Adistra eyes move from city

The Adistra Corp., one of Plymouth's largest tax-payers, could move when its lease expires in five years. The firm announced that it is consolidating operations at a plant in Romulus.

The Adistra Corp. facility at 101 Union St. in Plymouth will remain in operation next spring, when the company plans completion of a central distribution, warehouse and printing center in Romulus.

But company president Chris

Boyle said moving operations out of Plymouth is an option, when the lease on the Plymouth facility expires in five years.

"Consolidation makes some sense for the future," said Boyle, adding Adistra would remain in Plymouth "for the time being."

Boyle said distribution, warehouse and printing operations now done in Plymouth would move to Romulus once the new facility is completed. He said about 200 employees now in Plymouth would be moved to Romulus, and about 200 would remain in Plymouth.

"This new facility will provide expansion room for the next five to 10 years and will allow us to continuously improve our operating processes and maintain the high standards of quality, flexibility and precise execution of the services we have provided for the past 37 years," said Boyle.

The central location is needed to consolidate the distribution, warehouse and printing operations and provide for future expansion, Boyle said.

Construction of a 470,000-square-foot building is planned for 36601 Van Born Road in Romulus, and will be ready to occupy in the first quarter of 1995, according to a company statement.

The construction is planned as Adistra has been growing during the past 10 years and has outgrown current facilities in Plymouth, North-

United Way goal $750,000 for '94

The Plymouth Community United Way 1994-95 campaign kicks off Wednesday with a goal to raise $750,000.

Jim Malinowski, vice chairman of the campaign, reminds residents that donated money helps programs and agencies that help Plymouth people.

Recent allocations have included $25,000 for the Angela Hospice Care Center, $21,000 for the Plymouth Community Family YMCA, $150,000 for Growth Works and $13,500 for the Educational Excellence Foundation serving the Plymouth-Canton schools.

The theme for this year's fund-raiser, running through Nov. 30, is "With your help the possibilities are endless."

"As most of us go through our day-to-day lives rather blissfully, there are many people in our own community who for a period of months or years face great difficulties such as homelessness and other economic hardships," Malinowski said. "Your contributions to the Plymouth Community United Way can help these people through their time of need."

The campaign team reminds the public that if they work outside the community, donations can still be designated to go to the Plymouth Community United Way. For information on donating, call 453-6879.

Campaign chairman Doug Wood said the team for this year's drive includes industrial chairwoman Fran Debasco, business chairman Jerry Trumka, professional chairman Tim Tingstad, educational chairman Larry Cole, government chairwoman Cathy Broadbent, clubs chairwoman Maureen Jones, clubs co-chairwoman Denise King, residential chairwoman Esther Hulsing and pacesetter chairman John Blackwell III.

Recent allocations have included $25,000 for the Angela Hospice Care Center, $21,000 for the Plymouth Community Family YMCA, $150,000 for Growth Works and $13,500 for the Educational Excellence Foundation serving the Plymouth-Canton schools.

Police say motorist ignored red blinking light

BY JOANNE MALISZEWSKI

Motorists who witnessed a fatal accident in which a Westland couple was killed early Wednesday when struck broadside by a Canton Fire Department ambulance told the Michigan State Police that the driver of the Cadillac disregarded a red blinking light at the intersection of Canton Center and Warren roads.

"Witnesses indicated there was no type of stop. The car went through the intersection," said Lt. Charles Schumacher of the Michigan State Police. "The emergency vehicle was within its rights in traveling northbound on Canton Center Road." State police investigate accidents involving township fire and police personnel.

Samir Ansara, 44, of Westland and his wife, Nadia, 36, were pronounced dead at the scene by a physician from Oakwood Canton Medical Center. Their daughters, Tina, 16, and Lisa, 12, who were in the back seat of the Cadillac Seville, survived.

The ambulance suffered leg injuries but was treated and released. Canton Public Safety officials would not release the names of the firefighters.

The accident occurred around midnight when a Canton Fire Department ambulance was traveling northbound on Canton Center responding to a request for medical help for injuries sustained in a domestic dispute at the Lincolnshire Apartments, Rorabacher said.

The Jaws of Life extrication tool was used to free Tina Ansara who was pinned in the car. Lisa Ansara apparently got herself out of the car and was in the Oakwood Medical Center parking lot where the Cadillac came to rest after traveling approximately 300 feet over a landscaped berm from eastbound Warren Road, Canton fire Chief Mike Rorabacher said.

The ambulance driver suffered a closed head injury when he struck the windshield. "He is conscious, stable and alert," Rorabacher said. "He doesn't have any recollection of the accident." The firefighter in the passenger seat of Schumacher said he is waiting for information from the autopsies, including blood alcohol levels.

Immediately following the accident, the firefighter passenger of the ambulance radioed for another rescue squad. A second squad was sent to Lincolnshire Apartments on the original emergency request. Canton called in help from Plymouth Township, Westland and Livonia. Plymouth Township transported the younger daughter to a hospital, while MedFlite transported the older daughter, Rorabacher said.

The fire department has a mutual aid agreement with Huron Valley Ambulance. Fire department ambulances respond because of generally quicker response time, Rorabacher said.

"It is a tragic and terrible accident," Rorabacher said. "It is terrible for the family and for the firefighters who are injured."

When police went to the apartment Monday afternoon to check on Branson, a DNR employee, they found the front door closed but unlocked. They found Branson's nude body face down on a bed in a back bedroom of the apartment. Branson's feet were tied together with a necktie.

Although the apartment appeared messy, it didn't appear to have been ransacked, according to the police report. The television reportedly had been left on, as well as the VCR with an ejected tape.

Branson's 1987 Chevrolet Caprice was reported stolen.

Candidates square off in debate at forum

BY KEVIN BROWN
STAFF WRITER

The fall campaign kicked off last week as seven candidates for political office showed for a candidates' forum at the Plymouth VFW hall.

About 100 veterans and members of the VFW Mayflower-Lt. Gamble Post Ladies Auxiliary listened to the candidates introduce themselves, and nearly a dozen posed questions on issues ranging from term limits to military spending.

Candidates opposing each other in the general election on hand for the forum Tuesday were: Republican John Schall and Democrat Lynn Rivers, running for U.S. Congress in the district which includes Plymouth and Canton; and Stephen Boak and Ron Lowe, running in the 35th District judge race.

Also on hand were: Democrat Carolyn Blanchard, seeking election to the state House district which includes Plymouth; Republican Deborah Whyman, who is seeking re-election to the state House district that includes Canton; and State Sen. Bob Geake, seeking re-election to the district that includes Plymouth and Canton north of Cherry Hill.

Schall, who worked in the Bush White House, and Rivers, a state representative from Ann Arbor, differed sharply on issues. Rivers said that after marrying at 18 she struggled to help raise a young family. "In short, I learned about the problems of real people," she said.

Rivers said issues that concern her include job training and vocational education for high school students; a crime program that focuses on punishment, prevention and protection of the public; and campaign and ethics reform. "My commitment is to solve problems," she said.

Schall said he was campaigning on message of less spending, less taxes and less government, adding his No. 1 priority "is cutting wasteful federal spending and not raising taxes."

Schall is pro-life and opposes defense spending cuts, Rivers is pro-choice and said defense is one of several areas to examine in seeking to balance the federal budget.

Judge's race

Also facing off for the first time since the August primary were judge candidates Boak and Lowe. Boak, an attorney for 27 years, said voters should consider that he has 15 more years' legal experience than Lowe. A former officer in the Army reserves, Boak asked the VFW crowd if they would choose to follow "the young second lieutenant or the veteran captain."

