Grandmother loses $2K in phone scam

Darrell Clem hometownlife.com

A Plymouth Township grandmother has lost $2,000 after a scam artist phoned her and said the money was needed to get her grandson out of jail.

Police Chief Tom Tiderington said the caller posed as a police officer and briefly put someone else on the phone, claiming he was the grandson.

The caller convinced the elderly woman to go to a retail store, buy gift cards and provide the code numbers on the back, allowing the scam artist to collect the money.

It's the latest such incident in Plymouth Township, Canton and other communities where callers posing as police officers, Internal Revenue Service employees and FBI agents, among others, have convinced residents — often the elderly — to give money.

On Monday, Tiderington said the victim became suspicious and called police after the scam artist called back a second time and said another $3,000 was needed.

The police chief warned residents to beware of phone scams, get contact numbers for callers and verify the authenticity of calls, even from those claiming to be relatives, before sending money. Moreover, he said police officers do not solicit money by phone to free a jail inmate.

The Plymouth Township incident comes just two months after an 81-year-old Canton woman, worried that her grandson had been arrested for texting while driving, was swindled out of $2,000 by a caller who fabricated the story.

PLYMOUTH-ANN ARBOR ELKS

Plymouth Elks provide Christmas to veterans

For nearly 40 years, members of the Plymouth-Ann Arbor Elks have made sure veterans around the area have had Christmas presents under the tree.

Last weekend, they were back at it, with some 80 gathered at the Elks to wrap 880 Christmas gifts of 15 items hospitals and three veterans homeless shelters.

The atmosphere at the Elks was electric with the Christmas spirit, with the sounds of the season filling the air among flying paper and tape. Nearly 900 gifts were wrapped in an hour-and-a-half. Young and old were all working together. Families of three generations were part of this intergenerational event.

The Christmas event reached into the community for a unified event. Helping to wrap were representatives from the Plymouth American Legion, Plymouth Lions, Masons, Polish Legion of American Veterans, Boy Scouts, area churches and others from the community. Donations were received from Knights of Columbus, Dr. Glenn Curtis, D.D.S., of the Morse Dental group, The Plymouth Dental Associates' Peter Leone, many Elks, community members and a grant from The Elks National Foundation.

The gifts included socks, shampoo, mouthwash, deodorant, body powder, lotion, toothpaste, toothbrush, toothbrush cap, dental floss, mints, decks of cards, soap, tissue and lap

Fresh Thyme eyes spring opening of Canton location

Darrell Clem hometownlife.com

Fresh Thyme Farmers Market is expected to open by early April in Canton, becoming the Phoenix-based grocery chain's seventh store in Michigan.

The new 28,709-square-foot store, which has taken shape on Morton Taylor, north of Ford Road, comes as Fresh Thyme moves to broaden its reach among Midwest grocery stores, said Dan Uebelhor, project manager for the developer, InSite Real Estate.

Company officials chose the Canton location amid plans to tap into the bustling Ford Road business corridor and its builtin customer base. "This is the market they have wanted to be in for a long time," Uebelhor said. "It's a great location in a great retail corridor they have been eyeing for a long time."

Despite some minor weather-related construction setbacks, the project appears on schedule. Officials last January had said they hoped to open the store during the first half of 2017.

"Everything has gone really well," Uebelhor said.

The specialty store is expected to employ about 115 fulland part-time workers, similar to the workforce of the Farmington store that opened in August.

Uebelhor has described

Fresh Thyme as larger than Trader Joe's, but smaller than Whole Foods Market. The company's niche includes natural, organic produce, hormone-free meats and fresh seafood, among other items.

Fresh Thyme's spring opening is expected after the company last January received the go-ahead for its site plan from the Canton Township Board of Trustees.

The company's website lists other Michigan stores in Northville, Farmington, Troy, Rochester Hills, East Lansing and Grand Rapids.

Mother of overdose victim praises police

The mother of a local 34-year-old male who died from a fentanyl overdose is praising the efforts of law enforcement.

According to Canton Police, Terri Young said her son Andrew Kocoloski was a commendable student and person prior to his battle with heroin. In 2000, Kocoloski was captain of Salem High School's football and basketball teams. He went on to play four years of football for Albion College, where he was also nominated as captain and MVP his senior year, while maintaining a 3.5 grade-point average.

Last year, police said, after battling a heroin addiction in and out of rehab, Kocoloski lost his life to the disease. On Dec. 12, 2015, Kocoloski

In the morning Kocoloski's mother found her son unconscious and called 9-1-1, police said in a press release. Canton police and fire responded to the home, where he was pronounced dead on the scene. Police observed evidence of drug use, which was later confirmed by the medical examiner, who stated the cause of death was fentanyl overdose.

Woman is third pedestrian death on Michigan Avenue

AREA CRIME WATCH

Darrell Clem hometownlife.com

Police are calling it a tragic coincidence that three pedestrians have been struck and killed since Nov. 13 while crossing Michigan Avenue, near Lotz, in Canton.

Detective Sgt. Dan Traylor said the deaths "sadly" are coincidental and serve as a reminder for pedestrians to use caution when crossing roads like Michigan Avenue that have a 55-mph speed limit. He said it's easy to misjudge how quickly a vehicle is approaching.

"It's like not crossing where the speed limit is 35 mph," he said.

The latest incident occurred about 11:30 p.m. Dec. 12, when a 30-yearold Canton woman, whose car had broken down, was crossing the westbound lanes of Michigan Avenue at Lotz, near the McDonald's restaurant. She was trying to get from the south side of the avenue to the north. The woman, whose name hasn't yet been released, was struck by an oncoming vehicle whose driver stopped at the scene. Police said speed, alcohol and distracted driving do not appear be factors.

The victim was taken to St. Mary Mercy Hospital in Livonia, where she later died from her injuries.

The Canton Police Department's Accident Investigation Team was called in to investigate.

The woman's death came after a double pedestrian fatality near the same area that killed 54-year-old Martin Jude Lesinski of Westland and 45-year-old Robert James Locklear of Inkster. That incident occurred shortly before 6 p.m. Nov. 13 and involved three vehicles.

