haydn Cello Concerto in C major at Sunday's concert.

Haydn's other Cello Concerto in D major, published in 1904, always has been included in cellists' repertoires. The composer catalogued his entire musical output before his death in 1908, listing two concerti for cello in C

It came as no surprise when researchers uncovered the composition in 1961 at the Prague National Museum. There is no doubt about the C major's authenticity. This concerto, with its high spirits and driven rhythms, satisfies music lovers as the search continues for the other C major concerto.

Sarah Roth Cleveland will be featured soloist for the performance. She is a graduate of the University of Michigan where she studied with Samuel H. Mayes. Now principal cellist with the Toledo Symphony Orchestra, she began her career as a member of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra.

CLEVELAND is a member of the Amati String Quartet which performs frequently in the Toledo and Ann Arbor areas. The quartet also presents music education programs in school settings.

Sunday's program at 4 p.m. in the Plymouth Salem High School Auditorium will begin with the Prelude to Wagner's comic opera "Oie Meistersinger von Nurnberg," followed by the Haydn concerto.

After intermission, Conductor Johan von der Merwe and the orchestra will perform the Symphony No. 9 "From the New World," by Antonin Dvorak. The "New World" started a controversy that has never been clarified. Dvorak arrived in the United States in 1892 and he remained for three years. His objective was to establish nationalism in the American school of composition similar to that of Germany, Spain and his homeland of Bohemia. It was commonly believed that the Symphony No. 9 portrayed the American spirit and that Dvorak had somehow captured the folk music of a peo-

Today, it is left to the individual listener to make this judgment.

TICKETS FOR the concert will be available at the box office before the concert. Single and season ticket advance sales will be in Plymouth at Beitner Jewelry on Ann Arbor Trail; in Canton at Arnholdt Williams Music at Canton Center Road at Ford; in Northville at Four Seasons Flowers on E. Main and in Ann Arbor at Liberty Street Music on Liberty.

Single concert tickets are $6 for adults and $3.50 for senior citizens and full-time college students. Students 12th grade and under are admitted Free transportation for senior citizens is provided from Tonquish Creek Manor on Sheridan Avenue the afternoon of the concert. Free baby sitting for preschoolers is offered during the concert.

The concert is made possible by a grant from the state of Michigan through the Michigan Council for the Arts; the Burroughs Corp. and the Plymouth Symphony League.

Louana says, 'Keep reading'

Hey, hold it - don't turn the page. cil for PLUS, a local preschool pro-Yes, this is Canton Chatter. "But where is Kathy Freece?" I hear you cry. Kathy, as usual, is alive and well and living in Canton. She announced here last week that she will no longer be appearing in this column. We'll all miss her. But we can be sure that we haven't heard the last from Kathy Freece.

Why? For one thing, Canton Chatter will continue to feel the impact of Kathy's energy and commitment. For 21/2 years, Kathy has brought us together by telling us what's happening in the Canton community. She has told us about the pancake breakfasts, the school book fairs and the kids' soccer teams. In doing so, Kathy has invited us to participate, to really become a part of our community.

She also has let us see our neighbors down the street celebrating an anniversary, our friends across town throwing a Super Bowl party, and even ourselves making life work in the 1980s. In short. Kathy has reminded us that no matter how diverse our backgrounds and lifestyles, we still have a lot to

She has shown us, once again, why "communication" and "community" come from the same root word in our language: "communis," meaning "com-

ANOTHER REASON we haven't heard the last from Kathy is that her personal involvement in our community will continue.

A native of Philadelphia, Kathy has lived in Canton for 6½ years. In that time she has given of herself more than most people do in a lifetime. Kathy plunged into the life of our community through Canton Newcomers and is presently a board member for that organization

She's also on the board for Eriksson School's P.T.O. and the advisory coun-gram. Kathy firmly believes Plymouth-Canton Schools are doing a fine job, and she encourages parents to actively support our excellent teachers.