Boak also stressed his experience as an administrator with the county prosecutor's office, adding a 35th District judge helps to administer court staff and finances.

Lowe stressed his experience as Plymouth city attorney, endorsements from law enforcement organizations, and told the group he wanted to share a story with them.

He told the story of Caesar Rodney, a Revolutionary War-era delegate from Delaware whose vote was crucial to colonists declaring independence from Britain. To cast the deciding vote, Rodney traveled 90 miles on horseback through a driving thunderstorm to Philadelphia, and had to be carried from his horse to the meeting hall.

"Never underestimate the power of one vote," said Lowe, who asked for votes and help on his campaign this fall.

State representative

Blanchard, whose opponent Gerry Law did not attend the forum, told the group, "I am the pro-choice candidate, I am the candidate who will work diligently to represent you," Blanchard said.

She said the district "needs somebody who will finish the job," a reference to Law resigning the state representative job in 1991, to accept appointment as Plymouth Township supervisor.

Whyman updated the group on her work on legislative committees including K-12 education and human services, and a House health care task force. "We want to get our health care plan off the ground in Michigan," she said, adding a goal is to extend primary health care to benefit those who need it while trimming health care costs.

Geake said he is supported by several law enforcement groups and business groups, but declined to speak at length on his qualifications, saying that wouldn't be fair to his Democratic opponent who didn't attend the forum, Patrick O'Neill.

Corn reaches way up high almost to the blue skies

BY KEVIN BROWN
STAFF WRITER

The nearly 13-foot-high corn stalk in Denis Endlein's backyard is wowing neighbors.

"Every time they go out and look they remark on how much higher it's gotten," said Endlein, a Ford engineer.

"We had some people over for dinner from North Carolina, they couldn't believe their eyes," he said.

And with the growing season not quite over, it's bound to grow even higher.

The corn stalk is among roughly 100 stalks growing on his property on Five Mile Road west of Haggerty.

Bob Bricault, a consumer horticulture agent with the Michigan State University cooperative extension service, said a 13-foot corn stalk is high, but not unusual.

"They had some at the Monroe County Fair that were around that high," Bricault said.

"Actually, it's not been the best of years for corn," Bricault said.

"Rain levels are probably up where they should be," he said, but added that rain has not fallen at times that are advantageous to corn crops.

Still, "They are looking at pretty good yields this year," he said.

Endlein, who has lived in Plymouth Township three years, said he's had trouble getting corn to grow in recent years thanks to skunks and raccoons making off with the corn.

"I think this year they were foiled," he said.

He bought the kernels at Block's market in Romulus, and fertilized the crop - which includes squash, eggplant, green peppers and tomatoes - with cow manure.

"I took a lot of extra time tilling it. I probably tilled it six or seven times," Endlein said.

Simulator aids learning

High school students will experience the dangers of "driving drunk" first hand without ever taking a sip of alcohol.

The experience will be part of the Chrysler Drunk Driving Simulator which will visit this area Sept. 13-16.

Sponsors of the tour include Livonia-Chrysler Dodge, Chrysler Corp., Mothers Against Drunk Driving, and Wayne County MADD among others.

The simulator involves a specially equipped 1995 Dodge/Plymouth Neon which is programmed with the student driver's weight and a hypothetical number of drinks.

As a result, steering and braking responses are delayed — producing an effect similar to the slowed mental and physical response abilities of a driver under the influence of alcohol.

With these impaired abilities, the student attempts to negotiate an obstacle course — without hitting the orange pylons or the pedestrian figures that "pop up" along the way.

The simulator will be at Livonia Churchill High, 8900 Newburgh south of Ann Arbor Trail, from 7:50 a.m. to 2:20 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 15, and at Livonia Franklin High at 31000 Joy west of Merriman from 7:45 a.m. to 2:15 p.m. Friday, Sept. 16.

Interested residents may attend any of the sessions, to participate or to observe. Those without driver's licenses are invited to participate as passengers.

The tour, produced by Chrysler Corp., is presented by MADD with the support of the U.S. Department of Transportation and the National Association of Broadcasters.

The simulator will visit more than 100 schools in the United States during 1994. Built by Dodge in 1988, the simulator has made more than 550 appearances in more than 150 U.S. cities. It also has appeared on "Good Morning America," "48 Hours," "Today," "Geraldo," "Science & Technology," and on "Like We Care."

Canton Seniors Singles seek company of others

BY JOANNE MALISZEWSKI
STAFF WRITER

Canton Seniors Singles don't want you to be home alone. There's just no need for it.

"When it comes to being single, it gets pretty lonely," said Norm Wedhorn, a member of the 43-member singles group, headquartered at the Canton Seniors Center. "When you're retired, it's hard to keep track of one night or the other."

That's one of the reasons Wedhorn joined the group. "I have a lot of fun. I enjoy myself. It beats staying at home and watching TV," said member Don Hosman, who joined several years ago.

Canton Seniors Singles continues to look for additional members to participate in social get-togethers, trips, dinners and the like. The group meets monthly at 7 p.m. Saturdays. But in the months of November, December and January, when nights are early, the meetings will be on Sunday afternoons.

Residents ages 55 and older are encouraged to join the group. "We need more fellas," said member Helen McClue.

President Mary Roy founded the group because she thought it would be a good way of getting older single people out and about. At many functions she said she noticed married people on one side of the room and single people by themselves on the other side.

"Whenever we have a dance, I get complaints that there is no one to dance with," Roy said. "Some people don't want to join in because they say they don't know how to dance. But you're here to learn. Who cares if you make a mistake. There is no pressure to participate."

With all the activities the group sponsors, officers such as Roy, secretary Lillian Bramcato, and activities co-chairs Flo Lorimer and Betty Sears understand if people are shy or afraid to drive by themselves or at night. No problem.

"People are willing to pick each other up," Roy said. "I would just as soon come with a full car as with an empty one."

Friendship and camaraderie is what the group is all about. And more. It's an organization where you talk to people with whom you probably have a lot in common, the officers said.

Lorimer and Sears have been busy lining up a series of activities beginning in September with a tentatively scheduled speaker who will talk about being single. September may include a football blast to kick off the season. October will bring a Halloween get-together. In October and February 1995 the Mello-Aires are expected to provide entertainment. Lorimer and Sears are certain November will feature a Thanksgiving dinner and December a holiday dinner.

In the past the group has had a Mexican feast, a country jambooree, a trip to Frankenmuth, ice cream socials, a country western dance, and a trip to a passion play.

"We try to listen to what the seniors want and don't want," Lorimer said. Sears added: "We try to come up with things that get people out."

In addition to the scheduled monthly activities, the group often gets together for dinner close to home.

"We look for things that are affordable or free. There are a lot of things that are fun that are free," Bramcato said.

Seniors are encouraged to join the activities. You don't have to be retired to join. For more information, contact Roy, 397-8803.

Officials still bickering over use of little millage

BY RALPH R. ECHTINAW
STAFF WRITER

Wayne County officials are still fighting over what to do with the money from a 0.1-mill property tax passed by voters in 1988.

The 0.1 mill is part of a 1-mill levy that was used to build and operate a county jail in Hamtramck.

The ballot proposal voters approved six years ago said one-tenth of the revenue from the 1 mill would be used "to acquire, build and operate a juvenile offender work/training institution." This has not been done.

Instead, Wayne County Executive Edward McNamara is spending the 0.1 mill money, about $2.7 million a year, on programs for at-risk youth and renovations to the existing Juvenile Detention Facility, a.k.a. the Wayne County Youth Home.

Now county commissioners have voted 8-2 to put a proposal on the Nov. 8 ballot asking voters to demand that "existing funds" be spent on a "new Wayne County Juvenile Detention Facility."

