Bill could stop area tradeport

State Rep. Gerald Law, R-Plymouth, has introduced legislation to stop construction of a tradeport at Willow Run Airport. Meanwhile, area county commissioners are working on the issue.

BY VALERIE OLANDER AND JEFF COUNTS STAFF WRITERS

Plymouth homeowners are sleeping more soundly these days, but still have one eye open to the possibility of 747 jets loaded with international cargo humming overhead. A $6.8 million plan to extend one of the five runways at Willow Run Airport from 7,000 to 10,500 feet has been put by the wayside, according to Wayne County Commissioner Bruce Patterson.

Attempts in the past have been made to designate the airport an international tradeport. The extended runway would be about one mile from Canton, allowing 747 jets loaded with cargo to land and take off.

The flight patterns would go through Canton, Plymouth, Ply-mouth Township, Livonia, Westland, Garden City, Novi and the Northvilles

Meanwhile, State Rep. Gerald Law, R-Plymouth, has unveiled legislation to halt the building of a trade port at Willow Run Airport.

House Bill 6132 would repeal a 1994 act allowing Wayne and Washtenaw counties to spend $185 million in federal, state and county funds on an industrial park, materials handling facility and 10,000 foot runway extension.

Law said the increase in noise and air traffic generated by the trade

Dole won't visit in Plymouth

BY KEVIN BROWN STAFF WRITER

Last week, Bob Dole campaign supporters said it was likely the candidate for president would appear Tuesday in Kellogg Park.

But local supporters got what they said appears to be the final word late Thursday _ Dole would not be stopping in Plymouth.

"It's not that Bob Dole didn't want, to come to Plymouth, Michigan,' said press secretary Susan Shafer, of the Lansing Dole-Kemp office.

"An advance team lands and people start talking," she said. But due to time constraints, Shafer said Frid day that Dole would spend Monday night in Saginaw, appear at 10 a.m. in Grand Blanc and at 12:15 p.m. in Trov.

From there, he's scheduled to travel to Ohio, Shafer said. Could he still appear in Plymouth before the election?

"I'm not sure _ anything's possile," she said.

Thirteenth Congressional District Republican Chairman Carl Berry said after being told Tuesday afternoon the candidate would appear in Plymouth, plans got underway for Dole to appear in Kellogg Park if weather was fair or the Compuware Ice Arena under inclement weather.

But not long after. Berry said he

Local high schoolers tops in learning calculus

BY M.B. DILLON STAFF WRITER

Hats off to calculus students at Plymouth Canton Educational Park. They're leading the nation in passing the Advanced Placement calculus test. Nationally, 58 percent of students who take the AP exam pass. Plymouth-Canton's passing rate is 95.6 percent, said Judy Evola, community relations director for Plymouth-Canton Community Schools.

Students who pass the AP exam are eligible for college credit.

Not only is the passing rate high-er, but an unusually high number of PCEP students take the AP test, said veteran Salem math teacher Tom Cotner. Typically, 25-30 students at a given high school take the AP exam.

"We have a larger number of kids who take the test than most districts do, and our passing rate is second to no one," said Cotner. "We're really happy. The whole department is very proud of what we've been able to do with these kids.

"Ten years ago, we had less than 10 kids taking the test at Canton and Salem. Now we have 69. We worked real hard to push that program. The whole math department did.

"We have a strong department.

You can't teach kids calculus unless they have the background necessary to teach them calculus," he added; "This is really a reflection on the entire department."

The work of Cotner, the retired Canton calculus teacher Jim Muneio, and his replacement, Marsha Hoff, has paid off steadily over the years. "Ten years ago, we had one class of calculus. Now we have

Students protest

BY M.B. DILLON STAFF WRITER

Nearly 100 eighth-graders staged a walk-out at Lowell Middle School recently, protesting the alleged cancellation of their class trip to Washington, D.C.

Several students were disciplined after they refused to reenter the school building, said principal Roche LaVictor. Because they were without a labor agreement, many teachers were refusing to take on duties not specified in their contract. The Washington trip was among the activities "on hold.

The students were "expressing their displeasure with the situation. We explained to them that they were basically jumping the gun, because the trip had not been canceled," said LaVictor. "Because of the situation with teachers having no contract, it was not settled. There was no firm decision as to whether there would be a trip or not."

La Victor said time lines had been set, "and we knew when we had to make a final decision. That date is still off in the future

That was explained to students, even before the walkout, he said.

"The students happened to choose a date and do something, when all intents were to settle everything, as had been reported in all the papers." Teachers are voting on the tentative agreement today.

"We told the kids they were out there without appropriate information. We said, 'You're not asking questions, you're just reacting to rumors,' " the principal said.

The walk-out began at lunchtime, when 75-100 eighth-graders went outside. After the situation was explained, all but 11 students returned to school, LaVictor said. "There were some suspensions. I'm not at liberty to give specifics."

Youth Initiative to hold kick-off rally

BY VALERIE OLANDER STAFF WRITER

Responsibility. Citizenship. Respect. Caring. Fairness. Trustworthiness.

Get use to these words. The Community Youth Initiative is hoping they'll be as popular in Canton and the Plymouths as Nike, Coca-Cola and other words familiar to today's young people.

The Community Youth Initiative is comprised of individuals representing government, churches, businesses, social agencies, law enforcement and schools. The group began meeting in March of 1995 to discuss challenges facing young people and determine desired assets that need to be developed in youth.

They came up with the "six pillars of character." The values or beliefs are the same as those adopted by the Character Counts Coalition, which is utilized in 500 communities across the country.

The Community Youth Initiative plans to hold a Kick-Off Rally Nov. 7 at Summit on the Park in Canton. What they hope to accomplish is a grass roots movement from the community to influence young people with the six core beliefs.

"We need to get fired up to buy into the notion that young people will flourish with them (the core beliefs)," said Township Supervisor Tom Yack.

"Character development begins in the home, but unfortunately not many of us stay in our houses. Positive reinforcement needs to be in every segment of the community," he added. "This is a community issue not a schools issue."

Plymouth-Canton School Superintendent Chuck Little said, "It's about recruiting adults and having businesses put these words on their letterheads... and establish these values in their daily lives."

After the November Kick-Off Rally, 35 individuals will be sent on a three-day training seminar in April, sponsored by Character Counts, a national project of the Josephson Institute of Ethics. The members will serve on a steering committee to oversee the implementation of the Character Counts program in Canton and the Plymouths.

"If there are enough voices out there and enough parents out there . . . we can make a change," said Plymouth-Canton area Chaplain Dennis Williams. Some projects will be physical in nature, such as developing a program where senior citizens can mentor children without grandparents, said Ginny Hauck, manager at Canton Place, a low income housing center for senior citizens at Ford Road and Sheldon. But mostly the program will influence by having positive reinforcement from adults in the community.

"What we need is not people buying into the program, but people buying into the fact that we need to act as examples at home and at work," added Hauck.

Little said, "We need to quit looking around for things for kids to do. We don't need to build a un building to get (results)." 5114

The first signs of the movement within the community will be visible proclamations of the "six pil-to C. lars of character" hanging in schools, businesses and community gathering places. S. 14.

PLYMOUTH BRIEFS

Park closed for improvements

Plymouth Township Park closed at the start of October for some major improvements. It's scheduled to reopen Nov. 1, township officials say.

"We're creating a new parking lot to give us some handicapped access at shelter number 1, we're removing the parking lot between the ball diamond and the residential property to the north, and shifting that parking to the west portion of the existing parking lot at the ball diamonds," said James Anulewicz, township public services director.

Crews will also improve some drainage problems and resurface all roadways and parking areas.

Cost to attend per child is $1.25 plus one bag of candy to be handed out to other kids. Admission helps pay for one souvenir picture per child. Call the church office at 459-9550 for more details. The church is at 10101 W. Ann Arbor Road at the intersection of Gotfredson and Ann Arbor roads.

