Protests unlikely to stop church

A church campus that can hold up to 3,750 members is likely coming to Plymouth Township, as constitutional protections of freedom of religion outweigh residents' traffic and noise concerns.

Temple Baptist's mega-church is coming, and there's nothing that can stop it.

That was the message from Plymouth Township officials and the township's legal counsel, stated

Thursday to about 100 neighbors of the proposed 2,500-seat church and home for Christian concerts.

The church is planned for the southwest corner of North Territorial and Ridge roads.

It was a sobering message for many residents. They sat hushed as officials outlined the township's chances of winning the court case against Temple Baptist.

"We don't have a prayer of winning this lawsuit," said township Supervisor Kathleen Keen McCarthy. The township board is scheduled to vote on whether to settle the suit at its 7:30 p.m. meeting Tuesday, July 25, at township hall.

Township attorneys Tim Cronin and Carol Rosati said a federal act passed in 1993 strongly suggests the courts would side with the church — that the township planning commission's rejection of church building plans last August would be viewed as denying Temple Baptist's right to practice freedom of religion.

On top of that, a Detroit church has offered Temple Baptist $5.2 million for the current church property in Redford.

Cronin said if the township doesn't settle the case with Temple Baptist over the Plymouth property — and

Residents seek more city help for park

BY KEVIN BROWN

The system of service clubs helping the recreation department to equip city parks could work better at one park, some residents told city commissioners on Wednesday.

Barbara Sabatini of Coolidge Street told commissioners on Wednesday that Jaycee Park, at Wing and Harding streets just southeast of downtown, needs some improvements.

"The city should be more involved," she said, adding the park lacks enough picnic tables and places to sit, a pavilion, and cement basketball court to go with the hoop already there.

"It's all these little things that add up to an unfinished job," Sabatini said. "That park is a jewel, I don't think the city has gotten it all together yet."

Families during Fall Festival walk over to the park with chicken dinners, but have nowhere to sit, she said. The same goes for parents and grandparents who bring children there.

Sabatini said she first raised the matter with Recreation Director Tom Willette a year and a half ago. "He has told us the Jaycees don't have the funds to do all these things."

Willette and City Commissioner Stella Greene head a committee that is reviewing park equipment needs as part of a recreation master plan. Sabatini's husband,

Cable representatives get commission static

Ameritech-New Media cable's presentation on improved cable service sailed past Plymouth Township trustees last week.

But Plymouth city commissioners on Wednesday had a few questions for Ameritech-New Media representatives, who detailed improved service in presentation at the city commission meeting.

Commissioner Dennis Shrewsbury, noting that Ameritech-New Media was seeking a 15-year franchise — the city has tried to negotiate a shorter-term franchise with Omnicom Cable — asked if a 15-year term was best for the city.

"This is supposed to be a state-of-the-art system, but we all know that technology can change," he said.

The city's cable consultant, Larry Monroe, said regardless of the franchise term, in practice federal law allows a cable company granted a franchise "to be here forever unless there's a grievous violation they refuse to cure."

Police on bicycles can be scary, if you're a vandal or crook.

"We're going to be able to roll up on things a scout car is not able to roll up on," said Sgt. Robert Smith, who helped put together Plymouth Township's bike patrol unit.

"We've been experiencing a lot of property crimes; malicious destruction to vehicles, homes," Smith said.

The vandal who will run when he spots a patrol car headlight won't as easily spot police on bikes.

"They'll be able to get around a subdivision quietly at dusk and at dawn and find out who's doing these things," Smith said.

That's why the Plymouth Township Police Department bought two mountain bikes, and trained two officers to perform bike patrols in subdivisions.

The township's first bike patrol officers were introduced at the Fourth of July parade Tuesday, riding their mountain bikes. They were chosen over touring bikes, Smith said, "Because they're the most durable."

"They're the most efficient to pedal and better for the officers' comfort because they're sitting in a more upright position," Smith said. "Touring

Mother charged in child's death

A Canton mother accused of abusing and causing the death of her 6-year-old daughter — who was found hanging on a bunk bed Jan. 28 — will undergo psychiatric competency tests.

Linda Solomon, 47, faces one count of first-degree murder and one count of felony murder in the death of her daughter, Chelsea, at their Windsor Woods apartment. The Wayne County Coroner listed Chelsea's death as asphyxiation from strangulation.

Judge Ron Lowe of the 35th District Court ordered a competency exam for Solomon, for whom no guilty pleas were entered at her arraignment Thursday morning.

Wayne County Assistant Prosecutor Paul Bruno requested the competency evaluation before proceeding with a preliminary exam on the charges.

"I do that because of information that has come to our attention, the defendant has been engaged in two suicide attempts," Bruno said, adding that Solomon reportedly has not been taking required prescribed medication. "I think there is a question about her competency."

But Solomon denied the allegations. "I am very competent," Solomon said, adding that she is in therapy. "I have no wish to take my life."

Wayne County Public Defender Greg Demopoulos, who called the competency exam a delaying tactic, said Solomon attempted suicide only once — not twice as claimed by Bruno — following her daughter's death when Solomon was in mourning.

"We are fearful through this process the prosecutor will build its case where it has none," Demopoulos said. "My client has been treating with a licensed psychiatrist."

Lowe agreed to the exam, asking that the prosecutor's office ex-peditie the matter, which on average takes six weeks for results. "I will not allow a lengthy delay after we have the results," he said. "The attempt at suicide concerns the court," he said. "The court needs to be certain you are competent."

Bruno said that if Solomon is judged incompetent to face the charges, a preliminary exam will be postponed indefinitely. The preliminary exam is scheduled for Aug. 29 in 35th District Court.

Solomon was remanded to the Wayne County Jail, despite a plea from Demopoulos for her to be released on personal bond. "It is my client's opinion that the prosecutor has a weak case. She has shown nothing in her behavior that she would not return (to court)."

According to the police report, Solomon spent most of Jan. 28 in her apartment with Chelsea, though they spoke to each other only occasionally. Solomon told police she heard her daughter singing and playing. She said she also heard bumping and banging noises coming from Chelsea's bedroom.

Solomon reportedly told police that she later went to Chelsea's bedroom — she thought then she must have been napping or resting — to ask if she wanted some pasta for dinner. The mother opened the bedroom door and found her daughter. She said she pulled off whatever was around Chelsea's neck, lifted her up and off where she was hanging and put her on the lower bunk bed mattress, according to the police report.

Solomon told police she began CPR then called 911 shortly after 7 p.m. for help while continuing to try to resuscitate her daughter. Solomon then moved Chelsea to the living room, which would be closer to the front door when emergency personnel arrived.

The Canton Fire Department arrived at the apartment shortly after the mother moved Chelsea to the living room. Canton police removed straps and nylons off her bunk bed and from her bedroom.

Chelsea was transported to Oakwood Health Center from where she was then taken by helicopter to the University of Michigan Hospitals, Ann Arbor.

Poet and activist featured readers

Rudy Simona, a poet who works with the Michigan Coalition for Human Rights and has read on WDET public radio, and Wayne State University physician and human rights activist Dr. Eugene Perrin are featured readers from 7:30-10:30 p.m. today at the Plymouth Coffee Bean Co. as the Plymouth Summer Celebration of Poetry continues.

The series is organized by Rod Reinhart and the Plymouth Poets group at the coffee house at 844 Penniman. Poets are invited to participate at an open microphone session scheduled during the event.

The series continues Thursday, July 20 with Steve Marsh and the Ann Arbor Poetry Slam Team. Admission for both readings is free.

Music extended

Plymouth city commissioners on Monday approved the return of the Plymouth Music Celebration Aug. 4-6 in Kellogg Park.

They also extended live performance times on Friday and Saturday during the celebration from 10 p.m. to 11 p.m. Their action followed Commissioner

Dennis Shrewsbury's comment that several residents expressed interest in having the music go later into the evening. Grant awarded

The state Department of Transportation has awarded the city $124,000 to help pay for street construction included in the downtown streetscape project.

The grant will help pay for work on Main Street from the Mayflower Hotel parking lot south to Wing, and from Frailek north to Church, City Manager Steve Walters said in a report to city commissioners.

The work will be bid this winter and construction will begin next spring.

Dr. David Janda of Plymouth, president of the Institute for Preventative Sports Medicine in Ann Arbor, has been reappointed by Gov. John Engler to the Governor's Council on Physical Fitness, Health and Sports.

Janda's term expires April 16, 1997.

Woman surprises burglar

A Plymouth Township woman surprised an apparent burglar who entered her home Thursday, and the burglar fled without taking anything.

Township police said that at 11:50 a.m. the woman came downstairs and found a white male in his late teens standing in her kitchen.

The youth uttered a curse, and ran west from the home on Aspen toward I-275, before heading south along a bike path. The woman told police she had left the front door open. She said nothing was missing from the home.

Police said the burglar was described as 5 feet 8-11 inches, 150-170 pounds, with a black T-shirt with a white letter on the back, brown hair in a bowl cut, dark jeans and tennis shoes. Police are investigating.

Congresswoman decries partisanship

By JOANNE MALLINOWSKI
STAFF WRITER

Partisanship is what U.S. Congresswoman Lynn Rivers says she continues to see in Washington, despite an apparent sentiment among voters to end the gridlock.

"A lot of people have been voting to end partisanship. A lot of people have been voting to end gridlock," Rivers told the Canton Chamber of Commerce Wednesday. "We have essentially traded Democratic-led divided politics for Republican-led divided politics."

Rivers said she does not believe it is the electorate who is swaying with their votes, but rather the national politicians who are fighting on issues for the sake of fighting.

"There has been no creation of a middle ground," she said. "The electorate is looking for people who will govern in the middle."

National legislators have been so busy fighting each other that overbearing legislation and regulations have resulted. Rivers blamed her own Democratic Party for its share of those extreme results. She pointed to issues involving the environment and federal budget where the parties have been fighting for the sake of fighting.

She gave an example of when she managed a gourmet food store. Her encounters with health department representatives were frustrating and at times ridiculous as the representatives continued to demand adherence to regulations that did not affect the safety of the food served.

"It became clear to me it was almost a game. It was a matter of getting through the process," Rivers said. The bottom line questions of whether the food is safe or is the worker safe in his environment are shadowed.

"That's what we seem to be losing. We're ending up with books of legislation that are getting bigger and bigger."

