City officials have been told that the maximum state grant would be $600,000. A 33 percent local match is required.

"I expect we'll get something," Graper said.

If the ballot proposal doesn't pass, however, Plymouth probably will have to pay for a cleanup on its own, Graper said.

City to sell bonds next month $1 million sale set for improvements

Bonds will be sold Wednesday. Nov. 2, by Plymouth to finance improvements to the city-owned mausoleum, construction of more crypts and niches at the mausoleum and renovations to Fleet Street around the Central City Parking

The 20-year bonds with a face value of $1 million will carry an average interest rate - exempt from federal and state taxes - of about 7.25 percent, projected William Graham, city finance direc-

Some $800,000 of the proceeds will be applied to the mausoleum, $200,000 to Fleet Street.

Graham is "thoroughly convinced" that no general fund money will be used to pay off the bonds. "Fleet Street improvements will be paid for out of DDA (businesses in the Downtown Development Authority) as a result of captured tax dollars," Graham said.

"We're looking for the mausoleum to be paid for by the sale of crypt spaces," he said.

RENOVATIONS AT the mausoleum already are under way, Graham said.

"They've replaced all the grouting on the exterior stone work, rebuilt the rear corner of the building, waterblasted the exterior to get years of pollution off the building," he said. "They're working on crypts and 408 niches - probably will begin in April and take four to six months to complete, Graham Crypts will carry an average sales price of $3,200, niches $1,200, he said. "Basically, we only have to sell 20 crypts a year to handle debt service on the $800,000."

Work on Fleet Street also will be put on hold until next spring for more favorable construction weather, Graham said.

"We'll be removing all existing concrete and replacing with new concrete as well as a brick walkway around the perimeter on the store side of the street," he said.

Communication Stamper gets life for murder

By M.B. Dillon staff writer

In a courtroom teaming with onlookers and armed Washtenaw County sheriffs, 18-year-old Steven Stamper was sentenced Friday to life in prison for the murder of Mary Anne Hulbert, 13, of Canton Town-

A jury convicted Stamper of Ypsilanti Township of second-degree murder Sept. 30. Circuit Judge Henry Conlin could have sentenced Stamper to a minimum of eight years imprisonment.

Stamper, dressed in hunter-orange overalls, white T-shirt and a camouflage jacket, said nothing after the sentence was announced.

"He just looked solemn and very circumspect," said Jeffrey Strouss, Stamper's attorney. "He knew he was going to get a substantial prison

Stamper was one of two defendants charged with open murder in the shooting death of Hulbert, whose body was found in a Superior Township field in January 1987.

ACCORDING TO testimony, Mary believed she was pregnant by the codefendant, Christopher Machacek. On Dec. 30, 1986, Stamper and Machacek drove Mary to a field where they claimed they intended to shoot rifles into the air, inducing a miscarriage by scaring Mary.

An autopsy showed Mary was not pregnant. The Stevenson Junior High School seventh grader was shot sev-Machacek was found guilty of first-degree murder in a separate jury trial in September. He is to be sentenced Friday by Conlin.

Addressing Stamper, Conlin said he received numerous letters from the friends and family of both the defendant and Hulbert.

"I'VE LIVED with this case now for over a year," said Conlin. "We've had a complete trial and a fair trial. After considering all the testimony, I cannot get past two or three things.

driven the car and provided the guns and bullets, Mary probably would be alive today," he said. "The other fact is that you and other people involved were partying afterwards. While that young lady was laying in the weeds, you were partying at a hotel. I can't believe it.

The court is convinced . . . that the only appropriate sentence is life." Conlin gave Stamper credit for the 653 days already served.

"It's not over for you," added the judge. "Everything you and your attorney have said about your desire to change your life is still available to you. I'm hopeful that I'll be hearing good things about you . . . about your getting an education and learning skills. You'll have a chance to convince the parole board. You're entitled to appellate review."

Strouss, who said he'd like to handle Stamper's appeal, said the average time served by those given a life sentence is 17 years.

But Strouss expects the decision to be reversed on appeal because of

"One is the fact that if you hadn't "four or five legitimate issues" concerning errors sheriffs made in investigating the case. It will take about a year for the state Court of Appeals to rule on the case. Strouss said.

STAMPER WAS TAKEN directly to Riverside Correctional Facility, a maximum security state prison in Moments after Stamper was sentenced, Tudie Braddom, Stamper's grandmother and adoptive mother. said she thought the case was "handled pretty well" by the court. Of her grandson's future, she said, "Steve wants to go ahead with college COURSES.

"He wants to go as far as he can," added Braddom, who bought for her grandson the .22-caliber semi-automatic rifle thought to be the murder

Fran Mitchell, Stamper's greatgrandmother, said, "Steve has always been a good boy. I think he'll do as he promised. He's had a bad life."

Judge heard pleas from Stamper, Hulbert

Before Washtenaw Circuit Judge Henry Conlin sentenced Steven Stamper in the slaying of Mary Anne Hulbert of Canton, he heard pleas from Stamper, Hulbert's mother and grandfather.

"I understand that this is a very serious crime and that someone should be punished. I was 16 when I was arrested, and it has been a long road," said Stamper.

"I believe I can go back to society and straighten things out. I don't believe I was that bad when I was out,"

"Debbie Hulbert is very upset. She lost her daughter, and I am sorry. I am sorry that everyone who loves me had to go through this. I just want the opportunity to show them I am a good person," said Stamper, who has grown three inches and lost 33 pounds since going to jail 20

"I've been through this court process for almost two years, and it's been horrible," she said. "Part of my life has been taken from me.

'I'll never close my eyes again, or walk into my empty house and see Mary's pictures on the wall without remembering the joy she brought to everyone in our family.

"We had good times together, Steven Stamper, Mary and me," she said. "We had good times. When I was first searching for Mary, no one would help me. Steve wouldn't pick up the phone and tell me where she McGarry, superintendent of quality control at GM's Willow Run plant, later showed the letter to a reporter.

It said, in part: "I agree with the statement the assistant prosecutor made in the juvenile court hearings, that to look into their (the defendants') eyes makes shivers run down your spine.

"I looked, and I shivered. Mary had so much going for her. She had had lessons in dancing, piano and skating. She had traveled to three continents and had lived in Africa for almost two years," McGarry

'We had already established a trust fund for her education. She never even had a chance to realize what she had and what a good future she had. Before her family ever even realized what was happening, she was taken out and executed."

The letter was signed "Norman D. McGarry, Mary's grampa."

FOR A YEAR and a half, Mary Hulbert lived with her grandparents in Nigeria, where McGarry was working. The three went on safaris in Tanzania and traveled through

"Then to come back and meet two people like this who have nothing to offer," said McGarry. "Mary was the light of my life.

"I'm just happy it's over. It's not going to bring Mary back. But maybe we can stop feeling so bad."

A free specialized training program will be held for interested participants, July 11 through July 27, on Mondays and Wednesdays 5:30-8:30 p.m. The training program will focus on the ability to provide support to patients and their families during their hospital stay. For further information, call 745-8939, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays.

• MEALS ON WHEELS

The Meals on Wheels program in the Plymouth area has recently expanded its hours. Volunteers are needed from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., for substitute drivers, and driver assistance. Please call 453-9703, Tonquish Creek Manor, between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Clerical workers and drivers are also needed to help out in the Northville office of Out-Wayne County Human Services, which administers the Meals on Wheels program. The Northville office is at Five Mile and Sheldon. For more information, call 453-2525.

• HEALTH MEETING

Adult and teen volunteers are needed to help at the Arbor Health Building in Plymouth, McAuley Health Building in Canton.

Volunteers may work directly with patients or in non-patient positions. Complete orientation and training are provided for all programs. To sign up for an information session, or for more information, call 572-4159.

• HOSPICE SPEAKERS . NEEDED

Hospice of Southeastern Michigan seeks outgoing individuals to participate in our volunteer speaker's bureau, affording you the opportunity to service the community while providing yourself with a new and rewarding experience. Please contact the public relations department at 559-9209.

MEDICAL HELP

Henry Ford Hospital is looking for men and women 18 and older as volunteers at the Plymouth Center on Main Street east of Penniman, Needed are people with all types of skills to help with patients or to perform clerical and other tasks. Nurses also are needed for blood pressure screening. For information, call Kathleen Kernen at the volunteer services department at 593-8131 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

AMATEUR PERFORMERS

The Plymouth Community Arts Council is updating its list of amateur performers who are willing to share their time and talent with students. The resource list is provided by the PCAC to all elementary teachers in Plymouth-Canton Community Schools. Particularly needed this year are dancers, singers and musicians. If you or someone you know has a special skill they are willing to share, call Pat MacIsaac at 453-8051.

• HISTORICAL MUSEUM

Volunteers are needed at the Plymouth Historical Museum. Are you interested in antiques and Plymouth history? Come in and visit your museum and see what's there. The museum needs volunteers for changing displays, helping in the gift shop, typing, printing, sewing and helping in the educational program for school children. Call 455-8940 or stop in from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday or Thursday to ask what you can do to help.

