Veteran commissioners bow out

Longtime city commissioners Robert Jones and Bill McAninch will end their public service after Tuesday's election. Four commissioners will be elected.

BY KEVIN BROWN
STAFF WRITER

It's the last city commission meeting tonight for commissioners Robert Jones and Bill McAninch.

After the election Tuesday, two new commissioners will take their places at the twice-monthly meetings at city hall. While both could have run for re-election, they chose not to.

Both were elected to the commission in November 1991. Jones had served a four-year term from 1985-89, and was appointed to the commission in March 1991 to fill a vacancy.

Jones, who also served as mayor, said he's pleased with the commission's work in the last four years.

"We've developed fiscal responsibility, we've kept our millage down, even reduced our millage," he said.

"We put together five-year plans and 10-year plans for major projects, that's one we finally got together, so the infrastructure (water and sewer lines) can get taken care of in a timely way. People normally forget about it until something blows up," Jones said.

"I think we've developed a credibility as a commission that we listened to the citizens," he said, adding individual commissioners "developed a rapport even though there are different ideologies."

McAninch agreed. "I keep feeling we worked well as a group, we argued and discussed and had open meetings and made some good things happen," he said.

"I think that Bob Jones set the standard and did some good things in his early tenure as mayor, he brought people into the city government who had been in an opposition mode and cut no one off who wanted to speak, no citizen has been stopped from talking as long as he wanted to talk," McAninch said.

Renaissance man savors life

BY KEVIN BROWN
STAFF WRITER

In his 81 years, do-it-yourselfer Steve Veresh has built his own house, become a violin maker, and has traveled to every state and overseas.

"I've just always had a curious mind," Veresh said. His range of experiences led people to remark, "You should write a book."

So he did.

Veresh's autobiography, "Up 'Till Now," tells the story of a man who moved from Detroit to Plymouth, survived hard times during the Depression, married and had two children, and retired from Ford Motor Co. at age 56.

"My life," said the vigorous grandfather, "didn't get really, really interesting until I retired."

In the living room of Veresh's Plymouth Township house are some of the six violins he's made, along with a guitar, cello and gypsy harp.

His first exposure to violin making came from his father, also a do-it-yourselfer. Then, after turning 70, "I kind of just remembered my dad made a new top for a violin my brother had sent home from Korea."

"I happened to find this book by Joseph Reed, 'How to Make Your Own Stradivarius,'" Verish said. He attended the John Campbell folk school in North Carolina, and met a violin maker who helped teach him the fine points of the craft.

"It's like a watch; every part is important as the next," Veresh said. All parts have to resonate, and the top and bottom must be made of graduated thickness, for notes to sound properly.

He also joined a group of violin crafters headquartered in Arizona.

Fiddling around: Veresh, who began building violins after reaching age 70, also takes violin lessons.

Voters to visit the polls

BY KEVIN BROWN

City of Plymouth voters go to the polls on Tuesday to elect four city commissioners.

Incumbent city commissioners Stella Greene and Dennis Shrewsbury join newcomers Craig Brass, Donald Dismuke and Joseph Koch in vying for the four available seats on the commission.

Also on the ballot is William Warren, a Plymouth Community Fire Department fire-fighter who has dropped out of the race after a circuit judge ruled he must quit his job to serve on the commission.

City Clerk Linda Langmesser predicts about 15 percent of the city's registered voters will turn out for the election, after a quiet election campaign marked by a lack of controversy among the candidates.

"I hope I'm wrong," Langmesser said. But by 2 p.m. Friday, just 419 of 583 absentee ballots taken out by voters had been returned, suggesting a light turnout, she said.

■ City Clerk Linda Langmesser predicts about 15 percent of the city's registered voters will turn out for the election, after a quiet election campaign marked by a lack of controversy among the candidates.

Voters in city precincts 1, 2 and 4 cast ballots at the Plymouth Cultural Center, 525 Farmer. Voters in Precinct 3 vote at Central Middle School, 650 Church St.

Polls are open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Voters can vote by emergency absentee ballot on Monday and Tuesday at city hall, if sufficient need is proven. Absentee ballots taken out but not yet turned in can be returned to Plymouth city hall by 8 p.m. Tuesday. Only city residents are eligible to vote in the election. Check your voter registration card if you're uncertain if you live in the city or the township.

The top three vote-getters will win four-year terms on the commission. The fourth finisher will win a two-year term.

The Plymouth city commission sets budget policy and city millage rates and oversees city departments including the city manager, police, the department of public works and parks and recreation.

Teen's experiences prompt call from 'Geraldo'

BY M.B. DILLON
STAFF WRITER

When Maureen McInerney responded to a "USA Weekend" survey, she never dreamed she'd see her comments published in an article in the national newspaper supplement.

Nor did the Plymouth Township resident suspect that the story would prompt a call from the "Geraldo" show. But it did. The Canton High School junior, along with her mother, Cheryl McInerney, were flown to New York recently for the taping of a talk show on teens and racism.

The segment will air locally at 9 a.m. Monday, Nov. 13, on Channel 2.

McInerney, 17, is quick to point out that she is not racist, nor was she on April 5, 1995, when she was beat up by a black teen outside Canton High School.

McInerney, who is white, said she was on her way to geometry lab after school when "I saw three girls coming down the steps in front of school. Intuition told me to move over. They were right in my path, so I moved over. Just as they got by me, one of the girls bumped into me. I asked, 'What did you do that for?' and she said, 'You were in my way.'

"They were swearing at me, and I knew I had to get out of there, so I started walking fast up the steps. The next think I knew, I was turned around by my tote bag, and the girl who originally bumped me, hit me. This girl was just beating on me and eight people just stood there and watched. Finally, my pompon coach and another girl came up.

"By that time, there was a car waiting for this girl. They ran back to the car and drove away. I just stood there bawling. She scratched my face with her nails. I was real dizzy; the girl had punched me in the head a couple times. I had all these bruises. I went inside and got cleaned up and asked the administrators, 'Do you think this has anything to do with my skin color?' They said no.

"One of the girls was a student who lives in Canton, but not allowed to go there because she causes too many problems," said McInerney. "The other two are from Inkster. I was just thinking, would they have beat up someone who was black? The answer that comes to my mind is probably no."

Record is set by Johnson Controls

Fiscal year 1996 was among the most successful ever for the Automotive Systems Group of Johnson Controls, Inc. of Plymouth Township.

The company achieved record sales of $3.6 billion, launched production of new complete seat sets for 18 vehicles, continued its market leadership in North America and Europe and added 13 manufacturing plants worldwide, the company reported.

The financial report for the Automotive Systems Group were among year-end results announced recently at Johnson Controls corporate headquarters in Milwaukee, Wis.

Vets' park

City officials will present the concept of a Plymouth Veterans Memorial Park to the public at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Plymouth Cultural Center, 525 Farmer.

Questions and comments will be sought from the audience on the plan, to move all city war memorials to a central location across from city hall.

Veterans say 'thanks'

Members of Beasley-Zalensy Post 112 of the American Legion say 'thanks' those who helped make the post's first year successful.

"During our first, the citizen-veteran Legionnaires worked very hard at trippling our membership since we first formed and being active in community and veteran oriented programs," said post Adjutant James F. Maas.

The post has scheduled an awards-honors program at 1 p.m. Nov. 12 at the Oddfellows Hall, 344 Elizabeth St. in Plymouth.

Thanksgiving service

A Pilgrim Thanksgiving Worship Service is scheduled for 7 p.m. Nov. 22 at Trinity Presbyterian Church, 10101 W. Ann Arbor Road.

It follows the traditions of early pilgrim services, including drumming to worship, the reading of the governor's proclamation, the singing of Psalm 100, the reading of the Mayflower Compact, and the turning of the hour glass so the pastor would know when to stop preaching.

Geraldo

Appearing on the "Geraldo" show with McInerney were teens including an avowed Ku Klux Klan member, a 15-year-old skinhead who said he hates anyone who isn't white, three black teens, and a white extremist. Another guest was a black man with dreadlocks in his early 20s, who after hearing McInerney's story said she must have learned her prejudice at home.

"He didn't know I was in the front row of the audience. So Geraldo interviewed me," said Cheryl McInerney, who told the young man he was wrong. "This guy made me really angry. I told him that we have black friends, and that they are more than welcome in my home. It never even crossed my mind when Maureen was attacked that it was black kids. I never knew it until we went to the police station," she said.

Several of the teens said Nicole Brown Simpson deserved to be murdered. "It's frightening to think that teens feel this way," said Cheryl McInerney, a cost analyst at Ford Motor.

Support

After she was beat up, "Maureen received a vast amount of support from black kids who are far above reproach. They're super kids," said her dad, John McInerney.

BILL BRESLER/STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

Keeping an open mind: Maureen McInerney was beat up at Canton High School in an apparently random attack by a black teen she'd never seen before. She says the incident has left her afraid, but not racist. "I just got out of a relationship with someone direct from Chile. I try to keep an open mind," she said.

"There seems to be, based on what's coming from the authorities, an attempt to defuse something as quickly as possible. I'm not sure it portrays things in an accurate vein.

"They wash the thing as being no different from any other school," he said. "But you obviously have a far bigger situation than any other school, because you don't hear this from other schools. The majority of people around there probably aren't racist. But this racist incident was far from an isolated thing."

Problem escalating

Cheryl McInerney said that at a Canton football game a few weeks ago, "They had helicopters flying overhead, and Canton police like we've never seen before. Word had gotten out that there was going to be a big fight between the skinheads and the wiggers, white kids who want to be black, or act black," she said. "They haven't dealt with these little problems, so now it's big."

The McInerneys say school officials kept them abreast of their investigation after the fight, but that Canton police "dropped the ball."

"The police went after it for about a week to keep my parents and me happy, but this girl is still out there. The police said they would go to her house and she wouldn't answer, so they didn't do anything. It makes me feel scared. These people shouldn't get away with this stuff," said Maureen McInerney, who hopes to work for the foreign service after college.

Canton police say there was insufficient evidence to charge the Canton teen. "Detective Jerry Hardesty was unable to determine the name of the suspect," said Canton community relations Officer Lewis Stevens. "There is a whole list of things he did. He went banging on doors. It's not that he didn't do anything on it."

Among the incidents that have occurred this year at Plymouth-Canton Educational Park was a fight involving Salem High School junior Victoria Cottrell. Cottrell, who is white, was jumped by five girls who wanted her black flight jacket. Several of them were black, Cottrell said. "To say there is no racism at our school is wrong, because there is," she said.

A "dignity and respect" program was begun at the park to help students and staff appreciate cultural diversity.

"But black people still sit with all the black people, and the Indian people still sit with all the Indian people," said Maureen McInerney. "Kids don't get punished effectively for things. If they did, then maybe we wouldn't have to have all that. We should be able to get along."

The problem needs to be addressed, said Cheryl McInerney. "Plymouth seems to be a little bit stuffy. We haven't gotten past that. We don't want to say these things are going on in our neighborhoods. We have to face it, or we're going to have someone dead. Maureen could have been hurt, and hurt very badly."

Picketing planned to protest charge

Some corrections officers plan informational picketing outside Scott Correctional Facility this week to protest a rape charge against a fellow officer.

A corrections officer who declined to be named said 20-25 picketers plan to be outside the prison from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Thursday and Friday. "We believe it's a trumped-up charge," he said.

Corrections officer David Samuel Shwartz, 39, of Plymouth, was bound over to Recorder's Court by 35th District Judge John MacDonald on Oct. 27, after a preliminary exam. Shwartz faces a charge of criminal sexual conduct in the first degree, in a Jan. 7 trial date in Recorder's Court.

The charge stemmed from a July 31 incident at the prison at the northwest corner of Beck and Five Mile roads, in which a female prisoner maintained she was assaulted, according to court records.

Chamber auction: pure magic

BY JEFF COUNTS
STAFF WRITER

There truly were some magic moments on Saturday at the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce Auction.

The fifth annual event attracted more than 700 people to a black-tie affair at Laurel Manor where people bid on items donated by local businesses. The money raised goes to support the chamber of commerce.

"We're delighted to have such tremendous support from the community and the businesses," said Fran Toney, chamber director, adding the event is the largest chamber meeting in the state.

More that 70 volunteers worked on making the event, called "This Magic Moment," a success.

Silent and live auction items included jewelry, trips, and suites at The Palace of Auburn Hills.

Fred Hill served as the master of ceremonies and Joe DuMouchelle ran the auctions.

K.C. Mueller, event co-chairman, told the crowd: "It was my pleasure to work with dedicated volunteers."

Township will fight arrest suit

BY M.B. DILLON
STAFF WRITER

Plymouth Township officials say they have no intention of settling the $10 million false arrest suit filed by Timothy and Ofelia Cruz out of court.

"We will absolutely fight this. I can't give you specifics regarding the incidents that are alleged, but from my review of the records, it is a frivolous suit," said township supervisor Kathleen Keen McCarthy.

The case stems from an altercation between Plymouth Township brothers Timothy and Anthony Cruz with Dwayne Jones of Auburn Hills at the Amoco gas station on Ann Arbor Road near I-275 in August 1994.

The Cruzes of Plymouth Township were acquitted in Detroit Recorder's Court last April of an ethnic intimidation charge brought by Plymouth Township police.

Detroit Recorder's Court Judge Cynthia Gray Hathaway dismissed the case on a directed verdict, ruling that police lacked sufficient evidence to try it.

The Cruzes are suing Plymouth Township, its police department, and officers Erik Mayernik and Steven Mann for false arrest, defamation, malicious prosecution, loss of income and abuse of process.

Like Jones, the Cruzes were buying gas when a fight occurred. With the Cruzes was Anthony Cruz's 1-year-old daughter Nikole.

According to the complaint, Anthony Cruz was attacked by Jones, who is black. Timothy Cruz came to his aid. Jones is 6-foot-5, 250 pounds. Anthony Cruz is 5-foot-6, 155 pounds. Timothy Cruz is 5-foot-8, 165 pounds.

The incident arose after Jones came within inches of hitting the Cruz truck as he was backing up his car. According to the complaint, Anthony Cruz backed up to allow Jones' sedan to pass when Jones swore at them. The two exchanged words and Jones approached Cruz in a "threatening and angry manner."

Anthony retrieved a hammer from his truck to defend himself. Jones then went to his car, 100 feet away. Cruz laid down his hammer, and began pumping his gas. Jones returned and from behind, hit Anthony Cruz with a car jack and smashed Cruz's head into the gas pumps, according to the complaint.

Timothy Cruz told the station attendant to call police and broke up the fight.

Responding to the incident were Mayernik and Mann. Anthony Cruz was known to the Plymouth Township police. In 1992, he was charged with driving off in Mann's squad car after being pulled over and asked about his license plate tabs.

"I think that officer (Mann) was not only embarrassed, but reprimanded," said Gregory Rohl, Timothy Cruz's attorney. "When he saw the opportunity to get even, he used his badge to achieve that end. That's what I have problems with.

"In addition, they were not given the opportunity to make a phone call and get their attorney so something could be done. This harkens back to the days of Dodge City. This isn't what our society is all about. It's not a shoot-out at the OK corral."

While police arrested the Cruzes and processed them at the station, "they never gave us a chance to tell our side of the story," said Tim Cruz. "They never told us what we were being detained for, or told us what we were being charged with. They never read us our Miranda rights.

"After we were hauled to the station, Nikole was left alone and unattended in the truck crying for over an hour after she'd just witnessed her father being bludgeoned," said Cruz.

Cruz, who is from Plymouth Township but was living in Mexico with his wife and son at the time, said fighting the two-year ethnic intimidation felony cost him his livelihood.

"It literally destroyed my business," he said. "I missed many months of my child's life. I was on bond and unable to leave the state. It took 10 months to go to trial."

Plymouth Township Police Chief Carl Berry said, "I believe we handled the case appropriately." While Mann conducted the investigation, the 1992 squad car incident "had absolutely nothing to do with it," Berry said.

The Cruzes received a death threat, which is being investigated by the Michigan State Police.