Two of the drivers stopped; police have said speed, alcohol and distracted driving didn't appear to be factors with them. Police are still trying to identify and locate a third driver who reportedly fled the scene in a dark blue or black minivan, possibly a Dodge Caravan. The driver was described as male, 36-40 years old and clean-shaven with short black hair. Police say he briefly got out of his vehicle before leaving the scene.

Police say the two men were walking north across the eastbound lanes of Michigan Avenue. Lesinski was struck by the vehicle that fled the scene and then by another vehicle, a Buick Lacrosse, whose driver did stop, police said.

Locklear was struck by a Ford Expedition. That driver also stopped at the scene.

Anyone with information about these incidents is urged to call the Canton Township Police Department at 734-394-5400.

Man accused of exposing himself on hotel elevator

What began as a harmless compliment on her hair quickly became frightening for a 24-yearold woman who said a man exposed and fondled himself on a Canton hotel elevator.

The incident unfolded shortly after 9 a.m. Monday at the La Quinta Inn on Ford Road, near I-275, on Canton's east side.

The victim told police she had gone to her car to get clothing and was returning to her secondfloor hotel room when the suspect complimented her "pretty hair" on the elevator. She said he also noticed she had a sprained ankle and commented on it.

The woman accused the man of dropping his pants, exposing himself and masturbating as the elevator reached her floor, where she escaped to her room, a police report said.

The suspect was described as a black male, 5 feet, 7 inches, to 5 feet, 9 inches, about 150 pounds with short hair. The report indicated he had not been located.

Gun confiscated

Police confiscated a 9mm handgun during what started as a routine traffic stop near Cherry Hill and Haggerty roads, a report said.

Police pulled a vehicle over after noticing its windows were heavily tinted. The report said the 27-year-old driver and two passengers also were riding with a flat tire.

Police could smell marijuana and found a small amount on the front seat. Further search led police to the handgun, which was in a coat pocket in the back seat.

The driver, a Bloomfield Hills resident, and both passengers denied the gun was theirs. Police ran a background check that revealed the driver had a registered gun, but his permit to carry a concealed weapon had expired. He also had a suspended driver's license.

Police took the driver into custody as the investigation was continuing.

Text, Facebook harassment

Amidst a months-long barrage of texts and Facebook messages, a Canton woman turned to police to get her brother's ex-girlfriend to stop harassing her.

She finally blocked the 23-year-old suspect from sending texts and Facebook messages, but police also contacted the ex-girlfriend, a Detroit resident, and advised her to stop contacting the Canton woman.

The suspect apparently was trying to get through to her former boyfriend by using his sister as the go-between, a report said. She began contacting her in mid-June and the activity continued into December.

When contacted by police, the suspect apologized and said she would halt her activity.

Teen resists police

A teen trying to escape a retail store where he was accused of stealing a smart phone ended up dragging a police officer toward the front door before he was finally subdued, a police report said.

The incident occurred about 2:15 p.m. Saturday at the Walmart store on Michigan Avenue in Canton. It ended with a 17-year-old Ypsilanti Township man being taken into custody.

Witnesses told police the teen, accompanied by his mother and sister, left the store with a stolen phone and went to a Chevrolet Malibu before he returned to the store. A store employee had seen the teen remove the packaging from the phone and steal it.

Police arrived, found the teen and questioned him, prompting him to ask if he would be going to jail. He then tried to run away and dragged a police officer who was holding onto him to try to subdue him. The two scuffled and ended up on the store floor.

No one was seriously injured, though the suspect complained of pain, but wasn't specific about where he was hurting. He was taken to a medical facility for evaluation and, upon his release from the facility, was facing possible charges of retail fraud.

Purse stolen from car

A 46-year-old Plymouth woman told police the rear window of her 2017 Ford Escape was smashed out by a thief who took her purse from the vehicle, a report said.

The woman had gone to the LA Fitness center in the 41600 block of Ann Arbor Road and left her purse inside the vehicle while she worked out. She returned to find her vehicle vandalized and her purse and laptop had been taken. She also said she lost an iPhone, credit cards, a copy of the Bible, makeup supplies and $750 in cash.

Stun gun confiscated

Police confiscated a stun gun from the purse of a female driver who was stopped by Plymouth Township police near Joy and Haggerty roads, a report said.

Police ran an electronic check of the vehicle's license plate and learned the owner, a 26-year-old Detroit woman, had a suspended license and warrants for her arrest. The incident unfolded about 2:15 p.m. Dec. 1.

Police could smell marijuana and ended up confiscating a small amount in a bag located in the car's center console. The investigation was continuing.

Crack pipe found

Police found a crack pipe inside a Chevrolet Cavalier during a traffic stop that occurred about 3 p.m. Nov. 7 near Ann Arbor Road and Tavistock Drive.

Police had stopped the vehicle after running a background check and learning that the owner had a warrant for his arrest out of Garden City for possession of drug paraphernalia. He also had a suspended license. He was taken into custody.

Amazon warehouse plan bringing 1,000 jobs to Livonia

David Veselenak hometownlife.com

You might see your Amazon packages shipping out of Livonia by next Christmas.

That's because the mega online retailing giant has decided to bring a product fulfillment center to Livonia, set to open next fall. With the opening will come an additional 1,000 jobs to the city once it opens next October.

The Michigan Strategic Fund has approved a $7.5 million grant to the company, a Michigan Business Development Program performancebased grant that will aid in the recruitment efforts. It's expected that Amazon will invest roughly $90 million in the center.

Dan West, president of the Livonia Chamber of Commerce, said the decision for Amazon to come to Livonia not only benefits the city, but the entire western Wayne County region. "It's good jobs for our whole area," he said. " From our perspective, this is great for our community.'

Livonia Mayor Dennis Wright agreed, saying the announcement is nothing but good news for Livonia and surrounding communities.

"It's a real plus, though, for the people who live here, the people who work here," he said. "This is good news for everybody.

He said it's expected some local tax abatement measures will also be requested for the site, with the expectation that they will go before the city council some time in 2017

West said once Amazon opens in the city, it will instantly become one of the top 10 employers in Livonia, diversifying the type of industrial within the city limits. Its location, West said, will also benefit the company and its future employees. The center is expected to move into the former GM Delco chassis plant at 13000 Eckles, off of Amrhein.

"The site that Amazon picked, it's right near the I-96/I-275/M-14 inter-change," West said.

