The Real McCoy

It's not a toy steam shovel that fascinates Jim Furgiuele — It's the real thing. The 2-year-old spent some time recently watching the giant machine dig up dirt near Ann Arbor Trail and the C&O railroad tracks in Plymouth. The "Big Digger" was doing some sewer hook-up work for Plymouth Trail Condominiums.

Youth on runway scare motorists driving on Joy

By Jean Adamczak
staff writer

Chris McGurrin refuses to drive past Mettetal Airport. "I will not go down there past the runway anymore," McGurrin said adamantly. "I will go under, over or around it, but I will not go near it." McGurrin's comments come after a "terrifying" incident she witnessed recently on a Thursday afternoon.

'I thought to myself, "If you guys are playing chicken, this is an awful stupid stunt and a good way to get someone killed."

—Chris McGurrin
Canton resident

According to McGurrin, she was alone in her car at the intersection of Lilley and Joy roads, when she noticed a plane coming in for a landing at Mettetal Airport on Lilley in Canton.

Then, to her horror, she also saw three young boys on bicycles in the middle of the runway.

"I thought I was watching a disaster happen before my eyes," McGurrin said. "I laid on my horn to alert the boys — I don't think they even knew the plane was coming down."

The boys finally moved, but McGurrin said they might have been "playing chicken" with the plane.

"I thought to myself, 'If you guys are playing chicken, this is an awful stupid stunt and a good way to get someone killed,'" McGurrin said.

"I don't know what they were doing, but they sure scared the hell out of me."

Now if McGurrin wants to go to a market she frequents on Joy Road, she takes the expressway.

"I won't go past that runway again," said McGurrin, a Canton mother of three boys.

McGurrin said she called the airport to complain, but the man she talked to "just passed it off."

"The runway is just wide open, I imagine anyone can get to it," McGurrin said. "I don't know who is responsible for that, but something should be done about it."

WHEN CONTACTED by the Observer, Helen Mettetal, wife of the airport's owner replied:

"Children can get on the runway from anywhere — from Joy Road. We're here all the time, there is no way kids could get on the runway without us seeing them."

Mettetal added they do not condone the actions of the children, but that she does not know what else to do.

When asked about McGurrin's call to the airport, Mettetal denied hearing any complaints about children on the runway. "I'm the owner's wife, and I never heard of any kids on the runway. We never had any complaints from anyone, and we are the only airport listed in the book."

"That's a pile of baloney," surprised McGurrin replied. "I called them and talked to a man but I neglected to get his name."

Yet McGurrin feels her time complaining was well spent. "Complaining was a worthwhile cause, if it will keep the kids off the runway."

McGurrin is not the only person to witness such an incident. Sandy Preblich, another Canton resident, witnessed a similar incident concerning two children on bicycles on the airport's runway.

"It was frightening," Preblich said. "A pet peeve of mine is that parents don't often know where their children are, and in this case that is especially true."

"I find the fault with the kids who were there — they should understand certain things like you don't play around on airport runways," Preblich said.

"It would be terrible if, God forbid, something did happen to a child out there."

Yet Preblich hates to see the quaintness of the airfield ruined by fences. "It's very accessible right now. It's a nice place for families to sit and watch the airplanes land and take off."

"It's up to the parents to control their children."

Suit pending over tainted gas

By Gary M. Cates
staff writer

Repair bills top $500

The former owner of the Union 76 Station at Plymouth and Levan roads may be the subject of a class action suit initiated by the Michigan Attorney General's Office.

The attorney general sent a notice of intended action Tuesday to Leon Stone in regard to the sale of tainted gasoline.

Stone, who sold the station to Kelly Oil, could not be reached for comment Tuesday.

The unleaded gasoline in question reportedly was sold at the station between March 4 and 14. Motorists who bought the bad gas suffered damage to their engines, with repair bills starting at $500.

According to the Wayne County Air Pollution Control Unit, the gas contained an unacceptable level of gum, which when burned would damage fuel intake valves.

The federal Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) also is conducting testing of the fuel but hasn't released any results as of Tuesday.

"We likely will issue something in the next week or so," said Richard Akerman, of the EPA's Washington D.C. office.

Stone, who owns a chain of stations under the Thrifty Gas Stations name, was cited earlier this year by the EPA on eight counts of having excessive amounts of methanol alcohol in his fuel and five counts of excessive amounts of ethanol alcohol. He faces fines of more than $100,000 on those counts.

Akerman said the EPA again is looking into the possibility of civil action in regard to the bad gasoline sold in March.

STONE WILL have 10 days to contact the state attorney general's office before a class action suit is authorized, according to Fred Hoffecker, an assistant attorney general.

"It is our belief that the sale violated the Consumer Protection Act," Hoffecker told the Observer Tuesday.

He said some 40 to 50 complaints about the gas sale have been lodged with the attorney general's consumer protection division. Stone reportedly has referred requests for damage reimbursement to his insurance company — American States Insurance.

"It is a belief that the insurance company is hedging that triggered our action," Hoffecker said.

A spokesman for the insurance company, Paul Melnik, told the Observer Tuesday that the company is waiting for test results before settling any claims.

"We are waiting for some chemist to tell us whether the product caused the damage," Melnik said. "We can't pay without documentation. If the tests confirm that we are at fault, we will be happy to pay."

Melnik said he received EPA results but that "it didn't nail it down." The EPA's Akerman told the Observer no one has received test results from his agency.

Melnik said motorists waiting for reimbursement should continue to "hang onto their bills until the proof comes in."

Hoffecker said a class action suit could be avoided if Stone contacts the attorney general's office and agrees to work out an administrative settlement.

County officials earlier said motorists who sustained damage to their vehicles because of the bad gas should retain proof of their purchase, proof of repairs, and a statement from the mechanic that the gasoline was suspected of causing the damages.

Police seek young girl in arson

By M.B. Dillon Ward
staff writer

Police are looking for a 12-14-year-old girl, suspected in the arson of a Lotz Road residence May 17.

Herbert Wilson, who lives at 1334 S. Lotz Road with his wife Ann, said neighbors spotted the girl riding a bike away from the scene — gazing back at the house as she pedaled — about 30 minutes before they saw flames shooting from the windows.

By the time firefighters arrived, the entire house was ablaze. No one was home when the fire broke out in the family room area, and no injuries were reported. Damage was estimated at up to $80,000.

WHILE FIREFIGHTERS suspect arson, they still were awaiting laboratory test results from the Michigan State Police at press time. Samples were taken from the house, but firefighters were unable to say what accelerants might have been used, if any.

According to Wilson, the suspect is responsible for several breaking and enterings, and perhaps fires, in the neighborhood between Cherry Hill and Palmer Roads just east of I-75. Several residents have reported seeing the girl over the last several months, usually on Wednesday and Thursday mornings.

Wilson, a teacher with Wayne-Westland schools, was sleeping at about 10:30 one Wednesday morning during the Easter break when he awoke to find "she actually had come right in my house."

"I heard some rustling in my office, and got up," he said.

"I heard kind of an 'eek' and she ran off. By the time I got to my front door, she was 150 yards away. But she stopped, and looked right at me. It was peculiar because she didn't try to run away." The youngster wore an "expressionless look" on her face.

WILSON SAID the girl, who has "blondish-brown hair, wears glasses and stands five foot two or three," was implicated in two other neighborhood incidents the same day.

Bruce Wilson, a neighbor but no relation to Wilson, said $500 in coins, and Easter candy was taken from his house that Wednesday.

A 94-year-old woman who lives next door said the girl climbed a locked and chained fence to get to her door the same day. "(The girl) thought no one was home. But the lady answered the door, and the girl asked whether they needed any cleaning done," he said. "(The woman) watched her leave and climb back over the gate."

WILSON BELIEVES the girl was in his house once before. He and his wife missed a cup of coins from atop a desk, found a bag of chocolate chips stuck in the rug, and discovered some small packaged toys ripped open and left on a bed when they got home from work one Wednesday last February, he said. Wilson didn't report the incident to police until later because he thought "it was such a weird thing, it's stupid to bother police with silly things," he said. Ann Wilson once saw the youngster face-to-face when the girl, whose name is unknown to the neighbors, appeared on her porch. "She asked 'Is Michelle home?'" recalled Wilson, who has no children. "I think she was casing the place."

A neighbor encountered the girl in his barn recently.

"My neighbor said she claimed she was 'just passing through,'" said Wilson, who is living in a motel until he can move into a mobile home on his lot and have his house rebuilt.

AFTER A time, neighbors realized "she's got a pattern. She's usually around, riding her bike, between 9 a.m. and noon on Wednesdays and Thursdays. Every break-in around here has been on those days, and the fire was at that time," Wilson added. "She's at an age when she should be in school. She's a truant from someplace."

Canton Detective Eddie Tanner confirmed "we have a person over there, about 18 or 14. At this point we're trying to find out who she is, but we can't trace much of anything. It's sort of a Thursday deal."

Tanner has enlisted help from school officials, asking them to see "what schools in the area might have reason for someone to be out on Thursday." Tanner also has requested that administrators check attendance records for someone consistently absent on Thursdays. Middle school students from the area attend Lowell Middle School.

Lowell School Principal Pat Patton said Friday she had "no direct" knowledge of the inquiry. District Attendance Officer Shirley Waters was unavailable for comment.

"Everyone out there (in Wilson's neighborhood) is advised to call us immediately if they see something. We'll be searching the area on Thursdays," Tanner added.

IN WILSON'S LAUNDRY room, the only room not totally destroyed in the fire, firefighters found glass candle holders and a candle stick on the dryer.

"We always kept those on the center of the dining room table. But they were set on the dryer with a big wax candle in between them. I didn't move them, and neither did my wife," said (Herbert) Wilson. "It's just so weird."

Police are trying, with some difficulty because of the soot, to lift fingerprints from the candlesticks, Tanner said.

WILSON CONTACTED police and the Observer because he fears the next fire the girl starts may result in a death.

"People ought to know about her. The next thing she'll do is burn down a home with someone in it, and kill them. There are quite a few senior citizens living around here who would never get out," said Wilson, who suspects the girl is responsible for the repeated burning of a nearby condominium and house.

"Maybe there are others who've missed change and other things from around the house. If these people would think about it, maybe they'd realize, 'God, it was a Wednesday or Thursday when that happened.'"

Red tape cut for industrial park

Companies wanting a tax break to settle into Metro West Industrial Park now have less red tape to go through.

Following a public hearing May 22, the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees voted unanimously to declare the entire 164-acre park an industrial development district under Public Act 198. The park is north of M-14 off Sheldon.