McCarthy said she's aware of what the Cruzes allege. "Obviously, that is not what we think happened. We feel it is a totally unjustified suit. We will fight it regardless of the cost. Everyone presents things from their own perspective. The record doesn't support the allegations made."

Jones also is charged in the Cruz suit, accused of making false and defamatory statements about Cruz in the media.

Anthony Cruz is pursuing separate legal action.

Parked car is struck and damaged

A 32-year-old Plymouth man told police that sometime between 8:15-8:45 a.m. Nov. 3, someone backed into his 1992 Plymouth Sundance while he was inside the coffee shop on on Penniman Avenue in Plymouth.

The Ann Street resident had parallel parked behind a blue pick-up truck. It appears the truck backed into his car, and the driver left the area without identifying himself.

Police said there were no witnesses, nor were there any traces of paint. The case is open, pending an investigation.

Larceny

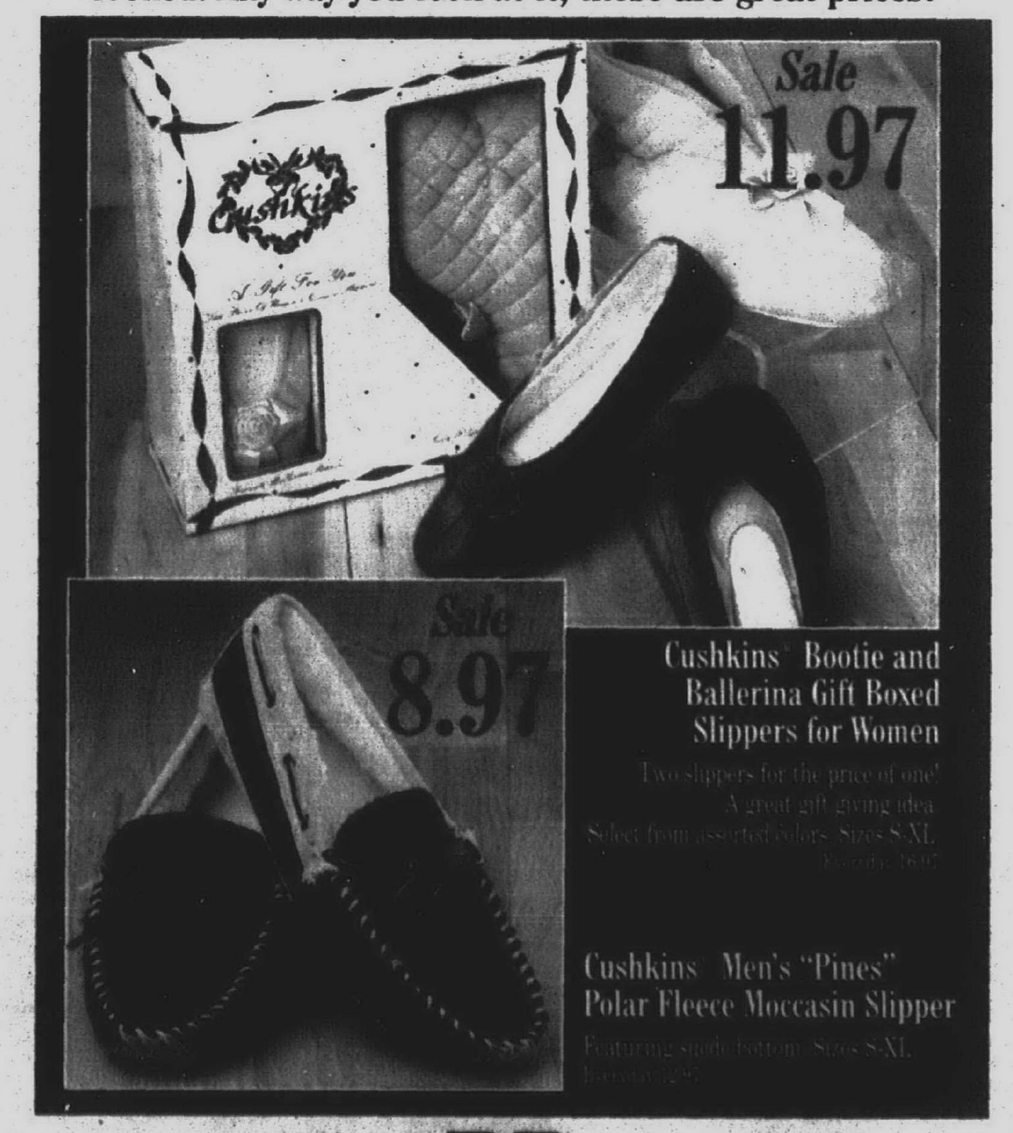

A 25-year-old Canton man told police Nov. 3 that stereo equipment worth $600 was stolen from his car while it was being serviced.

He left his car to be worked on Oct. 23. When he returned to test drive it, he noticed that his $400 Kickerbox stereo, which was bolted to a $200 Pioneer amplifier, was missing from his trunk.

The victim said he would locate the serial numbers of the items and then contact police. He was given a "victim's rights" card.

McAninch said he's also proud of the commission's long-term plans for upkeep of streets and sidewalks. "That was long overdue and critical to the health to the city," he said.

"I think the industrial study will bear fruit down the road," McAninch said. "The attention to Old Village led by (Mayor) Doug Miller was a significant thing that occurred. Maybe our greatest contribution as a commission is that we worked well together, we were able to have differences without it becoming personal."

What could the commission have done better? McAninch said the city still hasn't been able to establish new parking requirements for businesses downtown, and after much effort on the commission's part, the former Farmer Jack supermarket and Amoco station remain empty.

Jones also said he wished the commission could have solved the Farmer Jack Amoco station problem. "Some of those things are out of our control."

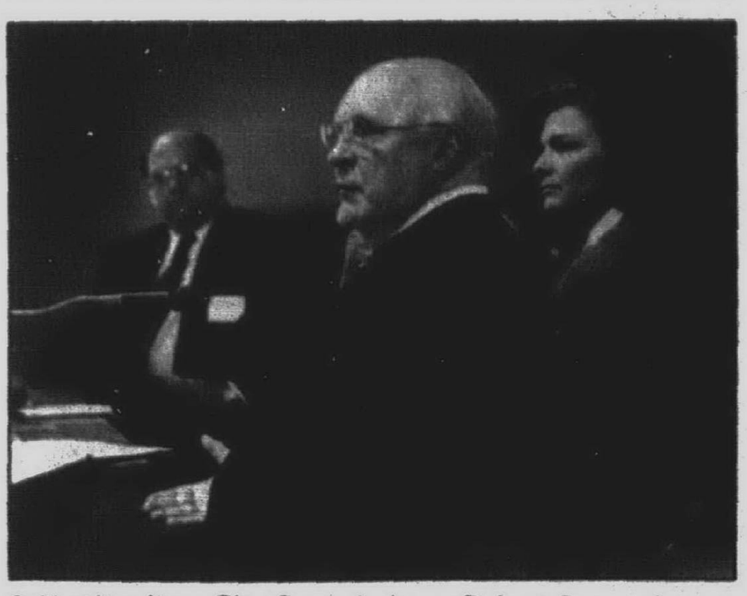

What surprised them about serving on the commission? "Probably the most striking thing is the hate mail you get when you do things, people hold you responsible for everything that happens," Jones said.

"I didn't expect the amount of apathy and ignorance that exists in the city regarding the issues of the city," McAninch said. "I realize that's no different than any other city or any other state, the American voter doesn't seek information about the critical things that affect them."

On advise to new commissioners, McAninch said, "Just keep the total city in mind, don't get focused on one segment and think long range. Jones said. "Do your homework. There's a lot of reading to be doing, a lot of studying, try to weigh all the facts. Somebody can make a very good argument, but you have to take others' opinions into account. You have to weigh what's best for the city in total and stick to your guns."

On the future, McAninch said that after a vacation, "Somebody can call me in January and see where I can best serve."

Jones said he has no plans to return to public office in the future, "I'm involved in the finance committee with the school board. One of the reasons I'm getting out is we want to travel," he said.

Veterans to present awards

Citizens, organizations, veterans and American Legion Legionnaires will receive awards and honors on Sunday, Nov. 12, when Plymouth Township Post 112 of The American Legion hosts an "Award and Honors Day."

The ceremony will be at 1 p.m. at the Oddfellows Hall, 344 Elizabth St., in Plymouth, and a buffet lunch will be served. The public is invited.

"Plymouth Township Beasley-Zalesny Post 112, is just starting its second year as an American Legion Post," Commander Derrick Liebau stated. "During our first year of organizing, so many individuals and organizations came to our assistance — helping to make our first year a success, that we would be remiss to not recognize them and say thank you."

"A number of our Post members have contributed numerous personal hours and personal finances to increase our membership strength from 15 members a year ago, to our present strength of 47 members, and almost every day a veteran is joining our Post. These membership recruiters will be recognized and receive special awards."

"Through our membership strength, during the past year we have been able to actively support, the Plymouth/Canton DARE Program; the Plymouth Township Playscape project; National American Legion Disaster Relief programs; local boys and girls scouting programs and most recently a Memorial Dedication ceremony to Harry F. Zalesny Jr. (a veteran killed in Vietnam), just to name a few projects."

American Legion Post 112's membership consists of veterans from all War periods, except WW I, and many of the members have served in the Armed Forces during two or more war periods.

Liebau said "Although our Post is composed of 43 percent Vietnam veterans, impressively, 21 percent of our memberships are veterans of World War II, and as we close out the 50th Anniversary celebration of our victory in WWII, our Post World War II veterans will also receive special recognition and citations for their contributions in keeping America a Free Country of Free Men & Women."

Awards will also be presented to various individuals and organizations and also a Plymouth/Canton High School student who competed in The American Legion National Oratorical contest.

Additional information about the American Legion Awards Day can be obtained by calling Plymouth Township Beasley-Zalesny Post 112 at 451-3574.

"Even the wood, where it comes from, makes some differences," Veresh said, adding the wood from the south side of a tree can sound much different from wood on the north side.

Veresh has even tackled the making of a Norwegian version of the violin, a "hardanger" complete with intricate ebony, ivory and mother-of-pearl inlay work.

The book details numerous trips with wife Mary Ann, who died in December shortly after the book was finished.

The attraction of traveling, Veresh said, is pleasure and excitement. "You can be on a beach in Hawaii soaking up the sunshine, the ambience. Then there's the historical traveling."

Asked to name highlights of his travels, Veresh recalled a trip to Istanbul, Turkey in 1968. "It was almost a whole week. We stayed at a local hotel, took the local transportation, visited the fish markets and the marketplaces."

On a trip to the great pyramids in Egypt, the couple slept in the king's chamber and from the top watched the sun rise over the Nile River. "You left the place with a feeling of great wellness," he said.

Back home, his exploration of the life of psychic Edgar Cayce led him to practicing meditation. He belongs to a Cayce study group that's met at least monthly since 1969.

The idea to write his own autobiography came after attending a class through the Elder Hostel program titled "How to Write the Story of Your Life."

"I guess the most important thing is don't sit down and try to write the story of your life. You should start by making notes. When you think of an incident, make these little sketches.

"After you've combined enough of them, it gets you to remembering more. The more I would write, the more I would remember," Veresh said.

With the help of Sandy Steele, who helped edit and type the book and also drew illustrations, it took about four years to finish "Up 'Till Now."

He's had 500 copies printed. The book, at $12.95, is available at Little Professor Book Store and at the Plymouth Historical Museum, where he volunteers time.

It's also available by writing Veresh in care of The Letter Writer, 9357 Haggerty Road, Plymouth 48170.

County lightfest to return Nov. 13

BY BETH SUNDRLA JACHMAN
STAFF WRITER

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas in Hines Park.

On Monday, Nov. 13, the switch will be flipped to light up 35 holiday light displays on Hines Drive between the Merriman Road entrance and the Warrendale park shelter, at Telegraph, a distance of four miles.

The display features 500,000 lights and uses 350,000 watts of electricity.

Open from 7-10 p.m. nightly through Jan. 1, 1996 (closed Dec. 25), the donation to see the display is $5 per car (including vans and recreational vehicles), $20 for limousines, $20 for small buses and $50 for full-size buses.

The LightFest project, entering its third year, cost $250,000 in 1993, when the county loaned the parks department the money to buy 30 displays. The parks department is paying the money back in payments of $50,000 a year for the five-year term of the loan. Payments were made in 1993 and 1994, and Wayne County division of parks director Hurley Coleman said he fully expects a payment to be made in 1995.

In 1993, 63,000 cars traveled through the display, and in 1994, 61,500 cars visited it. At least 60,000 cars are expected this year. At $5 a car, LightFest has brought in at least $300,000 per year, and after the $50,000 loan payment is made and the costs of running the show are deducted, $50,000-$60,000 is invested in park activities, Coleman said.

Three new displays have been added this year — a nativity scene, menorah scene and Kwanzaa scene.

In 1994 the parks department began seeking corporate sponsorship for displays, and two displays were added.

Coleman sees the light display as an opportunity to expose people to the county parks system. "People had no idea we were year-round," Coleman said.

Coleman calls LightFest a chance to "create positive memories."

"Where else is the general public going to go and just feel good about being in Wayne County?" he said.

Coleman said he expects to add more displays in the next few years. "In two or three years there will be a complete ribbon that shows the panorama of the American holiday experience," he said.

Current displays include Santa, a rocking horse, the American flag, a train, a gingerbread village, an antique car parade and a poinsettia wreath.

Sponsors for displays include: poinsettia wreath, Blue Care Network of Southeast Michigan; American flag, Ameritech; Santa's antique car parade, AAA Michigan; nativity scene, Melody Foods, Ring Screw Works, International Union — UAW; Parkway Express Train, Torre & Bruglio; menorah scene, Arbor Drugs. The Farbman Group; gingerbread village, Detroit Edison; Santa's golf cart, Friends of Wayne County Parks; Kwanzaa scene, Lewis, White & Clay, Avis Ford, Lewis & Thompson Agency, First Independence Bank, Coopers & Lybrand; and putting golfers, Warren Valley Banquet Center.

Work started a month ago to put the displays up to be ready for the Nov. 13 opening. The opening will include the lighting at 7 p.m. with the help of Wayne County Executive Edward McNamara. After the lighting, visitors can drive through the four-mile display. From 7:15-9 p.m. food, sweets and visits with Santa will be available at Warren Valley Banquet Center, 26116 West Warren Road in Dearborn Heights.

Santa Claus will be at the Warrendale shelter starting Nov. 13 until Christmas Eve. Ornaments will also be for sale at Warrendale.

The first year of the display, traffic backed up for about two miles on Merriman Road, but after some improvements to the road and in managing traffic, that problem has been alleviated, Coleman said. For those who don't want to wait long to see the lights, parks officials suggest Tuesdays, Wednesdays or Thursdays as lower-traffic days.

Weekends, especially Thanksgiving weekend, are very popular, Coleman said.

More jail time for crimes against seniors

BY TIM RICHARD
STAFF WRITER

The bill was popular — tougher punishments for crimes against senior citizens — but one state senator had doubts about its constitutionality.

"I'm concerned with special penalties for (crimes against) a certain class of people," said Sen. Alma Wheeler Smith, D-Salem, who voted against the measure.

"What about special penalties for crimes against pregnant women and children? And there's a question of double jeopardy — adding one penalty on top of another," said the freshman senator from Washtenaw County.

It was the first time sponsor Henry Stallings II, D-Detroit, had run into opposition on his Senate Bill 343. It was named for Rosa Parks, the famed civil rights activist who was beaten in her own home a year ago.

SB 343 defines a senior citizen as one 60 or older. It allows a judge to tack five years onto a felon's prison sentence for crimes committed in the senior's home and three years if committed outside the home.

The Senate on Nov. 1 passed the measure 32-3 and sent it to the House. All area senators voted yes except Smith and David Honigman, R-West Bloomfield.

Missing the session while working on the telecommunications bill was Mat Dunaskiss, R-Lake Orion.