The announcement of 1,000 jobs was foreshadowed last year, when a development agreement between Canton-based Ashley Capital and the city of Livonia was approved by the city council in June 2015. This is the second former GM plant in the city that is being occupied in recent years; Ashley Capital has also worked to redevelop and fill the former GM Powertrain plant near Plymouth and Middlebelt.

"We're proud to welcome Amazon to Livonia and applaud the collaboration that took place to bring this significant capital investment and new, well-paying jobs to our community," Wayne County Executive Warren C. Evans said in a statement. "Time is everything in today's global market and Wayne County was glad to do our part to ensure Amazon has the public infrastructure it needs to support its ecommerce operations."

Throwing a holiday party? Know your responsibility

Where is a constructed by the end of the end

Everyone loves to have a good time over the holidays, but how do we make sure that our guests are safe and we're not responsible?

In Michigan, dram shop laws may hold a vendor (bar, restaurant, shop) liable for providing alcohol to a minor or a visibly intoxicated person who then goes on to cause an accident. But what about your own private party?

You may not realize it, but as a host, you could be exposed to legal liability if some of your guests consume too much alcohol and are then in an accident after leaving your party. Similar to a vendor, as an event host, many judges could rule that you should have been able to recognize the level of intoxication of your guests and, if they were visibly intoxicated, not allow them to continue drinking and drive. Doing so would be considered reckless and you could be held liable. This is particularly true if you are hosting a party where a minor is served alcohol.

So what can you do to ensure you and your guests are best protected? There are simple actions to take over the holidays to make sure that this doesn't happen: You may not realize it, but as a host, you could be exposed to legal liability if some of your guests consume too much alcohol and are then in an accident after leaving your party.

» Put everyone's keys in a basket when they get there. This is the easiest thing to do to make sure that nobody that you've served alcohol to is driving drunk. When everyone walks in the door, take their keys away. That is the clearest and easiest way to make sure you have no liability for people drunk driving over the holidays.

» In the email or evite, add a link to install the Uber or Lyft App on your phone. Make your guests use it. In the era of smart phones and the ease of Uber (www.uber.com, available on iTunes and Google Play) and Lyft (www.lyft.com, available on iTunes and Google Play), there is no excuse for someone not to be able to get a ride sharing service. If they're unable to do it, have them bring cash and you order the ride for them. On Christmas and New Year's Eve. when the rates can be double or triple a normal fare, it's still far cheaper than the penalties for drunken driving, which include jail time, losing your license and other penalties

» Make plans ahead of time for rides. New Year's Eve is one of the statistically most dangerous nights for driving, whether you are sober or not. The best thing you could do, if drinking at a friend's house, is spend the night. Short of that, making your ride as short as possible is always the smart move. » Talk to your insurance agent regarding liquor liability coverage provided by your homeowners policy. Many insurance companies have policies to protect you in these situations, should they arise. If you're unsure if you have such a policy or what kinds of situations your insurance coverage protects you from, don't assume, ask your insurance agent. Many pol-icies are rescinded if you perform certain actions and you don't want to lose your home, your car or your livelihood.

» Under any circumstances, do not serve alcohol to minors. Parents frequently think "at least they're doing it under my roof, so I can see what's going on." This is extremely dangerous. Many teens mix alcohol with pills — a deadly combination and serving them alcohol could make you responsible if someone gets sick or dies under your roof.

Like most holidays, the best thing you can do is plan ahead — make sure you have rides, places to sleep and engage in safe behaviors. If you don't, as a driver, homeowner or friend, you could end up in a situation where you have a very unhappy 2017.

New year will bring changes in world of investing, as always would like to take this opportunity to wish you and yours a very happy and healthy holiday season. Whether you celebrate Christmas or Hanukah or even just the change of seasons, I hope that you spend time with your loved ones, enjoying their company and remembering what's important in life.

As we celebrate the holidays and look forward to a new year, there is no doubt 2017 will be a year of change and that we will see a fair amount of ups and downs, twists and turns and probably everything in between. In other words, situation normal.

One thing I have been

talking about for years is people have to accept that everything is changing and that the pace of change is faster than ever before. Whether we like it or not — and in many situations I don't we all have to accept the reality of the world that we live in. That being said, it is important to remember that we can't ignore change; we also can't overreact. Overreacting can be just as detrimental to your financial health as putting your head in the sand.

One change that I do believe is on the horizon is tax reform. After Mr. Trump takes office, there will be all sorts of speculation as to where the tax laws will go. My advice is to never react to the speculation, because it's a fool's game. When it comes to any legislation (and particularly tax laws), you never know what's going to happen until the law is actually passed. Therefore, it doesn't make sense to speculate; the better course of action is to wait until the law actually passes

Despite all the changes in our society, there are still some things that haven't changed and one is the importance of keeping your financial house in order. Whether you use technology and some of the great new apps to help you keep your personal financial affairs in order or do it the oldfashioned way with paper and pencil, it's a task you cannot afford to ignore. In this everchanging world that we live in, it's more important than ever to stay on top of your personal financial affairs. At the beginning of the year, I believe everyone should prepare a personal family balance sheet. A personal family

balance sheet lets you know what you have and what you owe. It is important that you take a look periodically at your assets and liabilities. Remember, assets minus liabilities equals net worth. Doing the first family balance sheet is always the most difficult. However, by doing the family balance sheet it lets you know where you are financially and also allows you to compare future years.

Doing a personal family balance sheet is easier this time of year because we all are going to get year-end statements with the balances of our account.

One other thing you can do to help keep your finances in order is a cash flow statement, so you know exactly what is coming in and what's going out. For all investors and, in fact, for all people, it is extremely important to know what it costs you to live a month. It helps in determining how to invest and even if you can afford to retire.

Change is coming and, whether we like it or not, it's import we embrace it.

Enter the secret world of Masons

On a crisp Saturday night in early December, the Birmingham Lodge No. 44 of Free and Accepted Masons is opened for the installation of new officers

In a ceremony dating back hundreds of years, Matt Wilde, a former backup quarterback for the University of Michigan football team, is elected worshipful master of the lodge. As a symbol of his new position, he is presented with a top hat and a master's gavel.