Halloween contest

Plymouth Marketplace is hosting a "Create-A-Ghost" contest for elementary and Middle School students in Plymouth.

The ghosts are due at the marketplace on Oct.

Because of the extensive amount of work it was advisable to close the park," Anulewicz said, as plenty of heavy equipment is being used.

Meanwhile, Anulewicz reported that a second grass seeding this fall at the improved sledding hill was a success, and the hill will be ready for public use this winter.

Cost of the improvements is $300,000.

Guitar shop concert

The Plymouth Guitar Gallery will celebrate its move from Penniman Avenue to 474 Forest Place with a free in-store concert 1-3 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 9, featuring the Wayne State University Jazz Guitar Ensemble.

The group features lively arrangements of standards, blues and more, including Charlie Christian and Duke Ellington numbers.

The Plymouth Guitar Gallery features electric and acoustic instruments, lessons, strings, instruction materials and a range of accessories. Store hours are 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

Can drive

The Salvation Army Food Bank will benefit when area residents donate cans of food 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 26, at the American Pie Shop, 747 W. Ann Arbor Trail.

Ron Edwards, who is running unopposed for Plymouth Township treasurer, said plans are to have local elected officials take food from residents that drive up to donate. The food will be boxed and delivered to the Salvation Army later that day. Scheduled to participate are Township Clerk Mari-lyn Massengill, City Commissioner Dennis Shrewsbury and others.

"It is my hope that people will collect food from their neighbors, from their friends and from their own pantry as we work to develop yet another pro-gram aimed at giving back to the community that we call our hometown," Edwards said. To help, call Edwards at 420-2949. The Ameri-can Pie Shop will give discount coupons to any family bringing food to the drop site Oct. 26.

Family Fun Night

the second second

Trinity Presbyterian Church presents a Family Fun Night 6:45-8:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 31, as an alternative to trick-or-treating. The evening opens with games and a hayride, followed by a singing celebration and the drama, The Pewers That Be."

The rules are: Make a ghost between four and six fee with a loop on it so it can be hung outside. Also, make sure the name of the homeroom and the school is visible.

The top five winners will receive free cider and donuts for the homeroom.

For more information, call the market at 453-2535.

Student banking

Students at Smith Elementary soon will be able to do their banking without leaving school.

Through a business partnership agreement between Smith School and the Community Federal Credit-Union, a student-operated branch was scheduled to open Oct. 22 at Smith.

Coordinated through Debbie Phillips of Community Federal; Business-Education Partnership program coordinator Betty Bloch; and Smith Principal Cheryl Clason, arrangements are being made for the grand opening.

During the past few weeks, fourth-graders have applied for "jobs," conducted interviews, and were trained by Community Federal employees. "The objectives for the partnership are: to increase students' knowledge of financial transactions and the uses of technology within the finan-cial services industry, and to increase student/staff interaction with Community Federal Credit Union members and employees," said Clason. Other goals are "to enhance recognition of student excellence with the Plymouth-Canton Community; to encourage practical uses of math skills, emphasizing monetary applications, and to develop career awareness and employability skills."

Road tax forum

A public forum on a 2 mill property tax proposal to pay for road improvements in the city of Ply-mouth will be at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 24, in the city commission chambers in the Plymouth City Hall on Main Street.

The tax proposal is on the Nov. 5 ballot. If approved, it would take the place of special assess-ment on property to pay for improving roads. The current system requires that residents along a road pay for its paving or other improvements. Approval of the property tax increase would spread those costs across all city residents. For more information about the forum, contact Del Templeton at 455-7179.

Although Patterson and Commissioner Thaddeus McCotter, R-Plymouth, worked to get the $6.8 million expansion stricken from the Wayne County budget last year, this year's budget includes $14 million for infrastructure improvements at the airport.

Patterson said he's been assured that the money has been earmarked for enhancing its physical appearance.

'I'm confident a tradeport will not take a new form," he told the Canton Homeowner's Advisory Board at their monthly meeting Monday.

Patterson added: "Northwest is forever opposed to the Willow

State Rep. Kirk Profit, D-Ypsilanti, recently approached Patterson to discuss alternatives for Willow Run, and a "possible sale to someone." Profit favored the international tradeport designation, which would have benefited his constituency.

Expert says land policy offers savings

BY TIM RICHARD TAFF WRITER

Growth communities like Canton and Novi could save homeowners and local governments millions of dollars with 10 percent more compact land development, a Rutgers University expert told regional leaders.

"If you develop differently, can you save land, infrastructure, housing costs and municipal costs?" asked Dr. Robert Burchell, of the New York state university's Center for Urban Policy Research.

Yes, he told the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments at its Oct. 17 general assembly meeting in Southfield. The savings nationally would be '15 percent in developable land, 12 percent in local roads, and an average of 15 percent in waterbased development utilities" because homeowners would be watering smaller lots. "There is also a possibility of moderate savings in overall housing costs and cost-revenue impacts," he added.

Officials from 135 local governments applauded politely but saved comment until after they had studied the text of Burchell's one-year study. It covered 18 communities that are expected to see 20 percent of Michigan's building growth between 1995 and 2020.

Missing the meeting were county executives Ed McNamara of Wayne and L. Brooks Patterson of Oakland.

"They contained skipped-over, low-density development at the fringes," Burchell said. He said development models would be available to SEMCOG members in December.

A casual passer-by would hardly notice that lot sizes were smaller and houses clustered. But Burchell said such development patterns would mean: Preserving more agricultural land.

Newburgh Lake restoration set to begin

BY KEN ABRAMCZYK STAFF WRITER

The first phase of the Newburgh Lake restoration is set to begin within the next week to 10 days.

Contractors are expected to start work then on the lake's dam, according to Robert Freder-icks, director of the division of watershed management, department of the environment with Wayne County. Fredericks reported to the Rouge River Remedial Action Plan's Advisory Council on Wednesday about the proposed restoration.

The lake, located in Hines Park on the border of Livonia and Plymouth Township and covering about 105 acres, is contaminated with PCBs, which make it unsafe for recreational activities.

Fredericks reported that the sediments were located mainly in the northwest section of the lake and were on the upper 6 to 20 inches of the lake's floor surface

The project is expected to cost between $5 million and $10 million. It will be funded through federal grants in the Rouge River Wet Weather Demonstration Project.

Wayne County officials hope to eliminate the fish advisory there, restore the habitat in and around the lake and increase recreational use of the lake. Fredericks also updated the council on the following items:

Newburgh Lake will be closed for at least 18 months starting in November and possibly as long as two years while the lake is cleaned up. Two periods of fish kills will occur, one in December 1996 or January 1997; the second in June 1998 or July 1998. Native fish will be restocked in August 1998

Motorists will have limited access to Hines Drive between Haggerty and Newburgh roads next year.

The project will channel the river, while soil contaminated with PCBs (polychlorinated biphenyls) is removed from sediment at the bottom of the lake.

Wayne County officials say the source of the PCBs was Evans Products, a manufacturer of lubricants in Livonia that is no longer in operation.

The lubricant is used on railroad cars with large wheels so the wheels' metal will not degenerate in the heat, Fredericks said. It originated from chemical mixtures of dielectric fluids in electrical equipment, hydraulic fluids and lubricating oils.

The lake will be lowered in phases, then the river channeled. The actual sediment removal begins in April 1997 and continues through June

The following schedule was released to the Rouge Remedial Action Plan Advisory Council:

Dam rehabilitation construction: (November-December 1996)

Lake lowering (first phase): December 1996 Fish kill: December 1996

The lake will be filled and vegetation planted next summer. The dam will be operational, and deepen the lake.

Jim Graham, executive director of Friends of the Rouge and advisory council member, asked what the increased flow would do downstream to the river.