"This eliminates one step in a two-step process," said Township Supervisor Maurice Breen. "They're not automatically getting a tax break. Companies still have to go through the second step."

NOW THAT the entire park has been declared an industrial development district, companies only have to go through the process of getting a facilities exemption, Breen said.

This simplifies the process of granting property tax incentives to companies wanting to settle in the park, which has been under development since April 1982 by Robert DeMattis. The park has more than 100 sites awaiting development, with about seven sites developed.

Township trustees passed a resolution in 1982 declaring the park a district, but never held the public hearing necessary to make the declaration legal. State law requires that municipalities grant properties industrial development status before tax abatements are given.

Winners' circle

A Central Middle School student won the Sunshine Honda Spring Art Festival Contest sponsored by the Plymouth Community Arts Council (PCAC). Grant Carmichael of Clemons Drive, Plymouth, was named student winner in the contest, which had three categories. Both Grant and his school will receive $100 awards. John Krieger of Burroughs Street, Plymouth, was named winner in the exhibitor category while former Plymouth resident Wilma Halliburton won in the open category. Both Krieger and Halliburton won $200. Pictured are: Carmichael (left); Terry Bixler, Sunshine contest coordinator; Krieger; and David Sandow, Sunshine Honda general manager.

Fund's own logo enhances campaign

A new local design and a new computer are expected to boost participation in the 1985 Plymouth Community Fund/United Way fall campaign.

Planning meetings are under way for a drive which is expected to kick off earlier this year, according to 35th District Court Judge James Garber who is campaign chairman of this year's fund-raising effort.

Debuting this week is a new logo to publicize the Plymouth Community Fund's campaign. The logo was developed to give the Community Fund a greater identity, said Kristene Rautio, fund vice chairwoman.

A new computer at the Community Fund offices is expected to make this year's campaign the most efficiently run one yet. Daniel LeBlond is in charge of programming the computer which will provide campaign workers with useful historical information and an up-to-the-minute reporting capability.

BPW backs Mary Brooks

The Plymouth Business and Professional Women (BPW) organization recently voted to endorse the candidacy of Mary A. Brooks for Plymouth Township Treasurer.

Marilyn Allmipich, who earlier that evening succeeded Joanne Delaney as president of the BPW, said the motion to endorse Brooks was made by Barbara Yorch and seconded by Carol Levitte. The motion was approved without dissent.

Medical equipment, supply store opens

By W.W. Edger staff writer

There is a new business in the center of the downtown area and its window display is something which attracts the eye.

It is the medical center with displays all sorts of equipment and aids to the stricken and crippled.

This new attraction is directly across the street from First Federal Savings and Loan. And it is an odd sight to see such things as hospital beds with brass tops, the latest style walkers, even motor vehicles and all sorts of aids to those in need.

The new business is not strange to the owner, Mary Jane Dillon, a registered nurse who has operated the Simply Oxygen Inc. on Pine Tree in Plymouth for the past 3 1/2 years.

The new center now is stocked with all things needed to help the stricken and is staffed with trained nurses, and as Dillon phrased it, "We want to give this business a real high class appearance."

In taking over the space formerly occupied by Armbruster Bootery she altered the entire interior and went to the expense of having rugs on the floor.

"I WANTED everything high class for I want to give the people of Plymouth the best there is." And pointing to the brass hospital bed, she asked, "Did you ever see anything like this before?"

Dillon is well-trained for the business.

Registered as a member of the American Respiratory Therapists, she has served as a director at Mount Carmel Hospital and a coordinator at the University of Detroit. She has served in this area for 13 years and has a bachelor of science degree in respiratory therapy.

Aside from this she has an extensive background in respiratory care education. Her experience as an emergency room nurse, surgical nurse and health care gives her a solid background.

When the new medical center gets going she also plans to open a school to teach therapy and have her own classes right in the heart of the downtown district.

"I have been looking for an ideal place downtown and now I have found it. The location couldn't be better — between Henry Ford Hospital clinic and St. Joseph medical clinic when it opens next to the Central Parking Lot.

"I have always loved Plymouth, and now I am in a position to show my appreciation right in the heart of the city."

DR. JAMES SCHLESBERG, PODIATRIST

ROOTING OUT CORNS

QUESTION: I have been using a liquid corn remover to get rid of my corns, but they keep coming back in the same place. Does that mean I haven't gotten down to the root?
ANSWER: Neither corns nor calluses have roots under the skin. They are simply layers of compressed dead skin cells. However, the pressure of this hard mass on sensitive tissue can be painful, giving the impression that they are deeply embedded.
Corns and calluses are caused by friction and pressure. They are nature's way of protecting sensitive areas. The reason that they grow back in the same place is that the cause of the irritation has not been eliminated. If you wish to "root out" the problem once and for all, you should seek help from a podiatrist.

Flower, garden festival has exhibits, entertainment

A Garden City tradition will resume this weekend when the annual Flower and Garden Festival will be held, complete with three days of free, live entertainment, sidewalk sales, parade, fun runs, arts/crafts exhibits and flea market.

The event, also known as the Spring Festival, will be expanding this weekend from the Garden Plaza downtown corner to nearby business sections on Ford and Middlebelt.

An added feature this weekend will be displays of new cars, vans and recreational vehicles from area auto dealers, plus children's rides.

NEARLY 60 arts and crafts exhibitors have registered for the event, which starts at 3 p.m. Friday and continues all day Saturday and noon to 5 p.m. Sunday.

To help spruce up the traditional name of the festival, at least eight members of the Metro Detroit Growers Association will have quantities of flowers on hand.

The festival is sponsored by a committee of the Garden City Chamber of Commerce and includes members of the chamber's board and other community groups.

The festival was begun in 1981 to make people more aware of the improvements and changes in the Ford-Middlebelt business section.

Hours of the festival are 3-9 p.m. Friday, 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday and noon to 5 p.m. Sunday.

To help promote the public's awareness of the festival, businesses have bought the first batch of colorful banners to be displayed this week and throughout the festival from utility poles along Ford and Middlebelt. The live entertainment will be on a portable stage directly behind the Silver Bowling Lanes, on the northwest corner of Ford-Middlebelt, and is for persons of all ages.

THE FLEA market will have 15 tables open for bargain-hunters on the east side of Middlebelt, one block north of Ford, Saturday and Sunday.

The parade, scheduled for 11 a.m. Saturday, will include the Garden City High School marching band, which is scheduled to return the previous night from its week-long trip to Colorado.

The parade will start at Moeller Field, north and west of Ford-Middlebelt, and proceed east on Ford to Middlebelt and north to the high school parking lot.

The popular fun runs will start at 8:30 a.m. Saturday directly behind Garden City city hall, 6000 Middlebelt.

THERE WILL be routes of one mile, 3.1 miles and a one-mile walk for older persons and the less-ambitious.

All entrants will receive a T-shirt. The event, sponsored by the school district's community and adult education department, will have ribbons awarded to the top three finishers in each age and sex category.

Merchants will have tables outside their stores to display sale items. Community service groups will have food booths.

The auto displays will be behind Garden City Auto Parts on the northwest side of Ford-Middlebelt and in front of Pearle Vision Center, on the northeast corner.

Music, dancers, part of festival

A full schedule of free, live entertainment is planned for the Garden City Flower and Garden Festival to be held this weekend.

Entertainment chairwoman Sue Diecher said there will be entertainment for all ages on a portable stage directly behind the Silver Lanes bowling alley, on the northwest corner of Ford and Middlebelt.

The Friday schedule opens at 5 p.m. with Artattack, a rock band, followed by a demonstration by the Wayne-Garden City Karate Studio at 7 p.m.; a fashion show "extravaganza" with music by Hair Hut employees at 7:15 p.m.; and "Sweet Surrenders," a group performing the top 40 songs.

The fun will resume at 11 a.m. Saturday with the fourth annual festival parade, to start at Moeller Field and proceed along Ford and Middlebelt to Garden City High School's parking lot.

merely known as Boucher and consists mainly of Garden City musicians led by Garden City's Dean Boucher.

The karate studio is run by a husband-and-wife team, Ron and Chris Rose. They will demonstrate self-defense techniques. The couple teaches classes at Maplewood Community Center.

The Hair Hut fashion show with music was a popular feature of the past three years' festival entertainment. Fashion will reflect the modern, total look incorporating hair, makeup and clothes.

Sweet Surrender features Bev Holcomb, a former Miss Livonia, as the lead singer.

The Untouchables will make their debut in the festival Saturday after they were rained out last spring.

The Leo Dance Studio will have its outstanding young students performing under the direction of Pat Edwards, her daughter, and their staff.

The Shindiggers is an energetic group of square dancers of all ages with Les Watson doing the calling.

Tommy Trash is a unique presentation of rock and roll by four musicians. Hogwild consists of Ken Schottling on the guitar, harmonica, and the vocal; Mark Stanger on lead guitar and vocals; John Feiler on the bass guitar and vocals and drummer Mike Smith.

The group plays class and top 40 selections from the 1950s and '60s. The musicians have performed in Garden City and downtown clubs as well as the Garden City Jaycees' fall festival.

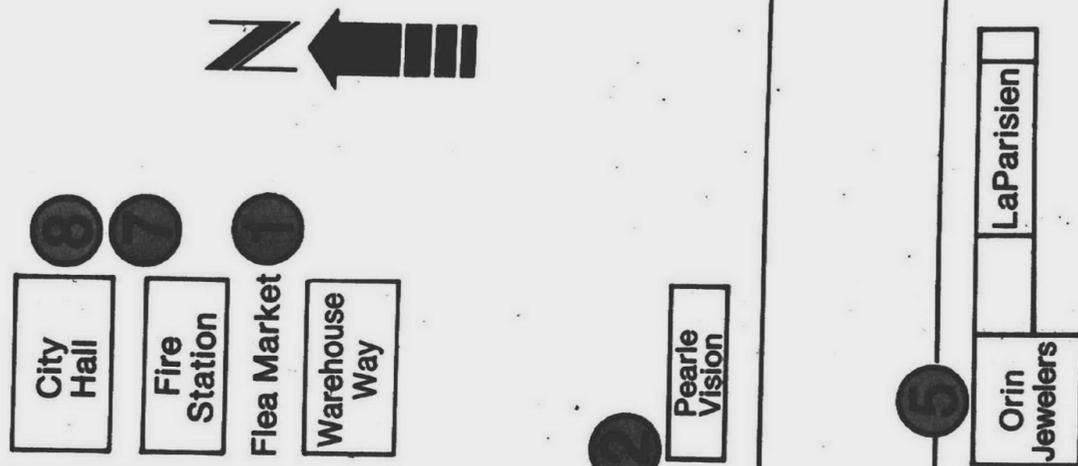

A sure sign of spring is this sign to tell about the Garden City Flower and Garden Festival, scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Ford-Middlebelt business section.