Sen. William VanRegenmorter, R-Jenison, chair of the Senate Judiciary Committee, said double jeopardy wasn't a problem because "this isn't part of a layer of crimes but a separate crime." He added that a judge, in consulting sentencing guidelines, may take into consideration "the vulnerability of the victim."

Said Stallings: "This bill provides greater protection for our senior citizens, one of society's more vulnerable groups. I am pleased by the bipartisan support for this bill."

The Senate Fiscal Agency estimated the bill, if enacted, would cost the state prison system $3.8 million more a year by the third year. It estimated 2.1 percent, or 86 of the 4,100 prison admissions in 1994, were for crimes against seniors.

Pro-am tourney bowls 'em over

BY JOANNE MALISZEWSKI
STAFF WRITER

Eddie Mintz of Canton was pretty impressed with the professional women bowlers he bowled with at Super Bowl Sunday, Oct. 29.

"They're very good. They are outstanding. That are not too different than the men in bowling," said Mintz.

As Steve Seadeek sees it, professional men bowlers have more physical power. The professional women bowlers have accuracy. "They have a lot more finesse," said the Canton resident.

Seadeek and Mintz were among approximately 600 bowlers who signed up or walked into Super Bowl, 45100 Ford Road, Sunday, Oct. 29, to try their hand at the 9-Pin No-Tap Pro-Am Tournament, part of the Ladies Pro Bowlers Tour Lady Ebonite Classic.

"It is actually a doubles tournament," said Randy Gutowski, Super Bowl manager. "The amateurs get a handicap." The winners were to be announced Tuesday afternoon.

"They are so friendly with everyone," Gutowski said, referring to the professionals. "This is their time to sort of take it easy."

The professional bowlers came to Canton from Baltimore where they bowled another tournament. Their tournament in Canton began last Monday.

"This is my first full year out," said professional bowler Willie Hainsworth of Idaho. "I love the traveling. The girls are all for each other."

Hainsworth was paired up with Seadeek among others during the Pro-Am. "I would have liked to have done better," said Seadeek, who bowls weekly and enjoys watching the pros. "They have done it so much. It's effortless."

The prize in the Pro-Am was $1,000. But clearly the amateur bowlers were there for fun and to match their skills against those bowlers whose names were immediately recognisable.

In addition to Hainsworth, Aleta Sill of Dearborn, who is the all-time money winner in the women's professional bowling tournaments, also played, as did Cheryl Daniels, who just won the U.S. Open, Marianne DiRuppo of Dearborn, and 1992 champ Shirley Steele of Plymouth.

"I really enjoy bowling with the amateurs. They are a lot of fun," said Hainsworth who lauded the amateur bowlers.

Linda Simpson of Canton, who bowls every Wednesday morning at Super Bowl was paired with professionals Laura Wolfgang and Jackie Sellers. "I'm not doing well," said Simpson, who admitted she didn't practice before the Pro-Am. "I bowl 4-5 times a week. I don't have time to practice."

Chuck Singleton of Plymouth was in the Pro-Am because he had won the chance in a raffle. "I'm doing fairly," Singleton said, adding he wasn't surprised in the least at the professionals' abilities. "It gives me a little more initiative to bowl."

Nine-year-old David Mintz also tried his hand in the Pro-Am in the morning session devoted to youths. He too was amazed at the talented women bowlers.

"To me this is just very relaxed. If there's any pressure, it's self-inflicted," said David's dad, Eddie.

The Super Bowl was packed with onlookers. Bleachers have been set up for the crowds. A portion of the proceeds from tickets sold to those who want to watch the tournament throughout the week will go the Special Olympics. The pro tournament offers a $75,000 purse.

Local commissioners split on county bond proposal

BY BETH SUNDRLA JACHMAN
STAFF WRITER

A multi-million dollar bond issue, which includes a new Wayne County Juvenile Detention Facility, was approved Nov. 2 by the Wayne County Commission.

The facility, with a cost estimated at $27 million, is part of a bond package for projects projected to cost $44.1 million, but not to exceed a cost of $45 million.

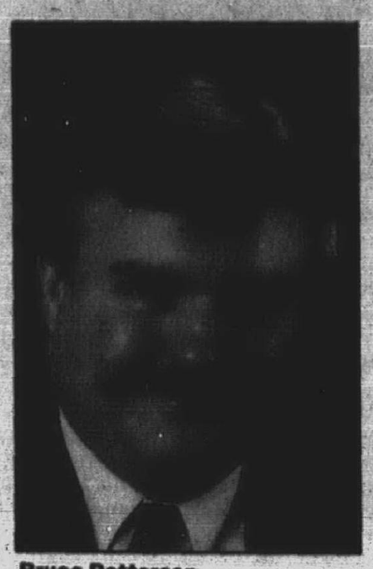

Four commissioners voted against the plan, including two from the Observer coverage area — Thaddeus McCotter, R-Livonia, and Bruce Patterson, R-Canton Township. Other local commissioners Michelle Plawecki and Vice Chair Kay Beard voted in favor. The proposal passed 8-4 with an abstention by commissioner Jewel Ware.

The projects are:

- $27 million to build a new juvenile facility in Detroit to house about 200 juveniles;
- $4.4 million for demolishing three old buildings and building a new one at the Wayne North Yard in the city of Wayne to house the engineering division's permit office, field engineering office and testing laboratory;
- $4 million for a Wayne County parks capital improvement program;

Kay Beard

Thaddeus McCotter

Bruce Patterson

Michelle Plawecki

- $1.1 million to build a new public health clinic in the proposed Taylor Human Services Complex in the city of Taylor;
- $1.6 million for elevator replacement at the Frank Murphy Hall of Justice (Recorder's Court) building;
- $1 million for a kitchen on the county's Eloise Campus in Westland; and $5 million for a 10 percent contingency fund.

McCotter, whose district also includes Plymouth and Plymouth Township, said he is disappointed the proposal is not being put up for a public vote. He said his "no" vote should not be taken as opposition to the youth home project, but said the taxes approved by voters in 1988 should have been used to build a new juvenile facility.

In 1988 voters approved a tax hike for youth programs, but county executive Edward H. McNamara's administration didn't use the money to build a new youth home. A U.S. Department of Justice investigation of the youth home, located in Detroit, was conducted in 1994. Federal authorities released a report in December with accounts of physical abuse, overcrowding and food containing worms, roaches and rocks.

A new youth home will be built because the Justice Department has threatened to sue Wayne County if the problems it discovered are not addressed.

Patterson, who said he embraced all of McCotter's statements, pointed out the maturity of the bond issue would be "no later than 40 years." "There are at least four commissioners serving today that aren't even 40 years of age," he said.

"What we're doing here is financing this on the backs of youth," Patterson said. "This is a tax increase just waiting to happen. I'm very troubled by it."

After the meeting, Plawecki said that while she doesn't like everything in the bond package, she sees positive projects like the senior program. "I also don't think you can keep pointing fingers at the McNamara administration" over the use of youth home money, she said.

"We have to look to the future," she said. "We know the voters

Is a Michigan MBA that important?

Should we tell the world how important our MBA program is by changing the University logo? We probably couldn't get away with it, but many graduates (and even more potential employers) think that a Masters degree in Business Administration from the University of Michigan is among the strongest in the field. Good news for you.

The School of Management now offers two graduate degree programs at the Dearborn campus. There is a dual degree program leading to both the Master of Business Administration and Master of Science in Engineering—Industrial and Systems Engineering. Then there is the MBA program which is designed as a crossover vehicle for those whose undergraduate degrees are in areas other than business administration.

Of course, with the Dearborn campus, things are even more convenient for many students. Not easier, just more convenient. After all, this is the University of Michigan.

voted for the youth home," she said.

"It's kind of unfortunate that some of my colleagues have turned this into a partisan issue," she said.

Commissioner Andrew Richner also voted against the proposal. "It strikes me there aren't too many specifics here before us," he said, adding that he had heard of recent proposed changes to the youth home project that would add to the cost. He questioned the cost of the youth home project, saying a similar Indiana project had a much lower per bed cost.

Vice chair Beard, D-Westland, disagreed that much of the project hadn't been studied. "We've debated and discussed this and massaged this . . . ," she said. "Long-term financing is something all of us are involved in when we buy a house or a condo," she said. "Government has to make some kind of projections based along similar lines," she said.

"We have needs and it's important for us to respond," she said, adding that she is also disappointed that the voter-approved tax money was not used to build a new youth home.

Commission chairman Ricardo Solomon agreed that it had been a "long, arduous process."

"I'm proud of the process the commission used to evaluate the bonding proposal. The process was fair and allowed every commissioner an opportunity to raise their concerns and fully discuss the matter with their colleagues," Solomon said.

He pointed out the original proposal in July was to borrow $80 million, which had included a plan to purchase the Wayne County Building for $20 million among other projects. That plan was dropped.

Budget battle is focus of expert's talk

Teresa Brooks, director of Dykema Gossett's National/International Health Care Practice, will offer an insider's view of the congressional battle on health care at the Canton Economic Club luncheon meeting Wednesday, Nov. 15.

Brooks will speak in Canton Township's new community center — The Summit on the Park — on Summit Parkway (Palmer Road), south of Cherry Hill and west of Canton Center Road.

The public is invited to attend the meeting, sponsored by Rudolph-Libbe and the Observer Newspapers. Tickets are $15. Reservations may be made by calling the Canton Community Foundation, 981-3002.

Lunch is served at noon; program is scheduled from 12:30-1:30 p.m.

Brooks has a national reputation as a health care specialist with more than 25 years experience on health-related issues.

She was formerly director of legal affairs and policy development of the Michigan Hospital Association, associate director of federal agency liaison in the Washington office of the American Hospital Association, and director of the Washington office of the American Osteopathic Association.

She has served on the board of directors of the National Health Lawyers Association and is the past president of the Michigan Society of Hospital Attorneys.

She is a member of the the D.C. Bar Committee on Health and the Michigan State Bar Committee on Health Care.

Brooks served on the American Hospital Association's Attorney's Task Force on Bio-Medical Ethics and is currently a member of the Michigan Chamber of Commerce Committee on Health Policy.

She has authored a chapter of a book on preferred provider organizations, published by the National Health Lawyers Association. She lectures and publishes on a wide variety of health law topics.

Brooks represents a broad range of health providers and health-related businesses in all areas of health care, which include regulatory/legislative policy issues, reimbursement, health care reform, bio-medical technology, managed/integrated health care system development, regulation and contracting.

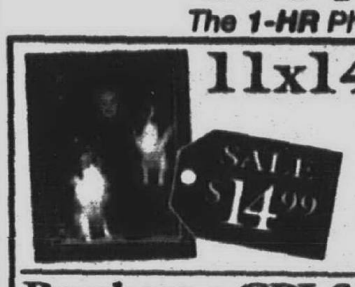

She has been responsible for and involved in a number of lobbyiny initiatives at the federal and state level involving complex, health-related legislative and regulatory issues, including health care reform. She represents a number of associations including state hospital association, physican specialty organizations, integrated health systems, medical center, health-related public companies, business and clinical laboratories.

She is a graduate of Trinity College and completed studies at L'Universita del Sacro Cuore, Rome, Italy and The American University Washington College of Law.

CHEF LARRY JANES

Cooking experts write books to share, enjoy

Having been involved in one way or another with the food scene here in metropolitan Detroit just about all of my life, you probably know how much I love to cook. I'm often asked, "do you ever run out of story ideas?"

No. I never run out of story ideas. My cooking skills continue to improve, and I get great story ideas by interviewing some of the top chefs, and cookbook authors who frequently descend into town to push, plug, schmooze and generally talk about food and their latest work.

"Hot Wok"

Take for instance the fact that I was able to sit in on an enlightening cooking class recently when Hugh Carpenter, author of hit cookbooks "Hot Wok" and "Hot Chicken" (copyright 1995, Ten Speed Press, $17.95) stopped by Kitchen Glamor in West Bloomfield.

"Hot Wok" and "Hot Chicken" are number one and two, respectively of a five-part cookbook series that will soon include "Hot Pasta," "Hot Barbecue" and "Hot Vegetables."

Series cookbooks must be the "in thing" right now because everyone from Williams-Sonoma to La Varenne doyenne Anne Willan is doing them.

I found it interesting when Carpenter, flipping about a $125 Calphalon wok and eschewing its virtues years before touted the fact that "you can use your wok as a planter and substitute any good 12-inch skillet."

When queried, Carpenter claims that "times change and you can still use a skillet, but a good heavy, 14 or 16-inch flat bottom wok can do more than any skillet."

Judging from Carpenter's class, intense, high heat (the hottest possible) is best for optimum "sealing in" of flavors and tastes. That, friends, is why you need a wok as a 12-inch skillet subjected to intense heat would be a sacrilege.

In my business, as a rule, cookbooks with big beautiful pictures are usually avoided by food writers mainly because the more pictures, the costlier the book, and the less the recipes. The pictures were done by Carpenter's wife Teri Sandison, and if the recipes taste half as good as the photography makes them look, it will be a hit. Judging from the ooh's and ahh's from the students in Carpenter's class, the recipes were a hit.

Mary Ellen Morgan of Birmingham, who registered for all three of Carpenter's classes, claims Carpenter's class was full of great tips and he "showed how to elevate chicken from the common everyday ingredient to gourmet status using flavor ideas from around the world."

For today's cook

While Carpenter's books undoubtedly pose interest to cooks with Pacific Rim tastes, a new book by the editors of "Woman's Day" magazine – "The Woman's Day Cookbook," (copyright 1995, Viking Press, $24.95) has hit the shelves. I spent a hurried lunch last week with Jane Chesnutt, one of the six food editors who compiled this cookbook. It's full of great recipes, bright ideas and healthy choices for today's cook. I couldn't help but notice that the book contains more than 700 recipes, but just as impressive are the roasting charts, measuring units, spice suggestions, low-fat versions, and shortcuts. If you are a new bride, starting out in your new home, or just beginning to cook and need basic information this book is for you. It makes a great gift, and is sure to be used, copied, spilled on, dribbled over and stuck all over with Post-It notes marking favorite recipes.

Do I sound enthused? I queried Chesnutt on the fact that the "book contains everything except information on changing the oil in your car" and she replied that "after three years in the making, the folks at 'Woman's Day,' who are known for their chock-full bargain $1.29 monthly magazine, wanted to offer the same with regards to food and cooking for today's busy cook."

At only $24.95, this book will hold court on my kitchen shelf, and not be relegated to the downstairs library next to "The Joy of Cooking" and other perennial favorites that I always use for reference material.

"If all that isn't enough, the chapter on "investment cooking' is worth its weight in gold for working cooks who need to "make' time in the kitchen,' said Chesnutt, who with two kids and a full-time job relies heavily on recipes that save money and time. Yes, there's nutritional analysis, something I wish all cookbooks would include, double indexing for easy recipe retrieval, kid's choice recipes, microwavable, one pot meals, low-fat recipes, make ahead ideas, vegetarian dishes and even classics.

Making dinner for 1

Singles share cooking, shopping tips

BILL HANSEN

Dining alone: Vicki Vensel dines by candlelight in her Southfield home. She prefers her home cooking to going to a restaurant. "Treat yourself as though you are special," she says, "because you are."

By Norman Prady • Special Writer

There are flowers on the table.

The food is presented on "pretty little serving dishes."

Water is served in stemware.

Is this the setting for a dinner party, or is Vicki Vensel dining alone?

"Treat yourself as though you're special," said Vensel, 38, of Southfield, "because you are."

A furniture salesperson, and now divorced three years following a four-year marriage, Vensel prefers her home cooking to going to a restaurant, "just because you have to eat."

Mostly, her dinners are in the dining room. Once in a great while, she confesses, she'll eat at the living room coffee table, "if there's a really good movie on TV."

In early post-divorce days, she says, some people don't care about things, and even get a bit sloppy. She's heard stories of people abandoning utensils and manners.

Preparing and serving dinner to herself, she says, is a matter of self-respect.

As for shopping single, she says, "it's not much different than when I was married.

"I do spend less. I buy less meat and more dairy. Low-fat cheese, for example.