• IN-HOME CARE HELP

Volunteers are needed for in and out of home care for older adults. Inhome care provides in-home relief for care-givers of the disabled or frail older people. Out-of-home care is a supervised program at a day-care center, which includes social and rehabilitative activities in a group setting. Care is provided for older persons who need supervision when family and friends are not available. For information, call Plymouth Family Service at 453-

• PROBATION VOLUNTEERS 35th District Court Probation Department is seeking volunteers to provide direct supervision of adult misdemeanor probationers. The only experience needed is an interest in working with people. Volunteers are needed to work between the hours of 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. The number of hours per week and days per month are negotiable. Training classes are being scheduled. Interested people should contact the Probation Department,

CANCER VOLUNTEERS Anyone willing to serve as a driver or in another volunteer capacity in the Michigan Cancer Foundation office on Main Street in Plymouth may call Barbara Bicking at 833-0710, Ext. 348, or Catherine Cameron, Ext. 245. Volunteer drivers last year logged more than 34,000 miles. Because radiation therapy and chemotherapy often require daily visits for several weeks, a patient often will have two, three or more drivers during the course of one week's treatment. Michigan Cancer Foundation is a Plymouth Community Fund/United Way agency.

Public health officials from throughout Wayne County are taking time out Saturday, Nov. 5, to discuss the disease AIDS.

A daylong county AIDS conference will be held at the Wayne County Intermediate Schools offices, 33500 Van Born, Wayne.

The conference, health officials said, underscores their concern about the deadly disease.

"AIDS is the number-one public health concern facing the nation today," said Dr. Donald Lawrenchuk. county medical director. The county health department is one of the event's sponsoring agencies.

The conference intends to dispel myths and misinformation concerning the disease, Lawrenchuk said.

"THE MOST common myth is that AIDS is a gay white man's disease, and that everyone else isn't at risk.' he said. "The truth is, everyone is at risk.

There have been 431 confirmed

The Trane XL 90 gas furnace is up to

You can really save on energy use with the Trane XL90 gas furnace. It's a super efficient furnace...up to 95% efficient. If your present furnace is over ten years old, chances are it's only 60-65% efficient. Which means as much as 40% of the heat is going up the flue, not into your home. So replacing your furnace with the XL90 can make a big difference on the amount you spend for heating. The Trane XL90 gas furnace is loaded with quality features...a hot surface ignitor instead of an old fashioned pilot light, and a unique 2-speed inducer motor for quiet operation.

Think twice Projects take more than dreaming

"ON THE same recent morning I heard the word "snow" used in a local three water forecast, I sat in a hospital weather forecast, I sat in a hospita

The italic plug over the yarn by Dr. Karl Danneberger, a turfgrass agronomist at Ohio State University, said, "An agronomist with a dream discovers there is more to building a backyard putting green than planting grass, and finds a thin line between dream and nightmare."

Well, let me tell you something, buster. In the four months ahead, if you feel inclined to be a good guy and create overnight ice on a portion of your estate to make the kiddies happy, you, too, will discover the same thin line.

Better you should go back to the couch, lie down and fantasize on how nice winter must be in Palm Springs.

IT WAS the winter of '67-'68 and we owned a house in what then was Farmington Township, now Farmington Hills. Bob was 10, Betty 7. For some dumb reason, on a bitterly cold day my memory clock turned back to childhood when Paul Piper, who lived next door, was envied by neighborhood kids because his pop had built a skateable rink in the Pipers' side lot.

For all the fun I had on it, I should have been born with blades on the inside of my ankles.

Anyway, I figured that getting some timbers and sheets of plastic would be a good start. The kids could clear the given patch of its snow and uncoil the hose that had been stowed in the garage. Then we'd lay out the rink, let the water run all night and presto, by morning Mother Nature would have given us instant ice.

Why an otherwise brilliant wife allowed the charade to proceed, watching 'the whole proceeding through the kitchen window, bewilders me. Or does it? Maybe she knew it was useless to challenge pig-headed stubbornness and was willing to let boys be boys. In the next life, I'll ask.

By bedtime all was in place, the water was running successfully, and the temperature kept dropping. I didn't realize that I had overlooked one teensy weensy detail: namely, that our lot had a slight west to east grade.

DANNEBERGER, A devout golfer, wrote that for years he had dreamed that if he could practice enough on a putting green in his own backyard, he could get down to 24 puts for an 18-hole round. He also

"As an ominous sign of things to come, the neighbors were curious about what I was doing. Fearing failure, I refused to tell them, which led to wild rumors of a swimming pool, flower garden and a family burial ground. Neighbors can be pretty nasty when they don't know what's going on."

Eventually this Buckeye completed his project and invited the neighbors to enjoy his success. Then, he said, "they began to complain the green was too slow, too grainy, too bumpy, too soft, too hard, had too much break, didn't have enough break and lacked consistency... The world will never be short on critics."

We never put our ice rink to such a strenuous test of inviting friends to bring skates and give it a try. And there was only one irate critic. That was the guy who owned the home next door into whose yard all our water flowed, leaving both of us with frozen mud.

AT THIS date, I harbor the neverspoken feeling that our youngsters lacked confidence right from the beginning. Early on, they may have realized I am not a do-it-yourself addict. Putting a washer in the kitchen faucet is a major plumbing feat. Changing a light bulb stamps me as a certified electrician.

If I had it to do all over again, I would have waited for spring and tried to cultivate a putting green myself. Then the tilt of the terrain could have been called an undulation, and maybe I'd even be called an agronomist. Heaven knows, I've been called many things worse.

Sam Hudson wrote the following in October 1987. The longtime Plymouth resident, historian, author and columnist died Aug. 8. This essay was read at his memorial service in September.

Now that I have reached the Sixth Age — I was born in the same year

Age — I was born in the same year as the man in the White House — I feel impelled to join the ranks of oldsters who have reflected on what they would have done differently had they their lives to live over.

For one thing, in choosing a vocation I would not listen to friends, relatives and English teachers who saw in me a budding advertising man. I see now that I was not meant to be a media Willy Loman.

I would look into the possibilities of a career in some field of human endeavor where I could see a way of making a significant contribution to the world I live in. Statesman? Scientist? Medical researcher? Author? Dramatist? Supreme Court justice? Any field that might give me an opportunity to do more than just make money and live a comfortable life.

AND I would not exclude the field of business. In spite of bad apples that pollute the business barrel from time to time, an ethical business leader who does not gauge success solely in terms of wealth, or the number of bodies he has stepped over, is capable of contributing just as much to the society of his time as those in the arts, sciences or professions.

Whatever field I chose — and this is my main point — I would aim high. I would not be deterred by those whose opinion was that there was no hope for me if I was bent on improving Hamlet, or questioning the democratic efficacy of a strong central government, or demonstrating what was wrong with pasteurization, or refining the theory of relativity. Shakespeare, Hamilton, Pasteur and Einstein must have experienced similar putdowns when they were in their salad days.

Remember to aim high

Having chosen the field for which I had the greatest inclination and aptitude, I would also aim high in choosing the training that would fit me for it.

I would not be put off by learning that the university that seemed to be the best for that field was also the most expensive. Many a high-ranking institute of learning has special scholarships unknown to the student of limited means, who often takes second best simply because he or she is not aware of the unpublicized opportunities.

WHATEVER FIELD I chose, I would try to determine who was the best in that field and try to hitch my wagon to his star. If I chose to be a physicist, I would look for another Millikan and try to work under him. If my leaning was toward architecture, I would try to study under another Sullivan or Wright. And if I chose to be a golf professional, I would seek out a leading pro who was of my temperament, my height and my build and ask to carry his golf clubs.

past and present

Sam

Hudson

I would not be discouraged by temporary setbacks. In thus persevering it is true that I might become another Sisyphus, but every time I began to roll that stone up the hill I would be convinced that this time it would stay at the top. Besides, as Horatio found out, anticipation is better than realization.

People tend to listen to those who are most often in the news — the famous or the notorious. Since my position in life is not outstanding, and I have not lied in public office and then capitalized on it by writing a best-seller, I have no illusions that these musings will have any widespread influence. Or that anyone young enough to benefit will read them.

A few fathers or grandfathers may, however, call these few paragraphs to the attention of their progeny. If they do, and if one or two youngsters decide to aim high, resist the influence of well-meaning but not necessarily wise friends, refuse to be awed by the seeming insurmountability of Olympian heights, and never lose sight of what they set out to achieve, these few words will not have been in vain.

Check facts on abortions

To the editor:

In your article "Abortion Foes Place Money Before Emotion" of Sept. 2, Department of Social Service Director C. Patrick Babcock is quoted, "There's no way to predict whether women on welfare would be more careful about getting pregnant, or give up more children for adoption, or find other ways to pay for abortions, or find back-alley abortions."

Mr. Babcock should refer to studies done in Ohio and Georgia regarding the effects of cutting off tax funds for abortions. In her article published in the Wall Street Journal on Dec. 31, 1986, Jacqueline Kasun reports that in Ohio and Georgia when the tax funds for abortion ended, both the number of abortions and the number of live births decreased. Planned parenthood also found that there was no increase in the number of emergency room treatments for the type of complications from botcifed illegal abortions.

Together these studies support the belief that fewer unwanted pregnancies would occur if tax funding for abortions were eliminated. As further evidence that abortion has become just another form of birth control, consider that 60 percent of those receiving tax-funded abortions admit to using no form of contraceptive. Additionally, 40 percent are repeat abortions, back for their second, third, or even eighth tax-paid abortion.

Sheriff, judge at odds over jail incident

Wayne County Sheriff Robert Ficano said chief Wayne County Circuit Judge Richard Kaufman overstepped his bounds last week by ng him in contempt after a court-appointed monitor was denied access to the county jail.

Earlier this year, Ficano criticized a preliminary jail report filed by Nathan as full of inaccuracies.

Ficano has maintained jail conditions were vastly improved from those which prompted the 1971 law-suit, to the point of inviting reporters to visit the jail.

No penalties were assessed against the sheriff. The judge gave him until the end of the month to arrange a visit by Nathan. According to reports, Ficano has agreed to allow Nathan to visit the jail.