A county official said the average flow currently was 25-35 cubic feet per second. It would flow up to 200 during the restoration and the dam can handle up to 200 cubic feet per second.

Some of the dam work includes building a temporary dam, replacing the gate on an existing dam, removal of stop logs, Fred-

The fish kill will be initiated by the placement of a blocking net across the dam. The lake will be partially drained, and a detoxification station installed at the dam.

A chemical called rotenone will be sprayed on the water to kill the fish. The fish kill will be collected, and sorted to check the species. Collecting the fish also will prevent them from deteriorating along the shore.

"Potassium magnate will be injected into that water to mix with rotenone and oxidize it, so downstream it will eliminate the rotenone and confine the kill zone," Fredericks said.

Rotenone levels will be monitored 24 hours a day. Fish activity will be monitored along the shoreline and downstream to ensure the kill is confined.

Fredericks said the idea of a fish kill was to eventually restore a healthy fish population. Wayne County is working with the Michigan Department of Environment in reviewing these specifications.

Where the contaminated soil will be housed depends on con-tamination levels. Concentrations greater than the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) requirements of 2 parts per million will be housed in a landfill. The PCBs are resistant to degradation and "bioaccumulate" in the food chain, Fredericks said.

Newburgh Lake has had a fish advisory on it for several years.

Concentrations less than MDEQ levels on Wayne County property will be capped, reused on site or used to develop shoreline or clean fill uses. . "We get much better control of what goes on with the lake (by draining it) because the water doesn't move it around," Fredericks said.

A small drain carried the contaminant into the river. That area between the drain and the lake also will be cleaned up.

Once the sediment is removed, the lake will be about six or seven inches deeper. Contamina-tion from PCB and other sources will be prevented from entering the lake once the upstream site is remediated, storm water pollution is reduced, the lake depth is increased and the public is educated.

ORAL CANCER DETECTION

Regular examinations of the teeth and oral soft tissues by the dentist and hygienist can do more to preserve health than uncover signs of tooth decay and gum disease. These exams may also uncover warning signs of oral cancer, which then leads to referral to physicians for further evaluation. Of the 'approximately 30,000 new cases of oral cancer that arise each year, 95 percent involve people over the age of year, 95 percent involve people over the age of 40. Symptoms that should prompt these people and those in other age groups to schedule an exam with the dentist include: a persistent sore in the mouth; a lump or thickening in the cheek; a white or red patch on the gums, tongue, or lining of the mouth; soreness or sensation of something being

313 area code to change outside greater Detroit

The number 734 has been assigned to replace the existing 313 area code in the area outside greater Detroit in mid 1998.

This assignment of area code 734 marks the next step of a telecommunications industry plan announced in June 1996 to deal with the shortage of num-bers in southeastern Michigan.

The plan was recommended by a Citizens' Advisory Committee and approved by a team of industry representatives from southeastern Michigan telecommunications companies.

The number 734 was assigned by the North American Numbering Council, which serves as the national administrator of area code assignments. The plan now will be implemented by the southeastern Michigan telecomDetroit to retain the 313 area code. This area includes Hamtramck, Highland Park, Dearborn, Dearborn Heights, the city of Detroit, Redford, Lincoln Park, Ecorse, River Rouge, Harper Woods and the Grosse Pointes. The remaining portions of Wayne County, Washtenaw County and Monroe County will receive the 734 area code.

Southeastern Michigan's need for area code relief mirrors the situation all over the country. Since 1995, 55 new area codes have been assigned.

Halloween fun for spooky times

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN SPECIAL WRITER

Ghouls, goblins and ghosts. Halloween sets the imagination in motion unlike any other American holiday. Retailers around town are playing to that craving for creativity whether it comes in the form of dressing up or decorating.

Hudson's is getting into the act by introducing Shocktober Shops which offer items like life-size fabric scarecrows ($60) haunted house centerpieces ($45) and black cat place mats.

"People are entertaining more and are creating themes throughout their homes. It used to be people who bought Halloween items would throw them away after, now there are pieces in ceramic and tapestry which can be reused year after year," said Hudson's spokeswoman Chris Morrisroe, herself a big Halloween fan.

At Gags & Gifts/Halloween USA in West Bloomfield, animated mice rise up from a sound activated cauldron ($24.99) as skeletons rattle their bones ($19.99). "People are really into decorating their yards," said salesperson Patti Canoy. "We're selling a lot of fake pumpkins that don't decay, and gravestones!"

"Ghost Crossing" yard signs ($5.25); tombstones; pumpkin costumes for cement geese ($18.99); and fabric scarecrows ($23.95) will surely set a scary scene for trick or treaters entering your yard. Find them at the Countryside Craft Mall in Livonia. Handpainted eggs resembling ghosts and mummies, little wooden pumpkins, or a centerpiece featuring two skeletons looming above a gravestone by Chris and Debbie Bonbright of Westland, can be used to create vignettes on a holiday table or in windows. To set an even scarier table, stop at Rite-Aid in Livonia for 10 black and white mice party favors (1.99). Halloween grew out of man's earliest traditions more than 2,000 years ago, especially ancient Druid pagan festivals during which Celtic tribes communed with the spirits of the ancestral dead and offered them sweets. To avert malicious spirits, the Celts would hide themselves in ghoulish disguises so that the wandering spirits would mistake them for one of their own. Halloween's American roots can be traced to the Irish immigration of the 1840s and their celebration of All Soul's Eve

Remember Jeffrey Bruce? In the heyday of Channel 7's 'Kelly & Co." show, make-up artist Bruce would team with local fashion directors to perform makeovers on members of the audience. His sarcastic repartee was appreviewers who recognized that behind the sharp.

Jeffrey Bruce

Bruce, based in Boca Raton, has kept his connection to southeast Michigan. He flys into town frequently to offer make-up workshops through the salons that sell his line of aloe-based cosmetics.

Raphael's show

He was in Birmingham last week to discuss the latest fall cosmetic looks and pitch a column idea to the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers.

"I'm in my 33rd year in this business and I think I know a thing or two about beauty," he said. "Beauty is the average person doing best with what he or she has. It's NOT about vanity. It's about self respect. Everyone should care about the way they look, because people react to what you look like - like it or not!"

Bruce criticized "freeze-dried beauties," people who hold onto the way they looked years ago, so now appear old because they look dated. He called this "the Barbara Eden Syndrome."

"There's nothing wrong with look-ing your age if you look fabulous, just picture Candace Bergen or Lauren Bacall.

Bruce, 50, a native of Long Island, started out as an art student. In 1964, he got a job as a make-up artist at the famous Kenneth Salon in New York "because Kenneth knew I knew bone structure."

Bruce said his next jobs were at Estee Lauder and Revion where he was director of cosmetics

"After a stint in Hollywood, I teamed up with a chemist friend to produce my own line of cosmetics," Bruce explained. "I pioneered the less is more look. In 1986, I published "About Face," a beauty book. Then I did some community theater. That's my passion."

Bruce said this season, look for less color but more definition. Out are the obvious blues and greens; In are layered shades of beige, taupe and the naturals.

"And it's time for people to take an honest look at their hairstyles,' he advised. Men, cut the pony tails Women, wear your hair length in proportion to your height and body. Everyone should take about a halfhour to do their hair/make-up in the morning, any longer and you need the advice of an expert to simplify."

CHEF LARRY JANES

Mushrooms are among my favorite foods

rying to label my favorite food would be nothing short of impossible. Listing the top 10, now that's something I can do, without any hesitation, as long as you realize the list is subject to change at any given moment.

Somewhere within the list would be ice cream, bread, veal, chocolate, leeks, cheesecake, potato salad, momma's dumplings, wine and mushrooms. Just by reading the list, you can tell why I'm always trying to stay in control of my weight. But of all the items listed, none give my taste buds more pleasure than mushrooms.