"Sometimes on a Sunday I'll cook for the week." Some of the meals yield lunches she can take to work "to save money, fat and calories."

Vensel grew up in Berkley, one of seven children. "Dinnertime was family time. A chance to visit with each other. Mom made good meals. Nothing fancy."

But Edna McLaughlin, 76, of Canton, says, "It's difficult to cook for one."

A widow for 30 years, McLaughlin took care of her mother for a long time. Alone since her mother died in 1988, she's learned to shop in small quantities.

"I buy just two onions, because more will spoil. I buy just one tomato. I use frozen vegetables, because fresh spoil.

"I buy the smallest of anything so I'm not eating it for a week or throwing it away." A higher unit price on a smaller package is offset by the reduced waste, she says.

McLaughlin's favorites include meatballs, meatloaf, and various chicken dishes. Often, tonight's dinner will also be tomorrow's lunch.

At the Canton Senior Center, where she volunteers 20 hours a week as an office aide, she's known for the quiches she often brings to serve to the busy staff.

Her tollhouse cookies also get high ratings. "It's in the baking time," she says. "People over-bake. The package tells you to bake nine to 11 minutes. I use the nine."

For recent Madonna University graduate Kathryn Mulka, shopping for one is a continuing education.

As a child growing up in Alpena, she used to go to the market with her mother, who was shopping for the family of seven.

Mulka, 24, of Plymouth, who works in commercial and graphic arts, has been living on her own for the past three years. She shops for her version of best value, which is based on quantity, price and intent.

Something might be very appealing, but if she admits to herself that she's not going to use it, she doesn't buy it.

"I keep learning. What I eat. What I don't eat. When. What goes bad. Like lettuce. I don't buy it unless I know that I'm going to make a salad. Or it just gets moldy and gross."

She likes to make casseroles that can be a dinner and a lunch, and coleslaw, potato salad, and other cold salads.

New wine values come from southern France

FOCUS ON WINE
BY RAY & ELEANOR HEALD

Even if you don't know French, you probably understand the meaning of "bonjour." If you're a wine lover looking for value-priced wines, you need to add Vins de Pays d'Oc to your French vocabulary and look for it on French wine labels.

Wines labeled Vins de Pays d'Oc (van d'pay-ee-dock) are the country wines of southern France's Languedoc region. Bordering on the Mediterranean, this is France's largest vineyard area. Wines bear the name of the grape variety, such as chardonnay and merlot, on the label and are easy to understand, easy to drink and equally easy on your budget.

The newest brand to throw its hat into the ring from southern France is Jenard. To attract your attention, Jenard created the classiest bottles and labels of any of the wines from the Pays d'Oc. Using art from the Belle Epoque (beautiful era) of the 1890s in Paris, Jenard has captured art and French wine in a manner uncommon to popularly priced, everyday, enjoyable wine.

Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec is the artist of the Belle Epoque era. To those who know art, his vividly-colored poster lithography represents the period's history and have become enduring symbols of that time. The Jenard bottlings with four different replicas of Toulouse-Lautrec's posters combine the concept of both wine and art for the people. If you're interested in wine and art, they cry out from the shelf saying, "Collect all four." However, don't just collect these bottles, drink the wine; it's meant for drinking now, not for cellaring.

These creative endeavors of wine and art are the result of cooperative work between France's Maison JeanJean and its U.S. importer Cannon Wines Limited of San Francisco. The wines have become an instant success, just as Toulouse-Lautrec became an instant hit when his Moulin Rouge poster went up in the Paris streets in the mid 1890s. An original 1995 projection of 10,000 cases of these wines for the U.S. market grew to 30,000 cases and it's anticipated that 75,000 cases will be sold in 1996. In the future, look for more Rhone varietals to be added to the brand.

There's no mistaking here, these are French wines and you'll taste this in the chardonnay especially, because it has better acid-fruit balance than many California wines at the same price. These wines are good everyday drinking French wines designed with food in mind.

Tasting notes: all wines are $8

■ 1994 Jenard Chardonnay is floral with appley notes and hints of nutmeg spice. Its clean, fresh fruit unencumbered by oak is a palate delight and easily matched to a corn chowder that highlights the wine's slight sweetness balanced by good French wine acidity.

■ 1994 Jenard Merlot showcases black cherry fruit in a dry style well-suited for lamb dishes.

■ 1994 Jenard Cabernet Sauvignon sports blackberry fruit in a streamlined, tight style perfect for barbecued meats, stews or a hearty pizza.

■ 1994 Jenard Syrah is a melange of red fruits with notes of peppery spice. With colder weather upon us, serve it with tomato-based comfort foods such as black bean soup, stews, cassoulet, grilled meats or a spicy chili.

Other news from France:

■ Beaujolais Nouveau arrives November 16. Exporter, Georges Duboeuf, France's King of Beaujolais, promises that 1995 will be a serious vintage with wines that are robust, full, warm and rich. "The Beaujolais I've tasted (from the 1995 vintage) have that warm, convivial and delicious character which always delights lovers of Beaujolais," Duboeuf said. Prices will be as easy to swallow as the young, fruity nouveau averaging $8-$9 for air shipments. Beaujolais Nouveau is a great accompaniment to the extraordinary number of flavors and spices on the American Thanksgiving table. Prices will drop about a dollar when boat shipments arrive December 1.

Cookbook authors share favorites

■ The first recipe is from "Hot Chicken" by Hugh Carpenter and Teri Sandison, (copyright 1995 Ten Speed Press). The second recipe comes from "The Woman's Day Cookbook" by Kathy Farrell-Kingsley and the Editors of Woman's Day, (copyright 1995, Viking Press).

TEQUILA ROAST CHICKEN

2 frying chickens, cut into pieces
3 cloves garlic, finely minced
3 serrano chiles, finely minced
½ cup tequila
½ cup Dijon mustard
½ cup thin soy sauce
2 tablespoons honey
¼ cup cilantro, chopped
Sauce
2 cloves garlic, minced
1 serrano chile, minced
2 tablespoons olive oil
1 cup chicken broth or stock
2 tablespoons oyster sauce
1 tablespoon cornstarch
¼ cup tequila
3 ounces crumbled goat cheese
¼ cup salted, toasted pumpkin seeds
¼ cup cilantro sprigs

Rinse the chicken with cold water, then pat dry. In a bowl large enough to hold the chicken, combine the garlic, serrano chiles, tequila, mustard, soy sauce, honey and cilantro. Mix well and add to the chicken, toss to coat.

Refrigerate at least 15 minutes but not longer than 8 hours.

To make the sauce, combine garlic, serrano chile and olive oil and set aside. Keep tequila, goat cheese, pumpkin seeds and cilantro in the refrigerator. Preheat the oven to 425 degrees F.

Line a shallow baking dish with foil and place a wire rack on top. Place the chicken skin side up on the wire rack. Roast the chicken for 30-40 minutes or until the juices run clear when pierced with a fork. Transfer the chicken to a serving platter. Place a skillet or saute pan over high heat. Add the garlic, chile and olive oil mixture. When garlic begins to sizzle, add the stock mixture and bring to a boil. Stir in tequila. Spoon sauce around the chicken. Sprinkle with goat cheese, pumpkin seeds and chopped cilantro. Serve with warm tortillas.
Serves 4.

Here's a five ingredient recipe that even garnered rave reviews from momma! If you don't like the delicate hint of mint, try using regular chocolate chips!

MINI MINT BROWNIE CUPS

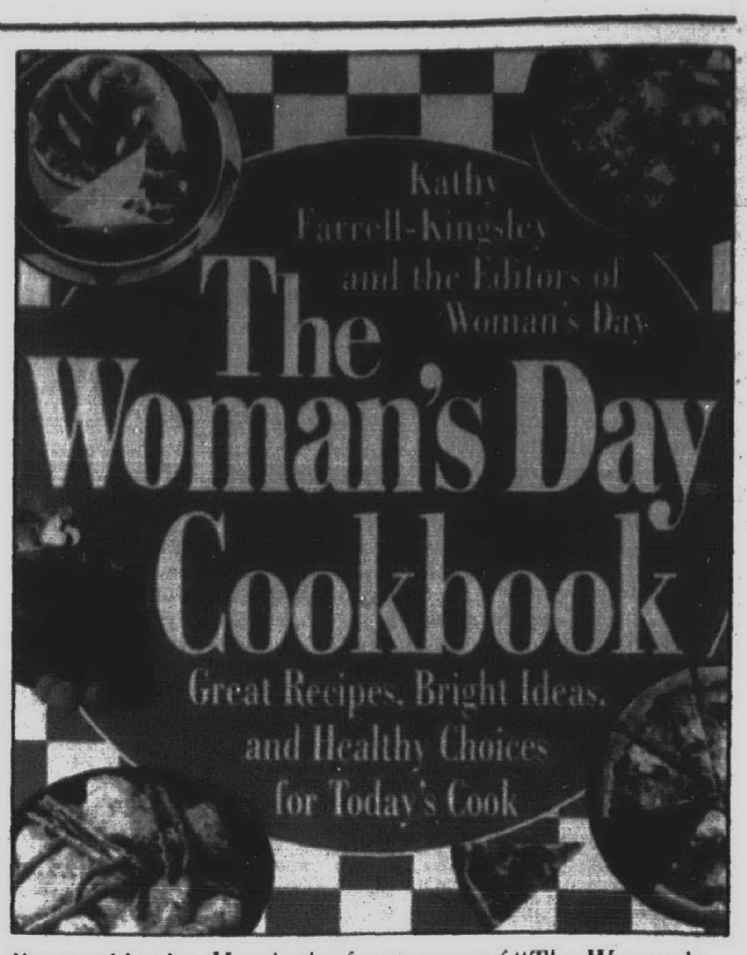

1 cup (2 sticks) butter or margarine (not spread)
1 bag (10 ounces) semi-sweet mint-chocolate chips (1⅔ cups)
1 cup granulated sugar
4 large eggs
1 cup all-purpose flour

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. Arrange 36 doubled mini muffin paper or foil baking cups on 2 jelly-roll pans or baking sheets with sides.

In a medium sized saucepan, melt the butter over low heat. Add the chocolate chips and stir until melted and smooth. Remove the pan from the heat. Stir in the sugar. Add eggs and stir briskly until blended.

Stir in the flour until blended. Fill the baking cups ¾ full. Bake for 20-25 minutes or until the tops look cracked and a toothpick inserted in the center has moist crumbs. Set the baking sheets on wire racks to cool completely. Makes 36.

VICKI'S LENTIL SOUP

6 whole carrots, sliced
4-6 stalks celery, chopped
2 onions chopped
1 package (or ¼ package) lentils
2 big or 1 big and two small ham hocks
Salt & pepper to taste
Garlic, fresh or powdered to taste
4-5 quarts water

Put water in 6 quart soup pot with lid. Add lentils (quantity depends on how "beany" you like your soup). Add salt, pepper, and garlic to taste. Add ham hocks, carrots, celery, and onions. Cook covered throughout.

Bring to a full boil. Turn down heat to medium-low for one hour.

Simmer for an hour or so, adding water if necessary. After about one hour, drain ham hocks. Remove meat from bones. Cut into small pieces. Return to pot.

Serve soup with crusted bread and Jell-O. Makes a great lunch or dinner.

Recipe from Vicki Vensel

EDNA'S MEATBALLS

1 pound ground beef
½ cup quick oatmeal
¼ cup milk
1 egg
1 package Mrs. Grass onion & mushroom soup mix
2 large cans Franco American beef gravy

In large bowl, combine all ingredients except beef gravy. Use wet hands to mix well, forming approximately 16 meat balls. In a Dutch oven, brown meatballs in one tablespoon of oil. Drain off excess fat. Add beef gravy. Simmer covered for 30 minutes.

Stuff winter squash with fall's fruitiest flavors

Winter squash, the season's nutritional gold mine, is also the source of a wide variety of delicious recipes. You can bake it, puree it, grate it, saute it and simmer it in soups and stews. Beyond all these uses, you can stuff squash with delightful fillings that can make it a wholesome side dish or a hearty entree.

Different varieties of winter squash have their own distinctive flavors and uses. Acorn squash, with its moist, firm flesh, holds its shape well. This, along with its moderate size, make it great for stuffing. Hubbard squash, particularly smaller varieties, also stuff well.

In general, when preparing stuffed squash, preheat the oven to 375 degrees F., cut the squash in half and scoop out the seeds. Place the squash flesh side down in a baking dish and pour in ¼ cup water to cover the bottom of the pan. Bake the squash for 30 minutes while you prepare the filling.

For microwave preparation, pierce each squash in three to four places with a sharp knife, place them on a double layer of paper towels in the microwave, and cook on high for eight minutes or until just soft to the touch, rotating once during cooking. Let them stand for five minutes before cutting in half.

■ Acorn squash, with its moist, firm flesh, holds its shape well.

For filling, try a Mexican-style mixture of cooked and drained lean ground beef, diced onion, celery and zucchini, quartered cherry tomatoes and cooked kidney beans, seasoned with chili powder, cumin, and thyme. Or, make a seasonal stuffing of leftover turkey, chopped raw cranberries, diced onion and celery, and bread crumbs, flavored with marjoram and maple syrup.

For a meatless meal, stuff acorn squash with a multi-grain pilaf and diced papaya, seasoned with tarragon.

Once the filling is prepared, stuff into each squash half and return them to the baking dish (make sure there is still some water in the baking dish). Cover the dish with foil and return to the oven. Continue baking for one hour or until just tender.

For microwave preparation, place the filled halves on a microwavable plate and cover loosely with wax paper or vented plastic wrap. Microwave on high for four to six minutes, or until heated through. Let them stand, covered, for two minutes.

Stuffed Winter Squash produces a delicious stuffing, full of the season's fruitiest flavors — apple, cranberry and orange.

STUFFED WINTER SQUASH

1 winter squash
2 cups of apple (chopped or canned)
1 cup of ground cranberries
1 sectioned orange
½ cup of raisins
¼ cup of brown sugar
2 teaspoons margarine

Halve the winter squash lengthwise and scrape out the seeds and stringy portion. Place both halves with the cut side down in a baking dish with ¼ cup of water covering the bottom of the pan. Bake in the oven at 350 degree F. for one hour.

While the squash is baking, mix the other ingredients in a bowl. Stuff the baked squash with the fruit mixture and bake at 350 degrees F. for an additional 20-30 minutes or until the squash is tender.

Stuffed squash: Full of fall's fruitiest flavors — apple, cranberry and orange — stuffed winter squash is a season delight.

Eat lots of fall's crisp apples, they're so good for you

LOIS THIELEKE

Apples are a favorite fruit because of their delicious flavor, year-round availability, variety and versatility in preparation. An apple contains almost no fat or sodium, they are high in complex carbohydrates, contain fiber, potassium, trace minerals, Vitamins A and C, and many other vital nutrients. What's not to like about an apple, they are good for you.

Dietary research shows that apples may have many health benefits. Apples may actually help reduce serum cholesterol, high blood pressure, and the risk of colon cancer, and strokes. Apples can also play an important role in weight control because the fiber gives you a full satisfied feeling after eating. Of course, these items are true when eating raw apples, not necessarily when eating apple pie. Apples are also called nature's toothbrush as they refresh the breath and teeth and massage the gums.

Apples can be eaten fresh, baked, stir-fried, canned, frozen or used as a garnish. There are many varieties so before buying apples decide how you are going to use them.

The best fresh eating apples are MacIntosh, Cortland, Jonathan, Red and Golden Delicious, Winesap, and Ida Reds.

Apple pie is best made from Jonathan, MacIntosh, Rome Beauty, Nonhem Spy, Ida Red, Empire and Winesap. When baking all will work fine. For cooking choose a firm, tart apple and for baking a very firm apple. Bruised apples can be used for jelly, apple butter, applesauce or cider.

When cooking apples use very little water so that more vitamins are retained within the fruit. To enhance the natural aroma, add a little spice or lemon to the apples, cover the pan but do not overcook. Adding sugar also serves to enhance the apples flavor but too much masks the characteristic scent and causes them to be mushy. If you're making a salad, dip the apple slices or rings in lemon, orange or pineapple juice to prevent browning.