Rivers also referred to the continuing need for lobbying reform, a gift ban, campaign finance reform and congressional expenditures. Resolving these issues has hit brick walls with partisanship backbiting.

"If I go on vacation, I'll pay for my plane trip," Rivers said. "Unfortunately it's disintegrating in partisan politics."

With the attempts to reform campaign financing, Rivers said the parties take aim at each other. "People from both parties have looked at the Achilles heel

(in each party) and drafted legislation to attack it."

She co-sponsored legislation to create a commission — similar to the military base closings commission — of Republicans and Democrats who would research the campaign finance issue. The plan would be that when recommendations are before the House and Senate, the legislation could not be amended and legislators could only vote for or against.

"The bill is not moving," Rivers added.

Party politics, she said, has mired important issues. "Somewhere along the line we lost sight of what we were trying to accomplish. We leave no flexibility at all. We focus on the process rather than the outcome."

Rivers told chamber members she wants to create a task force where people can meet with her to tell her what's important to them. She's also planning a business weekend, where small business owners and managers will have the chance to meet with representatives from the Small Business Administration, to talk about business loans, as well as the U.S. Trade Delegation to talk about export opportunities for small businesses.

Rivers also is a member of what is called the Speakers Advisory Committee for Corrections, which will look at outmoded and expensive regulations on the books that are of no use or that no longer have any bearing. "We are going to look at these things more carefully."

His travels led him to First Presbyterian Church

By JILL HALPIN
STAFF WRITER

Over the past seven years, David Brown has lived in four countries, Scotland, Israel, Germany and now the United States.

Life in each one of those countries brought him closer to Plymouth, where he is now serving as the director of Youth Ministries at the First Presbyterian Church of Plymouth.

For many, the whirlwind pace of shuttling between such different countries may have been exhausting or overwhelming, but not for Brown, 28.

It was a time of introspection and self-analysis, he said, and added that was probably due to his perspective on traveling, one that allowed him to absorb his surroundings.

"People who work for Ford and are used to being transferred or are used to 'to and froing' can appreciate what it has been like. I love to travel, but not in the typical sense of being a tourist where you fly in for two weeks and visit the local attractions. To me traveling is moving around, settling in and getting to know the people. I have had a lot of experiences in different parts of the world and seen a lot of real life," he said.

A native of Falkirk, Scotland, Brown came to the United States two years ago to attend Princeton Theological Seminary in New Jersey, obtaining a master's degree in theology. There he met fellow student Doug Campbell of Plymouth, who told him that the Plymouth church was looking for a youth minister.

"I always wanted to vacation in the States. I never intended to stay here and work. I really liked what I found," he said.

He worked with young people at Princeton and "will be working with middle and high school students in a class that leads towards church membership," he said.

Brown graduated from college and was working in public health in Scotland, a vocation he found "unfruitful," when he decided to travel to Israel for six months to do volunteer work with the homeless. The trip marked a turning point in his life, and prompted him to make the church his career.

"When I went to Israel, I began making connections. I had a few profound experiences that started the process going and made me look at my own sense of humanity. My experiences in Israel affected how I treat others and how I look at the world. I think it helped me to have a very real world view," he said.

Brown returned to Scotland and received a degree in divinity from the University of Edinburgh and also traveled to Tuebingen, Germany, where he studied and worked before coming to the United States.

Although he's well-traveled, Brown's one-year stint in Plymouth will be his first in a small community. His hometown in Scotland is about the size of Ann Arbor.

"I'm pretty used to living in cities, but I think I will adjust to it just fine. It's a nice town from what I've seen so far."

A full-service post office not a certainty in Canton

By JEFF COUNTS
STAFF WRITER

Canton Township is in line for a new post office, but it isn't a done deal.

"We're going to have to keep up the pressure, keep pushing the buttons," said Bruce Patterson of Canton, who is a Wayne County commissioner.

He and others say political pressure from U.S. Sen. Spencer Abraham, R-Michigan, U.S. Rep. Lynn Rivers, D-Ann Arbor, and from Canton Township helped tip the scales to put the community on a waiting list for a post office.

"It's one of the most frustrating things I've ever been involved in," said Rivers. "We keep getting mixed messages from the postal service. We keep getting reassurances from them, but I won't believe it until the shovel is in the ground."

She agreed with Patterson that Canton officials will have to keep the pressure on to make it happen.

Tony Spearman-Leach, a spokesman for Abraham, said "We are ecstatic. We're pleased to see all sections of government come together and work for Canton."

If it does eventually get built, plans call for a $3 million, 20,000-square-foot, full-service post office. A location hasn't been pinned down, but if Canton Township Supervisor Tom Yack has his way, it will be on Canton Center Road.

"That's where the parcels of land are available," Yack said. "Canton Center will be served by five lanes of traffic and could handle the traffic."

Carnival at Mettetal Airport canceled due to soggy ground

A fund-raising carnival scheduled for this past weekend at Mettetal Airport in Canton was canceled because the ground was too soggy to support the rides.

The event, to raise money for the Plymouth YMCA, was to be held Thursday through Sunday at the airport, but the ground didn't cooperate, said Mike Merlanti, chairman of the Mettetal Advisory Board.

"We knew there would be some requests from the public to use the site. This was a test case," he said, and added that "everybody worked hard to coordinate the project" and he lamented that it didn't come off.

He said the carnival was canceled when a representative from Wade Shows inspected the site and determined that the ground was too wet from recent rains to support the weight of the rides.

the sale of its Redford property falls through due to the delay — Temple could sue the township for $5.2 million in damages, plus attorney's fees and interest.

To give residents an idea of what the township is up against, Rosati detailed a recent case in Washington, D.C. There, a church came into an affluent residential area, and began serving food to homeless people who streamed into the neighborhood.

The Supreme Court ruled in favor of the church, as serving the homeless was part of how the church exercised faith.

Township officials suggested the courts would likewise back Temple's right to have huge services and schedule Christian concerts — as this is how they exercise their religion.

Residents' arguments that church traffic would clog nearby roads are not as compelling as arguments for freedom of religion, officials suggested.

One resident told officials he was still for fighting the church in court, and asked for a show of hands. Roughly half the people attending supported him.

Township officials stressed that getting a settlement with the church would enable officials to limit parking and building size at the site. Temple Baptist has agreed to pay for a traffic light at Ridge and North Territorial, and to build enter and exit lanes.

But to fight and lose would mean the church can build however it wants, with no landscaping — and the township could still pay millions in damages.

Patrick VanTiem, who lives in a nearby subdivision, said he'd likely put his house up for sale. "There's going to be a lot of 'for sale' signs going up. I think we'll sell, and probably at a loss."

"I'm not opposed to the church, it's the infringement on our area, the traffic, noise, the lights, the whole aesthetics," he said.

John Paris, who also lives nearby, said, "It's like having Woodstock across the street from you forever."

"I think it's terrible what they're going to do to us," said Beverly Zwyarch, another neighbor. "I feel like my property value is really going to go downhill. I'm thinking of selling."

"It looks like they're (township officials) doing all they can, we're basically screwed," said neighbor Sandra Progar.

Gerald Sabatini, suggested, "You don't need a master plan to get a picnic table. Write a work order and get a picnic table."

Mayor Doug Miller said officials need to work from a budget plan that prioritizes needs. "We'll get Tom (Willette) and the neighbors' inputs on what are the most critical elements," he said, adding. "We want to do as much as we can this season."

"We appreciate what the Jaycees do, we just think they need a little supervision," added another nearby resident, Jan Nelson.

Plymouth-Canton Jaycees membership vice president Eric Bernhardt said the Jaycees spent more than $10,000 in the park in recent years, mainly to put in a playscape structure for kids last fall.

"It's a matter of getting everything together, we need the community's support to do our job better," he said, adding people in the neighborhood are welcome to join and help coordinate efforts to improve the park.

Officials have declined to detail what channels currently unavailable would be offered, saying this hasn't been determined.

Service technicians would arrive at homes within a two-hour appointment time, the fiber-optic cable system would eventually be interactive and hundreds of cable channels would eventually be available, company representatives said.

Shrewsbury also had questions about how much public access cable programming would be provided by the new company. Monroe said the city government and schools would be offered three cable channels, adding government could allocate whatever time they decide on a given channel to public access.

bikes have thin tires and don't hold up to the rigors of use."

The two bike patrol officers are Shawn Corbett and Steve Cheson.

Smith said there's not enough staff to have bicycle patrols daily. Initially a patrol car will be fitted with two bike racks, and officers can park, get the bikes down and patrol an area.

After their unveiling at the parade, officers were scheduled to patrol the crowds at the fireworks display at Plymouth and Haggerty roads.

"Foot patrol out here is not efficient. People are more apt to stop and talk to bike patrol officers than a guy in a scout car, officers can get a better feel for what's going on in a subdivision to get a feel for those problems and solve those problems," Smith said.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED FRANCHISE FOR AMERITECH NEW MEDIA ENTERPRISES

Notice is hereby given that an ordinance was introduced at the Plymouth City Commission meeting on July 5, 1995, which would grant a non-exclusive franchise to Ameritech New Media Enterprises to operate and maintain a cable television system in the City of Plymouth. This franchise would allow the company to operate in addition to and in competition with the current cable television provider, Omnimax of Michigan.

Pursuant to Section 13.2 of the Plymouth City Charter, the proposed ordinance and franchise have been placed on file with the City Clerk for a period of thirty days beginning on July 6, 1995, and ending on August 5, 1995. The public is invited to submit written comments on the proposed franchise to the City Clerk during the filing period.

The City Commission is expected to consider adoption of the proposed ordinance and granting of the franchise at its regular meeting on Monday, August 7, 1995. The public is invited to attend that meeting and provide written or oral comment on the proposed franchise.

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND SECTION 5.196(j) IN THE SCHEDULE OF PARKING REGULATIONS, IN THE ZONING ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF PLYMOUTH, FOR THE PURPOSE OF MODIFYING THE PARKING REQUIREMENTS FOR RESTAURANTS THROUGH JUNE 30, 1996.

The City of Plymouth ordains:

Section 1. Section 5.196(j) in the Schedule of Parking Regulations, in the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Plymouth, is hereby amended to read as follows:

(j) Establishment for sale and consumption on the premises of beverages, food and refreshments
Outside of the Downtown Development District: One (1) for each seventy-five (75) square feet square feet of usable floor area or one (1) for each three (3) persons allowed within the maximum occupancy load as established by local, county or state fire, building or health codes, whichever is the greater.