It's the same installation ceremony that George Washington followed in 1788, when he was elected worshipful master of Alexandria Lodge No. 22, shortly before he was elected the first president of the United States.

"My grandfather was a Mason," said Wilde, a

Wilde is the 116th worshipful master of the Birmingham Masonic lodge.

Recognized as the oldest fraternity in the world, Freemasonry came to the Great Lakes territory in the mid-1700s via the French. The Grand Lodge of Michigan was established in 1826, while the Birmingham lodge received its charter in 1851

A number of the key players in the American Revolution were Freemasons. Along with Wash-ington, the list includes Benjamin Franklin, James Monroe, Paul Revere and John Hancock, among others.

The Boston Tea Party was planned at the Green Dragon Tavern, a gathering spot for Freemasons. The majority of Washington's generals in the Continental Army were Freemasons.

Locally, prominent names such as Charles Shain, Wylie E. Groves, Ebenezer Raynale, Hugh McCurdy and Charles Bingham were members of Birmingham Lodge

No. 44. So was Almeron Whitehead, founder of the Birmingham Eccentric, and many others.

From 1922-63, the Freemasons of Birmingham met in the historic Peabody Mansion at the corner of Old Woodward and Brown Street. Wilde said his mom used to tell him stories about dropping off her dad at the Birmingham lodge.

Who are Freemasons?

"To be a Free and Accepted Mason means you're a man free-born, of good rapport and wellrecommended," said Robert Hall, who serves as chaplain for the Birmingham lodge. "It means you'll try to live up to what we call the tenets of Masonry: friendship, brotherly love and morality.

Some date the Masons back to the days of King Solomon, suggesting the top hat worn by the worshipful master is a reflection of his crown. Freemasonry, as it's widely known today, dates to the 17th century. Many of the group's so-called ancient rituals began in England and Scotland. A Scottish bagpiper in full kilt dress, for example, led the new officers into the hall at the installation ceremony. The term "worshipful" has Scottish roots and is meant to convey a position of hon-

Hall, a longtime resident of Royal Oak, became a Mason in 1985. He served as worshipful master twice, in 1997 and in 2007

"We all have different reasons for joining," he said. "My father was very active in the Masons. He was a Shriner - and to be a Shriner, you have to be a Mason first."

Today, the Birmingham Masonic lodge is located at 37357 Woodward in Bloomfield Hills, just down the street from Cranbrook Schools. The lodge has about 300 members – a sharp decline from 25 years ago, when there were well over 600 members.

Wilde, 33, is a fourthgeneration Birmingham resident. His family first arrived in Birmingham in 1919. His grandfather, Gordon Deneau, graduated Birmingham High School in 1941, while his mother Gail (Deneau) Wilde graduated from Seaholm in 1970.

He played football at U-M under coach Lloyd Carr from 2002-05. Some of his teammates included future NFL players such as Chad Henne, Braylon Edwards, Mario Manningham David undeveloped territory," Hall said. "White people were trespassing uninvited on Indian property and they didn't like it.'

The Birmingham lodge was officially granted a charter Jan. 9, 1851, and a man by the name of William Brown was the first worshipful master. The annual dues at the time was 25 cents.

Ebenezer Raynale was the first postmaster of Franklin village and a delegate to the first territorial convention of Michigan. Hugh McCurdy, born in England in 1829, came to the U.S. when he was 8 years old to become a cooper's apprentice, which involved making barrels for beer or cider.

Alanson Partridge, nose portrait hangs ir the entrance vestibule of the lodge, was the most celebrated member of the lodge in its first 100 years, having served as a worshipful master on and the local lodges whenever he traveled around the country," Hall said. "This drove the Secret Service nuts, because those who were not Masons could not go into the lodge room ... they had to let the president go into a room filled with strangers and they had no idea if they were honorable or not or if they carried weapons."

And then there's Harold Lanning. The 90-yearold member sang "God Bless America" during the installation ceremony. Afterward, Lanning told the audience that in October 1946, he shook hands with Irving Berlin, the person who wrote the song.

The heyday of Freemasonry in the U.S. was during the 1940s and early '50s. Today, the

He also played on the 2002 lacrosse team at Seaholm that beat Brother Rice in the state finals.

"I actually had more offers to play lacrosse than I had for football. But at the end of the day, I knew I'd be happier playing football at Michigan," said Wilde, an attorney who's pursuing an MBA from the U-M Stephen M. Ross School of Business. His wife Liz is a social worker at Derby Middle School.

He petitioned to join the Birmingham lodge in 2010 and eventually became interested enough that he earned his three degrees of Masonry. The process took several years to complete before he reached the level of

"A lot of the older members are pretty thrilled because I'm the youngest Master in quite a while," Wilde said. "So it's a bit symbolic, bringing in a new generation. A lot of the lodges really struggled with membership for the past 20 years, but there seems to be a resurgence of new people wanting to join. We'll have five new guys in January.'

The Masons welcome "all men of quality," refrom Venezuela and he just joined our lodge," Wilde said. "You have to be at least 21 and a resident of Michigan. We're not allowed to recruit members, but we're certainly supportive of anyone who's interested in joining.'

Indians, Truman and Irving Berlin

The all-seeing eye above an unfinished pyramid on the $1 bill is considered by many to be a Mason symbol.

The square and compasses is probably the most identifiable symbol of Freemasonry. The square, to square one's actions; the compass, to circumscribe and keep members within boundaries of their fellow men. The top hat, worn by

'We are not a secret society - we are a society that has secrets," Hall said. "And those secrets, very simply, are means of recognition. They're certain words, handshakes, steps and signs. Those are the only secrets we have ... everything else is pretty much public."

The Birmingham Masonic lodge has a storied history. In 1849, the first Masons in the area met at Lodge No. 22 in Pontiac. According to the lodge scuttlebutt, there were Indians along the trail who were rather hostile toward the traveling parties on horseback. "This was all wild and

Chiefs overcome rough stretches to win 48-41

Tim Smith hometownlife.com

The door was cracked open just enough for Livonia Franklin's varsity boys basketball team to sneak through Tuesday night.

Unfortunately for the Patriots, they couldn't take advantage and dropped a 48-41 decision to visiting Canton in the KLAA South Division opener for both teams.

