Slippery roads

No one was injured in this roll over accident on Ann Arbor Road, west of Beck in Plymouth Township on Thursday, but police advise motorists to drive carefully. Even though last week's snow came early, slippery roads will be a concern from now through next spring.

Board mixed n A and B

staff writer

Plymouth-Canton school board members are all over the board on school finance Proposals A and B. But there's one thing they agree on: Neither will do much for the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools.

Voters, who will decide the issue Nov. 7, can vote yes or no on both proposals. The one with the most yes votes, should both proposals be approved, will be enacted. But both plans could be defeated.

Proposal A would increase the sales tax a half-cent to 4.5 cents and earmark the new revenue for schools. It would generate an estimated $400 million statewide a year for education.

Proposal B would increase the sales tax to 6 cents and reduce property taxes. It would also set permanent school operating millages not subject to voter renewal and dedicate funds for local schools. It's estimated that B would generate $325 million a year for education.

SCHOOL BOARD Member Roland

Thomas doesn't like either proposal.

"It is bad legislation to put financing in the state constitution for anything," Thomas said. "That is something the state needs to remain flexible on. Legislators need to do their jobs. Their job is to appropriate funds for services the state provides.'

"The legislation in and of itself is bad legislation," he added. "It's a bad constitutional amendment. Once it's in there, Lansing will say we've refinanced schools, we've taken care of it, period."

The proposals' reliance on the sales tax also bothers Thomas.

"Who knows what the future holds? If we have high inflation with a recession and sales tax revenues go down, or don't grow as rapidly as the inflation rate does, the gap between what schools have available and what they must spend to maintain services is going to grow, placing a burden on local districts to provide funding.

It's election time in Plymouth. City voters will go to the polls Tuesday, Nov. 7, to choose four of seven candidates for the city com-

Among the seven are three incumbents: James Jabara, Robert Jones and Ralph (Jack) Kenyon.

The four challengers seeking seats on the commission are Gregory Green, Jean Morrow, Jerry Vorva and John Vos.

Interviews with each candidate were conducted last week at the Plymouth Observer office at 744 Wing in Plymouth. (Stories on each candidate drawn from those interviews are inside the paper.)

AMONG THE issues addressed by candidates were future planning and development in Plymouth, city backing of the ice festival and criteria for selecting a new city manager.

The candidates are scheduled to air their views on issues facing the commission at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the commission chambers at Plymouth City Hall, 210 S. Main.

This program, scheduled every election year in the city, is sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Northville, Plymouth, Canton and "It will open with each candidate giving up to a three-minute statement on issues related to their candidacy," said Kari Miller, voter service chairwoman with the league.

Cards will be passed out to audi-

Cathy Prince, a league member from Canton, will be moderator. .

He was on the bridge at 5:04 p.m. Tuesday when he felt his car moving violently to the left and right. He was traveling about 45 miles per hour at the time.

Moran was able to continue driving on the bridge. At first, he just thought the pavement was uneven, "which is something typical in Detroit. I didn't know what the heck was happening."

As he continued, traffic began to stop. At first, Moran thought it was just rush hour traffic. People began to get out of their cars on the doubledeck bridge that connects Oakland and San Francisco.

"I can make the (city) commission a better commission," said Gregory Green, a former planning commis-

"My style in a commission meeting is to point out the things that maybe people don't want to say," said Green, 40, a designer.

In seeking a new city manager early next year, "I don't think you're looking for someone who is a change from the last city manager," Green

As to the two planned five-story apartment buildings on Jack Wilcox's downtown property, "I found myself voting for projects like that," the rules, we have to play by the rules and treat him fairly," Green

OVERALL, THE city commission tends to react to problems in a "knee-jerk" fashion, Green said. To avoid this, the commission should get broad community input in developing a new master plan, he said. "The main thing for me is (that) you involve the citizens," he said. City officials could distribute questionnaires and encourage the formation of citizen committees to address planning, he said.

On the ice festival: "A lot of the input they get on the festival is from the business district, the people are not as enthusiastic," Green said.

Robert Jones

The new city manager should be "a little more aware of the needs of all of our people," Jones said.

Jabara cites his city track record

James Jabara served three of his 11 years on the city commission as ayor. Most of that service was in the '60s, when the commission approved the building of Tonquish Manor and paved many city streets. "I think my track record speaks for itself," Jahara said.

After an absence from city politics, he was recently reappointed to fill a vacancy.

"(In selecting a new city mana-ger), we should look for many of the qualities (former city manager) Hank Graper had," Jabara said. "And that's to be innovative, to be able to look at a problem and solve it, a team player.'

ONE PROBLEM facing the commission and its new city manager will be "this refuse thing," said Jabara, 60, a property manager and

Of the proposed Wilcox project, "I don't see anything wrong with the (five-story) apartments, depending on what they look like in finished form," Jabara said. "I think it's important that we have some living units downtown.'

He supports creating a new ma ter zoning plan.
"Our fringes of our central business district need some attention," to avoid development "on a hit-or-miss basis," he said.

THE CITY'S contribution of $20,000 in employee overtime services to the ice festival is not unreasonable, Jabara said.

"The ice festival and all the other activities we have in town keep Plymouth as it is."

Jones approves of zoning plan revision

Robert Jones is completing his first four-year term on the city commission. "I feel there's been some accomplishments," he said.

Jones, 62, is a retired executive with ANR Pipeline. It's not uncommon for him to question a bill approved by other commissioners, or to vote against an issue supported by other commissioners.

Jones recently voted against the city spending $20,000 in employee overtime to support the ice festival. "I think we're doing our fair share without contributing $20,000," he

On the proposed five-story apartments on Jack Wilcox's downtown property, Jones said, "I believe a project like this can be put in and can be accepted . . . it will bring some money into our town."

He approves of a revision of the city master zoning plan. "It makes it easier for developers, it makes them know what they can and can't do."

In seeking a new city manager, commissioners should hire a candidate with qualities of "honesty, moral and ethical integrity, someone who is service oriented, who realizes that we have 10,000 good customers. They should be cost conscious, an innovator, good planner, open commu-nicator, a good listener and a hands-

"I would like to see concentrated concern to the Old Village area," he said. There, residents "tend to be lower income. Certainly the community needs to accommodate them. I certainly wouldn't want to turn Old Village into a high-rent area," he

City contributions to the ice festival should not grow, Kenyon said. "It has certainly put Plymouth on the map," he said. "A lot of the residents see it as a big pain."

Kenyon said he also wants the recycling program to become more efRalph (Jack) Kenyon has served on the city commission for seven vears. "I was brought up to believe in public service and to be part of the solution instead of part of the problem," he said.

In hiring a new city manager, Kenyon said the commission should hire "somebody who will fit in with the community. This is a nice town and we need a nice city manager, one who can analyze needs and can

"I think Bill Graham (acting city manager) is aware of all our problems. I think he can take over successfully," said Morrow, who has collected 25 petition signatures supporting Graham.

A retired engineer, Morrow, 67, regularly attends commission meetings. He supports the construction of two planned five-story apartments on Jack Wilcox's downtown property. "I think it would be an asset for the community, it would complement the downtown."

On the issue of city financial aid to the ice festival, Morrow said, "We're already contributing personnel that would be participating, such as police. . . . Someone else should be involved financially."

In the next term, commissioners will likely address a new master zoning plan for the city.

"I wouldn't want to see anything (businesses) go farther down Ann Arbor Trail," Morrow said, adding that existing small businesses would suf-

Local expert backs repeal of inheritance tax

One of the state's leading fund-raisers, Dr. John Lore of Plymouth, told a state legislative committee that Michigan's "death tax" may be causing large numbers of retirees to take up residency in other states.

sented by estate attorneys, accountants and others who say that although our death tax may not be the only reason retirees leave, it can be the straw that breaks the camel's back," he said.

Lore, who raises money for private colleges, testified in Lansing before the House Taxation Committee in support of Senate Bill 1. It would repeal the Michigan inheritance tax and change Michigan to a federal "pick-up tax" system, which is in place in 29 states.

He said that of the $104 billion in private charitable contributions donated last year, more than 90 percent ($93.5 billion) comes from private, personal contributions:

State treasurer Robert Bowman opposes the bill because of the potential revenue loss. The bill has sailed twice through the Republican-run state Senate but faces tougher going in the Democratic-led House.

Recycling: it's the way

We recently received a brochure on the Towerhip about recycling, we been hearing from friends and family how important recycling is, so we decided it was a good idea to

We began to save those things the ire talked about. After three weeks our garage was bulging and we needed to get rid of our collec-tion. Saturday morning I began my trip to the place listed on the bro-chure with stuff loaded in my trunk. The map on the brochure looked like Lilley Road to VanBorn was the best route. Since we have just recently moved to this area from Warren, I didn't realize that Lilley turns to dirt road soon after Cherry Hill.

Finally reaching VanBorn, I turned left and traveled beyond Haggerty. Nowhere did I see a recycling center. Eventually, I turned around and by luck found the dump. However, I also found that the information in the brochure was wrong. What they wanted and what I had prepared were two different things.

There is a definite need for us to begin to respect our environment. In er to do this we must begin to recycle. But you must make this a great deal more convenient to residents for any environmental effect

While we were visiting our son in Long Branch, N.J., this summer, our son indicated that "Tuesday is environment day." All newspapers, cans, glass and plastic bottles are picked up (having been separated

And, in essence, that is what I'm writing about.

My plea is for you to consider recycling areas (other than just the VanBorn dump) where people will be more apt to bring their recyclables which can then be hauled to the Van-Born dump. Or we could have curbside pickups, as in Long Branch, N.J., and Evansville, Ind. Clearly, there has to be a better way than what is now in effect in Canton.

Upholstering column was lean on facts

In the Oct. 5 Creative Living section of the Observer & Eccentric an article appeared by Eve Garvin to which I take certain exceptions.

First of all, if the intent of the article was to assist readers in choosing between re-upholstering and buying new, as the headline and first paragraph suggest, then this article fell way short. There were inaccuracies and the last part of the story did nothing but describe her own living room and how "happy it looks."

As a professional upholsterer and businessman I have the same questions asked of me several times a day regarding the furniture dilemma. My response to customers is, if the piece is solidly built, comfortable and the style they like, it is wiser to re-upholster than to buy

The article failed to point out the advantages of owning a solidly built piece. It also failed to point out that most furniture built today is poorly made and that new sofas range in price from $500 to $5,000 in retail stores. There must be some differences. Those differences are mainly in the quality of fabric and the quality of the frame, which would include the springing and the padding.

The frame on most sofas built 25 years ago would compare with the middle to higher priced pieces of to-

The article did not mention that most upholstery shops carry a very wide range of fabrics from which to choose. This offers the customer much more choice than most furniture stores.

The article correctly stated that choosing an upholsterer is an important factor. But it failed to point out ways to do this. The best and safest way is by the word of friends whenever possible. Visiting the shop and seeing the work itself is the next best way. References are good but not 100 percent fool proof. But pulling a name out of a hat is the worst wav. The customer would be welladvised to pay a little more for better workmanship. We offer a lifetime warranty on all our our workmanship at no extra

I have spent many hours trying to convince people of these facts and I feel to have these hours wasted with an inaccurately written paragraph is unfair to the upholstering industry and unfair to the many readers who trust your paper.

