Jury says man didn't start fire

staff writer

After deliberating for just 45 minutes, a jury of eight women and four men found Guy Zukowski of Plym-outh Township not guilty of causing an explosion and fire that gutted his apartment complex at 300 N. Mill in Old Village Nov. 4, 1988.

Zukowski, 26, tried before Detroit Recorders Court Judge Craig Strong. faced a possible 20-year sentence for arson of a dwelling.

The prosecution contended that Zukowski tried to kill himself because he was distraught over the unreturned affections of a female neighbor. Jurors handed down the verdict Wednesday afternoon after a three-day trial.

Zukowski, a 1980 Plymouth Canton High School graduate, testified he'd pulled his stove away from the wall to retrieve a pepper shaker, unknowingly causing a gas leak. Later that afternoon, he lit a cigarette. He said the next thing he knew, there was a fireball and he was on fire.

Zukowski, who owned a janitorial service, suffered burns to his head, shoulders, arms and hands in the fire. A second person, searching for residents and pets in the burning apartments, received minor injuries.

Ten Heritage Square residents were left homeless. More than a dozen pets died in the fire and natural gas explosion, which could be felt up to a mile away. Damage was estimated at more than $200,000. None of the tenants in the 18-unit complex had renters' insurance.

Both assistant Wayne County Prosecutor Mark Bernardi and defense attorney Shirley Saltzman expected the jury would deliberate Wednesday afternoon, resuming deliberations today. Neither Bernardi nor Saltzman was available for comment over the Thanksgiving week-

Zukowski wrote a letter about a week before the fire to his neighbor, Beyoun Perry. The letter said that he'd fallen love with her, and that he couldn't bear the thought of anyone else possessing her. Zukowski said he didn't want to live any longer, Perry testified

A note taped to his door the day of the fire said, "Go away," and was signed, "Guy." Earlier that day, Zukowski sat outside in the rain, drinking beer for "quite a while," said Perry, 30.

A second tenant, Paul Pahnke, testified that in the days leading up to the explosion, Zukowski grew increasingly depressed and was drinking more than usual.

SALTZMAN ASKED Judge Strong to dismiss the case in a motion for a directed verdict after the second day of trial.

"I don't think it was established that Mr. Zukowski was the person who caused the fire . . . or that Mr. Zukowski acted willfully or maliciously in causing damage or injuries to others.

"Even if we were to believe the testimony, the only injury caused was to himself. The lighting of a cig-

Recycling trashes old habits

It's one thing to be nostalgic about old movies, '50s or '60s music, or the 1968 Detroit Tigers.

But nostalgic about trash?

In coming years, some could lament the passing of the good ol' days, when you threw all your garbage in a bag, set it at the curb and that was that.

Because the days are numbered for that way of tossing garbage.

Starting this spring in the city of Plymouth, residents will be required to put grass clippings and leaves in separate bags — not mixed with other trash as is allowed now.

And there will likely be penalties for those who will still mix their Pielecha, who has two children, was born Mary Lynne Davis. Her birth mother had 10 children, and many were placed in foster homes because she had health problems, Karen Davis said.

THE SISTERS learned that one thing they have in common is they are devout Christians. Before meeting, both attended the Jesus Center at Inkster Road and Eight Mile.

On that first visit at Davis' house, she brought out seven photo albums her mother had saved. They included photos of the children before they were given up to foster homes.

Residents picket Pursell's office

staff writer

Nearly 75 local and area residents opposed to U.S. support of the government in El Salvador picketed U.S. Rep. Carl Pursell's Plymouth office Friday at a noon protest

"We want Carl to stop funding the military government in El Salvador," said Stephen Williams, a rally organizer and Plymouth-Canton High School teacher.

Rachel Thiet of Plymouth, a University of Michigan student, said the recent murder of Jesuit priests in El Salvador helped move her to join the rally.

"It's just an escalation of everything that's going on there," she Paul Kobrak, also a University of Michigan student, said he came 'to protest Carl Pursell's voting record on El Salvador."

Pursell's press secretary Gary Cates stressed that the Republican congressman has spoken out strongly in Congress against the murders in El Salvador, and has urged "that the guilty parties be brought to justice," Cates said.

Pursell recently voted for a general foreign aid bill, Cates said, adding, "El Salvador is one component of that bill."

The rally was organized after a teach-in on El Salvador earlier this month at Wayne State University, which was attended by several people who were at the rally.

"On Thanksgiving, one of the things we give thanks for is our independence and our right to determine our own government," Williams said.

. Several U.S. congressmen have criticized the military government in El Salvador, which some say is tied to right wing activists believed responsible for the deaths of the priests and others who have opposed the government.

"Ten years and $4 billion later, the (Salvadoran) government continues to murder its own people, even the peaceful members of the religious community." Williams said.

As the group rallied outside Pursell's office on Main Street, the office was closed for the Thanksgiving weekend.

It's almost December, and few folks are thinking about baseball, right?

Wrong. It was more crowded than a major league dugout during a rain delay at the Radisson Plymouth Hotel on Friday - just 90 minutes after the opening of the 4th Annual Plymouth In The Fall Sports Collectors Con-Baseball card and sports memorabilia dealers from around the country converged on the former Plymouth Hilton for one of the Midwest's biggest sports shows. And so did fans, young and old.

In a hotel hallway, John Harter of Sturgis and his son Jason examined a brown briefcase full of cards they hoped to sell, before entering the packed show area.

"I like the older stuff; '60 and '61, the late '50s," Harter explained.

'I need a Pittsburgh Pirates team card, all the all-star cards in that series," said Harter.

He owns a 1954 Al Kaline card, from the Tiger's rookie year. JUST INSIDE the show area, Diana McSweeney of Farmington Hills stood behind a table stacked with baseballs for signing. Stars Mitch Williams, Willie Mays and Don Sutton were scheduled to appear during the three-day event. "Most are asking about Willie Mays," she said. When dealer Tim Craven and a customer begin talking "early Mantle," they're not discussing shelves over a fireplace. "I've got a '56 (Mickey) Mantle," the customer said. "Oh yea, I've got one too," answered Craven.

"The thing I liked when I first got into it is the little kids," said dealer Dick Hugenot of Webberville. But because collectors are becoming as investments — "It's kind of gotten out of hand," he added.

Don Green, a Plymouth-Canton High School 11th grader, sits with his knees drawn up in a hotel hallway outside the showroom, examining stacks of cards.

Besides the Tigers, he likes the Cincinnati Reds and Chicago-Cubs cards. "They're the closest National League teams," he explains. "Mark Grace (Cubs) is my favorite."

BOB CHIRICO of Columbus, Ohio, and his wife, Patty, sell un-opened boxed sets of cards. One trend Chirico has noticed is greater popularity of football and basketball cards.

Also, "There's more collectors and investors today," said Chirico, who owns a baseball card store in Colum-

Shoppers scurry to sound of sale bells

By Tom Henderson

The day after Thanksgiving was Shop-Till-You-Drop Day — the nation's newest holiday — for local shoppers at area malls. And Dora Thomas, Janie Wilson and Gladys Moyer weren't about to waste any time.

The three sisters arrived at Wonderland Mall, on Plymouth Road at Middlebelt, at 6:30 a.m., fully 30 minutes before it opened. By 9:10, they had their red shopping bags filled to the brim and were sitting on a bench in the middle of the mall, heads drooping while they caught their breath. They weren't done - far from it. They were just taking a break, getting ready to carry their stuff to their car and continue Round Two at Foland's.

"You have to shop in shifts," said Thomas, of Southfield.

Did they care to pose for a photo? "No, don't you know we have to lose weight before we get our picture taken?" said Thomas.

"What you do is, you go find three beautiful women, take their picture and put our names on 'em." And with that, they were up and

Local attorney plays major role in Poland bond offering

staff writer

How does an Irisher who doesn't speak a word of Polish ghostwrite a Loch Walesa speech?

"I tried to string together things he had already said," said Michael McGee, a bond attorney from Livenia. McGee, 35, wrote a couple of speeches when he worked as an administrative aide to Mayor Ed McNamara back in 1974-77 and made some speeches of his own in a campaign for state representative.

Actually, McGee had a heavier role in the recent annou the availability of $100 million in Poland Bonds. He works in the Detroit law firm of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, among the top 10 or 15 bond counsel firms in the SPEAKING IN Polish, Walesa, the Solidarity leader, took part in a Chicago ceremony with the Polish American Congress. Translation: There are many business opportunities in Poland, and investing money in Poland will prove to be very profitable, even if it does not bring immediate results."

Walesa also held out hope of establishing a market economy in a nation that has been under Communist Party rule since World War II. And he thanked those who believe 'deeds follow words."

First in line to buy $10 million was Michigan state treasurer Robert Bowman, trustee of the state pension fund. Bowman also said he intends to proceed with venture capital investments in Poland.

Second in line was the state of Illinois, bidding for $25 million. McGee said the two commitments bring the program more than one-third of the way to its target figure of $100 mil-

CENTRAL FIGURE in the deal is the man whose office is next to McGee's - Richard Walawender, 29, a Warren resident who speaks Polish and whose parents were born

"We're pals," said McGee, a Bentley High with two University of Michigan degrees. "He came to me one day and said, 'You've heard of Israel bonds. Is there any reason we can't do Poland bonds?'

"It takes a team - securities lawvers, joint venture experts. . . There were five on our team. I helped to think of how it could be structured."

Walawender took the outline to Solidarity officials and the Polish American Congress (PAC), based in " Chicago. In October PAC took the plan to Warsaw and reported it was warmly received by the new, Solidarity-led Polish government.

Bowman had to be satisfied, McGee said. "Bowman has certain controls - he wanted it invested in agricultural and medical purposes; he prohibited other uses.

"Poland has no law for bond financing. We wrote their statute for parliament."

This week Walawender, McGee and William Danhof of the Miller, Canfield firm are meeting in Warsaw with the Polish prime minister and finance minister.