Within the Downtown Development District: Effective May 1, 1995: one (1) for each one hundred fifty (150) square feet of usable floor space; and effective July 1, 1995: one (1) for each seventy-five (75) square feet of usable floor area or one (1) for each three (3) persons allowed within the maximum occupancy load as established by local, county or state fire, building or health codes, whichever is the greater.

Section 2. Rights and duties which have matured, penalties which have incurred, proceedings which have begun and prosecutions for violations of law occurring before the effective date of this ordinance are not affected or abated by this ordinance.

Section 3. Should any section, clause or paragraph of this ordinance be declared by a Court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, the same will not affect the validity of the ordinance as a whole or part thereof other than the part declared invalid.

Section 4. All other ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance are to the extent of such inconsistency hereby repealed.

Section 5. This ordinance shall become effective ten (10) days after enactment hereof and after publication hereof.

ORDINANCE NO. 95-8

For each site with a single structure occupied by a single tenant, one (1) ground sign shall be permitted if a building setback of at least five (5) feet is provided; and one (1) wall sign or canopy sign shall be permitted on each facade which has a separate public means of ingress and egress.

For each site with a grouping of structures and/or one (1) or more multiple tenant structures, one (1) ground sign shall be permitted for such site; and one (1) wall sign or one (1) canopy sign shall be permitted for each separate public means of ingress or egress; provided, that two or more signs may not be positioned or used in such a way as to function as a single sign.

A ground sign shall not exceed twenty-five (25) square feet per side in area nor exceed two (2) sides and four (4) feet in height when erected on the property line. An additional area of one (1) square foot for each one (1) foot of setback from the property line shall be permitted, to a maximum area of thirty-two (32) square feet per side. An additional height of one (1) foot for each one (1) foot of setback from the property line shall be permitted, to a maximum height of eight (8) feet.

A wall sign or the total message area on a canopy sign shall not exceed twenty-five (25) square feet in area; provided, that for a building with a footprint of One Hundred Thousand (100,000) square feet or more a wall sign shall not exceed thirty-two (32) square feet in area.

Projecting wall signs shall be allowed as substitutes for wall signs and canopy signs within the Central Business District and in B-2 Central Business Districts only.

Section 8. Section 5.202(6), NON-COMFORMING SIGNS, in the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Plymouth, is hereby amended to read as follows:

All legal non-conforming signs, except those granted exceptions by the Zoning Board of Appeals as being deemed to have historical significance, will lose their legal non-conforming status and therefore must be removed upon occurrence of any of the following:

(a) The structure of the sign is altered in any way which tends to or makes the sign less in compliance with the requirements of this Ordinance than it was before the alteration.

(b) The sign is relocated.

(c) The sign is replaced or modified in any way, except as follows:

(1) The sign may have electrical or structural repairs made, which are required for safety or normal operation of the existing sign, and do not alter the size, shape or other nature of the sign; provided, that if the sign has deteriorated to an extent greater than fifty percent (50%) of its market value excluding the foundation, then it shall be removed rather than repaired.

(2) The sign base or framework may be painted for maintenance purposes; provided, that such painting shall not add to or change the design, messages or patterns on the sign in any way.

(3) A sign with a multi-tenant directory may have changeable name plates replaced or repainted for the current tenant; provided that such painting shall not add to or change the design, messages, patterns, shape or

You're the star behind sunglasses

There was a time when you stopped at the drugstore on the way to the beach and picked up a pair of clip-on Polaroid sunglasses or some generic little plastic frames with green-tinted lenses. They were, after all, just to keep the glare at bay while you read the latest pocket romance, stretched out in the sand under a scorching sun.

Today, thanks to the keen-eyed vision and influence of Hollywood, fashion designers and rock stars, shades have become indispensable accessories that define a sense of style. At the same time, the emphasis is on total UV protection.

Imagine Tom Cruise without his Ray-Bans or Jack Nicholson sans shades. Elton John inspired eyewear designer Oliver Peoples to name a retro-styled pair of sunglasses after him. The sales benefit the Elton John AIDS Foundation. Designers such as Armani, Jill Sander, Carolina Herrera and Gianni Versace all lend their names to cutting-edge optics.

Frames for you

We've all seen cool sunglasses that look great on movie stars or fashion models. But, how do we select the style that's best for us? How many times have you stood in front of a tiny mirror in a department store trying on dozens of frames and rejecting every last one?

Grace Gluskin to the rescue!

Grace Gluskin

A personal eyewear consultant, Gluskin conducts free workshops at Family Eye Care, 31154 Orchard Lake Road in Farmington Hills. Her hands-on workshops impart tips on choosing the perfect pair of eyeglasses, including shape, color and size. Most importantly, Gluskin stresses 100-percent UV protection.

"Your sunglasses are just as important as sunscreen," says Gluskin. "Serious eye conditions are linked to ultraviolet rays."

Gray, she says, is the most accommodating lens color. But, if you're a skier or a hunter, choose yellow lenses. If you're a fisherman, opt for polarized lenses. Those who play contact sports need polycarbonate, impact-resistant glasses.

The hottest sunglasses shape of the summer is the wrap. Though traditionally a sport-specific style, the wraparound has caught on in a big way as a fashion statement. At D.O.C. Optique in the Bloomfield Plaza, Telegraph and Maple, look for Oakley's futuristic E-Wires and Bench & Lomb's sleek Killer Loop Activ. These ultra-protection athletic styles block all ultraviolet light and curve with the shape of the head to shield eyes from weather conditions, like blowing sand. Also hip are Ray-Ban's funky Orbs.

Blasts from the past

The retro-look is still popular in small oval shapes with antique metal or vibrant-colored frames. The newest, says Mirra at D.O.C., are Revo's small ovals with mirrored lenses, and the mirrors reflect more sun.

"Remember," says Gluskin, "your eyes are your most expressive feature and you want to frame them with the most flattering shape."

Where can I find?

Eureka! We found some! Mrs. Wayne Hu of West Bloomfield wrote to Where Can I Find? seeking the classic brown-and-white cotton work socks with red heels manufactured by the Nelson Knitting Company of Rockford, Ill., since the 1940s.

Mrs. Hu said she wants to use the socks to make the stuffed monkey popularized by David Letterman during April's academy awards show. In one segment, a clip from the movie "Cabin Boy" shows Letterman selling socks monkeys on the street.

Mrs. Hu said she cannot find a phone listing for the Nelson Knitting Company in Rockford from directory assistance!

Well, our crack team of investigative journalists quickly solved the mystery after some interesting turns

A spokeswoman from the Rockford Chamber of Commerce explained that the Nelson Knitting Company went out of business years ago and sold its patents to Fox River Mills, Inc. of Osage, Iowa. All inquiries about the Redheel are directed there.

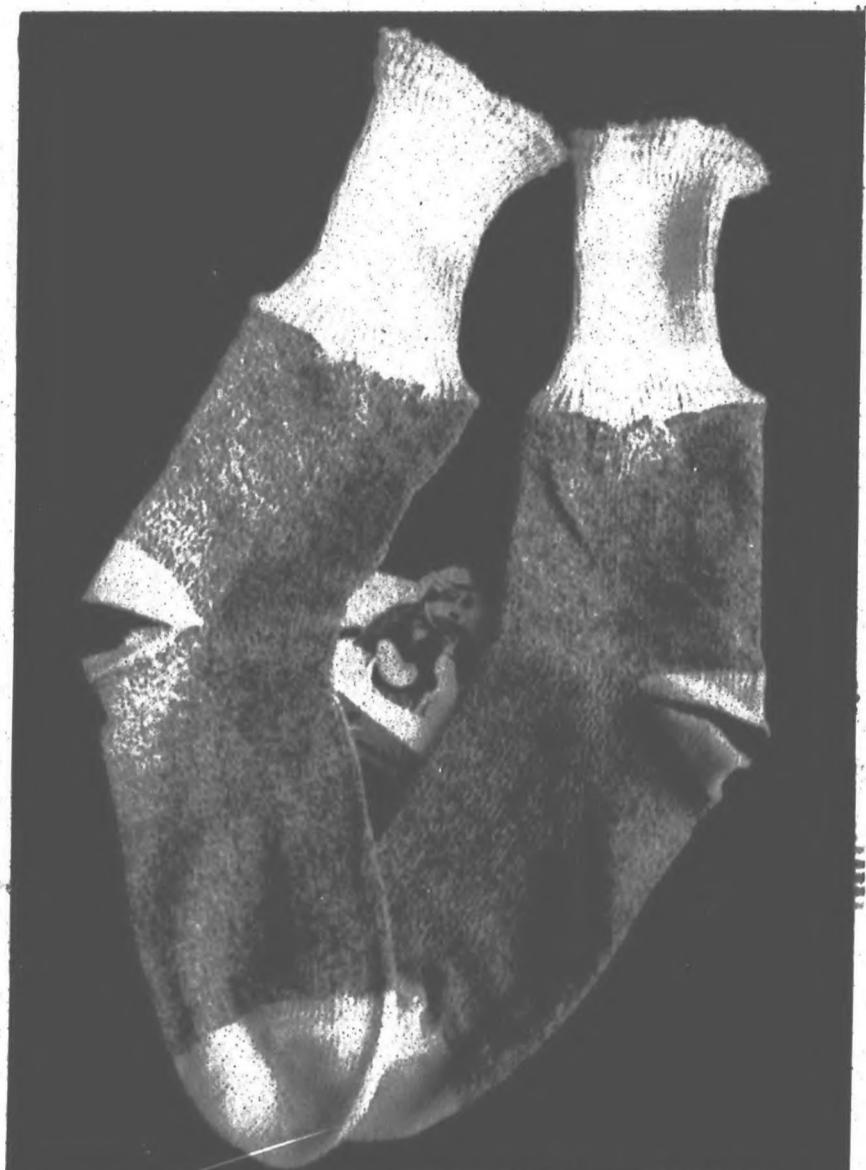

A spokeswoman for Fox River Mills in Osage, Jennifer Dow, said the company bought the rights to make the sock in 1985. "The Redheel is still made and sold by distributors to craft stores and lower-end shops for outdoorsmen," she said. "The Redheels cost about $4 a pair. Thanks to David Letterman, we're seeing a renewed interest in this product."