Of the four Observer-area commissioners, only Vice Chair Kay Beard, D-Westland, who also represents Garden City, voted to put the proposal on the ballot.

Commissioners Michelle Plawski, D-Dearborn Heights, who also represents Redford Township and Livonia east of Middlebelt; Bryan Amann, D-Wayne, who also represents Canton Township, and Thaddeus McCotter, R-Livonia, who also represents Plymouth and Plymouth Township, were absent for the vote, which has the same effect as voting no.

Unless McNamara vetoes the ballot proposal, it will be placed on the ballot in the following form: "Shall Wayne County be required to use existing funds which have already been approved by the voters to begin immediate construction of a new Wayne County juvenile detention facility?"

If voters approve the ballot proposal, McNamara would theoretically be forced to end his at-risk youth programs, then cut the budget elsewhere to pay for building a second juvenile detention facility.

Passed by voters in 1988, the 1-mill levy that the 0.1 mill is part of will expire on Dec. 31, 1997.

Officials will likely ask voters to renew the millage at that time, considering that most of the money is being used to pay operating expenses of Wayne County's two jails.

In the 1995 fiscal year, the mill is expected to raise more than $27 million.

Edison to cut trees

Detroit Edison line-clearance crews have scheduled work in Canton in September and October as part of the utility's $236 million service reliability improvement plan.

The accelerated tree-trimming portion of the program has helped to bring about a sharp reduction in power outages.

Overhead line maintenance, installation of additional lightning protection devices, and line clearance are the key components of the reliability improvement program.

All tree-trimming work is performed by professional line-clearance crews. Trees are trimmed according to National Arborist Association standards, which are designed to protect the trees and keep them healthy.

LARRY JANES

Reader recipe requests crop up during harvest

It's clear from the number of calls I've been receiving that cooking hasn't taken a back-seat to summer vacations.

Norm Hodgson of Garden City, who has three blueberry bushes abundantly producing in his garden, is looking for a great blueberry muffin recipe. This recipe hails from Momma's recipe box, and her footnote claims "Don't change a thing, you can't improve them." Here's the recipe Norm.

BLUEBERRY MUFFINS

Butter for greasing muffin tins
1 cup sugar 5 tablespoons powdered milk
2 tablespoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 large eggs
1/2 cup vegetable oil
1 1/2 cups water
3 1/2 cups all purpose flour
2 cups fresh blueberries

Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Butter 24 muffin tins. Combine sugar, powdered milk, baking powder and salt in a large bowl. Mix well. Add the eggs and the vegetable oil.

Stir in 1/2 cup water and mix well. Mix in the flour and combine well. Add the remaining 1/2 cup water and mix well. Stir in the blueberries.

Spoon equal amounts of batter into the prepared muffin tins and bake at 400 degrees for 16 minutes. Best when served warm. Makes 24.

■ Anne Sullivan of West Bloomfield wanted the recipe for Crab Cheesecake that ran in my column in May, 1990. I had to dig out the old Apple computer to retrieve the recipe Ann, but I am pleased to repeat it.

CHEESECAKE

5 tablespoons butter, divided
1/2 cup fine bread crumbs, toasted
1 cup fresh grated Swiss (Gruyere) cheese (divided)
1 teaspoon minced dill (1/2 teaspoon dried)
1 medium onion, minced
2 pounds cream cheese, room temperature
4 eggs
1/2 cup half and half
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 pound (8 ounces) flaked crabmeat

Butter a 9-inch springform pan with 1 1/2 tablespoons butter. Combine bread crumbs with 1/2 cup grated Swiss cheese and dill.

Sprinkle over buttered pan, turning to coat.

Refrigerate pan until ready to use. Melt three tablespoons remaining butter in a skillet and saute onions until tender. Set aside.

Combine cream cheese with eggs, half and half, 1/2 cup Swiss cheese and salt and mix well. Stir in onion mixture. Fold in crabmeat. Pour in prepared springform pan and place the pan in a roaster pan and add hot water to come 1/2 way up the side of the pan. Bake at 325 degrees for 1 hour and 20 minutes. Turn oven off, allow cheesecake to sit in oven with door ajar for 1 hour.

Cool to room temperature before serving. Makes 6-8 servings.

Chef's suggestion: Make a pesto sauce with basil, Parmesan cheese, olive oil and garlic and add to cream cheese while substituting Parmesan cheese for the Swiss cheese. Sprinkle with 1/2 cup pine nuts and bake as directed.

■ An anonymous reader wanted to know where she could find salt-risen bread. I made a few phone calls, and located fresh salt-risen bread at a great little bakery with locations in downtown Plymouth and Rochester. The Breadwinner Bakery stocks salt-risen bread in addition to a multitude of other great breads. They are at 448 Forest in Plymouth, (1-313-459-1017), and 818 Main in Rochester (1-810-652-1280).

■ Bill Bresler of Livonia wanted to know if he could turn the Roma tomatoes growing in his garden into sun dried tomatoes with a food dehydrator.

Yes you can Bill, and the finished product will be just as good. I recommend slicing the tomatoes

Explore the southern French region of Provence

Focus on Wine

ELEANOR & RAY HEALD

Peter Mayle is responsible for popularizing the southern French region of Provence in his book "A Year in Provence," and the television series of the same name. During summer months, many Americans stroll the Cours Mirabeau and sip Pastis (an anise-flavored spirit) in the bistros along this tree-lined avenue in Aix-en-Provence.

Spicy, Provençal cuisine is influenced by Italian and Catalan traditions. Cured black and green olives are familiar appetizers while local mealtime specialties include lamb, ratatouille, bouillabaisse, aioli, tomatoes, figs, asparagus, sausages, apricots, Cavaillon melons, calissons (almond candy) and pizza au feu du bois (cooked in a wood-burning oven).

The best local wines are the red and rose made of Mediterranean varietals such as syrah, mourvedre, carignan, cinsault and grenache. There are very few quality white wines. The most popular summer wines are well-chilled roses that span the color spectrum from pale salmon-copper to bright pink.

Provence extends north from the Mediterranean Sea to Montelimar and east from Nîmes to Toulon. Aix-en-Provence is centrally located and pleasant day trips of no more than one-and-a-half hours in any direction take one to some of the best wine regions of southern France.

The Mediterranean is a 45-minute trip on the autoroute. A morning visit to the fish market at the Vieux Port of Marseilles is picturesque, and if one's stay includes mealtime, the authentic Bouillabaisse Marseillaise at Restaurant Michel along the sea does not get much better. A drive east along the Mediterranean brings one to Cassis, a most beautiful port where the mountains extend to the sea.

Two very good Provence wine-producers are nearby, Clos Ste. Magdeleine in Cassis and Domaine Tempier in Le Phan du Castellet near Bandol. Clos Ste. Magdeleine is worth a visit just for the view of the property sandwiched between the mountains and the sea. Owner Francois Zack makes one of the few good white wines in Provence. The 1992, Clos Ste. Magdeleine Blanc boasts pineapple and tangerine fruit with good body and depth. The 1993 Rose is pale pink-salmon and particularly flavorful with a long finish. Zack recommends the white with spicy Asian cuisine and the Rose with bouillabaisse.

Domaine Tempier is east of Cassis, exiting the autoroute at Le Castellet. Many Americans visit Tempier because of the Peyraud family's gracious hospitality. Jean-Marie Peyraud has inherited the winemaking responsibilities from his father Lucien, and makes the best red and rose wines of Bandol. The fantastic flavors of blackberry, spice, leather and tobacco can be explained by the minimum of 50 percent mourvedre in the blend, a law for the appellation that Lucien helped write.

