Recreation fee dispute settled

The city of Plymouth and Plymouth Township have come to terms on recreation fees. However, a community survey will be done to determine recreation needs.

BY KEVIN BROWN
STAFF WRITER

A conflict over recreation fees has been settled for now between Plymouth city and township officials.

Both the city commission and township board of trustees have agreed to a plan. It calls for township officials to pay for a community-wide recreation survey, if city officials agree not to raise recreation fee rates for township residents.

The survey, to be conducted by Human Synergistics of Plymouth, will cost the township government $10,750. By agreeing to take on the survey cost, township officials got city officials to drop plans to raise Plymouth Township residents' fees.

Those fees are charged at the Plymouth Cultural Center for activities ranging from soccer to crafts.

City officials in June approved raising fees for non-city residents. They said city residents pay for upkeep of the cultural center, and an increase for non-city residents was fair and needed to balance the budget.

The non-resident fee increases will stand for Canton, Livonia and Northville residents, and others outside greater Plymouth.

By agreeing not to raise fees — at least until the survey results come in — the city will loose $10,000 to $12,000 in anticipated fees.

Recreation committees representing both the city and the township met Thursday. City Manager Steve Walters said one item discussed is when the survey will begin — probably in November.

What do officials hope to learn through the survey? Not only will residents be asked what activities they favor, but they'll also be asked to state how recreation should be paid for.

Basically, survey respondents will be asked if they favor government paying for a recreation program, "or a fee-based user-paid program that would depend more on the private

Streetscape II: Most work to complete the downtown streetscape renovation project happened last year. But there were some project elements left over for this construction season. Work began Friday on Main Street from the Mayflower Hotel to Wing Street. Work also began last week on Main between Fralick and Church. The street construction process starts with removing existing asphalt and streetlights. Next, brick accent pavers, irrigation, trees and tree grates and streetlights are installed. Construction will last five weeks. Two lane traffic on affected streets will be maintained, city officials said.

Unisys to light up Plymouth Road

BY KEVIN BROWN
STAFF WRITER

The Unisys Corp. plans to upgrade street lights along Plymouth and Haggerty roads at the company's plant, and township officials say that will boost road safety.

"In winter months, when it is dark and raining or snowing, it is a very difficult road," said Treasurer Mary Brooks.

She joined six of seven trustees in voting Tuesday to approve the company's request to set a public hearing. At that Sept. 24 hearing, the board will consider setting up a special assessment district, which requires property owners abutting the improvement zone to foot the bill. Unisys is the sole property owner in this case.

Creation of that district is required by Detroit Edison, who will install and maintain the lights. When the township agrees to create a special assessment district, it agrees to guarantee payment of costs for operation and maintenance of lights.

Trustee Charles Curmi said that while Edison can say it's their policy to get the local government involved, such involvement wasn't necessary. He voted against setting the public hearing.

"The government is acting as the collecting agent for Detroit Edison. I say let's get out of it," Curmi said.

Schools reject arbitration offer from teachers

BY M.B. DILLON
STAFF WRITER

Negotiators for Plymouth-Canton Community Schools have rejected an offer by the teachers' union to go to binding arbitration.

Tom Cotner, chief bargainer for the teachers, made the proposal at Tuesday night's packed board meeting at Central Middle School.

Assistant Superintendent Errol Goldman, chief negotiator for the district, said the board would be shirking its duty by going to an arbitrator now.

Under the recently-passed Public Act 112, bargainers go to fact finding once an impasse is declared. The board then has the option of imposing its last best offer if the fact finder's proposal is not to its liking.

"What is interesting is that whether it is binding arbitration or fact finding, it is still a third party who comes in and assesses the positions of the parties," said Goldman. "We're saying the law calls for fact finding. We believe that is what we should proceed with. We're still going to have a third party making

Township police receive awards

The Plymouth Township Police Department recognized special service by officers and other employees in a ceremony Tuesday at township hall.

During the program the Mayflower-Lt. Gamble VFW Post presented the recently formed Plymouth Township Police Honor Guard with a new set of colors — a U.S. flag and state flag.

The police honor guard is commanded by Sgt. James Jarvis. Other members are senior drill instructor Jeff Felts, and officers John Drake, Cal Lauria, Steve Cheston and Mike Lego.

Sgt. Robert Smith and officers Shawn Corbett and Cheston each received commendations for their efforts to start the department's Mountain Bike Patrol. Each of the officers conducted extensive research and planning on the role of a bike

He asked if the light poles could be removed from the township-owned right-of-way along the roads and installed instead on Unisys property — to get the township out of participating in the project. But a Unisys official and some township officials said that would make it difficult to light the roadway.

Brooks stressed that if Unisys should fail to pay special assessments to the township, the county guarantees eventual payment to the township. "We get our tax payment," she said.

Finance Director Rosemary Harvey added, "We have the benefit of having a local intersection lighted at the cost of a company."

Richard Terlaak, Unisys engineering and maintenance manager, said creating the district "will allow the township to recover any costs associated with installation and maintenance-operation of the proposed street lights from the owner of the property now and into the future."

New 400-watt lights are to be placed on nine new and existing poles along the approaches and intersection of Haggerty and Plymouth roads. There now are 250-watt bulbs on existing poles.

Unisys will pay $11,295 to install the system. The annual cost to maintain it is $2,565, according to Detroit Edison.

sector and less on public programming," Walters said.

Some YMCA officers have been sitting in on the joint recreation meetings. Township Trustee Ron Griffith, who has a top job at Schoolcraft College, is among three officials representing the township. The group says it wants to see what role the college and YMCA — and other private organizations including church groups — can play in a recreation program.

"One thing we'll look ask is are there things the public would like to see done that aren't being done now," Walters said. "An example would be a community swimming pool."

The 500 individuals and families to be surveyed will get a post card announcing they've been selected. That mailing will be followed by the survey mailing, Township Supervisor Kathleen Keen McCarthy said Tuesday.

a recommendation. I think we all need to hear that."

Cotner said binding arbitration would be expedient.

"This thing is getting out of hand. I don't see us working it out fairly easily. It seems to me it's time to bring the situation to a swift and certain end. The process they are entering into could possibly result in nothing since it is just a recommendation. We well may waste a month's time, because fact finding is just a recommendation. Both sides could end up looking at it and saying, 'Gee, that isn't very good.' "

Binding arbitration doesn't always bring about the best result, said Goldman. Police and fire bargaining agreements call for binding arbitration, and as Goldman recalled, "in the 1970s and 1980s, Mayor Coleman Young received awards that resulted in layoffs of police. But he had no choice."

Cotner said, "What is interesting is that police and fire have binding arbitration. The law requires that they go to binding arbitration. What you've got currently is a state government that is anti-teacher, and a Legislature that didn't see fit to give us the same.

"It gave us a law that requires one-sided arbitration. We are bound by fact finding and they are not. As I said Tuesday night, I don't relish relinquishing control of bargaining a settlement when we feel it is our legal right to do so."

According to Goldman, "We haven't exhausted the procedures in the law yet. The board's concern is that it not abrogate its responsibilities of running the district by going to binding arbitration. That is what they would be doing by giving their responsibility to a third party who would say, 'This is what you will do folks.'

"They're doing the same thing by going to a fact finder," countered Chuck Portelli, president of the teachers' union. "They should be bargaining with the PCEA at the bargaining table as long as it takes to resolve this. We've been bargaining since February in good faith."

Cotner questions the district's sincerity.

"Frankly, our belief is that the employer is interested in going through that process because the law requires them to before they implement whatever they want to implement. We feel if they were sincere in trying to get it over with, they'd go to binding arbitration, where we'd know it was over."

Bargaining isn't set to resume until the afternoon of Monday, Sept. 23. A mediator, Jim Amar of the Department of Labor's Bureau of Employment Relations, will be present.

A scheduled vote on the Plymouth-Canton Administrators' contract was postponed Tuesday night. "Administrators wanted some more information about one of the provisions" regarding health insurance, said Goldman.

It will be back on the agenda for the Sept. 24 meeting.

The board named a third-party health administrator, Benefit Sources of Ann Arbor, for the district. The intent is to give all employees, top administrators included, an option besides Blue Cross Blue Shield, said Goldman.

The high teacher absentee rate has dropped since last week, "But we still are not able to approve school business absences, because we're not sure what attendance will be," said Goldman.

Cable firm to offer telephone service

The Michigan Public Service Commission has approved an application by Continental Cable vision to provide basic local telephone service.

Continental submitted the application in May, and is the first cable operator in Michigan to take this step toward using the expanded telecommunications capabilities of today's cable technology.

Continental intends to provide local exchange services to residential and business customers in 44 communities in southeast and central Michigan, with potential service to more than 464,000 homes including Canton, Plymouth and Plymouth Township.

Continental hopes to offer local telephone service in most of the communities it serves with cable television.

As Continental rebuilds its cable systems, service will eventually be provided by the same high-capacity hybrid fiber-optics/coaxial cable networks that provide television services to Continental customers.

The company plans to install its own telephone switching facilities. In the meantime, plans are underway for Continental to enter the telephone market by reselling service from existing providers.

"While businesses and long distance users have had at least some access to competitively priced telecommunications services, residential customers have had no choice of local service providers," said Bill Black, Continental's corporate affairs director. "Competition in long distance has resulted in substantially improved services and lower costs. We have no doubt that competition in local phone service will provide the same benefits."

"The advanced fiber optics cable we are now installing has substantially improved capacity and reliability," Black added. "We are building a comprehensive communications network which will ultimately provide two-way delivery of entertainment, information, voice transmission, and high-speed data, Internet and on-line services."

Plymouth officer retires

BY M.B. DILLON
STAFF WRITER

After spending over half his life with the Plymouth Police Department, Officer Robert Henry has hung up his holster.

"I came here 28 years ago," said Henry, a Kansas native. "I've worked for six city managers, five police chiefs, and two assistant chiefs. I'm too young to be retired, but I'm too old to be chasing kids. This is a young man's job."

The 55-year-old Henry turned in his last time sheet Sunday, the final day of Fall Festival.

Monday morning, Henry reported to a one-week "insurance school" in Southfield. He'll go from there to Traverse City, where has a full-time job with Bankers Life and Casualty. Henry built a home on eight acres up north, where he makes maple syrup, presses his own apples for cider, and cans vegetables from his huge garden.

Fellow officers and city workers saluted Henry with a celebration at the Box Bar Tuesday.

Police Chief Bob Scoggins said Henry earned his retirement. "Anyone who does 28-and-a-half years of service with any organization is certainly deserving of their retirement years," he said. "He has been a dedicated servant to the City of Plymouth, and for that, we really appreciated him. We wish him the best of luck in his future endeavors."

Henry took his share of ribbing. Lt. Wayne Carroll said, "After 28 years, he's seen Plymouth go from a very quiet community to being sucked up in the metro area. We say he was here before cars were."

Henry wasn't shy. "You may have a different opinion, but Henry has always been straightforward with his," said Carroll. "He'll stir the pot, but he is an honest cop, and he put in his time. He always takes his runs, and has always done his job. He's never sloughed off."

Henry grew up in a poor, dysfunctional family in Kansas and Missouri. "I was just a farm boy," said Henry, who spent time in the Navy before becoming a reserve deputy sheriff in Leavenworth, Kan.

A visit with his dad, who'd been transferred to Michigan by Sears, was all it took to convince Henry to move. "I remember looking in the Free Press and seeing eight pages of jobs. At home, there might be eight jobs total. So I jumped in my car and moved everything I had. I was 24 and single."

"Kansas is flat, with very few hills. I looked at the water, rivers and lakes here and just fell in love with Michigan."

For two years, Henry loaded Lincolns and Firebirds on rail cars at the Ford plant in Wixom. He took classes and earned the equivalent of a high school diploma.

Henry was introduced to Plymouth by his girlfriend, Bev Skow, who lived and worked in the city before they married and started a family. The couple later divorced, "but we're still friends," says Henry.

When he learned of an opening in the police department, he visited acting chief Loren Johnson. "He was from Kansas, and we really hit it off. I started June 22 as a patrolman working the road."

For a short time, Henry worked in the detective bureau. "I didn't like sitting back there with all the paperwork," he said. "On the street, there isn't a day that's the same. I've never gotten bored with this job."

One of Henry's most memorable experiences involved a mentally-ill alcoholic who fired a deer rifle at police and fire vehicles, and into the station, from an apartment across the street.

One of the bullets landed on the floor of the detective bureau.

"He got a parking ticket and was upset. He was a big monster of a guy, and when we arrested him, he got very upset," said Henry. "Mike Gardner and I tussled with him, and we started to fall. The prisoner and Gardner came down on me, and my leg got tangled in a chair. I could hear my knee snap. They carried me off on a stretcher, and I was off for three months with torn cartilage in my knee cap.

"The guy is still incarcerated for writing threats to the Governor and President," he said.

Henry, who could hunt rabbit and pheasant a mile west of Plymouth when he came to town, misses the small-town atmosphere the city once had. "You've kind of lost the personal touch. Then, you knew a lot of people, and they knew you by name. Twenty-five years ago at 10 p.m., there wasn't 10 cars on Main Street."

Henry says he won't miss police work. "But I will miss the war stories, the camaraderie and the guys."

He says he can see the day when police departments in Plymouth and Plymouth Township are combined. "It would save a lot of money, but it has to be done right," he said. "I thought they would do it before I left."

City names marching band ambassador

BY DIANE HANSON
SPECIAL WRITER

A few months after Ron Loiselle was elected mayor of Plymouth in November 1995, he began issuing proclamations each month in recognition of a person, group or event "that spreads the name of Plymouth beyond our local borders," he said.

Today the Plymouth-Canton Marching Band will be presented with a proclamation as ambassador of the city of Plymouth. The award will be presented at the Plymouth City Commission meeting at 7 p.m. at city hall.

"The marching band obviously was picked out because, for almost the last 10 years they have been in the top ten in national competition and state champions many, many times," said Loiselle.

Said Plymouth-Canton band director, David McGrath, "I just think it's great that the community is giving us this honor and recognizing us for what we do."

Smith also earned a commendation for planning and starting a Helmet Safety Program, which encourages young people to wear helmets while biking or rollerblading. Part of the program involved giving youths tickets for free ice cream if they were spotted wearing helmets. A raffle of prizes for kids was organized with the help of local merchants.

