Less is better - and much easier to understand - as far as the city of Plymouth's sign ordinance is con-

That's the belief of Mayor Karl Gansler II and Ken West, city engineer, who have proposed a stricter sign ordinance of three pages rather than 14 pages which has been submitted by the city planning commis-

All business identification signs within the city of Plymouth would be limited to 25 square feet in area and four feet in height, according to the proposal of Gansler and city administrators

Signs with a maximum area of 32 square feet set back at least 25 feet from the property line — 18 square feet otherwise - and 8 feet in height have been proposed by the city planning commission.

THE CITY COMMISSION will take up the issue during a study session tonight after its regular 7:30 meeting at city hall, 201 S. Main.

The commission is working to have a new sign ordinance in place by later this month.

The most recent proposal of Gan-sler and city administrators also allows for temporary signs for grand openings, special sales or civic events at the discretion of Henry Graper, city manager.

The planning commission has recommended against temporary signs in business districts.

Homeowners also could be directly touched by a tightening of the sign ordinance. Only one political sign per lot not to exceed 2 square feet would be allowed if Gansler and the planning commission have their way. There are now no restrictions on political signs.

GANSLER ANNOUNCED his intention to toughen the city's sign ordinance soon after he was chosen mayor in 1987.

The whole idea was to prevent sign pollution and give the city of Plymouth, especially the downtown area, a clean look," Gansler said.

Virtually every sign in the city falls outside of the tighter size and height requirements proposed by eihave an area of 120 square feet and be up to 20 feet in height. Gansler said traffic safety reasons prompted city administrators and

"WE DIDN'T use a formula. We just tried to come up with a happy medium," the mayor said.

The number of special events in town like farmer's market, summer concerts and plays sponsored by community groups prompted Gan-sler and administrators to propose allowing temporary signs in business

"We couldn't allow one group to do it and not another," Gansler said.

Township man facing trial for apartment fire

Arraignment set Feb. 17

By M.B. Dillon staff writer

Guy Zukowski, 25, of Plymouth Township faces trial on charges of setting a fire Nov. 4 at Heritage Square Apartments, 300 N. Mill.

He was ordered Friday to face the felony charge in a higher court dur-ing a preliminary hearing before District Judge John MacDonald, who ruled there was probable cause to believe a crime was committed and that the defendant committed it.

MacDonald released Zukowski on $10,000 personal bond. The court entered a plea of not guilty for Zukowski at his arraignment Jan. 30.

Zukowski will be arraigned in Detroit Recorder's Court at 8:30 a.m. Feb. 17. A trial date will be set by that court. Conviction on a charge of arson of a dwelling is a felony punishable by up to 20 years in prison. Detective Sgt. Gary Mihalek of the Michigan State Police testified that a gas line in Zukowski's apartment was severed and that a flammable liquid was used to accelerate the Zukowski suffered burns over half his body and was hospitalized for three weeks in the University of Michigan Burn Center. A second person sustained minor injuries.

The fire, which damaged or destroyed eight of 18 units in the complex, left 10 people homeless. Several pets died in the fire.

Mihalek testified that he "observed that (Zukowski's) stove had been pulled about 20 inches away from the wall and that the flex gas line (connecting the stove to the gas pipe in the wall) had been torn at both ends, and laid on the floor and curled in a pretzel-shaped manner.

"If there was a weak link, it would break in one place, not two," said

"In the hallway, we found patterns of unusual burning on the floor. We found a pattern that would indicate a way, in the bedroom and in the living room/dining room. Someone put that down there to expedite the fire."

In response to a question from defense attorney Shirley Saltzman, Mihalek said it's possible a fire and explosion could have resulted had someone lighted a cigarette in a room in which there was a gas leak.

DAVID GEELHOOD, a friend of Zukowski's, testified that he was at Zukowski's apartment earlier on the day of the fire and that his friend had a headache and stomach ache

"I'd been getting a series of them while I'd been going over there (to Zukowski's), Geelhood said.

Geelhood testified that he moved the stove but didn't say whether it was to retrieve something. He said he left at 2:30 p.m. The explosion occurred shortly after 4 p.m.

"Stuff was pretty dated there. Once the electrical went out on us," Geelhood said. "I guess it happened from time to time. Another time when I was in the shower, a knob came flying out at me."

John Meadows, who lived at Heritage Square, testified that he heard a "very, very deep, big explosion around 4 p.m." Nov. 4. "P'could see the glow of flames and ran outside. A 20-foot section of wall was completely down."

Saltzman argued that prosecutor the fire was intentionally set. If someone lights a cigarette, it is not

Plan to transfer students draws parent questions

staff writer

Plymouth-Canton school administrators last week tried to mollify parents who recently learned their children may be moved five miles farther away from home, to another elementary school, next fall.

A transfer recommendation was made seven weeks ago by the district's housing/attendance steering committee as part of a long-range plan to relieve overcrowding, bal-ance enrollment and establish attendance continuity into the 1990s.

Parents in the Brookside Village subdivisions distributed fliers and dialed phones to inform each other about the prospect of their children being moved from Fiegel Elementary near Joy and Haggerty to Tanger Elementary near Five Mile and Hag-

The subdivisions are at Cherry Hill and Haggerty.

Upwards of 200 Brookside Village children could be affected.

AN INFORMATIONAL coffee meeting was arranged for Friday afternoon at Fiegel in an effort to answer questions. Richard Egli, community relations director for the schools, said he handled several calls from concerned parents earlier.

They're taking that as the option and that's not the case," Egli said of the parents' alarm about a possible transfer.

"It could be it won't happen at all," said Michael Homes, assistant superintendent for instruction.

David Artley, school board president, said that board could make a final decision after discussing rec-ommendations from the administration at its Feb. 13 meeting.

"There's a lot of options. That report (housing committee's) is exactly - a collection of options," Artley said. "We said, 'Administration, make some recommendations.' I don't have those written recommendations yet."

BROOOKSIDE PARENTS are upset that they've had no part in the discussions up to now.

"I think the concern of all parents is what's going on here," said Ed Reuter, who has a child at Flegel. "I guess they're afraid this stuff is going to be snuck through. I think there's definitely a communication

Principal confiscates pellet gun, cartridges

Plymouth police were called to East Middle School Tuesday when the principal reported that a student was carrying a pellet gun.
The gun was confiscated by principal Thomas Workman who found it in the tote bag of a 12-year-old Canton student. Workman found four rounds of live ammunition in the youngster's coat pocket, said Plymouth Police Commander Michael Gardner.

One was a .38-caliber cartridge for a cartridge. The others were .32-, .25- and .22-caliber cartridges for an automatic pistol.

The gun was confiscated by principal Thomas Workman who found it in the tote bag of a 12year-old Canton student.

There were no arrests or charges.

The unsung heroes supporting Growth Works Inc. — an agency serving youth primarily from Canton, Plymouth and Plymouth Township — were brought from behind the scenes Thursday.

About 120 Growth Works supporters including teenagers, their parents and politicians were at the Plymouth Manor for the First Annual Award Recognition Dinner.

They were the first to hear of a new Growth Works service offering full-time treatment of adolescent substance abuse. The program will augment an after-care program for recovering chemically dependent youth and their parents.

The banquet "gives us a chance to give back to the people who have given to Growth Works," said Dale Yagiela, executive director, promising the event will take place for "years and years in the future."

THE FIRST Eugene Sturmer award — named in memory of a for-mer Growth Works Board of Directors president — was given posthumously to the Rev. Kenneth MacKinnon, who also served on the board of

"He was a spiritual beacon for us, always upbeat, encouraging," Yagie-la said. "Even though he is gone, his presence is still felt. He left some-thing good for all of us."

Maurice Breen, Plymouth Township supervisor, was cited for his ef-forts in soliciting money for the agency.

"He's worked tirelessly behind the scenes for Growth Works especially in the agency's job placement pro-gram," said Steve Harper, Growth Works president.

Breen rallied for the agency dur-ing the toughest times when other money, like federal grants, dried up, he added.

Maryanne and James Eppley were applauded for their work in the establishment and ongoing operation of the Families Anonymous chapter in Canton and Plymouth.

people is that there are no teachers in our schools promoting Satanism," said McClennen, who with other CAFE members has served on district-appointed committees to investigate CBE complaints.

"Secondly, of more concern, even though CBE has lost every complaint, policies and pressures are moving into the system. The kind of teacher who might have done something spontaneously now has to stop and think, 'Is this something I have to have approved?' We're seeing a subtle, pervasive shutdown of everything we think has been the success of schools."

McClennen said he was surprised at "how consistent feelings (of CAFE members) were and at the number of people from all walks of life" who've joined the 45-member group. CAFE plans "to focus on the coming election. It may very well be a contest between (School Board President David) Artley and whatever candidate is put up by CBE. Workman, who was tipped off by other students, removed the youngster from his second hour class and notified police.

Two other Canton youngsters, a 13-year-old and 14-year-old, also were questioned by Workman. It's thought that each of them was in possession of the gun at some earlier point, Gardner said.

It's not clear who the gun belonged to, Gardner said. It was loaned to the youngster the night before, and he was supposed to have returned it the next morning, he said.

The student was suspended for three days, added Gardner.

Whether the student will be expelled will "depend on an exact interpretation of what took place, and that'll depend on a report from the administrator involved," said David Artley, school board president.

Focus now on quality of life in CEP classes

By Peggy Aulino staff writer

If "auto mechanics" is the first thing that comes to your mind when you hear the words "vocational education," think again.

These days, students who sign up for vocational courses at Centennial Educational Park can be found threading sewing machines or waiting tables.

Collectively, the classes are called Skills for Living. They are different from what school officials call "wage-earning" programs, in which students study to become secretaries and mechanics. But both groups fall under the heading of vocational education and both are being saluted Feb. 12-18 during National Vocational Education Week.

"Skills for Living is designed to improve the quality of life," said Harold Gaertner, director of vocational and technical education for the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools.

Students in commercial foods classes operate restaurants in both Salem and Canton high schools. That means not only cooking the food, but ordering supplies, waiting tables and acting as cashiers.

"They have a little exposure to all types of food service work," Bonnie Kline, a food teacher, said in the kitchen at Salem one day last week.

KLINE SAID even students who are planning on going to college benefit from vocational programs.

"They always have a trade that they can fall back on to help defray the cost of college expenses," she said.

The foods classes are part of Skills for Living, but they are not the sort that force students to grapple with situations they may face off the job. For that, one has to walk down the hall to Diane Gailey's human relations class.

On a recent morning, the young people were discussing the definition of love. Gailey said she also covers topics such as avoiding rape, death and dying, marriage and getting old. For a lesson on aging, she has stutheir ears.

Her goal is to help students learn to take care of themselves, so they dents wear eyeglasses covered with petroleum jelly and put cotton in are equipped to handle "things these young people might come up against from this point on."

Across the hall, Betty DuBois is lecturing in a room full of girls enrolled in her "Living With Children" course. When the discussion of fetal development was finished and the class dismissed, one student praised the class.

"MAYBE ONE day when I have a baby, I'll know what to expect," she said. Students freely admit that the Skills for Living classes are not their most intellectually challenging.

"I figure it will be a small break between my other classes," Caroline Borg said while working on a quilt in her Creative Needle Arts class. But even though they are considered "easy," the classes offer a lot, she said.

Borg plans to study management in college, but she said if she wants to combine business with sewing — perhaps open a store that sells sewing supplies — she'll be well prepared.

The more traditional vocational programs are stationed across campus in Canton High. In Unibody Construction, Matt Stirsman was painting a car—his car.

'They always have a trade that they can fall back on to help defray the cost of college expenses.'

"It was all rusted out," he explained, acknowledging that it is "handy" to be able to work on his car during school. But Stirsman said he's considering college and is only studying the mechanics of fixing automobiles for "a hobby, to make money on the side."

Because kids aren't mini adults, there's Pediatric Urgent Care

Kids aren't grownups in small bodies. They need special care by pediatricians when they're sick or injured, not "one-size-fits-all" care. But what if it's late at night and your pediatrician's office is closed?

Relax. Pediatric Urgent Care is open when your pediatrician's office is normally closed—evenings, weekends and holidays, 365 days a year. We're located in Ann Arbor right next to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital's Emergency Room, on the Catherine McAuley Health Center campus.

At Pediatric Urgent Care, we know as well as you that kids should be treated like children—not mini adults. We have pediatricians and pediatric nurses who take care of minor illnesses and injuries like ear infections, viruses, cuts, sprains and small fractures.

Remember that your child's doctor is always your best first resource. Please be sure to check with the doctor before contacting us.

A former Wayne County commission chairman and the current chairman are expected to meet this week in an effort to smooth out a dispute involving suburban and urban com-

Commissioner Richard Manning, D-Redford Township, said Friday he would meet with chairman Arthur Carter, D-Detroit, to settle differences over committee assignments and office budgets for suburban commis-

"I expect we'll get together early in the week, perhaps by Monday, said Manning, a former chairman of the county governing body.

Carter said the two men held a "very productive" meeting after last week's commission meeting.

Six suburban commissioners, including Manning, were poised to walk out of Thursday's commission meeting, though no walk-out occurred.