That's because the Chiefs - nursing a single-digit lead in the final minutes — missed the front end of three consecutive one-and-one situations, which rankled veteran Chiefs head coach Jimmy Reddy.

"That's probably the worst free-throw shooting I've seen in eight years," Reddy said. "And I'm irritated, because we're too good of a shooting team to do that.

"Our coaches just told us (we made) 4-of-14 and we had a chance to seal it. In the last two or three minutes, we were shooting one-and-ones."

But three times, the Chiefs clanked the shot and the Patriots grabbed the rebound, with another chance for junior center Mark Mettie or senior point guard Johnny Cantrell to drain one from long range and give Franklin a last burst of momentum. The Patriots, now 2-3 overall and 0-1 in the division,

The long and successful career of Chuck Olson as Salem's varsity boys swimming and diving coach is undisputed. His name is on the outside of the high school's pool as proof.

But the new guy in charge, Brandon Larkins, is already enjoying Olson-like success with the Rocks capturing victories over Livonia Churchill and Brighton and then placing third at the competitive Plymouth Wildcat Relays. Larkins said the victories — 111-72 on Dec. 13 against the Chargers and 98-78 on Dec. 15 against

It was a patriotic sight to behold Saturday at USA Hockey Arena in Plymouth.

Sitting in the front row in Section 109 were players such as Lindsay Hunt, Danielle Klee and Megan Mathews, all members of the Livonia Knights 14-and-Under team, a travel squad based out of Eddie Edgar Arena.

They proudly sported their team jerseys and waved miniature replicas of the American flag before and during the women's exhibition game between the United States and Canada. All 3,308 fans in attendance received one as they entered the arena.

During the game itself, the level of noise grew and grew as the excited, higher-pitched voices of elementary, middle and high school girls screamed "U-S-A! U-S-A!"

"I wanted to be here so I could support America and have a fun time with my teammates," Hunt, 13, of Livonia said following pregame warmups. "It means not just boys can do it; girls can do it, too. We can probably beat them if we want to."

now, we're 2-0, we're dropping a ton of time," said Larkins, also coach of Salem's girls swim team.

Leading the charge is versatile sophomore Eugene Li, who already broke his own record in the 100 breaststroke with 59.3 against Brighton.

"And he set the record at 59.8 last year," Larkins said. "So in the second meet, beating his own varsity record, it's phenomenal."

Li swims all the relays, along with individual sprint and distance events. "He's a good swimmer. He can do everything I ask him to do," Larkins said.

Also helping set the tone are senior co-captains Phillip Collingwood (500 back, 50 free, relays), Miles Angell (100 back,

WOMEN'S HOCKEY

Rally by Canada spoils fun for U.S.

Americans unable to cash in on multiple power plays in 5-3 defeat

Tim Smith hometownlife.com

With hundreds of jerseywearing players from local girls hockey teams cheering loudly and waving miniature American flags, the atmosphere was electric Saturday afternoon inside Plymouth's USA Hockey Arena.

Players such as Farmington resident Megan Keller, who played defense for the U.S. Women's National Team against Canada, certainly noticed the buzz and wanted nothing more than for young fans to leave the arena happy.

Unfortunately, Canada spoiled those plans by scoring four unanswered goals and skating to a 5-3 victory in the first of a two-game exhibition series.

"It was pretty cool, I saw a lot of Honeybaked jerseys out there, a lot of Livonia jerseys," Keller said. "Those were two programs I played for growing up, so to be able to see all those younger girls out there was a really cool experience.

"I feel like not too long ago I was them, watching these games on TV. So it's pretty surreal to be able to see them in the stands."

But Canada spoiled the fun for more than 3,300 fans with four unanswered goals to knock off the U.S., 5-3.

'Certainly, it's great for our players to have that energy in the building," U.S. head coach Robb Stauber said. "I'm sure most of them went home disappointed, at least the fans that were cheering for us."

For the first two periods of the Team USA Winter Champions Series, it was all good for the home team (up 3-2 and enjoying a 25-12 edge in shots).

Off the hook

Place to be

Yet Stauber lamented that his team didn't have a bigger lead going into the final period.

We can carry some things into the next game (Monday in Sarnia) and we will," Stauber said. "When you're up 3-1 and you got 'em on the hook, we learned that we got to figure out how to get the job done.

"We were right there. We had a glorious chance on the power play and we didn't take the shot. We have to take advantage of those advantages because, against a team like that, they're not going to come around very often."

Canada tied it and then took the lead 4-3 with two goals 58 seconds apart by Rebecca Johnston (who scored a hat trick) and Natalie Spooner --- the latter on a wraparound with 18 minutes left.

The key reason was not taking full advantage of a string of power-play chances, with the U.S. succeeding on only two of 10 opportunities — both in the first period, when goals by Hilary Knight and Brianna Decker erased an early 1-0 deficit and put Stauber's squad up 2-1.

For a stretch of the first period, however, the power play was clicking.

Knight one-timed a shot through the pads of Canada goalie Shannon Szabados, who

Megan Keller (right) of the U.S. moves the puck behind Canada's Blayre Turnbull during Saturday's game at USA lockey Arena. Keller is from Farmington came on just nine minutes into the game after a hard shot injured starter Ann-Renee Desbiens. Assisting on the goal were twin sisters Monique and Jocelyne Lamoureux, two of 13 players in this game who com-peted for the U.S. in the 2014 Olympic Winter Games.

Jocelyne Lamoureux also helped set up the second goal, ripping a shot that Szabados blocked but could not control. Decker veered in and chipped the rebound over the goalie's right pad with 2:37 left in the opening period.

Need to jell

After that, the U.S. could not find the mark - twice being thwarted on lengthy five-onthree opportunities — although Szabados benefited from thirdperiod shots hitting the crossbar and post

When you have five-onthrees, we got to find a way to bury one," Jocelyne Lamoureux said. "And I think we're just focusing on getting better every game.

"We just had camp, so we weren't playing together as a unit, but that's no excuse. With five-on-threes, you got to find a way to score.'

Decker's second goal made it 3-1 with about 15 minutes left in the middle period to give the many young fans a chance to wave their flags.

Canada started its comeback when Jillian Saulnier intercepted a bad clearing pass in the U.S. zone and snapped a shot from the left circle over the glove of goalie Alex Rigsby (17 saves) with 10:08 left in the period.