Exotic

The heartiness of a fresh roasted Portabello, the richness of a fresh sauteed Morel, the peppery Chanterelle or a meaty Porcini, anyway you serve mushrooms, I'll be first in line. Of course, it probably doesn't hurt that I've sampled the mushroom plate at the Golden Mushroom in Southfield, and have purchased exotic mushrooms for years from Don Schneider of Ply-mouth, the self proclaimed "Mushroom Man." You'll find him under the bird mural at Detroit's Eastern Market.

Anyone who reads this column knows of my mushroom forays in the north woods with Morel hunter extraordinaire, Aunt Phyllis. Friends in Okemos and Wellston have led me on mushroom hunts, and even though I have yet to really train my eye on where to look and what to look for, I now feel that I can venture into the woods with a more secure and confident attitude. Just how did this metamorphosis occur? I've just received a copy of "The Mushroom Book" by Thomas Laessoe, Anna Del Conte and Gary Lincoff, (copyright 1996, DK Books, $29.95) and I can honestly say that I haven't found time to put it down

This book catalogues more than 450 rare and common fungus species and includes more than 2,000 annotated photographs and illustrations supported by notes on appearance and occurrence. Anyone interested in learning how to identify, gather and cook wild mushrooms and other fungi will certainly appreciate this book.

Exotic mushrooms have come a full about face ithin the last 10 years. There was a time when the only fresh mushrooms available were those milky white moonlight mushrooms sold en masse in every grocery store in town. Last weekend. Don Schneider offered fresh Morels. Chanterelles, Porcinis, Trumpets, Portabellos and dried cloud ears (Chinese) for sale at his stand in Eastern Market. My local green grocer carries Enoki, Portabellos, Criminis and Moonlights. The ability to farm raise mushrooms, and ship them overnight via air freight has really opened up the exotic mushroom market. But if you, like me, think nothing of spending $5 to $20 per pound on exotic mushrooms, there are a few rules that should be followed so that you can truly enjoy their taste.

Storage tips

First proper storage is tantamount to great tasting mushrooms. Fresh exotic mushrooms are best cooked and eaten within 48 hours of purchase. Since they are a fungi, you can imagine what happens when they are not used, cooked or stored properly.

Remember that it is very important that the mushrooms be removed from any plastic bag they are placed in. Mushrooms need air to circulate around them and if left for anything more than 3 hours in a plastic bag, they begin to rot. I store my mushrooms in a colander in the vegetable crisper of my refrigerator. . Lastly, and I'm sure I'll rile a few feathers over this suggestion, fresh mushrooms should never be washed in water. If you must purchase dirty mushrooms, they should be brushed clean with a damp cloth or mushroom brush. Soaking them in water only makes them absorb more liquid than they need to.

Even usually sandy morels should be sliced and then rinsed. To those still worried about dirt, if you knew what most mushrooms were grown in, you could soak them in bleach and never remove all the dirt. Nonetheless, fresh exotic mushrooms are one of the trendy, hot new gourmet foods and if you're looking to learn more-about them, you'll enjoy "The Mushroom Book."

Oregon's King Estate wines here at last

When we first tasted Oregon's King Estate wines two years ago, we were disappointed to learn that they were not available in our area. After we visited in summer 1995 and saw the ultra-modern, state-of-the art vineyards and winery, we were even more frustrated that the wines were not available. It has taken some time, but there is finally sufficient wine supply for the win-ery to open up this market. The wait has been worth it because the current releases, 1993 Chardonnay $13, 1993 Pinot Noir $19, 1994 Reserve Pinot Gris $15.50 and 1995 Pinot Gris at $13 are outstanding, delicious, lush, rich and balanced pours.

There's been significant hype about Oregon pinot noir, but in many years, due principally to less than ideal weather during the growing sea-son, the promise has not been delivered. At King Estate, located southwest of Eugens, literally tens of millions of dollars have been spent on developing top-quality pinot noir on a 550-acre estate with elevations between 800 and 1,100 feet. Grafted to eight different phylloxera-resis-tant rootstocks are 16 clonal selections of pinot noir growing along sloping hillsides on welldrained soils.

The estate is solely owned by the King family of Kansas City who amassed its earthly fortune in founding and operating King Radio Corp. which designed, manufactured and marketed naviga-tion, communication and identification equipment, including auto-pilots and radar for both military and private aircraft.

Frequent travels to France and Italy sparked Ed King Jr.'s wine interests. He took on the wine entrepreneurial challenge with his son Ed III and other family members. A visit to the 100,000-' square-foot winery, architecturally designed to replicate a French chateau, showcases the seri-ousness with which the wine challenge is being met. Maxed out as vineyards come into full bear-ing, the winery will produce a little more than 160,000 cases, which is large by Oregon standards of small, family-owned wineries

In addition to multiple pinot noir clonal selections, King Estate's underground barrel cellar holds French oak cooperage from France's Vosges, Allier and Nevers forests made by a number of coopers. When it comes time to make a final blend before bottling, the winemakers have a significant number of components - a literal palette of aromas and flavors from which to choose Pinot gris, long a favorite white wine from France's Alsace region and known as pinot grigio in Italy, is popular among wine drinkers in the northwest, but it's only beginning to be appreciated throughout the rest of the country. King Estate has the varietal planted, but is buying much of what is making the luscious bottlings today.

Cueing into the avid interest of consumers to match wine and food, King Estate's chef Stephanie Kimmel has acted as project coordinator for two cookbooks, "New American Cuisine Pinot Gris Cookbook" and the just-published "King Estate Pinot Noir Cookbook." In both, renowned chefs from across the U.S. have contributed recipes to harmonize with the two grape varietals. We've had more time to work with the pinot gris recipes than the pinot noir. They are very good and not too difficult for the home kitchen. If recipes for pinot noir follow the same pattern, those interested in making palate tantalizing matches have a treat in store. Each color-illustrated cookbook is $16.95 plus $4 shipping and handling and can be ordered from the winery by calling 1-(800) 884-4441.

The King Estate story brought up pinot gris or as the Italians refer to it pinot grigio. There are a number of highpriced versions from Italy available, but a new offering has just been introduced into our market: 1995 Ecco Domani Pinot Grigio $9 showcases fresh pear and green apple aromatics, complemented by crisp-edged flavors that make a good pairing for seafood or Pan-Asian cuisine. Its sister red is 1995 Ecco Domani Merlot $9 with bright red plum, cherry and raspberry notes in a light, fruity wine unencumbered by oak. Serve it with dark-fleshed grilled fish or pasta with tomato-basil sauce

Wine Selection

Each year; area consumers speak out about their favorite wines at The Great Wine Shootout organized by Dennis Walsh of Ye Olde Wine Shoppe in Rochester Hills. This year's results represent the votes of 300 attendees choosing from among 54 wines. Top five wines in each category are:

Most Popular Red Wines:

1994 Ravenswood Merlot $22 beat out 1992 Guenoc Cabernet Sauvignon, Beckstoffer Vineyard $44 by only one vote. Following very closely were 1994 Fife Zinfandel $20, 1994 Lytton Springs Zinfandel $20 and 1994 Sanford Barrel Select Pinot Noir $18. Most Popular White Wines:

1994 Stags Leap Wine Cellars Reserve Chardonnay $35 bested 1993 Simi Reserve Chardonnay by only two votes. Then came 1994 Chalone Chardonnay $36, 1995 Francis Coppola Chardonnay $22 and 1995 Optima Chardonnay $27.

I Interesting reds loaded with flavor. Try with lamb, pork or stews

1994 Iron Horse Sangiovese, $15 1994 Morgan Reserve Pinot Noir, $28 1994 Kunde Merlot, $17 1994 Franciscan Merlot, $17 1995 Louis M. Avoid muffin mishaps

Problem: Muffins have tunnels or large air holes and a tough texture.