Corbett was awarded a departmental citation for his work following the felonious assault on a woman in her 80s after her house was broken into. "Through exhaustive investigation, he was able to track the assailant to a town on the east side," Smith said. "He kept going back to the house several times making contact with her and making sure her needs were met, working with her family."

Officer Steve Mann was awarded a certificate of merit for his action on bike patrol to protect a woman by getting between an attacking dog and its pray, her smaller dog.

The township night patrol "D Platoon" was awarded a unit citation for activities including the arrest of a barricaded suspect and armed robbery suspects, and for implementing a model traffic unit and maintaining a high level of traffic enforcement. The platoon is made up of Smith, Cheston, Mann and Officer Edward Gauthier.

■ The township night patrol "D Platoon was awarded a unit citation for activities including the arrest of a barricaded suspect and armed robbery suspects.

Cheston was awarded a certificate of merit for an exhaustive building search after a breaking and entering. He found the suspect in the ceiling.

Sgt. Robert Antal was awarded a certificate of merit for his work to catch a suspect who fled a retail store after a break-in. Antal pursued the suspect in a car chase, and caught him.

Cheri Gordon, administrative assistant to the police chief, was awarded a commendation for her work to benefit the police department including handling the front office staff, payroll and a range of other jobs.

Also receiving a certificate of merit was Lauria, who with a state police trooper pursued a suspect in a stolen car incident on foot along I-275. Lauria was struck by a vehicle, but was unhurt and able help capture the suspect.

Given awards for 10 years of safe driving were Sgts. Antal, Smith, Rapson and Jarvis.

PLYMOUTH BRIEFS

Tax abatement approved

A five-year 50 percent tax abatement was granted Tuesday by the Plymouth Township board of trustees to Sumitomo Automotive and its sister firm Sumitomo Electric Wiring.

The firm is building a 39,000 square-foot facility in the Metro West Technology Park, scheduled to open next year. The two automotive systems firms are to split available space in the building, a company spokesman told township trustees.

The board voted 6-1 to approve the request for a tax abatement, with Treasurer Mary Brooks voting no. She has generally opposed the granting of tax breaks.

Crossings closed

Starting this week, the railroad crossings at York and Holbrook streets will be closed to auto traffic as a test.

Permanent closings of the crossings are to be considered by city officials based on the study outcome.

The closings are ordered by the state of Michigan _ or else the city will have to spend $120,000 to install flashers and gates at the crossings.

Some nearby businesses have demanded that the city keep the crossings open. City officials have yet to decide.

Direct comments and questions on the temporary closing to James Penn, city building and engineering department, 201 S. Main St., Plymouth 48170 or call him at 453-1234 extension 232.

Auditions begin

The Whistle Stop Players open their third season of children's theater with auditions Tuesday through Thursday for kids 5-15 from 6:30-8 p.m. at the Plymouth Community Arts Council building, 774 N. Sheldon at Junction.

Actors should choose one day to audition.

The players this Christmas season will present a 50-minute production including vignettes from "The Shoemaker and the Elves" by the Brothers Grimm, "A Merry Christmas" from "Little Women," and "Little Cosette and Father Christmas" from Les Miserables."

Actors will rehearse one night a week for 10 weeks, from 6:30-8 p.m. either Sunday, Tuesday or Thursday.

Public performances are slated Dec. 6-8 and the production is able to tour schools or perform for private groups for $350.

Jennifer Tobin is the director. For more information, call her at 453-5212.

CWW delays vote on proposed stadium tax

Members of the Conference of Western Wayne decided to delay until next month a decision on the proposed tax to help fund dual stadiums for the Detroit Tigers and Detroit Lions.

Officials requested more time for their city councils and township boards to study the pros and cons of the proposed tax. Proposition S would impose a 1 percent tax on hotel room rentals and a 2 percent tax of car rentals.

CWW members will meet again Oct. 10. CWW is a consortium of 18 western Wayne and downriver communities.

Former U.S. Rep. Carl Pursell is spearheading a campaign to oppose the tax. "Why don't you sell stock or seek investments. Bill Davidson built the Palace with private funds. Many stadiums are built with private funds," he said to William Clay Ford, Jr. and Deputy County Executive Mike Duggan, who represented the county at last Friday's meeting.

Duggan said that the hotel and car rental industry was in full support of the tax and that their approval was "the closest you'll get to going to private individuals."

■ 'If we don't get it done by Nov. 1, the deal is off.'

Mike Duggan
deputy county executive

Canton Township Supervisor Tom Yack countered by saying, "Equating corporate donations with taxing individuals are two different things."

Throughout his presentation to the conference, Duggan stressed the urgency of a tax endorsement.

"If we don't get it done by Nov. 1, the deal is off," Duggan said.

Duggan said now is the time to endorse the tax since Detroit is being perceived nationally as a "come-back city."

He sited the new airport expansion and General Motors' recommitment to the city as the basis of this perception.

Livonia Mayor Jack Kirksey expressed concern that the suburbs were not properly represented on the Detroit-Wayne County Stadium Authority, which has six members, three appointed by Mayor Dennis Archer and three appointed by Wayne County Executive Edward McNamara.

According to information distributed at the conference meeting by Duggan, total cost for two stadiums is projected at $505 million. Fifty-two percent will come from the private sector and 48 percent from public funding.

The tax proposal will require approval from Wayne County voters in the Nov. 5 election. If approved, it will provide enough revenue to issue $80 million in bonds. The remaining public sector costs will come from established funding sources in the state of Michigan, Detroit's Downtown Development Authority, and the sale of excess Wayne County property.

Cost overruns will be paid for by the two sport teams.

Livonia may fight change in area code

Move over 313 and 810. Make room for two more area codes.

Beginning next May, Oakland county will have its own area code – 248. For four months, customers will have the choice of dialing 810 or 248. The following September, customers will have to use 248.

By March or April of 1998, customers with 313 outside of the greater Detroit area will receive a new area code. Cities affected by the split are Taylor, Inkster, Livonia, Romulus and Westland. The new code has not been determined.

Remaining in the 313 plan are the city of Detroit, the Grosse Pointes, Lincoln Park, Allen Park, Melvindale, Dearborn, Dearborn Heights, Redford, Taylor, River Rouge, Hamtramck and Harper Woods. Cities affected by area code splits are Taylor, Inkster, Livonia, Romulus and Westland.

At a presentation before the Sept. 13 meeting of the Conference of Western Wayne, Ameritech vice president Harry Semerjian said area code changes would not affect local calls.

"If it's a local call today, it will be local after the split no matter how many digits."

Livonia Mayor Jack Kirksey objected to the fact that Livonia, a city with a population of 101,000, would have three area codes. "We will be a community that has to dial 11 digits to reach our neighbors," he said.

Kirksey said Ameritech has the dollars to develop technology to retain two exchanges in Livonia. "They spent $7 million just to tell people something was going to be done to them," he said of Ameritech's promotional campaign for the new codes.

Semerjian said the only solution to splitting a community was to change the 7-digit telephone number of every customer in the area designated to receive a new exchange.

PLYMOUTH CHARTER TOWNSHIP
ORDINANCE NO. 83.79

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE ZONING ORDINANCE OF THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH BY AMENDING THE ZONING ORDINANCE TEXT OF ARTICLE XXXII DEFINITIONS, OF SAID ORDINANCE, RELATED TO LARGE SCALE INSTITUTIONAL USES, CHURCHES AND LARGE SCALE CHURCHES, AND TO AMEND OTHER ARTICLES TO PROVIDE FOR LARGE SCALE INSTITUTIONAL USES AND LARGE SCALE CHURCHES TO BE LOCATED IN THE PL, R-1-E, R-2-A, OS, C-1, C-2, MR, IND AND PUD DISTRICTS, SUBJECT TO SPECIAL CONDITIONS.

THE TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH ORDAINS:

Part I. The Zoning Ordinance No. 83 of the Plymouth Charter Township, is hereby amended by amending

Article XXXII, Definitions; ARTICLE IV, PL Public Lands District; ARTICLE V, AG Agricultural District; ARTICLE VI, R-1-E, R-1-H, R-1-S, R-1 One Family Residential Districts; ARTICLE VII, R-M Mobile Home Residential Districts; ARTICLE VIII, R-2 Two Family Residential District; ARTICLE IX, R-2-A Multiple Family Residential District; ARTICLE X, OS Office Service District; ARTICLE XI, C-1 Neighborhood Shopping District; ARTICLE XII, C-2 General Commercial District; ARTICLE XIV, MR Mid Rise District; ARTICLE XV, IND Industrial District; ARTICLE XIX, PUD Planned Unit Development District; and ARTICLE XXIII, Special Provisions, as follows:

I. Section 32.2., Definitions, presently has no definition of large scale churches or large scale institutions.

Section 32.2.18., is hereby proposed to be amended to read as follows:

18. CHURCH. A site used for the regular assembly of persons for the conducting of religious services and accessory uses therewith. Such accessory uses may include rectories, living quarters for church ministry and other members of the religious order who carry out their duties primarily on the site, religious education classes, day care, outdoor recreation facilities (unlighted), religious office space, youth centers and others. Rescue missions, tent revivals and other temporary assemblies are not included in this definition.

Section 32.2. is hereby proposed to be amended to add new definition as Section 32.2.18.a. as follows:

18.a. CHURCH, LARGE SCALE. A religious institution with a seating capacity of 1,500 people or more in its sanctuary or main area of assembly. A large scale church may also be characterized by any one or more of the following features: region-serving accessory facilities such as high schools, colleges and seminaries; parking for 500 passenger vehicles or more; one or more buildings 100,000 square feet in floor area or greater; or other features. Large-scale churches are distinguished by such features as: large size of assemblies and resultant traffic surges, large off-street parking lots, retreat and conference centers, or major institutional character. Large-scale churches have negative impacts on single family residential areas because of scale of buildings, parking, traffic and frequency of use, which are different from smaller churches which have traditionally been compatible with single family areas. Because of these impacts, large-scale churches are more compatible with non-residential districts, subject to conditions, which minimize the impacts.

Section 32.2. is hereby proposed to be amended to add new definition as Section 32.2.58.a. as follows:

58.a. INSTITUTIONAL USES, LARGE SCALE. Public, parochial and private schools including nursery schools, churches, libraries, community buildings, hospitals, convalescent homes, municipal facilities or mortuaries which have either one or both of the following characteristics:

a) Five hundred (500) or more parking spaces are required based on the parking requirements in the Zoning Ordinance.

b) The seating capacity of the main area of assembly is one thousand five hundred (1,500) or more.

II. Section 4.1.1., PL Public Lands District, Principal Permitted Uses, presently reads as follows:

1. Municipal or other governmental buildings such as, but not limited to: township offices, fire stations, police stations, post offices and park comfort stations.

Section 4.1.1. is hereby proposed to be amended to read as follows:

1. Municipal or other governmental buildings such as, but not limited to: township offices, fire stations, police stations, post offices and park comfort stations, provided that such uses do not meet the definition of "large scale institutional uses".

Section 4.1.3., PL Public Lands District, Principal Permitted Uses, presently reads as follows:

3. Public, parochial and private schools, including nursery schools.

Section 4.1.3., is hereby proposed to read as follows:

3. Public, parochial and private schools, including nursery schools, provided that such schools do not meet the definition of "large scale institutional uses".

Section 4.2.., PL Public Lands District, Uses Subject to Special Conditions, presently ends with item 2.

Section 4.2.is hereby proposed to be amended to add item 3., as follows:

3. Municipal facilities that qualify as "large scale institutional uses", subject to the conditions of Section 23.42.

III. Section 5.2.1., AG Agricultural District, Uses Subject to Special Conditions, presently reads as follows:

1. Public, parochial and private schools including nursery schools, churches, libraries, community buildings, hospitals, convalescent homes, municipal facilities, municipal parks and playgrounds and mortuaries excluding park and ride facilities.

Section 5.2.1.is hereby proposed to be amended to read as follows:

1. Public, parochial and private schools, including nursery school; churches; libraries; community buildings; hospitals; convalescent homes; municipal facilities, excluding park and ride facilities; municipal parks and playgrounds; and mortuaries; provided that the uses do not meet the definition of "large scale institutional uses" or "large scale churches".

IV. Section 6.2.1., R-1-E, R-1-H, R-1-S, R-1 One Family Residential Districts, Uses Subject to Special Conditions, presently reads as follows:

1. Public, parochial and private schools including nursery schools, churches, libraries, community buidings, hospitals, convalescent homes, municipal facilities, municipal parks and playgrounds and mortuaries excluding park and ride facilities.

Each large scale use permitted as a Use Permitted Subject to Special Conditions (as indicated in the preceding table) shall meet the following conditions in addition to all other provisions of this Ordinance. These standards are intended to restrict large scale uses to suitable locations and mitigate adverse impacts of the uses on the community.

1. The site shall have at least 150 feet of frontage on a major thoroughfare with an existing or planned right-of-way of not less than one hundred twenty (120) feet. All ingress and egress to the site shall be directly onto such major thoroughfares.

2. The site shall be located within one-half (1/2) mile of interchange access to M-14 or I-275, as measured along major thoroughfares.

3. All buildings, structures, and parking and loading areas shall be set back a minimum of one hundred (100) feet from any abutting residential zoning district. Such setback area shall be heavily landscaped so as to create a complete visual and physical separation between the two unlike land uses, forming an effective screen in compliance with the provisions of Article 22 of this Ordinance.

4. Traffic from events (including church worship services) and other large assemblies shall be controlled by the institution or church or by its agents so as to not create congestion or unreasonable delays on the public street. A schedule of expected frequency of events (including church worship services) and assemblies, a description of the method(s) of traffic control, and a traffic impact study and shall be presented to the Planning Commission for approval after review and comment on the plan by the Township Police Department.

5. Associated uses on the site such as recreation centers, retreat facilities, conference centers, schools (if not the primary use), convents, and others shall meet all requirements of this Ordinance for such uses.

6. All parking spaces and aisles shall be screened from off-site view by any one or a combination of the following:

(a) Screening mound or beam
(b) Dense landscaping
(c) Solid wall with planting strip
(d) Changes in grade through the use of retaining walls, or topographic features

Screening shall be in accordance with the requirements of Section 22.8 of this Ordinance:

7. There shall be no outside loudspeakers or amplified sound outside of a totally enclosed building.

8. Storage of buses, trucks, and maintenance equipment shall be entirely within a totally enclosed building.

Part II. CONFLICTING PROVISIONS REPEALED. Any Ordinance or parts of Ordinance in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed.

