Newspaper collection days

Save newspapers for pickup

Plymouth Township is continuing its recycling effort with a newspaper recycling program.

Beginning this month, township solid waste disposal customers can have their newspapers collected once a month at no extra cost. Discarded newspapers will be delivered to a recycling facility in order to make newsprint.

Newspaper pickup will occur every Friday in one particular area of the township. If your household waste is collected on Monday, your newspaper pickup will be the first Friday of every month. If household waste is collected Tuespener pickup will be very month.

If household waste is collected Wednesday, your newspaper pick-up will be the third Friday of every month. If your household waste is paper pick up will be the fourth Friday of every month.

If a holiday should fall during the week of your newspaper collection week, your newspaper pickup will be on Saturday rather than Friday.

Jan Hoffman, Plymouth Township solid waste coordinator, offers these tips:

• Each month, collect and save newspapers.

• Tie the papers in bundles weighing no more than 65 pounds.

On your designated Friday, place tied newspapers on your curb for free service.

• Magazines are not yet recyclable. Do not include magazines in your newspaper bundles.

Mayflower sues oil company over leak

Dissatisfied with Amoco Oil Co.'s progress in addressing an underground oil spill in downtown Plymouth, Ralph Lorenz of the Mayflower Meeting House has sued Amoco Oil Co. in U.S. District Court.

The nine-count complaint charges Amoco with violations ranging from trespassing to fraud under the Michigan Environmental Protection Act, said Michael Southerland, Lorenz'

Fuel oil and gasoline leaked from underground tanks at the Amoco service station at Ann Arbor Trail and Main Street for an unknown number of years. Contaminants have seeped underneath the Mayflower Meeting House, the Box Bar and Grill, Main Street and Kellogg Park, studies by Amoco consultant Neyer, Tiseo & Hindo, Ltd. show.

The area has been on a Michigan Department of Natural Resources list of contaminated sites since 1979. Air samples taken from an office in the Mayflower Meeting House and soil taken from borings in the Meeting House basement showed concentrations of benzene, which is a carcinogen; toluene; ethylbenzene; and xylene, all hydrocarbon contaminants. The Observer office is in the Meeting House.

Southerland said the decision to sue was made only after Amoco claimed that under the statute of limitations, it is responsible for damages dating back just three years.

Under the state leaking underground storage tank act, Amoco potentially could be fined $10,000 per day from the date of the initial discharge, according to David Rymph, DNR environmental quality mana-

Repeated calls to Walt Brown and Chuck Mason of Amoco's public affairs office in Chicago were not re-

Lorenz is claiming damages in excess of $50,000 in the case assigned to U.S. District Judge Patrick Duggan. Southerland said he plans to move for summary judgment, Lorenz said he'd hoped that by now, Amoco would have submitted an acceptable cleanup plan, as it was ordered to by the DNR.

Several months ago, Amoco did submit a cleanup proposal, unacceptable to Lorenz because it addressed just 75 percent of the con-

Notable scientist returns to visit high school pals

While Mary Jane West served as student council president her senior year at Plymouth High School, her classmates may have guessed she was headed for big things.

Fewer than 2,000 scientists belong to the academy, membership which is considered second in prestige only to the Nobel Prize. Just one other biologist from Michigan has received the honor, bestowed in recognition of distinguished achievements in original research.

West-Eberhard, an entomologist, was in town over the weekend for Saturday's reunion of the Plymouth High School class of 1959.

It's a bit of a surprise to the former Plymouth High School musiball and basketball player to see how Plymouth has changed.

"I remember Plymouth as more of a small town. Everyone knew everyone, and you knew everyone in the high school," said West-Eberhard, who with her husband, fellow biologist William Eberhard, has three children.

"It's quite a shock to come back. I went downtown to buy a pair of blue jeans. I wouldn't expect anyone to know me, because I've been gone. But no one knew who the Wests

Resident works full-time protesting abortion

By Peggy Aulino staff writer

While most presidents of organizations might start their work day with a 9 a.m. business meeting, Daniel Peper grabs a sandwich board and heads for an abortion clinic.

Peper, who is president of the re-cently formed Plymouth-Canton Right To Life group, describes himself as a full-time activist. On a given day he might be found, as he was last week, walking up and down a sidewalk in front of the Womancare clinic on Five Mile Road in Livonia with a small group of protesters.

"I try to go often. Some weeks I go four times, other weeks I go once, said Peper, 33, who has lived in Plymouth for the last 16 years.

The idea, he said, is to call attention to the fact that abortions are being performed in the community. But Peper has no way of knowing how effective his efforts are.

"The only sign that someone's actually thought about it is if they wave to you. Those people who wave and shout discouraging things, those people we can reach. Those people are thinking," he said.

AND PEPER believes the majority of people in this country are against legalized abortion.

not coming forward," he said.

The time to come forward, whether one is pro-life or pro-choice, is on Election Day. Both sides in the politically charged issue are fighting for legislation to protect what they see as the only acceptable moral position. And both sides have vowed to support candidates who will support

"We think it's great that candidates are going to have to come out and state their stance on abortion. That's what we have tried to do for 16 years," said Peper. The Supreme Court's landmark Roe vs. Wade decision, which made abortion legal in the United States, was passed down 16 years ago. So the local Right to Life group which is an affiliate of the national organization, intends to grill local candidates on their views on abor-

"Obviously, what affects us more will be state legislation," said Peper. But he believes the question will be pertinent to those seeking office in local elections as well.

local elections as well.

"The fact that there isn't a facility now (in Plymouth or Canton) does not mean that the abortion industry isn't interested in the Plymouth Canton area," he said. So Right to Life will be interested in how local diffee seekers would vote as a proposal to build an abortion clinic.

PEPER ATTENDS mass each morning at Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic church in Plymouth. He said his religious background shaped his beliefs on the abortion issue, but Right to Life isn't a Catholic organi-the pro-life movement was sparked about four years ago when a friend had an abortion.

Little planes offer big thrills to pilots

By Diano Go staff writer

ny afternoon, you might swear you were looking at a full-size aircraft careening through the sky.

The bright yellow quarter-scale Piper J-3 Cub loops and sails about 300 feet off the ground, and Canton resident Bert Bryan stands on the ground at the remote controls.

The Flying Pilgrims Model Airplane Club member knows what it's like at the controls inside a plane, too.

In comparison, Bryan said, you don't get the thrill of going up and down standing at the remote, but then you don't get sick, either.

"You can try to do things that you would never try to do in a real one." he said

Take the wheels off, put skis on and flying model airplanes becomes a wintertime hobby, too, Bryan said.

"For some people it's a good form of relaxation," he added. Mac McAtee watches the plane with the curiosity and excitement of a newcomer. Yet, he said, he has been building model airplanes "since God created the earth" - when the 73-yearold Westland resident was 12.

QUITTERS SHOULD stay away from the sport, McAtee advises, because it is common to crash planes.

"It teaches you you can't be a quitter on life or those airplanes. said McAtee, who was retired from Ford Motor Co. and recently was called back to the styling division.

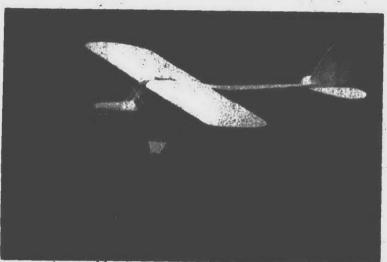

Richard Vukmirobich, a 60-yearold retired pilot from Detroit, loves flying model planes more than the real thing. And even though the planes cost between $300 and $2,000, he makes a joke with McAtee about crashing one a couple of weeks ago.

Vukmirobich, who has been flying for 40 years, channeled his anger into building another model plane in a week.

As his one-third size Sky Boat looped and spinned and dropped in the sky, Vukmirobich laughed and said: "If I was inside that airplane I'd probably be scared."

ALL THREE men are members of the Flying Pilgrims Airplane Club, which is sponsoring the International Miniature Aircraft Association Chapter 31 "Fall Fly for Fun Phase Out," Sept. 23 and 24 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Van Born and Lillev roads.

"THERE'S A PRACTICAL side of working on insects," she said.

One of the interesting things she's discovered deals with "the importance of society. All societies, even insects' social organization, is the sum of individual ambitions and striving. ### Levin: U.S. should avoid any ransom for hostages

A military strike against the ter-rorists who killed Marine Lt. Col. William Higgins is appropriate, Sen. Carl Levin said, if those responsible can be clearly identified.

"If in the prompt time frame there was a clearly identified target of people responsible (for Higgins' death), I think the American people would have supported a strike of some kind against that target - and would have (too)," said Levin, D-

A military strike would be inappropriate, Levin said, if the U.S. failed to clearly identify those responsible, or if idenfitication only came after a lengthy investigation.

The standard set by the 1986 bombing raid on Libya should serve as a rough guide for future anti-terrorist action, Levin said.

"WE DID a terrific job on Khadafy," Levin said. "Number one, we knew his role. I read his words in the bombing of the cafe in Berlin. We knew exactly what the role of the Libyan government was, we knew where to hit and we hit it hard."

In negotiating for remaining hos-tages, Levin said, the U.S. should avoid paying ransom.

Levin said he doubted whether U.S. officials were aware of where the hostages were being held at this time, but declined to answer questions on whether government officials ever knew their whereabouts. His comments came during a

The free-wheeling discussion covered a wide-ranging number of sub-jects, including the nation's drug war, the federal budget deficit, the nomination of William Lucas as the nation's civil rights chief and Leyin's positions on military issues.

LEVIN, WHO faces re-election next year, said the visit wasn't an early campaign stop.

"This is just something I do from time-to-time," he said.

• Regarding the drug war — Levin blamed both the president and Congress for not doing enough to combat drugs.

He (President George Bush) has not even told us where we would fund the existing law," Levin said. There is a billion and a half dollard gap, he said, between the $2.7 billion authorized for the federal war on drugs and the $1.2 billion actually being spent. "Congress is to blame, Levin said. "We can vote the money at any time."

• On the deficit - Levin said an crease isn't necessary. What is necessary, he said, are "cuts in spending and some targeted revenue". Raising the federal cigarette tax and increasing taxes for the wealthiest Americans are steps recommended by Levin.

"If you're making $1 million a year you're paying 28 percent (in federal income tax), if you make $60,000 a year you're paying 33 per-

Regarding Lucas — Levin said he agreed with the Senate Judiciary Committee's rejection of the former Wayne County Executive.

"I feel they reached a reasonable conclusion," Levin said. "I thought his answers to some of the questions reinforced his lack of experience in the (civil rights) area."

• On conventional military mat-ters — Levin called for removal of select U.S. troops from Europe and South Korea, but said troop reduc-tions must be performed, "very selectively"

"You can't do a lot of unilateral reductions when you're right on the verge of conventional arms talks," Levin said. "You don't want to undermine your own negotiating posi-

An estimated 15-20,000 troops assigned to protect now-dismantled Europen missiles, as well as those for a planned U.S. air base in Italy, aren't necessary and should be recalled, Levin said. Some Army troops assigned to South Korea should also be recalled, unilaterally across-the-board income tax in if need be, he added. "(But) I wouldn't recall airborne or intelligence personnel."

• Regarding nuclear matters -Levimsaid he favored the Democratic-backed Midgetman missile to the Republican-based MX, but that increasing the nation's nuclear capacity should be a lower priority than other matters.

Levin also said he opposes the Strategic Defense Initiative.