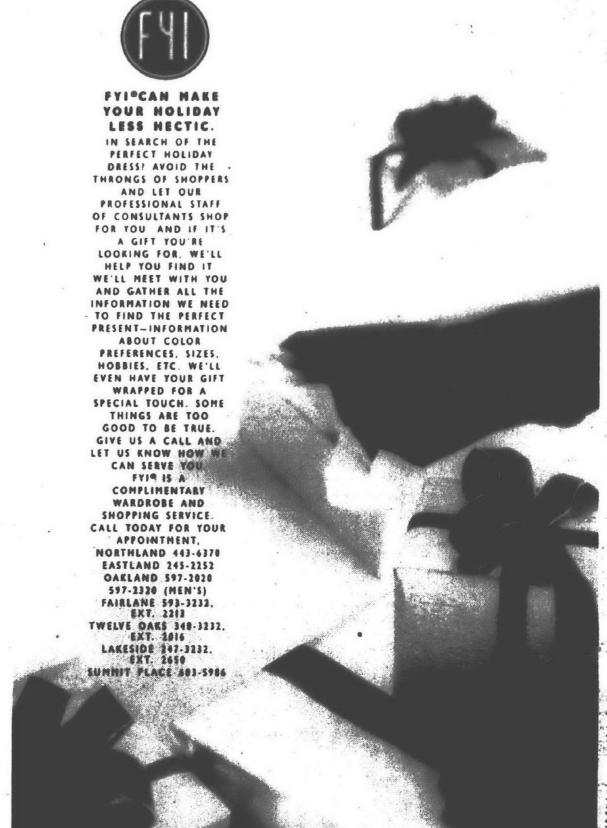

The bonds Bowman is acquiring will be like U.S. savings bonds - the interest will be compounded, not paid, increasing the bond's capital value. Later, the bonds will be convertible to coupon bonds on which interest is paid periodically.

McGee said Poland wants to upgrade its agriculture by acquiring more tractors. It also needs pharma-ocal delegation says yes to pay, ethnics package

WASHINGTON - Here's how Observer & Eccentric-area members of Congress were recorded on major goll call votes in the week ending Nov. 17.

HOUSE:

PAY AND ETHICS PACKAGE -By a vote of 252 for and 174 against, the House approved legislation (HR 3660) raising the pay of members of Congress and tightening their ethics and rules. The bill, which also raised the pay of federal judges and high executive branch officials, was sent to the Senate.

House members and senators would receive a 7.9 percent cost-ofliving increase Jan. 1 plus a cost-ofliving increase of up to 5 percent and a 25-percent raise in January 1991. This would raise their present $89,500 salary to about $125,000, up about 40 percent. Salaries of up to 834 top executive branch officials including Cabinet members and 1.115 Supreme Court, apellate and district court judges also would rise under the bill

Tightening congressional ethics, the bill prohibits lawmakers from keeping honoraria such as speaking fees, limits outside earned income to 15 percent of congressional pay, prohibits members from accepting gifts worth more than $200 and tightens certain travel rules. It repeals in 1993 the law under which House members elected before 1980 can convert campaign contributions to personal income when they leave

Michigan representatives voting yes were Carl Pursell, R-Plymouth,

William Ford, D-Taylor, Sander Levin, D-Southfield, and William Broomfield, R-Birmingha

Michigan member Dennis Hertel, D-Harper Woods, voted no.

CIVIL RIGHTS COMMISION -By a vote of 278 for and 135 against, the House sent to the Senate a bill (HR 3532) to renew the U.S. Civil Rights Commission for six months beyond its scheduled expiration on

The bill shelved President Bush's plan to extend the agency for six years under new commissioners appointed by him and Congress. It also dealt the White House a defeat by transferring from the president to tel, William Ford, and Levin voted Voting no was Broomfield.

TO HELP PAY FOR POPULA-TION CONTROL - By a vote of 244 against and 178 against, the House approved $15 million in American support of a United Nations program to slow global population growth.

The payment to the U.N. Population Activities Fund could not be allocated to China, said by critics to have coercive abortion and sterilization policies, or spent anywhere on abortions.

The vote reversed a previous House stand against U.S. support of the fund and put the House in agreement with the Senate that the $15 million should be sent to the U.N.

However, the House then reversed itself again, approving an amendment by anti-abortion legislators that gives President Bush power block release of the money.

Michigan members voting yes were Pursell, Hertel, William Ford, and Levin.

Broomfield voted no. SENATE

U.N. POPULATION FUND - By a vote of 52 for and 44 against, the Senate repudiated a House plan (above) for handling America's $15 million payment to the U.N. Popula-tion Assistance Fund. The House wanted to put the money on hold un-til President Bush certified the fund was not supporting coercive abortion and sterilization in China. A majority of senators saw this condition as meddlesome because legislative language already prohibited the American money from reaching China. The vote occurred during debate on HR

Both Democratic Michigan Sena tors Riegle and Levin voted yes.

CAPITAL GAINS - By a vote of 51 for and 47 against, the Senate en-dorsed White House-backed cuts in the capital gains tax rate for individuals and corporations. Included in the measure was a new Individual Retirement Account providing taxfree withdrawals.

Senators voting yes endorsed President Bush's call for a cut in the capital gains tax rate.

Both Michigan Senators Levin and Riegle voted no.

Where foodies hang out

Monday, November 27, 1989 O&E

Most foodies have a pre-set compass that will direct them to heir favorite gourmet shop or grocery.

Everybody has favorites, but a few interesting and out-of-theway boutiques and retail shops are so specialized that a holiday shopping excursion turns into a fantasy trip. I checked out the Festival of Trees in downtown Detroit last week with my wife and kids and, as usual, I parked at Greektown and took the People Mover over

BUT BEFORE embarking on the People Mover, a quick trip through Trappers Alley at Greektown unearthed a shop called Get Sauced that just opened last

This unusual and definitely one-of-a-kind little hole-in-thewall on the second level of Trappers Alley was brimming with the likes of Blue Crab Bay Seafood Marinade, Larry Forgione's famed Peanut sauce, an array of Justin Rashid's American Spoon Foods products and even Detroit's famous Sanders Anybody who is a foodie or wants a special edible gift for a foodie must put Get Sauced on the holiday trip sheet. Ask for a sample of a lemon curd that beats Momma's. What a neat concept!

JUST UP Gratiot from downtown Detroit is the famed Eastern Market area, and any foodie who has not visited Hirt's has yet to discover another foodie nirva-

Hirt's is loaded with speciality foods and "basket stuffing materials" that range from coffee beans to soup base

The store has condiments and a cheese-and-sausage counter reminiscent of the good old days.

The more you buy the more you save. If you need anything wicker to put it in, a trek up three flights of old wooden stairs will be well worth the trip.

WITH THE busy holiday shopping season upon us, it was a real surprise to see a store called the Dollar Tree open up recently at Wonderland Mall in Livonia.

Everything in the store costs a buck. Period. Nothing more, nothing less. Let me tell you, if you are hunting for some real bargains when it comes to basic, utilitarian kitchen items, at a buck each, this is the cheap place to

So far, the only locations for the Dollar Tree besides Wonderland Mall are Universal Mall in Warren and Macomb Mall in Roseville. Keep your eyes peeled, as this budget-minded emporium of the '90s will surely spread its wings and expand to every major mall in the area.

UNDOUBTEDLY ONE of my most favorite off-the-wall places to shop is Hartler Brothers in Ann Arbor.

The place is actually a feed store, but it has bubbled over into a quasi-gourmet shop filled with Americana and all the basics from the kitchen.

Real dish towels, the kind Momma used to use. Crockery pickle jars and bowls big enough to hold a dozen loaves of bread.

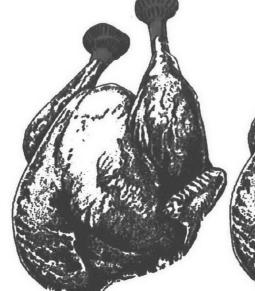

A ladder that rolls on a rail down the back wall of the store can take you from cast-iron cookware to rat poison, in one easy

Anyone into Americana has to put this place on the list, if not to shop, just to walk around in awe.

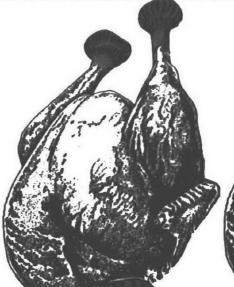

It's just west of Main Street and north of Huron Road. Ask anyone for directions because the place has got to have been there for at least a hundred years.

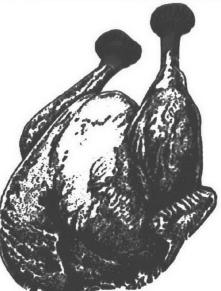

I'm sure there are more of these little mom-and-pop-type places that makes the foodle in us go wild, but space prohibits mentioning them. Do you have a favorite, relatively unknown place that foodies would go wild in? Drop me a note and I'll list the best. Until then, bon appetit!

Turkey takes to SAUSAGE

special writer

WE'VE ALL HAD our fill of Thanksgiving turkey, and maybe now you're coping with leftovers. But once that's out of the way, we can still talk turkey - with turkey

If you think that original pork sausage consumption is slipping in favor of a seemingly more healthy turkey sausage, you're right on the money. Anyone who has walked by the meat counter of a grocery store lately can see that turkey strategists have given a shove to "the other white meat" and have positioned themselves as a major threat to the meat and pork industry.

You name it and the turkey industry has adapted a product - one that is leaner, healthier, and with a flavor equivalent that just can't be beat.

Industry analysts project a 400 percent increase in turkey production. Five years ago, ground turkey meat was barely noticed by a few of the weight-conscious industries. Today, there are more brands with more products. Everything from turkey sausage, turkey ham, turkey bologna, turkey pastrami, turkey franks, turkey salami. You name it, they've got it.

THE BREAKFAST industry has really taken notice of turkey sausage. Anyone who has fried up a pan of bacon surely wonders about all the fat, not to mention the sodium and nitrates. Even pork sausage is being shunned for more leaner turkey sausage selections, mainly because the fat composition can have a whopping difference of more than 50 percent, depending on varieties.

Nutritionalists have long stated that our consumption of fat should be lowered, and turkey breakfast sausage sounds like a reasonable, great start. Not only is the fat content lower when using turkey breakfast sausage but the product has only 59 calories per ounce, compared to 79 calories per ounce for pork sausage.

'Corner cafe' goes upscale with LeMetro

In the remote past, for instance before prominent local chefs became better known than local politicians, the corner cafe was an institution. The clientele might have been wonderful, but you had to be a candidate for institutionalization to like

Today's version of the "corner cafe" is a far cry from the greasy spoon of yore. Many are full service restaurants with an upscale menu. They just happen to share a wall with a retail shop.

A restaurant of this "genre" is LeMetro, in Southfield's Applegate Square shopping center on Northwestern Highway, a salad plate's throw from the Mira Linder spa. LeMetro occupies a corner spot, a space the size of a small shop. With seating for 70, a small waiting area and a small kitchen, this restaurant has all it needs for its business — but not much more. Its almond-beige de-cor is bland or soothing, depending on your point of view, but its menu is

Though one might expect a limited menu in a restaurant of this size, LeMetro guests will find a broad and interesting range of entrees. On our visit, LeMetro was offering six appetizers, and each one sounded better than the one before. It also offered 11 entrees on the menu and two specials for the evening. Dinner entrees ranged from white Peking duck ($15.95) to lamb ($13.95), coq au vin ($11.95) or a combination of roasted venison and sauteed quali

Turkey gobbling up fatter competition

The trick dialogue here is "ounce." How many people do you know who can eat only an ounce of anything? Multiply that 20 calorie per ounce difference by the number of ounces unusually consumed by the average person and you can save a whopping 80 calories or more just by switching to turkey

Ah, but the bottom line is taste, right? How can anything so healthy maintain a high standard of relatively good taste? The Janes gang, although not known for its ability to discern between imported and domestic caviars, has long been proponents of real sausage and bacon for breakfast.