Part III. EFFECTIVE DATE. The provisions of this Ordinance are hereby declared to take effect on October 10, 1996.

Part IV. ADOPTION. The Ordinance was adopted by the Township Board of Charter Township of Plymouth by authority of Act 184 of the Public Acts of Michigan, 1949, at a meeting duly called and held on the 10th day of September, 1996, and ordered to be given publication in the manner prescribed by law.

Adopted by the Township Board of Trustees on September 10, 1996.
Effective Date October 10, 1996.

Publish: September 16, 1996

Consortium focuses on hands-on science for area schools

BY DIANE GALE
SPECIAL WRITER

Area school districts are joining efforts to take students away from mundane memorization and excite them with experiments.

That's the logic behind a hands-on teaching method that gives students a chance to see why some things float and others sink, what makes a balloon inflate and a lot of other science theories that can be shown with things they use in their everyday lives.

"I'm a firm believer in the change toward more of a hands-on science approach," said Thomas Tattan, superintendent, Clarenceville School District.

"I think it's part of a process of change," Tattan said. "The biggest point is establishing the need to learn science at much higher levels."

Science teachers are using kits that include all the materials needed for each experiment that their students perform. When the lesson is completed, the kit is returned to a warehouse and filled for the next class.

The Clarenceville, Plymouth-Canton, Wayne-Westland and Troy school districts recently formed a consortium to share material costs and expenses of showing teachers how to use the kits.

Dennis Harlan, president of Entertainment Consultants of America, educational services division, designed the science kits and first introduced the teaching concept to the Plymouth-Canton School District three years ago.

Beyond the business motivation, Harlan said, he wanted to see his daughter's teacher use the method..

"Science in discovery is learning, observing, analyzing and predicting, but it's not something that you memorize from a book, that's knowledge," said Harlan, a Plymouth Township resident.

"I wanted my kids to learn the skill of learning, not memorizing. If they have the experience of learning, they'll transfer it to everything else."

His daughter's teacher was excited about the kits and other teachers in the district began using them, too. Enthusiasm extended into other districts and the consortium was formed.

"The idea is that it doesn't make sense for all the districts to reinvent this thing each time," Harlan said. "This will speed it up. I went around the country and I assembled teaching manuals for the top six curriculums. The teachers choose which curriculum they want and decide on the kits."

Barbara Skone, Wayne-Westland executive director for curriculum development, said, "I think it is (hands- on science) essential, because that's the way kids learn – by doing."

Claudia Kulnis was principal at Bird Elementary School in Plymouth Township when Harlan proposed the business venture.

"The whole philosophy is a hands-on inquiry based on science in the kits and that matches the philosophy that I've had for teaching science for 20 years," Kulnis said, adding that education experts promote the importance of hands-on science, because students grasp and remember the information better.

"I even developed my own kits and shared them with other staff members," said Kulnis, who recently became principal at Hill Elementary School in Troy.

"It's such a wonderful service for us, because each kit contains all the materials, down to the paper clips and the teacher spends the time on formulating lessons and investigating the content of the material rather than running to Meijer to buy all the little parts of the kits necessary to do the hands-on experience," she added.

Kulnis said she also found an increase in interest among teachers who otherwise shied away from teaching science.

Another Plymouth-Canton district transplant, Kathy Harenda, was instrumental in promoting the program. The former Plymouth-Canton math and science curriculum director facilitated a course by the National Science Foundation which taught teachers from around the country how to teach hands-on science.

Harenda also helped garner a $50,000 planning grant for Plymouth-Canton from the National Science Foundation for teacher enhancement on using the kits.

"The kits aren't only an answer to a teacher's prayer, but an answer to how we ensure that good science is brought to the classroom," said Harenda, who was recently named principal at Hamburg Elementary School in the Pinckney Community Schools.

"The kits are thoroughly researched," Harenda said. "We are not only affecting the science the students are learning, but affecting the teaching of the teachers."

Harenda initiated the school district consortium as a cost savings means and an effective way for teachers to share ideas.

"If we're going to bring in a speaker to the area, why not include four or five districts in the audience?" she said. "It also promotes networking."

While the idea continues to spread, so did Harlan's need to expand his Plymouth office and warehouse capabilities. A new building to house the materials and refurbish the kits is expected to be built at Nine Mile and I-275 in Novi. Harlan also supplies these science kits to school districts around the country.

Senate delays 'death with dignity' bills

BY TIM RICHARD
STAFF WRITER

There are two reasons the state Senate is in no rush to take up a "death with dignity" bill in its fall session.

"I don't want it to become part of the election process," said Sen. Joel Gougeon, R-Bay City, chair of the Family Law Committee. "I do not want to rush it."

Agreed, said Sen. Gary Peters, D-Bloomfield Township, a panel member. "It should be nonpartisan."

The other reason is that a lot of amendments are being shaped. "The sponsor (Sen. Dale Shugars, R-Portage) wants to play around with it," said Gougeon.

Peters, who said he will offer substitute that regulates physician-assisted suicide, said he has made amendments on his own version after the Sept. 5 public hearing in Lansing.

Gougeon had planned to take up the Shugars bill, Senate Bill 1102, at the Sept. 12 meeting but adjourned it five minutes after starting time without discussing the bill.

Shugars' bill is intended to assure that doctors tell terminally ill patients their rights to accept or refuse treatment; are given immunity when they prescribe narcotics as pain-killers; and tell patients that Michigan case law prohibits anyone from assisting a suicide. It provides no criminal penalties, however, for assisting a suicide.

It's part of a four-bill package intended to dry up Dr. Jack Kevorkian's market for assistance in ending life.

As first drafted, Peters' bill would prescribe the circumstances under which a doctor would help a patient end life. His new version will mandate, rather than suggest, that a psychiatrist certify the patient is of sound mind.

"A physician may not have the expertise to determine if a psychiatrist is needed, so we made it (psychiatric exam) necessary," Peters said.

Peters' new version also will require a 15-day, rather than two-day, waiting period between the time a patient makes a second request for a death drug and the time it may be administered. It will mean a total of 30 days from the time the patient makes his or her first request until the end can come.

"The most important part of my bill," said Peters, "is putting it to a vote of the people. Polls show 75 percent of the people support physician-assisted suicide. Right to Life (which opposes assisted suicide) doesn't want it on the ballot because they know it will pass overwhelmingly."

Gougeon's panel, which includes Republican Sens. Robert Geake of Northville and Michael Bouchard of Birmingham, is scheduled to meet Sept. 19 but probably won't act even then. A fifth member, Sen. Virgil Smith, D-Detroit, will be on a trip to India.

"I expect no action until the last week of September or even later," said Gougeon.

Senators aren't up for reelection this year, but representatives are, and any Senate-passed bill is unlikely to be taken up until after the Nov. 5 election _ if at all.

If no action is taken, the bill will die Dec. 31 and have to be reintroduced in 1997.

Canton shows big gain, Redford, Livonia dip, SEMCOG report

Households are increasing three times as fast as population as the number of persons per household declines.

That's the finding of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments in its study of Population and Occupied Housing Units from 1990-95.

Population grew 1.6 percent (to 4.6 million) from the official census date of April 1, 1990, to July 1, 1995. But the number of occupied housing units grew 4.7 percent, to 1.8 million, in the same period.

"There were 3.27 persons per household in southeast Michigan in 1970. Persons per household decreased from 2.66 to 2.62 between 1990 and 1995," said the SEMCOG study.

Oakland County led the numerical growth in population, Livingston County led the percentage growth, and Wayne County showed a decline — even in many suburbs. The breakdown by counties:

Livingston — population up 15.5 percent to 133,600; housing units up 18.4 percent to 46,024. Outside the cities of Brighton and Howell and the villages of Pinckney and Fowlerville, population growth was mostly in the double-digits percentage wise.

Macomb — population up 2.3 percent to 733,607; housing units up 7.8 percent to 285,631. Big growth areas were the three tiers of townships north of Mt. Clemens.

Monroe — population up 4.5 percent to 139,550; housing units up 8.5 percent to 50,447. Major growth areas were Bedford and Erie townships, next door to Toledo, and Monroe Township; the city Monroe lost population.

Oakland — population up 6.4 percent to 1,153,461; housing units up 7.3 percent to 440,503. Biggest growth corridors were the second tier of townships (Rose, Springfield, Independence, Orion and Oakland) and a western range running through Springfield, White Lake, Commerce, Wixom and Novi plus Milford.

St. Clair — population up 5.9 percent to 154,231; housing units up 8.7 percent to 57,507. Only the city of Port Huron lost population.

Washtenaw — population up 3.4 percent to 292,609; housing units up 8.3 percent to 113,223. Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti lost population; Webster Township in the north and Pittsfield Township, south of Ann Arbor, were big gainers.

Wayne — population down 2.7 percent to 2,055,500; housing units up 0.5 percent to 784.716. Detroit slipped below the one million mark to 990,407. Redford Township, Livonia, Garden City, the city of Plymouth, Belleville and the so-called downriver communities lost population. Big gainers were Northville Township, up 12.3 percent to 19,450; Canton Township, up 11.9 percent to 63,831; and Huron Township, up 16 percent to 12,114.

Region — population up 1.6 percent to 4,662,558; housing units up 4.7 percent to 1,778,051.

SEMCOG bases its estimates on residential building permit data provided by the local units; its own data on mobile homes; and state data on group homes.

■ "If a community has significant life cycle turnover and young families with children replace older persons living alone," the authors said, "this method may miss population change.

■ It will, however, catch changes in households."

CANKER SORES

Usually arising at a single site, but often occurring as multiple ulcers, canker sores affect up to half the population of this country. Their cause is often unknown, but they are believed to represent hypersensitivity reactions, often known as immune dysfunction. For many people, canker sores accompany the eating of certain foods (especially acidic foods), appear after exposure to irritants, or result from trauma or injury to the mouth. Stress may also play a role. Canker sores usually run their course in three to fourteen days. To help the healing process along, patients may want to gargle with warm salty water or apply a nonprescription anesthetic cream or ointment to help ease the discomfort. If recurrences of canker sores are frequent, consult with the dentist about using a prescription steroid cream or mouthwash.

Free Prostate Cancer Screenings
The facts are simple.
Prostate cancer is the No. 1 cancer in men.
Prostate cancer has no symptoms at the earliest stages.
Prostate cancer can be cured if detected early.
If you are 50 or older, or 40+ and have a family history of prostate cancer or are African American, you are at risk.
The University of Michigan Prostate Program and Comprehensive Cancer Center are sponsoring prostate screenings. To schedule your test, call the Cancer AnswerLine nurses. Exams take less than ten minutes and include a PSA blood test.
Free screenings will take place on September 25 from 6:30-8:30 pm at the Center for Specialty Care, 19900 Haggerty Road, Livonia, during Prostate Cancer Awareness Week. Parking is free.

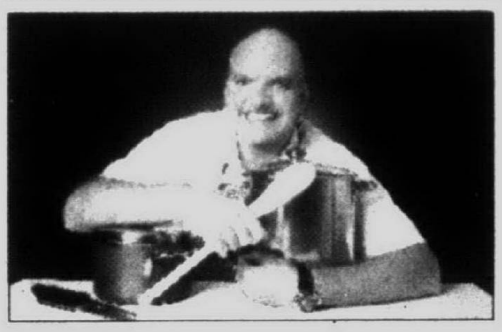
TASTE BUDS



CHEF LARRY JANES

Here's the dirt on successful gardens

Dirt is a good thing. Not dirty clothes, or dirt in houses, but dirt as the soil in which I plant. Dirt's rich perfume greets me after a rain, or hearty sprinkle with the hose. It gives me a bushel or so of candy apple red tomatoes, aromatic basil fronds that fill the air with the scent of anise when brushed by a pant leg. My dirt has been feeding me fruits and vegetables since the end of spring, and now it is time to return the favor.

Organic matter

All summer I have been composting, putting the outside leaves of cabbages, the shucks and cobs from corn, egg shells, coffee grounds and wilted salad greens into a remote corner of my garden.

Whenever I cut grass, the clippings are added to raked leaves, straw and harvested potato plants. I bought a small Rototiller four years ago at Sears during season clearance, and it has suited me just fine.

When the last of the parsley is cut for tabbouleh, the remainder of basil snipped for neighbors Frank & Karen's spaghetti sauce, and the final green tomato made into harvest relish, I will crank up the tiller, and feed my garden as it has fed me for the last four months.

Successful gardening requires planning. Each year I rotate crops and plant a few marigolds and zinnias for color, to help control the bug population and attract bees for pollination.

I could, like many neighbors, feed the soil with plant food containing chemical additives, and spray plants and flowers with a range of insecticides, but I want to leave my dirt and groundwater as clean as they were when I came to them.

I hope my children, and their children, will want to keep gardening this ground. However, I am not naive. I know that we live in a nation where people seem to be in perpetual motion, that chances are slim my grandchildren will be in this house, or even this state when they grow up. Still, even if my garden were to cease to exist, I know I will have fulfilled my covenant with future generations.

Soil is composed of a multitude of chemicals and trace elements along with beneficial bacteria and yeasts. I have only to taste the best of hydroponic vegetables grown in watery chemical solutions to realize that real soil and sunshine give vegetables and fruits the best flavor.

Reaping benefits

"Vine ripened" $3.49 per pound tomatoes available during the dead of winter don't come close to the taste of a tomato that costs pennies to grow during the summer. Chemicals from a bag cannot replicate the delicious compost breakfast I feed my vegetables, and they quickly leach out into the ground.

Even if gardening were just a second hobby, I could easily open a small roadside bait stand and sell the worms that are everywhere, especially after the soil has been tilled. Remember when you had to water the lawn after dinner and then head outside with a flashlight to dig worms for the next day's fishing trip? I still do, and they have helped me land many a walleye with my dad in our old family-owned boat.

My small garden is my small statement. My compost bin is a recycled plastic oil drum with holes drilled in the side to help circulate air. It cost me the effort to go pick it up, and has lasted since I started gardening without additives about 10 years ago. I would like to believe my harvests are organic, but I have never purchased anything organic because I can't justify the price.

My early crop of beans have fixed nitrogen in the soil. My tomatoes are odd shaped, but they harm no one, and taste buttery and delicious. I grow just enough for my household, and any animals or birds that can get over or under the fence.

My plants get their health from good soil, and can fight off disease pretty much on their own. I do lose some of what I grow, and have to cope with an occasional grub or a slug (what a reason to pop open a beer, pour a pie plate full and see the pests die with a buzz on).