Pro-choicers fool selves

To the editor:

The "pro-choice" column by Judith Berne in the Sept. 28 Observer & Eccentric was misleading and flawed by illogical rationalizations.

Those who pretend that abortion is anything but murder are simply de-luding themselves in order to justify their self-centered lifestyles. They value personal convenience more than life.

Ms. Berne discussed the pro-abortion rally she attended at Lansing. She admired her fellow pro-abortionists who conducted themselves with "quiet sincerity." Would these same people retain this dignified composure if they were asked to witness the bloody destruction of human life they so proudly support?

Ms, Berne found grandmothers at her rally (they must have been prolife once in their lifetime) and even a token "Catholic." The doctrine of the Catholic Church is very clear regarding the grievous sin of abortion and the sanctity of life. In the 1989 Respect Life Brochure the National Conference of Catholic Bishops Responsibility is more than just duty. It's the ability to respond to need. To know that every person has a right to life that precedes and surpasses all other rights, a right upon which all other rights rest. To be willing to protect that right at the risk of inconvenience or loss. Responsibility challenges each of us. It preserves our past and guarantees our future. It is the essence of

Fewer and fewer pro-abortionists are claiming that life begins at a time other then conception. With the mounting scientific evidence of this fact, they now simply deny the morality of protecting that human life, Pro-abortionists nover state they personally should have been aborted

 I've stood (and sat) next to many a committed pro-lifer at our rallies. Some of the strongest advocates for life are women who have had abortions. They know that the panaces promised by pro-choicers is a lie. The pain and emptiness they experienced after they aborted their child is an anguish they wish to spare other women. What a corrupt "billof-goods" pro-abortionists try to sell women — the misconception that if a woman is not free to choose to kill her unborn child she loses her freedom and worth

We pro-lifers all believe in choice. Choice, however, must take place much earlier than "pro-choicers" get around to making it. The choice is made when a man and woman decide to allow life to begin. As a high school student I was often reminded of my responsibility to "choose" a chaste life. What an antiquated word "chaste" is today. We are afraid to challenge our young people to be morally responsible for their ac-

William Pierce, president of the National Committee for Adoption, recently reported that . . . "as many as one million American couples are unable to have children of their own. Adoptions from abroad have nearly doubled." Many of our American children previously available for adoption are now being aborted.

Pro-choice Reps. Maxine Berman and Shirley Johnson can be sure they do not have my vote. I demand my representatives be problem solvers and not succumb to illusionary "solutions" that involve the destruction of our youngest citizens. Our representatives should reflect on where they would be if their mothers had chosen convenience. Yes, legislators: Vote for life or look for work.

Arthritis is not the only reason for pain in the bones and joints. For instance, swelling of the ankies usually results from poor circulation of the leg veins. And numbness and burning of the feet comes from an irritation within nerve endings rather than as an effect of ankle or foot arthritis. The period of the day that the foot or ankle condition worsens, provides a clue to the cause of the discomfort. Arthritis distress increases with walking and lessens when you are resting. The same holds true for problems in arterial circulation of the blood. Thus, impairment of the leg due to narrowed arteries, like arthritis, improves with rest.

In contrast, nerve ending conditions become worse at night. The reason is that during the day, other input reaches the brain and blocks attention on disordered sensation. At night these stimuli decrease, and the brain has no distractions from the foot discomfort.

Compression of the sciatic nerve may cause a similar burning in the foot, but the pattern of numbness is sufficiently different to permit a distinction

Hooked on smoked fish

Call of the Wild

special writer

Maybe it's the call of the wild. Do you crave tender, moist chunks of smoked rainbow trout? Have you ever wanted to try smoked partridge, goose, pheasant or duck?

The Green River Specialty Foods of Royal Oak caters to customers who are hooked on meat and fish that have been soaked in a sweet brine and then hickory-smoked for several hours.

The shop, on North Woodward Avenue near Normandy, is a subsidiary of the well-known Green River Trout Farm of Mancelona, where 5,000 rainbow trout are harvested annually from spring-fed ponds. The store sells both fresh rainbow trout and trout smoked on the premises, as well as other smoked foods.

clean water and fresh fish," said Frank Marra of Bloomfield Hills, a company vice president. The Royal Oak store, which opened almost one year ago, obtains its rainbow trout from the Mancelona farm. The shop also smokes a variety of other fish, seafood and fowl such as turkey, quail and cornish hens. Many of the products come from Michigan sources.

"The only fresh fish we sell are the ones we raise on our farm," said Marra, 62, who bought into the business around 18 months ago. A retired president of a plastics tooling firm. Marra also is an international business consultant and board member of several corporations.

According to Marra, many customers are people who have developed a taste for trout or whitefish while vacationing in northern Michi-

The Green River Trout Farm, established almost 25 years ago, was for many years operated by the Weber family. The company has established a reputation for quality and consistency.

The farm is located below the headwaters of the spring-fed Green River north of Mancelona, not far from tourist-rich Petoskey and Charlevoix. Water from the river is diverted into several ponds, where rainbow trout are segregated according to size. The trout, which come from a hatchery in northern Michigan, are fed high-protein fish meal and remain in the ponds for around 18 months, Marra said.

"It's the largest trout pound in Michigan," Marra said. Visitors may fish from the ponds and are charged only for the fish they catch.

When a trout is between 8-12 ounces - the size preferred by many restaurants - it is ready to be harvested. The company supplies such prestigious restaurants as the Tapawingo and Rowe Inn of northern Michigan, the Whitney in Detroit, Rik's in Birmingham and Les Auteurs in Royal Oak.

Ken Weber developed the sweet, molasses-based soak and slow-smoking technique that gives Green River smoked products their distinctive taste. The Webers are no longer affiliated with the business.

The Royal Oak shop is redolent with the aroma of hickory flavor which emanates from the computercontrolled smoking oven. Food processor Jim Sheldon, 21, of Ferndale, was trained in the Weber method.

The technique calls for the meat or fish to be soaked overnight in sweet brine. Once it goes into the oven it is smoked for several hours, with temperature and humidity carefully controlled to ensure tend-

Bagelmania: not just breakfast food

special writer

The word is out. There's more to bagels than cream cheese. Traditionally considered a breakfast bread, bagels have come out of the oven and onto the table for lunch, dinner and anytime in between. "We get a lot of traffic in the afternoon," said Corrie Schmidt, owner of The Bagel Factory in Southfield. "People take them home for dinner. For example, we have a garlic bagel that goes well with spaghetti, and people use them instead of bread."

Bagels are big business in the Detroit area today, with numerous shops selling thousands of dozens each week. Metropolitan bageiries have been baking bagels for nearly 70 years, but the history of the hard roll goes back to the 1600s. According to legend, the original bagel took shape as a gesture of appreciation by a Jewish baker in Vienna, Austria. The baker thanked the King of Poland for fending off Turkish invaders into Austria by making him a special haird roll in the shape of a "beugal," a riding stirrup. The roll represented the king's favorite sport, and gave the bagel its characteristic shape.

BAGELS WERE a big hit in Poland and Russia, where they were said to bring good fortune and have magical powers. Jewish immigrants brought them to the United States, forming the Bagel Bakers Local No. 338 in New York by 1915.

In those days, bagel baking was back-breaking work for the 300 craftsmen who labored in 36 union shops in New York City and New Jersey. They typically worked in three-man teams, earning about 19 cents each for a box of 64 bagels.

The rolls became easier and more profitable to produce when bagelmaking machines were introduced in the early 1960s. However, the art of making bagels remains an exacting practice

We have a supervisor that used his expertise to talk new bakers through the process," Schmidt said.
"It's a trial-and-error process at first, so our bakers are supervised for the first month."

The uniquely chewy texture of bagels results from "kettling," or boiling the circles of dough before they are baked. The boiling gives bagels their shiny crust and since some of the water is absorbed into the roll, the interior is tender and While all bagels share the trade mark texture, they come in a number of flavors. Traditional plain bagels now share shelf space with egg, salt, onion, cinnamon-raisin, pumpernickel, rye, whole wheat, garlic, cheese, blueberry and even oatbran varieties.

Bagels are a healthy alternative to chips or sweet snacks, and a betted breakfast choice than doughnuts or

"Doughnuts are laden with oils, cholesterol and sugar," Goldsmith said. "Bagels are becoming more popular with people who are conscious of what they're putting into their bodies."

Fruited corn bread

Fruited corn breed stuffing, a contemporary classic, streamlines preparation by skipping the step of baking corn bread. Easily assembled and baked in the oven or microwave oven, the fuse-free dressing relies on Quaker Corn Meal. Mixed dried fruit and orange flavored liqueur add festive flavor and make the dressing ideal accompaniment for poultry or pork.

baking process. Tom and Marilyn Bagel, authors of "The Bagel's Bagel Book," report weather conditions can even affect the bagel's outcome, with profession al bagel bakers adjusting their ingredients and timing to a dry or

"It's different from making bread or pizza at home - you need time and patience," said Corrie Schmidt, owner of the Bagel Factory in South-"You need to understand proofing cooking challenge, the "Joy of Cooking" cookbook includes this recipe for egg bagels: BAGELS:

Combine: 1 cup scalded milk ¼ cup butter 1 tablespoon sugar

When this mixture is 105 - 115 degrees, add and dissolve for 3 min-

1 package active dry yeast Blend in: 1 to 2 eggs

3 % cups sifted all-purpose flour

Knead this soft dough about 10 minutes, adding more flour if necessary to make it firm enough to handie. Let rise, covered, in a greased bowl until doubled in bulk. Punch down and divide into 18 equal pieces. Roll each piece into a rope about 7 inches long and tapered at the ends. Wet the ends to help seal. Form into doughnut-shaped rings. Let rise, covered, on a floured board about 15 minutes. To help firm the dough, you can chill it 2 hours. Drop rings, one at a time, into a solution of:

2 quarts almost boiling water 1 tablespoon sugar

As the bagels surface, turn them over and cook about 3 minutes longer. Skim out and place on an ungreased baking sheet. Coat with: Beaten egg white

Face the southwest about 45 minutes after sunset, on Nov. 1, and you'll see a very nice alignment of objects. Start with the waxing (growing) crescent moon. Below and to the west (right) of the moon is the star Antares (an TAR ees.) the "heart" of Scorpius. It's only a few degrees above the horizon and a challenge to see in the glow of evening twilight.

VERY EASY to see, above and to the south (left) of the moon, is the brilliant planet Venus. Draw a line from the moon through Venus, and you'll come to Saturn, the planet with the beautiful ring system. Watch the moon move past both these planets during the next two evenings. Also watch Venus pass Saiurn during the next few weeks.

The S. Taurid (TORE id) meteor shower is at it's maximum in the pre hours of November 2. Named for the constellation of Taurus, from which the "falling stars" appear to radiate, this meteor shower is not very im-

Notice the moon's position after sunset on the 4th. It is now past Saturn and the crescent is noticeably

First Quarter Moon is at 9:11 a.m. on Nov. 6. The moon is one-quarter of its way around the earth. If you have a telescope, look at Venus tonight before the sky gets too dark. You may be surprised to see that it looks like the first quarter moon as Venus goes through phases, like our moon, as it orbits the sun. As different portions of Venus are illuminated by the sun, we see different "phases." Because Venus appears so bright, it's best to observe it in partial twilight when there is less contrast between a dark sky and the brilliant planet.