Marie Karwan, Garden City High School senior, designed this Flower and Garden Festival poster which will be placed in the division in a celebratory contest.

Plymouth had street-car ordinance in 1917

(Part 2)

Harry C. Robinson, livery stable owner and auctioneer, became president of the Village of Plymouth on April 16, 1916. He served two terms.

A look at the accomplishments of his administration, and at some of the problems it faced more than 60 years ago, helps to explain why we are what we are today.

During Robinson's tenure, the village gave up producing its own electricity, laid cement sidewalks throughout the community, paved several streets, took steps to improve the fire alarm system, opened Forest Avenue and passed an ordinance regulating headlights on street cars and automobiles.

THE PLAN TO sell the village-owned electric-light plant and property to Detroit Edison for $50,000 was approved by an overwhelming number of voters.

As part of the agreement, Detroit Edison was to provide lighting for the village streets, to contract with the village for the use of land for a village jail and to maintain the fire alarm.

Cement sidewalks were installed at Robinson's urging. Penniman Avenue, Union and Depot streets were paved with concrete, but not without some opposition. C.A. Fisher, president of the Plymouth United Savings Bank, headed a group of property owners who objected to the paving of Penniman because the council decreed that two-thirds of the cost be assessed against lots abutting the street.

IN JULY of the same year, the council moved to construct Forest Avenue through the properties of Augustus and Maggie Schaufele and George and Louise Jackson.

At the same meeting, the fire department was given permission to use the streets and village water for its Gala Day water battle. On another matter, the street commissioner was instructed to put some lime in Tonquish Creek. The problems of pollution are not of recent vintage.

Plymouth got its first ice-skating rink in December 1916 when the council granted permission to the Ladies Literary Club (now the Woman's Club) to use village water without charge to flood a part of the school park for a skating pond for school children.

In January 1917 President Robinson accepted, in behalf of the village, the Harry E. Bradner war memorial which was placed in Kellogg Park. The council also voted to erect a water tower in the park at the rear of the Presbyterian Church as part of the village water system.

HARRY ROBINSON, busy with his village presidential duties, his livery stable, his race track activities and his auctioneering engagements, still had time for a variety of civic activities.

A lover of sports, he organized the Plymouth Businessmen's Baseball team. In his obituary in 1948, the Plymouth Mail noted that the team "season after season captured the championship honors in southeastern Michigan. Its trips for games in nearby communities became almost a holiday event in the towns where the players went."

Robinson, a charter member of the past and present

Sam Hudson

Plymouth Rotary Club, conducted Rotary's yearly Christmas sales for the benefit of needy children. When he died, the eight pall-bearers were all charter members and past presidents of the club.

Robinson also was a charter member of the Newsboy Goodfellows organization of both Detroit and Plymouth. He was the first president of the Plymouth Goodfellows.

The Robinsons lived on Penniman Avenue in the house where Dr. Elmore Carney later had his office. The Robinson Livery was next door.

Later, they moved their residence to Bradner where Don and Marion Sober now live. Harry, who loved Plymouth, was amazed when he got his first tax bill and discovered that he now lived in Northville Township.

Robinson's last business venture was a second-hand furniture store. It was first located on Penniman Avenue, then on Main Street, opposite where Kroger's now is located. After Robinson's death, it became Bullard's. The Charlestown Square Shopping center now is being built on the site.

We must live with the mud we sling

When a fellow is enjoying every minute of his life, whether it be while he is sitting in his easy chair at home, working the flower and vegetable beds in the backyard or just pulling weeds, it is rather strange that he should be wishing part of his life away.

Yet, that's what is happening to The Stroller who throws down the morning paper at the breakfast table and wishes that election day was yesterday.

He has lived through many Presidential election campaigns, but none seems to upset him more than the verbal battle between the three candidates on the Democratic slate who are now touring the country throwing mud at each other.

When he reads these tirades each morning, he can't help but wish that not any one of these three is successful in his bid for residence in the White House.

If such a thing should happen, after these slurs slung at each other, one can't help think that we will have a President with a dirty face.

WHEN THESE campaigns were inaugurated it was with the idea that a candidate could appear before the American people and sell his program — not to knock down his rival. Yet, that is what is happening.

And it will get worse when the two candidates are named to go down the stretch to election day in November. That's when real mud-slinging will fill the papers and the air. And one of the real questions coming out of the present campaign is why have a Democratic convention if Walter Mondale, the former vice president, gets enough delegates on his side before the big meet opens in San Francisco?

When that session opens, the big issue will have been settled — unless there is some mind changing before the opening gavel falls. So, it does seem like a waste of time to hold it at all, except to attract tourists to the Fish Market and the cable cars out on the Pacific coast.

Well The Stroller recalls a Republican Convention years ago in Philadelphia when Wendell Wilkie was named as the candidate to face FDR. His name alone had settled the issue once the big meet opened.

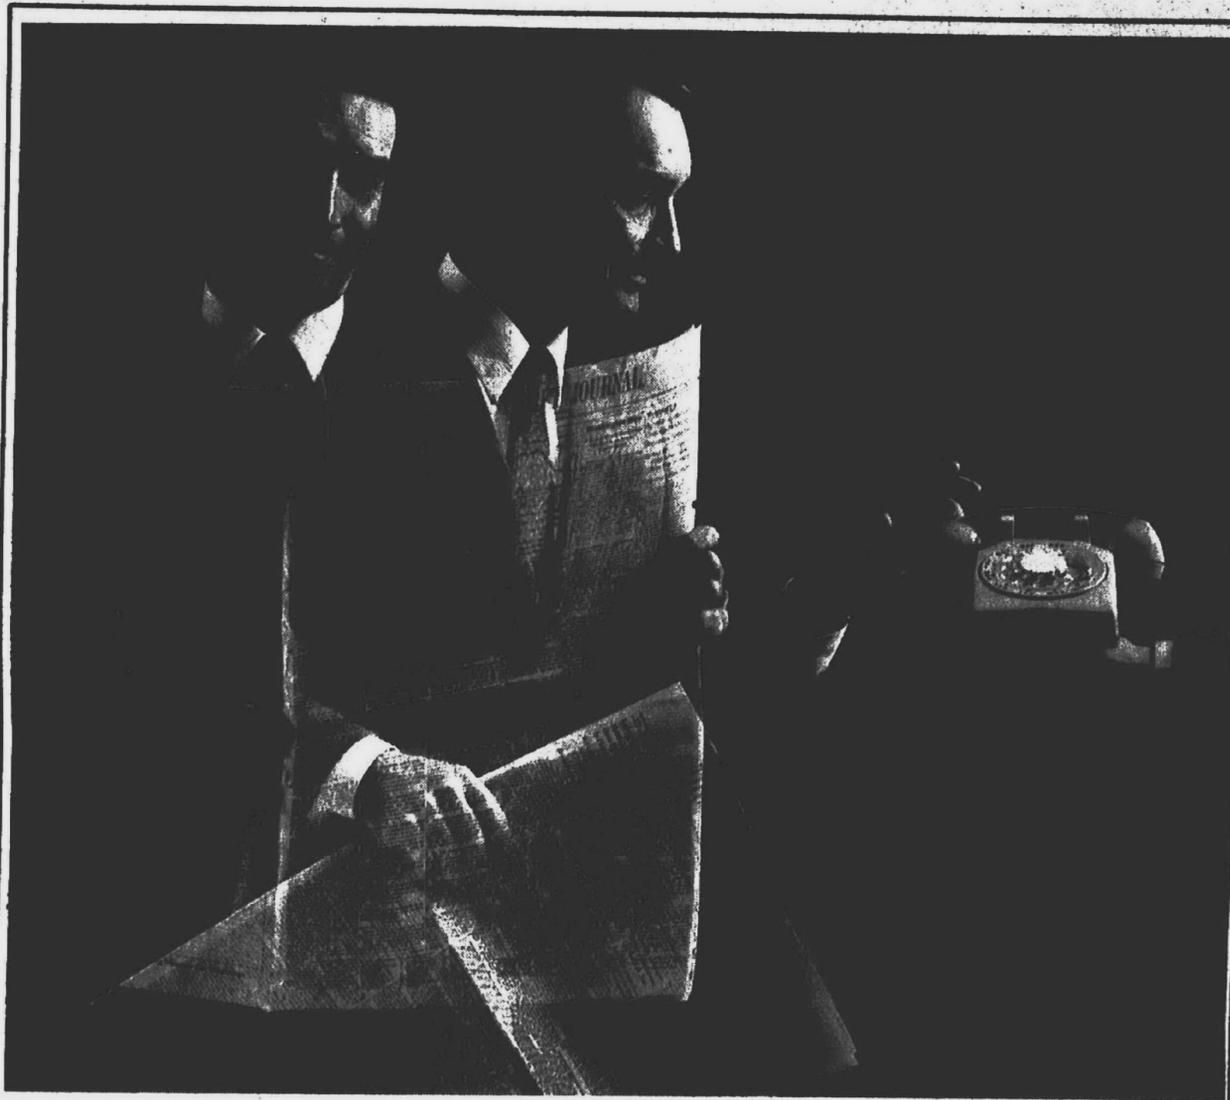

He had arranged a group of cheerleaders who kept chanting at every opportunity. They kept yelling "We Want Wilkie," "We Want Wilkie." They shouted down every attempt to name anyone else. And what happened. They got Wilkie the nomination in one of the most unusual of all conventions. It mattered little that he lost the final battle and FDR kept the Presidential role. But there was no touring up and down the country in a mud-slinging battle. And that's the way it should be.

There should never be a man sitting in the oval office with a dirty face — the dirt coming from a campaign of mud-slinging.

Sometimes the dirt never is removed and the top man must live with it through his stay at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue.

So let's quit the mud-slinging by changing the program and let the conventions select the candidates without making them tour the country. The tour was meant to sell one's self — not to run down the other fellow.

That's why The Stroller is willing to give up a few days of his enjoyment of life — if only election day was yesterday.

Jump rope raises dollars

A total of $8,084 was raised by students at East Middle School during their Jump Rope for Heart held earlier this month.

Members of the winning team, which raised $542, are Julie Ellenwood, Nicky Calloway, Terra Walenweber, Chris Fife and Troy Grachero.

The school conducted the event as a community service project. The project was developed by the Michigan Association of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance. The event stresses the importance of physical education.

"Everyone had a great time, and we already are making plans for next year," said Doris Pipkens, school coordinator.