But I'm happy with the rich smell of my dirt after a rain, and with the thought that I'm feeding the land and future. My only hope is that somewhere, sometime, you might be able to do the same.

Joust desserts

STORY BY KEELY WYGONIK
STAFF WRITER

Chefs indulge in sweet temptations

Pastry Chef David Balla has a serious sweet tooth, and believes all meals should begin and end with dessert. Maple Panna Cotta, one of the desserts he is preparing for Tournament of Temptations during "Sweet Endings" weekend at the Michigan Renaissance Festival, Sept. 28-29, was originally made with poached fish, and served as an appetizer.

"The recipe has stayed consistent since the Dark Ages," said Balla, an American Culinary Federation certified pastry chef at Gandy Dancer in Ann Arbor, and graduate of Oakland Community College's culinary arts program. Italian for "cooked cream," panna cotta is a custard dessert. Balla's panna cotta will be flavored with Michigan maple syrup. He's also making a "fancied up" carrot cheesecake, because "carrots have been around since time began."

Balla said he has always been interested in the Renaissance period, and enjoys attending the festival because it's always changing. "They keep the favorites, but are always adding new events and skits," he said.

Mary Denning owner of Mary Denning's Cake Shoppe in Westland, and an instructor in Henry Ford Community College's culinary arts program, is making a royal cake shaped like a castle. Michelle Butler, a former student who works at the shop, is making a chocolate cheesecake with a dragon.

"I like the Renaissance Festival, and it's for a good cause," said Denning. "It's something different."

Certified Executive Chef John Zehnder, food and beverage director of Zehnder's of Frankenmuth, and president of the American Culinary Federation's Flint/Saginaw Valley Chapter is working with the festival to organize the event.

"I'm real excited about this," said Nancy Lewandowskyj, festival executive director. "The American Culinary Federation has worked closely with us to make it a fabulous event. We've had positive response from chefs. After the judging, you'll be able to sample the foods by buying 'indulgences' for $1 per taste."

Event proceeds will be donated to the American Culinary Federation's national charity, the Child and the Chef Foundation, which helps support various nutrition programs that directly affect the nutritional needs of children including Head Start.

"It's great for the festival to have a new event, and it's a good thing for the American Culinary Federation," said Lewandowskyj.

Tournament of Temptations will be presented in the Castle, a 2,400-square-foot fortress built this year for special events. Pioneer Sugar is the weekend sponsor.

Students will compete Saturday, and professional chefs Sunday. There will also be sugar pulling and other dessert-related demonstrations. Prizes will be awarded for best of show, first, second, and third place. Best of Show in the professional category will receive $1,000, and the student winner a $1,000 scholarship. Trophies, ribbons and festival merchandise will be awarded to the other winners.

"I'm a Renaissance Festival groupie," said Zehnder, whose family name is synonymous with Frankenmuth and family-style chicken dinners. "I was looking for a fall event to raise money, and thought this was a nice fresh approach that could be a combined effort with the eight American Culinary Federation chapters in Michigan. The Renaissance is a unique festival. The costumed performers and individual performers create mystique."

The Castle provided a venue for staging the competition. "It's open, airy, and allows for people to walk around," said Zehnder. "This is one of the few pastry competitions around, and has potential to grow into a major event. Our craft goes back to way before the Renaissance time, and our uniform — tall hat and double breasted coat — is the same."

Also new this year is the "Feast of Folly," to benefit Karmanos Cancer Institute. Tickets quickly sold out, but you can still get tickets for "The Cause and Effect of Wine and Food," seminars 4:30 and 6 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 21-22.

Mario Cardillo of Beringer Vineyards will host the event in the Castle. You'll learn more about pairing wine with foods by tasting different flavor combinations. Event proceeds benefit Karmanos Cancer Institute.

Hand-picked wines from J.C. Mathes well priced

BY ELEANOR & RAY HEALD
SPECIAL WRITERS

While in London a few weeks ago, we visited some of the city's best wine shops. Wine buyers at such establishments as Berry Bros. & Rudd, Justerini and Brooks or Fortnum and Mason pride themselves on hand-selecting wines from small producers and making them available to their customers. We made an immediate mental Michigan connection.

Right in our own back yard is J.C. Mathes and his J et R Selections Ltd. based in Mount Pleasant. Mathes prides himself on choosing southern Rhone wines, Vin de Pays and Burgundies from select small producers with whom he has done business for several years. He has exclusive import rights to some stellar estates. Perhaps most importantly, his portfolio of hand-crafted wines is exceptionally well priced.

Mathes holds a doctorate in Contemporary French Drama and since 1963 has been a University of Michigan professor in the engineering college teaching report writing. He will gain professor emeritus status in January 1997. During his first sabbatical in 1972, Mathes and his wife Rosemary lived in the French regions of Provence and Cotes du Rhone. He went back during the summer of 1976 and lived at the Domaine le Mas des Collines, whose wines he

Dig into dishes made with garden fresh vegetables

See related story on Taste front.

Here are some favorite recipes made with the bounty from my fall harvest garden:

BASIC NO FRILLS POTATO SALAD

- 2 pounds boiling "new" potatoes
- 4 tablespoons dry white wine
- 2 tablespoons wine vinegar
- 1 teaspoon prepared Dijon styled mustard
- Pinch salt
- 6 tablespoons olive oil
- Fresh ground pepper to taste
- 2 tablespoons minced green onions
- 1 tablespoon minced parsley
- 1 tablespoon minced cilantro
- 1 tablespoon minced dill weed

Scrub the potatoes. Drop them in boiling salted water to cover and boil until the potatoes are barely tender when pierced with a small knife.

Remove from heat, allow to stand for 5 minutes. Drain. As soon as they are cool enough to handle, peel and cut them into slices or chunks. Place them in a mixing bowl.

Pour the wine over the warm potatoes and toss very gently. Set aside for a few moments until the potatoes have absorbed the liquid. Beat the vinegar, mustard and salt in a small bowl until salt dissolves.

Then beat in oil in a slow, steady stream, whisking until an emulsion is formed. Season to taste with a pinch more salt and pepper.

Stir in green onions and herbs. Pour the dressing over the potatoes and toss gently to blend. Makes about 6 cups.

FRESH TOMATO AND BASIL PASTA

- 10 Roma tomatoes, seeded and chopped (about 1 1/2 cups)
- 1/2 cup basil leaves, chopped
- 1 large clove garlic
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 3 cups cooked pasta, drained

Place tomatoes, basil and garlic in a large non stick skillet and place over medium high heat. Toss gently until heated throughout and very aromatic, about 5 minutes. Drain pasta and top with tomato mixture.

Drizzle with olive oil. Toss gently to incorporate. Serves 2-3.

ZUCCHINI AND YELLOW SQUASH WITH RED PEPPERS

- 1/2 cup thinly sliced green onions
- 1 1/2 tablespoons butter or olive oil
- 1 medium zucchini, seeded, cut into 2 inch julienne strips
- 2 medium yellow squash, seeded and cut into 2 inch julienne strips
- 1 medium red pepper, chopped fine

In a 12-inch skillet, cook green onions in butter or oil over moderate heat, stirring until softened, about 3-4 minutes.

Add zucchini, squash, red pepper and salt and pepper to taste and cook, stirring frequently until vegetables are tender, about 4-5 minutes. Serves 5-6.

now imports.

"I got hooked on the wines of the Cotes du Rhone," Mathes recalled. "In my next sabbatical in 1981-82, I went back and got hooked on Gigondas. I got to know the people of the region and the many small, but excellent producers."

Since 1985, Mathes has gone back to the southern Rhone every year to taste and buy wines for his company. In the last few years, his import portfolio has become the most recognized from the southern Rhone. In addition to distribution in his home state of Michigan, he expanded sales of 4,000 cases imported annually to nearly two-thirds of the states east of the Mississippi.

Getting to know the wine estates imported by Mathes will give you a wealth of exceptional drinking. Our recommendations focus principally on red wines. From Chateauneuf-du-Pape, Domaine du Pegau is Mathes' most celebrated wine. Made in a traditional style, it is muscular when young, but mellows with a few years bottle aging into concentrated plummy fruit with a long aftertaste. We've gained affection for the Domaine Bois de Boursan (organically grown) Chateauneuf-du-Pape for its more immediate drinkability cherry-berry fruit and slight smokiness. The 1992 at $15 is drinking handsomely.

From Gigondas, Chateau du Montmirail is the star, but with the 1990 Domaine le Mas des Collines $12.50 still available, it's the best selection from a yet-to-be discovered producer. You may wonder about the older vintage and think that it hasn't been selling. Bottles have been held in the cellar especially for Mathes and the last shipment of this great vintage has arrived. Don't miss this full-bodied, yet supple wine!

Also from Gigondas is the 1993 Domaine de la Tourade $13. Here, rich fruit is spiked with spicy, peppery notes and a complex, developed finish.

Another organic producer is Domaine Mireille et Vincent in the Cotes du Rhone. The wise will snap up any remaining bottles of the 1991 ($7) with its bright fruit, palate generosity and complexity. Vintages 1992 and 1994 are not as good.

From among Mathes' 1995 purchases, we like Domaine du Vieux Chene Vins de Pays $5.50, light and flavorful and best served slightly chilled. At $7, Vieux Chene Cotes du Rhone, Cuvee des Capucines is full of raspberry fruit and peppery spice with good structure. This domaine is a new entry into the Mathes portfolio. It had been imported by an east coast company that fell on hard times. Mathes has been following it since the 1980s and recently seized the opportunity to be the U.S. importer. Lucky for local lovers of southern Rhone wines!

The 1995 Chateau de l'Isolette Cotes du Luberon $7.50 can only be described as delicious. Aromas are cherry, berry fruit with vanilla accents. On the palate, raspberry richness emerges with a voluptuous finish. The 1993 vintage of this wine may still be around for the same price. We prefer the 1995.

A white from the Mathes collection caught our attention. It is the 1995 Domaine Mireille et Vincent Cotes du Rhone blanc $7. With the escalating price of chardonnay, this delicate, flavorful wine with generous crispness, yet distinctively finesseful finish is more than a good alternative at a value price.

■ Wine dinner, 6:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 20, Morton's in Southfield (Oakland Towne Square Building), cost $125 per person, call (810) 354-6006 for reservations, limit 40 people. Featured menu pairs Morton's classic cuisine with the 1992 cabernets of California's Diamond Creek Vineyards. A cocktail kickoff will feature The Macallan single malt Scotch with an after-dessert pour of Remy Martin cognac.

Farmington Hills chilihead wins cookoff

Ray Frederick of Farmington Hills, and his wife Marilyn, were all smiles after Ray won the Michigan Chili Championship cookoff Sept. 8 at Five Lakes Grill in Milford, even though it means Marilyn won't be able to judge the world cookoff in Reno.

"I so happy he won," said Marilyn, who competed against Ray in the cookoff. "We worked so hard on the recipe. I'm elated. We cook against each other in the cookoffs, but work together as a team."

Marilyn won the Wyandotte District Chili Cookoff to qualify for the semi-finals in the world cookoff. If she places, she'll join Ray in the World Championship Chili cookoff, Oct. 3 in Reno, Nevada. If not, she'll still be there to cheer him on.

Marilyn is one of 100 cooks competing in the semi-finals. Twenty will continue to world competition. "If I didn't place, I was supposed to be one of the judges in the world cookoff," said Marilyn.

Proceeds from the cookoff will be used for scholarships for local culinary arts students and the Union Street Beautification Project in Milford.

Local cooks competing in the Michigan Chili Championship cookoff included: Diane Adamski (Redford); Paul Huyck (Farmington Hills); Kenneth Horn (Plymouth), Mike Maiman (Troy), Steve Leaver (Clarkston), and Nick Roncone (Birmingham).

Mark these dates on your calendar.

• Plymouth will stage its first Chili Cookoff 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 13 in downtown Plymouth's Kellogg park and the Gathering. The Michigan District Competition, sanctioned by the International Chili Society, will feature a chili and salsa competition, live country entertainment, chili pepper eating contest, line dancing, western barbecue and classic Harley Davidson show. Net event proceeds will be donated to Make-A-Wish Foundation of Michigan. Contestants are being sought, call Annette Horn, (313) 455-8838 to participate in the event, or for more information.

• Winter Freeze Regional Chili Cookoff 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. January 11, VFW Hall, 16736 Ecorse Road, Allen Park. Refreshments, food, entertainment. All proceeds to benefit Elks Michigan Major Projects for handicapped children.

Be sure to pick up the Oct. 7 issue of Taste for more information about the Plymouth Chili Cookoff, and Ray Frederick's prize-winning Tiger's Bite Chili Recipe.

A Call to the Arts

The Observer & Eccentric Newspapers and its Arts & Entertainment staff, applaud the efforts of gallery owners, community arts council members and individuals who promote fine arts in our communities. In anticipation of the 1996-97 season, we would like to meet with each of you as we address your concerns regarding our coverage of art shows, exhibits, and other fine arts events.
Discussion will also include ways to work together as we deliver the message,
—Arts are Vital—
to the communities served by our newspapers.

This important exchange of ideas will take place in our Plymouth Observer office on Wednesday, October 9, at 6 p.m. Please RSVP to Keely Wygonik, Arts & Entertainment Editor, Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia, MI 48150 no later than 5:00 p.m. Friday, September 27, 1996.

GNOMES

2 cups brown sugar, firmly packed
1/2 pound butter or margarine, melted
2 eggs
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups flour, sifted
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup chopped pecans or walnuts
Confectioners sugar

Add brown sugar to melted butter or margarine. Beat in eggs, add salt, sift in flour. Add vanilla and chopped nuts.

Grease and flour a shallow pan (square or oblong) and pour in batter. Bake in a 325° F. preheated oven for approximately 30 minutes.

Cut into bars or squares, and sprinkle with confectioners sugar.

CASTLE WASSAIL

2 quarts sweet apple cider
2 cups pineapple juice
1 1/2 cups orange juice
1/4 cup lemon juice
1 cup granulated sugar
2 sticks whole cinnamon
1 teaspoon whole cloves

Combine all ingredients and bring to boil. Serve hot. Can be put in a cauldron (Crock-Pot) to keep warm. Yield 12 to 15 servings.

Tie cinnamon and cloves in a cheesecloth for easy removal, or remove by straining.