PLUTO IS in conjunction with the sun on the 7th. It is behind the sun, as seen from the earth. Even when it isn't hiding behind the sun, Pluto is not an object you will see in the sky. Venus passes Uranus on the eve-

Use your binoculars and look three and one-quarter degrees (about seven full moon diameters) to the north (upper right) of Venus. Try not to look directly at Venus; its brightness will dazzle your eyes and you'll have difficulty making out Uranus. Uranus will have a faint greenish color.

Venus is at maximum elongation (greatest apparent distance) from the sun on the 8th. Venus is 47 degrees east (left) of the sun and dominates the evening sky.

Mercury is at superior conjunction with the sun on the 10th. Mercury is behind the sun, and is not visible. Don't worry about a collision occur-ing between Mercury and Pluto, which is also "behind" the sun. Those two planets are billions of miles apart, orbiting at different distances

Saturn will pass one-half of a degree (one moon diameter) south of Neptune in the evening of Nov. 11. Use a telescope and look to the morth (right) of Sabura. This is the third and final conjunction of a triple conjunc-tion that began is March this year. These two planets will not have an-other conjunction until 2020?

PULL MOON is at 12:51 a.m. on Nov. 13. The moon is fully lighted by the sun. It will have risen at sunset, be visible all night, and will set at northeast, on the evening of the 13th. Above the moon and to the right is the Pleiades (PLEE a does) star cluster. The Pleiades marks the shoulder of Taurus the bull and is a beautiful sight in binoculars.

Venus passes four degrees south of Saturn on the evening of the 15th. This is the first pass of a triple con-junction that will conclude next

The moon is two degrees to the west (right) of Jupiter before dawn on the 16th. Jupiter is the 4th brightest object in the sky. Only the sun, the moon and Venus are brighter.

Chiefs move closer to division crown

staff writer

After seeing his team's two leading scorers foul out, Plymouth Canton coach Bob Blohm certainly hoped to avoid another overtime game with Walled Lake Western.

Canton managed to hold off the host Warriors and virtually cinch its fifth straight Western Division championship in girls basketball Thursday

The Chiefs, 7-0 in the division and 12-2 overall, have a two-game lead over Livonia Franklin with three games remaining and a three-game margin over Western, 4-3 and 8-6.

Canton, the defending Western Lakes Activities Association champ, plays Northville and Farmington Hills Harrison this week and, realistically. should clinch the title before it meets Franklin again on Tuesday, Oct. 31.

This was a challenge week for us, and we accepted it," Blohm said. "We came in here after an emotional game with a big rival (Plymouth Salem) and got it done.

"NOT EVERY game is going to be picture perfect, but if the kids are working hard that's all you

The main reason Canton didn't handle the Warriors with textbook precision was due largely to its precarious foul situation, which saw center Susan Ferko depart with 3:15 to play and forward Stacey Thompson a minute later.

Ferko, who still scored a game-high 15 points, also missed most of the third quarter after picking up her fourth foul with 61/2 minutes left in it.

That was an invitation for Western to make a comeback as it did on Sept. 26 when it lost 53-49 in overtime after trailing by 16 points early in the Ferko had 30 points in that game and Thompson 17, accounting for all but six of the team total. If Western coach Bill St. John had known Ferko would get half that number Thursday, he undoubtedly would have predicted a victory for the War-

"The other kids hurt us tonight," St. John said 'Our goal was to hold Ferko and Thompson under their averages and rebound when they missed, but they had a lot of balance tonight."

THOMPSON HAD 10 points, but Jennie Clark (7) and Mary Barna (6) combined for an additional 13 and Christyn Halliday and Jenny Russell chipped in four apiece.

Holly Miller and April Blanton led the Warriors with 11 and 10 points, respectively. Laura Call added seven and Marsha Kozmatka five.

Canton had a 23-15 lead when Ferko sat down in the third period, but her teammates managed to extend the margin to 31-19 before Western scored the last seven points of the quarter.

'When Ferko went out, we wanted to pick them up full court," St. John said, adding it was too difficult to play that aggressively and try to stop Ferko 1-on-1 at the other end. "When she went out, we picked up the tempo, but their kids held

Salem preps for showdown

Plymouth Salem picked up momentum Thursday as it heads toward a girls basketball showdown with division-leading North Farmington. The Rocks smashed visiting Walled Lake Central 45-30 to remain one game behind North in the Lakes Division. The Raiders, who won the first meeting 31-20, are 7-0 after beating Livonia Stevenson 41-36. The rematch will be played Tuesday at North Farmington. Salem is 6-1 in the division and 7-7 overall. The Vikings slipped to 2-5 and 4-10. Senior center Wendy Bailey led the Rocks with a game-high 18 points coming off the bench.

Freshman forward Yolanda Jackson added nine points and 10 rebounds for the winners. Maria Michela led Central with 11 points.

The Rocks, who started three sophomores and two freshmen, converted 11 of 22 free throws, the Vikings eight of 16.

Chiefs 7-1 after beating Raiders

By Dan O'Meara staff writer

North Farmington was playing for pride, but Plymouth Canton had something more tangible riding on the outcome of Saturday's football

The Chiefs are in the running for their first-ever appearance in postseason play, and they kept those hopes afloat with a 20-13 victory at North.

Canton plays arch-rival Plymouth Salem in the season finale Friday night, and the winner most likely will qualify for the Class A playoffs the following week. Both are 7-1.

'What more could you want in a game?" Canton coach Bob Khoenle said. "It's all on the table. Who's going to get it?'

Khoenle added that the Chiefs will have to play better than they did Saturday when their errors - both teams had 80 yards in penalties contributed to North's only scoring drive and hurt their offensive effort.

THE RAIDERS, 5-3, made their share of mistakes, too, and Canton turned one of three North fumbles into the game-winning touchdown early in the fourth quarter.

North, leading 10-7, had the ball at its 20-yard line after Canton's Mike Krejcar missed a potential gametying field goal from 31 yards.

Quarterback Eric Detter dropped to pass but had the ball knocked loose by Canton linebacker Corey Johnson, who was rushing from the blind side. The ball fell into the arms of Brian Bartlett, the front-side end, who carried it to the 4 er on a 3-yard run to make it 14-10 with Krejcar's extra-point kick. "I had TD on my mind," Bartlett said. "I thought the 5-yard line was the goal line. I just had to get the "We got some big breaks, but that's all part of the game," Khoenle said. "They made 'em and we took advantage of them. I thought we came out awful flat today, but we hung in there."

THE CHIEFS stopped a North drive on its next possession and forced the Raiders to settle for a Mike Cowen field goal for the second 58. Wukie was 0-of-5 passing.

that's all there is to it."

Burlison said.

Salem certainly had enough to do the job.

Rocks rebound

The question Friday night was not whether Plymouth Salem was a better

That much was assumed since the Rocks, with a superior record, had already beaten Northville 14-0 earlier in the season. The real question concerned Salem's resiliency in the wake of its last-second loss to Westland John

The Rocks responded in the affirmative - on both counts, for that matter - as they pounded the Mustangs 35-8 at Centennial Educational Park and

"We talked about that all week," Salem tri-captain and center Casey Nichols said. "We wanted to avenge that loss, and we have a very good chance of going to state if we win our last two games. We knew what had to be done;

Nichols and linebackers Steve and Brian Burlison admitted the Rocks

"THAT WASN'T hard at all," said Nichols of the team's ability to get up emotionally to play the 2-6 Mustangs. "We call it "Taking care of business."

"We didn't have as much (intensity), but we came out ready to play," Steve time. Cowen, who booted a 31-yarder in the first half for North's first points, connected from 34 yards to bring the Raiders within 14-13.

Canton, however, responded with a victory-clinching drive, which was greatly helped by a North face-mask penalty. The Chiefs had already marched 46 yards when the infraction put the ball on the Raider 19.

On first down, fullback Chris James dashed up the middle for his second TD run, the Chiefs going up 20-13 with 4:02 remaining after Karl Wukie's conversion pass was deflect-

"We didn't play very good defense today for some reason," North coach Jim O'Leary said. "We gave up some big plays that we haven't all year.

"The first (Canton) TD was basically a dive play, and the linebacker didn't get there to cover it."

The second time Canton had the ball - again on first down - James burst through the middle for a 63yard run and a 7-0 lead

THE TEAMS exchanged five punts and managed one first down between them before the Raiders scored their only TD just before half-

North started at the Canton 35 following a late hit on the punt, and two offside penalties also helped. Detter, making his first start at quarterback, scored with 41 seconds left on a 1-yard sneak.

O'Leary decided Detter, who had never played football until this year but is the better passer, was ready to play quarterback and moved Jon Kraus, a hard-nosed runner, to tail-

Detter was 4-of-12 passing for 90 yards, and Kraus carried the ball 28 times for 90 yards.

"I think it was the right decision," O'Leary said. "Jon was in the unfortunate situation of fumbling a couple times, but he still ran the ball well."

For the Chiefs, James rushed 10 times for 93 yards and Riggs added

The boys and girls teams from Plymouth Canton and the Plymouth Salem boys squad captured division championships. Furthermore, the Canton teams completed unbeaten, 6-0 dual-meet sea-and ended up 5-0 in the division. Canton took forfeit wins from Farmington Hills Harrison, and the Rocks slammed host Westland John Glenn

The Canton girls, who won their fourth straight Western Division crown, were led by senior Lori Penland, who was first with a 23:10 time at Cass

"IT'S ALWAYS our No. 1 goal to win the dual-meet championship," Canton girls coach George Przygodski said, "and I'm proud of this group of seniors, that they were able to keep up the tradition of the program.

The Chiefs and the Salem boys, who ran at Central City Park in Westland, had to contend with cold weather and sloppy course conditions due to Thursday's snowfall.

The course was in terrible condition, being covered with snow and mud," Przygodski said. "There was no traction; everyone was sliding around." Following Penland, the order of finish for the Canton girls was Kim Rice (23:18), Amy Smith (24:00), Anne Dibble (24:09), Marisa Dersey (24:10), Casqlyn Way (24:10) and Kim Gudeth (24:12). Harrison didn't have any runners.

THE SALEM boys did much the same, taking the first eight places. Dave Hamway paced the Rocks with a winning time of 17:42 and was followed by John Thomas (17:58), Brian Uryga (18:01), Mike Patterson (18:12), Samir Bhavsar (18:16), Andy Hellmers (18:20), Steve Boudreau (18:23) and Todd Cime (18:33). Gienn's Jason Nowicki was ninth (18:38).

All three teams will contend for Western Lakes Activities Ass alps Wednesday in the annual league meets, beginning at 4 p.m.

Any drama associated with the race for the Western Division swim title in the Western Lakes Activities Association has already dried up — and two dual meets still remain.

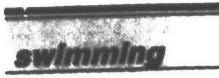

Seems the two-tiefed division — half the teams are powerful, the rest are lacking - had the toughest of the dual meets scheduled for the first half of the season.

And since the three top teams — Plymouth Canton, Northville and Livonia Churchill — have already swum each other, with each recording a win and a loss, little more can be determined until the WLAA finals next month.