"To me Star Wars makes no sense," he said. "It would cost you far more to deploy that system than it would cost the Soviets to defeat it. All they would have to do is double the number of their warheads.'

Levin is a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee and chairman of its subcommittee on conventional forces

County's parks look for private, public aid

Wayne County residents are increasingly "buying into" the county parks system. Now, county parks of-ficials would like to see county goverument and businesses do the same.

"Buying in" is county park system shorthand for revenue raising, with the nation's golf boom just a start.

More people are playing golf at Warren Valley Golf Course, according to just-released county figures. The Dearborn Heights course, a chief revenue producer for the county parks system, took in slightly more than Al million in revenue to more than $1 million in revenue in 1988. The figure was approximately $200,000 more than that raised in 1980 and 1981 combined.

Another revenue raiser, Elizabeth Park Marina in Trenton, took in $108,927 in 1988 - a 62-percent increase in five years.

DESPITE THAT, and despite the fact that a second county golf course is scheduled to open this month, parks officials said the county system is far too small and understaffed to meet the needs of heavilypopulated Wayne County.

I can tell you Belle Isle (in the city of Detroit) has more staff and a greater budget than we do," county parks director Hurley Coleman said.

After celebrating its 70th anniversary, Wayne County Parks is looking toward the future.

Under National Parks Service guidelines, officials said, the county needs to add 2,300 more acres of parkland to meet the needs of its res-

"It would be a travesty if we did not come away with any of that money," parks design manager Nan-cy Watkins said.

GETTING CORPORATE sponsors to "buy into" the park is the second part of the system's revenue raising

Parks officials are stepping up efforts to lease parkland for corporate picnics and other events.

"What we're also looking at doing is have corporate sponsors offset the cost of some renovations," Coleman said. "So you'd see a sign: This is brought to you by so-and-so."

A county park tax isn't being con-sidered, Coleman said.

Pick a rib that suits you best

With the summertime barbecue season in full swing, now is the time to enjoy barbecue ribs on the backyard grill.

Spareribs can be a source of confusion for the backyard barbecuer. Regular spareribs are from the from of the rib cage and r by the sternum the time they are at and eat: A trip to the local meat market will find an assortment of ribs, ranging from babybacks, barbecue-style ribs and country ribs. What's the difference you

Country ribs but are n of the in half and the strips Barbed expensive and popular the lot, are regular spareribs with the sternum sections of bone re-

All, the above-mentioned ribs are delicious, especially when finished with a lip-tangy sauce on the gall or barbecue. The lighter-weight ribs cut from smaller hogs have a tendency to be a bit more flavorful and lender than the larger ribs.

FOR AVERAGE low at least for with heartier appeared being allowed almost a full slab. Generally speaking, two full racks of ribs should be enough for five to when there starches to pass along with the Many people parboil ribs to pre-cook them. This procedure makes them more tender and watering but, unfortunately, has a tendency to boil away a great deal of flavor. Yours truly personally thinks that a simple pre-roastes in a moderate (350-degree) or in for about 45 minutes is all that a meeded to help leech out the havor from the bones, cook off a majority of fat and still have the ribs maintain a juiciness and great taste we all enjoy.

After the pre-baking, a healthy slathering of sauce and an additional of principle or so on a slow grill of purposed is all that is needed for a great entree.

I have neard of many folks who prefer to skin their ribs prior to cooking. Removal of the tough layer of skin that can builty be found on the sisside of the ribbone that can built as is as lasy procedure to the second by an arrival and the second by an arrival a skin, you knife hat so often will " where the entire secti eat adheres to this skin oking practice widely used when preparing ribs is the pre-soaking in a vinegar-water bath. Advocates of this procedure say that pre-soaking with vinegar helps break down the skin and tenderize the meat. Accepted ratios of vinegar-to-water should be about one cup of vinegar to each quart of water, but the choice to pre-soak is entirely optional.

BECAUSE RIBS have a tendency to be fatty and can cause flare-ups easily on the grill, make sure you use only white-ash, wellheated coals. I keep a clean spray bottle filled with water, bouillon or cheap wine within arm's reach to immediately snuff out any flare-ups, which not only singe the ribs but impart a burnt taste when left uncontrolled. Cooking ribs on the barbecue can be an exciting and tasty experience. Try some today for a mouth-watering entree.

Fresh, flavorful, low-cal

By Geri Rinschler special writer

HE ITALIANS call it granisome of us just call it flavored ice. No matter what you call it, these frozen delights never go out of style and, lucky for us, these low-calorie desserts are trendy again.

Most food historians tell us the Chinese are responsible for first having flavored ice. It is believed the first Italian ice was made at the court of the Roman Emperor, Nero. He demanded that snow be brought down from the mountain and then flavored it with fruit juice and honey. By the 16th century, ices and sherbets (which is a fruit ice with milk added) were popular in Italy and Spain.

Authors of the Better Homes and Gardens 'Heritage Cookbook" (Meredith Corp., 1975) tell us that American Indian women scooped up balls of snow and covered them with maple syrup long before the May-

But the one who gave international fame to ices or granitas and sorbets was a Sicilian nobleman, Procopio dei Coltelli. He went to Paris and sold ices and sherbets. His Cafe Procope was extolled for its excellent frozen desserts.

GRANITAS AND sorbets are the simplest of frozen desserts. They usually consist of frozen fruit juice or fruit puree, a sugar syrup and other flavorings such as vanilla, spices or liqueurs.

Some restaurants around town offer sorbets made with smoked tea, wine or champagne as a palate cleanser after the entree is served. The technique used to prepare these more aromatic ices is the same as those used to make a fruit sorbet or Almost any fruit or juice can be used to make a summer ice. Favorites are strawberry, raspberry, lemon, orange and grapefruit. When I was a young girl living in the New York metropolitan area, summer wasn't summer without a weekly visit to a local Italian pastry shop for a chocolate or lemon granita.

To make the best Italian ice or sorbet, it's not necessary to use ice cream maker. Actually, the Italian granita makers believe the best ices are made by hand, removing the ice from the freezer every hour and breaking up the crystals with a spoon, then returning the ice to the freezer and repeating this process three times before allowing the final freezing.

Whichever fruits you choose for your ice, make sure they are ripe. Making a simple sugar syrup is often the first step in the recipe. I prefer using a super fine sugar. It dissolves quickly and easily. If you can't find super fine sugar, traditional granulated cane sugar will be all right.

WHAT MAKES a sorbet or granita special? Most connoisseurs will tell you it must have a slightly grainy texture. Best way to achieve this is to first freeze the mixture without stirring. Then remove the ice when it becomes firm and break up the ice crystals. This can be accomplished in one of many ways - either by hand with a spoon or fork, using an electric mixer or by tossing it in a food processor or blender.

If you are making large amounts, it will be easier and quicker to use the food processor. Placing the ingredients into an ice cream will result in a very smooth ice, which is not typical of granita but very suitable for a sorbet. All the recipes accompanying this article may be used with any ice cream maker. Just follow the manufacturer's in-

Serving any fruit ice should be done simply. The French love to serve their sorbets in a hollowed-out fruit shell such as oranges, lemons, limes or grapefruits. For a larger serving bowl, hollowed-out pineapples and melons are fun.

To prepare lemons and oranges, cut off the top 1/3 of the fruit and scoop out the fruit. Chill until ready to fill with the fruit ice. After filling re-freeze before serving and then garnish with a sprig of mint. Small bunches of mint and groups of fresh berries make an attractive garnish when serving individual scoops on a

Lighten up with ice cream

By Ariene Funke special writer

Are you a guilt-ridden ice cream freak who agonizes over each mouthful of the rich, fatty treat?

Well, dry those tears. There is no reason to deny yourself. Low-fat "light" ice creams and sweet, no-cholesterol sorbets are as close as your supermarket freezer. "It was brought about by customer demand," said Ron Larkin,

51, a sales manager for Stroh's Ice Cream in Detroit. "That seems to be the wave of the future." This summer, Stroh's introduced several flavors of light, reduced-fat ice cream. The Farmington Hills-based Melody Farms

NEW LIGHT FLAVORS include the usual vanilla and neapolitan. But more voluptuous flavors are showing up too — peach almondine and chocolate raspberry. If you absolutely hate cholesterol, you might opt for a cherry sorbet from Savino Sorbet. The fruity, refreshing sorbet is totally fat-free.

Although there are slightly fewer calories in light ice creams, "the big difference is butterfat," said Stephen George, vice president of product development for the family-owned Melody Farms.

"The benefits will come from the lowered fat intake," said George, 40, a West Bloomfield resident. "There is a substantial difference in the fat, so cholesterol and fat would be lowered."

Regular ice cream contains hefty portions of cream, or half-and-half, along with sugar and flavorings or nuts. U.S. government standards stipulate that ice cream must contain at least 10 percent butterfat. Rich, premium ice creams, such as Haagen Dazs, may contain up to 18 percent butterfat.

There are no specific government definitions of light ice cream, according to George. However, industry standards place light ice cream in the "ice milk" category, at around six percent butterfat

"Light is nothing more than ice milk," George said.

ACCORDING TO books in local county extension services, one cup (eight ounces) of vanilla ice cream contains 290 calories and 16 grams of fat. It also contains 30 grams of carbohydrates and almost six grams of protein. Larkin said a four-ounce scoop of light ice cream contains from 100 to 130 calories, compared to 140 to 180 calories or more for regular ice cream. Stroh's offers eight flavors of light and Melody

Low-fat purists who turned up their noses at ice milk might be pleasantly suprised with the new light ice creams. Improvements have enhanced the flavor and texture, according to George. For example, non-fat dry milk is added to give the texture "chew," more closely resembling regular ice cream.

"Good quality ice cream has less air," George said. "They (ice milks) are formulated so there is less air, and it doesn't get so granulated. Nowadays people want exotic flavors, with less fat."

These foods are refreshing when it's hot

Ah, those lazy days of summer. when the temperatures climb in to the 90s, there is no breeze to be found, and the heat-just seems to have drained your last ounce of energy. These days are meant for relaxing - finding a shady spot, a lawn chair and a good book.

Yet for those of us who don't have the leisure time to relax and must be at work or on the go - we can learn to beat the summer heat.

Keeping your body cool helps to prevent mid-afternoon fatigue and a feeling of the blahs. On a warm summer day, you can retresh yourself quickly with a small sprayer/atomizer filled with mineral water. This is a good item to keep in your desk at work or your fridge at home. Just spray from enough distance from your face to get a fine mist. It will help replenish the lost moisture and

Also, remember the importance of drinking fluids. Since we perspire more in the heat, the body loses more than usual - up to eight cups of water in hot weather, two in moderate weather. Replenishing with extra liquids on such days is essential. At Weight Watchers, they recommend that you drink six-eight eightounce glasses of water a day. During extremely hot weather, it's especially important to drink fluids to maintain the proper water balance and prevent dehydration.

THE FOODS we choose to eat are essential in maintaining summer cool and comfort. For example, the nutrient potassium is depleted through perspiration and water loss. Bananas are an excellent source of potassium. To replenish this important nutrient and refresh yourself at the same time, try a "Super Shakeup." And when you are suffering from the afternoon slumps, a cup of sparkling soup is bound to pick you

You can stay cool this summer if you plan for it and include light, easy refreshers into your day.