Proceeds from the event will benefit the American Heart Association of Michigan in its effort to combat heart and blood vessel disease through research, risk factor education, CPR training and professional education.

Coach Tohomann will be missed

To the editor:

I am disappointed to learn of Coach Fred Thomann's resignation.

The time and effort he has given to our young adults, as do so many sponsors of extracurricular activities, is priceless. The positive effects of school-based activities cannot be overemphasized. They provide an arena in which both the academic elite and disadvantaged can participate.

The range of personal achievement and development varies with each activity, but it can extend from participant to star, from a personal best to most outstanding member. However, the attitudinal and character development which evolves from these activities is not a given. It is created when the adult leadership encompasses the dedication, interest and ability to work effectively with high schoolers that so personifies these educators.

And so, when the importance of these activities is undermined through program reductions and low salaries, we lose the quality of staff we now see leaving. And I am sorry and surprised our district is allowing this to happen.

In summary, I believe the work of these coaches (athletic, debate, drama, radio, honor society, music) and the many others not mentioned, is invaluable, and it is tragic that more financial and political emphasis and appreciation is not given to these roles in the education of young people.

Corps to play at 2 festivals

The first local appearance this year of the Plymouth Five and Drum Corps will take place Sunday, June 10 at the Canton Country Festival.

The corps also will appear in concert for Drearie Days on July 21 in Plymouth. The corps will not perform in Independence Day parades in Plymouth and Northville this year because it will be performing in a parade in Washington.

Congrats, Graduates!

Wash car and fight defects

Get your car washed between now and June 3 and help provide a gift of love to young victims of 20 serious and potentially fatal diseases.

During that time a portion of what you pay for the car wash will be contributed by Colony Car Wash on Ann Arbor Road in Plymouth, Lighthouse Car Wash on Ford Road in Canton, or at Main Street Car Wash on Main Street in Plymouth.

Each car wash has agreed to donate a portion of each car wash from March 29 to June 3 to the March of Dimes.

Through its research the March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation has made bone marrow transplants safer and a tablespoon or two of bone marrow from the right person can be lifesaving.

The March of Dimes also works to prevent strokes in newborns, aiding sick babies, helping women with high-risk pregnancies, and a host of other problems.

"There is no greater joy than to have a healthy, beautiful baby," said Bob Townsley of Colony Car Wash. "But not all babies are so fortunate — 250,000 infants are born each year with physical or mental defects. The March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation works to save babies and that's why we are joining this campaign."

Through its national association (the International Carwash Association/National Carwash Council), the industry has pledged to raise $225,000 in 1984 for the March of Dimes.

DIET, NUTRITION, AND ARTHRITIS

A sensible diet is a sensible arthritis diet. The argument presented by people who urge special diets, or supplements of vitamins, minerals and trace elements as treatment for arthritis is "since doctors don't know the cause of arthritis, how do you know such additions won't help?"

It is true that the cause of most types of arthritis is not known. However, the events that perpetrate joint inflammation are understood in detail. On the basis of the knowledge it is clear that there are no special diets or nutritional supplements that will stop the body's inflammatory response.

The diet advocates respond by saying: "If it can't help, it can't hurt." Not true; Very high doses of vitamin C can cause bladder irritation, and supplementation with the trace metal selenium has resulted in hair loss, extreme fatigue and skin disorders. Furthermore, such supplements are expensive.

Meals based on meat, grains, vegetables, fruit, milk and milk products balanced with a total number of calories to maintain a proper weight, has been and remains a good arthritis diet.

HAPPY REUNION!

Please Family and Friends with Ever-Popular
 Potato Salads and Turkey

People, like ground hogs, often stay "holed up" during the cold wintery months. But with the advent of warm weather, nothing brings more pleasure than a gathering of the clan. Find an excuse like a birthday or anniversary, a holiday celebration or graduation party — or make an excuse and plan a special day to warm up old friendships.

The foods you choose can add a lot to the warmth and friendship of the occasion. Plan on foods that are not too time-consuming to prepare. Economy should also be kept in mind. And, most important, the foods should have universal appeal. Two foods that are loved by all, from young tots to elderly patriarchs, are Idaho® potato salads and turkey.

Turkey is not only a popular choice, but it is also economical. Additionally, it is a nutritional bonus supplying plenty of protein with little fat. One hundred grams (a 3-1/2 ounce serving) of roasted turkey breast contains 29 grams of protein and only 7 grams of fat. A 3-1/2 ounce serving of ground turkey supplies 16 grams of protein, with only 15 grams of fat.

Golden Turkey Breast Roast with its lovely sweet-and-sour apricot glaze would make a delightful selection for any family gathering. When it comes to turkey, white meat is a popular choice and the breast, of course, offers just that.

Mini-Turkey Meatballs will please all. The spicy turkey balls are easily assembled and baked in the oven (no messy sautéing on the stove top). Just before serving, simmer in a robust sauce.

Idaho potatoes, because they are so mealy and full of flavor, make for the most satisfying salads. But let's face it: if a dozen people are coming for dinner, that's a lot of spuds to cook, peel and dice. A clever solution is offered in dehydrated packaged potatoes. Because they're made from the world-famous Gem State Spud they have the same great taste and mealy texture as fresh, but are marvelously convenient to prepare. For maximum quality, be certain to look for the State of Idaho seal on the carton or bag.

Both potato salads featured are so interesting it might be difficult to select only one. Jiffy-Idaho Potato and Egg Salad is nutritious made with hard-cooked eggs, dressed with creamy mayonnaise blend. The Cucumber and Potato Salad au Gratin is a bit more unusual. The lively tasting dressing includes sour cream, with dill and tarragon for spice.

GOLDEN TURKEY BREAST ROAST

- 1 turkey breast roast, about 3 1/2 pounds
- 4 slices bacon, sliced
- 1 medium-size onion, finely chopped
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1 tablespoon eggs
- 2 teaspoons curry powder
- 2 tablespoons instant chicken bouillon
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup apricot nectar
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice

Place turkey roast, breast-side-up on rack, in shallow roasting pan. Brush with melted butter or margarine, if desired. Roast at 350° F. for about 22 minutes per pound. Meat thermometer should register 170° F. when done. While turkey roasts, sauté bacon until almost crisp in a medium-size skillet; remove with a slotted spoon and drain on paper toweling. Stir onion into drippings; sauté until soft. Blend in flour, sugar, curry powder, chicken bouillon and 1/2 teaspoon salt; cook, stirring constantly, until bubbly. Stir in apricot nectar and lemon juice. Heat, stirring constantly, to boiling; simmer 5 minutes, or until mixture thickens slightly. Spoon over turkey breast the last 30 minutes of roasting time, every 10 minutes or until breast roast is tender and richly glazed.

Yield: About 12 servings.

JIFFY-IDAHO POTATO AND EGG SALAD

- 2 packages (3.5 ounces) Idaho® fresh brown potatoes
- 2 1/2 cups boiling water
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 6 hard-cooked eggs, peeled and chopped
- 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
- 1 cup mayonnaise
- 1/2 cup milk
- 2 tablespoons prepared mustard
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- Dash cayenne pepper

Place fresh brown potatoes in mixing bowl; pour boiling water over potatoes and let stand until water is absorbed, about 10 minutes. Add remaining ingredients and mix well. Cover and refrigerate until serving time.

Yield: 10 to 12 servings.

MINI-TURKEY MEATBALLS

- 3 pounds ground turkey
- 1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs
- 1 cup tomato juice
- 2 teaspoons prepared horseradish
- 3 cloves garlic, crushed
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper

Combine all ingredients, mixing well. Shape into 1-inch balls. Place in a single layer in large lightly oiled baking dish. Bake at 350° F. for 20 minutes. Remove from oven, place meatballs in a casserole dish, cover with sauce, simmer 5 minutes and serve.

- Sauce: 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 2 1/4 cups beef broth
- 1/2 cup dry red wine (optional)
- 2 tablespoons brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons onion
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice

Heat butter in a large skillet, add onion and sauté until tender. Blend in flour, gradually add broth, stirring constantly, and remaining ingredients. Cook over low heat 15 minutes and pour over cooked meatballs.

Yield: 12 servings.

CUCUMBER POTATO SALAD AU GRATIN

- 2 packages (3.5 ounces) Idaho® au gratin potatoes
- 7 cups water, distilled
- 4 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon dried leaf tarragon
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh dill or 1 teaspoon dried dill weed
- 1 cup sour cream
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 2 cucumbers, peeled, seeded and chopped

Remove sauce packet from potatoes. Heat 3 cups water to boiling in medium skillet. Add potatoes, cover and simmer 15 minutes, but until potatoes are tender. Drain and rinse with cold water; drain well. In large bowl, blend remaining 1/2 cup water, lemon juice and remaining packet. Add salt, tarragon and dill; stir over medium heat until mixture thickens. Pour in a hot skillet and cook until bubbling. In large bowl, combine potatoes, onion, cucumber and dressing; mix well. Cover and refrigerate until chilled.

Yield: 12 servings.

Americans consume 20 times needed amount of salt

Salt is second only to sugar as an additive in the American diet. As a consequence, medical scientists find we ingest 10 to 20 times the sodium our body needs or can eliminate. Most dietary sodium comes in the form of sodium chloride, commonly called table salt. This is 40-percent sodium and 60-percent chloride. One teaspoon of salt contains 2,000 mg (2 grams) of sodium.

A number of recent studies have indicated that over-consumption of sodium is linked to hypertension (high blood pressure) which is, in turn, cited as a major cause of heart and kidney disease, stroke and death.

Behavioral scientists tell us that our early vegetarian ancestors ate very little salt, probably less than 500 mg a day. Even today, it is agreed that physiologically we need less than 1,000 mg (1 gram) of salt in our daily diet. In spite of that we are eating as much as 25,000 mg to 35,000 mg a day. Because early man used little salt our bodies hoard sodium and excrete potassium. This creates the problems with our bodies.

The introduction of excessive amounts of highly salted foods into the diet of our young has resulted in a population which averages five to ten teaspoons (2,000 mg per teaspoon) of salt per day in its diet, although the body needs only a fraction of that amount. The result is 50-million persons in the United States suffering from high blood pressure.

IN MANY foods salt is added by manufacturers to heighten the flavor. Bakers use salt to help control yeast actions and reduce water absorption to make better dough. Saltier crust also has a more attractive color.

Sodium is added to butter and dairy products as a preservative. When vegetables and other products are canned, the makers add large amounts of sodium. For instance, fresh garden peas contain only 3 mg of sodium per five-ounce serving, while canned peas, the same serving, contain 350 mg. Over 100 times as much.