"What's that old saying?" asked Canton coach Hooker Wellman. "'A tie is like kissing your sister.' This is worse than that. This is like kissing your sister and a few of your cousins."

Wellman wasn't happy — can you tell? — with Canton's 50-33 loss at Northville Thursday. The defeat left Canton, Northville and Churchill with 2-1 division marks. And since all three have only meets against the weakest of the division's teams ing, it is almost certain they will finish their dual seasons tied and as co-champs.

"I FIGURED we'd get beat," Wellman said of Thursday's meet at Northville. "We're a depth team and they have that five-lane pool (instead of

Which will give the Chiefs their first divisional title in girls swimming of any proportion since '84. All Canton must do is defeat Livonia Franklin and Farmington Harrison.

AGAINST NORTHVILLE, only two Chiefs won events. Nicole Drake excelled with victories in the 200-yard (2:01.62) and 500-yard (5:18.50) freestyle, and Cassie Cummins captured the 100 back-

Canton is 6-2 overall. PLYMOUTH SALEM was overmatched in its dual meet with WLAA Lakes Division rival North Farmington, ranked third in Class A by the girls swim coaches association, losing 102-70 at Salem.

The Rocks, now 3-4 in duals, had just two firstlace finishes. Jennifer Exzo won the diving (199.60 points) and Cheri Vincent was best in the 100-yard backstroke (1:05.24).

Salem's team of Vincent, Kristen Stackpoole, Andrea Alex and Candi Bosse finished second in the 200 medley relay in 1:57.90, a new Salem team record and a state qualifying cut.

North, 6-0 in dual meets, had three doublewinners: Karrie Kranz in the 100 (55.96) and 200 (2:01.03) free; Kerry Doran in the 200 individual medley (2:17.89) and 500 free (5:27.77); and Christie Duthie in the 50 free (25.84) and 100 butterfly

The match, playing under brutally cold and windy conditions, ended after 80 minutes of regulation play. WLAA rules stipulated there would be no overtime and no shootout to break the tie, so the teams left the field as co-champions.

Stevenson, the defending state Class A champs, finished with a 11-2-2 overall record.

Churchill, which allowed its first goal since Labor Day weekend in the Centerville, Ohio Tournament, ended the regular season at 13-0-1.

'We feel like a co-champ," said Stevenson coach Pete Scerri. "I'm prand of this team. This is a feat for us because we scored a goal and tied the No. 1 team."

For the second time in less than a week, the Plymouth Salem and Plymouth Canton soccer teams will oppose each other, but the second meeting today is certainly of more importance.

The teams play at 7 p.m. in the first round of the Class A district tournament at Centennial Educational Park.

The winner faces the Brighton-South Lyon survivor in the semifinals at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday on the opponent's field. The championship game will be played at 11 a.m. Saturday at Ypsilanti High School.

We're not taking them lightly," Salem coach Ken Johnson said. The Rocks have beaten Canton twice this year, including a 4-1 victory Wednesday in the Western Lakes Activities Association crossover game. "We are going to give it everything. It's tough being so close in distance. A lot of the players know each other and want to do well." Salem finished the regular season 12-3-1 after Jeff Gold scored twice to help beat the Chiefs last week. Gold now has a team-leading 22 goals for the season.

Andy Cosenza and Matt Gold scored the other goals. Cosenza also had two assists, Matt Gold one.

"When you have a kid like (point guard) Jenny Russell on the floor, you're not going to make many runs at that team. She's too good."

After treading water in the third, Canton rebounded in the finale but not before the Warriors made it 33-30 on baskets by Kozmatka and Blanton. Ferko had seven points in the fourth quarter before fouling out.

THE CHIEFS led 44-34 when Thompson left the game. But, after free throws by Miller and Blanton pulled Western within eight, Canton missed three straight 1-and-1s and five of six free throws during a 1 1/2 -minute span.

Western's own missed opportunities from the floor threw cold water on its hopes of capitalizing and making a last-minute run.

"I was real concerned (when Ferko got her fourth foul), because Western has decent size and rebounding plays a big role," Blohm said. "I was not as concerned about the offense as I was the defensive rebounding.

One key to our game is taking away second shots. "Our goal with under three minutes, was to use as much time as possible," he added. "If we get a layup, we'll take it, but otherwise we wanted to widen the floor and go to the free-throw line."

The Warriors had to wonder what might have been, too, They had a disastrous first quarter is which they made 12 turnovers and still only trailed 8-2. Canton then stretched its lead to 17-7 on Barna's three-point play and opened up a 23-11 halftime differ-

"I DON'T understand the traveling violations," St. John said. "We haven't had those all year, but it's something you have to play over.

"We felt, if we could hold them to 46-47 points, it would be a ballgame, but a few shots we needed didn't fall and that was the difference."

Considering its foul situation, turnovers (six in the first quarter) and general mistakes, the Chiefs focused on their objective with a Bulldog-like attitude, accord-

"That's a part of the game you have to deal with, and that's a sign of a champion, I think," he said.

"Friday we'll have that intensity," Brian Burlison said. "We'll be sticking BOYD PROMOTED Friday.'

The Rocks play arch-rival Plymouth Canton this week, and Salem wants to avenge last year's loss to the Chiefs. Furthermore, the winner could well qualify for the state playoffs.

Salem coach Tom Moshimer and the senior trio said that possibility helped the Rocks rebound from the Glenn defeat.

"Sure it did; it did me," Moshimer said. "We don't have any (league) championship to shoot for. We may not make it, but we're going to play like hell

The Rocks let everyone know they weren't about to go in the tank Friday, driving for a touchdown on their first possession and leading 21-0 at halftime. Salem didn't have to punt until 1:31 remained in the third quarter, and the score by then was 35-0.

RYAN JOHNSON scored on runs of 13 and 2 yards, and Pat Bowie's 4varder accounted for the first-half scoring. Bowie, who had 139 yards on 13 carries, darted 48 yards up the middle, breaking a couple arm tackles, to score on Salem's first possession of the second half. The game was over when Northville fumbled on its next series and Johnson rambled 32 yards after scooping up the loose ball. A hard hit by Salem's Chad Johnson caused Jamey Miller to fumble after a pass recention. "I expected us to be flat," Moshimer said. "The kids played their hearts out two weeks in a row. Offensively, I thought we moved the ball real well and executed tonight. "We were not as intense as we have been defensively, and I can understand that. You can't fly after people week after week, and we had to play two tremendous ballgames. I was just a little disappointed they moved the ball

Salem, in winning seven games for the first time since 1983, had 246 rushing yards and a 254-230 advantage in total yardage.

Rob Kowalski, who left the game early in the third quarter after being sacked and suffering a bruised shoulder, was 1-of-3 passing. Steve Burlison rushed for 52 yards, Kowalski 45 and Ryan Johnson 30. Scott Rodgers kicked five extra points for the Rocks.

When some people get old, their family is the first thing to go.

Over 40 percent of the people over 64 years old in this country live alone. By the year 2000 their number will have doubled. Many are poor. Most are widowed. And when they need care, often there's no one to turn to.

Your donation to the United Way Torch Drive supports 153 agencies in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties like the Walter P. Reuther-Senior Center and Adult Well-Being Services. Plus, you'll be helping other agencies that feed the hungry, counsel troubled youth and conduct medical research.

Please, think about how much your contribution does and how much more there is to be done.

And this year, give even more to the United Way Torch Drive. Because old age is no time to be left alone.

Give, for all the good you can do.

Detroit has a reputation as a pretty tough city. And this weekend, it's a safe bet that it will be the toughest in the world.

The 1989 North American Karate Championships will be at Cobo Arena Saturday and the baddest dude in the city will be there. Is he a 6-8, 300-pound Joe Palooka? Naw, just 5-7, 160-pound Willie Adams.

Adams, you see, is and eighth degree black belt, chief instructor at the Southfield Martial Arts Institute and Tournament chairman of this weekend's contest.

Adams has mastered the control over his mind and body to a point that borders on something supernatural. And the key to his mastery is just that . . "key power."

"Key power comes from deep inside," said Adams, who has been practicing the Isshin-Ryu style of karate for some 26 years. "It is the ability to ignite your adrenalin resources when you need to . . . It's stronger than anything in this world."

It's also mysterious.

A bit of Paradise in the U.P.

By Iris Sanderson Jones contributing travel editor

I am sitting at breakfast at the Little Falls Restaurant, looking down the road into Paradise. The only time I ever hear of this little town is when a television weathercaster gets bored on a cold, cold winter's night and says "and it's cold in Paradise today . . .

Paradise is in the eastern Upper Peninsula 12 miles south of Whitefish Point, the last finger of land that guards the bay north of the Soo Locks. Pass it and you're in the

The town is only a block or two long on M 123, starting here at the Cedar Lodge, run by Jim and Shir-ley Stabile, at the south end of town, and wandering past rustic gift shops, restaurants, grocery stores and bait and tackle shops to Curley's Motel, run by Bill Ferguson at the other end of town.

Bill serves the area's higgest and best pasties at T.J.'s Restaurant across the street in what still looks like an A and W root beer place.

'Anatomy': College life that's slow and bland

Strangely enough, "Gress Anatomy" (C-, PG-13, 105 minutes), a film about first-year medical students. isn't all macabre. That's rather surprising these days, when filmmakers seem to be intent on gross images and gross dollars.

One expects such a film to be filled with grisly black humor — at least in today's market. But "Gross Anatomy" is quite bland and, for a romantic comedy, rather slow.

The film centers on five diverse, unlikely lab partners, freshmen at Chandler University's College of Medicine — Joe Slovak (Matthew Modine), the hot-shot son of a fisherman, Laurie Rorbach (Daphne Zuniga), the demure, intense student who wants to be a surgeon like her mother, the stressed-out David Schreiner (Todd Field), the very snooty Miles Reed (John Scott Clough) and Kim McCauley (Alice Carter), an Oriental woman whose husband just wants her to have lots of kids.

In an overwhelming, overburdened year, "Gross Anatomy" is their major trauma. By working together, they survive and achieve. But it didn't seem as hard as they

Their instructors are Dr. Rachael Woodruff (Christine Lahti) and Dr. Banumbra (Zakes Mokae). Lahti's fine acting talent is lost in a poorly conceived and weakly directed characterization, while Mokae looks slightly guilty, as if he were a refugee from a zombie movie caught with all those cadavers. (He was in "The Serpent and the Rainbow.")

DESPITE PR protestations to the contrary, the model cadavers looked like the plastic from which they were constructed and had as much impact as any other non-biodegradable debris.

The pregnant Kim wears a respirator mask sometimes. Does this mean formaldehyde odors are only occasionally dangerous to her fetus? The intermittent use of surgical gloves during dissecting procedures also strikes a discordant note. It may be all very authentic, but it doesn't matter. How it looks is the main consideration in movies and none of this seems right

Audiences need not worry if the slow pace and lack of tension calls for a nap. "Gross Anatomy" plods along intermittently, so little is missed when the eyes close. Most often the characters will be in the same position when the eyes open. Characterizations are well-drawn initially but their potential is frittered away and tense interaction never materializes - in considerable part because of excessively long takes. Not too much happens a lot of the time. That just isn't exciting.

Like a TV soap opera, in case you miss an episode, you won't feel left out. Whether mooning over each other, their cadaver or their medical ethics, these five students flunk out of the School of Dynamic Behavior.