The six, also including commis-sionally disagreeing with the majori-sioners Kay Beard, D-Inkster, and Milton Mack, D-Wayne, charged they were underrepresented in key committee posts under assignments issued recently by Carter. They also said they believed Carter would be cutting their office budgets while in-creasing budgets for other commissioners, including members of the metropolitan caucus, a body whose members generally represent Detroit and its eastern suburbs.

"WHAT WE have is a situation where over 1 million Wayne County residents aren't being properly represented," said Mack, whose district includes Canton Township. 'There isn't a single important committee headed by a suburban commissioner.'

Beard represents Westland and Garden City. Manning represents Redford and a section of Detroit west of Evergreen Road.

In a resolution presented at the meeting, the commissioners said they were being "punished" for occaty on commission matters. Carter, however, said there was no

"We want balance and, if you look, assignments have been very fair and balanced," he said. "David Cavanaugh, who represents the east side, is a committee chairman. So is Clarence Young, who represents downriver. Susan Heintz, from western Wayne, is vice chairwoman of

Carter acknowledged, though, that each is or had been a member of the metropolitan caucus.

Though alignments can shift, the caucus process is essentially the true party system of Wayne County's essentially one-party government.

The metropolitan caucus generally includes commissioners representing Detroit and its eastern suburbs. In addition to the three local commissioners, the suburban caucus includes commissioners from Dearborn and downriver.

"THIS COMES from the caucus structure and committees are based on politics, not geography," Manning said. "You choose based on which caucus you think is going to do the best for your constituents.

Mack said the suburban group coalesced after hearing reports of committee assignments and budget

What the commissioners want, Mack said, is for their caucus to be given a voice in selecting committee members and leaders

Carter, however, indicated committee memberships wouldn't be

"That's not going to happen, my decisions have been made," he said. "Essentially, the committees are exactly as they were two years ago."

The six suburban commissioners said they believed their office budgets were trimmed by more than onethird from last year's budget, prompting staff layoffs, while other commissioners would be receiving

Carter, however, called those figures "inaccurate" and said office budget figures were still being revised as of Thursday's commission meeting. He indicated committee leaders would receive a larger stipend than other commissioners.

That goes back to a resolution commissioner Manning made several years ago," Carter said.

Manning said the current office budgets were "in the $66,000 area."

Group says state must act on industrial polluters

AP - Money from a $660 million environmental bond issue may be wasted if lawmakers don't give Michigan more power to force companies to clean up their pollution, public interest groups say.

Buchsbaum said the bond issue approved by a 2-1 margin Nov. 8 can address only part of the estimated $8 billion cleanup job in the state.

"Basically what they have to do now is cajole responsible parties into paying for the cost of cleanup or they have to find some other act that they've violated."

Stead urged lawmakers, Gov. James Blanchard, and the business community to back tougher environmental laws.

Buchsbaum said Michigan's current laws rate an F in their effectiveness, according to a comparison done by his organization.

The citizens' group compared Michigan's environmental laws with those of New Jersey, California, New York, Washington, Minnesota, Massachusetts, Oregon and the federal government. Buchsbaum said the other states either have toxic waste problems similar to Michigan's or a program in place to deal with them.

Massachusetts' laws were rated the highest, with an A-minus, as a result of that state's passage of a state

The group's study said Michigan is comparable to the other states in the amount of money available for cleanup, lagging only behind New York, which has committed $1.2 billion. In Michigan, $450 million of the $660 million bond issue is targeted for cleaning up toxic waste sites. David Hales, DNR director, agreed Michigan laws need strength-

WHEN TO STOP & WHEN TO CARRY ON

You often receive contradictory advise from people on Bow

You often receive contradictory advise from people on Bow to deal with your arthritis.

One group says: "No pain - no gain," If you are hurting, you should keep going, for that is the only way to overcome limitations. Others tell you: "Listen to your body," If you hurt, you are getting a message to stop,"

Boths views are correct, but each is right only under certain conditions. If you have osteoarthritis of the knees, then the more you use the joint, the more wear you put upon it. Knee pain under this circumstance is a notice that you are placing the joint under excessive strain, and you should stop that activity immediately.

In contrast, if you have shoulder pain from fibromyalgia, a condition of tendons and muscles, you should keep exercising even though your arms are aching. In this instance, activity to the point of sweating, will increase blood supply to the muscles and relieve your discomfort.

Joint pain is made worse by sustained effort, and when pain begins you should stop. Muscle strain is improved by activity, and you should continue despite initial aching, as persistent effort will bring relief.

Police need the best guns

In regards to your article against arming the local police with 9mm semiautomatic pistols. I must say I completely disagree.

First, the world of today is not the same as when your father walked a beat. Today's drug lords and crack dealers are armed with the latest high-tech weapons either illegally bought or stolen, and they have no qualms about using them.

The lone policeman, patroling the street without a partner is a target and has only his guts and his wits to survive with. If he is caught without backup, or he inadvertently walks into a bad situation (such as an armed robbery with multiple suspects) he needs adequate firepower to protect himself and those he has sworn to protect.

Witness the Miami incident, where three highly trained FBI agents were nearly wiped out (one died), by two petty criminals with no violent records, armed with a rifle and a shotgun — while the agents tried to fight back with their .38 snubbles. If those two men with no violent history could take on the FBI, what chance has our average street cop against drug lords armed with a machine gun?

Another reason I would like to see police get these guns is because each year officers arresting suspects are killed with their own weapon. These types of pistols have the advantage of built-in safeties, which a person unfamiliar with the gun couldn't operate, thereby buying precious time and possibly saving the officer's life.

Thirdly - most police find a semiauto pistol is easier to aim accurately and efficiently with less record smoke and flash than a revolver — if you don't believe this, try rapid firing a .357 revolver in

Finally, these guns are the current "state of the art" for reliability, reloadability and ruggedness. Our police get very little thanks or appreciation from us. Asking them to face the bad guys of today with the weapon of yesteryear is an insult to them and an injustice, which may result in more men and women in blue being buried in fields of green months and a subscriber to the Canton Observer for an equal period of time. As such, I am compelled to convey my extreme disappointment in your decision not to acknowledge in print Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Birthday Holiday (celebrated on Jan. 16) in the Jan. 16 edition of the Canton Observer (or any subsequent edition for that matter). It's ironic isn't it, that the federal government, most state and local governments, as well as many business and commmunity organizations have actually set aside the precious commodity of time to acknowledge Dr. King's dream of a unified America, his hope of peace for all mankind whereas the Canton Observer opted not to even set aside the not-so-precious commodity of print space to acknowledge the same. After all, tax abatements, what streets might be paved, and the enhanced 9-1-1 telephone service are the pressing issues of the day!

I've always believed that it is an individual's prerogative how he or she chooses to celebrate the King holiday or if they choose to acknowledge it at all. But you, as a newpspaper organization, thus providing a public service, in my opinion, have a journalistic responsibility to, at the very least, attempt to make the citizens, particularly the young people in the community that you service, aware that Dr. King did in fact exist, and that those ideas and principles for which he stood, and died for, were for the betterment of all of our lives individually and collectively.

By your paper not acknowledging this holiday, it seems to send a mes-sage to all that those issues for which Dr. King stood are relatively insignificant; an errant message that I would not want my two young children or any other young person to

For me to state why I think this omission occurred would be mere speculation. But, as a black resident, it is my sincere hope that it is not a reflection of the ideology of the Plymouth-Canton Community as a

James D. Howse,

Censorship irritates reader

To Diane D. and her CBE censors:

In response to the convoluted (indeed with this one you have truly outdone yourselves) "newsletter" you delivered to my home, I offer the following thoughts.

1. You have no authority, constitutional or otherwise, to dictate, determine, or supervise public morals. Perhaps you could read the whole definition of the term censor, which your publication so narrowly defined. Go back to your previous dictionary or try Webster's New World Dictionary. Be sure to catch the entire meaning this time.

2. CBE censors, in order for you to do your work more efficiently and honestly, you should take a lesson, a workshop, or better yet, an entire course in the understanding of context. You can begin by looking up the word in the dictionary. Be sure to get the complete definition. This will help you to understand author's purpose and reasoning. Then, go back and reread your material, be it health text or Holy Bible. If you can grasp the concept of context, you will see the text in a new light, as opposed to the darkness of a closed mind. You still may not agree with it but at least you will understand it.

3. To your list of newly acquired vocabulary you might consider adding: intolerant, authoritarian and ir-

4. Last but not least, CBE censors, how arrogant and presumptuous (more new words) of you to intimate that God Almighty is on your side. A 19th-century poet wrote that, "A knowledge of different literatures is the best way to free one's self from the tyranny of any one of them." Jesus, the Great Teacher (not censor) just might subscribe to that.

Reservation policy stinks

To the editor:

I was deeply shocked when I called the Plymouth Township Hall to find the Township Board had changed the policy for the reservations of the pavilion out at the township park.

I spoke to Becky Armstrong and she explained that no longer could one call up and reserve the pavilions.

The procedure now was to be, the person must come to the hall to fill out the required forms, and leave $70 per date desired.

Of this $70, $50 would be returned after the date, if the pavilion was left to the on-site person's satisfac-tion, $20 would be kept by the township for processing and paperwork.

What paperwork, is my question?
If I understood correctly, I would be the one coming into the township hall doing the paperwork.

The township park was purchased for use by township residents with tax dollars. Those pavilions were built and donated, at no cost to the township by the local Kiwanis Clubs. I am extremely disappointed that the board has decided to start "charging" for the use of those pavilions, for in reality that is what they

I am a classroom teacher and had planned on using a pavilion for my class picnic and my classroom family evening picnic. This would mean I would need to leave $140 out of my pocket for five months, and receive $100 back sometime later. Personally those interest rates do not interest

If it is the wish for few reservations or usage of the pavilions, I am sure the desired outcome will occur. Barbara Overholt,

Give police top guns

To the editor:

I am a full-time police officer and police firearms instructor in a local suburban department and I am writing in response to Steve Barnaby's recent column, "New super weapons will endanger innocents.

Mr. Barnaby offers the opinion that the 9mm semiautomatic pistol that many area departments are switching over to is an unnecessary weapon for police officers to have in order to provide protection for the public or themselves and that these weapons create some sort of danger to everyone involved. He cites faulty logic on the part of officers who recently have been requesting these weapons more and more just because the drug dealers and addicts have them.

Check porno ties to Bundy

THE TOP OF the newspaper told of the final moments of Ted Bundy, a disturbingly normal-appearing man who was executed in Florida. He was convicted of killing a 12year-old girl and two Florida State coeds. He is thought to have killed maybe 30 more women.

His story has been told many times and he was the subject of a television movie. His execution was long sought by many lawmen. Several Florida residents rejoiced at his death with crude jokes and jeers. A radio station asked citizens not to use electric appliances that morning so that there would be more juice to finish off Bundy.

It was a circus-like atmosphere. Such reactions to a man's calculated death got my liberal knee to jerk wildly. So this is what L. Brooks Patterson wants, I steamed. Is this demeaning behavior all that unexpected if the state coldly executes one of its own?

But my thoughts cooled before my knee stilled. Patterson, the former Oakland County prosecutor who campaigned vigorously for the death penalty, and other capital punishment advocates don't promote uncivilized behavior at executions. It's unfair to judge their position by the actions of the crude.

BESIDES, AN adjoining story brought home the difficulty of black-and-white positions on most controversial issues.

The story was actually the transcript of a conversation between Bundy and a psychiatrist the night before Bundy died. During the dialogue, Bundy strongly implied that pornography — particularly pornography that glorifies violence against women - provoked the evil ("crystallized" was the word he used) that resulted in the abduction, rape and murder of so many

The story must be taken with a grain of salt. The interviewer, Dr. James Dobson, once served on the president's council on pornography and his view toward the subject may have influenced Bundy's response. Even near death, Bundy's self-interest might have been reason enough to choose pictures and words as convenient scapegoats for his murderous life. Still, a defender of the First Amendment and a foe of censor-

I STILL remember the day I sat in the office of a Methodist church where three respectable women hauled out magazine after magazine of disgusting magazines that were sold in one of my hometown's best-known and best-regarded stores.

They wanted to boycott the store and they expected many people would not understand. They did not condone the Playboys (or even the Sports Illustrated swimsuit issues), but they wanted people to know that their targets were far worse than pinups for college dorm rooms.

They were right. Most of us, I suspect, are unaware of the content of some of these magazines. In picture and deed these publications not only humiliate women, but they encourage (at least through fantasies) harmful and brutal behavior.

Even worse, the publications often indicate that women, who might at first resist, actually want their men (or any man) to act this way. If magazines can influence human behavior, then these publications are invitations for rape and mayhem.

These women argued that pornography was not a First Amendment issue, but rather a civil rights issue. They said magazines depicting similar treatment of blacks or Jews or any other minority would never be tolerated in a decent town or a decent place of business. Why, they asked, were women treated any differently?

It's a good question. Perhaps part of the answer died with Ted Bundy.

Union politics enters into jail control dispute

One sheriff's department union will decide this week whether to endorse Wayne County Executive Edward McNamara as the county jail's new manager, while another union tentatively gave, then withdrew, its Governing members department supervisors union will vote Wednesday on whether to support McNamara's bid to become jail re-

Leaders of the department's deputies union announced Thursday morning they would support McNamara in his dispute with the sheriff, but withdrew support that evening, after the union's governing board rejected the endorsement.

Sheriff Robert Ficano, who seeks to retain control of the jail, called for an end to what he termed

"gamesmanship" on the part of the executive's office.