"If you're not involved in your child's school, you're not in touch with your child," Kathy says, reminding us that 'our children spend half their lives in

KATHY'S FULL-TIME career as an account administrator for the Pfeister Company in Livonia doesn't prevent her volunteering for other projects as

She's taught Sunday school at Geneva Presbyterian Church and catechism at St. John Neumann Church; she's helped out at a loca! nursing home; she's a sponsor of the Detroit Science

Last year Kathy volunteered many hours every week to appear on televi-sion's Channel 13 in "Freece Frame." She moved recently to Omnicom's Channel 8 where she co-hosts "Single Touch" with J.P. McCarthy. The program which airs on Mondays and Thursdays at 7 p.m., features topics of special interest to single people in our area. "Single Touch" clearly shows Kathy's concern that all people find a place for themselves in our communi-

A single parent herself, Kathy lives in Westbrooke subdivision with her daughter, Krista, 9, and son, Stephen, 8. Kathy's enthusiasm bubbles over when she looks you straight in the eye and says, "I love my neighbors!" She's vice president of the subdivision, coordinates the annual Neighborhood Walk at Christmas, and helps organize block parties in Westbrooke.

Kathy strongly encourages communication among neighbors.

"It's important to talk with your neighbors about more than just security programs such as Neighborhood Watch," Kathy says. "Neighbors should communicate for sharing and caring." When Kathy was divorced a while back, the strong bonds she shared with her neighbors convinced her to remain in Westbrooke.

IN ADDITION to all these activities, of course, Kathy has written this column every week. Her purpose here has been, in her own words, "to make everyone aware of the community services offered to all residents. They really are unlimited."

Kathy has more than fulfilled that purpose. Her words have informed us, and her example has encouraged us to get involved in our community. Not long ago, Kathy wrote in this column: 'We are Canton and we are proud." And we'd just like to add that Canton is especially proud to have residents like Kathy. As we say goodbye, and thanks, we wish her well in the new challenges she takes up. We do expect to hear from Kathy Freece again.

Meanwhile, I have to agree: The services in our community are unlimited. And because they are, Canton Chatter will continue to tell you about them. In the coming weeks you'll find here some familiar faces, some annual events, some traditions. But along the way you'll see new faces, new events, new perspectives on our community.

I've inherited from Kathy more than a deadline and a long list of phone numbers. I've inherited a responsibility to keep you informed and in touch with each other. And I take it up with enthu-

Shared responsibility shapes quality of life

Lent program has priest team

A major television news network recently devoted a series of programs to an examination of crime and the criminal justice system in America today. The broadcasters focused our attention on criminals, the police, the courts, the prisions, and the victims. Valuable suggestions were made and important insights were communicated on this subject to a large television audience.

But a significant issue was overlooked. When crimes are committed, a few are guilty, but all of us have a shared responsibility. This is more than the responsibility of the police, the courts, the institutions of detention, or the government. It is the responsibility of the good people, whose collective moral perspectives

Rabbi Irwin Groner

will shapes the quality of life for our society

Crime has become America's number one problem. It affects both the affluent and the poor, the city and the suburb, the older and the younger generations, whites and blacks.

Why are we closing down schools in Detroit, dismissing teachers, and re-are characterized by poverty, ignorance social pathology, and disease the breeding ground for crime.

Edmund Burke once wrote "All that is necessary for evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing." The greatest contribution we can make to the cause of violence and injustice is to do nothing, to refuse to assume any responsibility.

We live in a free society which, despite the current recession, is still the richest nation in the world.

Why are millions not employed when there is so much work to be done, when the core of our cities is a patchwork of blight, decay and ugliness? Why can we not take the energies, the capacities and the talents of the unemployed and rebuld our cities as the Germans and the Japanese rebuilt their cities after the destruction of the Second World War? One has yet to hear any political figure submit a bold program for revitalizing the great urban centers of America. Such a program would go a long way to reducing crime.

Our country has yet to deal with the most serious condition leading to crime the proliferation of handguns all over this land. In order to purchase sleeping pills, it is necessary to secure a physician's prescription. In order to purchase a gun, no explanations are necessary.

I believe that the will of the majority is for gun control legislation. That will is frustrated by two elements: first the intense, highly organized and well-financed efforts of the gun lobby; and second, the indifference and neglect of the majority who have not yet emphati-cally expressed their collective views to Congress.

Thus, the issue of crime touches the lives of all of us. The kind of city we want is one in which each citizen sees himself as part of a community of concerned people, devoted to the common good. Only that sense of shared responsibility will enable us to deal effectively with the problem of crime.

discussed at LIT How moral or Christian is Reaganomics? Is there room in a religion which preaches love, meekness and peace for the competitiveness of capitalism? These and other such questions will be explored by theologian, author and educator Michael Novak at a special seminar on "Christian Faith and Economic Systems," at Lawrence Institute of Technology Saturday, March

The day-long seminar will explore Novak's theories on the need for Christian sects to wholehartedly support the capitalistic system, rather than socialism or other economic doctrines. It will be held on the LIT campus, 21000 W. Ten Mile (near Northwestern) in Southfield and is open to clergy, the business community and students. The cost is $5 for clergy and students and $10 for the general public.