Two readers offered suggestions on where they've bought the sock locally, but one source has since gone out of business — the D&C dime store in Waterford. Kathleen Chambers of Farmington, a caterer, explained that she once made dozens of the monkey socks and dressed them as astronauts for a client's Christmas tree. Her supply of socks came from the old D&C.

Connie Witt called to report that Sam's Clothing Store at 207 E. Liberty in Ann Arbor still carries the Redheel. Store manager Kirk Hosmann confirmed it. "We've got those monkey socks in the traditional brown and white, or the newer blue and white, two pairs in a package for $5.95. We order them from the distributor in Osage." Here's the next shopping challenge:

"I've searched for several years to find sleeping bags (adult size) made of materials for warmth without weight and bulk, to use on motorcycles or while backpacking. Surely in this world of wonder, someone has put this on the market! Please help," Sincerely, Mrs. Hame of Westland.

If you know where Mrs. Hame can buy such a sleeping bag, please give Malls & Mainstreets a call at (810) 901-2567. We'll print your responses! You can fax an answer to (810) 644-1314. ping Centers at the Hyatt Regency in Dearborn.

And in an effort to woo you to your malls and mainstreets, shopping center owners, developers, managers, marketing directors, leasing agents and individual retailers are constantly evaluating and readjusting their whole industry.

"Everything is evolving. The biggest challenge is to be more professional and be able to see what's coming next," said Cynthia Kratchman, vice president for commercial leasing at Bleznak Associates in Farmington Hills. "If you're a step behind, you're too late."

Kratchman, the elected ICSC Michigan state director, drew a thumbnail sketch of the ever-changing retail picture to kick off the idea exchange.

"Hey big spender, where did you go?" the Bloomfield Township resident quoted from the headline of a Barron's magazine piece.

Her view is that the baby boomer segment of the population — and that unique point in history when it meshed with the time women began entering the work force — produced a unique surge in spending.

"So retailers kept expanding. We'll never have that again," she said.

Kratchman said now that expansion is no longer the issue, retailers should focus on what shoppers are looking for — value and quality for their families. And the shopping center industry is following that lead in many ways already she said, offering these examples:

You want to shop in a safe environment — that's why more money is being spent on security.

Women are firmly established in the market place — that's why store hours are expanded and merchandise is placed more conveniently.

Customers crave a sense of community — that's why there are now more and more community-based activities such as charitable benefits and special events.

People are working harder and have less time for fun as businesses reduce overhead — so entertainment has been worked into the shopping experience.

"Entertainment — we're really touting entertainment," Kratchman said. "Entertainment is the new traffic generator."

Visionary theaters, fantastical restaurants, virtual reality events and creative children's venues that are both entertaining and educational are all in the works. In states where gambling is legal, she reported that gaming in malls is on the horizon.

"And retailers themselves are becoming entertainers," Kratchman said. "Disney stores are one example. The new Speedo stores have a pool on the floor and swimmers hanging from the ceiling," she described.

One of the roundtables that shopping center conventioneers could attend had to do with the role of entertainment in the retail environment. It was led by Joseph Vilsack, president of The Phoenix Partnership Ltd., Pittsburgh, a firm specializing in repositioning or refining shopping centers.

Shopping changed in 1989-90, he seconded Kratchman. Consumers became victims of the time crunch and transferred their interests to family and home.

"The amusement/entertainment issue didn't belong until the consumers made their shift," he said.

Vilsack sees entertainment, not as an end in itself, but as one piece in an extension of a shopping center's services to the family. He envisions it, for example, combined with a theater, child care, a children's shoe store and toy store.

He wants you to picture this: Driving your car up to the shopping center. A "family valet" opens your trunk and takes out the stroller. Later, all your purchases are relayed to the "family valet" who loads them in your car.

Then, picture this: Child care and a restaurant reserved for adults, complete with a monitor of the child care facility.

Unfortunately Gov. John Engler, new father of triplet girls, missed this part of the convention. He was featured luncheon speaker, stressing his administration's efforts to improve doing business in Michigan. He later met with several big chain retailers including Zany Brainy, which devotes 12,000 square feet to educational children's concepts.

Other popular roundtables, so you can spot the trends, were "The Future of Big Box Tenants," led by Joan Primo of The Strategic Edge in Southfield, and "Dealing with Restaurant Tenants," led by Bradley Rosenberg of LaKritz-Weber & Co., Southfield.

Shopping changed in 1989-90, he seconded Kratchman. Con-

Observer employee had friendly greeting for co-workers

By MARY RODRIQUE
STAFF WRITER

For the 350-plus workers of the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, maintenance supervisor Herb Allen always had a smile and a friendly greeting for those arriving for work.

Herb Allen, a Plymouth Township resident and longtime O&E employee, died Thursday morning of a massive heart attack suffered shortly after he arrived at the Livonia plant around 7 a.m. He was 66 years old.

He is remembered by friends and colleagues as a loyal, caring, hardworking man who never turned down a request for help.

"Herb oversaw the creation of this building back in 1969," recalled Jim Jimmerson, production manager. "He did everything — the plumbing, electrical, heating and cooling, carpentry work."

Jimmerson worked with Mr. Allen since 1966.

"He taught me how to run offset presses," Jimmerson said. "He always loved the newspaper and printing."

"He always did what needed to be done to get this paper out. It was common for him to stop in on Sunday morning and check his building. His daily routine was to walk the building to see if everything was OK. He would take on any project that was asked of him. I don't think I ever saw him mad at anybody, and I never saw him without a smile."

Born in Sevierville, Ky., Mr. Allen moved to Wixom with his family as a young man. He married Joyce 46 years ago and settled in Plymouth Township to raise two sons and a daughter.

He began his newspaper career as a pressman at the old Plymouth Mail on Aug. 20, 1961. The Plymouth Mail was purchased by Philip Power in June 1966 to become part of what was then ONI (Observer Newspapers Inc.).

Allen's career was interrupted for a two-year stint in the U.S. Army, from January 1952 until his honorable discharge at rank of private first class. In January 1964, at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., he studied engineering and carpentry. He was also stationed in Alaska while in the service, and received medals for National Defense Service and Good Conduct.

"His temperament was amazing," said Jimmerson. "He never liked friction. He was so special. I don't know of anyone more dedicated to his job."

"He never liked the spotlight. He was kind of shy in that respect. For him, he was just doing what needed to be done."

Steve Kalder, assistant press supervisor, and a longtime colleague, described Mr. Allen as "humble" and hardworking. He took his job to heart, and he never asked for anything. The man had so much knowledge about how a building runs. He was just an encyclopedia on building maintenance. He ran his department fair and would never turn down a request for help. There were 18 workers under Herb's direct control.

"When they broke ground for this building, he was involved in the planning, design, layout, heating and cooling. He had a hand in everything," Kalder said.

Mr. Allen rarely took sick leave and was always eager to learn something new.

"He was always there for everybody else, but he was a private person," Kalder said. "He never told us if he was hurting. He would still show up and work hard."

Another co-worker, Roger

Owens, recalled how Mr. Allen would quietly go about collecting toys for needy children every Christmas season.

"He is going to be missed by a lot of people," Owens said.

"He was one of a kind. He lived and breathed the O&E and with him a big part of our history is gone," said Richard Agopian, president of Suburban Communications Corp., the company which owns the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers.

Bob Juscino, who worked with Mr. Allen the past 18 years, called him "the most caring and concerned man I ever worked with. He always had time to sit down and listen. He could always find something good to say about everyone."

Outside of work, Mr. Allen and his wife enjoyed family vacations in Caspian and pool parties with friends, neighbors and family.

They also bowled on two leagues, the Eagles and the American Legion.

Mr. Allen was a member of the American Legion Post 147 in Northville.

In addition to his wife, Joyce, he is survived by his grown children, Herbert Bay of California, Brenda (Bunni) Cottier of Livonia, and Keith of Plymouth Township; brothers, Warren Allen of Florida, Wilburn Allen of Florida, Charles Allen of Florida and Paul Allen of Michigan; sister, Arline Bellafouille of Tennessee and Ruth Wais of Florida. Funeral services were at 11 a.m. Monday at Schreider Funeral Home in downtown Plymouth. Burial was at Riverside Cemetery in Plymouth.

Memorials may be sent to the American Heart Association of Michigan or the American Diabetes Association.

DEALING WITH TOOTH SENSITIVITY

Anyone who experiences pain when drinking hot or cold liquids is likely suffering from sensitive teeth. This discomfort usually arises when the tooth's outer layer of enamel erodes to the point where the underlying dentin is exposed. Channels or tubules in the dentin then enable hot and cold foods and liquids to stimulate the nerve. While tooth sensitivity can be calmed with such desensitizing products as special toothpastes, the best course of action is a preventive one. If gum erosion, malocclusion, or grinding of the teeth are at the root of the problem, they should be addressed. The use of fluoridated toothpastes and mouthwashes is also helpful.

Meringue won't weep if you cook pie filling

Bonnie Malinga of Garden City has problems with her cream pies. They become syrupy, and her meringue pies constantly "weep."

Cream pies become syrupy when the cornstarch is overcooked, or over beaten, or when there is too high a proportion of sugar in a recipe. For better success with cream pies, use only the amount of sugar called for, and dissolve cornstarch in a cold liquid called for in the recipe before adding it to the filling mixture. For best results, I recommend cooking the pie filling in a double boiler or very heavy saucepan to prevent over cooking. Liquid accumulates between meringue and a pie filling when the meringue does not reach a high enough temperature during baking to "set" the layer of meringue directly above the filling. Make sure the pie filling is very warm when the meringue is put on top, use the freshest egg whites, and a pinch of cream of tartar. Most importantly, make sure the meringue covers the pie to the crust to make a good "seal."

■ Mary Lou Fitzgerald of Westland wants a recipe for Fattoush salad. Fattoush is a Middle Eastern bread salad. Make the base in advance so that the flavors have a chance to mingle. Toss in the toasted pita bread and tomatoes just before serving.

FATTOUSH SALAD

1 small green pepper
1/2 cucumber, peeled, halved, seeded and diced
1 cup chopped scallions
3/4 cup parsley, chopped
1/4 cup mint leaves, chopped
1 cup arugula leaves
1 cup purslane, chopped
2 cloves garlic, crushed
1/4 cup fresh lemon juice
1/3 cup olive oil
1 1/2 teaspoons ground sumac
Salt and fresh ground black pepper to taste
3 medium ripe tomatoes, peeled, seeded and chopped
2 large pitas, split, toasted and broken into pieces

In a large salad bowl, combine the pepper, cucumber, scallions, parsley, mint, arugula and purslane. In a small bowl, combine the garlic, lemon juice, olive oil, sumac, salt and pepper. Toss with the ingredients in the salad bowl, cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate for up to 3 hours.