"I'M WILLING to meet at any time to get these matters settled," Ficano said.

But an executive's office spokesman said both sides have been in constant contact.

We talk to him every day as it is," said deputy county executive Mi-chael Duggan. McNamara, who had interrupted a Florida vacation to attend a Thursday press conference with leaders of both unions, returned to Florida shortly afterward and was unavailable for comment, a spokeswoman said.

Charging the sheriff is unable to manage the jail budget, McNamara has asked chief Wayne County Circuit Judge Richard Kaufman to appoint a receiver to take control from Ficano.

Deputies union leaders initially pledged to support McNamara's ap-pointment, but the agreement fell apart when it was rejected, 16-4, by the union's executive board.

Statements by McNamara during the press conference led union officials to believe the agreement was the first step in creating a county department of corrections, said deputies union president Don Cox, adding deputies "vehemently oppose" creating such a department.

Rejection by deputies isn't expected to influence the supervisors' vote, union officials said.

Chief Wayne County Circuit Judge Richard Kaufman is expected to determine within the next few weeks whether a receiver should be appointed to manage the jail.

"We haven't divorced Sheriff Ficano," Cox said. "But our men and women have legitimate concerns over what would happen if Mr. McNamara were appointed receiver. This was an attempt to put that card on the shelf."

Deputies wanted to go public with the agreement before the executive's office did, Duggan said.

Kelley: Public can't view non-profit group records

AP — Michigan attorney general Frank Kelley has declared unconstitutional a portion of Michigan's open records law that made public the records of some private non-profit organizations.

In an opinion released Jan. 26, Kelley said the provision in the law violates a section of the Michigan Constitution that says a state law must cover only one subject, which must be included in its title.

The provision said records of any organization created by state or local authority or funded primarily with public funds are considered public. Kelley said that could cover some private non-profit corpora-tions, but the title of the bill fails to mention private entities.

"BECAUSE THIS provision was invalidly enacted, it is void and cannot be applied to a private non-profit corporation," he said.

Kelley's opinion carries the force of law unless overturned by a court.

The opinion was a letdown for state Rep. David Hollister, D-Lansing, who had requested it on behalf of some Clinton County residents who wanted more information about the activities of the Clinton Area New Development Organization, the county's economic development arm.

"That's quite a disappointment," Hollister said, estimating as many as 100 such organizations exist in the state and might be affected.

Betty Jane Minsky, executive director of the Clinton Area New Development Organization, was pleased with the decision.

"I'm elated with this opinion, if have not read it yet," she said. Opening the records would have hamstrung economic development, she

"It would virtually shut up economic development all around. Businesses are not interested in opening up their trade secrets," she said. But Hollister said although businesses like to conduct their affairs in private, different rules should apply when they seek public help.

"THEY ARE using tax benefits and when they do that, they pay the price of openness. When you are using tax dollars and public authority, there comes a different authority,'

The use of public funds and authority needs to be debated publicly to preserve the credibility of the organization, he said.

"Secrecy, no matter now meritorious, undermines the whole process,"

Hollister said lawmakers need to alter the law to cover the private non-profit organizations, but predicted that will be difficult.

'A lot of these interests out here will have a hundred reasons why the information shouldn't be shared," he said.

A spokesman for an organization that has fought attempts to alter the open records law in the past said the public will know less about the activities of such corporations.

"To whatever extent corporations are being set up by government using taxpayers' money, keeping the public from having access to their records will mean less accountability to the taxpayers of the use of their money and their legal authority and that would certainly be of doubtful justification," said Joseph Tuchinsky, advocacy director of the Michigan Citizens Lobby.

KELLEY'S OPINION said that although counties are not authorized to establish a private non-profit corporation to conduct economic development programs, counties may contribute to such corporations organized by private individuals.

Counties may join and pay membership dues to private non-profit corporations, Kelley said. But the dues must be reasonably related to the value of the benefits the county receives from the organization.

Have fun with party giving

Looking for a great reason to throw a

A few weeks back, I was the guest, along with chef Tom MacKinnon, at Jan and Mike Mnich's home in Northville. As I walked up the drive to enter the front door there were sounds of laughter and a distinct feeling of fun was in the air.

Not knowing what to expect, I entered while novice oenophile (wine collector) Mike was hosting the "First Annual Mnich Wine Tasting and Auction for Charity."

It was a little after 11 p.m., and it was very evident the party started much earlier as many of the guests (there were about eight couples) seemed to be getting a little crazy throughout Mike's wine quiz. The sofa and wing-backed chairs were scoffed for the opportunity to snuggle up on a big cushion while a roaring fire blazed and folks tried to discern what it was that made a white zinfandel pink instead of white. (For your info, it's the skin of the grape that causes the wine to take on a blush color)

The party was in full swing. Now being the only person in attendance not being influenced by the grape, I immediately sashayed up to the wine tasting table where the Mniches had positioned 8 various bottles of chardonnays, sauvignon blancs and reislings in what looked like nothing more than a dishpan filled with ice.

SCATTERED AROUND the table were visible signs of a previous tasting complete with papers requiring the guests to rate everything from bouquet (aroma) to aftertaste. It would serve no purpose to clue you in on what they liked (or, better yet, didn't like). Instead, I'll focus your attention as to why the party was thrown in the first place.

Seems that Jan and Mike have been getting together with a group of friends that number - about 10-12 couples - for the last 15 years or so. Most are friends from Michigan State University, but a few were "grandfathered in." The group (size varies monthly) gets together frequently for Halloween parties, Superbowl parties, Kentucky Derby parties and even just to play poker or a friendly game of cards.

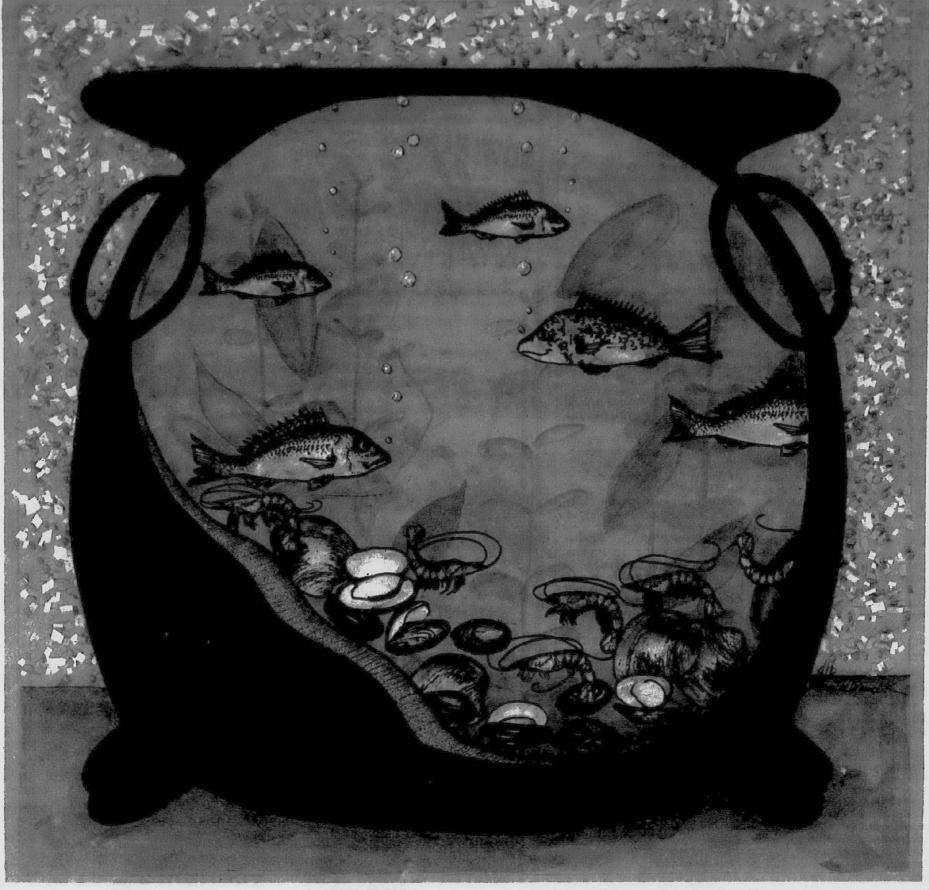

Since the group has been together for more than 15 years, Jan and Mike thought it would be a great idea to give a little back and schedule a wine tasting and auction for charity. (This year's benefactor was the American Cancer Society.) In addition to the wine tasting, the party included a wine quiz, a smattering of great food, and a wine auction with eight selec-tions chosen from Mike's cellar. A mini-descriptive brochure was printed up on the family computer, listing the wines to be auctioned along with their place of purchase, origin, retail price and a few com-ments by the budding oenophiles themselves. THE WINES had a retail value of $10-$30 each, with Jan and Mike hoping to raise $100 or so for the cancer research. Chef Tom MacKinnon was guest auctioneer and the bidding began with a nice little '87 chardonnay from the Maddalena Vineyards. Retail price was only $9.50, but it was evident guests were getting into the swing of things when the bottle finally sold for an amazing

This continued for the next hour while such notable wines like an '83 cabernet sauvignon from Buena Vista garnered a bid of $60. (Constant shouts of 'C'mon, this is for a good cause" rang through the air.)

To make a long story short, eight bottles of wine and a dated bottle of Calvados combined fetched more than $500, all going to the Cancer Foundation.

COOK up potful of fish

By Geri Rinschler special writer

HE FIRST TIME I sampled bouillabaisse, I was studying French provincial cooking in the south of France.

Knowing little about the authenticity of this Provencal specialty, I was soon informed by the locals that what Americans call bouillabaisse is a mere facsimile. According to the French, a true bouillabaisse can only be made with a variety of fish from the Mediterranean Sea near Mar-

Of course, many of the inhabitants disagree on just which fish and how many varieties are essential. But the one ingredient they do agree on is rascasse, a scorpionlike fish, which gives this stew its significant flavor.

Duplicating an authentic bouillabaisse, as you can see, may be next to impossible, but creating a savory Provencal fish stew or New England chowder can be a snap, using these tips on selecting, cooking and seasoning fish soups and stews.

Even though a dish like bouillabaisse may seem complicated, one can actually be put together in about 30 minutes. Not all chowders or fish stews need to begin with homemade fish stock. I'm convinced a flavorful fish chowder can be made with a homemade vegetable stock or one made from a vegetable bouillon cube made by Knorr, or others available in the health food department such as Barth's Nutra Soup.

PAGING THROUGH vintage cookbooks will reveal that most fisherman stews and chowders were made with water or milk. But remember, the fish they were using couldn't have been fresher or more flavorful.

The most difficult task in making any fish dish is shopping for the freshest fish possible. Taking the time to seek out a reputable, topquality fish shop is fundamental. Once that has been accomplished, ask lots of questions about the fish and how often the shop receives deliveries.

Top-quality fish should smell fresh. Whole fish should be shiny with clear eyes. It should not be sticky and should feel firm. When selecting fillets, use the same criteria, avoiding those pieces that have dark brown or red spots.

Some cookbooks recommend buy-ing fish trimmings for a soup pot but unless you've caught the fish yourself you have no way of knowing what you're getting. It's not as easy to judge the quality of clams, mus-sels and oysters in their shells. Check

Area businessman creates new mild onion, Chili Sweet

staff writer

Onion lovers have a sweet treat in store when a new variety of sweet onion hits American markets

Chili Sweet. a mild onion that requires long, warm days of consecutive sunshine to mature, is available now during the dead of winter.

The timing makes the large, globe-shaped onion that comes wrapped in a thin, pale yellow skin notable in culinary circles.

Sweet onions, grown in Georgia, Texas, California and Washington, are harvested in late spring and come available to U.S. consumers only two months of each year, May and June, because a long, hot growing season is essential.

Through a brash experiment that has proven quite successful, businessman Jim Huston of Bloomfield Hills has doubled the length of the annual market, from two to four months, Sweet onlons, more specifically Chili Sweets, are now available to U.S. consumers in January and February.

For onion lovers, Huston's move is welcome news.

"DURING WINTER months, the only onions available in the market are extremely pungent, give indigestion" and were plucked from fields up to six months before, according to Huston, owner of Huston Produce that brokerages some 80,000 tons of onions and potatoes annually.

In contrast, Chili "tastes sweet, causes no indigestion, leaves no odor on the breath and, when cut, causes no tears," he said.

For Huston and all onion lovers, heaven is a thick slab of the sweet variety in a sandwich, on chili or eaten plain and raw. Huston's love of onions developed naturally enough, as a youth on his parent's 220-acre farm in Eaton Rapids where he was experimenting in growing onions 20 years ago, producing meatier results by planting fewer bulbs in narrower rows.

He applied similar logic to sweet onions in looking for a way to extend the annual harvest. Because sweet onions require exacting amounts of extensive sunshine to mature, they can be planted only at specific times of the year . . . at least, that is, north of

Authors tell how to use citrus fruits

"Surprising Citrus," by Audra and Jack Hendrickson, Garden Way Publishing 1988, paper-back, $7.95. Available locally at Border's, Jacobson's and Wal-den Books.