IT WAS the second time this year Ficano faced contempt charges stemming from the jail. In February, both Ficano and Wayne County Executive Edward McNamara were threatened with a contempt citation over jail conditions. That citation, however, was never issued.

The county subsequently sought — and received — a new 1-mill tax for jail construction and expansion.

It was also the second time a Wayne County Sheriff has been held in contempt related to conditions at the jail. Ex-sheriff William Lucas, Ficano's predecessor, had also been held in contempt.

Staff writer Susan Rosiek contributed to this story.

The second was issued on Oct. 6 and ordered the sheriff to provide staff to collect some 1,000 pieces of material so that it could be reviewed by the monitor. The Oct. 6 order gave the sheriff 10 days to comply.

FICANO said Nathan asked two doctors to come in on Oct. 13 to examine the medical case histories of 80 inmates.

The dispute, Ficano said, stemmed from a conflict between provisions of the two orders.

The sheriff also said any request for information takes staff time, and that there are 14 positions at the jail that are not filled.

At the hearing last week, Kaufman heard arguments from both attorneys then adjourned for a short time. When he came back he held a show cause hearing on the contempt charge. Nathan, according to Ficano, stood up in court and said "I didn't ask for that.

The judge didn't hear any testimony and issued the contempt charge. Ficano had previously asked Kaufman to excuse himself from the

Olives neat in grocery and vodka

I really can't tell you which I enjoy more, strolling through a Greek grocery, breathing in the air scentented with Calamatta olives or stirring a few anchovy-stuffed olives in an Icelandic vodka on the rocks.

I love olives. Whether they're served up on a steaming botana from Xochomilico's or sliced and tossed with some cherry tomatoes and a light vinaigrette, I love 'em even more.

The olive is one of the oldest known fruit crops. Man grew olive trees even before recorded history. It is not known when the wild olive was first brought under cultivation. But records point to the limestone hills of Attica, the Greek peninsula, as the seat of its first cultivation.

The olive is frequently mentioned in the Bible. The Spanish brought the olive to California in 1769. In the early Franciscan missions, the fruit was pressed for oil and used in the diet and burned for lamps.

AT LAST COUNT, there are more than 15 million acres of olive trees in the world. Each year, more than nine million metric tons of olives and more than three million tons tons of olive oil are produced. The countries bordering the Mediterranean Sea grow most of the world's olives and olive oil.

The olive tree is adapted to a hot, dry climate, and it does well on many different soils. For bearing fruit, it must have water, along with good drainage. Trees come into production at five years of age but are not in full production for at least another 10-15 years. They are long-lived, however, because it is known that trees brought to the United States by the Spaniards are still bearing

For the production of high-quality table olives, the fruit must be picked by hand. Harvesting for the oil industry is usually done mechanically, either by knocking the fruit from the trees or by the use of shakers.

Methods of processing the olives for the table vary widely. First, there is the traditional Spanish method, which has unripe yellowish-green olives being fermented. Second, the American method, in which halfripe reddish fruit is used and fermented, and lastly (my favorite) the Greek method, in which the fully ripe, dark purple fruit is preserved.

In most processing methods, a weak solution of lye is applied to neutralize the bitter principle. The lye penetrates the olives and hydrolyzes the bitter taste. The lye-treated olives are immediately rinsed and soaked in water, with frequent changes, in order to remove the lye. The washed olives are placed in fermentation tanks and barrels and are then covered with brine. The use of lye is not allowed in Greece. Instead, the brine is relied on to lessen and mask the bitterness, hence the different taste.

Pumpkins more than an eyeful

By Mary Rodrique staff writer

Halloween is just around the corner the day when pumpkins are elevated to star sta-

Those orange orbs are good for more than just carving jack-o-lanterns. The pumpkin, cousin to squash and gourds, and sure symbol of autumn, can be cut, cooked and transformed into everything from soup to dessert.

Upland Hills Farm in Oxford has been celebrating the pumpkin for several years with a Pumpkin Festival, complete with spooks and goblins and a haunted house. It continues each weekend through October, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Admission is $5 for adults, $3 for children. Visitors can take a horse-drawn hayride to a pumpkin patch, where they can pick their own pumpkin and have it named by the Great Pumpkin (who moonlights as a psychologist when he's not holding court in the pumpkin patch). Prices run from $1 for the smallest to $5.50 for a 16-inch pumpkin.

Of course, the less adventurous can do just as well at the local grocery store, fruit market or roadside pumpkin stand which seems to multiply this time of year the way Christmas tree lots appear in December.

PUREEING FRESH pumpkin is not hard. The folks at Upland Hills recommend not peeling unless the pumpkin is very large with a tough rind. Cut the pumpkin into cubes and put the squares in a preserving kettle with a pint of boiling water. Simmer without a cover for 5 or 6 hours, until the juice has Mash the pumpkin through a colander, or use a blender to make the puree. Pies, puddings and soups can be made from the fine, creamy pulp. If you use a colander, the leftover pulp can be used for cookies, cakes and bread. One medium-sized pumpkin will produce five or six cups of pulp.

If you have a large pumpkin, whose rind can't be used, clean it out, put its cap back on, and bake it in the oven. Place it on a cookie sheet and bake at 300 degrees for five or six hours. Then scrape out the meat and puree it as previously described.

Upland Hills has two pumpkin patches and has been operating the autumn festival for about 10 years, according to staff. Farmer Knight Webster says the patches are 10 acres each. And if they run out of pumpkins, they bring in more from neighboring farms. "We get 15,000 to 20,000 people each year," he said one recent Sunday. And despite cool, brisk weather, the farm was teeming with many families taking rides out to the pumpkin

KNIGHT AND his wife, Dorothy Webster, operate the family owned farm with the help of sons Bruce, who serves as president, and Ken, who runs a catering business and restaurant: Ken's Kitchen at the Wagon Wheel in Lake Orion.

Quadella the Witch celebrates Halloween with party guests by earving them a frightful — but tasty — array of food including Bloody Mary Soup, and Liverheads and crackers.

Halloween party wards off chill

Halloween, like Christmas, is a season, not just a day. The whole month of October vibrates with it.

Early in the month, Mother Nature decorates with festive fall colors - orange pumpkins and brown cornstalks. The leaves are aflame with reds, yellows, oranges and golds.

Later in the month - as these leaves fall to the ground - bare, spectral branches reach out like arms against the background of the gloomy gray sky on a rainy day, or cast weird lacy shadows in the night, by the light of a cold, white moon.

Sometimes, a mist will rise up from the ground to add to the effect, and produce a bit of a shiver in even the most stalwart.

Is it any wonder that this is a favorite time for parties? People need to get together to ward off the chill. They need to laugh and make light of the scary things that threaten us all as winter draws near.

HALLOWEEN PARTIES are special fun. Guests can come in masquerade and act anyway they like because their masks hide their true identity, and everyone knows they are only playing a role.

For one party, I hired a young high school girl to don a burlap dress, rat her hair widly and smear dirt on her face. She was then seated on a shelf in the living room, where she screamed madly at the guests as they entered the house, startling them a bit — to say the least.

That was a great ice-breaker.

On another occasion, we had a young man wear a parachute harness underneath his clothing, and hang suspended from the rafters on the porch. Everyone thought he was a stuffed dummy, until they get real close and heard him moan.

All sorts of tricks and scary games can be used, but at Halloween - as at any other time of year - it is the food that really determines the success of the party.

Traditional foods such as cider and doughnuts, apples in any form, pumpkins and popcorn, are always

But, at times, it is fun to try something different. We once ordered a six-foot submarine sandwich, had it wrapped in a white sheet, delivered by a hearse, and carried in on a slab - like a

OLIVE OIL is produced by mechnical extraction of the ground fruit. Traditionally, this involves three steps: the crushing of the fruit, the pressing (usually two-four times) and the separating of the oil from the liquor.

Most table olives are prepared commercially in ready-to-serve form, using one of the following

1. Canned or bottled green Spanish olives. These are usually pitted and the pit cavity stuffed with pimentos, onions, almonds, anchovies or other

2. Canned, ripe American olives. The production of canned ripe olives is centered in California. The olives are picked when yellow to red color and are cured, then packed in enamel-lined cans, covered with a salt solution, sealed and sterilized.

3. Black, naturally ripe olives from Greece, are kept on the trees

Pumpkins: more than an eye

"This year we're using canned pumpkin," said Ken, a former teacher who got his start in the food busi-ness by baking tarts and bread for the pumpkin festival several years ago.

"The honey used as a sweetener is superior to sugar and a more important ingredient than fresh pumpkin," he said. In addition to honey, the tart features a whole-wheat crust. Near Upland Hills is the Middleton Berry Farm, on Stoney Creek

Road in Oxford, which advertises a mpkin harvest and has an ample fruit stand to boot.

If there's a difference between fresh pureed pumpkin and solid-pack canned pumpkin, even some profes-sionals don't taste the difference.

Pumpkin alone is pretty bland. It's the spices that add flavor," said Lorrie Leonard, owner of Lorrie's Confectionately Yours in the Laurel Commons shopping center in Livo-

LEONARD'S PASTRY shop offers several mouthwatering confections, including pumpkin cheesecake sold whole in three sizes or by the slice. The cheesecakes are made with canned solid-pack pumpkin.

"Other than the work involved (with fresh), I don't see the difference," said Leonard, who admitted to pureeing fresh pumpkin just once.

"I think it's something that families might like to do in the fall, like dipping apples in caramel," she said.

But as long as you're dealing with a good manufacturer, like Libby's or Stokely's, the canned is just as good."