Store apples at 32 degrees F. or in the refrigerator to retain freshness and crispness. They ripen 10 times faster at room temperature than when kept chilled. Put them in tightly closed bags to prevent absorption of food odors and to maintain humidity. Apples also give off ethylene gas so do not store near lettuce, celery or broccoli, the gas will cause vegetables to rust. If you're storing apples in your garage, protect them with a blanket if it gets too cold. Apples like it cool but not below freezing. Mealiness in stored apples may denote too long or improper storage.

Since apples can be stored for a long period of time, buy a quantity. Three medium apples (one pound) make one-and-one-half cups of applesauce. Six to eight medium apples makes a nine-inch pie, 46 medium-sized apples is one peck and one bushel will make 16-20 quarts of applesauce.

Everyone has their own favorite apple pie recipe so here are some other ways to add apples to your meals.

Add one half cup grated apples to each two cups of mashed squash, sweet potatoes or parsnips to give them more flavor and flair. This is great served with roast veal, lamb or pork.

A quick low-calorie dessert can be a cored apple microwaved in a little apple cider. Add apple slices to the hot breakfast cereal when microwaving in the morning.

Freezing apples or applesauce is very easy. Select a firm, crisp apple, avoid any with a mealy texture. After washing, peeling and coring, drop into ascorbic acid such as lemon juice to help keep their color. If you want chunky applesauce, peel and cut up the sizes you want to cook, while for smooth sauce, run the cooked apple, skin and core through a sieve (cooking the red skin will make a beautiful pink applesauce). Use sugar sparingly or you'll ruin a good thing. Pie filling ingredients can be mixed with the apples and frozen in amounts used for individual pies.

Michigan produces some of the best apples of course, eat them everyday.

Call number for nutrition information

Call the toll-free Nutrition Hotline of the American Institute for Cancer Research 1-(800) 843-8114 for free, personalized answers to nutrition questions from a registered dietitian. The hotline operates weekdays 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

You can also call the hotline to request a list of free publications to help you eat for good health and lower cancer risk.

The hotline is offered by the Institute as a public service. AICR's registered dietitians will return your call within 48 hours. The Institute focuses on the link between diet, nutrition and cancer. Researchers estimate that 40 to 60 percent of all cancers are linked to our diets.

Ski wear '95: Fur and fun fabrics

It's November already and if you're a certified ski bum, you're probably shivering with anticipation to hit the slopes.

Avid skiers know that looking good on that long powdery run is important. Some long underwear, a pair of jeans and an outdated ski jacket just doesn't cut it.

Top ski wear designers follow the trends on the fashion runways. This year, according to Don Thomas Sporthaus buyer Deb Sigmann, look for clean, clear, rich colors; ultra-sophisticated uses of fabrics, glamorous embellishments; a resurgence of down, feminine silhouettes or youthful snowboard-inspired shapes; and PCR (post consumer recycled) fleece outerwear.

Snow-bound specials

Taking each trend separately, here are some examples of the hottest ski fashions at Don Thomas Sporthaus:

Sizzling Ferrari reds and bright royal blues share the slopes with earthy cactus, sage and moss hues. Spyder designs their St. Moritz men's jacket in electric blue with vivid yellow-gold accents and decorative metal snap covers ($538). Bogner's one-piece red suit is embroidered with golden lions ($778).

Unusual and sophisticated use of fabric is evident in Post Card's crinkled nylon one-piece suit with tooled leather belt ($770) and their quilted jackets with mink collars ($638). This exclusive line also offers a melange stretch wool pant in brown tones to coordinate with the light bronze jackets ($196). Stefan Kaolin's two-tone blue jacket features both shiny and matte nylons with silvery highlights ($475).

Details and embellishments are key to this year's refined looks. Intricate embroideries and appliques are the hallmark of the Bogner line. Vampire, another Don Thomas exclusive, offers striking black vests and jackets dotted with embroidered snowflakes and trimmed with fox and mink collars ($250-$820).

"Women are really going for fur this year," says Sigmann. And men's fashions are embellished with heavy topstitching, leather trims, and bone buttons.

Practical points

Skea combines unusual fabrication and ornamentation in its machine washable and ski-able ultrasuede jackets with faux fur collars. They feature Native American Indian fan embroidery and beads.

Donna Karan's baffled down vests are the catalyst for down's return to the marketplace. Streetwear often inspires ski wear and vice versa. Searle Tech, for instance, debuted its pearlized rubber, lacquered nylon and microfil jackets this fall, combining the practicality of ski wear with urban chic ($350) at Saks Fifth Avenue, the Somerset Collection, Troy.

The body-hugging silhouette is seen in Nils' long, lean suit with stretchy bottom and belted red top ($475). Patagonia is the fleece expert. Look for a myriad of styles and colors to layer as you like.

"Hats this season are fun and funky," says Sigmann. "Our newest glove is an extremely lightweight microfiber by Grandoe with high loft insulation." It's too new to guarantee its warmth, but worth a try ($50).

Jim Desautels, manager of Bavarian Village in Birmingham echoes these trends and adds his own thoughts.

Desautels sees lots of dark earth tones with bright accents and multicolored jackets, especially red, black and yellow. Layering is more important then ever, he says. Fleece and medium-weight outer coats are the rage. Fashionable component gloves with zip-in and zip-out linings are more convenient than buying separate gloves and liners.

Linda Bachrack welcomes ideas and merchandise to feature in this column. Just fax information to (810) 644-1314, or call her at (313) 953-2047, mailbox 1889.

Kitchen Glamor serves the cook in style

The modern "nesting" phenomenon has helped the Kitchen Glamor stores grow and expand. After 45 years in business, 10 new stores are on the drawing board.

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN
STAFF WRITER

Home cooking is regaining its popularity — just ask Chris and Toula Patsalis who bought Kitchen Glamor 20 years ago when it was just a small cake decorating shop in Redford.

By 1977, the husband-and-wife-retail-team had expanded the business to the Rochester-area, opening a fully-stocked cooking store at Great Oaks Mall. Today those two stores, plus two more in West Bloomfield and Novi, are very profitable despite competition from out-of-state based kitchen stores. In fact the business, selling quality cooking and baking equipment, averages 10-20 percent growth each year.

What's their secret ingredient? Kitchen Glamor is a family affair. Each member handles specific aspects of the operation: Toula directs all advertising campaigns and the cooking school, Chris oversees financial matters, son Harry, who joined the business 16 years ago as buyer, manages the goal — opening 10 new stores by the year 2000.

"The kitchen has once again become the center of the home," said Toula of Bloomfield Hills. "And 1995 has been our best year yet. When you're in the kitchen, you need good equipment. We not only have knowledgeable personnel, but we'll match any advertised price out there."

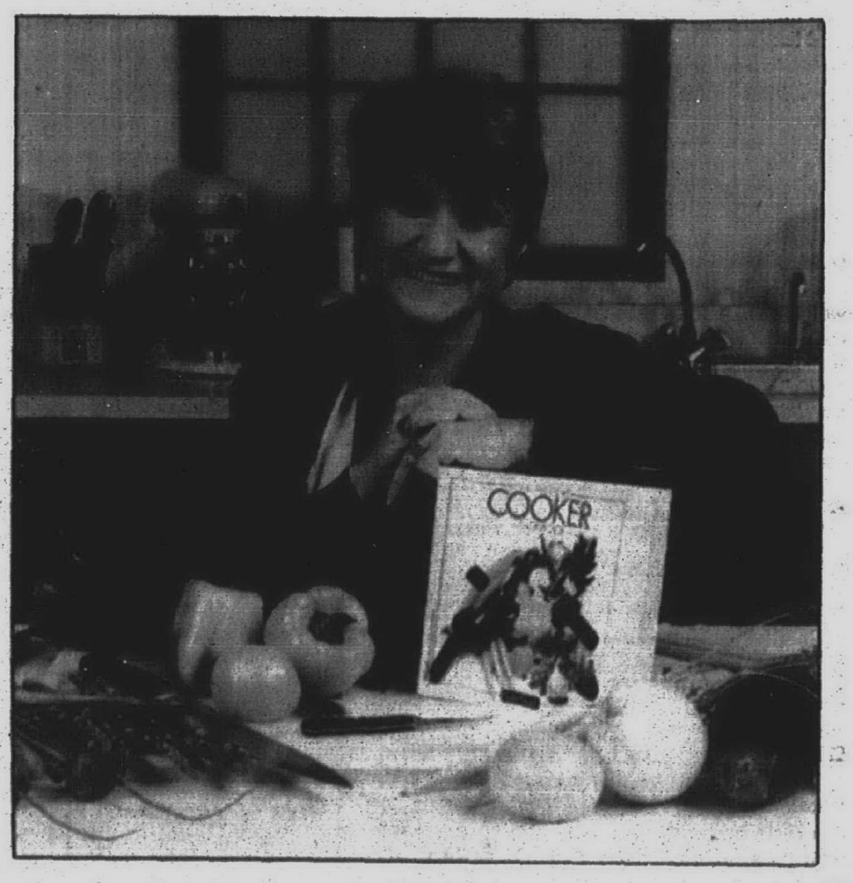

To celebrate their 45th year in business, the Patsalises are offering holiday shoppers, prices "better than we've ever had," Chris added.

Twice a year, the company puts out a 16-page full color catalog that lets Kitchen Glamor customers know their best prices on bread makers, pasta machines, food processors, garlic peelers, and more than 18,000 other items.

Today's fast-paced lifestyles probably have a lot to do with the Patsalis' success. The family keeps up-to-date on the latest living trends by reading everything from the Wall Street Journal to Home World Business magazine.

"From our trade journals we're finding more people are entertaining at home," said Toula. "People are working so many hours that they're nesting and spending more time at home. Experts expect this trend to last into the next century."

■ NORDSTROM EVENT

Children from metro Detroit met to paint 219 tiles that will be used to floor the Children's Department at the Nordstrom's Department Store, opening Aug. 16, 1996 at the Somerset North shopping complex in Troy.

Under the direction of artist Charles Bigger, the kids designed and painted their favorite animals in a palette of vibrant colors. The event raised more than $6,500 to help the conservation, recreation and education programs of the Detroit Zoological Society.

With the opening of the Troy store, Nordstrom will operate 81 stores in 17 states. Sales in 1994 were $3.9 billion.

■ OAKLAND MALL ADDITIONS

Three new shops have opened at the Oakland Mall in Troy, these include: Via Roma (complete line of designer men's wear) Athlete's Foot (specializing in national brands of footwear) and Petite Sophisticates.

■ GIFT SHOWROOM

For the first time, Hudson's opened a Corporate Gifts showroom on the lower level of the Oakland Mall store in Troy. A merchandise specialist will staff the exhibit Monday-Friday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Appointments may be made by calling (810) 597-2260.

■ SPA OPENS TO MEN

Margot's Euro Spa (Woodward two blocks north of Maple in Birmingham) created a new wing to cater specifically to men. There will also be special early morning and late evening appointment times to accommodate busy schedules. Margot's offers pedicures, manicures, full body massages, complete facials, haircuts, skin and scalp treatments. For more information call (810) 642-3770.

■ NEW SHOE SHOPS

Lakeside in Sterling Heights welcomes Bootleggers and Aldo to its lineup of footwear stores. Bootleggers features Western-style boots and accessories. Quebec-based Aldo sells shoes from Italy and Spain for men and women.

■ CUSTOMER SERVICE

Wonderland Mall in Livonia now has two electronic vehicles available free of charge, to customers who need mobility assistance while shopping. The vehicles are stored at the Information Booth. Inquiries are welcome at (313) 522-4100.

■ SCOTT SCUPTRINE REMODELS

The Troy and Novi stores of Scott Scuptrine have been redesigned to better showcase the furniture collections. The Troy store also unveils a new Studio of Interior Design. According to company president Gary VanElslander, three customer concerns were addressed when remodeling: clustering specific collections with lifestyle categories, speeding delivery of mainstream products and providing more professional design services.

■ GORMANS PROMOTION

Gorman's Furniture launched a promotion with Northwest Airlines that awards WorldPerks MilesABove mileage certificates to customers making a purchase. For each dollar a customer spends, Gorman's will double the amount in WorldPerks mileage awarded. Shoppers who don't have a Northwest WorldPerks card, can sign up on the spot at any of Gorman's four stores, two in Southfield, in Novi and Troy.

■ GALLERY DEBUTS

Artquest Gallery, showcasing contemporary objects of art and designs for living, is open at 185 N. Woodward in Birmingham. The gallery will be open Tuesday through Saturday. Owner MaryLou Chinn welcomes inquires at (810) 540-2484.

■ DE LA RENTA AT SAKS

The elegant, refined clothing collection for men by Oscar de la Renta is available at Saks Fifth Avenue, exclusively at the Somerset Collection store. The line has many details combined with intricately woven patterns and textures. The jackets have a softer, tailored edge — new, but not too cutting edge.

■ GOLFER'S COLLECTION

The Payne Stewart Collection, a golf apparel line is available at Hudson's. The collection by Pincus Brothers-Maxwell features shirts, pants, shorts, sportcoats, dress shirts, argyle socks, and of course, Stewart's signature knickers. Prices range from $36-$200.

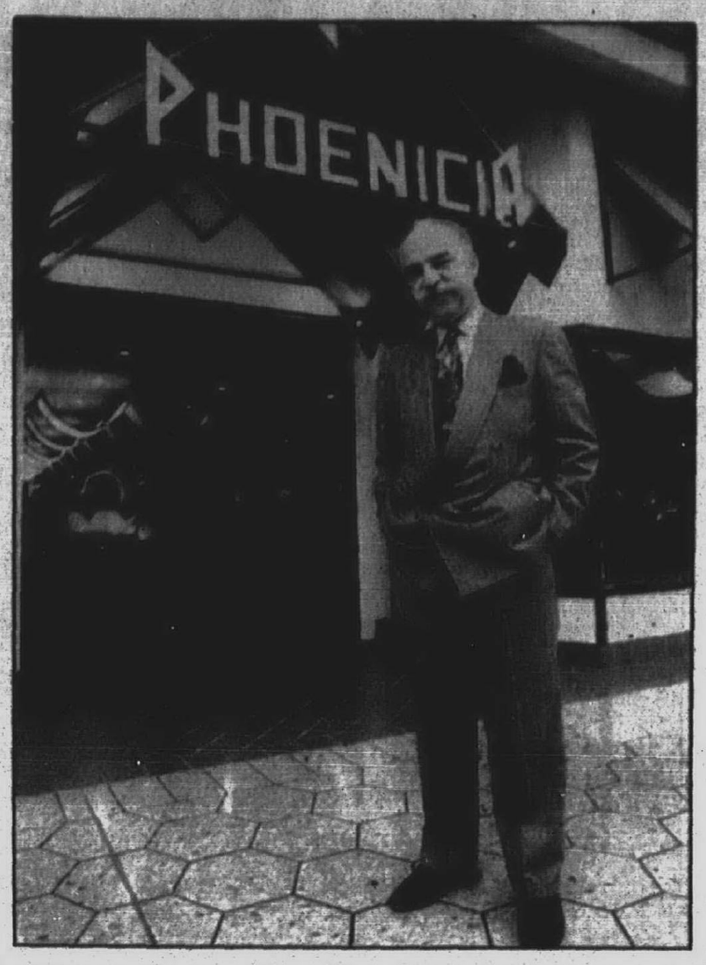

■ BEAD STORE PREMIERS

The World Bead Company, featuring component jewelry from around the globe for make-your-own purposes, opened a 600-square foot store at Twelve Oaks in Novi. The store will serve as a prototype for future locations.

■ ANTIQUES MALL DEBUTS

Knightsbridge Antiques Mall is open on Seven Mile, west of I-275 in Northville. More than 100 dealers have wares on display, making the shopping stop "the biggest antique center in southeast Michigan," according to owners Bruce and Linda McKenzie. The couple has room for up to 300 dealers. The mall is open seven days a week from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Wednesdays until 8 p.m. For more details call (810) 344-7200.