There have not been many cookbooks written about citrus fruits. "Surprising Citrus" is the first to come along in quite a while. I guess that's one reason why I was disap-pointed that this cookbook is not a glossy hardcover edition. But, c'est Authors Audra and Jack Hendrickson are not newcomers to the writing world. Both of them began their careers as newspaper report-ers. After spending 16 years in Bloomfield Hills, they moved to southern Utah. It was then, in 1982, that they both became concerned about their family diet.

Inspired by an article they read in the Wall Street Journal, they researched the benefits of adding beta carotene, citrus and cruciferous (cabbage, watercress and other vegetables of the mustard plant family) vegetables to their daily diet.

"Surprising Citrus" is the second cookbook the Hendricksons have written for Garden Way Publishing. "The Carrot Cookbook" was published in 1987, and a third on cruciferous vegetables is in the Kevin Paulina of Northville and his elaborate wedding cakes will be featured at two Jacobson's stores in February. Paulina studied culinary arts and restaurant management at Oakland Community College. He spent two years as pastry chef at the Country Epicure restaurant in Novi.

With Amy Rohr in Chicago, he studied three styles of elaborate cakes -Lambeth, or English; Australian, and South African, or Nirvana. Paulina will be in the Birmingham store for a wedding/bridal show 7-9 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 7, and in Livonia for the bridal event 7-9 p.m. Wednesday-Thursday, Feb. 22-23.

to see that they've been kept cold and moist. When clams and mussels are steamed they will automatically open their shells. If they don't, they were dead when you bought them and should be discarded.

The New England Scallop Chowder recipe accompanying this article also is simple to prepare. When buy-ing scallops I prefer the smaller bay scallops because of their sweetness. Fresh bay scallops, as well as sea cipe. After purchasing, rinse them well to remove any sand particles and trim the beard. Spoiled scallops will emit a very strong sulfurlike

AFTER SELECTING the fish, refrigerate it in the coldest part of the refrigerator. As a general rule it's best to use the fish the day it's purchased or within two days. Most chowder recipes call for fillet pieces or chunks of fish. If these pieces are between one and two inches they will simmering broth.

Avoid a rolling boil because it will cause the fish to fall apart. When reheating any fish soup, do so gently. Avoid lots of stirring. Gently bring to a boil and quickly reduce to low, or remove from the heat.

The fun of making a fish chowder for a luncheon or supper is that the soup generally becomes the focal point of the meal and its accompaniments should be simple. Crunchy bread or corn muffins, along with a

For heartier appetites you may want to serve a cheese tray with gouda, jarisberg or a gruyere garnished with grapes, melon or strawberries, depending upon the season. If you're entertaining, you want to add dessert to the menu. A country pie or cake such as a carrot loaf or caramel custard will complement the meal better than an elaborate torte or pastries.

Looking for a more unusual fish stew for a weekend dinner? The Cantonese Hot Pot has been popular for hundreds of years. In the recently published "New Cantonese Cooking," Eileen Yin-Fei Lo has re-created this classic with a new twist, adding scallops, clams and oysters.

A fish broth needs to be prepared in advance, but the rest of the meal is prepared at the table - everyone takes a turn and prepares his or her own. This one-pot supper blends easily into a simple menu. The author suggests Water Dumplings, Cauli-flower Salad and Sliced Fresh Pineapple to complement the hot pot. Not many seafood cookbooks have been published recently. One of interest is a paperback, "The Great American Seafood Cookbook" by Susan Herrmann Loomis (Workman Publishing, 1988, $12.95). More than just recipes, it offers advice on cleaning, storing, freezing and cook-ing all kinds of fish. Especially im-pressive is a lexicon describing the pressive is a lexicon describing the varieties of fish, their availability and what to use as a substitute when a certain fish is out of season.

Each ingredient - seafood, noodles, bean curd or vegetable — should be placed in its own plate or bowl arranged around a hot pot (available at Asian markets) or an electric fry pan.

Heat two cups of the fish broth and two cups of the water together in frypan. Add the ginger and garlic. Bring to a boil.

Place the fish, seafood or vegetable of your choice in the broth. The use of strainerlike spoons fashioned of wire is suggested. (These are available in Asian markets), or use a slotted spoon. Eat at will, dipping your cooked foods into the Vinegar Soy Sauce, or Ginger Soy Sauce.

Keep replenishing the fish broth with water. When the fish and vegetables have been consumed, spoon the broth into small bowls and drink

VINEGAR SOY SAUCE

Mix in a bowl: 2 tablespoons chicken broth 1 tablespoon dark soy sauce 1 tablespoon light soy sauce 1 tablespoon white vinegar ½ teaspoon hot pepper oil 1 tablespoon finely sliced scallions.

GINGER SOY SAUCE Mix in a bowl

1 tablespoon dark soy sauce

1 tablespoon light soy sauce 2 tablespoons chicken broth

1 tablespoon minced ginger 2 tablespoons minced scallions, white part only 2 teaspoons seasame oil ½ teaspoons sugar.

Divide sauces into individual sauce dishes and serve with hot pot.

FISH BROTH From "Cantonese Cookbook" by Eileen Yin-Fei Lo

Makes 8 cups 10 pounds fish heads and bones washed well in cold running water

4 quarts cold water 2 pounds onions, peeled and quarted 2 celery stalks, cut in halves

6 scallions, washed, dried with ends trimmed

1 piece fresh ginger, two inches long, smashed lightly with a cleaver 6 whole peeled garlic cloves 1 teaspoon white pepper

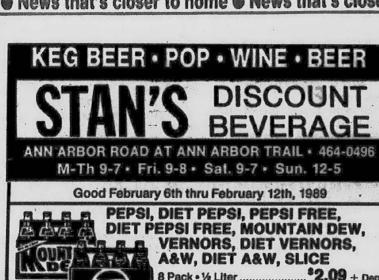

In a large stockpot, add all ingredients. Set over high heat and bring to a boil. Lower the heat, partially, cover the pot but keep at a boil at all times. Cook for six hours.

Turn off the heat. Using a large strainer over a mixing bowl, ladle the broth through the strainer. Refrigerate until ready to use. Discard

Broth can be kept, refrigerated, two-three days; can be frozen for one

This recipe can easily be cut in half and cooked for half the time.

Businessman creates new onion

"Why not," Huston speculated, "reverse the known growing process and plant on the other side of the equator." Huston, a 1972 graduate of Michigan State University, is also a horticulturist and plant breeder.

Chili seemed the perfect place to stage Huston's experiment. The country, 100 miles wide and 2,500 miles long, is bordered on one side by the Andes and on the other, by the ocean. The soil is rich with volcanic deposits and humidity is moderate tu low, ideal growing conditions for the mild sweet onion.

Last year, Huston and Pike flew to Santiago and leased 20 acres. The first harvest, an estimated 100,000 nds, passed through U.S. customs in Detroit late last month. The onions were sweeter than Huston said he thought possible.

The harvest is small and will be sold entirely in New York City at 89 cents a pound. Next year, 400 acres will be planted and part of that harvest will find its way into supermarkets in metropolitan Detroit, joining another promotion by Huston, a unique gourmet potato called Yukon Gold.

"IT'S WITHOUT doubt the besttasting potato in the world," Huston said of Yukon, a variety he tracked down in Ohio after a year of searching. He first marketed the variety six years ago, placing it in Michigan stores one year ago. The potato looks and tastes like it has already been Yukon is a difficult and costly variety to grow. Once germinated in test tubes in California, it takes a seed four years to transform into a potato ready for sale. Only 5 percent of the nation's aerable soil is suitable for the Yukon and yields are typically one-eighth the size of betterknown varieties like Russett or Ida-

The additional effort is more than worth it, Huston said. "It's delicious tasting. It contains no cholesterol. No salt. And each potato has about Others also think the additional effort is worthwhile. Good Housekeeping Magazine gave Yukon its Seal of Approval. Joel Robuchon, the world's foremost authority on pota-toes, features Yukon in his classy Paris restaurant. Plans are under way for a European harvest and correspondents from Japan to Botswana have inquired about Yukon.

"THEY'RE FANTASTIC, sweet, crisp and have lots of texture," Huston said. He refers not to Chili or Yukon but to Fugi apples, his latest

The apples, currently grown in California on a limited basis, are "better than anything else on the market," and "something people want," two criteria Huston employs when considering promotion of yet another new product.

Consumers are receptive to new products, the era is ripe, Huston said, pointing to the myriad of foods now available that were unknown less than a generation ago.

But marketing new produce is hard work. "It takes a lot of time and energy out of you, to find something new and then try to develop it," he said. It took him five years to market Yukon.

For now, Huston is preparing for a culinary demonstration later this week at the International Food Media Show in Los Angeles. He will unveil Chili Sweet for the first time, new fare ready to be feted.

1 teaspoon mustard seed 3 tablespoon confectioner's sugar salt and freshly ground black pepper 1 cup white wine vinegar

2 tablespoons vegetable oil 2 cups thinly sliced Chili Sweet onions (slices should be separated into rings)

Combine all ingredients except sweet onion into glass or ceramic bowl. Mix well and let sit for 30 minutes. Add onions and stir well. Cover and marinate overnight in refrigerator. Serves 6.

Get outside despite the cold, get energized by walking

In winter, we tend to use cold weather as an excuse to binge on comforting calorie-laden foods, gaining extra pounds that we fret about only when the first cheery robin appears on the scene. By then, it's too late.

Living in Michigan gives us the opportunity to enjoy the variety of col-ors and sounds that each season brings. Cold weather is no excuse not to take energizing walks. All that's needed is a wool cap, a long scarf, gloves and a warm jacket. And if, by chance, the temperature does fall far below zero, we can always get out and walk in the malls.

Skiing and skating are also invigorating sports that encourage the mind as well as the body. The important thing to remember is to move. Plan activities, do things, go places and stay active.

There are certain foods which, I believe, were created just for winter. Hot soups, freshly baked herbed breads, spiced muffins and steamed vegetables laced with crushed peppers are all rewards of winter. What could be more soothing than a wonderful cup of hot buttered rum, spiced tea, or Brazilian Cocoa 'n' Creme on a cold, crisp day?

HOT BUTTERED RUM Makes 2 servings

1 tablespoon firmly packed dark brown sugar 2 teaspoons whipped sweet butter dash ground cloves zest of 1 small orange, removed in 1 long piece, then cut in half (The zest of the orange is the peel without any of the pith — the white membrane. To remove zest from orange, use a zester or vegetable peeler. Wrap orange in plastic wrap and refrigerate for use at another time).

We start with homemade linguine, fettucine and tortellini. All created from full-bodied semolina flour and farm fresh eggs. And served with fresh parmesan and romano cheese grated tableside.

But we don't stop there. We like to tantalize you just a bit with our succulent sauces accented with a sprinkle of the extraordinary Muer imagination...delicate aromas swirling above each dish.

A SAMPLING OF OUR MENU:

Lobster Fettucine - Tender, fresh Maine lobster generously folded into a fresh tomato herb and cream sauce. Served over a bed of homemade fettucine.

Shrimp and Artichokes — A medley of tender delicately flavored shrimp and artichoke hearts. Tossed in a sauce of fresh tomatoes and fragrant wine and herbs. Served over homemade Baked Lasagna — Thinly rolled ribbons of pasta layered atop our mildly spicy homemade meat sauce and topped with fresh melted parmesan and mozzarella cheese.

When George Washington rode around the country, there were sy-camore trees 13 feet in diameter. In 1802 one was discovered in Ohio that was 47 feet in circumference.

Today, Michigan's champion tree in Lenawee County is a mere 24 feet

Large trees of this dimension were very useful to early settlers. They were all hollow because the old wood in the center had rotted away. While families built their log cabins, they would take shelter from one of these

Rocks have sole claim to Lakes title

Salem whips Glenn, 72-59

By Steve Kowalski staff writer

Plymouth Salem won the Lakes Division basketball title outright Friday, getting help from a trio of players whom coach Bob Brodie calls his "Three Musketeers."

Mike Albertson, Ryan Johnson and Tom Noonan all played significant roles off the bench as Salem knocked off host Westland John Glenn 72-59, to stay undefeated in the Lakes Division at 8-0, 14-1 overall. The loss evened Glenn's record in the Lakes at 4-4, and the Rockets are 7-8 over-

Albertson, who never knows how much time he'll see on the court, scored 10 points, and grabbed 15 rebounds for the Rocks, including four straight free throws in the final quarter. Johnson added nine points, while Noonan provided a solid floor

Jeff Elliott again led the Rocks in scoring with 23 points and Jake Baker added 13, but the Rocks' locker room might not have been so exuberant without the play of Brodie's

"I FEEL LIKE I'm the sixth man, and I've got to work super hard to get my playing time," Albertson said. "I was thinking, 'I better make these free throws. This is it. This is the time.'

Salem won the Lakes Division title outright two years ago, but Brodie's had more fun this year because it's basketball been a total team effort. Starters Jeff Jagacki and Craig Marshall contributed eight and six points, respectively.

"This is sweeter," Brodie said.
"Our kids played hard tonight.
They're just a bunch of hard-working kids that are fun to watch and fun to "Those three guys (Albertson, Johnson and Noonan) accept their roles and are good at it. They're just as important as the five that start. Really, we have three 'Sixth Men.' I call them my "Three Muskateers."

Greg Anderson led Glenn's lopsided attack with 27 points and Bobby Lawrence added 10. No other player had more than six points.