'Marat/Sade' drama fascinates The Actors Alliance Theatre Company production of "Marat/Sade"

by Peter Weiss continues at 8:30 p.m. Fridays-Saturdays and 6:30 p.m. Sundays through April 10 at Lucee International, 30800 Evergreen, Southfield. For reservations call the box office at 642-1326 from noon to 8 p.m. weekdays and until 9 p.m. Fridays-Saturdays.

By Cathie Breidenbach special writer

Peter Weiss intended that his play "Marat/Sade" sock you in the gut and at the same time turn your mind inside

"Marat/Sade" is brilliant theater. The play fuses thought and action, marries history to imagination and shapes review the whole with music and mime.

Anyone interested in serious drama will not want to miss the Actors Alliance Theater Company's excellent production of this bizarre masterpiece. But be forewarned. "Marat/Sade" is. not for the genteel of mind or heart.

The play catapults the audience into Charenton Asylum where the inmates, twitching, howling band of loonies, enact a play written by a fellow in-mate, the Marquis de Sade, infamous master of kinky sexual tortures. The play topples cherished traditions, attacks the church, assaults the foundations of government and morality and relentlessly exposes hypocrisy.

"MARAT/SADE" ASKS, what is a human being? "A mad, man animal," one inmate answers, as they re-enact terrors of the French Revolution.

De Sade watches his play from a velvet settee and engages from time to time in philosophical sword play with his main character Marat, who was a leader in the bloody French revolution.

Marat sits on stage nearly naked in his tin bathtub, waiting to be stabbed to death by Charlotte Corday.

This is a play within a play, and a nouveau-riche family from post-revolutionary France joins the modern audience. The family sits in satins and lace in a back row of the theater and watches crazies on stage clamor for revolution in De Sade's play. The ladies' ample bosoms quiver with excitement when there's torture and torment in the play, but when the mob rages against inequality they eat bonbons in smug complacency.

David Fox and his ample companions are wonderful as conspicuous consumers of another era.

IT'S HISTORICAL fact that Marat suffered from a psychosomatic skin disease which was soothed by constant bathing, and that he was murdered in his bathtub by Charlotte Corday. The historical De Sade was, in fact, committed to Charenton Asylum and produced plays which fashionable folk of the time attended.

In reality, Marat and De Sade never met, but Peter Weiss engineers their confrontation to put De Sade's philosophy of extreme individualism against Marat's activist socialism.

The tormented crazies at the asylum play the "poor who stay poor" and the uncompromising truths of history anchor philosophy to reality. This is not a talky dialectic play. Rather it's a maelstrom of activity, a dramatic happening with verse and mime and song.

Director John Urbinati expertly adapted the play to theater-in-theround for the Alliance Company.

There are 25 members in the excellent cast. William Paul Unger is a wonderful De Sade - jaded and compassionate at once. Carol Purdon is a lovely, if more refined than usual, Charlotte. M. Lee Burden is good, if not charismatic, as the paranoid inmate who plays Marat.

THE CRAZIES slobber and twitch grotesquely well, but they seem to act insane on cue rather than carry on like animals out of control. Perhaps the immediacy of theater-in-the-round demands that the crazies tone it down, but not so much as to lose the dangerous wildness that deliberately sets the audience on edge.

The music is good and always complements the story. Thanks to John Urbinati's good directing, the cast moves from drama to song effortlessly without the disruptive pause that signals a "musical number" in some plays. "Marat/Sade" is unsettling innovative theater, and praise goes to the Actors Alliance Theatre Company both for daring to produce it and for doing it so

How about Dean Martin and Ali 'MacGraw in the remake of "Casablan-'ca"? Nah, it probably wouldn't work. Dean, in fact, like Ali, must be considered one of the worst actors of all time, and three of Dino's films — "The Silencers," "Murderers' Row" and "The Ambushers" - make the list of all-time bad flicks. All are Matt Helm films, takeoffs on the James Bond pictures but with none of the personality or perspicacity of those genuine adventure thrillers. rated eighth in the country by one national publication. Any other predictions? Certainly - I'm full of them. I forsee the weather slowly warming until July and No, no, I mean basketball predictions. Like who's going to win the district tournaments in the O&E coverage area.