Solution: Muffins were over mixed. Mix gently by hand with a spoon or fork, just until dry ingredients are moistened about 15 to 20 stroke

Problem: Muffin tops are cracked, wobbly-peaked and unevenly browned. Solution: Oven temperature was too high; reduce by 25 degrees

Problem: Muffins did not rise properly.

Solution: Baking powder was old; check the expiration date. Oven was not preheated or muffins were not baked immediately after mixing. Preheat oven for 10 to 15 minutes and bake promptly.

Problem: Interiors of muffins have yellowish holes and an acidic/soapy flavor.

Solution: Baking powder and/or baking soda were not evenly distributed. Combine dry ingredients thoroughly before adding the liquid ingredients.

Problem: Muffin tops are flat.

Solution: Muffin cups were overfilled or muffins are overleavened. Fill cups just twothirds to three-quarters full of batter. Check to make sure you are not using self-rising flour instead of all-purpose flour.

a vegetable cooking spray does a good job - and let muffins cool 5 minutes in the pan on a wire cooking rack. (The steam that condenses will facilitate their removal.) Pumpkin not just for jack-o'-lanterns Nutritionally speaking, pumpkin is the richest fruit-vegetable source of vitamin A in the form of beta-carotene. According to medical studies, beta-carotenerich foods, as part of a healthy diet, may help lower the incidence of some cancers. This nutrient also plays a role in good vision, healthy skin, a strong immune system and bone and teeth development.

History

Long before the pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock, the Native American tribes cultivated the pumpkin as a staple food to their diet. It was eaten roasted, boiled and stewed. Some archeological sites indicate that pumpkins were grown as far back as 3000 to 2300 B.C. The squash/pumpkin blossom held a sacred place in the religion of some of the Native American tribes particularly in the Southwest.

Through migration of people, the New World and the Old World varieties of pumpkin became well mixed.

Variety

The Jumbo variety of pumpkin is traditionally used for Halloween decorations. The Sugar variety of pumpkin is the best for pie baking. This is the best for pie baking. This variety gives the best flavor to the finished pie product. It usually takes 2 cups of cooked pumpkin for a 9-inch pie. Approximately 1 1/2 pounds of fresh pumpkin yield the 2 cups cooked pumpkin. The pies made from fresh pumpkin may not be as firm as those made from canned pumpkin pie mix.

Not only can pumpkin be used for decorations and pie, but it can also serve as a side dish seasoned with butter and cinnamon. Small pumpkins can be stuffed with meat, vegetables or seafood. Depending on how much pumpkin soup you wish to make, a pumpkin can not only be the soup but also the serving dish.

Preparation

To serve baked, cut and place in a shallow pan, shell side up and heat to 325 degrees for an hour or until tender.

Toasted pumpkin seeds are a bonus treat that can be saved from the Halloween pumpkin by those with time and patience to clean and toast the seeds.

Once the seeds are separated from strings, wash well and spread on paper towels to dry. To roast, spread seeds evenly over a cookie sheet and heat to 375 degrees in the oven for 20 to 30 minutes. Dot with margarine or butter, raise oven temperature to 400 degrees. Brown seed for 5 to 10 minutes, sprinkle with salt, garlic powder or taco seasonings and serve hot or cold. This snack is an excellent source of fiber.

Michigan apples: a journey into flavor

(NAPS) - The 1990s are going into history among apple lovers as the Decade of Flavor. Many new varieties are soaring in popularity because of the delicious sensations they present to our tastebuds.

Michigan, which is consistently one of the leading national producers of apples, is enhancing its reputation as "the variety state" by not only growing so many long-cherished varieties, but adding new ones that consumers are increasingly demanding.

One of the most popular of the newer varieties is Empire, a cross between two of the most popular of the older varieties, McIntosh and Red Delicious, that combines the tartness of the former with the sweetness of the latter. It's a versatile all-purpose apple, as is Jonagold, crossed from two old favorites, the spicy tart Jonathan and the milder and sweeter Golden Delicious.

Also gaining momentum in the U.S. are Gala, which adds a snappy zest to its basic sweetness, and Braeburn, with moderate tartness over a sweet undertaste. Both varieties provide subtle flavors that apple connoisseurs find truly pleasurable. Fuji is sweet like Red Delicious, one of its parents, but with a more robust flavor. It is excellent for eating out of hand and in salads and desserts.

While Michigan apple growers are expanding their plantings of new varieties, they remain dedicated to growing traditional varieties such as Red and Golden Delicious, McIntosh, Jonathan, Ida Red, Rome and Northern Spy.

Spy. There are a lot of ways to savor apples, and there are many new and traditional varieties to add to your pleasure. Michigan's apple growers wish you good eating!

MICROWAVE MARVEL

A fast, easy recipe for breakfast, a snack or dessert

Core a Michigan Apple, being careful not to cut all the way through. Peel 1/3 of the way down from stem end. Combine 1 Tbsp. brown sugar and 1/2 tsp. butter. Fill center of apple and sprinkle with cinnamon. Microwave 2 - 2 1/2 minutes on high. (Time varies depending on size of apple and wattage of oven.)

Other suggested fillings:

- 1. Sugar and oatmeal
- 2. Raisins and nuts
- 3. Breakfast cereal
- 4. Sausage and oatmeal 5. Cheddar cheese
- 6. Celery, raisins and nuts
- 7. Red hot or peppermint candies
- 8. Coconut and caramel 9. Hazelnuts and chocolate
- chips 10. Cranberry sauce

'Kindertransport' riveting drama

Jewish Ensemble Theatre presents "Kindertransport" through Nov. 3 in the Aaron DeRoy Theatre at the Jewish Community Center, 6600 W. Maple, West Bloomfield. Tickets $13 to $23, call (810) 788-2900 or Ticketmaster (810) 645-6666.

BY HELEN ZUCKER SPECIAL WRITER

The Jewish Ensemble Theatre production of "Kindertransport," by Diane Samuels, is riveting. Directed by Rivi Yaron, the play could use a quicker tempo in Act II, but much of it is powerful. Using one terrific set, a storage room that does duty as a train station and a living room, designed by Melinda Pacha, the cast delivers half a century of madness, guilt and courage. Dana Powers Acheson is remarkable as Eva, the child who leaves home at 9. She takes one suitcase. All that's permitted is clothes, but she manages to keep her harmonica, a Passover book, and the Rat Catcher book. The horrible illustrations haunt her until she becomes a young woman, adopted, happy in her new life; so happy she doesn't want to go to the U.S. with her mother who has miraculously survived. Acheson is appealing in her outbursts, her brightness, her honesty with Lil, the Englishwoman she comes to love. Acheson has presence.

Cheryl Leigh Williams does a wonderful job as Helga, Eva's mother. Helga sends her daughter to England, wanting her to be self-sufficient enough to wait out the war. Williams looks like upper-crust German, very blonde, very pretty, very welldressed. When Helga turns up after the war, she's still blonde, but Williams gives us a woman who's been turned inside out. She leaves for "Uncle Otto's in America because there is nothing here."

Hillary Ramsden as Evelyn, (Eva who now has a grown daughter) wipes dust from chairs, glasses, tables, as if she were attacking old enemies. Her outbursts verge on hysteria.

Evelyn is trying to find someone to blame; she opens Pandora's box, a trunk full of old letters from her German mother, and tears them up, burying her past, calling it ashes, leaving her daughter without a heritage. At the end she gives her the harmonica, the Passover book, and the Rat Catcher book she arrived with, but her daughter doesn't

Marching band hosts competition

BY DIANE HANSON SPECIAL WRITER

More than six thousand spectators packed the PCEP stadium on Canton Center Road on Saturday, Oct. 12, but it wasn't for a football game.

It was for a pageant of sight and sound; imaginative movement, splashes of color to rival the overcast sky, creative storytelling and masterful musical composition.

It was The Great Lakes Invitational Marching Band Competition.