"It's a good sign that he's (Anderson's) hot, but it's bad that nobody else helped out," Glenn coach Bob Killingbeck said. "To be successful we have to get scoring from four or five guys. You're not going to win a lot when one guy scores.

"THEY'RE THE most talented team in the league, that's why they're undefeated and in first place. When Elliott's not playing well someone else picks up the pace. They have pretty good depth. Albertson hurt us and so did Hyan Johnson."

Glenn pulled to within six, 58-52, with less than six minutes left on a 3point shot by Chris Poplin, but Albertson's four consecutive free throws gave the Rocks a more comfortable 10-point (62-52) lead.

Anderson made a jump shot to cut the lead to seven, 66-59, but that's as close as Glenn got.

Anderson scored 16 first-half points on seven-of-11 shooting and the Rockets trailed by only three, 34-31, at halftime. The Rockets also played the Rocks pretty evenly on the boards, being outrebounded only by four, 21-17.

Elliott was assigned to cover Anderson most of the night, and Albertson also guarded the Glenn sharpshooter. It didn't matter.

"HE'S A GOOD player," Brodie said. "We knew he was capable of scoring a lot. We had a hand in his face and he still drilled his shots. Give him credit.'

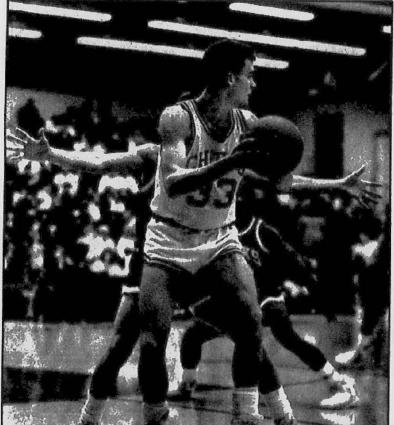

Anderson made only three of nine second-half shots, however, and the Rockets got outrebounded 21-15 in the final two quarters. The Rockets will need a better effort than that if they are to meet the Rocks in the Western Lakes Activities Association playoffs.

Glenn is tied for third in the Lakes with Livonia Stevenson and the top four teams in each division make the league playoffs.

By Dan O'Meara staff writer

Farmington Hills Harrison was supposed to be the team handicapped by a player's absence. In the end, it was Plymouth Canton, however, that suffered most from having lost a key member of its squad Friday night. The Chiefs lost Brian Paupore in the second half when the 6-foot-5 senior sustained a broken nose, and visiting Harrison survived a lackluster fourth quarter for a 36-35 victo-But the unimpressive finale couldn't diminish the importance of Harrison's victory. The Hawks clinched a share of the Western Division title with a 7-1 record and improved to 13-2 overall. Second-place Canton slipped to 5-3

HARRISON ENTERED the game without 6-2 senior Bryan Wauldron, who was sick with the flu. Ron Karbowski, a 6-4 junior, had four points and six rebounds in his place.

But the course the game would take was greatly affected by Paupore's departure with 2:59 remaining in the third quarter.

Loss compounded by Paupore injury

After taking down a rebound, Eldredge put the ball on the floor, and Paupore reached in front of him as he swatted at the ball.

"That was definitely the turning point," Harrison coach Mike Teachman said, "because they were looking to him the whole gam

"That really put us even, because we were playing without Wauldron. But it was a shame, because he was having such a good game."

Paupore, who scored all of his 13 points in the first half, was taken immediately to the hospital. Canton coach Tom Niemi didn't know how long his team's leading scorer will be sidelined.

"WHEN YOU TAKE 26 points out of your lineup, that's a heckuva thing to have happen," Niemi said.

"All year long, we've had two major scorers (Paupore and Troy Waldron), but the other kids stepped in and tried to do their best. That's all you can ask.

"It was an emotional game," he added. "Everybody knew the consequences of this game."

It looked as if neither team, however, was eager to win the game in the fourth quarter, which saw the Hawks outscore Canton 5-0. It was not an example of well-played bas-

For their part, the Chiefs were 0for-10 from the field in the last eight

"Both teams wanted it, believe me," Niemi said.

IRONICALLY, THE Hawks won the game with a pair of Chad Burgess free throws that put Harrison in front 36-35. But the Hawks were just 7-of-21 at the line for the game and 3-of-8 in the finale.

"Do you think we're going to be shooting free throws next week?" Teachman said.

With Paupore out of the lineup and Mill Coleman having pulled the Hawks within two, 35-33, early in the quarter, the Chiefs went to a slowdown offense and began to work the Canton also wanted to be sure of getting a high-percentage shot, Niemi said, "but they didn't drop. When they don't drop, you don't Niemi, as did Teachman, also cited the defensive play that dominated the fourth quarter.

"When you hold a state-ranked team to 36 points, you've gotta be proud," he said. "You should win when you hold people to that, but it just didn't happen."

BURGESS. WHO scored a gamehigh 15 points, foiled Canton's stall tactic with a steal that led to a foul and a free throw, narrowing the defi-cit to 34-33 with 4:12 to play.

His winning free throws followed one of Canton's misses, but the Hawks missed three ensuing 1-and-1 chances and gave the Chiefs other opportunities with frontcourt turn-

Canton, however, didn't take advantage as evidenced by its shooting. Its last chance, with three seconds left, was erased by a traveling call. A defender jumped in front of Geoff Allen as he went up to shoot, causing him to abort the attempt.

fered a broken nose and missed the last 11 minutes.

Should Plymouth Canton win the Western Division boys swim title, it will have been a team effort. The Chiefs moved a step closer to that goal Thursday night, but some of the usual names were missing from the lineup. Canton, 3-0 in the division and 6-3 overall, demonstrated its depth as some of the team's less-heralded members paced the Chiefs to a 98-74 victory over Farmington Hills Harrison.

We were able to swim all of our second, third and fourth swimmers," coach Hooker Well-man said; "We gave them a chance to score some points, and they did a

Dave Nevi and Kevin Beach had two firsts apiece, including the 200-yard medley relay. Nevi won the butterfly (59.5) and Beach the breaststroke (1:09.1).

They combined with Tim Edwards and Bert Brian to win the relay in 1:51.72. Nevi also had a personal best in the butterfly with a second-place time of 1:03.9.

One of Canton's top swimmers, Jim Hartnett, made a significant contribution by winning the individual medley (2:12.6).

Shawn MacInnis also had his best time of 56.7 for first place in the 100 freestyle, and Jeff Schwinn captured the 50 freestyle in 24.7.

Edwards added a second-place finish in the backstroke with his personal best of 1:05.8, and Ma-cinnis, though he was fourth, impressed Wellman with his 2:27.4 time in the IM.

Harrison's Jeff Neikirk won the 200 and 500 freestyles with 2:00.9 and 5:34.3 times, and he was on the winning freestyle relay team along with Jason Barringer, Ed Serzo and Bill Wolford. The Hawks swam 3:47.6. Serzo also won the back-stroke with a 1:03.3 showing.

Salem netters beat Spartans

Plymouth Salem continues to tempt the hand of fate on the volleyball court.

But, as usual, the Rocks managed to avoid an unpleasant result Wednesday when they defeated visiting Livonia Stevenson in three games, 8-15, 15-12, 15-6.

After losing the first game, Salem, 4-1 in the Lakes Division and 11-4 overall, found its feet and established a consistent game.

We weren't here, again," coach Betty Smith said. "That seems to be our problem. We get started too late. It was the middle of the second game before we started playing."

Smith said the Spartans, who dropped to 1-4 in the division, hit a lot of soft serves, and Salem had trouble adjusting to that.

"We haven't been up against a team that serves so soft," she said. Serve receive just killed us in the

The Rocks led 5-0 in the second game, but Stevenson rallied to cut the margin to one. The Spartans later scored three in a row to make it 14-12. Salem, however, scored the winning point one rotation later.

In the rubber match, the Rocks went four rotations before scoring their first point. The Spartans led 5-1, but Salem pulled ahead when Maria Wordhouse had six kills during the second full rotation.

CC experience helps Vitti

All factors considered, Bill Vitti's success as a freshman starter for Saginaw Valley State's basketball team should come as no surprise. After all, he could actually make an argument that his pre-college training was more difficult.

Vitti graduated from Redford Catholic Central last orders. With the transition of the contract of t last spring. While the transition to college basket-ball often humbles the best of prospects, Vitti's background prepared him well for it.

"At CC, I played against guys like Parrish Hickman, Lee Fitzpatrick and Mike Peplowski," he said. "The Catholic League was real tough."

Indeed it was. Hickman, from Redford Bishop Borgess, and Peplowski, from Warren DeLaSalle, are now freshmen at Michigan State. Hickman is starting for the Spartans; Peplowski is recovering from a knee injury. Fitzpatrick, from Birmingham Brother Rice, is a freshman member of Oakland University's team. land University's team.

But that wasn't the end of Vitti's training. Last summer he played for the Detroit Sibley's team that won the under-18 AAU state tournament.

OTHER TEAM members were Matt Steigenga, the state's 1988 player of the year from Grand Rapids South Christian, and Jon Zulauf, from Port Huron, both now at MSU; and Chris Weber, the talented Detroit Country Day sophomore who is already being compared to Magic Johnson. All of those players have two things in common:

basketball

They are taller than Vitti, who's 6-foot-6, and they tangled with him, at one time or another, in the Vitti is what's known as a blue-collar player. He does the dirty work around the basket. "I'm mostly in there for rebounding, blocking shots and playing defense," he said prior to SVSU's game at OU Thursday. "I'm not in there for scoring. I just go in and work hard."

So far, his hard work has paid off in solid numbers. Entering the OU game, he was averaging 8.5 points, 8.6 rebounds and 2.0 blocks per game. In Great Lakes Conference play, Vitti was first in field-goal percentage (75.0 on 39-of-52) and third in rebounding (8.4 per game). His performance thus far has made him a frontrunner for GLIAC freshman of the year hopors.

NOT BAD for someone whose goals entering the season were modest, to say the least. "I hoped to play about 20 minutes a game and try to improve myself," he said. He's averaging 27.5 minutes and is improving every game.

Against OU, Vitti played 30 minutes and hit five of eight floor shots receipt 10 points. He five-of-eight floor shots, scoring 10 points. He grabbed nine rebounds and blocked four shots. OU, however, won 81-70.

One thing Vitti was unable to do well was de-fend Pioneer senior forward John Henderson, whom he guarded much of the game. Henderson finished with 22 points and 11 boards.

Still, his success has led to a redefinition of goals, and these aren't nearly as humble as those at the outset of the season,

"I'd like to lead the league in rebounding," he said. His hopes for the team are even more opti-mistic. SVSU will qualify for the NAIA District 23 tournament - the Cardinals were third in the power point standings last week (the top six make the tournament) — and Vitti is confident they'll

"WE SHOULD get through the districts," he predicted. "I think we have a real good chance of getting to the (NAIA) nationals. I'd be disappointed if we didn't.

Although Vitti has enjoyed unexpected success, he knows he can — and must — improve. "I have to work on my shooting," he said, which may sound odd considering his league-leading field goal percentage. But his shots almost all originate from the paint. "I remember taking a shot from the free throw line once," he said.

Free throws are a different story. Vitti has struggled at the line, making just 46.2 percent. "It's driving me crazy," he said. "I'm not that bad. The ball's just rolling around the rim and not

Feed your heart with balanced diet, exercise

Dear Myrns: I am a 48-year-old woman who has been exercising for years. I am curious to find out about my healthy heart. As a woman, I never think about the possibility of a heart attack. Men always worry about it. Am I correct not to worry?

This really is a question for your doctor. At the age of 48, you should have a regular check-up yearly. I can only answer you on statistics and the latest data I've read

According to Medical News Data researched by American Health Magazine, coronary heart disease kills about 250,000 women a year. No woman is immune to heart disease no matter what her healthy history might show.

Statistically for women heart disease is the:

. . . 4th leading cause of death among women 30 to 34 years old.

3rd leading cause of death among women 35 to 39 years old. . 2nd leading cause of death among women 40 to 64 years old. leading cause of death among women after age 65.

Sounds sort of bleak, but still far fewer women get heart disease than men. Doctors are not sure why - maybe stress levels in women are lower. Also, the estrogen we produce might add some protection from heart disease. This hormone increases the blood level of HDLs (good cholesterol) and keeps down the LDLs (bad, fatty cholesterol). As we get older we lose some estrogen making us more prone to heart problems. Studies have shown that a woman 45 years of age or older is at risk of developing hypertension and diabetes. This also will increase the

Of course, a low-fat, high-complex carbohydrate balanced diet and regular aerobic type exercise (at least three to four times a week) will greatly help you maintain that healthy heart you say you have.

But you should get a full cardio check-up just to play it safe. Better safe than sorry!

Redford Catholic Central lost its Catholic League regular season baskethall finale Friday at Warren De-LaSalle, 58-54, but the Shamrocks are outright champions of the Central Division thanks to Birmingham Brother Rice's win over second place Redford Bishop Borgess (see story below.)

The Shamrocks finished 7-3 in the division. They will take an 8-7 overall record against Royal Oak Shrine, Tuesday at home, in the first round of the A-B Division playoffs.

DeLaSalle (9-6, 4-6), which failed to make the playoffs, played spoiler as three Pilots scored double figures led by Chris Martin (16), Chris May (11) and Jack Goodman (10).

Terry Boykin paced CC with 14 points, while Ray Richards and Steve Whitlow contributed 12 and 11, respectively.