As a matter of fact, I can remember growing up in Wyandotte, and after Momma fried up a pan of regular sausage or bacon, she would use the same frypan, loaded with grease remains, to fry the eggs in. (Can't you just see those arteries hardening?)

I DIDN'T MESS around with random tastings either. Two weeks ago I ventured down to Wyandotte at 6:30 a.m., complete with a dozen eggs and fresh samples of both pork and turkey sausages. All Momma had to do was make coffee. For the record, she continually tried to sneak a look as to which package of what went into whose frypan.

But I purposety cut both samples into equal-sized proportions so that once in the pan, it would be diffi-cult to discern the difference. Once again, Momma's keen eye noticed the difference almost immediately. It was evident there was more fat in the pork-sausage pan than in the turkey pan.

After repeated requests to please sit down and let me do the cooking. she finally complied, and when the sausage was presented, after a quick pat with a paper towl to remove and visual grease, outward inspection could not discern a difference. Deep down, I think this bothered Momma because I think she wanted to show me that anyone could tell the difference, even before tasting. So, when it comes to eye appeal, our panel of tasters could find no difference between

I then asked our distinguished panel to smell both sausage patties, and to comment on their aroma. Dad said both products smelled the same, while Momma commented that if she were making the sausage, "it should have more sage." After reprimanding Momma not to compare a store-bought product to her own, she relented, agreeing with Dad - something she doesn't do too often. That makes both products even on looks and smells. Is this turkey sausage too good to be true? Upon cutting into both products, I immediately noticed that they were overcooked. Not so, said Momma, because pork should always be well done or you could get sick. Granted the more you cook breakfast patties the drier they get, but Momma and Dad both thought the products to be cooked adequately.

WHEN ASKED TO comment bout taste differences, Dad noticed that the pork sausage pattle was a little more flavorful than the turkey breakfast sausage variety. After sprinkling the obligatory, generous shake of salt and pepper on the turkey-sausage pattie, he pronounced it to be just as tasty as the pork variety.

Momma was a little more cautious. She sampled both products, and after taking healthy swigs of coffee between tastings, pronounced, somewhat disappointingly, that there was very little difference between the two, and that as far as she was concerned, the commercial pork sausage tasted just as good as the turkey breakfast sausage.

Dollar for dollar, expect to pay about the same price for turkey sausage as for standard rolls of nork sausage. The only difference here is that my coupon collection contains a few more "turkey product" coupons than regular pork-sausage coupons. How about yours? Another thing to remember is that turkey sausage contains less fat, there is less shrinkage and, there-fore, it is a more edible product per

Our family has always been a big consumer of turkey products. Ground turkey has been a staple on our table at least twice a week in place of ground beef, but in all honesty I've never used turkey breakfast sausage for anything other than breakfast. I was surprised to learn that turkey breakfast sausage works equally well in recipes calling for a great spice content. Recipes like spaghetti sauce, lasagna and tacos really seem to liven up their flavor when made with a turkey sausage. As a matter of fact, I'd go so far as to say that turkey sausage would be my first choice over regular ground turkey for a hearty spaghetti sauce.

• SLICER-SHREDDER

A new cordless, rechargeable SaladShooter slicer-shredder has been introduced by National Presto Industries, Inc., which last year brought out the original SaladShooter. Like its electric counterpart, the hand-held cordless SaladShooter streamlines salad making, shooting one ingredient after another directly into the serving bowl. Changing function from slicing to shredding is done by slipping out one cone and slipping in another. The cordless may be stored in a drawer. Its small power pack disconnects and can be plugged into any available outlet to recharge. The new SaladShooter sells for under $50.

A new beef, called Health Diet Beef, is genetically designed throughout both fat and lean portions to reduce fat, calories and cho-'lesterol. Cost is about 30 percent more than regular beef. However, because there is 25 percent less loss in shrinkage than regular beef, two adults need to use only six ounces instead of eight ounces of regular beef (vs. four ounces of USDA Choice). Health Diet Beef is available at Fisher's Market in Birmingham.

It is with great pleasure that I shed some light on this most nutritious and increasingly popular food item, used in this week's Winner Din-

Tofu, also called bean curd or soy cheese, is a custard-like and creamy substance made from soy beans. Tofu works like a sponge, soaking up the flavors of any food in which it is cooked. An eight-ounce serving of tofu has all the usable protein of a 51/2 ounce hamburger and almost no fat or cholesterol. An excellent source of calcium, iron, phosphorous and B-complex vitamins, it is no wonder that more and more healthconscious people are passing up fast food burgers and turning on to tofu.

This week's Winner Dinner, New York Spaghetti Pie, was submitted by Mary Fry of Bloomfield Township. Fry has gradually evolved into a complete vegetarian, and although her husband and three children sometimes eat meat, they too, generally follow a mostly vegetarian diet. This dish has been a long-time Fry family favorite, as it combines traditional taste with high nutritional val-

Although regular spaghetti can be substituted, it is worth the extra effort to buy soba noodles at your local health food store. These noodles add a delicious taste and texture to the meal. Fry's low-sugar Apple Crisp recipe offers a high-fiber ending to a healthy meal.

FRY HAS HAD an opportunity over the last five years to preach what she practices, giving vegetarian cooking classes at the Stone Soup Co-Op in Royal Oak, before it closed, and the Cass Corridor Food Co-Op in Detroit. She currently gives weekly vegetarian and whole-grain cooking essons out of her home.

NEW YORK SPAGHETTI PIE

This dish takes about 25 minutes to assemble, can be made in advance and amply serves 6 people. Soba noodles are made of wheat flour and whole grain buckwheat flour. They have a nice flavor and texture and are sold in health food stores. Fresh tofu can be found in the produce section of most large supermar-

1 egg and 2 egg whites, beaten ¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese 1/2 cup green pepper, chopped 1/2 cup onion, chopped

1 teaspoon olive oil 1 cup mock sour cream (1/2 cup nonfat yogurt and 1/2 cup low-fat cottage cheese, blended in food processor or blender) 1 pound tofu, drained 21/2 cups spaghetti sauce (bottled or home-made) 4 ounces mozzarella or mozzarella soy cheese, grated

Break the soba noodles in half and cook until al dente, which means "to the bite" - or slightly resistant and elastic instead of soggy. Drain. Combine eggs and Parmesan cheese and toss with warm noodles. Turn the noodles into an oiled 2-quart baking dish and spread them on the bottom. Saute the green pepper and onion in the oil until the onions are translucent, about 5 minutes. Mix with the mock sour cream and spread over the noodle mixture. Crumble the drained tofu into a skillet and mix with the spaghetti sauce. Simmer for 10 minutes. Spoon over the mock sour cream layer. Sprinkle the grated mozzarella over the top. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 min-

TOSSED SALAD

Use romaine or red or green leaf lettuce, as they have many more vitamins and minerals than iceberg lettuce does. Add any other vegetables of your choice and toss with some of the dressing below which is quick and easy to make.

juice of 1 lemon 2 cups rolled oats 34 cup whole wheat pastry flour (or regular white flour)

8-10 medium apples, sliced

1/2 cup maple syrup, honey or 1/2 cup barley malt (a sweet syrup made from maited barley and available in health food stores) 1/4 cup canola oil or vegetable

1/2 cup sunflower seeds 1 teaspoon cinnamon 1/2 teaspoon alispice 3/4 cup orange juice

Slice the apples and drizzle them with the lemon juice. Spread half of them in a 9-by-13-inch pan. Mix the maple syrup and oil and stir together with the combined oats, flour, seeds and spices. Spread half of this mixture on top of the apples. Cover with the remaining apples and the rest of the topping. Pour orange juice over the top. Bake for 40 minutes at 375 degrees. Cover if it browns too quickly. Raisins can be added to the apples if so desired. Blueberries, peaches or pears can also be substituted for the apples.

Canton advances to 'A' quarterfinals

Chiefs take 1st regional crown

staff writer

Jenny Russell couldn't say whether she had scored a career-high number of points or not Wednesday night.

She didn't care. It really didn't matter.

The important fact was Russell's 12 points were vital to Plymouth Canton winning its first regional championship in girls basketball.

Russell and Susan Ferko, who scored a game-high 22, combined to lead the Chiefs to a 48-40 victory over tournament host Trenton.

"I don't even know what my career high is," said Russell, a point guard averaging three points per game. "They've been telling me to shoot the ball, and the opportunities were there and I went with it."

Russell, who usually makes an impact with her defense and ball-handling skills, did have a career-high point total, and 11 came in the second half to help Canton take control of the contest.

THE NO. 9-RATED Chiefs, 21-3, will play No. 3 Benton Harbor in a Class A quarterfinal game at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at Jackson Lumen Christi High School. The game will be broadcast live by radio station WSDP (88.1 FM).

"We wanted (Russell) to shoot," Trenton coach John Biedenbach said, "but we didn't want her to drive in and shoot layups. She might have been the total difference."

In helping Canton defeat the Trojanettes for a third time this year, Russell got the Chiefs, who led 23-20 at halftime, off to a good start in the second half as she drove for two layups in the first minute.

That boosted the Chiefs into a 27-21 lead, and Canton's advantage was never less than three points the rest of the game. BUT IT was close until the end, and the Chiefs didn't have a comfortable lead until Ferko gave them an eight-point margin, 41-33, with 31/2 minutes

Even then, Canton needed free throws down the stretch to cement its first appearance in the final round of eight teams.

Trenton's height - 6-foot Katie Mans and 6-foot Kim Hoppes - gave the Chiefs trouble early, as those two combined to double team the 5-foot-11 Ferko and hold her to three first-half field goals from the low post. With a perimeter basket and 6-of-7 free throw shooting, Ferko had 14 points before halftime, however.

"WHEN THE ball went back to Hoppes' player, she recovered out," Canton coach Bob Blohm said, "and we didn't recognize it early. Hoppes was coming back outside, but when the ball came out we weren't patient enough to continue looking inside."

Russell's drives to the basket helped loosen up the defense in the second half, and the Chiefs were able to hit Ferko inside, resulting in layups or more free throws for an additional eight points.

"Going inside helped us a lot, because it got them in foul trouble and put us on the free-throw line," Blohm said. "That's a big part of basketball. You have to force the other team to guard you at the basket."