MERLIN'S ALMOND CRESCENTS

Almond cookies:
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup granulated sugar
pinch salt
1 egg
1 teaspoon orange rind, freshly grated
1 teaspoon lemon rind, freshly grated
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1/2 cup finely chopped almonds
1 1/2 cups all purpose flour
Topping:
1 egg white
1/2 teaspoon water
2 tablespoons granulated sugar
2 tablespoons finely chopped almonds

Cream butter and sugar together in a large bowl. Add a dash of salt and one egg and beat until light and fluffy.

Add rinds, vanilla extract and chopped almonds and mix well.

Gently sift flour into mixture a little at a time. Mix well and chill one hour or until dough is easily handled. Pinch off small pieces of dough and form into rope-like shapes about the size of your index finger.

Bend into a curve to form a crescent and place on greased cookie sheet about 1-inch apart.

Beat one egg white lightly with 1/2 teaspoon water and brush over each crescent with a pastry brush.

Blend 2 tablespoons sugar and 2 tablespoons finely chopped almonds and sprinkle onto crescents.

Bake on the top rack of a 325°F. oven for 20 minutes or until lightly browned.

Cool completely before storing. Yield 2 1/2 dozen crescents.

KNIGHTS ROUND SUGAR COOKIES

2 1/2 cups flour
1/2 cup shortening
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1 cup granulated sugar
3/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup butter
2 tablespoons milk
1 egg

(All ingredients should be at room temperature.) Sift together flour, soda and salt. Set aside.

Cream together butter, shortening, sugar and vanilla. Add egg. Mix until fluffy.

Stir in dry ingredients until mixture is smooth. Blend in milk.

Drop by teaspoonful onto greased cookie sheet. Flatten with bottom of glass which has been dipped in sugar.

Bake at 375°F. for 10-12 minutes. Cool. Yield 5 1/2 dozen 2-inch cookies.

FAIRY TALE FUDGE

4 1/2 cups granulated sugar
1 can evaporated milk (12 ounces)
18 ounces semi-sweet chocolate chips
2 tablespoons vanilla
1/2 pound margarine
1-2 cups chopped nuts (optional)

Place margarine, chocolate chips, vanilla and nuts in a large bowl; set aside. In a large (5 quart), heavy sauce pan, bring sugar and milk to boil, stirring constantly. Boil and continue stirring for 8 minutes (mixture will bubble up).

Pour milk mixture over chocolate mixture and stir to blend. Beat with electric mixer approximately 2 minutes until smooth and creamy. Pour into greased 9 by 13 inch pan. Makes 4 pounds.

Schoolcraft Culinary Extravaganza features recipes from master chefs

BY KEELY WYGONIK
STAFF WRITER

Schoolcraft College in Livonia is hosting its fifth annual Schoolcraft College Culinary Extravaganza, 2-5 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 22, in the Waterman Center on campus, 18600 Haggerty, Livonia.

The event, which raises money for student scholarships, allows patrons the opportunity to sample dishes from 60 of metro Detroit's most popular restaurants.

There's also a silent auction, and raffle drawing. Culinary Extravaganza tickets are tax deductible and modestly priced at $40 per person or two tickets for $75. Raffle tickets are $5 each or three for $10. Both can be purchased by calling Schoolcraft's Marketing and Development office (313) 462-4417. MasterCard and Visa and checks are accepted.

Items on the silent auction include a dinner for eight prepared by Chef Jimmy Schmidt at his restaurant, The Rattlesnake Club in Detroit. Bids for the Jimmy Schmidt dinner may be submitted in writing to Schoolcraft College, Attn: Beth Moceri, Office of Marketing and Development, 18600 Haggerty Road, Livonia, MI 48152-2696. The opening bid is $500 for each dinner.

Guests will take home recipes for a Harvest Menu — Alpine Mushroom Salad, Salmon Fillet Prudehoe, Roasted Eggplant and Garlic Soup with Red Bell Pepper Cream, Grilled Beef Tenderloin with Red Wine & Pistachios, and Peach Cobbler with Cinnamon Ice Cream and Fresh Raspberries, created by master chefs who teach at Schoolcraft College.

The original recipes were created by chefs — Leopold Schaeli, Kevin Gawronski, Joseph Decker, Daniel Hugelier, and Jeff Gabriel the chefs just for the Schoolcraft Culinary Extravaganza.

Members of the Jack Brokensha Quartet, who regularly perform at the Botsford Inn on Thursdays, will entertain diners with sounds of mellow jazz.

The first prize winner in the raffle will receive a trip on a corporate jet for eight and accommodations for two nights at Grand Traverse Resort. The second prize is two tickets to any destination Northwest Airlines flies in the continental United States. A blue topaz and diamond ring from Orin Jewelers will grace the finger of the third place winner, and the fourth place winner will receive a Coach leather briefcase.

He's a recipe created by Chef Joseph Decker.

PEACH COBBLER WITH CINNAMON ICE CREAM AND FRESH RASPBERRIES

3 cups bread flour
1 1/2 cups brown sugar
3/4 teaspoon cinnamon
12 ounces butter
12 to 16 fresh or frozen peaches, peeled and sliced
1/2 teaspoon fresh ginger
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
Juice of 1 lemon
Zest of 1 lemon
1/4 cup clarified butter

Preheat oven to 350° F. Mix together well the flour, sugar and 3/4 teaspoon cinnamon.

Rub the butter into the dry mixture until it becomes lumpy. Set aside.

Combine peaches with remaining ingredients. Place fresh peach mixture in a shallow baking pan and sprinkle the topping mixture over the top.

Bake at 350° F. for 45 minutes to an hour, until golden on top. Allow to cool for 20 to 30 minutes. Cut and serve with cinnamon ice cream and fresh raspberries.

Nifty nails: Technician "Andrew" at 90's Nails in Oakland Mall, works with client. Sandy Frattarola of Warren.

Fun fingertips keep salons busy

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN
SPECIAL WRITER

Years ago the only time a woman had her nails done was for her wedding or special occasion. With the advent of acrylic nails, salons are springing up at every mall and mainstreet.

Tina Trevarrow stopped into 90's Nails at the Oakland Mall, Troy last week for a set of acrylic nails and a French manicure. An L.A. actress, she was in town working on the production of "The Polish Wedding" being filmed in Hamtramck. Trevarrow said began wearing acrylic nails three years ago because her natural nails break easily.

"In L.A. there's a nail salon on every corner," she said heading back to California to work on the television show Unsolved Mysteries. "I get them done about every 10 days to two weeks because sometimes a nail lifts and if air, or a hair, gets under a nail, you can get a fungus infections. They have to be taken off and redone. You must keep them up all the time."

90's Nails, a licensed salon which opened in July, offers customers more than 50 colors of nail polish and 400 different airbrushed designs for acrylic nails. Technician Larry Lee designs and hand cuts the stencils for the designs of palm trees, flowers and rabbits. Along with airbrushing, shop technicians decorate nails with rhinestones, flat nail art, gold and silver glitter, stripping, two tones, and charms.

90's Nails was founded in Pennsylvania three years ago by owner Jime Luong. Besides locations in the east, he has two stores in Michigan and plans call for a 90s Nails to open soon at Twelve Oaks in Novi.

At The Nail Station in Plymouth, Susan Misener was treating her 13- year old daughter Michelle to frosted aquamarine polish and original artwork of the Tasmanian Devil on her pinky finger. Technician Wendy Weldon specializes in free-hand art, painting a range of images from Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa to Bugs Bunny, a miniature dollar bill, seasonal and holiday trimmings, and logos of the Detroit Red Wings and U of M sports teams.

"The Looney Tunes characters are real popular with teenagers," she said. "A couple of weeks ago, I had four or five of them come in the morning after a sleep-over party. Nails are growing in popularity. My customers range in age from 18 to 65, from business ladies coming in on their lunch hours to cleaning ladies who are really hard on their nails."

Misener comes in every two weeks to maintain her long nails which this week were done in pink and accented with rhinestones and an abstract design painted by Weldon. Working on a computer all day with long finger nails took some adjustment she said.

Weldon said she tries to stay current with fashionable colors and this season that means metallics in slate grey, dark blue and dark green. Red is dead when it comes to coloring nails.

"Of course, some people are stuck on red," Weldon said, "They're going to wear red whether it's in or not. My clients are asking for frosts, especially white, and dark metallics like purple."

One of the most requested finishes is a blue and purple marbleized faux Weldon learned while working in a craft store painting furniture.

"Nails are so popular now because with the acrylics the polish lasts so much longer – up to two weeks, whereas with polish on a natural nail it's 2-3 days," she pointed out. She's won several nail painting competitions and has had her creations published in magazines.

Technicians at The Nail Station are state board certified. They take safety precautions seriously.

"Training and sanitation are very important," Weldon said. "All implements are kept in hospital grade disinfectants."

B'ham puts on a Fall Spectacular

A record crowd turned out to see the best of Birmingham at last Wednesday's Fall Spectacular. They raised $100,000 for cancer survivor scholarships and enjoyed the evening of friends, food and fashion.

BY SUSAN DEMAGGIO
STAFF WRITER

The merchants of downtown Birmingham proved once again that they are cool.

Way cool.

Their runway show of the season's best from Jacobson's to Kiddlywinks, had the standing-room-only audience mesmerized from start to finish. The eclectic offerings from funky shops like It's the Ritz, Timbuktu and Lisa Parks, blended with the European collections of Tender, Maxwell, Edward Dorian, and the more traditional looks from stores like The Claymore Shop, Thomas Leffler and Jacobson's.

The highlight of the show belonged to the 18 youngsters who macaraina-ed down the runway in free spirited garments from Frankie & Debbie's, Kiddlywinks and Hansel & Gretel, inviting wild applause from the crowd, many who stood to join in.

Emcee Jim Harper of WNIC radio's The Breakfast Club summed it up as "the night Hollywood comes to Birmingham - when the audience is just as beautiful as the models on stage."

Theatrics came courtesy of the town's four leading hair salons. Each staff offered a Salute to Broadway with coifs and make-up inspired by the musicals Cabaret (90th Floor); West Side Story (Salon Sydney); My Fair Lady (Antonino); and Phantom of the Opera (Kennice Bashar).

"I loved the show it was very entertaining and worth waiting for," said Patty Greene of Birmingham. (The fashion show started a half-hour late, running from 9-10 p.m. The event was under way at 6 p.m. in tents set up in the parking lot across from the Community House. Guests spent $25 each to enjoy cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, a silent auction of goods and services from downtown merchants, and a coffee/dessert afterglow.)

Dr. Charles Main, chief of pediatric hematology/oncology at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, presented 11 scholarships to local coeds who survived battles with cancer. It was his idea for the scholarship fund that Birmingham merchants have adopted.

"I would like to thank all the do-ers not talkers in Birmingham," he said. "We must keep up this work because we have 15 to 20 survivors in the wings."

Event chairman Richard Astrein thanked his executive committee, wife Debbie, Traci Toepp Farlow and Debbie Caruso from It's The Ritz, Judi Roberts of 220 Merrill, and Janice Milan Ruby of Kiddlywinks.

He instructed the audience to refer to the 31-page program guide for a complete list of all the town's businesses deserving thanks for their contributions to the night's activities.

A live auction of a year-lease on a Jaguar XJ6 produced $15,800, an anonymous donor added $20,000 to that, and Astrein estimated that the silent auction raised another $60,000 for the annual Fall Spectacular.

The crowd's donations blew away last year's $60,000 record.

More than 1,000 people attended.

Trend alert:

*Tender: Pair a pumpkin orange suit with brown tights, a lime green suit with wine tights for a chic color update.

*Basic Goods/Caruso-Caruso: Big and baggy is best.

*Timbuktu: Layer pieces for comfort dressing.

*Lisa Parks Knits: Winter white can be sooo refreshing.

*Furs By Robert: Designers reveal, it's not your mother's fur coat.

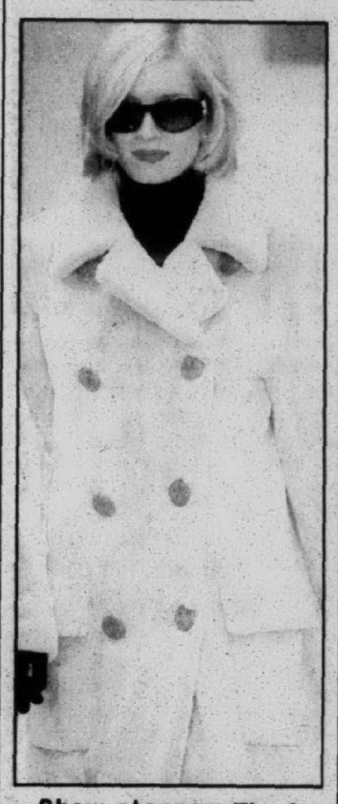
Fur finale



Show stopper: The fur designs of Jerry Sorbara top off Tuesday's "Art of Fashion" benefit, presented by Neiman Marcus for Orchards Children's Services.

The fun gets under way at 11:30 a.m. under a tent in the Somerset Collection South parking lot, Troy.

A light lunch follows the Best of Fall runway show.

Tickets are $50. For reservations call (810) 433-8600.

Sorbara's collection features black or white slickers with leopard- or zebra-print fur trim; ice-blue, lilac or pink mink; Russian broadtails; chinchillas; sables; and the newest trend – stoles.

Michigan designers are a benefit hit

BY SUSAN DEMAGGIO
STAFF WRITER

In a darkened ballroom at the Troy Marriott, the pulsating beat of Mission Impossible's theme set the mood for intrigue and surprise as 15 Michigan designers introduced fall collections at The St. Hugo of the Hills fashion luncheon, Sept. 9.

Using props like field glasses, toy guns and flip phones, models had fun mixing up spy personas with high fashion.

Guests enjoyed the Michigan By Design theme set by chairwoman Dolores Mutchler, dining on Michigan Field Salad, grilled Lake Michigan Salmon, and Carmel Apple Grannie. The centerpieces were baskets filled with Michigan products like Jiffy mixes from Chelsea, and Sydney Bogg chocolates. Favors included two wrapped and ribboned tulip bulbs from Holland.

"I though the show was great, very creative," said Kathy Tanner of Bloomfield Hills. "I saw the diversity available in Michigan and I was so proud that we have such talent here."

La Vonne Hunter produced and narrated the hour-long fashion production showcasing the work of designers from Detroit's International Design Center on Monroe St. The presentation moved swiftly, despite difficulty understanding the narration which attempted to weave a tale of mystery around the clothing descriptions.