Restaurant Number Two

Middle east menu: Phoeniica of Birmingham, one of the area's oldest and most popular Lebanese restaurants, gets a sister, at Fairlane Town Center in Dearborn. Owner Sameer Eid said the 250-seat mall restaurant will offer entertainment, music and dancing. There is a 40-seat room for private parties. Seven seascapes are painted on the windows.

Where can I find?

Several readers called with tips on where Joanne McKune of Farmington Hills could find her beloved card game "Authors."

Peggy Nelson said she found the game at The Livonia Civic Center Library gift shop, 1-313-421-7238, at Five Mile and Farmington.

Sally Dubry of Canton and Marilyn Burkhardt of Plymouth said the game could be ordered from U.S. Games Systems Inc. in Stamford, CT. To place an order call 1-800-544-2637 or 1-203-353-8400.

New Challenges

We've fallen behind on readers' requests for hard-to-find items, so here are a bunch for your consideration:

■ "For my wedding, 24 years ago, I received a pair of crystal salt and pepper shakers. The shakers had screw-on crystal tops. One of the tops has been broken. I have no idea where to start looking for a replacement. Do any readers have suggestions?" — Martha Walton of Plymouth.

■ "I saw "pants creasers" in a catalog, but was wondering where to buy them locally? These are metal frames. Also, I'm looking for a small metal garbage can with a tight-fitting lid to store bird seed outside. Squirrels eat through the plastic ones."— W. Altese of Plymouth.

■ "I've been looking for this item for years without success . . . could your readers help? I have a laundry chute from a first floor bath to the basement. I need a laundry bag that attaches to the end of the chute. It must be large and have a zipper on the bottom. Mine is 26 years old and I've repaired it a dozen times." — Patricia Todd of Garden City.

■ "I'm in need of a cook's catalog or local retail shop that sells specialty smoked meats." — Karen McLand, Birmingham.

If any shopper knows where to get any of these very hard-to-find items, please give Malls & Mainstreets a call at (810) 901-2567. You can fax an answer to (810) 644-1314.

To prepare for the future, Kitchen Glamor is computerizing because "efficiency is key to competing in the '90s and beyond."

"We're going to be able to keep track of point of sales and our stock. Right now, keeping track of our stock, keeps us away from our customers," said Chris.

Chris and Toula were raised in Greek homes, Chris remembers meals made from scratch with fresh ingredients. Both know first hand, the kitchen is the heart of the home. Toula can still smell and taste the heavenly pastries her father used to bring home from his job as the Whittier Hotel's catering manager.

An accomplished cook, Toula studied at the Cordon Bleu in England with Julia Child, and also with Jacques Pipen, James Beard, Marcelle Hazen and Giuliano Bugiali. She directs the cooking school at Kitchen Glamor, frequently featuring Master Chefs like Milos Cihelka, Ed Janos and Brian Polcyn. Her aim is hassle-free creative cooking. Students learn by demonstration and actual hands-on experience to stir up tasty sauces and make fresh pasta in 15 minutes.

"Cooking classes are a big part of our business," she said "Over the years we've had chefs like Julia Child and James Beard as instructors. We want to make cooking a pleasant experience. If people don't learn the basics and how to utilitze their time properly, cooking can be a chore."

Americans are striving for healthier lifestyles and that's why nonstick cookware, eliminating the need for oils, is a popular item at Kitchen Glamor. Sales of gadgets like garlic presses and vegetable peelers, along with health-oriented cookbooks, have also been growing steadily.

Another part of the stay-at-home trend, is the return to time-tested cooking methods such as the pressure cooker. Toula has written a book on the subject. Recipes from Bouillabaisse to Lemon Cheesecake and Lobster Fricasee in Puff Pastry Shells make the mouth water just turning the pages. Published in 1994, "The Pressure Cooker Cookbook," is just one of more than 1200 titles in stock.

"Pressure cooking is big in Europe. Introduced in 1939, it cooks without fat and retains nutrients and colors. It takes longer to prepare your ingredients then cook them, because pressure cooking decreases cooking time by up to 70 percent. And the new pressure cookers are safe," she said.

Cook's toys like high-tech machines and gadgets are bringing more men into the kitchen. They will continue to be best sellers as Kitchen Glamor guarantees satisfaction by testing as many as 10 brands at a time to ensure a quality product on the shelf.

Among these, what's going to be hot this holiday season?

"People are going to be practical this year," Chris insisted. "Our best sellers are non-stick cookware, bread machines, cappuccino/expresso makers, coffee grinders and cutlery."

Retail Realities

Long before sugar was discovered, the Egyptians made candy by blending honey with figs, dates, nuts and spices. The first sugar was processed from the juice of sugarcane in India or Persia during the 4th Century A.D.

Candy was not manufactured on a large scale until the 14th Century when Venetians turned imported sugar into sweet confections. The mechanization of the Industrial Revolution in the 19th Century paved the way for the mass production of candy.

The earliest sweets were the Tootsie Rolls in 1896, and Life Savers in 1913.

Pick up some Michigan apples and start cooking

Here are some "appl-icious' recipes from the Mcihgian Apple Commission.

APPLE CRUMB COFFEECAKE

- 1 ¼ cups sugar, divided
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- ½ teaspoon cinnamon
- ¼ teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 tablespoon light corn syrup
- 2 cups chopped, peeled Michigan apples
- ¼ cup dried currants
- 2½ cups all-purpose flour
- ¾ cup margarine
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon baking powder
- ½ teaspoon baking soda
- 1 egg
- ¾ cup buttermilk
- Vegetable cooking spray

In 2-quart saucepan, combine ¼ cup of the sugar, cornstarch, cinnamon and nutmeg. Add corn syrup, apples and currants. Cook over medium heat, stirring frequently, until mixture thickens and begins to boil. Remove from heat and cool slightly.

In large mixing bowl, combine flour and remaining ¾ cup sugar. Using pastry blender, cut in margarine until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Remove ½ cup and set aside for topping. To remaining mixture, stir in salt, baking powder and soda.

Mix together egg and buttermilk. Add to dry ingredients, stirring only until combined. Spread ⅓ batter over bottom of round 9-inch cake pan coated with cooking spray. Spread ⅓ of apple mixture over batter. Dot remaining batter and apple mixture over top, spreading evenly. Sprinkle with reserved crumb topping mixture.

Bake in 350 degree F oven about 45 minutes or until golden and wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool slightly before cutting into wedges. Yield 8 servings.

Variation: Use 21-ounce can apple pie filling in place of fresh apple, the ⅓ cup sugar, cornstarch and corn syrup. Stir cinnamon, nutmeg and currants into Apple Pie filling before spreading over batter. Place cake pan on baking sheet before putting in oven. Increase baking time to 60 minutes.

APPLE-BERRY SALAD

- ⅓ cup sugar
- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- 1½ cups Michigan apple cider or Michigan apple juice, divided
- 1 tablespoon Cinnamon Imperial candies
- ¾ cup unsweetened Michigan applesauce
- 1½ cups diced, unpeeled red Michigan apples
- 1 cup halved green seedless grapes

In large mixing bowl, combine sugar and gelatin. Set aside.

Heat 1 cup of the apple cider and cinnamon candies, stirring frequently, until mixture boils. Remove from heat and continue stirring, if necessary to dissolve candies. Add hot mixture to gelatin. Stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add remaining ⅓ cup apple cider and applesauce. Chill until mixture starts to set and is syrupy. Stir in apples and blueberries. Pour into serving dish or mold. Chill until firm, about 3 hours. Yield 8 servings.

APPLE-CHEDDAR BISCUITS

- 1 package active dry yeast
- ¼ cup warm water
- 3½ cups all-purpose flour
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 4 teaspoons baking powder
- ¼ teaspoon baking soda
- 1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
- ¾ cup buttermilk
- ¼ cup vegetable oil
- 1½ cups shredded, unpeeled Michigan apples
- 1 teaspoon milk
- 2 teaspoons sesame seeds
- Vegetable cooking spray

Combine yeast and water. Let stand 5 minutes.

In large mixing bowl, combine flour, sugar, salt, baking powder and soda. Stir in cheese. Set aside.

Thoroughly combine buttermilk, oil, apples and yeast mixture. Add to flour mixture, mixing only until combined. Turn out on lightly floured surface and knead about 10 times. Pat dough to ¾-inch thickness.

Using 2¼-inch round cutter, cut into biscuits. Place on baking sheet coated with cooking spray, about ½-inch apart. Brush lightly with milk and sprinkle with sesame seeds. Let rise in warm place about 1 hour or until double.

Bake in 425 degree F oven about 12 minutes or until golden. Serve hot. Yield 18 biscuits.

Try torta filled with vegetables, cheeses

AP — Zucchini, mushrooms, onion and fresh spinach leaves are among the vegetables that fill classic California torta.

The vegetables are layered with Monterey Jack and mozzarella cheeses and cooked crab meat. Cut into wedges and serve warm, or let cool to room temperature.

CLASSIC CALIFORNIA TORTA

Preparation time: 35 minutes
Cooking time: 50 minutes

- 2 loaves frozen bread dough, thawed
- 1 tablespoon chopped fresh thyme (1 teaspoon if dried)
- 1 medium red onion, chopped
- 1 clove garlic, peeled and minced
- 3 cups sliced mushrooms
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 3 tablespoons olive oil
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh dillweed
- 4 zucchini, sliced
- ½ bunch fresh spinach leaves, washed and dried
- ⅔ cup shredded Monterey Jack cheese
- ⅔ cup shredded mozzarella cheese
- 8 ounces crab meat, cooked and flaked

Heat oven to 375 degrees F.

Combine bread dough and let rise until doubled.

On a floured surface, sprinkle with thyme and roll out to a 20-inch circle. Transfer to a greased, 10-inch springform pan, letting the edges drape over the sides.

Saute onion, garlic, mushrooms and seasonings in 2 tablespoons of the olive oil until tender, about 5 minutes. Stir in dillweed and set aside.

Saute zucchini in remaining oil until tender.

Layer half mushroom mixture, half zucchini, half spinach leaves, half cheeses and half crab meat into the dough-lined pan; repeat. Bring dough together over top, leaving a small vent for steam to escape; brush lightly with oil or beaten egg.

Bake in a 375-degree F oven for 50 minutes, until golden brown and crusty. Cut into wedges and serve while still warm, or let cool to room temperature. Makes 10 servings.

PROBING FOR DEEP POCKETS
The American Academy of Periodontists began promoting the periodontal screening and recording (PSR) test in 1992 as a means of detecting periodontal (gum) disease. The painless procedure only takes a few minutes and can be incorporated into a routine oral examination. It involves the use of a calibrated instrument to measure the predetermined depth, along with bleeding and other factors, is indicative of gum disease. If detected early, periodontal disease can nearly always be cured with fluoride and antibiotic therapy. If an advanced form of disease (periodontitis) is uncovered, oral surgery may be required to reattach the gums to the teeth. By utilizing the PSR test, dentists hope to catch gum disease in its earlier, more easily treatable stages.

PLYMOUTH SPORTS SCENE

College standouts

Siena Heights women's soccer team completed their regular season in style, winning two matches and tying a third.

In the Saints' 4-0 victory over Adrian, senior midfielder Danielle Meyka, from Plymouth Canton, scored a goal. The other three were netted by Mandy Adams.

Siena Heights, 11-7-2 overall, received an automatic berth in the NAIA Great Lakes Regional Tournament based on their first-place finish in the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference. Four teams from the first round of the playoffs advance to the regional tournament championship this weekend.

Michigan State's women's soccer team closed out its season with a win and a loss on its final weekend. The Spartans beat Butler 2-1 Oct. 27 before losing 2-1 to Indiana Oct. 29.

In the win over Butler, junior Leah Hutko (from Plymouth Canton) opened the scoring for MSU, with an assist going to Jen Moore. It was Hutko's fourth goal of the season; she has 12 points, fifth among the Spartans.

MSU, 8-7-3 overall and 1-3-3 in the Big Ten, traveled to Bloomington, Ind. for the conference tournament last weekend. The Spartans were seeded seventh.

Canton soccer meeting

The soccer season isn't even over for the boys, but Plymouth Canton coach Don Smith has scheduled an organizational meeting for the Canton girls team.

Those interested in playing for the Chiefs should attend the meeting, which will be at 4 p.m. Thursday in the Phase III gym.

Free Whalers tickets

Tickets to see Whalers hockey games at The Palace of Auburn Hills are available to interested groups.

And at no charge.

Available are tickets for Saturday's 3:30 p.m. game against the Kitchener Rangers. Also available are tickets to the Whalers' 7 p.m. Thanksgiving Day game against the Petersborough Petes.

The Whalers play in the Ontario Hockey League, which features 16-to-20 year olds.

Any groups interested in these free tickets may call Dr. McCormack at 459-4458. He has up to 250 tickets available to nine Whalers games.

Madonna baseball

Those interested in helping the Madonna University baseball team now have their own club. The Bullpen Club is forming; its goal, to support and help finance the team's two spring trips and aid in the upkeep of Madonna Park.

For a minimum $100 donation, boosters will receive a bi-weekly newsletter (January through June); a Madonna University t-shirt; a media guide; a ticket to the annual baseball banquet; a Crusader special (hot dog, chips, drink) at all home games; unlimited coffee at all home games; official Bullpen Club membership card; and the baseball staff's undying gratitude.

All proceeds go to offset the operating costs of the Madonna baseball program and renovation of the field and facilities. Checks should be made payable to Madonna University.

U-DM tickets

Single game tickets for the University of Detroit Mercy men's basketball team are now on sale. The 14-game home slate will be split between Cobo Arena (six games) and Calihan Hall.

Tickets for games at Cobo, including the opener against Long Beach State and Wayne State, are $10 for Tier A and $7 for Tier B (reserved seats), and $5 for general admission. Tickets for the Michigan game at Cobo $12, $9 and $7, respectively; they go on sale Nov. 15.

Tickets for games at Calihan Hall are $10 reserved and $7 general admission.

All tickets are available at the Calihan Hall ticket office, Joe Louis Arena box office, and Ticketmaster outlets. Tickets can be charged by phone by calling (313) 993-1700 or (810) 645-6666. For further information, call (313) 993-1700.

Youth baseball tryouts

Tryouts for the Michigan Bulls (formerly the Michigan Merchants) for 13-14 year-olds will be held during the month of November.

The team is based in the Farmington area.

For more information, call Cris Hansen at (313) 724-0234 or Gary Pierson at (313) 561-8878.

Anyone interested in submitting items to Sports Scene may send them to sports editor C.J. Risak, 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia, MI, 48150, or may FAX them to (313) 591-7279.

Salem jolts Stevenson, 1-0

■ Most people figure the further a team goes in a state tournament, the tougher the competition gets. But when Salem met Stevenson in the regional soccer final Saturday, it seemed almost certain the winner would advance to the Class A final.

One break.

That's all it took on a day when frigid temperatures, blustery winds and occasional snow took their toll on two talented teams forced to compete in shorts.

That break went to Plymouth Salem. The Rocks countered quickly on a mishit ball by a Livonia Stevenson defender to score early in Saturday's Class A regional soccer final, hosted by Salem.

Which is all they needed, thanks to a strong defensive effort that shut down the Spartans in lifting Salem to a 1-0 triumph.

The win puts the Rocks in the state quarterfinals opposite Ann Arbor Pioneer Tuesday. The game is scheduled to be played at Northville HS.

Stevenson, ranked second in the state, finishes its season at 18-1-2. Salem improves to 20-3 — the win giving outgoing coach Ken Johnson (he's retiring at the end of the season) his 200th career victory.

It certainly couldn't have come at a better time, nor against a more formidable opponent. The low temperature and high crosswind was certain to sap both teams and gradually wear them down, making an early goal imperative.

"It was unbelievably important," said Stevenson coach Walt Barrett. "It set the tone."

Marked man: Stevenson's Steve Williford (right) was effectively shadowed all game long by Salem's Chris Jaskolski.