A nutrition task force of the non-profit Consumer Education Research Center has studied this situation and compiled a book to help break the salt habit. It lists the salt content of over 800 foods, liquors and medicines. The book "Salt and Your Health" is available for $5 (including postage) from CERC-Salt Project, P.O. Box 336, South Orange, N.J. 07079.

Even pets are given diets extremely high in salt content. The makers say that this is necessary to encourage the animals to eat the products. However, meat-eating wild animals eat no salt except that found in the other animals they eat. Thus we subject the pets we love to the same diseases that we cause in ourselves.

According to Robert L. Berko, executive director of the Center, there are many ways to season foods without salt. For instance, he says, the flavor of asparagus can be enhanced by using garlic, lemon juice, vinegar or onion. For beef, Berko suggests using bay leaf, dry mustard powder, green peppers, marjoram, fresh mushrooms, nutmeg, onion, pepper, sage or thyme. The book lists alternate seasonings for meats, fish, poultry, vegetables and soups.

THE CONSUMER leader cautions against the excessive use of salt substitutes since they use potassium in place of sodium and can result in problems associated with too much potassium.

"For those who require more specific ways to avoid sodium, we have included low-salt recipes and sources where other recipes can be found," said Berko.

"We think we can tell what foods are salty. And many times we are right. Obviously sauerkraut, pickles, potato chips and herring are salty. But did you know that two slices of Pepperidge Farm White Bread (234 mg) contains more sodium than a one-ounce bag of Lay's Potato Chips; that 1/4 cup of cottage cheese contains as much sodium as 32 potato chips or that 1/4 cup of Jello Chocolate Instant Pudding and Pie Filling (404 mg) gives you more sodium than three slices of Oscar Meyer Sugar-Cured Bacon (302 mg)?

"Did you now that dehydrated chicken or beef noodle soup contains 1300 mg. of sodium and Parmesan cheese (grated), 528 mg. per serving. Regular whole milk contains 195 mg. per eight-ounce glass while instant whole milk delivers 470 mg. A modest serving of canned shrimp brings you a giant 1,995 mg.; chili con carne with beans (canned) 1,194 mg. per cup; stuffing mix 1,131 mg. and Kentucky Fried Chicken (3 pcs.) a whopping 2,285. mg. of sodium.

"Most adults need less than 1,000 mg. of sodium per day for their physiological well-being.

"We must be vigilant and know the sodium content of the foods we eat, and it is essential to our health that we develop a plan to reduce our salt intake," he stresses.

The Center's study suggests that we immediately cut down to half the salt we normally use in our cooking and reduce gradually from there. Don't add salt before tasting foods. Replace foods high in salt with those low in salt content. Try to prepare as much of the food you eat as possible. Manufacturers use three times as much sodium in cooking as the home cook.

Favorite local recipes found in new cookbook

Ah, the memory of that delectable marbled cheesecake you savored at MacKinnon's of Northville. If only you could whip one up yourself: No problem. MacKinnon's cheesecake is included in "Fiddler in the Kitchen," a cookbook put together by the National Council of Jewish Women, Greater Detroit Section.

Among the 300 tested recipes are 20 favorites from local restaurants and the files of celebrity cooks. What's more, special features abound in this special book. There are recipes using food processors and microwave ovens. There are equivalent and substitution guides as well as pages of helpful hints. Did you know, for instance, that dental floss is also great for trussing a turkey, or that you get more popcorn per ounce by storing kernels in the freezer and popping them unfrozen? And for those who adore desserts, there are 70 featured in the dessert section, 21 of them chocolate.

Cost of "Fiddler in the Kitchen" is $8.50 per copy. Books are obtainable at Bookstall on the Main, 116 E. Main, Northville; Plymouth Book World, 2 Forest Place, Plymouth and Plymouth Book World Volume II, 844 Penniman, Plymouth. For other locations, call the office of the National Council of Jewish Women, Greater Detroit Section, 16400 W. 12 Mile, Southfield, 48076, 557-9604.

Take more than appetite to parties

After some pleasant correspondence with Patricia Scott, executive vice president of the Michigan Beef Industry Commission, I'll be one of the five judges at the statewide beef cook-off Saturday, 1-3 p.m., at Michigan State University. I look forward to meeting any of you interested enough to witness the baptism of a cook-off judge.

When I'm invited to a party, I like to bring something more than my appetite. So I often volunteer to prepare a dish such as an appetizer.

My favorite carry-over hors d'oeuvre is Swedish meatballs for several reasons.

First, I can prepare the meatballs at home with a minimum of effort. Secondly, I can let my electric slow cooker do half the work before I arrive at the party. Most importantly, the meatballs can continue cooking at the party and then stay warm in the convenient Crock-Pot.

At a recent party, where the hostess served a breadless appetizer of ham and cheese squares toothpicked with pickle, my meatballs were a hit.

There were a couple of youngsters who hung around the buffet table devouring the meatballs like they hadn't eaten in several days.

One of them did come up with an excellent suggestion.

"Why don't you put them on toothpicks," the girl said.

She helped me, then even took the tray around. There was plenty of dancing. The guests also did their share of eating.

We almost ran out of toothpicks — and meatballs.

- SWEDISH MEATBALLS
- 2 1/4 cups plain bread crumbs
 - 1 1/2 cups milk
 - 2 1/2 lbs. ground beef
 - 1/2 lb. ground pork
 - 3 eggs, slightly beaten
 - 2 onions, finely chopped
 - 2 1/2 tsp. salt
 - 1 1/2 tsp. dill weed
 - 1/2 tsp. allspice
 - 1/4 tsp. nutmeg
 - 6 tbsp. margarine
 - 2 1/2 cups beef broth
 - 1/4 tsp. black pepper
 - 1 cup half and half

In large mixing bowl, soak bread crumbs in milk 5 minutes. Add ground meats, eggs, onions, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon dill weed, allspice and nutmeg, mix well and refrigerate covered 1 hour. Shape meat mixture into 1-inch diameter balls and lightly brown in hot margarine in large skillet, placing meatballs as they are browned in 4 1/2 quart electric slow cooker. Combine broth, pepper, half and half, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon dill weed, some pan drippings and pour over meatballs. Cover and cook on low heat 4-6 hours. Yields 96 meatballs.

A real earful

The U.S. corn crop covers about 80-million acres of farmland, and generates about $13 billion in revenue each year. At Del Monte Corp., the largest U.S. producer of canned corn, more than 225,000 tons were processed in 1983.

Dreamy tips

Tender tea breads, moist and chewy cookies and high, handsome cakes — this is the stuff dessert dreams are made of. And here are tips to make those dreams come true:

- Plan ahead. Before starting, read the recipe thoroughly and make sure you have all ingredients and equipment needed. Do any advance preparation required. Remember, baking in many ways is a science, and the best results come from following a recipe carefully.
- Use shiny metal pans, or those with a non-stick finish.

PLUS marks 10th anniversary

Starting to kindergarten holds no fear for graduates of the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools PLUS program. As 4-year-olds, these children had the advantage of a head start in the experience of going to school, learning their colors and counting. They even learned how to do some simple cooking.

Pupils Learning Useful Skills, or PLUS for short, marked its 10th anniversary this month. The project was started as a joint venture involving the school district and a federal grant (Title I) in the fall of 1974. John Howe, Larry Miller, Beverly Marshall, David Rodwell and Mary Fritz were active in designing the program.

Their work was influenced by the district's early childhood committee's recommendation that advocated a program for 4-year-olds that would also include classes for parents.

RESEARCH FINDINGS stressing the positive effects of earlier school experience for 4-year-olds, made preschool education a priority project for Title I projects in Michigan.

In 1974 PLUS contained two unusual components, the school group and the home group. Approximately 100 children and their parents were involved in PLUS. The school group had four classes for each group. The classes for parents and children ran concurrently, Monday through Thursday.

The children's curriculum included a sequential skill development program based on an individual assessment of each child's skills.

PARENT CLASSES included instructions on activities that parents could work on at home. These activities reinforce skills introduced at school sessions. Child management and other and other topics dealing with family living concerns also were part of the parent curriculum. Joint experiences and field trips for child and parent were included in the program curriculum.

Free physicals were available to the children.

The home group consisted of three separate neighborhood clusters of parents and children. Small groups of children met weekly in neighborhood homes for class with sessions led by the mothers.

A PLUS teacher coordinated and helped teach the classes. Parents and children attended classes on Fridays.

A third component of the program was the follow-through support services at the Chapter I elementary schools. The helping teachers gave extra help in reading and math to small groups of children.

These are the PLUS components today, with slight modifications.

Register now for fall PLUS

Registration for the PLUS Preschool for both Chapter I and Head Start children for fall 1984 is in progress. Children must be 4 on or before Dec. 1 and live in the attendance area of Starkweather, Field, Eriksson or Gallimore elementary schools.

Children who are 3 and 4 before Dec. 1 and whose families can meet low-income criteria are eligible for Head Start enrollment from all over the school district.

Orientation for parents and children will be in September. PLUS classes are at Central Middle School from October through May.

Registrations may be made by calling 451-6656 or by filling out registration blanks available at Chapter I schools. For more information, call 451-6656.

THE PROGRAM opened its doors at Farrand School in October 1974. The attendance area schools were Starkweather, Isbister and Central (now Field).

Mary Fritz was program director and staff members were Doris Balconi, Sue Steele, Roxanne Sparkman, Shirley Pearl and Marilyn Anason were the first secretaries. Early Title I helping teachers working at the schools were Sherry Lessens, Phil Radant, Mike Tarow, Linda DuVall and Mary Ebmeyer.

Mary Fritz said, "Much praise goes to that early staff and the parents for suggesting modifications. Support and consultant help from the central office was invaluable. Title I building principals, Larry Miller, Beverly Marshall and John Howe as well as Farrand principal Anne Welch gave assistance that gave the fledgling program a chance to take off and grow."

THE PROGRAM began at Central Middle School in 1977 and is still there today.

The Head Start program was incorporated into PLUS in 1978. This added a 3-year-old home visit component to the program with new activities in parent involvement. Two parent organizations worked within the program, involving parents from pre-school and el-

Parents attend meetings featuring topics geared to better understanding of the education of the children. They also have an opportunity to give input to program design.

The Head Start Policy Committee elects officers and conducts meetings allowing parents to help make decisions on the implementation of goals. They sponsor fund-raisers for parents' activities and also help implement the vital Parent Volunteer Program.

MORE THAN 350 children from the Field, Eriksson, Gallimore and Starkweather school areas are now involved in the programs.