To enhance flavors, an easier way than pureeing fresh pumpkin would be to use canned pumpkin, but splo-the recipe with fresh ground cin namon, she suggested.

Those who used fresh pump though, can make use of the seeds ar well as pulp. From the culinary program of Schoolcraft Community Col lege comes this suggestion for gour met, roasted pumpkin seeds. Clean and soak the seeds over night in four cups of water 46 cup o salt, and a cup each of molasses sherry and/or brandy. Drain and lightly salt seeds again. Bake in z 350-degree oven until golden brown.

Mix the well-beaten egg yolk with water and use a pastry brush to coat each decorated pastry-wrapped por-tion of ham, to glaze it.

At this point, you may refrigerate until ready to bake, or bake at once in a 350-degree oven until pastry is done and ham is tender (about 45 minutes to one hour).

In a saucepan, bring the remaining mustard mixture to a boil and serve as sauce for the ham.

MAGGOTS

Use either orzo, langues d'oiseau (pasta shaped like large grains of rice), or tubettini peles (tiny pieces of straight macaroni).

These forms of pasta are sometimes available in your supermar-ket, but any good Italian market (such as Villa Bakery in Garden City) always carries them.

Place one pound of pasta in four quarts of salted, boiling water, cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until desired tenderness is reached. (Cook a little softer than usual, to more resemble maggots.) Drain

Add one-half pound butter or margarine, cut into small chunks. The heat of the pasta will melt it. Add one pound shredded Monterey Jack or Muenster cheese and one cup warm milk the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

Here's how area members of Congress were recorded on major roll call votes between Sept. 30 and Oct.

HOUSE

FOREIGN OWNERSHIP - By a vote of 250 for and 170 against, the House passed and sent to the Senate a bill (HR 5410) requiring foreigners who buy heavily into American assets to register with the Commerce Department.

These buyers would have to make certain information available to the government - their officers and directors by nationality and certain internal financial information.

Supporter James Florio, D-N.J., 'We want to know who owns America, and that is what this legislation is all about."

Opponent Jim Cooper, D-Tenn., called the bill "an exercise in elec-tion year xenophobia," damaging to states that court foreign investment.

Members voting yes want foreign buyers of America to provide certain internal data to the U.S. government. Voting yes: Democrats Dennis Hertel of Harper Woods and Sander Levin of Southfield.

Voting no: Republicans Carl Pursell of Plymouth and William Broomfield of Birmingham.

Not voting: William Ford, D-Tay-

TEXTILE BILL VETO - By a vote of 272 for and 152 against, the House failed to achieve the twothirds majority it needed to override President Reagan's veto of textile trade legislation (S 2662).

The bill would have frozen nonrubber footwear imports at present levels and limited textile and clothing imports to a growth rate of 1 percent annually over 1987 levels.

Override supporter James Traficant, D-Ohio, said the bill is needed because unfair competitors abroad 'are laughing in our face."

Jim Slattery, D-Kansas, said the bill would inflict "unnecessary increases in clothing and shoe prices" on American consumers.

Members voting yes wanted to override President Reagan's veto of the textile bill. Voting yes: Democrats Hertel, Ford and Levin.

Voting no: Republicans Pursell and Broomfield.

WELFARE REFORM - By a vote of 347 for and 53 against, the House sent to President Reagan legislation (HR 1720) giving the federalstate welfare system its first major overhaul in its 53 years.

Roll Call Report

Seeking to end welfare dependency, the bill:

- · Requires most recipients to enroll in state job-training and educa-tion programs as a condition of getting their welfare checks.
- · Requires payroll withholding of absent parents' child-support obliga-
- Institutes "workfare" under which one parent in a welfare family must spend at least 16 hours weekly in a government or community ser-

Supporter Don Pease, D-Ohio, termed the bill "a clear signal that we expect people on welfare to move on to regular employment."

Opponent Bill Archer, R-Texas, said "the bill will approach $1 billion a year in extra spending" after five Members voting yes supported the bill. Voting yes: Pursell, Hertel, Levin and Broomfield.

Voting no: Ford.

TOBACCO, ALCOHOL TAXES -By a vote of 60 for and 33 against. the Senate tabled (killed) a proposal to raise alcohol and cigarette taxes. The revenue would fund multi-billion dollar anti-drug legislation that Congress may clear before it adjourns this month.

Deficit ceilings have left Congres far short of the revenue the drug bill will require to meet the high expectations lawmakers are raising for it in the countdown to Election Day.

This amendment to a tax bill (S 2238) sought to raise $2 billion over two years by raising federal levies on cigarettes, wine, beer and liquor.

Sponsor Warren Rudman, R-N.H., said the drug bill "will be meaningless without funding."

Opponent Terry Sanford, D-N.C., said Congress should consider instead a slight increase in top-bracket workers to be legally protected income-tax rates.

Members voting yes were opposed to the proposed "sin tax" hike.

Sen. Donald Riegle, D-Mich., voted

yes, while Carl Levin, D-Mich., voted

TO FUND DRUG BILL - By a vote of 22 for and 72 against, the Senate rejected an attempt to fund the 1988 anti-drug bill (above) by cutting spending for Amtrak, low-income energy assistance, a controversial Pentagon coal buying program, the Legal Services Corp. and the Economic Development Administration. This occurred during debate on S 2238.

Sponsor Phil Gramm, R-Texas, said, "I know the people of America will not accept the cynicism" of Congress' touting a war on drugs that it refuses to fund.

Opponent Arlen Specter, R-Pa., said the Senate should repudiate Gramm's "wish list for how he would like to reconstruct the federal

Senators voting yes wanted to take money from certain other programs

Salem stumbles in title meet

To the winner goes the spoils of victory - and that includes the leftover pizza in the case of Farmington's boys cross country team.

Plymouth Salem honored a premeet wager by treating its opponent to dinner after Farmington defeated the Rocks 24-33 in Thursday's showdown for the Lakes Division dualmeet title

Both teams go to preseason camp together each August and have developed a sportmanslike bond in addition to a competitive rivalry.

Their latest meeting was a rematch of last year's season finale in which Salem edged the Falcons for the division championship, winning a sixth-man tiebreaker. Farmington, 5-0 in the Lakes and 8-0 overall, made sure their was no such ending to this year's dual meet, capturing three of the top five places and getting the jump on Salem.

"LAST YEAR THEY beat us, and we came back to beat them in the league meet," Farmington coach Jerry Young said. "They reminded us of that right away."

Brad Moore of Farmington won a foot race to the finish line and nipped Salem's Scott Stryker for first place. Moore ran 16:45 on the Oakland Community College course and Stryker 16:46.

Farmington's Ben Goba was right behind, taking third at 16:48, and Greg Endres nabbed the No. 5 spot after Brendon Masterson of Salem came across in fourth place. Endres was three seconds behind Masterson, who ran 17:32.

"Ben and Brad made the race," Young said. "We knew we needed one or two guys close to Stryker, who's certainly one of the best runners in this area. They did a great

"Ben pushed it today. He didn't win it, but he was the one pushing Young was especially pleased with the efforts of Goba and Endres, who have been hurt much of the season. "THE LAST GOOD race Endres ran was at (the) Schoolcraft (Invitational on Sept. 17)," Young said. "That tells you how long it's been."

Endres, who has been running in the 18- to 19-minute range, came through in the biggest meet of the year and ran his best time since the Schoolcraft race. "Moore ran a great race," Young said. "I think that's the first time he's beaten Stryker.

"Goba and Endres, because they were hurt, were the key kids in the victory. Having them today was

The Falcons had a 9-12 lead after six runners, and they sewed up the win when Mark Mitchell, Paul Brandt and Matt Langdon, following sixth-place Dave Hamway of Salem, captured the Nos. 7-9 positions, respectively.

Hamway was clocked at 17:40, Mitchell 17:42, Brandt 17:48 and Langdon 17:56. John Thomas and Sean Speakman completed the Salem scoring, coming in 10th and 11th at 17:59 and 18:01.

Comeback falls shy as Canton tumbles, 17-12

staff writer

The cold rain, a 17-0 Walled Lake Central lead and a woeful offense gave people three reasons to leave Friday's Plymouth Canton game. Karl Wukie gave them one reason to canton caught fire in the final five minutes, but it wasn't enough to beat the visiting Vikings, who won 17-12 in a Western Lakes crossover foot-

The sophomore quarterback miraculously brought the Chiefs, 2-6. within 30 yards and 30 seconds of beating Central, 3-5. But time ran out faster than the yards would.

Wukie replaced starting quarterback Jason Dembny in the final quarter and promptly completed six consecutive passes for 99 yards. One of those was a 15-yard touchdown strike to Bruce Hermanson with three minutes left in the game.

Wukie moved the ball with efficiency and profiency in his relief

Ironically enough, Wukie started in the Chiefs' win against Livonia Franklin the previous week. He was relieved by Dembny.

"LAST WEEK, he didn't look that good, so we went with Dembny," Khoenle said. "Tonight, Dembny didn't look good. Next week, we'll probably start so-and-so, and he'll probably play bad.
"Heck, I don't know. Maybe they can't stand prosperity."

Prosperity was only 30 yards away for Canton. After Hermanson scored, he recovered an onside kick that gave the Chiefs the ball on the the Viking 34. Four plays later, Jason Riggs carried the ball 4 yards for the touchdown with 2:10 remaining.

The two-point conversion attempts on both Canton TDs failed. The Chiefs needed a touchdown to Wukie attempted four passes, but all were incomplete. End Aaron Adkins managed to sneak past the Viking secondary but missed grabbing a Wukie pass in a diving attempt.