"NEXT OF KIN" (*, R) sounds like a film about people whom one is relieved to discover are not related.

13, 120 minutes) is a well-crafted, superbly acted film. It is one that makes you think and question the big picture.

The movie chronicles the development of the atomic bomb and raises overwhelming issues - and it doesn't stop there. "Fat Man and Little Boy" — the nicknames for the two bombs dropped on Japan — also tells the personal stories of the men who developed "the gadget."

Paul Newman as General Leslie "Dick" Groves is nearly flawless in his performance. Groves, the man in charge of the Los Alamos project, was so far out on a limb, there was barely a twig to support him as World War II wound down. Yet he had to maintain a confident, demanding demeanor toward the scientists, particularly their leader, Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, portrayed impeccably by Dwight Schultz.

Despite long-standing communist sympathies, Oppenheimer was a very American American. The clash of wills between Groves and Oppenheimer as the project draws to a close amidst a developing crisis of conscience among the scientists creates a tense drama.

THE FILM is narrated by Michael Merriman (John Cusack), a young scientist whose daily journal narrates and comments on the action, and in so doing very pointedly keeps "Fat Man and Little Boy" from becoming just another political scap box on the horrors of atomic war-tion let loose in a nuclear explosion is both insidious and compelling. It's a sight seen with thoughtful eyes at the end of this focused, intelligent filmmaking effort. (Reviewed by Susan Fincham) could have been powerful stuff. But in the French-made "Sorceress" playing this weekend at the downtown Tele-Arts Theatre - it's handled in the clumsiest way possible.

"Sorceress" started with good intentions. First-time screenwriter Pamela Berger, an art history pro-fessor at Boston College, has long been fascinated with the Middle Ages. She based her story on the writings of Etienne de Bourbon, a 13th Century country friar who kept vivid accounts of his travels.

sages concerns a dog cult begun by superstitious villagers. The film's opening scene shows a greyhound mistakenly killed after saving an infant from a poisonous snake. The villagers bury the dog in sacred ground and worship him as a saint. This infuriates Bourbon, who arrives in the tiny village preaching a pious brand of fire and brimstone. He's too blind to see that the locals' real problem doesn't include the dog saint or Elda the healer, but the sadistic landowner who constantly taxes and preys upon them.

"Sorceress" is directed by Suzanne Schiffman, a longtime collaborator of Francois Truffaut. It's easy to see the similarities between this and the late director's work, especially in the simplicity of her images.

Unfortunately, the effect here is something less than poetic and certainly more trudging and dragging than Dungeons and Dragons.

The actor who plays Bourbon may look a little like Gerard DePardieu, but he's as wooden as the cross that hangs from his neck.

Remember the crazed heretic hunters in Ken Russell's "The Devils" or the emotion of Carl Dreyer's "Passion of Joan of Arc." You'll find little of that here, with the saintly Elda so easily resigned to her fate and Bourbon walking around in a

Film chronicles 1919 riot

By Dan Greenberg special writer

The Killing Floor" (1984, mostly color, PG, 118 minutes) is an important chronicle of the black experience in America.

It's the story of Chicago's 1919 race riot and the background to those riots - racial segregation, economic deprivation and attempts to organize labor in Chicago's stock yards and meat-packing plants, the site of Upton Sinclair's "Jungle" 15

Aif expanded economy and depleted labor pools characterized the World War I home front. Big cities throughout the country desperately needed labor for the war machine. Blacks from the south and numerous ethnics fleeing persecution and destruction in Europe were attracted to northern factories and their substantial wages.

Based on actual events, "The Killing Floor" is a social docudrama that rises above normal expectations of that genre. It is a dramatic, compelling and highly personal look at the people behind the headlines the people who make the news but seldom appear in it.

Hearing of good jobs and high wages, Frank Custer (Damien Leake), a southern sharecropper, leaves his wife, Mattie (Alfre Woodard), and hops a freight north with his best buddy, Thomas Joshua (Ernest Rayford).

They settle in a Chicago flop house and look for work. The stock yards are hiring, blacks as well as whites, since labor was at a premium and getting meat to the troops fighting in Europe was the priority. Frank is hired, but Thomas is not. Finally, losing hope, Thomas joins the Army and goes off to fight in Europe.

SWIRLING IN in the background of Frank's dedication to bringing Mattie and the kids north is conflict - racial and labor. Under the leadership of famed Chicago labor lead-er, John Fitzpatrick (James O'Rielly), union organization of blacks, Poles, Lithuanians, Germans, everyone who worked in the meat packi plants, continued until full management recognition in the '30s.

Union struggles in this period were flerce with only occasional, partial victories. During the World

'The Killing Floor' is an absorbing arama peopled by characters who incidentally represent some pretty significant times in American history.

War I, to keep the meat moving to the front, the U.S. Government appointed a federal judge, Samual Alschuler (Nathan Dayis), to arbitrate between union and management. This limited union victory is central to "The Killing Floor" plot. Frank Custer is torn by his acceptance into the union by whites, particularly a German-American shop steward, Bill Bremer (Clarence Felder) who helps him become a butcher, a considerable step up from his cleaning job. That acceptance by whites must have had a considerable psychological impact on a southern black sharecropper. But why the acceptance in a period when the north was still segregated? Some blacks mistrusted whites, be they union or management, and were certain they were being used. Austin "Heavy" Williams (Moses Gunn) was one such individual and. of course, he was right to some considerable extent as the meat packers used black labor to break strikes.

Frank is propelled into this maelstorm as he joins the union and beare high enough for him to bring Mattie, their children and her father

FRANK CUSTER'S voice-over narration and period newsreels (in black and white) effectively link "The Killing Floor's" rather involved segments covering the 21/2 years from early 1917 when Frank and Thomas come north through late 1919. Because of these two techniques, one personal and intimate, the second general and historical, there is no question about what's going on and when. Nor does the film ever lose its personal touch and intimate focus.

That's the bottom line on "The Killing Floor." It's personal touch. Frank Custer is an engaging young man, someone to care about. He and the others in this film are human beings caught up in difficult times. Most of them deal with their problems with strength and courage.

Excellent acting and an intelligent script skillfully personalizes the ethnic and economic conflict that tormented their lives.

"The Killing Floor' is an absorbing drama peopled by characters who incidentally represent some pretty significant times in American history. You can take your history or leave it, but there's no doubt about the people in this drama, they will affect you.

Area band applies laid-back approach

The Sea Monkeys emerged after an Formed partly through a friendship at a beer store, the Sea Monkeys are indeed a strange brew.

The lanky guitarist, bandana on his head, strides in well-past interview time. A pack of Merit cigarettes are presented on the table as

"Sorry about the late thing," said Dan Brooks, pulling up a chair.

Polite to a fault, the Sea Monkeys are a three-man band that seeks neither to offend or alienate. Their music is cover-oriented with a sprinkling of originals.

The sound is guitar-driven rock'n'roll with Brooks carrying a cat-ate-the-canary grin throughout the set. He's paired with lead singer Nick Jones, who approaches the microphone cautiously like it's a foe to be conquered.

So here's a little Sea Monkey History 101.

The band emerged nearly a year ago, performing at an open mike night at the Cross Street Station in Ypsilanti. The group originally had o seven members; now there are three.

son. The hand of the Andrews and Jones friendship went beyond music.

"Doug's dad was the priest who baptized me," said Jones, who was christened in the Episcopal Church.

Contrary to the often heard advice of go west, the Jones-Andrews tan-dem headed east — to Ann Arbor. Jones managed a beer store where he met Brooks, who served in the Air Force after graduating from Ypsilanti High School.

Brooks played guitar; Jones played bass. The two decided to get together to make some music. "It went terrible," Jones said. "We have nothing in common musically. We still don't." "It was horrible actually," added Brooks later. "Finally, we packed up and blew it off for a week or two.

When I first got on stage, I was scared," Brooks said. "I guess it was like that unknown thing." Nervous on this night? No, more like hyper as the band is about to open for the Volebeats. The group stays a steady course of hard rock favorites from Living Colour and a handful of other bands.

Original material was fleeting. Jones said the group has about 20 songs in the can, still needing to "hack" them out in rehearsal.

One song, "History," is showcased. Lyrically, the number draws the equation between American involvement in Vietnam and Nicaragua. The reggaefied nugget was the first song the band had written together.

The political bent shouldn't be surprising. The wordsmith of the band is a political science/philosophy maior at EMU.

BUT WAIT, that's not all. A special bonus tape will give Bowser the sales advantage of a more powerful vocabulary. Like it or not, people judge your dog by the way he speaks. To build your dog's fluency, we've lifted actual dialogue from the TV shows dogs like best - "Lassie," "Huckleberry Hound" and "Joan Rivers."

Extra care is taken to explain figures of speech that are especially puzzling to dogs, phrases like "His bark is worse than his bite," and "It's a dog-eat-dog world."

These tapes will explain how low self-esteem, boredom and uncontrolled tartar combine to force your pet into delinquency. You'll discover how you're also to blame for undermining his self-concept through insensitive expressions like "My blind date was a real dog" and "This town's going to the dogs."

In it, Professor Heineken reveals how the Great Pyramid of Egypt was actually built by dogs to bury soup bones in. His startling research suggests that the Aztecs weren't visited by aliens from space, but poodles from New Jersey.

I cannot understand why my feelings are so strong. My girlfriend informs me he feels strongly about his feelings toward me. The attraction was so strong, but I have said I am not interested. Some readers have written, complimenting me on the directness of my responses. This has encouraged me to continue to be straightforward. With that said, I will be candid in my reply to your question.

There are contradictions in your letter that I don't understand. You say that all of your friends see you as the perfect couple. You don't say that you have a perfect marriage. Thus, I infer that whatever needs are not being gratified in your marriage are coming out in your fantasies toward the new man. This is often the purpose of extramarital relationships and I hope it helps you understand why you keep thinking of him.

The other contradiction is that you talk about the mutual attraction between both of you and then bring in the word "Platonic," which doesn't

In "Sex, Lies and Videotape," another recent movie with a similar theme, the hero says to the heroine that men learn to love the women they are attracted to but women become attracted to the men they love. In other words, even with the best of intentions, your relationship with the other man would become physical.

So what do I think you should do? I don't think you should see him. Instead, you should change yourself by becoming more involved in self-development and growth and thus be

Dear Barbara,

I used to enjoy a close relationship with my brother. He is two years older than I am. I am 39. Several years ago we had a falling out over a difference of opinion. I remained friends with his abandoned wife when he married another woman who had been the spouse of a good friend of his.

Now, he refuses to have anything o do with me unless I am approving of his action. I called him recently and he said, "Stop harassing me, I'll call you if I want to talk to you." This makes family gatherings nonexistent and is very hard on our parents who love to have their family

Dear Birmingham,

1. If that is what he said, then you have no choice but not to call him and that defines your relationship with him.

2. The relationship between your parents and your brother is between them and you have no power to change it.

Paradise found

Thousands of ships sailed past Whitefish point and many of them stopped in the Bay to pick up salted fish, cranberries picked by the Indians in marsh farms, and the logs cut by the timbermen who moved into the area in the 1880s.