Teachers are Mary Lou Boyd, Cyndy Gresen, Mary Ebmeyer and Natalie Wright. Betty Lake, Judy Ferko and Nancy Bandli are educational aides. Janet Lauchner and Jan Metzner are educational aide/home visitors. Wilma Arnold is program aide and Debe De-Jaeger is secretary.

The school support staff includes Marilyn Thams, visiting nurse; Jan Migganka and Karen Lambert, language development teachers; JoAnne Schabach, Jan Wade, and Judy Ferko, educational aides at Field School, Lil Franklin at Gallimore, and Sharon Knoede at Eriksson.

Charul Patel carefully signs the guest book during the PLUS 10-year anniversary program.

Nancy Bandli, educational aide, tests Matt Welmer to determine his ability to recognize colors and shapes as well as his basic math skills.

Rocks, Chiefs eliminated

It's all over for Plymouth's high school baseball teams.

Both Plymouth Salem and Plymouth Canton were beaten Friday in pre-district baseball action, eliminating any hopes either team had of bringing home a Class A baseball title.

Westland John Glenn took care of the Rocks, 4-2, behind the combined five-hit pitching Steve Irwin and Donn Wolfe.

After spotting the Rockets four runs in the first three innings, Salem scored two runs in the fifth on Mike Cindrich's RBI double and Chris Mowers sacrifice fly, closing the gap to 4-2. But the Rocks (14-9) stranded three runners in both the second and sixth innings. Rick Berberet pitched well for Salem in a losing effort, scattering 10 hits while fanning five.

"It was a well-played game," Rocks coach John Gravin said. "Maybe I outcoached myself. I had Berberet throwing fast balls, but they hit us hard in the first three innings. Then Rick settled down and did a nice job."

CANTON had problems with Walled Lake Western fireballer Dan Gabrielle, considered among the top pitching prospects in the state. The powerful right-hander scattered seven hits while striking out six to earn the win.

Trailing 4-0 in the first inning, the Chiefs got two back on Mark Bennett's two-run single. Canton (15-8) knotted the score in the fourth on Jeff Olson's solo homer and Sean Goulet's sacrifice fly. But that was all the scoring the Rocks could mount against Gabrielle.

Western scored the winning run on a freak play. With a Warrior on second and two outs, Bennett struck out the batter he was facing, but the ball bounced off catcher Tim Collins' pads, allowing the runner to come home with the winning run.

"Gabrielle is one of the top pitchers in the state," Canton coach Fred Crissey said. "We battled them all the way, but it just wasn't to be. We ran out of luck — we couldn't get a break. But I'm proud of these boys. They never quit."

baseball

SOFTBALL

SALEM 1, SOUTH LYON 0: Sue Carlson pitched a nifty four-hitter Friday, advancing the Rocks (16-4) to the district semifinals Saturday at Brighton.

She went the full seven innings, striking out one and walking none.

"I never thought we'd win 1-0," Salem coach Rob Willette said. "I told her (Carlson) to throw strikes. We played good defense. We made some fabulous plays and backed people up well."

The Rocks scored the only run of the game in the fourth inning. Cheryl Viele walked, stole second, moved to third on a passed ball then scored on Maggie Meissner's single.

Terri Lesniak went 2-for-3 to pace the Rocks, who managed just six hits off losing pitcher Chickie Kozarian.

BRIGHTON 6, CANTON 4: The Chiefs played catchup softball for most of the afternoon as their fifth inning comeback fell short. The loss knocked Canton out of the state softball tournament.

After spotting Brighton three runs in the first inning, the Chiefs closed the gap to 3-2 on bases-loaded walks to Monika Benedict and Lealee Fidge.

Brighton scored three more runs before Benedict lined a single to make it 6-4 in the fifth. But Brighton held Canton scoreless in the sixth and seventh innings to nail down the win.

"We played a good game, ending our season on a positive note," Canton coach Max Sommerville said, despite the loss. "We played excellent defense. We didn't make the mistakes we usually make."

Canton finished the season with an 8-11 mark.

WLAA track title up for grabs

By Chris McCosky staff writer

Fred Price and his Livonia Churchill boys track team have won the Western Lakes league meet the last 12 years. The last few have been relatively easy.

This year will be anything but easy for Churchill. Farmington and Plymouth Salem are poised to end the Chargers' streak — with assistance from Plymouth Canton, Livonia Stevenson and Farmington Harrison.

Won't it be exciting? "You might think so," said Price. "But I much prefer the way it was last year. No, seriously, it should be an outstanding meet."

The meet is Wednesday at Farmington High School.

Also Wednesday is the Western Lakes girls track meet. It will take place at Livonia Stevenson. Like the boys meet, the girls meet is shaping up to be, at least, a three-team race. Walled Lake Western, Farmington and Stevenson are the favorites. Plymouth Salem, Farmington Harrison, and Churchill will also be heard from.

CHURCHILL IS ranked No. 2 in Observerland's boys track rankings behind Catholic League power Bishop Borgess. The Chargers are very strong in the field events with Dave Mize (shot put and discus, far and away the league's best) and Mike Meehan (high jump), and in the distance events with Doug Plachta, Don Miller and Paul Schwartz.

The Chargers are not strong in the sprints. Salem, Canton and Livonia Bentley are — which is good for Churchill.

"What we have to do is perform in the areas we are expected to perform in, like the field events and distance. Then, we have to hope some other points get busted up. If that happens, we'll be tough," Price said.

With all the talent in the sprints, the points are likely to be "busted up" among several teams.

Farmington, ranked No. 4 in the area, may have the best shot at Churchill. The Falcons are also strong, and deep, in the field events with the likes of pole vaulter Jeff Lawton (the area's best), and weight man and high jumper Ab Hazen. Brian Looser, Dan Imus and Al Stebbins will score points in the middle distances.

The hurdle races should be breath-taking. Observerland has a wealth of hurdle talent. Greg Coplai from Farmington is a regional champ and should be favored in the 300-meters. Jerry Holcomb from Harrison or Mike White from Salem will be the favorite in the 100 meters. Then there's Jin Kim from Canton, Gordon Babcock from Churchill, Tim Berry from Farmington, Terry Harshfield from Stevenson — the list goes for a while.

THE RELAYS will be loaded also. Look for Salem to win the sprint relays. Churchill, Stevenson, and Farmington will battle in the distance relays.

You get the feeling Farmington will have to be the team to beat Churchill.

"We feel we can do the job in this meet, mainly because of our depth," said Farmington coach Dave Catherman. "And it's nice to be on our home track. Usually this meet is a battle for second. It's nice that it's now a battle for first."

Yet don't turn your back on Gary Balconi's Plymouth Salem Rocks. If there's such a thing as coaching a victory, you can bet Balconi has copyrights on the game plan.

Most coaches are saying Walled Lake Western is the team to beat on the girls side. Western swept through its dual meets unbeaten, though it didn't meet Farmington.

Yet at the Oakland County meet Thursday, Farmington outpointed the Warriors by 10 points.

"Hey, don't you count us out. We'll be there," said Farmington coach Gerry Young. "Western has its strengths, but it has its weaknesses, too. So do we. So does Stevenson."

AMONG FARMINGTON'S strengths are Terri Quenneville (shot put, discus), Sambia Shivers (high jump), Beth Sherman (shot put, discus), Rhonda Lancaster (hurdles), Jenny Lindbert (distance)

— all are among the top or at the top in the Observerland rankings. Quenneville and Shivers were regional champions.

Don't count out Stevenson either. With Amy Rozman (long jump, middle distance), Beth Meir (hurdles), Sheila Taormina (distance), and Debbie Unverzagt (field events), the Spartans, Lakes Division dual meet champs, will score some points.

Other top individuals who will be heard from are: Dawn Johnson, Mary Beth West and Kelly Bemis from Salem, Kim Bennett and Hollie Ivey from Canton, Lauri Runk, Jamie Holcomb and Jill Birsa from Harrison, Julie Recla from Churchill, and Beth Chendes from Bentley.

Two league championship meets, two dandies. The hard part: choosing which one to go see — they're both Wednesday.

Hawks capture WLAA net title

By Chris McCosky staff writer

The Western Lakes Activities Association crowned a new tennis champion Wednesday. It was Farmington Harrison.

The Hawks withstood a serious test from defending champion Livonia Stevenson, thanks to strong performances from their No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3 singles players. (See statistical summary for complete results.)

The Hawks and Spartans each earned 18 points at Wednesday's league meet — the Hawks won the title outright by virtue of their 9-0 dual meet mark.

Stevenson needed to finish first and Harrison third in the league meet to retain the title.

Harrison had to battle more than just the rest of the Western Lakes to win the title. Their fine No. 4 singles player, Brad Hack, injured his ankle playing pick-up basketball last Saturday and was unable to compete.

Mark Eisenberg, the 11th man on the Hawks' roster, replaced Hack and won his first match — a vital point for the Hawks. He then took eventual division champ John Huston of Northville to three sets before bowing out. Freshman Ken Davidson came through in No. 1 singles for Harrison. He won the Western Division title by staving off relentless Arvind Streedharen of Northville, 6-3, 6-2. Streedharen had defeated Davidson earlier in the season.

DAVIDSON CAME back in the championship flight, and may have been surprised to find Drew Chuba of Farmington as his opponent from the Lakes Division.

WESTERN LAKES ACTIVITIES ASSOCIATION TENNIS MEET at Plymouth CEP

Team results: 1. Farmington Harrison, 18 points; 2. Livonia Stevenson, 15; 3. Livonia Churchill, 4; Northville, 9; 5. Farmington, 8; 6. Livonia Bentley; 7. Walled Lake Central, 6; 8. Plymouth Canton, 4; 9. Plymouth Salem, 3; Walled Lake Western, 2.

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT

No. 1 singles: Ken Davidson (FH) def. Drew Chuba (Farm.), 6-1, 6-1.
No. 2: Mark Rakoczy (FH) def. Mark Dupree (Farm.), 7-6, 6-4.
No. 3: Steve Thomas (FH) def. Chris Nimomya (LB), 6-1, 6-3.

No. 4: John Huston (N) def. Mural Tegulapalle (WLC), 6-3, 6-3.
No. 1 doubles: Jeff Konosol-Dave Richardson (LB) def. Mike Gould-Tom Pachera (LC), 1-6, 7-6, 6-4.
No. 2: Saman Duwisha-Bruce Kudanian (LB) def. Rick Morrison-Craig Thomas (FH), 6-7, 6-4, 6-4.

No. 3: Gordon Stecker-Jeff McKenzie (LB) def. Todd Knickerbocker-Dan Cavell (PC), 7-6, 6-7, 6-6.