Two or three times during the show, the audience burst into applause for designs that were ingenious blends of fabric and colors. Collections made use of faux fur, cashere, wool crepe, satin and trims like crystal beading, feathers and fringe.

Designer Tahari at opera benefit

Saks Fifth Avenue at the Somerset Collection South in Troy, presents Elie Tahari with his fall line of sportswear, suits and dresses at a wine and hors d'oeuvres reception to benefit the Michigan Opera Theatre, Thursday, Sept. 19 beginning at 6 p.m.

Event chairpersons are Bloomfield Hills residents Millie Pastor and Sharon Snyder. Tickets are Patron $25, or Benefactor $50. To make a reservation, call MOT at (313) 874-7850.

Art clothing trunk show set

The designs of Jennifer Sly Kirk (whose unique art clothing designs were featured recently in the Observer & Eccentric's "A Fashionable Fall" magazine,) is showing her newest collection of wool jackets and vests at a trunk show in The Apple Tree Room, 32749 Franklin, Thursday, Sept. 19 from 2-7 p.m. For more information call (810) 851-9862.

Michigania moves onto the Internet

"A store and a good bit more" is Michigania at http://www.michigania.com. The store with real locations in Birmingham and Lansing, now offers its customers a 24-hour, 7-day-a-week shopping service on the Internet.

Michigania was founded in 1988 to sell products manufactured in the state by Jan and Dick Hayhow. Jan was the first director of the "Say Yes to Michigan" campaign and deputy director of the Michigan Travel Bureau. For more details call the Birmingham store at 205 Pierce St. (810) 647-1444.

Crowley's Hosts Annual Gift Benefit

Crowley's customers can give financial support to their favorite charity while helping their own bottom lines through the "Give A Gift...Get A Gift" fund-raising program through Oct. 28.

Crowley's is providing non-profit groups with tickets to sell their members and contributors at $5 each, each ticket allows the holder 10-percent off at all Crowley's stores on Oct. 28 and 29. One ticket will be honored per customer.

Each person who buys a ticket is entered in a drawing to win a $500 shopping spree. The charity selling the winning ticket receives an additional $500 donation. Last year the program raised $8,000 for a variety of causes. For more details call Joanne Krol at (313) 962-2504.

Full-figured model search at Westland Center

Due to a large response, the Michigan Chapter of the National Association to Advance Fat Acceptance (NAAFA) is holding a second open audition for full-figured models, Sunday, Sept.22 from noon to 5 p.m. at Westland Center, Wayne and Warren Roads.

The association is looking for men and women, sizes 18 and up, who "know how to strut their stuff!"

To register for the model search, applicants call (313) 438-4FAT by Sept. 20. Requirements include a full-body Polaroid and registration fee of $15. Everyone who registers is invited to the 1996 NAAFA Midwest Conference in Detroit.

MRA offers debit card processing

The Michigan Retailers Association teamed with Magic Line and KeyBank to offer retailers point-of-sale debit card processing. With a debit card, a customer's purchases are directly deducted from his or her checking account. The use of the cards is relatively small but growing rapidly, according to Larry Meyer, vice-chairman of the MRA.

"Industry analysts say use of debit cards in retail stores across the nation has shot up 600 percent since 1990 to 100 million transactions a year, " he said. "They expect that number to rise to 450 million transactions by the year 2000."

Meyer pointed out that with debit card purchases, retailers are free from worries over fraud and chargebacks. The sale is guaranteed the moment the shoppers enters his or her PIN (personal identification number) and the retailer receives authorization via the bankcard terminal.

Complete details are available from the MRA at 1-800-366-3699.

Sears celebrates Disney's Silver Anniversary

Sears stores at Oakland Mall, Troy and Livonia Mall, are marking Disney World's 25th anniversary with a week of special events. From Sept. 16-28, register to win one of 135 family vacations to the Disney World Resort.

Sign a giant congratulations card and Sears will donate $1 to the Boys & Girls Clubs of America. The card will be in Troy on Sept. 18 from noon until 2 p.m. at Livonia Mall on Sept. 21 from noon to 2 p.m.

Also at Livonia Mall store on Sept. 21, contests, costume parade and Mickey Mouse visit. From Sept. 15-28, register to win trip to Thailand as part of Jewels From Thailand event. Free good luck elephant pin with any Thailand gem purchase.

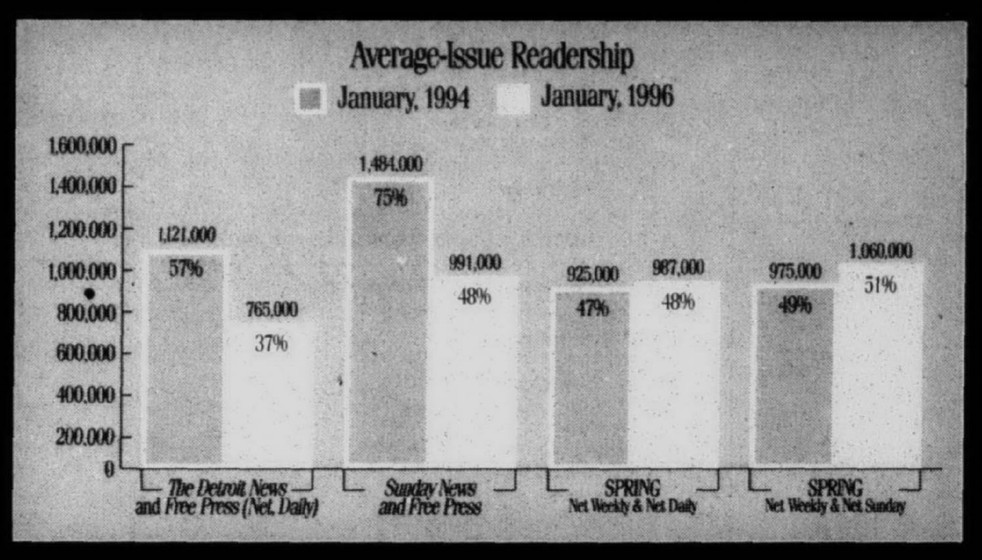
Suburban Detroit:

We have the leadership in readership!



SPRING delivers the suburbs with more weekday readers than The News and Free Press combined!*

Now there are more reasons than ever to go home with SPRING Newspapers. SPRING continues to be the primary weekday newspaper for suburban residents of this suburb-driven market.* For example:

- 48% of adults in the SPRING survey area read SPRING weekly and daily newspapers.
- SPRING delivers, on average, 1,060,000 total readers every week.
- That means SPRING delivers 1,167,000 gross impressions for an entire week.

Compare these numbers to your other media alternatives: only 37% of adults in the SPRING survey area read the weekday Free Press or The Detroit News.

More suburban Detroit readers turn to SPRING.

- SPRING delivers more weekday suburban readers with household incomes over $50,000.
- SPRING delivers more suburban homeowners (51%) than any other weekday newspaper.

To find out more about how the Detroit market has changed, and for information about our current audit, call the SPRING Newspaper Network at 1-800/382-8878.

SUZANNE HANOVER

Heartwarming story: Whoopi Goldberg and Haley Joel Osment star in "Bogus," now playing at metro Detroit movie theaters.

'Bogus' engaging family movie

BY DOLORES BARCLAY
ASSOCIATED PRESS ARTS EDITOR

What an unfortunate idea to title a movie "Bogus." It makes the work such an easy target.

And that's too bad. Because the new Warner Bros. release, though shallow, a bit forced and at times downright irritating, is otherwise an engaging and harmless family movie.

The story is centered around a 7-year-old named Albert (Haley Joel Osment) and the imaginary friend who comes to life when his mother dies.

Albert lives in Las Vegas where his unmarried mother Lorraine (Nancy Travis) works as a showgirl. His world _ and his family _ are the sequined stages of the strip's casinos and pleasure palaces. He hangs backstage with the performers and learns all about magic from illusionist Mr. Antoine.

Then his world explodes. His mother is killed in a car crash. Albert thinks the other performers will gladly take him in and he will be able to maintain some sort of tie to the only "family" he's ever known, but that's not to be. Lorraine had left a will, naming her foster sister Harriet (Whoopi Goldberg) as Albert's guardian in the event of her death.

Big problem. Harriet lives clear across the country in the claustrophobic environs of Newark, N.J.

Albert reluctantly boards the plane and while doodling with a play book the stewardess has given him, a drawing of a big, round face comes to life and starts to talk to the troubled child. The face soon takes on more shape and that of a body, too. It turns into a large, sweet Frenchman named Bogus (Gerard Depardieu).

Bogus is Albert's imaginary friend and companion and only Albert can see him. It's a device that worked so charmingly with Jimmy Stewart in "Harvey," but is played here for contrived laughs.

Back in Newark, the frenetic Harriet races through her work day to meet the youngster at the airport. She's stressed and full of attitude, and the last thing she wants or needs in her single life is a child.

Harriet and Albert spend much of the movie struggling to find a common thread, other than Lorraine. Of course, they finally do and by necessity, Bogus must disappear.

It's a predictable storyline from writer-producer Jeff Rothberg and screenwriter Alvin Sargent, complete with all the diversions usually seen in this type of relationship movie. Yes, Albert does try to run away; yes, Harriet does go after him; yes, they fight over most things; yes, Albert's magic tricks pop up.

But the worst device in the movie comes when Harriet is able to see Bogus, thus destroying the fragile world of imagination. When he enters her psyche, the film slips to melodrama, because, as it turns out, Harriet also had a difficult and troubled childhood.

And that's the biggest problem with the Norman Jewison movie. Harriet is a complex character who remains undeveloped and largely unknown. She's almost more of the story than Albert and Bogus, and far more interesting. But she's a flat Hollywood stencil. Too bad.

Jewison, an admirable filmmaker of such classics as "The Russians Are Coming! The Russians Are Coming!," "In the Heat of the Night," "The Thomas Crown Affair" as well as the comedy "Moonstruck," manages to pull lovely performances from his actors, but they're all working with flimsy material.

"Bogus" is produced by Jewison, Rothberg and Arnon Milchan and is rated PG. You can bring the entire family, but older, more sophisticated children might be bored.

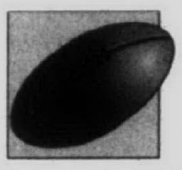
Canton offense crunches Central



It's no secret. Any football coach in the WLAA can tell you how to beat Plymouth Canton -- just bottle up quarterback Rob Johnson. But as Walled Lake Central discovered, that's not so easy.

BY BILL PARKER
STAFF WRITER

Rob Johnson was a one-man wrecking crew Friday night. The 6-foot, 4-inch, 205-pound senior accounted for 331 all-purpose yards and three touchdowns as Plymouth Canton earned a huge 27-21 victory at Walled Lake Central. Johnson threw for a pair of touchdowns in the first half as the Chiefs controlled the ball and rolled up a 14-0 lead. When Central scored on the opening possession of the second half to cut the deficit to 14-7, Johnson returned the ensuing kickoff 85 yards for a touchdown to put the Chiefs back on top by two TD's.

"They have a great, great athlete in Rob Johnson," raved Central coach Darrell Harper. "He beat us all by himself. We'll be watching him on Saturdays (college) in the future."

Johnson was intercepted in the end zone by Central senior Billy Sanders on the opening drive of the game, but was nearly flawless after that. He directed a nine-play, 59-yard scoring drive on Canton's next possession and capped the drive with a 14-yard touchdown pass to senior wide receiver Ryan Hanna. The next time the Chiefs got the ball, early in the second quarter, Johnson again led his team into the end zone as the Chiefs marched 80-yards in eight plays and scored on a 20-yard TD pass from Johnson to sophomore tight end Joe Higgins.

Entering the game, the Chiefs were concerned with Central's multiple offense and wanted to possess the ball as long as possible, which they were able to do in the first half. Central managed just four offensive plays in the entire first quarter. At halftime, the Chiefs held 16:34-7:26 edge in time of possession, as well as a 14-0 lead on the scoreboard.

"We thought it would be important to get the ball and control the ball for a long time," said Canton coach Bob Khoenle, whose team improved to 1-1. "We had good ball control in the first half, probably a little better than we had anticipated. You have to do that against a team like Central. They spread you out and can drive you crazy with people flying all over the place."

The Viking's offense finally found a groove in the second half. Keyed by a big block from sophomore Nathan Bruce, senior Chance Hepinstall gave the Vikings great field possession when he returned the opening kickoff of the second half 25 yards to the Central 44-yard-line. Senior quarterback Adam Bruce completed a 28-yard pass to Sanders, then ran for 22 yard to set up a 3-yard touchdown run by his brother Nathan.

Johnson's 85-yard kickoff return followed to give Canton a 21-7 lead, but instead of folding the Vikings responded with a 67-yard scoring drive. Adam Bruce completed three passes for 39 yards and capped the

Salem rally jolts Northville

Game-breaker: Nate Gray, Salem's senior quarterback, ruined Northville by rushing for 61 yards and passing for 108. He ran for one TD and tossed a 72-yard scoring pass.

BY RICHARD L. SHOOK
STAFF WRITER

Instead of losing by a foot, Plymouth Salem won by a foot.

Specifically, the foot of Brian James.

James kicked a 19-yard field goal through a fine mist with six seconds to play Friday night to float unheralded Salem to its second victory of the young season, 17-14, over Northville.

Not quite a steal and not quite a gift, the Rocks rallied from a 14-0 deficit with a strong final 15 minutes to punish the Mustangs for failing to capitalize on numerous opportunities.

"We didn't start to play until we were down 14-0," Salem coach Tom Moshimer said. "We had a great win last week. And sometimes, especially when you're young like we are, it's hard to maintain your intensity level.

"You're supposed to improve from your first to your second game. We went from zero turnovers in our first game to I don't know how many."

Actually the Rocks only coughed the ball up twice, the same as the Mustangs. It just seemed worse. Their timing was critical.

Northville, leading 6-0 thanks to field goals of 33- and 26-yards by junior Adam Tibble, fumbled on Plymouth's one late in the first half. That possession was set up by a Salem fumble at midfield.

The Rocks took Brett Burleson's fumble recovery and ground out a first down before stalling out. Their punt from the 13 was blocked by Bryan Grider to let the Mustangs to get their foot in the door again.

The Mustangs, however, were of a mind to slam the door on their own foot.

They drove down to the one -- only to have time in the half run out after fullback Chris Whittington was halted for no gain on third down at the one.

Northville had timeouts remaining, too.

"They took the game to us the first two and one-half quarters," Moshimer said. "We got it done a little better in the second half."