FREE THROWS were real important for Canton, which had one less field goal than the Trojanettes but was 24-of-35 at the line. Trenton made 14 of 24 free throws. Ferko was 8-of-10, Russell 6-of-9 and Stacey Thompson 6-of-10.

"Our goal was to shut down Ferko," Biedenbach said. "We had done that against some other good players in our league, and we thought we could do it again. We did a good job of double teaming her, but she's just a tough player. She works hard, and that's the thing."

Coach Bob Blohm gets a hug from senior Stacey Thompson as the clock winds down and victory becomes imminent for Plymouth Canton in the regional final Wednesday at Trenton. Also celebrating the win are (left to right) Kris Ford, Julie Toma,

The foul situation became critical for the Trojanettes when Mans, who scored 16 points to lead Trenton, sat down with her fourth foul at 3:33 in the third quarter and the Chiefs leading 30-27.

RUSSELL DROVE for another layup and Ferko scored to give Canton a seven-point lead entering the final period. "The key was on the blocked shot by Katie Mans," Biedenbach said. "We had to go two or three minutes with her on the bench, and that's when they got their spurt. Without her in the post, we're in trouble."

Trenton stayed within three, 36-33, on Brigette Anderson's basket, but another key sequence followed. Mary Barna, who held Hoppes to one field goal and six points, made a free throw, and Ferko scored back-to-back baskets, the second coming after a Thompson steal at midcourt with 3:47 remaining.

Christyn Halliday and Amy Westerhold. The Chiefs defeated host Trenton 48-40 and advanced to the Class A quarterfinals for the first time in school history. Canton will play Benton Harbor at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in Jackson.

"Our defense was what helped us win the game," Thompson said. "With us being strong defensively in the beginning, it brought us out at the end. Our offense will come when our defense is there.

"We knew if we did our best we'd have a shot at the end, but we couldn't take that for granted.'

FERKO'S SECOND basket made the score 41-33, giving Canton its biggest lead to that point, and the Chiefs went to their delay game and subsequently the free-throw line to secure the victory.

Russell made four straight free throws, Thompson two and Barna one for 48-38 lead with 12 seconds remaining.

"When we got ourselves on eight points, that was critical," Blohm said. "If you stay on four or six in a game like this, then you're susceptible."

Now that Plymouth Canton's girls basketball team has made it to the Class A quarterfinals, people are starting to notice the Chiefs.

Those people are their fellow students, however. From summer camp experiences, Canton already is well known around that state in basketball circles.

"Our school is so big it's hard for everyone to keep track of everything that's going on," said Stacey Thompson, a senior co-captain with Susan Ferko and Jenny Russell.

"We've had a lot of support from the school. Nobody knew who we were before, but now that we're starting to do something it's putting us in the spotlight."

Canton is one of eight teams remaining in the Class A tournament, and the Chiefs will be in the spotlight Wednesday when they play Benton Harbor at 7:30 p.m. in the Jackson Lumen Christi High School gymnasi-

"I'M EXCITED; I can't wait," Ferko said. "It's just fun to get there, and we're going to play our best."

The Chiefs go into the game with a 21-3 record and No. 9 ranking statewide. Benton Harbor is 24-1 and rated No. 3. They beat East Lansing 55-41 in the regional final at Lansing Eastern.

Wednesday's winner advances to the semifinals Friday at Grand Rapids Union High School and will play the winner of the West Bloomfield-Taylor Center quarterfinal at 8 p.m. scheduled for 2 p.m. Saturday at Grand Valley State University. "It's good to come this far and do well and play up to our potential," said Russell after she scored 12 points in Canton's 48-40 victory Wednesday over regional host Tren-

With Ferko (center), Thompson (forward) and Russell (guard), Canton has a quality player with experience at each position. The trio has been the backbone of a ballclub that won a second straight Western Lakes Activities Association title, held down the No. 1 ranking in Observerland all season and has gone the farthest of any Canton team in the state tournament.

"FERKO AND Russell were sophomores on the varsity, and they were getting experience against the good teams (Plymouth) Salem had," Canton coach Bob Blohm said. "I think

Poor shooting sends Patriots to defeat

Livonia Franklin found a lid on the basket last week, falling to Taylor Center in the Class A regional girls final at Dearborn Edsel Ford, 43-39.

The Patriots finished the season at 19-4 overall, their best-ever girls record.

Meanwhile, Taylor Center (24-1) moves on to the state quarterfinals Wednesday at Southfield. The Lady Rams will take on West Bloomfield (22-3).

Franklin fought tooth and nail with the much taller and stronger Lady Rams, but two free throws by Wendy Jamula with 44 seconds to go sealed the victory for Taylor with more than 2,000 career points, was held without a field goal. The 5-foot-10 pointguard, however, hit eight of 10 free throws.

Tila Thomas, a 5-11 senior, led Taylor Center with 16, while 6-2 center Jennifer Miller added 10.

Three Patriots scored in double figures. Leading the way was junior forward Juliann Steslak, who netted 13. Dawn Warner and Cheryl Hintz added 12 and 11, respectively. FRANKLIN was plagued by poor shooting, making only 15 of 48 shots from the

"Basically what it boiled down to is that we missed shots that we normally make," said Franklin coach Dan Freeman. "And it happened in both halves.

'I said to myself, 'keep taking them' because they're eventually going to go, but the shots kept rolling around and went off. The other parts of our game were there, but we just didn't finish off the shots.'

Despite the poor shooting, Franklin was tied 8-8 after one quarter, 21-all at the half and trailed by only two after three quarters, Stesiak's basket with 3:57 left in the game tied it at 35-all, but the Patriots scored only four points down the stretch.

A layup by Miller with three minutes to go gave Taylor Center a 37-35 lead. Franklin then lost out on a critical posses sion with 2:49 to play when Hints took a short turn-around baseline jumper that was blocked by the 6-2 Miller. Confusion arose whether the Rams' center had committed a foul or whether the Patriots had called timeout prior to the block.

Coleman directed a clutch, 67yard drive that tied the score and enbled Steve Hill to kick the gamewinning extra point with 1:34 re-maining in the Pontiac Silverdome.

"I couldn't picture losing my last me," Coleman said after leading Harrison to its second consecutive state title. "I don't think there's any better way to end your high school chreer than to win a championship and come from behind to do it."

The Hawks, who finished 13-0 and extended the state's longest winning streak to 26 games, got a break and much-needed shot in the arm when Matt Sperry blocked Marty Camp's extra point. DeWitt had scored the go-ahead touchdown with 2:20 remaining, but Harrison saw the opportunity for victory in that momentum-turning block.

Once everybody saw we were only down six points (27-21), that kinda inspired us," Sperry said. "As soon as I blocked it, I looked up at the clock and said 'We're going to win this - just get the ball in Mill's

"I was thinking of John Elway's 98-yard drive with three minutes to go (against the Cleveland Browns in the playoffs)," Coleman said. "That was going through my mind - the drive, the drive, the drive."

Coleman was the epitome of cool under fire, calmly using hand signals to convey audibles to his receivers and being content with a little yardage at a time.

He completed three straight firstdown passes covering 51 yards to Mike Saputo, Steve Hill and Greg Piscopink which put the ball on DeWitt's 16-yard line with 1:50 to Harrison coach John Herrington embraces quarterback Mill Coleman after the Hawks clinched back-to-back titles in the Class B final Saturday.

Coleman rolled out the other way and ran for the TD, lunging past oncoming defender Chris Berkimer at the 2 and diving into the end zone.

"We work on the two-minute drill every week, so that really helped us," Coleman said. "(The Panthers) were playing soft, and we were taking what they were giving us."

COLEMAN'S RUNS originated as sprintout pass plays, but there was plenty of room for him to run with DeWitt playing a prevent defense. He was Harrison's leading rusher with 89 yards on 14 carries.

"I liked all those pass plays I called that he ran in for touchdowns," Herrington said tongue-in-

Hill, who injured his kicking leg in the team's 3-2 victory over East Grand Rapids in the semifinal game, provided the deciding margin for the second week in a row and killed DeWitt's last hope when he intercepted Berkimer with 1:03 on the

"We were the so-called favorite, but it didn't look that way for most of the game," Herrington said. "I was wondering if we weren't going to get blown out in the first half." The Panthers, 12-1, gave an inspired effort that surprised most of the 16,090 in attendance.

Making its first appearance in the state finals and competing for the first time as a Class B school, DeWitt was awed neither by being in the Dome nor Harrison's tradition and No. 1 ranking.

"We expected to play this well," DeWitt coach Gail Thornton said. "We've played this well all year and, hopefully, people will know what we mean when we say 'We're from DeWitt and we play good football."

THE PROBLEM for Harrison was its inability to stop DeWitt running back John Telford, who rushed for 153 yards and two TDs on 16 carries.

Much to everyone's surprise, the Panthers pounded a Harrison defense that had been tough against the run, rolling up 248 yards on the ground.

Furthermore, the Hawks compounded that with three first-half turnovers, each of which the Panthers converted into TDs and a 21-7

Harrison had geared its defense to Cowdrey, but his counterpart in the wishbone was just as his a threat wishbone was just as big a threat. Telford scored on runs of 2 and 32 yards and threw a halfback pass for a 36-yard TD in the first half.

At the start, Harrison made it look as if the state final was going to be another romp like the 44-9 shellacking it dealt St. Joseph in 1968. Harrison needed five plays on the ame's first series to take a 7-0 lead. Coleman had two good runs and passed 35 yards to Ratsos for the TD before three minutes had elansed.

But the rest of the first half was a debacle for the heavily favored

HARRISON STUPPED the Panthers on their first possession but fumbled away the punt at its 35. Telford's short run capped the four-play

Coleman, who was 7-of-11 for 121 yards in the first half, saw both interceptions lead to DeWitt scores.

Prior to the second one and with the Hawks driving, the chains broke, and a 10-minute delay while another set was located interrupted Harrison's momentum. When play resumed, Cowdrey intercepted and Coleman had to make a TD-saving tackle at the 50.

"We had a nice drive going and had to stand around," Herrington said. "That's one of those things. There's nothing you can do about that."

Telford, having ripped through the Harrison defense a second time to make it 14-7 early in the second quarter, made the Hawks run conscious and vulnerable to the halfback pass, which he completed to a wide-open John Cowan.

Harrison responded with a Matt Conley 1-yard scoring run with 1:09 left before halftime, and Coleman took the Hawks on a 77-yard, gametying drive (21-21) early in the fourth quarter

Coleman converted third-and-long plays twice with his scrambling ability - the second run being an urgent 19-yard dash for points as he pushed his lead blocker, Roy Granger, into the end zone ahead of him.

But the Panthers turned around and went 78 yards during a timeconsuming drive (7:43 and 15 plays) for what seemed to be the game-win-

DeWitt faced third-and-12 and third-and-17 situations early and late, but a Telford run kept it going and a 24-yard pass to tight end David Riker set up Berkimer's 1-yard sneak with 2:20 remaining.