A trip to St-Remy-de-Provence and Les Baux-

There's still some warm weather left at the end of summer, and time to try some outstanding white wine values from Washington State's Hogue Cellars, all from the 1993 vintage and priced at $6. They are:

1993 Dry Chenin Blanc, regular Chenin Blanc (off-dry), Dry Johannisberg Riesling and Johannisberg Riesling, slightly sweeter at 1.53 percent residual sugar.

Additional Best Buys:

1993 Santa Rita 120 Chardonnay ($6.50)
1991 Cypress Cabernet Sauvignon ($7.75)
1993 Barton & Guestier Merlot ($6)
1992 Villa Mount Eden Zinfandel ($8)

St. Julian is tops in wine competition

While Michigan winemakers may still be reeling from last winter's devastating effects on their vineyards, many of them were all smiles when they learned the success of their wines in the 1994 Michigan State Fair Wine Competition.

Of 16 gold medals awarded, the lion's share, six golds, went to St. Julian Wine Company, the state's largest producer.

Additionally, a sweepstakes award for Best of Show red wine was awarded to St. Julian for its 1991 Lake Michigan Shore Chardonnay.

Tabor Hill Winery took a grand award for Best of Show red wine with its non-vintage (NV) Late Harvest Riesling.

Other gold medal wines, listed by winery are:

Bowers Harbor Vineyards: 1992 Blanc de Noir Sparkling Wine

Fenn Valley Vineyards: 1992 Chancellor and 1993 Johannisberg Riesling

Good Harbor: NV Northern Lights

Lelandau Wine Cellars: 1993 Lelandau Limited Chardonnay and NV Sauvignon

Lemon Creek: 1991 Vignoles

St. Julian Wine Company: NV Great White, 1991 Chambourcin, NV Catherman's Port, NV Raspberry Champagne, NV Solera Cream Sherry

Tabor Hill Winery: NV Grand Mark Brut and NV Hartford Creme Sherry

An analysis of the results shows that St. Julian Wine Company not only stole the show in the red wine category, but scored at the top in every wine category — white, red, sparkling and dessert. No other winery has this bragging right!

In January of this year, we chose St. Julian's Great White ($4.95) as the wine selection of the week. If you've not tried it, we'll say it again. There is no better white wine made in the $5 price point.

Create cleanliness. A litter bit at a time.

YOUR HEALTH

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Despite suggestions that they eat right and exercise, many Americans do neither. Even if a person exercises regularly, it is sometimes difficult to get proper nutrition from the food we eat. According to the National Cancer Institute, only about 20 percent of us consume the recommended minimum of five servings of fruit and vegetables a day. Most of us get only about three servings of these foods. Even those with the best intentions may find it difficult to get the necessary amounts of nutrients from foods as suggested by recent studies. It would take 10 cups of wheat germ, 3½ cups of cooked spinach, and 16 oranges daily to get all the Vitamin E, beta-carotene, and vitamin C that the studies urge. A more realistic option rests with taking supplements of these vitamins.

Did you know that September is National Organic Harvest Month? What better way to celebrate than to come and shop the GOOD FOOD CO. We are Michigan's largest natural food supermarket. This month is dedicated to the education and promotion of organic food and agriculture. Our huge stock of organic foods and foods without additives, preservatives, and artificial coloring and flavoring is without comparison. Call us with your questions at 981-8100 or just come on by. We are located at 42615 Ford Rd. We are open Monday through Saturday from 9:00 to 9:00 and Sundays from 10:00 to 6:00.

P.S. Vitamin E, beta-carotene, and vitamin C are a trio of antioxidants that help stave off cancer and heart disease.

SKILLET FRIED CHICKEN

1 whole chicken cut into 8 pieces salt, black pepper to taste
1 cup flour
1 egg, beaten
½ cup milk, or ½ cup beer or white wine
2 cups unseasoned bread crumbs
½ cup vegetable oil (approximate)

Rinse the chicken and use paper towels to blot off as much moisture as possible. Season with salt and pepper. Place the flour in a plastic bag and dredge the chicken pieces in it. Combine the egg and milk in a small bowl, dip the chicken pieces into this mixture and then coat with bread crumbs, use your hands to press the bread crumbs onto the chicken.

Heat the oil until very hot in a heavy-bottomed skillet, place the chicken side down, and fry on high heat for minutes or until quite brown. Turn the pieces over and brown. Reduce the heat to low and continue cooking for about 30 minutes. Check for doneness by inserting a fork into each piece — the juices should run clear. Serves 4 to 6.

15-MINUTE BEEF BARBECUE

1 pound beef round tip steak, cut ½ to ¾ inch thick
2 teaspoons vegetable oil
1 medium onion, cut into thin wedges
½ cup prepared barbecue sauce
4 crusty rolls, split

Steak beef steaks; cut lengthwise in half and then crosswise into 1-inch wide strips. Set aside.

In large nonstick skillet, heat oil over medium-high heat until hot. Add onion; cook and stir 3 minutes or until lightly browned. Remove from skillet; keep warm.

In same skillet, add beef (½ at a time) and stir-fry 1 minute or until outside surface is no longer pink. (Do not overcook). Stir in onion and barbecue sauce; heat through, stirring occasionally.

Spoon equal amount of beef mixture on bottom half of each roll; close with top half of roll. Makes 4 servings.

Recipe from Michigan Beef Industry Commission.

RAVIOLI CASSEROLE

1½ pounds lean ground beef
1 medium onion, chopped
2 garlic cloves, minced
1 (28-ounce) can peeled tomatoes in thick tomato puree
1 (15-ounce) can tomato sauce
2 teaspoons Italian herb seasoning
½ teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
1 pound bow-tie pasta or fettuccini, freshly cooked
1 (10-ounce) package frozen chopped spinach, defrosted and squeezed to remove excess moisture

2 cups ricotta cheese
½ cup freshly grated imported Parmesan cheese

In a large skillet over medium-high heat, cook the ground beef, onion, and garlic, stirring often to break up lumps, until the meat loses its pink color, about 5 minutes. Tilt the pan to drain off excess fat, then transfer to a 3½ quart slow cooker.

Add the tomatoes with their puree, the tomato sauce, Italian seasoning, and pepper, stirring to break up the tomatoes with the side of a spoon. Cover and slow-cook for 7 to 8 hours on low (200 degrees).

Skim the fat from the surface of meat sauce. Stir in the cooked pasta, spinach, and ricotta and Parmesan cheeses, and slow-cook for 5 minutes. Serve the casserole directly from the slow cooker. Serves 4 to 6.

Recipe from "Ready and Waiting," Rick Rodgers, (Hearst Books, New York, 1992, $20).

Injured coach

It's been a rough year for Plymouth Salem basketball coach Bob Brodie.

First his son, Joe, suffers a life-threatening injury while skiing last February. And now, with Joe nearly fully recovered, Bob goes down with a torn Achilles tendon, which he injured while playing — what else? — basketball.

It happened at the Gus Macker 3-on-3 Tournament hosted by Oakland University Aug. 25-28. Brodie was recruited to play by one of his assistants, Rick Wilson.

"I talked him into it," said Wilson. "And sure, I felt bad about (the injury), but he wanted to play."

The team won their first game and were going strong in their second when Brodie limped off the court. It didn't take too long to diagnose the injury.

Brodie, who's 40, underwent an hour of "very painful surgery," according to Wilson, last Wednesday to reattach the tendon. He will be in a cast for six-to-eight weeks, but he should get a walking cast within two.

And he should be ready to coach by the start of the season.

Tough loss

A pair of scoring chances went for naught, and it cost Plymouth Christian Academy in a 1-0 defeat to Pontiac Oakland Christian Thursday in Hines Park.