Now why would you want to ask me that? You realize, of course, that by the time this is published I'll probably be wrong already. And without even enough time to get out of town. Oh well, we gypsies have always been gamblers and life is full of gambles.

And gamblers who lose can forfeit their Salem's John Beaudoin. He won the state Class A 138-pound wrestling championship and went 49-0 for the year. Last year he won the state title at 132. He's lost only three matches in two years. Impressive. Anyone else?

I've always had a lot of sympathy for swimmers. It's really an impossible sport. Swimmers can't even see the guy they're supposed to beat in the water next to them. And if they do win their race, it may not be good enough. The clock is their real opponent.

Westland John Glenn proved to be too big an obstacle for Plymouth Canton to overcome in last night's district semifinal at Plymouth Salem.

Paul Grazulis, in particular, was the obstacle. Grazulis, a 6-foot-8 senior center, powered in a season-high 32 points to pace the Rockets to an 81-72 victory over the Chiefs.

In the second game of the district double-header, host team Salem pounded Northville for the third time this season, 61-36. Glenn, now 14-7, and Salem, 20-2, will meet for the district championship Friday at 7:30 p.m. "HE HASN'T DOMINATED a game like that all year," said Glenn coach Dan Henry of Grazulis' performance. "Definitely, it was his best game. What helped was that Canton had no one capable of guarding Grazulis. Canton's tallest starter was 6-

"We just couldn't match up with the big kid inside," said Canton coac was the key - our inability to match up.

Glenn's size advantage resulted in a rebounding advantage and a big lead by the time the fourth quarter rolled around. Grazulis and 6-5 forward Jack Walker combined for 16 of the Rockets' 27 first-quarter points as Glenn opened a 27-12 lead.

Glenn increased its advantage to 19 after three quarters and seemed to be in control. But the Chiefs kept coming back and twice in the fourth quarter surged to within seven. A 9-0 streak, sparked by Ron Rienas' six points, closed the gap to 72-65 with 3:13 to play

Rienas fouled out moments later, however, and

Schrader. The Rocks' defense and re-starter Jim Schlicker followed Rienas to the bench moments later as the Canton comeback fizzled.

"We couldn't stop their penetrating guards," said Van Wagoner. "I really wasn't happy with our defense in the first half. But we made a tremendous, gutty comeback.

Rienas' 17 points topped the Chiefs. Mark Bennett hit for 16 and Gary Thomas and Schlicker added a dozen apiece. Mike Scarpello had nine. Greg Gill and Walker netted 12 each for Glenn, with Todd Jennings scoring nine. IN THE SALEM contest, the Rocks were never threatened after a 10-0 surge midway through the second quarter. Salem led by four, 16-12, with 4:55 left in the opening half before the streak pushed the Rocks to a 26-14 halftime advantage. Their lead was never less than 12 the rest of the way

"Now we're in the district finals," said Salem coach Fred Thomann. "That's where we wanted to be at the beginning of the week.

"Now it's time to play hoops."

Thomann pointed to three things he felt Salem had to deal with in Friday's confrontation with Glenn: "No. 1, their big guy; No. 2, their quickness at guard, and No. 3, we have to neutralize their

Henry was "impressed with (Salem forward Glenn) Medalle. (Dave) Houle's really strong, everyone knows that. But what's really good is their bench. (Rick) Berberet and (John) Cohen are as good as anyone who starts."

The Rocks' win over Northville proved Henry's point Erich Hartnett (10 points), Jeff Arnold (10) and Cohen (eight) all contributed heavily off the bench. Houle topped Salem with 13. Bob Pegrum's 12 points was high for Northville.

A champion Beaudoin grabs title

By C.J. Risak staff writer

A year ago, Plymouth Salem's John Beaudoin surprised Eric Hubbard of Grand Blanc, 12-4, to win the state Class A 132-pound wrestling title. Hubbard was a defending champion, having won the 126 title the previous year.

This year, it was Beaudoin moving up a weight class, to 138. But there were no surprises. Not for Beaudoin. He capped a remarkable, record-breaking season with another state title last Saturday at Lansing Eastern.

Beaudoin's championship was insured when he edged Lansing Eastern's Mike Curley, 4-3, in the finals. That made Beaudoin's season record a perfect 49-0.

How did he do it? Simple.

"WORK," WAS Salem coach Ron Krueger's answer. "He's not afraid of work, not afraid to prepare himself.