Many of those ships were shipwrecked near Whitefish Point, and you can relive their stories in the Great Lakes Shipwreck Historical Museum beside the still-working lighthouse at the Point, where agate lovers walk heads-down in search of the famous Lake Superior agates that wash up on the sand beach.

This very fine little museum is built around an enormous lens from the White Shoal, Lighthouse, surrounded by displays and dioramas of the shipwrecks that have haunted Whitefish Point for centuries.

UNFORTUNATELY, you can't visit on the 13th anniversary of the sinking of the Edmund Fitzgerald, which went down Nov. 10, 1975. The museum is only open Memorial Day through Oct. 15. I suspect they might open the museum by special request, however. Contact the Great Lakes Shipwreck Historical Society Inc., Rte. 2, Box 279-A, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. 49783, or call the Eastern U.P. Tourist Association in St. Ignace at (906) 643-7343.

The tourist office will also send you a big snowmobile trail map and information about how to enjoy late fall and winter activities here.

If you are really into fall and winter activity, you can bicycle or snowmobile from Houghton Lake in the Lower Peninsula to the far western border of the Upper Peninsula without any support system other than a Mackinac Bridge Authority truck that takes you across Mackinac Bridge by appointment. Call (906) 643-7600. Bikes cost $1, snowmobiles Summer visitors enjoy the logging history of the area by touring the new Taquamenon River Logging Museum in Newberry, another very fine little museum that closes in the fall. You can still follow the museum boardwalk to the riverbank where logs were once piled up during the winter and sent down the river in the spring, and you can walk, ski or snowmobile down the riverside trails to Tahquamenon State Park.

The park and the paths to the upper and lower falls are open all winter: thousands of snowmobilers and cross country skiers follow its trails.

IN THE FALL, when the country is ablaze with color, it is a wonderful five-minute drive by car from the Upper to the Lower Falls, where you can row a small boat across one arm of the river to photograph the rapids in their gold and red setting.

In the old days, the log booms followed the river to Whitefish Bay, but you will probably follow the road

now to Paradise and Whitefish Point. You will find accommodations in half a dozen roadside motels, or in area bed-and-breakfast homes, and end up eating pancakes and sausages in a roadside restaurant like this one, which is connected to the Cedar Lodge, a one-story log motel with adjacent cabins in Paradise.

If you like sunsets, buy one of Bill Ferguson's pasties, and one of his giant-sized homemade cinnamon buns, and eat them on the beach at Whitefish Point, with the shipwreck museum behind you and the souls of 100 sunken ships out there beneath the beautiful calm waters of Lake Supe-

Mike Veneman may be the star of the show at Joey's Comedy Club Wednesday through Saturday, Oct. 25-28, but it's business as usual for the comedian whose life has taken a Barbara long and funny road.

It originates from his Ohio base criss-crossing the country spreading his own brand of humor. He's already put 76,000 miles on his less than two-year-old car and that doesn't include the miles traveled in airplanes.

It was Veneman's first nationwide cable TV appearance and one more step up the long TV ladder to "the ultimate goal of appearing with Carson or Letterman," he said.

Veneman's first step into the world of comedy came with entering - and winning - amateur night in Hilarities Comedy Club in Cleveland. The club's booking agent asked him to work professionally in the club and he's been working steadily as a

"So the routine is taking a whole new turn these days. But it's still about all of the funny and abourd things all around us."

JOE BIELASKA, owner and oper-ator of Joey's, met Veneman in Las Vegas during a Comedy and Club Owners Convention. The sole pur-pose of the convention is to showcase comedians — 40 of them a day from all over the world — for the club owners to book.

The moon is still high in the sky when Colleen Burcar starts her morning. The public affairs director for WKQI 95.5 FM - previously WCZY — she wakes up when her alarm buzzes at 4 a.m. Part of the early-morning routine includes leaving her Bloomfield Hills home as quietly as possible to avoid disturbing her family - husband Bryan Becker and daughter Kimberly.

Once at the radio station, Burcar checks the news service wire for stories for her newscasts.

Although Burcar loves her job at WKQI, she maintains that a broadcast career isn't glamorous by any stretch of the imagina-

"I get in generally at 5:15 a.m., pull together a quick newscast in 10 minutes and then I'm on the air," she said.

Throughout the remaining hours, she rechecks the Associated Press wire copy constantly for news updates, basing her topics on what people are talking about on the streets. She also chooses a "kicker" - an informative funny story - to end her newscasts on

The majority of the WKQI staff arrives by the time Burcar reads the last of her five broadcasts at 9 a.m.

IN SPITE of her early mornings, Burcar is always cheerful, said Carolyn Hough, a former WCZY receptionist.

"She's a fun-loving person and a pleasant individual," Hough And according to morning show personality Mark Andrews,

"Colleen has a unique style unlike other female broadcasters who try to act like their male counterparts." He added that Bucar's "incomparable voice easily transmits her search of kicker stories and spending time with her 10-year-old daughter. Her family's happiness is her primary concern and most important goal in her life.

"I want us to be happy," she said. "I want to be a good mother, a good wife and a good journalist third."

Becoming a good journalist was a slow climb up the ladder of Burcar had little luck when she started looking for employment in the radio and television industry in the '70s. But in 1977, within the course of three days, Burcar auditioned at CKLW, was called back and put on the air.

Six years after her debut on CKLW, Burcar moved to WCZY and stayed when it became WKQI.

BURCAR DIDN'T have any contacts in the field of radio broadcasting when she first auditioned for jobs.

"I didn't know a soul, so it isn't necessarily who you know in the business," she said. "I think it's a matter of being in the right place at the right time."

She attributes part of her success to her educational background. She received her bachelor's degree from Michigan State University and a master's degree in guidance and counseling from Eastern Michigan University.

"I think that (getting an education) shows that you are able to handle responsibility," she said.

Burcar advises aspiring journalists to accept a beginning in entry-level positions and internships. Although they provide little or no pay, they do provide a wealth of experience, she said. A case in point: When she worked at Channel 2 on "PM Magazine," producing two-minute segments, Burcar worked "dilligently" on them. Her hard work, however, was for almost no pay. was compensated something, but it was almost nothing said. "But when that was over, I had a tape and I had experience."

STUDENTS NEED to get a good education and experience to compete in a very tight job market, especially Detroit where job availability has decreased in the past decade, forcing newcomers to go to other markets in other cities, she said.

'Certainly, I think it's good to go in with really high goals and go for them, but be realistic," Burcar said.

Although Burcar doesn't lecture on the discriminatory treatment of women in the media, she clearly has an opinion. People have to think about where women are going and how they are portrayed.

Another case in point: Whenever you watch the news, one male and one female are co-anchoring or even two males anchors, but never two women, Burcar said.

Stories about Adams include raising and lowering the flame of a lit candle with nothing more than an intense glare, catching a razer-sharp sword (swung at Adams' head by a blind-folded guy) between his palms, stopping kunchack (a martial arts weapon) swinging idiot in front of several alarmed police officers with just a handful of dirt.

ADAMS EVEN has a penchant for winning all of those giant stuffed animals at carnivals that nobody else can seem to win.

Sure, you say, I've seen those kung fu westerns on television. OK, we'll let some of Adams students (who would rather tell fibs about Mike Tyson than their teacher) paint some more of the picture.

This one time at a Christmas party, I saw Sensei (a Japanese martial arts instructor) let 10 guys grab him," said black belt John Cox of Detroit. "There were two on each limb and three or four guys around his waist. Next thing you know, bodies were flying every where and Sensei is the only one left standing."

So he got lucky, you say. Well, luck is as luck does and Adams has done it all.

"I saw two guys swing live (sharp) swords at Sensel, one at his head and one at his legs," said second-degree black belt Burt Maben, who has str jed under Adams for 10 years. "He jumped up and turned into a small ball and the swordsmen missed. I've studied the samural sword and know that one can easily cut you in half."

Yeah, but this Adams guy couldn't take Chuck Norris or, um, Bruce Lee, you say. Well, you're right . . .

Back in 1966 in Cincinatti. Adams fought Norris in a karate tournament in which 20 of the top martial artists in the country (including Lee) were invited to do battle until only one man was left standing.

ADAMS, WEIGHING a mere 129 pounds back then, was edged in a decision to the larger Norris.

"It was a knock-down, drag-our fight," Adams said. "Five minutes of fighting and a lot of fun." Yeah, but nobody could take Bruce Lee, you say.

Even though he never got the chance, Adams would have loved to face the legendary Lee. When asked what would have happened if the two would have met in a true, bare-knuckle brawl, Adams said simply, "He would have been in hig trouble."

Adams began his career in martial Adams began his career in martial arts in the late '50s. Hanging out at the local YMCA, practicing judo (karate was somewhat foreign then), Adams first befriended a Japanese exchange student who taught him the Shotokan martial arts technique. the shotokap martial arts technique, which emphasises punching. Adams then met a Korean gentleman and learned. A. Tangsoodé technique, which involves mostly kicking. These two styles helped Adams master the Isshin-Ryu technique — 50-50 punching and kicking — which he practices today.

Adams reached his prime in the late 1960s when full contact karate fights were bare-knuckle battles that ended with blood and broken bones. A popular version now is the kick boxing seen on TV.

THAT'S'CHILD'S play, according to Adams, who told this story on how tough it was back then:

"I once saw a fight where this guy from Montains named Jim Harris was fighting my instructor," Adams said. "Harrison got hit in the nose so hard, bones shot out all over his face. Wanting to continue, (Harrison) went to the judges' table, grabbed a pencil and proceeded to push hones back into his nose with an eraser. "Nowadaya, you may see a cut lip and that's better."

Adams fought bere-knuckte, but to look at his face you wouldn't know it. At 120 pounts, he fought his way to become the North American champion back is the long table, and principle guys that weighted to intech as if the pounds more than the long table and the pounds more than the long table and Permenyeants from 100 to 10

there," Adams said with a laughed. The story of when all 129 pounds of Willie Adams fought the 6-5, 270pound president of the motorcycle gang called the Heathers is a classic - kind of like a modern day David and Goliath.

ADAMS LIKES to ride motorcycles (he currently owns a 1983 Harley Davidson Lowrider) and owned a little Houds blke back in the 1960s. He liked to follow the "Hells Angels" types on his bike and hang out with m at their parties, But the Harley guys didn't like him to hang out with them because, well, he didn't ride a Harley. Adams was at this huge biker party — 300 plus bikers — at Bailey's Beach in Canada. Sitting on this guy notices. Adams, says he's m fight and wants to know if he'd like to fight the leader of the Heathens, Adams said "sure."

"The next thing you know I hear this 'boom-boom' coming across the sand," Adams said. "I look up and see probably the biggest biker of the bunch."

The president of the Heathers asked Adams if he'd like to "slap box," to which Adams replied, "You do what you want, I'll do what I want."

"He swung, I dropped him . . . He swung again, I dropped him again,"

Adams said.