LAKES DIVISION FINALS

No. 1 singles: Drew Chuba (F) def. Jay Perala (LB), 6-1, 7-6.
No. 2: Mark Dupree (F) def. Chris Owens (WLC), 6-7, 6-3, 6-6.
No. 3: Chris Nimomya (LB) def. Eric Pigeon (WLC), 3-6, 6-2, 6-2.
No. 4: Mural Tegulapalle (LB) def. John Ortale (WLC), 6-3, 6-3.
No. 1 doubles: Jeff Konosol-Dave Richardson (LB) def. Rick Morrison-Craig Thomas (FH), 7-6, 3-6, 6-4.
No. 2: Saman Duwisha-Bruce Kudanian (LB) def. Jim Lyle-Mark Richardson (F), 6-1, 6-4.
No. 3: Gordon Stecker-Jeff McKenzie (LB) def. Clyde Binguat-Ted Hanoah (PB), 6-4, 2-6, 6-3.

The Lakes Division winner was expected to be Stevenson's Todd Brown. Brown, however, ran into Livonia Bentley's fired-up Jay Perala. The two went into a tie breaker in the third set — Perala winning 11-9.

An exhausted Perala then had to take on Chuba, an outstanding player, and was beat in two sets, 6-1, 7-6.

Davidson rolled past Chuba in the finals, 6-1, 6-1.

There was another surprise — a bad one for Stevenson — in No. 2 singles. Jack Tatigian went into the action the heavy favorite, losing only one match all season. On this windswept day in Plymouth, a versatile athlete from Walled Lake Central, Chris Owens, would stun Tatigian in three sets in the first round.

"Owens is an outstanding athlete," said Stevenson coach George Croil. "Jack and he went three sets the last time they met. You know, usually the top of your lineup comes through for you and the bottom doesn't. It worked the opposite way for us this time."

FARMINGTON'S MARK Dupree wound up beating Owens in the Lakes final, but he lost to Harrison's Mark Rakoczy in the championship flight.

Harrison's Steve Thomas, as expected swept through No. 3 singles.

The Spartans dominated the doubles action, winning all three matches.

With their wins Wednesday, Stevenson's No. 3 team of Saman Duwisha and Bruce Kudanian finish the year with an impressive 18-1 record. They had to go three tough sets with Harrison's Rick Morrison and Craig Thomas to win the medal.

Down 3, Rocks rally to tie Chiefs

Nothing was at stake but pride. Yet, you'd have thought the World Cup was riding on it.

The Plymouth Salem and Plymouth Canton soccer teams hooked up Thursday in a make up of their weathered-out Western Lakes contest originally scheduled May 9.

Canton had defeated Salem in the Schoolcraft Invitational earlier in the season, and jumped ahead quickly Thursday 4-1. But, the Rocks, struggling through one of their less successful years, came roaring back.

The game ended tied 4-4.

Lisa Russell scored three goals for Canton. Fran Whittaker countered with three for the Rocks.

WITH 10 minutes left in the match, Canton leading 4-3, Salem freshman Dani Moran was hauled down in front of the Canton goal. The referee awarded Salem a penalty kick. Tracy Greenhalge, who assisted on one of Whittaker's goals, made no mistake on the free kick and tied the game.

"I'm glad we were able to tie after being back 4-

1," said Salem coach Ken Johnson. "You never like a tie game, but this one was nice."

Johnson had praise for Greenhalge.

"She really played a strong game. She was all over the place. And Frannie (Whittaker), too, played marvelous," he said.

For Canton, Lisa Russell has done what she has done for the Chiefs all year — everything.

"She is really a fine player," Johnson said.

With the Rocks gaining the tie, they assure themselves of at least a .500 season. They are 8-7-3 with one match left. A Ken Johnson-coached Rock team has never had a losing season.

For the Chiefs, they have enjoyed their most successful season. With one match left, they are 10-5-1.

Cheryl Truskowski helped Salem fight back to salvage a tie with Plymouth Canton Thursday.

● CANTON 5-MILER

The Canton Parks and Recreation Department's sixth annual Canton Country Festival 5-Mile Run is set for 9 a.m. Saturday, June 16.

The cost is $5 for advanced registration, $6 after June 14.

Special Canton Sesquicentennial gifts will be given to the first 300 participants. Plaques and medals will be awarded to the top three finishers in each age group. All participants will be eligible for the grand prize — a weekend trip to Toronto.

For more information, call 397-1000, Ext. 212.

● ELKS JUNIOR GOLF

The first Plymouth Elks No. 1780 Junior Golf Outing is set for Friday, July 13, at Hilltop Golf Club in Plymouth.

The tournament, for golfers aged 12 to 17, costs $10 per entry. Register at Hilltop on the following dates: Fridays, June 22 and June 29, 5-7 p.m.; Saturdays, June 23 and June 30, 9-11 a.m. John Jawor, Hilltop owner, will also take registrations.

For more information, call Alvin Tase, 477-4145, after June 15.

● GIRLS HOOP CAMP

Larry Baker, the successful head coach of the Farmington Hills Our Lady of Mercy girls basketball program, will direct a series of girls basketball camps this summer at Oakland Community College's Orchard Ridge Campus.

The camps, sponsored by the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department and OCC, will be broken into sessions for middle school players and high school player.

Two middle school camps will run from July 9-13 and July 20 to Aug. 3, both from 8:30 a.m. to noon each day.

The two high school camps will run the same two weeks, but will go from 1 to 4:30 p.m.

Baker, who has led the Mercy Marlins to six Class A regional championships and two state titles, will direct the two middle school sessions emphasizing fundamentals, drills and team scrimmages.

For more information, call OCC at 471-7553.

● EAGLES SOCCER

The American Eagles 19-over soccer team evened its Great Lakes Soccer League record to 2-2 with a 6-3 triumph over Detroit College of Business Sunday.

Dave Vartma led the Plymouth-Canton area team with a pair of goals. Gerd Looff, Rick Anger, Keith Sockow and Jack Pacente also scored for the Eagles.

The Eagles are gearing up for their big showdown with the Canton Soccer Club on June 3. Eagle coach Carlie Vella was once affiliated the Canton club before breaking away to start his own team. No site has been set for the match.

● SCHOOLCRAFT TENNIS

The 10th annual Mens Open Tennis Tournament will take place June 7-10 at Schoolcraft Community College in Livonia.

The cost is $5 for singles and $8 for doubles teams. The entry deadline is 10 p.m. Tuesday, June 5.

Schoolcraft also offers Tennis Mixers from 7 to 10 p.m. each Friday beginning June 1. League play for men and women is also offered.

For more information on the Schoolcraft programs, call USTPA pro Chuck Volland at 591-6392 or 525-5115.

● MANAGERS NEEDED

Managers are needed for the Plymouth-Canton Junior Baseball League in both the boys baseball and girls softball leagues.

There is a special need for managers in the Boys A League (ages 10-12) and the Boys Prep League (age 13).

Anyone wishing to manage or coach should contact Rich Madsen, 420-0223.

Umpires are also being sought — interested persons should also call Madsen.

● KOUFAX BASEBALL

Any boy 13 or 14 years old wanting to try out for a Sandy Koufax League baseball team should call Bernie Jackson, 455-5698, or Ron Martinez, 728-0053.

This team will play in the Plymouth-Canton area, though it will be independent of either Salem or Canton high schools.

● SLO-PITCH TOURNEY

Ed's Sports and Budweiser's second annual Slo-Pitch Softball Tournament is set for June 1, 2 and 3 in Canton Township.

The fee for the double-elimination tourney is $110. There will be three separate tournaments: men's open, mens B and C, and women's open. There will be a 16-team maximum in each tourney.

For more information, call Pete Dood, 397-3260.

When the two-year renovation of the Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor is finished, members of the Women's Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Plymouth can look on with pride and say "We helped to pay the bill."

Each year the Auxiliary conducts a bowlathon and gives the money to charity. This year close to $2,000 was raised. It was more than last year's sum, and was promptly sent to the Statue of Liberty Committee.

TARGET MISSED: Two women bowlers from the all-star leagues in this area returned empty-handed as far as titles go from the WIBC tournament at Reno, Nev.

Mary Mohacsi, the Detroit queen, missed the cut in the Queens tournament by six pins. The top finisher of the Detroit group was Cheryl Daniel, who finished fourth.

BLIND BOWLERS: The blind bowlers of the area have a big week ahead. Starting Thursday morning at Thunderbowl lanes, they will hold the national tournament and convention. There will be blind bowlers from all sections of the country. And the Detroit group is looking for help to run the event.

WESTLAND BOWL: John McCully won the officers tournament, the official closing of the winter league season, when he posted a 728 series. Behind him came Mike Kalm with 708 and third place went to Tom Wokmowski with 695.

Virty Tuckett posted a 167 triplicate in the mixed league while Toni Smith was high scorer with a 637.

MERRI-BOWL: Chuck O'Rourke stole the show in the doubles event when he linked games of 257, 258 and 234 for a 749.

WONDERLAND LANES: Bill Funke had a big night as the summer trio league got under way. He paced the field with 862 on games of 232, 259, 174 and 184.

BEL-AIRE: Rick Grossman had a 930 series in the trio league with a high game of 279. Larry Franz won the runner-up spot with 875.

GARDEN LANES: Mark Shields was high man as the summer mixed league opened. He came through with a 658. Ann Setlock, one-time holder of the state record, paced the women with 579.

YOUTH BOWLING: The most unusual league in the Observer area is the youths league at Merri-Bowl each Thursday morning. The entrants range in age from 3 to 6 and the entry list gets larger with each passing year.

Area business helps Emily's 6.2-mile run

Blackwell Ford of Plymouth, Bill Brown Ford of Livonia, Jack Demmer Ford of Wayne, Tom Holzer Ford of Farmington and North Brothers Ford of Westland are among the 32 area Ford dealers who are teaming up to man a giant water/aid station midway through the upcoming seventh Emily-Nidas 10K race through downtown Detroit.

In all, 200 volunteers from the area Ford dealerships will man the station, which is at the midway point of the 6.2-mile race, near the Soup Kitchen Saloon in the warehouse district. They will dispense up to 2,500 gallons of water in 30 minutes, serving about 1,000 runners a minute, or 17 a second.

The Emily race is expected to draw about 30,000 runners, making it the largest race ever in the state and the fourth largest in the nation.

For information on entering the race, which will begin at 10 a.m., Saturday, June 9, call 963-7044.

Canton wins, faces showdown Tuesday

Plymouth Canton kept its hopes alive Wednesday for the Western Lakes baseball title, riding its strong bats and the arm of its No. 3 pitcher to a 14-4 thrashing of Walled Lake Western.