Salem ended the meet on a similar note, as Orris, Hill, Seidelman and Rick Steshetz won the 400 freestyle relay in 3:25.56.

Steshetz was first in the 200 freestyle with a 1:56.22 effort, and Hill produced a winning time of 22.90 in the 50 freestyle. Orris also had a solo win, taking the 100 freestyle in 48.84.

Eric Bunch took the individual medley in 2:13.51, and Mike Axford used speed and endurance to nail down the top spot in the 500 freestyle with a 5:15.94 time.

Pat McManaman earned a total of 209.60 points for first place in diving. Rob Shimmel's 1:00.22 time in the butterfly netted him a victory, Chris Butzlaff won the backstroke with a 1:02.41 clocking and Mark Erickson posted a breaststroke win at 1:09.39.

The Rocks have dual meets with Farmington (away) on Thursday, Livonia Churchill (home) on Thursday, Feb. 16, and Livonia Stevenson (home) on Thursday, Feb. 23, before getting ready to defend their league title the first week of March.

"It reminded me of a deodorant commercial," said Teachman of the final quarter. "Which one was going to last: Right Guard or Ban?

'As trite as it sounds, winning the last quarter 5-0, it was defense that did it for us."

"There was not a lot of offense out there," he understated. "Canton has a lot of role players they can throw at you to make fouls. They're going to keep doing that if you're not going to make the free throws."

HARRISON MISSED its first seven shots of the game, but Burgess and Marcus Mack got the transition game going and the Hawks led 15-11 after one quarter. But the Chiefs

Bowling alliance salutes area youths

Kelley Wantin and Jen-nifer McPherson, received awards recently for finish-ing among the "Nation's Top 10" of their division in the Young American Bowling Alliance

Wantin, a fourth-grade student at Cleveland Elementary School in Westland, was third in the nation in the Bantam Girls Under-eight Division, rolling a 203 game. She also went right out and rolled a 193 game the day the awards were presented. As one might have guessed, Wantin's hobby is bowling.

McPherson, a fifth grader at El-liott Elementary in Westland, rolled a 330 series (two games). Besides bowling, McPherson plays the violin

Bob Smith, the area director for the YABA, and Randy Smith, who has coached the youngsters for many years, handed out the awards. The awards took place during the youth league competition at Merri-Bowl Lanes on Five Mile near Merriman.

 Sixteen-year-old Lona Palise and stepfather Dave Pickett bowled together in the Holiday Doubles tournament at Westland Bowl, shooting a 735 series on games of 290-233-212.

MEN'S COLLEGE BASKETBALL

 Speaking of youth bowling, we are going back to school. The South-east Michigan High School Bowling championship will take place soon with qualifying on March 19, and the finals, April 2. The high schools will field five-man teams, and after qual-ifying, will go on to a "stepladder"

If you are a high school student and interested, check with the athletic department of your school. I will have more on this subject the next time my column appears. The event is sanctioned by the YABA, but nonsanctioned bowlers also will be eligible to compete. Eligibility also is dependent on scholastic standing.

If you are a league secretary or officer, you can report the high scores to me at 422-1609.

Messner, Miller hailed

Mark Messner, a former football standout at Redford Catholic Cen-tral, and John Miller, who prepped at Farmington Harrison, will be given the Wolverine Human Ser-vices Tony Sablowski Award for humanitarianism and courage shown on and off the field in college.

Messner recently capped an outstanding collegiate career, being named All-Big Ten defensive tackle four consecutive years for the Rose-Bowl champion University of Michigan football team. Miller finished his four-year career at Michigan State University, earning All-Big Ten honors last fall as a safety.

Wolverine confers these awards annually for Big Ten and Mid-American Conference athletes at its Sportsmen's On and Off the Field Banquet. This year the banquet will be held Friday, Feb. 24, at the Novi Hilton. Tickets are $55. Call 822-2070 for information

The Sportsmen's Banquet honors these athletes from Big Ten and MAC colleges for their athletic prowess, community involvement and academic accomplish Eastern Michigan fullback Ste ven Palmateer, from Northstreet, Mich., is the MAC's representative for the Wolverine Human Services Humanitarian Award.

Reggie McKenzie, who played for both the Buffalo Bills and Seat-tle Seahawks of the National Football League, will be the keynote speaker.

The banquet raises money for children in treatment programs operated by Wolverine Human Services. MHS is a multi-program, non-profit youth service agency

BANG goes the hard rubber disc against the plexiglass shield. WHUMP go the bodies of two skaters scurrying to retrieve it.

Instinctively, the spectator flinches, then smiles to himself. A point has been The skaters are women, but this is definitely hockey.

Women's hockey leagues once flourished from blue-collar Wayne County communities to Oakland County's whitecollar suburban havens.

But the leagues aren't flourishing any-more. They are down to a band of hardy survivors, women mostly in their mid-20s to early 30s.

And for one hour this January night, more than two dozen will renew their sisterhood on the ice. "The women who play hockey consider themselves a special group," said long-time coach Fred LeHoup of Westland.

LeHoup, a television station employee by day, knows of what he speaks. For more than a decade, he has devoted his free time to women's hockey.

HE COACHED women's teams before hundreds of cheering spectators on outdoor Scandanavian rinks. He's coached them on the hallowed Olympic ice of Lake

Tonight, he will coach his Garden City team on its home ice against a group of red-clad invaders from Livonia.

His players bear out the assessment that, indeed, they're a breed apart among the area's amateur athletes.

For them, it's a sisterhood born of adversity and necessity.

Most of tonight's players learned the game in the early to mid-1970s — as part of the first generation of young women who were told that, yes, they could do everything the boys did.

But it hasn't always been easy.

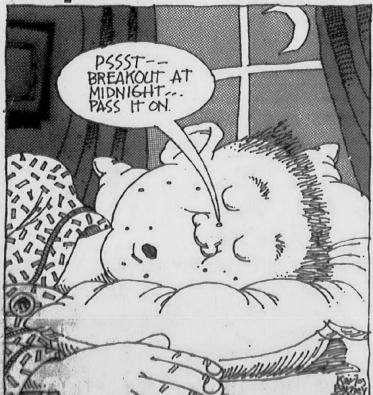

"A lot of people don't even know I play hockey. And when they do, a lot of them tell me it's a man's sport," said Kathy England, a compact 11-year veteran who is one of the Garden City team's best play-

"You get support from some people, flak from others," England said. "Some of the guys don't like it, and we also get flak

Toronto: It's cosmopolitan, close to home

By Irls Sanderson Jones contributing travel editor

(First of a two-part series)

Q: A group of us are planning a four-day trip together during late winter or early spring. We hope to go to Europe someday, but in the meantime, we've narrowed it down to two Canadian cities, Toronto and Ottawa. That's as much of a "foreign country" as we can afford. Please help us choose, and keep the prices down, if you can.

M.S.

A: Ottawa is the capital of Canada and its downtown life revolves around legislative buildings with a distinctive Canadian architecture. They look like French chateaus, with stone walls and steep copper roofs, green with age, high above the Ottawa River, which separates Ontario from the French-speaking province of Quebec.

Toronto is the capital city of Ontario. Its downtown life is led in contemporary high-rise buildings and old well-preserved ethnic neighborhoods, with business peo-ple and residents sharing the busy shoreline and offshore islands of Lake Ontario.

We'll talk about Toronto this week. Next week I'll tell you about Ottawa. There are some things

'Triangle' gives other side of war

Two comedies and an unusual Vietnam war movie highlight this week's additions to your local marquee, Well-known stars appear in all three as the spring film season gains

There have been so many Vietnam war movies that they now form a special film category sufficiently large, and books and articles are being written about them.

For the most part, these films are "Rambo/MIA" blood and thunder epics which subconsciously try to explain away the war or the "Full-Metal Jacket/Hamburger Hills" "war is heil" variety. Some exceptions are films, such as "Platoon," which project a moving portrait of war's tragedy and "Coming Home's" sensitive handling of veterans, problems.

trail, "The Iron Triangle" (R) (B) is a graphically brutal film based on the diary of a Viet Cong soldier. The story is narrated by American Captain Keene (Beau Bridges) and the cast includes Haing Ngor who won an Oscar for his role in "The Killing the war through the eyes of Ho (James Ishida). Both he and Keene have their reasons for being soldiers the latter because his country called and 17-year-old Ho thinks he's helping his people regain their pride and their land.

But war changes people and no one is left untouched. Through unusual circumstances, which to some may seem unrealistic, both Ho and Keene have an opportunity to kill the other, but a meeting of their eyes stops the trigger finger each time. While such coincidences are not beyond belief, the story suffers by not explaining why, even when Ho asks Keene why.

In the end, no matter from whose viewpoint the Vietnam story is told, war is brutal and depersonalizing and getting worse all the time. "The Iron Triangle" demonstrates that death is no longer an emotional, personal, moral tragedy.

In our cynical, violent times, death of other human beings has become just another political act - an act which only stimulates outrage and retribution if the "other guys' do it. But if our side, which ever one that is, murders, it's OK. Reviewed by Kathy Guyor.

Detective novel writer Phillip Blackwood (Tom Selleck) hasn't been productive since his wife left him and his career is suffering despite editor Sam Dusen's (William Daniels) help. Arthur Miller's sister, Joan Copeland, appears in a neat cameo as Mrs. Dusen.

But nothing much helps Blackwood until inspiration strikes in the lovely form of police prisoner Nina Ionescu (Pauline Porizkova) who is being arraigned for murder. Stricken by her beauty, Blackwood provides an alibi and she is released Suspicious police Lt. Frank Polito (James Farentino) complicates matters as does Romanian agent Troppa (Hurd Hatfield) and others hovering around poor Mr. Blackwood and his lovelorn writer's block.

It's cleverly done as Selleck voices over the exploits of Blackwood's super-detective hero while Selleck himself stumbles through numerous complications. But the quick shifts from comedy — some of it overly broad — to suspense and back again is poorly paced. Ms. Porizkova is lovely, but Selleck's handsome visage and super-efficient "Magnum persona make it difficult to believe all this fumbling around.

Nonetheless, the production is slick and there's a good deal of funto be had.

Peter Sellers' was brilliant. John Candy tries hard but his timing and performance fall short.

Their 'passion' is dance music

By Larry O'Connor staff writer

Three out of four members of Passion Nouveau recommend dance music with an edge.

And the fourth member, you ask. Well, Marc Andris of Troy chooses to sit this interview out at the other table while other band members hover around a tape recorder.

"He is the quiet one," said Derrick Thompson, vocalist and spokesman for Passion Nouveau.

Drummer Vern Blevins of Warren and guitarist John Macca of Farmington Hills along with Thompson more than make up for Andris' silence. All three enthusiastically discuss the direction of Passion Nouveau, keeping their concentration along the way despite talking above a soundcheck by the British synth band Flock of Seagulls at Blondie's.

So there you go. There's the edge. Members believe that the raw guitar sound puts Passion Nouveau a few steps ahead of the average drone

"Our live show adds a lot of guitar and movement up front, which British bands don't offer," said Thompson, 25, who lives in Detroit. "Their stage show is usually boring. We try to offer a lot of excitement."

PASSION NOUVEAU certainly captures that on tape. Songs are filled with musical virtuosity and introspection. To their credit, they don't fall into the trap of repetitive beats and display a certain spark uncommon for bands of their ilk.

Things grew stale and Thompson reorganized. He met Andris, who suggested Blevins. A few people auditioned the guitarist spot until Mac-

"I feel confident that he is the missing link," Thompson said. "The four of us planned to go far."

So far the band has made it to Chicago and Toronto along with a tour of the college circuit. Also, they are one of the few bands that can boast of playing rock'n'roll venues, such as Paycheck's Lounge and Lili's 21, as well as dance clubs like Taboo.

THE SOUND, they believe, crosses a wide genre of musical tastes. Again, credit for part of that goes to the guitarist. "I think it's good to have a dance sound," said Blevins, who lives in Warren. "But it's good to have an edge to it. John brings that."

"The guitar is a very emotional instrument," Thompson added. "I heard Jimmy Page make his guitar cry once."

Another facet to the Passion Nouveau sound is the song writing of Thompson. He admits writing one out of four songs for a pop hit. He said the other stuff comes from Dance is where it's at, though, for Passion Nouveau.

"The thing about this band," Macca said, "is that it seems to be involved in whatever is new. It's always on the cutting edge of what is happening in music."

Proving that good music and a lot of hard work pays off, Second Self has been signed by national record

The Detroit band will celebrate the event with a combined record re-lease/record label signing bash on Tuesday, Feb. 14, at Saint Andrew's Hall in Detroit. The four members of Second Self are already heralding

"We've been trying for awhile," said drummer Jeff Fowikes, "and all of a sudden it happened." Second Self has extensively toured the Michigan, Ohio and Ontario region along with the East Coast for the past two years. After hearing a six-song tape, EMI arts and reper-toire man, Rob Gordon, flew in to Cincinnati to check out the band.

Gordon was impressed enough to have Second Self showcase for the entire label in New York. Shortly after, they were signed.

"I felt they exemplify what's missing in music these days," said Gordon, who works out of EMI's New York office. "The passion. The very strong live show. The dedication to the music for music sake, not necessarily just for success. I think they write great songs."