"It was an encouraging 1-0 defeat," said Eagles' coach Greg Gustafson. "We just didn't put the ball in the net."

The only score of the match came in the 18th minute, by Ken Butler. PCA's Jamie Neil made 11 saves in the game.

Chris McCoy and Shaun Walker each had good chances to knot the score, but couldn't capitalize. The loss left the Eagles at 1-2.

Last Monday, they ripped Southfield Christian 5-0 at PCA, thanks to Walker's three first-half goals.

His scoring led the Eagles to a 4-0 halftime lead. Andy Roose also scored, assisted by Dan House. All four goals came in the first 24 minutes of the match. House finished the scoring in the 75th minute, Chris DeRenzo assisting.

Neil made 19 saves to record the shutout.

Golf champs

Mare Olin outdueled Ryan Yost on the first playoff hole to claim the low gross championship in the first annual Fox Hills Country Club Junior Golf Tournament Aug. 23.

Playing in the 10-13 age division, Olin and Yost each shot a 46 for nine holes. Ed Lynch had the best low net score — 31.

Double-eagle

Dick Michalik, a 61-year-old retired insurance salesman from Inkster, scored a double-eagle on the 510-yard third hole at Plymouth's Mission Hills.

Michalik, who underwent triple-bypass heart surgery two years ago, used a driver off the tee and, from 180 yards, a four iron into the hole.

Michalik has never had a hole-in-one. He shot 79 for the round.

Skating standouts

A pair of young figure skaters whose home ice is the Plymouth Cultural Center excelled at the Ice Skating Institute of America World Recreational Team Championships Aug. 8-13 in Chicago.

Michelle Manery, eight-years old, from Plymouth, finished second in Freestyle I skating.

Renae Kolarik, 10, from Canton, placed second in Freestyle III skating.

The ISIA championships attracted nearly 6,900 entries, ranging in age from one to 82.

Soccer champs

The Plymouth Lightning '81 girls premier team won the under-14 division at the fifth annual Dearborn Invitational Tournament Aug. 26-28 by posting five consecutive shutouts. The Lightning outscored their opponents 18-0.

Team members are Sarah Anderson, Jennell Cobor, Kelly Connell, Sarah Deben, Danielle Filipi, Sharon Greer, Emily Kaatz, Kristin Kopenski, Emily Neijendam, Vicki Palis, Theresia Radtke, Cheron Rice, Kristin Shea, Andi Solano, Katie Thomas, Sarah Ware, Andrea Weinman and Dana Whittaker. The team is coached by John Deben and Glenn Kaatz.

The '83-'84 Canton Lightning boys select soccer team also won its division at the Dearborn Invitational, defeating the Livonia Meteors in the final 2-0. Earlier in the tournament, the Lightning tied the Meteors 1-1, beat the Brighton Express 3-1, blanked the Redford Raiders 9-0 and, in the semifinals, topped the Dearborn Heights Lightning 3-1.

Team members are Jeffrey Bennett, Jai Billimoria, Daniel Boylan, David Daigneau, Erik Duran, Ryan Foley, Kirk Hecksel, Nicholas Houdek, Brent Kwiatkowski, Daniel Longpre, Randy Palis, Jason Priebe, Aaron Schmidt, Kevin Schopieray, Matthew Strabbing, Ben Wielechowski and Jamie Zdrodowski. The Lightning is coached by Watson Zdrodowski, Leroy Schopieray and Mike Longpre.

Late TDs lead Belleville to win over Salem

Belleville rallied to score two fourth-quarter touchdowns Friday and overcome visiting Plymouth Salem in a football season opener, 26-14.

The Rocks took a 14-13 lead with 5½ minutes left in the game when senior tailback Mike Brannan capped a short drive with a 1-yard run and Mike Kley kicked his second extra point.

The go-ahead touchdown followed a pass interception by Salem's Dirk Schmiedel, who returned the ball 40 yards to the Belleville 20-yard line.

But the lead was shortlived as the Tigers responded with a three-play, 63-yard scoring drive and regained the advantage.

Senior fullback Chris Cannon carried the ball on each play and finished the drive with a 23-yard run at 7:32. A two-point pass attempt failed, but the Tigers were ahead 19-14.

Belleville stopped Salem at midfield and scored again on its next possition. Junior halfback Ian Gold ran 34 yards for the insurance TD with two minutes remaining.

The Tigers employed an awesome rushing attack, gaining 436 of their 454 total yards on the ground.

Cannon and Gold accounted for most of it. Cannon (6-0, 200) carried 21 times for 203 yards, and Gold (6-2, 180) rushed for 163 yards and three TDs on 15 attempts.

Gold had an 8-yard run for a TD in the first quarter and Belleville led 7-0 at halftime. He sprinted 54 yards in the third period to give the Tigers a 13-0 lead following a failed kick.

Brannan gained 106 of Salem's 119 rushing yards on 12 carries. He also accounted for the team's first touchdown, running 15 yards in the third quarter.

The Rocks had 29 yards passing and 148 total.

Defensive lineman Brian Halsted had eight solo tackles and several assists, and defensive back Dan McKinnon had seven tackles.

Chiefs can't corral Mustangs

■ Plymouth Canton had almost everything going in its favor at halftime Thursday against Birmingham Marian. To win, Marian would have to step up its play on a foreign court — and it did.

By C.J. RISAK
STAFF WRITER

Two state-ranked basketball teams, Plymouth Canton and Birmingham Marian, headed in different directions in the second half of their game Thursday.

The homecourt Chiefs, who led by two at the intermission, went spiraling downward. The visiting Mustangs raised their game to another level.

The result: A 49-40 Marian victory.

The cause of Canton's descent — a high-energy defensive performance by the Mustangs that limited the Chiefs to 6-of-25 (25 percent) floor shooting over the last two quarters.

"We had an excellent second half," said Marian coach Mary Lillie-Cicerone. "We picked it up (defensively) two notches."

It wasn't that Marian (now 2-0) played poorly in the first two quarters. But Canton was getting better shots, and converting — at least early. The Chiefs were 7-of-13 (54 percent) in the opening period en route to a 15-12 lead.

From then on, however, they struggled. They went 2-of-11 in the second quarter, and didn't score a basket in the last 5:46.