Ten minutes before serving, add the tomatoes and the pita. Toss to coat. Season with additional salt and pepper. You can substitute romaine lettuce for arugula and purslane.

Recipe from: "The Cooking of the Eastern Mediterranean" by Paula Wolfert.

■ Speaking of arugula, when was the last time you ventured out to the Ann Arbor Farmer's Market on Saturday morning? Exotic foodies will go crazy over their assortment of organic greens including arugula, frisee, and edible blossoms.

If you can find the Amtrack train station on Plymouth Road, you're just two blocks away from the Ann Arbor market. While you're there, join the masses who profess Zingerman's to be "The Best Deli in the Midwest," and I couldn't agree more! Try the no. 13 - Sherman's Sure Choice for a corned beef sandwich you'll never forget!

■ Jim Mandelson of Troy really enjoys strawberry pie, but can't stand the sickening sweet red gunk from preprocessed cartons. It took a lot of searching Jim, but here's a recipe from momma's files. She claims it's close to Big Boy's topping.

STRAWBERRY PIE TOPPING

1 small box (3 ounces) strawberry Jell-O
1 cup boiling water
1/2 cup strawberry jam
1/2 cup cold water
4 tablespoons cornstarch

Dissolve strawberry gelatin into 1 cup boiling water. Stir over low heat for 1 minute. Stir in strawberry jam. In a small jar with a lid, place 1/2 cup cold water and cornstarch. Shake until dissolved. Whisk into simmering strawberry filling. Whisk until mixture is thick and clear, about 4-5 minutes. Chill.

To make into a pie: spoon 1/3 of this mixture into a prebaked and cooled pie shell. Fill shell with fresh strawberries and top with remaining topping. Chill several hours or overnight.

Gourmet products: Sam and Victoria Sommer display Victoria's Gourmet Apple Sauce and syrups, made without preservatives.

Fruity syrups in a jar

Taking the lid off sweet success

BY CHEF LARRY JANES • SPECIAL WRITER

For the past 15 years, Virginia Sommer's friends and relatives have been telling her that her chunky applesauce and apple syrup was just too good to be true. "Bottle it!" they said. Year after year, Sommer, who lives in Oak Park, would "put up" a few jars, and give them away as gifts to friends and relatives.

Then in December, 1994, she and Sam, her husband of 14 years, decided that everything friends and relatives were saying about Virginia's sauce and syrup was true and they were in the gourmet food manufacturing business.

Virginia Sommer is CEO, owner, chief cook, bottler, washer, label maker, purchasing agent, recipe tester, taster and spokesperson, just to mention a few titles, of V. Victoria's, Inc. Gourmet Syrups and Apple Products.

If you want to know how it's done folks, Virginia and hubby

Sam pick the raspberries and blueberries, cook syrups, prepare bottles, fill jars, label everything, box it and then take it around town doing all their own marketing. The product is made in the spotless kitchens of Mucky Duck Mustards in Sylvan Lake under the auspices of mom and pop Sommer's starched aprons, stainless steel spoons and commercial cookware.

"We do it all because we want to make the best tasting, freshest, purest product money can buy without preservatives or anything artificial," said Sommer, who had just returned from a product demonstration at Rocky Peanut Company in the Eastern Market area of Detroit.

V. Victoria's Gourmet Syrups, available in apple, apple raspberry and apple blueberry are, to commercial syrup what Ben and Jerry's is to ice cream.

I bought a three pack recently at the Merchant of Vino in Birmingham and thought they were great on pancakes, waffles and French toast.

Then I talked with Sommer who informed me that the syrups make great glazes for pork, chicken, turkey and duck, not to mention as a topping for ice cream.

In addition to the Merchant of Vino, V. Victoria's is also available at Papa Joe's in Rochester, Nine Springs' Sunflower Hill in Farmington Hills, Westboro Markets and even Frankenmuth.

Suggested retail is about $5.50 per jar, but trust me folks, it's worth every penny. Sommer's Gourmet Chunky Applesauce is reminiscent of homemade, rich tasting applesauce, perfectly mixed. It was like eating an apple pie from a jar. And should you enjoy the chunky applesauce as a natural substitute in a muffin or quick bread recipe in place of half the recommended oil, and you'll think you've died and gone to heaven.

To date, Sommer has manufactured about 1,600 jars of her homemade product. Total start up costs hovered around $7,000, and although she's not seeing any profits yet, Sommer is confident that once folks try her gourmet syrups and sauces, they'll be hooked.

"Sure, the profit is a motivating factor," said Sommer, "but where else can you work along side your best friend (husband Sam) and make what you know is the best tasting product around?"

You might also find Sommer's product in some gift baskets making their way around northern Michigan, especially in the Traverse City area.

"And the syrups and apple sauce make perfect hostess and shower gifts," said Sommer, "especially when coupled with a favorite recipe and ingredients for homemade pancakes or waffles."

One thing for sure, Sommer's marketing skills are as sweet as her syrups.

Trip to Jamaica inspires spicy chicken

SPECIAL WRITER

The only thing Lynn Fortin's home is missing is a banging screen door. She already has eight kids, a dog, two cats, two lizards, and a python named Jazz. "We had a hamster, but he recently passed on," she said.

To say the least, the Fortin household of Canton is a busy one. Especially in the summer. That's when her four youngest children, ages 10-13, play endless tag between the pool and the kitchen. That's also when her four oldest, ages 22 to 28, drop by with their own children hoping something good is cooking on the grill.

Family favorite:
Lynn Fortin, surrounded by her large family, holds a platter of Jerk Chicken, a family favorite, especially in the summer.

"Most of the time we do eat outside," said Lynn. "With the pool, lots of times the older kids will just come over for dinner, and they will bring a dish to pass. We do a lot of that."

Served outside or inside, dinner is usually casual and vocal. "It's always loud. We're a loud family," said daughter, Jenny, 13. And, as in most true-to-life large families, dinner is not always the result of community effort.

Lynn describes her husband, Gary, a millwright leader at Ford's Livonia transmission plant, as a "drive-through" guy whose culinary expertise peaks at grilled cheese. As for Jenny, Justin, Josh and Jared, their cooperation "depends on what they have in mind for their cash flow for the weekend."

Lynn, who teaches prenatal, childbirth and newborn care classes at Garden City Hospital, is an efficient shopper, hunting down sales and limiting trips to the grocery store to no more than once a week. She plans a family meal at least five times a week, but occasionally takes shortcuts. "Once a week we usually do have pizza on one of the nights I'm working," she said.

Her Jerk Chicken recipe resulted from a dream vacation to Jamaica over Easter. "It was a trip after 29 years of never leaving the children other than a trip to go have a child," she said laughing. "We were in a very remote part of Jamaica, so the recipes we got were kind of hard to decipher. They said a pinch of this, a pinch of that. That's why I purchased a cookbook, and the cooks helped me. We were in a private villa."

Lynn has since made the spicy chicken dish three times. It has become a family favorite, especially with 10-year-old Jared. "It tastes good when it's spicy," he said. Jared also said his mom is considerate of those with more timid taste buds. "It isn't that spicy when we have nieces and nephews over."

Jenny also has made the Jerk Chicken, although she admits her results were far different than her mom's. At 11 p.m. one night a few weeks ago, she was faced with some hungry younger brothers. She had lost the pizza money. She removed some frozen chicken breasts from the freezer and covered them with tenderizer, believing that would help them thaw.

The sauce was great, but the chicken didn't turn out too good," she said. She may try making Jerk Chicken again. Or she may just keep better track of the pizza money.

Ship out to sea with fixings for sailboat sailor's scampi

See Larry Jones' Taste Buds column on Taste front
■ Marcy and Dave Darwin of West Bloomfield are searching for recipes that can be easily packed with "just the basics" for cooking on their sailboat.

Keep the shrimp frozen, and it will act like an ice block in the cooler. For a thicker sauce, dredge the defrosted shrimps with a little flour before sauteing!

SAILOR'S SCAMPI

3 tablespoons butter or margarine

2 tablespoons olive oil

4 cloves garlic, chopped

Salt and fresh ground pepper to taste

1 pound large shrimp, shelled and cleaned

Juice of 1 fresh lemon or 4 tablespoons juice

1/4 cup fresh parsley (optional)

Melt butter and oil in a skillet until hot. Add garlic and shrimps and cook until shrimps are opaque and nicely firm and pink, about 3-5 minutes. Add lemon juice and parsley, toss to coat. Season with salt and pepper. Serves 2-3. Great chilled as an appetizer too!

■ If you've got basil growing in your yard, here's a recipe to use it up before it bolts and gets bitter.

BASIL PESTO

1 1/2 cups fresh basil leaves

2 cloves garlic

1/4 cup pine nuts

1/4 cup fresh grated Parmesan cheese

1/4 cup olive oil

Place basil, garlic and pine nuts in a blender or food processor and process until smooth. Add Parmesan cheese and olive oil and process until smooth. Add Par-mean cheese, and with machine running, slowly drizzle in olive oil until the consistency of soft butter is reached.

Pour over fresh pasta, baked potatoes or stirred into gazpacho for a great taste. Makes about 2 1/4 cups pesto.

■ Low fat pesto lovers? Why should we suffer? Try this!

NON-FAT PESTO

1/2 cup fresh basil leaves

2 tablespoons non-fat cream cheese

2 tablespoons non-fat sour cream

1 medium clove garlic, crushed

Salt and fresh ground black pepper to taste

Combine all ingredients in a blender or food processor and process until smooth. Makes about 1/2 cup.