"There's was over two minutes left, and I knew deep down that was too much time," Thornton said. "I knew we'd have to come up with a big play and we couldn't.

'It was a matter of who made the last mistake, and tonight it was us."

Eleven million people in the U.S. have diabetes. But almost half of them don't know it.

Untreated, diabetes can lead to heart disease, kidney disease, blindness and gangrene.

And for 150,000 people each year, it leads to death.

That's why you should be aware of the symptoms of diabetes: blurred vision, excessive thirst and frequent urination are just some of the warning signs. Because the sooner you find out if you have diabetes, the more likely you are to get it under control, before complications set in.

Finding out you have diabetes can be scary. But not finding out can be fatal.

The win was the first ever regional crown for West Bloomfield and the Lakers will meet Taylor Center in a Class A quarterfinal at 7 p.m. Wednesday at Southfield High.

Taylor Center (24-1 overall) is led by guard Wendy Jamula, who has accred more than 2,000 noints in her career. The Lakers have two more days to think about the Rams, the Tri-River

"We need the rest," Greenberg said. "And we're going to take advantage of that. We have to respect Jamula. She's a good outside shooter. Hopefully, we'll do some stuff they haven't seen yet."

The Lakers were 14 of 18 at the free throw line, and Sipperly made all six of her attempts.

"I JUST SAID, "They're going in," Sipperly said. "We always expect a tough game. We came out real strong, then let up. Ronna will be a little disappointed. But she'll take it."

West Bloomfield committed 15 turnovers and that's uncharacteristic of the Lakers.

"Tonight I'm surprised we won," Greenberg said. "It was a crazy game. It shows we have the poise and character it takes to win the close ones. For some reason, we're not making free throws when there's no pressure. Tonight, we made them with pressure on.

• Drakeshire Lanes in Farmington featured my old teammate, Fred Ramierz, hitting an 836 series with games of 298, 290 and 248.

• In the Greenfield Mixed League at Country Lanes in Farmington, the leaders included Bob Akins (237/6-2), Leianne Dutton (212/523), Steve Mushinski (223, 225/651) and Mike Stefani (226/534). Clara Jimmerson chipped in with a 205 game while prebowling for the Thanksgiving weekend.

• Jim McPhail led the Friday Night

West Side Men's League at Bel Aire Lanes with a 674 series. Right behind was Mark Howes (274/668) and Bob Duman (650).

In the Senior House League on Tuesdays, Darryl Rollins shot a 298 game, leaving the four-nine split on the 12th ball. He finished with a 712 series.

Other top scorers included Willie Smith, 267/708; Fred Vitali, 244/693; Paul Koenig, 654; Mel Partovich, 259/ 644; Bud Gignac, 258/641; Tom Johnston, 649; and Lynn . ewis, 254/671. Bob Ritter converted the daunting 4-6-7-10 "double pinochle" split.

· At Redford Lanes, last week's action in the West Side Lutheran League featured these high scores: Eugene Chambers, 266/662; Frank Galitz, 649 series, Jarv Woehlke, 637; Tom Roy, 246/615; Craig Tillman, 603; and Jerry Laho, 254 game

. In the Ford Limited Salaried League at Woodland Lanes in Livonia, Bob Spear led with a 710 series. In the rollers, Linda Sydor bowled a 234. Jim Sterhang (268) and Dan Emmett (288/ 710) led the Men's Trio. Joan Hixon shot a 232 game in the Early Birds, while Greg Wizgird hit a 679 series in the Senior House League.

The Midnight Delco League featured Keith Spark at 751, while Angle Lupu fired a 233, 103 pins over her average in

In St. Edith's, Scott House shot a 288, while in the Friday Kings and Queens, Tom Elsey had a 749 series.

· At Mayflower Lanes in Redford. Vi Creighan delivered games of 203 and 213 for a 603 series.

In the Swinging Seniors, the leaders included Art Croteau (233), Don Wilson (227) and Jan Oliver (217).

• At Merri-Bowl in Livonia, Tom Wojnowski scored a 703 series to lead the Senior House League.

Randy Smith (780) and Bruce Herzog (765) paced the Right Approach-King

Louie Trio League. In the Ladies Classic, Darlene. Fiorenzi scored a 201, 267 and 180 for a 652 set. The Merri-Bowl Mixers featured Denise Wolber with a 628.

Linda Sueta scored 230, 199 and 232 for a 661 series in the Roving Jills, while the top scorers in the Golden Eagles circuit were: Mark Doehring (675), Bruce Benz (672) and Craig Senkowsk

· At Garden Lanes in the Dearborn Heights Men's League, Gordy Cantwell led the way with a 714 series on games of 258, 221 and 235.

Taylor Center eliminates Pats

She drew a fourth in the third quarter and eventually fouled out without scoring a point.

Miller also spent time on the bench, picking up her fourth midway through the third quarter.

"IT WAS A big plus that Jennifer was able to play in the fourth quarter," said Taylor Center coach Mike Leever. "I thought about putting her back in with five minutes to go, but I put her in with six and it worked out."

Although the Patriots couldn't find the rim, they played outstanding defense, led by sophomore point-guard Patty Shea, who was giving up five inches to Jamula.

"For the size differential, the girls did very well," said the Franklin coach. "Patty did a nice job on Wendy. And we were able to help out and do a reasonable job on Miller. We did a decent job taking away their perimeter game.

"But they (Taylor Center) have a lot of talent, and you can't key on one person.

Leever was surprised to hear afterward that Jamula had been heid without a field goal. "That's all right as long as she can get the ball to our post players - Jennifer and Tila," said the Taylor Center coach. "The girls were a little nervous, but with Wendy Chiefs still in contention season, and three straight wins against the same team can be difficult to do. But the Chiefs avoided any kind of letdown, getting a gamehigh 22 points from Ferko.

"We lost all three, so they're the better team," Trenton coach John Biedenbach said, "but all three were close. Bob has done a good job, and Ferko has my vote for all-state." Canton defeated the Trojanettes 50-41 in the season opener at Canton, and the Chiefs beat Trenton again in the consolation game of the Mercy Hoops Classic, 38-30.

BLOHM TOLD his players: "That was Game 1 and 4. Now it's like playing a new team.

"The kids got themselves ready to play and looked at Trenton, not as a team they had beaten twice, but as a team they had to defeat in the regional to get to the quarterfinals." And that will be the next stop on the tournament trail for Canton.

Thanks to Our Carriers!

Thanks and a trophy to these twelve terrific young men--our 1989 Carriers of the Year.

Throughout the year, these twelve Observer & Eccentric carriers have delivered their hometown news twice each week in all kinds of weather. They have done a super job in keeping their collections organized and settling their accounts promptly. We select carriers who have exceptional collection records, carriers who have been Carrier of the Month. Their length of service, their diligence, character and commitment to their work are all qualities that we consider when the time comes to honor these special carriers with a trophy and a dinner.

Amway Grand Plaza Hotel, right downtown on the Grand River, is one Grand Rapid's largest and best-located hotels.

A rapid trip through a grand city

By Carolyn DeMarco staff writer

Monday, November 27, 1989 O&E

You need a weekend off and you're longing for city lights. New York's too expensive. Detroit's too close. Chicago's too far.

Remember Grand Rapids, Michigan's second largest city? With a 200,000, it's certainly not the Big Apple (nor does it pretend to be).

But there's enough activity offered to fill a winter weekend nicely. And, as a bonus, it's less than 21/2 hours from Detroit.

large, but not too large, city is appealing, read on.

THE LUXURIOUS Amway Grand Plaza Hotel, right downtown on the Grand River, is certainly the area's largest and best-located hotel, and the rates reflect it.

If you can't get a special weekend package, plenty of other moderate hotel choices are available. Among them are Days Inn, Red Roof, Marriott, Quality Inn and Holiday Inn.

One obvious "what to do with ourselves now that we're here" is the Gerald R. Ford Museum, an incore population of less than teresting afternoon whatever your politics, and cheap at $1.50 per person. It's just a walk over the Grand River bridge from the Amway.

Films and two dozen displays trace the 38th president's life from his early childhood in Grand Rap-If the idea of a weekend in a ids, through his University of Michigan football years and on to the House of Representatives, then his selection as vice president and his swearing in as president. Of special interest is a reproduction of the White House Oval Off-

Hours are 9 a.m. to 4:45 p.m.

Monday through Saturday, noon to 4:45 p.m. Sunday. It's closed Thanksgiving Day, Christmas and New Year's Day.

SOME OTHER sights to see:

• The Alexander Calder Sculpture at Ottawa and Lyon is worth a drive by, if only to ask yourself quietly what other people see in the red-orange "La Grande Vitesse."

• The Fish Ladder Sculpture. Ah, now we're talking something practical here

The sculptor's plan was to help the spawning salmon climb the rapids instead of knocking themselves out to defy gravity and the Grand River rapids, but no one told the fish, at least the day we visited. It's still fun to say you've been. • Heritage Hill is a nationally recognized historic district of 365 acres and 60 residential architectural styles.

Among them are the Meyer May House, 442 Madison Avenue, a Frank Lloyd Wright restoration of the 1909 house. Free tours are offered 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday, 1-5 p.m. Sunday.

The Voigt House Victorian Home Museum is close by. This magnificent house needed no restoration. The Voigts never threw anything away or changed a thing.

The clothing of the day displayed on beds, the wallpaper, the dozens of rocking chairs are all authentic, as are the items that stocked the pantry and the laundry room, like laundry flakes.

The house is open 1-3 p.m. the second Sunday of each month and 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Wednesdays.

• The Grand Rapids Art Museum, 155 Division, is a short walk from the Amway and worth the ex-

Larger than a small museum, smaller than a large museum, it's worth an hour of your time to view the traveling and permanent exhibits, especially the furniture room. It's free Tuesday and Saturday.

· While you're in the vicinity, stop at the Kendall School of Art and Design. One recent display on the school's main floor was a jukebox exhibition, "Man, They Dig This Jive." Fifteen jukeboxes were on display dating from 1927.

· For downtown shopping, visit the City Centre Mall, a three-decker Trappers Alley-type affair, or the adjacent Monroe Center pedestrian mall.

Hats in the Belfry is a small haberdashery that carries everything from berets to deerstalkers to Australian cowboy hats. Try the Shaver and Pen Center, "Michigan's Largest Pen Dealer." Or The Great Divide, which sells only U-M and MSU memorabilia.

YUU CAN do lots of things if January. Bring downhill or cross country skis or ice skates.