Still, minus the last-second comeback attempt, the Chiefs were a sad sight to watch. Offensively, they were stagnant. The team did not get a first down until midway through the third quarter.

Defensively, Canton fell as easy as dominos hit by a bowling ball. Viking running back Joe Gough continually pounded the middle, accumulating 115 yards in 25 carries.

Bowie lifts ballclub to 21-14 win

The Pat Bowie Show rolled through Northville Friday evening, although it's doubtful it received rave reviews from the Bowie, a 5-foot-9, 200-pound junior fullback, punished the Mustangs with 183 yards rushing and three touchdowns in leading Plymouth Salem to a 21-14 Western Lakes' football triumph.

Bowie scored on runs of 1, 3 and 14 yards. His final TD broke a 14-14 tie with 6:41 left in the game and capped a 59-yard, sixplay drive. Bowle provided the key play in the game-winning march, a 27-yard run.

The Rocks, who improved to 6-2, never trailed in the game but had to withstand two Northville comebacks that tied the score. Bowie, who had 129 yards rushing in the first half, dived in from a yard out in the second quarter to finish a 12-play, 64-yard drive that included Bowie runs of 13, 9 and 27 yards.

BUT THE MUSTANGS tied it with just six seconds left in the half on a 3-yard pass from Greg Price to Dave Cryderman.

A fumble recovery by Salem's Mike Jarvey at the Northville 17 in the third quarter set up Bowie's second TD. It took the Rocks four plays to score: two runs by quarterback Ryan Johnson for 13 yards and two runs by Bowie for 4.

Northville, though, rallied again, tying the score with 9:41 remaining in the game on a 4yard Mike Karfis run. The Mustangs negotiated 44 yards in 10 plays to knot the game at 14.

Salem outgained Northville, 273-213. The run-oriented Rocks threw just four passes. Johnson completed two for 28 yards. Bowie lugged the ball 19 times in rushing for 183 yards; Salem finished with 245 yards on the ground.

Northville's Price hit seven-of-15 passes for 72 yards, but was intercepted twice. The Mustangs (3-5 overall) also lost two fumbles. They gained 141 yards rush-

Plymouth Salem made quick work Thursday of host Westland John Glenn, outscoring the Rockets 24-8 in the first quarter en route to a 65-51 trouncing. Salem improved to 12-2 overall, 8-0 in the Lakes Division; Glenn dipped to 7-6 overall, 4-4 in the division. Three Rocks reached double figures in scoring: Jill Estey (19), Teri King (15) and Sarah Ruete (11). Estey had 12 and King 10 of Salem's first-quarter points. 'We left too many kids open (in the first quarter)," said Glenn coach Pat Bennett. 'We didn't pressure them and they hit some nice open shots pretty consistently."

The Rockets were led by Yvette Lawrence's 16 points and seven rebounds. Tracy Martin scored 14 points and Janet Ternes tallied nine.

CANTON 66, HARRISON 5: Plymouth Canton showed no mercy at home Thursday against woeful Farmington Hills Harrison. The Chiefs held the winless Hawks scoreless in the first and fourth quarters in rolling to their 14th win in 15 games. They are $0 in the Western Lakes Activities Association's West-

MERCY 35, LADYWOOD 32: Jenny Clinton's four free throws down the stretch carried Farmington Hills Mercy past rival Livonia Ladywood in a Catholic League Central Division girls basketball game Thursday before 900 fans at Madonna College. "It was a great lift for us after that great embarrassment Tuesday (a 65-36 loss to Birmingham Marian), with all the turnovers," said Mercy coach Larry Baker, whose team improved to 4-10 overall, 4-4 in the Central. "The way they came back makes me very proud of this win."

Defense and rebounding keyed the Marlin victory. Mercy limited Ladywood forward Yvonne Barnett to seven points ("Holding her to seven is a great achievement for us," Baker said) and held Jenny Kennedy scoreless in the fourth quarter. Kennedy had 12 in the game. On the boards, Mercy had a commanding 40-28 advantage. Lee Albrecht topped the Marlins with 10. Clinton, who Baker said "did a masterful job running the offense," led all scorers with 15 points. Clinton's four free throws came after Sherri Adams drilled a threepointer to give the Blazers a short-lived 32-31 lead.

The loss dropped Ladywood to 9-5 overall, 5-3 in the Central.

FARMINGTON 44, STEVENSON 38: Marissa Ferrari's 10 first-quarter points enabled Farmington (2-7 in the Lakes Division, 4-10 overall) to roll to a 17-6 lead after one period and hold on for the win against visiting Livonia Stevenson.

Ferrari finished with 19 points. Erika Hatcher added eight and Kirsten Norman six and 13 rebounds.

Jeanne Magoulick led Stevenson (0-9 in the Lakes, 1-12 overall) with nine points; Jessann Martin had eight.

W.L. CENTRAL 60, N. FARM-INGTON 58: North Farmington wasn't quite able to stop Walled Lake Central on the Vikings home floor Thursday.

North was paced by junior guard Kim Gurecki's 25 points, which led all scorers. Central got 24 points from senior forward Kelly O'Hanlon and 20 points and 19 rebounds from senior center Tonia Smith.

IN FACT, EARLIER in the season, Kiel set the OCC course record 20:02, which was subsequently broken by Rives, who ran 19:51. Yuhn in turn broke her record by running 19:12.

The Falcons, 8-0 overall, won the Lakes Division title outright with a 5-0 record by beating Salem, 3-2 and

BUT THE ROCKS had hopes of surprising Farmington and creating three-way tie for the division championship. Salem had previously only lost to Livonia Stevenson.

It would have been quite an accomplishment for this team," said Salem coach John Gravlin, noting the Rocks have fine runners in Traci Thomas and Shannon Donnelly but not as much depth.

"(The others) have been consistent, good runners all year, and today we were asking them to be great. At the one-mile point, Farmington had its eyes open, because we were in po-

"I think it would have been the upset of the year," he added.

Thomas was second at 21:07, but the Falcons captured the next three places with Jenny Derwinski finishing in 21:12 and freshmen Allison Davis and Sheri Ylitalo running 21:14 and 21:41, respectively.-

Salem made a bid to stay with Farmington as Donnelly and Beth Cunningham took the Nos. 6 and 7 places with 21:59 and 22:02 times, holding the Falcons to a 13-15 lead.

FARMINGTON WRAPPED up the victory when Amy Trunk came in eighth at 22:04 and Carrie Walter, another freshman, provided blocking help with a 10th-place finish and 22:17 time.

Salem's Jenny Harris was ninth at 22:05, and Sarah Hayes rounded out the team scoring when she finished 11th in 23:02.

"I figured if everybody ran their usual race, we'd be OK," Barrett said. "Again, the freshman came through and ran well today."

Because of that, the Falcons continue to be successful despite losing three of their top six runners — jun-ior Margaret Martin, senior Maureen O'Dell and sophomore Cheryl Casaroll - from a year ago to injury or illness.

'Our top six runners today have done an excellent job the last two weeks of running hard at practice and taking up where the injured runners left off," Barrett said. They've really done a bang-up job."

Despite also having a career-best time, Salem's Thomas fell just short of her personal goal of running 21:00. She has the 10th-best time in school history and needed that time to move up to No. 9.

"I felt I held back in some places," the senior said. Once I heard my two-mile time, I thought I had the time I wanted and slowed down, and I shouldn't have."

Traci Thomas was Salem's top runner, finishing second overall. The Rocks made an unsuccessful bid to tle Farmington and Stevenson for the division title.

Salem coach Geoff Baker, whose team finishes 4-1 in the Lakes and 4-2 in dual meets, credited the Falcons for their successful pack running, which he said would be the deciding factor.

"They were bunched in there pretty well," he said. "Where that came from, I don't know. When they ran (Livonia) Stevenson at Cass (Benton Park), they weren't like that, but they don't like Cass."

Chiefs are perfect in dual meets

It was supposed to be the show-down for the Western Division dual-meet girls cross country title Thursday.

Plymouth Canton, however, left little doubt it is the class of the division - not to mention the league — by crushing Livonia Franklin 17-46 at Cass Benton

The Chiefs, who will defend their Western Lakes Activities Association championship Wednesday on the same course, finish 5-0 in the division and 6-0 overall. Franklin ends up 4-1 and Canton coach George Przygodski attributed his team's third consecutive division title "to good senior leadership. Every year we have a group of seniors who are willing to work hard.

"Our whole program is built around our senior class," he add-

THE TOP THREE places and seven of the top eight belonged to the Chiefs, who were led by Lori Penland, who won the race in 20:23.

Seniors Cindy Spessard and Kris Marquard were second and third but had the same 20:59 time.

Kelly Gustafson, a freshman whom Przygodski rates as an outstanding prospect, was the only Franklin runner able to stay with the Canton pack, taking fourth place in 21:05.

Canton ran away with the victory when Cathy McCabe, Lynda Schendel, Adrienne Garrow and Missy Jasnowski came across in the Nos. 5-8 places. McCabe ran 21:16, Schendel 21:26, Garrow 21:34 and Jasnowski 21:41.

The Chiefs are favored to repeat as WLAA champs, but Przygodski doesn't expect the other teams to concede automatically.

"I think (Lakes Division champ) Farmington will run well, and I think Salem is maturing and peaking at the right time," he said.

Canton gets prepped for league meet

Plymouth Canton tuned up for the Western Lakes Activities Association cross country meet by crushing Livonia Franklin in its final boys dual meet Thursday.

The Chiefs nailed down the top five places and breezed past the Patriots at Cass Benton Park, 15-44. Canton ends up 4-1 in Western Division duals and 5-1 overall.