MAPLE APPLE WALNUT CRUNCH PIE

1/2 cup (packed) light brown sugar

1/4 pound (1 stick) unsalted butter, melted

1/4 cup oatmeal, not quick cooling)

 1/2 cup pure maple syrup
 2 large eggs, lightly beaten
 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
 4 cups peeled and grated apples (about 7)
 1/4 cup whipping cream
 1 unbaked 10-12 inch pie crust
 1 1/2 cups walnuts, coarsely chopped

Position an oven rack in the middle of the oven. Preheat oven to 425 degrees F. Place the brown sugar, melted butter, oatmeal, syrup, eggs, vanilla, grated apples and cream in a large bowl. Stir until well combined. Pour the filling into a frozen unbaked pie shell. Sprinkle walnuts over the top. Bake for 10 minutes. Reduce the heat to 350 degrees F. and continue baking 30-35 minutes more or until the pie looks puffy. Cool thoroughly to room temperature. Serves 8. To freeze: place plastic wrap tightly onto the cooled pie and then wrap gently with foil. Can be frozen for up to one month. Defrost the pie at room temperature. Unwrap and heat in a preheated oven set at 250 degrees F. for about 15 minutes. Pie is best if served warm. Serves 8.

■ On the other end of town, lovers of Mexican town will surely enjoy the Mercado beginning this Sunday and lasting every Sunday through Labor Day. Mexican food, crafts, dance and much more. Taco lovers alert: try the new "tacolateria" right next door to the Xochimilco gift shop on Bagley. They serve authentic tacos the way they're supposed to be served, not deep fat fried. For more information on the Mercado, and for the name of this new tacolateria, call (313) 842-0986.

Jerk Chicken Fortin is this family's favorite

See related story on Taste front.

Lynn Fortin's Jerk Chicken

10 boneless chicken breast halves (5 whole)

2 tablespoons finely chopped hot peppers (any kind)

1 tablespoon ground allspice

1/2 teaspoon freshly grated nutmeg

1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

1/2 teaspoon garlic salt

1/2-1 teaspoon coarsely ground pepper

1 Tablespoon minced garlic

1/4 cup chopped scallions (green onions)

2 sprigs thyme

1/2 cup oil

3/4 cup crushed, dry pimento leaves (optional)

1 cup water

Mix all ingredients except chicken in large plastic bowl with cover. Add chicken breasts, cover and invert several times to coat chicken well.

Refrigerate 6 to 10 hours. Remove breasts and arrange in large lasagna-type pan. Cover with marinade and bake approximately 1 to 1 1/2 hours at 400 degrees, turning once.

BEANS AND RICE

1/4 cup uncooked regular rice
1/2 cup water
1 can (1 1/2 ounces) Mexican-style stewed tomatoes
1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
1 teaspoon chili powder
1/4 teaspoon cumin (optional)
1 can (14 ounces) kidney or pinto beans

Combine all ingredients except beans in a medium saucepan. Bring to a boil, stirring frequently. Reduce heat, cover and simmer 20 to 25 minutes or until rice is tender and liquid is absorbed.

Turn off heat and add beans. Mix carefully and cover to allow beans to absorb heat.

Sirloin salad with cherries matches summer appetite

It's summertime and the cooking is easy. At least it can be, with the help of a delicious prize-winning beef recipe that is ideal for summer dining.

Sirloin Salad with Dried Cherries is an appealing blend of sliced beef sirloin steak, blue cheese, dried cherries, salad greens and pine nuts created by Cynthia Hodge of Ann Arbor.

The recipe is one of 15 finalists in the 1995 National Beef Cook-Off. It took top honors in the Michigan Beef Cook-Off before advancing to the national competition and a chance to win $25,000.

Sirloin Salad with Dried Cherries is based on a "Martha's Vineyard" salad Hodge enjoys, which includes greens, pine nuts and blue cheese. By adding beef — a great taste combination with blue cheese — Hodge expanded the concept into an entree salad with a distinctive Michigan flair.

Sirloin Salad with Dried Cherries takes just 40 minutes to prepare. Beef top sirloin is a great cut to stir-fry. Cut into thin strips and toss with a seasoned dressing, the beef gains full flavor with just a short marinating time. Once stir-fried, the beef strips make a delicious salad topping and an ideal entree.

The next National Beef Cook-Off will take place in 1997 in Tampa, Fla. For rules, write to National Beef Cook-Off Entry Information, 444 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill., 60611.

Here's Hodge's winning recipe.

SIRLOIN SALAD WITH DRIED CHERRIES

Total preparation and cooking time: 30 minutes
Marinating time: — 30 minutes

1 boneless beef top sirloin steak, cut 1-inch thick (approximately 1 1/4 pounds)

4 small or 2 medium heads Boston lettuce, torn (approximately 8 cups)

1/2 cup crumbled blue cheese

1/2 cup dried cherries

1/2 cup pine nuts or coarsely chopped walnuts, toasted

Dressing:

1/2 cup olive oil

1/4 cup red wine vinegar

2 teaspoons minced garlic

1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper

In medium bowl, whisk together dressing ingredients. Remove and reserve 1/4 cup; cover and refrigerate.

Trim fat from beef steak. Cut steak lengthwise in half and then crosswise into 1/4-inch thick strips. Add beef to remaining dressing; toss to coat. Cover and marinate in refrigerator 30 minutes.

Remove beef from marinade; discard marinade. Heat large non-stick skillet over medium high heat until hot. Add beef (1/4 at a time) and stir-fry 1 to 2 minutes or until outside surface is no longer pink. (Do not overcook.)

Remove from skillet with slotted spoon.

In large bowl, combine lettuce and reserved dressing; toss to coat. Place on 4 individual plates. Arrange beef over lettuce; sprinkle with cheese, cherries and nuts. Serve immediately. Makes 4 servings (serving size: 2 cups).

Cook's tip: To toast pine nuts or chopped walnuts, heat oven to 350 degrees F. Arrange nuts in even layer on baking pan, bake 7 to 8 minutes or until lightly browned, stirring occasionally.

Using V. Victoria's syrup gourmet delight

See related story on Taste front. From the kitchen of V. Victoria herself, here's Sommer's favorite way to use her Apple Raspberry Gourmet Syrup.

RASPBERRY GLAZED CHICKEN BREASTS

6 chicken breasts
1/2 cup apple juice

1/2 cup V. Victoria's apple raspberry syrup

2 teaspoons butter or margarine

1/4 cup almonds, slivered

Marinade chicken in apple juice for 2 hours. Spray a glass oven-proof casserole dish with non-stick cooking spray.

Drain chicken from marinade and place in prepared dish. Bake at 350 degrees, uncovered for 40 minutes.

Cook chicken an additional 10 minutes, basting with V. Victoria's Apple Raspberry syrup. While chicken is cooking, heat butter or margarine in a heavy skillet and add almonds. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until almonds are golden, about 5 minutes. Sprinkle chicken with toasted almonds. Heat additional raspberry syrup and pass with chicken. Serves 4-6.

SPORTS
SCENE

Vardar III advances

West Palm Beach, Fla., is the next destination for the Vardar III Soccer Club, which recently captured the U.S. Youth Soccer Association under-18 boys regional championship.

Livonia Stevenson's Nick Derez tallied the game-winner with 12 minutes left to give Vardar III a 2-1 victory over Scott Gallagher of Missouri in the championship final held June 30 in Blaine, Minn.

Vardar III, which travels later this month (July 25-30) to Florida, won the under-16 crown two years ago in Phoenix, Ariz.

Farmington's Justin Marshall of Beverly Hills-Detroit Country Day High School was voted regional MVP.

Other Observerland players include Jeff Babin-ski (Livonia/Country Day), Scott Buczak (Plymouth Salem), Jeff Fliss (Plymouth Canton), Graham Wilk (Canton), Brian Collier (Redford Catholic Central), Mike Kley (Salem), Brandon Moggio (Country Day), Jeremy Harkins (Country Day) and Matt Wait (Troy).

Rounding out the squad are Steve Corder and Dan Savich, both of St. Clair Shores; Joe DiMaggio, Washington; Dave Stankovich, Harrison Township; and Steve Tramontini, Ann Arbor. The team is coached by Mike Lupenc.

Crusader spikers 10th

The Crusader Juniors, made up primarily of area players, finished 10th out of 44 teams in the AAU National girls volleyball championships held June 24-27 at Forest Park Community College in St. Louis, Mo.

Coached by Brian McClain and Kelly McCausland, the Crusaders made the round of 16 after finishing second and first, respectively, in preliminary pool play.

In the elimination round pool play, the Crusader Juniors went 1-2, losing to the Kentucky Juniors (15-13, 15-13) and Borderline of Michigan, made up primarily of Temperance Bedford High players (10-15, 15-13, 15-12). They defeated the Capitol Juniors of Lansing (15-5, 14-16, 15-12).

In the consolation round for places 9-12, the Crusaders beat the Arkansas Juniors (12-15, 15-5, 16-14) and before losing the Blue Division final (third place teams) to Tri-County of Cincinnati (15-13, 15-10).

Members of the Crusaders included Erin Gre-goire (Madonna University), Jaclyn Deane (Livonia Franklin/headed for Madonna); Jen Monaghan (Livonia Stevenson/headed for Indiana); Shellye Sills and Karen Springsteen (both seniors-to-be at Plymouth Salem); Emily Gibson (Dearborn Divine Child), Ursula Place and Michelle Mott (both juniors at Novi); and Katie Wright (Woodhaven/headed for Youngstown State).

Panthers tie for 1st

The Plymouth Panthers, an under-10 boys soccer team, tied for WSSL division championship by finishing their season with a 7-1-0 record.

Soccer ambassador

On Wednesday, Brian Gavronski of Canton will embark on the trip of his young lifetime: He'll leave the U.S. for Germany and Denmark, to compete with the East-West Ambassadors, a nonprofit youth organization that specializes in player training and development.

As part of the Ambassadors, Gavronski will compete with nearly 900 other teams from 50 countries for Germany's Gothic Cup. After that it's on to Denmark and the Dana Cup, which will feature 750 teams from 40 countries.

Further information regarding the East-West Ambassadors, an organization located in Sarasota, Fla., may be obtained by calling (941) 954-5426.

Golf for cerebral palsy

The Golden Fox golf course in Plymouth will be the site for the fifth annual United Cerebral Palsy of Metropolitan Detroit Golf Outing Friday, July 28, starting at 1 p.m.

The entry fee of $100 entitles participants to a round of golf with the use of a cart, and dinner. Door prizes will be available. WJBK-TV2 anchor Mike Redford will serve as master of ceremonies for the dinner.

The golf tournament will be a scramble event, with the 12th hole featuring a hole-in-one contest. Anyone lucky enough to score a hole-in-one on that hole will win a 1995 Pontiac Grand Prix from Rinks Pontiac-GMC. Also, corporate hole sponsorships and benefactor hole sponsorships are available.