Eight of Second Self's songs will be released next week on a mini-LP. EMI will pick up distribution on that disc. Also, Fowlkes said the group will head into the studio to work on an album to be released by August. The next few months will be spent picking a producer. The band is working with a list of about "30-40

'We're looking for somebody who really understands our approach to music," Fowlkes said. "Somebody where we can just walk right in, set up and do it. Our stuff is pretty much where we want it to be."

Second Self joins Rebel Heels (Atlantic), Elvis Hitler (Restless/Enigma), Seduce (I.R.S.) and Rhythm Corps (Pasha-CBS) as Detroit groups that have been recently signed by national record companies. Of the four, Rhythm Corps appears to be enjoying the most of success. Their album, "Common Ground," is selling well and receiving considerable air-play on commercial radio.

Fowlkes believes that type of notoriety is within Second Self's grasp.

"We will make it," Fowlkes said.
"I think we have all of the elements.

It's just a matter of heart of the self. It's just a matter of keeping the focus. So far, we've been able to do

OFRA HAZA — Ofra Haza

Information on Ofra Haza is not an easy to come by. With Middle Eastern vocal style and the fact that some of these tracks were recorded in Tel-Aviv, I assume that she's from

The only other reason that she has gained any attention, as far as I know, is that's the voice that was sampled by M/A/R/S on their dance-floor mega hit, "Pump Up the

With this in mind, what can we expect? Well, we are introduced musically with the first track, "I'm Nin'Alu." And, as suspected, her singing is an Indian (not native American) style of wailing, similar to that used on "Pump Up the Volume. Musically, it is electronics all the way. Obviously aimed at the dance floor crowds, it smacks of being a watered down "Pump Up Again the second track, "Eshal," is similar. But then it seems like she has a change of heart and only uses this style sparingly throughout the rest of the LP, opting instead to sing — for want of a better word — nor-

Unfortunately, the material is too weak for Ofra to get way with this. The music is anemic electro-dance oriented and the lyrics are more than bland. Check the obviousness of this from "Face to Face:" "When we're face to face, look in my eyes/ When we're face to face, tell me no lies." Illuminating, eh?!

She comes across sounding like a lame Madonna or a weak Debbie Gibson. Now there's a thought to frighten mere mortals. .

Empathy defuses fights

My boyfriend and I fight about lit-tle things like keeping the bathroom clean. I know it seems trivial and silly, but it really interferes with our

Dear Annette,

I'll bet it does. Life is made up of small things, so never trivialize any feelings you, your boyfriend or anyone close to you has.

In studies done by various psychologists studying our senses, an interesting discovery has been made. Most people favor one of their senses more than the others.

So someone with a very highly developed visual sense may be uncomfortable in a room that looks sloppy and may not be bothered living in a home very close to a busy street. The spouse may wonder what the fuss is all about with a few things lying around and can't stand the noise of

I've even seen recommendations from some psychologists that say people with different dominant senses shouldn't get married. I don't

The question is one of empathy. If, instead of feeling criticized, you could trust and empathize with his discomfort at your sloppiness, then having the same sense of it is not so important.

Stop fighting and start hearing, if you want this or any other relationship to be a good one.

Dear Barbara,

Is it possible that cold weather and snow can affect how I feel? During the warmer months, I have lots of energy, a good temperament, and rarely get sick. During the winter months, I have very little energy or desire to do anything. I tend to eat more and usually come down with several cases of the flu or colds. Do you have any suggestions of what I might be able to do to brighten my winter blahs.

Southfield

Dear D.B.,

For many people, these winter months bring a special risk of depression. However, it is not the cold weather and the snow that are affecting the way you feel. It is the decreased amount of sunlight that acts as a trigger for your symptoms, low energy and overeating. It sounds like you're suffering from Seasonal Affective Disorder (SAD).

We have always known about winter blues, but this specific syndrome was not identified until 1981. A researcher at the National Institute for Mental Health in Washington, D.C., has stated that "SAD may be an evolutionary mechanism which at one time was very adaptive." Like bears, people would "slow down in the winter to save calories, gaining weight to store energy, moving inside to conserve heat."

Some people have retained this mechanism except that hibernation is no longer considered normal. As with all depressions, women are more likely to suffer SAD's ill ef-

So what can you do? Psychiatrists are using light treatment with some success to combat SAD. When those affected sit in front of bright artificial lights for several hours a day, they find the body responds as if it were summer and the depression

While scientists don't know how light counteracts SAD, they do know it works through the eyes rather than through the skin. There is little agreement on the kind of light to use, the time of day to apply it (some research says morning is better), or how long a person should be exposed.

IF YOU are overwhelmed by your winter doldrums, you may have to seek professional help. If not, you might try using artificial light on your own. Reflecting it off a screen above your head (because that also mimics sunlight) may be the best method.

Other therapies might include going outside at least once a day, even for a brief walk, and being alert to the tendency to exercise less and as you say, eat more. Also make sure that your working light is adequate to prevent eye strain and general fatigue.

There are probably 10 times as many cases of SAD in the northern parts of the United States as in the southern parts. So, if it were practical for you, an extreme solution would be to move south.

I haven't said anything about your increased sickness during the winter months. There is no mention of this problem being part of the SAD syn-drome. However, most people are more susceptible to sickness in winter and so this may be a normal variation for you as well. Also, your immune system may be affected by your depression, therefore making you more susceptible.

I hope this answer helps you overcome those wintertime blues. If you try these suggestions, please let me know if anything works. I'd love to hear from other readers on this subject. Do you suffer from SAD and have you found a solution?

sive, so you don't need a car for most things. If you drive, remember that Ontario enforces its mandatory seat

WHERE TO stay: Go before April 29 and take advantage of Toronto for the Arts, which, for the third year, offers about 175 packages that combine five-star hotels with tickets to theaters and museums. Call toll-free (800) 387-0844 for information and book as soon as you can.

Rates start at $151 per person double occupancy in Canadian dollars and are determined by which of the five hotels you choose. The package includes two nights lodging, two nights stage entertainment (some are dinner theaters and include dinner) and tickets to three art museums - Royal Ontario Museum, Art Gallery of Ontario (both downtown) and the McMichael Canadian Collection (in Kleinberg north of the city.)

IF YOU go before Feb. 28, another sure gives you 50 percent off published rates at 40 top hotels Thursday through Saturday night, at prices starting at $29 Canadian per person. You'll also get a discount coupon book for dining and theater. Pay with an American Express card and the hotel will upgrade you, if possible. Call toll-free (800) 268-

If none of that works out for you, explore weekend packages. City hotels are designed for weekday business travelers and they use these packages to lure weekend vacationers to otherwise empty rooms, especially off-season. Ask Tourism Canada for a hotel list or telephone Accommodation Toronto, a service of the Hotel Association of Toronto, at (416) 596 7117.

Send $3 to Toronto Bed and Breakfast, P.O. Box 74, Station M, Toronto, Ontario, M6S 4T2, and they'll send you a list of homes where couples pay under $50 for room and break-fast. For really cheap digs, try the Toronto International Hostel on Church Street.

Five Star Tickets, outside the Eaton Center at Yonge and Dundas, will sell you, cash-only, half-price tickets to most theater entertainment on the day of performance—between noon and 7:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday; 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sundays. Like the TKTS booths in New York City, they add a very small service charge.

Carry a map and plan to use subway, bus or your feet to visit the area around Bloor and University avenues, which give you access to the parliament buildings in Queens Park, the fantastic Royal Ontario Museum and the restored shops and restaurants of Yorkville.

You will also enjoy Chinatown, the nearby Art Gallery of Ontario (don't miss the Henry Moore room) as well as Kensington Market and the CN where you can shop, eat, enjoy water sports, visit craft shops, clap your hands to the ongoing musical and other events, or just smile at the kids carrying balloons around this people-place.

Harborfront is Toronto's way of converting old waterfront buildings to public use. You might even find an outdoor antiques market on Queen's Quay. If the weather is good, take a Center.

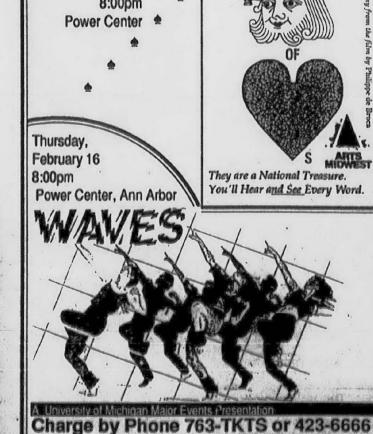

Plan a sunny day at Harborfront, ferry to the offshore islands for picnics, festivals and other warm-weather entertainment.

> Shoppers love Harborfront - also the boutiques, restaurants and goings-on in Eaton Center, a huge glass gallery of a mall near Toronto's famous shell-shaped city hall. One of Toronto's big underground malls is across the street at Sheraton

Wuhl 'fine tunes' his humor on club circuit and for movies

By Larry O'Connor staff.writer

Whether it's the fast-talking pitching coach in "Bull Durham" or the zany disc jockey in "Good Morning, Vietnam," Robert Wuhl can take a pebble of a part and make it sparkle like a 10-carat diamond.

But that, as they say, is only in the Wuhl also takes regularly tours the club circuit with his stand-up routine. As a comic, bright lights and glamour can be glaring as the lamps of an interrogation room.

"They're very together and yet very separate," said Wuhl (pro-nounced "Wall"), who will appear Thursday through Saturday at Mark Ridley's Comedy Castle in Berkley. "It's (comedy) a totally different art

"It depends on how well you do it. Stand-up comedy can be very difficult to do. When you do it well, you know it immediately. If you don't

That apparently hasn't been the case with Wuhl, who constantly receives rave reviews wherever he performs. His quick wit and observational style of comedy usually turns over laughs like Tinker, Evers and Chance did double plays.

And Wuhl was able to translate

mond, the cinematic one in the film

WUHL PLAYED the amiable Larry Hockett, a pitching coach on the Durham Bulls who had spasms of chatter but never said anything. The part was relatively small, especially with Susan Sarandon, Kevin Costner and Tim Robbins dominating the Yet when the reviews on "Bull Durham" surfaced, Wuhl's name came up for his portrayal of Hockett. His character lent authenticity to the film while still providing the comedic punch that set "Bull Durham" apart from most baseball movies.

Luck, you say. Not quite. Wuhl worked hard on the supporting role, doing extensive research on the character.

"I spent a day with Marcel Lachemann, who is the California Angels pitching coach," said Wuhl, a New Jersey native and a New York Yankees fan. "I got to hang out with him. I wanted to know what he did from the morning right up to game

"It was very exciting. You'd have to love baseball to do that (be a pitching coach). Those guys don't make that much money."

His experience as a stand-up comedian came in handy. One scene on the mound called for him to improvise some lines. He did the same in "Good Morning, Vietnam," which starred Robin Williams.

Those scenes made it into the film. He improvised some har comedy scenes in "Flashdance," but it ended up on the cutting room floor.

"It was a shame," he said, "because had they used me, this picture may have been successful."

WUHL GOT his break in film, having the lead in a low-budget comedy "Hollywood Knights" soon after he arrived in Los Angeles in 1979. He also spent some time as a writer for the short-lived "Police Squad!" TV series starring Leslie Nielson.

But stand-up comedy is where Wuhl earned his reputation, performing at clubs and appearing on "The Tonight Show," "Late Night With David Letterman" and "The Mery Griffin Show."

Wuhl also saddled up with Keith Carradine in Madonna's "Material Girl" video. His recently completed filming in "Batman," the movie starring Jack Nicholson and Michael Keaton.

Discussing his success in film, Wuhl talks about being a craftsman. Still, he remains quite humble about it all.

"I was lucky," he said. "It's easy to look good when you're surrounded by good people."

Preserving the 'prize' for posterity

By Carolyn DeMarco staff writer

God, said Jim Ervin, was the

"Once he threw Adam and Eve out of the Garden of Eden he gave them skins to cover themselves. They had to be tanned otherwise they'd have been stiff. Obviously, he tanned them."

Ervin, 53, is also a taxidermist, though for not quite as long, only 35 years. He's the remaining Ervin of Ervin Bros. Taxidermy in Auburn Hills. The other Ervin gave up years ago, leaving the athome business to Jim.

CROWDED INTO the small office in the front of his workshop/home on the Pontiac border are two dozen specimens of wildlife on the wall and shelves and atop filing cabinets, and two thick photograph albums showing his work. Everything from African lions to zebras has been mounted by Ervin.

'A taxidermist has to be a little bit of a zoologist, an ichthyologist, a naturalist, hunter and fisherman and gatherer from nature. And he's got to be an artist,"

Fish and deer are the two most requested mounts. His clients are sportsmen from every walk of life, many of them wanting to preserve their first kill or prizesized fish, or a more unusual specimen - antelope, elk, mule

"It's like ladies going to England to collect tea cups," he said. Today's customer might just as well be a woman, he said.

"I've got a woman's 21-inch bass in there that's got to be one of the tops in Michigan."

ERVIN LEARNED his trade through a correspondence course. His first mount was a sparrow he completed at the age of 12.

A hunter, fisherman, trapper, he keeps specimens on display to show his customers what he can

"You have to have something to show before you tell them you're going to charge them a couple hundred dollars," he said. "You take their antelope and mess it up, and they're going to come unglued. You can't go to K mart and get another one."