?'We feel we'll be very competitive" in the league meet, Canton coach Jim Hayes said. "There's four of five teams that can win, and we're one of them.'

Brian Beach led the Chiefs to their latest victory with a first-place time of 17:06, and just 35 seconds separated Canton's top five runners.

Mike Ream was second at 17:21, Matt Hall third at 17:23, Jason Napolitano fourth at 17:35 and Jim Galagher fifth at 17:41.

Beach, Ream and Hall have been "doing a heckuva job," Hayes said.

Will Dawson finished sixth (17:42), in Shea seventh (17:45) and Jeff Horne eighth (17:52) to lead Frank-

Chiefs, Rocks clash in district

Plymouth Canton is primed for to-night's first-round district soccer game with rival Plymouth Salem, following its impressive 5-0 victory Wednesday over Parmington.

The Chiefs, who improved to 6-7-4 overall by winning the Western Lakes Activities Association crossover game, play the Rocks at 7 p.m. in the Centennial Educational Park stadium.

The teams split their two meetings this season. Canton beat Salem 4-2 in the consolation game of the Plymouth Invitational on Saturday, Sept. 3, but the Rocks, 11-4-2, avenged that defeat with a 5-2 victo-

"Monday's game will be a pretty emotional game. We know Salem has had a successful season, and it should be a great game."

THE CHIEFS haven't had the kind of season they envisioned at the start, but Canton, buoyed by the solid defensive effort against Farmington,

"We're all healthy," he said. "It looks like we're coming together. The kids believe in themselves, and that goes a long ways."

John Cortese and Dave Presley scored two goals each for the Chiefs. Cortese's first goal came with the game one minute old, and his second tally gave Canton a 2-0 halftime

Salem, 11-4-2 overall, routed host Northville 5-0 in a Western Lakes. Activities Association crossover game behind the two-goal performance of Gold, who missed the previous 16 games because of a broken foot.

Gold, a junior center/forward, recorded his first tally of the seas two minutes before halftime, giving the Rocks a 3-0 lead. Joe Tippman opened Salem's scoring at the 30-minute mark, and Joe Nunez recorded his first varsity goal five minutes later.

But it was the return of Gold, a co-captain, that coach Ken Johnson

Gold will be a valuable asset for Salem today when it plays host to Plymouth Canton today in a 7 p.m. predistrict game.

"It's unfortunate (that he hasn't played), because he probably would have made all-league and maybe all-state had he played," Johnson said. "He'll help us in the district.

"He's a good leader and one of his best points is being in the right place at the right time. He's like a quarterback in the middle."

Sophomore halfback Todd Lajoy scored Salem's first goal of the second half, and Gold capped the scoring about four minutes later.

Matt Gold and Chris Olson had two assists each for Salem.

And we haven't changed any names, either. In a nationwide taste test, a majority of smokers rated Merit as good or better than Camel Filters, a full-flavor brand with twice as much tar as Merit. Enriched Flavor™ is the reason why. Only Merit has it, in both regular and menthol. Which is why Merit can deliver full, satisfying tobacco flavor with far less tar than Camel Filters. In fact, Merit delivers all that taste with even less tar than other leading light cigarettes!

Including Winston Lights. And Salem Lights. So taste

Merit yourself. You'll find it truly remarkable.

RANDY BORST/staff photographs

Jim Vik of Farmington Hills bought his "dream" car, a Mercedes 190 SL convertible, in 1986, paying "in the ballpark of $12,000." The car, which also has a hard top, "is the little road-ster I've always wanted, ever since I was a little kid."

By Janice Brunson staff writer

Monday, October 24, 1988 O&E

In its heyday during the late 1950s and early '60s, the convertible was the preferred automobile of choice for thousands of drivers who seemingly asserted a "Ube-U" individuality in their choice.

"If you wanted to be different or sporty, the convertible was the car to buy," said Ray Windecker of Livonia, who coined the U-be-U phrase. Windecker is a 41-year veteran of the auto industry who now works for Ford Motor Co.

The peak year for convertibles was 1963. Of 7.7 million automobiles sold in the United States that year, 540,000 had folding tops. Seven percent of all cars on the road were convertibles.

But by the late 1960s, the scene was rapidly changing. Buyers who took pride in driving something different had a whole new array of exciting selections, a veritable cornucopia of imported and American-made coups, pickups and sports cars.

The convertible plunged in popularity, almost gone from the U.S. market by 1973. Cadillac was the last to end production, discontinuing the El Dorado convertible in 1976 after manufacturing 14,000 that year.

By 1980, there were fewer than 50,000 licensed convertibles in the United States An estimated 20,000 of those were imported Flats.

THE JET BLACK, 1969 Ford Torino is in mint, original condition.

Catherine "Katie" Ascencio, now 20 and a student at Oakland Community College, bought the used car four years ago while a sophomore at Redford Union High School. She labored long hours at after-school jobs to pay for it.

"It's my baby," she said. "The minute I saw it, I knew it was the car for me. I always wanted an old convertible. I love it.".

She parks the car in winter. Storage is something of a problem. She must rely on relatives with an empty garage or pay the cost of storage, sorely stretching her already limited budget. But Katie considers the sacrifice well worth while.

fice well worth while.
"I'd never sell it," she said.

Katie's devotion is not unusual among convertible lovers. And their numbers are rapidly increasing.

This fiscal year, 155,000 drivers in the United States and Canada bought new model convertibles, 18 percent more than last year. Sales are expected to top 190,000 in 1989. The majority of models sold are American-made.

U-be-U individuality, the culprit accountable for the demise of the convertible, has once again reared its head. Buyers are clamoring yet again for something different, and convertibles fit the bill.

It was 'love' at first sight

MICKY JONES

Port Stanley is definitely a place where you should slow down and live on 19th century time.

Auto analysts first noticed the trend in 1980, buyers pestering dealers for convertible models. U.S. manufacturers responded. The first model in six years hit the market in 1982, quickly followed by a succession of others.

Nick Vitale, a sales manager for Joe Panian Chevrolet in Southfield for 10 years, recalls those first inquiries and the changes since.

"THIS YEAR, (the availability of convertible) Corvettes dried up all over the country. We had to go as far as Texas to find some," he said. In fiscal year 1988, Panion was one of the nation's leading Chevrolet dealers in convertible sales, selling 20 Corvettes and 10

Cavaliers and Cameros.

Today's buyer is reflective of those from yesteryear, "free spirits," according to Vitale and others in the industry.

They are also younger, better-educated and more affluent than the average buyer. Most live in the northeastern United States, many in the Great Lakes region. Only 10 percent seriously considered buying anything other than a convertible.

"They know exactly what they want and how much it costs," said Mark Cowell of Birmingham Imports who sells high-priced used and new imported sports car convertibles like Maserati, Rolls Royce, Mercedes Benz and Jaguar.

Late last month, Jaguar's new V12-powered XJS convertible, the first convertible produced by Jaguar since 1974, went on sale in the United States at a suggested retail price of $56,000.

The car is the latest response by auto manufacturers to a growing love affair between drivers and convertibles that has reignited this decade.

U.S. manufacturers first responded to the new affair in 1982, giving rebirth to American-made convertibles. Models now available include:

 Chrysler LeBaron — Introduced in 1982 and redesigned in 1987, only American model manufactured entirely in-house. Features all-power lined top, back window with heated glass and standard air bags.
 Suggested retail price: $14,495.

Port Stanley: life in the slow lane

Port Stanley - population 2,000 - is definitely a place where you should slow down and live on 19th century time. The town was established in the early 1800s where Kettle Creek flows into Lake Erie. The mouth of the creek makes a natural harbor, so this has been a fishing, boat building and shipping town for more than a century.

It is easy to imagine that time as you walk down the two or three streets built around the harbor. It is not so easy to imagine the great tourist boom that dominated Port Stanley from the 1920s to the 1950s.

The original building on the site was built by a 19th century justice of the peace, who liked to sit at the bay window in his dining room and look out at the garden. The garden is still here, expanded, of course, and with a white gazebo in the middle for those who prefer to eat outdoors.

For Mitch Easter, the game isn't 'What's My Line?" but rather "Who Have You Talked to Lately?"

After a recent Let's Active performance, the usual backstage wellwishers swarm around the one of the most-lauded new music producers today. The questions start.

"Hey, Mitch, great show. Have you talked with Game Theory lately?" "Mitch, the band sounded great. What's R.E.M. up to these days?"

Such is the life of a producer whose musical works include R.E.M., Game Theory (see related story), Marshall Crenshaw, Suzanne Vega and Velvet Elvis. But Easter has an album of his own, "Every Dog Has His Day" (I.R.S.), the latest from pop-rock outfit Let's Active.

He politely answers the barrage of inquiries. He's quite aware that Mitch the producer casts a bigger shadow than Mitch the performer.

"Apparently, it does," said Easter, almost resigned, "and that's too bad. I've been a musician much longer than I've been a producer. That's why I got into this stuff in the first place so I could play music."

Let's Active performs more than just music on its latest album. If anything, it could described as adventuresome pop.

"Every Dog Has His Day" perhaps has more of a sharp bite than other Let's Active works. That stems from having John Leckie (Pink Floyd "Dark Side of the Moon") along as co-producer. Easter said he focused more on the hard-edged side of Let's EVEN HAVING a second producer is something new for the group. Easter usually handles things on his own.

"It was politics, really," said Easter, about having Leckie as co-producer. "People in the music industry like more guaranteed formulas for success. They think bringing in big names, going to expensive studios is going to help the album sell."