Whittington ran for 104 yards on 22 carries in the first half. And ended with 32 rushes for 138 yards.

It didn't help when Northville quarterback Rob Reel went out with an injury late in the third quarter, never to return. He was 4-11--120 while his replacement, Jeff Husak, was 2-3--19.

"We're not real big up front," Moshimer said. "We give up a lot of size."

But his defensive line of DEs Tim Kocoloski (175) and Teono Wilson (190) plus DTs Kevin Guse (220) and Brian Brigham (225) seemed to play stronger as the game got longer.

Northville looked like it was going to make its late second-quarter inabilities to score a moot point when it kicked off to Plymouth to start the second half -- and recovered a fumble by Jason Reed on his own 15.

Whittington ripped through the middle for a touchdown on the first play and followed with a two-point conversion run to make it 14-0 just 17 seconds into the second half.

Northville stunned Plymouth with an onside kick in a bold attempt to make Salem cave in. It looked like a winner, too, when Reel faded back on the first play and arched what appeared to be a 43-yard scoring strike to Scott Vigh.

Ooops. Flag on the play. Holding, Northville.

Pushed back to its own 41, Whit-

No catching No. 1

Top-ranked Flint Northern puts Salem away quickly

Number One is still No. 1 -- for now.

Two-time defending Class A champion Flint Northern knocked off Plymouth Salem, 54-41, Thursday night at Flint Northwestern to take the battle of unbeatens.

The two might meet again -- and Rocks' coach Fred Thomann and his girls certainly hope they do -- but it won't be until the late stages of the state tournament.

The Vikings jumped on the Rocks in the first quarter and didn't quit stomping until it was 20-8.

"The first quarter was the key to the game," Thomann said. "They came out with hard pressure. Once we got adjusted, we played fairly even over the next three periods.

"The key was turnovers. We probably turned it over 22-25 times. We had 15 in the first half, about 10 in the first quarter.

"They probably only turned it over 15 times."

Northern is now 5-0 while Salem suffered its first loss in five outings. The Rocks don't play again until opening their Western Lakes Activities Association schedule Thursday at Northville.

BASKETBALL

Laurel Weinman led Salem with 11 points, including a pair of triples, and also had three rebounds. Angie Sillmon scored 10 points, added seven rebounds and had two assists.

Amanda Abraham scored eight points, grabbed six rebounds and also had two assists while Heather Guerin had seven rebounds plus four points to go with them.

Senior wings Corlissa Elam and Deana Nolan paced Flint Northern with 13 points apiece.

Salem held Northern to just five points in the third period but could only score nine itself. The Vikings won the second and fourth periods, 18-16 and 11-8, respectively.

The Rocks neutralized the Vikings' Tawana McDonald by getting her in foul trouble.

Salem also hurt itself at the free throw line, making 11-of-20 while Northern was sinking 10-of-18.

"That was another thing that hurt us in that first half," Thomann said. "We missed seven free throws in the second quarter. Had we made a couple-three of those, we would have been in a little better shape."

But they didn't. Now they'll have enough time to get over that hurt -- and enough time to starting thinking about putting a little hurt on their WLAA opponents.

CANTON 50, FARMINGTON 21: It was too much Plymouth Canton and not enough Amanda Porters for Farmington's girls basketball team.

Canton (4-1) drilled Farmington Wednesday with Porter scoring all but three of the Falcons' points.

The Chiefs got 20 points from Kristi Fiorenzi and 17 from Nkechi Okwumabua as they used a 9-2 second period to expand upon a 14-9 first quarter lead.

"They were just too physical for us," Falcons' coach John Verdura said after his team lost for the fifth time in six games. "We were down 11 at the half. They just wore us down.

"They're a good team, fundamentally very good. Obviously, by our 21 points, they play very good defense. They executed so well, and they overpowered us on the boards. They got some putback points."

Canton had margins of 13-5 and 14-5 during the last two periods.

PCA 53, EAST CATHOLIC 38: Plymouth Christian Academy improved to 5-0 Thursday with its victory at Detroit East Catholic.

The Chargers (1-2) led 14-11 after the first quarter, but the Eagles took the lead for good in the second quarter by working the ball inside. A 10-0 run to end the first half gave PCA a 31-20 halftime lead.

"In the second quarter, we worked the ball in to the low post," PCA coach Rod Windle said. "Sarah (Sumner) did a good job and scored 11 points in the quarter."

Sumner finished with a game-high 16 points. Elizabeth Pugno and Jenny Sutherland added 12 and seven points, respectively.

Double delight

There was good news, and more good news, for the Canton Quest '83 last Labor Day weekend.

First the Quest, an under-14 premier girls soccer team coached by Ellen Schroeder, won the Division I title at the Romeo PeachFest Tournament by sweeping all four of their games. The Quest defeated the SCSC Blizzards 4-2 in the championship match.

Then the Quest discovered they had been invited to play in the WAGS Tournament, Oct. 11-14 in Washington D.C. It's the first time a team from the Canton Soccer Club was invited to play in this elite tournament.

Quest team members who participated at the PeachFest Tournament were Rachel Berezak, Beth Burgess, Sarah Cox, Jade Fukuda, Liz Gizicki, Brandi Groves, Leslie Hogan, Stephanie Johnson, Katie Kelly, Emily Lambros, Janine Guastella, Kellee Mullin, Sarah Pack, Danielle Portelli, Terri Schroeder and Ashley Williams, Team manager is Pat Hogan; Steve Glover is the trainer.

Another soccer champ

The Canton Crossfire, an under-11 boys soccer team, captured the B Division title at the 15th annual Romeo PeachFest Tournament over Labor Day weekend.

The Crossfire posted a 3-0-1 record, defeating the St. Clair Shores Scorpions 3-2 in the final.

The team is coached by Jim DeVries and Dave Krajovic.

Correction

In Thursday's edition of the Observer, there were some mistakes made in the story on the West Bloomfield Invitational.

Here are Salem's top-five finishers: Nicole Bolton, 11th overall, 20:41; Kristie Giddings, 29th, 21:15; Evelyn Rahhal, 34th, 21:33; Ellen Stemmer, 69th, 22:18; Sarah Pratt, 117th, 23:31.

Bolton, Giddings and Rahhal medaled. Team score was 260 points, good for eighth place (out of 31 teams).

Canton's top-five finishers: Beth Knight, 25th, 21:08; Becky Wolfrom, 45th, 21:49; Angkana Roy, 56th, 22:03; Christiana Bradford, 65th, 22:13; Lori Schmidt, 70th, 22:22. Knight and Wolfrom medaled. Team finish: 261 points, ninth place.

First goal

Siena Heights College's women's soccer team opened its season with a 4-0 triumph over Saginaw Valley State Sept. 3, scoring all four goals in the second half.

All four of the Saints goal-scorers were freshmen, one of them Liz Peltier, a Plymouth Salem graduate.

Siena Heights followed that win with a 1-0 loss to Indiana Wesleyan Sept. 6, even though the Saints had a 17-3 edge in shots. They recovered to post a 3-0 triumph over Alma College Sept. 7.

Punt, Pass and Kick

The annual Punt, Pass and Kick Football Contest returns to Canton on Saturday, Sept. 28 at Griffin Community Park (at Sheldon Road).

There will be four age divisions for boys and, new this year, for girls: 8-9, 10-11, 12-13 and 14-15. The top finisher in each division advances to the next level of competition, and the top two in each division receive awards.

No cleats of any type are allowed. A copy of the competitors birth certificate is required. Competition starts at 9:15 a.m. Sept. 28, and there are no residency requirements.

For more information, call 397-5110.

Dekhockey Tournament

The first International Dekhockey Tournament in Michigan will come to Michigan Dekhockey Inc., located at 45109 Michigan in Canton, Oct. 26-27.

The tournament will involve teams from Massachusetts, Long Island-New York, Pennsylvania, Niagara Falls-Ontario, and several local squads. Teams will be competing for cash and prizes; the maximum number of teams admitted to the tournament will be 16.

Michigan Dekhockey Inc. is the first facility of its type in the state, providing year-round floor hockey and in-line hockey. For more information on the tournament, or on league registrations, call (313) 397-8900.

Roller hockey

Information on upcoming Roller Hockey Leagues, for ages 4-14, is now available at Skatin' Station II, located off Joy in Canton.

Play will be for 10 weeks, every Sunday, starting Oct. 6. Cost is $95.

For further information, call (313) 459-6401.

Salem, Glenn dual finishes in a draw

Talk about luck.

Plymouth Salem and Westland John Glenn forged a 206-206 tie Friday at Fellows Creek, leaving both golf teams with a 1-0-1 dual-meet records in the Western Lakes Activities Association.

The meet went to the sixth golfer on each team to break the tie, but the tie remained -- both carded a 48.

Which is where the luck intercedes. On the final hole, Salem's Pat Belvitch drove his tee shot out of bounds, which proved costly. Belvitch ended up with a double-bogey for a final score of 48.

Glenn's Justin Fendelet, on the same finishing hole, appeared to be doomed to the same fate when his tee shot headed out of bounds. But as luck would have it, Fendelet's drive hit a guide wire holding up a utility pole and bounced back into play.

GOLF

He ended up with a bogey on the hole -- and a 48, same score as Belvitch

"That's golf," said Salem coach Rick Wilson. The meet will stay a tie, each team receiving a half-point. "We had some decent scores, but give Glenn credit -- so did they. They played well."

Leading the Rocks was Ryan Deschaw with a 38, which tied Glenn's Craig Piscopink for medalist honors. Brian Fox, Jeff Lear and Adam Wilson each shot a 41, and Eric Krueger had a 45.

On Thursday, Salem beat Northville in its WLAA opener, 207-214 at Hilltop. Fox led the Rocks with a 38, followed by Lear with a 39, Deschaw with a 42, and Krueger and Belvitch each with a 44.

Salem plays Farmington today at Hilltop, and then has a major match against WLAA power Livonia Churchill Wednesday at Fox Creek.

Stevenson 216, Canton 243: On Friday at Hilltop, Livonia Stevenson had four golfers outshoot any of Plymouth Canton's scorers.

The Chiefs were led by Matt Heiss with a 46. Shaun Gallahaire shot 48, Derek Lineberry had 49, and both Matt Rosol and Justin Allen carded 50s.

Stevenson was paced by Steve Polanski with a 39. Justin Kerr, Roy Rabe and Nick Kouba fired 43s, and Tim Vanecek had a 47.

Stevenson is 1-1 in the WLAA, Canton is 0-2. The Chiefs play Northville today and North Farmington Wednesday, the latter at Hilltop.

Pats' quick strikes rip Spartans

BY NEAL ZIPSER
STAFF WRITER

Quick, explosive and dangerous. This may sound like the artillery being used by the United States military in the Middle East, but it's also an accurate description of the Livonia Franklin offense.

The Patriots displayed their quick-strike capability by routing host Livonia Stevenson Friday 29-7, in a Western Lakes Activities Association cross-over. Both teams are 1-1.

After the Spartans opened the scoring on their first drive of the game, Franklin scored 29 unanswered points -- all within a blink of an eye. Franklin's scoring drives consisted of eight total plays.

Consider these statistics: Stevenson had more first downs, 16-7; Stevenson ran 65 plays on offense to Franklin's 35; and the Spartans controlled time of possession 28:35 to 19:25 for Franklin.

The Spartans were also able to move the ball on the Patriots, gaining 306 yards of total offense. But Franklin's offense was more potent, accumulating 378 yards of offense.

"We wanted to establish ball control, but everybody was executing," Franklin coach Rick Lee said. "We look to get four yards a carry. But everyone was doing their job. We executed against a good and disciplined Stevenson team."

Stevenson scored on the game's first possession, when senior Kurt Bearer took an inside hand-off from quarterback Chris Colley and rambled 55 yards for a touchdown. Cullen Geisler and Doug Monteith created the huge hole for Baerer.

Baerer, who gained 100 yards on 13 carries, broke Paul Terek's tackle at the 20 and tight-roped down the sidelines. Seth Carriere's extra point made it 7-0.

"I don't have a lot of complaints about our offense; they moved the ball well, but just struggled once they got within the 30-yard line," Stevenson coach Tim Gabel said. "We were more consistent on offense than we were last week (in a 30-13 victory over Redford Union)."

The Patriots tied the game on the third play of their second possession when junior Brain Facione found a streaking Ryan Davis wide open down the middle for a 38-yard scoring strike. Nick Anagnostopoulos followed with the point after.

Franklin scored on the first play of its next possession when Terek came in motion from the slot position, took the hand-off and outraced the Stevenson defense down the sideline for an 80-yard score. Mike Klisz and Jay Myrand provided Terek with the gaping hole.

Terek then showed his leaping ability by catching Facione's two-point conversion toss.

Franklin threatened one more time before the half but Facione was intercepted by Kevin Marvin. The Patriots returned the favor when Kevin Biga picked off Colley just before halftime.

Terek returned the second-half kick-off to the Franklin 40. After a 35-yard run by senior Steve Ashbay (10 carries for 120 yards), Facione hit Davis in stride with a 20-yard touchdown pass to make it 22-7. Facione's two scoring passes to Davis were his only completions in the game.

After an 11-play Stevenson drive stalled, Ashbay capped a two-play drive with a 61-yard touchdown carry for the game's final points.

Biga intercepted his second pass late in the third quarter. On the very next play, Anthony Grech ran for what appeared to be an 80-yard scoring run. The play, however, was called back due to a clipping penalty. Grech had an impressive second half, rushing 11 times for 103 yards.

"I think they wore us down with their size in the second half and then Grech hurt us with his fresh legs," Gabel said. "They have weapons in Facione, Terek and Grech. I was afraid they would make big plays and they did."

Stevenson's final drive ended when Brandon Bell intercepted Colley. Colley completed 12-of-24 passes for 106 yards.

For the second straight year, Franklin held in check Gade Clark, who gained 65 yards on 15 carries. Bell and Alan Shakarian made numerous big plays for the Franklin defense which returns nine starters from last year's squad.

"We knew they had a good running game," Bell said. "After their first touchdown, the defense knew it had to step up. We felt it was one fluke play. We had good game film and knew what to expect."

drive with a 1-yard TD run.

Central evened the game on its next possession, marching 54 yards in nine plays. Facing heavy pressure on fourth-and-goal from the five, Adam Bruce fired a TD pass to Hepinstall. Bill Kandilian's third extra point kick of the game tied the score at 21-21 with 10:29 remaining on the clock.