"We had over 2,800 student musicians here today," said Tom Wysocki, chairman of the event. The musicians were members of the 25 participating high school bands from as far as Mt. Pleasant, Portage and Flushing.

The Spirit of Windsor, a Canadian youth band, added an international flavor with its exhibition performance.

"A lot of preplanning goes into this," said Wysocki.

He said they started putting the program together back in March.

"I'm sure we're in the hundreds of volunteers from the band boosters," he said. "The boosters did a superb job putting on a show like this."

The show started at 10:30 a.m. with an eighth-grade band comprised of students from all five area public middle schools and from Our Lady of Good Counsel, playing the national anthem.

This was the second year for the combined band and it was again under the direction of PCEP associate band director Amy Boerma.

"There's a peer teaching thing going on with members.of the marching band helping the kids with the music," said Boerma.

She said some of the middle schoolers feel they wouldn't be good enough for the high school bands. "So many of those kids would fit right in but they never give it a try because they're intimidated by it," said Boerma. "So, hopefully, we're going to break some of those barriers.

Saturday's competitors and scores included Livonia Franklin, third place in Flight I with a score of 70.77; Farmington, with a score of 67.55 captured sixth place in Flight II; and Westland John Glenn received a score of 68.45 for fifth place in Flight I. First place awards went to Chesaning in Flight IV with a score of 82.95; Flight III, Wyoming Park, 81.47; Flight II. Lakeland, 89.17; and Flight I, Milford, 86.02. The GLI trophy for overall highest score went to Lakeland again this year.

WLAA's best in soccer

Plymouth Salem and Plymouth Canton are each represented by two players on the all-Western Lakes Activities Association's 11-man soccer team

Canton, which won the Western Division with a perfect 5-0 record and then defeated Livonia Stevenson, 3-1 last Wednesday to claim its thirdconsecutive conference title (the Chiefs tied with Stevenson in '95), placed seniors Jason Bennett, a midfielder, and Kevin Gniewek, a forward, on the all-WLAA squad.

Salem, which finished second to Stevenson in the Lakes Division with a 4-1 record and then blanked Livonia Churchill 2-0 last Monday for third place, put senior midfielder Matt Sarkesian and junior forward Brett Konley on the WLAA's top team.

Other first team selections were: from Stevenson, keeper Eric O'Neill and midfielder Scott Babinski, both seniors; from Churchill, junior defender Dave George; from Walled Lake West-ern, senior defender Shane Patterson; from Northville, junior defender Sam Vida; from Livonia Franklin, senior midfielder Steve Finneran; and from North Farmington, sophomore midfielder Craig Hearn.

Canton and Salem combined to put seven other players on the all-division teams. Canton honorees were defenders Matt Ammons and Dan Steinert, seniors, and Mike Bennett, a sophomore, and senior forward Nick Wright. Salem's all-division selections were seniors Ryan Konley, a forward, and Chris Curry and Josh Fair, both defenders.

Scott Wright, Ben Davis, Ryan Dyer and Steve Epley were honorable mention all-WLAA picks for Canton. Salem had Andres Lopez, Rob Zdrodowski and Andy Power as honorable mention choices.

EMU prospers

Eastern Michigan University's men's soccer team rallied to score twice in the second half and edge University of Michigan's club team 2-1 Wednesday.

Drew Drummond, a freshman forward from Plymouth Salem, got his first-ever collegiate goal at an important time -- it tied the score at 1-1. Victor Rodopoulos, a junior forward from Livonia Franklin, scored the game-winner for the Eagles.

George Tomasso, a freshman from Plymouth Canton, was in goal for EMU. He made five saves.

The win made EMU 5-7-1 for the season. U-M is 8-7-2.

Spartan girls rule; Canton edges Salem

The "perfect season" continued on for Livonia Stevenson, the topranked girls cross country team in Class A.

The Spartans captured their third straight Western Lakes Activities Association championship and 13th meet of the season Friday at Cass Benton Park.

Friday at Cass Benton Park. As expected, Stevenson ran away with the title with 28 points fol-lowed by Plymouth Canton (72), Plymouth Salem (86), Farmington (98) and Livonia Churchill (148).

"This was our most important meet up to this point," said Steven-son coach Paul Holmberg, who has guided the Spartans to four WLAA crowns in the 1990s. "I'm very happy. Our goal was to get under 30 points and it was a tough goal. Last year we had 21, but the league this year is tougher. There are more good individuals and teams."

Junior Kelly Travis three-peated as WLAA individual champion, covering the 5,000-meter course in 19 minutes, 5 seconds, only seven

Vikings power past Rocks; Canton falls T7:1

Plymouth Salem ran into an offensive buzzsaw Friday night when it hosted Walled Lake Central in its final Western Lakes Activities Association regular-season game. Problem with the Vikings isn't scoring points, that's for sure. It's stopping the other team that's been their undoing. Against Salem, Central got into a scoring race -- and won, 47-33. The result left both teams with a 4-3 overall record; Central, however, finishes third in the WLAA's Lakes

Division with a 3-2 mark. Salem ends at 2-3

Neither knows who they'll play next, though, in the WLAA crossover Friday. Tenatively, Central will go against Livonia Franklin, while Salem plays Northville.

"They are a very, very athletic team," Salem coach Tom Moshimer said of Central. "They've got a ton of receivers, they've got those big horses up front, and that quarterback -he's a good one. The game's opening play set the stage. Central quarterback Adam Bruce scrambled 86 yards for the touchdown to give the Vikings the early lead.

Salem answered with a nine-play, 71-yard drive that belonged mostly to quarterback Nate Gray. He had runs of 15 and 10 yards before finishing it with a 4-yard run, tying the game at 6-all.

Central scored the next three times it got the ball, with Bruce rambling 32 yards for the first and passing 29 yards to Dave Shaw on the second, opening up a 20-6 advantage. A 32-yard interception return by Jeff Mathison boosted the Vikings' lead to 26-6.

Then Gray took center stage. Salem drove 65 yards on nine plays, with Gray passing 21 and 14 yards to Jeff McKian, then plunging 1 yard for the score, narrowing the gap to 26-12.

Defense rules Canton outlasts feisty Harrison

BY NEAL ZIPSER STAFF WRITER

Who needs offense?

Plymouth Canton and Farmington Hills Harrison battled in a classic defensive struggle Thursday before the host Chiefs escaped with a 44-34 victory.

The win came after both teams struggled on offense earlier in the week. Canton edged North Farmington 40-34 on Tuesday, while the Hawks also had a power shortage, losing at Walled Lake Central 39-36

But the lack of scoring Thursday was more a testament of Canton's tight man-to-man defense and Harrison's active zone defense. "They played very hard and were very scrappy," Canton coach Bob Blohm said. "But I think we also played hard. Both teams played tough defen-sively tonight and it was a well-played game. We're getting back to where we want to be and putting the other things behind us." With the win, Canton improved to 13-2 overall and 8-1 in the Western Lakes Activities Association. The Hawks slipped to 8-5 overall and 5-3 in the leagu

The Chiefs were led by senior center Kristi Fiorenzi, who scored 15 points and grabbed 10 rebounds. Nkechi Okwumabua added eight points off the bench, and Tiffany Williams chipped in with seven points.

Forward Amy Roble played a great game for Harrison, giving Canton headaches in the post all game long. The junior finished with a game-high 16 points, on eight-for-15 shooting.

The problem for the Hawks was that the rest of the team didn't shoot well, making only five-of-25 shots combined. Harrison relied on the threepointer, nailing only four-of-20 tries from behind the arc.

"Canton is a strong, physical team and it's hard to get good shots against them," Harrison coach Pete Mantyla said. "We're used to having more room to shoot."

Canton jumped out to a 6-0 lead before the Hawks went on an 8-3 run. Three of the baskets came on post-up layups by Roble. "We had trouble with Roble inside," Blohm said. "We have to learn to give better help or sag down more."