Though soapwort can be found throughout southeastern Michigan native Americans wouldn't ve known about this flower in the 1700s. Soapwort is an alien. Not from outer space, but from Europe. Many of our wildflowers, often known as weeds, grow in areas where man has disturbed the natural soil and many were brought from Europe to serve a purpose. To get a rough idea of how many alien plants are found in eastern North America, I counted 53 alien plants out of 342. Though the sample is small, approximately 15 percent of the wildflowers we see today were brought from Eu-rope, intentionally or unintentionaltionally because of its long history of use. When the leaves are crushed in water and mixed, they produce a foamy lather. This soapy quality and its cleaning properties were known since the Middle Ages. It was brought from France and Germany to England by friars, who planted it near their monasteries and hospitals.

Textile mills used a soapwort so-printed. It was also used to brighten china and glass. According to one source, a solution made from soapwort leaves is used for this purpose even today.

There are several other qualities of this plant which made it beneficial to man. It has a pleasant fra-grance, which was used to cover up the stench of some of the English streets that had poor sanitation.

The two students were selected for an academic year abroad by Educational Foundation for Foreign Study, a non-profit student exchange program based in Cambridge, Mass. Local foundation International Exchange coordinator Bob Gurney has been working to find homes for Asplund and Berron.

"In addition to being a good representative of Sweden, Nikodemus is eager to learn about American customs and become fluent in English during his exchange year. He's an excellent sportsman and is especially interested in applying his skills to baseball and football next year. As a Stockholm native coming to spend a year in the Detroit area, he will also enjoy comparing daily life in both urban areas," Gurney said.

Seventeen-year-old exchange student Maria Berron said she is also going to take advantage of this opportunity and study and learn as much as possible while living with an area family.

"Maria enjoys swimming, dancing and outdoors activities. With her interest in English and history, she hopes to work in an international office after graduation," he said.

Compuware Coup

Canadian star to play in Michigan

staff writer

The lunch room inside the Compuware Headquarters in Farmington Hills was crowded with people Friday wanting to know more about Eric Lindros, the 16-year-old hockey sensation from Toronto.

Like, does he have a girlfriend? What does he do besides play hockey? When does he get his braces off? And, above all, what is he doing here, in suburban Detroit, playing for the Oak Park Compuware Junior A hockey team.

Shouldn't he be playing in Quebec somewhere, preparing himself for the rigors of the National Hockey

After all, Lindros was the No. 1 pick last spring in the Ontario Hockey League, and some hockey experts believe he can play in the NHL right

Andy Weidenbach, the Compuware coach, is still scratching his head. Lindros, considered the best 16-year-old hockey player in North America, is staying with the Vellucci family in Farmington and will athockey tend Farmington High in the fall. Mark Vellucci, 17, also is a member of the Compuware team.

TO BE HONEST, I never thought it would be a reality," said Weidenbach, after introducing his newest player to guests and reporters. "I didn't have my hopes up. But when he came over here with his parents and they saw the (Compuware Arena) rink, I said maybe they were serious. I don't know why or how but it's great for the program. It's a real challenge for me as a coach."

"Eric is real personable. He's more mature than the average 16year-old off the street. It's hard to tell, but he should dominate our league from Day One.'

For the record, Lindros says he's too busy to have a girlfriend (although he likes what he has seen in his six-week stay in the states), he likes to water ski and he's not sure when the braces come off. Actually, the braces look a bit out of place on the burly, 6-foot-4, 215-pound for-

The real reason he's here is to enhance his education. Lindros, who has attended summer school since the eighth grade, will graduate more than a year ahead of time from Farmington next January after completing a semester of school.

Lindros' stay with Compuware might be brief. By next January, midway through the North American Junior Hockey League season, Lindros hopes to be attending the University of Michigan and playing for Red Berenson, the Wolverines coach.

Lindros, who scored 25 goals and 43 assists in leading the St. Michaels Buzzers to the Ontario Junior B title last winter, is far ahead of his peers on the ice and off. He puts his status

"IT'S SORT OF like a marathon," said Lindros, who took two English courses this summer at Bloomfield Hills Andover, acing them both. "You see yourself in first place a few seconds ahead of everyone else, but you're still behind record pace You've got to keep pushing yourself to the limit to be the best.

Without a degree, that makes life tough after hockey. If I break a leg Sunday and I'm out for life, what do Even before Sault Ste. Marie selected Lindros first in the OHL draft, he told team officials he was considering going to the U.S. to finish high school and pursue a college education. Sault Ste. Marie owner Phil Esposito, recently fired as general manager of the New York Rangers, apparently didn't take him seriously.

"He thought I was bluffing," Lindros said. "I hope they realize education is important to me now. I want to be with people my own age, and I have to get my schooling to make

Plymouth's Albertson to lead Churchill girls

staff writer

Don Albertson, the newly-appointed Livonia Churchill girls basketball coach, said he might hold a practice today - and he might not. It depends on how many girls

"If there's not enough kids there I'll say 'Go home and bring your friends with you tomorrow," said Albertson, 46. "I already have some drills in mind but if you've got only five girls you have to do something else."

There are reasons behind Albertson's uncertainty.

at Churchill in the last three years and he has had less than a week to prepare for practice, which officially begins today for fall sports.

Remember, too, the Churchill girls have struggled recently, and interest in the program isn't high,

Albertson, a Canton resident, isn't a new face at Churchill. He coached the boys basketball team for eight years before resigning after the 1987-88 season, and he also coached the girls team earlier in the decade for five years.

Albertson replaces Dave VanWagoner, who last month resigned to become the boys basketball coach at Plymouth Canton. VanWagoner, in his only year at Churchill, guided the Chargers to an 8-13 record. THAT WAS AN improvement on 1987, when Churchill finished 2-19, and lost to Farmington Hills Harrison, ending the Hawks 99-game los-

Don Albertson returns to Churchill

"I feel for these girls," Albertson said. "For some of them it will be their third coach in three years. Churchill has had a transient situation. Kind of like pop-in, pop-out sort of thing.

"I haven't committed myself to 20 years, but I sort of told them (athletic director Larry Joiner and principal Rod Hosman) that if things work out I would like to stay more than one year and give credence to the program."

Hosman said Albertson is the only Livonia Public School employee to have applied for the position.

A math and electronics teacher the last 17 years at Churchill, Albertson is scheduled to teach this fall at Riley Junior High.

Hosman said he also interviewed Lonnie Payne-Hines, who assisted VanWagoner last fall and was Churchill's junior varsity coach. He added that two others inquired about the position, but did not ap-

HOSMAN SAID Hines, who graduated in 1985 from Livonia Bentley, agreed to stay at Churchill in the same capacity as last fall.

"It was a real tough decision," Hosman said. "Lonnie's younger and has a little more spirit and Don has the experience. He's been a long-time girls and boys head coach and that's one of the things we looked at.

mitment to stay with the program for several years and try to make some stability for the program."

Albertson said the reason he resigned before last year as boys basketball coach was that he wanted to watch his son Mike play his senior year at Plymouth Salem.

"I WANTED to enjoy watching Mike play, and I couldn't do that coaching against him," Albertson said. "Both of my kids have left the nest, so to speak, and my wife works so what am I going to do from 3 to 6 every day, twiddle my thumbs? No. Go into coaching.

Albertson said he doesn't use a different approach in coaching

"It will be the exact same situation," he said. "It's not a winningat-all-costs. I'm out there to teach the game of basketball and it's much like the game of life.

"I like to play a zone defense with girls with pressing. My teams will be organized."

Area players contribute to Grand Valley's rating

By C.J. Risak staff writer

Everything concerning Grand Valley State's football team seemed healthy - until Wednesday.

The Lakers were 7-4 in each of the past two seasons and went 3-2 in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference last year. They return their top four ground gainers and their starting quarterback, and five of their top six receivers. Their defense, too, looks solid.

So what's to complain about? Because all coaches love to be ranked No. 1, but at the end of the season, not the beginning. "It's the kiss of death," said GVSU coach Tom Beck after his team was picked to win the title at Wednesday's GLIAC media meeting in Lans-

Not that the Lakers were runaway choices. The coaches figure the 1989 season, the last for GLIAC football (the six teams will merge with the five-team Heartland Conference next year to form the Midwest Intercollegiate Football Conference), to be a three, four or five team race, with only Wayne State not considered a serious threat. GVSU got three first-place votes and totalled 22 points. Next was Northern Michigan with 21 points (one first-place vote), followed by defending GLIAC champ Hillsdale with 20 (two firsts). Saginaw Valley State was fourth (13), Ferris State was fi th (eight) and WSU sixth (six).

THE LAKERS' solid corps of returnees made them the obvious choice, although Beck wasn't so sure his squad deserved the dubious hon-

"I really think it is an outstanding,

"I like where we're picked. I like being picked third, but, gosh, I hope we're better than that.'

- Dick Lowry Hillsdale football coach coach said. "We're nor overconfident, that's for sure."

A couple of reasons Beck's team was selected No. 1 are sophomore tight end Bob Mitchell (6-foot-5, 235pounds), from Bloomfield Hills (Birmingham Brother Rice), and junior tailback Ike Lipsey (6-0, 195), from Southfield (Southfield-Lathrup).

"He has an outstanding ability to catch the ball," said Beck of Mitchell, who tied for the team lead with 35 receptions for 456 yards and one touchdown as a freshman. "And he's an excellent blocker. Our coaches think he could be starting at Michigan State. He's a pro prospect."

Lipsey's statistics were glowing, too. He finished with a team-best 766 yards rushing on 133 carries (a 5.8 average), scoring three TDs. He also caught 11 passes for 83 yards.

IF GVSU, which returns sophomore quarterback Jack Hull (136 out of 261 for 1.869 yards, 52.1 percent, with 13 TDs and nine interceptions), has a weakness, it's depth everywhere on defense except at lineback-Having senior safety Mike Slazinski (6-4, 195), from Farmington Hills (Southfield-Lathrup), back after redshirting in '88 after a knee injury,

"I know it's going to be a tough year," he continued. "I know our opponents will be tough, and I know this is a preseason poll, nothing more. We're taking nothing for granted."

Including Hillsdale, which is in the title picture every year. The Chargers, 10-2 overall in '88 and 5-0 in the GLIAC, may have lost 24 lettermen but hopes remain high.

"I like where we're picked," said coach Dick Lowry. "I like being picked third, but, gosh, I hope we're better than that." IF THEY are going to be, Lowry must replace his quarterback, three of his top six rushers and two of his three leading receivers. "I don't like to say we're rebuilding, but releading," said Lowry. With five offensive and five defensive starters back, the early part of the schedule - they open with St. Francis at home, then go to Carson-Newman and NMU - could make or break the Chargers. One player

Lowry will be depending on is senior outside linebacker Kurt Graves (6-1, 205) from Holly (Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook). Graves had 73 tackjes last season and recovered a fumble. "Our defense has always been strong at Hillsdale," said Lowry.

Defense will be a different story at SVSU. Coach George Ihler figures if his team can stop anybody, it can

Walter's splits 2 in AAABA Tourney

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. - Walter's Home Appliance manufactured three of its four runs Sunday, but Waterbury, Conn., produced an 8-4 victory over the Livonians in the second round of the All-American Amateur Baseball Association Tourna-

Walter's, however, still remains alive in the third round of doubleelimination play as a result of their tournament-opening 11-7 victory Saturday over Brooklyn, N.Y.