For maps and information on outdoor recreation spots, including public ice skating rinks and folks who offer sleigh rides, send for a free copy of "Grand Rapids Guest Book." Bed and breakfast places are also listed. Write Gemini Publications, 40 Pearl NW, Suite 1040 Trust Bldg., Grand Rapids 49503. Or call (616) 459-4545.

"On the Town," a tabloid calendar of events for the month, is also distributed free. Write Downtown Publishing Inc., 759 Butterworth SW, Grand Rapids 49504. Phone (616) 451-0361.

For a little more general information on the western Michigan area, send for "Visitors Guide West Michigan," from Visitor's Network, 190 Monroe NW, Grand Rapids 49503. Phone (616) 459-1297.

By Chris Rizk special writer

If the temperatures are cold these days, Chris Bedford declines to take credit for it.

Temperatures, he said, are only a small part of his duties as a meteorologist since 1986 with the New York-based firm of Galson Technical Services, Inc., an environmental consulting firm for special interest sporting groups.

But he will take partial credit for returning the America's Cup to America and away from the Australians.

Admittedly, Bedford's sailing skills did little to recapture the most-coveted sailing prize. But his knowledge of weather conditions

Bedford, who has ties to Redford (and yes, he's heard all the jokes about Bedford/Redford, he said) through his parents who live there, has the lucrative title of "weatherman" for America's Cup team leader Dennis Connor.

"Well," the 25-year-old said hesitatingly, "let's just say they asked me back."

Connor first asked Bedford to join his team when the latter's boss, Lee Davis, relinquished the title to pursue a teaching position at the University of Michigan.

Return trip still entertaining

Once again, friends, it's time to time-warp so rev up your DeLorean and brace yourself for an exciting and delightful trip "Back to the Future Part II" (B±, PG, 90 minutes).

In this sequel, Marty McFly (Michael J. Fox) learns from Doctor Emmett Brown (Chrstopher Lloyd) that, in the year 2015, Marty's kids Marty Jr. (Michael J. Fox) and sister Marlene (Michael J. Fox) are in trouble. Unless Marty can intervene and alter things, Marty Jr. will go to jail and a whole string of misfortunes will follow.

Marty is whipped forward by Doc to 2015 in order to avert catastrophe. In this future segment Michael J. Fox plays three roles - Marty, Marty Jr. and Marlene - courtesy of the makeup department. Generally that's OK but there tends to be a rubbery, Halloween-mask quality which works against Fox's visual im-

Marty helps his son by outsmarting the villain, Griff (Thomas F. Wilson), grandson of Biff, circa 1955. This secures the future but while in 2015 Marty gets greedy and purcha es a sports almanac listing events

Grandpa Biff made a lot of money which leads to a corrupt and depraved Hill Valley in 1985. Unfortunately some of Biff's villainy is a touch too cruel and unpleasant for the film's generally happy atmos-

A pair of musicals with unusual twists

special writer

It's easy to look at movie musicals as mindless entertainment whose sole purpose is to make people hum the soundtrack on their way home. In a week brimming with musical screenings, two of the titles, "Love Me or Leave Me" (1955) and "Cabin in the Sky" (1943), have that same end result. But - as their troubled characters can attest - it's a long. hard road getting there.

Take Ruth Etting, the subject of "Love Me or Leave Me," screening Tuesday morning at Livonia Mall. The famous 1920s torch singer was as well known for her lousy marriage to a gangster as for the songs she made popular.

In adapting her story for the screen, Oscar-winner Daniel Fuchs didn't pull any punches. The end result was perhaps the most disturbing and honest show biz biography of the DORIS DAY played Etting, the talented chorus girl whose career flourished under the financial support of gangster Martin "The Gimp" Snyder (James Cagney). Forced into marriage, Etting fell in love with another man — whom Snyder tried to murder out of jealousy.

The chemistry was unusual - to say the least. Cagney, well known for gangster roles, elicited both sympathy and revulsion as the psychopathically jealous Snyder. The role echoed slightly more subtlely than his intense mother fixation in "White Heat" (1949).

Day, meanwhile, surprised everyone with her polgnant, dramatic performance. She did justice to the renditions of Etting classics - "Ten Cents a Dance" and "Shaking the Blues Away" - along with a pair of received by critics and audiences and could have turned Day into a major dramatic actress. Press releases called the film "The Dawn of

Though she worked with Hitchcock on "The Man Who Knew Too Much" the following year, Day soon returned to the squeaky-clean roles that made her famous.

THE DARK aspects of "Cabin in the Sky," meanwhile, spread well beyond its all-black cast. In it, the forces of good and evil wrestle for the soul of a likeable no-account named Little Joe (Eddie "Rochester" Anderson).

In the world of "Cabin in the Sky." jazz music becomes synonymous with sin. Louis Armstrong is all smiles as an assistant to Lucifer Jr. (Rex Ingram), and Duke Ellington sizzles at the local den of iniquity.

"Cabin in the Sky" was based on a popular Broadway play, and was the first of many musicals directed by Vincente Minnelli. Despite the obvious racial stereotypes, a black cast has rarely been used so creatively.

The film sets up familiar good girl and bad girl counterparts in Ethel Waters and Lena Horne. As Little Joe's faithful wife, Waters comes off surprisingly sexy when vamping it up in an attempt to make her husband jealous. She introduced the song, "Taking a Chance on Love."

Ageless Horne, meanwhile, is at her most striking in this film. She puts on sin with the same ease of slipping into a sexy silk blouse.

"Cabin in the Sky" teams with "Singin' in the Rain" (1952) this weekend as the Tele-Arts Theatre takes a break from premieres with a monthlong look at vintage films.

VIDEO VIEWING

Foreign films that deserve a VCR visa

By Dan Greenberg special writer

Foreign film fans - as well as those who seldom sample tape offerings in that section of the video store - may be interested in the wide variety of entertaining movies available from overseas. A student once asked me, in all sincerity, whether or not there was some requirement that all foreign films must have sad endings.

While there is no such rule, most imported films are more serious than Hollywood entertainment. There are a number of reasons for that, but what we so here does not saily represent foreign film producted. Their reputation to the contrary, not all imported movies are existed a creation, philosophical or existed a contrary. The concerned with social problems.

Western European ones, are produced in cultures with long traditions of open discussion of social issues. There also is a strong tradition of the motion picture as an art form

Then, too, there is the high cost of stribution and exhibition so that distributors are reluctant to spend big bucks without some sort of publicity hook to reassure them that the film will appeal to the American market. "Best of the Festival" at Venice or Cannes or "The Golden Something Somewhere Else" are usually awards won for artisitic merit and qualify as the needed boost for ticket sales.

Of course nowadays videocassette distribution eases the financial burden on importing foreign films to this country. The extensive racks at many video stores are ample testimony to this and there's lots of entertainment available, new and old.

TWO VERY excellent, older German films which launched their stars' careers - "M" with Peter Lorre and "The Blue Angel" with Mariene Dietrich - always are available and are a must for every film fan. The former is about a psy-chopath (Lorre) whose killings set Berlin on edge and concludes with Recently a number of French films have been remade quite successfully in this country, e.g., Ted Danson in "Cousins," and Danson with Tom Selleck in "Three Men and a Baby." A few years ago Gene Wilder and Gilda Radner remade the 1977 French comedy, "Pardon Mon Affaire" (color, PG, 105 minutes).

"Affaire" was directed by Yves Robert, better known for "The Tall Blonde Man with One Black Shoe" also remade on this side of the Atlantic and also available in its original

"Pardon Mon Affaire" is dubbed and it's a pretty effective comedy about four friends and their problems with sexuality and aging. Despite that topic, the film is properly rated PG. Stowe-ing away the songs

"It's My Turn" is Stowe's second album since embarking on a solo career.

Singer strums away, shuns music's labels

By Larry O'Connor staff writer

You can calls him Bruce Springs-teen. You can calls him Warren Zevon. You can calls him John Cougar Mellancamp. But you doesn't has to call him a folk-roots-rock-pop wouldn't.

For Stowe, labels belong on clothes and food products, not music. He actually prefers being compared to another artist than have his music affixed with some description that doesn't apply.

"I try to avoid labels of any kind," said Stowe, 30, a native of Franklin and a Birmingham Groves graduate, 'especially ones like stale or something like that."

That would probably be the last thing one would call his latest LP, "It's My Turn," on the New Yorkbased independent label Gadfly Records. Stowe's music includes folk, rock and even reggae this time

The cover features a person trying to balance the cube (from Ann Arbor) on his finger. Sometimes humorous, sometimes serious, indeed, this LP is something of a balancing act for Stowe (whose real name is Mitch

"It's My Turn" is the follow-up to the singer/songwriter's acclaimed debut "The Legendary Ichabod Stowe" two years ago. Though wellreceived, the LP perhaps didn't capture the essense of what Ichabod the artist who is quite versatile. Versatility is Stowe's middle name. After all this is a guy who has two master's degrees, teaches the martial art Aikido Yoshinkai, held public office in Ann Arbor and had a role in the Dino DeLaurentis film "Evil Dead II."

Stowe's musical resume is as extensive. His musical roots can be traced to Ann Arbor, where he joined rock'n'roll, the man is less so.

Heyyyy Bo Diddley

HE WENT on to Washington D.C. where he was in a group called The Jump and then performed with a band in Paris, France, The Ice Cream Men.

A move to the Big Apple, though, would prove to be the core of his solo career. It's a career that continues to evolve despite the usual obstacles. He doesn't have a record deal, operating his own label, and he is trying to stake a claim in the highly competitive New York folk scene.

"It's a double-edged sword," Stowe said. "(New York) is a better place for meeting people from other parts of the country, it's more centralized. Again, on the other hand, you don't walk down the street and meet the president of C.B.S. Records."

Nonetheless, Stowe carries on. His audience is targeted, primarily college-educated people who listen to such things as lyrics. Now, it's only a matter of reaching them.

He believes an open-minded audia, ence helps give him carte blanche in terms of the type of music he performs. Along with folk, pop and reggae. Stowe has a bagful of rockabilly tunes he might pull out during a live performance. That won't change anytime soon, he said.

"I write whatever I feel like writing," he said. "I don't think of it as settling down, I think of it as limiting yourself. If you enjoy writing in different styles, if you cut yourself off from that . . . I don't know why you would do that."

Much the same attitude is applied to his choices of venues for live performances. He will perform a show at his alma mater, Birmingham Groves, on Thursday, Dec. 7. He will also perform that evening at The Ark in Ann Arbor. He talks of perhaps one day performing a show at the Apple Orchard in his hometown of Franklin.

Nonetheless, Stowe is looking forward to returning to his old school. "The guy who book the date wanted to know what I did in high school," Stowe said. "Basically, I went to school. There no extracurrica band, Gary Pryka and the Scales. ular activities . . . I was just there."