"To our kids credit, we came back and made a game of it," said Harper. "We're going to be all right. We could have rolled over and we didn't. Our defense is our weak point and it showed tonight. We have a young defense, but they'll get better."

The Chiefs came right back and mounted a time-consuming scoring drive, running better than six minutes off the clock. Johnson completed passes of 15- and 19-yards to junior Steve Campbell before junior fullback Nick Allen wrapped up the scoring with a 15-yard touchdown run. Canton's Matt Mavcos nailed three of four extra point kicks for the Chiefs.

Johnson completed eight-of-16 passes for 121 yards, rushed for 67 yards on 14 carries and churned up 143 yards on four kick returns. Senior fullback Tony Ziegler rushed five times for 40 yards, Allen finished with 39 yards on four carries and junior tailback Kwaku Dankwa rushed for 81 yards on 20 carries.

For Central, Bruce completed 13-of-21 passes for 151 yards and rushed for 41 yards on five carries and Nathan Bruce rushed eight times for 35 yards.

tington fumbled on the very next play and Salem's Wilson recovered.

The Rocks drove from their 41 to the Mustangs' 23 before turning the ball over on downs. Northville moved 64 yards to the 12 but a holding penalty pushed it back to the 26 and a Tibble field goal effort of 40 yards was wide to the right.

Salem ran three plays, gaining a first down, when wide receiver Mike Rodriguez, all 5-foot-8 and 140 pounds of him, slipped behind the Northville defense and took a pass from quarterback Nate Gray 72 yards for an electrifying touchdown.

The score reduced the margin to 14-7 but it was like someone told the kids their math tests Monday would be cancelled if they could only come back to win the game.

It was also extremely gratifying to Rodriquez, who had dropped a fourth-down pass from Gray on Salem's previous possession that was close to a first down.

"When we got that one touchdown, it woke the kids up," Moshimer said. "And they (Northville) got a couple of kids hurt."

Northville ran three plays and punted. Salem took over at its 33 and marched 67 yards. Gray completed a 15-yard pass to wingback Doug Kinney, junior Tony Bernhardt ran 21 yards on a third-down wingback reverse and Kinney ripped off a 23-yard run on a wingback counter play to get to the five.

The Rocks ran three plays to get to the two, then Gray wisely took a timeout when the formation didn't look right to him. He came back and beautifully faked a handoff up the middle before rolling right and -- ball extended -- dove just inside the right goal line marker for a touchdown on fourth down.

James, of course, kicked the extra point to make it 14-14.

Plymouth stuffed Northville's up-the-middle attack in three plays once again and again took possession on its own 33.

The Rocks were effective moving the ball with wingback counters, options by Gray and pounding Matt Johnson up the middle.

"The wingback counter has been a good play for us in both our games," Moshimer said. "And once we established our fullback going up the middle, it opened up the door for us."

The counter plays helped the offensive line block more effectively, too.

Gray ran 14 times for 61 yards on keepers, most of the yards gained on his first three carries, and threw 4-10--108, including the touchdown pass to Rodriguez.

Johnson ran 18 times for 70 yards -- 10-45 in the second half and most of that yardage on Salem's last two possessions. He gained 38 yards on the last drive, rushing seven times.

Salem marched to the 18 but Northville held so James was marched out for a game-winning field goal try. His 35-yard attempt was short.

But wait! Flag on the play. Again!

Roughing the kicker.

The ball was advanced to the nine and Kinney gained eight yards on second down. Kinney was halted for no gain and Moshimer ordered the clock run down to 10 seconds before calling a timeout.

James was trotted on to try again -- from the right side -- and this time his kick was solidly through the goal post from 19 yards.

"We're a team," Moshimer said. "We don't have one player carry us. Our quarterback is a great player and he had a great game against Belleville. But he has a tendency to try to carry the team himself. When we spread it around, we're a better team."

It's also, Moshimer wanted it known, not his worst team since 1974. "It's my worst returning depth since 1974."

That might not even be entirely correct. Two wins in two games is pretty deep in some quarters.

Ocelots blank Region 12 foe

What the heck is going on here?

It had been five years since Schoolcraft College's men's soccer team had lost a game within Region 12, and more than a decade since a regional adversary other than Macomb CC had beaten the Ocelots.

Then, in the space of three days, SC suffered a 4-3 loss and a 2-2 tie to Region 12 squads.

SC, which opened the season with a pair of road losses, rebounded and collected its first win of the season last Wednesday, routing Kellogg CC 5-0 at SC.

Garrett Maki was the key weapon offensively against Kellogg. Maki knocked in three goals to get the Ocelots' stalled offense in gear. Other goals were scored by Igli Vokopola and Mike Minicilli (from Livonia Stevenson).

The win boosted SC's record to 1-3-1.

Last Tuesday against visiting St. Clair CC, the Ocelots found themselves in another dogfight, settling for a 2-2 tie.

Minicilli gave SC the lead midway through the second half, but St. Clair battled back to forge the tie with 15 minutes remaining.

Combined with the 4-3 loss to Lakeland CC Sept. 7, SC's record was even across the Region 12 board at 1-1-1.

The reason for such struggles when previously there never was one? The opposition has improved, for certain; also, SC starts 11 freshmen, against teams with veteran players.

The Ocelots host Michigan Christian College in a non-league game at 4:30 p.m. today before resuming their Region 12 schedule at Delta CC at 4 p.m.

Wednesday.

•U-M CLUB 2, MADONNA 1 (scrimmage): According to Madonna University coach Pete Alexander, it wasn't played like a practice.

"They were just a bunch of hacks," he said of the Wolverines after Thursday's loss at Mitchell Field in Ann Arbor. "They preferred to play the body rather than the ball. They were trying to get as physical as possible."

Alexander didn't care for the Michigan players' tactics, especially in what was only a scrimmage. The Madonna coach used it as just that, playing all 18 players on his roster.

Scott Emert got the Fighting Crusaders' only goal, early in the second half. Madonna trailed 1-0 at the half.

The Wolverines got the game-winner with 2:30 left in the second half. Earlier, Emert had a goal disallowed, with officials ruling he committed a foul before scoring.

Mike Schroeder was in goal for Madonna.

•MADONNA 4, SPRING ARBOR 1: Three second-half goals pushed the Fighting Crusaders to their second win last Tuesday at Spring Arbor.

Two of those goals came from Scott Emert. The game was tied at 1-1 at halftime, Madonna's goal by Ryan Mollien. Emert's goals allowed the Crusaders to take control.

Andy Makins (Plymouth Salem) was taken down on a breakaway late in the match and was awarded a penalty kick. Makins converted for the three-goal final margin.

Mike Schroeder started in goal; he was relieved by Dave Hart for the final 20 minutes.

NOTES: Madonna did suffer a major setback in the game at Spring Arbor. Midfielder Charlie Bell, a sophomore from Derry, Ireland, suffered a broken foot and will be out for an estimated four weeks.

Bowlers lobby hard!

Take heart, league bowlers, for there is hope and there is help. There are many very irate people in the local and statewide bowling scene because of the recent actions of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission.

State rep. Dave Jaye, R-Washington Twp. has recognized the problem and has taken some action which should resolve the issue favorable for once and for all.

TEN-PIN ALLEY

AL HARRISON

"It's time these unreasonable Liquor Control bureaucrats were put on a leash," said Jaye in a recent press release. He adds, "These nominal bets of 25 cents or $1 are enjoyed for the entertainment value, not casino payoffs."

Damage control: There are reports of some leagues losing bowlers because they cannot get the little extra enjoyment provided by the mystery games. It is time to put a stop to this nonsense right away, and to do that requires a "grass roots" involvement.

That means you and that means me and that means your teammates and friends should sign any petitions that are being circulated for this purpose, write your state representatives and senators, or phone in your support to Jaye at 1-517-373-0843 or call the BCA "Hotline" at 1-800-312-6555.

These representatives are public servants, so that means that they are paid a salary from your tax dollars, as is the MLCC, but they tend to ignore that point completely.

Rep. Jaye further states, "Bowling is one of the last low cost ways families and friends can enjoy a fun night out and get exercise."

These low wager games of skill, including mystery game, strike ball and red pin have been features at local bowling centers for over the last 40 years without problems or scandals. These bowling games all involve skill, not just chance. Jaye's legislation would reinstate low stakes Mystery Ball, Strike Ball and Red Pin (with a 25 cent to $5 wager and a total prize cap of no more than $1,000).

The time is now. All seats in the House of Representatives are up for election. It is up to the bowlers to sign the petitions.

We can give them over $1 million valid signatures from concerned individuals. You can call Gov. John Engler and express your views to him. His phone number is 1-517-373-3400.

You should call or write your local state representative. You can get the address and phone numbers at your city hall or library. They should get swamped with phone calls and letters from the citizens.

Let them know how you feel about the issue and what you think should be done. We can fight back and we have the numbers to let the MLCC know that this time they have pushed the bowlers of the state a bit too far.

Buy prices just a little. No hidden charges, games or gimmicks. We love our customers. Other dealers will tell you we can't deliver at these prices, but we can and will. 36 mo. lease & 24 mo. lease also available at different payments. Lessee has option to purchase at lease end at a price determined at lease inception. Picture may not depict actual vehicle. If a lease, to get total of payments, multiply term x payment. Sale ends when vehicles listed are sold or when Isuzu cancels this super program which they could do at their whim. 1st mo. payment, sec. dep., license due on delivery. No acquisition fee, we pay it. Use tax not inc. in payment. Subject to real estate credit approval. All rebates and incentives assigned to dealer. If you are not interested, tell someone who should be. We love our customers. Please Hurry. Call for details.

Mitsubishi cuts price by $3,700 on 1997 3000GT

By Anne Fracassa
Avanti NewsFeatures

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. — Mitsubishi expects the "look at me!"-styled 3000GT sports car to come into its own in 1997.

There are many good reasons for it. One: "It feels really good under your right foot," offers Kevin Ormes, Mitsubishi's top U.S. marketing executive.

But there are at least two others. First, $3,700 has been shaved off the price of the base model. Second, Dodge has killed the Stealth, the 3000GT's Mitsubishi-manufactured sister car.

But how much more can really be expected of the 3000GT? In the past two years, it ran away from the competition in the premium sports car segment, outselling the Toyota Supra, Mazda RX-7, Nissan 300 ZX and Subaru SVX combined.

The price break certainly will open some eyes. The big cut means the base 3000GT can now be bought for $27,100 — a big dip under last year's $30,800 low-end price.

The Stealth's demise after a mildly successful seven-year run as Dodge's most visible muscle car also is a factor in the anticipated growth of 3000GT sales. The thinking at Mitsubishi is that Dodge cheapened the 3000GT by selling a lot of stripped Stealths instead of maximizing its impact as an image car.

ROAD TEST By Anne Fracassa

Despite the image erosion that supposedly has come from the underequipped Dodge Stealths, Mitsubishi has won near-universal respect for the scowl-faced 3000GT over the years from critics, enthusiasts and engineers.

The respect is deserved since Mitsubishi designers have annually created a fantastic-looking car that delivers incredible horsepower (the high-end 1997 VR-4 tops the list at 320 horsepower) and enough gizmos and gadgets to keep every true performance buyer happy.

So let's not beat up on the Stealth too much. It didn't die because it was a bad car. I can vouch for the Stealth's credentials as a great car. During a head-to-head test at Chrysler's test track in Chelsea, Mich., seven years ago, I made a loaded-up Stealth easily outperform, outhandle and outmaneuver a turbo-powered Porsche and a Corvette ZR-1.

Everybody knows the Stealth is dead because Dodge wanted the Detroit-made Viper to be its image leader. Obviously this was a smart decision. A win-win deal for both Dodge and Mitsubishi, which hopes to cannibalize Stealth sales that would have gone to Dodge.

With the lowered price and commitment to performance, shrewd enthusiasts would be wise to find a reason to put a 1997 3000GT in their garages. If for no other reason than to hear the throaty engines on these cars rumble and roar and kick out enough power to scare your grandmother.

For those who need a quick breakdown on what's available on the 3000GT menu, here it is: The new base model that debuts this year is aimed at the former Stealth buyer. The SL, the highest level offering an automatic transmission, goes for luxury luxury, performance and gadgets. And the VR-4 is for the kid who has everything.

All new 3000GTs get a less-menacing fascia design this year to improve air flow into the intake manifold. The change, which incorporates a new projector-beam foglamp style, is supposed to improve the car's performance, if that's possible. All 3000GTs also add a spoiler to make them distinctly different from previous editions.

A 3.0-liter SOHC V6 generating 161 horsepower powers the base model, which also adds new 16-inch alloy wheels.

The leather-fat SL — probably the best value for the dollar — gives buyers a better engine, a 3.0-liter DOHC V6 generating 218 horsepower. Features that are new for 1997 include 17-inch chrome alloy wheels and a new steering wheel that incorporates audio controls for the premium CD and stereo system that's a step up from the base model.

The high-performance VR-4 twin-turbo V6 kicks out an almost scary 320 horsepower. (I know we said that before, but it bears repeating.) Take this thing for a jaunt through a suburban neighborhood and you'll see squirrels scurry out of the street because they think the engine is a predator.

Besides the nastier engine, the VR-4 is different from the others because it has all-wheel drive and four-wheel steering capabilities and 18-inch chrome wheels, among other amenities. It's also unique because it doesn't come with an automatic transmission, but the other models do.

Mitsubishi's thinking on this is that the VR-4 is for the enthusiast, and it would be blasphemous to put an automatic in a car like this.

Options include anti-lock brakes and a 10-disc CD auto changer.

Never has a vehicle come to America with so many advanced automotive technologies packed under an exotic, well-defined skin. Usually, when you buy a performance-based sports car, you have to trade in comfort, stability, some technology or a host of other amenities. But that's never been true with the 3000GT, and 1997 is no exception.

Make no mistake about it — the Ferrari-like 1997 3000GT is aimed at people who want a fun toy to roar up and down the street in. It's not one of those haul-some-lumber cars, or something to drive the kids to school in. Heck, they wouldn't fit!

There's a back seat, but unless you're Olive Oil, forget it. For all intents and purposes, this is a two-seater with enough room for you, a companion and some golf clubs.

The original goal of the 3000GT's designers was to focus on three major elements of automotive performance — acceleration, braking and handling — and to build a truly impressive work of art around them. That mission was accomplished when the 3000GT was a baby in 1989 and it still holds true with the 1997 edition.