For the first time, Easter entered the studio with a solid band. He's joined by Angie Carlson on keyboards, guitars and vocals, Eric Marshall on drums and John Heames on bass.

The band is tight. In a recent show at Ann Arbor's Michigan Theater, Let's Active provided nearly an hour of high-powered pop as an opening act for The Church.

At the forefront is Easter, who's quite an adept guitar player in addition to his songwriting capabilities. Carlson, an accomplished vocalist in

There has to be one outstanding thing to get hold of," he said. "It can be anything. It could be the melody. It can be the clever use of words or it can be the sound.

The whole thing about pop songs is that you're limited in structure. You have to do it in three minutes. It's sort of a hit-you-over-the-head type thing. It has to grab you. It can't be bland."

HOTHOUSE FLOWERS - The Ritz

Hothouse Flowers might not bowl you over with their recorded material, but live this Irish band is something to behold.

The Flowers, touted as the "next big thing," performed a solid twohour set featuring many of the cuts from their latest album, "People." But unlike the album, people can see first-hand the sincerity this band possesses in the way it performs. In terms of stage presence, lead singer Liam O'Maonlai holds his own with the best of the rock'n'roll lot, including fellow country man Bono. The rest of the group follows suit, going straight ahead with a brand of music that blends, rock, folk, soul and Celtic rhythms.

The knock on this group is that their music tends to be over blown. Signs of that were certainly evident at this gig. The continuous saxophone solos by Leo Barnes don't provide texture as much as they do irritation. For the most part, they go against the grain of what Hothouse Flowers is trying to do musically. And, too, O'Maonlai tends to wail where a whisper would suffice.

Remarkable, though, is that this was Hothouse Flowers' fourth show in as many nights. The place was only half-full. Yet they didn't waiver or take it easy for one second.

The ultimate gauge for any band is its live performances. By that yard stick, Hothouse Flowers is more than a few feet ahead of the

Convertibles: A new love affair

Dean Mooney, 42, floral manager for Bordine's Better Blooms in Rochester, bought a cobalt blue Dodge 600 in 1982, the year of rebirth for the American convertible.

'It's something I always wanted; I love it," Mooney said, expressing an often-heard refrain among convertible lovers. His only problem: Deciding on a new model since the Dodge 600 was discontinued in 1986.

Women are big buyers, buying convertibles 6 percent more often than other models.

"YOUNG WOMEN are more inclined to seek uniqueness in their automotive product than are men," Windecker said. "It stands to reason.

They seek more differentiation in converted 12,243 LeBarons into conclothes. Unlike birds, they are the peacocks of humans.' A Bloomfield Hills matron exemplifies the point. Self-described as conservative in most things, she drives a shocking-red Mustang convertible with black trim because "it goes well with my mink."

"Convertibles are a very hot market niche, an option vehicle," said Mark Gebhard of American Sun Roof. Sun Roof converts autos into convertibles at various stages of production in four locations in Michigan, including Livonia.

Conversion, which started in the United States as early as 1980, is now an international business, according to Gebhard who said "there are 22 convertible manufacturers worldwide and we do business with all of them."

Chrysler Corp. was the first U.S. firm to hit the market with two models, the Dodge 600 like Mooney bought and the LeBaron. Both cars were unveiled at the Detroit Auto Show in 1981. Sales started in 1982. Cars and Concepts in Brighton third of them before they were built," said Tom Jakobowski of Chrysler. The LeBaron was so successful, Chrysler assumed in-house production in mid-1982.

FORD MOTOR Co. launched the Mustang convertible one year later, followed by models by Chevrolet, Pontiac and Cadillac.

Today's models, featuring back windows of heated glass, fully power-operated lined tops and hi-tech dash consoles, differ considerably from earlier models.

An all-season Studebaker roadster in 1929 was one of the first. The car sported wind-up windows of canvass and flexiglass and a removeable canvass top. Production was discontinued in 1934.

Today, convertibles constitute 1 percent of the total U.S. auto mar-husband. After all, his wife is actress Valerie Bertinelli.

Bertinelli was in town last Thursday to promote her CBS mini-series about pilot Florence "Pancho" Barnes. The mini-series, "Pancho Barnes," will begin at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 25, on WJBK-TV 2.

Better than sex" was what she said after her first flight in an old Tiger Moth airplane. Unknown to Bertinelli, it was the same comment made by Barnes after her first flight.

"It scared the heck out of me because I didn't think it would take off," she said. "The inside of the plane looked like a bicycle."

The pinning was by members of the Michigan chapter of the 99s, the international women pilots association. It was done during at breakfast gathering at WJBK-TV 2 in South-

The 99s, led by Lillian Snyder, director of Detroit City Airport, made Bertinelli an honorary member of the organization.

"THIS is really an honor, but will someone here teach me how to fly," Bertinelli said. "They wouldn't let my fly the plane . . . Really, Pancho would be proud."

Barnes' name comes up in Bertinelli's conversation quite a bit and she admits that for a while she

The mini-series recounts Barnes' life from her first hot air balloon ride and how she got her nickname to her flying school and club.

Bertinelli, who literally grew up on television in her role of Barbara on the sitcom "One Day at a Time," spent eight weeks in Texas, filming the mini-series.

She spent much of her time on the ground in wool jodhpurs, a leather jacket, wig and leather cap in the hot and humid weather. And even being airborne didn't provide relief.

"It really didn't cool off that much at 2,000 feet," she said.

AT THE urging of the women pilots, Bertinelli donned a leather flight suit, complete with a silk scarf to drape around her neck. A bit large for the petite brunette, she needed help getting in and out of it.

And it wasn't until she was zipped into it and the 4-inch wide belt was buckled that it was announced quietly — that the suit belonged to Florence Lowe, better known as Pancho Barnes.

Olympic 'spirit' finds Sporthaus

So it's not quite like having the ski enthusiasts to the legendary Olympics in your own backyard, but it's the next best thing - a visit with an Olympic ski champion.

Stein Eriksen will be at the Don Thomas Sporthaus in Birmingham Thursday, as part of "The Best of the Best '89," a formal ski fashion show at 7:30 p.m.

The Sporthaus will introduce ski buffs to the latest in clothing for the slopes and the clubhouse.

Eriksen, who will be the special guest that evening.

Eriksen is considered a "skier's skier" because of his flawless, textbook style of skiing. In fact, Paul Anderson of the Aspen Times wrote that "his presence, his looks, his skills helped lay the foundation . . . that will go far beyond his years."

He was a bronze medalist in the slalom in the 1950 world championships, a gold medalist in the giant slalom and a silver medalist in the lands in Colorado, Sugarbush in Verslalom at the 1952 Olympics and won gold medals in the slalom, giant slalom and combined in the 1954 world championships.

Eriksen is no stranger to Michigan. At one time, he was director of skiing at Boyne Mountain. He has held similar positions at Heavenly Valley in California, Aspen High-mont. Snowmass in Colorado and Park City in Utah. He currently is director of skiing at Deer Valley in Utah. The Don Thomas Sporthaus is in the Bloomfield Plaza shopping center at 6600 Telegraph, Birmingham. Seating will be on a first-come basis. For information, call 626-9500.

The Sporthaus also will introduce DINING & ENTERTAINMENT

'Craning' for a good look

By Marie Cheetney staff writer

On a hill in Jackson County, there isn't a sign that says, "Rest Stop, Sandhill Cranes."

But you know there's something special about this place because benches dot the rural hilltop. There's got to be some reason why folks gather here on this well-worn hill overlooking a vast watery marsh.

The reason shows up in the sky every fall. That's when great flocks of the four-foot-tall cranes come back to Haehnle on their long trek southward.

The annual migration from north to south starts with a trickle of cranes in mid-October. By Nov. 1, the trickle has turned to flocks, with the evening sky flush with cranes gliding to a stop in the distant

On some fall days, at least 200 of the big birds with their seven-footwingspans can be counted. On one November day in 1980, bird watchers counted a record 1,325 cranes in the bird sanctuary.

By mid-November, the marshland is empty again, the last of the visitors having left on their long flight to Texas, Mexico or California.

And yes, the long-legged, longnecked, long-winged birds drift into the marshes of Phyllis Haehnle Memorial Sanctuary in April on their trip north. But their numbers are few and their stay is short because there's not much to eat at Haehnle in the springtime.

A few of the cranes, the early arrivals or those who grew up in the Haehnle marsh, stake out a claim and stay the summer to rear their young.

BUT MOST move on quickly to other marshy areas in Michigan and Canada. These big birds need a huge area to feed in, whereas Haehnle can support just a handful of cranes over the summer months.

There's lots of water in the Haehnle marsh, but cranes don't eat fish. They stick to grain, frogs, snakes and insects.

But the fall migration, well, just call it spectacular. The cranes, accompanied by their young, fly in, in large groups. And they don't arrive quietly, either.

With trumpeting, boisterous noises, they glide into the marsh and onto the marsh's flood plain. They roam over the hillside on which the benches sit.

"It's a spectacle at dusk," said Roger Sutherland, biology professor at Schoolcraft College and a bird watcher for many years. "They spread out for miles, eating. The water is shallow and when they come in, it looks like they sink out of sight. But they barely get wet."

The cranes spend their days eating the corn planted for them in nearby fields by local farmers working in cooperation with the Jackson Audubon Society. The society doesn't want the cranes eating the corn of nearby farmers, so a crop is planted each year just for them.

"They're voracious eaters," said Grover Niergarth, a biology professor at Schoolcraft College who also Fog offers a thin shroud over the Haehnie Sanctuary where sandhill cranes congregate during their annual migration.

is a bird lover. "They build up their carbohydrate reserves."