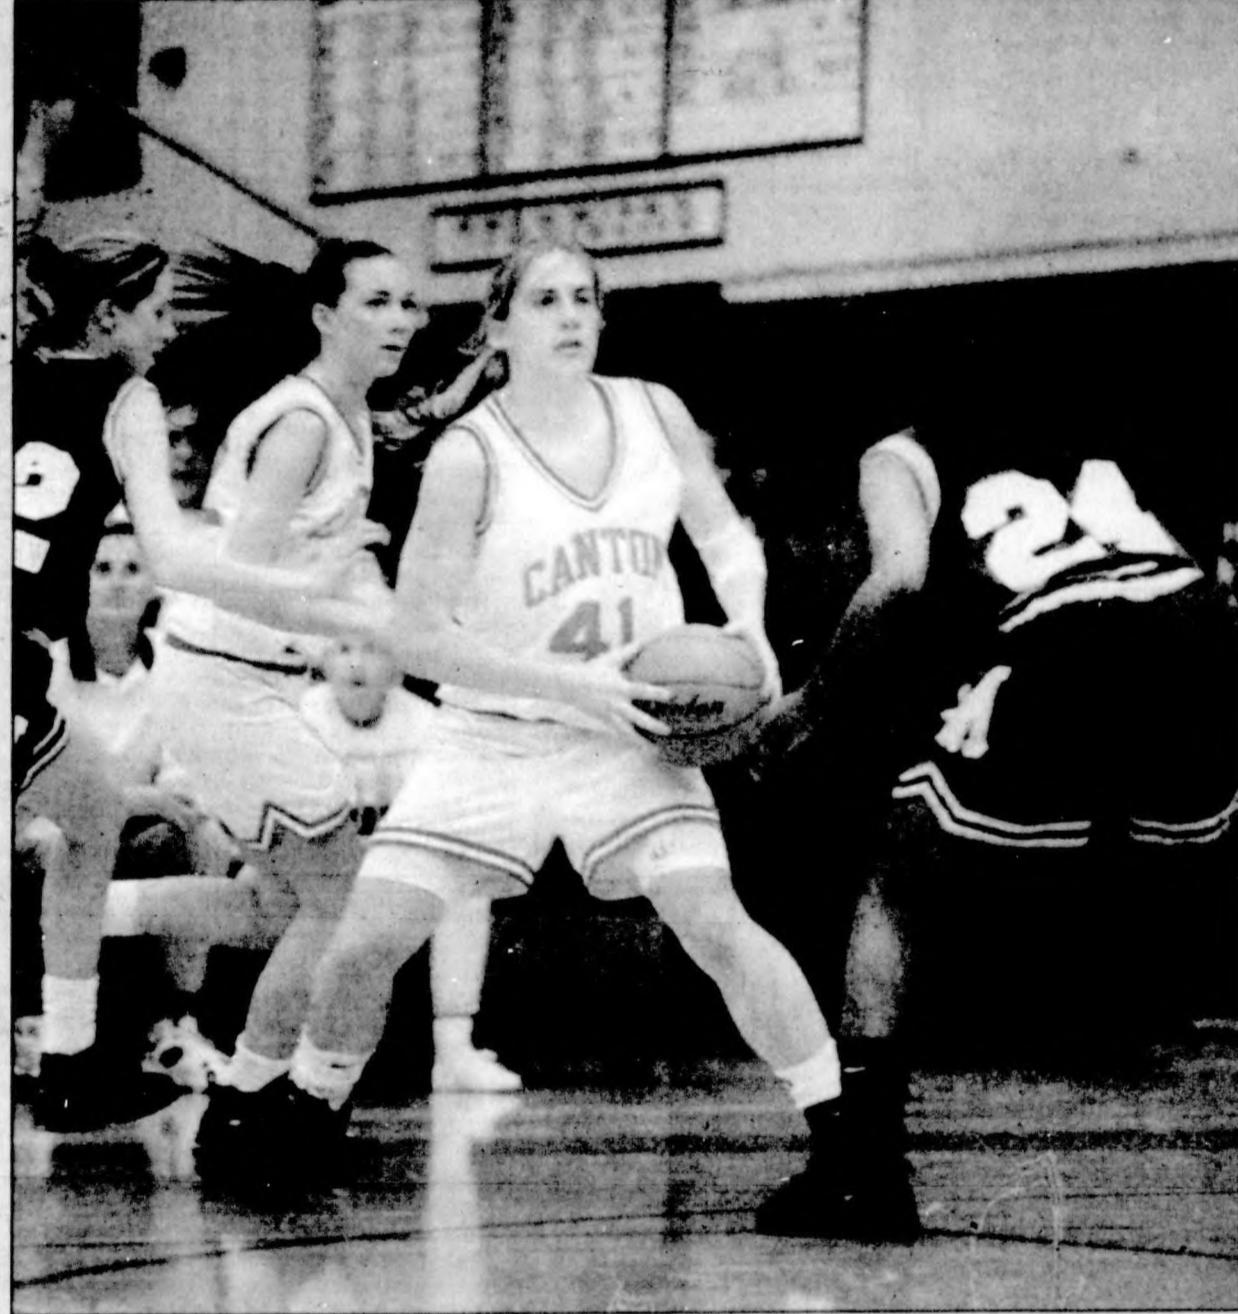

Then they started the second half by missing their first eight floor shots. Combined with its drought ending the first half, Canton went nearly 9½ minutes without a field goal. And yet, the Chiefs were still in the game: Consecutive baskets by Amicie Crayton and Tiffany Williams put them up 29-28 with 3:21 left in the third.

That's when Julie Storen took over.

Marian's top offensive threat had struggled in the first half, getting two fouls in the opening quarter and a third before halftime. But she avoided further foul problems and came to life in the last 3:08 of the third quarter, scoring eight points to ignite a 12-0 Marian run that turned the game around.

The Mustangs' 40-29 lead starting the fourth quarter was never really challenged by Canton, which got no closer than the final margin.

Despite playing little more than half the game, Storen netted a game-high 18 points — 12 coming in the second half. Brandi Bentley added 10.

Nowhere to turn: Canton's Sarah Warnke looks for help, but is surrounded by Marian defenders — something that occurred all night.

The Chiefs got nine points each from Crayton and Sarah Warnke. No one else had more than six.

"I never thought we were able to ever establish any consistency with our offense," said Canton coach Bob Blohm, whose team fell to 1-1. "I thought we came out real flat in the second half."

"And we didn't rebound well. We didn't get that many second shots."

While Blohm saw a lot his team could work on in the next two weeks — the Chiefs are idle until the Farmington Hills Mercy Tournament, which starts Sept. 15 — Marian's Ciccerone was pleased with her squad's early-season performance.

"We were ranked something like 21st in the state at the start of the season, and Canton was eighth or ninth," she said. "I told the kids, 'You're proving you can play with them.' And they can."

Marian's offense still needs work (19-of-48, 40 percent from the floor), but the Mustangs showed they can create offense off their defense. And they showed they know what it takes to win.

■ WHITMORE LAKE 45, PCA 44: A five-point Plymouth Christian Academy lead melted away in the fourth quarter of Thursday's Whitmore Lake Tournament championship game, and the host Trojans collected the win in overtime.

Rae-Ann Jokinun, who led all scorers with 18 points, scored the game-winner for Whitmore Lake (2-0). Jill Henry added 12 for the Trojans.

The Eagles (1-1) fell behind in the fourth quarter after leading 19-15 at the half and 30-25 after three periods. Karin Reed's three-pointer with seven seconds left in regulation forced overtime. Reed finished with 13 points; Lisa Erickson had 12.

In Tuesday's first-round game, PCA led from start to finish, pushing its lead from 10-4 after one quarter to 16-10 at the half and 24-16 through three quarters in defeat.

Erickson's eight points topped PCA. Reed had seven and four assists, and Sarah Summer contributed six points and 10 rebounds. Heather Stillson scored seven for Whitmore Lake Christian.

Monroe repels Chiefs' final charge

By C.J. RISAK
STAFF WRITER

The big play vs. the big player.

That, in simplest terms, is what Friday's season-opening Plymouth Canton-vs.-Monroe football game came down to.

And the big player prevailed — Monroe's Jeff Goins, who sliced through Canton's defense for 177 yards rushing and two touchdowns, led the Trojans to a 16-13 triumph at CEP.

The Chiefs had an opportunity to pull out a win even though their defense never really stopped Goins (he had negative yardage on just one of his 31 carries). A short Monroe punt gave Canton the ball at their own 40-yard line with 5:18 left; seven plays — five Len Gardner runs for 26 yards and a pass reception for another 8 — put the ball on the Monroe 12 with two minutes left.

On second down, Canton quarterback Brett Ellidge scrambled down to the one for an apparent first down and goal. Not so, however — the Chiefs were called for clipping, nullifying the gain and pushing the ball back to the 20. Two plays later, an overthrown Ellidge pass was intercepted by Jason Reinhardt.

Game over.

"Nobody's given that kid any credit," said Monroe coach Ralph Carducci of Goins. "He's a captain, and he was tonight. He was a leader out there."