Scoring first, however, was more of a necessity for Salem. The Rocks had lost three straight to Stevenson (twice in '94), the last a 3-0 setback earlier this season.

"We planned it that way," said Salem's Johnson, his team normally slow in starting. "It's the only way to beat Stevenson — move the ball side to side, swinging it and swinging it back, instead of taking it at them and attacking quickly down the wings."

Rocks prove too much for Raiders in rout

■ BASKETBALL

North Farmington still isn't sure what hit it — a runaway truck or Plymouth Salem's girls basketball team.

Could have been either, because once they get into high gear both are very tough to stop.

The Raiders stunned the Rocks with a long-range shooting display in the opening period, which ended in a 10-10 tie. But that was the last quarter the Rocks registered less than 19 points as coach Fred Thomann's team gathered momentum like a truck down a two-mile downgrade in cruising to a 75-39 victory in its opening game of the Western Lakes Activities Association tournament Thursday at Salem.

"They hit a couple of threes in the first quarter," Thomann said. "They were up 8-4 at one point. The second quarter (22-11) was more a process of us just wearing them down.

"We had seven players who scored. It was a nice team effort, a nice team victory."

The second half was more lopsided than the second quarter. The Rocks outscored North 19-9 in the third period and 24-9 in the fourth.

Sophomore Amanda Abraham was Salem's top scorer with 12 points. She also contributed four rebounds and four steals plus three assists.

Freshman Andrea Pruett scored 11 points and

Canton cuts Warriors down in playoff opener

By C.J. Risak

It's that time of the season. Preliminaries are over. From this point forward, every girls basketball game played by Plymouth Canton's team will mean something special.

The Chiefs appeared ready, willing, able and eager to accept that challenge in Thursday's opening round of the Western Lakes Activities Association playoffs. Seeded second (to regular-season champion and fifth-ranked Walled Lake Central), Canton started its playoff run at home against Walled Lake Western.

Granted, the game wasn't expected to be especially difficult for the Chiefs. They had defeated Western by 30 points five weeks earlier. Still, anything can happen in the playoffs, and the Warriors had won five of their previous 11 games.

Whatever Western had used to gain a seventh seed was lacking Thursday. With surgical precision Canton sliced through the Warriors, putting them under an almost insurmountable deficit by the end of the opening quarter, then simply made certain they never gained ground.

The final score, 76-35, in this instance accurately described the lopsidedness of the game. Western scored the game's second basket (Gina Brooke got it) a minute-and-a-half into the first quarter; after that, it was all Canton.

The Chiefs scored 21 unanswered points before Jennifer Tomoff hit a desperation shot at the buzzer for the Warriors' second basket, making it 23-4 at the end of one.

"They are a very, very good, strong team," said Western coach Marv Allen, his team now 5-12. "They have excellent movement — they're constantly moving.

"That's where we'd like to be a couple of years from now."

And just where are the 15-3 Chiefs now? In the WLAA's tournament semifinal, opposite third-seeded Plymouth Salem, which defeated North Farmington 75-39 Thursday. The two rivals meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday at Canton, with the winner advancing to the conference final Friday at Livonia Churchill.

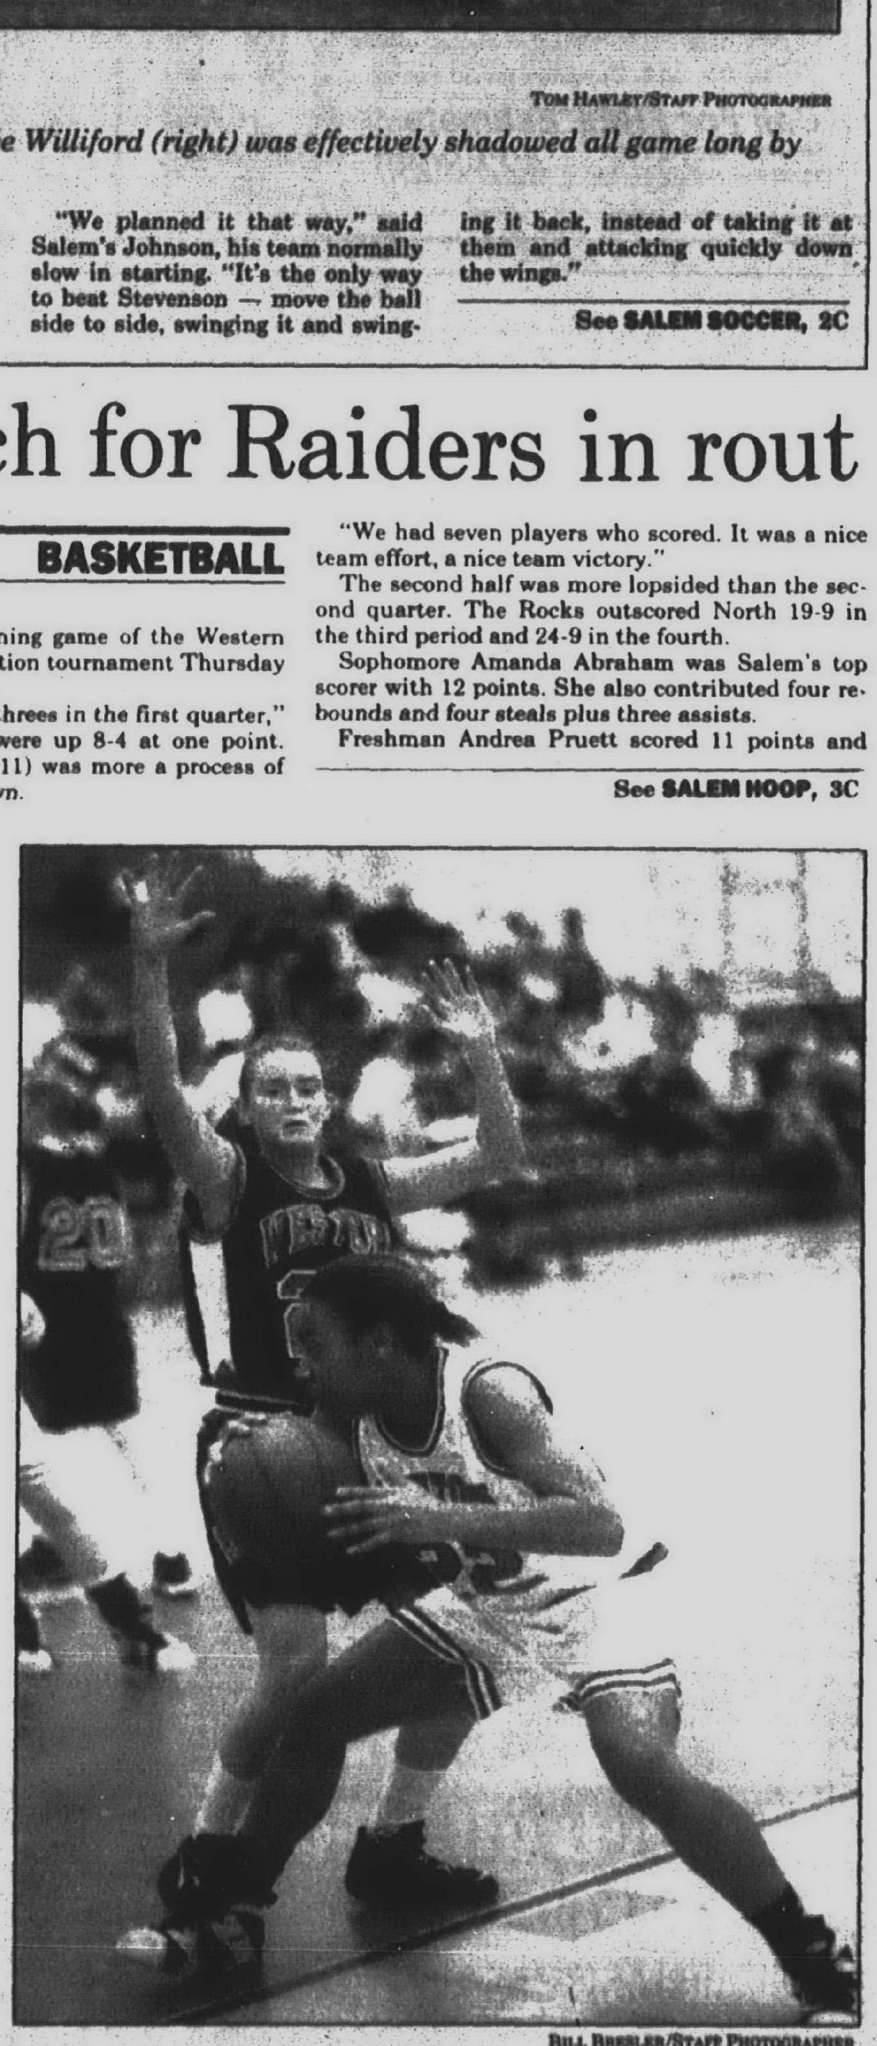

"We played them well early," said Canton coach Bob Blohm in what must classify as a major understatement. "We moved the ball real well, we defended real good, and we've been rebounding the ball better lately."

If the score wasn't proof enough: Canton was 11-of-17 from the floor in the opening quarter (64.7 percent) and was 33-of-65 for the game (50.2 percent); the Chiefs owned a 42-17 rebounding advantage; 26 of those rebounds were offensive.

Also, four Chiefs reached double figures in scoring, with Sarah Warnke's 20 points (and 13 rebounds) leading, while no one among the Warriors scored more than eight. And Canton outscored Western in every quarter.

The latter offers further evidence that Blohm's message on the necessity of focused intensity, particularly at

CC avoids major upset with goal-line stop of Spartans

BY BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

■ PLAYOFFS

Redford Catholic Central is still alive in the state football playoffs, but not without some irregular heartbeats Saturday courtesy of a gallant Livonia Stevenson team.

The Shamrocks, rated the No. 1 team in Michigan and No. 22 nationally in USA Today, advanced to the Class AA tournament with a pulsating 14-6 win over the underdog Spartans.

CC, now 10-0 overall, will square off against defending state champ Troy (9-1) for the Region II championship. The game is tentatively set for 1:30 p.m. this Saturday at Pontiac's Wisner Stadium.

The Shamrocks averted one of the greatest upsets in Observerland history after stopping Stevenson at the Spartans' 1-yard line early in the fourth quarter.

Leading 7-6, CC then marched 92 yards in 21 plays to seal the win, capped by Greg Call's 5-yard touchdown run on fourth down with only 35 seconds to play.

Stevenson, forced to burn all three timeouts during the 8:27 drive, was not through. Quarterback Dean Bacheller hit Gade Clark out of the backfield for 57 yard gain down to the CC 23.

Bacheller followed by hurling a pass to the end zone for wide receiver Jeff Backus, who had the ball momentarily, but couldn't hang on.

The clock then ran out with Bacheller scrambling to get out of bounds near the CC 22.

"This was a great state playoff game," CC coach Tom Mach said. "It was a terrific, hard-hitting game by both teams. It could have gone either way.

"We did a terrific job stopping Stevenson inside the 10 and I was proud of the way our kids drove the ball on the final drive."

The key play of the game occurred with the Spartans facing a second-and-goal at the CC 1 with just over nine minutes remaining.

Bacheller dropped back to pass, but was sacked for a 7-yard loss by CC tackles Dan Dominguez and Rick Deptula.

Backus, who scored on a nifty 79-yard catch and run with 11:12 left in the third quarter to put the Spartans back in it, appeared to have the go-ahead TD grab on third down, but officials ruled he did not have possession long enough.

The Spartans, who missed the extra point to tie it earlier after Backus' TD catch, shunted a field goal attempt. They elected to try for score on fourth down, but Bacheller's pass, intended again for Backus, was broken up.

"We got hot with the passing game and we were going to ride that," Stevenson coach Tim Gabel said. "We had three shots from the 10 and in. I felt like we could catch one of those passes. We wanted to throw a little dink pass in there, but they (CC) had great coverage.

"Then CC got the ball and jammed it down our throats. They showed what kind of team they are."

Call, CC's junior quarterback, hit a big fourth-down pass to 6-foot-7, 250-pound tight end Eric Gilbo for 8 yards to keep the drive going.

CC's 6-foot, 230-pound senior fullback John Spolsky, was also instrumental in the TD-clinching drive. He rushed nine times for 51 yards and wound up with a hard-earned 109 in 24 carries.

The Spartans had only one major breakdown defensively, but it cost them dearly.

Call, a 6-1, 185-pound junior, rolled out to his right and found Steve Mondry wide open in the flat. The TD play covered 61 yards, giving CC a 7-0 with lead with 4:44 to go in the opening quarter (following Eron Kosmowski's extra point.)

"We were confused on the (Mondry) touchdown," Gabel said. "It was a busted coverage, but we learned a lot from that play."

Stevenson's defense, which limited CC to less than three yards per carry (49 for 177), got a break just before the first half ended when Kosmowski's 31-yard field goal attempt sailed wide after the Shamrocks drove to the Stevenson 13.

CC outgained the Spartans 283 to 207 in total yardage. The Shamrocks also had 12 first downs to Stevenson's five.

Schoolcraft races to a 2nd-place finish at regional

Windy conditions could not slow down Schoolcraft College at the NJCAA Region 12 Cross Country Championships Oct. 27 at Waverly Golf Course in Lansing.

The Lady Ocelots raced to a second place finish, edging out Lansing CC. SC now advances to the NJCAA Finals Saturday in Alfred, N.Y.

Macomb finished first at the regional with 48 points, held in high winds and 65-degree temperatures. SC totaled 67, just ahead of Lansing (72). Cuyahoga was fourth (80), followed by Vincennes (101), Delta (125), Columbus State (165), Southwestern Michigan (170) and Oakland CC (no team score).

SC put three runners among the top 10 finishers, making them All-American. Dana Goba was fifth on the five-kilometer course in 20:19. Stacy Moore was sixth (20:27) and Tara Teran was 10th (20:40).

Nicole Falk finished 24th (22:11) and Christine Spica placed 33rd (23:27).

"The girls ran an excellent race and I couldn't be more proud of them," said SC coach Laura Loggins.

It was a strong performance for the first-year program and got the team well-prepared for the upcoming NJCAA Finals. Lansing is the defending NJCAA champion. Macomb placed third. Loggins feels confident her team can also place in the top five.

A week prior to the regional meet, the Lady Ocelots ran at the Eastern Michigan University Classic in Ypsilanti. There were no team scores kept, but several SC runners showed marked improvement.

Spica led in that regard. Her previous best over that distance had been 24:18; at EMU, she ran a 23:08, in spite of the wet and windy weather.

Moore placed highest for SC, finishing 30th (20:45). Goba was 33rd (20:53), with Teran 37th (21:09), Falk 58th (23:04) and Spica 59th.

Runner-up: In its first year, Schoolcraft's cross country team has proven itself by finishing second in the region coached by Laura Loggins (bottom row, center).

Salem soccer

Johnson and his staff, son Randy and Dave Mashni, had hoped to catch Stevenson off-guard. The tactic appeared to work; Salem got several good scoring chances early.

But the game's only goal was nothing more than a misplayed clearing attempt by a Spartan defender. Instead of knocking the ball forward into Salem's end of the field, he spiralled it sideways.

Drew Drummond broke in on it and played the mistake, knocking it into Stevenson's end for a one-on-one with keeper Jim Grewe. Drummond won the showdown, rolling the ball in just 12:19 into the match.

Stevenson didn't get the number of scoring chances in the first half that Salem did — the three best all ended on the foot of Jeff Urbats; twice he shot wide, a third time high — but the Spartans got plenty in the second.

Over the last 30 minutes of the match, they pressured constantly as Salem tried to adjust, dropping midfielder Ronny Mashni back to defense. The ball got inside the Salem box several times, but keeper Brian Bacyinski had few real challenges, and he was equal to them.

The Rocks' defense did the rest: Matt Hucal, Chris Curry, Chris Jaskolski, Josh Fair and Scott Loewe were able to clear dangerous balls before the Spartans could launch a good shot.