Ervin charges $225 for a deer mount that will take him three days to complete - once it's out of the freezer and on the workbench. A deer dropped off today may not be ready for pickup for several months because of the

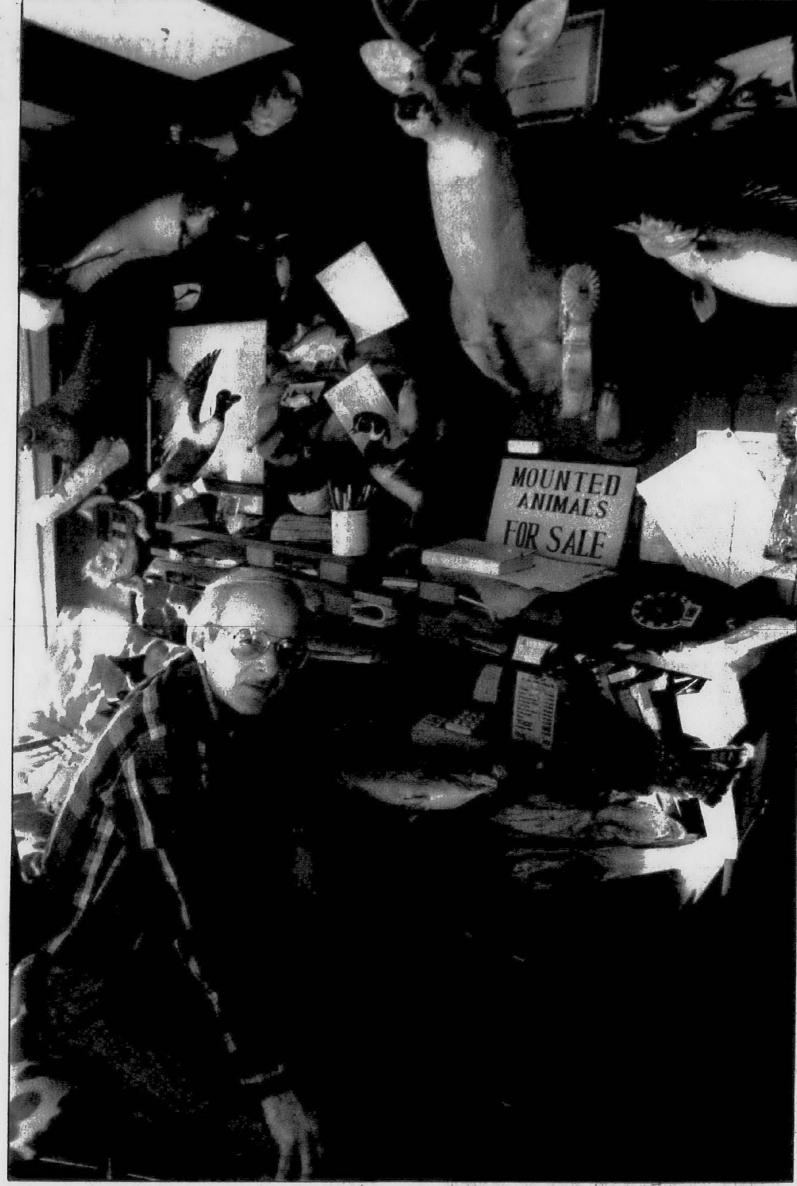

WHAT COMES to Ervin is the gutted deer that has already seen the deer processor. The skull, hide and hooves remain. Ervin slips the "cape" over the deer head, "pulling it over the head like a sweater," he said.

The cape - the upper section of the deer and head - go into the deep freeze. The antiers are hung. The skull and remainder of the skin are discarded.

Ervin's taxidermy skill is in locating the right size plastic skull and glass eyes and attaching the hide he has tanned, positioning and molding the ears.

"It's the gluing, the tucking of lips, the care of the hide. If your procedure's off you'll lose the whole cape," Ervin said.

Fish take a little more artistry. For $5.50 per inch Ervin will turn a walleye, large mouth bass or

ERVIN INSERTS a plastic fish form into the embalmed fish skin and coats the exterior with "the uivalent of 50 coats of varnish." Painting the fish is the most challenging chore, Ervin said. "All fish lose their color."

Ervin's most unusual request was to mount a vole, a small rodent one-third the size of a field

"That's the law. You can get a permit from the DNR to put it (a mounted bird) on public display (in a park nature center) and bring it to me, but they'll check on both ends. They'll check when it leaves here and when it reaches the park."

It is legal to bring pheasants, partridge, ducks, crows, woodcocks and geese to be mounted, but only if they're killed by a licensed hunter.

TAXIDERMISTS NEVER get rich, Ervin said. The time put into the task to complete a work of art is too great, but he works at it only four hours a day, six days per week, he said.

Crafters 'mount' a revival

Taxidermists were scarce when Jim Ervin started in the business 35 years ago. Today the craft is far from a dying art.

There are 12 in the area where there used to be three," he said. Some of the others:

Leach, Rochester Hills, telephone 852-0200. Lyle Johnson has been in the business for 21 years. He's best known for his fish work. He and two full-time employees are currently working on deer from the Michigan bow and arrow season. A mounted deer head is $210. Hours are 10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, 10 a.m.

to 4:30 p.m. Saturday.
• Sportsman's Village, 45658 Ford, Canton Township, tele-phone 455-6666. Ken Kruzel is the owner of the sporting goods store. Joe Segler, a taxidermist with 13 years experience, specializes in birds and fish. Expect to wait six months for a deer head to be returned. Cost is $265. Hours are 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Friday, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday, 8 to 5 p.m. Sunday.

from others," said. "Some of the guys don't like it, and we also get flak from women . . . you know, the kind of women you see wearing their miniskirts at Red Wing games."

Because leagues have been folding, and because players often switch allegiance between seasons, a strong word-of-mouth network is necessary to keep teams alive.

ONE-TIME hometown teams have expanded their rosters to include players from all over. Although her teammates wear the same green-and-gold Garden City uniform, England is the only Gar-den City resident left on the squad.

"I've had people recruit me," said Deanna Rochette of Livonia. Rochette, a tall, dark-haired woman, is one of the team's newest and youngest players, the kind of player necessary to keep the sport

A budding figure skater, "until I grew too tall for it," Rochette recalled envying women hockey players when she was younger.

"I used to see the girls coming in with their hockey sticks and uni-forms and I always kind of admired them," she said. "They were doing something I wanted to be doing."

Still, not every potential skater is matched with a team.

"It's been really hard to find a team," said Pat Florence, another newcomer. "It took me three months until I found this one."

Florence, blond hair tucked neatly under her helmet, is somewhat of a hockey gypsy, strapping on pads and skates whenever, wherever, she can find a game. On game days, she'll drive to work in Troy, then to the Garden City arena and then back home to Mount Clemens before calling it a night.

Like her teammates, Florence began as a youngster, getting her first taste of the sport on frozen Lake St. Clair canals. Unlike most of them, her primary playing experience has come against men.

"ACTUALLY, women's hockey is a new experience for me," she said. "I've played against men since I was a little girl. At work, the guys are always asking me, 'Pat, when are we going to get a game up.'"

Men, she noted, are much more

But veteran players recall heated vendettas of an earlier time, with some particularly aggressive players becoming marked women on the ice.

That's not the case tonight, however. Few players hit the boards, although more than one is upended and tumbles to the ice while pursuing the ever-elusive puck.

A breakaway goal gives Livonia the lead less than 30 seconds into the 10-minute first period. Five minutes later, another Livonia shot trickles in. It's going to be a long night for the home team.

"GO GREEN," a player's father calls out. "Go green."
"My father took me to a father/daughter game after I bugged him about playing hockey," England re-called. "I think he thought I'd get one taste of it and then come right off the ice. But I didn't, I liked it right from the start."

Women's hockey, like amateur hockey in general, is a family sport. Moms proudly wear over-sized lapel buttons bearing pictures of their family's players. Dads shout encouragement from the sidelines. And brothers sometimes help out during practices. England's own brother, an assist-ant coach, is headed for Lake Superior State University, a national power among hockey-playing col-

Those kind of hockey dreams are remote for most of the players on the ice this night. But one former player, the daughter of co-coach Ralph Gack, earned a scholarship to an eastern college for her abili-

For most players, the camara-derie is enough. Women's hockey has been a satisfying experience, LeHoup said. His players have made friends, not only locally, but also in Canada and among the highly-trained Scandanavians. Rochette, for instance, wears a colorful Scandanavian jersey to prac-

Midway through the fi-nal period, the visitors tally another goal and it's time to rev up the Zamboni machine. Young men, skates and duffle bags over their shoulders, quietly file in for the evening's next game.

First, the cleaner must be matched to the soil: Some waxes can only be removed with ammoniated strippers, for instance. Heavy grease and tar can be melted off as easily as sugar in water with the canned hand cleaners used by mechanics. (DL and Goop are two brands readily available at hardware, drug or grocery stores). The lanolin in these magical potions are not only easy on your hands but work just as well on clothes, carpet or almost anything else. GooGone is wonderful for removing adhesive residues. Advice on specific soil problems can be received from hardware stores, janitorial supplies or the Cooperative Extension ser-

Read and follow directions accurately when mixing concentrated cleaners: Just as tripling the salt in a cake recipe is not recommended, neither is mixing two parts water to one part solution when the formula calls for 10-to-1. More is not necessarily

Allow adequate time for cleansers to do their job: Whether washing windows or barbecue grills, the job can be easy if you give the proper solution time to emulsify the

A common misconception is that if you have washed something, it is clean. Not necessarily so. Some people tend to repeatedly have skin breakouts in oily places around their nose, for instance. Although they faithfully wash their face, they may not have applied the soap carefully enough into the crevices nor given it time to do its job. (Skin eruptions can also be caused by other factors, of course).

Q. Our management company has promised us that it will put liens on condominium units in the event of a delinquency. They say that this is over and above their management fee.

A. There have been decisions rendered by the various courts in the United States indicating that the placement of a lien is a legal-type activity which should be done by an attorney.

Management companies that represent that they will place liens on units may be practicing law without a license. But, more importantly, even if they are not engaging in clearly legal activities which are beyond the scope of their involvement in the management of condominiums, and most management companies do not get involved in placing liens on condominiums, since they believe that their activities should be concentrated in the areas of management

Q. The builder formed our homeowners association and later passed it onto the people that live in the subdivision. I want to know what my rights are because I was not informed prior to the closing on my home that I had become a mandatory member in the Association and a fee would have to be paid each year. I just want to know why I was not informed of this before closing on the home.

A. Of courses it is difficult to answer your question with absolute certainty since I am not aware of the subdivision documents under which you were obligated to become a member of the homeowners association and otherwise pay assessments. Chances are, however, that these restrictions were recorded as a matter of public record and showed up on the title commitment which you or your attorney should have received prior to closing.

If so, technically, you were on constructive notice of anything recorded as a matter record, including your obligation to become a member of the association and your concominant obligation to pay assessments. The build-er was not necessarily under an obligation to disclose to you that fact, although good practice would require same.

Neutral doesn't

not, the outdoor slush and dirty snow taint our outlook and our kitchen floor. So we snuggle down, reach for the latest travel brochures, and search for an escape to a warm, inviting environment.

But wait. Wouldn't it be great to have that wonderful warmth and airy atmosphere without battling Metro airport traffic? How about a home that reflects an attitude of year-round summer?

Pat Newman, interior designer at Brent Furniture of Bloomfield Hills, has created just that ambience in a model contemporary ranch home in Rochester Hills. Located in the Wildflower subdivision on Auburn Road east of Rochester Road, this 1,600square-foot home is ideal for the young professional or empty nester. The three-bedroom, two-bath home features an outstanding floor plan with flexibility.

"PEOPLE EXPECT SPACE to function for them. That's what the market demands," said Newman. With that in mind, she has chosen a southwest theme throughout the

This so-called desert look can take many facets.

'Desert can be sophisticated or rustic - it's eclectic," Newman said. Although desert color schemes range from soft pastels to brights to deep muted tones, Newman's use of muted aqua carpeting highlighted with beige and cream bring the southwest to Michigan.

- Green, as in seafoam, spruce and others with a bluish cast, is making a comeback. Forget avocado. It is the interplay of soft green against neutrals that provides the ideal background for the simple overscale fur-windows surroundings the fireplace. At once the mood is light and airy and soft and comfy - in all, a delightful mix. Stationary French doors form the outer wall of the dining room, bathing it in light. Again, pickled wood is used in the table featuring bread-boarded ends and wrought iron braces. Many of the wood pices are authentic reproductions and all are from the medium-priced "America" line by Lane. The windows show off soft-fold Roman shades Perhaps the most delightful room is the den/third bedroom. Angled

French doors open to a cozy space that invites you to sit and bask. Light from the palladian window filters through wide-slatted blinds. A country flavor is added with the use of a large basket and generous writing desk set in an alcove. This intriguing room could easily handle an overflow of guests from the great room.

The kitchen's grey-green counters provide accent to the oak cabinets. The openness of the dining rea is emphasized by the wallpaper purposely hung horizontally, or "railroaded." The chairs from Lane's Coronado collection are metal with an adobe colored textured finish. A console table in light pine could double as a serving buffet.

THE MASTER BEDROOM is softness served with clean lines and gentle color. This private retreat is swathed in light from plantation shuttered windows and adobe-finished crockery lamps.