By night's end, the Heathens president wanted karate lessons and every other president there wanted Adams (and his little Honda) to ride

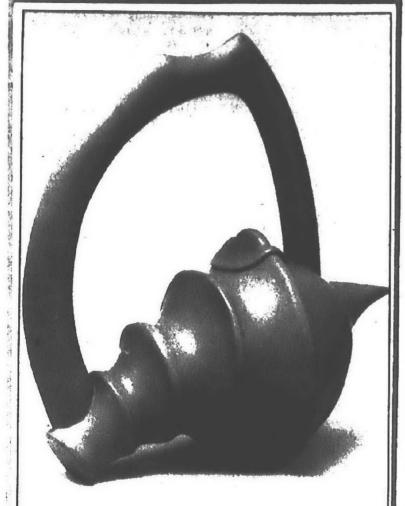

"Everyone in this world has the right to walk around and feel as if they're a whole person even if they're small like ma," Adams sold:

Over 170 of the most sublime, outrageous and humble teapots ever to grace the Mad Hatter's tea party are on display at the Ariana Gallery, 386 E. Maple, Birmingham. The teapots, ranging in price from $70 to $1,000 are featured in a show which runs through Nov. 7. The teapot here is by Kaete Brittin Shaw, a well known artist from Boston. The show also includes teapots by Susan Bolt, Laura Ross, Ricki Moss, Barry Bernstein and many others. The gallery is open Monday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Q. With my husband gone most of the time, I am handling the contracting of our kitchen remodeling job. I would like some direction in being more organized and direct in talking with trades people. They seem to act as if a woman doesn't know anything.

A. I know what you mean. Most people have learned to have more respect for women, but there are still a few thoughtless people out there. After noticing a gavel on a plaque handing on our own basement office wall recently, a service man connecting wires inquired if my husband is a judge? (It was my office and my plaque— a memento of my presidency of our speakers' association.)

Here are some suggestions which may help: Collect ideas ahead of time so you know approximately what you want, then begin your educational process by making the rounds of kitchen remodeling stores. It's important to ask every question you have with confidence. Neither male nor female customers are expected to understand everything about construction nor the latest products available and you should not be embarrassed to ask any question you have. Be direct, and if you are told you cannot get what you want, then ask "What are my choices?" As you learn, write everything down so you can ultimately make an informed deci-You must remember you are

and therefore you are the boss. Make it clear that your are the person in charge, not your husband. Insist that everything is in writing ahead of time, including a detailed drawing, and don't just assume that a certain quality of material will be used or that what is torn out will automatically be hauled away free of charge.

If there is anything you don't understand, ask now. Identify nagging concerns and bring them out in the open. No question is too dumb to ask. Your contractor will respect you when he realizes you are on top of all the details.

Agree ahead of time how changes in plans will be handled. Will there be a penalty, and if so, at what point and at what cost? Also have a written agreement as to the completion date and any followup work to correct residual problems after completion.

If, during the course of construction, you realize you don't like something, stop the workers immediately and discuss it. It will no doubt cost you extra labor and materials to change your plans, but if you are unhappy it will be less costly to change it now than later.

Note to tradespeople: Don't treat women as if they are merely servants for their husbands. If you have been dealing only with the woman, then ask her for money when it is due. Although she may indeed have to get it from her husband, suggesting that is the case is an insult to many women, including this one.)

'Scary Stories' author visits

Author Alvin Schwartz will sign his Halloween books, "Scary Stories to Tell in the Dark" and "More Scary Stories to Tell in the Dark," 7:30-8:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 30, in Borders Book Shop in the Novi Town Center off Novi Road, just south of I-96. "Everything I write is read aloud three or four times in the bathroom because the accustics are so good," says Schwartz of his stories.

Maximize fall colors

Choose your home trees carefully

HE RIGHT selection of trees for your home grounds can help provide brilliant fall coloring, but Mother Nature must cooperate.

Color intensity may vary from year to year, depending on the variety of trees, soils, nutrients, moisture, sunny days, frosty nights and other weather factors.

Fall's shorter days, not its colder weather, cause leaves to change color and drop from trees. The spectacular colors are caused by the tree's pigments, which are always present but are hidden in spring and summer by chlorophyll, the dominant green pigment formed by exposure to light, or the process of photosynthesis.

In the fall, when days are shorter, photosynthesis ceases, chlorophyll production ends and other pigments dominate.

Cool nights and warm days favor production of bright scarlets, lavenders and purples, But freezing temperatures kill leaf cells and prevent color formation. Chemical changes in the leaf stalk, where it joins the twig, cause leaves to fall off.

AUTUMN COLOR IS better some years than it is others. Generally, colors are better in au-

weeder's guide

turns that have bright, sunny days and cool nights.

Light is important to the development of color. A tree may be red only on one side, the side exposed to afternoon sun. Trees growing in low places may develop red color earlier than trees in higher locations, perhaps the result of cold air settling in low places on still, windless nights. Cooler temperatures trap tree sugars earlier in the fall

Here is a guide to autumn foliage colors, based on tree species and Jack Frost's paint brush:

Reds: sugar maple, reds, orange and yellow; red maple, orange and scarlet; dogwood, vivid scarlet; sweet gum, crimson; red oak, dark red to russet; scarlet oak, brilliant scarlet; black gum, burgundy; sassafras, orange to scarlet.

Yellows: Eastern redbud, mellow yellow; Norway maple, buttercup yellow; yellowwood, yellow to gold; larch, golden yellow; tuliptree, sparkling yellow; elm, pale yellow; ginkgo and aspen, yellow.

Browns and oranges: American beech, golden bronze; white oak, purplish red to violet; black oak, reddish tan to brown; hickory, leathery yellow to brown; white ash, purple; American hornbeam, bright ora ige.

AUTUMN COLORS peak in early to mid-October. It takes approximately two weeks for a tree to complete its color cycle. Autumns that are rainy, very hot or cloudy may produce foliage that is bland or less vivid.

Indian legend explains the autumn color this way: Celestial hunters stalked and killed the Great Bear, and its dripping blood fell onto the forest trees, gradually changing the leaves to various shades.

A modern version holds that little green people inside the leaves conjure up psychedelic happenings that burst into view in the fall.

Generally, only areas of the Eastern United States, Southeastern Canada, Eastern Asia and Southwestern Europe have weather conditions and deciduous forest trees favorable to vivid fall folloge.

Sandpapers get a going-over

By Andy Lang special writer

The multiplicity of sandpapers on the market makes shopping for them a hit-and-miss chore unless you have some idea of what you are doing.

Here are some facts that will help you make the proper selections:

Flint paper, once widely used, is not seen too much these days because it is brittle and quickly deteriorates with use compared to other materials. Remember that if you should see it and be tempted by it because it is cheaper.

Garnet, a natural material, removes wood easily and resists what is known as "loading," which is filling up the spaces between the abrasive grains.

It is not as durable as the manufactured materials, such as aluminum oxide and silicone carbide. Aluminum oxide is especially good for power sanding.

The principle of sanding is that the finer the grade of paper, the better it is for sanding between coats and on the final coat.

The final sanding, with what is called very fine paper, prepares it for the finishing material. Rough wood must be treated with coarse paper, then medium and then either fine or very fine.

PAPER USED TO be designated only by number. Today, most have a number. The smaller the number, the larger the size of the grit. And the larger the size of the grit, the coarser the resulting finish.

Thus, if you wanted to remove

Thus, if you wanted to remove wood fast and not be too particular about the coarseness of the wood (because you would use finer papers later), you would use a 36 grit rather than a 120 grit.

It will make it easier on you if you look for sandpaper that gives the classification, such as coarse, medium, fine, very fine.

SANDPAPERS USED for wet

SANDPAPERS USED for wet sanding have a special waterproof backing, since the sanding is done with water

Most other backings are made of

on the house

regular backing, varying in thickness according to the use to which they will put. The strongest paper backing, for instance, is on material to be used for tough hand sanding or regular power sanding.

Inferior sandpaper utilizes inferior adhesives to hold the abrasive grains to the backing. Notice if a lot of grains have accumulated at the bottom of the sandpaper package. If you tap the paper against a solid surface, some of the grains on this type of product will come off easily.

Also, look for folds and wrinkles in the paper. These things can affect the quality of the final finish as well as reduce the life of the paper. The product may have been fine originally, but the folds and wrinkles developed in the packaging and transporting. If that's the paper you want, look for another package.

THIS IS ESPECIALLY important when choosing paper to be used in a power machine, where the extra pressure can greatly affect the overall performance.

When you have a specialized kind of job to be done, look over the store's entire stock of sandpapers and accessories. A special open coat sandpaper has more and larger spaces between the grains, which minimizes loading.

Some dealers even have a special treatment that will retard loading when using aluminum oxide, silicon carbide or garnet. Manufacturers are constantly coming out with products designed to handle particular kinds of stubborn sanding.

There is even a sanding sealer that helps the finer-grit papers be more effective on softwoods. The sanding sealer toughens the wood. Some wood finishers achieve the same result by mixing shellac with an equal part of denatured alcohol.

The principle of sanding is that the finer the grade of paper, the better it is for sanding between coats and on the final coat.

Benefit to aid art archives

Ten metropolitan Detroit galleries will present artists and their works as part of a benefit for the Archives of American Art at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 25, in the Roostertail.

At "Show and tell — an evening with the artist," guests can talk with the artists and view their works. After supper, the artists will be formally introduced.

Artists participating in the event include: Timothy Solien, Cantor/Lemberg Gallery; Ann Mikolowski, sponsored by Joy Emery Gallery; sculptor Tom Bills of Feigenson/Preston Gallery; John Torreano and sculptor Lynda Benglis representing Suzanne Hilberry Gallery and water-colorist Alfred Leslie of the Hill Gallery.

Robert L. Kidd Associates sponsors Glen Michaels and the Donald Morris Gallery has invited painter Robert Wilbert. Allie McGhee, painter and ceramic muralist, represents George N'Namdi Gallery. Douglas

W. Warner represents Xochilpilli Art Gallery. The Yaw Gallery presents Jean Stark, goldsmith and painter, and Anthony Lent, creator of wearable sculpture. Tickets are $75 each. For information call the Archives of American Art office at 226-7544. The Archives of American Art was founded in Detroit in 1954 and has been a bureau of the Smithsonian Institution since 1970. The archives has so far collected nearly 10 million original papers and other memorabilia of American painters, sculptors, craftspeople, dealers, collectors, critics and curators. It conducts an oral history program, which has produced nearly 3,000 interviews with significant figures on the art scene.

About one-third of the collection is available on microfilm for public use in the archives' six regional research and collecting centers including the Midwest Regional Center in the Detroit Institute of Arts.

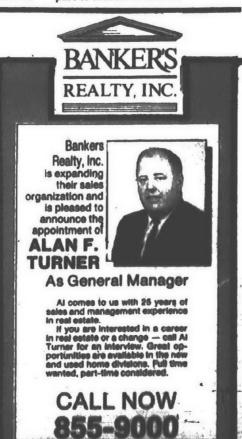

Use your dishwasher only when it is full. Turn it off when the final wash cycle is completed and open the door. Your dishes will air-dry. It's best to use your dishwasher in the cool of the evening.

Introducing The Crossings

Apartment living just got better.

We're making The Crossings a better place to live and a better value. You'll feel it in the new hallways and newly refurbished clubhouse. You'll see it in the plush landscaping when you enter the grounds. And that's just the beginning. It's the new look and feel of The Crossing at Canton—and it's for you.

The Crossings at Canton offers 19 different floorplans with 1 to 4 bedrooms. And whether you choose a 2-level townhome or a luxury apartment, the renewed beauty of this charming rental community shines through in every one—the result of our recent. "Capital Improvement & Upgrading" program. These apartments and townhomes are the largest in the area, yet are still incredibly affordable.