Culture gone mad

Por years, suburbia's social elite have been forced to travel downtown for their cultural pursuits. From the DSO to the DIA, the big city has traditionally enjoyed a monopoly on highbrow entertainment.

Now, culturally-deprived suburbanites can stand tall, thanks to the debut of the prestigious "Museum of Failed Products" in Farmington Hills. Exhibiting only those cultural milestones conceived in suburbia, the MFB threatens to turn metropolis green with envy.

Meanwhile, join me for a sneak preview as we take a burb-by-burb look at our hometown inventors:

No. 1. Redford's talented Sister Cordova is the proud inventor of the original "Meat Detector." Developed in the '50s for use by the Catholic Church, this portable electronic sensor helped enforce meatless Fridays on the faithful.

Every Friday, plainclothes nuns would drive past parishioner's homes at dinner time and scan them for meat. If the detector's needle swung into the red, the sisters would surround the house, shouting 'Where's the Beef?"

The papal edict lifting the ban on meat spelled doom for the local manufacturer. However, a modified -; version is still being used by fastfood restaurants to locate hamburger patties too small to see with the

No. 2. Next time you nuke a frozen pizza, pause a moment to say "thank you" to Tom Bunker of Troy.

While experimenting with electromagnetic radiation, Tom invented the revolutionary new appliance he dubbed the "Open-Air Microwave Oven." Unlike today's fully enclosed models, this early prototype was open on three sides for easy access.

Sensing the future market for microwave cooking, industry flocked to purchase the rights to Bunker's idea. Unfortunately, before the royalty checks arrived, Tom's family had mutated into alien life forms and slithered off into the storm sewers.

No. 3. Jack Kinzel of Westland had a terrible habit of oversleeping. Finally, to keep from losing his job, he was forced to create the "Alarm Clock from Hell."

Designed for folks who can ignore ordinary snooze-alarms, Jack's wake-up call began with the superamplified sound of fingernails squeaking across a blackboard. If the audio alert went unheeded, jets of my water soaked down the bed. If that failed, a dozen electric cattle prods were lowered from the ceiling. If there was still no response, hundreds of needles protruded up through the mattress to suspend the can killer bees were released into the room.

Unfortunately, the buzzing of the angry insects lulled Kinzel back to sleep and he scrapped the idea.

No. 4 Back in the '70s, Southfield was the hub of discomania. Excitement peaked when local dance champ Conrad Lupanoff was hired to teach John Travolta a few simple moves for Saturday Night Fever. When the lessons failed, Lupanoff constructed the "Automatic Disco

Using robotics, a set of rods and levers were installed around Travolta's legs. Once the dance steps were programmed in, the motorized splints completely controlled his lower body. With the machinery concealed by bellbottoms, all Travolta had to do was swing his arms and curl his lip to the beat.

After the success of the movie, Lupanoff earned his own place in the record books by winning 14 dance marathons in his battery-powered slacks. Able to dance vigorously while eating or sleeping, Conrad stunned the judges by dancing for eight straight days! Sadly, Lupanoff retired in disgrace when heat from an overloaded circuited melted his polyester suit.

No. 5 Birmingham jogger Bob Mango had a dream of training indoors during the harsh Michigan Finding traditional "conveyorbelt" treadmills too expensive, the resourceful Mango designed the first ever "Circular Treadmill." By turning an old lawn mover upside down and attaching a giant plywood disc to the driveshaft, Bob devised an exercise witnesses described "like running in place on a huge record album.

Unfortunately, there was no way to control the speed of rotation and during the trial run Bob was flung off over the horizon, never to return.

It's said to be the world's first all-natural deodorant. Made from 100 percent all natural mineral salts, Crystal Body deodorant is the newest alternative to standard spray, spritz and roll-on deodorants. The crystalline rock leaves a thin, invisible layer of mineral saits that prevents the formation of odor-causing bacteria. Imported from France, the deodorant retails for about $10 and is said to last a year. Available at area Meijer stores.

> It's tough to catch Richard Lewis when he's not working.

> Technically, when we caught up with him last week, he was "on hiatus" from his ABC series "Anything But Love." However, the scenario painted by the frenetic comic could be more realistically titled "anything but rest.

"I'm at some mountain retreat." Lewis said, somewhere in California off the beaten path. That sounds restful enough, but what is the man really up to?

"I'm planning the rest of my concert tour because I've been working so hard on the sit-com," he said. "I'm pouring over millions of ideas because I'm doing Detroit, Philly and Carnegie Hall.'

That sounds more like it.

Although constantly referring to his series as "the sit-com," it's obvious that Lewis is giving his all to the project, despite its overwhelming impact on the rest of his life.

'When I do the sit-com, I have no day through Friday, and on Saturday, I'm a goner.

"When I was writing a screenplay
(a recently finished piece for HBO called "No Life to Live"), having a Letterman got a late night talk show relationship, doing concerts and the sit-com, it was really almost unfair," Lewis lamented in characteristic New York Improv). fashion. "It was almost like, 'let's "Anything But Love" is in its first full season on ABC and Lewis is excited about its possibilities.

"ABC believes in the show, me, her (co-star Jamie Lee Curtis) and the rest of the cast. I'm happy with the writers and the cast. We all get

NOT SURPRISINGLY, Lewis' character on the show, a magazine writer named Marty Gold, does bear a strong resemblance to himself. "I have many more problems than he does," said the ever-neurotic com-"Not recently," he said. "A mountain stream, I understand, is theraneutic. I understand things to be therapeutic, I just haven't experienced them." On stage, where it took him more than a decade to be discovered, Lewis is perpetual motion, tossing his twisted observations at the audience while sporting a slouched comedic stance more suited for a professional fighter.

"I see my posture improving time for stand-up. I'm working Mon- around the year 2008," he said. "I don't want to stand up straight. I think it would be bad for the act."

His career did not start its steady (they worked together on the old comedy circuit, particularly the by Dave's show," Lewis said. "I'd been in stand-up 10 years prior to getting on 'Late Night.' Letterman knew that stand-up wasn't my best art form on network television because you only get four minutes. Fortunately, he got a show, and 45 guest spots later, I have a follow-

The frequent Letterman spots propelled the Lewis-coined "from hell" family of phrases into the American counsciousness. There have been dates from hell, actresses from hell, kitchen appliances from hell - you name it. The whole idea was something Lewis generated about 10 vears ago.

"In that time of my life, I wasn't a hellish person, but I felt victimized by all these people. They're from hell, not me. I guess I just picked the darkest metaphor possible.'

Lewis' style has often been compared with Lenny Bruce, and his material has been likened to that of Woody Allen. Lewis admires both, but has an especially deep reverence for Bruce.

"I ADMIRED how prolific he was, but more importantly, I admired his ahead of his time.

"I really didn't have much time to myself in Australia," he said. "I was up between 4 and 5 a.m. and I'd finish at 9 p.m. pretty much seven days

In fact, Bedford said, he had a total of seven days off between September and January while preparing for the Cup races.

"We even had to work Thanksgiving Day," he said. "It's a concentrated effort to win." Bedford said he took a "quick"

His shining hour

By Cathle Breidenbach special writer

AST APRIL when Charles Bullock decided to manufacture and market glimmering ornamental Christmas trees, sentiment played as big a role in the decision as business know-

He says when people succumb to the shimmering serenity of his trees, "It's an emotional buy no matter what. The trees are so when they're near lights, they sparkle like they're lit up themselves. If emotions move people to buy the tree kits called Ornamentrix.

emotion also lies behind Bullock's own decision to go into the Christmas tree business. The trees and the holiday have become a family affair. The partiallyretired manufacturers representative will be 60 Dec. 25. His wife. Jill. was also born on Christmas Day, and that's just the beginning of the mix of traditions and memories that persuaded him to fill his basement with floor to ceiling boxes of shiny balls and packaging materials and to become an entrepreneur again.

The most persuasive reason is that his 82-year-old mother, Rose Bullock, first created the decorative trees 40 years ago.

"DURING MY YOUNGER years," Bullock reminisces, "Dad was busy making a living as vice president of a manufacturing company. He always came home with a briefcase packed with work. So mother and I became pals. She taught me to cook soup and corn relish and to bake pies. She and I played horseshoes and she tossed a football

Rose Bullock came up with the idea of making the trees from graduated sizes of glass Christmas balls topped by a spiked ornament. The tiers of balls were mounted on a spindle and her husband made a metal base to anchor the tree. Her creations have sparkled on coffee tables and end tables during the holidays ever since - a treasured heirloom she shared with family and friends

A year ago July, she moved from her large home in Bloomfield Hills to Mercy Bellbrook, a complex for senior citizens not far from where Charles and his wife live. Over the holidays at her new home, "people oohed and aahed and asked her where whe got her trees," says Bullock, "and one fella said from out of left field, 'Geez, you ought to market those."

Charles Bullock couldn't banish the idea from his mind and decided to launch a new business. Certainly the lifelong businessman knew how to go about starting a business. He'd done it several times before, once on a large scale with a tool and die shop. Unlike his previous business ventures, this one capitalizes on emotions - his own and his buyers'.

FIRST HE PATENTED the trees which he sells as a kit because there's no unbreakable way to ship them assembled. Expenses to get his patent approved cost $6,000 up front. The trees may look uncomplicated, but the multiple details of patenting them, purchasing parts, designing packaging that could withstand UPS shipping, and booking advertising demand careful planning not to mention considerable outlay of money.

After Christmas last year, Bullock bought sample balls from stores all over town to find out names of manufacturers as potential sources.

"Only two manufacturers make supply problems he encountered, and "nobody makes tops in the U.S." Back in April he wanted to place an order for spiked tops through Bronner's in Frankenmuth, but it was already too late to take advantage of Bronner's bulk order discounts. So he ordered independently - tops from Colombia, South America, and balls in assorted colors from a company in Los Angeles.

Even though silver is his hottest seller, he couldn't specify color quantities because manufacturers can't afford to hand pack orders. Computers do the packing and buyers must take either cases of predetermined color mixes or full cases in all one color. Matching ball colors presented the next hurdle. The blue and green on imported balls which he uses for the tops of his trees quarrel with the colors of balls from his Los Angeles supplier. "The imported blues are nearly purple," he says. Clashing colors led him to his basement "laboratory" to experiment with spray cans of assorted automotive transparent acrylic lacquers. He rigged up a cardboard box spraying chamber and set up fans to speed drying.

IN HIS "LAB," he worked out close color matches. He offers the trees in silver, gold, red, green and blue or in two color mixes.

Next he negotiated with businesses to manufacture the 4-inch plastic discs that support the tree and won't scratch furniture surfaces. "I wanted to make 100 trees to start," he said, "but manufacturers wouldn't even waste the time to quote me on that volume." Quotes on molds to lock at 647-8370.

produce the bases ranged from $175 to over $12,000. He settled on a Wixom company that charged a moder-ate price for the mold and two dollars per disk. "I totally blew estimates of packaging costs," he says of another hurdle in starting up his business. Packaging accounts for 20 percent of costs because the 16 glass balls and spiked top must nestle securely in molded urethane to keep them from breaking.