Proceeds will benefit United Cerebral Palsy of Metropolitan Detroit, which helps advance the independence of people with disabilities in a variety of ways.

For more information, call the UCP of Detroit at (313) 557-5070.

Anyone interested in submitting items to Sports Scene may send them to sports editor C.J. Reed, 20211 Southfield, Livonia, Mich. 48178, or may call him at (313) 557-5270.

Falcons flatten Wolves in a battle for 1st

HOCKEY

Something was missing. The stage was set: The only two unbeaten teams in the Metro Summer Hockey League through the first 10 days of the season, meeting to determine who would emerge as No. 1.

A tight, down-to-the-wire battle should have been expected. But it never materialized.

Instead, the game turned into a lopsided affair by the late stages of the second period. It was in the final five minutes of the second that the Falcons scored two goals, doubling what had been a two-goal lead; the Wolverines never got closer than four after that, losing for the first time this season, 9-3 Thursday at Plymouth Ice Arena.

The win leaves the Falcons atop the MSHL at 4-0. The Wolverines are 3-1, trailing the Falcons in the Eagle Conference standings. The Wildcats lead the Bakes Conference, also at 3-1.

Leading the Falcons were Darren Hands, who scored twice and assisted on another, and Paul Schloss (from Livonia), who netted two goals. Jesse Hubenachmidt (Redford) contributed a goal and three assists, Tony Guzzo (Plymouth) added a goal and two assists, and Michael Keough scored one and assisted on another.

Stolen run: Josh Reeber of Decision Consultants slides in safely before Michigan Honig's Andy Hood can apply the tag. Reeber stole home while Honig had a Decision Consultant runner trapped in a rundown off first base.

Staying ahead

An early deficit can't wreck Hines Park

The race for first in the Livonia Collegiate Baseball League is still ruled by Hines Park after Wednesday's win over Caesars, but Decision Consultants is keeping pace and isn't far behind.

Livonia Collegiate Baseball League teams are having a hard time defeating Tom Wakefield again when they're spotted early leads.

Livonia Little Caesars jumped to a 4-0 lead in the first inning Wednesday, only to watch Hines Park Lincoln Mercury score six unanswered runs in a 6-5 victory at Livonia's Ford Field.

Wakefield moved to 5-0 on the mound and Hines Park improved its league-leading record to 12-3. Wakefield allowed five hits, three in the first inning, and walked four in pitching the distance. He also struck out four.

"Tommy wasn't on, that was the worst game I've seen him pitch," Hines Park assistant coach Gary Pierce said. "But the guys wouldn't give up, stayed with it, and got the win."

Caesars' four-run first started when Kevin Foley reached base on a Hines Park error. Mike Fensel singled, and Chris Champanis knocked the first run in with a single. Following a walk to Dan Taylor (Madonna), Dennis Madden (Livo-nia Franklin) delivered a two-run single.

But Hines Park scored two runs in the third and three in the fourth to go ahead for good.

Jeff Lance's (Redford-Thurston-Henry Ford College) double and a two-run home run by Derek Besco (Westland-John Glenn/University of Michigan) cut the deficit to 4-2.

The win put Decision at 12-5 overall. Hines Park (12-3) is considered the first-place team, but it has Juan Sanchez (Redford-Catholic Central/University of Detroit) and Dave Kapla (Redford Catholic Central/Michigan State) started the fourth with singles. Sanchez came home on Brian Kalczynski's (Birmingham Brother Rice/Henry Ford) single and Lance contributed a double to drive in two runs for a 5-4 lead.

E.J. Howell was hit by a pitch, stole second base and came home on Kalczynski's double to make the score 6-4 in the sixth.

Caesars scored a run in the seventh on consecutive singles and a fielder's choice, but it wasn't enough.

Lance and Kalczynski led Hines Park with two hits each.

DECISION 4, HONIGS 3: Decision Consultants Inc. won its fourth game in its last five outings with Wednesday's victory over Michigan Honig's at Ford Field.

The win put Decision at 12-5 overall. Hines Park (12-3) is considered the first-place team, but it has played two fewer games because of rainouts.

Joel Hillebrand (Henry Ford College) earned the pitching victory, allowing two runs on three hits, four walks with four strikeouts in five innings.

Mike Borowski (Eastern Michigan) pitched the final two innings, allowing one run on three hits and two strikeouts. He walked one.

Decision batters gave Hillebrand a 6-0 lead after three innings.

Aaron Jones (Madonna) was 2-for-3 with a double and two RBIs.

Don Dedonatis was 2-4 with an RBI. Greg Kiempisty hit into a double play in the third, but drove in a run. Craig Peterson (Madonna), who had tripled, scored on Kiempisty's ground ball after Brian Hicks (Garden City/Redford CC/Toledo) walked.

Decision has added Luke Bonner to the roster. Bonner, who will attend U-M on a baseball scholarship, became available after quitting the Livonia Concealed Security team.

Volpe, Trott guide Finesse to 2nd

SOFTBALL

Finesse, a girls 16-and-under slow-pitch softball team, earned a runner-up finish in the Smokey Baker 18-team National Invitational Tournament, July 1-3 in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Finesse won four of six games to run its overall summer record to 19-7. Its only losses came against the eventual winner, the Boyd Chiro Kool Katz, 3-2 and 10-8 (in the championship game).

Victories came against the Taylor Mill (Ky.) Tradewind Vans, 9-2; Beechmont (Ky.), 9-4; Milford (Ohio) Eastside Stingers, 9-8; and the Louisville (Ky.) Hit 'N' Misses, 6-3.

Stephanie Volpe (Plymouth Salem) led Finesse with a .521 batting average. She also had a team-leading 11 RBI and 12 hits.

Jennifer Trott (Salem) added 10 hits and batted .326. Pitcher Kristen Zabalaevius and Kristy McDonald (Redford Thurston) each added six innings split a doubleheader Thursday in the Incredible Girls Fast-Pitch Softball League.

Pitcher Alicia December struck out 11 and scattered eight hits over seven innings as Livonia took the opener, 11-4.

Angela Peckham, Shannon Misak and December each collected two hits to pace the Knights' offense. Danielle Sockolsky, Stephanie Nelson and December each knocked in two runs. Reagan Tisher added a triple.

Stephanie Volpe, Steeck and Maresca led the Lightning with two hits apiece.

In the nightcap, Jennifer Trott scored four runs to lead the Lightning to a 12-5 victory in five innings. Volpe was the winning pitcher.

The Knights made six errors in the first three innings.

Jessie Jenkins knocked in three runs in a losing cause, while Misak added two.

In another Incredible League game Thursday at Franklin High School, the Livonia Lasers dropped a pair to the Farmington Fantastics, 6-2 and 9-8.

Pitcher Lori Jendrusik took the loss in the opener, while Alana Heikkilä (10 strikeouts in five innings) was the winner for Farmington.

Jendrusik and Melissa Thompson each collected a pair of hits for the Lasers.

Despite scoring seven runs in the fourth inning, the Lasers lost by a run in the nightcap. The game was stopped because of the one hour, 20-minute time limit.

Randi Weis collected two hits for the Lasers (0-4), while Mary Priels, Kerry Sanchez, Jendrusik and Kim Rowland each added one hit and one run apiece.

Heikkilä, who scattered eight hits, was again the winning pitcher.

Jendrusik took the loss.

Former Pat set for European all-star trip

BY BRAD EMMONS
STAFF WRITER

The summer is usually time to kick back and relax, but not for Dawn Warner.

The former All State basketball player from Livonia Franklin and starting point guard for Western Kentucky University is gearing up for a trip with a group of U.S. college all stars who will play against European pro teams in a series of exhibition games set for Aug. 15-26 in Belgium.

"I'm glad to have this opportunity," said Warner, who as a junior helped lead the Lady Toppers to a 24-4 overall record and a ride to the NCAA's Sweet 16. "I'm going to find out if I can handle the environment over there. I'll also find out about the competition level, the way they treat Americans and try out the living conditions."

Warner, who averaged 10 points and close to five assists per game last season, will be traveling with the People to People Sports Committee, which is sponsoring the trip.

The select team is coached by Joanne Palombo of the University of Maine. Players from NCAA champ Connecticut and runner-up Tennessee are also scheduled to participate.

Warner has to raise nearly $2,800 to make the trip, but she believes the effort is well worth the cost.

"It's going give me good recognition," Warner said. "In the back of my mind I have to find out if I want to spend a couple of years over there and continue to play, or get right into coaching and become a graduate assistant."

Warner has spent the summer in Bowling Green, and the schedule has been hectic.

She attends morning classes, works in the pro shop of a local country club and spends many late afternoons doing conditioning, which includes shooting, running, biking and lifting weights. She also gets in an occasional game against the men.

"I want to go out in style my senior year," said Warner, who is the lone returning starter for the Lady Toppers. "I don't want to regret anything, but more importantly I want to have fun."

"My shot has improved and I've improved my range. Strength-wise I'm just a lot better. Staying here this summer has done wonders for me."

Warner will start at the point next year, but could also see action at the No. 2 guard slot. Lauren Townsend, who played last year as a freshman, will make up the two-guard tandem.

As a junior, Warner blossomed as a starter and has become an all-around player.

She hit the game-winning shot with five seconds left to beat highly touted Louisiana Tech on the Lady Techters' home floor in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship game.

"That has got to be a highlight to beat a team like La Tech on their home floor," Warner said. "It was a thrill for the whole team, just not me."

"The first time we beat them badly on our home floor before 9,000 (fans at Diddle Arena), and then they turned around and beat us soundly the second time down there."

"Winning that tournament (playoff) game was special for everyone."

Warner, who holds all the Franklin scoring records and was

No. 2 in the 1991 Michigan Miss Basketball voting, will get a chance to play before family and friends this season when the Lady Toppers travel Tuesday, Dec. 19 to play at Michigan State.

"My coach (Paul Sanderford) had promised me since I've been here that we would play in my home state, and I'm excited about it," she said. "A lot of people said they're going to come."

But first there's Belgium for Warner, who is still accepting donations, which are tax deductible.

Canton's Super Bowl to host major event this fall

TEM-PIN ALLEY

AL HARRISON

Local bowlers and enthusiasts are in for a rare treat this fall.

It will be a rare "double dip" as the men's and women's pro tours will be stopping in our area during October.