"Last year, John and Bruce Bachman drove and worked each other hard every day. When Bruce graduated, John had to work even harder because there was no one there to push him

That included "running five miles when others ran two," Krueger said. "He did the extra things you have to do to be a champion. Some guys do just enough to get by, some do even

"He did everything you'd want a boy to do to be a champion."

John Beaudoin 2 state titles

Beaudoin, now a senior and a team captain, began his title run by knocking off Mt. Clemens' Dave Seybold, 6-3. He followed that by burying Tom Paveglio of Flint Kearsley, 13-0, and then pinned Rob Blitchok of Grandville in 3:55 to advance to the finals.

BEAUDOIN MOVED UP to 138, he said, because "I thought I could win at either weight and I felt stronger at 138."

The top six becomes the next objective. If a wrestler has the talent like Plymouth Salem's John Beaudoin - he'll go all the way to the top (see accompanying story).

Of course, there's only 13 weight classes so there can be only 13 winners. As Plymouth Canton coach Dan Chrenko said, "It's such a disappointment when they lose. Even when they've gone so far, you can't help but wonder, 'If the v'd won just one more match.

For Plymouth Salem coach Fred Thomann, the biggest worry concerning the Rocks' first-round state district game against Wayne Memorial Monday was how to get his team mentally ready.

After all, just two days earlier Salem had bested Livonia Stevenson for the Western Lakes Activities Association championship in an emotionfilled contest.

There was no time for celebration. A bad game and Salem was sidelined.

It took the Rocks awhile to get going, but a 9-0 spurt midway through the second quarter carried theme to a lead they never relinquished as they toppled Wayne, 64-50, at Salem.

"IT WAS REALLY hard from an emotional standpoint," said Thomann. "Some of the kids were pretty tired. I didn't think we were quite as. quick as we were Saturday."

Salem trailed, 15-13, after one quarter and Wayne had an 18-15 lead after four minutes of the

That's when the Rocks awoke behind strong play on the boards and a rugged defense. Baskets by John Cohen, Rick Berberet, Glenn Medalle and Dave Houle and a Medalle free throw gave Salem a 24-15 lead. The Zebras helped out by turning the ball over twice in the streak.

Wayne cut the deficit to six at the half (28-22), but the Rocks outpointed the Zebras 14-3 in a six-

Spartans explode for win

Churchill fire can't burn Stevenson

By Brad Emona staff writer

A familiar refrain among basketball coaches: "It's tough to beat a team three

But Livonia Stevenson did it Monday night in the first round of the Class A district with a 78-53 victory over host Livonia Churchill.

The Chargers, who bowed out with a 12-9 record, had all the incentives. They lost a one-point game in January followed by a 10-point loss to Stevenson last week in the Western Lakes playoffs.

Meanwhile, Stevenson was coming off a tough loss to Plymouth Salem in a league title game just two days earlier.

"Their kids came out sky-high," said Stevenson coach George Van Wagoner, "and we were down."

Churchill, looking inspired, carried the play for much of the first half.

The Chargers, however, lost the momentum in the final minute before intermission.

basketball

They were outscored 6-2 as Stevenson took advantage of a lane violation, a technical foul and an untimely personal foul. The Spartans led 36-29 at the half.

"THAT WAS a very critical part of the game," said Churchill coach Don Albertson. We lost our composure.

"It was a tempo-setter for them because they were in their delay-game (offense)." In the second half, Stevenson got its running game in gear, outscoring the Chargers 14-10 in the third quarter and 28-14 in the Bob Sluka, Stevenson's 6-foot-6 sophomore center, burned Churchill inside for 17 points and 12 rebounds. Four of his baskets came on offensive tins.

"Bob played super," said Van Wagoner.

John Merner, Churchill's 6-7 senior center, closed out his career with 15 points. Fellow senior Tim Luch, playing his best game of the season, tallied eight of his 10 points in the third quarter to keep the game Stevenson made 20 of 27 free throws compared with Churchill's one of three.

"That's a very important part of our offense, going to the free throw line," said Albertson. "One for three at the line - that

Vic Valente (Churchill)

Mike Dardini, competing in the 125pound open class, scored a unanimous decision last Saturday over Antoine Bell of Detroit Kronk in the semifinals held at Dearborn Fordson High School.

He will join teammates Sanjay Batra, a 147-pounder, and super-heavyweight Craig Payne in the Detroit-area finals, slated to begin at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at Oakland Community College.