With Goins gaining yards seemingly at will in the first half (he had 95 by halftime), the Trojans were in position to dominate. But after Goins' 1-yard touchdown dive and the two-point conversion in the first quarter, Canton's big plays reversed momentum.

The Chiefs stopped Goins short of a first down on a fourth-down run, and on the next play, Ellidge raced around the right end 72 yards for a Canton TD. The two-point try failed, but the gap was narrowed to 8-6 with 5:15 left.

In Monroe's next series, a Reinhardt fumble was recovered by Canton at the Monroe 39. Three plays later, Gardner — who finished with 85 rushing yards on 17 attempts — took off for 29 yards and a touchdown that gave the Chiefs a 13-8 halftime lead.

The Trojans recaptured the lead on an eight-play, 63-yard drive capped by Goins' 3-yard waltz into the end zone. Another two-point pass gave them a 16-13 lead, which they never lost.

"I thought our kids did a good job, I really did," said Canton coach Bob Koenle. "If they can just keep their heads up and not get down about this."

After all, there are eight more games.

Ocelots reloaded for new season

By C.J. RISAK
STAFF WRITER

When nearly everyone from a soccer team that lost just one match the previous season is lost, it would seem time for transition — at the very least — would be in order.

Not with Schoolcraft College's men's team, Ocelots' coach Van Dimitriou is as confident in his '94 squad as he was in last year's.

"We're not missing a beat," he said optimistically prior to his team's departure for the Monroe CC Tournament in Rochester, N.Y., last weekend. "The only question mark is that we don't have an experienced sweeper like Billy Joker."

"That's the only question. Everywhere else we're pretty solid."

His new lineup includes three experienced players (perhaps four, depending whether Ryan Piper receives academic clearance). Among them is a bona fide star: striker Fadi Bazzi, who led SC in scoring a year ago.

Bazzi has picked up right where he left off. In the Ocelots' first two scrimmages — a 3-0 victory over Spring Arbor and a 3-2 loss to Eastern Michigan — he scored four of the team's five goals.

"Fadi is quicker and stronger than ever," said Dimitriou.

The other two experienced returnees are team captain Tim McCarley (Livonia Stevenson) and Tom Kuzak. SC started the season with McCarley at sweeper and Kuzak at stopper, but Dimitriou has had them swap spots.

Other defenders who will get plenty of playing time are freshmen David Binkiewicz (Livonia Franklin) and Chris Graczyk, both strong markers. Should Piper gain his eligibility, it will make the defense even tougher. And Eric Stoeklein (Plymouth Canton) has also been impressive.

The midfield features Chris Hayes (Canton), Mario Piacentini, Ryan Phipps (Canton) and probably Nasser Salame. Phipps is two years out of high school, which should add some maturity, and Salame is versatile enough to play any position. Hayes will play inside, where "he can dish the ball off. He's smart, he knows the game."

Others who will see action are Wissam Fardoun, a left-side player, and Chris Foght, who will get some time at forward, too.

Joining Bazzi up front are Ryan Smith (Salem), the son of Canton coach Don Smith, Mo Hijazi ("He has better touch on the ball than Fadi"), Emanuel Chiaburu and Salame.

To play goal, Dimitriou landed all-star Ariel Mechlowics (from Warren DeLaSalle) and Brian Mlynarek (Redford Thurston). "I don't have a problem going with either one of them," said Dimitriou.

What this team has that last year's lacked is size. What this team lacks is experience. "Now it's just a matter of putting it all together, learning to play with each other," said Dimitriou.

The promise for yet another NJCAA Region 12 championship is there. But getting to the Inter-regional playoff hasn't been much of a problem for SC; going beyond it has. The Ocelots have reached the NJCAA Tournament just once in Dimitriou's 11 seasons of coaching.

Without much to challenge them in regional play, they'll have to find a way to sharpen their game for the far-more-difficult tournament competition.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

MACKER STANDOUTS

Michigan's Finest, a 13-year-old girls team, collected the 13-14 age division championship at the Gus Macker 3-on-3 Basketball Tournament Aug. 27-28 at Oakland University.

A pair of Plymouth residents, Andrea Pruitt and Angela Silliman, were members of the team, together with Brook Raths (South Lyon) and Lindsay Baber (Grosse Ile).

The Jumpin' Jordans, an 11-12 year-old boys team based in Plymouth-Canton, finished third at the OU Gus Macker. The Jordans lost out on second place by a single point in sudden death.

Team members were Jeremy Borsos, Nick Cabauatan, Jay Sofen and Oliver Wolcott.

PCJBA REGISTRATION

The Plymouth-Canton Junior Basketball Association will have its registration from 9 a.m. until noon in the Plymouth-Canton HS gym's lobby Saturday.

There are three leagues for both boys and girls: C, for third- and fourth-graders; B, for fifth- and sixth-graders; and A, for seventh- and eighth-graders. Cost is $65 for C, $70 for B and $75 for A.

All students in the Plymouth-Canton school district and in Canton Township are eligible.

Each player will play in every game, but no player will be in an entire game. The C League is instructional, with no standings kept. Tryouts will be conducted before team organization to equalize teams. It is a 10-game season, with one game and one practice per week.

Each player will also receive a team jersey.

Also: Coaches and referees (who must be in grades 9-12 and will be paid) are also needed. Those interested can sign up Saturday.

TITANS LOOK GOOD

The University of Detroit Mercy men's soccer team, coached by Morris Lepenc, has high hopes entering the 1994 season.

The Titans return nine starters off last year's squad, which won a school-record 16 games and advanced all the way to the Midwestern Collegiate Conference finals.

The forward position will find newcomer Dominica Vella, a 6-foot-2 product from Livonia Churchill and Schoolcraft College; along with Farmington High grad Mike Giese, a transfer from Wisconsin-Green Bay.

The midfield spot features junior Dario Rauker (Churchill), a two-time second-team All-MCC pick; along with sophomores John Truskowski (Plymouth Salem) and Adam Pichler (Livonia Stevenson).

The fullback position will be spearheaded by sophomore sweeper Jeff Thomas (Stevenson), a second-team All-NCAA Mideast choice by the National Soccer Coaches Association.

Redshirt sophomore Scott Wiggins (Stevenson) returns after sitting out all last season with a foot injury.

In goal, the Titans boast one of the best in the midwest in sophomore Kal Kaliszewski (Churchill). As a sophomore last year, Kaliszewski registered school records with eight shutouts and a 1.13 goals-against average. He posted a 14-4-2 record while earning second-team and Newcomer of the Year honors in the MCC.

WOMEN'S SOCCER TRYOUTS

Tryouts for the Oakland University women's soccer team will be held today through Friday.

For more information, call Gary Parsons at 810-370-4007 (mornings) or Nick O'Shea at 313-421-1684 (evenings).

can shoot 80," said Rick Wilson, Salem's coach. "We just don't have that superstar who can shoot par and knock everyone out of the water."

What Wilson claimed was on display last Monday at the Brighton Invitational. The Rocks' top four scorers carded 80, 80, 80 and 82; they finished sixth out of 22 teams.

Churchill, which again figures to be Salem's chief challenge in the WLAA, shot 315 and finished fourth. The two clash early in the conference schedule — they meet Thursday in both teams' league opener at Hilltop Golf Course.

On Wednesday, Salem faced three other teams at Leslie Park in Ann Arbor. The Rocks came up with their first victory, firing a nine-hole total of 170.

Huron was led by Chris Wilson's 40. Albert Hamood shot 43, Scott Belisle had a 46 and Brian Carlson and Kevin Carlson each carded a 48.

The Chiefs open their WLAA schedule Wednesday against Northville.