One manufacturer told him, "You gotta break some eggs to make an omelet," but he didn't want any of his customers to receive kits with broken balls.

Finally Manhattan Container Co.

in Hazel Park came up with a sturdy package for the kit that doubles as a permanent storage box. Bullock sent the carefully designed two-pound package to the UPS lab in Illinois to see if it could withstand their drop, vibration and puncture tests. He facetiously says, "It passed the UPS drop kick test.'

Finally he investigated advertising in Better Homes and Gardens and Traditional Home Magazines and was overwhelmed by the cost. When he inquired two months ago, he says, "Not only was I too late, I couldn't afford them" Earlier in the year, he made a sales circuit of upper Michigan and talked with six different retail operations. Most had already ordered their Christmas supplies and he discovered a marketing problem - "I can't afford to sell low enough so they can mark the trees up 100 percent.

HE DELIBERATELY priced the trees to "meet IRS guidelines limiting gifts and entertainment to $25," so the trees would be eligible for business gift giving. The kits sell for $24.95 plus $4 shipping and handling.

"It's the best kept secret in Livonia."

It's called Woodridge Apartments. It's the most perfect combination of luxury and comfort I've found. And I love being just a couple of minutes from the great malls in Livonia, and I-696. (Of course I love to shop-who doesn't?!) I also love the tennis and pool right here, and the fact that I have covered parking for my car. The rent makes sense to me too. Since I have so many other things I want to spend my vast (?) resources on. Call 477-6448...and see for yourself today.

Mission Springs features 101 acres of home sites with five parks such as the Lakewood model by Invanhoe-Huntley are surrounded by trees.

By Louise Okrutsky staff writer

After three others failed to develop separate pieces of a sensitive plot of land, Gary Shapiro of The Ivanhoe Cos. assembled two parcels into Mission Springs on Darb Lake in West Bloomfield.

"It took me a long time to acquire it," Shapiro said of the property. His plans needed to conform to West Bloomfield and the state Department of Natural Resources wetlands and woodlands regulations.

Out of that grew a development with 101 acres of home sites with five parks and 1,750 feet of lakefront on Darb Lake. A bridge leading from Willow Road was built over wetlands and continues 600 feet into the developed area. The development is west of Hiller Road off Willow.

"I wanted to bring the development in from a paved road. If the bulk of the houses were in the back, you would have had to drive through the neighborhood behind us to get to it," Shapiro said.

Working with the DNR, he came up with a plan that saved 50 acres of wetlands and allowed 80 percent of the lots to back up to a park. There are five cul de sacs in the development. Houses are almost literally built around trees.

"It's more difficult and expensive to build on a treed lot," said Scott Jacobson of SR Jacobson Development Corp., one of four builders in the development. "West Bloomfield is involved in the amount of trees we can take down. We'd like to keep all the trees we can. It's certainly more difficult."

"It's a long process before we dig a hole for the basement," said Stuart Michaelson of Stewart Homes Corp., another of Mission Spring's builders.

AFTER STAKING out a lot, the builder and a West Bloomfield environmental ordinance officer walk through the property deciding which trees can be removed. In many cases, the property also goes through a wetlands inspection. The process adds a couple of weeks to the building time, Michaelson said.

When the basement is dug, the dirt is carted off the lot. The trees don't allow much room on the lot to store the dirt there as it's more commonly done. Piles of dirt left against tree trunks would harm the trees.

1F

Shapiro's convinced that the subdivision would look different if he wanted to develop the property today. "It was approved two years ago, but under the current state ordinance there would have been bigger lots. It would have made the homes more expensive," Shapiro said. Mission Springs borrows a bit from the condominium developments done by The Ivanhoe Cos. Parks, beaches, streets and bridges are marked with etched signs.

In addition to developing the property, Shapiro also has a stake in buiding homes in the subdivision. Along with Steve Perlman, his partner in Ivanhoe-Huntley Homes, Shapiro's building on half of the proper-

He also chose three other companies from a field of 50 to build in the development. In addition to those already mentioned, that group includes Richter-Rosin Builders. "We wanted diversity," said Shapiro, a third-generation builder. Perlman's a second-generation builder.

"WE'RE BUILDING houses of the '90s," Shapiro said. Emphasizing open spaces, many of the development's houses feature a sitting room next to the country kitchen and master bedroom suites for working couples. "Those are the two rooms lived in to a greater extent," Shapiro said.

So far, the development with homes in the $220,000-$300,000 range is attracting working couples, empty nesters and young executives and families.

Typical of the homes offered in the subdivision is Ivanhoe-Huntley's 11/2-story home with 2,742 square feet. It appeals to young couples with one child or no children. Next door to that model is a 3,090-squarefoot colonial with enough room to accommodate a larger family.

Board ignores woman member

I am the only woman on a fiveperson board of directors and believe I am being abused by the male members. They never seem to listen to me and think that I am some scatterbrained female, even though I have a teaching certificate and have been married for 25 years. What can I do to asert my rights and still maintain some degree of respecta-

This is a frequent complaint I hear from females who believe their voice is not being heard by the other members of the board. If your intent is not to seek a direct confrontation with the other directors and if you do not wish to come out and accuse them of being discriminatory or chauvinistic, my best suggestion is that you overwhelm them with your enlightenment and education concerning condominium association affairs. It may be appropriate to do additional reading, take condominium operation classes and otherwise point out by way of direction that you are indeed perceptive and know what you are doing and that your experience both in your avocation and in your day-to-day living demands the proper respect from the other members of the board.

I am being told by my real estate agent that I do not need an attorney at closing to review the papers because the Realtor is very experienced and that the bank will be overseeing the closing as they must protect their interest as the lender. While I don't expect you to agree, can you give me any decent reason why my Realtor is wrong?

I could probably fill the newspaper why your Realtor has not only given you bad advice but has breached his or her fiduciary responsibilities as a broker. Instead of encouraging you not to have an attorney, a Realtor is supposed to recommend to you that you have an attorney look over your closing documents. The bank-lender is interested in securing that it has a first mortgage interest and that its lien is prior to all other interests and it is not necessarily in a position to protect your legal rights with respect to the particular aspects of your purchase. At the very minimum, you should have an attorney look at the closing documents to ensure that the calculations have been properly made as well as the deed and bill of sale have been properly drafted to protect your interests in accordance with the purchase agreement. More-over, I would be particularly skepti-cal of the nature of the closing in light of what bad advice you have received from your Realtor. As a practical matter, the best time to get the attorney involved is before the purchase agreement has been signed to insure that all of your rights are protected. If that has not been done, at least insure that you got the benefit of your bargain so that you will not have problems, either in terms of the deed, bill of sale or title policy that you will presumambly receive after closing.

condo queries Robert M. Melsner

Our board of directors is experiencing increasing problems with the developer. Several members of the board indicated that they do not want to spend the money to pursue the developer and that the co-owners will not tolerate a special assessment because they are on fixed incomes. I am trying to point out to the board that they must discharge their fiduciary duties and pursue the developer because of the magnitude of the claim. How can I get their heads screwed on straight?

You may have to unscrew their heads and replace them with others if they are not persuaded that they must pursue the developer in light of serious defects and deficiencies in the common areas for which the association is responsible. The fact that co-owners may not be able to easily afford to defray the costs of litigation is a practical consideration but should not be the sole basis by which the association decides to pursue the developer. In any condominium, there are always co-owners who will complain about special assessments, regardless of their ability to pay. Unfortunately, the board of directors has a practical responsibility of insuring that it has done whatever is necessary to pursue the developer if the economics and legal claims justify it. In your case, it would seem that your board is being very shortsighted and has not forthrightly dealt with the issue of the developer claim as it relates to the members' ability to fund the claim. I would insist on a meeting of members of the association to explain the need of the board to take action against the developer by way of a members' derivative suit or to seek a petition to force a special meeting of the mem-

Our board has hired a new management company that has been in existence for 10-12 years but claims to be the cheapest management company having the cheapest contractors and the cheapest lawyer. The management company president doesn't seem terribly professional, and the board and I am concerned about what can be done to confront the management agent. The attorney that he has recommended seems to be involved with him in a number of sites, and I am not sure that the attorney will be in any way helpful in confronting the management agent. What do you

As in any other profession or business, there are excellent management companies and there are very poor management companies. A management firm that is not prepared to stand up to a board of directors when the board is wrong or does not have independent judgment in terms of making decisions is not the management firm that you want for your condominium association.

If you believe that the attorney is basically beholden to the management company, you are best advised to interview on your own other management companies or attorneys to get a straight answer on the advisability of continuing to use your present management company and the alternatives available. There are attorneys who can be consulted on an independent basis to provide you with an unemotional and detache evaluation of their experience in working with condominium management companies and you may be well advised to consult with that attorney on behalf of your association. Then take your information and confront the board of directors with the results if your views are confirmed.

CLASSIFIED ADS

MAND TAND REAPS

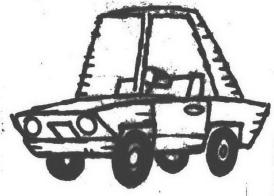

1. Give the reader specific information. Pretend you are someone reading the classifieds. What would you like to know about the item, service or job you are advertising? Be sure to add details such as color, size, condition, brand name, age, features and benefits. Be accurate! Don't embellish your ad with misleading information. Stick to the facts and reap the rewards!

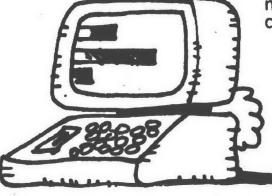

!. Include the price. Don't vaste your time or a potential puyer's time. If you advertise the price of the item or service you offer, the people who respond o your ad will be those who are renuinely interested. Surveys how that readers are more nterested in those items and ervices they know are within heir price range.

3. Avoid abbreviations. Don't make a potential customer work too hard! Although you may be tempted to cut down on the cost of your ad by using abbreviations, surveys indicate that many people don't understand such abbreviations as EIK (eat-in kitchen) or WSW (white side wall) tires and won't take the time to figure them out. A confused reader is a disinterested reader. Get the most for your money and use complete words.

4. Include phone number and specify hours. Be sure to let potential customers know when and where to call. Surveys show that even if a person is very interested in your item or service, he or she will not call back after the first attempt. Stay near the phone during the hours you indicate you will be available. Don't risk missing a sale!

5. Run on consecutive days. Your ad will not get results if people don't see it! Therefore, it is important to set up a consistent and consecutive ad schedule with your telephone salesperson or outside sales representative.