In the winner's bracket tussie Sun-day at Conemaugh Valley High School, Waterbury overcame a 3-0 deficit, scoring six times in the sixth inning to pull out the victory.

Livonia answered with one in the seventh when Damian Hull raced home after slipping away from a rundown, but Walter's left the bases loaded as reliever George LaCapra got pinch hitter Rick Rutledge on pop-out to third, ending the inning.

Waterbury then scored a pair of insurance runs in the top of the ninth to put the game away.

I thought we played good ball, but our pitchers just got a little behind on the hitters," said Walter's manager Mike Keller. "Even though we lost, we were moving the ball around and still working things that made us successful this season WALTER'S STARTER Derek Darkowski, a pickup from Livonia Colle-giate Baseball League rival Hines

Walter's, the LCBL's third place team which went on to win three straight in the playoffs, qualifying for Johnstown, worked their magic in the fourth, scoring twice.

Art George, the former Redford Thurston High product now playing for the University of Evansville, stoled home for the game's first run.

Joe Sturtz and Dave Houghtby each walked before Tim Crabtree, the catcher from MSU, delivered an In the fifth, George and Gotts each singled, executed a perfect hit-andrun play, followed by a double steal, making it 3-0. But other than an unearned run in the seventh, Livonia was stymied by LaCapra, who worked the final three innings to pick up the save in relie of starter Dave Adams of Central Connecticut State. "HE (LeCAPRA) has started and relieved, and done the job for us the last three weeks," said Waterbury coach Dick Yuskas. "He's not overpowering, but has a good breaking ball. Walter's got off to a winning start, clobbering Brooklyn, N.Y., 13-7, as Sturts, the left fielder from North Farmington High, headed for Indi-ana University, had a big day. The right-handed slugger went 3-for-5 with five RBI. (The game was played at Highland Field.) George added three hits and scored four runs, while Gotts, the Redford Catholic Central High grad now at Eastern Michigan University, added two hits. Randy Buchler, the Walter's start-

Others who could have an impact for SVSU are sophomore cornerback Brian Tiller (5-8, 165), from Plymouth (Salem), who had one interception last year in part-time duty, and a pair of redshirt freshmen from Livonia Clarenceville, Darin DeRoeck (6-1, 205) and Gregg Buell (6-3, 203). Both are challenging for the top kicking positions, DeRoeck as placekicker and Buell as punter.

FSU coach Keith Otterbein, a Southfield-Lathrup grad, was not at all pleased by his team's preseason ranking. "To me, the future is now," he said. "I was disappointed we didn't win more last year."

THE BULLDOGS finished with a 4-7 slate in '88, just 1-4 in the GLI-AC. With eight offensive and nine defensive starters back, Otterbein is expecting much better.

One of his top offensive threats will be junior tailback Delbert Littlejohn (5-9, 170), from Rochester (Adams). Littlejohn gained 298 yards rushing on 57 carries (5.2 average), scoring four touchdowns. 'Delbert Littlejohn is very capable at tailback," said Otterbein.

If the Bulldogs get close enough, junior placekicker Tony Svaluto, from Westland (John Glenn), will put points on the board. Svaluto hit eight-of-nine field goal tries in '88, scoring 31 points; he has converted 15-of-21 in his career.

"I think we're ready," said Otterbein. "I've very excited about our chances. Our goal is to win the GLIAC, no matter where we're picked.

At WSU, talk still centers arou fund-raising (it is "now well-established," according to coach Joe Horn, who almost had his program cancelled in his first season) and the impact television exposure several WSU games will be televised on Channel 62 this fall - will

THE TARTARS, 2-8 overall and winless in five GLIAC games last season, return seven offensive and eight defensive starters. Also back, after missing a year due to academic deficiencies, is senior defensive end Tony Beaune (6-4, 270) from Livonia (Stevenson). Beaune was second team all-GLIAC in '87 and led his team in tackles.

Tony Beaune will be back to anchor our defensive line," said Horn. "And that will be the strongest part of our defense."

The line will also be the strength of the offense. Senior Chuck Crespi (6-2, 250), from Livonia (Catholic Central), switches back to guard after a year at center and is a key to the line play. The other guard spot will be filled by sophomore Todd Vydick (6-0, 230), from Auburn Hills (Avondale), a starting linebacker last season.

The receiving corps will depend on sophomore wide receiver Shannon Sparks (6-2, 170), a returning starter from Southfield (Lathrup) who caught eight passes for 88 yards in '88, and senior backup tight end John Jessing (6-5, 230), from Detroit (Troy Athens), who had three catches for 35 yards and

The battle for first-string punter is wide open, and freshman Joe Delfgauw, who averaged 40.6 yards a kick last year for Redford Union, has a shot at the starting spot.

"We'll be a much better football team, that I can guarantee," said Horn. "But out schedule is much

"We're getting there, I know it."

Salem grad seeks Sanctioning can be plus

With the new bowling season approaching, many league meetings are taking place around town. Decisions are made. uestions arise and rules are di Among the hot topics usually is whether to seek sponsors for the teams, and whether or not to be ABC/WIBC sanctioned. As for sanctioning, the moderate ($6 per person) fee goes a long way and is without much room for argument, a vital part of bowling. Remember, bowlers, if you are in more than one sanction league, you only pay once, so let your secretary know

The ABC/WIBC sanctioning also includes bonding for the league's officers, permanent records of all averages, recognition of honor scores, individual record sheets, the rule book and guidelines for operation of the league. Of course, if someone bowls a 300 game they receive a ring also, and there are rings given for 299 and 298 games and an 800 series. The local associations also share in the revenues from the annual fee, and they provide many valuable services to

Each secretary gets the annual yearbook which lists all local leagues and each individual average. In metropolitan Detroit there are approximately 200,000 men and women participating in ABC or WIBC leagues. This number is far greater than that of any other city in the USA. If you add the youth bowlers to that number, plus some non-sanctioned leagues, there are about a quarter of a million bowlers in this area. That is why we are truly called the "Bowling Capital of the

 This pre-season is also a time to go out and find sponsors, that is if your league is the type that has sponsors. If you have to look for a sponsor, here is some advice If you personally know someone who has a business, this would be the easiest approach, or if you are a regular customer of a particular business, don't be afraid to ask. The cost of sponsoring a team is quite reasonable, and the benefits include: A good advertising format; Goodwill in the community; The cost can be "expensed" by most businesses; The company name is displayed all season long. Team members will usually patronize their sponsors more, thus resulting in extra business. In some instances, the sponsor may elect to pay the sanctioned fees in addition to the cost of · Youth bowling is a very important aspect of the bowling scene, and a vital part of the youth program is the availability of good coaching. It takes a lot of patience and understanding to work with the kids so when Ed Wright of Farmington Hills was awarded honors from YABA as "Coach of the Year" recently, it is only fitting and proper that he be recegnized for an excellent job. Ed is the coach of the Saturday Youth Classic League at Country Lanes, the Wed high school league, he assists in the Mon-day Nite Pro Shop Youth Doubles at Drakeshire Lanes and is director of the Sunday Youth Travel League. Ed Bowls in three leagues himself, including the Greenfield Mixed League with his wife Pat. This is a real bowling family as daughter Julie and son Scott are avid youth league members.

Ed Wright is on member of the greater Detroit city board of directors of the YABA, state of Michigan YABA, Director of the greater Detroit youth leaders, and assistant director of the State of Michigan Youth leaders for youth bowling. If that isn't a busy enough schedule, he also is a teacher at North Farmington High School and Coach/Instructor for the state of Michigan YABA. As a school teacher Ed has been named teacher of the year three times in the past 10 years. He teaches accounting, business law and psychology. Ed is also an avid golfer, fisherman and finds some time for racquetball as well. He is available for private bowling lessons, for information call him at

• There are still two tryout sessions going on for his Sunday Youth Travel-linhg League, on Tuesday, Aug. 15 at Taylor Lanes and Saturday, Aug. 19 at Drakeshire Lanes in Farmington Hills. This league is open to any youth bowlers from ages 11 and up and averaging 120 or more. For details, call Ed at the same number mentioned.

· At Bel Aire Lanes on Orchard Lake Road, the Tuesday trio league had a 266 high game from Daryl Rollins and a 694 high series by John King. In the Un-Mixed League Nick Acito led the way with a 245 while the top lady was Jean Ruohouen at 206. The Family Twosome had Gary Burgess 99 pins over average. Bel Aire has some good league openings particularly with the west side men's league expanding. They start at 6:30 Friday nights and team average is 850 to 975. They bowl a split season and the jackpots are usually worth shooting for. The Tuesday season and the jackpots are usually worth shooting for. The Tuesday Nite Junior House League has openings for four-man teams at 9:30 p.m. The team averages are 575-675 with a 180 maximum individual average. There are openings in the Friday in the Friday Mixed League at 9:30 p.m. a 14-team league, a nice social league with good competition. There is a 3:30 p.m. Sunday 'Apartment Singles League' open to all singles and couples with four to a team and a shorter season starting Sept. 24.

 Things are getting all "revved up" again at Country Lanes as the new season approaches. There are plenty of good league openings for whatever suits you. There are weekly mixed leagues seeking more bowlers at 5 and 8 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays with every other week leagues also running on weekends. The Monday Nite Men's League with a 6:15 p.m. start has openings for five-man teams with plenty of quality competition. Tuesday Night the Little Bill's Classic at 9:15 p.m. has some openings as well as the Ladies Classic at the same time slot. There are more openings on Wednesdays at 6:15 p.m. for five-man teams, and the Junior House League at 9:15 p.m. has

. The Thursday Mixed Classic League can use some good bowlers with team averages 625 and up. The Friday Ladies Noon Classic has some open spots as does the Ladies Nite League with a 6:15 p.m. starting time. There are lots of openings during the weekdays for ladies and senior bowlers. The Saturday youth program, with Ed Wright and friends has some availability with scholarship money to howl for, offering quality coaching for the juniors and lots of good fun.

• Wonderland Lanes on Plymouth Road in Livonia has some openings in the Tuesday Nite Classic League at 6:30 p.m. with a 940 minimum team average and good prize money and jackpots. This is a handicapped format and can use a few more good bowlers or teams. The Wednesday Night Moose Mixed League has an 8:30 starting slot and would wel-come any and all Moose members to come on down. The Wednesday Night Junior House League can use some more bowlers at 6:15, and there is a Ladies Trio League at 9:30 p.m. Tuesdays with openings. The team averages are 450 to 525. For information on Wonderland Bowl's leagues call 427-1060.

e The $30,000 Ladies Pro Bowlers Tour Michigan Classic has just taken place at Satellite Bowl in Dearborn Heights. This turned out to be one of the most exciting bowling events in recent memory. More great games and matches than anyone could expect.

The winner turned out to be the local star of the Ladies Tour, Aleta Sill, who beat another area howler, Dede Davidson. The finals will be aired on TV locally on PASS Cable on Sept. 9 and again Oct.

Each match had its thrills as Sill and Davidson were all tied after nine frames. Aleta's turn was first and she filled the frame with a strike and spare, giving Dede the chance to double with her first shot in the 10th. Dede's first ball was a high pocket hit leaving the 7-10 split, and there went the match and first place to Aleta, the top money winner on the ladies

Sill is a former resident of Westland and Canton, and currently lives in Dear-born. Davidson is from Southgate. Davidson was outstanding in her matches, reaching the finals, by defeating Robin Romeo, 244-238; Lorrie Nichols, 258-225; and in a terrific match, winning a real "battle" against Tish Johnson, 279-268. Highlights during match play were a 300 game by none other than Aleta Sill, her 12th perfect game in her career, a 299 by Lella Wagner who finished 9th and a 296 game also by Aleta.