"Mike looked really sharp and he beat a guy with five years' experience,' said LBC coach Paul Soucy.

THE LBC'S other hopeful, Matt Swift, lost a close decision in his 156pound semifinal match against John Baker of Detroit Martens Club.

"Matt may have been a little rusty because he hasn't fought since he hurt his hand at the Ohio State Fair," Soucy said. "But he'll be going to Cleveland for the National PAL Tournament (April 20-23)."

Dardini, Payne and Steve Darnell (156-pound division) will accompany Swift to the PAL event.

Saturday, Dardini will face another Kronk boxer, Myron Walker. Payne, the No. 2 ranked U.S. amateur heavyweight, takes on LaVon Banks of Detroit Powerhouse. And Batra meets Dougals Brown of Powerhouse.

Leonard on 700 binge

No official records are kept on such things, but Tom Leonard's streak of six 700 series this season at Bel-Aire Lanes is thought to be the best showing by a Detroiter in a single season. His sixth came last week when he rolled a 267 middle game and finished with a 737

Shamrocks surge to state crown

Seniors Jeff Alcala and Matt Raedle were the key figures Saturday as De-troit Catholic Central won its sixth Class A wrestling title under coach Mike Rodriguez before 6,000 fans at Lansing Eastern High School.

The two champions combined for more than half of their team's point total of 69. Mt. Clemens was second with 631/2. Hazel Park, the state's topranked team, finished fourth. And Temperance-Bedford, which beat out CC two weeks ago for the regional crown, gained eighth.

"At a pep assembly I told them that we'd win it," said Rodriguez, who guided the Shamrocks to championships in 1969-70-71-74-78. "We did it before with only four wrestlers. It was 1969."

Raedle, one of four CC state qualifiers, defeated Carl Kinkade of Waterford Township for the 185-pound title, 12-6. He finished the year with a 54-1

In a 3-2 semifinal win, Raedle snapped a 40-match winning streak held by Niles' Greg Logsdon. The CC wrestler, bound for Notre Dame, opened the tourney with an 8-4 win over Mike Tulip of Holt followed by his 29th pin of the year in 5:00 against Craig Brooks of Chippewa Valley.

ALCALA, meanwhile, rallied in his 155-pound match to beat Tim Hadley of Mt. Clemens, 11-8.

"He came off his back to beat him (Hadley)," Rodriguez said. "He was down 5-0 near the end of the first peri-

Alcala, who finished with a 36-3 record, also scored wins over Richard Pachert of Lansing Eastern, 11-7; Ken DeWitt of Holly, fall in 5:33; and Ken Lucas, Dearborn Edsel Ford, 3-2. He is leaning toward a wrestling career at Michigan State.

The third cog on CC's title machine was 112-pound junior Mike Palajac, who finished third. Both of His losses occurred against Birmingham Brother Rice's Todd Snooks by scores of 8-6 and 8-5, respectively.

PALAJACK, who finished at 40-12, scored wins over Dave Constantine of Anchor Bay, 9-3; Al Wall of Clarkston, 7-2, John Young of Clio, 9-2; and Deron Mellinger of Portage Northern, pin in

A fourth CC qualifier, 145-pound junior Mike DiManno, won one of three matches. He decisioned Joe Kaplan of Bloomfield Hills Andover, 6-1.

Rodriguez now shares the record for most state titles by a coach - six with Don Johnson, now the principal at Lansing Eastern.

"Don was a fantastic, super person," said Rodriguez. "I wrestled against him in high school. "I'm going to try to beat his record next year.

KEVIN RICHARDSON, Garden City's standout, reached the finals of the heavyweight division before losing to Tim Ridinger of Hazel Park, 7-1.

En route to the finals, Richardson defeated Steve Kieras of Grand Rapids Creston, 5-4; Dana Robinson of Clintondale, pin in 5:58; and Andy Helka of Holly, by default.

Westland John Glenn's Robb Paciocco, a senior, won four of five matches to place third at 145 pounds. He won his first match by default and then gave West Bloomfield's highly regard Bob Petrillo'all he could handle before falling, 6-4.

Paciocco then ripped off wins against Howard Hopkins of Lansing Sexton, 6-2; Adam Siedlicki of Bedford, 5-2 (overtime); Marty Schnepp of Holt, 10-4; and Harold Brenizer of Hazel Park, 9-2. The Glenn senior finished with a 46-6 record.