Harrison rallied to tie the game at 13-13 with 6:09 to play in the second quarter after another post-up lay-in by Roble. But that was the last points the Hawks would score until early in the second half.

The Chiefs took advantage of Harrison's dry

"We have a group of kids who made a believer out of me,' Darnton said. "They never believed we were rebuilding. They refused to. They worked as hard as any group I've ever had."

Going into the race, any one of five teams figured to challenge for the title, but Central had emerged as the favorite. Canton had seen a three-year dual-meet

Blohm said after the game he was happy that Harrison is now off his schedule -- hoping they won't meet in the WLAA playoffs

"I believe Harrison is one of the most improved teams in the league," Blohm said. "They went to Central, which is a hard place to play, and lost by only three. They're a young team and will win a lot of games in the future. And I think they'll be tough down the stretch and make a good showing in the league playoffs.

Salem 42. Stevenson 35: One of the measures of a good team is that you win the games you're supposed to.

Plymouth Salem measures up to that yardstick after taking a tougher-than-expected victory from Livonia Stevenson.

"It doesn't replace a win," Spartans' coach Wayne Henry said, "but our last three wins weren't against state-ranked teams, either.

"We've come a long ways from early in the season. They were worried. It's a lost, but it's still a good feeling for our kids."

that in pretty good shape, then we lost Amanda (Abraham) early in the fourth period with her fifth foul."

Sophomore Angela Sillmon paced Salem with 15 points while center Merritt Walker plus forwards Pruett and Heather Guerin scored six apiece.

Walker also had eight rebounds and blocked three shots. Pruett got four rebounds and Guerin contributed four assists.

Salem improved to 12-3 overall and 7-2 in the Western Lakes Activities Association. Stevenson dropped to 6-9 overall, 3-6 in the WLAA.

feel like I'm coming back," said Travis, who regained her confidence by winning Ann Arbor Gabriel Richard Invitational a week earlier. "I don't like making excuses, but I've had bronchitis and asthma, and I felt like I had to start up again. I had to catch up. I feel better than I had been when I had a hard time breathing."

Stevenson teammate Kelly McNeilance, also a junior, was right on Travis' heels throughout the race, finishing second for the second consecutive year with a personal best 19:08 on the Cass Benton course.

Westland John Glenn senior Marjorie Brooks was third in 19:24, nearly 21 seconds ahead her previous Cass best. (Brooks did not race in last year's WLAA meet, sitting out with a sore Achilles tendon.)

Rounding out Stevenson's con-tingent was sophomore Kim McNeilance, who was fourth (19:36); freshman Andrea Park-er, sixth (19:45); sophomore Christy Trilos, 15th (20:15); and freshman Leslie Knapp, 19th (20:31).

Five of Stevenson's top six posted personal bests.

"I thought we could get four in the top seven with the others in the top 15," Holmberg said. "These kids have been working hard all season and I think the rest gives them freshness in their legs. We're starting to taper off now and I hope we're not ahead of schedule. I just hope we can hold it for two more weeks."

weeks." Despite their distant second-place finish, Canton coach George Przygodski wasn't at all disappointed. "I thought we had a great race," he said. "Our goal was to win the meet. As I said earlier this week, we had to run our best and Stevenson had to give us some help.

"We did our part."

Canton was led by Becky Wol-from, who placed fifth (19:38). Four of the Chiefs medaled (finishing in the top 20). The others were Beth Knight, 11th (20:03); Angkana Roy, 14th (20:12); and Lori Schmidt, 20th (20:44). Rounding out Canton's scorers was Christiana Bradford, 22nd (20:50).

While Canton excelled, Salem decelerated. "We didn't have a good team day," said coach Dave Gerlach. "We had two consecutive great team days before today, when our pack (top five runners) was a minute apart. "We were prepared today, we were ready, we were fired up. It just didn't come together for us." Best among the Rocks was Best among the Rocks was Kristie Giddings, who was ninth (19:57). Nicole Bolton was next in 13th (20:06), followed by Ellen Stemmer, 16th (20:17); Mari Dis-hrow, 23rd (20:53); and Rachael Moraitis, 25th (20:56). Giddings, Bolton and Stemmer medaled. So the Spartans appear to be right on schedule toward a possi-ble state crown. "Not all at once have we run

Not all at once have we run our best race," McNeilance said. "Everybody is saving it for the most important one." That would be Saturday's sec-ond crown jewel, the regional. (C.J. Risak contributed to this story)

A word all coaches fear: Slump.

What Schoolcraft College's volleyball team was enduring last week could be termed as one. That was the bad news for the Lady Ocelots; the good news was - they won in spite of it.

SC played at Macomb CC Thursday and, against a team with just two wins in its previous seven Eastern Conference matches, went five games before collecting the victory: 15-4, 15-13, 13-15, 7-15, 15-13.

"We're struggling a little bit," admitted SC coach Tom Teeters. "But we came through when we had to.

"We've been playing very erratic. We're not playing well right now."

What helped SC (18-8 overall, 6-2 in the conference) survive against Macomb was its bench. Teeters said that Gretchen Baisch (from Plymouth Agape Christian) "came in and did well defensively," while Tracy Rucinski provided some "good passing."

"They provided a spark off the bench," Teeters said.

Yvette Sixbey (Garden City) led the offense with eight kills. Michelle McRae added seven, and Hermina Angeles and Jamie Clark (Livonia Churchill) had five apiece, with Clark adding three service aces and 13 digs. Amber Wells (Plymouth Canton) contributed 26 assists to kills, Stacy Sailus had two solo blocks and three block assists. Angeles also had 12 digs.

Madonna rips Tri-State

It was a short trip for Madonna University's volleyball team Thursday. The Fighting Crusaders visited Tri-State and rolled to a 15-7, 15-8, 15-4 at Tri-State.

Kelly McCausland (Redford Union) led the way with 12 kills, 11 digs, one solo block and five block asists. Julie Martin (Livonia Stevenson) added 11 kills, six digs, two solos and seven block assists; Karin Sisung totaled six kills and 10 digs; Erin Comment collected five kills and 10 digs; and Meg Paris had 31 assists to kills and eight digs.

The win improved 16th-ranked Madonna's record to 28-3.

"Basically, we controlled play the entire match," said Madonna coach Jerry Abraham. "It was a win on the road. We played everybody, and they played consistently with all the different lineups.

So: "So far, so good," the Madonna coach said of the season for his 16th-ranked Crusaders.

In a WLAA crossover game Monday at Churchill, Plymouth Salem made some adjustments and got goals in each half to subdue the Chargers, 2-0.

Brett Konley converted a pass from Brent Mullin for the only goal of the first half. The pair then turned it around, with Mullin scoring off an assist from Konley in the second.

Salem coach Ed McCarthy moved Chris Curry from midfield to sweeper, a position he played for Salem the last two years, and it helped strengthen the defense.

Andres Lopez was in goal for the shut for Salem, which finishes with a 13-3-2 regular-season record.

that, intercepting a Bruce pass and racing 92 yards for a touchdown that pulled Salem to within 26-18 late in the first half.

It might have stayed that way, but Salem's attempted short kickoff was returned 67 yards by Mathison to the Salem 7-yard line with 40 seconds to go. On the final play of the half, Jay Laura -- subbing for Bruce, who was shaken up but did return -tossed a 7-yard TD pass to Shaw, building Central's lead to 33-18 at the intermission.

Salem drew to within a touchdown in the third quarter when Charlie Schmidt intercepted Bruce and returned it to the Central 37. Gray passed 7 yards to Brian Lehane and, with a twopoint conversion pass from Gray to Lehane, the Rocks were within 33-26.

But Central could not be stopped. Bruce -- who finished with 200 rushing yards on 15 carries -- scored his third touchdown on a 16-yard run, increasing the Viking lead to 40-26.