Other local area bowlers who finished in the 36 cash positions were Cheryl Stip-cak of Canton in 16th place; Darleue Mar-row also of Canton, 31st; Dawn DeVitis of Livonia, in 33rd place; and Cheryl Daniels, of Detroit, 36th.

Lindros credits his parents, Carl and Bonnie, for "getting me here." He said his "adopted" parents, Judy and Frank Vellucci, have treated him "second to none."

And she describes his appetite as "He had seven pieces of french toast one morning, and he's had four to five sandwiches for lunch," she said. "For six weeks, we've treated him like a guest. He's just fit in so well and enjoyed himself."

Carl Lindros, an accountant in Toronto, is excited about Eric's future and couldn't think of a better place for his son to progress.

"There's probably a high chance he'll live in an American city anyway, so it's a good opportunity for him." Carl said. "As parents, you always have concerns. But he's been here six weeks and he feels pretty comfortable. That's good news. Andy (Weidenbach) and Jim (Rutherford, director of hockey relations for Compuware) are down-to-earth, nice people and that's unusual in hockey."

Rutherford, the former Red Wing goalie, says "Only time will tell, but he's certainly the NHL's next franchise player."

LINDROS HAS been compared to modern-day stars Wayne Gretzky and Mario Lemieux, but his style might be more similar to former Red Wing great and hall of famer Gordie Howe. He has several idols.

"I like Mark Messier's toughness, the way he handles himself - he's a freight train," he said. "I enjoy watching Stevie Yzerman's finesse, the way he bares down in front of the net. I like guys who can handle themselves without someone coming off the bench to fight for them. I liked the way Gordie played. The way he could put the puck in the net."

Lindros has grown considerably the last two years. Bonnie Lindro remembers two years ago watching her son, then only about 5-8, play.

"When he was growing, it looked like he had sand bags attached to his feet," she said. "Then he kept growing and growing. He gained 50 pounds in one year and he's not fat." He's also darn good.

Holding a garage sale is a fun way to do a little business on your own . . . but it takes a bit of planning,

Like you'll want to decide what to self and how much to charge for each item ... and then you'll need price tags so other people will know what you're charging.

And you'll have to be able to make change for all your customers . . . so that means you should have lots of one dollar bills and an assortment of coins

Then you'll want to advertise your sale to attract that crowd. You can do it with a sign or signs in your neighborhood . . . but you'll want bigger crowd than that . . . so you'll run an ad in Classified which tells the time and place of your sale to a host of potential buyers

Have fun with your little business adventure

House OKs increase for 1990 Congressional budget

area members of Congress were recorded on major roll call votes in the week ending Aug. 4.

THE BUDGET FOR CONGRESS → By a vote of 291 for and 123 gainst, the House approved a fiscal 90 budget of $1.6 billion for itself and congressional support agencies. That is an increase of 14 percent over the comparable fiscal 1989 bill. After the Senate adds its budget of more than $400 million, the cost of operating the legislative branch in 1990 will top $2 billion. Members' salaries of nearly $50 million are funded separately.
Among items in the House-passed bill are $188 million for the salaries of House members' personal staffs (up 5 percent from the comparable 1989 figure), $118 million for committee operations including staff salaries (up 7 percent) and $123 million for House members' and senators' free-mail privileges. The postage

Supporter Vic Fazio, D-Calif., said "this is a very tight, austere budget." Opponent Hank Brown, R-Colo., said Congress has "a staff that is 10 times as big as any other government in the world for its deliberative body." Members voting yes supported the Michigan members voting yes were Carl Pursell, R-Plymouth; Dennis Hertel, D-Harper Woods; William Ford, D-Taylor and Sander Levin, D-Southfield.

William Broomfield, R-Lake Orion, voted no:

TO CUT CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET - By a vote of 167 for and 246 against, the House rejected an amendment cutting nearly all areas of the 1990 legislative branch budget (above) by 6.25 percent, for a savings

Roll Call Report

"What used to be called the '$1 Billion Congress' has become the '$2 Billion Congress," said amendment sponsor Bill Frenzel, R-Minn.

Opponent Jerry Lewis, R-Calif., said the amendment "would cut some items that are very fundamen-tal in terms of the members' ability to work around this place."

Members voting yes supported a 6.25 percent cut in the fiscal 1990 legislative branch budget.
Michigan members voting yes were Pursell and Broomfield. Hertel, Ford and Levin voted no.

TO RAISE THE DEBT LIMIT -The House voted 231 for and 185 against to raise the national debt ceiling by $70 billion to about $2.87 trillion. The new limit, (HR 3024), which was sent to the Senate, will enable the government to pay its bills while awaiting congressional approval of a separate measure putting the federal borrowing limit at $3,123 trillion.

Supporter Bill Archer, R-Texas, said: "As distasteful as any increase in the federal debt may be to me personally and to many others in this chamber, we should adopt this mea-

Michigan members Ford and Levin voted yes. Pursell, Hertel and Broomfield voted no.

SENATE:

MX MISSILE - By a vote of 62 for and 38 against, the House tabled (killed) an amendment stripping the fiscal 1990 defense authorization bill of nearly half of its funding for establishing a rail-based MX missile system. The amendment sought to remove $502 million in procurement money while retaining $600 million in the bill for continued research into transferring the multi-warhead MX from stationary siles to moving railroad cars.

The vote occurred as the Senate sent a $305 billion military spending bill (S 1352) for fiscal 1990 to conference with the House. It preserved an administration pact with many Democratic leaders in Congress to fund a mobile missile system consisting of both the rail-garrisoned MX and the truck-borne, single-warhead Midgetman. The House version of the bill decimates that agreement.

Senators voting yes supported full funding for putting MX missiles on railroad cars.

Michigan Democratic Senators Carl Levin and Donald Riegle voted

CUBA AND DRUGS - By a vote of 73 for and 27 against, the Senate tabled (killed) an amendment to the curb what intelligence sources say it Cuban Premier Pidel Castro's contribution to America's drug problem. The measure sought to get at Cuba through its provider the Soviet Union.

The amendment called for denying American aid to any Soviet state until President George Bush certifies Cuba is not a transit point for illegal drug shipments to the United States. American aid reaches the Soviet Union through world develop-ment banks and other channels.

John Warner, R-Va., who voted to kill the amendment, said it could upset U.S. Soviet relations in such areas as arms control.

Amendment sponsor William Armstrong, R-Colo., accused Cuba of sending in the poisonous substances, which are killing and rulning the lives of our young people." Michigan Levin and Riegle voted

In search of a 'hot time' in Chitown

By Tedd Schneider staff writer

I first knew it on the ride in from Midway, when the 20-minute conversation with our chauffeur - Melvin Stewart, City Cab Number 2316 - ranged from the Pistons ("They'll miss Mahorn") to life as a Windy City hack ("Re-Ask me again tire? never . . tomorrow") to his police record ("So I hit him in the mouth with the gun. I had to pay the fine and his dentist bill").

Chicago was definitely going to be my kind of town . . . for the next 12 hours anyway.

You can have the skyscrapers' and museums, the restaurants and night spots that usually dominate these tourist excursions. Oh, I'll make them part of my itinery. But for my vacation memories I'll take the people whose paths cross mine along the way, thank

Those impressions are more vivid and tend to hold up better over time.

That's why Melvin Stewart, City Cab Number 2316, became the first Chicago snapshot in my personal album.

The idea was to cram as much of Chitown down our throats as possible in one day. Sort of a Reader's Digest version of the typical weekend tour package, with help from Southwest Airlines and the newspaper's expense account, of course.

A summer drizzle in Detroit gave way to sunshine and a promised high of 80 degrees as the 737 touched down at Midway.

We were off and running, Chicago-style:

MORNING:

We were supposed to take the bus from Midway to the Loop (the city's financial district) for our first round of stops. But the buses apparently don't start running until long after our 7 a.m. flight arrived, so we hailed Stewart, who was parked by the terminal curb looking for an early morning fare. The cab ride cost $17 including tip, or only about $2 more than two bus tickets.

First stop, the Sears Tower. Even with Sears about to take a hike to the suburbs (relocating its corporate headquarters to Hoffman Estates in a move that will leave the building half empty), the 110-story glass and steel monument will easily fulfill Personal Travel Rule Number 117: When going to a big city, always go to the top of one - and only one — tall building.

Unfortunately, to get to the top of the Sears Tower, we have to wade through some garbage at the bottom — namely, a shlocky "multi-media" presentation hosted (on tape) by a bubbly Oprah Winfrey, who goes on and on about the wonderfulness of her hometown. Mercifully, it ends in 15 minutes and we're whisked to the Sky Deck on the 103rd floor.

And on this slightly hazy morning, the view is spectacular. The special writer

The assignment read: "Get to Chicago and interview famed Italian chef and cookbook author Guliano Bugialli."

At first, I had thought of taking Amtrack - round-trip train fare for under $55. I could finish that paperback book I started on last summer's vacation. I could leave Detroit and five hours later, arrive in the Windy City, only to do an interview and then spend another five hours coming home

Maybe next time. I could drive and spend about $30 for gas. Then I realized it would cost a hundred bucks to park downtown.

So, as luck would have, while watching "The Real Ghostbusters," an ad for Southwest Airlines $29 one-way airfare to Chicago caught my eye. In the 48 hours that evolved between placing my reservation and picking up my ticket at the travel agency, the price had jumped an extra 10 bucks. But hey, I leave Metro at 10:45 a.m. and arrive in Chicago at 10:45 a.m. Who could beat

The flight was late, but then again, so was I. It gave me just enough time to get a red-hot, diet Coke and bag of chips at the airport. I nearly chocked when the tab totaled a little over $5. (Take it from me, skip airport food.)

Metro could easily wise up and do something about the shoddy service and poor quality of food. If it tasted good and the person working the counter would smile occasionally, the hurried traveler wouldn't mind plunking down that kind of money. But in it's present state, the food and ser-

'The Abyss': It's so close to being abysmally bad

"The Abyss" (D-, PG-13, 135 minutes) is a strange movie. It strains credulity with an unbelievable plot; containing just about everything under the sun (and water), but still manages to keep your attention.

There's a Rambo-style U.S. Navy Seal lieutenant, underwater butterfly-like creatures from outer-space, a terrific submersible oil-rig and all kinds of slick underwater equipment

Then there's an imminent divorce that turns into a love story and a record dive as the hero goes down 18.000 or so feet in a slick diving suit while breathing liquid oxygen.

Oh yes, the extra-terresterial butterflies have a several-mile wide space ship . . . that swims . . . and the heroine drowns in freezing water but is resurrected 10 or so minutes later. I thought it was all over when you didn't get oxygen to the brain, but what do I know?

But then again the scenarists and the 20th Century Fox story editor didn't have oxygen in their brains when they decided audiences would believe two guys could swim 1,500 feet below the surface without equipment, that a gal could be resurrected and that benevolent aliens with fantastic technology would start all this trouble by accident.

The film opens with some strange, unknown mechanism creating enough underwater turbulence to crash a U.S. nuclear sub in deep water. There just happens to be an experimental submersible oil-rig in the area and their corporate owners rescue mission.