The Chiefs and Churchill both have league records of 9-3 going into their season-ending showdown Tuesday at Churchill. For that one, Canton will have its ace, Mark Bennett, ready to throw at the Chargers.

Bennett, playing first base, helped Scott Ford improve his record to 7-1 with a two-run home run in the first inning. Jim Dillon then stepped to the plate and made it two in a row out of the park. Jeff Olson added to the home-run barrage in the fourth inning when he clouted a grand-slammer.

In addition to the fence jobs, Canton got strong support from Jeff Wittner and Tim Collins, who had three hits apiece.

"We had a number of good things happen offensively," said Canton coach Fred Crissey, "but the key was defense.

baseball

Ford gave us a strong game."

Indeed he did, walking two and giving up two hits in his five innings. John Lenders came out of the bullpen to finish things up.

Canton went to 18-5 overall.

PLYMOUTH SALEM lost to Walled Lake Central Wednesday, 6-4, despite another big day by center fielder Mike Cindrich, who had a double and a 300-foot home run. He is hitting .537 in his last 14 games.

Salem jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first inning, but starter Chris Mowers couldn't hold it, giving up six hits and six runs in his five innings.

"We didn't play with any intensity," said coach John Gravin. "Maybe we were looking ahead to the state tournament Friday. We stunk."

Central went ahead for good with a four-run third inning and closed out its scoring with another run in the fourth. Salem was able to make it 6-3 in the fifth and 6-4 on Cindrich's monster home run to right in the seventh.

Salem had an excellent chance to get back in the game in the sixth inning, getting its first two men on. But twice the Rocks failed on sacrifice-bunt attempts and ended the bases-loaded, no-run rally with a strike out.

The Rocks dropped to 13-8 overall and finished at 8-3 in the Western Lakes.

Salem wins in field, loses meet

Livonia Stevenson is the undefeated champion of the Western Lakes Division in girls track.

They earned that accolade Thursday, whipping Plymouth Salem 75-53.

The meet began shakily for the Spartans — Salem dominated all four field events. Karen Marcinia had a big day for Salem winning both the shot put (28-8½) and the discus (104-8, her best ever). Amy Johnson won the high jump

(4-10) and Dawn Johnson won the long jump (16-10½). Dawn Johnson also won the 200-meter dash in 28.4.

"They got a lot more points than we had hoped out of the field," said Stevenson coach Paul Holmberg.

THE SPARTANS, however, beefed up on the track. They won seven of the eight individual events, swept two and went 1-2 in five others.

girls track

Beth Meir won both hurdle events, taking the 100 meters in 17.4 and the 300 meters in 49.6.

Susan Tatigian was also a double-event winner for Stevenson. She won the 1,600 run (5:49.0) and the 3,200 (12:43.0). Yvonne Will won the 100 dash (13.8), Amy Rozman the 400 (1:03.5), and Maggie Karr the 800 (2:36.0) for Stevenson.

Salem (4-3) came back to win three relays — the 400 in 52.1, the 800 in 1:51.8, and the 1,600 in 4:21.0 — but the damage was already done.

The Spartans are 8-2 overall this season.

Rock women pound out softball win

A tough wind blew no ill for Plymouth Salem's softball team Wednesday afternoon at home against Walled Lake Central. The Rocks managed only four hits, but got 17 walks to go with them and beat Central, 7-6, on a breezy day.

Junior Sue Carlson got the win for Plymouth, though she, too, had her troubles in the wind, giving up 11 hits and walking nine in six innings. Terri Lesniak came out of the bullpen to pick up the save.

Cindy Runge had a double and two runs batted in for Salem, while Lesniak and Leslie Culver each had a hit and an RBI. Patty Maslak had the other hit.

The Rocks went to 15-4 overall, 11-2 in the Western Lakes.

Chiefs top Spartans

Plymouth Canton's boys track team beat Livonia Stevenson 77-60, Thursday, behind a record-shattering performance by hurdler Jim Kim.

Kim took the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.9, eclipsing Dan McGlenn's 1981 mark of 15.0.

The Chiefs (3-4) also took three of the four relays en route to the win — they won the 440 in 46.5, the 880 in 1:35.5 and the mile in 3:38.3.

Other winners for Canton were: Eric Wines in the shot put (44-9), Rich Place in the pole vault (11-6), Scott Tasker in the long jump (19-3¼), Elijah Rogers in the 100 dash (10.2 tying the school mark), Tom Wygonik in the 440 dash (54.9), and Mark Cratty in the two mile (11:06.4).

Harrison Ford returns in the starring role of archeologist Indiana Jones in "Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom."

Adventure unreels with Indiana Jones

Who needs Superman? We've got Indiana Jones whose feats of daring make that kid from Krypton a prime candidate for Vice Tanny.

Steven Spielberg has directed another one-two blast at box-office records with "Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom," now playing, and "Gremlins," opening Friday, June 8.

This time out (1935) Indiana Jones (Harrison Ford) is in a Shanghai nightclub trading a precious relic for a precious stone. Chronologically that sets "The Temple of Doom" before "Raiders," but the game is the same.

Jones is double-crossed by a Chinese gangster, and in the ensuing melee Indiana grabs the nightclub singer, Willie Scott (Kate Capshaw), and is off on one of many exciting chase sequences. The first is through narrow Shanghai streets in an open touring car driven by his sidekick, Short Round, 12-year-old Ke Huy Quan.

OUR INTREPID trio wind up in a barren village whose magic stone has been stolen. Worse yet, the village children have been kidnapped and enslaved.

Indiana, Willie and Short Round promise to set things right. (It's the only way to get home.) They head off on elephants through foul jungles to the evil Palace of Pankot, which turns out to be a cover for the Temple of Doom, headquarters for the murderous Thugee Cult.

Our heroic trio encounter all the usual assassins, fiery pits, snakes, death rooms, noxious insects and wild chase scenes of the sort that made "Raiders" so popular. Gross, but what else is new?

One of the most thrilling chase sequences, near the film's end, involves a mine-car, with Thugee assassins hot in pursuit of Indiana, Willie and Short Round.

Technically expert and polished special effects, combined with elaborate stunt work, make it all so real. At every turn, the snakes, the bugs, the bats, the fiery pits are convincing. The film's high level of technical realism works well.

The difference, however, between "Indiana Jones" and realistic films is the mock-serious acting style and the endless limits of Indiana's daring deeds. There seems to be no limit to what he can do and how many blows he can sustain. Clearly, it's all a joke.

CAPSHAW IS endearing as the nightclub singer who can't stand to get wet, slogging through the jungle, through all sorts of slimy dangers while romancing the hero. She's very attractive but makes the joke quite clear, with her offhand reaction and mock-serious complaints.

There's a running gag with the elephant and its trunk constantly poking her. Shortly after, she mistakes a venomous reptile for the elephant's trunk and slings it aside in a insouciant manner while Indiana Jones looks aghast. It's all very humorous and entertaining but not to be taken seriously.

Ultimately, this carefree attitude gets in the way of credibility, in spite of special-effects expertise and elaborate stunt work.

It's not because the actors aren't trying. All give excellent performances. Capshaw is a captivating nightclub singer out of her element — way out; Ford is appropriately reckless; Quan is his devoted sidekick — a child capable of bantering on an equal footing with adults; and Amrish Puri is one of the most evil, leering villains to come along in a long time.

Puri is a noted Indian actor, as is Roshan Sèth as the Prime Minister of Pankot. Both recently were featured in "Ghandi."

Highly creative performances, technical perfection and superb images photographed on location in Sri Lanka, Macau, London's Elstree Studios and at Lucasfilm's Marin County, Calif., facility make "Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom" two hours of fun-filled entertainment. But don't believe a word of it. Even Superman would fall short of Indiana Jones' strenuous schedule.

Kate Capshaw plays a nightclub singer who accompanies the adventure through the jungle to the Palace of Pankot, home of the Thugee Cult.

what's at the movies

ALPHABET CITY (R). Vincent Spano and Michael Winslow in film about 19-year-old who rises to top of his lower-east-side gang.

THE BOUNTY (PG). Captain Bligh and Fletcher Christian are at it again in this classy British remake. Starring Mel Gibson, Anthony Hopkins and Sir Lawrence Olivier.

BREAKIN' (PG). Musical features the latest fad, break-dancing.

CARMEN (R). Beautifully photographed dance version of Bizet's opera "Carmen."

CHATTANOOGA CHOO CHOO (PG). George Kennedy plays son-in-law who has to restore train for ride from Pennsylvania Station to Chattanooga in order to inherit a million dollars.

CHILDREN OF THE CORN (R). Worshipping nature gods with human sacrifice. Starring Peter Horton, Linda Hamilton and R.G. Armstrong.

FANNY AND ALEXANDER (PG). Academy Award-winner Ingmar Bergman's turn-of-the-century film follows a magical and mysterious family.

FINDERS KEEPERS (unrated). Young man is military escort for a casket that turns out to be filled with money. Michael O'Keefe, Beverly D'Angelo and Louis Gossett Jr., star.

FIRESTARTER (R). Stephen King won't quit. This one stars David Keith, Drew Barrymore, George C. Scott and Martin Sheen in tale of girl's ability to set fire to anything that frightens her.

GREYSTOKE: THE LEGEND OF TARZAN (PG). Classic and classy British remake carries the day. Christopher Lambert and Ralph Richardson make this ape story well worth the trip.

LOVE LETTERS Is the wrong thing right when passion is involved? Jamie Lee Curtis, James Keach, Amy Madigan, Matt Clark and Bud Cort star.

MAKING THE GRADE (R). Trading places in an exclusive prep school instead of the stock market.

THE NATURAL (PG). A big disappointment as Robert Redford, Robert Duvall, Glenn Close and other greats meander through a confusing, cliché-ridden baseball story.

ROMANCING THE STONE (PG). Michael Douglas and Kathleen Turner continue to have fun in this romantic comedy complete with terrific bad guys and the world's greatest hidden treasure.

SIXTEEN CANDLES (PG). Molly Ringwald is the girl whose family forgets her 16th birthday. Great possibilities, but never quite makes it. Pretty raunchy for a PG.

SUBURBIA (R). A new generation is the subject of this movie.

SWING SHIFT (PG). Goldie Hawn and Kurt Russell find romance, when her boyfriend is off to war, in film about women in defense plants during World War II.

TERMS OF ENDEARMENT (PG). Shirley MacLaine and Debra Winger wring tears from their mother-daughter relationship.

THIS IS SPINAL TAP (R). Rob Reiner is very funny in this satire about an unsuccessful British heavy metal band.

THEY'RE PLAYING WITH FIRE (R). Eric Brown ("Private Lessons") gets an English lesson from Playboy favorite Sybil Danning.