Glenn's two other qualifiers, Don Forchione (155) and Tom Gibson (105), each won a match but did not place.

"We're very happy with these three," said Glenn coach Tom Buckalew. "Both Robb and Don had over 100 wins in their career and Tom finished with 99."

Another 105-pounder, Paul Doulette of Livonia Bentley, did not place as did teammate Abe Yaffai at 119.

, Tom Walkley (198) also "did a real nice job," according to Rock coach Ron Krueger. In his first match, Walkley faced Pat Whitcomb of Grandville and was pinned in 4:58. Whitcomb went on to win the state title.

Walkley then won three straight matches. He pinned Ken Graham of Walkley emerged with an impressive 7-6 victory. Holly's Craig Gisse was the Salem wrestler's next foe and Walkley won, 7-2.

His streak ended there, however. Against Sterling Heights Henry Ford's Mike Burns, Walkley lost, 8-4. He finished sixth by falling to Flint Northwestern's John Borrice, Rick Vershave (98) lost two straight matches for the Rocks. Jeff Boismyer of Davison pinned Vershave in 1:47 and Todd Horne of Troy bested him, 5-2.

John Woochuk (155) faced Scott Carango of Portage Northern in his first match and was pinned in 3:20. Bay City Western's Kurt Ruterbusch then edged Woochuk, 2-1.

CANTON'S TIM COLLINS met Mark White of Mt. Clemens in the first round and lost, 8-6. White went all the way to the finals before los-

Collins followed his loss by walloping Jerry Frenner of Clio, 16-5. His next match was his last, however, as Collins lost to Mike Feiba of East Kentwood, 5-1.

Canton's Todd Bartlett (112) met with much the same fate. Bartlett was pinned by eventual state champ William Walters of Flint Northern

His record backed his claim. During the season, he beat the 132 champion, Harold Thompson of Mt. Clemens, and the wrestlers who finished second and third in the division. He also beat all but one of the top six in the 138 class.

"He was much more committed this year than last," Krueger said. "He was the underdog last year. This year, he was the state champ and the pressure was on him to repeat.

"He made up his mind what he was going to do and he did it."

One of his goals was to set the Salem school record for match wins in a season. To do it, Beaudoin knew he would have to win 49, or all, of his matches. He did, beating the mark of 48 set by Jim Schultz in 1979 and equalled by Bachman last year.

HIS CAREER MARK is a sparkling 106-9. He was 46-3 a year ago and 11-6 as a sophomore. He's the only Salem wrestler to ever win a state title.

His prep career over, the question now is what college to take his talent to?

I'I'd like to wrestle in the Big 10 and I want to stay in state," Beaudoin said, thereby narrowing his choices to Michigan and Michigan State. "I really haven't thought about it much. I've been concentrating on the state meet."

"Which means there's lots of hard work ahead. Right, John?

"Yeah," he answered. "It's not over yet."

'Irish' to celebrate at Molly McGuire's

By Ethel Simmons staff writer

Picture Molly McGuire's. It's an Irish pub and more, with English Tudor decor - a million-dollar funplace in the family-tavern style. Grand opening is on St. Patrick's Day, Thursday, March 17, as a benefit for Easter Seals.

Ken Lux, who is a partner with Dario Tomei, in this new venture, said Molly McGuire's opened at the first of the year. The restaurant-lounge is at 34290 Ford Road (actually on Marquette), Westland, just down the street from Tomei's other business properties, the Coliseum Racquet Club and the Forum Health Spa.

Lux said, "We tried to create a fun place to come to, whether you're age 25 or 50." The name Molly McGuire's was picked, partly, because "Irish pubs are synonymous with good times."

The casual atmosphere welcomes patrons in sportswear, as well as in business clothes. Total seating is 400, with a bar and grill seating 170 and four dining areas seating 230.

THE INTERIOR has high beamed ceilings and nostalgic signs and other memorabilia. There's lot of stained and beveled glass, some of it from old churches in the Detroit area. Old-fashioned, frosted glass lighting fixtures and chandeliers help set the mood.

To appeal to dining patrons, Molly McGuire's has engaged Ernie De Michele as executive chef. Lux said he hired De Michele away from Gianapolis at 12 Mile and Middlebelt.

Menu changes are being planned, to suit the new

"The food is moderately priced," Lux said. Beef, seafood and Italian dishes are featured. "We try to get, as much as possible, seafood fresh. Pastries

By Jack R. Bell special writer

When Sarah Roth Cleveland appears with the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra as guest cello soloist Sunday, it will be another musical milestone in an unusual association with the orchestra for a Livonia-based family.