The rig is commanded by Ed Harris whose soon-to-be ex-wife (Mary Elizabeth Mastrontonio) apparently is the engineer who developed the rig in the first place. Naturally, she comes down to investigate the crash and help rescue nuclear warheads.

It gets even more complicated with Russian trawlers from Cuba, great storms at sea and the beserk Seal lieutenant.

The film fails because there are just too many plot threads, even for the movies such a long film. The film's a real bummer and we never do find out what the aliens were doing there in the first place. The strangest thing about "The Abyss," however, is that it is photographed and edited well enough to keep your attention, despite its total lack of credulity. Even when you know better, you'll find yourself swept up in these crazy events. I guess that qualifies "The Abyss" as a good/bad movie.

On the bad/bad side of the ledger, Freddy is back for the fifth time. This time he attempts to invade the soul of an infant. "Nightmare on Elm Street V: The Dream Child" (R) is there for them what like that stuff.

When "sex, lies and videotane" took first prize at the Cannes Pilm Festival this year, critics were falling all over themselves with praise. You may wonder what all the fuss was about after seeing this clever but minor film when it opens the Detroit Film Theatre's 32nd season this

Don't get me wrong. Many of my favorite films are claustrophobic character studies full of talk. And at its best, "sex, lies and videotape" features a sparkling four-person cast in a biting, witty exploration of in-

Ann (Andie MacDowell) likes the security of marriage but shrinks from the touch of her handsome husband John (Peter Gallagher). He, meanwhile, carries on an affair with Ann's hard-edged sister Cynthia (Laura San Giacomo). Nothing really

Enter Graham (James Spader), an old college friend of John's. He's the movie's wild card - a likeably screwed up, sleepy-eyed hero who rocks them all out of their compla-

It's obvious that the friendship between John and Graham has weakened. John is a weaselly manipulator both as a lawyer and husband. Graham openly believes that liars are the second lowest form of human beings. First are lawyers.

ADMITTEDLY impotent, Graham reaches sexual fulfillment through videotaping women as they discuss their sexual experiences. Ann is at first appalled, but then succumbs. Cynthia jumps into it from the start. Both grow closer to Graham and farther away from John.

Produced for just over $1 million, "sex, lies and videotape" is a success story for 26-year-old writer/director Steven Soderbergh. There's an occasional tricky camera angle, but the film works mostly in a naturalistic malcy and bizarre behavior that's not always easy to relate to.

Soderbergh believes that the film's title sums up its message.

Sex, lies and videotape are what a lot of this country revolves around - the selling of sex, the telling of lies and the inundation of video," he

Fine, but again nothing startlingly original. Gogard was ranting about sex and the media more than 20 years ago. How hard is it to lampoon a yuppie lawyer? And Graham even with his bizarre attitude toward sex - isn't the first screen seeker who isolates himself behind a movie camera.

Still, "sex, lies and videotape" opens at a time when audiences are probably tired of mindless summer movies. The film will definitely provoke some discussion — if nothing else to answer the question of why the film has achieved such great ac-

DEO VIEWING

By Dan Greenberg special writer

Give top grades to two of Holly-wood's finest movies now available for home video viewing - Danny Kay's marvelous performance in "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty" (1947, color, 110 minutes) and Gary Coooper in "The Pride of the Yankees" (1942, black and white, 128 min-

Neither are rated - and they don't need to be. Both reflect the public morality of an earlier era that insisted its entertainment be fresh and pure, no matter how unrealistic and no matter how much "truth" had to swept under the rug.

Some say "Walter Mitty" was Danny Kaye's finest role. Whether or not that argument carries, this film will delight and entertain everyone. Kaye is masterful in the multiple roles of mild, meek Walter Mitty and the many dashing characters which inhabit his imagination.

My favorite is the RAF fighter-pilot who set the bone in his own broken arm and passed the feat off casually as he entered the bar. There's lots more, of course, as Kaye thwarts the villian (Boris Karloff). gets the girl (Virginia Mayo), survives his nagging mother (Fay Bainter) and grapples with numerous other unhelpful people and Kaye, noted for his tongue-twisting songs, manages to work in a few of those as well in this, one of Hollywood's best productions.

Lou Gehrig was, indeed, "The Pride of the Yankees" and Gary Cooper was a perfect choice for this biopic in tribute to that great Yankee ballplayer.

NOT ONLY WAS Gehrig a fine athlete but, as well, he was a man of good character. That moral life, his exemplary conduct, fine athletic accomplishments and his courage in the face of an illness that led to an early death provide the ingredients for an inspirational film in the darkest days of World War II.

Filmed shortly after Gehrig's death in 1941 from amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, a degenerative muscular disease now known as Lou Gehrig's Disease, "The Pride of the Yankees" is a major production with excellence in every department.

The film opens with a parallel drawn between Gehrig's courage and that of the U.S. Armed Forces then struggling in the early stages of

The script was by Jo Swerling and Herman Mankiewicz, the latter having not too long before received an Oscar for the script to Orson Welles "Citizen Kane." The music includes Irving Berlin's "Always," as is to be expected "Take Me Out to the Ballgame," and an appearance by Ray Noble and his Orchestra, one of the era's big bands.

The opening credits thank the New York Yankees and Mrs. Gehrig, among others. Clearly a major production, the film features four major sports names as "themselves" with Babe Ruth at the top of the list fol-lowed by Bill Dickey, Robert Meusel and sportscaster Bill Stern.

Walter Brennan is sportswriter Sam Blake, Elsa Janssen and Ludwig Stossel are Gehrig's parents while Teresa Wright is luminous as his wife, Eleanor, but clearly Cooper shines above this talented crowd. The role, seemingly made for the Coooper persona, is one of his finest.

OF COURSE that may be a judgment filtered through the fine lens of hindsight. I don't know how accurate the film is insofar as Gehrig's life and character are concerned - Cooper's either for that matter - but it certainly hangs together effectively.

No question but the film is sentimental and, by today's standards, somewhat saccharine but that's part of its charm. Despite its naivete and wonderment about the marvelous potentials of life and the almost unreal courage with which Gehrig/ Cooper face death, "The Pride of the Yankees" is touching and inspira-

Lou Gehrig was a shining white knight and Gary Cooper perfectly fits that role as he grows from shy, naive rookie to mature, accomplished star, one who learned well from life and is able, with equanimity to face happiness as well as tragedy in a sensible, prudent manner.

Happy Mondays: '70s music with '80s twist

By Larry O'Connor staff writer

Happy Mondays make for hungover Tuesdays.

'We're still partying from last night," said Shaun Ryder, lead singer with the English band Happy Mondays in a Tuesday afternoon tele-phone interview. "In fact, we just finished an hour ago."

Night clubs are not the only target of Happy Mondays' assault on this country, so, too, are the ears of alternative music listeners. Happy Mondays has just released its second album, "Bummed" (Elektra), a neo-psychedelic collection of ing back '70s culture with all the vices. Yes, folks, time to pull out those purple bell-bottoms and platform shoes again. Except theirs is simply not a trip down the far-out lane. What Happy Mondays has done is incorporated the music of the '70s, including acid rock, funk and even dance (not disco), into a new whirlwind of a sound. You can dance to it, arm wrestle to it or change the oil in the car to it.

The latest album is exceptional work, especially considering the lack experience in the Happy Mondays'

"ON THE first album, none of us knew what we were doing," said Ryder, whose band will perform tonight at Rick's Cafe in Ann Arbor. "We had some ideas of what we wanted to do, but we didn't how to get them out through to our instruments or on plastic."

Enter Martin Hannet, the guy whose past production work includes Joy Division and U2. On vinyl, Hannet ("He's a good bloke," Ryder said of the well-known producer.) brought out the fuller elements of Happy Mondays' sound.

A tough task. Happy Mondays is a band that doesn't write down any lyrics. They get into the studio and jam, picking out the best in an as-

AMERICAN AUDIENCES are getting their first glimpses of Happy Mondays. The group performed two years ago at the New Music Seminar in New York, but this is the first major U.S. tour.

In eight short days, the band has found America quite to their liking. Bez, another maraca toting member of Happy Mondays, talks about how the group didn't have anything to do after returning from a show at 5 a.m. So, Happy Mondays walked the streets of New York City until the sun came up.

"I enjoy all of it," said Bez about the music business. "If you're going to make any money, this is the best way to do it. We're all lazy. We never worked. If you're going to be lazy,

CYCLES

— Doobie Brothers

Everybody who made hit records in the 1970s seems to be taking another stab at stardom, including the Doobie Brothers. And they couldn't have picked a better title for their comeback album — "Oycles."

After all, the pulsating intro to the Capitol LP's opening track, "The Doctor," sounds suspiciously close to that long-ago hit "China Grove."

The similarity shouldn't surprise anyone who has followed the Doobies since those days. "Cycles" is driven by the rough-edged vocals of original singer Tom Johnston, who once upon a time was replaced by slick-crooning Michael McDonald (remember "What A Fool Believes?").

Back to earth for a moment. It's great for these veterans to be back in the music business. But the stars in the Doobie Brothers' sky aren't quite as bright as they once

That's because, despite whatever promise is yielded by "The Doctor," most of the music contained on this uneven set, frankly, fails to follow the title's "we're back" theme. However, this group still manages to glitter from time to time. There are several worthy songs, including the slow-cooking "Need a Little Taste Of Love," spiced just right with some tasteful guitar riffs from Pat Simmons.

"South of the Border" conveys the free and easy spirit prevalent in the Doobies glory days. Another mentionable is the introspective anthem "Time Is Here And Gone," with lyrics describing someone with a late appreciation for life: "What used to worry me, well it don't worry me/Who knows the reason or the rhyme/The years that I got left, you know I'll make the most of mine.

And "Cycles," although clearly not earth-shattering, may just be good enough to make sure there are a few more days, and perhaps another album, for the Doobies.

THE OCEAN BLUE — The Ocean Blue

This eponymously titled LP on Sire Records is the debut album from this band who hail from Her-

The band, a four-piece, is essentially guitar-based, but they do include keyboards and saxophone in their instrumentation line-up. Mistake No. 1.

Actually, track one, side one, their first single "Between Something and Nothing," is quite considerable. Starting with a fresh, bouncy guitar riff, leading into a catchy verse/chorus combination, split with an attractive guitar solo. It is very exciting on first listen. This album is going to be great, me thinks. Mistake No. 2.

It becomes obvious very quickly that this track is the most notable standout of the album. Although on repeated listens, it does bear remarkable similarity to Echo & The Bunnymen.

By this time, the third song, "Drifting, Falling," airs itself the comparisons are spewing forth, fast and furious. Yes — there's a Lloyd Cole, cops, almost tripped on an Echo & Bunnymen. But get this for mals" onward the light keyboard

They obviously chose to ignore a band called The Connells from North Carolina. "Gourmet on the Go." (I knew I had made the right decision to take the last flight back to Detroit.)

Lunch at Spiaggia, prepared under the watchful eye of guest Chef Bugialli (Tony Martin is Spiaggia's resident chef), was splendid. Too bad everyone else I talked with that day thought Spiaggia was "overpriced and overblown," Of course, it's going to be good for me, I'm a food writer and they knew I was coming. After lunch and a few too many refills of Italian chardonnay, I felt the need to walk off the buzz, so I instructed my driver to drop me at Crate and Barrel. Anyone who does anything with food will go bonkers at this high-tech bargain basementpriced gourmet and tableware shop, just down the street and in the middle of the "Magnificant Mile."