Cranes that get to the sanctuary early get to enjoy the rest stop the longest; the late arrivals have just a few days to rest up.

WHILE FATTENING up for the long trip ahead, the cranes wait for two things to happen. One is for their flock to get bigger. For reasons of protection, they like to travel in massive groups.

The second is to wait for just the right air currents in which to take off. Because they are high fliers, the cranes depend on high air currents to get them to Texas and Mexico.

By mid-November, both of these things have happened, and the last of the noisy, big birds are gone. The countryside around the Waterloo Recreation Area becomes quiet once again.

At one time, because they were widely hunted, the sandhill crane was close to being an endangered species. After being named a protected species, they made a comeback.

The sandhill cranes return to Haehnle each year because there are very few large wetland areas left in southern Michigan for them to use as a stopover.

Most of the small marshy areas left can't support a bird with the voracious eating habits of the sandhill.

In the early 1900s, Jackson County was dotted with marshy areas. These areas attracted huge numbers of ducks — as well as a huge number of duck hunters.

Casper Haehnle was an avid duck hunter who bought land on which to hunt. In 1955, he gave 500 acres of this land to the Michigan Audubon Society as a memorial to his daughter Phyllis.

IN 1957, much to the chagrin of nearby farmers, the state named it a wildlife sanctuary. That designation closed the land to hunting, fishing and trapping.

Since then the society has bought other pieces of nearby land, making the sanctuary bigger.

"Hunters, saved Haehnle," said Sutherland, who was "overwhelmed" 20 years ago when he first saw the sandhill cranes at Haehnle. "Farmers didn't drain it because they wanted to shoot ducks. They knew there would be good hunting only if they kept the habitat.

"They wanted to maintain the water levels. In the process, they became good conservationists."

How to get to Haehnle

The Phyllis Haehnle Memorial Sanctuary is near the western fringes of the Waterloo State Recreation Area in Jackson and Washtenaw counties. It's about an hour's drive from Livonia, via M-14 and I-94

Parking is in a small lot off Seymour Road, but it can be troublesome if a lot of bird lovers show up at the same time. During the migration, many have to park along Seymour, which is a not heavily traveled blacktop road.

Take exit 147 (Race Road) off I-94 north about 2.5 miles to Seymour Road. Turn west on Seymour and go about 1.5 miles to the sanctuary.

After parking, follow the mowed trail near the road to the hilltop overlooking the marsh.

The best times to see the cranes are mid-afternoon to sunset. Bring binoculars.

organizing

Dorothy Lehmkuhl

Q. It seems my car is always littered. Do you have any hints for organizing your car?

A. Exercising a bit of self-discipline and a few little rules can make a tremendous difference.

First, make it a habit to take every bit of litter with you each time you get out of your car. By practicing regular maintenance, you will never have a clutter build-up.

Second, utilize small bits of time to clean out your car. While getting gas, insesrt your gas tank cap into the nozzle handle for hands-free fillup and clean out your car or wash windows while you wait. Shake out your floor mat while you are caught in a traffic jam or waiting for someone., Carry a terrycloth hand towel to dust off the dash while you wait for a red light. Buy two towels (for alternating in the laundry) in a color to match your upholstery to also cover items you don't want others to see, wipe off fogged windows or clean up messes.

Extend your car's beauty by forbidding eating or drinking in your car; otherwise something will eventually be spilled. This can also help you break bad habits of consuming extra calories or unneeded caffiene while you drive.

A sure way to lose a camera or a purse is to place it on the top of your car. If you must lay something down, put it only on the front hood of the car so you will be able to see it before you drive away.

Certain items should be carried in your car, especially those for emergencies now that winter is approaching. Those include your owner's manual; photocopies of insurance and registration forms; spare tire, jack, tire "key" and lug wrench; tire puncture sealer; spare fuses; flashlight with magnet; warning flares; first-aid kit; fire extinguisher, CB radio; ice scraper; shovel; tire chains; umbrella; blanket, gloves, extra sweater; battery booster cables (and instructions if you aren't absolutely sure how to use them).

Another important item is a reflectorized "Please Call Police"sign. These are available in some emergency kits or for $4.50 from the Los Angeles Commission on Assults Against Women; 543 N. Fairfax Ave., Los Angeles, Ca 90036.

Items can be kept either in your dash pocket, under the seat (don't overstuff that space) or in an attractive covered box (that won't roll over) in your trunk.

Now is time to start work for next year

Autumn is the time to start working on next year's outdoor-living season and to reduce next season's potential garden-insect and disease problems.

Some landscape maintenance chores to be done include:

 Apply wood chips or mulches to areas around trees, evergreens or shrubs. Avoid materials likely to contain weed seeds, food for rodents or obnoxious odors.

 Add nitrogen fertilizer, but apply early in the season to avoid late growth subject to winter kill.

 Remove extended growth of ground covers that have overlapped sidewalks, driveways or patio areas.

 Trim shade trees to remove heavy lower limbs that obstruct views or are bothersome in other ways.

 Reshape boundaries of walks and driveways to encourage users to follow intended pathways.
 Remove or recycle objects, including weeds, that tend to detract from the basic quality of the landscape.

— Consider adding a grassy mound or rock composition to relieve bareness in winter.

A FALL CLEANUP will reduce the inevitable spring garden invasion by insects. This should include removal of old plant debris and tilling the garden this fall to eliminate many over-

condo queries

Q. I am thinking about developing a condomi-whether or not I must deal with any regulatory bodies at the state level beside the DNR. I have the sale of condominiums. What that meant, in effect, was that the developers would no longer

That did not eliminate the various statutory requirements imposed upon developers in marketing condominiums. What it did minimize, however, was the need to seek approval for all the condominium documents, purchase agreements, advertising, and the like, which was previously required under the old scheme of regulation. The end result is that developers have much more latitude in regard to the processing of condominium projects, although there is also the incumbent additional risk upon developers, wintering insects and disease organisms.

Debris left in the garden provides winter homes for cucumber beetles, squash bugs, Colorado potato beetles and European corn borers. Remove plant material by raking and bagging or burning it, or plowing it under. This will eliminate many bugs, and limit your insect population largely to insects that migrate into the garden.

In the flower garden, iris borers lay eggs on iris foliage. Dig out infested plants and remove dead foliage to reduce this problem.

Rake fallen fruit and leaves from fruit plantings to interrupt the life cycle of the apple maggot, a serious home-orchard problem.

Cleaning up fallen fruit and leaves also will help control apple, scab, a fungus disease that affects apples, crab apples and mountain ash trees. Leaf-spot disease on hawthorn, elm and horse chestnut also can be reduced by raking leaves and fallen fruits and destroying them.

IF BLACKSPOT ON roses is a problem, prune plants of infected areas. Don't use these clippings as a winter mulch as it will encourage blackspot next year. One spot on one leaf in the neighborhood can produce enough spores to infect all nearby plants. A really good cleanup is recommended.

If you plan to compost diseased materials, be sure your compost pile is an active one where

Superlative Living In The Hills of West Bloomfield

NEW lavishly large 1, 2 and 3 bedroom terrace ranch dwellings of unsurpassed size that are utterly extraordinary - up to 2,800 square feet and every amenity: private entries, attached garages, fireplaces, cathedral ceilings, designer kitchens with separate breakfast areas, master bedroom suites with dressing area, double vanities, double closets and walk-in closets too, in-residence laundry and storage, full carpeting, central air conditioning, patio or balcony.

Truly resort-like recreational facilities include: oversized pool in a spectacular wooded setting, a manor-home like clubhouse - ideal for private parties - tennis courts and, of course, a 24-hour manned gatehouse with package reception services. There is even a private lending library. All on over 130 incomparable private acres for estate-

Unquestionably the standard for beauty and luxury. For their size, design and breathtaking setting, YOU MUST SEE the 1, 2 and 3 bedroom terrace homes of ALDINGBROOKE. Travel Maple Road to Drake Road; turn north and drive through the woods, to the summit of the hill, and enter ALDINGBROOKE through the manned gatehouse on your left. Note: Limited number of short term executive rentals available. 1 and 2 year leases being offered.

for Your Future

Attend Our Career Seminar

If you are thinking about changing careers — think about this. As a Realtor Associate you can have the independence of being your own boss, setting your own schedules, $40,000 to $70,000 income and a secure future. At our seminar we'll discuss changing careers and the advantages of the real estate industry.

Customer Service Representatives Positions, available in the Metro Detroit and outstate branches, involve handling problems and questions presented by customers, and assisting potential customers in determining insurance/membership needs.

Customer Account Representatives

Our 24-hour Customer Service Centers in Westland and Dearborn enable you to select a shift that best suits you. (Shift differential available on afternoon and midnight shifts.) You'll service existing customers on a wide range of insurance needs.

Group Customer Representatives

Working a 4-day, 40-hour week, you'll handle the problems and questions

All positions require some coilege (degree preferred but not required), sound basic math skills, demonstrated customer service, communication, problem solving, telephone/telemarketing skills, and successful completion of a paid, six-week training program designed to develop your complete understanding of AAA Michigan insurance lines and membership products. All AAA Michigan representatives are bonded.

We provide a competitive starting salary, comprehensive benefits that include choice of medical plans, dental, life insurance, 401(k), tuition reimbursement, Auto Club membership, insurance discounts, and solid growth opportunity. For consideration, please send your resume, signifying order of position preference, by Friday, October 28, 1988 in confidence to: Customer Service Training Opportunities, AAA Michigan, 1 Auto Club Drive, Dearborn, Mi 48126.