Salem answered with a Gray 11-yard run, capping a 74-yard the Johnson and Johnson show Friday night at Walled Lake Western High School.

Western's Dave Johnson and Canton's Rob Johnson put on quite an exhibition as they combined for five touchdowns. Fortunately for the Warriors, Dave Johnson outscored Rob Johnson, 3-2.

The victory gave Western (6-1 overall) the outright Western Division championship of the Western Lakes Activities Association and a 5-0 league record. The Warriors host WLAA Lakes Division champion Westland John Glenn at 7:30 p.m. Friday for the overall WLAA crown.

The last time Western won the conference title was 1992 – the year the Warriors played in the Class A state championship game at the Pontiac Silverdome. Canton fell to 3-4 overall and 2-3 in the division.

Western took a 13-7 halftime lead as sophomore Dave Johnson scored on runs of four and one vards. Kob J ton's second quarter touchdown on a 1-yard run. The Warriors iced the game with an 8-yard TD run in the third quarter by senior Scott Naz and a 34-yard scoring run by junior quarterback Frank Stanford. Dave Johnson completed the Warriors scoring with a 31-yard run. Rob Johnson, a senior, com-pleted the Chiefs' scoring with a 91-yard kickoff return. Western had 403 total yards -379 of which came on the ground. Dave Johnson finished with 148 yards rushing. The win also kept the Warriors in the hunt for a state playoff berth. Western was second in the Class AA Region II rankings heading into Friday's game.

Bruce was 8-of-18 passing for 92 yards, with two touchdowns and three interceptions. His brother Nathan Bruce added 79 yards rushing on 15 carries, as Central pierced Salem for 365 yards on the ground.

Gray was Salem's offense. He rushed for 81 yards on 13 attempts, scoring four touchdowns, and completed 12-of-23 passes for 167 yards and another TD, with one intercept. McKian was his favorite target, catching six balls for 82 yards and a touchdown. Matt Johnson added 41 yards rushing on eight tries.

1997 Nissan Pathfinder makes the grade

By Anne Fracassa Avanti NewsFeatures

This year's Nissan press guide has a little present in it — a couple of chuckles in a parable about what's inside a Nissan "dream garage". Let me share a few with you during this column about the 1997 Nissan Pathfinder.

Redesigned and re-engineered less than a year ago — February 1996 — the Pathfinder now has prettier and softer lines, a longer wheelbase, a new engine and quite a bit more cabin and cargo space. "Those who doubt the concept of eternity have never taken a road trip with a 3-year-old."

The 1997 lineup consists of 5 distinct models, each for a different type of driving experience $-4x^2$ XE and LE and the 4x4 XE, SE and LE.

All five models feature a 3.3-liter single overhead cam V6 engine that provides 168 horsepower. This is a more powerful engine than the previous model, but we still need a few more horsepower here, guys. Sure it gets you there, but not in an all-fire hurry. It just seems a little underpowered. It can get you around town with little annoyance, however.

The new engine provides great flexibility and torque for towing and off-road driving. The zero-to-60 mph time is 10.5 on the 4x2 automatic and 11.2 on the 4x4.

"Need a hug? Try fastening your seatbelt a little tighter."

A couple of things have been added to the 1997 Pathfinder to make it even better, such as storage pockets on all doors (SE models), seat back pocket added to the passenger side of the XE models, a new exterior color and an advanced Bose 6-speaker 15-watt AM/FM CD system on the LE models.

You can mate the 3.3-liter engine to either a 5-speed manual or electronically controlled 4-speed automatic transmission with overdrive. If you choose the 4-wheel-drive models, you'll be happy there is a shift-on-the-fly feature that can be activated at speeds of up to 50 miles per hour. What convenience.

And this thing is as quiet as a mouse inside. Comfortable to drive and ride in as well. Heavy-duty strut-type front suspension allows better tire contact with the road and comfort all around — whether you're on or off-road.

"Without cars, how would the world know your child is an honor student?"

Nissan also installed the proven 5-link rear suspension design with springs and shock on the outboard for better stability and exquisite body roll control. There are stabilizer bars both in the front and rear.

"In a million years, will bugs evolve a way to bounce off windshields? Or will they simply learn not to fly near highways?

Four-wheel anti-lock brakes are standard equipment on all models of Pathfinder this year. When on the highways and byways, the ABS works like your ordinary run-ofthe-mill traditional ABS. But offroad, it's a little different. It incorporates a special "G-sensor" that reads the road surface and adjust braking controls accordingly. That eliminates the "skimming effect" you get on dust, gravel or sand.

Also, every Pathfinder is outfittod with a standard power-assisted rack-an-pinion steering system for better and easier maneuverability. It has a really tight turning radius, as well, something you wouldn't expect on a vehicle this large.

The Pathfinder is a large vehicle that provides comfortable seating for five. In front, there are large bucket seats that can provide comfort for even the largest buckets. In the rear, there's a 60/40 split folddown seat that folds flat for added cargo area.

"The earth spins at 1,000 miles per hour. Please wear your seat belt."

Also in the rear, you'll find large rear door pockets, a concealed side storage bin and a mini-storage compartment under the floor of the rear cargo area. What's in there is a spare tire. You can opt for an outside spare tire carrier, but you know what? The car looks so much cleaner and sleeker without it.

Ahead of the driver is a really smart instrument cluster. Nissan engineers listened to the consumer when designing the IC because all the gauges are arranged "according to need." That means the most used displays are center in the driver's field of vision and switches are varied in size and shape to avoid confusion.

The Pathfinder XE is available in 4x2 and 4x2 models that have 15-inch steel-belted radials, smartly styled 6-spoke alloy wheels and fabric seats. The SE, which is only available as a 4x4, has shift-onthe-fly, 15-inch radials on alloy wheels, chrome trim, fender flares, step rail roof rack, fabric seats, cargo tie downs, cruise control, power remote windows, door locks, heated outside mirrors, remote keyless entry, security system and driver's seat lumbar with height adjustments.

"Without cars, how would shopping carts stop?"

Finally the LE is available in 4x2 or 4x4 models and come standard with 4-speed automatic transmission, limited-slip rear differential (on 4x4), running boards, fog lights, aluminum alloy wheels, roof rack, simulated wood-grain interior trim, air conditioning and automatic temp controls, leather seats, cruise control, remote-controlled power windows, door locks and outside mirrors, keyless entry and vehicle security system.

(*)(0)10

What really struck my eye about the Pathfinder is its sleek look. Even the rear door handles are recessed and up high. It actually looked like a 2-door at first. The lines are softer and it doesn't look boxy, like the previous generation Pathfinder did. It's become a little more Americanized, where before it looked too Japanese.

"Look into your heart for wisdom and under your seat for change."

The Nissan Pathfinder has changed, and this change is really good. It's good looking, better powered, more comfortable and user friendly. Good option to look at when considering a sport utility. Here's just a few more:

"Maybe traffic jams happen because cars like to be with other cars."

"Why can't there be double yellow lines between right and wrong?"

"If you name your car you'll have someone to blame when you lock your keys in it."

"Have fun. Smile. Drive happy. Enjoy the ride."

Go ahead, make the move. Now is the right time to buy a home.

NOW is the right time to Buy a Home!

Purchasing a home has always been a wise decision, but current market conditions are making it even more attractive to buy now.

EXCELLENT FINANCING IS AVAILABLE NOW

Interest rates are lower, and mortgage lenders are offering a wide variety of financing options. Low interest rates mean you can get more for your money.

- 30-year fixed mortgages are still available as well as many other financing alternatives.
- First time buyers are encouraged to purchase now through financing packages offering small down payments.

YOUR HOME IS YOUR BEST INVESTMENT

Purchasing a home is the best way to build a solid financial foundation. A home not only provides you with warmth and comfort, it also serves as a secure investment.