Thirty minutes was all it took to run the American Express card almost to its limit with purchases of 16- by 20-inch marble pastry boards at $16.95 (I bought two), dishes shaped like fish (I bought a dozen), Belgian waffle irons and the neatest martini glasses I have ever seen.

THEN IT was off to have cocktails at Ditka's. The restaurant critic at Spiaggia said a stop here was warranted, just to see and feel Chitown's best jock bar and to savor what was the best oysters on the half shell I have ever swallowed.

All fresh oysters are good, but what set these apart was the tonguetingling horseradish sauce that accompanied the little gems. And it had the best drink values with rock glasses that are truly "jock size" and not some scrawny wimpy little

This place is owned by the famed and legendary Chicago Bears coach,

After buying a menu (I always ask first and NEVER steal), Craig Koresian, the afternoon manager, offered to have Coach Ditka himself sign it. How could I resist?

The only resisting I had to encounter was to resist not eating more of those great oysters. I didn't want to spoil my pre-dinner reservations at one of Chicago's hottest eateries, The Fronteria.

Owned by Chef Rick Bayless (of local Ann Arbor fame) and his wife Donna, a marguerita and an order of the $4.75 sopas sampler was all I needed. But a friend couldn't resist the border-style split game hen.

This is primo southwest cuisine and since they don't take reservations for less than six, it's a crowded and fun place to stop.

Chef Rick is right there in the open-styled kitchen and you can find this fabulous eatery at 445 N. Clark.

TELLING MYSELF I need another hit of oysters from Ditka's, but reminding myself of 7:30 reservations at another of the Windy City's premier eateries, Prarie, I asked the driver to deliver me to 500 N. Dearborn, home of the Omni Hotel and what easily can be touted as one of the best restaurants in town.

I was disappointed to hear that the classic prairie dog stew was 89'd for the evening, but my waitress said that I would not be disappointed with the warm apple sausage and sage turnover. And I wasn't.

The Prairie touts itself as serving the quinessential heartland favorites. I wholeheartedly agree. Not to be outdone with the appetizer, my waitress almost ordered me to try the tossed salad consisting of fried coho and toasted pumpkin seeds. This woman can bend my arm with any recommendation and I'll take it.

Unlike Ditka's and Fronteria, this place was a tad pricey, so keeping in mind my excessive purchases at Crate and Barrel and also knowing that my waistline was beginning to show signs of contractual expansion, I opted for a light dinner of a dish, called Burgoo, that I tried on my last trip to Kentucky.

This was a thick soup, almost stew like, filled with rabbit, pork and a mish-mash of vegetables, with a tangy tease to the broth.

For a second there, I thought I had died and gone to heaven. Three winning restaurants in as many hours. Three dishes at each and all were

A QUICK glance at my watch beckoned me to a waiting car and it was off to the airport.

Running to catch what was the last plane out, carrying a briefcase, camera bag, 60 pounds of marble pastry boards and assorted other goods found me waking the next morning with shin splints and a craving for a good workout and sauna at Vic Tanny's.

So, if you're planning a trip to Chicago and are lucky enough to have your income tax refund in tote . . . Bon Appetit!

Lilly finds club work a challenge

By Larry O'Connor staff writer

The comedic boom of late has spawned several Johnny-Come-Latelys on the scene while the Tim Lillys of the world chuckle along.

For 10 years, Lilly has been a comedian. He's seen more clubs than Jack Nicklaus, more roadside restaurants than a trucker.

Lilly's resigned himself to the fact that might not change anytime soon. He believes a lack of television exposure is perhaps his biggest stumbling block to big time notoriety.

"I know what these guys (in television) want and I'm not it," said Lilly, who will perform Thursday through Sunday at Joey's Comedy Club in Livonia. "They want the Ken Doll look. It's not so much what you say, it's how you look. I'm 50 pounds overweight, balding and wear glasses Those are strikes against you in television.

Yet, he can still swing for the big laugh. His humor is suburban, recalling times such as cruising down Woodward Avenue and growing up in Ferndale.

People in the audience can relate to such things as being a stepfather, having a child for the first time and trying to support a family of five on a comedian's wages.

The latter is becoming increasingly difficult. With comedy clubs sprouting, several would-be comedians are taking a shot.

THAT'S THE Catch-22," Lilly said. "There are more clubs, but there's 35 to 40 people in Detroit who fancy themselves as comedians. The clubs use that to their advantage. They say, 'OK, Tim Lilly doesn't want to work for $50 a night, we'll get another comedic act.'

"Fortunately, there are clubs like the Looney Bin in Walled Lake and Joey's in (Livonia) who will give a local guy a chance to headline.

This is almost spelled though by the cacephony of sound cascading down upon our ears. Taped sightseeing narration blasts from the speakers in frust of each window. Standing in the middle of the observatory, it all blends together and the only thing I'm able to pick out clearly is an odd bit of trivia that seems to catch my ear each time one tape speaker. my ear each time one tape repeats:

"THE WRIGLEY family (their namesake building can be seen from the north window) originally started in the soap business. They switched from manufacturing to chewing gum when they discovered it's popularity after giving it away with boxes of soap."

The lone human being at the top of the Sears Tower, excluding visitors, is Brad Stephenson, a traffic reporter for radio station WBBM-Ald, Stephenson, $1, is employed by AAA. Hit's been up here in a computer-filled room not much larger than a closet every week-day morning for 15 months. He's from downstate lilicity.

"It's not that big of a deal when you do it every day," he said. "Besides, it's easy to spot fires from here and it makes sense for a traffic reporter."

Robyn Michaels offers a different perspective on the giant building. We find her sitting on the sidewalk at the base tower, using a clicker to count of the peo-ple as they pass by. Michaels has been hired by the city's economic development department to conduct a study on pedestrian traffic patterns. The study may be used to adjust bus and train schedules to benefit com-

In her first hour on the job that day, she's clicked 876 times. I ask her how people react to being "clicked."

"One guy turned around and told me 'It's nice to be counted for something in my life,'. " she said.

FROM THE Sears Tower we head to the Chicago Board of Trade on Jackson Boulevard in the financial district.

To describe the Board of Trade as a commodities exchange is a grave injustice. This is like going to an auction in the "Twilight Zone." There's one fast-talking auctioneer for every bidder on the floor. And from our spot on the mezzanine above the trading floor, it looks like they've all ingested large quantities of amphetamines before getting off the "L" and heading in to work.

The buyers, sellers, price reporters and other functionaries are distinguished by their brightly colored coats. There are more hand signals given (five fingers straignt up means sell, tilted to the right means buy) than in your average, 9-inning baseball game.

The employees who stalk the trading floor are very secretive about what they do. Two young men representing high-powered conglomerates turn me down for

Andy Warhol is next on our agenda. Or rather the Warhol exhibit at the Art Institute of Chicago in Grant Park The exhibit, organized by the Museum of Modern Art in New York, ran through Aug. 13 in Chicago. After that, it headed across the Atlantic to London.

As we begin our glide through the more than 250 examples of Campbell's soup cans, Marilyn Monroes, purple cows and floating pillows, I debate the merits of Warhol's modern techniques with my photographer. I hold out for "groundbreaking art," while he maintains the "nothing more than popular garbage" view.

We emerge an hour or so later, calling a truce and Lunch is at the Billy Goat Tavern, under (yes, under) the street at 430 N. Michigan Ave. This is the place John Belushi and the rest of the old Saturday Nigh Live crew used as their inspiration for the "Cheesborger, Cheezborger, No Coke, Pepsi" sketch. One look and it's clear Belushi and company didn't have to change much for television.

The tavern is jammed at the noon hour and the pace is frenetic. People are gathered around the no-nonsense bar in one corner, while order takers call back to the kitchen from a horseshoe-shaped counter in the center.

We dine on (what else) cheezbo-er-uh-cheeseburgers, double patties served on a hard roll bun. They are, said owner Sam Sianis, the house specialty. Self-serve condiments are at the adjacent counter.

Sianis has owned the place for 19 years. He bought it from his uncle, who opened it back in 1934 after emigrating from Greece.

"He had a pet goat and that's how he named it," Sianis said, anticipating my question.

I ask whether he was upset about the place being the butt of a late-night television joke.

"No," he said, "I was actually flattered. And it hasn't been too bad for business either."

Appetites satisfied, we take a cab to 1616 N. Wells, the home of the Second City Theater.

And, he said, the store's "bargain basement" model is priced at $320.

My American Express card starts to tingle, but stays in the pocket.

Next on our agenda is the "Here's Chicago" exhibit. This show in the old pumping station on Michigan Avenue promises to give us a little bit of the town's history, specifically the Chicago Fire of 1906 and the 1920s Gangster era. No vacation is complete, I reason, without getting a little local history. After all, we could have gone to Somerset Mall, if all we wanted was an exotic shopping extravaganza.

THIS TURNED out to be a mistake. What we got was another hokey "multi-media" presentation and a separate tour through a room filled with manequins and a perky tour guide. All that for $4.75 a head.

Next time, I think I'll run to the library before heading out of town in order to satisfy my lust for vacation background material.

Before dinner, we decide to head over to Rush Street to check out the local bar scene. Only Rush Street, we discover, isn't the hot spot that all the tour books tout

Step back to colonial Mexico at San Miguel

By Iris Sanderson Jones contributing travel editor

Q: My wife has been trying to drag me to Mexico for a long time. I hate touristy beaches, so I won't go to places like Acapulco, but I told her I would consider it, if you could recommend a place where we can enjoy Mexican life without being overrun by American each lovers. Definitely, not Mexico City.

West Bloomfield

A: I don't have to think twice to answer that question! Fly into Mexico City and either rent a car or reserve a seat on one of the first-class buses — destination San Miguel de Allende. It is a two-hour drive northwest of Mexico City in the general direction of Guadalajara, but you won't find either sand or bikinis.

The whole town of San Miguel is a national historic monument, so designated to preserve its authentic co-ionial character. That is what makes San Miguel and the surrounding towns of Mexico's independence coun-try so attractive to the insiders who travel here.

You can live like a Spanish aristocract while enjoy-ing the artists and campesinos who are the heart and Boul of Mexico. There are no beaches and no high-rise sidels here, only flowered terraces overlooking cob-

That somebody was Ignacio Allende who held secret meetings in this house until the September day in 1810 when he rade out of town with his fellow rebells to begin this revolution that finally gained Mexico its freedom from Spain in 1821.

The town was renamed Sho Miguel de Allende. The mayor still shouts "Grito! (freedom)" from the balcony of the city hall across the treed plaza on Independence Day.

THERE ARE plazas like this all over colonial Mexico, created by Carlotta, wife of Emperor Maximillan, who converted all the old military marching grounds into treed plazas. On Sunday, everybody is here. Prehistoric Indians lived in this area, but it was Franciscan Eather Juan de San Miguel who organized them into villages and taught them the old European crafts after he arrived from Spain in 1830.

The Canal family came two centuries later; their estates on the edge of town are now the site of the Institute Allende, an important part of the art explo-sion which revitalized San Miguel for both artists and tourists after World War II.

The Institito, in an old converted hacienda, attracts artists and art students from throughout North America to both visual and performing arts classess. All classes are taught in English. More than 1,500 American and Canadian students attend. These artists sell their work side-by-side with the weavers, tinware artists and other craftsmen on Canal Street.