Despite Canada's two goals early in the third, the U.S. cheering section remained loud and hopeful.

The equalizer never came, although Decker took a feed from Monique Lamoureux and wired one off the crossbar. With "U-S-A" chants still filling the air, Stauber pulled his goalie in the final 90 seconds. Johnston finally sealed Canada's win with an empty-netter at 19:27

Although disappointed with the outcome, Keller said the game itself was everything she thought it would be.

"It was an awesome atmos-phere out there," said Keller, 20, a North Farmington graduate who made the roster following a week-long training camp. "To be able to come back to my hometown and be able to play with Team USA, a bunch of great players out there and one of the biggest rivalries in women's hockey, it was something special to experience here in Plymouth.'

According to Mathews, 14, who lives in Oak Park, she was "hyped" to soak it all in, sharing a unique event with her teammates.

The environment inside the arena was something to cherish, but she also just loves hanging out with her friends.

from each of those groups stood on the red line for the Canadian and U.S. national anthems. Among them was Plymouth's Carly Carpenter, 10, of the Honeybaked 10U squad.

"It's really cool for those girls to be out there, on the ice standing right next to their heroes for the anthem," said Carly's dad Larry Carpenter (also coach of the Honeybaked 14U team, which includes two other daughters, Julia and Jenna.)

He said his team played earlier Saturday at the Beck Road arena and had the chance to see Keller and other U.S players during pregame activities

"Our girls were coming out (of their room) and the U.S. Women's Team was going from entire Plymouth-Canton-Salem Penguins high school girls team took the game in.

Senior Alexis Pheeney smiled about the growing anticipation for the rivalry game. "It's pretty cool, to be able to watch girls, some of them our age, playing at this level of hockey, knowing that we could do it, too," she said.

They agreed that the U.S.-Canada game had a chance to make a big impact on younger girls playing the game — or considering it as an athletic pursuit.

"I'm really excited. It's such a great opportunity to get to watch all these girls who are so good at what they do," sophomore Grace Balch said before the contest. "And to be inspired by how far they've come in this sport, how far we could go if we really want to.'

Sophomore Brooke Gauthier said she was "really excited to see our role models growing up, girls who play hockey. I like to see them play at a higher, fast pace.'

Piper Keranen, another sophomore, said being there with her team made it a fun day, no matter what happened in the game. She added that the event itself is "really important and exciting" for girls and women's hockey.

Concurring was Penguins junior Paige Sweet.

"It gives us a chance to see people who have put in a lot of dedication and time into their game, to see how they play," Sweet said. "It's exciting. And I get to hang out with my team, so that's fun."

A few minutes later, the Penguins settled down into their section with the rest of the team and listened to the national anthems beautifully sung by Northville High School senior Carly Bins.

The way the entire day played out (other than the final score, of course) was something to sing about.

Chiefs' balanced attack rolls over Franklin

Good defense sparks Stevenson to victory

Tim Smith hometownlife.com

There was little about which Canton varsity girls basketball coach Rob Heitmeyer could complain after his team thumped visiting Livonia Franklin, 68-20.

On parent night before the KLAA South Division opener at the Canton gymnasium, parents received balloons, flowers and photos. And then they received perhaps the best gift of all, 32 minutes of excellence from the Chiefs, who built a 33-7 halftime lead.

Leading the way with 11 points was senior Erin Hult, with Brianna Finn and Shamya Butler (nine points each) and Madison Wolfbauer (eight points) all helping foil the Patriots

"We had balanced scoring with eight players scoring five or more," Heitmeyer said. "And we limited our turnovers to 10, so that was a positive.'

Also chipping in for Canton (5-1, 1-0) were Carli Vaughn (eight points), Samantha Mattern and Ashley Criscenti (six points each). Criscenti led the team with five assists, while Wolfbauer and Raquel Church both grabbed six rebounds.

Franklin (0-5, 0-1) was led by Brooke Garbarino, who scored seven points. Adding three for the Patriots was Sydney Stress-

Stevenson hangs on

In a low-scoring game Tuesday night, Livonia Stevenson defeated South Lyon East 28-25 to open KLAA Central Division play.

created a lot of turnovers, not necessarily with steals, but with good pressure and making them push the ball.'

Sarah Tanderys (nine points), Grace Lamerson (six points, seven rebounds, six blocks), Elisa Lebron (six points, five boards) and Diane Senkowski (five points, five boards, five assists) all contributed to the victory as Stevenson improved to 5-1 overall and 1-0 in the division.

RU whips Trojans

Haley Hebner scored a game-high 16 points Tuesday as host Redford Union (3-2, 1-0) opened Western Wayne Athletic Conference Red Division play with a 53-11 triumph over Livonia Clarenceville (1-4, 0-1). Johnnae Steele added 10 points for the Panthers, who led 36-7 at the half.

Myla Hoskins-King scored four for the Trojans.

Garden City edged

Despite 16 points from Kayley Hewer, 10 from Brittany Radtke and nine from Aleea Montgomery, the host Cougars could not overcome a slow start, falling 55-42 to Dearborn Fordson.

The Tractors went up 16-5 after one quarter. Although the Cougars chipped away, they could not dig out of that hole. It was 25-18 at halftime and 41-32 after three.

Garden City made 7-of-19 free-throw tries, while Fordson hit 9-of-17.

Thurston triumphs

On Tuesday, Megan Abela scored a team-best 14 points to lead Redford Thurston (4-2, 1-0) to a 44-27 WWAC Red Division victory over Dearborn Heights Annapolis (1-5, 0-1).

The Eagles, who led 26-12 at halftime, also got nine points from Naudia Jackson and eight apiece from Bryanna Burton and Gillian Drake. Julia Blevins led the Cougars with six points.

Eagles fly, 39-15

Plymouth Christian Academy improved to 4-1 overall with Tuesday's 39-15 victory over MIAC rival Southfield Christian.

Robin Albert keyed the win with 10 points and nine rebounds, while Lydia Chapel (nine points, nine boards) and Aliyah Pries (five points, nine rebounds, three steals) also had solid games.

"Our defense did a great job rebounding the basketball and stepping into passing lanes,' PCA head coach Rod Windle said. "Robin Albert did a great job of leading the team at both ends of the floor.'