Cleveland is principal cellist with the Toledo Symphony, but she began her career with the Plymouth Symphony.

And so did her six brothers and sisters, all following in the musical footsteps of their father and mother, William and Louise Roth of Livonia.

How did all of this musical blossoming for a single family come about?

"I HAVE TO blame it entirely on Father, the teacher," Louise Roth said. She explained that she was an "Army brat" when she met her future husband in Florida, where she was a voice major in college.

William Roth was teaching music in the Florida system, and chance brought them together for various musical programs she as a bass violist and he as a violist.

"Then I went to play in the Florida West Coast Symphony," Louise said, "and there

Louise, who plays the bass viol, is still with the Plymouth Symphony, an affiliation that goes back seven or eight years.

William, 62, and now retired, had a long career as a violist and violinist and as a public school orchestra director and was a violist with the Plymouth orchestra for six

Two others of the family are with the Plymouth Symphony now. Paul, 20, is princinal cellist. Edwin, 18, is in the first violin section. Paul also plays the guitar, favoring rock and progressive jazz at the moment.

IN ADDITION to Louise Roth and her two sons currently playing in the orchestra, to carol. With our combination of voices, we there are a married daughter, Eleanor Bursill-Hall, 28, now playing violin with the San Diego Symphony; a son Charles, 25, of Ann Arbor, who was principal second violinist in Plymouth and now is associate concertmaster of the Toledo Symphony; Peter, a cellist who was in the orchestra through high school; another daughter, Irene, 22, also a violinist, now majoring in architecture at fond of each other," Louise said. the University of Michigan; and Sarah, next Sunday's soloist.

The three oldest children - Eleanor, Sarah and Charles - were born in Florida. The four other children were born in Michigan when the family moved to Livonia and a new school music position for the father.

William Roth, with a master's degree in violin, became orchestra director at South Redford High School. He had a number of violin students, mostly his own children, except for a few master's students he took on.

The Roth offspring began their music lessons when they were in the fifth grade.

"IN LIVONIA, they start music in the fifth grade," Louise said, "and we had our other than their exceptional musical talent. children start with the others. If they wanted to begin a little in the summer before, my husband worked with them, but he felt there wasn't really any sense in running them too far ahead of what was going on in school '

Natural ability and a carefully developed interest in music, reflecting a strong parental influence, brought the Roth youngsters along quickly. By the time they were high schoolers, they were playing well enough to become members of the Plymouth Symphony. Everyone was with the orchestra at least three years, and some of them four.

In their growing-up years at home, the Roth children, with their parents, made more music together vocally than instrumentally, although there were times, says the mother, when there were instrumental quartets playing in the living room. "That was very nice, and what a thrill

"When they were all home," she said, "we used to sing, because they all sang a lot. We did sing some choral music together, but we never performed together, other than go out could put out eight-part music."

NOW WHEN the Roth clan assembles, which is infrequently, there's so much to catch up on, it's talk, talk, talk rather than music, music, music.

"They're a close corporation and very

Individually, for most of the Roths, the music goes on. Sarah Cleveland, Sunday's soloist, has been married 31/2 years. She and her husband, John, who is manager of Northville Charley's restaurant, have a 20month-old son. She commutes from their Ypsilanti home to Toledo for her role as principal cellist with the Toledo Symphony.

Cleveland is a graduate of the University of Michigan where she studied with Samuel H. Mayes. She also is active in the Amati String Quartet.

Her older sister, Eleanor Bursill-Hall, 28, who is the violinist with the San Diego Symphony, is married to that orchestra's principal flute player, Damien Bursill-Hall.

The Roths have something in common That is physical height.

LOUISE ROTH IS 6 feet tall, a height that can't help but be an asset when it comes to toting around and playing a bass viol or lugging stacks of music as the Plymouth Symphony's librarian.

Son, Peter, 24, who is sous chef at the Renaissance Club in Detroit, stands 6 feet 8 inches, to hold honors as the tallest of the family. Edwin, the 18-year-old who is known as "Buck," is 6 feet 7 inches tall. Paul, also known as "Duke," is 6 feet 2, as are Sarah and Irene. Charles who is the Toledo Symphony's concertmaster, is 6 feet 4. and he is to be married in May. Eleanor is the shortest of the seven children at 5 feet