"We played hard," said Barrett. "We just didn't get any (goals). And you've got to score in this game.

"We couldn't finish today. The last time we played Salem, we finished inside the 20 and they didn't.

"It was unfortunate our whole season came down to one or two plays."

Johnson wouldn't disagree, particularly against an opponent like Stevenson. "I knew today's game was as good as a state final," he said. "In big games, you need a bit of luck."

The Rocks had more than good fortune on their side. After the final horn, a half-dozen Spartans sprawled on the frozen turf in disbelief, shocked their season was over.

But it was a win the Rocks richly deserved.

Super Bowl was host to a classic 'Classic'

TEN-PIN ALLEY

AL HARRISON

They came, they bowled, they put on a really great show for those bowling fans who went to Super Bowl in Canton to see the world's best women bowlers compete in the $75,000 Lady Ebonite Classic.

Those fans who did not get to the actual lanes could view the same event on ESPN television Thursday late-night viewing. Most of the time when these LPBT events take place, they are many miles apart, but this time our local shooters took their skills to the Pro Tour as there are basically no travel expenses which would hold back some competitors.

The metro Detroit area was well-represented, including the Observer & Eccentric communities with the likes of Tamika Glenn of Farmington Hills, Sandy Nowlen of Garden City, Cheryl Roberts of Redford and Angela Wilt of Westland, who went up against the nation's finest women bowlers in their first real taste of professional bowling.

Of course, there were many others from the Detroit area, including the all-time great Aleta Sill, who was the leading money winner last year, Cheryl Daniels, winner of this year's U.S. Open, and a name to remember, newcomer Lisa Bishop of Belleville, who along with Aleta Sill, made it to the final 24 match play to determine the five TV finalists.

This was the first time in several years for the Ladies Pro Tour to stop in the Detroit area. Then came the televised finals with a power-packed lineup showing Tish Johnson in the top-seeded position, followed by Aleta Sill, Kathy Zielke, Carolyn Dorin and Wendy MacPherson.

In the exciting program, MacPherson defeated Dorin, 217-212, then Zielke took care of MacPherson, 233-194, only to lose to Sill, 202-181. Sill then dispatched Johnson by a score of 233-226 in which each contestant threw five strikes in a row. But Aleta avoided the open frames, unlike Tish Johnson, who looked at a nasty split in the very first frame.

Super Bowl proprietors Mark and Diane Voight announced they have signed up to repeat the LPBT again next October. This was the 25th pro title for Sill, tying her for second place with Patty Costello. Lisa Wagner leads with 29.

The victory put Sill over the $700,000 mark in career earnings. She was delighted to win it in front of her hometown rooters, but even more gratifying was the presence of her grandfather, Steve Zuke, who was in the audience and rooting for her to go all the way.

■ Cloverlanes in Livonia was the host site last week for the Second Annual Strike Out Child Abuse fund-raising bowl-a-thon for Evergreen Children's Services.

The event was a huge success as it raised nearly $14,000 which is earmarked for Attachment Holding, a program for children who have been severely traumatized and have never had the opportunity to bond with another human being.

The participants came from all over the Detroit area and included groups from Detroit Edison, Amurcon of Southfield, The Detroit Area Nurses Association, National Bank of Detroit and Ameritech of Southfield.

Evergreen is a foster care and adoption agency which specializes in services to help children who are emotionally or behaviorally impaired or medically fragile.

The agency depends on the support of the community for its existence. The event was sponsored by Hamilton, Miller, Hudson and Fayne, Southwest Airlines, Omni International Hotel and D.B.T. Awards and Graphics.

Roy Howard took first prize, a trip for two to Las Vegas as he brought in $1,100 in pledges. The event was organized by Carol Eschbach, the director of Development for Evergreen Children's Services.

While we are at Cloverlanes, the facility will be off the automatic scoring system temporarily because of an upgrading process starting this week. The new Brunswick system is called "Frameworx" and it is the new state-of-the-art scoring system and will take about a month to be fully operational.

Meanwhile, the bowlers will have to keep score by hand, on paper, the old-fashioned way. Do the bowlers still remember how to keep score?

■ Now is the time for a big salute for Mary Mohacsi. She just bowled a 300 game at Merri Bowl during league play.

It so happens this was the very first perfect game by a woman in the history of Merri Bowl Lanes. It was the third 300 for the Livonian who has had so many national and international accolades there would not be room on these pages to list them all.

Nice going, Mary. Keep up your great performances.

this time of year, has reached everyone on the team.

Certainly it was apparent in the way the team attacked from the outset. Blohm's pre-game message was simple enough: "We told them to get out fast, get the game going, take care of business and get to the second round."

The Chiefs followed his instructions exactly. There was no letup after the opening-quarter 23-4 surge. Canton outscored the Warriors 17-10 in the second quarter (for a 40-14 halftime lead), 18-13 in the third (Western's best period) and 18-8 in the fourth.

Nkechi Okwumabua came off the bench to score 13 points and nab nine rebounds for the Chiefs. Kristi Fiorenzi scored 14 points, Melissa Marzolf had 12 points and eight boards, and Becky Vachow finished with nine points. Western got eight points from Brooke and seven more from Jodi Miller, who led the team with four rebounds.

"I don't think we played as well as I thought we would," said Allen of Western's performance. But there was no lack of praise for his opponent: "The thing I like about (Canton) is they can score from anywhere on the floor.

"We're getting better. We're just not at the level to be able to compete with a team like this."

And yet, Blohm figures his team will have to step it up a level to compete with Salem, which the Chiefs defeated 53-44 in overtime Oct. 3 — and another level after that to challenge unbeaten Central for the WLAA title.

But first things first, and that means getting to the title game. "Our true test will come against Salem," said Blohm. "We've got to pressure the ball and support (each other) on defense, and we've got to block out (when rebounding)."

The Rocks are bigger than Canton and are the only team with size comparable to Central's. But it doesn't mean the Chiefs are going to shrink away from their mission.

That much is certain.

Salem hoop

had four rebounds and four steals, while Shellye Sills had nine points, four rebounds and three assists. Nicole Van Hees scored eight points and Angie Sillmon tallied seven points and dished out four assists.

Heather Guerin got eight points, with Janelle Sterling and Laurel Weinman netting six apiece as the Rocks set up a Tuesday showdown with next-door archrival Plymouth Canton.

Kellee Fournier scored 17 points to pace North Farmington, including five triples, while Carrie May added 13.

■ PCA 51, AP Inter-City 35: The first half was good. But the second half was better for Plymouth Christian Academy Friday against visiting Allen Park Inter-City Baptist.

The Eagles pulled away from a 22-17 halftime advantage with a 29-18 second-half surge. Once again, most of the scoring for PCA (now 9-9 overall, 4-5 in the Michigan Independent Athletic Conference) came from three players: senior guard Lisa Erickson, with 23 points; junior forward Sarah Sumner, with 14; and senior center Kristine Zedan, with 10.

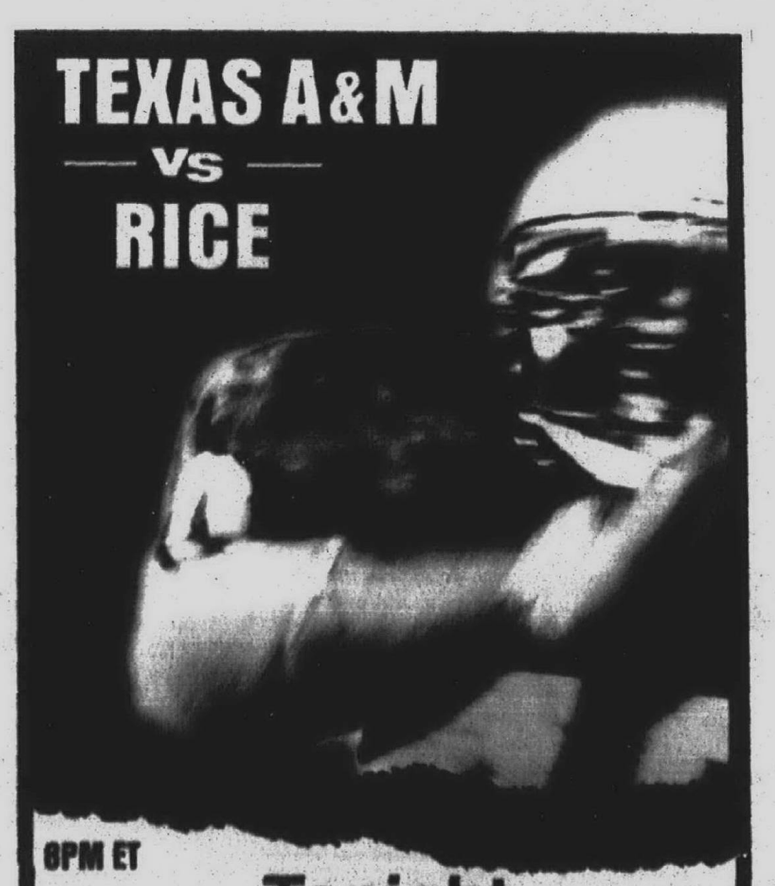

Erickson also had five assists, while Sumner grabbed 19 rebounds and Zedan had six.

Inter-City (5-113 overall, 0-10 in the MIAC) got 16 points from Amy Edson and 11 from Allison Brown.

■ Agape 39, Mount Zion 10: Plymouth Agape Christian tossed a first-half shutout Friday at Clinton Mount Zion Christian.

Agape led 17-0 at the half, en route to its 11th win in 15 games and fifth victory in six Metro Christian Conference contests. Gretchen Baisch had 15 points and 12 rebounds to lead Agape; Jaci Ther totaled 10 points, seven boards and five assists, and sophomore center Caley Mullen scored seven points.

630 Cards of Thanks

POWERFUL PRAYER to The Holy Spirit. You who solve all problems, who lights all roads so that I can obtain my goals. You who give me the Devine gift to forgive & forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life. You are with me & I want in this short prayer to thank You for all things and to confirm that I never want to be separated from You even and in spite of all material illusions. I wish to be with You in eternal glory. Thank You for your mercy toward me & mine. This person must say this pray for 3 consecutive days. After 3 days the favor requested will be granted even though it may appear difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after the favor is granted without mentioning the favor. CBK

Redesigned Honda Civic goes where it hasn't gone before

By Anne Fracassa
Avanti NewsFeatures

ROAD TEST By Anne Fracassa

EAST LIBERTY, Ohio — Slipping behind the wheel of the redesigned Honda Civic, you almost have to get out and make sure you're in the right car.

Yep, it's a 1996 Honda Civic.

But like no Civic has been before. It's roomy. It's got a functional back seat. The doors sound solid when you close them. And hey, it's even kinda cute.

Not small cute.

The Civic has always been known as a "teeny weeny" car. Make that really teeny. Remember the Civic CRX? Man, that was small.

This new Civic is now in its sixth generation — Honda started selling the Civic here in 1972. And now, all these years later, the company's East Liberty plant is the largest single producer of Civic worldwide.

A little more about East Liberty — Honda's the only automaker (and East Liberty is the only auto plant in the world) to accomplish completion of a running model change in the midst of a plant production increase of more than 30 percent.

To effectively ramp up production of the 1996 models, while completing orders for the 1995 Civics, East Liberty was producing both 1995 and 1996 model Civics on the same line, at the same time.

By late September, Honda had finished its 1995 run and began exclusively building 1996 Civics.

By the end of this month, the plant is expected to be building around 800 Civics a day for us here in the U.S. market and for export to Japan and other countries.

That translates in 265,000 domestically earmarked Civics for the 1996 model year, with 40,000 more being exported.

Back to the car.

Enjoying its first major makeover since the 1991 model year, the Civic is still classified as a small car, but it's really bigger, quieter, faster and more fuel efficient than it has ever been. It's also more distinctive in styling.

Three models are available this year: A sedan, coupe and hatchback. All three have smart styling, stiff bodies, better engines than their predecessors and new transmissions.

Now this is cool: The Civic HX coupe is available with a new, innovative automatic transmission Honda calls CVT — Continuously Variable Transmission.

What Honda has done here is melded the fuel efficiency of a manual transmission and the performance of an automatic.

What this means is that it's totally shiftless. You stomp on the gas and the rpms rev up without ever having a shift-back on the car. There's never an interruption of power, either.

This feature is a little unnerving because you expect to feel the car shift up a gear. But it never does.

The Civic is also available with an improved 5-speed manual and a new 4-speed electronically controlled automatic on most models.

The automatic features Honda's grade logic control for smother shifting when climbing or descending hills. Anti-lock brakes are standard on the EX sedan and are optional on the other models.

The Civic EX is also powered by a high performance 127-horsepower VTEC engine. The Civic HX coupe has an improved VTEC-E engine with 115 horses that promise a whopping 39 mph in the city, 45 on the highway..

Altogether there are three 1.6-liter 16-valve engines available. The new 106-horsepower engine is the first production gasoline engine to meet California's low-emission standards.

Air conditioning and remote entry system are also standard on the EX models. Standard on all models is an AM/FM stereo and clock. The stereo is prewired for a security system.

Instrumentation is laid out well. The speedometer has a 247-degree sweep that's neat. All other instrumentation — including a tach, coolant temp and fuel-level gauge — is backed by a soothing blue background.

Seating is comfy in front — with enough leg room for anyone under 6-foot-2. The back seats, again, are functional for normal-sized people. Just don't push the seats all the way back. You'll fit, but the knees will touch the back of the front seat.

All in all, the new Civic is a "small" car that's fun to drive, easy on the pocket and easy on the trips to the gas station. Thumbs up.

1996 Honda Civic
Vehicle class: Subcompact.

Preventive Car Care Can Save Lives

(CCC)—Accidents directly attributable to neglected vehicle maintenance (worn brakes and tires, poor vision, loose steering, etc.) could be costing the American public billions of dollars annually. This statement, from the Car Care Council, is based on a National Highway Traffic Safety Administration estimate of $137.5 billion annual cost of vehicle accidents. Subtracting a third which are D.U.I.-related driver impairment, this still leaves an accident tab totaling more than $90 billion.

Five to fifteen percent of this cost might be averted through periodic inspection and maintenance of vehicles, according to industry estimates. Even the more conservative figure, which would place a $4.5 billion price tag on mechanically related accidents, stresses the need for greater concern for safety maintenance.

Beyond the economics, concludes the Council's statement, is the impact of personal injury, loss of life and property. Consider that for every American lost during the 42 days of Operation Desert Storm, several more died on our nation's highways because of accidents due to a vehicle failure. Both types of losses are tragic and unacceptable, and certainly the latter is preventable.

USED CARS & TRUCKS MONDAY MARKETPLACE

Buying a Used Car Can Be Risky.

Blackwell Ford can help minimize the risk you take when purchasing a used vehicle. Every used vehicle sold by Blackwell Ford undergoes extensive reconditioning and safety inspection before it is offered for sale. If the vehicle does not meet our high standards, it will never be displayed on our lot. In the unlikely event that something does go wrong with your vehicle during the first 30 days or 2,000 miles, whichever occurs first, we will stand behind it 100% and repair it free of charge. It's that simple. We offer new car peace of mind with your used vehicle purchase. Stop in today to see our large selection of quality used vehicles, all priced to sell. And please remember...

"If You Don't Know Used Cars, Know Your Dealer."

MAKE THE MOVE NOW!!

THERE'S NO BETTER TIME TO BUY

If you've been thinking about moving from your current residence to the house of your dreams or from an apartment to a starter home, this is the time to do it.

- The selection is excellent.
- Low interest rates are available.
- There are many financing options available.

NOW is the right time to Buy a Home!

Purchasing a home has always been a wise decision, but current market conditions are making it even more attractive to buy now.

EXCELLENT FINANCING IS AVAILABLE NOW

Interest rates are lower, and mortgage lenders are offering a wide variety of financing options. Low interest rates mean you can get more for your money.

- 30-year fixed mortgages are still available as well as many other financing alternatives.
- First time buyers are encouraged to purchase now through financing packages offering small down payments.

Go ahead, make the move. Now is the right time to buy a home.