First, the Greater Detroit Open, a Pro-Am stated Bowlers' Men's Tour event, will start with the Pro Am on Friday Saturday, Oct. 6-7 at Taylor Lanes, followed by the qualifying rounds, match play eliminations and the TV final set to be televised live on ESPN, Wednesday Oct. 11.

The Pro-Am at Taylor Lanes has always been one of the more popular events, as many bowlers take advantage of the ball given away for all entrants.

This year the Red Zone ball by Brunswick is the prize. The retail value is actually worth more than the entry fee.

As for the men's tournament itself, we can look forward to seeing all the bowling greats in competition, including the likes of Walter Ray Williams, Amleto Monacelli, Dave Husted (this year's U.S. Open champion) and Mike Aubly.

Local pros expected to compete include John Mazza, Harry Sulins, Gene Stus and Bob Chamberlain.

Two years ago, Observerland bowler Doug Spicer of West Bloomfield made it to the top 24 for match-play.

Troy Stus of Garden City will also give it his best shot, while PBA member Mike Samardzija of Farmington Hills will drop down from the Seniors Tour to give it a try.

For more information on the Greater Detroit Open, call Taylor Lanes at (313) 946-9092.

The Ladies Tour will come to Canton's Super Bowl beginning Sunday, Oct. 29, with the Pro-Am.

The Pro-Am entry fee is $60, but no free ball included in this one. A nice package, however, will be given to entrants including a souvenir jacket.

The Pro-Am, open to all league bowlers, men or women, is a nine-pin no-tap event with a $1,000 first-place guarantee.

Qualifying rounds, match-play and the TV finals will follow.

Look for all the top names in the Ladies Professional Bowlers Tour to be on hand for this tournament.

The local favorite, Aleta Sill, will be joined by Anne Marie Duggan, Tish Johnson, Cheryl Daniels, Leanne Barrette. Several others can take advantage of staying home and still going out on the LPBT including local All-Stars Tina Barber of Westland and Sam Greaves of Waterford.

For more information on the $70,000 Michigan Classic, call the Super Bowl at (313) 459-6070.

The Greater Detroit Bowling Association has sent notices to all league secretaries announcing the dates and locations of league officier schools.

The schools will take place on Monday, Aug. 14, at Thunderbowl Lanes, 4200 Allen Road, Allen Park (located Southfield and Outer Drive); Wednesday, Aug. 16, Troy Lanes, 1950 E. Square Lake Road, Troy; Thursday, Aug. 24, Friendly Sterling Lanes, 33200 Schoenherr, Sterling Heights (at 14 Mile Road).

At all three sessions, supplies will be available starting at 3 p.m. Sessions start at 6:30 p.m.

If you can't make it to any of these meetings, call the GDBA office at (810) 773-6350, and they will mail the supplies to you. The new yearbook will also be available.

It marks the final time for GDBA executive secretary Tom McKay, who will be retiring at year's end.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

VOLLEYBALL OFFICIALS

The Catholic Youth Organization will hold a volleyball officials training clinic Sunday, July 30, at St. Clare of Montefalco Gymnasium, 1401 Whittier Road, Grosse Pointe Park.

The first session for first year officials is from 9:15 a.m. with lunch to follow. The second session, for veteran and rookies, starts at 4 p.m.

For more information, call 313-363-9751.

REFEREES WANTED

Registered Michigan High School Athletic Association officials are wanted for Catholic Youth Organization fall football, soccer and volleyball. For more information, call Mary Hughes at (313) 963-9751.

CYO GOLF OUTING

The second annual Catholic Youth Organization of Metro Detroit golf outing and fund raiser will be Tuesday, Sept. 5, at Plum Hollow Golf and Country Club, 21631 Lahser, Southfield.

The cost is $195 for the day (includes 18 holes, reception/dinner, gifts and prizes). Joe Panian Chevrolet GEO of Southfield is donating a 1995 Chevy Blazer for a hole-in-one. The entry deadline is Aug. 21.

For more information, call Barbara Urbiel at (313) 963-9768.

OLDTIMERS HOCKEY

The Motor City POGS (Formerly Old Guys in Sports) will stage its sixth Oldtimers Hockey Tournament, Friday through Sunday, Sept. 8-10, at the Detroit Skating Club in Bloomfield Hills.

The tourney is open to eight men's teams 25-and-over and eight over-40.

Entries already include squads from Livonia, Ontario, Pontiac, Mount Clemens, Novi, Utica, Ann Arbor and Detroit.

The cost is $475 per team (entry deadline Aug. 1). The cost includes a three-game guarantee, prizes and refreshments. A $150 deposit is required.

For more information, call Ron Hingst at (313) 662-6544 or (313) 449-0934.

ROADRUNNER CLASSIC

The 12th annual Roadrunner Classic, featuring an 8-kilometer race through downtown Northville, will start at 6 p.m. Saturday, July 22.

The event also includes a 5K race/walk, one-mile general run/walk and Junior Classic (youngsters 12 and under).

More than 1,000 runners competed in last year's event, which includes a post-race party at the Northville Community Center.

For entry fee information and registration, call Running Fit of Northville at (810) 380-3338.

FIRECRACKER RUNNER-UP

The Livonia travel team in the Sandy Koufax (14-and-under) League represented the area well by finishing second in the Firecracker Tournament in Sterling Heights June 30-July 4. Thirty teams representing nine states and Canada took part.

Livonia reached the final before losing 9-1 to Steele's of Macomb. Prior to that setback, Livonia won six straight games, including a thrilling 7-6 victory over Columbus (Ohio) in the semifinals that required a three-run rally in the top of the seventh to post the win.

The 6-1 tourney run gave Livonia a 29-5 season record.

Four Livonia players were named to the all-tournament team. Derek Fox (of Farmington Hills), who hit .521 for the tourney, Roy Rabe (Livonia), who hit .500; Casey Rogowski (Livonia/Catholic Central), .478; and Mark Mink (Livonia), .400.

Livonia posted a 9-6 win over Tennessee Sausage and 11-7 over Southgate in single-elimination play. In round-robin action, Livonia beat Cincinnati 7-0; the Toronto Mariners 11-3; and the Detroit Titans 17-0.

CAR Report

Honda
Odyssey Shines
as Best Minivan
Available to U.S. Buyers

When General Motors came up with the automatic sliding third door on its "dustbuster" minivans, I thought that was it. Thanks to the remote control on the door, I thought I had finally found a minivan that, myself, would buy.

Aaagh.

Wrong.

Go into the corner. Hang your head. Low.

OK, now I've found the perfect minivan. Perfect. One I would buy. In a heartbeat.

It's the 1995 Honda Odyssey, and it has — tah-dah! — six cupholders.

This is Honda's first try at packaging a minivan for the American consumer and it's done its homework. The made-in-Japan Odyssey scores an "A" on its first report card.

It's got four car-like doors that swing out wide so you can get your toddler out. From your side of the car, that is. No more reaching over that other seat to pull the kid out with one arm. With them screaming, "Ow! Moooooom!"

It's just so convenient. I

Road Test
By Anne Fracassa

love the driver's-side passenger door.

I know, I'm gushing, and I hate test-drive columns that slobber all over the vehicle. But there's something here to gush about.

Because the door isn't all that makes this the perfect minivan for a family. It's low to the ground, so even grandma can get in without a fight, groan, moan or assist bar. It's got the lowest step-in height of any minivan on the market.

Interior packaging is superb.

Get this. There's a small glove box on the passenger side — just big enough for a couple of pairs of glasses and sunglasses and maybe a pair of gloves, of course. Under that is a larger storage box that can handle the Yellow Pages, your owner's manual, a couple of maps and two extra batteries for the obligatory car phone.

There's more.

Not only does it have side door pockets for miscellaneous juice boxes, toys and other miscellany, but also there's a fairly large storage container under the cupholder in front and another to the left of the steering column that can hold about 200 pennies. Not that you'd want 200 pennies in there. It's just that it can hold a lot, not just a couple of coins.

The front bucket seats are really comfy. My two toddlers loved the fact they could see out of the windows easily because the back buckets sit up high.

What I don't get is the third row of seats. It's impossible for anyone to get back there without a fight or a few scraped knees and elbows. And there isn't really enough cargo room in back of the seats with them up. We tried to get an infant's crib in the space and it just wouldn't fit.

But wait. A quick flick of the wrist and that back seat disappears into a well in the back, giving you ample cargo room to slip into a couple of subdivision garage sale events without a worry.

And even with the third seat in a passenger-carrying position, that well is ever-so-useful with the groceries. It's deep enough that it holds a couple weeks' worth of groceries, but still high enough that you won't worry about breaking your back to get them out.

The car-like ride is also classy, thanks to the 4-wheel double wishbone suspension. It's got dual airbags, 4-wheel anti-lock brakes, side impact beams that meet 1997 federal standards and 3-point seat belts at all outboard seating positions.

The only disappointment in this minivan is the power. It has none. The all-aluminum 2.2-liter 16-valve 4-cylinder engine produces only 140 horses. It's the same engine that's in the underpowered Accord. Step on the pedal and it takes a while to get up to speed. Although when it's done past the initial first and second gear shifts, you've got enough punch to still get you on the freeway without a worry.

I guess I've driven too many V-8s lately and I'm spoiled.

The engine is also mated to Honda's own Grade Logic Control for the second, third and fourth gears. What it does, simply, is automatically adjust the transmission shifts when you're going uphill or downhill for better mileage.

Both the LX and EX models are equipped with the same engine coupled with 4-speed automatic transmissions. The Odyssey is EPA'd at 20 in the city and 24 on the highway. Not bad. Not spectacular, either.

One more complaint. The styling ain't the best. Functional, however.

The LX 7-passenger version sells for $22,985. The LX 6-passenger is $23,395. The LX's standard equipment includes effort-sensitive power rack-and-pinion steering, an adjustable steering column, front and rear air conditioning, cruise control, power mirrors, power windows, power door and tailgate locks, intermittent windshield wipers, rear washer/wipers, rear defroster, AM/FM stereo cassette and a digital clock positioned high on the instrument panel.

For $24,995, the EX version adds 15-inch alloy wheels, power sunroof, a better stereo, power seat adjustments on the driver's side, remote entry, map lights and body-colored side molding.

If anybody asks, tell them the Odyssey isn't just nice.

No, it's just about perfect.