And how's this for consistency:

Salem's Mark Wesner tied Howell's Sean Koch for medalist honors with a 38. Four other Rocks shot 44: Brian Covington, Chris Wiedman, Alex Bain and Mike Hjelmstad. Six played for each team, with the four best scores counting.

Canton was led by Chris Wilson's 40. Albert Hamood shot 43, Scott Belisle had a 46 and Brian Carlson and Kevin Carlson each carded a 48.

The Chiefs open their WLAA schedule Wednesday against Northville.

HOROSCOPE

By C. C. Clark

Aries (March 21 - April 20)

You have a very strong character, and you will have the stamina to see others through a troubled time. You may receive a small gift.

Taurus (April 21 - May 20)

Take a closer look into the situation in order to understand it better. There is an indication that someone close to you may become ill.

Gemini (May 21 - June 20)

Try not to force the issue for now. A slight adjustment could change everything. Control your emotions, and know jealousy when you see it.

Cancer (June 21 - July 20)

You planted the seeds, and now it is time to reap the benefits. Your timing and patience will pay off in a very big way.

Leo (July 21 - Aug. 21)

A trip or some special event that you have been looking forward to may have to be postponed. There is a need to get out of a stifling situation.

Virgo (Aug. 22 - Sept. 22)

Someone may not be telling you everything you need to know. Don't give up; your persistence will eventually get you results.

Libra (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22)

It is important that you channel your leadership abilities in the right direction. Take your time making an important decision.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 - Nov. 22)

It would be best to take a good look at the obstacles you are faced with to see if you were the one who put them there. Success demands organization.

Sagittarius (Nov. 23 - Dec. 20)

Others have come to rely on you, and that may work to your advantage. This is a good time for making changes at home and in the work place.

Capricorn (Dec. 21 - Jan. 19)

It seems that the most important areas of your life are at a standstill. You will be dissatisfied with the way things turn out and be ready to make a new start.

Aquarius (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18)

It might be a good idea to listen to someone who has been through the same thing you have. Then, talk about your experiences.

Pisces (Feb. 19 - March 20)

You don't mind working hard for your money, but sometimes it seems that is all you do. Take some time out to enjoy life; you will appreciate it more.

'My So-Called Life' another exercise in teen angst

By JEFF PLASS

The show is called "My So-Called Life."

Can't you just smell the impending snotiness?

"Life," which airs Thursdays on ABC, and is being touted as the next big "realistic" human drama, is brought to viewers by the same people who made Elliot Weston's patented whining popular on "thirtysomething" throughout the late 1980s.

"My So-Called Life" stars newcomer Claire Danes as 15-year-old Angela Chase, struggling to find her place in the ever-darkening world around her.

At once melodramatic and apathetic, Danes makes a fine poster child for teen angst. Caught in the throes of puberty like a deer in the headlights of an oncoming car, Angela comes across alternately as a completely immature emotional mess and a lucid, well-spoken adult.

One minute she spews, "Everybody's an act, including you," and the next croons, "You're so beautiful, it hurts to look at you."

"For better or worse," explains executive producer Marshall Herskovitz, "the network knows what to expect when doing business with us and the network has been remarkably liberal and supportive with us for many, many years. We only know how to work one way. We write things, we execute things as we see them."

"We think there's a balance. There's light, there's dark. And when it's dark, yes, it's dark."

That darkness is presented under the auspices of realism, but the tone of the show is more like that of a self-centered, self-absorbed, self-indulgent youth movement, not actively seeking any sort of positive goals or reinforcements.

"I don't think we're encouraging anything," Herskovitz claims. "I think we're describing. And you can call it self-indulgent or whiny, but there are a lot of other words that would be preferable to me having to do with (being) confused, in pain, abused... and exploited by the adult culture."

"There's an undercurrent in the show that's very important to us about what we consider to be the negligence of — this whole society, as adults — toward our children — the way in which our children are not really being respected or cared for."

"And I think you're going to see more and more of that on this show as we see it in society," Herskovitz states. "These kids are lost for a reason."

On the bright side, the younger cast members of "My So-Called Life" truly shine in their roles.

Danes is perfect as the put-upon focal point of the action. A.J. Langer is equally convincing as Angela's accident-waiting-to-happen best friend, Rayanne Graff. Devon Gummersall plays Angela's neighbor and schoolmate Brian Krakow, who is painfully hung-up on Angela, yet would rather die than let her know.

Last, but by no means least, is Wilson Cruz, who handles the delicate role of Rickie Vasquez.

Half-Hispanic and half-black, and none too sure about whether he prefers men or women, Rickie could possibly be the most confused character ever introduced to television.

Yet Cruz seems to have captured the essence of his character's confusion without falling prey to the overtly effeminate trappings that would make the character a parody of itself.

Ultimately, for "My So-Called Life" to be successful, the show has to give viewers a reason to care about Angela's point of view, as well as that of the show's other characters.

Because, as Fox's "South Central," arguably the best show on the air in 1993, proved, a show can be intelligent, well-written and thought-provoking, and still fade away thanks to viewer apathy.

Fox, NFL score with season openers

BY JEANNE MARINO

The NFL rushes to the rescue of sports fans with the opening of the regular season on Sunday, Sept. 4.

While labor disputes have been grabbing the headlines in the sports pages lately, the NFL has been striving to make this one of its most exciting years ever.

Rule changes like the addition of the two-point conversion as well as changes in personnel should put scoring on the rise in the NFL.

The off-season acquisitions of defensive standout Ken Norton by the San Francisco 49ers and quarterback Warren Moon by the Minnesota Vikings make both teams serious threats to any plans the Cowboys may have to walk away with their third consecutive Super Bowl rings.

NBC launches coverage of the AFC with regional games on Sunday.

The Los Angeles Raiders visit the 49ers in an interconference matchup on Sunday.

The Dallas Cowboys still appear to

SOAP WORLD*No shotgun wedding for Don Diamont

BY CANDACE HAVENS

Dear Candace: I am a big fan of "The Young and the Restless," and I was wondering if you could tell me who Don Diamont (Brad) married recently. A friend of mine told me that Diamont and his wife were already expecting a baby. Was it a shotgun wedding? —C.B. in Georgia.

Dear Reader: Diamont and his bride wed last March, and there were no shotguns involved. His wife's name is Rachel and she has two sons, 4-year-old Lauren and 3-year-old Sasha. Both children live with Rachel and Don. The couple is expecting another child in February.

Dear Candace: I've watched "Days of Our Lives" for a couple of years, but I am not very familiar with the character Hope (Kristen Alfonso). Could you please tell me who Hope is related to on the show? It is all very confusing.

Also, I like Hope, but I don't think that it is a good idea for her to break up Bo (Robert Kelker-Kelly) and Billie (Lisa Rinna). Let her find someone else to pair up with. Bo and Hope may have had some big-time relationship in the past, but I think he and Billie were absolutely meant for each other. —M.L. in Kentucky

Dear Reader: If you have only been watching the show for a short time, it is not surprising that you are a little confused.

Exploring Hope's parentage may confuse you more. But here it is: Doug and the late Addie Horton are Hope's parents. Addie died of cancer. Doug is now married to Addie's oldest daughter, by another marriage, Julie. Alice Horton is Hope's grandmother. All of the other Hortons are either her aunts, uncles or cousins, except for Julie, who is her stepmother and half sister. Hope was married to Bo, and they had a son, Shawn-Douglas.

The vote on the Billie/Bo/Hope triangle seems to be split. There is a trend in that the viewers who saw Bo and Hope together in the past are the same ones who want them back together now. The viewers who have been watching for a shorter time want to see him with Billie.