The Eagles led 10-2 after one quarter and padded that edge to 21-7 at halftime.

could not make the shot that would have made the final 30 seconds or so much closer.

"We're learning how to win. We're learning who we are, first-year Franklin coach Jon Djokaj said. "I've thrown a lot at them offensively and defensively. We're trying to figure out what we're good at and what we want to do in situations like that.

"We'll get better as the season goes on but, yeah, you got to xecute plays down the stretch. I felt we got some good looks, but credit to them, they did a nice job of taking away our primary options on a lot of plays. Reddy said a big factor in the Chiefs' victory was the strong defense played by junior forward Noah Brown in the second half against the 6-8 Mettie who scored 14 of his 16 points before the intermission, when Franklin enjoyed a 21-16 edge. "Noah Brown is a really good defender; he can shut a lot of people down," Reddy said. "I don't know if shutdown's the right word, but we held (Mettie) in check.' Franklin fell behind 13-7 after one quarter, but turned things around thanks to Mettie's hot hand in the second. He drained a trey from beyond the top of the arc to cut Canton's lead to 13-12 and, later in the quarter, hit another triple to put the Pats in front 19-16 with 1:30 remaining. Before the final buzzer, Mettie went to the rim and hit a high-glasser to pad the Franklin lead.

possession of a 50/50 ball. However, Franklin missed a field-goal try that would have tied the game and the Chiefs came back with buckets by Meredith and junior guard Eian Barker (seven points), the latter hitting a 3-pointer from the left corner to open up a 40-33 spread.

Also helping the Chiefs was senior guard Jake Cesarz, with eight points. Cantrell scored six points (all in the fourth) for the Patriots, while Mettie augmented his scoring with eight rebounds.

30 points was the difference Tuesday as host Dearborn Edsel Ford (2-3, 1-0) opened Western Wayne Athletic Conference Blue Division play with a 62-57 victory over Redford Thurston (2-2, 0-1). Malik Hill scored 15 points for the Eagles, who overcame a 39-23 halftime lead by outscoring the Thunderbirds 23-11 in the third quarter to pull within

Also stepping up was sophomore guard B. Artis White, who connected on a runner through the lane to snap a 25-25 tie and later buried a trey to put Canton in front, 33-29. White finished with seven points.

"(White) was really good in the second half," Reddy said. "He did a better job of getting his hands ready to shoot and knocked them down in the third quarter, for sure.<sup>3</sup>

A nifty baseline jumper by Franklin's Keyon Brown (nine points) sliced the Canton advantage to 35-33 with 6:41 to play before the Patriots gained Thunderbirds 23-11 in the third quarter to pull within five, 50-46. But Thurston couldn't get over the hump. "I thought Edsel Ford took it to us early," Thurston coach Brian Bates said. "They were ready to play. They deserved to win the game. They executed on both sides of the floor. They short the ball well the first half and got out to a big lead. DEARBORN 65, GARDEN CITY 45: Host Dearborn took care of the Cougars in Tuesday night's WWAC match-up. Scoring 13 points for Garden City was Brad Russell, with Avery Emerson adding nine.

Larkins said the team is also being bolstered by an influx of freshmen. namely Eric Foor, Stephan Freitag and Joseph Rosato.

"Eric Foor, I don't know what his 200 freestyle was before, but he had to at least drop two seconds," Larkins said. "I think the first time he broke two minutes was at the Brighton meet (1:58) and the next day, at the Plymouth Wildcat meet, he went a 1:57 in the relay.

"He's really improving. He's enjoying every single bit of it. Every time I say to fix this stroke. work this technique, he does it."

Freitag is "really working hard, too. Stephan has just been phenomenal at what he's been doing (with) his breaststroke, his technique, his paces."

According to Larkins, it is great to see his new team already making strides.

"I bring a different approach to the whole team," Larkins said. "I'm very much a family man and this is my family. I treat them like family, I treat them with love and respect.

"I really work one-onone on them. I've probably worked one-on-one with these guys more times than I count by now.

And every single one of them has improved in drills, times. Their strokes look phenomenal now. It might just be a variety of coach, a variety of practices. I'm not 100percent sure, but this year it seems to be clicking.

Brad Emons hometownlife.con

The Novi Detroit Catholic Central bowling team braved a snowstorm recently to earn a third-place finish Dec. 11 at the 20-team Pinconning Invitational at Monitor Lanes.

The Shamrocks got off to a hot start in the qualifying rounds, which consisted of six Baker games, highlighted by a 212 and 245, followed by three regular games to wind up fourth overall.

In the elimination round, CC defeated fifth-seed St. Charles in the best-of-three quarterfinals by winning both Baker sets before falling to top seed Hartland in the semifinals, where the Shamrocks won the first Baker before losing the next two by two and 12 pins, respectively.

Among the individual leaders for the Shamrocks was Andrew Lack, who rolled a 638 three-game series, highlighted by games of 221 and 244.

Other high individual games for CC were posted by Jaden Thomas (237), Nathan Geddes (218), Alex Roelant (214) and Joe Jessop (213).

Salem tops Novi

The Salem boys and girls bowling teams bothh registered a 28-2 win Monday over Novi

For the boys, captains Ryan Gonya (223, 195 games) and Mitchell Rusinek (200 game) led the way. Also strong were Brendan Kwapis (204, 191) and Alex Mattson (187, 192).

In the girls contest, captain Leah Boucha's 170 and 168 games sparked the Rocks, with other outstanding performances turned in by Emily Zach (191) and Morgan Zach (161).

Westland John Glenn's wrestling program flexed its muscle at Saturday's Wayne County Championships, hosted by Wyandotte Roosevelt.

With a quartet of county champions leading the way, the Rockets easily topped the 21team field in the varsity competition with 214 points. Second-place Woodhaven trailed with 169.5 points. Winning championships for head coach Bill Polk were Mike Mars (119 pounds), Isaac Lefler (125), Anthony Gibson (135) and John Siemasz (145).

The list of champions could have been longer, with Caleb Meekins (119), Lional Cornish (189) and JaWuan Peete (285) all losing in the final in their respective weight classes.

It was the same story in the junior varsity meet, with John Glenn's 224.5 points besting Livonia Franklin (142), Livonia Stevenson (140) and Salem (101.5).