A SECOND well-known art center, the Centro Cultural Ignacio Ramirez, a branch of the Instituto de Bellas Artes of Mexico City, is in the old Convent of the; Concepcion and includes both contemporary art and a

None of the shops are open on Sunday, of course. On weekdays, the craft shops along Canal Street are busy and the market brings color and sound to the streets around the Church of San Francisco, but on Sunday the activity is in the plans and in favorite dining places like Posado San Francisco.

There are several wouderful hotels set in the homes of former Spanish aristograts. Ask your travel agent if the Cana de Sterra Novada is still there. You'll love the rooms in the main house or the small suites, with their own terraces, in the houses (owned by the hotel) across the street. The court reasoned that when a dangerous condition exists in the common areas of a building which tenants must necessarily use, the tenants can voice their complaints to the landlord.

The court went on to say that a landlord has a duty to investigate and to take avail-has a duty to investigate and to take available preventative measures when informed by his tenants that a possible dangerous condition exists in the common areas of the building, even though the landlords duty might be slight. In short, the courts of this state have held that an award of money damages for an assault can be had when it is determined by the trier of fact that the landlord knew or should have known of the dangerous propensities of persons entering

Q. We are sick and tired of paying city taxes for garbage removal and the like, and fail to get adequate services from the city at our condo. In there anything we can do about this injustice?

A. Some municipalities are more enlightened than others regarding the responsibilities and the attendant services which they provide to condo associations. I would recommend, that in your case, that you contact the supervisor or mayor of your municipality and invite him or her to meet with you with the board of director's of your association to discuss why you're not receiving the same services as other members of the community.

Assuming that you get a negative response, I believe that you should mobilize the community associations in your vicinity to bring political pressure upon the powers that be in your community regarding the services to which you believe your association are entitled. Also consider the prospect of commencing legal proceedings against the municipality or the basis that you are being dimined false and equal treatment in re-

This is a common problem among many associations and mobilization on the part of community associations is needed to correct this apparent injustice.

Q. Can you please explain the recent. Court of Appeals decision concerning size limitations on animals more clearly, as our condominium lawyer has been somewhat ambiguous in doing so.

A. A Macomb County Circuit judge ruled that an arbitrary size limitation on dogs was not a reasonable restriction. This desion was upheld by the Michigan Court of Appeals, which reasoned that the size of a dog does not necessarily have a relationship to the propriety of keeping the dog in a con-

The court further indicated that a total prohibition on dogs was probably permissible and that a small pit bull could be more dangerous that a large sheep dog. Accordingly, you should have reviewed the pet restrictions of your documents to insure they are in compliance with recent court rulings and are otherwise enforceable.

READERS ASK:

Q. We say getting a squeak from the steps going from our first floor to the second. A careful examination shows an up and down movement when someone stands on the front tread where it goes out a bit over the front freed where it goes out a bit over the classic will patting powdered graphite on that area wise the squeak?

A. Probably. But it will be only temporary. The loose tread should be fastened down by driving two or three nails into it neares the edge. The nails should be hammered in at an angle so they form a V in the wood. Be sure the nails go into the top of the riser, but also be careful they do not rolled the riser autiraly. Screws also can be miss the riser entirely. Screws also can be used for the repair, but they will have to be countersunk and the indentations plugged or filled. If the stairs are made of oak or similar hardwood, drill pilot holes for either the nails or the screws.

On the move Family health tips during relocation

HE KITCHEN is often called the "heart of the home," traditionally serving as a gathering place for families and friends. It's a special place that transforms daily to meet the disparate activities of a family. At one moment, the kitchen is a quiet spot where friends share dreams over warm coffee. Later in the day, the room is bustling with activity as family members recount the day's events while busily preparing the evening meal.

For most families, the kitchen also seconds as a work area where youngsters grudgingly complete their homework. Interestingly, studies indicate that a person's sense of smell is the sense most closely tied to memory; as a result, the kitchen frequently represents an emotional tie to the treasured aromas of one's

Of the estimated 47 million Americans who will move this year, many families will be temporarily thrown off balance when the security of their kitchen routine is disrupted. Thankfully, this stress is easily reduced if the family follows some practical guidelines when trans-planting the "heart" of their home.

Toni Lindenberger, a professional home economist and director of the Bette Malone Relocation Service for United Van Lines Inc. offers tips for moving food products and kitchen appliances and for settling into a new home. These guidelines are helpful whether the family is using the services of a professional mover or renting a trailer and moving it-

 To guard against damage that can be caused by combustion, leakniture polish or bleach in bottles that could leak, matches; food in glass jars. If it is absolutely essential to pack a liquid, such as a medical prescription, the lid or cap should be fastened tightly and taped. The container should then be placed in a tightly sealed plastic bag.

· Take only those items you are sure will travel well. Do not take anything perishable. Temperature extremes are harmful to canned goods. High temperatures increase the chance of spoilage and freezing temperatures may cause swelling, which, in turn, may rust the seams of a can. Storing canned goods in a cool, dry clean place is best, preferably with temperatures below 85 de-

· Be wary of badly dented or bulging cans since this may indicate the presence of botulism, a rare and often deadly food poisoning bacteria (Clostridium botulinum).

· Open boxes of dried or powdered foods such as rice, macaroni and cereals should be discarded cross-town move, though, boxes may be sealed with tape. Small containers of condiments, bouillon cubes, gelatin, etc., should be placed together in a small box before packing in a large carton. Be sure to cover holes of shaker tupe containers and seal with tape.

• Since spices are expensive, you can tape those which still have a tightly fitting cap. However, if the bottles or cans do not have a cap, it is best to discard the spice.

• If you are moving to a part of the country troubled by pests and insects, it is wise to have your new home treated by a pest service preferably before your arrival.

WHEN PREPARING KITCHEN appliances for a move, Lindenberger recommends thorough cleaning and drying of the products, ecspecially drying of the products, ecapecially the refrigerator, freezer and range. This is especially important if the appliance will be in storage for any length of time. The slightest bit of moisture in a warm, enclosed space is enough to cause the growth of mold and mildew with a resultant musty odor and stains difficult, if not impossible, to eradicate. Grease left on a range will turn rancid and gum-my, catch dirt and dust, and leave spots on any items that touch it.

Cleaning instructions for appliances are included in the owner's use-and-care manual which generally accompanies new appliances. If no manual is available, use a mild can make some sensible selections. detergent solution or a good commercial freshener, following the manufacturer's instruction for its use. Or use a solution of three tablespoons of baking soda dissolved in a quart of warm water to which one tablespoon of vinegar has been added. Do not use harsh abrasives that will scratch or mar porcelain finishes. A soft brush or vacuum cleaner will remove excess dust. Soft rags make excellent drying and polishing

In order to clean the kitchen range, remove the grids, grates, burner knobs, reflector pans, broiler pans, oven racks and other removable parts and clean them thoroughly. A degreaser (used according to the manufacturer's directions) and a stiff brush will do a good job of grease removal.

Steel wool and a wire brush are helpful in removing grease from the oven and broiler rack. While a wide variety of oven cleaner is available, an excessively greasy oven can be easily cleaner if one half-cup of ammonia in a sauce dish is placed in the closed oven overnight. Use a mild detergent or the baking soda-vinegar-water solution on the porcelain finish. Wipe out and dry the drawers and storage compartments, then replace the clean dry parts.

THE SAME CARE must be given to the cleaning of your refrigerator and freezer. According to Lindenberger, it's well worth a little extra time preparing your appliances for a move when you consider the monetary investment they represent. First, empty the appliance, then disconnect and defrost it. Once it has defrosted, remove all movable parts attention to cleaning cracks, crevices, drawer and shelf slides, door gaskets, drain tubes and all possible places in which food particles or spilled food may be trapped. Don't forget the evaporator pan. Rinse with warm water and dry. Wash and dry the outside as well. Dust the compressor unit. Some refrigerators have a cold water dispenser or an automatic icemaker: be sure the water reservoir is empty

After cleaning thoroughly and drying, leave the door wide open for at least 24 hours - longer if possible so the parts you can't reach will have a chance to dry. The invisible insulation holds moisture and dampness collects under the rubber gaskets on the doors. The open doors allow moisture to evaporate so the appliance will dry completely. Then replace the cleaned dry parts. Be sure the shelves are secure.

To keep the appliance fresh during a move, use a commercial freshner according to package direction or sprinkle the inside with baking soda. Upon arrival at destination, wash the freshner from the refrigerator or freezer with a damp cloth or sponge.

fresh and ready for use. When it is reconnected, let it cool before placing food inside. (If moved during cold weather, be sure to let your appliances warm up to room temperature before plugging them in. Plugging in a cold appliance could destroy

When organizing for a move, decide which kitchen items will be needed immediately upon arrival at your destination, then carefully pack them into a moving box and mark this box "load last." That way, this "survival" box will be unloaded first.

ONCE YOUR FAMILY has arrived at its new home, efforts must be made so the kitchen can again assume its position as the heart of your home. To facilitate the family's emotional transition, Lindenberger recommends creating some familiar aromas by warming bread in the oven or making a batch of popcorn. These two comforting fragrances will subconsciously ease some of the anytery of family marries.

Don't overlook the importance of proper nutrition during the first few days of a move. While fast foods may be convenient, they are high in sodium and fats and can make constructions and constructions. cranky children even more irritable. Cut back on sugar, cafflene and greasy snacks, instead providing bowls of nuts, fruit and raw vogetables for your family. If you are not up to preparing food, see if the supermarket in your new neighborhood has a salad har from which you

As another alternative to fast food, try a family restaurant or cafeteria that serves balanced meals with a minimum of fats and sugars. Careful meal, planning can soothe jangled nerves and give your family members the energy they need to combat move-related stress.

The stress associated with relocation is also reduced through excercise. Lindenberger suggests the family take a break from household chores in the evening and walk through the new neighborhood. Not only is this an ideal means of relaxation, but the walk also fosters family communication. It's a great opportunity to discuss the concerns of individual members, perhaps even solving potential prob-lems or alleviating the fears that are a natural part of change. Besides keeping the lines of coomunication open, famiy walks also help everyone become acquainted with the new neighborhood and possibly even make some new friends

United Van Lines' relocation service was created over 30 years ago to assist consumers with questions related to moving. It offers detailed information on more than 7,000 locations worldwide, booklets on a variety of moving-related topic and personal consultations with business executives concerned with the relocation of corporate personnel.

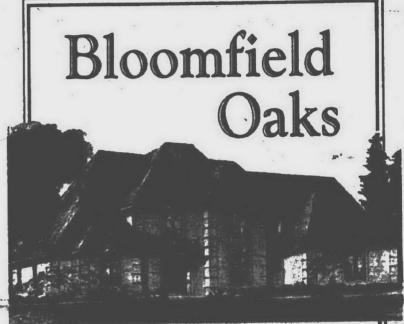

estimated 47 million Americans who will move this year, many families will be temporarily thrown off balance when the security of their kitchen routine is disrupted.

As a rule. freezers should be empty when moved. Here's why:

- Home freezers were not designed to be used as shipping containers. When put to such use, they can easily be damaged. - Frozen foods are.

Highly and here perishable. There is no way to ensure that freezer temperature will remain at a safe level during transit since moving vans have no electric power to keep freezers running. - The use of dry ice as a retrigerant in a freezer during transit is impractical.