Discover these features at The Crossings at Canton

- Dens & Fireplaces
- Fully-applianced Kitchens Patios or Balconies
- Central Air Conditioning · A Clubhouse with sauna, indoor pool, exercise room, a new party room, and more!

Site contamination concerns raised

By Gerald Frawley staff writer

Intensifying environmental concerns continue to trouble land developers and if the trend continues, it could conceivably drive smaller developers out of business

Attorney George Fulkerson, of the Troy law firm of Dean and Fulkerson, told members of the Builders Association of Southeast Michigan Wednesday that environmental concerns are today's "moral imperative," and unless builders - especially small builders - learn to anticipate and protect themselves, they're in for a rough ride.

Environmental concerns will squeeze out the smaller developer because he does not have the resources to comply with all the regulations and requirements being placed on him, Fulkerson said.

"That may very well change, but greater enforcement is the trend." he said, adding the slow growth movement prevalent in southeast Michigan uses environmental concerns as one of the key weapons in the arsensal to stop development.

Historically, building and the environment have always been related, but the emphasis and the nature of that relationship has drastically changed, Fulkerson said. "It's become magnified over the years.

'We have moved from a 'protection from nuisance' theory, which implies a certain amount of negligence, to a point where liability is no longer dependent on negligence," he said. Today, developers can be liable for environmental problems by virtue of land ownership, regardless of whether they caused the problems.

In almost every case where an environmental concern is raised, the developer is bound to lose because the courts almost always support the environmental concern, he said.

"Builders are faced with a myriad of laws and regulations," he said, adding that there are currently more than 200 laws addressing environmental concerns and development.

"It's a gloomy picture," Fulkerson continued. Whether the developer is personally responsible for an environmental problem or not, as a purchaser he can be held liable for contamination already on the site.

Recently, hazardous waste regulations have had the greatest impact on builders, Fulkerson said. Loan approval from lending institutions, for example, may greatly depend on previous uses of the site and evidence of current contamination.

PERHAPS EVEN more frightening, he said, is the chance that contamination will be discovered on a recently purchased site. "Whoever owns the property - even if they're not responsible for the contamination - is liable for cleanup costs." He added the average price tag for the cleanup of a contaminated site ranges from $6 million to $10 mil-

Federal environmental protection laws and regulations protect the developer who is innocent of further contaminating the property and who has thoroughly investigated the property to be exempt from repercussions, Fulkerson continued, but the definition of innocent and thorough is interpreted "very narrowly."

Fulkerson said developers must be cautious at every turn. "There are resources out there - hire someone to investigate the property and see what they can find."

Such investigations might include anything from soil samplings to interviews with previous property owners. "You may have to sit heavily on the previous owner to find out what the property's previous uses

Readers' poll leads to wood house design

staff writer

What are the desires of home buvers in today's market?

A workable functional kitchen, energy efficiency, low maintenance and a spacious pantry, according to a reader poll taken by Home Mechanix Magazine.

The American Wood Council and Home Mechanix Magazine co-sponsored the poll last fall that asked readers to describe their dream home. More than 200 readers responded, and those responses were incorporated by Stephen Mead Associates of Des Moines, Iowa, into the design of the 1,950-square-foot "Home Mechanix Dream Home."

"We wanted to design a relatively affordable package, but one that encapsulated as many of the readers' responses as possible," explained Mead. "A lot of readers wanted a sense of space so they didn't feel they were crawling over other family members. I think we have accomplished that. The house lives much larger than it actually is."

TO ACHIEVE THAT sense of spaciousness, Stephen Mead Associates designed the house - located in the Crescent Hills Subdivision in Ortonville - with several features. In addition to a spacious kitchen with an adjacent greenhouse/solarium breakfast area, the house also features a two-story entrance, a columned dining room leading to a screened porch and sweeping deck, a large workshop and adjacent storage area easily accessible from the garage, a huge master suite, french doors and a window seat.

"One of the unique aspects of the house is the way spaces relate to one another," added Mead. "There isn't a isn't cramped, either.

An example includes a work station (desk and book shelves) which was added to a widened hallway on the second floor. Such "nooks of storage" could be used by children or parents for work or play.

The house - built by Gary Sabo of Future Homes Inc. in Davison also incorporates advanced wood construction techniques that earned it the American Wood Council's Design For Better Living Award.

"The council recognizes houses that feature the use of new wood products and systems and innovative design," explained Wally Poure, regional marketing director of the American Wood Council.

These construction techniques include a permanent wood foundation, Interlock lap-siding on the exterior walls. The house also conforms to the Code Plus building code.

The permanent wood foundation is used in place of a concrete foundation with the aim of providing a drier, warmer environment. The wood foundation is constructed of pressure-treated lumber and plywood walls set on a gravel base and backfilled with gravel. The walls are insulated with a high R-factor insulation providing a warm basement environment. And because wood doesn't settle like a concrete foundation, there tend to be no cracks or leaks in the basement walls.

The house is priced in excess of $199,000. It was recently featured in the Parade of Homes '89, a builder's show sponsored by the American Wood Council and 11 north Oakland County Builders. The house is open for viewing by appointment. Call Fu-ture Homes at 653-3490 for an ap-

(AP)- What's new on the market? THE PRODUCT - A ceramic tile caulk to match or coordinate with many of today's grout colors and Manufacturer's claim - That the new color selections include clear, antique white, wheat, sand tan, pewter gray, red wood, black onyx, Almond and pure white; that it is mildew-resistant and prevents water seepage around sinks, tubs, vanities, countertop spashguards and tile soap holders; and that it seals surface areas that tend to move slightly, such as where a wall meets a floor or where tiles abut corner and count-

THE PRODUCT - An epoxy adhesive especially designed for vertical and overhead bonding projects.

Manufacturer's claim - That this epoxy gel bonds quickly through a chemical reaction between the epoxy resin and the hardener; that it will not sag or drip, setting in five minutes; that it bonds wood, metal, fiberglass, china, ceramic, glass and other materials; that, after the adhesive is applied, bonded objects can be handled in 15 minutes, with the epoxy achieving full strength in one hour at room temperature; that it hardens to an opaque finish; that it is available in a dual-syringe container that dispenses equal amounts of the resin and the hardener; and that its special properties make it ideal for bonding objects to walls, ceilings, under counters and wherever such projects normally are difficult to handle.

THE PRODUCT - A motion sen sor light control that reduces the problem of false triggering.

Manufacturer's claim false triggering, caused by such things as blowing leaves, will be eliminated by 75 percent; that when the sensor discovers heat in motion, it takes a "second look" to verify the object before it switches the lights on; that the sensor detects people in motion from up to 70 feet away, providing more than 4,500 square feet of coverage; that a multitone lens provides overlapping detection zones for both downward and outward coverage; that it has a variable shutoff delay to allow the user to adjust the period of time the light stays on from one to 20 minutes; and that it is UL-listed for wet locations.

The epoxy adhesive is made by Devcon Consumer Division, 780 A.E.C. Drive, Wood Dale, Il. 60191; the light control by Health-Zenith, Hilltop Road, St. Joseph, Mi. 49085; and the caulk by Darworth Co., Avon, Ct. 06001.

Condo board responsible for pool

Our condominium is considering having a "lotto" to raise money for the clubbouse maintenance of the pool because the board is unwilling to budget funds for maintenance as it claims that not enough co-owners are using it. Do you have any com-

First, I am not sure from your question what type of "lotto" the board is planning to conduct, but it had better make sure that it is not violating any state laws with respect to such "lotto" and that, if necessary, it obtain a license from the state to conduct any type of gaming activity. Secondly, and more important, if the association has a pool which the association members are allowed to use, the board may well have a fiduciary and legal responsibility to raise funds necessary in order to maintain that pool so as not to deprive any co-owners of its use. You should contact the board to remind them of this responsibility and in the absence of any forthright action by the board, you should consult with an attorney to assist you.

Q: I am being transferred from Birmingham to New York City and wish to buy a co-op in the upper 60s of Manhattan. Do you have any inkling as to what the market is in New York and how is a co-op different there from what I might find here with respect to a condominium or queries Robert M. Melsner

condo

A: Coincidentally, I have just had the opportunity to review the co-op market in New York, particularly as it relates to the higher echelon of coops surrounding Central Park. The co-op market in New York is weakening, as I understand it, although the price of co-ops in New York comparable to what one would find in Michigan is extremely high. Co-regulated by an enabling statute and have a substantial amount of flexibility in regard to who may or may not live in the co-op. A good example, of course, is the Richard Nixon situation in New York where he was denied an opportunity to buy a co-op because he was a lawyer. In a co-op, you rent your unit from the cooperative association, even though you are buying shares in the cooperative association. You sign a proprietary lease and live by the rules and regulations, or they can evict you. I would be very cautious before investing in a co-op in Manhattan because of the apparent fluctuation in market conditions.

Decorating rules meant to be broken tradition.

"Tradition is back," said House Beautiful editor JoAnn Barwick, "because we are tired of trendy fads and have swung around again to an appreciation of architecture and furnishings with serenity and balance — the way a home looks when the age-old rules have been followed."

Young people decorating their first homes hunger for rules, according to Barwick. How should they arrange the furniture? Which chairs go with what table? Can they use something unconventional that they've fallen in love with?

Barwick said her magazine went to the masters of home design — past and present — for the following "Golden Rules of Decorating," which range from the classic look to personal

John Saladino gave his view of how to create classic design: "To be timeless, we must pare away fussy details, create an orderly balance. Simple geometric forms the ancients knew—circles, squares, triangles—shape the classics."

Comfort was Billy Baldwin's subject: "Some people confuse luxury with grandour. To me, comfort is perhaps the ultimate luxury."

Edith Wharton and Ogden Codman Jr. on symmetry: "The desire for symmetry, for balance, for rhythm, is one of the most inveterate of human instincts."

For Elsie de Wolfe, suitability was the subject: "We must learn to recognize suitability, simplicity and proportion, and apply our knowledge to our needs. A huge stuffed leather chair in a tiny gold and cream room is unsuitable."

Dorothy Draper had this to say about color: "There should never be any doubt about what your color has to say. It may be lemon yellow, watermelon pink, chocolate brown or any thing you like, just as long as it knows its own mind. Muddy walls are nothing but a blight."

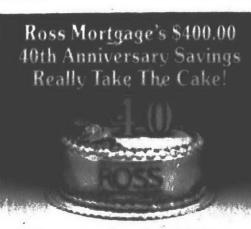

Michael Greer puts passion into his interior designs, saying: "You need one marvelous decorative object which you love outrageously; which you may have spent far more for than you could afford. It can be anything — a painting or a rug or a vase, as well as a piece of furniture."

David Hicks understands the need for warmth. "I may create a very disciplined background, but then I like things messed up or cozied up a little. I am always thinking of

No matter now many rules you follow, a nome must reflect you, as T.H. Robsjohn-Gibbings noted when he said: "Why do we love certain houses, and why do they seem to love us? It is the warmth of our individual hearts reflected in

That brings the amateur decorator back to House Beautiful's advice in giving out these rules: "Just remember: Once learned, rules are also meant to be broken."