Pacing the JV Rockets were first-place finishers Brandon McCollum, Anthony Hudson, Cole Bagwell and Brandon Careathers.

Cornish was pinned in 3:40 by 189 champion Ethan Shulaw of Plymouth. Shulaw pinned every opponent, earning 24 of his team's 62 points for the day. Meanwhile, Livonia Franklin senior Nathan Atienza's long unbeaten streak (he was 58-0 in 2015-16) came to a close in the final at 152.

Atienza, who had won his first 10 bouts of this season, dropped an 8-3 decision to Dustin Gross of Dearborn Heights Annapolis.

But Atienza's teammate, Manee Willie, did prevail at 215. Willie won 11-8 over Josh Dodd of Woodhaven.

Among other Observerland teams, Franklin placed fifth with 110.5 points, Canton was eighth (90) and Wayne Memorial was 10th (73).

Plymouth (tied for 12th with 62 points), Salem (14th, 50) and Livonia Churchill (15th, 49) rounded out other area teams.

Several area wrestlers distinguished themselves by reaching the final in their weight class.

Canton's Justin Winnie was brought down in 1:43 by John Glenn's Gibson at 135; Salem's Bruce Haslitt lost 9-1 to Woodhaven's Hunter Grasso at 160.

The Plymouth Cultural Center was rocking Saturday night as KLAA South Division varsity boys hockey rivals Plymouth and Salem got after it before a jam-packed crowd.

Thanks to some clutch goalkeeping by Wildcats junior Brendan Olepa, events, scored 343 points in the all-relay format. The Mustangs were 17 points better than runner-up Chelsea (326).

Rounding out the eightschool field were the host Rocks (290), South Lyon Unified (280), Plymouth (253), Hartland (241), Livonia Churchill (240), Dearborn (188) and Dearborn Edsel Ford,

"It was a fun meet for the guys. We had some decent swims," Northville coach Rich Bennetts said. 'I'm looking forward to the holiday training period, so we can focus on creating good habits for the remainder of the season. We are still getting way too tired at the end of meets and that is something we will have to improve on.'

After Chelsea took the 400 freestyle relay (3:25.77), Northville's 400-yard medley team of Arthur Greenlee, Travis Nitkiewicz, Trevor Degroot and Cameron Heaven got things going in the right direction with a firstplace time of 3:47.45.

The Northville foursome of Greenlee, John Duan, Ali Pazooki and Kirk Maibach placed first in the 200 backstroke relay (1:45.59), while the quartet of Nikolai Arton, Jiang, Roman Grossi and Travis Nitkiewicz captured the 200 breaststroke relay (1:58.97).

"I saw some good energy from the boys for most of the meet," Bennetts said. "It is always nice to win, but we really have a long way to go to be any good. It's just going to take a lot of old-fashioned hard work, but this team can get there. I don't know why we always want to take the path of most resistance, but we can get there."

Salem closed the meet by winning the 500 crescendo relay (4:26.25), while Chelsea was first in the 200 medley and 200 freestyle relays in 1:43.03 and 1:32.69, respectively

South Lyon's best finish came in the 400 medley, with Logan Boals, Christian Etnyre, Nick Finn and Max Topping taking second (4:03.30).

Plymouth escaped with a 4-2 victory over the Rocks.

After Salem's Colin Goleniak scored a power-play goal in the first minute of the third that cut Plymouth's lead to 3-2, Olepa stood tall to prevent the equalizer.

Adding an empty-netter with three seconds to go was Tim Baldwin (his second goal of the game; he also had an assist).

"I was really impressed with (Olepa's) composure in the Salem game,' Plymouth head coach Gerry Vento said. "That's always a nerve-wracking game, it's intense. But the saves he was making, he made them look easy."

Olepa made 25 saves and Vento said "they outshot us and for long stretches they outplayed us.'

Making 15 saves for Salem was Tristan Rehling. The Rocks (2-5-1, 2-2-1) took a 1-0 lead midway through the first on Matthew Schaumburger's goal (from Tyler German and Goleniak).

Baldwin — who scored Plymouth's OT winner Dec. 9 against Northville - then helped set up the equalizer, by Nick Yankee at 15:04 of the period. Jack Chumley also assisted.

Plymouth scored again with just 11 seconds left in the period, with Baldwin firing one past Rehling. Assisting were Chumley and Graham Sheehan.

The lone goal of the middle period was scored at 9:40, with junior C.J Mullenax taking a feed from Zachary Gallaher and finding the mark.

But the Rocks came out charging in the third, scoring early on and having another goal disallowed.

After Wednesday's game against South Lyon, Plymouth will face Canton at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 28 at Arctic Edge, following a Plymouth alumni contest.

On Friday, also at Plymouth Cultural Center, Salem earned a 1-0 victory over Canton.

Stopping nine shots for the shutout was Salem's Matt Visel.

The lone goal of the KLAA South match-up was scored in the third period by Logan Sowa. Setting up the goal were German and Alex Schaumburger.

Salem will next face the Bay City Reps on Dec. 28 at the Traverse City Central Tournament.

David Sofran's tenure as Brother Rice's football head coach lasted three years.

Brother Rice school officials announced Friday afternoon that Sofran will not return for the Warriors next season

"We truly appreciate all of the contributions coach Sofran has made to Brother Rice during his three years as head coach, which followed his many years as an assistant coach and as a player," Rice Athletic Director Jeff Calcaterra said.

Sofran was named head coach for the 2014 football season following the retirement of the legendary Al Fracassa.

The Warriors posted a 20-12 overall record during that time, including a sparkling 11-1 mark and a trip to the Division 2 regional championship game in his first season.

After missing the playoffs in 2015 (2-7), Rice regrouped this past season and finished with a 7-4 overall record and a return appearance in the state playoffs.

Rice's season ended with a 24-0 loss to Birmingham Groves in the Division 2 district championship game. "The long-term vision of our football program embodies the values of Brother Rice High School and our commitment to academic and athletic excellence. Calcaterra said. "We strive to develop our student-athletes and consistently place our program among the top in Michigan."

Sofran wll remain on the staff as associate athletic director for this academic year. Administrators plan to soon begin a search for a new head coach.

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the
